West Agrees On Master Plan For Germany

Stock Pledged In Livestock Auction

Interest in the proposed livestock auction ring here grew rapidly today as commitments came in for preferred stock in the corporation which will operate the ring.

About 125 men yesterday afternoon attended a public meeting, at which a special committee which had been appointed earlier reported on a study and made the proposal for the organization.

Preferred stock was expected to all be committed in one or two days, and by mid-morning $32,500 of the $55,000 in preferred stock was already definitely sold.

One to five men can buy a $5,000 block of preferred stock, and plans call for these "A" stockholders to be members of the corporation's board of directors. There will be only one director for each $5,000 of "A" stock, however. Up to five persons can team together to buy a $5,000 block of "A" stock, but those five must pick only one to serve on the board. The special committee designated Aubrey Headstream at the Sweetwater Production Credit Association as contact man.

It was at first proposed that there be seven directors who each have $5,000 worth of "A" stock, but in accordance with proposals made at the public meeting by some of those attending yesterday and with interest shown since the meeting, the number of board members was raised to 11, with a total of $55,000 in preferred stock.

Another public meeting will be held at 7:30 p.m. next Thursday in the district courtroom of the courthouse. At that time it will be known who the directors will be, members of the special committee said.

The plans call for three kinds of stock in the proposed corporation. The "A" stock will be that of the directors, while there will be "B" stock in any amount. Those purchasing "B" stock will not be eligible to serve on the board but will qualify for dividends. This will be made up mainly of smaller investments by farmers and ranchers. There will be a "C" stock class which will not draw dividends. This will be mainly for merchants who desire to participate in getting the auction ring started and who will get their dividend from increased trade from the area on livestock sale days.

Weldon Johnson, chairman of the special committee, presided at yesterday's meeting. The special committee for study had been chosen from an earlier meeting which had been called by the Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee.

In the meeting, Johnson and Headstream, secretary of the committee, reported on the committee's studies and suggestions. The committee had checked on two types of barns and their costs. One was like that now at Sweetwater, another a metal building which would be a "first class" facility.

The committee's opinion was that a 60 by 80-foot metal building with rock or brick front, lots, land, heating and air conditioning, water and other needed facilities could all be arranged for about $75,000. This would be a larger building than that at Sweetwater.

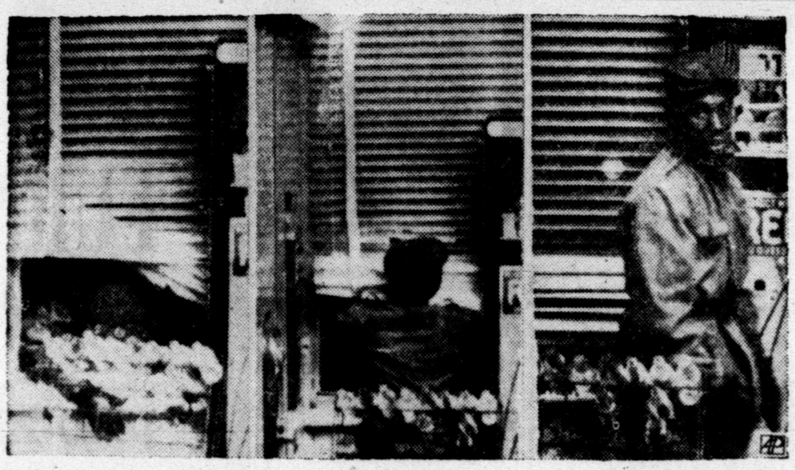

The committee reported on discussions it held with Miles Culwell of Sweetwater, who had operated nine auction rings at a profit and is now retired from that type business.

Important items in a successful livestock auction ring, it was reported, are facilities for the auction, the starter, and the yard man. There was some discussion on whether there are sufficient cattle in this area to support the auction ring. The committee was optimistic on that point. There are now auctions at Lubbock, Lamesa, Colorado City, and Sweetwater at the closest points, and there is a wide area with many cattlemen between those points. There is considerable interest among stockmen in outlying areas already about the possibility of an auction here, committeemen reported.

The benefit to the merchant was pointed out during the meeting. Special sales in stores are built around livestock sale days in most cities, and reports are that cities in this area which now have livestock auction rings derive much trade from those who attend the sale and also shop in stores, including Snyder and Scurry County stockmen.

An auction ring can break even with about 250 cattle in a weekly sale, it was reported, and it can handle up to 1,000 head with about the same facilities and personnel, if facilities are built as proposed here.

The proposed corporation which would operate the ring here would be a limited corporation, and investors would stand to lose no more than their investment. It would be bonded.

VOTING BRISK IN FRIENDLY CONTEST

Voting continued at a brick pace today in the Snyder Daily News contest to name the city's "friendliest, most courteous" woman employe and "friendliest, most courteous" man employe.

You still have time to get your ballot in and help select the friendliest persons employed in Snyder business and professional firms.

Use the official ballot, which may be found on Page 2 of this issue of The Snyder Daily News. When you have made your selections, mail or bring the ballot to The Snyder Daily News.

The two winners each will receive a $50 U. S. Savings Bond, and all nominees become members of the "Courtesy Club."

Seek Gradual Unification

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Britain, France and West Germany were reported generally favorable today to a U.S. master plan for negotiations with the Soviet Union on the future of Germany.

The aim of the plan is to achieve the unification of West Germany and Communist East Germany in stages over a period of years. This would begin with creation of a loose federation and end with the conclusion of a German peace treaty.

Limitations on forces in central Europe and an end to the division of Berlin also are envisioned as the plan progressed.

The foreign ministers of Britain and France are to discuss the program with Acting Secretary of State Christian Herter here next Tuesday.

West German representatives will join the talks Wednesday in advance of broader discussions among foreign ministers of all the North Atlantic Treaty powers meeting Thursday for a NATO 10th anniversary session.

The preliminary discussions are pointed toward an East-West foreign ministers meeting in Geneva May 11 and a later summit conference, as proposed to the Soviet Union by the Western powers Thursday.

It is an open question whether the U.S.S.R. would be interested in any part of the U.S. plan or in any other which the Western powers might suggest.

Some officials say there is at least a slight possibility Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may be seriously interested in negotiating an acceptable German settlement.

Others say that whether or not Khrushchev is interested, the Western powers must go into the negotiations with the Soviets prepared to put on the table a set of reasonable proposals which would dramatically demonstrate the willingness of the Western powers to make agreements with the Soviet Union on fair terms.

The detailed program which has now been worked out would begin the merger process by increasing direct contacts between East and West Germany in all sorts of practical ways in such fields as commerce and travel.

A temporary all-German group, possibly to be known as a council, would be created by representatives from the traditional 15 German laender (states) of which 10 are in West Germany with its population of 52 million and 5 in East Germany with its population of 17 million.

The new all-German group would have only limited powers and functions. Its main task would be to pull the two sides of Germany progressively closer together and to ease the shock of social, political and economic adjustment created by changing the conditions which have existed in Germany since the end of World War II.

