President Bush wins in Floyd County

Election sees large voter turnout

Floyd County voters turned out in large numbers on Tuesday, and joined with the majority of other South Plains voters in their support of President George Bush.

A total of 3082 votes were cast, including 621 Absentee, representing 64% of the 4,764 registered voters in Floyd County.

Gov. Bill Clinton, received a total of 947 votes, or 30% of the total votes cast. President Bush received a total of 1676, or 54% of the total votes.

Independent Ross Perot, garnered 385 votes, which represents 12% of the total votes cast.

U.S. Representative Bill Sarpalus received 1,604 votes, beating his Republican challenger, Beau Boulter, who received 1,263.

Democrat Lena Guerrero lost her bid for Railroad Commissioner to her Republican Challenger Barry Williamson.

Guerrero garnered 1077 and Williamson received 1696 votes.

None of the local races were challenged and Floyd County voters re-elected District Attorney Becky McPherson, Tax Assessor Collector Penny Golightly, Commissioner Connie Bearden and Commissioner George Taylor.

Also running unchallenged, in the Sheriff's race was Charles Overstreet, and Tim Burge was elected to fill the unexpired term of Precinct's 1 & 4 Justice of the Peace Office.

Ray Macha was the only Republican to seek a local office and won his unchallenged race for Constable Precinct 2 & 3.

David Hart also ran an unchallenged race as a write-in candidate for the office of Constable Precinct 1 & 4.

Of the total ballots cast, 391 Floyd County voters marked a straight Democratic ticket and 253 voters voted a straight Republican ticket.

Overall voting was up this year, compared to the last Presidential election year in 1988. Sixty-two percent of the voters came out in 1988, giving Bush 56% of the vote and Dukakis 44%. Absentee voting also rose from the 1988 number of 503 ballots cast.

For a breakdown of the votes by precinct, see page 12.

IS THIS IN MY CONTRACT?--Phil Cotham, principal at Lockney Elementary School, won the "Kiss A Pig" contest held at the Halloween Carnival last Saturday night. As a money raising event each vote was twenty five cents. Participants included Dub Hallmark, superintendent, James Poole, high school principal, and Terry Ellison, principal at at junior high. Thousands enjoy Punkin Days

By Alice Gilroy

There is no way to accurately count the throng of people participating in Floydada's Punkin' Day on Saturday, but organizers estimate approximately 5000 people in and around Floyd County's Courthouse Square during the day.

The Floyd County Museum registered 466 visitors from various cities, including: Odessa, San Antonio, Amarillo, Lubbock, Fort Worth, Oklahoma, Wichita Falls, Clovis, Plainview, Tulsa and Tyler. Serious runners also traveled from as far away as Kansas and New Mexico to participate in the 5K Fun Run.

Bob High, of Hugoton, Kansas, was awarded a Runners Calendar for traveling the farthest distance to participate in the 5K run.

Even though vendors fought a slight wind, sunny skies and moderate temperatures helped make the festival a big success. Besides the local media, reporters and photographers from the Lubbock Avalanche Journal, Channel 28, and Texas Highways were also on hand to record the event.

Vendors at the arts and crafts booths, food booths, and the local merchants reported brisk sales on Saturday. A record number of entries were also recorded in the baked goods contest and the painted and carved pumpkins contest.

Side splitting entertainment was enjoyed by the large crowd who gathered to watch the "Miss Pumpkin Patch" contest under the pavilion. A bevy of beauties paraded their "original" outfits for judges and competed against each other during the talent portion of the contest. Miss Corinna LaLani (the true name is being withheld to protect the innocent) was crowned the new Miss Pumpkin Patch. Judges appreciated "her" grass skirt and "her" Hawaiian dance to "Tiny Pumpkins" (sung by Mike Holster to the tune of Tiny Bubbles).

Eager children and those who are young at heart participated in a variety of games ranging from seed spitting, washer pitching, pumpkin bowling, pumpkin carving, pumpkin pie relay and the famous wheelbarrow race.

Bill Smith set a "Punkin Day record" with his seed spitting of 54' 8". "The wind caught it just right," said fellow competitor Hulon Carthel.

Creative racers sped around the square in a variety of fashions, during the popular Fat Man's Race. Participants found new and inventive ways to travel the three blocks, including ATV's, wagons, and on top of the trunk of a Floydada Police car. Most of the

"out-of-shape" runners managed to get around the square without breaking a sweat, but some hearty souls actually ran the distance.

Out of town visitors got into the spirit of the games by participating in all of the pumpkin games, and many more traveled the distance to bring their children to Floydada for "Trick-or-Treating" around the square.

The chance to show off creative Halloween costumes brought hundreds to the pavilion Saturday night for the traditional costume judging contest. Children then lined up to receive their "trick or treat card" and set off with their parents to gather Halloween goodies around the square.

Over twenty tables were set around the square and manned by generous individuals eager to hand out candy and view the assorted costumes on youngsters and their parents.

With the help of individuals gifts of money or candy, the Floydada Chamber of Commerce was able to donate the candy to the cause. Over 13 cases of candy were given to the individual booths to distribute among the trick or treaters. It is estimated that 1500 children make the trek around the square gathering their goodies.

The day was deemed to be a huge success judging from the comments of the grateful parents who enjoyed the day with their family and from the children who really enjoyed the easy access to the trick or treat goodies around the square.

"There were a lot of people here for the first time that said they really enjoyed themselves and they expressed a desire to come back again," said Punkin Day Chairman Anne Carthel. "We also noticed many people from out of town who came back this year after enjoying themselves last year. They also brought friends with them. This is exactly what the chamber wants to accomplish. Punkin Days is continuing to grow and is becoming more successful every year."

For a list of winners of the Punkin Day games, see the special section in this edition.

Lockney FUMC plans annual Harvest Festival

The First United Methodist Church of Lockney has finalized plans for their annual Harvest Festival. The doors will open Saturday, November 7 at 10:00 a.m.

The Country Store will open at 10:00 a.m. and will feature baked and canned goods and small craft items.

Serving of a full course turkey dinner begins in at 11:30 a.m. Plates will be delivered if you call the church before 10:00 a.m. and carry-out plates may be picked up. The charge for the meal is $4.50 for adults, and $3.00 for children under 12.

The auction will start at 1:00 p.m. A queen sized Lone Star quilt made by the ladies of the church, along with wood-crafts, fall arrangements, handmade clothes and handworked items will be offered to the highest bidders.

Holiday Happening is Monday

FLOYDADA — The Women's Chamber of Commerce is once again sponsoring the annual fall and winter style show and salad supper, all the latest fashions will be modeled. This year's event will be held at Duncan Cafeteria, at 7:00 p.m. Monday, November 9. Admission is $2.00 plus a salad. Half of the proceeds will go towards the Floydada Day Care.

Not only will you get a chance to taste a variety of delicious homemade salads, but "Goodie bags" will be given to everyone in attendance. You will also have a very good chance to win a door prize, approximately 30 prizes will be given out, reports Debra Graham and Darla Keller. Emcee's for the evening will be Julianne Cornelius and Anne Carthel.

The fall fashions will not be the only thing worth looking at to buy, you can browse through and purchase at the tables decorated with crafts and merchandise.

Businesses supplying the styles for the models will be: Hale's, Kid's Klost, Sears, and Jodi's.

Modeling for Hale's will be Molly Stringer, Linda Jones, Judy Dunlap, Jan Beedy, Lori Lloyd, and Julie Duke.

Sears models will be Jan Rubio, Annette Garcia (Miss Floydada), Scott Crader, Jeremy Rubio, Kelsy Williams, Whitney Williams, and Grant Keller.

Jodi's models will be Laura Turner, Jan Richburg and Susy Galloway.

If you would like to be a member of the Women's Division of the Chamber of Commerce you can join Monday night. Membership is $7.00.

Models are reminded of rehearsal Sunday, 2:00 - 4:00 at Duncan.

For more information on this year's Holiday Happenings contact Mitzi Nixon or Julie Duke at 983-2203 or 5104.

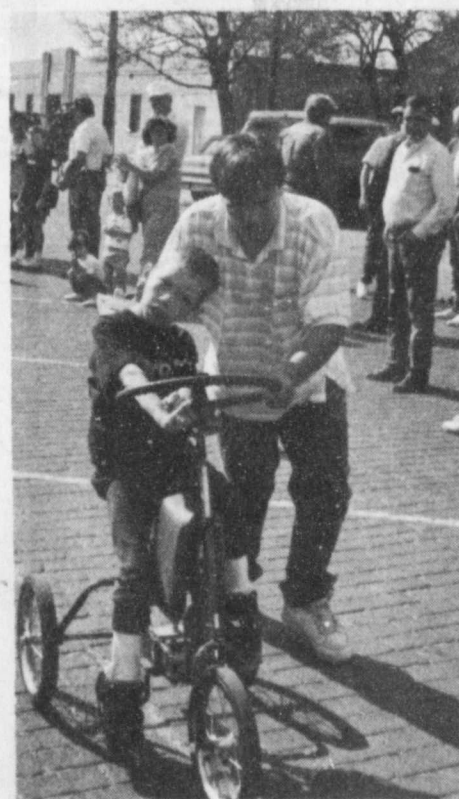

Disabled placards need to be obtained by December 31st

The new disabled placards will have to be obtained no later than Dec. 31, 1992. The old permanently disabled cards will no longer be valid after December 31, 1992.

Permanently disabled persons may exchange the old ones at the Floyd County Tax Office, according to Penny Golightly, Tax Assessor-Collector.

There will not be a charge to exchange the old ones. However the new permanently disabled placards will expire after five years.

The disabled person will have to bring their application back in to obtain another one. The cost will be $5.00 to renew the permanently disabled placard.

WE GIVE THANKS--Tommy and Joy Assiter, of Floydada, displayed some beautiful Big Macs at the corner of California and 5th Street. Also on display were smaller pumpkins, gourds, corn, cotton and wheat. A little farmer on the roof is seen holding a sign which says, "We Give Thanks." Staff Photo

By The Way

By Alice Gilroy

I sure do feel sorry for any kids that did not get to trick or treat in Floyd County on Saturday.

Rumor had it that there were some kids that came from other towns just to trick or treat around the courthouse square. All I know is that the line of children kept coming and coming and coming.

The Hesperian was trying to help out the chamber and we bought our own candy. What a joke!! We ran out in 10 minutes. Thank goodness for Anne Carthel driving around in her van handing out additional candy for all the booths. She reminded me of Santa Claus.

Because of the amount of kids, the chamber ended up in the red on the deal. I am sure they would more than appreciate some donations to help cover their cost of the candy.

I don't know how much the downtown trick or treating relieved the neighborhoods, but I do know that the people who brought their kids to the event were very grateful to those who set up booths.

If it is possible—Punkin Day was even better this year! We are guessing about 5000 people made it to the square at some time on Saturday.

Several people have told me that they were told by out of town folks that Floydada was the friendliest town they had ever been in. It appears that Floyd County folks were pretty good ambassadors over the week-end. Congratulations!

The afternoon entertainment during Punkin Days really needs to be televised during the Miss American pageant. The talent displayed under the pavilion beats anything I've ever seen at any other pageant. I laughed so hard at everything, my face was hurting (no jokes please).

