One Dead, Four Injured In Wrecks

Swisher Cafe Man Victim Of Tragedy

(Special To The Avalanche)

TULIA, Nov. 3.—Two men died in the twisted wreckage of their borrowed Piper Cub airplane when it crashed into a field one and one-half miles south of here at 3:20 p. m. today.

The dead were identified as D. Addington, 42, operator of Chris' cafe in Tulia, and Edward D. Bader, 35, steel construction worker from El Dorado, Ark.

Dick Bills, operator of a Tulia service station, said the light plane was owned by his brother, Bob Bills, a student at the University of Texas.

Was Working in Area

He said Bader, reportedly a licensed pilot, had been flying the plane since he came here on June 15 with the Texarkana Steel Building company to erect quonset huts in the area for Hansen & Kr g Construction company of Tulia. Addington was not a pilot.

Bills said he talked with Tabor Alford, on whose farm the plane crashed. Alford said he saw the plane circling for five or 10 minutes, and then pulled up after flying low. He said the plane went into a spin and then pulled out just before nosing over and hitting the ground.

Joe W. Vaughn, working in a field one mile north of Tulia, said he saw the plane take off from Kirk Hulsey's private landing strip about 3 p. m.

Safety Belt Snapped

Both men apparently were killed outright. Both their safety belts had been snapped by the impact of the crash. The nose of the plane was buried in the ground and the engine had been driven back to the cockpit.

Sheriff Hugh White, of Swisher county, reported the plane apparently was trying to land, hit deep furrows in the field, catapulted into the air and then flopped to the ground. It did not burn. White said the plane was demolished.

It was reported that the two men were flying to view some quonset huts under construction in the area.

Funeral Arrangements Incomplete

Bodies of both men were taken to the Wallace Funeral home in Tulia. Funeral arrangements still were incomplete late tonight.

Investigating officers said Addington, a resident of Tulia for the past five years since his discharge from military service, was survived by his wife. Bader is survived by his wife and two daughters. Their names were not available late tonight.

The crash was the third in the Amarillo-Lubbock area since Oct. 26 when Leland Jones, II, 22, college student from Amarillo crashed to his death in Palo Duro canyon south of Amerillo while piloting an Aeronca.

A Lubbock man, Vol R. Harris, 28, 2101 Thirtieth street, narrowly escaped death on Sunday when

Ten Are Believed Killed In Crash

HAMILTON, Bermuda, Nov. 3 (AP) — A B-29 superfortress crashed and burned in the sea tonight a mile from shore and 10 of the 13 men aboard were reported killed.

Four survivors managed to escape the flames and were rescued by boat, but one of them died of his burns. Eyewitnesses ashore said they could hear the screams of the others who were trapped in the flaming sky giant.

The plane was attached to the 373rd Weather Reconnaissance at Kindley field, about 10 miles from Hamilton.

On Test Flight

It was on a test flight prior to taking off on a regular weather reconnaissance mission tomorrow. Apparently one engine failed and the four-engined craft crashed into the sea.

Eyewitnesses said the plane hit the water with a terrific force, bounced over the water like a skimming stone, then settled slowly a mile from the north shore of Bermuda.

Gasoline escaping from the plane caught fire.

Witnesses to the crash said William Gleason, manager of the Esso Standard oil docks, set out in a row boat and was able to rescue four survivors, but one died later of burns.

A member of the Bermuda Biological station and one other person who was swimming in the area went to the plane to give what aid they could.

SEVERAL FEARED DEAD IN COLLISION OF RAF PLANES

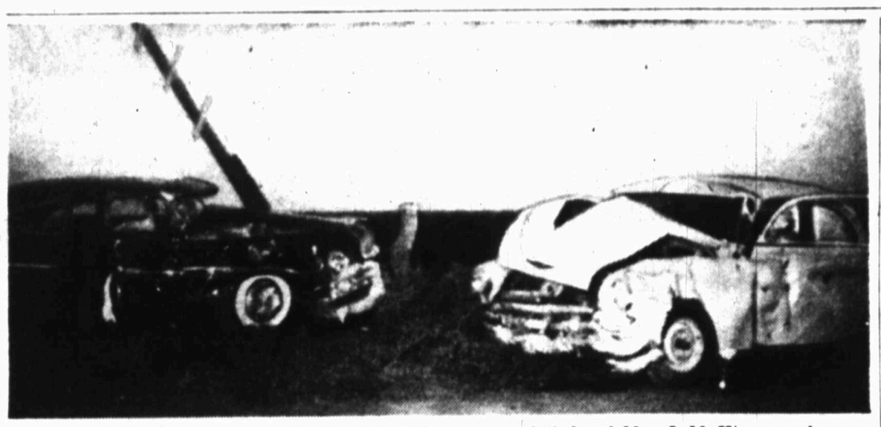

LONDON, Nov. 3 (AP) — The air ministry announced that two Royal Air Force planes collided off the south coast of England tonight and plunged into the ocean. At least one fell in flames.

They were a four-engine Lancaster bomber and a two-engine Mosquito fighter. The ministry said it did not know how many were aboard, but the Lancaster normally carries a crew of seven

Lewis Renews 'Peace' Drive

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 — John L. Lewis hammered away today trying to crack off a segment of the coal industry—Indiana's operators—for a separate strike peace. Apparently he was getting nowhere.

Lewis appealed to Gov. Henry Schricker of Indiana to renew his effort to arrange negotiations. Schricker replied it "probably would be useless" to try again. Indiana coal men declined yesterday the governor's bid to meet with Lewis' mine workers union.

Other producers viewed the Lewis move as a divide-and-conquer strategy advanced in hopes of getting an agreement that could be pressed on operator groups in other sections of the country.

Lewis Continues Mum

Lewis continued mum on his exact demands, but has come out for unspecified pay, hours, and welfare plan improvements.

There seemed little promise of an early end of the 46-day coal strike but prospects were brighter in the 34-day steel strike.

In steel, Philip Murray, head of the CIO and its striking steelworkers union, was still trying to press his settlement terms with the Bethlehem Steel Corp., the nation's No. 2 producer, on the rest of the steel industry.

Murray's union leaders were negotiating the Bethlehem plan with most of the other top steel firms, except the No. 1 U. S. Steel Corp., but nobody else had accepted it.

The Bethlehem settlement provides that the employer make up the difference between government social security benefits and a minimum $100 a month pension, and that employers and workers share costs of an insurance plan.

Cyrus S. Ching, Federal Mediation Service director, went to New York for a speech tonight. There were indications he wanted to

Tito To Get Aviation Gas, Lubricants

U.S. Okays Airplane Sales To Yugoslavia

BY JOHN HIGHTOWER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 — The United States today cleared the way for Yugoslavia to buy commercial aircraft—and it okayed sale of aviation gasoline to the rebel Communist nation.

It was one of the day's two steps toward strengthening the westren side of the cold war in Europe.

In the other move, the State department opened negotiations with eight Western European nations on agreements under which they will receive $1,000,000,000 worth of arms to build the defense of the North Atlantic area.

Amounts Not Disclosed

The gasoline sale to Yugoslavia carried with it lubricants. Amounts were not disclosed. Britain is reported going along on easing the ban on sale of commercial type planes and parts.

Parallel with these steps, French officials in Paris reported that Secretary of State Acheson will fly there next week for talks with British Foreign Minister Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman on current German problems. The State department withheld comment.

Paris also speculated that Acheson would inform Bevin and Schuman of his talk here next Monday with Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky. This implied that the Russian and American leaders are expected—at least by Paris diplomats—to talk about major East-West issues.

Claimed Coutesy Visit

In New York, however, Soviet sources at the United Nations said Vishinsky would merely call on Acheson to say "hello" incidental to his visit to Washington for a Soviet embassy celebration Monday of the anniversary of the Communist revolution in Russia.

State department officials, reaffirming their own earlier statements on the subject, asserted that the Acheson - Vishinsky meeting will be without real political importance as far as they know.

Regarding the development in American policy on Marshal Tito's conflict with the Kremlin, State department press officer Michael J McDermott said the United States will consider requests for the purchase of airplanes and parts but that no specific requests have been formally made by the

Chest Campaign Is Lagging Here

Lubbock's Community Chest drive, now more than two weeks old, is lagging miserably from the standpoint of workers making contacts, J. Ray Dickey, chairman, and Roy Riddel, co-chairman of the drive, said Thursday.

"If the workers would contact the people they were assigned in the drive, we would have already completed the campaign and reached our goal of $98,850," Dickey said.

But Thursday afternoon only $49,212.28 had been collected in the campaign.

"Contrary to rumors that you may be hearing, we are not failing," Dickey said in a letter to captains and lieutenants in the drive. "We have more than 50 percent of our goal with only 42 or 43 per cent of the reports turned in. We can still make it easily. All we need is for the captains and workers to make one final round.

"Reports have been audited from 430 out of a total of 1,040 businesses included in the "unit" account division and from 26 areas out of 55 in the men's sales division," Dickey's letter continued.

"Only one 'unit' team has reported complete. This team is the "cotton team, which is complete and set a pace for all other teams to shoot at in reporting a 248 per cent increase over 1948.

"Two of the 11 men's sales teams are reported complete with increases of 21 and 23 per cent respectively over the same areas last year. You can readily see that with only 41 per cent of our unit accounts and 47 per cent of the men's sales groups reported, our job is far from finished.

"Checks with the executives of the businesses not yet reported reveal that most of them have completed their reports and are ready for the worker to pick up the re-

City Commission To Discuss Bond Issue

Further discussion of a proposed city bond issue to finance a four-year improvement program is scheduled at a special meeting of the City commission in the City hall at 11 o'clock this morning.

City Manager Steve Matthews told the commission Tuesday that about $6 million will be needed if a large scale city limits extension program now under consideration is approved. He estimated needs inside the present city limits at about $3,200,000.

The program includes estimates of costs involved in expansion of the water, sewage and fire departments, new storm sewers, rights-of-way for completion of the city highway dispersal system, street paving and a new swimming pool tentatively proposed for location in the southern portion of the city.

Japanese Nuclear Physicist Is Named Winner Of Nobel Award

By AXEL WENNERLING
INS Staff Correspondent

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 3 — The 1949 Nobel prize for physics was awarded tonight to Dr. Hideki Yukawa — the first Japanese ever selected in the 49-year-history of the prizes — and the chemistry award went to Dr. William F. Giauque, of Berkley, Calif.

Each of the awards is worth $29,960.

For the eighth time, there was no award for literature this year because the Swedish academy could not make a choice among several candidates. These included Winston Churchill and leading Greek, Italian and Scandinavian writers.

The $30,000 literature prize will be added to the next award.

Dr. Yukawa, 42-year-old nuclear physicist who is now a visiting professor at Columbia university in New York City, first won worldwide acclaim in 1935 with announcement of his new theory on the meson.

He declared this hitherto unidentified particle was responsible for the special properties of the forces holding together the nucleus of the atom.

Navy 'Strategy Unit' Dropped By New Chief

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 — Admiral Forrest P. Sherman today wiped out "OP23" the reputed naval board of strategy in the admirals' bitter attack before Congress on Pentagon policies.

The crackdown came less than 24 hours after Sherman was sworn in as the new chief of naval operations.

"OP23" is naval parlance for "Operations Division 23."

Until today, it was a 30-man group unofficially described as having functioned in the role of a Navy "task force" to organize the Navy's case in the recent stormy hearings on inter-service squabbling before the House Armed Services committee.

Claimed Involved In Dispute

The group was said to have been instrumental in aiding the Navy's fight designed to bring about changes in high military strategy under the unified defense setup.

Among other tasks, the "OP23" section was reported to have helped prepare and distribute transcripts of testimony aired by a parade of top admirals during the congressional hearings, including blistering criticism of the Air Force's billion-dollar B-36 bomber program.

Pentagon informants said some days ago that the Navy inspector general, Rear Admiral Allen R. McCann, had seized the group's files and launched an investigation.

To Distribute Functions

Admiral Sherman's order today disbanded and discontinued the division, and an announcement said its functions will be distributed to other divisions in the office of chief of operations.

The statement said "OP23" was junked because "its principal functions have been completed."

"OP23" had been headed by Capt. A. A. Burke, one of the witnesses in the Capitol hearings. The unit's listed duties were so broad in scope that its members, 13 officers and 17 enlisted personnel, could go into almost any activity.

Still simmering hotly, the inter-

Charges Filed In Theft Of Truck

Willfam Terrell (Billy) Tate, 17, of 701½ Wabash, was arrested at Idalou Wednesday on a charge of felony theft in connection with the disappearance of a truck loaded with unginned cotton from the yard of the Lubbock Cotton gin Wednesday.

The youth, charged with theft of the truck at present, has posted bond of $1,500 set in the case by C. E. Lynn, justice of the peace. Owner of the vehicle was identified only as a Mr. Gomez by Assistant District Attorney A. W. Salyars.

Second Man Released

Officials said two men, with the truck and cotton, showed up Wednesday at a New Deal gin which allegedly gave one of the men a check for $240 as an advance on cotton picking costs. A second man picked up by officers in connection with the case was released after questioning, Salyars said.

The check was cashed Wednesday at a bank here, officials said.

Highway Patrolmen Jean Pate and Chris Haskins arrested the youth.

Several thefts were reported to law enforcement agencies Thursday.

A pistol was reported taken from Skains' Hardware company at 806 Main. It was described as

Germ Warfare Expert Reveals U. S. Possesses Super-Poison

(By International News Service)

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3 — A germ warfare expert disclosed today that the United States possesses the secret of a poison so potent that proper distribution of a single ounce could be the death of 200 million people.

Dr. H. Bentley Glass, associate professor of biology at Johns Hopkins university, told the Engineers club of Baltimore that the poison could never be distributed to obtain such maximum effectiveness, but he added:

'A pound or two in the water supply of any large city would certainly be a crippling blow."

Glass said that American bacteriologists, working at Camp Detrick, Md., during the war, isolated the poison in pure form.

He declared that Russia, Germany and Japan were all working on germ warfare at the same time, and that "it is to be assumed that Russia still is working on it as we

'REACTIONARY PROPAGANDA' HIT

Truman Appeals For Support Of 'Fair Deal' Candidates

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

ST. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 3—President Truman renewed his appeal to the people tonight for support of candidates favoring his "fair deal."

A throng in the civic auditorium cheered with campaign-like fervor his attack on the "propaganda of the reactionaries."

The President, talking the language of the campaigner of 1948, praised the Democratic 81st Congress for putting an end to what he termed "the calamity" of the Republican 80th and reversing the "backward trend."

Speech Climaxes Parade

The address, before a crowd estimated at 12,000, climaxed a whirlwind parade through the twin cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Police officials said upwards of 400,000 persons lined the route.

It was on the anniversary of the day he received notice in 1948 that he had been elected president.

Mr. Truman described his speech in advance as "of a bi-partisan nature which will be entirely satisfactory to the Democrats in Minnesota."

Guest Of Republican

That was at a banquet in which he sat at the speakers' table with Republican Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl, one of his hosts throughout the day and at tonight's major speech.

Mr. Truman predicted victory in 1950 for candidates for Congress holding views like his own.

He said he was certain the people will express themselves as they did in 1948, "and even more clearly in favor of progress and against reaction."

"I am not too much worried by those who oppose these policies," the President went on.

"Between the reactionaries of

Admitted Atheist 'Preaches' At Own Funeral In Denver

(By International News Service)

DENVER, Nov. 3.—Oscar O. Whitenack, 79-year-old Denverite, who termed himself an atheist, today has had his last earthly wish granted.

Whitenack, a former Denver newspaperman, had stipulated that a recording of his voice be played at his funeral. He had planned all the details of what he called a "rational funeral."

A small group attending the services at a Denver mortuary heard the recorded voice begin. "This is my funeral."

Recording Made Months Ago

Whitenack had made the recording some months before his death, and asked that it be played in place of a formal service.

The voice said:

"We are thousands of years behind in science and medicine because of the clergy and religion. I am an atheist and have been for many years."

The voice continued in the silent room:

"I have the utmost contempt for this theological nonsense. The Bible and religion have done nothing but spread ignorance and impede the prog-

Time For Absentee Balloting Ends Today, Official Warns

Today is the last day on which absentee balloting may be done on the constitutional amendments to be voted in statewide elections Tuesday, Louie Moore, county clerk, reminded Thursday.

Less than a dozen have taken out absentee ballots thus far, Moore declared, possibly indicating interest in the elections will be low. Anyone who will not be in their precinct Tuesday must take out their ballots today if they wish to cast a vote, he said.

Moore also announced that all ballots, ballot boxes and other election materials are now available in his office for presiding judges of the 33 county precincts to pick up. The 33 precincts are seven more than there were last year, he explained, since several of the larger ones were split into smaller units.

Warm Weather To Continue In Area

Lubbock and the South Plains had near perfect weather Thursday, and more of the same is in prospect today.

The mercury soared to a warm 80 degrees under a beaming fall sun, after dipping to a chilling 34 degrees early Thursday morning. Similar conditions are expected today with a low in the mid-thirties early today and a high in the 70s this afternoon. No great changes were forecast for the weekend.

A cold front which slipped off to the east was expected to bring frost to the northeast portion of the state today, the Associated Press said.

E. B. Tunnell Of Plainview Dies In Crash

(Special To The Avalanche)

HALE CENTER, Nov. 3 — A Plainview man was killed, apparently instantly, and three other persons were injured, one critically, in a two-car crash four miles west of Hale Center at 5 p. m. today, only six miles from the scene of a Sunday auto accident that claimed four lives and injured four.

The dead man is Ernest B. Tunnell, 47, a land appraiser for the Federal Land Bank.

Tunnell had been a resident of Plainview seven years. He was born in Whitney, and married Mazine Graddy in Memphis, Texas, in 1924. Today was their 25th wedding anniversary.

Woman's Condition Critical

In critical condition in Hale County Co-operative hospital in Hale Center, is Mrs. Belva Kingery, 56, who lives west of Plainview.

Her daughter, Mrs. W. M. Armstrong, 32, wife of the owner of the Shamrock cafe in Plainview, and Mrs. Armstrong's son, Gary Mack, 15-months-old, were treated for cuts and bruises and released. Two other sons, Johnny, 5, and Danny, 3, were uninjured.

(One other person was injured in an auto mishap near Southland, bringing the area traffic toll for the day to one killed and four injured. This brought the South Plains' death toll on highways and streets in 1949 to 61 dead and more than 550 injured, five of those killed in the past five days.)

On Cotton Center Road

The accident occurred on the Cotton Center road about four miles west of here, according to investigating highway patrolmen. They said a 1949 Lincoln club coupe being driven by Mrs. Armstrong, was struck in the right side by a 1949 Chevrolet coach being driven by Tunnell, evidently as Mrs. Armstrong started across the highway at an intersection.

The impact of the crash knocked both cars about 30 feet but neither overturned. The dead man was found underneath the bumper of his car. His head had been crushed. The other car smashed

Woman Loses Arm In Mishap

SLATON, Nov. 3. (Special)—Her left arm ripped off above the elbow, Fannie Bell Gordon, 43, negro resident of Post, appeared to be recovering in Mercy hospital here tonight after a car-truck collision about 8:30 p.m. on the Slaton-Post highway about five miles southeast of Southland.

The woman underwent surgery at Mercy hospital, and attendants said her condition appeared to be good. She apparently suffered no other injuries when her car reportedly collided with the side of an on-coming cattle truck.

Truck Driver Not Hurt

Driver of the loaded cattle truck was Erick Winston Ward, 25, of Aspermont. He was not injured. The truck, a 1948 Chevrolet semi-trailer, was owned by J. M. Hickman, jr., also of Aspermont. Damage to the truck was slight.

Texas Highway patrolmen said the negro woman was driving toward Post in a 1940 Ford coach, while the truck was coming toward Lubbock. The car rolled over and was described as a total loss.

The Williams Funeral home in Slaton, which brought the woman here by ambulance, credited a passing motorist, Bill Carter of Post, with saving her life by applying a tourniquet to the stump

An Explanation Of Those 10 Amendments

By H. I. KIEFER
Avalanche Staff Writer

THIS is the last of four articles presenting thumbnail explanations of and chief arguments for and against the 10 constitutional amendments upon which Texans are to vote next Tuesday.

No. 9

An amendment authorizing trials without a jury of lunacy cases.

UNDER the present law, no person in Texas legally can be declared insane without a trial before a jury. Under the amendment, the jury could be waived and the trial conducted solely before the judge. However, the person on trial could obtain a jury trial by demanding it.

The principal argument for this amendment is that non-jury trials might save the person on trial and the members of his, or her, family much embarrassment. It is argued further that the privilege of a person to obtain a jury by demanding it would be a safeguard against injustice.

The big argument against the proposal is this:

The amendment would simplify the "railroading" of unwanted persons into insane asylums.

There Is Some "Railroading"

While no one suspects that there is much "railroading" of this nature, undoubtedly such things are attempted occasionally—probably more often than many people realize. And it is to be acknowledged that, in the vast majority of cases, if the amendment should be approved, the trial judge would be conscientious in his efforts not to commit to an insane asylum a person who did not belong there.

But common sense offers ample proof that an attempted railroading is less likely to succeed when a lunacy case is tried before six jurors in open court than it tried before one judge in private.

* * *

THE stipulation that the person on trial could obtain a jury trial by demanding it does not remove the objections of many of the opponents of this proposed amendment.

They point out that the soundness of the judgment of the person on trial is open to suspicion. They argue, too, that if "railroading" is being attempted, those guilty usually are in position to apply pressure upon their victim. Frequently they might be able, in one way or another, to cause such a person to sign the waiver of a jury trial.

Everyone apparently acknowledges that lunacy proceedings as now conducted may embarass individuals on occasions.

But it may be that those proceedings occasionally keep unfortunate people out of the insane asylum to which they would be sent

EISENHOWER, JOHNSON TO SPEAK

Craig Declares Legion Strongly Backs Armed Forces Unification

By EUGENE J. CAPOU
INS Staff Correspondent

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 3—George N. Craig, American Legion national commander, said tonight that the Legion strongly supports unification of the armed forces under a civilian supervisor.

Craig's report on the Legion's stand on the Army-Navy squabble assumed double importance with the announcement that Defense Secretary Louis Johnson and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will address the Legion's national executive committee in Indianapolis next Saturday.

Homecoming Is Held

Craig's speech highlighted a huge homecoming celebration in Brazil where he practices law. Some 25,000 persons had flocked to Brazil to witness a parade of 40 bands, drum corps and decorated floats and marching organizations while a score of bombers and fighter planes zoomed overhead to celebrate Craig's recent election as Legion head.

Craig said:

"We are for unification of our armed forces. The lessons of unification learned on the battlefields of war must be put into practice in time of peace. We have succeeded in establishing the principle of unification and believe it can be made completely effective without the sacrifice of any of the glorious traditions of any of the branches of our armed forces."

Faith In Leaders Urged

Craig declared that the determination of scientific weapons to be used is a decision that should be left to the military experts and added:

"Only specialists are qualified to make such decisions. The Legion strongly urges that our people repose confidence in our national leaders, both civilian and military. They have always given us winning leadership in time of war. We should not doubt their capacity to lead us in the fight to win the peace."

Craig said the Legion supported civilian control of the military establishment because it is "vital to our democracy."

Craig asserted that when the United States Supreme court affirms the conviction of the 11 Communist leaders, "action must be taken to bring every known Communist to trial or to deport him—we cannot afford to fight a Red fifth column at home if we have to fight another war."

Hale Center Lions Attend Cotton Center School Supper

HALE CENTER, Nov. 3. (Special)—Sixty members of the Hale Center Lions club went to Cotton Center community, 14 miles southwest of here, for last week's supper session and played host to the faculty and school board members and their wives and husbands.

