

Unmasked Men Hold Up Bank, Get $35,000

Staff Forced To Lie On Floor, Cashier Opens Cash Vault

WALTERS, Okla., Aug. 8 (AP) — A band of five unmasked men held up the bank of Walters today and fled with cash loot estimated by Cashier E. H. Minton at $35,000.

Minton said all of the men were armed.

No shots were fired. The cashier said three of the men entered the bank about 10:30 a. m. (Central Standard Time) and forced the bank's staff and one customer to lie on the floor.

Then the leader, at pistol point, forced Minton to open the bank's vault, the cashier added.

The three men in the bank, described by Minton as cool hands, then scooped up the cash in the vault and on the bank counters and dashed outside.

Waiting outside the bank were the other two bandits. The three joined them and sped away in an automobile bearing Oklahoma license tag 64281, Minton added.

The cashier said the only man he could describe was a middle-aged man who acted as leader of the gang. He said the man was about five feet nine inches tall and was dark complexioned and of study build.

Sheriff's deputies, state highway patrolmen and local peace officers were notified and immediately organized a posse.

Walters is in southern Oklahoma, not far from the Texas border.

Legal Action Brewing Against Gambling Ship

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8 (AP) — Dist. Atty. Fred Hower announced last night that he would take immediate legal action, probably today, to halt operation of Tony Cornero's gambling ship Bunker Hill.

He did not disclose the nature of the action but his assistant, Charles Stratton, told newsmen: "Clerical work is in progress and complaints are being drawn. The warrants will be turned over to Sheriff Eugene W. Biscailuz. We hope to have the legal documents in readiness some time Thursday (today) afternoon."

Cornero's gaming casino, anchored about eight miles off Long Beach, drew throngs of chance takers for its opening Tuesday night and since that time water taxis have shuttled busily back and forth for the accommodation of patrons.

The Bunker Hill's operator has repeatedly declared that he is outside the state and county jurisdiction and that any attempts to close him down would constitute "piracy."

The district attorney's intentions were made known following a lengthy conference of county and Long Beach law enforcement officers. The district attorney's men have been studying several court decisions, one of which holds that all of San Pedro Bay, including the location of the Bunker Hill, is within the state's jurisdiction.

Negro Educators Meet In Austin

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP) — Dr. Joseph J. Rhoads, negro president of Bishop College at Marshall, declared at a statewide hearing here today that qualified negro students may not be restricted to a given branch of the University of Texas if such abridges their right of equal participation in the state's total program of higher education.

He read the statement as part of a committee report approved by the Texas Council of Negro Organizations for presentation before Gov. Coke R. Stevenson's bicentennial commission on the higher education of negroes in Texas.

The commission met at 10 a. m. today in the house of representatives to hear the views of negroes from the state as to what they want in the proposed state university for negroes and where they want it located.

Freeze In Montana

BOZEMAN, Mont., Aug. 8 (AP) — A weather record of more than 50 years standing went down early this morning when the temperature dropped to 33 and frost nipped several gardens in this area.

Earth Tremors Again

PONCE, Puerto Rico, Aug. 8 (AP) — A new earth tremor at 9:25 a. m. today sent children hurrying from their classrooms. No damage was reported. The tremors have been recurring in this Caribbean area since Sunday.

NAVY DEPARTMENT
OFFICE OF THE CHIEF OF NAVAL OPERATIONS
Washington 25, D. C.
2 August 1946

Dear Mr. Van Cronkhite:

Regret to inform you that there was a slight error in the publicity I received relative to the long swim in Bikini Lagoon. When you learn that I was actually on board a transport far from the big boom, I fear you will want to retract your cordial invitation. Anyway why not use a "ringer" and save all your transportation costs.

If all you want is a pig, use one bred in Texas -- he might not be able to swim, but would no doubt be in better shape to enjoy the festivities of "Air Day in Texas." I am really tired of all this publicity and want to go home to mother.

Kindest personal regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,
PFC No. 311

Mr. John Van Cronkhite,
Hartlingen, Texas

Cwn

P.S. I am probably an "it."

"LETTER" FROM BIKINI PIG 311—Director John Van Cronkhite of Hartlingen, Texas, "Air Day in Texas" celebration invited the Navy's Admiral Chester W. Nimitz to send Pig 311 of the Bikini atom bomb test to Hartlingen to demonstrate his swimming ability at the air event Sept. 7. In reply Van Cronkhite received the letter above, signed by a drawing of a pig, and bearing the initials "C.W.N."

City Dads Study Housing Situation

Steps toward clarifying the matter of custody of buildings at the Big Spring army flying field, and of furthering emergency housing relief for veterans were taken by city commissioners in a special meeting Wednesday afternoon.

Some time back, the Federal Public Housing Authority had approved the granting of 11 airport structures for conversion into 32 two-bedroom housing units, the FPFA to handle conversion cost and to make the units available to veterans' families at a nominal rental fee, slightly more than $30. However this project was cancelled when FPFA held that a vacancy ratio in Ellis Homes indicated insufficient demand for emergency housing.

At the city's insistence, FPFA has now agreed to reconsider, and the commission Wednesday directed Manager B. J. McDaniel to push action to get this project through. It is being pointed out that vacancies in Ellis Homes largely are small "efficiency-type" apartments that cannot accommodate more than a couple, that the larger units are in demand.

The city expects to show a demand for the new units, and officials said if veterans understood that two-bedroom units at such nominal rental might become available there would be many applications. These apartments would be completely furnished, with automatic refrigeration, and also will have natural gas supplied.

Veterans who would be interested in such housing were advised to contact John Bronson, manager of the Ellis Homes project.

Meanwhile, the commission also voted to arrange for acquisition of 198 other buildings at the field under another arrangement. These will be turned over by the Army Engineers to McDaniel who is acting as special agent for the FPFA, and the FPFA will make the buildings available to the city. There are some restrictions in this transfer, however, including one that conversions would be made at city expense. The commission felt that the city should acquire the buildings, to lay a foundation for future disposal.

A large block of buildings was set aside for use of the Howard County Junior college, which has its own application before the War Assets Administration for the structures to house the institution temporarily. The college unit includes all the post hospital area, and now is being broadened to include the former WAC barracks and the officers' quarters. Representatives of the college—R. T. Piner, P. W. Malone and Otis Graft—were before the commission Wednesday, and asserted that if an anticipated heavy enrollment of veterans materializes, the additional quarters will be necessary to house them. Housing also must be provided for faculty members.

Father Divine Weds Comely Blonde; Tells Followers It's In Name Only

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 8 (AP) — Father Divine, self-styled "God" and negro evangelist who assumed the mantle of immortality in 1932 as the leader of a religious cult, married a beautiful, blonde 21-year-old white girl from Montreal last April 29 but he tells shrieking followers it's "in name only."

The marriage to Miss Edna Rose Ritchings in the Washington home of the Rev. Albert L. Shadd, negro Baptist minister, was revealed yesterday.

Divine entertained members of his cult at a wedding banquet here last night and told the chanting, shrieking guests that his late first wife—mother Divine—had approved the marriage.

License records show that Divine gave his age as 41.

Divine insisted that he placed the spirit of his first wife—described as "an Aunt Jemima-like woman"—in the person of his second wife and then shouted that the new marriage, like the old one, was "in name only."

The new wife, better known among followers of the cult in Montreal by her spiritual name of "Sweet Angel," formerly worked in a costume jewelry establishment in the Canadian city.

Mrs. Divine sat unmoved at the wedding banquet occasionally murmuring aloud the words "Peace." ("Peace, it's Wonderful" is the motto of her husband's cult.)

The marriage was disclosed in the New Day, newspaper published by the divine cult. It contained the wedding speech made by the bride and comments by Father Divine himself at a gathering at the Circle Mission church—cult headquarters—here on July 28.

Said the bride then: "At this time I would like to publicly thank FATHER for his great Blessing and Honor of legally marrying the Lamb of God! It is something that I never dreamed of and I know you never dreamed of."

"Father dear, because I know You Are God, I redeclare, as I have vowed and solemnly sworn, not to bind YOU as a woman would a natural man, but I free YOU to love and bless whomever YOU desire to bless, and when and wheresoever, for it is my heart's desire and pleasure to see YOUR kingdom come on earth, and to see everybody as happy as I am, if I have chosen."

"For as YOU have chosen ME to reign with YOU, I thank YOU to always be pleasing in your sight and a fit sample and example of the Virginity of Mary!"

Files Raided To Forestall Munitions Probe

Expert Help Given Mead Committee To Aid Expose

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP) — A daring attempt to forestall the Garsson munitions combine expose was disclosed officially today with a senate war, investigating committee announcement that it has the names of the "individuals" involved.

The committee formally set FBI agents on the trail of the prowler who looted its secret files months ago of documents collected for the inquiry.

Simultaneously, the committee obtained a promise of new expert assistance in its search for wartime fraud and anti-profiteering loopholes as another in a series of developments which included:

1. Official disclosure that some of the committee's documents—including details of the operations of Erie Basin and Batavia Metal Products companies, two of the concerns in the combine—have been missing since last fall.

