President Cracks Down On Writers In Statement

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—President Roosevelt cracked down today on those who write as "one of the president's closest advisers."

He issued this blunt statement:

"The president announced the death of the 'Official Spokesman' in March, 1933. He now announces the passing of the so-called authoritative spokesmen—those who write as 'One of The President's Closest Advisers.'"

Presidential aides declined to say against whom the statement was aimed.

Follows High Article

Its appearance closely followed, however, the publication of an article by Dr. Stanley High declaring that Vice President Garner appeared likely to lead old line Democratic leaders in a movement to "dismantle" the New Deal.

Dr. High's article appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, which said in an accompanying editor's note that he "has the Washington reputation of being one of the president's close advisers."

Said Resentful

In his article High said the bulk of Democratic party leaders were conservative and resentful of both President Roosevelt's policies and their "non-partisan" administration.

"They believe," he said, "that they can safely begin at once the work of dismantling the New Deal and demobilizing the New Dealers. They are convinced that by 1940 that job can be well on toward completion."

Already, High asserted, Vice President Garner has quietly but with relish undertaken the job of reassembling the pre-Roosevelt congressional machine.

Fate On Highways Is Escaped By 168

AUSTIN, Feb. 4. (AP)—The public safety department reported today 168 persons, apparently marked for death on the highways, escaped that fate in 1936.

Late in the year it was indicated 2,000 would die in traffic accidents, but the death toll ended at 1,885, slightly larger than the previous year.

Authorities were cheered to observe the ratio of deaths to gasoline consumed and to population dropped off.

Convict May Have Interest On $10,000 If He Will Take Benefactor's Family Driving

BALTIMORE, Feb. 4. (AP)—Joseph D. Blumenfeld doesn't know whether fortune is smiling on him or just having hysterics.

Blumenfeld is a prisoner in the Maryland penitentiary.

Controversy Develops Over Appointment Of Male Prexy

BOSTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—Controversy over appointment of Dr. Boswell G. Ham as the first male president of Mount Holyoke college grew tonight in response to an appeal to alumnae to protest abandonment of a custom which has stood since the institution was founded a century ago.

There was evidence, however, the alumnae lacked complete unanimity in opposition to Dr. Ham's appointment to succeed Dr. Mary Emma Woolley, who will retire in June.

Do classified ads pay?

"I'll say they do," said Elmer Ray of Sixteenth street and Avenue M.

Mrs. Ray lost a $59 white gold wrist watch in 1000-block Broadway Wednesday. Her husband placed a 84-cent advertisement in Thursday's Morning Avalanche.

At 1:30 p. m. Thursday the watch had been returned to the Rays. A Slaton woman had found the time-piece and had taken it to the Avalanche-Journal business office.

"I'm going to find her name and pay her a reward and give her a tankful of gasoline," said Ray, a service station operator.

Governor Murphy Announces "Progress Was Made" After Conference Closed At 12:50 A. M. Today

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, Feb. 5. (Friday)—The fifth session of the peace conference toward settlement of the General Motors strike adjourned at 12:50 o'clock (eastern standard time) this morning until later in the day. Conferees said the meeting would reconvene at 10 a. m.

Governor Frank Murphy said as he left the room:

"Progress was made. The public will find that the peaceful way is the way to do it; peacefully and in an effort to understand one another. Both sides are in earnest and are doing their best.

Keeping Close Contact

"In the meantime I am keeping in close contact with the situation in Flint. I am keeping in hourly contact with the military and other representatives there acting as peacemakers. Under difficult circumstances, they have achieved excellent results."

REAL ISSUE CITED

DETROIT, Feb. 4. (AP)—An authoritative source disclosed tonight that recognition of the United Automobile Workers of America as the sole collective bargaining agency for General Motors corporation employees was the principal stumbling block in a conference on negotiations for ending the widespread automotive strike.

Evacuation of the corporation's plants at Flint, Mich., center of the dispute which has crippled operations of the giant motor firm, a source close to the conference said, was only a secondary question.

Speeding the attempts to find a basis for settlement parleys was the desire to ease tension in strike-bound Flint, where "stay-in" strikers for more than 24 hours have defied a court injunction ordering them to evacuate two Fisher Body company plants.

Governor Issues Appeal

The governor appealed to "responsible persons" to "refrain from inflammatory statements and acts."

At Flint Police Chief James V. Wills was enlisting hundreds of "police reserves" to remain on call to "maintain peace and order"; 3,500 national guardsmen continued their patrol of an area which contains the striker-held Fisher plant No. 2, and women members of the United Automobile Workers "emergency brigade" joined with men in a demonstration in front of Fisher

Wagner For Court Is Farley's Hope

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP)—Postmaster General James A. Farley tonight expressed hope that the Supreme court of the United States "can find a place" for Senator Robert F. Wagner (D-NY) as a member.

Addressing a testimonial dinner in honor of Wagner, Farley said that no one except President Roosevelt has done more for down-trodden people in New York state than Wagner and that "the senator can stay there (in the senate) as long as he wants, as far as the people of New York are concerned."

Man Arrested In Hobo "Jungles" Is Found Dead In Cell; Said To Be Unbalanced

(By The Associated Press)

AUBURN, Wash., Feb. 4.—John F. Johnson, 40, jailed last Friday for questioning about the kidnap-killing of 10-year-old Charles Mattson, was found dead in his cell today, his belt around his neck and tied to his cot. Auburn is 20 miles south of Seattle.

Police Chief Ed Norris found the body on the floor. Norris and Coroner's Deputy George W. Scott said the man undoubtedly killed himself.

Johnson, arrested in the hobo "jungles" here on complaint of other transients who said he appeared mentally unbalanced and might know something about the Tacoma case, denied any knowledge of the crime.

Costliest Maritime Strike In U. S. History Ended; 40,000 Men And 239 Ships Involved

Record Breaking 98-Day Walk-Out Is Called Off Thursday; Business Interests Estimate Strike Cost $686,000,000

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4. — The costliest maritime strike in American history ended at 2:45 p. m. (PST) today on a call destined to send 40,000 men and 239 ships into a scramble for long-lost jobs and trade in the world's markets beginning tomorrow.

Union leaders called off the record breaking 98-day walkout after reporting overwhelming worker approval of tentative agreements negotiated between their representatives and shipowners through months of haggling.

BUSINESS HAS RUSH

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 4. (AP)—Settlement of the multi-million dollar maritime strike started a rush today to prepare for quick movement of goods as probably never has been seen before on the Pacific coast.

The news of settlement gave business morale the biggest boost in the memory of veterans of the commercial community.

Cheers Greet Decision

Cheers sounded rather freely along the rain-drenched waterfront as thousands of men, standing by in anticipation, heard the decision.

Employers, too busy to comment immediately, moved to make quick getaways. Ships were all ready for sea. Cargoes awaited unloading.

Strike leaders likewise refused comment.

Huge Majorities Shown

Returns from union referendum showed huge majorities in favor of accepting tentative agreements assuring the workers generally of higher wages, union control of hiring agencies, the 8-hour day or less and adjusted working conditions.

The results showed, however, that one of the seven unions, the marine firemen, had rejected the tentative accord negotiated for them. They voted in favor of arbitrating differences with employers.

The firemen will work pending adjustment of their claims by negotiation or arbitration, however.

Longshoremen flocked to the harbor area anticipating capture of the first jobs to be filled. Their hiring

Milburn Man Faces Charge

Fred Parker Is Held Thursday For Murder Of 42-Year-Old Wife, Former Teacher In Ft. Worth Schools

(By The Associated Press)

BRADY, Feb. 4. — Fred Parker, 26-year-old McCulloch county farmer was charged with murder today in the death of his 42-year-old wife, May Betty Parker, a former Fort Worth school teacher.

At the time of her death officers were told that Mrs. Parker had failed to regain consciousness after being kicked by a horse at the Parker farm in the Milburn community, 25 miles northeast of here. She died Jan. 22 of a three-inch fracture back of her left ear.

Body Disinterred Tuesday

The body of Mrs. Parker was disinterred Tuesday afternoon and an autopsy performed. Justice W. B. Douglas of Brady has not yet completed the inquest.

Parker was arrested yesterday, officers said, but they would not say where he was being held. Sheriff Love Kimbrough said the murder complaint against the young man was filed "by a state officer."

Mr. and Mrs. Parker were married about 10 months ago. She taught for 17 years in the J. P. Elder and Jennings avenue junior high schools at Fort Worth and later was an instructor in civics and history at North Side high school there. She resigned in 1933.

Kenyon Sticks To 'Nighthawk' Story

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 4. (AP)—Wizened Robert Kenyon stuck tonight to his story pinning the kidnap-killing of Dr. J. C. B. Davis on a mysterious "Nighthawk," labeled by J. Edgar Hoover "purely mythical and a creature of Kenyon's imagination."

Brought to an almost impregnable cell atop Kansas City's towering courthouse after he led officers to the elderly Willow Springs, Mo., physician's bullet-torn body yesterday morning, the Hill county farm youth persisted in his assertions "Nighthawk" was the actual abductor and slayer.

Vast Program To Aid Drouth Area Offered

President Roosevelt Presents Long-Term Plans To Control Great Plains Disasters In Future Years

Stable Income Goal

Report Of Federal Experts Is Revealed; To Be Sent Soon To Congress Along With A Message From FDR

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—President Roosevelt shaped a long-term drouth program to dovetail with the vast public works and flood control plans he recently handed congress.

Before him were detailed recommendations of federal experts who have been seeking means to prevent future disasters like the 1934 and 1936 drouths of the Great Plains.

Mr. Roosevelt planned to send their report, along with a message of his own, to congress shortly.

Take 20 To 25 Years

Administration planners said it would take 20 to 25 years to carry out the program in the area which stretches from the Canadian border to Texas, east of the Rocky mountains and west of the Mississippi.

They described the region generally as one of the light annual rainfall, blistering heat in summer, frigid blizzards in winter, and high winds at all seasons.

To Assure Stable ncome

The federal experts have planned to use land in the area so it would assure a stable income to the 2,500,000 residents now dependent on agriculture.

The federal government would take the initiative, they said, by a careful survey of the 400,000,000 acres; by demonstration projects to conserve soil and water; and by funds to establish agriculture on a sound basis.

Local administration through groups, similar to the county-farmer committees which now handle the federal farm program, was suggested.

The proposed survey by agricultural scientists and engineers would

Mississippi River Is Carrying Flood

Ohio's Turgid Flow Being Absorbed By Giant Stream

(By The Associated Press)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 4. — The broad Mississippi, absorbing the Ohio's devastating flood waters, carried its record load docilely through the delta country tonight.

Vigilant rivermen predicted its safe passage to the Gulf of Mexico.

U. S. Engineers, 120,000 work-weary levee defenders and thousands of refugees driven from their homes by the flood felt the worst was over. They heard the Ohio riven and the upper Mississippi were falling.

Falling At Cairo

The yellow waters of the Ohio started falling at Cairo, Ill., heretofore prime danger spot, and the Mississippi slowly receded in a crucial stretch between Hickman, Ky., and Tiptonville, Tenn.

Encouraging reports brought no relaxation, however, in the fight to maintain the thousand-mile levee line along the Mississippi. Engineers said they were determined to keep at a minimum the deaths, already around 400 persons, and to hold property damage to present $550,000,000 estimate.

Nine-Foot Drop Recorded

At Portsmouth, O., a nine-foot drop was registered and the Ohio was falling all the way to the mouth of the Wabash river above Shawneetown, Ill.

The Mississippi river rose about 41 of a foot on the Memphis weather bureau gauge to a stage of 47.61 feet at 2 p. m., on the U. S. engineer gauge it registered 49.20 feet at 7 a. m., a rise of about seven inches in 24 hours.

Admiral Cary T. Grayson, chairman of the National Red Cross, said 581,215 persons were being cared for in concentration centers of the flood zone. He estimated 987,000 persons were affected by the highest waters in history.

A total of 793 concentration camps and 244 field hospitals were being operated. Nurses on active duty totaled 1,400. Contributions to the Red Cross disaster relief fund totaled $14,119,000.

Cairo's Weary Defenders Giving Sigh Of Relief

CAIRO, Ill., Feb. 4. (AP)—Slowly as it rose, the Ohio fell tonight and Cairo's weary defenders saw victory, almost on the instant the first flood damage came to the diked-in city.

Neither the damage nor the river's slow recession amounted to much, but they served to show Cairo the

Nelson's Bill Is Introduced

Unicameral Legislative Body Is Again Proposed By Local Senator; Talk Of Change Has Become Popular Of Late

(Special To The Avalanche)

AUSTIN, Feb. 4.—Again attempting to establish a unicameral legislature in Texas, Sen. G. H. Nelson has introduced his bill in the senate for the creation of a single chamber legislature.

