Discs Visit East Texas— Texan Sees Saucers 'Hatched'

By The Associated Press Flying discs "hatched out" yesterday over Sulphur Springs and sped over Commerce in a flight of between 15 and 20.

The city lakes caught approximately 134 million gallons of water. Electric service was disrupted for more than an hour and a half, and telephone service was still out Friday morning to Forsan and Garden City.

The U. S. weather bureau at the airport gauged .97 of an inch, most of it lashed along in an hour's time on winds up to 59 mph.

In many areas a severe dust storm, which preceded the showers here and at Coahoma, whipped trees and young crops without giving up any moisture.

Coahoma had a heavy shower, possibly two inches. North of Coahoma at the Guthrie and Shive places, rainfall came in torrents, with some guesses up to five inches.

Southwest of Coahoma showers were heavy enough to block the lake road temporarily as Heal's creek went on a rampage.

The rain did not extend far north of Big Spring. Walter Long, who resides near Knott, said that it did not extend much farther than the Bud Leatherwood place above the state hospital.

The division of Europe over the issue is virtually complete and a series of critical tests of relative Soviet and American strength are at hand.

Big Pineapple Harvest Held Up By Strike

HONOLULU, July 11. (AP)—CIO workers struck the multi-million dollar pineapple industry today at the harvest peak, but negotiations on the deadlocked wage issue continued.

Representatives of the pineapple companies and Harry Bridges' International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union conferred without apparent headway long past the midnight strike call for some 12,000 union members.

Nathan P. Feinsinger, U. S. Labor department conciliator, kept the negotiations going in renewed efforts to settle the long-threatened walkout in Hawaii's pineapple plantations and canneries, which grow and process 90 per cent of the world's supply.

The union ordered its workers off both canneries and plantations but provided for essential utilities on the later.

The industry has estimated losses in the highly-perishable crop—now golden ripe in the fields of Oahu, Maui, Kauai, Molokai and Lanai islands—would run upwards of $500,000 daily.

The union originally demanded a 23 1/2 cent an hour wage increase but said it would accept a 15-cent boost. The companies have offered a ten-cent raise.

Living Costs Under Study

Some See Advance From Coal Wage

WASHINGTON, July 11. (AP)—President Truman today decided to send Congress within the next ten days a special mid-year report on the economic outlook, including the possible effect of John L. Lewis' new coal wage gains on living costs.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross said this was decided at a meeting of Mr. Truman and his cabinet. He said the concensus of the meeting was that there has been "a tendency to exaggerate the importance of the coal settlement on the overall wage picture."

HAROLD P. STECK

Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the president's Council of Economic Advisers, read to the cabinet a memorandum on the state of the nation's business, based on the council's continuing researches.

Ross also would not confirm reports that the Council still expects, as it did in March, that a business downturn threatens, and that a noticeable decline in consumers' disposable income will have an adverse effect on jobs and production when present record-breaking exports fall off.

Anti-Trust Inquiry Is Underway

AUSTIN, July 11. (AP)—Half of Attorney General Price Daniel's staff of assistants fanned out over the state today in a broad investigation of reports of anti-trust law violations in price-fixing in gasoline, bread, milk and other commodities.

Daniel yesterday announced he had put 20 assistants on the job and had called on all county and district attorneys to check their areas and report to him.

Courts of inquiry may be called soon in several areas to develop evidence. Uniform gasoline price increases totaling two and one-half cents a gallon since OPA controls were removed "appear to be more than coincidental," the attorney general commented.

Prominent Marshall Business Man Dies

MARSHALL, July 11. (AP)—Thomas Little Whaley, 78, prominent business man and member of a widely known East Texas pioneer family, died today at his home after a lengthy illness.

WASHINGTON, July 11. (AP)—The nation faces the prospect today of possibly 10 per cent less meat by early 1948.

Such a reduction would be accompanied by higher prices if consumer demand continues strong. The possibilities are based on an Agriculture Department crop report yesterday forecasting a sharp drop in the corn crop as a result of one of the worst planting seasons on record.

Jester Hints That He May Run For U.S. Senate Post

HICKENLOOPER TALKS TO REPORTERS—Gen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (B-Iowa) (right) talks to reporters in Washington about his statement on the senate floor that important information files were taken from the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic testing station in March, 1946, but were recovered without any "breach in security." Hickenlooper is chairman of the Senate-House atomic energy committee. (AP Wirephoto.)

AUSTIN, July 11. (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester has openly hinted for the first time that he may be considering running for U. S. senator next year.

He told his press conference yesterday that he is receiving "considerable" correspondence asking him to make the race.

Jester's name has long been considered in political conversations in the list of contenders for the post of junior senator W. Lee O'Daniel whose term runs out in 1948. But until now the governor has been non-committal, always directing conversation toward his present work rather than future hopes.

Jester volunteered the information yesterday that "The governor is delighted with the confirmation of Joe B. Dooley by the senate."

O'Daniel had asked that the senate reject Dooley's nomination for the federal judgeship of the northern district of Texas on grounds that the nominee was "personally obnoxious" to the senator. The senate confirmed Dooley anyway.

"Have you had any correspondence asking you to run for the U. S. senate?" the governor was asked.

"Well, I expect anybody in public office has inquiries," Jester replied. "Yes, I've had a few. In fact, considerable."

The governor did not expand his statement further.

Texas has been most generous in the past in extending second terms to most of their governors who asked it.

Whether to try for a traditionally easy return trip to the governor's chair or run a hazardous race in a crowded field for the senatorship was the apparent choice Jester would have to make.

Possible senate opponents include well-known political figures such as former Gov. Coke Stevenson, former Gov. James V. Allred, former Congressman Martin Dies, Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson, and O'Daniel, George E. B. Peedy of Houston, who used to make political races in the 1920's has publicly announced his candidacy.

It has long been no secret that Gov. Coke Stevenson has told friends that he is seriously considering making the race.

O'Daniel has not flatly announced but has indicated in numerous ways that he will seek re-election.

