Hornets To Battle Bulldogs Tonight Here

Tonight at 8:00 p.m., the Gatesville Hornets will renew a long-time rivalry with the Marlin Bulldogs.

Scouting reports on the Marlin team, show the bulldogs to be an "outside team", depending upon the speed of halfback Curtis Smith much of the time. Smith was a member of the 1965 State Finalist team at Marlin. Coach Jack Gunlock said of Smith, "he is one of the fastest back we will play against this year. He runs the "dive play" well and moves to the outside after crashing through a hole."

Gunlock remembered "the Marlin team has good depth and good size." Along with Smith will be a constant threat from Larry Kalmback, a southpaw quarterback. Kalmback is good with the short pass, reports Gunlock and his favorite target is left end Curtis Modkins. Offensively, the Marlin team will probably attempt to open up the Hornet defense by establishing an outside and passing attack in the early stages.

Hornet coaches will be seeking to stop the wide-open offensive game with ends Douglas Freeman and Larry Smith or Lynn Massingill. Also playing a key role in stopping this outside game will be defensive halfbacks, Reggie Schoenewolf and Mike Barr.

The most outstanding characteristic of the Marlin team is their ability to keep fresh talented players on the field at all times. Fatigue will not soften the Bulldog performance. Offensively for the Hornets, no one knows because with the Hornet talent adequate in both speed and power, winning punch

Bubba Neel, outstanding on offense and defense will start at wingback.

Chris Bone will see action for the first time this season, after a knee problem.

Coach Gunlock reported Wednesday that two of his speedy backs, Raymond Cole and Larry McCutchen will be doubtful starters because of illness and sprained ankles.

Defensively, the Bulldogs will tough up the middle with Eddie Fowler, a 200 pound middle guard, backing the team. To either side of Fowler are Don Williams, 198, and Tom-

James Williams Is Semifinalist In Merit Scholarship Program

Principal S.L. Pruitt has announced that one student at Gatesville High School has been named semifinalist in the 1968-69 National Merit Scholarship Program.

The student is James C. Williams, son of Mrs. Cawthon Williams.

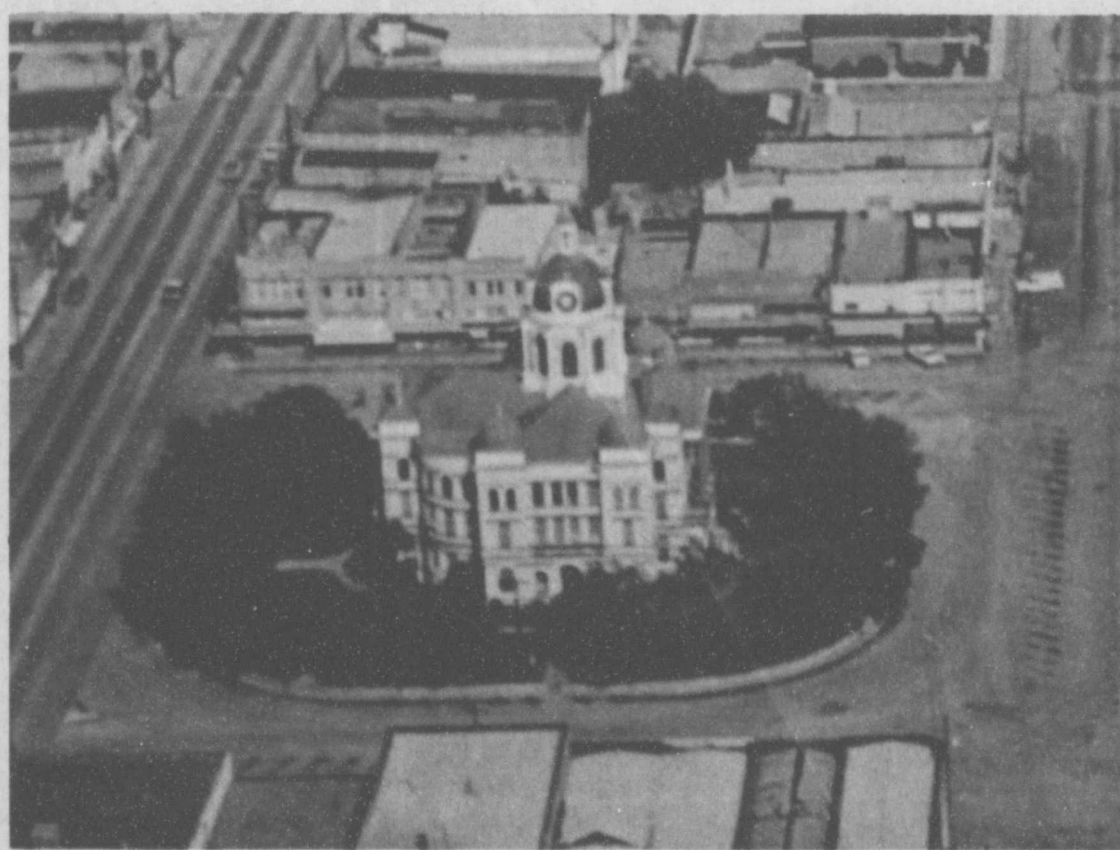

The 15,000 Semifinalists appointed today are among the nation's most intellectually able high school seniors and will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1969.

The Semifinalists were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, given last February in 17,500 schools nationwide. They constitute less than one percent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

The Semifinalists show high promise for leadership in their adult careers, according to John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. "They have already demonstrated both high intellectual capacity and a readiness to develop their abilities," he said.

"These students deserve credit and honor. They bring honor to their families, who deserve much credit, as do their teachers and their communities. Their future success, however, will depend increasingly upon their ability to become productive at the high intellectual levels of which they are capable."

Jaycees To Hold Airlift Sunday Sept. 22

The Jaycees predict that a good turnout at this Sunday's airlift, will complete the necessary financial requirements to complete the Courthouse lighting project.

Following the successful airlift, last Sunday, Jaycee Director, Tom Kennedy, immediately began working to secure pilots and plans for the repeat performance.

The September 22nd aerial excursion will begin around 3 p.m. and all pilots involved in last week's tours will be on hand, Joe Skelton, Louis Bone, Billy Voss, Dean Meeks and Harley Whaley, plus additional fliers from Waco.

If, for some reason you don't like to fly, you can still watch the planes and donate to the worthy cause.

Interested citizens can make donations at the National Bank or Guaranty Bank.

Copperas Cove Receives Municipal Sales Tax Refund

The first city sales tax payment in Coryell County was made this week to the City of Copperas Cove. The amount received was $10,870.75, which was payment for taxes collected during the month of April, May and June.

