Council Sets Water Rates; Hires New Police Chief

Wesley Meyers of Lubbock was employed as new Chief of Police by unanimous approval at Monday evening's meeting of the city council. Meyers has been in police work since 1965.

In other action, council members approved a new utility rate effective with the January billing. Water consumption rates are $5 for 4,000 gallons; all over, 60 cents per thousand. Trash hauling charges will be $3 per residential, $3.50 per business establishment. Sewer rates remain unchanged.

Meeting with the council in reference to a called public hearing for the opportunity of applying for a Community Development Non-Metropolitan Discretionary Block Grant were a number of local residents. Appearing were Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stewart, George Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morris and Jessie, Lillian Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Seawright.

One group expressed desire for paving; another asked for sewer connections.

Bills were okayed. Minutes of a previous meeting were corrected concerning the bid of $10,000 for the recently obtained street sweeper. The sweeper was purchased, instead for $9,000.

Dress Code, Ag Dept. Discussed, Supt.'s Contract Reviewed

In a regular board meeting, Monday night, school trustees reviewed the contract of the superintendent, heard reports on attendance, lunchroom and playoff games, approved a text book committee and listened to views from a group concerning the FFA department and the dress code.

Approval of minutes and accounts payable were the first order of business.

In reporting on the playoff games, Olton share of the Floydada Bi-District game was $2,695.38. Childress-Olton game netted Olton $1,934.48.

Following the arrival of the group, the meeting was moved to the library, at which time a spokesman for the group asked that some matters concerning the ag department of the high school be looked into.

The group, representing the stock show board, stated that they felt the ag department was weak due to the lack of leadership and asked if it would be possible to appoint a "head" to the ag department, setting the full responsibility of the department on his shoulders.

Saying, as it was now, the ag teachers were in doubt as to who had the authority to set policies, and therefore confusion and very poor results were the outcome.

In the past, numbers of honors have been bestowed on different members of the ag department such as judging teams, Lone Star Farmer degrees and American Farmer degrees and this has not been the case in recent years.

The discussion then turned to the dress code.

Another spokesman asked if the board felt the hair code had accomplished anything in the past three years.

Superintendent Turner asked them how they would feel about a survey being made of how the community (as a whole) felt about the dress code and set policy accordingly.

The group agreed that the hair code had not been enforced equally and that was causing contention among the students. They also stated that they felt it was impossible to enforce the code equally, therefore they felt if it could not be enforced, then it should be done away with.

One person in the group said that the long hair did not affect the personality or the abilities of the students, but felt that the way in which the enforcing of the code had been handled was affecting the students' abilities at school.

Turner told the board that the school lawyer was at the present time working on a "Dress code for all the schools he represents that he thinks everyone can live with." The board then voted to discuss the code further at the next meeting. Voting for the matter to be on the agenda were Leslie Kennedy, Doug Goen, Burley Faver, Jim Brown, Johnny Hodges; against, Floyd Prentice.

Following the departure of the group, the board retired to the board room for the remainder of the business, that being the review of the superintendent's contract.

Going into executive session to discuss the contract, the board was left alone to make its decision.

Opening the meeting, Supt. Turner returned and was told that he had been granted a new three year contract at the present salary and benefits.

Voting for the new three year contract were Prentice, Hodges and Brown. Voting against were Kennedy, Goen and Faver. The tie vote was broken by president of the board, Garland DePrang.

In other action, a motion was made to ask Marquis Studio for pictures that were returned to them by the school before the students were allowed to see them. Unanimous vote for.

Hup Two, Three, Four

BY REX BOYLES

"Hup two, three, four"

It was just like a parade. There were trucks, cars, dogs, and kids. It went right in front of my house. There was no order to it, and there was no band; but with all the commotion and imagination it was just like a parade.

I was sitting on my front porch when they went by. I had a ringside seat. My little boy, David, started this parade off. He was prancing and dancing up and down the front walk. He was waving his arms and nodding his head just like he was the leader. Following David came a brigade of kids. They were going home from school and had no idea they were a part of my "make believe" parade. They were, however, bunched up together like companies in a band, and they were making strange gyrations and noises as if they were following David's lead. Several dogs of assorted shapes and colors joined in. They barked and growled and ran and jumped as they too were caught up in this imaginary cavalcade.

