Monday Brings Another Dollar Day

O'Daniel Is The Winner With 1095 Majority

Race Is Nip And Tuck Affair In Close Contest

Johnson Leads Governor Most Of Way In Torrid Senatorial Contest

The Special Senatorial Election held last Saturday has proven the closest major race in the history of politics in this state, between Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and Congressman Lyndon Johnson.

Johnson took an early lead and maintained it straight through until Tuesday morning, when O'Daniel forged ahead. O'Daniel started his climb Monday morning, when Johnson had a lead of approximately 5,000 votes, with many conceding him the election. But as the small outlying boxes continued to give margins to the Governor, it was evident late Monday afternoon that the race was not settled and that he had a fine chance of overcoming Johnson's lead.

He did just that on the reports Tuesday morning and his margin continued to climb as straggling votes were tabulated and totaled. Two boxes in Dawson County which did not report until Monday, gave O'Daniel substantial majorities over Johnson.

Final returns as announced Tuesday night show that O'Daniel led Johnson by 1,095 votes to maintain his record of never having suffered a political defeat.

With O'Daniel's victory, Lieutenant-Governor Coke Stevenson will be elevated to the Governor's chair, for the first time in more than 20 years such an elevation has been made. The last time this event occurred was when W. P. Hobby was made governor following the ousting of Jim Ferguson from the executive position.

Lobos Will Play Game In Lamesa Thursday Night

Baseball fans will have an opportunity to see the Lamesa Lobos in action for a single game here Thursday night, when the Big Spring Bombers will furnish the competition.

The Lobos have bolstered their pitching staff with the addition of Lefty Courtney of Hamlin, who joined the local team in Big Spring Monday, hurling a good game that night for the Lobos, although he lost the contest through errors by his teammates.

The line-up for the past few days has presented a jumbled affair due to illness and injuries, which continued to plague Scaling's men. Only two of the regular infielder line-up participated in the Monday contest, with one regular in the outfield. The Bombers were victorious by a score of 6 to 3.

COURTNEY TO PITCH

Announcement was made just as the Courier goes to press that Lefty Courtney, new hurler for the Lobos will be on the mound against the Bombers Thursday night in Lamesa. Those who have seen him work, state that Lamesa fans are in for a real treat. Be on hand Thursday night at Lobo Field and see this newest addition to the hurling staff in action.

On Saturday, Sunday and Monday the Clovis Pioneers will invade the local diamond for a tussle with the Lobos. The Amarillo Gold Sox will be here Tuesday and Wednesday, and then the Lobos will again take to the road.

With half of the season gone by, the main tussle will come during the second half, when the long hot days of July and August take their toll of stamina and strength.

The Lobos are staging a gallant fight to remain in the top division. As is known by most fans, the four top teams at the end of the season will play a series of games to determine the league champion. Last year, as well as the year before, the Lobos fell short of the coveted "big four" by only a small margin.

Double Celebration For O'Daniels

Hurt's Remodeled And Enlarged Store Completed

Hurt's have completed their remodeling program and their store now not only has a great deal more room in the ready-to-wear department, but it presents one of the better looking stores of this section. The balcony has been greatly enlarged to give needed room in the ladies department. Underneath, the shoe department has been completely rearranged which not only gives more room but adds a great deal to the appearance.

The new balcony presents a streamlined appearance and a ledge along the front allows for a merchandise trim.

The stairway has been moved from the center of the building, over to the side, which allows a fuller view from the front of the store.

W. B. Collins, Chairman Of County Cotton Industry Committee, Tells Of Slips

Because merchants cannot give cash change in Cotton Stamp transactions, and since all Cotton Stamps are printed in 25-cent denominations, how will retailers handle sales normally involving change?

W. B. Collins, chairman of the Dawson County Cotton Industry Committee said that this situation was very effectively and simply handled by means of "Cotton Credit Slips."

Aluminum To Be Gathered To Give To Defense Drive

In a patriotic gesture, Dyer Hdw. and Auto Supply have agreed to act as headquarters for the gathering of scrap aluminum to be given to the government for National Defense.

All who will contribute any old aluminum they have, will please take it to the store where it will be stored until sufficient quantity has been secured to justify a shipment.

The aluminum will be given to the government absolutely free of charge and no one will derive any profit, except the knowledge that they have aided, at least in a small way, the defense of the nation.

Look around your place and see if you have any old aluminum of any nature, and take it around to the Dyer Store. It is a patriotic move that is worthy of the closest cooperation of every citizen in the town and county.

Youth Registration Falls Far Short of Estimates

Most Stores Of Lamesa To Be Closed All Day Friday In July 4th Observance

No Celebrations Of Any Kind Are Planned For Lamesa: Many Expected To Attend Ball Games.

It is understood that most of the retail stores in Lamesa will be closed all day Friday, July 4th, in observance of National Independence Day.