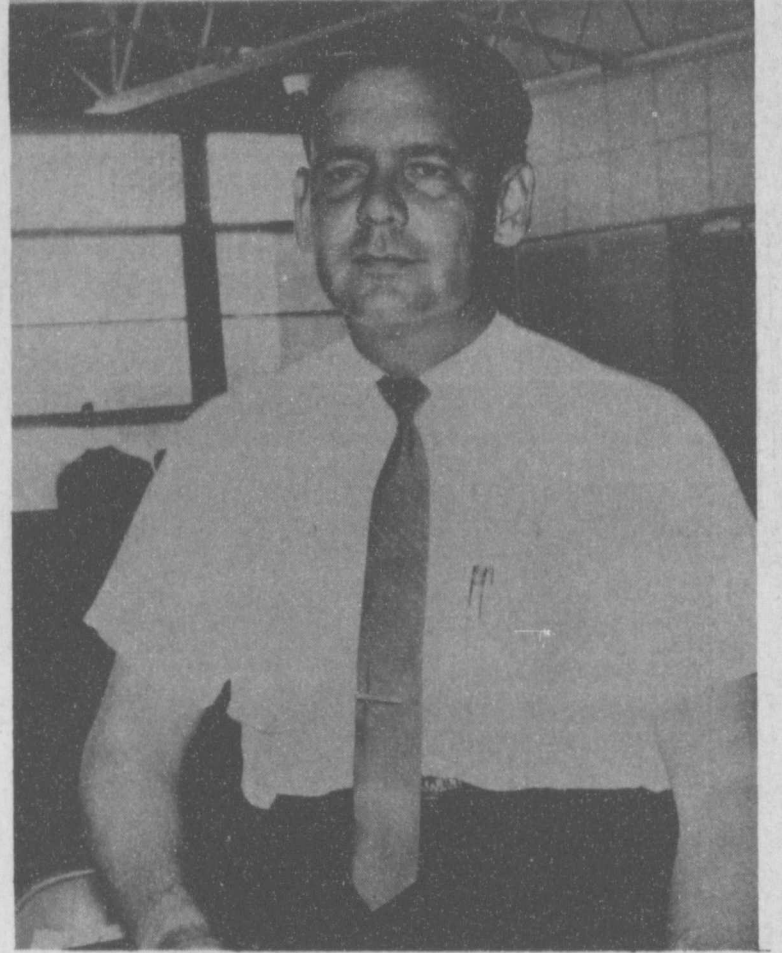

The City fathers had previously estimated that the total revenue from this tax for a full year would amount to $35,000 to $40,000.

City Manager, John Carlton, stated that the last quarter payment should be larger due to the Christmas purchases. He believes the total revenue will be slightly more than first estimates.

As previously agreed, the City of Copperas Cove will allocate 70% of this money for capital improvements of streets, water and sewer systems, parks, library and cemetery, with 30% allocated to operating expenses and salary increases.

MANNING WILL CONDUCT PROGRAM ON DRUG ABUSE

Due to the alarming increase in seduction of innocent people, young and older, to drugs, glue sniffing, LSD, goofballs, pep pills, alcohol and related problems, that has already happened and is happening each day at home and away, I feel that the local citizens of all ages should have an opportunity to hear the inside story and actual cases since it is a problem that is affecting our society and homes of today. It is a problem that isn't happening someplace else or problem of tomorrow. Tomorrow is here, and these problems are of the most personal and serious concern of all citizens.

Therefore, I have arranged for your benefit, a most enlightening program which will set forth the grave concern of these problems, problems of concern to grandparents as well as grandchildren.

These programs will be conducted by Paul J. Siebenmann of San Antonio in the Event School, September 26 at 1:50 p.m., for students and the general public is invited. Also at 8:00 p.m. for parents and grandparents and the public in general.

I would like to extend a special invitation to each of you. This is your opportunity to learn first hand what your children and you are now faced with today.

Since young people from rural and semi-rural areas are the easiest prey, for pushers of these temptations, these programs will be entertaining as well as educational.

Yours to attend, R.C. Manning Constable, Precinct 1

The first business was to nominate for president of the student body. The nominees were Ricky Mariott and Dennis Sheldon. On September 12th the Junior High and High School students voted for president, Ricky Mariott was elected president and Dennis Sheldon was elected vice-president.

A discussion on the posters in the hall was held. Hereafter, every class has made numerous posters to show spirit for the Elks' football games. But the council decided to ask each class to make only two posters per week. These posters should not exceed three feet by four feet. This regulation was passed so that we would have better quality posters in our hall.

The members and advisor hope to work for the betterment of our school and hope to be a very active Student Council.

COMPUTERIZED COMMUNICATIONS LIFELINE TO AID MOON-EXPLORING ASTRONAUTS

CAPE KENNEDY, FLA.—A vast globe girdling network of computers will perform one of mankind's greatest communications feats during future manned Project Apollo missions aimed at conquering the moon.

The computers will help form a lightning fast communications lifeline connecting the three astronauts with thousands of space scientists and engineers on earth. Each second, they will instantly process such data as the astronaut temperature, blood pressure, heartbeat, conditions inside the "command module" carrying the three spacemen, the exact position and speed of the spacecraft, and messages to and from the Mission Control Center at Houston.

This will allow the Control Center to keep constantly abreast of developments while the astronauts rocket to the moon, 240,000 miles away, land upon it, and return to earth. The center will relay the information, which will eventually include "live" television pictures—to a waiting world.

The network includes UNIVAC 1230 computers from Sperry Rand Corporation's Univac Division, at 14 land-based tracking stations and 3 giant Apollo tracking ships spanning the globe. Each of these computers can handle 500,000 items of information, like astronaut temperatures, per second.

Information from the moonship is relayed via cable from the global stations to UNIVAC 494 computers at the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Md., which sends it to other 494 computers at the NASA Mission Control Center in Houston. Here it is immediately displayed on television-like consoles showing space scientists how the mission is going.

The entire sequence, from spacecraft to flight controllers in Houston, will take a few thousandths of a second.

Mission Control sends messages to the astronauts—on even, if necessary, emergency commands causing the craft to take certain actions—via the same computerized communications lifeline. The total network, which includes both voice and data links, includes over 1,037,000 circuit miles.

Thus, the Apollo astronauts will never be alone during their epic voyages. When the first one sets his foot on the moon, millions on earth will share the adventure as computer-processed data, including television pictures, flashes to all points of the globe.

Week-end rain measuring up to two inches in the Evant area, amounts to one of life's extras. NEWS OF EVANT GRADS

Out of the twelve graduates of the Evant Senior Class there is a good percent entering college this month. Already in San Angelo State College San Angelo, Claudia Peays will re-register there. Phillis Conner will also become a student there. Registering at Tarleton are Gitty Brazier, Marilyn Conner, Lou Inabinet and Johnnie Koether. Sherry Lee is the only student to choose S.W.T.S.T.C. at San Marcos; while Danny Parr is the only student to choose Central Texas College, Copperas Cove.

