Bi-District Game Between Tahoka And Littlefield Here On Thanksgiving Day

Tahoka Bulldogs, 1954 football champions of District 5-AA, play highly-touted Littlefield Wildcats. champions of District 6-AA, at Kelley Field today, Thursday, at 2 p. m. for the bi-district title and the right to advance in the Texas Interscholastic play-offs.

A Thanksgiving holiday crowd s expected to fill the stadium, with seats having been provided for 3,500 people.

Sell-Out Crowd

All 1,750 seats at Kelley Field in the permanent bleachers have been reserved, portable bleachers seating 650 have been borowed from Texas Tech, and bleachers seating 1,000 borrowed rom Reece Airforce Base.

Littlefield bought up the west tands a few hours after tickets went on sale there Monday, and alled for more tickets. whereon he portable bleachers were arranged for.

Tahoka was declared champion f District 5-AA last Friday night by reason of its defeat of Spur here 26 to 22.

Although Abernathy Antelopes claim a share of the crown by reason of Post playing Tahoka to 13-13 tie (which would have been declared a game lost by Tahoka on the penetration rule in case such was necessary to determine a champion); however, under Interscholastic League rules uch case is not necessary since Tahoka defeated Abernathy 26 to 18.

Injuries Hurt Bulldogs

Tahoka will be handicapped by an ankle injury to its elusive quarterback, Gordon Smith, who till is unable to run well but who played the full game offensively against Spur, and the driving Halfback Jerry Williams, who is still handicapped by injuries to both knees. Otherwise, he Bulldogs will possibly be in better shape than for any game ince early season.

Though Littlefield is favored to win, the lighter Bulldogs have o great fear of the highly-publized team from Lamb county and from a school twice the size of Tahoka's.

Tahoka played its opening game with Littlefield here earlier his season and lost 28 to 13, but he Bulldogs still feel they could ave won that game.

Could Be Upset

Littlefield was playng its second game; Tahoka its first, and he Bulldogs lost the ball three imes on fumbles, each of which he Wildcats turned into scores. he first score came on a fumble ecovery and two passes to End

Tahoka Hunting For More Water

City of Tahoka has recently drilled two fairly good wells in its water field north of town, according to Albert Curry, a member of the City Council. He says they will possibly be four-inch wells.

A well has also been drilled at the City Park in South Tahoka, but this one has not yet been tested. This well was drilled as an experiment, Pat Hines, water superintendent said.

Last summer, Tahoka came very close to running short on water. The wells north of town, under heavy pumping, are gradually failing, Mr. Hines says. He thinks Tahoka may again be facing a water shortage in the near future.

Members of the Council have anticipated this possible failure, and for that reason have participated so far in planning the Canadian River project along with other Plains towns.

Drill Wells For Country Club

Drilling of water wells on the T-Bar Country Club site were started this week by Rebel and R. M. Thomas, who are contributing the drilling equipment and time to this part of the project.

If irrigation water is secured, only one or two wells will be drilled, but if water is not found in sufficient quantities for a medium irrigation well, then several small wells will likely be drilled and fitted with pressure pumps to water greens.

Albert Curry, Lester Strech, O. C. Elliott, and possibly others started work this week excavating for greens with a bulldozer.

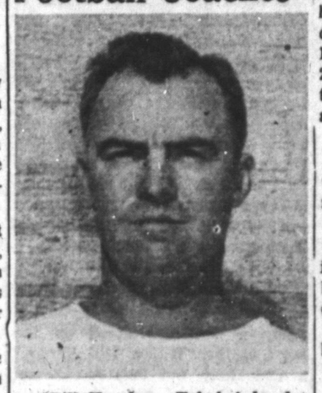

Several more people have signed membership blanks this week, but The News does not have the number.

Football Coaches

Bill Haralson, Tahoka's head coach, has done a wonderful job during the four years he has been here. In addition to winning three district championships in these four years, he has been a big influence in character building of Tahoka's boys.

Dean Wright, assistant coach, is here for his first year, but he has likewise been a wholesome factor in dealing with the boys, and to him a lot of credit is due for molding a fine line from a group of small boys.

School Chorus Gives Program

Tahoka High School's new 60-voice chorus, directed by Myron Gilstrap, presented the program at the Rotary Club Thursday noon of last week. The program was arranged by L. C. Haney.

In introducing Mr. Gilstrap and the chorus, Supt. Otis Spears said the local schools had for some time been seeking a combination band and chorus director and he believed they had made a good choice in selecting the new director.

Mr. Gilstrap has 44 girls and 16 boys in the chorus, and he declared they have made remarkable progress in the two and a half months the students have been singing together. He said they have been singing principally because they like to sing, and so far very little time has been spent on theory. He was highly complimentary in his words about the group, and after they had sung a variety of numbers. the Rotarians thoroughly agreed with him.

The program included, in order, Tahoka High's "Alma Mater"; "Sipping Cider Through a Straw"; a humorous folk song; "Wallie Wallie", an English folk song; "Little David, Play on Your Harp" a Negro spiritual; "Madame Jeanette," an a capella number; "The Rose of Trallee," and ended with "The Lord's Prayer."

Garland Huddleston and I. V J. Melton were guests as the Junior Rotarians.

President A. M. Bray stated there would be no meeting this Thursday because of Thanksgiving.

Mr. Bray presided over a club assembly Thursday night at the Legion Hall in preparation for the coming of the District Governor early in December.

