Cans spell $ for park

The Pool and Park Fund for Ruddick Park was boosted by $1,411 in donations this week to bring the total raised to date to $66,291.49, according to Gay Houston, chairman of the finance committee of the Park Board.

The largest donation came in the way of the sale of aluminum cans that had been donated to the park fund. Max Shaw, president of First National Bank which sponsored the aluminum can drive, reported that a cotton trailer full of cans was taken to Abilene this week which resulted in $536 for the fund.

The Kiwaniannes contributed $500 to the drive this week also, Mrs. Houston noted.

Another fund-raising event will be an auction conducted by Mitchell Auction Gallery, 163 East Third, on Saturday, October 26 starting at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Houston said that residents are asked to donate items to be auctioned with the proceeds going to the fund.

Tax-deductible donations may be made at any of the financial institutions in the county.

A list of thelatest contributors, except for those who wish to remain anonymous, includes:

Della Fox
Stella Dulin

The tractor is a diesel, serial number T213R266334R. At the time it was stolen, it had a hitch only, a canopy shade, and a set of Browne Bros. weights, one broken on the front. The tractor was loaded on a tilt-type bed trailer which pulled onto the south service road headed east.

Banquet highlights week

4-H week observed

National 4-H Week, October 6-12, reflects on the role of youth in shaping America, according to Mitchell County extension agent Debbie Christian.

Miss Christian notes that some 60 4-H members in Mitchell County, part of the 180,000 members in Texas and nearly 4.5 million across the country, will be participating in the week-long celebration using the theme "4-H for Youth for America."

Highlighting the special week is the 1985 achievement banquet on Tuesday. Members, parents and leaders will be recognized for their achievements through 4-H for the 1984-85 year.

"What we do for our youth today, we do for America tomorrow," stresses Miss Christian. "Through 4-H, young people can acquire knowledge and develop life skills that enable them to become self-directing, productive and contributing members of our society."

There are about 15-20 projects in which local 4-H members can participate including livestock, food, clothing, photography, horses, rifles, wildlife and recreation, leadership, public speaking, gardening and crafts and hobbies.

"There's a lot more to 4-H than just livestock or food or clothing projects," said Miss Christian, adding that 4-H is a leader based program.

"But 4-H is not only for youth," she says. "It's for adults, who as volunteer leaders can share their skills and expertise with young people. It's for families, who can participate in the fun and learning together. It's for the community, which benefits from the community service carried out by youth."

The Texas Agricultural Extension Service, with Miss Christian and Mike Mauldin as the local agents, conducts the 4-H program in Texas, with support from Texas A&M University and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

MEMBERS of the Mitchell County 4-H clubs gather around as County Judge Bill Carter declares October 6-12 as 4-H Week. Highlighting the week will be the local achievement banquet on Tuesday.

"We are very excited about this year's festival and we have had very good response. We have even had previous booth holders to write in this year and say they like to come to Colorado City because they are the nicest people around that they have worked with," says Mrs. Fite.

There is no admission at the gate and the public is invited to view the arts and crafts roundup.

Employ handicapped week scheduled

October 6-12, is National Employ the Handicapped Week, according to Oren McGrew, Senior Counselor, of the Texas Rehabilitation Commission.

Since 1944, when President Franklin Roosevelt declared the first National Employ the Handicapped Week, time has been set aside each October to increase the public's awareness of disabled people and their strengths and abilities.

"There are disabled people living in every community in this country," McGrew said. There are disabled people right here in Colorado City. Our job at the Texas Rehabilitation Commission is to help these people find jobs, improve the quality of their lives and allow them to contribute to society as taxpaying, productive citizens."

McGrew said his office helps people with a wide range of disabilities, including people with spinal cord injuries, mental retardation, mental illness, epilepsy and other internal disorders, hearing impairments, learning disabilities, and orthopedic impairments.

"We provide counseling, guidance, medical treatment, job placement, training, and many other services to help our clients get and keep good jobs," McGrew said.

In 1984, the Texas Rehabilitation Commission helped 14,712 disabled Texans get jobs.

News from ... Your Chamber of Commerce

By Penny Solomon
Chamber Manager

Mitchell County is blessed with a marvelous resource which I consider to be its greatest asset–its people.

Recently I reflected on the past few months and the many "firsts" experienced in my life since accepting the position of manager of the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce. The people of Mitchell County have made a lasting impression.

