record Democratic runoff primary

Only Sheriff Claborn survives ballot charge of newcomers

L. E. Claborn Jr., was the only one of four incumbents to survive a winning surge by newcomers to Garza politics Saturday as a record turnout of 1,700 voters went to the polls in the Democratic runoff primary.

Voters also choose as their party's unopposed nominees in November Preston Poole for county attorney, Paul H. Jones for precinct 1 commissioner, and Ben G. Sanchez for precinct 3 commissioner.

Each of the leaders in the May primary went on to nomination victories in the runoff.

Down to defeat went County Commissioner Ozell Williams in precinct 3 who by the end of the year will have completed 14 consecutive years in office. County Attorney Carleton P. Webb who is completing his eighth year in office, and Commissioner, Jack Myers of precinct 1 who was seeking a second four-year term.

Sheriff Claborn, who is asking voters for a second term scored a 225 vote victory over Lloyd H. Merritt, his former deputy who also is a former Scurry County sheriff.

Claborn polled 949 votes to 724 for Merritt. The sheriff won seven of the county's voting boxes after the two were a 36-36 standoff in absentee voting. Merritt took only the Justiceburg and Graham boxes.

Poole rang up 999 votes to 623 (See Election, Page 8)

$22,000 damage as wind topples new 84-foot rig

H. L. Mauldin, local oil field worker, who was critically injured last Thursday afternoon when a sudden wind squall blew over the big 84-foot self-propelled derrick unit on which he was working at the 54-foot level, was reported apparently out of danger in Methodist Hospital at Lubbock Tuesday.

The 36-year-old employee of Ricker A Well Service here suffered a fractured skull, compound fractures of both legs, a ruptured spleen, and a crushed vertebra when he fell on top of the crashing rig.

Earl Chapman, vice president and general manager of Ricker A, told The Dispatch it first was feared that Mauldin also had a ruptured liver.

THE ACCIDENT occurred at approximately 4:10 p. m. last Thursday at the site of Carthay Land Company's Boren No. 6 well, located on the J. S. Boren ranch, eight miles northeast of Justiceburg.

Chapman said it was just beginning to rain and the sky was overcast with thunderclouds and with ground winds at no more than 20 to 25 miles an hour when a sudden swoosh of wind, striking well above ground level, toppled the big steel derrick and turned over its self-propelled unit.

He said Mauldin, who lives at 312 West 14th here, was working on the platform 54 feet above the ground. Crewmen told Chapman that Mauldin apparently jumped when the rig was at about a 45-degree angle coming down.

He hit right on top of the big derrick.

THE TWO OTHER members of the three-man Ricker A crew, George Greer, operator, and Bill Hall, floor man, were clear of the rig when it crashed and were not injured.

Crewmen immediately radioed into Post for a doctor and ambulance.

Dr. Harry A. Tubbs responded to the call and worked on the unconscious, injured man for about 90 minutes at the accident site before Mauldin was brought to Post by ambulance, Chapman said.

When the ambulance reached Garza Memorial Hospital here the physician conferred with Mrs. Mauldin and told her her husband wanted to be taken on to Lubbock for hospitalization and treatment of his many injuries, Chapman said.

A considerable crowd, estimated at more than 50, had gathered at the hospital parking area upon hearing in advance of the accident and were on hand when the ambulance pulled in.

Two physicians were waiting at the hospital to treat Mauldin and he neither sought nor was denied admittance to the hospital, Chapman said.

CHAPMAN SAID HE wanted to make this point clear. Some in the crowd apparently believed Mauldin had been denied admittance when the ambulance pulled out with him for Methodist Hospital in Lubbock.

Hospital Administrator J. R. Rickels told hospital trustees at their June board meeting at the hospital that same night that no admittance had been sought for the injured man and that two physicians, one of whom had made an emergency (See Oil Worker, Page 8)

Anybody got a good picture of one of those wooden windmills back used to be such familiar landmarks across the West Texas landscape in the early days?

St. Louis would love to have one of their new $14,500,000 museum dedicated to the development of the west (1803 to 1890). For the record, the 1803 date was the year of the Louisiana Purchase and 1890 was the year the U. S. census said could no longer find a frontier.

David D. Thompson Jr., chief research historian for the museum, in town for a few days with his family visiting with the Max Chaffin. He and Max were old "flying saucers" back East some years ago. David and Max were in the South office Tuesday and David's eyes nearly popped out when he saw just such a picture in this newspaper's 1957 Golden Jubilee edition. It was an old daughter ranch photograph so we asked him to get in touch with Max and try to trace it. He also called Mrs. A. C. Surman of the county historical committee to discuss such pictures with her. But anybody with such a windmill picture is asked to call Max Chaffin while the Thompsons are here.

David explained that the museum (the size of two football fields) is being built under a stainless steel arch which will be 200 feet high and 630 feet square at the base. The arch will be completed in 1965 and the museum in 1967. He reports that 80 per cent (See Postings, Page 8)

Directors of the First National Bank late yesterday afternoon promoted Fred Myers from assistant manager to the position of assistant president.

Myers joined the bank staff in 1961.

He is a director of the Post Junior Chamber of Commerce and a director of the Post Rodeo and Junior Rodeo.

He attended Southland schools and was graduated from Southland High School in 1937. He received a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Sul Ross College in the spring of 1961.

His wife, Anita, is a teacher in the Post schools. They have one son.

In another action yesterday, bank directors declared a 7 1/2 per cent dividend.

43 objectives listed on Chamber action program

The Post Chamber of Commerce has undertaken the biggest action program in its history with the approval at a special directors meeting in City Hall Monday night of 43 objectives for the current club year.

Five of the objectives are listed as "long range" — those which should be started this year but are too big in scope to complete within the year.

The other 38 are projects on which the Chamber is hopeful of getting accomplished this year.

Most of the objectives were taken from suggestions by those participating in the Chamber-sponsored Community Workshop in April.

