Weapons Used By Pro Agents Are Abolished

Rigid Restrictions Placed On Enforcement Of Dry Laws By Federal Agents In Measure Approved By House

Appropriation Cut

Purchase Of Evidence, Wire Tapping And Under Cover Men Prohibited; 10 Per Cent Is Cut In Funds Allowed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. — Rigid restrictions on future federal enforcement of the dry laws, which high ranking prohibition officials termed a "severe handicap" were approved today by the house.

It adopted a series of amendments to the department of justice supply bill, tearing from the hands of the prohibition bureau its powerful weapons of purchase of evidence, wire tapping, and socalled "under cover men."

Appropriation Is Cut

In addition the house voted 129 to 118 to reduce to $8,440,000 the bureau's appropriation for the next fiscal year—10 per cent below the present appropriation. The action is not final and must be approved by the senate and the president.

The first move by the anti-prohibitionists had been a drive to eliminate all prohibition funds from the supply bill, but failing this, they succeeded in tying onto it the amendments.

Colonel Amos W. W. Woodcock, in charge of federal enforcement, refused to comment and his subordinates would only speculate on how far-reaching the effect of the "handicap" would be. One high official, who refused to permit his name to be used, said, however:

Don't Want It Enforced

"After all, it is for congress to lay down policy, but it certainly looks as though they do not want the prohibition law enforced."

The restriction on the purchase of evidence was perhaps the most important of the group from the point of view of the enforcement service. The federal courts and almost two-thirds of the states require evidence of purchase rather than mere "evidence of observation" of sale.

The elimniation of under cover men would reach into three categories. The first are those specially adapted to under-cover work, such

State Income Tax Proposed

From One To Seven Per Cent On Individuals And Two To Six Per Cent For Corporations Basis Of Plan

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 27. — The Texas legislature today received a proposal to tax incomes, on a basis of from one to seven per cent on individuals and from two to six per cent on corporations.

Former Governor R. S. Sterling in his final message to the legislature before he retired in favor of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, advocated an income tax, coupled with a sales levy, as a means of balancing the budget.

Governor Ferguson, in her message, recommended a sales tax, but did not touch on the income levy proposition.

Levy On Individuals

The Hughes income tax would levy on individuals: One per cent for the first $1,000; one and one quarter per cent on the second $1,000;; one and one-half per cent on the third $1,000; two per cent on the fourth $1,000; two and one half per cent on the fifth $1,000; three per cent on the sixth $1,000; three and one half per cent on the seventh $1,000; four per cent on the eighth $1,000; four and one-half per cent on the ninth $1,000; five per cent on the tenth $1,000; six per cent on the eleventh $1,000 and seven per cent on everything in excess of $11,000.

Corporations would pay an income tax beginning at two per cent on $1,000, with maximum of 6 per cent on $6,000 and above.

Ruth Judd Gets Respite From Noose Of Hangman; Pardon Hearing Is Set

(By The Associated Press)

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 27.—The date for the hanging of Winnie Ruth Judd, convicted in the trunk double murder case, was changed today by the Arizona board of pardons and paroles from February 17 to April 14.

This 58-day reprieve was granted so the board might conduct a hearing into the condemned woman's application for a pardon. The three members of the board found their other duties such they could not find time for the hearing in the three weeks remaining before the time on which her execution was set.

The members of this board are Arthur T. Laprade, attorney-general, Herman E. Hendrix, superintendent of public instruction, and Lin B. Orme, sr., chairman. The governor has no power to pardon, commute, parole or reprieve, under Arizona laws, without approval of this board.

Mrs. Judd's application to the board, presented Jan. 14, asked either a full pardon, commutation to life imprisonment, commutation to the lawful penalty for second degree murder (10 years to life) or commutation to the lawful penalty for manslaughter (one to ten years).

In October, 1931, Mrs. Agnes Leroi and Miss Hedvig Samuelson, companions of Mrs. Judd, were slain in their apartment. Their bodies were dissected and sent to Los Angeles in a trunk. Mrs. Judd was convicted and sentenced to death for the murder of Mrs. Leroi. The charge of murder against her in the Samuelson case has not been tried.

Ford Blames Competitors

Thousands Are Without Work After Walkout

Motor Magnate Says Certain Of His Competitors Working Against Him; Declares That He Will Fight Them

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Jan. 27. — A statement published in the London Evening Standard quoted Henry Ford as attributing his suspension of work, rendering 100,000 men idle, to "certain of my competitors who are operating against me" was declared to be "substantially correct" tonight by officials of the Ford Motor Co.

(The London Standard statement quoted Mr. Ford as saying "the actual truth is that certain bankers are trying to obtain control of the Ford concern." A member of Mr. Ford's staff said today, however, the motor magnate had told him that was not exactly correct.)

Names Not Used

The officials commenting on the statement declined to permit use of their names. Neither would they attempt to elaborate on it nor promise any further comment from Mr. Ford.

When the Ford company announced its suspension yesterday, it stated it "no longer could continue production without bodies furnished by the Briggs Mfg. Co.," whose plants were shut down early this week after a walkout of 6,000 employes.

Competitors Blamed

The Standard quoted Mr. Ford as saying, in a transatlantic telephone conversation that "certain of his competitors" were seeking to prevent "another Ford car from leaving the factory."

"I know this and I know what to do about it," the Standard yuoted Ford as saying. "They have succeeded for a few hours but I am going straight out now and clean up this whole affair. I'll fight them and prove that production of Ford cars can't be stopped."

Guarantee Offered

Ford visited the Highland Park plant of the Briggs company today, unannounced, and shortly afterward announcement came from that company that steps had been taken to end the walkout there. A guaranteed base rate of pay was offered by the Briggs company, but the strikers tonight had not announced acceptance of the terms.

Although officials said there was no disorder, police surrounded the

Two Lubbock Men Are Held At Levelland After Wreck

Two Lubbock men, whose automobile overturned at a railroad crossing at Levelland Friday, were in the Hockley county jail last night.

Bewhiskered Old Veteran Cowpokes Of Range Stand In Line At Beauty Shops; Beard Marcel Is The Order

(By The Associated Press)

CLAYTON, N. M., Jan. 27.—Wrinkled, bewhiskered old veteran cowpokes of the range country stood in line waiting their turns in beauty shops today and the standing order was:

"Beard marcel, please."

The rush started after B. A. "Mutt" Laudet, generalissimo of the annual old western celebration, announced the beauty operators will be judges in the "whiskering" contest which will climax the celebration and dance tomorrow night.

"They'd better fix 'em up," Miss Estelle Pauls, one of the judges, said. "If there's anything a woman hates it's a shaggy, helter skelter mop of whiskers."

Besides marcelling them, some of the boys are having their whiskers trimmed into fancy shapes and dyed a pleasing mahogany, coal black or henna. One wanted to be a platinum blond.

Three hundred sets of whiskers have been entered in the contest.

Testimony In Hawkins Murder Trial At Plainview Completed

Last Minute License Rush Expected To Start In City

The last minute rush to register Lubbock county automobiles for 1933 will begin either today or Monday. The deadline will fall Wernesday, February 1.

Tax Collector Wm. H. Carpenter said last night that about 3,500 automobiles had been registered, and that he anticipated a registration of more than 3,000 machines within the next four days on which payments may be made.

Lubbock county, which normally will register about 9,000 passenger cars, usually has about 6,500 of them registered by February 1. The other 2,500 are registered during the remainder of the year. Truck registrations are being made slowly, due to the fact that many farmers store their trucks until fall and purchase highway licenses for them only when they are ready to use them.

