Dodgers, Sox Tied; L. A. Wins 2nd, 4-3

CHICAGO (AP) — Two tremendous home runs by Charlie Neal and a pinch-hit homer by Chuck Essegian gave the comeback Los Angeles Dodgers a 4-3 victory over the Chicago White Sox Friday and tied the World Series at one game each.

Larry Sherry, who replaced starter Johnny Podres on the mound for the Dodgers at the start of the seventh, put down a spirited Chicago rally in the eighth inning after the White Sox had scored one run. Podres was credited with the victory.

The White Sox led 2-0 after three innings.

Right-hander Bob Shaw was Manager Al Lopez' choice to try to make it two straight for the American League champions at Comiskey Park. The White Sox won the opener Thursday 11-0.

The teams will take an off-day Saturday for travel and resume the best-of-seven series in Los Angeles Sunday.

Los Angeles's infield defense proved porous, just as in the third inning of the opening game.

Luis Aparicio doubled down the first base line and went to third on Nellie Fox's long fly. After Jim Landis walked, second baseman Charlie Neal bobbled Ted Kluszewski's potential double play grounder. Neal recovered in time to throw out Kluszewski. Aparicio scored. Sherman Lollar singled scoring Landis. Shortstop Maury Wills fumbled Al Smith's sharp grounder. Podres finally retired the side with two men left.

Kluszewski, batting hero of the opening game with two home runs, pulled one of the best fielding plays of the series to halt a Dodger rally in the second. With Maury Wills on third and Podres on first after successive singles and two out, the White Sox first baseman made a diving, tumbling catch of Junior Gilliam's low line drive outside first base.

The Dodgers scored their first run of the series when Neal hit a home run into the lower left field stands in the fifth inning. It was the lone hit of the inning on either side. Landis, Kluszewski ad Lollar all flied out for the White Sox.

Home runs by pinch-hitter Chuck Essegian and Neal, the latter getting his second in as many appearances, chased Shaw, in the seventh inning and sent the Dodgers into a 4-2 lead.

With two out, Essegian came in to hit for Podres and smashed a tremendous blow into the upper deck of the left center field stands. The ball traveled some 400 feet.

After Gilliam had walked, Neal sent a home run into the White Sox bullpen in center for two more runs. Turk Lown, a right-hander, replaced Shaw on the mound for the White Sox and, after walking Moon, got Snider to fly out.

FIRST INNING

Dodgers: Shaw threw out Gilliam. Neal lined to McAnany. Moon singled. Moon stole second. Snider singled, Moon stopping at third. Larker flied to McAnany.

No runs, two hits, no errors, two left.

White Sox: Neal tossed out McAnany. Shaw was called out on strikes. Aparicio singled. Fox walked. Landis struck out.

No runs, one hit, no errors, two left.

White Sox: Aparicio doubled. Fox flied to Larker, Aparicio advancing to third after the catch. Landis walked. Neal threw out Kluszewski, Aparicio scoring and Landis moving to second. Lollar singled, scoring Landis. Wills fumbled Smith's grounder for an error. Lollar stopping at second. Phillips tapped to Gilliam, forcing Lollar at third.

Two runs, two hits, one error, two left.

THIRD INNING

Dodgers: Neal popped to Phillips. Fox threw out Moon and Snider.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

White Sox: Neal tossed out Mczewski. Lollar looked at a third strike. Smith walked. Phillips forced Smith, Wills to Neal.

FOURTH INNING

Dodgers: Larker popped to Phillips. Hodges struck out. Roseboro singled. Wills fouled to Aparicio outside third.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

White Sox: Gilliam threw out McAnany. Shaw singled. Aparicio flied to Snider, Fox forced Shaw, Wils to Neal.

FIFTH INNING

Dodgers: Podres flied to Landis. Gilliam grounded to Kluszewski. Neal hit a home run into the lower left field stands. Moon flied to Smith.

One run, one hit, no errors, none left.

White Sox: Landis flied to Larker. Kluszewski flied to Larker. Lollar flied to Moon.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

SIXTH INNING

Dodgers: Fox threw out Snider and Larker. Hodges popped to Aparicio.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

White Sox: Wills threw out Smith Phillips doubled McAnany flied to Larker, Phillips taking third.

SEVENTH INNING

Dodgers: Roseboro popped to Aparicio. Wills bounced out to Fox. Chuck Essegian batted for Podres and hit a home run into the upper deck in left center. Gilliam walked. Neal hit a home run into the White Sox bullpen in center field, scoring Gilliam ahead of him. Snider flied to McAnany.

Three runs, two hits, no errors, one left.

White Sox: Sherry, a right-hander went to the mound. Aparicio popped to Wills. Fox bounced out, Hodges unassisted. Sherry threw out Landis.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none eft.

EIGHTH INNING

Dodgers: Sherry struck out. Hodges fouled to Smith. Roseboro struck out.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

White Sox: Kluszewski singled to center. Lollar singled off Gilliam's left shoulder, Kluszewski stopping at second. Earl Torgeson ran for Kluszewski. Smith doubled to left center, scoring Torgeson but Lollar was cut down at the plate, Moon to Wills to Roseboro. Smith went to third on the throw to the plate. Billy Goodman batted for Phillips and struck out. Jim Rivera batted for McAnany and fouled to Roseboro.

One run, three hits, no errors, one left.

NINTH INNING

Dodgers: Torgeson went to first base and Goodman went to third base for the White Sox. Wills struck out. Fairly flied to Rivera. Gilliam singled past Goodman. Gilliam stole second. Neal flied to Rivera.

No runs, one hit, no errors, one left.

White Sox: Norm Cash batted for Lown and was thrown out, Hodges to Sherry, who covered first. Aparicio bounced to Wills, and was thrown out, Neal threw out Fox.

No runs, no hits, no errors, none left.

U.S., Philippine Legates In Quarrel

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Philippine and U.S. delegations to the U.N. General Assembly held separate post-mortems today on a luncheon quarrel between two of their leading members.

Walter S. Robertson, former U.S. assistant secretary of state for Far Eastern affairs, and Leon Maria Guerrero, Philippine ambassador to London, swapped heated personal criticisms at a luncheon the U.S. delegation gave Wednesday for a number of Asian delegates.

Robertson in a statement said Guerrero was rude and arrogant to him and a lesser member of the American delegation. The Filipino accused Robertson of trying to pressure the Philippine delegation into doing his chores for him and of "thinking in terms of a bygone colonial age."

Union Chief Lacks Settlement Hope

PITTSBURGH (AP)—David J. McDonald, president of the striking United Steelworkers Union, expressed pessimism today about a quick end to the nationwide 80-day old steel strike.

Today's session was the third in two days since President Eisenhower told both sides he wanted to see quick progress.

Jury Deliberates In Youth Killing

HOUSTON (AP) — A jury resumes deliberations today in the delinquency trial of John Richard McAinish 15, charged in the fatal shooting of another teen-ager during a battle of words.

Chadwick Burch, 17, was shot to death while driving an automobile at San Jacinto Battleground State Park last July 24. The shooting followed a heated exchange between two carloads of youths.

Yule Fund Is Nearing Goal

A cleanup committee is out getting the remaining 20 per cent of a $7,000 goal sought by a Chamber of Commerce group for Christmas lighting.

A meeting last night showed the group had accounted for 80 per cent of the goal.

Saunders Convicted

BULLETIN

AUSTIN (AP) — Former State Insurance Chairman J. Byron Saunders was convicted today of perjury and assessed a 2-year prison sentence.

Both Saunders and his wife gasped as the Criminal District Court clerk read the jury verdict.

The jury had been out about 16 hours but only spent a little more than five hours in deliberations.

House Painter Admits Robbing Grave Of Child

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. (AP) — A house painter's confession to his father led diggers to an old basement excavation and the body of young Jean Pensyl, dragged from her grave three weeks ago.

Searchers Thursday night found the body of the 11-year-old Holland, Minn., leukemia victim a foot underground. She was clad in the clothing in which she was buried save for white stockings that were missing.

Willard L. Beckstrom, 36, the Sioux Falls bachelor who stole the girl's body from the Holland cemetery 50 miles away, offered no explanation to police.

"People will think the whole family is made up of monsters," said his mother, Mrs. Willard S. Beckstrom, nearly in tears. "Willard's customers always liked him. He always remembered everything he heard or read."

"Maybe," she said, "he knew too much about things."

Beckstrom's father, an X-ray technician, refused to say how much his son told him.

He said this was a matter for Willard's attorney, who indicated a move would be made to have him committed to an institution.

Minnesota authorities who had lodged a fugitive warrant against him, said they would not object to this. Beckstrom was a patient at Yankton, S.D., State Hospital for a while after suffering a breakdown when he was 18.

Police speculated that Beckstrom may have been attracted to the girl through local newspaper stories when she was a patient in a Sioux Falls hospital, where she died.

Beckstrom drove to Holland Sept. 8 and viewed her body. While he was in the church he wrote a memorial: "To her funeral from a friend." He enclosed $5.

When the funeral procession left the church he followed in his red convertible and looked on at the graveside rites.

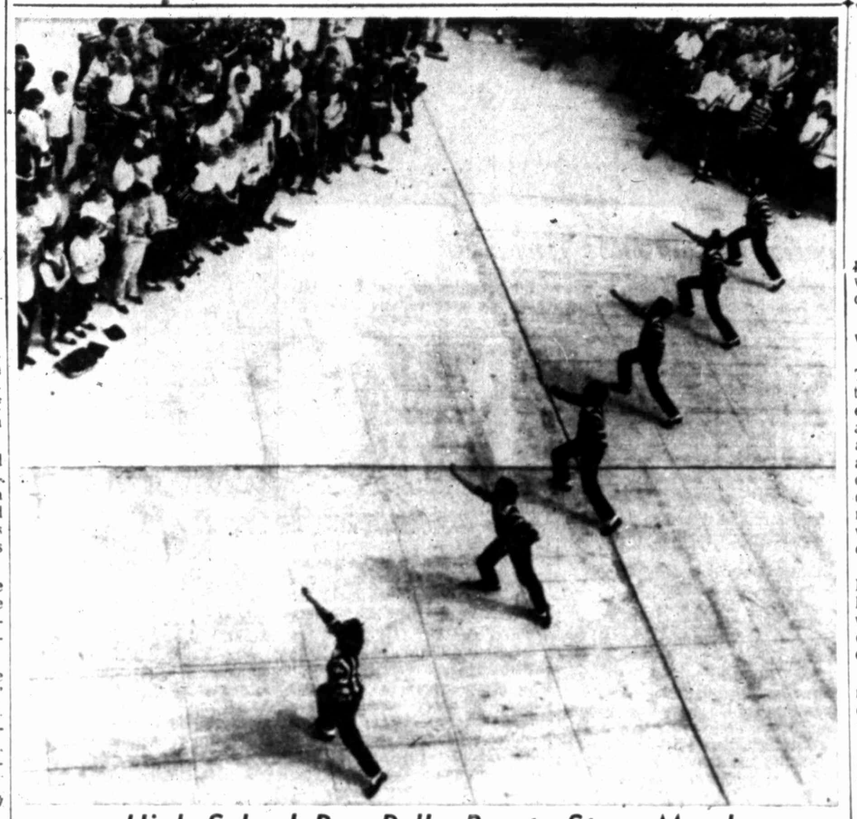

Later—attendants believe it was only a few hours—he dug into her flower-decked grave, smashed a 400-pound concrete slab covering the casket, and carried away the body.

He was arrested Monday after the convertible, noticed by several townspeople, was traced to him. Beckstrom appeared in municipal court Thursday on the fugitive warrant and a hearing was set for Oct. 8.

Late Thursday Beckstrom's father notified the sheriff's office that his son had disclosed that the body was in a shallow clay grave near an unoccupied house.

Jean's body was taken to a Sioux Falls mortuary. William Clayton, county attorney, said no autopsy will be held, indicating no attempt would be made to determine whether the body had been violated.

West Texas Under Tornado Warning

High School Pep Rally Boosts Steer Morale

High school students follow cheer leaders in exciting noon-time get-to-gether as preliminary to Big Spring-Sweetwater football battle slated tonight.

Big Spring On Lower Edge Of Affected Area

By The Associated Press

Most of West Texas and the upper part of North Central Texas went under a tornado forecast Friday.

The Weather Bureau issued this warning:

"Thunderstorm activity in West Texas and Oklahoma is expected to intensify this afternoon and evening and move northeastward, accompanied by a few tornadoes and isolated hail. The area is along and 60 miles on either side of a line from 50 miles southeast of Ponca City, Okla., to 40 miles northwest of Big Spring, Tex. The warning extends from 3 p.m. Friday to 10 p.m."

Fog and drizzle drifted over the Panhandle and Upper South Plains Friday in the path of a cool front which touched off turbulent weather Thursday in much of the northern half of Texas.

The front, along a line from northwest of Wichita Falls to west of Lubbock, moved slowly northward.

Behind it lay areas hard hit by torrents of rain and the floods they spawned, heavy hail and high winds.

But forecasts called for nothing more serious than scattered thundershowers in East and Central Texas and thunderstorms in West Texas through Saturday.

Odessa, Midland, Dallas and Fort Worth caught the worst of the Thursday disturbances.

The Trinity River went on a quick rise and its tributaries went out of their banks after rains of up to seven inches poured down on Fort Worth, Dallas and rural sections west of Fort Worth.

About 125 families were forced from their homes as water from creeks poured into the oft-flooded Fort Worth suburb of Richland Hills.

Police set up a patrol system to prevent looting. Most residents returned to their homes after waters receded.

The Trinity reached a crest at Dallas of 32 feet during the night and began falling. The Weather Bureau said a sharp rise will occur on the river from Rosser to Trinidad in the next few days with a crest at Rosser Saturday at about 28 feet and around 30 feet at Trinidad Monday or Tuesday. Some lowland flooding is expected.

Rain, wind and hail hit Midland for the third straight night.

Plate glass windows in the west Midland suburban business district were shattered by three-quarter-inch hail.

Winds of 45 m.p.h. and rain that ranged from an official .36 inch to half an inch downtown were measured.

Odessa had heavy rain and hail with some stones as large as apples.

Two tornado funnels were sighted over Monahans in far West Texas during the afternoon. No damage or injuries were reported although one of the twisting clouds reportedly touched ground in open country south of town.

Hail and .65 inch of rain were reported around Monahans.

County Tax Rolls Approved By County Commissioners

Howard County taxpayers can begin paying their 1959 taxes next week, according to the Howard County Tax Collector's office.

A mountain of tax statements will go into the mail today and early Monday. Property owners will then be able to come to the tax office and pay off their current tax bills.

Tax rolls for 1959 were completed and presented by Viola Robinson, county tax collector-assessor, to the county commissioners court on Thursday morning. The court checked the report and signed the rolls which was the final formality essential to opening the way for taxpayers to begin paying their bills.

Total on the county tax rolls as shown by Mrs. Robinson's report is $55,333,112. This is based on 20 per cent of the actual valuation of the property subject to taxation.

This figure is $1,596,000 greater than the total for 1958 but is less than was anticipated when the county budget was figured.

The county budget, according to Lee Porter, was based on an estimated total tax roll valuation of $57,000,000. This will reduce to some extent the income to the county but it was not believed it will materially change any contemplated factors in the budget.

The tax roll breaks down into several divisions — oil valuations accounting for the lion's share of the total figure. The oil valuation this year is $29,367,445. This is slightly higher than last year. Local tax rolls — real estates, houses, farms, ranches and similiar property —, total is $19,413,823 — an increase of $483,992 over the 1959 figure.

Railroads, pipelines and intangibles account for $6,096,190 and banks for $455,854 to bring the grand total of $55,333,112.

Rain Damage To Area Cotton May Hit High $200,000 Total

Cotton farmers were counting their losses today as rains slackened and skies brightened after three days of rainfall.

Slight hail hit the Vealmoor area again overnight, but no further damage was reported.

The county got isolated rains up to one inch, with other gauges showing only a trace.

Big Spring Experiment Station measured only .13 inch, Texas Electric Service Co. plant, .40; Elbow, .60, Forsan, 1.00, Fairview, .70, Vealmoor, .50, the L. J. Davidson ranch on Snyder Hwy. .10; and Coahoma, Lomax and the H. H. Wilkinson ranch west of the city, a trace.

Howard County Agent Jimmy Taylor said the cotton loss from rainfall alone could run from a minimum of $15,000 to as much as $200,000, but that grading reports would have to be returned before an accurate estimate could be made.

He said most cotton ginned earlier was strict middling 15-16ths, which is bringing .3293 cents per pound.

Middling cotton brings .3228, and strict lower middling is worth .2878 per pound.

Taylor said that an estimate of 15,000 bales of cotton open in the county now is conservative.

He said some farmers had predicted the rains would cost them $20 per bale, but there is no way to estimate the total loss accurately until the cotton is graded.

"It's very possible it could go as high as $200,000, though," said Taylor. "You can't subject open cotton to rains like we've had without damaging it."

He said although some fields in the Knott-Vealmoor area were completely lost by hail, the rains would be a far greater loss economically to the county as a whole.

Taylor said much of the cotton lost from hail was insured, but there was no insurance to cover loss by reduction in grade.

Taylor said after a study of the hail-damaged area this morning that a strip some three miles wide and four miles long was damaged, although all of this was not cotton land. He said some 400 to 500 bales of cotton probably were affected.

Although the sun was beaming for the first time in three days in Big Spring at noon, scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers were predicted through Saturday, with mild evening temperatures forecast.

Man Stares At Total Eclipse

By The Associated Press

Space-minded man stared at the firmament today as it unfolded one of its most majestic spectacles—a total eclipse of the sun.

On both sides of the Atlantic, observers watched as the moon slowly blacked out the earth's source of light, leaving a radiant corona shimmering in the darkened heavens.

Clouds obscured it for many ground watchers in the Boston area, and interferred somewhat at Canary Island stations off the coast of Africa — both sites at which the eclipse was total.

Astronomers and students, however, took to planes to soar above the clouds for a clear view of the celestial display.

On the earth below, the dawn-bright landscape turned to night again as the sun disappeared.

It was so dark at noon on the streets of Las Palmas, Canary Islands that vehicles had to use their headlights.

In many other parts of the world, partial eclipses were seen.

In the Western Hemisphere, the eclipse was visible in varying degrees from Greenland to Florida and as far west as Michigan.

In the Canary Islands, where scientists from five nations gathered to study the eclipse, it could be seen through breaks in scattered clouds.

Judge Sets Decision Today On DuPont Case

CHICAGO (AP)—This is a day for clock watching in big business offices and in brokerage houses.

At 4:31 p.m. Central Daylight Time Judge Walter J. La Buy plans to make public his decision in the Du Pont case.

The case is a legal leviathan involving more than 3 billion dollars worth of stock. The result could affect the whole national economy.

The ruling will be the latest development in the government's 10-year effort to end the close association — through stock ownership — of E. I. Du Pont de Nemours & Co. and General Motors Corp.

Du Pont and its affiliates, as of Dec. 31, owned 63 million of GM's 282,260,998 shares. The Du Pont bloc was valued Thursday at more than 3 1-3 billion dollars.

The government has proposed that Du Pont distribute 43 million GM shares among individual Du Pont stockholders, thus, the Du Pont stockholders would be given 1.38 shares of GM stock for each share of Du Pont stock they own.

Under the government suggestion, the other 20 million GM shares held by Du Pont would be sold on the open market over a 10-year period.

Du Pont attorneys contended the government plans would throw a heavy tax load on the 194,343 Du Pont stockholders. Some of them, the lawyers said, might dump their holdings to avoid tax complications.

