Indian Troops Near E. Pakistan Capital

India claimed today its troops had pressed to within 25 miles of Dacca, that thousands of fleeing Pakistani soldiers were trying to cross the Ganges River to that East Pakistan capital, and that enemy planes had been driven from the skies.

Indian troops were reported holding their ground in Kashmir on the western front.

Pakistan's eastern command in Dacca countered with reports of fierce fighting on most fronts in the east and said "enemy thrusts are still being successfully countered by Pakistani troops."

An Indian army communique reported its troops had advanced to the Meghna River 25 miles from Dacca.

Lt. Gen. Jagjit Singh Aurora, commander of India's eastern front, said in Calcutta that thousands of Pakistani troops under air attack were trying to reach Dacca or the port of Chittagong in the east in an armada of sampans, barges and river boats.

Of these eight Pakistani battalions, about 7,000 men were attempting to cross the Ganges from the west to make a stand at Dacca, he reported.

Aurora told reporters that Indian forces were making a swift advance and were isolating many Pakistani troops.

India earlier reported the capture of the major towns of Comilla in the east and Sylhet in the northeast. Pakistan's command in Dacca was still reporting fighting in Jessore 24 hours after foreign newsmen from Calcutta visited the southwestern town and found the Pakistani army had fled.

The Indian government announced it had ordered limited bombing pauses.

Planes Hit Orphanage With 500

High-altitude Indian bombers today scored a direct hit on a Dacca orphanage which housed 400 children and a staff of 100.

A stick of four bombs landed in the middle of the Muslim Mission home. Frantic rescue workers clawed into the wreckage with their hands and have so far recovered 17 bodies. Many boys were reported missing.

The children living there, 300 boys and 100 girls, were 7 to 16 years old. A staff of doctors and missionaries also lived on the premises.

The founder of the orphanage, Mohammed Rahman, who said he had been an associate of Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's grandfather in Calcutta, said the bombs landed at 3:15 a.m.

Ex-Egyptian Veep Given Life Sentence

Former Vice President Aly Sabry was sentenced to death by hanging for plotting to overthrow President Anwar Sadat, but Sadat has commuted the sentence to life in prison at hard labor, the revolutionary court announced today.

Two cabinet ministers implicated in the plot last May, Interior Minister Sharawi Gomma and Presidential Affairs Minister Sami Sharaf, also were found guilty and received the same commuted death sentence.

The verdicts were reached after trials behind closed doors that lasted two months.

Three other cabinet ministers and four top officials of the government party were found guilty and received sentences ranging from 15 years in prison to one year suspended.

No announcement was made of a verdict for Lt. Gen. Mohammed Fawzi, the former war minister, who was tried separately by a three-man court.

Army Drops Charges Against Brig. General

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has decided after a five-month investigation to dismiss charges that Brig. John W. Donaldson murdered six Vietnamese civilians.

The Associated Press learned a formal announcement was due later in the day from Ft. Meade, Md., where the military equivalent of a grand jury investigation—an article 32 hearing—was conducted.

The decision completely exonerating Donaldson of all charges was made by Lt. Gen. Claire E. Hutchin Jr., commanding general of the 1st Army. Sources said Hutchin determined that evidence did not support the charges which included six counts of murder and assault against a seventh Vietnamese civilian.

Donaldson was the highest ranking officer to be accused of murdering civilians in the Vietnam war and the first U.S. general in 70 years to be charged with a war crime.

Earlier this year the Army cleared two other generals of involvement in the cover-up of the My Lai massacre but these charges did not involve war crimes. However, the two officers, Maj. Gen. Samuel W. Koster and Brig. Gen. George H. Young Jr., subsequently received administrative punishment, which included demotion for Koster.

A 47-year-old West Point graduate, Donaldson was alleged to have shot civilians on the ground in Quang Ngai province while flying over them in a helicopter on various occasions between November 1968 and January 1969. The accusations were made by helicopter pilots.

At the time Donaldson was a colonel commanding the Americal Division's 11th

Infantry Brigade.

Donaldson's operations officer, Lt. Col. William J. McCloskey of Wilkes Barre, Pa., was accused of murdering two Vietnamese civilians.

Sources said the grand jury-type investigation in McCloskey's case was not expected to be completed until next month.

Both Donaldson and McCloskey were formally charged June 2. The Article 32 hearings began two weeks later.

It was understood the investigation in the Donaldson case involved testimony from more than 80 witnesses. The Army's investigation officer, Maj. Gen. Robert R. Ploger, submitted his findings and recommendations to Hutchin on Nov. 24. It was Hutchin's responsibility to determine whether a court martial was warranted.

As commander of the 11th Brigade, Donaldson succeeded Col. Oran K. Henderson, whose trial on charges of covering up the 1968 My Lai massacre is expected to be completed next week at Ft. Meade.

The My Lai massacre and the incidents allegedly involving Donaldson were not related, Donaldson, however, was a prosecution witness in the Henderson trial, testifying on a matter involving the search for records in the brigade.

Until the charges were made, Donaldson served as a key planner for the Joint Chiefs of Staff. He was reassigned to Ft. Meade to await outcome of the investigation. Dismissal of the charges should enable him to continue a career that has included several prestigious assignments which have marked him for higher command.

A native of Ft. Oglethorpe, Ga., Donaldson was graduated from West Point in 1944.

State Solon To Join '72 Race Club

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — State Sen. Joe Christy told supporters Tuesday night he will run in the already crowded race for lieutenant governor.

Christy, a Democrat, was the Senate sponsor of the successful liquor-by-the-drink legislation passed this year by the Legislature.

He said he will emphasize "the positive, the hopeful, and the possible."

Others in the lieutenant governor's race are Sen. Wayne Connally of Floresville, Sen. Ralph Hall of Rockwall, Houston Post editor Bill Hobby, Odessa businessman Bill Jones and Robert McCord of Corpus Christi.

About 1,000 persons attended a combination appreciation and announcement dinner.

As for possible support, Texas AFL-CIO President Roy Evans has said Christy, 38, would be the more acceptable to liberal-labor-loyalists voters than anyone else in the race.

United Auto Workers leader Garland Woodland — Dallas attended the announcement dinner, where the audience was balanced between liberal and conservative elements.

WINTER SCENE IN BLACK AND WHITE—Mother Nature's little family of finger painters known as "The Elements" evidently are leaving living color for Spring and Summer. Such wintry beauty as this is fleeting. The first warm breath will melt earth's ermine carpet and leave barren trees "crisp-ed and sere" to trace skeletal shadows across the mud.

House Expected To Approve $15.8 Billion Tax-Cut Project

WASHINGTON (AP) — A bill cutting taxes $15.8 billion over three years moves today toward final House action, speeded by a Democratic retreat on the campaign financing provision President Nixon bitterly opposes.

The House was expected to approve the compromise bill, the Senate to follow suit without delay, and Nixon to sign it.

The measure contains the basic tax benefits for business that Nixon proposed to stimulate the economy. The Democratic Congress substantially increased the tax relief for individuals, especially those in lower income brackets.

Typical savings, varying in individual cases because of the complexities of exemptions and deductions, would be on this order:

—For a single person with $3,000 income, $18 would be saved this year, $55 next, for one with $15,000, $8 and $14.

—For a married couple with two children and $4,000 income, $17 this year, $28 next, for such a family with $15,000 income, $22 this year, $44 next.

In general, persons at or below the poverty level would be relieved of all income tax—now paid by some 2.8 million in this bracket. Some 25 million low-income individuals would get relief through the increase in the special minimum deduction.

The big threat to enactment of the bill apparently was removed when a Senate-House conference committee agreed to postpone beyond next year's presidential election a plan for a $1 checkoff of income taxes to finance campaigns.

Nixon had promised to veto the bill containing the original provision. Although he still opposes the plan, the revision would allow him to sign the overall bill but still work against the campaign financing section.

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, senior Republican member of the House Ways and Means Committee, predicted Nixon would do this.

American Nobel Peace Laureate Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Ralph Johnson Bunche, 67, undersecretary-general of the United Nations and winner of the 1950 Nobel Peace Prize for mediating an end to the 1949 Middle East war over Palestine died today in New York Hospital.

Death came at 12:40 a.m., the hospital said. No cause of death was given but Bunche had been ill many months.

The grandson of an American slave, Bunche rose to world prominence in 1949 when he hammered out armistice agreements between Israel and the Arab nations that ended the Palestine War.

He later oversaw both the U.N. military and civilian operations in the Congo when the organization went into that African nation in 1960. He also played a key role in 1956 negotiations that led to the stationing of the U.N. Emergency Force in Palestine after the Suez crisis.

At the time of his death, Bunche was the highest-ranking American on the U.N. secretariat and had charge of special political affairs.

Bunche's hand in settling the 1949 Palestinian War came at a crucial time in the history of the then-fledgling United Nations.

He took over as acting mediator of the dispute after assassins gunned down the U.N. mediator, Swedish Count Folke Bernadotte, in Jerusalem and also killed the man at his side, wrongly assumed to have been Bunche.

Refusing the protection of an armed guard, Bunche gathered all parties on the Island of Rhodes and wrote settlement that finally ended the fighting after seven weeks.

Col. Mohamed Ibrahim Seif Eddine of Egypt later hailed him as "one of the world's greatest men," and Israeli diplomat Walter Eytan called his efforts "superhuman."

Bunche, himself, marked the occasion by presenting each delegate at the Rhodes talks with a reproduction of ancient Greek pots made in a local factory. Asked what he would have done with the gifts if the talks had failed, he replied: "I would have smashed them over your heads."

Bunche joined the United Nations at its inception, first as a technical adviser in 1946 on loan from the U.S. State Department, where he had worked two years as a specialist on African and colonial affairs.

