Bank Assets Up to $21 Million High

Combined assets of Wellington's two banks have climbed to $21,829,098, not only the highest point for this quarter in banking history, but more than $3.35 million above assets a year ago.

These figures were revealed in the calls made by the Federal Reserve Bank and State Banking Commissioner as of October 15. The call a year ago was also a mid-month call, October 17.

Deposits in the Wellington State Bank and City State Bank total $20,010,222.84. By comparison, deposits are more than $3 million over the figure a year ago, and $8 million over the third quarter call for 1972, when deposits were only $12,067,041.95.

Figures are down a little from the mid-year, 1974 call, but it is to be considered that there has been no significant income, since then. Wheat added a little appreciable to the figure this year.

Deposits also are down by about 5 per cent, but the cotton and grain sorghum harvest will send these figures back up.

The deposits and assets reflect a steady third quarter rise over the last 7-year period, the figures show.

Deposits revealed October 15 show an increase of nearly $13 million since the rise started, and around $10 million since 1969 -- five years ago. One must bear in mind that these are third-quarter figures, never the high point of the year financially in the county.

Of this $20 million deposit figure, depositors have $6,195,152.76 in demand deposits -- the working capital of the farmers, ranchers, business men, and employees of the county.

But their caution money-wise is shown by the time and savings deposits -- those that draw interest -- exceed demand deposits by more than two million. The time deposit figure now is $8,373,476.64.

Loans and discounts at the October 15 call totaled $11,650,977.32. These are up around two million above the figure a year ago.

Undivided profits stand at $199,922.92.

Ervin Emmert New Ministerial Alliance Head

The Rev. Ervin Emmert, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, was elected president of the Ministerial Alliance during a recent meeting.

Other officers are the Rev. Jim Boswell of First United Methodist Church, vice president; the Rev. Carl McKinney of the Assembly of God, secretary-treasurer; and the Rev. Roy Collins, reporter.

The Ministerial Alliance will be in charge of the Collingsworth County Bloodmobile visit in November, and members conduct services at Thomas Nursing Center and at the National Guard unit.

Charles Waugh, minister of First Christian Church, emphasized that all churches in the county are welcome to become a part of the ministerial alliance.

"BUBBLE, BUBBLE, TOIL AND TROUBLE"

Screches and howls came from the Halloween Carnival Spook House. Vapor boiled up from the witch's cauldron. Skeletons dangled and the place was thick with cobwebs. But here is living proof that some witches are young and lovely. The other 364 1/2 days, this is Dana Jameson. The carnival was sponsored by Elementary School PTO as its only fund raising project.

Skyrockets to Meet Irish There Friday

When the Skyrockets travel to Shamrock Friday night, November 1, it will be the meeting with their oldest football rival. Since the sport began in Wellington, there is no other team the Skyrockets have met as many times, or as consistently. It is a rivalry that began long before the Rockets were the Red and White -- it was when they were the Black and Gold.

"The Irish will be the biggest team we play all year, as to size," said Coach James Williams. "They have 6 boys who weigh over 200 pounds."

Shamrock defeated Claude 34-6 last week, and this is the only game they have won so far except for the game Clarendon had to forfeit due to having an ineligible player.

The Irish backfield is big too, with the efficient quarterback, Vinyard, as one of the better ball throwers in the district.

Their record does not tell the whole story. The Irish have played some good football. They met Childress in the rain at Childress and lost by only 13-9, and, in fact, led the Bobcats at halftime.

"The Friday game will be homecoming at Shamrock and they will be up for us and to win. We will have to play real good football," said Coach Williams.

Shamrock runs out of a tight backfield, close to the line, they run in the middle a lot and have an unusually quick hand-off.

The Skyrockets came out of the Silverton game a little more battered than in the

Pennington Lists Five Drilling Sites

Of the 20 intentions to drill new oil and gas wells filed last week with the Pampa office of the Texas Railroad Commission, five are from northeast Collingsworth County.

W.L. Pennington, Wichita Falls, will drill all five. The drilling block was worked up by Harold Rogers and Patsy Brown, then transferred to Mr. Pennington. This is in an area already proved by El Paso Natural Gas Co. several years ago and is part of the East Panhandle Field.

Mr. Pennington has had many years experience in the oil business.

It is understood here that drilling will begin after January 1, 1975.

The five locations include: W.L. Pennington, No. 1082 Emmert (160 acres) 760

County to Vote in General Election on Tuesday, Nov. 5

Collingsworth voters will go to the polls in the general election Tuesday, November 5, and along with other voters of Texas to name a governor and other state officials, a United States Representative from the 13th Congressional District and a member of the state board of education from the same district.

No other district or local offices are contested.

Governor Dolph Briscoe who received over 80 per cent of the county vote in the Democratic Primary is expected to lead the ticket again in the General Election and Bob Bullock, running for his first term as comptroller, is expected to run far ahead of his opponent Nick Rowe as are several other Democratic candidates for state office in their races.

Interest here centers on the U.S. Representative's race, with Democrat Jack Hightower challenging the incumbent, Republican Bob Price.

Few candidates in recent history have made as many visits to Collingsworth as has Senator Hightower. Some of these were drop-in visits to contact key workers and shake hands.

Congressman Price was here for the Collingsworth County Fair Parade.

In the Republican column, only Congressman Price has visited the county in so far as is known, Jim Granberry of Lubbock, candidate for governor, spoke at a chamber of commerce banquet here several years ago.

Of the 9 state candidates on the Republican slate, four are from the Panhandle, including Mr. Granberry, but none of these has campaigned here. Others are Tom Cole and Robert Holt from Amarillo and Zack Fisher from Memphis.

Tuesday evening, 31 absentee votes had been cast, according to Mrs. Carman Lindley, county-district clerk.

Black Cattle Cause Three More Wrecks

Three vehicles, traveling on Collingsworth highways at night, collided with black steers and a bull in separate accidents during the week end, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

This is three more in the whole series of collisions between vehicles and cattle which have accounted for almost all of the county's out of town traffic accidents in recent months.

Johnnie Linville, Jr., coming from the west, ran over a big black bald face steer about 1:00 a.m. Sunday, October 27, on state highway 203, 2.9 miles west of Quail, the sheriff said. His family was with him.

Linville notified the sheriff, Jerry Settle, who serves as a special deputy, was on

Large Lease Block Taken Southwest of Wellington

Mayfair Minerals, Inc., a company new in this area, has taken oil and gas leases in a block located in southwest Collingsworth, as shown in filings in the office of Carman Lindley, county-district clerk. Leases totaling 16,598 acres were filed during the week ending Friday, October 25, and other leases are known to have been taken in that area.

