

Well, well, here we go again on the same ole merry-go-round . . . better grab off what we can before the hoarders get it all. No outstanding cases of war-scare buying have been reported right here in Hico, but reports from other points, especially the cities, indicate that people are still as goofy as ever about buying up things they may never need. And if the worst comes, they'll probably be more worried about something else besides automobiles, tires, bed sheets and pepper. The shortages of the last war will not be the same items again, more than likely.

Come to think of it, though, it might be a good time for folks to pay up their subscriptions for ten or twenty years. Remember, print paper got scarce in World War II! Prospect will find us at the same old stand, ready for orders.

We can understand why people who moved out of the community years ago sometimes lose interest in the home paper and the people it talks about. The population has shifted to such an extent that the paper's present skipper, who has been here two decades, admits that he doesn't know as many as he should.

Even with this understanding, however, it is with regret that we note a cancellation of subscription for this obvious reason. This week we had two, one from a good friend at Anson who formerly lived at Carlton, and another from a fine lady who has moved to San Antonio. The latter thoughtfully adds, "Wish you the success in the future you have had in the past with your good paper."

How can we be successful without such friends? Or maybe, to take it another way, we couldn't do any worse than we have in the past.

There are usually compensations for such disappointments, and we always try to remember some of the outstanding examples of loyalty among our subscribers.

There are several who were on the list over twenty years ago when this editor arrived who are still prompt with their renewals—God bless 'em!

And there are others who still live here who swear by the paper and keep taking it whether it is any good or not. Like Uncle Bob Parks, perky older who was in from Fairy Tuesday to pay up again. Uncle Bob said he bought a copy of the first paper printed in Hico, and recalled very few instances where he hasn't read the weekly issues from cover to cover.

We really appreciate such true friends, not alone for their personal association but for their worth to an enterprise which is calculated to promote the interests of the community.

Last week we ran a silly little errand for Sim Everett, breaking the news to his cousin, Hal Sowell, that he owed him four bits difference on a renewal subscription. Sim turned in. This week Sim received a check for the balance, along with thanks to "a swell relative who likes to keep everything very Q. T. by just putting his financial statement on the front page of a widely read newspaper." He asked Sim and his wife over to Tyler to wait on the cat fish, which he said were really biting. "You know," Hal added, "you should have been with us that evening when we set our plane down on Cyrus King's pasture and tore down a hundred yards of fence before we got away."

"Boy Greenway is known far and wide as one of the most successful farmers in Texas." That is what Rufus Higgs told the world in his Stephenville papers not long ago. And the family's friends here will agree with that statement about former citizens, as well as being interested in the other things Rufus said:

"His operations near Valley Mills have been so widespread in recent years that his standing is about as high as any young man in all the country, at least as far as agricultural pursuits are concerned. While in Stephenville the past week he volunteered the statement that it was amazing to observe the wonderful improvement that Erath county land owners were making in their soil program endeavors. Coming from a person of Mr. Greenway's reputation this is not only heartening but encouraging. Our farms are actually coming back—and fast. The record corn crop that will be harvested this season is evidence of the fertility of our soil. And if the weevils and other insects will let us alone we will harvest another banner cotton crop this fall."

Speaking of outstanding farmers, the editor had one as his guest at the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday. Jewel Ramage, who finds time to enjoy life along with his hard work out at Black Stump Valley, turned the tables on Lion Paul Neel who is always pulling a prank on someone. Jewel told about Paul coming out to the Ramage Farm on business and staying for supper.

"Our visitor seemed to be doing all right by himself with the fried chicken," Jewel declared, "when the lights went off for an instant. When they came back on, Mr. Neel had both my hands in his plate, covering them with gravy."

NUMBER 10

Confession Obtained By Sheriff's Department On Recent Burglaries

Deputy Sheriff Cliff Tinkle reported in Hico Wednesday morning that a Brownwood man had confessed to a string of burglaries in the county, including that at the school building in Hico earlier in the year.

Tinkle said the 26-year-old man, Eugene H. Boydston, was arrested at Brownwood May 11, and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at District Court in Hamilton Monday in connection with a burglary at Reesing Motors in Hamilton. He was to have been returned to Brownwood Wednesday for trial on other charges.