Allred, Johnson and Dies are still less definitely committed but who have by no means been discouraged.

A race between Stevenson and Jester would pit as, opponents a pair who have previously conferred politically and still visit socially.

Those who know both well, however, have reported they sense a growing coolness between the pair, despite outward courteousness. They think the senate race might have something to do with it.

Greek Army Beats Back Guerrillas

ATHENS, July 11. (AP)—Some 4,000 guerrillas, said to be trying to win territory in which to set up a communist government near the Albanian border were reported retreating slowly today under pressure by the Greek army.

Minister of War George Stratos said in a news conference last night that the army had dislodged the rebels from their fortifications on Mount Grammos and pushed them back to within a few miles of the Albanian frontier.

He declared that the guerrillas' objective was to make room for establishment of a KKE (communist) government in the area lying roughly west and north of Kastoria, east and north of Koritsa and southeast of Koritsa, Albania. They tried to neutralize the army attack, he said, by infiltration.

The war minister said another insurgent objective was to clear the way into Greece from Albania for an international brigade 25,000 strong, which he declared was now at the Yugoslav port of Split on the Adriatic coast. He reported that the battle had been going on for two weeks.

The embattled section was visited last March by an investigating team of the United Nations Balkan commission on an expedition to see Gen. Markos Vlifides, guerrilla commander in chief.

The Grammos mountain command then was under Capt. Yanoulis, who failed to make contact with the guerrilla chief to arrange mission of Kastanofit near the frontier.

DALLAS, July 11. (AP)—The state of Texas' proposal to convert part of a wartime army airfield in the lower Rio Grande Valley to a 200 bed sanatorium was one step nearer to realization today.

An official announcement was expected in Washington today on the approval of the state's application for the property, approximately one half of the area formerly comprising Moore air field.

Morgan R. Lewis, deputy zone administrator for real property, said yesterday at Dallas that initial approval was given by the WAA's real property review board in Washington.

The state passed legislation early in May paving the way for the project.

The former army installation is situated 12 miles from each of three valley cities, Mission, Edinburg and McAllen.

WASHINGTON, July 11. (AP)—Marvin Jones, former Texas congressman and head of the U. S. War Food Administration, today was sworn in as chief justice of the U. S. court of claims.

God's Works In His World

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for July 13 is Genesis 1: Job 38-41; Matthew 6:25-30, the Memory verse being Psalm 24:1, "The earth is Jehovah's, and the fullness thereof; The world, and they that dwell therein.")

THE FIRST part of our lesson refers to the first chapter of Genesis, in which God created the world. They are so familiar to us, that while we may be glad to read them over, our real lesson is the Lord's answer to Job and his discussion with his friends.

We are told that in the 75 years that the International Sunday school lessons have been published, this is the first time these passages from the Book of Job have been assigned.

You remember that in our last lesson Job was reviewing his life to see if he had failed in any way and so could understand that the terrible things that had happened to him were the results of his sins. He concludes his argument with: "If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life: Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended."

"Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said: Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou Me."

The Lord made no apology for allowing Job, the righteous man to suffer as he had. But he reviews the wonders of Nature and asks if Job had anything to do with controlling them? He makes Job feel very humble and insignificant, as we shall see.

"Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it? Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or who laid the corner stone thereof? When the Stars Sang Together. When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?"

Question follows question, with no chance for Job to answer, even if he had the answers ready.

"Who controlled the seas and said, 'Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further, and here shall thy proud waves be stayed?'"

"Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or has thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?"

"Hast thou entered into the treasure of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail?"

"Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?"

"Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in his season? or canst thou guide Acturus with his sons?"

"Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? Canst thou set the dominion thereof in the earth?"

"Canst thou lift up thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?"

"Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say until thee, Here we are?"

How About Wild Creatures?

The Lord went on to ask how much Job knew about the wild creatures of the earth. "Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions, when they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?"

"Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry unto God, they wander for lack of meat."

Does Job know about the ways of the wild goat, or can he tame the unicorn, he is asked. The unicorn is said to be the wild ox, now extinct, but untamable when he was on earth. The wild ass, the wild ox, the ostrich, the horse, the hawk and the eagle. The description of the horse is very fine. The behemoth spoken of is thought to be the hippopotamus. The leviathan is also thought to have referred to the crocodile, the whole back of which is covered with horny quadrangular plates or scales set so closely together that the sharpest spear can hardly find its way through them.

The Lord asked Job: "Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct Him? he that reproveth God, let him answer it."

"Then Job answered the Lord, and said, 'Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer Thee? I will lay mine hand upon my mouth. 'Once have I spoken; but I will not proceed no further.'"

He realizes that he is indeed a very small part of the universe, and what are his sufferings compared with the wondrous working of the Lord in the World?"

In Big Spring Churches

New Pastor, Two Guest Ministers Will Speak In Sunday Services Here

A new pastor will address the congregation at one local church and two other churches have guest ministers at Sunday services in Big Spring.

The Rev. Henry C. Thomas is to arrive sometime today to assume the pastorate of the Church of the Nazarene, succeeding the Rev. W. R. McClure who has accepted a pastorate in Mineral Wells. The Rev. Mr. Thomas comes here from Perryton.

The Rev. Bill Partain, Waco, is to be guest pastor at the East Fourth Baptist church. The church's new minister, Jimmy Parks of Waco, is due to assume duties here about July 22.

For the 11 a. m. services at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Gage Lloyd, pastor, will speak on the theme "Holding Out On God," using as his text Exodus 5:2 and 12:31.

The evening topic, taken from Matthew 5:8, is "Formula for Seeing God."

Presbyterian young people meet at the church at 6:30, with Lynn Porter, leader.

The Rev. C. A. Long selects his topic, "The Path To Great Living," from Mark 10:45 for the 11 a. m. sermon at the First Methodist church.

Meetings scheduled for Sunday at 7 p. m. include those of Junior, Senior, Intermediate and Young People's departments. Following the evening services, the Young People's group will be treated with an ice cream party.