I'm not allowed to say who Miss Corinna Lalani was ("she" was the one in the grass skirt), but my son Brandon could tell by the big feet that "she" wasn't who "she" said "she" was.

The musical entertainment provided by the Dean family (the new dentist, his wife, JoLynn, and kids), was also hysterical. I hope someone was video taping it. Maybe we can show all the pageant contestants at the chamber banquet.

Did you know that we had 5K runners come from as far away as Hugoton, Kansas, and New Mexico? Would you come that far to run? These people are dedicated runners and some of them are ranked as world class runners. Julianne Cornelius said that when Punkin Days first started we had about 20 racers, and this year there were 103 runners!

They enjoyed themselves and they'll be back.

I can't go on and on about Punkin Days, even though I would like to, but I want to be sure and thank everyone that had a part in it—including those of you who just came to play.

It was great family fun and we all owe a lot of thanks to the Punkin Day Committee, especially Anne Carthel.

I didn't think it was possible, but I think she was everywhere at the same time on Saturday. She was a great chairman, and she has agreed to do it again one more year with the stipulation that she can train Roxanne Cummings to take over the reins the following year.

I also appreciate Roxanne for volunteering to take over. I wonder if she has changed her mind since Saturday?

Anne Carthel said she is open to suggestions from people to make next year's event smoother. But there is a catch—she wants it to be constructive criticism from people who are willing to work to make it better. Sounds like a good deal to me!

I won't go in to all the fun everybody had on Saturday—I'll let the pictures speak for themselves.

Oh by the way—Mary Poole called me Monday and wanted me to be sure and thank Dixie Dog, Conoco and Scott Simpson for putting up signs on the highway telling people where Punkin Days was.

She said she goes to a lot of car shows and spends a lot of time looking for where the event will be held. She appreciated the thoughtfulness of Debra Graham, Eric Cornelius and Scott Simpson.

Also before I get off Punkin Days—Anne Carthel told me an interesting story today. She got a phone call from a woman from Garland, Texas. The lady wanted some information on pumpkins for her daughter who was having to do a research paper about pumpkins.

The woman remembered hearing about someplace in Texas being Pumpkin Capital, and she figured her daughter could get some good research from there. The problem was—she couldn't remember where the place was. So, she went to the public library and her and the librarian searched and searched until they found some information from somewhere which told the story of Floydada being Pumpkin Capital U.S.A.

So—I guess that makes it really official!!

You may not have made it to Floydada to trick or treat, but if you managed to make it to the Lockney Halloween carnival, I know you had just as much fun. The event gets better every year, and my son wouldn't miss it for anything.

I was disappointed that I didn't get to see the Lockney Elementary Principal, Phil Cotham, have to "Kiss The Pig".

The PTA had a contest, in which a can was set out at all the schools with the principals picture on it. You were supposed to drop a quarter in the can of the man you wanted to kiss the pig. The man with most quarters lost (Uh—won).

Oh yeah—the superintendent, Dub Hallmark had a can too.

Anyway—Cotham won and had to kiss the pig. Neta Marble said that she took a picture of Cotham kissing the pig, but she wished she could have gotten one of Hallmark jumping up and down because he didn't win.

I have heard an ugly rumor that Hallmark was dropping lots of money into other people's cans. I'm sure that's not true.!

Donut Man's Joke of the Week (Keep in mind he told me this joke on November 3)

"I guarantee you—if Bill Clinton wins the presidential race, in eight days there will be soldiers on the street and the banks will be closed," said Mr. Donut Man.

"Boy"—I said, "That's pretty drastic. You really think there will be a run on the banks?"

"No," he said, "It will be Veterans Day!"
Ha Ha.

Floydada Police Report

October 15, Floydada Police received a report of a vandalism of a vacant house, located in the 300 block of W. Mississippi. Several of the windows were reported broken.

Also on October 15, Jose A. Valenzuela, 43, of Dumas, was stopped at 7:43 p.m., in the 300 block of W. Houston, for failing to yield the right of way. He was then arrested for failure to display and obey his court ordered occupational license.

October 17, at 1:58 a.m., Julian Najera Soriano, 52, of Floydada, was stopped in the 200 block of S. 2nd, for failure to operate in a single lane of traffic and improperly using his turn signals. He was then arrested for DWI.

October 18, at 3:20 p.m., police received a report of a burglary from a home in the 300 block of W. Marivena. Stolen from the home was an Emerson Stereo, valued at $120.00 and a RCA Color TV valued at $175.00.

On October 19, at 4:55 p.m., police received a report of someone getting gas at the Allsup's and leaving without paying. A description of the car was given to police, and a Hale County Deputy spotted the vehicle west bound on Hwy. 54, close to the Interstate. The subject, Dennis William Dunlay, 53, of Leveland, was arrested. He was returned to Floydada where he paid for the gas, and Hale County charged the man with having fictitious tags on the vehicle.

Floydada Police are investigating an incident of a forged check which was passed at the Conoco Station on October 23. A suspect has been named in the incident.

October 24, police arrested Arnoldo Trevino, 19, of Floydada, for DWI.

Bank Junior Board of Directors meet

The Junior Board of Directors met for the regular scheduled meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 29, at the Floydada Branch Bank. All board members, Jonathan Simpson, Kori Kellison, Michael Henderson, Shawn Hill, Tara Vickers and Ryan Ford were present.

Others attending the meeting were James Doucette, Martin Lewis, Gerald Wiles, Judy Jackson and Ronnie Hardin. Martin Lewis, a certified public accountant (CPA) with Williams, Rogers & Company PC presented the program.

Mr. Martin explained to the group the purpose and importance of audits, not only for banks but for all businesses and individuals. Also discussed was the educational background and individual goals necessary for an individual that has a desire to become a CPA.

The agenda for the November meeting was planned. Being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

JUNIOR BOARD MEETS—Members of the First National Bank in Lockney and Floydada Branch Junior Board of Directors met at the Floydada Branch to hear Martin Lewis explain about becoming a CPA. FFA teams qualify for state

The Floydada High School leadership teams, which include Parliamentary Procedures, Farm Skill Demonstrations, Radio Broadcasting, FFA Quiz, Extemporaneous Speaking, and FFA Creed Speaking, have participated the past two weekends, in their district and area competition.

At the district level, the Floydada chapter had eight teams which competed. To be able to compete in the area competition each team had to win either first or second to advance. Floydada, had seven teams which advanced to the area competition held at Clarendon College Saturday. Of those teams only the teams winning first place are able to compete in the state competition.

Floydada FFA had three teams which won and will advance to state. The teams are Junior Farm Skills, Amber Womack, Neal Nelson and Lacy Golightly; Senior Farm Skills, Crystal Sanders, Carrie Emert and Kristi Hinsley; and Creed Speaking, which was won by Scott Crader.

The state competition will be held this Saturday at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville.

The other teams which competed were:

Senior Chapter Conducting: Jonathon Simpson, president; Scott Crader, vice-president; Jayna Dunn, secretary; Misty Bertrand, reporter; Lezlie Warren, treasurer; Jamie Crow, sentinel, and Amber Pyle, advisor;

Junior Chapter Conducting: Zacha Harris, president; Lyndi Probasco, vice-president; Dana McCandless, secretary; Rance Barnett, reporter; David Watson, treasurer; Anthony Emert, sentinel, and Kaci Lackey, advisor;

Radio Broadcasting: Brandy Lackey, Skeeter Smith and Tali Cage; and, FFA Quiz: Alex Vallejo, Michael Mercado, Christy DuBois, Missy Pernell and Chad Guthrie.

At the area contest there is also a Sweepstakes Award, which goes to the school which accumulates the most total points overall for the contest. The Floydada FFA Chapter also received this award.

Precautions necessary for driving in the winter

According to local safety officials, now is the time to think about winter snow and ice and the fact that they pose special problems for even the most experienced driver.

Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander for the Texas Department of Public Safety in Lubbock, stated, "Winter driving is treacherous because it's so unpredictable. Fog could be over the next hill, a patch of ice on an overpass, or someone in front of you on a snow-packed road goes into a skid. However, if drivers are armed with a few basic rules for winter driving, the risk of collision can be lowered."

Probably, the most basic driving rule of all is to adjust your driving to the current conditions. If all drivers follow that one rule, collisions year round could be reduced dramatically. Major Cawthon advised there are two general winter driving rules which could help keep drivers out of trouble on hazardous roads:

Rule No. 1 - Drive smoothly. Anytime you are on a slick surface you must maintain traction. Any jerky movement can upset that traction causing loss of control. So every touch of the brakes, every turn of the wheel, every move to the accelerator must be gentle and gradual.

Rule No. 2 - Stay alert. The slicker the surface, the farther down the road you must look, because it will take you longer to stop. Here is a good rule-of-thumb. Generally, allow double your normal stopping distance for wet roads, triple it on snow-packed roads, and even more on ice.

Winter driving problems, if they do happen, usually arrive in the form of a skid. First, it should be noted that skids don't just happen, they are caused. Hit the brakes or accelerate too hard, turn the wheel too fast and suddenly you have lost both traction and control. This is a scary, helpless feeling that most of us have felt, at sometime.

When asked about skid recovery, Major Cawthon explained, "Simply put, back off the accelerator, stay off the brakes, and steer the car in the direction you want the car to go. Use gentle, steady motions when turning the wheel. Turning too much or too fast can worsen the situation. Remember, on wet or icy roads, your brakes can be your worst enemy."

When the road is wet or icy, it takes more time and distance to do everything. So allow more time to stop, turn or whatever else you want to do. It's critical that you increase that space between you and the vehicle ahead.

Major Cawthon said, "You need to allow two to three times more following distance when the road is hazardous than when it's dry. This additional distance gives you time to react safely to a situation once you have identified it."

Finally, from what we've seen, winter driving demands that drivers use common sense and change our regular driving habits to an "easy does it" way of driving. We need to allow plenty of space around us and plenty of time to get to our destination. With these thoughts in mind, together we can make winter driving safer.

Have A Nice Day!

Luna completes Marine recruit training

LOCKNEY -- Marine Pvt. Domingo Luna, son of Domingo and Sara Luna of Lockney, recently completed recruit training.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine, and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

The 1992 graduate of Lockney High School joined the Marine Corps in July 1992.

Changes proposed for traffic control in Andrews School area

On October 26, at 6:00 p.m., a meeting was held at R.C. Andrews Elementary School to discuss traffic problems at the school. Principal Ellen Enriquez and Police Chief James Hale met with a number of concerned citizens to discuss speeding, congestion, traffic flow and safety in and around the school zone.