The east boundary of the block appears to be on a line south of Wellington and most of the leases signed so far are south of Buck Creek.

Mayfair Minerals, Inc., has been well recommended to some of the lessors in so far as their business operations are concerned. The company has headquarters in McAllen, in the Rio Grande Valley, with offices also in Abilene. The southwest Collingsworth block was put together out of the Abilene office.

Several of those leasing land to Mayfair have reported they received $2.00 bonus payment with $1.00 rental per year on the standard Texas 10-year lease.

Leases filed during the last week have been from:

Mrs. Zettie Dennis Baker of Memphis: section 30, block 14; and the W/2 section 29, block 14.

Sure to provide a big evening of fun and entertainment, the show will include a

The girls race, in which girls ride the live donkeys from one end of the gym to the other, dismount, feed their steed crackers, remount and to the starting point.

There will be a girls basketball game and men's game, as well as a trick mule act.

The animals are furnished by Godfrey Donkeys, Inc., of Crescent, Oklahoma.

Tonsillectomies by Groups Performed

Six tonsillectomies in one family and three in another were performed in Collingsworth General Hospital Tuesday, October 22. The youngsters ranged in age from 6 to 13 years.

All nine boys and girls were reported doing fine. The six children belong to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Benton, and include Rosa Baker, 13, Tawana Baker, 11, Teresa Benton, 9, James Benton, 8, and six-year-old twins, Debra and Debbie Benton. The trio having tonsillectomies are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murdock. These are Robbie, 13; LeDonna, 12; and Renee 10.

The tonsillectomies were performed by Dr. David Fried of Altus, Oklahoma, and Dr. Chas. B. Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sullivan will be in charge of the chili, cooking in a big iron pot at Pioneer Park. The trail ride is due to reach here about 6:00 p.m. and the chili will be served shortly after this.

Mr. Sullivan is famous locally as an outdoor cook, and he assures the chili will be from the best Collingsworth County beef. It will be served with home made corn bread.

There will be plenty of old-time musical entertainment at the park, said Mrs. Holton. Entertainers will include Mr. and Mrs. John Alf Thomas, who play guitars, and the Rev. and Mrs. Carl McKinney and son, who play the guitar and sing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wood are in charge of the highly successful ticket sales. These must be bought not later than Thursday evening, October 31. Tickets are also available from the Samnorwood Lions Club at Quail.

This is for the entire family, Mr. and Mrs. Holton urge. Last year, the first time the trail drive was held, there were riders from three years to those crowding 90. They will be back this year. It is family entertainment, and the more who come along, the better the trail ride will be, it was pointed out.

All proceeds from the trail ride and chili supper will go to benefit the Collingsworth County museum.

patrol and answered the call in the deputy's car. A short distance from the Linville accident, he also struck a solid black steer standing in the highway, about 2:00 a.m. Mrs. Settle was riding with her husband.

Sheriff Rainey, about two miles behind Settle, got to both accidents without problem.

Friday night, John Alf Thomas, returning in his pickup from Lubbock, struck a black bull .9 mile inside the Collingsworth County line on FM 1547 near Memphis. He was riding alone.

None of those involved in these three accidents was injured, however all three animals were killed.

Damage to the Linville car was considerable, and damage to the deputy's car was a little more than $800, Sheriff Rainey reported.

Thomas said he had a garage estimate of $558 on the damage to his pickup. "We've been putting cattle up off the road all fall, especially lately. We put them in the first place we can get them into -- just to get them off the highway," said Sheriff Rainey.

"I wish landowners would check their fences, and that dove hunters and anyone else going through a gate would close it after them. They will be back this year. It is family entertainment, and the more who come along, the better the trail ride will be, it was pointed out.

The sheriff again warned drivers traveling at night. Cattle on a highway are hard enough to see at any time after dark, and when a black animal is involved, almost invariably the driver is too close before he even sees it to keep from hitting it.

LET'S KEEP GOVERNOR DOLPH BRISCOE

The people of Texas have spoken loud and clear about the type of stewardship they want in Austin.

They want honest government — and they have it.

They want government which is both responsible and compassionate — and they have it.

They want a Governor who is concerned, a Governor who works for unity and progress, a Governor who can and will use his office for service to the many and not favors to a few.

They have that kind of Governor and let's re-elect Dolph Briscoe.

The Wellington Club has begun affiliation with the Texas Motorcycle Roadriders Association, Mr. McAlister said. This will be the first club in Area E, which includes the Panhandle and South Plains, to be affiliated with TMRA.

Repeal Gas Tax on Public Cars—Bullock

Fort Worth -- Bob Bullock, Democratic nominee for Comptroller, Monday called for exempting city, school and county-owned vehicles from the state gasoline tax as one small step toward helping local government.

"It's stupidity to charge school buses a state gasoline tax on one hand and worry about better school financing on the other," Bullock said in an address to the Texas Municipal League's state convention.

Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Farris Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Gollighugh, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sweat, Mr. and Mrs. John Alf Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McAlister, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Martin, Jimmy Reynolds, and Mr. and Mrs. Wade Welch.

Bullock noted that "the school house, the courthouse and city hall aren't on the property tax rolls and they don't pay sales tax; so, it may come as a surprise that we hit them with gasoline taxes."

"I've heard of robbing Peter to pay Paul, but it's ridiculous to put a state gas tax on a county maintainer going out to work on a county road," he said.

Bullock said there is "ample precedent for this relief," noting that the Legislature in 1941 authorized lower motor fuels taxes for private transit systems operating under city franchises.

Transit systems get a penny break on the five-cent a gallon gasoline tax and a half-cent break on the 6.5 cent diesel tax. Like private consumers, local governments pay the full taxes. He said a total exemption of all publicly-owned vehicles would cost the state $14 million a year, "a drop in the bucket for the state, but just like money from home for our local governments."

"You can bet your boots that vehicles operated in Texas by the federal government don't pay state gas taxes. The least we can do is give the same relief to our own," Bullock said.

He said the $14 million loss to the state would include a $3.5 million drop in gas tax money for the public school fund but that "this

Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

Many families have found a better way to remember departed loved ones by donating flowers after funeral services to churches instead of letting them dry out at the cemetery. Others send them to hospitals and rest homes so that many may appreciate them. Another practice has been to donate new books to the local library in memory of the deceased instead of spending money on flowers. Old, broken clocks and watches need not sit in the cellar and collect dust, even if irreparable. First dismantle the clock then use your imagination to create interesting sculptures or art objects with the dissembled parts. Always forgetting somebody's birthday, wedding anniversary or some other special event? Try taking a calendar at the beginning of the year and going over every month, filling in those important dates. It's quite a help and spares you embarrassing moments.

