Kent County Has Discovery In Canyon Sand

Robert S. Lytle No. 1 Frank Stewart, Northwest Kent County wildcat, has been completed as a pumping producer and a discovery from the Canyon sand.

The well pumped 24 hours to make a potential of 84 barrels of oil with three barrels of water. The production is through perforations in the Canyon sand at 6,038-044 feet and at 6,056-073 feet.

The No. 1 Stewart is 12 miles northwest of Clairemont and one and one-half miles west of the Salt Creek field. Drillsite is 330 feet from north and 1,648 feet from west lines of section 8, John Rodman survey.

KING WILDCAT SET

Shell Oil Co. No. 3-A S. B. Burnett Estate is to be drilled as a 6,500-foot Ellenburger wildcat six miles north of Guthrie in King County.

Location has been made 544 feet from the most southerly south line and 2,119 feet from west lines of section 11-2-Sam Lazarus survey, abstract 578. Operations are to begin in the near future.

KELLEY-SNYDER FIELD

Locations have been announced for two new tests in adjoining sections in the Kelley-Snyder field.

Sun Oil Co. will drill the No. 9-C G. H. Arledge 467 feet from south and 2,576.4 feet from east lines of section 185-97-H&TC. Contract depth is 6,900 fet.

In the section adjoining section 185 on the south, Lone Star Producing Co. is to drill the No. 2 H. H. Eiland. Location is 467 feet from north and 1,657 feet from west lines of section 176-97-H&TC. Projected depth is 7,000 feet.

Both the new projects are about nine miles west of Snyder.

SWABS OIL

Cecil Oil Corp. No. 1 Luther Reed and others, Southeast Garza wildcat, has reported swabbing oil in the San Andres-Permian lime.

The San Andres is being tested through perforations at 2,516-526 feet. The swab recovered 15 barrels of fluid per hour after a 3,000-gallon sand oil fracture treatment. No breakdown was given, but there was some new oil in the fluid.

The No. 1 Reed is two and one-quarter miles north of the Dorward-San Andres field and in section 117-5-H&GN. It is about four miles east of Justiceburg.

AMENDED APPLICATION

J. D. Wrather, Jr., of Dallas has filed an amended drilling application for deeper drilling on his No. 1 T. J. Good, Borden County wildcat.

Wrather is asking permission to drill to 8,400 feet rather than 7,800 feet as the first permit asked. The miles east-northeast of Vealmoor and in section 15-32-t3n-T&P.

Elsewhere in Borden County, Hanley Co. No. 1 Russell is drill-

Panhandle Has A Cooler Day

By The Associated Press

The Panhandle got a breath of slightly cooler air Friday, but more hot, dry weather baked the rest of Texas.

A weak cool front inched into the Panhandle from Colorado Thursday night. It had tough going against arid winds blowing across Texas from Mexico, and forecasters said the front do well to reach Wichita Falls.

The Weather Bureau said the front might cause spotty rains. Widely scattered thundershowers were forecast for the Panhandle and west of the Pecos Valley. No other rain was expected.

Dalhart, behind the front, had a morning temperature of 69. The coolest spot, however, was Marfa in the Davis Mountains with 65. A pre-dawn shower cooled El Paso to 66.

Isolated rains Thursday gave Presidio .11 inch, Marfa and Van Horn .05, Dalhart .03 and Salt Flat and El Paso traces.

A searing sun shot thermometers to 100 or above at more than a score of points Thursday.

Presidio and Childress were the hot spots with 105. Cotulla, Wink and Laredo had 104, Mineral Wells and Fort Worth 103, Dallas, Amarillo, Wichita Falls and Alice 102, Dalhart, Junction, San Angelo, Lubbock, Texarkana, San Antonio, Waco, Abilene, Austin and Midland 100.

PROBE COMMITTEE NAMED

McCarthy Due Open Hearings

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators picked to handle a new investigation into the conduct of Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis) indicated today a general belief their hearings should be open to the public, but with some reins to avoid a "vaudeville show" atmosphere.

In advance of a planned second meeting to discuss plans, most of the six members of the special committee said for the record or in private talks they did not want a repetition of the televised McCarthy-Army hearings.

The subcommittee which conducted those 36 days of stormy sessions planned a meeting of its own today to seek agreement on machinery for writing a report.

And McCarthy himself went ahead with his own investigation of what he terms widespread Communist infiltration of defense plants.

McCarthy announced the investigations subcommittee he heads would question witnesses from the Boston area in a resumption of that probe today. He declined to say in advance who the witnesses would be or what plants were involved.

The six senators drafted to make the new study of McCarthy's behavior, including his controversial Red-hunting methods, were named yesterday by Vice President Nixon. Members had been recommended by the Republican and Democratic Policy Committees of the Senate.

The special committee was created Monday night by a Senate resolution instructing it "to act and to make a report" on a move to censure McCarthy made by Sen. Flanders (R-Vt) and on 46 accusations, some of them overlapping, aimed at the Wisconsin senator by Flanders and Sens. Fulbright (D-Ark) and Morse (Ind-Ore).

The committee includes Sens. Watkins (Utah), Case (SD) and Carlson (Kan), all Republicans, and Edwin C. Johnson (Colo), Stennis (Miss) and Ervin (NC), Democrats.

Johnson is the group's senior member, and there has been some talk that he may be invited to sit as its chairman, although Watkins, the senior GOP member, acted as spokesman after a preliminary session yesterday.

McCarthy reserved comment on the committee's membership, and on the turndown given his prompt request yesterday for a closed-door talk about the group's plans for investigating him.

Watkins declared yesterday he and his fellow members are determined that the investigation will be "in the nature of a judicial inquiry" by legislators "who haven't prejudged the issues."

Watkins said he personally is thinking in terms of non-televised hearings at which "Sen. McCarthy will be extended full opportunity to present his defense of the charges that have been preferred" and with provision for full coverage of the proceedings by the press.

Johnson told reporters:

"I don't think you can have closed hearings in a case of this kind. It must be in no case a star chamber."

But Johnson said he would oppose allowing television coverage of the hearings, lest they take on "vaudeville show" aspects.

Distillery Fire Under Control

PEKIN, Ill. (AP) — Bulldozers lunged at heaps of smoldering debris today in a rush job to get the fire-scarred American Distilling Co. plant cleaned up for near full-scale resumption of whisky making Monday.

A spectacular two-day fire that killed six persons, injured 33 and caused more than $7,500,000 damage was brought under control last night.

The searing blue flame ate up from 90,000 to 110,000 barrels of aging whisky—enough liquor to fill more than 22 million ordinary fifth gallon whisky bottles or a half billion standard one-ounce bar shot glasses.

This cost Uncle Sam at least $47,250,000 in potential alcohol tax collections—whisky being taxed at the rate of $10.50 a gallon as it is withdrawn from bonded warehouses.

However, Russell R. Brown of Greenwich, Conn., company president who hurried to the scene, said the fire loss to his firm was fully covered by insurance.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Generally fair and hot this afternoon, tonight and Saturday.

WEST TEXAS: Generally fair east of Pecos Valley this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. Otherwise partly cloudy with widely scattered thundershowers. Not so hot in Panhandle today.

EAST AND SOUTH CENTRAL TEXAS: Generally fair and hot this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. Moderate to fresh southerly winds on the coast.

Special Polio Fund Drive Is Slated Here

A special financial drive in the fight of polio is tentatively set to begin here about a week from now, Forrest W. Beavers, head of the Scurry-Borden County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, announced today.

Beavers was scheduled to appear before the Junior Chamber of Commerce at its noon luncheon today to discuss obtaining a sponsoring organization for the drive.

The local chapter, currently trying to care for nine polio patients, has a present deficit of $50.53, Beavers said. The bank balance at the end of July was $4,967.92, and bills due now total $5,018.45.

"There is no hope of borrowing the needed money from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis," Beavers said, "because the NFIP has expended its funds and borrowed $70,000 for research in the fight of the dread disease."

The local chapter collected about $10,000 in its regular annual March of Dimes drive in January. One-third of this amount was sent to the NFIP for coverage of medical expense and care of patients, one-third was sent the national foundation for its research in vaccine, and the remaining third was used for patients of Scurry and Borden Counties.

This was the first year that the drive's collections were divided in three ways, Beavers said, and it is believed they will not be divided this way again. The division was necessary because of the dire need of further research and experiment in vaccines for prevention and treatment.

Ordinarily, the drive's funds are divided equally for local use and for contribution to the NFIP.

Of the nine polio patients Scurry and Borden Counties have had this year, three are in very serious condition at present, Beavers said, and it appears they will remain in serious condition for a long time. "The local chapter will have spent at least $3,200 on each of these three this year," he said.

For one of these three, the local chapter has already spent more than $3,200 this year. On another one, who has had polio only about a month, the chapter has already spent $1,100.

"There will be no goal in the drive, which will probably be held the last two weeks of this month. "We are in an emergency, and believe the people will respond adequately in giving all they can," Beavers said.

Kefauver Gets Easy Victory

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Sen. Estes Kefauver kept his position as he and Gov. Frank Clement won a presidential possibility yesterday assured re-election by crushing majorities in Tennessee's Democratic primary.

The winner of the Republican senatorial primary was Ray H. Jenkins, the Army-McCarthy hearing special counsel who didn't seek the nomination and said he wouldn't run if he got it.

The figures from 2,084 of the state's 2,591 precincts tell the Democratic primary story:

Senate: Kefauver 326,424; Rep. Pat Sutton 137,386.

Governor: Clement 368,917; former Gov. Gordon Browning 151,824.

Kefauver, who won most of the Democratic primaries and lost in the convention in the 1952 presidential derby, said yesterday's victory over Sutton was a triumph over isolationism.

Sutton, who conducted a fast-paced helicopter campaign between marathon radio-television broadcasts, conceded shortly before midnight, saying he held "no ill will or malice."

Bells Toll On Atomic Blast Anniversary

By FRED SAITO

HIROSHIMA, Japan (AP)—The bells of Hiroshima tolled today for the awful hour of nine years ago.

It was 8:15 a.m. when the first atomic bomb ever loosed in warfare burst with frightful fury over Hiroshima.

It was 8:15 a.m. today when massed sirens screamed their protest to the memory. Then the church bells of Hiroshima rang out, calling the Japanese of this city to prayer.

Mayor Shinzo Hamai, who lived through that day, presided as thousands of citizens gathered in the center of the city for a memorial service.

He prayed that "there will be no more war, and no more human beings atomized." He had been lucky on that day. He was three miles away from the center of the blast.

Now the scars of the bomb are gone, except for the gnarled skeleton of steel which was all that was left of Memorial Hall.

The rebuilt homes are flimsey and the streets are rutted. But the city seems to be on its feet again, mentally and materially.