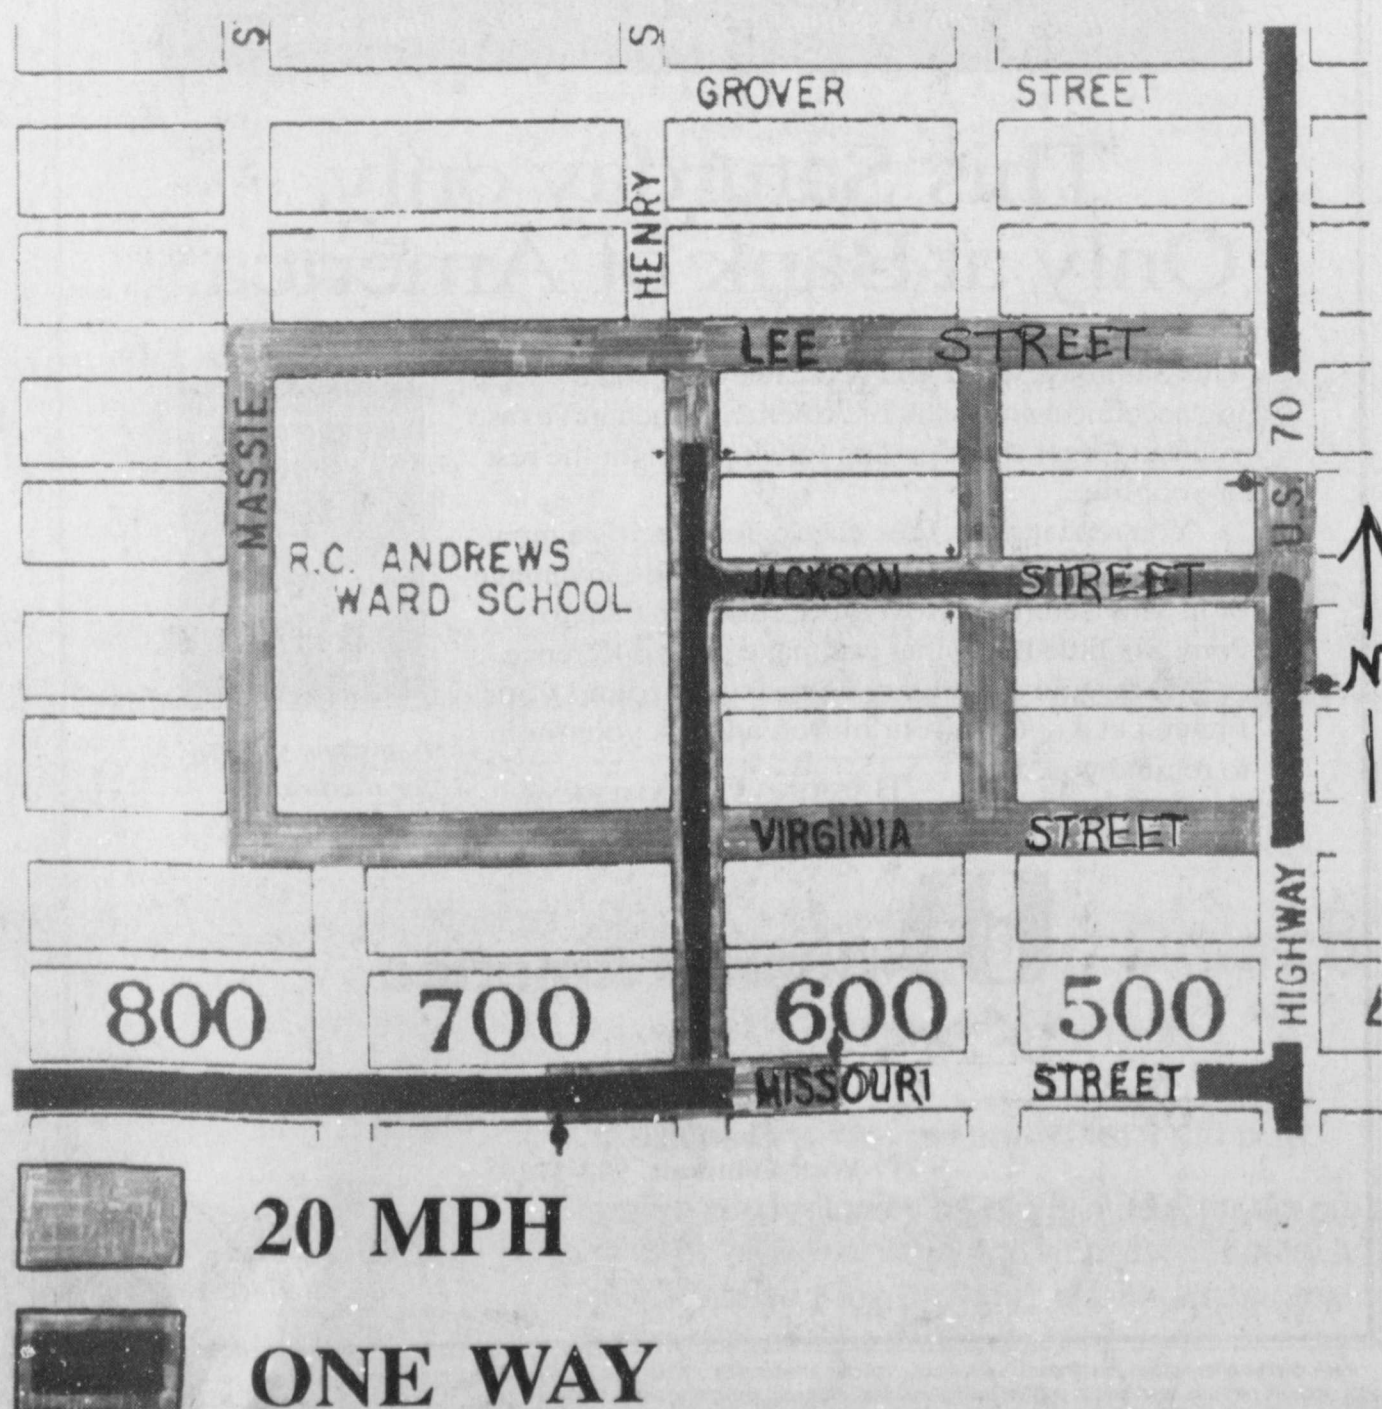

Several suggestions were brought up to alleviate the problems. The suggestions included enforcing a 20 mph speed zone between the hours of 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. on school days, on the following streets: all of Lee Street from 2nd to Massie; all of Virginia Street from 2nd to Massie; all of Jackson Street, from 2nd to White.

Also during those same hours, Jackson Street from 2nd to White would be designated a One Way Street going west. Another meeting at R.C. Andrews School is planned on Nov. 12 at 6:00 p.m., in which some of the recommendations will be discussed before they are presented to the Floydada City Council on Nov. 17. These solutions would become effective Jan. 4, 1993, if approved during the November meeting.

Anyone that has any suggestions is urged to attend the Nov. 12 meeting at Andrews, so a complete package can be presented to the city council on Nov. 17.

Shown below is a map of the affected area and what changes are planned at this time.

Proposed Changes in the Speed Limits and Traffic Flow at R.C. Andrews School from 7:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. During School Session

Letters To The Editor

Dear Alice,

I am so thankful and proud of all the people in our community who gave so much of their talents, time, and money to make our 6th Punkin Days Celebration run so smoothly.

So many out of town and out of state visitors were overwhelmed by the friendly and caring people who made them feel so at home.

The Punkin Day committee volunteers are among the most hard-working and enthusiastic people I have ever had the pleasure of knowing. Their diligence, devotion to our community, and attention to detail are directly responsible for the success of the festival.

Many other groups, businesses, and organizations devoted their time, supplies, and enthusiasm as well.

To those of you in town who do not know who was responsible for all the hundreds of hours of work involved in planning and presenting Punkin Days, here is a list of people you can pat on the back and say "thanks": Vickie Norrell, Deedie Covington, Brenda Heflin, Jan Beedy, Shawnda Greer, Mike Mallett, Hulon Carthel, Joe Jones, Melissa Long, Gail Hale, Rozanne Bishop, Kathy Becker, Joyce Williams, high school cheerleaders, Darla and Todd Keller, Jeff Johnson, Margaret Herrera, Todd Beedy, Jimmy Willson, Becky Emert, Clar Schacht, Mike Holster, Danny and Mitzi Nixon, Layne Kirk, Johnny Summers, Missy Minick, high school Y.E.S. members, Sheldon and Atha Sue, Roxanna Cummings, Eric and Julianne Cornelius, Randall Griffin, Larry Ogden, Wally Davis, Daphna Simpson, Nick Long, Candy Thrasher, Trena Simpson, Connie Johnson, Laura Turner, Jill Graham, Anne Jones, Margaret Word, Bruce Bramlett, Andrews, Jr. High and High School P.T.A., James Hale and the City Police Dept., Monty and Kelli Williams, James Williams, Hal Farnsworth, Clark Williams, the City of Floydada office staff and Gary Brown and all of the City employees, the Floyd County employees, the Sheriff's Dept., 1990 Study Club, Keeping You in Stitches Quilting Guild, Kirk and Sons, Higginbotham's, Caprock, Davis and Sons, the teachers in the schools who actively cooperated with the coloring, painting, and poetry contests, Old Settler's Committee, Scott Simpson, Floydada Cable TV, Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon, KAWA Radio Station, Floyd County Museum, Mitch Probasco, Tommy Assiter, Marble Brothers, Scott Faulkenberry, Jake Younger, Travis and Gladys Jones, Chuck Holmes, the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal, Riddle Gibson and Kay Wilson, Joyce Owens, Sarah Hinsley, Karen Lawson (who overslept), David and Kay Brotherton, the Fat Man's race helpers, Cindy Dudley, John Leeson, First Baptist Church, Coca-Cola, the Miss Punkin Patch contestants and the noon entertainers, Circle Dot Ranch owners, Joe and Virginia Taylor, Alice and Lenny Gilroy, Jack, Allison, and Cory Robertson, 4-H Club, the American Red Cross, the antique farm implement owners, the Floydada Fire Department, the Duncan P.T.A., and all the businesses and volunteers who helped with the trick or treating, and to all of you who just stepped in where we needed you on Saturday to help with the activities or cleaning up.

A very special thank you goes to Cargill who came to Floydada, set up awnings over many of our arts and crafts booths, returned to check on them Friday and reinforce the stakes because they had heard the weather report say it would be windy, and then they returned on Saturday to take them down when things were over. All of this was done free of charge as a service to us.

Also, a special thank you to Floydada Cable TV who provided us with great publicity coverage here at home and Amarillo, Clovis, and Plainview free of charge. We had so many phone calls and visitors from those cities as a result.

Also a very, very special thank you to Tammy Leeson who was absolutely WONDERFUL! She helped everyone keep things straight and organized, as well as she fulfilled her role as an ambassador for the people of Floydada. She never complained and did so much more than her job description as Chamber manager, despite all the adversities and the loss of her great-grandmother during the week.

She is a gracious and lovely lady who made the rest of us look like we were much more organized than we were. Thank you so much, Tammy!

And to my children and husband, who put up with a lot of eating out, laundry piling up, and schedule juggling, thank you for trying to understand and for your own willingness to become involved and helpful in all of the activities of our home and the community. I am MOST PROUD of you when I see you giving of yourselves to make your family, school, and town a happier and better place to live! God has richly blessed me with you.

Sincerely,
Anne Carthel

Dear Editor,

We want to send our deepest appreciation to all those who helped create this years exciting Halloween Carnival. It is always a chore to get these things off the ground but it is always worth it. Anytime you do things for the kids, it makes it worthwhile to see the joy on their faces.

Special thanks go out to the businesses who contributed to the carnival to help raise money for the Lockney PTA. Those listed below were very generous givers: Lockney Donuts and More, Lockney Main Street Pizza, Plainview Burger King, Plainview Family Fun Park, Plainview Pizza Hut, Lockney Cooperatives, Lockney Pay-n-Save, Plainview Mr. Gatti's and Plainview McDonalds.