Large Crowd At Meeting Of Men

Attendance at the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church here Monday night was larger than it has been for several months, including visitors from Denver City, Central Baptist Church east of Tahoka, Wilson, and Sweet Street, Tahoka. and possibly others.

Rev. Bradley, pastor of the Denver City Baptist Church, was the guest speaker, bringing a mesage that was pronounced very good.

Mrs. D. R. Adamson reports that her son, Cpl. Robert Dean Adamson, and Sgt. Jack Reed, both of Tahoka and both stationed in Germany with the Army, recently got together in Frankfurt, Germany, for a week end visit. Robert was recently promoted to corporal.

ODDS AND ENDS

(BY E. L. THE ELDER)

Well, in writing this column last week about Pentecost, we surely did get up into the Mountains, magnificent mountain scenery. That's what I love. I hope there will be a lot of it in Heaven, and that I may get there some day to enjoy it—no hurry, however. I think the Lord loves mountain scenery too—He made so much of it. In fact, I love all kinds of scenery, the magnificent and grandiose types, such as are to be seen in Colorado and the far Northwest in our own country and in our neighbor, Mexico, over on the other side of the Rio Grande; also the rustic and sylvan types which may be seen in so many parts of Texas. I love them. I was born and lived during my childhood on the side of a hill overlooking one of the most charming valleys I have ever known.

This valley extended from Eagle Springs and Whitson in Coryell county at the north, southward some twenty miles to Moffatt and he Ed Flint Ridge south of Moffatt and south of the lower course of Cedar Creek in Bell county; and from a range of hills running in a general northwest and southeast direction that defined the eastern boundaries of this valley and extended to and across the Leon River in the vicinity of The Grove and Moffatt, where it edged over into Coryell and thence swerved back into Bell county for its southwest corner at the Leon River south of Moffatt.

This may be utterly meaningless to you, dear reader, but many a man has stood on the crest of the "Widow Hill Range," a fine lady not related to me, and there raved over the beauty of the valley—Stampede Valley, that lay out before him. Likewise, as he topped the Pruitt Hill two miles further south, he raved again. Two miles still further South, on the side of the Vanderpool Hill, I was born and spent my childhood, where every day—not just occasionally—I looked out westward over the same valley, and I will never forget the beauty and the charm that constantly greeted my wondering eyes.

Within the scope of the section of country I have described lies practically all of Stampede Valley, and communities known as Whitson and Stockton Chapel, Buckhorn and Stampedo, the charming, and once popular community center known far and wide as The White Hall and a near-by thickly populated Negro school district which contained not only a Negro schoolhouse but also Baptist and Methodist Negro churches; a little further down situated on the banks of Cedar Creek was a White Methodist Church, and across the creek in the Ed Flint community at the south end of the section of country described was the Berea school-house, which had virtually taken the place of the old Bassell-Mosser community which had flourished in a little earlier day. When one got south of the Ed Flint Ridge or east of it, he was outside the bounds of the marvelous valley that I have just described.

That valley was more charming then, I think, than it is today, for then the artistic touch of the finger of God was apparent in every nook and corner of it undisturbed by the ruder and less appreciative hands of men seeking merely a livelihood. Numerous flocks of sheep kept the pastures and ranges as a rule cleaned of harmful and unattractive weeds, and left them as well trimmed and ss flossy, as it were, as a race-horse's silky, well groomed main and tail. And yet, in the spring, when the early grass and the flowers came forth there would be great areas of rich color phlox or binks, which we knew only as sweet-williams, and flaming fields of gaillardia, known to us only as "old maids," among which bald-faced and blackfaced bumble-bees flitted and buzzed gathering honey for their fence-rail homes or their grass-built nests hidden in the meadows. Boys and girls used to catch and imprison or even stake out the white-faced varieties, but woe unto the boy or girl who mistakenly captured one of the winged devils with no white spot on his forehead!

Most of this valley consisted of rich black-land soil and was treeless except for a few scattered mesquite bushes and stretches of timber consisting of oaks, elms, pecans, and a few cottonwoods and willows that lined the banks of Stampede, Cedar, Owl, and other small creeks in the area, and a much wider strip of timber that lay along both banks of the Leon.

Near the upper end of this section of the Leon is the Mother Neff park of today. The land was donated to the State by the mother of Governor Pat Neff and he had it converted into a public park while he was governor. At that point was an old crossing of the Leon, known from time almost immemorial as Halbert's Crossing.

The creation of that park was not so important an event within itself, but it stimulated interest in the matter of park-building and led to the creation of many other public parks in this state, some of them much larger and much more attractive than the Mother Neff Park.

Down near the south end of this section of the Leon River, Highway No. 36, beginning at Abilene and terminating and connecting with other highways at Temple, crosses the Leon a mile and a half north of Moffatt. Just above this crossing are the land-holdings of the Winkler families, who have lived in that area since Rover was a pup. One or more of the Winkler sons graduated at the Texas A. & M. College many years ago, and I believe one of them became a Professor for a while in that institution. Another one of them studied pecan culture, for there were numerous pecan trees on the Winkler lands, and soon after graduation at the A. & M. he established a pecan hulling and processing plant just above the river bridge and now he furnishes wholesale and retail grocers with their needed pecan upplies. He studied Bee culture too, and in connection with his pecan establishment he had a honey gathering plant, the bees working in glass cages within plain view of any visitor who may be interested or merely curious.

That area is a kind of bee-paradise, for the wild flowers grow there by the countless millions.