Mrs. Joe Wood Speaks at B&PW on "Women, Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow"

The Business and Professional Women's Club met October 8, in Bura Handley Community Center with Mrs. Zook Thomas, president, presiding.

Mrs. Lonnie Neeley, program chairman, introduced Mrs. Joe Wood who brought the program "Women-Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow".

Mrs. Wood stated, "Yesterday, the struggle was for educational opportunities and the right to enter business and the professions. As civilization progressed, it was observed that all the people, men and women alike, must be fitted to bear a share in the nation's support and betterment. Women demanded new privileges -- higher or professional education, the privilege of earning their own living outside the home, of competing in factories, business, or the professions on an equal basis with men, the right to control their own property, and most important of all, a voice in making the laws that control their own well-being and that of their homes and children. "All these privileges that women of yesterday were demanding are ours today. "They were and still are important to all of us. The woman of tomorrow? I think all of us look forward to tomorrow because of the faith that the future holds more opportunities, more accomplishments, and more happiness for women. Because each day that I live I almost can always say that that day was better than the day before."

Mrs. Pearl Harwell led the collect and Mrs. L.C. Sweat led the Pledge of Allegiance. Reports were from Frances Williams, chairman of committee for the progressive dinner to be held November 12 were made. More plans will be revealed at a later date.

Mrs. Dudley Phipps, program director, told of plans for observance of National Business and Professional Women's Week October 20 to 26. A tea in the County Library Thursday, October 24 will be hosted by the local club for this observance.

Mrs. Truman Estes, civic participation chairman, pointed out that the No. 1 project for B&PW Clubs this year is for the Cancer Crusade. A special meeting concerning this project was held in Childress Thursday, October 17 at a dinner with Mrs. Hazel Crawley, a former Wellington resident and now residing in Amarillo as the speaker. Mrs. Crawley is B&PW State Civic Participation Chairman.

It's that time again...

...time to start getting your home ready for the winter months ahead. By starting now and checking your home for those energy leaks, you'll stay warmer this winter and conserve energy. Take a few minutes and check the following items to make sure your home will be winterized:

- 1 Insulation is most important... and can pay for itself in energy consumption savings. The usual recommendation is 6 inches of insulation for the attic and 4 inches for outside walls. Check FHA requirements for further information.
- 2 Weatherstrip doors and windows, and caulk cracks and crevices to prevent drafts and the loss of heated air.
- 3 Maintain heating equipment for maximum efficiency by having it checked by a competent serviceman.
- 4 Dirty filters cause heating equipment to work harder and use more fuel. Check your filters every 30 days. If they're the permanent type, clean them according to the manufacturer's directions. If they're the disposable type, replace them at least every 90 days.
- 5 Don't be a "thermostat jiggler". Turning the thermostat up or down doesn't cause the equipment to heat or cool faster. It simply works longer to satisfy the setting. The national conservation program calls for settings of no more than 68°F. in heating weather. If you are going to be away for several days, lower the temperature to 60°F.

- 6 Don't place curtains, furniture or other objects in front of heating registers or return air openings. This blocks the flow of warm air.
- 7 Open blinds and draperies on sunny days to help heat your home during the day but close them at night to help reduce heat loss.
- 8 Keep the fireplace damper closed when the fireplace is not in use.
- 9 Storm doors and windows are not customarily used in this part of the country, but they do reduce heat loss. As a temporary substitute, a sheet of clear plastic stapled or tacked over screen doors or windows works well.
- 10 Keep the opening and closing of doors to a minimum to reduce the loss of warm air.

Wellington eighth and seventh grade football teams will meet their counterparts from Shamrock Thursday, October 31.

The Firecracker team will be played at Powell Field at 6:00 p.m., while the seventh grade travels to Shamrock to play at 4:30.

Wellington has not lost a game this year. Shamrock has lost only one -- to the Firecrackers by a score of 18-8 in the first outing of the year, played at Shamrock.

"We expect a lot tougher game this time," Coach Dollar said.

Wellington Seventh Grade will also be playing Shamrock for the second time this season. Shamrock won 18-0 the first time out.

"We think we're going to take them this time," said Seventh Grade coach Ronny Glenn.

Ground was broken recently for a new West Campus agricultural complex at Texas A&M University. The first two buildings of the new campus will be a 165,000 square foot Animal Sciences and Food Science Building and a 153,000 square foot Soil and Crop Sciences and Entomology Center. Tentative plans for the new campus also call for an Agricultural Administration Building and other agricultural science centers. Student enrollment in A&M's College Agriculture now totals 4,200, three times that of 10 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Lay of Carrigo Springs visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sweat. The women are cousins.

Plans Begun For New Texas 4-H Center

BROWNWOOD -- With the construction of the new Texas 4-H Center in full swing, plans are now being laid for effective leadership training programs to be conducted at the facility once its doors swing open next spring.

Heading up this program planning effort will be Marshall E. Crouch, who has served on the 4-H staff of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for 11 years. Crouch will be located at Brownwood to serve as initial planning director for the Texas 4-H Center. The state 4-H and youth specialist will be temporarily officed at the Chamber of Commerce, 521 South Baker, in Brownwood until the new Center office facilities are ready.

"It's very important to begin planning effective training programs for 4-H youth and adult leaders so that this new facility will be put to immediate use as soon as construction is complete," said Dr. John E. Hutchison, Extension Service director. "The new 4-H Center will be second-to-none in the nation and will have a significant impact on youth and adult leadership training for all of

Gonzales Heads FTA Chapter

The Wellington chapter of Future Teachers of America completed organization, elected officers and got acquainted with this year's sponsors during the two October meetings.

Sammy Gonzales was elected president; Lucy Sullivan, vice president; Denise Archer, secretary; Shane Tarver, treasurer and David Null, reporter.

Entertainment at the meetings included skits by various students.

In a serious vein, Sally Tarver told of her trip to the Farm Bureau Youth Seminar at Baylor University, Waco, during the summer.

A guest speaker was Mrs.

Joe Woods, former Quail teacher, who told of her teaching experiences.

Plans for the immediate future include attending the District FTA convention and visiting the campus of West Texas State University, Canyon, November 5. This will be the first time the entire chapter has attended a district convention, and the students are looking forward to it with enthusiasm.

Cloud Seeding Again Studied To Up Rainfall

LUBBOCK -- There is a potential for increasing rainfall in semi-arid West Texas through weather modification -- but it is a potential with limited opportunities for application an international gathering of scientists were told today (Oct. 15) at Texas Tech University.

The scientists, specialists on semi-arid lands, are participants in a symposium, Frontiers of the Semi-Arid World, sponsored by Texas Tech's International Center for Arid and Semi-Arid Land Studies and the Consortium of Arid Lands Institutions.