Working in San Antonio are the Brewer twins, Jan and Ann, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brewer. Working in Evant is Walter Sanders, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Stiefer, at Horton's Garage. Married is the former Cheryl Horton, to James Stone. The couple are both natives of Evant and are making their home in North Carolina, where he is stationed in the army. A practical deduction one likes to take from a 66 2/3 of a class making good enough grades to be accepted by any college and the reminder with equally good grades, being accepted in immediate employment, is that Evant is still a good place to live and graduate from. One student, Sherry Lee, was employed all summer in an Austin bank, making her talents turn out cash for further education. Evant proclaims this class "little but loud", and will proudly watch their progress.

EVANT FFA ELECTS OFFICERS

Douglas Forrest, a senior in Evant High School, has been elected President of the Evant Chapter of Future Farmers of America. Douglas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Forrest and an outstanding agricultural student.

Other officers, elected for the school year include, Delbert Sugg, Vice-president; Kyle Arnold; secretary; David Pruden, treasurer; Keith Sugg, reporter; Jimmy Flippen, sentinel; Keith Carroll and Ricky Marriot, student advisors. Mr. Leslie Sheldon, agriculture instructor, is adviser of the Evant F.F.A.

FIRST PTA MEETING HELD THURSDAY

A most enthusiastic group of patrons met in the lunch room for opening of Evant School's P.T.A. organization, for the first time, since school began. Mrs. L. L. Pruden, president was in the chair. New officers, elected, included Roy Conner, membership chairman and Mrs. Wayne Parrish, parliamentarian.

Special committees were appointed to investigate the leads to how finances best can be spent, which will be provided weekly, the Fall Festival, time of which is set on November 2, and for listing the items already in use which has been provided by the efforts of P.T.A. in former years, which are highly beneficial to the school. The program was provided by Mike Grba, Bernadine Conner and Mary Flippen. Mike told of his experiences at summer camp near Middelothian; Bernadine gave highlights of her trip to Austin for the Small Schools Workshop; Mary informed her listeners on the Youth Conference for Farm Bureau families, held at Waco. The subject of the evening concerned "The Family on the Go", which is in keeping with the theme of the year on family life.

There will be four more meetings held this school year each of which has been carefully planned, with the best interest of the school and patrons, in mind. If you miss P.T.A., you miss an opportunity. Special mention was made concerning the idea of consolidation, by Rev. George Matthews, who lead the devotional, Roy Conner, an interested patron and Supt. L.L. Pruden. Efforts to hold the smaller schools was set about immediately. Orderly voices will be heard. Every patron should make his voice heard and soon. Mr. and Mrs. Mack Hughes and daughter, Francis, Dallas spent a few days visiting Mrs. Hughes' mother, Mrs. Milton Miller.

BUNK MASSINGILL DIES SUDDENLY

The town of Evant was shocked Wednesday afternoon, when Mr. Bunk Massingill, a patient of January Care Home, died suddenly, following a brief trip up town. Talking and visiting with friends and making contact with M.R. Charlie Tyson in behalf of recommending his son, Virgil, for employment as mechanic with the Tyson Motor Company, was his last contact. Upon becoming tired, and expressing a wish to return to the home Mr. Arnett drove him back to the entrance, and at 3:15 he had slumped over dead. His wife is a patient in the Home, where the couple had resided sometime.

Services were held at 5:00 Friday afternoon, at Evant Funeral Chapel, local residents, in addition to his wife includes his daughter, Mrs. Ernest Brewer, and his son, Virgil.

NEW BANKING HOURS TO BEGIN OCTOBER 1

New banking hours will be observed after October 1, at Evant. Beginning business at 9:00 in the morning, the bank will close at 3:00 in the afternoon on week days, except Saturdays. The latter time, it will open at 9:00 and close at 12:00. With a bit of adjusting, patrons can make arrangements to give the faithful bankers a few more minutes away from the public or to work before and after business hours, to serve the public better.

KATHY SHIPMAN HONORED

Mrs. Charles Faubion opened her home on September 7 from 2:30 to 4:30 to honor Miss Kathy Shipman, bride-elect of Larry Hodo. Co-hostesses, for the tea included Mrs. O.J. Lee, Mrs. Garth Wall, Mrs. James Broyles, Mrs. James Weeks, Mrs. Harlan Williams, and Mrs. Elmer Conlev.

MRS. PRICE IMPROVED

Word from the Norris Price family denotes that Mrs. Price has had the casts removed from both legs, but is still pending further treatment. She's the mother of three, who suffered fractures earlier in the year in the state of Colorado. Mrs. Earl Price, Norris' mother, has spent part of the year helping care for her and the children.

FORMER PASTOR TO WACO

Mrs. Albert Gholson is a patient in the Hamilton County General Hospital. She and her husband make their home in January Care Home.

Of interest to all who know Rev. J.W. Sellers, former pastor of Evant Methodist Church: He is being transferred from Fort Worth to Waco to pastor a church there.

DON CONNER HOME

Don Conner, grandson of Mrs. Ludie Moseley, Evant, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Conner, Bee House, is home to stay after ending his tour of thirteen months duty in Viet Nam. He was classified as Cpl. at the close of his two years service. The family met in his parents home last Saturday evening for visiting, in honor of his return. His plans are not definite, but he has two years of college already, having attended the La Turneau College at Longview.

WRECK INJURES TWO EVANT RESIDENTS

A wreck occurred in Evant Saturday, on wet pavement, which resulted in Mr. Claud Griggs obtaining a broken arm (above the elbow) and Mrs. Era Williams sustaining bruises. Both Mr. Griggs' pickup and Mrs. Williams' car were damaged several dollars worth.

Both victims were treated at Hamilton County General Hospital and released. Mrs. Williams was enroute to her home, at Evant, after spending time with her sister, Mrs. Dutch Wilson, Ireland.

BEE HOUSE LODGE ATTENDS WORKSHOP

Members of the official group in Bee House Lodge #550, journeyed to Copperas Cove Monday evening to participate in a workshop for the Masonic Lodge. Those in attendance included Messrs L.L. Pruden, Bill Hampton, Roy Conner, Joe A. Kreid, Delvin Marwitz and Tom Carl Sawyer. The next meeting of this type is scheduled to be at Hico.