Three Men Are Arrested For Stealing Of Car At Amarillo

TUCUMCARI, N. M., Jan. 27. (AP) — Three men arrested here last Monday were held today on federal charges of stealing a car at Amarillo, Texas.

The three, Henry Chamberland, George Williams and Jack Barrington, were captured while officers were searching for the slayers of Sheriff J. C. Moseley of Swisher county, Texas, who was killed last Sunday. Sheriff Ira Allen said they had a shotgun and a revolver in a car which they were driving and which he said was stolen at Amarillo.

Federal charges were filed against them because they drove the car across the Texas line. They pleaded not quilty and bonds were set at $2,000 each.

Defense Bases Its Case On A Plea Of Self Defense; Say Slain Man Was Advancing On Defendant With Hoe

(By The Associated Press)

PLAINVIEW, Jan. 27.—Testimony was concluded late today in the murder trial of Joe Hawkins, charged with killing his father-in-law, S. M. Walker.

The defense based its case on a plea of self defense, introducing testimony to show that Walker was advancing toward Hawkins with a hoe in his hands at the time he was shot. The killing occurred at the Crosby county home of Hawkins.

Quarrel Over Dog Fight

Prosecution witnesses had testified that Walker had come from a field with the hoe and had ridden in a neighbor's car to Hawkins' place. He was swinging the hoe over his shoulder as he left the car.

J. S. McCain of Shallowater said he accompanied Walker to the Hawkins farm the day he was slain. When they arrived Hawkins and two boys were watching a dog fight.

After Walker told the boys to separate the dogs, a quarrel started between him and Hawkins, McCain said.

Came Out With Gun

McCain heard Walker say he "didn't have to leave until he got ready." He said Hawkins replied, "You'll leave sooner than that."

Hawkins went to his house a short distance away and Walker followed

New Wrinkle In Car Theft Uncovered As Two Young Men Are Held In City

TWO young men, one of whom lives in Lubbock, are held in county jail as suspects in the theft of a Chevrolet sedan from A. G. Clingan of Levelland about 9 o'clock Thursday night.

Officers believe that Clingan's automobile was pushed from Levelland to Lubbock. Front bumper of a car which one of the suspects, whose parents live near Levelland, said he owned were badly scarred, leading Sheriff Tom Abel of Lubbock and Sheriff Clarence W. Davis of Levelland to believe they have apprehended the right youths.

Clingan's automobile had not been recovered last night. Sheriff Davis, who trailed the stolen car to Lubbock, said filling station operators reported seeing the two automobiles, one pushing the other, at various points on the route. Mr. Clingan, Sheriff Davis, and others of Levelland, were here last night. A third suspect in the theft of the car is sought. Clingan's car was pushed out of his garage by hand, and then pushed toward Lubbock. The Lubbock youth is about 22; the other is 21. The younger's automobile bears a Hollywood, Calif., license plate,

Police Search Four Counties After Slaying

Hunt Concentrated In Denton County And In Dallas After Reports Say Killers' Auto Had Been Sighted

Deputy Sheriff Joe Brown Of Wise County Is Victim Of Bandits; May Be Connected In Tulia Shooting

(By The Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27.—Cordons of police and sheriff's deputies hunted in four counties tonight for the slayers of Deputy Sheriff Joe Brown of Wise county in his Rhome office at noon today.

The search, however, was concentrated early in the night near Ponder, Denton county and in Dallas after reports had been received that the killers' light sedan, occupied by two men and a woman, had been seen late in the day in those localities.

Leaving behind the driver of their car, Doyle Meeks, 25, of Hedley, the trio sped from the scene of the shooting toward Fort Worth, leaving Deputy Brown dying from a bullet wound in the neck. He also was struck in the arm.

Meeks surrendered after running a short distance from the office and was brought by Sheriff Faith of Wise county to Fort Worth for questioning. Meeks denied he knew either of the two men except as "Wayne" and "Joe," the names they used in conversation on the way from Quitaque, Briscoe county, which they left at 3 a. m. today.

He gave the name of the woman, saying she was the proprietress of a tourist camp at Quitaque at which he formerly was employed.

May Be Tulia Killers

Authorities here this afternoon checked records in efforts to learn the possible identity of the two men who were the other occupants of the automobile.

Description given by Meeks and other witnesses indicated the two men may have been those who shot and killed Sheriff J. L. Moseley in Tulia Sunday night.

Brown was slain today after he had arrested the three men and the woman and were detaining them in his office while he talked with the sheriff's office at Decatur by telephone. He had stopped the automobile to question the occupants about the theft of a drum of oil from a truck near Alvord.

Car Burned Near Levelland Reported Stolen At Vernon

The Ford coupe which was burned on a by road seven and a half miles northeast of Levelland at about dawn Thursday had been stolen November 29 from A. B. Blankenship of Vernon John C. Keller state highway officer, said last night after he went to Levelland for an investigation yesterday.

Highway license plates found on the machine were stolen in Gray county, Sheriff Clarence W. Davis of Hockley county said. Officers believe that the stolen car was fired with gasoline, as the fuel tank had been drained.

An effort to connect the car with the fatal shooting early last Monday of Sheriff John C. Moseley at Tulia failed, the car in which three killers escaped after the shooting having been a different Ford coupe model, it was said here yesterday.

Texas Retail Merchants Urge Solons To Abandon Proposals Of New Taxes

State-Wide Meeting Staged At Austin; Rap Sales Tax

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Jan. 27. — Retail merchants of Texas, in a state-wide meeting here today, urged that the present legislature do everything in its power to balance the budget without levying any new taxes.

Speakers pointed out that private citizens had been forced to make a deep cut in their expenses to stay within their revenues. They recommended that the state do likewise and get along as best it could with the taxes it was now collecting.

No Resolutions Considered

The meeting was called by Adolf Grasso of San Antonio, chairman of the legislative committee of the Texas Retail Merchants' association. No resolutions were considered. The committee listened to the merchants' views in order that it might reflect them correctly in future action.

Persons from Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Sherman and other cities stated that neither the merchants nor the consumers could well afford to bear an additional tax burden at this time. Nearly all the retail trades were represented at the meeting, and they were unanimous in this view.

Hard On Border Cities

L. P. Aston of Sherman pointed out that the proposed sales tax would be particularly disastrous to merchants in border cities because they were in direct competition with merchants of other states where no sales tax is imposed.

Grasso expressed the belief that the merchants would prefer a sales tax to a state income tax. However, he was hopeful, he said, that the budget might be balanced without the tapping of any new sources of revenue.

Fate Of Parks Is With Jury

Death Penalty Urged By State In Closing Arguments Late Friday; State Builds Its Case Around Woman

(By The Associated Press)

SWEETWATER, Jan. 27.—A district court jury today began consideration of the case of L. M. Parks, charged with murder in connection with the drowning of his wife at Lake Trammell, near Sweetwater, last summer.

District Attorney Mahon, in closing arguments of attorneys which had lasted all day, asked the death penalty. Other pleas had been made by George Outlaw, county attorney, and James Henry Beall.

Both Rest Thursday

Both sides rested yesterday. The state, in constructing its circumstantial case against Parks, attempted to show that he was able to swim. He had said he was unable to rescue Mrs. Parks because he could not swim. The defense, in turn submitted testimony that he was a poor swimmer.

Much of the state's case was built around the defendan'ts alleged relations with Mrs. Fay Condit, who took the stand to tell how he gave her money over an extended period.

