The Gay Philosopher

By J. W. S.

ONCE UPON A time there was a boy whose teachers worried at him because he was a slow learner and a poor speller. His father often wondered if the shy, best little guy who spent his nights roaming the hills of the farm would ever make a name for himself in the world. February 22 is his birthday. The part that George Washington played in our nation's birth growth shows very definitely you just never can tell.

EDITORS OF newspapers at Eastland, Ranger, Gorman, Rising and Cisco gathered here last night and enjoyed dinner together. It was the first time they ever met for a social gathering.

It was kind of a meeting to honor Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Hicks to Eastland County. They recently purchased the Rising Star Record from Jack McCarty of Cross Plains. The Hickses hail from De Leon where they published a newspaper for a good many years.

It wasn't a business meeting. Editors have to cover so many things that when they meet for either a social affair or a test to see who can eat the most.

Final Rites For Mrs. Albert Reed Held Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Albert Reed, 51, who had lived in the Cisco area all her life, were held at 3 p. m. Saturday at the Mountain Top Pentecostal Church with the Rev. Guyton in charge of the services.

Mrs. Reed, who lived on Route 2, Cisco, died at 10:05 a. m. Friday in a local hospital following an illness of about a year.

She was born on May 28, 1902, in Scranton and was married to Mr. Reed there on January 22, 1920.

Survivors are her husband of Rt. 2, Cisco; a son, Carbell Reed of Cisco; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Du Vault of Rising Star; three sisters, Mrs. C. A. Kile of Cisco, Mrs. H. K. Holt of Big Lake and Mrs. J. E. Johnson of Rising Star; and two grandchildren.

Burial was in the Long Branch Cemetery with Thomas Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

Boosters Club Plans Meeting Monday Night

Members of the Cisco Boosters Club were reminded of the regular meeting to be held Monday at 7 p. m. at the high school building.

All members were urged to attend the meeting as important business will be transacted and plans completed for several projects which are in the planning stage.

No special program is planned for the meeting since sufficient business matters are on docket to take up the time of the meeting.