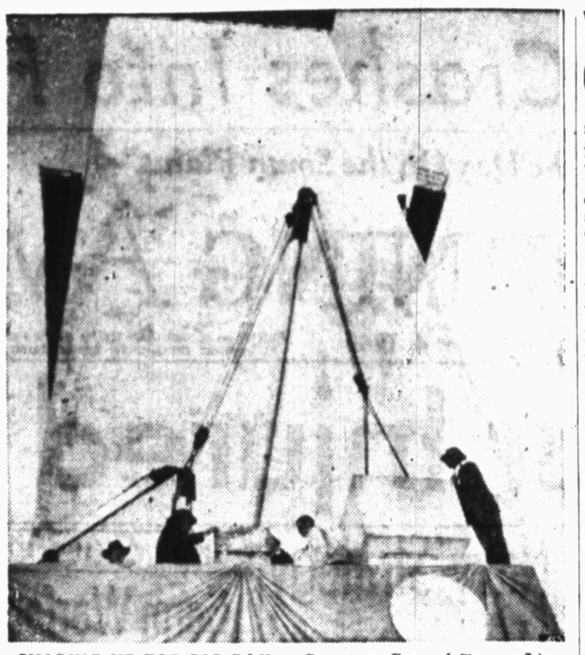

The meal was prepared and served in the Cotton Center school lunchroom by women members of the newly organized Cotton Center Parent-Teacher association.

Cotton Center Supt. S. H. Shipley, introduced members of the faculty and Harmon White, secretary of the school board, introduced the trustees. N. L. Douglas, Hale Center superintendent, as program chairman, introduced Deputy School Supt. E. H. Boulter of Lubbock, who was the main speaker. Vic Lamb, Hale Center Lion, spoke on accomplishments of the Hale Center Lions club in recent months.

Concern For Dogs Leads To Dope Charge Against Driver

NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—Peter J. Locascio's concern for his two expensive dogs has landed him behind bars, accused as a kingpin of the American traffic in narcotics.

He was called into Queens felony court today on state charges of illegal possession of an estimated $1,000,000 worth of dope.

Federal and police agents raided Locascio's lavish Queens home yesterday. They lay in wait until they saw him leave the house to walk his two handsome boxer dogs.

Car Is Seized

"I wouldn't have been home this afternoon if I didn't have to take these dogs out for an airing," he told police.

Locascio was termed by City Detective Emanuel Schein "the biggest distributar of narcotics in the county."

The 33-year-old prisoner described himself as a truck driver. But police said he paid $20,000 cast two weeks ago for the two-story home. They seized a sporty new Cadillac convertible parked in front of it.

Agents said the arrest nine months ago of 17 small-time Manhattan dope peddlers set off a search for the source of the narcotics.

The raiders said they found a pound of heroin in a second-floor linen closet of Locascio's home. A secret compartment beneath a kitchen sink, they said, yielded four more pounds of heroin plus 6,000 vials of morphine and equipment to dilute raw dope for human consumption.

Peddled at retail through underworld sources, police said, the dope was worth a million dollars. The actual value in legitimate trade channels is much less.

The officers said Locascio admitted serving a two-year federal prison term before the war on an illicit alcohol charge.

FRANCO IS BITTER FOE OF REDS

Diplomats Admit That Spain Is 'Almost' Atlantic Pact Member

By R. H. SHACKFORD
United Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Diplomatic sources admitted privately today that for all practical purposes—the case of another war—Spain is almost as much a member of the Atlantic pact as though Generalissimo Francisco Franco had signed the treaty.

The basis for this, they said, is:

1. The geographical position of Spain, which borders Portugal, a member of the Atlantic pact, on the north and east.

New Iberian Pact Signed

2. The Iberian pact, which pledges Spain and Portugal to help each other.

3. Portugese Premier Antonio Salazar's continued demand for admission of Spain to the Atlantic pact and his known interpretation of the pact to be elastic enough to adapt itself to difficult situations like Spain.

4. The recent talks between Franco and Salazar during Franco's visit to Portugal, when they were reported reliably to have talked about American aid for Spain in return for Spain's pledge to fight in case of war with Russia.

Acted As Go-Between

Dispatches from Lisbon said it was good speculation that Salazar had acted as a sort of go-between for the United States during Franco's recent visit.

Sources well informed about Iberian affairs said it was well known that Franco would like general economic aid from the United States—wheat, oil, industrial machinery, and even military material.

They also said:

1. There never has been any question that Franco, if confronted with Russian aggression on the continent, would fight. A high military official told this correspondent a year ago, when the Atlantic pact was only in the embryonic stage, that Franco had the only large sized army in western Europe. "Draw your own conclusions," he added.

Salazar Keeps Up Fight

2. Salazar has never given up his fight to have his neighbor, Franco, included in the Atlantic pact.

3. Spain is already more closely linked with the pact than certain other very strategic areas like Greece and Turkey. Spain has a military alliance with a pact nation—Portugal.

Even before the Atlantic pact was finished, Salazar called for Spain's inclusion in it in an exclusive interview with United Press. He also realizes that what cannot be done formally for political expediency can be done for the same practical purposes informally.

Aleman Is Reported Talking With Two Former Presidents

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 3.(U.P.)—The newspaper Universal Grafico said today political circles are "certain" President Miguel Aleman is conferring with two ex-Mexican presidents on his Baja California ranch.

Officially, Aleman's whereabouts were not known. He left here Monday for an unheralded tour of "the north." His office said he planned to visit the states of Chihuahua and Coahuila.

Grafico said "political circles are certain the chief executive is on his hacienda, Matanuco, and has had chance to talk with the two ex-presidents." Former presidents Manuel Avila Camacho and Lazaro Cardenas arrived at Matanuco early this week.

Dairy Manufacturing Short Course To Be Given At Tech

Plans are nearing completion for a dairy manufacturing short course to be held on the Texas Tech campus Nov. 16-18, according to Dr. J. J. Willingham, head of the DM department.

Dr. G. M. Trout of Michigan State and A. W. Wentworth, director of Industry Relations for the Borden company will be among the speakers for the short course.

Over 150 delegates from Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Colorado are expected to attend the three-day meet. Inquiries have been received from several other states as well, Dr. Willingham said.

An airman who fell out of the rear turret of an R. A. F. bomber landed safely in Yorkshire, England, by parachute, in a potato field and said he didn't know how he had fallen out.

Cardinal Marmaggi, 73, Is Claimed After Heart Attack

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 3—(U.P.)—Francesco Cardinal Marmaggi, 73, prefect of the sacred congregation of the council, died today.

Cardinal Marmaggi had suffered from a gastro-intestinal ailment for some time. But six days ago he suffered a heart attack which prostrated him.

Decline In Cost Of Oranges Forecast By USDA Spokesman

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (U.P.) — An Agriculture department spokesman says oranges will be "dirt cheap" before the current marketing season ends.

He made that forecast in justifying to consumers the department's announcement that it will pay an export subsidy this season to remove oranges from the domestic market.

The spokesman said orange prices have been high in recent months because of a scarcity resulting from crop curtailment by freezes last winter. However, he said, the new crop starting to market now will provide a near record supply.

Economic Columnist Urges New Political Leadership At Meeting

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3 (INS) — Merryle Stanley Rukeyser told the Ohio Chamber of commerce today that it is time for political parties to "cater to individual excellencies and efficiency—not to wastrels and suckers."

The International News Service economic columnist told the 56th annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber of commerce that the time is ripe in both parties "for a new leadership based on common sense and common honesty."

Rukeyser blamed "amateur political economic planners and ambitious pressure group officeholders "for taking the jobs" of trained experienced men and foisting "their untrained judgment" on the American people.

He said the so-called Brannan plan "is conceived in the same fatuous, give-away spirit of the British Socialists for providing city dwellers with low-priced food and farmers with a reasonably satisfactory income." He continued:

"The acrobatics are accomplished by making the citizen pay twice for the food. First, he makes a part payment at the grocery store, and later he completes the payment in tax remittances."

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

TWO Lubbock neighbors whose homes were damaged during last spring's flood were talking over the back fence the other night.

"Have you ever started your storm house?" asked one.

"No," was the reply, "why should I? I've lived in a storm house ever since I've been married."

CORRECTIONS

WE'D like to correct two items that appeared in this column Thursday.

In referring to Miss Pat Smith as Lubbock's only woman attorney we inadvertently overlooked Mrs. W. H. Bledsoe, 1812 Broadway, who has been a member of the state bar of Texas since 1918.

Although Mrs. Bledsoe does not maintain an office or engage in active practice, she does vast amounts of legal work, much of it gratuitously.

Following in the steps of his mother and of his father, the late Senator Bledsoe, Willis Bledsoe is in his second year law school at the University of Texas.

• • •

THE address of Mrs. E. B. Sanders, winner in a crochet division at the Panhandle-South Plains, was given as Shallowater, the listing on the news item from the national headquarters.

Mrs. Sanders called to say that she has not had much luck in getting people to know that she has moved to route 7 from Shallowater. She won in the chrocheted table cloth division and has her entry packed and ready to send it to Chicago for competition in a contest at the Congress hotel.

Our apologies and congratulations to Mrs. Bledsoe and to Mrs. Sanders.

YARD VASE

BOO Monday turned out to be blue Monday for Mrs. Louise Campbell of 2205 Tenth. During the night Hallowe'en pranksters carried off a large blue yard vase that she had owned for many years and regretted to lose.

She hopes if the vase has not been broken and has been taken to another yard she will be notified.

V-P GETS GIRL

A ROMANCE that has been on the front pages the last four months is about to have a happy ending. Albeo Barkley, oldest vice president in American history, has won the pretty widow's hand. There seems to be general rejoicing. For one thing, Barkley has been doing a lot of traveling on his courting journeys in government planes, and the American people will be glad that a mission in which they have come to have so substantial an investment has turned out happily.

The vice president (we refuse to refer to him by that silly nickname "veep") is a popular, hearty, genial soul, respected for himself as much as for the high office he holds. His bride-to-be appears to be a comely woman who will add loveliness and zest to the Washington scene.

And last, but not least, all the world loves a lover. As the United States proceeds toward gerontocracy (that's a five dollar biological term meaning old age) we tend to love old lovers more, loving young lovers less.

COFFEE RATIONING

WE'VE been wondering if there won't be a run on coffee supplies in stores, since scare stories are being printed about the rise in price of America's favorite drink. If this should happen, perhaps we'll see a return to rationing, in order that there will be coffee available for all, even if it soars to one dollar per pound.

Mexico Officials Check Cars With Texas Plates Near Border

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 3. (U.P.)—The treasury ministry is checking on the ownership of thousands of autos bearing Texas license plates in border regions, it was learned today.

A group of ministry agents were sent to Matamoros, across the border from Brownsville, recently. Other agents will be sent to other border cities later.

Mexico banned import of automobiles into the country in July, 1947. Since that time, the ministry believes, many Mexicans have managed to obtain Texas registration certificates for their vehicles to "defraud (Mexican) fiscal interests."

Net earnings for the first nine months of 1949 totaled $538,000, compared to $618,000 last year. Slightly increased cost of sugar and lower selling price of syrup to bottlers were the major causes for the earnings decline, the company said.

EXPEDITION COMPLETES MISSION

Living Organisms Are Reported Found At 4,200-Fathom Depth

By PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Science Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—Prof. Hans Pettersson, famed Swedish scientist, disclosed today that his expedition to the Atlantic and South Pacific found living organisms at 4,200 fathoms, or about five miles, deep in the ocean.

Pettersson, who has just arrived in this country for a series of reports on the expedition, said that he felt sure living organisms would be found "at the very deepest trenches" of the ocean beds.

"We have every reason to believe that the lowest depths of the ocean are inhabited," he said at the Geological Society of America, his host here. "We expect further exploration to prove this."

Pettersson's expedition aboard the Swedish ship Albatross was privately financed in Sweden, and it required two years—1947 and 1948—to complete. The expedition left Sweden in 1947, crossed the Atlantic, cut through the Panama Canal and worked its way across the South Pacific.

The scientist said that during the expedition new techniques of exploring the bottom of the ocean were developed, and that he hoped other oceanographers would use the systems.

More Research Sought

"We hope that an international organization can be built up to carry on the work of deep sea research so that unknown parts of the world beneath the sea can be brought to life," he said.

"We hope that in the future the United States can take part in these efforts worthy of her great tradition."

In reaching living organisms at the depth of 4,200 fathoms, Pettersson and his associates set a new record. Previously the farthest depth at which living organisms were found was 3,000 fathoms, or about 3½ miles.

American oceanographers have made numerous deep sea expeditions and some scientists believe that the world's future food supply must come from the oceans. There are others who believe there might be great sources of uranium on the mountains and in the valleys now sunk miles below the surface of the oceans.

Pettersson will report in some detail of his expedition during his series of lectures in this country. His most important report is expected to be made at a meeting of the Geological Society in El Paso, Tex., Nov. 10 to 12.

Maine Girl Ordered Freed From Mental Hospital By Court

CHICAGO, Nov. 3. (INS)—An attractive brunette girl from Maine who was committed to Chicago state hospital after she had come to the city to be married was ordered released today on a writ of habeas corpus.

Circuit Judge George M. Fisher declared Miss Norma Hutchins, 19, of Castine, Maine, sane and freed her on the request of her fiance, Carl R. Becker, 32-year-old truck driver.

The pair will be married Saturday in Cook county building.

Becker led the fight for Miss Hutchins' release since she collapsed from excitement over buying her trousseau and overwork last July 27.

Treated For Amnesia

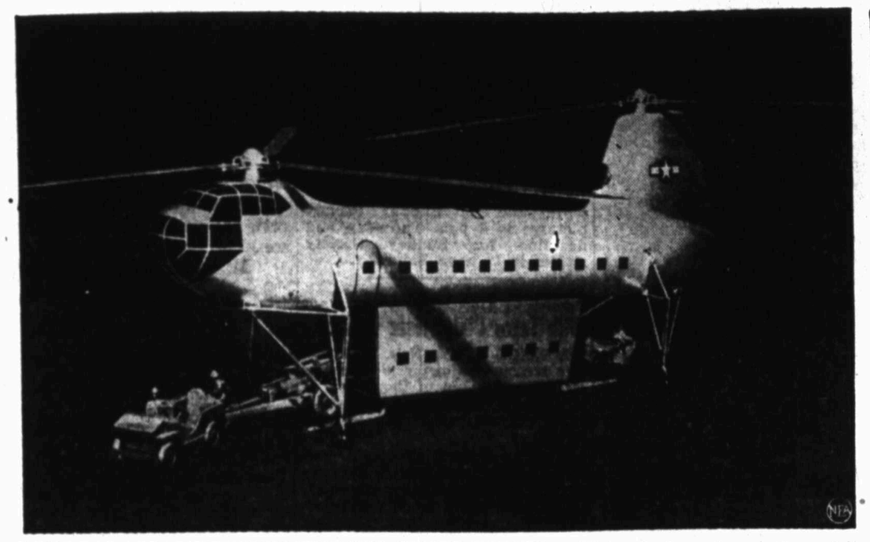

She was treated at Belmont hospital as an amnesia patient and then was shifted to county hospital and later to the state hospital after psychiatrists pronounced her "mentally ill."

Becker employed a private psychiatrist, who exampined the girl and declared her sane.

Judge Fisher questioned the girl at the hearing. When she answered his questions lucidly, he ordered her immediate release.

Hidden Riches Attract Hopeful Searchers

Legends Turn Mexico Into Land Of Treasure Hunters

By A. CARL KUPFER
INS Staff Correspondent

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 3.—The fabulous treasures of Montezuma, Axayacatl and Cuauhtemoc, along with hundreds of lost mines and caches of buried gold, have turned Mexico into a land of treasure hunters.

Hundreds of persons have lost their fortunes, their health, and even their lives searching for hidden riches.

In the rare cases where treasure actually is found, the fact is seldom reported. For under Mexican law, the government seizes half the discovery. Moreover, if the find is of historic value, the government may seize it all and pay a small sum to the finder.

Treasure Hunts Continue

But the search continues, for if the legends are true, hidden treasure lies under almost every square yard of the country. Everyone in Mexico believes that with luck, he will some day find the Spanish gold that will free him from poverty forever.

Recently, an old building in the center of Mexico City was falling into ruins. Rumor spread that an enormous cache of gold and jewels was hidden in its walls. Hundreds of people, from wealthy businessmen to ragged beggars, swarmed to the spot and began digging in the debris. They undermined one of the walls, which collapsed and buried 14 persons.

Montezuma Riches Rumored

The principal name associated with buried treasure is that of Montezuma, the Aztec emperor who received Cortez in Mexico City and was killed by his own followers when he tried to stop the war against the Spanish conquerors.

His gold and precious stones, inherited from his predecessor Axayacatl, never have been found. Their value was so fantastic that, according to legend, he filled a whole room full of gold for Cortez and hardly noticed the loss.

Ironically, the national pawnshop now stands on the site of Montezuma's palace, in the main square of Mexico City.

According to one story, he buried the bulk of the treasure in a garden which still exists, about 20 blocks away. The father of one of Mexico's best-known historians, Luis Gonzales Obregon, spent two years and his entire fortune digging up the garden. He found nothing.

The lust for gold arrived in Mexico with the Spaniards in 1519 and has continued ever since. Under Spanish rule, scores of viceroys came to New Spain to produce as much gold as possible for their royal masters.

More than $4 billion worth of gold and silver bullion was produced during the rule of one viceroy alone. Much of the treasure reached Spain but a lot did not. The viceroys retained some for their own use, and more was stolen on the journey from the interior mines to the seaport of Vera Cruz.

Pirates Get Treasures

Still more was taken by English pirates such as Henry Morgan and Drake, who in turn buried it on the islands of the West Indies and along the coast of the mainland.

All of northern Mexico is honeycombed with legendary treasure. The royal highway ran from Mexico City north to Texas, where gold and silver for the support of Spanish outposts were sent for nearly 300 years. Attacks by Indians and bandits, and untrustworthy guards all took their share.

Literally thousands of maps showing the locations of buried treasure exist in Mexico. Every few months another one turns up. Then another expedition is fitted out. A year or so later, the treasure hunters come back with empty pockets and shattered illusions.

Buried gold does exist in Mexico. But few people ever find it.

Cat Ends 600 Mile Jaunt To Missouri

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (U.P.)—A sore-footed and weary cat, who preferred his new home to his old, was back in Missouri today after a 600-mile hike that took 120 days.

The big Tom started out on the Fourth of July and arrived at Hayti, Mo., on Oct. 31.

Mrs. Burnice Clemons said she heard scratching on the back door and there was "Yellow Jack," wanting to come in.

"He was plenty tired, thin and in tough shape," she wrote Mrs. Leonard McMullen, her sister-in-law.

The part-Persian and rest alley cat originally belonged to the McMullens. Three years ago "Yellow Jack" went to Hayti to live with the Clemons.

McMullen, a truck driver, was visiting in Missouri and brought the cat back to its original home the Fourth of July.

"I let him out of the house when he had been back home just three hours," Mrs. McMullen said. "That was the last I saw or heard of him until I got a letter Wednesday."

Mrs. McMullen said the Clemons have five children and Yellow Jack apparently "got lonesome for the kids."

Just how the cat got around the edge of Lake Michigan, across Illinois and part of Missouri was known only to Yellow Jack. But from his appearance, Mrs. McMullen said "he must have walked and walked."

Salvage Of Land Urged At Clinic

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 3 (Special) — Sub-marginal ranges can be reclaimed for profitable grass and pasture crops only if the necessary time and effort is exerted, Dr. A. W. Young, head of the Texas Tech plant industry department, told delegates to the Southwestern Livestock Conservation and Production clinic here today.

Cattlement and others interested in livestock production from throughout the Mid-West and Southwest are attending the clinic, which continues through Friday. Dr. Young left today for Austin, where he is to attend a conference of the Texas Seedmen's association.

Careful Use Urged

"Misuse of grazing lands have made them sub-marginal," Dr. Young declared. "Only careful and very limited use can reclaim them to profitable productivity."

The Tech professor quoted figures which showed that at least 527 million acres of the 728 million acres of rangeland in the south and west which once "offered a rich heridity of fertile soil" are now more or less depleted.

"Ranchers should stock ranges below average grazing capacity when drouth threatens or the cattle will eat all the grass, laying the land open to erosion and depletion," he asserted. Over-population of cattle on already eroding pastures plunge such areas into almost irreclaimable waste lands, he added.

Poorer Grass Advised

Dr. Young warned that the mere re-seeding of depleted grasslands with high quality grass will in no wise help bring that land back to productivity. Poorer grades of grass which do not require as much water and nutrients should first be sown on the range, he said.

"A rancher trying to reclaim rangeland should survey his situation and work out ways of holding as much water as possible where it falls," the speaker declared. "Then he should plant less desirable grasses from the standpoint of grazing and attempt to rebuild the soil."

He warned that lands beginning to show improvement should be grazed sparingly, since a little overgrazing at any point along the line could set the reclamation movement back several years.

"Cattle should be allowed to graze on such lands only when absolutely necessary or at least for only a few days," he asserted. In all cases, he said, cattle will fare better when grazed moderately. He gave as examples an experiment which proved that 20 cows overstocked on a pasture gained only 180.4 pounds during a year's time, while 20 others grazed moderately gained an average of 249.6 pounds.

A rancher owning depleted ranges, if he wished to rebuild them, must either rely upon other acres or be content with a smaller income, Dr. Young concluded. In the long run, he said however, the rebuilding of the lands will pay great dividends from an individual as well as national viewpoint.

Baylor, Texas Meet In Top Southwest Conference Test

Undefeated Rice Tackles Arkansas

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Baylor's Bears, who mauled Arkansas and Texas Christian until it was no contest—thus breaking out of the "dark horse" class—play vengeful Texas Saturday at Austin in the headliner of Southwest Conference football.

Strangely the Bears are given no more than an even chance of remaining undefeated and untied and in a deadlock with Rice for the Conference leadership. Along betting row it was minus one point for either and even money.

The Turning Point

Texas has lost to three of the nation's top teams in games the Longhorns could have won as well as dropped. The view is that the Longhorns aren't going on failing to get a break or two in the clinches and the Baylor battle is likely to be where the worm turns.

This game matches the Conference's leading offensive team—Texas—against the top club in defense. For that reason it is not expected to be a scoring game such as has characterized much of the season's play in the circuit.

Rice Faces Porkers

While Baylor battles Texas at Austin, Rice will be meeting tough Arkansas at Houston. Rice is a 14-point favorite, which sets the stage for an upset. It's that time of the year when nothing can be taken for granted in this conference.

Rice beat Texas, which beat Arkansas, and the Owls had to come from behind against Texas as Texas did in winning over the Razorbacks. There is nothing to indicate that the Porkers, still minus their great fullback, Leon Campbell, have hopes of knocking down Rice. But Arkansas has looked badly in only one game—the struggle with Baylor. The game with Rice will give a true indication of the comparative strength of Rice and Baylor.

SMU, Aggies Tangle

Southern Methodist, still battered and sore and weary, goes to College Station to meet Texas A. and M.—the team that always gives the Methodists trouble.

Southern Methodist is a 19-point favorite but was about the same last year when the lowly Aggies battled SMU to the last gun and the Methodist were tickled to leave the field with a one-touchdown victory. Coach Matty Bell of SMU fears the Aggie passing attack that gave Arkansas some trouble.

Texas Christian is idle this week. The embattled Horned Frogs are taking time out to get ready for the team they'd rather beat than anybody—Texas.

Levelland, Muleshoe Will Tangle Tonight

LEVELLAND, Nov. 3. (Special) A homecoming crowd will be on hand for the festivities here Friday night when the Levelland Lobos meet Muleshoe at 8 o'clock in Lobo stadium in a District 4-A North football contest.

Several hundred Levelland exes from this area and eastern New Mexico are expected for the tilt, which at this point has no bearing on the district race. Levelland has won two games and lost one, to Sudan. Muleshoe has dropped two while winning one contest.

Halftime ceremonies will include the crowning of the annual football queen, Rita Elliot, by Lobo Co-Captains Dee Windsor and William Bailey.

The Levelland band, which recently played at the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, will supply the music. Band director is W. R. Wheeler.

Cincinnati Reds Add Gus Mancuso To Coaching Staff

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3 (AP) — Gus Mancuso, former major league catcher and in recent years a minor league manager, was added to the Cincinnati Reds' coaching staff today.

Luke Sewell, new manager, in announcing Mancuso's appointment, said he has retained Tony Cuccinello and Phil Page as coaches. Page, however, will devote most of his time in trying out young players.