The bill is the same substantially as proposed last year by the senator and is in most respects similiar to a bill introduced by Rep. Wilson Fox this session, a bill which proposes the one-house idea.

Passage Seems Favorable

"Passage of the proposed amendment seems favorable at this session," Sen. Nelson said. "I believe the bill will be reported out of committee as favorable. If two-thirds of the members in each house uphold the bill it will then be submitted to the people at an election in 1938, and if passed then, it would become effective in January 1941."

No bill in state history has been introduced providing for such drastic changes in the structure of the government, but talk of such change has become more popular of late. Newspaper men over the state have expressed favorable comment, "and it is believed that the people are in favor since it aims to cut the expense of operating the government in half."

Terms Would Be 4 Years

A reading of the bill shows intention of a simple procedure of government similiar to that now operating in Nebraska. Instead of

Jones Bill Is Reported Out By Committee

Incorporation Tax In Texas Would Be Increased 700 Per Cent Through Measure To Go Before House

Ballot Is 11 To 7

New Levy Would Be Five Per Cent Of Net Income Or One-Tenth Of One Per Cent Of Gross Assets

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 4. The house revenue and taxation committee voted tonight, 11 to 7, to recommend passage of a bill by Rep. Herman Jones of Decatur to increase the corporation franchise tax about 700 per cent.

The levy would be five per cent of net income or one-tenth of one per cent of gross assets, whichever was larger. Jones estimated it would yield around $12,000,000 annually, in contrast to the approximately $1,500,000 a year realized from the present franchise tax.

Tarwater For Measure

Voting for the bill were Representatives Baker of Rosenberg, Bell of Cuero, Derden of Marlin, England of McKinney, Jones of Decatur, King of Garner, Langdon of Glen Rose, Morris of Greenville, Palmer of Normangee, Skaggs of Deport and Tarwater of Plainview.

Opponents were James of Cameron, Dean of Hamlin, Johnson of Fort Worth, Jones of Jourdanton, McCracken of San Antonio, Patterson of Mullin and Reed of Texarkana.

Start Hearings Monday

This was the first revenue-raising bill considered by the committee. It will start hearings Monday night on bills to increase the oil tax.

Representatives of manufacturers, public utilities, insurance companies, oil pipe lines, railroads and other business concerns gave lengthy arguments against the franchise tax increase in hearings Monday and yesterday. They warned that repeated additions to the heavy tax burden on industry would "kill the goose that lays the golden egg."

Would Build Up Wall

The final argument against the bill was made by Representative McCracken.

"On the one hand," McCracken said, "we appropriate large sums of money to the planning board to bring new industry to Texas and on the other consider a tax which

Drama Is Unfolded On Screen Before Taut And Attentive Audience—Murder Case Jury Which Is To Write Finale

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Feb. 4. A motion picture with sound effects—a drama to which a jury will write a finale—was projected today in a darkened superior courtroom.

The film was evidence offered by the state in the trial of Robert Hayes, 50, charged with murdering his 80-year-old neighbor, David Munroe, because he accused him of stealing a chicken for his Thanksgiving dinner.

The cast: Hayes and Detective Lieutenants Miles Ledbetter and Dr. R. Patton. They were quizzing Hayes just after he had been taken into custody following the slaying of Munroe last Thanksgiving.

Ledbetter: Scotty, we want you to tell us the truth now. Give us exactly what you know about old man Munroe's death.

Hayes: I'll tell you all about it. Everything I know—but I don't know anything about it, I tell you.

And so on, with Hayes, in a rich Scotch accent, denying he had anything to do with the death of his neighbor.

Patton asked the prisoner to explain blood stains on his trousers. The stains were visible on the screen.

"I must have got it there while I was killing a chicken the day before Thanksgiving—maybe, was the reply.

The officers showed him the iron pipe the state charges Hayes employed as the weapon.

ILLS OF DRINKING

THE pastors' association of Clarksville, representing the Baptist, Christian, Methodist and Presbyterian churches, has adopted resolutions protesting the use of the high school gymnasium for dancing and petitioning the trustees to refuse the use of school property for such a purpose. In their resolutions the ministers deplore drinking as violating the law of the state and inviting the curse of God, who declares, "Woe unto him that giveth his neighbor drink, that puttest thy bottle to him and maketh him drunken."

The pastors also point out that social drinking often leads to drunkenness. The young man or woman who boasts that he or she knows when to "stop drinking" is usually the one who doesn't stop when he reaches his so called "capacity." Or, as the late Billy Sunday put it, "I've noticed the man who says he can either drink liquor or let it alone is usually the one who doesn't let it alone."

WHEN WILL IT STOP?

THAT bright morning he was a brilliant young business man, that noon he was a drunkard, driving an automobile, that sad evening he was a murderer. We read of such accidents every day. Must we allow this war against human life to go on day after day—killing thousands each year? Most of these "sudden deaths" are the result of drunken driving (ask the physicians or morticians who see the victims).

We cannot stir people with talks or write articles that will inspire others to learn to "live and let live," but we can at least respect our fellow man enough to try to protect his life by careful and sober driving.

CIGARETTE CONSUMPTION

CIGARETTE consumption in the United States in 1936 totaled 150,000,000,000, as shown by figures form the U .S. bureau of internal revenue and representing tax-paid withdrawals of the standard-sized brands. In establishing a new record for sales, the cigarette industry exceeded the previous record by more than 15 billion cigarettes, with each month of 1936 recording a gain over the same month of 1935.

It's always rather interesting to speculate as to why persons smoke. We believe the main reason is for enjoyment and stimulation and not to "calm the nerves," as some insist. For instance, during the first years of the late depression, in 1929 and 1930, the sales were only 118 and 119 billion cigarettes sold annually. There were thousands of extremely nervous persons during those years, too, you'll remember. Perhaps they didn't smoke so much because they couldn't afford it.

ON MAKING FRIENDS

DALE CARNEGIE, author of the current non-fiction best seller, "How To Make Friends and Influence People," is of the opinion that he should have named his book," How to Make People Like You." He supposes most of us, after all, have only three or four real friends. Mr. Carnegie doesn't want his best seller, considered a simple bag of tricks that will help anyone get what he wants and sell more goods. It isn't so simple because to many people it's a whole new way of life.

In his laboratory of human relations at the Carnegie Institute in New York—Mr. Carnegie, who by the way is a bachelor in his forties, offers suggestions to be tried on the wife or husbands and kiddies. If they work out, well and good. It's rather hard to make guinea pigs out of your household, but you can get a fairly unprejudiced opinion at that.

Charge Of Murder Dismissed After Physician Says Man's Death Was Caused By Thirst

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 4. (AP)—A murder charge against Frank Bond, tavern operator, was dismissed today after a physician testified the victim in the case, J. A. Fanning, died of thrist.

At a preliminary hearing on the charge before Common Pleas Judge Burt Johnson, Dr. K. K. Eason, state's witness, testified X-ray photographs had disproved an earlier belief that Fanning's skull was fractured during a fight at a tavern.

Dr. Eason said the evidence showed Fanning, intoxicated, lay in a stupor at his home 54 hours before a physician was called, continued in that state at a hospital and finally died of "dehydration."

AUSTIN, Feb. 4. (AP)—The house of representatives today sent back to the labor committee a bill by Rep. Joe Ed Winfree of Houston to increase the maximum workman's compensation from $20 to $30 a week.

THE OTHER WOMAN LIVES JUST AROUND THE CORNER

It may seem unreasonable, but most men cannot understand why a woman who is usually happy and loving should have recurring periods when her whole character seems changed. He cannot appreciate the distress, the discomfort that all women must endure. He does not know what it is to do housework with an aching back and failing energy. All he does know is that other women seem more cheerful by comparison.

Are you such a three-quarter wife?

Don't let the ordeals that all women face cause you avoidable discomfort or endanger your home. Do as so many wise women have—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three ordeals of life: 1. Turning from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife; take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and Go "Smiling Through."

Murder Trial Cases Closed

Charge To Jury And Arguments Due Today In Trial Of Negro Woman For Slaying Of Bozo Bailey At Slaton

Both sides closed at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon after two hours of rivet-hammer objections, rulings, exceptions and frequent admonitions of judge and bailiff, in the murder trial in 99th district court of Fannie Burnett, a negro woman who has "42 stitches in this arm and didn't wanna get killed again."

The Burnett woman, indicted in 1934 at San Antonio for murder and 1936 at Austin for assault to kill, said she killed Bozo Bailey, negro radio entertainer of Lubbock, with a gun last April 5 at Slaton.

Counsels Exchange Words

The buxom negro (she weighs 189 pounds) went to the stand after enlivening exchanges between counsel; insistent objections of Durwood H. Bradley, who with W. D. Wilson represented the defendant, over admissibility of evidence; close cross-examination of a state witness, Ragan Reed, Slaton constable, and rappings for order in the courtroom.

An almost capacity crowd, largely composed of negroes, murmured and gave over to subdued mirth at occasional moments of point-blank cross examination, and Judge E. L. Pitts adjured quietness several times. Cap Moore, deputy sheriff and bailiff, went back into the courtroom once to impose the rule.

"Was Scaired Of Him"

The Burnett woman, 29, said she killed Bailey because she "was scaired of him" and after he had taken a gun from another negro woman, "Paducah Shorty," and threatened to take all her money, $5.75. She said she had bought him "and me a pint of corn whisky for eighty cents, and chicken suppers."

She indicated she knew danger, since she had been "cut all to pieces" in other years.

"I'd just as soon kill you as anyone else," she quoted Bailey as saying. "He hit me on the mouth and knocked my ear ring out," she said.

Gun Has "Snapped"

Negro witnesses for the state and one for the defense said the Burnett woman shot Bailey a few seconds after her gun had "snapped" and after she then had "fooled with it." Will Lee, Slaton negro who worked at a dance place where Bailey was killed, said when called by the defense and on direct examination Bailey was not threatening the Burnett woman, either by word or by action, and that Fannie said when working with the gun after it had been snapped, "'If I can get this thing working I'll kill a bunch of you'."

Lee's failure to testify on cross-examination to having told a grand jury here April 17 he heard Bailey tell the woman, "'I'm not gonna harm you; I'm trying to keep you out of trouble'," prompted District Attorney Burton S. Burks to take the stand for examination by Victor H. Lindsey, his assistant, just before the state closed its case. The defense, however, had not objected to introduction of the statement in evidence.

Reed Identified Shells

Reed, asked by the state to identify shells from the death gun, did so, but was made to admit by Bradley he didn't know whether shells had been hit by a firing pin, to tell what the woman, "in essence," a nail or what.

Over protest, Reed was allowed said after the fatal shot had been fired; "You don't need a doctor, get a undertaker; when I shoot 'em they stay shot."

State called two other witnesses, Barney Coleman and Charley Williams, negroes.

A jury, completed at 2:30 o'clock, is composed of J. B. Clark, H. V. Fields, D. S. Biggs, S. E. Bell, A. R. Ellis, C. C. Webb, C. Faulkenberg, T. A. Barber, J. N. Waldrop, Ernest Isom, H. P. Chandler, and E. G. Altman.

A jury charge was being prepared Thursday night and it was deemed likely arguments would begin early this morning.

Try Legumes, If Margin Of Profit Too Light, Suggested

MANHATTAN, Kas., Feb. 4. (AP)—Legumes are the margin that spells profit instead of loss for many midwest farmers.

A summary of farm accounts compiled by Kansas State college economists shows that the average farmer who grew legumes, alfalfa or sweet clover made larger profits in each of the last twelve years than did the farmer who grew no legumes.

The figures showed that farmers who devoted more than 30 per cent of their crop land to legumes received an annual net return of $12.49 per crop acre. Those with legumes on from 16 to 30 per cent of their crop land made a profit of $10.22 an acre, and those who grew legumes on not more than 15 per cent of their land received $7.28 an acre.

Kindness To Animals Credo Shaken; Damage Charged Up

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4. (AP) — Mrs. Earle Bryant returned to her Collingswood home after a day's absence and wondered whether it pays to be kind to animals.

Window sills were splintered, flower pots overturned and upholstery ripped.

Police said it was the work of squirrels accustomed to being fed by Mrs. Bryant daily in the back yard. When no food was offered, police surmised, the squirrels were tempted into the house and then chewed at window sills and scampered up draperies before they found that the chimney leads out as well as in.

HAPPY RELIEF FROM PAINFUL BACKACHE

Caused by Tired Kidneys

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys—and may be relieved when treated in the right way.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, lumbago, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Woman Dies From Burns

Mrs. Marion Smith Of Joinerville In East Texas Victim Of Injuries Received When Cottage Home Burns

(By The Associated Press)

JOINERVILLE, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Marion Smith, 27, died today of burns suffered while attempting to rescue her daughter, Billy Joe, six, who braved the flames of their burning cottage home to "rescue" her doll.

