Cold Weather Drops Mercury Over Plains

Freezing Rain Forecast Over Area; Cold Front To Hit Rest Of State

FREEZING drizzle is expected to cover the South Plains this morning, adding hazardous streets and road conditions to the general discomfort brought by the area's latest cold front, the weatherman forecast at midnight.

The Weather bureau north of Lubbock indicated, however, that the drizzle might end by noon and temperatures this afternoon are expected to be in the lower forties.

At least one death was attributed indirectly to weather conditions. Robert Emmitt Leo Phillips, 50, field representative of the railroad retirement board district office at Amarillo, was killed at 2 p. m. Tuesday when his car left the highway and smashed a highline pole five miles west of Panhandle.

Area Blanketed

The new cold wave swept into Lubbock about 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, dropping the temperature 13 degrees in one hour from a 54 degree reading to 41. A slight rise was recorded at 2:30 p. m. but by midafternoon the mercury again had started dropping and by nightfall a cold mist and fog had blanketed the area. At 12:30 a. m. the reading was 34 degrees.

The light precipitation of yesterday and last night covered all of the South Plains, the weather station reported. About one-fourth inch of moisture had fallen in the Panhandle at midnight, but it was much lighter in this area. Freezing rain had fallen in the Panhandle several hours by midnight.

Clouds were expected to clear some this afternoon. The prediction for Thursday was partly cloudy and warmer.

Front Slows Down

The weather station said that the air mass front, which brought some precipitation, was moving slowly. It had reached Abilene about 8 o'clock last night.

The weak cold front had become almost stationary along a curve that swung from just east of Wichita Falls through Harpersville and out of the state just south of El Paso, the Associated Press reported.

The U. S. Weather bureau in Dallas said a large, blocking high was holding up the norther and it as not expected to move farther south last night.

Meanwhile, visibility remained poor over most of the state. Cen-

Dixie Demos To Fight HST At Convention

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Southern Democratic leaders today carried their revolt against President Truman's leadership to the point of opposing his nomination for a full term in the White House.

Senator McClellan of Arkansas said Mr. Truman, by his civil rights stand, "has thrown away his chances" of being elected. McClellan said he would like to see Senator Byrd (D-Va) nominated for the presidency.

Senator Johnston (D-SC) said he thought "the party will stand a better chance of success in the November election" with a candidate other than Mr. Truman—Secretary of State Marshall, for instance.

Marshall Wor't Run

Byrd immediately asked that his name be kept out of any presidential nomination discussion. Marshall said flatly that he would not consider running for any office.

Today's statements followed a meeting of seven southern senators and two governors who are fighting the President's program of federal laws against various kinds of race and color discrimination.

The governors and senators discussed a plan by which Democrats in each state would set up their own "official Democratic party." It could cooperate with the national party organization if it chose, or could split away from it.

Dixie "In Earnest"

As one senator explained it, this would permit local officials to run on a Democratic ticket. The idea was to remove any stigma of a "bolt."

The senators and governors also were urged to seek action in their states to remove the names of the presidential and vice presidential nominees from the ballot, leaving only the electors on it.

One of those at the meeting, Senator Overton (D-La), said the Dixie leaders are "in dead earnest" in opposing party figures who "are willing to sacrifice the South" in order to "take from (Henry) Wallace and the Republicans all the negro vote that they can muster."

Fuel Added To Fire

Overton added:

"That opposition will extend, if necessary, to the withholding of the electoral vote from President Truman or any other Democratic nominee who approves the program of the national Democratic party adopting a platform in support of the Truman program."

Byrd, who also attended the meeting, commented that the meeting of four southern gover-

Senate, House Okay Bills To Extend Rent Controls

Major Hikes To Be Banned

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 — The Senate tonight passed by voice vote and sent to the House a bill continuing rent control in somewhat altered form for 14 months.

Another bill is on its way through Congress extending the present law to the end of March. Without it rent ceilings would end next Sunday.

The House passed this temporary measure today. The Senate is expected to adopt it later in the week.

Leases Okayed

The Senate's 14-month bill will go on a shelf in the House until next month.

Under the Senate measure:

1. Rent increases up to 15 percent would be permitted where tenants and landlords agreed on a lease through 1949.

2. Controls generally would continue through April 30, 1949. Tenants who agreed to a 15 percent increase last year under the present law could not be charged another.

Some Hikes Permitted

3. Tenants who accepted a rent increase under the existing law in exchange for a lease through 1948 would have their present rents "frozen" from Jan. 1 through April 30, 1949. Then rent control would end for all tenants who signed leases under the expiring law.

4. Tenants who have not already signed a voluntary increase —or would not under proposed 14-month law—could "sit tight." Generally speaking their rents could not be raised before April 30, 1949.

5. However, the federal rent administrator would be required to permit higher rents where a landlord proves he is losing. The administrator would decide how much to increase.

Eviction Grounds Given

6. Controls would end on non-housekeeping rooms in private homes.

7. The rent administrator could remove controls on regular rooming and boarding houses if he saw fit.

8. Landlords would have to give a 60-day notice for eviction on any grounds except (a) non-payment of rent or (b) where the tenant

Prices Slump Again As Heavy Flow Of Hogs Floods Markets

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 24—A heavy flow of hogs to midwest markets caused prices to slump again today. Securities and most other commodities registered little important change.

Steel momentarily overshadowed commodities in the cost of living picture.

President Truman directed the Justice department, the Council of Economic Advisers and the Commerce department to make a full investigation of an industry-wide boost of $5 a ton in the price of semi-finished steel. Some of the President's aides said they fear it might touch off a general price rise.

Attorney General Clark immediately dispatched FBI agents to 16 leading steel companies to question executives about the increase

Clark said he wanted to determine if the price hike is "the result of any agreement among the steel producers in violation of the anti-trust laws."

Several Democratic senators supported a proposal by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) to revive the wartime excess profits tax because of the steel price boost. Senator Millikin (R-Colo), chairman of the tax-writing Senate Finance committee, said the idea would be given "careful study."

Czechs Face Red Control

PRAGUE, Feb. 24 —Premier Klement Gottwald's Communist party, backed by a newly-won balance of power and the might of the security police, rolled forward tonight toward complete domination of Czechoslovakia.

Between the crushing Communist machine and its goal of total power stood only the frail figure of President Eduard Benes, the nation's war-time hero.

Former Premier Zdenek Fierlinger, former ambassador to Russia, returned to power as leader of the Social Democratic party, giving Gottwald the balance of power.

Other Parties Weakened

Other parties appeared powerless to halt the Communist jugernaut.

The National Socialists were shaken by recent raids on their party headquarters. They were weakened by interior ministry charges they plotted an armed revolt against the government.

The Catholic People's party was split by "action committees" of former members who had been read out of the organization. The action committee of the party newspaper, Lidova Democracie, finally gained control of the party.

Communist Dominant

The anti-Communist Slovak Democrats still fought to hold their position in the government. Its members, however, already had been driven out of their posts in the council of ministers in the semi-autonomous Slovakian republic.

Thus, for the first time in its 20 years of life as a nation and nine years after the Nazi invasion, Czechoslovakia was virtually under complete Communist rule.

There was no indication what remnants of strength were retained by the right-wing faction of the Social Democrats. Fierlinger's seizure of command left little doubt, however, that left-wingers held the power.

If a showdown resulted between the two factions, Fierlinger could win the support of the rifles and machine guns of the security police. This force, commanded by the Communist interior ministry, stood guard tonight at all political party headquarters, public buildings and foreign embassies.

These police, apparently guard-

Long Elected In Louisiana

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 24 — Louisiana voters called Huey Long's brother Earl back today to be governor of Louisiana again, after eight years of political eclipse.

They gave him a walloping victory in a Democratic runoff primary election over Sam Houston Jones, the man who beat him for the office in 1940.

With 833 of the state's 1,878 precincts counted, Long had 185,932 votes and Jones 109,319. Every tabulation shows Long's margin to be growing. The Democratic nominee is assured election in Louisiana.

Comeback Made

It was a triumphant comeback for Earl personally and the Long family in general, in the state which Huey ruled as dictator.

Huey's widow and two sons, Russell Palmer, supported Earl in his campaign. Russell, who resembles his late father in appearance and mannerism, spoke at most of Earl's rallies.

Louisianians expect Russell himself to be a candidate for high office not too far hence. He's just under 30 years old.

This was Earl Long's only statewide victory except for 1936, when he was elected lieutenant governor. He became governor in 1939 when Richard W. Leche resigned the post in the midst of the "Louisiana scandals."

Campaign Is Bitter

Leche and several other political leaders went to prison for various misuses of state funds and property. Earl Long was never charged with any offense. He stressed this fact in his latest campaign.

Long's political fortunes had

TRUMAN ORDERS INVESTIGATION

FBI Questions Major Steel Companies On Price Boost

By STERLING F. GREEN
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—In a spectacular move ordered by President Truman, FBI agents descended on 16 major steel companies today and questioned their officials on the steel price increase.

This hunt for evidences of anti-trust law violations was part of a three-pronged nation-wide investigation order by Mr. Truman, now vacationing in the Caribbean.

In Congress, three Democrats urged a revival of the excess profits tax to discourage high prices. A Republican said the steel makers were asking for that, "whether they know it or not."

FBI Opens Probe

The capital was suffering a new attack of inflation jitters.

Mr. Truman's thrust was sudden. He asked the Commerce and Justice departments and the Council of Economic Advisers to probe last week's wave of steel price boosts. They averaged about $5 a ton.

Shortly after, Attorney General Tom Clark revealed that Federal Bureau of Investigation men moved into the executive offices of leading steel firms this morning.

Economists Study Action

They are questioning company officials, Clark's statement said, to learn whether the widespread boost "is the result of any agreement among the steel companies in violation of the anti-trust laws." The Justice department declined to name the firms "at this time."

The economic council—charged with measuring the inflationary impact of the price rise—also was in action. Chairman Edwin G. Nourse said a report would be ready shortly after Mr. Truman returned.

Commerce department set about fingind the possible price effect on autos, stoves, housing material and other products.

Policeman Recovers Stolen Car Before Theft Is Reported

A Lubbock policeman walked out of a dark, cold and wet alley near the Western Union office in 1000-block Thirteenth about 8:10 o'clock last night, blew his whistle, and recovered a stolen car before the theft had been reported.

Patrolman W. C. Johnson was making his rounds in the area between Ave. J and Texas Ave., when a brown Ford coach whizzed past without headlights, police officials said. He immediately sounded off with his whistle they related, and the automobile halted its race east on Thirteenth street.

Driver Makes Escape

The Ford had brakes, but if the driver had them, he was too embarassed to use them; he was last seen making tracks down Texas Ave., Johnson reported.

Officer Johnson called "his find" into the police station. And several minutes later, Albert Lee Field, of 1812 Seventeenth street reported his brown Ford coach stolen. But he told police the license number wasn't available at the moment. The car had been taken from the front of his home.

Desk Sergeant Jesse Cox called off to Field the description of the Ford, which had already been checked on police records and found registered to Field. Cox also said, while showing at least five teeth to those in the office, "your car is waiting for you."

Another car reported stolen Monday was found abandoned by police Tuesday. A 1946 Plymouth sedan owned by George A. Jacks, of 816 Ave. H, was recovered in the 2500 block of North Third street.

Thirteen Escape Injury When Army Hospital Plane Blazes

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Feb. 24. (AP)—Thirteen crew members and medical patients escaped injury today when the main radio of an Army Transport command hospital plane caught fire in mid-air 20 miles from here.

The crew extinguished the blaze and brought the plane down safely at Kellogg field here while fire apparatus and first aid trucks stood by.

Public relations officers at the army's Percy Jones General hospital here said the patients included five servicemen and two dependents of servicemen.

The two engined transport was en route from Westover Field, Mass., to bring the patients to Kellogg field and percy Jones hospital.

The smoking radio was in a compartment apart from the main cabin of the plane and most of the passengers were unaware there was a fire.

Parents Protest 30-Minute Lunch Period

Board Asks Decision On School Cafeterias

By BILL CLARK
Avalanche Staff Writer

LUBBOCK'S board of school trustees became the target of two more groups of irate parents at a regular meeting Tuesday night—this time receiving salvos of protests against the 30-minute lunch periods at Roscoe Wilson and Dupre schools.

The result will be that patrons of each elementary school in the city will be asked to say whether they want the school cafeterias to operate with a 30-minute lunch period, or not at all.

Board's Work Praised

Approximately a dozen men and women talked for an hour and a half protesting the newly-established short lunch period. Then a third group, represented by three men, expressed appreciation for work the board has accomplished in the past year.

Later, board members acted on routine business matters, including the calling of an election for April 3 to elect two board members and the hiring of a new assistant coach for Senior High school.

J. William Davis, acting as spokesman for the Wilson group, delivered a 15-minute address in which he asserted that the 30-minute lunch period (1) is a detriment to the health and well-being of children, and (2) vitally affects home life and breaks it up as a unit.

Then Joe Dennis, also of the Wilson group, added that patrons of the school had not been informed that the 30-minute period would result from opening the cafeteria, which serves hot meals for 32 cents or less. He called the 30-minute period "coercive" in that it forced the children to eat at school.

The discussion evolved into a

Court Assesses Two Sentences

Two convictions—one of which, if affirmed by a court of review, would mean a life sentence —were voted by 72nd district juries Tuesday afternoon.

A jury of which W. A. Martin was foreman, and which probably for the first time in 72nd court included a negro member, reported to Judge Dan Blair at 5:20 p.m. that it had found Willie Roberson, 40, a negro, guilty of a Jan. 30 burglary of property controlled by W. A. Conwell, and that it found Robersor had been twice convicted earlier of felonies under the grade of capital offenses.

That meant it found he was guilty as an habitual criminal.

Life Sentence Automatic

Roberson waived a two-day statutory period for accepting sentence. Judge Blair imposed sentence, and Roberson, who had represented himself in the trial, gave notice in open court of appeal to the court of criminal appeals.

If the high court affirms the conviction, Roberson automatically will be given a life sentence in the state penitentiary, District Attorney Lloyd Croslin and assistant District Attorney E. G. Pharr said.

Roberson's earlier convictions were in 99th district court, both for burglary — one on Sept. 20, 1946, the other on Sept. 15, 1941, the indictment alleged.

Five-Year Term Given

The jury otherwise was composed of W. H. Massey, Doyle B. B. Sewell, D. E. Adams, C. Knott, Albert C. Symes, J. A. Burch, E. R. Heinrick, Ennis Jackson (the negro), Marvin J. Meador, P. B. Penney, and R. M. Cade.

The other defendant, Wazy Harris, 34, a negro, was convicted of murder by a jury of which W. A. Caraway was foreman. It reported to Judge Blair at 3:05 p.m., and recommended a five-year penitentiary sentence.

Harris was charged with murder with malice of Milton LeFall, another negro, who fell dead with a .22 caliber rifle bullet in the head June 19 in the negro section of Lubbock.

The case was started Monday, with selection of the jury from a regular panel.

Two Children Die In Flames Near Haskell

HASKELL, Feb. 24. (AP)—Mary Acosta, 14, and her sister, Rosia, 7, burned to death tonight when they were trapped in their flaming farm home four miles northwest of here.

Their charred bodies were later recovered from the smoking debris by firemen from Haskell. They were lying near the front door.

The girls' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Acosta, were quoted by firemen as saying the younger girl was asleep when the fire started, and Mary went to Rosia's aid. None of the other nine members of the family were injured.

Firemen attributed the fire to newspapers ignited accidentally by candles with which the children were playing. Acosta is a tenant farmer.

Demos In Texas Join In Protest

(By The Associated Press)

Indignant statements came Tuesday from some Texas Democratic leaders about the stand of National Democratic Chairman J. Harold McGrath on President Truman's civil rights program.

McGrath told southern governors in Washington Monday he would not try to get the President's program withdrawn from Congress as they had demanded.

Statements from some other Texas Democrats showed they stood by Truman, a survey by the Dallas Morning News showed.

New Leader Urged

"A new standard-bearer must be selected this summer and he must be a state rights Democrat else that voice might be lost forever," the News quotes State Senator Morris Roberts of Victoria, member of the state Democratic executive committee.

Other comment:

Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Goliad, vice-chairman of the state Democratic executive committee:

"To survive, we of the South are now compelled to withhold money and votes until such time as Mr. McGrath and his advisers consider the South a part of the Democratic party."

Texas Republican Chairman Will Support Dewey, He Announces

DALLAS, Feb. 24. (AP)—George P. Hopkins of Dallas, chairman of the Republican state executive committee, today announced his support of Gov. Thomis E. Dewey for the Republican presidential nomination.

The announcement was made in the presence of Edwin F. Jaeckle of Buffalo, N. Y., one of Dewey's three top campaign managers.

