ELECTED WEDNESDAY

Vote Totals to Decide City's Governing Body

City of Colorado City will choose by vote three city councilmen in the election coming up Tuesday, April 7, at City Hall.

Four names on the official ballot will be vying for the posts to be filled on City Council.

Top three men, when votes are counted, will win seats in this city's governing body. Poll tax receipts will be necessary for voting in the election, voters are reminded.

Two incumbents are in the race. They are Dr. John Chinn, mayor pro tem who is seeking re-election to a third term, and R. J. Hoback, who stands for election to a second term as councilman.

Two other candidates—one a new-comer to city politics, the other a twice-defeated repeater on the ballot—seek first terms.

Henry Lewis, tax service business man, head of Colorado City Properties Inc. which owns Baker Hotel here, and holder of the Distinguished Service Award given by Jaycees in 1961, is first name on the ballot.

Dr. Chinn's name will appear second on the ballot. Chinn is active in Boy Scout work, church work and civic projects. He heads the Aviation committee of Chamber of Commerce and was instrumental in getting lighting for the Colorado City Municipal Airport.

FOR IRVING HIGH

Coach Bill Everett Resigns His Post

Coach Bill Everett has announced his resignation to accept a teaching post in Irving High School, Irving.

Everett, track team coach for Colorado High School and teacher of American History in Junior High School, came to join the Colorado Independent School District teaching staff in 1956. A former teacher at Lorraine High, he grew up in Putman.

He is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University with the class of '53 and received his Master of Education degree from Abilene Christian College, last August.

Everett hopes, he said in announcing his resignation, to study toward his doctorate at North Texas University, at Denton, within easy commuting distance of Irving. He will teach history and physical education in Irving High School. Mrs. Everett (Frostalyn) has also resigned her position as teacher of fifth grade, Hutchison Elementary School, effective at the close of the current term. She will work toward her master's degree and will teach in an Irving Elementary School next fall.

The couple, who have two sons, Mike and Bill, are members of First Baptist Church here. Mrs. Everett is also a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene.

Everett's resignation, effective at the end of this school term, is third from the coaching staff for Colorado High in recent weeks. Head Coach and Athletic Director Sam Christy and basketball coach Caddo Matthews submitted their resignations to the school board at the board's February meeting. News of yet another pending resignation from the coaching staff has not been verified.

Truman Nix, head coach and athletic director at Wink High School, is due to arrive in Colorado City in April to head the athletic department at Colorado High and to be head football coach here.

Coach Everett said this week that he looks forward to taking his Colorado High track team, boasting an extraordinary record, to Dallas.

Record's Joe Bell In Dallas

Joe Bell, publisher of the Colorado City Record, is a patient in Parkland Hospital, Dallas, where he is undergoing extensive laboratory tests.

Bell entered the hospital Monday for diagnosis. A biopsy and possible surgery for removal of suspected tumor of a gland was postponed Wednesday.

Delay of the biopsy was ordered by doctors because of a heart complication which developed late Tuesday. Tests and cardiograms were still being made Thursday.

News of Bell's condition at noon, Thursday, was optimistic. His illness, while possibly serious, is not believed to be critical at this time, Mrs. Bell, who accompanied him to Dallas, said by telephone that Bell is in excellent spirits and vigorously protesting the complete bed rest ordered by specialists until diagnosis is completed.

Henry Lewis

is a director of Colorado City Chamber of Commerce and serves as director-member of that organization's Agriculture Committee.

DIVERSION PAYMENTS

Feed Grain Acreage Will Bring $305,379

As of March 18, 403 farmers in Mitchell County had been signed up for participation in the 1964 feed grain program, A. K. McCauley, Chairman of Community, Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has announced.

County farms eligible to take part in the program total 804. "Eligible" farms are those which grew one or more of the three feed grains—corn, grain sorghum, or barley—during the program's base years 1959 and 1960.

Feed grain acreage signed up for diversion through the program now totals 18,316 acres, including no acres of corn, 18,276 acres of grain sorghum, and 40 acres of barley. Feed grain base acreages of these participating farms amount to 35,822 acres.

Based on farmer's intentions, as recorded at the ASCS County Office, these producers will earn an estimated $305,379 in diversion payments for participating in the feed grain program this year.

The chairman points out that the 1964 feed grain offers farmers an opportunity to continue the progress of the past 2 years in balancing supplies with estimated needs. At the same time, the program payments give participants a substantial return from their acreage in which they usually have a heavy investment, McCauley said.

Under the program, a grower who reduces his feed grain acreage (or corn, grain sorghum, and barley) by at least 20 percent of his farm's total base acreage will earn a diversion payment (or smiting the acreage from production to a conserving use.) Payments for 1964 will average higher than last year and the maximum diversion is higher.