Finding myself in charge of several major events like the Mitchell County Fair has been traumatic for me. Yet, hundreds of people willingly accept and carry out responsibilities which require personal sacrifice to fulfill. They quietly go about their business so that others may benefit from their hard work.

Mitchell County has suffered economically for several years now, but last year was its worst. Despite all this they have dug deep inside their pockets and sacrificed their money and countless hours of their time to raise the necessary money for the Ruddick Park Fund.

There have been more community-wide events in a short span of time than anyone can remember. Many people are exhausted, and yet they continue to accept and fulfill responsibilities in order to make all these events successful. I thank God for such dedicated people. They never seem to get the pat on the back they deserve, and without them our community would not be the great place to live that it is.

I guess what pleases me most is to discover that I am not the only person impressed with the people of Mitchell County. I have heard from recent visitors who sing your praises. A man with car trouble who received assistance from some local men who dropped what they were doing to get him back on the road in time to meet his pressing obligations wrote a delightful letter of thanks and praise. He intends to stop each time he passes on I-20 and spend some of his money in our community. An elderly couple whose vacation was cut short due to physical problems was assisted in getting seats at the playhouse at a sellout performance as well as providing a special need for them. This couple also sings the praises of our people and plan to return often.

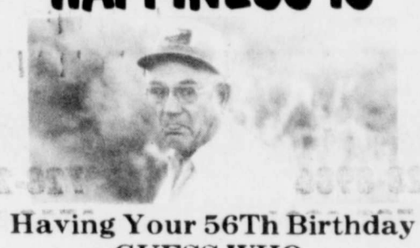

People like you make my job worthwhile. Your assistance and support coupled with your genuine warmth and friendliness make it possible for the organization of community volunteers called your Chamber of Commerce to promote Mitchell County. Together we can grow and prosper as we dedicate ourselves to the often difficult, but always rewarding task of economic, civic and cultural development in Mitchell County.

I know we will be successful because the resource necessary to make it possible is our greatest resource–people like you.

Cook's Corner

Barrera shares cold weather recipes

Angie Barrera has been a Green Thumb Worker at the Wallace Center for the past six months as assistant cook and kitchen assistant.

She likes her work, but she was cooking for a long time before she started working for the Green Thumb Program.

By the age of 7, she could prepare a whole meal because her parents worked and she had to take care of her brothers and sisters.

"I remember standing in a chair to make tortillas."

When she got married, she could cook and her family would eat anything she prepared.

Mrs. Barrera likes to cook and she cooks from scratch.

She doesn't have any cookbooks, so if she wants a new recipe, the person will tell her the ingredients and she goes from there.

She doesn't follow a recipe, but uses a pinch of this and that.

Mrs. Barrera likes to prepare a light supper and not have such heavy meals at night.

She likes to prepare cakes and pies and hot tamales are her favorite to prepare in the winter.

Sometimes, when you're trying to cook and the phone rings, things can really turn out a little hot.

"I was talking on the phone one day and I was standing close to the stove.

"I was really getting after talking and all of a sudden, my son came through the kitchen and said, 'Mom, your apron is on fire'."

Mrs. Barrera and her husband Allan, have five children–two daughters, three sons and 12 grandchildren.

Today she is sharing three of her recipes with RECORD readers.

Carpenter celebrates her 100th birthday

Mattie B. Carpenter, of Kristi Lee Manor, was honored with a party celebrating her 100th birthday Sunday, September 29th in the home of her daughter, Faye Woods of Loraine. Her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-granchildren hosted the affair.

The refreshment table was overlaid with a white table cloth edged with white lace. The cake centered the table and was decorated in white with pink carnations. The numerals "100" accented the cake with pink burning candles. Pink punch carried out the color scheme with an arrangement of pink flowers.

The honoree was attired in a pink dress to celebrate the occasion.

Gifts were displayed for guests to view. Cards were sent to Mrs. Carpenter from Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Washington, D.C.

Family and friends came from Lawton, Oklahoma, Midland, Big Spring, Colorado City, Sweetwater, Austin, Fort Worth, Richland Hills, New Deal and Sand Springs.

Tests For Scoliosis

One of the surest methods for diagnosing scoliosis is through the use of x-rays. Not only does your Chiropractor use x-ray, but he also has several other examination procedures that help comfirm the presence (or absence) of scoliosis, such as poster analysis and weight balance tests.