Daniel Comes Out For Hale-Aikin School Program

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Daniel came out swinging to raise the pay for teachers yesterday but left dangling the answer to the money question.

He said he suggested in January a 1-cent increase in gasoline taxes as one way to produce revenue for financing extra programs.

Daniel added the Hale-Aikin school improvement recommendations to his program and said specific features of it should precede enactment of any public school teachers' pay boosts.

"We ought to have a driver-education program whether we have any of the Hale - Aikin enacted," he said. He also put as a priority matter the program of teaching English to pre - school non - English speaking children, another Hale - Aikin feature.

The governor said further studies pointed out he could amend his budget recommendations to provide faculty salary increases in the 18-state-supported colleges for both years of the next biennium.

He originally adopted a recommendation for salary increases for the second year only. Daniel said his revenue-producing recommendations would include enough money to cover these additions "as well as a cost-of-living or longevity increase for state employes who do not receive adequate salaries for comparable work in private business and industry."

The governor said the adjustments for state employes would cost about three millions, the college teachers' salaries about four millions plus more than one million dollars for increased library appropriations.

Daniel told newsmen the Hale-Aikin proposal, which includes $800 a year more for teachers, should be handled after the current deficit and new tax proposals to pull the state government through the next biennium were cleared first.

Asked how much he thought teachers should get, he said it should "be determined by what manner we took care of the state's other obligations."

The estimated cost of the Hale-Aikin program is 107 million dollars a year which includes about 20 million dollars in local funds.

He said he had endorsed the full program, with the exception of the extended school year, "but it is a long range program which the legislators may want to implement by financing during the next two bienniums rather than in one biennium."

Daniel said the No. 1 item of business was to retire the deficit estimated to hit 65 million dollars by the end of the current fiscal year. The deficit would be met by the Legislature to provide for revenue measures, including 44 millions a year in new taxes, to care for present and improved state services.

Tanker Crewmen Quizzed On Crash

NEW YORK (AP)—The tanker Walchem, blamed by the Grace Line for Thursday's collision with the cruise liner Santa Rosa, was towed into a Brooklyn dock today for investigation by authorities and extensive repairs.

Coast Guard officers and officials of the T. J. Stevenson Co., managing agents for the tanker, immediately went aboard to question crew members about the 3 a.m. crash off Atlantic City, N.J. Reporters were not permitted to board the vessel.

Eighteen crewmen were aboard the tanker as it came into port in tow by tugboats which brought it here from the collision scene some 75 miles to the south.

The crunching smashup brought death to four tanker crewmen but resulted only in a frightening jolt to the 247 Santa Rosa passengers returning from a Caribbean pleasure cruise.

A "radical course alternation" was made by the tanker, the Santa Rosa owners say. There was no immediate comment from the operators of the Valchem.

Conflict over whether there was fog at the time of the crash highlighted the preliminaries to a Coast Guard investigation starting Monday.

Spokesmen for the Grace Line, owner of the Santa Rosa, said the collision off Atlantic City, N.J., at 3 a.m. Thursday occurred in only patchy haze. They said the Valchem had been sighted both visually and by radar.

But a Santa Rosa lookout, a number of passengers and several injured crewmen of the tanker said there was thick fog in the collision area 22 miles off the coast.

Seventeen of the crew of the Valchem were injured, in addition to one known dead and three missing and presumed dead. The Santa Rosa brought the injured here and they were taken to the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital on Staten Island.

None of the 247 passengers and 265 crewmen on the Santa Rosa was injured when the 25-million-dollar liner knifed into the tanker.

Passengers praised the conduct of the Santa Rosa's crew when the damaged liner docked here Thursday night, more than 12 hours late. They said there was no panic among the passengers and they went to their lifeboat stations calmly in response to a general alarm.

Diplomatic Ties Resumed With Bulgaria

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States today resumed full diplomatic relations with Communist Bulgaria.

This ended a nine-year break resulting from Bulgaria's charges the last American minister in Sofia was a spy.

The State Department dropped the long diplomatic ice after the Bulgarian regime announced it has withdrawn the espionage charges against former Minister Donald Heath.

A Bulgarian government representative noted that his country's Supreme Court on Nov. 6, 1956, annulled prison sentences given persons charged with the alleged spying. Therefore, Bulgaria said "charges against Heath in connection herewith have been withdrawn as groundless."

The agreement to resume diplomatic relations came about as a result of more than two years of sporadic behind-the-scenes talk. The Bulgarians first suggested the move in December 1957.

Good Friday Is Observed

By The Associated Press

The faithful of the Christian world followed the Way of the Cross on this Good Friday.

In the Jordan section of Jerusalem, pilgrims and tourists of many lands attended services at the Church of the Holy Sepulcher. Hundreds toiled up Jerusalem's narrow streets on the way to the Cross on Calvary where Jesus Christ was crucified.

Tenebrae services marking the death of Christ drew thousands of pilgrims to St. Peter's in Rome. Pope John XXIII, after taking part in services at Rome's Santa Croce Church, finished work on his Easter message, to be delivered to the world Saturday night.

Good Friday services were held in thousands of Protestant and Roman Catholic services in all Christian countries.

American evangelist Billy Graham delivered a Good Friday message to 8,000 persons standing in the rain on a beach at Broadbeach, Australia.

Storms Battering Big Eastern Area

By The Associated Press

A mixture of winter and spring storms battered areas in the eastern half of the nation today. The violent wintry weather which raked the eastern Rockies and Plains States appeared ended.

Heavy snow piled up in central Lower Michigan and Wisconsin as the storm swept into the Midwest after dumping more than a foot of snow in sections of Colorado and southwest Nebraska.

The snow belt extended eastward across northern areas into New York state.

Rains, severe thunderstorms and strong winds swept across many areas south of the snow belt.

The early spring snow carpet gave the northern areas a Christmaslike scene, two days before Easter.

Northeasterly winds of 20 to 30 m.p.h. whipped the snow into drifts as the storm lashed areas in Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan Thursday.

Driving conditions were hazardous.

Nearly a foot of snow was on the ground in La Crosse, Wis., while four inches fell in a six hour period at Grand Rapids and Saginaw, Mich. Heaviest falls reported in New York state were three inches at Binghamton and more than an inch at Buffalo.

The extensive storm area, centered early this morning in Indiana, was expected to move to the middle Atlantic coastal region by tonight.

Wet weather was in store for most of the Great Lakes region, the Ohio Valley, parts of the middle Mississippi Valley and along the Atlantic Coast. Snow or snow flurries were indicated in the northern areas and showers in the Ohio Valley and along the Atlantic Coast.

South of the snow belt showers and thundershowers, with strong winds, dampened Illinois, Indiana and Ohio and rain, mixed with snow, pelted Iowa.

Ahead of the cold front, extending southward, rain, thunderstorms and strong winds were reported across the southern Appalachians and as far south as Alabama. Severe thunderstorms, with winds up to 50 m.p.h., lashed the Birmingham area and near Pelham, Tenn.