Texas' Republican national committeeman, R. B. Creager of Brownsville, is a longtime friend and supporter of Sen Robert A. Taft of Ohio for the nomination.

"If Republicans of Texas are left to vote their preference without pressure from any source, a maximum of 26 Dewey delegates will be named of Texas' 33 allotted delegates to the national convention," Hopkins said in a statement issued jointly wth Colley Briggs of Paducah, who was called the first Dewey man in Texas.

Gen. Meyers Goes On Trial In Washington

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24. (AP)—Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers went on trial today in charges of inducing a business associate to lie to Congress.

Prosecutor George Morris Fay told the jury he will prove that the wartime No. 2 purchasing agent for the Army Air Forces got more than $150,000 profits from war contracts.

The defense argued that the 52-year-old Meyers is charged only with inducing a one-time associate, Bleriot H. Lamarre of Dayton, O., to commit perjury at a Senate investigation into Meyers' affairs.

Morton Man Is Accident Victim

MORTON, Feb. 25 (Special)—Chester Lee Richards, 44, a resident of Hockley county for the past 20 years, was killed at the Hawkins Grain Elevator company at Lehman, about 15 miles south of Morton, this afternoon when he was buried beneath several hundred pounds of grain in a storage space.

Richards, who had been helping load maize into a large tank container, had been missing approximately an hour and a half when a fellow workman in another part of the plant became alarmed and began a search which led to the discovery of the victim buried beneath the grain.

Rescue Was Difficult

Help was rushed from Morton and approximately 45 men took turns in working to free Richards, finally extricating him about 4:50 p. m., more than two hours after his hand had been found protruding from the pile of grain.

Justice of the Peace Alvin O'Pry returned a verdict of death by suffocation. The body was taken to Singleton Funeral Home in Morton. Funeral arrangements were still incomplete late tonight.

Richards is survived by his wife and eight children.

Barkley Urges Tax Compromise

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—Senator Barkley (D-Ky) has told Republican members of the Senate Finance committee they may get Democratic support for a tax cut up to $4,000,000,000.

The administration's floor leader told a reporter he has suggested that members get together on a bill which could have bipartisan backing when it reaches the Senate floor.

Compromise Seen

His action was interpreted in other quarters as virtual abandonment of President Truman's request for a $40 cost-of-living tax cut for everyone, to be balanced by a boost in corporate levies.

The Republican plan is to cut individual income levies without raising corporation taxes.

Barkley reserved the right to offer an administration bill if Republicans and Democrats cannot agree on a compromise well under the $6,300,000,000 cut voted earlier by the House.

"I don't think there is any political advantage to be gained either way on this matter of reducing taxes," the Kentucky senator said.

Wallace Charges European Aid Plan Is 'Blueprint For War'

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—Henry A. Wallace charged today that "big bankers, the monopolists and the militarists" have turned the Marshall plan into "a blueprint for war" and a "political and economic weapon against the American people."

"New faces" must be in the White House, Wallace said, before "an understanding between the United States and Russia" can make peace secure.

And the Third Party presidential candidate left no doubt that one of the faces he had in mind was his own.

Wallace testified at his own request in flat opposition to Secretary of State Marshall's European recovery program. He told the House Foreign Affairs committee it means "suppressing" the people of Europe and lowering living standards at home.

Wallace wore a neat grey suit, and his cowlick dangled over one eye as usual, in this first formal Washington appearance since President Truman fired him from the cabinet in 1946.

Speaking with vigor and enthusiasm, he outlined his own eight-

COLOMBIA MAKES SURPRISE MOVE

Special UN Assembly Session Proposed In Holy Land Crisis

(By The Associated Press)

LAKE SUCCESS, Feb. 24—Colombia asked the Security Council tonight to consider calling a special United Nations assembly session to cope with the Palestine crisis.

Dr. Alfonso Lopez of Colombia, in a surprise resolution, moved that the council set up a committee to study the advisability of such a special Assembly.

The assembly would reconsider the Palestine partition plan approved by the regular Assembly last Nov. 29.

The United States immediately declared its opposition to this move and stood firmly on a recommendation made earlier in the day that the big five powers combine in a swift diplomatic move for peace in Palestine.

Dr. Lopez proposed that:

1. The council ask the five great powers to consult on joint action to meet any threat to the peace arising from enforcement of the Assembly's Nov. 29 resolution for dividing the Holy Land into Jewish and Arab countries

2. The council appoint a committee of five council members to

Texas Waterway Projects Are Approved By House Committee

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—All Texas waterways projects recommended by the Budget Bureau were approved by the House Appropriations committee today and two more projects were added.

However, nearly all the projects were trimmed somewhat under Budget bureau recommendations. An effort to restore the cuts will be made in the Senate.

Texas projects recommended total $28,222,100. Flood control works would receive $22,730,000 and $5,492,100 would be used for navigation improvements to rivers and harbors.

Texas Projects Pushed

The money will be available for spending in the year beginning July 1, if Congress passes and President Truman signs the bill.

Added projects were Brady creek, $300,000 for floodway work, and $400,000 for navigation improvements on the Trinity river between Anahuac and Liberty.

Two Texas projects not recommended by the budget, but vigorously pressed by Texas delegations were the Garza-Little Elm dam on the Trinity river watershed and the Belton reservoir on the Little river near Belton and Temple.

Dallas asked for $1,000,000 to start the Garza-Little Elm dam, and said they would match federal money dollar for dollar.

Backers of the Belton reservoir also wanted $1,000,000 to start work on their dam The bill provides an appropriation of $3,000,000 to army engineers for planning, and it is expected Belton will get between $75,000 and $100,000 of that amount.

Some of the Texas projects were trimmed, and undoubtedly a move will be made in the Senate to get more money for those which were cut and some for a few projects which were not approved by the House.

Amounts Sought Listed

Reps. Poage of Waco and Wilson of Dallas, sponsors of the Belton and Garza-Little Elm projects respectively, said they would help:

If House debate is favorable, Poage added, he will seek an amendment for the Belton reservoir.

Texas projects included in the bill and the amounts proposed for each:

Rivers And Harbors

Brazos island harbor, $175,000; Neches and Angelina rivers, $1,818,100; Sabine-Neches waterway, $480,000; intracoastal canal, between Corpus Christi and Brownsville, $2,119,000; Houston ship channel, $500,000; Trinity river, Anahuac-Liberty, $400,000.

Flood Control

Texarkana reservoir, $3,350,000; Red river levees below Denison dam, $1,000,000; Benbrook reservoir, $3,200,000; Lavon reservoir, $2,800,000; Grapevine reservoir, $3,300,000; Whitney reservoir $4,000,000; Hords creek reservoir, $280,000; San Angelo reservoir and floodway, $4,000,000; Denison reservoir, $500,000; Brady creek, $300,000.

Harlingen Now Has Two Fire Chiefs, Three Departments

HARLINGEN, Tex., Feb. 24 (U.P.)—Harlingen again has developed growing pains and as matters stood today it appeared to have a couple of fire chiefs—and about three departments.

Its volunteer firemen for some months have balked at working for the chief of the paid fire department. The volunteers who work for free have argued they have a right to pick their own chief.

Last night city manager Bill Briscoe met with the firemen and told them they could either take orders from the paid fire chief—Henry Smith—or else. He wouldn't say what the "or else" was until they made up their minds. By a vote of 21 to 11 the volunteers decided they wouldn't recognize paid chief Smith.

Then Briscoe laid down the law. He announced an auxiliary fire department was needed — and classes for auxiliary firemen would start tomorrow night, under the direction of Smith. The volunteers countered by electing a new chief for themselves, Bill Coppin.

That makes three fire departments—the paid firemen, the auxiliary workers, and the volunteers—and two chiefs, Smith and Coppin.

Czechs Need Pledge Of Material Support To Challenge Red Move

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

The United States threw in its Czechoslovakian cards almost three years ago and now is forced to sit idly by while Russia rakes in the pot.

There is agitation but as yet no sign of action in Washington as the Czechs wage a more or less hopeless fight against being taken over by the Communists. There doesn't seem to be much we can do. Ambassador Steinhardt's expression of hope that Czechoslovakia may yet be included in the Marshall plan amounts to little more than a reiteration of friendship. The Czechs would be more of a help than a beneficiary under the plan.

Need Pledge Of Aid

What the Czechs need is assurance of real support from the West—military support if needed. They need faith in the determination and ability of the western powers to win the cold war. They don't have it.

The Czechs, without hope of any real support from the West, have made compromise after compromise with their powerful eastern neighbor. How it would result has been pretty obvious from the beginning.

Czechoslovakia has been a sort of no man's land between East and West, so it is hardly fair to say that America's worldwide defense line against totalitarianism has been breached.

This is the spectacle of a minority, armed with police power, subjugating a country with no more than spiritual violations of its politician institutions.

These are the practices that outflank the defenses of western system which, designed to curb governmental authority rather than support it, are peculiarly vulnerable to domestic infiltration. This is the method by which the Kremlin would prefer to conquer the world, holding military power in reserve only for emergency use.

Motion Picture On Life Of Christ Scheduled At Church

"Golgotha," motion picture depicting the life of Christ and the Passion Play, will be shown at 7:30 o'clock tonight at St. John's Methodist church, under auspices of the Wesleyan Service guild of the church.

The picture presents the story of Jesus from the triumphal entry to the ascension. It is based upon the world-famous Freiburg and Oberammergau Passion plays of Europe. It was produced in France and has been shown in thousands of churches the last few years.

The picture is being sent here by the National Bureau for Religious and Educational Films.

The public is invited and tickets will not be required, it was announced. A free-will offering will be taken to help defray expenses.

Labor Men Back Prison Profits

HUNTSVILLE, Tex., Feb. 24 (AP)—Two Texas labor leaders have gone on record as favoring the sale of prison produced and manufactured products to other state institutions at a profit to the Texas prison system.

They are W. J. Harris, Dallas, president of the Texas Federation of Labor, AFL, and Robert Oliver, regional director and director of the Southern Organizing committee in Texas for the CIO.

Harris and Oliver, qualifying their statements by saying they favor sale of such products only to state institutions, told officials of the Texas prison system here they believe the system should not sell any products on the open market in competition with other businesses.

Prison Tour Made

The two head a group of organized labor leaders who are conferring with members of the prison board on problems preventing the system from operating at a deficit.

Texas labor groups long have opposed selling prison products at a profit. Present Texas laws permit the prison board to sell such products only for the cost of materials involved.

Harris and Oliver made their comments after making a tour of the prison farms yesterday in Brazoria and Fort Bend counties to inspect present facilities and confer with prison officials as to the possibility of increasing units of the system.

Prison officials say principal reasons for increased industrialization are to provide useful work in the rehabilitation of inmates and the possible sale of prison-produced materials in order to make the system more self sustaining.

Action by the Legislature is needed before either of these aims can be realized.

Accompanying the two labor leaders on yesterday's tour and conferring with them today here were O. B. Ellis, general manager of the prison system, B. A. Stufflebeme, Grand Prairie, member of the prison board, E. Carlisle Smith, Grand Prairie architect, and H. M. Rabun, Dallas, public relations director for the CIO in Texas.

Club Drafts Plans For Clyde Circus

Optimist club members at their Tuesday luncheon meeting discussed general plans and outlined a ticket sales schedule for the mid-March appearance here of the Clyde Brothers circus, sponsored by the club for the benefit of an expansion program by the Junior Optimist club.

It was explained by J. Holland Cox, Optimist president, that all funds derived from the four-day circus schedule will go toward expansion of the junior club which has outgrown its quarters in the 2400 block of Sanders street.

The circus is to show here March 12, 13, 15 and 16 in seven performances—three matinees and four night shows. The show is to be set up at Nineteenth and Taylor Ave., site of the proposed new Lubbock Memorial hospital.

The Lone Star Junior Optimist club was started by the senior organization in 1941, and its program, which centers around recreational and other activities of boys in the northwest section of the city, has been steadily expanded.

Cox said the club has outgrown its present quarters and facilities, and more room must be provided.

The luncheon meeting was devoted to discussion of the circus, with Cox in charge. No other program was scheduled.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK

SOMEONE said the other day if we practiced true brotherhood America could become the pattern for peace. Well, since this is Brotherhood week, likely a great deal of thought is being put on that subject in home, church and school, in the press, over radio and in news reels.

Brotherhood must be learned and it must be practiced every week in the year if we are to get anywhere. There are those who prate of the simple life. Well, we wouldn't know about that because life certainly appears to be complex to us, anyway you look at it, but we do believe it could be run with brotherhood and things would be on a more even keel.

AS Robert P. Patterson, former under-secretary of war and general chairman of Brotherhood week for 1948 said, in part:

"We Americans are committed to the cause of world peace. Words will not win the peace. We will not reach it unless we have a strong, united nation here at home. And a strong united nation is an unattainable ideal unless we keep brotherhood as the guiding rule of our daily lives.

"The unity we had in the war years, when we saw the losses and sorrows of war being borne by Americans without distinction as to race or religion, when it was plain to all of us that our spiritual aims and purposes were far more powerful than our differences, is still available as the vital force for peace. The understanding and good will found in the bond of brotherhood will bring us to realize that unity. I know of nothing else that can."

Brotherhood is a social study; we must learn it together. And Brotherhood week is a project in mass education.

RED BARNS

HAD you ever wondered why farmers paint their barns red? Red, blue and yellow paint all cost about the same, so they don't choose red for its economy. And visibility is not the factor, because a yellow barn can be seen farther than a red one.

We think the answer is in eye fatigue. The out-of-doors is abundant in green foliage. Those engaged in agriculture spend the majority of their time in a green environment and become so fatigued with this color they seek a color most unlike this customary green. The opposite or complementary color of green is red.

We suppose this should indicate that a farmer is more apt to buy a red tractor; a hoe, a shovel, or a hammer with a red handle; in fact almost any color is to be preferred over green.

WOMEN'S PROGRESS

SUSAN B. ANTHONY was arrested when she cast a vote in the presidential election of 1872, as she asserted the 14th amendment to the Constitution entitled her to do.

Mrs. Anthony was founder and later president of the National Women's Suffrage association which sponsored the first women's rights conference in Seneca Falls, N. Y., in 1848.

An evaluation of the progress women have made since the "Declaration of Sentiments" was drawn up at the Seneca Falls conference will be made this month at a conference called here by the U. S. Women's Bureau.

MISS FRIEDA MILLER, director of the Women's Bureau, says the conference will not yield a 1948 declaratior of women's rights. She says women have "gone too far and achieved too much to make action of that kind either necessary or appropriate."

Miss Miller says that in the past century women have gained the full legal right to—

1. Enter professions anti practically all occupations and trades.
2. Vote and help make laws on local, state and national levels.
3. Serve on juries in all but 13 states.
4. Enjoy full rights of property and earnings in most states.
5. Have the same rights of guardianship as men in most cases.
6. Keep their personal identity in most respects.
7. Receive the same treatment as men under tax laws.

"IN 1848," Miss Miller says, "a woman's property was taxed without representation, marriage meant civil death for her in many respects, and the doors to profitable employment generally were closed tightly against her."

Women workers today, she adds, form 28 per cent of all workers and more than 30 per cent of all women 14 years of age and over in the nation's population.

Red Raiders Coast To 46-38 Win Over Buffs

Kerr And Gibson Spark Tech Quint

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

The West Texas State Teachers College Buffaloes threw a slight scare into the Texas Tech basketball team last night, but it wasn't enough to last and the Red Raiders waltzed to a 46-38 victory in a rough and tumble contest.

Tech took an early lead on field goals by Jay Kerr and Gene Gibson, the two outstanding Tech players of the night, and the home forces never were headed afterwards. Gibson added a free throw to make the score 5-1 and, with four minutes gone, it looked as though Tech was on its way.

Buffs Tie Score

West Texas also got started and knotted the count at 5-all. Tech forged ahead on free throws by Don Grove and Gibson, only to have the Buffs deadlock things again at 7-all. It was the last time that they were able to tie the count and the visitors never held a lead in the entire game

Grove followed one of his own shots, before Gibson also scored on a follow and added a free throw. Grove flipped a corner hook shot through the hoops and Jackson, on a weird pass that two West Texas men and one Tech player touched, dumped a crip shot into the nets.

Tech Finds Range

Tech went off the court with a 28-17 lead and West Texas never threatened seriously thereafter, although they erased a 14-point lead in the closing minutes of play.

The Buffs opened the second half by holding Tech to one free throw for the first six minutes, during which the visitors cut the lead to 29-24.

At that point Tech found the range again and, for the next seven minutes kept the mesh swinging for 11 points and a 40-24 lead. The Buffs substituted and, against their erratic and aggressive basketball, Tech was held to a shinny game, in which both teams got rough. Eleven fouls were called in the closing seven minutes and West Texas outscored the winners.