The Rev. Lloyd Thompson, pastor of the First Christian church, has participated in a youth encampment in Buffalo Gap this week. In Breckenridge for revival work is the Rev. E. R. Winter of the Assembly of God church. Both will return Saturday.

Sunday school opens at 9:30 a. m. in the church of Christ Scientist, 217 1/2 Main, with morning services at 11 and evening sermon at 8. "Sacrament" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, Sunday.

The Golden Text is: "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth" (I Corinthians 5:8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Give unto the Lord the glory due unto His name; bring an offering, and come before Him; worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness" (I Chronicles 16:29).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "To keep the commandments of our Master and follow his example, is our proper debt to Him and the only worthy evidence of our gratitude for all that He has done. Outward worship is not of itself sufficient to express loyal and heartfelt gratitude, since He has said: 'If ye love Me, keep my commandments.'"

Sermon topic for the 11 a. m. Divine Worship at St. Paul's Lutheran church is "Righteousness That Availeth Before God," Matthew 5:20-26.

Sunday school and Bible class opens at 10:15 a. m. and immediately following the worship services the Sunday school class will entertain with a picnic at the city park.

Teachers' meeting is slated for 8 p. m. Tuesday and Christian doctrine instructions may be heard at 8 p. m. Wednesday.

The Rev. Travis Bedford, pastor of Calvary Baptist church in Odessa, who is conducting a revival at the Airport Baptist church here, will bring a sermon Sunday morning on "The Old Time Religion."

The Rev. Leonard Griggs, Odessa, will preach at both the morning and evening services of the Trinity Baptist church here Sunday. The church is now without a pastor, the Rev. W. E. Best having resigned and reported his news assignment as pastor of the Berean Baptist church in Houston.

The Rev. N. L. Suiter, pastor of the Church of God, will deliver a sermon at 11 a. m. Sunday on "A Spiritual Church," taking his text from Luke 24:49.

Sunday school is at 9:45. Evening sermon topic, heard at 8 o'clock, has not been announced.

HOW TO USE THE TELEPHONE SKILLFULLY

Even the simplest things—and telephoning is one of them—are easier and more satisfactory for the person who knows the best way to do them and then DOES them that way.

If you know the right answers to these four questions about using the telephone, you'll have a key to better telephone service.

Question: What is the best way to answer the telephone?
Answer: It's usually best to identify yourself at once. "Mr. Hopkins speaking" helps start things off right—especially if the caller may not recognize your voice. It's much better than "Hello."

Question: Can I get the operator's attention faster by "jiggling" the receiver hook up and down rapidly?
Answer: No! When you move the hook too fast, it often brings in no signal at all. Move it slowly for better results.

Question: When I'm talking on a party line, how do I know if another party wants to call?
Answer: You may hear him lift the receiver. If so, the neighborly thing to do is finish your conversation as soon as convenient so he can make his call.

Question: Can the person I'm calling hear me better if I talk loudly?
Answer: It's better to speak in a normal voice—clearly and distinctly—with your lips about a half inch from the transmitter.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

Impasse And Organized Confusion

A delegation representing the city, the community and other agencies is in Dallas today seeking to solve the impasse with the War Assets Administration concerning the Big Spring army air field properties.

We say impasse advisedly. Technically, there is no stalemate; but for practical purposes it has all the appearances of one. In two years, all the city has been able to salvage out of the investment in the field has been a few buildings for airport purposes, plus a modest amount of equipment.

In the meantime, the WAA has wailed on its promise to deliver other buildings in lieu of the restoration clause (which requires the government to restore the property to its original condition). Technically, again, the WAA proposes to deliver; but practically, it has backed down by now declaring that all other property must first be disposed of before this step can be taken.

Yet on the heels of this ruling, the WAA sent innocent representatives from another city, which apparently made a purchase in good faith, to claim a peice of equipment already delivered to the City of Big Spring. Does the WAA propose to not only stall the city but relieve it of what it already has gained? The WAA says that there must be some mistake.

Manifestly, there has. One may have been our course of good faith and gentlemanly conduct in the matter. Most certainly, another is the "organized confusion" exhibited by the WAA.

Corn Report Forbodes Meat Problem

The agriculture department's forecast of this year's corn crop is not at all heartening, although prospects, on the basis of the report, are slightly better than had been anticipated.

The outlook is 2,612,809,000 bushels, barely under the 10-year average, but nearly 700 million bushels under last year's record crop of 3,287,000,000 bushels.

Since this is not a corn country, many may not comprehend the significance of the corn forecast. This grain is the basis of meat production. A shortage of corn means a shortage of meat. Since there is no appreciable carry-over from even the record crop, the amount expected this year is too small to meet feed lot requirements. The department of agriculture is hoping that yield may get up to 2,800,000 bushels, the amount it believes necessary to supply feed lot demand. The only chance is for ideal conditions and a late frost in the corn belt. With the weather acting up as it has all year, no one would dare predict what the elements will do for the remainder of the season.

Short supply of corn would mean shorter supplies of finished meat (there is comparatively none now). This would mean continued high or higher meat prices.

Although we are out of the corn belt, Chicago pressure on the market is reflected in the Southwest. Moreover, the sharp swing to cotton is leaving the vast Plains area with a greatly reduced grain and fodder acreage. In our own county, the outlook for milo production is no better than 10,000 tons, hardly ample for any ambitious feeding. Timely rains might boost the chances, but not phenomenally. The acreage simply is not there.

Changes Sought In Presidency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress is finishing its busiest year of doing something about the presidency.

It's acted to limit any president to two terms. It's acting now to make the speaker of the house president if there's no president or vice president.

That's more than any other congress has done in one year on this subject.

Take them separately:

No. 1—Limiting a president to two terms.

In Mid-March the Republican-controlled congress, house and senate, okayed a proposed amendment to the constitution setting a two-term limit.

Before the constitution is amended, at least 36 state legislatures also must approve.

Since Mid-March, 17 have done so. That leaves 19 to go. They have seven years in which to do it. The amendment would work like this:

No man could be elected president more than twice.