He joined the U.N. staff full time in 1947 and after a series of special missions was appointed undersecretary without portfolio in 1955.

Living in New York, he gave himself freely to the cause of equal rights for Negroes, delivering countless speeches and taking part in civil rights demonstrations. In 1965, he marched alongside Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in the Freedom March from Selma to Montgomery, Ala.

His distaste for segregation as practiced in Washington, D.C., led him in 1948 to refuse an offer from President Harry S. Truman to become a U.S. assistant secretary of State.

Bunche, the son of a Detroit barber, also resisted attempts to draw him into national politics. He was urged in 1962 to seek the Democratic nomination for the U.S. Senate to oppose Jacob K. Javits, the incumbent New York Republican, but declined.

From his early childhood, he displayed intellectual prowess and stamina that were to become a trademark in his years at the United Nations.

Bunche was orphaned at the age of 14, and he and a sister went to live with their grandmother in Los Angeles.

Nixon Urges Congress To Okay Pension Plan

By MARGARET GENTRY, Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — An administration plan designed to make it cheaper and safer to save for old age comes under scrutiny in Congress today.

In a special message to Congress Wednesday, President Nixon asked approval of pension reforms which he said would "do a great deal to protect the rights of the average American during his working years and enhance the quality of his life when he has retired."

The President's proposal would...

—Allow workers to claim tax deductions for up to 20 per

Confirmation Of Rehnquist Faces Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Jacob K. Javits, D-N.Y., and Alan Cranston, D-Calif., joined today in the opposition to confirmation of the Supreme Court nomination of Asst. Atty. Gen. William H. Rehnquist.

Javits, the second GOP senator to announce his opposition, said that Rehnquist's philosophy "makes him unacceptable as one of the final arbiters of the rights of 200 million Americans."

Cranston told the Senate that Rehnquist's record "raises the most serious doubts about his commitment to human rights" and said that on civil liberties "Mr. Rehnquist consistently comes down on the side of less liberty rather than more."

The Senate is to vote at noon Friday on a Republican-initiated move to cut off the debate and bring Rehnquist's nomination to a vote.

If the necessary two-thirds majority is obtained to invoke the Senate's anti-filibuster rule, cent or $1,500, whichever is less, of the amount contributed annually to a pension fund.

—Permit self-employed persons who set up pension plans for themselves and their employes to increase deductions to $7,500 or 15 per cent of income, whichever is less.

—Set up a system aimed at protecting a worker's pension claim in a company retirement plan although he might leave the company before retirement age.

The system, called "vesting," would operate under a "rule of 50," guaranteeing an employee 50 per cent of his accrued pension benefits at the time his age and years of participation in the pension plan equalled 50.

For example, an employee who began contributions at the age of 30 would, at the age of 40, be guaranteed half his pension.

U.S. House Okays Bill To Set Up Food Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House, blocking bids to curb federal payments to giant agricultural combines, sent to the Senate today a massive foodbank bill that the President's critics claim is needed to stave off a Farm Belt depression.

Efforts to gain consideration of a $20,000-per-farmer annual limit on federal subsidies for cotton, wheat and feed-grain growers, sharply lowering the $55,000-per-acre individual-payment ceiling built last year, failed in parliamentary moves Wednesday night.

After crushing Republican-backed amendments, the House overpowered the President's farm-policy supporters and voted 182 to 170—at three minutes past midnight—to:

—Set up a $1.5-billion national food bank of wheat and feed grains, at an annual average storage cost of $215 million.

—Raise wheat and feed-grain price supports by 25 per cent, thus increasing the total graincrop value by more than $2 billion, through a mandatory two-year boost in minimum loanrate levels to protect producer income. Estimated cost to the government is $281 million in the year ending next June 30.

The food bank would lock up "an important part of the huge surplus of wheat and feed grains presently burdening the American market," Agriculture Committee Chairman W. R. Poage, D-Tex., told the House. The bank would be stocked with 300 million bushels of wheat and 25 million tons of feed grains. The grain could be released for emergency use, such as in the case of a natural disaster.

The price-support hike, Poage said, is needed "because many grain farmers are on the brink of financial ruin." This legislation, he added, might provide enough additional income "to possibly prevent utter chaos on the farm."

But Republicans repeatedly attacked what they described as a highly costly federal project that they said could yield more mischief than relief. Republican opposition is expected to grow in the Senate, where the legislation appears set to receive an enthusiastic welcome from Democrats.

In fighting the food bank and 25-per-cent price-support hike, the administration has said it prefers its own approach toward solving serious problems facing farmers.

Hobart when its wheels began spinning. The truck was headed south on Hobart and couldn't stop in time. Result: a banged-up auto side, but no injuries. (Staff Photo)

Goldwater Unleashes Attack Against President's Critics

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Speaking via telephone from Washington, Sen. Barry Goldwater unleashed an attack Wednesday night against conservative critics of President Nixon.

Such critics "are hurting a cause which next year is going to be very vital not only to them but to the entire party, the entire country, the entire free world and freedom itself," Goldwater charged.

The Arizona Republican, himself a renowned conservative, spoke to a crowd of more than 250 at a $125-a-plate fund-raising dinner for Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

He was scheduled to appear in person but was held up in Washington by the debate on William Rehnquist's nomination to the Supreme Court. His speech was carried over an amplified telephone hookup.

Goldwater said he has heard talk that if the conservatives find no candidate to run against Nixon, "they can always stay home."

"This is nothing but default," he declared. "I say this is a brand of political cowardice which is not worthy of good conservatives and good Republicans."

President Nixon will have a "real tough battle on his hands" in the next election, Goldwater said.

"And it behooves every patriotic American who believes in an adequate defense system and who believes that this country should play a major role in the leadership of the world to be in there fighting hard, shoulder to shoulder with Richard Nixon."

Tower, who flew here from Washington and planned to return the same night, voiced support for Goldwater's views.

Goldwater said he can appreciate some of the conservative criticism against President Nixon. He said he himself does not like the idea of "coying up to China or Moscow, and I don't think the President likes it either."

But Nixon is "trying to learn all he can" about those countries, Goldwater said. "We must do so or fall far behind."

He charged that the United States' power already is endangered as a result of Democratic administrations' policies. While the United States was concentrating on Vietnam and emergencies which former President Lyndon Johnson claimed the country faced, Russia and other nations were steadily building in power, he said.

Florida Has 825-Pound Santa Claus

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Jolly Jim Dean, an 825-pound wrestler turned Santa Claus, has converted his log cabin home into a toy factory.

With the help of neighbors, "Man Mountain" Dean is repairing cast-off toys for underprivileged children this Christmas.

"There's nothing I can't fix with nail polish, glue or a little paint," Dean declared.

His Christmas project also includes tours of hospitals, juvenile homes and other institutions as Santa Claus. It takes 15 yards of flannel to make his red suit and he cinches his 128-inch waist with an elephant's harness.

Fifteen years ago Dean packed in 150,000 sports fans a night to show off his famed airplane spin and made up to $20,000 a performance as a professional wrestler.

Now he lives in an unpretentious log cabin that was once a buffalo ranch and spends his time repairing toys.

Food Stamp Probe Leads To Arrest Of 6 Persons

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—A year-long probe into alleged misdealings in food stamps here has led to federal charges against six persons.

U. S. Atty. William Sessions said the investigation is still under way but did not elaborate. Officials earlier said the case may involve hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Two men were named on felony charges of illegally possessing more than $100 worth of food coupons. Three women and a man were charged with the misdemeanor offense of illegally possessing food coupons worth less than $100. All are from San Antonio.

The charges were brought in U.S. Dist. Court here Wednesday in criminal informations filed by the U.S. Attorney's office. This method of filing charges, rather than by indictment, indicates that the defendants will formally waive a grand jury investigation, court sources said.

The first person charged as city, state and federal officials opened their probe a year ago was Samuel Isham of Austin, a food stamp case worker for the State Welfare Department here.

Isham received two probated three-year terms last February after pleading guilty in state district court to two charges of theft over $50.

Named Wednesday in the felony charge were Margil Vale, 28, and Robert Cooper, 33. Charged in the misdemeanor case were Mary Helen Sanchez, 26, Herlinda Cruz, 39, Angelita Palacios Pena, 49, and Raymond P. Pena, 29.

TFU Leader Reelected

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Criticizing President Nixon's agriculture policies, the president of the National Farmers Union declared here Wednesday night that farmers "may well decide the next election, as they did in 1968."

"President Nixon needed the southern strategy to win, but he could not have won without carrying the midwestern farm states," Tony Dechant of Denver told the closing session of the Texas Farmers Union convention.

Farmers "were not counted in on the wage-price freeze," Dechant charged, adding, "we want somebody in the office of management and the budget, and we need someone (representing farmers' interests) on the Council of Economic Advisers."

"This time we need to make sure that the candidates understand our problems and we need to get commitments before the elections."

NFU Leader Says Farmers May Decide 1972 Election

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Delegates to the Texas Farmers Union annual election reelected Jay I. Naman of Waco as president and Joe Rankin of Ralls as vice president Wednesday.

Three members of the group also were named in the closing day of business Wednesday to serve as representatives at the National Farmers Union convention at Houston in March.

Appointed were Gene Decker of Sadler, Willard Mullins of Haskell and W. R. Breeding, Alternate delegates were Weldon Jones, McAdoo, J. W. Maddux, Hewitt, and W. L. Stephens, Brownfield.

The 500 delegates adopted resolutions calling for a revision of the federal cotton program to "better reflect normal yields on cotton with adequate provisions for natural disasters."

They also called for export subsidies for those periods in which the parity index is below 100 per cent, and congressional investigation of electric power monopolies.

Funeral services are scheduled for 4 p.m. Friday in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church for Mrs. Mathilda Fallon, 80, of 1328 Coffee, who died at 7:15 a.m. today in Highland General Hospital.