Casualties Reported High In Tibet; Dali Lami Flees

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP) — Maharaja Kumar of Sikkim said today that loss of life in the Tibetan revolt has been very heavy, but as far as he knows the Dali Lama escaped from the Chinese Communists.

The young maharaja, son of the ruler of the tiny Himalayan state between India and Tibet, arrived in Tokyo for a Buddhist cultural conference. He said he got his information from official sources just before he left Gangtok, capital of Sikkim.

The Sikkim prince said the Dalai Lama, Tibet's 23-year-old spiritual and political ruler, escaped from his summer palace before the Chinese Reds captured it on Tuesday.

He reported that Red forces began firing on the palace at 1 a.m. Tuesday and kept up a violent barrage until it capitulated.

"No one knows if the Dalai Lama was hit when the Chinese captured the palace," the prince said. "We hope and pray for him. Even if he falls into Chinese hands, we pray no harm will come to him."

An unconfirmed report in India Thursday said the Dalai Lama had fled from Lhasa, and there were rumors he was heading south toward Sikkim or the Indian province of Assam.

In contrast with reports in India that fighting in Lhasa had subsided over the weekend, the maharaja said fighting in and around the capital "was particularly violent" on Tuesday.

"After taking the palace," he continued, "the Chinese then shelled the university monasteries of Sera and Drapung on the outskirts of Lhasa. There were about 12,000 student monks in the two universities at the time."

Although the maharaja said this action occurred on Tuesday, reports reached Kalimpong, on the Sikkim - Indian border, last Sunday that the two monasteries were burning.

The prince said the Chinese reportedly hold only a narrow strip through the eastern center of Tibet, from the Chinese border to Lhasa.

"The Khampa rebels (a Tibetan tribe), who do not like Chinese of any kind, red, white or blue, have been fighting now for three years," he said.

Coast Guard officers and officials of southern area of Tibet, a section about 400 miles long and 150 miles wide, as well as various centers in the north also."

On Formosa, meanwhile, Nationalist China's Parliament unanimously adopted a resolution urging Chiang Kai-shek's government (1) to provide the Tibetan rebels with arms and supplies, (2) to send high officers and senior Tibetan-born officials to Tibet to help the rebels, (3) to send Nationalist troops if necessary, and (4) to report to the United Nations on the Tibetan situation.

Nationalist officials refused to comment on reports from Hong Kong that Nationalist planes had dropped supplies to the rebels.

Gay Britons Demand Ban On H-Bomb

ALDERMASTON, England (AP)—More than 4,000 men and women assembled in carnival mood outside Britain's main nuclear arsenal here today and began a 50-mile march to London, carrying banners demanding a ban on the hydrogen bomb.

A jazz band blared Dixieland music while the marchers, some pushing baby carriages and others leading dogs, formed up in a rain-swept field and started trudging out of this quiet village in the Thames Valley.

"Let us go on marching until we have brought an end to this nuclear insanity," shouted black-robed Canon John Collins of St. Paul's Cathedral. He is a leader of the British campaign for nuclear disarmament which is staging the demonstration as a repeat of the London - to - Aldermaston march which ended last Easter in a flurry of flying fists.

This time the atmosphere was more placid.

Squads of police were on hand in case demonstrations were staged by supporters of Britain's decision to rely on nuclear weapons as the main deterrent against aggression.

The marchers — university students, middle-aged couples and bearded artists with their families —are due Monday at a rally in Trafalgar Square in the heart of London.

Name Of Room Is Changed For O'Kelly

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Ireland's President Sean O'Kelly, now touring America, gets a reception today in the Emerald Room of the Barclay Hotel.

All very appropriate, you'd say. What the management of the hotel isn't saying is that it usually is called the English Room.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — Alaska's largest city prepared a rousing welcome today for a group of modern pioneers from Michigan who braved snowstorms and sub-zero cold on their road trek to homesteads in the 49th state.

The 59ers will be greeted by a welcoming committee in front of city hall.

Many residents prepared their homes or give their guests meals and shelter.

The 39 men, women and children, mostly from the Detroit area, camped along the road Thursday night.

Projects Of Boys' Club Are Outlined

The Boys Club Board of Directors held its monthly meeting last night at the club with about 15 members attending.

Michie Brous, Boys Club director, gave a project report. Brous reported that 2,900 boys visited the club in January and 2,291 in February.

Some of the other projects that had been carried out since the last board meeting were listed as follows by Brous:

Ping pong table donated by Modern Furniture Co., a camping trip to Lake Thomas; camping club for boys ages 14-16 organized; boxing team participated in tournaments at DeLeon and Cisco; model contest scheduled for Boys Club Week; the local club has been selected to participate in the National Study of interest and needs of the older boy;

Plans underway for the Yellowstone Trip this summer (there possibly will be two trips instead of one as last year); other small camping trips are planned including one to the Big Bend; paid up membership of the club is now 316; and plans are being made for Boys Club Week April 6-11.

In connection with Boys Club Week, an Open House will be held Thursday, April 9.

It was also reported at last night's meeting that the Boys Club will be hosts to the state track meet this summer.

The directors last night approved the building improvement budget as outlined by Brous. Funds for this project comes from the commissioner's court.

A report was given on the gymnasium proposal. Brous said this project is being temporarily held up until the blue prints of the gym can gain approval of the National Boys Club building committee.

Walter Hales, president of the board, presided at the meeting.

Baby Sitter Has 'Rights'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A baby sitter may thrash a child just as its parents would, if the sitter has their permission, Judge A. A. Nelson has decided.

Judge Nelson, a Cambria County jurist substituting here, freed Josephine Dydak, 23, Thursday on charges of beating a 5-year-old girl with a strap last Aug. 25.

Doris Di Blasi testified she gave Mrs. Dydak permission to use a strap to discipline her daughter, Theresa. The mother said the girl was stubborn and obstinate and at times uncontrollable.

The thrashing took place on Aug. 25. The next day a neighbor noticed Theresa wince while playing with other children. The neighbor called police who took Theresa to a hospital for treatment and arrested Mrs. Dydak.

NEW YORK (AP)—A Brooklyn tavern owner who played Santa Claus to Bowery bums in the form of $20 bills got a break Thursday on a federal income tax evasion charge. He was fined instead of going to jail.

The tavern operator, Joseph Bonavita, now 51, handed out so much money — $3,500 — on Christmas Eve in 1946 that he was committed to Bellevue Hospital for psychiatric examination.

Later he was released and, until a few years ago, made annual yuletide trips to the Bowery to distribute funds to passers-by.

Bonavita already had paid the government $36,000 to cover taxes, interest and penalties he owed for the years 1952-55.

U.S. Dist. Judge Lee F. Reyfiel ordered Bonavita to pay an additional $2,000 fine, and placed him on six months' probation.

ABC Purchases Big West Coast Network

NEW YORK (AP)—The American Broadcasting Co. has purchased the big Don Lee radio network on the West Coast.

The purchase becomes effective April 26, under terms of a contract signed Thursday.

The Don Lee system has 34 stations and is radio's largest regional network. It will cease to exist as a separate organization once the merger becomes effective.