The participating grower will also qualify for a price support payment on the normal production of the 1964 planted acreage of the three crops, and for loans or purchase agreements on all the corn, grain sorghum, and barley produced on the farm's 1964 acreage.

McCauley reminds farmers that the program sign-up is now under way at the County Office and will extend through March 27. He urges an early sign-up as the best way to avoid the delays and crowded office conditions which could develop as the deadline nears.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN

Bob Carver Is Head Of Cancer Crusade

Bob Carver will be the 1964 Cancer Crusade chairman for this county.

Martin Weaver, president of the Mitchell County Cancer Society, announced this week the appointment and acceptance of the post by Carver.

Crusade calendar marks the day of April 3 for the filling of packets to be distributed to citizens of Mitchell County. Members of the Brownie Troop directed by Mrs. M. W. Palmer will fill the packets April 4 at Primary School.

April 4 the Boy Scout Troop, which has Tom LeMaster as Scout Master will put out placards hailing the Crusade and will pass out bumper stickers advertising the Crusade.

Next red-letter day on the Crusade calendar is April 11 when all zone chairmen and all team captains will meet at 7:30 p. m. in City National

Colorado High Faces Odessa Here Saturday

It's six games played, five games won by Colorado High School Wolves baseball team, so far.

Wolf baseball fortunes—and fortitude—rate the sound of hurrahs from town and school sports fans with wins in every game played to date, except the first. Colorado High went down in the first of a doubleheader played against Big Spring, the season's opener, played there March 14.

After that, Wolves "got on the ball" to beat the second stanza of that doubleheader. They took Abilene, until then undefeated, in the game played there March 17. Score ended 3 to 1 in favor of the Wolves, coached by Jeff Walker.

Wolves slugged the Big Spring Steers for two victories in the first home game of the season, a doubleheader played on Wolf field here Saturday afternoon. Tuesday afternoon the willing Wolves whipped Abilene Eagles again, 7 to 4.

Saturday at 1 p. m. Wolves face a new opponent, Ector High of Odessa, in a doubleheader scheduled for Wolf field at 1 p. m.

Tuesday's game in Abilene saw the Wolves come through with their fifth win when they strutted across home plate for 4 runs in the first and 3 in the third inning.

Fireworks started when Perry Millsap was walked and Corkey McAdams singled. Denzil Pendergrass came up with a double which drove in two runs. Millsap and McAdams. Bill McGuire smacked a beautiful homer to score Pendergrass and himself in a breeze.

In the third, McAdams walked and Pendergrass hit a homerun, 26 score, the two. Ronald Hillhouse was walked. Then Larry Currie connected with a fast double to score Hillhouse and bring the tally to 7 runs.

David Bourden, pitcher, gave up just 3 hits in 5 innings. Romie Smith pitched the last 2 innings. Gene Keese, who started the game for Abilene, was relieved in the third by Charles Farr.

Saturday's doubleheader against Big Spring Steers, played here, saw Wolves win the first by 14-7 and the second 2 to 1.

Second game went 9 innings and was put in the bag for the Wolves when Steers made two errors in a row and Wolf Corkey McAdams crossed homeplate.

Larry Damborski was slinging dirt of the mound in that game and held Big Spring down to the tune of 2 hits. One was a home by David Agee, Big Spring, in the second frame. Damborski fanned 17 batters and did not walk a single opponent.

City came back to score with Bill McGuire dashing in on a single and a Steer error after having been walked.

In the first game, Big Spring matched four pitchers to the box. Wolves had fun with a total of 16 hits—three each by Millsap and McAdams, Larry Currie and McAdams both clovered the ball for Wolf homeruns.

Lives Of Famous Texans Reviewed For Hesperians

Texas Day program for the Hesperian Study Club was hosted by Mrs. Otto Jones, with Mrs. E. H. Wint as leader for the day.

"Celebrities Of Texas" was the program topic. Lives of famous Texans were reviewed by Mrs. J. A. Sadler, Mrs. J. W. Watson, and Miss Clydine Stickey.

Mrs. Sadler told of incidents in the life of Miss Kathryn Cravens well known woman reporter from Burket, in Colman County. Miss Cravens' careers encompassed the motion picture, radio and news paper fields, though she is best known as the first woman coast-to-coast news commentator, starting a career in 1936, Mrs. Sadler said.

"In World War II she covered Europe, Asia and the Middle East for her radio assignments. She scored several notable scoops and was the first woman to broadcast from Berlin following the Allied victory," the speaker said.

"Texans in The Limelight" was Miss Stickey's subject, as she told of the lives of President Lyndon Baines Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird.