Frank Blanton, Chamber president, has appointed all committee chairmen to get the big "action program" under way, and is now in the process of working with the committee chairmen to complete appointments to the organization's committees.

He said he hopes to be able to announce the completed committee list next week.

The five long range objectives of the Chamber, as approved unanimously by directors, leads off with the promotion of the proposed civic center, picked in the Community Workshop as the community's "No. 1 Need."

Under a special Civic Center Committee, the objectives reads: "Construction of a civic center

Site cleared for housing project

The Barker Construction Co. of Quanah has gone to work on Post's big 28-unit public housing project.

The site for 22 of the units and the project office has been cleared and bladed in Lincoln addition and alleys graded.

The rest of the debris from the old Lincoln grade school has been piled for removal.

Forms are on the site for the start of concrete work.

Construction is expected to be in full swing within a very few days.

Site for the other six units is on South Avenue F.

by city-county bonds in the city-county park, to be jointly operated by the city and county, and to include community facilities, kitchen, library and museum.

Assigned to the tourist development and publicity committee is "the development of a tourist promotion program for Post and area and continuing support of all regional and state tourist efforts."

The Chamber's aviation committee has been handed the essential long range objective of "obtaining suitable airport facilities for Post."

The industrial committee went to the final two long-range objectives: (1) A continuing effort to encourage Post's present industries in every practicable way, and (2) work toward the securing of an industrial site for Post to help attract new industry.

The 38 short range objectives, included in the program, under the committees to which assigned, are as follows:

Agriculture and Livestock

1. Seek to locate veterinarian in Post.
2. Activate program of support.

Floyd Motor Co. new Buick dealer

Guy Floyd announced today that the Guy Floyd Motor Company is the new Post area dealer for Buick.

He is adding the Buick line to his present lines of Pontiac and Rambler cars and GMC trucks.

Floyd's announcement ad appears on page 8 of today's Dispatch.

The firm plans to bring their first Buicks here from El Paso in time to put them on display Saturday.

Guy invites everyone to stop in at the company showroom Saturday and see the 1964 Buick.

Farm agent optimistic about Garza's cotton

County Agent Syd Conner was optimistic yesterday about Garza's cotton.

He said the heat wave and hot winds have helped more than damaged.

Most of the county's cotton is now planted.

More rain of course would be a big help, Conner said.

Mrs. H. B. Kennedy, 84, Garza pioneer, dies here Monday

Mrs. H. B. Kennedy, 84-year-old Garza pioneer, who lived at 602 West 11th, died at 545 a. m. Monday in Garza Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were conducted at 3 p. m. Tuesday in the First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Edgar H. Graham Jr., officiating.

Burial was in Terrace Cemetery. Mrs. Kennedy moved to this county in 1900, seven years before the county was formed, from Anson, Tex., where she had been married as Miss Maegle Elizabeth Robinson to H. B. Kennedy on Feb. 9, 1898.

She was born in Grayson County, Tex., Nov. 9, 1879, and had been a member of the Presbyterian Church since childhood.

Her husband preceded her in death by a number of years.

Survivors include four daughters, Edna McClendon of Post, Zella Huffines of O'Donnell, Katherine Rankin of Post, and Helen Faye McQuien of Plainview; one son, Pete of Post; nine grandchildren; one great-grandchild; two brothers, Bake Robinson of Odessa and Charlie Robinson of Haskell; and three sisters, Mrs. Mildred Dickens of Socorro, N. M., Mrs. Noel Barnett of Lorraine and Mrs. Lenora Hines of San Gabriel, Calif.

Rain solves water problem

Rain — ranging up to 1.2 inches in the northeast part of the county where it was needed the worst — last night broke the summer's worst heat wave, cheered cotton farmers, and temporarily solved the city's off-again, on-again water crisis.

Measurements in local rain gauges measured all the way from .70 to .95 inches. Arnold Sanderson, northeast of town, reported 1.2 inches. The official gauge on the courthouse lawn had it only .66 of an inch.

Mayor Harold Lucas, prior to the welcome showers, was prepared to issue a call today for homeowners to conserve all water possible.

He was not going to ask for a halt to all lawn watering, but just about the next step to it.

But the overnight rain changed that.

Over a morning cup of coffee, the mayor said that "a rain a week" would solve everything, as much as possible.

Water district in final land purchase

Sorry, White River Municipal Water District Manager Al O'Brien told The Dispatch here Tuesday — but the big earthen dam hasn't caught any water in the last week.

But Al did have something good to report. The water district now officially owns all the land at the dam site.

The Morgan Jones estate of Abilene signed the contract for sale of the biggest of the three dam site land parcels to the water district after final terms of the sale were negotiated out of court after condemnation proceedings were started.

The three land purchases give the district full recreational control of the big lake.

Federal aid possible for airport project

The program for federal participation in a local airport program was outlined here Tuesday afternoon to city officials and Chamber of Commerce aviation committee members by Bob Boswell of the Federal Aviation Agency office at Fort Worth.

Meeting with Boswell were Mayor Harold Lucas, City Councilmen Claud Collier and J. B. Potts, City Supt. E. A. Warren, and Chamber aviation committee members, Victor Hudman, Tom Gambila and James Dooley. Potts also is on the aviation committee of which Hudman is chairman.

Boswell told the group that the FAA will participate up to 50 per cent in small airport programs, including land and runway costs. Paved runways are not required now for federal participation.

A permanent airport for Post, possibly a joint city-county venture, has been under study here for some months.

Boswell came here at the invitation of the city to explain the government's aid program in the airport field.

We're teaching Johnny to read

The Post Independent School District—and the Post Lions Club which made it all possible—can be mighty proud of the fact that next year the Post schools will lead the nation in its scientific approach to education's No. 1 problem—teaching youngsters to read.

A boy or girl who cannot read acceptably cannot be expected to maintain normal progress in any school because so much of education is transmitted to the student through the printed word via text-books and reference material.

When the Post Lions Club gave the school a "reading eye camera" this spring that service organization opened to an alert school administration a real door of opportunity.