The Du Pont spokesmen also claimed the stock sales would have a drastic effect on the market prices of both GM and Du Pont stock.

Du Pont has proposed a different plan. It offered to give its GM stock voting rights to Du Pont shareholders but to retain title to the stock to collect the dividends.

Whatever the court decides, the loser is expected to appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

The case began in 1949, when the government filed a civil antitrust suit against Du Pont and its holding companies and members of the Du Pont family.

The government claimed, and the defense denied, that Du Pont bought GM stock to set up a captive market for Du Pont products. Du Pont, a huge chemical concern, owns 23 per cent of the stock of the nation's biggest automobile maker.

Judge La Buy dismissed the suit Dec. 3, 1954, after it had been in his U.S. District Court for more than two years.

But the U.S. Supreme Court held in 1957 that Du Pont holdings in GM tended to violate antitrust laws and directed Judge La Buy to work out a remedy.

It has been one of the biggest antitrust cases in the nation's history.

Release of the decision is timed to come after all American stock exchanges are closed for the weekend.

For Judge La Buy, 70, the Du Pont case has been the dominant matter of his 26-year career on the bench. He was elected to the Illinois Circuit Court after 21 years practicing law. In 1944, President Franklin D. Roosevelt named La Buy, a Democrat, to the federal bench.

Judge La Buy heard the suit without a jury during 102 days of testimony in 1953 when a record of 2½ million words was amassed.

In his decision dismissing the civil action, Judge La Buy said the government failed to prove conspiracy, monopoly or restraint of trade in Du Pont's business relationships. He also suggested the ground upon which the Supreme Court reversed his finding — influence through stock ownership.

He accepted calmly the Supreme Court's reversal and order to work out a stock disposal plan, and then, on his own motion appointed two lawyers as friends of the court to represent interests of the individual stockholders.

His sole discretion governs today's ruling — a decision comparable in the economic world to any of the biggest business deals ever made by a Ford, a Morgan or a Rockefeller.

Seaman Denies Ship Death

NEW YORK (AP)—Radio operator Willem Van Rie said today he is perfectly willing to face Boston charges in the death of pretty Lynn Kauffman because "I have nothing to fear."

Van Rie, 30, has acknowledged a shipboard romance with the 23-year-old woman during a voyage from Singapore on the Dutch freighter Utrecht. But he insists he had nothing to do with her mysterious death.

"I did not murder her," he asserted in a statement issued through his attorneys today.

"The last time I saw her, she was in her room. She wasn't even unconscious."

Miss Kauffman's body washed up on an island in Boston harbor Sept. 19. She had disappeared the night before as the ship was sailing for Brooklyn.

The vessel's radio operator, who has a wife in Holland, was arrested here Tuesday after an investigation by Boston authorities. He is being held without bail, pending a hearing on a Boston warrant, charging him with being a fugitive from murder.

Collision Fatal

NOCONA, Tex. (AP)—A car and truck collided north of here Thursday killing Mrs. Eva Gann, 84, of Nocona, and injuring five persons.

Flash Flooding Hits Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Flash flooding overnight forced the evacuation of scores of families in Oklahoma and two deaths were reported today.

Two persons drowned when their truck plunged off a water-covered bridge near Ripley in north central Oklahoma. Names were not available at once.

Ripley is near the Cimarron River 10 miles southeast of Stillwater which was hardest hit by the floods. The National Guard was called out there and a plea issued for heavy boats to evacuate families from low-lying areas.

POLICE SET UP SPECIAL PLAN HANDLE FOOTBALL TRAFFIC JAM

If you plan to be at the football game tonight here's what the Big Spring Police traffic department has cooked up in an effort to better handle the flow of cars from the stadium area after the game:

Before the game, usual conditions will prevail. Fans can proceed to the stadium as they choose and make their way into the large parking areas on the west side of the football field and to the lesser area on the east.

All ordinary streets will be open and all gates into the parking areas will be in service.

After the game ends, however, there will be a change in the picture.

Police will erect a north-south barricade on Kentucky and on the college street which passes on the south side of the football field. The barricades will be centered on the east side parking area.

The gate on the east side and the one on the west side of each of these barricades will be open. All other gates will be closed. Thus cars coming out at the east gate on Kentucky will be required to go east on that street to Baylor and thence back to town. Cars going out the west side gate at the barrier, will be forced to travel west only to Birdwell Lane. Drivers may also elect to proceed northward on any of the streets running north and south on the north side of Kentucky. On the south side of the stadium, the same rule will apply—traffic will go west and east only on the respective sides of the barricade.

All parked cars in the smaller parking zone on the east side of the stadium, will travel east on leaving the area. Baylor which will permit travel into other districts.

South travel from the large parking area will be possible along the college streets which make their way into 11th Place.

$250,350 Suit For Damages Is Filed

Suit asking $250,350 damages was filed in 118th District Court on Friday.

The action stems from a fatal mishap which occurred on last July 17 and took the life of Willie Earl Lawson.

Mary Jane Lawson and her children are bringing the action against the Shorty Hall Rig Co.

It recites that on July 7, Willie Earl Lawson was driving west on SH 176 at a point 11.8 miles west of Big Spring.

A truck owned by the defendant loaded with an oil rig was proceeding eastward on the same road. The defendant's truck and the International pickup in which Lawson was travelling met on a bridge.

Lawson was killed by an extension from the oil field truck, according to the petition.

The wife alleges she was damaged $100,000 by loss of earning power of her husband and she asks $150,000 exemplary damages. She also asks that the defendant pay $350 for the loss of the pickup which was destroyed.

Court attaches said it was one of the biggest damage suits filed in the local courts in sometime.

Guilford Jones represents Mrs. Lawson in the case.

W-Texas Junior Hi-Y Meet Here

Workshops and a social and recreation program will be featured at the West Texas Junior Hi-Y Officers Training Conference here Saturday at the YMCA.

He said registration will begin at 2:30 p.m., and a general assembly will be held at 3 p.m. R. H. Weaver, president of the Big Spring Y, will welcome the participants.

Following the assembly, work groups for all officers will meet, at 5:30 p.m. Installation services will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Little Chapel. All parents are invited.

A social and recreation hour is planned for 7:30 p.m., with all members of Junior Hi-Y and Tri Hi-Y invited.

Registration for the conference is $1, including supper. The social is free.

WWI Vets Plan San Angelo Meet

The district's World War I Vets will meet at 11 a.m. Sunday at the Cactus Hotel in San Angelo, according to Big Spring Barracks Commander Jess Slaughter.

He said an informal meeting also would be held at the hotel Saturday night for the purpose of getting acquainted.

Near Billion Gallons Water Added To Lake

Lake J. B. Thomas, the reservoir of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, rose slowly Friday morning to elevation 2,251.94.

This represented a gain of .4 of a foot and added 2,640 acre feet of water, or about 880 million gallons.

The rise at mid-morning Friday was almost imperceptible. The lake now has about 15,700 acre feet in it.

City Students At Tech Meet

LUBBOCK — One hundred and fifty high school students from the Lubbock area are expected to attend the Journalism Day Saturday, sponsored jointly by the Texas Tech Journalism department and the West Texas High School Press Assn.

Saturday afternoon will be highlighted by panel discussions on the high school yearbook and newspaper. Yearbook panel will include: Jim Bob Hodge, Amarillo, moderator; Judy Harman, Tulia; Bill Deaton, Tascosa; Michael Brown, Pampa; Carolyn Sewell, Big Spring.

Students discussing the high school newspaper are Judy Perdue, Big Spring, moderator; Janice Rector, Tulia; Kenneth Jones, Floydada; Teresa Smith, Big Spring; Linda Wiseman, Seminole; Lynda Wilhelm, Pampa.

Eight cups will be awarded at the banquet. The best newspaper in each of four divisions: Mimeograph, small, medium and large papers, will receive a trophy and the best yearbook in each division will be awarded a cup. An additional cup will be given this year because of a tie in one of the yearbook divisions.

After the banquet students will be guests of the Texas Tech Athletic Assn. at the Tech-Tulsa football game in Jones Stadium.

Medlock Rites To Be Saturday

LAMESA — Cecil Coleman Medlock, 60, long time building contractor here, died at 2:45 a.m. today in Medical Arts Hospital. He had been a patient there for 11 days.

Services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in the Church of Christ, where he was a member, with the minister, W. T. Hamilton, in charge. Burial will be in the Lamesa Memorial Park under direction of Higginbotham Funeral Home.

Mr. Medlock was born Dec. 10, 1890 in Wise County and came to Dawson County 25 years ago. He had been engaged in contracting, mostly in residential construction. For the past 11 years he had been a member of the Church of Christ.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Eva Medlock; two sisters, Mrs. Della Downing, Childress, and Mrs. W. W. Yancey, Lubbock; three brothers, B. T. Medlock, J. D. Medlock and W. C. Medlock, Lubbock.

They are Clyde Thomas Sr., one of the founders of the tour; Jimmy D. Jones, George Zachariah, and Dick Standifer, airport manager who is providing the air transportation.

The eight-day air tour leaves Temple Saturday, and is expected to reach here Tuesday morning.

Car Prowlers In City Are Busy

Theft of automotive accessories continued to plague citizens.

Jimmy Hayworth, 1507-A Lexington reported loss of four hubcaps. Mike Moore, 101 Lincoln, reported loss of a tire and wheel from a car parked at HCJC Thursday evening. Henry Rogers, 100 Mesquite, reported theft of a license plate (9H8907) from his motor scooter parked at that address.

There was a report of attempted burglary at 116 Frazier where the prowler is said to have lost a shoe in fleeing.

Rash Of Car Crashes Keeps Police Going

A rash of collisions and other mishaps broke out Thursday, according to reports by police. In all, seven cases were investigated.

Jerrell T. Shortes, Route 1, Ackerly, driving a Ford pickup, and Cleve R. Mercer Jr., Marlin, driving a Dodge truck, were in collision.

A 1958 Volkswagon owned by Joseph A. Guidenger was struck by a car, which reportedly left the scene, at 3rd and Scurry at 3:30 p.m. A car owned by Frank Rice, 1739 Purdue, suffered minor damage in a mishap in the 100 block on W. 2nd at 4:33 p.m.

At 5:22 p.m. a 1955 Chevrolet driven by Forrest W. Coburn, 610 Nolan, and a 1956 Chevrolet driven by Neil Everett Hatch, 3226 Cornell, were in collision at 7th and Gregg. At the same time, cars driven by Vickie Lea Gebert, 1601 Sycamore, and Cleo S. Holmes, 1509 Main, were in collision at 1509 Main. A third collision reported at this same time, at 1217 W. 3rd, involved James E. Terry, 1402 Nolan, and Jimmy Tucker, 1407 E. 18th.

The final mishap of the day occurred at Edwards and Gregg at 10:45 p.m. and involved Bruce Edward Saxon, 1710 Main, driving a 1959 Chevrolet station wagon, and Edward M. Hartstein, 254 B Marcy Circle, driving a 1958 Volkswagon.

Eaker Funeral To Be Saturday

Funeral for Mrs. Will A. Eaker, 85, mother of Fred Eaker, will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in Artesia, N. M.

Mrs. Eaker died there Thursday of a heart involvement. She is a former resident of Big Spring, Coahoma and Stanton. The Eaker family home in Artesia is at 510 Richardson. Mrs. Eaker was a long-time member of the Church of Christ.

Kiwanians Told Of Europe Trip

Dr. R. B. G. Cowper, who spent most of the summer on an extensive tour of many European countries, spoke at Kiwanis Club on Thursday noon.

He told of the country he and his family visited and screened colored slides of scenes from the several areas.

Marvin Baker, program chairman, presented Dr. Cowper.

Annual Ex-Tech Student Banquet

Former students of Texas Tech are planning on their annual banquet a week hence.

The affair has been set for Oct. 8 in the Sands restaurant, and Jim Lindsey, Midland, vice chairman of the Texas Tech board of regents, will be the speaker. He will be presented by Douglas Orme, Big Spring, member of the board.

Reservations for the affair should be made through Ralph McLaughlin, 112 Cedar Road at $2 a plate. McLaughlin is president of the Big Spring Tech Club.

Borden Wildcat Swabbed After Sprayberry Treated

A Borden County wildcat was swabbing after treating the Spraberry, and in the same county a depleted Ellenburger well was due to be re-tested for possible Strawn production.

In Sterling County, the Parochial Bade (Clear Fork) field had an abandonment.

The Howard-Glasscock field added a producer and two locations in Howard County.

Borden

Texaco No. 1 J. T. Johnson, 660 from the south and 1,980 from the east lines of section 38-31-1n, T&P, one mile southwest of Gail, pumped 23 barrels of load oil and 71 barrels of water in 17 hours from the Spraberry. Operator was continuing to pump to recover the load.

Westwater, et al No. 1 Hughes, 330 from the south and 2,310 from the east lines of section 408-87, H&TC, four miles south of Fluvanna, was below 8,343 in black shale.

Pan-American No. 2-VTA R. H. Jordan, 660 from the north and 1980 from the west lines of section 579-97, H&TC, three miles northwest of Fluvanna, was re-entering to plug back to 8,293 in the Ellenburger.

Dawson

Amerada No. 1 Moore, 660 from the south and 1,080 from the west lines of section 14-36-5n, T&P, 2 miles southwest of Lamesa, drilled ahead below 10,375 in lime.

In the Patricia (Fusselman) field, Forest Oil Corp. No. 5 E. W. Harris, et al, 5,800 from the south and 910 from the east lines of labor 11-267, Moore CSL will be drilled to 12,500 feet. It is 12 miles southwest of Lamesa.

Glasscock

Shell Oil No. 1 Weyman, 1,980 from the south and 660 from the west lines of section 14-36-3s, T&P bottomed at 11,452 in dolomite, was shut down for orders. It had sulphur water on a drillstem test from 11,296-405.

Howard

C. W. Guthrie No. 4-C Sarah Hyman, 330 from the north and 990 from west lines of section 89-29, W&NW, completed for 22 barrels of 31 gravity oil and 5 per cent water per day pumping. Gas-oil ratio was too small to measure. Top of pay was 1,309 on a ground elevation of 2,371, and casing was set at 1,309 while total depth was 1,319. The hole was fraced with 3,000 gallons.

Basin Oil No. 3-B Anna Bowen, 990 from the south and 330 from the east lines of section 65-29, W&NW, will drill to 1,400 in the Howard-Glasscock pool.

Hail No. 9 Otis Chalk, 990 from the south and 1,650 from the west lines of section 15-29, W&NW, is scheduled to go to 2,200 feet in the Howard-Glasscock area.

Martin

Pan-American No. 2 Snell, 660 from the south and 1,980 from the west lines of Labor 2, League 269, Borden CSL, drilled to 10,540 in lime and shale.

Sterling

J. E. Jones No. 1 Bade, 990 from the south and west lines of section 21-22, H&TC, 11 miles west of Sterling City in the Parochial Bade field, was due to plug at 1,738. It had been projected to test the Clear Fork.

Father Of Cecil Collings Dies Thursday In Dublin

The Rev. Jesse L. Collings, father of Judge Cecil Collings, associate justice of the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals, died last night at Dublin.

The Rev. Collings, a former resident of Big Spring and a veteran pastor, had been publishing a newspaper for the Primitve Baptists since his retirement. He and Mrs. Collings were here for a time when Judge Collings was presiding over what is now the 118th District Court. Later they moved to Abilene.

Services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday in Eastland, where Judge Collings resides, and burial will be in Abilene.

Dawson County Area Battered By Heavy Hail

LAMESA—Farmers between the Hancock and Woody communities in northeast Dawson County reported severe hail had wiped out several hundred acres of cotton.

Ike Gets Sunshine

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — President Eisenhower's main mission for today is this: soak up more sunshine in big doses.

The President, trying to get rid of a persistent cold, arranged to golf again at the challenging El Dorado Country Club course at the edge of the picturesque Santa Rosa Mountains.

Machines Lessen Need For Braceros In Pecos Region

PECOS, Tex. (AP)—Need for Mexican labor in gathering the cotton of this area is being lessened by mechanical harvesters.

Last year the Trans-Pecos Cotton Assn. brought in 23,000 braceros and this year it is estimated that no more than 20,000 will be used by association members. Many farmers are planning to gather at least a part of their crop with the machines.

Last year the Bill Allen farm near Verhallen used about 300 braceros. This year the same farm is using three machines and employing 135 braceros.

Another major farm, which normally employs 700 to 800 Mexican workers has none ordered this year and will use machines instead.

J. C. Wilson, head of Texas Cotton Industries, says his concern has purchased three machines for upland cotton and three more for long-staple pima cotton. He says the bracero program is becoming tougher and "harder to live with and break even."

Famed Rock-N-Roll Team Due Verdict In Vice Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—Four members of a famed rock 'n' roll singing team — known internationally as the Platters — will learn Monday the verdict in their trial on vice charges.

The four male Negro singers and the four teen-age girls arrested with them offered no defense testimony Thursday at their trial in municipal court.

The four singers, charged with aiding and abetting in prostitution, lewdness and assignation, are Tony Williams, 31, Hollywood, Calif.; Irvin Robi, 26, El Centro, Calif.; David Lynch Jr., 30, and Herbert A. Reed, 31, Los Angeles.

A girl member of the singing team had no part in the case.

The singers chartered a plane after the trial and flew to Pittsburgh to fill a singing engagement.

The girls, all aged 19 and from Hamilton, Ohio, were charged with engaging in prostitution, lewdness and assignation. They are Jarie Davis, Virginia Lee Jones and Patsy Sue Howard who are white, and Helen Harrison, who is Negro.

Conviction carries a penalty of up to one year in jail or a $1,500 fine or both.

The eight were arrested Aug. 10 in a downtown Cincinnati hotel.

Busy Day For Police Court

Fines totalling $543 were assessed in city court Friday morning.

Nine cases of drunkenness led the list with a total assessment of $225, including one habitual for $90. Three men caught fighting were fined $25 each.

One disturbance case got a $100 fine.

Traffic cases accounted for the remainder. Driving on the wrong side of the street cost one man $2; nine cases of speeding drew fines aggregating $101. Failing to yield-right-of-way drew a $5 fine, running a stop sign $5, following too closely $5.

Probe Of Noise At Church Tent Brings Protests

HOUSTON (AP) — "A man at the door told us to go right in," said police officer J. B. Robbins.

Robbins and officer C. L. Fincher strode down the aisle of a revival tent bearing a housewife's complaint that the congregation was making too much noise.

"They more or less broke up the service," The Rev. J. M. Kent complained to Asst. Police Chief George Seber.

Mayor Lewis Cutrer ordered an investigation.

Robbins said an unidentified housewife living a block and a half away had complained of noise coming from the revival sponsored by several Assembly of God churches.

He said he investigated and found the noise loud enough to be disturbing.

"We walked down to the platform. The Rev. Kent came down to talk to us, and then we moved outside to continue the conversation," the officer said. "I don't think we disturbed anybody."

Daniel, Wilson To Argue Tides

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson will argue the Texas case in the tidelands issue before the U.S. Supreme Court Oct. 12.

Daniel, who as attorney general argued Texas' tidelands claims in the original Supreme Court contest about 10 years ago, canceled plans to attend the Southern Governor's Conference meeting in North Carolina.

The Texas delegation will leave for Washington next Thursday. They will join with legal staffs from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida in the fight over whether the state or federal government owns the tidelands.

The states claim ownership 10½ miles into the Gulf. The government claims the line ends 3 miles out.

Singers To Meet

Settles Baptist Mission, corner of 19th and Settles, will be host to a singing Sunday afternoon at 2. Quartets, solos, and group singing will be featured.