The network, with stations in California, Oregon and Washington, was established in 1928 and named for its founder.

New Father Gets 'Spock' Treatment

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK (AP) — If cries in the night have sent [illegible] barefoot into the kitchen to warm a bottle for baby, step right up and shake hands, friend.

You're probably a first - time papa or mama. When the second child comes around, so it is said, you stop running and take time to wear slippers.

Hat's needed is a quick way to change from slipperless fumbler to self - assured, calm parent right from scratch. Read books, you say? Sure, there are books aplenty to guide you — and you'd have to go a long way to beat the sound advice and pure comfort given by Dr. Spock in his book on infant care.

But the good doctor rightly deals with the bigger things. What's needed is a handy little pamphlet to explain the obvious.

For instance, the new father always hears alarming forewarnings about the 2 o'clock feeding.

"Boy, wait until you have to get up for the 2 o'clock feeding," say the veteran fathers.

To the mind of any mildly brave new father, the notion of waking up in the middle of the night hardly stands as any excruciating task. So you get up, feed the baby, and pop back into bed. What's so tough about that?

The shock isn't this business of waking up. The real twist is that the 2 o'clock feeding may last until 3 o'clock.

The next rude awakening comes at 6 a.m. The first time this happens, it is enough to unseat the reason of the neophyte papa. Spock and all the other experts clearly talk about feedings at 2, 6, 10 etc., at four-hour intervals. Well, if the baby finishes the 2 a.m. feeding at 3 a.m., how come she doesn't wait until 7 a.m. for the next one?

That's when you find out that the time span is counted from the beginning of the feeding period—not the end.

Another thing that's desperately needed is a down - to - earth, fool - proof method of testing whether the bottle is warm enough It's simple enough to spray some formula on your wrist. The problem is how to keep from spraying the kitchen floor, the furniture, and sometimes the baby.

This gets to be a big problem when you are groggily wandering about on a cold kitchen floor barefoot and find yourself standing in the gummy residue of formula you spread on the floor the feeding before.

Feeding also brings into play an activity that nowadays is described as bubbling. To the new father, this conjures visions of baby giving off an ocean of cascading bubbles.

It used to be called burping, and that's a more comforting guide for papa since he can recognize a burp as soon as he hears it. It beats the bejabbers out of watching for bubbles.

The experts also put the damper on the notion that the days-old infant is smiling at daddy. It's gas, they say. Such a pronouncement is cruel and, quite frankly, I don't believe it.

What about when baby smiles at her dad after a burp? What about that, Dr. Spock?

This pamphlet also needs a clear diagram showing each step to composing the diaper arrangement. The triangle and the oblong are kid's play alongside the modern one, which is supposed to duplicate an isosceles trapezoid when you are finished. This looks like a triangle with the top chopped off.

Turning what seems like an acre of diaper into a neat isosceles trapezoid that fits is quite a trick. The danger is that you may wind up with a trapezium, which is about as bad as it sounds.

If you ever try to squeeze baby into a trapezium you will hear a screeching waaaaaa.

It's much different than the one that announces time for the 2 a.m. feeding.

Your Writing Tells All

NEW YORK (AP) — "Your signature often shows what you want people to think of you," says handwriting expert Helen Yun, "but your handwriting reveals what you really are."

Miss Yun, a Korea-born psychology major from Vanderbilt University, has been making her living with a life-long interest — graphology — after finding teaching jobs scarce for an Oriental in America and life humiliating in Korea for an American-educated woman.

"You will often find that a businessman, who makes small capital letters in the body of his writing will make big ones with flourishes when he writes his signature," said Miss Yun. "He's a shy, insecure man putting on a bold front."

Slant Tells Character

Miss Yun insists that much can be read of one's character from the slant of one's writing; that breaks in the middle of words show strong intuition.

Although it is impossible to tell definitely either the sex or age of a writer, says Miss Yun, it is often possible to determine the state of health and mental attitude of a writer.

The small Korean woman — her father was a baron and her grandfather Minister of War and the Treasury before the Japanese took over in 1905 — was sent to a girl's school in Kentucky for her primary education by her Christian father. Conditions in Korea were so turbulent she stayed on to attend college where she made Phi Beta Kappa. After that she returned to Korea, briefly.

Unhappy in Korea

"I tried to go back," she said, "but I found women considered so inferior, and their clothes so drab that it made me ashamed to be a woman. I decided to return to America and be a part of the white man's world."

When she came back, however, it was the mid-depression and the only job she could find was that as an entertainer in a New York night spot — reading hand writing. She has been doing it ever since—currently in one of the lounges of the Manger Vanderbilt hotel in New York.

"Graphology," she says seriously, "dates far back into European history — French priests were among those who studied it in the 17th Century. But now it is recognized as probably the best and most precise and accurate short cut to knowing something about a person. It is even being used by psychologists, medical clinics and some detective bureaus."

Miss Yun became interested as a boarding school girl when she ran across a book on the subject. For years it was a hobby — "I was always trying to analyze people by looking at unopened envelopes that came to friends and getting them to check my deductions." Now it is her business.

"I'm an entertainer," she says, "and I love it. It's a nice way to get to know lots of people."

Repair Bills

When you buy a new appliance read the manufacturers instructions carefully and file the direction book in a box so you can find it easily. Learn where to draw the line between the cleaning and adjusting you can do and the repairs that require the skill of a mechanic. Appliances that are kept clean and in proper adjustment last much longer.

Clothes Dryer

What happens to the moisture removed from wet clothes in a clothes dryer? Two different kinds of systems are used; one involves venting to the outside of the house, the other uses a condenser to remove the moisture and recirculate the air. All gas clothes dryers have lint traps through which the air passes before it leaves the dryer.

OUR VIEW

Sen. Proxmire Vexed Again

Sen. William Proxmire, the junior senator from Wisconsin, has raised his voice again in protest, and perhaps this time the true source of his irritation has been uncovered.

Sen. Proxmire is vexed over President Eisenhower's order to regulate imports of foreign oil to this country.

A short time ago he was dissatisfied with the manner in which Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas was fulfilling his duties as the majority leader in the U. S. Senate.

Seasoned lawmakers took issue with the Wisconsin senator on both counts, and promptly.

The latest to rise in rebuttal was Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, who twice reminded his colleagues that it would be sheer folly to let our domestic oil industry wither away because of foreign competition.

Sen. Proxmire has urged Congress to enact legislation to eliminate mandatory control of foreign oil imports. He indicated that he feared higher gasoline prices, but most of all he was highly suspicious of the oil industry, charging that it had gained a position of "excessive and corrupting influence in our federal government."

His criticism of Sen. Johnson followed a similar course to the extent that he was unhappy over the Texan's influence. Sen. Johnson, of course, represents a major oil-producing state.

Solons Still Face Long Road Ahead

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress, having hardly worked up a good sweat over what it accomplished so far this year, has now gone home for its usual Easter breather.

Its work to date is about par for the course. It really has to start rolling when it returns in April.

By now the biggest issues of the first three months of 1959 have become pretty clear: inflation, the American economy in general, defense spending, and the Berlin crisis.