If a vice president succeeded to the presidency, but didn't serve more than two years of his predecessor's unexpired term, he could be elected to two full terms.

But a special exception is made for President Truman. By the time of the 1948 elections he will have served more than three years of President Roosevelt's unexpired term.

No. 2—Letting the speaker become president.

In 1886 Congress passed a law which said that, if the president dies and there's no vice president, the line of succession to the presidency will be in this order:

Secretary of State, secretary of the treasury, secretary of war, attorney general, postmaster general, secretary of the navy, secretary of the interior.

All of those men are members of the president's cabinet because they have been appointed by him, not because they were elected by the people.

But none of them has ever succeeded to the presidency because it has never been necessary.

When Vice President Truman became president, leaving the vice presidency vacant, an old question about the law of 1886 arose again: Should a cabinet

Hal Boyle's Notebook

America Is Sideshow

NEW YORK (AP)—If you aren't taking a vacation in America this year you're missing the biggest sideshow in the world.

It's a 48-ring show without tents.

For eight months I've been going around the country with rod and reel and a two-fingered typewriter, and had more fun than a duck in a cloudburst. I've come across about everything but a "for rent" sign.

The mountains, the deserts, the plains of this vast country may wear you down—but you never can get tired of the people. Not if you keep moving anyway. There's always a different breed with a fresh accent and viewpoint down the road a piece.

And you learn all manner of odd things, whether you hitchhike or go by your own airplane. For example:

There are better yodelers in Wisconsin than Switzerland. (The Swiss in Switzerland are going in for dance bands.)

You can get a "Kansas City steak" easier in New York or San Diego than you can in Kansas City.

"If you ask for orange juice in St. Louis, they squeeze it out of the orange. But if you ask for it in Florida or California, where oranges grow, they are more likely to pour it out of a can. Mockingbirds stay up later than the millionaires in Santa Barbara. Sing better, too.

There are no such things as a perfect climate. The best place for all-around living is where you can find the most friends.

The people love to eat in North Carolina, but so do the plants. It is the habitat of the venus fly catcher, nature's own DDT against insects.

But what interests you most about travel in America, a pattern in perpetual flux, is the endless incongruity you meet.

Let me give you one example.

If England, Germany or Russia passed a prohibition law a certain percentage of people still would drink, whether or not heads rolled in penalty and prisons filled. But I doubt if they'd get around the statute this way:

In dry Oklahoma I saw a prominent host whose supply of liquor was running low to the phone and call up the chief of police.

"Chief," he said, "Where's the best place in town to buy a quart?"

And he got the answer he was after. That may be a bad moral situation, but it points up one thing in America. Folks largely get what they want—whether it's good for them or not.

Bergman Wears Aluminum Armor

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Ingrid Bergman's next epic on the life of Joan of Arc is being planned on such a large scale that 10 Los Angeles manufacturing plants have been contracted to make armor for the film's actors.

The plants, which formerly did war work, will use assembly-line methods to stamp out and mold 525 full suits of armor, plus 215 partial suits. They will be made of magnesium and the full regalia will weigh but 18 pounds, plus 12 pounds of mail.

Ingrid has already tried on her suit, which is made of aluminum. It permits sitting, kneeling and knights of old.

Orson Welles heads for England after "Macbeth" to discuss his next picture with Sir Alexander Korda. It may be "Salome" or "Around the World in 80 Days," from Orson's stage production. He tells me he isn't planning any more screen Shakespeare until he sees how the public reacts to his first effort.

Charlie Chaplin still plans to make more movies and is working on two stories at home. Neither contains his old tramp character, which he feels is not in keeping with the times.

Errol Flynn will start "Don Juan" in September and has set the first of the year as his sailing date for Africa.

Bob Hope is a popular man with the girls, no matter what he might say. Barbara Stanwyck, Ida Lupino and Joan Caulfield have all expressed willingness to appear in his "Paleface." What ever happened to his deal with Jane Russell?

Texas Today—Jack Rutledge

Towns Named For Exclamations

Some people think that Nome, Texas, was named for Nome, Alaska, but T. T. Hunt, managing editor of the Beaumont Enterprise, says no.

Nome is located a little west of Beaumont. And, says Mr. Hunt, womenfolk looking out the window of the train at the little settlement on the fringe of Jefferson county were wont to ask the conductor: "Is this Beaumont?"

The invariable answer was "No'm", so the place was finally named Nome. That's what the man says.

And other Texas towns were named for reasons just as strange and unusual. Mrs. Teresa A. Kornegay of Orange, mother of 14, takes time out to give us several very good name sources:

Take Milano. She says a couple was looking for a location for a home, and the man decided to settle at what is now Milano. He asked his wife "Is this okay?" Her answer named the place: "My lan", no!"

Mrs. Kornegay also tells how necessity got its tag. The people there wanted a postoffice. But every time they sent in a name, they were told that there was another Texas town by that name already. Finally, the postal department in what must have been something akin to desperation wrote that if it's a Necessity for you to have a name, call it "Necessity." So they did.

Big Foot, Texas, she says, was named for Bigfoot Wallace, the Indian fighter who got his nickname because of his large feet. Mrs. Kornegay was born about five miles from there, and ought to know. She also mentions Bug Town and Hog Town, but doesn't explain their origins.

In fact, she asks a couple of questions: Why is Center in East Texas and are Eastland, West and Southland in the right places? W. G. Thornhill, Jr., of Newgulf explains the origin of Matagorda. He says when early Spaniards first came upon the place, it was alive with fat cattle. They exclaimed "Gorda, Gorda!" and proceeded to slaughter them.

When the town was named, they called it Matagorda. Mata, as you know, means kill. Gorda means fat.

Washington Merry-Go-Round—Drew Pearson

Truman's Portrait Of Franklin

WASHINGTON—A friend visiting President Truman recently remarked on a portrait of Ben Franklin over the door of his study. The president, who has got himself into quite a controversy with art critics over his condemnation of the state department's modern art exhibit, looked at the portrait appraisingly and explained it.

