

NEHRU STRIVES TO MAINTAIN PEACE

All Private Armies Are to Be Abolished

NEW DELHI—(AP)—Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru staked the survival of his government today on the issue of restoring peace, for which Mohandas K. Gandhi was killed.

In swift implementation of Nehru's stand, the home ministry issued a communique abolishing private armies and "any organization preaching violence or communal hatred."

"If we don't do that we are not worth being in this government; certainly not of being his (Mohandas K. Gandhi's) followers or even saying words of praise for this great soul," Nehru said.

"I have a sense of utter shame as an individual and as the head of the government that we should have failed to protect the greatest treasure we possess."

On the banks of the Jumna, meanwhile, the ashes of the assassinated Gandhi were reverently collected and prepared for scattering on waters sacred to orthodox Hinduism.

Officials of the Indian union hunted for a gang accused of plotting to send three high officials of the dominion to their deaths with Gandhi.

Nehru had to pause at times as he spoke to the assembly, as a formal salute for the late leader was barely able to control his tears and sobbing.

"Gandhi's assassination is not the isolated act of a madman," he told the hushed assembly, which is jointly the constitution-writing and legislative branch of the new Indian government.

Blast Wrecks Paper Office

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Police said today they were still unable to fix the blame for a bomb blast which wrecked the Palestine Post last night, injured at least 20 persons and touched off an $800,000 fire.

One Arab source said Arabs did it. Other informants blamed Jewish extremists who have threatened the Pro-Zionist English language daily newspaper because of its moderate stand on Jewish defense.

Still other sources blamed British known for their anti-Jewish sentiments.

Down-town Jerusalem, Zion Square and Ben Yehuda Street were littered with broken glass from windows shattered as far as 1,000 yards from the site of the blast.

Magen David Clinic, across from the Post building itself, had 11 injured, two critically. Other hospitals reported a total of eight or nine from the paper, dozens of other persons walked around with bandages.

The paper put out a single sheet two-page edition today, Ted Lurie, New York-born assistant editor, said that would continue until further notice.

John Adler, business manager of the Post, estimated the blaze caused a loss of about $800,000. A Jewish Agency spokesman said at a news conference.

"The agency has begun a careful inquiry into the authorship of the bombing of the Palestine Post. As yet there is no concrete evidence at hand, but we are not even the slightest evidence that it was done by Jewish terrorists."

Solons Talk Of Big Cut in Europe Costs

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Congress appears to be getting ready today to chop an $800,000,000 chunk off the starting cost of the Marshall Plan.

A House Armed Services subcommittee called upon Army and Navy personnel experts for an explanation.

The subcommittee already has dug up figures indicating that a third of the higher rank officers who were retired for disability are not worth the cost of the program.

Chairman Bridges (R-NH) of the Senate Appropriations Committee said administration figures have convinced him there is no need to appropriate the full $800,000,000 asked by President Truman.

That is the amount sought to operate the European Recovery Program for the first 15 months beginning April 1.

Bridges cited testimony by State Department officials before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee last week that about $800,000,000 of the total would go for goods which won't be shipped to Europe until after July 1, 1949.

"We might consider giving them some contract authority," Bridges told a reporter, "but I don't see any reason for approving that money now. If the goods aren't going to be shipped until 17 months from now."

Senator Taft (R-Ohio) has said that spending under the proposed program should be held down to $1,000,000,000 under the President's estimates for the year beginning July 1.

This figure is reported to have been discussed by Republican leaders. They have been meeting secretly in an effort to reach an informal agreement between Senate and House members on how much to whack off Mr. Truman's $3,669,000,000 budget.

Signs are that the leaders may agree on a $3,000,000,000 cut in the same time they may pledge a $2,600,000,000 payment on the national debt.

Gas Fumes Fatal to Three

The bodies of the Rev. Thomas S. Barcus, 70, of El Paso, and his wife, Ann, two, were found in their beds yesterday morning.