Congress has begun an extensive investigation of what makes the economy tick. It has held extensive and necessary hearings on many subjects, granted Hawaii statehood; prepared some legislation for later action, and voted on money bills.

Both houses of Congress stand firmly behind President Eisenhower on the Berlin crisis which the Soviets created. They have given him some suggestions. He hasn't said much except that he won't budge an inch on Berlin.

Nevertheless, discussion has been intense and will continue right up to and through the summit conference next summer — if there is one.

For months now Eisenhower has been hammering against the danger of inflation and seems to have singled out the steel industry for special attention. He has addressed his appeals both to steel management and to the steel workers union which soon will be asking more wages.

He has cautioned both sides — since steel prices affect the whole economy — against upsetting the applecart: labor by asking for too much money; management by using higher wages as an excuse to raise steel prices.

But while he's been warning steel to be careful, inflation has been increasing in other industries and it is questionable whether workers and management in the steel industry will stand still while prices go up around them.

This week the government's monthly report on living costs came down.

Practically every spending category except food went up. Prices for housing and most fu went up in February. So did the cost of medical care, gasoline, and such items as toilet goods, haircuts, household appliances, TV sets, radio and movie admissions.

Another argument bound to continue: the Democrats contend that Eisenhower, in his desire to show a balanced budget after three consecutive years of deficits, wants to spend too little on defense.

The Republicans—but not all of them—rally around Eisenhower's rejoinder that he is in the best position to know what defense this country needs.

What seems the biggest illusion of 1959 is Eisenhower's insistence that the budget can and must be balanced in the way he proposed. He figures that if the country in fiscal 1960 spends only 77 billion dollars it can take in in revenue $77,100,000,000. His figuring is amazingly paper-thin.

He is not estimating that revenue figure on the basis of taxes already on the books.

He is asking Congress to get revenue up to that amount by raising 600 million more in revenue through boosting postal rates and the gasoline tax. Since Congress almost certainly won't, that leaves him about 600 million dollars shy to start with.

But the crowning blow was struck this week when tax experts working for Congress figured revenue would be at least a billion dollars below Eisenhower's 77-billion-dollar spending budget.

Couple that with the fact the Democratic-run Congress seems bent on voting more money than Eisenhower asked for in his budget — on the grounds that he did not ask for enough—and his budget-balancing looks long gone.

But, like the Berlin crisis, the economy, and inflation, this argument over the budget will go on and on.

Vacations Cause Shuffle In Plants

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — If spring comes can vacation time be far behind?

Many workers may think the time much too far off, but most managements have already set up their schedules.

The practice of giving vacations to hourly workers has grown steadily, especially since the war. This raises for management the twin problems: 1. Better to shut down the plant entirely for a time or to stagger the vacations? 2. If we close down the manufacturing plant, how many of the other corporate functions should be kept going?

The marked trend toward shutting down entirely seems to have hit a snag this year. The snag is that business is too good to be passed up.

Last summer saw a big jump in plantwide vacations. The reason then was that business was far from humming.

Plant shutdowns have other advantages for some companies.

It's a fine opportunity to do repair and maintenance work. And, though for most the summer is a poor time to take inventory, a shutdown does give a chance to get rid of old goods and rearrange operations.

The Research Institute of America Inc. has queried companies in many industries and on the basis of 500 replies it reports they are about equally divided this summer between staggering vacations or shutting down all or most operations for one period.

Of those planning to stagger vacations this summer, 7 per cent say this will be a change from last year's practice, and 8 per cent say a steel strike would affect their plans.

Of those planning plantwide vacations, 3 per cent did otherwise last summer and 1 per cent say a steel strike would make them change their minds.

About 70 per cent of those closing down general production work will keep their administrative offices open and a maintenance and repair crew at work. About two thirds will have their outside sales force on the job as usual and more than half will continue shipping and receiving operations.

Staggered or not, vacations play a bigger part each year in the general economy. The Federal Reserve Board found a while back it had to bring its industrial production index into line with a seasonal adjustment for summer vacations — the old style index was making the summer factory output slump look more alarming than justified.

Stardom Came To Gaynor Suddenly

NEW YORK (AP) — Fame touches people at the oddest moments.

Even now Janet Gaynor, Hollywood's first Academy Award winner, gets a chuckle remembering how she first realized she had reached stardom—on a trip to the powder room.

It was in 1927 that she and Charles Farrell, another screen newcomer, teamed to make the unforgettable "Seventh Heaven."

"Success sometimes comes so unexpectedly," Miss Gaynor mused. "No one even noticed me when I walked into the theater for the premier of that film.

"But when I got up at the intermission to go to the ladies' room, the crowd would hardly let me through. I went into that theater an unknown, and came out a star.

"It all happened in a single hour."

Janet went on to the heights. For three years in a row she was the nation's top star at the box office.

In 1938, weary of the screen grind, she retired. The next year she married Gilbert Adrian, the designer, and settled happily into a relative obscurity from which she emerged three years ago when she resumed her career.

Janet, a Philadelphia-born honey-blonde with quick brown eyes, stood only five feet and weighed 100 pounds when she first went to Hollywood in 1926—with no stage experience. She still weighs 105 pounds and is three-fourths of an inch taller.

"I can't understand it myself—where that extra three-quarters of an inch came from," she said, smiling.

She doesn't in any sense regard the two decades away from the screen as a lo period.

"You don't really ever lose anything — you gain something," she said. "They were wonderful happy years. I always loved to act, and still do, but strangely enough I didn't miss it one bit when I wasn't doing it.

"Miss the glamor? No, indeed. I had an even more glamorous life after I retired. The only reason I quit was because I wanted to live another kind of life for a while. It was as simple as that."

This is Janet Gaynor's philosophy today:

"I never want to stick at any one point in life, and think that it is everything. You have to learn not to hold on to the past or look too hard to the future, but live each day.

"The essence of life is change and we can hope the change means growth."

School Blast Injures Five

SAN ANGELO (AP) — An explosion touched off by an electromagnet built during a science experiment injured an instructor and four students yesterday.

The instructor at Edison Junior High School, O. C. Clifton, made the device by wrapping wire around a brass doorknob. When he touched the wire to a battery, electricity exploded a dynamite cap which had come in contact with the wire in an undetermined manner, officials said.

Fragments struck the eyes of two students, Wilbert Lehnert, 14, and Tommy Jackson, 15, doctors said. Slivers of glass from his spectacles struck Clifton's eyes, two other students, Glenda Thomas, 14, and Dwight Capp, 13, suffered facial cuts.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

ODESSA AND SAN ANGELO are already feuding again over prospects for next year's track meets that each hosts.

Bob Milburn of the San Angelo Standard-Times and Spec Gammon of the Odessa American argued back and forth this year over who was going to have the best meet, both of which came off last weekend.

No sooner did last week's meets end than Odessa, perhaps trying to get the jump on San Angelo, started building up its 1960 meet—the West Texas Relays.

Odessa announced in its Sunday paper that Texas and Southern California had already accepted invites to next year's West Texas Relays.