Chiropractic deals with the correction of abnormal conditions of the musculskeletal system (muscles, bones and joints). If your Chiropractor thinks you have scoliosis, an appointment will be made for you for a spinal examination.

Chiropractic works. It gets results. And that's what counts!

CHS senior Cody Stice works on FFA project

Stice leads seniors

By Ray Mayo
Editor

Colorado High School senior Cody Stice doesn't believe in belonging to an organization unless he can be an active participant.

And the 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stice of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Key of Lubbock is just that–active.

Stice is currently serving as president of the senior class and as president of the CHS chapter of the Future Farmers of America. He is on the varsity football team and a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. He is also editor of the school annual, "The Lone Wolf."

"I try real hard in all the things I do," says Stice. "If I'm involved in an activity, I try to influence others in a positive way."

Balancing his studies with his extra-curricular activities is not easy, he admits, explaining that it "just depends upon the time of the year" as to which activity he is devoting his most time.

Right now, Stice says he's concentrating on football, but when the stock show season starts, he'll turn his attention to that.

Stice didn't play football last year, but credits coach Rick Robinson with his transition back to the sport.

"When I came back to play football as a senior, I didn't know if I could make it or not," he explains. "Coach Robinson has helped me a lot."

"Coach Robinson has also helped me in my relationship with the Lord," says Stice, who attends Calvary Baptist Church.

Stice, who is serving his third year as class president, notes that seniors this year "are taking on more of a leadership role" with the rest of the student body.

"The seniors are doing a good job at adapting to changes and leading the rest of the school," he says, explaining that the no pass, no play rule and other legislative changes have created a lot of changes in school.

Besides school activities, Stice raises show horses and plans to start showing as an amateur owner in the National Appaloosa Club this year. He showed horses in 4-H for six years.

Future plans include attending Texas Tech after high school graduation. Stice, who says he enjoys math, plans on becoming a mechanical engineer.

Roles reversed for JV, freshmen

For the first four weeks of the season, Colorado High School's junior varsity football team won while the freshmen squad went winless.

Thursday night, in games played at Wolf Stadium, the ninth graders reversed the trend by beating Clyde 14-8 for their first victory of the season while the JV lost to the Bulldogs 7-6 for their first loss of the year.

The freshmen, now 1-3, took a 6-0 lead on their second possession of the game.

The possession came after Mark Russell hit a Clyde receiver forcing an incompletion and a punt.

Quarterback George Rivera went through a big hole on the right side of the line, cut left and then raced 48 yards for what would've been the Wolves first score if not for a clipping call on Chris Perkin.

The penalty brought the ball back to the Bulldog 29 yard line. Two plays later, Bo Alvarez ran the 29 yards to the left corner of the endzone for Colorado City's first touchdown. The score came with 5:40 remaining in the first quarter and the quarterback Rivera fumbled the snap on the extra point(s) attempt.

Paul Ausbie and Rivera teamed up for a backfield tackle giving the Wolves possession at the Clyde 38.

The Wolves moved to a first and goal at the Clyde 10 on a pass from Rivera to Bubba Bailey, who made the finger tip catch down the left sideline and then juked the Bulldog defenders for three more yards.

The drive ended on a fumbled snap on third and goal from the three yard line.

A high punt snap on Clyde's ensuing possession resulted in a safety and an 8-0 lead for the Wolves.

Clyde came back to tie the game on a 75 yard drive on their next possession--mostly on three pass plays.

The first pass went 19 yards from the 25 to the 44. Another deep pass, this time to the right, went 26 yards for a first down at the Colorado City 20.

The third pass was good for 15 yards and a touchdown in the left side of the endzone. The quarterback ran the ball on the PAT to tie the game at 8-8 with 5:02 remaining in the first half.

Bailey and Alvarez recovered fumbles for Colorado City on Clyde's next two series.

Alvarez's recovery gave the Wolves a first down at the Clyde 20.

Alvarez carried for four yards on first down then Rivera kept right for a first and goal at the 10.

Rivera then threw to tight end Heath Watlington on a quick toss over the middle with no time remaining on the first half clock.

The touchdown ended the scoring as the PAT snap was again fumbled.

Colorado City suffered two fumbles and an interception in the second half.

Also in the second half, Bailey and Rivera intercepted for the Wolves to end Clyde's last two possessions.

