Officer Says He Found No Sign Of Fight

By RALEIGH ALLSBROOK

CLEVELAND (AP) — The first police officer to enter the bedroom where Marilyn Sheppard lay slain said today he found no signs that anyone had entered from outside through a window.

Fred F. Drenkhan, a patrolman in suburban Bay Village, said only one of three bedroom windows was open when he inspected the room shortly after Mrs. Sheppard was clubbed to death on July 4.

The screen of that window was securely latched and there was dust on the window sill, the policeman testified. The other two windows were locked.

In previous testimony in the first degree murder trial of the victim's husband, Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, 30, his defense attorneys had injected the possibility someone might have come into the murder room by climbing an apple tree at the rear of the home and entering through a window.

Sheppard has maintained steadfastly that his wife was beaten to death by a bushy-haired intruder, and that he was "clobbered" unconscious when he tried to help her.

Drenkhan also said he found no evidence of a struggle in the bedroom at the lakefront home, but noted blood specks on all four walls and on a closet door.

"Were there any signs of entry whatsoever on any of the windows?" prosecutor Thomas J. Parrino asked.

"No," the witness replied.

The patrolman said there was a second bed in the room.

"What was the appearance of the second bed?" Parrino asked.

"It was open," the officer replied, "and there were specks of blood on the sheets."

Parrino asked if there was any evidence that anyone had slept in the second bed.

"No," the witness replied, "it looked as if it had just been opened to prepare it for someone coming to bed."

"How far was Marilyn's bed from the east wall window which was open?" Parrino asked.

"About four feet," the officer replied.

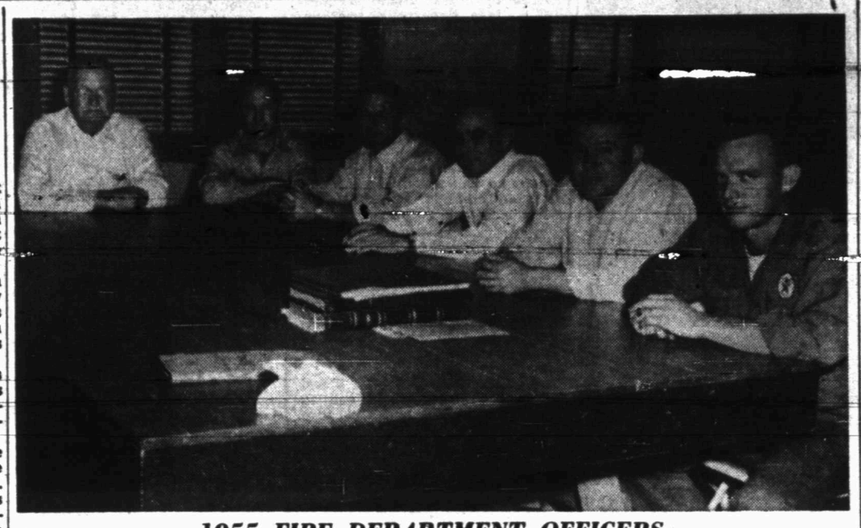

"As you examined all the contents of that room did you find in that room any evidence whatsoever of a struggle?"

"No, there wasn't," the patrolman replied after a defense objection was overruled.

Drenkhan testified that in the living room of the house a secretary desk had the three lower drawers pulled out. Papers, he said, were strewn on the floor. The fourth, top drawer, was closed, he said.

"Otherwise, the appearance of the room seemed normal," the officer said.

Drenkhan, a social as well as police friend of Dr. Sheppard, had been testifying before the Veterans Day recess halted the trial.

1955 FIRE DEPARTMENT OFFICERS

N. W. Autry, left, was re-elected chief of the Snyder volunteer fire department last night for his twenty-eighth successive year to hold the post. Shown from left with Autry are other officers elected for the coming year: Jim Sullinger, first assistant chief; Leonard Keller, second assistant chief; Bill Brown, president; Kenneth Wood, vice president, and Doug McGlaun, secretary-treasurer. Last year's officers were: Autry, chief; Sullinger, first assistant chief; Brown, second assistant chief; Gerald Sheid, president; vacancy in office of vice president, and Erich Arnold, secretary-treasurer. The Rev. Earl Creswell was re-elected chaplain. (Lee Watson photograph)

Dixon-Yates Dispute Due To Land In New Congress

Substitute Censure Resolution Is 'Shaped'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill) said today a substitute for a resolution to censure Sen. McCarthy has been "shaped" in an effort to compromise the bitter fight over the Wisconsin Republican's conduct.

Dirksen declined to disclose the nature of the substitute. He would not say whether he had discussed it with McCarthy.

There have been persistent reports that McCarthy's friends were working on a resolution which, while combining some mild criticism with some words of praise, would prove acceptable to a majority of senators.

It would be offered in place of the resolution of censure unanimously recommended by a special committee of three Republican and three Democratic senators after nine days of public hearings earlier in the fall.

That committee, accused by McCarthy of acting like the "unwitting handmaiden" of the Communist party, said he had shown contempt for a Senate elections subcommittee that investigated his finances in 1951-52 and had abused its members.

It also recommended that he be rebuked on the ground that he abused Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, a decorated combat veteran, in questioning him at a one-man hearing last Feb. 18 and calling him unfit to wear the uniform of a general.

McCarthy has predicted he will be censured.

Dirksen said he would not offer the substitute resolution until members of the special committee have finished statements about the censure case.

Chairman Watkins (R-Utah) and Sen. Case (R-SD) already have spoken.

McCarthy indicated yesterday he would not adopt a suggestion by Case that he apologize for what he had said about the elections subcommittee.

Case told newsmen that if McCarthy were to "retract" on the Senate floor what he had said about the elections subcommittee and its members, he felt the angry wrangle over the proposed censure might be quickly ended.

"If he indicated any regret he had uttered those words, it would be very easy for the Senate to accept and then to table (and thus kill) that portion of the resolution," Case said.

He added that "if we got that far, the Senate itself might disavow" McCarthy's treatment of Gen. Zwicker "and that would wash that out." There was no immediate indication whether Case's views were shared by the full Watkins committee or by a Senate majority.

But McCarthy indicated he was in no mood to retract the criticisms he has hurled at the elections subcommittee. He has accused it of being dishonest and of stealing the taxpayers' money.

"If I were doing everything over today," he said in reference to the elections subcommittee, "I would not do it any differently."

He sounded a little more conciliatory, however, in respect to his description of Sen. Hendrickson (R-NJ) as "a living miracle . . . with neither brains nor guts."

This was the way he spoke of Hendrickson after the New Jersey senator joined in the unanimous report on the elections subcommittee, which raised numerous questions about McCarthy's financial affairs, saying it could not answer them because he refused to testify.

To the feeler advanced by Case that he might apologize, McCarthy said only that "as far as Bob Hendrickson is concerned, I like Bob. We're good friends."

Case, in his speech to the Senate yesterday, contended that McCarthy's "abuse" of Hendrickson and other members of the elections subcommittee obstructed the legislative process and warranted censure.

But he said the record "is not yet closed" and expressed hope that McCarthy would give "calm and reflective consideration" to his suggestions.

The day's debate wound up, however, with McCarthy renewing his accusations that the elections subcommittee had acted illegally and improperly and complaining that Watkins refused to let him bring out evidence to that effect at the censure group's hearings.

TEARFUL JOE DECLARES HIS FIGHT WILL GO ON

By DONALD SANDERS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A tearful Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy told more than 3,500 cheering and whistling adherents last night that his campaign against communism will "go on and on and on."

That will be so, he said, regardless of the outcome of Senate consideration of a move to censure him—a debate he said "makes me sick way down deep inside."

McCarthy and his wife Jean made an unannounced appearance at a rally in Constitution Hall attended largely by self-styled "aggressive McCarthyites" who had come here from New York, Boston and other cities to urge their senators to vote against censure of the Wisconsin Republican.

The principal speaker, Sen. Welker (R-Idaho), was in the midst of a talk hailing his colleague as "one of the greatest living foes of Communist slavery" when the McCarthys entered the hall and, helped through the crowd by police, made their way to the stage.

McCarthy devoted most of his brief talk to American policy on American servicemen still held by the Chinese Communists, addressing directly a group of wives and mothers who were seated on the stage in black garb.

"You are the victims of a massive appeasement, one that has been going on year after year and that knows no political bounds," he said.

His voice broke and tears appeared in his eyes. Some of the women wept openly.

McCarthy was presented a plaque for "fearless persistence in battling the enemies of our country" by the rally coordinator, Rabbi Benjamin Schultz of New York City. It was Schultz who said the rally was staged by "aggressive McCarthyites" who, he said, paid their own way to the capital.

Welker described the pending resolution to censure McCarthy as "dirty work. . .foul play." He predicted that if McCarthy is censured by the Senate, a strong campaign will be launched to seat Red China in the United Nations.

Among those introduced at the rally were Senators Mundt (R-SD) and Goldwater (R-Ariz), Rep. Busbey (R-Ill), former Sen. Burton K. Wheeler of Montana, former Rep. Hamilton Fish of New York and Columnist Westbrook Pegler.

Rayburn Raps Defense Cuts

MCKINNEY (AP)—Speaker-Designate Sam Rayburn, Congressman from Texas' Fourth District, recalled the days before Pearl Harbor in a blistering attack on what he yesterday called "Republican penny pinching."

Rayburn spoke to a crowd estimated by police at 12,000 celebrating Veterans Day here. The crowd was mostly veterans groups from over his district.

"How any administration that can assert that it can have more defense for less money, with fewer ships, fewer airplanes and fewer men is reasoning I cannot understand," the robust, 72-year-old Rayburn said.

Before Pearl Harbor's tragedy, the Congressman recalled, "I stood on the floor of the House and pleaded with an isolationist Congress to make ourselves strong enough to defend ourselves.

But they said nobody was going to attack us—that we could wrap the oceans around us.

"We did not prepare and were attacked.

"Penny pinching will not make the United States strong," he continued.

The Bonham Congressman also told the crowd that the Democratic 84th Congress would demand a bipartisan foreign policy.

The free world stands in the greatest danger, he said, "and the goal of all foreign policy must be peace."

Indochina's Chiefs To Talk

SAIGON, Indochina (AP) — Viet Nam's army chief of staff said today he has accepted an invitation to go to France and talk over with chief of state Bao Dai the threatening political dispute between the army chief and Premier Ngo Dinh Diem.

The army boss, Gen. Nguyen Van Hinh, said he would leave here the first of next week and remain for two or three weeks. He previously had turned down a similar invitation from Bao Dai.

Bao Dai's move came less than 24 hours after Hinh conferred with Gen. J. Lawton Collins, President Eisenhower's special ambassador.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles has made it clear Collins was sent here in an effort to bring order out of the political chaos in South Viet Nam. The premier and the army chief of staff have been quarreling for a month and a half over ways to consolidate the government against the threat of communism.