The statement the prisoner is said to have given, a copy of which Tinkle had in his possession, read as follows:

"I, Eugene H. Boydston, being in custody of N. Y. Terral, sheriff of Hamilton Co., Texas, 'After being treated kind by the grand jury, the sheriff, county attorney, district attorney, all officials I decide to exonerate some burglary I did in Hamilton county. I knocked the safe in grocery store at Carlton, Texas, the one in Hamilton Pharmacy, one in Farmers Produce and one in the school house in Hico, Texas. If it was possible, I would reimburse the people for the money I taken, but as I have 5 years to do in state pen is impossible to repay the money."

Tinkle said Boydston stated that if he has the money at a later date, he will repay same.

Remodeling Is Near Completion On Rooms At Russell Hotel

Remodeling improvements on the Russell Hotel are nearing completion now, and the management hopes to have an opportunity to offer continued good service to its patrons. Mrs. Katrina Aduddell, who came here from Seagraves, Texas, several weeks ago, has assumed management and operates the hotel smoothly and efficiently.

Mrs. Aduddell previously operated two hotels in Seagraves, and is well experienced in the business, having done this type of work since 1934. She came here with her son, Jimmy, while her husband is attending to other business interests in Seagraves.

J. N. Russell, speaking for the ownership of the hotel, said, "We are very well pleased with Mrs. Aduddell, and with the new improvements we hope to bring the hotel up on a par with other modernized businesses in Hico." "In other words," he said, "we would like for it to be a place where your week-end guests will enjoy staying."

Outside improvements include a new roof for the building and new gutters in back to provide better drainage. Every room inside has been re-papered and painted to give a much brighter appearance. Screen doors were put on all the rooms and each room is equipped with a fan.

Mr. Russell said they hope to have an air-conditioning system for the entire hotel soon, but at present the fans are adding to the comfort of roomers.

Mattresses were added where needed, and now, he says, each bed has an innerspring mattress. New linoleum was put on the dining room floor, and the kitchen is in the process of being refinished. These two rooms are used as living quarters for the new manager.

With a completely remodeled inside, the hotel is much more attractive now, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell hope to reconvert the outside later on. This facelifting process is a continued effort on their part to offer better service. Other changes made previous to this included installation of private baths in each of the rooms on the south side of the hotel.

The J. B. Ratliffs Are Now Owners of Grocery and Market

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ratliff are announcing this week the purchase of Wallace Ratliff's interest in their grocery and market. Their son, Bobby, will be associated with them and the firm name has been changed to Ratliff & Son Grocery & Market. They will continue to operate the store in the same location.

The Ratliffs are well experienced in this line of work and plan to make new improvements all along. In an advertisement in this issue of the News Review they invite all former patrons as well as the general public to come in and let them "serve you with fine foods for your table."

A Final Message From ED FROST Candidate for Sheriff

TO ALL THE PARENTS OF HAMILTON COUNTY:

I take this means to contact you again and for the last time before election, I wish to communicate to you a little more on the subject of my interest in your children, should I be elected to the office of Sheriff.

I know that all parents are doing their very best to raise their children to make good citizens, realizing as I do, that the children of today is the framework of the backbone of the nation of tomorrow. Let us hope that you never have any trouble with your children, but as you know sometimes a child will get out of step to the point that you may need some outside help. Now what I want to emphasize to you is that if I am in the Sheriff's office I will be ready at all times to corroborate with you on any child problem. I have spent many years dealing with children and have been very successful.

It is my ambition to have the friendship of every child in the County, as well as your friendship.

Respectfully,

ED FROST
Candidate for Sheriff
"COURTESY AND FAIRNESS TO ALL"

Fairy

Mrs. Eunice Massengale

After a week of cloudy, rainy weather all are enjoying the sunshine again. High winds have prevailed the past several days. We have received three to four inches of rain since our last writing. We need more fair weather in order that farmers may resume farm work.

Friends and acquaintances here of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davis of Hico were deeply saddened when news was circulated of the tragic death of their daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Nonnie May Stephens and daughter, Joyce, who were killed last Sunday week in a car wreck. Mrs. Stephens attended Fairy school and is remembered here by many, who were saddened to learn of the tragedy. We extend deepest sympathy to all those bereaved.

Mrs. Jess Fulton has been in Fort Worth for the past ten days at the bed side of her sister, Mrs. Myrtle Lauderbach, who is seriously ill in a Fort Worth hospital. She is the former Miss Myrtle Cole of Providence community.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers attended church at Providence last Saturday night. Enroute, they went by the R. L. Cates home near Pecan, for a visit with Mrs. Cates who is ill, but on arriving, learned she had been returned to the Hamilton Hospital that day. We are sorry to learn she is not doing so well and hope she will improve sufficiently to be able to return home soon. She is the mother of Mrs. Dewey Sellers.