The "reading eye camera" will enable the schools to photograph each student reading, catch "reading problems" early, and to take corrective action.

The results will be long range, of course. It will show us best in students' overall progress five years from now.

Post will have the first school system in the nation to have a complete film record of reading speed, reading comprehension, and reading inadequacies of each student enrolled in the system.

It will take a year of real effort to secure the film library—but its value is almost beyond measurement.

Properly used, these films by conservative estimate will probably mean more to the boy and girl it aids than any single step taken in local education in a long, long time.

When one stops to consider that it will materially aid youngsters by the hundreds—in time for corrective action—to obtain a full education instead of only a sliver of one, parents can be thankful for the far-sighted community service of the Lions Club and for the imagination and enthusiasm of a school administration which is quick to put such a useful educational tool to work.

Our flag is freedom's symbol

Distractions beset us and it is a good idea occasionally for the sake of our personal and national sense of direction to reserve a time for taking stock. This country will observe Flag Day on Sunday, June 14, so let us continue, or renew, the custom of showing the colors and recall the ideals for which they stand.

Whether snapping in a stiff breeze or hanging in dignified repose, it is impossible to look at the stars and stripes without seeing reflected in them both the glorious past, and the future which can belong to the great country they represent. A nation's strength has no meaning unless its use follows the will of a people with pride and integrity of purpose.

Responsible individuals with the freedom to think, create and move to meet fast changing circumstances built the United States. A free society capable of spawning and encouraging such citizens will have the versatile strength to steer a meaningful course in this fast shifting world. The American flag has always flown above such a land—let's keep it so.

And, again this year, The Dispatch wishes to express its appreciation to the Boy Scouts for their year in and year out flag project. The Boy Scouts are the ones who see to it that your flag flies in front of your place of business on Flag Day and on other patriotic holidays. The flag project probably is the longest continuous project the Boy Scouts here have ever sponsored. Long may it wave!—CD

Talk of a high school track

High school sports fans will be glad to learn that there is talk out around the Antelope fieldhouse about the possibility of a running-track at the school in the not-too-distant future.

We understand the proposed project is no farther along than the early talking stage, but even that is encouraging. If the Post High School athletic program is to keep pace with that of other Class AA schools, then a track is a big need.

That the Antelope track team has not made any better showing than it has in district competition can be blamed on the fact that our trackmen have not had anything that could even half-way be called a track on which to practice.

It is possible, of course, to field a track team without a decent track on which to practice, but it makes first place points mighty hard to come by.

This smattering of talk we've heard on early plans for a track indicates that it could be constructed without a big cash outlay. In fact, we were told by one interested person that with the proper assistance, including public equipment, etc., a suitable track could be built at a comparatively bare minimum.

Our prediction is that when the time comes to ask for assistance on the project, groups and individuals will be ready and eager to help.—CD

Rodeo interest picking up

Those of us who have about reached the conclusion that rodeo interest in Post is dying a slow death can take heart from the extensive re-building and remodeling that is now under way at the Post Stampede arena.

One look at the work going on out at the arena should convince anyone that, instead of dying down, rodeo interest is picking up. Why else would the directors of Post Stampede, Inc. invest several thousand dollars in an over-all plant re-building and remodeling project?

The improvements at the rodeo arena will make watching this year's Post Senior-Junior Rodeo that much more enjoyable. The dates are Aug. 12, 13, 14 and 15.—CD

What our contemporaries are saying

The human race has come a long way since the days when whole civilizations perished because a river changed its course, but apparently ducks, fish and people still need water to survive. While the ducks still rely on instinct to locate their water holes, people have learned to direct the course of the river, which puts them to a lot of trouble, but, in the long run, saves a lot of time and enables civilization to settle down and figure out other progressive measures that require a basic knowledge of higher mathematics, such as how to reach the moon in a lifetime, and how to remember Zip Code numbers.—Frances Turney in The Dublin Progress.

COINCIDENCE? Saturday was Election Day and it was also the first real summer-like day of the season. Air-conditioners are popular again this week.

The Man up the Street says today's expert is any man who approaches a subject with an open mouth.

Someone has figured out for all us folks who dote on such information that 1961 was the last reversible upside-down year; 1881 was the last one before that, and 6119 will be the next reversible upside-down year. So, we might as well forget it.

I APPRECIATE the complimentary write-up I received in Sunday morning's Lubbock Avalanche-Journal for having served as presiding judge at the North Post election box, which came in earlier than most people thought it would. I assure you, however, that I had very little to do with it outside of serving as judge. The lion's share of the credit should go to the assistant judge, T. L. Jones, who is a veteran at holding elections, whereas I was, and still am, strictly an amateur at such things. Much of the credit also should go to the clerks, who were Mrs. Boone Evans, Mrs. Richard Vardiman, Mrs. W. C. Caffey Jr., Mrs. R. G. Wilkerson, Mrs. Jewel Graham, Mrs. Charlie Brown, Mrs. Neal Clary and my wife, Mrs. Charles Didway, who worked far and beyond the call of duty in contacting and securing the services of all except one or two of the other workers.

All the credit for any success I had individually in getting the returns in early is due Garza County Democratic Chairman N. C. Outlaw, who in a short session the day before the election briefed me thoroughly on steps to take to speed it up, including many short-cuts I'd never have thought possible.

THEN, TOO, WE had a much shorter ballot this time than the election judges and clerks at the same box had at the first primary election, and we didn't have the extra job of counting and tabulating the large number of write-in votes they had. I am thankful that I learned enough about holding an election Saturday to realize that no one should criticize election workers unless they are certain that criticism is justified. These men and women who conduct our elections have a big job to do and are taking on more responsibility than it might appear to one who has never helped hold one.

There are 190 million Americans, and to serve each 1,000 of us there are 12 doctors, 1.1 lawyers and judges, 4 gas station operators, 4 telephone workers; and to serve each 1,000 of us there are 13 Federal civilian employees. Uncle Sam's helpers are many.

