Suit Filed Against Corporation

An $18.6 million law suit has been filed by Frito-Lay against five persons, including two local businessmen.

Named in the suit were J.H. Stafford, former Frito-Lay manager of commodity purchasing; J.T. Hair, Stafford's son-in-law; Melvin N. Tekell; and Garland DePrang and Wister Clevenger of Grain Handling Corp.

The suit claims that Stafford, who developed and became aware of confidential information and/or trade secrets, violated his position of trust in his dealings with four business associates and two companies supplying Frito-Lay with raw corn materials and edible oil.

Although the suit asked that the company be awarded damages in the minimum amount of $18.6 million, the president of Frito-Lay says the company does not know how much, if any, actual damages the firm has suffered by buying corn through a company in which the business men had large financial interests.

In a sworn statement filed in a Dallas district court Tuesday, David Wayne Callaway, president and chairman of the board of directors of Frito-Lay, said one of the things his company hopes to accomplish in the course of the suit is to discover the extent of any possible monetary damages suffered.

It was in 1968 that Stafford, the suit said, began two complex schemes, the so-called "edible oil scheme" and the "corn scheme", aimed at siphoning millions of dollars from Frito-Lay. The "corn scheme" had its beginnings in July 1968 when Hair and Tekell formed KornKo, Inc., a company supplying Frito-Lay with corn.

Stafford benefited from KornKo, whose chief customer was Frito-Lay, by secretly owning 50 percent of the company's stock. To remain anonymous in his dealings with KornKo, Stafford's stock holdings were kept under Tekell's name, the suit contends.

Hair also reaped the profits of KornKo by owning a third of KornKo's stock.

In 1972, KornKo expanded to control all the "functions required to be performed upon corn purchased by Frito-Lay" when it acquired three companies, the suit contends. They were Plains Corn, Inc., which operated a corn cleaning plant, Grain Handling Corp, which dealt in the storage of corn in huge corn elevators and, The Feed Barn Inc.

Tekell finally transferred his shares of KornKo into Stafford's name, but his name was never entered in KornKo's stock registers, thereby concealing Stafford's conflict of interest, the suit charges.

In 1973, KornKo underwent another change by switching its name to American Business Management Corp.

But when the shareholders exchanged their stock certificates, Stafford's name was once again deleted from ABMC's stock registry to conceal his 25 percent interest and his "unlawful" dealing with Frito-Lay money, the suit contends.

ABMC prospered as a result of increased sales to Frito-Lay, prompting ABMC to increase its dividends to stockholders and Stafford, the suit alleges.

The "corn scheme" stepped up in June 1976 when Quality Grain Processors, Inc., eventually changed its name to Grain Handling Inc., a company formed by Clevenger, DePrang and Larry Garvin.

Quality Grain was formed with the intent to buy $36 million in ABMC stocks. Shortly after the sale, Quality Grain changed its name to Grain Handling Inc.

Stafford and Hair divided Hair's interest in the company after the sale was complete, sharing an estimated $10 million in which Stafford received 60 percent of Hair's stock holdings.

The editor of the Hart Beat contacted Garland DePrang, who gave the following statement for publication:

"The newspaper reports concerning the litigation in which Grain Handling Corporation, Garland DePrang and Wister Clevenger had been made parties by Frito-Lay, Inc., contains only one side of the story insofar as it relates to these defendants. Also made defendants by Frito-Lay was an individual formerly the director of commodity purchasing in Frito-Lay, who has recently been fired, and his son-in-law.

"Frito-Lay has been treated right and fair in all its dealings with Grain Handling and Grain Handling has always enjoyed excellent relations with the farmers from whom it has bought corn. We have done nothing wrong and are confident we will be vindicated in all respects when the case is brought to trial.

"The case filed by Frito-Lay involves many issues not involving Grain Handling, Garland DePrang or Wister Clevenger, and the reported investigation likewise involves matters as to which we have no knowledge.

"Since the matter is pending in court, our counsel has advised us to make no further comment at this time, beyond to express our sincere gratitude for all the support and confidence expressed to us by our friends and neighbors."

Debra Ball Moves Ahead Of Grid Contestants

Scoreboard reports last weekend were "bad news" for a large number of contestants in the Hart Beat football contest. Quite a few of those competitors may have echoed the sentiments of a number of favored teams.

