Remember that hour we "lost" last April when Daylight Saving Time began? Well, we're going to get it back this Sunday.

It will mean an extra hour of sleep at the outset, but of course, after a few days, getting up time will seem just about as early as it did before. For some of us, it will mean a few days of going to work after daylight, but then in another month or so the sun will be far enough south to remain hidden till the morning is well along again.

Then, just about the time everyone is fully geared to Standard Time, we'll be going back to Daylight Saving Time again, unless the state legislature decides to make Texas an exception and keep Standard Time the year round.

Daylight Saving Time does not serve its intended purpose in this geographic region. However, if Texas should be the only state on Standard Time while others are on DST it could present some minor confusion. For example, if New Mexico should be on DST and Texas on Standard Time you would not have to re-set your watch when you crossed the line into the New Mexico (Mountain) time zone. At the same time, if you went into the Eastern zone, a two - hour change would be required.

An active "third party" campaign for the office of President of the United States is causing a stir these days; but Postmaster General Marvin Watson says there have been three parties all along in Washington, D. C. He identifies them as "The Democratic Party, the Republican Party and the cocktail party."

And he implied that crossing of party lines is not unusual.

And while on the subject of the Postmaster General, his department is reminding people all over the country that they should get Christmas parcels to overseas addresses in the mail by Nov. 9 if they are to be assured delivery by Dec. 25. If you want to send them via air mail, you can wait until Dec. 11 to mail them.

NO AGREEMENT ON BOMBING HALT

US Fighter-Bombers Busy

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — American fighter-bombers took advantage of improved weather to deal North Vietnam's supply lines some of the heaviest blows given them in several weeks, military spokesmen reported today.

While reports from Washington said lack of agreement on two major points is blocking a complete halt to American bombing of the North, U.S. pilots logged 122 missions between the demilitarized zone and the 19th parallel Thursday.

The improved weather, with scattered clouds at 3,000 feet, continued today as U.S. jets kept up their attacks on North Vietnamese trucks, boats, storage areas, highways and bridges. Reports on today's strikes will not be announced until Saturday.

The Air Force, Navy and Marine bombers also struck at trucks and boats ferrying arms and ammuniton toward South Vietnam. Pilots reported smashing at least 39 boats and trucks and four bridges, and touching off numerous secondary explosions and fires, indicating hits on fuel and ammunition stores.

In one of the most spectacular raids, Navy A7 Corsair bombers from the carrier America dropped 500-pound bombs on three gasoline storage tanks 15 miles south of Vinh, and huge fireballs rose into the air.

The pilots said at least 10,000 gallons of gasoline were destroyed.

With more such raids on the north planned for Saturday, reports from Washington said President Johnson is still seeking assurances from Hanoi on de-escalation before halting the bombing of North Vietnam below the 19th parallel. Responsible authorities also said there is no agreement on including the South Vietnamese government and the Viet Cong's political arm, the National Liberation Front, in the next phase of the Paris peace talks.

Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker held another long meeting with President Nguyen Van Thieu today amid signs that Saigon as well as Hanoi is blocking the U.S. peace offensive.

The Saigon regime has serious reservations about what Washington might settle for as a reciprocal act from Hanoi if a full bombing halt were called.

Meanwhile, U.S. and South Vietnamese forces kept up their pressure on enemy ground forces despite a continuing lull in enemy operations, and military spokesmen reported the allies have killed at least 447 North Vietnamese in the past three days in the northeast corner of South Vietnam.

Thieu Is Said Standing Firm

By John T. WHEELER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Informed South Vietnamese sources said today President Nguyen Van Thieu remains unbending under U.S. pressure in his refusal to agree to a peace talks role for the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

The sources, with access to official information, reported that U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker, following his seventh meeting in nine days with Thieu, accepted the president's position as his final word on the subject.

Bunker was reported to have told Washington that any further efforts to change the Saigon government's position on front representation would be fruitless at this time.

Thieu has said he would accept the front only as part of the North Vietnamese delegation at peace talks. He insists Hanoi must negotiate with his government. North Vietnam says peace negotiations must be carried out with the front.

The sources said the issue of a peace talks role for the front and not a total halt to attacks on North Vietnam has been the chief stumbling block in the Thieu-Bunker discussions.

Thieu is reported to be in general agreement with the American position that a bombing halt must be followed by some acceptable reciprocal act on the part of North Vietnam.

More Gunfire At Lone Star

LONE STAR, Tex. (AP) — More gunfire and strife were reported Thursday in the Lone Star Steel Co. strike.

Company spokesman said W. C. Wright of Ore City informed sheriff's officers that three tires were shot off his truck early in the day near Talco as he returned from making an Oklahoma delivery for the plant.

Sheriff's deputies were quoted as saying it was the sixth instance of shots being fire at a vehicle since union steelworkers went on strike here Oct. 15.

Lone Star officials also said two drivers for Intercontinental Manufacturing Co. in Fort Worth suffered severe beatings in a cafe here Monday night. Intercontinental advised, they said, that Clyde Carner was taken to a hospital and Richard Woods was injured less seriously.

Charges were lodged against three steelworkers earlier after two Texas Rangers told of being fired upon as they left the steel plant. Rangers were inquiring into the latest developments.

Company officials said they made an "economic offer that would put our employes economically ahead of the U.S. Steel Corp," before negotiations were broken off and the strike began.

Cooperation Is Asked At Projects

A plea has gone out from school officials for people to keep off the high school track and tennis courts while construction work is underway.

New all - weather surfacing for both facilities is being installed. Recently a bicycle went through some tar at the tennis court site and caused some damage.

Both projects are scheduled to be finished within a few days.

Plane Hijacked By Barkley Grandson

By BOB GASSAWAY
Associated Press Writer

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — The wife and children of Alben Truitt, grandson of the late Vice President Alben Barkley, have gone into seclusion in this island city where federal authorities say Truitt chartered an airplane that was seized and flown to Cuba.

Allison Truitt and her three children reportedly fled Thursday from the tents they had occupied in a campground-trailer park complex for nearly a month, leaving many of their possessions behind.

Key Westers who knew the Truitts said they had experienced financial difficulties since their arrival at the campground Sept. 15, and Truitt reportedly was hard-pressed to buy necessities for the family.

"He was worried over putting food on the table," said Al Knowles, a grocer whose store had been patronized by Truitt.

Truitt, one of Barkley's four grandsons, was charged in a warrant Thursday afternoon with air piracy in the hijacking of a light plane chartered for aerial photography over the Gulf of Mexico Wednesday. A U.S. commissioner set bond at $100,000 on the charge, which carries a maximum penalty of death.

The hijack ride provided pilot Charles Z. Oliveros, a 28-year-old Army veteran of the Vietnam war, an overnight stay in Havana.

Oliveros, who flew back home alone Thursday said Truitt held a weapon at his head on the trip to Havana.

"He used a little device that resembles a ball point pen and told me it was an explosive device and that if I didn't cooperate, he would not hesitate to kill me," Oliveros told newsmen in Key West.

JC Panel At Work Again

The local junior college study committee has resumed work, Buford Browning, chairman, has advised.

Browning said that representatives of the local committee are due to meet within the next few days with officials of Howard County Junior College at Big Spring. Several months ago the committee had under study a possibility of annexing Scurry County to the HCJC district, with a provision that a spearate campus be established in Snyder.

This possibility will get another look, said Browning, although it is still too early to speculate on prospects for any type of election in the near future.

