Here's How Heart Fund Uses Money

"How will my Heart Fund contribution be spent?" This is a question being asked by Snyder and Scurry County residents as the Heart Fund drive continues locally and nationwide throughout the month of February. The answer to this question has been supplied by the Scurry County Heart Council, an affiliate of the American Heart Association.

First, from each dollar contributed to the Heart Fund, 25 cents is allotted to the American Heart Association, and 75 cents is retained by the Texas Heart Association. The ways in which these two organizations spend these funds is outlined below. The figures for the American Heart Association are for 1961 expenditures, and those for the Texas Heart Association represent budgeted expenses for the 1961-62 fiscal year. Figures for the American Heart Association are shown first, and those for the Texas Heart Association are in thousands of dollars. Percentage of total expenditures for each is shown in parentheses.

Professional Education, $2.5 (9.9); $36 (13); Community Service, $3.5 (13.7); $12 (4); Public Education, $3.6 (14.2); $42 (15); Heart Fund drive, $2.2 (12.6); $30 (11); Administration, $2.1 (8.2); $15 (5); and, Organization and Development, $1.6 (5.9); $43 (15).

Satisfaction that the public's Heart Fund dollars are being directed toward the primary Heart Association objectives of research, education, and community service is borne out by the above figures. In the case of the American Heart Association, three-fourths of its 1961 expenditures were for these programs, while Texas Heart Association allocated more than two-thirds of its 1961-62 budget for research, education, and community service.

It is interesting to note that Texas has responded generously to the Heart Fund in the last few years to the extent that the Texas Heart Association's research budget of just $4,000 four years ago has grown to $100,000 this year.

More will live, the more you give to the Heart Fund. Contributions to the Heart Fund may be mailed to the Scurry County Heart Council, Route 1, Box 207, Snyder.

Screwworm Control To Be Discussed

Representatives from every Texas county and surrounding states are expected to attend a history-making meeting in Austin tomorrow. The theme of the meeting will be "Atom versus the Screwworm."

The one-day meeting, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., at the S. F. Austin Hotel, has been called by the Southwest Animal Health Research Foundation to launch the screwworm control program made possible by voluntary contributions from the state's livestock producers and sportsmen.

C. G. Scruggs, chairman of the Foundation's Board of Trustees, said: "Our goal for Texas has not been reached but we have asked all county chairmen and their workers to redouble their efforts in order to reach the goal by the meeting. Progress in the program has been dynamic," Scruggs said, "and teamwork at all levels has been a major factor. We appreciate this fine work but at the same time emphasize the importance of raising the funds to push the program to a successful conclusion," he said. "The hard and teamwork at all levels has been a major factor. # Republicans Rap Own Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP)—Some Republicans engaged in praising the greatness of Abraham Lincoln are coming up with about as much criticism of Republicans as they are leveling at the Democrats.

Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, the lone GOP woman senator, topped the political self-searching with a suggestion Monday night in Bangor, Maine, that her party's leading lights are ducking the 1964 presidential nomination because they are afraid they can't beat President Kennedy.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., scolded Republicans in a New York speech for "paying too much attention to the thunder on the right and not enough attention to the thunder in the cities."

Sen. Leverett Saltonstall, R-Mass., said in Seattle, Wash., he agreed with former President Dwight D. Eisenhower that "extreme left wingers were advocating socialism, while the extreme right wingers were advocating strong-arm government."

Saltonstall, who described himself as a moderate, indicated he wishes both wings would go away. He said neither subscribes to the "real aims" of the Republican or Democratic parties.

Sen. Hiram L. Fong, R-Hawaii, said in a Pittsburgh speech Republicans need to ask themselves whether they have "given sufficient impetus to humanitarian programs—or have we lost touch with millions upon millions of our fellow Americans who no longer regard Republicans as their champions?"

"The preponderance of evidence suggests we have increasingly lost support of the people," Fong said. "Surveys show that Republicans fail to command majority allegiance of a single major group in America."

Mrs. Smith blasted what she called "faithfulness" among the Republicans. She made it clear she thinks former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York may be "waiting for a summer day" in 1968 to bid for the presidency.