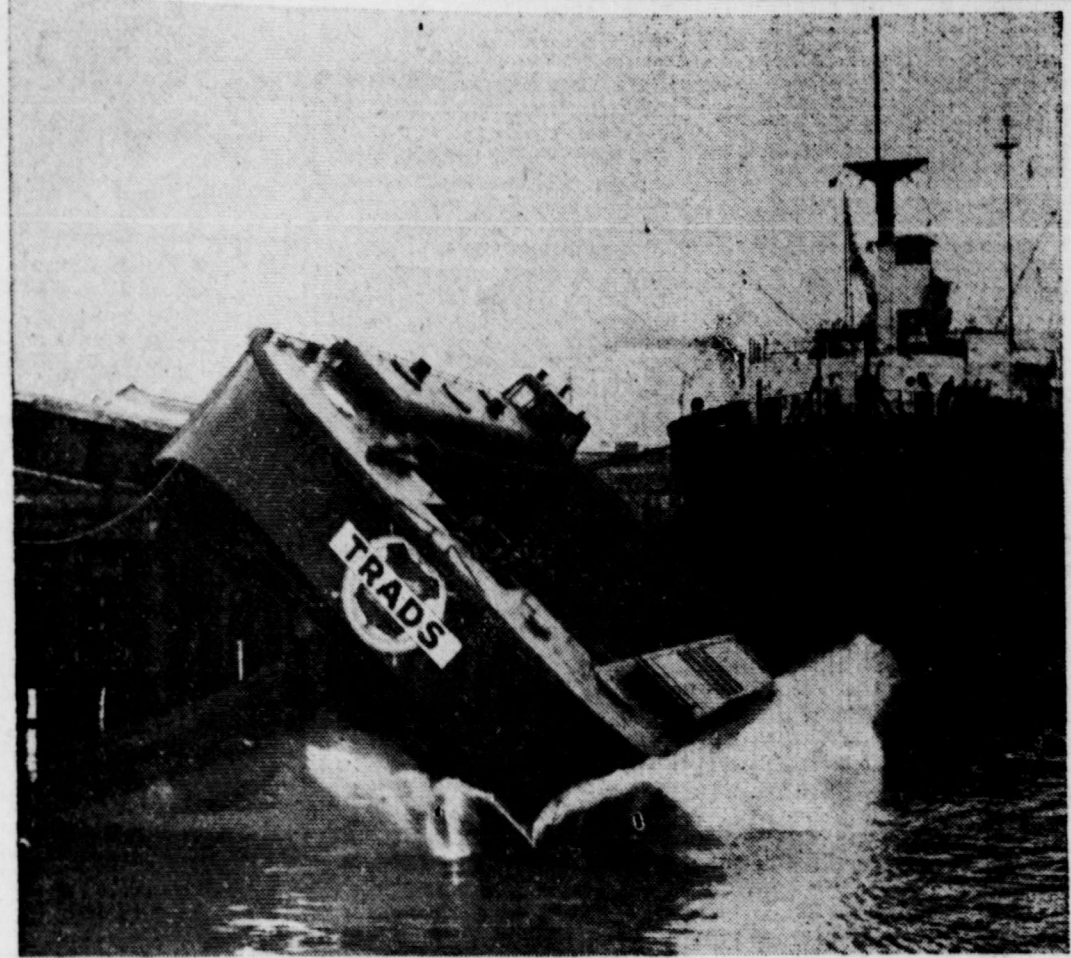

RELIGIOUS CARTOON ARTIST IS WINNER OF FOUNDATION AWARD

WACO, Feb. 21. — Jack Hamm, a quiet, 37-year-old Baylor University art teacher who "draws for God," will receive one of the nation's highest honors Sunday.

His cartoon, "Relay That Must Not Fail," has been selected by the Freedoms Foundation as the outstanding drawing for the cause of freedom in 1952. Vice-President Richard M. Nixon will hand him the Freedoms Foundation honor medal and a check for $1,000 in Washington Birthday ceremonies at Valley Forge, Pa., Sunday afternoon.

Hamm regularly draws a weekly religious cartoon for 738 newspapers and magazines in 45 American states and 17 foreign countries. His winning cartoon pictured a runner, "Every one of us," handing to the extended hand of "future generations" a blazing torch labeled "Freedom of inalienable rights." His drawings appear each week in The Press.

Most of his cartoons have a

PAVING OF SCRANTON ROAD IS DUE TO BEGIN IN NEAR FUTURE

Paving work on a new farm-to-market road for the Scranton community southwest of Cisco is expected to begin in the near future, according to information here Saturday. Bids for the paving work were opened last week by the State Highway Department in Austin.

A. L. Bucy, Brownwood contractor, was low bidder for the contract. His bid was $37,932 on the project, which called for 4.7

miles of grading, structures, base and surfacing work. The new road, Farm Road 1864, will extend from Farm Road 569 seven miles southwest of Cisco west through Scranton to the county line.

Farm Road 569 extends from Cisco to Nimrod.

The Cisco Chamber of Commerce, through its highway committee, has been active in seeking the Scranton paving along with other hard-surfaced roads southwest of town for years. Members of the committee are J. J. Callaway, George Davis, E. P. Crawford, A. R. Westfall and J. T. Richardson.

The committee hopes eventually to have a hard-surfaced road from Cisco to Cross Plains, and a spokesman for the group said that "we are well pleased with progress to date." A future project is expected to continue the present farm road from Nimrod south.

The agricultural possibilities of the area southwest of Cisco are considerable, the committee has pointed out. Adequate roads would contribute to development there.

Wrangler Teams Play Weatherford Quintets Tuesday

The Cisco Junior College Wranglers and the Weatherford play teams from Weatherford Junior College at the community gym Tuesday night. The games begin at 7 p. m. when the two girls teams meet.