"De Gaulle sent it to me. Probably he took it from some French art collection and I suppose it really ought to go back to a Paris museum where the French people could enjoy it. Must be worth $100,000. A woman who was in love with Franklin in Paris had it painted while he was ambassador there."

"Mr. President," replied the friend—and he happened to be a friend well before he became president—"Franklin was not only a great man, but a very human man. When you look up at that portrait I know that some of his qualities will be passed on to you and the American people will be the better for it. So don't send it back to a French museum."

"Believe it or not, but John Monroe, famous 'man in the red house on R street,' who entertained admirals, generals and senators to help get war contracts, is back at work lobbying at almost the same old stand.

Three years ago this column revealed the amazing manner in which Mr. Monroe was able to inveigle big shots into his drawing room, even including Secretary of the Navy Knox, thereby impressing war contractors with the wires he could pull in Washington.

Following this revelation, Mr. Monroe sued this column for $1,000,000, lost his suit after the jury was out only twenty minutes, and some time later was convicted of black marketeering. He was sentenced to two years in jail. However, he is still out on appeal, and while justice grinds slowly, Monroe is making the most of the delay by opening another Washington office under the imposing name, "Advice, Inc."

Advice, Inc., is located in one of the capital's respectable, but somewhat tarnished residential districts, now made less fashionable by the westward sweep of the city. This time Monroe has moved up in the alphabet from R to N Street and has converted his rented house into a dignified somewhat stuffy office, furnished with well-worn antiques.

Monroe has also taken out a certificate of incorporation which gives his firm these high-sounding functions: "To act as consultants on all business matters; to act as consultants on legal matters; to engage in research and development; to engage as consultant to townships, cities, municipalities and states; act as manufacturers' sales representatives to represent chambers of commerce and any and all other business organizations; to represent banks and insurance companies."

In fact there is almost nobody that Monroe and his associates do not represent themselves as able to represent. No where in the certificate, naturally, is there any hint that Mr. Monroe may not be able to continue to give "advice" very long—due to his impending jail sentence.

Colonel Cooper was fuming. What is behind this investigation?" he stormed. "If you're not careful I'll turn you over to the FBI."

"There's no law against asking questions," replied the investigator.

Mr. Cooper, who once worked for the secret service, and knew better than to attempt intimidation, agreed that that was right. He then calmed down, but remained highly uncommunicative. Asked what job the famous John Monroe occupied with the firm, Cooper replied:

He's only a salesman. His standing with the company is very insignificant."

Apparently Colonel Cooper forgot that Monroe, one of the foremost lobbying fakes in Washington history and now facing a jail sentence, is listed as one of the three "trustees" authorized to manage Advice, Inc.

EXPANSIVE MR. MONROE

When an investigator for this column called at the office of Advice, Inc., he was met by a gentleman who explained "my name doesn't matter," but who turned out to be Mr. Monroe himself.

Mr. Monroe then explained that his firm conducted business mostly with foreign governments (the once tried to sell rifles to the Dominican Republic and Greece); that the firm occupied three buildings in Washington (he avoided giving their addresses); that it employed a staff of 117, mostly experts (two stenographers were the only staff in evidence); and that it was an old established firm founded 12 years ago (the certificate of incorporation shows it was founded May 31, 1945).

Monroe named as president of the firm, Col. Harry Cooper, former provost-marshal of the India-Burma theatre under General Stilwell. The certificate of incorporation, however, shows that three trustees are authorized to manage the company: John Monroe, Melvin T. Kane of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Edward T. Buxton of Washington.

When a subsequent interview was arranged with Mr. T. Sawyer, the lawyer who signed the incorporation certificate, Harry Cooper, having been tipped off by Sawyer in advance, was eagerly sitting in Sawyer's office awaiting the investigator. Obviously, the members of Advice, Inc., were getting worried at the possibility of publicity. In fact,

The United States might have been left out of the international refugee organization by default except for the drive of two dogged congressmen—Jack Javits of New York and John Vorys of Ohio, both Republicans.

Under their constant prodding the house finally squeezed out legislation authorizing the United States to join IRO just three days before UNRRA passed out of existence, which would have left the whole problem of displaced persons in the hands of the occupying armies.

Their pitiful plight did not seem to disturb GOP leaders of the house who had shunted the bill into an obscure foreign affairs sub-committee. Finally, President Truman sent Goldwater to the state department side, up to the capitol to plead for passage.

He made little progress, however, and it was Javits and Vorys who really stirred up their legislative colleagues and hammered the bill through the house.

Before they finished, they had helped break the bottleneck for future foreign-policy legislation. For the foreign affairs committee was reorganized from six bumbling subcommittees into 13 smaller, streamlined units, largely on an account of Javits' persistent clamoring.

Note—The senate's champion of bipartisan foreign policy, Senator Vandenberg, had greased the IRO bill through the senate in record time three months earlier.

Reds Want To Communize Greece

The Greek government's announcement of a communist plot to overthrow the Athens regime acquires special significance from the fact that a few hours earlier Deputy Soviet Foreign Minister Gromyko had charged before the United Nations security council that the situation in Greece was due to Anglo-American interference and had demanded that the U. N. order foreign military personnel (meaning U. S. and British) off Greek soil.

It was in the pre-dawn of yesterday that Greek police and military made swift raids which netted close to 3,000 people who were charged with plotting rebellion against the state. Many important communists reportedly had fled to the mountains or were in hiding. Officials stated that all those arrested would have hearings and that those implicated probably would be exiled on the numerous islands off the Greek coast in the Aegean. The zero hour for the coup is said to have been 1 a. m. today.

One wonders whether Gromyko would have delivered exactly the same speech if he had known that the Greek police were to swing into action against the Reds a few hours later.

The occasion was a debate on the majority report of the Balkan investigating commission of the security council. This report was based on study of the situation on the spot. It placed responsibility for fomenting disorders in Greece upon the neighboring states of Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria—all communized and satellites of Moscow.