The junior varsity, now 2-1-2 with their first loss, suffered four first half turnovers and twice came up empty in two second hald drives that stalled inside of Clyde's 10 yard line.

A mid-air finger tip catch by Bo Proctor of a 19 yard pass from Ismael Silva was Colorado City's lone offensive spurt in the first quarter, but the drive ended on an interception.

The Wolves next possession ended on a fumble by running back Jerry Hulme.

A 44 yard, one-handed reception by David Garcia opened the second quarter, but that drive ended two yards short of a first down at Clyde's 21.

On Clyde's ensuing possession, a Bulldog running back broke two tackles and scored from 24 yards out with 4:48 remaining in the half. The PAT kick made it 7-0.

Silva was intercepted again on the Wolves next possession and a third time as the first half ended. Hulme made a tackle to prevent the interception from being returned for a touchdown.

A fumbled punt snap by Clyde gave the Wolves a first and goal at the seven to begin the second half.

The Wolves came up empty but a hit and fumble recovery by Hulme gave the Wolves a first and ten at the Clyde 19. Colorado City got as far as the one yard line, but again failed to punch it in.

Clyde was forced to punt the ball away and on the punt, Colorado City's Derek Taylor was carried off with an injured neck, leaving the Wolves with no substitutes.

The Wolves scored on the next possession. The drive began at the Wolves 49. A clipping call moved the ball to Clyde's 29.

From the 27, Silva threw to Proctor, who made a tip-toe catch to stay in bounds with a first down at the Clyde three. Two plays later, Hulme went over Ruben Silva's block for the score.

On the PAT attempt, quarterback Silva appeared to have running room, but a hesitation on his part made his run short of the extra point.

Clyde threatened to score on its last possession, but the Wolves held on four plays beginning at the three yard line.

CMS puts bite on Bulldogs

Colorado Middle School's seventh grade football team, which scored 14 points in its two previous losses, exploded for a 52-20 stomping of the Clyde Bulldogs Thursday night.

The victory at Clyde gives the Wolves a 1-2 record and in a later game, the eighth grade lost for the first time 14-0, giving them a 1-1-1 record.

Johnny Pineda led the seventh grade offensive explosion by carrying for 217 yards and five touchdowns.

Pineda scores included runs of 11, 31, 27, 59 and 49 yards. Pineda also ran for two point after attempts.

Quarterback George Ramsey accounted for the two other scores on runs of one and 64 yards. Ramsey also scored on a PAT run and threw to Wendell Iglehart for another PAT score. Ramsey finished with 81 yards rushing.

Iglehart caught a second PAT pass from Scott Gailey, who had two fumble recoveries for the Wolves.

Steve Williamson, Jeremy Strain and Brandon Raschke also had fumble recoveries while Silver Haro made two quarterback sacks.

"I'm extremely proud and happy for them," said CMS coach Gene Tuttle. "They got beat up the first two games."

Of the 14-0 first loss by the eighth graders, Tuttle said, "It was a big disappointment. We felt like we could beat them."

Clyde scored the first of two touchdowns with less than four minutes remaining in the game.

"We drove three or four times deep in their territory," said Tuttle. "We would give it up on turnovers or penalties would take us out of it. We gave up too many big plays and couldn't come up with them ourselves."

"We finally play at home next Thursday against ol' Coahoma."

Tracy Edwards had 108 yards rushing while Bobby Arocha and Ray Rivera had 32 and 28 yards respectively.

Acts 5:39 Says, "You might even be found opossing God."

The Jews at Jerusalem were in a very treacherour situation. The crucifixion of Jesus had not settled anything. It had seemed to be the best thing to do-to put him out of the way. "Dead men tell no tales," and one carpenter more or less couldn't create a crisis.

But their troubles had multiplied from the very moment they had laid hands on Jesus. An awful thing had happened inside the Temple while he hung on the cross. A big tear had suddenly appeared in the veil of the holy place, and the people thought it was caused by the fact that the authorities had put Jesus to death. Then on top of that the disciples were going aroun telling people that he had been seen alive, and thousands believed their tale. The whole town was shaken by the news.

Just in a few days a multitude arose saying they believed this was the Messiah. The movement was led by a Galilean fisherman who talked like a man inspired, and he had a lot of influence with the people. The affair was growing.

The Temple authorities were trying very hard to stamp out this movement. They even thought of using violent means. A very wise man--Gamaliel by name--offered a sober warning, one that would be good for us to hear even today. "You might even be found opposing God," he said, "and that would be very serious."