One Killed, 19 Hurt As Train Jumps Tracks

NASHUA, N.H. (AP)—The crack Montreal-Boston overnight train Red Wing jumped the tracks just north of the Nashua station early today killing one woman and injuring 19 persons.

Six sections of the eight-car train overturned and a mailcar was upended, its wheels in the air.

The dead woman was identified by police as Mrs. Mary Buckley, 47, of Manchester, N.H. Her body was trapped in the wreckage of one of the coaches.

The first of two diesel locomotives halted about 30 feet north of the station after ramming an express truck. The second diesel tipped over.

The coaches and baggage cars were scattered over the four lanes of tracks completely tying up traffic which had to be rerouted from Manchester, N.H., and Lawrence, Mass.

O. C. Hardy, New Hampshire superintendent of the Boston & Maine Railroad, described the accident as a "general derailment."

Most of those taken to Memorial and St. Joseph's hospitals, suffered minor injuries. Among them was Katherine Buckley, 11, daughter of the dead woman.

The train crashed into two parked freight cars on a parallel track and pushed them through the wall of the Johns Manville Co. warehouse opposite the station.

The accident occurred at about 5.50 a.m. Arthur Furbush, 55, of Boxboro, Mass., a trainman, said: "I just stepped into the baggage car when it happened. We were rolling all around in there."

Mail clerk Lester Hyde of Medford, Mass., said: "There was an awful lot of noise. Five or six of us in the mail car were tossed around like ten pins. We were in the car for about a half hour before anyone could get to us."

Richard Stinchfield of Hudson, N.H., a Johns Manville employe, said: "I rushed from the building and saw the cars toppled over on the left side. There were screams from the inside of the cars. With a group of men I boarded the train and carried the victims out."

Conductor of the train was H. J. Sanborn of Lebanon, N. H. Samuel Burns, 62, of Saugus, Mass., was the engineer, and J. P. LaFlamme, 64, of Nashua, the fireman.

Report Ike To Run In 1956

AKRON, Ohio, (AP)—The Akron Beacon Journal said today President Eisenhower has promised Republican leaders to run for re-election in 1956.

This promise was made, said the newspaper, at a highly secret meeting at the White House shortly after the election. The article did not specify the date nor name any of the party leaders at this meeting.

"At the meeting, party leaders told the President the party would be without leadership if the President decided to retire.

"Party leaders attributed the GOP loss of the House and Senate to more than just the traditional off year election losses."

The story of this meeting, said Mann, was obtained from a person very close to the President.

Mann also stated that: "Several members of the President's personal staff will be replaced soon with persons skilled in the art of practical politics."

This definitely, however, will not include presidential assistant Sherman Adams, he wrote. Adams, he said, will continue on as an extremely important member of the President's advisory staff.

San Diego Hit By Earthquake

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A sharp, rolling earthquake shook this city at 4:26 a. m. today.

It made houses creak and started suspended objects swinging, but there were no reports of damage.

Fred S. Robinson, amateur seismologist, rated its intensity at 6 on the Mercalli scale which ranges up to a maximum of 12.

Robinson said the tremors started at 4:26:51 and lasted five or six minutes. He estimated the jolt's center at about 70 miles southeast of here. That would put it in a sparsely settled area below the Mexican border in Lower California.

The seismologist said he thought the quake could have caused damage at or near its center.

He described its motion as rolling north and south at the start, then moving into a complete roll in all directions.

Awakened residents swamped newspaper and police switchboards with inquiries. Robinson said some who called him sounded panicky.

The quake was felt at El Centro, approximately 110 miles east of here, but likewise without report of damage.

Weather Mild, Clear

Like most other Texas cities, Snyder had warm, clear weather yesterday. The temperature rose to 72 degrees yesterday afternoon. A low of 34 degrees was recorded before dawn today, with 37 degrees at 7:30 a.m., Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said.

Floodwaters Spill Into Port City In England

HULL, England (AP)—Floodwaters spilled over three square miles of this port city today as gales and rainstorms lashed much of the British Isles and the North Sea.

Heavy winds and driving rain coupled with the highest tide in 30 years forced the Humber and Hull rivers out of their banks and across Hull. Waves two feet high swept along roads and into houses and factories.

No casualties were reported.

Trucks and rowboats ferried people through the flooded streets but thousands were unable to get to work and many housewives were unable to get out to the shops.

Farther north, the port cities clustered around the Tyne and Clyde rivers reported abnormally heavy rain and racing river waters.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL and WEST TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. Not much change in temperatures.

EAST and SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Partly cloudy this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. Scattered showers tonight or Saturday. Not much change in temperatures. Increasingly northerly winds on the coast, becoming locally strong this afternoon or tonight.

IKE TURNS BANDSMAN

Hagler Won't Talk About Confession

FORT WORTH (AP)—David Hagler refused to comment today on a confession by his former associate, Frank A. St. Claire, that they plotted a fantastic insurance swindle that was to involve a cadaver to be bought for $500 from a mortuary.

Hagler, 37, told the Star-Telegram that he would not say anything about St. Claire's statement, under instructions from his attorneys.

At the same time, Hagler denied that he had been fired yesterday from his job as salesman for the U.S. Asphalt Company.

"My status with the company is just the same as it was," Hagler said. "We're now waiting for return of the company president from Europe to decide what will happen."

Officers who accompanied a company executive to Hagler's North Richland Hills residence yesterday said he was notified that he was no longer an employe of the firm.

In another development today officers disclosed that a missing Fort Worth skid row character may have been the victim in the Oklahoma torch slaying of which Hagler is accused.

They described the man as a "wino" and a "derelict" and said he was the best lead they now have toward identification of the charred corpse found in Hagler's station wagon near Davis, Okla., Oct. 10.

"The man fits the general description of the corpse, has no family and has been missing from his usual haunts since a few days before the crime," agent Steele Westbrook of the Oklahoma Crime bureau said here.

The agent said the missing man had seen military duty in Germany, lending to possibility he may have had European dental work.

Biggest clue officers have from the corpse is a denture believed made in Europe.

Westbrook said he wasn't abandoning the theory that the victim might have been a European immigrant.

"But we're adding to the possibilities he could have been an American service man or merchant marine," he said.

Another disclosure closed the last gap in Hagler's "lost weekend" time table, officers said. Hagler claims he was drunk during the period.

They learned that Hagler checked into Tower Hotel Courts in Dallas at 9:45 a.m. Oct. 10 and left there at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 11.

He had come there from Gainesville, where he checked into the Turner Hotel about midnight Oct. 9 and departed the next day at about 7 or 8 a.m.

Hagler then went to the Dallas court. At 7:55 p.m. the 11th, he registered at El Montan Motel in San Antonio, leaving there before noon the 12th, officers said.

He registered at Waco's Roosevelt Hotel the afternoon of Oct. 12 and made his surprise return from the "dead" here Oct. 13. Officers say that at none of the hotels was he reported drunk.

German Panel Studies Pact

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Cabinet set up today a special committee of five ministers to study further the London-Paris agreements on rearming and giving complete independence to West Germany.

It was the first time the accords were placed before the Cabinet. Political sources said delay in giving them immediate approval reflected the difficulties among the coalition partners over the agreement to Europeanize the Saar, which was tied in with the London-Paris accords.

The committee will report back to a full Cabinet session on Nov. 19.

All four parties in the coalition have promised to back Adenauer in ratifying the three treaties that would give the Federal Republic sovereignty, set up the West European Union and make West Germany a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

But the three smaller parties in the coalition have objected to the Saar agreement, which French Premier Mendes-France made a condition of French ratification.

Open Hearing On Contract Nearing End

WASHINGTON (AP)—Atomic Energy Committee members gathered for a windup public session on the Dixon-Yates contract today amid fresh signs the dispute over the private power project will boil over into the new 84th Congress.

Rep. W. Sterling Cole (R-NY), chairman of the Senate-House group, said he hoped to finish open hearings on the contract, finally signed yesterday, with further testimony from top Atomic Energy Commission (AEC) officials.

Tomorrow, he said, the legislators may be called into closed session to decide whether to grant a quick go-ahead on the project as President Eisenhower has asked.

On tap for questioning today were AEC Chairman Lewis L. Strauss, AEC General Manager K. D. Nichols, acting Comptroller General Frank H. Weitzel and R. W. Cook, the AEC's acting assistant general manager for manufacturing.

Cook signed the contract for the AEC yesterday after the commissioners approved it 3-0 with some last-minute changes aimed at making its terms more favorable to the government.

Signing for the private utility, the Mississippi Valley Generating Co., was Edgar H. Dixon, whose Middle South Utilities, Inc., and the Southern Co., headed by E. A. Yates, created Mississippi Valley to carry out the contract.

Dixon and Yates said in a joint statement they had entered into the contract at the suggestion of the administration, and that "the possible earnings are too small to make it attractive as a usual business venture."

Under the contract, Dixon-Yates would build a 107-million-dollar steam plant at West Memphis, Ark., whose output would go into Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) public power lines to replace electricity TVA is supplying to atomic plants. The AEC would pay about 20 million dollars a year for the power, with the contract to run 25 years and 20 years beyond that if the government wishes.

Administration supporters say the contract is a fair, economical way of getting needed power without over-expanding the government run TVA. Opponents, mostly Democrats, have called it a "giveaway" and a step to cripple TVA.

Announced changes in the contract yesterday included a provision for a $600,000-a-year ceiling on Dixon-Yates earnings and a stipulation that the government can take over ownership of the West Memphis plant at any time within three years after the contract goes into effect.

Nichols testified the recapture clause was "most distasteful" to Dixon-Yates but said it was adopted to give the next two Congresses a chance to pass judgment on the contract.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn), who opposes the project, said this washes out the administration contention that the committee should act quickly on the contract. The committee by law is given 30 days of regular congressional session in which to review the contract before it can go into effect. The 30-day rule, unless the committee waives it as requested, could put off the effective date until Feb. 5.

Boy's Ranch Helps Make Good Citizen

After 11 months stay at Boys' Ranch at San Angelo, an 11-year-old Snyder youth is believed to be well on the road toward useful citizenship, according to Bill Ballard, county probation officer.

At the time the youth was taken into the home, his own home here was temporarily broken by absence of his father who was working far from Texas. The 10-year-old had been apprehended numerous times by police officers and had admitted stealing on various occasions and had burglarized a Snyder firm.

His family is now complete, his father is employed regularly, there is a good atmosphere at home, the youth has developed some good habits at the ranch, and he has shown no sign of trouble since his return in September, Ballard said.