Mancuso will fill the vacancy created when Sewell was released at the end of the 1949 season. Sewell was appointed manager almost two weeks ago, succeeding Bucky Walters, and given a two year contract.

Mancuso managed San Antonio in the Texas League the last two seasons, and for two years prior to that was in charge of Tulsa in the same circuit.

Carroll Thompson Cowboys Rack Up 24-0 Win Over Brownfield

Brownfield fell before the Carroll Thompson Cowboys, 24-0, at Chapman field Thursday in a South Plains Junior High school game.

Scoring touchdowns for the winners were John Blocker, Richard Bowles and Sammy Garner, with Garner getting credit for two six-pointers. Red Noland and Billy Biggs played hard for the Lubbock squad.

Meadow Takes Crucial District 4-B Tilt From Ropesville Team

Eagles Drop 26-13 Game To Bronchos

BROWNFIELD, Nov. 3 (Special) —Meadow's Bronchos gained a firmer grip on first place in District 4-B football here last night, defeating the Ropesville Eagles, 26-13, in a crucial game.

Approximately 2,000 persons witnessed the game played at Cub stadium as the Bronchos continued their untied, undefeated pace and racked up their sixth district win. The defeat was the second for Ropesville against five victories.

The contest was very even, with Meadow making 17 first downs and Ropesville 16. Meadow rushed for 216 yards while Ropesville was getting 185, and five Meadow aerials were completed for 60 yards. Ropesville put together eight passes in 16 tries for 101 yards.

Duncan Snares Pass

After a scoreless first quarter, Meadow turned an interception into a touchdown. Elvis Duncan snared an Eagle pass on the Meadow 13-yard line, with Robert White scoring for Meadow a few plays later on a six-yard burst off tackle. Lawrence Joplin's kick was wide.

A fumble gave the Bronchos possession of the ball later in the same period on Ropesville's 39, when Norman Lockett carried the ball to the one, from which point Fullback Jesse Upton scored on a line plunge. White passed to Jopline for the extra point, and Meadow led at the half, 13-0.

Means Drives 50 Yards

In the third quarter Meadow punted out of bounds deep in Ropesville territory, and Ropes drove for a score. Highlighting the drive was a 50-yard broken-field run by Quarterback Kenneth Means to the five-yard line, and on the next play Means circled left end for the score. Fullback Lynn Hewlett plunged for the point.

Meadow scored again early in the fourth quarter, taking the Ropesville kickoff and marching all the way for the tally, with Lawrence Joplin going 39 yards for the touchdown. Upton plunged for the point.

Means ran eight yards for the final Ropesville touchdown after advancing the ball to that point with a 35-yard run and two successful passes to Richard Arrants. Try for point was no good.

Ropesville Gambles

With the score at 20-13, Ropesville gambled late in the final period with a fourth down pass over on the Eagle 19. On the last over on the Eagle 19. On thelast play of the game Upton plunged two-yards for the final tally to make the final count, 26-13.

Standouts for Meadow in the line were Gene Joplin, Dan Roberts, Jerry Roberts, Tommy Ashburn and James Williams. For Ropesville Ray Teaff, Billy Odom, Arrants and Stephenson were tops.

Means was the individual star of the game, sparking the losers throughout the contest.

Meadow meets New Deal in the next district game, and a victory would assure the Bronchos of at least a tie for the title.

Seagraves Juniors Beat Tahoka Squad

SEAGRAVES, Nov. 3. (Special) —Coach W. L. Willingham's Seagraves Junior High grid team sent the first annual Seagraves school homecoming observance off to a successful start here tonight by thumping the Tahoka Juniors, 39-0.

A crowd of some 700 persons saw the Seagraves eleven take charge from the start in a game which featured numerous long touchdown runs.

Richard Hibbitts opened the scoring by racing 35 yards around left end for a first-period score. Later in the period, Buddy Johnson went around right end for 25 yards and a tally.

Elbert Robinson swept end for 55 yards and another marker in the second stanza, with Johnson adding the extra point to make the halftime score 19-0.

Paul Stafford rammed over from two yards out to launch the second-half scoring, then Johnson intercepted a Tahoka pass and ran it back 65 yards for another six-pointer.

The final tally came on a flat zone pass from Johnson to Hibbitts that netted 45 yards.

Johnson and Hibbitts added extra points after two of the second-half touchdowns.

In a preliminary game matching teams composed of fifth, sixth and seventh graders, Seagraves and Tahoka battled to a 7-7 tie. All the scoring came in the first half.

The Seagraves homecoming program will continue Friday, beginning at 9 a. m., with registration of ex-students and ending with the 8 p. m. Seagraves-Tahoka District 4-A South grid tilt.

Face Miners In Crucial Border Tilt

Red Raiders Leave For El Paso Today

A 40-man Texas Tech football squad was scheduled to leave Lubbock by T.N.M.&O. bus this morning at 8:30 for El Paso, where tomorrow night at 8:15 the Red Raiders face Texas Western in a crucial Border Conference test.

The Raiders, picked by most followers by from one to four touchdowns, are taking the largest squad of the year on this jaunt. Coach Dell Morgan, with several players injured just enough to make full time play impossible, is taking no chances of losing through lack of reserves.

Only four members of the active squad are being left behind and all of them have injuries that prevent their playing. On this list are Halfbacks Bill Barbee and Walter Maloney, Quarterback Milton Rathbone and Guard Don Williams.

Maloney Suffers Injury

Making the important trip will be leg injury that will keep him out of action until sometime next week, while Barbee still is suffering from a painful shoulder, the result of a dislocated arm, and Rathbone's trick khee is bothering him.

Making the important trip will 12 backs, including Quarterbacks Ernest Hawkins, Bill Lyman and Albert Salem; Halfbacks Tim Hatch, Herman Bailey, Bobby Close, Cal Steveson, Ike Stuver, and Eural Ramsey; Fullbacks Bud Conley, Earl Jackson and J. W. Thompson; four centers, Bobby Williams, J. B. Mahler, Red Phillips and Bob Hix; seven guards, Dan Pursel, Dick Cavazos, Milburn Haydon, Bobby Garnet, Walter Edrington, Don Anthony and Bill Stallings; nine tackles, Jack Cockburn, Doug McSwane, John Tom Baker, John Andrews, Bill Glidewell, Marshall Gettys, Jerrell Price, Bobby Broyles and Rex Pinson; and seven ends, Bill Sharpley, Jack Davis, Dick Pirtle, Dick Jackson, Hugh Jackson, Elbert Johnson and Luke Thompson.

Seek Third Loop Win

The Raiders are expected to arrive in mid afternoon at El Paso and take a light workout at Kidd Field, where tomorrow they will seek their third Border loop victory of the season. A day of rest Saturday precedes the game.

Yesterday's drill was light, with emphasis on passing offense and defense, concentrated blocking on dummies for the linemen and dummy scrimmage against Western formations for the entire squad. Spirits were much higher yesterday and the Raiders appear once more to be in both physical and mental trim for one of their better games.

They have a tough problem in the Miners, who will send a stiff defense and one of the nation's top offensives at the Raiders. Injuries have struck the Miner squad and five players are on the doubtful list. They are Quarterback Jim Bowden, Guards Lee Fogle and Herman Foster, Fulback Cordell McCraw and H. L. "Sonny" Holderman.

Use Regular Offensive

Coach Jack Curtice is expected to use his regular offensive formation against the Raiders. At ends will be George Grounds and Jack Wilkinson, with Jim DeGroat, rapidly regaining full speed after being slowed by a knee ailment, and Tom Shockman at tackles. Shockman is hampered by a cut hand received from a cleat in the New Mexico game.

At guards will be All-Border Conference Ernest Keily and Don Slaughter. Keily's value was shown by Hardin-Simmons' ability to move through his slot on a long scoring march while he was sidelined with a charley horse.

Center will be Wayne Hansen, one of the top linemen of the conference.

Ralph Brewster will draw the nod at quarterback, although Bill McWilliams will share the duties.

ALBERT SALEM
Pointing For Miners

Tempe State Is Offensive Leader

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 3 (AP) — The Border Conference has all-out offensive teams by the bushel. There are five teams in the nine-club circuit with an average of better than 300 yards per game. One of them—Arizona State of Tempe—has rolled up more than 400 yards per contest.

Tempe in five games has gained 2381 yards.

Texas Western has gained the most yards but has played two more games than Tempe. The Miners have ground out 2523 yards. Hardin-Simmons has made 2387 in seven games.

The leading team on the ground is Texas Western with 2277 yards. The top passing outfit is New Mexico A. and M., which has swirled to 958 yards in five times out.

Harvey (Pug) Gabrel of Texas Western tops the ball-carriers with 620 yards on 104 runs. He hasn't lost a yard. Wilton (Hook) Davis of Hardin-Simmons is second with 504 on 73 carries. Davis has the top average with 6.9 yards per carry.

In passing, Sam McGowan of New Mexico A. and M. has pitched 132 and completed 68 for 958 yards. Second is John Ford of Hardin-Simmons with 48 connections in 86 tries for 782 yards. Ford also has the best average in completions with .558.

McGowan, although he has a minus 40 rushing, leads in total offense with 918 yards. Ford is second with 778.

Bob McChesney of Hardin-Simmons has caught the most passes —23 for 404 yards. Burr Reeves and Jack Steger of New Mexico A. and M. are tied for second with 19 catches each, Reeves' gaining 268 yards and Steger's 257.

Charles Styron of New Mexico A. and M. tops in punting with an average of 43.2 yards on 29 boots. Frank Wise of West Texas State is second with 40.9 on 33.

At regular halfback spots will be Harvey (Pug) Gabrel, leading ground-gainer from rushing of the conference and ranking high in the nation, and Bill Chesak, rugged line-bucker. Gerald Campbell has filled in at offensive fullback since McCraw was injured.

Odessa Picked To Drop Lamesa

LAMESA, Nov. 3. (Special)—The Golden Tornadoes, hampered by injuries, figure to drop their third game of the season to the Odessa Bronchos here Friday at Tornado field in a District 3-AA grid meeting. Game time is 2:30 o'clock.

Lamesa notched five victories in a row this year, but Coach Bob Harrell's lads have been beaten by Pampa and Lubbock in their last two starts.

The Bronchos, only threat to Lubbock's drive to a district title, are favored over the battered Tornadoes by three touchdowns or more by local grid guessers.

Injuries Hamper Team

Last week in their first district start, the Odessa squad ran free and easy over Midland, winning by a 55-7 margin.

On Lamesa's hospital list are Center Bill Hart with a bruised leg; End T. J. Womack, knee injury; Halfback Delbert Dickenson, ankle injury; and reserve Fullback Don Hackney, broken hand. All four may see service, but their performances will be below par. Last week Dickenson, Womack and Hart were standouts in the Lubbock game.

One casualty is back in harness. Jamie Pearson, regular tackle, who missed the Lubbock encounter because of a virus infection, is ready for duty.

New Faces in Lineup

Two new faces will probably be in the Tornado starting lineup, Coach Harrell reported. He said that Ronald Chapman will replace Bobby Hawkins at quarterback and that Marshall Crawford has won the right end position from Jerry Phillips.

The Lubbock Westerners, idle this week, will view the game from the stands, so Broncho mentor Joe Coleman is expected to try for a triumph while showing as little top-drawer strategy as possible.

3,000 Fan Expected

A crowd of 3,000 persons or more, the largest of the season, is expected to view the contest. Odessa ordered 1,500 tickets, and the Broncho band and pep squad will accompany the team here.

Lamesa reserves who will likely see action include Ends I. V. Ferguson and Tink Lambert, Tackle Phil Johnson, and Fullbacks Randall Reeves and Jerry Millsaps.

Carrying the load for Odessa will be Dawton Hughes, Howard Dye, Carl Beard, Joe Childress, Charles Clover, Joe Howell and others in the backfield.

J. T. Hutchinson's Rangers Down Midland Juniors, 7-6

J. T. Hutchinson's Rangers took a close, 7-6, decision over Midland Junior High yesterday at Chapman field, with a pass from Dub James to J. Miers being the point needed for victory.

The Rangers' touchdown came on a 20 yard run by Halfback James Greer. Robert Johnson also starred on offense, and Jimmy Gafford and Joe Brown were tops on defense.

Tech's Unbeaten Freshman Team Takes On Odessa Juniors Tonight

Picadors Go After Wranglers Again

Texas Tech's unbeaten freshman football squad, with two victories under its belt, goes after the third success of the season in Odessa tonight at 8 when they face the strong Odessa Junior college eleven for the second time in consecutive weeks.

The Picadors handed Odessa's Wranglers a 13-0 licking in Jones Stadium last Saturday afternoon, but didn't look good in getting the job done. Since both colleges had open dates this week, Coach Red Coats of Odessa and Coach Allie White of Lubbock agreed to the second meeting.

Ground Attack Strong

Both teams exhibited strong ground attacks in between the 20-yard lines, but neither exhibited much scoring punch on the ground. The Picadors, moreover, were held four times on the one-yard marker, after chalking up a first down.

Victory came to the junior Red Raiders through the air, with Quarterbacks Don Seale and Carl Madison leading the attack. End James Thames turned in a fine performance as a pass receiver, even though the Picador eleven missed fire most of the time.

Coach White has been spending a lot of time this week on blocking, which was disappointing last week after playing such a large part in the 59-7 licking of the West Texas State college first year men. As a result, the Picadors hope to pick up yardage that they lost last week because of blocking weakness.

Barker To See Action

Ready for full duty tonight will be Halfback W. H. Barker, one of the best varsity prospects to come along in years. Barker has been operating on a bad knee and bad ankle, but still has been a sensation. He's a vicious tackler on defense and a hard runner on offense.

Also ready for heavy duty are Waldo Young, Chuck Reynolds, Sandy Welton, Denton Lambert, Ronnie Miller and other top Picador backs. The line is the strongest part of the Picador machine and the freshmen are counting on the forward wall to open holes.

Leading the forwards are such standouts as Jimmy Williams at center, Bubby Barron and Don Gray at guards, Edward Briggs, Marland Ribble, Joe Harris and Charley Goff at tackles and Thames, Alton Linnie and James Clark at ends.

Odessa, which uses the split T, is counting on the same backs who caused so much trouble here last week. It should be a better game for the spectator this week than it was last week, with the odds in favor of the Techsans.

SQUAD HOLDS DRILL UNTIL DARK

Westerners See Movie Of Last Week's Golden Tornado Tussle

The Lubbock Westerners worked until dark Thursday at Chapman field after getting a late start in their daily workout.

Before taking to the practice field the team viewed a movie of last week's Lamesa contest, the first District 3-AA start for the locals, which was won by a 41-14 score. Throughout the film Coaches Pat Pattison, Fred Taylor and Bill Floyd pointed out mistakes made by the Westerner players and lots of benefit was derived from the film.

Today is an "off day" for the Lubbock team as far as a game is concerned, and for the first Friday since Sept. 16 the Bronc Busters will be watching a game from the sidelines. At 12:45 today the squad will leave for Lamesa to witness the Odessa-Golden Tornado contest.

Calisthenics yesterday were led by Ends Garnet Reeves and Billy Wright, co-captains for the Nov. 11 tilt with Odessa, before the squad went into its defensive workout.

As in past days separate teams alternated on offense and defense in the drills, with concentration being on defensive patterns against Odessa plays as run by the second and third teams.

Plays were not run at full tilt, as would be a scrimmage, but emphasis was being put on defensive setups against the Odessans.

In spite of precautionary warnings and explanations by Coach Pattison, some of the running and passing plays went for long yardages before the ball carrier was touched and action halted.

On passing plays the passer was allowed to get rid of the ball, and the added time in spotting receivers showed up weaknesses in the Westerner aerial defense.

Odessa uses a variety of offensive formations and can be counted on for plenty of speed and deception. Although suffering two defeats and a tie thus far during the 1949 campaign, the Bronchos are expected to be at their best against the Westerners on the Armistice day meeting which should decide the district winner.

In preparing for the Odessans, Coach Pattison is calling a Saturday morning defensive drill which should break the long period of inactivity between Thursday and Monday without a practice. Although the Saturday session will be without pads, the defensive team can gain valuable pointers from the drill.

Brownfield Cublets Defeat Carroll Thompson, 7 To 6

A second quarter touchdown enabled the Brownfield Cublets to defeat Carroll Thompson's Yearlings, 7 to 6, Thursday at Chapman field.

Speedy Warren put Lubbock ahead early in the game with a plunge from the two-yard line to climax a 60-yard drive, but Brownfield, on the running of James Ervin, Phil Addison and Richard Baggett, came back to score, with Ervin plunging for the touchdown from nine yards out and then hitting the middle of the line for the point after. Mickey Greer, Grayson, Scott and Willingham played hard in the line.

First Half Of Duck Season Opens Today

120,000 Hunters Will Bang Away

AUSTIN, Nov. 3. (AP) — Texas hunters will take their first crack at quackers at noon tomorrow as the first half of the 1949-50 split season begins.

First-day firing ends at one hour before sunset, and woe to the sportsman who gets caught with more than four ducks, five geese, and 10 coots in his possession. That's the daily bag limit. It is also the possession limit the first day. Thereafter, you can have eight ducks, 10 geese and 10 coots in possession.

"There should be lots of ducks. There is lots of water in water places all over the state as a result of late rains," Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission reported today.

On a basis of federal duck stamps issued thus far, he anticipated 120,000 hunters will draw a bead on ducks and geese coming down the central flyway in plentiful numbers from Canada and the northern United States this season.

75,000 May Try Luck

The first half of the season is from Nov. 4 through Nov. 21. The second half begins Dec. 21, ends Jan. 7.

Anticipating 75,000 hunters will try their luck this weekend, Dodgen reviewed the regulations on duck hunting:

Ten-gauge guns are the largest that can be used. They must be plugged to a three-shell limit.

You can't shoot across roads or highways or on any game refuge.

That bag limit of five geese can include not more than two big geese—either ringneck or white-fronted. The remainder may be snow or blue geese, but it's not likely you will find many blue geese in Texas.

What You Can't Do

You can't use live decoys.

You can't hunt in a motorboat or one that is being towed or operated under a sail.

You can't use a seat device to hide in open water. But if you happen to be out in a skiff and a duck is dumb enough to fly your way, blast away.

You can't use livestock as a shield. (That was a hunter's favorite trick in the old days: hide behind a horse or cow until the ducks came within range. Then, blooie. A bunch of dead ducks.)

Limits Are Down

Except for youngsters 16 years and under, hunters must have a $2 federal stamp. They must also pay a $2 state fee if they hunt outside their home counties.

The duck limits are down from last year, when a daily bag of 5 and 10 in possession was allowed, but Dodgen thinks the split season will result in shooting of more ducks.

"The split season gives us 36 days, one more than last year, and also gives us two opening days. That should more than offset the smaller bag limit," he predicted.

Snead Retains Pinehurst Lead

PINEHURST, N. C., Nov. 3. (INS)—Slammin' Sammy Snead held on to his lead in the North-South Open golf tournament at Pinehurst today, but other favorites were hot on his heels.

Snead fired a two-under-par 70 today for a total of 138 for both rounds of the classic.

Johnny Bulla, Pittsburgh pro playing out of Southern Pines, N. C., equalled the 70 for a total of 139.

Lowest round of the day was turned in by National Open champion Cary Middlecoff, the Memphis dentist now representing Ormond Beach, Fla., Middlecoff blazed to a three-under par 69 for a two-day card of 140.

Low amateur in the field of 60 which will go into tomorrow's finals was Harvie Ward, jr., of Tarboro, N. C. The 1948 North-South Amateur champ and present National Intercollegiate titlist, posted a 71 today, for an even-par total of 144.

Snead's 70 was typical Snead golf. He had three birdies and two bogies going out for 35 and played eight of the last nine at par. He birdied the 14th hole.

Middlecoff's concentration paid off with good pitches and sound putting to rack up four birdies and one bogey on the first nine. He was steady at par coming in.

Former PGA and British Open champion Denny Shute of Akron, Ohio, shot a 71 for a 141 total. Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C., tied him at that bracket as did Ted Kroll of Philmont, Pa.

Littlefield Juniors Bow To Carroll Thompson Calfropers

Carroll Thompson's Calfropers took a 26-0 decision over Littlefield's Juniors Thursday afternoon with Billy Foster catching eight passes for the Calfropers as he paced his team to victory.

Bennie McCullom skirted left end for 15 yards and the first Lubbock touchdown. Foster set up the second by catching a pass from Gary Garner and running 40 yards, with Garner scoring on a short plunge. A pass from Roy Day to Foster covered 45 yards to the one, with Day hitting McCullom for the touchdown. The last touchdown came when Ernest Eller ran 35 yards after a pass interception. Garner plunged for the last two conversions.

Radio Station KSEL will broadcast the Amarillo-Pampa game Saturday afternoon from Pampa. Both elevens, defeated by Lubbock, will be fighting for the District 1-AA conference lead.

SPORTS Slants
BY CHOC HUTCHESON

I see by the headlines that Casey Stengel, the flap-eared boss of the New York Yankees, has been voted the major leagues' "manager of the year."

His selection, of course, came as no surprise. Ever since Joe Page whiffed the last Brooklyn batter in this year's World Series, it has been a foregone conclusion that old Casey would be the choice as No. 1 pilot. A bet that the honor would go to Casey was as safe as grapejuice at a college prom.

In my opinion—and in that of 101 of the 116 writers participating in the poll—Stengel certainly deserved the accolade. After all, he won the world championship with a bunch of ailing ballplayers who were taking full advantage of their Blue Cross hospital memberships throughout the season. No man could have done more.

• • •

One interesting feature of Stengel's 1949 success was that it stymied a set of New York sports-writing "wolves" who, at the start of the season, were all set to call for Casey's scalp as soon as he made one false move.

The metropolitan writers, you know, were quite unhappy over the dismissal of Bucky Harris as Yankee pilot at the close of the 1948 season. Most of them expressed the view that Harris had been given a "raw deal" by the Yank front office, and contended that the management was making a classic boner in letting him out. Consequently, they were all set to pounce upon Bucky's successor — who turned out to be Stengel.

But cagey old Casey never gave them a chance. He put his club on top on opening day, and kept it there (or very, very close) throughout the campaign.

While I respect Harris' managerial abilities, I'm willing to concede that the Yankee big-wigs didn't hurt themselves when they replaced him with Stengel. Of course, Harris MIGHT have won the 1949 pennant. But the fact remains that Stengel DID win it, thus sparing the front office, and himself, a lot of criticism.

The radio announcer who told his listeners that Ben Procter, University of Texas end, dropped an "easy" catch in the end zone in the closing seconds of last week's SMU-Texas game was exaggerating more than somewhat. A photo in Tuesday's Daily Texan shows that actually Procter was attempting an extremely difficult over-the-head running catch when he dropped the pass that would have given his team victory... The big boys tell me that Pampa is going to spill Amarillo in today's District 1-AA feature, but I can't see it that way. Despite that whopping 47-7 loss to Lubbock, the Sandies still are one of the state's better schoolboy clubs, in my books . . . Don't forget tonight's elementary school "flag football" playoff between Sanders and P. F. Brown schools. It starts at 7 o'clock at Chapman field. Why not go out and get a preview of the 1955 Westerners?

..One of the region's biggest Class A crowds of the year is expected at Sudan tonight for the Hornet-Littlefield Wildcat scrap. This is another one of those grudge affairs where past performances can be thrown to the wind . . . Demand for a grid game matching McMurry with Hardin-Simmons is increasing down Abilene way, but it's almost a certainty that such a tilt won't be staged. Another controversy currently raging in the Abilene area is whether the Blue Sox should be in the WT-NM baseball league, or the Longhorn loop. Sentiment appears to be fairly evenly divided.

ARMY TEAM HAS IT EASY, BUT—

No 'Soft Touches' When Navy Makes Out Gridiron Schedule

By PAT ROBINSON
INS Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—We've had many queries recently seeking the reason why Army has such a soft football schedule and Navy such a tough one.

The answer, you may be sure, does not rest with the boys. For we are certain the Cadets themselves are just as eager as the Midshipmen to play the toughest teams.