The parents of the children, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse W. Lancaster of Fort Worth, were vacationing in Guatemala City, Guatemala.

Rev. and Mrs. Barcus were caring for the grandchildren.

Rev. Barcus retired from the ministry in 1942 after 44 years. At times he had held pastorates in Fort Worth, Houston, Orange, Graham, Plainview, Hereford, Longview and Big Spring. He had been presiding elder of the Standard and Brownwood districts of the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference.

He was one of six brothers, four of whom were Methodist ministers.

Retirement System To Get Going Over

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A look-see at the retirement system that lets some retired officers draw disability checks and big salaries at the same time gets under way in Congress today.

A House Armed Services subcommittee called upon Army and Navy personnel experts for an explanation.

The subcommittee already has dug up figures indicating that a third of the higher rank officers who were retired for disability are not worth the cost of the program.

Chairman Elston (R-Ohio) told reporters, "to determine whether or not there have been any abuses of the retirement pay law. If it develops that there have been abuses, we will attempt to draft legislation to correct them."

The subcommittee has been digging into the retirement system since last summer. It turned on the heat after the Senate War Investigating Committee pried into the case of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers, now awaiting trial on charges of lying to the senators.

The Senate committee heard testimony that Meyers, an Air Force purchasing officer during the war, had been retired for disability after a nervous breakdown and was drawing $650 a month. The Army promptly stopped the disability pay in his case.

Elston's subcommittee sent questionnaires to 274 high ranking Army and Navy officers retired for disability other than battle wounds.

The subcommittee reported that of the 2,335 officers who have sent in replies:

792 are "gainfully employed," $1 make $10,000 or more a year, 823 have had no medical examination or treatment since retiring, 19 have been approved for life insurance.

"It is obvious that the necessary corrections and improvements in the physical plants and new buildings and improvements incident to providing Texas with a modern and humane penal system will cost money—lots of money," the Governor commented.

He did not estimate how much, although he said Ellis had mentioned a figure.

Jester said, however, that the cost of the program should be made known well in advance of the next regular session of the Legislature next January.

"I believe Mr. Ellis' specific recommendations and his overall plan of management of our prison system are sound," the Governor declared. "Since the Prison Board has employed Mr. Ellis and agreed to back him in his plans and management of the prison system, I believe the board will support his recommendations on policies for the system."

GOP Set to Ram Through Tax-Cut Bill

WASHINGTON—(AP)—House Republicans were all set today to ram through their $6,500,000,000 tax-slashing bill.

Democrats conceded they were fighting a losing battle in efforts to substitute a smaller cut along with a revised excess profits tax on corporations.

But they were determined to go through the motions as the first big election year issue in Congress came to the voting stage.

Republicans and Democrats alike, however, agree that the bill up for passage today is unlikely to be the one that goes to the White House.

Both sides look for the Senate to whittle down the amount of the bill in an effort to curtail the Democratic votes needed to override a Presidential veto.

It takes a two-thirds majority in both House and Senate to pass a bill over a veto.

Many Democrats want taxes cut, but they insist the Republican bill for people in the higher income brackets.

Since then Mr. Truman has proposed a plan of his own. He would give everyone a $40 "cost of living" tax credit and make up the revenue loss by taxing corporate profits that run higher than he thinks they should.

House Democrats didn't take to this idea in any great numbers. Instead they lined up behind a bill to (a) hike individual exemptions from $500 to $700, (b) let husbands and wives every. (See TAX CUT, Page 6)

Partition Plan Has Difficulty

LAKE SUCCESS—(AP)—The Security Council today received its first formal notification that the Palestine partition plan is in serious difficulty.

The critical situation in the Holy Land was laid out in the 11-nation council in a general report by the United Nations Palestine Commission.

The report covered the first month's work of the five-nation commission, which has responsibility for carrying out the plan to carve Palestine into separate Arab and Jewish countries.