OUR NO. 1 SON, who is a printer here at The Dispatch, says the fish recently deposited in South Lake aren't the only newcomers down there. He said he saw three large, strange-looking birds fly onto the lake Sunday afternoon and put the ducks to flight. When he got home, he looked through an encyclopedia and learned that the birds he saw were white pelicans. Did anyone else see them?

The publisher of a country newspaper retired with a fortune, it is said. When asked the secret of his success, he replied:

"I attribute my ability to retire with a $500,000 bank balance after 30 years in the newspaper business, to close application to duty, pursuing a policy of strict honesty, always practicing rigorous rules of economy, and to the recent death of my uncle, who left me $498,500."

Post navy man in Seato exercise

USS WESTCHESTER COUNTY (FHTNC) — Richard Deleon, seaman, USN son of Mr. and Mrs. Deleon of Post, Tex., is participating aboard the Navy tank landing ship USS Westchester County in a combined sea-assault and airborne combat training exercise called "LIGTAS" May 12 to June 10 under the direction of the South-East Asia Treaty Organization (SEATO) in the Philippines.

"LIGTAS", meaning "Saved" or "Rescued" in the Philippine language, is being sponsored by the United States and hosted by the Republic of the Philippines.

All member nations are participating in the exercise which is part of a SEATO general counter-offensive to be used if an "enemy" should invade South-East Asia and gain control. The exercise will test the effectiveness of the SEATO forces to assault and regain control of areas bend the "enemy" advance.

The operation is designed to train allied forces in the planning and execution of this type of assault. Closer working relationships and understanding among member nations is an important objective of this training.

"LIGTAS", the second training exercise this year and the 27th since 1956, is part of a long-term schedule announced by SEATO Headquarters in November 1963, to maintain joint military defense.

Boll weevil survey now under way for this area

LUBBOCK — The boll survey that is to be carried this summer preparatory to the "diapause" weevil control program this fall got under way June 2.

By means of intensive surveys this summer the cooperating agencies will be able to tell where it is necessary to spray the fall. And also, through the program it is hoped that more effective season control can be achieved, reducing the acreage it will be necessary to spray in the "diapause" program.

Final plans for the survey laid June 1 at a Lubbock meeting of representatives from the Plant Pest Control, Texas Department of Agriculture, Plains Cotton Growers, the Extension Service and Farmers Home Administration. Some of the things agreed upon at the meeting:

- (1) The Federal Plant Pest Control and the Texas Department of Agriculture will be jointly responsible for carrying out survey counties above the Caprock.
- (2) The Extension Service survey counties below the Caprock.
- (3) W. L. Owen, Extension Service Entomologist, Lubbock, made identification of all weevils from above and below Caprock.
- (4) The Extension Service Plains Cotton Growers will have joint responsibility for public

TODAY'S TURKEYS

Today's turkeys are a menu planner's dream, says Mrs. Gwen Clayatt, Extension consumer marketing specialist. The birds are meaty, tender, delicious and versatile. Fried turkey pieces, barbecued turkey, roast turkey, turkey salad, creamed turkey and turkey casseroles are but a few of the ways you may serve this economical bird.

GLASS CANNING JARS

Glass canning jars may be used for freezing most fruits and vegetables, except those packed in water, say food specialists in the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Glass jars made especially for freezing also are available.

FOREIGN TRADE IMPORTANT

Shirley Lee Bostick, John Bland nuptials read in Baptist church

Miss Shirley Lee Bostick and Joe John Bland exchanged double ring wedding vows at the First Baptist Church Friday, June 5, at 8 o'clock in the evening.

A. T. Nixon, ordained Baptist minister, officiated at the ceremony before an archway of greenery flanked by candelabras and baskets of white gladiolus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full-length gown of white imported nylon re-embroidered lace over satin and featured an scalloped neckline highlighted by iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The sleeves extended to wrists. The skirt, decorated with sequins and pearls, fell into a point in the back and into a chapel train. Her finger-tip veil of tulle fell from a satin pillbox hat with pearls on both hat and veil. She carried a white orchid bouquet accented with frenched carnations, Italian lace and white tulle streamers atop a white Bible.

Mrs. Charlotte York, cousin of the groom, was matron of honor. Miss Barbara York, cousin of the bride, and Carol Dee Hodges were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of frosted orange silk brocade featuring full skirts, wide scooped necklines. Their veils fell from large white roses. They carried white carnations with orange streamers on white New Testaments.

Arta Jane Nelson, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and carried a white lace basket. Sandra Kay Bostick, sister of the bride, was ringbearer, carrying the ring on a white satin pillow.

Danny Bostick, brother of the bride, and Miss Hodges were candelabers.

Bill Bland served his cousin as best man. Groomsmen were Danny Bostick and Billy Jack Hodges. Ushers were David H. York, cousin of the bride, Billy Jack Hodges and Bobby Beavers of Memphis, Tenn.

Miss Margie Harrison sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "One Hand, One Heart" accompanied by Mrs. J. J. Dietrich, who also played the wedding march.

A reception followed in the Community Room. The table featured the bride's colors of orange and white from which wedding cake, orange punch, nuts and mints were served by Misses Kathlene Smith and Reta Fern Jones. The centerpiece featured a bride and groom with the couple's names and the date amid a bouquet of white gladiolus and carnations. Baskets of gladiolus adorned the entertaining room. Miss Dianna Barron registered the guests.

The bride wore a three-piece suit of beige nubby tweed with toast accessories for the wedding trip to New Mexico. She added the white orchid from her bouquet.

The couple graduated from Post High School in May and are at home north of Post where Mr. Bland is engaged in stock farming.

MRS. JOE JOHN BLAND (Shirley Lee Bostick)

It's My Turn

— By MRS. C.

