Thomas Sails To Far East

J. W. Thomas, who is in the United States Merchant Marine, was here recently to be at the bedside of his mother, Mrs. J. I. Thomas, who underwent surgery in St. Joseph's Hospital.

Upon leaving here, Mr. Thomas reported to Galveston, from where he sailed for the Far East on a 7 months trip. Thomas is on a Lykes Brothers ship, although at the time he left here he did not know which of their ships he would be on, nor the countries they would touch on this voyage.

In the Merchant Marine for a number of years, Thomas has been in almost every part of the world and to some portions a number of times.

Red Cross Civilian Defense Duties Explained Local Chapter

Officers of the Collingsworth County Red Cross Chapter Tuesday received instructions on the role of the Red Cross in Civilian Defense, when Mrs. Waunita Hutcheson, Red Cross representative in this area, met with the group here.

Mrs. Hutcheson outlined the phases of the work in which the Red Cross would be expected to function in the civilian defense needs of the county, as well as the part which the city, county and state officials play.

Earlier in the year, County Judge R. L. Templeton and Mayor Ernest Lewis were named by Governor Allan Shivers to head the BOXERS TO STAGE INTRAMURAL BOUT TO OPEN SEASON ON FRI.

Fight fans get their first view of this year's Skyrocket Boxing team Friday night, December 8, in an intramural match, Coach John Lee has announced.

The fights start promptly at 8:00 p. m. and will be held in the high school gymnasium.

Around 20 fights will be matched, Lee said, using principally the heavier boys on the team. Several exhibition fights are planned.

Fights matched so far include: Troy Marsh vs. Dan Jameson, 155 pounds.

Gene Baird vs. Floyd Hood, 145 pounds. (Exhibition)

Leland Finley vs. Jess Davis, 144 pounds.

Billy Wauer vs. Jimmy Clubb, 138 pounds.

Colin Lamkin vs. Odie Hood, 129 pounds.

Rondel Havron vs. Smokey Savage, 75 pounds.

Don Hood vs. Duggie Jameson, 80 pounds.

Farris Wood vs. Harold Sisk, 80 pounds.

The remainder of the matches are being worked out this week.

"We would like for the people to come out and see the boys and get acquainted with them. We believe you will like the sportsmanship and the ability that will be shown," Coach Lee said.

The intramural match leads up to the first real competition the boys will have, a match with the Fife Club of Amarillo Friday night, December 15. There will be approximately 15 matches from the heavyweight on down. Already matched are such experienced Rockets as Gene Baird, Jimmy Thompson, Tommy Barris, J. E. Bell, Floyd Hood, Jimmy Clubb, Duggie Jameson and Smokey Savage. Jimmy Graves is also matched in the heavyweight division.

civilian defense set-up for Collingsworth County. At the same time, county judges and mayors were named in similar capacities in all counties of the state.

Mrs. Hutcheson stressed the need of the Red Cross to work with these officials.

The phases in which Red Cross will work in civilian defense include training of individuals in first aid; training under the home nursing set-up; the Red Cross Blood program, which has not been stressed in this area due to the distance to a collection center; mass care of persons in case of an emergency; and the work of volunteers. Riley Dunson is First Aid chairman and Mrs. Chas. B. Jones is home nursing chairman.

The remainder of Mrs. Hutcheson's visit here was devoted to an explanation of the Red Cross Disaster Program. Locally, this work is headed by John Forbis. Again she defined the functions of the government — state or local — and the functions of the Red Cross.

In case of a disaster, the local Red Cross chapter would be on the ground, ready to go to work, and to inform Red Cross Midwest Headquarters in St. Louis if any outside help is needed. Disaster involving up to five families is handled locally, but where five or more families are involved, the national Red Cross may be called in.

The Red Cross gives help in the way of evacuation, providing food, clothing and a place to sleep, as the work of Red Cross immediately after a disaster, to be followed by rehabilitation work.

Hubert Mauldin to Sheriff's School

Hubert Mauldin, who will take over the duties of Sheriff of Collingsworth County after the first of the year, has recently returned from Austin, where he attended a School for Sheriffs there. This is a school sponsored annually by the Department of Public Safety in Texas.

Criminal law was the subject stressed most during the two weeks from November 13 to 25, at which time the school was held.

Bob Messengale, administrative assistant of the Department of Public Safety, was instructor for this important study. One class was devoted to this each day of the school.

Activities of the Liquor Control Board were discussed by Bohn Hilliard. A study of narcotics was given by James C. Ryan of Austin. Captain M. T. Gonzallas, Texas Ranger, Dallas, and Bob Crowder of Lubbock, another Ranger, gave discussions on criminal reporting.

Another important group of study in the school was devoted to scientific aids of the law enforcement departments. In this, fingerprinting, the art and the writing, fire arms identification, laboratory tests, and ballistics tests were studied, with actual cases used as material for the men to study.

Juvenile control was given a high place in the school discussion, with S. L. Bellamy, Director of Community Service, State Youth Development Council in Austin, telling of some of the preventive methods used in halting juvenile delinquency.

Bill Decker, sheriff of Dallas County, and Hugh Anderson, sheriff of Moore County, gave comparative talks on the criminal conditions in different parts of the state.

Fifty-eight representatives of the law enforcement bodies of Texas attended this school. In addition to Mr. Mauldin, Bus Dorman, sheriff of Wheeler County, E. S. Morrison and Bill Baten, sheriff and deputy sheriff of Hall County, were also present for the meeting.

A second school will be held in Pampa beginning December 11 and continuing through December 22. Mr. Mauldin plans to attend this school also.

Senior farm demonstration: Don Shoff, Farrell Kent and Carrol Duncan.

The Amarillo contests will be the Area XI leadership contests, and an area sweetheart will also be chosen by the Future Farmers themselves from the district queens already nominated.

Walter Labay, area supervisor of vocational agriculture, Plainview, is working with Herb Davis, Amarillo FFA sponsor, to complete arrangements.

Senior farm demonstration: Don Shoff, Farrell Kent and Carrol Duncan.

New Football District Setup Affects Rockets

Re-organization of the Inter-scholastic League football districts, set up on a tentative basis in Austin recently, was to be decided on a district basis in Paducah Wednesday afternoon, December 6. Representing Wellington were Supt. Charles Roberts, Principal Howard Oliphint, and Coach Maxey McKnight.

At present, Wellington is in District 3-AA along with Paducah, Childress, Clarendon and Memphis.

Under the new set-up, division is made on the basis of enrollment, with Class A schools placed in a division termed AA. The old AA schools moved up to AAA, and the city circuit is set up as AAAA. Class A schools under the new arrangement includes the smaller schools that formerly were in Class A football, and some of the larger Class B teams. Class B is now reserved for the small schools, including those who play 6-man football, Mr. Oliphint explained.

Clarendon, however, has indicated that it wants to be dropped from AA competition back to an A district, and Shamrock has said that the Irish would like to come into the 3-AA district. Under the tentative set-up Shamrock was classed along with Dalhart, Phillips, Dumas, and Perryton. These matters were due for discussion at the Paducah meeting.

McLean and Lefors dropped back into Class A competition due to the enrollment of the schools.

A veteran of World War II, Wynn was in the Navy three years and holds the rating of Phm. 3-C.

Following his release from active service, he taught a year at Dodson before completing his work for a degree at Tech. For the last two years, he taught at Lakeview, then returned to Tech in the summer to work toward his master's degree in agricultural education.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Wynn.

Mrs. Phillip Wynn is here with her parents-in-law while her husband is at Oklahoma City.

Oil Activity Reaches County As Well Located West of City

Oil activity took the spotlight in Collingsworth County this week with the announcement of a location six miles west and three-fourths south of Wellington, a test designated as the Bud Carraway No. 1 Lacy Well, located 660 feet from the south line and 1980 feet from the west line of section 88, block 14. The land is owned by Dennis Lacy.

Pit for the well has been dug and practically all the equipment is now on the ground, according to Clark Anderson, who completed leasing the block for the well. The well is expected to proceed according to schedule, and reports given out are that it will go to production, granite, or 7,000 feet.

Rotary equipment is being used. Drilling is being done by the Carraway Drilling Company of Big Spring. Superintendent of the work here is Hobart Collins of Bowie.

The well is located in a block acquired earlier in the year by W. Tom Cowan, Bud Carraway and others. In addition to Mr. Anderson's work locally, Clyde Milam of Memphis had a hand in getting the block assembled.

