Mias Amigas Draws Large Crowd

Glenda Harris and Charlene Edmiston ring the old school bell to officially begin the 58th Annual Mias Amigas celebration held this past weekend in Eldorado.

Bank Franchise Tax Allocations Decline

State Comptroller Bob Bullock on Monday sent checks totaling $34 million in bank franchise tax allocations to 2,023 Texas taxing entities.

"Bank franchise tax allocations have steadily declined from their peak of $72 million in 1986, due mainly to the continuing financial difficulties of Texas banks," Bullock said. "But I know local governments can use every nickel they get from this source," he added.

Bank franchise tax refund liabilities were created as a result of state court cases centering on taxes collected in 1985, 1986 and 1987. H.B. 3032, passed by the Legislature this session, states that beginning in 1990, banks can choose to take partial credit each year against their franchise tax, rather than pursuing immediate refunds of the contested amounts.

Bullock said the allocations represent franchise taxes paid by banks that do business in Texas. Banks must file a report with the Comptroller's office by March 15 each year.

The bank franchise tax rate is the same as the state's corporate franchise tax rate -- $6.70 per $1,000 of taxable capital and surplus, with a minimum tax of $150, according to Bullock.

The Texas Legislature authorized the bank franchise tax in 1984, and the tax was collected for the first time in 1985.

Bullock said that a portion of the tax goes into the state's general revenue fund, but most of it is allocated to local tax jurisdictions, such as cities, counties, and other local taxing units such as school, water and hospital district.

Allocation sent to the City of Eldorado for the period ending June 14, 1989 was $6,789.83; to the Schleicher County Independent School District, $11,507.79; to Schleicher County, $5,851.01; and to Schleicher County Hospital District, $3,564.66.

The 58th Annual Meeting of Mias Amigas was held this past weekend, June 23 and 24 in Eldorado. Registration began at 5 p.m., followed by a sandwich supper at 7:30 p.m. Visitation followed.

Saturday's activities began with registration at 8:30, with coffee and doughnuts being served. The school bell was rung at 9:30 a.m. by Charlene Mund Edmiston, representing the 50 year class of 1939, and Glenda Hanusch Harris, representing the incoming class of 1969.

Bob Lester, president, called the meeting to order at 10 a.m. and led the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag. The Mias Amigas song followed, led by Dale West Eubank and Bob Lester, and played on the piano by Lucille McWhorter.

The invocation was given by Peyton Cain. Cain was a former principal in the Eldorado schools. Mabel Freitag read minutes of the last meeting in the absence of Chris McCravey, secretary.

Deanne Walker gave the treasurer's report and also reported on stages which were built and a sign which was erected in front of the Law Enforcement center.

Jean Meador Brazzel read the name of deceased who passed away in the last year.

Sammie Mayo Ruppeck introduced "Sweet" Olive Hayes who played piano selections from the 30s and 40s. Olive plays the piano for the San Angelo Jazz Band and her son-in-law, Gene Smith, is leader of the San Angelo Jazz Band. Olive is the sister of John Mayo, Sr.

Bob Bradley introduced the class of 1939, the 50 year class. Ten members were present. Bradley gave a short talk of by-gone school years.

Vickie Jones introduced the class of 1969, the incoming class. There were 17 members of that class present.

The nominating committee, consisting of Tom Enochs, Maureen Hodges and Jean Brazzel, represented by Jean, recommended the following officers for 1990: Ed Meador, president; Jo Ann (Bearce) Sproul, first vice president; Sherry (Yates)

Lux, second vice president; Jim Martin, third vice president; Deanne (Hext) Walker, treasurer; Betsy (Bruton) Thackerson, recording secretary; Patsy (Taylor) Kellogg, corresponding secretary; Hal Whitten, publicity chairman; Alma (Luedecke) Corbell, historian; Charlie Bradley, photography; Florence (Nixon) Hinton, memorial chairman. The officers were elected by acclamation.

This year's event was honored by the presence of past teachers, Ruth Howell Mebane of Lockhart and Betty Garrett Sproul. Larry Blair, new superintendent of Eldorado schools, and also a 1964 graduate of EHS, was introduced.

Jewell Bailey gave the past officers a "Thank You" for a task well done. Beep Cain led the closing prayer and the meeting adjourned at 11:45.