Mrs. Smith was pulled from the flames by another child, James, 8, but the burns proved fatal to her today in a Henderson hospital. The girl's body was removed from the ashes of their home today.

James was not seriously burned.

Both the mother and the daughter had been ill in the tiny oil field cottage. Mrs. Smith left her bed to rescue her daughter following the explosion of a can of kerosene.

She carried the child to safety, but Billy Joe remembered she had left her doll in the bed where she had been ill, and darted back into the house. Her mother followed and was burned over her body when her clothing caught fire. She had been unable to reach the child who had run to the back of the room for her doll.

"Mystery Well" On Coast Is Brought In As Wild Gasser

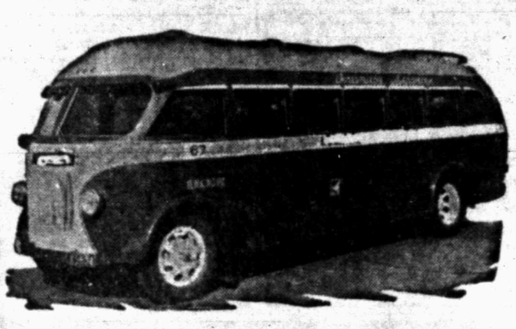

HOUSTON, Feb. 4. (AP) — The "mystery well" of the Gulf coast region, a wildcat drilled by the Barnsdall Oil corporation in the Corpus Christi area, blew in as a wild gasser today.

The well was down to 8,000 feet when terrific gas pressure was encountered and the well ran wild.

The wild cat is known as the Barnsdall Oil corporation's No. 1 Kate Edwards and is located on Copano bay peninsula near Rockport.

All operations connected with the drilling of this test had been in strict secrecy with no reports made available to other oil operators.

Tribute To Be Paid To Moody

Memory Of World-Famed Bible Teacher And Evangelist To Be Honored In Chicago On 100th Birth Anniversary

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—Thousands of the faithful gathered today to honor the memory of Dwight L. Moody, the evangelist who carried the gospel to 100,000,000 persons.

From cities scattered through the United States and Canada and from 15 foreign countries they came to participate in ceremonies commemorating the 100th anniversary of his birth.

Similar, but smaller, groups will observe the centennial throughout the world this year.

To Pay Mass Tribute

Tomorrow night, the pilgrims will assemble in the 12,000-seat coliseum to pay mass scale tribute to the short, stout, dark and bearded man who forsook the business of selling shoes for his chosen work of saving souls.

Moody was born Feb. 5, 1837, in East Northfield, Mass. At 17, he left home, learned the shoe business in Boston and migrated to Chicago. He opened a Bible class.

Eventually he set off on a preaching trail that was to take him almost 1,000,000 miles through America and the British isles.

His meetings were crowded. He appealed to logic in a practical, persuasive manner.

Classed With Lincoln

Gladstone called Moody and Lincoln the greatest Americans of their century.

In 1889, he established the Moody Bible Institute here. Religious instruction has been imparted to 118,702 persons here. Members of many denominations came to study Greek and Hebrew, the Biblical text and music, some 2,000 of them went into foreign mission service around the globe.

The school has a current enrollment of 1,700.

Moody died in his native East Northfield in 1899. His last words were:

"Heaven opens before me."

Former Student Of Texas Tech Dies

Miller Lee, 23, former student at Texas Technological college, died in a Carlsbad, N. M., sanitarium Thursday afternoon following a streptococcus infection and double-pneumonia. Lee was a mathematics major while he attended Tech during the 1932-33 and 1933-34 sessions. The youth was a nephew of Jesse A. Lee, 2301 Thirteenth street.

At the time of his death he was employed by the Carlsbad Cavern National park at Carlsbad. Burial will be made at Knox City tomorrow.

Great Religious Revival Planned In Great Britain

LONDON, Feb. 4. (AP)—A campaign for a great religious revival in Britain will be launched tomorrow on the 100th anniversary of the birth of the famous American evangelist, Dwight L. Moody.

Elderly Londoners recalled that when Moody and the gospel singer Ira David Sankey conducted meetings here the throngs became so great at one time that a dozen temporary halls were erected to accomodate them.

The effects of Moody's preaching were tremendous, British historians relate.

June May Be Time Of Honeysuckle And Romance But Not In Cleveland Courts

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Feb. 4.—June may be the time of honeysuckle and sweet romance.

But more Cleveland husbands appear before police judges on charges of using muscle on friend wife in June than in any other month of the year.

Cleveland court records showed today that 183 bruised wives had their husbands haled to court — more than 31 per cent of all private warrants—in the last eight months.

Thirty Cases In June

From a high of 30 cases in June, the figure dwindled to a low of 11 in December. January cases totaled 28.

"A husband who has been belaboring his wife usually leaves court realizing that common sense and patience will iron out a family fight," said Judge Louis Petrash, who has heard most of the recent wife-beating cases.

"We almost never have a husband and wife in here more than once for such an offense."

Have Variety Of Causes

Such fights, the judge said, have a variety of causes.

"Usually it's because the husband comes in drunk and disorderly and resents his wife's objections. Then, too, a lot of time it's the old story of the husband coming home to find his dinner uncooked."

In at least two cases during the last eight months, court records showed, it was the husband who haled the "little woman" into court for assault and battery.

Elmer J. Grimes Rites Will Be Read In Lubbock Saturday

Funeral services for Elmer J. (Shorty) Grimes will be read at Sanders Funeral home at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning. Liff Sanders and John T. Smith, elder and minister, respectively, of the Church of Christ, will officiate.

Grimes, 37, former Lubbock resident, died in a Fort Lyon, Colo., hospital Wednesday night after a year's illness.

He is survived by his father, who is ill at Wingate; two brothers, Jack Grimes, 1807 Sixteenth street, and W. C. Grimes, Acuff; and a sister Mrs. John Morrison, 2021 Tenth street.

Jones Well Gauges 22 Barrels An Hour In Test On Thursday

ABILENE, Feb. 4. (AP)—The fifth and largest producer for the new Jones county Guitar pool, the Danciger Oil and Refineries No. 1 Guitar trust estate, was gauged today flowing 22 barrels per hour over a 24-hour period.

The well, which local operators said indicated a westward trend toward the town of Hawley for the Guitar production, made 528 barrels after treatment with 2,000 gallons of acid in lime from 1,987 to 2,002 feet. It is a mile east of Hawley, in section 44-15-T. & P.

Crosbyton Damage Action To Jury

CROSBYTON, Feb. 4. (Special)—A jury that received the $50,000 damage action of W. W. Yarbrough and others against T. B. Haney and others had not reported at 6 o'clock tonight, three hours after Judge Daniel A. Blair of 72nd district court had ordered it to retire to consider a verdict. It will resume deliberation Friday morning.

The case went to the body on 46 issues.

Yarbrough is suing for the death of Chester Yarbrough, his son, in an automobile collision one mile east of Ralls Nov. 14, 1935; and, as next friend of his son, Leo Yarbrough, for the death of Leo's wife, Margaret Yarbrough, 17, in the same crash.

The case, which was begun Monday, went to the jury after arguments of an hour and a half to the side.

Judge Blair will terminate the session of four weeks here Saturday, and Monday will convene a term at Lubbock. A grand jury will be impaneled and charged, he said.

'WHO'S WHO MYSTERY'

GUTHRIE, Okla. (AP)—The mystery of the "unknown" resident of this city of 10,000, whose name appeared in the 1936 edition of "Who's Who in America," has been solved.

She is Mother Agnes Arvin, president of the Catholic College for Women of Oklahoma. She has been president since 1927—and a member of the faculty since 1898.

When her name appeared, simply as Agnes Arvin, hundreds of residents of Guthrie pondered her identity.

The first scientist to send the human voice by radio waves was Vladimir Poulson, a Dane.

Beware The Cough

From a common cold

That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Wild Cherry and Menthol, but also has fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

Two Officials Are Criticized

New York Representative Says Secretary Hull And One Of Assistants "Have Complete Contempt For Congress"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Representative Culkin (R-NY) accused Secretary Hull and Assistant Secretary Francis B. Sayre of the state department today of having "a complete contempt for congress."

While Sayre smiled down from one of the galleries, the New Yorker made the charge in the midst of house debate on a resolution to extend the reciprocal trade agreements act.

Follows Administration Speakers

Culkin spoke after administration stalwarts had praised the measure as a boon to recovery and peace. They urged congress to enact to extend the president's power to negotiate trade treaties.

When Hull gets into the realms of tariff and international trade agreements, Culkin asserted, "he becomes a mystic and a dreamer."

He called Sayre, who has handled the mechanics of the trade pacts, an internationalist to whose mind "any treaty is a good one, provided the other country is happy."

Arrangements For Kite Tournament Made By Leaders

A first annual kite tournament for all Boy Scouts and cubs in Lubbock will be conducted from 2 to 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Feb. 13, Dr. Marshall Harvey, chairman of the arrangements committee, announced.

Prizes will be given to first and second place winners in all events, and ribbons will be awarded to first, second, and third place winners. Entries must be in the scout office, 413 Myrick building, by noon Saturday, Feb. 13.

Individual Events

Individual events in the tourney will be biggest kite, smallest kite, most artistic kite, most unique kite and best flying free for all. All kites must fly to qualify.

Prizes are being presented through courtesy of Lubbock Lions' club. Members of the prize committee are D. Noel Stalnaker, chairman, Hudgleston Wright and Walter Granberry. Doctor Harvey is general chairman of the entire tournament, representing the Lions.

Judges will be Herman Fink, chairman, William H. Evans and Lennis Baker. Dr. Harvey and H. C. Pender are the promotion committee.

Scouts To Meet

Scouts entering are to meet north of the Texas Tech campus on the west side of College avenue.

A banner will go to the troop for a year with the most points, a complete grading system having been worked out by judges. Judging of individual kites will be on flying ability, construction of kite, and neatness.

In addition to individual contests, there will be a cubbing event, special 100 yard dash contest, and troop battle royal kite contest.

The tourney is part of the observance here of national Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13.

Work on Westminister Abbey for the coronation of King George will keep the famous structure closed four months.

BATON ROUGE, La., Feb. 4.—Gov. Richard W. Leche had a communication today from Gabriel Hanotaux of the French academy declaring a mission from France would visit cities in Louisiana and Texas to commemorate the 250th anniversary of the death of Robert Cavelier de La Salle.

The famed French colonial administrator and explorer, born in Normandy, voyaged down the Mississippi river to its mouth in 1682. He died five years later near its banks at the hand of an assassin.

The letter stated the mission would visit Moblie, Ala., New Orleans, Baton Rouge, Houma, New Iberia, St. Martinsville, Lafayette, Shreveport, Houston, Austin, San Antonio and Galveston at Easter time.

Proposal To Abolish Taxes On Real Estate Expect Levy For Vets Pension Introduced By Holbrook And Weinert

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Feb. 4.—A proposal to abolish the state ad valorem tax on real estate, except the 7-cent levy for Confederate pensions, turned up in the senate today.

Sens. T. J. Holbrook of Galveston and R. A. Weinert of Seguin introduced a resolution to submit such a constitutional amendment next August.

Holbrook said the proposal was intended to lift the burden of taxation off property and if adopted would force the legislature to seek new revenues.

The present maximum ad valorem levies are 35 cents per $100 for the general fund and a like amount for the school fund.

Remission of the tax for five years has been proposed in the house of representatives.

Administration officials of the University of Florida report one student gave his birth as March 23, 1814 in filling out matriculation papers.

This Easy, Safe Way

How would you like to get rid of that bulging waist, sprawly hips, double chin and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to get your weight down toward normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure—also gain in ambition and keeness of mind?

Get on the scales to-day and see how much you weigh. Then get a 4-oz. jar of Kruschen Salts which costs but a few cents and will last you for weeks. Take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water first thing every morning and cut down on fat meats, butter, cream and sugary sweets. After 3 weeks weigh yourself again and note the fat you've lost.

Now you can laugh at the people who pay hundreds of dollars to lose a few pounds of fat—now you'll know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 mineral salts of Kruschen (salts that kidneys, liver, gall bladder and bowels should have to function properly) have helped present you with more glorious health.—Adv.

Association Of Southern Agriculture Workers' Report Is Revealed, Recommending Act To Establish Prosperity

(By The Associated Press)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 4.—Legislation to "establish the future agricultural prosperity of the nation on a safe foundation" through increasing farm ownership was recommended in a report considered today by the Association of Southern Agricultural Workers.

The report, prepared after a three-year study of the South's farm tenancy and sharecropping problems, approved in principle the $500,000,000 Jones-Bankhead bill, now before congressional agriculture committees.