There has been no announcement of any programs for the day in Lamesa, with most people planning to spend the day elsewhere.

Baseball fans are expected to trek to Big Spring in large numbers, for the double header Friday afternoon between the Lobos and the Big Spring Bombers.

The annual Cowboy Reunion at Stamford is also expected to draw a large number of Lamesa visitors. Several other towns throughout the section are holding celebrations of various kinds on that day, and these will all likely find some patronage from Lamesans.

Lamesans who will motor elsewhere on this day are being urged by State Highway Patrolmen and safety leaders, to drive carefully on this day, as the roads in all sections of the state are expected to be heavy with traffic.

Court House Singers Will Hold Annual Meeting Here On Sunday, July 13th

Special Concert Will Be Given On Saturday Night Before Convention. With Many Special Numbers

The Annual Court House Singing will be held in Lamesa, Sunday, July 13th, according to information released this week.

This affair annually draws hundreds of singers, not only from Dawson County, but from all over this section of the country.

ASK AID ON HIGHWAY

The Seagraves Chamber of Commerce has communicated with the local organization to ask their aid in forming a Gulf to Mountain Highway, running from Corpus Christi to Santa Fe New Mexico, by the way of San Antonio, San Angelo, Lamesa, Seagraves, Denver City and Vaughn New Mexico. The local body agreed to give all the help it could.

COUNTY OFFICES TO CLOSE

Announcement was made today by County Judge Vernon D. Adcock that all offices in the Court house will be closed on Friday and Saturday. It was further announced that if any urgent business came in, that officials, or their deputies would be available.

The singing program will open at 10:00 a. m., and will be held in the district court room in the court house. Besides the group singing, there will also be several quartets, trios and duets, from local as well as visiting singers.

A concert was also announced for Saturday night, with the time to be announced later. The Pickens quartet, of Lubbock, well known among singers all over West Texas, will be among those who will take part in this concert.

Further details of the program will be given later, it was said.

TO ATTEND SCHOOL

Raymond Lee Johns, manager of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce, will leave July 13 for Dallas, where he will spend a week attending a special Chamber of Commerce School.

Miss Clara Pope of San Angelo is visiting in the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Smith Jr., this week.

Approximately 100 salt domes have been discovered in Louisiana.

Young Men Who Are Just 21, Signed Tuesday

Number To Register Over Nation Was Less Than At First Estimated

Dawson County registered a total of eighty-six youths in the second R-Day here Tuesday.

This number was slightly more than half of the anticipated one hundred and fifty which was expected. The lower number, however, prevailed all over the nation, and the number of men registered is far short of the estimate made several days ago by draft officials.

The registration in Lamesa was held in the local draft offices at 210 North Austin Street.

Youths who have reached their 21st birthday since last October 16 and prior to July 2nd, were subject to the registration.

Due to the lateness in getting the complete list of registrants, they will be published in the Monday issue of the paper.

CC Directors In Tuesday Meeting

The directors of the Lamesa Chamber of Commerce held a breakfast Tuesday morning, at which time several matters came up for discussion.

The directors voted to cooperate in the Cotton Stamp Plan with the merchants of Lamesa and will order special window signs to be used by the firms participating.

They also voted that all stores of Lamesa should close throughout the day, Friday, July 4th, in observance of National Independence Day.

The directors are also asking all merchants of Lamesa to buy and have on sale in their respective places of business, Defense Stamps, and to place a sign in their windows stating that they have them for sale. This program is being carried out successfully in many towns and has greatly increased the sale of the stamps wherever tried.

A committee to promote this was appointed, composed of W. J. Beckham, chairman, C. A. Hollingsworth, J. T. Allen Sr., Don Emory, and Dan Davis.

Possum Kingdom Dam Completed

Possum Kingdom Dam on the Brazos River near Mineral Wells, recently completed, completed another great lake in North Texas. Covering hundreds of acres, water at the dam proper is more than 100 feet deep. Thirteen flood gates control its level.

Many Big Values Are Listed In This Newspaper

Shoppers Will Find Many Big Savings Throughout Lamesa On This Day

Next Monday, June 7th, will see another of the regular monthly Dollar Days unveiled in Lamesa, and from the interest shown by the advertisers and merchants of the town, this promises to be among the biggest such events ever held in Lamesa.

Although merchandise prices have shown a steady rise during the past several months, Lamesa merchants have made a special effort to keep these prices as low as possible, and in many instances you will find that prices will be as low Monday on many items as they were before the rise all over the country.

In this issue of the Courier will be found several ads with special prices quoted for this one day only, while others are offering the special values for Saturday and Monday. Besides these specials listed in this paper, there will likely be scores of others throughout the stores of the town.

Wherever you live, you will find that no more profitable time could be spent than to be in Lamesa on Monday to take advantage of these savings. As one merchant expressed it, it may be many months or even years, before the people will have the opportunity to buy merchandise as cheaply as they will in Lamesa Monday.

