Two Men Still Missing In Lake Tragedy

Mystery Of Bomber Crash Investigated

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

FORT WORTH, Sept. 16—What caused the first crash of a B-36 is the big question at Carswell Air Force base tonight.

The giant bomber should have flown—but it didn't.

Five airmen died when the great ship failed to take off last night and roared into a lake at 100 miles per hour. Three bodies have been found. Two are missing. Eight men escaped with slight injuries.

"After questioning all of the men involved in the accident, we are more in the dark than ever as to its cause," Maj. Gen. Roger M. Ramey, Eighth Air Force commander, said. "When we salvage the plane, we may find the answer."

Victims Identified

A grim, silvery island—broken wreckage of a plane as big as three five-room houses — marked the scene of the crash in Lake Worth. A diver found the body of Major Joseph L. Lemming, jr., of Dayton, Ohio, in the plane today. He located one other body which was not brought to the surface immediately. Two other bodies are missing.

T/Sgt. William G. Seymour of Fort Worth, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Seymour of Charleston, W. Va., died shortly after the crash. The three whose bodies have not been recovered were:

M/Sgt. John G. Stanko, relief flight engineer, Appollo, Pa.

Lt. Herman S. Styles, jr., radioman-navigator-bombardier, native of Lynch, Ky., whose parents live at San Antonio.

Capt. Harold Kernodle, 30, spare pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Kernodle of Hampden Sydney, Va. His widow and two infant daughters live in Fort Worth.

Hit Nose First

"Major Toy B. Husband, the pilot, said everything checked out before the takeoff," General Ramey declared. "Everything was in good shape. He started down the runway, got to a speed of 110 miles per hour, felt the ship become light and take off and then felt it begin to settle back to the runway.

"He then called for emergency power, and the flight engineer, First Lt. Richard L. English, gave him emergency power. The emergency power was indicated on the instruments, but the plane was not delivering it. It did not

Atlantic Defense Plans Tightened

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—Plans for tightening up the defenses of Western Europe and North America under a single grand strategy were virtually completed here today by officials of the Atlantic allegiance.

These plans, calling for a coordinated regional military organization under the direction of a defense committee, will be laid before the Council of the North Atlantic Treaty at its first meeting tomorrow. Quick approval of the initial blueprint is expected.

In advance of that meeting 11 senators meanwhile proposed creation of a highly trained, professional police force to serve as a protective vanguard for the 12-nation Atlantic alliance. Members of this force would be volunteers from smaller European countries united under the 20-year treaty.

The proposed police force would be financed out of part of the $1,314,010,000 foreign arms aid bill now awaiting Senate action.

Tomorrow's Atlantic council meeting will top off a week of extraordinary diplomatic activity which has produced a new degree of coordination of cold war policies among the big three of the Western bloc.

Secretary of State Acheson reported to President Truman and the cabinet today on his round of conferences with British Foreign Minister Bevin and Foreign Minister Schuman of France. All indications were that he gave the cabinet an optimistic picture of American-British-French co-operation in Europe, and Anglo-American agreement in fighting Com-

Norwegian Ship Shelled By Shore Batteries On Korea

TOKYO, Sept. 16. (INS)The Norwegian motor collier Helgoy radioed her agents in Yokohama today that she had been shelled by heavy shore batteries a few miles north of the thirty-eighth parallel which divides North and South Korea.

The eight thousand ton vessel has been under charter to Russians carrying coal from Sakhalin to Communist-dominated North Korea.

The master of the ship said she was proceeding along the west coast of Korea when shelled. He requested American naval assistance, saying the ship was hit twice by shells, once amidships and once on the bridge.

The shells damaged the ship's rudder and destroyed her registry papers. The captain said there was no loss of life but made no mention of injuries.

Four Killed, Seven Hurt Near Borger

(By The Associated Press)

BORGER, Sept. 16. — Highway accidents took a toll of four lives and left seven others injured in the Borger area today.

Two women, sisters-in-law, and a child were killed and their three young children injured in a two-car crash on Highway 136 at Fritch about 5 p.m. today. Two men, passengers in the other car involved, also were hurt in the collision.

A Borger man, Melvin Edward Thompson, 24, was killed in a head-on collision near Stinnett early Friday morning. Two others were critically hurt in that mishap.

Had Relatives In Area

Killed in the collision at Fritch this afternoon were:

Mrs. C. W. Cannon, 31, of Lefors.

Lloyd Cannon, 5, her son.

Mrs. Wilson Cannon, 33, of Fritch.

(The two Cannon women have relatives living in Lubbock and near Abernathy. C. W. Cannon, husband of one of the dead women, was visiting at the home of a brother, Lawrence Cannon of Abernathy route 2, Friday afternoon when he was notified of the accident. He left immediately for Borger by car. A nephew, Roy Glenn Cannon, lives at 2817 North Third street in Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Cannon also left Friday night for Borger.)

Children Are Injured

Injured in the Fritch accident and in North Plains hospital in Borger tonight are:

Peggy Cannon, daughter of Mrs. Wilson Cannon; J. B. and Judy Cannon, children of Mrs. C. W. Cannon.

Hospital attendants said the children, ranging in age from about three to nine, "were cut up pretty badly." Seriousness of their condition could not be immediately determined, however.

Also in the hospital are Donald Gice Osborne and J. Britton, both of Perryton, passengers in the other car. Neither was seriously hurt.

Mrs. C. W. Cannon was killed instantly in the crash. Mrs. Wilson

'Gag' Imposed In Air-Navy Feud

By LEON SHLOSS
INS Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Navy Secretary Matthews tried to quench the flaming Air Force-Navy feud today but a group of retired admirals banded together to carry on the fight against what they believe is an effort to chop down the strength of the naval forces.

Matthews issued an order "gagging" all active naval personnel and by indirection sought to stem the flow of public statements by retired officers supporting the charges of Capt. John G. Crommelin, war-hero naval flyer.

The Air Force on Wednesday issued a similar directive.

However, one of the Navy's recently-retired aviation pioneers told International News Service that Matthews' "gag" order would not silence the men who intend to speak out in support of Crommelin.

Others Join Attack

Crommelin, ex-skipper of the famed carrier Saratoga last Saturday charged that the Army and Air Force are "nibbling to death" the Navy's offensive power.

Shortly before Matthews' order was issued a retired naval intelligence chief joined the list of Navy champions led by Adm. Wil-

U. S. Military Leaders Return From Alaska Defense Inspection

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (INS)—The joint chiefs of staff, led by Gen. Omar N. Bradley, returned to Washington tonight from a nine-day inspection of the Alaskan defense network.

The military transport plane bearing the chiefs landed at National airport at 4:20 p.m. CST.

Bradley and his fellow officers had no comment, but they are expected to recommend increased Alaskan defenses on the basis of their trip.

With Bradley, recently named joint chief-chairman, were Gen. Vandenberg of the Air Force, Gen. Collins of the Army, and Vice Adm. Arthur D. Struble.

REGISTRATION TO CONTINUE

Total Of 5,621 Students Start Classes At Texas Tech Today

A TOTAL of 5,621 fall students will go to their first classes at Texas Technological college at 8 a.m. today, following official registration which was completed Friday.

Latecomers will be accepted for registration through Monday and even until Thursday with payment of a fee, but Registrar W. P. Clement expects only negligible additions to the 5,621 figure.

Rains which had harrassed Thursday enrollees gave way to clearing skies as the last of that number registered Friday afternoon. The total figure is some 524 below last year's number of 6,145, but Clement expects additional persons to boost this year's figure a little.

Meanwhile, Frank Junell, assistant to the president, and housing officials at the college were still casting about for additional housing space, especially for three or four veterans who have children. Junell sent out a request for apartment space for those persons should any be available in the city.

Approximately 1,900 veterans had enrolled through Friday under the GI bill, falling several hundred short of last year's number

Formula For Figuring Rebates On Vets' Insurance Announced

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The Veterans Administration announced today it will pay a maximum of $528 to veterans due rebates on wartime National Service Life insurance.

VA Administrator Carl R. Gray, jr., made public the basis on which his agency will slice up $2,800,000,000 among nearly 16 million veterans who held the government policies.

The rebate plan resulted when the fund built up a reserve fund much larger than needed to pay off claims because the war casualty rate was lower than anticipated.

Gray said the $528 maximum was based on a $10,000 policy (the highest possible) being in force for 96 months (the longest possible period) by a veteran who was 40 years old or less when he took out the policy.

Other payments, based on age groups and length of time the policy was in force, will run less. But the VA spelled out the calculation terms so that any veteran can figure how much he has coming.

The agency pointed out that dividends will be paid on both

$1.5 BILLION SUBSIDY PROPOSED

Solon Urges Fund To Boost Farm Surplus Sales Abroad

(By International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 — Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) today introduced a bill to set up a $1.5 billion revolving fund to dispose of the nation's surplus agricultural commodities by foreign sale.

Eastland declared in a Senate speech that the lack of provisions in the present farm program for subsidized export of farm surpluses is the "basic weakness" in the existing law. Eastland's bill would:

1. Create a "farm commodity revolving fund" of $1.5 billion administered by the Commodity Credit corporation.

2. Empower CCC to guarantee exporters payment up to 95 per cent of the sale price on CCC-approved shipments to foreign buyers.

3. Authorize CCC to barter surplus commodities. In such deals CCC could extend credit for as much as six months on sales for which payment is to be made in some foreign-grown product.

4. Refund tariff duties to any foreign importer who would use it for purchase of American farm surpluses.

Another senator, Gillette (D-Iowa) announced that an investigation into the spread between the farmer and the consumer on foods and fibers will be started Sept. 22. Gillette, chairman of the subcommittee on utilization of farm crops, announced that representatives of large dairy companies will be invited to appear at the opening.

Agriculture Secretary Brannan, meanwhile, said that price supports now costing the taxpayers "millions" were "shoved" through the 80th Congress in a stampede for adjournment to attend the Republican national convention.

Brannan, in a radio interview with Senate majority leader Lucas (D-Ill), said he has "no choice" but to enforce the law.

The Agriculture department slashed its price support of flaxseed from 90 to 60 per cent of parity.

The department announced that the 1950 crop will be supported at 60 per cent of this year's flaxseed crop.

Officials said the action was taken because the government already owns 36 million bushels, the equivalent of a full year's needs.

The department also announced that 85 per cent of the growers voting in a recent referendum approved federal marketing controls on pecans grown in five southern states. The states are Georgia, Alabama, Florida, Mississippi and South Carolina.

APPOINTMENT MADE

MANHATTAN, Kan., Sept. 16. (INS)—Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, president of Kansas State college, announced today the appointment of Eugene P. Farrell, former production manager of the Maney Milling Co., Omaha, as milling technologist at Kansas State college. Farrell succeeds Prof. Warren F. Miller, who resigned to accept a post with the Harvest Queen Mill and Elevator Co., Plainview, Texas.

South Plains Given Temporary Relief From Heavy Rains

A temporary lull in September rains came to the South Plains Friday, but the Weather Bureau station in Lubbock predicted early today that thundershowers may move in with another cold front late Sunday night and early Monday.

The Friday break in rainy weather gave clear skies for high school football games in the area, but games were played on dew-damp fields left soggy or muddy by rains this week.

Partly cloudy skies are expected today, tonight and Sunday, the weatherman said, with warmer temperatures today. High temperatures today and Sunday are expected to be in the middle 80's.

The new cold front, promising to reach the South Plains late Sunday night or early Monday, extended from northern California eastward to Nebraska and bent back up into Canada early today.

Temperatures Monday are not expected to drop as low as they did during this week's cold wave. Maximums Monday will fall in the 65 to 70-degree bracket if the cold front moves in on schedule, the Weather bureau said.

If the front arrives, rain is almost certain to come with it, the forecaster said.

Meanwhile, the rains took

Pilot's Body Found In Missing Fighter

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 16. (AP)—A rancher found the wreckage of a California Air National Guard fighter plane 35 miles north of here today. The pilot was dead.

The plane, a P-51, was from the 194th Fighter squadron, stationed at Oakland, Calif. It disappeared last night on a flight from Barksdale Air Force base, Shreveport, La., to Biggs Air Force base, El Paso.

The name of the pilot had not been released late tonight.

The rancher, a man named Baker, found a piece of metal while cutting sheep from a herd this afternoon. He thought it had fallen from a nearby windmill.

Starting toward the windmill, he found the rest of the plane, scattered over a wide area. Baker then went to Water Valley, and police there notified Goodfellow Air Force base here.

The plane was one of three making the flight from Barksdale to Biggs field.

FLIERS NEARING U.S.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP) — Two Italian fliers in a light single-engine plane early tonight were reported to have covered more than half the distance on a 2,000-mile flight from the Azores to New York. The fliers, John M. Brondello and Camillio Barioglio, are making the flight to help promote American support for a proposed "boys town" in Italy.

Mine Walkout Seen; Welfare Payments Halt

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Fears of a nationwide coal strike mounted tonight as miners welfare fund payments were suspended by trustees headed by John L. Lewis due to lack of funds.

The sudden order halting payments was quickly followed by news of the resignation of one of the trustees, Ezra Van Horn of Cleveland. Van Horn, representing coal operators, quit in a letter dated Sept. 14—indicating it was not prompted by today's developments.

In fact, Van Horn reportedly cast the lone vote against suspending the miners' pension and welfare benefits.

Western Miners Walk Out

Van Horn, in his letter to the coal owners, threatened to take court action to be relieved of his trustee duties unless the operators quickly replace him.

In announcing the suspension of welfare payments union leader Lewis refrained from saying "strike." But it was widely anticipated the action heralded a walkout Monday when eastern and southern miners are due to resume their three-day week digging duties.

Just in advance of the trustees action 8,000 western miners walked out.

The multi-billion dollar welfare fund had been seriously diminished by refusal of some southern operators to continue chipping in their 20-cent-a-ton royalty.

Trustees Suspend Pensions

Lewis warned earlier this week that "social convulsions" were in store if the southerners did not change their mind. But the southerners persisted in their refusal, saying there was no legal basis for the payments since their contract with Lewis has expired.

So today the welfare fund trustees, headed by Lewis, suspended pensions, disability pay and other benefits to miners because of "diminishing revenues." Senator Bridges (R-NH), one of the trustees, said the fund had dwindled from $30,000,000 on July 1 to $14,000,000 on Sept. 1.

Industry spokesmen feared the

Suspects Waive Extradition Here

Two men held in county jail here for out-of-state authorities have waived extradition and will be released to officers from two neighboring states, probably today, the sheriff's department announced Friday.

The men are David Robert Pilgreen, 18, parolee from a federal reformatory in Colorado, wanted by New Mexico officials, and Dewey Wright, 33 of San Antonio, wanted in Kansas.

Pilgreen was captured near Levelland Thursday after he had attempted to outrun sheriff's officers and highway partolmen in a car he later admitted stealing at Roswell, N. M. Three shots were fired into the back of the fugitive car during the chase.

Kansas Officers Due Today

Wright, according to a telegram from Sheriff W. B. Carrithers of Syracuse, Kan., is wanted there on five felony charges. The Kansas officer will arrive in Lubbock today to pick up the prisoner.

Wright, officers said, has admitted breaking jail in Kansas. Investigation of another man who was taken into custody with Wright at a cafe in north Lubbock Thursday night will be continued, it was indicated.

Two Slaton men, each about 33, posted bonds totaling $1,000 each after being charged Friday with

PLANT FOUND NEAR LORENZO

Strange Weed May Bring New Worries To South Plains Area

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

IN CASE the freakish South Plains weather doesn't give farmers enough to worry about, Floyd Pearson of Lorenzo has come up with something that should.

It's a most devilish looking weed, the likes of which has not been seen in this area before. Nature has equipped it most abundantly with self-defense devices.

Plant Found In Pasture

Pearson found the plant oddity growing on a terrace in a pasture he owns on the Lubbock-Crosby county line. It had taken an area about five by ten feet in size, and it looked as if it had come to stay, Pearson thought.

He brought a two-foot specimen to Lubbock.

Dr. Arthur W. Young, head of the plant industry department, and Dr. W. W. Yocum, professor of Horticulture at Texas Technological college, examined the plant and with the aid of reference books identified it thus:

Xanthium spinosum, member of the cockleburr family.

The vicious-looking weed was

Two Injured In Train Wrecks

(By The Associated Press)

Cars of two freight trains—one near Ennis, the other at Longview — jolted off the rails and capsized Friday. Two men were injured in the Ennis wreck; officers guarded against an explosion among the overturned cars at Longview.

The derailment near Ennis, in central Texas, occurred about 3 p. m. Six cars and the engine of a 38-car Texas and New Orleans train went off the tracks and scattered in a weird pattern. The locomotive cab was telescoped.

A. T. Crane of Ennis, the engineer, suffered second and third-degree steam burns over most of his body. He was in a serious condition at Ennis Municipal hospital. Brakeman James Rhea of Ennis received broken ribs and bruises.

No one was injured in the wreck about a mile west of Longview. The wrecked cars included 15 of petroleum distillate and one of gasoline, both explosive; one of artillery propellent charges, and five of fuel oil, highly inflammable. About 10 deputies and highway patrolmen kept guard over the cars Friday night as crews worked to clear away the wreckage.

Captives Flee Red Torture

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

BERLIN, Sept. 16—Four western soldiers, an American and three Britons, broke to freedom last midnight from a Soviet prison where they were tortured, beaten and poorly fed for months.

The American is Pvt. John J. Sienkiewicz, 26, of Baltimore, a veteran of 21 months of tough campaigning in the Pacific war. He disappeared from his unit of the 16th infantry regiment here last Nov. 5.

The Britons, who face charges of being absent without leave at the time of their arrest 18 months ago, were John Boniface, Morris Sullivan and Arthur Taylor.

Weary, dirty and marked by prison pallor, the four made their way on foot to safety in the western sectors early today. All were hospitalized. The Britons were reported "in poor physical shape." Sienkiewicz was "in generally weakened physical condition, but not undernourished."

Sienkiewicz said he was nabbed by a Russian officer on a street car in the Soviet sector Nov. 5. His name led the Russians to believe he was a Polish displaced person used as a spy.

Urgent Effort To Prevent Strike Set

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16—In a new attempt to prevent a crippling steel strike, the government asked CIO Steelworkers and their employers to end their long-distance sparring over a contract and sit down with mediators here Monday.

Labor and management both agreed to attend.

The strike now is set to begin in eight days—at 12:01 a. m. Sunday, September 25. President Truman has persuaded the union and the steel companies to agree to an 11-day truce to study the recommendations of his fact-finding board issued last Saturday.

Cyrus S. Ching, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service, summoned management and union representatives to the mediation session here at 8:30 a. m. (CST) next Monday.

Hope Is Expressed

In doing so, he expressed the belief there is a "good possibility" that the failure of the union and employers to start negotiating on the fact finders' recommendations "springs not from irreconcilable fundamental differences in views, but from the meaning of words."

The President's board recommended against the wage increase demanded by the union, but counseled adoption of a pension-insurance "package" paid for by the companies which would raise the operating costs of most steel makers by 10 cents an hour for each employe.

The union, headed by Philip Murray, who also is president of CIO itself, expressed its willingness to accept the 10-cent package of fringe benefits. The steel industry, however, has balked at agreeing to paying the full cost of the pension-insurance program and wishes to negotiate further on this point.

Murray telegraphed acceptance of the invitation late today. United States Steel, biggest company in the industry, said it would be represented. So did Bethlehem Steel. Other companies announced they would send in their acceptances upon formal receipt of Ching's invitation. Ching had expressed confidence that both sides would be fully represented.

His aim, Ching said, is to ar-

NEW AGRICULTURAL THREAT POPS UP — Floyd Pearson, Lorenzo stockman and farmer, is shown above as he examines a dangerous weed, identified as Xanthium spinosum, which appeared recently in his pasture for the first time in this area, so far as can be determined. The vicious-looking weed is heavily armored with both cockleburrs and long, slender thorns, which might well make it a serious threat to South Plains cotton if it gets out of control. Pearson doesn't know how it got into his pasture, but thinks it may have been brought in on the tails of cattle he bought. (Staff Photo.)

Dahlia Show Opens Today

The opening of the annual South Plains Dahlia show is scheduled for 2 o'clock this afternoon in Kuykendall Chevrolet company display room. Exhibits must be entered between 9 a. m. and 12 noon today and must be removed between 6 and 7 p. m. Sunday.

Members of the South Plains Dahlia society are sponsoring the show. The public will be admitted without charge.

Arrangements are to be judged preceding the opening of the exhibit. There is no limit of entries by an exhibitor in any class with the exception of the Blue Ribbon Winner's class; there are two divisions in 13 classes.

Men Hurt In Wreck Show Improvement

LAMESA, Sept. 16 (Special) — Funeral services for Rodney C. Strickland, 37, of Phillips, who was killed in a two-car collision near O'Donnell Thursday, will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday in Wright Funeral chapel at Coleman.

His wife, 32, remained in Lamesa General hospital tonight with injuries received in the accident. Attendants said her condition was improved.