I thought I was having my leg were typical female reactions. pulled when the first call came into the Post Dispatch Saturday night for election returns and it turned out to be a man asking if we could give him the Lubbock returns. Having worked for three years, I have learned to think before answering, what to me, sometimes sound like stupid questions and while I was thinking this caller informed me he was just driving through and thought we might know how things were coming up there.

Surprise party honors Bartletts

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Bartlett were honored with a surprise party on their 30th wedding anniversary, May 27, in their home.

Hosts for the occasion were the Bartlett's daughters and sons-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Sanders of Rancho Cordova, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dale Wheatley of Lubbock and Barbara and Jimmy Bartlett of the home.

Mrs. Sanders baked a pedestal cake and iced it in pink and white decorations. Punch, coffee, and ice cream were also served by Barbara and Jimmy.

Special guests were the honored couple's mothers, Mrs. Laura Bartlett and Mrs. Thelma Kuykendall, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn C. Wheatley, and the Bartlett's grandchildren, Debbie and Patty Sanders, and Elizabeth Kay Wheatley.

After refreshments, the group enjoyed home movies.

Shower honors Barbara Shumard

A bridal shower honoring Miss Barbara Shumard, bride-elect of Marvin Britton, was held last Thursday at the Community Room. Sandy Yeach registered the guests, who were presented to the honoree who wore a yellow princess-style dress.

The refreshment table was covered with a white cutwork cloth and featured a miniature garden scene. A bride and groom under an arch were surrounded by flowers and palms. Yellow tulle streamers extended from the centerpiece with "Barbara and Marvin" inscribed in silver glitter. Miss Nita Wilson served punch and decorated cupcakes.

The hostess gift was an eight-piece aluminum cooking ware set. Honorees were: Mrs. Thelma Mitchell, Hope Robinson, Ella Weaver, Eva Britton, Sarah Strawberry, Adalia Wheatley, Laurel Warren, Ruth Martin, Mary Wilson, Pauline Mathis, Louise Brown, Daphne Howell, Jeanne S. Gilmore, Pearl Polk, Mary McCown, June Kiker and Sandy Yeach.

POSTPONE MEETING

The meeting at the Verbena Community Center will not be held this month but will be postponed until next month at the regular meeting.

So, all of you normal males should be extra kind on Monday mornings to those in our midst who might be "grousing" a bit more than usual on a bright sunny Monday morning. Buy 'em another cup of coffee.

Can anyone help me? I planted all these millions of nastur (and I'm sorry I even brought it up because I had to walk into another room and get a dictionary to see how to finish spelling the darn things) tiums and the plants are doing beautifully but not one single sign of a bloom has shown up yet. I thought anyone could raise nasturtiums, which is why I planted them, but I am having no luck at all.

All you green-thumbed gardeners harken to my plea for help because I bragged to Mr. C and the two Misses Cs about how beautiful our flower garden would look and all it looks is green.

When Mr. C called from the courthouse at 7:22 with the Pleasant Valley and the "north" post box results, I was almost disappointed that Editor Didway had "come" through so famously. I had spent the week teasing Charlie about the column I was going to write about him if he was a little late and had thought up several "clever" (?) little thoughts.

People have short memories though. I pointedly told all the early callers that Pleasant Valley and "north" Post were in and we were waiting on everyone else and no one seemed to be surprised enough to comment. Do you suppose that everyone just naturally expected Charlie and his workers to be speedballs?

Willie Scarborough over at the American Cafe called to see if Miss C (who can now be referred to as a column writer) and I needed food or drink "courtesy of the house" while madly answering telephones. At the time we said "no" but Mr. C and I took her up on the offer much later after we had dismissed our newest column writer for the night. Thanks, Willie.

We've become so used to going to The Dispatch office to answer phones on Saturday nights, I'm not sure I can adapt to the long lull until November.

Sav, wasn't it nice to hear the old fire siren Monday afternoon? For the first time since "the new sound" came to Post, I felt like the firemen were really going to a fire and not answering a disaster call. It will also lessen calls to the C home from anxious little old ladies who wanted to know whether to stay "put" or go "under."

Elsewhere in this issue there is an article about suicides in Texas and from it I gleaned this interesting bit of information. "The typical suicide appears to be a white male between 45 and 55, and the time of suicide appears to be between 7 and 11 o'clock on a bright sunny Monday morning." And, here I thought "blue Mondays"

No worries, no responsibilities! A lot of us would gladly trade places with Wendy, just to share that wonderful "joy of living" that children feel so often, and adults experience so rarely.

"But what is there to be happy about?" you may be thinking. "Maybe Wendy has no worries, but I certainly have!"

Perhaps we forget that this world is in God's hands . . . and that, with God, nothing is impossible. We wear ourselves out seeking human solutions to our problems, when Divine help is always available if we will only ask.

Try it. Try bringing your worries and doubts to God this Sunday in your neighborhood Church. Hear God's promise of guidance and comfort for all who will give their lives to him in childlike trust. And let the Holy Spirit fill your troubled heart with lasting joy.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

VACATION ADVICE

Here's a word of advice for vacation planners from the American Medical Association: Don't forget inoculations such as tetanus, typhoid and small pox—especially if you are going abroad. Diet is also important, and if the food is richer than you're used to, go easy on it. Don't take on too much activity and risk overtaxing yourself, and do take a comfortable pair of walking shoes.

Americans smoke more than 420 billion cigarettes each year.

Susan's Stuff

By Susan Cornish

For some reason I always figured that the old Cornish tradition of column writing would come to an end when I took over Chris's summer job at The Dispatch. However, unfortunately, it hasn't and here I am wondering how in the world the other C's ever write their columns. So, bear with me and maybe I'll make it.

Even though they don't have to write a column, it's sure good to see that Teddy Scott, Ann Hendrix and Buddy Howell are sweating it out just like I am. Yes, Teddy, Ann and Buddy are helping out their parents this summer, too.

I see Coach Greng has recruited another football boy. Dennis Odom has now joined the forces at the swimming pool. Nita Wilson and Carol Camp are teaching swimming lessons. (Gulp!)