Besides the large number of Dollar specials for this day, there will be many other special values which will be available for this one day only.

Look over this issue of the Courier and check the large number of special bargains and make your plans now to be in Lamesa next Monday, July 7.

New Water System To Be Completed In Next Few Days

The new water system to augment the supply in Lamesa is rapidly nearing completion, according to city officials, and it is expected that the new supply will be turned into the mains within the next few days.

There has been some delay in the securing of materials due to the National Defense program, but it is thought that all this will be overcome shortly.

The construction of the new overhead storage tank is expected to get under way within a few days. The new supply will be available, however, even before this is completed, it was said.

The new storage tank will hold approximately two hundred thousand gallons of water, or seventy-five thousand gallons more than the present tank. The top of the two tanks will be the same height, while the tower on the new one will not be quite so high, but the tank will be deeper.

When completed the city feels that their water shortage problem will be over for years to come.

It is understood that the municipal swimming pool will be opened as soon as this additional supply of water is available. It will be recalled that the pool did not operate last year due to water shortage.

Rains Fall Over Most Of Dawson County Monday

A good rain fell Monday night, according to reports covered most of the surrounding territory.

The fall in Lamesa amounted to .75 inches, while reports from other sections vary from showers to more than an inch in places.

No damage has been reported in Lamesa to crops in the territory, with most farmers reporting the fall as very beneficial.

The rain was accompanied by a rather violent electrical display, but not a great deal of wind. The fall was steady in town and not calculated to wash at all. Growing crops, lawns and gardens were greatly benefited.

Local Boy Will Attend School At Lowry Field

Hill E. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Dean of Lamesa, has been selected to attend the Air Corps Technical School at Lowry Field, Colorado, where he will be trained as a supply clerk, according to an announcement by the Commanding General, Hamilton Field, California. Private Dean enlisted in the Air Corps at Barksdale Field, Louisiana, on December 31, 1940, and was immediately transferred to the west coast air base near San Francisco, where he has been on duty with the 7th Pursuit Squadron as supply clerk. Born in Lamesa, he was graduated from the Lamesa High School. The sending of selected enlisted men to the Air Corps Schools is a feature of the Army Expansion program, and any man is eligible for such appointment after he has completed his recruit training. Many graduates of these schools who have returned to civilian life after expiration of their enlistments have found themselves well prepared for highly paid positions in the aviation industry.

WPA Rolls Cut More Than Half In This Area

WPA project employment will be reduced from 2,666 to 1,165 workers in the 24 counties comprising the Lubbock WPA district, it was announced today by District Manager J. O. Jones. The sharp curtailment in WPA employment is in line with national retrenchment. State Work Projects Administrator, H. P. Drought, advised district managers, in announcing the statewide employment cut. WPA employment is being reduced nationally to 1,000,000 workers and in Texas from 73,310 to 56,500 workers. WPA certified national defense projects will be continued at full strength, necessitating greater reductions on other types of WPA projects, Jones was advised.

Because the reduced WPA employment makes it impossible to employ workers in localities where projects are scattered and the cost of supervision is relatively high, work will be concentrated in areas where the relief load is the heaviest. District managers were advised. It may be necessary to discontinue WPA activities, at least temporarily in certain counties in order to reduce supervisory costs. Drought told district managers.

Cotton Stamps To Mean $25,000.00 In New Business

A preliminary estimate based on the number of cotton farmers in Dawson County who have so far filed notice of intention of participating in the Supplementary Cotton Program indicates that local merchants taking part may expect to enjoy at least $25,000.00 of new cotton business during 1941.

This information was released today in a statement made by B. J. Baskin, County agricultural agent, following the most recent check on the indicated farmer participants to date. "Naturally," added Mr. Baskin, "alert, merchandising minded retailers who aggressively push cotton products not only to their stamp customers, but to the general public as well, will stand to benefit most from the program."

Suggestions along this line offered by Mr. W. B. Collins, Chairman of the Cotton Stamp Committee, included extensive advertising of the many cotton "bugs" now on the market; attractive store displays of cotton household articles and clothing appropriate for a wide variety of uses and occasions; and the segregation of 100 per cent American products in the stores.

Mr. Collins pointed out that merchants who used ingenuity in the sales promotion of their cotton merchandise would not only perform an important service to their customers, and the nation in helping to solve an important national problem, but would gain profitable business as well.

"This program," he said, "offers merchants an unusual opportunity to cooperate with the Government's efforts to increase the domestic consumption of American cotton by making everybody conscious of the value and importance of cotton merchandise, as the chosen fabric of both the society matron and the budget-balancing housewife."

Government Will Pay Equities If They Take Title

Farmers with cotton in the government loan will receive full payments for their equities if the government should take title to the cotton.

This was emphatically pointed out today by Vernon Martin, Dawson County AAA secretary, when he was advised by the United States Department of Agriculture that title will not be taken to loan cotton without prior public notice.