2. Promise by Comptroller General Lindsay Warren to lend the committee two of his "ablest" auditors to go behind the figures in complicated war contracts.

3. An offer by Warren to supply "examples" of weaknesses in government procurement uncovered in its audits of war contracts.

4. Statement by Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) that there should be a general investigation of war profits by "corporate giants" with the claim that it would "lead to the steel, rail, motor and power monopolies and to the National Association of Manufacturers and the US Chamber of Commerce."

This came after shipbuilder Henry J. Kaiser said he was "eager" for an inquiry into his wartime operations.

Texas Pensions To Be Raised

AUSTIN, Aug. 8 (AP) — Gov. Coke Stevenson said today a new system of federal matching of state funds will more than restore recent cuts in Texas old age pensions by Oct. 1 or sooner.

Reductions in old age pensions have been increasing monthly since April to a total cut this month in each check of $2.30 below the authorized grant.

The new federal matching plan will pay two-thirds of each old age payment up to $15 and half of the payment beyond that limit up to a maximum $45 grant, the governor said.

The old plan has matched state funds on a 50-50 basis for all payments.

The governor noted that the maximum pension in Texas will become $45 now rather than the $40. The state's share in the pension is limited by the constitution to $20 and the new federal share will add a maximum of $25.

Chaplain Decries Gross Immorality

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 8 (AP) — A returned chaplain declared at the international convention of the Disciples of Christ today that the "church has lost the common people, and her voice has become a strange song in our land." The chaplain, Jackson Jarman of Mexico, Mo., said that as a result there existed "Gross immorality, but amply evident there."

"Among chaplains whom I personally know who served overseas," Jarman said, "there is general agreement that at least half of the men had extra-marital relations whenever opportunity came."

The wonder is not that there is so much immorality," he continued, "but that there is so little, considering how little religious nurture has been given."

Parley Peace Disrupted: Molotov Reopens Voting

School Board Agrees To Open Budget Hearing

Public hearing on a proposed school budget may be held on Aug. 21, the Big Spring Independent School district board of trustees agreed Wednesday.

Members scanned proposed allocations by W. C. Blankenship, superintendent but made no decisions on major policies except to take steps toward increasing supervisory aid.

In this connection, Donald McDonald, Beeville, was elected to be supervisor of elementary education at a salary of $3,300. McDonald holds a masters degree in the field of elementary education and is working toward his doctor's degree at Peabody college. All of his six years experience have been in executive or supervisory capacity in elementary education.

Prospects are that the schools' budget will exceed $300,000, but whether any further salary adjustments will be possible was not clear pending a further study of expenses and anticipated revenues.

The board elected Ruth Smith and Mrs. Norman Spencer as teachers subject to assignment. No recommendation was made as to an assistant high school principal, but this likely will be before the board on Aug. 21.

The superintendent was instructed to work out a girls' athletic program for recommendation to the board. Definite policies regarding it will be considered by the board.

Authorization was given for purchase of necessary paint for the stadium painting project. Repairs will be started at the stadium this week.

Approval was the payment for pavement on Shepherd's Lane (west of high school) from 10th to Eleventh Place and from Runnels on Eleventh Place west to Shepherd's Lane.

Blankenship reported on progress of efforts to secure teacher replacements, a slow and difficult matter at best, he said. Other administrative matters were discussed.

Attending were George White, president, R. L. Tollett, Dewey Martin, Justin Holmes, Ira Thurman and the superintendent. The meeting was held at the Settles.

Panay Incident Opened At Trial

TOKYO, Aug. 8 (AP) — The controversy over the 1937 sinking of the United States Gunboat Panay by Japanese planes during the siege of Nanking was reopened today despite protests of defense counsel for Hideki Tojo and 26 other accused war criminals.

"This incident was settled between the two governments and I do not believe it proper to reopen it here," objected George Yamamoto of New York City, defense attorney.

"But that was two nations; here we are 11," retorted the international tribunal president, Sir William Webb of Australia.

"Japan agreed to indemnify the United States for loss of property and life and to see such an incident did not happen again," persisted Yamamoto.

High Scores, Low Times, Wild, Vicious Stock Mark Rodeo Opening

High scores and low times were hard earned at the 13th annual Big Spring Rodeo's opening performance Wednesday night as wild stock proved out in stamina and viciousness.

Nevertheless, Louis Brooks of Sweetwater, champion bareback bronc rider, managed to set the pace in that attraction, riding a stubborn animal tagged Ridge Runner No. 9. In second place for the night was Paul Gould, also of Sweetwater, while Red Wilmer, another Nolan county product, was third and Bo Chesson of Fort Worth fourth.

In the professional calf roping Ted Powers of San Angelo established low time for the first go-around with 14.7 seconds. Jack Strickland of Abilene with 18.5 placed second, and Earl Teague of Crane with 20.5 was third. Ray Wharton of Bandera missed with his first loop, but flashed out a second rope in time to place fourth with 20.7 seconds.

City Goes Western For Huge Parade Launching Rodeo

Preceding the opening performance at the 13th annual rodeo, a true western atmosphere prevailed in the downtown parade Wednesday afternoon, as horses, cowboys and cowgirls swarmed down the streets.

Some 250 horses and riders participated in the festivities, with the line dotted occasionally with mechanical vehicles and floats sponsored by business firms.

Parade directors expressed appreciation to all who participated, especially to the Colorado City and Coahoma high school bands, which furnished march music. Both organizations made special trips here for the occasion, and Marie Kesley, director of the Coahoma band, interrupted a vacation in Texarkana in order to bring her group here.

Bevin Due At Parley Monday Morning

PARIS, Aug. 8 (AP) — An authoritative British source said today that Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin might delay his departure from London for the Paris peace conference until the end of the week, possibly arriving here Monday morning.

The fact that the debate on rules procedure has been concluded and the prospect of an limited action while the conference hears statements from five former enemy states make it likely that the ailing foreign secretary will take two days extra rest, the source said.

Pravda Prints Speech Byrnes Gave At Parley

MOSCOW, Aug. 8 (AP) — Pravda, Communist party newspaper, printed today the full text of US Secretary of State Byrnes' speech Tuesday before the rules committee of the Paris conference.

The newspaper gave the speech the most prominent position on its foreign news section, printing the text of Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's reply beneath. The two texts, along with Tass dispatches covering later conference events, occupied pages three and four.

Claims Western Powers Trying For Upper Hand

PARIS, Aug. 8 (AP) — Herbert V. Evatt, Australian minister of external affairs, told the peace conference today that Soviet foreign minister Molotov was attempting to enforce the same veto power in the conference as he enjoys in the foreign ministers council.

Evatt made a heated reply to Molotov's statement earlier today that the Australian, active in espousing the cause of small nations before the conference, was "acting to create opinion against Soviet interests."

Molotov, the fiery Australian said, "believes that his 'no' should be conclusive."

PARIS, Aug. 8 (AP) — Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov threw the conference of Paris into turmoil today by reopening the once-settled question of voting procedure and declaring the Russian delegation "cannot agree" to a rules committee decision on the question.

Molotov renewed charges that Britain and the United States had repudiated decisions agreed to in the foreign ministers council and accused Herbert V. Evatt, Australian minister of external affairs who has led the fight for the small nations in the conference, with "acting to create opinion against Soviet interests."

The Soviet statesman renewed his attack on the press, asserting he had read in Paris papers an interpretation of the rules committee decision which said "the western powers have won the upper hand over the USSR."

"The Soviet Union believes that it is not the purpose of the peace conference that one or another power or bloc of power should win the upper hand over the USSR or any other power," he said.

Molotov's action, coming after the rules had been approved in committee in turbulent and protracted sessions, threatened to prolong the conference. The meeting, after 10 days, still has not reached consideration of the draft peace treaties for Italy, Romania, Hungary, Bulgaria and Finland.

Molotov said he did not think any conference recommendation voted by less than a two-thirds majority would have much weight with the council of four principal foreign ministers.

July Rent Deposits Must Be Refunded

Landlords who collected security deposits from tenants in rent control areas during the period from July 1, 1946 to July 26, 1946, when the new price-rent control act became effective, have until Aug. 26 to refund these deposits, Robert L. Richey, area rent director for Big Spring, announced today.

Those who make refund on such deposits within 30 days will not be considered in violation of OPA rent regulations, which prohibit the demand, receipt or retention of security deposits. The 30-day period for refunds is provided for restitution for such charges which may have been made during the interim period between OPA acts.

HEIRENS ARRAIGNED IN THIRD MURDER HE HAS CONFESSED

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (AP) — William Heirens was summoned into criminal court today for arraignment on an indictment charging him with his third murder—one of the three slayings of the 17 year old university student already has confessed.

His scheduled arraignment was on an indictment returned yesterday by the grand jury for the murder on June 3, 1945, of Mrs. Josephine Ross, 43 year old widow. The indictment was returned a few hours after the University of Chicago sophomore had signed statements admitting the slaying of Mrs. Ross as well as two other brutal murders, and more than a score of burglaries, robberies, assaults and shootings.