El Paso Police Ordered To Round Up Negroes; Girl Slapped, Two Wounded

(Special to The Avalanche)

EL PASO, Jan. 27.—El Paso detectives tonight were ordered to round up all strange negroes who are unable to give satisfactory accounts of their actions for the last week.

Chief of Police L. T. Robey issued the order after a young woman was slapped by a negro who then shot two of three men who rushed to her assistance. One of the men, Antonio Rocondo, received a broken leg. Alfred Carrion received a flesh wound. The young woman, Miss Isabel Ramines, 20, of Jaures, was slapped when she resisted the negro after he demanded her purse. The affair occurred on a busy El Paso street.

It was the third offense attributed to negroes in the last week. A negro made an unsuccessful attempt to assault Miss Mary Lee King, 21, in her home last Friday night. The negro was repulsed by a huge police dog.

Tuesday afternoon, two young white girls were accosted by a negro while on their way home from school.

Annual District P-TA Board Meeting To Be Conducted Here Today

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE E. BEAN
Avalanche Woman's Editor

IT ISN'T my place to pose as an advisor of young women or girls, but two letters were received by the editor of this paper the other day that might give some of us thought. These were notes supposedly from a couple of girls 18 and 19 years of age, stating that they are lonely and asking men to write them in care of general delivery.

• • •

Of course, there is a fair possibility that the names signed are fictitious or that the letters were written simply as a prank.

• • •

Whatever prompted these letters, however, they indicate a problem that should not be overlooked. For there are plenty of girls who do not have as many boy friends as they would like or whose spirits of adventure prompts them to seek, acquaintanceship with strange men. I can't repeat a lot of tales that will bring tears to your eyes, but I am convinced that no good is going to come of these friendships. Men who have the proverbial honorable intentions are not writing girls who advertise for letters in this wholesale fashion.

• • •

The problem, however, comes back to us as citizens. Girls who do not have a legitimate opportunity to meet boys and have friendships with them are pretty likely to take the matter in their own inexperienced hands.

• • •

One young woman who does considerable work with girls was telling me of one of her charges the other day. The girl is almost a problem because of her limited opportunities. Her well meaning parents have left her almost nothing to do because of their many bans. She can't play cards and most other games are looked on with some suspicion. Picture shows, dancing and parties are banned. The things that other girls and boys her age are enjoying are pictured to her as instruments of evil—yet she is as vital and fun-loving as any of them.

• • •

Don't imagine I am going to portray her in the future as a victim of suppressed emotions or one whose whole outlook on life is distorted. I can't truthfully predict that her future is going to be bleak and unhappy. But I do know that she isn't given the opportunity for friendships and good times that should be hers.

• • •

The happy and contented girl isn't likely to be writing notes such as these. If the boy who sits behind her at school is her good friend and she has plenty of girl friends with whom she can exchange secrets, she isn't going to be casting longing eyes at some handsome gent on the streets.

• • •

My advice isn't worth much, naturally, since I'm no Dorothy Dix. But about the best method I know to employ in making just any man look romantic to a girl is to give her a prolonged association with women only. Her judgment of men drops to considerably less than par.

• • •

If you don't believe that, visit just any girls school. There isn't a wreck of a man on earth who doesn't look good to some girls on the campus of a large girls' school. The trend of thought there is that men are gods and the same thing happens to a greater or less degree with almost any girl who is deprived of associations with men.

• • •

THAT WELCOME

"WHILE this doesn't apply to me, there is one thing I wish you would tell the women of Lubbock," one woman importuned the other day. "It is. Be more friendly."

• • •

The woman who was speaking was a comparatively new resident of Lubbock. However, she had several friends here already who extended a welcome. But as a newcomer, she was heard the complaint of others who have not been here so long.

• • •

Her plea should not go unanswered. Most of us are too prone to overlook the newcomer in our preoccupation with affairs of the day. Yet one of the best things we can do is to extend a welcoming hand to the stranger in our midst.

• • •

There was a time not so many years ago when almost every one was a new resident in Lubbock, for this town grew up within a period of ten years. It was then that Lubbock got a reputation for being unfriendly, because actually almost everyone was a stranger. Now, however, since we have settled down a bit, we can look around and extend our welcome to strangers in the city.

Convention Is To Be Planned

Cotton Cotton Trading Active Friday — Livestock Stock Supplies Rather Limited — Grain Wheat Up With Threat Of War

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 27 (AP)—Cotton was considerably more active today and prices more than recovered a morning dip in brisk afternoon trading. The close was steady at net gains of three points. Early weakness was associated with easiness in outside markets and rather disappointing mill-takings shown in the weekly statistics.

The opening was steady and Liverpool cables came in rather better than due. Private cables reported hedge selling was offset by trade calling, and there was a good demand for Russian spots. Manchester cabled cloth and yarns were very quiet and selling of yarns difficult with margin decreasing. First trades here showed gains of 1 to 2 points and prices improved slightly after the start, March traded at 6.09, May at 6.22 and July at 6.35 or 2 points above the close of yesterday.

Prices soon started to ease off on hedge selling, however, and continued to ease off most of the morning, March eventually dropping to 6.02, May to 6.14, and July to 6.28, down 7 to 9 points from the early highs and 5 to 7 points under the previous close.

The market ruled somewhat firmer during the afternoon owing to good trade and warehouse buying and stocks and wheat were also higher. Prices made new highs in the late trading with March at 6.13, May at 6.25 and July at 6.37 or 1 points up from the lows of the morning. There was a reaction of 1 to 3 points at the end, March closing at 6.10, May at 6.23 and July at 6.36, all 3 points net higher.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 1 to 2 penny points up.

Port receipts 50,021, for week 211,427, for season 6,601,805, last season 7,493,531. Exports 27,759, for week 108,321, for season 4,809,065, last season 4,673,188. Port stock 4,786,277, last year 8,012,992. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 171,489, last year 208,513. Spot sales at southern markets 15,888, last year 30,183.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 (AP)—Trading in cotton more active today but price movements continued narrow. March contracts after selling at to 6.04 rallied to 6.14 and closed at 6.13, with the general market closing steady net unchanged to 5 points higher.

The opening was 1 point lower to 2 points higher with near months relatively steady on trade buying. Later deliveries responded to reports of increased southern selling, and to offerings by local operators and brokers with Japanese connections.

After easing 5 to 6 points the market firmed on covering or rebuying by early sellers. May sold up to 6.27 and July to 6.40 and the close was within a point or two of the best.

Some traders were included to connect the increase in southern shelling with yesterday's rumors of increased spot offerings in the southwest. However, nothing was heard of any change in the basis and hedging was not in sufficient volume to make much impression on sentiment.

Liverpool reported a quiet market with hedge selling taken by trade calling, but said that business in the Manchester goods market was quiet with yarns difficult to sell and margins decreasing.

Born in a depression year, Vicks Antiseptic is priced accordingly. The regular size is a large 10-ounce bottle—a usual 75c value—for only 35c. This new Vicks product can be tested, however, at even smaller cost. Lubbock druggists have a limited supply of a special trial size—a 25c value—priced at only 10c, while the supply lasts. adv.

Stocks Have Rails To Thank For An Afternoon Rally; Losses Cancelled

By JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Jan. 27 (AP)—Stocks had the rails to thank for an afternoon rally today. As a result of strong support for carrier issues, many losses of 1 to 2 points in other groups were cancelled or reduced and there was a sprinkling of small net gains by closing time.