It has been approximately a year and a half since there has been any drilling activity in the county.

The last was in the Quail-Marella area, and was abandoned.

One other well has been drilled in the southwest part of the county in recent years. This was located on the Benton Shields place near Swearingen, and was approximately 5 miles from the new location. Drilled in 1946, the well went to a reported 5,988 feet when it was abandoned and the leases were returned.

Lord Jim Says--

By Bill Hughes

"Anything wrong Boss?" Diplomatically speaking nothing is wrong, so they say. We have welcomed our enemies to the council table. Our Allies advise us, there, to be prudent and patient and if necessary write off to experience thirty-five to fifty thousand already dead, wounded or missing American boys and God knows how many more before we are done in Korea in order to prove to the Russian Communists and their Chinese puppets that we are a friendly understanding tolerant people, that we bear them no ill-will and have no designs upon their sovereignty. We must turn our other cheek so that Russia will not unleash her might upon Europe and the British Isles, so that English pounds in China and French francs in Indo China shall not be lost. At the same time we must keep on pouring dollars into Socialist England to keep her from going Communist. We must keep on trying to regenerate the French character with inlays of gold. We must keep on trying to seal the Italian dagger in its sheath with silver thread.

We are deeply involved both in Europe and Asia. We are not merely involved financially, diplomatically but militaristically as well. Our investment as in investment is not sound because it is unprotected by lack of sufficient control. Diplomatically we are weak because our diplomacy has lacked realism, and because we have failed to back our idealism with wisdom and adequate power. Militaristically we have been utterly mad in committing ourselves so thinly, being so ill-prepared. Finally, spiritually speaking we have not only given but lip service to God we have ignored his entreaty, "Behold I send you as sheep in the midst of wolves. Be ye therefore wise as serpents and simple as doves."

Our errors are now water over the dam to be sure, but at the same time, as we gird ourselves to meet the trial resulting from our sins, it appears to me that sound judgment demands that we should tackle our impasse with a new and different leadership. We need, men of wisdom, men whose idealism and ego does not blind and hide from them reality and necessity; men who strive after being Statesmen and who are not merely content to be "big shot" politicians, men who believe in the power of truth, men who strive to be loyal to their trust and not just loyal to themselves or their re-elections, men who humbly and sincerely seek guidance of God and not praise of men, because "No man can serve two masters. For either he will hate the one, and love the other or he will sustain the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon."

Since the beginning of Communism one thing and one thing alone has had any effect on checking the brutal relentless godless imperialism of Russia and that has been faith, force, power and determination greater than their own. No amount of appeasement or words has ever done the least good. All efforts of friendliness, kindness, and understanding have been in vain. All of the most noble Christian principals have been met with cunning hostility, and relentlessly disregarded. They have simply made use of them to further their own ends.

Peace cannot be bought nor obtained by appeasing immorality, brutality, slavery and paganism. Peace will only be had when we have fought and secured the universal right of all humanity regardless of nation, race or creed to enjoy life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness. Nor can we bury our head in the sand and let the world go by for "As the Father hath sent me, I also send you." — there shall be one fold and one shepherd."

When we began in Korea we did not go to quit out of fear of displeasing Russia or China. All America knew then that the die was cast and the outcome must depend on whether Russia would call off its dogs and pick up the gauntlet or go all out. China's move is Russia's answer. She is going all out. But as long as she thinks she can hold us in a vacuum of indecision and half measures, as long as she sees a chance to divide the Western Alliance she will stay at the Council table and dangle the false hope of peace while murdering our boys under the false banner of the Red Dragon.

What should we do, "And if thy right eye scandalize thee, pluck it out and cast it from thee. For it is expedient for thee that one of thy members should perish, rather than thy whole body be cast into hell." Take heed UN! Take heed America.

Rev. John L. King of Quannah filled his regular appointment at the Baptist church here Sunday. Large crowds attended both morning and evening services.

The second quarterly conference of the Wellington Methodist church circuit met with the Fresno church Sunday. Rev. W. E. Hamilton, district superintendent from Clarendon, was in charge of the meeting. He delivered a message at the eleven o'clock hour, and a short devotional following the bountiful lunch which was prepared by the ladies of the church. Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Loyd King and sons, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. King, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adkins and Bethine, Mrs. W. D. Durfey, and W. M. Durfey.

Good reports were given from all the churches. C. A. Wright of Salt Fork was secretary for the meeting. Mrs. Hamilton accompanied Rev. Hamilton, and everyone was happy that she could attend. Mrs. C. B. Bearden is reported some better, and can be up some now. The H. D. Club, of which she is a member, sent her a lovely potted flower.

E. S. Copeland, who was injured in a fall recently and was taken to the Amarillo Veterans Hospital, has been moved to the home of his daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crow, in Canyon. He will return to the hospital next week for a check-up. If at that time, the doctors find his condition favorable, he will return to his home here to spend the Christmas holidays.

Visiting in Childress Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Killian and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morrow, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Adkins and Bethine, and Alfred Hamilton.

The cotton harvest is so near over here that most of the gin crews have been turned off. The farmers are finishing up with machinery.

The quail season opened here Friday morning with everyone out trying to get enough of the birds for a feed.

The pie supper at the school auditorium Friday night was a big success. The proceeds totaling a $112.50 went to the school lunch room for the purchase of a beef. George Adkins and Mr. Arnold auctioned off the pies. A large cake baked by Mrs. W. M. Durfey and decorated by Mrs. Herschel Mayhugh was sold for $26.00 to Mr. Burquist. Other miscellaneous items were auctioned off. Furnishing music for the evening was a string band composed of Kenneth Lovelace, Curtis Marchbanks, F. A. Pettiet, Gene Hedger, and Alvin Sutton.

Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Burquist, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McDanel and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Glasscock of Wellington.

Miss Georgia Ann Durfey and Miss Genevieve Bartlett were members of the Skyrocket band that lead the Christmas parade in Pampa Friday night.

A number of people here have killed hogs during the cold weather we have been having.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davenport of House, New Mexico, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Martin and family of Quitaque spent the first part of the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Davenport and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Crawley. Bob Davenport put up a new windmill on his place here.

DOZIER

By MRS. E. L. RANKIN

Farmers and boll pullers took advantage of the nice weather last week and really gathered the cotton. A good many bales were pulled with a sled. Ginners here had a good run all last week. Many are through gathering and some say they made only one or two bales, while others have made about a quarter bale per acre. That is in the immediate Dozier area. Farther west and south the cotton was better and some report 1-2 bale and others even more.

Dudley and Douglas Coleman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Wood Coleman, were home last week from College Station. They are students of A&M and that school observed Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Bell had as their guest last week a friend of Mr. Bell's, Carrol Doshier, of Amarillo.

Mrs. Sallie Neece of Mobeetie was a business caller here one day last week. She said she was farming and ranching all alone. Her son, John Allen Neece, is teaching in the Mobeetie school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sechrist visited relatives in Erath County last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Schaub and children of Pampa were week end guests of his brother, Ernest Schaub and family.

If you know the fertility of the soil of a given community, then you know the kind of people to be found in that community.

Man or the farmer has been largely responsible for erosion and he has the power to reduce it to a minimum.

Fertile soil produces people with sound bodies and resourceful minds.

Unless we conserve our soil, posterity will suffer the ills and woes of an impoverished land.

ONLY MEN REGISTERED UNDER 1948 ACT MUST ADVISE BOARD

AUSTIN — Some men registered under the World War II draft act, now past 40 and 50 years of age, are attempting to advise local boards of changes of address and status, although these draft boards have been out of existence for years.

As a result, these cards and letters are flooding present local boards and Selective Service headquarters here.

Brigadier General Paul L. Wakefield, state director of Selective Service, advised today that "these men no longer have to advise of any change of address or status, as the law under which they registered was terminated by Congress in 1947."

The only men who are obligated to keep local boards advised are those registered under the Selective Service Act of 1948, which became state director pointed out.

"Any man who has registered with Selective Service in 1948, 1949, or 1950 is obligated to advise his local board of address and status changes," General Wakefield said. "Any man who registered with any local board prior to those years is not required by

Jesus' Patience Must Guide Us

There is often a temptation to be impatient with those who seem to be learning tasks, responsibilities or lessons slowly. It is therefore a wonder that Jesus was able to tolerate the shortcomings of some of his disciples who were painfully slow in learning the lesson of true greatness.