Nixon and Rockefeller declined comment. But a Rockefeller spokesman pointed out that when the governor was asked Sunday during a television interview whether he thought a Republican could beat Kennedy in 1964 he replied, "I'm not sure."

Mrs. Smith suggested that perhaps "the really true role contemplated for George Romney is to be the sacrificial lamb on the Republican altar in 1964."

Romney is taking a leave as head of American Motors to seek the GOP nomination for governor of Michigan. There is speculation that if he is elected, he will go after the party's presidential nomination two years hence.

Commenting in Cincinnati, Ohio on Romney's entry into the race, Goldwater said he hopes that during the campaign Romney "is able to decide more emphatically that he is a Republican than some of his statements on a previous television program indicated."

Mrs. Smith noted Nixon and Goldwater have said they will not bid for the 1964 nomination and that Rockefeller has not said openly that he would accept it.

"The impression, whether it is right or wrong, fair or unfair, is that they have refused to be the 1964 nominee because they don't think President Kennedy can be beaten and believe the Republicans can't win," she said.

Javits, who classes himself as a liberal, said that if Republicans don't adjust their course to bid for big city support they may become "an impotent fringe party."

He branded as "depressing" the advice of some "that the Republican party should swing toward the right, even toward ultra-conservatism." He added, "The ultra-conservative philosophy drags us back into the past. It is content to let the United States stand still."

Bill Weaver Is "Sweetheart" Of Lucky 13 Sports Club

The atmosphere of Cinderella's Ball prevailed at the annual Valentine Dance of the Lucky 13 Sports Club. The dance was held recently at the Snyder Country Club.

Jack Craft took pictures of each "Cinderella" and "Prince Charming" as they arrived. Then the procession into the ballroom began, with Mr. Bill Weaver announcing the couples. Each girl presented her date with a red rose boutonniere and the traditional valentine kiss. The couples walked through a huge pumpkin which covered the doorway. The opposite side of the doorway had been covered with a golden carriage giving the appearance of stepping into a pumpkin and out of a coach. The dance began with the song "My Funny Valentine."

The highlight of the gala affair came when Bill Weaver was announced the Lucky 13 Sweetheart for 1962 by Jan Vestal, president. Bill, a senior at Snyder High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weaver.

The walls of the ballroom were decorated with large medieval shields and banners, one of which bore the Sweetheart's name. Scenes of "surrounding landscapes" were made into windows which were draped with wine satin. A love seat draped with wine satin and wine and white banners served as the Sweetheart's throne. A large glass ball hung from the ceiling reflecting the lights of the room.

Table decorations were dainty white slippers sitting on fringed, pink satin pillows. Each couple's

Exchange Students Presented At Altrurian Club Meeting

Twenty-one members of the Altrurian Club met Friday at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. J. C. Durward, hostess.

Mrs. Dave Harlin, president, presided. Roll call was a lively miscellany of jokes, witty sayings, news notes and poems.

Mrs. C. T. McLaughlin, program chairman, introduced the two guest speakers, Miss Jean Young of Snyder, and Miss Isabel Saravia of Santiago, Chile, and gave preliminary remarks concerning the program that can take credit for their international exchange of high school students.

"We learned that the finances necessary, are handled through a local organization, American Field Service, and the student council. Students are selected carefully and thoroughly screened before acceptance. The screening determines the suitability and qualifications of student recommended, and the families applying for the job of host to the student is also carefully selected."

Isabel charmed her audience at once, as to appearance and modesty of demeanor. She commented upon slides showing the magnificence of the scenery near her home, sections of her home city, the 2,000,000 populated Santiago; rural scenes with the slow and quaint cattle as means of drawing a load; colorful cowboys with brightly colored serapes and wide sombreros; and one of her pleasing parents.

Jean was last year's local exchange student who spent six months in Bremen, Germany. She, too, made comments as she traced her journey and made interesting remarks on the slides, well chosen for the variety of interests they depicted.