For more than just a little while this "play-like" parade moved under David's direction without a "hitch". Sputtering trucks and speeding hot-rods had added their special touches to the procession, and all was going well. Of course, to say the least I was extremely proud of my son. He handled and directed this multitude with the force and dynamic of a Grand Marshal, and he was only two years old.

you will, of course, understand my disgust and vindictiveness toward any member of the parade that would rebel and neglect to follow the direction of my son. One such renegade existed. It was an ant that first took leave of his senses and decided to "do his own thing". He came along toward the end of the parade carrying an oversized grain husk and marching in the wrong direction. He was completely out of step.

I decided to correct his error. I decided to step on him. I would crush his rebellion and teach him a lesson. I raised my foot . . . took aim and brought it crashing down. I missed him. He had left his husk and had run for his life. Now I was really mad! What right did that ant have to think that his life was more important than being in my imaginary parade? What right did that ant have to think that living is more important than playing the game?

Now that is just a silly little story, but I wrote it so that I could ask these questions. In making our livings have we forgotten to live? In all our wheelings and dealings "to get ahead" have we lost our head and forgotten that a man's life does not consist in the abundance of the things which he possesses? Are we so wrapped up in playing games with our friends, with our mates, and with our God that we have forgotten to make plans for when God calls it "quits" in the game of life?

Jesus put it this way. "What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world but lose his own soul?" For your own soul's sake will you stop playing games and get down to the business of living? I wish we all had the sense that God gave that little ant, for he knew that life, his life, was worth more than any game, worth more than any possession . . . Rex

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Only 10 more shopping days till Christmas so I've got to get started pretty soon!

My, oh, my! Each year I make New Year's resolutions about mid-December. "Next year, I'm going to be through by now. I'm going to have decorations all up. I'm going to have packages all wrapped and I'm going to relax and savor the last few days till Christmas -- that most marvelous time of the year!"

Well, it's a great thing - next year! So much is going to be done next year! Ah, such wistful dreams!

I have just begun some shopping but that old bug-a-boo greediness keeps getting in my way! One gift I bought I decided (almost immediately afterwards) had to be mine. There're a couple or more that are causing me lots of temptation!

Talk aout selfish, greedy people!

I'm sure none of you suffer from that malady of a "sable appetite on a rabbit budget." (That may be a trite simile but I prefer it to the one usually spoken).

There are all sorts of gifts just right for my gift list but somehow my funds are insufficient!

Wouldn't it be nice (well, sorta) if we reverted (at least a little bit) to the Christmases of days gone by when gifts were simpler and more a part of the giver?

You know the kind. Gift wrapped promises. "Good for six free baby-sitting evenings and one batch of hot bread." --- "God for one window washing and one lawn mowing." --- "Good for a dozen errands." --- "Good for one ride in the country." --- "Good for one day of mending rips and sewing buttons."

The list is limitless!

In our modern sophisticated age, however, we shrug such gifts aside as "nothing." We'd rather be one of the "Three Kings" than the "Little Drummer Boy."

And now, flitting from subject to subject! Why, why why, don't we hear more Christmas music in the air? We should be wearing out our records and barraging the disk jockeys with requests. (Sure would be an improvement over some of the lyrics and music heard resounding over the airwaves!)

Hm-m-m, preached, I have practiced? Well, you see, I haven't had time!

FROM DIMMITT

Saturday overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Small were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Small, Jerri, Kelli and Toni of Dimmit, who also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E.J. McCord.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Huckabee and Jana of Texhoma visited Wednesday until Saturday with Jana's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sherry and Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Huckabee.

BE SWITCHED TO ELECTRIC HEAT

Two hundred years ago, the witch hunters would have burned us at the stake for even daring to dream of a clean, practical means of heating our homes like electric heat. Fortunately, things have changed since then and today you can choose a heating system that is not only clean and efficient, but also economical and environmentally-sound. You don't even have to look for a witch to give you a great deal like this one. Call the electric company...we'll show you how easy it is to BESWITCHED to real comfort home heating that's as modern tomorrow as it is today.