The committee expressed the opinion the measure imposes too narrow limitations on the size of farms on which long term loans could be made and urged that because of changing agricultural conditions farms should be limited to the family size best adapted to the class of farming to be undertaken by the beneficiary of the loan.

Trained Pig Is Causing Much Trouble For Studio; Now He's In Hospital With Influenza

HOLLYWOOD, Calif., Feb. 4. (AP)—Paramount studios are having all kinds of trouble with Wofford, a trained pig hired for the picture "Waikiki Wedding."

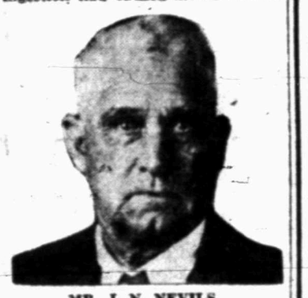

Wofford was thought to be a dwarf. It appears, however, that he was just a baby pig. Now he is growing up, so that his image today hardly resembles the one the camera saw several months ago, when the picture started.

What's more, like all the other stars, Wofford is in the hospital today with influenza. The picture waits.

Gly-Cas Regulates Stomach, Kidneys

Mr. Nevils Is Now Enjoying Best Health He Has Had In Twenty Years; Eats And Sleeps Good, Like A Different Man

"Little did I realize any medicine could give such remarkable results as this new Gly-Cas," said Mr. J. N. Nevils, 211 Saint Joseph St., Lake Charles, La. "For several years indigestion had caused me no end of distress after every meal I ate. Foods would sour on my stomach, gas formed and I bloated dreadfully. I was also badly constipated, my system was filled with poisons and my kidneys were terribly affected. I was forced to get up three and four times each night, it was impossible to get my proper rest and it seemed my entire system was fast wearing out. Regardless of what I tried I could get no better and it was so discouraging to have this future of continued suffering. But finally a short trial of Gly-Cas soon changed all of that."

"Gly-Cas corrected my stubborn case of constipation almost at once," he continued. "My kidneys began to function properly so I now enjoy a good night's sleep, get my proper rest and feel fine the entire day through. I sit down to my meals now and eat anything I wish, the foods I eat agree with me and I am again like a new man. It is wonderful to feel so good again, every sufferer should know of this new Gly-Cas—it cannot be praised too much."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Store, 1219 Broadway, and by all leading drug stores in surrounding towns. Adv.

"Pussyfooting" In Labor Trouble Is Cited By Coughlin

CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin will say tomorrow in an editorial in "Social Justice" that the "most immoral aspect" of the General Motors strike is "the pussyfooting of the federal government and of the state government.

". . . Inasmuch as the constitutional law of the state of Michigan prohibits the confiscation of private property, and thereby regards the sitdowners as trespassers, social justice stands by the constitution in its substance," the editorial will state.

"It would be easy to suggest that the strikers evacuate the factories. It would be simple to demand that Governor (Frank) Murphy use his gubernatorial powers to bring about this evacuation, or else lay himself open to the serious charge of malfeasance in office, thereby inviting impeachment."

Note Is Mystery
Aid Of Coast Guard Stations Sought

HOUSTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—Aid of coast guard stations in solving a bottled message mystery was sought today by Houston police.

A pickle bottle with a note, only partially legible, was brought here by J. E. Jonsas who found it on the beach at Port Aransas.

Night Chief of Police L. C. Brown was able to decipher only portions of the water-soaked penciled note.

Snatches of it read:

"We are . . . key we . . (apparently Key West, Fla.) . . . miles away . . wrecked. J. C. Oliver . . on I. J. S., Key West . . . food and help."

The Galveston coast guard station was asked by police to communicate with other stations on the Gulf and to ascertain whether any man by the name of Oliver had been reported missing.

Horse and dog racing devotees who picked winners at Florida tracks last season collected $33,830,818.00; track operators received $3,830,529.14 and the state $1,164,783,96 in taxes.

Solon States Liquor Views

Author Of Oklahoma's Repeal Resolution Tells Minister "Best People In Oklahoma Drink Liquor"

(By The Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 4.—The author of Oklahoma's repeal resolution told the United Drys of Oklahoma today he believed "the best people in Oklahoma drink liquor and consume it in vast quantities."

Harry Hunt, Osage county representative, whose resolution pending before the house would call for an outright repeal vote in March, declared in a letter to the Rev. W. R. White, Oklahoma City, president of United Drys:

"I venture to say that in the first ward of Oklahoma City, where the wealthiest and most prominent citizens of Oklahoma City reside, there is, in the majority of the homes, sufficient liquor to stock myriads of good sized liquor stores."

Replying to a request for his views on whisky, Hunt said he would "never vote one thin dime" for the enforcement of prohibition.

would "build a wall to keep industry out of Texas forever."

Jones answered that Texas corporation taxes would remain lower than those of neighboring states after enactment of his bill.

Mill Grinds Slows

The legislative mill ground slowly today.

Both houses held brief floor sessions and fewer committees than usual conducted hearing on bills.

While the house of representatives witnessed a flurry over a statement by Orville S. Carpenter, director of the Texas old age assistance system, that pensioners ought to be denied the ballot, the senate pushed an enabling act for the new pardons board.

Rep. Clarence Farmer of Fort Worth "invited" Carpenter to resign, declaring the statement had "insulted the people of Texas," but the director promptly was defended by Rep. A. T. McKinney of Huntsville, who said his appointment was "one of the best Governor Allred ever made."

Had Suggested Voting Ban

Answering a question by a committee before which he was testifying, as to how legislators could be re-elected if they did not support pension liberalization measures, Carpenter had suggested the privilege of voting be taken from pension recipients.

After Farmer charged Carpenter's opinion was "undemocratic, uncharitable and un-American," McKinney retorted, amid shouts of "aye," that Carpenter had done "a mighty good job."

No action had been taken on Farmer's resolution when the time for consideration of resolution expired, and the house declined, as it usually does in such matters, to extend the time. It will come up again.

The state affairs committee of the house decided, in the meantime, to send all old-age pension bills to a sub-committee for whipping into a single measure to be reported next Thursday. Sub-committee members were J. E. Winfree of Houston, B. B. Ragsdale of Crockett and Farmer.

The committee tabled a motion by Farmer declaring for a new old age assistance commission and removing administration from the board of control.

A bill by Rep. Emmett Morse of Houston to redistrict the state for house representation was sent to a sub-committee composed of Reps. Fred Harris of Dallas, R. L. Reader of San Antonio, Penrose Metcalfe of San Angelo, Alf Roark of Saratoga and R. C. Lanning of Jacksboro.

Concert Tickets Go Fast

Tickets for a March 10 band concert to be conducted in the college gym so as to make money for buying new band uniforms, at 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon were being bought briskly, 930 having been sold, said Thompson. Committees of students to sell ducats to the faculty were: Arts and sciences division, Thompson, chairman, Wilmot Eaton and Hugh McCullough; agricultural division, Winburn McAlister, chairman, and Arch Lamb; engineering division, Ray Stiff, chairman, and Talbot Ledbetter, and home economics division, Iris Bailey, chairman. Inch fractions told army engineers that the tide of battle had turned in their favor. The swollen river—still at the highest stage in its history—coursed along almost on the level with Cairo's bulkheaded 60-foot seawall. But the engineers measured a fall of a quarter of an inch in four hours.

Banquet Held By Real Estate Group

Nineteen members of the Lubbock Real Estate board attended the organization's first annual banquet Thursday night at the Hilton hotel.

R. A. McKinney, former first vice president of the board, served in his new capacity as president last night. He succeeds the late Roger Q. Pierce as president.

A. C. Jackson acted as toastmaster. O. B. Conley, one of the directors, was in charge of the program.

"Code of Ethics" was the chief topic for discussion at the round-table discussion which followed the dinner.

Music was furnished by a KFYO string band consisting of Jack Cox, Charles Talley, Bill Hooten, and Francis Hooten. The radio entertainers played three numbers.

A meeting of the board of directors is to be called soon to elect a first vice president to fill the vacancy left by McKinney.

"Scotty, pull up your shirt," commonded Ledbetter. Hayes did and a wound on his abdomen could be discerned. He had never quarreled with Munroe, he declared.

Prehistoric Earthquake Has Significance In Discovery

HORNELL, N. Y., Feb. 4. (AP)—A geological discovery which may explain the deep deposits of natural gas in this section is revealed by Walter Redmond, former principal of Greenwood High school, who says a prehistoric earthquake split the earth on a line between what now are the communities of Hornell, Canisteo and Greenwood.

The earthquake which caused the fracture would leave the region in ruins if it occurred in modern times, Redmond says.

Truce Is Arranged

A non-violence truce arranged last night between city authorities and union leaders remained in force.

"Flint want no repetition of the Herrin (Ill.) massacre," Chief Wills said. "All we want is a force available capable of coping with any emergency."

Before the fourth conference of Murphy with General Motors officials, John L. Lewis, strike director-general and chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization, and Homer Martin, U.A.W.A. president, the governor announced:

Eviction Writ Not Pressed

Pending the outcome of the conferences, General Motors did not press for an eviction writ from the court which issued the injunction intended to dislodge the 37-day sit-downers at Flint.

Staying close to the governor's conference held in chambers of his brother, Recorder's Judge George Murphy, today were the entire union "board of strategy" empowered to determine the union's course of action.

Participating in the discussions with the governor were William S. Knudsen, executive vice president; John Thomas Smith, general counsel, and Donaldson Brown, finance officer for General Motors, and Lewis, Martin and Lee Pressman, C.I.O. counsel, for the strikers.

One source close to the conferees stated that "they are still far apart." Another said there was a definite agreement that "there shall be no talking."

Sit-Downer Love Striker Gets Ball And Chain, But Not Of Wifely Sort

(By The Associated Press)

EXCELSIOR SPRINGS, Mo., Feb. 4.—Harold Hulen's romantic "sit-down" antics got some new furnishings today, including a readily photographed ball and chain and a radio broadcast.

City officials called at the apartment house home of Florence Hulbut, where Hulen is seated, chained to a radiator, in his quest for her hand, and asked him to desist in the interest of "civic pride."

"Have you gentlemen a warrant?" Hulen asked Mayor John S. Lodwick and Police Chief William A. Payne.

Told they did not, he insisted he would sit where he was.

This afternoon friends of Hulen attached a heavy ball and chain to his leg. He protested to Chief Payne, who said he would be glad to order the three youths arrested if Hulen would come to the city hall and sign a warrant.

Hulen began his sit-down strike yesterday morning, demanding a definite answer from Miss Hulbut, to whom he said he had proposed marriage twice weekly the past year.

The young stenographer termed his strike "a funny way to show me he loves me;" said she would not reply to his proposal until he ended the strike.

death at Brady, is remembered here for her disappearance prior to her resignation from a public school position in 1933.

School officials and friends said they did not know her whereabuots for more than a week and there was no explanation offered when she reappeared to resume her duties. A short time later she resigned.

Freeze Damage In California Given

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4. (AP)—Twenty per cent of the lemon trees and 5 per cent of the orange trees in California's $500,000,000 citrus empire will be out of production for one year as result of the January freeze, the California Fruit Growers exchange estimated today.

About 40 per cent of the unharvested citrus crop, the exchange reported, was damaged by the prolonged cold weather. The monetary loss was not estimated but last year sales totaled $112,000,000.

Lemon trees were hardest hit by continued sub-freezing temperatures which forced growers to expand upwards of $6,000,000 for artificial heating.

About 10 per cent of the lemon trees was estimated to be out bearing for two or more years and another 10 per cent for one year. The damaged orange trees are expected to return to productivity after a year.

The exchange, which operates as a co-operative marketing agency, emphasized it considers its figures as "preliminary."

Cowbells? Inventor Might Wonder At Varied Usages

COLLINSVILLE, Ill., Feb. 4. (AP)—Thousands of cowbells made in this country are never used on cattle.

College students, advertising firms and New Year's Eve celebrations use a surprisingly large number of cowbells, according to J. H. Blum, jr., head of what he says is the only factory in the United States devoted exclusively to the manufacture of cowbells.

"Football fans buy a good many bells every autumn to held make noise at the games," Blum explained. "People frequently buy them to use at New Year's Eve parties, and to tie on the autos of newly-married couples."

Exports of aeronautical products from the United States from January to August of 1936 were valued at $14,000,000.

Women Throng Church Meet

Thousands Are Present During Second Day Of Eucharistic Congress In Manila; Jap Woman Is Convert

(By The Associated Press)

MANILA, Feb. 4.—Thousands of women thronged Luneta park today for the second day of the international eucharistic congress, dedicated to them.

The congregation exceeded that at the opening session last night, estimated at between 125,000 and 150,000. Tens of thousands received communion from 300 priests circulating in the crowd.

Interest centered on a demure Japanese woman, Mrs. Shiju Osawa, clad in a silken kimono and slippers, who was converted to the Catholic faith while on her way here abroad a ship crowded with pilgrims to the congress.

