CISD 'report card' is approved

The board of trustees of the Colorado Independent School District Monday night accepted the annual performance report for the 1985-86 academic year.

Supt. Charlie Uselton said each district is required by the state to develop and present to the local board, the community and the Texas Education Agency the annual performance report which describes all aspects of district programs and operations.

"The annual performance report is much like a report card about how the school district has responded to state requirements as well as local commitment to quality education," said Uselton.

Asst. Supt. Don Nimmo explained that the report contains three major sections - district qualitative summaries relating to instructional programs, student achievement and staff; data collected, assimilated and presented by the Texas Education Agency from other reports submitted by the district; and data related to discipline, dropouts and achievement test results.

The report states that the CISD served an over-all average daily attendance of 1,377.52 students during 1985-86 and that instruction was delivered by 109 teachers including four assigned to special education. The programs were administered by administrators including four principals and two central office administrators.

Nimmo said that student performance as measured by the new Texas Assessment of Minimum Skills (TEAMS) and the Comprehensive Tests of Basic Skills (CTBS) indicated that student performance is generally within the average ranges as compared to national, statewide and regional results.

Nimmo explained that most school districts do not administer TEAMS tests to handicapped students and because CISD does, the test scores are somewhat lower than other schools.

The report states that based upon the evaluation for 1985-86, the district has determined that the following priorities are in order for 1986-87:

- to improve student performance in the areas of math, reading, and language;
- to maintain an effective and efficient financial structure to support the necessary programs while considering the increased costs and declining revenues prevalent in the Texas economy;

- to maintain appropriate teacher-pupil ratios;
- to significantly reduce the dropout rates, especially at the high school level, and;
- to carefully monitor the teaching-learning process and make necessary improvements.

In other business, the board accepted the resignations of Mary Frances Furlow as second grade teacher and Albert G. Furlow as building trades teach-

Solomon resigns chamber post

The board of directors of the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce Monday accepted the resignation of executive vice president Penny Solomon who has held the position for the past two years.

Miss Solomon said she is accepting a similar position in Azle, a town of about 8,500 population in Tarrant County, near Fort Worth.

She said accepting the Azle position will better help her achieve her personal goals of furthering her education and her chamber career.

The chamber of commerce banquet scheduled this Saturday night will be her last chamber function, she said.

Looking over the past two years, she said "I think the chamber really has come a long way." She complimented the board, calling the members a committed group of individuals. "Colorado City has a lot going for it," she said. "I think the chamber will continue to move forward."

A selection committee of board members Robert Alford, Ben Lancaster, David Hoover and Woody Anderson will screen applicants for Miss Solomon's replacement.

Until a replacement can be found, Dorothy Shurtleff, secretary, will work full time instead of the three days a week she's presently working.

In other business, the board heard updates from various committees.

Anderson, who is in charge of committees to update the by-laws and to set a long-range plan, said his committees are getting organized and that he plans to enlist key people from the community in developing a 10-year plan.

Maggie Compton reported that the tourism committee will ask the city council for an increase from the hotel-motel occupancy tax. She said $7,500 was spent last year on promoting tourism here and that the committee hopes to double that figure this year.

Other committee reports included community development, presented by Tandy Curlee; retail trade, presented by David Hoover; special events, presented by Becky Manning; and

Sales tax continues down

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Friday sent checks totaling $14,484 in local sales tax to Colorado City and Westbrook, two of the 1,038 cities that levy the one-percent city tax.

Bullock said that state-wide, 1987 payments to date are down 6 percent as compared to payments to date made in March of last year. Mitchell County is down 15.54 percent.

Colorado City's check totaled $13,945, down from the $16,871 received for the same period last year. The 1987 payments to date are $61,667, down 13.10 percent from the 1986 payments to date of $70,960.

Westbrook's check totaled $519, down from the $845 received for the same period last year. The 1987 payments to date are $2,274, down 47.02 percent from the 1986 payments to date of $4,293.