Only 90,000 out of the population of 350,000 were here on that day. The rest are newcomers to this commercial town. They don't know.

Kiyoichi Tsuchoka, member of the city council, remembers. He was only 1,000 yards from the blast center and his body is scarred by burns.

"I saw the great flash," he recalled. "The next moment I was blown several yards. I staggered back and thought I saw a second wave—a heat wave—which set fire to my shirt. I ripped off the burning shirt and ran to my home.

"The house was flattened and my wife was crying 'help, help' from under the debris. I was injured and could not lift the heavy beams and pillars that pinned her down. I looked around for help.

"I saw only dead bodies strewn around. I had to leave my dying wife because fire was spreading. Her voice still rings in my ears."

Prof. Kanae Watanabe of Hiroshima University was also only 1,000 yards away but escaped without a scratch.

"I was in the library when the bomb exploded," he said. "Perhaps the books shielded me. I ran into the hall after the explosion and saw three of my colleagues dead, their skulls split open."

Watanabe found his wife and son unharmed in the suburbs, although their home was knocked down.

"I guess," he said, "we are the luckiest of all the citizens of Hiroshima."

Colonel Wins In Peek-A-Boo Attire Fight

FRANKFURT, Germany (AP) — The peek-a-boo war is over. The women lost. The colonel won.

Capitulating, U.S. Army wives and daughters here fell in line today with orders of Col. John Dilley to avoid exposing too much of their charm.

Col. Dilley, commander of the Frankfurt detatchment, fired instructions at American Army women here to refrain from wearing bare mid-riff sunsuits, low-cut strapless dresses and beach shorts in public.

One blast was aimed at women who go to the PX (post exchange) with curlers in their hair.

They look awful, he said.

The feminine counterattack was powerful.

Storming mad, some Army wives screamed their objections.

"The idea, telling us grown women what we can wear and can't wear," said one. "You never hear of us going around telling colonels what to wear."

"He's got a nerve," said another.

But the colonel, a decorated veteran of the North African campaign, stuck to his guns.

"Somebody had to tell them," he said. "You should have seen the worst offenders against good taste."

After the initial jolt, the women began to surrender, one by one.

"Maybe the colonel was right," said a young mother as she entered the Frankfurt PX looking like a fashion plate.

Mercury Inches Up To Reading Of 104

Summer heat increased its intensity yesterday to boost the temperature to 104 degrees. It was the sixth day on which the temperature has risen one or two degrees above the previous day after a brief period of relief at the end of July.

A minimum of 72 degrees was recorded overnight, Mrs. D. P. Strayhorn, weather observer, said. By 7:30 this morning the increasing heat had brought the temperature up to 77 degrees.

Its six-bladed propeller in full lift, the Navy Convair XFY-1 makes a vertical takeoff in the first test flights from the Moffett Naval Air Station, San Francisco. The 500-mile-an-hour experimental craft backs down and lands in the same position on the four wheels on the tail. The Navy said additional test flights will be made at Brown Naval Auxiliary Station near San Diego, Cal.

Knowland Hopes For Vote Today

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON (AP) —Both sides claimed victory today in the hot Senate dispute over high rigid vs. flexible farm price supports.

As the Senate launched its third day of debate on farm legislation, GOP Leader Knowland said he still hopes for a vote today on the key issue of price supports.

Sen. Young (R-ND), a leader of the forces seeking to continue rigid supports, said: "I think we are going to win now—there have been some switches."

Knowland, fighting for the Eisenhower administration's proposals for flexible and lower price supports, scoffed at Young's claim.

"We have two or three switches, too," Knowland commented.

Knowland added that both sides were anxious to have a vote on the issue.

Sens. Bridges (R-NH) and Payne (R-Maine) jumped into the debate today on the side of the administration.

Bridges, a former agricultural teacher and county agent, said the administration program "will stop the senseless raid on the taxpayers to please a vociferous few."

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said the government already has more than six billion dollars invested in farm surpluses, and that Congress had been asked to boost farm price support funds from a present 8½ billion dollars to 10 billions before this session ends.

"We can no longer delay," Bridges said. "First, we must stop these wartime price supports which encourage farmers to produce crops that we have no market for, that the government must buy and then, with taxpayers' money, store away in Victory ships or airplane hangars—uneaten."

Payne said rigid supports for corn and other feed grains under past farm programs had injured poultry and other agricultural industries of Maine and other eastern states.

With six or eight votes apparently controlling the Senate fate of the Eisenhower administration's plan for flexible price supports, Sen. Holland (D-Fla.) questioned Young's claim and noted that even a Senate vote for rigid props would not be final. Holland, who supports the administration on the issue, said in a separate interview:

"They can't win even if they win a Senate test. The President would veto any extension of rigid supports and the whole issue is subject to a conference."

That was a reference to a compromise-seeking conference with the House, which has passed a modified version of the administration program, to be held after the Senate okays its bill.

That appeared to be many thousands of words of oratory away. There have been two full days of debate and still there remained, on a pad on Vice President Nixon's desk, the names of 18 senators who want to speak on the issue.

Critics of the proposal for flexible price supports, for whom Young is unofficial spokesman, have done most of the talking so far, perhaps in hope of picking up a few votes before an actual test.

Sen. Aiken (R-Vt), floor manager for the administration bill and chairman of the agriculture committee, said his camp is ready for a vote.

Pending is Aiken's amendment to the Senate bill to authorize a system of flexible price supports on cotton, wheat, corn, rice and peanuts at from 80 to 90 per cent of parity. Parity is a computed price said by law to give a farm product a fair relative purchasing power in terms of farm costs.

Aiken's committee rejected 9-7 the flexible supports in favor of a one-year extension of mandatory 90 per cent supports on the five basic crops. A sixth, tobacco, would continue at 90 per cent under both proposals.

The administration asked originally for flexible supports between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, but President Eisenhower described himself as well pleased with the House vote for a range from 82½ to 90 per cent.

Failure of Congress to agree on a new act, or its veto, would bring into effect next year a flexible support law first put on the books in 1948 but not permitted by Congress to go into operation.

EMPLOYMENT IS STEADY IN JULY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today that employment conditions remained stable in July without a usual seasonal rise in unemployment.

A joint statement by the Commerce and Labor Departments said July's civilian employment was 62,148,000, an increase of 50,000 from June but 972,000 less than in July a year ago.

Unemployment was virtually unchanged in July at 3,346,000 or 1,000 less than the 3,347,000 counted in June. This change is so small it is considered within the margin of statistical error.

It was the third straight month that unemployment had held steady, with little change either among adult workers or young job seekers.

The report showed a 289,000 decline among workers on nonfarm payrolls, but this was attributed to vacation shutdowns of plants and scattered work stoppages including strikes in the rubber and lumber industries.

This figure of 289,000 fewer persons on nonfarm payrolls was a labor department calculation. The commerce department's census bureau, on the other hand, figured that nonagricultural employment increased by 191,000.

The Labor Department attempts to arrive at a figure of those actually at work. The Census Bureau counts as employed persons who have a job even though not at work for some reason such as vacation shutdowns, temporary layoffs or labor strikes.

The number of persons out of work for 15 weeks or longer which hit the one million mark early in the year declined somewhat in June to 850,000 and showed no further change in July.

The factory work week averaged 39.4 hours in July, two-tenths of an hour lower than in June. The report said the change was about the same as usual in past years.

This slightly shorter average work week resulted in a drop of 76 cents in the average factory worker's weekly earnings to $70.92. Gross hourly earnings of factory workers were $1.80 in July, about the same as in June and 3 cents higher than a year earlier.

Police Search For Lone Bank Bandit

SACUL, Tex. (AP)—State and local police were searching today for a lone bandit who held up the Sacul State Bank yesterday and fled with $5,700 in cash.

The robbery occurred in this Nacogdoches County town after the bank had closed at 3 p.m. The bandit forced cashier N. F. White into the vault at pistol-point, then took the money and left.

Youth Suffocates In Swimming Mask

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—A boy suffocated last night in his rubber-and-glass swimming mask.

The body of Charles Bryan Hailey, 14, was found in three feet of water at a pool. Vacuum created by his inhaling had sucked the mask so tight over his nose and mouth it had to be cut from his face.

Auto Workers Refuse Cuts

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Studebaker auto workers refused last night to take a voluntary pay cut, and negotiators met today to see whether any new economy cuts could be arranged.

Louis J. Horvath, local president of the CIO United Auto Workers, and other union negotiators met with Studebaker Corp. officials this morning to report the workers' rejection.

The UAW itself had proposed a 15 per cent pay cut to protect workers' jobs in the face of declining auto sales.

Horvath said about 5,000 of the 11,000 now on Studebaker's payroll voted 3-2 against the pay cut in a show of hands. A year ago, Studebaker had 23,000 workers. Since early this year, work has been cut to about four days out of each two weeks. The wage contract runs until September 1955.

Studebaker and Packard stockholders will vote Aug. 17 on an agreement to merge the two big independent auto firms.

Yarborough Charges Foe With Trying To Buy Runoff Victory

By BRUCE HENDERSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

Ralph Yarborough has charged Gov. Allan Shivers' forces with "pouring an unlimited amount of money into this campaign" in what Yarborough called a "brazen effort to buy the Aug. 28 runoff election."

Shivers and Yarborough are in the runoff to decide the Democratic nominee for governor.

Yarborough made the statement to newsmen in Houston Thursday at the close of an Upper Gulf Coast rally of campaign workers.

Shivers got some nice words from a second neighboring governor, Johnston Murray of Oklahoma. Murray said at Fort Worth Thursday, "Shivers, to me, is a very capable, deep thinking young man——a man who thinks not only of the best interests of Texas but of the entire Southwest and the nation."

Earlier, Gov. Robert Kennon of Louisiana gave Shivers a similar pat on the back.

Both Shivers and Yarborough were to make state broadcasts Friday. Shivers' transcribed broadcast was due from Amarillo at 8:30 p.m. The governor will be at Pampa at the time.

Yarborough was due in Corpus Christi Friday for a fourth area conference with backers. Yarborough indicated his speech would originate in Corpus Christi, where it was scheduled locally for 8 p.m.

Yarborough told some 300 supporters at Houston Shivers "spent two million dollars in the primary and reported only $140,000."

In final sworn statements for the first primary, Shivers said he spent $144,709.74. Yarborough declared spending $152,663.22.

Yarborough said items costing Shivers backers heavily are a statewide mailing of literature, hired persons traveling Texas roads and many new campaign headquarters. He said towns as small as Newton, with a population of 929, have new Shivers headquarters.