Receives Communion

She received her first communion from Archbishop Michael J. O'Doherty of Manila during the pontifical mass.

Archbishop Gabriel M. Reyes of Cuba declared the world's future salvation lies in strengthened home ties. He assailed communism as the arch-foe of family life.

Filipino women perdominated and made an impressive picture of piety and devotion as they approached the altar rail in their native dress, some in silks and satins and others in tattered clothing with frayed head scarfs.

Student Charged In Extortion Try

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Feb. 4. (AP)—Sidney L. Reynolds, 19-year-old University of Alabama sophomore, jailed in an alleged $7,000 extortion plot against a prominent Tuscaloosa woman was held in $12,000 bail at preliminary hearing here today.

Reynolds, a pre-law student from Clanton, Ala., waived examination when brought before a U. S. commissioner and formally charged with using the mails in an attempt to extort money from Mrs. Herbert D. Warner, wife of a Gulf States Paper corporation vice president.

Sheriff Festus M. Shamblin said Reynolds had given a "complete confession of the attempt which involved the mailing of three letters."

Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, mother of President Andrew Jackson, is buried on an unmarked grave near Charleston, S. C.

Houston Oil's Shallow Well Property In Navarro Is Sold

HOUSTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—George A. Hill, jr., president of the Houston Oil company of Texas, confirmed today the sale of his company's shallow producing properties in the old Corsicana, Texas, oil field to Coffield and Guthrie, inc., of Rockdale, Texas.

The cash consideration involved totaled $45,000. The sale involved 118 shallow wells. The Houston company retained all mineral rights below 1250 feet and some acreage in fee on which royalty was involved.

The deal gave Coffield and Guthrie about 95 per cent of the field above the 1250 foot depth, properties of the Magnolia and Barnsdall companies having been acquired in the past three years.

The Corsicana field is older than any other oil field in Texas and west of Pennsylvania. It was first developed close to 50 years ago and antedates the famous Spindletop by roundly 10 years.

EX-CONVICT RELEASED

TEXARKANA, Feb. 4. (AP)—A Colorado ex-convict, arrested Jan. 27 as a suspect in the Charles Mattson kidnap-slaying, was released today after a fingerprint check by the federal bureau of investigation.

Army History Recalled Here

Work Of Salvation Army For Past Three Years Reviewed By Capt. John Churchill; More Posts Organized

BY HAROLD HAMS

"The Lubbock corps of the Salvation Army has grown and expanded its work a great deal in the last three years," Capt. John G. Churchill said Thursday reviewing his three years as commander.

No transient work was done and the income was only $30 or $40 a week in 1934 when only eight counties were assigned to the corps.

Other Posts Organized

The Plainview post was opened 18 months ago and six counties were added. A post was organized a year ago in Littlefield and one in Big Spring in September, Captain Churchill said.

The Big Spring and Plainview posts became independant corps Dec. 11, Littlefield Jan. 5, leaving only Post attached to the Lubbock corps.

"The army post was at 709 Thirteenth street when I succeeded Capt. Walter Wilson as commander in Jan. 1934," Captain Churhill recounted. A fund drive was launched with outside assistance and netted $1,400.

Began Emergency Work

Another drive in the fall of 1934, raised $1,800. The post began emergency family and transient work for the first time.

A fund of $2,400 was procured in the fall of 1935 in an effort to obtain a new building. An installment of $1,000 was made on the present property at Seventeenth street and Ave. K.

In the latter part of 1936 a drive for maintenance funds netted $2,200 without assistance of 55 of the leading firms and business men of the city being necessary. At present $500 has been pledged and collected in finances to erect a building on the property at Seventeenth street.

Lodge Home Established

A "Red Shield" lodge home for transient families was established last year. "A modern system of family case work and service is maintained," Captain Churchill said. One officer devotes full time and one Tech sociology student works part time on the project.

Two workers have entered Salvation Army work in the last three years. Envoy May Belle Durrett is doing special work in Dallas and Cadet Reita Bridges is in an army training school at Atlanta, Ga.

The local post has 17 senior and 17 junior officers, 60 senior and 90 junior soldiers, and 15 cadets in its personnel.

Three Departments Begun

Three departments of character building were begun this past year: "Lifesaving Guards" composed of girls from 11 to 18 years old; "Lifesaving Chums" for boys 8 to 11 years, and "Sunbeams" for girls 8 to 11 years.

A "Red Shield" club for boys was formed with approximately 60 members but became inactive because of no meeting place. It was formed to promote athletics among boys in an effort to keep them off streets.

Income the last four years was: 1933, $2,600; 1934, $4,000; 1935, $7,000; 1936, $9,639. The income for January was $624.

R. F. Bayless is president and George Dupree vice president of the advisory board. Paul Hardwick is secretary-treasurer. Hurley Carpenter is chairman of the finance, Durwood Bradley of the property committee.

The public relations committee is headed by Harry Blocker and Dupree. Mrs. W. H. McDonald is chairman of the women's auxiliary.

Drug Store Here Damaged By Fire

Full extent of damages resulting from a fire in the prescription room of Cammack Drug store at Broadway and Avenue G had not been definitly decided Web Cammack, owner, said last night. A $2,000 damage was estimated a few hours after the fire.

The fire started, the drug store operator said, when H. W. Houser, an employe, dropped an inflammable chemical while working in the prescription room.

Firemen Handicapped

Firemen were handicapped in getting to the flames, in the rear of the drug store, because of dense, acrid smoke from chemicals. Spectators crowded the sidewalks and craned necks into the doorways until Fire Chief W. E. Twitty received assistance from police, who roped off the sidewalk.

Houser, Cammack said, called for other members of the staff to turn out fires. By the time Cammack reached the prescription room, flames already had broken out. Houser went to his home at 1411 Seventeenth street for treatment for inhalation of fumes from the fire.

SCHOOL IS CLOSED

MALAKOFF, Feb. 4. (AP)—The high school at Cross Roads, 10 miles south of here, has ben closed until Monday because recent rains have made roads impassable.

Local Men Return From Denver Trip On New Rail Line

Eight Lubbock men returned last night after participating in a two-day celebration marking the formal opening to service of the New Santa Fe's Los Animas-Amarillo line. The affair included a trip to Denver, Colo., on a special train, with about 150 men making the journey.

Lubbock had the largest delegation of any town outside of Amarillo. There were 21 newspapermen on the trip and fifteen railroad executives.

Cone Gives Talk

The party left Amarillo at 11 p. m. Tuesday, arriving in Denver at 11:15 a. m. Wednesday. Greeted at the Union station by Denver Chamber of Commerce officials, S. E. Cone of Lubbock gave a one-minute broadcast on the station platform, along with two railroad officials, W. K. Etter, Chicago, operating vice president and F. B. Houghton, traffic vice president. It was over the NBC system.

Wednesday night the visitors were guests of the Denver civic group at a banquet. A half hour of the program was also broadcast over the NBC.

Driven About City

During the afternoon citizens drove the visitors over the city and through the scenic Denver Rocky Mountain park region.

Returning, the special left Denver at 2 a. m. Thursady, stopping at Springfield, Colo., Boise City, Okla., Stratford and Dumas and reaching Amarillo after 6:30 o'clock.

From Lubbock were: George A. Simmons, J. B. Crisler, W. B. Hestand, Edgar Lewis, Norton Baker, Mr. Cone and Sam Lewis and R. H. Forbes of the Santa Fe.

W. D. Donald of the Slatonite also was in the party as were: R. L. Brown, Muleshoe; Mancil Hall, Littlefield, formerly of Lubbock; Mayor Glad Snodgrass of Floydada; Glen Mabry, E. B. Miller, Marion F. Peters and Roscoe Silverthorn, Plainview.

Several former Lubbock residents were on the train, including Garnet O. Reeves of Pampa; E. Kancher, Amarillo and Hugh Norman, Amarillo.

The new line brings Lubbock 25 miles closer to Denver than over any other route and also saves from 115 to 225 miles over the Santa Fe system between the two towns. Freight service is being established, with a mixed train service.

A severe dust storm swept southeastern Colorado all day Thursday, giving those in the party an intimate view of conditions in the famous "dust bowl." Visibility was reduced to the minimum.

MISSISSIPPI JUDGE DIES

STARKVILLE, Miss., Feb. 4. (AP)—Judge W. W. Magruder, 70, leading Starkville citizen and presiding judge of the sixteenth judicial district, died here today after an illness of more than two weeks.

WELL FLOWS STEADILY

JEFFERSON, Feb. 4. (AP)—Marion county's first oil well, the Flesh Hootkins et al. No. 1 Henderson, flowed steadily today under its own power for an hour and a half, then continued flowing by heads of five minutes, 13 minutes apart.

Operators said they believed the well was still cleaning itself. The well was at 5,982-96 feet.

POOR COMPLEXIONS OFTEN TRACED TO CONSTIPATION

An unattractive, sallow skin and dull, lifeless eyes often mean that common constipation has clogged up your system. You feel wretched and listless, may have headaches.

This condition is usually the result of meals low in "bulk." Restore this "bulk" with Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Within the body, ALL-BRAN absorbs twice its weight in water, forms a soft mass, gently exercises and cleanses the system. Isn't this cereal way better than taking weakening pills and drugs?

Try Kellogg's ALL-BRAN for a week. If not satisfactory, your money will be refunded by the Kellogg Company.

Serve ALL-BRAN as a cereal with milk or fruits, or in recipes. Just eat two tablespoonfuls daily. Three times daily in severe cases. Sold by all grocers. Made and guaranteed by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Westerners Trounce Amarillo Sandies, 42-23; Pampa Team Is Here Tonight

Third Quarter Rush Ices Tilt For Home Club

Ford, Simmons And Letsinger Divide Scoring Honors For Westerners To Lead Way To Fifth League Victory

No doubt remembering the Armistice day athletic skirmish here, the Lubbock High Westerners cut loose with a fury last night and poured it on the Sandies from Amarillo, 42 to 23.

It was a basketball game, and Lubbock's total was just a few more points than Amarillo's when the Sandies drubbed the Westerner football team last fall. But it constituted a measure of revenge for Lubbock's lads, especially in view of the fact that it was the second time within a week they had triumphed over Amarillo.

Ford Gets Going

After a slow start, the Westerners struck out in the last half to stretch their half-time lead of 16-13 to 27-13, then matched free tosses with the Sandies to hold a 28-14 lead after three quarters. The Sandies dropped in only one goal, a one-pointer at that, in the third quarter.

Henry P. Ford, pale-faced, long-haired Lubbock senter, got going in the third period to account for four field goals and pull the Westerners far ahead. Counting his first half free goal, Ford tied with Captain Ralph Letsinger and Forward Virgil Simmons for scoring honors.

Simmons' pivot shots gave him four points from scrimmage, and he had a one hundred per cent evening from the free-throw line, making five and no mistakes. Letsinger duplicated Ford's four field goals and one free toss.

Miller Leads Sandies

For Amarillo, who threatened most seriously in the second quarter, Miller, oversize Sandie football tackle and basketball forward, was the star. Defensively and offensively he was quite a boy, scoring nine points to tie the three Westerners for scoring honors. Nunngesser and E. Moore of the regulars and Simms of the reserve team aided in the scoring and showed a world of hustle.

The Westerners, outreaching and outshooting their Amarillo enemies, thus won their fifth straight Panhandle League contest, and have not been defeated. They have beaten Amarillo twice, Plainview twice and Pampa once. They hope to make it two in a row over Pampa tonight and thus take an almost cinch lead on the Panhandle league race. Games with Borger are yet to be played.

Cowhands Win Close One

Coach Walker Nichols' Cowhands nosed out the Slaton High Tigers, 13 to 10 in a game divided by the main event last night. The contest started, as scheduled, at 7 o'clock, but upon Amarillo's insistence to start the Sandie-Westerner game at 7:30, the Cowhand game was played half before the main game, the last half afterwards.

Clark of Slaton was high with 6 points, Johnston and Cawthon leading Lubbock with 4 each. Cawthon and Venable played at forwards, Allen at center, Carson and Johnston at guards. For Slaton, who led 6-4 at the end of the half, Simms and Clark were forwards, Kirkpatrick center, Self and Bullard guards.

TONIGHT'S GAME 7:30

The Westerners continue their Panhandle league campaign on the home court tonight, meeting the Pampa Harvesters at 7:30 o'clock.

The Harvesters dropped a league decision to Lubbock earlier this season, but are reported to have improved wonderfully. The game is expected to be the toughest on Lubbock's schedule.

Tenth Club May Be Added To National Pro Football Loop

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 4. (AP)—The question of "balancing" the national professional football league by addition of a tenth club is due for decision Feb. 12 and 13 at the league's annual meeting in Chicago.