So, this gives you an incomplete picture of the local scenic area in which I spent my childhood days. My father had his own honey factory, however, and got badly stung almost every time he robbed the bees. For a long time, however, before he aquired his bee-gums, we kids lived on sorghum molasses. My father nearly always had a patch of sorghum cane back in those pioneer days, and we boys used to help him strip and cut the cane and then, as likely as not, go with him to Old Amos's sorgum mill. There Old Amos would grind it up, and then boil the juice into a thick but clear and palatable syrup. Old Amos was a good old negro who lived near the edge of the Negro community which I mentioned above. Old Heck also lived near by. Both lived back in old "slave" days, and nobody knew how old Old Heck and his wife Aunt Ann were. But both Heck and Amos were tust as "good niggers" as Old Black Joe ever was.

So that's the scenic valley in which I was born and in which I spent my early school days, an area of not more than 150 or 200 square miles. I spent most of it in a much smaller area than that, the Stampede school district. In fact, I was scarcely ever out of that school district until I was sixteen years old. And then I went away off to school— at old Salado, thirty miles away! And that is when the scope of my little scenic world widened quite a bit. There were hills and springs, and woods in Salado. There was a mill-pond in which rank waterlilies grew. Springs of srystal-pure water burst up among the rocks at the mill-pond's edge and flowed out into the scum and the trash that had accumulated during the years among the floating lily tops.

There was a suspension foot-bridge some seventy-five yards

All this—and more miles per gallon too!

Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflow Drive*!

MAYBE—among the upcoming crop of new 1955 models—there's another car with an advance that can hold a candle to this one.

But we doubt it. We doubt it because nowhere—among the rumors of what's cooking in automotive laboratories—is there anything to compare with what's actually happened at Buick.

It all started with the fact that modern air liners get two big advantages because they can change the pitch of their propellers.

First, they get off the ground hundreds of feet sooner than they used to.

Second, they can stretch their gasoline by setting propeller blades at just the right "pitch" for cruising.

So Buick engineers asked themselves—"If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil—the oil inside a Dynaflow Drive?"

And to make a long story short—they could, and they did.

They designed and engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflow Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

That provides one setting for more-miles-per-gallon, and another for an instant safety-surge of power when it's needed.

All you have to do is push the accelerator pedal down to the last half-inch beyond the full throttle position—and a-way you go!

Of course, there's a lot more to make a visit to our showrooms the "must" of the new-car year.

There's a step-up in styling as sensational as the step-up in power.

And the step-up in horsepower is this: 236 in the ROADMASTER, SUPER and CENTURY—188 in the low-priced SPECIAL.

Pay-off on progress!
Buicks today go a lot farther on a gallon of gas, thanks to constant improvement in Dynaflow and in engine design. Even the new 236-hp ROADMASTER averages 4.8 more miles per gallon than Buicks of six years ago.

But the thrill of the year is Buick's latest engineering "first"—and what it does for the man or woman who drives the latest and greatest Dynaflow Drive.

Buel Draper Has Come A Long Way At Farming

His brother-in-law, Fred McGinty, was the first to identify it, and Mrs. Sue Robertson was the first rural reader to report to The News. Others guessinig correctly included T. D. Dunlap Jr., Rush Dudgeon, Kent Gibson Mrs. Avis Buchanan, Mrs. T. D. Dunlap Jr., Mrs. John Tippit, Mrs. Fern Hillhouse, Elmer Sproles, Dan Carpenter, and Mrs. L. R. Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper have been living on this place about 20 years, but Buel rented the farm until 1945, when he bought it. They rebuilt the home shown in the picture in 1947.

Through hard work and the practice of good busness and good farming methods, the Drapers have made money farming and have acquired considerable property the last few years.

In addition to their half- section home place, they have acquired a half section which corners this one, 80 acres across the and about 480 acres of other farm land. Buel farms, in all about 2,000 acres of land and has 1280 acres of grass leased.

He started out as a share-cropper, but has weathered the depressions and drouths.

Buel came to Lynn county in 1917 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Draper, who settled at Midway. One year, Miss Vern Headstream came to teach in the Midway school. Buel says that's the one big mistake she made, for he met, wooed, and married her (1934), and she's had to put up with him ever since.

Mrs. Draper is active in Home Demonstration Club and other civic work. They have three children, Milt, 18; Joe, 16; and Nancy 14. They attend Tahoka High School, and are following in their parents foot-steps by taking an interest in farming and in 4-H and FFA club work.

Farm Bureau To Meet Wednesday

Plans for protecting farm and ranch families against financial hardship in case of illness, including cancer, will be discussed at a meeting Wednesday, Dec. 1, at the Court house in Levelland, Texas, according to N. E. Wood, president of the Lynn County Farm Bureau.

Farm Bureau leaders from Lynn and five other counties in this area will meet with Blue Cross-Blue Shield and Texas Farm Bureau staff members to plan increased participation of Farm Bureau families in the group hospitalization and surgical benefits program.

The state farm organization and Blue Cross-Blue Shield, a nonprofit organization, will conduct a concerted campaign over the state in December and January to enroll Farm Bureau families in the Blue Cross-Blue Shield program. The Texas Farm Bureau, with over 14,000 farm families enrolled in the group hospitalization program, is the largest Blue Cross group in Texas.

The drive has been set up in conjunction with the offering of the Blue Cross-Blue Shield C. I. E. (Catastrophic illness endorsement) to Farm Bureau members. The endorsement, which includes coverage for 11 dreaded diseases, including cancer, has not been available to Farm Bureau groups in the past.