At the time the youth was accepted at Boys' Ranch, the institution had taken 69 boys in its five years of operation, and only one of those had later been involved in law violation. He was more than 16 years old when taken into the ranch, Carl King, manager, said.

At present there are 26 youths there, including the Snyder boy who is home on indefinite leave. He is attending school, is in the fifth grade, and is doing well.

Boys' Ranch is similar to other such organizations of the same [illegible] is located by Spring Creek near Tankersley, which is near San Angelo. The ranch has more than 900 acres, 300 of which are in cultivation. The boys farm, ranch, operate the ranch's laundry, attend school, fish, swim, have movies, watch television, raise chickens, cows, horses, rabbits, and other livestock.

The ranch accepts boys from a 36-county area and seeks donations from interested citizens and organizations only in this area. A new cafeteria has recently been finished, and — like the entire property — is debt free. The land alone is valued at more than $175,000. There is one dormitory of two sections, one for large boys, the other for small ones. All buildings are of the best construction like the new brick and tile dining hall.

Boys' Ranch is one of eight organizations included in the new Scurry County United Fund, and its current designation is $600.

All persons interested in Boys Ranch are invited to attend an open house and dedication program planned tomorrow and Sunday. A new building, Waddell Hall, will be dedicated in ceremonies starting at 3 p.m. tomorrow. The building is named in memory of the late Richard Waddell, Jr., with Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Waddell, Sr., of Odessa to be honored guests at the program. The American Legion will conduct a flag ceremony at the opening of the program.

Carl Cahen, executive secretary of the ranch, said the open house is not planned to raise funds for the ranch but to show past contributors where their money has been spent and to enable more people to visit there.

Dulles Reported Prepared To Name Democrat As Consultant

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)— Associates said today that Secretary of State Dulles is prepared to name a Democrat as consultant on foreign policies if Democratic leaders put forth a qualified man.

Dulles himself served as a Republican consultant to Democratic Secretary of State Dean Acheson and Democratic officials in previous years.

Since the election of Democratic majorities for the Congress convening in January, there has been speculation whether Dulles would adopt such a pattern of bipartisan relationship for the present Republican administration.

It appears now that he is willing to do so if that action seems desirable to the Democratic leadership. He does not, himself, intend to take the initiative in proposing some Democratic expert on foreign policy to join the State Department staff.

In any move of that sort he reportedly desires the Democratic leadership to select a man in whom the Democratic leaders would have confidence and who could speak in the councils of the State Department with an effective voice.

President Eisenhower has said since the election that he will seek a bipartisan development of foreign policy and will consult with Democratic leaders. The Democrats likewise have been talking about cooperation in this field.

Dulles and former Secretary of State Cordell Hull helped lay the basis of bipartisanship in 1944 with an agreement to keep the United Nations issue out of heated political debate in that year's presidential election. Dulles was a national figure in the field of foreign policy for years prior to that.

Afterward he became closely associated with the late Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich); served as advisor to several secretaries of state, and finally became a member of the Senate from New York state himself. It was after these events that he joined Acheson as a Republican consultant and successfully executed the task of negotiating Japanese peace and defense treaties.

The New York Times reported in today's edition that Dulles would be willing, in support of bipartisanship, to name a qualified Democrat as a consultant.

Business Due Hold Up Into The New Year

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—A growing number of industrial leaders today are saying that the current pickup in business should carry over into the new year.

Predictions of sustained output and better sales are coming from many sides—textiles, steel, automobiles, railroads, oil, petrochemicals, electrical appliances, tires and food.

These forecasts include no claims for sensational gains next year, but most of them insist that the present slow betterment in their industries should hold through the winter at least. There are also some general forecasts to backstop them.

For example, the report this week of the Organization for European Economic cooperation advises European members they can count on a moderate upturn in U.S. economic activity for a year or more.

Evidences of a change for the better continue to pour in. Inventory cutting draws to a close, and in September there was actually the first increase in total inventories to be reported this year. Freight carloadings are picking up, reflecting more activities at the mills and factories, and promising that the railroads' sad earnings picture this year may be reversed in the final months.

And here are some of the predictions for individual industries:

At the American Petroleum Institute meeting in Chicago, oil executives are predicting another increase in oil consumption next year, and some expect the industry to spend more next year on capital outlays.

Petrochemicals, one of the oil industry's sidelines, should hit a 3½-billion-dollar production pace, T. G. Hughes, president of Oronite Chemical Co., says.

Replacement tire demand should rise next year by around two million more tires than this year's 54½ million, according to William O'Neil, president of General Tire & Rubber.

Detroit's rosy view of 1955 is being widely proclaimed just now as the auto makers present their new models and hope that consumers will see it that way too.

Big gains in output and sale of electric home appliances are forecast by J. M. McKibbin, vice president of Westinghouse Electric, at the Atlantic City meeting of the National Electrical Manufacturers Assn.

J. Spencer Love, chairman of Burlington Mills, says a definite upturn is ahead for the textile industry.

Rites Held For Father Of Two Local Residents

Funeral services for Cecil Joe Ranne, 65, the father of Larry Wayne Ranne and Roger L. Ranne of Snyder, were held Thursday in Whitesboro. Mr. Ranne, a retired merchant, died Monday night. Survivors include two other sons, James D. Ranne of Lubbock and Joe L. Ranne of Midland, three brothers and four sisters.

PIPKIN DISPLAYS 1955 FORD

Vote In America Gives Satisfaction

By RELMAN MORIN
(For Hal Boyle)

NEW YORK (AP) — A voting place on election day is a mirror of America.

The woman in one ahead of me obviously was foreign-born. She spoke with a heavy accent and seemed shy and uncertain, waiting for her turn.

When she came out of the booth, a radiance shone in her face, and her expression was uplifted as though she had been in a church. Who knows? Perhaps she comes from one of those countries where national policy is made with a midnight rap on the door, and men reach office over a mound of corpses.

A voting place is a shrine.

That little cubicle with the green curtain is the truest and noblest memorial ever devised to all the men and women who died for the principle it represents. And this is precisely what we are fighting about today, what the "cold war" is about, nothing more nor less than the right to step into a booth, close the curtain, and there express a choice among men and issues.

A voting place is a repository of prejudice and anger.

One man came out of the booth and said to a friend as they left the room, "I don't know who I voted for, but I know blank-blank well who I voted against."

And during the campaign, a politician told me he thought he was a cinch winner, because he had pitched his sales talk directly to two large minority groups. Well, he was licked, so evidently they didn't buy that particular bill of goods.

Still, politicians cherish the belief—or at least the hope—that minorities can be controlled, that they will ballot en bloc if you manipulate things properly. The theory is that Americans will vote obediently under the compulsions of race, religion or national ancestry.

Maybe. But if you read about the campaigns of 50 or 100 years ago, you realize how far we have come since then. The evidence with each election indicates that people form their decisions from other, and better, reasons than these.

A voting place is a symbol of the growing up of America.

It seems to me that we are getting better candidates and better campaigns every year. Certainly, there are notable exceptions to this broad generalization. But many very fine men were candidates this year, and they campaigned decently and with taste and intelligence.

Remember those stirring battle cries of other years, "Keep King George out of Chicago," and "Pass the biscuits, pappy"?

A voting place is a luxury.

Of the two billion human beings on earth, only a fraction have the opportunity to decide for themselves how they wish to be governed, and by whom. The great majority melt into a vast grey mass, without voice or face. They are told what is best for them and punished for disagreement. Even more bitter, there are the millions who had a brief taste of freedom after the first World War, then lost it after the second.

A voting place is all these things. It is the embodiment of that thought. "In the long run, you can always trust the common sense of the American people."

Collision Helps Solve Burglary

HOUSTON (AP)—A truck-automobile collision on the Houston-Beaumont highway indirectly has solved a Crowley, La., burglary.

Sheriff's Deputies N. O. Morrison and Harry Johnson said yesterday they found this loot in the automobile: $45 in small change, 48 dresses, 27 blouses, 18 boxes of women's hose and an assortment of gloves, dress coats, suits, trousers, cowboy boots, shoes and costume jewelry.

Deputy Jack Middleton talked with Crowley officers and said the articles matched those taken from a clothing store there Wednesday night.

Crowley police said they were filing charges against the driver of the automobile, Glynn Wall Holliday, 38, former Houston convict. Middleton said the Crowley officers will bring the warrant to Houston to begin extradition proceedings.

Holliday is in City-County Hospital with a broken rib.

Harri Wilbur Johnson, 43, Houston machinist and driver of the truck, was hospitalized with a sprained neck.

Russia Wants To Buy Railroad Equipment

TOKYO, (AP) — The newspaper Asahi today said Russia wants to buy 50 narrow-gauge steam locomotives and 1,000 freezer cars from Japan, a 17½-million-dollar order.

V. Krupin, Russian commercial representative, reportedly made the offer yesterday to the Japan Locomotives and Rolling Stock Industry Assn. The association instructed its members to submit quotations.

The order probably would top that of 1948 when Russia purchased 365 locomotives and rolling stock. It would be the first such order since the start of the Korean War.

Service Is Held Here Today For Mrs. Clark

Funeral services for Mrs. Charles B. Clark, 20, of 2408 Avenue L, were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon in the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ. Warder K. Novak, minister of the Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ, officiated at the services. Burial in Snyder Cemetery was directed by Bell Funeral Home.

Mrs. Clark died Wednesday night in Cogdell Memorial Hospital following an illness of several months. She is survived by her husband, a six-month-old son, Charles Marvin Clark, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Reese, and five sisters.

Truck Route Recommended

Suggestion that Snyder ordain that trucks use highway streets through town was made Wednesday by Jake Roberts, district engineer for the Texas Highway Department's Abilene district, B. J. Shelley, city manager, said.

A study of possible truck routing through Snyder by the engineer had been requested by the city council.

Roberts was quoted as saying that many cities with truck traffic problems similar to Snyder have found that restricting through trucks to highway streets is the most successful solution to the problem.

Roberts was asked by the council during his visit here to make a study of traffic at the intersections of Avenue S and Twenty-fifth Street, and the East Highway and Avenue E, and to offer suggestions to help solve mounting traffic problems at the intersections.

The intersection of Avenue S and Twenty-fifth Street is difficult to negotiate in heavy trucks because of the sharp turn and narrow streets leading from the square.

McGuire Service Is Set Here For Today

Funeral services for William H. McGuire, 81, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the Twenty-fifth Street church of Christ.

Mr. McGuire, a former resident of Fluvanna and Snyder, died yesterday morning at his home in Sweetwater. Burial is to be in Snyder Cemetery under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home. Pallbearers are Hardy Ainsworth, Fowler Mathis, Don Robinson, J. T. Stephens, Horace Carmichael and Melvin Newton.