"...but I think we should realize that there are more than these... who share this eminent position in our state. Perhaps the light is not so bright that surrounds them nor the glow so warm, but for some people it is just as warm in its appreciation and enjoyment," Miss Stickey said.

She spoke briefly of Katharine Ann Porter, Texas novelist; Sarah T. Hughes, federal judge in Dallas; Thomas Mann, former ambassador to Mexico now in charge of Latin American affairs in the State Department; Van Cliburn, world famous pianist from Texas.

Miss Stickey reviewed the lives of President and Mrs. Johnson, from their early childhoods through college marriage, politics to their present position as first family in the nation. She told of Johnson's immense drive in politics as a representative senator and president, and of Lady Bird's constant assistance to him in all her endeavors.

Famous Texans reviewed by Mrs. Watson were Kathryn Grant Crosby and John Bowen Connally, Jr.

Mrs. Watson told of Kathryn Crosby's early Hollywood career, college life and later of her marriage to the famous crooner, Olive Kathryn Grand staff was born in West Columbia, was graduated from the University of Texas, and had a promising Hollywood career before she became Mrs. Bing Crosby.

Since her marriage, she has completed a course in nursing at Queen of Angels Hospital in Los Angeles, and is the mother of three children, Harry 4, Mary Frances 3, and Nathaniel 1. Mrs. Watson said she is also a part time model and commentator for a well known Hollywood designer, and will be a professor at the University of Texas this summer. Mrs. Watson concluded, "Of Governor John Connally of Texas Mrs. Watson said that he was born in Floresville where he attended school. He also attended public schools in San Antonio before going to the University of Texas where he earned his law degree in 1941.

"Although little was known about Connally as a political figure at the time of his appointment as Secretary of Navy, his political career parallels that of Present Johnson, Mrs. Watson said. She also told that intermixed with his political interests has been a legal and business career that has brought him considerable prestige and wealth.

"Governor John Connally is one Texan who knows well how to separate myth from reality, has precious little patience with any tall tales about Texas superiority. When people struggle like Texans have, it builds strength of character, some stinginess, also provincialism," he says.

"The people want better and they want change, but they are very conservative in how to go about it. Texas is really still in the throes of joining up with the rest of the mid-20th century America. Our people are demanding it; yet they still don't quite understand it. The vast area of Texas is not here just to be bragged about, but to be used," Mrs. Watson said as she quoted the governor.

Guests for the meeting were Mrs. J. P. Nunn and Mrs. Wright Hock. Members attending were Mmes. Sadler, White, Scott, Thomas, Watson, Sam Thompson, Simpson, Winn, Barber, Perdue, Shropshire, Halbert, Jones, Misses Mahle Smith, Stickey.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Church To Sponsor Teen Challenge

First Assembly of God Church here is sponsoring a Teen Challenge Rally at 7:15 Saturday night when a film titled "Devil's Pit" will be shown.

Pastor of the church, Rev. Elwayne Schaeffer, announces that all young people, as well as adults, are invited to attend.

Guest speaker will be Carl King, evangelist, who has ministered among young gangsters, drug addicts and Beatniks in Chicago, New York City and other cities. Rev. King began his ministry at the age of 16 and received his theological training at Central Bible Institute and Seminary Springfield, Mo. He has traveled widely in several states as Assembly of God evangelist.

Teen Challenge Rally is an active rehabilitation work of Assemblies of God among teenage gangs and drug addicts in major cities of America. The Rev. David Wilkerson, director of Teen Challenge, is author of the best seller "The Cross and Switchblade." He was a 1963 guest on the Art Linkletter television show. The film, "Devil's Pit" was produced in actual teen gang infested territory. Stirring shots of baby-gang fights teen-agers snuffing glue, drinking lough syrups, making and smoking marijuana cigarettes—drilling heroin into their veins—will be shown.

Film climaxes with shots of the church in action as dedicated Teen Challenge workers, along with converted gang members and drug addicts go into crime-ridden Areas to preach, sing and testify.

Sing a song of problems

A pocketful of stress
Oh, that's what makes life challenging
And interesting... we guess.

IT TAKES all kinds of people, all kinds of problems, all kinds of preferences to keep this world from going to pot in a go-cart.

It takes all kinds of likes, dislikes, interests and disinterests. All kinds of manners and mannerisms. All kinds of positions — and dispositions, too. All kinds of behavior to intrigue the inquiring mind.

ONLY other newspaper woman we ever knew very well used to declare regularly, every press day, "Anybody in this racket just needs to be two things — tough in the epidermis and a little touched in the head."

That was her way of saying that a reporting job sometimes brings finer insults than it does results... more trials than tributes... more rocks than roses... and more complaints than cash.

She liked her job anyway. Which proves what this business is all about.