Jerry Allen, however, refused to be daunted by the difficult predictions. He missed just three games and lays easy claim to the week's top money, $5 for first place.

Michelle Anderson of Olton was wrong on four games and earns second place winnings of $3. Three contestants missed six games each with their tie-breaker predictions determining Dennis Hill as third place winner. He was 23 points off the actual score of the Dimmitt-Lockney clash. His guess was 18-12. Armando DeLeon missed by 33 with 12-28 and Carlos Martinez was off 39 points with 12-34.

Debra Ball shared the season lead last week with two other contestants. Tabulations this week found Miss Ball outdistancing that duo and in sole possession of first place. She has 65 correct predictions for the six weeks. Contestants with 55 or more points are listed elsewhere.

Last week's competition illustrates the need for contestants to keep up the competition even though they may trail by several points. Leaders are subject to "slumps" and others may "get lucky." One cannot win if one does not enter.

Letter To The Editor

County Chairman Praised

Dear Editor:

I certainly am not in the habit of writing 'dear editor' letters, but in view of the fact that one was printed last week regarding one of my County Chairmen, Mr. Oscar Wylie, and the way he conducted a meeting in the Courthouse in Dimmitt some time back, I can't let this pass without reminding this individual that at the County Convention in May, a resolution was passed which contained in part the following:

"WHEREAS, Oscar Wylie has labored hard and long in the Democratic Party; and

WHEREAS, his sole untiring efforts have been to promote the interests of the Democratic Party and to be fair to every candidate running for office; and

WHEREAS, he has not compromised the principles of the Democratic Party; and

WHEREAS, his duties as County Chairman have taken much time away from his family and his business to represent the Party in Court and at public meetings,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, that the Democratic Party of Castro County commends our County Chairman, Oscar Wylie, for his untiring work in the Party, and pledge our full support of his efforts."

It is inconceivable to me that some people can be critical of an individual when he is doing a job to the best of his ability, and I feel like he has done a very good job, considering the difficult circumstances he has had since he has been County Chairman.

I have 26 county chairmen in the 31st District, and without a doubt he is one of the most outstanding in the District. Since his pay is zero, I think it goes without saying that he is doing a duty, not only to the Democratic Party, but as a patriotic citizen of this community and the country as a whole.

So I heartily endorse the resolution passed at the County Convention commending Mr. Oscar Wylie for his efforts.

Sincerely yours,
s/Mrs. Carl L. King

THEN and NOW

In less than a century, the average American's life expectancy nearly doubled, thanks greatly to big changes in our knowledge of diseases and their treatment.

THEN: In the 1800's it was believed by some that typhoid could be cured by applying suction cups to the patient's skin.

NOW: Modern medicine and sanitation has practically eliminated that disease, and is concentrating on others—cancer in particular. In fact, some 5,500 scientists from over 70 countries are trying to help combat this problem by pooling their ideas at the Twelfth International Cancer Congress held in a leading South American nation Argentina.

Hart JV Falls To Olton

The Hart JV Longhorns went to Olton Mustang country and found it difficult to win as they went down to Olton 24-0.

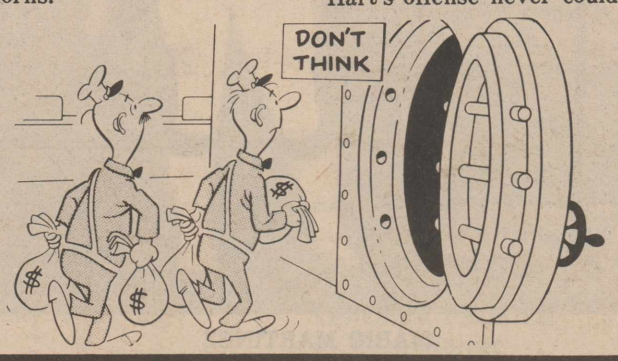

Hart took the opening kickoff ran three plays and tried to punt but the Mustangs blocked it taking over the ball on the 15 yard line where they scored. The Horns blocked the PAT making the score 6-0. The Horns took the kickoff as Tommy Washington went 70 yards for a touchdown, but it was called back for a penalty on the Horns.