An ad in Thursday's Dallas Times Herald said, "Your help is needed to re-elect Gov. Allan Shivers" and added, "All contributions, no matter how small are most welcome." The ad was labeled as sponsored by the Dallas County Shivers for Governor Committee.

Yarborough and Shivers must make first reports on spending in the runoff by Aug. 8. Reports go to the secretary of state.

Yarborough said in Houston he had to cancel a state broadcast Wednesday night because "I just didn't have the money to pay for it."

"My limited funds prevent me from meeting Shivers' broadcasting schedule from now until the 28th," Yarborough declared.

Officials Shrug Off China's Dismissal Of U. S. Protests

WASHINGTON (AP)—Communist China's double dismissal of American protests was shrugged off by top U.S. officials today as a gesture which could not erase the record made against the Reds.

Protest notes were sent to Peiping through the British government over a week ago to register anger at the killing of three Americans in a British airliner shot down by Communist fighters July 23 off Red-held Hainan Island. The United States demanded punishment of those guilty of the attack and compensation for the three injured.

The Reds rejected this protest as well as one against attacks on American fighters by two Red fighter aircraft. The protest against the fighter attacks was strictly for the record since American planes shot down the two Red aircraft.

In a second note on Wednesday, the United States renewed the protest and demands for compensation. Washington told the Chinese that British ownership of the plane did not relieve Red China of responsibility for the deaths of the Americans. Peiping announced yesterday that the Reds, who have apologized to Britain and offered to pay damages, again refused the American note.

Officials here said other steps were under consideration, but that rejection of the protests was relatively unimportant for these reasons:

1. The United States made its real reaction known when it dispatched two aircraft carriers to the trouble area immediately after the July 23 attack on the airliner and—whatever the provocation—shot down two Chinese fighter planes. It was suggested that was strong action which the Reds would readily understand.

2. The protest notes themselves, along with other official actions, have sought to make clear to governments and peoples in many lands the ruthless conduct of the Chinese Reds in attacking the unarmed commercial airliner in the first place. Peiping's explanation to Britain was that the plane had been mistaken for a Chinese Nationalist bomber.

3. The United States can and will make full use of this affair in arguing in the autumn session of the United Nations against any move to give Red China U.N. membership or legalize its existence in any way so far as the U.N. is concerned.

And even if the Reds had given assurances that such incidents would not be repeated, authorities said they would not be taken seriously. They also suggested that no Chinese pilot is likely to be punished for killing Westerners, whatever the Red regime may eventually claim about that.

This leaves the question of compensation for persons killed or injured. State Department officials are trying to figure that out now.

Shysters Are Kept Away From Indians

By JACK VARICK

NEOPIT, Wis. (AP) — Authorities have resurrected a federal law to prevent a five million dollar windfall from turning the Menominee Indian Reservation into a salesmen's mecca.

Two arrests already have been made and more are anticipated.

The windfall came in the form of a $1,300 check from the federal government for each of the 3,254 adult Menominees on tribal rolls. The money, totaling $4,881,000, is part of a 9½ million dollar trust fund set up four years ago after the tribe won a lawsuit charging the government with mismanagement of tribal affairs.

First payment was provided for in legislation liberating the Indians from government control and supervision by 1959.

The majority of the Indians received their checks Tuesday and payments will be completed by Saturday.

What happens when sudden wealth hits an Indian reservation? A buying spree is the logical answer. Stores in the area have noted a boom in clothing and household furnishing purchases.

But Henry Fontenelle, assistant supervisor of the reservation, says "it's too early to tell."

"Although this is the largest lump sum the Indians have ever received," he points out, "they've been working steadily at their lumber business a long time and they're accustomed to money."

However, state, county and local police want the Menominees to have time to make their own decisions on how to spend their new wealth without any pressure from salesmen. So an old federal law barring peddlers and solicitors from Indian reservations without a license is being enforced again.

A salesman for an auto firm was arrested Wednesday and charged with trading on the reservation without a license. Another auto firm was charged with attempting to sell cars from an unlicensed lot on the fringe of the reservation.

Some of the Menominees are opening bank accounts for the first time. One of Shawano's two banks reported it cashed over $300,000 in checks Tuesday and Wednesday, with about half of the Indians taking cash and the rest depositing their funds.

Defeated Vet Slays Officer

LEXINGTON, Tenn. (AP)—A Korean War veteran—whose wife married another man while he was a POW—went on a shooting spree here early today after losing the election for sheriff.

A patrolman was killed and the police chief wounded seriously.

Patrolman Isaac McHagen said the shooting was done by Ex-Sgt. James A. Cogburn, 33. His young wife married James Hern while Cogburn was being held by the Communists.

McHagen said Cogburn and another man were firing in today's wild spree, but that it was Cogburn who fatally shot patrolman Arthur Gurley, 450, and wounded Police Chief Clovis Stanfill, 34.

Stanfill was taken in serious condition to a hospital at nearby Jackson.

Cogburn received a little more than 200 votes out of 3,000 cast in yesterday's general election for sheriff of Henderson county.

Cogburn and his companion fled on foot after wrecking their car in a ditch on the outskirts of town. A posse took up the search.

While Cogburn was overseas, his wife married Hern and had a child by Hern before Cogburn returned home. When the sergeant came back, Mrs. Cogburn-Hern elected to stay with her second husband.

Cogburn subsequently divorced her. Then she remarried Hern in another ceremony.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following admissions and dismissals at the two Snyder hospitals are only those whose names have been released by the hospitals.

BATTENFIELD HOSPITAL

Admissions — Roy Gene Harry, 1404 Twenty-fourth Street; I. L. Melton, Clairemont Route; Kenneth Lee Jones, 1401 Twenty-sixth Street.

Dismissals — J. T. Myers, Route 1; Mrs. L. J. White, Snyder; Eddie Burdett Brown, 2109 Twenty-eighth Street.

COGDELL HOSPITAL

Admissions — Mrs. James C. Bullard, 505 Thirty-second Street, obstetric; Mrs. C. W. Davis, 1701 Avenue M, obstetric; Mrs. Gene S. Taylor, Snyder, medical.

Dismissals —Mrs. Charles D. Davis, 410 Twenty-fourth Street, obstetric; Harold Makos, Canyon Courts, medical.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bullard, 505 Thirty-second Street, are parents of an eight-pound, fifteen and three-fourth-ounce baby boy born at 3:05 p.m. August 5 in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

A seven-pound, seven-ounce baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Gene S. Taylor, Snyder, in Cogdell Memorial Hospital at 5:50 a. m. today.

Thieves Take Huge Fish From Hatchery

CREEDE, Colo. (AP)—Somewhere in Colorado there's a whopping fish story being told, but not by a fisherman.

Thieves stole four big trout—alive—from the outdoor tanks at the federal fish hatchery here yesterday. The fish included two rainbows weighing more than six pounds each and two kamloops which bettered three pounds.

Brass Turns Out

MONTEREY PARK, Calif. (AP) — You got trouble here, you get help.

A fire started yesterday in the living room of Mrs. C. G. Grote's home. She phoned the fire department. Three trucks arrived promptly, followed by a police car, the city's public safety director, the city manager, the city budget officer and a fire department rescue unit.

The fire caused about $1,100 damage before it was extinguished.

COKE COUNTY

C. T. Robertson and others No. 1 Nora Gee, Northwest Coke project, has been completed as a Strawn sand discovery.

Operator reported a 24-hour flowing potential of 184 barrels of 47-gravity oil through a 16-64th-inch choke. Perforations from which the oil is coming are from 7,004-076 feet, and these were fractured with 10,000 gallons of sand oil.

The No. 1 Gee, abandoned as a failure in the Ellenburger in 1951, is seven miles southwest of Silver and one and one-quarter miles miles south of the Fuller-Coke Strawn field.

C. L. McMahon, Inc., of Tulsa No. 1 A. S. Hendry, multipay prospect in Northeast Coke County, found oil and salt water on drillstem tests.

On a test from 5,710-722 feet, recovery was 500 feet of oil and 60 feet of oil-cut mud. Gas-surfaced in 26 minutes. A test from 5,720-742 feet showed gas at the surface in 80 minutes. Recovery was 160 feet of oil and 150 feet of heavily oil-cut mud with 465 feet of salt water. Both tests lasted two hours.

This project had flowed oil on tests of the Gardner lime and the Odom lime on earlier tests.

The No. 1 Hendry is three miles southeast of Blackwell.

DRILLING REPORT

Sunray Oil Crop. No. 1 Criswell, Northeast Scurry wildcat, is drilling in lime below 7,000 feet.

Sunray Oil No. 1 Cave, Kent prospector, is drilling in anhydrite below 1,400 feet.

Phillips No. 1 Quartz in West Borden County has perforated casing in the Dean sand from 7,703-812 feet and is preparing to swab and test.

Seaboard Oil No. 1 Beggs, Garza tester, is drilling in lime and shale below 5,425 feet. Atlantic No. 1 Swenson is drilling below 4,980 feet in lime.

Pan American No. 1 Oats, Fisher County project, has been ordered plugged and abandoned at total depth of 6,003 feet in Cambrian sand. No shows had been reported. Top of the Cambrian was called at 5,935 feet on a minus datum of 3,995 feet.

Finds He Needs Some Of His Own Wares

CONCORD, N.C., (AP)—George Douglas Cordell, an insurance agent, parked his car in front of a client's house here yesterday.

A few minutes later he came out and the car was gone.

He found it crashed against a tree 200 feet down the street, where it had rolled. Damages $250.

Cordell said remorsefully he had no collision insurance.

Maybank Asks New Aid Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. Maybank (D-SC) called today for a new restriction on foreign aid which he said should cut the program by another half billion dollars.

Maybank proposed lowering the foreign aid figure by an amount equal to the value of military equipment which the United States has been able to recover because of changed conditions in Indochina and elsewhere.

The South Carolina senator told newsmen that if he is unsuccessful in the Senate Appropriations Committee in bringing about such a reduction he will carry his plan to the Senate floor.

Maybank, a committee member, spoke in advance of a scheduled closed session by the group to act on a bill carrying funds for the overseas economic and military aid program.

Its meeting followed a Senate-House Conference Committee agreement yesterday on a compromise measure authorizing appropriations of $3,054,568,000 for the program in the current fiscal year that began July 1.

This was about half way between the $3,300,000,000 authorized by the House and the $2,700,000,000 okayed by the Senate. President Eisenhower asked for 3½ billion dollars.

Fishing Tournament Into Its Second Day

PORT ISABEL, Tex. (AP)—Bolstered by one catch that will be entered for an international record, 44 boats spread out over the gulf and bay waters this morning for the second day of the Texas International Fishing Tournament.