ASK ABOUT THE HEAT PUMP

IT'S NOT MAGIC...IT JUST ACTS THAT WAY

You'll think it's magic when you see what the heat pump does, but it's not at all. It probably will seem quite impossible that one unit can provide clean, efficient electric heating and cooling with only one unit, one thermostat setting. The important thing to remember is the heat pump is today's answer to improving your lifestyle—economically and efficiently. Sound like magic? Not at all.

ENERGY EFFICIENCY ALLOWANCE

We, at Southwestern, are interested in your getting the most for your energy dollar. That's why we're offering an Energy Efficiency insulation allowance to our customers in existing homes who install electric comfort heating. Ask us about it.

MRS. MICHAEL SWEATT

Sweatt-Matthis Wedding Solemnized In Canyon

The marriage of Miss Roseanna Elizabeth Matthis and Michael Raymond Sweatt was solemnized Thanksgiving day in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Matthis of Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Sweatt are parents of the groom.

Officiating the double ring ceremony was the Rev. Father Jack Gist of St. Ann's Catholic Church in Canyon. Mrs. Don McCartor, Amarillo, presented traditional classical and wedding music at piano.

The ceremony was performed in the living room of the Matthis home where the raised dining area was marked with white satin pillows on the floor and framed by black wrought iron railings. Multibranch candleabra on either side were entwined with tropical greenery and white mums and fitted with candles. Fall mums were used on the bride's table and throughout the home.

When presented in marriage by her father the bride wore a formal length wedding gown of ivory chiffon featuring a molded bodice fashioned with beaded re-embroidery and Alencon lace. The dress was designed with an empire waist line and full sleeves, ruffled at the cuffs. The circular skirt terminated in a chapel length train, held to a Watteau styled back. The finger tip wedding veil fell from a cap of matching lace re-embroidered with seed pearls.

For 'something old' the bride carried a lace handkerchief which formerly belonged to the groom's maternal grandmother. 'Something new' was a pendant of opals and gold leaves, gift of the groom. Earrings were 'borrowed' from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Michael Matthis. In her shoe she wore a penny minted in the year of her birth and she wore the traditional blue. She carried a small white Bible which had been presented to her at birth.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Gregg Sweatt of Denver. She wore a rust silk knit empire dress edged with ecru crochet and she carried a wicker basket of bronze and yellow mums.

Gregg Sweatt of Denver served as his brother's best man.

In the reception which followed the ceremony, a three-tiered wedding cake, accented with yellow roses and green leaves, was topped with wedding bells and a dove. The honored couple cut the cake with a silver knife and drank wedding toasts from crystal glasses belonging to the bride's maternal grandmother.

In the houseparty were Mmes. Lee Roy Moreland, Sam Steen, Frank Shropshire, Cruse Snyder, Bernadette Teichman, Ken Waugh, George Ritter,

SUNDAY LUNCHEON

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cox had lunch Sunday with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Daffern, Elaine and Pam. With Mr. and Mrs. Cox were their sons, Philip of Lubbock and Kelly.

Michael Martin and Miss Debra Sweatt.

For travel the bride chose a beige knit pant suit trimmed with black silk braid and black accessories. Following a wedding trip to Taos, N.M. the couple will be at home at 1305 E 13th St., Apt. 2, in Denver.

The bride is a graduate of Canyon High School, and West Texas State University. She taught high school Spanish and English for a year in Colorado before accepting her current position with Metropolitan State College in Denver with the administration department.

Sweatt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Sweatt of Hale Center, formerly of this city. A graduate of Olton High School and WTSU, he is presently a botany major at Metropolitan State College and is employed part time with a landscape architectural firm in that city.

Rehearsal dinner preceding the ceremony was hosted by parents of the groom in the Canyon home of a friend.

Recipe Of The Week

Recipes for more holiday goodies are shared this week in lieu of our regular Cook of the Week column. We're sure you will want to clip these and use them sometime during this festive season and to re-use many times.

Janis Chaney's
CRANBROSIA

2 cups fresh cranberries, coarsely ground or chopped. 1 cup sugar, combine cranberries and sugar. Mix thoroughly to dissolve sugar. Drain well and reserve liquid with liquids from 1 can mandarin oranges and 1 11 oz can pineapple chunks. Add oranges, pineapple, 1 cup coconut and 1 large banana, cut in cubes, to cranberries. Sprinkle 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin in juices. Stir till dissolves. Heat over low heat, stirring until thickened. Fold in 1 cup sour cream and 1 cup whipped cream. Chill for several hours or overnight.