During the second quarter Clay Barnes went back to pass but Olton intercepted it and ran 35 yards for a touchdown. The PAT failed. Then Hart fumbled the ball on the second play after the kickoff and Olton recovered and later scored making it 18-0 at halftime.

The second half Olton found the Horns defense was stubborn and only scored one time late in the 4th quarter. Hart's offense never could get untracked.

"We played real well on defense," said Coach Turner. "If we could get some blocking on offense we could be tough. It's real hard to win when you turn the ball over three times inside your own 20 yard line which happened to us."

The JV starts district competition Thursday as they travel to Bovina to tackle the Mustangs. The JV record is now 1-4.

Head Coach Don Cortez has started a new look in the football program at Panhandle State University and, with the help of Mario Martinez, has begun to build a respectable program.

A graduate of Hart High School, Martinez is a senior at PSU and three letterman for the Aggies. Starting nose-guard, he is presently among the leaders in defensive statistics.

Martinez is 5'9" and weighs 225 pounds.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. T.D. Martinez, the Panhandle Aggie has been lauded by his coaching staff for good strength and quickness off the ball which aids him in his position.

He is active in both letterman's club and radio club. Last year he served as program director for the campus radio station KPSU.

Coach Cortez, a strong worker in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, has brought back the fighting pride to the Panhandle State Aggie football program. He took the coaching job at PSU late in May when most recruiting was over but still found some athletes that have helped his program.

Weatherizing Money Now Available

Money to "weatherize" the homes of elderly, low-income or handicapped citizens is now available for this area from Texas Panhandle Community Action Corporation, P.O. Box 32150, Amarillo, 79120, 806-372-2531.

This weatherization assistance is for the purpose of aiding elderly and handicapped persons in weatherizing their homes to conserve energy. Work allowed on eligible homes includes such repairs as storm windows, caulking, insulation and exterior wall repairs to cut down on energy costs.

The funds are limited and will be allocated on the basis of "first-come, first-served," as well as on the basis of emergency and extreme need.

The program is made available through the Texas Department of Community Affairs' Economic Opportunity Division by the U.S. Department of Energy.

The above agency will serve residents of the following counties: Armstrong, Briscoe, Carson, Castro, Childress, Collingsworth, Dallam, Deaf Smith, Donley, Gray, Hall, Hansford, Hartley, Hemphill, Moore, Hutchinson, Lipscomb, Ochiltree, Oldham, Parmer, Potter, Randall, Roberts, Sherman, Swisher and Wheeler.

NEWS Of Education

Prepared by the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU), a national organization of public educators dedicated to expanded college opportunities and high standards of academic excellence.

Q. I know my tax money helps support state and other colleges and universities. What are these places doing for me?

A. A variety of things: Even if neither you nor your children take advantage of the educational opportunities at these schools, you benefit from the education they offer many of the people in your community who serve you. Many public-supported colleges and universities, for example, offer day and evening programs and courses on law enforcement to the police force and management to city workers. Faculty may advise small businesses and city agencies as part of extensive public service activities.

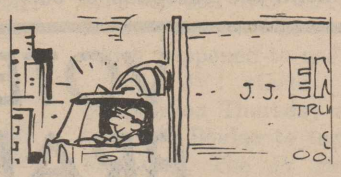

The Greeks were the first people to pursue mathematics as an art for its own sake.

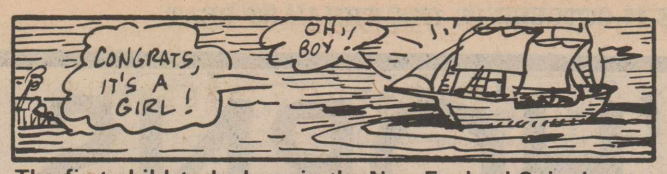

IT'S THE MOST

One of the most gratifying examples of doing well by doing good are the people who voluntarily make and buy fuel-efficient new large trucks and buses. Since 1973, these new vehicles have saved America 1.7 billion gallons of fuel. That's good for the country, good for the taxpayers and good for the economy, since lower transportation costs help fight inflation.

One of the most intriguing examples of the new devices these trucks have is a special shield for cab roofs. While it won't work on all types of trucks, it helps save horsepower on some by cutting wind resistance. These aerodynamic devices, the Motor Vehicle Manufacturers Association reports, have already saved more than 84 million gallons of fuel, according to Department of Transportation data.