Therefore, it is not too far-fetched to suggest that the reason for the difference in schedules is to be found in the difference between Army and Navy brass.

Army Plays It Safe

The Army plays it safe by scheduling soft touches through the season.

This may be due in part to Army's greater vulnerability to political pressure. We mean, let us say, that if "Senator Crossroads" is a power in the military affairs committee and says he'd like to see a certain college from his home state on Army's schedule, then that college is likely to get the game.

But Navy brass seems immune to political pressure. They just don't seem to give a continental. They go on their own merry way, come what may.

Paper Says Baylor Will Play Army In New Waco Stadium

SAN ANTONIO, Nov. 3. (AP)—The San Antonio Light says Baylor will play Army in the new stadium to be built at Waco, probably in 1951 or 1952.

The Light said Coach Bob Woodruff of Baylor hesitated to discuss the arrangements but said "We have been talking it over."

The paper said this will be the first game under a home and home arrangement that will take Baylor to West Point to play Army the following season. Woodruff formerly was the line coach at West Point.

O. L. Slaton's Redskins Down Lamesa Junior Eleven, 18-0

LAMESA, Nov. 3. (Special)—The O. L. Slayton Redskins of Lubbock defeated the Lamesa Juniors, 18-0, here today with Jimmy Welch scoring two of the visitors' touchdowns on gallops of 45 and 95 yards.

Dick Lowrey plunged over for the third tally from the one-yard line after the Redskins drove 85 yards. Lamesa never threatened.

For the Redskins Guard Jerry Martin and Donny Rappe played outstanding games, and Back Richard Lindsey showed up well.

Columbia Backs Coach Lou Little

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Last week the Columbia football team lost to Cornell, 54 to 0. The week before it lost to Army, 63 to 6. The preceding week it lost to Penn, 27 to 7, and the week before that it was defeated by Yale, 33 to 7.

Recital of the morbid statistics is just our circuitous way of getting around to a tribute to Lou Little, the Columbia coach, although we realize that the procedure is a little like rating a fighter on the number of times he gets knocked down.

However, it really is the reaction of the school and its followers to these defeats which offers the tribute, as no matter what Columbia's record might be there never is a whimper of criticism directed toward the coach.

The reasons are obvious to anyone who knows Little and is familiar with the type of school for which he labors.

In the first place, he is a gentleman in the true sense of the word, the kind of citizen you are proud to call a friend.

Secondly, his abilities are so well known that everyone knows he is getting the very limit out of his material, which this year is very limited, indeed, consisting for the most part of sophomores.

It also is realized that Columbia is anything but a football foundry which places the production of winning teams above everything else. It is a small school compared with those with which it does battle on the gridiron. The scholastic requirements are rigid, and players must necessarily be drawn from the college undergraduates.

We are pointing out these items just to offset the rather common idea that college football today is almost entirely on a high-pressure, win-at-any-cost level, and that the coach who doesn't make the loud and rum-nosed alumni happy through constant victories might as well be studying a time table, as he won't be around long.

Little is in his 20th year at Columbia. Some of the seasons have been fine, such as in 1933 when the Lions went to the Rose Bowl to defeat Stanford in the 1934 New Year's Day contest, and 1947, when they ended Army's long winning streak.

Others have been quite ordinary, and still others pretty frightful.

But in all those years of ups and downs and in-betweens Little has had the whole-hearted support of the school and the loyal followers who, no matter how good or bad the team, faithfully trek to the cozy wooden stands at Baker Field on the northern tip of Manhattan Island to moan or cheer.

Little's long residence at Columbia offsets the general idea that all football coaches are living on borrowed time and can look forward to only a brief sojourn at any one school unless they consistently turn out winners.

P. F. Brown, Sanders Meet For Flag Title

Lubbock's elementary school "flag football" championship will be at stake tonight at Chapman field when the Sanders Bulldoggers go against the P. F. Brown Buffaloes at 7 o'clock.

Admission will be 35 cents for adults and nine cents for children.

Coach William Lowrance's Sanders team recently won the city northern division title by downing George M. Hunt, 25-7, in a playoff game.

Coach Frank Latta's Brown eleven nosed out George Wolfarth, 19-18, in the playoff contest which decided the southern division championship.

Both Sanders and Brown have notched four successive league victories over the full season route.

Fred Egan, won the Hambletonian this year with Miss Tilly, says his two-year-old trotter Scotch Dean, will be even better than Miss Tilly.

Proposed Amendment Would Okay Jury Service For Texas Women

if a jury did not protect them.

No. 10

An amendment qualifying women as grand and petit jurors.

THIS amendment is self explanatory. Women cannot serve on juries in Texas now. They not only could, but would have to render such service, if the proposal is approved.

It seems a little unfortunate that this proposition could not be left entirely to a vote of the women themselves. Most men probably would take the attitude that if teh ladies want to serve on juries then, bless their hearts, let them serve.

Certainly no one has argued that they aren't as well qualified as men for such service. It has been demonstrated too conclusively for argument that they make just as good jurors as the mere males—maybe better.

Calm Consideration Advisable

But, before they stick their necks out, they might be wise to consider the consequences of what they are doing.

If the amendment is approved and they get a summons to jury service, it won't be an invitation. They'll be in court on time, or some nasty old judge may fine them, or put them in jail, or both.

If the summons happens to conflict with a party, or a vacation trip or something like that—usually they'll have to forego the party or the vacation, or whatever it may be, so as to render jury service.

If they happen to get on a jury on a long-drawn out criminal case, they won't get a chance to go home to care for husbands and children until the case is finished—which often might be several days; sometimes it might be several weeks.

* * *

AND there are no social or color lines on a jury. The close companions of a woman jury during the trial of any case would be largely in the hands of chance.

Likewise, in a great many courtrooms jury rooms lack the tidiness that most women prefer. Some of the rooms are plain nasty.

Furthermore, the housewife who employs domestic help might find herself out on a limb occasionally if this amendment is approved. The cook, or maid, as likely as not will be at the courthouse on a jury when she is needed most.

There also would be a lot of problems in business establishments of all kinds which employ large numbers of women. Some of them nearly always would be absent, in order to serve on juries.

Likewise, a cost element is to be considered. Taxpayers would have to pay the cost of providing separate quarters for men and women if the mixed-jury system should be adopted.

There's a lot to consider in connection with this amendment. But it is a safe prediction that if the jury "privilege" is extended to women, a great many soon will be wishing that it had not been.

NEWS BRIEFS

Seven women were arrested by police on charges of vagrancy by prostitution in two downtown hotels last night. Five of the women were released after payment of $25 fines each following their pleas of guilty to the charges. Two others, police said, pleaded not guilty and were released after posting bonds of $200 each.

Growing Tropical Storm Is Reported Threatening Cuba

MIAMI, Nov. 3 (INS) — A tropical storm in the northwest Caribbean sea near Swan island began increasing in force late today and threatened to move toward Cuba.

The Miami Weather bureau warned in a 2:30 p.m. (CST) advisory that the disturbance, bearing winds up to 55 miles an hour, is still in the formative stage and may grow stronger as it moves northward.

Its exact movement was uncertain this afternoon but forecasters predicted a probable northward track.

Weatherman said the storm diameter covers about 50 miles but heavy rain squalls accompanying the disturbance are drenching most of the northwest Caribbean area, including extreme western Cuba.

New Mexico Patrolman Drops Charges Against Police Chief

SANTA FE, Nov. 3—(INS)—A charge of assault and battery lodged against State Police Chief Hubert Beasley by State Patrolman Carlos G. Salas was withdrawn today.

The officers met with the state police commission today, and Salas issued the following statement:

"I regret the unfortunate occurence in Carlsbad. I have dismissed the charges and wish to state that in my opinion Chief Beasley is an outstanding officer and chief and I am looking for the sale of shares of common as an officer under the able direction and supervision of the chief."

Salas had charged Beasley with assault and battery following a scuffle at a dance given in Carlsbad for members of the New Mexico sheriff's and police association.

Yesterday in Las Cruces Salas had declared he had "no intention" of dropping the charges against Beasley.

Indians occupy almost five million acres of land in New Mexico.

Big Three Western Power Talks Likely

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—State department officials said today the possibility of an early meeting in Paris of Secretary of State Acheson, British Foreign Minister Bevin and French Foreign Minister Schuman is under discussion.

These informants said they understood the proposed Paris conversations would be concerned chiefly with German questions.

The meeting has not yet been finally agreed to but all indications are that the big three western foreign policy chiefs will hold a fast round of talks in the French capitol, possibly beginning late next week. The three last met in New York in September.

"Bacteriological warfare is a very terrible and a very inexpensive form of totalitarian warfare, in which every citizen in a warring nation is at war with every citizen in the opposing country."

REDS CLAIMED ABLE TO OVERTAKE U. S. IN ATOM RACE

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 3. (INS)—A top atomic scientist, Dr. M. D. Peterson, said tonight that the United States cannot stay ahead of Russia in the production of atom bombs.

Dr. Peterson, former director of the Oak Ridge, Tenn., Laboratory's technical division, said that both the U. S. and Russia will eventually reach "the saturation point." He added:

"After that, there won't be any reason for striving for superiority."

Dr. Peterson, now professor of chemistry at Vanderbilt university, declared that "eventually our country and Russia will have enough bombs to destroy each other and there will be no point to further A-bomb production."

The nuclear physicist made his declaration in an address to Hollins college students near Roanoke.

Dr. Peterson would make no predictions as to when either the U. S. or the Soviets will achieve this "saturation point."

But he made it clear that both countries will reach it—if they haven't already done so.

Brush Fire Forces Girls To Flee From California School

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3. (INS)—A roaring brush fire destroyed one luxurious home in mansion-studded Flintridge, near Pasadena, today and forced the evacuation of 150 girls from the Sacred Heart academy, a Catholic boarding school.

Dominican nuns calmly herded the girls into buses and drove them to the St. Francis preparatory school for boys, some distance away, until the danger was over.

At one time the flames swirled to within 150 yards of the academy.

Twenty mansions in the area, one of the world's most exclusive residential districts, were threatened and some of them were evacuated by their owners. Later the threat was relieved when the flames veered away.

SANTA FE, Nov. 3—(INS)—A Hobbs insurance firm and its president were named as defendants in a suit filed in Santa Fe federal court today by the Securities and Exchange commission.

The suit names the Empire Insurance agency and its president, Jeff B. Burleson, alleging that in the sale fo shares of common capital stock of the agency the defendants are making an untrue statement.

It also alleges that they omitted material facts in presentations to purchasers and prospective purchasers.

The Swedish academy, in shelving this year's literature award, explained through Secretary Anders Oesterling there were "too many" rather than too few candidates.

It was decided not to give the 1949 prize to an American because Thomas Stearns Eliot, American-born British poet, received the award last year.

In addition to Churchill, whose memoirs have given a new insight into World War 11, other candidates included Italian philosopher Benedetto Croce, Jean Paul Sartre of France, Per Lagerkvist of Sweden and Haldor Laxness of Iceland.

OFFICIAL DENIES TRUMAN TO HURL 'BOOK' AT LEWIS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—An administration official close to President Truman said tonight Mr. Truman has no present plans for invoking the Taft-Hartley law to end the coal strike led by John L. Lewis.

The official, who asked that his name not be used, was asked for comment on a story published in the Chicago Tribune that the President is preparing to "hurl the book" at Lewis.

The Tribune story went on to say that Mr. Truman was reported to have said he would not use Taft-Hartley against anyone but Lewis and "if I never get anyone else I'm going to get John Lewis."

The official recalled that Mr. Truman told a news conference a week ago he won't hesitate to use the Taft-Hartley strike-ending court injunction procedures to stop either the steel or coal strikes if he determines either has reached national emergency proportions.

"The President is counting on the coal strike being settled by collective bargaining, just as he is counting on the steel strike being settled by collective bargaining," the official said.

"Just as soon as we see what the steel strike settlement pattern is, we expect things to start moving in coal."

The official said the government's present policy in the steel-coal situation is to do everything it can to assist the disputing parties to settle their differences on their own.

He said President Truman feels the disputes can "probably be settled to the better satisfaction of everybody, and faster, in this manner than by invoking the Taft-Hartley law."

Young Mother Is Found Dead In Pasture Southwest Of Hereford

HEREFORD, Nov. 3. (AP) — A young mother was found dead in a pasture today with her baby daughter asleep in her arms.

She was Mrs. Lindsey Shields, 20. A Friona physician said she died of a heart attack. Justice of the Peace J. D. Hamlin of Friona returned an inquest verdict of death from natural causes.

Mrs. Shields was found in a pasture about a thousand feet from her farm home, which is four miles north of Black—about 15 miles southwest of Hereford.

A note left in her kitchen read: "I am ill. Am going to. . . ."

It was presumed she was stricken as she fed the baby at a kitchen table and had started in the direction of a neighboring farm.

Surviving relatives include the husband who was at his farm chores at the time of his wife's death; the daughter, Mrs. Shield's parents, two brothers and two sisters.

Changes In City Zoning Defeated

By ROGER SOUTHALL
Avalanche Staff Writer

Routine matters occupied the attention of member of the Lubbock City Planning commission at their regular monthly meeting last night in City hall.

The agenda included a number of zone change requests, five of which were rejected and two referred to the commission's zoning committee to be studied between now and time for the December meeting.

One plat was submitted to the commission, and was approved after such action was recommended by the platting committee.

Requests Are Rejected

Zone change requests rejected at last night's meeting were as follows:

Request from Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nelson to change lot 1, block 2, College View addition (located at 2501 Thirty-first) from an "A" single family residence zone to an apartment zone which would allow construction of an eight-unit apartment house.

Request from Mrs. Grace Davis to change the west 50 feet of the east 100 feet of the north one-half of tract 59, Arnett-Benson addition, from a "B" residential zone to an "F" local retail business zone which would allow the installation of a beauty shop. The property is located at 2709 Maple.

Waynick Request Denied

Request from Floyd E. Waynick to change the south one-half of the south one-half of block 3, Kinser subdivision of the northeast one-quarter of section 14, block B, from an "A" to an "F" zone. The property upon which such a change is requested is located between Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth from Adams Ave. to Jefferson Ave.

Request signed by approximately 16 property owners to change to retail business zone all property abutting Thirty-fourth street from Ave. X to Adams Ave.

Request of J. Y. Yeager to change lot 3, block 5, Summers-Cockrell addition, from a "B" to an "H" zone. This property is located at 1906 Ave. P.

Zone change requests to be studied at length by the zoning committee of the City Planning commission and reported on at the December meeting were:

Request from W. I. Peters to change lots 13 and 14, block 30, Maddox addition, from a "B" to an "F" zone which would allow the construction of a retail grocery store at the southeast corner of the intersection of Ruby street and Van Buren Ave.

Petition from 11 property owners on the west side of Avenue Q south of Thirty-fourth, requesting that their property be changed from a residential to business zone.

Joe B. Phillips presented a plat of Smithlawn addition, located east of Avenue H at about Seventy-fifth street. The commission heard a report from the platting committee and approved the plat on condition that a dead-end alley be eliminated.

K. N. Clapp, chairman of the commission, designated members of the commission's zoning subcommittee, composed of Homer D. Grant, Dr. J. T. Krueger, and J. H. Murdough, as empowered to act according to their best judgment in regard to questions of modern trends in intensity of land usage, in conjunction with the Lubbock Board of adjustment and the City commission if a joint meeting be requested.

That is, these three members of the planning commission would represent that body at any future meetings held with the Board of adjustment and the City commission to investigate the feasibility of reducing the number of square feet of land required for each individual dwelling unit, particularly such units in apartment houses and apartment hotels.

Members attending last night's meeting were Clapp, Dr. J. T. Krueger, W. L. Bradshaw, J. H. Murdough, R. L. Oldham, and C. J. Griggs.

service controversy took a new turn today when Senator Tydings (D-Md), a long-time Navy supporter, called for a bigger Army rather than more Navy strength.

Tydings said the United States is falling "pitifully" behind Russia in land power, while the U. S. Navy, he said, is "three times" stronger than the combined navies of the world.

He said the Russians now have 12 heavily armored combat divisions for every American division.

In air strength, he said, the United States and Russia are "about equal."

The Maryland senator, chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, spoke out following his return from a series of conferences abroad with European military leaders. He did not mention Russia by name but his allusions were obvious.

Bonham Foundation Set Up By Rayburn

BONHAM, Nov. 3. (AP)—Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn today filed papers for a "Sam Rayburn foundation" to build a library and auditorium in Bonham.

The veteran Democratic congressman filed a charter setting up the charitable trust and perpetuity with the Fannin county clerk.

Rayburn said he had no idea of the size of cost of the buildings, that he still had to find a lot and set of architects to work on designing the building.

"The people of Bonham and Fannin county, throughout more than half a lifetime, have been so uniformly kind and fine to me and have given me loyalty and love unsurpassed in any annals, I want a permanent evidence of my appreciation and love for them," he said.

"I want the library and auditorium here provided for to be theirs and their followers throughout the long years, where they can go freely, to read, to mediate, to visit and to rest from their useful labors.

"I have many valuable papers and documents that I want preserved that they may be used as beneficially as possible by the people in general."

Rayburn said that a $10,000 award he received from Collier's magazine for meritorious service in the House during the year 1948 would be the beginning of the foundation funds.

Members of the board of trustees of the foundation are Judge H. A. Cunningham, Buster Cole and Miss Lucinda Rayburn (the congressman's sister), all of Bonham; R. M. McCleary, Home Grove; A. L. Bartley, Ladonia; Ray Manning, Leonard, and Mrs. John Palmore, Ravenna.

Dickey pointed to the Amarillo campaign, where more than $75,000 of the North Plains city's goal of $157,000 was raised in the first two days of the drive.

"But they had teams out working and making calls as they should be made and therefore they got good results," he added.

Further efforts will be continued by the campaign leaders to get workers to turn in their reports as quickly as possible so that the campaign can be closed out quickly.

"A long drawn-out campaign keeps all of us from our regular work," Dickey said. "We should have had this job finished this week. So why not all get busy and wind up our task this week."

Truman Speaks

the extreme left with their talk about revolution and class warfare, and the reactionaries of the extreme right with their hysterical cries of bankruptcy and despair, lies the way of progress.

"Between these two extremes, the main stream of American life rolls steadily onward toward a better world."

Mr. Truman did not list what "fair deal" proposals he expects the 81st Congress to enact at its next session.

But he made it clear that civil rights proposals, a national health program and federal aid to education were still up on his "must" proposals.

He set out for "fair dealers" this 12-point creed:

1. "We believe that there will be more prosperity for all if all groups have a fair share of the wealth of the country . . .

2. "We believe that it is the federal government's obligation, under the constitution, to promote the general welfare of all our people—not just a privileged few . . .

3. "We maintain that farmers, like businessmen, should receive a fair price for the products they sell.

4. "We maintain that workers are entitled to good wages and to equality of bargaining power with their employers.

5. "We believe that small business, and co-operatives, should have a fair opportunity to achieve success, and should not be smothered by monopolies.

6. "We hold that our great natural resources should be protected and developed for the benefit of all our people, and not exploited for private greed.

7. "We believe that old people and the disabled should have an assured income to keep them from being dependent on charity.

8. "We hold that families should have protection against loss of income resulting from accident, illness or unemployment.

9. "We hold that our citizens should have decent housing at prices they can afford to pay.

10. "We believe in assuring educational opportunities for all our young people in order that we may have an enlightened citizenry.

11. "We believe in better health and medical care for every one—not just for the few.

12. "We believe that all Americans are entitled to equal rights and equal opportunities under law, and to equal participation in our national life, free from fear or discrimination."

Her severed arm was found along the roadway and placed in the woman's car, where it was found by investigating Highway patrolmen.

The arm was placed in a Hudman Funeral home ambulance which made the emergency run from Post but arrived after the woman had been taken to Slaton. Every finger on the arm was reported broken, and the forearm was twisted and broken in several places.

Post residents said Fannie Bell Gordon was one of the first of her race to live there. She owns a cafe in Post. Each Christmas, they said, she personally makes certain that the negro and Latin-American children of Post are not forgotten, providing food, clothing and gifts.

Baptists Select School Officials

Dr. O. W. English, Lubbock physician, was named to the board of trustees of Hardin-Simmons university at Abilene at a statewide Baptist meeting in El Paso this week, according to an Associated Press dispatch last night from El Paso.

Dr. English will serve a three-year term on the school's board of trustees.

At the El Paso meeting, board members for all Baptist schools and institutions in Texas were named.

Grounded Freighter Carrying Explosives Re-Floated By Tugs

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3. (U.P.)—Two tugs succeeded today in refloating a freighter carrying 9,300 tons of highly-explosive ammonium nitrate when it went aground at the mouth of the Mississippi river.

The freighter Green Mountain State, bound for the Far East with its dangerous cargo, was pulled loose from a mud bar at Southwest Pass.

The tugs "Bisco" and "W. A. Bisso," escorted by a Coast Guard ship, towed the vessel to anchorage off Pilottown, La., to see if any damage had occurred from strain.

Besides ammonium nitrate, the same stuff which set off the Texas City, Texas, holocaust two years ago, the ship was carrying oil. It went aground yesterday.

Scientists have estimated that in six months the progency of a single pair of houseflies could exceed 100 quintillion.

Three Post Bonds On Liquor Law Charges

Three men Thursday posted bonds totaling $1,800 in the county court of Judge Walter Davies following their pleas of innocence to charges of liquor law violation.

They were James D. Kinder, 23, of 1923 Sixth, $500; J. W. Hanson, 29, of the Arnett-Benson addition, $800; and E. K. Knight, 52, of San Diego, Calif., $500.

Kinder already is under bond of $600 as the result of his plea of innocent of a similar charge filed Oct. 13. Hanson was convicted of liquor law violation Oct. 21, and will face an enhanced penalty under the new charge, County Attorney Waggoner Carr said.

A fourth man, James J. Araje, was fined $150 and costs on a plea of guilty of liquor law violation.

NEW VACCINES TO BE USED

New Threat To Mexican Cattle Causes 'Grave Concern' In U. S.

BY VINCENT J. BURKE
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3—An agriculture department spokesman expressed "grave concern" today over the outbreak of a new and highly contagious livestock disease in Mexico.

It is a type of foot-and-mouth virus which hitherto had not appeared in Mexico. In an effort to eradicate another such virus, the United States has spent more than $60 million in the past three years.

B. T. Simms, chief of the Bureau of Animal industry, said the virus which caused the new outbreak could be termed a "new disease" as far as Mexico is concerned because vaccines used to protect Mexican livestock against the old virus provide no immunity against it. New vaccines will have to be used if the virus becomes widespread, he said.

The outbreak caused by the new type virus came just as official hopes were rising that the last trace of the disease might soon be stamped out south of the border.

But Simms told a reporter prospects for eradicating the disease in Mexico "were and still are good."

For nearly three years the United States has barred entry of cattle and other susceptible livestock from Mexico for faer the highly contagious malady might spread to this country. Such a development could seriously curtail the nation's meat and milk supplies.

Meanwhile, a joint U.S.-Mexican commission made good progress bringing the disease under conerol. Behind quarantine lines set up about 300 miles below the Texas border, the commission carriedried on a campaign of slaughtering and vaccination which eliminated all known infected animals.

Infected cattle killed

Every susceptible animal in the quarantine area was vaccinated. All infected or exposed animals were slaughtered.

There had been no sign of the disease for more than two months when an outbreak occured last month on a ranch 15 miles from Mexico City. The 269 cattle, sheep, goats and swine on the ranch were slaughtered immediately and their carcasses burned.

The department announced yesterday that tests at a special laboratory in Britain had shown that the outbreak was caused by virus "O" which had not previously been found in Mexico. Hitherto, the disease had been confined to virus type "A". Special precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of type "O", Simms said.

There are three types of foot-and-mouth virus, the third type "C". All three are present in South America.

Officials said the United States probably would not even start talking about opening up its southern border for entry of livestock from Mexico until a year has passed with no sign of the disease.

Tech Students Present Classic Comedy In Floydada High School

FLOYDADA, Oct. 3. (Special) — Texas Technological college speech department's production of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night hit the road tonight, playing before a large audieuce in the Floydada high school auditorium.