Grove Tops Scorers

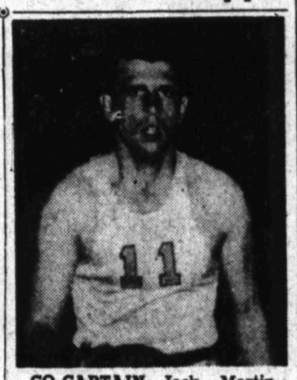

Grove took scoring honors with 16 points, but it was the brilliant play of Kerr and Gibson that held the invaders in check. These two players, of whom Coach Polk Robison hoped for much, came through last night with sparkling play, both offensively and defensively, to jump the Raiders into a tie with Arizona State of Tempe for second place in the Border Conference.

Texas Tech's next home game will be Thursday night here against Hardin-Simmons.

CO-CAPTAIN—Jack Martin of Hardin-Simmons university plays a lot of guard for the Cowboys and is the team's leading scorer. He also was a member of the state champion high school team from 1939 to 1941.

Amarillo Drubs Graham, 49-31, In Cage Clash

GRAHAM, Feb. 24 (Special)—Forward Doyle Watson sparked a blazing last quarter offensive that gave Amarillo's Golden Sandies, representatives of District 1-AA, a 49-31 bi-district cage victory over the Graham Steers of 2-AA here tonight.

Watson was injured just before halftime when he crashed into a wall, but the scrappy shotmaker returned to the game during the final stanza and hit the basket for 10 points. During the tussle Watson connected for a total of 21 points to cop individual scoring honors.

Sandies Take Lead

The Sandstorm grabbed the lead early in the clash on shots by Watson, Jimmy Sharp and Bobby Farmer, but the determined Steers kept on the heels of the visitors throughout the first half. The Amarilloans led 21-15 at halftime.

The Steer quintet narrowed the margin to 31-25 at the end of the third quarter, but the closing burst by the Watson-led Sandies clinched the victory.

The Graham cagers will journey to Amarillo Friday night to battle the Sandies in the second bi-district playoff tilt and—if the Steers win—the third game will be played Saturday night at Childress.

Ralls, Floydada Test Favorites

CANYON, Feb. 24 (Special) — Dimmitt, Levelland and Sudan loom as the top favorites in the Region 1 Class A basketball tournament, which opens here Friday at the West Texas State Teachers college gymnasium, but the strong finishes of the other five district representatives have increased the possibilities of major upsets in the first round of play.

The powerful Dimmitt Bobcats, rated as the best-balanced quint in the meet, are slated to battle Floydada's surging Whirlwinds in the initial tussle Friday afternoon. The Dimmitt crew chalked up impressive wins over the top cage teams of West Texas during the regular season, but injuries—and the late season drive by Floydada—have given the Whirlwind five an opportunity to score a surprising upset.

Ralls Battles Sudan

The Ralls Jackrabbits face the toughest opening round assignment since they are scheduled to tangle with Sudan's potent Hornets Friday night. The Sudan quintet lost only two games during the regular season—one to Lubbock of 1-AA and another tussle with Dimmitt—and was edged out by Levelland in the final game of the District 4-A tourney.

Levelland meets Memphis and Perryton clashes with Canyon in other Friday games.

Tom Adams Wins In Gloves Tourney

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 (AP) — Two Texas state champions lost in the national Golden Gloves boxing tournament here tonight, but another won.

Fred Morales of Temple, 112 pounds, was decisioned by Russ McCarthy, Grand Rapids, Mich.

Eugene Cooper, Fort Worth, defeated Ralph Bilstein, Denver, Colo.

Morales last night won two bouts to reach the third round of the tournament.

This was Cooper's first bout.

Morris Milburn of Fort Worth dropped a decision to Paul Terry, 160, Indianapolis.

Tom Adams of Fort Worth decisioned Sam Davis of Chicago in the 175 pound class.

Charles Simmons, Dallas, Texas heavyweight champion for three straight years, defeated Clayton Paige, Milwaukee, in his first bout.

Coach-Pupil Rivalry To Feature Region 1 Class B Cage Meet At Tech This Weekend

A veteran coach and one of his former pupils will have a friendly rivalry Friday and Saturday in Tech gymnasium as the basketball championship of Region I, Texas Interscholastic league Class B, is decided.

Coach Jack Williams will have his Farwell quintet in the thick of the tussle, while T. M. Cox, who he coached at Muleshoe High school in 1940-41-42, will be mentor for the Claude High school five. Farwell is rated as the favorite to win the regional crown, but Claude will have probably the tallest and most experienced team of the 11 entered.

Former Tech Gridder

Coach Cox won football letters at Texas Tech in 1943, 1944 and 1945, moving on to coach Dalhart High basketball last year and Claude this season. He will be bringing the fourth district championship Mustang team to the regional.

Claude, which has won 19 and lost 13 games, is led by three seniors—Don Bagwell, Dee Gilley and Joel Wilson, all of whom have indicated they intend to enroll in Texas Tech next fall. Bill Forbes and Tommy Christian complete the Mustang team, which averages better than 6 feet tall. Claude this season scored 1,085 points to 1,005 for opponents. Bagwell and Gilley, co-captains, will make their fourth trip to a regional tournament this week, Wilson his third.

One Tilt Lost

Coach Williams says he has no stars, "just a well-balanced team," but fans express belief Waymon Thomas and Bob Hart, his two forwards, are lads to be watched and guarded closely if the opposition is to win.

Farwell won 25 of its 26 games this season, losing only to Friona. Twice, however, Friona fell later in the season to the Farwell lads.

One of the most determined teams in the tournament will be the Whiteface Antelopes, which won the District 9 championship by determination, Coach L. S. Salzer declares.

Four Sessions Scheduled

"Whiteface started moving late in the season," Coach Salzer reported. "New Home had defeated us twice before; Meadow and nearly every other club in the district had a better record. Yet, when the chips were down the Antelopes had the stuff. Whiteface has been district champion since 1945 and our boys just couldn't have it any other way except that they win. We may not have a world beater in the tournament, but whoever plays us will have a battle. In fact, it looks like every team will have a battle and that this tournament in Tech gym is the toughest ever staged."

Whiteface depends materially on the veteran McKay brothers, Joe and Jack, both of whom have seen regional tournament play. Nathan Tubb has been assisting Salzer in coaching the five.

Four session are scheduled for the regional tournament, Friday afternoon, Friday night, Saturday afternoon and Saturday night. Other district winners to play are Follett, Startford, Carey, Kress, Dawson, Spade, Shallowater and Girard.

ROPESVILLE DRUBS FURR FIVE

Lubbock's Hoyt Quint Wins First Tussle Of TAAF Meet

ABERNATHY, Feb. 24 (Special)—The Texas Amateur Athletic Federation's Annual Basketball tournament got underway here tonight with four games on the schedule, only one of which turned out to be close.

The Hoyt Furniture quintet from Lubbock, one of the early favorites in the tourney, received unexpectedly stern competition from the Cotton Center Independents, who trailed most of the game. At the same time, Cotton Center never could be counted out of the running and it took a desperate late rally to save the day for Hoyt, 28-25.

In other games tonight, Ropesville defeated Furr Food of Lubbock, 44-22; Plainview's Junior Chamber of Commerce team won from the Exum Sandwich Bar 30-17; and the O'Donnell Implement five conquered the Sander's Auto quint, 46-24.

The Hoyt Furniture - Cotton Center tilt started off slowly enough and Hoyt's went to work building a slim first quarter lead. The second canto also was slow and neither team found the range with much regularity, although Hoyt held its lead.

At the intermission, the Hoyt team left the court with a 12-6 margin and appeared to be on its way to a good victory. But Cotton Center came back to force the play and soon knotted the score at 12-all.

The pressure was on Hoyt and the quintet responded, shooting the score up to 22-13 before the end of the third quarter.

This looked like enough and again the Lubbock players eased off. It almost proved fatal. Cotton Center's determined cagers fought back, holding the Hoyt five to six points in the closing quarter, while hitting the nets for 12 points themselves.

Burnett Tops Scorers

In fact, several observers felt that had the game lasted many minutes more, Cotton Center's splurge would have carried them to victory.

M. J. Crow and Dave Lawson each scored six points for Hoyt Furniture, but yielded game honors to Ken Burnett of Cotton Center, who had a total of nine tallies.

Ropesville wasn't extended in turning back the Furr Food entry from the Hub City, 44-22, doubling the score on Furrs with little trouble.

The Ropesville quintet led all the way and had taken a 23-14 margin at the half. They almost doubled their own tally in the second half, while holding Furrs to even less points.

Gene McKee and Red Ferguson led the Ropesville quintet, each notching 14 points. W. C. Self topped the Furr Food scorers with six.

The Plainview JCC entry also appeared in a favorable light, as the visiting delegation turned back the Exum Sandwich Bar five, 30-17. The game was close in the first half, with the Plainview five holding a narrow 10-9 lead at the intermission.

But after the pause for rest, the JCC quintet returned to pour it on the outclassed Sandwich Bar cage crew to leave no doubt that they were the superior team.

Wendell Morris ran up the second highest lone scoring of the night with 15 points for Plainview, while L. W. Utley nicked the hoops for six points for Exum.

O'Donnell Implement team served notice that it will be a tough outfit to beat with an impressive victory over the Sander's Auto five. It wasn't so much the score as the way the victors played the game. The O'Donnell cagers all are well-versed in floor work and their superior training was evident.

Edward Brownlow, former O'Donnell High school star with his southpaw pitches, topped the scorers with 16 points, the highest individual effort of the evening.

Buford Parmer and Burrell Taylor each had six points for the losing Auto five.

The tournament continues with first round games Wednesday night, the first one starting at 7 o'clock. Three games are on the docket, completing first round play, with three games for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

The schedule for Wednesday follows:

7 p. m.—Levelland vs. Plains Gassers.

8:15 p. m.—Furr Food (Brownfield) vs. Ray's Grocery.

9:30 p. m. — Bluebonnet-Sunbeam vs. Crawford Electric.

PEP DEFENDS CROWN

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 24 (AP)—Willie Pep successfully defended his world featherweight championship tonight and came to the rescue of 10,000 rain-drenched fans by knocking out Humberto Sierra of Cuba after 22 seconds of the tenth round of a 15-round title bout.

Bears Have Simple Winning Formula -- Make More Points!

DALLAS, Feb. 24 (AP)—Baylor's Bears won the Southwest conference basketball championship by that infallible formula—making more points than the opposition and holding them to less than anybody else.

Statistics through games of Feb. 21 show Baylor to have averaged 51.7 points in 10 games as the second high-scoring team of the conference. Southern Methodist was first with an average of 52.8. But SMU allowed its opponents 49.7 per game whereas Baylor gave up only 42.6. Second defensively was Arkansas, which allowed 45.3.

Track, Golf And Tennis Squads Drill At Tech

The packing of basketball suits at Texas Tech after the March 1 game will drop winter sports out of the limelight and will bring Red Raider track, tennis and golf teams into it, with a heavy schedudle of activities planned by athletic officials.

Coach Maxey McKnight, hampered by intermittent good and bad weather, is working his track team at every possible moment to get it ready, for six scheduled meets. The cinder season opens for the Tech team on March 19 and closes on May 8.

Full Slate Revealed

First appearance of the track team will be at the Fort Worth Stock show on March 19 and 20, followed by an engagement at the Texas Relays in Austin on April 3. The Raiders return for a quadrangular event here On April 9 with Hardin-Simmons, McMurry and Abilene Christian.

The track and field squad then goes to El Paso for a triangular affair with Texas Mines and New Mexico Aggies on April 17, returning April 23 for a meet here with New Mexico, Texas Mines and West Texas. The season ends at Tempe, Arizona, on May 7 and 8 with the Border Conference championship meet.

Tennis Dates Given

Golf and tennis teams will follow almost an identical pattern of play, with a few additional dates under the direction of Coaches Morley Jennings and Polk Robison. They will be in Fort Worth with the track squad, as well as competing against Hardin-Simmons, McMurry and Abilene Christian teams; Texas Mines and New Mexico Aggies at El Paso; New Mexico, Texas Mines and West Texas here; and the Border Conference championships at Tempe.

Outside of these dates, the golf and tennis teams will go to Dallas March 25 for matches with SMU and to Fort Worth March 26 for matches with TCU. TCU will come here on April 26 for links and court play.

RED SOX CHALLENGE ANSWERED

New York Yanks Get Ace Hurler Ed Lopat In Deal With Chicago

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP)—Answering the challenge of the greatly improved Boston Red Sox, the world champion New York Yankees today acquired Ed Lopat from the Chicago White Sox, one of the best pitchers in the American league.

In return for Lopat, a southpaw, the Yankees sent catcher Aaron Robinson and Rookie pitchers Bill Wight and Fred Bradley to the White Sox. No cash was reported involved.

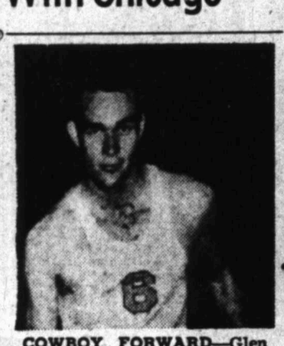

Second Hurler Obtained

Lopat is the second starting pitcher snared by the Yankees from rival American league clubs since the close of the 1947 campaign. In December they obtained Charles (Red) Embree, a right-hander, from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for rookie outfielder Allie Clark.

The Red Sox, in a determined effort to regain the flag they relinquished to the Yankees last year, went on a buying spree last November. They obtained pitchers Jack Kramer and Ellis Kinder and hard-hitting shortstop Vern Stephens from the St. Louis Browns for around $350,000 and a handful of minor league hopefuls.

General Manager George Weiss of the Yanks was elated over the deal which brought the first top-flight starting southpaw to the Yankees since the days of Lefty Gomez and Marius Russo.

Lopat's record over the last two seasons with the second division White Sox stamps him as one of the American league's top performers. The 29-year-old New York City born lefthander was fifth in the earned run averages in 1946 with 2.83. Last year he was third, with 2.81, behind Spud Chandler of the Yankees and Feller.

COWBOY FORWARD—Glen Burroughs of Hardin-Simmons university will give Texas Tech plenty of trouble Thursday night, when the Cowboys tangle with the Red Raiders in a Border Conference game here. Burroughs, a sophomore, has been one of the mainstays in the Cowboy offensive all season.

WAYLAND DRUBS RANGER

PLAINVIEW, Feb. 24 (Special)—D. W. Harkins' 21 point scoring offensive paced the Wayland college quint to an easy 81-49 triumph over Ranger Junior college in a Texas Junior college conference playoff game here tonight. Sullivan chalked up 16 points for the losers.

Amherst Sextet Edges Whitharral, 26-23

Five Tilts Open District 18 Meet

COOPER, Feb. 24 (Special)—A thrill-packed afternoon game between Amherst and Whitharral, with the former winning by a count of 26-23 in an overtime period: three forfeits; two lop-sided defeats; and two good games opened the annual District 18 girls' basketball tournament in the local high school gym here today.

Helen Vaughn of Amherst proved to be the difference in the game between Amherst and Whitharral, the sharpshooting forward combining with Sue Long to win the game, after Betty Jo Hobbs of Whitharral had sent it into an extra session.

The huge crowd, jammed into the Cooper gym, cheered with amazement as the lead changed hands five times in the final two minutes of the regular playing period. Long sank a field goal with only 30 seconds to go that seemed to assure victory, but it was not enough.

Betty Jo Hobbs, playing a grueling game, took aim, fired and hooked the netting even as she was falling in the final ten seconds of play to send the game into overtime. The aggressive Whitharral player sprained her knee on the play and was forced to leave the game.

In the tense extra canto, Sue Long and Helen Vaughn each scored three points to nose out the losing cagers, who had deadlocked the count at 26-all.

Both Vaughn and Delvina Shedd of Whitharral hit the hoops for ten points to take scoring honors.

Whitharral had opened the game by taking a 6-2 lead at the end of the first quarter. They were still leading at the half, 13-9, and even though the score was knotted at 14-all at the end of the third period, it seemed as though they could still win.

New Home opened the tournament at 1 p. m. by taking a well-played 30-20 victory from Morton's cagers. It was a slow starting winning team, but once the New Home sextet found the angle, they forged a good lead.

Jewel Dean Harmonson had 12 points for the winners, while Joann Lackey and Rodener Hudson each scored eight points for the losers.

Cotton Center Swamps Flomot

Cotton Center had no trouble swamping the Flomot cage crew under a 39-9 count, with Ruth Cannon of the winners getting twice as many points—18—as the losing team.

Cotton Center grabbed a 10-1 first period lead, raised it to 25-7 at the second period and coasted in from there. Bobbie Morris garnered four points to top the losers.

The other scheduled afternoon game was not played, when Lockney forfeited to the Robertson team.