A barbecue lunch, catered by the Tri City Shrine, was held. A total of 379 attended the barbecue lunch.

The afternoon was spent in reminiscing and class reunions.

Local Boy Breaks Wrists While Playing Basketball

While playing basketball with friends at a local residence Tuesday afternoon, T.C. Willis, son of Jacky and Marci Willis, fell and broke both bones in both his left and right wrists.

According to friends who were playing with him, they were slamdunking the basketball when Willis grabbed hold of the basket rim. When he let go, he lost his balance and fell. He tried to catch himself with the palms of his hands when he fell, resulting in the breaks.

Due to the fast thinking of his friends, one of them called the hospital while the others stayed with Willis, trying to calm him. They then loaded the injured boy in a car and one of the youngsters drove him to the hospital. He was then transferred by ambulance to San Angelo.

According to the boy's father Tuesday night, he will be in the hospital for a couple of days. The doctors have his hands elevated to reduce the swelling. Once the swelling goes down, they will put casts on.

Sign For Everyone

The Schleicher County Chamber of Commerce would like to invite the local organizations to make use of the community sign located in front of the Law Enforcement offices.

If there is something that your organization would like printed on the sign, please call the chamber office at 853-3109.

Life Among The Fishes

By Thomas Giovannitti

The other day the family was sitting outside during the Sunset when Annamarie asked me a very unusual question. This was not the first time she had ever asked me an unusual question but it was more than a little bit different than her usual unusual questions.

She asked, "Dad, can you do the Carrioca?" Not waiting for an answer (which made me very happy) she proceeded to tell me that she could "Carrioca". Annamarie then proceeded to show me and the rest of the family just how she could "Carrioca". It appears to be some sort of side-ways cross-over step she learned in "PE" class.

The funny thing was she doesn't seem to be able to stop doing it. All throughout the day she'll break into this "Carrioca" just to cross a room or to go from the porch to the sidewalk.

I am sure the little kindergardeners learned other exercise steps but this is the one Annamarie does over and over. I had to dig deep into my memory to even recall where I had heard that word before. Lucky for me I was born early enough to have seen plenty of movies with Xavier Cugat and his orchestra that it soon came back to me the "Carrioca" is one of those latin dances now fallen into disfavor which in twenty-or-so intervals revive for a brief period of respectability and then sink back into relative obscurity.

Where the "PE" teacher discovered the "Carrioca" I can only guess.

She does not look old enough to have ever seen Xavier and his band. I do know that she has turned Annamarie into one of the swiftest and most dedicated "Carrioca-ers" I've ever seen. My girl will challenge her bigger brother to duels of "Carrioca-ing". She has yet to get me up doing it even if I may be the only family member who remembers that there actually was a dance by that name. I can never erase from my memory watching Carmen Miranda doing that latin-beat-cross-over, never dropping a step or any fruit from her incredible fruit-basket of a hat as she nimbly traversed the dance floor.

All I need to do is get Annamarie some maracas and stacked heels, she already has the moves. Those of you who remember Carmen Miranda must remember that she was a short woman, vibrant, full of energy, and clearly athletic.

I just wonder if there are any other schools where the little kinder-kids are "Carrioca-ing" their way through the summer. I just hope Annamarie doesn't drive me bananas!

I have never given warts much thought before. I have had some planters warts and my boys have had warts. But I happened to be reading a book the other day and came across an article on warts.

My mother-in-law has a sure cure for getting rid of warts: Tie a piece of thread around the wart, pull it up and off into a knot. Then wad the string up, give it to the person who had the wart and tell them to go bury it and don't let anyone watch them.

It is said you can talk them off, hypnotize them away, wish them on a gray horse's backside, or lick them every morning until they disappear. Experts say the amazing thing is that all these work -- if you believe in them.

Doctors say that warts tend to go away. They can be made to go away by something that can only be called thinking, or something like thinking.

I found some interesting ways our grandparents used to make warts go away. I have listed some of them below.

--Rub seven times with a gold ring.

--Wash your hands in water used to boil potatoes.

--Count them each night for nine nights.

--Give your warts names and think good things about them.

--Sell the wart to someone and don't spend the money.

