Fit For A Queen

PARIS (AP)—France's highest society used the Venus de Milo's pedestal for a cocktail table and ancient Greek vases for cigarette butts at the party last night for Queen Elizabeth.

Prince Philip, the Queen's husband, smoking a big Havana cigar, came dangerously close to Raphael's painting of St. Michael.

It all happened at a gala dinner and reception given by Premier Guy Mollet and his Cabinet for the visiting Queen at the Louvre museum. The party lasted into the early hours today.

More than 3,000 guests swarmed around the Queen in efforts to get a close look at her.

The museum's centuries-old statues and paintings probably never witnessed such a celebration. The museum keepers and guards certainly were never so nervous as the buffet guests lit cigarettes while waiting for the Queen to come out of the dining room.

"Can you imagine that!" said one veteran on the staff. "I have never seen anybody smoke inside the museum before. Let's hope they won't start a fire."

The smokers were in good company. Philip left the dining room with his cigar burning. French President Rene Coty had one going too.

The royal procession after coffee set off a rush that deserted the buffet. Tail-coated men helped ladies in bouffant skirts onto 5,000-year-old Egyptian statues to have a better look at the sovereign. The crush almost smothered the Queen, but her smile never wavered.

Elizabeth missed the Venus and most of the masterpieces for which the Louvre is famous. It was just as well. Three museum attendants took turns removing the guests' empty glasses from the armless Greek lady's base, then finally gave up. Neck-craning lookers obscured other statues and paintings. Cigarette ends smoldered in two empty greek vases.

If the museum surrendered part of its authority over its valuable pieces, it took no chances with possible thieves. A plainclothesman stood outside in the chilly night by each of the 48 windows.

Soil Bank Cut Requested

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today told Congress it can cut 254 million dollars from the $1,254,000,000 he asked to operate the soil bank program in the 12 months beginning July 1.

This reduces his budget request for the program to an even billion dollars.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty said that the change resulted from a detailed study of operations of the soil bank program which has just been completed.

This study showed, he said, that "the financial needs of the program in 1958 will be less than was contemplated at the time of the preparation of the 1958 budget."

Eisenhower notified Congress of the changed estimate in a letter to House Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex).

Hagerty said the reduction had no relation to a resolution the House adopted asking the President to pick the spots where his 72-billion-dollar budget can be cut substantially.

Rather, Hagerty said, the action is in response to "what the President has said many times is a continuing review of the budget."

The soil bank program provides for payments to farmers for agreeing to take land out of production of crops in surplus supply.

Hagerty gave three reasons why the financial requirements for the program will be lower:

1. It is estimated the sign-up by farmers for the program will be smaller and that payments will be less than was originally anticipated.

2. The timing of payments will be at dates in the calendar year later than expected.

3. There will be a substantial reduction in operating expenses from the level originally contemplated.

Summerfield Maps Sharp Postal Cuts

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department said today there will be some outright layoffs of postal workers and reductions in working hours for others due to the service cutbacks to be started Saturday.

Postmaster General Summerfield estimated last week that about 20,000 employes would "be affected" by the service reductions. He sent postmasters an order last Friday to curtail services after failing to get assurance that Congress would appropriate the 47 million dollars he says he must have to maintain normal service through June 30.

Officials said the 20,000 include "both temporary employes and substitutes, working on a parttime basis, who will be laid off entirely, and some regular fulltime workers who will suffer through curtailment of working hours and elimination of overtime work."

When Summerfield talked of cutting back postal service, if he didn't get his request appropriation, Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House Appropriations Committee called it "unadulterated bluff."

But the present situation points toward virtual certainty of no regular mail delivery next Saturday and the closing of post office windows that day.

Last Friday, after Summerfield argued with the committee about his need for the money, the committee voted to recommend appropriation of 17 million dollars. It said it would give some further consideration a week later, meaning tomorrow April 12, to whether the department should have the other 30 million.

It was after last Friday's committee session that Cannon told the House in a speech that Summerfield was bluffing.

Bill Okayed On Treating Of Addicts

AUSTIN (AP) — Among bills approved and sent to the governor by the House last night was one allowing state hospitals to provide treatment for narcotic addicts.

The work could be undertaken by the institutions "if they have the facilities available," said Rep. Richard White of El Paso, the author

It was among the local and uncontested measures jammed through to final passage, or approved and sent to the Senate. Rep. Robert Jackson of Corsicana voted "no" on each measure.

The bills included those:

By Sen. William Moore of Bryan, validating certain cities' extension of boundary lines, except cities now in litigation over changes. Sent to the governor.

By Sen. Jep Fuller of Port Arthur, creating a juvenile board for Jefferson County. Sent to the governor.

By Sen. Jimmie Phillips, creating Galveston County Road District 1 and authorizing it to issue tax and revenue bonds for construction and maintenance of roads. Sent to the governor.

By Phillips, authorizing Galveston County to construct a substation county office across the causeway. Sent to the governor.

By Rep. Vernon Stewart of Wichita Falls, requiring persons seeking a distributors, sale or manufacturers beer license to give notification by publication in an area daily newspaper at least twice.

Reuther Offers Plan To Keep Skilled Workers In His Union

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Walter P. Reuther is offering a plan today to the United Auto Workers convention to keep craft unions from taking skilled workers from the big industrial union.

Reuther, who was unanimously re-elected UAW president yesterday for a seventh term, already has pledged his supporters to amend the union's constitution to take care of the demands of skilled workers.

The proposed changes would permit skilled groups to negotiate supplemental contracts for pay increases substantially beyond contract minimums.

Reuther said the changes did not mean abandonment of industrial unionism. He called if "refining the industrial structure of our union."

The changes also are designed to carry out Reuther's program of organizing engineers, technicians and other white-collar workers.

Reuther argued that these groups "can best solve their problems and advance their common individual interests only as they stand together through the instrument of a single powerful industrial union."

The UAW leadership has had difficulty keeping skilled tradesmen happy ever since the current contracts were negotiated in 1955. Some skilled workers complained they were getting only about 20 cents an hour more than unskilled production workers.

At present the average pay for production workers is $2.34 an hour. The average rate of skilled workers ranges upward from $2.60 an hour.

The UAW program would raise the age limit at which workers can begin their apprentice training. The new limit would be restricted to workers already employed in plants. This would give production workers an opportunity to train themselves for better jobs.

Re-elected unanimously with Reuther were five other international officers — Secretary-Treasurer Emil Mazey and Vice Presidents Richard T. Gosser, Norman Matthews, Leonard Woodcock and Pat Greathouse.

In regional meetings, delegates re-elected 18 members of the International Executive Board and elected one new member, E. T. Michael of Hagerstown, Md. The Executive Board members, who serve as regional directors, are all supporters of Reuther.

The convention elected Paul Lawson of Philadelphia as a trustee for a full six-year term. Treva L. Berger of Waukegan, Ill., was elected trustee for four years to fill a vacancy.

The UAW constitution was amended to provide that the biennial convention be held in October instead of April.

Plans For Tax Bill Defeated In House

AUSTIN (AP)—First efforts to get an administration-blessed new tax bill ready for debate in the Legislature were beaten swiftly today by the House.

Rep. Tom Joseph of Waco, author of the proposed gas reserve dedication tax, asked permission to have the chief clerk and an enacting clause to his measure which had been left off "inadvertently."

He was refused the permission, 66 to 68. It would have taken a four-fifths majority. This in effect left the bill valueless.

"I'm changing my tactics," Joseph said afterwards. "I'm getting a record of the vote and I'm doing some thinking."

Discussion on the floor about Joseph's motions disclosed that that bill had been prepaid with "mutual agreement" of Gov. Price Daniel's office. Daniel said shortly after the bill was introduced that if the state had to have new taxes the dedication tax proposal represented his views.

Representatives were particularly eager to know who made the damaging mistake of leaving out the enacting clause in drawing up the bill. Several persons asked if the one responsible was not Jake Jacobsen, Daniel's administrative assistant. Joseph never answered the question directly.

After the vote, Rep. James Turman, author of the controversial teachers' pay raise bill, said that because of the development he was thinking again of trying for action at once on his bill. The measure was sent back to the attorney general yesterday for another opinion of whether it could be considered before the major appropriations bill.

Far down the list of measures to be considered today by the House was a proposal to reshuffle the congressional districts. The bill moved upward a notch yesterday, passing on second reading. Involved in the original bill was the home district of Speaker Sam Rayburn, now the second smallest in the nation. The latest version of redistricting as amended and advanced left Rayburn's district untouched.

Coffee Price Comes Down

NEW YORK (AP)—Two major coffee roasters and a big food chain announced coffee price cuts today. The reductions by the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., General Foods Corp. and Standard Brands Inc. followed a recent drop in the cost of green coffee beans.

Standard Brands was the latest to make the move, with a cut of 4 cents a pound in the wholesale price of Chase & Sanborn coffee.

A&P cut its bag-packed coffee 2 to 4 cents a pound. The new prices are 89 cents for Red Circle, down 2 cents; 93 cents for Bokar, down 2 cents; and 83 cents for Eight O'Clock, down 4 cents.

General Foods reduced wholesale prices of its coffees 2 to 4 cents a pound. This followed a cut of 2 to 3 cents by the company on Feb. 25.

Maxwell House, Yuban and Regular Sanka were cut 4 cents, and Regular Bliss was reduced 2 cents.

Standard Brands, manufacturer of Chase & Sanborn, "has made no move on coffee prices up to this time," a spokesman reported.

24 Aboard Brazillian Airliner Are Killed

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — Four persons survived the flaming crash of a Brazilian airliner on Anchieta Island last night. All 24 others aboard perished, an official report said.

The plane of the Real Airline went down in a storm while en route from Rio de Janeiro to Sao Paulo. The plane exploded, setting fire to the surrounding brush. The survivors — two adults, a child and the plane's stewardess—were not found until daybreak. Their condition is serious.

A Varig Airline crashed in southern Brazil on Sunday, killing 40 persons.

Insurance Firm Hearing Delayed

By FRANK N. MANITZAS

AUSTIN (AP)—Over protest from its own attorneys, the Insurance Commission postponed today a show-cause hearing for Physicians' Life and Accident Insurance Co. of America.

Paul Connor, counsel for the commission, said the board should go on with its hearing even though former Gov. Coke Stevenson was absent.

Stevenson is president of Physicians' Life and a major stockholder in the Dallas firm.

The board recessed its hearing until April 22 on a plea from F. L. Kuykendall of Austin, Physicians' Life lawyer.

He produced a letter from Dr. W. E. Watt of Austin who said Stevenson is "quite ill, is confined to his bed with a recurring severe attack of influenza."

"Other witnesses are here and the board would not be abusing its discretion but would be protecting the stockholders, policyholders and the public," if the hearing was held, Conner said.

"A delay will do nothing but protect interests of a small group of insiders who brought this situation into being."

Commission Chairman John Osorio said:

"This board is getting tired of dilatory pleas from companies seeking to strengthen their case. We will recess until April 22. At that time we will proceed with evidence regardless of whether Mr. Stevenson is able to attend."