Legion Plans Fall Activity

Plans for Post activities were made at the Regular Thursday night meeting of the Howard County Post of the American Legion. Foy Dunlap, Commander announced appointment of additional committee heads.

Membership for 1960 has reached 85, Marvin Patterson announced. The Post has a quota of 255 to be reached by Nov. 11, and Patterson urged prompt dues payment to enable the Post to again win the membership Honor Ribbon.

Need for additional improvements in the Legion Home were cited and the membership authorized a regular Saturday night social with proceeds to go to the building fund.

Youth activities chairman, Joe Pendleton reported plans for the Legion sponsored school programs are being made. An increase in interest in the Boy Scout Troop was reported by P. R. Yanez. The troop has resumed meetings at the Legion Home on Tuesday nights.

The Knights of Pythias Lodge awarded the Legion a bronze plaque. The Lodge had shared the Legion Home while awaiting construction of their new building.

George Zachariah will head the World War I reunion committee and Miller Harris was named National Defense head. Jack Pearson will again head the Junior Baseball committee, Alfred Goodson, legislative, Archie Segrest, attendance and W. A. McElrath, visitation.

The Legion's annual Safety Seal campaign will be concluded Saturday. It is under the direction of Bert Starns and full support of the program was urged.

DEAR ABBY

DON'T WORRY

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been happily married for 32 years. We raised a decent Christian son who married a good Christian girl. They've been married five years and have a child.

Our son and daughter-in-law have set up Friday night as their night out away from each other. He goes with the menfolk and she goes with the womenfolk. We think they are asking for trouble but are too young to realize it.

Maybe Dad and I are old-fashioned, but we never had a night out away from each other and it worked out fine.

Is this the way young married couples act today? We'd like your opinion and the opinion of others who have had experience in this line.

OLD-FASHIONED PARENTS

DEAR PARENTS: A night out seems to be the accepted mode of behavior for young-marrieds. If there is mutual trust between them, a night away from each other will do their relationship no harm. People who are asking for trouble do not have to wait for a night out to find it.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My heart goes out to that young mother with eleven children who has never had a vacation. I raised seven and I know how she feels. My "baby" is 32 years old and I am just a lonesome old grandmother. But thank God, my health is good.

Could you give this woman my address, Abby, and tell her that I would love to take her eleven children for a week. It would give the Mamma and Daddy a good vacation. I have plenty of room and am not the fussy type. She can send them to me dirty or clean and I will be their Granny, while Mamma rests. Please don't print my name as I don't want to make a show of this. I am enclosing a map to instruct them how to get to our farm. Love.

"GRANNY"
(WINONA, MINNESOTA.)

* * *

DEAR ABBY: I am a 15-year-old boy who is treated like a 3-year-old. My father wouldn't let me take a job in a warehouse over summer vacation because he says the men who work there swear and tell dirty jokes. I hear much worse in school.

Now that school has started, I would like to work on Saturdays as carry out boy at the Supermarket. My father says I can't because I might get a hernia and operations are expensive. I would like to know what you think of a father like this.

NO BABY

DEAR NO: I think your father is having difficulty accepting the fact that your are growing up. While strong language is not desirable, I doubt that it would hurt a young man who has been brought up properly. As for the Supermarket job, it sounds like an excellent idea. Carry out boys are taught how to lift heavy cartons, so YOUR chances of being carried out are slim.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO ANNOYED SORORITY SISTERS: Pay her no mind. If she fell out of a three-story window she'd probably land on her feet!

The 1960 Cadillac

The new 1960 Cadillac has the traditional but more restrained tail fins, a new front end with a wider and lower appearance, and a new rear bumper with the most distinctive lighting arrangement yet offered by the Cadillac people. Also featured are power steering, Hydra-Matic transmission and an advanced new braking system.

New 1960 Cadillac Ushers In New Era Of Auto Elegance

The 1960 Cadillac, which goes on public display at McEwen Motors Co. today is described by James M. Roche, Cadillac general manager and vice president of General Motors, as ushering in a new era of motoring elegance.

Creating this new look are the traditional but more restrained tail fins, a new front end with a wider and lower appearance, and the new rear bumper with the most distinctive lighting arrangement ever offered by Cadillac.

Coupled with these styling advances are important developments in the mechanical operation, including yet further progress in smoothness and quietness of performance and in the braking system.

Referring to the Cadillac practice of creating a motorcar in which even the most minute detail contributes to the excellence of the product, Roche said, "Never before has even a Cadillac catered so completely to the desires of discriminating motorists.

"It is evident," Roche said, "in the remarkably new driving ease afforded by Cadillac's outstanding power steering, Hydra-Matic transmission and highlighted by the advanced new braking system." It is emphasized by the incredibly smooth performance and responsiveness of the famous Cadillac engine.

The exterior appearance of the 1960 Cadillac reveals graceful simplicity from the completely new front grille to the distinctive rear quarter panel—the silhouette is unmistakably an advanced design and reflects the influence of the Eldorado Brougham.

For 1960 Cadillac is offering 13 models in three standard and one custom series. All models are basically unchanged in dimensions over last year's models.

The new steering wheel presents a trimmer appearance since, instead of a horn ring, a brushed chrome horn bar has been contoured into each spoke for easy operation by either hand. The elimination of the horn ring also provides better visibility to the new instrument cluster.

The new cluster is recessed deepiy and has a new glass facing curved for maximum driver visibility. Larger and clearer numerals make driving even more pleasurable.

The major engineering advancement for 1960 involves the brakes. Increased rear brake cooling, provided by new finned and extended rear drums, makes possible the use of larger rear wheel brake cylinders. This reduces front brake loads and gives better cooling at all four wheels. Under metropolitan freeway driving conditions braking temperatures are lowered up to 30 per cent.

Finally, there is another Cadillac first — a vacuum released parking brake. With the engine running, the brake automatically is released when the car is put in gear. It, thus, becomes impossible to drive with the parking brake applied.

Further improvements have been accomplished, too, in Cadillac's already outstanding riding qualities. This is achieved by a 10 per cent reduction in the coil spring rate which gives even smoother riding with slower ride motions. Outstanding new shock absorbers feature the use of Freon gas within a plastic sleeve to reduce impact feel caused by shock absorber friction.

Accessory refinements for 1960 include: The use of vacuum instead of electric power for quieter safety-door locks; a newly styled automatic headlamp dimmer that is much smaller and known as Guide-Matic; and the addition of shut off controls to the left and right side air conditioning outlets, enabling the driver and passenger to regulate the flow of cooled air to their individual liking.

Forgery Suspect Held In Rockport

Don Wallace, wanted here for forgery and passing is being held for Howard County in Rockport. He was picked up in that city on a local warrant. Sheriff Miller Harris expects to send a deputy to take the man in custody in a few days.

DWI Plea Heard In County Court

M. J. Stratton, accused of DWI, pleaded guilty in Howard County Court on Thursday. He was sentenced to three days in jail and ordered to pay a fine of $75. Stratton was arrested on July 11. His case was one of those on the recent county jury docket but was not called to trial.

Officials Ask For Assistance

Miller Harris, sheriff, asked the county commissioners to augment his departmental budget by $4,300 on Thursday. No action was taken by the court. Harris explained that he needed more money to adjust salaries of his men and to carry on a more effective operation of his office.

Mrs. Viola Robinson, county tax assessor, asked the commissioners to provide her with needed furniture and an entrance way to the northwest wing of the main floor of the court house. She wants to move all car title and registration operations of her office into the wing which she already is occupying. She wanted "stand up" type desks and other facilities for the proposed change.

The commissioners authorized her to get estimates on the probable cost. No action will be taken on the request until these figures are before the court for consideration.

Bond Set At $5,000 In Case

Andrew Garcia Perez, 22, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, must post $5,000 bail if he wants to get out of his cell in the county jail.

Perez was charged in Justice Walter Grice's court on Thursday afternoon. He is accused of having fired a gun at Thomas Carreno. The incident occurred near Jalisco's Cafe in the 300 block of North Bell on Wednesday night. Carreno was not injured. According to police, he named Perez as his assailant.

Deadly Disease

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP) — Three horses and hundreds of birds on a game bird farm have died recently of encephalitis (sleeping sickness) in Rhode Island, a state official reports. No humans have been affected. Eighteen persons have died of the disease in an outbreak in New Jersey.

New Lutheran Minister To Be Installed Sunday

The Rev. Clair Wiederhoft is to be installed here Sunday afternoon as pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

St. Paul's has been without a regular pastor here for several months since the Rev. Wayne Dittloff went to Houston. The Rev. P. W. Heckman, Odessa, who has been serving as supply, will be the installing pastor in ceremonies set for 4 o'clock.

A native of Truman, Minn., the Rev. Wiederhoft attended Concordia at St. Paul, Minn., and was graduated from the seminary in 1947. He assisted in congregational work in 1945 and 1946 at Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Copperas Cove (Texas).

For a year after graduation he held a pastorate at Port Arthur, then organized a congregation for Our Savior Lutheran Church in Arcadia, Calif., from whence he comes to Big Spring.

His wife, Francis, hails from Houston, and they have two children, Cynthia, 6, and Jonathan, 4.

Maine-To-Texas Ports Are Paralyzed In Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Ports from Maine to Texas lay paralyzed for the second day as the grip of the Longshoremen's strike tightened along the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

But a powerful local in the port of New York threatens to defy top union chiefs and return to work.

The Brooklyn dock workers — 12,000 members strong — controlled by Anthony (Tough Tony) Anastasia, voted Thursday to end their part of the strike. The action was regarded as an apparent response to threats by shippers of possible damage suits.

The head of the International Longshoremen's Assn., Capt. William V. Bradley, said he would throw pickets around Brooklyn piers if any back to work movement started.

Bradley called in union officials for an emergency meeting.

Ships stood marooned in harbors, unable to take on or discharge cargoes. Railheads at harbor points were nearly silent, the result of an order by the Assn. of American Railroads halting movement of most freight to the two coasts to prevent huge pileups on unmanned piers.

Normally bustling docks echoed only to the occasional tread of a watchman or picket, and passengers from luxury liners carried their own bags and pushed luggage carts to and from ships.

Presenting the Magnificent Nineteen-Sixty

Cadillac

THE FLEETWOOD SIXTY SPECIAL

Creating a New Era of Elegance!

The motor cars represented here will soon introduce a new era of elegance to the world's highways.

They are the Cadillac cars of 1960—and, from every standpoint, they represent the Cadillac tradition in its finest hour.

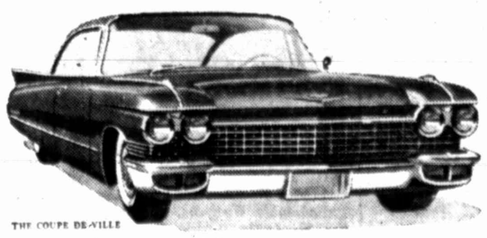

In appearance, they are regal and majestic as never before—a brilliant symphony of line and contour from the sparkling new front grille to the graceful flow of the rear fenders.

In interior decor, they are truly magnificent—featuring luxurious new fabrics and leathers—new convenience and excellence of appointments.

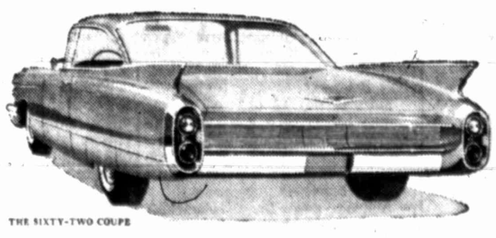

And in the way they drive and handle, they are perfection on wheels. There is a greatly refined engine and transmission that provide even finer performance . . . a ride of unbelievable smoothness and quiet . . . and notable advancements in power steering and braking.

These new Cadillac virtues have been interpreted in thirteen distinctive body styles. Every motorist owes himself an hour at the wheel.

The 1960 Cadillac is waiting for you now at your authorized Cadillac dealer's—and your dealer himself is waiting to introduce you to this magnificent new Standard of the World!

Buffs Host O'Donnell

STANTON (SC) — One of the feature football attractions of the area will be played here tonight, when Harlin Dauphin's Stanton Buffaloes entertain the O'Donnell Eagles.

Stanton owns a record of four straight victories and is suddenly being rated among the state's Class A powers. The Bisons will be favored over the visitors.

O'Donnell can be tough, however, as it proved last weekend against Post. The Eagles scored in each of the first three quarters to humble the Antelopes, 22-14.

Stanton will again depend heavily upon the throwing arm of quarterback Dwayne Thompson and the running ability of Buzzy Brewer.

Brewer scored all the touchdowns in Stanton's 18-13 victory over highly rated Ozona last week.

O'Donnell boasts a splendid quarterback in Tommy Gardenhire, who scored the Eagles' first TD last week and set up the second by intercepting a Post pass. Mack Isaacs, Leroy Barrera and Larry James give him plenty of help in the O'Donnell secondary.

O'Donnell built up a 22-0 lead in the game against Post before permitting the Antelopes to score.

Osfin Smith and Ray Moore are standouts in the O'Donnell line. Stanton leans heavily upon Norman Donelson, a rangy end who is great both on defense and offense.

Stanton owns victories over Merkel, Big Lake, Grandfalls and Ozona this season.

Ray Shearer Paces Havanans To Win

HAVANA (AP) — Ray Shearer put on a one-man show Thursday night as Havana beat Minneapolis 3-2 in 10 innings and took a 2-1 lead in baseball's Little World Series.

The Havana right fielder singled home a run in the eighth to tie the score at 2-2, got off a beautiful throw to third on Stu Lockins' single in the top of the tenth that cut down Minneapolis' Carl Yastrzemski trying to go from first to third and singled home Tony Gonzalez with the winning run in the last of the 10th with two out.

3 Texas Schools Draw Attention

KANSAS CITY (AP)—East Texas State, Lamar Tech and McMurry College drew a lot of NAIA football attention this week.

East Texas was No. 1 and Lamar Tech No. 2 in the first NAIA poll. McMurry led the NAIA in total offense with 457 yards per game, standing fifth in passing with 177.6 and ninth in rushing with 279.7.

McMurry was ranked sixth in the poll. Texas A&I ranked fifteenth.

Terry O'Brien of McMurry stood fourth in total offense with 173.3 yards per game and fifth in passing with 151.3.

Blow By Neal Close To Line

By TED SMITS

CHICAGO (AP) — Can an 11-0 World Series game have a turning point?

Could be. What if Charlie Neal's long drive down the left field line in the third inning of Thursday's game between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Chicago White Sox had gone fair by a few feet instead of foul by a few feet?

That would have made the score 2-1 in favor of the Sox instead of 2-0. Possibly it would have braced up the Dodgers. But it went foul and the next thing the roof fell in on the hapless National League champions. The punchless Sox scored seven runs in the bottom of the third and went out in front 9-0 with the game only one-third over.

But looking at it realistically nothing could have stopped the Sox. In the first inning two hit-and-run plays and two runs showed why this was a "go-go" team.

After Luis Aparicio popped out, Nelson Fox drew a walk and was running when Jim Landis lashed a single to right. Fox reached third and scored on the first of Ted Kluszewski's three hits, a single to right that also sent Landis to third. Landis scored on Sherman Lollar's long fly to right.

Then came the third, dubbed by Manager Walt Alston of the Dodgers as being as bad an inning as his team had suffered all season.

Again it started with Aparicio flying out. Fox doubled and Landis singled, scoring him. Kluszewski then hit the first of his two home runs of the day, into the right field stands, scoring Landis.

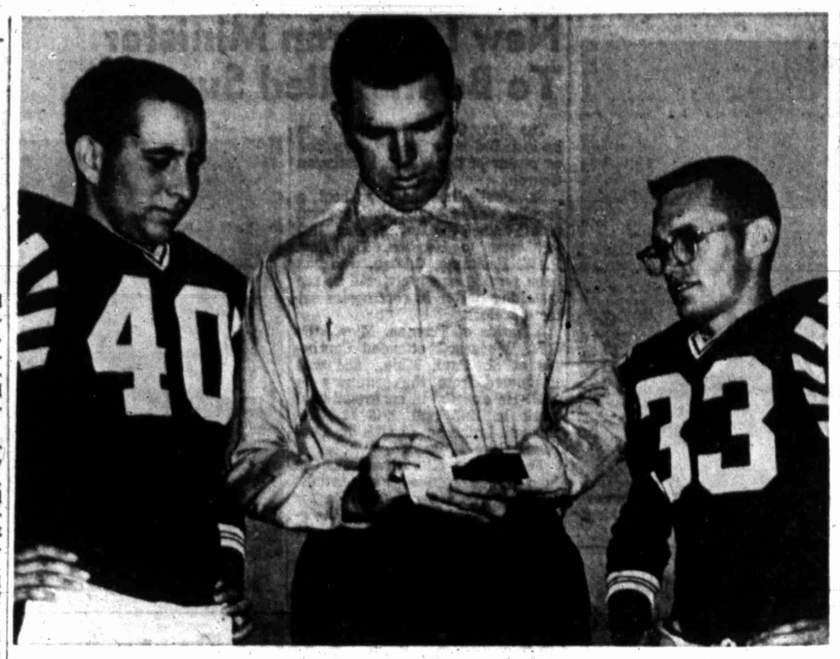

Chuck Churn came in to relieve Roger Craig on the mound for the Dodgers. At this point Sherman Lollar sent a high fly to center and the usually dependable Duke Snider collided with Wally Moon and dropped it for a two-base error. Bill Goodman singled into right scoring Lollar.

Al Smith doubled to left center and was saved from embarrassment when he went charging in to third where Goodman was standing only to have Snider make his second error of the inning by throwing wild to second. Goodman scored and Smith was safe at third.

Jim Rivera bounced to Neal who threw wild to the plate for an error as Smith scored and Rivera took second. Early Wynn, the durable Sox pitcher, promptly doubled to left center scoring Rivera to make it 9-0. Churn got Aparicio and Fox to ground out, ending the inning.

What followed was anticlimax. In the fourth, Landis hit his third consecutive single and Kluszewski hit his second consecutive home run to make the score 11-0 and there it stayed. Kluszewski's 5 runs batted in tied a series record.

Wynn held the Dodgers in complete check until the eighth when his arm tired and he asked to be relieved. Gerry Staley took over the pitching duties and preserved the shutout.

Checking With Captains

JOHN PODRES TRIES CHICAGO SOX TODAY

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers, the club with a comeback habit, went out to square the World Series in today's second game against the Chicago White Sox.

Manager Walt Alston picked Johnny Podres, his erratic left-handed ace, to face right-hander Bob Shaw, the White Sox' pitching surprise. Podres, the 2-0 hero of the Dodgers' only world championship in 1955, had a 14-6 regular season record. Shaw was 18-6.

Game time is 1 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. The weather forecast calls for another cool afternoon.

Both Alston and White Sox Manager Al Lopez had their pitchers picked for this one before the go-go Sox put away an 11-0 victory in the opener of this 56th World Series Thursday.

The Sox, who waited 40 years for an American League pennant and a series chance, are favored at 6-5 again today and now are pegged at 9-5 to take it all.

The White Sox had help they didn't need from the Dodgers while putting away the most one-sided shutout since the 1934 series, when Dizzy Dean and the St. Louis Cardinals beat Detroit 11-0. The Sox won behind Old Man Early Wynn and reliever Gerry Staley, with two homers and five runs batted in from Ted Kluszewski—and some bungling by the Dodgers.

Seven of the White Sox runs, four unearned, came in the third inning against loser Roger Craig, the Dodger ace, and reliever Chuck Churn. A chain of three errors, a record two by center fielder Duke Snider, anchored it for the Sox while Wynn dimmed Dodger hopes with a six-hit job before giving way in the eighth with a stiff elbow.