Lorraine did not receive a check this period. Last year, at this time, Lorraine received $506. The 1987 payments to date total $1,370, down 33.96 percent from the 1986 payments to date of $2,075.

March checks represent taxes collected on sales made in January and reported to the comptroller by Feb. 20.

Mitchell County is not alone in lower sales tax receipts. Scurry County is running 25.13 percent behind last year while Nolan County is down 4.93 percent and Howard County is down 10.20 percent.

15 years assessed in robbery here

A Scurry County man who pleaded guilty to robbing a Colorado City drug store last fall received a 15-year sentence in the Texas Department of Corrections Friday.

Gary Don Parks still faces charges in Callahan County. He is due to plead guilty to robbery charges Friday in Callahan County if prosecutors drop an aggravated kidnapping charge.

Parks, 35, of Fluvanna, will enter the plea in a hearing before 42nd District Judge Don Lane in Abilene, said Callahan County attorney Bob McCool. McCool said he will suggest that Lane sentence Parks to 15 years in the TDC.

Parks is charged with the Dec. 13 robbery of Howie's Discount Pharmacy and with the kidnapping of Jerry Howie, the store owner's brother. Howie was held hostage at the store for 2 1/2 hours.

Parks admitted to robbing Perkin's Apothecary in Colorado City on Dec. 10 of $30 in cash, 10 syringes and 150 Dilaudid pills, a narcotic.

In Scurry County, Parks may have an eight-year probated sentence for possession of hydromorphone revoked. A hearing is set Thursday in Snyder to consider whether or not to revoke Parks' probation.

Kindergarten class project creates surprise for pair

A kindergarten classroom project about money turned into a special surprise for school nurse Mary Petty and Kelley Elementary aide Anita Reyna Friday.

Mrs. Petty and Mrs. Reyna were given gifts from the students of Mrs. Evelyn Malone from money earned from a store set up in the classroom.

"We've been studying the value of coins - penny, nickel and dime - for the past five weeks," explained Mrs. Malone. "In order that students understand the value better, a store was set up within the classroom."

Parents kept the store supplied with items ranging from blow-bubbles to brownies.

"Daily, students chose what they wanted to purchase," said Mrs. Malone. "On Monday of each week, students were allowed to borrow money from the 'bank' (interest free) and pay it back the next day."

She said that when the project was first started, the students decided that special gifts would be given to Mrs. Petty and Mrs. Reyna. The gifts were furnished by the Panda Patch for purchasing. Mrs. Petty and Mrs. Reyna had a wide range of gifts from which to choose. Each chose a picture frame and a candlestick as their gifts.

Public hearing draws requests

Ten agencies requested $31,000 in hotel-motel occupancy tax revenues during a public hearing before the Colorado City Council Tuesday night.

Mayor Elmer Martin appointed a committee to study the requests and make a recommendation at the April 6 meeting due to the fact that only about $15,000 in tax revenues is budgeted this year.

The tax is generated from rates charged at local motels. The revenue is primarily designed to promote tourism, said Martin.

Among the agencies requesting funds and the amount and reason requested included:

- Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce, $5,000 to promote tourism in the area;
- Mitchell County Day Care Center, $2,000 to help sponsor a festival in June which should attract visitors to the area, proceeds of which will be used to re-roof the building at a cost of $4,500;

- Texas Teenage Baseball League, $1,000 for maintenance and upkeep of the field in order to host an area tournament in July which will bring visitors to the area;

- C-City Bass Club, $500 to help promote its annual tournament which drew 185 contestants last year, 31 of which stayed in local motels;

- Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department, $4,000 to help with the annual July 4 fireworks display and $1,000 to assist with a fireman's convention the local department will host this fall;

- Mitchell County Jaycees, $500 to help promote the annual mud-bog and annual softball tournament;

- Colorado City Playhouse, See CITY, Page 2

$2,000 for maintenance and upkeep of the playhouse which attracts visitors each year with its productions;
- Colorado City Museum and Heritage House, $6,000 for continued support and upkeep of both facilities:

- Ruddick Park and Parks Board, $5,000 for playground equipment, and;
- Wallace Center, $5,000 for support of its various programs.