Osorio said other company officials could appear for the concern.

The commission has alleged that the company is insolvent, with half its capital impaired. The hearing was called for the company to show cause why receivership proceedings should not be started.

The company's license expires May 31.

Under commission inquiry are allegedly illegal stock manipulations and other financial transactions. Among the allegations is one that the concern issued life insurance policies with a face value of $1,044,000 without premiums.

A grand jury in Dallas is looking into Physicians' Life.

Stevenson claims the company is solvent and denies its assets are impaired.

Showers Hit Some Areas

By The Associated Press

Thundershowers soaked scattered areas of southeast Texas Thursday. Fog covered most areas south of Austin and San Antonio at dawn.

Thundershowers fell at Lufkin and Beaumont. Scattered showers were forecast as a mass of warm Gulf air moved northward to meet cooler air moving south. A cold front was pushing into Oklahoma and was expected to reach Texas Friday, touching off more scattered rain.

Skies over the state were mostly cloudy except in the western part where it was mostly fair.

Dawn temperatures ranged from 38 at Dalhart to 73 at Brownsville.

Beaumont, with 2.65 inches, reported the heaviest overnight rainfall. Galveston had .64 inches, Palacios .26, Lufkin .25, Waco .05, College Station .04, Corpus Christi .04, Kingsville .03, Beeville .02, and Austin .02.

Egyptian Charges Denied By Israel

JERUSALEM (AP) — An Israeli Foreign Ministry spokesman denied today Egyptian charges that Israeli troops still hold two points on the Egyptian Aqaba Gulf coast.

The spokesman, Moshe Leshem, said no protest had reached Israel from any United Nations authorities on the Egyptian claims.

MYSTERY UNSOLVED

Crater Found In Back Yard

SAN GABRIEL, Calif. (AP)—Sheriff's deputies stood guard today at the spot where demolition experts believe an unidentified object crashed into the ground.

A small crater, like one left by a dud bomb, touched off a search that yesterday took Army Ordnance experts 10 feet deep into the back yard of a San Gabriel home.

"A falling object caused the crater," said an Army spokesman. "We want to get to it to make sure it isn't dangerous."

What residents thought was a sonic boom rocked the San Gabriel Valley, a Los Angeles suburb, early Tuesday.

Later, Pat Murphy, 10, found the crater in the back yard of his home. He told his father Oscar about it. Murphy called sheriff's deputies, who called the Army.

Ordnance experts at nearby Ft. MacArthur began digging early yesterday.

By dark last night a hole about 10 feet wide and 10 feet deep — shored with heavy timbers — had been sunk into sandy soil without discovering anything more menacing than a rusted baby carriage.

Ordnance men said that the crater could have been caused by a falling missile, a meteor, a 100-pound dud bomb or any other object about six inches in diameter.

"There was no explosion when the object hit," said an Army man. He said many Air Force planes were flying at the time of the reported sonic boom.

Bootlegging On Campus

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A spokesman for the University of Mississippi said a perfect set of record books helped officers break up what they called a student bootlegging ring on the campus.

The spokesman said John W. Ellis of Vicksburg had records showing he had paid the state "black market" tax on the liquor seized by a police raiding party in a university dormitory Tuesday.

Ellis, a School of Commerce sophomore, pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace W. A. Fulmer yesterday to liquor charges. He was expelled permanently from school.

Four other students were identified in the records as having been paid for liquor sales, the university spokesman reported.

Beach Re-Elected

HOUSTON (AP)—An official of George McFadden & Co., Roy Beach Jr., was re-elected president of the Houston Cotton Exchange yesterday.

Iran Bandit's Son Is Killed

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A police spokesman said today a 16-year-old son of the bandit leader Dadshah has been killed in the running fight with the gang that slew three Americans March 24.

The youth, Kamal, was reported killed in a gunfight with police between April 1 and April 5. The spokesman said there still is no evidence that Dadshah himself has been slain, as claimed by his brother Ahmed, who was captured Sunday in Pakistan with another brother and other gang members.

Police are continuing a widespread search for Dadshah of his body and other members of the gang that killed Mrs. and Mrs. Kevin Carroll, Brester Wilson and two Iranians in a wild desert area of southeast Iran. The band now is believed to number only eight or nine men.

Fluvanna Dinner Planned Tonight

A group of Snyder businessmen will go to Fluvanna tonight, where farmers in that area will be their guests at a dinner meeting.

The event will be the second in a series of farmer-businessmen's dinners sponsored by the Snyder Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee. The meeting is set for 8 p.m. in the Fluvanna School cafeteria.

Most of the Snyder delegation will leave at about 7:15 p.m. from the Chamber of Commerce office.

Tickets for the dinner have been on sale for the past two days in Snyder. The tickets, which sell for $3 each, will remain on sale at the chamber office until 7 p.m., and also will be available at the door tonight in Fluvanna.

A ticket purchased by a Snyder businessman will admit the purchaser and one Fluvanna area farmer to the dinner. Over 50 tickets had been sold this morning, and sales were continuing. Reports were that some 75 Fluvanna area farmers will attend.

There will be no speaker at the dinner. Special entertainment has been arranged in Fluvanna, and John Boren will be master of ceremonies.

The first farmer-businessmen's dinner in the current series was held last fall in Hermleigh. Similar events will be held in other communities during the coming months.

Dies Yesterday

MOLINE, Ill. (AP) — Frederick Hendon, 71, organizer of the South Texas Press Assn. in 1927, died yesterday. He worked on newspapers in San Antonio for 20 years and edited papers in Texas and Arkansas for 30 years before retiring 4 years ago. Services will be held in San Antonio Saturday.

FICTION CAUSES REAL PROBLEMS

DALLAS (AP)—Notes he wrote and threw into a barroom wastebasket got an aircraft plant worker into trouble.

One said "put all the money in a sack."

The man, 24, said he wrote the notes while practicing to be a fiction writer. Officers said today they couldn't link the man with any actual robberies but held him for investigation.

WEATHER

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Wednesday, 85 degrees; low Wednesday night, 45 degrees; reading at 7:30 a.m. today, 52 degrees.

West Texas — Cloudy with occasional drizzle in Panhandle, except changing to freezing drizzle in north tonight. Elsewhere partly cloudy through Friday. Colder in Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon and tonight. Lowest 30-35 in Panhandle and 33-45 in South Plains tonight.

Tax Cutting Hopes Growing

WASHINGTON (AP)—Income tax reduction at this session of Congress became an increasing possibility today.

Speaker Rayburn of Texas, leader of the controlling Democratic majority in the House, said prospects are "good" for a tax cut effective next Jan. 1. He commented after an unusual policy meeting yesterday with Democratic members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

Rayburn's statement reflected Democratic determination to make tax reduction at this session of Congress a party issue — and possibly beat Republicans to the wire before next year's elections.

Rayburn made clear his belief that Congress can pass a tax reduction bill in time to apply to next year's income — provided the government's tax revenues hold up at anticipated levels, and Congress continues its budget-cutting campaign.

House Republicans, who thus far have taken no official position, displayed an eagerness to get into the act on their own. President Eisenhower and his tax advisers have taken a wait-and-see position on tax reduction, with suggestions that revenue surpluses be applied first to debt reduction.

Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts told reporters he, too, was "for a tax cut just as soon as we can do it." Commenting on Rayburn's statement, he added, "If we can cut spending, we'll join 'em."

Rep. Reed of New York, senior Republican member of the Ways and Means Committee, told newsmen he was "just as anxious for a tax cut as anyone, providing he can do it with safety to our fiscal affairs."

Rep. Cannon (D-Mo), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said he believed the House will make enough cuts in President Eisenhower's $71,800,000,000 spending budget to justify income tax reduction.

The House already has slashed a billion dollars from the President's budget. Still to come are the principal sources of still larger potential slashes — the defense and foreign and appropriation bills. But the Senate, which frequently increases the House figures, has not yet acted on any of the bills.

Before they act on tax reduction House members want to see what the government's income is going to be. A sizable drop in tax level of around 69 billion dollars this year might half early action.

More will be known about the revenue picture when the Treasury reports soon after April 15 on the volume of tax receipts for this fiscal year.

Weeks Hit By Economy Wave

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — George Magoffin Humphrey, onetime businessman and now secretary of the Treasury, is not the only one in the Eisenhower administration who talked big about economy and got a bigger dose than he could stand.

Another is Sinclair Weeks, onetime businessman and now secretary of commerce.

Earlier this year, in the midst of the confusion within the administration whether the President's budget could or should be cut, Weeks took a strong position on the side of the President, who considers his budget fairly tight.

Weeks defended the budget. He said it was designed to carry out the Republican program of "peace, prosperity and progress." By March 17 he was taking a bold stand for slashing the budget. In a TV interview that day he said:

"The thing that scares me" about the handling of the record peacetime budget of 72 billion dollars "is that . . . they will add to it instead of subtracting."

In a generous mood he suggested Congress could start cutting by whacking 50 million dollars off the money asked for his Commerce Department. But two days later Rep. Preston (D-Ga), a member of the House Appropriations Committee, had something to say.

He accused Weeks of double-talk. Said Preston:

"He's saying one thing to the TV audience for public consumption and another thing to the Appropriations Committee . . . (He) is supporting every handout . . . every subsidy. He said he couldn't find any places to cut his budget. We're going to show him how it can be done."

And the House did. It chopped $217,899,000 off the 871½ Weeks wanted for the Commerce Department. Now Weeks is appealing to the Senate to restore at least $78,892,940 of it.

The record of Weeks' testimony before the House committee shows he said: "I am just saying in a general way that I am for economy."

But it's Humphrey who made far and away the biggest noise about budget-cutting without ever getting around to saying where. Whatever it was he wanted, he got more than he wanted.

But the House took Humphrey at his word — just as it took Weeks at his — that there could be cuts. It knocked 22 million dollars off Humphrey's request for $691,457,000 to run the Treasury another year.

This was too much for Humphrey. The Senate now has to pass on Humphrey's money request for the Treasury. So he wrote the Senate, asking that eight million of the 22 million taken away from him be restored.

Yorktown's Bank Taken Over Today

YORKTOWN, Tex. (AP) — The First State Bank, which closed yesterday after state banking examiners reported a shortage of $150,000 to $155,000, was in the hands of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. today.

Criminal charges are expected to be filed by FBI agents at Houston, who are handling the case.

The shortage reported by bank examiners was more than twice the combined capital and surplus of the bank in this small DeWitt County town. The bank had a capital of $35,000 and a surplus of $35,000.

The bank was closed yesterday after directors voted to place the institution in the hands of the state.

State Banking Commissioner J. M. Falkner said a high official of the bank told an examiner that he was responsible for $112,000 of the loss.

Falkner said the shortage was brought about by manipulation of the books and accounts by such devices as "pulling the ledger sheets."

The state commissioner said he did not know whether more than one person was involved in the shortage, nor how far back it went.

The FDIC, of which the bank was a member, is taking over the affairs of the bank. Individual depositors are protected by the FDIC up to $10,000 and repayment was expected to start within the next few days.