Joe F. Carr, league president, announcing the meeting dates today, declared several cities were under consideration for a possible tenth franchise and the question would be settled by a vote of the present member representatives.

Dutch Meyer All Set At Frog School; Is Handed Raise, 3-Year Contract

Howard Grubbs To Be Athletic Director In New Set-Up

FORT WORTH, Feb. 4. (AP)—The possibility that the driving power behind the famed Texas Christian Horned Frogs of the past three years—Coach Leo "Dutch" Meyer and Slingin' Sammy Baugh—would continue as a unit in the university's gridiron machine was seen tonight in action taken by the board of trustees.

Reportedly approached informally on his eligible list for the head coaching job at the University of Iowa, Meyer was awarded a new three-year contract calling for an increase in salary—the amount unannounced — and the sensational Baugh was offered the post of freshman coach.

Hobbs Seeks Baugh

Under Meyer's tutelage the Horned Frogs lost three games of the twenty seven played the past three years—a record that made them choice for the Sugar Bowl classic in New Orleans in 1935 and the Cotton Bowl classic in Dallas last season.

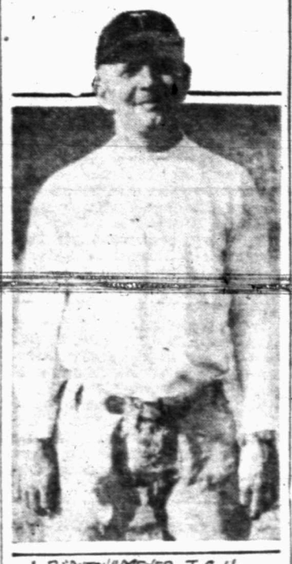

Whether Baugh whose rifle-like passing played no small part in the Frogs' success, would accept the offer to stay with his alma mater was uncertain. High school officials at Hobbs, N. M., are seeking his services and he had offers from professional teams. He plans to fly east Monday to confer with George Marshall, owner of the Washington Professional football franchise. Baugh recently turned down a high school coaching offer from Phoenix, Ariz.

Dan D. Rogers, chairman of the athletic department, also announced the following coaching changes:

Mike Brumbelow was made varsity basketball coach, relieving Meyer of these duties. He also will continue as football line coach.

Howard Grubbs was promoted from freshman coach to athletic director and varsity baseball coach.

Mack Clark retained his post as assistant athletic director and was made varsity track coach.

Tech Freshmen Hold The Fort As Varsity Leaves For 'Raid'

Picadors Play Two Games Here Tonight; Red Raiders Meet New Mexico Aggies, Then Go Into Arizona Courts

Basketball continues on two fronts tonight, Coach Aubrey Butts' Texas Tech freshmen Picadors holding up Texas Tech's end of things in a double header at the Matador gymnasium while the Lubbock Westerners are playing a twin bill at the high school court.

The Tech varsity outfit left yesterday for its annual Border conference trip, the Raiders invading conference strongholds in New Mexico and Arizona for a string of eight important contests.

To play Four Series

Coach Huffman's cagers, with four straight conference victories behind them and so far unbeaten in the Border loop race, engage the New Mexico Aggies at State College tonight and tomorrow night, then push on into Arizona for two games at Tempe, two at Flagstaff. They return by way of Albuquerque for a series with University of New Mexico. The Raiders already have beaten the Flagstaff team twice, and have conquered the Texas College of Mines quintet twice. These games, however, were probably the "easiest" on the Border conference schedule.

It was on a similar trip last year that the Red Raiders lost the conference championship. The club left here in crippled condition, minus the services of three regulars.

Games Start At 6:45

This time the Matadors are intact, as far as health and the regular lineup is concerned. Judge Garrett, the club's leading scorer, and Bob Case at forwards, Curly Wilkinson at center, Leroy Crews and Hugh Snodgrass at guards probably will start each of the games. A reserve squad of five players made the trip also.

Tonight at the Tech gymnasium, the undefeated Picadors tangle first with the local C. C. C. camp team, the game beginning at 6:45 o'clock. At about 7:45, Idalou's strong independents will engage the freshmen, thereby offering one of the strongest tests of the season.

Led by big Jake Gerron and Gene Boswell, the freshman team at Tech is enjoying a most successful season. In recent games, played as preliminaries to Tech's varsity games with the El Paso Miners, the freshmen won from Wayland college and the local Kerr Brothers Oilers.

Natie Brown Vows To Finish Up Job B. Pastor Started

BY DILLON GRAHAM

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—Natie Brown, curly-haired Jewish heavyweight, crawled through the ring ropes after a fast go with sparring partners today and predicted he would beat Joe Louis in Kansas City, Feb. 15.

The Washington boxer is one of six fighters who have stayed the full distance with the brown bomber. Louis outpointed Jim just as the negro was beginning to reach big time ranking.

"Schmeling proved Louis could be licked and I expect to beat him," the 200-pounder said, as he relaxed after three rounds with Marty Gallagher, another Washington husky.

To Try Body Blows

"I have no thought of merely trying to stay 10 rounds, as did Bob Pastor. I'm out to kayo him, or win the decision."

Brown has no particular system for fighting Louis.

"I've got an idea he doesn't like body blows. I'm going to waltz around for a round or two and start working on his midriff. I believe that will open him up enough for me to connect with left hooks," he said.

"While I'm not a great puncher, I've got enough force behind my left hooks to get him if I can connect right. Of course, he may get to me first, but I'm going to take that chance."

Failing to get the bouts he wanted, Natie retired for nearly a year. He's been fighting on the comeback road for the last six months.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—World Heavyweight Champion James J. Braddock and his manager Joe Gould, will sign articles with the Sporting Club of Illinois Monday afternoon for a championship battle with Joe Louis in June, Joseph Triner, chairman of the Illinois State Athletic commission, announced today.

Triner said he had been notified by the champion and his manager that they would come to Chicago to sign at 3 p. m. (C. S. T.) Monday at a special meeting of the Illinois commission.

Triner also said that through the insistence of Julian Black, co-manager of Louis, Mike Jacobs, who holds title to the negro's boxing activities until 1940, has been declared co-promoter with the Illinois Sporting club, for staging the fight. Joe Foley, associated with Jacobs in promoting the Louis-King Levinsky here in 1935, has been named matchmaker and director of publicity for the event.

The Sporting club is headed by Sheldon Clark, oil man who made the $500,000 offer to Braddock.

Although tentatively scheduled for Soldier Field, the huge lake front stadium, the promoters took under consideration a bid from J. Louis Comiskey, owner of the Chicago White Sox, to hold the fight in his park.

Gould charges the Garden wrecked chances for a sizable Braddock-Schmeling fight by staging the Louis-Pastor go recently, so it's on to Chicago.

Two More Yankee Players Sign Up

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP) — The New York Yankee holdouts left Col. Jacob Ruppert to the tranquility of his big brewery today and the Colonel entertained a solitary and welcome guest.

The guest was Yankee Business Manager Ed Barrow and he was especially welcome because he bore the signed contract of Infielder Johnny Saltzgaver and Catcher Bill Baker.

This brought the total of signed Yankee contracts to seven, one less than the current number of avowed holdouts.

Bump Hadley is the only regular signed. The "holdouts" are Infielders Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri, Pitchers Lefty Gomez, Johnny Murphy and Vito Tamulis, and Outfielders Joe DiMaggio, Jake Powell and George Selkirk.

Third Baseman Red Rolfe, a somewhat timid holdout yesterday, was removed from the list today. His requet for a salary boost was tabled pending examination of his injured right hand at the end of the month.

Barrow intimated the Yankees had a compromise to suggest to Lazzeri. The veteran second baseman was offered $12,000. He has asked for $16,000.

Delancey Will Boss 'Cards' In Albuquerque

Former Catcher Named Skipper Of Card Farm In Texas And Arizona League; To Gather Material In California

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 4. (AP)—Bill Delancey, former star catcher for the St. Louis Cardinals, said here today he felt "like a kid with a new toy," over his appointment as manager of the Albuquerque club of the re-organized Arizona-Texas league.

A year ago Delancey came here to recuperate from a serious lung infection. They took him off the train on a stretcher. He spent months flat on his back in bed. Today he tips the scales at 215 pounds.

Branch Rickey, vice president of the Cardinals picked him to manage the club New Mexico farm team.

Delancey plans to leave here March 1 for Sacramento club's training camp at Riverside, Calif. There he will inspect the young players whom the Senators, also a Cardinal farm, are likely to ship to New Mexico for further seasoning.

He said that when he and his players report in Albuquerque in April he will have his ball club pretty well set for the opening of the season.

Pushing his ten-gallon hat back on his head, Delancey smiled broadly and said:

"I know I'm going to like it at Albuquerque. The governor of New Mexico and the mayor of Albuquerque are among the sponsors of the club and the spirit there is fine."

NEW SHORTER ROUTE between the MOUNTAIN STATES and the GULF COAST

The Santa Fe is happy to announce the completion and opening to service, on February 1st, 1937, of the longest piece of new railroad undertaken in the United States in the past year—the 112 miles of new line linking Las Animas, Colorado, with Boise City, Oklahoma

The new line carries rail facilities to and through a considerable area of potentially rich country, but it has an even broader purpose—to provide finer Santa Fe service for the shippers and consumers of a tremendous and already developed territory.

In a word, the new road, linking together existing Santa Fe lines, provides to the shippers and consumers of a vast and productive area of Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Colorado, and of the northern mountain states clear to the Pacific Northwest, through facilities and shorter routings for the rapid interchange of their shipments. It reduces the previous shortest rail distance between Amarillo, Texas, and Denver, Colorado, by over 25 miles. It saves from 142 to 226 miles in the movement of freight over the Santa Fe to and from Colorado, from and to points in Texas, and on portions of the Santa Fe in Oklahoma and New Mexico. Today, Amarillo is placed but 435 miles from Denver, via the Santa Fe. Products of the Pacific Northwest, connecting with the Santa Fe at Colorado points, can now have direct routing to the markets of Texas and the Gulf ports, while producers in the Lone Star State will benefit from similar service in reaching Colorado and the great Northwest.

The new line has been carefully sited and solidly constructed, with every facility for the handling of business offered at new stations located in a territory that had been making progress even in advance of the advent of the rails. Here is good wheat country, and corn, grain sorghums, broom corn and other crops have done well with natural rainfall. In the Las Animas area, where irrigation farming is done with water from the Arkansas River, there is promise of greatly increased production of sugar beets, melons, vegetables, onions, and alfalfa. West of Springfield, Colorado, and Boise City, Oklahoma, and north of Amarillo, general farming and livestock raising are important activities. Among the towns on the new line north of Amarillo, in Texas, are Dumas and Stratford.

In the construction of the new Boise City-Las Animas line, the Santa Fe reaffirms its abiding faith in the future of that vast Southwest in which it pioneered and with which it has grown. Your local Santa Fe representative will be glad to point out how the new line can best be of service to you

West Coast Boxing Men Are Anxious To Help Bob Pastor

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 4. (AP)—Los Angeles, always ready to perform a mircale, today produced a pair of fight managers willing to help Bob Pastor of New York cash in on his feat of not getting knocked out by Joe Louis.

The two managers are Pop Foster and Gus Wilson.

Foster, who helped Jimmy McLarnin goldplate his future, has an up and coming-back young heavyweight, Lee Ramage. Between them, they are anxious to contribute to young Mr. Pastor's career and will do so for an appropriate share of the purse.

Gus Wilson, who started training and handling fighters when Jack Johnson was a preliminary boy, possesses that coast's brightest heavyweight proospect of the year in Bob Nextell.

Floods Do Not Alter Plans For Derby And Horses Soon To Be Prancing In Workout

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP)—It won't be long until the three-year-old ace jog out of winter quarters to start training for the 63rd running of the $50,000 Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs on May 8.

Many of the stars will be galloping before the entries are announced officially early in March. Because of the Ohio river flood, which stood several feet deep over the Downs, the closing date for the entries was moved back from Feb. 15 to March 1. Otherwise, the flood has not altered plans for the classic.

In Tennessee and Kentucky, not many miles from where the Ohio reached unprecedented heights, are quartered several outstanding candidates. The others are stabled in almost every section of the country.

Reaping Reward and Ease Ace from Mrs. Ethel V. Mars' Milky Way farm, are at Pulaski, Tenn. E. R. Bradley's Brooklyn is receiving preliminary training at his owner's Idle Hour farm near Lexington. Not far away are Warren Wright's two eligibles—Privileged and Galsun.

Chief of the eastern hopefuls is J. H. Louchheim's Pompoon, stabled in Maryland's Worthington valley.

Reaping Reward, winner of the recent nation-wide poll, probably will open under Rockingham's choice on the bases of his victories over Pompoon in the New England futurity and Privileged in the Kentucky Jockey club stakes.