It will be the final home game for the Wranglers who wind up their season this week. The final game will be played in Weatherford Saturday night. The girls also play in Weatherford that night, but Coach Mosley is attempting to schedule additional games for his team.

The Wranglers ended their conference schedule in Decatur Thursday night by dropping a close three point decision to the Indians.

Next week the Wranglers begin work on track, and indications are that they will field a fine team. They will be particularly strong in the 440, the distance races and relays.

And therein lies the real story of Jack Hamm.

He does not make a penny out of these cartoons which probably are the most widely circulated of any single newspaper feature. Rather, he personally goes in debt some $225 every week to pay for production and mailing costs.

He gives the cartoons away because he is convinced that God wants it that way. "I am trying to reach people for Christ," he said. "I don't want to put anything in the way that would keep a single paper from printing the cartoon's religious message."

Hamm began Religious Drawings, as he calls his unique syndicate, three years ago, as a means of combining his own artistic talent and what he believed was the Lord's call for him to preach.

Boy Scout Troop Entertains With Party At Church

Boy Scout Troop 101 was host at a meeting Friday night entertaining members of Boy Scout Troop 56 at the First Presbyterian Church. The program was attended by 10 members of Troop 101 and 12 members of Troop 56.

The group played games of "Moon" and "Steal the Bacon" and presented plays entitled "The Viper" and "Vepper."

Bill Kendall made a short talk at the meeting telling of the minstrel, "Convention Blues," which is being presented Friday night by the Boosters Club as a benefit for scouts planning to attend the National Jamboree in California in July.

Charlie Graham, Cisco Scouter, explained the requirements set out by the national organization for attending the Jamboree and told of the activities of the jamborees.

Mrs. O. C. Jeffcoat baked cookies for the occasion and they were served with bottled drinks as refreshments.

Attending the meeting from Troop 56 were: Billy Kendall, Johnny Richardson, Charlie Lavery, Terry Ford, James Tabor, James Elrod, John Adams, Jerry Slaughter, Billy McLeister, V. H. Clark, Franklin Farnsworth and Johnny Choate.

Attending from Troop 101 were: Buddy Deen, Joe Wayne Farrow, Bobby Woolsey, Blair Paul, John McCanlies, Butch Smith, Ace Lucas, Jr., Bobby Beale, Don Martin and Jerry Jeffcoat.

Episcopal Church Plans Announced

The beginning of the Lenten season will be observed in services this week of the Holy Trinity Episcopal Church at 710 South Seaman in Eastland, it was reported by the Rev. Arthur E. Hartwell, rector.

Sunday, the first Sunday of Lent, will be observed by a celebration of Holy Communion at 9 a. m. The church school will be held as usual with the kindergarten meeting at the rectory and the older groups meeting at the church.

The mid-week program during Lent will include Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m. on Wednesdays, and a study-discussion program on Thursday evenings at the home of Mrs. Alice Taylor, 511 South Mulberry, at 7:30 p. m. Beginning this Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. cottage services will be held in Cisco. These meetings will provide for a short period of worship, followed by a period for fellowship and discussion. The first meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Peggy Gallagher, on the Cisco-Eastland Highway. Everyone was invited to all the services.

Insurance Bill Is Due For Hearing By Senate Group

AUSTIN, Feb. 21. (Special To The Press) — Senator Wayne W. Wagonseller's bill to increase requirements for future health, life and accident insurance companies to do business in Texas will have a special hearing March 3.

The hearing will be before the Senate Insurance Committee on the bill which was prepared under sponsorship of the State Insurance Commission.

Wagonseller's measure specifies that companies writing health, life and accident insurance must have a surplus of $100,000.00, in addition to the $100,000.00 in capital stock as the present law requires, before they can be licensed for business. Presently operating companies would be exempt, Wagonseller said.