We are also very grateful to every person who contributed their time to making this possible. Our gratitude also goes out to those who attended. Without a teamwork effort this would have been impossible.

Thank you,
Debbie Montandon

Dear Editor,

As parents we are always proud of the accomplishments of our children, if its in sports or any other activity they enjoy. There were several students that have participated the last two weekends on the state and area level. Seven of these students earned 1st place last weekend that has made them qualify to compete on the state level.

They will go to Huntsville this weekend to compete. How did these students get this far? They have spent many hours during school, after school, and at night learning lines and practicing.

Two people that have spent alot of their time helping without extra pay are Mr. Wetzel and Mr. Stanlee. Mr. Wetzel has been the force behind pushing these kids all the way. I feel like alot of activity goes on in our school that people don't even hear about unless they have kids involved and I thought these seven students need to be recognized. Not every day do we have students get to go to state to compete.

Scott Crader will be competing in Creed Speaking. The Junior or Greenhand Team consist of Amber Womack, Lacy Gollightly and Neil Nelson. The Senior Team consist of Carrie Emert, Crystal Sanders and Kristy Hinsley. They both demonstrate the Safety and Uses of the Electric Fence. The demonstration last about 18 minutes.

If anyone ever needs a program these kids could show you their farm skill. Good luck at State Kids! and Thank You for caring about our youth Mr. Wetzel and Mr. Stanlee.

Dear Editor:

This past homecoming, I had the opportunity to see the current production of the Upstairs Theater Company. I've been aware of this group ever since its founding by a small collection of theatre lovers, and have watched several of their past productions in various states of readiness.

As I sat in the near dark of the small theatre, I was deeply touched by the laughter that came from my hometown audience. I watched the faces of the very young and the very old, bathed in the light of the stage, laugh and smile and look at one another, while their friends and relatives performed. Strangely enough, it is the audience I sometimes enjoy more than the players on the stage. No matter where theatre is performed, be it Floydada or New York, there is a sweet, magical quality that can only be felt. It defys logical analysis.

I hope that more and more individuals in Floydada and Lockney, no matter their background and/or age group, will volunteer their particular talents to this theatre, even if you think you have no particular talent! New membership keeps a theatre exciting, gives new talent a chance to be seen, and provides the other actors an opportunity to reacquaint themselves with their families.

Local citizens should also be very aware that Floydada's theatre company merely stages its productions at the Methodist Church, and is open to all people who share a love for theatre and the arts, no matter your personal religious beliefs or where you reside. The Upstairs Theatre Company is a gift to the citizens of our county and the surrounding area. It belongs to all who call this community home.

Furthermore, with careful planning, Floydada can produce its very own regional or state wide community theatre festival. There are enough active theatre groups (Dalhart and Post being just two) who would gladly come together to present their best efforts. When you have an event like this, people attend from all over the region and state, spend money, and the media gives you well deserved press attention. It hasn't been done that often and there is no reason why Floyd County can't scoop this one.

It is my sincere hope that the local theatre group continues to grow and provide a positive outlet for the people of Floyd County, especially the children. If you have ever secretly dreamed about smelling the greasepaint or hearing the roar of the crowd, now is the time to step forward and make your dreams a reality.

Warmest Wishes,
Dana Scott Galloway

Floydada VFD aids in search

Officer Ernest Back of the Floydada Police Department wishes to express his sincere thanks to the Floydada Fire Department for their tireless efforts in the all night search of Maude Parvin on Oct. 23. The fire department was inadvertently left off the list of searchers in last week's paper.

CAPTIVE FREE

CAPTIVE FREE to perform at Trinity Lutheran Church

Captive Free, a music-ministry team of young adults, will perform at the Trinity Lutheran Church in the Providence Community on Thursday, November 12 at 7:00 p.m.

Through concert and sing-along music, media presentations, personal word and witness, puppetry and drama, Captive Free provides a faith-encouraging program which emphasizes oneness in Christ. Captive Free is a national team formed and sponsored by Lutheran Youth Encounter, an evangelical Lutheran organization that offers relational ministry resources.

This ministry takes several forms which include: Lutheran Junior High and Senior High Youth Congresses, YouthFests, National Teams, International Teams, 5-Alive Camps, Spoke Folk and Youth Worker Referral Services.

Everyone, of all ages, is invited to attend. There is no charge for the concert. A free will offering will be received at the door to help pay for the team's expenses.

Il Peneroso Study Club meets in Wofford home

The Il Peneroso Study Club met in the home of Tami Wofford on October 22. Co-hostesses were Julie Ellison and Pam Fulton. The members were all invited to the Hobo Halloween Party.

Each member came dressed as a hobo. They were served hobo stew and rolls, and to make everyone feel at home dirt pudding was served for dessert. Prizes were given to the best dressed hobos - Shawnda Foster and Kim Teeter won with their Halloween hobo costumes. The dirtiest hobo award went to Rise Ford.

During the business meeting, discussion and organization was made for the booth at the Halloween carnival and the Fall Bridge Tournament. The club decided to have a bowling booth at the carnival and plans were made to hold a bridge tournament on November 2 at the Lockney Community Center.

Members present were Rise Ford, Shawnda Foster, Cindy Cotham, Tracy Long, Julie Dorman, Julie Ellison, Dena Reecer, Karla Stapp, Michealle Stennett, Heather Stowe, Pam Fulton, Roxanne Hennagan, Kim Teeter, Kathy Young, Dana Wright, Tami Wofford and Melody Wiley. Visitors present were Victory Stewart and Patricia Swab.

NSDAR meets at Lighthouse

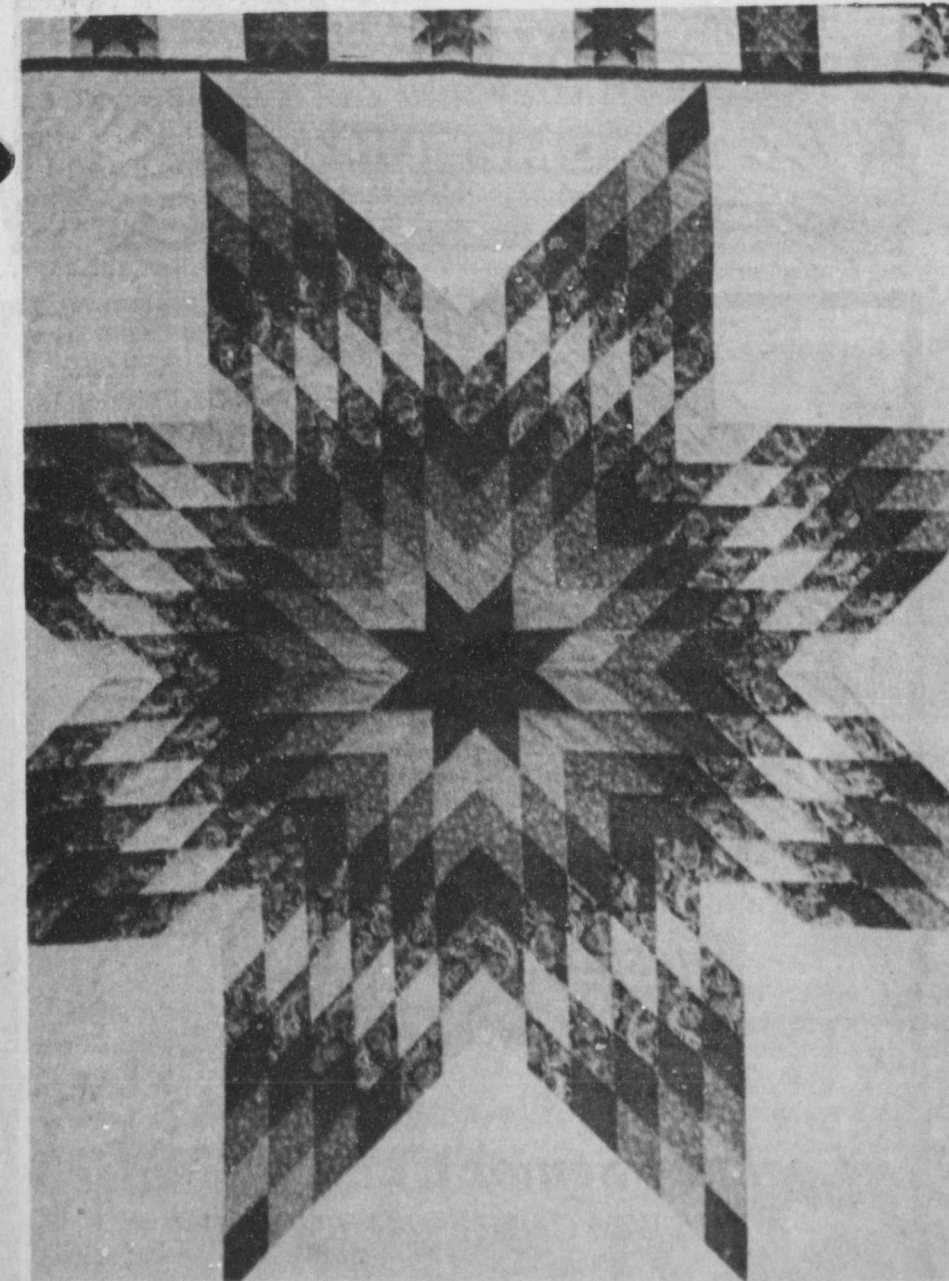

Buffalo Grass Chapter NSDAR met at Lighthouse Electric October 27. Fourteen members were present. Vera Jo Bybee, Regent, opened the chapter. After the opening the hostesses, Gene Reed and Loretta Denning served refreshments to those present.

During the business session, Sherry Colston read the President's message. Virginia Taylor reported on National Defense and Nancy Marble quoted from an article on the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. She then presented

Mr. Eugenia Bethard who was program leader for the evening. She spoke on "Columbus and the Encounter of Cultures."

Those present were Ona Ruth Neff, Mary Lou Bollman, Ozena Norris, Vera Jo Bybee, Susan Dunavant, Sherry Colston, Emily Johnston, Nancy Marble, Virginia Taylor, Grace Zubliski, Eugenia Bethard, Roxanne Cummings, Gene Reed, and Loretta Denning.

The next meeting will be November 24, at 7:00 p.m.

QUILT TO BE AUCTIONED--This Lone Star quilt will be auctioned at the First United Methodist Church Harvest Festival. The festival will be held Saturday, November 7 beginning at 10:00 a.m. Small items can be bought in the country store and the larger items will be auctioned. A turkey and dressing dinner will be served at noon.

FHS Class of 1962 celebrated during homecoming festivities

Thirty-five members of the FHS Class of 1962 celebrated the 30th anniversary of their graduation during homecoming weekend.

Classmates and their spouses gathered at Leonard's Cafe following the Friday night football game. A class picture was taken on Saturday afternoon. Mickey Dot Hammonds, Floydada, was host to the classmates, spouses and other guests on Saturday evening. Jay Dycus and Carlyn Moore, both of Lubbock, were responsible for food, and Jan Dempsey Thayer, Floydada, made name tags featuring our senior annual pictures.