Alston decided against any line-up changes for today's game. "These are the guys who did it for us all season," he said, "so why change?"

Lopez made a couple of normal platooning switches in the Sox line-up. Rookie Jim McAnany replaces Jim Rivera in right field and Bubba Phillips goes to third instead of Billy Goodman. McAnany and Phillips bat right-handed. Goodman and Rivera bat left.

"But, I guess," said Lopez with a grin, "I'll keep Kluszewski at first."

Big Klu, a left-handed power-pack, is non-platoonable in the Sox normally weak attack.

The Dodgers were laughing losers. A 1-0 or any close loss is tough to shake. But at 11-0, forget it.

"We didn't look any worse than we did last week when we lost 11-10 at St. Louis and 12-2 to the Cubs," said old Dodger Carl Furillo, "and what did we do then?"

Abilene's mighty Eagles of Class AAAA collides with Class AAA kingpin Breckenridge in the feature game of schoolboy football Friday.

Most of the 84 undefeated and untied teams face danger in important intersectional and conference games. About 50 perfect-record teams are expected to be around Sunday.

Abilene goes to Breckenridge for the game. Both are undefeated, but Breckenridge, defending AAA champion, was tied 14-14 by Wichita Falls, the AAAA titleholder.

Abilene is considered likely to meet Wichita Falls in the playoffs.

Arlington plays Garland in another AAAA game matching teams with perfect records.

Killeen of AAA plays Gatesville of AA and San Marcos of AAA tries AA Refugio in other games matching undefeated, untied teams.

Stamford, AA champion, goes against Brady, another team without a blemish this year.

Anahuac plays Bridge City in a Dist. 23-A conference game pairing undefeated, untied teams.

Wichita Falls takes a rest this week, Dallas Highland Park, another AAAA undefeated, untied power, plays Fort Worth Arlington Heights. El Paso Burgess, undefeated but tied, lost to El Paso Bowie 18-0 Thursday.

Corpus Christi Ray tries Houston Austin.

In AAA, Killeen tries Gatesville and San Marcos goes against Refugio. San Antonio Sam Houston kept its record clean by beating San Antonio Central Catholic 30-0 Thursday.

Belton, an undefeated, untied AA team, tries undefeated but tied Rockdale. Hondo plays Floresville.

In Class A, Stinnett, the top-ranked threat, is open. Katy tries Fort Bend, Mason meets San Saba and Sundown collides with Denver City.

WITH TWO HOMERS

Big Klu Repays Veeck's Favor

By JOE REICHLER

CHICAGO (AP) — In the clubhouse under Comiskey Park, Ted Kluszewski was telling reporters how surprised he had been when he learned last August he had been sold by Pittsburgh to the White Sox.

KLUSZEWSKI

Some 50 yards away, in the Bards' Room, where the White Sox entertain the press, Bill Veeck, the club president was telling how he had been trying to pry big Klu away from the Pirates since April.

"I was in the radio business then, broadcasting the game of the week," Veeck said. "I was doing a Pittsburgh game and the first time I saw this muscleman, I said to myself, 'This guy's for me.'

"We had so many little guys on the team, I wanted one big guy. I didn't care how good he was, I just wanted someone to scare the other team."

Kluszewski hadn't done much scaring of anybody—not since he suffered a slipped disc in the spring of 1956 when he was with the Cincinnati Reds, who unloaded him on the Pirates two years later.

Klu did some unloading of his own Thursday. He warmed up against Los Angeles, driving in a run with a single in the first inning. In the third he drove a home run with a man on base and followed with another two-run homer in the next inning for a total of five runs batted in Chicago's 11-0 triumph.

"I talked to Joe Brown (Pirate general manager) about Klu every time I had a chance," said Veeck, "but he wouldn't listen.

"Finally, late in August, when the Pittsburgh club decided it wasn't going anywhere, it unloaded the fellow with the big muscles and the big salary. I figured if I could get 30 days work out of him, he'd be worth every cent of the $20,000 waiver price I paid for him."

The 35-year-old first baseman has proved his weight in gold to the White Sox—and that's a lot of gold—245 pounds of it.

"I've thinned down since I came to the White Sox Aug. 25," said the good-natured giant. "I don't know what I weighed when I reported, but I know it was a lot more than I do now. I was afraid to get on the scales."

Kluszewski wasn't very happy at Pittsburgh. Not that he was ill treated; it was just that he didn't get to play much. The former football star at Indiana knew his number was up at Pittsburgh when the team opened the 1959 season with two other first basemen — Dick Stuart and Rocky Nelson. It was then that he began hoping for a trade.

"I was hoping to be traded to the American League," he confided. "I thought I'd have a better opportunity to play in the other league. I don't think I started more than a dozen games in Pittsburgh. Besides, the Pittsburgh park is bad for any hitter."

Ted said he was surprised when he learned he was to be shipped to the White Sox.

"I didn't think they could get me out of the league," he said. "It's a good thing they did. If I had been sent to another club, I probably would have quit. As a youngster, I was a White Sox fan. My home town is Argo (Ill.) only six miles from Chicago. I saw my first major league game at Comiskey Park."

New Pro Coach

Neil Johnston is the newly-named player-coach of the Philadelphia Warriors, who meet the St. Louis Hawks Oct 3 in Lubbock Coliseum. Johnston, a veteran Warrior player, has led the National Basketball Association in season scoring on three occasions. He will be making his debut as an NBA coach this year, while alternating at the pivot position with Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain. Tickets to the Lubbock game, priced at $3.00, $2.50 and $2.00, may be ordered by mailing a check to Pro Basketball, Box 5002, Lubbock, Texas.

Landis Is Off To Fine Start

By JERRY LISKA

CHICAGO (AP) — Fleet Jim Landis, the White Sox' forgotten star, has to run himself into condition in the World Series.

LANDIS

He got an excellent start in the Sox' absurdly easy 11-0 opening triumph over the Dodgers Thursday, slamming sharp singles his first three trips and scoring three runs in a typically overlooked performance.

"But the first time I ran from first to third, I was panting," said Landis, who missed five games late in the Sox' American League pennant drive because of an infected thigh.

"I guess I got to get back into condition," said the 25-year-old centerfielder with a grin.

Landis has been described as the least appreciated player in the White Sox drive to its first pennant in 40 years. The pattern was followed again Thursday.

As the plaudits went to Ted Kluszewski, who drove in five runs on two homers and a single, and to Early (Old Ironsides) Wynn, who quelled the Dodgers until elbow stiffness forced an eighth inning retreat.

But it was Landis who punched the first hit of the game in the two-run Sox first and scored the second run moments later on Sherm Lollar's sacrifice fly.

It was Landis who singled across the third Sox run after Nellie Fox doubled to start the almost ridiculous seven-run Sox third.

And it might have been Landis, by his harrassing bluffs at sealing second base, who got Craig to pitch a home run ball to Kluszewski for his first two-run blast in the third.

As a matter of fact, Landis had started streaking toward second in an attempted theft when Big Klue hammered the Craig pitch into the right field stands.

"I think I had the base stolen," said Landis.

It was Landis' leadoff single, his third in a row, which preceded Kluszewski's second homer in the fourth inning.

As far as Manager Al Lopez is concerned, Landis is a very important man in his lineup.

"In the regular season, when Landis was hitting, we were winning," said Lopez. "Because when Landis gets on base, he gives the opposition jitters."

Podres Is Sure Club Will Win

CHICAGO (AP) —Johnny Podres, the deadpan Dodger who slew the Yankees four years ago, faced a friskier if less frightening sort of dragon today with quietly conveyed confidence that this World Series won't end the way it started.

"I have no idea how many games this thing will go," he said, "but I know we're going to win it. Sure, we got skunked Thursday, but I think our ball club should really be more relaxed right now than we've been all season. We just went through eight real tough games to get into this thing. We won the big ones to get here and I don't see why we can't win 'em now."

Podres, who whipped the Yankees 8-3 and 2-0 in the 1955 Series, scoring the shutout in the seventh and deciding game, acknowledged that today's assignment was one of the most critical of his career.

"But I don't feel any pressure on me," he said. "That is, no more than usual. I know this ball club of ours is going to score some runs, and the Sox aren't going to get 11 every day. We've been coming from behind all year, and we'll do it again."

In the 1955 Series, Podres was facing a team dense with desire to knock down the fence. The White Sox, in spite of their robust behavior Thursday, try to execute a more subtle form of execution — killing you a piece at a time.

Coahoma Pups Down Stanton

COAHOMA (SC) — The Coahoma Bullpups scored their third straight football victory here Thursday night, defeating Stanton, 36-6.

Previously, the Pups — coached by Bill Easterling and Rob Etheredge — had decisioned Stanton, 12-6; and Loraine.

Dwayne Fraser, fullback, scored three touchdowns for Coahoma on runs of 15, 25 and eight yards. Weldon Self sneaked across on a quarterback keeper, going four yards. Sam Kirby got the other on a pass from Fraser, the play covering 28 years.

Dwayne Allen, Wesley Tyler and Travis Reid added the extra points on runs. All are halfbacks.

Stanton scored its TD late in the game against Coahoma's reserves. Coahoma made use of the talents of 30 players.

Self, Larry Pherigo and Reid, all linebackers; and guard Ted Cearley played outstanding ball on defense for Coahoma.

Gomez Favorite Over J. Fullmer

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP) — Harold Gomes, the durable local boy, is favored to defeat Jay Fullmer tonight and enhance his chances for a shot at Davie Moore's featherweight title.

The scheduled 10-rounder will be nationally televised (NBC, 10 p.m., EDT).

The 29-year-old Gomes, ranked No. 1 feather challenger in the current National Boxing Assn. ratings won the revised junior lightweight crown from Texan Paul Jorgenson last summer. He has a 43-4 record.

Fullmer, 22-year-old younger brother of middleweight king Gene, arrived here Wednesday. The West Jordan, Utah, campaigner has a 17-2-1 record.

Veeck Gives In To Fan Letters

CHICAGO (AP) — For the first time in many years, the Chicago White Sox really wore them — white sox, that is.

The team is recent years has worn black hose with a thin, light colored striping. For Thursday's first World Series game, the team took the field in white sox with thin, black striping.

President Bill Veeck explained that he finally decided to give in to the hundreds of letter writers who pleaded a more complete reform of the club under his care.

Sweetwater's Leaders

Beverly Herndon (left), a guard, and Carroll Feagan (right), quarterback, are two of the boys Coach Elwood Turner (center) of Sweetwater is counting on in tonight's game with Big Spring here. The Ponies stress defense and may be hard to score on.

ANCIENT RIVALS VIE AT 8 HERE TONIGHT

Two storied football rivals, who have been meeting since the 1920's, clash here at 8 o'clock tonight.

This evening's outing, which pits the Big Spring Steers against Elwood Turner's Sweetwater Mustangs, could and should go down as one of the better defensive struggles between the two elevens, especially if the mud in Memorial Stadium doesn't dry out.

Neither team has been able to rally much of an attack this year. Between them, they've lost five games — Sweetwater on three occasions and Big Spring twice.

Despite the fact that they have not won a game, some observers are still picking Sweetwater to win District 3-AAA championship laurels.

The Cayuses have played the best in the state, or what purports to be the best, in three different classifications. They lost, in the proper order, to Breckenridge, Abilene and Stamford.

Big Spring opened by losing a heartbreaker, 13-12, to San Antonio Edison and last week were elbowed around by Snyder, 31-6.

Sweetwater is supposed to have one of the toughest lines in the state. At the same time, however, the backfield is relatively green and has shown no real class. The three touchdowns the Ponies have made to date were through the air.

Big Spring has also counted three TD's thus far, two of them through the air and the third on a nifty end run by speedster R. L. (Rocket) Lasater.

The Steers have a few brusies. Tackle Gary Pickle, may see only limited action, due to a pinched nerve in his shoulder.

Back Jerry Dunlap is favoring a gimpy leg, Benny Edwards has chronic trouble with a leg. Robert Carr has a pulled muscle in one leg. Quarterback Tommy Whatley has an ailing leg.

Donnie Everett, a reserve quarterback and defensive player, is no longer with the team.

Sweetwater leans heavily upon little Carroll Feagan, who has been dividing time at the quarterback post with young Pat Gerald, son of the former Sweetwater coach.

Big Spring hasn't defeated Sweetwater since 1956 but hasn't lost a game to the Ponies here since 1950. That's a jinx local fans hope endures for some time.

Jim Wade, the local policeman, plans to organize and train a local amateur fight team, for dual matches and appearances in the novice divisions of Golden Gloves tournament, if he can get financial backing of some sort (for the purchase of equipment) and he's working on that very thing this week.

If his plans do crystalize, the local squad will need a place to work out.

Wade is a former middleweight fisticuffer who did much of his fighting in New Mexico rings.

On the subject of boxing, there are reports Webb AFB will have a boxing team, too.

The Milwaukee Braves obtained the veteran Enos (Country) Slaughter from the New York Yankees primarily to hit against two pitchers—Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Sam Jones of the San Francisco Giants.

Slaughter doesn't figure in Milwaukee's plans beyond this year. Chances are he'll settle for a coaching job somewhere, possibly back in St. Louis.

Jim Williams, the tall Plains athlete who was wooed by HCJC for a while, is attending Western Colorado State at Gunnison.

The standout footballer-cager earlier had signed a letter-of-intent with Texas Tech.

If the Big Spring Steers can remember their blocking assignments tonight, they stand a fair chance against Sweetwater.

Their inept interference was most apparent on kickoffs in last week's outing against Snyder. Often, the receiver would find himself all alone in his end of the field while the blockers, with good intentions but bad timing, would be roaming somewhere far in advance.

Eddie Kinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Kinney of Big Spring, is coming out for the freshman crew at the University of Pennsylvania, a new experience for a lad who has spent much of his life far removed from navigable rivers.

This year's schoolboy basketball rules provide that no digit greater than 5 can be used in numbering jerseys. Neither can the Nos. 1 and 2, as such, be employed but each can be used in combination with another number.

The rules also recommend that even numbers be used on light jerseys and odd numbers on dark jerseys.

Of the Snyder football squad which suited out against Big Spring last weekend, 14 are seniors.

Biggest loss to the Tigers will be Dick Hayes, who must be the state's most talented back.

The Bengals also lose Eddie Wason, Wayne Berry, Marcus Strickland, James Fitzgerald and Alex Cross, all backs; and end Stanley Woolover, end Gerald Reeves, tackles Jim Huffman and John Richardson, guard Ron McGrew, Mickey Wharry and Jack McDonald and center Devane Jones from this year's team.

Runnels Elevens Defeated By Snyder Squads In Mud

Snyder elevens won two games from Runnels Junior High School contingents here in the mud Thursday evening.

The visiting Seventh Graders won, 7-0, after which the Eighth Graders prevailed, 16-0.

In the Eighth Grade engagement, Snyder recovered a Big Spring fumble in the second period and drove on in to score.

In the third, Big Spring took the kickoff and powered its way to the Snyder six, only to yield the ball on a fumble. That was the closest the Yearlings got to a score all evening.

In the fourth period, the visitors scored on a 35-yard run across end.

On defense, end E. J. Self and outside linebacker Humberto Hernandez stood out for Big Spring while fullback Dick Irons and guard Pedro Tovar glistened on offense.

The two Runnels contingents play Big Spring Goliad next Thursday.

Tony Lema Comes Onto His Own

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A year ago young Tony Lema was one of the brightest prospects on the golf circuit. This year he was an also-ran

But the 25-year-old from San Leandro, Calif., led the Centennial Open today as the $20,000 tournament entered its second round.

Lema, never a winner on the pro tour in two years but the biggest money winner among the rookies last year, fired a 7-under-par 65 Thursday to take a two-stroke lead after 18 holes.

Lema led Jim Ferree of Crystal River, Fla., and Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., each with 67s.

Another stroke back came Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., Smiley Quick of Los Angeles, Bob Duden of Oswego, Ore., Al Besselink of Grossinger, N. Y., Dick Wright of San Diego, Calif., Ray Honsberger of Seattle and Frank Stranahan of Crystal Springs, Fla.

Buffaloes Bid For Third Win In Road Game

FORSAN (SC) — The Forsan Buffaloes visit Union of Terry County tonight in quest of their third victory in five eight-man starts. Game time is 8 o'clock.

Of the 19 players on the Union team, only one is a senior. The club is coached by John Gary. Union has been beaten by Gail, 30-0; and Sterling City, 24-0.

Forsan has lost to Jayton and Gail.

Next week, the Buffaloes meet Water Valley here Saturday in their annual Homecoming game.

A couple of players are on the doubtful list for Forsan. Bill Conger, an end, has an ankle trouble and may not be able to play. If he sits this one out, Freddie Park will be moved from the backfield to his position.

Larry Stroud, a 170-pounder, may start at one of the guard spots. Rodney Allison is still favoring a misery in the leg.

Forsan's tentative starters include Jerry Pike, 150, and Bill Conger, 165, ends; Rodney Allison, 150, and Johnny Bob Asbury, 170, guards; Benny Barnett, 150, and either Park, 153, or Dewey Howard, 150, halfbacks.

Union Terry's starters will be: Darrell Hunter, 153, and Benny Little, 140, ends; James Smith, 168, and Bill Holladay, 157, guards; Steve Benton, 141, center; Weldon Bell, 145, Phil Montgomery, 145, and Darwin Cheatham, 140, backs.

Horses Moving In On Sunland Park

EL PASO, (SC)—Activity on the backstretch at Sunland Park is reaching peak tempo as horse and jockeys continue to arrive in increasing numbers.

A. C. Kemp, stable area superintendent reports that trainer Jolly Driskell's flashy three-year-old, Yes More, who equalled the track record at Albuquerque this past weekend would race at the new 3-million dollar plant.

Driskell of San Angelo, Texas, is shipping five head to Sunland at the close of the Albuquerque meet October 4.

Jockeys Bud Woods of Denver and Jerry Cawthorn of Ruidoso made their first appearance this morning and worked several horses over the full mile oval.

Both boys expressed their approval of the surface and of the modern facilities offered at the new ultra-modern turf resort located six miles from downtown El Paso.

Pale Hose Choice In Today's Game

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox, buoyed by an opening 11-0 victory, were again 6-5 favorites today to defeat the Los Angeles Dodgers in the second game of the World Series.

Temperatures in the middle 60s and partly cloudy skies were forecast for game time at 1 p.m. EST.

Another standing-room crowd of some 48,000 was expected at Comiskey Park.

The game again will be broadcast and telecast nationally by NBC.

Manager Al Lopez had right-hander Bob Shaw, who developed into stardom with a 18-6 record this year, as the Sox pitching nominee.

Southpaw Johnny Podres, a former Dodger hero when he defeated the New York Yankees twice in the 1955 World Series, was the Los Angeles selection. His season record is 14-9.

After today's game, the two teams head for Sunday's resumption of the series in mammoth Los Angeles Coliseum.

NM Aggies Romp Thru Long Drill

UNIVERSITY PARK, N. M. (SC)—The New Mexico State Aggies romped through rugged drills this week in preparation for Saturday night's clash with a "jinx" McMurry College eleven.

The encounter is slated for 8 p.m. at Memorial Stadium on the Aggie campus.

McMurry has down the Aggies in seven of eight meetings between the two clubs. Last fall, under its new head coach, Warren B. Woodson, New Mexico State broke into the win column with a come-from-behind 16-7 victory. Until that game McMurry had had all the best of it.

Woodson said his starting offensive eleven would be relatively unchanged from the unit which opened the University of Tulsa tilt last week.