At times some of the disciples displayed such a gross misunderstanding of their Master that one wonders how they ever came to be Christ's followers.

During a journey to Capernaum, the disciples disputed with one another over which of them was the greatest, despite the fact that they had many times heard Jesus preach the importance of humility.

Jesus admonished them and set a little child in their midst to remind them that they must become as little children if they would find their true place in His Kingdom.

dom. And all this Jesus made more specific at a later date by washing the disciples feet. The fact that this incident occurred near the very end of His ministry shows how slow the disciples were in learning.

But aren't we all, at times, a little slow in grasping the fullest ramifications of a new lesson to be learned, particularly one as exacting as the attainment of spiritual greatness. If one will recall the meekness and gentleness of Jesus in dealing with the forgetfulness of His disciples, and the constructive manner in which He corrected their faults, the temptation to be impatient with tardy learners can, in a large measure, be overcome.

By so doing we will have learned a valuable lesson ourselves and will be more worthy of the patience which He grants us daily.

A half done job in terracing a field is worse than no terraces at all.

When our soils are gone, we too must go unless we find some way to feed on raw rock or its equivalent.

Larger profits are ours if we feed the soil by returning something to it each year for what we take away in food.

Deck's DIDACTICS

—By Deskins Wells

There are only 15 shopping days until Christmas.

Several merchants report that Christmas buying has been brisk during the last few days.

Here is a letter from Mrs. Robert Bush (Joanna White) who lives at Henry, Illinois. She advises me to start raising rabbits. I tried rabbits once and do not intend to get in the business again. From her letter I also learn that Mr. and Mrs. Winfield White will observe their 40th wedding anniversary next April.

Shorty Bradford hgs been out of the dahlia growing business for two years; but the other day he hit me up for all of my surplus bulbs. He is going to get them, of course, but my wife is worried. She is afraid that I am going to swap the bulbs for one of Shorty's hound dogs and take up coon hunting.

Have you been thinking about buying a good used car. This might be the time to do it with advantage. The prices are pretty reasonable as compared with the price of new cars, but it is beginning to look like the manufacturers will have to cut production of cars and trucks for civilian use in 1951. If they do the price of used cars will advance.

Good holiday reading: "The Blandling Way" and "Kon Tiki." The first is humorous and the second adventurous.

How about helping those hard working people at the post office? Start mailing your Christmas cards and packages now. The rush is going to be terrific this year.

Here we go again. The United States is using up newspaper faster than it is being manufactured. Some weeklies are feeling the pinch already.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could have a two foot snow for Christmas. If we don't get moisture soon the wheat crop will be gone.

Well, it looks like the alternating but long rule of Wellington and Shamrock over football in this district is about over. The new Interscholastic League ruling places us in the same district with Childress and Shamrock in one with northern teams. Childress school officials have decided to stay in the district of Clarendon, Memphis, Paducah and Wellington. Childress will win about four out of every five district championships as long as such a set-up continues. If Childress had gone on to triple A Shamrock might have had a chance to stay in this fairly evenly matched district.

Guill Thanks Area Voters

The following expression of appreciation to the voters of the area comes from Congressman Ben Guill:

"It is difficult to express in words the thanks we owe to our supporters. Though we lost the election, it has been a healthy experience for the 18th District of Texas. Mr. Rogers is the winner, but the people of the Panhandle have now occupied the enviable position of demanding the best from their representative.

"I wish Mr. Rogers success as Congressman. Personally, I want to thank you for the wonderful support you gave me. Until January 1, 1951, I want each of you to know that I will be on the job, and any work you desire me to do will be done to the best of my ability. I am proud to be a citizen of the 18th District, and if I cannot be your Congressman, I want to be your neighbor and friend.

Sincerely yours,
Ben Guill

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Buck Creek is talking about debts this week, a topic he ought to be an authority on, as he probably still has the same ones he started out with.

Dear editor:

I know with Christmas comin on and everybody needin more money to buy presents with it's no time to be talkin about debts, but I was out here the other day right after the norther struck wonderin if I should throw out some hay for my Jersey steers now or wait for even worse weather. I learned long ago the weather doesn't follow a pattern, northers are like tax collectors, they always come at the wrong time and ain't never welcome, and unless a man wants to work his head off all summer and fall he won't have enough hay to throw out every time the weather turns cold and has to use careful judgment in decidin whether one norther will be worse than the next and ration his hay accordingly or else he'll run out of feed long before winter runs out of northers, in which case men have been known to run out of cattle as a result, and while I was decidin I pulled a newspaper out of a hole in the window to the tool shed, my ax and claw hammer ain't likely to freeze anyway and who'd care if they did, and took it in the house and read a long statement by a man in Washington sayin this country has not got any future unless it gets out of debt.

Now I recognize that the national debt is pretty big, couldn't even write it if I knew what it was, and I know it's getting bigger all the time, but from what I can find out some of the most prosperous folks in this county has been in debt all their lives and claim it's the only way they can get ahead.

Gettin out of debt may be all right, but look what this country was like before it got in debt. No railroads, no highways, no telephones, no steam heat, no air conditioning, no automobiles, no radios, no runnin water, no safety razors, no laundry soap, no picture shows, no refrigerators, no comic books. Had plenty of Indians though and pneumonia and hog lard on bread for dessert when the acorn crop was good. Them was the debt-free days.

As I see it, this country is likely to be in debt from now on, due to human nature. I ain't never seen many folks who wouldn't swap a road full of mud holes for a debt any time. It may be true that not many cars on the highways today is completely paid for, but ridin in a car with a debt sure beats ridin a paid-up mule bareback.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Adequate Diagnosis Treatment Will Cut Cancer Deaths

HOUSTON — If available means for diagnosis and treatment of cancer are adequately used, a great saving of lives can be affected.

That is the opinion of Dr. R. Lee Clark Jr., director and surgeon-in-chief of the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

Dr. Clark says successful use of those means are dependent on the following factors:

1. Dissemination of exact knowledge about cancer to the public at the community and individual level.
2. Realization by individuals of the need for immediate action if warning signs of cancer appear.
3. Knowledge that every physician's office is an actual and potential cancer detection center.
4. Insistence that primary treatment must never be a compromise but be adequate and radical, if necessary, with all removed tissue being examined by a pathologist.
5. General availability to the patient of the cancer team — pathologist, internist, roentgenologist, and surgeon.
6. Assumption by both physicians and the general public of personal responsibility for being alert to, and conscious of, signs of early cancer.

Better Facilities, More Trained Teachers TEXAS SCHOOL SYSTEM WILL BE ON HIGHER LEVEL IN 1951

AUSTIN — Texas' already vastly improved public school system will be on an even higher level during the 1950-51 school year it was predicted here today.

More classroom facilities and more and better trained teachers will be available, it was pointed out by L. P. Sturgeon, state associate commissioner of education.

Under the new Gilmer-Aikin laws which went into effect last fall the teaching staff was increased by 2,000 and more than half of the school districts of the state added to their classroom facilities.

An additional 1,500 teachers will be hired for the next school year, Sturgeon said. A survey disclosed many more schools will increase their facilities, Sturgeon also said.

Increase in pay for teachers has added to their morale and made the profession far more attractive to young people, Sturgeon pointed out. More young people are preparing for careers as teachers and these better trained instructors will be available in larger numbers next year to replace retiring instructors and those less adequately trained, according to Sturgeon.

School districts which met the requirements of state law in order to receive additional financial aid from the state had a teacher for every twenty-five pupils in average daily attendance during the last school year, but many districts were forced to put pupils on a half-time basis.

"This will be partly alleviated during the 1950-51 school year by the construction of more classrooms and the availability of more teachers," Sturgeon said.

"This will add to the great benefits derived by a great many of our school children in the last school term through their being in smaller classes, where they could get more personal attention.