Yvonne Karr Deavenport, Boulder, Colorado, received recognition for traveling the farthest for the reunion, 550 miles. Charles Christian, Floydada, was voted the "grayest", Max Campbell, Levelland, the "baldest". Mary Kay Asher Self, Highland Village, and Mary Word Garrett, Lexington, N.C., received sympathy for having the oldest children still living at home.

Jay Dycus was the only member present who does not wear some kind of eyeglasses at any time. Voted the "best preserved man" was Rodney Teague, Carrollton, and "best preserved woman" was Margaret Moss Aycock.

Farwell.

A compilation of memories of high school days was edited and distributed by Linda Lutrick Matsler, Floydada. It included information sent to her by classmates about outstanding events during high school, most influential teachers, the upperclassmen who impressed us most, and incidents involving Mr. A.E. Baker, principal when the class of 1962 was in high school.

Floydada Nursing Home Happenings

By Jo Bryant

FLOYDADA — Hi! once again on the third day of November election day. How are you?

Monday started the day as usual with morning coffee, juice and cookies. Bro. Clark Williams gave the devotional. Irene Wexler played the piano for us.

At 2 p.m. the residents painted ceramics. Those painting were Lennie Willis, Etoile Stanley, Kermit Glover, Jennella Fulton, and Henry Willis.

At 10:30 a.m. Father Ricardo Salditos gave the devotional on Faith. We sang some songs. At 2:30 p.m. the residents painted quilt squares. They are making a friendship quilt. The ladies from the Companion & Caring assisted them. They were Shirley Varner, Ola Smith, Leona Neff, Dorothy Neff, Dolores Cannon and her aunt, Trudy Sue Walker.

Wednesday was Bingo day, Ottis Johnson had the first Bingo. Mary Alice

Davis assisted the residents. The staff had a meeting and a potluck lunch at 2 p.m. The employees received lovely pins from Unicare Health Facility of the number of years that they have been employed. Wanda Gibbs presented the pins. There were also five employees who had birthdays. Bolinda Perez, Luira Gomez, Dorothy Kerr, Margie Hernandez, Minnie Soliz. They were each presented a gift and a certificate to eat a meal.

Thursday was the Halloween party. The ladies from the Companion & Caring were the hostesses. They served punch, cookies and candy pumpkins. The residents played games. Thanks volunteers for dressing up in your costumes.

Friday, Jenelle Evans gave the devotional and shared memories from her mother's family Bible. Joyce Lipham played the piano for us. On to Plainview on the bus ride. McDonalds treated the residents to ice cream.

Thursday at 6:30 Ebert Parvin and Martha played the guitar and sang. Philip Wilbanks played the piano for us.

Thanks for all who purchased at our booth on Punkin Day. We still have some of the ceramic jars with candy left. The residents made the ceramic lids themselves. They would make good gifts.

Caprock Girl Scouts compile cookbook

What do Senator John Montford, Waylon Jennings, Sheriff Sonny Keese, Coach Spike Dykes, former First Lady Nancy Reagan and First Lady Barbara Bush all have in common? They have favorite recipes featured in a new cookbook Gatherings, published by Caprock Girl Scout Council.

The cookbook commemorating the 80th birthday of Girl Scouting, was developed as a gift for the 18 counties served by Caprock Girl Scout Council.

The cookbook contains over 450 family recipes from contributors throughout the 18 counties, a number of them being from Floyd County.

A gorgeous field of West Texas wild thistles, photographed by Joe Don Buckner who was born in Lockney, and resides in Lubbock, provides a breathtaking cover for the book.

Besides the usual cookbook divisions, Gatherings includes sections on Kids cooking and fun, Outdoor picnics, Cooking for a crowd, Game and International. The kids fun section includes recipes for Silly Putty, Play Dough and Modeling Clay.

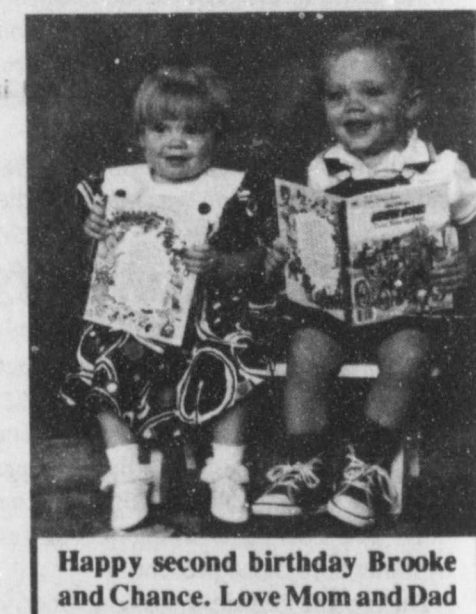

Gatherings will be available from Girl Scouts in Lockney and Floydada November 2 - 16. Proceeds from the book will be used for repairs at Camp Rio Blanco near Crosbyton. Local troops will also receive a portion of the proceeds to use for their own activities.

Each recipe lists the calories, the grams and percentages of fat, protein, carbohydrates and fiber. Cost of the cookbook is $12.95 with $1.00 of that going directly to the local troops.

In Lockney contact representatives Carol Huggins at 652-3115, Vicky Schaeffer at 652-3795, Sherry McDonald, 652-2185, Tammy Ray, 652-2167 or Marlana Tharp, 652-2606.

In Floydada contact your favorite Girl Scout or Girl Scout leader, Elizabeth Sims, Judy Schacht, or Susan Kirk.

Cookbook sales will end November 14.

Happy second birthday Brooke and Chance. Love Mom and Dad

White and Wilson exchange nuptials

Kelli Kristin White of Lubbock became the bride of J.D. Wilson during a wedding ceremony held in the First Christian Church of Lubbock. The couple recited their vows, which they wrote, before Bob Bray of Houston, who officiated the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary White and Cindy Bray White, all of Houston. The groom is the son of the late Don and Anna Lee Wilson of Roaring Springs.

Arrangements of casa blanca lilies, white gladiolas and dendrobium orchids with unusual foliage and grasses decorated the altar area. Pews were marked with white and teal ribbon garlands.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white satin and organza gown. Pearl dangles were featured between the sabrina neckline and the lower sweetheart neckline. A layer of net was between the two necklines. The bodice was highlighted with lace appliques trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins. Pearl ropes extended from one side of the back bodice to the other, from the neck to the waist. Puff sleeves were trimmed with net cutouts, lace and three ropes of pearls. Slim fitted, long net sleeves, trimmed with lace, pearls and iridescent sequins, extended from the puffs. A candy box bow was set at the back waist. The full skirt was layered in multi tiers of organza ruffles which extended into a full cathedral length train.

She carried a cascading bouquet of white roses, dendrobium orchids with casa blanca lilies and variegated English ivy.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Karen Hume of Lubbock. Bridesmaids were Jill Miller and Renee McMurray, both of Lubbock, and Vikki Wright of Conroe. They were attired in street length dropped waist dresses of black velvet with satin skirts. The dresses were off the shoulder with scalloped necklines.

Junior bridesmaid was Melissa Pavlow of Houston. She wore an all velvet black dress with a scalloped neckline and princess design.

Bridal attendants carried bouquets of dendrobium orchids and bear grass. Mothers and grandmothers carried single white roses.

Acting as best man was Brad Wilson of Lubbock, brother of the groom. Groomsmen were Reagan White of Hot Springs, Ark., brother of the bride; Kelly Griggs of Floydada and Ward Brooks of Lubbock. Serving as ushers were Chuck Rowley and Buck Peace of Lubbock. Male attendants wore black tuxedos with teal green bow ties and cummerbunds. They wore boutonnières of white rosebuds and English ivy.

The groom was attired in a black tuxedo with black bow tie and cummerbund.

Ring bearers, Trevor Pavlow of Houston and Justin Alexander of Grand Saline were attired in black tuxedos with teal green bow ties and cummerbunds. They carried white satin and lace pillows.

Musical selections during the ceremony included "Everything I Do (I Do For You)" and "You're The Inspiration" vocalized by Diana Kay Rankin.

A reception buffet and dance in the Santa Fe Ballroom of the Sheraton Inn in Lubbock was hosted by Carmen Bray, grandmother of the bride, of Tulsa, Okla.

Music to the Maxx provided dance music. The bride and groom had their first dance to the selection "Shameless". The bride and her father danced to "Sitting On The Dock of The Bay".

The black and teal theme was carried out in table decorations with candles at each table. The three tier wedding cake was trimmed with black icing and ribbon and topped with and surrounded by fresh flowers.

The couple was toasted three different times during the reception. Toasts were made by Brad Wilson, brother of the groom, Jim Biggerstaff of Riverside, Calif., uncle of the groom, and Gary White, father of the bride.

A rehearsal dinner at the 50 Yard Line Steak House was hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Biggerstaff of Riverside, Calif. A toast for the couple was presented by Reagan White, brother of the bride.

Following a wedding trip to Montego Bay, Jamaica, and a trip along the coast to Ochorios, Jamaica, the couple is making their home in Lubbock, where the bride is employed with Stephen Joseph, Inc. and the groom with Plains Electro-Plating.

The bride, a graduate of Lamar Consolidated High School in Rosenberg, is also enrolled as a student at Texas Tech University. The groom is a graduate of Floydada High School.

Floyd County represented at State TEHA meeting

From Melissa Long, CEA-HE

Step into the future with TEHA was the theme of the State meeting for Texas Extension Homemakers Association held in September at Galveston. Among the 974 delegates attending was Floyd County Extension Homemaker, Karen Miller

Educational workshops presented to the delegates included: Hats Off To You, The Leader; Shielding Against Crime; Driving Miss Daisy: A Time of Need, A Time of Care; Reflections of Futures Past; Panamanian and Polynesian Applique; and On the Road Again. Programs presented at the state meeting are brought back to the county and local club level for use in club programming.

The State TEHA meeting is one of the many educational opportunities offered through the Texas Agricultural Extension Service for area homemakers.

Extension Homemaker Clubs are made up of individuals who want to work together and continue learning. Members get involved by attending monthly meetings and receiving training to become effective program leaders and officers. Club members teach, take part in discussions, plan recreation and participate in community projects and activities.

Membership is available to all without regard to sex, age, race, socioeconomic level, religion, or national origin. If you are interested in joining a club or forming one of your own give us a call at the County Extension Office at 983-2806.

Floyd County TEHA Chairman, Maye Williams, captured the Best of Show Award in the Cultural Arts Exhibit at the Texas Extension Association State Meeting held September 22-24 in Galveston. Her entry was a China Painted Portrait entitled The Warrior.

Band earns Division II Rating

The Floydada High School Band competed at the University Interscholastic League Region Band Contest on Wednesday, Oct. 21. The band earned a Division II rating. This rating is defined as an excellent rating.

The judges for the contest were Harris Brinson, Director at Angelo State University, G.T. Gilligan of Kermit, and J.R. McEntyre of Odessa. All three judges gave the band praise for their show and suggestions on how to improve and become a better band.

This is the first Division II in UIL Marching in many years.

The band performed as their opener the "Prologue From Hook", "Everything I Do, I Do It For You", with Emily Parks as trombone soloist, and the main theme from the movie "Robin Hood". The drum majors for the band are Michael Gilliland and Austin Williams.