Mrs. Eunice Massengale and sister, Mrs. V. H. Heyroth, were business visitors in Gatesville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitaker of near Fairy announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Bobbie, to Ernest L. Crosby of Austin. Miss Whitaker is a graduate of Hamilton High School and is now a senior at Southwest Texas State Teachers College. She will receive her B. S. degree in August. Mr. Crosby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crosby of Austin. He is also a graduate of Hamilton High School and is now employed by Young Pratt Air Conditioning Company in Austin. The wedding will be an event of August 5.

We congratulate the Bobby Todds of Lubbock on the arrival of their little son, Floyd Dewaine. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Todd of Fairy and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Chaney of Spring Creek, who are also former citizens of Fairy. Mrs. Todd is the former Cora Nell Chaney.

Mrs. Eunice Massengale and mother, Mrs. A. L. Newman attended singing at Clairette Sunday afternoon. They were accompanied from Hico by Mrs. Dora Houston. They visited the Burks Bird Farm near Clairette after singing hours and also visited in the Oliver Burnett home in Hico before returning home. Mr. H. S. Pitts also attended singing at Clairette.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley and Lora Jane and Mrs. Blakley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. McCoy spent last Sunday in Fort Worth visiting in the home of their sister and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Lockett and other relatives. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Jacobs of near Dublin visited here Sunday in the T. L. Betts home.

Miss Jeanette Woods of Purves visited a few days last week with Misses Wilma Grace and Lynda Lou Goynes.

Mrs. T. L. Betts visited a few days last week at Meridian with relatives and friends.

A card received Saturday from our daughter, Mrs. D. E. Allison of Dublin stated she and family were in Houston enjoying a few days vacation visiting with old friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers carried their little son, Jimmie Don to Waco last week for a check up and placed him under the care of Dr. Hipps, bone specialist, who advised a change in the baby's leg brace, to a spring type brace, which they left an order to have made. The baby suffered an attack of polio last November which left the right leg from the knee down in a very weakened condition. We hope the new type brace will give more protection and strength to the injured limb. Jimmie Don will be two years old on July 30th.

Misses Raymona and Martha Hancock of Purves spent the week end with Wilma Grace and Lynda Lou Goynes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cunningham and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cunningham spent Sunday in Fort Worth. They were joined by the daughters and families of the W. E. Cunninghams. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Prinz and baby of Fort Worth and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Frederick of Venus at the city park where they enjoyed a picnic lunch. Mrs. W. E. Cunningham remained for a visit this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Prinz. Sherry Cunningham has been visiting there for the past week. W. E., who gave us the news item says he can cook better than he can write.

Mrs. W. E. Goynes attended a district meeting of The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church at Purves Monday.

Walter Porterfield announces the arrival of a new grandson, born to his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Porterfield of Wichita, Kansas.

Milton Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ovie Clark and Miss Jimmie Barnett of Hico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barnett were married last Saturday. Miss Barnett is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Adams of Fairy.

Health Officer Turns Light of Optimism On Dark Picture of Polio

Austin, July 17.—State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox has turned the bright light of optimism on the heretofore dark picture of polio in Texas.

Observing that the state's 1000 cases of polio since the year's beginning has occurred among a population of 7½ million people, the health official Thursday deplored "the attitude of hysteria that polio creates in a community."

That didn't mean people should not be concerned, the doctor commented, for a case of illness in any form is good reason for great concern.

"I'm talking about the fear that keeps a person or a whole community from thinking straight. Of course each case of polio is an individual tragedy for the family involved, but wholesale public panic simply is not justified."

He doesn't want to encourage complacency either, the state health officer said, adding:

"Every clear-thinking effort must be made to keep every home, every community, every vacation camp consistently clean and sanitary. Briefly, elimination of fly and insect breeding places, personal cleanliness, and getting milk, water and food from safe, approved sources will aid in preventing a number of communicable diseases."

National statistics, Dr. Cox asserted, show good reason for optimism in most cases of polio. According to the figures, from 40 to 60 per cent of all victims recover completely and can do anything they choose.

W. S. G. S. Marks 10th Anniversary With Chain Visits

The WSCS is celebrating its 10th anniversary with chain visits. The Hico members went to Purves Monday to help them with their birthday celebration, and Tuesday, Iredell members met here with the Hico WSCS for the same purpose.