"The city is very old, so story book architecture is not rare. The modern buildings contrast sharply with the old. Ship building is a major industry and farmers are shown setting up their market."

Scenes of natural beauty, as well as likeliness of the lovely family who made her visit such a success was shown. Jean is most enthusiastic about it all, and is sure that "It was indeed a great privilege" accorded her.

The club members expressed their hope that Isabel can go home with as glowing report of her stay in Snyder, and they consider both girls excellent ambassadors of goodwill.

Isabel lives in Snyder with the Raymond Williams family.

Hearings Launched On Textile Tariff

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Tariff Commission began four days of hearings today on the question of imposing a fee on imported cotton textiles.

Robert Sherman, director of the Cotton Division of the Department of Agriculture Foreign Agricultural Service, was the first witness favoring the proposed fee.

The commission's recommendation will have an effect on domestic textile manufacturers and foreign exporting nations, particularly Japan. It may even bear on President Kennedy's request for widespread tariff cutting authority from Congress.

The commission is making the study at Kennedy's direction. He asked it to determine whether a fee of 8.5 cents a pound on imported cotton textiles is needed after Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman advised him last fall that imports were threatening to damage the domestic cotton price support program. The final decision is Kennedy's.

13-Year-Old Convicted

CALDWELL, Idaho (AP)—Robert Oliver Miller, 13, a farm boy, has been found guilty of assault with a deadly weapon in the wounding of two Idaho policemen and will be sentenced Feb. 23.

Robert was convicted Monday night. He was charged with attempted murder, but the jury found him guilty of the lesser charge which carries a maximum sentence of two years in prison or a $5,000 fine, or both.

Miller shot former Caldwell Police Chief Keith Judd and Deputy Sheriff Melvin States at the Miller home last Aug. 28. They had joined a search for a mysterious sniper reported shooting at the Miller family.

Both officers are paralyzed as a result of the shooting.

The figure of 8.5 cents is the amount the Agriculture Department now pays American cotton growers for each pound of raw cotton they sell abroad.

This enables producers to meet the competition of cheaper foreign cotton. But it also has the effect of making American textile manufacturers pay 8.5 cents a pound more for cotton than do foreign manufacturers.

Domestic manufacturers have complained that imported textiles, produced from the lower priced cotton, are forcing them out of business.

Expected to carry the case for an import fee are the Department of Agriculture, the American Cotton Manufacturers Institute, the National Cotton Council and similar domestic producer-manufacturer groups.

Aligned against the proposal are such groups as the Association of Japanese Textile Imports, Inc.; the Hong Kong Chamber of Commerce and Hong Kong Federated Industries; the Association of National Textile Importers of New York; and spokesmen for the textile industries of various European nations.

Opponents of the fee say man-made fibers, not imported cotton textiles, are hurting domestic textile manufacturers. They contend that cotton price supports give synthetic fabrics a big price advantage over cotton.

Says Sugar Is Rationed By Castro

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A Cuban defector says the Castro government is rationing once-abundant sugar.

Gerardo Arrechea Becquer, first officer of the Mambisa Line's freighter El Fundador, said Monday he had abandoned the ship and won't return to Cuba as long as Fidel Castro is in control.

Arrechea Becquer said he had made nine trips to Russia and behind the Iron Curtain with cargoes of sugar, hides, tobacco, food, fruit and other items.

"Every time our ship returned empty," he said. "The large quantities of Soviet arms and ammunition are shipped aboard Russian boats—they do not trust Cubans."

He came ashore after El Fundador docked at the Gulf port of Coahuacalco. It carried 80 tons of Communist literature and propaganda printed in Argentina and bound for Cuba, Arrechea Becquer said.

He said conditions in Cuba were so bad today that even sugar, once in super abundance, is being rationed along with all other food items.

Shoes are so scarce, he said, the ration is one pair per person a year—but, Cuba is exporting hides to Russia.

Sugar also is being exported in large quantities, other sources said, but the current crop outlook in Cuba is appealing urgently for Cubans to go into the fields and cut cane to keep mills operating.