If the government should take title to loan cotton, the cotton producers would be paid any amounts by which (1) the redemption costs of their notes (which include principal, interest, and carrying charges on the pledged cotton) were exceeded by (2) a fair value for the cotton at the time, which would be determined by the Secretary of Agriculture on the basis of the then prevailing market price for cotton with reasonable allowances for difference in grades, staple lengths, and locations.

"Don't be misled by false representations to the effect that the government will not give full value for cotton equities when and if it is necessary for the Commodity Credit Corporation to take title to the cotton," the AAA official warned.

The notes secured by 1938 crop cotton, the maturity date for which was extended to July 31, 1941, are not callable on demand. The notes secured by 1939 crop cotton matured on July 31, 1940. The notes secured by 1940 crop cotton do not mature until July 31, 1941, but they are callable for payment on demand at any time. It is possible that the government may find it desirable to take title on August 1, 1941, to any cotton remaining pledged to secure notes which are overdue at that time. In the event, however, that the government should take title to any of the stocks of loan cotton, at least ten days public notice of such action would be given by a press release.

Payments Are Made By Social Security Offices

Since January 1, 1940, the Social Security Board has been making monthly payments to retired workers and to their dependents, and to the families of deceased workers who had been employed in jobs covered by old-age and survivors insurance. Workers now employed in such jobs are building up credits toward a retirement income in old age and toward monthly insurance payments for their families if they should die.

The number and amount of monthly awards and lump-sum death benefits paid in the State of Texas for the months of January, February and March of 1941 are shown below:

Retired workers, 705, amount of benefits per month, $13,645.

Aged wives of retired workers, 169 amount of benefits per month, $1,757.00.

Children, 785, amount of benefits per month, $8,802.00.

Aged widows, 38, amount of benefits per month, $715.00.

Widows with young children, 305, amount of benefits per month, $5,540.00.

Parents, 8, amount of benefits per month, $105.00.

Lump-sum death benefits, 865, amount $94,207.00.

Old-age and survivors insurance is operated entirely by the Federal Government, Robert M. Mayne, manager of the Big Spring office of the Social Security Board, stated. In a statement releasing the claims statistics, he continued, "Under this system, employees in commerce industry pay a Federal tax of one penny out of each cash dollar of wages. Employers pay an equal tax. Out of a fund in the Federal Treasury, insurance payments are made to workers when they retire after age 65, to wives and dependent children of retired workers, and to families of workers who die."

"Old-age retirement benefits for workers were provided under the Social Security Act as passed in 1935; however, insurance protection for the families of workers has been in effect only since January 1, 1940. The feature of the Social Security Act is particularly significant to workers with young children," Mayne said.

"For example," Mayne explained, "the young man down the street who has a wife and two children has been employed in a department store at $150 a month for several years. He has not been able to save much out of his salary. Suppose he is killed accidentally or otherwise. His widow and two children will not

Vocial Truitt Is Winner In Letter Writing Contest For This Week

Vocial Truitt, Motor Route B, is announced as the winner of this week's letter writing contest sponsored by the Courier. A check for $1.00 has been sent the winner, and the winning letter placed in competition for the big cash awards of $20.00 and $10.00 for first and second prizes at the end of the campaign.

It is only a few weeks until these big winners will be announced and if you haven't already entered this unique contest, do so today, for there is another winner to be announced next Thursday from letters received between now and then. If you have entered before and failed to win, your next entry might be the very one the judges will select.

Remember, you have an opportunity to win $1.00, $11.00, or $21.00 by simply writing what is considered the best letter by the judges on either of the subjects, "I Like to Shop in Lamesa because" or "I Like the Twice-A-Week Courier because." Complete rules are given below.

The winning letter for this week is as follows:

"I like to shop in Lamesa because any day you buy, there is something new in style and fashion. The stores publish ads of their specials and their prices. The stores are all nice, clean and most of them are air-conditioned. People buy in Lamesa because they can save time and money. If one store does not have what I want, the one next door does."

Readers of this newspaper will be $40.00 richer as the result of this unique contest, which opened several weeks ago. Ten readers are going to be awarded $1.00 each and two out of the ten are going to receive larger awards. One will receive, in addition to the $1.00, a cash award of $20.00 and another will receive an additional $10.00 in cash, above the $1.00 mentioned above. Complete information as to how to win is given below.

The Courier will offer a Cash Award each week of $1.00, with a Grand Prize of $20.00 in cash and a second prize of $10.00 in cash for the best letters on "I Like the Twice-A-Week Courier because" or "I Like to Shop in Lamesa Because . . ."

Just write a short letter of not more than fifty words on either of the above subjects and bring or mail your entry to the Courier, Lamesa. All entries for each week must be in the office by not later than noon Wednesday to compete for that week's awards. The campaign will be conducted for ten weeks, and the weekly winners will be judged for Final Grand Prize at the end of the contest. In case of ties, duplicate awards will be given.