Original costumes and stage props made by the troupe were used in tonight's "streamlined" version of the play, which ran approximately 90 minutes.

Other performances to be given by the group include one at Lamesa Nov. 14 and another at Odessa on a date yet to be determined. Slaton high school has also asked the troupe to play there.

Twelfth Night, probably Shakespeare's most popular comedy, was first presented by the Techsans in five nightly performances on the Tech campus last week. The play marks the first attempt in at least 20 years by Tech students to stage a Shakespearean dramma.

Decision to take the show on the road was made in an "effort to present classical drama to high school students and others as it was intended to be staged," according to Miss Annah Jo Pendleton, head of the speech department. The presentations also give the players training in adapting themselves to different stages, she said.

Miss Cecilia Thompson of the speech department is director of the drama and John Upshaw is technical director.

Flowing Well Completed In Cochran

Wildcat Test Slated In Central Borden

R. S. Brennand, jr., of Midland is to start operations at once on a 9,500-foot Wildcat to explore the Ellenburger in central Borden county.

The exploration will be his No. 1 W. D. Everett. Location is seven miles southwest of Gail, 660 feet from north and west lines of section 7, block 31, TP survey, T-4-N.

That makes it four miles south of the Don Ameche, et al, No 1 Clayton and Johnson, slated deep prospector, which had spudded and reached 2,310 feet anhydrite, at last report.

The Brennand venture is in the northwest corner of a block of 1,100 acres of leases which he owns in the region.

Superior Oil company and Seaboard, Oil company of Delaware are supporting the development.

LEVELLAND FIELD WELL COMPLETED FOR PRODUCTION

Lion Oil company has completed its No. 1 F. O. Masten as a three-quarter mile southeast extension for production from the San Andres to the Levelland field in central Cochran county.

Flowing through a 25/64th inch tubing choke, the extender made a 24-hour production of 202.17 barrels of oil. Gravity of the oil was not reported. Gas-oil ratio was 494-1. It also made 1.6 per cent drilling water.

Completion was from open hole between the 5½ inch oil string cemented at 4,943 feet and the total depth of 5,030 feet. That section was treated with acid.

The new well is 440 feet from north and east lines of labor 12, league 132, Carson County School Land survey.

WELL REACHES NEW HIGH IN NORTH SNYDER FIELD

Tide Water Associated Oil company No. 4 House, one location east of the closest completed oil well on the east side of the North Snyder field in north-central Scurry county, appears to be the highest exploration so far drilled in that region.

It topped the Canyon reef lime at 6,173 feet, on an elevation of 2,431 feet to give it a datum of minus 3742 feet.

According to some geologists that makes it ten feet high to the Castlemen & O'Neal, J. R. Hunter and Walter Duncan No. 1 Huckabee, one and one half miles due south, which has held the record up to now for being the North Snyder field's highest well. The No. 1 Huckabee is completed and on production.

Tide Water No. 4 House was making hole below 6,700 feet in lime. It has not made any tests since entering the Canyon. Operator plans to continue to 6,780 feet, set casing, test and complete.

Location of the high well is 467 feet from south and east lines of section 384, block 97, H&TC survey.

MIDLAND MAN SEEKS SCURRY DRILLING PERMITS

Fred T. Jeter of Midland has filed an application with the Railroad commission requesting a permit to drill two wildcats in central Scurry county, just north of the city limits of Snyder. Both are to be drilled to around 7,200 feet to test the Canyon reef lime, the pay in the North Snyder field, to the north.

Jury Answers Issues In Court Action Here

A 72nd court jury returned answers to special issues at midafternoon Thursday in the compensation action of Clyde Robinson against Texas Employers Insurance association.

Based upon the answers, the law firm of Boling, Smith and Allen, counsel for Robinson, a 29-year-old negro, will ask Judge Dan Blair, presiding, for judgment, it was believed.

The jury found that Robinson was injured Feb. 11 in the course of his employment; that he was totally incapacitated for 21 weeks, partially incapacitated for 52 weeks; and that his partial incapacity was 50 per cent.

That would mean an approximate recovery of $1,175, court officials said.

The answers were signed by C. G. Barkley as foreman. Judge Blair dismissed the jury for the

Parliamentary-Minded Thief Steals Gavel From Parked Car

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 3 (AP) — Are the thieves holding business meetings these days?

Joseh C. Nettleton, business agent for Local 56, AFL-meat and cannery workers, told police yesterday someone broke into his parked car and stole a gavel given him by fellow union members.

Houston Swiftly Ends Bus Strike

HOUSTON, Nov. 3 (AP) — CIO bus drivers in Texas' largest city held a 12-hour strike today but settled for a 13-cent hourly pay hike.

The estimated 175,000 people who take 300,000 bus rides daily got to work this morning the best way they could. Some buses were back in operation by the time the late afternoon return home rush began.

A Houston Transit company spokesman said operations would be normal by morning.

The bus system is the only means of transportation for this city of more than 500,000 people.

Peace Efforts Continue

The 1100 bus drivers and mechanics struck at 12:01 a.m. Negotiations continued in the office of Mayor Oscar Holcombe.

A 722 to 47 vote accepting the company's settlement proposal was announced at 12:10 p.m. A strike vote last Friday had carried 791 to 76.

The union had demanded a 30-cent boost above a $1.17 average hourly wage. The company had offered 10-cents plus contract benefits said to equal another five-cents hourly.

L. M. Coates, vice-president of the bus company, said "Naturally we will have to ask the city for a raise in fares as soon as we get back in operation."

Work Week Set

He said the settlement included a standard work week of 51 hours with time and one-half for all work over 8½ hours a day.

The employes had been working as much as 60 hours a week without special overtime.

Elaborate plans had been made for handling an anticipated downtown congestion of private vehicular traffic resulting from the strike.

Hundreds of business firms had arranged car-pools for getting employes to work.

But the congestion did not materialize. City Traffic Engineer T. E. Willier said traffic actually flowed smoother than under normal conditions.

His conclusion: "Buses cause a big traffic problem."

Four Persons Die In Oklahoma Farm Fire

KANSAS, Okla., Nov. 3. (U.P.)—Funeral arrangements were being made today for four members of one family killed in a fire at their farm home near here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brewer and their sons—Dwight, 3, and one-week-old Larry—died yesterday in the blaze which followed an explosion.

A visiting neighbor, Waide Turtle, 39, suffered critical burns when his clothing caught fire as he ran from the house.

Three other Brewer children, Dewayne, 14, Jerry, 7, and Oleva, 5, escaped without injury. They were in a bedroom of the farm residence.

Investigators said the explosion was set off when the 43-year-old father tried to start a fire with kerosene. Flaming oil was scattered through one room of the four room dwelling.

OPENS NEW REALM FOR TOURISTS

El Paso-To-Mexico City Paved Highway Is Almost Completed

EL PASO, Nov. 3 (AP) — In just a few months the Mexican Central Highway from El Paso to Mexico City will be open to tourists.

It's a new paved route that explores colorful section of the land below the border, and it will be an important segment in the proposed hemisphere highway from Gutamala to Alaska.

Gov. Foglio Miramontes of Chihuahua, Mexico, says it will be completed by the end of 1949.

Already a few tourists have traveled the unfinished highway. Detours are necessary from Parral, in the state of Chihuahua, to Durang, capital of the state of Durang. Otherwise, the entire road from Juarez to Mexico City is completed.

The major concern o ftourists thus far is the lack of suitable tourist accomodations, but there are expected to improve once the highway is completed. Many of the old hotels and restaurants along the route have begun remodeling and enlargement programs.

From the Mexican border city of Juarez, the road winds through five Mexican state capitals, to health resorts, fishing and hunting paradises, and quaint Mexican villages.

Chihuahua is the first big city after Juarez. Beyond Chihuahua are Boquilla Lake, where good fishing is reported and the hot sulphur spring of Camargo.

Parral, a copper and silver mining town, has alarge American settlement.

At present, the highway from Parral to Durango is unpaved but convenient detours to Torreon, a thriving commercial and agriculture center, lead tourists around this section and allow them to continue to Durango, a major entrance to the rugged Sierra Madre mountains. Durango is also the principal point on an unfinished road leading to Mazatlan, celebrated resort city located on the West Coast of Mexico, which is only an hour's flight away by Lamsa Airlines, the Mexican affiliate of United Airlines. The area around Durango offers hunting for bear, deer, mountain lions, ducks and geese.

Side Trips Interesting

From Durango, the highway leads through the mining and cattle center of Fresnillo to Zacatecas, capital of the state of Zacatecas. High in the Continental Divide. Zacatecas presents an unusual architectural picture with its native houses, steep streets and tiny street cars.

Leaving Zacatecas, the tourist can take side trips to such spots as San Luis Potosi, famous for its ancient churches, climate and hunting; Guadelajara, one of Mexico's largest cities and capital of the state of Jalisco; and beautiful Lake Chapala. Aguascalientes, another stop on the highway, is one of the few silk worm culture centers on the North American continent. Near it are catacombs, excavated by some Indian tribe of unknown origin.

Leon, second largest city in the state of Guanajua to, is distinctive because of its narrow, cobblestoned streets. After Lean, Francisco Eduardo de Tresquerras, to whom the city owes its architectural beauty.

Belond Celaya, the road reaches few large cities but goes through rich cattle-raising country whose unfenced ranches are patrolled by vaqueros, the Mexican equivalent of American cowboys.

The fipal stretch of the highway leading into Mexico City is perhaps the most beautiful and interesting portion of the entire route. Aztec Indian ruins and pryamids, along with the ancient monasteries of the Spaniards, can be seen nestled in the mountains surrounding the Mexican capital on all sides.

When the new highway is completed it will join the Pan American highway at Mexico City to make a complete loop through Mexico. Starting from either El Paso, Laredo, or Brownsville, tourists will be able to touch major points of interest in the Mexican interior, using Mexico City as the southern base.

George Berry Urges Poll Tax Repeal Vote

George Berry, Lubbock attorney and former assistant state attorney general, Thursday told members of the Kiwanis club "the only way to keep the federal congress from intervening in our state's rights is to vote for Amendment 4 in next Tuesday's election.

Speaking at a luncheon meeting in Hotel Lubbock, the former state American Legion commander, said the proposed amendment is not actually a poll tax repeal "but a means to establish governmental machinery for repeal of the poll tax by the legislature and for the removal of the poll tax as requirement for voting."

He quoted from the United States constitution in order to prove his point that the federal government has the power to intervene when poll taxes are required before a citizen can vote.

Berry also cited that it is feasible that the federal government can cut down the number of congressional representatives from Texas to 11 if the state fails to comply with the standards set by 41 states of the Union.

"Virginia is voting on a similar amendment next Tuesday also," he illustrated, "in order to protect its states rights.'

Berry failed to take a concrete stand on proposed Amendments 1, 2, 3 and 5 but said he favored passage of the last five proposals.

He was introduced by Preston Smith, local theater magnate and member of the state legislature. Fred Sparks presided.

Customs Broker Denies Motors Involved In Smuggling Plans

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3. (AP)—A customs house broker claims that 42 warplane engines involved in smuggling charges were not banned for export.

John L. Westland testified at the trial of seven men accused of conspiring to violate the neutrality act by smuggling planes and aircraft parts to Israeli forces during the recent war in Palestine.

Westland told the court he filed the proper customs declaration for the export of the engines and added he was commissioned by Ray Selk, one of the defendants, to file the declaration.

In addition to Selk, the defendants are Adolph W. Schwimmer, former president of Service Airways, Inc., of New York; Herman M. Greenspun, Las Vegas, Nev.; Sam R. Lewis, Los Angeles; Abe Levin and Leon Gardner, both of North Hollywood, Calif., and William Sosnow, New York.

NEW MEXICO OIL FIRM STAKES SCURRY LOCATION

Velma Petroleum corporation of Hobbs, N. M., has staked location for a one-half north outpost to the northeast side of the Diamond-M field in southwest Scurry county.

The project, No. 1 J. L. Green, is projected to 6,800 feet to test the Canyon lime reef, using rotary tools.

The drillsite will be 607 feet from south and west lines of section 213, block 97, H&TC survey, and eight miles west of Snyder.

Drilling is slated to begin November 5.

DALLAS MEN STAKE SCURRY COUNTY LOCATION

Youngblood and Foree of Dallas have staked location for a northwest offset to Standard-Fryer Drilling Company No. 1 Wilkinson, Canyon lime discovery between the North Snyder and Kelley fields in central-Scurry county.

The drillsite is 467 feet from north and east lines of lot 19, section 40, Kirkland & Fields survey, and three miles northwest of Snyder.

It is slated to drill to 6,800 feet.

NEW EXPLORATION IS SLATED NEAR SNYDER

Bert Fields of Dallas is to begin drilling soon at his No. 2 P. J. Harmon, contracted 7,000-foot exploration in the Kelley field of central Scurry county, four miles west of Snyder.

Location for the venture is 467 feet from south and west lines of section 210, block 97, H&TC survey.

A new producer for the Kelley field is King, Warren & Dye, Inc., and others, No. 2 L. L. Lewis.

Flowing natural through a 32-64th-inch tubing choke, the well rated a calculated 24-hour potential of 1,380 barrels of 43-gravity oil and no water from the Canyon reef lime.

Gas-oil ratio was 1,360-1. Flowing casing pressure was 650 pounds and the flowing tubing pressure was 720 pounds.

Completion was through perforations in the 7-inch oil string between 6,760 feet and 6,767 feet. Total depth of the project was 6,775 feet.

This new source of oil is 660 feet from north and west lines of section 210, block 97, H&TC survey.

STANOLIND WELL TAKES TEST, DRILLS DEEPER

Stanolind Oil & Gas company No. 1 Whatley, wildcat three miles north of the northwest side of the North Snyder field in central-north Scurry county, was drilling deeper in the Ellenberger past 9,265 feet in detrital and lime.

The project took a drillstem test from 8,202-8,260 feet. The tester was open 90 minutes. There was a light blow of air at the surface throughout the test. Recovery was 150 feet of oil and gas and salt water cut drilling mud. It is to be drilled to 8,300 feet and take another test.

Top of the Ellenberger was picked up at 8,210 feet. Elevation is 2,572 feet.

Up to now this project has not developed any signs of production, either in the Ellenburger and zones above that formation.

Location is 660 feet from south and east lines of section 548, block 97, H&TC survey.

SCURRY WILDCAT IS ABANDONED AFTER TEST

Ray-Harris Drilling company and associates No. 1 Laura B. Smith, central-south Scurry county wildcat, 15 miles southwest of Snyder, and one and three-quarter miles east of the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field, has been plugged and abandoned as a failure on a total depth of 8,111 feet in Ellenburger.

That formation was entered at 8,052 feet. Elevation is 2,315 feet. It made slight shows of gas and had considerable sulphur water.

There was no signs of petroleum in any of the upper formations.

The venture was 660 feet from north and west lines of section 159, block 97, H&TC survey.

THE GOOD NEWS SPREADS ALL OVER TEXAS...
"Magic" Cooking, Baking, Frying Results Are Easy with New, Homogenized Swift's Jewel Shortening!

CHALLENGES THE COSTLIEST... COSTS MUCH LESS! SAVES 5¢ TO 7¢ A POUND

There's a new "headliner" in the shortening field! Swift's new, homogenized Jewel Shortening. Only recently introduced, this new product challenges costliest brands. Yet it costs 5¢ to 7¢ less per pound.

The new Jewel employs a controlled homogenization process in the blending of its fine vegetable oils and meat-food fats.

As a result, the finished product is of highest quality with a remarkable smooth and even texture. No other shortening is more nutritious or more digestible.

Many of the compliments now being lavished on Jewel by enthusiastic homemakers concern its use in preparing fried foods of all kinds. For this new shortening remains smoke-free and free from objectionable odors at extreme cooking temperatures. Actually, its "smoke-point" is 40° higher than costliest shortenings.

The thriftiness of the new product, has also come in for its share of applause. Many homemakers, in fact, state that they have been able to purchase 4 pounds of the new homogenized Jewel for the same price they usually pay for 3 pounds of costliest shortenings.

MAN AND WIFE AGREE:
"JEWEL CAKES TASTE PERFECT"
JEWEL'S "SMOKE-POINT" 40° HIGHER!

Simple test proves it won't smoke up or smell like costliest shortenings!

Dramatic proof that Jewel is smokeless is offered by a recent test comparing Jewel with three costliest shortenings. In every instance, Jewel demonstrated a marked superiority.

The test consists merely of placing equal amounts of Jewel and any costliest shortening in two separate pans of the same size. To verify temperatures reached, a cooking thermometer (preferably two) is used.

As identical heat is applied the expensive brand will begin to smoke and give off odors.

Jewel, however, can be left until its temperature is 40° higher than its competitor's.

Home economists agree that the perfect deep-fat frying temperature is 365° to 375°. Expensive shortenings will begin to smoke at 360°. Jewel, however, could be heated to 400°.

LIGHT, TENDER, FLUFFY... AND THEY COST LESS TO MAKE!

Want to keep hubby happy—and cut down on food costs, too? Then here's good news!

With the new, homogenized Jewel Shortening you can cook to his heart's desire—and save money while you do. For new Jewel—although it costs much less than costliest brands of shortenings—challenges them all when it comes to results.

In Memphis, for example, Mrs. J. A. Perry reported making a Jam Cake that would "just melt in your mouth!" While in New Orleans, another homemaker, Mrs. Alice H. Langston stated that her husband "just loves his biscuits made with Jewel!" Mrs. Langston further commented: "With the amount of shortening we use, we figure our savings on Jewel at about $8.00 a year. That'd buy plenty of eggs!"

As Swift's famous test kitchens have discovered however, Jewel's magic is not restricted to cakes and biscuits. Piecrusts, cookies, fried foods of all kinds, likewise benefit when new Jewel Shortening is used.

No Other Shortening Is More Digestible Or More Nutritious!

Don't be fooled—say scientists.

Just because a shortening costs more doesn't make it any more nutritious or digestible.

Actually, any fats—including the fine vegetable and meat-food fats in Jewel—are among the most completely digested foods.

Furthermore, all fats are important in good nutrition. For they yield 2¼ times as many energy units per pound as either carbohydrates or proteins.

In other words, money can't buy a more nutritious or digestible shortening than new Jewel. Not even if you pay $10 a pound!

Like Fried Chicken? Here's How to Add a Touch of "Magic"!

Developed by Swift's famous Martha Logan, here's a special fried chicken recipe featuring new Jewel Shortening. Just follow the 6 magic steps indicated for your convenience.

1. Clean, wash and drain a 2½ to 3 lb. (dressed) chicken. 2. Cut into serving pieces. 3. Measure ¼ cup flour and 2 tsps. salt into a paper bag. 4. Drop in each piece of chicken separately and shake until coated. 5. Heat enough Jewel Shortening to make ¼ inch depth in a large skillet. 6. Fry chicken over medium heat, turning until golden brown. Reduce heat, cover and cook about ½ hour, until tender. Uncover and cook ten minutes.

Challenges the costliest...costs much less!
Based on a new and different formula—blended by homogenization for extra smoothness and even texture. So economical you can purchase 4 pounds for the same price you usually pay for 3 pounds of costliest shortening brands.
NEW! HOMOGENIZED! THRIFTY!
IT'S DIGESTIBLE... AND NUTRITIOUS TOO!

A CHALLENGE

City Bond Proposal

MEMBERS of the Lubbock City commission face a challenging decision, with the showdown in prospect at a special meeting today.

They must decide whether to call a bond election to finance the needs of growing Lubbock and, if the election is called, the size of the issue to be proposed. The commissioners face these problems with the knowledge that they will be criticized for whatever they do.

We will not attempt to debate the pros or cons of a bond issue at this time. Like most Lubbock people, we intend to see what may be proposed before deciding our attitude concerning it.

It seems sufficient for the moment to observe that, from the present viewpoint, it is difficult to see how growth can be sustained without a bond issue to pay for the improvements which result from that growth. If there is any other practical way of financing these needs, we are not aware of them.

But, in pondering the problems facing them, we believe the commission can rest assured of at least two facts, if the members decide upon a bond election; the first is that they should get it over with as soon as possible; and, secondly, that while they are about it, they might as well propose an issue for a sufficient amount to provide for needs. It probably will be no more difficult to obtain approval of a large bond issue, if the needs reasonably can be justified, than a small one. Most Lubbock residents, we believe share the opinion that if this job is undertaken, it should be done right.

Members of the commission unquestionably are studying the problem diligently and conscientiously. They have been seeking the opinions of many residents of the City as to whether the election should be called and, if so, for how much. Their findings probably represent a fair cross-section of the citizenship of Lubbock.

There may be disagreement, in short, with the necessity and wisdom of what they may decide. There will be no question worthy of consideration as to the honesty of their decisions.

A Proof Of Danger

THE collision of a fighter plane and an airliner which cost 55 lives near Washington this week will cause many people here to view with added misgivings the proposal to utilize Lubbock Municipal airport for part-time military aviation training.

The Washington tragedy has emphasized the dangers which attend the mixing of military and civilian aircraft over any air field. The civilian craft usually is in the greater danger by far. Military planes, as a whole, fly much the faster of the two and a considerable element of safety in their construction and operation is sacrificed for speed and maneuverability.

The proposed training program over Lubbock Municipal airport would be additionally hazardous because students, and not trained and experienced pilots, usually would be at the controls of the military craft. An error in judgment or loss of control for a split second of one of those planes while an airliner was landing or taking off—and there now are 28 of these daily at Municipal airport, with more in prospects—might cost 20 or 30 lives. In addition to the airline planes, there are about 50 other landings and takeoff's per hour by other civilian craft.

The facts are not mentioned in any desire to retard in any way the training program at the newly reactivated Reese Air Force base here. Lubbock should and unquestionably will do everything within reason to cooperate with RAFB in obtaining the facilities to train enough pilots to justify its existence.

But the latest tragic evidence from Washington gives warning against cooperation to an extent which invites catastrophe over Lubbock Municipal airport.

The difference between a general practitioner and a specialist is that you have to make an appointment to see a specialist.

Someone To Love

BY IRENE LONNEN ERNHART
Distributed By NEA, Inc.

(THE STORY: Jenny's marriage to Tod Duncan had never been happy because of Liz Conover. Liz gets Tod a job with her father's firm and there is gossip. Jenny asks Tod for a divorce and he agrees. Jenny finds a housekeeper to take charge of the twin Duncan boys, her sons and Tod's, and buys a half interest in a swank women's clothing establishment. Meanwhile, Tod is going to marry Liz, but grows angry when Liz ridicules Jenny. But Liz is able to wrap Tod around her finger. Tod shrinks from the divorce trial, when his marriage to Jenny will be mulled over by curious hands.)

• • •

THE day of the divorce hearing dawned at last; one of those drizzly September days. When it was over, Jenny had gained custody of the twins, but the decree would not become final for six months.

The judge's words resounded in Jenny's mind as Rick drove her away from the courthouse in his car. "For the sake of your two children, if nothing else, you two people should have tried in every way possible to make a success of your marriage. But if you have left nothing undone, and still cannot live together in any semblance of peace and happiness, there is nothing else to do but to cross your marriage off the books as a failure."

She had tried. She had loved Tod.

Rick put his hand over hers. "I could tell you were miserable. But there had to be unpleasantness attached to it, you know. I wonder what Tod thought about the six months' wait for the final decree."

"I imagine he didn't like it," Jenny said.

• • •

TOD, in fact, had been stunned by the verdict. He ought to feel happy that the divorce had been granted. He was free. Only, you were never quite free of someone with whom you had lived and shared things as he and Jenny had. Besides there were the boys. His sons. When they had been infants, he'd not paid too much attention to them. They were more like animals then than anything else, fiercely demanding little animals to be contantly diapered and fed and rocked and bathed. But now they were becoming little people. The past few times he had seen them, he hadn't wanted to say goodby.

He started for the office. Liz was waiting for him.

"Six months more!" she cried, when he told her about the trial. "That's not fair! Why should a doddering old judge have the power to arrange people's lives like that?"

Tod stood looking out at the traffic moving by in the wet street below. "That's the way it is."

"Surely you can do something, if you've any backbone!" Liz cried.