--Point your finger at it and say "Tige" three times.

--Cross two pins over a wart then hide them.

--Look at the new moon and rub the wart three times, saying "You grow and you go" each time.

--Make the war bleed, smear blood on a bean leaf, hide it under a stone, and walk away backwards.

--Kiss the wart then kiss someone else.

--Mash ants on it.

Almost makes you wish you had a wart, just to see if some of these remedies really work. Almost!!

An article in Mature Outlook gave some of the most effective treatments for osteoarthritis and rheumatoid arthritis. They are exercise, diet and medication. Among activities suggested for those with arthritis are swimming, brisk walking, bicycling and low-impact dance exercise.

Although there are claims that arthritis is associated with specific foods, no actual links have been proven. A balanced diet is the best approach, with loss of extra weight as an important goal. Medications used for arthritis treatment range from aspirin and ibuprofen to other antiinflammatory drugs and gold salts.

Time Discovers Truth.

Latin

A minister concluded Church services by saying, "Next Sunday, I'm going to preach on the subject of liars. In this connection, as a preparation for my sermon, I would like for all of you to read the 17th Chapter of Mark."

On the following Sunday, the preacher rose to begin and said, "Now then, all of you who have done as I requested and read Mark 17, please raise your hand."

Nearly every hand in the congregation went up.

Then said the preacher, "You are the people I want to talk to. There is no 17th Chapter of Mark."

Have never read Mark 17, but there have been times in life when I have been less than candid - times when I may have varnished the truth. Even though honesty is very important to me, more than once I have gone along with the crowd. (Don't you just hate to feel left out?)

I wonder-- if I had been in Church that Sunday...

Until the next time... May God Bless.

Cemetery Looks Good ... But Needs Your Help

By Mary Jenkins

Have you driven by the Eldorado Cemetery lately? Did you notice how beautiful and well-kept it is?

The county does a lot to keep our cemetery looking nice. They have moved off the old house that was out there. The caretaker works hard to take care of the cemetery -- filling in holes, keeping the weeds pulled, keeping the grass mowed and lots more. But the county can only do so much. Their funds are limited.

When the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #9842 started a few years back, the members decided to start a memorial fund for the sole purpose of using the money for maintaining the cemetery. The VFW also sold knives and used this money for the same purpose.

Memorials and donations made to this fund were many in the beginning. Through these donations the VFW was able to purchase the flags and the memorial stones that are now at the cemetery.

This sounds really great, doesn't it? It is, but what do you do when the money runs out and the only memorials and donations made are made by the same people, over and over.

The flags were taken down recently to be repaired. The wind whips them and they eventually tear. New ones would be nice, but the expense to keep replacing them is too much. The bulbs in the lights are not cheap, but they have to be replaced when they burn out.

Many people noticed that the flags were down and made phone calls to find out what happened to them. They were put back up when the repairs were made, but what if they were beyond repair and there was not enough money to buy new ones?

The cemetery does look nice. But to keep it that way, it takes money. Any donation in any amount will be welcomed. If you are interested in the knives, please call Tom Enochs or Wenona Isaacs.

Through the combined efforts of the county and the VFW, we have a cemetery to be proud of. Let's keep it looking it's best. Please, show you care.

The Way We See It

By Lola Squyres

"Personal freedom ... and all that it implies ... officially was born that day." --W.G. Vollmer

Mr. Vollmer maintains that "the Declaration of Independence might well be referred to as Freedom's Birth Certificate because it declared to the world:

"... that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness."

Two hundred eight years ago 56 patriots signed one of the greatest political documents ever conceived by man, knowing full well if they did not emerge victorious, imprisonment or death would follow. The cost of victory was suffering, sorrow and bloodshed.

"Triumph of God-given rights and personal liberty over tyranny and oppression turned out to be one of the most profound and far-reaching victories ever achieved by man.

"Our progress ... our achievements ... our abundant life have been made possible through the process and workings of personal freedom. Freedom is one of our greatest heritages and we should be as resolute and as courageous in preserving it as were our forefathers in achieving it."

On this July 4 let's take time to be thankful for the God-given rights and personal liberties our forefathers won for themselves ... and for us.