Rev. Sam Hulsey will officiate. Burial will be at 11 a.m. Saturday in the Rose Hill Cemetery, Tulsa, Okla. under the direction of Carmichael-Whitley Funeral Directors.

Born Aug. 26, 1891, in Kansas City, Mo., she moved to Pampa in October of 1962, from Tulsa, Okla.

Causes Of War In Subcontinent

The Associated Press
THE CRISIS—The Bengalis of East Pakistan long have complained of discrimination and neglect by the central government in West Pakistan, 1,000 miles away across Indian territory. The smaller but more populous East accounts for most of Pakistan's foreign exchange with its jute industry, but the proceeds along with other developments were used mostly to benefit the Punjabis in the West.

The ethnic and economic dissatisfaction came to a head after Pakistan's first general elections in 23 years, held last December. East Pakistan's Awami League, demanding autonomy, won 167 of the 313 National Assembly seats.

When the Awamis refused to moderate their demands, President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan ordered his army from West Pakistan to crush the league. East Pakistan's political leader, Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, was arrested and taken to West Pakistan. The Pakistani army butchered and burned hundreds of thousands of East Pakistanis, and more than nine million refugees fled into India, imposing a tremendous burden on India's always desperate economy. Meanwhile, East Pakistanis in the Pakistani army deserted and formed the nucleus of a guerrilla army called the Mukhti Bahini which went to war against Yahya Khan's forces.

Pakistan charged India with training and arming the rebels, a charge which India never bothered to deny. The two nations mobilized forces along with borders, and firing across the frontiers began. Last Friday, skirmishes escalated into war, and Indian forces invaded East Pakistan in force. India formally recognized the rebels, Bangla Desh government on Monday, and Pakistan retaliated by breaking diplomatic relations with India.

THE ISSUES—The East Pakistanis are fighting for independence. India is fighting for the establishment of a government in East Pakistan that the refugees will be willing to return to and that also will be friendly to India. Pakistan is fighting to prevent the secession of more than half of its people who operate its biggest export industry and incidentally to take more of Kashmir if it can get it.

THE HISTORY—When the Indian subcontinent won inde-

A Newcomer

DINOSAUR, Colo. (AP)—Over 140 million years ago giant crocodiles and dinosaurs left their mark and their bones in the rocks here, making man, who arrived in the region 25,000 years ago, very much of a newcomer.

Parade Of Ghosts

CREEDE, Colo. (AP)—Wheeler National Monument in La Garita Mountains is known as "a parade of ghosts"—its eroded sandstone formations including likenesses of sculptured spooks, camel humps, a pit and a potato and gnomes.

pendence from Britain in 1947. Moslem leader Mohammed Ali Jinnah forces Britain to partition the vast territory into Moslem Pakistan and Hindu India. Pakistan became a two-part nation separated by India.

Millions died in fighting between Moslems and Hindus after the partition, and India and Pakistan have gone to war twice since—in 1948 and 1965—over the disputed Himalayan state of Kashmir.

FOREIGN INTERESTS—The United States officially is neutral in the conflict, but the Nixon administration blames India for escalating the war and has been openly complimentary of the Pakistani's government's action. U.S. arms shipments to both countries have been halted, and American economic aid to India has been suspended. The Soviet Union backs India, and Communist China supports Pakistan.

THE ARMIES—India has more than a million troops and 100,000 militiamen; Pakistan has just under 400,000 troops and 280,000 militiamen, according to the London Institute of Strategic Studies.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew presented the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's Distinguished Service Medal Wednesday to the three astronauts of the Apollo 15 moon mission.

"as the most complex and carefully planned scientific expedition in the history of exploration."

The three men who took part in the 12-day mission last summer are David R. Scott, Alfred M. Worden and James B. Irwin.

LONDON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., says an inquiry into British army methods of interrogating suspected Irish terrorists amounts to a whitewash.

The conclusions of the government study, Kennedy said in a letter published in the Times Wednesday, "are couched in language that finds the facts of torture but whitewashes their meaning."

The study said suspects suffered physical mistreatment at the hands of army interrogators, but it said the treatment fell short of brutality or torture.

Kennedy stirred a storm some two months ago when he said in a Senate speech that Northern Ireland, torn by communal fighting, could become Britain's Vietnam.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mary Cummings says she owes $26,269 and needs more alimony and child support from her exhusband, actor Robert Cummings.

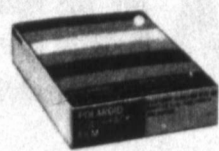

An attorney representing Mrs. Cummings, 53, told a Superior Court judge Tuesday the U.S. Internal Revenue Service has seized all of the estimated $500,000 in community property the couple shared when they were divorced last year.

Hope Planning To Build Museum For His Gifts

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Former American presidents have them, so why not a museum for the man who has made presidents laugh?

Comedian Bob Hope said Tuesday he's planning just such a museum in Burbank and will stock it with mementoes of a lifetime in show business.

Included in the exhibit, Hope said, will be items he's picked up in 30 years of tours for the USO entertaining servicemen abroad. He leaves on his latest trip next Wednesday.

"Everywhere I go, the guys outdo themselves to give me some kind of gift that is unique," he remarked. "I've received elephant chairs, elephant tusks, everything you can think of. I've got vaults filled with beautiful things. Pretty soon I'll have a place to put all this stuff."

Hope once contemplated converting his huge North Hollywood mansion into a museum, but decided against it. Instead, he has purchased a large piece of property opposite NBC's Burbank studios. He has had a plan drawn up for the museum building.

"I probably won't get the place under way for a couple of years," he said. "I want to take some time to go around the country and visit various kinds of museums to see how they present things."

Hope's next overseas trip takes him to Hawaii, Okinawa, Thailand, South Vietnam, Tehran, a missile base near Venice, Terrejon Air Force base near Madrid, and Guantanamo base in Cuba. The troupe includes Vida Blue, Charlie Pride, Sunday's Child and the usual Hope package of Christmas beauties.

On the night before departure Hope will appear at a rare event: a dinner for Bob Hope.

After years of entertaining at banquets honoring other figures, Hope is the subject of a "Thanks for the Memories" salute to his USO tours.

"The Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce suggested giving me a dinner," Hope explained. "I said thanks, but I didn't need a dinner. Then they came up with the idea of selling tickets at $500 apiece to raise money for a new USO building in Hollywood."

"That was something I could go for. I guess I've been with the USO since it started, and I've seen what great work it has done. Our show gets the publicity, but there are dozens of other USO shows touring all the time and doing a fine job."

The comedian reminisced a bit about his 30 years on the road for USO—or he might have been rehearsing his monologue.

"When I was a kid, I used to dream about traveling as far as Gary, Ind. Now I'm using Bangkok for a laundry drop. You haven't lived until you've had an elephant give you room service."

Worry Clinic

By GEORGE W. CRANE Ph.D., M.D.
 Ralph Miller's family illustrates what we psychologists call "Cultural Inheritance." Liking for reading, music and religion are not genetic forms of heredity. But they can be passed along from one generation to another by a deft "brainwashing" of kiddies!
 CASE S-540: Ralph A. Miller lives in Berlin, Ohio.
 "Dr. Crane," he began, "you once mentioned that your wife was a Miller."
 "Well, my father and mother were both named Miller before their marriage."
 "And in 1943, my son Oscar, gave the valedictorian address at the Berlin High School Commencement."
 "This year his son James also delivered the valedictorian address. Back in 1942 there were also 5 Millers on our varsity basketball team."
 "And this year 10 graduating seniors out of 90 were likewise named Miller."
 Cultural Heritages
 The main reason I mention this case today is to show that devotion to education and culture may be passed along from one generation to another.
 Musical hungers may also be transmitted from parents, much as our dinner table fondness for spaghetti vs. rice vs. roast beef, etc.
 "Like father, like son" thus illustrates the fact that daddy or mother can implant idealism in their youngsters by lauding books, music, religion and art.
 Abraham Lincoln's mother had almost no schooling but she indelibly impressed her young son with respect for Deity.
 So when she died Lincoln's father buried her without a preacher to handle the funeral, 9-year-old Abraham Lincoln was disturbed.
 Weeks later when an itinerant clergyman stopped at their cabin, Lincoln coaxed the preacher to go out upon the hillside and conduct a belated religious service.
 Fortunately, too, Lincoln's stepmother was also a woman who stimulated his ambition for knowledge.
 So Abraham Lincoln became one of the best educated men of his age, even exceeding the prominent law graduates of Harvard, Yale and other ritzy New England colleges.
 Yet he never had more than one year of formal grade schooling!
 Ralph Miller's son was valedictorian and Oscar's son then followed in his dad's footsteps by also delivering the valedictory address 28 years later.
 So you parents, even if you never got to finish high school, can still implant cultural ambition in your kiddies.
 And you don't need to put on any high-pressure salesmanship to do it.
 Instead, just surround your children with some good books, such as the Bible, an encyclopedia, a dictionary and a few famous novels.
 Then tactfully urge your kiddies to consult the encyclopedia for answers to their questions.
 Thus, you figuratively "brainwash" your children favorably toward printed books, newspapers and magazines.
 By all means, place a pleasant "halo" around reading materials!

NEW YORK (AP) — Carol Burnett and Julie Andrews, praise be, were working in tandem again Tuesday night. This time it was a two-woman special taped on the stage of Lincoln Center's Philharmonic Hall last spring. The magic and the chemistry still work, but it took a bit longer than last time for the spell to start affecting the audience.
 A lot of talent, a lot of production and beautiful clothes went into the program.
 The two opening sketches could have been played on Carol's weekly show—with Vicki Lawrence playing Julie's Roles—without causing much excitement.
 But when the two women started their medley of songs of the past decade, the show caught fire, the magic began to work. And the final production number, "Wait Till the Sun Shines, Nellie," made the viewer wish there were another half hour to go.