He hated that note of petulance that was always creeping into her voice. What he needed now was warmth and comfort. He turned away from the windows and tried to take her into his arms. "I would, Liz," he whispered, "if I knew what to do."

"If you knew what to do!" she said fiercely. She shrugged away, picking things up on her desk and slamming them down again. "You could have gone to Reno or Mexico and got a divorce right away!"

Liz crushed out her cigaret and whirled about. "If you were as much in love with me as you claim, you'd have insisted that the judge make the decree final!"

"But if I had made a fuss about it ... not that it would have done any good—think how hurt Jenny would have been."

"Jenny! What about me?"

"I wouldn't have gotten the divorce to begin with if I hadn't thought I was in love with you!"

"Thought!"

"You know I was never able to quit thinking of you, all the time I was married to Jenny," he began uncertainly, "But I was in love with her too in a way. She was good to me and sweet—"

There was a short shocked silence. Liz's face had turned white and her hand trembled as she reached for a fresh cigaret. "I suppose," she said coldly, "that you think it was your native talent that got you this good job with father."

"Your father was always interested in me." He didn't mean to sound on the defensive.

"He was interested in you because I begged him to be," Liz cried shrilly. "My father always got me what I wanted. And I wanted you. That was why he hired you. For me! Not because you have any advertising talent!"

Her face twisted with contempt. "You don't have talent for anything. I wonder why I tried so hard to get you!"

TOD began to feel cold all the way through. He picked up his topcoat and hat and went out of the office. He went directly to see Mr. Conover.

Mr. Conover was uneasy but quite frank. He didn't know they had quarreled. "Liz is a funny girl," he said thoughtfully. "She cabled me two years ago while she was on her honeymoon with Jim Courtney, telling me to insist that you take the job we'd planned for you here. I tried to rope you in, not knowing why. When she

See SOMEONE TO LOVE Page 9

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

A RECENTLY published cartoon by E. Simms Campbell gave me quite a chuckle and an idea.

It showed the usual prosperous-looking elderly gentleman in mustache and Tuxedo with the usual luscious but dumb-looking blond.

BRANDEIS

He was showing her his collection of mounted fish—which is somewhat a change from the usual routine of prosperous-looking elderly gentlemen showing luscious but dumb-looking blondes their etchings.

Most of the fish were small and medium size, the kind you and I catch when we go fishing.

But one display was huge—only there was no fish in the frame. It was empty.

Proudly the gentleman pointed to it and said:

". . . And this is my prize specimen . . . the one that got away. . . ."

Most of us haven't any collection of mounted fish in our game rooms. Most of us haven't even any game rooms.

But almost every one of us has, at least in his mind, "the one that got away."

And to most of us, as to Simms Campbell's gentleman, "the one that got away" is also our prize specimen.

• • •

Lest this observation be not entirely clear, let me elaborate a bit on it.

You may have a perfectly good husband—or wife, as the case may be.

You have lived together for quite a while and you have become something of routine to each other.

Familiarity, you know, does breed routine.

So every now and then you go into the game room of your memory and think of "the one that got away."

He or she becomes more glamorous in your mind. You see him or her as he or she looked—years ago (please fill in the figure yourself), until that one who got away becomes a shining knight or a beautiful princess in that game room of your memory.

• • •

I DO wish, for your own and each other's sake, that you could meet that "prize specimen" and see what it really looks and is like today.

I would not be a bit surprised if, could you see this "prize specimen" today it would remind you of nothing so much as—a dead fish.

We have lots of other such "prize specimens" that got away in the attics of our memory.

There is the job we did not get. There is that stock we did not buy. There is that trip we did not take.

There they are—in an empty frame, and each time we look at them these might-have-beens become more beautiful and grand with every thought of them.

Let's forget about the fish that got away and that would be nothing but stuffed specimens by now.

Let's enjoy the fish we caught.

"Oh, Clarissa, I fixed that crack in the wall!"

IN EVENT OF WAR

Navy's Job Still Big

By ROGER WARREN
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—"Why does the Navy continue to fight against the other branches now that the hearings are over and the public has been shown the need for unified defense?" asks M. C. L. of Houston.

Answer: The Navy primarily is not fighting its sister services. It is trying to argue the case for sea power. The admirals fear that the air and ground brass are so absorbed in their own ambitions and problems that they fail to understand the importance of the Navy in modern war.

The oceans will still be vital factors in another conflict. Only two friendly nations can be reached by land—Canada and Mexico. Even Latin America's link is by sea or air. Hence to strike the enemy we must cross water and he, in turn, must do the same to hit us.

• • •

ROUTES: Although Russia has no Navy except submarines, we need ships to command the sea routes. At the time the Japanese navy had been practically wiped out, we had to maintain 1,200 ships of all types to fight the Okinawa battle. About 10,000 Navy men were killed or wounded; not a single one of these casualties was caused by enemy naval vessels.

In addition to landing an invasion force in Europe or Asia and supplying it, the U. S. Navy would have to protect islands from which we draw raw materials. It would defend our cities from missile-launching subs and underwater craft carrying atomic bombs by employing hunter-killed task forces composed of destroyers and small aircraft carriers.

Moreover, in early stages of a war, the Navy would bomb vital enemy centers until enough transoceanic planes were available or advance bases secured. This is a navy's historical role. As far back as 1657 the admirals reported to Oliver Cromwell, "After we destroyed the ships, we plied our guns against the forts." Our deep water men still think they must share in this task.

• • •

TRUTH: "How can Vishinsky make such awful charges against Americans?" ask T. F. D. of Harrisburg, Pa. "He has been in the U. S. A. enough times to know these things just aren't true."

Answer: He does not want to know the truth. At United Nations conferences those of us newspapermen who covered the sessions frequently tried to set him right on specific allegations. The Russian statesman would grin, wave aside our answers and plunge into a new falsehood.

Brigadier General Frank L. Howley, who returned to Washington after a term as Director of U. S. Military Government in Berlin, reports that during a total of 1,600 hours of discussions with various Soviet officials, he discovered that their most consistent characteristic was "complete disregard for truth."

"They do not know how to tell the truth," he declared, "because they believe that only what they are saying is the truth. Since what they are saying at the moment is intended to advance Russian interests, in their minds it is true."

• • •

SMART: A. R. B. of Sacramento, Cal., writes: "The recent Congress passed farm bills which gave prosperous farmers more money than ever before and may boost the high cost of food. Was this smart, politically?"

Answer: The Truman High Command thinks so, as did most Republican members of Congress from agricultural districts in voting for the measures.

Last November the Democratic leaders themselves were surprised by the size of the vote receivd from normally Rpublican farm territory. The early election returns showed Truman ahead by only a million votes in the big industrial states. His own cronies went to bed fearful of what would happen when the so-called down-up-state vote came in from the rural belt and the West. But even this vote went mainly to the President.

• • •

WOO: Since then Democratic strategists have been making plans to hold this territory. The San Francisco and Des Moines regional conferences are steps in ths plan.

Senator Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, miffed by the Administration's coolness to certain Southerners, maintains that the Trumanites are overlooking Dixie and are taking Horace Greeley's advice, "Go West, young man." If he is correct, Horace would roll over in his grave as he was one of the most important figures in the early success of the G. O. P.

The Democratic scheme is to capture the farm belt and the West by a "bread and water" policy—90 per cent price supports to the raisers of food and all sorts of water developments to woo the West and the Pacific Coast.

The planners call this program the development of our natural resources. To the East this means subsidizing the West to put it into competition with the Atlantic seaboard. Acually it means various river projects to furnish drinking water, irrigation, flood control and hydro-electric power.

• • •

INSURANCE: Major examples are the Missouri and Columbia River projects. The 81st Congress appropriated funds for the Bonneville Power Administration in the Pacific Northwest. Legislation also was enacted to develop the Weber Basin in Utah and the Folsom Dam in California. The House approved a bill to construct irrigation canals for the Sacramento Valley in California.

Truman was defeated in some of the eastern industrial states. Woodrow Wilson, discovered that he could afford to lose New York so long as he took California. The Democrats, though hoping to hold the urban Middle West and East by means of the labor vote, are writing an insurance policy which will give them the West in case of need. Most experts would say that is smart politics, if they can get away with it.

Believe It Or Not -

OTHER DAYS ARE RECALLED

World Makes Fast 'Progress'

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—About 1908 or 1909 or around that time there was a pitcher on the Atlanta Crackers in the Southern league by the name of Corkscrew McKenzie who made a complete turn to face second base on every delivery.

Quite a thing for a boy to see.

And there was Dode Baskert who introduced the belly slide. We'd watch breathlessly as he took out from first base and then dived about halfway to second — or so it seemed — and stirred up a cloud of dust from which usually, at least before they got on to his trick, he would emerge safe and smiling, his feet securely planted on the bag, and shake off the dust, a conquering hero. He went to the Cincinnati Reds.

STOKES

• • •

Unusual Catch Recalled

Then there was Dick Crozier, center fielder, who climbed up on the rickety fence—it was only about head high—and nabbed a fly ball to squelch a rare home run of those days and forever after was our special hero.

All of which is leading whither, kind sir?

Nowhere in particular, except it ought to be permissable, nay compulsory, for a pundit to climb down off that pulpit on which every columnist, so-called, takes his stand daily, at least one day a year, and a good day seems to be a birthday.

• • •

ALL that, of course, is a pretense to a sort of humility, but it isn't real humility, you must know, since humility isn't in the blood of our breed. We're born preachers. The real reason, to be honest, is an excuse to get out of work for a day, and romance and reminisce instead, which seems valid for a birthday. For there are friends to be greeted and candles to be lighted and toasts to be drunk—

To a member of the class of '98. Friends are nice that way.

Let somebody else settle the coal and steel strikes and bring peace between us and the Russians and worry about President Truman's worries, and Clement Attlee's worries, at least for today. Let us be boys again. Here's to all of us of the class of '98—not old, only 51, not young either. But what a heap of things we've seen!

Youngsters though we are, we can remember the first automobile in our neighborhood, and the first telephone and the first airplane at the state fair, and, also at the state fair, "Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight," that dauntles girl hanging on to the bell rope among the flickers in our first moving picture.

We really knew miracles—we of the class of '98. You can have your fast, modern automobiles, your super-duper airplanes, your radio, your television, even your atom bomb. We had our wars, too. We were born during one little war, of which the only memory, since we were but babies, was the tune we learned to whistle later, "There'll Be A Hot Time In The Old Town Tonight." We had fun playing at Japs and Russians as small kids to celebrate another war clear across the world which came to us only vaguely, just Japs and Russians, not the "Yellow Peril" and "the Reds." That's happened since.

• • •

Saw Bigger Wars

We have come, in our more mature years, to see a couple of really big wars. They get bigger al the time. Now we talk too glibly about "a third World War."

We have smartened up—we human beings. We've made real progress in half a century, really have. It's a different world, a spick and span world, full of gadgets to save us steps and muscle, to whisk us somewhere else in a hurry, to kill off each other in job lots.

• • •

ON another birthday a fellow likes to crawl back away from all of this into the refuge of the past for a day—of a day in November which is the melancholy to look back on it, for the autumn sun played over the waving goldenrod on the hill, and the ground was covered with hickory nuts, and yates apples were coming in sweet and juicy, and there was a fresh and pleasing chill in the wind that made the rug in front of the fire a cozy magic carpet to watch the dreams come and go in the flames. No garish, gaudy, chromium-plated dreams of cowboy moving-picture stars, or streamlined automobiles, or planes as fast as sound that scream of death, or atom bombs.

But Corkscrew McKenzie winding up, and Dode Paskert sliding into second, and Dick Crozier climbing the fence, and Buffalo Bill, himself, once a year, in the flesh, with his neat beard and handsome sombrero, shooting those glass balls. And Teddy Roosevelt, a frolicking national character, with vim, vigor and vitality and a mouthfull of teeth.

Tomorrow again—problems for the pundit and the preacher.

Today—"curfew shall not ring tonight."

WTCC Water Development Meet To Be Held At Fort Worth Nov. 22

ABILENE, Nov. 3 (Special) — Largest attendance since prewar general conventions is predicted by officers of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce as the organization makes ready for its annual business assembly and water development banquet set for Tuesday, Nov. 22, at Fort Worth

Attending the latter, in addition to the WTCC's directors and distinguished guests, will be delegations from local chambers of commerce, mayors, city councilmen, water improvement association officials, and others from an estimated 140 West Texas towns.

Groups Plan To Attend

With the gathering still three weeks away the WTCC headquarters office has had a word from directors and chamber managers in many towns that they are already organizing their attendance. Memphis, Ranger and Haskell were first in with their orders for banquet tickets totaling 28, and assurances of delegations numbering from 5 to 15 have been received from Pampa, Dalhart, Big Spring, San Angelo, Colorado City, Roscoe, Roby, Ballinger, Sweetwater, Stephenville, Cisco, Eastland, Stamford, Rochester; Abilene, WTCC's headquarters city, and Odessa, hometown of President John D. Mitchell.

The confident prediction is that 1,000 or more West Texans will be in on the sumptuous banquet at Fort Worth's Texas hotel. That city's delegation is expected to number several hundred and, joined by Abilene's group, will host the concluding session.

Half-Day Session Set

The WTCC's executive board decided this year to hold a half-day convention. It will start at 1:30 p.m. on the 22nd with the annual business-only session at which around 200 directors and other delegates are expected. This will be held in the main dining room of the Worth hotel and will close around 5 o'clock. Then the entire concourse will meet at the Texas hotel for the banquet set to start at 6:30 p.m. There the speaker will be Julius A. Krug, secretary of the U. S. Department of interior. The secretary's address will be on "West Texas' Water Problem and Solution."

Distinguished Guests Expected

Amon G. Carter, sr., honorary lifetime director of the WTCC, will be banquet master of ceremonies. The distinguished guest list will include Michael Strauss, commissioner of the U. S. Bureau of reclamation; Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon Johnson; House Speaker Sam Rayburn; high officials of the state government; and members of the U. S. Congress and State Legislature from West Texas districts. A program feature will be the presentation to Commissioner Strauss of a portfolio containing letters from more than 100 West Texas towns setting forth their critical need of adequate municipal domestic water supplies.

The banquet will be in celebration of the Reclamation bureau's surveys now under way of West Texas upstream reservoir sites, to be followed by construction of a series of multi-city dams. convention, and its work program Over-all theme of the WTCC for 1950 and the long future, is WATER—as expressed in the adopted slogan: "Dam West Texas or West Texas Is Damned."

Five Negroes Perish When Fire Sweeps Chicago Home

CHICAGO, Nov. 3. (AP) — Five negroes, including two boys, perished and about 20 others suffered injuries in an early morning fire which swept through a three-story south side apartment building.

Some 50 of the 200 negroes living in the 54 small apartments were carried down ladders from the flaming building at 5634 South Parkway. Several persons leaped to safety while others were injured as they jumped in attempting to escape from the fast spreading flames.

Firemen fought the blaze in below freezing weather for two hours before getting it under control.

Police said the dead included two boys about eight years old who died in the Provident hospital, a woman, and two men. They had not been identified early.

Tod put on his topcoat. He felt as though the floor had given way beneath him. But before he could leave the office, Liz burst in. She came up to him and slid her arms around his neck, contrition written all over her lovely face.

"I'm sorry, Tod. I'm a perfect beast sometimes," she whispered.

Louisianan Taken For 'Ride' After Robbery

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3. (AP)—Three bandits robbed a service station manager of $139 before dawn today and then took him on a terror ride.

After debating among themselves about shooting the man, they finally set him free unharmed.

The victim, G. E. Marshburn, 36, of New Orleans, said he got a good look at the man who argued against shooting him when the latter gave him a light for a cigaret.

Police began a search for an escaped convict from Angola, La., penitentiary who was identified from a picture.

Marshburn told detectives Marco Spicuzza and Frank Cassard.

About 4 a. m. a car pulled into the station where Marshburn is night manager. Two of the men got out and entered the station office. One pulled a pistol and ordered Marshburn to "give me what you've got there."

The manager handed over his wallet containing $99. Another $40 was taken from the cash register. The men then ordered him into their car for a "little ride."

One suggested shooting him but the man sitting beside Mashburn disagreed. The third suggested shooting him in the leg "so he can't run."

But at a remote spot near a canal, the trio released him.

NEW OFFICIALS ELECTED AT SESSION

Fort Worth Layman Named As Leader Of Baptist Convention

EL PASO, Nov. 3. (AP)—The Baptist general convention of Texas named William Fleming, Fort Worth layman, its new president today before ending its 1949 session with a night meeting.

Fleming succeeds Dr. Wallace Bassett, pastor of the Dallas Cliff Temple Baptist church. He was elected on a standing vote in a runoff with Dr. Porter Bailes, pastor of the First Baptist church of Tyler. No tally was announced.

Officers were elected and resolutions adopted in an afternoon session. The convention decided to meet next year on Nov. 7 at Fort Worth.

Trustees Named At Session

At a morning session it picked trustees for Texas Baptist institutions.

Dr. Perry Webb, pastor of the First church of San Antonio, was the third candidate for president. The first vote—by secret ballot—gave Fleming 256, Bailes 201, and Webb 104, and sent Fleming and Bailes into the runoff.

Dr. W. Herschel Ford, pastor of the El Paso First church, was named first vice-president; Dr. J. W. (Bill) Marshall, president of Wayland college at Plainview, was elected second vice-president.

The secretaries were reelected. They are Dr. D. B. South, superintendent of City missions, San Antonio, and Roy L. Johnson, pastor of the First Baptist church at Canyon.

Church Official Reelected

J. Earl Mead, minister of education for Cliff Temple Baptist church, Dallas, was reelected secretary of the Baptist corporation.

The convention voted to ask the governor and legislature for a liquor referendum in Texas. It adopted an amendment to the constitution that any elected delegate to the convention must belong to the church from which he is elected.

A proposal for a committee to report to the next convention on methods to meet certain moral and spiritual problems was adopted. Dr. Bassett completed naming the committee. A resolution that the convention endorse the Texas freedom and progress week proclaimed Dec. 25-Jan 1 by the governor was adopted.

Officials Are Named

Dr. Bassett named to the committee to report on the moral and spiritual problems: Dr. A. B. Rutledge of Marshall, Dr. Herbert A. Howard of Dallas, Rev. J. A. Ellis of Sherman, and Rev. Jesse Northcutt of Abilene. Dr. W. R. White, president of Baylor university; A. C. Miller of Dallas, and T. D. Maston, professor of social ethics at Southwestern Baptist Theological seminary, Fort Worth, already had been named to the committee. Maston presented the report on the committee to the convention.

The committee will consider methods to meet these stated problems:

To keep up the evangelistic record of the Baptist church.

Failure to establish moral ideals of Christianity in the world.

A broader application of the Gospel in everyday life.

The fact that some Christians are oppressed by conditions around them making it difficult to live as Christians. Among these were named racial prejudice, beverage alcohol, gambling, divorce, employer-employe relations, Communism, and the threat of war.

Speeches by Dr. Dale Moody of Southern Baptist theological seminary, Louisville, Ky., and Dr. W. Marshall Craig of Gaston Avenue Baptist church highlighted a morning session.

C. Wade Freeman of Dallas, reporting on the department of evangelism, said associations and districts have been organized for a statewide evangelistic crusade. He said, "we pray that 100,000 will be reached for Christ."

Abilene Man On Program

Rev. Jesse Northcutt, pastor of First Church, Abilene, gave the Christian education report, and Dr. David M. Gardner reported on the Baptist standard. Dr. Gardner of Dallas, is editor of the newspaper.

Trustees for Mexican Baptist Orphans home of San Antonio were re-elected. Dr. Hal F. Buckner of Dallas, president of Buckner Orphans home, was named an honorary life member. Other trustees elected are Mrs. J. L. Moye, Rev. Carl R. McGinnis, and Mrs. W. P. Coleman, all of San Antonio.

New trustees for the standard are D. J. Ralph Grant, Lubbock, three years; M. B. Carroll, Henderson and A. B. White, Dallas, two years; Ray V. Mayfield, Houston, two years; James N. Morgan, Fort Worth, one year; Perry F. Webb, San Antonio, one year.

Re-elected for three terms were: P. D. O'Brien, Big Spring; A. C. Donath, Conroe; J. H. Landes, Wichita Falls.

U. S. May Develop Into Dominating Power In Future World Struggles

BY J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Is it true that the United States is on the way to "world dominance such as no other nation ever enjoyed," as Senator O'Conor of Maryland told the National Foreign trade convention in New York this week?

That the non-Communist nations tend more and more to revolve around the United States can hardly be disputed.

And new strands of the ties by which they are bound are being woven every day.

Increased Imports Urged

O'Conor added that the country must become "import-minded as well as export-minded," and Dean Acheson used almost the same words to emphasize it before the same group. The exporters were told that it was no longer healthy to sell more than you buy—that the "favorable" trade balance was too big, no longer means what it used to mean before the U.S. became the one big creditor for the world.

Acheson said trade barriers—tariffs—would be reduced to encourage this—to increase the market here for what the rest of the world produces so it can trade for what we produce.

There are a lot of conflicting interests involved. Some areas produce the same things we do, will compete with American firms for home markets, and with American products for world markets. A lot of people usually get hurt—and holler loudly—in such an adjustment.

Great Powers Diminish

There does seem to be a tide in the world which runs toward fewer great powers. There are two pre-eminent ones now—Russia and the United States. All the runners-up are in the American camp, now bidding for security rather than leadership. The contest for leadership is between the two.

This struggle, says President Truman, is between one ideology backed by a moral code and one not backed by a moral code.

"My ambition is to show that ideology backed by a moral code can do the best for the people of the world."

It does seem that, if America wins this struggle, the world is in for a period of one-power pre-eminence approachin domination. Whether "domination" would then retain its traditional unsavory connotations would depend upon what the possession of such great power does to the character of the dominator.

Dedication Of Base To Be Held Later

Formal dedication of Reese Air Force Base will be announced at a later date, officials at the base said Thursday.

The delay in the dedication ceremonies has been brought about by the lack of adequate facilities to handle properly a ceremony of this nature, the announcement said.

When the date for the dedication has been set, transportation will be furnished for all the relatives and friends of Lt. August F. Reese, jr., for whom the base was named, who wish to attend the formal dedication ceremonies.

Three Latin-American Nations Launch Anti-Tuberculosis Drive

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 3 (AP) — The three largest Latin-American countries are inoculating children to halt the white scourge of tuberculosis.

Mexico, especially, is aiming her drive at babies, trying to inoculate them within a week after birth. This year 5,045 have been vaccinated.

Tuberculosis specialists from Brazil, Mexico and Argentine, brought reports on inoculation to the Pan-American congress of pediatricians (baby doctors) today.

The inoculations use the Calmette-Guerin bacillus, the BCG treatment.

BCG is not used much in the United States, although a Chicago tuberculosis specialist reported it is "safe and has a definite value."

Methods of vaccination and reports on its efficiency vary from one country to another.

Heavy Death Toll Marks Highway As 'Boulevard Of Broken Bodies'

By LOU PANOS

BALTIMORE, Nov. 3. (AP)—A boulevard of broken bodies—that's the 30-mile stretch of U. S. Route 1 linking Washington with Baltimore.

Some 25,000 wheeled monsters whiz along the road every day.

Persons living along the highway—there are more than 50,000 of them in about 57 cities, towns and villages—usually refer to it as the boulevard. But they have other names for it, too. Like Hell's Highway and Bloody Lane. Another is Suicide Pike.

Heavy Toll Taken

Sgt. J. K. Cushwa of the Maryland State police estimates there are about 1,500 accidents on the boulevard every year. He says about half of these never are investigated because they involve only minor damage and are not reported to police.

The others range from collisions which injure no one but tie up traffic for miles to spectacular smashups involving several vehicles. Most of the automobiles and trucks in accidents which are investigated are from out of state.

Cushwa's files contain pictures of twisted autos, bloody corpses and hysterical survivors.

Death List Grows

Smashups this year already have claimed at least 27 lives. For the first six months of the year the injured rate was about 18 for every fatality.

Among the summer accidents was one involving a bus, a tractor-trailer, and a passenger auto.