Mrs. Ardelle Thomas of Corpus Christi led the tournament with a 53 lb. ling or cobia caught on a 27 lb. test line. If her catch is recognized she will have broken a world record set only two weeks ago in the 27 lb. test line class by Mrs. D. J. Schwarz of Mercedes who caught a 51 lb. ling.

Women anglers had topped the men so far, but few major game fish catches have been reported.

Fine Is Paid Off

A fine of $28.50, including court cost, was paid in county court yesterday afternoon for Joseph Richard Atkinson, 27, Biltmore Ampartments, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of swindling by worthless check.

Truck Trailer Makers Play Both Sides Against Middle

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Makers of those truck trailers that drone down the highways in front of your car are out today to play both sides of the street.

Not a swaying from side to side—but a play to double the numbers of the cargo carriers by selling to both of those bitter rivals, the railroads and the trucking industry.

Competition is so keen that one of the top companies is redesigning its line of freight vans at a considerable drain on present earnings. Another is launching a system of interchange of parts which allows its customers to design their own trailers to meet individual needs.

The federal proposal to build a net of cross country highways and to widen existing ones brings loud cheers from the trailer makers, who have suffered this year from a letdown in sales, due to the general drop in the shipment of industrial goods.

Some half million trailers carry freight over the nation's highways today. Figured on the number of tons carried per mile, their business is ten times what it was in 1936, the bureau of public roads reports.

Industry leaders predict that new designs and the expansion of the highway system will bring the number of trailers to one milliin within the next five or six years.

Trailer makers are also welcoming the yen of some railroads to carry trailers on flatcars to the city of their destination, there to slide them down to the streets to seek out the factory or store waiting for the goods they carry. Fruehauf Trailer Co. says it already has orders for 400 trailers from seven railroads for piggy-back operations.

Trailmobile, Inc., which makes trailers as a subsidiary of that old-time railroad car supplier, Pullman Inc. will go after sales henceforth with a new plan for customer individualized design. President William A. Burns says this gives each trailer buyer the chance to design his own units to meet his individual needs and to pay for only such materials and features as he wants and needs.

The company is starting this month to apply the principles of standardization and parts interchangeability to the truck-trailer industry. Customers pick out, and combine, their own choice of various trailer sides, fronts, nose caps, floors, underframes, linings, king-pin location, suspensions, landing gears, and front and roof radii.

It will put Trailmobile into the "custom tailor" business.

A breakfast cereal maker, for example, to whom trailer weight is of small moment, can save money by ordering the cheaper and heavier materials. A maker of heavy metal products, to whom trailer weight is of first importance, might save money by ordering the more expensive but lighter trailers of aluminum.

Roy Fruehauf, president of Fruehauf Trailer Co., says the number of trailers on the roads will double by 1960. He adds, reassuringly, that by then there should be more and wider roads to help them stay out of the car drivers' way, thus easing public tension.

Demo Leaders Visit Truman

By DON WHITEHEAD

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Democratic party leaders turned for advice today to their star give-'em-hell campaigner —— former President Harry S. Truman——on the eve of a big money drive aimed at capturing control of Congress in the November elections.

Adlai Stevenson, titular head of the party, and Democratic National Chairman Stephen Mitchell arranged to see Truman at his home in nearby Independence, Mo., in a meeting that could very well influence the course of the party's campaign.

Stephenson arrived here last night from Canada, a bit shaken from the experience of having his plane struck by lightning while flying at 14,000 feet over Lewiston, Mont. Neither he nor any of the other 15 persons aboard was injured.

Stevenson, the 1952 Democratic presidential nominee, admitted: "I was scared for the first time in more than 30 years of flying."

Tonight Truman will make a brief pep talk to about 70 party bigwigs who came here to plan ways and means of building up quickly a not-so-hefty war chest. The former President is still weak from a recent gall bladder and appendix operation, and his old friends have been asked not to tire him out by shaking hands.

With the money talk, there was speculation over Mitchell's successor as national chairman. He has said he will step down after the November elections and return to his law practice in Chicago.

Cousins Are Taking Training Together

Billy Earl Creswell, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Earl Creswell of 1812 Avenue T, and Roy Marvin Creswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Creswell of 1901 Nineteenth Street, are in basic training at Fort Bliss.

The cousins, 18, entered the army two weeks ago to begin three-year volunteer terms.

Delay Hearing For Whitaker

AUSTIN (AP)—An appeal for clemency for Walter E. Whitaker Jr., has been postponed a fourth time and is now set for Aug. 24, eight days before he is scheduled to go to the electric chair on conviction of slaying his Lubbock schoolgirl sweetheart.

Members of Whitaker's well-to-do Hartford, Conn., family had been scheduled to appear before the State Board of Pardons today but asked a delay.

Board Chairman T. B. White said Whitaker's attorney, Burton S. Burks of Lubbock, made the request for the family in order to assemble more information for the board's consideration.

Dist. Atty. Travis Shelton of Lubbock was unable to be here for a suggested Aug. 17 hearing so the Aug. 24 date was set for his convenience. He is expected to oppose any clemency.

Whitaker received the death penalty for the strangulation death of 18-year-old Joyce Fern White in February, 1953. He was an Air Force cadet at Reese Air Force Base and had promised to marry the girl.

The chairman of the pardons board said letters from Whitaker's family, other Connecticut citizens, and some of the youth's Air Force buddies have appealed for clemency.

White said most of them base their appeal on the fact that Whitaker's crime was a first offense, "that he's just a youngster, from a good family, and that he was in a state of amnesia at the time of the offense."

Whitaker is now 22.

Report Causes Stir

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police cars, ambulances and newsmen sped to the Hall of Justice yesterday. Someone had reported two men were about to jump from the eighth-floor ledge.

Turned out they were county jail trusties cleaning the pigeon-populated ledge.

Normal human beings blink their eyes at intervals of from 2 to 10 seconds.

Boys Find Loot, Go On Spending Spree

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Eight boys found a treasure trove in a vacant lot and had a gay time until police stepped in.

Like a youthful dream come true, the youngsters stumbled on several bags of silver and promptly began to toss money around, dashing to an amusement park and to the resort town of Asbury Park.

One suspicious mother yesterday said her boy seemed to have an unlimited supply of quarters.

Detectives talked to the boys, who led them to four bags of silver, containing $981.65, stored between a bees' nest and a wasps' nest "to keep thieves away."

Police said the find apparently was part of $3,900 which disappeared from a Trenton, N.J., vending machine firm along with one of the firm's employes.

Names and ages of the boys were not disclosed. Nor did police say how much they spent.

SOCIETY SCRIBBLINGS

Snyder Fishermen Enjoy Cool Colorado Resort

It was just like "old home week" in Lake City, Colo., recently judging from the number of Snyder people vacationing there at the same time. The most popular spot seemed to be a dude ranch where the guests stayed in log cabins that are built close to the river.

Nestled in the mountains at an altitude of nearly 11,000 feet, surrounded by tall pine trees, and boasting a river full of lively rainbow trout, the area is ideal for anyone who wants to fish and rest.

Two Snyder families who joined forces and went to Lake City together were the ARMOR McFARLANDS and children, FRED, JIM, and EMPRESS ANN and the ELROY MILLERS and children, LINDA and SUSAN. Their days were spent in a relaxed leisurely manner with no set schedule to follow. Mrs. McFarland and Mrs. Miller fished more than their husbands did but all of them caught enough to have plenty to eat. The older children, Fred, Jim, and Linda rode horseback, went boat-riding and fished for entertainment while the little girls, Empress Ann and Susan, played with dolls and built houses out of the firewood that was stacked behind the cabin. Coming home, the group visited Taos and Santa Fe where they went sightseeing and shopping. All of them are eargerly looking forward to next year's vacation which they plan to spend the same way in the same place.

Mr. and Mrs. WALKER DABBS and children, ELIZABETH and ROBERT, were another family who enjoyed the advantages Lake City had to offer. Mr. Dabbs did plenty of fishing while Mrs. Dabbs drove him from spot to spot along the river enjoying the scenery.

They visited in Kansas and Oklahoma before going to Pampa for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. JOHNNY WATSON, former Snyder residents. Winifred Watson returned to Snyder with the Dabbs for a visit with friends.

This was the third year that Mr. and Mrs. MELVIN NEWTON, and daughter, ILA RUTH, have chosen Lake City as their vacation spot. Norma Willingham of Abilene accompanied them this year and Mr. Newton's sister, Mrs. Margaret Hollingsworth, from California met them there. Their annual return is proof of their enjoyment of the place.

Mr. and Mrs. JACK PHILLIPS and young son, JOHN, came back home with high praise for Lake City. The weather was delightful and the fishing was fine, they said. John must have set some kind of record by catching a fish over four inches long when he is only two and one-half years old. He fished all the time, his parents said, and learned to use his rod and reel fairly well.

Two more families from Snyder who vacationed together at this same place were the BRIAN JORDANS, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. DOUGLAS McGLAUN and daughter, SHERILYN. Mrs. McGlaun's brother, Charles Boley, from Sweetwater went with them. After catching up on their fishing and their resting they went to Pueblo, Colo. The highlight of their stay there was a trip to the dog races. Seeing the betting going on and so much money passing from one person to another was an unusual sight for these people who live in Texas where such gambling is illegal.

Camped about 75 miles away from Lake City in Cimarron were Dr. and Mrs. JOHN BLUM and children, ANNETTE and BILL. They did quite a lot of sightseeing as well as fishing. They drove down the Black Canyon of the Gunnison for seventeen miles along the river where the scenery was "just beautiful," Mrs. Blum said, and went back to their camp by way of Mesa Verde for a look at the cliff dwellings there. In Durango they boarded the small, slow train on the narrow guage railroad that goes to Silverton. It took all day for the train to complete the round trip but a good time was had by all.

Browsing in the school library one hot afternoon this week was Mrs. M. L. BROMAN, who recently came to Snyder from Gainesville. The petite brunette, who has already found time to get involved in Snyder bridge playing, likes to read too and before she left had picked out Daphne du Maurier's new book, Mary Anne, for some light summer reading. She likes Snyder but was a little surprised to find it has no public library.

PERSONALS

Miss Clare Smith, 2308 Thirty-second Street, returned last Saturday from a visit in Washington, D. C., with Cmdr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Zumwalt of Farmerville, La., are visiting in the home of Mrs. J. P. Crook, 2808 Thirty-seventh Street.

Mrs. Manning Davis, Sunray Camp, returned Monday from Abilene, where she spent several days in the hospital.

Miss Winifred Watson of Pampa, former resident of Snyder, is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walker Dabbs, West Thirty-seventh Street.

Mrs. J. E. Nichols, Pauline Taylor and her daughter, Linda, 104 Browning, visited recently in Coahoma with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Mayfield.