Charles DeGaulle Arrives In Turkey

ANKARA (AP) —President Charles de Gaulle arrived today for a five-day visit to Turkey. He is the first French head of state ever to visit this nation in the eastern Mediterranean.

President Cevdet Sunay and Prmier Suleyman Demirel greeted De Gaulle as he stepped from a jet that carried him from Paris.

Johnsons Boast New Grandbaby

WASHINGTON (AP) — A squalling, ruddy girl with black hair was born today to Lynda Bird Robb, touching off a round of free cigars handed out by beaming grandfather and father.

The grandfather, President Lyndon B. Johnson, announced the birth himself to newsmen at suburban Bethesda Naval Medical Center.

The father, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, was in his tin-roofed office of the 1st Marine Division's supply section in Vietnam.

Robb's first reaction? "It's a tradition here," he said. "Outstanding is the word we use."

"Very happy" were the words Johnson used to describe the family. The 24-year-old mother "seems to be quite normal and relaxed about it all," he said.

The little girl, who weighed 7 pounds, 8 ounces and measured 20 inches long, wasn't named. Asked what names were under consideration, Robb replied, "I'll have to let Lynda answer that one, since she's had custody for the last nine months."

Three Navy doctors and two anesthesiologists attended the birth at 12:03 a.m.

Within a half an hour, Robb had a telephone call from Lt. Gen. Lewis Walt, Marine deputy commandant, informing him of the birth.

New York Labor Crisis Worsens

By BOB MONROE
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — New York City's labor crisis deepened today when its uniformed policemen, after engaging in a week-long slowdown, broke off talks with Mayor John V. Lindsay.

The president of the Patrolmen's Benevolent Association, John J. Cassese, announced the failure of the PBA's effort to get Lindsay to reopen contract negotiations.

Cassese ordered the slowdown to continue and warned of new "job action" programs.

The city's other labor disputes —the teachers' strike that has kept most of 1.1 million students from classes and a work slowdown by firemen—continued unchanged.

Police headquarters said that as of 10:30 a.m. today, 1,281 patrolmen had called in sick, a major tactic in the slowdown. The sick list grew to 3,690 members Thursday. Between 2,000 and 3,000 reported ill each day on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Fire Commissioner Robert O. Lowery termed the firemen's refusal to do nonemergency work "very effective." He said routine inspections and training were at a standstill.

A state official offered a peace plan aimed at solving all the labor woes. Jay Kramer, chairman of the State Labor Relations Board, said legislative leaders were studying it.

Texas Political Stumping Quickens

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

With the Nov. 5 general election 10 days in the offing, Texas gubernatorial candidates stumped away briskly today and there was further maneuvering in the presidential campaign.

Paul Eggers, the Republican nominee for governor, loosed fresh verbal darts at Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, his Democratic rival.

Smith, in turn, had more to say about revitalizing urban areas and capitalizing on the states resources and talents.

Speaking at Wichita Falls, Eggers accused his opponent Thursday of "resorting to scare tactics in the ate stages of his sagging campaign . . ."

"He admits he wants change," Eggers said, but he continues to claim his brand of experience is needed. He's trying to cloud his political philosophy, which he himself describes as ultra conservative. He is confused by change and wants to hold back on all fronts."

Smith, appearing in Gilmer at the East Texas Yamboree, urged that all "work together to perform a revitalization of our rural and small town areas . . . ease the tremendous migration into metropolitan areas . . . provide a healthy economy rural areas . . ."

Moving on to Greenville, Smith said this morning, "with resources in abundance, a most desirable geographic situation and large numbers of talented people . . . nothing short of internal complacency can deter us . . . There is no doubt in my mind that history will show this generation of Texans reached heights never before attained in the annals of government."

In the presidential campaign, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., said the Democratic ticket headed by Vice President Hubert Humphrey promises "the coming of a new day for young Americans." He spoke before North Texas State University students in Denton.

Yarborough appraised Humphrey as "the man who offers the best prospect for ending the war in Vietnam" and added, "The domestic problems will not be solved until we have ended the war, brought our men home and taken the vast expenditures now devoted to the war to improve the quality of American life."

As national chairman of Democrats for Nixon-Agnew, former Gov. Allan Shivers named former State Sen. Ottis Lock to head a Texas Democrats for Nixon-Agnew organization. Lock said the strategy will be to urge that Texas Democrats vote for GOP presidential candidate Richard Nixon but cast their ballots for Democrats in state and local races.

Nixon supporters reported Desi Arnaz, the television star and producer, was visiting in Nixon's behalf today and Saturday in Austin, San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Robstown, Victoria and Del Rio.

Dissenting Czechs Are Secretly Tried

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany has launched a series of secret trials of dissenters who objected to the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia in which East German forces took part, authoritative sources reported today.

The sources said that Horst Bonnet, stage director at the East Berlin Comic Opera, had been sentenced to 2½ years in prison for distributing leaflets protesting the invasion.

They said additional trials might involve 20 or more persons, among them the 16-year-old and 19-year-old sons of scientist Robert Havemann. The father lost his membership in the Communist party and his post at East Berlin's Humboldt University in 1964 for his independent views on how socialism should develop.

Sources in the Czechoslovak Embassy in East Berlin say the Aug. 21 Warsaw Pact blitz on Prague produces a wave of sympathy and other demonstrations of support by individual East Germans for the cause of liberalism in Czechoslovakia.

East German Communist leader Walter Ulbricht was in the forefront of those demanding that the liberalization drive in Czechoslovakia be halted. He feared it would spread to the East German people.

Ulbricht declared that a cultural liberalization such as occurred in Czechoslovakia would not be tolerated in East Germany.

DEAR ABBY: I am worried. I read somewhere that a girl can get cancer from kissing a boy who smokes a lot if the boy happens to have an open cut on his tongue or lip. Is this true?

THIRTEEN AND WORRIED

DEAR THIRTEEN: No, it's not true, altho there are other diseases which are transmitted in this manner. Obviously you're old enough to read, but you're hardly old enough to go in for the kind of kissing you describe, so the word from here is to read more and kiss less, and you won't have to worry.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I am very much in love with a married man. I know this sounds corny, but his wife doesn't understand him. (I do.) He spends half his time with me, and other half at home because he has children. He tells me hasn't loved his wife for a long time and that he has absolutely nothing whatsoever to do with her, but last night in his sleep he called me by her name. What do you think?

THE GIRL FRIEND

DEAR GIRL FRIEND: I think you ought to pray that this never happens in reverse.

DEAR ABBY: I am a normal, red-blooded, 29-year-old man who would like to get married. I am not looking for a rich girl, or a beauty either, as I am nothing out of the ordinary. But I do want a woman no man has ever had before.

I was on the brink of marriage twice in my life. One was a divorcee and the other a widow. I simply could not bring myself to marry either one of them knowing they had been in the arms of another man. I fully realize it was not the widow's fault that her husband died, and the divorcee was also blameless because her husband ran off and left her. All the same, I want a woman who has never been with a man — if you know what I mean. Am I asking too much? Sign me —

"LOUIS THE FIRST"

DEAR LOUIS: No, but your kind usually winds up "LOUIS XVI!" And now may I ask you a question? Have you ever been with a woman — if you know what I mean?

• • •

DEAR ABBY: I'm writing in reference to "WORRIED," who stated her dilemma about whether to tell her neighbor with a 4-year-old boy about the teenager on their street who has molested children. You said, YES, by all means tell her.