"The bill is merely to give the policyholder more protection," Wagonseller said. "In many, many instances today the policyholder does not have any recourse, and this measure would make the company more secure from the standpoint of the buying public."

Wagonseller invited anyone interested to appear at the March 3 hearing.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Merkett of Tyler are spending the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Merkett.

RED CROSS BLOODMOBILE UNIT TO BE IN COUNTY NEXT MONTH

Announcement was made Saturday that the Red Cross Bloodmobile Unit, acting as procurement agency for the National Blood Program, will visit Eastland County on March 31, April 1 and 2 to collect blood. The unit will be in Cisco on March 31, in Eastland April 1 and in Ranger on April 2.

Each visit will entail preparations by local Red Cross volunteer workers in their respective communities.

Preliminary plans were outlined at a meeting last week. Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Cisco committee chairman, introduced Mrs. Chas. S. Sandler, county blood donor chairman, and Mrs. E. E. Freyschlag, county chairman. Mrs. Sandler and Mrs. Freyschlag spoke briefly on the organization necessary for the maximum benefit of the Bloodmobile visit and on the need for blood.

It was pointed out that the need is greater at this time because of the request for gamma globulin by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. As another service to the national blood program, the Red Cross will extract gamma globulin from blood collected to be used for the prevention of polio by the foundation.

Processing laboratories are working full capacity in order to process the blood for use in giving inoculation to children in epidemic areas. The Red Cross will turn the gamma globulin over to the Polio Foundation for use in the program.

In addition, Mrs. Freyschlag pointed out, the Red Cross will be collecting blood for civilian hospitals and the hospitals in Korea.

Mrs. Sandler announced that Larry Hayes, director of the North Texas Defense Center in Fort Worth, will speak in Cisco on March 11.

Attending the meeting, in addition of the leaders named above, were Mrs. Carl Lamb, hostess chairman; Mrs. Joe Lambert, labelling chairman; Mrs. J. J. Porter, nurses aides chairman; Mrs.

Students Present Musical Program At Rotary Meet

Rotarian G. C. McGowen presented a musical program by students and faculty members of Cisco Junior College at the regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Hotel Victor dining room Thursday.

Rotarian McGowen presented Robert Clinton, head of the music department of the school, who introduced the program.

First, the girls trio, consisting of Jane Huestis, Ruth Beaty and Patsy King, sang "Blue Moon." For the second part of the program the trio was joined by Barbara Schaefer for two quartet numbers, "Shine On Me," and "Don't Let The Stars Get In Your Eyes." The singers were accompanied by Calvin Grung at the electric guitar.

For the concluding numbers on the program the Madrigal Singers of the school sang "While We're Young" and a medley of numbers from "Carousel." Singers in the group were Misses Huestis, Beaty, King and Schaefer and Jack Chambliss, Bob Latham, Ben Green and Calvin Grung. They were accompanied by Mr. Clinton at the piano.

Visitors at the meeting were Rotarians Vic Behrens, Bob Gilchrist and Elbert Hall of Abilene and Jack Frost and Earl Stephens of Eastland. Another visitor was R. A. Brannon of Houston, a guest of Rotarian W. P. Guinn.

House Action On Measure Due Soon

(Special to the Press) AUSTIN, Feb. 21.—Legislative friction increased today over Rep. Omar Burkett's bill to consolidate the 91st Judicial District (Eastland County) with the 90th Judicial District (Young and Stephens Counties).

Strong opposition developed from two main sources:

1. Petitions bearing approximately 1,700 signatures of Eastland County citizens protesting the consolidation were handed to Burkett and Senator Wayne W. Wagonseller.

2. Wagonseller said flatly that he was opposed to the measure and would be actively against it when it came to the Senate.

Despite this opposition, Burkett said that he would not be sidetracked from his campaign to see that the bill becomes law. He passed up a chance for the House to act on the bill when it came up Thursday noon shortly before members voted to adjourn until Monday at 10:30 a. m. Burkett yielded his place on the House calendar for a friend for other legislation and received approval of the House to have his court bill set for consideration Monday at 10:30 a. m. He thought that a better time, he said.