In other business, the council heard proposals from Dr. Jack Newkirk of Colorado Veterinary Hospital and Dr. Charles Froneberger of Mitchell County Veterinarian Clinic who both want to operate the city pound. The pound is currently operated by Newkirk, although the city has no formal agreement with him.

A committee of City Manager Brenda Tarter and council members Phil Anderson and Don Webb was appointed to study both proposals and to bring back a recommendation to the council.

to the council.

In other business, the council:

- authorized grant consultant Gary Smith to submit a grant application for water improvements to the state;
 - approved a contract renewal with Scott Norman for Fisher Park at Lake Champion;
 - appointed Ray Anne Carlock and Emma Beth Thompson to two vacancies on the cemetery board;
- Because of the lengthy agenda, the council recessed until Thursday at 7 p.m.

Reward offered

Crime Stoppers of Mitchell County is offering a reward for information leading to the arrest and indictment of person or persons who have been entering school buildings without consent.

Police Chief Bobby Sparks said a set of keys to school buildings was stolen two weeks ago and since that time, officers have found doors open at both Middle School and Hutchinson Elementary apparently unlocked by whoever stole the keys.

On Feb. 24, Officer Jerry Rutherford discovered an unlocked door at 2 a.m. in the gym area at middle school. Someone apparently had opened the dressing room area in the gym and then climbed out a window. Nothing was missing.

On Friday night, Officer Richard Hawkins discovered a door open at Hutchinson Elementary. Upon entering the building, he heard footsteps in a hallway, but the subjects were able to escape through the lunchroom area, knocking over trash cans and chairs in the process.

Anyone with information about this crime or any other crime should call Crime Stoppers at 728-TIPS. You will not be asked to give your name. You will be assigned a number to use when you call back to collect your reward.

Morris directs group meeting

The Susan Everman Baptist Women's group met March 2 in the home of Jean Hardee. Jessie Mae Merket, group leader, opened the meeting with prayer. Catharine Morris gave the prayer calendar for those missionaries having birthdays on March 2 and everyone signed a greeting card for Jerry Everman, local missionary to Brazil whose birthday is March 11. Billie Margaret Harrison, the WMU centennial celebration chairman, reported several blocks of the centennial quilt completed and displayed them. Mrs. Merket reported the book study, "Unexpected Voices", with the theme, "All are Called to Evangelism", was held Thursday night and was well attended.

The group voted to buy the assigned amount of coffee for the Circle 6 Ranch. Mrs. Merket reported WMU Focus Week activity, the tasting spree on Sunday night, Feb. 15, was a success and a generous mission offering given. Mary Lloyd reported that the Helping Hand will be open on Mondays instead of Thursdays in the future. Earlene Sellier reported the mission support committee will again collect tin cans to finance mission activities. The program was the Week of Prayer for Home Missions study entitled "Who Will Win America", directed by Mrs. Morris. The theme was training Christians, now a minority in the United States, in special witnessing skills to reach specific groups in life style evangelism. Participating in the program were Mrs. Harrison, Betsy Aycock, Mrs. Sellier, Anna Staats, Mrs. Lloyd, Mrs. Morris and Billie Roenfeldt. Mrs. Sellier closed the meeting with prayer.