Jerry Doyle Accepts Position In Calhoun County

JERRY DOYLE

Jerry Doyle, son of Bessie Clifton of Eldorado, was named Calhoun County Independent School District superintendent by the Calhoun trustees.

A 22-year veteran educator, Doyle has taught at all school levels, served as a high school principal and has 10 years experience as a superintendent, most recently in the Lampasas ISD.

Doyle applied for the vacant position for its size. He taught for years in 4A schools but entered administration in smaller systems. His goal from the beginning was to get back to a 4A school.

He said he preferred 4A schools because they are large enough for programs to work efficiently, yet not so large that the personal touch is lost and students get lost in the shuffle.

His greatest challenge would be coping with expansion due to the Formosa project, budgetings, and recent changes by the Texas Legislature without much lead time.

For a brief interim, he will be involved with both districts due to a tax hearing in Lampasas.

In a prepared press release read by CCISD trustee Margaret Navarro, the board noted that as part of the selection process, a committee of board members that included herself, Naomi Albrecht and Bill Swope, traveled to Lampasas and met with a cross-section of the community to discuss Doyle's qualifications.

"Keep your fears for yourself, but share your courage with others."

(You're reading this!)

"Without exception," she said, "the committee found that Doyle was very well thought of in the community and was very effective as superintendent of Lampasas ISD."

In addition to his other qualifications and characteristics that meet the profile, Doyle speaks Spanish fluently, she said.

Doyle and his wife Hevia have been married 27 years and are the parents of two children, Jonana and Will, both college students. Mrs. Doyle is a math teacher.

Blue Jays Win Again

The Blue Jays pony league team played a doubleheader with the San Angelo Yankees Saturday, June 24.

The Blue Jays lost the first game, 3-4. The losing pitcher was J.J. Martinez. Fito Gonzales doubled with two RBI's in the first inning. Hill brought Rosas in in the fifth inning with an RBI.

The winning pitcher of the second game was Fito Gonzales. Rojas had two RBI's and Harriman made a double out catch, saving the Blue Jays in the last inning, making the score Eldorado - 5, Yankes - 3.

A tournament is planned for July 1 and everyone is urged to get and support the Blue Jays.

DPS Challenges Texas Drivers

The director of the Department of Public Safety has challenged Texas drivers to show that the DPS traffic death estimate for the long July 4th period is far too high.

"The DPS Statistical Services bureau has indicated that as many as 52 persons could be killed on Texas roadways during these hours," Colonel Joe Milner said. "But the number will be lower if more drivers will slow down, avoid drinking alcohol and use a well-known safety precaution -- seat belts."

Col. Milner mentioned that the July 4th period will include the weekend before Independence Day.

"The DPS Public Information Office will conduct the traffic fatality count for 102 hours, beginning at 6 p.m. Friday, June 30, and continuing until midnight on Tuesday, July 4th," he said. "As before, we'll be keeping this count with the assistance of local law enforcement agencies along with DPS troopers and communications personnel."

The final count for the 1988 July 4th period, which was 78 hours in length, totaled 32 fatalities.

Col. Milner said as part of his agency's "Operation Holiday," additional troopers will be deployed to help minimize the risk of driving on all roadways in rural areas.

Traffic fatality totals for Texas will be tabulated and released three times daily from the DPS, at 10 a.m., 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. The first report will be made at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 1.

A Touch Of History

By Rene Calcote

June 23 and 24 the 58th Mias Amigas reunion was held on the courthouse grounds.

The first meeting and planning of this group gathering started in 1931. This article appeared that year as follows:

Club Formed at Eldorado Homecoming
Mrs. Josephine Murchison
1st President of

Mias Amigas Pioneers in It Group Plans Meeting in June 1932 with

Mr. & Mrs. D.C. Hill
Eldorado July 3 -- An organization which will serve to hold together women who grew to young womanhood in Eldorado was perfected recently when the homecoming was held at the home of Mr.

and Mrs. C.C. Doty. The club has been named Mias Amigas which means "My Friends".

Mrs. Josephine Hill was elected president with Mrs. Ida Conner Neill being named secretary-treasurer.

The meeting lasted for two days with women spending their time recalling the memories of their school days and social activities in which they participated together. Photographs and Kodak pictures were brought out. Pictures of the group were made.