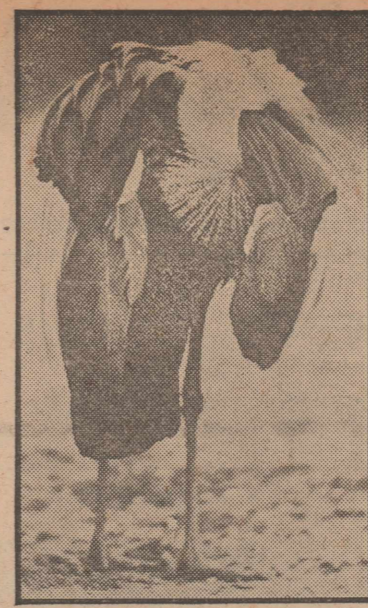

"During the 1948-49 school year a survey conducted by the Texas State Teachers Association disclosed that more than half of the classrooms in the entire state were badly over-crowded.

Sturgeon also had high praise for the state's teachers.

"While the pay increases under the Gilmer-Aikin laws averaged only $500 for teachers, their morale is at the highest in the history of Texas," he said.

"I can see that in their interest

Put Safety in Santa's Sack

Christmas is looked forward to as the happiest season of the year — but all too often it is the saddest, made so by some accident that has brought suffering or even death.

Just as it is time to think of Christmas presents, it is also time to think of Christmas safety.

Insurance companies and law enforcement officials fear that unless the public becomes more safety conscious — and in the next few days — December may be one of the worst months for traffic deaths in recent years. It has been the deadliest month on the highways during the past decade, with the exception of 1948 and 1942.

The Association of Casualty & Surety Companies warns that these extra hazards have contributed greatly to December accident peaks, and urged motorists and pedestrians to be on guard against them.

1. More drinking drivers, because of Christmas holiday festivities.

2. Bad weather, with icy roads, should wet weather set in.

3. Increased travel in hours of darkness for holiday shopping and trips home for Christmas.

4. More driver-fatigue and speeding among those making long drives home for the holidays.

5. Greater danger to pedestrians, especially in cities, due to Christmas shopping activity, particularly at night.

But traffic accidents are not the only ones that should be watched. There's the annual hazard of the candle lighted Christmas tree, of firecrackers, and a hundred and one more items. And remember, a safer Christmas will be a merrier Christmas!

Don't Let Death Take Your Holiday

Only again American armed forces are in action trying to protect and uphold the ideal freedom. Once again the spirit of Christmas will be mocked by the hate and bloodshed of the battlefield.

In many American homes the roar of the cannon will make it hard to hear the ringing of the Christmas bells. That is to be deeply regretted, but throughout history the torch of man's dignity and freedom has been held aloft only through the sacrifice of its bearers.

We can do little to prevent such personal tragedies. But we can do a lot to prevent another kind of tragedy which is equally poignant at the Christmas season — and more cruel because it is needless.

We refer to the preventable tragedy of accidents. The National Safety Council has been called for intensive accident prevention effort during the holidays — unusually a very dangerous period of the year.

That is an objective which has our wholehearted support, not only because it is better to have a joyous Yuletide, but also because we cannot afford to waste the resources of manpower and material so necessary these days to our national strength.

The waste is enormous — much more than most persons realize. The American Medical Association has shown that accidents rob the nation of more working years than any disease, because accidents strike all age groups, not just those whose productive years are largely behind them.

The traffic accident problem this year is more serious, with death toll of 35,000 in prospect. That would be the largest number of automobile victims since the record year of 1941.

Rigid enforcement of the laws by state, county and municipal policy, plus individual determination to play it safe, can keep the Christmas spirit — and all of us alive this year.

STRICTLY FRESH

If it wasn't for the hard work of certain nursewomen along about now, Christmas wouldn't be very much of a holly-day.

A child becomes an adult when he quits believing in Santa Claus. An adult becomes childish when he chides his youngsters for becoming disbelievers.

In Sydney, Australia, famous for its beaches, officials point out that only 46 bathers have been bitten by sharks since 1919. Wonder if that includes casualties from "pool sharks."

For the young couple living in a small one-room apartment, there's nothing like a majestic Christmas evergreen to prove that "tree's a crowd."

The platoon system started with the first people to think of sending left-over last year's Christmas cards to new names on this year's list, and their new cards to the people that were on last year's list.

A Questionable Guest

PEOPLE ARE WAKING UP

Month by month, week by week the American people are becoming better informed on the facts about government and economics which have such a great bearing on their everyday lives and their future.

For the last 20 years the American system of free enterprise has been attacked and slyly undermined by a vast army of Leftwing crusaders. It was only a few years ago that supporters of the system finally became sufficiently stirred up to begin, in impressive numbers, to fight back. The telling weapon has been: the truth.

The accumulating evidence today strongly indicates that the national trend away from the basic American principles has been halted, though by no means stamped out. For the past two years while traveling in the country lecturing and conducting our Harding College Freedom Forums, I've observed the mounting reaction as the truth began to reach the American people—farm people at the grass roots, home owners in small town America, the men and women working in industries and businesses, and the people of a thousand-and-one callings in our great metropolitan centers. Wherever the free enterprise facts were being driven home, they were beating down the half-truths and falsehoods of the Leftwingers.

SIGNS WERE APPARENT

The results began to be of measurable size about a year and a half ago. They were so encouraging that a report was made to the readers of "Looking Ahead" on Feb. 15. "In the past year or so,"

I wrote, "there has been an awakening of significant proportions. Millions of Americans are beginning to bestir themselves and squarely face the responsibilities of citizenship.

"The awakening isn't sufficiently widespread to be decisive — to halt the leftward trend — but, to me," I reported in the February column, "it is immensely encouraging." Since that column was written the continuing stream of facts — concerning the American economic system, and the falseness of Leftwing propaganda — has expanded the area of informed public opinion.

BIG JOB AHEAD

A survey made four years ago by the painstaking Psychological Corporation revealed that only 15 per cent of the American people knew that corporation profits averaged up, nationwide, to considerably less than 10 cents on each dollar of sales. Eighteen per cent thought it exceeded 50 cents on the dollar, 29 per cent thought it ranged between 20 cents and 50 cents. But the same survey this year found almost twice as many people correctly informed on the profit facts. That's significant. And yet, these correctly informed people amounted to only 22 per cent of the total adult population. The job of informing the people on economic facts obviously has just begun.

The facts about profits are important. The public's understanding of them constitutes an important barometer on the success of failure of the Leftwing propaganda and the now substantial efforts being put forth on behalf of American economic education. The Leftwingers want to eliminate private business ownership, place everything in the hands of the all-powerful State. So they try to create resentment, and finally hate, against the business community. Using false and twisted statistics, they've convinced millions of uninformed people that business and corporation profits are exorbitant, sky high.

THE FACTS

The average profit on all business during the depression and recovery years, 1930-1950, was less than 2 cents on the sales dollar. Government statistics show the average corporation profit for the 10-year period 1940-50 was 4 1-2 cents on each sales dollar; and 1-3 cents for the single year 1949. Corporation profits in 1949 amounted to 9.1 per cent of the national income, while the total national wages and salaries accounted for 63.7 per cent.

Over the years, the American economic system, with its profit motive and its supply and demand balance wheel, has proved to be the most workable, the most productive and the most equitable vehicle for the distribution of a nation's wealth ever created on this earth. The profit motive is to be found in wholesome perspective in every phase of our national life. Make a resolution today to learn more about profits and their indispensable function in our American society.

Ed Silk Carries Out Sound Ranch Program

More Cattle Per Acre From Mesquite Control

"If I can double the carrying capacity of my ranch in the next five years, I believe it will be even better than buying that much more land," Ed Silk, prominent young Childress county rancher declared last week, while discussing his operations.

The Silk Ranch is located seven miles east of Newlin, and about 27 miles from Wellington, the way the road runs, but by choice Mr. and Mrs. Silk have identified themselves with Wellington and its activities in preference to other nearer towns.

The mesquite eradication work which Mr. Silk has under way on 160 acres is drawing wide attention, both among ranchers of the area, and in the Extension Service.

With the help of C. E. Fisher, now in charge of the Experiment Station at Spur, Mr. Silk divided the quarter section into six test plots, using four chemical mesquite killers, 245TE, 245TA, BK64 and H986. On one plot one pound of 245TE was used and on another three-fourths pound of the same. This method was also used with the 245TA. Only one plot was used for BK64 and H986.

All chemical poisons were mixed with diesel oil and water into an emulsion, then sprayed on by plane.

"The whole expense was about $3.50 per acre," Mr. Silk said.

The spraying was done in June, the time recommended to the young rancher, and within 30 days, the mesquite was defoliated. A small number of mesquite trees sprouted a few leaves during the remainder of the summer, but Mr. Fisher told him that these probably would be dead next year, too.