But down San Angelo way, the Texas team, which competed in the San Angelo Relays this year, virtually assured SA officials they would return next year.

When hearing of the rumor that Odessa claimed Texas was coming her way next year, San Angelo officials got on the phone and called Texas track coach Clyde Littlefield to find out "what gives."

Littlefield denied making any commitment to Odessa and that Texas had not decided on its next year's schedule.

Dr. Charles Courtion, chairman of the San Angelo Board of City Development Athletics Committee, sponsoring agency of the San Angelo Relays, said all four University coaches in this year's meet, Texas, SMU, Texas Tech and ACC indicated they would return there next year.

Angelo Meet Held Edge This Year

How did the two relays compare with each other this year?

Odessa had the biggest field but San Angelo had the best overall talent. About the only thing Odessa had over San Angelo was the special event featuring Bobby Morrow and Dave Sime. And even here the fans didn't get everything promised them. Morrow and Sime ran only one race against each other — the 100-yard dash. They had been billed to race in the 220, too.

Other than the special dashes, most of the best marks were turned in at San Angelo.

In the University Division, the teams competing at San Angelo recorded the best marks in seven of the 10 events that were run in both meets. Odessa held a slight edge in the High School Division, posting seven best marks to six for the San Angelo entries. This despite the fact that there were 53 high schools competing at Odessa and 12 at San Angelo.

Stanley Woolever, the Tigers' hurdle star, recorded the best time in both meets in the 180-lows with 19.4. The winning time at Odessa was 20.1 by Ben White of Dumas.

Milburn, the San Angelo scribe, wagered Odessa's Gammon a steak that the 100-yard dash time at San Angelo would be as good or better than the special 100 at Odessa.

Gammon won by .05 of a second. Morrow won the Odessa feature in 9.35 while Bill Woodhouse was the wiiner at San Angelo with 9.4.

Westerner Strategy Backfired

Little Steve Free, freshman infielder for the Tiger baseballers, crossed up the Tom S. Westerner strategy in the first game of last Saturday's doubleheader.

Free came on as a pinch-hitter with the bases loaded amid a big Tiger rally in the seventh inning.

The Lubbock coach was heard to tell his pitcher to just get the ball in there because the only reason they were sending Free up there was to get a walk.

Well, the Westerner pitcher followed instructions but Free fooled them by dropping a single down the left field line to drive in two runs.

All you would-be "Robin Hoods" don't forget tonight's archery meeting at the Canyon Reef Sports Center at 7:30.

IN ABILENE MEET

World Javelin Mark Broken

ABILENE (AP) — A 258 foot, 4-inch javelin throw by Bill Alley helped Kansas win the Abilene Christian College invitational track and field meet yesterday but it may not be recognized as a national collegiate record.

There was 12-mile-an-hour wind at Alley's back as he bettered the record of 257 feet 1 inch set by John Fromm of Pacific Lutheran last year in the NCAA.

Oliver Jackson, coach of Abilene Christian and director of the meet, expressed some doubt that the record would be recognized because of the wind, but he will submit it.

Coach Bill Easton of Kansas insisted that it be submitted because he said the javelin was not cited specifically in the rules as being affected by the wind.

"The rule does say that for establishment of a national collegiate record, a statement must also include a certification of wind velocity and direction," Easton added.

Wind velocity of over 4.473 miles per hour can invalidate a record but the rule specifically cites the broad jump, hop-step-jump and "any race which does not require a complete circuit of the oval."

Kansas won the meet with comparative ease, racking up 71½ points, and the Jayhawks departed a little sad that they couldn't compete in the American Business Club relays at Big Spring, Tex., tomorrow.

Kansas can't go to Big Spring because its conference, the Big Eight, has a rule against a member participating in an athletic event not sponsored by the NCAA.

Alley went to Gainesville, Fla., to compete in the Florida Relays and the Kansas mile relay team, accompanied by Easton, left for Chicago to appear in the Chicago News meet.

The other five teams in the meet here—Abilene Christian, second with 56½ points; Ohio State, third with 43; SMU fourth with 31½; Houston, fifth with 19, and Baylor, last with 15½—journeyed to Big Spring, 100 miles from here.

Abilene Christian got as many first places as Kansas—five—but the big Jayhawk squad placed in all except two of the 16 events to pile up points.

Tiger Linksmen Bow To Mustangs

Sweetwater High School's talented golfers registered a smashing victory over the Tigers in a dual meet at the new Sweetwater Country Club yesterday.

The Mustang foursome totaled 314 strokes to 371 for the Tigers.

Perry of the Mustangs was the day's medalist with a 69 —, two under par. Other Mustang scores were Bishop, 81; Gerald, 82; and Turner, 82.

Gene Bruton was the Tiger medalist with 88. Rounding out the Tiger scoring was Ted Lamb with 90, Larry Shirley with 96 and Gay Hickman with 97.

Tiger Thinlies To Big Spring

Thirteen Tigers will compete in the ABC Relays starting today in Big Spring.

Five Tigers will not make the trip for various reasons. Those remaining home are discus thrower Ronnie Giles; Alex Cross and Bo Brown of the mile relay team; and sprinters John Weaver and Jimmy Maroney.

Making the trip are Stanley Woolever, Wayne Berry, Jesse Crawford, Richard Mahan, Elvis Pinkerton, Ronnie Overby, Billy Harless, Bill Dubose, Jimmy McFarland, Larry Patterson, Perry Culwell, Mickey McGrew and Tommy Minton.

Thirteen high school teams are entered with Midland as the odds-on-favorite. The Tigers were given a good chance of out-dueling the Bulldogs for the title until it was learned that several of their key performers would be unable to compete.

Midland has won three of the four meets it has entered this season and finished second in the other. The Bulldogs eked out the Tigers for the Canyon Reef title here, 33-29.

Following are the Tiger entries in the ABC affiar:

120-yard high hurdles: Woolever and Berry.

100-yard dash: Crawford and Mahan.

Mile run: Elvis Pinkerton and Ronnie Overby.

Sprint medley relay: Harless, Dubose, Berry and McFarland.

440-yard relay: Crawford, Mahan, Patterson, Woolever.

880-yard relay: Crawford, Patterson, Mahan, Woolever.

Mile relay: Patterson, Dubose, Mahan, Harless.

Pole Vault: Culwell and Overby.

High jump: Dubose and Woolever.

Shot put: McGrew and Minton.

Discus: McGrew and Minton.

Broad jump: Crawford and Patterson.

The Tigers will also enter the special 8-man mile relay event Saturday but Coach Jim Stehley was undecided on who will make up the team today.

Ohio St., ACC Co-Favorites In ABC Relays

BIG SPRING, Tex. (AP) — The American Business Club relays open today with Abilene Christian College and Ohio State considered most prominently for the championship.

Preliminaries in the high school division this afternoon get the big track and field carnival on its way. The colleges compete tomorrow.

A half-dozen records are indicated in the university-college class that has eight teams—Ohio State, Abilene Christian, Houston, SMU, Baylor, East Texas, Texas Tech and Texas A&M.

