Seven Teachers To Retire, Amass 221 Years Teaching

Seven teachers will be absent when roll calls are made in Hart schools next fall. Representing 221 years teaching, the seven are retiring this May in accordance with the school's new retirement policy.

Closing their text books for the last time in Hart classrooms will be C. E. Johnson and Mmes. Mary Clay, Linnie Campbell, Lila Duffey, Ethel Gordon, Erma Riley and Katie Strickland.

Chalking up his thirty-ninth year as an educator, Johnson began his tenure in 1928 in Fisher County, his home community. There he served as principal in the two-teacher school.

In 1930-31 he taught with J. W. Edgar, present State Commissioner of Education. Most of his teaching experience has been in Smyer, Lockney, Meadow and Amherst. He has taught social studies at Hart Junior High since 1966.

"I have enjoyed every year of teaching," Johnson said this week. "I feel that I have contributed to the betterment of society and the lives of hundreds of children."

Thirty-eight years in the teaching field mark the retirement of Mrs. Riley, the last six as fourth grade teacher in Hart. Before coming to Hart she was principal of South Grade School in Dimmitt for three years.

Mrs. Riley, who holds BS and Masters degrees from West Texas State University, taught 23 years in the junior high level in Cottle County schools. She has also taught in Hale and Swisher Counties.

Travel and "enjoying life" is the way Mrs. Riley plans to spend her retirement years.

Second grade teacher, Mrs. Strickland, will complete thirty-six years as an elementary teacher in Texas schools. She began teaching when she was 18 in a two-teacher rural school.

A graduate of East Texas State University, she has a Master's degree in education. Some of her graduate work was done at the University of Arkansas and Peabody College in Nashville, Tenn.

Mrs. Strickland plans to live in Naples and pursue her hobbies of oil painting, sewing and growing flowers.

degree from West Texas State College. She is the mother of two daughters, one of whom teaches in Olton, and grandmother of five.

taught in small rural schools in Dickens County until receiving her degree and then began her 33-year tenure at Olton.

Mrs. Gordon received her Master's degree from West Texas State University. She has a married son.

Mrs. Duffey began her teaching career as principal of a two-teacher school in Esperanza. The next year she taught in Yorktown and was married to Tom Duffey. They taught together in Guadalupe County and in the Rio Grande Valley and then moved to Oklahoma.

In Oklahoma, Mrs. Duffey did substitute teaching until 1941 when her daughter, Janet, was born. She did not teach again until Janet was in junior high, when she finished out a year as second grade teacher in Hale Center.

The next year she began teaching third grade in Plainview, a position she held for 10 years. She came to Hart in 1965 and taught one year in the second grade. Since that time she has taught third graders and completes her thirtieth year as a teacher, working with children in "the best year of their lives."

Mrs. Duffey attended Sam Houston State College, West Texas State University and received her degree from Wayland Baptist College.

Mrs. Clay enrolled in West Texas State College in 1954 following the death of her husband. She earned a BS degree in elementary education with a diploma in social studies in just three years, the same number of years she took to complete high school.

She also did major work in English art and psychology with a minor in music, speech and crafts. She has taught 14 years.

Five years, Mrs. Clay taught pre-school Spanish children who could speak no English. "I taught them basic subjects along with responsibility to their families and community," she explains.

"I've enjoyed living in Hart the past eight years and the friendship and love of so many, especially the fine Spanish children. I'll miss them so much and will always remember."

Mother of a married daughter, Mrs. Clay enjoys spending holidays on her son-in-law's ranch and finds much pleasure in helping with chores. She has "four wonderful grandchildren."

Mrs. Clay has a rich, busy past having been a member of the American Legion Auxiliary 25 years, worked with Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, helped with 4-H and FFA groups and played piano and organ for her church, the First Christian. She attended the First Baptist Church since making her home here.

"When you're happy," she explains "the years just fall away."

DADDY! look at the pencil!

It was his first trip to Washington. He was only six. Everything had to be analyzed by the standards of a first-grader!

Tell him it's the Washington Monument . . . he still thinks of it as "The Pencil." Time for his parents to learn a lesson:

Suppose he had never seen a pencil. What would it have meant to him then? Probably nothing!

A child needs standards by which to measure all he encounters. The standards may be simple—but he uses them. With them he associates the things he wants to remember.

The Church provides your child with simple religious standards. He still needs your help to grasp the truth he must master. But the standards you and he learn at Church are the foundation of his character . . . the inspiration of your own. In his terms: the pencil with which tomorrow is written.