It will be offered only during the months of December and January, Wood said.

Hub King of Brownfield, TFB director for District II, will preside at the meeting. The TFB will be represented by Field Representative Gene Leach of Lubbock. The Blue Cross-Blue Shield representative will be Walter F. Ehrhorn of Lubbock.

Edward Pool and David Massey each got their deer on a hunt near Presidio, in the Big Bend country, last week end. Bill Chancy and his brother-in-law were also in the party but failed to get a buck.

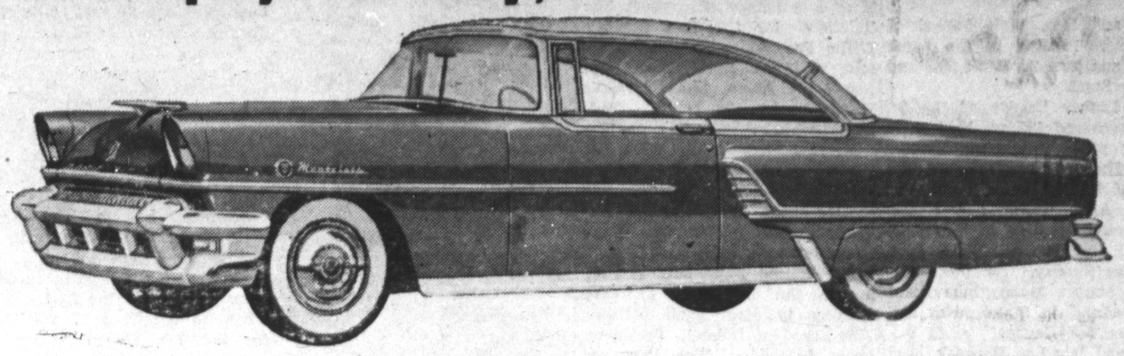

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill visted last week end with their son, K. L. Sherrill, at Burleson, and with Mr. Sherrill's brother and sister at Rising Star. Mrs. Walter Hammond accompanied them and visited her brother at Rising Star.

Tahoka Defeats Spur For 5-AA Title; Meet Littlefield Here Thursday

A crippled crew of Tahoka Bulldogs last Friday night defeated the Spur Bulldogs 26 to 22 to win the District championship and the right to meet the Littlefield wildcats, champions of 6-AA, in the bi-district game of the Interscholastic League play-off here Thursday at 2 p. m.

This was Tahoka's fifth championship in football; its third in four years that Bill Haralson has been coaching here. Tahoka won champinoships in 1951 and 1952

Tahoka took an early lead in the game, which it never relinquished, scored its first time in the first three minute and added a touchdown in each of the three remaining quarters. The local boys stopped Spur cold in the first half, and managed to stave off the visitors' second half rally sufficiently to ice away the game.

Although outweighed 34 pounds per man, Tahoka's line performed magnificently to open up holes for the backs and stopped the Spur attack two quarters.

All during the game Tahoka moved deliberately and surely, and Fullback Donald Blair played his gretest game so far, running a total of 124 yards and on three occasions bringing Tahoka from deep in its own end of the field. Jerry Williams did a fine job, running for 81 yards and scoring two TDs, in spite of both injured knees. I. V. J. Melton did a fine job likewise, always sure for a few yards. Quarterback Gordon Smith, his injured ankle heavily taped, was unable to run much, but he remained in the game on offense and did one of his best jobs of handling the ball, calling the plays, and also scored once and passed to Huddleston for another. Huddleston played another great game at end and carried the ball once for 63 yards. Franklin saw action on defense principally, as did Frankie Jones, Ware High, Ronnie Brooks, Bill Moore, and Guy Witt.

Duane McMillan, Jimmy Williams, Stanley Stone, Bobby Paris, Don Reed and Carlton Bell played on offense and defense.

For Spur, RHB Boyce Rankin was the principal ground gainer, reeling off 75 of his team's 164 yards running, while Fullback McAteer was held to 41 yards. Roberson was outstanding at tackle, Snodgrass at left end, and Sonnamaker as a linebacker.

Spur's vaunted passing attack was kept under control until the fourth quarter, when Rankin took a pass from Quarter back Alton Williams, the play going 61 yards for a score. Then, in the fading seconds three passes in succession paid off for the visitor's last TD, when several Tahoka reserves were in the game.

First Quarter

Tahoka won the toss, chose to receive, and Spur's on-side kick was taken by McMillan on the Tahoka 49. The local Bulldogs marched directly in business-like manner for its first score, Franklin making 3, Melton 6, Williams 2, Melton 10, Williams lost 1, then Smith, who carried only six times in the ball game, went for 8 to the Spur 23. A fumble lost one, and then Smith passed to RE Garland Huddleston, who took the ball at about the 10 and raced over. Melton's kick was blocked. Score, Tahoka 6-0.

Spur's Sonnamaker brought the kick-off 20 yards to the 44, McAteer made 6, then 1, a pass was incomplete, and then he punted 47 yards to Tahoka's 2, where Franklin covered. Blair and Melton moved out to the 20, where on fourth down, Spur's fine 215-pound tackle Gene Roberson, blocked Melton's attempted punt. The ball rolled into the end zone, and Melton some way managed to get on the ball among a host of Spur men for a safety. Score Tahoka 6-2.