Mrs. Joe Edd Carson's
CHRISTMAS COOKIES

1 can Eagle Brand milk
½ c flour
1 can coconut
1 pkg mixed candied fruit or pkg dates (approx 2 c)
1 c nuts
vanilla

Mix and bake at 375 for 15 minutes.

Mozelle Trotter's
GERMAN FRUIT CAKE

¾ c oleo
2 c sugar
4 eggs

Cream oleo and sugar and beat in eggs. Sift together: 3 cups flour, ½ tsp. each allspice, cinnamon and nutmeg. Add to creamed mixture alternately with 1 cup buttermilk to which 1 tsp soda has been added. Fold in ⅔ cup each cherry, apricot and pineapple preserves. Add 1 cup chopped pecans and 1 tsp vanilla. Bake 1½ hours in 325 degree oven. Use well greased, floured bundt pan or two loaf pans.

Mozelle's substitutions: use any combination of preserves you want, I've used blueberry and strawberry in place of cherry and peach instead of apricot and all are good. I also like to put the preserves in blender for just a second to avoid "lumps" of fruit.

Pretty Christmas decorations can be fun for the family and ingenuity in design is limitless with dough ornaments made from this simple recipe:

2 c flour
1 c salt
1 T (heaping) cream of tartar
2 T oil
1 c very hot water

Mix together and knead 5 to 10 minutes. Place in plastic bag and let stand 1-2 minutes. This allows the dough to become pliable. Mold into desired shapes or roll out and cut out designs with cookie cutters or free hand. Bake in 350 degree oven 35 minutes. When cool, paint with acrylic paints. (Make tiny hole in ornament before baking if you want to hang on tree.)

VARSITY GIRLS

Olton's Fillies were second place winners in the Roosevelt Tournament, under the coaching of Larry Ledbetter.

The Fillies played Roosevelt JV the first game and won 48-23. Elaine Rodriguez had a total of 20 points and Kim Kinnison "came off the bench and scored 15."

The defense was credited with a good game by the coach. Cindy Moore had 10 rebounds; Jeanie Davis, 5 and Kim Kinnison, 5. They also did a good job handling the ball and bringing it up the floor, according to Ledbetter.

The second match was with Idalou and Olton won 39-35.

Elaine Rodriguez had 23 points and Faye Brown had 9. Cindy Moore had 6 rebounds, Marla Faver, 5 rebounds and 5 steals two of which gave the Fillies a 4 point lead; and Kim Kinnison, had 4 rebounds and handled the ball real well.

The final game was with Roosevelt Varsity and the Fillies were on the short end of that score, 39-26.

Fatigue was attributed to their defeat, having played a game everyday that week, according to their coach.

Elaine Rodriguez had 16 points. The defense did a super job, but the Roosevelt girls stood 6' and 5' 10" and the Fillies were just too short.

Cindy Moore had 5 rebounds, Marla Faver, 2 rebounds and 4 steals; Jeanie Davis, 7 rebounds and Kim Kinnison, 7 rebounds.

Dec. 9, the Fillies played Muleshoe and were defeated. The score was 51-44. Coach Ledbetter said, "We should have beat them, we shot from wherever we wanted to, but just couldn't hit the basket."

"We out played them the second half, but they were too far ahead." We were hurt in the foul department too. Three fouled out and others had four against them."

Elaine Rodriguez had 35 points, out of the 44 total.

The Fillies coach summed it up by saying that, "we need more consistency. We're playing good teams close, but we're also playing the weak teams close. Most teams we are playing, however, have experienced players. Our record now is 3 wins and 6 losses. The more we play, the better we will be."

The varsity basketball boys participated in the Roosevelt Tournament, which was held Dec. 4, 5 and 6.

Monday night, the Freshman girls played Muleshoe and went down in defeat, 54-20. Jan Spain had 14 points.

LOVE LETTER OF THE WEEK--FROM????, TO J.D.