Although the commission did not deal with the vital security problem in its first report, the document made it clear that the commission had little hope of succeeding without help from the Security Council.

Most observers agreed there was little the commission could do until the council decided what action, if any, it would take to help carry out the partition plan.

Today's report informed the council that Britain had refused to comply with the council's recommendation that a major Palestine port be opened for Jewish immigration by Feb. 1.

The special report will include a later British declaration which helped a commission decision to help the Jewish Agency form a Jewish-controlled militia in Palestine.

It also will inform the council of Britain's refusal to admit the commission to Palestine until the termination of the British mandate May 15.

This virtually rules out any possibility of the commission meeting its deadline for the establishment of provisional councils of government and security forces for the two proposed countries.

Maybe Gandhi Had Completed His Life Task

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Foreign Affairs Analyst

With Gandhi dead at the hand of an assassin, observers are anxiously seeking the significance of this shocking event not only to the Indian peninsula's four hundred millions but to the world at large for what affects that vast sub-continent in a major way must also affect other nations.

Gandhi was dead in Delhi, and half a world away America was deeply stirred.

Our first thought, of course, is that the Mahatma's murder has created a terrible threat to the already troubled peace of his country, for it comes at a moment when politico-religious feelings are running high. It could cause a mighty explosion and precipitate the most terrible fratricidal conflict of history.

The fact that it was one of Gandhi's own people—a Hindu—who slew him may serve to keep passions in hand—but unhappily that doesn't necessarily follow, as witness the killing which already has taken place in Bombay.

Bitterness is strong between the Hindus and the Moslems in many areas, and each side is quick to charge misfortunes against the other.

The London Daily Express comments: "Now truly India stands on the brink of fearful perils." And the London Daily Mail says: "Deprived of their pilot, the Indian Government now are faced with a crisis which excels by far anything that they have yet had to cope with in their short but lurid history."

Still the fact that Gandhi died, as he would have wished to die, while at prayer, will have a strong influence on his followers, and apropos of this thought British Prime Minister Attlee says: "I am certain his spirit will continue to animate his fellow countrymen and will plead for peace and concord."

But what of the future? It is difficult to analyze the position dispassionately, for our troubled world could ill afford to lose this great and saintly man. However, taking it by and large, the 78-year-old Gandhi had performed the task which fate had assigned him. That was truly Herculean, for it included these achievements:

1. His great social labors among his people in South Africa—a work so noble that it evoked tribute from none other than Tolstoy himself.

2. The foremost part in the winning of independence for India.

3. The moral and spiritual rehabilitation of untold millions of Indians.

4. Living what he taught (and he told me that the greatest inspiration of his life came from Christ's Sermon on the Mount) he did much to better the condition of the world's most tragic people—India's 60,000,000 untouchables.

5. And so perhaps the Mahatma's martyrdom may be the greatest final contribution which he could make to the world, for it will immortalize his deeds and teachings.

Heavy Fog, Slick Streets Cause Two Wrecks in Area

Heavy fog and slick streets and highways in the Pampa area were responsible for at least two wrecks this morning as another "extremely-cold wave" surged southward through the upper Midwest today and the chilled eastern half of the country eyed the antics of the groundhog for his legendary long-range weather forecast.

J. H. Hinkle, 64, 821 E. Locust, is reported to have a slight skull fracture as a result of a highway accident at 7 a. m. about two miles west of the Pampa city limits. Hinkle was a passenger in a 1941 Chevrolet driven by John Rhode, 37, 918 S. Sumner. The two men were traveling toward

Borger. Rhode told highway patrolmen a car in front of him slowed down and he applied brakes to slow down. His car skidded on slick pavement and went off the left side of the road where it hit a culvert and overturned. Hinkle was taken to Worley Hospital by a Clegg ambulance. Rhode was uninjured.