Surviving Mr. McGuire in addition to his wife, Mrs. Amanda McGuire, are six sons, three daughters, five sisters, two brothers, 16 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Air Force To Ground Jets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force ordered all its F100 supersonic jet fighters grounded yesterday pending through investigations of three recent crashes.

The F100 is the most advanced jet fighter now in U. S. Operational units. Its speed has been estimated at about 800 miles an hour. That of sound is 760 miles an hour at sea level.

First deliveries of the plane from the North American Aviation Co. began last week. The Air Force is reported planning to buy 100 of the craft, but it is not known how many have been produced.

North American had no immediate comment on the grounding order.

British Air Commodore Geoffrey D. Stephenson, commandant of the Royal Air Force's Central Fighter Establishment, was killed Monday at Eglin Air Base, Fla., when the Supersabre jet he was flying crashed.

Two other crashes involving F100s, one of them fatal, occurred Tuesday at Edwards Air Base in California and on Oct. 12 near Lancaster, Calif.

Bond Of $500 Is Set For Arson Suspect

Richard Cain, 21, Canary Courts, remained in jail this morning in lieu of release on bond of $500 set when he waived preliminary hearing when arraigned yesterday on a charge of arson.

Cain is accused of setting fire to his cottage, owned by Charlie Cooper.

Vernon Man Pleads Guilty To Theft Count

John Henry Taylor, 30, Vernon, was given a five-year suspended sentence this morning when he pleaded guilty in criminal district court to a charge of felony theft.

Taylor had no previous criminal record except a misdemeanor assault charge, officers said.

Arrested with Taylor here was J. W. Aubrey Akin, 30, San Angelo, who was given a two-year prison sentence when he pleaded guilty to a similar charge this week.

Akin is an ex-convict and served time in the state prison from Jan. 16, 1948 until he was conditionally paroled to Brooks County April 7, 1950. He had been septenced concurrently for burglary and bigamy, according to a record of the Department of Public Safety, which listed several arrests.

The two were indicted here with theft of materials from Hughes Tool Co.

CHOCOLATE TAPIOCA PARFAIT
. . . a pretty party dessert

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5468.

Your autumn party will end on a high note if the dessert is eye-catching as well as delicious. Such a dessert is Chocolate Tapioca Parfait. Conveniently, the ingredients, fluffy tapioca pudding and chocolate sauce, may be prepared the day before. At serving time they are placed in alternate layers in parfait glasses.

CHOCOLATE TAPIOCA PARFAIT

1 egg white
2 tablespoons sugar
1 egg yolk
2 cups milk
2 or 3 tablespoons sugar
⅛ teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca
½ teaspoon vanilla
Chocolate sauce

Beat egg white until foamy throughout; add 2 tablespoons sugar and continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Set aside. Mix egg yolk with small amount of the milk in saucepan. Add 2 or 3 tablespoons sugar, salt, tapioca and remaining milk. Place over medium heat and cook until mixture comes to a boil, stirring constantly. Pour small amount of hot mixture gradually on beaten egg white, blending well. Quickly add the remaining mixture, stirring constantly. Add vanilla. Cool, stirring once after 15 to 20 minutes. Chill. For the chocolate sauce, combine 2 squares unsweetened chocolate and 6 tablespoons water in saucepan and place over low heat, stirring until blended. Add ½ cup sugar and dash of salt. Cook until sugar is dissolved and mixture is very slightly thickened, stirring constantly. Add 3 tablespoons butter and ¼ teaspoon vanilla. Blend.

Tip parfait glasses and fill with alternate layers of pudding and chocolate sauce. Makes 4 or 5 servings.

Dr. Hooten Is Speaker At Rotary Club Meet

Dr. Caradine Hooten, executive secretary of the Board of Temperance for the Methodist Church, was speaker yesterday at the weekly luncheon of the Rotary Club.

Dr. Hooten spoke to the group on the need for harmony in the home and good neighborliness as a means to attaining peace. He is presently conducting a revival at the First Methodist Church.

Visiting Rotarians were M. G. Davis of Slaton, Garland Franks of Sweetwater, and J. C. Hammer of San Angelo. Other visitors were the Rev. J. Lennol Hester, Tommy Davis, and Bill Brown, all of Snyder, and Arthur Giddens of Sweetwater.

Tear Gas Bomb Goes Off In Court Room

Priest was the only one to get enough of the gas to have to leave the room.

Parade Goes Smoothly Minus Reviewing Stand

PAWTUCKET, R. I. (AP)—Everything seemed to be going smoothly along the Veterans Day parade route yesterday—until the marchers got to City Hall.

Then they realized there was no reviewing stand and no city officials to review the parade.

City officials said they had not been invited.

Five Texans Are Cited By Club Leader

MINERAL WELLS (AP)—Five Texans have been cited by a national women's club leader who urged Texas women to take a greater interest in educational affairs.

Mrs. Joseph Perkins of Eastland, Tex., chairman of the education department of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the international organization, cited the leadership of Texans in the educational field but said that greater interest in local education was desired and needed.

Mrs. Perkins cited Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, secretary of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare; Miss Waurine Walker, former Mineral Wells teacher now president of the National Education Assn.; Deputy Secretary of Defense Robert Anderson, Speaker-Designate Sam Rayburn, and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Mrs. Perkins spoke at the Texas Pioneer Dinner last night, a highlight of the day's activities at the annual convention of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. She is a former president of the Texas organization.

Mrs. L. E. Dudley, Abilene, current president of the association, earlier in the day told the convention that each generation must reassert and prove its right to freedom.

She said in her keynote address that "we cannot inherit the blessings of freedom without assuming the corresponding responsibility."

"There is a path for every citizen," she said, "and we do less than we should unless we do all we can."

The convention continues through tomorrow when Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, is scheduled to be the principal speaker.

Mrs. Paul Allison of Fort Worth was named Texas' outstanding young clubwoman at the dinner last night.

Citations for outstanding club leadership went to Mrs. Claude Riley, Victoria, and Mrs. J. L. Ginnings, Pilot Point.

Delegates voted to change their annual convention from November to spring.

Not Expecting A Third War

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—British historian Arnold J. Toynbee does not expect a third world war involving the United States and Soviet Russia.

The research professor in international history at the University of London said in an interview last night that he looks for the present "cold war" between the West and Russia to continue "for a long time" with no "sensational ending."

Toynbee, here to address the autumn meeting of the American Philosophical Society, said, "We ought not be frightened by the competition. We ought to persuade the world that the West is better."

Actress Plans Divorce Suit In Switzerland

HOLLYWOOD, (AP)—A spokesman for actress Rhonda Fleming says she will go to Switzerland next week to obtain a divorce from Dr. Lewis V. Morrill, whom she married in 1952.

Miss Fleming, now in Rome, will meet the residence requirement of four weeks in Switzerland for the divorce and then return to Hollywood.

Federal Payroll Drops Again In September

WASHINGTON (AP)—The federal payroll continued to shrink slightly September, dropping 13,943 persons below August, a Senate-House committee reported today.

Total civilian employment in September was reported as 2,317,565, which was 84,245 less than the same month a year ago.

The Joint Committee on Reduction of Nonessential Federal Spending said the September figures continued a two-year downtrend.

Million-Dollar Search Starts For Full Answer On Cigarettes

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A multimillion-dollar search is getting under way to find the answer to this question: Are cigarettes guilty or innocent as a cause of cancer, heart disease or shortened life?

Numerous laboratories and agencies, here and abroad, are conducting it. The search will lead into strange byways.

It should in time produce enough evidence to give yes or no answers to the satisfaction of almost all physicians and scientists.

One phase is a research program by the Tobacco Industry Research Committee, starting with an initial half million dollars. This week its scientific advisory board, headed by Dr. C. C. Little, Bar Harbor, Maine, announced the first of six grants totaling $82,000 for research projects.

This advisory board says no one has yet proved a definite cause-and-effect relationship between cigarettes, cancer and heart disease. It has mapped a broad program to cover studies of humans and human lungs, smoke tests on mice, human habits jobs and geographical differences, the effects of inhaled smoke on animals' nervous systems, blood vessels and lungs, and to make analyses of tobacco.

The British tobacco industry has pledged $100,000 a year for seven years for research under auspices of Britain's Medical Research Council and the first installment has been paid. One Danish tobacco company granted $14,000 to a scientist for research with special reference to lung cancer.

The American Cancer Society, saying that "presently available evidence indicates an association" between smoking and cancer and heart disease, has just earmarked a special half-million-dollar fund for more studies on lung cancer.

This society is continuing its study to learn what happens to 180,000 men whose smoking habits are known.

The Veterans Administration and National Cancer Institute are making a similar study of smoking habits of 200,000 World War I veterans to determine any relationship between lung cancer and smoking.

In some laboratories, scientists are breaking down cigarette tars, trying to find any specific cancer-causing agent or agents.

If one were found, and proved—or strongly suspected—as a cause of cancer, it might be removed from cigarettes to make them safe.

Development or use of new types of tobacco, shown to be free of suspected agents, has been proposed.

Cigarette paper is being studied. If danger is found to exist there, that could be removed, or avoided.

In one human experiment, a New York scientist is having his skin painted with tobacco smoke extracts, to see if they produce skin cancers as tobacco tars have produced skin cancers in mice. His skin also is being painted with other chemicals which are known to induce cancer in animals.

He is relatively safe in this experiment, for any skin cancers which may appear could easily be removed in ample time.

The buildup of evidence so far has numerous well-known physicians and scientists either convinced or highly suspicious there is a link of definite danger in cigarettes, even though the extent has not been accurately measured.

To others, there seem to be serious loopholes in the statistics, or other explanations; in short, lack of sufficient proof.

Dr. Little, for example, says the TIRC's scientific advisory board of nine prominent scientists and physicians all "believe more research is needed. Not one says that cigarettes cause cancer—nor that it does not. We've got to be able to take any kind of evidence, and weigh it."

No strings are attached to scientists working under TIRC grants, he adds. The committee "will make no attempt to direct the administration of the project once started, to influence its course, or to control the results." The scientists are free to publish their findings and conclusions to inform the public.

Dr. Little says he would like to see answers sought to such questions as effects of smoking on the nervous system, whether there are differences in the nervous or other makeup of smokers and nonsmokers, or smokers of pipes or cigars compared with cigarettes. What makes teen-agers start to smoke? What kind of person may tend to smoke moderately or to excess? More tissue studies, more analyses of tobacco and its components also are under way.

One theory of cancer is that some cancers, at least, come only after years of irritation. This is one reason for suspecting smoking in lung cancer. But, Dr. Little asks, is this because of the irritation, or because the person himself or his body tissues have changed during the process of aging?

Time enters into the cigarette controversy. Some experts say the evidence is clear enough now; that in time they will convince others that this is so. The others say not enough facts are known; that in time the facts will influence or controvert the present evidences.