I say, YES, YES YES tell her immediately! We lived on our street for 2 years with our two beautiful pre - school - age daughters when we learned that a neighbor had a history of child molesting. When I mentioned this to several neighbors to warn them to watch their children closely they said they already knew about it, but no one wanted to tell US for fear of "upsetting" us.

To keep silent when one knows of an evil is to condone it. If one of my daughters had been molested, those silent neighbors would have been morally guilty.

NO NAME, PLS.

Horses On Increase Says USDA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Agriculture can't say how many horses there are in the United States, but when it comes to planning barns for them the experts are profound.

Horse and mule statistics were discontinued in 1960 when the department reported 3,089,000 on the nation's farms. Since then, horses used for pleasure riding have increased dramatically, perhaps more than doubled, estimates indicate.

Thursday the department issued several pamphlets showing basic designs of several horse barn. Complete drawings to enable people to build the barns are available through state university extension services, the department said.

The pamphlets described a 1½-story barn, complete with hay loft and plenty of work area below, and two one-story barns, one with 17 stalls and another with eight.

The pamphlets acknowledged that horseback riding has become popular and that farmers may be able to "increase their income by establishing recreational facilities" on their property.

Some department officials have urged that the statistics on horses be resumed so the economic importance of this type recreation can be determined.

Archbishop Requested To Resign

By RICHARD BEENE
Associated Press Writer

SAN ANTONIO (AP)— Fifty-one priests made public Thursday their request to Pope Paul VI that Texas' senior archbishop resign.

Some called it unprecedented in U.S. Roman Catholic history.

Archbishop Robert E. Lucey, 77, spiritual leader of more than 500,000 Catholics in the 32-county archdiocese of San Antonio, had no immediate comment.

Early today, Bishop Stephen A. Leven, auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese, issued a statement which he said was his opinion. He said the archbishop did not request that it be issued and had no knowledge of its content.

He said he believed he spoke for "the more than 400 active priests" in the archdiocese who did not sign the letter "and perhaps not a few who did."

He charged that "many tens of thousands of the archdiocesan members "are only bewildered, confused and grieved that some of their spiritual shepherds have seen fit to make gossip of the grievances they feel so deply."

Bishop Leven said he had no knowledge whether Archbishop Lucey will make a statement.

Funds Freed For Impacted School Areas

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., has announced release by the Bureau of the Budget an additional $5,162,000 for Texas' impacted school districts.

Such districts are those with a higher than normal influx of pupils caused by nearby federal facilities such as military bases.

Earlier this year, Congress appropriated $91 million for the program nationally, but the Budget Bureau refused to release the funds. Congress then re-appropriated the funds, with instructions that it be spent.

"Texas has already received $20,905,000 under the impacted aid program for fiscal 1968," said Yarborough, ranking member of the Senate subcommittee on education, "But that simply isn't enough for those school districts who serve government employes but aren't able to tax them for contributions.

"These are the school districts that were entitled to some $486 million under public law. These are the school districts upon which the federal government has placed heavy financial burdens. These are the school districts that educate the children of parents who work or live on federal property, especially military bases and federal agencies.

"Under this 1950 law, these school districts are entitled to financial aid from the national government. They prepare their yearly budgets on the basis of these entitlements. The school districts literally depend upon this money to educate the children."

Yarborough said Texas is slated to get more than $27 million for the current (1969) fiscal year.

Lock-Picking Orangutan

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Fu Manchu, a gentle, sweet-tempered orangutan, has mastered the art of picking locks.

"A few weeks ago we found all four of our orangutans out of their building. A few days later it happened again," the zoo director, Dr. Warren Thomas, said.

Vigilance foiled the next escape. As keepers watched, Fu climbed to the bottom of the moat surrounding his outdoor play area, took a piece of wire and tripped the spring loaded lock on a service door.

It was the seventh time Fu had managed the getaway.

"We have cleaned and cleaned that outside area and the moat. We are not certain where Fu gets the wire, but we do know it's somtimes hidden in Fu's mouth," Thomas said.

A new bolt has foiled Fu for the moment but Thomas says, "I don't know that the orangutan building can ever be Fu-proof."

Color Makes Room's Mood

Color creates the mood of the room, and decorating a room should begin with selection of a color scheme.

Choosing one dominant color is usually better than giving equal emphasis to two. Secondary colors can add subtlety and interest.

Color should suit the function and geographical location of the room, enhance other features and blend with the over-all decor of the home. A room facing south or west, and thus gets plenty of afternoon sun, will seem less stuffy and overheated if cool colors are used. Warm tones will prevent a room that faces north from seeming to be chilly.

Wall and floor surfacings should be chosen carefully because they are fixed color elements in the room. Consideration should be given to how surfaces will show wear and tear when they are no longer new. Products like ceramic tile, for example, are now available in a variety of colors that are appropriate for any room and will not fade or change over the life of a house.

Colors for rooms shared by the entire family should be chosen and agreed upon by all its members. Bold wild color schemes with clashing colors that can create tension in a room should be avoided. But so should trite formulas.

In-Outdoor Living

The modern trend toward indoor - outdoor living has not only created a great demand for patios, decks, terraces and courtyards that take inside activities out of the house. It also brings the outdoors into the home in atriums, garden and Florida rooms. Extensive use of glass and such durable, easily maintained surfacing products as ceramic tile make creation of year-round gardens right in the house possible.

Most of the commercially marketed codfish is in the form of frozen fillets and fish sticks. But the eggs are ground as bait for sardines: codliver oil is extracted from the liver, and the air bladder is used in making ising glass.

Mocha Nut Waffle Dessert

1 cup pancake mix
2 tablespoons sugar
2 tablespoons unsweetened cocoa
1 tablespoons instant coffee
1 cup milk
1 egg.
3 tablespoons salad oil
½ cup chopped walnuts
Ice Cream
Waffle Sauce

Stir together pancake mix, sugar, cocoa and instant coffee. Add milk, egg and oil. Beat with rotary beater until batter is fairly smooth. Stir in walnuts. Bake in hot waffle iron. Top each waffle section with a scoop of ice cream and warm waffle sauce.

Waffle Sauce. In medium saucepan mix together ¾ cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1-3 cut light corn syrup and pinch of salt. Cook over medium heat until mixture comes to rolling boil, stirring occasionally. Remove from heat; cool slightly — about 15 minutes. Gradually add 1-3 cup evaporated milk, stirring constantly.

New Flu Outbreak Expected

The flu warning flag is up again. The U. S. Public Health Service Advisory Committee now warns that a new strain of Asian flu may give the nation another outbreak of this troublesome ailment this winter.

The Committee, which earlier had given the country an "all clear," revised its flu prediction following the identification of a new strain in Hong Kong in July. Already the Hong Kong virus, a variant of the A2 type that gave the country the miseries last year, is beginning to read .

"It is felt that the present change in the influenza virus," reports thePublic Health Service, 'increases the probability that influenza A2 will occur extensively in the United States in the 1968-69 season."

Current vaccines may provide only limited protection against the new A2 Hong Kong virus, according to the Public Health Service. Better protection against it will require a newly formulated vaccine. The development, manufacture and distribution to physicians of such a vaccine will require considerable time and only a limited number of doses will be initially available, the agency reports.

In the meantime the Public Health Service recommends that currently available flu vaccines be given primarily to elderly persons or the chronically ill.