Two Lubbock men, W. J. (Frank) Bass, 47, and W. M. Ryan, 50, also injured in the collision, remained in the same hospital. They were both reported as greatly improved.

Services for Strickland will be conducted by the Rev. Pearce, pastor of the Coleman First Baptist church. Burial will be in the Coleman cemetery.

Arrangements for the funeral had been delayed until the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harmon of Spearman, parents of Mrs. Strickland.

Strickland, an employe of the Phillips Petroleum company, was a former resident of Coleman.

Texan Held In North Dakota Jail For Knifing Wife In Back

FARGO, N. D., Sept. 16 (AP) — Juan Flores, 23, of Crystal City, Texas, was jailed here today on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon after he rushed into the police station and said, "I just killed my wife."

"How?" asked officer Lee Hanson.

"I knifed her," Hanson quoted Flores as answereing.

"Where?" asked the officer.

"Down the street," Flores replied.

Squad cars and ambulances were dispatched and police found Mrs. Flores walking, apparently headed for a hospital. A hunting knife was buried to the hilt in Mrs. Flores back, police said. The knife was just to the left of the woman's spine.

Flores told Officer Hanson that his wife left him three weeks ago. The Texan said he had been trying unsuccessfully to get her back, Hanson said.

Flores was held in jail and his wife was taken to St. John's hospital.

Couple Marries

Announcement is being made here of the marriage of Miss Gladys Dawson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dawson, sr., and Larry Crouse, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Crouse of Kansas City, Mo., which took place recently at Tulia. Rev. C. G. Sewell, pastor, read a double ring service.

The bride is a graduate of Texas Technological college where she was a member of Forum, Junior council, Freshman Honor society and Phi Upsilon Omicron. She was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin with a fingertip veil of illusion and a bouquet of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Attendant From Iowa

Mrs. Charles Britton of Ames, Iowa, matron of honor, wore pink taffeta and carried orchid asters and pink roses. Bridesmaids were Miss Chloe T. Dawson of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Woodrow Allen of Sweetwater. Their dresses were of orchid taffeta and their bouquets and headdresses of pink roses. Barbara Flynt, cousin of the bride, lighted candles.

Roy Lee Jones of Lovington, N. M., was best man and R. B. Dawson, jr., Edwin L. Dawson, brothers of the bride, Delbert Divin and James Niver were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the social hall of the church.

The couple is at home in Lovington, N. M., following a wedding trip to Colorado and Missouri. Mr. Crouse is a graduate of Central Missouri State college in Warrensburg, Mo., and has a masters degree from Oklahoma A. and M. For the past three years, he has been employed as teacher and coach at the Clovis Senior High school. Mrs. Crouse taught home economics at Clovis, N. M., High school last year.

CISCO COUPLE INJURED

CISCO, Sept. 16 (AP)—Two pioneer Cisco residents were in critical condition today from injuries received in an automobile collision. The wreck occurred yesterday about eight miles west of here. Bob Snoddy, 75, was unconscious with a skull fracture and other injuries. His wife, 71, received a compound fracture of the leg.

MEET THE WOMEN—Mrs. Laura L. Moody, owner of Laura L. Moody Real Estate agency, has resided in Lubbock for most of the past 12 years. She is a native of Baird, in Callahan county, and is a former Civil Service employe. Mrs. Moody opened her real estate service 18 months ago and her offices are now located in the Sweetbriar building. She holds a degree in music, which still remains her chief hobby. Mrs. Moody and her husband, Glenn Moody, who is employed by West Texas Gas Co., have a suburban home south of Lubbock. (Staff Photo).

Jaycees Seek Aid In Circus Ticket Drive

R. S. Wilkinson, president of the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce, announced Friday that other organizations and business firms will be invited to help provide tickets for underprivileged boys and girls to the two performances here Oct. 11 of the Rogers Brothers circus.

The Jaycees, who are sponsoring the big three ring national circus for the purpose of raising funds for their Christmas program of helping less fortunate children, hope all the underprivileged children here will get to see the circus and wild animal menagerie, according to Wilkinson.

First performance of the circus will be held at 2:30 p. m. and the night performance will be held at 8 p. m. at the Fair Grounds.

Circus doors will open an hour before each performance, Wilkinson said, to afford fans an opportunity to visit the side show and menagerie.

Officials of the circus have promised two hours of entertainment.

DORMITORY IS OKAYED

MARSHALL, Sept. 16 (AP)—Construction of a $250,000 boys' dormitory at East Texas Baptist college here got the go-ahead signal today. The board of directors announced today they have instructed the enlargement committee to proceed with contracting for the work.

OIL OFFICIAL CLAIMED

PROSECUTION TAKES OVER

Defense Attorneys Rest Case In Tokyo Rose Treason Trial

By CONSTANCE HITCHCOCK
INS Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 16 — The defense rested today in the Tokyo Rose treason trial at San Francisco to end one phase of the case which has ground on for twelve weeks.

The last witness for Los Angeles-born Mrs. Iva Toguri D'Aquino—charged with betraying her native land for the land of her ancestors—was one of the defendant's attorneys, Theodore Tamba.

Tamba attempted to refute testimony of several witnesses—Americans by birth but now Japanese by choice—who had testified to the so-called "overt acts" of treason with which the defendant is charged. The overt acts, eight in number, consist of broadcasting Japanese propaganda over wartime radio Tokyo and preparing scripts for such broadcasts.

May End Case Next Week

The attorney said he had talked with the witnesses in Japan and they did not at that time mention the alleged treasonous acts.

After Tamba left the witness stand, prosecutor Tom De Wolfe took over and began questioning government witnesses to rebut testimony offered by the defense.

De Wolfe first called to the stand FBI agent Frederick Tillman who had previously introduced a deposition from the defendant and from defense witness Norman Reyes who served with American forces in the Philippines during the war. Tillman testified under questioning this afternoon that there was no coercion involved in getting the depositions.

De Wolfe will continue his presentation of possibly three more rebuttal witnesses when the trial resumes Monday.

It is expected that the case will be presented to the jury of six men and six women in federal district court late next week or early the following week.

Mystery Of Woman's Name May Be Solved

LAMESA, Sept. 16 (Special) — An attractive woman, believed to be an amnesia victim, was tentatively identified here today as Lorraine Patterson, a nurse who once served as a supervisor of the children's ward of Hillcrest hospital in Tulsa, Okla.

Police Chief A. N. Randle, who has been seeking the identity of the woman since last Saturday, said officials at the Tulsa hospital reported a Lorraine Patterson had worked there before the war and left to enter military service as a nurse.

The woman, thought to be about 35 years of age, had mentioned the name, but did not know whether it was her name or that of an acquaintance. She also remembered some connection with a hospital and mentioned having once lived in Tulsa.

Randle said he would check with military authorities in an attempt to locate relatives of the woman. He said she appeared to be of Indian extraction.

How she arrived in Lamesa was still unknown. City police officers first saw her late last Friday on the outskirts of town on the Lubbock highway. Randle picked her up Saturday morning, and said she was "almost starved."

Given lodging in a jail cell, the woman apparently is gradually recovering, Randle said.

"She is eating well, and seems to remember everything that has happened while she has been here," he said.

When picked up here she carried a few personal belongings and was dressed in heavy work clothing. She has dark hair and blue eyes and is about 5 feet 4 inches in height.

Democrats Prepare Welcome For Barkley Surprise Visit

DALLAS, Sept. (AP)—Texas Democrats hurried today with plans for Vice-President Alben Barkley's visit here.

A sudden announcement that he would visit Dallas tomorrow and Sunday sent the party faithful scurrying.

Barkley, on his way to the West Coast, will preside at ribbon-cutting ceremonies opening Dallas television station KBTV.

Early Settler Recalls Several 'Firsts' In History Of Lubbock

J. I. McBroom observed his 78th birthday Friday and his memory of more than 40 years in Lubbock includes several "firsts."

For one thing, he erected the first "fence" around the courthouse square. For another, he owned and operated Lubbock's first bicycle shop.

And he still remembers the barbecue that celebrated the arrival of the Santa Fe railroad — a barbecue that got covered with dust before the celebrants had a chance to dive into it.

Manufacturing Needed

Asked for a comment about Lubbock changes and growth during the years he has known it, Mr. McBroom said:

"I'll be dogged if I can see what's making it grow like it is. There's no manufacturing or public works. I think Lubbock needs manufacturing more than anything else."

He has worked all his life and still likes to work. He now files saws occasionally at his home at 1706 Ave. F. He did sell snow-cones in the 900-block on Broadway for a while, but the city made him quit, he said, since it was in violation of a peddler's ordinance.

Walked To Work

He remembers when he was a boy he used to work "from sunup to sundown," and walk three miles to work and three home every day for 75 cents a day. He was ginning cotton then.

Born in Tennessee Sept. 16, 1871, he left that state with his parents when two years old.

"We got waterbound in Arkansas and had to stay 15 or 20 years," he says humorously.

From Arkansas he moved to Colorado, where he farmed at Greely, 50 miles north of Denver, for about five years.

Moved To Lubbock 1907

Mr. and Mrss. McBroom came to Lubbock in 1907, lived about a year here before moving away for about 10 years.

While in Lubbock that first time he got the job of erecting the "fence" around the old white frame courthouse. He was assisted by his brother, the late G. R. McBroom.

The fence consisted of wooden boisd'arc posts set eight feet apart, with a three-quarters inch cable strung between the posts. The fence was used more for hitching horses to it than anything else, McBroom recalls.

Barbecue Is Recalled

He remembers that when the posts were ready for stringing the cable, 40 or 50 cowboys were hanging around anxious to tie up their horses. They helped string the heavy cable.

The bicycle shop, in an old frame building at Main and Texas, was a prosperous business for a while. Bicycles were sold and repaired, and McBroom rented three or four at 25 cents an hour.

When the Santa Fe railroad got to Lubbock, a barbecue for 1,000 persons was prepared, and McBroom recollects that a dust storm blew up just as the serving was all set to begin, and the barbecue had quite a bit of West Texas sand mixed in with it.

Asked for advise to young persons on how to live happily to a ripe old age, Mr. McBroom said he hadn't always lived a perfect life, but he did have this to offer: "Go square with everybody. That's the way I've found is the best. That's always the best."

Reserve Retirement Points Changed Under New Statute

AUSTIN, Sept. 16 (Special) — Organized Reservists who were in the active Reserves during the one-year period ending June 28, 1949, will receive 50 points for Reserve duty training regardless of the number of points earned, Col. Oscar B. Abbott, executive of the Texas Military district, has announced.

This is a result of HR Law 5929 which was signed last week by President Truman.

The new legislation changes the "year" for computation of the 50 retirement points required for a year of satisfactory service so as to coincide with the fiscal year—July 1 through June 30. The same period will be used as a year in which prescribed minimum training requirements must be met in order to remain in the active reserve.

Reserve members who earned more than 50 retirement points for training during the one-year period ending last June 28 will lose all points in excess of the 50 under the new law. Such losses, however, will be slight, as the maximum number allowed for inactive duty training during a year is 60.

MARKET IGNORES STRIKE NEWS

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (AP)—Ominous labor news failed to stop a slow but persistent stock advance today.

Gains were mainly fractional, a handful topping a point. This was enough to lift 67 shares to tops of the year.

The possibility that strikes might clamp down on steel and soft coal production within days was a dominant factor in early trade.

Rail stocks did better than most other groups. Steels didn't attract much attention but closed on a steady footing.

Turnover was 1,160,000 shares.

The Associated Press average edged up .1 of one point to 65.5. Rails did best, followed by utilities industrials were unchanged.

Of 979 issues, 478 advanced and 253 declined.

Higher by ¼ each were U. S. Steel at 23⅜, Bethlehem 28¼, and Republic 20½.

Santa Fe added 1⅞ at 93¾. Fractionality ahead were were Pennsylvania 14½, Baltimore and Ohio 9, and Northern Pacific 16.

New highs included Halliburton Oil Well Cementing 31, Houston Oil 40⅝, Seaboard Oil 51½, Standard Gas and Electric 5A Preferred 36, and International Paper 58.

Also up were Chrysler, American Smelting, Dow Chemical, American Woolen and Standard Oil (NJ).

Unable to make the grade were Woolworth, American Teelphone, Consolidated Natural Gas, Anaconda Copper and Homestake mining.

A and P took another slide in the curb following yesterday's decline of 4½ points in the wake of a government antitrust suit. The stock lost 2½ points at 116½.

Cities Service slipped but higher prices were paid for United Light, Salt Dome Oil and Pancoastal Oil.

Railway bonds attracted a little support. Long-term government issues improved.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Sept. 16 (AP) — Wheat futures climbed more than a cent a bushel to new seasonal highs today before profittaking cut into the upturn.

Early buying by export interests indicated the government again was in the cash market, traders said, following heavy purchases the first four days in the week. December, May and July wheat futures hit new seasonal peaks.

Wheat closed ⅛ to ¾ higher than the previous finish, September $2.16¼-⅜. Corn was 1⅛ up to ⅝ down, September $1.29⅝-⅞. oats were ¼ higher to ⅛ lower, September 68⅝.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16. (AP)—The average price of middling 15/16ths-inch cotton today at 10 designated southern spot markets was unchanged at 30.09 cents a pound; average for the past 30 market days 30.70; middling ⅞ths-inch average 28.50.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 (AP) — Trading in cotton futures was again confined to narrow price ranges today, although the market was displaying a steady undertone.

The volume of trading was the quietest for any session so far this week. While some liquidation came into nearby October delivery, the selling was absorbed by trade price fixing.

Hedging pressure also was apparent, but in the aggregate this type of selling was light.

It was explained that the new cotton crop movement was being delayed by recent rains over most of the cotton belt which tended to reduce hedge sales in futures.

Interest wa sattached to C.C.C. release that loans covering only 4,493 bales were made on the 1949 crop up to December 8. A year ago up to September 9 loans on the 1948 crop amounted to 114,002 bales.

Futures closed 40 cent sa bale higher higher to 10 cents lower than the previous close.

Judgment In Damage Action Upheld In Civil Appeals Court

A judgment of Judge G. V. Pardue of the 99th judicial district of Lubbock county has been affirmed in the damages action of J. W. Jackson and others against Dr. Olan Key and others, an opinion of Chief Justice E. L. Pitts of the 7th court of civil appeals in Amarillo, received here Friday, said.

The case was filed here Aug. 19, 1948, by J. W. Jackson, E. E. Rogers and Floyd Shipman, licensed realtors, to recover $5,708.11 as a five per cent commission on $114,163.50 allegedly due them for efforts in procuring a purchaser for 2,075.7 acres of land sold by Key to Paul Harral Feb. 28, 1948.

The court opinion said that since there had been no written listing of the land, recovery was precluded, which echoed the lower court judgment.

Power Of Advertising Shown By California City Engineer

MODESTO, Calif., Sept. 16 (AP) — Yes, sir, says city Engineer Frank Rossie, it pays to advertise.

He told the city council the city had seven old wooden buildings for sale. They were offered to bidders through the usual legal notice.

Bids received totaled just over $250.

Then Rossie bought an $18 display ad in a local newspaper.

The buildings were sold for $1,050.

Hearing Aid That 'Couldn't be Built' Goes on View Here

TELEX PARK, Minn.—Announcement of a radically-improved hearing aid, extremely light in weight and amazingly economical to operate, was made today by Allen Hempel, president of Telex, Inc. Free demonstrations are offered by your local Telex Hearing Center.

The new Telex 200 weighs approximately 3 ounces without batteries! This drastic reduction in weight had been considered "virtually impossible" to achieve.

Despite its remarkable reduction in weight the powerful Telex 200 sets new standards for clear hearing and unmistakable speech understanding.

For the first time in hearing-aid history, the Telex 200 features a case of rolled silverplate with ⅛₀ 14K gold-filled clip. Remarkable savings in battery consumption are realized by the built-in Telex Battery Economiser. And clothing noise has been sharply reduced, thanks to an extra-wide clip which virtually ends movement of clothes across the microphone.

Win $100! Five minutes of your time may mean a crisp $100 bill for you! Yes, in as little as five minutes you can fill in the contest coupon below—and you'll be in the running for one of ten $100 prizes offered by Telex! Mail or leave at Telex Hearing Center. Contest closes October 31, 1949. Duplicate prizes in case of a tie.

Western Powers To Face Tussle In Renewed Big Four Conference

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

The western allies are getting ready for another tussle with Russia over world issues in the four-power foreign ministers council. Advices from Moscow say that Andrei Vishinsky is set for another meeting during the United Nations General assembly which opens next week. The allies themselves, after Washington strategy conferences, have asked for a meeting Sept. 22 of the deputy ministers on the Austrian question, presumably in anticipation of resumed high level discussions. Moscow says Vishinsky will "press" for another meeting, but it has been assumed ever since the Paris conference that it would be held at this time as agreed.

Although the Paris conference resulted in the lifting of the Berlin blockade, which had boomeranged on Russia, there has been further cleavage between East and West since then. While there has not been such an outward atmosphere of crisis, the allies have moved in to support Marshal Tito in his fight against Soviet control of Yugoslavia.

The United States made a loan to Finland which was followed so closely by what seemed to be an unsuccessful Communist attempt at a coup through a general strike that Russia seemed to be fighting back directly.

Desperate purges of anti-Soviet elements are under way in eastern Europe, nearly always involving charges of pro-American attitudes.

The Communist rebels in Greece have been soundly trounced and, in the case of Albania, Greece has threatened counter invasion if the guerrillas re-cross the border to resume their attacks.

The ministers meeting will be held in the shadow of repeated failure to agree on Austria. Just as in other negotiations, the Russians who had agreed on broad general principles of settlement, introduced new details which blocked final agreement. The allies are determined that Russia will not get the hold on Austrian economy which they accuse her of seeking.

Two Port Arthur Brothers Killed When Car Hits Tree

LAKE CHARLES, La., Sept. 16 (AP)—Two Port Arthur, Texas, brothers were killed early today when their car failed to take a curve about three miles west of here on U. S. Highway 90. The vehicle plunged off the highway into a tree about 75 feet away.

The two men, only occupants of the car, were Lloyd Sidney Brogdon, 37, oil company employe and owner of the car, and his brother, Paul Nathaniel Brogdon, 31, bus driver.

The car was traveling toward Lake Charles. No other car was involved in the wreck at about 2:24 a. m. (CST). The time was determined by a watch in the younger man's pocket.

The car, after leaving the pavement, hit a stump, hurtled about 50 feet through the air into one pine tree and then plunged on about 25 feet into a second tree. The car struck the first tree at a point about 15 feet above the ground.

Demos To Discuss State Election Laws

DALLAS, Sept. 16. (AP)—Members of the legislative committee of the state association of Democratic county chairmen will meet here tomorrow to discuss new election laws passed by the 51st Legislature. They also will prepare recommendations for revisions of those laws.

The meeting will be in the office of Dallas county Chairman Arthur Stevenson, committee chairman. State Rep. W. O. Reed will attend the session to aid in the deliberations, Stevenson said.

Harris county Chairman Bill Tucker, who has indicated that he is preparing to file a "friendly lawsuit" to test validity of certain phases of the new law, is expected to attend the meeting, Stevenson said.

The major point to which the party officials have objected is a provision in the new law under which returns from party primaries would be reported to the county clerk rather than to the county chairman, as in the past, Stevenson said.

"It's beginning to look like the only thing to do is to ask the legislature to rewrite the law again at the January session," Stevenson said.

Married Negro Women Denied Entrance Into Nursing School

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 16 (UP)—A negro woman's marital status, not her color, blocked her entrance to the University of Oklahoma Nursing school, officials said today.

"We just don't admit married women to the school," said director Mary Caron.

Alma Scott McGee, a nurse in the negro ward at the hospital was the first negro to fill out a complete application for admittance to the school. She is the mother of three.

"There's a serious need for negro nurses," the director said, "and we have talked about the possibility of a course for negroes. But our rules don't provide for married women at all."

Repair In Wichita Falls Water Plant Removes Fire Hazard

WICHITA FALLS, Sept. 16 (UP)—A serious fire hazard was averted here today after quick repairs were made to the city water plants main control panel.

A fire early this morning had damaged the panel and caused a shutoff of all pumps. Pressure dropped in the mains from 70 to 15 pounds and the only water available for a number of hours was that in the mains and an overhead storage tank.

Commercial Sponge Iron Plant To Operate On Longview Site

LONGVIEW, Sept. 16. (AP)—Longview will be the site of a commercial sponge iron plant—the only one of its kind in the world—an executive announced last night.

Roy A. Hearne, executive vice president of East Texas Electric Steel company, said construction of the $1,000,000 plant will start this month.

East Texas Electric Steel will operate the plant for Southwest Metals, Inc.

The Longview News and Journal published an extra heralding the plant.

This is the second large industry to be announced for Longview within the last 30 days. The other is Tennessee Eastman Corp., a subsidiary of Eastman Kodak Co. Plans for a large bank and office building also were announced this week.