While it will be next growing season before it is certain the mesquite is killed, Mr. Silk is sure it is.

"There was a 100 per cent kill on the weeds, too, and apparently there were no ill effects to the grass. You sure get your money's worth.

"While it's my own opinion, I believe the carrying capacity of this quarter section has been raised 50 per cent," Mr. Silk said. "I have my own five year program going on in which I hope to double the capacity of my entire ranch," he continued.

Mesquite control is a of several soil building practices carried on at the Double E Ranch. For instance, there is the blue panic grass planting.

"I'm really enthusiastic about it. I have about 35 acres now, having taken some of the sorrier land out of cultivation, terraced it, and planted blue panic. I plan to end with from 200 to 250 acres," Mr. Silk explained.

He also planted a little alfalfa this fall, on better land than was put into the panic grass.

"I'm going to put every acre in alfalfa that I can, and I have around 35 acres of Austrian winter peas, which I know are beneficial."

This is only the soil building and soil conserving part of Ed and Connie Silk's successful ranching business.

When it comes to cattle, they are in the registered Hereford business, using the Domino blood line. The herd bull is Larry Domino, which they bought from the Wyoming Hereford Ranch.

But whether Ed Silk is talking about land or cattle, or any other phase of the ranching business, he gives you the feeling he's a young man who knows where he's going, and how to get there the solid, sensible way.

Hugh S. Black Dies at Childress

Hugh S. Black, Childress, who grew up at Wellington, was found dead at his home Saturday morning, December 4, of a heart attack. He was found lying across his bed, fully clothed, by a son, Donald Black.

Sixty-six years old, Mr. Black had been a civic leader in Childress since he moved there in 1920. His wife who preceded him in death in 1945, was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Forbis.

It is believed Mr. Black, who had lived alone since the death of his wife in November of 1945, got up, dressed and cooked his breakfast and was ready to leave for his office when he became ill.

Mr. Black established and with his son operated the H. S. Black Abstract Company. When he failed to arrive at the office at his usual hour, the son drove to his father's home. Mr. Black had been in good health. He sang in the Methodist Church choir Sunday night and visited with friends after the service.

Mr. Black was born in Collinville on Christmas Day, 1883. He moved to Collingsworth County in 1899 and attended Clarendon College. He was graduated from Southwestern University at Georgetown. He moved to Childress in 1920 when he opened his abstract office.

Mr. Black was a charter member and past president of the Childress Rotary Club, a past president of the Childress School Board, a past president of the Childress Chamber of Commerce and a past president of the Childress Scottish Rite. He was executive vice-president of the Childress Federal Savings and Loan Association, which he organized in 1934, and secretary of the Childress National Farm Loan Association from 1932 to 1943. He was a Mason, member of the Scottish Rite and a lay leader in the Methodist Church.

Survivors are two sons, Donald of Childress and Hugh Cleon of Houston, six brothers, Henry E. of Cement, Okla., John of Phoenix, Roy W. of Las Cruces, N.M., Paul of Arrey, N.M., Bolling of Hatch, N.M., and Joe B. of Denver, and three sisters, Mrs. Lora Gilmer, Hot Springs, N.M., Mrs. Addie Smith, San Antonio, and Mrs. Betty Bryant, Long Beach.

Relatives here include a nephew, Marvin Club, a brother-in-law and two sisters-in-law, Mrs. C. A. Kesler, Mrs. Jake L. Black and John Forbis.

HIGH THERE!—Steelworkers, hanging from the highest point ever reached by a man-made structure, top off construction of the Empire State building's television tower with a flag-raising ceremony. County Landmark Moved to Town

An old land mark between the Loco and Fresno communities is being torn down. The Pleasant Point school house, which has stood on a hill between the two communities since 1909 has been sold to W. C. Harwell, and is being torn down and moved to Wellington, where it will become part of a residence there.

Miss Edna Forbis, now Mrs. Clarence Kesler, was the first teacher at this school, the first session taught in the winter of 1909 and the spring of 1910. Her pupils ranged in age from 5 to 21 years. Some of the pupils were the same age as the teacher.

Mrs. Kesler said, "I was getting rich in a hurry then. My salary was $40 a month. I had so many pupils to teach that I started my classes at 8 in the morning, heard classes at both recesses and the noon hour, and held school until 4:30 in the afternoon. I taught eight grades in one room. We did not have individual desks in those days, but used short benches with three or four students to the bench. I was exhausted when that term was over, and I never taught another one."

The first school board there was composed of J. H. Black, H. A. Osgood, and J. A. Mahan.

The building is partly down now, with completion expected in two weeks.

Two Escape As Car Overturns

Lester Ray Watts and Dag Norwood, both of this county, escaped serious injury when the car in which they were riding overturned at the Kelly Corner three miles south of Wellington shortly after 5:00 o'clock Monday evening, December 4.

Watts, who was driving, reported that he lost control of the vehicle, which plowed into a cotton field on the right side of the road, turned over once, and stopped upside-down.

Both doors came open as the car overturned, and the men were thrown clear. The car was believed to be a total loss.

Watts had bought the car about a month ago.

(Intended for Last Week)

This cold dry weather has been nice hog killing weather, but most folks have lockers and have their meat butchered and taken care of at the locker plant. This sure saves lots of work on the women folks. We sometimes look back and talk about the good old days of butchering, when we would call in all the neighbors to help, and send each one home with a big bowl of sausage and spare ribs. Smoke houses will soon be just memories. We are living so fast we don't have time to be good neighbors. We're too busy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Maxwell and boys, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Maxwell and children were supper guests last Thursday night of their mother, Mrs. Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright, Charles and Edna Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Isbell returned from Whitesboro last Monday night.

Mrs. Homer Long, Mrs. J. P. Cummings, and Mrs. C. A. Wright attended the WSCS District conference at Pampa last Tuesday. They report a very enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barker, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cummings, Jimmy and Glenda visited Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings, Thanksgiving Day.

Mrs. Horace Hallmark visited Mrs. Curtis Brewer in Wellington last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baber of Augusta, Kansas, have been in Wellington visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Baber is a brother of Mrs. G. C. Isbell, Mrs. O. R. Spear and Mrs. Buddy Potect. Mr. Baber came especially to see his new nephew, Billy Leon Isbell.

Mrs. Buddy Potect and boys have been visiting relatives in Wellington for several days.

Sunday visitors in the Wright and Isbell home were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Isbell and son, Billy Leon, Mrs. Edna Maxwell and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wright, Charles and Edna Ellen.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gollighugh and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gollighugh, Clyde and Jeanetta attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. Harry Treadway, at Hollis last Wednesday. Mrs. Treadway and the late Mrs. C. W. Gollighugh are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hallmark and Cecil and Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cummings visited in the Fred Cummings home Sunday afternoon.

We are still having singing and a Bible story for the children on Sunday night. We invite everyone to come. Edna Ellen Wright will have charge of the program next Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Sanders of Littlefield recently visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Stevens.

Boys Ranchers Plan Holidays

Each of the 132 boys at the famous Boys' Ranch near Amarillo, Texas, is eagerly looking forward to the Christmas holidays. To a few of the boys it means a chance to go home to visit families, relatives, and friends.

To the boys who have no home to go to, it means a big Christmas party at the Ranch, complete with tree, gifts, and turkey dinner. It will also mean a few special privileges for the day.

For many of the boys, it will be their first real Christmas. Never before have they had the chance to enjoy the holidays with a family or to know the fun of opening presents on Christmas morning.

It is planned to give each boy a Christmas box containing two pair of levis, one pair of dress shoes, two plaid shirts, two pair of heavy socks, two pair of dress socks, two suits of underwear, a box of candy, and an appropriate gift. The box will also contain essentials such as a comb, toothbrush, and tooth paste.

Many of the younger boys plan to ask Santa Claus for roller skates as there is now plenty of space available for skating. The boys themselves have poured over 1000 feet of concrete sidewalks between the Ranch buildings which offer good surfaces for roller skating.

Of course, there are other gifts on the list of requests, including the inevitable B. B. guns, bicycles, games, and marbles.

As each week passes, the excitement grows, and the staff and directors are working to see that all the boys at Boys' Ranch have a truly Merry Christmas.