"HELP" CALL FOR DITTY BAGS

An earnest plea is being developed for aid to fill ditty bags for the Coryell County Chapter of the Red Cross. The helpful aids go to American fighting men in Viet Nam, and the deadline for sending in items to the Gatesville office is October 10. If a Sunday School class can only fill a few, if a school group can only fill a few, if an individual can only fill one, do not hesitate to do so. Items permissible for enclosure is listed in a letter from Mrs. Antonece B. Rogers, Executive 3 Secretary, and is posted at the Post Office, on bulletin boards in school and at the churches, as well as at the Post Office. This was a project in F.H.A. class last year.

EVANT PERSONALS

Mrs. Robert Sugg is home after a few days stay in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mason spent last week end in Vernon with their daughter and son-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Irl Holt and daughter, Janna. They were accompanied by Miss Mattie McDonald, Rankin, who is their guest.

Mrs. and Mrs. John Prude spent the week end in the Albert Gholson home, to be with them during the illness of Mrs. Gholson. Mrs. Prude is the former Evelyn Gholson. The Prudes are teachers; he is instructor at Sul Ross College, Alpine.

Late word concerning everyones good neighbor, Bill Fraley, is that he has been released from the hospital and is doing well. He is at present staying with one of his cousins, near Lampasas.

A "face lifting" is a good term to apply to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Lemons, who has a new paint job on the house.

Everyone admires the new appearance of the old Brooks home which is now very much dressed in white, with new colonial columns on the porch, and a perky new shingled roof. Present owners are Mr. and Mrs. Matt Simms and son, David.

Mrs. Bob Stewart, cute as a mother bob white, spoke lovingly of her family as we visited in the January Care Home last week. A memory like hers is to be coveted among the active, much less the retired. Of her son, Happy, former grocery clerk, in Evant and truck driver, she related his occupation in the state of Illinois is the ownership and operation of a large grocery store, at Beloit. He has remarried since his late wife, Ruby died, and is still "happy". I never did ask if he has another name. She mentioned her son, Paul, and his operating a motel in the tourist area of Colorado. Paul was a student of Evant school, only a few years ago. She laughed and said he learned so much there, that she has to read his letters over twice to know what he is writing about. More power to our "small town and its small school".

Miss Linda Sneed - Kenneth Kid Wed In Eastwood Baptist Church

Miss Linda Sneed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy B. Sneed of King Community, became the bride of Kenneth Kidd, September 6th, in the Eastwood Baptist Church, with the Rev. Wes Pearson and Rev. Joe Broadway officiating.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli and the couple stood beneath an arch of greenery. A candelabra, with three candles stood to the left of the altar.

During the wedding ceremony, the bride and groom each took a candle from either side and together lit the top candle, symbolizing the uniting of two lives as one.

The bride wore a gown of white bridal satin trimmed in embroidered lace with matching trim and illusion veil. She carried a white Bible, topped with the bridal bouquet of white carnations and yellow and white stephanotis.

The bride's attendants were Martha Kidd, sister of the groom, maid of honor and Carole Graham, bridesmaid. Their full length empire style dresses were of yellow satin with yellow lace jackets and veils and they carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Flower girl was the little sister of the bride, Judy Sneed, and ring bearer was Ricky Sutton.

The groom's attendants were Gary Gray, best man and Clarence Richter, groomsman.

Wedding music was provided by Misses Kay Haynes and Jan Dickie.

Kenneth Sneed served as usher.

Mrs. Kenneth Kidd

A reception was held, following the ceremony, in the church's Fellowship Hall. The table was decorated in the bridal colors of yellow and white and the three-tiered wedding cake was baked by Mrs. W.A. Melton. After the bride and groom cut the cake, the guests were served cake, nuts and punch.

After a short wedding trip, the couple are at home at 671 W. Park St. in Stephenville. The groom will resume his studies at Tarleton State College, where he is a sophomore music major.

A rehearsal dinner was held at the Chateau Ville, the Thursday night preceding the wedding, for members of the bridal party. Hosts for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Kidd, parents of the groom.

Good Breakfast Results In Top Grades At School

Eating a good breakfast results in better school records. Studies show that during the late morning hours, students who had a good breakfast turned out more work, were quicker in their mental and physical reactions and did not tire as easily as those who ate no breakfast or had only unsweetened coffee.

A good breakfast provides 1/4 to 1/2 of the calorie needs of the day. A good breakfast also contains the minerals and vitamins needed to build and repair the body and keep it healthy.

In terms of food, a good breakfast includes citrus fruits, melons, strawberries, tomatoes or tomato juice and cereal products with milk or meat or eggs.

Children should have milk in addition to the milk on cereal. Breakfast also is a good time for adults to drink a part of their daily milk requirements.

Breakfast usually is the meal of the day with the least planning and the least variety. Most homemakers do not plan a breakfast menu, nor do they consider what to offer until time for preparation. Resolve now to make breakfast an important meal for your family.

Miss Joy Faubion - Roger Schwalbe Wed In Double-Ring Ceremony

Miss Joy Faubion became the bride of Roger Paul Schwalbe in a double-ring ceremony in the Jonesboro Baptist Church on September 7th at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Bruce Corley of Fort Worth, performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Roger Schwalbe

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Faubion of Purlana and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schwalbe of Jonesboro.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of peau de soie covered with lace and seed pearls accenting the neckline and the sleeves, which came to points over her hands. Her train was fastened at the shoulder line. A pearl tiara held her imported silk illusion veil. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and rosebuds, accented with ribbon streamers. She carried out the something old, new, borrowed and blue. The something old was a gold necklace her great grandmother Carpenter wore in her wedding and a handkerchief her great grandmother Baize carried at her wedding.

Miss Lynell Kunkel of Hamilton was maid of honor and Miss Sandra Watson of Jonesboro, cousin of the groom was bridesmaid. They wore apricot formal of peau de soie with net headpieces and carried a large bronze chrysanthemum.

Dennis Hallford of Abilene, was best man and Johnny Courtney, of Jonesboro, was groomsman.

Steve Schwalbe of Jonesboro, brother of the groom and Jimmy Ware, of Stephenville, cousin of the bride were candlelighters and ushers. Dianne Ware of Hico, cousin of the bride, registered the guests and organist was Mrs. Ruby Weaver of Jonesboro. Soloist was Mrs. Ned Tipton, of Lipan, sister of the groom.

The bride's mother wore beige dress with a matching lace coat and the groom's mother chose a beige dress. Both mothers wore a feathered mum corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the reception room of the church.

Members of the houseparty were Mrs. Jimmy Ware of Stephenville, cousin of the bride and Mrs. Ned Tipton of Lipan, sister of the groom.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will live in Hamilton.

The bride and groom graduated from Jonesboro and the bride is now employed at the Perry Bank of Hamilton. The groom is attending Tarleton State College.