Dearest Cowchip:

I came into this fair city because I heard of the great flying cow chip everyone has been watching for. The moment I drove into town I just knew I had seen it, so I ran to the police station and told them of my great discovery. They immediately ran down town with their fly nets to catch the intruder. All I can say is that I'm really sorry that they hauled you off to jail, but I honestly believed I had spotted the famous flying cow chip. Maybe your comrade in war, Larry, will bail you out. You may have to wait a day or two before he can come up with the money.

J.D. I really fell deeply in love with you when I first read your column several weeks ago. I love you so much that I wrote a poem about you . . .

Roses are red,
Violets are blue,
You smell like a cowchip,
and look like one too.

I hope you like the poem I wrote for you. I guess I better go. If we don't ever meet again I hope you have fun on that great cowchip in the sky.

Love Always,

Now we have the letters to Santa Claus.

Dear Santa,

I hope you have plenty of toys for all of the boys and girls. I hope there's plenty of boys for the girls and girls for the boys. Tell Mrs. Santa Claus "Hi." You would never guess what I want for Christmas. I want a '76 Monte Carlo. I want the car to be solid white with a baby blue top. I want the inside baby blue too! If you can afford it I want a new watch. My old one broke. I'll leave you some cookies and milk in the kitchen. If the car won't fit in the house leave it outside. I hope the other boys and girls get what they want.

Love,
Sherrie H.

Dear Santa,

Well maybe this is my last year as a kid. I think I will grow up a little. I think my boyfriend is getting me an engagement ring. I am really excited about it. Some of the girls my age think I am kind of dumb but some of them are really glad too. Santa, I would like for you to bring a few things for my house I will be getting. I sure could use them. I already have all my furniture. I need a few things for the kitchen. Well, Santa remember even though I am growing up I will always love you.

Yours truly,
L.W.

Dear Santa,

I am so excited for this Christmas Season. First of all I feel like I should ask for my two front teeth but since I got those already I guess I'll not ask for that.

O, I guess all I really want is to have a happy holiday with my friends and relatives and of course my family.

We don't have a fireplace so I guess I'll leave the door unlocked.

See you when you come.

Love,
"Curly Cue"

Dear Santa,

Hi, I thought that you would like to hear from me sooner in case someone else decides to order the same product (s) that I want. First of all I want a stereo with all the speakers and to go with the speakers I would like a car. I hope I am not asking for too much you can always call to see if I have been a very good girl.

All my friends think that I am a good angel. I hope you send the car sooner so I can learn how to drive sooner, I don't know how to tell you this but I am only 7 years old. But I would like to receive it sooner so I can learn how to drive sooner.

Take many precautions cause I don't want Daddy to know about this. He might not like it too much and take it away from me. I leave you all the cookies you can stuff yourself with.

Love ya,
N.G.

Dear Santa Claus,

Will you please not bring anything to all the people who have been making fun of my car? All I want for Christmas are a Barbie Camper and a Barbie Airplane.

Love,
Mary Lee Smyth

P.S. I have been a very good girl this year.

Dear Santa,

All I want for Christmas is a 4 feet 11 inch, brown haired, green eyed Doll.

Magic

Dear Santa,

This year I don't want too many things. Just a Six Million Dollar Man Doll, a new basketball, a new car and a Mrs. Walden Rag Doll that I can lock in the closet or put a rag in her mouth so that she can't talk.

If you come there will be brownies and milk waiting for you.

Rolinda

Well that is all for this week I hope you can make it out. I guess the unidentified cow chip has already taken his Christmas break. So till next week you keep a fresh dip in and your rope ready for the cow chip may come back.

"I'd rather explain higher gas bills than why you don't have gas."

Your natural gas bill is higher.
And, you have every right to know why.

One reason is lower temperatures brought on by winter.