New Chevrolet Will Be on Display in Wellington Next Saturday, December 9

Added safety, greater driving ease and fresh re-styling highspot the 1951 Chevrolet which goes on display nationally at Clark Chevrolet Saturday, December 9.

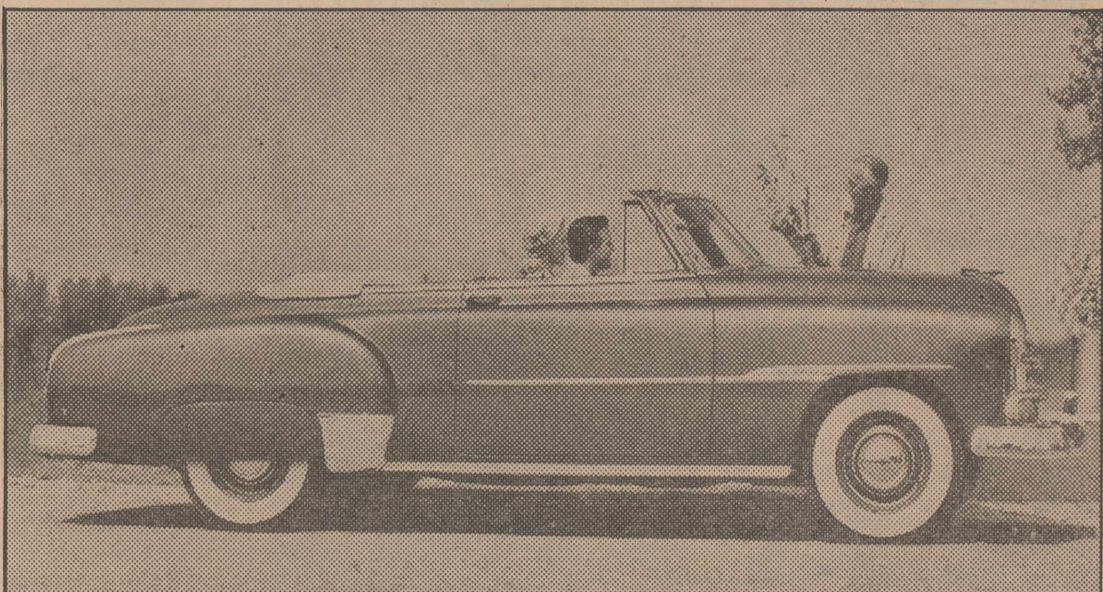

Important improvements and changes are featured in both chassis and body. These changes range from the "biggest brakes in the low-price field" to extensive design innovations that make the car appear much longer and lower than any previous model.

The Powerglide automatic transmission, Chevrolet's sensational driving advance, has been refined for the latest models, although remaining fundamentally the same flexible driving control that has already enrolled a quarter of a million satisfied owners. It will again be optional on De Luxe models only.

Fourteen passenger body types are included in the 1951 line. Two- and four-door sedans will be available in Styleline and Fleetline series. All sedans and the sport coupe will come in De Luxe or Special trim. A convertible coupe, all-steel station wagon and the Chevrolet Bel Air, which has scored so sensationally in popularity, are exclusively in the De Luxe series. The business coupe will be available only as a model in the Special series.

In addition to more luxurious interior treatment Chevrolet is offering a more beautiful and attractive assortment of colors. The options, which include two-tone combinations, are livelier than ever.

Swank Chevrolet Convertible Restyled for 1951

Chevrolet's sleek new convertible reflects to excellent advantage the lower, longer lines of 1951 models. A major improvement in the convertible is a rear top window of flexible plastic which offers more than three times as much vision as formerly. Leather upholstery comes in contrasting or harmonizing shades to lively new body colors. Safer brakes are another feature of the new models.

The new "Jumbo Drum" brakes headline the qualities of the car directed toward safer operation. Quicker emergency stops are assured by a brake which involves considerable departure from past design. Every brake shoe, fitted with the long-life bonded lining made famous by Chevrolet, is self-energizing in both forward and reverse travel, giving a consistent, surge-free operation that will please drivers.

New brakes also qualify as an aid to driving ease. Tests show 25 per cent less pedal pressure required in stopping at given rates of speed. Better brake seals and virtual elimination of the possibility of brake grabbing are other advantages.

Of almost equal interest among safety features are recessed control knobs in the driver's compartment. All protrusions are now set below the smooth contours of the instrument panel. Shielding of the windshield from instrument light reflections is as well provided by a rounded ledge above the panel.

Subdued lighting of dials for nighttime driving is still another safety asset.

Important as it will affect parking is an increase in steering gear ratio. Other points worthy of mention under driving ease are new convenience of controls, relocated brake pedals, reduced vibration through greater torque tube rigidity and a new method of propeller shaft balancing in production.