Falkner designated the FDIC as bank receiver.

Sonic Boom Blamed For Hard Blast

CEDAR CITY, Utah (AP)—A sonic boom was blamed today by residents of this southwestern Utah community for an explosion which shattered an estimated 100 windows.

One man was knocked down; a woman was cut in the face when a storm door shattered; a boy was hit by flying debris. There were no serious injuries.

There was no official explanation for the blast, in late afternoon yesterday. Most speculation was, however, that it was caused by a jet plane breaking the sound barrier. Many residents said they saw a jet plane in the area during the afternoon.

Nearest Air Force Base to Cedar City is Nellis at Las Vegas, Nev., about 150 airline miles to the southwest. A spokesman at the base would not comment on the possibility that it was a Nellis plane that caused the blast but he said a team of investigators would be sent to the scene.

Ralph Thomas, utility company manager, said he saw a jet plane fly in from the southwest "at a low altitude and doing acrobatics." He said the craft climbed over the town, dived and climbed again sharply.

Wet Weather Expected In Broad Areas

By The Associated Press

Wet weather was the outlook for broad areas from the Rockies to the Middle Atlantic states today.

A fast-moving storm headed for the southern Great Lakes region during the night, spreading rain or snow across sections of the upper and middle Mississippi Valley and the upper Great Lakes.

Showers extended from Iowa and northern Missouri across southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois into Lower Michigan. Snow fell to the north of the showery belt with falls ranging from 1 to 2 inches in northern parts of Wisconsin and Michigan.

Snow also was reported from western Montana southeastward across Wyoming into northern Colorado and western Nebraska, with falls in most places light. However, they measured 2 to 3 inches in Cheyenne, Wyo., and Sidney, Neb. Snow flurries sprayed areas in the Dakotas.

Showers and thunderstorms hit southeastern Texas and southern Louisiana, with falls of more than half an inch in Lake Charles, La., and Houston.

Civil War Suit Okayed

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The House has approved a resolution allowing a suit against the state for some Civil War bonds which a representative said could cost Texas up to three million dollars.

The resolution allows Mrs. W. B. Bufort of New Orleans and George B. Lindler of Houston, Tex., to sue for $46,000 worth of Civil War bonds issued by the state in 1861 and allegedly never redeemed. The sponsor, Rep. Carlton Moore, said Lindler is the administrator of the estate of Jeff Chandler, who originally owned the bonds.

Rep. Tony Korioth failed in an effort to knock off the provision allowing the interest. He said the 8 per cent interest on the bonds could run the total owned to three million dollars if the suit was successful.

Approval to sue the state does not acknowledge liability. The case still must be tried in a state court if the resolution passes the Senate.

Federal Aid To Schools Is Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill to grant two billion dollars in federal aid for school construction takes its next congressional step today — full committee consideration.

Rep. Bailey (D-WVa) said in advance he would recommend approval of the bill by the House Education and Labor Committee.

Indications were that backers were in no hurry to get the bill to the floor in the present atmosphere of budget cutting.

Rep. Powell (D-NY) said he would offer in committee his amendment to deny federal aid to school districts practicing racial segregation in the classrooms. His amendment was adopted last year by the House which then sent a school aid bill back to committee.

Bailey is chairman of a subcommittee which approved the new measure 6-1 last Thursday.

The bill would provide federal grants to the states, totaling 400 million dollars a year for five years. Each state would match its grant on a 50-50 basis.

Half of the 400 million would be distributed on the basis of school age population. The other half would be distributed on the basis of need.

The measure also would set up a federal fund of 750 million dollars for purchase of school construction bonds which local districts cannot market at reasonable interest rates.

Long Absence Comes To End

GAINESVILLE, Ga. (AP)—After an absence of 42 years, a Gainesville man has returned to find his wife remarried and widowed while he was away.

Egbert B. Maxwell, 72, left his wife and 6-year-old son in 1915 to get a job in Montana. He wrote a letter to her a year later saying he would be home soon, but that was the last she heard from him.

The wife, now about 70, said she believed him dead and under state law was free to marry again after 1922. She married M. D. Singleton in 1925. He died in 1944.

Maxwell returned to Gainesville Monday and received a warm welcome from his wife, now Mrs. Singleton, and their son, Alvin, with whom she lives. However, Maxwell went to stay with a brother, D. C. Maxwell, in Dahlonega, 20 miles north of here.

Soil Conservation Funds Are Requested

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reps. Wright and Teague, Texas Democrats, urged yesterday funds to speed soil conservation work on the Trinity River watershed.

They asked the House Appropriations subcommittee to include enough money to step up work during the fiscal year starting July 1 on authorized projects in the Trinity Basin.

STEINBERG WINNING

Symphony Group Faces Challenge

WARREN, Pa. (AP)—A symphony orchestra, says Conductor William Steinberg, faces a great challenge "to preach the gospel of music wherever we can."

As leader of the Pittsburgh Symphony — steadily winning acclaim as one of the world's great orchestras — Steinberg believes in meeting that challenge. Their concert last night in this northwestern Pennsylvania city of 15,000 marked the final stop in a series unique among musical organizations of similar stature.

The symphony entourage of more than 100 persons travelled 80 miles to play the single engagement, before a capacity audience of 600. Today the orchestra returned to Pittsburgh where weekend concerts will conclude the winter season of 121 performances in 51 cities scattered among 15 states from Michigan to Florida.

Is such a strenuous schedule, venturing off the beaten path of large musical units, worth while? Definitely so, Steinberg says.

"Even if one concedes that so-called 'popular' music is better understood, one finds the American people very receptive to all kinds of serious music," he told an interviewer.

Major orchestras in the U. S. and Europe regularly go on tour. But usually they visit other large cities.

Last night's concert in Warren, and five other stops during the season were, on the contrary, big musical events in relatively small communities.

All costs were paid by Manufacturers Light & Heat Co., a natural gas firm serving western Pennsylvania area outside Pittsburgh. The utility scheduled the concerts as a public service. Local sponsors kept all proceeds from ticket sales for use in local projects.

Death Of Two Boys Blamed On Pennies

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Two boys burned to death when fire swept their home yesterday and Joseph Ahearn, fire battalion chief, blamed it on pennies behind the fuses in the electrical system.

Mrs. Birto Doss managed to rescue one son, Birto Jr., 2½ but flames and smoke drove her back when she tried to reach David, 20 months, and Eugene, 7 months.

The pennies in the fuse box let too much current flow into the electrical wiring. Chief Ahearn said overheated wires set the house afire.

500-Room Addition

HOUSTON (AP)—Conrad Hilton Sr. yesterday said his hotel chain is contemplating a 500-room addition to the Shamrock Hilton Hotel here, boosting the hotel's room total to 1,400. The cost will be about six million dollars.

Ship In Suez Canal Catches Fire Today

SUEZ (AP)—Local firemen and Suez Canal tugs today extinguished a fire which broke out on an Indian freighter waiting to enter the canal, but not until most of the ship's cotton cargo was destroyed and severe damage done to three of the holds.

The vessel was identified as the 7,000-ton Galvallaph, a name not listed in Lloyd's register.

There was no immediate indication of the cause of the fire or if there were any casualties.

Architect Is Being Held

NEW YORK (AP) — An architect whose 84-year-old mother died after a beating has been held without bail on a homicide charge.

Fremont Amory, 51, originally was charged with felonious assult March 27 after Mrs. Mae Amory was found beaten in their apartment.

Police said the son kicked and punched her and fractured her skull.

The charge against Amory was changed to homicide after his mother died last Monday.

In Felony Court yesterday, Magistrate Jack L. Nicoll held the son without bail pending a hearing April 26.

Solons Are Praised By Tourist Group

AUSTIN (AP) — The Legislature has been praised by the Texas Tourist Foundation for its action toward removing the constitutional ban on using state funds to advertise Texas.

Board chairman F. W. Burton of Decatur said he believed the public would "have an opportunity to vote on advertising Texas to the rest of the world." He said Texas was the nation's only state forbidding such advertising.

The House and Senate have already passed the amendment. The House added an amendment that state businesses must match all funds appropriated. The Senate must consider the proposal again.

Lack Of Shelters

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A top civil defense administrator says major cities would suffer more than 90 per cent casualties in a nuclear attack because of the lack of underground shelters. Gerald R. Gallagher, Battle Creek, Mich., said he favors spending 44 billion dollars for bomb shelters.

Energy needs soar
IN FAST-GROWING WEST
El Paso sets new records in serving western markets* 1956

In 1956, the nine Western and Southwestern states now served by El Paso Natural Gas Company and its subsidiary companies reached record levels of prosperity. Population increased by almost one million persons. Per capita income was at an all-time high. New businesses and industries sprang into existence.

This brought soaring demands for energy — and foreshadowed far greater requirements in the future.

In 1956, El Paso Natural Gas Company set new records in meeting Western needs. More important, it took positive steps to enable it to serve this growing market in the future.

Looking to the future, El Paso—

- Constructed and placed in service approximately two-thirds of an additional system capacity of 450 million cubic feet per day, authorized by the Federal Power Commission in late 1955.
- Contracted to deliver an additional 435 million cubic feet of natural gas per day to Western customers. Upon completion of expansion programs required under these preliminary agreements, El Paso will have a delivery capacity somewhat in excess of three billion cubic feet of gas per day.
- Obtained access—through acquisition (completed in early 1957) of Pacific Northwest Pipeline Corporation — to the proven and potential sources of natural gas that can be economically delivered to markets served by the entire system.
- Consolidated its position in oil production, refining and marketing, and established bases for participation in petrochemical production.

YWA Associational Meet To Start Here Tomorrow

A house party for members of the Young Women's Auxiliary of the Mitchell-Scurry YWA Association will be held at the Colonial Hill Baptist Church tomorrow and Saturday.

Registration begins at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and supper will be served for the young women at 6 o'clock in the church.

Three personalities on the program will give the meeting an international flavor.

One of the speakers is Jed Warwar, a young man from Khanoak, Nazareth, Israel, a premedical student at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene.

Another is Pat Karita, from Honolulu, Hawaii, who is a young woman majoring in music at H-SU, and a third is the Rev. Carlos Garcia, pastor of the First Mexican Baptist Church, Abilene.

Garcia has been a worker with Spanish people in Gallup, N.M., a Missionary to Spanish people in Carlsbad, and with the Home Mission Board from Santa Clara Province in Cuba.

Fun and fellowship is on tap for the young women, because the invitations stipulate that each girl bring her girl friends and bedding for a pajama party.

Entertainment will include a variety show, skits, and a film.

'Auntie Mame' Is Reviewed At Meeting Of Study Club

Mrs. Clyde Hall Jr. was hostess to the members of the Cosmorama Study Club and guests, members of the Snyder Book Review Club, Wednesday afternoon in the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Mrs. John H. Boren, first vice president, welcomed members and guests.

Mrs. Fred Bullard introduced the guest reviewer, Mrs. M. K. Stevenson Sr. of Harlingen.