Depression among tobacco shares, further sogginess of dairy issues, a break in Canadian Pacific and a miscellaneous assortment of other weak spots made the morning market discouraging, but the boom in rails, starting early in the afternoon, caused a retreat by the shorts. Although generally speaking, utilities and industrials did little more than recover their early declines, net improvement for many carriers ranged from 1 to 3 points. Turnover of 672,908 shares was the largest this week.

Wall Street was inclined to ascribe strength of rail stock, which have been fairly strong this week, to the better aspect of many December income statements and to authorization for an R. F. C. loan to help meet Feb. 1 interest needs. Delaware & Hudson jumped 3 points on short covering partly inspired by strength of New York Central. The latter, together with Santa Fe, Louisville & Nashville, New Haven, Union Pacific and Chesapeake & Ohio, improved about a point.

American Telephone made up a 2 point loss. U. S. Steel common, American Can, Westinghouse, National Biscuit, North American, Woolworth and Du Point gained fractions on the day. United Fruit rallied a point. American Tobacco "B," Liggett & Myers "B," Boston and U. S. Industrial Alcohol, on the other hand, lost 1 to 2 points. Dairy stocks have recently been effected by lower prices for their products. U. S. Steel preferred slid off a point, doubtless because the approach of its dividend meeting caused a recurrence of misgivings as to what will happen to the $1.75 payment. Paramount sold just under a dollar a share and was active. Loew's was heavy.

MIDWESTERN LIVESTOCK

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 27 (AP)—Supplies of fed steers and yearlings around the circuit for the day's trade were very limited with values holding about steady. A few sales came in around 3.35-5.60. Discrimination against fed steers with weight continued to be the big feature of the week's trade. Buyers took offerings scaling around 1150 lbs and under without much hesitation but were reluctant to purchase kinds averaging 1300 lbs or above and displayed very indifferent interest in kinds weighing 1500 lbs and up. Several markets closed the period about steady on lighter weights of steers, while others were around 25 lower. As a general rule, medium weight and heavy beeves were considered 25-50 off.

Extreme weights showed the greatest losses. A range of 3.75-4.50 took most steers with weight around the circuit while the bulk of light steers and yearlings were secured around 3.75-5.50. Several loads of choice long yearlings and light steers made 6.60-7.25. Supplies of stockers and feeders were limited on most days with values holding mostly steady, but some spots 25 higher. A spread of 3.75-5.50 took most replacements steers with occasional loads of yearling stockers at 5.25-75.

Hog trade today opened on a steady to 15 higher basis but on the close several centers reported most of the early advance lost. Chicago listed an early top of $3.65.

Lambs came back with a steady to 25 higher trend today after losing 25-50 a day on Wednesday and Thursday. A spread of 5.00-6.10 took the majority of better grade native and fed western arrivals.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 27 (AP)—Rumored war threats in the far east between Russia and Japan jerked wheat prices upward fast late today, and temporarily more than offset earlier declines.

The rumors of Russian-Japanese friction were decidedly indefinite, except that they related to Japanese avaistion plans. Previously sellers of wheat who attempted to reverse their market position found offerings had suddenly become scarce, and that little wheat was obtainable until quotations jumped in some cases to above yesterday's finish.

Wheat closed nervous, unchanged to 3-8 lower, corn unchanged to 1-4 advance, oats unchanged, and provisions unchanged to 5 down.

Fatal Shooting Is Being Investigated By Officers

TEXARKANA, Ark., Jan. 27 (AP)—Police today investigated the fatal shooting of Clay Williams, 38, department store bookkeeper, in his garage last night soon after he returned from work.

He was found dead beside his automobile by Mrs. Williams and her mother, Mrs. S. P. Caulder, when they went to the garage. Although they said Williams did not own a gun, a pistol was found near the body, his pockets had been turned inside out and a cancelled check was on the running board.

The bullet entered the right temple, ranged sharply upward and lodged in a wall of the garage. There was a deep footprint near the door. The coroner did not immediately return a verdict.

Beware the Cough or Cold that Hangs On

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (Adv.)

The Poage Mortgage Bill

THE mortgage relief bill, offered in the legislature Thursday by Senator W. R. Poage, of Waco, should receive the serious contemplation of the solons at Austin. As we see it, the Poage proposal is nothing less than fair—and unless something is done Texas is in store for trouble similar to that recently uncovered in Iowa and Ohio.

Briefly, Senator Poage seeks a law making it mandatory upon mortgage holders to accept a debtor's farm as full payment of the mortgage if the company insists upon ousting the tenant when the debt runs into arrears. In other words, the practice of being permited to oust a tenant, sell his place for considerably less than the amount of the mortgage and then secure a further personal judgment against him, should be stopped.

When one man or concern lends money to another man and accepts his collateral, those two become partners in every sense of the word. There should be no conniving on the part of either to side-step the agreement.

To be sure, the lender is not to blame for a shift in economic conditions—a shift causes his collateral to shrink in value.

Yet neither is the borrower to blame. It's just a fifty-fifty proposition all the way down the line.

Senator Poage includes in his bill a clause which sets forth that if the lender does not choose to accept the farm collateral at the time the debt runs into arrears, it must wait for a two year period before it can dispossess the farmer and sell his land to satisfy the debt.

That looks fair enough to us.

That these are unusual times, no one will disagree. And unusual times call for unusual steps to combat those times.

The Poage bill at least looks logical—which is more than can be said for the average proposal bobbing up in state legislatures and the national Congress.

ANOTHER TAX CUT

While action of the City commission nullifying the city automobile tax does not aggregate any great amount of saving to the individual citizen, it does save the tax-burdened motorist an average of $1.20 per car.

And, in this era, $1.20 is $1.20 and not to be sneezed at.

Most important thing about the action, as we see it, is that the city administration is going right on down the line with its pre-election promises to cut taxes. It shows that the mayor and commission are keeping their eyes open for places to aid the citizen with the same alacrity that some other tax bodies are wont to seek out ways to add to the tax burden.

AN OVERHAULING NEEDED

Joe Hawkins, of Crosby county, is either innocent or guilty of murder of his father-in-law, S. M. Walker.

For the fourth time, now in Plainview, he faces the charge of slaying his wife's parent.

Whether he is guilty or innocent is not for us to say, for we do not know.

But the fact remains that the Hawkins case, regardless of its outcome, is a bright and shining example of the inefficiency of our system of jurisprudence.

Walker was killed on October 28, 1929—three years and three months ago to be exact—and neither the state nor anyone else yet knows whether or not the killing constituted a murder.

On the first trial, held in Crosby county, a jury said Hawkins was guilty and assessed his punishment at 50 years in the penitentiary. The defense appealed and the appeal was upheld. A second Crosby county trial appeared impossible so the case was moved to Floyd county where a jury failed to agree. The case then went to Plainview and a trial there resulted in another failure of the jury to reach a decision. Now the case is under way in Plainview again.

As noted above, we don't know whether Hawkins is guilty of murder or whether he isn't. That isn't the point in question.

The point is that it is a sorry state of affairs when justice cannot be meted out, either for or against a defendant, in less than three years and three months after the crime is committed.

There certainly is a great need for an overhauling of our legal machinery.

The man who hides behind a woman's petticoat nowadays must have an awfully lonesome time of it up there in the attic.

A Mississippi drayman loaded a pet alligator and 200 day-old chicks aboard the conveyance and arrived promptly at his destination with a happy alligator.

A psychologist admonishes auto drivers not to scowl in the traffic jam. Just another kind of jam that so often gets all over the face.

Capital Confabs Important

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer

White House

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—Although inclined to pooh-pooh the importance of President-elect Roosevelt's latest chat with President Hoover, politicians by no means minimize the consequence of the ex-governor's conference, during his recent Washington visit, with leaders of his own party and prominent G. O. P. progressives who supported him last November.