Anton pried the lid off the night games with a 30-22 victory over the Spade girls, spearked by the spectacular shooting of Chalonese Mathews, who collected 21 points for herself and her team. It was the second most impressive individual work of the opening day.

Spade tried to stay in the game, but the superior Anton team met every challenge to walk off with an opening-round victory. Avanell Greenwood topped the Spade scorers with eight points.

The strong Abernathy sextet, rated as one of the darkhorse teams, coasted to an easy 47-15 victory over McAdoo, which was outclassed hopelessly by the victors. There was never any question about which was the best team.

Jean Rogers of Abernathy turned in the greatest individual work of the first day with a total of 23 points, two more than her nearest rival in the tourney. Her single work was eight points more than the entire McAdoo team was allowed.

Margie Dickinson topped the loser's scoring with nine points.

Two other games were scheduled for tonight, but Oklaunion, one of the darkhorses, forfeited to Lorenzo, and Three Way, another strong team, forfeited to New Deal.

The schedule for Wednesday follows:

1. p. m. — New Home vs. Muleshoe.
2 p. m. — Robertson vs. Roosevelt
3 p. m. — Cotton Center vs. Union
4 p. m. — Amherst vs. Dickens
6 p. m. — Anton vs. Wilson
7 p. m. — Abernathy vs. Whiteface
8 p. m. — Lorenzo vs. Matador
9 p. m. — New Deal vs. Meadow.

Freeman Battles Fenton Tonight

Three talent-packed bouts will provide the thrills for Lubbock mat fans tonight at Sled Allen's arena, with speedy Ace Freeman of New York City tangling with the Canadian mauler, Rod Fenton, in the two out of three falls main event of the weekly card.

The crowd-pleasing Freeman has chalked up impressive wins in his appearances here, but Fenton is a canny veteran of the grunt-and-groan circuit and should provide a tough test for the newcomer.

Another explosive bout is slated for the two of three falls semi-final event, when Gorilla Poggi battles the Mexico City grappler, Salvador Flores. The Gorilla recently completed a tour of South America and returns to the local arena with some new and surprising tactics that he picked up in the foreign loop. The combination of the rowdy Poggi and quick-tempered Flores promises plenty of excitement for Lubbock mat fans.

The fiery wrestler from Portland, Pierre La Belle, clashes with wily Johnny Carlin of Tampa, Fla., in the 20-minute preliminary.

Testimony In Poison Death Case Is Completed In Arkansas Court

CLINTON, Ark., Feb. 24 (AP)—Testimony was completed late today in the trial of Lonnie A. Robbins, 49, on a charge of fatally poisoning his 52-year-old bride last New Year's eve.

Robbins did not take the witness stand.

Judge Garner Frazer ordered a recess until 9 a. m. tomorrow after conferring with attorneys on instructions to the jury which is qualified to inflict the death penalty.

Principal defense witness was the defendant's mother, Mrs. Jewell Robbins, 71, who also is charged with first degree murder in connection with the death.

Former Abilene Resident

Mrs. Robbins testified that shortly before the bride was stricken with what physicians later determined was strychnine poisoning, she had returned from her bedroom to the kitchen and obtained a glass of water. The bride was the former Mrs Sue Dudley of Abilene, Tex.

Shortly afterward, she said, the younger woman was stricken and died in convulsions on the Robbins farm near Scotland, Ark.

The state, on cross examination of Mrs. Robbins and later on rebuttal examination of other witnesses, sought to show that her testimony was at variance in at least two particulars to statements previously given officers.

One concerned time between attacks of the fatal illness. The second concerned Mrs. Robbins' explanation of where she had obtained $720 she turned over to officers.

House Said Cleaned

Today, she said she obtained the money after her son, in changing clothes, had thrown it on a bed. The state attempted to show that previously she had said it was money received from sale of a California hotel she formerly operated.

Mrs. Robbins testified that after she and her son purchased the Scotland farm that the house was cleaned completely of miscellaneous belongings left by former occupants. This testimony was in an apparent effort to refute state testimony of Charles Kincannon, the former owner, that he believed he had left strychnine in the house.

The defense rested after testimony of Mrs. Robbins.

Concluding state witnesses included Helen Roberts, 42, Little Rock, who was arrested with Robbins approximately a week after the death. She testified she and Robbins were en route to Dardanelle to be married when they were arrested. She has been held since as a material witness.

Kincannon, of Yakima, Wash., expressed belief that a small vial of poison was left behind when he sold his home near here to Robbins last year.

Both sides have agreed that Mrs. Robbins died of strychnine, but the defense contends it was self-administered. She died on New Year's eve, several hours after her arrival in Robbins home near Scotland, Ark.

Robbins' mother and a former hired hand also are charged in the case.

First Aid Equipment Received At College

First aid equipment sufficient for eight complete emergency units has been received at Texas Technological college and special containers are under construction for storing it at strategic locations about the campus, according to Francis Beardon, assistant to the dean of men.

Included in the supplies received are: tape and bandages, cravat bandages, roller gauze, splints for both legs and arms, eight triangular bandages for each splint, burn ointment, disinfectant, and several other smaller items.

The first aid supplies will be stored in eight white boxes with a red cross clearly marked on the top and one will be placed in each of the dormitories, the Recreation hall, the administration building and the agricultural barns.

Starting with the fall semester this year, the social director in each dormitory will be required to take a first aid instructor's course for increased efficiency in case of emergency. In order to take the instructor's course the director must have passed the standard and advanced first aid courses, Beardon said.

The first aid equipment was received from the national Red Cross headquarters through the college Red Cross unit.

Winter-Starved Pennsylvania Game Receive Food By Air

DUBOIS, Pa., Feb. 24 (U.P.)—A 20th century version of manna from heaven provided food for deer, wild turkeys and other game in eastern Clearfield County this winter.

An aerial feeding project organized by sportsmen and airmen enabled the game to eat despite heavy snow.

Six planes dropped more than two tons of corn into dense cover. Operating as the Aero-Feed Club, the group carried on its errands of mercy even to the risk of landing on fields covered with nearly a half foot of snow.

Bus Passengers Wait For Driver To Deliver Lunch To 6-Year-Old

SEATTLE, Feb. 24 (U.P.)—A Seattle transit operator is a candidate for the nation's most thoughtful driver.

A six-year-old school child left the bus, forgetting her lunch. At the end of the line the driver noticed the package with the owner's name on it.

On the return trip he stopped the bus at the school street. He ran a block, gave the lunch box to the school principal and returned to his coach.

Passengers, delayed five minutes, said they believed it the right thing to do.

Steel Companies' Bid For More Consumer Dollars May Bring Action From Congress

By SAM DAWSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Feb. 24—The consumer's dollar was still the main topic today in the sector where business and politics meet.

Whether you talk about steel, housing, grain prices or new tires for cars, more and more interest is being shown in just how many dollars the consumer has left.

The Commerce department helps in the figuring by reporting that last year consumers spent $164 billion, which was $20 billion more than in 1946. Higher prices caused the increase, says the department.

National production of goods and services set a new high in 1946 by rising 13 percent over 1946 to $230 billion. National income from current production rose to $203 billion, compared with $170 billion the year before.

Profits Tax Target

Steel's bid for the consumer's dollar draws congressional attention. The Joint Congressional Economic committee will hear Benjamin Fairless, president of U. S. Steel Corp., next Tuesday. He has been asked to explain the 10 percent hike in price of many steel products.

Irving S. Olds, chairman of the board of U. S. Steel, tells a Yale alumni meeting that prices are a result of supply and demand and that more production will take care of both high prices and inflation. He takes a poor view of government interference.

But Wyoming Democratic Senator O'Mahoney proposes to revive the wartime excess profits tax because of the steel price boost, which he says invites Congress "to declare the steel industry a public utility."

Landlords and building contractors also watch political developments for a clue as to their share of the consumer's dollar.

Prospective Buyers Nervous

Congress appears set to extend rent controls for a month or more, and the President comes forth with a whopping plan to build 10 million living units in cities in the next 10 years. He wants funds to permit local housing authorities to build 100,000 public-housing units a year for the next five years.

If all that comes about, it might be a renter's paradise. But, of course, in election years there are apt to be more plans than performances.

The consumer's dollar worries the National Association of Home Builders meeting in Chicago. Tightening credit and increasing costs is making prospective buyers nervous, they say. The nation can use one million new homes a year for a while, "but only after the buyer has assurance that prices have stabilized," one builder says.

The break in grain and other commodity prices is cheering other competitors for the consumer's dollar. Vice President L. A. McQueen of the General Tire & Rubber Co. says the drop "means that people now can buy a hat, a pair of shoes, or a tire." That's good, he adds.

Plane Without Pilot Takes Off, Circles Over Nome

NOME, Alaska, Feb. 24 (AP)—An airplane took off without a pilot here yesterday and banked and circled for half an hour over the town.

When last seen, the plane was heading out over Bering sea, still circling.

The student training plane rolled to a perilous takeoff after it had been left with the engine running. It was owned by Cyril Seeds. Residents of Nome were unaware of the danger as the plane circled overhead.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (U.P.)—Norway settled its $47,000,000 lend-lease account with the United States today for $5,900,000 worth of Norwegian property and Norwegian kroner.

Norway was the second nation to settle its account without payment of any dollars to the United States, New Zealand was the first.

Memory Of Ernie Pyle Honored In Tokyo Theater Ceremonies

TOKYO, Feb. 24 (AP)—The memory of Ernie Pyle, war correspondent killed in action beside the G.I.'s he loved, was honored tonight. It was the second anniversary of the founding of the Ernie Pyle theater, big G. I. entertainment center here.

Brig. Gen. Paul B. Kelly, special service officer, praised Pyle's spirit under fire. Addressing 3,000 occupation personnel in the big theater, Kelly declared "he knew more of the brutal facts of war than almost any soldier, and he died in harness.

"Pyle spent his time with G.I.'s in fox holes where the going was toughest, and he wrote about them in such a way that he endeared himself equally to the people back home and to the G.I.'s themselves."

Pyle was killed by Japanese machinegun fire in the fight for Okinawa.

"It is a great pity that the world should have been deprived of his presence, but I like to think that some of his spirit lives on in this building," the general said.

The five-story Ernie Pyle theater is Tokyo's finest. It has two motion picture auditoriums, a library visited by 6,000 weekly, a popular snack bar drawing 25,000 a week, and other activities for occupation personnel.

Dawson Resident To Work In Saudi Arabia

E. R. Randolph, 41-year-old Air Corps veteran who has lived the last 25 years with his mother, Mrs. W. R. Randolph, and an older brother, G. T. Randolph, on a farm near Lamesa, will take air passage within a few days for Arabia.

He will serve a two-year tour of duty as a mechanic with the fabulous Arabian-American Oil company, which has planes and trucks, great centrifugal pumps and air-conditioning equipment, radio-telephone sets and almost everything else mechanical to implement its pumping of oil from the Saudi Arabian desert, and dollars into it.

Randolph will make $400 monthly — but only $50 of the amount will be paid to him there. The other $350 will be sent to his bank here.

"I won't be able to spend the $50 a month—not near that much," he said. "Everything will be furnished except such things as tobaccos and shaving supplies."

The Lamesa man and others recently recruited by the oil company will work at the Al Kharj irrigation project in the midst of wadi-streaked desert stretches, and live in air-conditioned rooms. Every few weeks, they will fly out to recreational resorts and surf bathing. Al Kharj is 50 miles from Riyadh, the king's capital.

They will see two extremes of living, the $1,300,000,000 Aramco installations contrasting strangely with the age-old Arab way of life.

Randolph is now awaiting final notification on his passport. He will then fly to New York and take air passage to Saudi Arabia.

Pampa Junior Livestock Show Brings High Bidding Session

PAMPA, Tex., Feb. 24 (AP) — Supporters of the annual top Texas junior livestock show today braved freezing rain and a cold north wind to engage in one of the hottest bidding sessions in the show's history.

Four-H and FFA club members received the highest money return for calves and swine of a sale in history here. The animals were auctioned this morning. Although top prices were below those established last year, the sale average will rank as one of the best junior stock sales in Texas this year.

Col. Walter Britten of College Station auctioned fifty-five calves for an average of 47 cents per pound, about 20 cents per pound over current market quotations. The 28 swine auctioned sold at 54.7 per pound average, more than twice the market price.

Jimmie Harris of Kelton, Wheeler county, received $1 per pound for his grand champion steer, judged yesterday by John Burns at Fort Worth. It weighed 1,023 pounds.

The reserve champion steer, owned by Dickey Andrews of McLean, also was sold for $1 per pound.

The grand champion and the reserve champion in the swine division both were bid out at $1.05 per pound. Kenneth Hambright, McLean, consigned the grand champion and Vernon Turner of McLean showed the reserve champion.

Theft Reports Are Probed Here

Pete Strawn, owner of Pete's Cafe at 810 Texas Ave., reported to police about 11 o'clock last night that someone had broken the glass of his 1941 Ford coupe and had stolen several articles from it. The missing items, police were told, were an electrical drill valued at $25, a flashlight valued at $1.50, and a bottle of whiskey.

Other thefts reported included a Hawthorne bike valued at $45 stolen from the 600 block of Broadway last night. It was the property of Simeon Rangel, of 204 North Ave. N, police records indicated.

Charge Is Filed

A charge of negligent homicide had been filed Tuesday by County Attorney John Steele against Clifford Robinson, 24, negro. The charge stated that Robinson, while engaged in an unlawful act of speeding, did through negligence and carlessness cause the death of Roosevelt Taylor, 22, another negro, early Monday at Nineteenth and Ave. D, by crashing and wrecking his car.

Several other negroes in the car were injured. Police said Robinson suffered a broken leg, and had not appeared to enter a plea.

A negro, Jackie Leola Carroll, 34, had been released by the sheriff's department last night under $1,000 bond. The bond had been set for her appearance before a grand jury on a charge of attempted arson which was filed several days ago. This was delayed, however, since she was in custody of city police on a misdemeanor charge filed about the same time as the felony accusation.

The sheriff's office was also investigating a reported burgularly of Caudle Gin company at Hale Center. A 10-column Remington-Rand adding machine was taken from the gin company office, officials were informed.

Wallace Testifies

point plan for European recovery —a 10-year, $50,000,000,000 United Nations program taking in countries in the Soviet sphere as well as western Europe.

He called for putting the industrial Ruhr under joint control of the U. S., Russia, Britain and France, and for creation of a "world food granary" to "win the world fight against hunger."

This plan, Wallace said, "is the economic basis for shifting from the bi-partisan policy of cold war today, and atomic war tomorrow, to a policy of progressive disarmament and friendly relations among all the nations of the world."

The Marshall plan, he declared, has been "perverted by American monopoly" into a "Germany-first" program and a "colossal hoax" on the American people.

Marshall Plan Scored

He said its initial cost, including military expenditures and "scores of hidden items," would be $18,000,000,000—not $6,800,000,000 as the administration has said.

And he said the Marshall plan would be made the "excuse" for holding wages down, breaking strikes and suppressing civil liberties while "big business" is "stoking the fires of inflation in its whole-hog drive for superprofits both at home and abroad."

"ERP," Wallace declared, "would put the economy of Europe in uniform while compulsory military training would place the youth of America in similar uniforms."

Calls For "New Faces"

Raking the Truman foreign policy from top to bottom, Wallace charged:

1. American money is enabling Britain to arm the Arabs for their fight against the Jews in Palestine.

2. U. S. aid to Greece is going for "the enrichment of the Greek Fascist clique" and is showing other countries "what will happen when the (American) economic gauleiters come marching in."

When Wallace called for "new faces" in this country's executive branch, Rep. Bolton (R-Ohio) suggested some "changes in faces" might also be needed in the Soviet Union.

Wallace said that would be "much more difficult to bring about" in Russia.

"We're hoping very fondly for some changes (in this country) in November," sair Rep. Lawrence H. Smith (R-Wis.).

Wallace brought down the House with the reply:

"I thank you for your support."

Noted Danish Architect Ends Series Of Lectures At Tech

Lars Marnus, noted Danish architect, who has been conducting a lecture tour to various colleges and universities throughout the United States under auspices of the Danish government, has completed his lecture series at Texas Tech on "Trends in Modern Architecture in Denmark," and will leave today for Albuquerque to continue the series at the University of New Mexico.

Arriving in the United States in Nov. 1947, Marnus began his tour which will take him to approximately 45 colleges and universities in this country. He started in New York state. From there he traveled to Chicago and thence to Texas where he has lectured at five colleges and universities. Following his stay in Albuquerque, he will travel through Arizona to the west coast and back across the northern states to New York.

While at Texas Tech, Marnus presented several illustrated lectures, together with moving picture slides, to students of architecture and the general public.

The work being done in the architecture department at Texas Tech is of a very high type, Marnus stated.