Remember, there is no catch, no fancy writing necessary, just sound plain reasons why you like the Twice-A-Week Courier, or why you like to shop in Lamesa, may win you $1.00, as well as the $20.00 or $10.00.

You may enter the contest every week, and remember, if at first you do not win, don't give up, yours may be the winner next week or the next.

The letters will be judged solely on the reasons given and the decisions of the judges are final. All entries become the property of the Dawson County Courier.

Baptists To Raise $300,000 For Work In Army Camps

The Southern Baptist Convention, composed of more than 25,000 Baptist churches and a combined membership of more than 5,000,000 people, has instructed the Home Mission Board, located at Atlanta, Georgia, to promote the religious work in connection with the army camps, navy bases, marine stations, air corps and C. C. Camps. Although Texas Baptists have been promoting religious work in all of the army camps in Texas, they will cooperate with Southern Baptists in the promotion of the religious work among the soldiers throughout the nation.

Dr. W. W. Melton, General Secretary of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, with headquarters in Dallas, made the following statement in a meeting in Dallas this week: "The world at its worst needs Christianity at its best. While the United States is making preparation to defend itself, the young men who are in government service need to fortify themselves by trusting Jesus as Savior and Lord." Dr. Melton also said, "While our young men are receiving training to be soldiers of our government, they should also receive the love of Christ in their hearts and thus become soldiers of the Cross and enlist in the Christian Army with King Jesus as their Commander."

The time set by Southern Baptists to raise the $300,000 is July 27. All pastors of all Baptist churches in the South will be invited to participate in this movement. It has been suggested that on July 20th all pastors use as their subject, "Our Responsibilities to Our Government-Enlisted Men."

Texas Baptists have been asked by the Home Mission Board to raise $35,000 on July 27th, this being the proportion Texas should raise. Dr. Melton said, "Texas Baptists, 750,000 strong, are expected to march down the isles of the 3,250 Texas Baptist Churches and lay their offerings upon the altar to take care of our Baptist religious work among the soldiers. We believe that Texas Baptists will raise the $35,000.00 on this one day."

Dr. A. C. Miller is the supervisor of soldiers' work for Texas Baptists. He and Dr. Melton will take the lead in the campaign in Texas, while Dr. J. P. Lawrence, Secretary of the Home Mission Board at Atlanta, Georgia, will lead the Baptists of the South to raise the $300,000 on Sunday, July 27th.

Savings And Loan Ass'ns To Pay Dividends

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — Dividends aggregating $1,538,676 will be paid to 91,558 savers and investors in Texas on June 30th by the 119 insured savings and loan associations in the state, according to estimates prepared by the Federal Home Bank of Little Rock.

The payments will cover a distribution of the earnings of the associations for the first half of the year, after substantial sums have been placed in the reserve and undivided profits accounts of the institutions.

Local savers and investors will share in this large distribution of earnings, for included in the totals compiled by the bank are the figures of the Lamesa Federal Savings and Loan Association by which this area is served.

The insured savings and loan associations in Texas have enjoyed a very satisfactory business during the past six months, according to officials of the Little Rock Bank. Savings and investment accounts have increased in an unprecedented volume and they now total $90,049,420. Lending activities of the associations also showed material gains in this period. Loans made to Texas home owners since the first of the year aggregate $11,859,565, of which $4,175,000 was used by the borrowers for the construction of new dwellings.

Bank officials predicted that even a greater amount of savings would flow into the insured associations during the first ten days of July, for, they said, that is a period when many persons shift their funds from one investment to another. Officials attributed the steady increases to the fact that the Federal government has, within recent years, through the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, provided insurance up to $5,000 for every account in the associations.

President Henry Norris read a letter to Louis, offering him free reinstatement in the Club upon his return from military service.

Barrington Reed, Scout executive of Lubbock and Edwin Matthews were visitors.

Miss Ila Lou Hatchett and her mother, Mrs. Hatchett, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Woods and children, are visiting with friends and relatives in Comanche and San Angelo this week.

Halifax Booms With War, As It Has With Others

(Halifax, Nova Scotia, is the North American port nearest to the war in Europe. Here's a first hand account of what the war is doing to Halifax, and what Halifax is doing about the war.)

By MORGAN M. BEATTY AP Feature Service Writer HALIFAX, N. S. — This is the city that wars built.

For 19 years this Anglo-Saxon citadel of the North American continent has thrived—and suffered—in wartime; struggled for economic security in peace. Today the story is the same. The boom is on again.

Halifax (pop. 75,000) may not be the biggest port in the world, but today it is probably the busiest. It moves the most ships, a large percentage of them in convoy for Britain.

"It's a pity we must always thrive on war," says Port Manager Ralph Hendry.