Extension Phones At No Extra Charge For Limited Time

The Gulf States - United Telephone Company is installing extension telephones without the usual charge for installation and are not making the usual additional charge for color. It was announced today by T.W. Grisham, District Manager.

Grisham stated, "We are making this attractive offer for a limited time. We are fully aware of the fact that extension phones actually improve subscribers' telephone service. For instance, when you receive a call, you don't have to make that mad dash to answer the phone so you won't miss the call. With conveniently located extensions, you can answer from where you are -- bedroom, kitchen, etc. By the same token, you can make a call from where you are. It's an inexpensive convenience, as an extension actually costs less per day than a postage stamp."

Grisham said that inasmuch as this offer was being made systemwide, he had challenged P.S. Vetsch, Dist. Manager, Overton District, to a contest to see who could install the most extensions during the time limit of the unusual offer. The losing manager, after the contest is over, will report to the winning manager at his office and perform whatever duties that are assigned him, such as cleaning windows, mopping floors, etc. The losing manager will also pick up the tab for lunch--containing himself to a hamburger and water.

Grisham sincerely hopes that the Gatesville District subscribers will take advantage of the no installation and no additional color charge being made and add this inexpensive convenience to their homes. He is also probably thinking of how many windows there are in the Overton Telephone Office.

Card of Thanks

Words cannot express our gratitude for the prayers, visits, letters, cards and words of encouragement and consolation extended to us during the illness and passing of our loved one. We appreciate the efficient care of the nursing staff of the Coryell County Memorial Hospital and Drs. E.E. Lowrey, O.W. Lowrey and Dr. K. R. Jones.

May God bless each of you.

We were sitting quietly sipping iced tea, with lemon and spearmint of course, when Mrs. Woolley burst out with, "What is all this business about compost 'the Magic Garden Ingredient' I've been reading about? Sounds like an awful lot of hard work to me!"

"Well, yes, I guess it is, but the results are worth it," I replied, "Compost can change any kind of soil into good black garden loam."

"But I'm too old and lazy to do all that layering of plant material, soil, and manure and watering it down till I have a four or five foot heap. And the mere thought of turning the whole thing over and watering again every two weeks or so makes me so tired I just naturally sit down, prop up my feet and reach for a book," she said.

"Of course there is another way," I told her, "It's slower but practically no work is involved for just a small garden area like yours."

"Tell me quick," demanded Mrs. Woolley, "if it doesn't take much work I can do it!"

"All you do," I explained, "is to take your vegetable scraps and other garbage that will decompose, dig a hole in the flowerbed and bury it each day. Don't put anything greasy in the garden though. By the time you get to the end of a bed or row the first things you put out should be rotted enough to start over."

"My old dog would probably just dig it all back up again," "If you be sure it's all well covered with dirt so no odor escapes I don't think the dog will bother it."

And it's a wonderful way to get rid of all those eggshells, coffee grounds and table scraps," I said "and put the vegetable cooking waters, old coffee and pickle juices in too. The moisture will help everything rot quicker."

by Bob Poage

This letter is a few hours late. It is normally written on Friday. Mrs. Poage and I just got in last night at midnight from Lima, Peru, where we attended an Interparliamentary Union Conference. I felt the Conference was a great success from our standpoint. Day before yesterday the Political Committee recommended a resolution condemning the invasion of Czechoslovakia and expressing sympathy for the Czechoslovakian people. The Russians walked out of the Committee and did not again attend the Conference.

Yesterday we voted overwhelmingly (505 to 27, with 35 abstentions) to approve this resolution. It is the clearest condemnation of the Russian action in Czechoslovakia that has been passed by any international conference. Earlier the Conference had restored membership to South Vietnam over the protest of the communists. We of the American Delegation felt that these actions went a long way toward endorsing the American position and condemning the Russian position.

Thurman Herring

Sees Vietnam Action

USS JOSEPH STRAUSS (at sea) - Machinist Mate Third Class Truman R. Herring, USN 30, son of Mrs. Billy J. Herring of Route 1, Oglesby, is serving on board the guided missile destroyer USS Joseph Strauss in the South China sea near the Demilitarized Zone. While operating off the coast of Dong Hoi, more than 50 miles north of the Demilitarized Zone, the Strauss came under fire from enemy coastal emplacements. The USS Rupertus, steaming with the Strauss on gunfire support missions, immediately returned the fire, causing several secondary explosions and halting the enemy fire.

The following day, Strauss fired at an enemy supply bridge near Dong Hoi. Spotter planes reported the bridge, was only 15 feet wide, was hit dead center.

sian position, and I believe that it should be helpful to our negotiators in Paris.

I also took advantage of the opportunity while in Peru to visit the Minister of Agriculture, who, incidentally, is a Texas A&M man, to urge that they buy American rice. They are going to have to buy a substantial amount of rice this year because of widespread drought. The Red Chinese are offering it at $19.00 a ton less than we are, but I feel very hopeful that the Minister will do all he can to buy from the United States. These people are friendly with us, and they like to trade with us. I visited a large farm and sugar plantation and found a Santa Gertrudis bull from McLennan County.

As you might suppose, when I returned I found my desk loaded with correspondence, and next week we are going to have to try to get a Farm Bill to Congress without too many adverse instructions. I think it is now more clear than it was in July that if we don't pass a Farm Bill the wheat and corn people are going to be in deep trouble. Fortunately for us cotton is not in quite as bad shape right now as some of the other crops. Actually, the basic problem is all of the underdeveloped countries is exactly the same as it is in American agriculture--farmers simply can't get enough for what they produce to pay modern production costs--and nations like individuals tend to overproduce and thus still further lower the price of their products.

Garza Reports

Expanded Cattle

Market Possible

WASHINGTON - If some European countries changed regulations they use to restrict imports Texas would stand a better chance to expand its cattle and food markets, says Rep. Eligio de la Garza.

The Mission Democrat attended an agricultural seminar last spring in Madrid, Spain, to probe possibilities of opening new markets overseas.

In a followup study, de la Garza said the most significant trade barriers in the guise of food regulations are in Italy.

There are regulations on chemical additives, pesticides and animal health and other rules for dried fruit, fresh citrus, citrus juice and meat and poultry. The rules are rigidly enforced for imported products, but not always applied to domestic products, de la Garza said.

He said the agricultural attaches in Italy said altered restrictions could open up markets for U.S. exports of fresh citrus, prepared fruits, dried fruit, processed meats, dairy products and breeding cattle. Austria's rules on preservatives, coloring agents and labeling have created some problems in exploiting fresh citrus and dried fruits, he said.

Food regulations in Finland, Sweden, Portugal and the United Kingdom generally have not affected the export trades, de la Garza said.

Carpets Lead Two Lives . . .