The following members represented Iredell: Mrs. Dell Tidwell, president; Mrs. A. N. Pike, vice-president; Miss Stella Jones, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Allen Dawson, treasurer; Mrs. Joe Tidwell, secretary of supplies; Mrs. R. T. Wallace, secretary of youth; Mrs. J. C. Bowman, assistant secretary of supplies; Mrs. L. J. Simpson, Mrs. F. O. Cunningham, and Mrs. Howell McAden.

The program started with an organ prelude by Mr. W. H. Green, who also played softly during the tea hour. Mrs. Odie Fritch was leader for a program on the New Israel. She was assisted by Mrs. Morse Ross who spoke on "The Rise of Zionism"; Mrs. Hord Randalls, on "What Does Israel Mean to Jews in America," and Mrs. Pike, who led in a round table discussion.

At the end of the program, Mrs. W. D. Bradley Jr. sang "End of a Perfect Day," and read so impressively during an interval of the song, an original verse:

"Yes, you have come to the end of ten perfect years."

You have given to the needy and to the sick brought cheer.

You have read of the missionaries so very bold.

You have listened to every story that's been told.

You have traveled the long dusty road together.

And extended the hand of fellowship in all kinds of weather;

You have said a great many yesses, but never any no's;

You have said many sad adieus with tears.

Yes, you have come to the end of ten perfect years."

Mrs. S. E. Blair, Hico vice-president, and Mrs. Tidwell, Iredell's president, together lighted candles on the birthday cake. Each of the ten candles stood for something accomplished and Hico WSCS could light nine of them, having fallen down on the children's work.

Mrs. Greenslit, Mrs. B. B. Gamble, Mrs. Fred Rainwater and Mrs. H. W. Sherrard were hostesses for the afternoon and served coffee, salad, iced tea and cake to seventeen Hico members and the ten visiting Iredell members.

Largest Gathering of Rural Youth In World Planned for State Fair

One hundred thousand 4-H Club boys and girls, Future Farmers and Future Homemakers, the largest gathering of rural youth in the world is the goal set for Rural Youth Day at the Mid-Century Exposition of the 1950 State Fair of Texas, Ray W. Wilson, manager of the Fair's Rural Youth activities program, has announced.

This group of young and enthusiastic future farmers, future homemakers and ranchers will swarm the grounds of the greatest state fair in the world on Opening Day, Oct. 7, as guests of the State Fair, Wilson said.

The farm youngsters are expected to converge on Dallas from every corner of Texas. They will be admitted free to the Fair and will be furnished with a free lunch, provided by Dallas business leaders and the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

The State Fair regards its rural youth project as one of its most important educational undertakings. From a healthy start in 1946 when 30,000 boys and girls attended the Fair, the event mushroomed to a record attendance of 75,000 in 1949, Wilson said.

On Friday night, Oct. 6, recognition will be given 50 outstanding Future Farmers, Future Homemakers, 4-H Club boys and girls in the Honor Award dinner in the Crystal Ballroom of the Baker

REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

David, a King Who Honored God
Lesson for July 30: II Samuel 7: 1-6, 17-22

Memory Selection: II Samuel 7: 22

HOW DAVID came to exchange his shepherd's crook for the scepter of a king is a fascinating story. And he was the greatest of all the kings of Israel, who subdued the petty kingdoms around his domain and brought it to its widest extent—from the mountains of Lebanon to the borders of Egypt and from the Mediterranean sea to the Euphrates river.

When David's dominion was firmly established, he proposed to build a temple unto God, to replace the worn tabernacle. But, through Nathan the prophet, the Lord forbade him to build the temple and he had to be content in gathering materials and in leaving the task to his son, Solomon. But God promised David an everlasting kingdom. The verification of his promise must be found.

That David was not embittered because he was denied the building of the temple is shown by his soliloquy (II Samuel 7:17-22), in which he reflected upon God's goodness to him and gave thanks. Notwithstanding David had grievous faults, and sinned terribly with Bathsheba, and had her husband, Uriah, slain in battle, he repented. In the most of his life he honored God and was concerned for the religious life of his people. The Hebrew people have ever remembered him as their greatest king, and all alike find in his Psalms the fitting language of devotion. Let us find in him an example of faith in God that never wavered.

You have given to the needy and to the sick brought cheer.

You have read of the missionaries so very bold.

You have listened to every story that's been told.

You have traveled the long dusty road together.