The sponge iron plant will be located on a 10-acre tract of the East Texas Electric Steel company and the Madras Steel corporation, a mile west of here.

About 50,000,000 tons of ice are produced yearly in 6000 plants throughout the United States.

Air Caravan Forced To Bypass Lubbock

A caravan of private fliers on a statewide tour cancelled plans for a stop at Lubbock Friday after a low ceiling at Sweetwater upset the time schedule.

The Civil Aeronautics administration at Lubbock Municipal airport was notified that Lubbock had been dropped from the flight log, with the planes to go from Sweetwater to Breckenridge.

Of the 25 planes which began the tour from Houston Monday, only 14 were left when the caravan reached Sweetwater Thursday night. The planes have traveled about 1,600 miles and are to end their tour in Galveston Monday, the Associated Press reported.

The flying enthusiasts include air craft dealers, farmers, ranchers, industrialists and oil company representatives. The tour is being made to stimulate interest in small aircraft and to prove that flying is both safe and practical.

Austrian unemployment figures have dropped 19.4 per cent since March, 1949.

Lubbock Gideons To Conduct Services In New Deal Church

The Lubbock organization of the Gideons International society will have charge of services Sunday morning at the New Deal Baptist church, according to O. D. Peden, member of the group.

He said about eight members of the local group will go to New Deal to handle the service.

Mrs. Earl Bennett will deliver a layman's gospel message. Peden will explain the work of the Gideon society.

Yugoslavia is to make its first champagne this year, intended for export.

...ters Overwhelmingly Favor ...se Of T-H Law To Halt Strikes

GEORGE GALLUP, Director
(American Institute of Public Opinion)

PRINCETON, N. J., Sept. 15.—...injunction provision of the ...t-Hartley act is approved by ...overwhelming majority of all ...ers, including labor union ...nbers, questioned in a survey ...ducted by the American Insti... of Public Opinion.

...pproximately three out of ...ry four labor union members ... about eight out of every ten ...ers in the survey indicated ap...val of the principle to allow ... government to issue an injunc... to prevent a strike in indus...s considered vital to the coun...'s welfare while settlements are ...empted.

...Although greater approval ...nes from Republicans, Demo...ts also are substantially in fav... of the law.

...Just before Missouri Pacific ...ins chugged to a halt last Fri..., President Truman said that ... government had exhausted ...arly all of its authority in the ...pute. The strike, called by 5,000 ...gineers and other key operating ...ployes of the nation's ninth ...gest rail system, raises again ... question of the place of the in...nction in labor disputes.

The present Taft-Hartley law ...es the government the right to ...e injunctions to halt strikes in ...rtain instances. The administra...n's proposed labor law would ...t continue this right.

In testing attitudes toward the ...junction principle, the institute ...t this question to a carefully ...stributed cross section of the ...ting population:

"If there is a strike in a public ...rvice industry—like gas and ...ectric light companies, telephone ...mpanies, or railroads—do you ...ink the government in Washing...n should or should not be al...wed to issue an injunction—...at is a court order to prevent ...e strike while it can be dis...issed?"

Should	79%
Should not	11
No opinion	10

Crippling strikes that threaten ...e nation's economy are ana...ema to the public. They believe ...ich strikes should be stopped ...hatever the legislative mecha...ism may be. Today's survey ...ows approval of government use ...f the injunction as a means to ...hieve the end result.

Manual workers and members ...f labor unions are somewhat less ...clined to favor the injunction ...rinciple than are other occupa...on groups as shown in the fol...wing table:

	Should	Should Not	No Opin.
UNION MEMBERS	74%	18%	8%
Prof. & Business	86	9	5
White-Collar	85	9	6
Farmers	79	10	11
Manual Workers	75	13	12

Although strikes of any kind ...re seldom popular with the pub...ic, previous institute surveys have ...hown that the public believes in ...unions and a majority approves of ...he basic principle of labor's right ...o strike.

One thing the public does not ...approve, however, is the idea of ...government unemployment bene...its being paid to men who go on strike.

This issue was put to voters in the institute's survey as follows:

"Do you think government unemployment benefits should or should not be paid to men who go on strike?"

Should	21%
Should not	68
No opinion	11

Manual workers and members of labor unions are considerably more in favor of government unemployment benefits than are other occupation groups. Farmers are most opposed as shown in the following table:

	Should	Should Not	No Opin.
UNION MEMBERS	38%	50%	12%
Prof. & Business	13	78	9
White-Collar	20	71	9
Farmers	10	80	10
Manual Workers	30	58	12

In general, there is considerably more sentiment among Democrats to pay government unemployment benefits to strikers than among Republicans. Independents tend to side with the Democrats on this issue, as the following vote by parties shows:

	Should	Should Not	No Opin.
Republicans	13%	78%	9%
Democrats	25	63	12
Independents	22	67	11

An earlier institute survey showed that another part of the present labor law also is approved by a substantial majority of union members questioned, as well as all voters. That is the idea of a "cooling-off" period to prevent strikes in vital industries. Eight out of ten union members (81 per cent) questioned by institute interviewers said they are in favor of the principle of the cooling-off period, compared with 87 per cent of all voters.

Truman Plans Short Vacation In Missouri At End Of Month

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—President Truman plans to take a "quickie" vacation back home at the end of September.

Mr. Truman has given the go-ahead for a flight to Kansas City, Sept. 29 for a four-day stay.

The main purpose of the trip is to attend a dinner the night of Sept. 29 for William M. Boyle, jr., the new chairman of the Democratic National committee.

Boyle, a former Kansas City police official, is to be honored on that occasion by Democrats and other home town folk.

Mr. Truman plans to remain over in Kansas City and nearby home town of Independence until Sunday, Oct. 2, and then fly back to Washington.

Aides said the President has abandoned all plans for a longer vacation until after Congress adjourns.

NEWS BRIEFS

Dewey Wright, 33, arrested Thursday by Chief Dep. Sheriff George Eubanks and Dep. Sheriff Earl Horton Friday waived extradition to Kansas, where he told sheriff's deputies he was wanted on a felony offense. He said he had escaped from a county jail at Syracuse. Sheriff Grady Harrist airmailed fingerprints of the man late Thursday to the sheriff at Syracuse, and sent a telegram today advising the waiver had been signed.

Resignation of Tom Everhart from the police department to enter other employment became effective this week, when he began work with T. R. Prideaux Lumber company. Everhart, of 2426 Twenty-fourth, had been with the department since his separation from the armed service five years ago as a captain.

A fine of $100 was levied in corporation court Friday morning against J. E. Duncan, 53, of Fort Worth, who pleaded guilty of reckless driving in connection with an incident here Thursday. A police patrolman said he had been advised by radio to watch for an approaching car and saw Duncan driving into Lubbock on East Broadway. The driver, according to police reports, collided with one side of the east underpass and was driving in such a manner as to endanger drivers of other vehicles.

No judgment probably can be awarded in the $35,000 damages action of W. E. Brownfield and others against Bud Olin Foreman, 99th district court officials said Friday. A jury, of which Ed Maeker was foreman had answered only some of the numerous special issues upon which the case had been submitted to it, it was explained. The case grew out of a collision Aug. 1 of two cars northeast of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil T. Overby of 909-A Ave. X have returned from Austin, where Overby, an assistant professor in civil engineering in Texas Tech, did work in the University of Texas, toward his Master's degree in civil engineering. He studied the summer before in the University of Michigan. Mrs. Overby, a deputy county clerk, has returned to her desk.

One hundred feet of green plastic water hose, valued at $18, has been stolen from Clarence Young of 3302 Twenty-fourth, the police were informed Friday.

WHY THE MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROAD STRIKE?

Over twenty years ago, the Congress of the United States passed the Railway Labor Act. It was hailed by union leaders as a model for the settlement of labor disputes.

THE LEADERS of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, Order of Railway Conductors, and the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen on the Missouri Pacific Railroad have refused to avail themselves of the peaceful means provided by this Act for settling their disputes. They insist that they be the sole umpire of their own disputes over the meaning of contracts.

There Is No Need For Strikes

With all of the available methods for the interpretation of contracts, there is no need for a strike or even a threat of a strike, but the leaders of these railroad unions have ignored the ordinary procedures established by law and insist upon imposing their own interpretations of their contracts by means of a strike.

The wheels have stopped rolling on the Missouri Pacific. They may stop rolling on other railroads at any time. Recently the Wabash Railroad was forced to discontinue operation for several days under similar circumstances.

What Are These Strikes About?

These strikes and strike threats are not about wage rates or hours. They result from disputes over the meaning of existing contracts. They cover claims for a full day's pay for less than a day's work, or for payments for services performed by others who were fully paid for the work done.

President Truman's Board Condemns Strike

There is an established legal method for handling disputes involving existing written contracts—just as there is such a method of settling any contract dispute which you may have in your daily life.

The President of the United States appointed a Fact Finding Board to investigate and adjust the Missouri Pacific dispute. This Board reported, in part, as follows:

"... it is with a deep sense of regret that we are obliged to report the failure of our mission. It seems inconceivable to us that a coercive strike should occur on one of the nation's major transportation systems, with all of the losses and hardships that would follow, in view of the fact that the Railway Labor Act provides an orderly, efficient and complete remedy for the fair and just settlement of the matters in dispute. Grievances of the character here under discussion are so numerous and of such frequent occurrence on all railroads that the general adoption of the policy pursued by the organizations in this case would soon result in the complete nullification of the Railway Labor Act. ..."

Obviously the railroads cannot be run efficiently or economically if the leaders of the unions ignore agreements or laws.

Provisions of the Law Which Are Disregarded

There are five ways under the Railway Labor Act to settle disputes over the meaning of contracts:

1—Decision by National Railroad Adjustment Board.
2—Decision by System Adjustment Board for the specific railroad.
3—Decision by arbitration.
4—Decision by neutral referee.
5—Decision by courts.

The Missouri Pacific Railroad has been and is entirely willing to have these disputes settled in accordance with the requirements of the Railway Labor Act. Regardless of this fact, the union leaders have shut down that railroad.

Innocent Bystanders Suffer Losses and Hardships

There are about 5,000 engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen on the Missouri Pacific. They are known as "operating" employes, and are the most highly paid of all employes on the nation's railroads, but their stike action has resulted in the loss of work to 22,500 other employes of the Missouri Pacific. In addition, they have imposed great inconvenience and hardship upon the public and the communities served by that railroad.

The Railway Labor Act was designed to protect the public against just such interruptions of commerce.

If these men will not comply with the provisions of the law for the settlement of such disputes, then all thinking Americans must face the question, "What is the next step?"

Westerners Wallop Childress Eleven, 47-0

Locals Rely On Smashing Ground Attack For Victory

By AL WILLIAMS
Avalanche Sports Writer

Lubbock High school opened its 1949 football season at Jones Stadium last night with a convincing 47-0 victory over the Bobcats from Childress in a non-district clash before 10,000 persons.

The Westerners used a devastating ground game against the overpowered Childress eleven, sweeping 410 net yards on the ground and never resorting to a pass as the heavier Lubbock linemen opened holes in the Childress forward wall to let the backs through repeatedly.

Lubbock scored in every quarter, getting seven points in the initial period, 13 in the second and fourth, and 14 in the third period. Childress had to content itself with seven net yards rushing and 31 through the air on five completed passes in 14 attempts.

Team To Contend With

Coach Pat Pattison's Hub City eleven marked itself as a team to contend with in District 3-AA play against the lighter Bobcat squad, partly verifying sports writers predictions of a top power in Texas schoolboy circles, but lots of work needs to be done before district play begins.

What could have been costly penalties never slowed the Westerner attack, the locals being setback 120 yards on 11 rule infractions.

The outcome was never in doubt after a brief lapse which gave Childress the ball on the first play from scrimmage when Quarterback Bobby Brown fumbled. Three plays and two penalties moved the Bobcats back seven yards from the original point of scrimmage and necessitated a punt which Brown took on his own five yard line and returned to the 25.

Pokes March To Score

The Cowpokes then put on a sustained march of 75 yards to score, with Wayne Stroud, Charlie Williams and Brown carrying the bulk of the load, Stroud going over from the one-yard line and then converting.

Stroud scored three touchdowns and kicked four extra-points to lead the scoring with 22 points for the night.

After kicking off to Childress, Lubbock again got the ball on a punt after the Bobcats were not able to score a first down, Brown returning the kick to the 25-yard line again.

Another drive, which went into the second quarter, took the Westerners to paydirt, the drive being marked by steady gains by Fullback Malcolm Young, who carried the ball four times in this series for 29 yards, and highlighted by Brown's 30-yard gallop for the score on a fake handoff around left end.

Brown set up the third score near the end of the second stanza with a remarkable 70 yard return of a Childress punt which ended when he was headed off on the Bobcat 10-yard stripe after faking nicely to shake off one tackler on the 15. Three plays later Stroud wiggled through left guard for the tally and kicked the point after.

On Lubbock's first play from scrimmage in the third quarter, after Stroud returned a punt 14 yards to the Bobcat 32, Young went through the middle of the line, cut sharply toward the left sideline and went all the way for a score, with Stroud converting to run the count to 27 to 0.

In this quarter Stroud again went on a touchdown gallop, this time lugging the leather 72 yards, on a neat handoff from Brown which was not solved until the ball-carrier was in the clear. Stroud again converted.

Lubbock substitutes played the last quarter, with Don Rawls on a nine-yard play through the middle of the line and Mack Taylor carrying over for the final score from 25-yards out.

Taylor's score came after a 63-yard dash by Tommy Fisher around left end. He broke into the clear after cutting inside the defensive right end but was overtaken from behind on the Childress 17. A penalty set the ball back to the 25, and Taylor took over from there.

Standouts in the Lubbock line were plentiful, with Ends Billy Wright and Garnet Reeves coming in for lot of credit for breaking up the spread formation of Coach Don Ezell's team. Reeves broke through several times to drop the ball carrier for a loss.

Douglas Ross, Joe Brock, Sammy Modrall and others did their share of grabbing the spotlight away from the backs, and Dale Young, Dean White and Wayne Noland as substitutes made the going tough for the Bobcats.

Next week Lubbock plays North Side of Fort Worth at Jones Stadium.

Portales Squad Drops Muleshoe Team, 20-0

PORTALES, N. M., Sept. 16 (Special)—A slashing running attack plus a few breaks carried the Portales, N. M., Rams to a 20-0 win over Muleshoe's outclassed, outweighed Yellowjackets before a crowd of 2,500 persons here tonight.

Portales scored in the first, second and fourth quarters. Phillips scored on a 40-yard run to break the ice, with Dunn running over the extra point. The second score came on a 12-yard gallop by Owens, who also ran over the one-pointer. The final tally was by Erwin, on a 63-yard run after taking a lateral from Phillips, who had intercepted a Muleshoe pass. The try for extra point failed.

The Yellowjackets' one serious threat, in the fourth quarter, ended on the Rams' 15-yard line when a series of successful passes was broken up by an interception.

Outstanding for the Yellowjackets, who counted 10 first downs to Portales' eight, were Bobby Goss and Ray Kersey, backs, while Phillips, a back, sparkled for the Rams.

Muleshoe played without its first-string quarterback, Ted Lawler, still out with a pre-season practice injury, and Joe Cummings, first string halfback, who suffered a broken leg in last week's win over Springlake.

The Yellowjackets play the Slaton Tigers at Muleshoe next Friday night.

Hamlin Upsets Spur Gridders, 26 To 0

HAMLIN, Sept. 16. (Special)—An underdog Hamlin eleven scored a ringing upset here tonight to down a heavier Spur team 26-0 in a non-district battle which was seen by some 2,000 people.

Coach Red Burditt's charges scored in the first three quarters and it was only against the Hamlin reserves that Spur made any headway. The first two touchdowns were scored by Quarterback Joe Allen Dean on short line plunges. Dean also passed to left End Asa Goodgame for another score.

Hamlin's team was outweighed 18 pounds per man and Coach Sam Hawks' visiting delegation was a four touchdown favorite before game time. Hamlin made 14 first downs to the visitors' three, all of which came late in the fourth quarter.

The visitors racked up a total of 94 yards net rushing to 181 yards for the winners. Spur's best play of the night was turned in by Clyde Blair late in the game when he broke in the clear for a 26-yard gain.

There are only seven players in the National League who have lifetime batting averages of more than .300.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16. (INS)— A daily double payoff that was one of the largest in Chicago's racing history was $2,420.60 for a $2 ticket today at Hawthorne Park.

There were nine $2 tickets and one $10 ticket sold on Joe's Tar and Big Muddy, the winning combination.

The holder of the $10 ticket received $12,103.

Littlefield Rolls Over Morton; New Deal Drubs Plains Eleven

Indians Lose 4-A Tussle, 39 To 6

By KENNETH MAY
Avalanche Sports Writer

LITTLEFIELD, Sept. 16 — The Littlefield Wildcats rolled easily over a badly outclassed Morton Indian team here tonight to carry off a 39-6 triumph in the District 4-A North conference opener.

Striking for two tallies in the first period and three in the second, Coach J. S. Fikes' boys kept the field hot in the last half as practically every squadman saw action.

Morton's lone tally came late in the third period on a fast-stepping run around left end from the Littlefield 25 by Lanar Burns, 135-pound Indian quarterback.

Outweighed by approximately 20 pounds in the starting lineups, the Indians lost their scalps to the Wildcats through sheer power as the hosts slammed over to pay dirt from all angles.

Littlefield's first tally came early in the first quarter on a 45-yard run by Fullback Tom Bales, one of the standouts of the game. Minutes later, following a pass interception, the 183-pound back broke loose from the mid-field stripe to carry the ball over for another six points.

Frank Gage, left half, went over for the extra point following the first TD, but Charles Askew failed on the second attempt.

Taking to the air in the second period, the Wildcats went over from the Morton three on a pass from Quarterback Don Crosley to End Johnny Edwards. Bales failed in the try for extra point and the score stood 19-0.

The Indians received the kickoff, carrying it to their own 42, but a 15-yard penalty for offensive holding plus a loss in scrimmage put them back to their 12-yard line. Forced to punt, the Indians were unable to stop a pass moments later from Crossley to Bales which put the Cats ahead 25-0. Askew's try for extra point was good.

The final Littlefield tally in the first half also was scored via the airways as Crossley connected with Right Half Stephen Brock for six points, then made good his try for extra point.

The Cats came back strong in the third period to shatter any last hopes the Indians may have had by smashing through for two first downs to the Morton seven. Giving the visitors no time to recover, Crossley crossed the double stripe on a quarterback sneak

Indians Defeat Tulsa, 5 To 3

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 16 (AP)—Oklahoma City—and the weather—dampened Tulsa's hopes tonight in the Texas league first round playoffs, 5 to 3.

The crucial contest, postponed twice because of wet grounds, was played in a light drizzle. It moved the Tribe two games up on the Oilers in their quest for a pennant finals berth. The clubs transfer to Oklahoma City for the next three tilts, if necessary.

The fired-up Indians did all of their damage in the initial innings. They belted nine hits for all five tallies against starter Frank Smith. A brilliant relief job by big Walker Cress was wasted as the hapless Oilers went down in order before George Zuverink's curves.

Local fans, 3,090 of them, were hopeful when Tulsa tied matters up in the first frame, but their optimism proved shortlived. Tulsa clutch hitting utterly failed to match expectations.

Big guns for Oklahoma City were Herb Conyers, Milt Nielsen and Zuverink himself whose single in the fourth to score George Scharein kept their rally alive.

Lion Eleven Racks Up 45-0 Decision

By CLIFF BLACKBURN
Avalanche Sports Writer

NEW DEAL, Sept. 16.— New Deal's Lions, who last week scored a surprising upset over Abernathy, romped over an outweighed Plains team here tonight, 45-0, before a crowd of about 1,000 fans in the first District 4-B conference clash for both teams.

The game, played here at the new $12,500 high school field, saw the rampaging Lions on the offensive from the kickoff to the final whistle. The heavier New Deal squad used its ten-pound edge per player to mark up 381 yards gained during the game and 17 first downs. The Lions were forced to punt only once. The lighter Cowboy team fought back with ten passes, completing seven for 61 yards. The total Cowboy yardage during the tilt was 111 yards. The Plains team made seven first downs.

The starting kickoff by Lion back Bumpass put the ball over the Cowboy goal. A play later, a fumble by Grayson was recovered by New Deal and the Lions started their scoring.

Right back Worley tore over the Cowboy right guard from the five after about seven minutes of play for the first Lion tally. The extra-point try failed.

As the quarter neared the end, New Deal began a drive from its own 46-yard line that six plays later saw Worley again smash over the right side of the Cowboy line for a touchdown. The Lions missed the extra point.

The first quarter closed with the Lions in possession of the ball following a Cowboy fumble deep in their own territory. Several first downs later the Lions sat on the Cowboy one-yard line. A quarterback sneak by fleet-footed Gentry on the next play rang up another Lion score. Substitute back Hobgood scored the extra point for the Lions.