There is a possibility, however, that the Burkett bill will not come up Monday morning. Monday is regularly scheduled as "Suspension Day," a time when members receive special permission to bring up their bills out of numerical order. Tuesday is reserved for constitutional amendments and Wednesday for bills coming over from the Senate. If the Burkett measure is by-passed by the prescribed routine of business, it will be late in the week before it receives attention. The course will be known Monday.

"People have been misled about this bill," Burkett said. "Rumors have been passed around that it would stop court being held in Eastland. That is a FALSE statement. Court would be held just the same."

"This bill is an economy measure. Besides that, I have a letter from Governor Shivers to me personally pointing to the need for judicial redistricting. The State Bar Association has recommended that judicial districts be changed, and a special committee now is preparing a bill for the House of Representatives to rearrange our courts on a state-wide basis."

Burkett said there are 60 lawyer-House members and that all of them agree on the necessity for court changes.

"I don't want to wait until the special committee's bill comes up to make this change because the folks of my district won't get as good treatment from that bill as they will from mine," Burkett explained.

He estimated that consolidation of the Eastland district with the Young-Stephens district would save about $40,000.00 a year.

"I came down here on an economy program," Burkett said, "and my court bill is right down that line. There's nothing personal about what I do. I have proved that in previous service here. It is just plain, common sense. Eastland County used to be one of five counties in a court district, and it is a waste of money to have the arrangement we have today."

Wagonseller had petitions opposing the change from 33 attorneys in Eastland County and 13 attorneys in Stephens County. He said that he also had received numerous telephone calls and letters of protest.

"I haven't received anything in favor of the bill," Wagonseller said. "I am an attorney and I can understand why the courts should be left alone. Without casting any criticism toward the author of the bill or toward his economy motives, I should like to go on record in opposition to such a proposal. The many good reasons for maintaining both district courts as they are greatly

NATIONAL FFA WEEK

The largest farm boys organization in the world, the Future Farmers of America, which has grown to a membership of 350,000 in 25 years will highlight National FFA Week February 21-28 with Silver Anniversary celebrations.

FFA Week is observed traditionally during the birthday week of George Washington, America's first scientific farmer. It was more than a century after his death that many of his agricultural practices, such as contour planting, crop rotation and other soil conserving methods, were put into general use.

The 40,000 Texas Future Farmers are high school age boys enrolled in vocational agriculture courses where they study practical, scientific methods of farming and receive leadership training. Each boy is required to have a supervised farming program of livestock, poultry or crops under the direction of a vocational agriculture teacher who is an agricultural college graduate.

Members of the Texas FFA, who make up almost one-eighth of the total FFA membership, will join other Future Farmers in each of the 46 states, Hawaii and Puerto Rico to observe National FFA Week and their 25th anniversary with special programs, radio and television appearances, movies, demonstrations, skits, newspaper stories, and father-son banquets, according to an announcement made by Vannoy Stewart, state FFA adviser.

In their farm training, Future Farmers study new technical farming processes and problems which will confront them when they become full-time farmers, and then put their training into practice on their school and home farms. The boys participate in area and state judging contests in dairy, meat, dairy products, livestock and poultry. Each Future Farmer is given the opportunity to work for three degrees which are Chapter Farmer, Lone Star Farmer, and American Farmer—the highest degree awarded by the FFA.

The leadership training which Future Farmers receive in the FFA organization prepares them to take part in public meetings, to speak in public and to preside at meetings. As a part of their leadership training, teams from Future Farmer chapters take part in radio broadcasting, chapter conducting, FFA quiz and farm skill demonstration contests at area and state meetings. The boys also compete for state and national awards in public speaking, farm electrification, farm mechanics, soil and water management, and farm safety, and for scholarships to agricultural colleges.