Last week Heirens' arraignment on indictments on the other two murders he confessed on Tuesday was continued to Aug. 14. These were the kidnapping, strangling and dismemberment of Suzanne Degnan, 6, last Jan. 7, and the shooting and stabbing of Miss Frances Brown, 33 year old former Wave, last Dec. 10.

In his statements, Heirens said he was impelled to commit crimes by a sexual urge and he thus obtained sexual satisfaction.

State's Attorney William J. Tuohy said that he would not object if defense attorneys enter pleas to all three indictments today.

Heirens' lawyers declined to say what action they would take, but it has been reported that if and when guilty pleas are entered Tuohy is expected to recommend consecutive sentences of life imprisonment.

Grandstands Bulge With Excited Rodeo Fans Attending Opening Performance

A spectacular wild west show, studded with plenty of events, hair raising performances and pretty young cowgirls, was presented at the Big Spring rodeo grounds Wednesday evening, and in hand to usher in the first rodeo-time exhibition in several years was a packed grandstand of enthusiastic fans.

The stands were bulging long before starting time and late comers were forced to crowd into positions at the east end of the arena.

Hardly able to sustain his excitement for the show to get underway was two-year-old R. P. PATTERSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. MORRIS PATTERSON, who looked his small nose through the arena fence.

The first dynamic performance that tossed his rider better shelter across the arena brought R. P. PATTERSON, son of Mr. and Mrs. MORRIS PATTERSON, who looked his small nose through the arena fence.

Noticed EARL WEAVER sitting in on the opening performance with friends. She looked very nice in a black and white ensemble, touched off with a tiny skull cap. White buttons forming small diamonds, carried out her color scheme on the hat.

MR. and MRS. WARD HALL were there with friends, and had quite a time balancing dripping snow cones and programs, what with jumping up to see cowhands blasted from their mounts.

It was interesting to note that the 13 girls who appeared in the show last night chose their riding outfits with care. Not much fringe and braid were in evidence and the majority wore sleek, well fitted riding habits.

LOUISE ANN BENNETT, contestant in the flag race, wore a natty blue riding habit while JAN DICKERSON, also of Big Spring, chose a black and white riding outfit for the performance.

A Big Spring rodeo wouldn't be complete without MRS. OVA MAE EDWARDS and her two daughters, MRS. TOOTS MANSFIELD and MRS. DAN TAYLOR. The girls did not ride in the opening show, but watched with rapt attention every detail of the events.

Noticed that MRS. MANSFIELD watched anxiously as her husband raced after his calf in the roping event and maneuvered him back to the beaten path after the critter veered and capered along the fence.

MRS. EVA PYEATT sat with MR. and MRS. LOY GULLEY and both women looked particularly nice last evening. MRS. PYEATT wore a black and red band around her hair that matched the stripes in her dress. MRS. GULLEY was attired in a cool melon colored dress.

Bobby-soxers had a wonderful opportunity to display their blue jeans to good advantage, even though shirts and pants legs were rolled to half mast.

Saw HELEN BLOUNT dressed for the occasion with a brilliant red shirt, jeans and cowboy hat.

JULIA MAE COCHRAN, sighted as she hunted for a better seat, wore tan breeches, a plaid shirt and a cowboy hat that had just the right roll for that western look.

Among young couples seen at a glance were CHARLENE PINKSTON and ELL McCOMB and CAMILLE INKMAN and JACK RIGGS. CAMILLE was wearing a soft pink-striped dress that looked very fetching with her complexion and pretty blond hair.

Everyone applauded IKE TACKER, the clown, for his prowess in distracting the attention of snorting, ferocious bulls in the last riding event. Twice it looked as if he saved riders from being trampled.

Chatting outside the stands after the show were MR. and MRS. PAT STASEY and MR. and MRS. VERNON BAIRD.

Searching for their parked automobiles like everyone else were the T. S. CURRIES and the JIMMIE GREENES.

It seemed that everyone had the same idea in leaving the rodeo grounds. All waited patiently for the cars to thin out and no one moved. Then all at once every car headed straight for the small road that led on to Eleventh Place.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablepoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloated disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Those attending were Ruby Nell and Louise Burns, Janice Tubbs, Mildred Sipes, Billy Ruth Issacs, Jeanne and Linda Glover, Buddy Hill, Gary Warren, Hiram Lee Glover, and Mrs. George Hill.

RELIEVE THAT TORMENTING PIN-WORM ITCH

It is no longer necessary to get up with the trouble caused by Pin-Worms! A highly effective way to deal with this icky infection has been established. Ask your druggist for P-W, the Pin-Worm tablets developed in the laboratories of Dr. D. J. J. & Son. The small, easy-to-take P-W tablets act in a special way to remove Pin-Worms. You don't take chances with the embarrassing, itchy and other distress caused by these creatures that live inside the human body. If you suspect Pin-Worms, get JAYNE'S P-W and follow the directions. Your druggist knows P-W for Pin-Worms!

Tax Evaders Raise Collections Greatly

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The treasury estimated today its drive against black marketeers and other tax evaders had lifted fiscal 1946 tax collections $170,000,000 by joggling thousands of tax payers into "sudden recovery of memory."

A record "conscience payment" of $2,000,000 by "a certain taxpayer," his associates and his company led the parade of additional tax turn-ins, the bureau of internal revenue said.

Financial Response Assures Salvation Army Playground

Generosity of Big Spring individuals and firms has been such that installation and operation of the Salvation Army's west side playground, at Fifth and San Antonio streets, is a certainty. Capt. Olvy Sheppard of the Army has announced.

He estimates a total of more than $3,800 provided in cash, material and labor, a sum slightly more than the original estimated need. The playground, run under Salvation Army supervision, will make possible recreation facilities of varying types and for all ages of children. All equipment and courts have not been completed, but work is continuing, Capt. Sheppard said.

Principal attraction to date has been softball, and more than 2,100 registered during the past month for that sport.

In addition to the outdoor recreation facilities, the Army has opened its basement space for additional play, and this is open each week day from 1 to 5 p. m. Table tennis, various table games such as chess and checkers, etc., are open to young people.

The outdoor facility was made possible by Mrs. Dora Roberts, who provided the land at no cost. Both the city and the county gave assistance in putting the ground in readiness, etc., and several firms and individuals made contributions of labor and materials. These include Cosden Petroleum Corporation; Gary Construction company, Taylor Electric, Thomas Brothers and Texas & Pacific Railway employees.

The Junior chamber of commerce assisted the project greatly in making a canvass for funds. The Lions club took on a special part of the playground, to provide certain equipment, and this part of the work was estimated by Capt. Sheppard at $680.

The petition had asked for certification as bargaining agent for the mill's 300 employees.

Poage, Cooley, Krug To Tour In Alaska

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Interior department officials have announced that Rep. W. R. Poage of Waco, Tex., and Rep. Cooley of North Carolina, ranking members of the house agriculture committee, will accompany Secretary J. A. Krug on an Alaskan inspection trip, Aug. 11-22.

The representatives will investigate agricultural possibilities of Alaska and visit the Alaskan farm experiment station.

In Hollywood—

Danny Kaye Sure He Works Hard, Wants Vacation

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—Most of the acting folk out here suffer the delusion that they work too hard. Latest to advance this nonsense is Danny Kaye.

"I'm tired," he sighed as he rested from impersonating Walter Mitty. "For four months I've been working from eight till six without a day off."

The Brooklynite with the tinted hair may have more grounds than most of his acting brethren for complaining of overwork, what with the way he bounces around for his roles. Anyway, he always looks tired when he's not in front of the camera.

"After this picture I'm going to take a long rest," he reiterated. "Yes, I'd like to sit on my derriere and play golf all day." A novel way to play the game, but then...

However, he has almost nothing on tap for the future. He makes but picture a year for Goldwyn. He has kissed off his radio show, which never quite clicked. He has no plans for the stage and hasn't made a record in five years. His biggest project in coming months: "Chewing My Nails Until the Baby Is Born."

Mark Wentz Insurance Agency now in new location, 407 Runnels.

Class A Teams May Campaign For State Title

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 8 (AP)—Baseball will be inaugurated as an official sport by the Texas Interscholastic League next year and there is a strong possibility that class A football will be played to a state championship, R. J. Kidd, athletic director of the league, indicated at the annual meeting of the Texas High School Coaches association last night.

Kidd said a committee would report to the state advisory council on class A football in November and if acted upon favorably the question would be submitted to a referendum of the membership.

Baseball already has been recommended on a district basis by the committee named to study the plan.

Kidd sounded a warning to the coaches against all-star games, particularly during the Christmas holidays, mentioning a proposed contest at Amarillo between Texas and Oklahoma players.

The association named Harold Dement of Galena Park president and Gene McCollum of Port Neches vice-president at its annual business meeting at which P. E. Shottwell of Abilene, chairman of a committee studying prevention of injuries made a report in which he said there had been a gradual reduction in the number and severity of injuries in football.

Retiring President Bobby Cannon of Edinburg said he was quitting the coaching game at the end of this year. Cannon has been a coach for a quarter of a century.