Mrs. S. J. Keel of Kilgore is visiting in the home of Mrs. J. E. Nichols, 104 Browning.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ratcliff, formerly of Bowie, are now living in the home of Mrs. A. J. Towle, 2802 Avenue U.

Park Party Is Given Honoring Sara Trigg

Sara Trigg was honored on her fourth birthday Thursday with a party at the park given by her mother, Mrs. Herman Trigg, 909 Twenty-seventh Street.

The guests, who received favors of books and candy, were Terry Lee Stone, David and Donna Lester, Ethel and Harriet Chapman, Denise and Dennis Myers, Trey Cooper, Gena Richardson, Johnny and Sandy Lynch.

The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Lee D. Stone, Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. Charles Cooper and Mrs. Dewey Lester.

Simple And Smart!

Under matching bolero-jacket, dress is a cap sleeved basic with sweetheart neck, gentle six-gore skirt. A treasure, too, because it has the simplicity needed in a season of prints.

No. 2010 is cut in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46. Size 18: 5½ yds. 39-in.

DELIGHTFUL COMBINATION . . . a quick loaf flavored with cheese and caraway seed.

Helps For Homemakers

A quick bread can do much to make summer lunches satisfying. Bake the loaf in the cool of the morning; store it in a tightly covered container and you will have it on hand for a number of meals.

A loaf to which cheddar cheese and caraway seed have been added is superb with a variety of hot-weather, main - dish salads. To make this loaf, you can start from scratch or use a prepared biscuit mix. Prepared either way, the loaf is fine flavored. Sliced, it is the appealing color of golden sunlight. Undiluted evaporated milk and the cheese help to give it a delicious, moist, substantial texture. Another point in this bread's favor is that it slices beautifully thin, without crumbling, as soon as it is cool.

Try the bread with a green salad spread with cucumbers and anchovies. Or with tomatoes stuffed with chicken, tuna or egg salad. Or serve the bread with a salad of lettuce, pineapple and mayonnaise mixed with Bahama-type mustard and lemon juice. Or use a mixed salad of seasonal fruits.

CARAWAY CHEESE BREAD

2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon baking soda
¾ teaspoon salt
¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine)
1 tablespoon caraway seeds
1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted)
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 egg
1 tablespoon butter (melted)

Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper, grease paper and sides of pan. Sift together the flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt into large mixing bowl. With a long-handled fork stir in grated cheese and caraway seeds until evenly distributed. Stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add vinegar-milk mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper, cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

SPEED-UP METHOD

2 cups biscuit mix
½ teaspoon baking soda
¼ pound cheddar cheese (grated medium fine)
1 tablespoon caraway seds
1 cup evaporated milk (undiluted)
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 egg
2 tablespoons butter (melted)

Grease bottom of a loaf pan (about 8½ by 4½ by 2½ inches); line bottom of pan with waxed paper, grease paper and sides of pan. Put biscuit mix, baking soda, grated cheese and caraway seeds into a large mixing bowl; with a long-handled fork stir until cheese and caraway are evenly distributed. stir vinegar into milk. Beat egg enough to combine yolk and white; add milk-vinegar mixture and beat together lightly; pour into flour mixture; add melted butter. Stir only until dry ingredients are moistened; batter will be lumpy. Turn into prepared pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven about 50 minutes, or until tester inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Turn out on rack; strip off paper, cool. Bread may be sliced thin as soon as it is cold.

August is sandwich time, the best possible time to celebrate with cool, quick and complete sandwich meals. They are rated tops by everyone, from the back-yard gang to the man of the house. And tops by mother, who likes relaxed kitchen duties.

Here is a luncheon for a sizzling August noon that features a sandwich that is one of those reputation-building main dishes. Golden brown slices of bread encase a savory filling of mellow cheese, bits of bacon, onion, green pepper, celery and vine-ripe tomato slices. It's a souffle-type sandwich that is easy to prepare and the oven does most of the work. You'll want to serve some cool refreshing foods along with this.

BAKED CHEESE SANDWICHES

8 slices enriched bread
Butter or margarine
¼ pound bacon, diced
1-3 cup chopped onion
¼ cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
¼ teaspoon salt
8 slices cheddar cheese
4 large tomato slices
2 eggs, beaten
½ cup milk
1 teaspoon prepared mustard

Spread four slices bread with butter or margarine. Place in bottom of greased 8-inch square baking dish. Toast lightly in oven (350F) about 10 minutes. While bread is toasting, brown bacon, onion, celery and green pepper. Season with salt. Place four slices cheese on each of four toast slices in baking dish. Arrange bacon mixture over cheese. Place a tomato slice on each sandwich and top with remaining cheese slices. Cover with remaining bread slices. Combine eggs, milk and mustard, mixing well. Pour over sandwiches. Bake in moderate oven (350F) about 40 minutes. Makes four servings.

WALLS GO UP FOR CHURCH

The walls of the Trinity Methodist Church have been constructed as shown above. The new $250,000 church building is being built near Ccgdell Memorial Hospital south of Snyder. Its design is similar to that of the hospital so that the two buildings will complement each other. (Lee Watson photograph)

Nazarene Bible School Enrolls 95 Children

About 95 children have registered for Vacation Bible School classes at the Church of the Nazarene, Mrs. Henry Thomas, superintendent of the school, said. Mr. Thomas, pastor of the church, is leading singing and is being assisted by teachers from the classes.

Each class in the school is to take part in a closing program next Friday night. Work done in the classes will also be on display at that time.

Japanese Royalty Is On Trip To North

TOKYO (AP) — The Emperor and Empress left by special train today on an 18-day trip to Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost main island. An elaborate sea and air convoy is escorting them.

The Emperor and Empress will take their first airplane ride on the return trip to Tokyo. An American pilot will fly the Japan Air Lines plane.

James Kirby of Pampa, past president of the Northwest Texas Conference Methodist Youth Fellowship, will help with a Youth Activities Week opening August 16 at the First Methodist Church here. Kirby, the son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Edmund Kirby, plans to enter Perkins School of Theology at SMU next month.

Plant Slates Demonstration

The formal opening of the Amana food plan will be held at the Jones Locker Plant, 2003 Twenty-fifth Street, tomorrow.

The Amana freezer will be on demonstration throughout the day. During the opening, free nylon hose will be given women visitors.

Amana Refrigeration, Inc., manufacturer of the home freezers, this spring completed a three and one-half million dollar expansion program, doubling the plant size and tripling production capacity. The freezers are made in Amana, Ia.

According to the Amana plan, householders can save up to 25 per cent on their food budgets, up to 75 per cent on food preparation time, and up to 200 shopping trips per year.

Nationwide, sales of freezers showed a big increase early this year over the same period last year. In 1953, sales went 20 per cent over those of 1952.

E. K. Jones is operator of the plant.

Local Youth Is Under Treatment For Polio

A 12-year-old Snyder boy, Eddie Brown, has been admitted to Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene with polio.

The boy has shown no signs of paralysis and is in fair condition, reports from the doctor show. Eddie was admitted to the hospital yesterday. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Berdette Brown, who live in the 2500 block of Twenty-eighth Street.

Five cases of polio, one of which proved fatal, have been reported in Snyder before this latest case. A sixth case was reported from Knapp last month about two weeks after three persons were stricken in Snyder within two days. Only two cases were reported in this county last year.

CHURCH NEWS

Service Guild Has Meeting

The Wesleyan Service Guild of the First Methodist Church met Monday night for a covered dish supper and program in the fellowship hall of the church.

Mrs. Tom DeShazo led the opening prayer. Mrs. Ed Crowder led the program, discussing "Thy Word Gives Light." Also taking part were Mrs. Joe Caton, whose topic was "God's Word is the Sword" and Mrs. J. O. Littlepage who spoke on "God's Word is a Mirror." The closing prayer was led by Mrs. T. W. Pollard.

In the business session, it was voted to give a free will offering instead of planning other activities to raise funds. The next meeting was scheduled for September 6.

Members attending in addition to those on the program were Miss Oleita Mitchell, Mrs. Joe Stinson and Mrs. Earl Wilson.

Party Is Held For Church Young People

A party for members of the young people's group No. 2 of the First Baptist Church was held Monday night in Towle Memorial Park.

Croquet furnished diversion during the evening. Attending were Britton Wood, Art Burnett, Bob Gibson, Joe Cargile, Lonnie Anderson, Denton Lambert, Mr. and Mrs. Royce Burrows, Joy McCormick, Ray Hardin, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crook, Jerry McDaniel, Mary Nell Trevey, Shirley Ramsey, Wyvon Ramsey, Madolyn Crow, Jean Thompson, Jane Houston, Sally Glover, Carol Coleman, Mrs. G. C. Coleman, class teacher, and Mrs. E. N. Baker, superintendent. Mary Conner of Ballinger was a guest.

Organizational Meet For Church Slated

An organizational meeting for the Colonial Hill Baptist Church has been called for 2:30 o'clock Aug. 15.

The new church, which is being organized for location in southwest Snyder, has been in the working stages for some time. The organizational meeting will be held at the West Elementary School cafeteria.

Workers in the new church report considerable interest has been shown for a Baptist church in southwest Snyder. Dr. Robert Hargrove is moderator of the group. Visitation, nominating, publicity, and pulpit committees have been appointed.

Royce Burrows Named To Church Position

Royce Burrows, an employe of the State Highway Department, has been named to serve as temporary music and education director of the First Baptist Church.

Britton Wood, who has served in that capacity since early this summer, has left the church to work in a revival near Brownsville. He plans to accompany the Texas State BSU Choir on its summer tour before re-entering Hardin-Simmons University in September.

The Rev. W. C. Ashford of Abilene, a retired Baptist minister, will speak at both morning and night services of the church here Sunday.

Union Baptist Church Revival Is Scheduled

The Rev. Roy O. Womble, pastor of the Union Baptist Church, is to be the evangelist for a revival opening Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Ira. M. H. Roe of Snyder will lead singing.

The revival is to continue through August 15. Services are to be held at 10:30 a.m. and 8 p.m.

Lubbock Minister Will Preach Here

The Rev. Wayne Cook of Lubbock will speak at the Sunday morning worship services of the First Methodist Church. The Rev. Lennol Hester, pastor of the church, has started his vacation.

A religious film will be shown at the evening service of the church.

SERMON TOPICS

"God's Way is Best" has been chosen by the Rev. Henry C. Thomas for the Sunday morning sermon at the Church of the Nazarene. Sunday night, Mr. Thomas is to speak on "This is My Body, This is My Blood."

• • •

Warder K. Novak, minister of the Thirty-seventh Street Church of Christ, is to speak on "Parents' Responsibility in Christian Education" at the 10:45 morning worship service of the church Sunday. At 8 p.m. his subject will be "Jesus Preached in Jerusalem." A study course on fundamental beliefs meets at 7 p.m. in the church auditorium.