It has happened so many times that good people have found opposing God. Not because they have been wicked, but because they have been blind. The Temple authorities who crucified Jesus were religious men--and terribly mistaken men as well. The fanatics were loyal to their convictions and incapable of seeing a new religious idea. The closed mind can be as sinful as the evil mind.

Ganaliel's warning was, "Don't do anything for the time being. Wait and see what happens. If the movement is bad, God will destroy it. If it is good no one will be able to destroy it." Gamaliel could see both sides of the situation. He cared! Many a family quarrel was been stoped by the one person in the group who wanted to wait and see how things work out. Wouldn't that be a good thing for all of us to do?

Wolves lose to Clyde

Mistakes prove costly

By Tony Franco
Sports Editor

CLYDE–The Colorado City Wolves are probably very relieved that next week's district 7-3A opener at home against Coahoma is not a homecoming affair–they don't tend to bring out the best in the Pack.

After winning the season's first two games, the Wolves have now lost three in a row including Friday night's 18-7 loss to District 6-3A member Clyde.

What makes the loss to the Bulldogs similar to the two losses to Denver City and Wylie is the fact that the game was Clyde's homecoming.

Denver City won Colorado City's homecoming and the following week the Wolves lost Wylie's. The loss to Clyde made it three in a row.

Besides losing homecoming games, another disturbing trend has transformed.

In the two previous losses the Wolves have spotted opponents first half leads and then come up short on second half come back attempts.

The loss to Clyde Friday night was no different.

Danny Salazar and Raymond Martinez made a sack of Clyde quarterback Shane Shewmake to force the Bulldogs to punt away their first possession.

Colorado City was also forced to punt on its first possession, but the punt never got off.

Reggie Gardner's punt was blocked by Clyde and linebacker Kerry Simmons recovered and attempted to run it in for a score. Gardner tackled him–forcing the ball loose–but the Bulldogs Randy Richardson recovered it in the endzone for a Clyde touchdown with 6:11 still to play in the first quarter.

Colorado City went to the passing game on the next series but Mike Ligon's first pass was dropped. The drive ended on two more incompletions–the second one another drop.

For the night, Colorado City's passing game was a poor five of 19 for 109 yards. Ligon threw just one less pass to Bulldogs defenders as Clyde picked off errant passes.

Clyde took over on its own 26 and promptly got into scoring position on fast back Virgil Roberts bolt around the left side for a 42 yard run and a first down at Colorado City's 29. Linebacker Sam Rivera–playing defense for the first time–made a touchdown saving tackle on the play.

Roberts went around the left again for 11 yards and a first down at the Colorado City 16. Richardson carried to the two, then Roberts went over the right side for the touchdown with 1:29 still remaining in the first quarter. The Wolves again stopped the PAT run.

Ligon suffered his first of four interceptions on Colorado City's very next play from scrimmage. The ball fell over and away from the intended receiver and safety Shewmake picked it off at the Colorado City 38.

A personal foul on Colorado City added 15 yards and Clyde

Bulldogs fall 10-6 in hard-fought contest

By Rick Alkire

One of the hardest hitting football games of the season took place Friday night as the Loraine Bulldogs lost a close one to the Bulldogs of Spur 10-6.

Each team took turns dominating two quarters of plays. LHS was first eating up the clock and scoring the first touchdown of the game in the first quarter.

Spur figured out what they had done wrong in the first half and came out running where they had tried to pass to start out with.

"It just wasn't in the cards for us to win," said head coach Sandy McSpadden. "Both teams were evenly matched tonight. I can't say that we played a bad game because we didn't, as a matter of fact I think we're a better football team," added McSpadden.

LHS started out the first quarter with the ball on their own 47 yard line. Nine plays later, deep in Spur territory, the Bulldogs failed to make the first down, giving the visiting team the ball on their own 23.

Spur tried the passing game, but all they could muster was one yard on four passing attempts and one first down with the help of an offsides penalty against Loraine.

Spur punted the ball and LHS went to work on their own 28. Duane Linam carried the ball twice for another Loraine first down. Two plays later, quarterback Joe Vasquez completed a 30 yard pass to Linam for another first down and continued to move the ball down the field. Five plays later, first and goal on the Spur six, Billy Mayes scored with 1:08 remaining in the first quarter.

The extra point kick by Ricky Bailey failed. LHS 6-Spur 0.