Dear Abby

Lack of trust forces confrontation at home

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a 20-year-old girl. I have a good secretarial job, my own car and I live at home and pay room and board.

My parents frequently go away on weekends, and my boy friend comes over, and sometimes stays until after the late show on television. Everything is on the up and up, and I never lie about what time he goes home, but now my parents say I can't have him over unless they are home.

Abby, this is ridiculous. Dad says it "looks bad" for the neighbors. Mom says in a few years I'll be married and gone, but they will have to face the neighbors and all that gossip.

I told my parents if I couldn't have my boy friend over unless they were home, I'd move out, and they said if I moved out, I could never set foot in their house again.

Abby, that's the way we left it. I would like your opinion of the situation.

DEAR HAD IT: I think you should be allowed to entertain your boy friend at home whether your parents are home or not. And for them to have laid down such a rule because of what the neighbors might think is narrow-minded and shortsighted. As well-intentioned as they are, they are literally driving you out of the house.

DEAR ABBY: About two years ago, an older male relative started taking a great deal of interest in our little girl. I never entered my mind that something could be wrong because this man is a well-known, well-liked prominent citizen.

After putting four or five little incidents together, they all added up to one thing. Child molesting! When it finally dawned on me I didn't know who I hated more. The man, or myself for having been so stupid.

Because I never actually caught him, we decided the best thing to do would be to watch him very carefully, to make sure he never was alone with our child for even a minute.

I hope he reads this. I will be happy when he dies, then I won't have to worry anymore. Please print this so other mothers will be on the lookout for sick people who are around them every day. Sign me

DEAR DAZED: Waiting for him to "die" is no solution. [He may outlive you.] And making sure he isn't alone with your child "for even a minute" isn't the answer either. What's to stop him from molesting other children? Confront him with the facts as you know them and insist that he get professional help. He is sick, sick, sick.

DEAR ABBY: This is for the lady who wondered if it would be all right to post a sign near her doorbell, requesting guests to please remove their shoes before entering her house. [She had just installed wall-to-wall carpeting and wanted to keep it nice.]

I think it's a great idea! I was in Japan early this year and it's a custom to remove one's shoes before entering the house. I was wearing high lace-up boots, and did a lot of lacing and unlacing, but I didn't mind it one bit. In fact, it felt good to take my shoes off and walk around in my stocking feet.

Needless to say, the Japanese have the cleanest carpets in the world. So, tell people to quit being so stuffy. To remove their shoes and discover a whole new world at their feet.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "DISGUSTED IN FULLERTON, CAL.": When you find out what is "normal" in sexual behavior, please let the world know. It remains debatable.

What's your problem? You'll feel better if you get it off your chest. Write to ABBY, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069. For a personal reply enclose stamped, addressed envelope.

Your Horoscope

By Jeane Dixon
 FRIDAY, DEC. 10

Your birthday today: All areas of your daily living offer adventure and spiritual discovery during the busy upcoming year. Begin with a general tidy-up program, re-view and correction of any long-standing symptoms or problems. Today's natives usually have some rather technical vocational specialty.

Aries [March 21-April 19]: Financial maneuvers are unusually risky—There are forces at work few people know much about. Your chances of guessing why your friends do as they do are essentially zero.

Taurus [April 20-May 20]: Competition sharpens, takes a new twist. Somebody may switch sides in a controversy. You'll be glad you have all your facts well in mind.

Gemini [May 21-June 20]: Prepare to put in a heavy-paced day. What you complete promises to be permanent, never to be repeated. What you fail to cover might never be available for a second try.

Cancer [June 21-July 22]: Tact and patience are more needed than ever. You may bridge an old gap, gather again scattered teammates.

Leo [July 23-Aug. 22]: Work for family unity, group communication. Wind up your workweek as matter-of-factly as conditions permit.

Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: You are in a somewhat sounder position now and able to push household matters ahead at the right moment.

Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: What happens when you suddenly get your way and you're not prepared to take advantage of it! You could have something like this in today's incidents.

Scorpio [Oct. 23-Nov. 21]: Declaring yourself capable and in charge may be fine, but be sure you can really handle matters if you get the chance.

Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: What you hear may be electrifying, but whatever else you do, let it stop with you. You'll see why tomorrow.

Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: Intuition becomes loud and clear, traces out an upward path. There's much to gain, nothing to lose.

Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Communications prove the main challenge. Your ideas may be somewhat beyond those people are prepared to deal with.

Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: Family ties turn out quite real now. You've got deep support where it's wanted and, in turn, plenty to do for your loved ones.

In 1900 there were an estimated 500,000 deer in America. Today there are more than 16 million.

Millions More Needed
 Strong demand for meat products is expected throughout the rest of this decade. By 1980, capita consumption of beef is expected to increase 17 pounds, pushing the total figure to 130 pounds of beef per person. This anticipated increase will require an additional 11 to 12 million more head of cattle. There will also be an expanded market for hogs in order to keep up with the expected U.S. population figure of 250 million. Current projections indicate a need for 100 to 150 million head of hogs by 1980.

The Pampa Daily News

A Watchful Newspaper

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS
TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

Our Capsule Policy

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces can he develop to his utmost capability.

The News believes each and every person would get more satisfaction in the long run if he were permitted to spend what he earns on a volunteer basis rather than having part of it distributed involuntarily.

Case Of Confidence

One of our Freedom Newspaper colleagues received a phone call from a woman the other day asking his advice about a certain man's chances of winning a political office.

This is a good man, she insisted. He wants to curtail political control over our lives.

"If he's a good man," our colleague replied "why do you want to wish the horror of political office on him?"

The ensuing conversation was the typical one between a Freedom Newspaper editor trying to explain the hopelessness of reliance upon political action and a sincere, troubled reader still clinging to the hope that the political system can reverse what the political system created.

It all comes down to a matter of where one places his confidence.

From that point in life when individuals begin making their own decisions, they express confidence in some thing or some person through their actions, their choices.

When they buy a certain make automobile, they give a vote of confidence to the company that manufactures that automobile. Likewise when they buy a detergent, a suit of clothing, a pair of shoes, a newspaper. When they make these decisions, they say, subconsciously perhaps, "This product or this store or this salesman, will satisfy my needs and help to increase my happiness."

From time to time, the individual may feel he has misplaced his confidence—the product he bought may not give him the satisfaction he believed it would provide. He may switch brands or stores or salesmen. But in the broader sense, he still places confidence in the market place, for here is where thousands of items continually vie for public confidence. And,

VIEWPOINT

JESSE HELMS

Unions Too Powerful

In case there were lingering doubts about where political and economic control of the country is steadily being concentrated, the president of the giant United Auto Workers union has made clear that he considers himself and his union above and beyond the law. It must be noted that Mr. Leonard Woodcock did not bother with niceties. If the federal government tries to treat the auto workers union as it treats all other citizens, he warned, the union will go out on strike.

Very well. The time is past due for the country's leadership to face up to the fact that America is rapidly becoming a labor government. Or, more precisely, a government that has been served notice that it is hereafter to be increasingly controlled by union leaders.

Mr. Woodcock's warning was, as we say, loud and clear—and blunt. It's all right with him if a freeze is placed on everybody else's wages, he said, just so long as its understood that the UAW will not consent to being included. Give us special treatment, Mr. Woodcock demands, or else.

In the long run, it may prove a good thing that Mr. Woodcock has drawn the issue so bluntly. It could be a very good thing—or it will be a very bad thing. There is scarcely any in-between. If the political leadership of this country can be made to understand that the issue concerns the very survival of the United States as a free enterprise, capitalistic society, then appropriate action can be taken to reject and rebuff Mr. Woodcock's threats.

Consider the possibility that Mr. Woodcock's union will win its point and that it will be given special concessions and favored treatment: like a brigade of robots, labor bosses representing other unions down the line will march forth with similar demands. There would be no antidote for such an epidemic.

It is by no means unrelated to President Nixon's current efforts to stabilize the American economy that a report from the Congress, just released, discloses that union leaders around the country last year poured nearly $3,300,000 into the political campaigns of carefully selected candidates for the Congress, both House and Senate.

Another million, taken likewise from the dues paid by union workers, was handed over to campaigns for governor in various states. This, it should be mentioned, involves funds—political contributions—admitted and acknowledged by union leaders. The actual total of union dues diverted to political campaigns can only be estimated. Be that as it may, it is an uncontested fact—an acknowledged fact—that 24 U.S. Senators and 80 Congressmen last year received substantial contributions from union leaders. And only 35 Senate seats were involved in the 1970 elections; candidates financed, in part, by union leaders won 24 of them!

It will be necessary for Congress to give its support and approval to Mr. Nixon's proposals designed to control inflation and bolster the economy. And this Congress, whose support Mr. Nixon must have, is dominated by men elected to office with the financial support of union leaders!

It is not a condemnation of the labor union movement in the United States to suggest that the time has come to examine the political favoritism which has long been bestowed upon powerful union leaders. The power to shut down industry and paralyze commerce all over the country, to cripple the economy, should never have been placed in the hands of the few.

It does not overlook the worthiness of the labor union movement to suggest that restraints should be placed on union leaders to prevent them from taking advantage of the rest of the country. As Mr. Woodcock, president of the United Auto Workers union, clearly illustrates, many union leaders now feel no restraints at all.

No man, no group of men, should possess such power, especially in a nation which likes to boast of its precepts of liberty and justice. Now is the time for the public to examine the system, and for the nation's leadership to take the necessary action to restore fair play to all the people.