L. W. McConachie, athletic director of the El Paso schools, extended an invitation to the association to hold its annual coaching school at El Paso in 1947 and asked the members if they favored accepting. A majority indicated they did. The site of the next school, will be decided by the board of directors probably at their January meeting. They are meeting today and will discuss a plan that would mean rotation of the school among the Southwest conference members in Texas.

But this, the year of the great drought, prospects are very dark that any of the county's farms will "make" unless a rainy spell descends upon the community and farmers can get seed for a late crop into the ground.

The government will shortly make payment of insurance to 121 Howard county land owners whose cotton crops were total losses. Others will collect on partial losses.

Eubanks Enrolls Local Prospects For Credit Class

Applications for enrollment in a special credit course are being taken by Mrs. L. A. Eubanks at the Retail Merchants association. It was announced Thursday.

The course, to be instructed by Plasco G. Moore, training specialist of the University of Texas extension division, in cooperation with the state board of vocational education, will be offered here Aug. 28-30.

Among topics to be studied in the course for those in business or in credit work are: Current and future problems in credit; credit applications, interviews, investigations and evaluation of applications; accepting applicants, store credit policies, credit sales promotion, credit letters, collection procedure.

The classes will be in five sessions for a total of 10 hours. Cost will be $1.50 per student for the series.

Persons interested in enrolling should contact Mrs. Eubanks by phone or in person.

Blind Landing Aid Considered For City Airport

A survey preliminary to establishment of an instrument landing system at the Big Spring airport is under way under auspices of the Civil Aeronautics administration, and city officials have indicated the city will meet its required portion of the improvement project.

The matter was discussed informally at Wednesday's special meeting of the commission, at which time it was learned that installation of the landing equipment might require an additional two or three acres, and the assurance that no buildings higher than 15 feet would be permitted in a certain zone near the landing area. The city would make these provisions, the CAA would supply and install all the equipment. There are only about a dozen instrument landing systems in CAA's southwest region.

The "blind landing" aid would be installed for the local port's NE-SW runway. It employs highly sensitive electronics equipment.

No Wrecks Reported In First Rodeo Day

Big Spring celebrated the annual rodeo's first night without a single automobile accident, the police department reported today. Motorists operated their vehicles safely and sanely, without exception, as far as the department could determine, Chief A. G. Mitchell said.

Speeding violations have decreased considerably during the past few days, Mitchell continued, and officers have been instructed to concentrate more on this phase of traffic ordinance enforcement in order to reduce them further. Two police cars are working on both the night and day shifts in close cooperation with the Texas Highway Patrol, he said.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Two Kentucky physicians formally advised the senate war investigating committee that Rep. May (D-Ky.) must "have an indefinite period of rest, quiet and careful attention."

Water Pressure Low During Drouth Days

The drouth records its effects continuously at the water pressure gauge at the city fire station, and current readings tell a story of lawn sprinkling and garden irrigation on a constant day by day scale.

Normally the pressure on the city water mains is 80 pounds, but the hot, dry days of recent weeks has kept the maximum under that figure on successive days.

From 6 p. m. to 9 p. m. it is not unusual now for the pressure to sink to 55 pounds, but during the night it gradually swings upward again.

Small mains cause lower pressure in certain areas, city officials have pointed out. The water department has not been able to keep pace with growth in some residential sections due to a shortage of materials.

Truman Legalizes Terminal Pay Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—President Truman today signed into law an appropriation bill carrying $2,431,708,000 for enlisted men's terminal leave pay.

The president has not yet signed the terminal leave pay legislation itself. This is on his desk for action.

The bill signed today also carries $30,000,000 for the purchase of especially-fitted automobiles for veterans who have lost their legs.

Cutters In Demand At Livestock Sale

Buyers snapped up approximately 750 head of cattle Wednesday at the Big Spring Livestock Auction company's sale, as the market on most grades gained strength after holding steady for two weeks.

A heavy demand for cutters kept the market fluctuating on a 6.50 to 10.00 range. Stocker cows and calves averaged $110 a pair, while fat bulls brought 12.75 per cwt.; fat cows 12.75; butcher yearlings 17.10; and stocker calves up to 15.70.

Hog receipts were light again, but the market was steady at 20.00 per cwt.

Cotton Insurance Boon To Dry Farms

Payments on crop failures by the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation is going to help many a Howard county farmer balance the budget this year.

Loans made by the Farm Security Administration to local land owners last spring fall due after the harvest, which ordinarily would be in late October or early November.

But this, the year of the great drought, prospects are very dark that any of the county's farms will "make" unless a rainy spell descends upon the community and farmers can get seed for a late crop into the ground.

The government will shortly make payment of insurance to 121 Howard county land owners whose cotton crops were total losses. Others will collect on partial losses.

Cotton Estimates Indicate Bigger Crop Than 1945

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—The agriculture department reported today that a cotton crop of 9,290,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight is indicated by conditions prevailing Aug. 1.

This estimate compared with 9,015,000 bales produced last year and with a ten-year 1934-44 average of 12,553,000 bales.

The department said the final outcome of the crop will depend upon whether the various influences affecting the crop during the remainder of the growing season are more or less favorable than usual.

The indicated yield of lint cotton per acre for harvest was reported at 247.9 pounds compared with 251 pounds last year and with a ten-year average of 243.2.

The condition of the crop on Aug. 1 was reported at 72 percent of normal compared with 74 percent a year ago and with a ten-year average of 76.

The amount of cotton from this year's crop gained to Aug. 1, was reported by the census bureau at 161,825 bales compared with 132,737 to the same date last year and with 48,182 to the same date in 1945.

Equalizers To Hear Any Tax Complaints

Howard county Board of Equalization, which readjusted tax rates on a small percentage of property last month, will go into session again Wednesday of next week to give audience to any property owner who sees fit to protest the uplift in taxes.

Some five to seven percent of the property within the county was affected by the changes, Thad Hale, a member of the board, said this week.

Markets

NEW YORK, Aug. 8 (AP)—Selected industrial utilities and rails continued to work upward in today's stock market although light selling interrupted the recovery here and there.

Dealings, relatively fast in the forenoon, tapered after midday. Extreme gains running to a point or more were reduced near the close and scattered losers dotted the ticker tape. Transfers for the full proceedings were in the vicinity of 900,000 shares, with activity of several low-quoted issues accounting for much of the volume.

97 Polio Cases

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 8 (AP)—The San Antonio polio epidemic total stood at 97 today after James Kelly, 51, was admitted to the county hospital as a sleeping sickness patient.

CAA Allots State Money For Airports

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP) — The Civil Aeronautics Administration yesterday announced state apportionments of $30,822,750, including $2,081,311 for Texas, for airport construction and development for the year ending June 30, 1947.

State allotments must be matched by sponsors of projects, the agency said in explaining that the figures were based on state population and area. The Texas apportionment was the largest announced, with California second with $1,598,582.

Other states included New Mexico, $667,735, and Oklahoma, $621,432.

Experts Claim Two Course Dinners Are Adequate For Summertime Meals

RING O' GOLD SALAD . . . For hot-weather meals. . .

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

In hot weather, two courses are plenty for any dinner, both from the point of view of the cook and that of the persons who eat it. One course should be hot, as we all well know. The other should be as cool and as cool-looking as possible.

Here's one good menu for such a dinner. The second course is a dessert-type of salad and most refreshing.

DINNER MENU
Duck With Mushroom Sauce
Dry Rice
Fresh Garden Peas
Ring O' Gold Salad

Duck With Mushroom Sauce
1 5-to-6-pound duck
1 tablespoon kitchen bouquet
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon powdered marjoram
1/2 teaspoon onion salt
1 6-ounce can broiled-in-butter mushrooms
1 pint duck broth
1/2 cup duck fat
1/4 cup flour
2 tablespoons sherry
Clean duck thoroughly. Cut off neck, close to the body. To make duck broth cook neck with giblets in 1 pint water until tender. Quarter duck. Place in heavy 9-inch frying pan or Dutch oven with tightly fitting cover. Braise, uncovered, over moderate heat, turning frequently, for about 20 minutes. Drain off fat. Blend together 2 teaspoons kitchen bouquet, 1 teaspoon salt, the onion salt and marjoram. Brush on duck. Cook over moderate heat until brown, about 15 minutes. Add 1/2 cup mushroom liquid and cook, covered, until tender, about 35 minutes. Remove to warm platter. Drain off fat from pan. Add duck broth, 1 teaspoon kitchen bouquet, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Blend together and add duck fat and flour. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Lower heat and add duck and mushrooms. Simmer, covered, over low heat for 10 minutes. Add sherry. Serve immediately.

Ring O' Gold Salad
2 tablespoons gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
1/2 cup boiling water
2 tablespoons honey
1 1/4 cups juice from canned pineapple
1 1/4 cups juice from canned apricots
1/4 cup lemon juice
1 cup creamy cottage cheese
12 canned apricot halves
8 slices canned pineapple
Real mayonnaise
Watercress

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add boiling water and honey and stir until dissolved. Add pineapple, apricot and lemon juices and chill until it begins to thicken. Pour into 9-inch ring mold enough of gelatin mixture to cover the bottom. Fill apricot halves with approximately one-third of the cottage cheese. Place each two halves together. Arrange on gelatin in mold with quarter slices of pineapple. Pour gelatin mixture into mold, reserving 1/2 cup. Chill mold until firm. Mix remaining cottage cheese and gelatin together. Pour into mold and chill until firm. Unmold. Fill center with mayonnaise. Garnish with slices of pineapple and watercress.