The main reason, however, is simply that you are paying more for natural gas. Because we are paying more. This chart shows how much:

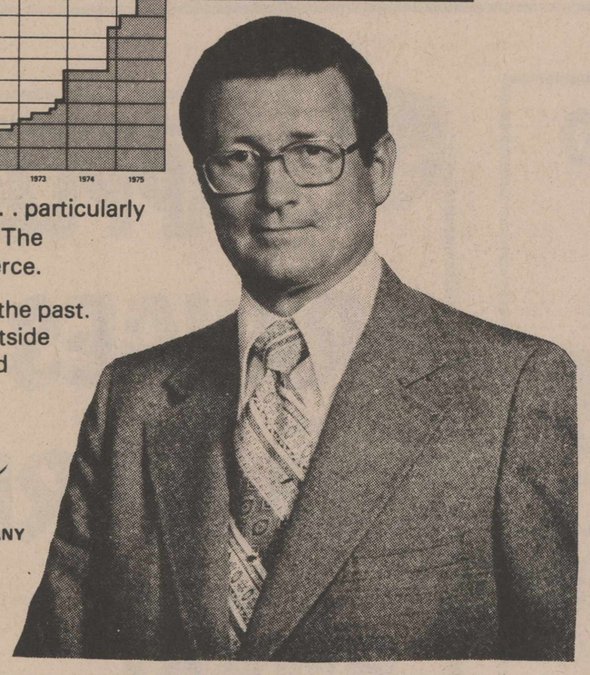

This increase hurts both you and Pioneer. It adds to your bill and to our cost . . . a cost for which Pioneer is not entirely compensated. It is passed through without mark-up or additional charges.

Why does gas cost more? Competition . . . particularly from petrochemical and other industries. The competition for gas has never been so fierce.

We will have to pay more for gas than in the past. But by working together, and without outside interference, you'll have the gas you need today and in the future.

Steve Lewis Makes Study Concerning Fertilizer

Is innoculum better for legumes than fertilizer? West Texas State University junior Steve Lewis of Olton has spent the last seven weeks of his plant science lab conducting an experiment to find out.

Taking four groups of peas, Lewis treated one with innoculum alone, two others with lesser and greater amounts of fertilizer and the last with fertilizer and innoculum.

"We found that both plants with fertilizer grew the best, and the plants with just innoculum were yellow. The plants with innoculum and fertilizer were the smallest," he said.

"This experiment answered some practical questions I had about the use of innoculum," he continued.

Plant science greenhouse experiments are designed to make students more aware of plant production principles and the methods and procedures of carrying out a controlled experiment, accoring to Dr. Ron Thomason, professor of plant science and lab director.

The students plant their crop seeds in groups of pots in the WTSU greenhouse. One group, the control group, receives only light and water, while the other groups might receive varying levels of nutrients, herbicides or other cultural practices. Each week the students return to observe and measure the progress of their plants as they grow. At the end of the experiment, the students harvest, dry and then weigh their plants to determine the yield as affected by treatments.

Lewis, a pre-veterinary major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lewis.

GROWING WITH A GREAT COMMUNITY SINCE 1929

THE NEW OLTON STATE BANK BUILDING

The front door of a small white frame building opened at high noon Oct. 31, 1929 and business began for a brand new institution, Olton State Bank. Only a dirt thoroughfare, called Main Street, separated the fledgling financial establishment from Lamb County Court House on the square to the east.

First depositor of the new bank was H.P. Webb, school superintendent, who had worked diligently along with others to secure the needed institution.

Deposits at the close of business that first day were $20,616.79.

Charter had been granted Sept. 29, 1929 for Olton State Bank. Four months after opening, the bank moved into a new brick building across the street to the north. The building, one of three, was built by C.E. Bley who is the sole survivor of the bank's first board of directors.

Other members of that early day board were G.T. Abbott, president of the bank; L.E. Silcott, vice-president and cashier; Key Patterson, bookkeeper; A.C. Brigance, P.B. Campbell, R.E. Dennis, Guy Willis and G.H. Phillips.

Olton State Bank continued business from that location, the building now occupied by Sherman Insurance Agency, until early 1955 when the present building was completed. Formal dedication and open house was held Jan. 19, 1955.

Of considerable pride to the community, the new building featured a "first" for Olton - - the night depository, installed primarily for the benefit of merchants who had large sums for deposit following the busy harvest time Saturdays.

D.M. "Dubbs" Granbery was president at that time, having assumed the position in 1949. He held the post until 1960 when he sold his interests to Bill Yate, Frank Cornelius and Owen Norfleet. Yates succeeded Granbery as president.

Yates served as president until April 1961 when he sold his interest to Cornelius and Norfleet, who was then named president. That duo sold their controlling stock in May 1967 to R.D. Brown and Joe Garrison, both of Vernon. Norfleet stayed as president until August of that year when Earl Spruiell of Vernon was made president.