The second quarter began where the first had left off with LHS dominating play and moving the ball. The home team racked up five first downs in this drive which was highlighted by a 27 yard pass to Dell Haltom from Eddie Benitez and a 20 yard pass from Joe Vasquez to Haltom for 20 yards.

A clipping penalty nullified a 15 yard run by Vasquez two plays later, but LHS came back on a tipped pass from Joe Vasquez into the hands of lineman Ricky Bailey.

It wasn't enough for the first down so LHS had to give the ball back.

Brandon White started off the first down play for the Spur Bulldogs with a 39 yard run with 4:41 remaining in the second quarter. The visiting team controlled the ball until a Dale Matlock pass fell into the waiting arms of Freddie Benitez with 43 seconds left in the first half.

Joe Vasquez took matters into his own hands with a 21 yard run on the first play of a drive that began on the LHS 45. But on the next play, Vasquez was dropped for a six yard loss. Loraine tried a halfback pass to get down the field into scoring position but Eddie Benitez was intercepted by Randall Courtney and the Spur Bulldogs ran out the clock to end the first half of play.

Spur came out of the locker room for the third quarter and went to work on their running game. Running backs Brandon White and Scott Carmichael started working on Loraine's tackles on both sides of the line.

Spur was able to hold onto the ball for the first seven minutes of the second half. They began their opening drive on their own 26.

Eighteen plays later, quarterback Dale Matlock went in from the one to score the first touchdown for the visiting Bulldogs.

The kick by Mick McDonald was good to make the score 7-6, Spur.

LHS took over from their

Girls continue winning season

Colorado High School's volleyball team, less than two weeks away from the first of two district games against Crane, travelled to Bronte Tuesday night and defeated the defending class A champion Longhorns 15-10, 15-12.

"It was beautiful," said coach Cindy McMillin.

"They played consistently and didn't let them score on runs. We never broke down offensively or defensively."

Denise Jackson and Sherry Fite led the Wolves in scoring with 10 and seven service points respectively.

"We played our kind of ballgame," said McMillin. "Everybody played good. We had a bunch of offensive kills. Our serving looked better."

The victory by Colorado City was the first over the playoff proven Longhorns in some years.

"They (Bronte) lost a lot of seniors," said McMillin. "They start the program there early so they're still strong. I expect to see them at the state tournament again this year."

McMillin said the Wolves were "estatic" about beating the Longhorns. "They should be. They're a top team and we played as a team."

The Wolves, now 7-1, were to have been at an Apsermont tournament yesterday beginning with an 11 a.m. match against Chillicothe.

Bronte returns the visit with a match against Colorado City here at "The Pit" Tuesday night. The Wolves conclude the pre-district schedule at an Irion County tourney the coming weekend and begin the district's two match series against Crane here October 15.

"We're trying to point everything in the right direction before district gets here," said McMillin.

The junior varsity and freshmen teams lost their matches against Bronte and now have respective records of 5-5 and 2-3.

The JV score was 15-9, 15-6 and Jennifer Monroe had four service points to lead the Wolves.

Loraine, Roscoe battle to 12-12 tie

The Loraine and Roscoe junior high football teams battled to a 12-12 tie at Roscoe Thursday night as the Plowboys used a last second, reverse pass to come back on the Bulldogs.

Loraine, now 1-0-1, kept the ball the entire first quarter and drove to a first and goal at the Roscoe four yard line before a fumble and two penalties took the Bulldogs out of scoring position.

Roscoe scored first on a 45 yard run but Loraine made it 6-6 at half with Rudy Sanchez's 25 yard sweep.

Loraine had two scores called back on penalties but got another chance when Anthony Williams intercepted for Loraine.

It set up a 45 yard touchdown pass from Joey Lujan to Sanchez, giving the Bulldogs a 12-6 lead.

The score came early in the fourth quarter and Roscoe used runs and reverses to drive for the game-tying score.

Shawn Finley, who had "a good game" running up the middle, made a fumble recovery for Loraine, which plays Roscoe again Thursday at home.

Let's POOL Our Resources

Pool & Park Benefit Auction

Sponsored by Homestate Division of City Saving

The people of Colorado City are responding to the Ruddick Park fund raising challenge with enthusiasm. More than half of the $125,000 needed to spruce up the park and add a pool has already been raised.