The tentative line-up has Team Captain George Mulholland at left end, Billy Ray Locklin at left tackle, J. W. Witt at left guard, Bill Wallace at center, Ben Landin at right guard, Lou Zivkovich at right tackle, E. A. Sims at right end, Charley Johnson at quarterback, Doug Veazey at wingback, Pervis Atkins at tailback and Sal Gonzales at fullback.

Most SW Teams Are Favored This Week

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baylor, which probably would have preferred to wait a while, tries to stop mighty Louisiana State Saturday for the honor of the Southwest Conference.

Most critics view it as hunting with a switch and the Golden Bears have the switch—a team as inexperienced as LSU is experienced. This game features a gaudy intersectional schedule in which the league will be pressed to do better than break even.

Southern Methodist tries unbeaten Navy at Dallas, Rice rolls against Duke at Durham, N.C., Texas hosts California, Texas Tech meets Tulsa at home and Texas A&M goes to Mobile to tackle giant-killer Mississippi Southern.

The league already is ahead in intersectional football for the season with an 8-3 record but two of its members have taken lickings from LSU—Rice and TCU. Top-ranked SMU also was upset by Georgia Tech.

While the conference teams try to add to the intersectional mark, two stay-at-homes will be battling it out in the Ozarks. TCU and Arkansas will be playing the opening conference game at Fayetteville.

Two weeks ago TCU might have been favored to win but that's changed now. Arkansas has taken both of its games and has a 6-game winning streak running. The Razorbacks finished up with four in a row last year.

TCU looked unimpressive against Kansas and was soundly trounced by LSU.

This traditionally is the opening conference game of the season and records show Arkansas needs to win it to hope for a conference title.

Texas, which hasn't been scored on in its last three games; Tech, which has won two this season; A&M, which surprised by toppling Michigan State last week, and SMU, despite its opening loss, are favored to win their games but the margin isn't high except in the case of Texas.

Duke is a mild favorite over Rice and LSU is a top-heavy choice over Baylor.

TCU vs. Arkansas is a tossup.

The average took a sharp dip last week when only four selections came through out of seven. So, hopefully:

LSU-Baylor—Baylor can't do it but it would be the upset of the year if it did.

Navy-SMU—SMU by a touchdown.

Rice-Duke—Everybody else is taking Duke; here's a vote for Rice.

Texas-California—This looks like Darrell Royal's best team at Texas; California doesn't appear up to making it tough.

Tech-Tulsa—Tech could be riding for a fall after winning two but the choice is Tech.

A&M-Mississippi Southern—Beware of the outfit that likes to knock over the top boys but A&M ought to make it.

TCU-Arkansas—Hard to figure but TCU is a hesitant choice.

TO LAMESA 11

Mavs Look Good But Lose, 14-0

LAMESA, (SC)—As a unit, the Goliad Junior High School Ninth Graders of Big Spring played their finest game in two seasons here Thursday evening, although they lost a 14-0 decision to the local contingent.

Coaches of the Merick team expressed themselves as well pleased with the performance of the Big Spring squad and said if they continued to show improvement they could expect to break into the win column soon. The Mavs' record is now 0-3.

The Lamesans executed a 70-yard pass-and-run play in the second for their first touchdown and shook loose a back on a 70-yard scoring jaunt in the third for their two TD's.

The Mavericks pushed to the Lamesa 20 after taking the opening kickoff but lost the ball on a fumble.

Among backs who did a standout job for the Big Springers were quarterback George Rice, fullback Danny Coates, right halfback Tommy Young, left halfback Donnie Phillips and Calvin Ferrell, who played both halfback spots in relief.

Up front, among the standouts were Danny Cone, center; and Bruce Wells, right end.

The team will be idle next week. The field was a little damp but conditions were nearly perfect for football. Lamesa carried an undefeated record onto the field.

Bobby Morris Links Leader

By B. F. KELLUM

McALLEN (AP)—Players in the $5,000 Texas Professional Golf Assn. Tournament teed off for the second round today hoping a new course might cool off red-hot Bobby Morris of Dallas.

Morris found the par 72 Shary Municipal Course at Mission to his liking Thursday, firing a 6-under-par 66.

Elroy Marti, Houston veteran, was two strokes off Morris' pace with a 4-under-par 68.

Seven players—including defending champion and favorite Earl Stewart Jr. of Dallas—were in third place with 3-under-par 69s. They included Tod Menefee, San Antonio; James Dixon, Andrews; Doug Higgins, Fort Worth; Tom Burke, Corpus Christi, Palmer Lawrence, Longview and Jake Clark, Alice.

Morris, head pro at the Dallas Country Club and president of the Texas PGA, carded eight birdies while firing a 2-under-par 34 on the front nine and a 4-under-par 32 on the back nine. He bogied two holes.

A huge gallery moaned as Byron Nelson of Roanoke missed the short ones. The veteran campaigner wound up in a four-way tie for fifth place with a one-under-par 71.

Four golfers—LaFayette Franks of Dallas, Cotton Hill of Shreveport, La., Charles Tims of Odessa and Dudley Bell of Houston—were tied for fourth with 2-under-par 70s.

The field of 87 played at the par 71 McAllen Country Club here today and will move back to Mission for the third round Saturday. The final 18 holes will be played here Sunday.

Ohio State Is Underdog In Battle With Trojans

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

For the Dodgers to play in a World Series is nothing new. But for Southern California or any of its West Coast brethen to be favored over a Big Ten football team these days is remarkable.

That's the case tonight when Ohio State goes into the Los Angeles Coliseum as a two-point underdog against the Trojans.

The Trojans have run by their first two opponents — Oregon State 27-6 and Pitt 23-0 — in easy fashion.

Ohio State edged Duke in the final two minutes 14-13 last week. The Bucks beat USC 20-7 in the 1954 Rose Bowl and played a 13-13 tie in their only other recent meeting.

Kentucky, loser of its first two Southeastern Conference games, moves to Detroit tonight to play the University of Detroit, which won its first two games.

The other major action tonight finds West Virginia at George Washington trying to protect its Southern Conference winning streak of 29 games.

The Big ten has a real dogfight of its own to top Saturday's national card when Northwestern travels to Iowa. Both won decisively last week, Northwestern 45-13 over Oklahoma, and Iowa 42-12 over California.

The rest of the big activity is in the South and Southwest. Top-ranked Louisiana State meets Baylor of the Southwest Conference at Shreveport, Louisiana, the Tigers third consecutive SWC foe. They licked the other two — Rice and Texas Christian. Baylor won its only start.

Georgia Tech, which established itself as a contender for LSU's Southeastern Conference title with its 16-14 upset of Southern Methodist last week, meets sixth-ranked Clemson, the best of the Atlantic Coast Conference.

California travels to Austin, Tex. to meet unbeaten (2-0), and unscored upon Texas in the national TV game (NBC-TV 4:30 p. m. EST). The Longhorns are ranked 10th in the latest Associated Press poll.

Third-ranked Mississippi figures to have an easy time with Memphis State. Tennessee (No. 9), which broke Auburn's unbeaten string at 24 last week, plays Mississippi State in a SEC affair.

Army (No. 4) invades the Big Ten to play Illinois. Eighth-ranked Notre Dame goes downstate a bit to play Indiana-neighbor Purdue.

Coliseum Is Sold Out For Series

LOS ANGELES (AP) — One record gone and more to follow. So it was today as the Dodgers sold out huge Memorial Coliseum for the three World Series games scheduled here.

Crowds of 92,000-plus are insured for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, if the Tuesday game is necessary, and already broken is the paid attendance mark for one Series game.

That was 86,288 for the Boston Braves-at-Cleveland game Oct. 10, 1948.

A Devotional For Today

Ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me. (Acts 1:8.)

PRAYER: Our Father make us dauntless witnesses of Jesus Christ to the high and the low in our community and in the place where we work. Impress upon us anew that it is our chief duty to bear witness to Christ. In His name we ask. Amen.

(From The 'Upper Room')

An Abundance Of Game Birds

One of our scouts informs us that he never saw the like of ducks on lakes, tanks and streams everywhere he went.

This is remarkable for two reasons. The first is that it's unusual for ducks to show up this early, and it is equally unusual for them to show up at all in such tremendous numbers.

Since the duck season does not open until Nov. 15, our duck shooters—than whom there is no more devoted band of sportsmen on earth—must be on pins and needles. Will the ducks stay around until then, or get tired of the locality and move on? What brought them so early in such numbers? Perhaps unfavorable feeding grounds in their normal haunts farther north, and the super-abundance of feed here.

Or it could be the prevalent general condition with respect to wildlife, which in our area at least is best described as "teeming"—and that applies to wildfowl of all kinds as well as ground creatures of every description.

Rattlesnakes, for instance, are in need of birth control—and rattlers are live-born, unlike most snakes. They have been everywhere — in countryside in small towns, in much larger towns and even cities. Why are they so numerous and why are they moving around with unaccustomed diligence? Maybe part of Nature's general program of abundance the zenith in her scheme of alternate scarcity and plenty. If this is the zenith, the nadir will come later; for naturalists—some naturalists, at least—hold to the theory that there is a big "die off" of wild creatures about every ten years.

In any case, it is all an interesting phenomenon, and sportsmen can hardly wait for the quail, duck and deer seasons to open.

Take Your Pick

We have passed through a disturbing two weeks (see above) the like of which our people never experienced before, and we can use a change of pace to restore our sanity.

Thank good ness, relief is at hand!

It is a different kind of insanity we are now to have, a sweet form of madness peculiar to Americans.

The World Series!

There is nothing like a World Series to clear the cobwebs from the mind and make us feel good.

There was, of course, a slight delay, since for the third time in National League history two teams finished the pennant chase in a dead heat. In any case the most joysome time in our sporting lives, the one event that thrills 90 per cent of our people through and through, is close at hand.

Up and at 'em, Braves or Dodgers as the case may be. Make people forget 1919. White Sox, and may the Dodgers iron out the brain crease from Thursdays opener.

Take your choice, folks. We choose the White Sox solely because they are a better-functioning machine and their hearts will be in every play . . . and maybe their flying feet, too.

What Are The Real Facts?

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower says that he is "getting sick and tired of the apparent impasse" in the settlement of the steel strike, and that "so are the American people."

But, while quick to add that he is "not going to try to assess any blame," the President goes on to say that free collective bargaining has "apparently broken down."

This is rather a sensational appraisal, and the public is entitled to know the facts on which it is based. Federal law makes collective bargaining compulsory, and the National Labor Relations Board has in its files a pile of cases that say both sides must "bargain in good faith."

Why have collective-bargaining negotiations "broken down"? What has actually happened? Of course, when Khrushchev doesn't agree with Eisenhower, there is no way of making either one give in. Likewise, the two sides in the steel controversy can refuse to agree, and there's no way of making them do so unless the government in Washington becomes a sort of dictatorship. Then the word "free" would have to be omitted hereafter—and also the phrase "collective bargaining."

Former President Truman—who is given to making impromptu comments every now and then to bolster his own impression that he was just about the best president America has ever had—remarked the other day about steel strikes during his administration:

"I didn't sit around and wait for the country to go to pot. I settled them."

But how did he do it? A little thing like the Constitution of the United States didn't bother him. He had no authority under any law to seize the steel industry in the spring of 1952—but he did. The Supreme Court of the United States promptly ruled that his action was unconstitutional. But the damage had already been done. While the steel plants were in government hands, the industry was ordered to pay a certain level of wages which it had refused to grant previously during collective bargaining. There was no turning back on that score.

As for the current steel controversy, maybe while the Khrushchev trip was in the offing, it wasn't a very good idea for Congress to be enacting a law authorizing government seizure of an industry because this might tend to prove that our free American system isn't effective after all and that, when an organized economic group demands its way, it gets what it wants. It does so by inflicting considerable damage on the public. In other words, if the American people are injured enough, the government intervenes and immediately engineers the surrender by one side to the other—and thereby the unions usually win because they have the potential votes at the polls. Also, plenty of people outside the unions who are affected don't care who is appeased as long as a strike is ended.

The present steel strike happens to be a dispute that affects not only the steel industry but the whole economic future of the nation. It is related to the purchasing power of the dollar and whether millions of Americans on fixed incomes shall be robbed. The dollar has already declined by 38 cents since the end of World War II, and much of the decline is due to the tendency of every industry, whether or not under government compulsion, to seek the easiest way out in labor-management disputes, which means granting the wage increases and then boosting prices.

Not long ago the public was demanding the facts in the steel dispute. But the kind of facts disclosed were technical and related only in a general way to what each side was asking. The American people have never been told what is really involved. The biggest issue in the steel controversy is whether union members shall be paid for work not done.

The steel companies owe it to the American people to tell in detail all the facts—just what they desire by way of changes in "working rules" and what they then would be able to do about wage increases based on economies that can be achieved.

The only thing that has broken down is the custom whereby industry every year gives in to the unions, and what has been interrupted is the process of disclosing publicly what the issues really are.

The President on Monday asked the leaders of both sides to come to the White House on Wednesday of this week to start talking again. But talk in secrecy will not accomplish much—at least, not until the American people know why, despite virtually the highest wages in all industry, the steelworkers are demanding even more. Is there no limit to or restraint upon "organized greed," even in the public interest?

THIS DAY IN TEXAS

By CURTIS BISHOP

The first shot of the Texas Revolution was fired at Gonzales on this day in 1835.

One hundred and sixty volunteers had collected there to resist a demand by Mexican authorities for the surrender of a small cannon.

Texans mounted the gun on ox-cart wheels, filled it with chains and scrap iron and crossed the Guadalupe River to oppose 100 Mexican dragoons. Their battle flag was a white banner with a crude drawing of the cannon and the words "Come and Take It."

One Mexican soldier was killed in the skirmish which has been described as the "Lexington of Texas." A monument marks the spot of the battle.

John H. Moore and J. W. E. Wallace commanded the Texas 'minute men', but Alcalde Andrew Ponton deserves equal prestige in the Texas story. He stoutly refused to turn over the field piece and sent messages to other settlements requesting their help.

The skirmish decided the course of Texas action. The colonists next formed a provisional government and organized a volunteer army to march on San Antonio. Successful there, the Texans spread out under several commanders. The bolder units were gobbled up by invading Mexican forces and the Texas cause seemed hopeless until Sam Houston's volunteers achieved complete victory at San Jacinto.

An Absurd Historical Position

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Red China are caught in a myth wrapped in irony within a dilemma.

The myth: This country insists Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists on Formosa are the legitimate government of all China and not the Red Chinese who have now controlled the entire mainland for 10 years.

The irony: This country has pressured Chiang into agreeing he will not try to retake the mainland by force. Without force it seems certain he can never go back to the mainland or conquer its Red masters.

The dilemma: How can this country agree with world communism on world problems—like disarmament—unless Red China, which the United States refuses to recognize, is included?

True, through better relations with the Soviet Union, the United States could settle problems involving only the U.S.S.R. and the West. For instance, Berlin, which has nothing to do with China.

But it seems impossible to think of settlements on world problems without agreement with the Red Chinese. Agreement would almost of necessity require closer relations.

Therefore, if relations with the Soviet Union improve, it seems like relations with Red China will, too, although this will go against the grain of many in this country who are strong for Chiang and violent against the Red Chinese.

A lot of things happened in 1949. This country, which had been giving Chiang billions of dollars in aid while his government was on the manland, suddenly washed its hands of him. His government was corrupt and his situation hopeless.

That same year the Communists took over the mainland. He fled to Formosa, an island 100 miles away, and set up shop there with the remnants of his government. Even in early 1950 President Truman refused to intervene between him and the Reds who threatened to take Formosa. Truman refused to protect him.

This changed instantly when the Korean War began. Truman ordered protection for Formosa. This has been American policy ever since. The Red Chinese by employing their subsequent tactics froze this American policy solid.

They sent "volunteers" into Korea; they were branded aggressors by the United Nations; they still hold American prisoners; they have repeatedly shelled Formosa; they continually threaten to retake it.

Although 32 nations have recognized the Red regime, this country not only refuses to do so but has been able to keep the Reds out of the United Nations.

Only a few weeks ago in the U.N. this country blasted Red China in these words: "In nine years it has promoted six foreign or civil wars—Korea, Tibet, Indo-China, the Philippines, Malaya, and Laos. It has fought the United Nations."

Last year Secretary of State John Foster Dulles visited Chiang on Formosa and the two men issued a joint statement in which Chiang agreed he would not try to use force to retake the mainland and throw out the Reds.

It was clear why. The United States wouldn't help him make the try. Without such help he could do nothing. Thus, in effect, he agreed to die of old age on Formosa, while claiming to be the rightful master of the mainland.

Thus the United States and Red China are in an almost absurd historical position.

Hamlet With A Baseball

NEW YORK (AP) — Leroy (Satchel) Paige is Hamlet with a baseball.

"To be, or not to be, an actor" —that is the problem of baseball's famous Negro pitcher.

The greatest barnstorming hurler the game ever knew has fallen in love with the movie industry after playing his first role. He is featured as a post-Civil War U.S. Cavalry sergeant.

"It was all new to me," confessed Ole Satch. "I had nothing but a baseball in my hand for the last 35 years.

"The hardest part was learning to cry. In one part, after burying three of my buddies, I had to cry. It wasn't easy. It's been many a year since anyone ever saw me cry.

"But pitcher - makin' is fascinatin,' particularly when you see how they make the wind blow and the rain fall, and then put the whole thing together. I'd like to do more of it if they want me."

But Paige also still loves baseball, and clings to a thread of hope that the big leagues will summon him again.

Satch, one of 14 children, quit school in the eighth grade to play ball. He had a tremendous career, but it wasn't until 1948, in the twilight of his prime, that he had a few brief seasons in the big time with the Cleveland Indians and the St. Louis Browns.

His furrowed face and wire-thin frame—he stands 6 feet 3½—give him the look of an aging nome on stilts. But he retains a great individual dignity, based on an unshakeable confidence in his ability.

His midnight - colored hair has no streaks of gray. Although the record books list his birthdate as July 7, 1906, he still likes to make a mystery of his age.

"I'm somewhere between 40 and 60," he said. "If I told anybody my real age, they wouldn't believe it. Nobody in the world would.

There is no doubt, however, that whether he's 53 or older, the legendary hurler is one of the most durable players who ever knuckled horsehide.

"They pamper players today," he said mildly. "When I started there wasn't much money around, and we had to play for the real love of it.

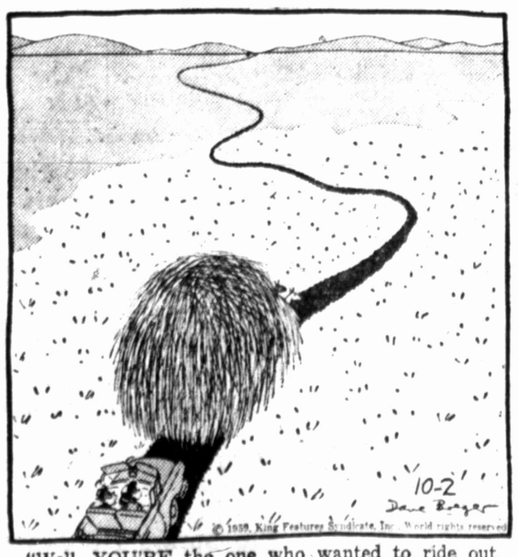

"This year I pitched in 75 games. The scouts tell me I still can throw a faster ball than any man in either league. I'm good for two or three innings any day. But they tell me it wouldn't look right for a young pitcher to be pulled out of a game and replaced by a man old enough to be his daddy. It would shame their spirit."