Witnesses said the tractor-trailer jacknifed, swinging its rear section across the highway. The bus, traveling in the opposite direction, plowed into the trailer and sent it spinning into a convertible.

20 Persons Injured

Two occupants of the convertible were killed and 20 bus passengers were hurt.

Although the boulevard contains many dangerous curves and is dotted with traffic lights, state police point out two curious factors about its death rate.

One is the relatively high number of pedestrians included among the fatalities; the other is that most of the accidents occur on straight runs, not curves.

Mind May Be Cause

Cushwa thinks there may be a psychological element behind the preponderance of collisions on the straightaways.

"Apparently many of the victims were familiar with the road or watched road signs warning them about the dangerous curves," Cushwa said. "Once they passed the curves, they probably were eager to resume their faster pace and relaxed their caution."

From time to time engineering improvements on the boulevard have been suggested. The Maryland state roads commission has carried out many of these, but lately it has been reluctant to tackle those which involve major expenditures.

Super Highway Planned

The state has agreed to a plan for building a super-highway on a split-the-cost basis with the federal government, and this project has been given priority over more expensive improvements on the existing Baltimore-Washington boulevard. The state has made some progress on the section it is to build, but lack of federal appropriations has retarded work on the stretch to be built by the government.

But regardless of what some people say about the condition of the existing road, authorities contend it all really goes back to that basic cause of accidents: the condition of the man behind the wheel.

Plan To Land U.S. Naval Agents In Japan During War Disclosed

By JAMES E. BROWN
INS Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 3 — A cloak-and-dagger plan to land U. S. undercover agents on Japan by submarine early in 1945 and organize a peace drive among high-placed sympathizers including the dowager empress was told by its sponsor today for the first time.

He is Douglas Fairbanks, jr., a naval intelligence officer during World War II.

The movie actor now working on a film in London said the idea had wide support in Washington and President Roosevelt was actively interested.

Faith In Plan Asserted

Fairbanks said he himself is convinced that the scheme would have worked and might well have ended the war six months before the first atom bomb was dropped.

But, he said, the plan apparently died with the President.

Fairbanks recalled that he had been asked by Roosevelt to come to Warm Springs, Ga., and outline the details. He said he was starting for Washington to get permission from his naval superiors when he heard of the President's death.

He did not imply that the President's death prevented a quicker end of the war with Japan, but expressed the conviction that Roosevelt was the only one whose imagination might have been caught by the boldness of the plan.

Green Light Possible

The movie star pointed out that Roosevelt, with his immense influence, could easily have given a green light to those who had worked out the plan.

He said that as a reserve officer he is not permitted to give the strategy in detail, but said the "full papers are still in the files of the Navy department."

(In Washington, the Navy confirmed in general the existence of such a plan, but refused to give any details.)

Experts Work Out Plan

"In retrospect, I remain convinced that the idea would have worked. The whole plan was worked out in collaboration with some of the best Far Eastern experts in Washington — men like Eugene Dooman of the State department (now retired).

"They all agreed that our lowest possible expectation would be to cause serious dissension and disputes among the leaders of the Japanese government. And—if we did only that, let alone cause a peaceful surrender — the effort would have been worthwhile.

"This much I can say:

"Our naval intelligence had learned through various channels that there were several influential figures in Japan who desired a negotiated peace. Among these people, and certainly the most eminent, was the dowager empress."

Group Not Cohesive

Fairbanks explained they were not a "cohesive" group, had no underground contact with one another, and said he doubted if they even knew of each other's view.

"Our first task," the movie star said, "was to contact them individually and unite them as a force."

He continued:

"To put it more simply, the situation was equivalent to that which would have existed if the German intelligence had reason to believe that such diverse figures as Gen. Marshall, Gov. Dewey, Ernest Bevin, and Gen. Charles de Gaulle's brother were in favor of peace.

"Not one of them singly could have carried out a negotiated peace, but, together, they would have been a potent force.

Landing Party Planned

"I would be proud to claim that I had volunteered to lead a party to be landed in Japan from a submarine, but I regret that it is not true. The landing-party who were to contact certain people in Tokyo were only a small part of our overall scheme. Even if the men had been captured, the rest of the plan would have worked."

Fairbanks explained that the personnel for the submarine landing party had not been picked because that stage had not been reached in the planning.

But, he said, it was an "even chance" that he might have led the party because of his previous two years' experience working behind the enemy lines on various missions in Europe and the Mediterranean.

The actor added:

Actor Visits Tito

"I was often deep in German and Italian territory, and I once landed on the Dalmatian coast on a combined British-American PT-boat visit to Marshal Tito. The Yugoslav leader gave me two tins of anchovies as a souvenir."

Fairbanks pointed out that racial differences would have made such sorties in Japan difficult.

He declared that he did not know the dowager empress of Japan, but said the emperor, when he was a crown prince, once visited his father in California.

Question By-Passed

Fairbanks refused to discuss the "purely hypothetical question" of whether it was necessary to drop the atomic bomb on Japan, but said that "as a matter of fact, even without the bomb, we had an excellent plan of invasion ready in every detail."

The actor added:

"But I believed then, and I believe now, that my scheme would have worked — at best, it might have ended the war, and, at worst, it would have weakened Japan by causing internal diversions.

"I have no objections to having every word of the whole plan published. But it is the property of the United States Navy, and it is for them to decide. I may sometime again be back in uniform, so I can say no more.

Rayburn Advises Texans To Eliminate State's Poll Tax

BONHAM, Nov. 3. (U.P.)—House Speaker Sam Rayburn advises his fellow Texans to eliminate the state's poll tax.

The alternative, he said, is to have the tax abolished by federal action.

Rayburn's advice was dropped yesterday during the course of an impromptu speech before the Bonham Rotary club. The question of poll tax abolition is on next Tuesday's special Texas election ballot.

Of the two courses—action by the state or he federal government—the former is much more desirable, Rayburn said.

TEXAS LADY LOSES 47 POUNDS

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful. In fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger. Barcentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is proof

Here is what Mrs. H. P. Bishop, Route 2, Stamford, Texas, wrote us:

"I am very glad to endorse Barcentrate, so please accept my sincere thanks and appreciation for the great benefit I derived from its use. I not only lost weight, but also looked and felt better in every way.

"I had to have a very serious operation and was told that I must lose a lot of weight before the operation could be performed. I went on a diet and tried very hard to reduce, but wasn't losing much weight until I heard of Barcentrate. I began taking it and could soon tell the difference in the way I felt and the weight I was losing. I weighed 200 pounds when I started and I lost a total of 47 pounds and was able to undergo my operation. I can truthfully recommend it to others, since it did so much for me."

At all druggists

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

CHINA CONSIDERED UNIMPORTANT

U. S. Support Of Pacific Union Matter Of Timing, Quirino Says

By HOWARD HANDLEMAN
Far Eastern Director, INS

MANILA, Nov. 3. — President Elpidio Quirino of the Philippines declared today that open American support of the proposed anti-Communist union of Pacific nations "is merely a matter of timing."

Quirino indicated strongly that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist China is no longer important in plans for the Pacific union "but will be welcomed as a participant because it is one of our anti-Communist neighbors."

Like both his opponents in the presidential election next Tuesday, the Philippine chief executive is a strong advocate of an Asiatic anti-Communist union "but not an alliance." He said he believes that "in their hearts Americans support the Pacific union concept and will take an active role later."

Quirino revealed that Gen. Carlos Romulo, Philippine Ambassador to the United Nations and President of the UN General Assembly, telephoned him from Lake Success to report that Asiatic countries of the UN favor the Pacific union.

Felino Neri, undersecretary of foreign affairs in the Quirino cabinet, told International News Service that developments of the Pacific anti-Communist union has been delayed because Romulo is occupied with important tasks at Lake Success.

Neri said that Romulo, who has been charged with the spadework of organizing the union, will resume work on the project as soon as the UN general assembly is recessed.

Quirino dodged questions on possible Philippine recognition of Communist China and a diplomatic break with Chiang's Nationalists.

Neri said flatly that the government is not prepared to discuss recognition of the Chinese Communists at present, but he explained that "geographic propinquity and cultural ties force our government to seriously consider the China problem."

Neri asserted that the three presidential candidates in next week's election agree on foreign policy.

Jose Laurel, one of Quirino's opponents in the election, told International News Service that the Pacific union concept is good, but must have American support. At the same time he complained that Americans are "back-seat driving" in the Philippines and should relax such control. He declared:

"We have independence, but that is not enough. Real independence is attainable only when backseat controls are removed."

Woman Begins Court Fight To Regain Lost U.S. Citizenship

MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 3. (U.P.)—Mrs. Elsie Brown Brehm of St. Louis, Mo., said today that she plans a court fight to regain the U. S. citizenship which she lost when she voted in a postwar German election.

Mrs. Brehm arrived here yesterday from Germany with her 12-year-old son, Ralf. Ralf was admitted as an American citizen because he was born before his mother's citizenship was withdrawn.

She told immigration authorities that she went to Germany in 1932 and married a German but never renounced her U. S. citizenship.

Mrs. Brehm admitted voting in the 1946 German election but said she didn't consider Germany a foreign country, because U. S. occupation forces are still in control.

She has filed suit in U. S. District court in Houston, seeking to regain her citizenship. She plans to live in Houston with her brother, Dan Brown. Her husband remained in Germany.

Soil Conservation Team To Hold Meetings In West Texas Nov. 14-18

Burlington Lines of Fort Worth Thursday announced the team that will conduct soil conservation meetings at selected West Texas and Panhandle points Nov. 14-18.

The team will consist of M. K. Thorton, extension agricultural chemist, and A. H. Walker, extension range specialist of Texas A. and M. and the Cook county range management team, composed of B. T. Haws, county agent, Douglas Robison and Billy Whitt.

The meetings are being held under the sponsorship of the Burlington Lines and the Second National bank of Houston in cooperation with the U. S. Soil conservation and the Texas A. and M. extension service.

Prior Experience Cited

Thorton, author of "Soils and How to Treat Them" and "Fertilizer Recommendations for Texas," has been an agricultural chemist for A. and M. since 1938. A native of Arkansas, Thornton came to A. and M. in 1919 after receiving his master of agriculture from Columbia. He served in the Chemical Warfare service of the U. S. Army during the war.

Walker, a graduate of Texas A. and M., has been associated with the extension department since 1937 when he served as county agent for Culberson county. After service in the Army he returned to agriculture work as county agent of Menard county. He received the appointment to extension range specialist in June, 1948.

Problems To Be Discussed

Walker will talk on the condition of range lands and some of the major problems confronting ranchmen. He will discuss brush infestation, overgrazing and droughts. Thorton will discuss soil building generally, emphasizing the value of legumes and fertilizers in soil building.

Meetings will be held in Shamrock at the Community building Nov. 14 at 1 p.m., in Childress at the high school auditorium Nov. 15 at 7:30 p.m., in Quanah at the Texan theater Nov. 16 at 2:30 p. m., in Henrietta in the Dorothy theater Nov. 17 at 2 p.m., in Spur in the Spur theater Nov. 18 at 1:30 p.m. and in Stamford in Round-Up hall Nov. 18 at 7:30 p.m.

Farm Group Stresses Importance Of Poage Rural Phone Measure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (Special)—The American Farm Bureau federation has mentioned the Poage rural telephone bill today as next to the Anderson-Aiken-Gore price support measure in importance of farm legislation passed at the 81st Congress' first session.

Rep. Poage, 11th district, Waco, is its author.

The Farm bureau proudly announced in a weekly column from Washington that it had supported the bill, testified in its behalf and advocated amendments which were accepted.

The bureau also patted itself on the back for helping to pass the Anderson cotton allotment bill sponsored by Sen. Clipton Anderson of New Mexico.

Much Effort Expended

The bill was passed after many months of effort on the part of its sponsors to get new legislation applying to cotton acreage allotments and marketing quotas. Rep. W. R. Poage, Waco and Rep. Eugene Worley, both members of the House Agriculture committee, worked hard on this bill, too. Poage was on the conference committee between House and Senate.

The measure provides that quotas shall be proclaimed whenever the supply of cotton exceeds normal, and the secretary of Agriculture must proclaim quotas not later than Oct. 15. The quota referendum must be held not later than Dec. 15. The national marketing quota is not to be less than the smaller of 10 million bales or one million bales less than the domestic consumption and export of cotton in the preceding marketing year. National acreage allotment for 1950 is not to be less than 21,000,000 acres.

Texas Jaycee Board To Hold Meet Here

500 Expected To Attend Session

Jim St. Clair of Levelland has been named to serve as general chairman for the officers clinic at the annual fall board meeting of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce to be held here Saturday and Sunday.

L. D. Whiteley of Lubbock, a national Jaycee director and general chairman of the meeting, Thursday afternoon said plans for the meeting have been completed and that 500 Jaycees from 128 Texas towns are expected.

To Start Arriving Today

"Many of the visiting Jaycees will begin arriving here Friday afternoon and night," Whiteley said, "and Clifford D. Cooper of Alhambra, Calif., national Jaycee president, will arrive at Municipal Airport Saturday morning."

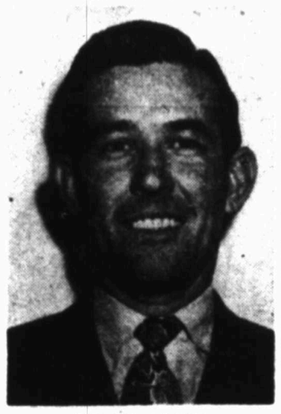

It was announced earlier in the day that Dr. J. W. Marshall, president of Wayland college at Plainview, will speak on "Jaycee Universal Understanding" in one of the feature addresses of the two-day conclave.

The keynote address will be given by Cooper at noon Saturday at the Hilton hotel ballroom. Harold Clayton, a national director from Port Arthur, will be master of ceremonies. Bill McDaniel of Dallas, a national director also, has been named chairman of the general assembly which opens at 3 p. m. Saturday in the ballroom.

Preceeding the general assembly by an hour will be four concurrent clinics. St. Clair will conduct the clinic for Jaycee officers in the ballroom. Americanism, Public Affairs and Public Health clinics will be held at the same time in the Yaqui, Navajo, and Chimayo rooms respectively.

Festivities for Saturday night include a smorgasbord dinner and a dance.

About ten bids were offered for the general contract and at least ten bids were made for each of the others.

The architects are Haynes & Kirby of Lubbock.

The building will have 18 classrooms, a study hall, office, auditorium, clinic and heating plant. It will be situated east of the high school building on the Tahoka highway. Construction will start immediately.

Bolivian Flier, Told Of Crash, Reported In Critical Condition

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. — The battered Bolivian pilot whose fighter plane rammed a giant airliner was reported in critical condition tonight after learning the extent of Tuesday's disaster.

All 55 persons aboard the passenger ship were killed. It was the worst airplane crash in history.

Doctors attending the pilot, Erick Rios Bridoux, at a hospital in nearby Alexanderia, Va., said he is suffering from pneumonia as well as a fractured spine, three broken ribs, head lacerations and multiple bruises.

News that Rios Bridox had taken a turn for the worse coincided with a disclosure that someone finally had informed him of the magnitude of the catastrophe. Conscious throughout, he had begged repeatedly for newspapers but had been told he was in no condition to read.

Hospital attendants said that once cheerful, Rios Bridoux had become listless and somewhat uncooperative.

The crash occurred about noon Tuesday. The broken DC-4 plane of the Eastern Air Lines plunged into the bank of the Potomac river just south of the National airport. The Bolivian's fighter ship hit the river, throwing him out.

Rios Bridoux was flying alone in the P-38 fighter he had purchased here for the Bolivian government when spectators said he struck the liner as both ships came in for landings.

The Bolivian, with a fractured spine, broken ribs and head lacerations, learned only yesterday that his plane had been in collision with an airliner and that a lot of people had been killed.

Rescue workers were probing the muddy bottom of the river for the last remaining bodies.

The Civil Aeronautics board hopes to be able to begin an official investigation of the disaster next week.

Oilman McCarthy Drops Offer To Back Stadium In Houston

HOUSTON, Nov. 3. (AP)—Oilman Glenn McCarthy has withdrawn an offer to underwrite half the cost of a $6 million municipal stadium.

He said he notified a special city council stadium committee of his withdrawal several weeks ago.

Councilman Harry Holmes, in making a committee report to the council yesterday, had said McCarthy would underwrite half the cost of the 75,000 to 100,000 seat stadium by purchase of 3 per cent bonds.

"Sure, I made the offer," McCarthy said today, "that was several months ago. I gave them the ball and they either couldn't or wouldn't carry it."

He added quickly, however, that he still thinks Houston will get a stadium seating at least 75,000 people.

Freight Service Extension Urged

The growing importance of Lubbock and Odessa as wholesale supply centers was pointed up Thursday in a hearing held here before the Motor Transport division of the Texas Railroad commission.

This situation was brought out by witnesses from Odessa and Borger testifying in favor of an application by Curry Motor Freight Lines, Inc., for extension of its Odessa to Amarillo line on to Borger.

Fourteen business men gave testimony before Horace Soule, chief examiner for the Motor Transport division.

Lubbock Group To Testify

The hearing, being held in the north ballroom of Hotel Lubbock, recessed Thursday night until 9:30 today. About 16 witnesses from Lubbock are expected to appear today in favor of the Curry extension.

Completion of the Lubbock session is expected by early afternoon, with opponents to the application expected to call in witnesses in a two-day hearing scheduled in Amarillo on Dec. 7.

Witnesses from Borger pointed out that they could obtain better service on plumbing and building supplies if overnight, one-line motor freight service is made available from Lubbock.

Odessa witnesses testified that oil field machinery supply companies there are in competition with Tulsa and Dallas companies, and the added freight service is needed to meet that competition.

B. J. Winters of Odessa said that an estimated $150,000 in business has been lost in the Borger area as a result of inadequate motor service.

Verbal fireworks that threatened to become more serious sparked the hearing at one point.

Al Hannaford, of the American Body and Trailer company at Amarillo, wanted to complain about present motor freight service over the objections of Carl Finney, defense attorney from Dallas representing Amarillo-Borger Express company. Tempers flared, but the tension eased without any blows being struck.

If the extension is granted, it would serve the towns of Fritch, Sanford and Phillips as well as Borger.

Rusk State Hospital Is Neat

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another in a series of stories on the state hospitals and special schools.)

BY DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

RUSK, Nov. 3—The Rusk State hospital is a place where they believe that keeping a mental patient busy is better than giving a pill.

They give the pills, too, in the form of all the modern methods of treating mental disease in this institution where the emphasis appears to be on curing the patients and getting them back home.

Dr. C. L. Jackson, superintendent, pleads for more personnel rather than for additional physical equipment. He believes an expenditure of $1,555,000 would take care of the plant's building needs.

Newsmen inspecting the Rusk hospital were impressed by the neat and trim appearance of the place and even the oldest buildings have been modernized and obviously well maintained.

The Rusk hospital was originally reconstructed for some of the original state prison buildings, and the biggest block of patients is housed in the old main building that dates back to the last century.

Dr. Jackson is a dynamic man promoting a public education program that involves frequent inspections of the hospital by high school students and civic groups in East Texas.

He believes that the state would save money in the long run if the mental hospitals would emphasize treatment, and proper treatment is possible only with adequate and highly-trained doctors, nurses and other specialists.

"With this kind of care, patients can often be cured in one to two years," he said. "Otherwise they may be here 20 to 40 years, or forever."

He listed as his greatest need, more doctors. He now has six, including himself, and he needs nine. There are now three graduate nurses, and nine to 12 are needed.

Dr. Jackson put an occupational therapy building in the No. 1 spot among physical needs. He has five teachers in this work and wants 25.

Of the total of 2,472 patients however, 2,177 are in some kind of occupational activity. This includes many workers in the Rusk institution's productive farm and takes in any type of activity that will keep the patient busy.

The Rusk hospital is unique among those visited by newsmen in this high percentage of activity on the part of the patients. There were obviously fewer idling in the wards.

The Rusk hospital is running 58 patients above capacity under existing standards, and 472, above capacity by standards set up by the American Psychiatric association. It has a waiting list of 30 patients, 15 of whom are being kept in county jails until room can be made for them here.

Legion Auxiliary To Launch Annual Poppy Drive Saturday

Saturday will be Poppy Day in Lubbock.

American Legion Auxiliary members and other volunteer workers will place 10,500 memorial poppies on sale in Lubbock Saturday in their annual drive to raise funds for veteran rehabilitation and child welfare in the city.

The poppies, made by patients in the Legion hospital in Kerrville, and in the Veteran's Administration hospital in Waco, were bought from them by the Auxiliary for resale here.

Contributions Urged

Mrs. Floyd Lebow, Auxiliary third vice-president, said the poppies are not being sold for any set price, and urged Lubbockites to contribute as much as possible.

Although Poppy Day doesn't begin officially until Saturday, it was announced that Auxiliary members would tour the Veteran's Administration building today, since the building is closed on Saturday.

Wayne Groce, commander of the Allen Brothers post of the Legion here, has called upon Legion members to help make Poppy Day a success.

"Members of the American Legion should be among the first to put on poppies on Poppy day, and should give the Auxiliary every cooperation toward making the observance of the day a complete success," he said.

He urged that veterans of both world wars set an example of reverence for the war dead by wearing the memorial flower throughout the day.

Mrs. R. J. Watson, who is Auxiliary poppy chairman, said the 10,500 purchased this year is a slight increase over the number sold here last year. The 1948 sale was the largest ever held by the Auxiliary, but an even larger total is expected this year.

Helping the Auxiliary members to canvass the town Saturday will be volunteer workers from the high school and Camp Fire Girls organization. Approximately 100 are expected to help with the sale of the flowers.

High school girls who expect to help will meet at 3:30 p.m., today, with H. J. McCabe, dean of boys at Lubbock Senior High school, for directions concerning the part they will play.

1,360 Persons Get X-Ray Exams Here

A total of 1,360 persons have received x-ray examinations at the American Legion hall since the Lubbock county survey opened in the downtown location Wednesday.

Shallowater and Roosevelt high school students were among those receiving examinations Thursday morning. Cooper high school was scheduled to appear but was unable to do so. The students will receive examinations at 10 a.m. today.

The examinations, given by a mobile unit of the state health department, are free to all Lubbock county residents of 15 years of age or older.

A group of employes from the Hilton hotel and the Cowhands, Lubbock high school's "B" football squad members, took the examination Thursday afternoon.

APPEALS COURT ORDERS RELEASE

11 Convicted Communist Chiefs May Be Freed On $260,000 Bail

NEW YORK, Nov. 3—(AP)—The 11 top American Communists convicted of conspiracy may be freed in a total of $260,000 bail pending appeal of their case, the U.S. Court of Appeals ruled today.

The Civil Rights Congress posted the bail for the 11 a couple of hours later, but their release was delayed by a technicality raised by the government. It was expected shortly however.

$1,000,000 Bail Asked

Government prosecutors, who originally asked the circuit court to fix a total bail of $1,000,000, raised the question of whether the fines of $10,000 imposed on each of the defendants in addition to jail sentences should be paid today.

The 11 were convicted of conspiracy to advocate overthrow of the U.S. government after a nine-months trial.

An opinion handed down by appeals Judges Learned Hand, Thomas W. Swan and Jerome N. Frank said the $260,000 figure was fixed because the government "conceded that the appeal herein raises a 'substantial question.'"

Three officials of the bill fund of the Civil Rights Congress posted $260,000 in negotiable 2 1/2 per cent U.S. treasury bonds in $5,000 denominations. The U.S. attorney general's office has listed the congress as subversive.

Assets To Be Studied

When the U.S. attorney's office raised the question of payment of fines by the 11, the court ruled that supplementary proceedings be held to determine the assets of each defendant.

Under this plan bonds would be posted by the defendants sufficient to guarantee payment of their fines if the convictions are upheld.

Bail of $30,000 was set for Eugene Dennis, John B. Williamson, Jacob Stachel, and Irving Potash.

A $20,000 bail was set for Robert G. Thompson, Benjamin J. Davis, jr., Harry Winston, John Gates, Gilbert Green, Carl Winter and Gus Hall.