Kenneth Burgess, who joined the firm as vice president in December 1968, was named president in January 1972.

Controlling interest was sold in 1973 to a local group including Burgess, Lauis Hair, Alan Brown, Bill Clayton, Stephen Smith, Calvin Wood, James Busby, Veo Busby and Garland DePrang.

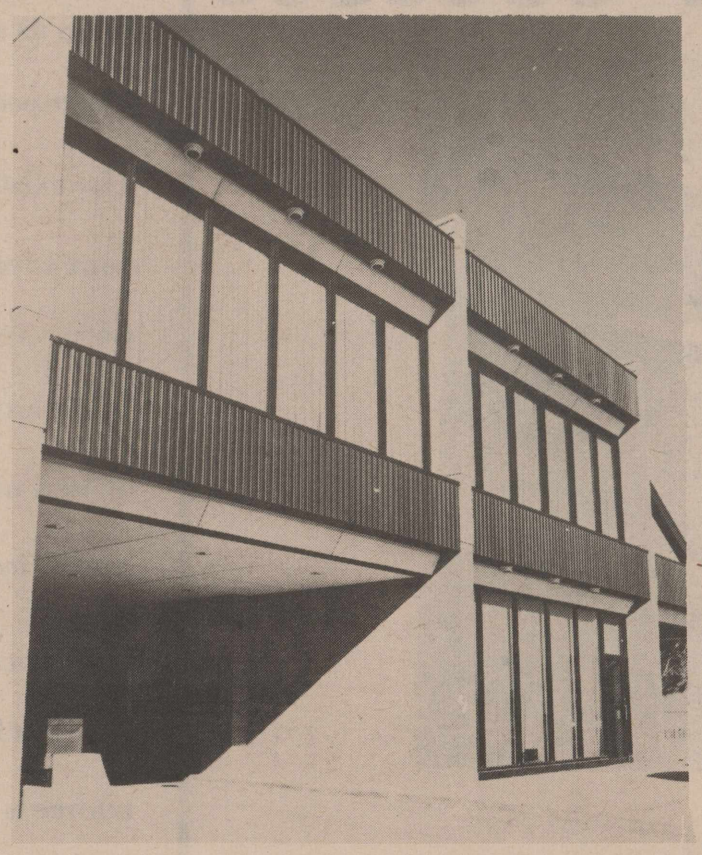

The present building was remodeled and enlarged in 1969 with open house held on the institution's fortieth anniversary.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU!

TRUST DEPARTMENT

ONE OF OLTON STATE BANK'S SERVICES YOU SHOULD BE AWARE OF

1975 has been big for all of us--especially here at Olton State Bank. We have spent the last year expanding our facilities for your banking efficiency and pleasure. We now offer more officer-customer privacy; instant market information via teletype; spacious community room; weather protected drive-in windows; and then, the ultimate in customer service, our Trust Department. We were granted full trust powers by our regulatory agencies and this is the only financial institution in Lamb County able to offer these services to you.

function on a customer's behalf in various capacities. One is in probating wills and settling estates. Our officers have had classroom training as well as practical experience in doing this.

We are qualified to administer trusts--to manage your property for the benefit of chosen beneficiaries. We can act as an agent for you in farm management, in sale, in rentals, etc.

Perhaps one of the most important things that we can do right now is to work with you, your accountant, and/or your lawyer in devising a personalized financial plan. Regardless of the size of your estate, the first obligation you owe yourself is to arrange to take care of yourself during retirement or in case of permanent disability. The second objective is to make sure your property is transferred to the survivors of your choice; and third is to conserve as much as possible of the estate that you are working so hard to accumulate. Nothing is too insignificant to be discussed, nor is it too complicated that we cannot find the resources and counsel to answer.

"Trust" is not just a word--it is personal service with confidence.

---Rachel Ruthart---

On the lower floor of the new addition, beautiful in rich wood paneling, traditional furnishings and restful decor, is the spacious room of the Trust Department. Currently acting as Trust Officer is Ken Burgess.

Assistant vice-president, Rachel Ruthart, presently offices in these quarters where she will be performing the duties of Assistant Trust Officer.