Mrs. Stevenson reviewed "Auntie Mame" by Patrick Dennis. This novel has been a record-breaking best seller ever since its publication in 1950, and it is currently a hit Broadway play. Like no other aunt in literature, or on stage, Auntie Mame is riotous, rbeellious and sophisticated.

Her shenanigans, as reported by an appreciative nephew, make a highly amusing story. Mrs. Stevenson gave the entertaining review in first person, as it was written.

Mrs. Malven Stevenson presided at the tea table, which was laid with an imported cut-work table cloth and centered with an arrangement of iris. Appointments were silver.

Other guests present were Mrs. D. M. Cogdell Jr., Mrs. Gene Dulaney, Mrs. Bill Eiland, Mrs. Mable Brock, and Mrs. Richard D. Myers of Midland.

DATE DATA

By BEVERLY BRANDOW

Kiss and tell! Ever hear that expression? Do you know what people think of boys and girls who do?

People will listen because they're nosy, but down deep inside they think those who kiss and tell are babies. They're right, too.

A kiss is an expression of affection and it is an entirely private, personal matter. Those who talk about who they've kissed and what it was like show lack of feeling. There is no depth of personality there but only a brittle, shallow shell.

Both boys and girls are known to "kiss and tell' but you will notice that the quieter, more sincere of each sex keep their private lives private.

There is always much more interest created by the person whose life is not an open book with a book review on the first page.

Worse yet than those who discuss the tender moments spent with a special date are those who display them by necking in movie theatres or indulging in maudlin smooching in the halls at school.

Just as deplorable are those who park to hug and kiss with another couple in the backseat.

Double dates are fun, but they aren't designed for love-making. When you really like a girl, you won't want an audience to your goodnight kiss.

One of the tests by which you can tell whether teen-agers are really interested in each other or in proving "how grown up they are" to their friends is in the way they handle the romantic side of dating.

Do you kiss and tell?

Add Touch To Salads

Planning a salad luncheon or supper? Muffins Mexicana are a fine accompaniment.

Sift together 2 cups sifted enriched flour, 1 tablespoon baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons sugar. Combine 1 beaten egg, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons melted shortening, ½ cup cooked whole kernel corn, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento.

Add liquid to flour mixture, stirring only until flour is moistened. Fill greased muffin cups 2-3 full.

Bake in hot oven (425 degrees F.) 20 minutes. Makes about 1 dozen medium-sized (2-inch) muffins.

Wine Bonanza

More than 10 million bottles of champagne are imported by the United States from France each year. Belgium is the largest per capita consumer of champagne.

Construction Of San Angelo Reclamation Project Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration yesterday gave the green light to Congress to authorize construction of a huge $32,220,000 reclamation project at San Angelo, Tex., with federal backing.

The recommendation was made by Fred G. Aandahl, assistant secretary of the Interior, in his report to the House. The Senate already has passed the measure and a similar bill is pending in the House.

W. A. Dexheimer, Reclamation commissioner, said the development would provide an important new water supply for urban and industrial expansion near San Angelo. It would be on Concho River tributaries in the upper reaches of the Colorado River Basin.

Dexheimer said the project would support irrigation of 10,000 acres of agricultural land on the Lipan Flat east of San Angelo and would "make a major contribution to recreation, fish and wildlife, and flood control."

The San Angelo area, first stop made by President Eisenhower on his tour of the Southwestern drought belt last January, is in need of additional water supplies because of increased demands, general rainfall deficiency and periods of extreme drought, Dexheimer said.

He said the city is continually menaced by sporadic but heavy rains which cause "flash floods" after infrequent cloudbursts.

He gave these figures in arriving at the $32,220,000 cost, based on January, 1957, price levels: $6,700,000 for municipal supply; $11,060,000 for irrigation; $10,800,000 for flood control; $60,000 for and wildlife.

Amounts allocated to municipal supply and irrigation would be repaid by the water users within 4 years after a five-year development period. The allocation to municipal water would be repaid with interest while that to irrigation would be interest free.

Teacher Hits Defiance On Racial Issue

BROWNWOOD (AP)—A Texas college professor yesterday called the Civil War a "failure of Democracy" and urged that the nation not be endangered by "dividing our yes over the Negroes again."

Dr. James Taylor, chairman of the social science division at Southwest Texas State College, said defiance of the Supreme Court ruling against segregation in public schools could threaten what he called the South's bright future.

He was the chief speaker in yesterday's session of Democracy in ...tion Week at Howard Payne College. Other speakers slated this week include Dr. H. J. Ettlinger of the University of Texas and U.S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson, who will speak tomorrow night and receive an honorary doctor of laws degree.

Taylor urged his audience not to "jeopardize or ruin this great prospect (of the South) by dividing ourselves over the Negroes again." He added that "There is a possibility of damage to our American democracy if we try to avoid the problem through defiance."

Patient Dies After Plunge

HOUSTON (AP) — An 82-year-old patient plunged to his death at a hospital here last night when a rope sheet broke that he had dangled from his seventh floor window in an apparent attempt to descend.

Jefferson Davis Hospital authorities identified him as George O'Connell, who was admitted March 6 for treatment of a pulmonary disease. Hospital records indicated he had no known address.

Patrolman J. F. Johnson said it was not immediately determined why he tried to leave his room. The door was not locked.

The bed sheet was torn into strips about three inches wide, tied together, dangling from a steel rod by the window.

Kathryn Green, 30, a nurses' attendant, said while working on the third floor she saw something pass the window and saw the sheet rope dangling.

O'Connell's body landed on the roof of a second floor wing.

PASTOR READY

Plans Made To Exchange Mates

MILLBRAE, Calif. (AP) — The pastor of two suburban couples who plan to trade mates says he will ask his congregation to reserve judgment.

"I will deliver my regular Palm Sunday sermon next Sunday," the Rev. R. F. Winkelman said yesterday, "and add without comment the 7th Verse from the 8th Chapter of John:

"'He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.'

"That leaves most of us out," added the minister of Community Methodist Church in this San Francisco suburb.

Planning the swap are Dr. Frank Schwartz, 38-year-old eye surgeon, and his wife Jean, 32; and Martin Brooks, 35-year-old owner of a pet and garden supply store, and his wife Betty, 35.

The couples met two years ago and became increasingly friendly at Cub Scout meetings, Parent-Teacher Assn. conferences and at church choir practice. Dr. Schwartz and Mrs. Brooks sang in the choir and Mrs. Schwartz taught a Sunday school class.

Except for them, the minister declared, "no one . . . knows all the factors in this case."

Mrs. Schwartz and Mrs. Brooks, who are sharing a small apartment in Reno while they obtain divorces, are and have been good friends, their husbands said.

The plan disclosed by the husbands is for Brooks to move into the Schwartz residence and adopt the Schwartz's 9-year-old son and 4-year-old daughter and for Dr. Schwartz to move in with the present Mrs. Brooks and adopt the 9-month-old baby girl and the three boys, aged 4, 8 and 10, there.

Dr. Schwartz said there would be "no strain" in the exchange, because "the children are all like brothers and sisters already" and "just feel they're getting an extra father and mother."

The two wives met newsmen late last night in Reno at the office of the attorney they are sharing. They issued a brief typewritten statement which said merely that after talking to their husbands on the same long-distance call "it has been determined that they have been misquoted and exaggerated. Our plans for the future are indefinite."

Railway Cut Is Requested

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission yesterday was petitioned by the Missouri Pacific Railroad for permission to abandon 57 miles of branch lines in Texas.

The company listed the following proposed abandonments, describing them as covering loss operations:

1. A 32.5-mile line in La Salle and Dimmit counties which connects Artesia Wells and Asherton.

2. A 19-mile branch in Willacy County linking Raymondville and Santa Monica.

3. A 5.5-mile line in Cameron County, running from Brownsville to Southpoint. A small segment of this line near Acacia will be converted into an industrial spur, the railroad said.

Name Change Asked

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—The Senate joined the Assembly yesterday in a resolution asking that Mountain Boulevard Freeway in Oakland be renamed Warren Boulevard in honor of U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren, a former California governor.

Operation Planned For Siamese Twins

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Although odds against its success are high, an operation to separate the heads of Siamese twins Larry and Terry Powell may be performed soon at Children's Hospital.

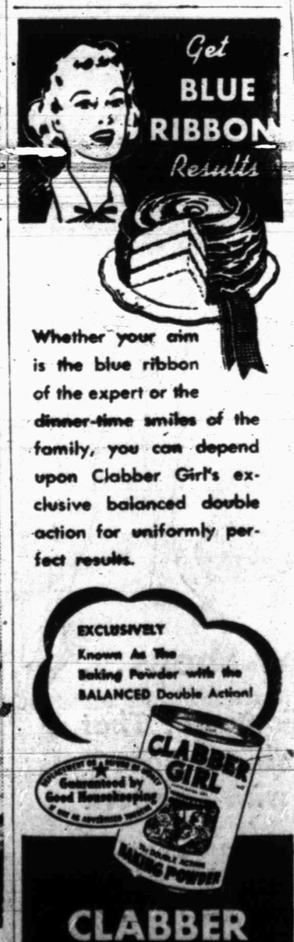

The 1-month-old sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Powell, Gardena, Calif. are joined, one at the back of the head to the side of his brother's head. The fused area is 3½ inches in diameter. X-rays taken simultaneously with the injection of a dye substance into the cranial soft spot of one showed a confluence of circulation.

A team of neurosurgeons is conducting tests which may or may not tell them whether they can separate the twins. They doubt if any available test will show whether the brain tissue is confluent. If it is, the chance of survival would be small indeed.

The children might live for several years, joined as they are, but hospital authorities say the parents have consented to an operation if the surgeons approve. The operation would be in stages, with the twins getting time to recuperate between the processes.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

NO SOONER HAS THE static died down over the new arrangement of the schoolboy basketball setup last winter made by the TIL officials in Austin, more static is circling about over the new setup in track.

We realize that it is impossible to please everyone on setting up various athletic programs but we don't think it is impossible to please someone.

Yep, we heavn't found a solitary soul that liked either the new basketball or track setups.

In basketball, you'll recall, the TIL eliminated the best two-out-of-three bi-district game series, limiting it to a one game "sudden death" playoff instead. There wasn't a single coach that we knew of that was satisfied with this new ruling.

Then they left it up to each region to determine whether to play a tournament or single game playoffs within the region. This only led to ill feelings among the schools involved because some wanted the tournament while others wanted the single game bi-district series. All however, actually wanted the best-two-out-of-three games series but the TIL prohibited this.

It may wear off in time but it'll be a while yet before the Vernon superintendent will speak to the Phillips principal over the latter's actions in the Region 1 basketball meeting at Lubbock which was held to determine the procedure of the regional playoffs.

New Track Alignment Attacked

Now the TIL "bigwigs" in Austin are in "hot water" again.

The new track arrangement has been attacked by coaches and sports scribes throughout the state.

One of the pet gripes over the new track setup is that each classification is allowed to compete in its own district meets but then combine with another classification for the regional and state meets.