Research may bring such additional evidence — even lacking some incontrovertible proof of cause-and-effect action — to convince most of the authorities.

Certainly an energetic quest, going deep into various questions or aspects raised, could produce unexpected dividends of great importance in probably unpredicted ways. It could produce more knowledge about cancer or heart disease, not connected with any smoking aspect.

That could become one of the great, positive values from the current controversy.

Meanwhile, smokers can decide for themselves whether they agree with the experts who say cigarettes are bad, those who say they are not, or those who advise waiting for more evidence.

Demands Insurance

TOKYO, (AP)—A stationmaster on Japan's northern island of Hokkaido has asked the Tokachi-Shiboro Railroad to insure his life for $2,800. Every day going to work, he explained, he walks past bear caves.

Detectives Under Arrest

TIJUANA, Mexico (AP)—The entire Tijuana detective force, 27 men, was arrested last night on orders of Army Capt. Salvador Reyueltas Olvera.

Police said the arrests followed a statement by Raoul Casares that Tijuana detectives had taken from him $9,000 of the $10,000 loot from a Los Angeles robbery.

Dist. Atty. Leonida Miranda Bello said Casares admitted he and two accomplices took the $10,000 in a robbery in Los Angeles and deposited the money in a Tijuana bank.

When the men returned to get the money, Miranda Bello said he was told, three Tijuana detectives took $9,000 of the loot and told Casares and his accomplices to get out of town.

Casares was arrested in Mexico City and returned here.

No charges have been filed.

Second Husband In 10 Years Is Killed

WINOOSKI, Vt. (AP)—Mrs. Shannon Smith, mother of two small children, has been widowed by an Air Force plane crash for the second time in 10 years.

Her husband, Capt. Mahlon A. Smith II, 30, Sioux City, Iowa, was killed yesterday when he veered his Sabrejet plane onto a field to avoid landing in a thickly populated area.

In 1944, Mrs. Smith's first husband, Lt. "Ish" Abbott, disappeared in Florida while piloting a plane on a training flight.

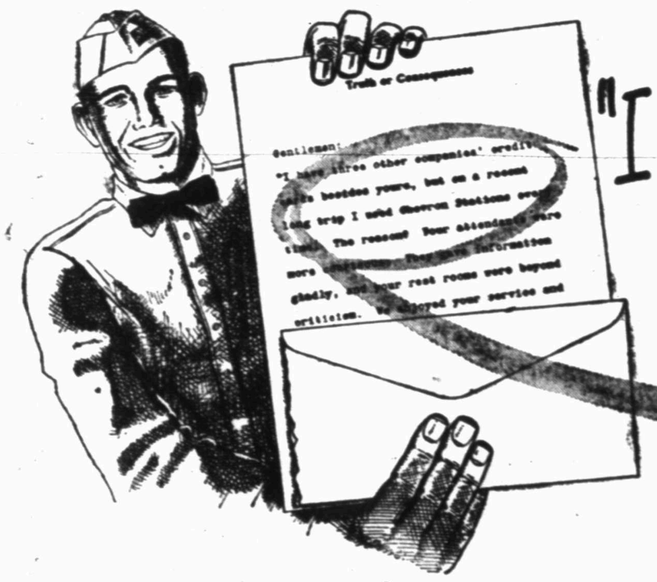

Jewelry Lost In Rain

CHICAGO (AP)—Mrs. Margaret Murphy opened her umbrella to keep the rain off her new hat and lost $1,700 worth of jewelry. She had forgotten she had hidden a watch and three rings in the umbrella.

Tigers To Try For Big Upset Tonight In Last Home Game

History repeats itself often, and the Snyder Tigers are hoping to use a page of early history for repetition tonight as they go onto the home field to battle the Breckenridge Buckaroos.

The history referred to here is not that of last year when the Tigers met the Buckies, although the Snyder team did itself credit even in losing to the Breck team 41-28. That history for which the reference is intended is the biblical story of the battle of David and Goliath. David, although Goliath had every advantage, used a neat trick and slew the giant.

Maybe that's what will happen here tonight. Few persons expect it. Even many Snyder fans, while they will outwardly say it can be done, inwardly take the position that even a team which has improved as much as has the Tiger squad has little chance with the football giant of the Class AAA gridiron.

But it is possible. As long as fans wish to look at the past, when Breckenridge ran up high scores against top teams, they might just as well view about three points in Snyder's favor. Plainview, which showed one of the poorest defenses the Tigers have met this season, held Breckenridge to only one touchdown for almost half a game. Levelland, which downed Snyder by a score of only 13-6 and which could have just as easily lost to Snyder, played a game in which Breckenridge had to hustle to tie. Big Spring, which finally ended up beaten badly by the Bucks, held the score to a 14-14 tie until the second half of the game. Big Spring failed to block well, and tackling was ragged in the game. Snyder's blocking and tackling has looked good for the last few games.

Breckenridge now leads District 3A-1 in standings in its last year in the loop. Three members of the district committee two days ago voted Breck out for next season when the school applied for re-admission. The team yet has three games to go, however.

Undefeated through this season, the Bucks have only the 13-13 tie with Levelland to mar their record. In other district games, they took Plainview 35-13, Lamesa 35-0, and Big Spring 35-14. Lamesa is the only team which has not scored on the Bucks this season. Before district play began, Breckenridge downed Wichita Falls 41-13, Brownwood 41-7, and Class AAAA power Abilene 35-14. That gives the Bucks a total of 235 points to 67 for the opposition for the season, an average of 33.5-9.5, and 118 to 34 in district play for an average of 29.5-8.5.

The Tigers downed Plainview 39-19, or by 20 points as compared to Breck's 22 points; Vernon 14-7, lost to Sweetwater 13-12, and lost to Levelland 13-6. In non-district play, they went over Ysleta 26-12, Bowie 19-0, and Thomas Jefferson 51-0. That gives them a total of 167 points to 64 for the season, an average of 23.8-9.1, and 71 to 52 in district play for an average of 17.7-13.

Breckenridge now has two of the district's top three scorers. Big Spring's Frosty Robison leads scoring in district and season play, while Clyde Harris and Jake Sandefer of Breck rank next in both categories. Highest Snyder scorers are Jack Spikes, Gerald Crawford, and Joe Baxter, who are in the upper scoring brackets.

The Buckies started the season doing little passing, but as the season progressed they began to pass more. Right now, they have a total of 203 yards gained passing in district play to Snyder's 180. They got that yardage on completion of eight of 21 passes, or more than 38 per cent. Snyder completed 9 of 21 to get it pass yardage, an average of 42.8 per cent. In season play, the Buckies completed 51.8 per cent, or 14 out of 27 passes, for 323 yards, while Snyder completed 42.5 per cent, or 20 of 47, for 449 yards.

Breckenridge leads district teams in season total offense with 2,629 yards. Snyder is fourth with 2,254. In total offense in district play, Breck ranks second to Big Spring with 1,499 yards. Snyder also runs fourth in that with 1,046 yards.

While Big Spring's Robison is rushing leader of the district, Sandefer and Carpenter are next in line. Sandefer has gained 385 yards in 38 carries for an average of 10.1 yards. Carpenter has 382 in 43 carries for an 8.8 average. Spikes ranks sixth in the district with 306 yards in 44 carries, an average of 6.9, while he is followed by Baxter, who has averaged five yards on 275 yards in 55 carries.

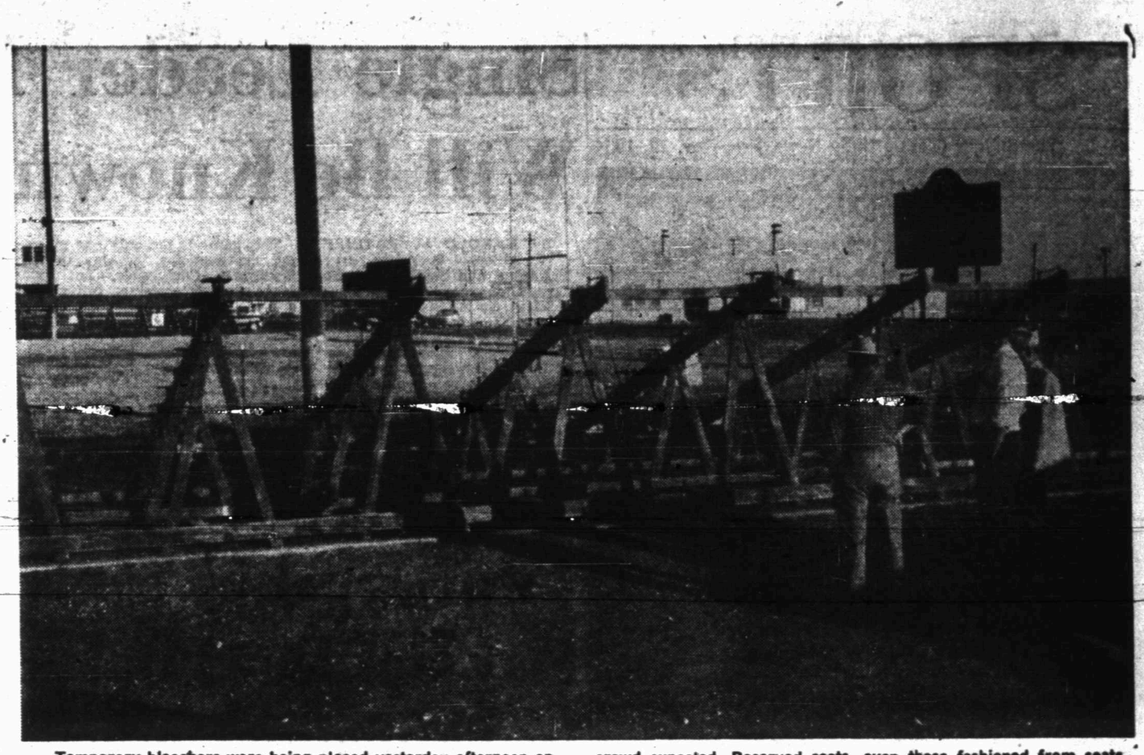

Snyder's Powell Berry ranks sixth in district passing with five completions out of 11 tries for 110 yards. Sandefer follows him with 98 yards on completion of his two passes. Bennett Watts, Breck quarterback, has connected for three out of 17 for 77 yards. Snyder's Bernie Hagins has four out of nine for 61 yards.

In pass receiving, Sandefer ranks fifth in the district with four catches for 89 yards. Harris is eighth with one for 73. Tenth is Baxter with two for 67. Other Snyder receivers in district play have been Jimmy Bennett, Alan Snead, and Don McNew. Milton Ham is another receiver.