Clergyman Concerned Over Rise Of Secular Influence

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—America's tough Christian faith has been worn thin by secular influences and the nation is moving toward an age of self-indulgence and artificiality exemplified by the "flowering cancer" of Las Vegas, Nev., says a leading churchman.

The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spike of New York, general secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the United Church of Christ, spoke at a symposium at the Nation Council of Churches' division of education annual meeting Monday.

"There are times when I see the city of Las Vegas as a preview of the future of civilization—and if that isn't horrifying, I don't know what is," Dr. Spike said.

"Las Vegas could be the vision of the horrible future of a nation that owes its existence to self-indulgence—which can only survive by spending more and more to pamper itself."

Dr. Spike made it clear his distaste wasn't based on an abhorrence to gambling, legal in Las Vegas, "or a puritanical objection to people having a good time." His revulsion, he said, stems from the desperation of people intent upon triviality.

He said thinness of feeling plagues the nation, resulting in religiosity instead of religion. "The much-touted increase in church membership, the feverish (church) building is a cover-up for a real loss of faith," he said.

The old cry of Christians, "Find God and you will find yourself," has been replaced by the unspoken assumption of the contemporary psychology and sociology, "Find yourself and you won't need God," Dr. Spike said.

Dr. Spike said the threat of ultimate secularization may be the best that could happen to Christianity because it may force the church to shake off its complacency and face the world as it is.

BROKEN RECORD GETS PRETTY MONOTONOUS

People Are Ready To Protect Nearly Anything, Except Man

By INEZ ROBB

In more ways than one are people pitiful. In any fight with nature and nature's critics, the odds are almost always against the poor, hopeful, two-legged varmint called man.

Any farmer has always known that modern scientists are strongly hinting that the porpoise, or bottle-nosed (sounds almost human) dolphin, is at least as bright as man, speaks for other porpoises or bottle-noses in a language all their own, and probably will inherit the earth.

Be that as it may, the porpoise is licked from the start. Though he speaks with the tongue of men and angels and thinks with the speed of IBM lightning, he is no match for two of nature's hazards that will do man in long before the atom bomb. The starting and the pigeon will inherit the earth before Berlitz has a course in all-purpose porpoise (for the lonely skin-and-deep-sea diver).

My heart goes out to a group of persons in Nashville, Tenn., who believe they have just won a long, hard battle with starlings. Their triumph has been heralded in the press from coast to coast. This valiant group, the owners and occupiers of a large office building in Nashville, has been driven crazy by starlings, as who has not?

After trying everything short of dynamiting the building and mass suicide, the group has temporarily scared the jebabbers out of the starlings by playing a combined recording of (1) a booming cannon and (2) the distress cry of the starling. Separately, neither record did other than amuse the starlings, but in combination the two dislodged every starling and sent it in mad flight.

So where did the starlings, in their mad flight, go? Why, to the state capitol, where they are now driving Tennessee's legislators and civil servants berserk.

But not for long. Mark this prophecy. Not for long. It will take those starlings about seven to 10 days to figure out that the combination of booming cannon and a starling distress cry is no more dangerous than any other expedition ever tried to dislodge man's feathered enemies. If human.

Unless they like their quarters at the capitol better, the starlings will be back in their old haunt before the owners and tenants of the office building have really tapered off on Millonews.

Any really civilized society would long since have banished from its centers of population such avowed enemies of man as the starling and the common street pigeon. The starling makes the night hideous and is as diligent, persistent and devoted to the defacement of property, with particular attention to public monuments and statues, as the city pigeon.

The latter is the carrier of loathsome diseases and, if human, would long since have been exterminated with Typhoid Mary.

But let some brave citizen or crusading newspaper start a movement to rid town or city of starting or pigeon or both, and the lunatic fringe of misguided starling and pigeon lovers start a campaign of terror which the French O.A.S. has obviously copied both at home and in Algeria.

The tar pit and the feathers are readied, and if only the feathers were those of starling or pigeon it might be worth the effort. The cries of the pigeon and starting lovers, although only a handful, are so loud that city fathers quake, municipalities are intimidated, nothing is done and the pigeons laugh their fat heads off, accompanied by starlings on their own recordings.