Martin became interested in boxing recently when he acquired two promising youngsters, Jack Monroe of Sherman, Tex., and Jimmy Williams of Rogers, Ark.

Nelson's Bill

two chambers there would be one, composed of 42 members elected popularly from 21 congressional districts. Term of office would be for four years, with half the members being elected every two years, causing a rotating personnel.

No person could serve who was not 25 years old. Each official would receive an annual salary of $5,000. This is larger than is paid now, but in comparing present payment, which includes $10 per day salary and traveling expenses to the legislature, with the $5,000 proposed, figures show that money would be saved. Explanation of this is that membership of the legislature would be reduced about 140.

The bill provides that the legislature would meet every two years, serving continuously for the two year period unless it were deemed advisable, for the best interests of the state, to adjourn temporarily. The governor could call a special session whenever he thought it imperative or when two-thirds of the legislature submitted sworn requests for a session. No legislator under the new system could perform other services, practice any other profession, or have a retainer when a member of the body, but would be supposed to give his time exclusively to handling state business.

Question: Just How Big Should Holes Be?

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—What, you may ask, is a piece of Swiss cheese without holes.

But have you ever stopped to consider whether there should be more holes than cheese, or vice versa?

Philip Talbi, Yorkville street cleaner, did and his answer brought him into court today as complaining witness in the People vs. Molinari.

To begin, Talbi said he worked up a bit of an appetite with his broom the other night and dropped into a delicatessen store operated by Louis Molinari.

Molinari with a flourish handed him a Swiss cheese sandwich with the observation that it would cost him exactly two bits.

"I looked at the cheese," Talbi told Magistrate Heory H. Curran, "and I told him the holes were too big. I said I would pay only 15 cents."

One word led to another and Talbi walked out without his sandwich.

A little later, he said, Molinari suddenly began punching him in the nose and kicking him in the stomach.

Magistrate Curran told the defendant to hustle back to his shop and return with a sample of the cheese.

Almost before you could say "cheese-it" he was back with a three pound slice. But by the time he had pushed his way up to the bench his cheese had shed about two pounds, what with a lawyer here and a cop there grabbing a piece.

"I scent dirty work by the clerk and lawyers of this court," said Magistrate Curran. "This evidence has been tampered with.

"However, I would say that this is a good Swiss cheese. I would say the holes are of the average size.

"Case dismissed."

ROSALIND GREENE AND IRENE HUBBARD, two of radio's finest actresses. Rosalind agrees that "when it comes to refreshing, friendly stimulation, Maxwell House is 'tops'!" "And don't forget," adds Irene, "that no other coffee is so deliciously fresh!"

DARIO AND DIANE, hailed by many as America's foremost ballroom dancers. Diane (Mrs. Diane Dewey in real life) says, "And what simply marvelous coffee Maxwell House is! It is so delightfully rich and mellow—more so than any other coffee I have ever tasted!"

PROVE FRESHNESS BY THE "SMELL" TEST!

Remember this when you buy your next pound of coffee: If you can smell that tempting coffee aroma, it means that the container is not protecting the coffee properly. It is permitting flavor to escape. You never smell the fragrant aroma of Maxwell House until you open the can. For Vita-Fresh Maxwell House is packed in the super-vacuum can you open with a key. And this is the only way science knows to bring you coffee without loss of flavor—coffee always as fresh and full-flavored as the hour it left the roaster.

The Water Control Plan—

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has submitted to Congress a plan to conserve the water resources of the nation. The subject is particularly timely because of the recent floods carrying death and destruction through many states.

The report submitted by the President on water control developed from legislative moves in the last session of Congress. In 1935 the House passed a $700,000,000 Omnibus Flood Control bill, but Senator Tydings (Dem.) of Maryland successfully conducted a filibuster to forestall a vote in the Senate.

In 1936 the subject came to the fore because of the devastating floods in Eastern states during the early spring. The Commerce committee of the Senate prepared to report favorably on the 1935 bill, expanded to authorize $1,000,000,000 over 10 years. Then the President intervened. He suggested that for the time legislation be confined to projects necessitated by the recent floods. At about the same time the National Resources committee announced that it would prepare a long-range "national water plan." This is evidently the plan now given Congress by the President.

As finally enacted, the Flood Control act of 1936 authorized the expenditure of $320,000,000 for some 200 projects in 40 states, in the East as well as the West and South. The President was empowered to determine the order of undertaking the protects, and the benefited areas were to bear a part of the expense. An administration amendment would have converted the natural resources committee into a permanent natural resources board, but this proposal was referred by the Senate to the public lands committee for further study. The President now renews his suggestion for a permanent resources board.

No appropriations authorized in the flood control act were actually voted by Congress. Another bill enacted, aimed at control of floods in the lower Mississippi Valley, authorized expenditures of $272,000,000 over a five year period, but again no appropriations were voted. A separate resolution was passed and approved legalizing compacts among states in New England and the Ohio Valley to control floods and prevent stream pollution.

The general flood control act of 1936 directed the War department to make an inquiry into flood control. The army board of engineers is understood to support the construction of big dams on large streams in order to hold waters in check, while the resources committee and the conservationists in the agriculture department lean more to controlling overflows on the small streams and little rivers.

The recent warm weather in the East has been only partly responsible for the present floods. A warm spell, of course, causes ice and snow to melt in the mountains. However, mountain streams are so much shallower and narrower than most of the rivers into which they empty that the latter can usually handle the overflow without a great rise in their level. It is when rains are added to warm weather, as recently that the problem becomes more serious—and acute if the ground is so saturated that almost all the rain runs right off.

Erosion of the soil intensifies the speed with which water runs off the ground, but how seriously this factor contributes to floods is disputed among the experts. Prior to last year the highest water at Pittsburgh was recorded in 1763, and the heaviest flood on the lower Missouri occurred in 1844, when erosion was still negligible.

THE FATAL BLANK

Don Carlos, 1545-1568, son of King Philip II of Spain signed as the author of a book of blank pages, which he captioned "The Great and Admirable Travels of King Philip II." King Philip II, who is famous in English history as the husband of Mary I of England, had his traveling days long behind him. He now hardly moved except to go to the Ecorial Chapel once a day. He resented his son's obvious slur and ordered him imprisoned. Don Carlos died mysteriously in prison, probably the victim of self-destruction.

Chapter 46

"IF YOU INSIST . . ."

"Frankly, I shouldn't care a hoot if she thought I'd massacred batalions of her uncles," Terence stated. "What the devil did she want to come butting in for tonight? There was no need for her to be there at all. She'd arranged with Lawson to have me kidnaped, and instead of letting him get on with the job as any sensible person would have done, she had to come barging in herself, turning the whole business into the last act of a film play complete with fair-haired heroine registering lots of emotion. That's the trouble with actresses; they must have scenes."

There was a pause. Then:

"I think you are an utter pig," said Ruth in a tone of deep conviction.

"What!" exclaimed Mahony.

He looked at her and saw, to his surprise, that she was on the point of tears.

"What's the matter, Ruth?" he asked in a concerned voice.

"I think you're beastly," answered Ruth, a little indistinctly.

"But . . . why? For heaven's sake, why?" demanded Mahony hopelessly. "What have I done?"

There was another pause, while Ruth collected her dignity.

"I'm sorry I came barging in, turning all your nice, neat little arrangements into a film play," she said in a cold, haughty voice. "However, you won't be bothered with me any more."

"Stop it, Ruth," said Mahony rudely. "Stop being all temperamental."

"I'm not being temperamental," answered Ruth angrily. "You said that Elsa came barging in, turning everything into a film play, and as I came barging in, too, I must have done the same. Do you think I couldn't see what you meant?"

"I didn't mean anything of the sort," protested Mahony. "You . . . well, you're different. You didn't barge in—that is, not really barge in. I mean, we've been sort of partners . . ."

He found his meaning very difficult to explain.

"You are different," he went on. "You just barged in because you wanted to, so to speak; you weren't Ruth Fraser, the girl heroine avenging her uncle's death by vamping the deceitful villain, or Ruth Fraser righting a wrong by having the misunderstood but well-intentioned young man kidnaped for his own good and insisting on being present when the kidnaping took place because the heroine must be in the big scene. I hate all this drama. It gives me a pain in the neck."

"Nonsense," replied Ruth. "You've been behaving like the perfect little film hero ever since I met you. And you're annoyed with Elsa because you're in love with her and she made a fool of you."

Mahony was stung by this monstrous accusation.

"Don't talk so damned wet," he said irritably. "I'm not in love with her. You know perfectly well I'm in love with you."

Ruth smiled slightly. Her expression was a little smug: like that of a kitten which has just put away a saucer of delicious cream.

"Well, you needn't shout," she said primly.

She looked sideways at him out of the corners of her eyes. He looked at her at the same moment. Suddenly they both burst out laughing.

Mahony took her hand and drew her towards him.

"Let's get married and clear out somewhere as soon as we can," he said.

She shook her head.

"No," she said. "I couldn't do that. If I married you now, after all that's happened, it would be too much like the ending of a film story."

"Stop it, you little hell-cat," said Mahony, and drew her closer and kissed her. She kissed him too.

"Oh, well," she murmured. "If you insist . . ."

Lily Pons Matches High Notes Of Arias With Classic Steps Of Ballet In Opera

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—Lily Pons matched the high notes of exotic arias with the classic steps of a ballet dancer to inject new life today into customarily staid opera.

The petite opera star had the role of the wicked sorceress in Rimsky-Korsakov's 30-year old opera, "Le Cog D'Or" (The Golden Cockerel.)

Today's performance marked the first time in the United States an artist essayed the dual task of singing and dancing in this role.

Rimsky-Korsakov intended his singers also should dance. First presented in Russia, "Cog D'Or" was done that way but difficulties in combining the action and music led to a division of the labor.

A ballet troupe danced the action in pantomime and the singers stood at the side or backstage. The Metropolitan followed that idea when the opera was presented first in America in 1918, and again seven years ago with Galli-Curci in the leading role.

Miss Pons was forced to train her voice to reach high E and hold that note for some 20 to 25 seconds, all the while carrying out the dance.

Originator Of "Chelan Test" Threatens To Put Townsend Plan On Nation-Wide Move

CHELAN, Wash., Feb. 4. (AP) — The originator of the "Chelan test" of the Townsend revolving pension plan has challenged congress to "meet the issue now" or he would lead a nation-wide move to put the program into effect.

Isom Lamb, Chelan county Townsend supervisor who donated $200 to C. C. Fleming for the nation's first Townsend plan spending experiment, declared:

"In answer to requests from 742 cities for me to direct tests in those places, I am about to agree to direct a movement to put the Townsend plan into effect at once.

"I am forced into this by the swing of congressmen to the revised McGroarty bill which I believe inadequate and unworkable. Either congress will have to meet the issue now, or we will go ahead and do their work for them."

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT conducted negotiations for carrying his present Cabinet with extraordinary simplicity and secrecy. Contrary to reports, he did not inform them individually or collectively that he wanted them to hang around. He simply said nothing except in the case of Postmaster General Farley, who must be reappointed and confirmed under the law every four years.

It was typical Rooseveltian technique. He dislikes violent change, and it's difficult for him to hurt people's feelings. It doesn't mean that he would not accept certain voluntary resignations. His friends intimate clearly that he would like to find other positions for Cabinet Members Perkins, Woodring, Swanson, Roper and Cummings. But it will require presidential dynamiting to move them.

Miss Perkins has admittedly botched the handling of the maritime and automobile strikes. Mr. Woodring's blunders in the flood evacuation movement are only the last of a series. Mr. Swanson is ready for retirement because of age and illness. The departments of justice and Commerce are headed by politicians, although they must administer proposed laws affecting hours, wages, working conditions. But all are old friends, and one of Mr. Roosevelt's favorite songs is "Auld Lang Syne."

SPECIALIST: Cordell Hull is no longer secretary of state, although he holds that title. He is simply secretary for the negotiation of reciprocal tariff agreements. President Roosevelt himself is handling really important foreign affairs even more than most Presidents have been accustomed to do.

Mr. Hull has such a fixation, such a passion, over trade agreements that he has little time or thought for such problems as neutrality, war debts, naval rivalry, prospective war, general world relations. It has finally become clear to the White House that the State Department is slighting certain underlying problems which may lead to peace or war. Moreover, veteran diplomats show too much sympathy for the so-called allied powers in their conversation and reports. Mr. Hull is too occupied with tariffs to rebuke or restrain this unneutral attitude.

Best proof of Mr. Hull's altered status was the visit of Walter Runciman, Great Britain's roving emissary on debts, neutrality, trade. While in Washington, he spent a weekend at the White House, only a few official hours with the Secretary of State.

OFFERS: One of the three Americans whose memoirs command almost any figure from publishers has finally surrendered to the literary lure. He is Richard T. Jervis, former head of the secret service and shadow of seven presidents—T. R., Taft, Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, Hoover, FDR.