Passes by both sides, a New Deal fumble and a 15-yard penalty against the Lions highlighted the

Matador Eleven Scores 7 To 0 Victory Over Silverton Squad

MATADOR, Sept. 16. (Special)—Coach Rafe Nabors' Matador eleven scored a 7-0 victory over a visiting Silverton team here tonight in a non-district clash witnessed by more than 500 people.

The lone score came midway in the second quarter on a 14-yard pass from quarterback Sappo Giesecke to right end Watson Townsend in the end zone. Garland Rattan scored the extra point on a line plunge.

Red Raiders To Meet Confident Texas Longhorns In Austin Today

35,000 Expected To Witness Clash

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

AUSTIN, Sept. 16. — Big, confident Texas university opens its 1949 football season here tomorrow afternoon in Memorial Stadium against once victorious Texas Tech with a crowd of 35,000 fans expected to be on hand, including Gov. Allan Shivers.

The Red Raiders, winners over Abilene Christian college 20-0 last week in their opening, are definite underdogs against the Longhorns, who have beaten them each time in their five meetings to date. Coach Blair Cherry has moulded a formidable varsity around 16 returning lettermen and a shot of promising sophomores.

TECH ON KFYO

Radio station KFYO will carry the Texas Tech-Texas football game today direct from Memorial Stadium in Austin under the sponsorship of Humble Oil and Refining company. Kern Tips and Alec Chesser will announce the game, which will go on the air at 1:50 p. m.

Warm Day Seen

Cloudy, but humid, weather greeted the Raiders on their arrival in Austin today and the weatherman, after a thorough examination of his instruments of prophetics, came up with a similar day Saturday. He said that light showers were expected in the morning, with a partially cloudy sky in the afternoon.

This was more than Tech coaches had hoped for, expecting it to be sunny and clear. Given cloud cover from the hot Austin sun at least is better than a steaming 100-degree afternoon usually experienced here.

Players complained of the humidness today in their brief workout, but the chief concern was over the number of colds in the squad. With a humid afternoon, vitality of the players nursing colds will be further sapped.

The Raiders arrived here midway of the afternoon and went directly to Memorial Stadium, where they held a light workout without pads. They returned to their hotel and a chalk talk was held tonight. The 38-man squad appeared keyed up for the game and ready to take on a Longhorn squad that will outweigh them by 18 pounds in the line.

Texas will field a team that wil average a total of 199 pounds per man, with most of the weight in the line. The Steers' mammoth line equals out to an average of 213 pounds, 18 pounds more than Tech's 195 average. The Steer backfield will be outweighed by the Raiders by six pounds. Texas hits a 175 average, Tech averages 181.

Campbell Heads Steers

Tech has penetrated Texas defense in only two of the five games so far. The Longhorns won 12-0 in 1928, when the series began. They nosed out Tech 12-6 in 1934 and took a 25-12 decision in 1937. Texas won the 1945 game in Austin 33-0 and two years later repeated by the same margin.

The Texas attack this year will be headed by Paul Campbell at quarterback, who failed to come up to the perfection of Bobby Layne, but who still was a good enough passer to rank second to SMU's Gil Johnson last year.

Borneman May Miss Game

Depth at both left and right halfbacks gives Coach Cherry strength in those two positions, with Billy Pyle, Perry Samuels, Randall Clay, Bubba Shands, Byron Townsend and Carl Mayes available for heavy duty.

Ray Borneman, who underwent a knee operation, probably will miss tomorrow's game, but his place will be filed adequately by Lewis Levine.

Coach Morgan has brought one of his larger and more capable squads to Austin today. He has heavy replacements in the line, with four centers, eight guards, seven tackles and seven ends. There are four quarterbacks, two left halfbacks, four right halfbacks, and two fullbacks.

Five Raider players were left behind, two of them regulars. Fullback J. W. Thompson and Tackle John Andrews are out until next week. Tackle Rex Pinson and Halfback Herman Bailey and Walter Maloney also have injuries that will keep them out.

Sherrill Tallies For Hornets

Lockney Scores Late To Beat Sudan, 20-19

By EMMETT SHOCKLEY
Avalanche Sports Writer

LOCKNEY, Sept. 16 — After a sluggish first half, Lockney came alive in the third period here tonight to nose out the visiting Sudan Hornets, 20-19.

A crowd of more than 1,500 saw the Longhorns play their first game on Mitchell-Zimmerman field, named after Clinton Mitchell and Milton Zimmerman, two former Lockney players killed during the last war.

It looked like Sudan's ball game at the half as the Hornets led, 13-0, but by the fourth quarter, it looked like Lockney just about had it with its 20-14 lead. Then Sudan marched back down the field, scoring a few seconds before the final gun, only to miss the kick for the extra point that would have tied the game.

Sudan's first score came after Lockney's C. B. Smart fumbled a Sudan punt, and Hornet linemen recovered it on the Lockney 40. In three plays, the ball was advanced to the 25, after which Tom Sherrill scooted around left end to Lockney's two-yard line. A five-yard penalty set the Hornets back to the eight, but Sherrill again skirted left end and went all the way. A center plunge for the point failed.

Sudan's second touchdown came in the second quarter, after the Hornets marched down the field 80 yards. Sherrill broke through off right tackle from Lockney's 20, reversed his field, and went for the touchdown behind good downfield blocking by teammates. Ross Hammock kicked the point.

Lockney's first touchdown came in the third quarter after a poor Sudan punt that ended on Sudan's 37. From there Dejuan Strickland sparked the drive to pay dirt with runs of 13 and 18 yards. Strickland carried the ball over from the three for the score. Ferguson converted.

Still in the third quarter, Smart intercepted a Sudan pass in midfield. A few plays later, Ferguson broke through for 37 yards and the tying touchdown. He then scored the point that put Lockney ahead 14-13.

Ferguson broke through a swarm of Hornets to go 11 yards for Lockney's final touchdown, after Strickland had brought the ball down to the Sudan 25 on a 22-yard jaunt from midfield, and a pass to Lockney end Charles Crouch set up the play.

But the Hornets weren't through. Taking Lockney's kickoff, they marched back downfield to score seconds before the final whistle. After Sherrill was stopped just short of the goal, Hammock made it on a line plunge through center. Hammock's try for the point that would have tied the game fell low and to the left.

The game ended after a kickoff to Lockney.

Lamesa Defeats Seminole, 20 To

LAMESA, Sept. 16.—Lamesa Golden Tornadoes tonight registered their second successive shu out of the 1949 grid campaign b turning back the Seminole Indian 20-0, before a somewhat disa pointing crowd of 2,500 fans.

Coach Bob Harrell's 3-AA clu although outweighed in the lin unleashed a crushing ground a tack that was too much for th visitors from District 5-A.

Sparked by Halfbacks Dic Echols and Delbert Dickenson an Fullback Larry Lattimore, the To nadoes hammered over touchdow in the second, third and final qua ters.

Lamesa held a distinct statist cal edge over Coach Gordo Wood's Indians, piling up 16 fir downs to the visitors' seven. Th Tornadoes amassed 230 yards o the ground and 72 through the ai while Seminole gained 119 yar rushing and 60 passing. Gilt-edg punting by End Jerry Phillips, wh averaged 41 yards per kick on fou tries, also helped the Lames cause.

A 38-yard punt by Phillips whic rolled dead on the Indian five yard line helped set up Lamesa first touchdown in the second quar ter. After failing to gain, Seminol punted out and Lattimore re turned 23 yards to the Indian 1 From there the Tornadoes ham mered on, with Echols finall sweeping left end for the counte Lattimore converted.

The Tornadoes received the sec ond-half kickoff and drove 65 yard to pay dirt without giving up th ball. After Lattimore ran the kick off back 35 yards to midfield, h and Echols sparked a drive whic ended with Quarterback Ronal Chapman plunging over from th one for the touchdown. Lattimor missed the try for point.

The final touchdown came in th closing period after a 78-yard sus tained march which began in th third quarter. Three long runs by Echols and two by Dickenson helped set up the tally, which came when Echols swept left end for the last five yards. Lattimore place kicked the extra point.

The Lamesa line, with Guard Jim Bob Boothe and Center Bil Hart playing leading roles, out played the heavier Seminole for wards most of the way.

Pecos Eagles Gain 26 To 13 Victory Over Andrews Squad

PECOS, Sept. 16. (Special)—Backs Jerry Fairley and George Christian made two touchdowns each to lead the Pecos Eagles to a 26-13 victory over the Andrews Mustangs here tonight before 3,000 fans in a District 5-A contest.

Byrne Hurls Loop-Leading Yanks To 4-1 Triumph Over Tiger Nine

Boston Trounces Brownies, 12 To 4

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. (AP)—Tommy Byrne granted only two singles today as he pitched the league-leading New York Yankees to a 4-1 triumph over the Detroit Tigers in the first of a two game series.

The triumph was the erratic southpaw's 15th of the season and it protected the Yanks' two and one-half game margin over the runner-up Boston Red Sox. The Sox thumped St. Louis, 12-4, in Boston.

Byrne, as usual, was his own worst enemy. Byrne walked six and fanned six, with the free tickets leading to the lone Detroit run.

Freddie Hutchinson also pitched well for the Tigers, yielding six hits in the six innings he worked. But two of the blows were doubles by Bobby Brown which drove home three runs.

Hereford Drubs Levelland, 6-0

HEREFORD, Sept. 16 (Special)—A strong Hereford eleven from District 1-A turned back a visiting Levelland team here tonight by a slim 6-0 margin before a crowd of 2,500 persons in a thrilling non-district battle.

Hereford's tally came in the fourth quarter with less than one minute of play remaining in the game on an eight yard pass from left-handed Quarterback Jack Stanton to End L. T. Hawks in the end zone. It climaxed a 91-yard sustained drive that was interrupted by three penalties.

During the first half neither team made a serious scoring threat.

Early in the third period Levelland staged a drive that went to the Hereford nine-yard line before it bogged down and the ball went over on downs.

Seventeen penalties marred the game. Hereford scored its touchdown on a fourth-down try. Outstanding play by Quarterback Don Wise, Fullback Durwood Johnson and Tackles Ed Byerley and Bobby Kennedy aided Levelland.

to end the scoring.

Coach Melvin Crawford's Indians opened the game themselves by scoring a first down in two plays from scrimmage after receiving the opening kickoff. Inability of intended pass receivers to get into the open severely hampered Morton's air attack, however.

Littlefield completed five of eight pass attempts, three of them for touchdowns. The Indians attempted 14 passes, also completing five. Both teams operated from the modified T formation.

Outstanding line performances were turned in by Bob Attaway and Floyd Pinkerton, tackle and guard, respectively for the Wildcats, while Bo Allsup, Indian guard and Jimmy Chapman, tackle, halted numerous running attempts.

Playing on a wet field before an estimated 2,600 spectators, the visiting Indians were hampered throughout the game with team injuries, none of them apparently serious. Morton also lacked good reserve strength, causing the Redskins to make little impression even against the Littlefield third string.

Crosbyton Defeats Tulia On Penetrations In 0-0 Tie

TULIA, Sept. 16 (Special)—Crosbyton and Tulia battled to a scoreless tie in a District 3-A game here tonight before 1,200 spectators but the visiting Chiefs were winners in the final analysis by besting the home Hornets on penetrations, 2-1.

Coach Cunningham's Chiefs were on Tulia's two-yard line before the end of the first half but lost the ball on a fumble.

Tulia's deepest penetration was to the visitors' 12-yard line. The Chiefs also led in first downs, 11-5.

Best playing for Coach Roger Smith's eleven was done by Charles Thomas, left end, and Paul Griffith, the backfield standout.

Ralls Youth Suffers Broken Leg In High School Grid Game

Max Preston, 16-year-old Ralls High School football player, was in Lubbock Memorial hospital Friday night for treatment of a fractured right leg suffered in the Ralls-Tahoka football game at Ralls. The leg was broken just above the right knee on the second play of the game.

Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Preston of Ralls, was brought to Lubbock in a Marr Funeral home ambulance from Ralls. He is a senior student and a letterman on the team.

Hospital attendants reported he was resting well late last night.

Sundown Nips O'Donnell

(Special To The Avalanche)

SUNDOWN, Sept. 16 — The Sundown Roughnecks took a 20-0 game from the O'Donnell Eagles in a non-conference Class A tilt played before a crowd of 2,000 here tonight.

Scoring in the first, third and fourth quarters, the Roughnecks, coached by Jess Davis, never had to punt as they stayed in control all the way.

Sundown made 13 first downs while the Eagles, coached by W. D. Jeter, made eight. The Roughnecks piled up 206 yards rushing and 92 by passing, compared to the O'Donnell figures of 95 rushing and 65 passing.

Troy King, left end and outstanding Roughneck lineman, set up the first touchdown by taking a pass from Quarterback Neil Pearcy on the 50-yard line and carrying 35 yards to the 15. Halfback Bobby Clark later went over from four yards out. R. E. Hensley, right guard, placekicked the extra point.

Pearcy was next across the pay line, going over from the three after a series of line plays moved the ball downfield in the third quarter. Hensley missed the conversion attempt.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Roughnecks moved to the O'Donnell eight on another series of line plays, with Clay Jones, fullback, going over to score. Substitutes finished the game for Sundown.

Longest run from scrimmage was a 17-yarder by Pearcy.

Clear weather favored the game, but the grass was wet enough to make the ball slick.

Farwell Rallies To Down Friona, 25-6

FARWELL, Sept. 16 (Special)—Farwell's Steers came from behind to down the visiting Friona Chiefs, 25-6, here tonight before 850 fans.

Coach Raymond Cook's Chiefs made their only score in the initial period after the Steers lost the ball on their own one-yard line on a bad snapback from center. Quarterback Tommy Lacewell carried over on the next play.

Bobby Poteet, combination end and halfback for the victors, started the Farwell attack in the second quarter when he tossed a 20-yard pass to Don Ford for a touchdown. Melvin Terry then passed to Ford for the extra point.

Poteet scored in the same stanza when he intercepted a Friona pass and raced 40 yards to the visitors goal. He made another touchdown in the third frame on a 30-yard pass from Terry.

Jerry Pool closed the scoring in the final period on a 65-yard off-tackle scamper.

Coach Louis Purvis' eleven made 16 first downs to the Chiefs' five. It was the first District 3-B conference game for the Steers, and their second win of the season.

Ropesville Eagles Gain 14-0 Triumph Over Petersburg Team

PETERSBURG, Sept. 16 (Special) — Ropesville's favored Eagles pushed over two last-quarter touchdowns tonight for a 14-0 triumph over the Petersburg Buffaloes in a District 4-B football game played before some 300 fans.

An aerial attack featuring the passing of Kenneth Means and receiving of Glenn Hewlett helped set up both Eagle touchdowns. Means and Hewlett scored one six-pointer each, and also added one extra point apiece on line plunges.

Coach Joe King's Buffaloes battled the Eagles on fairly even terms, getting four first downs to five for Coach Bryan Boatmun's Ropesville crew, but could not withstand the last-period Eagle onslaught.

Fullback Kenneth Meadow, Halfback Paul Main and End Buddy Saffle were outstanding for Petersburg, which was making its 1949 debut.

If was the season's first triumph for Ropesville, as the Eagles fell before potent Kress in their opener a week ago.

University Of Houston Meets William And Mary Tonight

HOUSTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—University of Houston opens its bid for big-league football recognition tomorrow night against strong William & Mary, Southern conference power.

A crowd of 20,000, largest in four years of football on the Houston campus, is expected to see the big, husky Cougar squad tackle its first major intersectional opponent.

William & Mary coach Rube McCray was to bring his 38-man traveling squad into town late this afternoon by plane in time for a brief workout.

McCray will send his single wing attack, which last year tied mighty North Carolina, 7-7, against the T formations of coach Clyde Lee of the Cougars.

The lowest batting average ever to win the National league championship was the .320 of Larry Doyle in 1915.

Cardinals Stretch League Lead With 7-5 Win Over Boston Club

Pirates Take 9-2 Win From Dodgers

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16 (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals stretched their National league lead to two and a half games tonight when they downed the hapless Boston Braves, 7 to 5, while the second place Brooklyn Dodgers were being drubbed by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

PIRATES GAIN 9-2 WIN OVER BROOKLYN DODGERS

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates made the pennant hopes of the Brooklyn Dodgers look a little dimmer tonight as they battered three Flatbush hurlers for 10 hits and a 9-2 win. Three walks issued to Ralph Kiner helped with the Dodger downfall. Bill Werle went all the way for Pittsburgh, scattering seven hits equitably over the distance.

Ralls Takes 20-0 Win Over Tahoka

RALLS, Sept. 16. (Special)—The Ralls Jackrabbits tonight racked up their first win of the infant football season by blanking Tahoka's Bulldog's, 20-0, before some 1,200 fans.

Coach Doc Brantley's Jackrabbits, representing District 3-A in this nonconference clash with the Bulldogs, of 4-A South, scored two touchdowns in the opening quarter and never were in serious trouble. They added their final marker in the last period.

Cecil Richardson personally accounted for a net rushing gain of 245 yards as he paced a Ralls offensive that amassed 460 yards on the ground and in the air for a total of 14 first downs.

Coach Jim Foust's Tahokans gained 80 yards for six first downs.

Fullback Bobby Gustin, who himself gained 150 yards during the game, scored Ralls' opening touchdown on a five-yard plunge over guard. Quarterback J. B. Morrison passed to Ken Wofford for the extra point.

Richardson galloped 15 yards around right end for the second Jackrabbit counter later in the first quarter.

The final touchdown came in the closing period on a 21-yard pass play from Morrison to Dwane Bolander. C. H. Verett, jr., ran around right end for the extra point.

Tackles Bailey Noble and Dean Henderson were outstanding in the Ralls line.

Crowell Scores Late To Defeat Paducah

PADUCAH, Sept. 16. (Special)—The visiting Crowell Wildcats scored two final period touchdowns to defeat the Paducah Dragons 12-0 on a rain-soaked field here tonight before 2,000 spectators.

Coach Red Amonnett's Wildcats took advantage of a poor punt from the Dragon's three to set up their first score, which came on a pass caught by F. L. Ballard.

A few minutes later John Sanders intercepted a Paducah pass and ran 40 yards for the final touchdown.

The visitors made nine first downs against their outweighed opponents. However, Crowell suffered more penalties than Coach O. M. Isbell's crew. The Wildcats were set back by the officials six times for a total of 60 yards while the Dragons only lost 20 yards on two penalties.

Right End H. A. Lee, Center Donald Buckley and Left Guard Calvin Luttrell were outstanding in the loser's line while Quarterback Joe Clark and Fullback Pat Green turned in performances in the backfield.

Ralph Todd, Billy Lynch and Ballard were the stars in Crowell's backfield and Jim Paul Norman gave an outstanding performance at his left end position.

The Dragons, who lost last week to Chillicothe, 7-18, play their District 3-A game at Crosbyton Sept. 30.

Kansas Jayhawkers Slated To Meet Texas Christian Today

LAWRENCE, Kas., Sept. 16 (AP)—The Kansas Jayhawkers will meet Texas Christian on a dry field under partly cloudy skies tomorrow.

That was the outlook today as the two teams prepared to get the 1949 football season off to a start here tomorrow.

A crowd of some 25,000 fans is expected to be on hand for the seventh meeting of the two teams.

Springlake Beats Injury-Ridden Whitharral Grid Squad, 31 To 0

WHITHARRAL, Sept. 16. (Special)—Springlake trounced an injury-ridden Whitharral team, 31-0, on a muddy field here tonight in a district 3-B game before 300 fans. Several Whitharral players were injured in an automobile accident Monday. The visitors made 10 first downs to the losers' five.

Olton Dumps Spade 28-0 In 3-B Game

SPADE, Sept. 16 (Special)—Olton's Mustangs opened their bid for the District 3-B title this afternoon with a 28-0 triumph over Spade's Longhorns in the first eleven-man football game ever played here.

After being held to a 2-0 lead in the first quarter, Coach T. M. Cox's Olton crew broke loose for four touchdowns in the next two periods to sew up the decision.

First downs favored Olton, 15 to four, but the Mustangs were slowed somewhat by a total of 90 yards in penalties against them.

Olton scored an early safety when Don Prentice, of Spade, was tackled behind his team's goal line as he attempted to get off a punt.

In the second stanza, Huck Nicols, the Mustangs' offensive ace of the day, went 10 yards around right end for a touchdown. Later in the same period, Gerald Allcorn tallied for Olton on a 15-yard end sweep, with Jimmy Millsap kicking the extra point to make the score 15-0 at halftime.

Don Franks scored two third-quarter touchdowns. He made the first after taking a 35-yard pass from Ed Burrus and sprinting the remaining 10 yards to pay dirt. The second came on an eight-yard plunge through the middle of the line. Franks also booted one extra point.

End Garland Rose played an outstanding defensive game for Olton, while Prentice was the all-round standout for the losers.

SOUTHWORTH TO RETURN

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 16. (AP)—Billy Southworth, absent from public view since retirement as manager of the Boston Braves in midseason, said today he would return to his old job next season.