Influenza is a viral infection of the respiratory tract. It differs from a cold in severity and the extent of complications. Its symptoms include sudden chilliness, fatigue, headache, and general aches, with temperatures of 101 to 104 degrees. Sore throat and coughing may also occur as symptoms.

If you become a flu victim this winter, follow the advice recommended during an earlier epidemic by the Surgeon General — stay in bed, take aspirin, and drink plenty of fluids.

Reports that supplies of this medication are being increased throughout the country as a result of the latest warning of the Public Health Service.

The Asian flu A2 strain first appeared on the world scene in 1957 and is believed to have started in Hong Kong. From there this virus, which affects people of all ages, has traveled around the world.

The drug codeine occurs naturally in opium and is a derivitive of morphine.

20th Century Club Has Poetry Day

The Twentieth Century Club met recently at the Martha Ann Women's Club for an interesting meeting on club procedure and etiquette, with a reminder of the proper use of parliamentary rules.

As it was Texas Poetry Day, Mrs. Mabel Huckabee, leader for the day, gave a brief history stating that Texas was one of the first states to have her own poet laureate. Every two year's a new one is chosen by a Governer's committee. The TWFC has a poetry contest each year and poems of the winners from 1966 and 1967-68 were read. Members are being encouraged to enter this contest and a monetary prize was awarded in 1968. Mrs. Huckabee closed her part of the program by reading a prayer poem written by Dr. P. B. Hill, the present Poet Laureate of Texas.

For the second part of the program, members answered a roll call on club etiquette with interesting and varied answers ranging from special attempts to make new members feel welcome to closer observation of club by-laws, which may need to be revised periodically. Club President, Mrs. Charles Tyer, ended the roll call with a review of "club ethics" sent to each club by the TWFC President. "Club ethics, or club courtesy should be observed at all meetings. The same general rules of courtesy should be observed at all meetings. The same general rules of courtesy which apply to a home apply to a club Be gracious, considerate and kind."

Mrs. Frank Wilson closed the program with an informative and amusing profile of a good club member. She asked "How Do You Rate?" If every member was just like you, what would your club be like? Could you give a valid reason why your club should retain your name on its roll? Then followed a suggested shopping list for clubs including such items as: a large box of cooperation; one gallon of enthusiasm; a spool of understanding; large economy size of common sense and two orders of poise and confidence. Things To Forget included slander, quarrels, unkind words, the blues, but DON'T FORGET TO PAY YOUR DUES To close, Mrs. Wilson planted a co-operator's garden of "p's" — presence, promptness, preparation; squash — gossip, indifference, unjust criticism; lettuce — be faithful, obey rules, love one another; turnips — turn up for meetings with a smile, with new ideas, with determination to make everything count for something good and worth while.

Mrs. Bob Dupree was hostess for the meeting with others present being Mrs. B. J. Bartels, Mrs. Clyde Collins, Mrs. Idolph Crooks, Mrs. Jesse Dea, Mrs. J. Nelson Dunn, Mrs. John Hamblen Mrs. I. T. Huckabee, Mrs. Charles Noble, Mrs. Guy Stoker, Mrs. Charles Tyer, Mrs. Frank Wilson.

In Jam About Doors?

If you're planning a kitchen for narrow space, pay particular attention to the way appliance and cabinet doors swing open. Left-handed doors for right - handed spaces will always be a problem but they will be a disaster in a narrow kitchen, particularly when traffic is heavy. Floors of durable, easily maintained material like ceramic tile can be a housekeeper's boon in this kind of kitchen.

Does Any Candidate Have The Solution To Inflation?

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The most elusive economic problem for the new administration will be inflation. Practical plans rather than good intentions are needed to solve it, but so far the candidates have expressed mainly goodness of heart.

They have assured voters that they consider the problem urgent, which is telling the public nothing it hasn't learned painfully at the supermarket, the shoe store, the hospital and the bank.

But, except in broad theory, those who seek to run the country for the next four years seem not to have evolved solutions to inflation any more than have officials of the outgoing Johnson administration.

The Republican platform states that price stability will be sought in better management of the national debt and reduction of the nation's interest burden. These are goals rather than solutions.

The same with the Democrats. They promise to seek price stability but seek also an expanding economy and full employment. This also is a goal, one which eluded President Johnson. Inflation helped undermine the Great Society.

Every politician knows in theory how to end inflation. You can slow the economy—cut public spending, take money out of consumer and business hands. By such means you can force a cutback in production and consumption until supply-demand come into better balance.

But textbook theories often are useless in dealing with human problems, and inflation is just that. It is not just a concern of abstract economics but a matter of how people shall live.

Earier this month, for example, the Business Council, which is made up of corporation heads who meet twice a year with government officials, suggested that the answer to inflation might be a massive cutback on jobs.

This would be a solution, but clearly an undesirable one.

Say the Democrats, "The answer to rising prices will never be sought in unemployment and idle plant facilities. We are firmly committed to the twin objectives of full employment and price stability."

Which is to say, if the incoming administration has no better way of reaching the goal than the previous one, that we will have inflation. In fact, to some extent these goals are contradictory in an already inflated economy.

Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate, has promised to use budget policies to combat inflation. He promised to pursue this goal "without increasing unemployment or controls."

This is equally difficult to achieve. If the economy already were in balance—without much inflation, that is—the promise could be kept. But a return to balance is unlikely to be achieved in the manner Nixon describes.

What makes the problem so difficult for most candidates is that the American people seem in spirit to be committed to a rapidly expanding economy and to a more equitable distribution of its rewards through social welfare programs.

Junior Editors Quiz on ECLIPSES

QUESTION: What causes lunar and solar eclipses?

* * * *

ANSWER: If you go out when the full moon is shining, you can demonstrate for yourself what an eclipse is. Cover one eye and hold up a marble over the moon's disc, as Janet is doing in the top picture. By moving the marble back and forth, you can find the place where it covers the moon's disc completely. This is a total eclipse. Move the marble a bit to one side and it will represent a partial eclipse. What causes a lunar eclipse is that the moon enters the shadow cast by the earth away from the sun. Don't use your marble on the sun. It would hurt your eyes. But you can set up a solar eclipse inside, as our picture shows. The flashlight is the sun; John holds a small ball on a stick to represent the moon. Notice the long shadow of the moon reaching down to touch the earth at just one point. If a person was standing at just such a point on the real earth, the sun would be in total eclipse at that point. Because astronomers know the exact orbits used by earth and moon, they can predict just when eclipses will happen and from where they can be seen.

Stu Flexner Keeps Tabs On Language

By JOY STILLEY

NEW YORK (AP) — Stuart Flexner loves words — their definition, pronunciation and etymology—and it's a good thing he does, because he has just dealt with 155,000 of them as managing editor of the just published College Edition of the Random House Dictionary.

But in addition to this task and that of senior editor of the standard Random House Dictionary, he is an authority on slang, having written the American Dictionary of Slang, published in 1960, which he revised last year.

"Slang," explains the 38-year soft-spoken lexicographer, "is the group of words that enters informal speech from a cultural subgroup. The general vocabulary an averageman is expected to know is standard speech, informal and slang. Below that are technical words, colloquialisms and regionalisms, which are fast disappearing under the influence of television."

To be considered slang, Flexner points out, such words must first have been used for a while by a cultural subgroup, such as astronomers, pickpockets, football players or jazz musicians. Second, there must be a synonym for the word. Thus hippie is standard rather than slang, because there is no other term to designate this type of person. Four-letter words are considered by linguists as taboo rather than slang.