Two hours later around $145 damage resulted from a "fresh wreck" at the intersection of Browning and Hill, in a collision of a 1937 Chevrolet driven by Mrs. M. C. Hill, 820 E. Browning, and a 1941 Chevrolet driven by John Paul McKinley, 1310 Gar-

LONDON—(AP)—Russia has filed two more complaints against the United States, the Moscow radio reported today. That makes four in less than a week.

The latest protests, the broadcasts said, concern the flights of American bombers over Soviet shipping in Japanese waters and the activities of the American military mission in Iran.

The bomber flights, the radio said, infringed upon the freedom of merchant shipping, while the activities of the U. S. military mission in Iran are called threats to the Soviet frontier. The Russians want both activities stopped, the broadcast said.

The first two protests, announced last week, complained about the projected reopening of Mellaha Airfield in North Africa and about the presence of U. S. warships in Italian ports. The Russians said both those things were violations of the Italian peace treaty.

(Washington dispatches last night said those protests would be rejected sometime this week.)

Now the Russian Ministry of Foreign Affairs has demanded that American bombers stop flying over and inspecting Soviet shipping in the Yellow Sea and the Sea of Japan, the Moscow radio said.

The protest note said the bombers circled low and sometimes dived on Russian ships and American military missions in Iran. American actions constituted "infringements upon the freedom of merchant shipping."

Saturday, a Moscow broadcast said, Soviet Ambassador Ivan S. Sadchikov handed to the Iranian Government in Tehran a note asserting that activities of the American military mission in Iran constitute a threat to the Russian frontier, which adjoins Iran to the north.

The note, according to a Pravda dispatch from Tehran, said American officers were directing the erection of fortifications along the border and that American advisers were directing the building of airfields there.

The dispatch declared that tours by American advisers of border districts, "ostensibly" for the purpose of inspecting Iranian Army units, were "in actual fact..." for the purpose of making photographs and making a military study of the Soviet-Iranian frontier.

It said there had been a "mass influx" of Americans into Iran in recent months. It said the note referred to the building by Americans of underground gasoline storage facilities in southern Iran, equipment of the Iranian Army with American arms provided on credit, and redrafting of basic regulations of the Iranian Army to the American pattern.

Sunday Blaze Destroys Bar

Roaring flames, unchecked because of lack of water, Sunday afternoon ruined the Veterans Bar, located about four miles west of the city limits on the Amarillo Highway.

Fire Chief Ernest Winborne said Francis Enwright, owner of the building, told him the fire was started when an oil heater in the building exploded throwing flames all over the building.

When firemen arrived they found the roof caved in and flames leaping high in the air. The booster tank on the one truck was emptied on the fire without result. The other truck, the city's newest, was hung on the main highway after a tire chain broke and became entangled in the wheel and axle.

There was no high pressure water main or fireplug near the building. Enwright and his wife, who lived in the building, lost practically all of their personal effects and furniture in the blaze. Winborne added. He described it as a total loss.

Gov. Revokes Two Paroles

AUSTIN —(P)—Revocation of Grady Howard Lisby's 15-day emergency parole was ordered Saturday by the Governor. Lisby, convicted in the District Court of Tarrant County on a charge of murder with malice and sentenced July 18, 1947, to 10 years, was paroled five days ago. The emergency parole was to Titus County in order that he might visit his brother, reported critically ill. Gov. Beauford H. Jester's proclamation revoking the parole said: "In the report on file, it is stated that the subject has been seen in Tarrant County, without permission of his parole advisor; that he had been bragging of his status, and claiming that he will probably never have to go back to the penitentiary.

"It is therefore evident and I do hereby find that Lisby has not proved himself worthy of the trust and confidence placed in him when he was released."

In other actions based on recommendations of the Board of Pardons and Paroles, the Governor: Granted a 120-day commutation of Pedro Gloria's five-year sentence.

Granted a 10-day emergency parole to Cornelius Hubbard. Granted remission of Ponciano Garcia's 30-day jail sentence.