The day will come when I shall be jailed for assaulting some nitwit who is feeding these birds of ill omen in the park. But my martyrdom will count as nothing. Pigeons and starlings will inherit the earth. The meek haven't a chance.

Daily Crude Flow Rises

TULSA (AP)—Increased output in Oklahoma boosted U.S. oil production last week to an average of 7,496,796 barrels per day, up 60,466 from the previous week, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Oklahoma production rose by 36,900 barrels daily to 554,900. Arkansas was up 2,850 to 82,000 a day.

The Journal said Louisiana production is expected to average about 1,313,000 barrels daily this month, up about 9,000 barrels per day from January, while Texas output this month is expected to average about 2,640,540 barrels a day, down 8,500 daily from January.

Figures for other states, with the previous week's production in parentheses, included Colorado 119,927 (120,000) and New Mexico 312,000 (313,425).

Lay Minister Faced With Fraud Charge

TYLER (AP)—A Methodist lay minister charged with fraud in filing for state representative notified the Smith County Democratic chairman Monday he was withdrawing. He asked return of his $50 check.

Ernest Harris, 36, was charged in filing for state representative with fraud. He had been certified for the race by Democratic officials.

Formula For Successful Valentine

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Lady, has your marriage become dull, routine and—let's admit it—a bit boring?

Does your husband turn an obedient and absent-minded check toward you when you kiss him goodby as he starts off to work in the morning?

Well, lady, maybe it isn't altogether his fault that your life together is something less than one long glad sweet song. Maybe you're at fault too—starting as the thought may be.

Valentine's Day is a good time to change all that.

The way to change this dreary situation, lady, is not to ask yourself what your husband ought to do for you on Valentine's Day—but to see what you can do for him.

What can a wife do at Valentine time to bring back that old right in her husband's eyes? How can she woo him to a new appreciation of her timeless charms? Well, there are many ways.

Give him an extra dime for lunch ever tried to dislodge man's feathered enemies. If human.

Unless they like their quarters at the capitol better, the starlings will be back in their old haunt before the owners and tenants of the office building have really tapered off on Millonews.

Any really civilized society would long since have banished from its centers of population such avowed enemies of man as the starling and the common street pigeon. ### Junior Editors Quiz on BULLS

QUESTION: Why does a bull hate red?

ANSWER: Animals are not influenced by color as we are. The bull is really color blind. He is not angered by the color of the torero's red sash cape. But he sees an object waved at him, such as the bullfighter's cape, and the motion of it strikes him as something unusual or dangerous, so he charges at it. Red is traditionally used as the color for the bullfighter's cape. It makes a dramatic and spectacular scene as it is swung about him. The red cape is really more for the audience than for the bull; the bullfighter could get the same reaction from the bull if he used a blue cape or even an old tattered piece of cloth. The strange and unexpected thing that he cannot understand usually frightens an animal. This is the reason why it is a good idea to have a fence between a bull and you.

FOR YOU TO DO: It would not be at all safe for you to wave a red cloak at a bull, but you might be interested to see the reaction of a turkey gobbler to such a thing.

Says Guard Release Due By June 30

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wisconsin's 32nd National Guard Division could be released from active duty before June 30, Rep. Henry Reuss, D-Wis., said today.

Reuss said he drew this conclusion from all mobilization information given him by the Pentagon and it should not be considered a prediction.

The 32nd, which is in training at Ft. Lewis, Wash., and Texas' 49th National Guard Division, were activated last fall by President Kennedy during tension over Berlin.

The fact that the budget for the year starting July 1 requests no funds for either division, Reuss said, indicates no present intent by the Pentagon to keep these troops on active duty beyond June 30.

He said a worsening of the Berlin situation, however, could result in a request to Congress for a supplementary appropriation to keep the two divisions on active duty.

Reuss said present plans call for the 32nd to be released when its replacement division, the 5th Mechanized Infantry at Ft. Carson, Colo., is combat ready.