Hog Prices Decline

at 12 large midwest trading centers on receipts of 68,000 animals. This was 15,000 above a week ago.

At the Chicago stockyards, hog prices slipped 50 to 75 cents. Hog prices also dropped as much as $1.50 yesterday. Today's practical top of $22.75 a hundred pounds was only 50 cents above the 1948 low.

Cattle were steady to 50 cents lower and lambs were steady to 25 cents lower at Chicago.

Wholesale meat prices, however, moved generally higher at Chicago and New York. New York had advances of up to $3 a hundred pounds on beef and $1 on pork. In Chicago, beef sold as much as $1 higher and pork was steady to $2 higher.

The Associated Press weighted wholesale price index of 35 basic commodities declined a tiny fraction of a point to 187.23. A week ago the index was at approximately the same level, 187.20, and a month ago, 203.48. The index, which takes 1926 prices as 100, was 174.52 a year ago.

Cotton Higher

Commodity prices have shown a tendency to stabilize for more than a week.

Cotton for future delivery closed $1.10 to $4.15 a bale higher in New York. In New Orleans cotton moved up $1.65 to $3.95 a bale.

Wholesale butter moved up 2 cents a pound in Chicago and held steady in New York.

Wheat closed 2¼ cents a bushel higher to 1¼ lower in Chicago. The May contract finished at $2.37¼-36¾. Corn was 2½ to 4¾ higher, May $2.16-2.16½. Oats were ¾ to 1⅛ higher, May $1.07½-⅝. Soybeans were 3 cents higher to 6 cents lower, March $3.34.

South Against HST

nors with Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath only added "fuel to the flames," of the revolt.

The governors tried without success to get McGrath's promise that he would work for withdrawel of the civil rights proposals.

Other Candidates Sought

Later they issued a statement declaring the South is "no longer in the bag" for the Democratic party.

McClellan said today's meeting discussed "in a general way" the idea of supporting a candidate other than Mr. Truman.

Johnston added that it would be "unusual" to nominate him. "We've only had two vice-presidents that were nominated for president, Theodore Roosevelt and Calvin Coolidge," the South Carolinian said.

"Truman has been in too many fights. We want somebody who hasn't been fighting enough to be as scratched up as Truman. Marshall could be elected without a doubt," the senator said.

School Bills Planned

Others at the meeting were Governors Thurmond of South Carolina and Laney of Arkansas and Senators Hill and Sparkman of Alabama. Stennis of Mississippi, and McClellan, Overton, Johnston and Byrd.

In another development with a bearing on the race question, a bill letting southern states pool their resources to build first class regional universities was introduced in the House by Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala.).

Senator Holland (D-Fla) said he would offer a similar bill in the Senate, perhaps tomorrow.

Sponsors of the movement said some of the universities planned would be for negroes. This, they said, would meet the requirements of a Supreme court decision that equal educational facilities must be provided for all races.

Farms of the United States were expected to farrow 8,600,000 sows in the spring of 1947, an increase of six per cent over 1946.

Rent Curbs Voted

had become a nuisance. In these two cases, local law would apply.

9. Tenants could be evicted, on 60-day notice, where the landlord planned extensive remodeling or alteration to provide more dwellings.

10. Controls on use of scarce building materials for amusement places would be continued, except in the case of structures to be operated by schools or churches, and baseball and football stadiums for use at some time by schools, churches, youth organizations or other community groups.

11. Where 15 percent increase leases expired or were terminated between last Jan. 1 and the effective date of the proposed new law, landlords who had raised rents during that time more than the 15 per cent would have to roll the rent back to the 15 percent figure.

The Senate 35 to 29 struck out a provision of the bill which would have permitted jailing and fining willful violators.

Roll Call Refused

Both Senator Cain (R-Wash), floor manager for the Senate bill, and Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex), critic of it, tried in vain to get a roll-call vote on final passage.

But Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), presiding, ruled that not enough senators had approved this request and declared the bill passed by a voice vote.

But the temporary 30-day extension bill passed the House with ease by a voice vote.

Before voting, the House refused overwhelmingly to kill all rent controls. This was on a 306 to 57 roll call and Democratic Leader Rayburn of Texas called it "the real test."

Rayburn said it assures a big majority for extending controls for a longer term.

Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich) of the House Banking committee, which handles such things, said he thinks controls will be retained a year or more.

In what form, however, it was not clear. The Senate set to work on a bill which run to April 30, 1949, and making some changes in present rules. Its plan was to pass this and then take up later in the week the 30-day stopgap extension passed by the House.

Further Study Urged

The House has not worked out a bill of its own on long-term controls. President Truman yesterday asked Congress to strengthen the law and keep ceilings 14 months or longer.

Wolcott told the House longer controls should be delayed a few weeks for definite indications what the drop in food prices might do to rental property.

Rep. Javits (R-NY) commented that he could not see how a drop in commodities would create more homes that the people need.

House Democrats threw some jibes at Republican handling of rent controls.

Rep. McCormack (D-Mass) told the House "terrible conditions" have existed under the "Republican rent bill" passed last year. This permitted landlords and tenants to enter voluntary agreements for raising rents up to 15 per cent if leases were signed running through 1948.

Morton Man Killed

cock of Morton, Richards and another employe at the company had resumed their work about 1 p.m. Richards was loading maize into a large container approximately 24 feet in diameter and 28 feet deep into which a funnel poured the grain. Apparently when the funnel became clogged, Richards had gone into the side of the contanier to investigate when grain piled up on one side caved over on him.

The other employe after becoming alarmed at Richards' continued absence began a search and found only his hand and a part of the arm protruding from the pile of grain. It was necessary to use a blow torch to cut into the side of the container to free grain before the body could be recovered, Sheriff Hancock said.

Richards was a native of Oklahoma.

Steel Price Probe

be a political issue, Mr. Truman's swift attack was a stolen march on the Republican leadership in Congress.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), Republican presidential aspirant, has announced that leading steel executives will be quizzed by the Senate-House Economic committee, which Taft heads. But yesterday he announced postponement on the scheduled Thursday meeting until March 2.

On the House floor Rep. Poulson (R-Calif) asked drastic action. He demanded a "full scale investigation and expose." He spoke of "excessive profits" in steel for the last two years, and said the steel companies are "seeking an excess profits tax and price controls whether they know it or not."

Youth Hits A Sour Note -- Police Put Stop To 'Session'

At least one young man in Lubbock has an evening pastime, which, although possibly more disturbing to some of the citizenry, certainly puts no life in danger except his own.

This latest of pastimes, or hobbies, came to light about 9 o'clock last night. Furthermore, it actually came through the dark several blocks from the scene of this futuristic fad.

A 17-year-old youth in 2200 block Fourteenth street, police said, was sitting in his automobile parked in the home garage playing a tune they identified as 'Old Oaken Bucket.' The neighbors had not complained that he was beating out notes on a trumpet. Anybody could learn to do that.

Was Following Notes

But the youth was making hot notes on his musical automobile horn, officers said.

Officers said that the youth apparently was becoming rather proficient at the art because he had the following sheet music spread out across the steering wheel when he was approached:

"Old Oaken Bucket, Swanee River," and others. He also had a master key of the various notes involved in these numbers, they said.

Sgt. J. T. Alley, who probed the noise complaint, reported that with his car windown down, he heard 'The Old Oaken Bucket' two blocks away at Broadway and Ave. W.

The sergeant gave this report:

"I could see that the music was coming from the car in the garage. The car motor was running, and the lights were on."

"I stuck my head in the car and asked what on earth are you doing?"

"The boy replied 'nothing, just practicing.'"

"Well, do you know that you are disturbing people for blocks around?"

"No, I didn't know that," was the reply.

"I could hear that bucket song two blocks away," Alley said.

"Okay, I'll quit."

And so ended the beginning of Lubbock's new futuristic fad.

ing Communists' rights exclusively, patrolled radio stations in Prague and Bratislava, capital of Slovakia, roved the streets of Prague, and even stood watch over the presses of the National Socialists' newspaper.

And where the police were not in command, Gottwald and his Communist associates issued the orders.

Crisis Began Friday

Prague newspapers said action committees, sponsored by Communists, had taken over three government ministries, preventing any return to their posts by resigned anti-Communist ministers.

The Czechoslovak crisis began last Friday night when non-Communist members of Gottwald's cabinet resigned.

Fierlinger was ousted from the party leadership last November when he insisted on continuing an alliance with the Communists. His restoration would mean left-wing control of the party, and possibly a slim majority in the constituent assembly for a Communist-controlled government.

Louisiana Election

sunk so low in 1944 that he couldn't even get himself on the head of a ticket. He ran for lieutenant governor, and lost.

Huey Long was chosen governor almost 20 years ago to the day. Elected U. S. senator in 1930, he continued personal control of Louisiana until his death from a bullet in 1935. His political heirs stayed in power until Jones' victory in 1940.

Jones and Earl Long staged a bitter campaign. Each accused the other of irregularities in income. Each promised a veterans' bonus, benefits for the aged and ailing, better roads and schools.

Long led by nearly 120,000 votes in a four-man race in the first primary Jan. 20, but lacked a majority by about 109,000.

Couples Class Of Church At Woodrow Observes Anniversary

Second anniversary of the Couples class of the Methodist church at Woodrow was observed at a banquet last night with 58 persons attending.

Principal speaker at the observance, held in Fellowship hall of the church, was Mrs. William Dingus of Lubbock. Mrs. Ralph Flesher, class teacher, was master of ceremonies. Mrs. Plez McNurlen is class president, and Rev. Clarence Stephens is pastor of the church.

The class was started two years ago with six couples as members, Mr. Stephens said.

One Killed, Three Injured In Pocahontas, Ark., Explosion

POCAHONTAS, Ark., Feb. 24. (AP)—A blast killed one person, injured three others, razed three business buildings and damaged many others here this morning.

City Marshall Estel Bramlett attributed the explosion to escaping gas fumes. Unofficial estimates of the damage ranged from $100,000 to $300,000.

SCHUMAN WINS VOTE

PARIS, Feb. 24 (AP) — Premier Robert Schuman's government won its sixth vote of confidence tonight. The issue was on a point of procedure raised by the Communists. The National Assembly vote was 291 for the government and 268 against.

New Mexico Senator To Seek Re-Election

AMARILLO, Feb. 24. (AP)—Sen. Carl A. Hatch of New Mexico said today he definitely will seek re-election this year.

The senoir New Mexico lawmaker also brushed aside queries regarding his possible nomination to succeed U. S. Dist. Judge Colin Neblett of Santa Fe when the latter retires July 1.

"There are a lot of angles to that," Senator Hatch laughed. "As you know," he said, "one of them is named Truman."

He indicated, however, that the question of a successor to the retiring jurist is b yno means closed and that he wishes "to look the situation over in Washington" before discussing the matter further.

"But I am a candidate for the Senate," he said.

The New Mexico legislator arrived in Amarillo this morning, when the plane in which he was flying from Clovis to Washington was grounded by bad weather. He left tonight on the Santa Fe for Kansas City.

School Cafeterias

general one, with the Dupre group joining in. They included L. D. Payne, Mrs. C. M. Starkey, Mrs. Sam H. Hitch and Mrs. W. A. Charless. One of the women described how her child was so pressed for time at noon that he had eaten cake and drunk milk in the bathroom.

The Wilson group presented a petition they said was signed by 200, the Dupre group a petition they said was signed by 174. Both requested extension of the lunch period to an hour so that their children could come home for lunch.

Dr. W. A. Petty, T. Bruce Craig and A. E. Dietering appeared, representing an organization called the "Lubbock School Improvement organization. Petty is president of the group. They praised the school board's work in the past year and offered to make some suggestions at a future meeting.

Results Of Study Given

After they left board members reviewed arguments for and against the shorter lunch period. They read a report showing that small children are not as tired at the end of the day as formerly, that the cafeterias operate more efficiently with the shorter period, that children wait a shorter time to be served, and that the school cafeterias will not accommodate all children in the full hour period.

They read a survey showing that 80 per cent of school systems comparable to Lubbock used a short lunch period and staggered lunch time; 90 per cent reported they preferred the 30-minute period; and that Corpus Christi, for one, had a 20-minute lunch period. Those schools, the survey showed, considered the short lunch period beneficial to the health and welfare of their students.

The board then resolved to issue, through the school children, a questionnaire to parents asking whether they want the cafeterias to operate with the 30-minute lunch period, or not at all.

Operation of each of the school cafeterias in the city will depend on the wishes of the patrons of that particular school, the board indicated.

The school board elected Bill M. Floyd of Texarkana as assistant coach and teacher of mathematics at Senior High school. Mrs. Grace B. Belich was elected to the faculty of Thirty-sixth street school.

The annual school audit, prepared by J. T. Tarkington, accountant, was presented.

The board called an election for April 3 to elect two board members to succeed H. L. Allen, board president, and Paul Hardwick, both of whom have indicated they will not seek re-election.

Establishment of 10 voting boxes was authorized. They will be situated at the Lubbock Independent school district business office, 1007 Texas Ave., and at Sanders, Wilson, Junior High, Dupre, Bean, McWhorter, Dunbar, East Broadway and Chris Harwell schools.

Board members present were Allen, E. J. Parsons, C. H. Hamilton, Clyde Tatum, William H. Evans, Dr. M. M. Ewing. Hardwick, the remaining board member, was out of town. Supt. R. W. Matthews and A. C. Jackson, business manager, also attended.

REDS SAID ACTIVE

RIO DE JANEIRO, Feb. 24 (AP) —Authorities said today events of the last 24 hours indicate the outlawed Brazilian Communist party is intensifying its underground activities throughout Brazil.

Burglar To Refund Loot--If Wallace Named President

SEATTLE, Feb. 24 (AP)—A burglar who took $30 last night from the home of Henrietta Lippis left a refund offer—but with political strings attached.

The burglar's note said:

"I'll pay you back next Xmas; that is, if Henry Wallace is elected president."

Strike Of Minneapolis Union Public School Teachers Begins

MINNEAPOLIS, Feb. 24. (AP)—Minneapolis union public school teachers struck today in a pay dispute and 65,000 pupils began an unscheduled vacation.

The AFL Federation of Teachers called the strike after the school board ordered the school year shortened by four weeks during 1948 to save an estimated $1,000,000. The board said it was $2,000,000 short of the amount needed to run the schools on a normal basis.

Union officials said this shortening would have the effect of cutting their pay by ten percent when "there should be an increase." They countered with demands that minimum salaries be raised from $2,000 to $3,000 a year and maximums from $4,200 to $6,000.

Cold Weather

tral Texas had thunder showers. The Gulf coast had drizzle and fog. And El Paso in far West Texas had showers.

However, freezing rain had stopped at Amarillo in the Panhandle, and there was a dry stretch under high overcast between Wink and Big Spring.

At least one accident was blamed on the weather. Phillip Crammer, Durant, Okla., escaped with bruises when his light plane hooked its landing gear on a 33-thousand volt power line and crashed between Gainesville and Saint Jo. Power service to Muenster was disrupted for a short time. Crammer had tried to land on a highway in zero visibility.

Amarillo expected a low temperature of 24 degrees, but the mercury was due to slip no lower than the middle 40s in north-central Texas.

The high maximum reported yesterday was 85 degrees at Presidio in far West Texas. Amarillo had the low maximum, 28 degrees.

Others maximums were 80 degrees at Crystal City, 77 at Brownsville, 70 at Waco, 81 at Wink, 74 at Austin, 72 at San Antonio, 64 at Houston, 62 at Dallas and Fort Worth, 68 at Lufkin, 71 at El Paso, and 36 at Pampa.

The British have served notice they will terminate the Palestine mandate on May 15, and will complete the evacuation of troops from Palestine by Aug. 1.

Move Is Surprise

The Colombian move took the delegates by surprise. The council promptly adjourned until 2 p. m. (CST) tomorrow.

A spokesman for the United States delegation said after the meeting that the U. S. is opposed to the resolution and will proceed on the basis of the partition resolution approved by the 1947 Assembly. He said there would be no "back-tracking."

MORTAR SHELLS BURST IN POLICE COMPOUND

JERUSALEM, Feb. 24 (AP)—Three-inch mortar shells exploded today in the Palestine police compound. Authorities said they were fired by Jews from the business district wrecked in Sunday's explosion.

One shell ripped up the roof of a small building in the billet area. The nearby postoffice was hit. Another shell fell near the maternity ward of the government hospital but did little damage, authorities said.

The Jews clung to their expressed belief Britons engineered the explosion in Ben Yehuda street that killed 52 persons. The British have denied the charges and Arab sources have said Arab commandoes planted the explosives.

NATIONALIZATION IS CHARGED

Federal Ownership Of Coastal Areas Is Attacked In Capital

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP) — Governor Beauford Jester of Texas told Congress today that the Supreme Court's decision on right to oil under California coastal waters "disregarded the rule of property law that is as old as our nation itself."