IT TAKES all kinds of likes and dislikes. Nearly everybody has a separate set of rules for approval or disapproval. A different way of measuring what to be glad about, sad about, and just downright mad about.

Take, for instance, Tiny Chaos of one-a-day cartoon fame. He's glad that morning just comes once a day. And he has many followers because everybody knows that there are "morning people" — and "evening people."

EVENING people had rather be sick and almost dead than get up and go about the business of the day. They grope and yawn and drink black coffee every time the sun comes up. As the day grows longer, they bloom, their energies reach the peak along about midnight. They hate to go to bed even worse than they hate to get up.

Morning people, Lord love 'em, bounce out of bed. They do exercises in front of the window and go singing about the house. They dash around accomplishing things. They're amazingly industrious. Until 9 or 10 o'clock at night when they toddle off to bed and dream of a new tomorrow morning.

IT MIGHT be nice if all people in this world were nice. Gentle of speech. Courteous in manner of request. Appreciative.

Have you reached that time of life when your body experiences strange new sensations — when one minute you feel enveloped in hot flushes and the next are clammy, cold, drained of energy, nervous, irritable? GOOD NEIGHBOR POLICY...

Lots of people get it into their heads that the Good Neighbor Policy means that program for sponsoring friendship events between Texas and her neighbor Mexico.

Lots of other people could tell you there is another brand of Good Neighbor Policy that still grows fine and tall out here in the rural areas of Mitchell County.

Now you take what happened last week out at the Parker Jarman farm when he got back from a hospital trip to the city known as Big D. Good Neighbors in the Seven wells Community and in the Payne Community put on their own program of friendship.

A bunch of those farmin' fellows out that way took their tractors and some of their hired hands and went over to bed 300 acres of Jarman cropland for spring planting conditioning. That's the Good Neighbor Policy, Mitchell County variety. And its only entry fee is a bit of scripture that says "and thy neighbor..."

creative. Above all, aware of other people's difficulties.

But it would be unspeakably dull, we guess. Might even take away some of the "kicks" if nobody ever kicked about anything.

In this business, when you pick up the phone to hear a young man's voice bark orders about what to put — or not to put — in the paper, you know you're getting to be a real old pro. Tough in the epidermis. If not yet legally touched in the head, at least a little tickled in the typewriter.

ACTUALLY, our Joe Bell, owner, publisher and editor-in-chief of the Colorado City Record, happens to be the only man anywhere in the world with authority to, with reason to and with the right to tell us what to put — or not to put in the paper.

And Joe Bell, the boss, has one rule he follows and expects the staff to follow: "Write the news as it happens. Not as you wish it had — or hadn't happened."

Right now, Bell is in Parkland Hospital, Dallas. In putting that fact in the paper we break, herewith, the only dictatorial order he ever issued to this writer in his life: "No Bells," he always says.

YOU think you got complications? Well, try this on your Record player.

The Record's ace linotypist, Orbie Ray Linder, his wife Joan and daughter Jana have moved to Denton. Orbie now works for a Denton afternoon daily.

Joe and Madge Bell are in Dallas. Editorial's main overhead light burned out. Addressograph broke down. Lois Jones (Mrs. H. L.) who throws the paper, took to her bed with food poisoning. The single-wrap lad departed. And the front office force is afflicted with an epidemic of spring colds.

GREAT EXCITEMENT exists at the house on Chestnut St., however.

Grandson Jim Mann, son of daughter Doris Ann, received Tuesday a letter from Mrs. John F. Kennedy. Jim, who is 10, wrote his own letter of sympathy to the widow of the late President last Nov. 22 without prompting or censorship.

After telling Mrs. Kennedy "Your husband was the best President we ever had," Jim added "I just hope nobody ever hurts you or your children."

Jacqueline Kennedy's reply was a dignified form letter. But it keeps her promise to read — and to answer — every single expression of sympathy from the great — or the small.

SEEN LATELYS were Bill Everett, track coach and teacher of American History, who will be moving to Irving where he will teach high school history and physical education. Wife Fredalyn will teach in Irving elementary school. Their sons are Mike, 9, and Bill, who is 5.

Office visitors have been pretty Selma Landau, wife of Willie and mama of Sandy who's a University of Texas student... Ray Webb... Mrs. Ruth Airhart... Rev. Fred Brewton, that nice Presbyterian pastor... Attractive Kaye Jayman Wallis, wife of Joe, mama of Steve and Brooks.

SAW Ruth Woodell Hardegree (Mrs. Kenneth)... and Margaret Bodine (Mrs. Truman) and Vernah Nuckolls, all on the pre-Easter shopping scene.