The three questions with which these elder statesmen agree that the new administration will have to deal first (unless friction with Japan forces them to wait) are:

1. Budget balancing as a subject of economy and taxation.
2. Agricultural relief.
3. Monetary inflation, complicated with the farm issue.

It seems definitely decided that the budget problem is to be met, except as to beer revenue, by expense curtailment.

Roosevelt advisers concur that absolutely essential retrenchment calls inexorably for a grant to the chief executive of authority verging on the dictatorial. "The risk is undeniable," admits Senator Bronson Cutting, the New Mexico progressive, who rates as very "close" to the president-elect, "that actual changes in governmental form will be involved in such drastic financial reductions as are indispensable." It is a risk which evidently is about to be taken, anyway.

The agricultural conundrum, in reality, is worse than the budgetary puzzle.

Not that ex-Governor Roosevelt lacks counsellors who realize that true solution is to deprive urban industry of its special privileges, thus placing it upon an equality with the farmer. Naturally, however, urban industry almost impregnably entrenched, objects strenuously to this plan. Indeed, agriculture itself obviously prefers special privileges of its own, to elevate farm prices, instead of lowering industrial prices to the farm price level.

It is to this end that monetary expansion (as an alternative to some sort of farm subsidy) is urged.

The industrialist, it may be added, while violently against special privileges for the farmers (he foresees that his special privileges will lose value in proportion as they become less exclusive), is rather indifferent to monetary expansion (knowing that he can boost industrial prices as much and as fast as farm prices can rise, thus keeping even; perhaps gaining, in fact).

The white-collared group, and wage earners whose pay has been cut, will be less favorably situated, to be sure, as living costs mount. Currency expansionists remind them that that will be better than losing their jobs altogether. Still, the thought is worth their pondering as the inflation campaign's momentum increases.

ROBINSON IN DANGER

SENATOR JOSEPH T. ROBINSON'S leadership of the Democratic battalion in the upper house of congress is more seriously threatened today than at any previous time since Senator Huey P. Long arrived from Louisiana and donned his toga.

True, his fellow lawmakers did succeed, after eight days' trying, in stemming the "Kingfish's" filibuster against the Glass bank bill, but it was only by a compromise, and the further fact stands out that Leader Robinson's attempt to hush Huey with a cloture resolution, which would have been a resounding spank for Huey and a triumph for Robinson, failed.

Considering that it failed by only one vote, of the two-thirds needed to adopt the resolution, perhaps it might class as, morally, a Robinson victory, were it not for this circumstance—

The one vote which saved the "Kingfish" from humiliation was cast by Senator Robinson's Arkansas colleague, Mrs. Senator Hattie W. Caraway.

Consequently, when the "Kingfish," following the roll call, expressed his opinion that Robinson does not represent even his own state's Democrats, and Robinson asked him by what right he made such a statement, and Huey answered that he made it on the strength of the last election returns, he said a mouthful.

BANDIT SLAYINGS

New arguments for and against capital punishment are among the fruits of the suffering, hardships, desperation and recklessness wrought by the depression. Out of this economic and social setback it is possible that either more executions or the abolition of capital punishment may come.

Cold blooded slaughter of innocent persons by bandits and highway robbers creates new sentiment in favor of the gallows, electric chair and lethal chamber. These atrocities are followed by clamor for speedier justice and bigger and better executions.

And then a conflicting emotion grips the people. They read of husbands and fathers, driven to robbery by the sufferings of their families, who have killed out of terror rather than out of hardness of heart. Tragedies of this kind are of almost daily occurrence under the stress and strain of the times. What is to be done about it?

Society and justice demand of murder juries at such a time less maudlin sympathy but more care and deliberation. It is their difficult task of distinguishing between the killer and the unfortunate victim of circumstances over which he has no control. There is no excuse for any person living in the United States to resort to crime for food and yet it is a fact all must recognize that there are many persons who would rather steal than ask for charity. And nothing can be done about it.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

THE FLAMING GEYSER:

Located in Flaming Geyser Park, a few miles from Auburn, Washington, is a peculiar phenomenon which consists of petroleum gas forcing its way through salt water at regular intervals, and burning vividly when ignited. Once a day the water in the hole bubbles and rises violently, apparently from the gas pressure within, and when a match is thrown into the pool flames burst forth and rise six to eight feet into the air. Then the water recedes and the flames die out.

The exact source of the peculiar gas is not known.

Grayson Is Embarrassed; Demos Use Hoover-Curtis Die On Letterheads

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson was embarrassed today to find that after weeks of preparations for the Roosevelt-Garner inaugural March 4, he has been advertising the Hoover-Curtis inaugural of 1929 to the far corners of the nation.

It was all a result of zeal for economy by the inaugural committee which Grayson heads. To save money the committee obtained a die used by the 1929 inaugural committee for printing its letter heads.

The committee was unaware that the names of the president and vice president now in office formed a shadowy background for the letter head.

After letters began going out of inaugural headquarters a stream began coming in from Democrats who wanted to know just what March 4 was going to be—a Republican or a Democratic inaugural.

A new die and new letterheads have been ordered.

Milton Jones Is Named President Of Building And Loan; Condray Manager

Directorate of Lubbock Building & Loan association has named J. Milton Jones president and William W. Condray acting manager, it was announced yesterday following meetings of the directors.

Mr. Jones succeeds J. O. Jones and Mr. Condray succeeds Joe Hess, resigned.

Mr. Condray, a certified public accountant, will arrange to have his public accounting business carried on, he said this morning, but is yet ready to make no announcement along that line.

He moved to Lubbock in November of 1931 after being associated with a firm of public accountants in Little Rock for a period of three years. Since coming here he has received contracts for the auditing of accounts at Texas Technological college, the City of Lubbock, the Lubbock Independent School district and the Lubbock Building and Loan association as well as numerous private contracts.

J. A. Raley, jr., and George Herd, employes of the association, will remain at their posts, no action concerning their positions having been taken by officers and directors.

Opposition For Allotment Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—Opposition to the domestic allotment farm relief bill as it applies to cotton was expressed to the senate agriculture committee today by Ernest N. Hood, of Salem, Mass., president of the National Association of cotton Manufacturers.

Hood asserted it is unlikely cotton production would be decreased by the new plan and contended it might be increased instead. He told the senators the bill would raise the cost of cotton goods leaving the mill by 18 to 70 per cent and "greatly reduce consumption of cotton products in this country."

He described the bill as an "enormous manufactures sales tax" on a necessity of life, which would increase greatly the cost of overalls and other low priced clothing needed by working people and the poor.

Chairman McNary (R., Ore.) placed in the record a telegram from Thomas R. Cain, president of the Farmers' National Grain Dealers association, opposing the bill as a "huge costly experiment."

TWO EMBRYO PREACHERS

Plainview And Ralls Favored In Local Cage Tourney

Meeting Monday Night To Decide Whether Lubbock Will Have Ball Club

Lubbock Meets Bulldogs This Morning At 10

Six Teams Survive Yesterday's Test And Advance To Quarter-final Round This Morning; Final Game Tonight

Six teams—not the usual eight—will enter the quarter-final round of the second annual Lubbock High school invitation tournament this morning. Seven strong clubs survived yesterday's gruelling 13-game schedule, but the Wolfforth team draws a bye in the third round because two other clubs failed to report yesterday.