Bringing the kick-off to the Tahoka 48, three plays made only two yards, and Morgan's punt went only 14 yards ont of bounds Blair and Williams made 7 to the 39, and then Melton kicked beautifully to the Spur 5. RE Billy Morgan brought out to the 20 but fumbled on a jarring tackle by two Tahokans, and Tackle Bobby Paris, playing a fine game, pounced on the ball on the 12. Williams carried to the 5 on two plays, as the quarter ended.

Melton made 2 to the 3 yard line, and then, on a keeper, Smith hit center for three yards and Tahoka's second TD. Melton's kick was again blocked. Score, Tahoka 12-2.

McAteer brought the kick out to the 46, Rankin made 1, Williams passed to Snodgrass for 8, and the three alternated in carrying to Tahoka's 31. Tahoka's line stiffened again, Rankin made 2, McAteer lost 1, Williams made 8, and Stone and McMillan hit McAteer for a one yard loss, and he ball went over on the 23.

Tahoka's Williams went 13 yards on a pitchout from Smith, and six more plays moved to Spur's 39. Here, Blair went around his right end, and with the aid of a stiff-arm, some good blocks by his team-mates went all the way to the goal-line, but stepped on the sideline at the 18. Then, Tahoka's third threat was stopped when Spur's Rankin intercepted Smith's pass on the 15 and brought back to the 29.

Spur then attempted to get its passing attack underway, one was incomplete, a fumble covered by Morgan for a 12 yard gain and a first, another was incomplete, one complete to Snowdgrass for 16 to Tahoka's 35, and two were incomplete as the half ended.

Third Quarter

Spur came back all fired up, Rankin brought the kick-off from the 15 to the 47, a fumble lost 3, hen McAteer made 18, and on he next play Rankin broke over is left tackle and went 33 yards c score Spur's first TD. McAteer converted, Tahoka 12-9.

Jerry Williams brought the he kick-off from the 21 to the 46, two plays lost 2, and then Spur's Snodgrass intercepted on the Spur 31. Snodgrass nearly got away on an end-around play, but Spur was guilty of clipping and the ball was moved back to the Spur 19. Two passes were incomplete, and then McAteer, caught Tahoka napping with a 65 yard quick kick that rolled dead on the Tahoka 16.

After Smith lost 4, Blair brought out for 18 and Melton 15 o the Tahoka 45. Here, on a tricky play, Huddleston ended up with the ball, going around his eft end and 53 yards before he was overhauled from behind on the Spur 2. Blair made 1, Tahoka was set back to the 6 on an offides penalty, Blair made 5, Williams 0, and then Williams hit he line for the third Tahoka TD. Melton's kick was good this time. Score, Tahoka 19-9.

Starting on its 42, Dunaway nade 17, Rankin 11, McAteer 3. Tahoka drew a five yard penalty and Spur was on Tahoka's 22. Spur gined 7 on a recovered fumble, then lost 1 on a fumble, Rankin went 9 to Tahoka's 8, and hen Jimmy Williams and Frankie Jones covered a Spur fumble on the Tahoka 3.

Melton made 2, and then Blair carried 12 yards to the 17, then 25 yards to the 42 to get out of dangerous territory. Williams went 6 and Melton 2 as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Blair picked up three for a first on the Spur 47, but then Smith's pitchout was fumbled and covered by Spur on its own 41. Rankin, Dunaway, and McAteer carried to the Tahoka 35, where the latter fumbled on a arring tackle and Franklin recovered for Tahoka.

Then, Tahoka moved slowly down field at 3, 4, and 5, yards a clip, with one 10 yard carry by Smith to Spur's 27 in three first downs. Here, Jerry Williams broke off tackle at a slant and out raced the Spur defenders 27 yards to pay-dirt to ice the game away. Melton's kick was good. Tahoka 26-9.

But Spur wasn't through. With 4 minutes remaining and the ball on its 40, a Spur pass was incomplete, Williams lost one, and hen passed to Rankin on the Tahoka 40 and he raced the remaining distance to score.

McAteer's kick was wide, Score, Tahoka 26-15.

Carlton Bell covered the onside kick-off on the Tahoka 48. Melton, Williams, and Blair moved to the Spur 42 (Tahoka set back once on a 5-yard penalty), and then Spur took over on a fourth down fumble on Tahoka's 29 with one minute left in the game. With defenders Williams and Smith out, Spur's Williams connected on a pass of 23 yards to Snowdgrass on the 23,, then for 20 yards to Rankin on the 6, then to McAteer in the end zone for the last score. McAteer's kick was good. Score, Tahoka 26-22.

Spur again tried the on-side kick-off in an attempt to get possession of the ball, but alert Duane McMillan covered on the Tahoka 48. Melton made 5 as the game ended.

Almost a capacity crowd witnessed the game.

Spur and Tahoka bands put on a colorful halftime show.

Honors Won by Texas 4-H'ers

HONOR Awards were received by 4-H Club members for their impressive records in the 1954 National 4-H Dress Revue, Food Preparation, Garden, and Tractor programs. An educational trip to the 33rd 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, November 28-December 2, was received by each teen-ager. Highlights of their club careers follow:

Production costs on the Kolter farm near Wichita Falls, have been kept low because tractor repairs have been minimized by son Bill, 17, who was awarded an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as a guest of Stanolind Oil & Gas Co., Tulsa, Okla.