Mr. Jervis, now stationed at San Diego, has completed negotiations with a nickel mag for a human story of how presidents behave behind the scenes. It will eventually be published in book form if his superiors agree to his plan to tell all. "Dick" attended church when Taft slept through the sermons, guarded Mr. Wilson during his wooing of a wife and post-war Europe, swapped jokes and magazine money with Calvin Coolidge, fished with Herbert Hoover, and saw the New Deal arise from straw and clay. His hitherto unpublished anecdotes should make juicy reading.

The other two authors whom publishers would like to lasso are William Edgar Borah, self-appointed gadfly to seven presidents, and Admiral Cary Grayson, physician to the same seven. Mr. Borah plagued and Mr. Jervis guarded. So far the senator and the doctor have declined all offers—handsome one, too—to preserve their precious memoirs for posterity.

HANDBOOK: The Congressional Library may have the most valuable literary collection in the United States and the Smithsonian may house the most complete assortment of scientific data. But a new institution is slowly assembling the most important bread-and-butter information on the American people ever housed under one roof—the Social Security board.

Hitherto all conclusions concerning number employed, kind of work performed, wages received and the general economic status was guesswork. All administrations, including President Roosevelt's, have shied off from an industrial inventory. As a result even the New Deal legislation dealing with these problems has been only a blind groping into uncharted fields.

Day by day, the Board is collecting and classifying this data. It already has the industrial fingerprints of more than 22,000,000 workers, and is obtaining more every day. It will eventually become the economic and industrial encyclopedia of a work-a-day nation, and a handbook for data essential to any permanent solution of the nation's gravest problems.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

EDWARD A. PIERCE, head of the brokerage firm bearing his name—the largest wire or commission house in the United States—personally bought a Stock Exchange seat last week. Four partners of E. A. Pierce & Co. were members already.

So what? So the plot of a big internal shakeup in the Stock Exchange thickens. Back in the early Roosevelt era, when the Exchange stood at its lowest point of public esteem, Mr. Pierce was an outstanding leader of the "reform" faction that wanted to kick President Richard Whitney out on his ear. Mr. Pierce was even mentioned for the presidency himself. This was a logical idea, but it ran aground on the fact that he was not a member of the Exchange and was therefore not qualified to hold office.

This oversight has now been corrected. Mr. Pierce's purchase of a seat doesn't mean a thing to his firm in a business way. The only reasonable conclusion, therefore, is that he wishes to be eligible for a governorship—or perhaps for even higher office. Inside comment runs that he is also eligible to deliver a lot of jolts.

MERIT: The membership of the Stock Exchange is essentially split three ways. One faction is composed of the wire or commission houses which handle most of the public's stock transactions. A second consists of an "investment group" which takes care of big trading accounts but has little contact with the small-fry trading public. The third group is the largest and includes individual specialists, floor traders and so-called $2 brokers (who execute orders for other brokers.)

The first two elements have been at swords' points ever since the '29 crash and are now heading for a knock-down-and-drag-out battle. The third group is divided in its allegiances to the other and does not count as an idependent force.

The investment faction claims the wire house were responsible for the collapse that led to government regulation because it was the ballyhoo of their customers' men that sucked in the unwary shoestring public. The commission people retort that the investment crowd was running the exchange from 1929 to 1934 and made such a horrible mess of its relations with the government and the country at large that regulation was inevitable. There is merit in both contentions.

COTTON: One important difference in the economic consequences of this year's Mississippi flood and those of earlier years will derive from the fact that inundation has come too early to wreck the cotton crop.

On the contrary, fresh deposits of silt may make the delta cotton land more fertile and increase the crop that will be planted when the waters subside. There will be no shortage caused by the flood to bolster prices—rather the reverse.

WARNING: Financial insiders expect a building boom within the next two years, but are wary about loading up with the stocks of building material companies at present levels.

These stock are already selling at prices much higher in relation to earnings than they did before the last building bonanza in 1927-28. That's a warning worth heeding against excessive optimism about the prospects of securities in this field.

TARZAN AND THE MAYAN GODDESS, No. 17

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

When Martling caught him stealing the radiogram, the vicious Farnol had only one thought—to seal his accuser's lips by death! He struggled free. Then his left hand drove a stinging blow to Martling's chin, while his right flew toward a dagger beneath his jacket.

In striking contrast to this scene of deadly conflict, Tarzan stood in the stern, gazing thoughtfully at the vessel's shimmering wake, which seemed to stretch like a broad highbroad across the sea toward his African homeland. And with him was the miserably homesick Nkima.

Martling was dazed by Farnol's blow, but he reached out and clutched his foe. At that moment Ula Dale stepped from the salon and saw the grim tableau. She shrieked. For the merrymakers in the salon the cry was drowned by the blaring music. But Tarzan heard.

The ape-man whirled toward that cry of distress, and saw its cause. Farnol's hand now held a dagger, while Martling clung doggedly to his arm. Tarzan darted forward, but his path was impeded by th swarming Lascars and their disordered gear. Would he be too late?

ATTENTION PROPERTY OWNERS

I have opened an office at 1212 Texas Avenue—for the purpose of doing a general real estate business. I was 18 years in this business in Waco. 18 months as district appraiser for the HOLC in Lubbock and some 30 South Plains counties.
If you have houses, lots, farms or a business that you really want to sell list them with me at once. I have two clients that now want to buy 80 to 160 acres, near Lubbock. Must be priced right. No trade to offer.

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP) — After five consecutive advancing sessions, the stock market today took a breathing spell.

Up and down trends prevailed, although there was selective improvement in the final hour upon reports General Motors strike negotiators might have good news to impart later.

U. S. Steel had a brief moment. This bellwether, on an opening block of 5,000 shares, hit par for the first time since May, 1931. The cheering of brokers and clerks had hardly started, though, when "big steel" slipped back under pressure of offerings. It ended with a net loss of ¼ of a point at 99.

Favorite steels, oils and specialties, despite obvious weariness of the list, managed to emerge with advances of fractions to around 3 points, a number at new recovery tops.

The nip-and-tuck race was exemplified by the Associated Press average of 60 issues which posted a decline of .1 of a point at 73. Except for a fast start, when the ticker tape lagged a bit, trading was comparatively slow. Transfers totaled 2,388,480 shares against 2,481,570 yesterday.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4. (AP)—Cotton pursued its calm and peaceful way today, ending 4 points lower after having advanced nominal amounts at the start of dealings.

Absence of news of importance affecting the market one way or another tended to keep both trade and speculative participation to a minimum.

The early upturn was caused by better foreign markets. Liverpool cables more optimistic opinions regarding the American flood and loan cotton situations. But prices at New Orleans were unable to maintain their gains and March slipped back to close at 12.70. May finished at 12.56 and July was 4 points lower at 12.37. Spot cotton also dropped 4 points at New Orleans with middling quoted at 13.30.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 4. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 13.02 cents a pound; for the month to date 12.93 cents a pound.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 4. (AP)—Hedge selling and Wall Street liquidation caused cotton to lose materially. May eased from 12.66@12.54 and closed at 12.59. Final prices were unchanged to 3 points net lower.

Prices failed to move more than a point above initial levees and when spot house selling caused reactions, increased liquidation developed from other sources.

The hedging was believed to be against purchases of loan cotton which was said to be moving a little more freely in the eastern belt although the total was still moderate.

Grains

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—Assertions that Germany after a sensational buying splurge has filled for the present her grain needs led to a late setback of wheat prices today.

Following reports that German purchases had ceased, downturns carried the Chicago wheat market to a cent a bushel below prices current 24 hours previous and to around two cents under todays top point.

At the close Chicago wheat futures were ⅛ to ⅞ lower than yesterday's finish, May 1.30⅜@1.31, July 1.13⅞@1.14, Sept. 1.10¼@1.10⅜, corn ¼ to 1½ down, May 1.06½@1.06⅝, July 1.00½, Sept. 94⅛@94¾, oats ⅛ to 1⅛ off, May 48⅝@50, and rye showing 1 to 1⅛ decline, May 1.09⅞. Provisions results varied from 15 cents drop to 5 cents advance.

Corn, oats and rye all paralleled wheat action. Cables reported that a record big crop of corn in Argentina is likely if additional rains are received this month.

Provisions gave way at the last with grains.

SOLDIERS EN ROUTE

PALESTINE, Feb. 4. (AP)—A special train carrying 300 Fort Sam Houston soldiers to the Mississippi flood areas passed through here today. Railroad officials said other trains would carry approximately 1,000 men from Texas to the flood regions.

Three Liquor Cases Decided

Plea Of Guilty, Acquittal And Dismissal Of Charges Given Thursday; Reaves Is Asked To Remove Gun

County court action Thursday disposed of three liquor cases.

Vada Laird pleaded guilty of liquor law violation and was fined $10 and costs by County Judge J. J. Dillard.

A jury acquitted Joe Erlich of a similar charge. Judge Dillard, upholding a defense motion made by L. A. Howard, quashed a complaint charging A. Brasfield of Slaton with liquor law violation.

The state was represented by County Attorney Robert J. Allen and Hugh Anderson, assistant.

Judge Makes Request

Judge Dillard Thursday morning asked Highway Patrolman Jack Reaves to remove the gun he was carrying before he testified in the Erlich case. Reaves acceded to the request. Deputy Sheriff Grady Harrist, another witness, was armed, but the gun he carried was beneath his coat.

"I have no objection to an officer of the law carrying his gun into the courtroom if it is concealed beneath his coat," Judge Dillard said later. "This is a civilized country and we are not conducting a military court. For that reason I prefer that officers do not carry their guns on the outside into my courtroom."

Half-Million Dollar Project At Big Spring Recommended

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. (AP)—The National Resources committee has suggested a $500,000 development at Big Spring, Tex., as part of a $55,000,000 water conservation and use program in that state.

The committee suggested $500,000 might well be spent immediately for a water supply reservoir, pipe line, tanks and filtration plant at Big Spring. It said preliminary plans had been made.

Crop Experts To Peek Beneath Soil This Year To Forecast Grain Production; Methods Announced Thursday

By FRANKLIN MULLIN

CHICAGO, Feb. 4. (AP)—Crop experts will peek beneath the soil to forecast grain production this year—a method born of recent drouths.

Bernard W. Snow, former assistant secretary of agriculture, and R. I. Mansfield, both associated with a Chicago grain house disclosed today the crop forecast method which they said would be in large-scale use this year.

Snow, dean of Chicago crop authorities, said the method involved detailed analysis of rainfall records and the systematic application of this knowledge of subsoil moisture conditions in predicting crop outturn it stresses the importance of subsoil moisture.

Snow and other Chicago observers repeatedly have "called" crop developments weeks before they became apparent to laymen. They predicted last year's serious grain losses during the drouth.

His latest moisture statistics, which undoubtedly will be used to judge progress of the winter wheat crop now growing in the southwest, indicate only limited subsoil moisture in many sections.

Snow's record, compiled from weather bureau statistics, systematically compares of current rainfall and normal rainfall, making it possible, he said, to evaluate at a glance the departure of the current season from normal conditions as rapidly as it occurs. Thus, he said, it furnishes an invaluable check upon the soundness of judgement displayed by crop reporters, whether official or private, when they report conditions.

Marble Board Operators Take First Step In Legality Fight

FORT WORTH, Feb. 4. (AP)—Marble board operators today took the first step toward their legal fight against the city-county war on marble boards.

Ernest Walker, who described himself as the owner of several "games of skill," filed suit for damages and a mandatory injunction against police chief and the city of Fort Worth growing out of seizure of devices last month.

Judge Frank P. Culver set hearing for Saturday.

FROM STOPPED-UP NOSTRILS

The mucous membranes in his nostrils are extremely delicate. He may suffer lasting injury if he keeps on sniffling or tries to blow out the accumulated mucus by brute force.

He will thank you later on if you teach him this much gentler and cleaner method to break up the mucus. Have him insert a little Mentholatum in his nostrils.

It is surprising how gently and quickly Mentholatum breaks up accumulated mucus. The stuffiness is soon relieved, the breathing becomes freer, and comfort is soon restored.

Cartoon Contest Is Investigated

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4. — Postoffice department officials said today Solicitor Karl A. Crowley was endeavoring to obtain full information concerning cartoon prize-winning contests currently advertised in some of the nation's largest newspapers.

The information, they said, was desired to determine whether such contests conflicted with postal lottery statutes.

A New York firm (P. Lorillard company, inc.), manufacturing a popular brand of cigarettes (Old Gold) and a New York advertising agency (Lennen & Mitchell, inc.) were two business houses named by the department as promoters of one nation-wide cartoon contest involved.

Department officials emphasized operators of such contests were not open to criminal prosecution but said if Solicitor Karl A. Crowley found the contests to be lotteries