T.B. Smith, vice president, Meteorology Research, Inc. discussed two weather modification projects near the West Texas cities of San Angelo and Big Spring.

There is considerable evidence that treatment of clouds with hygroscopic material or silver iodide, under appropriate conditions, may produce increased amounts of rainfall, Smith said.

Hygroscopic seeding involves the generation of large drops in clouds through the collision and coalescence of smaller cloud droplets induced by hygroscopic materials placed in the clouds, Smith explained. The other process, using silver iodide, requires the existence of ice crystals which serve as preferred centers for large particle growth.

A hygroscopic seeding test program has been completed at San Angelo with promising, but non-significant results which deserve further experimentation, according to Smith.

Principal evidence for silver iodide seeding effects in inducing precipitation comes from an accumulation of experimental data in various parts of the world, Smith said. "Evidence for hygroscopic treatment effects is more limited and less definitive, but comes from tests carried out in South Dakota and San Angelo.

In general, opportunities for weather modification in West Texas are limited in number. Suitable clouds are present on only a relatively small fraction of the total number of days.

The proportion of days with seedable clouds during the summer in West Texas ranges from about 15 to 30 per cent," Smith said. On about half these days, the natural rainfall expected from individual clouds would be around 10 acre-feet per cloud. On the remaining days, opportunities exist for significant amounts of precipitation to be produced by seeding.

"Although treatment of clouds appears to produce additional rainfall, the impact of the additional rain distributed over the total project area may not be large," Smith said. "Since individual cloud rainfall amounts frequently tend to be rather small, efforts should be concentrated on treatment techniques which might lead to the organization of cloud systems which would be more efficient rain producers.

The symposium will continue with technical sessions through Oct. 17. It will conclude Oct. 18 and 19 with workshops and field trips related to semi-aridity.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Scott and Lisa of Morton spent last week end with his mother, Mrs. Ray Scott. From here they went to visit another daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gray of Grandview, Mo. Mrs. Gray will be remembered as Donna Scott.

Roy Canada was chosen vice president, Delbert White secretary-treasurer, and Jack Neeley, clerk. These four will serve as members of the board along with Clarence Blevins and Z.J. Neeley.

Members also made plans for improvement of the roads in the cemetery, and arranged for other improvement and maintenance.

All this will be done with volunteer labor and donations, Mr. White explained. Anyone wishing to make a donation may contact a member of the board or mail it to:

Delbert White, Secretary-Treasurer
Box 26, Route 1
Quail, Texas 79251

Mr. White requested donations from former Quail residents now living away, as well as from those still in the area.

"We take care of the whole cemetery and there is no charge. It is strictly voluntary," he said.

Thirty-four Complete Driver License School

Thirty-four area people completed the drivers license school sponsored here recently by the Department of Public Safety and Community Action Center.

Of those 18 who did not have drivers licenses, 10 have already passed their written tests and several of those passed their driving test and now have received their licenses.

Don Hatcher of Pampa, safety officer with the Department of Public Safety, taught the course and it was pointed out that the purpose of these schools is to help persons without drivers licenses to pass the test.

For those who already have drivers licenses, this was a refresher course, and others took it to learn the new traffic signs and symbols, as well as other changes coming up, according to Mrs. Tessie Burba, CAC director.

Lions Complete New Park Sign

Wellington Lions recently completed installation of the sign at the county's Pioneer Park on Salt Fork River north of town, Boss Lion Mike Smith has announced.

Co-operating with the club in this project were two of the contractors working on the new Highway 83 bridge across Salt Fork, Austin Bridge Co., and Fyfee Concrete Co.

Mr. Smith praised these companies for their co-operation in what is a completely local project.

The Wellington Lions also recently installed a new door at the Boy Scout Hut in Ellison Park. This is a metal door, replacing an old wooden door that had worn out, the boss lion said.

Amarillo Hosts Cutting Horse Contest Finals

AMARILLO* TX. -- The National Cutting Horse Association will hold its 1974 Finals here on October 30th, 31st and November 1st, at the Tri State Fair-grounds Coliseum. According to Zack T. Wood, Jr., NCHA Secretary, the "World's Series" of cutting horse events will draw 100 of the finest horses in competition sanctioned by the NCHA and sponsored by the Agribusiness Committee of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce. Rusty Tinnin and Bill Davis Co-Chair the event.

Culminating almost 600 contest throughout the past year, the Finals will name the World Champion Cutting Horse, Cutting Horse Stallion, Mare and Gelding and the World Champion non-professional riders.

Based on added money and total pay out (some $805,000 in 1973) the show is the largest of the year for the aristocrats of working horses which follow tradition born on cattle ranches decades ago. Only $1000 separates the top 4 contenders for 1974.

Cutting horses are highly trained animals (mostly Quarter Horses but also including Arabians, Morgans, Paints and Thoroughbreds) who separate a given animal from a herd and prevent its return to the group. The contest, preformed on a ranch or in an arena, pits horse and rider against 15 to 20 head of cattle with a success time limit of two and a half minutes. Working without rider assistance, the horse obtains the desired challenge from one head of stock and after a "halt" signal from the rider, re-enters the herd to "work" another animal.

Deck's Didactics

—by Deskins Wells

SOME FRIENDS of mine were overheard to remark that this election is cut and dried. Maybe it is in our particular area if enough people turn out and vote. That is always a very big "if" in races that cover a whole state or a whole district. Complacency and over-confidence have lost many a political race and in some cases those political losses have changed the course of history.

SO MAKE your plans now to get out and vote on November 5 and remind your friends to vote.

FRED COX wants to know if frost will hold off until November 15. Wish I could give him an affirmative answer for the date of the first hard freeze can be important to many cotton growers. An early freeze could have a bearing on some of the fields that have been planted in milo.

AN EARLY FROST is not the only weather condition to think about. Hurd C. Willett, an authority on long range forecasts is quoted in the U.S. News and World Report as saying that all of the United States east of the Continental Divide will have a colder winter than usual. The Great Lakes Region and eastward including all of New England will be extremely cold. Only the states west of the Continental Divide will have a normal winter.

THIS IS something else for the hard pressed cattleman to worry about. It means a supply of bundles, hay, or high protein should be obtained in advance for the snow may prevent them from using the wheat fields at crucial periods. It is not too comforting to think about.

NEXT FRIDAY the Sky-rockets travel to Shamrock to play their ancient rivals. The teams should be about equal. Each team has played Wheeler in fairly even games with the Rockets winning and the Irish losing. If it is not cloudy it should be a beautiful night for a football game.