Where this thirst for knowledge came from I'll never know, but Margie Harrison, Shirley Sappington, Arzan Robinson, and Diane Maxey all plan to spend their summer at Columbia Business School in Odessa. However, until then, Margie is working at Colliers along with Cindy Wilson and Lewis Heron.

Dicky Vardiman, Danny Pierce, Larry Osman, Tommy Mason, John L. Sutter and Jimmy Kennedy are all sticking it out together at United. From what I hear Larry is great at putting the wrong groceries in the wrong car. So, it will probably be a tough summer for Mr. Blythe and Mr. Osman.

Peney Thorn, who is now leisurely touring the countryside with an uncle, hopes to work at Lubbock this summer.

Just to make sure that things remain in tip-top condition, Barbara Britton, Cheryl Martin and Charlotte Young, are continuing their positions at Wackers this summer.

I'll bet Jimmy Williams, Robert Johnson, Kenneth and Neal Barnes are giving the new Piggly Wiggly manager, Curtis Christopher, a little grief this summer. I am sure it will be a mighty long summer for someone.

Fighting it out for the most business at filling stations this summer are Paul Walker at Elwood Wright's Texaco, and Pat Sullivan and Danny Odom at Lovell's Humble Service Station. It looks like Paul could use some reenforcing.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

On April 15 we finished one of the smoothest income tax filing periods in the history of our office. You, the weekly editors, have played a major role in our educational program. This year we asked you for special help on the sales tax table. You came through with flying colors.

Over the years we have asked you to print a lot of educational stories. You have responded to our requests. You have made "Tax Man Sam" a widely printed column. Spot checks have shown that weekly editors do an outstanding job for Internal Revenue Service year after year. During the 1964 filing period you have even exceeded your contribution in the past. May we simply say, "Thank you very much."

Sincerely yours,
Ellis Campbell Jr.
District Director

Marine Jerry Ray in 'Operation Pine Tree'

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA (FH-TNC) — Marine Cpl. Jerry A. Ray, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Ray of Route 1, Post, Tex., participated in an extensive sea assault exercise called "Operation Pine Tree" off the coast of Southern California May 20-28 while serving with Ninth Marine Expeditionary Brigade.

The exercise involved 20 ships of the Pacific Fleet and 9,000 Marines from the First Marine Division at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and consisted of direct assaults on simulated enemy held beach positions. Vertical envelopment, the flying of combat ready Marines over and behind enemy lines, was also employed.

Aircraft from the Marine Corps Air station, El Toro, Calif., and missile units from the Marine Corps Base at Twentynine Palms, Calif. provided support for the ground forces.

Have you ever seen 7,000 grown men cry? You'd think success would make them happy, but ever since Mustang came out, seven thousand Ford Dealers all over the country have been weeping and wringing their hands. They can't get as many Mustangs as they would like. All this would upset us, too, except it's happened to us before. You see, this was the hottest sales year in Ford Division history even before Mustang came out. At the beginning of the model-year, dealers couldn't get enough of our big, hot Super Torque Ford Hardtops (sales up 54%)...or luxurious Thunderbirds (sales up 68%). Falcon sales are almost as big as Chevy II and Valiant combined. Fairlane continues to be a leader in its field. So, even though some people would like us to put all our plants to work on Mustang, we can't let down our hundreds of thousands of Ford, Thunderbird, Falcon and Fairlane lovers. cent of the research has been completed for the museum and 70 percent of the designing completed for the exhibits. Thomson has been hard at work on the project for a year. He is a mighty interesting young fellow.

Editor Charlie Didway proved his "editorial point" in an unusual way Saturday in the runoff primary, as we reported to the Avalanche Journal for Sunday's paper, when he got the big North Post box count into the courthouse just 22 minutes after the polls closed at 7 p. m. Charlie, who was running his first election as an election judge, had written an editorial in The Dispatch just after the May election that something needed to be done to get the North Post tally of votes completed earlier. He didn't dream at the time that he would be asked to be election judge. Charlie says he got a real assist from a hustling election crew and from T. L. Jones, an old hand at local elections, who was in charge of the vote counting. We really goofed though in our story to the A-J. We reported Close City as bringing in the first box at 7:15 p. m. Saturday. It wasn't the Close City box at all—but Pleasant Valley's, where Clark Barton was the judge.

Jones was the easiest winner in the four county runoffs as he swept to a 689 to 280 triumph over Myers in the precinct 1 commissioner race. Jones "won it big" in his home box, North Post, 554 to 171 and also carried Close City and Pleasant Valley by big margins. Only in his home (Southland) box did Myers come up with a margin and it was a handy one, 54 to 10.

Sanchez, who held only a seven vote margin over Williams to lead a four-candidate field in the May primary, pulled away to a 24 vote victory in the runoff, winning 135 votes to 111 for the incumbent commissioner of precinct 3.

Sanchez took the all-important No. 9 (Two Draw) box, 122 to 88, to more than offset Williams' 19 to 12 vote edge at Verbena and 4 to 1 vote margin in the absentee voting.

In the only state runoff race, that for congressman - at - large, Joe Pool piled up a 1,100 to 384 vote margin over Robert W. Baker in Garza County in winning renomination by a good margin in statewide returns.

With the shorter ballot and no write-ins, returns were all in the courthouse within an hour after the polls closed.

Pleasant Valley was the first to report at 7:15 p. m.—and then came the surprise. The second box in was that of North Post, which was out all night in the May primary. It reported at 7:22 p. m. The final box, South Post, came in at exactly 8 p. m.

Chapman said the accident occurred when his crew was preparing to run tubing back into the well.

THE ROCKER A official, who was en route home to Post from Dallas when the accident occurred, said the new $80,000 self-propelled unit had been in operation just two weeks.

He estimated some $22,000 in damages to the rig plus damage to the rods and tubing being used at the well. He said the bent rods could be straightened.

A Hobbs, N. M., firm is repairing the big self-propelled rig and Chapman hopes to have it back in operation in possibly three weeks.