And extended the hand of fellowship in all kinds of weather;

You have said a great many yesses, but never any no's;

You have said many sad adieus with tears.

Yes, you have come to the end of ten perfect years."

Mrs. S. E. Blair, Hico vice-president, and Mrs. Tidwell, Iredell's president, together lighted candles on the birthday cake. Each of the ten candles stood for something accomplished and Hico WSCS could light nine of them, having fallen down on the children's work.

Mrs. Greenslit, Mrs. B. B. Gamble, Mrs. Fred Rainwater and Mrs. H. W. Sherrard were hostesses for the afternoon and served coffee, salad, iced tea and cake to seventeen Hico members and the ten visiting Iredell members.

A Final Message to the Voters of Precinct 3—

I will fill the office to the best of my ability if you see fit to elect me your Commissioner. Thanks for all past and future courtesies.

Earl Huddleston Has Final Word for People of This Area

Am sure most of you know that I am offering again this year for State Representative. I feel that most of you people know me as I represented you several terms in the Legislature, but have not been in during the last two sessions.

I served during the depression back in 1933 for a while and then was out and went back in 1940 and was your Representative during the last war. If you choose me to represent you during the next two years I assure each of you that I will endeavor to represent you with your problems and all your interest which may come before the Legislature. It will be my policy to confer with you and try to carry out your wishes as near as possible.

I think we all realize that our state and nation are facing a critical situation and it is my opinion that it will take the united effort of us all to survive, so if you feel that I am the man to represent you in Austin the next two years I will be grateful to you and will give my best in serving you.

I hope each of you will take this as a personal solicitation because it has been impossible to see each person. I sincerely appreciate your past support and will again this time.

Sincerely, EARL HUDDLESTON (Pol. Adv.)

FARM AND RANCH CHATTER By LAYNE BEATY

"Second story" farming, is one way to describe the vast pecan growing industry in Texas. And you'd be surprised at some of the fine results of scientific handling of this crop, which used to be left pretty much up to nature to make the crop, and marketing was a sort of off-hand affair.

When the Texas Pecan Growers Association held its 29th annual convention in Tyler last week, it just missed by one day being the wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hander of Belton, who were married at a Texas Pecan Growers Convention in Stephenville sixteen years ago. She was Marie Dugger of Belton.

The late Ross Wolfe was responsible for persuading the young couple to perform the nuptial rites at the convention and for making all arrangements. The marriage vows were read in a pecan grove, appropriately decorated, and at the barbecue which followed, the master of ceremonies was Harold Hough, then known as the "Hired Hand" of Radio station WBAP.

The Handeres were in attendance at the Tyler meeting with nine-year-old Leola. Mr. Hander has been named champion pecan grower of Texas several years, and now has a new variety, the Texham, which he is introducing. He also is about to spring a new peach variety which holds its freshness many hours after slicing.

Hander, by the way, was named president of the group for the ensuing year. The convention next summer will be at Waco.

Another interesting fellow we met is 73-year old Andrew Winkler, who lives on the Leon River near Moody. He is a 1909 graduate of Texas A. & M. College, and lately has been doing experimental work with 123 varieties of pecans, but the new lake on the Leon is going to put most of his trees under water. He has been raising pecans for over fifty years, is a past president of the association. One thing about pecan varieties. The ones that do well in East Texas and Louisiana also grow well in west Texas, but not vice versa.

More about re-seeding crimson clover. One Rusk county farmer says "it might be the greatest thing to happen to East Texas since oil was discovered here."

We hear that there is a big rush on in the Lower Rio Grande Valley to plow under cotton stalks right after picking, to starve out insects that might overwinter.

With curtailed acreage, this has become even more important than before.

Chrysler-Plymouth Service Conference Has Big Enrollment

George Jones of Hico is among the ninety-four per cent of the nation's Chrysler-Plymouth dealers who have enrolled in Chrysler's Master Technicians Service Conference, according to F. E. Van Halteren, director of service, Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corp.

The service conference is a special training program carried on in the dealer's establishment to instruct service personnel in the best methods of car maintenance, service, and repair.

Training materials are supplied to the dealer in the form of sound slide films, complete instruction guide sheets for group leaders, charts showing exploded views of the particular units under study, and reference booklets on each subject for each person taking the course.

The monthly training meetings are concluded with working demonstrations of the service functions under study and a questionnaire test on the subject. Complete records of each man's grades are kept in Detroit.