Gloria's 120-day commutation was awarded on the basis of a letter from Warden Joe Hinea at the Richmond Prison Farm crediting Gloria with helping to prevent a mass prison break on the night of Dec. 7 last year. Gloria was convicted in the District Court of Harris County and sentenced May 2, 1946, to five years for assault with intent to rape and incest.

Freeze Hurts Rio Vegetable Crops

AUSTIN —(P)—An almost complete loss of tender vegetables was caused by the freeze in the lower Rio Grande Valley last week. Hardy vegetables also suffered heavy damage. The Austin office of the federal agricultural statistician, United States Department of Agriculture, said in a preliminary report Saturday.

Statistician V. C. Childs said a full appraisal of crop damage will not be possible for several days, and ultimate losses will depend upon the degree of moderation following the freeze.

He reported growing crops of tomatoes, corn, green peas and potatoes killed to the ground. Top losses to carrots, beets and turnips were heavy, broccoli was badly burned, and settings of young cabbage were definitely hurt.

On the brighter side, the greater proportion of the potatoes were young and were expected to recover. Losses of citrus fruit were not considered serious.

They said Garcia's presence as a law enforcement officer is needed in the community. There was no remission of his $500 fine and court costs.

Sandies Nip Westerners

AMARILLO—(Special)—Amarillo's Golden Sandies did it the hard way again here Saturday night, beating Lubbock's rangy Westerners 14-0. The win was the fifth consecutive Sandie triumph in district competition and kept them at the top of the conference heap.

Trailing once by nine points and behind 18-20 at halftime, the Amarillos roared back to eclipse the Westerners in last half spurge which completely buried them until Sandie Coach T. G. Hull began to use his reserves.

When Hull began to send his second team in, the Sandstorm was in front 43-30. Here the Westerners suddenly caught fire to pour 10 points through the hoops in 55 seconds but when the Sandie regulars reappeared, the rally was cut short.

Virgil Johnson of Lubbock was the evening's high scorer with 17 points. Jimmy Sharp and Doyle Watson led the Sandies with 14 and 10 points respectively.

Cooper Wins 147-lb. Title and Outstanding Boxer's Award

Pampa boxers today were highly regarded in Panhandle boxing circles as the local team in the high school division walked away with the team trophy awarded in this division; as Eugene Cooper won the outstanding boxer's award; and as Cooper, Carroll Martin and Kenneth Davis won their respective weight classes in the Regional Golden-Gloves Tournament which came to an end in Amarillo Saturday night.

The closest competitor to the Pampa team, which scored 22 points, was the Amarillo Boxing Association with 14 points. The trophy is presented by Wes Isardi, editor and chief of the Amarillo Globe-News, and Jim Arndt, boxing director of the Pampa region, and Kenneth Glasgow of Shamrock, coach of the Pampa district team. The Amarillo Globe-News sponsors the tournament.

Cooper, by scoring a KO over Jack London in the finals of the 147-lb. Golden Gloves division, won his fourth tournament bout by a knockout. It was on this outstanding record and his ability and sportsmanship shown during the tournament, that "Harry Gilstrap, sports editor of the Amarillo Globe-News, awarded Cooper the trophy. This was his 65th consecutive victory as an amateur and his fifth Golden Gloves championship.

Winner of the outstanding boxer's trophy in 1946, Kenneth Davis of Clarendon, wearing Pampa colors, won over Buster Kelly of Carroll Martin of Clovis to take the 112-lb. Golden Gloves division. Both Davis and Cooper will represent this region in the state finals to be held in Fort Worth beginning Feb. 2.

Reaching the finals by a semi-finalist, Carroll "Comanche" Martin of Pampa was victor over J. R. Vaughan of Amarillo, 1947 126-lb. defending champion, by a TKO in the first round.