From the Abilene Christian College invitational meet at Abilene yesterday comes Lee Williams of Ohio State to endanger the broad jump record of 24 feet 2½ inches. Williams leaped 24-3 in finishing second to Ernie Shelby of Kansas. Shelby won't compete here.

Ohio State, with its great Glenn Davis, looks like the chief record-smasher in the relays. Abilene Christian appears a good bet to take out the 440-yard relay mark of 41.5.

Other record potentials include Don Stewart, the SMU high jumper; Sam Tidmore, Ohio State's shot putter; Jan Ahlberg, Swedish distance star, and James Baird, East Texas broad jumper.

The feature race should be the 100-yard dash matching Bill Woodhouse of Abilene Christian and Sidney Garton of East Texas as they drive for the record of 9.5. Woodhouse has run 9.3 and 9.4 this season and Garton has done 9.4.

The biggest class is the junior college which as 14 teams with Howard County favored to win the championship. Few records appear likely in this division but the high school class, with 13 teams, should hang up several.

Don Boyce of Midland could erase the shot put mark of 51 feet 8 inches, Marshall McCrummen of Lubbock Monterey the broad jump record of 21 feet 11 inches and Enst Bonek of Amarillo Tascosa the mile record of 4:38.8.

High schools entered are Colorado City, Midland, Odessa, Amarillo Tascosa, Amarillo, Big Spring Westbrook, Forsan, Stanton, Lubbock Monterey, Lubbock, Borger, Snyder and Andrews.

Snyder Junior Keglers Journey To Big Spring

Snyder and Big Spring's junior bowlers will meet tomorrow at Big Spring in a dual match.

In an earlier match here, the two teams split. Big Spring's No. 1 team won over Snyder's No. 1 team, 3-1, in the first match while the local's No. 2 team defeated Big Spring's No. 2 by the same score.

Members of Snyder's No. 1 team are Jim Everett, Kenneth Haught, Carroll Leech, John Pickering and Ronnie Spittle.

Snyder's No. 2 members are Ron Bassinger, Danny Fisher, Steve Smith, Dwayne Thomas and Gerry Haler.

Tiger, C-City Netters Split

Snyder and Colorado City broke even in a dual tennis match yesterday in Colorado City, each team winning two matches.

Danny Tankersley figured in both Tiger wins. Tankersley teamed with Homer Ray to defeat Dillard and Humphrey of the Wolves in a doubles match, 6-3 and 6-0.

Then Tankersley downed C-City's Brown, 6-3 and 6-3 in a singles match.

Brown and Lady of the Wolves defeated Charles Hock and Dickie Simpson of the Tigers in the No. 2 doubles match, 6-0 and 6-1. In the other match, Colorado City's Humphrey rallied to defeat the Tigers' Ray, 3-6, 6-1 and 7-5.

The Tigers defeated Colorado City 5-1 in an earlier dual match here.

Yesterday's deadlock left the Tiger netmen with a 1-1-1 season record in dual meets.

Nebraska Gains Split

Tiger Frosh Breaks 880 Relay Mark

The Snyder High School Freshmen set a new record in the 880-relay in the San Angelo Junior High track meet yesterday enroute to a fifth - place finish in the meet.

The Tiger Yearlings picked up 16½ points in the meet, less than two points behind fourth place South Abilene with 18¼.

Edison of San Angelo won the meet handily with 60½ points. The rest of the field was fairly evenly matched with Brownwood second with 25½, Lincoln of Abilene third with 22, and then South Abilene and Snyder. North Abilene followed Snyder with 15¾ and San Angelo Lee scored 6½ points. Lake View failed to scratch.

Snyder's 880-yard relay team was clocked in 1:39.0 for a new record. Members of this team were Mike Morris, Bax Callaway, Larry Lindsey, Ronnie Merritt, David Gan and Joshua John.

Six boys run in the half - mile relay in the junior high setup. The old 880-relay record was 1:39.1 set by Big Spring last year.

The half - mile relay win was the only first place recorded by Snyder. The Tiger Yearlings picked up two seconds, by Mike Morris in the 100-yard dash and Gene Roe in the discus.

Winner of the discus was Edward Martindale of Edison, brother of Emery Martindale, current weight star for the San Angelo Bobcats. Young Martindale won the discus with a 156-5 for a new record.

Harris of Brownwood won the 100 in 10.8.

Snyder was fourth in the 440 and shuttle relays and Roe placed third in the shot put and tied for third in the high jump.

Roe was the high point man for the Tigers with 6½ points.

Next on tap for the Tiger Freshmen will be the Sweetwater Invititional, April 4.

Tempers Flare Over Beanball Incident In Giant-Tribe Tilt

By DON WEISS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Stu Miller, a curveballer with a three-pitch repertoire called "slow, slower and slower still," was the center of a beanball controversy today after toppling Cleveland's Vic Power in an exhibition game.

A Miller pitch hit Power on the head and knocked him unconscious momentarily in the ninth inning of San Francisco's 7-5 victory over the Indians Thursday. Hot words between the managers and a wrestling match between San Francisco's Andre Rodgers and Cleveland's Jim Bolger came in the wake of the incident, which drew these varying comments:

From Miller: "I never threw at anybody in my life. He ducked into the ball."

From Power: "He threw at me and he knows it."

Giants' Manager Bill Rigney, refusing to recount the hot exchange he had with Cleveland Manager Joe Gordon at the pitcher's mound, dismissed the matter.

"We've been playing spring training games with Cleveland since 1934," said Rigney. "We never had any trouble with the Indians and we are not going to have any trouble with them now. None of our pitchers has ever deliberately thrown at them."

Rodgers was involved when, following the incident, Bolger slammed into him at second base while breaking up a double-play attempt. While they wrestled, both benches emptied but no punches were thrown. Bolger had gone in as a pinch runner for Power, who was not injured but was taken out just the same. Power was not wearing a protective helmet, as required by most clubs.

Junior Editors Quiz on EASTER PARADE

QUESTION: How did the Easter Parade start?

* * *

ANSWER: Many years ago in some European countries it was customary on Easter Sunday for worshippers to walk through the fields after church services praying and singing hymns. The old custom survives today in our Easter Parade.

The custom of wearing new clothing on Easter Sunday is even older than the parade. It dates back to a time when new white robes were worn as a symbol of the new life that Jesus gave to his followers through his resurrection.

Nearly every community in America today has some form of an Easter Parade. It may range from a few people strolling casually down Main Street in their finery to the massive display on New York City's Fifth Avenue. Does your town have one?

* * *

FOR YOU TO DO: Here is a picture of a little girl of about 80 years ago in her new spring finery getting ready for the Easter Parade. Make a list to show what changes there are in the style of clothing since then. Color the drawing, choosing your own bright colors for her clothing.