He wishes there were no such tragic designs for prosperity here. But he knows, as do all native Halifaxians, that you can't beat fate and geography. Nova Scotia sits out on the eastern fringe of the continent, some 2,700 miles from Liverpool. So Halifax once more becomes the Gibraltar of the Western world, the great crossroads of Empire, where a Hindu turban is almost as common as a New Zealanders' wedge (overseas cap).

Evidence of the crossroads nature of Halifax is on every side.

A lank, blond Australian soldier flops into a barber's chair. "Snap it short," he says. "I don't know when or where I'll get the next haircut."

A shipload of Chinese sailors arrives at immigration headquarters, fresh from a dramatic rescue off a torpedoed freighter. "Marvelous, these Chinamen," says their English mate. "Everyone stuck to his post when we were hit." Understanding not a word, the Chinese grin their assent.

At Norman's in Morris street, admirals of the Royal Navy, polite Nova Scotians, and soldiers and sailors from everywhere rub shoulders. It's Halifax's nearest approach to a night club. Because it has a good piano the customers may play when they get the urge.

Ask a native Halifaxian (Halifaxer to you) why it takes a war to push his city into prosperity, and he'll answer you short and easy. Geography. Halifax has one of the finest natural harbors in the world. Further inland, connected with the outer harbor by a deep narrows, lies a huge anchorage basin, where scores of ships may lie, awaiting convoy. The port is ice-free all winter.

Geography also made Nova Scotia, and more particularly Halifax Harbor, a British perch to flank the French in North America in the 18th Century. Parliament subsidized a colony in 1749, sent it to the harbor of Chebucto in Acadia. That colony became Halifax.

There followed the French and Indian Wars, when British Navy paymasters brought prosperity to Halifax. Then the American revolution. Halifax remained loyal to the end, supplied blockading fleets and privateers for the British and made money.

During the Napoleonic wars, the Royal Navy kept big fleets in the harbor. Wolfe planned the capture of Quebec here. And it was here during the war of 1812 that the world's first modern convoys were made up and escorted through the American blockade by British men o' war.

The story was the same in the Chilean and Boer wars. The Big Push of prosperity came in 1914. It was the same business of supplying rendezvous for convoys, a North Atlantic base for the British fleet, and later for the Americans. Supplies for great waves of France-bound soldiers were furnished here, too. Halifax was in the money again.

Through it all, Halifaxians have not rested content to reap the profits of war. They've also taken the risks. You can hardly name a battle fought by British forces anywhere in the world, without running into a Halifaxian hero.

And it was Halifax that a munitions ship explosion in the World war killed 2,000 and left 10,000 homeless.

abolish the loan shark evil in Texas.

"The most powerful lobby ever to infest the capital," said Representative S. J. Isaaks, of El Paso, one of the leaders in attempts to outlaw small loan racketeers, "has effectively blocked our efforts."

Of a half dozen bills intended to eliminate the charging of usurious interest — a tortious burden to many borrowers of small means — only one has reached the house of representatives' jammed working calendar.

Most sponsors of anti-loan shark legislation declared there was an essential need for establishments, making small loans to persons in low salary wages classes but contended it was difficult to write statutes which would effectively crush existing abuses.

"It's obvious," said Rep. Hartzog, of Port Lavaca, author of one plan, "that the constitutionally limited 10 per cent interest makes it unprofitable for legitimate agencies to handle small loans, especially if the borrowers have no security or collateral."

Rep. Emmett Morse, of Houston, an active advocate whose bill would have set up a system of licensing and bonding loan agencies supervised by the state banking department asserted a survey had shown $40,000,000 a year in insidious interest was taken from Texans.

"One of five persons in this state is or has been the victim of loan sharks," Morse said. "There are approximately 750 open operators, and an unknown number of others. They have about $16,000,000 in capital. Three big chains do more than 40 per cent of the business. Instances have been uncovered in which victims paid as much as $2,400 (9c) per cent interest and still owed more than the original loan."

Isaaks' bill, which, he said, was "mortally feared by the racketeers because it will kill them out," would amend present usury statutes which currently provide that those proven guilty of charging usurious interest, but never less than $50, would be the culprit as a fee for the attorney of the victim. The addition would become a part of the regular court proceeding."

Isaaks stated his amendment to the law would assure loan shark victims legal representation and the lawyer would be guaranteed a fee not lower than $50 and as high as half the amount of the usurious interest.

Morse, whose plan was ruled constitutional by the Attorney General's department, related that 34 states in the Union had adopted similar legislation which had proven largely successful.

"In its recent session," he continued, "the Oklahoma legislature adopted a duplicate of my bill which would permit service charges by loan agencies under certain conditions and provided that the services actually were rendered."

Arguments against such proposals presented in several hearings conducted by the house committee on banks and banking, were to the effect that permitting service charges by small loan agencies, would, in effect, legalize usurious interest.

Some witnesses contended the matter was a local problem occurring only in larger towns and should be dealt with by local governments.