New Members Added By Calvary Church

Twelve new members were added to the Calvary Baptist Church during the recently completed revival, the Rev. T. Gerald Cates, pastor of the church, said. Five of these new members were received upon profession of faith, Mr. Cates said.

The Rev. L. T. Grantham, pastor of the Highland Park Baptist Church in Abilene, was speaker for the closing services of the revival. The Rev. A. V. Henderson of San Angelo, who began the revival, was forced to return home when he became ill.

A church-wide program of visitation will be inaugurated Monday night, Mr. Cates said. Those participating will make visits from 7 to 8:15 p.m. that night, returning to the church later for refreshments.

Rev. Hanson To Lead Revival In Dunn Church

The Rev. Don Hanson, formerly pastor of the Central Baptist Church in Hermleigh, will preach for a revival meeting opening tonight at the Dunn Baptist Church. Mr. Hanson is now pastor of the Greenwood Baptist Church near Midland.

Tonight's service will begin at 8 p.m., as will all evening services during the meeting. Beginning Monday, services will also be held at 10:30 a.m. Song services will be led by members of the church, the Rev. Douglas Crow, pastor of the church, said.

Rev. Creswell Holding Revival Near Denison

The Rev. Earl Creswell, 1812 Avenue T, is evangelist in a 10-day revival meeting at the Ambrose Baptist Church near Denison. The meeting is to close Sunday night.

Mr. Creswell, pastor here for many years, recently moved back to Snyder after living at Denison about two years.

Revival Is Slated

A revival meeting at the First Baptist Church of Fluvanna is to open with services on Monday. The Rev. J. S. Shephard, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in Hamlin, will be the spaker for the revival.

Christian Adventure Week Is Scheduled

Christian Adventure Week for junior high school youth of the First Methodist Church will open Sunday. The program is to continue through Friday.

Miss Betty Sanderson will direct activities during the week. She will be assisted by Mrs. Stanley Kerbow, Mrs. Tim Dennis, Miss Nancy Henson and Miss Adalene Soles. Mrs. Sterling Williams and Mrs. Jack Young will be in charge of refreshments to be served each night.

Local People Attend District Assembly

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cook, 3102 Avenue A, were among the persons attending a district assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Pueblo, Colo., July 29 through August 1. About 5,000 persons attended the Sunday services, Mrs. Cook said.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook visited Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Walker in Albuquerque, N.M., and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Boggs in Roswell before returning home.

Lay Services Planned At Avenue D Church

George T. McBeth of Rotan, Baptist lay preacher, will be the speaker for the Sunday morning service of the Avenue D Baptist Church. Program emphasis at that service is to be on the work of laymen in the church.

The Rev. Floyd Strickland, pastor of the church, is to return Sunday afternoon from Shallowater where he has been conducting a 10-day revival at the First Baptist Church.

SOME FACTS ABOUT THE CHURCH OF CHRIST (No. 4)

Ted Norton

AN UNBELIEVER IN CHRIST CANNOT BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CHURCH (Mk.16:16; Acts 2:47). But the New Testament contains evidence to produce faith in Christ as the Son of God. He fulfilled all of the Old Testament prophecies concerning Christ (Luke 24:44). He performed all manner of miracles which proved His divinity (John 3:1,2; 20:30, 31). God raised Him from the dead (Rom.1:4).

AN IMPENITENT PERSON CANNOT BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CHURCH (Luke 13:5; Acts 17:30,31). Repentance is not just being sorry. Repentance is a change of will which produces a changed life (Matt.21:28,29; Matt.3:8). Godly sorrow works repentance (2 Cor.7:10). Repentance shows itself by the life of the individual.

THE PERSON WHO IS ASHAMED OF CHRIST CANNOT BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CHURCH (Matt.10:32). One does not confess his sins in becoming a Christian. It is known by all that he is a sinner. He does not confess his feelings for that would be to no avail. He confesses that he believes Jesus Christ is the Son of God (Acts 8:36-38; Rom.10:9,10).

THE PERSON WHO REFUSES TO BE BAPTIZED INTO CHRIST CANNOT BECOME A MEMBER OF THE CHURCH (Acts 2:37,38,41, 47). Baptism is for the remission of sins (Mark 16:15,16; Acts 22:16). Baptism puts one "into" Christ (Gal.3:26,27). When one is baptized into Christ, the Lord adds him to the church (Acts 2:47). Summing up, all who believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, who repent, confess Christ, and are baptized into the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit (Matt.28:18-20) are redeemed by the blood of Christ (Eph.1:7) and the Lord "adds" them to the church—the church referred to in the New Testament—the church of Christ.

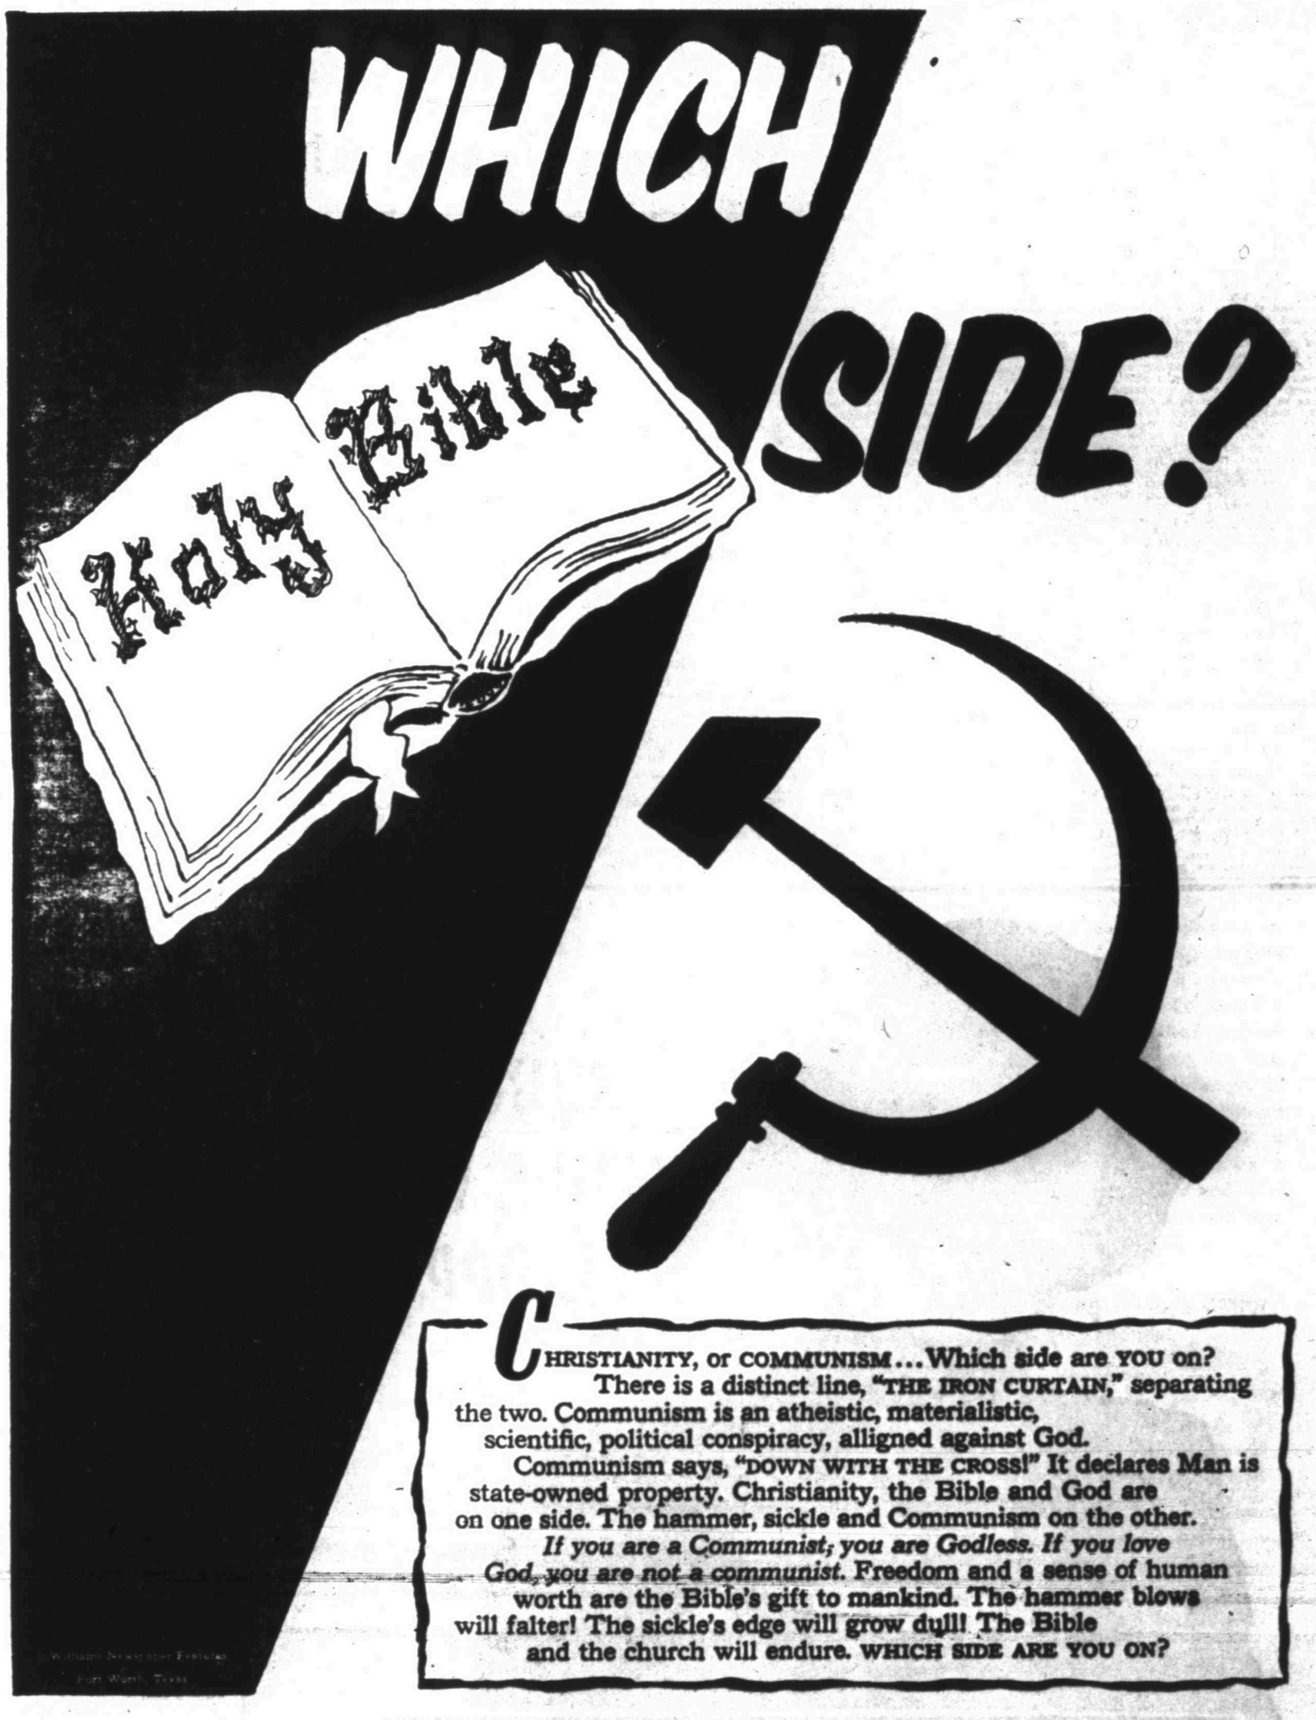

NINETEEN HUNDRED YEARS AGO THE CHURCH OF CHRIST WAS ESTABLISHED! Today, she has the same name, worship, organization, doctrine and life. "The churches of Christ salute you." (Rom. 16:16). Churches of Christ believe and follow what the New Testament says.