Exciting things are happening to carpets this spring. A new variety, the outdoor-in-door variety, is blooming all over the place in brilliant colors, finishes and designs. An off-shoot of commercial use, this new dimension for carpeting first made its appearance a few years ago when its toughness and density proved ideal for pool side, boats, patio, terrace and other outdoor areas. Improved styling and manufacturing technology, the total use of man-made materials, new finishes, new printing processes have made it possible for this versatile carpeting to obtain greater popularity. In fact, its rugged performance outdoors, its tolerance for weather, have made it a leading candidate for heavy traffic areas indoors.

The short, tightly-packed pile of this synthetic carpeting discourages absorption of soil and is easy to clean. Spills wipe off and occasional vacuuming eliminates the endless washings and waxings necessary with tile floors.

The man-made yarns are mildew-proof, non-absorbent, tough, durable and resist fading. Its soft approach reduces breakage when plates or glasses are dropped. Its acoustical properties reduce noise and clutter.

The backing of latex foam rubber gives this low pile, highly practical carpet a luxury feel underfoot, and helps prevent fatigue. The foam rubber backing attached securely to the carpet, also acts as an insulator and will cushion even concrete floors. It is a money-saving feature since a separate carpet pad is unnecessary.

Outdoor-in-door carpeting benefits by modern manufacturing techniques. It is available in broadloom widths and, in some cases, as 12-inch square carpet tiles. These can be cemented in place or installed with double-face tape. In a variety of colors they can be arranged in many color combinations and patterns.

"IT'S TIME FOR A DIET!"

FEDERAL HOUSECLEANING NEEDED

Long-range improvement of the administration and operation of Federal programs won considerable bipartisan support in Congress just before the recess.

The Senate approved by voice vote the establishment of a new Hoover-type commission of eight members to study the executive branch and recommend changes to Congress. The scrutiny would include an analysis of the government's organization and how well its machinery works, coordination among agencies, the areas where programs could be dropped or consolidated, and the priorities that should be assigned among these programs.

The Senate also passed legislation designed to improve the administration of Federal assistance programs at the state and local levels, provide for periodic review by Congress of Federal grants-in-aid programs, technical services to state and local governments, and uniform relocation assistance and land acquisition policies. The original bill provided for the consolidation of Federal grant programs in addition to Congressional review, but this section was dropped before the bill reached the floor of the Senate. We feel that it should be reinstated.

These two measures should receive immediate consideration and action, by this Congress. We should not have to wait for the new session in order to start getting our Federal house in order. This would not only increase the efficiency of the Federal establishment, but help to reduce its over-all cost to the individual taxpayer.

Food for Thought

by Mrs. B. A. Snoddy

"See, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool!" John 5:7.

The above scripture is a part of a verse found in the writing of John, the Apostle, concerning a certain man who had been crippled, for 38 years, who lay by the pool of Bethesda, waiting for the troubling of the waters. It was believed that the first one in the water, after it was moved, would be healed of what ever disease he had. John 5:1-9.

The thing I'd like for us to think about this week, is the statement that "he had no man" to help him. In a nut shell, this is the reason our world has not been able to solve its problems for there is no man able, of himself, to do it.

Paul wrote in 2 Timothy 3, "This know, also that in the last days perilous times shall come, men having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; of men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith."

For the sake of crowds, prestige, and so called results, shall we compromise with the enemies of faith?

We need to hew to the line, and hold to the doctrines that made this nation great; this new modernism that has crept into our churches, is simply a denial of historic christian faith.

I heard a minister quote another man's statement, that we'll have to change some of the early standards of the church, to cope with the modern world; but this is not so, you cannot modernize God's laws, and standards; the christian church, as set up by the Lord himself is the pillar and ground of Truth. She earnestly maintains, and contends for the faith, once delivered to the Saints.

To be a Bible christian, is to be born again by the blood of Christ; to be a Bible christian is to believe certain historical facts, concerning the birth, the life, the death, the resurrection, the ascension, and return of our Blessed Lord Jesus.

Man has added his carnal opinions, and come to an unholy compromise with the things of the world and like the afflicted man by the pool of Bethesda, there is no man who can help.

The prophet Isaiah wrote that Jesus' name should be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace, Isaiah 9:6. And how can man's problems be solved, and the unrest and violence be quieted, without the Prince of Peace? The Lord showed Ezekiel, the prophet, in a vision, the moral condition of the people of Israel, and for this reason, had filled the land with violence, and provoked God to anger. Ezekiel 8:1-18.

It is reasonable to believe the same reason has brought violence to our land.

If you have read the scripture that I headed this writing with, you will note that Jesus saw the afflicted man, and asked: "Wilt thou be made whole?" In other words, he could be, if he wanted to be. If he'd ask the right one for help. He was expecting some man to help him, but this was beyond man's ability to help. As quickly as he listened to what the Lord said, and did what the Lord said to do, he was immediately made whole.

Let us reach up and get a new hold on the Rock of our Salvation. Jesus is the rock, the chief cornerstone. Let us preach his birth; preach his living here on earth, in the carpenter's home; preach him, as he stood there across the pages of history, and pushed aside the curtains of time, until John looked upon Him and said: "Behold, the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world." John 1:29.

Watch Him as he staggers up the dusty trail to Calvary's brow! See Him as He takes upon himself your sin, my sin, the sins of the whole world! See Him, as he dies for us, and is buried, and defeats Satan! See Him as He rose again! See Him as He gave to us the victory! See Him, as the soon coming King! He said: "Occupy 'till I come, so let us realize that it is He, who can help us, and not man.

The Hornets are going against a tough opponent tonight when they meet Marlin. If all the boys play as good as they did against Robinson last week, they should rack up another victory. How about that Mike Gaston? I never knew he was such a good running back. He sure surprised me. From the looks of things, he surprised the Rockets a little bit, too. Gatesville has some other fine running backs that really provide a punch on the ground. Carothers and Bone both have tremendous power, and Raymond Cole has 9.8 speed, so the Hornets are pretty well fixed in the rushing department. It remains to be seen, however, if they can produce a passing attack to keep the defense honest. Looking ahead, the Hornets will face a real test next week against Killeen on the Kangaroos' home ground. But, they have to deal with Marlin first.

The Gatesville High School Band finally got a new band director. His name is Mr. James E. Burton and he came here from Marble Falls. He got his degree from St. Mary's University in San Antonio. On behalf of the faculty and the rest of the students, I would like to say "Welcome to G.H.S." With Mr. Burton's help and a lot of hard work the band should be a real credit to the school.

More people are getting into the act all the time. Besides the mysterious "Mr. Ed," Marshall Long will also be writing a column on this page. Starting next week, the Freedom's Council will be writing essays which I will publish from time to time; possibly every week if they write enough of them.