THE FIRST week in October I wrote that we would see two full moons in October, one on the 1st and the 31st. I sent the column to the office with the notation -- check this -- with both Oct. 30 and Oct. 31. It caused quite a bit of searching for some of the people on The Leader staff.

THE REASON for the check was that we have two big calendars in the newspaper office. Both list two full moons in October of 1974 which is a celestial phenomena that does not occur except at rare intervals of time. The Samuel Bingham calendar is distributed by a firm that has been making rubber rollers for printing firms since 1826.

The Bingham calendar listed the last second full moon in October of 1974 as coming on Oct. 30, as did a Cardui calendar from Parsons Drug. The Wells & Wells calendar listed the second full moon as being Oct. 31. After some study of the encyclopedia and almanacs, The Leader staff decided on the later date and that was what was printed.

IF THE weather had been clear on both nights there would have been no discernable difference. Unless it

TSTI Skill Classes Enroll Over 100

More than 100 Wellington area residents are enrolled in the Texas State Technical Institute Special Skills Program offered here this semester.

Six courses are offered, and those successfully completing them will receive a certificate and continuing education credit from TSTI. All are evening classes.

Mrs. J.B. King is teaching advanced typing each Monday evening and beginner typing each Tuesday at the court house.

Mrs. Lorraine Parker is instructor for the advanced bookkeeping class each Monday and beginner bookkeeping on Mondays. These are held at the Community Action Center.

Upholstery classes are held each Tuesday and Friday by Mrs. Juanita Richey at her shop, 709 West Avenue. Clothing classes are taught by Mrs. Gary Killian each Thursday at the Home Economics Department of Wellington High School.

These are sponsored jointly by TSTI and the Collingsworth County Community Action Program, with Mrs. Tessie Burba as Mrs. McGill.

More Fresno Students Named

Grover Graham was a student in the Fresno School when the picture that appeared in the October 23 issue of The Wellington Leader was made.

He was able to supply all the names of students who could not be identified -- including his own -- with the exception of the given names of two.

The picture was found in the Wellington dump ground and turned over to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Nunnelley, who made most of the identifications.

Those who kept copies of the paper can complete their identification. Here are the identifications Mr. Graham made:

No. 1 Pauline Jordan; No. 36 Max Stansell; No. 38 Grover Graham. No. 45 Leon Stansell. No. 53 Oleta Coker. No. 56. Nellie Sue Clement. No. 62, a tentative identification. W.C. Williams; No. 63. Neal Stout, No. 66. a White boy; No. 71. James Crane; No. 73. Tommy Sexton and No. 74. a Colson boy.

Johnny Graham, sister of Grover Graham, is barely visible back of No. 51 and 52. clears Thursday night there won't be anyone in this area who will see the full moon at all.

ON TO Shamrock Friday and to the polls on Tuesday.

Church of Dodson Holds Missionary Zone Rally

The Nazarene Church of Dodson will hold a Missionary Zone Rally Friday, November 8, at 7:30 p.m. The guest speaker will be a missionary from Brazil. The District superintendent from Lubbock, Dr. Lyle Eckley, will also be present.

Dick Hamiltons Move to Lubbock

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hamilton and family are moving to Lubbock within a short time, where he will re-enter the teaching profession.

Mr. Hamilton was a coach, junior high coach and principal from 1966 until last spring, when he resigned to go into other work. The couple has five children, Glenn, Marilyn, Janice, Monica and Christopher.

They have sold their home at 1709 Ellison to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sanford.

Mrs. Georgia Bartlett returned recently from visiting with her sister, Mrs. Tincy Miracle in Granville, Oklahoma.

Classes will continue through December 20, then will be dismissed for the Christmas holidays and resumed in January.

Faith Baptist To Hear Quartet Sunday Night

The Lighthouse Quartet will be in concert at Faith Baptist Church Sunday, November 3, at 6:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Elvis Pitts, pastor.

This quartet includes Tom Wilkins, Truett Holland, Joe Lennon of Dodson and Hugh Bledsoe. Mrs. Gary Archer is accompanist.

The group will present the entire evening service, Rev. Pitts said.

The public is invited, the pastor added. Visiting over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Walter McGill, Kim and Jason Carl of Kress. They visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B.E. McKinney and Mrs. Lorene McGill.

Visiting with Rev. and Mrs. Steve Dolloff, Tressa and Todd over the weekend were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Avis Bilberry of Spur.

Child Care Workshop Here On November 8

A workshop for child care attendants, coming from three other area towns, will be held at the Community Action Center Friday, November 8, Mrs. Tessie Burba, director, has announced. It will begin at 10:00 a.m.

The instructor will be Miss Linda Patton, child development specialist for the Department of Welfare in Lubbock.

The workshop is planned primarily for those working in day care centers, but others interested may attend. Its purpose is to teach these how to help children develop at their normal pace.

Towns represented will be Pampa, Shamrock, Clarendon and Wellington. The workshop is sponsored by the Community Action Program.

Merchants at Spring Market

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hatch of Hatch Dry Goods, and Miss Rose Shadid and Miss Marie Shadid of The Fair, attended the spring market which opened in Dallas Sunday, October 27.

This was held at the Apparel Mart.

Texas manufactures of ready to wear staged a special style show Sunday evening, and children's fashions were featured in another show. This is in addition to the regular women's and misses style shows given from time to time during the show.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatch returned home Tuesday night, while the Shadid sisters and their brother, John Shadid of Memphis, returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R.T. Savage and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Mauldin have just returned from a fishing trip at Port Aransas.

Clyde Rogers Dies in Arkansas

A former Wellington man, W. Clyde Rogers, 77, died at Nashville, Ark., Wednesday, October 23 of an apparent heart attack. He was the father of Mrs. C.O. Wilkerson.

Born at Nashville, he and his family lived at Paris before coming to Wellington about 1940. He was a barber early in life, and while living here he farmed and also worked for Homer Holton, Gulf consignee.

Funeral services for Mr. Rogers were conducted at Latimer Funeral Chapel Friday at 10:00 a.m. with Rev. Bob Boren, pastor of the Assembly of God, officiating. Burial was in Antioch Cemetery.

Survivors are his wife and 6 children: Charles of Nashville, Mrs. Wilkerson, Mrs. Hazel Ledbetter of Amarillo, Jeff of Wichita Falls, Bobby of San Antonio and Mrs. Bob Scott of Wichita Falls.

Attending the funeral from here were Mr. and Mrs. Wilkerson and Billy Wilkerson, joined by Mrs. Ledbetter.

Sanders on Football Team

Richard Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sanders, is attending San Angelo State University on a football scholarship he received. He has made the football team, the Angelo Rams, and is playing as a lineman.