Breck's line has been called the best in the district, while Snyder's forwards are called the most improved in the loop. Regulars along the Buckie advance wall are Sonny Everett and Tommy Beasley at ends, Jerry Cramer and W. L. Pevey at tackles, James Jones and Jesse Chaney at guards, and Jerry Payne at center. The line is not extra large, but it is efficient. Everett is the largest at 192, while Beasley weighs 183, Pevey 190, Cramer 191, Jones 190, Chaney 150, and Payne 157.

Along the Snyder line, regulars will be used as much as possible. Usual starters are Snead, 175, and McNew, 170, at ends; Frankie Minton, 230, and Norman Grimmett, 165, at tackles; Steve Blair, 155, and James Parker, 175, at guards, and Doug James, 150, at center. All of them have been standouts at various times this season on offensive blocking and on defense.

Breck's backfield has Watts, 150; Harris, 165; Sandefer, 157; and Carpenter, 156. Those are used practically all the time on offense. Snyder's backfield will have Hagins, 140, at quarterback; Baxter, 175, and Crawford, 140, at halfbacks; and Spikes, 180, at fullback. Jimmy Bennett, 155-pound halfback, and Berry, 155-pound quarter, are also used extensively.

Temporary bleachers were being placed yesterday afternoon on the Snyder football field in preparation for the overflow crowd expected tonight for the Snyder-Breckenridge game here. These seats will hold about 1,100 persons but will still not be enough for the crowd expected. Reserved seats, even those fashioned from seats ordinarily in general admission sections, sold out early this week. More than 6,000 persons are expected for the game. (Lee Watson photograph)

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

The crowd which is expected for tonight's Snyder - Breckenridge game points out one thing clearly: Breckenridge, if it is expected to have a good game, is one of the best drawing cards in Class AAA football.

What other time has Snyder had more than 6,000 fans coming to a game? Possibly none, unless it was back in 1930, 31, and 32, when the Tigers took the district championship three years in a row and regional title two of those years. There were not enough people in Snyder and its opponent town combined, probably, to make a crowd that large in those days, but the football crowds may have been that big in bi-district or regional playoffs.

That brings out the farce of District 3A-1 kicking Breckenridge out. Sure, there would have been nine teams in the district next year and an eight-game district schedule, but most of the schools, coaches, and fans in the district figured that would be okay for one year. About a year would be as long as it would have lasted, since one or more other schools are due to come into Class AAA next year and some kind of reshuffling will be necessary then.

Breckenridge has one of the best competitors in the way of a football team. Other teams, while they want to beat them, like to see the Buckies operate.

Another thought on Breckenridge — if another team cannot beat the Buckies, why shouldn't it try to improve enough to do so instead of wanting to get rid of the top team to eliminate competition.

As far as distance to games is concerned, that distance between Breckenridge and its opponent town, that would be of little consequence, since most teams in the district schedule non-district games with teams as far or father away. Snyder, Big Spring, Lamesa, Levelland, Plainview, and Sweetwater all had games this season with teams farther away than Breckenridge in their non-district schedules. Vernon is closer to Breck than to several other cities in the district.

As far as this recruiting business goes, it's all just rumor. Breck may be recruiting football players, but it is innocent until proved guilty and no one has proved anything yet.

Gail and Hermleigh each hold ties for leadership in their districts. Hermleigh will know after tonight whether it will go into playoffs, after meeting Trent in the last district game. Gail has two more games, one with Klondike tonight and one to go with Loop, while it is also watching Ackerly, the team with which it is tied for first place and with which it tied in a game.

New Boxer To Defend Win Streak Tonight Against Tiger Jones

NEW YORK (AP)—Hector Constance, one of the few new faces in boxing, hopes to run his unbeaten streak in the United States to three tonight when he faces rugged Ralph (Tiger) Jones at Madison Square Garden.

The lad from Trinidad, however, is an 8-5 underdog to the heavier and more experienced Jones.

The 10-rounders will be broadcast and telecast (NBC radio and TV) at 10 p.m., EST.

The rangy, 26-year old West Indian Negro, who has done most of his pro battling in England, drew with Johnny Brown and upset Cuba's Chico Varona in his two American scraps. The victory over Varona shot Hector into the No. 10 ranking among the welterweight contenders.

If he can beat Jones, he'll be well on his way to the top of the welterweight division.

Patterson-Slade Is New Match Made In Light-Heavyweight

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, 19-year-old light-heavyweight sensation and veteran Jimmy Slade of New York will collide in an eight-rounder Nov. 19 with the victor possibly earning a title shot at Archie Moore, the 175-pound champion.

The interesting match was made yesterday when Willie Troy of Washington, D. C., was forced to withdraw from the date with Patterson because of a shoulder injury suffered earlier in the week. Troy said he was hurt in beating Jesse Turner in Kansas City.

Slade is the New York state heavyweight champion and is the fifth-ranking contender among the big boys although he also is rated a top light heavyweight challenger.

It was Slade who defeated Tommy Jackson when he whipped the Rockaway Hurricane last April. In his last bout a week ago, Jimmy was outpointed by big Bob Baker.

Patterson has a 17-1 record, the lone loss being a split and controversial decision to Joey Maxim, the ex-light heavyweight king. Floyd can't fight more than eight rounds in New York until January when he reaches 20.

Ty Cobb On Hand For Big Festival

TYLER (AP)—Ty Cobb, called the greatest baseball player of all time, will be here tomorrow for the annual Shrine ceremonial and festival.

Cobb, now 68, who holds most of the batting championships of major league baseball, is an envoy of the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children in North America.

The festival is sponsored by Karem Temple of Waco with cooperation of the East Texas Shrine Club.

Some District Titles Are Already Won

By The Associated Press

The Ninth District champion was crowned last night to start off a crucial weekend of Texas schoolboy football.

Dublin beat Wylie of Abilene 19-0 for the Dist. 7 title in Class A to bring to six the number of district championships decided in this division. Previously determined were Jefferson in Dist. 14, Grapeland in Dist. 18, Grosebeck in Dist. 21, Sealy in Dist. 25 and Deer Park in Dist. 26.

Class AA has three champions—Littlefield in Dist. 6, Sulphur Springs in Dist. 14 and Waxahachie in Dist. 19.

Some 30 more district titles will be decided tonight and tomorrow night over the state, meaning that almost half of the districts will have kings when the final week of Class AA and A is run.

Classes AAAA and AAA will decide several champions this week although these divisions have until Nov. 27 to crown titlists.

Wichita Falls plays at Waco and Galena Park at Galveston tonight in Class AAAA games that can decide district championships. Waco can take Dist. 5 and Galveston Dist. 8.

Class AAA has one title on the line. Palestine can win Dist. 5 by beating McCallum at Austin tomorrow night.

The state's top games, however, match undefeated, untied teams. In Class AA it's Canyon vs Phillips for the Dist. 1 championship. In Class A it's LeFors vs McLean for the Dist. 1 title.

Southwest Freshmen To Clash Tomorrow

By The Associated Press

The also rans of the Southwest Conference freshman football picture clash Friday at Fort Worth when Texas and Texas Christian meet at Amon Carter Stadium.

The TCU frosh seek their first victory of the season after three straight defeats. Texas has one triumph against two losses.

Texas A&M moved into a tie with Rice for the leadership of the freshman race Thursday with a 34-21 victory over the Owlets. It left the teams each with a 3-1 record.

The A&M freshmen took a 13-0 lead in the first quarter and held it all the way. Kenneth Hall's two touchdowns led the scoring.

Upsets Possible In Border Team Tilts

By EDDIE LEE

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The Texas Western Miners and the University of Tulsa will be in underdog roles Saturday but don't be surprised if either or both come out on top.

They meet respectively the University of Arizona and Texas Tech who collided a week ago in Tucson, Ariz., with such an impact that echoes are still being heard. It was a bruising contest, literally, and both claim to have lost the services of several regulars for this week's action.

Tech emerged as the winner 28-14, taking a big step in defense of its Border Conference championship. It will play Tulsa at Lubbock in non-conference action this week, Houston at Lubbock next week, and Hardin-Simmons at Abilene in its final conference game Nov. 27.

Arizona meets the Miners at El Paso, Tex., before taking on Arizona state at Temple—the only other conference team unbeaten in league play—Nov. 20 at Tucson. The miners showed unexpected strength a week ago in knocking off Hardin-Simmons 20-7 and could prove rough for the Wildcats.

The biggest furor from the Tech-Arizona meeting centers around the play on which Art Luppino, the national rushing and scoring leader, was injured in the first period. Luppino will be back in action against the Miners. Arizona officials, urged to break relations with Tech, are studying pictures of the game before taking any action.

In the other conference game this week, West Texas State, Winner of only one game this season, meets an old rival, Hardin-Simmons, at Abilene. The Cowboys will be heavily favored, having won 22 of the 26 games in the series dating from 1921.

Arizona State's Sun Devils meet their fifth Texas opponent when they take on North Texas State at Temple. They have a 3-1 record, having beaten Texas Western, West Texas and Hardin-Simmons in conference games and been defeated by Midwestern. The Sun devils will be slight favorites.

Rounding out the week's schedule is New Mexico A&M's bid for its first victory of the season against Southwest Oklahoma State at Las Cruses, N.M. The Aggies have lost seven straight.

Neal Wilcox, end for Hermleigh, has been one of the Cardinals' top gridders on both offense and defense this season. Wilcox will be on the starting lineup tonight for the team at Trent in the last regular district game. Hermleigh is now tied for first place in its district and will probably go into state playoffs. (Lee Watson photograph)

Cards Go To Trent, Hobbs To Loraine

The last grid game of regular district play comes up for the Hermleigh Cardinals at 8 o'clock tonight at Trent.

The Cards, who are now tied with Loraine for first place in the district, in all probability will go into the state Class B playoffs.

Right now, Hermleigh holds a 3-1 district record, the one loss suffered to Bronte 19-18 last week. Bronte and Hobbs are tied for third place in the district.

Trent, although it has won only one of eight games so far this season, is still considered a possible threat. Its one win was over Bronte.

In season play, Hermleigh has a 6-2 record and has scored 211 points to opponents' 135, an average of 26.3-16.6. In district play, the team has tallied 121 points to 73 for an average of 30.2-18.2. Trent, in season play, has scored 78 points to 171 to average 9.6-21.2. In district competition, it has scored 45 to 84 for an average of 11.2-21.

Billy Mac Davidson still leads scoring for the Cardinals with 75 points, while Neal Wilcox has 36, Robbie Robinson 31, Wendell Goodman 25, Kemp McMillan 18, Richard Fritz seven, Jackie Roemisch six, and Clarence Stahl six.

In other games involving District 6-B teams, Hobbs will be at Loraine, Bronte at Rankin, and Robert Lee will host Richland Springs.

Hobbs, which now holds a 2-2 record, will be trying to take a win from one of the top teams in the loop. A win over Loraine by Hobbs would tie the two for second place and leave Hermleigh in first place alone.