Again I want to say to everybody—don't be content to just sit back and read this page. I can't believe that no one in G.H.S. has anything to say. Write some letters to me. I'll print anything, just as long as it's not obscene and it doesn't slander anyone. If you want to make a comment, discuss something, or just gripe, write a letter and stick in the "Mr. Ed" box, and you'll see it in the paper.

Back to football - the game that promises to create the most excitement this week in Texas is the game between the University of Texas and the University of Houston. I sure wish I could run down to Austin, Saturday and see that game. I'm for Houston, all the way, but to be honest, I'll have to pick Texas to come out on top by about one touchdown.

Several GHS students looked into their crystal balls and came up with predictions of the outcome of the Gatesville - Marlin game, which will be played at McKamie Stadium, tonight. The predictions were: Bob Stovall - 27 to 13 Steve White - 21 to 14 Marshall Long - 12 to 15 Butch Price - 30 to 18 Sharon Blanchard - 28 to 8 Phillip Murray - 27 to 14 Dinky Lam - 34 to 14 Janna Bonner - 9 to 6 Reggie Schoenewolf - 24 to 6.

Dear Mr. Ed,
I'm a junior in High School and you might say I'm a little "overweight". Because of this problem, I've gotten the idea that it's the reason I haven't any friends. Especially boys, I've never been on one date! Could being fat be the answer to my problem? I've tried dieting.

Chubby

Dear Chubby,
When a girls says she's too fat, nine times out of ten she's not. She's wanting attention. Being over weight may be your social problem. There are people who ignore one for being heavy. Again, this may not be the problem. Think about the way you present yourself when in a crowd. Also, you may look at your hair and the way you wear your make-up. This makes a great deal of difference.

Mr. Ed

Dear Mr. Ed,
I wrote you last week asking you why you kept your identity a secret. Well, this week I found out who you were. You're the last person I thought to be the one. Everybody always told me you were wild and that you didn't associate with very many people.

Just Concerned

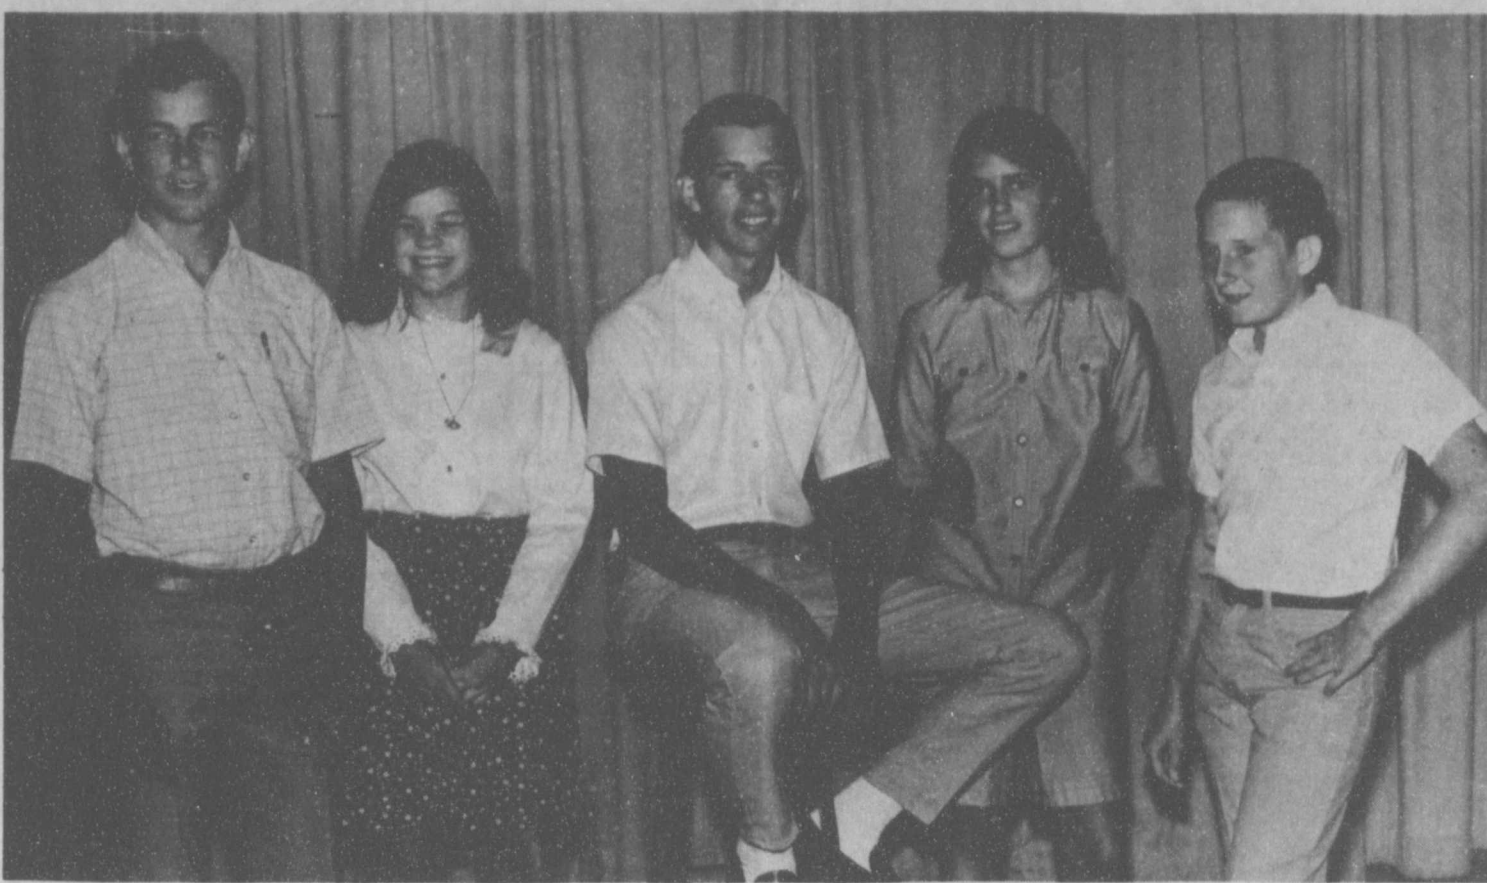

Dear Concerned,
What you have written I don't consider true. I believe I'm no better than anyone else. You may have heard this saying, but I am going to say it again and don't forget it. "Don't believe what you hear and only half of what you see."

Mr. Ed

The Music Scene

The Cream recently released their final album "Wheels of Fire". After a little more than a year together, they are considered by many to be the best hard-rock group in the world. At worst, they are second only to Jimi Hendrix Experience. Despite their success, they have decided to break up the group and go their separate ways.