A word that was once slang can be universally accepted and become respectable, if enough of the "right" people use it. "Okay," Flexner reports, hasn't carried a slang label for 10 or 15 years and teachers no longer prohibit its use.

"Dictionary makers," he says, "are not judges—we're reporters of the way the language is used by educated people."

Where do new words come from? Areas that are especially productive are space exploration, the Vietman war, which has put such words as Green Berets and DMZ into the language, politics, sports and hobbies, popular music, science culture and fashion trends.

"I would guess as many as 50 new words came into common usage last year" Flexner adds. "For instance, medicare, flashcube, high-rise apartment, SST and DNA."

To keep tabs on the ever-changing language he keeps a card file of words and their frequency of use adding new ones by computerized scanning of publications, monitoring radio and television and interviewing people in social subgroups.

Tigers Take On Wildcats

The injury - plagued Snyder Tigers journey to Littlefield tonight to contest the Wildcats in a District 3-AAA gridiron match. Kickoff is on tap for 7:30 p.m.

Coach Wayne Tyrone's Tigers put the finishing touches on pre-game preparations yesterday afternoon with an overall review of all phases of the game.

Monday's drill — the first one of the week — also was sort of a hodge podge of everything. Tuesday, the squad worked on defense against the Littlefield I formation while Wednesday's session was devoted to offense.

Several key personnel remain injured, but David McGinnis may see some action on defense tonight. He worked out some in pads earlier in the week. Eddie Ray McClain didn't participate in the workout yesterday, nor did Jerry January, Mitch Rambin, Delbert Hirst or Kenneth Keller. The latter boy may be out for the campaign. Lee McNair still has a sore arm and has difficulty throwing.

For tonight's game, Steve Holder and Rick Glasscock will be operating at the quarterback and fullback spots respectively. Holder, a senior, saw considerable action at the position last year and can pose a real threat on run-pass option maneuvers. Glasscock, a 172-pound junior, will be getting his first chance as a starter on offense tonight. He has performed capably on defense previously.

Randy Levens will be at a halfback slot tonight, and competent help in the running department can be supplied by Efrain Cervantez.

The Wildcats will be without the services of Roy Burk, senior signal caller, who was injured in the affray at Lamesa last week. However, they have senior Travis Danford who will be throwing mostly to speedy wingback Eddie Hickman.

Two of the last three contests between these two teams have been decided by a single point and tonight's skirmish may be no different.

Elsewhere on the 3-AAA scene, the Dunbar Panthers and Brownfield Cubs tangled last night in Lubbock without deciding anything. The final score 16-16.

Tomorrow night, Lamar 9th grade hosts San Angelo Lee at 6 p.m., followed by a 7:30 p.m. battle between the Snyder junior varsity and San Angelo's sophomore team. Both matches are on tap for Tiger Stadium.

Travis 8th Falls 35-14 At Lamesa

LAMESA — The Travis 8th grade Blue Devils fought the host Green Hornets on equal terms in the second half here, but the 21 points they spotted the Lamesans in the first half was too much to overcome as they dropped a 35-14 decision in a Junior High grid clash here yesterday.

Lamesa blocked a punt early in the game and scored on a one-yard plunge. Runs of 51 and 25 yards plus a successful run and pass for extra points accounted for the first half margin.

Travis couldn't get its offense to rolling in the first half and finished the first two periods with only 17 yards total offense. Lamesa put on such a fierce pass rush that Travis was able to complete only one aerial in the first two quarters.

Adam Rodriguez was the outstanding ball carrier for the Blue Devils, gaining 101 of their 125 total yards on the ground. He scored on an 8-yard gallop in the third period to cap a 60 yard drive.

The Snyder boys had another drive of about the same distance in the fourth period with Mike Boles getting the TD from one yard out. Rodriguez ran for the extra points.

The Green Hornets got their second half touchdowns on a 1-yard sneak by the quarterback and a 40 yard run-and-pass play.

Defensively, William Clayton was outstanding for Travis, getting 11 tackles from his safety spot. Scotty Sullivan and Boles each got seven.

Thursday Travis 8th will be at Sweetwater for a 5:30 p.m. clash.

Pro Cagers Seek Randy

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Dallas Chaparrals of the American Basketball Association indicated Thursday they are interested in signing Olympic shot-put champion Randy Matson of Pampa to a contract.

Max Williams, operations manager of the Dallas team, said, "We are planning to really go after him. He would be a tremendous draw.

"Matson has a lot of talent and is a tremendous jumper. Of course, he would be too heavy to play right away."

The Atlanta Falcons of the National Football League also have Matson, but Williams said "We're ready to get into a bidding war for him."

Matson, of Pampa, Tex., said he hadn't decided whether he would play professional sports.

Frank Wall, general manager of Atlanta, said Matson was a "great prospect" for pro was a "great prospect" for professional football.

Colt-Ram, Cowboy-Packer Tilts Highlight NFL Action

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Fearsome Foursome gets its chance to gnaw on Earl Morrall and the Baltimore Colts Sunday in the most important game in the first half of the National Football League season.

If the Baltimore Colts, upset by Cleveland last week, can't handle the challenge of the onrushing Los Angeles Rams in Baltimore, they can forget about any Super Bowl cash. A win for the Rams would put them on easy street.

The Colts have to be a team with a mission. The Rams tied them in Baltimore last year and then shattered their dreams of a perfect season by beating them in Los Angeles 34-10.

Toss in a Green Bay-Dallas rematch in the Cotton Bowl on national television (CBS) Monday night, and you have the makings of a weekend that could knock out a groggy picker.

Last week's record was a shaky 7-5-1 with 5-2-1 in the NFL and 2-3 in the AFL for 41-22-2 on the season. Lets's try to do better. All games are Sunday, unless otherwise indicated.

NFL

Los Angeles 23, Baltimore 20- Rams' offense ordinary but Roman Gabriel is hitting Billy Truax with consistency and that defense is turning quarterbacks gray. Colts are extra tough at home, despite upset by Browns. They'll be sky high for this one. Rams have won 14 straight in regular season.

Dallas 27, Green Bay 21 (Monday night)- Somehow, some way you have a hunch the Packers will find a way to pull it out but the figures say Dallas on a more explosive attack. Return of Bart Starr narrows the gap. Don't forget Cowboys never have beaten Pack when it counted. Green Bay won exhibition 31-27.

Minnesota 24, Chicago 17- The Bears won in Minnesota 27-17. Now it's Vikings' turn despite erratic air game. Chicago went with ex-taxi squad quarterback, Virgil Carter, and sneaked past Eagles. Only a super show by Gale Sayers can turn this around.

St. Louis 24, New Orleans 23—The Cards just squeaked home in first meeting 21-20 after trailing 17-0 at the start of the last quarter. But St. Louis is commng on behind Jim Hart and Willis Crenshaw is hot.

San Francisco 23, Detroit 21—The pick here is an upset although the game is in Detroit. The 49ers have a well-balanced attack that can pressure Bill Munson. Lions' Mel Farr is big threat and Earl McCullouch will test 49ers deep defense.

New York 34, Washington 28- Giants romped in first game 48-21 when Fran Tarkenton was healthy and club still was unbeaten.

Cleveland 24, Atlanta 17- Bill Nelsenfitting in groove as No. 1 quarterback and Ernie Green is back to give Leroy Kelly some help.