H. L. Hunt Writes

HISS AGAIN

It seems the apologists of the Left never give up. Take the case of those who still write about the conviction of Alger Hiss. A syndicated columnist reported recently that Alfred Friendly, a former editor of the Washington Post, wrote from London that Hiss "hopes new evidence will clear his reputation." Hiss's efforts to clear his name are excusable but the dispatch the Post carried is interesting only in its approach to the new "evidence." Mr. Friendly's story carried a vivid description of Hiss's physical appearance. The dispatch alleges Hiss's claim to innocence is based on the "hypothesis that all are premised on consideration of Whittaker Chambers as a psychotic individual, theories largely developed by psychiatrists in the years since the trial."

This type evidence is not very plausible even outside a court of law. It is unlikely that Hiss's lectures in England on Yalta, the New Deal and the McCarthy era were plausible, either. When the evidence was all in against Hiss in a court of law in this country he was declared guilty of perjury in connection with statements he made about his communist activities. It is unlikely that the postmortem theories spun by psychiatrists will destroy the truth of the testimony of the late Mr. Chambers any more than did the attacks by the ultra-Left shake the truth of accusations by the late Sen. Joe McCarthy. He was in the vanguard of defenders of our country against communism. Efforts to destroy the integrity of McCarthy before and after his death have failed although his good name has been maligned probably more than that of any other man in our history. Those who adhere to the Left and who were welded to the cause of Hiss in the 1940's and 1950's will continue to probe for evidence showing that the exposure of the communist conspiracy was a witch hunt. But the true facts will remain unshaken.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Mass production is feasible when there is mass consumption by numerous persons with money to buy the product. The World Almanac says that Henry Ford perfected mass production methods by use of multiple assembly lines utilizing conveyor belts, allowing workers to remain stationary as they performed a single specialized operation until the vehicle was finished.

Inside Washington

India's Neutral, Peaceful Reputation in Question
By ROBERTS ALLEN

WASHINGTON—Whatever the military outcome of India's piously calculated aggression against Pakistan, India already has suffered one crushing defeat.

Its deliberately provocative attacks on its smaller and weaker neighbor have resoundingly debunked for all time two great myths India has sedulously propagandized for years:

—That it is a loftily peace-loving and nonmilitary nation that meticulously does not meddle in the affairs of other countries, and sternly disapproves of others doing so.

—That it is firmly "neutralist" and "uncommitted," and righteously not beholden to either the East or West.

To informed authorities, these two sanctimonious claims have long had a hollow ring. Realistically, they have had no illusions about India and its self-righteous pretensions. Its crass falsity has been too glaring to knowledgeable insiders.

Time and again, India has proved herself a liar, hypocrite and a fraud.

Example: a few years ago when millions of Indians faced outright famine and the U.S. gave and sold (for Indian currency that has remained in that country) immense quantities of grain and other products, Delhi pulled a typically deceitful act.

On one hand, it stentoriously sided with the Arabs and with equal fervor championed the Vietcong, on the other, India excoriated the U.S. for supporting Israel and intervening in Vietnam against the Communist aggressors.

Example: While incessantly proclaiming its alleged "neutralism," India irately threatened to crack down on its small neighbor Nepal when that isolated Himalayan country proposed to modernize its currency. For years, Indian currency was Nepal's legal tender. As a modernization move, King Mahendra instituted a native currency — to India's vehement indignation.

In retaliation, it threatened to stop the U.S. from using its hundreds of millions in counterpart funds in India (accumulated from sales of food to avert famine) as economic aid to Nepal. That amounts to only a few million dollars a year, but India proposed to block it and was deterred only by strenuous Washington protests.

Double-Dealing

Example: In the past 20 years, India has received more economic aid from the U.S. than any other country in the world — and shown the least appreciation. In fact, about all the U.S. has gotten in return for more than $7 billion poured into India is snooty disdain and censorious reproof — and often outright animosity and hostility.

At the same time, while self-righteously proclaiming its "neutralism," India has been armed to the teeth by Russia. Hundreds of millions in late-model Soviet planes, guns, and other military hardware have gone to India in recent years. Thousands of Indian pilots and other combat personnel have been trained in Russia.

As a consequence, India today is militarily as much a Kremlin satellite as Cuba, Egypt and the other Arab countries.

But it is the U.S. that has poured billions of economic aid into India, much of it in the form of grain and other food.

Clearly, in India, playing both sides to the middle — billions in economic aid from the U.S. and billions in armaments from Russia — is unctuously designated "neutralism."

This double-dealing drew scathing fire from Sen. Vance Hartke, D-Ind., ranking member of the Finance Committee, when he learned Delhi was covertly sounding out members of Congress and others on taking expenses-paid trips to view the "heart-rending" camps of East Bengal refugees. Purpose of these junkets was to promote hostile propaganda against Pakistan, and indirectly, the U.S. for shipping arms there.

In this calculated backstage lobbying, Indian diplomats carefully did not mention, of course, that their country, while piously professing to be "neutralist," gets virtually all its weapons from Russia. Said Hartke indignantly:

"We have spent billions to keep India's masses from starving, and the Soviet has spent huge sums to arm them. If that isn't breeding war, I don't know what is. If the Kremlin can arm India, then I say it can also feed India. It's time our country took a realistic look at such glaring and expensive inconsistencies and act accordingly."

In the long-pending highly controversial multi-billion dollar foreign aid authorization bill, India is earmarked to get $184,530,000 in economic assistance in the current fiscal year.

That is one of a number of similar reasons so much opposition now prevails in Congress against continuing large-scale foreign giveaways — in the guise of economic aid.

Another Chinese Visitor

Cuban dictator Fidel Castro dropped an intriguing hint during his three-week sojourn in Chile — he wants to visit Peking!

Carefully, he didn't say outright he is actually going there. But he left no doubt he is very eager to — and will if he can possibly arrange it.

Top Class-A Teams Battle For Title

By STEVE BOHLANDER
Sports Editor

Preparation for a semi-final game in State playoffs can be a lot of work. Finding a place to practice in bad weather conditions can be harder, but thanks to the Pampa Athletic Department at Pampa High School the White Deer Bucks have a place that is warm and dry to prepare for a 2 p.m. Saturday clash with Sonora at Stamford to decide the semi-final champion in class A schools.

The Bucks advanced to the semi-final rounds after handing Albany an 18 to 0 defeat last Saturday in Vernon.

A cold front invading the Texas Panhandle dumped 9" of snow on Pampa and the surrounding area and caused difficulty for area football teams and fans.

Hereford played a regional tilt last Saturday in Dick Bivens Stadium at Amarillo under icy conditions only to be downed by tough Wichita Falls.

The Bucks were luckier as the field at Vernon was snow free and the only hampering factor in their quarterfinal clash was cool temperatures. The Bucks are healthy going into the game with only minor slowing injuries plaguing the team. Hoskins, the blue-chip quarterback for the Bucks has been suffering from a thumb injury but the pain hasn't seemed to hurt his passing game.

The Bucks were favored with a number three pick in state early in the season and have advanced to the number two slot immediately behind Sonora.

Sonora barely slipped by Crowley in their quarterfinal match, 19 to 12, last week-end. The Bucks are rough and ready and by local standards picked for the number one slot in state.

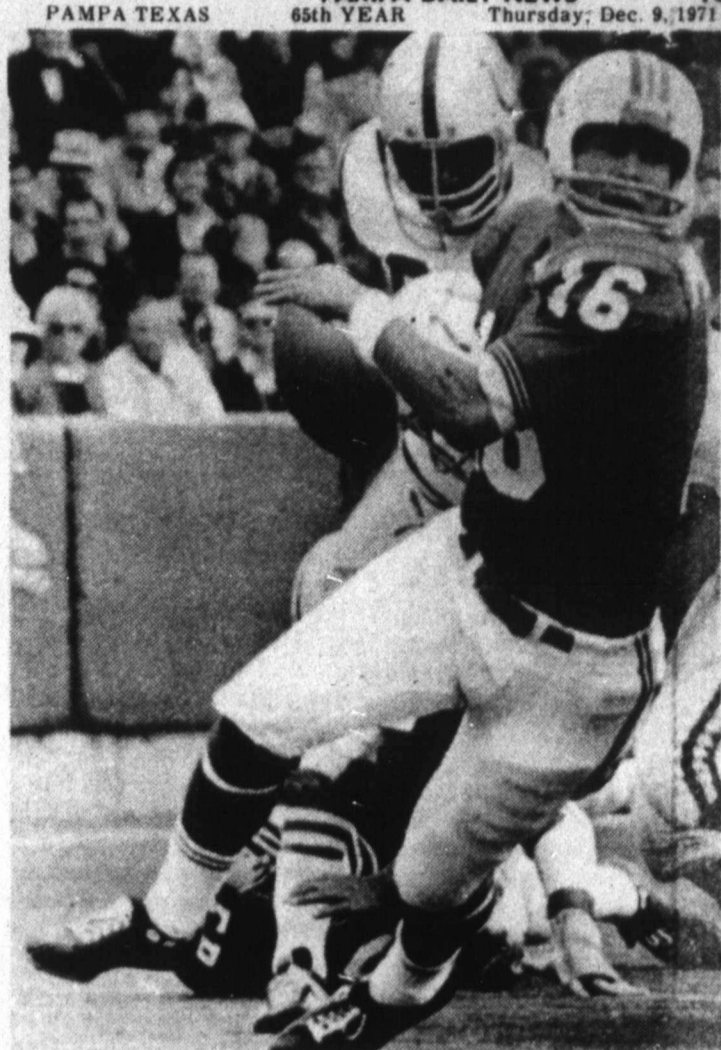

Kim Slagle, a tough running back for the Bucks, has size and speed to his advantage.

He was the big factor in the Bucks' downing Albany.