Similarly, he said, the 49th is to be released when the 1st Armored Division at Ft. Hood, Tex., is ready for combat. Both the 1st Armored and the 5th Mechanized are being activated this month, Reuss said.

He said the nucleus for the 1st Armored will be an existing combat command of about 2,000 men from which a full strength division of 15,500 will be built.

Oil Pumped Into Shelter

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C. (AP) — Wheeling his fuel oil truck into position, the driver stuck a hose into a pipe at the side of L. H. Jackson's home Monday and turned on the flow.

Sensing something amiss after too long a wait to fill a 275-gallon tank, he shut off the valves and knocked on the door. He and Mrs. Jackson found the family's fallout shelter almost filled with more than 1,000 gallons of fuel oil.

The pipe was the air exhaust for the shelter. The fuel oil company pumped out the oil and dumped it and said it would get rid of the oil odor in the house.

"The funniest thing I've ever heard," said Jackson, who said he had planned to put the three-year-old shelter to other use anyway. "I felt sorry for the driver," said his wife, "he looked so upset."

Cold Sticks Horn Valves

WASHINGTON (AP) — With pomp and ceremony and sticky valves on their horns, Marine Band musicians marked the 153rd anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln Monday.

Twenty-four degree cold froze the horn valves, and drummers had to make most of the music as the band accompanied wreath-layers and color guard marchers up and down the steps of the Lincoln Memorial.

Before the cold weather immobilized their instruments, the bands' brass got their valves and trombone slides into positions which sufficed for taps and some ruffles and flourishes. But the valves were too stiff for any quick-paced marches. A steady succession of drum rolls filled the gap.

From me to you A DAILY VIEW

Rev. R. Charles Spivey

"And whatsoever you do in word and deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him."
Colossians 3:17 (read verses 12-17)

We have gotten into the unfortunate position today of thinking that life is divided into two realms, the sacred and the secular. Thus we think that in order to be religious we must do something in the church — teach a class, preach, paint the nursery classroom, or the like. Whereas when we are at work at the store, or when we are taking the kids to school, or we are playing poker with the boys, we are now in a different realm — religion doesn't matter here, since it isn't in the church.

But I suggest to you that you who believe in Jesus Christ are the church no matter where you are, or what you do. If you truly believe in Him, then you can never leave Him behind nor on the shelf. Therefore "whatsoever you do in word or deed, you MUST do all in the name of the Lord Jesus."

Mergers Taking On A New Look

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—Mergers are taking on a new look. Corporate marriages command bigger headlines. Some seem more urgent—like shotgun weddings—set up housekeeping together or die. To many, these mergers are more frightening—to labor, to various communities, to government agencies. The proposals appear to threaten loss of jobs, of services, of plant payrolls, of free competition.

The new look in mergers comes after a long postwar wave of marriages—the third such in the nation's history. The big interest has been on combination proposals in the railroad, airline and banking industries. But the urgency is being felt in many other lines, such as electronics, chemicals, retail and wholesale firms.

New pressure for companies to get together piles up because competition grows more deadly at home and abroad and because profit margins shrink under mounting operation costs. Small companies today often need more credit than they can get separately if they're to buy the costly machines and hire the expensive technicians they need to compete with the big boys.

Communities are growing more anxious. Some fear that the manufacturing mergers mean that the more efficient surviving company will be closing unneeded or obsolete plants, cutting off the community's biggest payroll, increasing its relief rolls.

And government's role looks different, although many persons aren't sure what the new role is. One federal agency may seem to favor mergers as lifesavers for a faltering industry. Another agency may frown on the same corporate marriage because it will lessen competition.

The antitrust laws bar mergers that might lead to monopoly—with the consumer the fall guy. But some now charge that government of late shows a dislike of business itself. Critics contend that everything about our economy is bigger today—so why not bigger business firms?

Also the government stresses the need for economic growth. Many proponents of mergers hold that this is one sure road to corporate growth. They contend that the goal of greater economic growth can be obtained more easily by big and expanding corporations than by a multitude of small separate ones.