While in Wellington High School, he made the All-District and All-State football teams.

CROP TOUR AND FIELD DAY FEATURES

Here are but three demonstrations seen on the recent annual Collingsworth County crop tour and Field Day, sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service. At top left, Paul Gross, new District 1 Extension Agent, discusses cotton varieties at the Troy Thomason farm immediately north of the town section. County Agent Don Reeves looks on. At top right are some of the tour members looking over the cotton variety test. The structure at center left may appear shallow, but it is capable of carrying off water that formerly brought flooding in northeast Wellington. Tommy Powell, center right, explains the engineering on this project, which was done by the Wellington office of Soil Conservation Service. Below left are three of those with a special interest in the tour: Rommy Gooch, left, Donley County agricultural agent, Tim Detweiler, farm research demonstrator for the Northwest Texas Research Demonstration Program, and director of the work seen on the tour, and Dr. Frank Petr, lower right, discusses a double cropping experiment on the Jerry Nix farm, in which this grain sorghum followed a crop of rye which was harvested.

DEMOCRAT FOR CONGRESS

You know, the worse inflation gets the more we need somebody like Briscoe. He's created a lot of good jobs and he knows how to get things started.

We need new jobs and more income in this state and Governor Briscoe is helping us get them.

In times like these when the economy is so shaky, I'm going to stay with Governor Briscoe.

Briscoe's kept pace without adding new taxes—I voted Republican in 1972, but I'm voting for Briscoe this time.

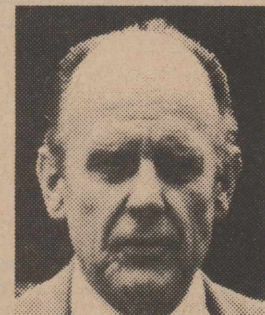

It's quite refreshing for me to know that we have a man like Dolph Briscoe . . . a man who puts integrity before all things . . .

They all promised no new taxes: Dolph Briscoe kept his promise.

Dolph Briscoe's proved he has the contacts and the know how to bring new business to the State of Texas. We can't afford to lose him at a critical time like this.

I think Dolph Briscoe is a Governor you can believe in. I'm looking forward to voting for him in November.

Defensive Driving, License School Due

A drivers license school for persons who do not yet have their drivers license, and possibly a defensive driving school, will be held in Wellington if there is sufficient interest. Mrs. Tessie Burba of the Community Action Center has announced.

These schools would be sponsored jointly by the Department of Public Safety and CAC.

Don Hatcher of Pampa, safety officer with the Department of Public Safety, would teach the course, and anyone interested should contact Mrs. Burba.

The cost would be less than $3.00 for each student, she said. The eight-hour defensive driving course would probably be taught one evening each week for three weeks, Mrs. Burba said. Those successfully completing it can receive 10 per cent discount on automobile insurance.

An enrollment of 15 is needed if the course is to be taught.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Terry of Kermit and their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Harrel and son, David, of Houston, visited for part of last week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.E. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Terry.

Quail Takes Four Wins in Two Trips

The Quail Quails and Bobwhites, in their two outings to date, have brought home four victories, defeating boys and girls teams from Estelline and Hartley.

The girls had two easy wins, 71-32 from Estelline and 42-28 from Hartley.

The Quails met much tougher opponents, and it was touch and go before they downed Estelline 57-53. Hartley nipped at the Quail heels all the way but the Collingsworth boys took a 56-49 win.

GIRLS PLAY

Meeting Estelline Thursday, October 24, the Bobwhites jumped to a 14-4 lead in the first period then enlarged it to 32-15 by halftime, and 54-22 at the third. Quail added 17 points in the final period and Estelline 10, for a 71-32 final count.

Debra Culpepper led the Bobwhite scoring with 29 points; Rita Fielding had 22, Lenora Oatman 18 and Melissa Guthrie two.

Fowler led Estelline's scoring with 15 points.

Bobwhite guards were a key factor in the win over Hartley, holding their opponents to a minimum of scoring.

These included Sharon Childers, Kathy Guthrie, Karen Caldwell, Chrissie Torrez and Melissa Guthrie, who doubled in a forward position as well.

Quail held a 8-4 lead at the end of the first period and had stretched this to 19-12 at the half and 27-18 at the third.

Lenora Oatman scored 26 points to lead the Bobwhite scoring. Robinson had 8 for Harley's high.

BOYS PLAY

Quail and Estelline boys had play tied 12-12 at the end of the first period in a game that saw the lead change a number of times. The Quails were ahead 27-24 at halftime but had dropped behind 42-38 at the third quarter. Quail action late in the fourth managed to keep them on top as the clock ran down and they won 57-53.

Three players held top scoring honors, Johnny Needham and Gary Wischkaemper for Quail and Estelline's Jeff Morris. Tommy Caldwell gave Quail 14 points, David Russell 8 and Joe Barton one.

The Quails managed to keep a little lead all the way through the Hartley game, which was 18-12 at the end of the first period and 28-25 at the half. Quail was ahead 43-36 at the third period and 56-59 at the end.

Jackie Simmons of Hartley was high point man for the game, while Gary Wischkaemper led Quail's scoring with 15. Johnny Needham had 14, David Russell 11 and Joe Barton 6. Harvey Oatman and Charles Hall played but did not score.

Mrs. Lloyd Woodridge was in Amarillo Saturday to meet with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Morton of Los lamos, New Mexico.

US, World Ag Production Down

World production of food and fiber during the current fiscal year will be down mainly due to declines in agricultural production in the United States, says an economist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Grain production will be down in both the U.S. and other countries while cotton will be down sharply in the U.S. but up slightly on a world basis. Livestock production will be up slightly on a world basis and will be about steady in the U.S.

Prices for all farm products in the U.S. should increase an average of about 8 per cent over last year while the prices of farm food products should increase only about 5.5 per cent.

JACK HIGHTOWER is a Democrat who can provide the people of the Panhandle and Northwest Texas an effective voice in Washington—for a change.

He believes . . . that a Congressman should maintain strong ties with the 13th District, recognize the needs of the area and respond quickly to constituent problems.

. . . that his record of service in the Texas Senate underlines a determination to trim budgets and work diligently for the best government services at the lowest possible cost.

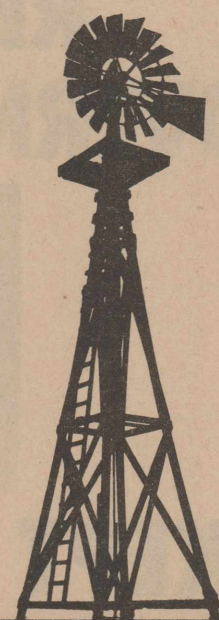

. . . that his years of experience as a law enforcement official back a conviction that Congress must take a harder line on crime and drug abuse.