Gromyko said the Greek government was the guilty party, and he demanded that the council reverse the findings of the commission and rule that Greece was guilty of causing disturbances in Yugoslavia, Albania and Bulgaria. He declared that Russia couldn't accept an American proposal for the establishment of a semi-permanent U. N. watch along the borders in question.

The effect of Gromyko's fiery proposal of course must be to delay the security council in making a decision regarding the port. Any delay of this sort obviously would be of advantage to the Red elements which have been aiming at the establishment of a Soviet in Greece. It would permit continuance of such tactics as have been employed by Red elements along the frontiers of Greece's northern neighbors.

The discovery of the plot in Athens presumably has put a dent in the communist program, but it isn't likely to halt the Red drive. Because of Greece's strategic politico-military position she has been marked down for communization—and the only thing which can block it is outside intervention. Greece isn't yet capable of defending herself.

All-Star Tilt To Be Staged In Ballinger On July 24

Pilots To Pick Spangled Nines

The Longhorn baseball league's first annual all-star game, which will pit the "East" against the "West", will be staged in Ballinger the night of July 24, league president Howard Green announced this morning.

Ballinger was selected as the game site on the basis of the best average attendance for league games through July 10, Green said. Big Spring was Ballinger's chief rival for the contest but was handicapped due to the fact that the local park had to play day games the first week of the campaign.

Midland also put in a major bid for the bout. Big Spring's average adult attendance for the year has amounted to better than $500, and that despite the fact that the lighting system was not ready until May 15. The East's all-star team will be made up of players from Ballinger, Sweetwater and Vernon while the West club will be composed of athletes from Big Spring, Midland and Odessa.

Exzell Reports On Last Kiwanis Meet

Herschel Exzell, special representative of Kiwanis International, gave a report on the organization's last convention Thursday at the Big Spring Kiwanis club's weekly luncheon meeting in the Crawford hotel.

Exzell is in West Texas to complete organization of a Kiwanis club at Lamesa. The Big Spring club is sponsoring the new Lamesa unit.

Dave Duncan was principal speaker at the Thursday session. He reviewed progress of the oil industry, which will observe its 88th anniversary in August.

Looking 'Em Over

With TOMMY HART
Local folks who knew him when he put in here while manager of the Lubbock Hubbers before the war say Salty Parker's victory in the Texas league All-Star contest "couldn't have happened to a nicer fellow."

Parker is one of the most personable gents ever to play baseball in these parts. He succeeded Hack Miller at Lubbock and partners who had grown used to Hack's tirades against anything and everything didn't know how to take Parker for a while. He was and is as easy going as Our Town's Pat Stacey.

Stacey, incidentally, is completely sold on Willard Ramsdell's ability. Ramsdell, one of the most colorful athletes ever to wear a local uniform is making good in a big way in Fort Worth and Pat insists he is deserving of every bit of the praise he gets.

According to the Big Spring skipper, Will has at long last learned to deliver that knuckle ball. As a result, his control is exceptional. Stacey says that fluter pitch comes at you, stops, looks at you and then does a lazy dance. If you do manage to connect, you usually get only a piece of it and it goes no where.

Chuck Ellis, who started two games against the Broncs, has been signed by the San Angelo semi-pro diamond nine after he was cut loose by the Ballinger Cats.

Ellis, who spent some time in an Angelo hospital, had a world of stuff but had difficulty in getting the ball over the plate.

Two of the better success stories of the 1947 baseball season are those of Stu Williams of the Ballinger team and Sweetwater's awesome hitter, Bob Cowser.

Williams, son of Carl Williams of Texas league fame, was an ordinary player in the WT-NM league last year but is currently showing something like 450. He's not power-laden—in fact some of the railbirds even call him a banjo hitter—but he manages to collect his bingles.

Cowser was somewhat short of sensational in WT-NM league circles, too, but Longhorn pitchers can't get him out. The Sweetwater park is made to order for him and he likes to draw a bead on the local stadium's short left field fence. Stubby Greer, the Abilene skipper, predicted sometime ago he would hit 50 home runs this season. He's apt to do better than that.

One of the spectators at Wednesday night's abbreviated contest between Ballinger and Big Spring was Dutch Lorber, the one-time Beaumont skipper who now is scouting for the New York Yankees.

Dutch has staged a couple of schools for the Yanks this year, likes to catch the semi pro games in the hope of spotting some diamonds-in-the-rough.

Jack Wilson, the one-time Baylor university grid great who averaged 6.3 yards per scrimmage try for the Los Angeles football Rams last fall, has been signed by that team again.

Donnie Alexander, the former Big Spring hero who now resides in Houston, recently bowled a perfect game (300) on Houston maps, according to reports reaching here.

Grace Lenczyk Fem Favorite

COLUMBUS, O., July 11. (AP)—It's tee for two today in the 1947 National Women's Collegiate golf championship.

The two are Grace Lenczyk of Newton, Conn., 19-year-old physical education student from Arnold College, and Shirley Spork of Detroit, 20-year-old Physical Education student from Michigan State Normal.

Harry (The Hat) Walker, Philadelphia Phillie batting star, takes his two-toned bat to the plate and follows this flagey routine before every pitch. Walker rests the bat between his knees, buffs his cap (The Hat), scratches his arm, replaces the lid, blows his fingers, puts the bat back between his knees while he rubs his palms. The ritual pays off and Harry lashes out another hit in the bottom photo.

Don Black's No-Hitter Is First Of Season In American League

By The Associated Press
Don Black, a reformed character who was "all washed up" a year ago, has eclipsed his famous Cleveland teammate Bobby Feller by pitching the first no-hitter of the American League season.

The Indians' righthander, whose elbow bending cost him one big league job and sent him shuffling off to the Minors two seasons, is the No. 1 man of the Cleveland staff—at least for one brief 24-hour period. He gives all the credit to Alcoholic Anonymous which he joined last winter.