CHRISTIANITY, or COMMUNISM... Which side are YOU on? There is a distinct line, "THE IRON CURTAIN," separating the two. Communism is an atheistic, materialistic, scientific, political conspiracy, alligned against God. Communism says, "DOWN WITH THE CROSS!" It declares Man is state-owned property. Christianity, the Bible and God are on one side. The hammer, sickle and Communism on the other. If you are a Communist, you are Godless. If you love God, you are not a communist. Freedom and a sense of human worth are the Bible's gift to mankind. The hammer blows will falter! The sickle's edge will grow dull! The Bible and the church will endure. WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

Swimmers Reach Bank When Pool Submerges

LONGMEADOW, Mass. (AP)—Nobody sank in the swimming pool when the swimming pool sank yesterday.

Swimming instructor Vernon Cox guided 20 children out of the pool when he noticed the water begin to "bubble and flutter as if there was terrific pressure." Shortly afterward the pool sank in several feet of earth.

Authorities said the concrete pool was built over the foundation of an old ice plant and there was a filling of loose dirt between the foundation and the bottom of the pool.

Plaintiffs allege that plaintiffs, American Republics Corporation and Union Oil Company of California, between them own oil and gas leases which cover all the oil, gas and other minerals in the following described land in Scurry County, Texas, to-wit:

The North ½ of Section 99 (containing 323 acres, more or less) and the South ½ of Section 138 (containing 316 acres, more or less), all in Block 2, H. & T. C. Ry. Co. Survey, plaintiffs describing in their original petition in this cause eleven oil and gas leases which they allege cover all the oil, gas and other minerals in the foregoing described land, and that the title of plaintiffs in and to said land is in accordance with the terms and provisions of said eleven oil and gas leases.

Plaintiffs allege that all other owners of other interests in al of the hereinbefore described and under the judgment of the 126th District Court of Travis County, Texas, rendered on June 28, 1948, in the hereinbefore referred to Suit No. 79,683, and in all other land described in said judgment were and still are the owners in fee simple of their respective interests in the hereinbefore described land, subject to the hereinbefore described oil and gas leases and in all other land described in said judgment.

Plaintiffs allege that this suit is brought by plaintiffs, American Republics Corporation and Union Oil Company of California, both for themselves and representatives of the class claiming title under the aforesaid judgment dated June 28, 1948, rendered in the aforesaid Suit No. 79,683, for the purpose of clearing title to and removing cloud from title to the hereinbefore described land and all other land described in the aforesaid judgment in said Suit No. 79,683, to the end that no one could hereafter question said judgment dated June 28, 1948, in said Suit No. 79,683, in the 126th Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas, and so that said judgment will hereafter be binding on everyone as to the way said judgment fixed the title to the hereinbefore specifically described land and to all other land described in said judgment.

Plaintiffs allege that all plaintiffs and all defendants herein and all classes whom they represent have a common source of title, namely, all the proceedings in the hereinbefore referred to Suit No. 79,683.

Such action is a suit in trespass to try title and for the purpose of clearing title and removing cloud from title.

Plaintiffs pray in their said original petition that plaintiffs, American Republics Corporation and Union Oil Company of California, have judgment for the title and possession of all the oil, gas and other minerals in the North ½ of the hereinbefore described Section 99 and the South ½ of the hereinbefore described Section 138 in accordance with the terms and provisions of the hereinbefore described eleven oil and gas leases covering said land, and removing cloud from the title to any and all of said oil and gas leases, that the Court render judgment in favor of all other members of the class whom own interests of record in the hereinbefore described land and in all other land described in the judgment dated June 28, 1948, in the aforesaid Suit No. 79,683, establishing the title of all members of such class and removing cloud from their title as against all defendants herein and the aforesaid classes whom they represent, that plaintiffs recover damages, costs of suit and such other and further relief, general and special, at law or in equity, to which they may show themselves entitled.

Farmers And Ranchers Over Huge Drouth Area Dispirited

By ROBERT H. JOHNSON JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Farmers and ranchers are glum and dispirited in the vast drouth country where corn and cotton droop and cattle graze on brown pastures.

"Unless we assist in every possible way," says Agriculture Commissioner John White of Texas, "thousands of our rural people will have to abandon the land."

White speaks for only one state. But drouth still rules all the great plains, in spite of recent rains and federal aid already granted to six states.

Good rains in sun-burned sections of the South and East have been more helpful—but not enough to save most crops.

Here is what men who live on the seared land throughout the disaster areas say:

Only a lot more rain, and then still more, can finally beat the drouth and save them—and when that happy day will arrive is an impossible guess. Menwhile, they need federal help to hang on — and, they grumble, they aren't getting enough.

"I don't think they're expecting a 'dole'," White said. "For the sake of our economic future, we have to help the little farmer and rancher stay on the farm. We can't help them if they are forced to drift into the cities to seek employment."

The number of states eligible for federal aid reached six this week when Oklahoma and Missouri were added to Colorado, Wyoming, New Mexico and Texas.

Six more states — Alabama, Arkansas, Kansas, Kentucky, Georgia and Tennessee — have asked to be included.

Still, as of today, the situation appears slightly better than it was 10 days ago, when nothing but heat soaked the country from Georgia to Wyoming and Canada to Mexico.

Since then, spotted rains have raised dabs of green in some of the driest states — Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, Kansas and Oklahoma.

But scattered rains like these have fallen before in the past four years, and always the moisture has faded in a few days or weeks.

Even in the South, where the drouth isn't as old and tough as in the plains states, the rains of the past week weren't enough. For example, Kentucky received an average of 1.24 inches, the most in any week since April. The rain helped tobacco, but most other crops were too far gone to be saved.

Timely rains also were reported in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and Minnesota. But in these states, too, the word was the same: More rain needed, and even that wouldn't revive some fields.

The government's emergency program is aimed at helping livestock men hang onto their foundation herds. The government has agreed to pay half the cost of shipping hay into the federal disaster areas. The Agriculture Department also will pay a subsidy of 60 cents per hundred pounds for corn, oats, barley and grain sorghums. The subsidy will go to the dealers, and ranchers can then buy these grains at cut-rate prices.

But this program will leave feed prices somewhat higher than they were last summer under a more liberal federal emergency program. For example, you could buy a bushel of corn last year for $1. Now it will cost something under $1.50.

That is one reason for grumbling in the drouth areas.

Another is that farm spokesmen in some states believe more territory should have been included in the disaster program.

In Missouri, President Eisenhower declared 76 counties eligible for relief. Fred Heinkel, president of the Missouri Farmers Assn., said he thought all of the state's 114 counties should have been included.

"If this was the first year of drouth it would be different," he said. "But this is the third year and some farmers have exhausted their credit. I don't see how they can dig up the money to pay even $1.50 a bushel for corn."

New Mexico ranchers have complained that the feed program is slow in getting started.

All of Oklahoma, except for a few scattered spots, is dry. Experts said there is little difference between the 26 counties approved for federal aid and the other 51. The recent rains gave cotton and peanuts a chance to make a fair crop but were too late to do much good, if any, for pastures and feed crops.

In Colorado, rancher Melvin Carlson of Johnstown said "the government should have some sort of program to keep cattle on the range, or a flooded market will result."

Winter ranges in southeastern Wyoming already are nearly grazed off — in mid-summer. W. L. Chapman, state agriculture commissioner, said ranges are browner than two weeks ago and "we've not had any relief in appreciable moisture."

J. E. Burleson, Farmers Home Administration supervisor for Blanco, Mason and Llano counites in the central Texas hill country, said: "Twenty-two people have come into my office since Monday inquiring about the hay program. Only two of them submitted applications for hay after reading the requirements. Most of them are disappointed in the limited extent of the program."

Women Performing As Fire Watchers

By HAL BOYLE

MT. HARNEY, S.D. (AP)—A princess dwells atop this 7,240-foot peak, the highest mountain between the Rockies and the Alps.

She is Kathy Clark, 19, a forestry student at the Iowa State Agricultural College, and she is a working princess. She mans—all by herself—the highest of 16 fire lookouts in the million-and-a-half acre Black Hills National Forest.

I jeeped up to her solitary eyrie with her boss, Supervisor Jack C. Kern, but on the way Kathy, a pretty, dark-haired girl, passed us coming down in another jeep. After 10 days and nights of fire watching, it was her day off.

"Can't stop," she hollered. "I have to play in a softball game, and I'm late."

Kern grinned, and waved her on. "Six of our 16 lookout posts now are manned either by girls or by husband and wife teams," he said. "The girls make very dependable fire watchers.

"Kathy is one of our very best. She never gets excited, even during a lightning storm, when we may have six or seven fires going at once.

"She likes the work. This is her third summer. She lives in a little kitchenette beneath the tower, and does her own cooking and laundry.

"Kathy stays up here 8 to 10 days at a time. No, she doesn't get lonely. The job isn't as monotonous as a lighthouse keeper's. The lookouts also act as ground observers for the Air Force. There is always something to do, and, of course, there are a lot of visitors in the summer."

The Black Hills forest is only one of some 150 U.S. national forests. But it holds 2½ billion feet of timber, enough to house half a million people in six-room bungalows. It also provides grazing for 24,000 cattle and 13,000 sheep. It shelters more than 90,000 deer, the largest herd of mountain goats in America, and many elk and antelope.