Turkey Sees Old New in Agriculture

BY KAREN MCLENDON
1974 IFYE Delegate to Turkey

In Turkey, the contrast of old and new in agriculture is notable. Many farmers have their combines and tractors, and irrigate no differently than the farmers of West Texas. In other cases the fields are plowed with a horse or oxen pulling the wooden plow. From planting to harvesting, every step is done by hand on many Turkish farms.

Farming in Turkey is usually a family affair. When machinery is not available, the women and children often do most of the fieldwork. The men always handle the business end of farming, unless the farmer happens to be a single woman. Many women work for specific families throughout the farming season for money and food to supplement their income. These groups become very good friends and the conversation seldom lags. Laughter frequents their conversation and song is a ready friend to their work.

The difference machinery makes in farming is easily illustrated by a family from Bursa who raised sunflowers. For years the sunflowers were harvested by hand and then the seeds dislodged by pounding the back of the flower with the butt of a knife. This was a family operation and the entire process required 30 days. The last year they raised sunflowers, they hired a combine for harvest. The combine did in one day what had taken 30 days to do by hand.

The machinery used by Turkish farmers comes mainly from the U.S., Germany and England. International Harvester, Massey Ferguson, John Deere, and Ford tractors are brands commonly seen.

Turkish farm life is village life rather than having homes located on individual farms. This provides safety for the village, and protection of the animals is made easier in the larger group. As technology is not highly advanced in Turkey, electricity may be available in a village where as it would be impossible in an isolated residence. Electricity is not, however, available in all villages. Many families carry their water from the village fountain and if running water is available, it is always cold.

The breeds of cattle, sheep and chickens Turkish farmers use are different from many found on American farms. Brown Swiss, Holstein, and Simmental do frequently appear, however, and New Hampshire hens are quite common.

Ownership of a Holstein carries special significance for many a farmer. On a farm near Amasya, there is a family of 14 people. The four men collectively make about 200,000 Turkish lira annually. This year they purchased three Holsteins at a total cost of 45,000 Turkish lira...almost the total annual salary for one of the men. Those Holsteins were greeted with smiles and excited laughter. Many neighbors came to admire and compliment Kemal Bey on his good fortune. (There are 13 1/2 Turkish lira to one U.S. dollar.)

A common barnyard scene would include chickens, ducks, geese and turkeys. Pigs are notable only by their absence. Pork is completely off-limits for the Moslem population of Turkey. Water buffalo are present in abundance and valuable for the butter from their milk.

Cotton, tobacco, and grain are the primary crops of Turkey. Fruit also grows in abundance and is excellent. Each area seems to have its own specialty and its own character just as West Texas and South Texas are unique and different.

It's a beautiful country and just as farm families contribute not only their produce, but a special flavor to American character, so the farmers of Turkey are very special to the Turkish nation.

THE RICHEST TREASURE HUNT

There is a frantic race by the world's largest mining companies to tap the fabulous mines of the ocean deeps which contain metals potentially worth trillions of dollars, and that's just the beginning.

Scientists and mining experts have known for years that certain areas of the ocean floor are covered with potato-sized nuggets, called nodules, rich in copper, nickel, manganese and other minerals. Until recently, the idea of scooping up these nodules and refining the metals from them seemed like something out of Buck Rogers and the 21st Century. Not so today. The best deposits of copper and nickel on land have already been found and the expenses of mining continue to skyrocket. The cost of the equipment necessary to mine these land reserves has double in just five years, making the ocean nodules more valuable every day. In a 1 1/2 million square mile area of the Pacific Ocean alone, there is a conservatively estimated 50-million tons of the nodules which would yield 1 1/2 times the world's land reserves of copper, 13 times the land reserves of nickel, and 10 times the land reserves of manganese. Just the copper and nickel alone in that one area of the Pacific would be worth $3 trillion at today's prices.

The problem is how to get the nodules off the ocean floor in water depths of 15,000 feet. A chain and bucket system was tested several years ago but was found to have the disadvantage of tangling lines and difficulty in finding a cable strong enough to heft that much weight over three miles. Most of the harvesting techniques use compressed air or pumps attached to dredge heads moving along the ocean floor. A major obstacle is the huge amount of sediment which has to be lifted in order to get the nodules to the surface. The mining companies are highly secretive about the dredge heads used to get the nodules off the ocean floor. One unit, constructed by Lockheed Corp., is composed of a barge with a tracked vehicle carried inside which leaves the barge at the end of a long extending arm, once the barge is on the ocean floor. The tracked vehicle then circles the barge, picking up nodules and sending them back to the barge through the extending arm. The nodules are then pumped to the surface from the barge.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Cabbell, Jodi and Jimmy of Los Alamos, New Mexico, visited Mr. and Mrs. Obie White and other relatives over the weekend. Also visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Elvis White, Tammie and Ricky. They moved to Clarendon in September from Haskell.

Skyrockets Crush Silverton 34 to 0

By Charles Waugh

The Wellington Skyrockets won their third game in a row with an impressive 34 to 0 victory over the Silverton Owls in a district game Friday night at Silverton. A good crowd accompanied the Rockets to Silverton on a cloudy and chilly night. The game remained close during the first half even though the Rockets dominated play. Coming out in the second half with an 8 to 0 lead, the Rockets put 26 points on the board for the victory. The win leaves Wellington with a three wins and one loss record in district play one game behind Memphis. Over all the Rockets are four and three.

Serving as co-captains for the Skyrockets were Ron Ingram and Randall Maxwell. The Silverton Owls won the flip of the coin and elected to receive the kick off from Wellington. Quarterback Ken Wood received the kick and brought the ball back to the Owl 35 yard line where they put the ball in play. The first series of downs for the Owls proved to be fruitless as the Skyrocket defense stood tough. The Rockets defense played a very aggressive game which was very instrumental in the victory. The front four on defense consisting of Allan Sanders, Jim Bob Nall, Don Allred, Ron Ingram and Randall Maxwell prevented any sizeable gains all night from the Owls. In fact, the Owls entire team gained less than 70 yards rushing for the night, while picking up only four first downs.

Following the Silverton fourth down punt Wellington quickly put the ball in play at their own 35 yard line. The Rockets moved 65 yards for their first touchdown in eight plays with Jim Bob Nall carrying the ball into the end zone for the score. Quarterback George Brewer hit Neal Cochran with a pass for the two point conversion. Wellington was on top to stay 8 to 0. Jessie Davis highlighted the first Rocket scoring drive with a 20 yard run from the Silverton 49 yard line to the 29.