Pittsburgh 21, Philadelphia 17- Something has to give. Each has lost six in a row. Everybody runs on the Eagles so why not Dick Hoak.

AFL

New York 24, Boston 13- Joe Namath shook off interception jitters and led Jets to win in Houston with flawless 80-yard march in closing minutes. Mike Taliaferro will find old mates tough to handle as in earlier 47-31 Jet win at Birmingham where Namath was intercepted four times.

Oakland 31, Cincinnati 10- Raiders must be ready to explode after dropping two in a row to Chargers and Chiefs. Paul Brown's Bengals have lost four straight after early success.

Houston 21, Buffalo 10—Much depends on condition of Oilers after tough loss to Jets. Buffalo defense weak against running game and Bills' attack packs no punch.

Miami 17, Denver 14- Despite 2-3-1 record Dolphins still have outside chance in Eastern race with Bob Griese on the beam. Broncs' hopes depend on condition of Steve Tensi, hurt again last week in San Diego game.

Cage Hopes Fall With 'Bug' Strike

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States basketball team was more worried about Montezuma's Revenge today than it was about Yugoslavia, the Yanks' rival in the 1968 Olympic basketball showdown tonight.

Montezuma's Revenge is the nickname tagged by foreigners on diarrhea and towering Spencer Haywood was hit by the ailment Thursday night.

"I think he'll play, but he's real sick," said Coach Hank Iba, whose attack hinges on the rebounding and shooting of the 6-foot-8 junior college star from Detroit.

"We hope he'll be all right by gametime," added Iba, who is out to keep intact the United State record of never having lost an Olympic basketball game.

The Americans with a healthy Haywood are solid favorites. Without the flashy youngster the odds on the Yanks would drop sharply.

This game, scheduled for 11:30 p.m., EDT, is a rematch, the USA having drubbed Yugoslavia 73-58 in the first round. It will be televised live to the United States in color by ABC.

The Slavs upset mighty Russia in the semifinals and now here they are preparing to contest the USA as it goes after its 75th straight Olympic triumph without a single defeat.

Coach Ranko Zeravica of Yugoslavia is conceding that the USA not only is a better team but that he doubts he can get his men back up after their surprising 63-62 victory over Russia.

Iba says he has no trouble along the later line—"when they are playing for the gold medal there is no reason for not being up psychologically."

"The USA has so many variations," he said.

The USA has six players 6-foot-6 or better, the tallest being Ken Spain, who is 6-9. Haywood, who has collected 129 points, is 6-8. Bill Hosket, James King and Don Dee are each 6-7.

Against this array of tall men Yugoslavia matches Zoran Marovic, 6-8¼; Trajko Rajkovic, 6-8¼; Cosic Kresimer, 6-8¾; Damir Solman, 6-6¼, and Zorgan Alojosa, 6-6¾.

Travis 9th Socks Stamford, 13-6

STAMFORD — Travis 9th grade overcame an early deficit and about 20 fumbles scoring two touchdowns in the last quarter to sock the host Bulldogs 13-6 here Thursday night.

Stamford returned the opening kickoff for a touchdown to take a 6-0 lead with only 10 seconds expired in the game. They attempted a run for extra points, but the Blue Devil defense, which was outstanding all night, stopped the runner short.

The Bulldogs were able to gain only two first downs after that spectacular beginning.

Fumbles on the snapback from center quashed several drives for Travis, but the team marched 85 yards in a drive that was perfectly executed in the fourth quarter. Billy Clayton, George Alderete and Jackie Murray all contributed valuable yardage in the march. Alderete got the TD on a five yard burst through the line. Albert Hernandez kicked for the extra point. The ball hit the crossbar but fell over to give the Snyder boys a 7-6 lead.

Late in the period Travis recovered a fumble and drove 35 yards for its final TD with 2½ minutes left in the game. Murray did the honors this time on another five yard gallop. The conversion kick was wide to the left.

Next Thursday, the Travis 9th hosts Sweetwater.

Gary Durst, Travis 9th grade end, sustained a fractured collar bone during the game and was due to undergo surgery at Cogdell Memorial Hospital this morning.

Beman Holds Slim Lead

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Former amateur champion Deane Beman, who gave up a lucrative insurance business to take a fling at professional golf, led the way into the second round today of the $110,000 Haig National Open Tournament with an initial flourish of 64—seven strokes under par and a putting mark of 19 which equalled the PGA record for 18 holes.

But Beman was only one stroke in front. Challenging from four strokes or less back were such threats as Billy Casper, Chi Chi Rodriguez, Al Geiberger, Bruce Crampton, Bob Rosburg and others.

Play is over the short 6,650-yard, par 36-35—71 Mesa Verde Country Club course, where Thursday 61 of the 150 players fractured par.

Beman's 19 putts tied a record shared by Rosburg, Bill Nary and Randy Glover.

Tied at 65 were Geiberger, Crampton, Dudley, Wysong and Dave Gumlia, while Rosburg was knotted at 66 with Ron Cerrudo, Mike Higgins and Pete Brown.

Casper, after playing straight par for nine holes, finished with 33-35—68 and a tie with six lesser known pros. Rodriguez' 67 put him in a tie with four others.

Debbie Collects Third Olympic Gold Medal

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The United States' rag-tag basketball team goes for the gold tonight, while new controversies and charges of fixed wrestling matches arose in these trouble-ridden 19th Olympic Games.

The American gold medal production slowed considerably Thursday—two in swimming—but the margin over Russia increased.

Carl Robie, Drexel Hill, Pa., scored an upset victory in the men's 200-meter butterfly and Debbie Meyer, Sacramento, Calif., collected her third gold medal with an Olympic record 9:24.0 in the women's 800-meter freestyle.

That pushed the U.S. collection of golds to 37 and a total of 88. Russia, meanwhile, managed only one gold, giving them 16 for the Games and a total of 53.

The United States will be favored in two of the three swimming finals tonight, but the attention will be riveted on the American basketball team's game with Yugoslavia for the Olympic title.

The game will be telecast live to the United States by ABC-TV.

The team, shunned by such collegiate standouts as Lew Alcindor, Elvin Hayes and Don May, has been forged into a tightly knit, precision crew by Coach Henry Iba.

The United States hasn't lost a game, much less the gold medal, since the sport was introduced into the Olympics in 1936, but Iba's team faces a major challenge in the Yugoslavs, who gained the finals by beating Russia.

Three new controversial issues broke Thursday.

Sweden was stripped of its bronze medal in modern pentathlon.

The Olympic Organizing Committee announced that only six representatives from each country will march in the closing ceremonies, a break in tradition.

In all recent Olympics, the entire contingents from all competing countries have marched in the colorful ceremony.

American freestyle wrestling Coach Tom Evans, leveled charges that some matches were thrown.

The U.S. Olympic Committee continues to investigate rumors of under the counter payoffs by manufacturers to athletes to use and display the manufacturers' products.

And a Swedish cycling team masseur, S. Collard, was sent home for giving the cyclists vitamin pills against the orders of his national delegation.

"We found certain medicines in his room," said assistant Chef ce Mission Paulus Lut. "We held a meeting and decided he be sent home for going against orders."

Sweden had to give up its bronze medal in modern pentathlon because one team member, Hans Gunnar Liljenvall, was found to have exceeded his alcohol intake before the shooting event. France was awarded the medal.

The Organizing Committee gave no reason for its action in curtailing the number of athletes to march in the closing ceremonies, but it appeared the group wanted to avoid any disorders at the breakup of the ceremonies.