Satch is noted for his colorful phrases, such as his advice, "Never look behind you. Something may be gaining on you."

Asked his secret of durability, Satch said: "Get your rest, eat light, keep busy, and don't agitate yourself if you want to stay activefied. I could tell you I did it by eating radishes, but it's the Man upstairs who keeps me moving around.

"Never let your head hang down. Never give up and sit down and grieve. Find another way. And don't pray when it rains if you don't pray when the sun shines."

Time Runs Short For Atom Spy To Have Family

ATLANTA (AP)—Time is running out for Mrs. Morton Sobell and her convict husband who helped Julius and Ethel Rosenberg steal atom bomb secrets for the Soviet Union.

The Sobells say they want to have another baby, but federal prison officials have refused them permission while he is confined.

Sobell is serving a 30-year sentence and won't be eligible for parole until 1962. At that time he will be 45 years old and she will be 44.

"My greatest hope is that my husband will be freed and that this problem can be solved in a normal personal way," Mrs. Sobell said Thursday. She lives in New York and comes to Atlanta every month for a regular two-hour visit with her husband. She spent her two-hour quota for September Wednesday and used up her two-hour October quota Thursday.

She said their birthdays this spring emphasized the problem of "completing our family." They have a boy, Mark, 10. Mrs. Sobell has a daughter, Sydney, 20, by a previous marriage.

"Unless action is taken at this time, we can very well lose our future, as we have lost the present," Mrs. Sobell said.

Around The Rim

Things Look Different To Kids

The recent death of Judge and former Governor James V. Allred seems a sort of personal milestone to me.

Not that I knew him, exactly. I forget just how old I was the day he flew into the McCamey airport during one of his campaigns to shake hands. But I was young enough that the memory has taken on a gray, misty quality in the nearly 30 years since.

I recall how awed I was as I stood with my father and a small crowd of people (it was a small town) awaiting the arrival of The Great One. My father kept telling me in his gentle way that Allred was the Governor, that he ran the whole state but that the people had chosen him to do so, and I should not be frightened because the Governor was as human as we were.

I wasn't frightened, but I might as well have been awaiting the King of England. The feeling I had was the same emotion I got in Sunday School when the teacher explained about God, and showed us a picture of a white-bearded figure dressed in white robes standing over the Earth, which lay at His feet.

And I wasn't frightened when the Governor extended his hand to me with a broad smile and a kind word, but I wouldn't have been a bit surprised had I sprouted a couple of wings at that moment.

It was with a shock that I learned a few years later that Allred was no longer the Governor.

That long ago memory of a smalll child, stirred by the death of the man who made it, in its turn stirs the memory of another hero. But this memory, in retrospect, takes on a comic quality that I cannot recall without a chuckle.

I was in a movie house, again with my father, and watching a newsreel in which President Roosevelt appeared. My age must have been about the same. Anyway, as the President talked, my father whispered to me that this was the President, and that he ran the whole United States.

I wasn't as awed by the newsreel as I had been by seeing one of the Great Ones in person, but the effect was there.

There was but one trouble—the mind of a child being sometimes mixed up, I came away with the notion that Popeye the Sailor, whose cartoon had immediately followed the newsreel, was the President of the United States.

That very night I went home to supper and shocked my mother by asking for a plate of spinach.

Constitutional Right To Dye Hair

In New York State, where the courts are so overcrowded and overworked that they are eight years behind in their case loads, the Central Traffic Court in Mineola, L.I., has had to take time out to confirm what every woman knows.

The great decision, which should go down in history as the do-or-dye case, makes it legal for a woman to tint her hair. The law confirms the inalienable right of a woman to change her hair as well as her mind, as if she had ever doubted it!

Mrs. Joan F. O'Connor was haled into court because of an excess of honesty after transforming herself from the brunette nature made her to the blonde achieved through art. She scratched out the word "brunette" on her driver's license, substituted the word "blonde" and was taken into court for her candor.

"Clearly, there was no criminal intent involved," the judge ruled, although what woman has not occasionally seen a dye job that was a crime? But that's by the way. What is important is that the law has no intention of making "a ass, a idiot" of itself by telling a woman she can't improve on nature—which, in general, is the secret of progress anyway.

In my lifetime, the dyeing of milady's wig has changed from an ultra-secret, hush-hush affair performed in private and denied in public to a beauty rite as regular and as communal as a manicure. Today's woman doesn't have to go on wishin' to be a titian. She simply walks into the beauty parlor and orders the works.

If the manufacturers of hair dye (color is the euphemism they prefer) had an ounce of collective appreciation, they would club together and put up a monument to Anita Loos, author of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Miss Loos has done more for the dye trade than divine discontent or that first gray hair.

When Miss Loos titled her magnum opus, she spotlighted a truth that has rankled in the hearts of non-blondes since Lilith. But once they saw the bitter truth in print, they were spurred to act in self-defense. The dye pot came out of purdah, and who could tell the false gold from the real—or, what's more important, who cared?

Oh, a woman's crowning glory is her hair, all right, but what crown doesn't need burnishing from time to time? All is not gold that glitters, and the only place it matters is Fort Knox.

In one woman's opinion, the day of the homely woman is over, if only she knew it. Cosmetic surgery today is what the dye pot was years ago: a hush-hush business. But it is inevitable that within another 25 to 50 years a child with too much nose or too little chin will be taken to a plastic surgeon for corrective measures as quickly, openly and dutifully as a parent now hustles a child to a dentist for teeth-straightening.

As a matter of fact, I have a piggy bank in which I poke loose change for a face-lifting if and when. The day undoubtedly will come when I look into the mirror and decide that my face is sagging like the swag drapes in the living room. Then there's going to be a bank robbery around this house.

It is my conviction that any woman is willling to grow old gracefully so long as she doesn't look it. It wouldn't be nearly such a death blow to a woman to admit she is 62 or 65 when she applies for her share of Social Security if the feller on the other side of the counter demanded her birth certificate as proof. Why not a little gallantry in government?

The Gallup Poll

Americans Think Nikita Came To See

PRINCETON, N. J. Oct. 1—Although he lost no opportunity to play the role of Communism's "super-salesman," Nikita Khrushchev's major purpose in visiting this country, Americans believe, was more to see than to be seen.

With speculation centered on whether the Soviet Prime Minister was more interested in learning about American capitalism or selling Russian communism while visiting here, Gallup Poll reporters put this question to Khrushchev's "hosts"—the people of America:

"What do you think has been Khrushchev's main purpose in visiting the United States?"

Judging from what Americans saw, heard or read of the Soviet leader during his tour of this country, here is how the public analyzes Khrushchev's motives in visiting the country which has been his chief "cold war" opponent:

MAIN PURPOSE OF KHRUSHCHEV'S VISIT?

	Per cent
Learn more about U. S., curiosity	38
Improve Soviet-American relations	20
Sell Communism, sell Russia	15
Other purposes	11
Uncertain of aims, have not followed	20
	104

Table adds to more than 100 per cent since some persons named more than one purpose.

Many voters believe that Khrushchev hoped to gain information about our production methods, agricultural "know-how" and other aspects of the U. S. economy which he might apply in the Soviet Union. Others felt he might have been partly motivated by a curiosity to see a country he had heard much about but never visited.

"I think he came to learn something more about the way we live and about our manufacturing methods," said a Clayton, N. Y. citizen.

"He was here to look at the agricultural end of our country," commented an Allentown, Pa. housewife.

Propaganda Purposes

Despite the argument for his brand of Socialism which Mr. Khrushchev made on numerous occasions while here, the percentage of voters who feel propaganda was the Soviet leader's chief purpose—as the table shows—is relatively small.

A Milwaukee voter summarized the views of this group:

"I believe he came to see if he could sell the American people what he couldn't sell to our statesmen. The trip was pure propaganda."

Sentiment such as this, however, is outweighed by those who believe his motives were those of improving Soviet-American relations and trying to ease world tensions.

Typical was this view from an Abbeville, S. C. citizen:

"I think he is trying to be friendly to the U. S. If he wasn't I don't think he would have come over here."

The over-all findings of the present survey bear out the optimism that Americans had about the Khrushchev visit from the very first and help to explain why the public's judgement, at the tour's completion, was that it had been a success.

Previous to Mr. Khrushchev's arrival, two out of three Americans in a Gallup Poll survey said they though the invitation was a good idea—chiefly with the hope that a visit here would give Khrushchev a better idea of America's strength and peaceful intentions.

A survey at the conclusion of the Soviet leader's cross-country tour found a majority of Americans believing that the trip had been a good thing.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Not even the most sanguine suppose that the United Nations can rescue Tibet if it agrees to hear the Dalai Lama's charge of Chinese Communist invasion and mistreatment. All the same, we think most Americans are glad the Dalai Lama has insisted on appealing to the U. N., and that the U. S. is supporting him.

The U. N. is all but powerless in this case because, as a practical matter, it is inconceivable that a force could be mobilized to wage war against the Red Chinese in an effort to drive them out of the Himalayan kingdom. Moreover, there is no dispute over the status of Tibet—whether it is jurisdictionally independent or, by tradition and agreement, part of China. India, taking the latter view, tried to dissuade the Dalai Lama from going to the U. N. and even the U. S. has not committed itself to the position that Tibet is legally an independent state.

But that dispute is not the main point now. What is certain is that the Chinese Communists are suppressing a people struggling to be free and doing it by mass atrocities. The Dalai Lama charges massacres, forced labor and, literally, the extermination of the Tibetian people through forced sterliization. His charges eminently deserve the widest hearing, and the U.N. General Assembly, starting its session today, is the place to hear them.

This might not bring justice to Tibet. But at least it would be a useful reminder for other potential victims of Communism, especially in Asia. It might even be well for some Americans, while some Communists are smiling at them, to look again on the true face of the barbarian.

Van Horn Deaths Of 2 Women Launched Most-Probed Case

(Edited's note: This is the second of two stories on the most notorious unsolved cases in the files of the Department of Public Safety.)

By ED OVERHOLSER
Associated Press Staff Writer

A ransacked silver-gray sedan parked on the outskirts of a lonely far West Texas town launched the state's most exhausive murder investigation.

More than 2,500 persons have been questioned. The bulging case files are the largest at the Department of Public Safety.

Yet today there is no established motive for the 1938 deaths of two prominent California women, Mrs. Weston Frome, 46, and her attractive daughter, Nancy, 23.

Their tortured bodies were discovered near Van Horn. They had not been raped. They died on a cross country motor trip. No one knows why.

"There are several theories on the case," says Homer Garrison Jr., DPS director. "Some think they were mistaken for dope or counterfeit money runners and were tortured to make them talk. Others think they were killed after being robbed."

Chris Fox, former sheriff at El Paso who coordinated the investigation, believed in a revenge motive. Former Sheriff Louis Roberson of Pecos leaned to the theory of a madman.

"They were tortured. There's no doubt about that," Garrison said. "Somebody wanted information. Nancy Frome was stomped on the stomach. There were eight cigarette burns on her hand."

Garrison says he talked with Frome "as recently as a year or two ago." The husband and father said he felt robbery was the motive.

But if it was robbery alone, why did the killers pass up Mrs. Frome's diamond encrusted wrist watch and gold wedding ring and Nancy's diamond ring and necklace? Why were they tortured? Why was the spare tire slashed in the killers' search?

The Frome women left their home in Berkeley where Frome was an executive in a blasting powder company and started for another daughter's home in South Carolina.

They often traveled together. They had gone to Europe and Mexico. Frome took trips by himself.

Nancy was president of her sorority at the University of California. A dark-haired, good looking girl, she was an expert horseback rider, swimmer and dancer. Not long before the trip she broke an engagement.

The final trip was the first they made before stripping their fingers of rings. At 10:30 a.m. March 22 they left Berkeley in a 1938 Packard sedan which Frome won the previous year in a contest.

When they reached El Paso, the car developed engine trouble. It took several days for parts to be found.

Meanwhile the two women made frequent trips, sometimes escorted, across to the border city of Juarez. Frome stated they would have made perfume and other purchases in such circumstances and would have stopped in various clubs.

Several places they visited in Juarez were frequented by known narcotics runners.

The morning of March 30 a letter was left in their hotel box marked "Fromes." Two or three telephone calls came for the women. Mrs. Frome left the hotel to get the repaired auto. Nancy spent some time pacing the hotel lobby.

Between 11:30 a.m. and noon the women left the hotel in their car and headed east.

Sunday, April 3, Jim Milam, an El Paso truck driver, heard talk about the car and the fact two women were missing.

Near Sierra Blanca the previous Wednesday, March 30, he recalled the Packard passed him with another car occupied by a man and a woman following.

Four-tenths of a mile south of U.S. 80 and 6½ miles east of Van Horn, searchers found the bodies.

Each was shot through the left temple with a .32 caliber revolver. Nancy's right hand was under her body. She had clawed her fingers into the ground.

She also had kicked her toes in the ground, proving she was barely alive when placed face down in the red dirt. She clutched a box of folder matches and a man's handkerchief with the initial "F." Blood, skin and dirt were under her fingernails.

Curiosity seekers came in droves. The bodies were turned over and any clues on the ground which might have been present were trampled, stomped and ruined.

Nancy's body was clad only in panties, stockings and shoes. Her mother had on a girdle, hose and shoes. Mrs. Frome left the hotel with $90 stuffed into her brassiere. The brassiere had been torn slightly and the money was missing. A diamond ring worn by Mrs. Frome and Nancy's bracelet were missing.

Death was fixed at 3:30 p.m. the day the women left El Paso. Their car was found next day near Balmorhea about 60 miles east of Van Horn.

The trunk and rear seat of the car was piled high with luggage when the women left El Paso. None of the baggage was in the car and none of the clothing has ever been found. The car was wiped clean of fingerprints. The spare tire was slashed open as if the casing had been examined.

Some officers thought the car may have been mistaken for a similar model believed to have been used by narcotics runners. The women could have been tortured to tell something they did not know: Location of narcotics.

In 1943, a West Texas sheriff got a tip that led to the arrests of two men and a woman in California and another woman in Mexia. This was the high point of the investigation. Two Rangers spent weeks checking their alibis. Their stories held up and they were freed.

The last tip came less than two years ago. A Ranger en route to California on another matter ran down the information but it, like all other tips, failed to clear the state's most baffling mystery.

U.S. To Borrow $4 Billion At Highest Rate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government will borrow four billion dollars this month. The interest on half of it will be at the highest rate the Treasury has paid in 30 years.

Two billion dollars of four-year, 10-month notes will be offered Tuesday. Interest on these will be 5 per cent—the highest rate on a Treasury security since 1929.

Two billion dollars of 245-day bills will be auctioned off on Oct. 14. Investors will bid for these at less than face value. The discount will represent the interest rate.

Tuesday's issue will be sold at face value and dated Oct. 15 to mature Aug. 15, 1964. The 245-day bills will be dated Oct. 21 and will mature next June 22.

The 5 per cent rate was the highest offered on any government security since 5⅛ per cent was paid on a certificate issued in 1929. It was the highest rate on a note since 1921, when rates went to 5¾ per cent.

Governor Sickened At Mental Hospital

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, who has been highly critical of Ohio's mental institutions, literally became sick while on a surprise inspection of one today.

Touring the Columbus State Hospital here, the governor commented, "It makes me sick."

Minutes later, in a cottage housing male patients, DiSalle became physically sick. Sight of dirty beds and odors from the kitchen apparently were to blame.

On his trip through the institution, in which 2,600 mental patients live, DiSalle found what he said were deplorable conditions.

Pardons Board Wrestles With Eaton Decision

AUSTIN (AP)—The Board of Pardons and Paroles wrestled today with a decision on freeing Luther Travis Eaton from prison.

The board decided Sept. 29 to recommend parole for Eaton, 26, serving a five-year sentence from Athens for robbery by assault.

Then a hearing was asked by Mr. and Mrs. D.J. Griffin of Dallas.

Their attorney told the board Thursday they want to be sure there is no effort to speed up Eaton's parole because his wife was killed recently in a bus accident near Nashville, Tenn.

The Eatons three-year-old child, James was with his mother. He survived the crash and is now with his mother's parents on their farm near Columbia, Ky.

William A. Looney, Dallas lawyer representing the Griffins, said they do not feel Eaton is the proper person to have custody of the child. He said they hope to adopt him.

Board members Pat Bullock and Jack Ross told Looney the board is concerned only with Eaton as a good parole prospect.

The board decided to hold up a final recommendation to Gov. Price Daniel until it looks further into this.

"We do not want to dump a parolee into an unfavorable situation," Ross said. "On the other hand, his prison record is spotless and he is eligible for parole."

Ross said Eaton has not attempted to put pressure on the board to free him any earlier than it would normally because of his wife's death.

Ross noted Eaton's wife agreed as recently as Sept. 2 that he should be paroled. Eaton had become eligible nearly a year ago, but the board delayed action.

How's This Sound For Hearty Meals?

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Are you the type who likes to sit down to a really hearty breakfast, or are you a coffee and toast addict?

If it's coffee and toast for you, don't read on. But if you go for the hearty breakfast, how does sound?

"Scalloped Chesapeake Bay oysters, Maryland ham, Brunswick stew (principal ingredient squirrel meat), sausage cakes, grits, Southern spoon bread, fried apple rings and fried green tomatoes."

That's the menu for the Maryland Hunt Breakfast which will be served Oct. 18 as part of the annual observance of Heritage Week in this colonial city.

Toledo Mall Test Attracts Attention

By BILL NEWKIRK

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—In its experiment with pedestrian malls as a tonic for downtown business, Toledo has found itself under the microscope of city planners all over the nation.

The test originally was intended as a 45-day experiment. Last Aug. 3 the city closed off four blocks of two busy, parallel streets and converted them into grassy malls embellished with trees, shrubs, ponds, statuary, a playground and other attractions.

The planners soon discovered they had unleashed a volcano of interest in scores of other cities seeking a way to rejuvenate their downtown sections.

Stories and editorials about the malls appeared in more than a thousand newspapers. Hundreds of inquiries poured into city and Chamber of Commerce offices. Seventy delegations, including some from Canada, came to Toledo to appraise the experiment.

Pleased by the publicity and by the reactions of the merchants and public, the city decided to extend the test to Nov. 15 for a total period of 105 days.

By then, the planners hope to have accumulated enough data to determine whether construction of permanent malls would be worthwhile.

Right now, the public and the downtown merchants appear to favor them.

Thousands of persons from the Toledo area have flocked downtown to ogle and spend a buck or so in the stores along the malls.

"I like the idea," says one housewife, Margaret Finn. "The malls seem to perk up the old buildings. They make shopping more interesting."

Another housewife, Mrs. David Watson, has an opposite reaction: "When I come downtown I'm in a hurry. I don't want to fool around, looking at trees and flowers. Anyway, it's harder to park now."

Parking space, or the lack of it, is the main gripe of the dissenters.

There are plenty of pay-park lots and garages in the downtown section, but free spots are scarce.

If the malls become permanent, the parking situation would be improved. Downtown Toledo Associates, a merchants' organization, is having a survey made in search of potential sites for low-cost shoppers' parking.

An early survey among merchants on the malls showed that 70 per cent of them had an upswing in sales despite a prolonged heat wave and the steel strike. Thirty per cent said business was down.

Merchants off the mall also said business was up, but to a lesser degree.

In a more recent survey, 80 per cent of the on-the-mall merchants favored extending the test. Off-the-mall merchants gave a 69 per cent nod to extension. It was on the basis of this survey that the city decided to lengthen the test.

Sid Richardson Rites Set Today

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Funeral services were scheduled here today for Sid Richardson, 68, fabulously wealthy bachelor who died Wednesday.