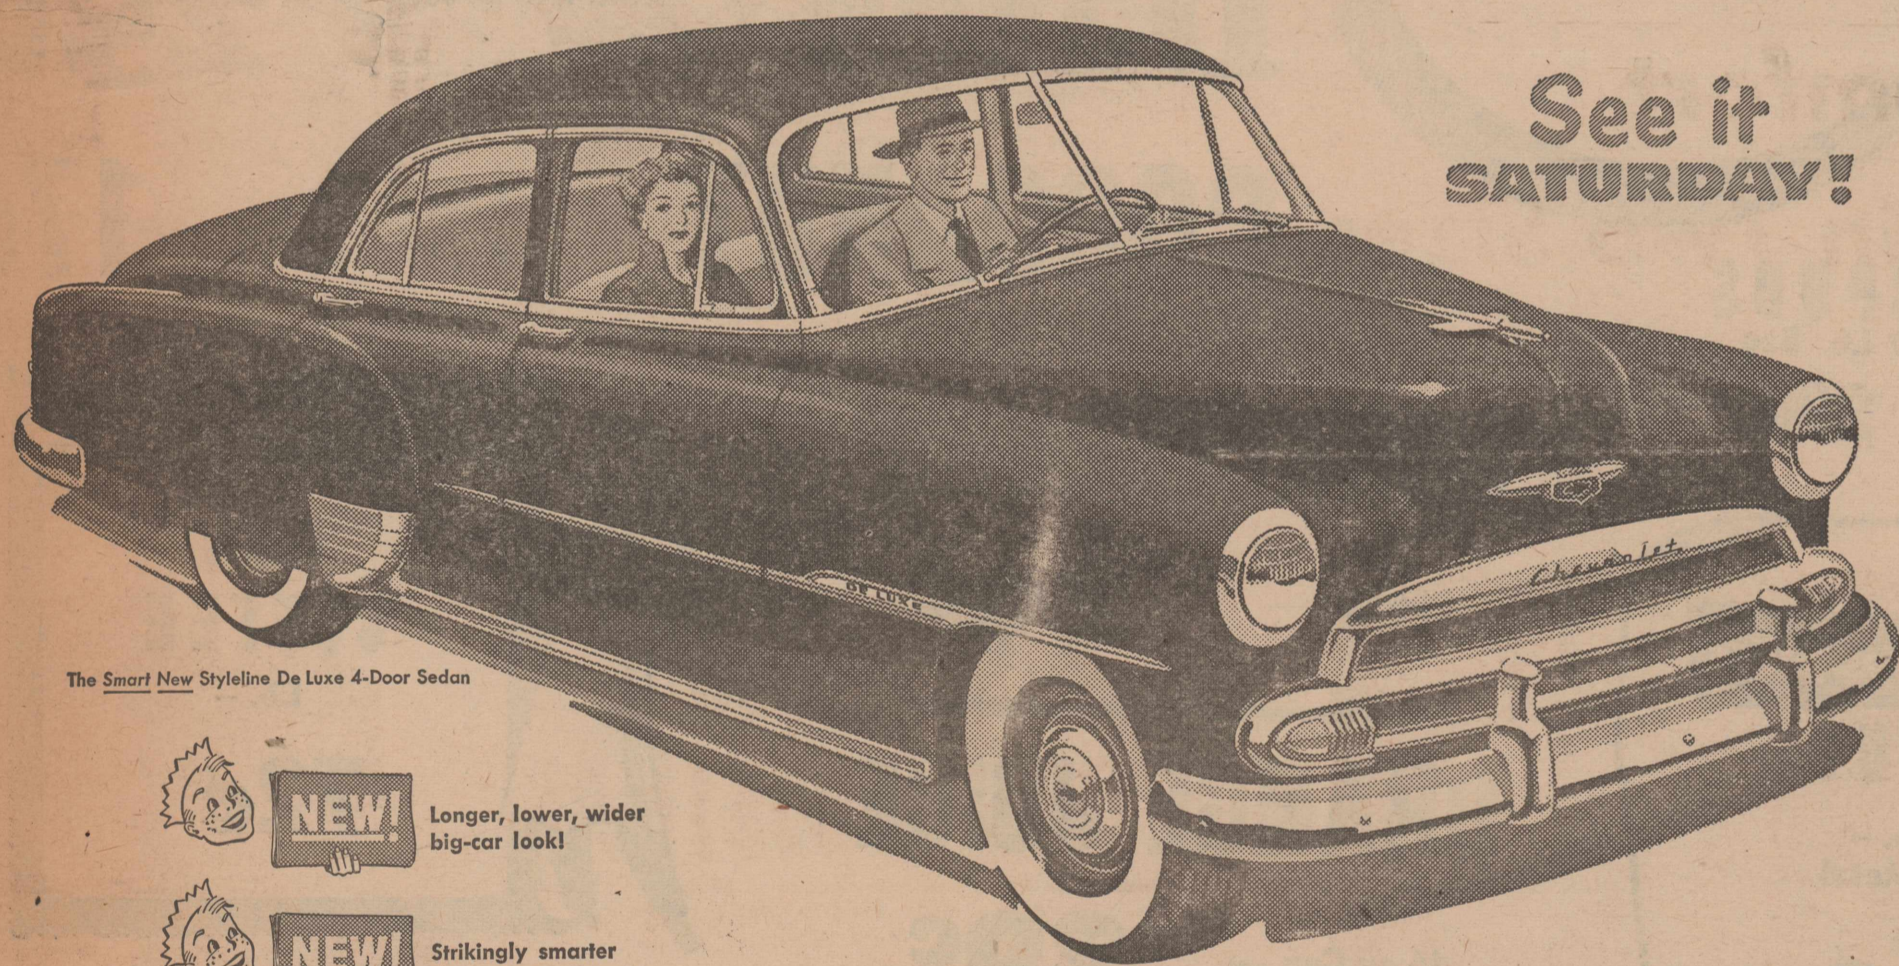

Appearance-wise the improvement is discernible even to a casual observer. Changes both at the front and rear enhance the impression of ruggedness and room. The radiator grille has been restyled and simplified. The design now consists of three horizontal bars, the lower two extending further across the fenders to form a circular frame for parking lamps. Frontal beauty is additionally embellished by new bumper guards, emblem and hood ornament which carries a jet-craft form.

The crown of the rear fenders has been raised to increase the sleek, flowing lines of the body. Fenders now mount the combination stop and tail light, with a newly styled trunk lid ornament and re-designed bumper guards blending into the overall effect.

The De Luxe and Special series will again be distinctive. Exteriors of the De Luxe bodies have a greater amount of chrome and stainless-steel trim and are distinguishable on the highways by a moulding which starts just above the wheel opening in the front fenders and is extended into the rear. ### Chevrolet Trucks Reveal 1951 Advances

Typical of improved 1951 Chevrolet trucks is this heavy-duty stake model (Series 6400). Newly designed "Twin-Action" brakes on rear wheels assure increased braking effectiveness and longer life. Adjustable ventipanes for better ventilation and a new spring seat construction are among other high spots.

Chevrolet's Smart New Grille

Head-on view of the 1951 Chevrolet gives an indication of the styling changes that benefit the new models. The radiator grille now consists of three massive horizontal bars, the lower two being extended farther across the width of the car to encircle parking lamps and air intake slots. Newly designed emblem, jet-craft hood ornament and redesigned bumper guards are additional features.

JUMBO BRAKES

This mammoth model of Chevrolet's new passenger car brakes reveals the mechanics which build up braking forces and reduce the requirements of pedal pressure. In evidence are the actuating hydraulic plunger and the system of springs and links between the two brake shoes and linings. Released, the entire assembly floats free. In operation, however, the anchor (top center) holds assembly stationary. One brake shoe acts to retard the other, multiplying friction and inducing a process called "self-energization."

Chevrolet Builds Trucks for Every Job, With More Comfort

New 1951 Chevrolet trucks go on display at Clark Chevrolet Saturday, December 9.

Offering a wide variety of sizes and designed for jobs ranging from fast metropolitan delivery service to rugged cross-country hauls, the new models list many advances over the previous series. Comfort benefits by better cab ventilation and new seat construction.

New Chevrolet - (Continued from Page 4)

In its 1951 models Chevrolet will make available trucks in 10 wheel-bases, including the 179-inch chassis added late this year. Gross vehicle weights range from 4,000 to 16,000 pounds. In this connection an important development is announced in higher ratings of the 4100 and 4400 series. Through changes in the front axle, springs and tire sizes, the maximum gross vehicle weight has been raised from 12,500 to 14,000 pounds. Minimum GVW of the Series 6100 to 6400 has likewise been upped to 14,000 pounds.

Braking improvement is noteworthy on light- and heavy-duty trucks. While the hydraulic principle has been retained, the design of light truck brakes is entirely new. In addition to more braking surface, the brakes are self-energizing. Less pedal pressure is required for stops. Linings are bonded to the shoes, eliminating the need for rivets.

Heavy-duty trucks now have "Twin-Action" rear brakes, a design that assures greater braking effectiveness and self-energization of both shoes whether traveling forward or backward. Each brake is equipped with two cylinders and two shoes. Better sealing against grit and mud, simple adjustment and longer life are present in all brakes.

On both long and short trips drivers will find the 1951 Chevrolet cabs appreciably more comfortable. All cab models and the Suburban Carryall have new seats of simpler and more durable construction. The seat assembly carries two layers of springs. With Special luxury treatments have been incorporated in convertible, Bel Air and Station Wagon. New this year to the convertible is a rear window of clear, flexible plastic offering more than three times the vision area of the former opening. Also in the convertible, the automatic top motor has been moved into the trunk forward of the spare tire as a service improvement.

Upholstery in the convertible is genuine deep-buff leather with the Bel Air featuring a striped pile-cord fabric with leather bolsters on both seat cushions and back rest. Station wagons have a new leatherette fabric with pikskin finish.

For 1951 Chevrolet offers two economical valve-in-head engines. The standard engine develops 92 horsepower while the optional power plant, available on De Luxe models with Powerglide, develops 105 horsepower.

Essentially the power train is unchanged. A few things that accent easier service include: elimination of the body junction block in the electrical system, made possible by the mounting of switches at the bottom of the instrument panel; a more accessible location for the rear bearing oil cup on the generator to prevent over lubrication; and improvement in the attachment on the primary terminal of the distributor, facilitating assembly of the breaker lever.

Safety profits by newly developed brakes. Increased durability has been engineered into the chassis through a number of improvements which extend throughout the line.

different stiffnesses, frequencies of one layer tend to offset the other, thereby reducing vibration.

Cab side windows introduce adjustable ventipanes, a comfort feature which will be appreciated by truck operators.

As a year ago Chevrolet will make available two engines of the economical valve-in-head design. They are the Loadmaster of 105 horsepower and the Thriftmaster which develops 92 horsepower.

Miss Duncan Stresses Need TECHNICIAN EXPLAINS OPERATION OF A HOSPITAL BLOOD BANK

Miss Rita Duncan, laboratory technician at the Jones-Watkins Clinic, this week added her statements to that of Dr. Dale V. Watkins as to the need of a blood bank in Wellington.

"A blood bank is something every town with a hospital needs. When a patient needs blood, there is not time to hunt a donor, but if you have a blood bank at your disposal, it is a simple matter to choose the blood that is needed, and give it to the patient in a matter of short time," Miss Duncan pointed out.

Miss Duncan, who operated a blood bank before coming here, gave the steps that a donor must go through. When a person is secured to give blood, they are asked questions about their previous health. If they have had good health, they are placed on a bed where they are allowed to relax before the blood is taken. First the hemoglobin is tested to find the amount of iron in the blood.

The blood is taken by means of vacuum. A bottle holding 500 cc. or one pint is placed on a lower level than that of the donor. Needles joined by a rubber hose are used in this process. One is injected into the bottle, the other into the vein in the donor's arm.

In a few minutes, the necessary quantity of blood has flowed from the donor's arm into the storage jar. The needles are then removed from the donor's arm and the bottle.