The FHS twirlers also competed in the twirling solo and ensemble contest. All four high school twirlers earned a Division I rating on their individual solos and also earned a Division I rating on their quartet. This gives them the right to compete at the State Solo and Ensemble Contest on May 31 in Austin.

High school twirlers are Amber Poole, Melissa Faulkenberry, Viola Hernandez and Joni Smith.

The judge for the twirlers was Judy Hart of Clovis, New Mexico.

Wildcat playoff plans booted by Whirlwinds

By Bill Gray
Floydada's Micheal Gilliland kicked a 33-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter to lead the Whirlwinds to a thrilling 24-21 decision over Littlefield on October 30. The winning kick, with 6:27 remaining in the game, eliminated the defending District 2-3A champs from any chance of post-season playoff consideration.

It was Floydada's first victory over the Wildcats on their home turf in 20 years, and set the stage for the 6-3 Whirlwinds to secure a playoff berth with a victory at Dimmitt this week. A Bobcat win over Floydada, coupled with a Littlefield defeat of Tulia in the season finale, would vault Dimmitt into the #2 district seed in the playoffs (by virtue of their 4-2 advantage in penetrations in the 14-all tie with Littlefield four weeks ago).

Tulia can clinch the district title by topping Littlefield this week, but a loss to the Wildcats (and a Floydada victory over Dimmitt) would make the Hornets and Whirlwinds co-champions. Tulia enters the Bi-District round of the playoffs as the #1 seed and faces either Canyon, Perryton or Dalhart from District 1-3A. Childress has already wrapped up the title in the northern district. Should Floydada top Dimmitt, a repeat of last year's Bi-District clash will have a second chapter played between the Whirlwinds and Childress on Friday, November 13.

Floydada's victory over Littlefield had a remarkable number of similarities with last year's season finale, won by Littlefield 28-24. The Whirlwinds scored first in the final moments of the first quarter. Jammie Davis was credited with the blocked punt which led to Sammy Rodriguez's 6-yard TD run off the option with 28 seconds remaining in the initial period.

Following an exchange of possessions, Littlefield took advantage of a short Whirlwind punt to score a touchdown and tying conversion midway through the second period. QB Brian Parmer's 37-yard pass to Michael Wright (down to the Floydada 3-yard line) set up Rene Espinoza's 1-yard blast for a Bobcat score. Darren Fletcher's conversion attempt was good to knot the score at 7-7. Penalties wiped out Floydada's momentum following the Wildcat kickoff, and the two squads remained deadlocked at halftime.

The 'Winds received the second half kickoff and mounted an impressive 12-play, 64-yard drive. A fourth-down conversion kept the drive alive, Michael Henderson logged his 14th touchdown of the season from one yard out, and Gilliland's kick put the Whirlwinds back on top 14-7.

A ruling by the officials on the ensuing kickoff helped the 'Cats get on the scoreboard. Espinoza fumbled the kickoff and Floydada recovered the apparent turnover deep in Littlefield country, but the ball was ruled dead. The Wildcats took advantage of the break and countered quickly with a 4-play, 79-yard scoring drive. QB Brian Parmer hooked up with Everett Young on a 43-yard pass for a touchdown. Fletcher added the conversion, and the score was again knotted at 14.

Littlefield capitalized on a blocked Whirlwind punt in the final three minutes of the third period. The 'Cats traveled the short 15 yards in six plays as Espinoza blasted into the Floydada end zone from the 2-yard line. Fletcher's kick was true, and Littlefield led for the first time 21-14.

Floydada opened the fourth quarter with a 9-play, 65-yard drive, with Jammie Davis and Michael Henderson carrying the bulk of the load. Davis made the clearing block as Henderson scored his second touchdown of the night from the Littlefield 7-yard line. With 8 minutes remaining, and the game on the line, Gilliland's kick pulled the 'Winds back into a 21-all tie.

Littlefield's only turnover came on their first play following the kickoff. Adam Gonzales crashed through to pressure Parmer as he attempted a pitch to Espinoza, the ball fell to the ground, and Jesse Rodriguez recovered for the Whirlwinds at Littlefield's 15-yard line. Three plays netted only two yards, and the 'Winds lined up for a field goal attempt (the line of scrimmage was near the Wildcat 13-yard line). Scott Crader snapped, Sammy Rodriguez spotted at the 23, and Gilliland connected on the game-winning 33-yarder.

Jason Pyle, Josh Thayer and Michael Henderson made key defensive plays on Littlefield's final possession. The Wildcats moved from their own 27 down to Floydada's 45-yard line, but the drive was stopped on a fourth down pass attempt. Thayer turned the receiver around and Henderson reached in to knock the ball away at Floydada's 28-yard line. The 'Winds took over at their own 45, and made two critical first downs to shut the door on the Wildcats.

BILL'S NOTES

Talk about deja vu! With 6:40 left in last year's 28-24 loss to Littlefield, Micheal Gilliland was called upon to attempt a 33-yard field goal - with the score tied at 21-all. He connected on that one to put the 'Winds up 24-21, only to have the 'Cats drive the length of the field to score the winning points in the final minute.

Last Friday night it was a 33-yarder, placed at virtually the same spot on the 23-yard line, facing the same north end zone from the identical right hash mark - with 6:27 showing on the game clock. The time difference left in the two games was 13 seconds, which just happens to be (for whatever reason) Gilliland's lucky number... he was born on a Friday the 13th.

If Floydada wins at Dimmitt this week, the 'Winds will again face the Childress Bobcats on... you guessed it... Friday, November 13! Oh yes... the line of scrimmage last Friday was between the 12 and 13 yard line when Crader snapped the ball back for Sammy's hold. That "13" number just seems to keep coming up.

"Gill's" pressure-packed 3-pointer gets my nod for the offensive play of the game. It was good to have All-State guard Todd Cage back on the field. He and the rest of the offensive line get my vote for the offensive players of the game. They did some "numbers" on a good Littlefield front to spring Henderson and Davis on the two time-consuming scoring drives when the game was up for grabs.

Jammie Davis' punt block, which set up the 'Winds' first touchdown late in the 1st period, gets my nod for the defensive play of the game. The entire Whirlwind stopper unit performed well, so it is difficult to single out any one player... but Jason Pyle wins my "Headhunter" award again for his "stick" on Wildcat wingback Alan Blair on the third play of the second quarter. Pyle also unloaded on the Littlefield receiver on a 1st down play from the Floydada 49-yard line during the Wildcats' final futile attempts to pull out a victory.

The Whirlwinds can ill afford to celebrate the BIG win at Littlefield for very long. They've got one more big assignment... to prepare well for the improved Dimmitt Bobcats. A win at Dimmitt will insure a Bi-District rematch with a Bobcat of another color (and coupled with a Littlefield defeat of Tulia) could give Floydada a district co-championship. Let's take the first Bobcats FIRST... like Floydada 32, Dimmitt 13.

Littlefield Wildcat JV upends Whirlwind Junior Varsity team

By Bill Gray

Littlefield defeated Floydada 27-12 in junior varsity action at Wester Field on October 29. Floydada opened the scoring with a 7-yard TD run by J.R. Quilantan in the first quarter. The visitors countered with a 20-yarder for a touchdown, picked the conversion, and led 7-6.

The JV Wildcats forged ahead in the second period with a 30-yard touchdown and PAT, but Floydada fought back. Tate Glasscock tallied from one yard out, but the pass attempt for the 2-pointer failed. Littlefield held a slim 14-12 lead at intermission.

The visitors added to their winning margin with a 5-yard touchdown following a time-consuming drive in the third quarter, and added an insurance TD and extra point in the final period.

Tate Glasscock, Nufo Cervera and Rod Vela were named outstanding offensive players by their coaches. Honored for their defensive performances were Neal Nelson, Peter Luna and Tim Rando. The JV 'Winds close out their season when they host Dimmitt's JV at Wester Field on November 5.

Whirlwind send-off planned Friday downtown

The Whirlwind Booster Club will have a downtown send-off Friday afternoon at 4:00 p.m. Everyone is encouraged to come and support the Winds. The Floydada Whirlwinds will be playing the Dimmitt Bobcats at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Dimmitt.

Whirlwind Fans

Hey all you Whirlwind fans, this week the Fighting Whirlwinds travel to Dimmitt to try to win their last District game. The game starts at 7:30 and the weatherman says it will be a very cold night, so be prepared!

Breezer Football Report

By Bill Gray

The 7th grade Breezers struck first with an opening period score, but Littlefield rallied for the 12-8 victory in junior high action at Wildcat Stadium on October 29.

Fullback Jason Campbell put the Breezers on the board with a first quarter touchdown from a yard out and Wade Wiles ran in the two-pointer. The touchdown was set up by Richard Casillas' 45-yard return of a pass interception.

Casillas picked off another Littlefield aerial, and the Breezers moved as far as the hosts' 2-yard line before a fumble stopped their second scoring threat. Littlefield scored to pull to within two points and broke for an 87-yard touchdown to pull out the victory. Jesse Garza also had a pass interception for the Breezers to help keep the game close.

The coach stated, "We didn't play very well! Neither team hit each other all night. They made the big play to win the game and we didn't."

The 8th Breezers played hard before losing to Littlefield 18-8 in the nightcap. Floydada was again forced to use players at unfamiliar positions, which was a factor particularly in the offensive line.

Littlefield led 18-0 in the fourth quarter before Vernon Cooper scored on an 85-yard kickoff return.

The coach commented, "We must give Littlefield credit - their defense was in our backfield most of the night. They have a good, sound program and what they do, they do well. They certainly have the best tailback in the district. He works very hard on every snap of the ball."

The coaches added, "We can't wait to get another shot at Dimmitt. We feel we owe them one, and we didn't play very well against them earlier in the year. Both Breezer squads close their seasons on November 5 when they travel to Dimmitt for games with the young "Bob Kittens."

Marricle wins ninth week of annual football contest

Keith Marricle of Floydada won the first place check for $25.00 this next to the last week of the Hesperian-Beacon annual football contest. Marricle was the only entrant who missed only six games on the contest. His prize check will be waiting for him at the Hesperian-Beacon Office in Floydada on Friday.

Second place goes to Aaron Graham of Lockney. His entry had only seven errors on it. A check for the second place prize of $15.00 will be in the Lockney office of the Hesperian-Beacon on Friday for him.

Gene Lowrance of Floydada earned the third place prize of $10.00. His entry had eight misses on it. His prize check will be in the Hesperian-Beacon Office in Floydada on Friday.

Seven other contestants came close to the prize slots. They each had nine incorrect game choices for the week.

8TH WEEK CORRECTION

After discovering that an error in scoring the contest had occurred, the entries were re-graded. David Brewer of Lockney still earned the first place honors in the eighth week of the annual Hesperian-Beacon football contest. His entry had six incorrect choices on the contest.

Second and third place winners also remained the same with Dickie McCarty of Lockney in second and Irma Vasquez of Floydada in third. Each missed seven on the contest and the tie-breaker was utilized to determine the placing.

The item which did change was the names on those earning honorable mention for also missing only seven games. These included: Jammie Davis, Clay Simpson, Carrie Davis, Jean Hale, Jana Davis, Sherree Cannon, Chad Turner, Owen Thornton, Sam Hale, J.P. Wright and Chris Enriquez.