Apple Crop Expected Larger Than In 1945

Peak of the season for local apples is just around the corner, with supplies expected to be considerably larger than a year ago, though still below average. This year's total apple crop may reach 106.5 million bushels, compared with 68 million in 1945 and 120.9 million the ten year 1935-44 average. Enough apples already are available to make them a good buy.

Food experts say apples can be served in more different dishes than any other fruit, and a check down the list proves it. Apples are scalloped with sweet potatoes, cabbage, or all by themselves. They're fried with bacon, sausages or ham. They're glazed to garnish roast meat or chops. They're made into apple sauce or baked. Apples go into pies, apple Betty, and other cooked desserts. They "take the cake" in the form of Dutch apple cake and apple upside down cake. Then there are apple dumplings and apple tapioca—to say nothing of the numerous salad and fruit cup combinations in which apples are used. And summer apples—the kind you'll find on the market now—go into the jelly kettle in as large quantities as sugar supplies permit. Like peaches they also belong in cans, and may be dried or frozen.

Right here is probably a good time to mention the fact that apples are specialists. Some—like the Delicious variety—are good only for desserts and for eating out of hand. Especially good for baking are the Tolman Sweet, Stayman, Rome Beauties and Arkansas or Black Twigs, which ripen in the fall. Most of the apples at this time of the year fall into a more versatile group, excellent for general use—Gravenstein, Maiden Blush, Jonatan, Transparent, Wealthy, Early Red, Duchess, and others.

The food value of apples also varies, depending on the variety, the season and length of time in storage. But the food specialists say most apples furnish some minerals and a little vitamin B-1 and C, in addition to their delightful appetite appeal.

Cabbage Put To Good Use In Summer Dishes

Cabbage might be called the common denominator of this week's best vegetable buys. In salads, for instance, cabbage will team up with any one of the other leaders. Cabbage and onions make an excellent combination; cabbage and carrots another. Then there's a salad which stars cabbage with whipped cream dressing. And there's a slaw—excellent to give that crunchy raw effect to meals where potatoes, tomatoes, corn, or other good vegetable buys are cooked for the main course.

In cooked dishes, a timely suggestion is scalloped cabbage and apples. The cabbage is plentiful, and early apples are available for the homemaker who likes to be first to serve new arrivals.

Every homemaker probably has her own favorite recipes for cabbage and cabbage combinations—and now is certainly the time to use them.

Army engineers erected the imposing Washington monument in the nation's capital; they built the wings and dome of the capitol; and they supervised construction of the Lincoln Memorial, the Library of Congress, the Government Printing Office, the Agriculture Building and other famous Washington buildings.

Small Fry Like Circus Lunch On Summer Days

BIG TOP LUNCH... Before the circus...

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

Summertime is circus time the country over. When the circus comes to your town, why not give a circus party luncheon for the children before they take off for the Big Top, to see the fat lady and the thin man, the clowns and the elephants?

Here is a menu that was tried out successfully at a recent party honoring circus folk in New York. It fits admirably into a children's party plan:

CIRCUS LUNCHEON MENU
Pink Lemonade

Animal Crackers
Juggled Eggs
Clownish Ham Rollups
Toast Triangles in Tent Fashion
Butter Balls
Fat Lady Doughnut and Milk

Pink Lemonade
3 lemons
1/4 cup sugar
2 cups water
1/2 cup sweetened loganberry juice
Squeeze lemons and strain. Add sugar and stir until well dissolved. Add water and loganberry juice. Chill. Serve in juice glasses.

CLOWNISH HAM ROLLUPS

For each person:
1 slice cooked ham or ham loaf
1 banana
1 strawberry

Cut ends off bananas and wrap each in slice of ham or ham loaf. Now fry in a little hot fat until lightly browned. Stand the bananas on end on each plate and top each with a ripe red strawberry—to represent the clown's hat!

"Juggled Eggs" turn out to be scrambled eggs, named in circus terms. A serving of these goes on each plate. If you like well-done eggs you can perhaps do them well enough so that they can be formed into a ball shape, thus taking on more of a circus tone. But if you're like me and enjoy your scrambled eggs only lightly cooked, you will forget the circus for this one dish (except for the name) and just serve them and decorate them with a bit of parsley.

TOAST TENT

To save wheat, only one slice of toast is served. The slice is cut into triangles and centered on the plate in the shape of a circus tent—with a paper American flag flying from the top.

The Fat Lady Doughnut is concocted by using a large ball-shaped doughnut for the body and a smaller one for the head, picking out a face (and perhaps some buttons) with a bit of icing. Happy Circus Day!

Some Thoughts On Tax Structures

With the exception of the levy for school purposes, the State of Texas this year will not impose an ad valorem tax. It is entirely possible that this procedure may be followed next year, and already the battle of words over the ad valorem tax is being revived.

For quite a long time there have been advocates of abandoning the ad valorem tax as a source of revenue. For this reason, the developments of the next two years may be of importance.

It seems doubtful that ad valorem (literally, according to the value) taxes will be completely abandoned. Indeed, there are factors which give pause to wonder if this step is wholly desirable.

One of the sharpest indictments against the ad valorem tax is that it may reach a level to where property ownership is discouraged. On the other hand, complete abolition of the tax might loose a flood of money that would precipitate a dangerous real estate boom for the sole purpose of hiding wealth from the tax collector.

It is possible that an effective coordination of taxation by federal, state and local agencies might clarify the picture and at the same time result in a more just system of taxation. For instance, the federal government relies heavily upon income taxes and excise taxes. Bulk of the state income is from taxes on resources and services, as well as excises. Local governments basically are dependent upon ad valorem taxes.

Eventually, retirement of the state from the ad valorem field might leave local agencies more latitude in this field.

Regardless of what happens to the state ad valorem tax, it does seem that a re-examination of the entire tax structure is in order for the purpose of weeding out oppressive duplications. An honest appraisal might also reveal gross inequities, and for this reason a lot of people are not enthusiastic about an exhaustive analysis.

Preserve Backbone Of Beauty

Advice that trees should be given priority in protection from the ravages of drought is sound.

There is a double consideration of time and finances in any program of beautification. The average person has his own ideas of what he can afford in the way of a water bill. If there is ample latitude, perhaps a well rounded program can be carried on around the home. If there are limits—and most of us have them—then first things should come first.

Trees and shrubs should fall under this classification, in our estimation. The reason is that they represent quite an investment in money and time. Flowers and grass can be developed fairly well in a season. It takes years to produce a beautiful tree. The original investment in trees and shrubs, plus cumulative expense of watering generally places them first in cost.

Thus, when trees show signs of withering or dying in this prolonged drought, we believe residents will be wise in concentrating on saving them. They are the backbone in beautification, and it would be a tragedy to lose them.

Peace Burden On Byrnes, Molotov

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Diplomatic Reporter

(Substituting for James Marlow)
WASHINGTON, (AP)—Secretary of State James F. Byrnes is a mild-mannered man with the quality of tempered steel under the manners.

In international conferences, he is a hard-hitter but he can take it.

The same may be said of Vyacheslav Molotov except that, far from being mild-mannered, he is a tough-talking old Bolshevik, who seems to enjoy a good fight—and usually a drink with his adversary afterward.

On the two men rests the burden of peace or no peace in the atomic age which was one year old yesterday. There are signs that the terrific burden and the constant battling are beginning to tell.

What this may mean is not personal pique on the part of either but recognition by both that American-Russian relations are even worse than is generally recognized. Furthermore, no one seems to have any effective plan for stopping the downward trend of these relations.

Some American officials have gone so far in their evaluation of Russia as to say that premier Stalin, foreign Minister Molotov and all around them think of America as a potential enemy whom they might some day have to fight.

These officials ask how specific issues—such as Trieste—can be settled by two parties in such fundamental distrust. For much of American policy seems now clearly based on high suspicion of the Kremlin.

This state of affairs is behind the fireworks of the Paris peace conference.

The major conflict first developed opened two days ago when Molotov made a slashing attack at Byrnes, accusing him of inconsistency. Molotov, Byrnes, Bevin of Britain and Bidault of France—had recommended a two-thirds vote, but Byrnes had reserved his right to support some other plan if he chose. He did support a modified two-thirds vote as the peace conference got underway, and that made Molotov sore. He attacked Byrnes.

Yesterday Byrnes struck back. He accused Molotov of inconsistency on various occasions. There were other sharp words by Byrnes obviously resenting Molotov's dig at the conduct of the conduct of the American delegation. Byrnes delivered his own final punch in a manner that clearly understood—by making a distinction between the Russian government and the Russian people and implying we might get on well with the people if it were not for their government.

Heir To Patton's Name

(This is the first of two columns on Maj. Gen. Ernie Harmon.)