Saw Willie Landau... Frank Deregibus... Loraine Rogers (Mrs. Natman)... Bill Erwin... The sheriff of this county, Lewis Claxton... Weldon Moore, principal at Hutchinson... Harry Rattiff... nice Bill Holbert... and always pleasant Margaret Oylor.

Westbrook Public School will dismiss Thursday afternoon at the regular hour for the Easter holidays and resume on Tuesday, according to principal Robert Hutchins. Easter parties and egg hunts will be sponsored by room mothers and teachers in the elementary grades on Thursday afternoon.

THE LATIN CROSS

In the reign of the Emperor Constantine, the cross was introduced publicly as a symbol of redemption. This simple type of cross — probably the actual form upon which Christ was crucified — represented the essentials of the Christian faith; the person of Christ; His death for man; and the life and death of man in Christ. The Episcopal Church can help you to a new and deeper appreciation of these essentials.

Hunting, Fishing Gain From Cooperation

Hunting and fishing in Texas is a big business. And the problem of how to conserve fish and wildlife recreation for this and future generations is a major responsibility.

U.S. Senator Ralph Yarborough has come up with some interesting aspects of this conservation — mainly about how the Federal Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife cooperates with the Texas Park and Wildlife Commission to help assure that outdoor recreation will be preserved as city boundaries march further into countryside.

The state agency selects and carries out work on approved projects after which it is reimbursed up to 75 per cent by the federal government.

The money for this work comes from federal excise taxes on sporting arms, ammunition and fishing tackle. The amount is based on land area and the number of paid hunting and fishing licence-holders in the state, the senator points out.

In the past four years, Texas has spent $4,609,337 in federal fish and wildlife restoration funds.

This includes $1,397,878 on federal aid in fish restoration in Texas and $3,211,458 on wildlife restoration in the state.

Two active wildlife land projects are concerned with leases of 28,400 acres in Brewster, Cameron and Hidalgo Counties. These provide deer and quail habitat and nesting cover for white-winged doves.

Twelve wildlife development projects include the development and maintenance of capital improvements and wildlife habitat on seven major game management areas and a number of smaller units. Also included are the management of special hunts, determination of wildlife-livestock forage relationships, control of predators, and the trapping and transplanting of white-tailed deer, wild turkeys, and chachalaca.

Texas' extensive wildlife research program includes 19 projects. Ten of these are regional game management ventures which together blanket the entire state.

Principal objectives are inventories of game populations and habitats and measurements of hunting success and harvests necessary for annual management recommendations.

Special attention is given, under non-regional research, to the trapping and banding of waterfowl; evaluation of methods in dove nesting areas; investigation of bobwhite quail and wintering marsh habitat; devising grackle control goose population dynamics; aging and reproductive studies in white-tailed deer; evaluation of habitat manipulation, insecticides and brush control on the Rio Grande Plains; development of techniques for marking, counting and trapping deer; determination of the importance of hardwoods to deer and squirrels; and finding the cause of abnormal antler development in deer.

Three fisheries development projects will reduce undesirable rough fish populations in Hopkin and Grayson Counties. Aquatic weeds will be controlled in Jasper, Tyler, Smith and Panola Counties. Water circulation channels will be built at the upper end of Caddo Lake in Harrison and Marion Counties.

Nine regional fishery management survey and investigations projects blanket the entire state and are primarily concerned with inventories of fish populations and their habitat, leading to improved management recommendations.

These projects also include investigations of pollution, development of improved methods for rough fish and aquatic weed control, determination of fish feeding-habitats, introduction of marine species into inland waters, devising improved fish screens, and artificial propagation of white bass.

Evaluation studies include the effects on fish and fishing of commercial aquatic weed removal, results of selective chemical shad control, and experimental habitat manipulation for the benefit of channel catfish.

Since the program started in 1938, Texas has acquired 145,324 acres in nine wildlife management areas. Over 131,000 acres are open to public hunting, according to the senator's informative report.

All of these things outlined in this article have been done in co-operative Federal-State programs, with the federal share (up to 75 per cent) earmarked out of the federal excise taxes you pay on sporting arms, ammunition, and fishing tackle. With your taxes game is being restored, and the sport of fishing and hunting saved for future generations.

Town At Worship

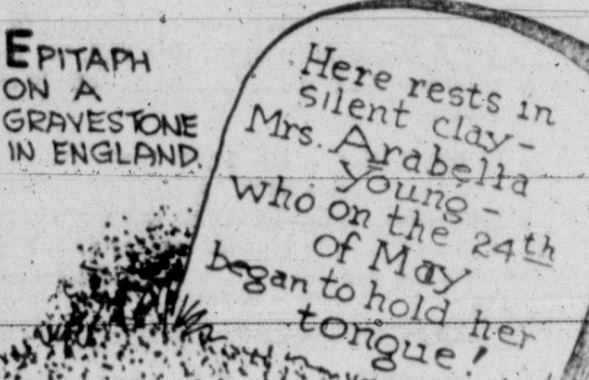

Our whole town is invited to Easter sunrise services Sunday at 6:30 a.m. in First-Christion Church. Sure, that's an early hour. Sure, it'll be easier not to get up in time to celebrate the day. Sure, it'll be easier to forget.