Black's effort was a little spotty in the early stages. He walked the first two men he faced and leaned heavily on his mates' fielding enroute to his dazzling success against his old Philadelphia mate.

Joe Gordon's overhead running catch of a Elmer Valo pop fly in right field in the third inning was the fielding gem that saved the day. Black, who had thrown two no-hitters for Petersburg, Va., in the Class D Virginia league in 1942, helped set up his 3-0 margin, pushing home one run with a squeeze bunt.

Feller, whose aching back forced him to miss the all-star game, racked up his 11th victory in the 2-1 second game but he required help from Ed Killeman in the ninth to save the edge given him by Hank Edward's two-run homer.

Lefty Joe Page, the New York Yankees' relief ace, added a new turn to his speciality and batted a ninth-inning home run that sunk the St. Louis Browns, 4-3.

Page's homer stretched the Yanks' win streak to nine and boosted their lead to 8 1/2 games over Detroit and Boston, who played a 2-2 tie game, called at the end of the eighth when the twilight became darkness.

Washington took both ends of a doubleheader from Chicago, 4-0, behind Early Wynn who registered his 10th win and 7-2 behind Rae Scarborough.

Brooklyn's Ralph Branca joined the parade of pitching the headlines by copping both games for Brooklyn against Chicago, the first 5-3 with the aid of relief help from Hank Behrman and Hugh Casey and the second 4-3 as a reliever for starter Harry Taylor.

The Braves frolicked for 16 hits in winning a 6-4 day game from Cincinnati for reliever Clyde Shoun as Tommy Holmes hit two homers. But the night game was a different story with the Reds' Bud Lively besting Bill Voiselle with a three-hitter, 2-1, on the strength of Babe Young's two-run homer. St. Louis served notice that its

Buffs In Slump But Other Clubs Don't Benefit

By The Associated Press
The Houston Buffs are in what might be called a slump, except that it isn't doing much damage to their leadership in the Texas league race.

The Buffs haven't won a game since Monday. Tuesday night they lost to San Antonio 8-0, Wednesday night they were beaten by the All-Stars 4-2 and last night they could do no better than a 1-1 tie with Fort Worth.

But it happens that Fort Worth is the second-place club and the Cats haven't gained on the Buffs any this week and third-place Shreveport couldn't take advantage of Houston last night because the Sports figured in a tie game, too. Shreveport was battled to a 10-inning 2-2 deadlock by Oklahoma City.

Dallas, the fourth-place outfit, didn't have a game. The only club able to advance was Tulsa which licked Beaumont 8-3 but the Oilers are still two games out of the first division.

The Houston-Fort Worth contest was an eleven-inning affair which had to be called to permit the Cats to catch a train for San Antonio. It was a pitcher's duel between Dwain Sloan and the Buffs' Al Papp until the final inning when Bob Austin had to come to Sloan's rescue to squelch a Buff threat that arose when Houston filled the bases with only one out.

Ernie Groth of Oklahoma City limited Shreveport to three hits but it happened two of them were for extra bases—Salty Parker's double that drove in a run and Bob Frichard's triple that brought in the other. This tilt was called in the tenth to allow Oklahoma City to catch a train.

It was a relief for at least one decision to be reached with Tulsa's victory over Beaumont. The Exporters got 13 hits to eight for Tulsa but couldn't make them count. Bill Lee hit a homer with the bases full in the seventh to help himself to a pitching victory in his first appearance for the Oilers.

Dallas moves to Houston, Fort Worth to San Antonio, Oklahoma City to Beaumont and Tulsa to Shreveport tonight to open three-game series.

DiMaggio Kin Hitting Ball On The Coast

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.
NEW YORK, July 11. (AP)—Joe DiMaggio II, nephew of the Yankee center, is playing American Legion baseball for Galileo post of San Francisco. At the last report he was hitting .465 but he wasn't known as much for that as for his habit of stealing four or five bases a game. That's more than Uncle Joe can do. . . Maurice (Rocket) Richard, who seldom gets hurt in a rough hockey game, busted his nose recently when he ran into the stands chasing a foul ball while playing baseball. . .

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

In the first time in years, the National Junior Tennis championships won't be ruled by Californians this summer. Since Herbie Flam graduated to senior ranks, the leading players are Buddy Behrens of Florida, Sid Schwartz of New York, Gil Bigley of Washington, D. Although Jack Banta, the Montreal Royals' strikeout sensation "arrived" only this year as a big league prospect, his record shows he whipped 105 batsmen in 26 games at Olean, N. Y., in 1944. . . Blair Cherry, Texas grid coach, maintains that 1947 quarterbacks will have to be smart enough to switch plays completely after they come out of the huddle and see the defensive setups.

Sweetwater Sports Move Into Steer Park Tonite

Cayuses' Lead Cut Full Game

Their Longhorn league lead cut to a slender one-and-a-half games, the Big Spring Broncs tangle with the Sweetwater Sports in Steer park at 8:15 p. m. this evening in an attempt to neutralize the Midland menace.

The Hosses were forced into idleness last night when Buddy Haneken, Ballinger pilot, called off the Cat-Cayuse contest due to the death of Stormy Davis, the Ballinger player who had been struck down by a pitched ball in a game at Sweetwater last week.

Davis died at 2 p. m. Thursday in a Sweetwater hospital and the Ballinger team departed town shortly thereafter to attend last rites.

Midland took advantage of Big Spring's enforced holiday by clipping Vernon twice in Vernon, 6-2 and 8-7, and lopped a full game off the Steeds' advantage.

The Sports, meanwhile, were grabbing the odd game of a three-bout series from Odessa, 4-2, in Odessa.

Sweetwater is 14 full games off Big Spring's pace but coming like the wind. In a series at Sweetwater last week, Joe Dotlich's crew managed to clip the Broncs twice in three tries. All Longhorn league clubs have found the Sports salty in the last month.

The guests, who will be here through Sunday, depend more on offense than defense to see them through. In Bob Cowser, Mac Dunlap, R. Murphy and Dotlich, they boast some of the top hitters in the league.