The donor then rests for 20 or 30 minutes, and is given a glass of milk or a Coke, whichever he prefers.

The blood is taken to the laboratory, where it is tested and typed. It is labeled with the type blood, the donor's name, and the date of the donation. There are only four types of blood, A, B, AB, and O.

When a patient needs blood, a sample for type is taken from him. A jar of blood from the storage refrigerator is selected to match this blood. The blood of the patient is mixed with that in the storage bottle, to see if the cells and hemoglobin will match without ill effects to the patient.

If the mixture proves successful, the blood storage bottle is placed at a higher level than the patient. The blood then flows into the patient's arm, and another person has received the life-giving power of whole blood.

If the blood stays in the bank longer than twelve days, it is then made into plasma, which is used to treat burns and cases of shock.

For the first pint of blood the patient uses, he is asked to secure two donors for replacement, with only one donor for each additional pint. This way, there is a sufficient supply of blood in the bank at all times.

Men donors are preferred to women, because they are larger and stronger, and can give blood better with no after effects.

"I hope Wellington can secure

40,000 Families Affected By Disasters in 16 States, 6-Month Survey Shows—Floods, Tornadoes Cause Greatest Loss

Floods, tornadoes, storms, fires, and other disasters this year have struck an estimated 40,000 families in 15 of the 16 states comprising the American Red Cross Midwestern Area, shown by the above map, Red Cross officials in charge of aiding disaster victims in the area report a number of disaster operations continuing into the second half of 1950. Largest continuing operations are in the North Dakota-Western Minnesota flood area, where Red Cross has provided continuous assistance since the end of March, with operations complicated by recurring floods and blizzards.

Buick Produces Half Million Cars in 1950

FLINT, Mich. — The 500,000th Buick produced in 1950 came off the assembly line today, fulfilling a goal set a year ago by Ivan L. Wiles, Buick general manager and vice president of General Motors Corporation.

Production of the 500,000th car made Buick the second General Motors Division to join that tight little circle of automobile makers producing more than a half million cars annually.

Total Buick production since David Buick introduced his two-cylinder, 21-horsepower "horseless carriage" in 1903 now is near the 6,000,000 mark. About half of these cars are still in use today.

"Buick now is geared to produce efficiently 550,000 cars a year," Wiles said, "and we believe that the production of the 500,000th car will be an annual event from now on."

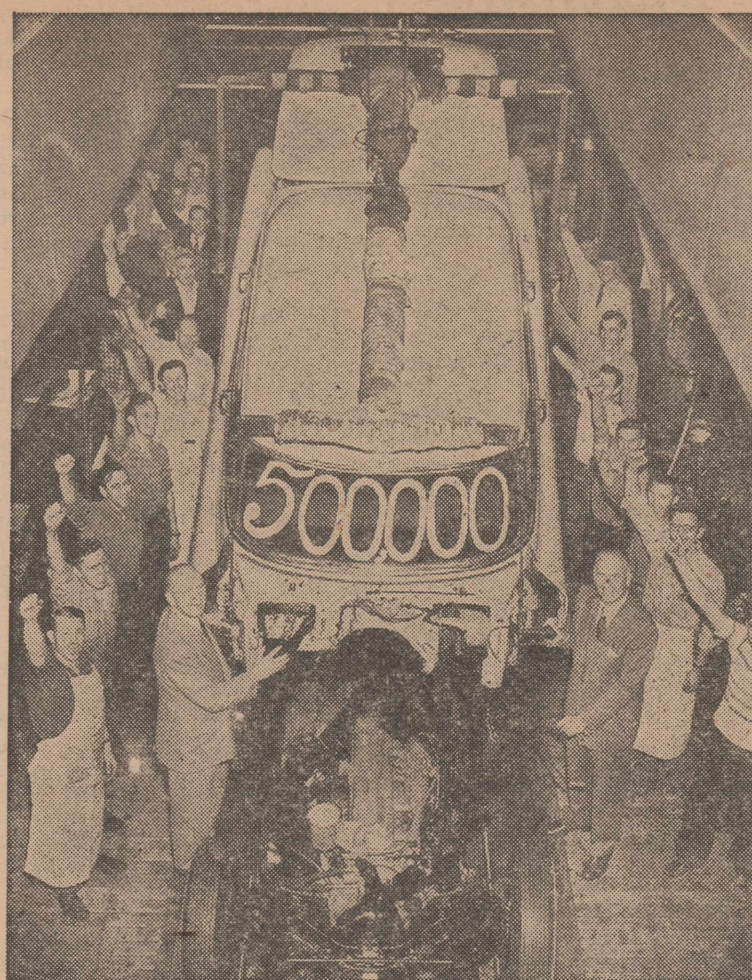

Production of the 500,000th unit represented a personal triumph for Wiles who predicted last year that Buick would make more than a half million cars in 1950. There were skeptics who doubted Buick could do it with its present manufacturing facilities. But the goal was achieved by careful planning and the utilization of every square foot of floor space at the Buick plant.

Boosting Buick's yearly production over the half million figure culminated a large expansion program undertaken immediately after World War II. At that time Buick began modernizing many of its old buildings and building new ones.

The latest phase of this expansion program is the construction of a new manufacturing plant immediately north of the present factory site and building a large new addition to the foundry which will nearly double present capacity.

The 500,000th Buick for 1950

Ivan L. Wiles (right) Buick general manager and Edward T. Ragsdale (left) general manufacturing manager, guiding the body for the 500,000th Buick built this year onto the chassis at the plant in Flint. Production of the 500,000th car not only fulfilled the goal set a year ago by Wiles, but made Buick the second General Motors Division to join that tight little circle of manufacturers producing a half-million cars annually.

How can you pass up our prices?

As we've been saying for quite a spell—"Whatever your price range—Better buy Buick."

But maybe we'd better get down to brass tacks, as to just what this suggestion means. In the lower-price field, this has been happening:

Four out of ten Buick SPECIALS—bought by people with a car to trade in—have been bought by folks who formerly drove one of the so-called "low-priced three." They found they could afford a Buick!

In the fine-car field, something even more impressive has happened:

Four out of five people who looked at a ROADMASTER and another very distinguished automobile decided in favor of ROADMASTER!

So—whatever your price range, take a look at our prices—and at what you get for your money.

What you get is the thrill of owning the greatest Buick of all time—as registered by record-breaking sales.

What you get is power and style and comfort and performance that are hard to match in any other automobile.

More specifically—you get the power-with-thrift of Buick's famous Fireball high-compression engine—a style that stands out in any company—a ride with the comfort of coil springs on every wheel—and performance that makes you feel like the head man on any highway.

Better come in today—and see what can be done about getting quick delivery.

Only BUICK has Dynaflo—drive* and with it goes:

HIGHER-COMPRESSION Fireball valve-in-head power in three engines. (New F-263 engine in SUPER models) • NEW-PATTERN STYLING, with MULTI-GUARD front-end, taper-through fenders, "double bubble" taillights • WIDE-ANGLE VISIBILITY, close-up road view both forward and back • TRAFFIC-HANDY SIZE, less over-all length for easier parking and garaging, short turning radius • EXTRA-WIDE SEATS cradled between the axles • SOFT BUICK RIDE, from all-coil springing, Safety-Ride rims, low-pressure tires, ride-steadying torque-tube • WIDE ARRAY OF MODELS with Body by Fisher.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Clinic X-Ray Department photo showing Dr. Green making spinal X-rays to locate the cause of nerve interference found during the spinal analysis. Any part of body or spine may be brought into clear view for examination. When the cause is located it can be corrected.

What Will Chiropractic Do For Nervousness?

The brain is like any other organ in the body. It is dependent for normal function upon the proper supply of mental impulses to it. Tiny fibers convey these impulses from one part of the brain to the other. They pass out from the spinal cord and turn back into the cranial cavity, and are known as recurrent fibers. If anything happens to prevent these fibers from carrying the proper quantity and quality of vital energy, then the tissues which they supply become abnormal in their function. Such a condition often exists as a result of slight displacement of the small bones which form the spinal column. When the vertebra is adjusted to its normal position and the pressure upon the nerve fibers is relieved, the cause of nervousness has been taken away. The reason that Chiropractic is of inestimable value in cases of nervousness is that the effects are lasting, and the cause of the condition has been eliminated.