Many athletes objected vehemently.

Jesse Owens, who won four gold medals in the 1936 Games and here as a special member of the U.S. Olympic Committee, was equally dismayed.

"I haven't heard the reasons that made this decision," Owens said, "but I'm sure they must be good ones. Yet, I can't help thinking something important is being lost.

"I've seen every Olympic Game since I participated and have always considered the closing ceremonies, from the human standpoint, the real highlight."

Fears said his charge of thrown wrestling matches "is not sour grapes, because freestyle wrestling is wrapped up. But things were done which never should have been done and something should be said about it.

"I don't mind bad decisions or inferior refereeing jobs, but throwing matches is too much."

Scoring in freestyle wrestling is built on a bad point system. A wrestler is awarded four bad points if he loses by a pin, three for a loss by a decision, two for a draw, one for winning by decision and none for a pin. Six bad points and he's out.

"Countries—but I won't name them—threw matches to each other. Coaches were making deals in the third round to take care of each other in different weight classes," Fears said.

"Deals are made before the matches. In order to keep certain wrestlers alive and in competition, one would quit to the other so he wouldn't pick up his sixth bad point."

The United States picked up all its medals in the four swimming events, while Russia suffered a couple of disappointments. Their only gold came in women's team foil, and they were edged out of two others, by Japan in men's gymnastics and by West Germany in equestrian team dressage.

Robie, the 200-meter butterfly winner who labeled himself a "fringe member" of the American swimming team, he "felt very confident about winning it after the U.S. trials because no one else seemed to be swimming that well." His time was 2:08.7.

Martyn Woodroffe of Great Britain was second and John Ferris, Sacramento, was third. Mark Spitz, America's world record holder in the event, was suffering from a respiratory ailment and finished last.

Miss Meyer, who also won the 200- and 400-meter freestyles, scored by 20 meters over teammate Pam Krause, Pompano Beach, Fla., with Maria Teresa Ramirez of Mexico third.

Debbie, 16, said she would continue competing for at least one more year "and maybe four. I might compete in the Munich Games—if I can make the team," she said.

Ada Kok of Holland won the women's 200-meter butterfly in 2:24.7, followed by Helga Lindner of East Germany and Ellie Daniel, Elkins Park, Pa.

Australian Mike Wenden set an Olympic record at 1:55.2 in winning the men's 200-meter freestyle. Don Schollander, Jacksonville, Fla., was second and John Nelson, Pompano Beach, Fla., third.

In team dressage, defending champion West Germany edged Russia 2699-2657.

It was even closer in men's gymnastics. Japan's Saweeo Kato scored a near perfect 9.90 in floor exercises, the final event, and took the men's all-around title with 115.90. Russia's Mikhail Voronin was second with 115.85.

Japan also took the men's team title with 575.90 points and Russia was second with 571.10.

The United States also put three boxers in Saturday's finals. They are heavyweight George Foreman, Pleasanton, Calif., who will fight Russia's Ioanas Chepulis; lightweight Ron Harris, Canton, Ohio, and featherweight Alberto Robinson, Oakland, Calif.

Middleweight Alfred Jones, Detroit, lost a wildly booed semifinal decision to Christopher Finnigan, Great Britain, even though he knocked Finnigan down once and battered him constantly in all three rounds.

The crowd continued to jeer the decision into the next bout.

BACK OF THE WEEK—Terry Hanratty, Notre Dame's star quarterback, looks at trophy cases in the new athletic and convocation center at South Bend, Ind., after learning he had been named Associated Press Back of the Week. The Saturday before against University of Illinois he broke his school's all-time offense mark held by the legendary George Gipp. (AP Wirephoto)

Waco Museum Dedicated To Garrison

WACO, Tex. (AP) — The chairman of the Public Safety commission dedicated Fort Fisher and the Homer Garrison Jr. Memorial Museum today, commenting that "we must look to the future."

Cliff Cassidy of Dallas said Garrison, who died this year of cancer, "left a great legacy. Now we must begin where Col. Garrison left off, to build as he built and to face the changing conditions of our era, just as he faced the changes of his day."

Garrison was director of the Department of Public Safety for more than 30 years and Chief of the Texas Rangers.

"We have moved far from motorcycles to automobiles, from automobiles to radar, and from radar to vascar, a highly sophisticated piece of equipment which checks a car's speed whether the patrol car is traveling away from or toward the other vehicle," Cassidy said.

"With the purchase of helicopters we have greatly expanded our capabilities to aid in rescue operations and in traffic surveillance over our 200,000 miles of state highways and county roads," he added.

Cassidy also described the move to computerized filing and retrieval of information, a system which will soon be tied into the national crime information network.

"For the first time in our history, the Department of Public Safety was fully staffed a year ago last November," Cassidy said. "The legislature has authorized an additional 200 patrolmen and when training classes now underway or scheduled are completed, we will again be up to full strength."

"We must look to the future," Cassidy said. "A great era of the department has culminated. A new one is upon us. Let us not fail in our legacy.

Witnesses To Meet At Levelland

"Share Fully in Preaching the Good News" is the theme for a 3-day convention planned by Jehovah's Witnesses in Levelland, Nov. 8-10, with more than 500 expected to attend.

The Levelland High School Auditorium will be the scene of three days of intensive Bible education for the local witnesses who are planning to attend the Christian gathering with many from this area already making preparations to share in all the sessions.

More than 15 congregations will participate in the training that will be designed to encourage the witnesses to continue their ministry in the home towns that will be represented. Delegates from some 30 communities in the area will attend according to convention officials.

"Twice a year congregations tied together as a "Circuit" meet for a 3-day circuit assembly," stated Mr. Roy Chamberlain, local presiding minister who will have a prominent role in the gathering. "In addition to special talks and demonstrations an opportunity is presented for those who have recently made a dedication of their lives to symbolize it by public baptism," he added. "Such an event is planned for Saturday morning in Levelland where new ministers will be dipped under water at which time they become an ordained minister."

The ordination ceremony will be conducted by Mr. Lester Dugan, new district supervisor for this area who was recently assigned to Texas Circuit No. 9, sponsors of the convention in Levelland. Dugan is widely traveled and has been delivering Bible lectures throughout the west for many years.

"Christian conventions such as the one in Levelland afford an occation for Jehovah's Witnesses to be of encouragement to one another as well as to their neighbor," Mr. Chamberlain said as he directed the interest of the local congregation to the spiritually upbuilding program to be presented in Levelland.