The list included: Mrs. Lula Mae Evans Smith and Mrs. Annie Marie Doty Perner of Ozona; Mrs. Lucille Hill Walker, Plainview; Mrs. Mary Ellen Tisdale Hughes, Mertzon; Mrs. Suelena Halbert Byrd, Mrs. Ida Conner Neill, Mrs. Evelyn Hinyard and Miss Lucy Lee Williams all of San Angelo; Mrs. Rubye Jones Dameron, Sonora; Mrs. Gladie McKnight Davis, Sterling City; Mrs. Mattie Whitten Royster, Mrs. Olga Benton Meador, Mrs. La Vita Christian Brooks, Mrs. Elsie Berry Reagan, Mrs. Lummie Pelt Whitten and Mrs. Josephine Murchison Hill, all of Eldorado.

In June 1932, the group will gather at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D.C. Hill.

Pictured here is the first meeting of Mias Amigas taken in 1931. At that time, it consisted only of women as members.

Preparations Start Early For Folklife Festival

Since its beginning in 1972, the Texas Folklife Festival has grown into an event many people in Texas look forward to and automatically include in their summertime plans, but the Festival itself doesn't happen automatically.

Festival planners and participants alike have spent months preparing for the 18th annual event, scheduled for August 3-6 in downtown San Antonio.

Sponsored by the University of Texas Institute of Texan Cultures at San Antonio, the Folklife Festival is an annual celebration of the state's rich heritage. Featuring the music, food, dances and crafts of the many ethnic groups of Texas, the Festival blends education and entertainment in an event the whole family can enjoy.

Participants from around the state share their special skills, talents and traditions with Festival visitors. Many have participated in the Festival from the beginning.

An extension of the Institute's role as a statewide research, education and communication center concerned with the history and culture of Texas, the Festival is held on the Institute's grounds on HemisFair Park in downtown San Antonio.

Festival tickets are $6 for adults, $2 for children ages 6-12 if purchased at the gate; and $5 for adults, $1 for children 6-12 in advance. Children under six are admitted free. Advance tickets are on sale at numerous locations in San Antonio from July 1 through August 6.

On Friday, August 4, from noon to 1 p.m. only, admission will be reduced to $1 for adults and free for children 12 and under. Festival hours are 5 to 11 p.m., Thursday, August 3; noon to 11 p.m. Friday and Saturday, August 4 and 5; and noon to 10 p.m. Sunday, August 6.

For more information write the Texas Folklife Festival, The Institute of Texan Cultures, P.O. Box 1226, San Antonio, Texas 78294, or call (512) 226-7651.

First Nintendo Tournament Roaring Success

Nintendo tournament-- a roaring success. In the event you were awakened in the wee hours last Tuesday morning by what you thought was the onset of World War III--have no fear, it was just the thrills and shrills, cheers and tears, of laughter from approximately 45 middle school aged kids. On the evening of Monday, June 26, kids from Eldo Middle School ascended upon the youth center, for the Nintendo tournament of the year.

Sixth grade through ninth graders participated in the big event with each class representing a winner. Winners for each class were awarded $5.

Michael Felver, sixth grade, Carmen Joy, seventh grade, Angi Fitts, eighth grade, Matt Williams, ninth grade, were the proud winners of the cash. Next WE had a playoff for the grand champion, and to no ones surprise--Matt Williams came up number one. "Sheer Luck." Congrats anyway Matt. He will receive a Nintendo game.

While this was going on -- you ask -- what were the other 41 kids doing? Oh, not much. Only enjoying two pool tables, foosball, movies, movies, movies. And last but not least, pigging out on more junk food than one could withstand for a year! You ask -- why did WE have such a hollering good time? We are HAPPY! Healthy, Active, Participating, Productive Youth. And WE are happy parents.

WE enjoyed your children. A hearty thank you goes out to those parents who went the extra mile. Some donated money for drinks (alcohol free), some donated breakfast -- delicious doughnuts and orange juice, some donated the movies that were shown, some donated their time by staying the evening, sharing the fun, while others donated their time by being the cleaning up committee--yuc!! You know who you are and WE appreciate your eagerness, your energy, and your expression of love. You want to make a difference with your child? Be a healthy, active, participating, productive parent and come to our next meeting July 10, Monday night, 7 p.m. at the youth center.

and Speaker Gib Lewis, Bullock formed the School Finance Working Group last year. The group drafted a new school finance plan calling for a phased-in approach to equalizing education funding between rich and poor school districts.