Garden Club shares plants

Sharing plants and seeds was initiated at the Garden Club meeting at the C. C. Thompson Room, Wednesday afternoon with Faye Daniel, program director. She patterned the program from the Dallas club to which she belonged before coming to Colorado City. Each gardener received a number on arrival. Plants, cuttings and seeds were placed on a large table. In numerical order, three people were called to inspect and collect their choices. After each had a turn, all gardeners gathered around the table for additional plants. Many members hoped this would become an annual event. At the business meeting, Margaret Trulock introduced Erna Lou Burt, a new member; then she reviewed activities included in the district meeting at Big Lake next month. Last item of business was about conditions of trees that garden clubbers had planted for park or circle beautification. "Lack of care has taken its toll, especially at Paredes Plaza. Trees need tender, loving care the first full year and checking thereafter." Then she brought the members up to date on the fruit trees recently purchased to be put in at the Heritage House yard. Hostesses were Dovie Brownfield and Billie Faye Conard who served cookies and soft drinks. Attending were Dovie Brownfield, Erna Lou Burt, Alice Coles, Billie Faye Conard, Faye Daniel, Ann Davis, Louise Devovic, Nadine Gordon, Bernice Hilliard, Frances Myers, Margaret Trulock and Genevieve Moore, new member.

Baumann club meets

The Baumann Home Extension Club met Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Lynn Compton. Mrs. Bernice Hallmark led the club prayer. Mrs. Clara Butler led the recreation. Roll call was answered by "Naming One Small Way You Can Save Money". The members were reminded about the county education tour on March 26 when a tour of the Diamond M Museum in Snyder is planned. Lunch will be at K-Bob's. Plans were made for the farewell tea for county extension agent Debbie Christian. Mrs. Bernice Hallmark presented the council report. The program was presented by Mrs. Pauline Smiley. Refreshments were served to Mrs. Clara Butler, Mrs. Inez Webb, Mrs. Bernice Hallmark, Mrs. Bertha Fay Snyder, Mrs. Willie Cornutt, Mrs. Pauline Smiley, Mrs. Cullen Payne and the hostess, Mrs. Compton.

Schroeder presents club program

The North Lorraine Extension Homemakers Club was hosted by Mrs. Margaret Brame on Wednesday, March 4 at 2:30 p.m. for a regular meeting. Nina Meadows, president, was in charge. Billie Schroeder was in charge of the recreation. The roll call was answered with "Name one small way you can save money."

Jimmie Jacks, club delegate, brought the council report. She highlighted the up-coming events as follows: the clubs of the county will visit the Diamond M Museum in Snyder March 26; announcement of the farm auction March 21 at the county barn and assignments were read to the club on food and work hours; and announcement of the district meeting for the TEHA Clubs to be held in Abilene April 7.

Billie Schroeder brought an informative program on "How to save dollars when you don't have a dime to spare."

Some of the statistics given were surprising for example the average citizen spends $85 per year through vending machines. One pack per day smokers spend $180 annually—multiply that by three and see what it costs a 3 pack smoker annually in addition to health costs.

She stated 66 percent of grocery shoppers do so without planning. She suggested never to shop while hungry. She cited many habits that are costly that we are not aware of—such as donuts and coffee at the cafe; candy and gum; magazines off the rack, etc. Things that aren't necessary she recommended that we ask ourselves, "Do I really need this?" She suggested we set visible goals, and stick to them. In most cases, this involves change, but would be profitable. She concluded with this statement, "Today's spending influences tomorrow's financial security."

Mrs. Brame served refreshments to 10 members and one visitor. The members were Mmes. Billie Schroeder, J. E. Price, Nina Meadows, Jimmie Jacks, Eva Wells, Effie Wheeler, Lola Faye Bennett, Ruth Holman, Blondie Hamilton and the guest, Sally Compton.

his position as assistant fire chief; Herman Mitchell remains vice-president; Danny Butler is chaplain; Wendell Banks will be the training officer. Henry Mitchell was appointed public relations and Shirlene Sanders is secretary-treasurer.

Lady Wolves at Stanton Saturday

It will be a year of transition for the Colorado City girls track team in 1987.

The Lady Wolves begin the new season at Stanton Saturday with a lot of voids to fill. Last spring graduated some of the best tracksters in school history.

"It'll be a young team learning to compete," said coach Will Gollihar. "We'll probably be strongest in the mile relay."

Only two seniors and one junior are on the nineteen member squad. That sits well with Gollihar because the sophomores and freshmen are loaded with talent for the next few years.