Although the Skyrockets moved the ball for good yardage and several first downs, they were unable to put any more points on the scoreboard in the first half. One of the Skyrockets drives was stopped deep in Silverton territory when Ken Wood intercepted a George Brewer pass at the 17 yard line.

The second half was all Wellington. The Skyrockets started the third quarter deep in their own end of the field at the 16 yard line. Jim Bob Nall broke loose for a 54 yard run to the Owls 30 yard line. Jessie Davis then picked up 11 yards followed by Jim Bob Nall's second touchdown of the night on a 19 yard run. Kelly Cook's point after attempt was blocked leaving Wellington on top 14 to 0.

Silverton received the kick off from the Rockets and put the ball in play at their own 32 yard line. Quarterback Ken Wood fumbled on the first play from scrimmage and Wellington's Jim Bob Nall the ball at the Silverton 30 yard line.

Running backs Jim Bob Nall, Richard Sims, Arnie Ingram, and Jessie Davis carried the ball in this particular series with Jessie Davis scoring from 7 yards out. Once again, George Brewer hit Neal Cochran with a pass for the two point conversion. The Skyrockets were quickly in front 22 to 0.

The Skyrockets were moving the ball at will on their next possession. Quarterback Shane Tarver connected with Edward Thomas on a long yardage pass play giving the Rockets a first down at the Owls 19 yard line. However, Dan Ford fumbled on the next play and Silverton recovered at the 17 yard line.

Silverton didn't pick up their first down of the game until the third quarter was nearly over. Quarterback Ken Wood on a third down and ten situation picked up 11 yards out to their own 28 yard line.

Coach James Williams was able to use his entire bench for the second game in a row as the Rockets had a commanding lead.

In fourth quarter action Wellington kept the Silverton Owls backs up against their own goal. Quarterback Shane Tarver hit Randall Sims on a 19 yard pass play to the Owls one yard line setting up their fourth touchdown of the night. Paul Hanna carried the ball across the goal line putting the Rockets on top 28 to 0. The two point conversion attempt failed.

The final score for Wellington came with just seconds on the clock remaining with Dan Ford carrying the ball over from two yards out. The Rockets began this final drive at their own 34 yard line and was highlighted with two pass plays of 22 yards to Tony Martinez and 9 yards to Joe Baumgardner. The point after attempt was blocked leaving the Skyrockets with a 34 to 0 victory.

For the night Wellington gained over 250 yards rushing with 17 first downs. Jim Bob Nall picked up 102 yards rushing on ten carries and Jessie Davis picked up 93 yards rushing on fifteen

Eighth Grade Takes 42-6 Win Over Silverton

Wellington eighth grade Firecrackers took a resounding victory over the Silverton Eighth Grade 42-6, in a game here Thursday, October 24.

"Everyone of the team had a good game and they continue to get better each week," declared Coach Bruce Dollar.

In the early part of the first quarter, Ermino Nevarez put Wellington on the scoreboard when he caught a 20-yard pass from Carl Taylor. Nevarez then ran the ball over for the extra point. There was no more scoring in that period and Wellington led 8-0 at the end of the first quarter.

David Baumgardner hit pay dirt on a 30 yard run around end in the second quarter. Nevarez then annexed the extra two points.

The scoring runs got longer, and late in the second Ricky Jones scored from 50 yards out. The try for extra point was no good, and the half-time score saw Wellington ahead 22-0.

Baumgardner scored again in the third, on a 30 yard pass from Taylor. Taylor then ran the ball over for the extra points.

Jones also repeated in the third, this time on a 55 yard run through the middle, then he added the two extra points.

Silverton made its only score in the third quarter, going from 25 yards out. The try for extra point failed.

The longest scoring run of the night was put on the board by Robert Chambers, who went from 65 yards out. The try for extra point failed and the game ended 42-6.

Wellington players Jon Sessions, Taylor and Joseph Thomas also blocked three Silverton punts.

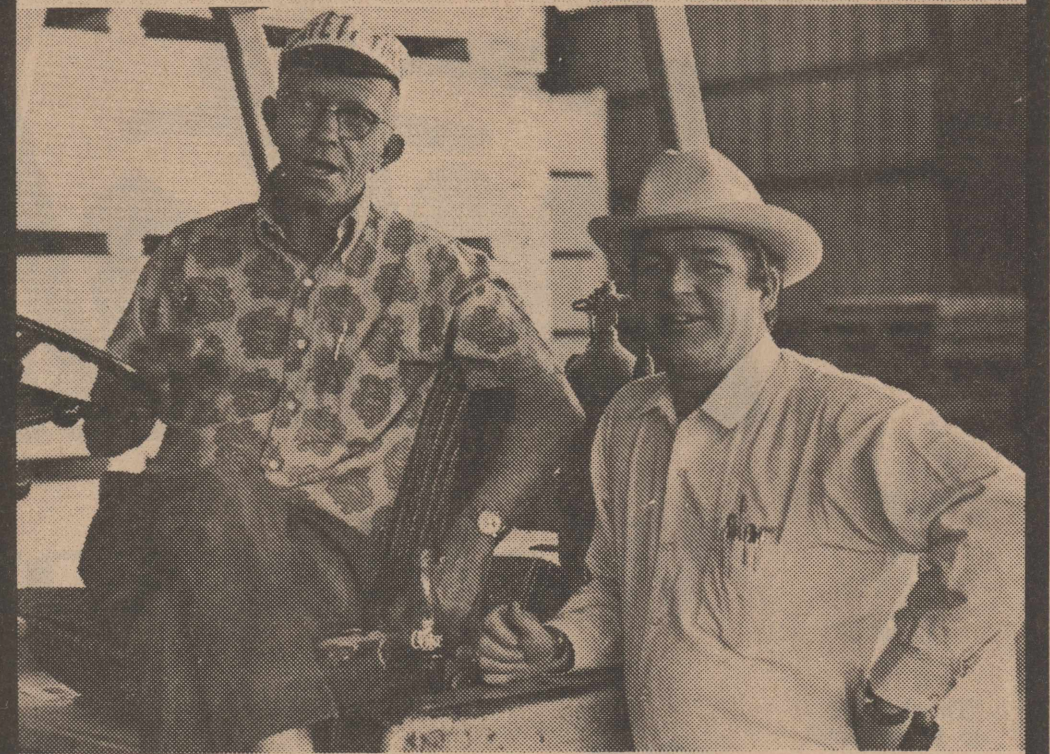

Silverton made only two first downs against the Firecracker first team, and their coach credited the offensive line. Thomas at Center, Jacen Jeffrey and Chambers at Guard, Mike Ray and Charles McIntosh, tackles, and Sessions and Kevin Hall at ends.