"The plan -- called the Texas Guaranteed Yield Program -- needs only minor modifications to serve as the basis for the action the Legislature is going to have to take, no matter what the Supreme Court might rule," he said.

"We don't have to bankrupt the state to solve this problem, We can phase the solution in over a period of years, allowing us to solve the problem at a more reasonable cost, over a longer period of time," Bullock concluded.

Upcoming plans are for a street dance. All are welcome.

Bullock Says State Should Go Forward With Changes

State Comptroller Bob Bullock said that the state should not wait for a Supreme Court decision on the state's school finance system, but go forward with needed changes right away.

"There's no sense complaining about court intervention when we have a chance to do what's right for the schoolchildren of Texas before the Supreme Court makes a ruling. The Legislature is in session now. Let's step in and address our school finance problems," Bullock said.

"Texas can't face the challenges of the future with a school system that delivers quality education to the few and denies it to the many," Bullock said. "If our economy is to keep growing, if we are to be able to provide decent jobs at decent wages, we must resolve this problem. And we ought to resolve it before we condemn another generation of public school students to a mediocre education," he said.

Ear-Piercing In Fashion

But You Could Lose An Ear

"If she had not come to us as soon as she did, there is a good chance she could have lost her ear," explains Dr. Armando Lenis, otolaryngologist (ear-nose-throat physician) at Scott and White Memorial Hospital and Clinic in Temple, discussing the case of a 13-year-old girl from Salado, whose father gave permission to a reputable earring and ear-piercing boutique to allow the piercing of his daughter's ear in the upper cartilage area just under the outside rim at the top of the ear.

"Ear-piercing in the lower soft lobe of the ear is fine," says Dr. Lenis, "but never in the cartilage area. Any cartilage area, whether in the ear or nose, is highly susceptible to infection from bacteria because there is no blood circulation in the cartilage area.

Dr. Lenis notes that "a certain amount of bacteria is normally found in the ear, however, when cartilage is perforated or punctured, a severe infection can result from this bacteria."

The pierced cartilage area will become painful, red and swollen, according to Dr. Lenis, and, if a physician is not seen immediately and antibiotic therapy started, the ear may become grossly deformed and surgery may be required to save the ear.

"Time is of the essence," emphasizes Dr. Lenis. "If the slightest pain or inflammation is noticed in the pierced area of cartilage, the person should be seen by a physician immediately in order that treatment with intravenous antibiotics can begin.

"Fortunately this girl's family brought her to the doctor in time," notes Dr. Lenis. She was admitted to the hospital to begin the intravenous antibiotic therapy.

The people who are hired by jewelry stores and boutiques to perform the ear-piercing procedure usually have no educational background in anatomy or medicine. It is not required. They are sales people trained only in how to pierce the ear, not in where or where not to pierce it. They are taught to warn customers how to prevent infection and to seek medical attention if an infection develops, but they are not aware of the danger in piercing the cartilage area.

Dr. Lenis adds that the intravenous antibiotic therapy can be extremely expensive, possibly $150 to $300 a day for ten days or more -- and that doesn't include hospitalization costs.

"It is difficult to believe that a tiny hole in the ear's cartilage can result in such a serious infection, costly medical treatment, hospitalization, and possible deformity or loss of the ear," remarks Dr. Lenis. "I cannot emphasize strongly enough the importance of not piercing or puncturing any cartilage area in the ear or nose. The result could be a real tragedy which could easily have been avoided."

Honor Students Named At Tech

More than 2,000 Texas Tech University students qualified for the academic honors lists at the end of the 1989 spring semester.

Students finishing 12 or more hours with a grade-point average of 3.5 to 3.9 qualified for the Dean's Honor List.

Curtis Brent Thackerson, son of Clyde and Betsy Thacker of Eldorado, was among those making the Dean's list. Brent is a sophomore majoring in agricultural education.

Melissa Ann White, daughter of Buddy and Pam White of Eldorado was also among those making the Dean's List. She received her degree in elementary education.