Post Bows To Floydada

(Special To The Avalanche)

FLOYDADA, Sept. 16—Floydada's Whirlwinds scored twice in the last quarter here tonight before 2,500 fans to erase a first quarter touchdown by the Post Antelopes and win, 13-6.

Coach L. F. Gresham's Whirlwinds racked up 12 first downs to seven for the Antelopes, coached by Francis Bingham. Post gained a total of 169 yards rushing and lost 42 yards to the hard-charging Floydada line. Floydada piled up 148 yards, losing 24, in the non-conference Class A game.

The post team held a 15-pound weight edge in the line, with the backfields evenly matched in size.

Post powered 78 yards in seven plays after the opening kickoff, with Jack Kirkpatrick plunging over from one yard out to score. Kirkpatrick's attempted placement was blocked by Reese Grubbs, outstanding tackle for the Whirlwinds.

In the second quarter, Floydada moved to the Post one. Fullback Wayne Robertson plunged over the goal line, fumbled and Post recovered for a touchback.

Floydada found the range late in the third quarter, and a drive that started at midfield ended in the fourth quarter when Left Half Bob Finley scored from the one-yard line. Finley sparked the drive with his passing and running. He failed to make the extra point on a running attempt.

The final and winning touchdown came with five minutes remaining when Post was forced to kick. Finley gathered in the ball on the mid-field stripe and returned 10 yards.

On the first play from scrimmage, Robertson started around right end, cut back over tackle and went all the way behind good downfield blocking. Finley kicked the point from placement.

Although the Whirlwind field was in good shape underfoot, wet grass made for a slick ball. Floydada fumbled six times and Post once. In the recovery, Post got five and Floydada two.

The Whirlwind center, Aubrey Guthrie, was a demon on defense, along with Bill Haney and Grubbs, tackles. Outstanding linemen for Post were Calvin Storie, all-stater last year, and Maurice Stelzer. Norman Cash carried the load in the Antelope backfield.

Finley punted three times for a sparkling 60-yard average and completed 8 of 16 passes that netted 100 yards. Post completed one of 10 passes for six yards, and each team intercepted once.

Abernathy Antelopes Down Slaton, 13-6

SLATON, Sept. 16 (Special)—Coach Boyce Box's Abernathy Antelopes bounced back tonight from last week's defeat by New Deal to down Slaton's Tigers 13-6 before 1,200 fans here.

Don Miller put the visitors in the lead in the initial quarter when he slipped through left tackle and raced 74 yards for a touchdown. Lloyd Snodgrass converted.

The Tigers launched a 56-yard drive in the second period and Halfback Ed Willis made the final three yards to paydirt on a smash over left tackle.

Abernathy put the game on ice in the final frame when Snodgrass circled right end and scampered 87 yards for a touchdown.

The visitors, who were slightly heavier in the line, made nine first downs on the muddy field while Coach Clarence Tillery's eleven made 14.

But the Tigers were hurt considerably by fumbles, losing the ball eight times.

Leon Moore, left tackle for Slaton, and Loper, left tackle for the Antelopes, were the outstanding linemen. Snodgrass and Miller were the mainstays in Abernathy's backfield while Willis and Carl (Curly) Lewis turned in top performances for Slaton.

New Talks Set In Steel Fight

rive at a "general formula" which can serve as a base for practical decisions by the industry and the million member union.

Ching said that he was prompted to issue the mediation call because of the "debate by telegraph" which has gone on since Saturday between union and steel officials.

The steel crisis brought several other developments today:

Steelmakers Balk

1. Murray sent telegrams to 57 companies which appeared before the steel fact finding board. He asked them to accept the recommendations of the board that they pay pension and insurance costs. He said if they will, contract negotiations can resume promptly.

2. Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp., the nation's fourth largest steel producer, replied it believes "good faith bargaining" does not permit one side to exact prior commitments from the other party "as a condition precedent to sitting down to bargain."

3. Bethlehem Steel Co. also replied to Murray that it is convinced "neither side should attach conditions to its willingness to discuss in collective bargaining the problems that are in controversy." It renewed its offer "to resume collective bargaining with your unions."

Strike Moves Underway

4. Murray ordered his potent wage policy committee to meet in Pittsburgh next Wednesday at 8 a. m. (CST). The committee presumably will decide the union's future course of action.

5. Murray fired off another telegram to President Benjamin F. Fairless of United States Steel in which he again asked Fairless to open contract talks on Murray's conditions. He repeated his charge "Big Steel" is trying to force a strike and again said U. S. Steel and other companies would be responsible for any work stoppage.

6. Inland Steel accused the union of "refusal to bargain" and said Murray's insistence, on accepting the recommendations was "a refusal to comply with the law."

7. In Cleveland, union district director William Donovan ordered 17 union locals to begin strike preparations. Similar moves are under way in the Youngstown, O., area.

Bomber Crash Probed

become airborne again.

"By that time, the '36 had reached the end of the runway and Major Husband horsed back on the stick to keep the nose high for the impact with the water. But the nose did not stay high. The plane hit the water, nose first. The nose took a terrific jolt. All four missing men were in the nose.

Accident Regrettable

"It was a regrettable accident, but an accident we all knew would come some day. When men must handle machines, whether the machines be bicycles or aircraft, you must expect accidents. We have flown the B-36 two years without a previous serious accident, more than 5,000 hours without serious trouble."

The world's largest land based bomber was built to carry a 10,000-pound bomb load 10,000 miles. From U. S. bases it could hit any target anywhere in the world and return.

The eight survivors were rescued from the lake and top of the ship. They were interviewed this morning.

"She came up and was airborne for a few seconds—five or 10 feet off the ground," Major Husband, of Fort Worth, said, "when all at once she settled back in. We tried to throw the propellors into reverse and brake, but it was too late. The only thing to do was to hold the nose up and try to ditch in the lake."

Instruments All Checked

The co-pilot, Maj. John H. Keene, Fort Worth, said: "We all knew what was coming and started getting out."

"Every panel, every instrument checked perfect before we moved out," Flight Engineer English, of Sartell, Minn., said. "Everything was normal. I was washed several hundred feet from the plane and was swimming hard when a rescue boat arrived."

The pajama-clad survivors chorused "damn right" when a reporter asked if any had been scared. All seemed to be in fine condition.

The only bandage in evidence was on the left hand and wrist of Staff Sgt. James Bradshaw of Elysian Fields, Tex.

Technical Sgt. J. R. Shumate of Red Springs, Tex., said he had talked to his wife. "I don't know why she's so worried. After all, I'm not hurt."

Staff Sgt. Jack Allen of Weatherford, Technical Sgt. Harry Holloway, jr., of Mongongahela, Pa., and Staff Sgt. Quentin Freed of Youngstown, Ohio, said they were rescued by a boat.

General Ramey said civilian witnesses reported one of the engines appeared to be on fire, but he said that even with one engine on fire the B-36 should have had enough power for the takeoff.

munism in the Far East.

From the White House, Acheson returned to the State department to receive in steady succession five of the foreign ministers of smaller nations who have come here for the Atlantic alliance session tomorrow.

All 12 pact nations will be represented by their foreign ministers in the council meeting, diplomats reported, except Iceland.

The 15 pennants won by the New York Yankees since they won their first one in 1921 make up a major league record total.

Strange Weed

found on top of a terrace recently made on Pearson's pasture. Sizes range from a few inches to two feet in height. The plants are covered with burrs and thorns from top to bottom. They appear to be hardy and fast-growing.

The thorny burrs resemble cockleburrs, except that they are smaller, and appear to be sharper and "stickier." They are all over the weed.

These burrs are supplemented by long, slender thorns, grouped in threes, emanating where the leaf attaches to the main stem of the plant.

Source Not Known

The leaves are light silvery color underneath with a hairy growth on the under side. The leaves are oblong with three lobes.

Pearson is at a loss to explain their appearance in his pasture. He hasn't done any seeding, so he knows the strange weed didn't arrive in seed.

The only possible explanation he sees is that some cattle he has bought may have brought some of the burrs in on their tails.

He displayed the weed widely in the Lorenzo section as well as in Lubbock. No one appears to have seen it before.

"I have lived here since 1918, and I have traveled all over the United States and in France, and I never saw it before," Pearson said.

Dr. Young and Dr. Yocum, at the college, said they plan more study of the plant. Their preliminary investigation shows wide distribution through the United States, but neither they nor other faculty members have ever seen the plant in this area before.

Dr. Young agreed that the plant could constitute a serious menace to cotton if it spreads.

Early Destruction Advised

"The best way to control it would be to kill it before it seeds," he said. "We advised Mr. Pearson to try 2-4-D on it, since the chemical would not harm grass in the pasture. However, 2-4-D could not be used in a cotton field."

He pointed out that the common cockleburr is susceptible to 2-4-D.

It is improbable that the weed is toxic, but most animals would shy away from the thorns and burrs anyway, Dr. Young said.

Air Force-Navy Feud

liam F. (Bull) Halsey.

He was Rear Adm. Ellis M. Zacharias, whose broadcasts to Japan were credited with hastening the end of the war.

The Navy secretary directed all commands to submit controversial views on the issue to him. His office emphasized that publication or suppression of such views would be entirely up to Matthews.

Statements Deplored

Matthews' statement said the recent "series of public statements beginning and resulting from" Crommelin's Saturday blast against unification has been "a source of embarrassment to the Navy department."

Halsey, colorful leader in the war against Japan, has been the outstanding Navy figure to back up Crommelin to date.

Zacharias said he entertains the "same fears as those voiced by Capt. Crommelin." He joined Crommelin in the charge that the general staff has sought to wrest the military establishment from civilian control, and added:

"Now it has other ambitions which I consider definitely prejudicial to our future security."

Zacharias asserted that Chairman Vinson (D-Ga)) of the House Armed Services committee "can make one of his greatest contributions" if he continues the B-36 investigation "in the direction in which it originally started."

Jobs Changed

The B-36 inquiry, initially intended to probe the worth of the Air Force's "intercontinental" bomber, thus far has inquired only into charges that Air Secretary Symington and Defense Secretary Johnson conspired to place huge awards for the warplane. Both were cleared by the investigating committee.

The investigation reopens Oct. 5.

Crommelin, meanwhile, was working at the third assignment he has held in two days. Thursday morning he was still in the joint chiefs of staff organization. At noon he was named, apparently without Matthews' knowledge, chief of naval air personnel, a post normally filled by an admiral.

When Matthews learned of the announcement, he "blew up," cancelled the assignment, and placed Crommelin in the air warfare section under a rear admiral. Crommelin's only comment was:

"Any of these jobs will be all right with me."

water dunking, of long questioning, of standing 24 hours in a cell without room to sit or kneel and of "having the hell slapped out of me." He said he was "questioned day and night" for the first 16 days of his arrest.

Slapped By Officer

"They asked me about guns, tanks and troops of the American Army and promised that if I told them they would let me go," he said. "When I refused to answer a high-ranking Russian officer slapped me in the face.

"After that they took my clothes away from me and gave me the cold water treatment. That was in February and they took me into a room naked and stood me knee-deep in ice water for 24 hours.

The British soldiers also told of ice immersions and other torture. They reported a fourth British soldier still is in the Soviet prison.

illegal possession of a pistol and aggravated assault.

Named were J. E. Hughes and Joe Burleson.

Suffers Minor Wound

Burleson suffered a gunshot wound in one leg at Slaton late Thursday. Hughes was accused of having threatened Burleson with a pistol, and Burleson likewise was accused of having threatened Hughes with a pistol. Both bonds were made returnable instanter. Date for trial of the cases has not been set.

County Attorney Waggoner Carr announced meanwhile that his office had filed suit asking forfeiture of a $500 peace bond posted recently by Burleson.

City police Friday were looking for intruders who entered the Asbury Methodist church at Twentieth and Ave. T about noon, ransacking the kitchen and the pastor's study. C. E. Reynolds, assistant pastor, told officers that sugar and coffee had been scattered about the kitchen, and ink poured over the floor and furniture in the study. Two coats, the pockets stuffed with paper spoons and candles taken from the kitchen and a cap apparently left by the culprits, were found at the scene.

Church officials said the front door of the building was usually left unlocked during the noon hour, but it was believed entrance had been gained through a rear window.

A 19-year-old Lubbock girl who was arrested by police late Thursday after she had allegedly received narcotics from a younger girl, remained in jail Friday in lieu of $100 bond. Her younger companion, 16, was turned over to juvenile authorities.

Police said a quantity of "red birds," a police name for a type of mild narcotics, were found on the 16-year-old when she was taken into custody at a cafe in the 1100 block College Avenue.

of veterans, but high in comparison to that expected in some schools.

Besides that number, there were an additional 75 seeking to enter the college under the state Hazlewood act, which provides free tuition in state schools to veterans of either world war.

H. A. Anderson, veterans coordinator, also revealed there will be a few additional persons on the veteran payroll as soon as their papers are cleared through the VA office.

Classes were to start this morning with additional courses in 20 subjects being offered for the first time. Collegians with cars were also faced with a better parking prospect due to the recent completion of several all-weather parking lots on the campus.

Congressman Proposes Study Of Possible New Capital Site

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—Rep. Patman of Texas proposed today that Congress look into the idea of shifting the nation's capital city westward or establishing a No. 2 capital beyond the Mississippi.

He introduced a resolution which would authorize the House Rules committee to study the question.

Special consideration, Patman said, should be given to a site west of the Mississippi, particularly in the Colorado area, because the East is vulnerable "in an atomic age."

Some other countries have two capitals, Patman said, and there is no reason many government agencies couldn't be established elsewhere than in Washington.

Funeral Services Scheduled For I. R. Grundy, Of Floydada

FLOYDADA, Sept. 16 (Special) —Funeral services are tentatively set for 3 p. m. Saturday in the First Methodist church here for I. R. Grundy, 64, grain trucking business owner and resident here since 1931, who died Thursday at Cortez, Colo., after an illness of two years.

Rev. R. Huckabee will officiate. Harmon Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Cannon, her sister-in-law, died at the hospital at six p.m.

According to Highway patrolmen and the Hutchinson county sheriff, the accident occurred when the Cannon car made a left turn across the highway in the path of the oncoming car driven by Osborne. The Osborne car was going north and the Cannon car south at the time of the collision.

No charges have been filed, investigating officers reported.

Osborne's injuries were described as involving his chest and left leg. Britton suffered hip and chest injuries.

Minton Funeral home and Blackburn-Shaw-Brown ambulances brought the injured to North Plains hospital.

The body of Mrs. Wilson Cannon is at Blackburn-Shaw-Brown funeral home. The body of Mrs. C. W. Cannon is at the Minton funeral home.

BORGER MAN KILLED IN AUTO-TRUCK COLLISION

BORGER, Sept. 16 (AP) — Melvin Edward Thompson, 24, Borger, was killed today in the head-on collision of a car and cattle truck in the early morning fog near Stinnett, Tex.

Fred Weldon, 22, Borger, and Leonard Dewey, Phillips, were critically injured. Glynn Weant, 29, Spearman, driver of the truck was not hurt. The accident happened five miles north of Stinnett on Highway 117.

Insurance Formula

term insurance and converted policies, but added that no payments will be made for periods of lapse.

Gray said the payments are to be computed up to the cut-off year of 1948.

The VA said that veterans could figure their insurance from the month in which they took it out until the same month in 1948. In other words if a veteran took his insurance out in September 1943, he would figure his total to the same month in 1948.

Veterans who were 40 years and under when the policy was taken out will receive 55 cents monthly per each $1,000 of insurance carried.

Rebate Basis Is Given

Here is the basis for figuring payments in other age groups:

Forty-one years, 52 cents; 42 years, 49 cents; 43 years, 46 cents; 44 years, 43 cents; 45 years, 40 cents; 46 years, 37 cents; 47 years, 34 cents; 48 years, 31 cents; 49 years, 28 cents; 50 years, 25 cents; 51 years, 24 cents; 52 years, 23 cents; 53 years, 22 cents; 54 years, 21 cents; and 55 years and over, 20 cents.

Gray said the payments will be the same for both term and converted policies, but he added that the proposed scale does not apply to insurance on a permanent plan which has been surrendered for a reduced paid-up amount.

Payment of the benefits will begin after the first of the year, although veterans must send in forms now being distributed at post offices to become eligible.

The dividend, to be paid before next June 30, is not subject to income tax. Veterans must apply for it, and about three-fourths of them have already done so.

over in other parts of the state, the Associated Press reported.

Many places in West, East, Central and North Texas reported rain during the day.

Heavy In Laredo Area

The wet weather of the past four days held up harvesting of bountiful cotton crops in both East and West Texas. However, the showers haven't been hard enough to do great damage, and the moisture was welcomed by ranchers and grain farmers.

Amarillo in the Panhandle, had only .01 inch of rain Friday and by afternoon skies were cleared and the temperature had jumped from the seventies to a maximum of 82.

Del Rio, a Mexican border town in Southwest Texas, had the heaviest rain—3.20 inches. Light rains fell at Lufkin, Bryan, Victoria, Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Amarillo, Austin, Big Spring, Dallas, Houston, San Antonio, Waco, Beaumont, For Worth, Palestine, Galveston, Laredo and Ozona.

Alice's 101 degrees was the day's top temperature. The low maximum was 70 at Wichita Falls. A few South Texas temperatures were in the nineties, but most of the state's readings were in the seventies and eighties.

The Weather bureau predicted partly cloudy skies with occasional showers in both East and West Texas Saturday.

Housewives Should Learn To Read Labels, Specialist Says

COLLEGE STATION, Sept. 15. (INS)— Ability to read labels and understand what they say is an art more housewives should know, says Miss Myrtle Murray, Texas A&M home marketing specialist.

It isn't always easy to judge quality, especially of canned foods, Miss Murray reports. This is true even when the product is canned in glass but when the product is in a tin container, there is nothing to go by except the information on the label.

To buy wisely, she adds, the consumer must know four things: her own needs, how much money she has to spend, the price of the article and its quality.

The answers to the first three are easy enough but the fourth sometimes stumps homemakers. That is where the informative label does its job.

A bulletin (C-263—Be Wise—When You Buy) gives her ideas on the different types of labels and what they mean to the consumer.

Rites Scheduled For J. J. Griffin, McAdoo

RALLS, Sept. 16 (Special) — Funeral services for J. J. Griffin, 58, of McAdoo, a resident of Crosby county for 34 years, will be conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday in the Methodist church at McAdoo.

Mr. Griffin died late Friday in the hospital at Crosbyton.

Services will be conducted by Rev. Frank Beauchamp, pastor of the First Methodist church at Littlefield, assisted by Rev. J. P. Cole, pastor at McAdoo. Marr Funeral home of Ralls is in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include the wife, three sons, Rev. Waid Griffin of Follett, Rev. Lee Griffin of Buda, and J. J. Griffin, jr., of McAdoo; two daughters, Mrs. Lyle Paschall of Lorenzo, and Mrs. Billy Brownlow of Hereford; 12 grandchildren; two brothers, Will of Floydada and Bob Griffin of Oklahoma City; and three sisters, Mrs. Gertie Key of Hereford, Mrs. Maggie Lietveldt of Colorado Springs, Colo., and Mrs. Martha Pool of Coolidge.

Pallbearers will be S. J. Callahan, R. R. Jones, T. R. Jones, L. C. Hickman, H. L. Fewell and A. G. Cox.

U. S. National Tennis Champion Richard (Pancho) Gonzales rose from 17th ranking in 1947 to the top spot last year.

The last foreigner to win the U. S. Open was Ted Ray of England who triumphed at the Inverness Club in 1920.

Four times the World Series has been played over the five-out-of-nine game route.

Carried Operators' Fight

The contract between the United Mine Workers and the operators ran out this summer. Changing his previous policy of "no contract, no work," Lewis put miners east of the Mississippi on a three-day week. The idea apparently was to reduce stocks of mined coal and improve his bargaining position.

The southerners countered with: "No contract, no royalty payments."

Van Horn, a veteran negotiator for coal concerns dealing with UMW President Lewis, carried the brunt of the coal operators' fight in the first place against making any payments out of the $100,000,000 a year welfare fund except on an "actuarily sound" basis.

Most of the decisions of the trustees were taken with him dissenting.

He had contended all along that the fund should be spent only on a limited basis, in accordance with each miner's equity and with adequate reserves against future benefits.

Hale Center Drops 6-0 Game To Kress

KRESS, Sept. 16 (Special) — Kress's Kangaroos from District 2-B edged a stubborn Hale Center eleven from District 3-B by a 6-0 score before a crowd of approximately 900 persons here tonight.

Kress's lone score came midway in the first quarter when Halfback Buster Durell went wide around right end. The extra point conversion failed.

Coach Ralph Huntington's Hale Center team made two first downs while the winners racked up a total of 15. The losers, who were a three-touchdown underdog before game time, made four desperate goal line stands to hold the potent Kangaroos to their lone tally.

Hale Center's Jerry Johnson turned in a brilliant game at quarterback on defense as did Fullback Charles Mason from Kress.