Wyatt Drills Squad In Secret Sessions

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Secrets were a-making at Fayetteville Thursday as Coach Bowden Wyatt worked the University of Arkansas behind locked gates in preparation for Saturday's game with Southern Methodist—the clash in which Arkansas seeks a trip to the Cotton Bowl.

Every time in the past that Wyatt has turned the drills into a secret affair, the Porkers have turned up with a few new tricks. Arkansas is unbeaten in seven games this year.

Wyatt did say that it was another non-contact session. The small but solid Razorbacks haven't scrimmaged all week.

Other Southwest Conference drills were light also, except at Baylor, where the Bears took advantage of an open date this weekend to continue their program of scrimmages.

Bruin Coach George Sauer said the contact work would continue Friday as part of long-range preparations for the Nov. 20 meeting with SMU.

Texas Christian went through all phases of its play in a light workout aimed at putting the Horned Frogs at their peak against Texas Saturday at Fort Worth.

Newcomers Stanley Bull at fullback and Bill Alexander at right guard continued to familiarize themselves with their starting roles in the TCU lineup.

Second string fullback Jack Throckmorton and starting halfback Dickey Moegle were missing with injuries from a dummy scrimmage at Rice. Moegle, leading ground gainer in the conference, has worked only lightly this week after being bruised up in last week's Arkansas game. Throckmorton had a bruised shoulder.

The return of three crippled players bolstered both spirit and efficiency in the SMU drill, which emphasized timing on offense and a last-minute rehearsal of defensive strategy.

Fullback Hal O'Brien was reported ready for full-time service and ends Ray Berry and Doyle Nix were rated able to see at least some action Saturday for the Mustangs by Coach Woody Woodard.

Texas had only fair success in halting TCU-style plays run by reserves in a polishing drill at Austin. Coach Ed Price said further lineup changes might be necessary to put the Longhorns in top shape for the game with TCU, and indicated Joe Youngblood would be ready to go in place of injuried halfback Edward Hawkins.

Coach Bear Bryant, who praised Texas A&M earlier in the week for its spirit, changed his tune after Wednesday's workout and said the team "didn't accomplish a thing" in the direction of defeating Rice here Saturday for the first time since 1944.

Single Leader In Southwest Will Be Known This Weekend

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff

Arkansas and Southern Methodist capsule their season into one big game, Saturday and from their battle will come the Southwest Conference football leader.

An outright championship and the Cotton Bowl cash will go to Arkansas if it can beat SMU for the first time in eight years. A strong leg on the title will go to Southern Methodist if it can remove Arkansas from the nation's undefeated, untied class.

Arkansas for one of its infrequent times is favored to win and close out the championship race with a perfect record.

This game is the only one meaning anything for the day in the Southwest Conference, but two other contests matching bitter foes are on the schedule.

At Fort Worth, Texas Christian seeks to defeat its old enemy, Texas, after a 4-year drought. At College Station, Texas A&M hopes to finally "beat somebody" as it clashes with Rice.

Baylor, the other member of the conference, rests this week and hopes its Methodist friend, SMU, can topple Arkansas. Only in that way can Baylor hope for a share of the championship.

Crowds totaling more than 90,000 will see the three games with the best turnout at Fort Worth where 30,000 are expected to watch the TCU-Texas melee. Up at Fayetteville, where Arkansas and Southern Methodist have their showdown, there will be about 27,000 — that's all can get into the stadium. College Station looks for 25,000.

Arkansas has only to tie SMU to sack up the championship and make plans to visit the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1. SMU, which is a half game behind because of a 13-13 tie with Texas last week, can take over the leadership by licking the Razorbacks. Then the Methodists would have Baylor and Texas Christian to beat to win the championship. But should Baylor finish undefeated in its remaining games —with SMU and Rice — the Bears would tie Arkansas for the title. Arkansas still would be in the Cotton Bowl, however, since the Razorbacks beat Baylor in regular season play.

Arkansas is favored although it will be meeting the conference leader in both offense and defense. But the Porkers haven't been paying much attention to the stastistics this season — just touchdowns when the opportunity presents itself.

SMU faces the big game in a crippled state with its fine running back, Don McIlhenny, out of action and several other regulars nursing hurts. Arkansas is in top shape as it has been all season. It's homecoing at Fayetteville, harking back to the first homecoming Arkansas ever had. That was 32 years ago and SMU was the opponent then. Arkansas won 9-0.

The game pinpoints a duel between Duane Nutt, the SMU quarterback, and George Walker, Arkansas tailback, in the air lanes and the running of Frank Eidom of the Methodists and Henry Moore, the Arkansas fullback. It wouldn't be surprising to see the teams do a lot of passing.

Texas Christian and Texas will be renewing a rivalry that started away back in 1897. It has grown quite fierce with the years but it has been 1949 since TCU could win a game. This time, however, the Frogs are narrow favorites because of a better record. Texas hasn't yet won a conference game this season, a situation unheard of in the ranks of the Longhorns.

But texas hasn't been a pushover for anybody.

Coach Bear Bryant of Texas A&M has been predicting his team would beat somebody before the season was over. This is his next to last chance but Rice doesn't appear the team to make his forecast come true.

The record in the prediction league was perfect last week — three for three. Here goes for this week:

ARKANSAS-Southern Methodist—Should be a good game but Arkansas is the better all-around team: Arkansas by a touchdown.

Texas-TEXAS CHRISTIAN—Texas is organized for a fine effort but the choice is Texas Christian.

Texas A&M-RICE—The Aggies get nearer each week but still appear too far away to beat the Owls; Rice by a touchdown or so.

Two Surprise Teams May Get Bowl Dates In Saturday Games

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Staff

Two upstarts who dared not entertain any fanciful dreams in September can make dates for New Year's Day if things go right tomorrow.

Arkansas, the Cinderella team of the Southwest conference, needs only to tie Southern Methodist to clinch the league championship to the embarrassment of such powers as Texas, which was once regarded as an almost-certain winner.

Ohio State has shot to the fore in the up-and-down Big Ten race, and the No. 2 team in the country will seek to make Purdue its eighth straight victim and sixth in a row in league play.

The Buckeyes might get a real battle from Len Dawson and his aerial circus, but they're the favorites just the same. If Michigan State whips Michigan and Iowa drops Minnesota, Ohio State is in.

The Southwest Conference winner automatically is nominated as the host team in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas, while the Big Ten victor goes to the Rose Bowl.

The other Cotton Bowl team is The Pacific Coast Conference invited after the season.

representative in the Rose Bowl probably will be Southern California, through the courtesy of UCLA. Southern Cal plays Washington and should have no trouble.

UCLA, the No. 1 team in this week's Associated Press poll, is idle before tackling the Trojans next week. The Uclans played in the Rose Bowl last New Year's Day, so they are not eligible to return.

Another team that could see its bowl hopes enhanced or badly mangled is Georgia, currently leading the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs are undefeated but tied in league play, but they face a strong Auburn club and will be the underdog. The conference winner goes to the Sugar Bowl.

Meanwhile, there are numerous traditional games around the country, and even the ancient Ivy League could produce a winner. Yale, clubbed by Army last week, nonetheless is 4-0 in the league. The Elis play Princeton for the 77th time and could come home first should Harvard turn back Brown and Cornell get past Dartmouth.

Other big ones from a traditional standpoint include Pitt-Nebraska and Alabama-Georgia Tech.

Oklahoma, ranked No. 3 behind UCLA and Ohio State, plays Missouri, Nebraska's chief rival for the Orange Bowl bid. Notre Dame, No. 5 after Arkansas, will try to gain prestige at the expense of North Caroiina, while Army, the class of the East and No. 6, has a relatively soft assignment against Penn.

Frosh Take Big Spring Squad 8-7

The undefeated but once tied Snyder freshman grid squad had a narrow escape last night but finally came out winner over a Big Spring team.

The Snyder squad, coached by J. P. Ward, won the game 8-7.

Snyder scored about midway through the first period when Israel Hinojos carried 16 yards. Hinojos then tried to kick the extra point but missed. In the second period, Big Spring was backed up near its goal line and tried to punt. The punter was caught by Bud Morgan, Arnold Dorman, and Dwayne Merritt for a safety, giving Snyder an 8-0 lead at halftime.

In the third period, Big Spring got a drive started and, with the aid of two 15-yard penalties against Snyder, made it to the 10-yard line, from which it scored. The team ran the conversion to make it 8-7. For the rest of the game, the Snyder team held up well. As the game ended, Snyder was on Big Spring's 15-yard line.

Snyder drew 60 yards in penalties in the game to Big Spring's five. Defensively, the Snyder line held well through the game. Hinojos led ground gain, followed by Bobby Pollard. Morgan completed two out of eight passes for about 20 yards.

This brings the team's record to five wins and one tie. It will finish its season next week when it hosts the Sweetwater frosh at 7:30 o'clock Thursday night.

B Team Goes To C-City

The Snyder High School B grid team will go to Colorado City tomorrow night for its next-to-last game of the season.

The squad, coached by Jack Dillon, holds a 2-4 season record with 105 points scored against 129, an average of 17.4-21.5.

In a previous meeting with Colorado City, played in Snyder, the Snyder squad lost 25-19. Last week the team downed Big Spring, a team to which it had lost previously, 21-12.

Umpires Can Cool Off In Texas League

DALLAS (AP)—The Texas League will have no umpire-in-chief but it may have cooler umpires next season, according to Dick Butler, new president of the Class AA baseball circuit.

Butler, who arrived here yesterday to begin searching for space for the league offices, said he planned to be his own umpire-in-chief, and therefore planned to abolish the post created last year by John Reeves.

Umpires may wear dark shirts with no coats in the warmer months of the season next year, Butler said, if such policy is approved by the league owners. Umpires have gone coatless in hot weather in the National League for several seasons.

Butler said the league headquarters was being moved to Dallas Monday. They were transfered to Fort Worth during Reeves tenure as president.

The former president of the Class A Sally League said he was also in search of a secretary who could handle the routine business of the league office.

Before coming to Dallas, Butler visited with National League President Warren Giles in Cincinnati.