The court ruled last summer that the federal government holds primary right to oil under coastal waters of California.

Jester was one of a number of members of Congress and state officials arguing for giving the states ownership under such waters. Senate and House Judiciary subcommittees are considering a bill which would accomplish that purpose.

Would Set Precedence

The Texas governor asked Congress to stop what he called "trends in thinking toward nationalization of natural resources in this country."

He said the court's decision in the California case "would establish a policy and precedent of nationalization of vital resources."

He said the decision would further throw out of balance "the federal-state power and relationships which were well balanced and defined by the Constitution."

"Unless the Congress corrects this judicial departure into superfederal dominion of property, we may as well know this will be the forerunner of more centralized power and tax income in the capitol at Washington at the expense of the state house, the county court house, the city hall and the private citizen property owner," Jester said.

Government Competition Seen

He said that nationalization of submerged land and tidelands would put the government into the oil business in competition with private industry, and would lead to cartels.

The chairman of Louisiana's state mineral board, B. A. Hardey, said "local control and direct action are more efficient than long-distance supervision."

In a statement prepared for the committee Senator Knowland (R-Calif) said Congress should quickly take off the "cloud" from title to land under coastal waters.

The committee received statements filed in support of the bill by Rep. Fallon (D-Md); Senator McCarran (D-Nev), for the attorney general of Nevada, and by Senator Ives (R-NY) for the attorney general of New York.

Grand Jury Indicts Man In Robbery Of Bremond Bank

WACO, Feb. 24 (AP)—A federal grand jury yesterday indicted Francis Marion (Bobby) Hooper in the Dec. 23 robbery of the First State bank at Bremond.

U. S. District Attorney Henry W. Moursand said Hooper will be arraigned here tomorrow.

The first count of the indictment charged that Hooper put Howard Walker and Madeline Wilson, bank employes, in fear of their lives by using a pistol during a bank robbery. The second count charges the defendant with entering a bank with intent to rob it.

Hooper's brother was killed by Sheriff Bob Reeves of Franklin during the robbery. The defendant was arrested in California.

Judge Is Asked To Decide Where Housewife Can Shake Her Mop

EASTON, Pa. Feb. 24 (U.P) Northampton County Court has been asked to decide whether a housewife has the right to shake her dust mop where she pleases—or whether she must make allowances for her next door neighbor.

The complaint was filed by Dr. Eugene J. Kuty, Bethlehem, Pa. He charged Mrs. Margaret Searfoss regularly shakes a mop from the side window facing his home and office. Dr. Kuty asked that she shake it on the far side of the house.

In effect, Mrs. Searfoss answered she'd shake the mop where she pleased, Dr. Kuty said. The physician asked a court injunction causing her to "cease and desist" from further shaking of the dust i his direction.

Marine's Seabag Finds Its Way Back To Owner After Two Years

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 24 (U.P) — How a seabag found its way back to an ex-Marine private, Jimmy McFarren, has all the mystery of a "whodnit."

Jimmy last saw the bag resting in a foxhole on southern Okinawa more than two years ago when he was wounded in action.

Two years and five months later the battered bag arrived in Pittsburgh complete with the letters, gear and clothing. There was no explanation of who had forwarded the bag from Okinawa to Pittsburgh.

One-Family House Converted To Six-Unit Apartment Stirs Judge

CHELSEA, Mass., Feb. 24 (U.P)— A onefamily house was converted into apartments for six families totaling 16 persons, it was disclosed at a district court hearing on various charges against the landlord.

"And this is America," Commented Judge John W. McLeod as he looked at police pictures of the interior of the house. One showed a 19-year-old groom and his 16-year-old bride honeymooning in a basement apartment that lacked partitions.

Former Owners To Be Given First Chance At Camp Hood

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP) — Former owners of 22,000 acres at Camp Hood, Tex., will be given a chance to lease their old farms, Rep. Poage, (D-Tex) said today.

Poage said such a decision was made today by Army engineers. The Texan had protested a plan to lease the entire area in two separate tracts to the highest bidder. He said the engineers told him that orders to receive bids on March 2 had been canceled.

The congressman said the Army does not want to give up control of the land. It plans to issue five-year leases subject to immediate cancellation in case of emergency need.

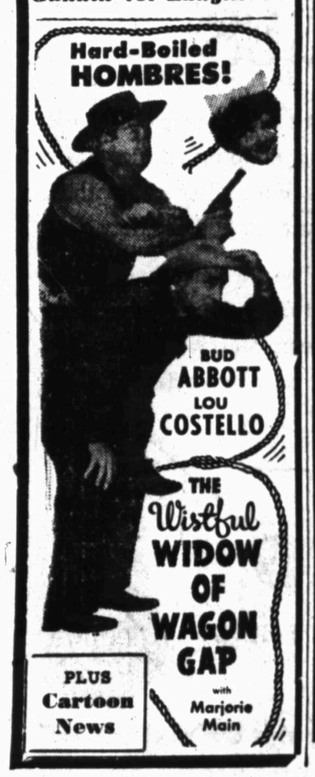

The Galveston district army engineer office is to send representatives to the Gatesville area to find out which of the former owners wish to lease their old land.

The number of fire alarm boxes in New York City grew from about 2,600 in 1900 to 12,485 today.

Wallace Poses Major Threat To Demos' Hopes In Illinois Race

BY GEORGE GALLUP, Director
American Institute of Public Opinion

PRINCETON, N. J., Feb. 24—Figures from Chicago in the Institute's latest poll of Illinois show that with Henry A. Wallace in the race, the popular vote lead which the Democrats customarily enjoy in Chicago would pretty largely evaporate.

In fact today the Democrats run no better than an even race with the Republicans in Chicago in a "trial heat" poll matching President Truman against Governor Dewey on the G. O. P. ticket and Wallace on an Independent ticket.

Throughout the state of Illinois Governor Dewey runs in the lead.

Wallace's strength in Chicago and in the big cities in general is a matter of a good deal of speculation these days after the strength shown by a Wallace-endorsed candidate in a special election in New York City last week.

Voters in Illinois were asked by the Institute:

"If the presidential election were being held today, and Truman were running for President on the Democratic ticket against Dewey on the Republican ticket, and against Wallace on a Third-Party ticket, how do you think you would vote — for Truman, Dewey or Wallace?"

The findings are given below, with the no opinion or undecided vote included in the first column and omitted in the second.

CHICAGO

Truman	42%	44%
Dewey	41	43
Wallace	12	13
No opinion	5

ILLINOIS

Truman	37%	40%
Dewey	48	52
Wallace	7	8
No opinion	8

In downstate Illinois, traditional stronghold of the Republicans, Dewey runs far ahead, as might be expected. He polls 53 per cent, to Truman's 33 and Wallace's 3 per cent, while 11 per cent express no opinion. With the no opinion eliminated, the downstate division is 60 per cent Dewey, 37 per cent Truman and 3 per cent Wallace.

Better Support In New York

The Wallace figure of 13 per cent in Chicago compares with 23 per cent in New York City in recent Institute balloting on the same three candidates.

Throughout New York State as a whole, Wallace was found polling 15 per cent. With a total turnout of voters estimated at 7,500,000 for the state in 1948, this would mean that Wallace would receive approximately 1,000,000 votes in a race against Truman and Dewey in an election held today.

With New York representing 47 electoral votes and Illinois 28, Wallace's strength is a real threat to the Democratic Party.

Throughout the whole East Central section—Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan—Dewey has been found leading Truman by a fairly substantial margin.

As reported last month by the Institute, President Truman polls 36 per cent for the section, Dewey 49 per cent, and Wallace 6 per cent, while 9 per cent express no opinion at this time.

Tourists Held After False Robbery Alarm

DALLAS, Feb. 24 (U.P.) — Four Baltimore, Md., travelers were in county jail today, as officers investigated a false report they had made early yesterday of a strong-arm robbery at a night club on the outskirts of Dallas.

Clifton Theodore Sechrist signed a statement in the presence of sheriff's deputies and reporters, admitting they had not been robbed of $395 and beaten by a "mob of a dozen persons" as was earlier reported.

Sechrist said he made the false report "because my brother told me to."

According to the sworn statement, the argument started when another car shined its lights on the Marylanders' car. "My brother asked them why they didn't turn them off," Sechrist said.

"They asked us what we said and then started to fight."

Sechrist said he stabbed one of the alleged attackers after their car window had been smashed "by a whisky bottle."

Two college students from Denton who had been held in connection with the fracas were dismissed.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Bryan Peck said "they had been in another fight but had nothing to do with this one."

J. A. May, of Smithfield, Tex., who was stabbed in the side by Sechrist, also made a statement at the sheriff's office, but declined to prefer charges.

Widow Wins Case In First Trial On Texas City Blast

GALVESTON, Feb. 24 (AP) — A jury ruled in favor of the widow of a victim of the Texas City disaster in her suit for compensation for the death of her husband.

Mrs. Jessie J. Ayala, mother of eight children, yesterday was awarded 360 weeks compensation at $20 per week. After a discount for immediate payment, the sum will total around $6,000.

The Texas Employers Insurance association was the defendant.

George T. Ayala was a longshoreman, killed in the blast of last April.

The jury deliberated just 22 minutes in the first jury trial growing out of the disaster, in which more than 500 were killed or missing.

Increase Of Crude Production In Wyoming Boosts U.S. Total

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 24 (AP)—The United States production of crude oil set another new record last week, the Oil & Gas Journal reported today.

The Journal said the output for the week ended Feb. 21 averaged 5,379,320 barrels daily, 3,375 barrels more than the previous week's all-time high.

A 5,480-barrel increase in Wyoming, which had an average production of 135,970 barrels, was a big factor in the climbing production.

Other sizeable increases were:

The Eastern area, up 1,670 barrels to 62,700; Illinois, 2,200 to 174,800; Kentucky, 2,100 to 27,000; Mississippi, 1,450 to 120,750; Oklahoma, 1,200 to 410,000, and Colorado, 1,670 to 46,880.

Michigan, Indiana, Alabama, Florida and Montana had gains of 950 barrels or less.

Only four states reported declines. They were: Kansas, down 12,600 barrels to 261,650; Arkansas, 2,000 to 86,500; Louisiana, 1,450 to 474,950, and California, 1,200 to 932,800.

Production in Nebraska, New Mexico and Texas was unchanged.

Jap Move To Restore Emperor's Power Hit

TOKYO, Feb. 24 (AP)—A spokesman for General MacArthur today accused Japanese bureaucrats of trying to restore the emperor's political powers during this week's change in prime ministers.

They thereby snowed "a tendency to embroil and abuse the imperial institution in the same manner which brought Japan to the disaster of war and defeat," said Guy J. Swope of MacArthur's government section.

Swope told a news conference Tetsu Katayama, retiring Socialist prime minister, went outside the constitution by reporting his resignation to Emperor Hirohito.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hack, 30, mother of the children, was burned seriously about the arms, hands, back and face. She was taken to the Glens Falls hospital. Her condition is reported "fair."

State police listed the victims as Janice Hack, 5; her brothers, Amos, 8, Richard, 6, and Ronald, 4, and the housekeeper, Mrs. Elizabeth Center.

Appeals Court Rulings Given

Judgments of 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue have been affirmed in two civil actions, it was learned here Tuesday upon receipt of opinions of the seventh court of civil appeals, of Amarillo.

They were in these cases:

E. J. Darling, appellant, against Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway company, appellee; and S. E. McMillan, appellant, against Marcus O. Owens, jr., appellee.

Is Paid $6,800

The Darling-railroad suit was for a declaratory judgment and was filed in the lower court by the railroad company. It grew out of the execution of a release when a settlement was sought to be made between the parties as result of injuries suffered by Darling June 22, 1945, at Muleshoe when engaged within scope of employment by the railroad as a locomotive fireman.

Darling was paid $6,800 and the release he executed discharged the railway from further liability, the railway pleaded. But Darling later indicated he would file suit for additional damages.

The railroad filed suit April 12, 1946, pleading that Darling was about to sue to set aside the release. The railroad asked declaratory judgment construing terms of the release favorable to it and discharging it from further liability.

Sought Cross Action

Darling answered with defense pleas, including fraud in procuring of the settlement, and sought to set up a cross-action claim of $88,200 damages in tort, which was stricken upon the railroad's motion.

In a jury trial, the jury found that the railroad was entitled to a declaratory judgment and that the release executed by Darling was valid and that it discharged the railroad from further liability or threats by Darling.

Darling appealed on the cross-action's striking, as well as stricken answers setting up fraud.

The McMillan-Owens case grew out of tax judgments, sheriff's sales and re-sales.

On April 14, 1927, the state recovered of C. B. Carber judgment for delinquent taxes in the sum

DEAN CHARLES E. McALLISTER STARTS LECTURE SERIES

Speaker At Tech Stresses Need For Non-Secular Religious Education Program In U. S. Colleges

Dean Charles E. McAllister of the Cathedral of St. John, the Evangelist of Spokane, Wash., will speak on "What to Believe About God" as the second of the Willson Lecture series to be delivered at 10 a. m. today in the gymnasium at Texas Technological college.

In the first lecture of the series under the general heading "Undergraduate Religion," given before approximately 3,000 students and faculty members Tuesday, Dean McAllister pointed out the need for non-secular religious education in American colleges and universities.

Intellectual curiosity of students of basic religious and moral beliefs is increasing, he said.

He said a direct necessity for religious education was seen by 87 of the 89 colleges he surveyed under auspices of the Association of Governing Bodies of State Universities and Allied Institutions. He had visited Texas Tech last February while making the survey. He was president of the association.

In religious education, the student should be taught what to believe about God, what to believe about man and the student's moral and social responsibilities, he said Those will be the three subjects of other lectures he will give this week at Texas Tech.

He said he also found need for the "maintenance of a decent moral code for preservation of society" and recommended teaching of the following under that general subject: Responsibility to each other; moral responsibilities, and agreement on moral standards.

In colleges as a rule, alcoholism and sexual offenses are the aftermath of war, but in the 89 colleges he surveyed conditions "were better and nowhere were they worse" than before the war, he said. He attributed those conditions to the fact that many veterans now in college are older and more serious, many are married and there is increased academic competition which forces students to devote more time to study.

Cheating It Noted

He said he found in the survey that there is an increase in cheating by a minority in colleges and universities throughout the United States. Because "society is based upon the faith in the honesty of one another this increase in cheating threatens the basis of all our institutions," he said. He attributed the increase to education at the high school level by teachers not qualified to teach; too much dependence placed upon the student himself; breakdown of family life; intense rivalry in colleges, including rivalry for higher grades required for entrance, as an example, to a medi-

Square Dance School To Be Held At Tech

A square dance school will be conducted March 8-12 at Texas Technological college, with Jimmy Clossin of El Paso as instructor, the women's physical education department of the college announced Tuesday.

The school will be sponsored by the physical education department, Major-Minor club and Women's Recreational association.

A day session will be conducted at 9 a. m. and night sessions will be conducted from 7 to 8:15 for beginners and 8:30 to 9:45 for advanced square dancers, Monday through Friday, March 8-12.

Tickets will go on sale next week, on a day to be announced later, in the women's physical education department. Price will be $2, entitling purchasers to attend 10 lessons, including one day class and one night class each of the five days.

Clossin has been here at various times since he conducted the first square dance school at the college about eight years ago.

The school will be open to any persons interested in square dancing.

Congress Given Latest Proposal

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—A bill to let southern states pool their money to build Harvards and Yales in Dixie was offered Congress today.

It was introduced by Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala). Senator Holland (F-Fla) said he would offer a similar bill in the Senate.

Separately, southern states can not finance "the best in education," Governor Millard Caldwell of Florida told the governors conference.

"By combining resources, we can provide the best in everything."

Includes Negro Schools

The plan includes some regional universities for whites, and some for negroes.

Dixie spokesmen said this would fill all requirements of a Supreme Court decision requiring equal educational facilities for all races.

How many schools will be built, and where, will be worked out after Congress authorizes the plan.

Sen. Holland (D-Fla) said he will offer the Senate bill as soon as senators from the 15 affected states can sign it as sponsors. Twelve have volunteered.

The legislation would let 15 states get together and form regional colleges. Its passage is necessary, under the constitution, before any may take action, Caldwell said.

All compacts must be approved by the legislatures of the affected states, the plan says.

The program would let the southern states take over Meharry Medical college for negroes at Nashville, Tenn., which may close June 30 because of dwindling finances.

Dixie spokesmen said negroes wishing to enter white medical schools could be offered enrollment at Meharry.

Improved Education Sought

Governor Caldwell and Governor James McCord, of Tennessee, said however, this merely was incidental to the "overall plan of bringing the finest education to the South."