Evangelist Billy Graham was to assist in the service.

Richardson died of a heart attack at his island home near Corpus Christi, Tex.

The Rev. H. Guy Moore, Richardson's pastor, was to conduct the rites with Graham at the Broadway Baptist Church. Burial was set for Athens, Tex., where Richardson was born.

Hearing Scheduled In Integration Case

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—The Dollarway School Board has scheduled a hearing Thursday on applications of three Negro students seeking reassignment to the all-white Dollarway School.

Attorneys for the Negroes asked federal court Monday to make the board pass on the application within 10 days. That period expires Thursday.

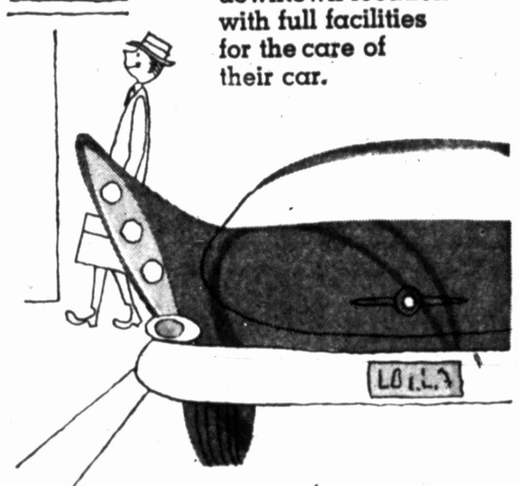

The school board is not required by state law to issue a ruling at its hearing.

A federal Court of Appeals Sept. 21 reversed a District Court order directing the school to admit the Negroes. The appeals court said they could seek reassignment under the state's pupil placement laws.

The pupils entered a Negro school and filed transfer applications.

Flower Arranging Is Studied By Gardeners

Local garden club members are preparing for the Fall Flower Show to be given Oct. 29 in the old student union building at Howard County Junior College.

Sponsored by the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs, the show will be staged by members of the Spaders and Planters Garden Clubs. Exhibits will be provided by members of the other units.

AFTER FIVE CLUB

Mrs. J. R. Hensley was speaker for the After Five Garden Club, a recently organized group, which met Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Jack Hanson.

The occasion was a called session for a workshop on flower arranging.

Mrs. Hensley, a member of the Big Spring Garden Club, discussed the method of preparing artistic arrangements and demonstrated with examples. She stressed the importance of using the correct greenery to fill in the bouquet; the right size flowers and the right container for the use to which they are to be put, and the preparation of flowers for arrangements.

Eighteen were present for the workshop.

The regular meeting is slated for the home of Mrs. Luther McDaniel 1503 Cherokee, Oct. 20, when members will bring dried materials and paints for making holiday decorations.

SPADERS CLUB

A discussion of design in flower arranging was given for the Spaders Garden Club Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Kyle Cauble.

Mrs. Dale Smith was the speaker for the group in preparation for the Fall Flower Show.

Announcement was made that Flower Show School Number Four will be presented in Midland Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Midland Woman's Club.

Fifteen were present for the session. The next hostess will be Mrs. Smith, 401 Hillside.

Tacky Party Given For ESA Rushees

Refreshments were served in paper sacks from a table decorated with a doll in a tacky costume in keeping with the theme of a party given Thursday evening by the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority.

As the first in a series of rush parties, members and their guests gathered in the home of Mrs. B. E. Reagan, where Jo Newman was awarded the prize for the tackiest ensemble.

Rushees included Mrs. Frank Mathews, Mrs. Oran Nash, Mrs. Clifford Rowland, Mrs. J. C. Armstead, Mrs. Tommy Hammond and Mrs. Millard Kelso.

Another rush party is slated for Friday evening at the air base pavilion, when the group and their husbands or dates will meet for a box supper.

The regular meeting will take place in the home of Mrs. Roy McCullen, 1502 Cherokee, on Thursday evening.

WMS Study Is Indo-China Worker

A resume of the life and works of Dr. Tom Dooley was given for members of the First Church of God WMS Thursday evening in the church.

Mrs. Ward Jackson told of Dr. Dooley's activities in Indo-China.

Mrs. Truett Thomas brought a study of town and rural churches for the eight members attending. The next meeting was announced for Nov. 5 in the home of Mrs. Rexie Cauble in the Elbow Community.

Good For Leisure Are Variety Pants

Pants are the campus uniform at most women's colleges. In all varieties, from skinny pants to Bermuda shorts, they are the college girl's standby. Even at coed universities, where shirts and slacks usually are banned on campus and in classrooms, they are a must for off-campus sports and dormitory lounging.

This year cotton knits assume new importance, both in sweater tops and pants, in shirts and shorts. Tapered Slim Jim pants are a current favorite, in dark or neutral colors, teamed with boat-necked pullovers or classic shirts.

Top colors of the year are neutrals such as camel or oatmeal, and muted greens.

Phoebe Class Social

Phoebe class of Baptist Temple Church met Thursday evening for a social in the home of Mrs. Frank Strickland, 701 Settles. Six members and two guests, Mrs. Tom Buckner and Janie Hale, were present. Mrs. Buckner brought the devotion.

Forsan Club In Business Meet

A tour of Cosden Refinery, planned for Thursday by the Forsan Study Club, was postponed to Tuesday, due to the rain, but members met for a business session.

Gathering at the school, the group discussed projects for the coming year, selecting the community clubhouse as the immediate recipient of their assistance.

Mrs. Edna McGee, Mrs. J. C. Ferguson and Mrs. C. L. Gooch will serve as a committee to supervise the aid given the project.

Members voted to donate five dollars to the Big Spring State Hospital Christmas Fund; they will also help the United Fund, it was announced.

An additional meeting is planned for Tuesday at 4 p.m., when the club will meet at the school to go to the refinery for the postponed tour.

SIZES 4 6 8 TO KNIT 338-N

Sweet Potatoes That Make An Impression

For sweet potatoes that will impress your family, try adding mandarin oranges.

MANDARIN SWEET POTATOES

1 can (1 pound and 1 ounce) vacuum-packed whole peeled sweet potatoes
1 can (11 ounces) mandarin oranges (drained)
2¼ tsps. cornstarch
¼ cup granulated sugar
¼ cup firmly packed light brown sugar
1 tsp. grated orange rind
¾ cup orange juice
1 tbsp. butter or margarine

Drain any liquid from potatoes and cut in half length-wise. Arrange in shallow baking dish (a 9-inch heat-resistant glass pie plate is fine) with drained oranges.

Stir cornstarch and sugars together in a small saucepan; add orange rind. Add orange juice gradually, stirring after each addition until there are no lumps.

Stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened; cook a few minutes longer. Stir in butter until melted; pour over potatoes and oranges.

Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven until heated through and bubbly — about 20 minutes. Makes 6 servings. If desired, dish may be refrigerated, then heated before serving.

For Kiddies

Small fry cooks: They'll enjoy crushing vanilla wafers into fine crumbs so as to make 1½ cups. Then they gradually add one-half cup of melted butter to the crumbs, rubbing the mixture between their fingers. Finally they press the mixture into a 9-inch pie plate and chill it. Mother adds the chocolate filling!

Project Is Selected By GS Troop

Meeting in the home of their leader, Mrs. Ernest Miller, Girl Scouts of Troop 210 selected the work which will entitle them to second grade rank. They will make a notebook of pictures and drawings illustrating the various Girl Scout laws.

As part of their training the group learned to make hot chocolate, which was served with doughnuts by the hostesses, Barbara Weaver, Elaine Miller and Burma Gentry. It was decided that the hostesses will always be the clean-up girls.

Assignments for home projects were made with charts to be kept on the progress of the members. Eleven were present and were dismissed with the Girl Scout promise and a prayer.

Franklin Kirbys To Make Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Kirby have returned to Big Spring to make their home here. Kirby has just finished a four year tour of duty in the Navy. The Kirbys recently were stationed seven months in Japan.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. M. Kirby, Parkview Addition. She is the former Peggy Hayworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hayworth, 705 Abrams.

Credit Club Takes Test

A test over the year's study was given members of the Credit Club when they met Thursday at Cokers Restaurant for luncheon. Mrs. H. J. Morrison administered the quiz over the subject, Preparing for Progress.

Mrs. Judy Kuykendall offered the invocation for 18 members and a guest, Mrs. Iva McMillan of San Angelo.

Plans were made for the installation service, which will take place at Cokers on Oct. 15. Hour for the affair is set for 7 p.m.

Edwin Elmores Are Parents Of A Son

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin E. Elmore, Midland, are parents of a son, Everette Eugene, born Tuesday in Malone-Hogan Hospital. The baby weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Elmore of 503 E. 12th Street; maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cain, 701 Goliad. The baby's mother is the former Betty Cain.

Brownie Troop 220

At a meeting of Brownie Troop 220 Wednesday afternoon, the group selected a cookie recipe to be used at the next session. Mrs. Lee Bryant was hostess for the meeting with the assistant leader, Mrs. G. D. Fuller, as cohostess. Twelve members were present.

To Hot Springs

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Eason, 409 E. Fourth, will spend the next four weeks in Hot Springs, Ark., where they will visit friends and take the course of baths provided. They also plan to fish. Next weekend, the couple will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Duncan, Marcy Drive.

Lutheran Workers Make Plans For Social Gatherings

Lutheran Parish Workers, meeting in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Nellermoe Thursday evening made plans for several social gatherings.

The group will host a reception to be given Sunday afternoon after the installation service planned at the church at 4 p.m.

A potluck supper is slated for Oct. 11 at 5:30 p.m. at the church, when members will bring covered dishes.

Announcement was made of the zone rally set for Oct. 8 in Monahans. About six local women plan to attend the all-day affair. They include Mrs. Albert Hohertz, Mrs. Ted Pachall, Mrs. Walter Pachall, Mrs. John Foster, Mrs. Jack Watkins and Mrs. A. A. Graumann.

Sixteen attended the session at which prayer booklets were collected for distribution to patients at the state hospital.

The group decided that draperies will be bought for the parish hall, and a committee was named to make the purchases. Mrs. Walter Heideman is chairman of the committee.

Around The World Theme For Luncheon

Around The World was the theme of a luncheon given Thursday by the Officers Wives Club. Unusual and different items from countries around the world decorated the luncheon room.

The medical group, under the leadership of its chairman Mrs. W. Strahan, was hostess for the occasion.

Ira J. Schantz, vocal music teacher at Howard County Junior College, was the guest speaker. Slides of his trip to Europe were shown.

Visiting guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Diana Nelson, Louise Hagar, and Mrs. O. R. Simpson. The door prize was won by Mrs. Robert Magnusson and Mrs. T. Hallorman.

An election of officers was held, and Mrs. C. Ciarrfeo was chosen president. Mrs. Gregg Smith will be first vice president; Mrs. Adolph Lindsley, second vice president; Mrs. James Johnson, third vice president; Mrs. Robert Hartzog, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Smith, assistant treasurer; Mrs. M. A. Nicholais, secretary, and Mrs. Robert Hastings, corresponding secretary.

On Tuesday the old board of officers will honor the new board with a breakfast at the Officers Club at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs Leroy Bruflat, outgoing president, will give a luncheon Friday at 12:30 p.m. for the board that served with her.

Girl Scout Leaders Gather For Class

Forty-four women gathered at the Girl Scout Little House Thursday, for the leaders training course, the second of five classes.

Instructors were Mrs. B. M. Costlow and Margaret McAdams of Stanton.

Leaders notebooks are needed by the group, and former workers who have books are requested to return them. The notebooks will be picked up by Mrs. Bob Bright, AM 4-7792 or Mrs. C. M. Wozencraft, AM 4-7515, it was announced.

The next class will be held from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday at the Little House, and again, workers will bring sack lunches.

Nursery service is furnished for the children of those attending the course.

Freedom from LAXATIVE DRUGS

If you are dosing yourself with harsh laxative drugs, it will be welcome news that there is a safe way to fight constipation due to lack of bulk in your diet.

You can correct this kind of irregularity by eating a half-cup of Kellogg's All-Bran with milk each day. Bran, you know, is nature's best bulk-forming food and Kellogg's All-Bran is whole bran. Even a small amount gives you all the bulk needed for youthful, natural regularity.

Millions stay on schedule this appetizing good-food way. Try Kellogg's All-Bran for 10 days and see if it doesn't work for you, too.

Decorator Does Things On Magnificent Scale

BY DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

For a designing woman, no doors are closed.

Take Alyne Whalen, for instance. She's a designer, but she wouldn't be caught dead choosing ash tray and bibelots for somebody's apartment.

Alyne works on a big scale. Her specialty is race tracks.

This smart, attractive, well-dressed blonde doesn't feel really comfortable unless she's working with quantities such as 50,000 gallons of paint — the amount she used on New York's fabulous new Aqueduct Race Track. She orders carpets by the acre and identifies colors by number.

Alyne worked two years on the designs for Aqueduct. She planned all the color and exterior and interior design. She works from the architectural plans, uses a slide rule more often than a fabric swatch, figures her effects in king-size terms.

"I started out in retailing," she says, "studied it in college and worked five years before I decided this was not for me. Then I went back to college and took architecture and engineering, at Columbia University in New York, N.Y.U. and U.C.L.A. When I was through I opened my own firm in Los Angeles, and have been happy as a clam ever since."

In addition to Aqueduct, Miss Whalen has designed the Hollywood Park track in California, Roosevelt Raceway on Long Island and the Hippodrome Nacional track at Caracas, Venezuela.

Despite her preoccupation with race tracks, Alyne is no horse player.

"I'm too busy to go to the races, after I get the tracks finished. And when I do go, I always lose. I like the color and the spectacle, but when it comes to figuring odds, I'm just a square."

At Aqueduct Miss Whalen has used bright color in bold masses, both outside and inside, giving a look of light and gaiety to the grandstands, the clubhouse, the dining rooms and the parimutuel halls.

"Color has a lot of effect on the way people feel," she says. "When they go to the races they should feel gay and festive. There's enough gloom around when they lose on their bets. So I have used bright colors to lift the spirits of the crowd. It works, too."

Her next job? Well, if there isn't another race track around that needs doing, she might tackle a supermarket. That's big, too.

World Wide Communion To Be Observed Locally

World Wide Communion will be celebrated in many of Big Spring's churches this Sunday. The communion celebration is an annual event held the first Sunday of October among many protestant denominations.

Revivals continue in a number of churches as out of town guest speakers fill local pulpits.

Howard County Junior College's Baptist Student Union will be the guests of one local Baptist church. They will present the program for the Sunday evening service.

Assembly Of God

Revival continues at the First Assembly of God Church with the Rev. George Brazell of Waxahachie. Services will be held Friday, Saturday, and the Rev. Brazell will preach both sermons Sunday.

Baptist

In the absence of Dr. P. D. O'Brien, the Rev. Frank Pollard will preach all three sermons Sunday. The 8:45 a.m. message will be "Are You God's Friend?," James 4:4. The 11 a.m. topic "My Church Is Worthy," Matt. 16:18, and the 7:45 p.m. theme will be "Revival in a Jail," Acts 16:25-33, at the First Baptist Church.

Phillips Memorial Baptist congregation will hear the Rev. D. R. Philley speak on "What Meanest These Wounds," Zach. 13:6 in the morning service. The Lord's Supper will be the evening's theme.

Airport Baptist will continue its revival with the Rev. Ben Kelley. The Rev. Kelley will bring the morning message on "You Don't Have to Stay As You Are." His evening topic will be "The Summer Has Ended; the Harvest Is Passed."

Members of the Baptist Student Union of Howard County Junior College will be in charge of the evening service of the College Baptist Church. Pastor H. W. Bartlett will speak in the morning service on "Regeneration Means Spiritual Life," John 3:1-16.

The Rev. R. D. Lee will deliver the last sermon in a series on "I Am That I Am." His topic Sunday morning will be "I Am the True Vine," taken from John 15.

"Ye Must Go" will be the topic of the Rev. R. B. Murray's Sunday morning sermon at Northside Baptist Church. His text will be Josh. 3:4. The evening sermon will be "A Worker's Plan," Rom. 15:22-29.

Baptist Temple is changing the time of its Sunday evening service to 7:30, the Rev. A. R. Posey announced. The Rev. Posey will preach both services Sunday.

"Ye Must Be Born Again," John 3:1-15, is the topic chosen for Sunday morning's service by the Rev. H. L. Bingham of Hillcrest Baptist Church. "The Answer by Fire" taken from I Kings 17:1 will be the evening topic.

Catholic

Mass will be said at St. Thomas Catholic Church, 605 N. Main, by the Rev. Fr. Beazley at 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. Rosary and benediction are at 7 p.m. Sunday. Confessions are heard on Saturday from 4:30 to 6 p.m. and from 7 to 8 p.m. Catechism classes for grade school children are from 10 to 11 a.m. Sunday for high school children.

At the Sacred Heart (Spanish-speaking) Church mass will be held at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. Confessions from 5 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday. Benediction will be at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Christian

Members of the First Christian Church will hear the Rev. John Black Jr. speak on "Expanded Horizons," Psalm 18:19, in the morning service. The theme for the evening service will be "Growing Unto Salvation," 1 Peter 2:1, 2.

Christian Science

Text for the scriptural readings in the lesson-sermon entitled Unreality for the Christian Science services Sunday will be Psalms 62:11. The Golden Text is from Matt. 7:19.

Church Of Christ

Associate Minister Walter Kriedel will take the place of T. E. Cudd in the pulpit at 14th and Main Church of Christ Sunday. In the morning he will speak on "What Bible School Attendance Can Mean to You." In the evening his topic will be "The Compulsion of Responsibility."

Church Of God

First Church of God members will hear the Rev. V. Ward Jackson preach on "Our Finest Hour." (Holy Communion) in the morning service Sunday. "Life's Extras" will be the Sunday evening topic.

District Fellowship meeting will be held Sunday evening in the Galveston Church of God, the Rev. R. D. Ashcraft has announced. His topic for that evening will be "How to Prosper and Be in Health," 3 John 2. Morning sermon will be "The Speech, Matt. 5:2.

Episcopal

Schedule of Sunday services at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 10th and Goliad, is as follows: Family worship and church school at 10:15.

Gospel Tabernacle

The Rev. Jack C. Crawford, pastor of the Big Spring Gospel Tabernacle, 1905 Scurry, announces the schedule of Sunday services:: Sunday school at 10 a.m., worship services at 11 a.m. and 7:45 p.m. Worship services are also held at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday and Thursday.

Jewish

Jewish services are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Bernard Fisher, 900 Runnels.

Latter-Day Saints

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints holds services at Webb AFB Chapel annex, Sunday school at 11:30 a.m., priesthood at 1 p.m. and sacrament at 5 p.m.

Lutheran

There will be no morning worship service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church except the 9:30 a.m. Sunday school and Bible classes. The Rev. Clair A. Wiederhoft of Arcadia, Calif., will be installed as new pastor at 4 p.m. by the Rev. Paul Heckmann of Odessa.

Methodist

World Wide Communion will be observed at the First Methodist Church, Pastor Jordan Grooms announced.

Park Methodist will hear the Rev. Joe McCarthy speak on "One Fold and One Shepherd," John 10:16, Sunday morning. He will speak on "Taking Our Own Measure," Zach. 2:1 in the evening service.

The Rev. Royce Womack of the Wesley Methodist Church will preach on the subject "This Do in Remembrance of Me" in the morning service. "From Inquiry to Insight" will be the evening topic.

Nazarene

Concluding services of the fall revival with the Rev. Austin Moore of Pampa will be held at the Church of the Nazarene, the pastor, W. M. Dorough, announces.