Gerry Rodriguez, little right-hander who has had his troubles lately, will attempt to get back on the victory path for the homelings this evening.

Hogan, Demaret Win At Toledo

TOLEDO, O., July 11. (AP)—The pre-tournament darkhorses looked like Man O'War and Whirlaway today as the Inverness Four-Ball $10,000 tournament wheeled into its second round matches.

Ed Furgol of Pontiac, Mich., and George Schoux of San Francisco, each a professional less than two years, teamed up yesterday to give the 14 other stars in this unique plus-minus affair a golf lesson they won't forget for some time.

Furgol, 28, and Schoux, 27, ripped the Inverness layout apart with nine birdies and an eagle for a best-ball of 30-30—60 against par 35-36—71 to set a new record for the event. During the previous nine tournaments the nation's top-flight pros hit the 61 mark three times.

In the other matches defending champions Ben Sneed and Jimmy Demaret defeated Sam Sneed and Dr. Cary Middlecoff, 2 up; Lloyd Langrum and Lawson Little won one up over Herman Barron and Herman Kelsier; and Ellisworth Vines and Clayton Heafner finished one up over Lew Worsham, National Open champ, and Johnny Palmer of Baden, N. C.

Hot Return Fight on KBST Tonight

Two top middleweights who have designs on the title, George Abrams (above), Brooklyn, and Steve Beloise of the Bronx, N. Y., clash tonight in a return ten-rounder at Madison Square Garden. In a whisker-close fight last fall, Abrams was awarded the decision. The referee called it a draw but the two judges voted in favor of George.

Beloise has had 27 setts since his Navy discharge, and has won all of them except the Abrams brawl. Twenty of these triumphs have been knockouts.

Abrams is a canny, ringwise performer. In fact, he's considered the cleverest boxer in the 160-lb. class. He possesses a good left hook and a fast right hand. It looks to be a Kilkenny and should make for mighty good listening.

HAVE YOU HEARD...

THE SPORT OF GREYHOUND RACING IS 1000 YEARS OLDER THAN HORSE RACING!

Horse racing began in the 12th Century in England. A champion greyhound, fastest dog living, can run neck-and-neck with a race horse for 1/8 of a mile.

AND
HAVE YOU HEARD . . . there's nothing can beat the grand-tastin' goodness of GRAND PRIZE. The full bodied flavor of this finer beer makes it the popular refreshment favorite with taste-wise Texans.

Cub Scouts May Have Seen Flying Discs

Three youths at the Cub day camp reported seeing something Thursday at 9:45 p. m. that might have been a "flying disc." The fiery object streaked south-westward across the skies at the city park, they said, during a violent electrical storm. Charles Willbanks, James and Paul Jenkins saw the phenomenon, whatever it was.

STATE ASKS REFUNDS FROM BANKS ON 'IMPROPER' PAYROLL WARRANTS

AUSTIN, July 11. (AP)—Attorney General Price Daniel said today that his department is making demand on seven Texas banks for refunds of a total of $62,470.62, paid out by the state "on 517 forged or otherwise improperly endorsed assignments on payroll warrants of the state department of agriculture."
"Virtually all of these warrants were handled by J. M. Del Curto," Daniel related in a written statement. Daniel related that the new figure of $62,470.62 resulted from a recheck by the auditor and attorney general's department on the warrants. State Auditor C. H. Cavness had previously reported that approximately $52,000 appeared to be due the state "as a result of payroll, etc., manipulations allegedly by a former head of the division of horticultural inspection and quarantine in the state department of agriculture."

Military Items Go To Greece

WASHINGTON, July 11. (AP)—Dwight Griswold, chief of the American aid mission to Greece, said today military supplies valued at $35,000,000 already are en route to equip the Greek army and navy on an "anti-bandit" basis. Griswold told a news conference that the equipment now moving to U. S. ports for shipment is largely from United States Army and Navy surplus. It includes light mountain pack artillery, mules, food for troops ammunition, and some trucks and jeeps. Shipments of military supplies, scheduled to comprise half the $300,000,000 aid program, probably will continue into the fall, Griswold said. Describing the efforts to maintain security as an essential part of economic recovery, Griswold said that "it would be hard to build a bridge and have it blown up right away."

"We believe the reconstruction program will help break up the guerrilla bands," he added.

Rainstorm

and wind, although a shower of no great consequence did fall to the west. What the picture was in southwest part of the county could not be ascertained immediately. Lines were down to Forsan where unconfirmed reports told of heavy rain and high wind. The same was true of Garden City. The Coahoma telephone exchange said that there had been practically no rain at Chalk or Westbrook, and to the north the showers had played out by the Charlie Engle corner and Vincent got only dust. Midland received 84 of an inch Sterling City reported more than an inch and there were unconfirmed reports of intense rain at Water Valley. Brady reported 56. Abilene 24. Colorado City had 39 and high winds. Snyder reported 35 of an inch. An estimated two inches fell at Loraine where trees were uprooted and 50 telephone poles in the north part of town were blown down. Electric service disruption here resulted from blown transformer fuses and from short circuits which were overcome by changing circuits to isolate trouble. Although damage could not be accurately assessed from R-Bar to Coahoma, benefits were expected to outweigh harm except possibly in the draw areas.

weather of the last two weeks, since the corn survey was made, have been favorable. "The wheat outlook also is better than at the time of the wheat crop report two weeks ago, when a harvest of 1,400,000,000 bushels was foreseen." Officials have been gravely concerned at the unfavorable corn outlook, fearing it would force increases in the price of grain, livestock and meat. A bumper wheat crop is in prospect. The Council's reported view of the price impact of the coal wage settlement is not shared by industry and congressional figures. Coal operators are almost unanimous in predicting that steel prices will rise, and Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has forecast a price boost of about $1.10 a ton. Dr. Emerson P. Schmidt of the United States Chamber of Commerce told a congressional hearing Wednesday that he believes the coal settlement is inflationary and will touch off a general demand for higher wages.