By HAL BOYLE
BAMBERG, Germany, (AP)—The only corporal in the third regiment of the French Moroccan Goums who holds a major general's rank in the American army is Uncle Sam's chief overseas—Ernie ("Old Gravel Voice") Harmon.

His honorary rank with the dusty goums—comrades of the campaign in Italy—is only one of some 25 medals and honors won by Harmon, chief of the new Mobile American constabulary force in Germany, during the war years.

Now in peace this chunky, squint-eyed veteran has inherited the mantle of Gen. George S. ("old blood and guts") Patton, Jr., his former boss, as the toughest, roughest-talking commander in the army.

Harmon has been given the hardest job in the Reich he helped conquer—the task of building 30,000 constabulary troops into a fast-moving, hard-striking force able to police and control the American zone when the rest of the occupation army goes home.

In a seven-day inspection speeches he tells his men: "You're going to be soldiers the German people have to respect. I never had a second-rate outfit, and I'm not going to start now. You're going to be the best outfit in the American army—if you aren't already."

Harmon likes personal contact with his men. He speaks their language, knows their tricks. He is stern with them but they like the way he has of cracking down and removing inefficient or pretentious officers.

Ernie is short, heavy-set and bald with close-set eyes like an angry porcupine and a manner of speech that resembles W. C. Fields'. His voice sounds as if it had to fight its way out through a gravel bed in his larynx, and that gave him his nickname. Nobody ever has been known, however, to use it to his face.

At 52 Harmon, a pentathlon athlete in the 1924 Olympics at Paris, still walks the boots of his young staff officers. He is an intense worker, an expert organizer and his chief quality as a leader is his ability to transmit his own competitive spirit and morale to his men.

The record shows Ernie probably likes fighting best. He is the only man in military history to command all three American heavy armored divisions—the first, second and third—and he is the army's most experienced combat tank leader.

He cornered and beat into surrender the remnants of Rommel's Afrika corps in Tunisia, spearheaded the breakout from Anzio beachhead, before the Siegfried line and flung back the German vanguard at Colles, Belgium, in the "battle of the bulge."

Grumpy bluntness is a cardinal Harmon virtue. He knows his worth and has never let higher brass step on his toes.

Reporting in person on one of his victories, he was amazed when the higher commander, instead of greeting him with a compliment, inquired testily:

"Why aren't you wearing the new shoulder insignia?"

"Didn't know we had one," grumbled Harmon. "Been busy fighting. I'll borrow yours."

He stomped upstairs to the commander's suite, took a pair of insignia from a jacket hanging there, put them on his own shoulders, and stomped back down.

"See anything else wrong, General?" he demanded.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Molotov Irks Byrnes By Revelation

PARIS (by wireless)—For some reason it has escaped public attention, but the one delegate who so far has stood up and really talked back to conference dictator Vyacheslav Molotov is British Undersecretary Hector McNeill, a Scotsman. Molotov was demanding that the permanent chairman of the peace conference rotate among the Big Five, while Britain had proposed France's pink-checked Georges Bidault as permanent chairman. In the course of this debate Molotov described the British position as "illogical."

"Don't you ever say that to me again," warned the British Undersecretary, jumping to his feet and shaking his finger at Molotov. "That's an insult to my foreign secretary. My secretary of state knows what he's doing."

Then McNeill proceeded to explain that Britain was glad to support Bidault as permanent chairman as long as there was any chance of a unanimous vote for him. But since the vote was now obviously not going to be unanimous, Britain would revert to her original position of favoring a rotating chairmanship.

Molotov looked hard at the intrepid Scotsman but made no reply. It was the first time anyone had really talked back to him.

Byrnes Gets Mad

Jimmy Byrnes, the most patient, sweet-tempered delegate at the peace conference, really hit the ceiling during a little-noticed incident the other day. What made him mad was when Molotov revealed a private deal he and Byrnes had hatched together.

Molotov was debating the same controversial question of rotating the chairmanship or letting France be the permanent chairman and he let drop the significant remark that Secretary of State Byrnes had promised him to vote for a rotating chairmanship.

Byrnes controlled his temper and said nothing. But his aides revealed he boiled inwardly at Molotov's indiscreet disclosure. Unfortunately for the American position, this confirmed what the smaller nations have suspected: namely, that the United States, instead of being the real leader of the nations which devoutly favor an impartial peace, actually is appeasing the bloc which favors a Soviet-dominated peace. They hope that Byrnes won't make any more backstage deals with Molotov.

The real fact is that the chairmanship wasn't important—except as a symbol of another milestone in the many victories won by Russia. Byrnes could well afford to compromise on it. But what many people don't realize is that when all these preliminaries are finished and the conference gets down to real debate, Byrnes is hamstringed and hogtied on most of the treaty provisions.

He has agreed in advance not to differ with most of the original treaty text. On points where the United States has made definite reservations—such as the Trieste boundary—Byrnes can differ, but on all non-reserved points the Big Four must vote as a unit. That is why the small nations will have such a hard time making any real changes in the treaty. The cards were stacked against them well in advance.

Pressure Groups Busy

Secretary of State Byrnes got various trans-Atlantic phone calls in Paris from senators on US groups urging better treatment for Greeks, for Italians, for Ethiopia, and for the Austrian Tyrol. All the calls came from American citizens. Finally Byrnes remarked: "So far I have received no petition from any group of citizens favoring a fair peace for America. If I receive anything from a league for a just peace for the United States I shall give it No. 1 priority."

September UN Assembly to be Postponed

New York hotel men can write it down as certain that the 5,000 rooms reserved for the United Nations general assembly will be canceled. There's nothing official on it yet but the Paris peace conference can't possibly finish in time for the United Nations assembly to be held on schedule in September.

The UN is reluctant to postpone the assembly because of the expense involved. Reservation of 5,000 rooms meant canceling several conventions and the UN probably will have to reimburse the hotels. Despite this, postponement is certain.

US Propaganda Neglected

Five hours in France convinces any observer how badly the USA has neglected its propaganda. The French people know almost nothing about United States victories during the war in the Pacific, our tremendous donations of food or our unselfish, historic giving of independence to the Philippines. They think Russia defeated Japan and because the Soviet landed a few badlyhooped cargoes of wheat in France, they think their bread comes largely from Russia.

A skillful educational campaign to cement old friendships with France, Belgium and Czechoslovakia should be relatively easy, but here's what happened during the closing days of congress. It illustrates the tough job Secretary Byrnes faces both abroad and at home.

The house of representatives had passed the Benton bill permitting the state department to engage in a broad educational campaign exchanging students and professors and other badly needed propaganda to win friends and to counteract Soviet myths in other lands. Undersecretary of State Dean Acheson then persuaded Texas' minor statesman, Tom Connally, to push the Benton bill through the senate.

But at the last minute, when Connally moved for passage of this highly important bill, he yielded to a colleague who wanted to speak on another subject. During the interim, senators told the bushy-haired gentleman from Marlin, Tex., that if he insisted on passing the Benton bill they would call up other bills, thus requiring congress to spend three more days in the heat of Washington.

So Big Tom traded peace for a vacation. The senate ditched one of the most important moves it could make to improve our foreign relations and went home to cooler weather.

Decoding the Diplomatic Pouch

Albanian and Bulgarian armies, both with strong Russian backing, are now moving toward the Greek border to forestall any Greek demands for slices of Albanian or Bulgarian territory. The situation is so worrying that Jimmy Byrnes may ask Molotov to have his satellites pipe down. Mexican foreign minister is enroute to Paris to protest to both Byrnes and the British against Mexico's exclusion from the peace conference. . . . Despite Jimmy Byrnes' fearless crusading for open diplomacy, his chief career diplomat, adviser Jimmie Dunn has just circulated instructions to state department employees to tighten secrecy. Open diplomacy, he implies, is impossible.

Lamesa Extends Victory String By Licking Ducks

LAMESA, Aug. 8.—Lamesa's revitalized Lobos ran their winning string to three in a row here Wednesday night before 789 excitedly happy fans as they lambasted Larry Ward for 14 hits to take a 13 to 2 victory over the Albuquerque Ducks.

While the Lobos were pounding nine extra base bingles, including mighty home run wallopers by I. B. Palmer, Parr Fowler and George Sturdivant, John Gist was turning back the Ducks on eight scattered singles.

Gist came near twirling Lamesa's first shutout triumph of the season, holding the visitors scoreless on five safeties until the eighth. Gordon Goldsberry singled in French, who had hit safely, and Robinson, who was hit by a pitched ball, in that frame for Albuquerque's markers.

Lamesa made only one error as Gist bore down all the way, issuing only one walk and fanning three. Two infield double plays made the going easier for him.

Palmer's homer came in the first frame after Wilcox had walked. Fowler and Sturdivant smacked one-run round-trippers in the sixth and eighth respectively. Fowler and Bill Scopetone had three hits each, and Fowler led the RBI column with three.

Sturdivant, wearing a protective headgear, stepped back into the lineup when outfielder Emmett Fulerider was called home on account of his wife's illness. Palmer, the Arkansas traveler, shifted to second where he cavorted capably.