A one-year certificate is awarded to each man who completes 12 consecutive sessions with a grade of 70 or better. More than 10,000 Chrysler-Plymouth dealer employees have already successfully completed one full year of this special training and have received the one-year award.

At the completion of a 24-session two-year course, the Master Technicians certificate and lapel pin are awarded to qualifying dealer personnel. Nearly 4,000 Chrysler-Plymouth dealer servicemen have received this award. The program is now in its third year.

Special certificates are awarded to dealerships who have had 70 per cent of their enrolled personnel successfully complete the one and two year course. By June of this year more than 1,300 Chrysler-Plymouth dealerships had qualified for the one-year award and 356 had received the two-year award.

From the dealerships which have completed at least 24 training sessions under this program, nearly 700 men have been awarded leader pins for conducting the courses.

Rural Areas Now Can Provide Education On a Par With That of Cities

Austin, Texas, July 17.—The smaller public schools of Texas now have available many special services which have raised the standards of education and improved the health of the children.

Until enactment by the last legislature of the Gilmer-Aikin school laws, only the larger and richer school districts could afford the numerous services now being utilized throughout the state, Miss Waurine Walker, president of the Texas State Teachers Association, declared here today.

Increased state funds for districts, after they have met state requirements as to financing on the local level has made available teacher supervisors, student counselors, librarians, visiting teachers, nurses, physicians, itinerant teachers, more vocational teachers, home economics and trades and industries courses, distributive education, and more training of exceptional or handicapped children, Miss Walker pointed out.

"The time is past when children in rural areas cannot have an education as good and in as many fields of endeavor as students in the centers of population," Miss Walker commented.

State aid to schools is offered on a variety of bases.

Schools are allowed funds for a supervisor or counselor on the basis of one to every forty classroom teachers. Supervisors work with the teachers to improve education. Counselors devote their time to guiding and advising children.

Librarians, health nurses, doctors and visiting and itinerant teachers are provided for on a basis of the school districts having their choice of one of those for each twenty classroom teachers. Visiting teachers work with parents to overcome conditions which prevent children's regular attendance of school. Itinerant teachers are those specializing in such subjects as art, music or physical education who give instruction in several schools in the same district daily or several times a week.

School districts in the same county can combine teacher totals to be eligible for more of these specialists.

Vocational education departments increased during the last school year by more than 500, making a total of 2,087 in the 2,492 school districts in the state.

State aid has enabled these high schools, when they have enrollments of sixty or more pupils, to hire instructors in vocational agriculture, trades and industries and home economics.

There has also been a big demand for more distributive education and it is being met. In these courses high school students devote half of their school time to classroom work and the other half to gaining actual experience in their chosen field, whether it is in mechanics, printing, selling, farming, merchandizing or work as beauty operators.

Classes for handicapped children increased 50 per cent throughout the state for the last school year. Another such increase is anticipated during the 1950-51 school year as more teachers trained in this highly specialized work become available.

Smaller school districts can also combine to establish joint classes for these handicapped children, Miss Walker expects that practice to be expanded.

"Handicapped children benefit greatly under specially trained teachers, but outside the larger centers of population there are so few in many school districts it is not feasible from an economic standpoint to hire instructors. Two or more districts generally have a sufficient number of children to make possible this badly needed service," the state association president declared.

We had lots of rain last week and peanut farmers are not so jubilant as one old farmer said, "the grass has fairly took us."
Mr. and Mrs. George Tabor and daughter of Dallas visited their old friends, Stanley and Ollie Roach Monday night.
Cliff Holt is at the bedside of a very sick sister in Pocahontas, Ark.
F. S. Landers is improving after a severe virus infection.
Mr. and Mrs. Billie Jo Roberson of Fort Worth visited relatives over the week end. Mrs. Roberson was formerly Miss Doris Her- rin. This couple were married about two weeks ago. A wedding we failed to report.
Dennis Nelms and family of Waukegan, Ill., who are visiting his mother, Mrs. M. Nelms and a sister, Mrs. W. C. Rogers, attend- ed church here Sunday. Also Doss Nelms and wife of Hamilton and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Anderson of Stephenville also visited here Sun- day.
Mr. and Mrs. E. L. King and children of Waco visited relatives here Monday.
Mrs. Jennie Phillips, who is at- tending T. S. C. W. spent Satur- day and Sunday at home with her husband, Ed Phillips.
Despite the fact that we have 32 candidates for 13 offices to be filled as a result of the July 22 primary, we are expecting a very light vote at this No. 7 box.