Caldwell said the south now has "no top-flight" graduate school in medicine or dentistry," and no "great school" of mining or petroleum engineering.

Besides Caldwell and McCord, other governors at today's meeting were: Beauford Jester, Texas; Strom Thurmond, S. C., and R. Gregg Cherry, N. C.

States sponsoring the plan, all of which had representatives or senators at today's conference are: Alabama, Arkansas, South Carolina, Florida, Georgia, Maryland, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, North Carolina, Virginia Kentucky, Louisiana, West Virginia, and Oklahoma.

PROBLEM SOLVED

Orange Mayor Will Get Lubbock Hat

Raymond Sanders, six-foot-four, 240-pound mayor of Orange, Texas, might be able to lick any two of his 35,000 constituents, but he had to depend on Lubbock to lick the problem of finding a size 7 5/8 wide-brimmed hat to top off his giant frame.

Mayor C. A. Bestwick and Lester B. Lynch, manager of Lynch Hat works, became aware of the east Texas mayor's plight through the medium of a news story in Sunday's Avalanche-Journal They couldn't resist the impulse to help out the hatless mayor of Orange and at the same time give a little publicity to Lubbock and West Texas.

Yesterday, Sanders received the following telegram from Mayor Bestwick:

"Read Associated Press news item Sunday in Lubbock Avalanche-Journal with great interest. If you will be good enough to send us size, color and width brim, we shall be glad to send you one of West Texas' typical hats guaranteed to satisfy."

Sanders is mailing his specifications, and Lynch states that the hat will soon be on its way to Orange with the compliments of the firm and Mayor Bestwick.

Quarantine May Be Extended

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP) — The Agriculture department will hold a public hearing at Little Rock, Ark., March 17 on extending a federal quarantine against the pink boll worm to include Oklahoma.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson said infestations of the boll worm have been found in the Oklahoma counties of Beckham, Caddo, Kiowa and Tillman, in the southwestern part of the state.

The quarantine, if extended, may be limited to those counties. It is now in effect in parts of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico, particularly in areas adjacent to the Mexican border and in the Texas Panhandle. Anderson indicated that the quarantine also may be extended to counties in Texas and New Mexico not now covered.

Investigations during the last growing season were said to have disclosed infestations in 42 additional Texas counties and in a single county in New Mexico.

The federal quarantine is designed to prevent movement of infested cotton and cottonseed from diseased areas in the state to other states.

Improvements In Railroads Asked

Young Offers Four-Point Program To Meet Nation's Transport Needs

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Feb. 24—Robert R. Young urged tonight four goals he said the railroads must achieve if they are to meet the nation's transport needs.

His program: Adequate rates, freedom from non-competitive agreements, replacement of all outworn equipment, and a "positive and progressive attitude toward railroad labor."

Young, chairman of the Chesapeake & Ohio railway, made his proposals in an address prepared for the anniversary dinner of the federation for railway progress which he organized just a year ago.

Companies In Decay

Young, outspoken critic of carrier managements, said the railroads have been "allowed to decay" because competition has been stifled by "the forces of monopoly."

"Today, with few exceptions," he told the federation members, "there are 131 non-progressive, non-competing railroad presidents and their expansive staffs saddled on this country's shippers.

"If the spark of competition and progress is restored to these railroads, it will almost certainly mean a move toward consolidation. Consolidation of these 131 railroads into 15 or 20 great long-haul competing systems will make them strong enough financially to restore discontinued passenger schedules and run more and faster freight trains.

"Labor, shippers, security holders, all will benefit."

Cars Said Too Old

Young said present freight cars average more than 22 years of age. He added that at the rate at which railroads ordered new passenger cars last year "it will take 150 years to replace our fleet."

Appearing with Young on tonight's dinner program were Attorney General Tom Clark and A. F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

Discussing labor, Young said the federation "proposes to join shoulder to shoulder with labor in urging management toward the goals of rapid promotion on merit, fair and prompt settlement of grievances, a guaranteed annual wage, better living conditions when away from home, and, as rapidly as conditions can be made to permit, longer vacations and shorter hours."

12-WORD WILL DISPUTED

BOSTON (AP)—A 12-word will, scrawled on the back of an undertaker's business card, is the subject of a legal battle here. "When I go I want Harriet Wells to have everything I have," read the will of Mrs. Mahala Austin of Roxbury. Mrs. Lucy Davis, a cousin of Mrs. Austin, challenges the validity of the will.

Welfare Official To Speak In City

John H. Winters, executive director of the State Department of Public Welfare, will speak today before a six-county staff meeting of department employees, and will make two other addresses during the day.

The staff school, involving welfare department employes from this and five neighboring counties, is to be held at the department's office at 1411 Thirteenth, with Leo Healer, area supervisor, in charge.

To Discuss Problems

Up for discussion will be administrative problems of the department in the six counties, where about $78,500 is distributed monthly by the service to about 2,500 needy persons.

Winters arrived here Tuesday afternoon, and spoke at a meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood at 6:45 o'clock Tuesday evening. He is to speak to sociology classes at Texas Tech college at 8 o'clock this morning, and is to address the Exchange club luncheon at noon.

Winters joined the state welfare department in August, 1943 while serving his fourth term as county commissioner in Potter county (Amarillo), where he was well known in civic and business circles. He was honored in 1942 by being the first county commissioner in the state to be elected president of the State Association of County Judges and Commissioners. He was a strong advocate of reforms in county governments.

He had served as a member of the board of trustees of Amarillo public schools and the Amarillo Junior college, and at present is a member of the board of the American Public Welfare association.

ANOTHER SHORTAGE

Jester By Default?

WHATEVER else he may or may not be, Beauford Jester is the luckiest man to hold the office of Governor of Texas in a long, long time.

Governor Jester is completing a first term in the state's principal elective office—a term devoid of anything in the way of important undertakings in the people's behalf—and now appears to have a "cinch" on re-election, simply because no one of appreciable political stature seems to want the office during the 1949-51 period.

During his term thus far, Governor Jester has infuriated literally thousands of Texans and for literally dozens of reasons. Large segments of West and South Texans stand today willing to go all out to replace him. Many school teachers, and veterans, both of whom he has ineptly snubbed as groups, would like to join in removing his political scalp. So would thousands of other Texans, who have the strange idea that a governor should be answerable first to the people, instead of to the great oil and financial powers in Houston and elsewhere.

But unless a Texan whose name is well and widely known decides to take up the cudgels against Governor Jester, the wishy-washy "Corsicana squire" seems sure to win re-election by default.

It's too bad—too bad for Texas.

Placing The Blame

THE Democratic party, New Deal version, has only itself to blame for the defection among voters which caused election of a radical to Congress in a recent special election covering the Bronx district of New York City.

Long the citadel of Boss Ed Flynn, great and good friend of the late Franklin Roosevelt, the Bronx finally has broken away from one of the worst examples of political bossism the nation has ever seen. People simply got tired of being regimented by Boss Flynn and his henchmen; saw a chance for freedom from being pushed around, and took it.

As unhappy as most Americans doubtless are over the election of the radical candidate in the Bronx, they can take some solace from the fact that the Flynn regime there seems to be crumbling, and rapidly.

Perhaps the dose of castor oil they took in selecting a radical for the post long held by representatives labeled "Democratic" will cure the people of the Bronx after one term and they then shall follow most of the rest of the nation in exercising the free ballot tempered with sound judgment.

At any rate, let's hope so.

A Fine Project

INTEREST of the Lubbock Building Construction Trades council in the possibility of constructing an amphitheater in Mackenzie State park is highly commendable. Although the construction of an amphitheater will entail considerable expense, the council hopes and expects eventually to carry the project through to completion and is giving much thought to ways and means of financing it.

Mackenzie park needs such a project if it is to mean as much as it can and should mean to the people of this city and environs. The fact that an organization like the Lubbock Building Construction Trades council recognizes the need augers well for its being filled.

The Morning Avalanche congratulates the council for the work it has done thus far on its amphitheater campaign; extends its own further support to the council, and believes similar support will be forthcoming from many organizations of civic-minded Lubbock people.

When Better Cars Are Made He'll Get 'Em

Murder At My House

By Rene Ryerson Mart
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: I can't find the packet of poison anywhere. It occurs to me that I must have left it in the kitchen after giving some to the cat and that the cleaning woman threw it out. Jeff has promised to get me Avis' mail. Marie Maloney, and she arrives. Madge Nazney is given tests at the studio for Avis' part and everyone is enthusiastic about her. Jimmy Peters drives me home. "Madge Nazney is the most natural young thing I've seen in this town," I rave. Jimmy disagrees. "She's about the most unnatural girl I know," he says.)

XX

I SAT up and took notice, remembering how I'd suspected there was something between Madge and Jimmy the morning she came to see me after Avis Vaughn died. I had thought she was worried for fear Jimmy was somehow mixed into the affair—everyone at the studio knew about his infatuation for Avis. But this crack of Jimmy's sounded as if the shoe were on the other foot. It had all the earmarks of jealousy.

"What's the matter, Jimmy? Did she throw you over for someone else?"

Jimmy murmured something that sounded like "nuts." He pressed his foot down on the accelerator and the speedometer registered fifty when we were stopped by the next red light.

"The trouble is," he said violently, "she doesn't date anybody. Has some freak idea that men would interfere with her career—and nothing is to interfere with that. The girl's career mad."

"That's the wrong attitude," I agreed. "How can she act life if she doesn't live it first?"

Jimmy hedged. "She's not altogether to blame for it. It's her mother. She's had Madge in dramatic school and little theater companies ever since she was able to walk and talk. Getting her ready to be a great star. It's all Madge has ever known."

I was still curious. "Did you ever have a date with her?"

"One," Jimmy admitted. "I took her to the Oscar dinner last winter, just after I got out of the Army. She seemed to go for me, too. But every time I called her after that she was busy. Finally I quit. You know a fellow isn't going to run after a girl forever."

And so, I thought, he had gone for Avis Vaughn on the rebound. And I could imagine Avis, for all her preoccupation with Art, still finding time to lead Jimmy on.

"Why don't you try again?" I said suddenly. "Madge may feel differently about it now. And I wouldn't wait too long either. If she's the hit I think she's going to be in this picture you'll have a lot of competition."

Jimmy looked at me and grinned. "What are you trying to do, play Cupid?" He grinned some more. "At that it might not be a bad idea."

The funny thing, looking back now, is how closely I came to the motive for your murders in that talk with Jimmy Peters. He had the key to everything and nobody ever asked him. And, of course, he didn't know that what he knew was important.

JIMMY let me out at my driveway and I said goodby to him and went into a transformed house. Heaven knows where Marie, my new maid, had learned the art of homemaking. But somehow, somewhere she had. The place had been cleaned and waxed and dusted from top to bottom; every chair, every cushion, every magazine was invitingly in place; the windows were open to the afternoon breeze; the taffeta drapes rustled luxuriously.

Contentment filled me like a honey-drowsy bee. For just a moment I forgot the nagging worries of the present and let myself drift into a rosy dream of a suddenly tantalizing future. I had this lovely home. I had a promising career. I could have Jeff Haverson, now that he was free. He had made that clear. Life could be beautiful after all, I thought, as naively as if I were still sixteen.

The raucous voice of Marie Maloney broke it up by announcing that dinner was ready. I stepped off my dream train, made a little face of regret, picked up the day's mail that was piled on my desk, took it downstairs with me and read it while I ate. The front doorbell, above, chimed just as I finished the iced fruit dessert and Marie came back from answering it and announced Detective Robert Leiphan.

HE was waiting for me in the living room. He wore the same dark suit he had worn the day I first saw him, he held the same battered gray hat in his hands, and he looked at me with the same cool gray eyes.

I apologized for having kept him waiting, offered him a cigaret, allowed him to light mine, and sat down and waited for him to begin.

"I'm sorry to bother you again, Miss Donn." His voice was brusque in spite of his words. He went on, "We're finding it necessary to check further on the people who were here at your house the night Avis Vaughn and Art Cleves died. On everyone, you understand." His eyes were on my face. "Miss Donn, you were in a sanitarium just before you came out here to Hollywood. A serious nervous breakdown, I was told. What caused it—overwork? Or something that happened to you?"

The perspiration poured out on the palms of my hands. I clenched them tightly trying to hold on to my self-control through sheer muscular effort. I had never told anyone about that—anyone at all. The only person in Hollywood who could have known about it was Jeff Haverson. Max Hoster had told him. Told him because he wanted someone to know, wanted someone to watch out for me, I suppose, just in case I went haywire again.

And Jeff—Jeff had told the police.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

AT LAST, the new look for men. At last you'll be able to throw that old hat of yours away and be attired as gaily and as crazily as your wife or sister or sweetheart or grandmother.

At last—provided you have $150 to spend for a suit, $20 for a hat, $19.85 for a pair of shoes.

BRANDEIS

Otherwise, you had just better have your old things pressed up a bit, and, if you are real nice, I'm sure your wife will sew that missing button on your vest.

But here it is the latest fashion report directly from the annual Style Show of the Custom Tailors and Designers Association of America held at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York just a few days ago.

If that isn't authentic, I don't know what is.

There will be many radical changes in men's clothes.

Homburgs will replace high hats for evening wear—high hats get crushed when getting into your limousine, the custom tailors say.

Sports jackets will be double-breasted for the first time in twenty years. Imagine!

Pastels will be popular for sports jackets.

The black full-dress suit will become twilight blue.

The standard conservative cutaway will be all blue.

What to wear for business?

"The Boulevard suit, a modification of the cutaway, brings down the cutaway to an informal business suit. Men can wear them after business when attending cocktail parties or the theatre. It is a single-breasted with striped trousers, made in dark blue, brown and green."

Another highlight is the summer "dress-alike" dinner jacket for men and women in matched fabrics. One is in champagne color, double-breasted for the man, single-breasted for the women, with her skirt and his pants reaching almost to the floor.

There is also an "Eisenhower tuxedo," modeled after the battle jacket, all white with black trousers.

So there we are, my dears. Can't you just see ourselves in gay pastels—peach, old rose, nile green and lavender—both we and our wives wearing "matched" raiment?

Can't we just see ourselves—or can we?

I AM sorry to report that nothing was said at the meeting about overalls and khakis.

I don't know whether those shoes I wear in the house (those shoes with the hole in the sole and the laces knotted together) will still be in style, or whether I should wear a champagne-colored Tuxedo if I have to milk the cows after six in the evening.

If I can ever get the linings in my old suits mended, if I can get the stains out of my old battered hat, I'm afraid I'll continue to wear the good old look instead of the new one.

And how happy I shall be!

OFFICIALS ARE BLAMED

Crime Buildup Scored

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The American Bar Association has resumed its attempt to purify the movies, radio and comics of alleged overemphasis of crime and criminals at the reconvention of key committees assigned to this subject in Chicago Monday. So far the movement has obtained no real results, largely because all parties concerned have conducted their deliberations in a hush-hush manner.

TUCKER

Arthur J. Freund, a St Louis lawyer who heads the association's committee handling the matter, has had several conferences with the top men of Hollywood, the radio chains and newspapers. He has placed his problem before Eric Johnston of the Motion Picture Association of America, Donald M. Nelson of the independent producers, Radio Czar Justin Miller and Ben McKelway, publisher of the Washington Star.

Mr. Freund has also had correspondence with Treasury Secretary Snyder and Attorney General Tom Clark because of their official and unofficial sponsorship of radio programs which the St. Louis legalite has described as "schools for crime." He referred particularly to weekly scenarios eulogizing J. Edgar Hoover's FBI agents, and the Treasury's sleuths.

The supposed offending interests seem willing to cooperate, recognizing the dangers inherent in incitement to glorification of lawbreaking, especially among juveniles. But the difficulty lies in framing a code that will be effective without verging on censorship of these channels of expression.

Moreover, some of the advertising agencies handling the F.B.I. and Treasury radio programs seem disposed to block the attempt at reform.

UNFAVORABLE: Mr. Freund has delivered numerous speeches on the problem throughout the country, and they have invariably been inserted in the Congressional Record. They are beginning to make a deep impression on members of Congress, whose own committee hearings have convinced them that these media need cleansing. They have been especially critical of the movies and the radio.

In discussing certain films which he has found detrimental, Mr. Freund says:

"The lawyer, the judge and courtroom procedure are all too frequently depicted in an unfavorable manner. Whereas the doctor is almost always represented as a kindly, charitable and capable person, the lawyer is usually portrayed as cruel, selfish, tricky and unethical.

"The judge is often shown either to be worthy of his high office, or he demonstrates hi. probity through the exposure or condemnation of corrupt or stupid counsel."

Instead of producing pictures featuring the Capones and their sinister counterparts, Mr. Freund suggests that Hollywood film the lives of such lights of the law as John Marshall, William Howard Taft, Homes and Brandeis, and Judah P. Benjamin, who served as Secretary of War for the Confederacy after a distinguished career at Washington.