Left-hander Buck Huckabee will twirl the series and home stand finale for the Lobos Thursday night. Joe Behl will probably pitch for the Ducks.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With TOMMY HART

George Sturdivant, who went onto the shelf last May when hit in the temple by a pitched ball, assumed the managerial reins of the Lamesa baseball club again Monday when Bob Allaire was called to California due to the death of his mother.

Allaire, from all indications, was none too happy with the job. He has stepped into Sturdivant's shoes on the recommendation of Bill DeWitt of the St. Louis Browns on the promise that the Missourians would come through with player help. However, very little aid arrived, and Bob was never able to arouse the lethargic Lobos from their losing ways.

Sturdivant is returning to the lineup contrary to the advice of his physician, who recommended that the big first sacker stay on the sidelines for the remainder of the season. George was hitting around .420 when he departed the lineup, so should add some punch to the Lobo attack.

One of the reasons for the Lamesans' recent spurt has been the hitting of Our Town's Bobby "Pepper" Martin, who currently is playing his best ball of the campaign. Martin has been moved in to second base, which has been a sore spot in the Lobo defense all year.

The keystone should hold no terrors for Pepper. He was taught to be an infielder by his father, Floyd Martin, he of the spartan heart.

Martin has already collected more base hits in the Lobos' current home stand than in any previous stay in Lamesa. In three days' time, Sunday through Tuesday Pepper accounted for eight safeties.

Hank Novotny, who was cut loose by Sturdivant early in the season and promptly caught on with Clovis, is still with the Pioneers but isn't playing much.

Roy Scuday, Odessa scribe, writes that the Gabriel's Sporting Goods team will have to pass up a challenge issued by the VFW team of Big Spring for a game there.

Gabriel's contingent is through for the year, according to Scuday, after a city tournament this week.

Harold "Red" Grange, one of the legendary figures in football, couldn't carry the suit of Bronko Nagurski. That opinion was expressed recently by Douglass Wycoff of the Miami professional gridirers in conversation with Guy Butler, a Miami scribe.

Wycoff was a college star two decades ago for Georgia Tech and was occasioned to play against both the Illinois Galloping Ghost and Nagurski after joining the New York pros.

"Grange, of course, was a brilliant runner," says Wycoff. "But in pro football he took a good shellacking. Nagurski was a powerful fellow who could play half a dozen positions and look good at all of them. He usually carried a half dozen tacklers with him. He weighed 247 pounds and, as big as I was, I looked like a mid-gest beside him."

Wycoff says he would rate Grange second but Ken Strong,

Van Cuyk Tames Padres; Rebels Kayo Buffaloes

By The Associated Press

San Antonio's Missions lost ground in two directions last night as the league leading Fort Worth Cats handed them a 7-1 trouncing.

The Fort Worth win increased the Cat lead over the second place Missions to five and a half games, and a 7-2 win by Dallas over Houston placed the third place Rebels only a half game behind the San Antonio club.

The Oklahoma City Indians, who have monopolized the cellar spot, continued their uprisings against the big boys by defeating Beaumont twice, 5-2 and 3-2. Although still 36½ games away from Fort Worth, the twin Indian vied for narrowed Houston's hold on seventh place to four and a half games.

Shreveport finally got revenge on Tulsa's Tom Warren, who had defeated them three times without a loss, by taking a 5-4 game from the Oilers after knocking Warren from the box in the third.

John Van Cuyk stopped San Antonio with six hits and fanned seven men as he and the Padres' Clarence Iott hooked up in a battle of southpaws. The Cats landed on Iott and John Whitehead for 11 hits to give Van Cuyk his thirteenth win against seven losses.

As Bob Gillespie spaced nine hits, Catcher Harvey Riebe unlined a home run and a double for four runs to pace the Dallas Rebels in their attack against Houston.

Oklahoma City pounded out six triples in sweeping the Beaumont doubleheader. Lefty Leo Hatley and Cal Dorsett limited the Exporters to six hits in taking the curtain-raiser, with Elmer Sidlo aiding with two three-baggers. In the second game, the Redskins combined triples by Mel Duerba and Sidlo with Dale Mitchell's single and a walk to score all three runs in the sixth inning.

Although the Sports started their rally against Warren, it was Tulsa's Walter Lantz, who relieved him, who gave up the winning run in the sixth when the score was tied, 4-4. Bob Finley hit four for four for Shreveport.

Bill Braselton North Starter

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 8 (AP)—The first of two all-star games being played as climaxing features of the annual Texas coaching school comes tonight as the North meets the South in a basketball contest.

Tomorrow night, schoolboy squads clash in the 12th annual all star football game.

Tonight's cage tilt is the first ever staged at the school and it has attracted great interest. However, only a limited number can witness the contest which will be played at the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station where the gymnasium takes care of only about 1,000. This is the largest gymnasium in Corpus Christi.

The North team, representing the upper districts of the Texas interscholastic league, was considered a narrow favorite.

Line-ups for the game, starting at 8 p. m.:

NORTH—Charles Stewart, Paschal of Fort Worth, and Hubert Kitchens, Childress, forwards; Bill Braselton, Abilene, center; Harold Salmon, Crozier Tech of Dallas, and Billy Turnbow, Perrin, guards.

SOUTH—Bill Huffman, Pasadena, and Derrest Williams, Texas City, forwards; Bill Hickman, Jeff Davis of Houston, center; Jack Taylor, Lufkin, and Corky Cox, Johnson City, guards.

The body of the popular big league star, who started baseball as a youngster on San Francisco's sand lots and played in seven world series, six with the Yanks and one with the Cubs during the 1930's, was found in his suburban home yesterday by his wife, Maye, and a brother-in-law, Louie Servent, when they returned from a vacation.

Investigating physicians said Lazzari died either of a heart attack or as the result of a fall. The body was found slumped at the foot of a staircase near the entrance of the home. He had been dead, an estimated 36 hours when found at 4 p. m. (PST) yesterday.

Owen Enroute To Cincinnati

HOUSTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—Mickey Owen, who quit organized baseball to join the Mexican circuit only to reappear this week announcing his disgust with Mexican baseball, ball parks and food, was enroute to Cincinnati today to present his case before A. B. (Happy) Chandler, baseball's high commissioner.

A spokesman at Chandler's office late yesterday said the commissioner had left town for the week-end, probably to remain at his Versailles, Ky., home until Monday.

Owen and his wife were scheduled to arrive in St. Louis, via Missouri-Pacific train, early this morning and leave for Cincinnati shortly thereafter.

Between trains here yesterday, Owen said he had not discussed his problems with Chandler or Branch Rickey, president of the Dodgers.

Red Birds Gain On Brooklyn With 8-1 Win

By The Associated Press

"Old Man Injury" is in his most merciless mood in many a moon today as key players of major league baseball teams join already overcrowded hospital lists.

Heading the list of currently ailing non-combatants are such top-notch performers as Bob Feller, Cleveland Indians; Ted Williams, Johnny Pesky and Mike Higgins, Boston Red Sox; Johnny Mize and Buddy Kerr, New York Giants; Johnny Berardino, St. Louis Browns; Pete Reiser and Harry Lavagetto, Brooklyn Dodgers; Stan Hack, Chicago Cubs and Schoolboy Rowe, of the Phillies.

The absence of Williams, Pesky and Higgins is causing no great alarm on the Hub front as the American league leading Red Sox have too commanding a lead with the season two-thirds gone. With the New York Yankees' 4-3 defeat by the Senators in Washington last night, the idle Sox increased their margin to 13 full games.

It is an entirely different story with the Dodgers whose National league lead was trimmed to a mere game and a half last night when the challenging St. Louis Cardinals outpowered the last place Pirates 8-1 at Pittsburgh. Two of their regulars, Outfielder Pete Reiser and Third Baseman Harry Lavagetto are out of action with head and leg injuries, respectively while Second Baseman Eddie Stanky, bothered by a foot ailment, is playing on nerve alone.

The Indians felt three and a half games behind the fourth place Senators when the White Sox overcame a 3-0 deficit to nose out the Tribe 4-3 in Chicago.

Rained out of their game with the Dodgers yesterday, the sixth place Giants are only three and a half games away from the fourth place Boston Braves who were washed out of the twin bill with the Philadelphia Phillies.

The St. Louis Browns, edged out the Detroit Tigers 3-2 under the Sportsman's Park lights.

Rain washed out the scheduled Red Sox-A's double header as well as the Dodgers-Giants contest and the twin bill between the Braves and Phillies.

Combine Apples With Raisins For Tasty Vitamin-Filled Salad For Whole Family

With food shortages rife, an Apple Raisin Salad such as this deserves top billing. For not only will it help to stretch a skimpy main-course meal, but it will double as dessert if need be. The ingredients are all available once more—produce of orchard, field and forest which nature, with mid-summer munificence, has bestowed on us again. This recipe relies on apples: the season's earliest beauties, flaunting their gypsy-scarlet skins, baring their fine white flesh to your knife in fat chunks that have a juicy smack to them.