Judge Tate Makes Statement to Voters Upon Returning Home

I am now at my home in Hamil- ton recovering from an operation which I have been needing since returning from overseas in World War II. I sincerely feel that my health will be improved to the ex- tent that I can make you a better County Judge, and I welcome you to call upon me at my home until I am strong enough to return to my office full time.
I sincerely appreciate those of you who have been active in my behalf, when I could not personally solicit the vote and influence of each of you, which I am now do- ing. I assure you that my every of- ficial act since you have honored me with this office has been done with the interests of all the people in mind, and that if you see fit to elect me again, I will work as hard as I know how to do better and better.
If you see fit to honor me again, I pledge to conduct the affairs of Hamilton County in line with good business principles, bearing in mind that the tax money comes from the people, and to conduct your County Court in accordance with law, so that all persons may have their legal rights, and this is not always easy to determine. I do not feel that I will lose any time from the job in the future.
Thank you for the past favors and consideration, and I will deep- ly appreciate anything you see fit to do for me in the coming election.
Sincerely,
W. EUGENE TATE, County Judge,
Hamilton County, Texas.

WARDEN IMPOSTOR FLEES MERCHANT
Austin, July 17.—The Director of Law Enforcement of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commis- sion has alerted field men about a man who falsely represented himself as a game warden as a means of cashing a worthless check.
The spurious agent recently presented a warden's badge and identified himself as a "district supervisor" for the Commission at Wharton, Texas. This enabled him to cash a fake check drawn on an Austin bank, that cost a merchant $150. He is described as 35 years of age, six feet two inches tall, 210 pound weight with black hair and dark eyes.

Texas Man Elected New President of Lions International

Chicago, July 20.—Herbert C. Petry Jr., Carizzo Springs, Texas, is the new president of The In- ternational Association of Lions Clubs (Lions International). He was elected by unanimous vote at the 33rd annual convention of the Association which closed here at the Chicago Stadium today. Petry succeeds Walter C. Fisher, Queens- ton, Ontario, Canada.
The convention concluded one of the most successful years in the history of Lions International, ac- cording to the report made by Melvin Jones, Chicago, addition of 896 new Lions Clubs and 21,415 men to the roster of the Associa- tion during the twelve-month pe- riod ended June 30, 1950, for a total of 8,955 clubs and 402,841 mem- bers. He stated also that during the fiscal year Lions Clubs were established in two additional countries: England and Denmark. Lions International, he added, is the largest, strongest and most active service club organization in the world, with Lions Clubs in 25 countries on five continents.

Petry, in accepting the presiden- cy, said: "My home is down near the border of two great nations, and those of us who live so close to the people of another country know that there are no great dif- ferences between the people of Mexico and those of the United States. We learn their language and their customs; they learn our language and our customs, and together we are learning to live with each other. This is equally true of the northern border. The Lions of the northern states are carrying along identical work with the wonderful Canadian Lions across the border, at all times maintaining an aggressive move- ment to make friends with their neighbors. The Canadian Lions are likewise maintaining this aggres- sive movement to make friends with us. And why shouldn't this be the object of all Lions in our twenty-eight nations throughout the world?"

Petry continued that as he visits the Lions Clubs throughout the world during the coming year, he intends to urge the furtherance of this spirit of friendship and cooperation among the nations of the world.
Petry is a successful attorney and business man. He is the head of the law firm of Petry & Dean, in Carizzo Springs, Texas, and is President of the Dimmit County Bar Association and a member of the State Bar Association of Texas and the American Bar Association. He is also a Director of the Union State Bank of Carizzo Springs.
Born in Carizzo Springs, Petry is a graduate of Westmoorland Col- lege of San Antonio, Texas. He received his L. B. Degree from the University of Texas at Austin. He is a member of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity.

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth, July 17.—The big question in the minds of all concerned in the livestock industry at the moment is whether price controls or rationing is going to evolve from the Korean fighting.

Despite the fact that $3,700 cattle, or 45,000 more than a week ago appeared at the nation's 12 major markets on Monday, there was still a great deal of strength at most markets and at Fort Worth, trade was brisk at fully steady to strong prices.

Soaring hog prices which crossed the $25 marker last week at a number of Corn Belt and River Market points, have resulted in sharp increases in pork prices. There have been some complaints from various quarters and while he did not offer specific evidence, Secretary of Agriculture Brannon stated it appeared to him some "profiteering" was going on. It is reasonably safe to assume that Mr. Brannon was merely sending up a trial balloon to see whether the consumers were irate enough over higher cost-of-living to back the Administration in its efforts to gain Congressional favor for the "standby controls" President Truman has wanted all along.