Coach Froggie Lovvorn's Plainview High school Bulldogs appeared to be the most impressive club on the courts yesterday, and the game this morning at 10 o'clock between Lubbock and Plainview should prove a high point in the tournament. The Bulldogs defeated a scrapping Wilson team yesterday morning, 35 to 26, in a first round game, then had little trouble with Slaton, 47 to 9, in a second round game.

Westerners Win Early

Lubbock's Westerners won both preliminary games with apparent ease, scoring a big victory over Center in the first game and another over Abernathy in the second round.

The outstanding club in the lower bracket and which is expected to come through to the finals lies between Shallowater and Ralls, but Coach Hendrick's tall Jackrabbits are a favorite to beat Shallowater's team, provided Shallowater comes through Hale Center and Ralls with New Home. Coach Cummings was without the services of his ace and center, Vaught, yesterday and probably will miss him again today.

Results of yesterday's games were:

First round:
Woodrow 28; Carlisle 22.
New Home 31; McClung 28.
Plainview 36; Wilson 26.
Lubbock 59; Center 14.
New Hope 9; Ralls 76.
Slaton 32; Crosbyton 24.
Wolfforth 2; Grovesville 0 (Forfeit).

Second round:
Shallowater 43; Estacado 39.
Lubbock 48; Abernathy 13.
Wolfforth 37; Acuff 17.
Hale Center 49; League Four 15.
Ralls 60; Cotton Center 39.
Woodrow 27; New Home 34.
Slaton 9; Plainview 47.

Brownfield, Monroe Fail

Neither Brownfield nor Monroe, who drew byes in the first round, showed up for their second round match with each other, which leaves a vacancy in today's schedule.

Play will be resumed at 9 o'clock this morning when Shallowater and Hale Center meet in a quarter-final game. Plainview and Lubbock will clash in one of the day's features at 10 o'clock this morning. This game will be followed by the other quarter-final between Ralls and New Home.

Coach Fred Rich's Wolfforth team automatically enters the semi-final round through default of Brownfield and Monroe.

Shallowater vs. Estacado

One of the most exciting games yesterday was the second round affair between Shallowater and Estacado, which ended with a difference of four points. After getting off to a good lead in the first half, Shallowater was hard pushed to ward off the steady attack of the Estacado lads in the closing quarters. The work of Kerr and Foy for Estacado almost ruined the careful preparations by the Brown brothers and Red Henderson, also McAuley.

Plainview and Wilson had a lively time in their first round game. Key and Crews kept the tall Bulldogs hopping, but the towering Captain Mabry and the active Wester maintained their balance to keep their opponents at arms length.

McClung In Close Game

The closest game of the day, so far as the score is concerned, was between New Home and McClung, won by New Home, 31 to 28. The work of Renfro and Cloyd was outstanding in both New Home games. Weatherford, Simpson and Grady were stars for McClung.

Ralls' 76 to 9 victory over New Hope provided the greatest team score, with the Arthur boys and Jackson doing the honors. The game was played on the junior high school court.

Plainview had a runaway with Slaton in the final game of the day. The Bulldogs had scored 18 points before Slaton registered a tally. The score at one time was 25 to 1. Slaton and Crosbyton, however, had a fair game at junior high school court.

Buffaloes Down Wichita Henrys

CANYON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Despite the long distance sharp-shooting of Captain Dunham, the Wichita Henry's, National A. A. U. cage champions, were defeated here tonight by the almost airtight defense of the West Texas Teachers College Buffaloes.

The score was 29 to 26.

Dunham was high point man with 11, Comer, Buff forward, trailing him with nine.

Those three points that meant victory for the Buffaloes over the strongest foe they have ever faced tell a story of a close, hard-fought game. Yet, they do not tell how the Buffs jumped into the lead from the first tipoff and held it throughout the contest.

From time to time, as the champs threatened to overtake them, the lanky Buffs dropped into a defensive style of play. It was successful mainly because of the extreme height of the winners who were slow and deliberate with their passing when they got the ball. Possession of the ball was the secret of the Buffs' victory.

Dunham's ability to make long, arching shots from near the middle of the court, kept the huge crowd of fans and the Buffs in a turmoil. The all-America guard punked in five field goals and one gratis shot.

The teams meet again tomorrow night.

Venzke To Make His First '33 Start In Mile Saturday Night

BOSTON, Jan. 27. (AP)—Gene Venzke, the sensational Pennsylvania freshman who raised havoc with the mile record last season, will make the first of his four 1933 indoor starts tomorrow night in the 12th annual Prout memorial meet in the Boston Garden.

The Pottstown flash started his record-breaking streak in this meet's Knights of Columbus mile feature last season. His 4:15 1-5 victory, although slow when compared with his other 1932 miles, set a track record.

Venzke will line up with a brilliant field, which may be further enhanced if Phil Edwards, who was good enough to win thirds for Canada in both the Olympic 800 and 1500 meters events, decides to start. Edwards, now a graduate student at McGill has entered both the mile and cheverus "1,000." He has notified meet officials he will start in but one of them.

MILLER TO MEET ARIZMENDI

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 27. (AP)—Jack Dole, promoter, announced today that Freddie Miller, Chicago's N. B. A. featherweight champion, would be signed tomorrow to meet Alberto (Baby) Arizmendi, Mexico City, in a title bout here either Feb. 14, or 21.

Lew Hinchman, Ohio State university football star, made a touchdown this year despite stitches in his tongue that had enforced a 10-day liquid diet before the game.

One of the principal owners of Madison Square Garden has threatened to bar wrestlers from the arena because of a succession of shady shows.

Sixteen Teams Play In Girls County Joust

Carlisle Team Finishes Game In Victory With Services Of Only Three Players; To Resume Play This Morning

They were playing basketball at the Texas Tech gymnasium last night long after it was too late to record the results in morning newspapers, but seven teams of Lubbock county girls emerged victorious in as many games up to the late hour.

The Wolfforth girls team was leading Estacado, 30 to 5, at the half last night in their first round of the Lubbock county tournament, and seemed well on the road to victory.

One of the most interesting games of the first round yesterday was the affair between Carlisle and Liberty, which Carlisle won, 23 to 18.

A Team Of Three

The Carlisle team was composed of three girls in the last quarter, but the two guards and one forward maintained their lead and came through with a victory after half their original number had been thumbed off the court for committing too many personal fouls.

In yesterday's first round games, Hardy defeated New Hope, 15 to 12; Becton won over Canyon, 65 to 6, in one of the biggest scoring games; Woodrow swept Hurlwood, 48 to 15; Shallowater defeated County Line, 6 to 7; Monroe downed McClung, 34 to 21 and Carlisle defeated Liberty. Foster and Posey were waiting last night for their first round game.

Today's program starts at 9 o'clock at the Tech gymnasium. Second round games will be played this morning, with the semi-finals and finals this afternoon and tonight.

Ralls Sextet Is Winner Friday

RALLS, Jan. 27. (Special)—In a fast game tonight, the Ralls high school girls basketball team defeated the Lorenzo cagers 34 to 20.

Wheeler of Ralls was high with 17 points, and Kyle of Lorenzo scored 10 points. Ralls had a one point edge at the half, the score standing 9 to 8. In the final quarter, the local sextet gained its decisive lead.

The Ralls and Crosbyton girls will play the second game of a series to determine the county champion here Saturday night. Ralls, having won the first game, will win the championship with a victory tonight. Otherwise, a third game will be played.

McKechnie To Give 'The Great' Shires Just One More Chance To Make Good In Major Loop

BOSTON, Jan. 27 (AP)—The American association will have to wait some little time before Arthur "The Great" Shires returns to its fold for Manager Bill McKechnie is going to give the loquacious first-sacker just one more chance.