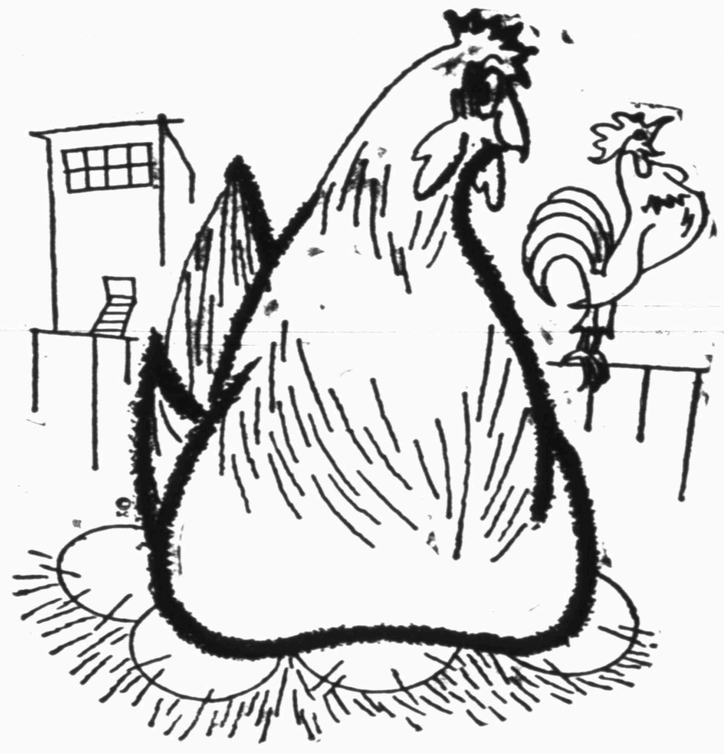

A 25½-pound salmon won a fishing derby in Eureka, Calif. It was caught by J. E. Fish.

CHURCH NEWS

Rev. Nelson Here To Begin Pastorate

The Rev. Jimmie Nelson arrived here Thursday to begin his work as first pastor of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church.

Rev. Nelson accepted the post at the local church several weeks ago, but his transfer here was delayed due to a course of study at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary where he has been working on his Doctor of Theology degree.

Rev. Nelson is a native of Wichita Falls and entered the ministry at the age of 17. He was ordained on Dec. 26, 1948.

A graduate of Borger High School, he attended Baylor University where he received the bachelor of arts degree in 1949. Subsequently, he received the bachelor of Divinity degree from Southwestern Seminary in 1952, and for the past two years he has been doing graduate work at the seminary.

Upon graduation from college, Rev. Nelson became pastor of the Lovelace Baptist Church in Hill County, and later helped establish the Rock Creek Mission for the First Baptist Church in Borger. For the past four years Rev. Nelson has been pastor of the Oak Grove Baptist Church in Fort Worth.

Rev. Nelson is married to the former Dolores Cate, and they have one son, Stephen Dean Nelson, two-and-a-half months old.

Mrs. Nelson attended Baylor University two years and received the bachelor of religious education degree from Southwestern Seminary in 1953.

The Colonial Hill Baptist Church, which is affiliated with the Southern Baptist Convention, was organized here last July. At present services are conducted in the West Elementary School Cafeteria, which is across the street from the new church's future building site. The schedule of Sunday services include Sunday School at 9:45 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m., Baptist Training Union at 6:15 p.m. and Sunday evening services at 7:30 p.m.

REV. JIMMIE NELSON

LeMoine Lewis, formerly minister of the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ, is to be among the 47 speakers appearing on the Harding College thirty-first Annual Lectureship November 15-18. Lewis has been associate professor of Bible at Abilene Christian College since 1949, and also served as minister for churches in Ardmore, Okla., and Brookline, Mass., before assuming that position.

Rev. Wooster To Be Speaker On Tuesday

The Rev. Roy D. Wooster, superintendent of the Baxter Springs, Kan., Apostolic Faith Bible school, will speak at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Apostolic Faith Church here.

In anticipation of the Tuesday service the regularly scheduled Saturday Bible study will be cancelled for this week only, the Rev. Jacob C. Regier, pastor, said. Mr. Wooster will be accompanied here by Jerry McClenagan, a vocalist.

SERMON TOPICS

"A Life of Triumph" will be the subject of Ted Norton at 10:45 Sunday morning at the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ. "Heaven and Hell" will be his sermon at 7 p.m. Sunday. Morning classes of the church meet at 9:45, with evening classes at 6 o'clock.

• • •

The Rev. Glenn Ricketts, pastor of the First Christian Church, will speak on "Proportionate Requirement" at the 11 a.m. Sunday worship service of the church. For the evening service, starting at 7 p.m., his topic will be 'Cure for Smallness."

• • •

"Requisites for a "Revival" will be the sermon of the Rev. G. M. Cole at the First Baptist Church Sunday morning at a series of revival services opens there. For the evening service, Mr. Cole has selected "Love's Victory Over Fear."

Norton Returns From Evangelistic Tour

Ted Norton, minister of the Twenty - fifth Street Church of Christ, is to return home tonight after spending more than three weeks in evangelistic work in Oregon and California.

Norton conducted a five-night meeting in McMinnville, Ore., a two-week meeting at Salem, Ore., and a 10-night meeting at Stockton, Calif. He is to arrive by train tonight, and plans to speak at both morning and evening services of the Twenty-fifth Street Church Sunday.

Preview Of Film Set By Methodist Men

A special preview of a new motion picture film is planned at the Methodist Men's meeting at 7:30 Monday night. C. C. Campbell of Ackerly will show the film, which is issued by the Board of Temperance of the Methodist Church. All men of the church are invited to attend the meeting and bring a covered dish for the supper to be served.

The Wedding Band class of the church will meet for a social program at 7:30 on Wednesday night, also in the fellowship hall.

Offering To Aid Koreans

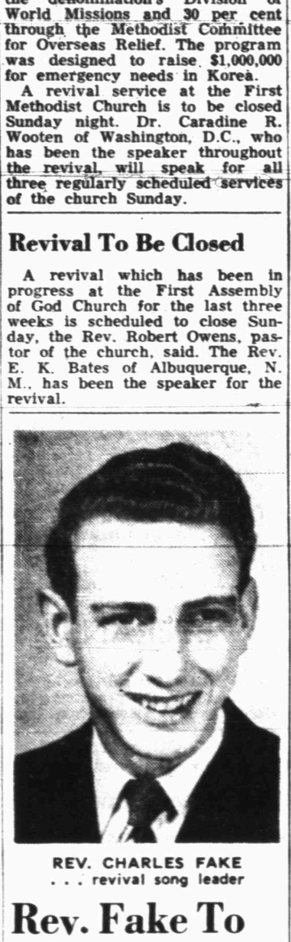

Offerings totaling $292.44 were received at the First Methodist Church Sunday as the congregation joined churches across the nation in contribution to the Bishops Appeal for Korea.

Members of the church were mailed letters explaining the project. Enclosed in each letter was a miniature rice bag, symbolic of the sacrificial offerings of rice which the Koreans themselves reportedly have given to re-build their devastated churches. Additional offerings may be returned to the church this Sunday. Seventy per cent of the receipts from the offering from throughout the nation will be administered through the denomination's Division of World Missions and 30 per cent through the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief. The program was designed to raise $1,000,000 for emergency needs in Korea.

A revival service at the First Methodist Church is to be closed Sunday night. Dr. Caradine R. Wooten of Washington, D.C., who has been the speaker throughout the revival, will speak for all three regularly scheduled services of the church Sunday.

Revival To Be Closed

A revival which has been in progress at the First Assembly of God Church for the last three weeks is scheduled to close Sunday, the Rev. Robert Owens, pastor of the church, said. The Rev. E. K. Bates of Albuquerque, N. M., has been the speaker for the revival.

REV. CHARLES FAKE
. . . revival song leader

Rev. Fake To Be In Revival

The Rev. G. M. Cole, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will be the evangelist for an eight-day revival opening Sunday at the church. The Rev. Charles Fake, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church in Lampasas, will serve as song leader.

Services are to be held at 7:30 p.m. daily during the revival. A stewardship study and prayer meeting is scheduled for 6:30 p. m. each day. The public is invited to attend the services, Mr. Cole said.

WSCS Circles Slate Meeting On Wednesday

All circles of the WSCS of the First Methodist Church are to hold a joint meeting at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday in the church's fellowship hall.

W. W. Park, city attorney, will be guest speaker, taking as his topic "The Legal Status of Women."

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the program.

Women who wish to enter subscriptions to "The Methodist Woman," may do so at the meeting.

Mrs. LaRoux To Lead CWF Circle Worship

Mrs. O. R. LaRoux will direct the worship for the Young Matron's Circle of the Christian Women's Fellowship when it meets at 9:30 Thursday morning at the First Christian Church. Mrs. Coy Rhodes and Mrs. Malven Stevenson will be hostesses. Mrs. Glenn W. Ricketts will lead the study.

Mrs. W. W. Milburn, 3821 Highland Drive, will be hostess for the Dorcas Circle of the CWF at 4 p.m. Monday.

Sunday School Class Has Meeting Monday

The Business & Professional Women's Sunday School Class No. 2 of the First Baptist Church met at the Manhattan Hotel Coffee Shop Monday evening with Mrs. Leona Weathers, Mrs. C. L. Nelson, and Mrs. Etta Bevers hostesses.

Turkey dinner was served 12 class members. Mrs. Jack Phillips gave the devotional, and Mrs. C. E. McGaw, class president, presided over the business session.

Officers Installed By Sunday School Class

Mrs. Collie Fish and Mrs. Dan Gibson were co-hostesses for a meeting of the Fidelis Sunday school class for the First Baptist Church Monday night.

Mrs. J. L. Crow directed installation of officers for the class. Lyman Wren was guest speaker for the evening. A short business session was also held. Nine class members and four guests attended.

Former Local Resident Dies In Accident

The 13-year-old granddaughter of Mrs. M. A. Sturdivant of Snyder was killed in an automobile accident on the outskirts of Lubbock last night. She was Myrhl Marlene Sturdivant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Clark Sturdivant, formerly of Snyder.

Funeral services are to be held at 3 p.m. tomorrow in the Twenty-fifth Street Church of Christ. The body is to arrive in Snyder late today and will lie in state in the Bolger Funeral Home chapel until the hour of services. Burial will be in Snyder Cemetery, with local arrangements under the direction of Bolger Funeral Home.

The girl was a car-hop at a root beer stand and went riding with the driver of the death car when she got off work. The driver was Patrick Laymon Massie, 16, Lubbock.

Investigating highway patrolmen quoted Massie as saying he was "drag racing with an Oldsmobile" and lost control of his 1951 Studebaker sedan as he attempted to pass another vehicle by driving to the right off the pavement.

Officers quoted him as saying he was doing about 100 miles an hour (which they doubted) and that the car skidded on gravel, crossed the four-lane highway in front of the car it passed, struck the raised center island dividing the highway, and began overturning.

The accident occurred north of Lubbock on the Plainview highway. The vehicles were traveling north. Officers said late last night they had not located the Oldsmobile. Driver of the car Massie said he passed was Pablo Perez of New Deal.

Besides her paternal grandmother and parents, the girl is survived by a brother at home, Randolph Sturdivant, and her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva West of Loraine.

Her family moved to Lubbock in June from Brownfield.