The facts of the pork price matter lie in supply and demand. When the hog top was around $16 some 100 days ago, pork loins sold around 35 to 36 cents. With the hog top $24 to $25, pork loins naturally sell around 65 cents or better mark. A week ago, 12 markets reported around 300,000 hogs, during the big runs early in the year, often over 500,000 a week were marketed. Anyone can understand those figures and the price behaviour who wants to.

Charley Featherston of Wichita Falls had a load of cutter cows at Fort Worth Monday that sold at $20 and some about 400-pound calves that brought $30, the pairs bringing well over $300. Mr. Featherston recalled a time in 1932 when he bought a similar set of cows and calves at $33 per pair, the market currently being nearly ten times what it was in those dreary depression days.

Feeder buyers in the Midwest are still anxious for fleshy feeder steers and a good many supplementally fed steers go to them at prices well above packer values on that kind of cattle. Claude Allen of Strawn sold a string of 59 such steers weighing 1,157 pounds at $27.25 and G. C. Carothers, Stamford, sold 44 feeders at 855 pounds at $27.50. Bob Bachman, Throckmorton, sold 23 steers at 1,144 pounds to feeder buyers at $27.

The rumor mills are going full blast as to what the secret war mobilization plans call for which have so far not been divulged by the National Securities Resources Board. There is little doubt that if controls are put in effect they will be much more strict than during World War II. Backlash from the black market situation during the last war is still being felt by the government and better understanding of marketing and processing methods should enable the government to stop up the leaks.

There's a new deal being hatched which might move a lot of the butter the government owns and which is currently in storage. The idea which is still hush-hush as far as official circles are concerned has it that buyers of butter would get a bonus of another pound at only a fraction of what the original pound of butter cost. Off-hand we would think it would hurt current butter prices but on the other hand, it would enable the dairy industry to land a solar-plexus blow on the margarine makers who currently have the advantage.

The dairy industry is currently studying the butter situation closely and striving for some sensible answer to why butter sales continue to decline in all income groups, while all other dairy products seem to be gaining in favor every day. No doubt the artificially high price of butter due to price supports and the much lower cost of margarine is at the base of the trouble, but what to do?

Spring lambs scooted back to the $28 top at Fort Worth Monday with some 77-pound lambs from Charles Stone of Fort Stockton at $28. Fat lambs have been under pressure at all points in recent weeks because of increasing numbers of calves which compete with lambs in the form of veal and baby beef. Old sheep, the canner finds, and the stocker and feeder lambs and sheep are still selling strong to higher.

A publication this week avers that in Wisconsin the other day, Secretary of Agriculture Brannon said, "My plan will insure farmers high prices for their products . . . will insure lower food prices for consumers . . . and will not cost the taxpayers anything." Some plan!

FRED RED HARRIS FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR
Who Appreciate His Interest In This Section

Senator Harris Is Running On Record,
Which Is Open Book

Fred Harris, Dallas lawyer, is hammering at extravagant spending in his campaign for lieutenant governor.

The 40-year-old candidate says "it is a mark of danger when the government's tax bill exceeds the nation's food bill."

Harris' record shows that competition has dominated his life.

Four-Letter Athlete.

At Baylor, where he was graduated in 1932, he was a four-letter athlete, one of a handful in the Southwest Conference. He played professional ball with Wichita Falls in the Texas League, then returned to Dallas to practice law. Harris was elected a state representative in 1934 and served in the 44th, 45th and 47th Legislatures, opposing a sales tax constantly.

Pearl Harbor thrust him into his biggest fight. As a Navy Lieutenant, he was one of the 705 survivors of the Kamikaze attack on the aircraft carrier Franklin, which took 1,100 lives. Twice wounded, he also was decorated for bravery.

Platform Planks.

In 1945, Harris was elected senator from Dallas county. He resigned to campaign for lieutenant governor. His platform:

1. Against importation of foreign oil.
 2. For legislation to enable tax collectors to collect delinquent property taxes without present cumbersome legal procedures.
 3. Against waste of tax money and creation of additional boards, commissions and state departments.
 4. For continued industrialization of Texas and conservation of natural resources.
 5. Against encroachment of federal governments on home rule.
- Harris is married, has three daughters, and owns the Circle H Ranch near Hico.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.