New Deal came out stronger than ever in the third frame and halted the Cowboys in mid-field. Another Lion scoring offensive, sparked by a 37-yard run around end by Worley, put the ball far into Cowboy territory once more. Substitute back Wilkins picked up seven yards with a line plunge and landed on the Plains seven for a first down. A Lion fumble brought the ball back to the 15 and slowed down the attack momentarily. The next play, however, saw Thiel, another substitute back, race around end to score for the Lions. The extra point was good on a pass to left end McMenamy.

The frantic Cowboys took to the air, completing two tosses, one for ten yards, and missing another. It was one of the few advances made by the yellow-jersied Cowboys during the entire game.

The Lions took possession of the ball and started another march to the Plains goal line. A spot pass from Gentry to Harkey and three first downs brought the Lions to the Plains 20. Wilkins drove 15 yards further into the Cowboy scoring zone and scored on the following play on a hand-off from Gentry. Gentry carried the ball over center for the extra point to bring the New Deal tally to 33 as the quarter ended.

In the final quarter, Cowboy Coach Bill Adams watched Herb Prior's second and third string Lions romp about the field and score almost at will. A 40-yard Lion march ended when Covey cracked through center for the sixth New Deal score. A pass play for the extra point failed to click.

Another desperate but belated passing attack by the Cowboys saw three successful tosses out of four gain yardage but a fumble ended the frantic bid for a touchdown.

The Lions ended up on the Cowboy 20 after a lateral to Harkey. A pass from Gentry to Harkey a few plays later was good for the final New Deal score. The game ended with the Lions trying and failing to make the extra point.

NEW DEAL	13	7	14	12	—46
PLAINS	0	0	0	6	— 6

Scoring summary—New Deal touchdowns: Worley went over right guard from the five to score and later from the four went over right tackle to score again in the 1Q. Both conversion attempts failed. In the 2Q a quarterback sneak by Gentry from the one; extra point run over by Hobgood. Thiel raced 17 yards around end to score in the 3Q. The extra point was made on a pass to McMehamy. Wilkins took a hand-off on the five and scored again in the quarter. Gentry ran the ball over center for the conversion. In the 4Q Covey went over center to score but the attempt for the extra point failed to click. A pass from Harkey to Gentry was good for the final New Deal tally. An attempt to run the extra point was not successful.

Snyder Turns Back Stamford, 13 To 6

STAMFORD, Sept. 16 (Special) —Coach Milton Moffett's up-and-coming Snyder Tigers scored their second straight 1949 grid victory here tonight by turning back the Stamford Bulldogs, 13-6, in a non-conference encounter.

A crowd of 1,200 fans saw the game, played on a muddy field.

Snyder led in first downs, 12-11, and had a net yardage gain of 215 yards to Stamford's 191.

Halfback Max Coffee notched both Tiger touchdowns, going 10 yards on an off-tackle slant in the first quarter, and scoring again from eight yards out on the same play in the second quarter. End James Bowers converted after the second six-pointer.

Stamford's lone tally came in the closing stanza, when Lowell Wright plunged over from the one-yard line.

Snyder's entire line turned in a well-balanced performance while Coffee was the team's offensive ace.

Wright was the sparkplug of the Stamford attack.

Lubbock Firm Submits Low Bid On New Mexico Military Housing

ALBUQUERQUE, Sept. 16 (AP) — The low bid of $634,335 for military housing units at Holloman Air base, Alamogordo, N.M., was submitted by Maxey and Leftwich, Co., of Lubbock.

It was for 65 pre-fabricated steel dwellings. The government had estimated $755,365 for frame stucco. A decision on the type structure will come before award of the contract.

PICTURE OF U.S. MISLEADING

Top Navy Officer Seeks School Of Journalism For Puerto Rico

By BOB CONSIDINE
INS Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—An odd or two, and a few ends:

One of the Navy's top fightin'-men, Vice Adm. Daniel E. Barney, is in town for a few days on a mission of importance that has nothing to do with steering a course or shooting a gun.

The man who made possible Douglas MacArthur's daring island-hopping campaign in the Pacific, and later headed the Asiatic end of our fleet, is trying to arouse interest in a fine long-term project: The building of an independent school of journalism in San Juan. Adm. Barney now commands our naval forces in the Caribbean.

Improved Brand Possible

He feels, with considerable justification, that the brand of journalism in Puerto Rico could be improved. He'd like to see the island's newspaper neophytes trained independently, to fit them for their later jobs as unbiased reporters. His interest in the island is deep and sincere.

Judging from the creaking plane-loads of Puerto Ricans dumped almost daily into the shocking privation of Vito Marcantonio's New York congressional district, the story of their plight does not seem to have been given proper emphasis or circulation in the island.

It must be brought home to these misguided adventurers that even the dole arranged for them is a poor thing (except for the taxpayers). Their housing in lower Harlem is perhaps the most evil in this country.

Dreams Prove False

It is not surprising that there is almost as many returning to what they once thought was the unbearable life they formerly knew, in Puerto Rico, as there are arriving.

There is no ready gold or easily attained social stature for the penniless, Spanish-speaking Puerto Ricans now descending on one small section of New York at the rate of about 2,000 a week. Many of them buy their cheap plane tickets on time, and their fares are taken from their relief checks. Civic and health officials are now "studying" the deplorable situation, two or three years after its full exposure by Jack Lait and other local reporters.

The admiral is not solely interested in seeing produced men and women who can issue clarion warnings in Puerto Rico about this matter. His is a longer-range project, but it would be a boon to Puerto Rico and its haplessly deluded if such warnings could be issued here and now.

History Gives Consolation

Extemporaneous pearl cast by Ernest Bevin at a friendly meeting with members of the National Press club in Washington:

"When I read some of the criticism of Great Britain, I never answer, I never say a word. I just turn up the old American newspaper files and read what you said about the new deal, and then apply it to Aneurin Bevan and the medical service in Great Britain."

Play Pleases Patron

It took us a long time to get around to "Miss Liberty" and "Detective Story," mainly because of the inability to buy tickets. The former got blistered by the critics, but it is a fine show with a good book, the kind of music that only Irving Berlin can write, and the best dancing Broadway has seen in years.

As for "Detective Story," it goes along with the rocket speed of "The Front Page" and packs an even greater wallop. It's great, and it's a wonderful relief to invest your five-fifty and not get hit in the kisser by a mess of "message."

Athlete Turns Star

New York sports fans who get to see "Project X," a movie about an atomic scientist who rejoins the Communist party, may give off a slight start when they see Jack Lord—one of the up and coming screen fellows.

He's John J. Ryan, one of the best tackles ever turned out by Dr. Mal Stevens when Mal was coaching at N.Y.U. Jack was a most unusual gridman. He earned a pilot's license as a sophomore and, at the same time, organized his own art school, in Greenwich Village. As a rough and tumble senior, known for his battering play, he received a king of artistic knighthood: The Metropolitan Museum of Art bought two of his prints for its permanent collection.

He has exhibited at the Corcoran Art galleries, in Washington, and many other top places, served in the Persian Gulf command and merchant marine during the war and chose motion picture acting ahead of good, quick-paying offers from the Philadelphia Eagles and Cleveland Rams.

Dog Put On Display At Meeting Of ABC

Mark, a 3-year-old German shepherd, went through the paces called by his mistress, Mrs. J. C. Turner of 3117 Twenty-seventh, at a luncheon meeting of the American Business club Friday in the Hilton hotel.

The grey 80-pound animal which will jump 10 feet high at the command of his master is a wonderful companion, according to Mrs. Turner.

German shepherds are in wide use as Army, farm, seeing eye and watch dogs, she told the club.

Mrs. Turner said she never whips Mark "because a scolding hurts his feelings sufficiently."

Dog Show Explained

She was introduced by Jack Boren, chairman of the club's ticket committee to boost sales to the South Plains Kennel club dog show Tuesday.

Boren also introduced W. C. Boyd, a member of the Kennel club, who explained the functions of a dog show and assured his audience that "some of the finest dog flesh in the nation will be here Tuesday."

Boyd said 390 dogs are entered in the show to be held beginning at 8 a. m. Tuesday at the Athletic building at Lubbock Municipal air field.

A comic situation arose when Boyd stepped on Mark's tail.

Mark's growling answer was plain enough in any language.

George Dale presided.

Small Force Of Red Regulars Reported Fighting Near Canton

CANTON, China, Sept. 16 (AP)—A small force of Communist regulars—possibly 1,000 strong—is attacking 125 miles northeast of this Chinese Nationalist capital, the defense ministry disclosed today.

This was the first officially-acknowledged invasion of Kwangtung province, of which Canton is the seat, by Red regulars.

It is too early to determine if this is the prelude to a serious drive on Canton. It could be merely another of the light diversionary actions that have marked that front for the past several weeks.

HARD TO FIGURE

HANOVER, N. H. (U.P.)—Editors of Ski Magazine wondered how they were going to cash a check received with a subscription blank. The check, from Magog, Que., was made out to the order of "Business Reply Envelope."

RED CROSS IN FIELD

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Red Cross officials revealed that more than 2,000 field workers currently are serving the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps at 1,286 military installations and 128 military hospitals in this country and abroad.

New York Gunman Riddled By Bullets

VALLEY STREAM, N. Y., Sept. 16 (AP) — Gangland gunmen made a bullet-drilled corpse today of Philip (Little Farfel) Cohen, pal of the former Murder Inc. czar, Louis (Lepke) Buchalter.

The 43-year-old, close-mouthed ex-convict, Lepke's only trusted henchman in the epic murder-for-cash mob, was taken for just the kind of ride the supposedly smashed Murder Inc. decreed for scores of victims.

Little Farfel — the nickname means "Noodle"—got three slugs in the head and three in the back. His body was found dumped from Long Island's southern state parkway late last night. It still was warm.

The dapper, red-haired Cohen was slain eight years after the opening of the trial that sent Lepke and two other Murder Inc. mobsters to the chair.

Cohen was indicted with Lepke. For unexplained reasons, the murder charge was dropped and he went to prison on a narcotics charge. Rumors were that Little Farfel had "squealed."

Former Assistant District Attorney Burton Turkus, who prosecuted, said that wasn't true.

Police worked on a theory that Cohen, who recently bought into a Brooklyn gas station business, was slain because of activities as a bookmaker or for preying on bookmakers.

Cohen was released only recently from the Atlanta pen where he did seven years on the narcotics charge.

Operating from coast to coast, Murder, Inc., committed 57 known murders and was blamed for scores of others.

Largest Of Triplets Born To Donna Woman Dies In Mercedes

MERCEDES, Sept. 16 (U.P.) — One of the valley's triplets died during the night. The other two, born yesterday to Mrs. Dan Dacus of Donna, are doing nicely at Mercedes General hospital.

Mrs. Dacus named the three girls after nurses who attended her during the birth yesterday at a Weslaco clinic. The babies were named Caryl Marie, Rosie Lee and Margaret O'Neil. Rosie Lee, born second, with a weight of four pounds eight ounces, died during the night. She was the largest of the trio with Caryl Marie and Margaret O'Neil weighing three pounds two ounces and three pounds six ounces respectively.

The Dacus triplets were the second set to be born to a Donna wife within the last month. Three boys were born to Mrs. William W. McClellan, wife of a Donna physician, on Aug. 14th and each now weighs more than seven pounds.

Country Maintains Friendly Relations

Finnish Official Denies Soviet Control Over Foreign Policy

By SARAH McCLENDON
Avalanche Washington Correspondent

HELSINKI—Carl Enckell, Finland's foreign minister, when asked today if Russia controls the foreign policy of Finland, declared "Not at all."

"Our position is not easy," he said. "We try to maintain good friendship with Russia and with all countries. Finland is outside all contrasts of interests. We are a little country—only 2 percent of our eastern neighbor. We have 4 million people and Russia has 200 million. We believe we have facilities to live in peace with our large neighbor."

When asked if he thinks the truce with Russia will continue after 1952, he said: "Our position has been officially declared many times. We have a clear aim to keep good conditions with all countries and especially with our eastern neighbor. We have no reason to believe intentions with our eastern neighbor would not continue."

Asked if he thought Finland and other little countries of Europe would be better off if they could be in a United States of Europe, he replied: "Our position is regional. We have been a part of Scandinavia and have been allied with other nations, but we have our own political position which does not compare with any one else."

The foreign minister was asked: "With your experience extending from the Versailles Treaty and the League of Nations, do you believe the United Nations will survive?"

"The two organizations have a certain likeness but we are not members of the United Nations, as you know," he replied. "I hope international collaboration will be favorable for the United Nations as with the United States."

Asked if he thought the foreign policy of the United States is realistic," he said:

"We have no reason to criticize the foreign governments. We are very thankful for American help sent to us and for our economic relations. This help has been very necessary for our reconstruction."

Asked if he thinks that the United Nations can prevent World War III, he said: "Certainly not," but added, "I can not answer such a question."

GROWING-UP NOTE

CHENEY (U.P.)—A classified advertisement in the student newspaper at Eastern Washington College of Education here said "will trade my Youth and Marriage book for the Child Development text."

Tech Professor To Tour Britain, France

Prof. L. E. Parsons, head of the Textile engineering department at Texas Tech, will leave New York Oct. 7 for a tour of textile schools and factories in Great Britain and France, college officials have announced.

Traveling with nine other handpicked American educators, Parsons will sail on the Queen Elizabeth and will visit England as a guest of the Textile foundation and the British textile industry.

A study of British curricula and methods and a two-day conference at Harrogate, Eng., will be included on the trip.

Parsons will return to the United States Nov. 21 after going to Paris for a tour of French textile schools Nov. 6.

Air Force Announces Plans For Use Of Base At Perrin

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Air Force said today that its present plans call for use of the Perrin air base at Sherman, Texas through 1951.

A spokesman said, however, that the base has not been designated as one of the permanent fields.

The Air Force is studying the possibility of putting Perrin on the list of bases to receive housing construction funds, he added, but a decision has not been made.

U.S. OFFICIAL ACCUSED

Tito Plot To Destroy Hungary Charged In 'Confession' Of Red

By ENDRE MARTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

BUDAPEST, Sept. 16—Laszlo Rajk, former Hungarian police boss and second ranking Communist, confessed fluently today to charges he plotted with Americans and others to smash Hungary's government in an anti-Soviet crusade led by Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito.

Pouring self-denunciation into a people's court microphone for four hours, the poker-faced, 40-year-old Rajk described the revolt plot as part of a sweeping plan by Tito "to lead and organize an anti-Soviet movement in every people's democracy (Russian satellite)."

Tito Plot Charged

Rajk and seven others went on trial for treason.

He declared Tito planned a military invasion of Hungary, the incitement of border strife with Bulgaria, liquidation of Greek Communist guerrilla forces and incorporation of Albania into Yugoslavia.

Rajk showed eagerness to pile blame on himself for acts since he began what he called his double-dealing with the Communists in 1931.

He said Alexander Rankovic, Tito's interior minister and police chief of Yugoslavia, told him of the Tito plan and said Rankovic promised: "When action starts, the United States will somehow paralyze the Soviet Union so the people's democracies will be unable to act."

U. S. Citizens Included

Rajk named a former U. S. minister to Hungary, Selden Chapin, and two other Americans in the plot. He accused Yugoslav officials and others on trial as British and French spies.

Rajk said he told Chapin about his talks with Rankovic, including the asserted promise to contain Russia.

(In Washington, Chapin denied any talks with Rajk about a plot to overthrow the regime and said Rajk was certainly a victim of Communist police pressure. He recalled Rajk as "severe, disagreeable and uncooperative" in talks. Chapin now is assigned to the U. S. State department in Washington.)

"Chapin hesitated, but later he admitted that such plans existed in the United States, Rajk said.

Rajk said that he got his first orders as a spy for the United States in 1945 from Lt. Col. George Kovach, a Hungarian-speaking member of the U. S. military mission sent to Hungary after the country was liberated from German control.

Four Tech Students Given Scholarships

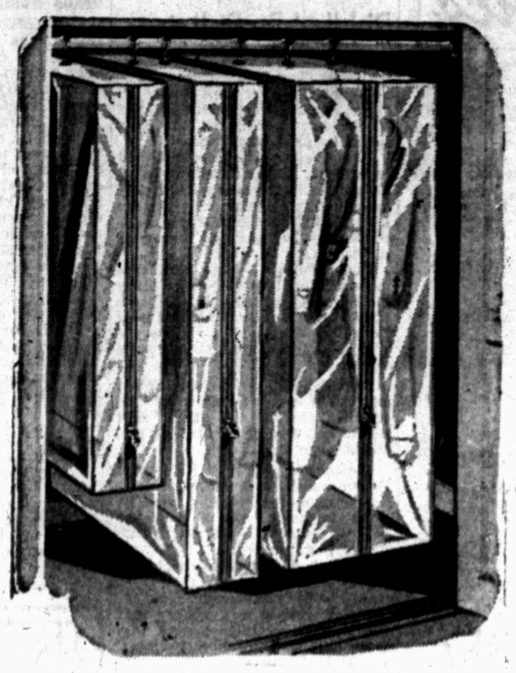

Four "second-generation" students at Texas Technological college have been chosen to receive $200 scholarships under a fund provided by the Ex-Students association, it was announced Friday.

To be awarded annually to children of former Tech students, the scholarships this fall were awarded Richard Lee Vardy, Slaton, and Silva Mae Loyd, Jim Bob Bryan and John Pinson, all of Lubbock.

Students must be children of a person who completed at least 15 semester hours in Tech during a long session to qualify for the scholarships. The cash awards are made one in each division of the college — agriculture, arts and sciences, home economics, engineering, and business administration.

Actual conferring of the scholarship is based on grade records, going to the person in each division with the highest grade point average, providing that person applied for the scholarship.

No award was made this year in the agriculture division.

Hog Show Slated For Fairgrounds

Area 4-H club boys from 12 counties will gather at the Panhandle-South Plains fairgrounds with their prize pigs today for the annual district gilt and barrow show sponsored by the Sears foundation of Sears Roebuck and company.

W. C. O'Mara, Sears manager in Lubbock, will be host at a noon luncheon for 4-H club members and their parents, to be held in the judging arena.

District judging will begin at 1:30 p. m. Judge for the show will be T. L. Leach, professor with the Texas Tech agricultural education department.

Participants To Meet

Lubbock county participants in the program will meet at 10:30 a. m. to select county winners and entrants for the district show.

Cash prizes awarded by the Sears foundation must be used for the purchase of hog lot equipment to improve and further hog production, although winners may buy their equipment from any store.

Each year, eight 4-H boys in each of the 12 counties are given gilts or boars on the basis on essays on the advantages of hogs on the farm. Participants are required to return their best gilt at the end of the year to further the program. Gilts are all pure-bred and registered.

Prizes To Be Given

Prizes for the best district gilts are $45, $40, $35,$30, $25, six $20 and two $15. The same prize schedule will be paid for district boars, with the exception of four $20 and three $15 awards.

The best pens of three barrows in the district show will receive $40, $30, $20 and two $15. A litter contest, based on the most weight in a 56-day period, will pay prizes of $30, $25, $20, $15, five $10, eight $9, one $8 and twenty $7. A separate contest for boars, based on feeding and production records, will pay $20, $18, $12 and $10.

Cash awards for winners in the Lubbock county show are: Gilts, $8, $7, $6, $5 and $4; and pen of three barrows, $15, $12, $8 and $5.

Counties participating in the program are Lubbock, Crosby, Bailey, Gaines, Hale, Lamb, Garza, Lynn, Hockley, Motley, Yoakum and Terry.

D. W. Sherill, Lubbock county agent, will assist in the direction of the show.

Pioneer To Move To Dallas Field

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Sept. 16—Pioneer Air Lines will move its base of operations from Houston to Dallas as soon as facilities can be constructed at Love Field, Robert J. Smith, the company's president, announced today.

The company will move its general offices, maintenance base and some 330 employes and their families to Dallas from the South Texas city Smith added.

"We hope to have our Dallas facilities completed sometime during the first quarter of 1950," the airline's chief said. Construction costs for the Dallas facilities are not immediately available, but the facilities will be "permanent," Smith added.

To Move All Equipment

The move to Dallas was necessitated by the termination of Pioneer's lease on the Texas National Guard hanger and office space it has been occupying in Houston for more than three years.

Smith said the Pioneer organization represents an annual pay roll of more than $1,250,000 and outside purchases exceeding $750,000. In addition, eleven DC-3 planes, maintenance and overhaul equipment and administrative offices will be moved here from Houston.

Pioneer first started serving Dallas on Feb. 19, 1947. At that time, the company served a total of 17 Texas cities over a system of about 1,400 miles. Since then, the airline has grown to a system covering 25 cities in Texas and New Mexico over 2,200 route miles.

From Dallas, Pioneer's services extend westward to Fort Worth, Abilene, San Angelo, Midland-Odessa, Sweetwater, Big Spring, Lubbock, Plainview, Amarillo, Clovis, Tucumcari, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Albuquerque and Roswell. There are two daily flights southbound to Houston via Waco, Temple and Bryan and two return flights.