In other words, the Tigers and other Triple-A schools will have to compete against Class 4A schools in regional and state competition. Classes 3A and 4A will be combined for regional and state track meets while Classes 2A and 1A will combine forces. Class B will remain in its own class all the way through.

There's no reason that we can see why each classification should'nt remain intact all the way through.

Another big complaint this year on the track setup is that only the first two places in the district meet qualify for the regional meet where as it has been the first three places in the past.

And the failure of the TIL office to notify the district chairman of the change drew much criticism. The change was mentioned in the TIL manual but it was "buried" and very few school officials saw it.

Each district chairman should have been informed of the change since this is the first year that only two places qualify for the region competition.

We don't know who is responsible for selecting the fellows to "run" the TIL but from this corner it appears we need a "cleaning house" in Austin.

Tiger 9 Bounces Back

If you weren't on hand for the two Tiger baseball games the past two afternoons, you certainly missed two very fine ball games.

More pleasing to us than anything over the showing of the Tigers the past two days was their quick recovery over last Saturday's humiliating loss to Abilene.

Oft times it takes a bunch of kids a few days to recover from a defeat such as they suffered at Abilene. It wasn't that Abliene overpowered us, the Eagles were helped along immensley by loose defensive play of the Tigers.

But the Tigers, in their next outing, played errorless ball and they are to be commended for their fine recovery in this phase of the game. Had they played errorless ball at Abilene the Bengals probably would have won.

However, there'll be days that everything goes wrong and last Saturday was one of those days for the Tigers.

The Tigers have come right back after the Abilene loss to notch two consecutive shutouts which should be proof enough that the Eagle loss didn't upset them.

Tuesday's game with Monterey had plenty of "doubles" (not of the base hit variety, though).

There were two Bakers (Ronnie of the Tigers and Fred of Monterey) in the game and also two Boyds (Neil of the Tigers and Bill of Monterey). Then there were two Freds (Fred Baker and Fred Parson, both of Monterey), and two Ronnies (Ronnie Baker of the Bengals and Ronnie Arrington of Monterey).

Cardinals Are Most Improved

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP)—Observations of a baseball camp follower returned home after a seven-week tour of the 12 major league spring training camps in Florida:

Best looking team—Milwaukee Braves.

Most improved team—St. Louis Cardinals.

Most confident club—New York Yankees.

Most spectacular hitter — Stan Musial, Cardinals (24 hits in 51 times at bat for .471).

Most spectacular hitting feat — Harvey Kuenn, Tigers (5 to 5 with two doubles, a home run and five runs batted in against Redlegs, March 26).

Most spectacular pitching feat — Johnny Podres, Dodgers (faced only 18 batters in pitching six hitless and runless innings against Yankees March 25).

Most disappointing hitter — Hank Bauer, Yankees (went 0 for 21 until he finally snapped slump with a single).

Most disappointing pitchers — Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, Cardinals, and Don Larsen, Yankees. (Mizell turned in five straight poor mound performances, striking out only two batters; Larsen turned in only one good performance in four outings).

Most improved hitters — Johnny Temple, Redlegs; Gino Cimoli, Dodgers; and Bubba Phillips, White Sox.

Most improved pitchers — Red Murff, Braves; Don Drysdale, Dodgers; and Duke Maas, Tigers.

Stars Galore In Southewestern Golf

HOUSTON (AP)—Leading names of amateur golfdom will be liberally sprinkled among 16 college golf teams which tee off April 18 in the third annual Southwestern Invitational Tournament.

The entry list includes such stars as Rex Baxter, Frank Wharton and Jimmy Hiskey, Houston; John Garrett, Rice; Jerry Coats, Baylor; Henry Whitley, Hardin-Simmons; Bill Swope, New Mexico; Harold Sexton, North Texas State; Bobby Nichols, Texas A&M, Bob Richardson, Oklahoma; Dave Ragan, Florida; Kirby Atwell, Texas; and Bobby Goetz, Oklahoma A&M.

Prince Hurls Tigers Past Odessa, 1-0

Tall Dwayne Prince accomplished a feat yesterday no other pitcher in Snyder High School history has done, that of beating the Odessa Bronchos.

Prince scattered four hits to lead the Tigers to a thrilling 1-0 victory over the Bronchos at Towle Memorial Park yesterday afternoon. It was the first time the Tigers have ever beaten Odessa in baseball.

The whitewash job by Prince was the second shutout performance by a Tiger pitcher in as many days. Only Tuesday Norman Gladson one-hitted the Monterey Plainsmen for a 2-0 Tiger victory.

Yesterday's victory was the 10th of the season for the Tigers against six setbacks.

The Tigers won the game in the first inning yesterday when they scored the lone run of the game.

Dean Ewart, ace of the Odessa staff, gave up only two hits in the four innings he toiled but both came in the first inning and they led to the leon Tiger tally.

Gary Vice and Tommy Prichard, the first two Tigers up in the initial frame, each beat out infield hits to set up the Tiger scoring play.

Vice raced all the way to third on Prichard's rap as Odessa second baseman, Bill White, had to dive for Prichard's grounder to keep the ball from going into right-field.

Prichard raced to second when White made a play for Vice at third. Vice then scored when Milton Ham grounded out second to first. And that was the ball game.

Odessa had two serious scoring threats, in the first and fifth innings. The Broncs put runners on second and third with two away in the first when Prince whiffed Gerald Erwin to get out of the jam.

In his fifth outing, Prince issued his only free pass of the day to lead-off man Dick Murphy. Buddy New, attempting to sacrifice, beat out the bunt instead for a hit and the Broncs had runners on first and second with none away.

But that is as far as either runner got as Prince got Adams on a strikeout, Dick Stice on a fly to center and Larry Bilhartz on a strikeout.

The Broncs threatened mildly in the seventh when pinch-hitter Bobby Flagan slammed out a double with two away.

Prince, however, induced Stice to ground out short to first for the game-ending play.

The Tigers got their leadoff man on base in four of the seven innings but only in the first were they able to push the runner around.

Neil Boyd got on via an error to lead off in the second but could get no further than third; Coleman John slapped a single to lead off the Tiger seventh but only got as far as second; and Prichard opened with a single in the sixth but was halted at third.

Each team collected four hits in the brilliant mound duel. While Prince went the distance for the Tigers, Odessa split its mound chores between Dean Ewart, who went the first four, and Tommy McMorris who hurled the fifth and sixth innings.

The Odessa pitchers gave up two hits apiece but Ewart was charged with the run and thus took the loss.

Prince struck out nine and walked one in leveling off his season record at 3-3.

The Tigers will resume action tomorrow afternoon when they host the Tom S. Westerners of Lubbock at Towle Memorial Park.

Game time will be 4:15 p.m. Tim Roberts is slated for starting mound duties for the Tigers in tomorrow's game. Roberts owns a 2-1 record.

The Tigers will conclude their week's play with a double header at San Angelo Saturday. Ronnie Baker and Dwayne Prince will be coach Speedy Moffett's pitching choices for the San Angelo twinbill.

Froggie Top Hitter, Hurler

DALLAS (AP)—Texas Christian's Doug Balkum has given the rest of the Southwest Conference something to hit at—and pitch at—in racking up leading percentages in both departments in the first baseball statistics.

The Horned Frog hurler leads in pitching on the basis of two wins against no losses and leads the hitters with a .571 average. He has four hits in seven appearances.

Another TCU pitcher, Rudy Gonzales, has stacked up a like pitching record but did it with the aid of relief. Baylor's Jerry Mallett is second among hitters with a .500 average on four hits in eight trips.

Texas' Bill Moore is the top slugger with .417. He has five hits in 12 trips to the plate with three of the blasts being homers. Doyle Casey of the Texas Aggies also has three circuit blows.

Moore and his teammate, George Myers, each have driven in six runs to lead in that department. The Aggies' James Smotherman leads in hits with eight and Casey has the most bases to his credit, 16.

Club batting finds the Aggies leading with .267 and TCU tops the loop in club fielding with .964.

BEATS GIANTS, 4-1

Herb Score New Cleveland Ace?

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

Southpaw Herb Score looks like a million bucks. He may be the new ace of the Cleveland Indians' pitching staff.

Bob Lemon has been just so-so on the exhibition circuit. Early Wynn is unable to get going because of a hip injury and Mike Garcia has been no sensation the past two seasons.

Score set a big league strikeout record for rookies in 1955 (245) and a 20-9 won-lost record and 263 strikeouts last season.

The Boston Red Sox offered a million dollars for him last March 18 but were turned down by Hank Greenberg, Indians' general manager.

Last night, Score turned in his best effort of the spring. He gave up only two singles and fanned seven in a seven-inning stint as Cleveland whipped the New York Giants 4-1. Willie Mays accounted for the Giants' lone run by hitting a home run off Don Mossi in the eighth inning.

Pete Burnside was the victim of the Indians' four-run first inning. He gave up five walks a two-run single by George Strickland.

Another fine pitching job was turned in by Don Drysdale of Brooklyn. He went nine innings as the Dodgers blanked the Braves 5-0. He permitted only four safeties and only one Brave got as far as second base. Randy Jackson walloped a two-run home run for the winners.

The New York Yankees trounced Savannah of the Sally League 8-4.

Gus Triandos collected four hits as the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Chicago Cubs 7-3.

Sherman Lollar blasted a three-run homer that carried the Chicago White Sox to a 9-7 triumph over the St. Louis Cardinals. Ron Northey and Larry Doby also connected for the Sox.

Rip Coleman and Jack Urban, both acquired from the Yanks since the close of last season, combined to pitch Kansas City to a 4-2 triumph over Little Rock of the Southern Assn.

In other games, Ted Williams and Dick Gernert each hit for the circuit to lead the Boston Red Sox to a 6-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies; rookie Johnny Powers slammed a 10th-inning homer to give the Pittsburgh Pirates a 3-2 nod over the Detroit Tigers; and Don Hoak had three hits and two stolen bases as the Cincinnati Redlegs downed the Washington Senators 6-2.

Baylor, Texas Share Net Lead

By The Associated Press

Baylor and Texas lead the Southwest Conference golf and tennis races as the campaign nears the halfway mark.