But the fears of some detractors of the hefty postwar merger trend go much deeper than the immediate loss of jobs or the cutting off of services to some communities. They contend that the merger spree could end with only a few companies in a field. They say this could make it much easier for big government to move in, if at some future date it should want to, and socialize the industries.

All of this is why today's merger proposals are taking on new significance. This could affect you far beyond the results of the big getting bigger or of yesterday's small or medium size company becoming tomorrow's division of a huge parent corporation.

Next—Why corporations have the urge to merge.

Harris GOP Plans Suit

HOUSTON (AP)—Harris County Republicans say they will go to court in an effort to force the county to appoint some GOP election judges.

The County Republican Executive Committee voted 147-3 Monday night to sue county commissioners. Republicans want party members as presiding officers in some of the precincts during this year's general election and any special elections.

The commissioners told GOP representatives earlier Monday they would be willing to appoint some Republicans as presiding judges. They said they would be willing to name Republican judges in precincts that go Republican in the May primary.

Executive committees voted to sue against the recommendation of their lawyer, Bart Mankin. He said the party must prove the commissioners abused their discretion by appointing too many Democrats.

After the vote, Mankin said the suit will be filed in about 10 days.

Interest In Wells Bought

DALLAS (AP)—Wolfson Oil Co. of Dallas reported Monday it has bought working interests in one gas and 22 oil wells in the Permian Basin of West Texas and New Mexico.

A spokesman said the firm purchased undisclosed interests from Chambers & Kennedy and Redfern & Hard, Inc., both of Midland, in 19 oil producers in Ector County's TXL Field and two in Regan County.

Carl J. Westlund, Inc., of Midland, sold Wolfson interests in 13 oil wells, including two each in Yoakum and Lubbock counties and one in Andrews County. The others are in New Mexico's Lea County.

The spokesman said the transaction involved more than $700,000 in cash and production payments.

Tougher Foreign Policy Is Urged

INDEPENDENCE, Kan. (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., called Monday night for a tougher foreign policy. He said this country should not issue bonds for the United Nations until other countries pay their back debts.

He spoke to about 900 persons at a Lincoln Day dinner.

"I don't think that American policy should be shaped on a nebulous thing called world opinion," he said.

He said the program President Kennedy has put before Congress is "an awful mess—there's nothing new in it. It's the same old New Deal, Fair Deal baloney."

Tower also criticized the administration's farm program, creation of an urban affairs department, and the President's request for authority to lower income taxes.

U. N. Forces Want In Other Cities

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations has told Katanga President Moïse Tshombe that U. N. forces must be allowed to enter the cities of Jadotville and Kolwezi to make sure he carries out his promise to oust mercenaries from his breakaway province.

Sture C. Linner, U. N. officer in charge of the Congo command, disclosed Monday he had notified Tshombe it was essential that U. N. forces be allowed "absolute freedom of movement" in these cities.

At present U. N. forces in Katanga are mainly located in the capital of Elisabethville.

Singer's Son Dies

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—A son was born Monday to singer Gogi Grant but died an hour later, possibly from a blood clot, doctors said. Her husband is attorney Robert Rinklin.

Lindsay Crosby's Wife Hospitalized
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lindsay Crosby's wife Barbara remains in a coma at a Burbank hospital, ill from what Crosby said was a complication of pregnancy.

The former Las Vegas, Nev., showgirl, daughter-in-law of Bing Crosby, is expected to be released in June. Dr. Abner Moss said Monday night that she was a little better but declined to state the nature of her ailment.

Mrs. Crosby, 23, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Sunday night.

Show Horses Die In Fire

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Fire whipped through a stable housing dozens of show horses Monday night. Forty-two horses, including one valued at $20,000, were killed, the stable operator reported.

Thirty-two horses were led to safety.

The stable was leased by city councilman Cas Walker, who estimated the horses lost in the blaze were worth at least $75,000. The loss included 25 of Walker's animals.

Most of the animals in the barn were show horses, the rest quarter horses and pet riding horses. Cause of the fire was unknown.