The sweetening element is supplied by raisins—those honeyed pellets nature has been sun-ripening all summer, until they have become a storehouse of delicate fruit sugars. Chopped nuts contribute protein richness; while celery provides crisp crunch and a wonderfully earthy flavor. Combine 3 cups unpeeled diced apples, 1/2 cup seedless nectars or seeded muscats, 1 cup chopped nuts, 1 cup diced celery, 1/2 cup cooked salad dressing. Refrigerate 1 hour; serve on lettuce. Yield: 8 portions.

Farm And Ranch News

By WACIL McNAIR
It's about time farmers and ranchers in West Texas were getting some "good news" after repeated disappointments this season, and although there is nothing official on it yet, predictions on the corn crops in the mid-west promise some relief for the feed situation. Record yields of corn are expected, in the Corn Belt, and reports reaching here indicate that good crops in East Texas also will be harvested. If these forecasts materialize, one of the greatest needs of stockmen will be supplied, and coupled with the bumper wheat crops it is expected to provide relief from the price standpoint, although no cheap feed is in prospect. It has been pointed out by authorities, however, that the large corn and wheat crops should bring about a stabilization of grain prices. And if grain prices are stabilized, feed levels are certain to follow suit because they are dependent upon the grain. At least this is the contention of the authorities now.

Will have to come soon and in abundance to forestall a critical feed situation here. That feed is short goes without saying, but Cauble points out it is by no means a local situation since the drought belt extends west and north from the upper Colorado river basin and covers an area of approximately 1,000 miles square. Therefore, feed will have to be imported. This area has suffered from protein shortages before, but this drought is different, Cauble points out. Roughage will become as important an item as grain and protein. He has contracted 50 carloads of hay from Bonita, Okla., and already has received five. Efforts should be exerted now, he thinks, toward seeing that ample soybeans are channeled from the mid-west to insure against a protein shortage against the woefully small cotton crop. Experience dictates a drastic reduction of stocking on ranges, said Cauble, but breeders especially are duty-bound, in his opinion, to carry on operations so that stock reserves for starting again "when this county once again turns into a flower garden" will be available. At that time stockers will be just as vital as reduction of herds is now.

Hello All:
Here's hoping that you find a record you like here in our latest record release. "I Don't Know Enough About You" "Blue Skies" Benny Goodman and the man with the voice that makes all the girls swoon, Perry Como and his latest "Surrender" and "More Than You Know."

and that record of all records to cut a rug is "Choo Choo Ch' Boogie" and "That Chick Too Young To Fry" by Louis Jordan.

The record for you Glenn Miller collectors, "Salute to Glenn Miller" with "Juke Box Saturday Night" on the back with the Glenn Miller band and Tex Renneke.

and for the Bing Crosby collectors that old time favorite brought back, it's "Remember Me" and "Girl of My Dreams."

TYLER FIRE DEPARTMENT CREEPS UP, WASHES AWAY BIRD HORDES

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

It's customary for fire trucks to dash to the scene of action with engines roaring and sirens screaming.

But the Tyler fire department recently advanced upon its objective silently, stealthily.

It was a mission of surprise, not of warning.

It was those birds again. For years now, birds have been descending on Tyler from some unknown source. Like the swallows of Capistrano. But these were Martins and Sparrows.

They usually come in June. They come by the tens of thousands, and their favorite hangout is around the old town square.

They upset the calm and peace of Tyler.

Last year the firemen were called on for help, and by August their attacks by water had forced the birds to leave.

Water was used again this year. That's when firemen advanced silently, stealthily like it says up there in line three, paragraph two.

Fire Chief Henry Ginn estimates that his men have killed over one thousand Sparrows and Martin with blasts of water.

"If we only knew where they came from," he said.

It's believed now that maybe they come from or around Athens, Ga. Firemen at Athens have been reported busily at work geysering tons of water into trees.

At Tyler, the birds have regular habits. They come with the night. By day the city is quiet.

It's different with the Bonham fire department. They're not bothered with birds. Their trouble comes from curious motorists.

Fire Chief M. D. Anderson pleads with Bonham motorists to take it easy.

"Give the volunteer fire fighters a chance to get to the fire first," he begs.

Eggs, Ideal Meat Substitute, Prove Versatile Filling

Though food is short we'll find much to be grateful for if we tally up our blessings. If we have no meat there is always a suitable substitute. Today it's eggs—a protein food composed of the same elements as meat, and really just as filling.

We take the egg for granted now. But did you know large-scale egg production is as modern as the radio or motor car? Though the egg is one of man's oldest foods, it was never plentiful until agricultural machinery created an abundance of poultry feed.

The egg can be counted on for substantial main course eating. Trick is to have enough eggs, and season them with pungent fort-right flavors. Use condensed soups to make sauces; serve in potato nests and macaroni cups.

Mushroom Omelet
Beat until stiff but not dry—6 egg whites.

Beat until thick and lemon colored—6 egg yolks.

Add—
1/8 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted.

Fold in egg whites. Pour into moderately hot greased frying pan. Cook, without stirring, until risen and golden on bottom. Place frying pan in a moderately slow oven (325 degrees F.) for about 12 minutes or until top is firm. Serve cheese and mushroom sauce (recipe below) in fold of omelet. Serves 6.

Cheese and Mushroom Sauce
Over boiling water melt—1 tablespoon butter.

Blend—
2 tablespoons flour.
Add—

Remaining portion of the 11-oz. can condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted.
3/4 cup water.

Cook until thickened.
Grate—
3/8 lb. American cheese.

Add and continue stirring until cheese is melted. Yield: 1 1/2 cups.

Scrambled Eggs in Potato Nests
Combine, mixing well—
6 eggs
1/4 cup milk
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce.

1/4 teaspoon salt.
Scramble the egg mixture in fat. Break hot baked potatoes in halves. Season with salt and pepper. Add pat of butter and mash gently with a fork or scoop inside out, mash, add seasonings, and place back in shells. Place a large spoonful of scrambled eggs in the center of each baked potato. Serves 4.

Prosecutor Named Watering Days

TOKYO, Aug. 8 (AP)—Lieut. Ernest G. Pharr of Cooper, Tex., today was appointed a prosecutor for the trial in Manila of 11 former Japanese soldiers charged with murdering 500 noncombatant Filipinos in Batangas province in February last year. He will work with Lieut. Robert W. Hudson, Arlington, Va.

Records Unearthed Of Nazi Speeches

FRANKFURT, Aug. 8 (AP)—US army secret agents have unearthed a huge cache of film strips and phonograph records of hundreds of speeches made by Nazi leaders, it was announced today.

The hoard was found in a German farmhouse. The army's European intelligence division said the valuable find included records of speeches made by Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler, Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz, Field Marshal Erhard Milch and Armaments Minister Albert Speer.

No records of speeches made by Adolf Hitler, however, were found in the collection.

Truman Authorizes Land Adjustment

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (AP)—President Truman has signed legislation authorizing the federal government to settle ownership of property in a 156-mile strip of land between Oklahoma and Texas.

The secretary of interior is authorized to prescribe regulations under which patents to land in the Cimarron strip can be received by persons who have held and improved their property for not less than 20 years. Sale price would be $1.25 an acre.

The strip contains 4,900 acres. Many Texans in the area have held title to the land in the strip under Texas deeds, believing it to be a part of their state.

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store. (adv.)

Probed Arms Firm Purchased By New Yorkers

CHICAGO, Aug. 8 (AP)—Batavia Metal Products, Inc., part of a midwestern munitions combine which is being investigated by a senate committee was sold Tuesday night to two New York industrialists.

Sidney S. Gohrman, an attorney for the firm, disclosed the sale of a bankruptcy hearing against the company before Referee Martin Ward today.

Gohrman said Dr. Henry Garson, head of the Batavia concern, sold all Batavia stock last night to James Stein, president of Metalplast Co., Inc., which produces metal and plastic products in New York, and Herman Staff, head of the Diamond Production Company, also of New York, which produces industrial diamonds.

Only Tuesday the government was granted permission to join in a petition for bankruptcy against the Batavia concern which originally was filed by six creditor companies last Friday. The creditor companies and the government, claiming Batavia and a subsidiary, the Challenge Co., owed them more than $1,000,000, asked that a receiver be appointed immediately.

US District Judge William J. Campbell appointed referee Ward to hear the case, and at preliminary hearings Ward declared he had not found sufficient evidence to recommend that a receiver be named.

Guards To Keep Out Louisiana Cattle

MARSHALL, Aug. 8 (AP)—The Harrison county commissioners court, in special session yesterday, ordered special guards to work along the Louisiana-Texas state line to guard against illegal cattle shipments into Texas.

The action was taken as a guard against anthrax which is reportedly taking a deadly toll among cattle in 31 Louisiana parishes. The disease is said to have reached within six miles of the Texas state line.

Hounds Burned

DALLAS, Aug. 8 (AP)—Fifteen hunting hounds were burned to death near here yesterday as a grass fire destroyed a kennel on the D. C. Smith farm.

Remember that high heat toughens the egg protein. So for all egg dishes—use low to moderate temperatures. The rule applies to hard cooked eggs too. Simmer, do not boil. They are at their best "simmered" for twenty-five to thirty minutes.