CONTEST RULES AND SPONSORS

Entrants are reminded that contest rules call for circling the number on the official entry blank of the team you want to indicate as the winner in each of the sponsored footballs. Any other means of identifying your selection is not acceptable and will be marked wrong.

Sponsors making the contest and the prize money possible include Atebury Grain, Cargill Hybrid Seeds, The Tye Company, Lambert Spraying, Schacht's Flowers, Jewelry & Gifts,

University of Texas Center for American History opens exhibit

Newspapers representing a broad spectrum of political and cultural interests over the past 150 years are the subject of "Paper, Mister? Newspaper Resources in the Center for American History," a new exhibition at The University of Texas at Austin's Center for American History.

The newspapers are a sample of the center's holdings of more than 4,800 titles drawn from its Texas Newspaper Collection, Natchez Trace Collection and George W. Littlefield Southern History Collection.

A rich source of information on the diverse communities they served, the newspapers in the exhibit include The Choctaw Intelligencer (1851) from the then-Indian Territory of Oklahoma; a 1925 issue of the Brownsville Cronista del Valle; Philadelphia's Lady Newspaper from 1849; the Louisville, Ky., Heathen Helper (1886); and an 1837 issue of Boston abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison's The Liberator.

"By studying newspapers, we gain an insight into both the activities and the thoughts of members of the diverse and overlapping communities that compose American society," said Fred Burchsted, the exhibit's curator.

Many newspapers on exhibit wear their affiliations on their mastheads. Elgins' Pure Democracy (1922) proclaims, "Democracy versus popery — no neutral ground, no compromise, Rome must be destroyed, our fight is legal." Cincinnati's American Grange Bulletin (1888) declares, "How to the line, let the chips fall where they will." The Brazoria Texas Planter (1853) announces that it is "Devoted to literature, agriculture and general intelligence."

"Paper, Mister?" is on display at the Center for American History through Sept. 30. The center is in Sid Richardson Hall Unit 2, adjacent to the LBJ Library and Museum, and is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Monroe field goal makes the difference in 30-27 victory

By Les Reed

With only two seconds on the play clock, Patrick Monroe booted a 25 yard field goal to put the Horns over the top by 3. This game proved to be an exciting, action filled game with both teams adding up the points. Each team seemed to have it's place in the spotlight as Lockney dominated the first half and then Shallowater came back in the second half to tie the game up.

The first period saw the Longhorns take and drive the ball the length of the field with an impressive offense. Patrick Monroe put the first 6 on the board as he ran from 2 yards out. Monroe made the point after leaving the score 7-0 at the end of the first quarter.

During the second quarter the Horns scored again as Leo Vargas took the ball into the end zone from 8 yards out. The point after attempt was good and this put the Horns up by 14 going into the half. This seemed to be a different team this week, as they were fired up and ready to play ball.

The third period started out just as the first half had ended, with the Longhorns putting another 7 points on the scoreboard. Leo Vargas ran from two yards out making the score 21-0 in the third period. This time though the Mustangs were ready to answer the call as they scored on a 34 yard pass play. The third period ended with the Longhorns over Shallowater by 14.

During the fourth and final period the Mustangs would come alive as they put 20 points on the board. The Longhorns would answer in the fourth with 6 points, leaving the game tied with only seconds left in the game. At this point in the game the coaches had put their trust in the kicking team. Patrick Monroe would come on with only two seconds left to play to try and put the Horns up by three. As the ball was placed on the field Monroe kicked it through the goal post, leaving the Shallowater Mustangs with the agony of defeat. The Horns prevailed in this District 3-2A game leaving their record at 3-3 in district play.

Next week the Horns finish out their season at home as they face off against Springlake-Earth. With Springlake-Earth at 6-0 in district play the Horns will have to be at their best. Come on out and root them on to a victory! See you at the game.

Appling to represent District 2 on Texas Farm Bureau Committee

David Appling of Floydada will represent District 2 as a member of the Texas Farm Bureau Resolutions Committee. The committee will meet in Waco November 9-11 at the TFB state office. "The purpose of the Resolutions Committee is to consolidate and prepare the package of resolutions for the voting delegates at Corpus Christi," stated Glen Jones, director of the TFB Research, Education and Policy Development Department.

Delegates will vote on state and national resolutions at the 59th annual TFB meeting which will be held November 29-December 2 at Corpus Christi's Bayfront Convention Center.

State resolutions adopted at Corpus will become policy for the entire TFB membership in 1993. National resolutions approved there will be forwarded to the American Farm Bureau Federation as recommendations to be voted on at the AFBF annual meeting in January at Anaheim, California.

TFB Vice-President, Bob Stallman of Columbus, will chair the 41 member Resolutions Committee. Tom Wolter of Bishop, Chairman of the TFB Young Farmer and Rancher Advisory Committee will also serve on the panel. Three leaders from each of TFB's 13 districts also were appointed to serve on this committee.

Agency to open in Levelland

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's new Rural Development Administration will officially open its Southwest regional headquarters in Levelland, TX on October 30, U.S. Sen. Phil Gramm said.

Gramm said a ribbon cutting ceremony is scheduled at the new regional headquarters in Levelland at 2:00 p.m. on Friday.

The senator said the RDA will administer direct and guaranteed loans for community facilities, including health clinics, fire stations and other facilities; loans for both existing and new rural businesses; and, loans and grants for water and waste systems infrastructure in rural areas.

Many of these programs have been handled in the past by the U.S. farmers Home Administration and other federal agencies, he noted.

"Consolidating all of the federal rural development initiatives and programs into one agency makes good sense," Gramm said. "Rural development is vital, particularly in Texas, and I am confident the RDA can work closely with rural communities to create jobs and economic growth."

The senator said the regional office in Levelland will also serve the states of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona.

The Levelland office will employ 15 people when it opens on Friday.

RDA loans and grants in the current fiscal year are expected to total more than $88 million, Gramm noted.

Gramm and Rep. Larry Combest worked earlier this year to establish the new regional headquarters in Texas.

PCG submits request for emergency exemption approval for fungicide

Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers (PCG) has submitted a Section 18 Specific Emergency Exemption request to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) in an effort to get approval for the use of Baytan 30 Flowable Fungicide on cottonseed in 1993.

Baytan is a seed treatment that has proven effective against Thielaviopsis basicola, or Black Root Rot as it is commonly known. This type of seedling disease has been identified as an increasing problem in many High Plains and Trans-Pecos cotton fields.

Black Root Rot can affect a cotton producer's bottom line in a couple of different ways. If the stand survives an attack of the seedling disease there can be a severe reduction in yield potential per plant. If it doesn't survive the grower can be forced to replant or even give up on his crop.

It has been demonstrated that other treatments are not effective in field use. There is no other economically or environmentally feasible alternative practice that can adequately address the situation but Baytan 30 FL has been shown to be effective against the disease.

This PCG Section 18 request is the second such request made in an effort to allow the use of Baytan on the High Plains. The first request was granted a crisis exemption by the Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) allowing producers limited use of the product in 1992. That exemption was revoked by EPA in June. The new request will go from TDA directly to the EPA for approval.

"The new request for a section 18 exemption was submitted late last week," notes Roger Haldenby, PCG Executive Assistant. "The new request contains additional research data and hopefully will answer some of the questions that prompted the revoking of our previous exemption. The hard part of getting a application like this approved is showing a significant yield increase as a result of the product's use. There are so many other factors affecting yield between planting and harvest that mask the effects of a seed treatment."

He adds that with a seed treatment like Baytan the biggest benefit a producer receives is maintaining healthy initial stands of cotton and avoiding the cost of replanting all or part of the crop.

An application for full labeling of Baytan on cotton is also under consideration by EPA but is unlikely to be granted until well after the 1993 planting season.

Members of the Texas Cotton Association met for the 1992 West Texas Flow Marketing Meeting.

The meeting featured an update of cotton's current situation and outlook.

The release of a survey conducted by the Texas Cotton Association indicated that shipping commitments for the West Texas/Oklahoma region total near 1.27 million bales for the 1992 crop. A breakdown of the survey results show commitments of 928,127 bales to the domestic market and 358,324 bales to the Far East and Europe.

Burning fields brings citations

Due to citations to farmers in Castro County, the Texas Corn Producers Board began working with the Texas Air Control Board on the rules and regulations concerning the burning of corn stubble in the fields.

Carl King, Executive Director of the Texas Corn Producers Board, and Harold Bob Bennett, Executive Assistant, have been in close contact with officials in the Texas Air Control Board (TACB) in Austin and the Regional Office in Lubbock.

King stated, "We are just trying to understand what the guidelines are for burning and how it pertains to the farmers."

"After numerous telephone conversations with the TACB, it is obvious they want to cooperate and work with us, but there are certain restrictions that must be followed," states King. The most important of these are that under absolutely no circumstances is the Texas Air Control

Suggestions given for daily nutrient requirements for cow herd in winter

From Mike Mallett, CEA-Ag.

With fall winding down and winter looming ahead, ranchers/cattle producers need to be prepared to deal with the less than ideal conditions to which their cattle are exposed.

The following suggestions are made to help make the season more tolerable for livestock and more profitable for producers.

Open cows that will not calve in the spring should be culled from the herd. By removing open cows and heifers before the winter feeding period begins, one can significantly reduce the annual total cost of production. This is also a good time to remove "problem" cows. Those with a history of bad udders, calving difficulties, prolapses and other ailments.

Probably the most challenging task is to economically meet the nutritional requirements of the herd. This requires careful management practices. Factors to be considered include the level of nutrition necessary to maintain the animals, pasture conditions, weather conditions and the type of supplement fed.

To identify the nutritional needs of each animal they should be divided into several categories, including growing heifers, pregnant heifers, pregnant cows and lactating cows. They should be fed according to the guidelines established in the table found at the end of this article. By not overfeeding the younger heifers or underfeeding lactating cows, the herd can be more profitably managed.

When the pastures begin to decline in quantity as well as quality of grass available it is time to begin supplementing the livestock. During peak winter months protein of native grasses will only be 3-5 percent crude protein. This level is not adequate for a dry mature cow.

As the winter progresses and the pastures become extremely short, hay or replacement feed must be implemented. For a dry, pregnant cow, it takes 16 to 20 pounds of hay to meet her daily energy needs. To meet the energy requirements of a lactating cow, 20 to 25 pounds or all the hay she can eat should be provided. This hay should contain at least 12 percent protein. If hay was cut after heading out, the protein might range from 6 to 8 percent.

By feeding hay in a rack, hay waste is reduced, thus lowering the feed cost and increasing the potential profit. Research has shown that big round bales fed without a rack, result in a loss of one-third (1/3) the total product.

When the weather turns bitterly cold additional energy requirements are necessary. Temperatures below 20 degrees result in animals falling below their "comfort zones". This will increase their energy needs by 20 percent. But remember, this is above the regular supplemental program.

By providing shelter, the amount of additional supplement can be reduced. An important factor to consider is the difference between a wet coat and a dry coat. A wet coat provided absolutely no insulation. A cow will be colder at 30 degrees wet than she will be at five degrees dry.

One last area to be considered in preparation for winter months is water. If a hard freeze lingers for days, alternative water sources must be provided. When calculating the needs for the herd it has been found that a 1,100 pound beef cow will drink six and one-half gallons of water daily.