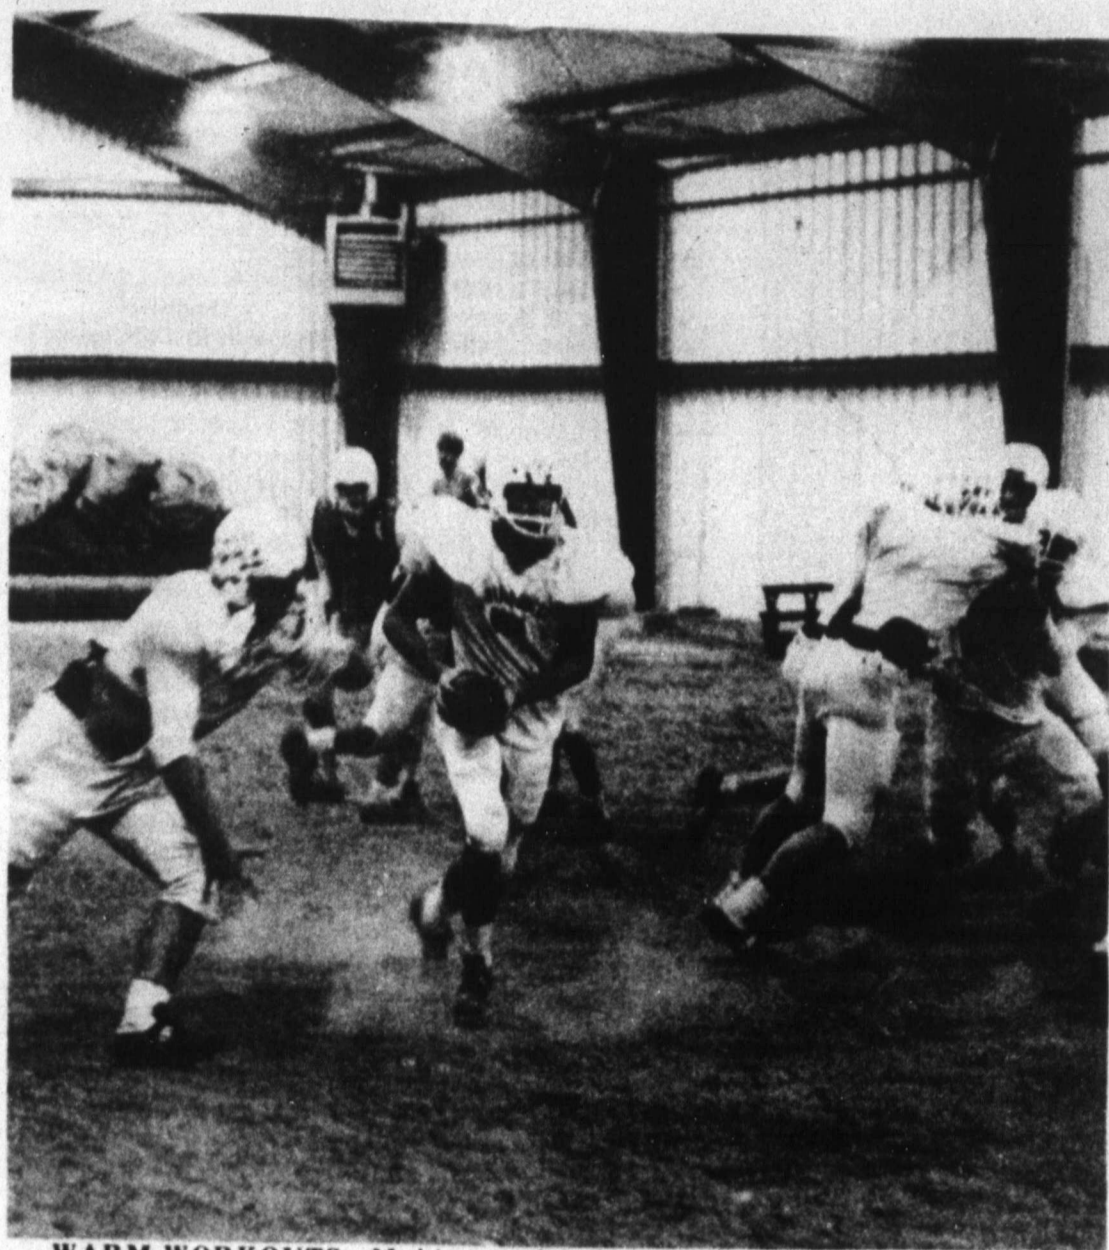

Coach Hill was optimistic earlier in the season after smashing Canadian in class 1-A competition and stated, "I was worried about that game more than any. Up to that point we had never been really tested and the big margin of victory confirmed my thoughts about the state title."

New Deal almost slipped a cog in the White Deer machinery by jumping to an early 18 point lead in the Bi-District tilt. The Bucks did manage to start the ball rolling and proceeded to slaughter the upstarts 38 to 18.

The Bucks will square off against Sonora Saturday at 2 p.m. in Stamford. The News wishes coach J. T. Hill and the Fighting White Deer Bucks the best of luck on their road to the state title.

JIM PLUNKETT of the New England Patriots, last year's Heisman Trophy award winner, is leading American Football Conference rookies after the first tally of fans' votes in the NFL Rookies of the Year poll sponsored by Wheaties and Newspaper Enterprise Association. John Brockington of Green Bay is pacing the National Conference voting. Fans may obtain ballots from specially marked Wheaties cereal boxes or by writing Wheaties-NFL Rookies of the Year, Dept. 480, 400 Second Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minn. 55440. Ballots must be postmarked no later than Dec. 24.

Gary Wichard Picked For AP All-American

NEW YORK (AP) — Strongarmed quarterback Gary Wichard, a millionaire's son from C.W. Post College on Long Island, was named to The Associated Press Little All-America football team today along with super running backs Terry Metcalf of Long Beach State, Bruce Laird of American International and Garry Kahoe of Delaware's national small college champions.

Wichard, who probably will be one of the top quarterbacks picked in the National Football League draft next Feb. 1, completed 145 of 271 passes for 2,287 yards and 23 touchdowns and scored six times himself. He was intercepted only nine times.

Metcalf set an NCAA College Division record by scoring 29 touchdowns and his 1,673 rushing yards broke the Long Beach mark set in 1969 by two-time Little All-American Leon Burns, now with the San Diego Chargers.

He also punted for a 37-yard average, caught 15 passes for 130 yards and returned 13 kickoffs for more than 21 yards per return.

AIC's Laird, who played both ways in the past, stuck to offense this season and set a New England record of 1,402 yards. Kahoe was the No. 1 groundgainer on the top small college rushing team. Delaware averaged 371.2 yards per game, with Kahoe accounting for 121.6. He also scored 23 touchdowns.

Two members of the Little All-America backfield—Wichard and Kahoe—will face each other on Saturday in the Boardwalk Bowl at Atlantic City, N.J.

Arkansas State, Grambling, Tampa and Texas A&I played two men apiece on the select team, which consists of 18 seniors and four juniors.

The rest of the offense shows ends Jerome Barkum of Jackson State and Eldridge Small of Texas A&I, tackles Lionel Antoine of Southern Illinois and Ron Mikolajczyk of Tampa, guards Wayne Dorton of Arkansas State and Solomon Freeman of Grambling and center John Hill of Leigh.

On defense are ends Kelvin Korver of Northwestern of Iowa and Grambling's John Mendenhall, tackles Larry Brooks of Virginia State and Steve Williams of Western Carolina, guard Sammy Tampa, linebackers Harry Gooden of Alcorn A&M, Jim LeClair of North Dakota and Jimmy Youngblood of Tennessee Tech and backs Cliff Brooks of Tennessee State, Levi Johnson of Texas A&I and Dennis Meyer of Arkansas State.

Landry Believes Upsets Are Good

By DENNE H. FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry believes the stunning upsets rocking professional football can be attributed to the balance of talent and the era in which we live.

"Everybody will lose games from time to time because the talent is spread pretty thin," Landry says.

He adds "Sometimes the best team won't even be in the Super Bowl because you've got to have a lot of luck nowadays besides having a good team."

But he suggests there might be a more deeper meaning from the roller-coaster rides of near perfection to dismal failure from week to week.

"We're in an era where the top teams are getting beat because it's hard to sustain your momentum from week to week," Landry says. "I'm not sure what it is."

"Perhaps, it is the approach to things of our young people. They don't have as much a driving force as they used to. There's a lot of complacency on the athletic field like everywhere else. We are in an affluent age where everything comes easy. There's a tendency not to work hard. In athletics, you must work hard or you'll get your head knocked off."

Landry is particularly concerned that some form of overconfidence might overcome his streaking Cowboys, who are one game away from clinching a spot in the National Football League playoffs for the sixth consecutive year.

Dallas has won five consecutive games in posting a 9-3 record. If the Cowboys defeat the Giants in New York Sunday they clinch a wild card berth. If Dallas wins and Washington loses to Los Angeles Monday night, the Cowboys get the National Conference Eastern Division title.

"Overconfidence is always a problem," Landry says.

"We couldn't be in better shape when you consider we were 4-3 at one time," Landry says. "All we need now is one game."

One-Time Tough Kid To Be Honored Sunday

Nitschke GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The one-time tough street kid from Maywood, Ill., will almost, but not quite, be at peace with his violent world Sunday.

It will be "Ray Nitschke Day" at Lambeau Field, where 56,263 fans for the moment will forget the travails of the Green Bay Packers to honor one of their most popular players.

Horn-rimmed, baldish, almost professorial in business suit, Nitschke's granite visage in uniform reflects the leather burns of uncounted muggings of National Football League ball carriers for 14 years.

Sunday will bring a millennium of sorts—a college scholarship fund in his name.

The funds will come from proceeds of statewide sales of "We Love Ray" buttons and bumper stickers. Nitschke is extremely proud to be associated with such a cause. Yet the honors will be but a momentary balm for a season Nitschke has endured in silent anxiety.