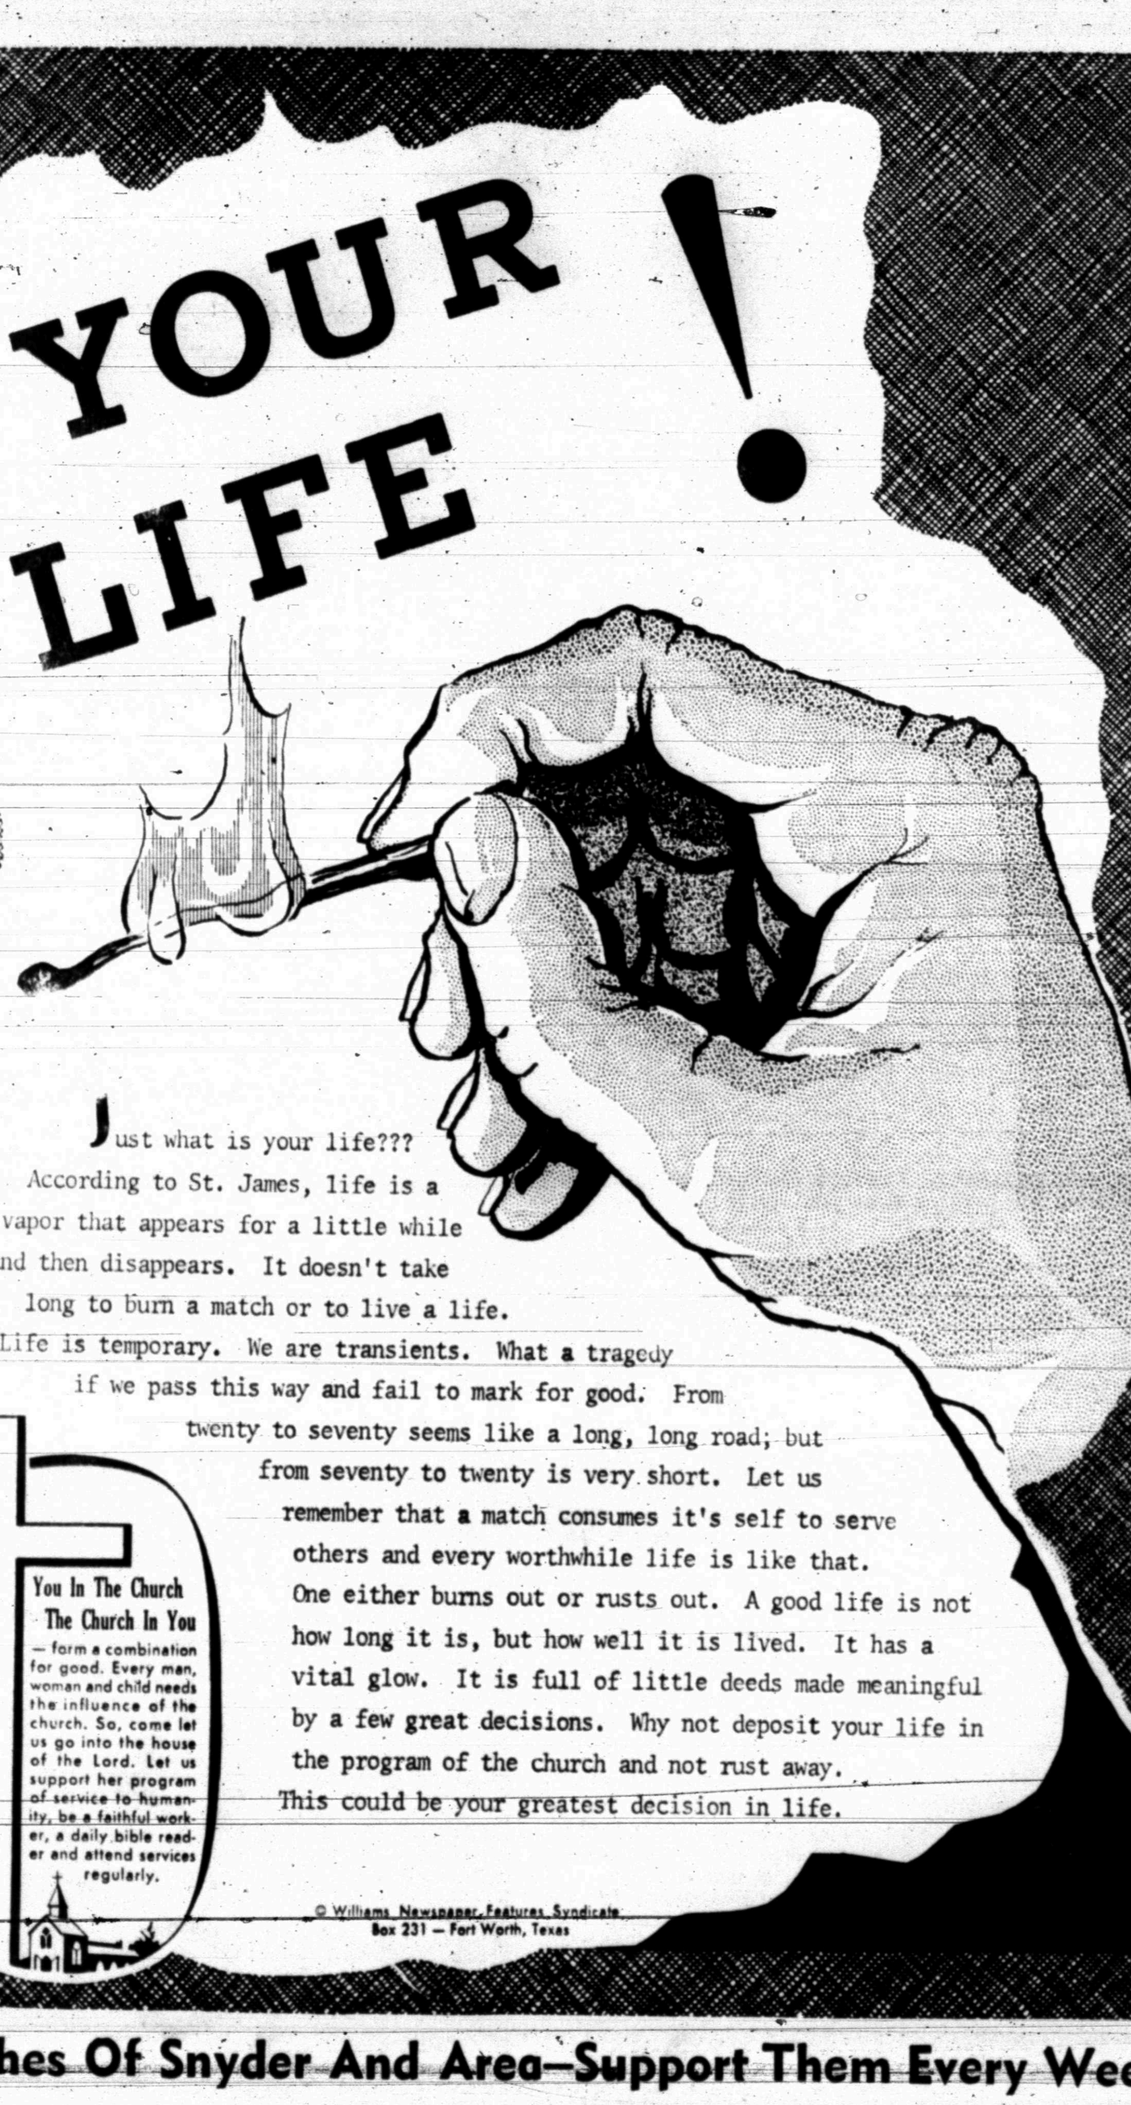
YOUR LIFE!



Just what is your life??? According to St. James, life is a vapor that appears for a little while and then disappears. It doesn't take long to burn a match or to live a life. Life is temporary. We are transients. What a tragedy if we pass this way and fail to mark for good. From twenty to seventy seems like a long, long road; but from seventy to twenty is very short. Let us remember that a match consumes it's self to serve others and every worthwhile life is like that. One either burns out or rusts out. A good life is not how long it is, but how well it is lived. It has a vital glow. It is full of little deeds made meaningful by a few great decisions. Why not deposit your life in the program of the church and not rust away. This could be your greatest decision in life.

You In The Church The Church In You
— form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