In order to effect municipal regulation, Rep. Dallas Blankenship, of Dallas, introduced a bill empowering cities to regulate and license loan agencies. The banking committee sent the measure to a sub-group and later recommended only Isaaks' proposal.

Cure of the evil, in the opinion of Hartzog, lay by only one route — a special session of legislature.

"The issue is so complex" the law maker asserted, "that most of us have become confused. We are continually bombarded with propaganda for and against anti-loan shark plans. A special 30 day session at which that issue alone could be considered might turn the trick."

Morse said he had learned several out-of-state small loan agency chains, operating on legitimate lines would operate in Texas if certain laws were enacted.

Other bills introduced but never moved out of committee include one, later ruled unconstitutional by Rep. W. W. Roark, of Temple, and one by Rep. Lester C. Boone, of Fort Worth. The latter, referred to the judiciary committee, would have empowered the attorney general and local officials to bring injunction proceedings restraining operation of illegal agencies.

Committee witnesses in favor of Morse's bill were George Kemble, of Fort Worth, Rev. P. R. Duffy, of Austin, Earl Horwitz, of Houston, J. M. Penny, of Dallas, A. M. Heck (cq) of San Antonio, and William Collier, of Dallas.

Those appearing against one or the other bill include Sewell Myer and B. P. Panas, of Houston, and several others.

Alaska, America's Last Frontier

By Roger W. Robison

Progress, in the form of civilization, is now spreading its lust into the last virgin soil of the North American Continent. The friendly Eskimo must make friends or give way to those who persist in their expansion. Those of us that have wandered far have never seen anything to equal the beauty now at our command.

To the north lies Mount McKinley, the highest point on the North American Continent. Between the inlets and bays rises the mountains that are equalled by no other for their separate beauty. The green forest that covers the foothills give way to the snow that blankets the summits. Mountain streams are clear and swift, causing the blood of any sportsman to tingle. Mountain trout are there for the taking and few fishermen are disappointed in their endeavors.

At this season the salmon are running. Fishing tugs put out into the inlet early in the morning. Their catch consists of a quantity that is hard to visualize. The King Salmon, the first to run, average from fifteen to thirty pounds each. The tide rises about twenty-five feet, bringing the fish in from the sea to the inlet and then to their destination in the fresh-water lakes for spawning.

It is difficult for us to reconcile ourselves to sleeping with the sun in our eyes and daylight almost all the time. It is a common sight to see a person reading a newspaper or book on their porch at ten o'clock at night. It is twilight from eleven until two, giving way to the dawn and sunrise about two o'clock.

A few miles to the north lies the Metanuska Valley, the most fertile land in Alaska. Small grain and fruit are produced abundantly there in the summer part of the year. Dairying is carried on extensively also.

To the southwest lies the Kodiak Islands, the home of the Kodiak Brown Bear. Natives proclaim the bear to attain the size and weight of a large horse, occasionally weigh-and on their return will be at home in the Five Mile Community.

Lee Hudson and Gaston Martin made a trip to Groom, Texas, the past week-end.

J. P. Riddle, who has been ill for several weeks, is improving now we are happy to report. Mr. and Mrs. Bee Riddle and little daughters, of Midland visited him Sunday.

Willard Martin, of Lubbock, visited his parents Sunday.

Mrs. E. W. Riehmayer has been ill with bronchial pneumonia this week.

ing a ton. On the mainland the Black and Cinnamon Bear are the more common species. It is not uncommon to witness a bear snooping through the garbage in the early hours of the morning. Moose and elk feed further to the north, in the higher mountains.

Encorage is accessible only by boat, rail and air. No roads lead to Seward or Fairbanks, the neighboring towns. In the winter the inlet is blocked by ice and snow and boats end their tour at Seward, the "Gateway to the Interior." It is at this season that one commonly sees natives fishing through the ice on the frozen lakes.

Southern hospitality is snuffed into insignificance by that of Alaska. Trapper's cabins dot the foothills and are always accessible to all. Provisions are in stock at all code to obey "Use But Don't Abuse". A locked door is never seen.

Nome, one of the Northern-most settlements, is situated on the south side of the penninsular that reaches nearest Asia. On a clear day, from a vantage point, the coast of Russia may be seen from the Mainland. The distance is slightly over sixty miles.

The Siwash Indians are the natives of this section of the country. Eskimos are not plentiful and are seldom seen except at their schools. Educational facilities are welcomed by the Natives and in return they impart to us a treasure of knowledge of the Northland, the land of snow and ice, the land of big game hunting.

And so we will dedicate this to Alaska, the most beautiful country in the world. To Alaska, America's Last Frontier - the Land of the Midnight Sun.

more and more people are taking advantage of this sensational offer and getting the big Twice-A-Week Courier sent to their home.

Regardless of whether you are now taking the paper or not, this low rate applies on both new and renewals. All that is required, is that you live in the above described territory, and have a picture of George Washington, printed on a dollar bill.