* * *

(If you have a question for Junior Editors, why not send it on a postcard to Violet Moore Higgins, AP Newsfeatures, in care of this newspaper. Mary Jane Keller of Waukegan, Ill., won $10. for this question. Tomorrow: Why does Easter always fall on Sunday?) 3-27

Elizabeth Taylor Embraces Judaism

By JOHN BECKLER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Elizabeth Taylor has been converted to Judaism, the faith of her late husband, Mike Todd, and of Eddie Fisher, the handsome singer she is expected to marry.

Although the English - born beauty, formerly a Protestant, apparently had been considering the step for more than two years, her decision caught Hollywood by surprise.

Friends and colleagues — even her agent — knew nothing of her conversion and the long studies that preceded it until it was announced late Thursday night in a brief press release issued by Temple Israel of Hollywood.

A spokesman for the Temple, where the ceremony was performed Thursday in the presence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Taylor, said the announcement was made at Miss Taylor's request. Conversions are not normally announced, he said.

The 27-year-old actress apparently first decided to embrace Judaism at the time she married Mike Todd Feb. 2, 1957. Todd, born Avram Goldboggen, was the son of a rabbi.

Rabbi Max Nussbaum, who conducted the simple rites, said the death of Todd in a plane crash March 22, 1958, intensified her desire to enter the Jewish faith.

"She was a good pupil," the rabbi said. "She has a good understanding of Jewish life and has read extensively in Jewish history. She is very intelligent."

As part of the ceremony she had to pass an examination on the religion and take an oath to uphold its standards.

The actual conversion was completed by a simple prayer rite conducted in Hebrew, with Rabbi Nussbaum reading the prayer and Miss Taylor responding.

It was during the period of the actress' studies that her romance with Fisher flared into the headlines. Their widely publicized dates in New York City led to a breakup of Fisher's marriage to Debbie Reynolds and Fisher has been seen constantly with Miss Taylor since his divorce.

They were together recently at a Jewish fund-raising dinner at which the actress pledged $100,000 for Israel bonds.

Her agent Kurt Frings, said he didn't learn of her conversion until Miss Taylor telephoned him after the ceremony.

He said she told him, "it has nothing to do with any future marriage plans. This is something I've wanted to do for a longtime."

Veteran Magistrate Feels Unqualified

CHESTER, N.S. (AP) — A 97-year-old magistrate who says he never should have had the job is retiring after nearly 25 years in office.

Cottnam Smith became a justice of the peace in the early 1920s and in 1935 was appointed a magistrate. He stopped holding regular court sessions several years ago, but police continued to bring him legal papers to sign and an occasional case to try.

Smith said he left school after the seventh grade and never had the education for the bench.

"I was a farmer and a blacksmith," he said, "and that's what I should have stuck with."

SNYDER AREA CHURCH NOTES

Easter Sunrise Service Scheduled Here Sunday

A Sunday sunrise service will highlight Easter weekend activities on the Snyder church scene.

The non-denominational service is being sponsored jointly by the religious affairs committee of the Jaycees and the Snyder Ministerial Alliance. It will be at 6:30 a.m. Sunday at the Canyon Drive-In Theater.

Numerous Snyder churches are having Holy Week services, some of them having special Good Friday services tonight. Sunday will be a special day in all churches, since it is Easter.

At the sunrise service Sunday, the sermon will be by the Rev. Jimmie Nelson, pastor of the Colonial Hill Baptist Church. His subject will be "The Wonderful Resurrection." The music program will be on tape.

Presiding at the service will be the Rev. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the First Methodist Church and president of the Snyder Ministerial Alliance. Scripture will be by the Rev. Don Hungerford, vicar at the St. John's Episcopal Church. Morning prayer will be by the Rev. R. Charles Spivey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and benediction will be by the Rev. Fred Ferraez, pastor of the Snyder Church of the Nazarene.

Virgil Mott is chairman of the service for the Ministerial Alliance and Jerry Edwards is chairman of the Jaycee committee.

Trinity Methodist

A pre-Easter layman's revival will end tonight at the Trinity Methodist Church. Tonight's service will be at 7:30, and speaker will be O. B. Paty, superintendent of the Hermleigh schools.

At the Sunday 10:55 a.m. service, the Rev. Elton Wyatt, pastor, will speak on "The Eternal Presence of Christ."

The church is having an Easter egg hunt for children at the church at 10 a.m. tomorrow. On Sunday Intermediate MYF will be at 4:30 p.m., senior MYF at 5:30 p.m., vesper choir at 6 p.m., and evening worship at 7:30. Possum Gives Cops Trouble

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A mama possum who wanted to have her litter in privacy gave police fits Thursday and nearly wrecked a squad car.

Police got a call about a "ferocious wild animal" in a backyard.

Patrolman H. Carpenter and other officers arrived to find the trouble multiplying. Mama possum was giving birth. She showed her teeth.

Officers chased her into a garage and managed to scoop her into a garbage can, babies and all. The officers put the lid on the can and patrolman K. Thuleen and Carpenter started off to the zoo.

Then mama possum flipped the lid and crashed out, seeking revenge. Thuleen stopped the car. They finally got mama back in the can.

When they got to the zoo, the officers turned the can and its contents over to workers and gratefully returned to coping with crime.

I BELONG TO CHRIST

(Question) "Do you claim to be the church that Christ instituted?"

(Answer) I claim to be a member of the church that Christ instituted but of course I am not the church myself, only a part of it. Tolerant people recognize the right of man becoming a member of what ever church he chooses. However, if we want to please God, then God's will must be considered. God's way is outlined in the scriptures and man has heaven's curse upon him should he forsake that way. Let us suppose an evangelist should enter Snyder with a non-sectarian message and so mightily proclaim Christ that one hundred were moved to follow him. Then because of sympathy toward the faith of their parents twenty five decided to join church "A." Another twenty-five made choice with church "B" and still another twenty-five seek membership in denomination "C." We now have twenty-five left who believe in the Lord and who trust him for their salvation. They are baptized for the forgiveness of their sins. (Acts 2:38, Mk. 16:16). But as yet they have joined no denomination. They question churches "A" "B" and "C" and each tell them that membership in their denomination are not vital to salvation. They read their bibles and have the truth verified. (1 Cor. 12:25) This twenty-five are Christians, no one would doubt. But they have "joined" no denomination. They assemble together as a Christian body and thus constitute a church, but which one? They are non-sectarian and their worship is characterized by simple worship as recorded in the New Testament. They ignore the tradition of men and organize themselves with Elders to oversee and deacons to serve but refuse to look to any headquarters but heaven. They are content to be called "Christians" (Acts 11:26). Truly they are members of the church that Christ instituted in every sense. In this church I claim membership.

(Address letters to Mr. Pace in care of the 25th Street Church of Christ)

He is not here. The Cross and the Tomb have both been snatched from their association with death. They have been transformed by love and self-giving. DARK FRIDAY becomes GOOD FRIDAY with the revealing of Heavenly love. Christmas is sanctified in Easter. He lives and we, too, shall live, in the measure in which we learn to kiss the Cross, our cross as well as His. His journey to Golgotha transfigured the cross forever, TURNING A SYMBOL OF SUFFERING INTO A SYMBOL OF TRIUMPHANT LIFE. It is Easter.