It is understood that Messrs. Johnston and Nelson, still shaky over the Congressional offensive against certain Hollywood radicals, have taken this idea "under consideration."

TECHNIQUE: Mr. Freund is no less critical of the semi-government radio programs based on supposed secret files in the criminal bureaus. Although "the law" always gets its man in these themes, the gangsters are depicted as pretty shrewd and daring figures in the overall presentation.

"In addition," he says, "crime techniques are blueprinted with meticulous accuracy. Criminal methods are set forth step by step, thereby giving the recipient an accurate handbook for antisocial and often criminal conduct.

What the St. Louis lawyer did not note, according to other critics, is that these programs also blueprint the technique of detection. Frequently they tip off prospective lawbreakers on the blunders they should not have committed in order to escape capture and punishment.

PUBLICITY: Congressmen resent the publicity practices of federal "dicks" for another reason. They notice that, whenever these bureaus are in the process of begging for larger appropriations—and they have increased year by year—the downtown sleuths issue newspaper statements, write magazine articles and go on the air to frighten the nation with warnings of "another crime wave," even though there may be a lull in lawlessness at the moment.

For some reason, however, Treasury and Justice Cabinet heads have always had a sneaking fondness for this sort of thing. Every man is a detective at heart, and officials like Tom Clark, Henry Morgenthau, Homer Cummings, John Snyder etc. shine in reflected glory through microphone or screen glorification of their Elmer Ireys and J. Edgar Hoovers.

In view of the huge amounts spent on law enforcement, however, the American Bar Association believes that the government should not waste this money by teaching present or potential criminals how to "beat the rap."

BOSS: President Truman got a small boy's thrill over his "balcony triumph."

While Washington newspapers, architects and Republican members of Congress were trying to prevent construction of this addition to the rear White House portico, it had been rushed to completion. Anticipating protests, he arranged for advance fabrication so as to avoid delay and further controversy.

The incident shows the new side of the Chief Executive frequently noted in this column. He is the big boss of his new political home and party, even though he is not assured of more than another eleven months of occupancy.

BID: "It has come to my attention," writes Mrs. P.E.I. of Cos Cob, Conn., "that ERP proposes to include Ireland. That seems a very curious proposal, in view of Ireland's nonparticipation in the war. Have you any data on the subject?

Answer: Nobody in official position has been able to explain to me why $150,000,000 of Marshall money has been allotted to Ireland in view of that country's flourishing condition and the reason mentioned by Mrs. P.E.I.

It will be scrutinized carefully on Capitol Hill, where it is regarded as a bid for votes. Lest anybody throw brickbats at me for this reply, the writer is only two generations from the "old sod."

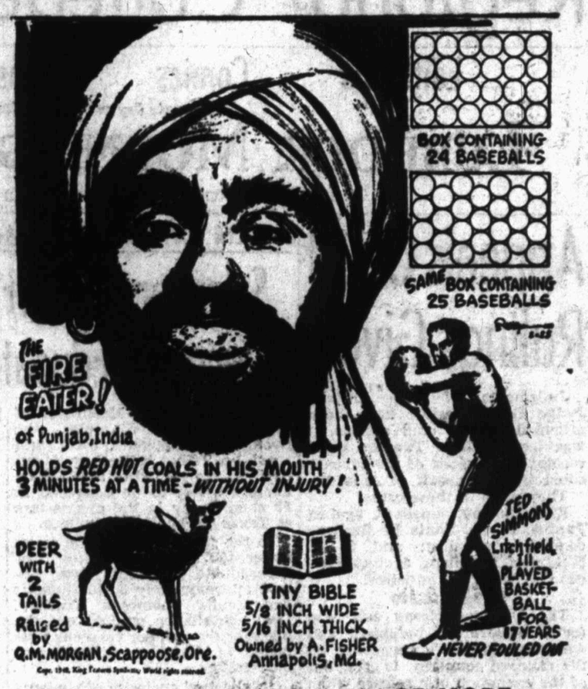

It was different in the old days. The government salaries weren't attractive enough to make a bureaucrat try to hold his job.

Simile: As roughly treated as a piece of luggage being loaded or removed from a truck.

You can tell the quick thinking person. He is the one who makes it sound plausible when he places the blame on some one else.

ORGANIZATION STILL PEACE HOPE

People Must Decide UN's Fate

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—It is now recognized that the United Nations, upon which we so strongly pin our hopes for peace in the world, has reached a critical stage in its existence.

It is perhaps true also that there is, regrettably, less rather than more interest in it generally among our people today than when it was organized, though many earnest individuals continue to work energetically for its success and its improvement.

STOKES

It was the people themselves who forced its creation, not politicians and diplomats. Similarly, it will be saved, perpetuated and strengthened only by the will of the people. This obligation of the people at this time is so clearly expressed by Byron Price, assistant secretary general for administrative and financial services of UN, in an address to the women's national press club here, that it is likewise an obligation to emphasize what he said.

Face Major Decisions

His testimony is valuable not only because he is executive officer of UN, has an intimate knowledge of its operations and believes so sincerely in its purposes and potentialities. What he said is valuable also because it comes from a man known for his common sense and realistic approach to problems, who was for many years a great reporter and news executive, and who was highly commended by his colleagues for his able handling of the delicate job as head of the office of censorship during the war.

The UN has achieved much, much more than we realize, as Mr. Price pointed out—"far more in international cooperation in the first operational year of 1947 than has been achieved in any like period since the world began." Yet, because of the nature of problems now confronting it and because one "first-class failure" might wreck or discredit the entire international cooperation effort, these are "critical and possibly decisive days for the United Nations."

"That," said Mr. Price, "is why no wise friend of peace will ignore the questionings which now arise in many lands: 'Has it been worthwhile?' 'Is it worthwhile going on?'

"Effective answers can come from but one source. Only the people themselves can now decide. Many earnest men and women have given and are continuing to give all they can. Their all will not be enough if the people grow indifferent or give up the faith.

"We can better understand this if we recall once more how and why the United Nations began. Let us not forget that it was founded by and for the people. It emerged from the sacrifices and sorrows of a peoples' war, designed to buttress a peoples' peace. It was in no respect the invention of selfish politicians or fanatics or visionaries. It was the hard, practical result of the determination of war-sick millions to escape forever from the cruel tyrannies and criminal intrigues of despots.

People Hold Answer

"It is something more than coincidence that the opening words of the charter are—in paraphrase of the American Constitution—'We, the peoples.' The demand of the peoples of the world for effective action was, in fact, so compelling that scarcely a single statesman anywhere dared undertake to stand against it."

The people, he said, knew what they were doing, knew there would be sacrifices, knew there would be shortcomings and failures, knew also "that attainment was possible only if 'we, the people' did not ourselves falter."

"So now again it is the peoples of the world, not just a little band of workers at Lake Success, who stand at the crossroads. It was the people who forged this instrument out of the stuff of bitter experience. It is they who will pay the penalty if they now allow the edge of the blade to be dulled by neglect, or turned against its makers to further the purposes of power politics.

"It is the people who will suffer if the world has to go on living in a fool's purgatory, tormenting itself with counsels of frustration, resigning itself to a conviction that peace not only will not come but no longer is worth striving for. It is the people who still suffer, and it is they who will perish.

"As one American, I am not ready to believe that the American people will be accessory before the fact to so great a tragedy."

Negotiations To Be Resumed Today In Wichita Falls Case

DALLAS, Feb. 24 (AP)—Ray Majure, federal conciliator, said company and union officials meeting about wage increases asked by Wichita Falls city bus drivers would resume negotiations tomorrow.

"All of us are hoping we have a solution tomorrow," Majure said.

The Wichita Falls bus drivers voted unanimously today to strike if negotiations for wage increases fail.

Negotiators, including Tommy Reece, president of the Wichita Transit company; A. F. Steele, international representative for the Wichita Falls local met with Majure at 3 p. m. today.

The meeting adjourned early tonight and will resume at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

The drivers are asking a 20-cent hourly wage increase over the present scale of 90 cents.

There were about 37.3 million dwelling units in the United States in 1940—more than double the 17.9 million units in 1900.

Appeals Court

of $22.31, and foreclosure of its tax lien on three Lubbock lots.

The same day, it recovered judgment against three other Lubbock individuals for delinquent taxes of $141.88 and foreclosure of tax lien on 13 other lots here.

On June 8, 1927, the three lots were sold at public sale by the sheriff, and on July 5 the other 13 lots were sold. The state bought all lots involved and the sheriff's deeds were properly executed and placed on record, the reviewing court found.

On March 5, 1946, the sheriff resold the lots to Owens for considerations of $35 and $197.25 cash.

On the morning of March 5, 1946, before the sheriff had sold the lots to Owens, McMillan paid to the tax collector the amount equal to all taxes and charges against the lots and received a receipt which was forwarded to the comptroller of public accounts at Austin, and they were approved Oct. 10, 1946.

On March 18—13 days after the re-sale—J. E. Jones, one of the defendants in tax judgments, conveyed his interest in the property to McMillan, and later McMillan acquired other interests in the property involved.

The lower court action was instituted by Owens on July 7, 1947, as a trespass to try title action. McMillan pleaded not guilty and alleged the tax suit judgments of 1927 were void and that therefore the state had acquired no title under them. Hence, he pleaded, a resale by the sheriff conveyed no title, since the state had none and because he had redeemed the property under redemption receipts before the property's resale to Owens.

A jury was waived, and trial was to the court, who rendered judgment for Owens.

The railroad was represented by the Amarillo law firm of Adkins, Pipkin, Madden and Adkins. Owens was represented by Robert A. Sowder of Lubbock.

MARKET IS SLUGGISH

NEW YORK, Feb. 24. (AP)—Individual stocks edged upward in today's market, with a little support developing in the final hour, but many leaders were apathetic.

Transfers of 640,000 shares compared with 700,000 Friday. The total was among the lows for a full stretch since last September.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was up .1 of a point at 61, the first plus sign in a week. It was the second narrowest market since Jan. 2. Of 904 issues registered, 368 rose, 307 fell and 229 were unchanged.

Denver & Rio Grande common added 1 1/4 at 17 1/4 and the preferred 3 1/4 at 38 3/4. N. Y. & Harlem railroad, an isloated "blue chip" sold for the first time since Feb. 11 and was up 20 points at 230 on 50 shares.

Up 1 to 2 points were Joy Mfg. at 35 1/4, Texas Gulf Sulphur 53, Homestake Mining 42 ½, McIntire Porcupine 49 1/2, Southern Railway 25 3/4, Delaware & Hudson 42, Chesapeake & Ohio 42, Mission Corp., 47, International Paper 45 1/2 and Boeing 23 ½.

N. Y. City omnibus was off ½ at 12 following an omitted dividend. A reduced payment eased National City Lines 3/8 at 7 1/8. International Business Machines yielded 2 1/2 at 134 1/2 and Hercules Powder 1 3/8 at 46 1/4, a low for the past year.

Bonds were a shade uneven. Commodities dipped and rallied.

Improved in the curb were Glenmore Distilleries (on a raised dividend). Consolidated Mining, Ryan Consolidated Petroleum, Cities Service and Glen Alden Coal. Electric Bond & Share slipped along with International Petroleum and Central & Southwest Corp. Turnover here was 160,000 shares, the same as in the previous 5-hour session.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Feb. 24 (AP) — Profit cashing toward the close of today's session at the Board of Trade erased gains in wheat. Corn and oats were stubborn and most of the selling orders were absorbed.

Wheat was nervous throughout the session. Some deliveries got above Saturday's close when cotton in New York advanced sharply, but the rally was not sustained.

Corn gained some of its strength from spot demand and light country offerings.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Feb. 24 (AP) — Cotton futures advanced sharply today on aggressive short covering and mill buying. The upturn was touched off by the issuance of fewer notices than generally expected in the trade against the nearby March delivery.

There were 127 March transferable notices issued, but the subsequent sharp advance of the March delivery to a gain of better than $4 a bale indicated that they were promptly stopped.

Strength in the March situation partly reflected more favorable sentiment among traders on prospects for the foreign aid program which involved substantial cotton exports.

Futures closed $1.10 to $4.15 a bale higher than the previous close.

House Committee Slashes Funds Asked For Non-Military Items

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP) —The House Appropriations committee trimmed $131,542,889 today from President Truman's money request for non-military functions of the Army and handed the bill to the House for debate.

The committee allotted $606,558,766 for the fiscal year beginning July 1. This is about 18 per cent less than Mr. Truman asked.

Most of the allotment is for river and harbor and flood control projects under the Army Engineer corps. These call for $538,600,000 or $41,885,700 less than Mr. Truman asked.

The committee recommended separately $120,883,942 to aid states in hospital construction, vocational education and aid to dependent children, the blind and the aged. This is added to funds already set up for this year. It is part of a deficiency supply bill for various agencies totalling $131,015,385, or $231,516 below budget estimates.

The House quickly passed the deficiency bill without changing the amount involved. It did, however, tack on an amendment by Rep. Heselton (R-Mass) to prevent the installation of oil or gas burners in new federal buildings or the conversion of present coal burning equipment to oil or gas.

Passage was by voice vote. The bill now goes to the Senate.

New York To Have Record Number Of Conventions During 1948

Approximately 650 conventions will be held here, it was estimated by Royal W. Ryan, executive vice-president of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau, Inc.

In 1939, the city had 726 conventions. Last year, it attracted 626, with an estimated 1,000,000 delegates and guests, who spent approximately $150,000,000.

India's population is estimated to be increasing by 10,000,000 a year.

HST-Stalin Talks Claimed Proposed

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Feb. 24 — The independent newspaper L'Intransigeant says the Russians have proposed unsuccessfully a meeting of President Truman and Prime Minister Stalin in Stockholm.

The newspaper's London correspondent, Raymond Henry, reported yesterday the proposal was made by Gen. Mikhail Malinin to U. S. Ambassador Robert D. Murphy in Berlin. Henry said Murphy had rejected the suggestion.

Moscow and Washington have denied that any talks have taken place between the Russians and Murphy, who is advisor to the U. S. military governor, Gen. Lucius D. Clay.

Tennessee Families Share Alarm Clock By Using Cow Bell, Cord

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 24 (U.P.)—The McCoys and the Tabors are so neighborly that they even share one alarm clock between families. Here's how it's done:

The McCoys own the clock. The Tabors advise the McCoys the night before what time they want to be awakened.

When the alarm rings, Mrs. Lillian McCoy reaches for a cord near the bed and gives a jerk. The other end of the cord is tied to a cowbell in the Tabor home.

CLIPPER TO DROP ANCHOR IN LUBBOCK—Land-locked Lubbock will be visited by a ship, of all things, Thursday. The ship is a model of the clipper seen in M.G.M.'s "Green Dolphin Street," touring major cities throughout the U.S. where the film is being shown. Although one-sixth the size of the original Green Dolphin, it faithfully reproduces every detail of its film prototype. Built in perfect scale, two inches to a foot, the model has an overall length, including bowsprit, of 39 feet, eight inches. Its beam is six feet, ten inches and its overall height is 33 feet, six inches. The mainmast of this three-masted clipper is 28 feet in length. More than 900 square feet of sail and 8,000 feet of rope are on the replica which will be on free exhibition Thursday from 11 a.m. until 5 p.m. on the Sears Roebuck and company's parking lot, 1625 Thirteenth. Richard Hart, who stars in the picture with Lana Turner, Van Heflin and Donna Reed, is pictured standing beside the replica which will be seen here. The film starts Saturday night in a prevue and continues through Wednesday at the Lindsey theater.

Board's Plans For Deaf School Scored

AUSTIN, Feb. 24 (AP) — State Board of Control promises to improve conditions at the state school for the deaf were challenged today as never amounting to "a hill of beans."

Louis B. Orrill of Dallas, president of the Texas Association for the Deaf, voiced the criticism in an open letter to the board following the board's recent report of a hearing into a student strike.

The board had declined to dismiss Supt. Roger M. Powell, whose removal had been demanded by the strike. Appointment of a prominent educator of the deaf to study needs at the school was promised.

Orrill said the board's verdict "was expected—more or less."

U. S. Technicians Developing Paper Pulp From Wheat Straw

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24 (AP)—It may not be long before you are writing those love notes on wheat straw.

The Agriculture department said today its technicians have developed what promises to be an economical and practical way to convert straw into fine papers. Earlier processes have been too costly.

Most paper now is made from wood.

If put to use, the new method could make use of the more than 95,000,000 tons of wheat straw that is burned and wasted yearly.

That much straw would make about 20,000,000 tons of cellulose pulp, the raw material from which paper is made. The department said that would meet the country's annual needs.

There still is one hitch. A method must be found to clean the straw when it is collected from fields. Farm machinery manufacturers are working on this problem.