Texas Future Farmers are continuously being taught that a farmer is the operator of a highly complicated business and that he must be highly trained in most phases of endeavor than in most any other occupation. In caring for their investments valued at more than 14 million dollars, the FFA boys are receiving very good training for becoming the experts they must be if they want to be successful farmers. The Texas Future Farmers own beef cattle valued at more than three million dollars, have over two million invested in dairy cattle, and two million in swine. Their poultry projects are worth around $800,000 and their turkey projects are worth about $230,000. They have invested more than $570,000 in sheep and goats.

Miss Ann Scaer And Mr. Brauer United In Marriage Recently

In a double ring ceremony held recently in Our Savior Lutheran Church in Oak Forest in Houston, Miss Ann Scaer, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Scaer of Cisco, became the bride of Fred Brauer, son of Rev. and Mrs. Fred Brauer of Monango, North Dakota.

The Rev. M. L. Koenneke and the Rev. M. J. Scaer, father of the bride, performed the nuptial ceremony before an altar decorated with fern and baskets of white carnations, white chrysanthemums and white gladioli. Twenty eight tapers burned in brass candelabra on each side of the altar. Candles were burning at the windows.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and white satin fashioned with a sweetheart neckline outlined in pearls and with an illusion yoke. The flowing skirt was accented with lace panels and with a cathedral train. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bouquet was an orchid encircled with split carnations and streamers of lilies of the valley and stephanotis.

Miss Elaine Ziehr was maid of honor and wore a gold ballerina length gown of taffeta under net. Miss Virginia Weiser and Miss Rosalie Klein, bridesmaids, wore identical dresses of beige brown and emerald green. Each attendant wore a headdress of net and satin shoes to match. Their bouquets were bronze mums with beige brown streamers.

Paul Brauer, twin brother of the groom, was best man and Don Brauer, another brother of the groom, and Herb Schulz, cousin of the bride, were groomsmen. Ushers were Paul Nickel, Sr., and Kenneth Stengel.

Renee Dosien, wearing a gold dress, was flower girl and Paul Nickel, Jr., was ring bearer. Miss Maxine Klein registered the guests.

Bob Dosien furnished the music for the wedding and accompanied Bob Simpson who sang, "O Love, That Casts Out Fear," and "The Lord's Prayer."

A reception was held following the ceremony at the parish house. Pin wheel sandwiches, cake, lime punch, and coffee were served with the Walther League girls presiding at the wedding cake and punch bowls. The girls were also in charge of the gift room.

As the couple left for a wedding trip to Monterrey, Mexico, the bride was wearing a blue wool suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Brauer are now at home at 842 Wakefield, Houston, where both are employed in Our Savior Lutheran School.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Fred Brauer, mother of the groom, of Monango, North Dakota; Rev. and Mrs. M. J. Scaer, parents of the bride, of Cisco; Rev. M. L. Koenneke of Austin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brauer of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, Don Brauer of River Forest, Illinois, Rev. and Mrs. Erich Brauer and daughters, Emily and Priscilla, of Temple, Miss Maud Chartrand of Temple, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas of Convoys, Ohio, Mrs. Hulda Strasser of Fort Wayne, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schulz, Sr., of Bay Minette, Alabama, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Wende, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wende and Ruby, James Porter, all of Cisco, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Maass and son of Waco, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lambert of Katy.

Mrs. Bob Reeves and girls, Sherry, Robin, and Betty of Midland, were expected for a weekend visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luke Pippen, and her sisters, Mrs. Howard Turner and family and Mrs. Jay Williams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Lauderdale left Saturday for a weekend visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lauderdale and children, in Norman, Oklahoma.