Another feature which has proven very popular with regular readers of the Courier is the large number of merchandise bargains carried in every issue. Many have reported that by shopping these values before coming to town, they are able to save enough after they come to town, from one issue, to pay a full year's subscription.

The time is limited on this offer, however, so you are urged to come in today and get your subscription paid.

But assuming that the customer did not wish to get more than his 60 cent purchase at the time, the merchant would accept either two 25 cent stamps and 10 cents in cash, or three 25 cent stamps - giving the customer a 15 cent credit slip for the difference due him."

This year they hope to be able to take part in the championship playoff, and local fans predict that with a bolstered pitching staff and the injured members back on the playing field, the locals will have an excellent chance to be "in there" when Labor Day rolls around.

Remember the home games. This Thursday with Big Spring; Saturday, Sunday and Monday with Clovis, and Tuesday and Wednesday with Amarillo. Make it a point to attend these games. You will get your money's worth in good clean, entertainment, and the boys will appreciate your presence, to say nothing of the club needing the money.

goods at the same store in the future. From the merchant's standpoint the use of these credit slips tends to bring the customers back to the stores from which the previous Cotton Stamp purchases were made. Accordingly, those merchants who, through aggressive merchandising and advertising, attract both Stamp customers and the general public, have an additional opportunity of gaining repeat business through the credit slips of their Stamp customers. Wide-awake retailers will take advantage of this opportunity for increased business, while at the same time helping our country to solve a serious national problem involving our Number 1 crop-cotton."

Cotton Farmers Who Plant Too Much May Be Penalized Up To Seven Cents Pound

Cotton farmers of Dawson County who are issued red marketing cards because they have overplanted their 1941 cotton acreage allotment will be required to pay a penalty on the excess cotton they market equivalent to one-half the basic loan rate for cotton, Vernon Martin, secretary of the Dawson County ACA has announced.

The penalty on cotton for the 1941-42 marketing year had been set at 3 cents per pound but a recent amendment to the Agricultural Adjustment Act has increased this penalty.

The exact amount of the penalty cannot be determined at this time, Martin continued, since the basic loan rate for cotton has not been set for Texas, but it probably will be about 7 cents per pound.

"The state AAA office at College Station has notified us of this new AAA amendment and also will advise us as to the exact amount of penalty per pound when the basic loan is received, he continued.

Drive Being Made To Divert Traffic Through Lamesa

A drive has been started in Lamesa, Seminole, and Hobbs, New Mexico, for funds to erect large poster boards east of Big Spring and west of El Paso in an attempt to divert part of the traffic through these towns to Carlsbad Cavern.

It is pointed out that it is some thirty to forty miles nearer from Big Spring to El Paso by way of Lamesa, than it is between the two cities traveling the Bankhead.

It is also planned to conduct a campaign among filling station operators and attendants up and down the line, east of Big Spring and West of El Paso, showing them the nearer route, and also the fact that tourists can go by the famous caverns and save miles as well.

The plan further calls for the printing of suitable maps and literature to be distributed to the above mentioned areas.

It is believed by local enthusiasts that with the proper educational campaign, much of this traffic could be diverted through these towns.

USO Funds Are Coming Slow In Dawson County

Rupert Townsend, county chairman for the drive for funds for the United States Organizations for this county reports that monies are still slow in coming in.

"While some have made contributions to this most worthy movement, the vast majority of people in the county have failed to do so," he said this week. "We believe that if everyone understood the proposition thoroughly, that we would have no trouble in securing the necessary money. Not one single penny of this money stays in Lamesa, but every cent collected is sent to the state headquarters where it is distributed to the various army camps of the country to help in providing recreational facilities for the men in the armed service. We feel that the least we can do for these fellows is to provide them a little fun and clean recreation to break the monotony of army life, and if every person would contribute even a small amount, the aggregate total would provide this entertainment."

Those who would like to contribute may do so at either newspaper office, or bank in Lamesa, or direct to Mr. Townsend. The amount you contribute is to be judged entirely by you. All workers in the campaign are giving their time and not one of them is drawing any salary or remuneration whatsoever.

You'll help the fellows in the Army Camps to enjoy a few more pleasures when you help the USO!

Soil Erosion Ruins Texas Farms

Heavy rains and floods have caused heavy damage from soil erosion all over Texas in recent months. First hand study of the problem was made by Dr. H. H. Bennett of Washington, chief of the Federal Department of Agriculture's Soil Conservation Service. Surveying the damage to a cotton and corn field near Mesquite, where a levee broke, Dr. Bennett waded out into a flooded field. On another farm (left) he inspected damage where up-and-down hill cotton rows served as gutters to discharge rain water. The other picture shows contour farming in the same vicinity with a field cultivated to prevent soil erosion. The water soaks into the ground instead of washing the soil away.