PEACEFUL USE IS SEEN

Norway Plans Development Of Atomic Power As Heating Agent

By AXEL WENNERLING
INS Staff Correspondent

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 3.—Norwegian scientists hope to beat the major atomic powers by heating the first building by atomic energy.

They figure the job will take two years.

The building will be the one in which Norway's first atomic pile is to be housed. Its construction—outside Oslo—already has been started.

As far as is known, no other atomic piles are being used for heating purposes.

Word of Norway's comparatively ambitious program—considering its limited resources and scarcity of atomic experts — was brought to Stockholm by Dr. G. W. Funke, secretary of the Swedish Atomic committee.

Like Sweden, Norway's only atomic goal is development of nuclear energy for peaceful use.

Officials and scientists of both countries say they are not interested in manufacture of atomic bombs, which, anyhow, is possible only in countries of powerful financial resources.

The experts say the secret of the atomic bomb is known in Scandinavia and raw materials are available, but the money for its production is lacking.

Norway's pile, to be located at Kjeller, will be unique for another reason.

It will use heavy water instead of the customary graphite "moderator." Norway is the only country known to have access to heavy water supplies sufficient for use in atomic piles. Heavy water is extracted in nitrogen—fertilizer production.

The heavy water will come from the Rjukan region and uranium from southern Norway.

Norway's pile will be a 100-kilowatt affair. France has a ten kilowatt pile and Britain one of 80 kilowatts and another of more than 1,000 kilowatts.

Egil Rogaess, Norwegian research chief, said:

"Our pile will be ready about 1951."

He estimated the pile would cost more than $two million.

Sweden's present atomic preoccupation is with the construction of huge cyclotrons at Uppsala and Stockholm.

A start also has been made toward construction of a Swedish atomic pile but this is in a preliminary status.

Nobel prize winners Prof. Manne Siegbahn and Svedberg are the leading atomic experts in the country taking an active part in top research. But the concentration of Swedish uranium is scanty, and constitutes a big problem.

American Women Told To Save Crowning Glory From Barbers' Shears By Met Star

By OWEN CALLIN
INS Staff Correspondent

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 3.—Blanche Thebom, one of the Metropolitan Opera company's most beautiful and talented young sopranos, let her hair down today and laid it on the line to gullible American women who have been literally talked out of their crowning glory.

"Girls," said the Met beauty with the five-foot-long tresses, "You've been sold down the river by hair stylists and hair dressers who think only of swelling their incomes.

"You've let them talk you into short hair styles and cutting your hair to mannish lengths. I suppose the next thing is that women will think it stylish to be bald just because we are living in a nation of bald-headed men."

Hair Considered Top Glory

Miss Thebom, claiming that the old saying that a woman's hair is her crowning glory is the real thing and not a lot of balderdash, declared:

"Men go wild over long hair; they even look at hair before they look at a girl's face. I don't know how many times a day men come up to me and ask if they can touch my hair."

Miss Thebom, currently in Los Angeles with the San Francisco Opera company, has never cut her thick, dark-brown tresses, and is justly proud of them.

The Ohio-born singer wears it any number of ways and protests that it doesn't take much time to do-up.

Little Time Required

"I spend on an average about 15 minutes a day fixing it and brushing it," she said. "All women spend that much time on their short hair-do's.

Blanche has made quite a study of her favorite subject (outside of singing) and came up with a few more interesting facts:

"Since time immemorial women have worn their hair long to the glorification and glamorization of their sex," she said. "Now they are trimming their tresses because barbers of feminine heads need a business stimulant—just as the clothes stylists sold long hemlines.

History Supports Point

"In history women only cut off their hair to become less seductive and appealing to men, such as women serfs, women who enter convents, and ladies leaving harems. Even the orthodox Jewish religion included a hair-cutting ceremony immediately following the marriage to keep temptation out of their path.

"There is something in long hair that has always inspired one from within toward self-confidence and poise which lends that charm that men can't resist."

Miss Thebom pointed out that the economic advantages of long hair are obvious, explaining:

Many Variations Possible

"There are over a hundred ways you can change your hair-do without aid from hair stylists, hair dryers or hairpins by just manipulating the hair a few inches in any direction or rolling for different effects with no weekly beauty shop costs or hair clipping charges."

Acording to Miss Thebom, the Samson myth as told in "Samson and Delilah," which was sung by the company last week, in reality exemplifies a true psychology of the morale of long hair.

"Don't be a sucker, girls," was Miss Thebom's parting shot. "Lure your men with long hair and see how much farther you get. There are no feminine qualities to any kind of short bob."

Lubbock Mother To Receive Son's Award At RAFB Ceremonies

Formal presentation of the Distinguished Flying cross to Mrs. Owen Berry of 2217 Seventh street in behalf of her son, the late First Liteut. Rex Berry, will be made at a formal ceremony at 8 a.m. Saturday at Reese Air Force Base.

BERRY

The announcement was made Thursday by Robert O. Pugh, commander of the Disabled American Veterans organization here who assisted in obtaining the decoration, announced some time ago.

Col. George W. Pardy, commanding officer of the base, will make the award to Mrs. Berry following a review Saturday morning.

Also present will be Mr. Berry and two of their daughters, Mrs. Hazel Riebold and Miss Hallie Fay Berry, both of Lubbock.

Lt. Berry, a resident of Lubbock for five years preceding the war, was a squadron leader of the 345th squadron, 98th Bombardment Group in the Mediterranean theater.

His squadron was engaged in combat missions in North Africa and as far north as Naples, Italy. Returning from a mission on June 13, 1943, his plane and another collided in mid-air and both fell into the sea. No survivors from either plane were found.

Born and raised at Marked Tree, Ark., Lt. Berry had taken an architectural engineering course at Arkansas State college. He was engaged in the paint contracting business here.

In addition to the Distinguished Flying Cross, Lt. Berry was authorized the following decorations: The American defense service ribbon, World War II victory medal, aviation badge "Bombardier," American campaign medal, and the European - African - Middle Eastern campaign medal with three bronze service stars for participation in the Air Offensive Europe, Tunisia and Sicily campaigns.

Mrs. Berry will also receive a gold star lapel button in honor of her son.

Young Girl Rallies After Asthma Attack In New Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, Nov. 3 (AP) — After three days in an oxygen tent, little Janet Latsha sat up last night and pinned ribbons in her hair.

Her mother, Mrs. Wilma Latsha, said Janet had been "pretty sick" during the latest attack of the asthma which has kept her an invalid nearly all her life.

For the first time since its arrival three days ago, the six-year-old child was able to give her wholehearted attention to a huge toy rabbit.

Mrs. Latsha flew here with her critically ill child from Oklahoma City on Oct. 14. She hopes the climate will help Janet.

Billy Carle, 34, a barrow boy in London's Piccadilly Circus took a night off to go to the dog races, ran his last $24 up to $4,400 and at 3 a. m. next morning was back at Covent Garden buying more fruit for his "pitch."

Hale Center Group Plans New Elevator

HALE CENTER, Nov. 3 (Special) — Hale Center Wheat Growers, Inc., will build a 300,000-bushel elevator here to add to its present 175,000 plant, stockholders of the co-operative firm voted recently.

A new 100,000-bushel concrete elevator was put in service here this spring.

Ray Head, manager of the firm, said this week plans were for completing a drive for sale of preferred stock in the new structure in time to begin its construction soon enough to have the additional grain storage space available for the 1950 wheat harvest. More than two-thirds of the preferred stock to finance the new construction has been sold. Head added.

UNCONSCIOUS BIAS CHECKED

Guardianship Of News Report Stressed By President Of AP

FORT WORTH, Nov. 3. (AP) — Each member paper of the Associated Press, having a proprietary interest, becomes a guardian of the news report, Robert McLean, publisher of the Philadelphia Bulletin, said here today.

McClean, president of the Associated Press, in an address before the 16th annual meeting of the Associated Press Managing Editors association said:

"Since the membership represents, within itself, almost every conceivable view — political, economic, social, religious — there is a constant check against even unconscious bias or partiality.

"The contribution of the APMEA is therefore a vital element. That this is recognized is evidenced by the presence here of almost 300 editors; by the work of your committees and officers, as represented in the reports you have been discussing; by the benediction which APMEA has received from the management, the board and the membership during the past years.

"For the cooperative news association is a development of which the AP is one form. The Canadian press, the Australian AP and Reuters, as now owned, operate on the same principle, despite the fact that they vary in the manner in which they carry it out.

"It is the collection and distribution of a news report in accordance with standards and principles established by those who publish that report. In this process the APMEA exercises a constructive and deeply useful function."

McLean said formation of the APMEA "was one of the most significant developments in the Associated Press in many years."

Visiting editors and their wives toured the consolidated - Vultee Aircraft Corp., plant today, where giant B-36's are made and listened to an off-the-record address by Gen. Roger M. Ramey, 8th Air Force commander, during a luncheon at the plant.

Afterwards, they went to Carswell Air Force base and inspected B-36's.

Tonight, the editors and their wives were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James M. North at their home, Northwoods. North is editor of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The APMEA national meeting opened Wednesday and will run through Saturday noon.

PUERTO RICO'S BID FOR TOURISTS — Of striking architecture, this new $6,000,000 hotel in San Juan, P. R., is one of the results of Puerto Rico's five-year self-financed industrial battle to stabilize its economy. The new hotel, 10 stories high, with 300 guest rooms in a wide range of rates, is part of the island's bid for the Carribean tourist trade.

Deficit May Force Income Levy Increase

HST Is Expected To Request Tax Boost

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3 (AP) — President Truman may have to ask Congress for an increase of 25 percent or more in some taxes if he wants to balance the budget that way, government figures showed today.

Despite advance notice of opposition in Congress, Mr. Truman has indicated he will ask for more revenues. He says it is necessary to help cover the $5,500,000,000 in red ink spending he has estimated for the year ending next June 30.

To raise even that amount of additional revenue, congressional experts said Mr. Truman probably will be forced to ask for sharp increases in individual and corporation income taxes.

These taxes represent about three-fourths of the $38,000,000,000 in revenue the treasury expects to take in in the current year, while it is paying out a total estimated by the President at $43,500,000,000.

Many members of Congress have made it plain that they don't favor any increase in taxes. In fact, the Senate Finance committee voted during the last session to cut excise levies but the issue never saw action in the Senate.

Congressional experts figure it would take an across the board increase of about 18 per cent in individual and corporation income taxes to produce the budget-balancing $5,500,000,000.

Since a blanket boost in such taxes is not believed to be feasible, these experts said some taxes might have to go up 25 per cent while others remained at about present levels.

How much of a tax increase the President might ask would depend on the size of the budget he submits to Congress for the year beginning next July 1.

Few lawmakers think Mr. Truman is going to be able to keep that budget much under the $43,500,000,000 he has said will be spent this year. They think the cost of farm price supports, for instance, will offset any savings the President might bring about in military outlays.

However, Senator Byrd (D-Va) told a Cleveland audience this week that at least $3,000,000,000 could have been cut off this year's outlays if 300 relative items in the budget had been held to the figures of the previous year and not increased.

Questioners Scored By Leader Of India

VANCOUVER, B, C., Nov. 3 (AP) — India's Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru lashed out last night at those who asked which side he favors in the cold war.

"It seems to me these are very crude questions and very naive questions," Nehru declared in a speech. And again he told the world he does not intend to "tie" his newly-freed nation to any bloc in international power politics.

His North American tour will end officially tomorrow at Madison, Wis.

Chicago Youngster Dies Of Alcoholism After Wild Spree

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Nov. 3. (U.P.) —Eight-year-old Clarence Wood was small for his age and he longed to "act like the big kids." He did and it cost him his life.

To prove his mettle he helped two playmates, whom he admired because at 11 and 14 years of age they were already on probation, in looting a house.

The took 18 bottles of 39-year-old whiskey. Clarence joined the "big boys" in a day-long spree in a woods near his home in the coal mining community of Masonville, Pa.

Not to be outdone, the little fellow topped the "gang" by downing a half-tumbler of the liquor, apparently on top of numerous other drinks.

His playmates laughed at his drunken antics. He managed to get home where his condition at first went unnoticed. There are seven other children in the family and the father, a coal miner, had strike troubles to worry about.

Then Clarence became violently ill. He was taken to a hospital here and died a few hours later. Coroner W. Ralston McGee, with the aid of Pittsburgh pathologists, diagnosed the cause of death as "acute alcoholism."

Chile was advised recently that a "cultural embassy" was on the way from Spain, including 300 dancers, singers and actors to interpret to Latin Americans the songs and dances of the mother country, at open-air performances.

Grandstaff Seeks Tennessee Pardon

NASHVILLE, Nov. 3. (AP)—Frank Grandstaff, whose musical composition won him six days of freedom last month, asked today to be relieved of his life sentence.

Citizens of Big Spring, Texas, about which Grandstaff wrote a cantata on his cell wall, obtained Tennessee's permission to have him as guest during a centennial celebration at which it was performed.

Grandstaff, serving under Tennessee's habitual criminal statute, has asked the State Board of Pardons and Paroles, which takes up his case today, to recommend to Gov. Gordon Browning that he be pardoned.

Several Texans have joined in asking that Grandstaff be released. They include 18 members of the Texas and Pacific Male chorus which sang his cantata Oct. 2 at Big Spring.

Original Texas Constitution Recorded On Microfilm Rolls

AUSTIN, Nov. 3. (AP)—The state's original and aging constitution was microfilmed today to help preserve the brittle-handwritten document from destruction.

It was the first of many valued state volumes which will be recorded on the tiny rolls of microfilm during the next 30 days. Funds for the project were supplied by the last legislature.

Frenship School Asks Federal Aid

WOLFFORTH, Nov. 3. (Special) — Supt. E. A. Deering of Frenship school returned today from Fort Worth where he testified Wednesday before a congressional subcommittee on education.

The hearing, which was attended by several Texas school administrators, was scheduled by the House sub-committee on education and labor to obtain testimony relevant to a plan for providing permanent legislation for federal aid to schools overburdened by students enrolling from nearby military installations.

Enrollment Hike Cited

Deering's testimony revealed an unusual increase in the enrollment at Frenship school since the beginning of the school term, primarily as a result of the reactivation of the Reese Air Force base.

His statement pointed out that Reese Air Force base is tax-free, but has brought into his district more than a hundred school children from outside Texas, for which no financial support from state school funds may be secured.

He said new enrollments thus far this year were 112, a figure which has swelled total enrollment to 598, and has burdened the school with a shortage of both teachers and class rooms.

Deering requested federal aid to build four additional classrooms to the 12-room elementary school building now under construction.

S. H. Bradford, a Frenship board member, accompanied Deering to the hearing.

Denver City Fire Department Is Honored By Plains Legion

Plains, Nov. 3. (Special)—Members of the Plains American Legion and Auxiliary entertained the Denver City Fire Department here Tuesday night at the Legion hall.

About 70 people attended the dinner which was followed by entertainment by Jeanine St. Romain and Dallas Powell in the Spanish dance La Raspa and songs by Mrs. Jesse Hale, accompanied by Leonard Ellington.

Clayton Lovelace, commander of the post, welcomed the firemen and H. C. Cotton, fire marshal, gave the response.

Some 18 members of the Denver City fire department were present for the dinner. The department has on two occasions brought destructive Plains fires under control.

PROFIT TAKING SLOWS MARKET
NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (AP)—Profit taking sales clamped down on a rising stock market today.
Railway and selected airline issues did well but generally the market was a trifle wobbly. Price changes either way were mainly fractional, with losses and gains well divided.
Volume trading once more topped the 1,000,000-share mark. Sales of 1,360,000 shares compared with 1,570,000 Wednesday.
Today's balkiness interrupted an advance that started in mid-June and lifted the price level to a 12-month peak yesterday.
The Associated Press average of 60 stocks remained at 68.7, its high since Nov. 1 last year.
Chesapeake and Ohio, down to a 1949 low yesterday, came back for a ⅝-point gain at 28.

Extension Urged

hearing were R. C. Jordan of Amarillo, president of Curry Motor Freight line; Joe White, manager of the firm's Odessa-Midland district; and W. B. Pearce of Lubbock, vice president of the lines.
In addition to Finney, opposition attorneys were Jack Little of Amarillo, representing Amarillo-Borger Express; Reagan Sears of Dallas, Red Ball Motor Freight of Dallas; and a Mr. Cavin, the Texas Association of Railroads.
Uncontested hearings were conducted Thursday morning by Joe T. Lanham of Austin, examiner of the division. Among applications filed was one by Merchants Fast Motor lines, 2402 Texas avenue, Lubbock, for an additional freight route between Reese Air Force base and Lubbock.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, Nov. 3 (AP)—Cotton futures were irregular today. Mill buying featured the market, with contracts coming through commission house profit taking. Hedge selling was light.
About 14,500 bales of the nearby March delivery were sold through one broked. The operation was attributed to profit taking.
Profit taking and hedging depressed cotton futures into low ground for the day in late trading.
Futures closed 50 cents a bale lower to 15 cents higher than the previous close

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, Nov. 3 (AP)—Grains retreated after knocking out some new 1949 highs on the board of trade today. Profit-taking forced the retreat. Many contracts fell below the previous close.

LABOR GROUP APPROVES U.S. FOREIGN POLICY

Left-Wing Element Of CIO Beaten Down In Attempt To Change Union's Stand On U. S. Political Affairs

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3. (AP)—Left-wing opposition was beaten down today in its effort to change the CIO's stand on international political and labor affairs.

The CIO convention reaffirmed its support of America's foreign policy, embracing the Marshall plan, the United Nations and the Atlantic pact.

It also backed the CIO executive board for pulling the organization out of the World Federation of Trade unions which the board said is Communist-dominated.

Margin Remains Same

The votes were by about the same 10-to-1 margin by which leaders of leftist unions have been beaten on every major convention issue so far.

The convention also voted unanimous support for the nation's striking coal miners in "their righteous and heroic struggle against the united power of entrenched industrial and financial interests."

Harry Bridges, denying that his arguments were "dictated through any pipeline from Moscow," led the left-wing opposition on both international issues.

Bridges Assails Policy

Bridges assailed President Truman's foreign policy particularly as it concerns China, Great Britain, Greece, France, the Philippines and Russia.

He said the United States should resume trade with Communist portions of China "and even Russia."

Bridges' attack on Britain brought a vigorous reply from George Baldanzi, vice-president of the textile workers.

Baldahzi said "our opponents should get up and criticize imperialism in any form, whether it be British, American—or Russian."

He said Russia hand-picked officials to run eastern Germany and "crammed them down the throats of Germans."

"That," he shouted, "is what out friend Bridges calls democracy."

STETTINIUS' BOOK DEFENDS STAND

Stalin Claimed To Have Made More Concessions Than FDR

NEW YORK, Nov. 3. (U.P.)—Premier Stalin made more concessions at Yalta than the United States and Britain did, and the Russian Politburo didn't like it, former Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, jr., said today in a book published three days after his death.

The book, "Roosevelt And The story of the Yalta conference of Russians," gives a step-by-step the late President Roosevelt, former Prime Minister Churchill and Stalin, then outlines the breakdown of United States-Russian relations.

Stettinius also took occasion to praise the work at Dumbarton Oaks, Yalta, San Francisco and London of his former assistant, Alger Hiss, who goes to trial for a second time on Nov. 17 on a perjury charge growing out of a federal grand jury's investigation of Communist espionage.

Loyalty Not Questioned

"I never heard of any questioning of Mr. Hiss's loyalty from anyone inside or outside of the State department or from the FBI during my time of service in the department," Stettinius wrote.

"The record of the conference shows clearly that the Soviet Union made greater concessions at Yalta to the United States and Britain than were made to the Soviets," Stettinius declared.

He summed up the give and take as follows:

United Nations—"The Soviet Union accepted the American formula for voting in the Security Council...the Soviet Union withdrew its request for 16 votes in the face of the adamant position of the United States and Great Britain...The Soviet Union agreed to the American definition of countries that should be invited to attend the San Francisco conference...President Roosevelt insisted on the right of full and frank discussions in the world organization."

Agreements Are Listed

Military occupation—"At President Roosevelt's request, Marshal Stalin agreed, for the first time in the war, that there should be real coordination of Russian and western military activities.

French occupation zone—Russia withdrew its opposition to the recommendation by Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill that France be assigned a German occupation zone.

German reparations—"President Roosevelt was willing that the Russian figure be considered by the reparations commission in its initial studies only as a basis for discussion and not as an agreed amount. The Soviet Union accepted the American position."

Poland—"As a result of this military situation, it was not a question of what Great Britain and the United States would permit Russia to do in Poland, but what the two countries could persuade the Soviet Union to accept." The President refused to accept the Neisse river as Poland's western boundary and "Stalin agreed to leave the western boundary to be settled at the peace conference." But Stalin agreed to only minor changes in the Curzon line as the eastern frontier.

New University For Young Thinkers Is Planned In Colorado

ASPEN, Colo., Nov. 3. (INS)—A new institution of higher education the University of Aspen, was in prospect today for Colorado.

Walter P. Paepcke, wealthy Chicagoan and patron of arts and a sparkplug of activities at the Colorado mountain resort and former silver mining camp, said the institution would be a sort of hair shirt university.

No Stadium Planned

Paepcke declared: "There would be no stadium. It would be a place of learning such as many educators have wished for. The concentration would be on humanities, on philosophy, history, literature and languages."

College fraternities would also be banned.

Leading young thinkers of their generation would comprise the student body, which to begin with would probably number less than 100. Ultimately there might be as many as 500.

Also backing the drive for the University of Aspen are Aspen business and civic leaders. Among Aspen leaders working to raise funds to carry on negotiations for establishing the university are Frank Willoughby and Dr. Allen M. Cochrane.

John B. Hawley, member of the Bureau of Adult Education, New York state education department, said at a campaign meeting for the proposed institution that he is confident Aspen could gain with ease its goal of being first in American education.

The Aspen Chamber of Commerce unanimously voted to join the campaign to secure the university for Aspen.

EYES FRONT!

CLEVELAND. (U.P.) — The police department in Cleveland recently pointed up its safety campaign by skywriting. Across the sky in letters a mile high, it traced, "Look and Live."

Complaints Are Filed Over Mexican Labor

VICTORIA, Nov. 3. (AP)—More than 100 complaints charging that Calhoun county farmers defaulted on contracts with Mexican cotton pickers have been filed with the U. S. Employment commission, County Agent Joe Lilly said today.

Lilly told the Victoria Advocate that about 1,900 laborers—braceros—are idle while Mexican and American officials attempt to settle the disputes.

Mexican Consul Augusto Moheno of Corpus Christi is conferring with Joe Durham, representative of the U. S. Employment service in Dallas. Both were in Port Lavaca today but neither would comment.

Lilly said Moheno refuses to release the braceros for recontracting to West Texas farmers until the disputes are settled.

In Dallas, Will Rogers, head of the Dallas office of the USES, said the disputes were being worked out.

"But there's no trouble down there," he said. "The workers are finishing their jobs and want to go elsewhere to pick cotton. Whenever contracts involving labor from Mexico are terminated, there had to be approval from a field representative from our office and a representative from the Mexican government."

Post Dispatch In Observance Of 24th Anniversary

POST, Nov. 3. (Special)—The Post Dispatch celebrated its 24th birthday today and observed the ceremony by changing from a seven column t oan eight column weekly. Some new local features were added to the special edition today and will be continued.

The newspaper was founded by Ed A. Warren and his mother, Mrs. F. I. Bailey.

Warren's column, "Getting Out on a Limb," which he was forced to discontinue last May following an emergency operation, was resumed today.

Top Russian Scientist Claims New Discoveries In Atom Field

MOSCOW, Nov. 3. (AP)—A top Russian scientist today said Soviet scientists in the past year have discovered hitherto unknown characteristics of radiation from atomic nuclei.

This was only one of a number of scientific discoveries claimed for Russian physicists and astronomers by Sergei Vavilov, president of the academy of sciences of the USSR, in an article in Izvestia, the government newspaper.

The article was titled "Soviet science on the 32nd anniversary of the October revolution."

New Zealand's famed Mantha mine at Waihi, which since 1878 has produced $96,000,000 worth of gold and silver and paid $24,000,000 in dividends, is being closed, as no longer an economical producer.