Presbyterian

A joint meeting of the First Presbyterian Church and the St. Paul Presbyterian Church will be held Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Al Seddon, pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian, will be the speaker for the occasion. His sermon is entitled "Healing Shadows."

First Presbyterian Church will observe World Wide Communion Sunday morning. The Rev. Gage Lloyd will speak on "Jesus Loves Us."

At the St. Paul Presbyterian Church the Rev. Seddon's morning sermon will be on "The Christian Sacraments."

7th Day Adventist

Services of the Seventh Day Adventist Church will be at 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Webb AFB

Chaplain Wilbur C. Hall will deliver the fourth of 10 sermons on the parables of Jesus, the "Parable of the Talents," Matt. 5:14-30 Sunday morning.

Evening services will be held at 7:30 under the direction of Chaplain James Leath.

Catholic masses will be said at 9 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Sunday by Chaplain Eugene Clemens. Confessions will be heard Saturday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Parson With Bent To Paint Aid To Church

By JACK LANNAN

GODDWINS MILLS, Maine (AP)—The "Painting Parson" and his family are among the best things that ever happened to church budgets in this New England area.

The Rev. Lloyd N. Osborne, 51-year-old pastor of the Advent Christian Congregation here, specializes in painting religious edifices—inside and out.

"I prefer to work on churches," he says. "They're nearer my profession. I never make any service charge for equipment. It keeps the cost down and they have a hard enough time trying to get along—especially if they're anything like mine."

The country minister said he started painting about 10 years ago. It was a natural outgrowth of his building trade experience which includes carpentering and electrical wiring.

Usually, he works with a two man crew, his son, William L., 16, and daughter, Jean, 18. Sometimes a third member of the family, Deborah, 14, joins them.

Jean is a sophomore at Berkshire Christian College in Massachusetts. Her brother is a high school student. Both work on a no-holds-barred basis, climbing the long extension ladders right beside their father.

"I can pay them more than anyone else," he says, "and they're working their ways through college. They need money."

Though they specialize in churches, the parson and his family will paint just about anything. They do two churches a summer, usually, and did the same before they came here from Newbury, Vt.

Osborne devotes his winters to sermon writing and free lance writing of inspirational pieces for popular and church magazines, "but I've never sold anything yet."

Osborne, who hails from Wareham, Mass., is a graduate of the New England School of Theology and though trained in the Advent Christian discipline, makes no distinctions as to sect when painting churches.

Seaman Chaplain

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Lutheran Service Society of Northern Ohio is providing a special ministry for seamen sailing the recently opened St. Lawrence Seaway.

A chaplain, the Rev. Bernhard Loeschen of Thomasboro, Ill., holds services aboard the deepwater ships in port, counsels seamen and arranges shore leave recreation.

The Rev. Mr. Loeschen is particularly well fitted to serve visiting seamen from foreign lands. He speaks English, German, Swedish, French, Spanish and Dutch.

"You Shall Be My Witness"

A SUMMARY OF CHRIST'S 40-DAY MINISTRY AFTER HIS RESURRECTION

Scripture—Acts 1.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IN TODAY'S LESSON we begin the study of the New Testament and The Acts of the Apostles, written by St. Luke. They followed his Gospel of Luke, to which he refers in his introduction to the Acts: "The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began to do and to teach, until the day in which He was taken up, after that He through the Holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom He had chosen: To whom also He shewed Himself alive after His passion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them for 40 days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God."—Acts 1:1-3.

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith says in Peloubet's Select Notes that nothing is known of Theophilus "except he is spoken of as 'most excellent.'"

Christ's first command to the apostles was that they should not depart from Jerusalem, "but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith He, ye have heard of Me. For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence."—Acts 1:4-5.

They asked Him: "Lord, wilt Thou at this time restore again the Kingdom of Israel?" His answer was: "It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in His own power. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto Me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth."—Acts 1:6-8.

"And when He had spoken these things, while they beheld, He was taken up; and a cloud received Him out of their sight."—Acts 1:9.

What grief must Christ's chosen followers have suffered to have Him come back to them after His Resurrection, only to have Him taken from them again, although this time He was taken to Heaven.

As they gazed after Him as He was taken to heaven, two men dressed in white stood by them, who said: "Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen Him go into heaven."—Acts 1:10-11.

The Apostles then returned to Jerusalem "from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a Sabbath day's journey."—Acts 1:12.

"And when they were came in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James."—Acts 1:13.

This Judas was, of course, not the man who betrayed Christ, although his name was the same, but "was distinguished, even in the early days of Christ's ministry," Dr. Wilbur M. Smith says in his Peloubet's Notes.

"These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with His brethren."—Acts 1:14.

Then Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples and said: "Wherefore of these men which have accompanied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us . . . must one be ordained to be a witness with us of His resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two Thou hast chosen, that he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the 11 Apostles."—Acts 1:15-26.

"Although Matthias had been in the company of Christ and His apostles for three years, he had never been one of the Twelve," writes Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, "but he had a reputation for fidelity and unswerving loyalty to Christ."

"When Jesus left this earth, He told His disciples that the whole world should be evangelized, and He gave them the power for doing this," writes Dr. Wilbur M. Smith.

Even today, although Christ's message has spread over almost the entire world, "there are millions of people living on the earth who have not heard of Christ," Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes.

Can we, as individuals, members of churches and Sunday School classes, gain the power, through prayer to Christ, to help spread His Gospel to others? Let us all try.

CHURCH BREVITIES

Named Lecturer

BETHANY, W. Va. (AP)—C. William O'Neill, immediate past governor of Ohio, has been named professor of public affairs at Bethany College.

Dr. Perry E. Gresham, president of the Disciples of Christ school, said O'Neill will deliver a series of 18 lectures on political science to the entire student body at Bethany during the second semester of the 1959-60 school year. The series is part of the college's new program to stress both theoretical political science and practical politics, Dr. Gresham said.

Name Is Changed

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The name of Pacific Bible College here has been changed to Warner Pacific College, the Church of God has announced.

The new name honors D. S. Warner, founder and first editor of the denomination's publication, the Gospel Trumpet. The college, previously a Bible training school, is completing steps toward full academic accreditation.

Leader Is Chosen

BALTIMORE (AP) — Miss Frances Young, director of Christian education at the Church of the Redeemer here since 1947, has been named executive director of women's work in the Episcopal Church.

She will succeed Mrs. Arthur M. Sherman who will retire in December after 18 years as chief executive officer of women's work. Miss Young will begin her duties with the church's national council on Dec. 1.

Cool Churches

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 8,000 American church buildings are air-conditioned, the Carrier Corp. reports.

And it's helping to bring more people into church, too.

One church in New Orleans reports a 44 per cent increase in attendance since air-conditioning was installed.

Fair Site Church

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—A committee has been formed to raise $260,000 to convert the Protestant Pavilion at the Brussels World's Fair into a permanent religious center.

On Punishment

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP)—The Methodist Rock River Conference has condemned capital punishment as "brutalizing society." It called for action to end the death penalty.

Methodist Opinion

NEW YORK (AP) — "World Outlook," a national Methodist monthly magazine, says "any appeal to or from religion must be avoided" in making decisions on presidential candidates.

Adds the magazine in its August issue:

"The responsible voter selects a candidate because of his position on issues. Religious convictions may influence these positions but, in a secular democracy, the position is the criterion and not the religious belief."

Radio Program

CHICAGO (AP) — The Methodist Board of Lay Activities is making plans to send its successful "Methodist Men's Hour" into its eighth broadcasting season.

"We are quite sure from the response we are now getting that the 1959-60 season will set a new record for the number of stations using the program," says director Dr. Don Calame.

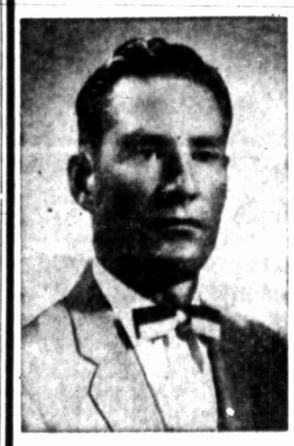

Last season, the program was carried on 421 stations in 44 states.

Bible Busy

LONDON (AP)—The United Bible Societies reports that Bible societies alone circulated more than 26,300,000 Bibles throughout the world in 1958. This was about 1½ million more than in 1957.

IT'S A SMALL WORLD

Ever run into a friend in Tokyo, or meet one of your neighbors in Amsterdam? Maybe not—but such things are happening every day!

It makes you stop and think—the way this world is shrinking. It makes you wish that the men and women who live on opposite sides of the globe had more things in common.

There can be no more unifying force in the world than a common belief in God. And toward that ideal we are rapidly progressing. Christians the world over are feeling and expressing their unity of faith and purpose.

Sunday is World-Wide Communion Sunday. On that day, within the space of a few short hours, Christians in every land will reverently participate in the Lord's Supper which has been a mark of Christian faith for almost two thousand years.

Worship with the World in the Church of your choice!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Admiration For The New Pontiac

Frank Winterhalter and Marvin Wood, owner of Marvin Wood Pontiac, gaze in admiration at the breath-taking lines and beauty of the new 1960 Pontiac which went on public display on Thursday. It is causing widespread excited comment. Marvin Wood invites the general public to come to his showrooms, 504 E. 3rd, and see the Pontiac.

Collingwood Will Be Press Speaker

Charles Collingwood, award-winning news commentator and analyst for the CBS broadcasting and television networks, will be the guest speaker at a luncheon highlighting the seventh annual Southwest Journalism Forum, to be held Oct. 16 at Southern Methodist University in Dallas.

The forum is held each year for high school and college students interested in pursuing a career in journalism. Workshops and conferences, to present opportunities and requirements in the field of journalism, will be held for newspapers, radio-television, advertising, public relations, industrial editing, wire service and photography.

Collingwood, a former Rhodes Scholar at Oxford and Peabody Award winner for radio newscasting excellence, was the CBS London correspondent for several years.

Safe Drivers In Texas Gain, Poor Ones Lose In New Plan

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—Safe drivers in Texas will save 20 million dollars next year in insurance premiums while accident-prone motorists will have to shell out that much more.

This will result from the insurance plan effective Jan. 1 announced by the State Board of Insurance Thursday.

From a study of more than 40,000 accident reports at the Department of Public Safety, the board calculated motorists operating 57 per cent of the state's automobiles will save 20 per cent in premiums. These are the ones who have had no accidents in the last three years.

Another 16 per cent of the drivers will pay the same rates while the remainder will find collision and liability rates increased up to 100 per cent.

The premium will depend on the number of accidents or charges against the motorist in the preceding 36 months. For example, a driving while drunk charge would place a motorist in a classification bracket which would increase his rates by 60 per cent.

Here is how the plan works:

Mr. and Mrs. Tex Alamo live in Beaumont. They own a 1959 medium priced car used by Tex in driving to and from work. They are the only operators. The vehicle is insured for $5,000 and $10,000 bodily injury, $5,000 property damage, $1,000 medical payments and $50 deductible collision.

The cost of the premium is now $113 a year. The policy expires May 15, 1960. If during the 36 months ending 90 days before the new policy is written the couple has no accident, the rate will be sliced to $90.

But if Alamo is responsible for an accident causing more than $25 property damage and his wife is fined twice for running red lights the cost of the new policy jumps to $181, an increase of $68.

The state is divided into 26 territories with separate standard rates based on the number of vehicles, accidents and other factors. Under the above conditions, a similar policy in Houston costing $134 could be cut to $107 or increased to $215. In Sherman, the policy now would cost $91 and could be reduced to $73 or increased to $145.

Texas has the only plan o fthis type, said chairman Penn Jackson, but individual companies have used a similar program in about half a dozen states.

The new plan applies to all private passenger autos or any vehicle of the truck type with a load capacity of 1,500 pounds not used for commercial purposes. Taxicabs and commercial vehicles are not eligible.

Under the point system, the motorist is bracketed into a classification depending on the number of points charged against him. Two points are charged for each accident involving $25 damage or bodily injury. One point is charged for running a stop sign. Four points are charged for conviction of driving while drunk, etc.

Midland Club Hears World Peace Idea

MIDLAND (AP)—A man who calls himself "an obscure citizen" suggested today that world intellectual and religious leaders meet in Texas to seek ways for establishing permanent world peace.

Thomas Hudson McKee, Dallas public relations man, told the Midland Junior Chamber of Commerce he has tried, for 15 months, by letters and personal contacts, to get some powerful person or group to "pick up the idea."

McKee, a tall, serious man, told the Jaycees "the only weakness in my proposal" is the fact that "I am an obscure citizen and businessman."

He said he had received "brush pharmaceutical industries.

McKee says the meeting he proposes would be similar to the Councils of Nicaea in 325 A.D., Trent in 1545 and the Westphalia in 1648, at which early church doctrine was formulated. He said doctrines proclaimed at those historic meetings "are still having enormous influence on the lives of men and women today."

Tools of diplomacy have proved ineffective, McKee said. The objective of the proposed "Council of Texas for Permanent World Peace," he says, would be "an historic symposium on the failure of the instrumentalities of diplomacy to preserve world peace."

He suggested the council be held in Dallas, a "great news distribution center." Men and women of "ponderous intellect" such as Winston Churchill would be asked to take part. But McKee also wants the council to take advantage of the "original thinking" of which talented college undergraduates are capable.

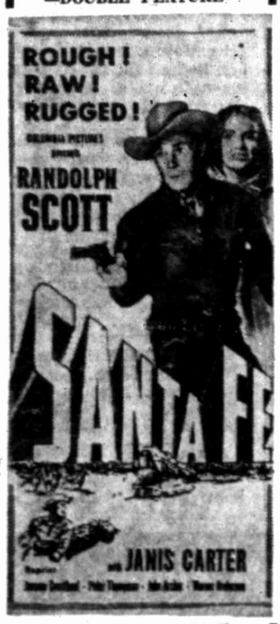

Leaders of the world's great religions would be invited. McKee suggested Pope John XXIII, having dedicated his remaining years to promoting world peace, "would again break tradition and fly to Texas to participate in . . . council deliberations."

McKee, 60, was secretary to the late U.S. Sens. George W. Norris of Nebraska and James W. Wadsworth Jr. of New York.

German Film Makers Hit For Sexy Trend

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — German movie producers are under fire for exposing too much flesh in their exports to South America.

Sexy scenes are sometimes added to movies to make them more palatable abroad. Critics say this gives Latin Americans a distorted view of Germany, a picture of easy girls and adulterous men.

Critic H. P. Gebhardt in the Stuttgarter Zeitung says scenes of seduction and of girls bathing in the nude are frequently added to films for South American export.

"There is no doubt: pornography boosts business," Gebhardt says. "But the psychological effect on international relations is dangerous."

Producers deny they are shooting sexy scenes just for the South American market.

"Usually we have two copies," explained M. Bechtold, an official of the Exportfilm Bischoff Co. of Munich which handles a lot of exports. "One make is for Germany and the other for export. The export copy still has all the scenes ordered cut out by censorship here.

"If a customer thinks the German version is not attractive enough, we show him the other which has possibly more bosoms and thighs. In many cases, the customer then decides for the export job — that's all."

Alcoholics Grow

NEW YORK (AP)—The number of alcoholics in this country is growing at the rate of 200,000 a year, Arthur S. Flemming, secretary of health, education and welfare, told a banquet audience Thursday night. Five million persons in the nation are alcoholics, he said, urging that the problem be attacked by means of education and scientific research.

French Movie Director Tries Hand In U.S.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If you can't lick 'em join 'em. That seems to be the policy in Paramount's signing of French director Roger Vadim to make three movies here.

Vadim is the discoverer and first husband of Brigitte Bardot. His "And God Created Woman" was a big moneymaker in the United States. His latest film, "Dangerous Relations," is the talk of France. The government has banned it for export and the controversy has helped cause a jam at the box offices of the two Paris theaters where the film is playing.

The slim, handsome young (32) film maker was here last week to cement his deal with Paramount and meet the press. I saw him in his Beverly Hills suite and caught a glimpse of his successor to BB as star and wife, Annette Vadim.

Vadim went to the next room and talked earnestly about his Hollywood future and his wrangles with the French government.

"It is ridiculous," he commented. "In the past six months, the government has been trying to sell everyone on what a great nation France is again. Nothing must be done to embarrass France.

"So they make an example of my picture. It is not immoral. It is certainly less erotic than 'Les Aimants,' which has played in France, or the Bardot picture, 'Love Is My Profession.' It just happened that my picture came along when they wanted to make an example. So I must suffer."

For The Last Time

For the last time, Mrs. Julia Gunn, postmistress at Cuthbert, lowers the U.S. flag. Cuthbert is being discontinued and its mail will be delivered by rural route from Colorado City.

Cuthbert Post Office Ends 68 Years Of Serving People

COLORADO CITY—Postmistress Julia Gunn hauled down the stars and stripes for the last time, took down the "Post Office, Cuthbert, Texas" sign above her window and sent her office furniture and postal records to Colorado City, Wednesday afternoon, to close a 68-year history for the office, established by D. T. Bozeman in 1891.

Cuthbert thus joined Hyman, Spade, Iatan, Vliets, Buford, Link and Teeville as one time postoffices in Mitchell County—all falling victim to the decline of the small town and rural community in West Texas. Cuthbert's mail will now be handled through nearby Colorado City.

When Mrs. Gunn came to Cuthbert in 1907, the little community, 16 miles northwest of Colorado City, had two stores, a cotton gin, a cafe, a church, barber shop, post office, school and wagon yard and cattle drivers often came through the area. Now there is only a grocery store to mark the once bustling little community. Good roads, good cars, consolidated schools and the lure of the big town are rapidly removing the small town and rural community from the West Texas picture.

Mrs. D. T. Bozeman was the first postmaster, with the front room of the Bozeman home serving as postoffice. In 1904, her husband quit teaching school and served as postmaster until his death in 1927. Mrs. Gunn, herself widowed and the mother of four young daughters, became postmaster and served until the close of business, Sept. 30th.

"It's been pretty ordinary here with me," Mrs. Gunn said about her postal life, adding, "We never did have much, but I've never felt poor—I've always had too many wonderful friends."

"Ordinary" it might have been, but the widowed mother did a pretty special job of the ordinary, attending quietly to Uncle Sam's business, and shepherding her daughters through school and two years or more of college.

It was really nothing, she insists, because the girls were all helping, and all four earned part of their passage. Friends extended a helping hand, too, she says.

Her daughters are Mrs. M. R. Pilgrim, Denton; Mrs. Edward Havran, Grapevine; Mrs. Leonard Ritchey of Lovington, N. M.; and Mrs. Perry Mathis of Big Spring.

She owns a home in Big Spring and will live there as soon as she completes some redecorating now under way. "I won't be retired completely," she smiled. "I think I'll still find plenty to do."

Meetings Called

NEW YORK (AP)—Shareholder meetings have been called by Standard Oil Co. (N.J.) and Humble Oil & Refining Co. of Dallas to ratify a merger.

The Humble meeting was set for Nov. 25 and Jersey's for Dec. 1.

Jersey holds 98.27 per cent of Humble shares. The plan provides that each share of Humble, other than the shares owned by Jersey, will be converted into 1¼ shares of Jersey stock.

Hannah Curves

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hurricane Hannah, losing a little steam but still dangerous to any ship in its path, curved northeast of Bermuda today, well away from the Atlantic Coast.

Hunting Victim

NAVASOTA (AP)—Mrs. Robert B. Upchurch, 48, died of a shotgun wound near Lake Irene Thursday, an apparent hunting accident victim.

Investigators said the woman had apparently stopped to fire at a dove and dropped her gun.