Group Withdraws Walker Invitation
NEW YORK (AP)—A group called Young Americans for Freedom, Inc., has withdrawn its invitation for Edwin Walker to speak at a March 7 rally in Madison Square Garden.

Walker, a major general who resigned his Army commission in a dispute over indoctrination of troops in Germany, is a candidate for governor in Texas.

Richard Vignerie, executive secretary of the organization, said the invitation was cancelled because "General Walker's candidacy might put him in a race against Jack Cox, another conservative who is seeking the Republican nomination for the same office."

Captain Of Luxury Liner Hates Sea

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)— Geoffrey M. Fletcher, craggy-faced captain of the British luxury liner Andes, has a confession to make about his 46 years at sea.

"I hate it," he told astonished reporters Monday after the 27,000-ton vessel docked on its first visit to San Francisco.

"I'm afraid of it," he continued calmly, holding a cup of tea in one hand and his pipe in the other. "You should see me at sea, especially in rough weather. I know what the sea can do."

Captain Fletcher, a bluff English seadog with sparse gray hair and an engaging smile, received the press in his cabin aboard the flagship of the British Royal Mail Lines. He disclosed that this is his last voyage before retirement when the Andes returns to Southampton on its round-the-world cruise.

He was asked: "Then why, captain, did you go to sea in the first place?"

"It was sort of family tradition, he said, and then added thoughtfully: "It was poverty. I went to sea at 15 and I'm 50 now. I've been too cowardly to change."

"Would you send your son to sea?"

"I happen to be a bachelor, thank God," replied Captain Fletcher.

"Actually, the sea's not so bad when the sun is shining," he said in reply to a persistent questioner. "But when the weather turns bad I don't like it a bit. Oh, I don't go around trembling of course—that wouldn't do, you know—but I don't like it."

Lemur Diet Is Problem

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)— Surely somewhere in this country there is somebody who has more bamboo shoots than he can use himself.

If he does, Yale's zoology department needs them desperately—for two sad-eyed little lemurs recently arrived in this country who can't adjust to the local cuisine. Their favorite food is bamboo shoots.

They arrived Friday and since then, according to assistant professor Richard J. Andrew, they've only eaten "a little celery, a little milk, hardly enough to keep them alive."

A kind of monkey, the two animals are a rare species from Madagascar from whence all lemurs come.

If you've ever looked into the dark, soulful eyes of a lemur, particularly a hungry one, you can understand why department staff members have been making fast trips to the Bronx Zoo in New York which has its own special patch of bamboo shoots.

A steady, substantial supply is needed, however, for the hungry ones.

Infant Dies In Mishap

FT. POLK, La. (AP)—A collision of cars belonging to two soldiers from Texas killed one infant and left his mother and a baby in another family injured.

The crash killed Mark Sloan, 8-month-old son of Pfc. Jimmy Sloan of Talco, Tex., about 2 miles west of Hineson, La., Sunday.

Mrs. Nila Sloan, mother of the child and driver of one vehicle, suffered a broken leg and pelvis. Her husband is stationed here with the 46th Armored Division.

Injured in the other car was Wendell Miculka, 5-month-old son of Spec. 4 Leonard Miculka of Houston. Attendants said the little boy suffered a possible skull fracture.

Boy, 15, Takes Father's Plane

RATON, N. M. (AP)—A teenage Texan flew solo in his father's airplane Monday from Amarillo, Tex., without permission and without benefit of flying lessons.

David House, 15, the pilot, and a companion, Craig Adcock, 16, both of Amarillo, were jailed overnight at the request of David's father, Walter House. No charges were filed.

Young House landed at Crew's municipal airport 12 miles south of Raton.

"I landed out on the prairie three times on the way over here just to see if I could do it," David told police.

Debbie Reynolds Reported Expecting

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Actress Debbie Reynolds, wife of shoe magnate Harry Karl, is expecting a baby next September, her press agent says.

Miss Reynolds, 28, went to a hospital Feb. 2 for treatment of a flu attack, and tests there disclosed her pregnancy Monday, the spokesman said. Karl, 47, is in New York on a business trip.