Charles Haggerton of Amarillo got the nod over Buster Kelly of Pampa in the 118-lb. high school finals. This was the most contested decision of the five-night tournament, as the crowd jeered the announcement of the winner until the beginning of the next fight approximately five minutes later.

Borger Takes First Conference Win From Brownfield

BORGER (Special)—Three teams of Bulldogs saw action as the Borger cagers bumped the Brownfield Cubs 57-42 for the first conference victory of the year for the Hutchinson County quintet Saturday night in Borger.

Dick Hill, center for the Bulldogs, fired seven field goals and six charity tosses for leading honors in the scoring department with a total of 20 points.

The Bulldogs grabbed an early lead in the first quarter with a score of 21-0 and continued through the second frame with an advantage of 34-14 score. Borger continued to lead throughout the second half although the Cubs scored 28 points against 23 Bulldog tallies during the action of the final period. Leading at the close of the third period, the score favored the Bulldogs 44-26.

Friday night the Bulldogs were Judging by the way the winter Olympics have been going, they'll both be needed at the summer games to keep peace.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Mel Ott, looking about five years younger than he did at the end of the 1947 baseball season, was reviewing the Ginals prospects for a squadron of baseball writers.

"I often have thought what might have happened to our club if Whitney Lockman had not been hurt," he mused. "Lockman, you know, was that flashy young outfielder who broke a leg during a spring exhibition game and couldn't play all season. He still limps but says he feels no pain and will be okay after a winter's rest."

"Lockman was playing center field and Clint Hartung left. Cliff went on. They seemed to have a line drawn somewhere in left center. Whitney would take everything over to it and Hartung was catching everything that came his way. Bobby Thompson was playing second base and looking better every day at a post which, as he said, 'the only time I ever saw it was running by it.'"

We might have been right up in the present race with that combination. Well, Lockman busted a gam, Thompson became a darn good center fielder and Hartung, who couldn't catch flies in a big league park, turned into a pretty good pitcher. What it proves, this dept. doesn't know.

Bear-Porker Games to Blast Apart SWC Three-Way Tie

By the Associated Press
Arkansas and Baylor furnish the explosive due to blast apart the three-way tie for the Southwest Conference basketball lead this week.

Two of three undefeated teams in the conference, they tangle at Waco Friday and Saturday.

Five other conference games are overshadowed by the Razorback-Bear battle, including unbeaten Texas' second game with lowly Texas Christian Tuesday.

The remainder of the conference schedule matches teams already out of the title running.

Baylor, with six straight victories, has already won half of its conference schedule.

But the surprising bears will be on the short side against the gangling Razorbacks.

Baylor's showing is due in part to its remarkable ball control, a factor that Arkansas may find unbeatatable.

Texas is an overwhelming choice to hand Texas Christian its fourth straight licking. And if it follows form, may find itself setting the pace should Arkansas and Baylor divide their series.

Last week, Baylor polished its offense with a 70-52 decision over Texas A. & M.

Texas used Slater Martin's deadly shooting for a 57-51 victory over Southern Methodist University.

Rice and Texas Christian meet at Houston Friday and Texas A. & M. is host to Southern Methodist at College Station.

In a non-conference game, Texas and Southwest Texas State play at Austin Thursday.

Jack Robinson of Baylor moved into second place in conference scoring, 18 points behind Kok, who has 88.

Kok easily leads teammate Al Williams in season scoring, 324 to 215.

How the Army Breaks the Law

A brazen flouting of the law by Secretary of the Army Floyd L. Parks, Jr., in using federal funds to conduct a propaganda campaign for military conscription has been exposed in Washington by the House-Expenditures Subcommittee.

Rep. Forrest Hays, of Indiana, chairman of the committee, has shown how the Army spent $36,000 for a military training picture plus $14,000 of the tax money to distribute the pictures. The War Department also has paid two civilians, Alan Coultis of New York City and Mrs. Arthur Woods, a former lieutenant colonel with the WAC, $25,000 in expenses for the country-wide hearing of the drums for compulsory military training.