Robin Edwards is the only returning regional qualifier for the Lady Wolves. Edwards made the Region I AAA meet last year as part of an 800 meter relay. She also saw duty last season in the 100, 200 and shot put.

This year she again ranks as one of the top sprinters. The other senior, Sally Mendoza, returns to run the 1600 and 3200 meter races.

Junior Melissa Rivera is tentatively listed as a shot and discus thrower.

Despite the small number of upper classmen, Gollihar reports that more girls are starting to participate in track. "The numbers are definitely coming around," said Gollihar. "Most of them are sophomores and freshmen though."

The sophomore class is heavy in field event talent. It includes Monica Hamilton in the sprints, shot and discus; Sylvia Alvarez in the hurdles; distance runner Amy Aguilar; distance runner Arnie Arnett; Lisa Ornelas in the shot and discus; Denise Lowrance in the shot, discus and "possibly in the sprints"; Stacy Miles in the shot and discus and Oris Gonzales in the shot and discus.

The freshmen class has speed to burn. Dianne Green, Ruthie Green, Kendra Ritchey, Mandy Conner and Brittany Bridgford are listed as sprinters. Melissa Rivera is listed in the sprints and triple jump, Amy Chitsey in the sprints and middle distances and Tina Selvera will handle the distance races.

Saturday's Stanton Relays begin with an 8:15-9 a.m. scratch meeting. Girls teams Colorado City, Stanton, Imperial, Wink, Seagraves, Midland Greenwood, Forsan, Coahoma, Plains, Tahoka, Denver City, Reagan County, Winters and Jal, New Mexico are entered along with 11 boys teams.

Races are expected to be in two heats with the top seven to make the finals. Field events begin with the girls shot put and long jump at 9 a.m. The discus, triple jump and high jump are set for 1 p.m. The 3200 meter run is scheduled for 9:30 a.m. All other running prelims are to begin at 10:30 a.m. and finals at 2:30 p.m.

Boys second at Anson

Of fifteen teams entered, the Colorado City Wolves finished a surprising second in a season-opening track meet at Anson Saturday.

The Pack's Ismael Silva led the point producing with top finishes in the distance races.

Silva, a junior, won the 3200 meter run in 10:57.3 and took second in the 1600 meter run in a time of 5:05.35.

"He stayed behind (in the 3200) the leader until the last lap and let him break the wind," said coach Raymond Zamarripa. "He let the guy (Watson of Winters) set the pace in the 1600 and didn't run his race."

Watson took the 1600 in 5:03.4. Other top finishes by the Wolves were by the 400 meter relay, by Michael Swann in the hurdles, Guy Compton in the high jump and Bill Dossey in the shot put.

The 400 meter relay team of Pat Tillis, Beau Rees, Swann and Larry Mayes took second with a 45.88.

Swann ran a 42.78 for second in the 300 intermediate hurdles. His time is already better than his best of 42.9 last season.

Compton and Elliott Park of Clyde tied for first in the high jump at 6'2" but Park won on fewer misses.

Dossey heaved the shot 46'4" for a third place.

"I was pleased with the overall effort," said Zamarripa. "All of them competed well. The freshmen we took competed well against seniors and juniors. We did very well especially for this early in the season."

"We don't have the depth it takes to win a team title. We don't have the speed out for track that we possibly could." Rees and Derek Ramsey added points in the discus competition. Rees took fourth with a throw of 134'7" and Ramsey won fifth at 133'2 1/4".

Mayes won fifth in the long jump by sailing 19'8" and took another fifth with a 24.82 clocking in the 200 meter dash.

A sixth place was taken by the 1600 meter relay team of Rees, David Garcia, Swann and Darwin Jackson.

Jackson, a sophomore, running track for the first time since the eighth grade, took sixth in the open quarter with a 56.24. In the 400 meter dash prelims Jackson ran a 53.9.