McKechnie, as he expressed it, is going to bend backwards and let Arthur show his stuff in the Braves' training camp at St. Petersburg. Shires, however, not only has to prove that his injured knee was responsible for last years poor performance but also he must beat out Baxter Jordan for the first-base job to escape release to an American association club that wants him badly.

McKechnie has been advised that the knee is as good as ever and has served notice that if Shires fails to round into shape after a fair trial, he is going to conclude that "Whataman" lacks the major league speed and act accordingly.

New Horse Is Being Groomed

Boilermaker Is Reported To Being Made Ready As Winner Of 1933 Kentucky Derby By Col. Bradley

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 27 (AP)—Col. E. R. Bradley, whose stable is the pride of the bluegrass regions, has another son of Bubbling Over which he believes is a likely prospect to win the 1933 Kentucky Derby.

Last Year Burgoo Won

Last year it was Burgoo King, a Bradley entry, which stepped off with the floral horseshoe. Burgoo King, too, is a son of Bubbling Over, and so became the second son of a Derby winning sire to capture the $50,000 added prize.

Bubbling Over won the Derby in 1926, when Bradley horses finished one-two. Only once before had a son of a Derby winning sire captured the event. Halma, 1895 winner, sired Alan-A-Dale, the 1902 winner.

Would Set New Mark

Should Boilermaker win this year a new mark would be set for Bubbling Over as a sire of winners.

Likewise it would be a new record for stables in the Churchill Downs event—a fourth winner for Bradley. Besides winning in 1932 and running one-two in 1926, Bradley's horses, Behave Yourself and Black Servant, ran one-two in 1921.

Boilermaker was prevented from going to the post in the Saratoga Futurity last fall by the development of osselets, which are reported now, however, to have disappeared after a period of rest.

The Bradley trainer, Dick Thompson, now rates him a better three-year-old prospect than was Burgoo King last winter.

Western League Owner Buys Kansas Club; Speaker Is Pilot

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 27 (AP)—The Kansas City baseball club of the American association was acquired today by E. Lee Keyser of Des Moines, a Western league owner, and Tris Speaker, former Cleveland outfielder and manager.

Keyser will become president of the club; Speaker manager, and Bill Rodgers, manager of Keyser's Des Moines team for the last two years will be secretary and business manager.

Final Action Is Postponed From Friday

Fiedler And Saunders Asked To Attend Gathering Of Fans Monday Night To Pass On League Proposition

After brief reports of committees were submitted in a short meeting at the City hall last night, President John Dalrymple announced that a meeting of all interested baseball fans would be held Monday night at 7:30 at Hotel Lubbock to make final decision of Lubbock's entrance into the proposed Texas-New Mexico baseball league.

Only a short report was made last night by the finance, or ways and means committee as there was only a small number of fans present. A fuller report is to be given Monday night.

To Bring Leaders Here

Marty Fielder of Albuquerque, N. M., and L. E. Saunders of El Paso are being requested to attend Monday's meeting, Mr. Dalrymple said. He wired them last night, asking that they come here to aid in the meeting. Fielder was one of the leaders in the meeting here recently in which tentative organization of the league with Amarillo, Albuquerque, El Paso and Lubbock men were present.

Besides having communicated with the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league regarding the location of a farm club here, local leaders have also been in touch with the Houston club of the Texas league regarding a farm location here. It was said last night that Houston was willing to use Lubbock as a farm, thereby aiding in the establishment of the local club. Recent communications with Jack Zeller, agent of the Detroit Tigers of the American league, who is making headquarters at Beaumont, a Tiger farm, may result in a farm connection with that club, it has been revealed.

Mr. Dalrymple said last night that Monday's meeting would "make or break" the proposal for Lubbock's entry in the league.

He is to issue a blanket invitation to all ball fans of the city to be present at the meeting.

Great Soviet Sport Festival Is Postponed Until In 1934

MOSCOW, Jan. 27 (AP)—A world spartakiada, a great sport festival designed as a proletarian rival to the Olympic games, with which Soviet Russia planned to celebrate next summer the completion of the five-year plan, has been postponed until 1934.

Announcing the postponement, Nicolai Antipoff, president of the All-Union Physical Culture council, blamed "insufficient preparation and bad mass work among the laboring people of capitalistic countries as well as the necessity of first strengthening and organizing Soviet physical culture."

George Lott Advances To The Finals In Miami Net Tourney

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 27 (AP)—George Lott, jr., Chicago, advanced to the finals of the All-Southern tennis championships here today, defeating the astern singles champion, Gregory Mangin, Newark, N. J., in a semi-final match, 6-4, 7-5, 6-3.

Bryan Grant, jr., Atlanta, and Clifford Sutter, New Orleans, battling desperately for the right to oppose Lott for the title, were tied at two sets each, and Grant was leading 5-4 in the fifth and deciding set, when darkness settled over the Miami Biltmore courts.

The match will be concluded tomorrow.

Coach George E. Keogan has a winning percentage of .768 in his nine years of basketball at Notre Dame.

First Tech Intramural Grid Conflict Of 1933 Season On Today; Officials Of Two Games Seem To Be Featured

BY ED McKEEVER
Tech Sports Correspondent

The first Tech intramural games of the season will begin this afternoon when the Army and Liberal Arts elevens line up at 2 p. m. on the varsity practice field. The Engineers and Aggies will resume the battle at 4.

Professor Ben Condray, who was in charge of what he termed the "case" team (in case anything happens to the varsity this team will get to play) when they played the New Mexico Normal at Las Vegas last fall, will be one of the officials of the intramural games this afternoon.

Still A Mystery

Coach Condray took the team through the state institution during the morning before the game, and it is still a mystery to the coaching staff how the squad, including the professor, was able to get out intact. It is said that one of the inmates took a look at the fullback (who has been wanting publicity), and said, "And to think that they keep me in here and let you run loose."

H. C. Pender (known around the campus as the Gray Eagle), and who was recently elected as honorary member of the City Federation of Women's club, will act as the field judge. The other officials will include Sam West, major league baseball player who was recently traded by the Washington Senators to the St. Louis Brown's, "Dude" Lassiter, former Tech letterman, and J. H. Goodman.

Briton Wins His First U. S. Test; Defeats LaBarba

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, Jan. 27. (AP)—Seaman Tom Watson, British featherweight champion, came through his first American test with flying colors tonight, winning a convincing 12-round decision over Fidel LaBarba, rugged veteran from Los Angeles.

Flustered a bit at the start, apparently still unsettled by the widely ballyhooed "trial by fistic jury" he was forced to undergo before the New York State Athletic commission would accept his fighting status, Watson weathered two early knockdowns and came back to outfight the curly-haired Californian by a wide margin.

Spring Training Of Cats Will Start Third Week In March

FORT WORTH, Jan. 27 (AP)—Spring training for the Fort Worth Cats will start the third week in March, it has been announced by J. Walter Morris, appointed business manager of the team.

Roy Meehan, whose retention as club secretary was announced at the same time as Morris' appointment, has begun to get some of the contracts in readiness to mail to players.

Cat's Meow!
Kitty Is Used As Cage Mascot

ROANOKE, Va., Jan. 27. (AP)—The cat's "meow" startled a forward on the Roanoke college basketball team at the opportune instant and he threw the ball into a basket, winning the game.

It was just an ordinary cat that walked out in the closing seconds of play and uttered a shrill meow. Roanoke's forward in possession of the ball jumped and hurled it against the backboard, whence it fell through the hoop, making the score 33-32 as the gun sounded.