CHAPMAN POINTED out that if the big derrick had fallen "the other way" it would have crashed down on both his other crewmen as well as Pumper Jack Harris and three of his sons who were in his pickup with him watching the operations at the well.

The city reservoir was down to six feet of water yesterday morning after water usage jumped alarmingly Monday and Tuesday well over the million-gallon-a-day mark.

Consumption hit a high of 1,232,000 gallons Tuesday after 1,110,000 gallon consumption Monday.

Big lawn users were asked by the city Tuesday to stop their heavy watering.

The city is capable of putting only about 850,000 gallons daily into the reservoir. Any usage over this amount cuts the city's 1,420,000 gallon (day and a half) reserve by that much.

The temperature zoomed to the 102 degree mark here Sunday for the first century topping of the year. The high Monday was an even 100 with top Tuesday and Wednesday readings in the high 90's.

Dangers to U. S. cited to Rotarians

Bill Banowsky, minister of Broadway Church of Christ in book, in a talk before Post Rotarians at their Tuesday luncheon compared the "various levers" the wedge which today threatens American democracy with the big iceberg which sank the supposedly unsinkable Titanic.

"Most of our danger is not water but out of sight," he declared. Citing the five reasons given famous historians for the fall of Rome — confiscatory taxes, senescence of morals, brutalization, complete reliance on military might, and acceptance of religion as only a matter of convenience, Mr. Banowsky said these five dangers threaten the country today.

Hustling Tigers hand Dodgers 1st loss, 10-9

A walk, an error and singles by First Baseman Ron Hair and Second Sacker D. Vargas did the damage as far as the Dodgers were concerned in that winning rally. Ronnie Coppel pitched the first four frames for the winners and D. Vargas took the mound in the fifth and protected that final one-run lead by blanking the league leaders in the final two frames. It wasn't easy, however. The Dodger loaded the sacks in the bottom of the sixth, but couldn't get the tying run over.

Terry Cross pitched the first three innings for the losers and was the victim of the Tigers six-run outburst although four errors caused more trouble than that the single by O. Hair and the triple by B. North which highlighted the rally.

D. Dodson relieved Cross during the third inning outburst and then K. Josey pitched the final two frames.

Josey cracked a home run for the losers in the Dodger's big fourth, opening the rally with the round-tripper.

The Dodgers outthrew the Tigers, 11 to 9.

THE TIGERS PULLED out their 8 to 7 triumph over the Red Sox Saturday night with a bristling last inning rally which produced seven hits and five runs.

Going into the final frame, the Tigers were trailing 7 to 3.

The Tigers batted around in that frame with J. McKamie, their cleanup hitting catcher, making both the first and final outs.

But in between came a single by B. North, a double by D. Vargas, singles by both R. Hudman and J. Steizer, a double by J. Dooley and singles by R. Coppel and Ron Hair.

Earlier First Sacker L. Bilberry socked a pair of doubles to score one run and drive in another.

L. Bilberry then went to the mound in the bottom of the sixth and preserved the victory. Ron Hair hurled the first four frames for the Tigers and R. Coppel two before Bilberry came on and snuffed out the last desperate Red Sox rally after two runners were aboard on a force play at third.

MOREAU PITCHED hitless ball for the final three frames for the Local player to take Amarillo job with firm July 20

Scotty Pierce, probably the best basketball player to come out of Post High School, has signed to play ball for the Phillips 66ers in the AAU league next season.

The 6-7 center, who completed his collegiate career with the West Texas University Buffaloes this last year, will go to work for Phillips Petroleum in the Amarillo area July 20 and then will go to Bartlesville Sept. 28 when the Phillips 66ers begin cage practice.

Scotty is working on his second major in government this summer at West Texas U and will complete his studies at Canyon July 18.

Pierce, who was drafted by the Cincinnati Royals of the tough National Professional Basketball League, has told friends he felt he wasn't experienced enough for pro ball.

Scotty is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pierce of 116 West Fourth.

He ranked eighth in the nation in field goal shooting accuracy during his senior season for the Buffaloes and was the West Texas team's leading scorer and rebounder for the winter campaign.

His field goal percentage was a slightly over 51 per cent and he averaged better than 155 points per game.

Scotty is now a sturdy 225-pounder.

White Sox stay unbeaten here

Manager Ben Howell's undefeated White Sox, sponsored by General Builders, kept right on rolling in Babe Ruth League play during the last week with two more easy victories.

The only actual game played for the loop leaders was a 12-5 triumph over the Pirates in a Friday night makeup game of the first scheduled game of the season for the two clubs.

The other was a forfeit from the defunct Braves who are forfeiting the remainder of their scheduled games due to a lack of players.

Dennis and Duke Altman divided in the mound duties for the winners spacing seven Pirate hits. The White Sox wrapped it up in the top of the seventh with five runs without the benefit of a hit.

The two Altmans, Paul Walker, and Donnie Windham each collect-

Tom Patty joins Phillips cagers

BARTLESVILLE, Okla. — Tom Patty, 6-5 former Texas Tech basketball star, has joined Phillips Petroleum Co. and will play with the Phillips 66ers next season.

The exceptionally fast 200-pounder scored 26 points in a losing effort against the 66ers last season. For his collegiate career, Patty averaged 16.4 points a game, connecting on 45 per cent of his field goal attempts.

A native of Carlsbad, N. M., Patty missed a season and a half at Texas Tech following a fine sophomore season, due to ineligibility brought on by illness. He played forward for the Red Raiders, but his speed and ball-handling ability should qualify him for a guard spot with Phillips.

Phillips coach Bud Browning now has 10 players to start the 1964-65 season, including rookies Lou Skurcenski (Westminster College, Pa.); Ken Ryan (Loyola of the South); Tom Black (South Dakota State College); Darel Cartier (Western Kentucky); and Patty. Ray Carey (Missouri) will join the team following the fall semester of school.