Woodman Circle Has Meeting On Friday

Mrs. Effie Mayhew was hostess in her home Friday afternoon for the monthly meeting of the Loyalty Club of the Woodman Circle. During the business session, plans were made for each member to bring a gift to the next meeting to be held March 20, for the Woodman Circle Home at Sherman and Mrs. J. P. McCannies was elected delegate to the state convention to be held March 15-19 in San Antonio. Mrs. Burat Hill is alternate.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting to Mesdames Bob Harper, Leah Bates, G. P. Rainbolt, W. C. Clements, A. B. Cooper, J. P. McCannies, Ruth Bolinger, Rhoda Burkett, and the hostess, Mrs. Mayhew.

Tea And Book Review Held By Study Club

The Child Study Club met Friday at the club house for their annual Tea and book review with Mrs. A. D. Taylor as hostess, assisted by Mrs. Chesley Tipton and Mrs. W. W. Smith.

The clubhouse was decorated in pink and white flowers, carrying out the club colors. The serving table was laid with a white cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink and white flowers with white candles in silver candelabra on each side. Mrs. Ruth Pitzer, president, presided at the tea service. Music during the afternoon was furnished by Johnny Turner at the piano.

Mrs. Joseph Perkins of Eastland reviewed the book, "The Wonderful Country," by Thomas Lea, a book on Mexico. Following the book review, Mrs. Perkins displayed a hand carved wooden Madonna and a hand made stole, explaining each, that she had brought back from Mexico.

Mrs. H. D. Cameron presided at the guest book and registered a vocational conflict which dates back to his boyhood in Kansas.

In the art world, he very profitably helped with such comic strips as "Boots and Her Buddies," "Alley Oop," and "Horace and Babe." But when a big syndicate asked him to start a detective strip of his own — the dream of any aspiring artist — he felt it would mean definitely turning his back to God. He said, "No," resigned his other jobs, and caught the train to Waco to enter Baylor University to study for the ministry.

Baylor, a Baptist school, kept him on the faculty after his graduation.

His wife, Doris, and their daughter, five-year-old Dawna, help with the clerical work and go along with the artist on his hand-to-mouth financial arrangement.

Bills mount pretty high at times, like the $4,000 indebtedness which had accumulated early this month. But some "miracle" always happens, and friends of the cause — many of who Hamm does not know personally — mail in small and large checks to make the venture solvent again. "Some call it foolishness," Hamm asserted, "but I call it faith."