But any community where religious worship is forgotten, where people abandon or neglect their spiritual needs, is a community on the downgrade. The brightest hope for a strong, free America rests on the spiritual health of her people.

See you in church?

Court Decision Hits At Dual Office Candidates

BY VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
AUSTIN, TEX.—District court, city and precinct officials learned the hard way from the Texas Supreme Court that the constitution and laws mean what they say.

Since 1876, the constitution has provided that a federal or state official is not eligible to serve in the Texas Legislature "during the term to which he was elected" to his previous office.

Even resignation before filing will not cure the ineligibility, the high court held in ruling former Bexar County Commissioner Sam Jorrie off the ballot as a House candidate and in refusing to order ex-Fort Worth City Councilman Doyle Willis certified as a Senate candidate.

Jorrie had resigned February 1, and his successor has been named Willis' place was automatically vacated when he filed for the Senate. His successor, too, has been named.

The decisions also will apply to a Port Arthur city councilman, Bob Wyde, and to a Fort Worth constable, O. L. Watson Jr., both of whom had filed in the Democratic primary for legislative seats.

IN A TRAVIS County case, the court held that Justice of the Peace Curtis Lacy could not run for re-election because he had moved out of the precinct, and did not meet the law's standard which is: You must have lived in the precinct, county or district you seek to represent for at least six months before the primary or general election at which you seek to be elected.

Supreme Court also kept in force and earlier decision that slant-hole oil wells can be redrilled or straightened. A Railroad Commission motion for rehearing was refused.

In a San Antonio case, the court agreed with a Court of Civil Appeals ruling that income from a Texas trust could not be spent for establishing a non-medical "clinic-hospital" in California which would be illegal in Texas.

Attorneys for two big discount stores challenged Sunday closing laws. Shoppers World Inc. of Corpus Christi claimed any type of article which could be sold on Sunday if customers sign a certificate that their purchase is necessary to their welfare, health or safety. Spartan stores' attorney attacked the 1961 blue law's constitutionality.

In the Third Court of Civil Appeals, a 1960 ordinance by which LaPorte annexed 12 square miles of territory in Harris County won approval in a decision reversing the trial court.

REDISTRICTING—Houston federal court has set the showdown hearing on congressional redistricting for Friday (March 27).

"We will be ready," said Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr who had anticipated an early setting.

Outcome of the case will determine whether Texas must hold statewide elections for all congressmen or perhaps hastily redraw congressional boundaries in a special session of the Legislature.

U. S. Supreme Court upheld the Houston court's October 19 finding that present districts are unconstitutional drawn in favor of rural areas. It has permitted the state to go back to the lower court, however, to explain problems involved in statewide congressional voting after the regular election process already has been set in motion.

Houston court has held—and the Supreme Court agreed—that districts must be based as nearly equal in population as is feasible. Texas districts, if absolutely equal, would contain 416,000 population each. They now vary from 216,371 to 951,517.

State Democratic administration wants to delay effect of the ruling until the next regular legislative session in 1965.

Five Republican leaders brought the original suit. Twenty-two Republican congressional candidates and Bob Looney, Democratic candidate for Congressman At Large, have intervened on the side immediate redistricting.

CONNALLY THREATENED—The FBI filed charges in Nashville, Tenn., against two women alleged to have telephoned threats on the life of Gov. John Connally the day Jack Ruby was sentenced to death.

Connally told newsmen threats and "vile" letters had increased since the Ruby verdict. Most of the letters and calls come from out of state. Actually, he has been subject to numerous such threats since the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas on November 22, when Connally was seriously wounded.

"WATCHDOG" RECORD—Agriculture Commissioner White claimed a record number of public service inspections conducted by his department which he termed a "watchdog agency" over the past year. He said there were more than 1,400,000 separate acts of inspection.

Inspections ranged from checking the accuracy of gasoline pumps to crops in the field and products at retail outlets. He estimated that on commercial scale corrections alone, his staff saved Texas housewives more than $2,000,000 last year.

APRIL OIL—Texas oil production will be held at 29 per cent of potential during the next month, highest figure for April in five years.

Texas Railroad Commission, which heard predictions of nine major oil purchasers that demand for oil will increase from two to three per cent this year, set April allowable at 2,931,736 barrels daily. March production was 2,983,222 barrels a day, also under a 29 per cent order.