In this, the last of three albums they have recorded, they really go out in style. The album consists of two L.P.'s; one recorded in a studio and one recorded live at the Fillmore Ballroom in San Francisco. The "live" LP has two very good songs on it, each of which run over 15 minutes. The first one is "Tago" which features a drum solo by Ginger Baker, one of the best rock drummers in the business. The other, "Spoonful" is mostly instrumental also, focusing mainly on the guitar of Eric Clapton and the bass of Jack Bruce. The other LP, the one which was recorded in the studio, is more conventional in that all selections run about three or four minutes each. All of these songs are somewhat similar to the ones on the Cream's previous albums, "Disraeli Gears" and "Fresh Cream". Of these selections, some of the best are "White

Room", "Passing the Time", "Those Were the Days", and "Deserted Cities of the Heart". This album is a fitting one for the Cream's farewell. It includes songs that demonstrate the full scope of their talents, as individuals and as a group. With the splitting-up of the Cream, that leaves Jimi Hendrix, as the undisputed king of hard rock. Coming up fast, however, are such groups as Steppenwolf, the Doors, the Who and the Deep Purple.

Pick Hits of the week: "In-a-Gadda-Da-Vida" by the Iron Butterfly and "Hey Jude" by the Beatles.

POPULAR CONNECTICUT FIFE-DRUM CORPS SETS RETURN TO STATE FAIR IN DALLAS

Those colorful Colonials from Connecticut, the fife and drummers of the Deep River (Conn.) Drum Corps, will march again at this year's State Fair of Texas, coming up Oct. 5-20 in Dallas. The New England music makers, wearing white wigs and red and black uniforms carefully copied from those of Revolutionary times, will give several free performances daily Oct. 12 through 17. The two dozen parading Pied Pipers in three-cornered hats drew huge crowds in 1963 and 1965 at the nation's largest annual exposition. The Deep River citizens have been popular favorites since 1873; The State Fair of Texas has been the people's choice since 1886.

Friday the thirteenth proved to be the start of a lucky season for the Gatesville Hornets, as they mauled the Robinson Rockets by a 36-18 difference. This could be the start of a Gatesville-Hornet march for the district championship.

The Hornets' offensive team finally exploded for five big touchdowns; a great improvement over pre-season play. The cause of this explosion, a piece of dynamite, known as Mike Gaston. Gaston was switched to tailback, and Mike Barr moved into the man under spot. This move helped to improve the Hornet striking power 90 per cent, as Gaston reambed for 202 yards in 25 carries for four touchdowns. Gary Carothers could also be handed some of the credit as he did a fine job as linebacker and tore out huge chunks of yardage as fullback. Buddy Wiggins, a fine B-team end, who stepped up to the varsity for the first time this year, showed great prospects as a Hornet pass catcher. Wayne Shirley was also a Hornet high spot. Shirley who has been showing all-state prospects at center, shined on offense and defense. These are but a few of the finer spots. The one that is more noticeable is the fine depth of the Hornet team. The Hornet reserves scored 16 points and gave up only 12 in the second half.

The number one weak spot on the Hornet team is a raw Hornet secondary that gave up valuable yardage on passes. Look for a change in that, as the season progresses and experience is gained.

This week a tough Marlin team invades McKamie stadium. The rumor has it that Marlin is coming over to win and in past years they've been known to give Gatesville fits. Gatesville should handle Marlin by one touchdown; they're no Robinson. Gatesville 16 Marlin 12.

Hornets . . .

my Williams, 190, to stop the Hornet power. At lineback William Brasher and Fred Beltran will quickly fill the holes opened in the Marlin defensive forward wall.

"If we have improved over the past week and if we can stop Smith, we can win", said Gunlock, Wednesday afternoon.

To make a prediction, one will need to weigh the Hornet outside defense, Gatesville 15, Marlin 14.

WORTH TALKING ABOUT

"In buying and selling in the market place we 'vote' many times a day. . . . Decisions on federal spending are made rather differently. The people to be served, or not served, have little direct participation. Those who will bear the taxes have even less opportunity to guide the decisions on spending. Search for ways to improve expenditure decisions— and search is now a matter of active concern—deserves continuing support . . .

"The concept of 'national interest' presents not a few difficulties. Identification of what really benefits the whole society is not always evident. . . . A program which clearly benefits some people does not necessarily serve the public welfare. . . . As particular federal programs get more detailed, the interests of 200 million Americans in this, that, and the other one become tenuous and remote."

University of Texas Coach

Darell Royal

Answers Recent Inquiry

It was DKR on the line and you knew he knew what was coming.

But Darell Royal, the University of Texas coach, is polite and he waited until the caller finished the question.

Why are some of your football players leaving, Coach Royal?

"There isn't ANYTHING going on," said Royal. "We don't have people in chains down here."

You fellows are just trying to find out something that isn't there."

Royal was, of course, referring to stories about eight of his footballers leaving camp.

"This isn't a case of bad morale. It isn't a case of being unhappy with the program. Morale and team spirit are better here this year than in the past three seasons."

The dropouts: we have had are not an unusual amount. Just check some of the other schools. They have people who turn in their uniforms, too.

"But we're in a glass bowl here. People know every move that is made. We'd be better off to close our camp and make no announcement."

"It confounds me that people could be all that interested in it. You know, they say 'Where has got to be a story behind this. There's got to be a reason'."

Royal said he wishes the players hadn't given up athletics. He said he didn't try to run them off.

HEALTH HINTS

HEATSTROKE

Cool it as much as possible in hot and humid weather, and lessen your chances of suffering heat exhaustion. Victims of heatstroke usually exhibit the following symptoms: pale and clammy skin; rapid and weak pulse rate; complaints of weakness, headache, or nausea; and cramps in stomach, legs or arms. The victim should lie down in a cool place with his head level to or lower than his body. If the person is conscious, give him a salt water solution — one teaspoon salt to one quart water — and then call a doctor.

TRAVELING WITH CHILDREN

Motor trips with infants and children require just a few extra precautions to assure a safe and comfortable journey. If possible, limit your travel to only 200 or 300 miles a day, and choose stopover points with facilities for recreation and infant care. Stock your car with a sufficient supply of disposable diapers and sealed jars of baby food. Make certain milk is pasteurized and water is pure. Also, see to it that your children's immunization shots (tetanus, polio and whooping cough) are up to date.

FOOD POISONING

Protect yourself and family against food poisoning on picnics and outings. If you prepare perishable dishes at home, refrigerate them immediately, and keep such food cold until serving or cooking. Discard any food that appears spoiled or tainted. Take along several nonperishable food items such as canned food, potato chips, and clean raw fruits. The use of vinegar in meat, salad and fish dishes will help retard bacteria.