"The Packers' 3-7-2 record assures them last place in the National Conference's Central Division. Nitschke, who lost his middle linebacker job to Jim Carter this year, remembers six divisional and five NFL titles. He thinks he should have played more this year.

"Sunday will be a high point of my career in that somewhere an individual will benefit from a scholarship, like I did when I couldn't afford the luxury of going to college," Nitschke said.

"This has been my longest year," he said.

Durr Clashes With Official During Match

AUCKLAND, New Zealand (AP) — Francoise Durr of France had an emotional clash with umpire Sue Burcher today in the Benson and Hedges women's singles tennis quarter-finals.

Miss Burcher called a ball from Miss Durr out in the 10th game of the first set, giving an advantage to her opponent, the unranked Valerie Ziegenfuss of San Diego.

Miss Durr tossed her head, appealed to the spectators and officials and then threw her racket on the ground.

She then appealed to her opponent who nodded and said, "It was in."

Tournament referee Ces Ward entered the court and spoke to Miss Burcher and Miss Durr.

Miss Burcher refused to alter her decision. Miss Durr, obviously upset, lost the service to give her opponent the set 6-4. Set and match went to miss Ziegenfuss.

Miss Durr later said, "Don't ask me to say anything or I may say many rude things." Miss Burcher followed the players off and burst into tears.

Montreal defenseman J.C. Tremblay and Pierre Bouchard played their own game of Can You Top This Wednesday night with Tremblay and the Canadiens coming out on top.

Tremblay fired his first two goals of the National Hockey League season and Bouchard notched his first big league goal ever helping Montreal to a 4-2 decision over Detroit that left the Canadiens a slim one point behind New York in the NHL's East Division.

The Rangers bounced from behind to tie Chicago 2-2 as the Black Hawks stretched their home ice unbeaten streak to 12 games and sliced Minnesota's West Division lead to two points. Toronto topped the North Stars 3-1. In other games, Pittsburgh tied California 1-1 and Boston turned back Los Angeles 5-3.

"I hadn't been too worried about scoring," said Tremblay, "but I'm glad I finally got those goals. Now I'm going to enjoy the steak that Pierre Bouchard is treating the team to after getting his first NHL goal."

Tremblay's first goal started Montreal's scoring and then Bouchard, son of former Montreal defenseman Butch Bouchard, scored his first NHL goal.

"The puck came to me off the boards," said young Bouchard. "I had plenty of time to take the shot and though I backhanded it, I had quite a lot behind it."

That made it Tremblay's turn again after the Red Wings had bounced back to tie the score on quick goals by Red Berenson and Doug Volmar. J.C. connected again for the deciding goal and then Pete Mahovich added an insurance tally with less than six minutes remaining.

The Rangers tied Chicago on Vic Hadfield's 20th goal of the season just over one minute after Pit Martin had given the Black Hawks the lead.

New York's Rod Gilbert and Bobby Hull of Chicago had swapped goals in the first two periods. The tie left Chicago with 22 of a possible 24 points at home this season.

Minnesota bowed to Toronto with Darryl Sittler, Norm Ulman and Jim Harrison scoring the Leaf goals and Bill Goldsworthy accounting for the North Stars' only tally.

Sittler connected in the first period and Ulman in the second. Then Goldsworthy sliced the Leaf lead in half midway through the third before Harrison scored Toronto's wrapup goal.

Pittsburgh moved past idle St. Louis into third place in the West by tying California. Bobby Leiter's goal late in the second period earned the deadlock for the Penguins. Dick Redmond hit for the Seals.

The Bruins rallied with three goals in the final three minutes of play to remain unbeaten in their last 11 outings while the Kings lost their sixth in a row.

Wayne Cashman snapped a 22 tie with his eighth tally of the season followed by goals by Dallas Smith and Fred Stanfield.

U.S. Auto Club Director Dies

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Everett R. Schlegel, 56, Plainfield, Ind., a member of the technical committee of the U.S. Auto Club, died Wednesday at Methodist Hospital here.

He had participated in USAC activities for the last 15 years at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.

Schlegel also was an employee of Eli Lilly and Co. and a member of the Indiana Midget Racing Association.

"I don't think the switch to forward will make it any more difficult for me to repeat as the scoring champion if that were the objective," said Kentucky's Dan Issel.

"I'll be getting easier, wide open shots coming off Artis Gilmore's picks," he added. "But the objective is to go one game farther than last year and maybe it would be a good situation if I didn't score as much. It would mean more balanced scoring."

Issel, the leading scorer in his first ABA season last year with a 29.9 average, is scoring even more prolifically this season—and the Colonels, who missed by one game winning the league championship during the 1970-71 campaign, now have the best record in the circuit.

With Issel connecting for 41 points, about eight above his average, and Gilmore, the 7-foot-2 rookie adding 34, the Colonels beat the Carolina Cougars 121-111 Wednesday night, raising their record to 18-7, tops in the Eastern Division.

Utah, the defending league champion and currently in first place in the Western Division, posted its 20th victory in 28 games, a 116-97 decision over Dallas, and Memphis trimmed Denver 109-91 in other ABA games Wednesday night.

Issel, the runner-up in scoring to Virginia's Charlie Scott, scored 27 points in the 150 half against Carolina as Gilmore matched that figure in the second half. George Lehmann was high for the Cougars with 26 points.

Utah's Zelmo Beaty also had a big second half, collecting 20 of his 25 points as the Stars broke a 77-77 third-quarter tie against Dallas by outscoring the Chaparrals 39-20 in the final period. Steve Jones topped Dallas with 25 points.

Memphis built a 22-point lead over Denver in the third period, then had the margin cut to five in the fourth quarter, before pulling away in the final five minutes. Rookie Johnny Neumann led Memphis' balanced offense with 18 points, one more than Wendell Ladner. Denver's Ralph Simpson scored 24 points.

Los Angeles Lakers Gunning For The Best

HOUSTON (AP)—The Los Angeles Lakers are just two victories away from the National Basketball Association's longest winning streak but the latest triumph didn't come easy.

The Lakers won their 18th straight game Wednesday night with a 125-120 victory over the pesky Houston Rockets.

Gail Goodrich scored 42 points and Jerry West added 33 for the Lakers as they moved within two games of the 20 straight mark set last year by the Milwaukee Bucks. Thirteen of West's points came in the final quarter.

Goodrich's deadly left-handed jumpers helped the Lakers to a 10 point first quarter lead but then the Rockets, playing before 9,346 Astrodome fans, the largest home crowd of the season, matched their opponents point for point in the second quarter and outscored them by five in the second half. It was Houston's best offensive output of the season but it wasn't enough.

Goodrich is a fabulous player," said Houston Coach Tex Winter. "Our guards had their hands in his face all night but he was still hitting."

This is by far the toughest game of our string," Lakers Coach Bill Sharman said. "The Rockets are 100 per cent improved over our last meeting. They seem to be adapting to Tex Winter's offense. Houston is a young team and that's what cost them in the end."

Sharman said West "as usual, was just great in the clutch."

Relying on Elvin Hayes shooting and rebounding, the Rockets placed the Lakers' streak in jeopardy in the final quarter when they determinedly hustled their way to three leads.

After Houston's Calvin Martin pushed the Rockets into a 111-110 lead, West clamped the lid down for good with a 25 footer with 4:58 remaining. From this point on it was mostly Houston fouls and Los Angeles free throws.

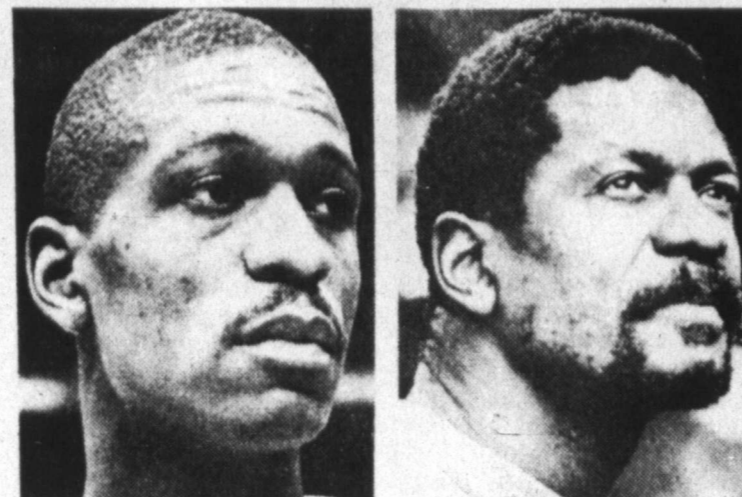

Hayes scored 31 points for Houston and John Egan added 17.

The Rockets had a season high of 51 field goals, eight more than the Lakers managed but Sharman's men shot a whooping 51 free throws, making 39 of them.

The Lakers now are 24-3 for the season while Houston was dropping its fourth straight and 22 in 28 games.

Winter had a hole in the seat of his trousers at the end of the game. He said he ripped it during the rally that saw Egan and John Vallely join Hayes in sparking the Rockets from a nine point deficit late in the third period to their brief leads.

"I couldn't be prouder of our team," Winter said. "Even if we had won. We came down the stretch and missed four or five games. We did almost win the game and I am extremely proud."

THE BILL RUSSELL who came to the Boston Celtics as a callow rookie midway through the 1956-57 season, above left, and created an NBA dynasty, has turned into a sort of athletic elder statesman, above right. Before he retired two years ago, Russell, the familiar No. 6 at right in a 1966 game, led the Celtics to 10 NBA titles in 12 seasons as a player and player-coach and was recently honored by his alma mater, San Francisco U., when it dedicated the Bill Russell Room he is touring below. Russell is now a television sportscaster.