Twenty-four executives, delivering their annual state-of-the-industry reports, said there were 177,800,000 barrels of cured oil on hand in Texas on March 1. This is some 1,480,000 barrels more than they figured desirable.

Railroad Commissioner Jim Langdon reported that substantial progress is being made toward re-organization of the Commission. He also

Wes-Tex Talk

A Look At West Texas Through Editorial Page Excerpts From Its Leading Weekly & Semi-Weekly Newspapers

President Johnson did receive a $585 stereo set, while a U. S. Senator, paid for by an insurance agent who sold him a $200,000 policy, and Baker got into the act.

If you or I bought this kind of insurance, we wouldn't think this an illogical present, and apparently Lyndon Johnson didn't at the time.

Farmer President Eisenhower equipped and stocked his Pennsylvania farm superbly while he was President, almost entirely with gifts from well wishers. In fact, much of Ike's wealth came in gifts.

And yet there was, not is, any reason to doubt Ike's integrity. On the contrary, even his critics stipulate his honesty while challenging his aptitude as a President. These happen to people high in office. Abraham Lincoln's son once got a pony for a gift and it grazed on the White House grounds.

President Johnson has laid out the facts in this issue. He has not attempted to explain away Bobby Baker, who was no credit to anyone in the Senate, and does not need to. This stereo set did not make him President, nor will it unmake him.

COUNTY WIDE NEWS, LITTLEFIELD

Could be that I shouldn't have done it, but I accepted a gift while I was County Judge. It came from a contractor who had completed his work of road building in this county and Commissioners Court had received and approved the stretch of road and approved final payment. Then he came in to thank us for courtesy and gave each member of the Court a Stetson. All five of us accepted. There was nothing pending, so there could not have been any expectancy on the part of the contractor of any favors, and certainly we did not expect to do him any favors. He got the contract by being the low bidder under sealed bids for the job. So my conscience has never hurt me, but it seems that a public officer had better be careful what he accepts from whomsoever.

SHINNERY PHILOSOPHER

He's Envious of U. S. Debt Ceiling

Editor's note: The Shinnery Philosopher, on his Johnson farm on Bone Hollow Creek admires a feat of Congress, his letter this week reveals.

Trying to live within your budget is a problem I guess 99 per cent of the people struggle with. It doesn't make any difference how much money a man makes, his family or his government can always think of some place to put it.

In fact, I know a man who has several sources on income and a neighbor was admiring his situation and said, "Man, you've got it made, you've got money coming in from three or four directions."

And he answered, "yeah, and for every place it's coming in, there are two places where it's going out."

I got to thinking about this when I read an article in a newspaper last night saying Congress has raised the National debt ceiling a gain, and I have often wondered why I can't arrange such system myself.

Here's the way it works actually, the debt ceiling is 285 billion dollars. When we get that far in debt, the law says hold on, you can't go any further. But every year along about this time the government runs out of money, and Congress has to raise the ceiling so it can pay its bills.

Well, it doesn't actually raise it, what it does is say, "I'm not saying the ceiling is too high, I don't know how high the nation can stand for it to go, it's pretty wealthy country, although I think maybe we could cut down somewhere, except the cut ought to be in some other part of the country, not around here. Any right-thinking person knows the place to cut the national debt is in New Mexico, not in Texas."

At any rate, I wouldn't mind living within my budget permanently if I could just find some way to raise it temporarily every few months, for the next 15 or 20 years.

Yours Faithfully,
J. A.

TEXAS AGRICULTURE

Tests May Trim Cost of Cotton

BY JOHN C. WHITE
TEXAS COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

Cotton is still regarded as king in the south but it is one of the most expensive crops to produce. The first breakthrough of this economic barrier may have been achieved recently during experiments on the High Plains of Texas.

The first unorthodox step was in planting the rows only nine inches apart on irrigated land. Purpose of the nine inch middles was to determine how much cultivation could be eliminated. Cultivation during the growing season to get rid of weeds is a major cost item in cost production.

The initial tests were conducted at the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Lubbock. Cotton was planted in the nine-inch rows, instead of the usual 40 inches, and then an application was made of a pre-emergence herbicide.

On this first experiment, a bumper two bales were taken from a one-acre plot without a single cultivation.

In another test plot, cotton planted in the usual 40-inch rows yielded 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 bales per acre. The weeds in this plot were controlled by several machine cultivations and by hand hoeing.

Weeds didn't stand a chance on the narrow-row plots, according to observers. The emergence herbicide controlled the early season weed growth. As the season progressed the closely spaced plants shaded out weeds that emerged.