Texas winner in the 4-H Tractor program, Bill has devoted five years to the study of tractor operation and maintenance. In this program, which emphasizes care—not repair—Bill has had full responsibility for keeping the family tractor in good running order, checking the crankcase daily and changing oil every 120 working hours. He adjusts brakes and cleans spark plugs. As a result, he has had only one delay in five years. He has been a Junior Leader in his club, assisting W. M. Morton.

Planning, selecting and preparing nourishing foods has been a challenge to Margaret Wendland, 15, of Robstown, during her six years in 4-H Club work. Due to her outstanding record, she has been named state winner in the 4-H Food Preparation program, and will attend the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as the guest of Kelvinator.

Margaret has cooked and served 2,656 meals, 1,094 dishes and 649 desserts during her 4-H Club career. She follows the Texas food standard. She has given 26 demonstrations in food preparation, 44 talks, appeared on radio six times and on TV once, and has written 18 news stories for the county paper. Mrs. Paul Wendland is her daughter's club leader.

Gardening, a favorite project with Carolyn Lindsey, 17, of Plainview, has brought her statewide recognition in the 4-H Garden awards program. Her award of a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago was provided by Allis-Chalmers Mfg Co.

For eight years Carolyn's garden has averaged one-half acre and profited the family to the extent of almost $2,000. Growing 15 varieties of vegetables and canning or freezing them, she has had much help from the family. She has finished high school and plans to go to college. Carolyn's club leaders are Mrs. Elmo Ellis and Mrs. A. J. Dnerksen, whom she has assisted as Junior Leader for four years.

The 1954 4-H Dress Revue award for Texas went to Lynda Sollis, 16, of Howe, who received a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as the guest of Simplicity Pattern Co.

Lynda won the award with a dark brown velveteen princess-lined jumper and matching short-fitted jacket lined in taffeta. Each piece is independent of the other but together make an attractive ensemble. The garment has slim lines, molded waist, graceful waltz skirt and brief jacket. She chose as her accessories a bittersweet velvet hat, brown velveteen purse, brown suede pumps, beige gloves, and gold necklace. The cost of her costume was $28.20. Her leader is Mrs. C. R. Grigg.

FOR A FESTIVE Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving is a day for family gatherings about the festive board . . . a day for turkey and fixins' and pumpkin pie. But, above all, Thanksgiving is a day to stop and think about a lot of things that we take for granted the rest of the year. Such things as the blessing of abundance, far beyond the rosiest dreams of our forefathers, who so courageously wrested a foothold in a New World. Such things as the blessing of freedom . . . for us not a distant hope, but an ever-present reality.

On Thanksgiving Day, let us humbly bow our heads in a prayer of gratitude to Almighty God for all that we have, all that we are, all that we can hope to be. Let us reaffirm our faith in our free way of life and solemnly pledge ourselves to preserve it unblemished for the generations still to come.

Beat the High-Cost of Hand Picking

with the NEW BOONE TWO-ROW COTTON STRIPPER

Fits More Makes and Models of Tractors than any other Mounted Harvester

NEW Sealed Anti-friction Bearings eliminate daily lubrication, reduce friction, increase efficiency and provide longer life.

NEW Full Floating Stripper Boxes are self-adjusting from 38" to 40" row centers. They are pivoted on the center of gravity, enabling the flexible pickup fingers to maintain sliding contact with the ground, gathering in the lowest bolls.

NEW Longer Double Stripper Rolls harvest taller cotton. There are no projections on the rolls to tear the cotton and reduce the grade. Smooth double rolls gently remove the cotton from both sides of the stalk, resulting in a higher stripping efficiency than is possible with a single roll.

NEW Design for Tractor Mounting makes the Boone easiest to install of all mounted strippers available today.

NEW Power Train with larger, hardened steel gears operating in an oil bath; high carbon steel sprockets; sealed ball bearings throughout; and separate slip clutches on each conveyor shaft, gives long life with low power requirements and minimum maintenance.

Mail Early For Christmas

Postmaster, W. E. (Happy) Smith today announced a three-point program designed to insure delivery of all Christmas cards and gift packages by December 25.

"I've found," he explained, "it's not enough to slap up posters all over town saying, 'Shop Early.' That's the main idea of course, but I'd like to be more specific."

Specifically, then, the Postmaster first urges business firms to mail their regular correspondence before 4:00 p. m. throughout the Christmas season. They can help even more, he added, by withholding all circular and catalogue mail until after the critical period, Dec. 15-25.

"This will leave elbow room at the Post Office to process the tremendous volume of holiday mail we'll be handling. I'm quite sure it will exceed the all-time record of 52,480 cancellations set here in 1953" the Postmaster warned.

Point 2, consequently, requires the public's cooperation. Begin

Bazaar, Pilgrimage Planned By Club

Tahoka Garden Club met with Mrs. Garland Pennington Tuesday, November 16. Mrs. Pennington and Mrs. Emil Prohl discussed the "Nine points of Flower Arranging." They presented three arrangements to illustrate.

Two colored films were shown. One was "Springtime in Holland" and the other on planting spring bulbs.

The club voted to have a Christmas Bazaar Saturday, Nov. 27, in the Lynn Theatre lobby. The gifts will be reasonably priced.

The regular meeting in December will be a Silver Tea in the new Home-Ec Cottage. This will be a night meeting and the theme will be, "Christmas Decorations on Parade." The flower show committee will have charge. You members come and bring your friends. The public is invited.

December is the busy month, but keep the date for the Christmas Pilgrimage open. The Social Committee will set a date for the Pilgrimage later.