Cavaliers Bigger Than Life Against Maryland

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Yes, Maryland, there is a Virginia.

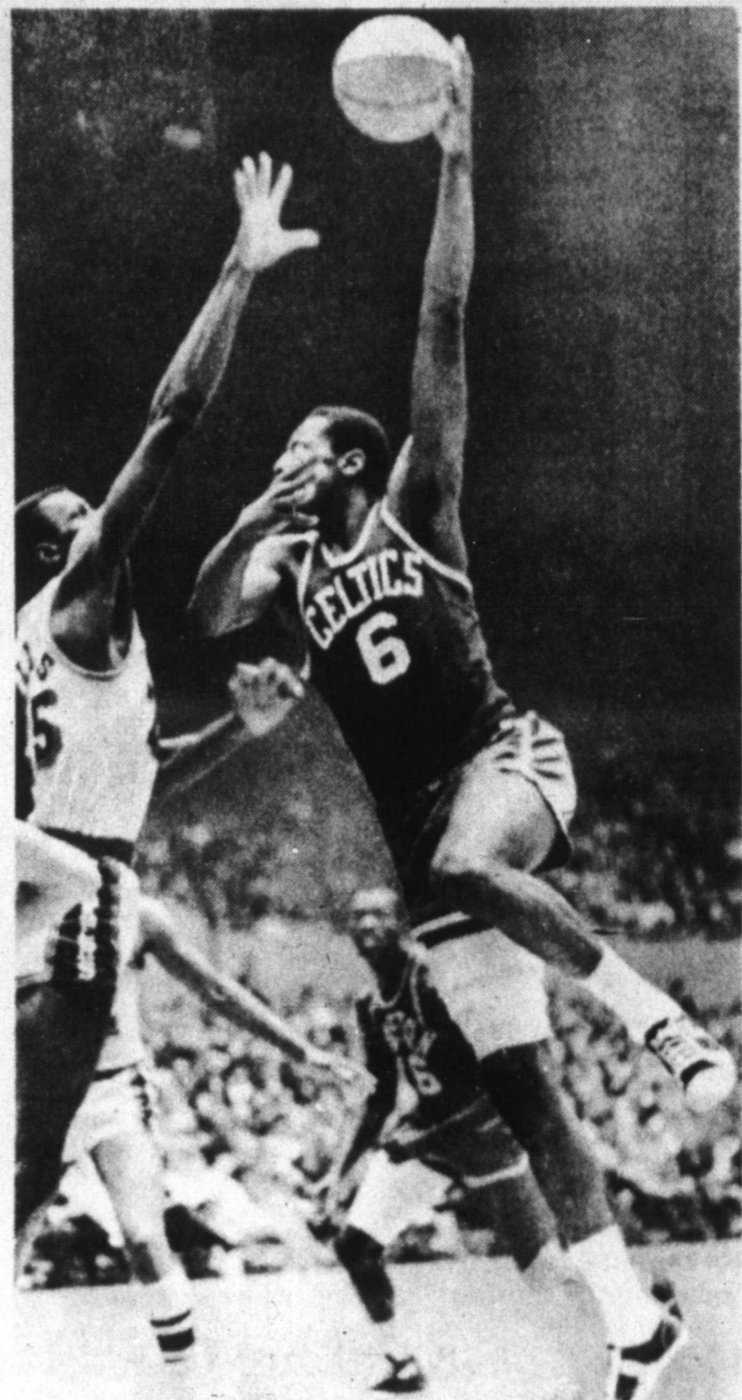

The Virginia Cavaliers were bigger than life Wednesday night, burying the fifth-ranked Maryland Terrapins 78-57 in college basketball.

Leaving no doubt as to their authenticity, the Cavaliers clouted the highly-touted Terps with a 67 per cent shooting percentage that built a 13-point halftime lead.

The bruising battle of Atlantic Coast Conference clubs highlighted a busy night of basketball, although only one other ranked team was in action.

Louisville, the nation's No. 16 team, ripped Dayton 88-60 behind guard Jim Price and forward Ron Thomas.

Kansas, led by Bud Stallworth's 34 points, pounded Notre Dame 88-

NBA Roundup

As we win more games, we become more confident, we work harder and hopefully play better," said Los Angeles Coach Bill Sharman.

Winning also takes pressure off the team because our position in the standings is secure.

If Sharman's philosophy is correct, the Lakers have to be supremely confident and extremely relaxed—and apparently they are.

The rampaging Lakers tied the second longest winning streak in National Basketball Association history, holding off the surprisingly stubborn Houston Rockets 125-120 Wednesday night for their 18th consecutive victory.

The triumph enabled Los Angeles to equal the 18 game winning streak compiled by the New York Knicks two seasons ago and put the Lakers within two of the NBA record of 20 set last season by Milwaukee.

The Lakers can move within one victory of tying the Bucks' mark by beating Golden State tonight at Oakland. The Warriors were the last team to beat Los Angeles, edging the Lakers 109-105 on Oct. 31.

Elsewhere in the NBA Wednesday, Boston whipped Cleveland 126-107, Philadelphia downed Cincinnati 115-109, and Baltimore walloped Portland 115-97.

The Rockets, whose 6-22 record is the second worst in the NBA, gave Los Angeles

Critical Games On Tap For NFL

NEW YORK (AP)—When the Miami Dolphins meet the Baltimore Colts and the Detroit Lions face the Minnesota Vikings in Saturday's critical National Football League games, it will be the old case of the irresistible force against the immovable object.

The Dolphins, leading the American Football Conference's Eastern Division by a half-game over the Colts with two games left, lead the AFC in rushing with 2,178 yards—nearly 300 more yards than runnerup Oakland—according to official statistics released today.

The Colts, meanwhile, have yielded only 926 yards on the ground, the lowest total in the AFC, the fewest yards passing, 1,445, the fewest total yards, 2,371—more than 600 fewer than second-place Denver—and the fewest points, 116.

On the other hand, Detroit, 1 1/2 games behind Minnesota in the National Football Conference's Central Division, has the conference's

Finley Battling Against Oakland

CHICAGO (AP)—Some major league baseball executives are maneuvering to help Charles O. Finley break his long term lease on Oakland Coliseum and move his baseball and hockey teams to Washington D.C., the Chicago Sun-Times says.

The newspaper on Wednesday quoted a "highly placed National League executive" as saying that the league is anxious to relocate Oakland because "it is obvious that the Bay area can't support two major league baseball teams."

The San Francisco Examiner, meanwhile, quotes Finley as saying "I don't want to say anything about it. I don't want to get into hot water here with the people of Oakland."

Robert T. Nahas, president of the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum Complex Board, said that Finley has a "firm" contract to keep his

Services Slated For Racing Giant

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Funeral services will be held Friday at St. Thomas Church in Whitemarsh, Pa., for George D. Widener Jr., one of the giants of thoroughbred horse racing.

Widener, 82, died Wednesday at his suburban Erdenheim Farm after a long illness.

"George D. Widener's name in racing stood for quality, sportsmanship and lifelong dedication to the sport he loved," said Frank M. Basil, president of the New York Racing Association.

Widener entered racing in 1913 and became one of the sport's most respected breeders, track owners and officials. He was honorary chairman of both the New York Racing Association and the Jockey Club, chairman of the National Museum at Saratoga Springs, N.Y., and chairman of the Philadelphia Museum.

Last August, he was the first recipient of the citation "exemplar of Racing," representing the highest values in the sport.

During his many years in racing, Widener bred more than 100 stakes winners.

Fledgling WHA Storm Coming

The fledgling World Hockey Association is stirring up a storm as it proceeds with plans to operate a 12-team league next season.

There was a report Wednesday that WHA officials had approached four members of the Minnesota North Stars of the National Hockey League about the possibility of moving to the new league's St. Paul club next year. The four were Bill Goldsworthy, Jude Drouin, Cesare Maninago and Barry Gibbs.

"It doesn't cost a dime to listen," Goldsworthy, one of Minnesota's top scorers, reportedly said. "If the money is right, and if I could get a three-of-four-year contract with the money in escrow, why not?"

Drouin was quoted as saying, "If that's where the money is, I'll go."

The president of the St. Paul franchise of the WHA said his club has not contacted North Star players.

"I think a lot of National Hockey League players are going to claim they've been approached," Jim Adams said. "Just to help their own bargaining power with their clubs. If we've talked to four North Stars, it's news to me."

Meanwhile, a reported $1 million WHA offer to Chicago superstar Bobby Hull was being denied.

"Somebody has been having pipe dreams," said Hull commenting on the alleged offer. "I don't know anything about it and I've never been approached."

Ben Hatskin, owner of the WHA's Winnipeg franchise, who had reportedly made the fat offer to Hull, explained what had happened.

"What I said," said Hatskin, "was that I would give a million dollars to have Hull, but I have not made any direct offer to him or talked to him about any deal."

Hatskin also denied that the WHA had held a secret draft with each club selecting four NHL players.

"What we all did was make a list of players we would like to have, but it wasn't a draft or anything like it. And I won't tell you if Hull was on my list. That stuff isn't for publication."

Another rumored WHA offer, this one to Boston's Derek Sanderson, was also denied Wednesday. Bob Woolf, Sanderson's attorney who also represents many other NHL players, explained the background of the story.

"A man from the WHA, Herb Martin of Miami, phoned me the other day to talk about Derek and mentioned that figure ($250,000)," Woolf said.

THE OAKLAND RAIDERS, decimated by injuries, have nevertheless been able to keep up with pro football's top teams by reaching into a talent pool that has provided a series of more than capable replacements, including, from left, defensive end Harold Rice (from taxi squad), defensive tackle Art Thoms (from taxi squad), running back Don Highsmith (from bench) and receiver Drew Bule (from bench).