Hill backs tax relief on ballot November 7

"We've got a great opportunity Nov. 7 to take a significant first step toward tax relief in Texas. I'm urging everyone to vote for the proposed constitutional amendment to give tax relief to our farmers and ranchers, homeowners, and elderly. After this amendment is adopted, I'll be ready to take the lead in the 1979 legislature to follow through on this first step."

Junior Highs Footballers Lose To Anton, 36-6

Hart Shorthorns lost 36-6 in a game Thursday with Anton. Outstanding offensively were Robert Gonzales and Arnie Garza. Trevor Peterson and Gilbert Tenario were outstanding on defense.

"With the exception of one defensive secondary miscue," reports their coach, "Hart's seventh grade played pretty good defense. The effort was highlighted by cornerback Peterson's interception of a threatening Anton aerial."

"With less than two minutes in the game, the seventh grade began a threatening march. On third down, Gonzales boatlegged around right end for the needed yardage. Then Garza took a reverse around left end for about 8-9 yards."

"Their efforts were thwarted as time ran out with the ball inside Anton's 20 yard line."

VOTE FOR BRADLEY FOR A SECOND TERM

I would like to take this means of asking for your vote and support.

In presiding over the Commissioner's Court and handling all County Court cases, all Probates, and all commitments, I feel I have been fair. I will continue to do so if elected your County Judge for another term.

I will consider any problem that might arise and will act according to the law and to the best interest of all concerned.

As a tax payer, I definitely believe that taxes should be held to a minimum.

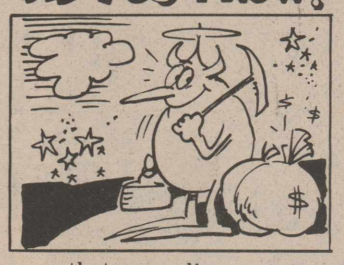

I am not obligated to any one person.

After serving as your County Judge for four years, I feel I can do a better job in the future.

DID YOU KNOW?

...that according to scientists, gold exists on Mars, Mercury and Venus?

...that about 10 billion tons of gold (100 thousand times more than man has managed to mine from the earth) are estimated to be suspended in the oceans of the world, but in concentrations so small it is not economically feasible to attempt to recover the gold?

...that experts say that not much more gold exists on earth, estimating the probably attainable reserve at some 41,000 metric tons (a metric ton is slightly over 200 pounds heavier than a regular ton)?

Irene's Ideas

Fall is here and leaves are beginning to turn. It won't be long till Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. Our thoughts turn to good food, gifts, decorating, etc., at this time of year. Several of you have mentioned enjoying recipes, so I'm going to share several with you that I know you'll enjoy.

This casserole is as yummy as it is simple to prepare. I got the recipe from Vivian Pigg who got it from Emily Clingingsmith, who got it from (I don't know who!) We all enjoy it.

CHINESE NOODLE CASSEROLE

Brown:
1 lb. ground chuck
1 c chopped celery
1 med. onion

Mix in:
1 T onion soup mix
1 can cream of mushroom soup
salt and pepper to taste
1 can water chesnuts

Place mixture in a baking dish. Sprinkle the top with Chinese egg noodles. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes.

This cake is one that is energy efficient by utilizing a cold oven. If you haven't tried the Butternut flavor, do so now. It is available from Town and Country Home Demonstration Club members.

BUTTERNUT CAKE
3 c sugar
1 small can of milk
2 sticks oleo
5 eggs
2 T butternut flavoring
½ c shortening
⅓ c water
¼ t salt
3¼ c flour

Beat for 10 minutes and pour into a greased and floured loaf or bundt pan. Place in a cold oven. Turn heat to 325°. Bake for 1 hour and 40 minutes.

Salads are always fun and here is one that makes a good dessert.

LIGHT AND LIVELY SALAD
1 can sweetened condensed milk
1 lge. carton frozen whipped topping
1 can cherry or apricot pie filling
1 c coconut
1 c pineapple
1 c marshmallows
½ c pecans
½ c marschino cherries

Combine first six ingredients; put in a serving bowl and chill. Garnish with pecans and cherries. Serves 12.

ROUND DISHES

Round dishes are ideal for microwaving many foods since there are no corners to overcook, says Lillian Chenoweth, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