Again let us remember the Christmas Bazaar, Saturday, Nov. 27.

MISS ONIA EHLERS AT COLLEGE IN SEGUIN

Seguin—One student from Lynn county has enrolled for the fall semester at Texas Lutheran College.

An all-time record enrollment of 432 was recorded at T. L. C. this fall. This figure marks a better than 35 percent increase in enrollment over last fall, and the first time the 400-mark has been exceeded.

Attending T. L. C. is Onita Ehlers of Wilson.

ly checking your Christmas card list this week. Each address should include the full name, street and number, city, zone and state.

After this, visit the Post Office to order the stamps you'll need. Lay in a supply of heavy wrapping paper and strong cord as well. Then there will still be a week left for leisure Christmas shopping—one New Year's resolution you can keep!

Finally, the Post Office itself has moved into a higher gear. Temporarary postal employees have been sworn in, delivery trucks overhauled and yes, all inkwells filled. So just do your part, and remember all gift packages should be mailed by December 5, all Christmas cards by at least a week before Christmas.

Sheltons Observe 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Shelton, Lynn county residents for 38 years, observed their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday from 2 to 6 p. m. with a reception for friends and relatives at the Legion Hall here.

About a hundred guests called in addition to relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Shelton were married in Hamilton county in 1904, Mrs. Shelton being the former Miss Lena Ansley.

They moved to Lynn county in 1916, and lived on their farm north of Tahoka until 1838, when they moved in to town. Naturally, they have many friends here, and many of them called Sunday afternoon to help them celebrate the occasion.

All seven of their children were present. They are: Mrs. A. W. Waldrep of Marfa, Milton Shelton of Santa Fe., N. M., Hynson Shelton of Hobbs, N. M., Mrs. Sterling Alderson of Slaton, Mrs. Preston Buchanan of Tahoka, Travis Shelton of Lubbock, and Marshall Shelton of Seminole.

They have nine grand children and two great grandchildren. All were present except two grandchildren, Jack Waldrep of Midland and Milt. Shelton Jr., in the Air Force at Oklahoma City.

The serving table was laid with a white satin cloth and centered with pyracantha berries and greenery. A silver coffee service at one end of the table, opposite a tiered wedding cake. White candles in gold candle-holders completed the decorations.

Mrs. Elnora Curry told the News that her son. Wiley Lee, stationed at Fort Bliss, El Paso, called Saturday to see how the Tahoka-Spur game came out. He said with him were Benny Brookhire, John Paul Lawson, and Billy Bert Stevens, all of whom recently entered the Army and all of whom are in the same "outfit" at Ft. Bliss.

Be sure your trip benefits you and not the undertaker long, perhaps, across the stream, into the art of crossing which, standing up, every newly-arrived pupil had to be initiated. It was great fun for the natives and the veteran pupils to initiate the recent arrivals and a period of of great fear and trembling on the part of the helpless victims.

Yes, and there was a grove of great trees in Salado near the Salado stream, under which some of us boys used sit in after-school hours and ponder and fret over that problem in Geometry or that sentence in Latin that stubbornly defied solution. Sometimes pretty co-eds would come along casting their bewitching smiles in our direction, but we boys were too bashful to cash in on their teasing invitations.

And just at a bend in the creek a couple of hundred yards further down was old Table-Rock, where the young folks used to have moon-light parties, but while I was in school there a flood tumbled the rock over and spoiled many a possible pleasant hour for many a love-lorn swain.

Away on down the creek was the long swimming hole, with a dim road following on the lower banks, but no female dared to pass that way on any Friday or Saturday night, for that was the exclusive domain of the boys on every week-end.

On the eastern outskirts of Salado, there is a very decided escarpment of wooded hills, and when the leaves on the trees in the fall turn into shades of many colors, I think the aspect is one of the most scenic and charming to be found in all Central Texas. as.

And then while in Salado and during the several years that followed, I had the opportunity to visit many localities in Bell and adjacent counties that I had never visited before: Killeen, and Nolanville, and Sparta, and Brookleaven, and Paririe Dell, and Bartlett, and Holland, and Rogers, and Reed's Lake, and Heidenheimer, and Cyclone, and Oenavil le, and Little Flock, and Little River, and other communities, some of which were very scenic, modestly speaking, and of course I visited Belton and Temple numbers of times. And so, during those years, my scenic world becoming quite cosmopolitan, I spread a great deal more. I was thought. I had even spent a part of one school year in Austin and had spent a day in San Antonio. I visited the Alamo, witnessed the Battle of Flowers, browsed around all over San Pedro Park, punched a jaguar in his cage and got my umbrella torn into shreads, never got lost any time anywhere in the Alamo city, found my way back to the I. & G. N. depot without any trouble whatever, and landed back in Austin safe and sound and in my right mind that night. Yes, I was beginning to know my way about. After that I began teaching school—or going through the motion—attending school, studying law occasionally, and finally getting a license to practice law.