Borden County Venture Plans Test

New Wildcats Hold Area Oil Spotlight

Wildcats are to be drilled in Northwest Hale county and in central-east Yoakum county.

Operations have already started at the Hale prospector and the digging will begin at the Yoakum venture in a few days.

Tobe Foster of Lubbock and others, No. 1 G. A. Harrell was drilling below 400 feet in redbeds after spudding and setting surface casing at a 7,000-foot wildcat northwest Hale county.

Drillsite Given

The drillsite of the prospector is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 7, block O, D&SE survey, and eight miles northwest of Hale Center.

It is on a block of 16,000 acres assembled by Nick Alley and Robert Alley of Hale Center and R. H. Marvin of the Graham-Marvin Oil Company.

Most of the leases were reported to have been taken at $3.50 per acre.

The Yoakum project, Cabot Carbon Company of Midland No. 1 Bessie Clay, is a contracted 5,500-foot exploration.

It is 660 feet from south and west lines of section 12, block D, John H. Gibson survey and is one mile northeast of King, Warren & Dye of Midland No. 1 Irving Stewart, a 5,510-foot failure in the San Andres.

The drillsite is four and one-half miles northeast of the Ownby pool and about the same distance northeast of Tokio.

Drilling is to be started immediately on a 8,500-foot wildcat in central-southwest Borden county, a short distance northeast of the Good-Pennsylvanian field.

The venture will be Nelson Bunker Hunt No. 1 Jerry B. Clayton. It is located 660 feet from west and 1,980 feet from north lines of the east half of section 42, block 32, TP survey, T-4-N. That makes it 10 miles southwest of Gail.

Rotary tools will be used. The 8,500-foot destination might take the project into the Ellenburger, it failes to make an oil well in the Pennsylvanian lime.

A drillstem test is to be taken at once on a wildcat in extreme southeast Borden county, approximately five miles west of the closest completed oil wells from the Canyon reef lime of the Pennsylvanian in the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field of southwest Scurry county.

The prospector is Amerada Petroleum Corporation No. 1 Canning. It is 667 feet from north and 653 feet from east lines of section 117, block 97, H&TC survey. The venture was bottomed at 7,105 feet in the reef lime.

Top of the formation has not been officially reported and no information is available regarding any shows of oil or gas which may have been logged in the section of that formation so far penetrated.

More Witnesses Heard In Probe

(By The Associated Press)

ALICE, Sept. 16. — A grand jury probing last year's heated U. S. senatorial primary heard a number of witnesses today, then recessed until Tuesday.

For more than a week it has been digging into the Aug. 28, 1948 Texas Democratic primary. In that primary, Lyndon Johnson, now U. S. Senator, won nomination over former Governor Coke R. Stevenson.

Stevenson charged votes were added fraudulently at Precinct 13 in Alice after the primary polls closed.

Witnesses Are Named

The jurors conferred briefly with Judge Paul Martineau who convened 79th District Court today and considered routine cases on the docket.

He told them he would not be here Tuesday, but would be readily available if they called him. His home is at Corpus Christi.

Witnesses heard today included: Mrs. Claude McConnell, wife of a former county jailer and deputy sheriff who was relieved of his duties early this year.

McConnell, in a reappearance before the jury. He testified Monday.

Police Chief Appears

Mrs. J. M. Mitchell, one of those who testified at an injunction hearing in a case Stevenson brought in federal court at Fort Worth last year.

Jesus Cantu, jr., and Olivera Herrera, identified by Stevenson supporters as among those appearing among the final 200 names on the Box 13 poll list.

Luis Alas, election judge at Box 13 in the primary.

E. M. Brownlee, Alice business man and civic leader, who had testified earlier.

Juan Martinez, Cliff Dubois, of the weekly Alice News, and Alice Chief of Police George Bell Clegg.

Bailiffs said subpoenas had been issued, but not served on Mrs. B. Lobrecht; Luis Salinas, Hector Cerda, Tomas Garcia, and Manuel Sanchez.

Clarence Martens, who appeared earlier before the grand jury, was summoned for Tuesday. Cerda's summons also reads for Tuesday.

Hockley Winners Are Announced

LEVELLAND, Sept. 16. (Special) —Premiums totaling $510 were paid out today at the seventh annual Hockley County Fair and Jamboree which opened Thursday and closes Saturday night.

Attendance was considerably higher than on opening day when rains kept the crowds smaller than expected.

Cattle judging and competition in the general crop division were the primary activities today.

Winners Are Announced

Winning exhibitors in the Jersey division were: Aged cows, J. W. Christian, Lloyd Conatser, Charles Elder. Bull calves, Conatser. Heifers 1 to 2 years, Joe Kennedy. Heifers under 1 year, Clifford Hartsell, jr.

Prize winning exhibitors in the Guernsey division were: Aged cows, Clifford Throckmorton of Whitharral (grand champion), Robert Harbin of Whitharral, Kay Teaff of Ropesville and H. W. Davenport of Olton. Heifers 1 to 2 years, Harbin, Throckmorton, Davenport, C. F. May and Teaff. Heifer calves under 1 year, Teaff, and Joe Harbin (2nd and 3rd). Bull calves, Throckmorton. Senior bull, Johnny Brooks of Morton.

Shorthorn division: T. E. Johnson of Pettit, only exhibitor, showing heifer and bull under 1 year and bull under 2 years.

Hereford division: Calves over 2 years, Paul Christian, John Christian and George Mitchell (3rd and 4th). Heifers 1 to 2 years, Mitchel (1st and 2nd). Heifers under 1 year, Paul Christian and Mitchell (2 and 3). Bulls 1 to 2 years, Paul Christian, Mitchell and Wadie M. Fowler. Bull calves under 1 year, J. W. Christian, Mitchell, J. W. Christian. Aged Hereford bulls, Mitchell.

Ropesville Youth Winner

The champion baby beef calf was shown by Harland Dalton of Ropesville. Champion female Guernsey was shown by Verlie Throckmorton of Whitharral, and the Guernsey heifer under 1 year by Dan Throckmorton also of Whitharral.

In the general crop division, W. H. Tucker all but swept the field, winning first in the following classes: best stalk of cotton, best stalk with 20 open bolls, hegari, Martin's milo maize, watermelon, cantaloupe, strawberries and tomatoes.

Other first place winners were: E. C. Seifert, brown and white eggs; M. L. Landers, strawberry popcorn; Mrs. Gene Williams, yellow popcorn and eggplant; and V. A. Mitchell, peaches.

Here's Good Counsel From Our Decorators

We have just received an impressive assortment of goodlooking, inexpensive fabrics, which we want you to see. Our decorators have all sorts of exciting ideas for fresh window treatments, slipcover fancies. Below is a small culling from the big new stock.

The Light Touch

Santa Barbara is a whimsical little print of a Victorian seaside house, designed with a deft modern touch. This 48" mummy cloth has a hunter-green ground, with gay splashes of aqua, candy pink, red, chartreuse, cacao brown, and warm grey. It is the embodiment of high style, color scheme flexibility, and low cost. A bargain Madam? Emphatically, yes! and only 2.25 yard.

Calico Pots

For kitchen, den or other informal rooms that demand a glad-to-be-alive feeling, we recommend these two prints. Calico Pots is the silliest, most endearing little thing we've seen in ages. In strong cotton textite, for which the manufacturer claims a 2% shrinkage maximum, it is giddy with plaid and allover pattern flower pots and shrubs. Natural background. A flat 1.50 yard.

Southern Charm

Wrought iron gates, hibiscus, palmettos and moonlight—but no trace of the crinoline petticoat about this bold 48" whip cord print. Striking masses of color in Kelly, teal, poppy red and chartreuse. 2.35 yard.

Stripes Are Back!

With a regency flair! We have a variety of them in such exciting combinations as black, forest green, chartreuse and fuchsia. Another in dusk-flamingo, greens and putty. They're going into the bedrooms this season as spreads, drapes, regency swags over mirrors. From 2.30 yard.

Oakwood

Definitely for the modernist is our abstract oakleaf textile in rich fall tones of rust, grey, yellow and hunter green. 2.25 yard.

For The Traditionalist

The perennial Winchester pattern blossoms out in soft greys, olive, pale aqua, purple, and jonquil tones on sprays of lilac and windblown tulips. In a variety of color ways on enduring willowcord. Just 2.60 yard.

DECORATING ANNEX — AVENUE H

ABOUT TAXES:

Mr. Shivers Learns

GOV. ALLAN SHIVERS has done a good bit of traveling in Texas since the unexpected death of former Gov. Beauford Jester elevated him to the State's highest office. Governor Shivers frankly acknowledges he has found sentiment overwhelmingly against State tax increases. He has found public opinion almost unanimous in the view that the answer to financial problems of the State and the other divisions of government should be found in economies, rather than in giving the taxpayer another kick in the pocketbook.

The governor, therefore, has called for cuts in budget requests now scheduled for submission to a special legislative session which, presumably, will be held in January. Governor Shivers has declared, for one, his conviction that additional taxes can be avoided.

His conclusions suggest that it might be advisable for other tax-fixers, in the federal as well as the state governments, to do a little mixing and mingling with the masses of the people. They unquestionably would discover the feeling which demands—if they wish to continue in public office—that they had better concentrate more on how to save public money and less on methods of obtaining more to spend. The evidences are most encouraging that people generally have endured about all they will stand of continually rising costs of government.

A Fine Example

THE prospects are that one of the many problems arising from the virtually assured record-breaking cotton crop on the South Plains this year will be the provision of storage places where the baled staple will be exposed as little as possible to deterioration or other damage.

Just how serious the problem may be cannot be definitely determined for a good many weeks, until there are more positive indications as to the actual size of the crop. Preparations have been made to take care of the storage needs for a huge yield.

But the Lubbock City commission has set an excellent example in announcing that much space can and will be made available at Municipal airport, if needed to store cotton. Probably a good many towns and cities, businesses and individuals could arrange to take care of some of the other possible storage needs, if they will look around.

Perhaps these facilities won't be needed at all. But it will do no harm to make the preliminary preparations now, just in case. Precautions are demanded by the simple workings of, "Better be safe than sorry."

Time For A Test

NO one is likely to deny that a coal mine strike at this time, or in the near future, would be serious. By the same token, there can be no denying that the mine operators and the public generally are better prepared to call the hand of arrogant, bullying John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, than they have been in years.

The reserves of coal are the largest since the war. More coal users are equipped to use other fuels—particularly oil and gas—than ever before. Many unemployed people provide a potential labor reserve which could be trained and which would like to have well-paid jobs in the coal mines. The individual miners themselves, taken as a whole, don't have the personal financial backlogs which would enable them to weather a prolonged strike. They might rebel after too many payless paydays.

True, Lewis might be able to bull or bluff his way to another victory in his latest demands, made specifically upon Southern operators, for more money for a so-called miners' "welfare" fund. But this is one time when the operators, with the support of an abused public, might be justified in finding out whether it is a fact, as widely suspected, that John L.'s growl might be worse than any bite he is capable of inflicting.

I Had A Dream, Dear

Steps To The Moon

By ADELAIDE HUMPHRIES

Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: Although Gaynel Teare's marriage to wealthy Barry Bainbridge of Detroit would solve many problems that beset her as breadwinner for a family of four, including herself, her brother and sister and mother, Gaynel is in love with Fritz Freyman who is not wealthy. She admits she is in love with Fritz and not in love with Barry. But, she asks, how can they get married when Fritz can't support a family. "We'll work it out some way together," said Fritz. Gaynel is not afraid any more and they set out for a lunch room for hamburgers.)

XXIV

THE hamburgers were all that Fritz had said they would be. They each ate three in the little lunch room. Topped with pickle, relish and onion.

Gaynel liked onions, but they did not like her. Nevertheless she took such a huge bite that she choked, so that Fritz had to thump her on the back and summon the proprietor for a glass of water.

"This is her first square meal in three weeks," he explained gravely to the fat proprietor. "You see we have been trying to live on love. That's why the lady tried to make a meal out of one bite. Did you ever try living on love? Say, before you . . . er . . . acquired your present . . . er . . . position, Joe?"

"Stantislos," the proprietor corrected, his gravity matching Fritz's. "Sure, I lif on loff once. When I first comes to dis country, wid Marie and our five little ones, also wid us. Loff," gravity rose now to such heights supreme that all the chins shook in added emphasis, "it is de greatest ting in de whole world, loff is. Ain't it so, yes? In de whole world der is nothings like loff, no?"

"No. Yes," Fritz said, shaking his one chin decorously. He turned on Gaynel, perched on the high stool next to him; his grin was triumphant. "You see!" he crowed. "Think of it. Love fed five—no, seven hungry mouths, just like that! Now will you stop looking for trouble, my sweet? Put your trust in me and the Statue of Liberty."

"You are very much obliged, yes. You like, maybe, another slice of onion?"

Gaynel almost choked once more as he went on. "Onion and the garlic, she keep our five little ones fat and healthy like me."

"I'll have another slice, Mr. Stand-in-louse," Fritz said.

"Stantislos." The second correction came with greater dignity. "Onion, she keps the germs away."

"Not for me!" Gaynel broke in hastily.

"Here he is!" Mr. Stantislos presented the onion on the tip of a long knife. "Help yourself. And thank you. Come again."

"Thank you," Fritz said, helping himself generously. "We'll come again, all right. When we have our five little ones we'll bring them along."

WHAT a man you are," said Gaynel, after they were seated on a bench once more, her head on his shoulder because now it was dark, and there were no rubber-necks, animals or people, and the night air was so soft and sweet and she wished this could last forever.

"I knew you were a perfectly outrageous young man the minute I laid eyes on you," she said. Then sighed, "I guess that's why I love you."

He said, "That's a good enough reason. But you're the outrageous one, really. Talking nonsense about not seeing how we can get married, saying you'll leave me if I gain any weight, putting me off whenever I try to pin you down." His arm tightened around her; he drew her closer to him; his lips brushed the waves of her hair.

She said, "You're forgetting we decided there were certain matters we'd have to work out first."

"Why not get married first, then work 'em out afterwards?"

"You sound as though you're afraid you'd lose me if we wait awhile!"

"You're darn tootin' I'm afraid! I told you that you're the only thing I am afraid of, my love. Your mother might persuade you to take Barry on, after all. So that the family could go on eating their cake and keeping it, too."

"You might marry Bessie," Gaynel said. "She's after you, my lad." She did not want to face those other facts just now; that she must tell the family and Barry about Fritz.

"Bessie?" Why, I didn't even remember who she was the first time she rang me up." So, Bessie had done the pursuing, then! "Not that I don't admire her gold freckles," Fritz added, with his grin. "In fact, red-heads are one of my few weaknesses. If you don't snap me up quick, Bessie might get me on the rebound."

"Over my dead body," Gaynel said.

THEY did not talk for awhile. It was enough just to be together, so close, with only the harvest moon, solemn and round and golden, for company.

"The thing for you to do," Fritz said finally, "is to have it out with your family. Tell them they'll have to come down to earth, give up the cake, balance the budget. You admit they could get along without your help if they would. Couldn't they, for example, give up that 24-room shack and move into closer quarters? Can't your brother buckle down to taking a job seriously? Even Pat, it seems to me, should be trained for something definite so that in time she can contribute her share. You've had it all for five long years. Time to shuffle the cards, I'd say. It's been done before. Why not bring it home, Gorgeous?"

"It's a big order."

"You're big enough. If I could do it for you, if there is any way I can help, you know I will."

"It's my problem. I'll do it, of course," Gaynel said. She had told herself that this one decision must be hers alone. She had made it. Now she must abide by it.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

HOW long will it take before those new discoveries, atomic energy and jet propulsion, are going to be used for the practical, commercial benefits of mankind rather than for war and destruction?"

BRANDEIS

That question was asked of Sumner T. Pike, one of the country's great experts on these subjects, and a member of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Mr. Pike answered with a smile.

"I hope it won't take as long as it did to develop jet propulsion from the origin of the idea, eighteen hundred years ago, to what it is today.

"When Hero of Alexandria invented 'Hero's Fountain' somewhere around 50 A. D., he had no idea how far it would progress.

"So I can't tell you exactly how long it will take to get from here to its practical commercial use.

"But we are working on it."

"Hero's Fountain," which this Greek mathematician and philosopher invented, was "a pneumatic apparatus, through which a jet of water is supported by condensed air."

A crude predecessor of our present jet propulsion but a predecessor, just the same.

Mr. Pike also mentioned the idea of "atomic energy" as not being anything new.

Well, it is not.

Away back around 97 B. C. there lived a man by the name of Carus Titus Lucretius, a Roman philosopher who liked to explore the Unknown.

True enough, some people say that he was not quite sane, because he finally committed suicide at a rather early age by taking a "love potion."

But he did write a remarkable set of books of six volumes, which he called "De Rerum Natura"—about the Nature of Things.

In that work he dealt with almost every subject under and over the sun. He wrote about the theory of corpuscles and their properties; about the origin of the vital and intellectual principles; about the world and movements of the heavenly bodies; about arts and sciences; the rise and progress of society; and about natural phenomena.

IF YOU were to read "De Rerum Natura" today, you would probably smile at some of Lucretius' primitive thoughts and ideas about the nature of things.

But the seed was there. That seed was planted in the minds of other philosophers and scientists.

And out of the seeds planted by

Cheaper Travel Seen

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The happy day when Americans may travel to Europe by plane or ship on a $150 or $200 round-trip ticket has been brought nearer by the European dollar crisis.

It is entirely possible that these or slightly higher experimental rates will become effective by the summer of 1950, together with inexpensive, government-built accommodations in England and on the continent.

State, Commerce, ECA and Congressional spokesmen have suggested promotion and development of tourism as one means of relieving foreign nations' financial strain, and of lessening the direct burden of foreign aid on American taxpayers.

TUCKER

Although England blocked establishment of a $350 round-trip passage only two years ago for fear that it would hurt her own airlines, Cripps - Bevin technicians now here figure that they have everything to gain and nothing to lose by such a deal, in view of changed conditions.

LAWS: It is not generally known, and the mandate has been neglected by ECA officials because of the pressure of more important problems, but the laws creating and financing that agency require it to "facilitate and encourage, through private and public travel, transport and other agencies, the promotion and development of travel, by citizens of the United States to and within the participating countries." Other paragraphs specify at "reasonable and adequate" rates and facilities.

AID: Senator Owen Brewster of Maine, leading advocate of seeing the world on a $5,000 or smaller income, put the question graphically to visiting Britishers and to Congressional committees:

"The present fare is abou t$600 or more. If a man and his wife go abroad, that means they will need at least $2,000 for transportation, living expenses and spending money. Cut the travel cost to $300, and they can make the trip on $1,000. High school and college students could do it on $500.

"That would mean hundreds of millions a year for those countries, and a wonderful experience for stay-at-home Americans. But cutting down their dollar deficits, it would mean less direct, dollar aid from our treasury to European nations."

SURVEY: An even more influential champion of "poor man's travel" abroad and in the United States is Senator Edwin Johnson of Colorado, chairman of the Senate Interstate and Foreign Commerce committee. This body is now making a sweeping survey of airplane and maritime rates, fasilities and possibilities.

He and Senator Brewster believe that the Maritime Commission should investigate the question of converting surplus ships into passenger liners to operate in hotel-and-cafeteria style at a round-trip cost of $100.

As the auto industry brought a car within reach of almost every working American, so they think tha tofreign travel should be made available to American citizens who must live and learn in an expanding world community.

SLOW: The Maritime Commission and the Civil Aeronautics board, in the belief of Congress, have been too slow, cautious and conservative to explore this low-cost field, possibly because they wish to protect established lines. These agencies have become almost as moss-worn as the Interstate Commerce commission used to be, and sometimes still is, with respect to the railroads.

But if legislation is required to shake them out of their lethargy, Senators Johnson and Brewster will sponsor it at the 1950 session.

RATES: Senator Johnson's preliminary reports on his aerial investigation show that he regards lower costs as an important factor in solving the problems of the airlines on domestic and foreign routes. Specifically, as against the CAB's tentative and experimental attitude, he favors expansion of the cheap air coach and family travel rates.

A certain airline, he notes, reduced its rates from New York to San Juan, Puerto Rico. The effect was electric. In the first quarter of 1948, for instance, it carried only 4,360 first-class passengers on that route. In the first quarter of 1949, it hauled 7,399 first-class and 10,984 coach travelers. Obviously, installing a frill-less fare did not hurt regular business.

Travel has shown a 300 per cent increase in 1949 over 1948.

PACK: Franklin D. Roosevelt's demand for the right to "pack" the Supreme Court in 1937 seems ironic now, in view of the fact that the high tribunal may be remade almost twice before the end of the Truman-Roosevelt regime.

FDR named six men—Justices Murphy, Reed, Douglas, Frankfurter, Black and Rutledge—giving him what he thought would be a New Deal majority, although it did not always turn out that way. Messrs. Frankfurter and Reed frequently slipped to the other side.