She executes the mechanics of book keeping and records for the department and is in charge of Retirement Accounts, the Keogh plan and Individual Retirement Accounts.

A New Look . . . . .

OLTON STATE BANK

Congratulations to the board of directors for their insight in the growth of the Olton State Bank, and their faith in the area people.

We are pleased to have been a part of those chosen for the construction of the community's fine banking building.

OLTON STATE BANK'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS ROOM

Future decisions made by Olton State Bank directors will be made within the paneled walls of the blue and gold Board Room.

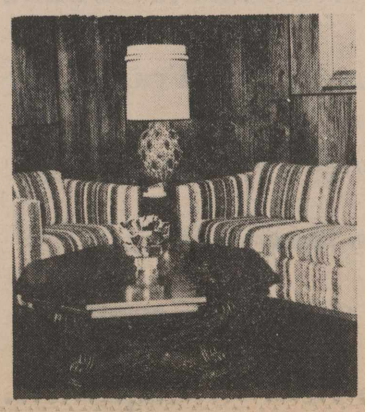

An earlier decision to go into the expansion program was made in much less spacious quarters. In reviewing that decision President Burgess stated, "Since 1969 we have experienced a rather rapid growth. We have doubled the number of employees. Office space for these employees and record storage really necessitated the expansion."

"And," he continued, "When we remodeled in 1969 we had nine employees and recorded total assets of $9,000,000. Total assets today top $20,000,000 and we now have 17 employees and two student part time workers.

"We have converted to computerized bookkeeping, added a Trust Department, Drive-In service, Community Meeting Room, Board Room, a 24 X 40 basement for storage, and one rental office.

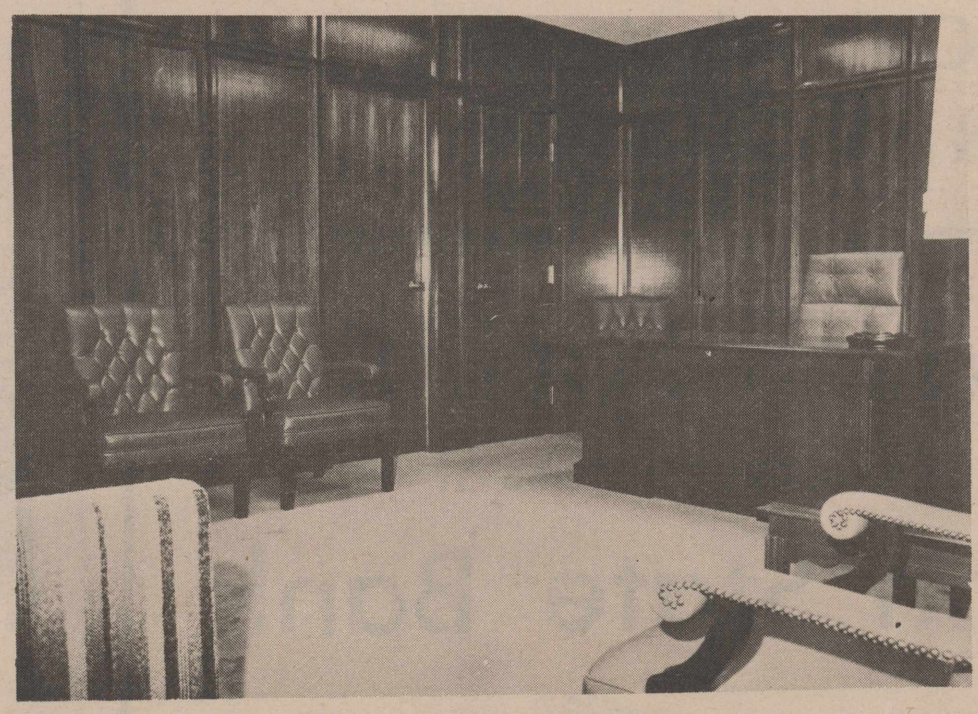

"Our night depository is still in popular use, and the new tele-type market reporting in the main lobby is gaining in usage."

A brand new clock hangs on the Main Street corner of the bank to give constant time and temperature information today. The newly finished building has the Look of Tomorrow as it houses the city's Full Service Bank.