1953 Chevrolet Advance-Design Trucks are more truck for the money!

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

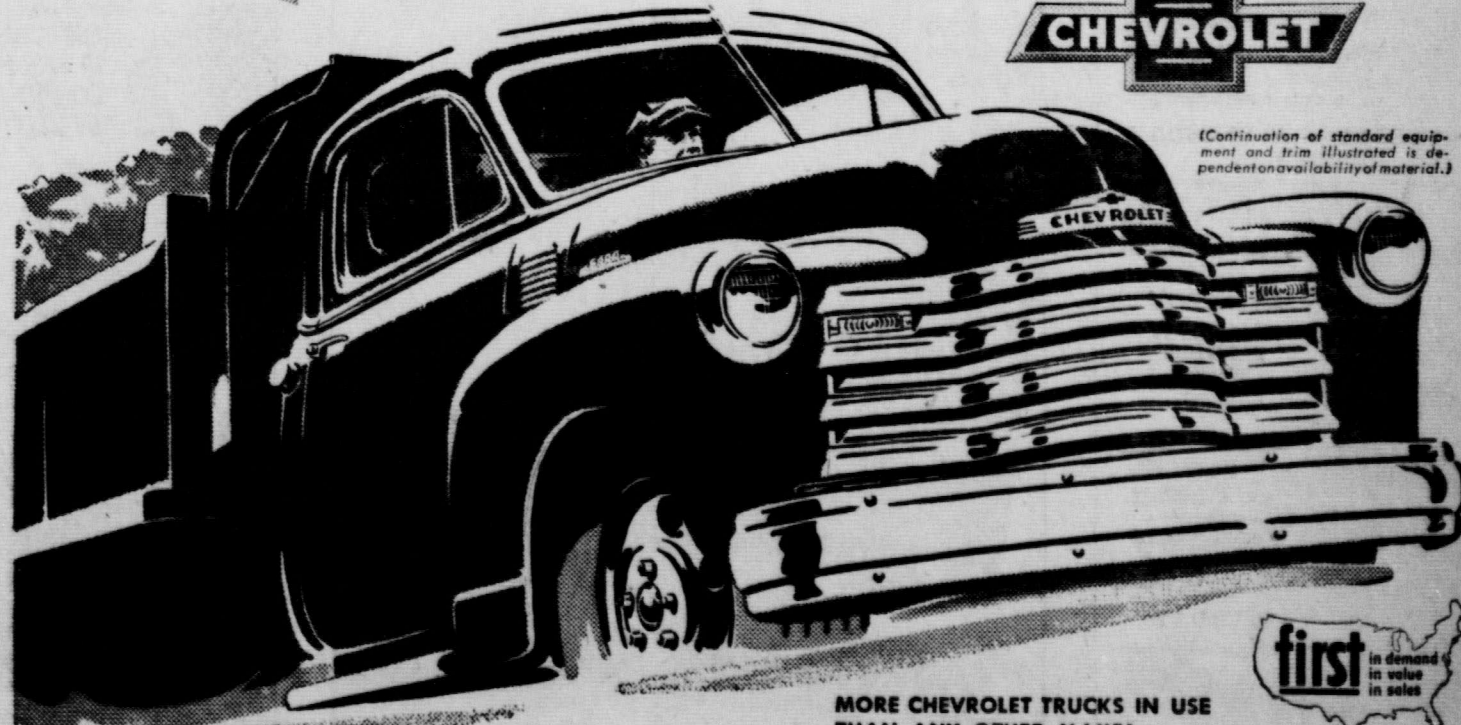

more engine power
more staying power
more braking power
more economy

Advanced Loadmaster engine — standard on 5000, 6000 Series and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks.

Heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

Trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" in rear.

New stamina plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.

MORE CHEVROLET TRUCKS IN USE THAN ANY OTHER MAKE!

outweigh the move as an economy measure."

There were other comments against the Burkett bill by a delegation of citizens here from the court districts when they presented their protest petitions Thursday.

They scoffed at Burkett's figure on the amount that would be saved if the courts are consolidated. They also said that while the special committee bill will propose court redistricting, there is a good chance it can be "suitably amended" in committee hearings.

"Our object is not to abolish the Eastland Court, but to add to its district and also the district of the 90th court," one spokesman said. "Shackelford County could be added to the Eastland Court district and Throckmorton County could be added to the Young-Stephens court."

"This would equalize the court loads and equalize the judicial districts. Why should Mr. Burkett's bill be passed now when the special committee's bill is being prepared and we will have a chance to build up our court district instead of tearing it down. Surely it is a waste of time and money to consider these single-shot bills now when a state-wide bill will be coming up soon."

Attention of other legislators likely will be focused on the Burkett bill. Rep. Mack Allison has both Young and Stephens Counties in his district. Burkett commented that Allison favors his bill. Young County is in the senatorial district of Senator George Moffett, whom Wagoner said opposes the Burkett bill. Shackelford County is in Senator Harley Sadler's district.

Centered in this legislative switch is Judge T. M. Collie of the 91st Court. Collie took office January 1, and formerly served three terms in the Texas House of Representatives. His would be one of the shortest district judge tenures on record if the Burkett bill were to become law. Regardless of the outcome of the Burkett court bill controversy, it is certain that pulchral redistricting on the state-wide basis will create more than a small amount of legal arguments.

Many success stories have been based on the above saying. For although a person may have the qualifications to make good, the opportunity is not always present.

The same can be said for persons selling goods or services. The product may be excellent but buyers may not be aware of its existence.

The Cisco Daily Press want ad columns offer an easy solution to this problem. They give you a powerful market place every week.