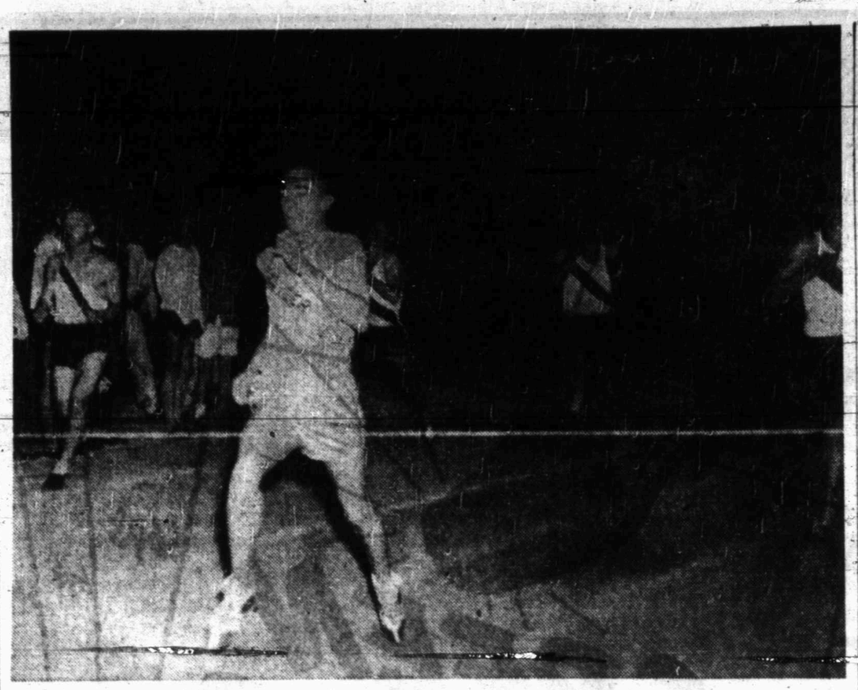

The Bears have won 10 matches out of 12 to top the golf standings with a percentage of .833. Texas is second with 6½-5½ for .625.

In tennis, Texas has a perfect record, having won all its matches in an engagement with Baylor. Rice is second with a 10-2 record.

Three matches are scheduled in golf this weekend. Rice and Texas play at Houston and Texas Christian and Southern Methodist at Dallas Friday while Baylor plays Texas A&M at College Station Saturday.

Two matches are scheduled Saturday in tennis with Texas meeting Texas A&M at Austin and Baylor and Rice clashing at Waco.

Arkansas does no participate in tennis but does in golf.

SPRINTER DELUXE—Bobby Pollard, center, will be bidding for a state meet berth when he represents the Tigers in the 220 and 100 yard dashes in the Region 1 track and field meet at Lubbock tomorrow and Saturday. Pollard is pictured above in winning the 220 in the District 3-AAA meet here last week. Jimmy Watson of Sweetwater, at left, came in third, and Don Black, right, placed second. Pollard equalled his previous best 220 time of 21.6 in the above race.

Five Tigers Will Compete In Region

Five fellows will represent the Tigers at the Region 1 track and field meet at Lubbock tomorrow and Saturday.

Those to compete in the region affair will be Powell Berry, Bobby Pollard, Bud Morgan, Rex Wilson and Bill Dubose.

The Tigers will be entered in six events at Lubbock.

Berry, Morgan and Wilson will each run both hurdle races and the 440-yard relay while Bobby Pollard will enter the 100 and 220-yard dashes and the 440-yard relay.

Bill Dubose will enter the high jump as will Wilson.

Preliminaries in the region meet will be held tomorrow with the finals slated for Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

State's Finest In Region 1 Meet

LUBBOCK, Apr. 11 — Best track and field meet as far as quality of competition is concerned should be the Region One meet at Texas Tech Friday and Saturday.

Seven of the 14 best times and marks in the state have been attained by thinly clads who will participate here. Track and field preliminaries will be conducted Friday afternoon; finals, Saturday.

The meet gets under way Thursday with some preliminaries in Conference B tennis. Golf is scheduled all day Friday and Saturday. Participating are qualifiers from Conferences from Districts 1-5AA, 1-4A, and 1-18B.

San Angelo is responsible for most of the "state bests," three.

By event, the leading marks in the state that have been achieved by competitions in this region include:

440-yard dash — Roy Eisenbach, San Angelo, 48.9.

High hurdles—Bud Morgan, Snyder, and Charles Neblett, Canyon, 14.6.

Low hurdles — Iran King, Abilene, 19.2.

440-yard relay — San Angelo, 42.8.

Mile relay — San Angelo, 3:22.0.

Pole vault — Bayless Bennett, Amarillo, 12-11.

Discus throw — Max Morris, Littlefield, 168-11.

All schools are in Conference 2A except Canyon, 1A.

PCL Opens Season Today

By The Associated Press

The Pacific Coast League opens its 54th baseball year today, and while the future may be a vast puzzle there is a distinct atmosphere of optimism from observers up and down the Coast.

San Diego and Hollywood start things rolling with a day-night doubleheader in the border city. Other opening engagements find Portland at San Francisco and Seattle at Sacramento for afternoon games and Vancouver at Los Angeles for a night game.

The Southern Assn. opens Friday night, the Texas League Sunday, the International League Monday and the American Assn. on Tuesday.

The principal reason for this early optimism is the closely bunched possibilities of the teams. Only Vancouver is deemed a distinct longshot. There is no standout choice for pennant winning honors.

Los Angeles won the 1956 championship in runaway fashion as a farm club of the Chicago Cubs.

Now the Angels belong to Brooklyn, which has to spread its talent between Montreal and St. Paul. Thus far the Angels, under new Manager Clay Bryant, have shown little to indicate a serious threat to score a repeat victory.

Merkel, Pecos Stars Picked On All-Star 5

AUSTIN (AP)—Five all-staters are on the North all-star basketball team that meets a team from the South in the Texas Coaching School at Dallas Aug. 8.

This gives the North, to be coached by Clifton McNeely of Pampa, the edge in all-state players since the South, announced two weeks ago, has only three of the boys who made the mythical teams.

All-staters for the North are Burl Butler, Everman; Jerry Pope, Pampa, and Billy Simmons, Pecos, forwards; and Bob McLeod, Merkel, and John Hoggard, Waxahachie, centers.

Others on the squad are Mike Behrens, El Paso Austin, and Gilbert Bell, Meadow, centers; Jim Bevers, Ropesville; Donnie Lasiter, Longview; Charles Neblett, Canyon, and Dennis Wilson, Seminole, guards, and Robert Bullock, Dallas Hillcrest, forward.

The South, coached by M. N. (Cotton) Robinson of Buna, has all-staters Steve Jordan, McAllen forward; Steve Smith, Marlin forward; and Pat Stanley, Buna forward. Others on the squad are: Milton Bond, McGregor, and Wayne Clark, San Antonio Harlandale, centers; Robert Brown, Clear Creek; Robert Free, Pollok, and Bill McLaughlin, San Antonio Edison, forwards; Elliott Craig, Beaumont French; Larry Drennan, Cayuga; Donnie Schmeltekopf, Kyle, and James Sharp, Port Arthur, guards.

Herbie Flam To Enter Dallas Net Tourney

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Country Club announced yesterday the first entry for its annual invitational tennis meet is Herbie Flam of Los Angeles, second-ranking U.S. player.

The meet is scheduled April 18-21 with at least half a dozen of the nation's outstanding players expected to compete.

New LaPorte Coach

LAPORTE (AP) — LaPorte High School officials have named Ronald Blount, coach at Jackson Junior High in Pasadena, as head coach here succeeding Joe Newbill. Blount formerly was a line coach here.

North Texas Thinlies To Southern Relays

DENTON (AP)—Coach Pop Noah expects his North Texas State track team to be at top strength Saturday when the Eagles participate in the Southern Relays at Lafayette, La.

The 14-man squad has been victimized by injuries in all meets thus far this season. Noah said all ailing tracksters are now back in shape.

Texas A & M To Get Standout Houston Lad

HOUSTON (AP) — Randy Sims, who scored 93 points for Stephen F. Austin High School's football team last fall, yesterday said he would enter Texas A&M College in September.

Sims was high point man in Houston schoolboy scoring last year.

FILLET CASSEROLES ARE CHOCK-FULL OF FRESH, TENDER VEGETABLES
. . . they're stored in freezer in small aluminum foil dishes

Unusual Recipes, Ideas Brighten Up Fish Meals

During Lent a little extra thought given to menu planning is well worth the time and effort.

You'll find a decided increase in your family's meal-time interest when you feature an unusual seasoning or method or preparation for the fish course.

For one menu-brightening idea, prepare individual casseroles in the little aluminum foil dishes from frozen pot pies purchased at the market. They make perfect containers for individual dinner casseroles to store in the freezer.

A fillet and fresh vegetable casserole is pictured above. To go with it, try baked stuffed potatoes. The little casseroles go into the freezer covered with aluminum foil, and the potatoes are wrapped in the same. Both may be stored for as long as six weeks.

Deviled oysters make another of those happy main dishes that can be prepared hours, or even a day, ahead of meal time. The filled casserole, well-covered, can be stored in the refrigerator until almost serving time, then baked in a moderate oven long enough to heat all the ingredients thoroughly.

Instead of baking the mixture in one large dish, it may be poured into individual dishes. This is an unusually attractive way to serve oysters, especially if the individual dishes are those pretty sea shells that are available to moderate prices.

Fillet, Vegetables Go Into Casseroles

2 pounds fresh or frozen fillet of any white fish
3 tablespoons lemon juice
1 cup cooked carrots
1 cup cooked string beans
4 tablespoons butter
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
2 teaspoons grated onion

Place fish fillets in saucepan with ¾ cup boiling water, teaspoon salt and lemon juice. Cover and simmer gently until fish begins to flake. Drain off liquid and save. Lightly grease 6 individual aluminum foil casseroles.

Remove bones, if any, from fish and arrange in serving size portions in casseroles. Add carrots and string beans which have been cooked to the "crisp tender" stage.

Prepare sauce by melting butter in saucepan, and adding flour. Stir and cook until it bubbles. Add 1 cup of liquid from fish and the milk. Stir and cook until smooth; add seasonings. Pour over fish and vegetables, dividing equally and filling to ½ inch from top.

Sprinkle grated parmesan cheese lightly on each casserole. Cover casseroles with squares of aluminum foil, crimping securely to edges. Store in freezer until needed.

To serve, place frozen casseroles on cookie sheet in 375 degree oven and heat 35 minutes. Remove foil covers during last 10 minutes to brown lightly.

Tuna, Cottage Cheese Are Surprise Combo

1 7-ounce can solid-pack tuna
2 tablespoons salad oil
¼ cup vinegar
1 tablespoon sugar
2 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
Crisp lettuce
2 cups cottage cheese
1½ cups cooked peas

Drain tuna and reserve oil. Combine tuna, oil, salad oil, vinegar, sugar, salt and paprika; beat or shake thoroughly. Arrange lettuce, tuna, cheese and peas in salad bowl. Pour oil mixture over tuna mixture.

Deviled Oysters Nestle in Crumbs

1 pint oysters
1 cup coarse cracker crumbs (about 12 crackers)
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
½ teaspoon salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
⅛ teaspoon dry mustard
¼ cup melted margarine (½ stick)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons chili sauce
Dash of tabasco sauce, if desired
¼ cup buttered bread crumbs
¼ cup grated cheese

Drain liquor from oysters into measuring cup. Add water to make ½ cup. Into large bowl put oysters, cracker crumbs, chopped eggs, salt, pepper, mustard and margarine. Mix lightly with fork.

To liquor in cup add lemon juice, chili sauce and tabasco. Mix well and pour over oyster mixture. Toss lightly to blend. Spoon into shallow buttered 1-quart baking dish or into 4 shallow individual bakers.