These two were employed, the report shows, "to sell the GUMT program to the public with the hope that the public will sell it to the Congress."

It shouldn't come as a surprise that such conduct by high ranking Army officials has been going on under the nose of the country's general office and other agencies whose duties are to prevent such activities. So far, however, there has been nothing done by the FBI or the attorney general's office.

There were several such cases in which the Army agents, operating under Elmer Irey, principal built-up of evidence only to see the Department of Justice tumble the cards and finally were to force the whole business or set for a fraction of the money which the defendants owed to the Treasury.

Mr. Carl F. Morris of Clarendon, Texas, announced Saturday that he is his candidacy for State Representative of the 122nd Legislative District, subject to the Democratic Primary Election.

Mr. Morris stated that he believes he is in every way qualified to properly perform the duties of a representative and to serve the people of this district in a truly representative fashion.

He is 26 years old, married, and the father of one child. He saw 37 months service in the U. S. Navy during World War II, obtaining his discharge in April of 1946. Since that time he has worked in the summer and attended the University of Texas in the winter.

Before entering the service he attended Clarendon High School where he was active in Farm Club Work. He was a well known competitor in the Poultry, Swine and Baby Beef Shows in Texas, and was a national competitor in judging events. After graduation from High School he attended Texas A. & M. At present Mr. Morris is a mid-law student, that being the term applied to those students in the second year of law at the University of Texas.

Mr. Morris stated that he has long been a student of legislative problems and procedure, particularly those problems affecting the farmer and people who deal with the farmers. He feels that there is a great need in our state legislature for that kind of representation.

Fair Enough . . . by Westbrook Pegler

Congressman Fred Hartley remarked a few days ago that he thought the Department of Justice had been "exceedingly lax" in its prosecution of Jimmy Pendergalt under the Los act, thinking he was politics and reserved.

It has been horribly corrupt for years and it gets worse right along. There is no way of showing how rotten it is except by an unimpaired investigation by some committee of Congress, preferably, I should think, with some reasonably mean and ornery chief investigator and counsel to dig up the facts and put the question.

I suppose it is understood that "corrupt" I do not mean to suggest the vulgar, city-hall manifestations of corruption, such as an inch of unmarked money dropped into a councilman's umbrella hanging on the bar.

I have no evidence that anything like that has gone on in the department itself, although you get along the line where people are making money and funds are being used for anything but "corrupt" I mean perverted and depraved.

This department resembles an abandoned woman who has been picked up by the police and taken to the court and put in a cage. She is as pretty and feminine, and if you met her in nice surroundings you would respect her. It starts you to see her there in a cage with a professional-looking pretender for her sinful interest-bums and bondmen, pleading guilty before a middle-aged precinct politician who says, "110 days."

Our Department of Justice, our Supreme Court and for that matter all our courts, are supposed to be dedicated to equal justice under law. But that phrase is a joke now. Not even judges are immune from the law.

There were several such cases in which the Army agents, operating under Elmer Irey, principal built-up of evidence only to see the Department of Justice tumble the cards and finally were to force the whole business or set for a fraction of the money which the defendants owed to the Treasury.

Long Is Still Plugging

By the Associated Press
Earl K. Long last night declared that he had not "sold out" in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor.
Long, speaking in Donaldsonville, said his opponent, Sam H. Jones, had charged him with the "sellout."
"I have never sold out and I never will," the man who polled the highest vote in the Jan. 20 primary declared.
Long charged that Jones had been elected governor in 1940 on "counterfeit issues" and said he had always waited for the day when he and Jones would have to run on their respective records.

Meanwhile, Jones, in a radio address at Natchitoches, disclaimed any idea that he would try to match Long promise for promise in the closing days of the campaign.
The former governor said that many of his followers had become "frustrated over the possibility of corruption in the state should Long be elected. They had urged him, he said, to promise everything to everybody."