The narrow-row cotton was planted by grain drill like wheat. Normally, about 30,000 cotton plants are grown on an acre but on this plot more than 200,000 plants per acre were permitted to stand. Each plant produced only three or four bolls but the dense planting offset

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery

Stops Itch - Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain - without surgery. In some cases, while only relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most kinds of hemorrhoids were so thoroughly shrunk that subsequent statements like "Hemorrhoids have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Diphenyl-2-Dimethyl-1-Piperonyl-3-Pyridylmethane). This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation 98. At all drug counters.

Chevrolet will go to any length to make you happy

Things have changed a lot since a Chevy was only a Chevy. Especially your ideas of what you want a Chevy to be.

So now you have the Jet-smooth Chevrolet—17½ feet of pure luxury, bumper to bumper. The size makes it a luxury car. But not the price.

Or you can choose the thrifty Chevy II, a 15½-foot family car with all kinds of passenger and luggage space.

This year, your choice might be the new 16-foot-plus Chevelle, sized to fit nicely between Chevrolet and Chevy II (and between parking meters, with five whole feet left over).

Then, too, there's the sporty 15-foot Corvair, so right for so many people (you girls, in particular) that we've never touched an inch of it. And finally, Corvette—still 14½ feet and still too much for any true sports-car lover to say no to.

The long and short of it is, you don't have to go to any length to find exactly the kind of car you want. Just see the five different lines of cars at your Chevrolet dealer's.

THE GREAT HIGHWAY PERFORMERS Chevrolet • Chevelle • Chevy II • Corvair • Corvette

Fashions Reviewed For '29 Study Club

Carousel of Fashion was the program topic of the 1921 Study Club Friday, afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. H. Ratliff.

Fashions of the "gay nineties," "roaring twenties," and "sixties," were modeled and discussed by Mrs. W. K. Martin, Mrs. Ratliff and Mrs. Doyle Hester. Music of the periods were also discussed and played on the piano.

Mrs. Martin was dressed in a long, black lace dress over red taffeta with red roses and feathers in her hair, representing the 1900's. She described the old St. James Hotel, built in 1885, and cowboys of the era in and around Colorado City.

She told of two early day citizens, W. T. (Tubby) Mullins and his sister, Mary (Mrs. Robert Terrell). Mullins was owner of "The Clipper," a newspaper published in Lorraine at one time, Mrs. Martin said.

Songs of the times, which Mrs. Martin played on the piano, included La Paloma, Yellow Rose of Texas, Camp-town Races, Black Hawk Waltz, After Brown Jug, and Little Brown Jug. Another selection was To A Wild Rose, written by Edward McDowell. Mrs. Martin is a niece of the late Mrs. Terrell.

The "Roaring Twenties" was the subject of Mrs. Ratliff's talk as she appeared in a street-length dress of black lace tied at the hip with a sash of red. She wore red roses in her hair and carried a small black drawstring bag.

Mrs. Ratliff told of the houses and their furnishings in the period from 1920 to 1930. She also described the dress of children, long black stockings, and little boys in short pants. Boys were not allowed to wear long pants until they were fourteen years old, she said.

As she told her story of the twenties, Mrs. Martin played piano selections of the times. Smiling, I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles, Long, Long Trail, Pack All Your Troubles, Sweet Genevieve, Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland.

Mrs. Hester was attired in a fashion of today as she presented the sixties. She wore a black dress and hat trimmed in light green and white with green shoes and white gloves.

She mentioned new styles of the time and named some of the current trends in music, including the Beatles. Mrs. Martin played 76 Trombones and Love Is A Many Splendored Thing.

Mrs. Hester concluded her part of the program by mentioning the sobering and sad- dening effect on the sixties of the death of our president, John F. Kennedy.

Mrs. W. W. Rhode was program leader for the day. Next meeting of the club will be April 3 with Mrs. J. T. Peit- dozier as hostess. Mrs. Boyd Dozier and Mrs. J. F. Quinney will discuss books and libraries.

set this loss and helped raise the total yield.

The close row spacing produced plants that were more ideally adapted to stripper harvesting than plants grown in 40-inch rows. The closely spaced plants were short and had few branches and thin stems.

The experiments were conducted primarily for the High Plains of Texas and Oklahoma where stripper harvesters are in fairly common use. These machines harvest cotton by stripping both mature and immature bolls from the plant.

Both the narrow-row and the wide-row plots in the experiment were sprinkler irrigated three times with three inches of water. The water activated the herbicide and aided seed germination. Both plots received the same fertilizer treatment—80 pounds of nitrogen and 40 pounds of phosphorus per acre applied before planting.

Close plantings may not work in the humid areas of Texas and the South where boll rot is a problem, however. These growing conditions may be tested by this method later. And tests have not yet been made on the harvested cotton's spinning quality.