If you have questions about beef cattle nutritional requirements, contact the Floyd County Extension Office. The telephone number is 983-2806.

DAILY NUTRIENT REQUIREMENTS OF THE COW HERD

FmHA programs assist rural Texas

"The Community Programs Division of the Texas Farmers Home Administration's (FmHA) State Office is proud to announce the success of fiscal year 1992," according to Neal Sox Johnson, State Director for FmHA.

Eighty-five loans and grants have been obligated to Texas communities with amounts totaling over 41.8 million dollars. These funds were used to assist rural water and sanitary sewer systems serving more than 47,000 residential connections with a collective rural population of 138,000 persons.

Community Facility Insured Loans were obligated to assist a variety of essential facilities such as volunteer fire departments, drug awareness facilities, city streets, hospital repairs and a natural gas system. These loans, totaling almost 1.9 million dollars, served approximately 45,000 families in the rural areas of Texas.

Additionally, FmHA obligated three Industrial Development Grants totaling $668,000. One grant provided FmHA with a unique opportunity to assist in the financing of a demonstration facility to construct a fresh water shrimp in Burleson County.

FmHA has increased its emphasis on guaranteed loan programs. The guarantee program helps borrowers establish a relationship with commercial lenders and assists their transition to private sector credit. Guaranteed loans totaling nearly $445,000 were obligated for water and waste disposal and community facilities.

President Bush's budget for fiscal year 1993, as recently approved by Congress, has authorized $990 million nationally for rural water and waste program loans and grants and $100 million for essential community facility programs. In addition, the President's budget has authorized $35 million for guaranteed water and waste loans and $100 million for guaranteed community facilities loans.

"The Texas Community Program Division looks forward to an allocation of approximately $40.1 million in the direct water and waste programs for loans and grants, and $4.1 million in direct essential community facilities funding to assist rural Texans in fiscal year 1993. Approximately $3.9 million for guaranteed community facility program funds will be available to serve

WINSTON BLEY

Services for Winston C. Bley, 72, of Del Rio were at 2 p.m. Saturday, October 31, 1992, in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Mike Wilcox, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Olton Cemetery under direction of Foskey Funeral Home.

Bley died at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, October 25, 1992, in Southwest Texas Methodist Hospital in San Antonio after a brief illness.

He was born in Lockney and moved to Del Rio from Olton in 1981. He graduated from Olton High School and attended Texas Tech University. He married Lucy Loyd. She died in 1977. He married Margaret Daugherty on September 29, 1980, in Lubbock. He was an Army Air Corps veteran of World War II and retired as a sergeant. He was past president of the Olton school board.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Philip of Philadelphia, Carl E. of Birmingham, Ala., and Daryl L. of Austin; two stepson, Bob Daugherty of Odessa and Steve Daugherty of Fluvanna; two daughters, Carolyn Luke of Houston and Paulette Turner of Amarillo; a stepdaughter, Linda Hall of San Antonio; two sisters, Olga Dahle of Greenwich, Conn., and Paula Stephens of Long Island, N.Y.; five grandchildren; and five step-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to the Running Water Draw Center in care of Olton State Bank or to the American Heart Association.

HETTIE BROWN

Funeral services for Hettie Brown, 87, of Plainview, were at 4 p.m. Tuesday, November 3, 1992, in Lemons Memorial Chapel with the Rev. Gary Kleypas, pastor of Providence Lutheran Church, officiating.

Burial was in Parklawn Memorial Gardens by Lemons Funeral Home.

Mrs. Brown died at 8:51 a.m. Sunday, November 1, 1992, at her home following a lengthy illness.

She was born Hettie Frances Morrison on August 17, 1905 in Jacksonville. She moved to Plainview and graduated from Plainview High School and she worked in the office for Dr. W.J. Lloyd. She and her husband farmed in Floyd County before moving to Ruidoso, N.M. in 1947. She moved to Plainview in 1973.

In 1956 she was named the National Flying Farmers Association State Queen of New Mexico. In 1974 she was NFFA New Mexico Woman of the Year and was the 1979 NFFA State Queen of Texas. She was a former member of the Methodist Church in Aiken.

She married Ralph A. Brown on September 6, 1924 in Hale County.

A granddaughter, Lynn Rigler, preceded her in death.

Survivors include her husband; five daughters, Otero Scheele of Lockney, Maxine Rigler of Austin, Marie Sammann of Dimmitt, Shirley Burrows of Van Buren, M.O., and Patsy Haley of Socorro, N.M.; two brothers, Ray Morrison of Arizona and Roy Morrison of Plainview; three sisters, Leta Tannahill of Friona, Kate Skelton of Lubbock and Faye Holmes of Plainview; 19 grandchildren; and 43 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

The family suggests memorials to the Hospice of the Plains.

STELLA "TED" CHOWNING

Graveside services for Stella "Ted" Chowning, 94, of Bowie, formerly of Floydada, were at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, October 31, 1992, in Floydada Cemetery with the Rev. Clark Williams, pastor of First United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial arrangements were by Moore-Rose-White Funeral Home.

Mrs. Chowning died Wednesday, October 28, 1992, at Bowie.

She was born Stella Curry on August 12, 1898 in Waxahachie. She moved to Floyd County in 1906, moved away and moved back in 1921. She moved to Bowie in 1973. She was a homemaker and a member of First United Methodist Church.

She married Alvis W. Chowning on May 27, 1919 in Blue Grove. He died June 2, 1958.

Survivors include two daughters, Billie Beane of Sunset and Jennie Pauline Aten of Victoria; two sons, O.D. Noyes of Bowie, Leroy Chowning of Floydada; six grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren.

TED TAYLOR SR.

Graveside services for Ted R. Taylor Sr., 88, of Andrews were at 2 p.m. Friday, October 30, 1992, in Andrews Cemetery with the Rev. Rick Elmore, pastor of Church of God, officiating.

Burial was under direction of McNett Funeral Home.

He died at 6:33 p.m. Tuesday, October 27, 1992, at his residence.

He was born in Center and moved to Andrews from Kirbyville in 1962. He married Ida "Florine" Parker on January 22, 1946 in Henderson. He was a retired tool pusher of Rodrick Co. He was an Army veteran.

Survivors include his wife; four sons, Gene Taylor of Texarkana, Roger Stewart of Granger, Colo., Wayne Taylor of Center and John R. Taylor of Andrews; four daughters, Patricia Sareno of San Antonio, Vanessa Gammage and Donna Morris, both of Andrews, and Gerry Summers of Floydada; two sisters, Ollie B. Freeman and Rosa L. Taylor, both of Jasper; 22 grandchildren; and 10 great-grandchildren.

ESTHER L. MCILRATH

Esther L. McIlrath died in her home in Florence, Oregon October 22, 1992, of natural causes.

In 1924 Mrs. McIlrath came to Floydada from Oklahoma with her family, Andy and Ethel Collins where she attended high school prior to graduating from St. Anthony's School of Nursing in Amarillo. She was a registered nurse and worked in Ft. Collins, Colorado, Chicago, and various California state medical facilities prior to her retirement in the mid 1970's.

She is survived by her husband, A.J. McIlrath; a daughter, Jennie Sue Holligan; two sisters, Mary Adams and Dorris Tobin of Sacramento, CA; two grandchildren; and a great-grandson.

At Mrs. McIlrath's request, there were no funeral services and her ashes were buried in Sacramento, CA.

RV club plans next campout

By Carol Reese

The Whirlwind Sams met at Light-house Electric on November 2, for their regular monthly meeting. The invocation was brought by Carol Reese. The president, Boone Adams, welcomed the visitors, Darrell and Nancy Mayo and Jane McCulley, and recognized those having birthdays and anniversaries in November.

The program was brought by Vernon and Eva Parker, who told about their recent two week tour of England and showed a video about touring Great Britain by train.

After the program the president conducted a brief business meeting. Frances Weathersbee gave a report on the October campout to Kerrville, and Christine Lyles told about the trip to Waco for the Samboree. The next campout will be in Gaines County with the Gilbreaths as trailmasters. The Christmas party will be December 5, at the Plains Baptist Assembly. The door prize was won by the Feuerbachers. Twenty-two rigs were represented, with a total attendance of 44. The meeting ended with the singing of "Happy Trails."

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Floydada Independent School District has been scheduled for an on-site review by the Division of Accreditation of the Texas Education Agency during the week of November 16 - 20, 1992.

The review will focus primarily on student performance, the district/campus planning process, and the district/ campus implementation of the decision-making process. These three areas should address the educational and instructional needs of all students in the district.

Members of the Agency review team will conduct a public meeting in order to hear from parents and community members of the school district on November 16, 6:30 p.m., high school auditorium.

Parents and patrons may present written or oral comments to the visiting team during this time. Issues to address are student performance, the planning process, and the decision-making process.

Patrons or parents may contact the school district at 983-3498, for further information or to make any special arrangements because of a handicapping condition.

El Distrito Escolar de Floydada recibira una visita de acreditacion conducida por la Agencia Educativa del Estado de Tejas durante la semana de Noviembre 16-20, 1992.

La visita sera enfocada primeramente en las areas academicas que se refieren a los estudiantes, el proceso de planeacion de temas educativos para la escuela y el distrito en general, asi como la capacidad para tomar decisiones dentro del mismo. Estas tres areas deben de dirigirse a las necesidades educativas e instruccionales de los estudiantes dentro del distrito.

Los miembros de la Agencia Educativa conduciran una junta donde ustedes los padres y miembros de la comunidad tendran la oportunidad de presentar sus comentarios tocante las areas mencionadas (dia, tiempo, localidad). Ustedes los padres y miembros de la comunidad podran presentar sus comentarios oralmente o por escrito durante este tiempo.

El comportamiento estudiantil, el proceso de planeacion y tomar decisiones son los temas a discutir.

Para mas informacion tocante a este junta, o para hacer arreglos por algun impedimento de deshabilitacion, favor de ponerse en contacto con el distrito, al telefono y al numero 983-3498.

FOOTBALL CONTEST

GOOD LUCK!!

Football Contest Rules

Any subscriber or individual above the age of 7 years old who purchases a Floyd County Hesperian-Beacon is eligible to enter this newspaper's weekly football contest, except employees of this newspaper and family members living in the same household.

To play, circle on the official entry form, the numbers of the teams you believe will win this week's games. To indicate a tie, circle the numbers of both teams playing the game. In addition, write in the two tie breaker footballs your guess of the combined total points to be scored by the two teams listed in each tie breaker football. Also circle the team you believe will win. Circle both teams if you think the game will end in a tie.

The only entries which will be considered for prizes will be those on official entry forms which are brought to the Hesperian-Beacon office in Floydada or to the Hesperian-Beacon Office in Lockney by 5:00 p.m. on Friday. No photocopies will be accepted.

NO MAIL ENTRIES WILL BE ACCEPTED.

Three cash prizes are offered each week. In the event of ties - the same number of correct games and equal scores on the tie breakers - prizes will be shared by those involved in the tie. The tie breaker scores will be utilized only in the event of a tie on the number of games correct.

Print your name and address plainly on the official entry form and double check your choices before clipping out the entry form and depositing it at the Hesperian-Beacon office before 5:00 p.m. on Friday.

Entries are limited to one per person per week. Weekly winners are limited to one per household.