Mix crumbs and cheese and sprinkle over oyster mixture in bakers. Bake in 375 degree oven 25 to 30 minutes or until bubbly hot. Garnish with green pepper rings, sliced olives, sliced hard-cooked egg or minced parsley.

West Indian Fish Is Delectable Dish

1½ pounds lean white fish
1-3 cup cooking oil
1 cup finely diced celery
½ cup finely diced onion
1 cup finely diced raw beets
1 teaspoon minced parsley
1½ teaspoons salt
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1-16 teaspoon cayenne
2 teaspoons fish sauce
1 cup tomato puree
Cooked rice or noodles

Cut fish in 1-inch cubes. Place oil in saucepan over moderate heat. Add celery, onion, beets, parsley, salt, pepper and cayenne. Cover tightly and cook until beets are barely tender, about 15 minutes, stirring once or twice.

Add fish sauce and tomato puree and mix well. Bring to boil and add fish. Continue cooking until fish is just done, about 10 minutes. Serve immediately over hot cooked rice or noodles. Serves 4 to 6.

Creamed Egg Team With Cooked Shrimp

1-3 cup butter or margarine
1-3 cup flour
2¼ cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons grated horse-radish
4 hard-cooked eggs, coarsely chopped
2 cups cooked, cleaned shrimp, broken
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
2 cups corn soya shreds
1 tablespoon butter or margarine, melted

Melt butter; stir in flour. Add milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened, stirring occasionally. Stir in salt, pepper and horse-radish. Fold in eggs, shrimp and parsley. Spread in greased 10x6-inch pan or shallow casserole. Crush cereal slightly; combine with melted butter.

Sprinkle over shrimp mixture. Bake in 350 degree oven about 25 minutes until thoroughly heated. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Tuna Fruit Salad Is Tangy Delicacy

1 7-ounce can solid pack tuna
3 tablespoons lime juice
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon paprika
1-3 cup sugar
1 medium-sized grapefruit, pared and sectioned
2 medium-sized oranges, pared and thinly sliced
2 medium-sized apples, cored and thinly sliced
1 medium-sized pear, cored and thinly sliced
1 cup sliced celery
Crisp salad greens

Drain tuna; reserve ¼ cup oil. Combine ¼ cup tuna oil, lime juice, salt and paprika; mix well. Combine sugar, grapefruit, oranges, apples, pear and celery; mix well and chill.

Break tuna into pieces. Combine tuna, tuna oil mixture and fruit mixture; toss lightly but thoroughly. Serve on salad greens.

Halibut Steaks Are Pickie-Baked

½ cup mayonnaise
¾ cup chopped dill pickles
2 tablespoons capers
2 halibut steaks, about ½ inch thick
Salt and pepper
¼ cup buttered fine dry bread crumbs

Combine mayonnaise, pickles and capers; mix well. Bone halibut steaks; cut steaks in half. Sprinkle with salt and pepper; top with crumbs.

Place in greased shallow baking pan. Bake in 350 degree oven 30 to 45 minutes, or until fish flakes easily with a fork.

Haddock or sole fillets may be substituted as desired.

Creamed Codfish Is Easy To Fix

½ pound salt codfish
3 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons minced onion
3 tablespoons flour
1¾ cups milk
⅛ teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms
8 ounces medium egg noodles

Soak codfish in cold water to cover for 2 hours if very dry. Drain and cut in small pieces. Melt butter, add onion and cook 1 minute. Stir in flour. Add milk, pepper, mustard and contents of can of mushrooms.

Cook, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens and boils. Add codfish and pimiento. Let simmer over low heat 15 minutes. Meanwhile cook noodles until barely tender in boiling salted water.

Drain, place on platter and pour creamed codfish over them. Finnan haddie can be successfully substituted for salt cod in this recipe. Serves 4.

Fabulous House Is Up For Sale

By INEZ ROBB

PALM BEACH, Fla.—For those citizens who are always searching for a straw to show which way the economic winds blow, there may be a splendid sign and portent in the news that Palm Beach authorities have been at their wit's end this season to find berthing space for all the yachts that have wanted to visit here.

The community provides berthing space for 52 yachts, and the SRO sign has been out all season. The city fathers have been hard put to it to keep open the one parking space which, by tradition, is available at night for any stray yacht. (That is comparable to you and me keeping a light in the window for Charles Boyer.)

Recently I read an article by an American who had just returned to his own, his native land after several years residence abroad. After traveling through 20 states, he came to the conclusion that the greatest phenomenon in the U. S. A. is the disappearance of both the rich and the poor (into a prosperous middle-class).

I think I know why he couldn't find any rich on his travels: They were all spending the winter on the Gold Coast of Florida, clothed here thick and rich as Jersey cream, the men wrapped in suntans as dark and opulent as the Corona Coronas they smoke and their ladies languid in the insignia of their tribal totem, the cashmere sweater with the white mink shawl collar.

And yet—and yet! It is not quite like the good old days before the crash of '29 and before the income tax developed a 90 percent bracket. No one has stepped forward to plunk down $2,500,000 for one of the most fabulous residences in the nation, the ocean-front home of Mrs. Horace E. Dodge, widow of the automobile magnate.

So this vast house, one of the last and probably the best designed by that extraordinary architect, Addison Mizner, is to be delivered into the hands of the wreckers and razed.

In the meantime, the proudest possession of Playa Riente, an extraordinary series of murals by the late Spanish painter, Jose Sert, are to be offered to the Detroit Institute of Art by Mrs. Dodge. The nine great panels depict the adventures of Sinbad the Sailor, the wanderin' man of the "Arabian Night."

The museum came within an ace of losing them. When the contents of the Dodge home were sold at auction, Ohan Berberyan, a New York art dealer with long and deep attachments here, bought the murals for $100,000, although they were insured for $250,000.

No sooner were they bought by Berberyan than Mrs. Dodge decided she wished to give them to the Detroit Institute. So Mr. Berberyan gracefully bowed out of the deal and Detroit will be the richer.

The murals have had a fascinating history. Sert originally painted them for the last King of Spain, Alfonso XIII, who could not pay for them when they were completed. Subsequently, they were bought by the late Josh Cosden, the Oklahoma oil man for whom Mizner built Playa Riente in 1923. Mrs. Dodge bought the mansion from him two years later. Now, some 34 years later, the showplace is destined for the scrap heap.

VISITS HERE—Tracy Louis Cox, AMHAN, U. S. Navy, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Cox, 1004 Twenty-sixth Street. Cox, who has been in the service for the past eight months, will leave for a tour of duty in Hong Kong following his leave here. He recently completed the Aviation Structural Mechanic (Hydraulic) Course at the Naval Air & Technical Training Center in Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Yarborough Meets The Press

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP) — The vote counting in which her husband was elected to the Senate wasn't finished before Mrs. Ralph Yarborough had her first experience with the Washington press.

In a telephone interview with Isabelle Shelton of the Evening Star, she told of traveling with a campaigning husband.

"I went along to see that he remembered to eat, and got some sleep once in a while," she said.

"I worked in a salad whenever I could, but that wasn't very often. We're both so sick of ham and turkey sandwiches, I don't think we can ever eat another one."

The former Opal Warren and Yarborough have known each other "as long as we can remember." They were next door neighbors at Chandler in Henderson County. Her father was a school principal; his father was justice of the peace.

She was quoted in the interview as saying that although they played together as children they did not "really get interested in each other" until in their 20s and teaching school. Renewing their childhood acquaintance at a teacher training meeting, they became engaged; she insisted they not get married until he finished law school.

She said she once "didn't think much of his going into politics" but has changed her mind.

The Yarboroughs have a son, Richard, 25, who is in the Army in Germany.

Another Texas woman in the Washington news columns is Mrs. Beverly Tarpley of Abilene.

At 27, she is one of the youngest lawyers ever to argue a case before the Supreme Court; and one of the relatively few women of any age to do so.

Watching her as she appeared before the black-robed jurists in the stately, vaulted-ceiling tribunal was her husband, Dick Tarpley. On the staff of the Abilene Reporter News, he had first met Beverly when reporting a trial in Abilene in which she was defending a bootlegger.

She recalls that he took a dim view of her representing such a client, and asked to escort her home.

In the Supreme Court case, she is representing a woman who was injured while handling mail off a train as a T&P agent-operator at Monahans in 1952.

She won a $5,700 award for Mrs. Cecil Horton, in the Federal District Court. The 5th Circuit Court of Appeals reversed the decision. She appealed.

With a smile, Mrs. Tarpley said she was "scared to death" when she went before the justices.

Storage Of Water Hiked After Rains

AUSTIN (AP)—The State Board of Water Engineers reports that potential usable water storage capacity increased some 49 per cent after the heavy rains in most Texas areas during March.

Runoff was below the March average in many areas, the board said, and streamflow increased during the month. In Central Texas, along the Gulf Coast and in scattered localities in other sections of the state moderate flooding occurred, according to the amount of rain.

The board said underground water levels in six selected areas rose from 1 to 2.8 feet. However, an observation well in the Winter Garden area declined two feet to a new record low. A Uvalde well also showed a decrease for the seventh straight month.

Storage increases in the upper Trinity River reservoirs was small, said the board. The City of Dallas continued to supplement its water supply by pumping from Red River and from Lavon reservoir on the East Fork Trinity River.

The board said that Dam B on the Neches River spilled all month. Lake Houston on the San Jacinto River spilled for the first time since last June and Lake Corpus Christi on the Nueces River spilled during last March.

Council Considers Weighty Problem

BATESVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The City Council must make a weighty decision within 30 days on its plans for decorating the park.

The Council recently asked the Letterkenny Ordnance Department at Chambersburg, Pa., for a couple of Civil War cannon to use as decorative relics.

The department is fresh out of Civil War cannon. It offered as a substitute a 74-000-pound medium tank equipped with a 76mm. gun.

The Council can have the tank if it will pay freight costs—about $720. The department wants a yes or no within 30 days.

TV 'Policeman'

NEW YORK (AP) — A miniature television camera is serving as a "policeman" in a 42nd Street subway station. The camera is focused on a turnstile to watch for subway riders who try to squeeze through without paying.

SAVINGS WIPED OUT

Reds Cancel National Debt

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst

The announcement that the Soviet government, with a snap of its fingers, is canceling over three fourths of its national debt shows what a strange thing the Soviet Socialist economy really is.

Try to imagine the furor if the U.S. government were casually to reveal that within a few days time it would wipe out the value of most outstanding U. S. government bonds. Banks would close. Insurance companies would shut their doors. The entire economy would shake and the government would totter.

The Soviet press yesterday carried the news, made public by Nikita Khrushchev in a speech Monday, that the Kremlin for the next 20 or 25 years will pay no interest and repay none of the principal on 260 billion rubles worth of state bonds the Soviet citizenry bought involuntarily.

That amount — officially 65 billion dollars — represents the largest portion by far of the private savings of Soviet citizens. It was taken out of their pay envelopes over the last two decades and longer, an average of from 6 to more than 8 per cent of their wages every month.