That's no surprise to us at Homestate. We've been helping Mitchell County residents turn dreams into reality for years. And now, we're ready to help again.

On Saturday, October 26, the Homestate Division of City Savings will sponsor a POOL & PARK BENEFIT AUCTION, with all proceeds going to the Pool & Park Fund. The auction will begin at 10 a.m. at the Auction Gallery, 163 East Third, and lunch will be available from a concession stand operated by the Park Committee board. Plus, you'll have a chance to win one of four one-ounce silver ingots from Homestate Savings.

You can show your support for the Pool & Park Fund by donating items for the auction. Goods and services from the business community are needed - and citizens are urged to donate items as well, such as furniture, art and antiques. To donate, call Linda Mitchell at 728-2667, or Gay Houston at 728-3849. We can arrange to have your donated items picked up, if necessary.

The improvements planned for Ruddick Park will be enjoyed for years. If we pool our resources today, we can make a splash that will be remembered for a long, long time.

Wolves

was in business at the Colorado City 13. It took the Bulldogs just two plays to score.

Shewmake threw to Elliott Park along the right sideline of the endzone for the score from 13 yards out.

The PAT pass fell incomplete and Clyde led 18-0 with 28 seconds still remaining in the first quarter. The points would stand up for the victory.

The Wolves went to back Sam Rivera to try to salvage something out of the first half.

Rivera, who gained 181 yards on 31 carries for a career high, twice led the Wolves into scoring position the first two possession of the second quarter.

Both drives stalled on keepers by Ligon. The second one ended on a drop of Rivera's halfback pass after the Wolves had a first and goal at Clyde's nine.

Ligon finally completed a pass on Colorado City's third possession of the second quarter and last of the first half. It was to Michael Swann.

Unfortunately, Ligon was intercepted for the second time on the very next play by Simmons--ending the first half.

The Wolves blocked a Clyde punt to begin the second half and Terry Jackson recovered for Colorado City at midfield.

Ligon threw to Larry Mayes on the next play. The pass was deflected, but Mayes caught it anyway down the right sideline and raced for the game's final score. Martinez kicked the PAT.

Danny Salazar made a third quarter recovery of a Clyde fumbled punt return, but the Wolves--behind Rivera's running--stalled on the Clyde's one foot line.

The Wolves continued to threaten to score behind Rivera's running, which included six second half runs of over 20 yards, but the passing game proved to be the downfall as the Wolves last two drives ended on interceptions by Clyde's Simmons and Shewmake.

Bulldogs

own 38. On the second play of this drive, Duane Linam bolted through the line for 36 yards.

The Bulldogs were able to drive down to the Spur three, but were unable to get it across the goal line.

Ricky Bailey's field goal attempts was four seconds left in the third, was no good and the ball went back to Spur.

Spur added a field goal with less than two minutes to go in the fourth period. The Loraine Bulldogs held the ball only three times in the second half. This was a definite factor in the outcome of the game.

"It was beautiful the way they controlled the ball in the second half," said coach McSpadden. "They played the kind of game we would have liked to play."

Friday night is homecoming for the Loraine Bulldogs and it is also their first district game. The Bulldogs will meet Roby. Kickoff 7:30 p.m.

Special exhibit scheduled

SNYDER--The Scurry County Museum will show paintings and prints by Western artist Wayne Baize and sculpture by local artist Ben Miller in a special exhibit opening on Oct. 11.

Both Baize and Miller will be present for a reception in the museum from 6-9 p.m. on Oct. 11. The public is invited to meet the artists during the evening.

The exhibit will be part of the White Buffalo Days celebration set for Oct. 12-13 in Snyder. Other activities will be held in the Scurry County coliseum.

Baize was born in Stamford and later moved with his family to a ranch south of Baird where he began studying art. He had his first one-man show in Stephenville.

His works have appeared in the Western Heritage Show in Houston, the OS Ranch Art Show in Post and in numerous other places including New York and Los Angeles. His paintings portray the cowboy as a working man, caring for his cattle, horses and grassland.

Miller, who is from Fluvanna, grew up in Borden and Garza county ranch country. Wildlife and the cowboy are his favorite subjects. Although interested in art at an early age, it was not until 1980 that he began to seriously devote himself to sculpting. He recently displayed some of his works at the OS Ranch Art Show.

Additional details about the reception and exhibit can be obtained by calling the Scurry County Museum at 915 573-6107. The exhibit is to remain in the museum through November 11.