Now a well-fed, well-groomed pussy, attired in ribbons and what-nots, sits by and purs softly as the Maroons meet their foes. They haven't lost a game since pussy's arrival.

Fielding H. Yost, former football coach at the University of Michigan, considers his 1925 team his greatest, although it was defeated 3 to 2 by Northwestern.

During the University of Michigans 24 years in the Big Ten her elevens have been at the top of the gridiron race 12 times.

Three Youths Found Guilty In Attempted Bank Robbery

PERRY, Okla., Jan. 27 (AP)—Fred Cooper, Ed Timmie and Elmer Myers, Oklahoma City youths, were found guilty today by a district court jury of attempted burglary in connection with an attempt on the night of December 19 to loot the Red Rock State bank at Red Rock.

The jury did not fix the punishment and was sent back to either fix punishment or vote to leave that duty to the court.

Buds Are Blooming And Spring Is In The Air Down In Rio Grande Valley

LAREDO, Jan. 27. (AP)—Forecast of springtime is already in evidence in the Laredo section. Citrus fruit trees are loaded with young buds and foliage, while peach, plum, pear and other fruit trees are in bloom. Fig trees are already putting out young leaves and embryo fruit.

Indications now are for an early spring after the longest winter ever experienced in this section, beginning early in November and continuing up to mid-January. The citrus and other fruit trees are not the only harbingers of the new season. The diversified vegetable and big Bermuda onion crop are also attaining a much faster growth and reaching maturity quicker since the spring-like weather began after mid-January.

If no severe cold weather comes during the remainder of January or in February, indications point to one of the heaviest crops of citrus fruit ever grown in the Laredo district. During all the severe cold during November, December and early January, when the mercury dropped as low as 22 degrees, no damage of any extent was done to citrus fruit or vegetables.

Resolutions endorsing the work of the Texas Good Roads association; commending the work of the state highway department and Guy R. Johnston, division engineer of this district, during the past two years and urging the department to continue its work for the development of highways in this section were adopted during the meeting.

Work Is Outlined

Mr. Johnston appeared on the program of the session and outlined the work done, planned and authorized in this area, illustrating his talk by a map of the roads of the division.

"It's a wonderful time to build highways," Mr. Johnston said, "for you can get two miles of road built now for the price you used to pay for one."

The association voted to hold its annual meeting in January of each year, the meeting place to be decided upon by the board of directors.

Ford Walkout

Briggs plant, and the state commissioner of public safety, Oscar G. Olander, announced state police would be detailed to the company's two plants at 6 a. m. Saturday. He said all employes who desired to return to work then could do so without molestation."

Was Big Surprise

"It was the biggest surprise of my career when I was informed last night that 6,000 employes of the Briggs company had walked out without giving any particular reason," the Standard quoted Ford as saying. "I have had difficulties in by early career, but this was the biggest jolt of all. The result of their action is that the Ford plant is closed down. There is a complete holdup."

Ford, the Standard said, declared he did not "blame the employes of Briggs."

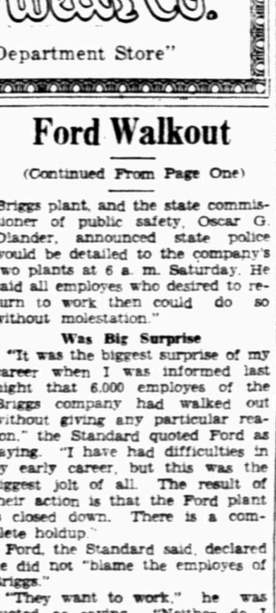

"They want to work," he was quoted as saying. "Neither do I think an attempt is being made by anyone to force me to place my motor car body contract with any other firm. As for my employes, there is not a man among them that would strike."

Other Ford officials made no comment regarding reopening of their plants, but indicated cessation of the Briggs company strike would bring immediate reaction.

The Briggs officials, conceded some employes recently have failed to make their minimum base rate of pay, said the situation was due to "the rush of initial production." They announced abolishment of deductions for "dead time," in which men are idle because of the lack of materials, breakdowns, or transfers from one plant to another. This, they said, was the principal item of objection leading to the walkout. They expressed opinion the men would return to work by Monday under the guarantee made to them.

Archer County Cave Mystery

Caves Are No Longer Phenomena In Texas But Cavern Found Near Archer City May Prove To Be Exception

ARCHER CITY, Jan. 27 (AP) — Caves are no longer a phenomena in Texas, but a cavern uncovered recently on the "Old Club" headquarters ranch ten miles west of Archer City may prove an exception. For the moment it is a mystery an is exciting the curiosity of sight-seers.

The cave was discovered during excavation for a dam for a large reservoir being erected by C. L. Abercrombie, owner of the ranch, by Felix M. Gundy, contractor for the work. The cave led to a massive rock having the outlines of a door with a large horseshoe carved upon it. The contractor found evidences that the cavern was once occupied by men. Workmen cleared away the rubbish from the face of the rock but were undecided whether it was the entrance to a tunnel or merely the carving of a stone worker to imitate a door.

The seams in the rock indicated that it had been placed in position, but it was difficult for the contractor to conceive how an object several tons in weight could have been set up without lifting machinery.

Old-timers recall things indicating that the immediate neighborhood was inhabited long ago. Several rock huts that have crumbled are discernible. No one can tell who occupied them although they have been a matter of speculation for more than half a century.

Jim Scott, who has been a resident of Archer county since 1878, said the lands comprising the "Old Club" ranch was in territory controlled by the "Bar X" ranch owned by his brothers-in-law, the Harrold brothers. Scott said that when the ranch was located in 1877, Archer county was free range and stock was controlled by line riders.

Scott rode one of the lines that passed the old stone buildings in 1878 and Bill Baxter, now a resident of Seymour, who also worked for the "Bar X" had a line camp in one of them. The best information they could gather as to the origin of the buildings, Scott said, was that they were, perhaps, erected by miners sent out in 1861 by the Confederate government to open a copper mine near where the massive rock door was unearthed.

The door, he suggested, might be the entrance to the mine from which tons of copper ore were conveyed to a smelter in East Texas for use in forging cannon for the Confederacy. Nuggets assaying 60 per cent copper have been found near the entrance to the cave. They also carried traces of gold and silver.

Prof. George Cummings, for many years state geologist, made an unsuccessful search for this mine. He claimed that the copper ore furnished the Confederacy was of fine quality and that reports from the miners were that the vein opened in Archer county was of unlimited quantity. Prof Cummings, 90 years old, is now a resident of El Paso. He is quoted as saying that the mine was closed at the end of the war and that hostile Indians prevented attempts to work it until those who knew the location were lost trace of. His years of search did not disclose the location.

There he seated them while he telephoned. W. C. Loone, grocery employe, who had seen the arrest, walked up to the barber shop and was standing in the doorway.

As Brown turned to the phone, one of the men took a pistol from his hip pocket. He told Looney to "be quiet" and pointed the gun at Brown.

"You're going with me, big boy," he said.

"No, I'm not," said Brown.

Fires Six Times

The man prodded him toward the doorway with Brown still protesting at the door, Brown again said he wasn't going and shoved the man backward. The man fired six times, two of the shots striking Brown.

When the shooting started, Looney ran around the building to the shop of his brother-in-law, M. Holt, where he got a shotgun. Returning, he saw the killer's companion uncover a machine gun in the car. Looney's shotgun was not the car. Loone'ys shotgun was not loaded and he retired from view. The trio drove away.