President Truman has named three—Chief Justice Vinson, Justices Burton and Clark. The Chief Justice and Mr. Burton are ranked as middle-of-the-roader and conservative, respectively. Justice Clark, once on oil lobbyist at Austin, Tex., the state capital, will eventually switch to the right or near-right.

FOURTH: In view of Justice Rutledge's death Mr. Truman has now named a fourth member, Judge Minton of Indiana, thus FDR's original lineup has changed radically.

Down Memory Lane

(Taken from the files of The Lubbock Morning Avalanche, September 17, 1929.)

Catalogs for the third annual Hockley county fair, to be held at Levelland Sept. 24-28, are out and are being distributed over the South Plains. The booklets arrived in Lubbock Monday announcing the list of premiums.

The fair committee is composed of W. D. Cope, W. E. Fry and G. T. Adams, while G. H. Tubb is manager and T. P. Denton, general exhibit manager.

Departmental superintendents include: J. W. Tunnell, agriculture; W. T. Magee, livestock; J. W. Berry, dairy cattle; W. J. Brown, swine; John Pettit, sheep; Bill Beakley, horses and mules; Russel Mitchell, boys' club exhibit; Mrs. Jeanette Meador, culinary, household, and textile; Leon Sanders, poultry; Mrs. F. J. Richardson, flowers; Mrs. F. L. Adams, relics; Miss Alice Busby, paintings; Bryan Havens, baby show; and Ray Watson, community exhibits.

Forty-five new members were received into the Mary Emma Home Economics club yesterday afternoon when the first fall meeting was conducted at the High school.

Membership in this society is drawn from the home economics students in the school and Ethel Green is president of the association.

Believe It Or Not -

The PLAINSMAN

That Girl on Broadway says a good way to gain popularity is to say nothing derogatory about anybody—and do so in silence.

It's no wonder most morticians dislike having Sunday funerals. They need that day off to get rested up for the rush following week-end automobile accidents.

LUBBOCK citizens are viewing with mixed emotions and opinions the change-over from angle to parallel parking in most of the downtown area.

Some people like the idea. Some do not. Still others view it as a "necessary evil." As one leading merchant put it, "I guess we've got a city here whether we like it or not—and since we've got one, I guess we'll have to do whatever is necessary to adjust ourselves to city ways."

To be sure, parallel parking is going to give a lot of us headaches—until we get used to it. Despite the fact that the parallel system has been in vogue here for some time on several streets, most drivers haven't used it as yet. Many frankly have avoided parking in parallel areas to date, preferring to look longer for an angle spot, or to park farther from midtown.

But humans can adjust themselves to almost anything—including things a lot more difficult and unpleasant than parallel parking. And in cities which have had parallel parking for considerable time, drivers never think of any extra difficulty involved in the system.

No expert on parking, we are not competent to say that parallel parking is better than angle parking in Lubbock, or vice versa.

We simply don't know which is the better system, over-all.

But we do know, as does everyone else, that Lubbock needs improvement in its traffic flow and control downtown—and all over town. And since it looks like maybe parallel parking will help, we see no reason why it shouldn't be tried out.

In thinking and talking about the change-over, we of Lubbock will do well to remember this: Most of the busy cities of the nation have gone to parallel parking long before now—and have retained it. Therefore, it is logical to suspect that the system works the better of the two in most places.

Furthermore, it is good to remember that streets are primarily for travel, not for parking areas; that by offering more areas for moving traffic, moving traffic can be better accommodated.

ALREADY, city officials are being besieged by business people and property owners to "leave my block out of parallel parking." Most, if not all, of these besiegers are taking the purely selfish attitude. We hope the City commission will not bend to pressure until the plan is given a thorough trial.

After the trial is completed, and if reasons are found for exempting some businesses and some areas from parallel parking, then changes can be made. But this should be made with the best interests of the public, and not merely of a few individuals in mind.

This much we all know: There comes a time in the operation of every home, every business, AND every city, when old methods must be discarded and new ones instituted to meet the needs of growth and expansion. At first, these changes may not be pleasant to contemplate, if for no other reason than the fact that they are changes.

Maybe that's our situation here in Lubbock regarding parallel parking.

At any rate, only time and fair trial can tell the story.

Since all of us have been howling for the City commission to do something about our traffic problem, let's give the City commission a chance to do something without crying before we're hurt. Let's give the city dads credit for finally coming alive and actually moving to improve conditions.

Furthermore, let's commend them, too, for finally deciding to put parking mete around the City Hall and th being more logical th previous commissions ha been and than the press commission has been thus f

If we must have the "arm less bandits" everywhere ei down downtown, certainly it no more than sensible to ha 'em along side the City Ha too.

At least, in deciding to p the tax-collecting machin along side City Hall, t commission is being consister

THERE'S a lot of yackety-y around in Texas politics cles about who is and who going to run for governor year, now that the death of for Gov. Beauford Jester catapu Allan Shivers into a positio eminence.

Many believe that the tricl fate which boosted the then l tenant governor from a weak sition into a strong one will sult in a change in plans on parts of both Attorney Gen Price Daniel and Railroad C missioner Olin Culberson. Bot these gentlemen were "unoffi ly" running for governor as h as they could before the deat Mr. Jester. Others point out Land Commissioner Bascom G who also was eyeing the 1950 g ernatorial race, has now chan his mind and will not run.

Caso March, the embattled p fessor, is continuing as a ca of course, but few, if t take him seriously. There's fur talk that the "interests" will b Wilbert Lee O'Daniel out of mothballs and run him again.

Whatever the actual pictu is—if there is an actual pi ture at this time—it's a goo bet that Mr. Culberson wi run for governor in 1950.

"Unlike some of the othe hopefuls," Culberson's friend say, "he hasn't got th 'Shivers'."

That's a cute way of puttin it, but probably a pretty soun way, at that.

THE TALK is going around t Attorney General Daniel throttle his gubernatorial am tions in 1950 and run for a th term in his present office.

Maybe he will. The attor general cagily avoided di statements about the governors even before Mr. Jester's de and did a good deal of breast-be ing about having a job that he tended to finish before runn for anything else. Theoretica he can announce again for att ney general without being too barrassed.

However, it might be noted t Mr. Daniel has no lead-pipe ci to get a third term as attor general. In fact, he might hav better chance to be elected g ernor.

Several fresh, new figures looming in the AG's race—hell-f leather young veterans with g records in public office and public life—and any of them c ceivably might beat Mr. Dan on the third term issue, if noth else.

District Attorney Will Wilson Dallas; District Attorney J Hensley, of San Antonio, and nior Chamber of Commerce Jo Ben Shepperd of Gladewater a the three outstanding threats any third-term ambitions Mr. D iel may have and any of the th might upset him.

Maybe Mr. Daniel will decide run for governor, after all.

BITTER UN FIGHT IS SEEN

Vishinsky Expected To Open New Attack On U. S. Atom Policy

By PIERRE J. HUSS
INS Staff Correspondent

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Sept. 16.—An authoritative spokesman revealed today Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Vishinsky is coming to the U.N. General Assembly to set off a violent new Russian offensive against the atomb bomb and U.S. atomic policy.

The white-haired former Soviet prosecutor will direct the five-member Soviet bloc in the assembly next week in demands that the United States and its allies be compelled to yield to some form of atomic energy control acceptable to Russia.

War Claims Seen

In the Security council today Soviet spokesmen Semen K. Tsarapkin and Dimitri Manuilsky showed beyond doubt that Vishinsky will keynote the new attack on blunt charges that the United States is mapping and moving toward an atomic war against Russia.

Manuilsky and Tsarapkin cited statements on the atomic issue from President Truman, General Omar Bradley, Defense Secretary Johnson, Secretaries Symington and Krug and finally Senators Vandenberg and Hickenlooper.

The two Soviet spokesmen hammered away at the contention that the United States refuses to agree to any sort of atomic energy control solely because it would crack up the world monopoly American interests maintain on atomic plants and raw materials.

Atlantic Pact In Spotlight

President Truman was cited for a statement of last April that he would not hesitate if necessary to use the atom bomb as he did in Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Listing various statements about the military use of atomic energy by other American key figures, Tsarapkin cried:

"The United States threatens us with an atomic arms race if their Baruch plan for controlling atomic energy is not accepted. What is this if not an ultimatum or threat?"

Tsarapkin said he wished to draw the attention of the Security council "to the particular role played by the atom bomb in the Atlantic pact" and continued:

"While the U.S. delegation on the U.N. Atomic Energy commission makes hypocritical statements on the Baruch scheme, the U.S. general staff drafts plans for aggression against Russia and countries of the new democracy. Secretaries Johnson and Symington are reporting to Congress on the development of American long-range bombers for the bombing of Soviet cities."

Manuilsky, in previous years chairman of the Communist organization which preceded the present Cominform, was equally incisive in his slashing attack on United States atomic policy. He cited the same names given subsequently by Tsarapkin and added excerpts from American magazines describing the future atomizing of Russian cities.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?—Plenty, for this little man with the big turban. He has one of the longest names in the world. He is probably the only one who can spell it, too. Sir Tiruvalyangudi Vijayaraghavacharya writes it out in New York after his arrival from London. The Indian delegate was on his way to the Commonwealth Relations Conference in Toronto. P. S.: His friends call him "Diwan" for short, and hotel staffs know him by his room number.

Looking At Life

the early searchers have grown the many trees of knowledge that have given us our present civilization.

What does it matter whether things are new?

It is not the newness of things that counts but their perfection.

Is Love new? Certainly not.

But to every young pair of lovers it is ever sweet and ever perfect, certainly as sweet, as perfect as it was to Paul and Virginia 200 years ago.

Senate Group Fails To Vote On Fair Employment Practices Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16 (AP)—A bill to establish a Fair Employment Practices commission (FEPC) failed to reach a vote in the Senate Labor committee today because one of the southern members had an appointment at the White House.

Under the rules, seven of the 13 committee members must be present before a bill can be voted upon. Six members were out of town. The other seven showed up, but Sen. Hill (D-Ala.) left after a short time explaining he had a date to talk to President Truman about rural telephones.

The FEPC bill is high on Mr. Truman's list of "civil rights" measures upon which he has pledged to try to get action. Repeatedly in past years southern Senators have blocked efforts to pass similar legislation designed to prevent racial and religious discrimination in employment.

27,000 Mexicans Reported Working Texas Cotton Fields

AUSTIN, Sept. 16 (AP)—The Texas Employment commission said today that an estimated 27,000 Mexican nationals are now working in Texas cotton fields.

They are part of 40,000 for whom TEC said it has made certification for the United States Employment commission.

The remainder will probably be brought in as rapidly as applications are processed by the Mexican government, TEC said.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. L. N. Haygood, Lorenzo

LORENZO, Sept. 16 (Special)—Funeral services were conducted in the Lorenzo Baptist church at 2 p.m. today for Mrs. L. N. Haygood, 63, who died of a heart attack in her home here Wednesday.

Revs. W. M. Draper of Anton and W. R. Underwood of George West officiated at the services and burial was in Tech Memorial cemetery under direction of the Marr Funeral home of Ralls.

Pallbearers were James O'Rear and Wayland Catching of Lorenzo; Leo Baker of Muleshoe, and Dr. J. M. O'Rear, E. V. Middleton, and Elbert Hester, all of Lubbock.

Lamesa Polio Victim Reported In Fair Condition In Plainview

PLAINVIEW, Sept. 16 (Special)—Particia Anderson, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Anderson of Lamesa, was reported in a fair condition by attendants at the Plainview Polio center here tonight.

Patricia, the seventh polio victime this year in Dawson county, was admitted for treatment Wednesday night. Attendants said that while there were signs of some paralysis that a normal recovery was expected.

Her illness had first been diagnosed as tonsilitis. She had enrolled in the first grade in school only a few days ago.

Defense Testimony In Damages Cases Presented In Court Here

Defense testimony in the trial of two suits for damages totaling $90,000 against the Shell Oil Co., inc., and the Shell Pipe Line Co., was presented before Federal Judge Joseph B. Dooley and a jury in U.S. District court here Friday.

Trial of the suits, brought by O. V. Bundy of Denver City, and E. R. McCollum of Lubbock, began Thursday. Plaintiff's counsel rested at 10:25 a.m. Friday.

Plaintiffs are seeking damages as the result of a gas explosion which occurred in a sewage lift station being constructed near the defendants' pipe line, their contention being that the explosion was caused by a leak in the gas line.

As the plaintiffs rested, Judge Dooley overruled a defense motion for an instructed verdict.

The two cases, both an outgrowth of the same explosion, are being tried jointly at Judge Dooley's direction although there was no formal consolidation of the cases.

McCollum is seeking $52,500 damages and Bundy $37,500. They are being represented by Davis Scarborough of Abilene and R. T. Bailey of Dallas.

Geo. W. Dupree and James H. Milam of the firm of Crenshaw, Dupree and Milam, are representing the defendants.

The cost of striping and restriping 100,000 miles of highway each year is estimated at $2,800,000 or $28 a mile.

Cotton Belt Lines Blocked By Dispute

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 16. (AP)—Traffic on a section of the Cotton Belt railroad was blocked again today as a result of the strike that has idled all trains of the Missouri Pacific railroad for eight days.

Members of four operating brotherhoods are on strike against the Missouri Pacific.

Picket lines set up by the strikers blocked traffic over the Cotton Belt's main line between Dupo, Ill., and Illmo in southeast Mishouri. The 125 miles of track is leased by the Cotton Belt from the Missouri Pacific.

Heads of three of the unions in Cleveland, Ohio, advised Cotton Belt officials the pickets had been ordered not to interfere with Cotton Belt traffic and that there was a misunderstanding on the part of the pickets. But the picketing continued.

Meantime, there was no early settlement in sight in the MoPac walkout. Guy A. Thompson, the railroad's trustee, suggested to the striking brotherhoods today that both sides call on President Truman to appoint a board to iron out the difficulties.

Gov. Sid McMath of Arkansas today requested a conference of governors of the 10 states affected by the strike.

Wildcats To Begin

county wildcat ten miles north and two miles west of the city of Lubbock, has been completed from the Tubb section of the lower Permian for the second producer in the Cravens field.

The new producer pumped 35.87 barrels of oil in a 24-hour period plus 70 per cent water. Gravity of the new oil was 28 degrees and the gas-oil ratio was 119-1.

The production was from open hole between the top of the pay at 6,100 feet and the total depth at 6,144 feet after that section had been treated with 10,500 gallons of acid.

The well is 660 feet from east and 1,980 feet from south lines of section 22, block D, L&SV survey.

Another Producer

Another producer from the Clear Fork of the Permian has been completed in the Flanagan field of central-south Gaines county at Shell Oil Company, Inc., No. 3 Hawkins.

This exploration made a 24-hour, natural flowing potential of 755 barrels of 38.2 gravity oil, through a one-half inch tubing choke, and no formation water.

The production came from open hole between 7,107 feet and the hole depth at 7,250 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 518-1.

Flowing tubing pressure was 400 pounds and flowing casing pressure was 325 pounds.

This new petroleum producer is 560 feet from east and 1,980 feet from north lines of section 8, block A-23, psl survey. It is one-quarter of a mile north of the same company No. 1 Hawkins, the discovery will of the Flanagan field, which was completed from the Ellenburger. The No. 1 Flanagan showed for production in the Clear Fork and also indicated possible production in the Devonian.

Making More Hole

Shell No. 1 Andrews, five-eighths of a mile north of the Flanagan-Ellenburger discovery and 660 feet from south and west lines of section 2, block A-23, psl survey, had reached 11,778 feet in lime and chert and was making more hole.

The Pure Oil Company has completed its No. 2 C. B. Whatley on the south side of the North Snyder field of north-central Scurry county.

From the Canyon lime it flowed for a calculated 24-hour potential of 2,408.16 barrels of 43-gravity oil through a three-quarter inch tubing choke. Gas-oil ratio of the new petroleum was 720-1. The flow was natural and there was no formation water.

Flowing casing pressure was 850 pounds and the flowing tubing pressure was 500 pounds.

The production was from open hole between the five and one-half inch oil string cemented at 6,649 feet and the total depth at 6,067 feet.

This new source of oil is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 394, block 97, H&TC survey.

Heavy Gas Pressure

Castleman & O'Neil, J. R. Hunter and Walter Duncan No. 1 Huckabee, on the southeast side of the latest southeast extension of the North Snyder field in north-central Scurry county, was reported showing heavy gas pressure from lime section above 6,161 feet, and operators were pumping in heavy mud to keep the project under control.

It is reported that the exploration has been trying to unload, but so far that has been prevented.

This exploration is a one-location east flanker to the Moncrief, Hope, Crosby, and Teas No. 1 Huckabee, recently completed Canyon lime producer which extended the North Snyder field one and one-half miles to the southeast.

It is located 467 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter of section 160, block 3, H&GN survey and is to drill on down until it tests the producing ability of the Canyon lime.

So far it has not yet been determined definitely whether or not the gas and oil being shown in the venture is from the top of the Canyon or from a lime string in the Pennsylvanian above the Canyon. If the Canyon has been reached the project is extra high on the structure.

When the threatened blowout is satisfactorily controlled the prospector will drill deeper.

Dale Richardson In New Uproar Over Grand Jury Action

HOUSTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—It was an unhappy Dale Richardson who stormed from the Harris county grand jury's room today after a 20 minute session with the jurors.

The lone raider constable from La Porte said the jury would not listen as he attempted to present evidence on his Houston pinball machine raids.

"I'll be back Monday," he told a crowded anteroom. "And if they don't listen to me then I am going to go to the window and throw my evidence out of the window and to hell with it."

Jury Foreman David C. Bintliff gave a different version of Dale's 20 minute stay in the jury room.

When informed the raider had said the jury would not listen to his gambling evidence, Bintliff replied:

"That is not true.

"We told him we are in the middle of a very important investigation of a strike in his own precinct. We admitted him so we could question him on the strike, although he came up on another matter. We asked him what he was doing about violence."

Bintliff said he also told the constable there was no point in his bringing his gambling matters before the jury until he files charges in the usual manner before a justice of the peace.

The jury is investigating reported violence at an Oil Workers International Union, CIO, strike at the Mathieson Chemical company plant on the Houston ship channel.

Senate Rejects U. S. Steel Official For Defense Post

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16. (AP)—The Senate today rejected Carl A. Ilgenfritz for a high defense post because he refused to give up the $70,000 - a-year salary he draws from U. S. Steel Corp.

The chamber turned down President Truman's nomination of the "big steel" executive by a vote of 40 to 28.

Mr. Truman had picked Ilgenfritz as a $14,000-a-year chairman of the U. S. munitions board to direct advance planning for nationwide industrial mobilization in the event of another war.

Ilgenfritz made an eleventh-hour offer to work for the government for nothing—if that was legally possible—but insisted he could not afford to give up his salary as a vice-president of U. S. Steel. He is in charge of the company's purchasing.

Walter B. Barclay, Of Spur, Claimed

SPUR, Sept. 16. (Special)—Walter B. Barclay, 79, a resident of Dickens county since 1915, died at a Wichita Falls hospital at 7 a.m. Friday.

Barclay, who moved to this area from Sulphur Springs, was married to Miss Anna Alice Bateman in Winnsboro in 1898. Mrs. Barclay died in 1921.

Services are scheduled at the First Baptist church here at 2:30 p.m., Sunday with Rev. C. Melvin Rathael, pastor, and Rev. A. P. Stokes, pastor of the First Baptist church at Afton officiating. Chandler funeral home of Spur is in charge of arrangements. Burial will be in Afton cemetery.

Survivors include five sons, Walter S. and Claude, of Spur; J. G., and Curtis, both of Lubbock; and Bynum, of Chandler, Ariz.; three sisters, Mrs. Archie Tedford, of Hook, Texas; and Miss Mattie Barclay and Mrs. Jimmy Sickle, both of Sulphur Springs. Eleven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren also survive.

Pallbearers will be Casey Allredge, Shagg Moudy, Horace Cage, all of Spur; Marion Simpson, Eddie Bergman and Tony Gillison, all of Lubbock.

Two-Day Field Day Program Ends Here

Wet and muddy fields again hampered a farmer's field day at the State Experiment station east of Lubbock Friday, but more than 185 farmers turned out for the rest of the program.

Don L. Jones, superintendent and his staff conducted discussions on experiments on field crops, irrigation, cotton defoliation and insect control, but had to forego actual field inspection.

The Friday session was held primarily for farmers from Parmer, Swisher, Floyd, Dawson, Gaines, Terry, Yoakum, Crosby and Bailey couties. Rainy weather at two previous field days also kept farmers from the fields.

Jones said plans are being considered for another session to be devoted entirely to viewing experimental crops. No date for that session has been set, he said.

Three-Year-Old Anton Boy Dies After Collapsing While Eating

Ronald Lee Goen, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Goen, of Anton died at his home about 3 p. m. Friday after he had collapsed while eating.

Attendants at the Amherst clinic, said examination there failed to disclose cause of death. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, Rix Funeral home, where the body was taken has announced.

Survivors, besides the parents, include five brothers: Billy Claude, David, Douglass, Jerry, and James, all of Anton.