Returning veterans will be Bobby Rascoe, Charlie Bowerman, Larry Pursiful, Tony Cerkenik and Ken Saylor.

Post team beats Skyliners, 6-3

David Nichols, pitching hitless ball for six innings, hurried the Post Independents to a 6-3 victory over the Skyliners in the NBS baseball league play at Lowery Field in Lubbock Saturday night.

John Valdez led the Post plate attack with a triple and a single. Art Whitaker was the losing pitcher for the Skyliners.

The victory gives the local club a 2 and 4 record in league play.

Post was scheduled to play the Reese Air Force Base team last night and will go against the league leading Hubbers at 9 p. m. Saturday night at Lowery Field.

"We will appreciate all the local support we get," Manager Royce Anthony told The Dispatch in urging fans to come up and back the Post entry in the fast semi-pro league.

adium wiring to go underground

Work was scheduled to begin next week on the summer project of a complete relighting project at Anelopo Stadium.

Barry B. Thompson said the contract of Southern Electric Company of Snyder had been reported to include underground wiring instead of pole-to-pole wiring.

The full amount of the contract was $10,000 with the condition that less than $500 in addition to the earlier low bid to specifications calling for overhead wiring. The lighting project is scheduled for completion by Aug. 15.

Earthen ponds, tanks furnish cheap stock water

By DOUG CUNNINGHAM
Soil Conservation Service

An every rancher knows, a reliable water supply for livestock water is a necessity. The most practical method of storing water in much of this area is by constructing earthen ponds or tanks. Many ponds in Garza County have gone dry in the past three months, others have gotten so low they had to be fenced to protect livestock. If you have ponds or tanks that are low or dry, you can readily see you need as far as livestock water is concerned. Now is the time to plan and put in water facilities that will be adequate for your ranch.

There are two general types of ponds which are suited to this area—dam type or pit-type ponds. The latter is better suited to a draw which has some natural depth.

Location is an important consideration in selecting a pond site. Ideally a pond should provide a central watering location for a pasture. The less cattle have to walk the more beef they will produce. Also this provides for better grass management through better grazing distribution. There are several other factors to consider in selecting a location for a pond, such as drainage area, type and depth of soil, and whether there is an adequate spillway, to name a few.

Government cost sharing on ponds for livestock water is available through the Great Plains Conservation Program which is administered by the local Soil Conservation Service office.

Restaurant Group's

Bill would legalize mixed drinks sale

AUSTIN—The Texas Restaurant Association, headquartered in Austin, is backing a proposal to legalize the sale of mixed drinks in Texas.

W. Price Jr., executive vice president of the 2,600-member organization, reports that a six-member committee of his group has drawn a bill for presentation.

TRA's bill would authorize local option elections on the sale, by food establishments, of distilled spirits in sealed containers of two ounces or less. Also it would extend the liquor curfew until 2 a. m.

Price said he has sounded out a number of legislators and found them enthusiastic. One of the most prominent members of the House of Representatives is expected to introduce the measure. Price, however, declined to name the sponsor.

Repeated efforts to legalize over-the-bar sales of mixed drinks have collapsed in recent sessions of the Legislature under the combined weight of opposition by united dry forces and church groups.

"This is not a wet-dry issue," said non-drinking ex-restaurateur Price. "Texans can buy anything they want to drink right now. All we are trying to do is make it convenient for a man who wants to have a drink served in a dignified manner at a nice restaurant to be able to get one."

Price, who is also secretary of the Texas Tourist Council, said he believes sale of mixed drinks "will definitely stimulate the tourist program in our state."

Furthermore, he estimated, the TRA bill would produce nearly $3,000,000 a year in new tax revenue.

A Moment With God

THE RESURRECTION

He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies. Romans 8:11

Luther's statement that the Holy Spirit "will at the Last Day raise up me and all the dead" is found in his explanation of the Third Article of the creed, not the Second. We forgot sometimes that it is the Holy Spirit who will perform this final, stupendous miracle. But this is in line with His function as the Giver of life.

Luther, in his treatment of the Third Article, distinguishes between "all the dead" and "all believers in Christ". For the latter the resurrection of Christ is a prophecy and pledge of their own. Indeed it is only because they have been incorporated into the living body of Christ that they have hope of eternal life.

So the church moves forward in time, confidently expecting the end of all things. One by one her members die and are replaced by new cells in the body. Whenever she lays the body of one of the faithful in the ground, she marks the spot, at least in the older cemeteries, with a stone, knowing that, as the stone was rolled away from the tomb of our Lord, so it will be at the last with the Lord's people. The Lifegiver will breathe on them again, and they will stand up, "an exceedingly great army." To make us sure of our place in that army, the Holy Spirit must keep us in this saving faith through the Gospel.

O Thou who didst raise our Savior from the dead, do Thou also raise us up to newness of life at the last day. Amen.

Suicides stand 10th in Texas as cause of death

COLLEGE STATION—The tenth leading cause of death in Texas last year was suicide.

This grim reminder comes from Patsy Reynolds, Extension family life education specialist at Texas A&M University.

"It's ironic in a time when we spend so much money and have made so much progress against dread diseases such as tuberculosis that suicides should outrank deaths from many of these diseases," the specialist said.

Records of the Texas State Department show that men took their lives three times as frequently as women. Ninety-six per cent of the suicides were of the white race, and the period from 45 to 55 years of age produced the most deaths.

These facts support national research on the subject. Miss Reynolds explains. The typical suicide appears to be a white male between 45 and 55, and the time of suicide appears to be between seven and 11 o'clock on a bright sunny Monday morning. He probably has a family, but few close friends. He may belong to a club, but the chances are he doesn't attend regularly.

Most people are not prepared to counsel with a mentally disturbed person who may be contemplating suicide. "Yet we can take anyone seriously who mentions suicide, and try to see that they talk to a physician, social worker, or minister. We can take time to talk to the person who doesn't seem to have a great many friends, and we can listen to their problems," the specialist said.