Team totals: Merkel 100, Colorado City 89, Cisco 63, Rotan 61, Clyde 51, Winters 30, Roby 24, Rochester 22, Stamford 17, Anson 14, Spur and Trent 13, Coahoma and Hamlin 8, Woodson 6.

BRIDGETT BRIDGFORD clears 4'2" for third place in the high jump Saturday. Bridgford and the Colorado Middle School eighth grade girls claimed a team title. Complete results of the Junior Lone Wolf Relays will be in Sunday's RECORD.

Letters to the editor

To the editor:

When I read Mrs. Dunn's letter in last Sunday's paper the first thought that came to mind was, Why beat this dead horse any further? This inane argument has been going on for years. It is resurrected, or should I say disinterred, every few years, usually by a new-comer or someone living outside the county.

It is my opinion that the natives (or anyone wishing to appear as such) pronounce it Colorado because that is the way it has been pronounced here for as far back as anyone can remember and old ways die hard. That may not make it correct but it makes it so.

I realize this letter will not end the argument, and that somewhere down the road someone will dig it back up, but allow me to leave you with this parting thought. With all the hunger, corruption, and strife in this world, real issues that need our attentions, doesn't it seem silly that anyone would want to gripe and nit-pick about how a group of people pronounce the name of their OWN hometown. It all seems rather petty to me.

Elmer Lee Ward Jr.
Colorado City

To the editor:

I think it's time for the folks of Colorado City to start thinking about the future of their town and spend less time arguing about how to pronounce it. If businesses keep going out, whose going to care how it's pronounced.

Dear Friends of Colorado City:
I am writing this letter asking the ex-students of Colorado City High School and the people of Colorado City to host a reunion on the weekend of July 4, 1987. Recently Don Maynard, class of 1953, was chosen to be inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He will be inducted on Saturday, August 8th. I called Don when I learned of his selection. Don would like very much to have all exes of Colorado City High School and the people of Colorado City share in his great honor. Don feels very strongly about his ties to Colorado City.

It is not very often that a football player from a high school is chosen for the Pro-Football Hall of Fame. His record of 88 touchdown passes, 11,832 yards gained pass receiving and 665 passes caught were all-time records in Pro-Football for the New York Jets. His 17 years in professional football are truly outstanding. Having a reunion would be a fitting climax to a great athletic career for Don Maynard. I am hoping that all Colorado City High School exes, especially those that played in the early 1950's, and the people of Colorado City will hold a reunion affair on the July 4th weekend.

In 1983, Don was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1968, Colorado City had "Don Maynard Day". I attended that event and it was a tremendous success. In 1983 the graduating class of 1953 had its 30th reunion. It was also a great success.

I am sorry that I am nearly 300 miles away in Austin and cannot be close at hand to help organize the affair. I think July 4th and 5th, Saturday and Sunday, would be excellent dates. Monday July 6th is also a federal holiday.

I am sending this letter to a number of Colorado City High School exes who still live in Colorado City, Lorraine, Snyder and Big Spring. Likewise, I am sending this letter to the Colorado City RECORD, Chamber of Commerce, Jaycees, Kiwanis Club, Lions Club, Coach Tom Ramsey at C.C.H.S., Jerry Reynolds, the Principal at C.C.H.S., and Superintendent of Schools Charile Uselton.

I am urging anyone reading this letter to contact someone who can help organize this reunion affair. I plan to be there on July 4th weekend and plan to be in Canton, Ohio on August 8th for the induction ceremony for the Pro-Football Hall of Fame.

Suggestions:

1. That one name, address and telephone number be used to accept commitments to attend the Reunion.
2. That the newspaper be used to publicize the Reunion Affair.
3. That the local radio station be used to publicize the Reunion Affair.

4. That some local facility be acquired to hold this affair.
5. That Colorado City High School exes and the people of Colorado City contact others by phone, letters, or word of mouth to come to the affair.

I hope that this Reunion Affair can be accomplished. Please contact me if I can be of assistance at the above address and telephone number.

Sincerely,
Jerome J. Buxkemper