The long postponement of bond redemptions is equivalent to their confiscation, if the Communist timetable for Russia works out. In 20 to 25 years, the Soviet Union is supposed to be enjoying a state of "communism" — as distinct from the present "socialism" — and Communist citizens won't own such private property as bonds.

What the move probably will cause hardly a murmur from the Soviet people.

The average Russian is probably happy — because he's been promised that beginning next year there won't be any more annual loan drives to tap his pay envelope for bonds on which he'll never collect.

More Discipline For Youngsters Is Urged

ELY, Nev. (AP)—A panel of teenagers say high school youngsters need more discipline, from both their parents and police.

Six students appeared on the panel yesterday with six adults at the Nevada Parent-Teacher Assn. convention.

The boys and girls criticized police for failure to halt drag racing on the main street of Ely and for a lack of enforcement of laws against the sale of liquor to minors.

"We're not getting enough discipline; we're getting away with murder," said one youth. Other youngsters agreed.

They added that stricter discipline at home also is needed.

IT'S THE LAW in Texas

A public service feature of the State Bar of Texas

YOU, CITIZEN

Proud men and women, ancient and modern, who fought free of tyranny, have taken the name of citizen. Others may call themselves subjects, denizens, slaves, etc.

For the Greeks, with rare exceptions, citizenship came by blood. You had to be born a citizen's child.

But the Romans, like us, found ways to make citizens of those who came up to certain standards: As Gibbon said, the Romans sacrificed "vanity to ambition; and deemed it more prudent as well as honorable, to adopt virture and merit for her own wherever found—among slaves, strangers, enemies or barbarians."

American citizenship is an office which carries power, privilege, and duties. Only citizens can do certain things—for example, teach in many schools and colleges, become lawyers, hold certain political or civil service offices.

You are a citizen if naturalized or born in the United States (subject to its jurisdiction); and in certain circumstances if born outside the United States to parents of whom one or both are American citizens.

As in ancient Greece, citizenship in most lands comes through blood; but American citizenship comes chiefly by place—where you were born.

(So dig out your birth certificates or naturalization papers if you can find them, and put them away safely; you may need them for many reason, for example, to travel in foreign lands under U. S. protection.)

The Fourteenth Ammendment holds that place of birth fixes native citizenship—all persons born in the United States. Your birth in this country automatically makes you a citizen unless you are not subject to U. S. jurisdiction, as in the case with diplomats' families and certain travelers.

In 1898 Chinese parents who themselves could then not become citizens, became parents in San Francisco of a son, Wong Kim Ark. Years later this fact settled the whole thing for the U. S. Supreme Court—he was a citizen. Nothing else mattered: not his parentage nor blood, nor his race, color, creed or ancestry.

Not all American Indians used to be citizens—only those whose tribal treaties with the federal government included citizenship. But in 1924 Congress made all American Indians, no matter what tribes, United States citizens.

(This column, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform—not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

Big Tax Exemption Favored

By TEX EASLEY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Walter Rogers of Pampa, with six children of his own, is in favor of a larger tax allowance for dependent children.

He calls attention in a "news letter" to his bill to increase the deduction from $600 to $750. Some colleagues asked why he didn't proposed a $1,000 allowance, he added.

"I would have no objection to an amendment to my bill allowing $1,000 for each child," Rogers said.

"The reason I placed the exemption at $750 was because of the number of children I have. One member suggested that I had better not go too high on children's exemptions or someone might think it was a private bill for the primary benefit of the Roger..."

Some 33 wood mosaic portraits of presidents, handmade by a Longview businessman and lawyer, are on exhibit in the lobby of a big Washington banking firm.

James Mason made the 19 by 24 portraits from more than 400,000 pieces of tiny chips of varicolored wood. Mason uses razor-sharp knives as his "brushes," refuses to use any stains, dyes or tints. This poses a special problem. He never has found a natural blue wood to use for the eyes of the presidents who had blue eyes.

As a youth, Mason started collecting wood. He says he has used more than 200 varieties in his portraits.

Reps. Clark Thompson of Galveston and Bob Poage of Waco report receiving mail from all over the country urging action to require humane methods of slaughtering livestock at the big packing plants. The mail is coming to them as members of the House Agriculture Committee.

Final Liquidation Payments Slated

HOUSTON (AP)—Houston Oil Co., dissolved last June when its properties were bought by Atlantic Refining Co. and Time, Inc., yesterday announced that shareholders will receive final liquidation payments from $5,720,152 transferred to a New York bank.

Harold Decker, president, said the fund represents $4.60 per share of common stock. Another distribution of funds was made earlier.

Houston oil sold its properties in a 225 million dollar transaction. Atlantic Refining bought the firm's interest in 970 oil and gas wells and Time acquired its interest in Southwestern Settlement and Development Corp. and East Texas Pulp and Paper Co.

Holdup Victim's Son Kills Masked Bandit

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Claude F. Newsom Jr., whose father was stabbed to death six years ago by a holdup man, shot and killed a masked bandit who tried to rob his drugstore last night, he told police.

Newsom was creased in the head by a bullet from the bandit's gun, but was not seriously hurt.

The dead youth, a mask still wrapped around his neck, was identified at a hospital as Rudolf Cortinas, 18.

Teamsters To Meet Tuesday In Galveston

GALVESTON, Tex. (AP) — The Executive Board of the giant Teamsters Union has chosen this sunny Gulf port (pop. 66,550) for a secret strategy meeting next Tuesday.

The emergency meeting was reported to have been called for one main purpose — to decide whether the union will defend itself on AFL-CIO charges that it is substantially dominated by "corrupt" influences.

The AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee has given the Teamsters the date of May 6 for a hearing in Washington if the Teamsters organization wants to defend itself.

An AFL-CIO finding that the corruption charges are true could lead to ousting of the Teamsters from the federation. The union is considered the largest single AFL-CIO affiliate, with about 1,350,000 members.

Disclosures about Beck's admitted personal use of large sums of Teamsters Union funds, as well as involvement of other Teamsters top officials in various charges, have shaken the huge labor organization to its roots.

It is reported some of the union's top officers will insist that the union appear before the AFL-CIO committee May 6, but other union officials, including Beck, were reported to be balking and counseling instead that the union snub the entire AFL-CIO proceedings, whatever the consequences.

The split could further strengthen what appears to be a growing opposition to re-election of Beck at the next union convention in September.

Mentioned For Post

TOKYO (AP) — Career diplomat Koichiro Asakai, present ambassador to the Philippines, is being prominently mentioned as Japan's next ambassador to the United States. Masayuki Tani is giving up the post April 14.

Congressmen Will Speak In Abilene

ABILENE — Three U. S. Congressmen are among the 18 speakers and panel members scheduled to appear on the program for a Petroleum Conference in Oil and Gas Taxation to be held here at McMurry College April 23-25.

The are Rep. Omar Burleson of Anson, Rep. Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls, and Rep. Oren Harris of Arkansas.

Invitations to attend the three-day meeting have gone out to oilmen, accountants, attorneys and other interested parties in 43 states, according to Dr. Andrew Rockover-Cecil, dean of the McMurry School of Business Administration and director of the college's Oil Institute.

Attendance is expected to exceed the 270 who attended a petroleum conference on electrical and radioactivity logging at the West Texas college last November, the dean said.

Sponsoring the conference in cooperation with McMurry College are the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Assn.; Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Assn.; and the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Assn.

Representatives Ikard and Harris will speak at a banquet on the evening of April 23. They will be introduced by Rep. Burleson. Franch M. Robertson of Abilene will be master of ceremonies.

The conference will get underway with registration from 9 to 12 a.m. April 23, with the first of six speech and discussion sessions slated for 2 p. m. that day.

Chairmen for these sessions will be E. Bruce Street, president of the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Assn.; Norman Leroy Huff, director of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants; John Davenport, general counsel of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Assn.; and Dr. Frank B. Counselman, Abilene consulting geologist.

Speakers, lecturers and panel members for the conference include Frank B. Appleman, Fort Worth; J. W. Riehm, Leland E. Fiske, Sam G. Winstead, William B. Wood; Cecil L. Smith; J. W. Bullion and W. Boone Goode, Dallas.

Also, Alexander B. Morris, Harry L. Briner, and Donald R. Eaton, San Antonio; Joseph P. Driscoll, Washington D. C.; R. M. Wagstaff, Abilene; and Lee Hill and Allan C. Durham, Houston.

Registration for the conference is $25 per person, including ticket for the banquet. Additional tickets for the banquet are $5 per quest.

In a printed brochure announcing the oil conference, Dr. Rockover-Cecil said, "We hope that all of those planning to attend will pre-register for the conference well in advance and make arrangements for their lodging in Abilene, for their own convenience and to expedite our preparations for the meeting."

Complete information of the petroleum conference on taxation can be obtained by contacting the Dean of the School of Business Administration, McMurry College, Abilene, Texas.

Kiwanis To Join Others For Kickoff

The Snyder Kiwanis Club voted Wednesday to suspend its regular meeting for April 24 in favor of a joint meeting of service clubs and others during the Industrial Foundation kickoff.

The Industrial Foundation drive will be launched at a luncheon in the Martha Ann Woman's Club on April 25. Kiwanis Club members will attend that luncheon, which falls on Thursday, in lieu of their regular meeting scheduled for the preceding day.

The Kiwanis Club also voted to participate in the Boys State program, in cooperation with the American Legion. The American Legion, which sponsors the Boys State event, sent five students from Scurry County to Austin last year, and Frank Stephenson, commander, said the Legion hoped to send at least five and possibly six this year. Several other organizations cooperate with the Legion here in the program.

The Rev. Walter Lentz, pastor of the Grace Lutheran Church, was installed as a new member of the Kiwanis Club. Bob Crowell, member of the attendance and membership committee, conducted the installation.

Pitcher Tom Acker of the Cincinnati Redlegs is 6-feet-4.

Yarborough To Delay Taking Of His Oath

LONGVIEW (AP) — Senator elect Ralph Yarborough yesterday said he would delay taking his oath of office until after the April 19 date suggested by the attorney general's office.

He said the date coincided with Good Friday. "As anxious as I am to take the Senate seat to which I have been elected, I will not take the oath of office on Good Friday, April 19, out of respect for its religious significance."

The attorney general's office had suggested that date as the earliest he can qualify. Yarborough said he was not sure just when he would take the oath.

Former Grid Star Wounded

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Lewis (Bud) McFadin, 29, burly former All America football lineman at the University of Texas, was shot and critically wounded last night at a country club he manages here.

Sheriff's Lt. Sam Warfield said McFadin told officers the shooting was an accident.

Lt. Warfield said Kenneth W. O'Connor, 28, who works for McFadin at the Atascocito Country Club, said in a sworn statement that he brandished the pistol in a joking manner while he and McFadin were "horsing around" at the club. Warfield quoted O'Conner as saying McFadin then asked for the gun and while he was taking it, the weapon discharged, hitting him in the abdomen.

O'Conner was not held, the officer said.