That's when a new sort of life for me began. I hung out my shingle as a lawyer in Temple—my friend Tom Whitely and I. Well the years came and went but I didn't do much going for a long time. My acquaintance with the world's breath-taking scenery didn't spread much while I was prosecuting justice court cases and county court cases, and trying to thin out the "Blind Tigers" and the boot-leggers, and the reputed Ino and Uno venders down there in Bell county. So, I came west. During my first or second year at Rescoe, I was employed to go out to Sierra Blanca in Culberson county to represent a client who was in charge of a bunch of his father's mules on a ranch out there where he had been sued by a big merchant for a feed bill, who had attached the mules to secure payment. That was the first time I had gone that far away from home to represent a client in court. Sierra Blanca! If you have never been there you ought to go. We tried that case in the Justice Court the next day after I got there and had a "hung jury." Well, we had to try the case over. Everybody in and within twenty miles of Sierra Blanca, had heard that first trial, I guess, and the Justice of the Peace instructed the deputy sheriff to go up to the Guadalupe Mountains the next day and summons another jury. Well, I had an idle day or two in there when I had nothing to do but just wait.

The town of Sierra Blanca lies at the foot of Devil's Ridge Mountain, and so the next day I climbed to the top of that mountain, 5,300 feet above sealevel, according to the Texas Almanac. My scenic world was decidedly spreading. Old Sierra Blanca Mountain itself, some ten miles further on toward El Paso, attains a height of 6,950 feet, according to the Texas Almanac, while Guadalupe Peak is 8,757 feet high. My vision of the scenic mountain area of Texas had suddenly climbed and spread a lot. That was somewhere along about 1910 or 1912, but it was a long time before I flew that high again.

Really, the first breath-taking scenery that I ever beheld in Texas was Palo Duro Canyon not long after my Sierra Blanca trip, but that was not a mountain that I looked up to but a chasm that I looked down into.

In more recent years, as most of the readers of this column know, I have done a little more traveling and have seen not only some of the most magnificent cenery in this state or nation but also some of the most majestic mountain scenery in Mexco, with whom we are now cultivating more friendly and neighbomrly relations.

But I must now lay aside the subect of Mountains both in Mexico and the Holy Land, for I have just received another communication from Senorita Aurora Gutierrez of Mexico City offering nother "Article" for publication n this column.

Football . . .

Keith Davis, now in the backfield. The second came after a fumble recovery, six running plays and three passes, the score on another pass to Davis.

The Bulldogs outplayed Littlefield (8 first downs to 2) in the second half, but still scored only 13 points to the Wildcats 14. Littlefield's third touchdown was set up by a Tahoka fumble. The last came one play after a Tahoka kick-off, with "Rabbit" Vaughn scooting 43 yards to pay dirt.

Tahoka rolled up 11 first downs to Littlefield's 9 in that game, and made 125 yards rushing to the Wildcats' 117. The difference was in the fumbles and the passing, the Wildcats completing 9 of 16 for 167 yards, the Bulldogs 3 of 7 for 48 yards.

Coaches Bill Haralson and Dean Wright and the Bulldogs hope to throw up a better defense in this game. and are hoping to surprise the visiting team.

Wildcats Riding High

The Wildcats have a new coach this year, Gene Mayfield, a great quarterback at West Texas State the year it won the Border Conference and then defeated Cincinatti in the Sun Bowl.

The Wildcats are riding high on eight victories and two losses, their first really top season since winning the State Championship in 1949.

They run from the split-T, use pitchouts and a lot of deception, including the old end-around play, and pass a lot—anything to get some of their good runners in the open.

Seeing action in the backfield will be; Milton "Rabbit" Vaughn, 150, halfback, who can really go when he gets an opening; Keith Davis, 160, halfback, converted from an end, who can run and snag passes; John Clayton, 165, fullback, a good blocker and good on the short plunges; Dan Howard, 152, a good runner, field general, punter and an excellent passer. Other backs include Kippy Cutshall, 150, a good defensive man as well as offensive; Mike Greer, 150; Kenneth Griffin, 140; Ben Northam, 145; and Bob Orr; 170, a bull at times and the kick-off specialist.

Ends Bill Kenemer, 170, and Bill Fore, 160, can both catch 'em and also play good defensive games. Glen Richards, 200, and James Lee, 170, are the leading tackles; and Bobby Murdock and Buddy Rogers, 155 each, and Max Morris, 170, play at guard; and t center is Paul Yarborough, 150.

Bulldogs Out-Weighed

The Wildcats will out-weight the Bulldogs considerably, but hat does not worry the Bulldogs or they have beaten good teams his year that outweighed them as much as 38 pounds to the man.

The Bulldogs will field a pretty fair team itself. In fact, this year's team is one of the best balanced Tahoka has ever had.

Injuries permitting, Gordon Smith and Jerry Williams are likely to turn in some dazzling runs, as they usually do. Tommy Franklin is an equally fine ball carrier, although his shoulder injury has not healed completely; and Ted Pridmore plays at halfback well. I. V. J. Melton and Donald Blair, who can play either fullback or halfback, are top ground gainers. Melton is the "old dependable," and Blair has been improving with each game. Last week, he was the top ground gainer for the Buldogs.

At end, Garland Huddleston, formerly a center, will take care of nearly anything that comes his way, and Carlton Bell is handy at snagging passes. Stanley Stone is outstanding at the center spot.

Tahoka is well-off at the tackle and guard positions, with Duane McMillan and Jimmy Williams doing fine jobs at tackle.

Others in the middle will be Don Reid, Bill Moore, Ronnie Brooks, Guy Witt, and Ware High, one of the best defensive boys in spite of his light weight, Bobby Paris, Larry Simmons, and Leon Davis. Frankie Jones is another good defensive man.

This is the first bi-district game in Tahoka since Levelland came here in 1942 to take a 6-0 win over the Bulldogs.

And this will possibly be the biggest crowd ever to witness an athletic event in Tahoka.