"We in the forestry service regard ourselves as mountain farmers," said Kern.

"Last year we lost only 67 acres through fires," he said. But in 1939 a single fire in the Black Hills devastated 21,000 acres, at one time spreading over 2,900 acres in a single hour. It was finally quelled by 1,750 men who dug trenches and started backfires over a 47-mile-long battle line.

"You know," said Kern soberly, pointing at a tall slender pine, "it takes a hundred years to grow a tree like that, and if anything happens to it then it will take more than a hundred years for another to fill the scar in the sky it leaves."

Slav Fathers Are Pricing Girls High

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP) — The centuries-old practice of a tiny Albanian minority in Yugoslavia—selling girl brides—poses the government one of its toughest social problems.

President Tito's Communist regime has been trying, principally through education and propaganda, to stamp out the practice, but it is slow business.

The difficulty was pointed up recently in a report from the district of Orahovac in the southern Yugoslav province of Kosmet. Young girls still are being sold to husbands there for as much as 300,000 dinars ($1,000). Even worse, said the report, greedy fathers are selling their daughters to old men who can pay the highest prices.

Bride selling is a custom of Moslem Sciptars (Albanians), a custom as old as the opposite practice of a girl taking a dowry to her husband. To this day many young Sciptars leave their native villages to find jobs in more rewarding areas. Often they even go abroad. They live frugally, save their money and then go home to buy a local girl as a wife.

The report on the present situation said that in recent months fathers in the district sold 45 girls to husbands and that 361 girls under 14 had been unlawfully pledged to potential buyers (engaged).

But there are some good signs too, said the report. Thirty girls recently sought protection of the law because they did not want to marry old men.

Prospector Is Sentenced For Murder

PERCE, Que. (AP)—Wilbert Coffin, 43-year-old Gaspe prospector, was sentenced last night to hang on Nov. 26 for the murder of Richard Lindsey, one of three Pennsylvania hunters slain last summer in the Gaspe Peninsula wilds.

Coffin's chief counsel, Raymond Maher, told reporters the decision whether to appeal the verdict would be made "in a few days."

Six English-speaking and six French-speaking jurors took only 34 minutes to agree that the prospector murdered the 17-year-old youth. The crown contended that robbery was the motive.

Minutes after the verdict, Justice Gerard Lacroix donned the traditional black gloves and sentenced Coffin to the mandatory death penalty.

Richard Lindsey, his father, Eugene, 47, and Albert Claar, 20, were slain in the forest while on a hunting trip during June, 1953. All were from Hollidaysburg, Pa.

Their remains—bits of bodies and bones gnawed by bears—were found a month later, after the men's families became worried and contacted Quebec authorities. Because of the condition of the remains, police could determine only that the younger Lindsey had been shot.

Coffin, who helped in the search for the Americans, admitted to the police that he had seen the three hunters in the bush. But he said two Americans—whose names he didn't know—were with them the last time he saw them. Witnesses at the trial testified no trace was ever found of the mysterious Americans.

Workshop Held At Texas Tech

Several school cafeteria employes from this area are in Lubbock this week for a workshop on school lunchroom operation.

The workshop is being held at Texas Tech under direction of Dr. Willa Vaughn Tinsley, dean of home economics there.

The students are separated into three groups according to the number of children they serve.

Included in those attending are:

From Snyder, Mrs. Lila Dodson, director of the school cafeterias here, Mrs. T. A. Boren, Mrs. Pearl Blanchard, Mrs. Joyce C. Smith, and Mrs. Ora Ussery.

From Roby, Mrs. J. B. Lake and Mrs. Bryan B. Etheredge.

From Rotan, Mrs. Flora Bount and Mrs. Robert Hargrove.

From Gail, Mrs. Edna Stewart, Mrs. S. P. Stewart, and Mrs. Ruth Harrison.

Others include Mrs. Clovis Robison of Hermleigh, Mrs. L. E. Browning of Jayton, Mrs. Vinie Mae Horton of Post, and Mrs. Irene Fullwood of Roscoe.

Midland Edges Lubbock In Little Loop Playoff

Playoff Probable In Pony League Here

It looks as if there will be a playoff for the championship of the Pony League here.

The Von Roeder Red Sox, the team which took first place in the first half of league play, are still a long way from first in this half. In fact, with two games remaining, the Sox would have to win both of them for even a playoff for first place of this half.

Last night, the Sox lost again, that time 6-2 to the Scurry Butane Dodgers. The Dodgers remained in a tie for first place with the Courthouse Tigers, who took the Lions Phillies 6-1 last night. The teams played five-inning games to finish early because of Little League playoffs being held here.

Bud Morgan hit a home run with one on base for the Red Sox in the fifth, but it was already too late. The Dodgers had already scored their six runs. Mickey McGrew brought two of the Dodger runs in the top of the fifth with a double.

Johnny Griggs, who pitched the whole game, was winner for the Dodgers. He gave up only two hits, walked six, and struck out four. Dick Hayes was loser, going four and one-third innings. He allowed one hit, fanned five, and walked five. His relief, Johnny Drake, went two-thirds of an inning for three hits, no strikeouts, and no walks.

The Tigers took over their game early, getting five runs in three innings. Roger Hensley and James Patterson each got a double with none on for the Tigers, while Mickey Craig had one for the Phillies.

Winner was Gale Courtney, who went all five innings to strike out nine, give up two hits, and walk one. Jackie Tucker, the loser, also went all the way for three hits, two strikeouts, and four walks.

The league will resume play Tuesday night and is to finish the regular schedule Thursday night. Playoffs will follow.

Snyder Vs. Merkel In Game Tonight

Lubbock was eliminated from the District II Little League tournament yesterday afternoon when it was edged by Midland 3-2.

Preliminary play will continue at 8 o'clock tonight when Snyder and Merkel meet here. Finals will be at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

There were three home runs in the game, which was tied up for two and one-half innings and until the bottom of the last inning. Ernie McLendon, Midland second baseman, brought in the winning run with a double in the sixth with two runners on base. There were two outs when Midland started getting runners on. The two who took their bases were walked by losing hurler Jeral Mallory, who pitched the last two innings.

Winner of the game was Bill Easterwood, who pitched all six innings for Midland and struck out nine Lubbock batters. Easterwood, however, gave up six hits. He didn't walk a batter. Starting on the hill for Lubbock was Morris Dudley, who in one batter more than four innings gave up three hits, walked four, and struck out six. Mallory allowed one hit and walked two.

Carl Garrison, Lubbock shortstop, brought loud cheers from Lubbock fans when he, as first batter up in the game, hit a home run across the left-center field fence. In the top of the second, Roland Schenck, first baseman, was first up for Lubbock, and he put another directly over the fence at center field. Midland followed suit in the bottom of that frame when its first batter, Easterwood, homered. His team tied it up in the third when Easterwood walked and came in on a single by right fielder Billy Lord.

The game remained deadlocked until the bottom of the sixth. There were no errors in the entire game. In the fourth, Lubbock pulled a double play to stop a Midland threat. Tracy Barker was on first on a walk when McLendon hit a grounder out to second baseman Chuck Black. Black got Barker out at second and made the throw to first baseman Schenck for the other out.

Besides the homers and the double which won the game, there was one other extra base hit. It was a double by Lubbock's catcher, Gary Pendley, in the fourth.

The Snyder team is winner of an area tourney played at Lamesa earlier this week. It championed out over Lamesa and two Big Spring leagues, beating Lamesa 10-2 in the finals. Merkel yesterday morning edged Rotan 12-11 in finals of the Sweetwater area tourney, which involved those two teams, Sweetwater, and Colorado City.

The winner of the Snyder-Merkel game will meet Midland at 8 o'clock tomorrow night in district finals. The champion will go next week to Carlsbad, N.M., for the sectional tourney, which involves four districts covering West Texas and all New Mexico. The sectional champ will go to the regional tournament in Austin Aug. 16-19.

The games here are being played at the Little League field south of the high school. Officials are Otis Gunter, Al Latimer, and Bobby Jack Oliver.

Sports Are Running Four Games Ahead

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff Writer

Shreveport President Bonneau Peters got some nice gifts and heard a lot of kind words at his "day" there Thursday, but about as pleasant a tribute as any came when his Sports whacked Fort Worth 9-2.

The triumph before 3,700 fans who turned out for "Bonneau Peters Day" kept the Sports four games ahead in the Texas League race.

Bob Smith pitched six-hit ball and held the Cats to one earned run. Cal Felix homered for Fort Worth in the second.

Dallas beat Beaumont 6-3, Oklahoma City downed Houston 9-2 and San Antonio edged Tulsa 4-3.

At Shreveport, southpaw Smith got help from four double plays and 13 hits. Ev Joyner led hitting with five for five.

Righthander Ernie Groth pitched six-hit ball as Oklahoma City picked up a game on third-place Houston. Earl York's home run, triple and double were good for three runs as he paced the Indian attack. Groth held the Buffs scoreless until the ninth when Russell Rac homered.

Red Hollis and Ben Taylor homered for Beaumont, part of a futile 10-hit attack on two Dallas pitchers. Pat Scantlebury was the winner, picking up his 14th decision this year with some help from Red Murff.

Frank Kellert ran his runs-batted-in total to 111 for the year when he knocked in three for San Antonio against Tulsa. His 28th home run provided two tallies in the eighth inning and pulled the Missions to victory. Joe Macko homered for Tulsa.

Friday night's slate includes two doubleheaders, Dallas at Beaumont and Tulsa at San Antonio. Oklahoma City is at Houston and Fort Worth at Shreveport.

The 1955 Florida Derby — the winner gets $100,000 — will be run at Gulfstream Park next March 26, a week later than usual. The date was changed to attract horses from California and Louisiana.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts of the Redlegs appeared in three All-Star games and one World Series.

Brooklyn's Chances Are Growing Slim

By JOE REICHLER

BROOKLYN (AP) — A five-game deficit with 44 to go is not an insurmountable obstacle to overcome. Bigger leads have been blown. But Brooklyn's chances of overhauling the New York Giants are growing slimmer day by day.

The Dodgers fizzled a grand opportunity to pick up a full game on the losing Giants yesterday as St. Louis walloped them 13-4 behind Stan Musial's pair of three-run homer. A St. Louis player, instrumental in the lop-sided Cardinal victory, was struck by the listless play of the Dodgers.

"What's wrong with those guys?" he asked later in the clubhouse. "They look like they wish the season were over. Don't tell me they've given up? Heck, I wish we were that close."

The statement was relayed to Pee Wee Reese, captain and shortstop of the Dodgers.

"What team looks good when it gets its brains knocked out?" he wanted to know.

"Talk of giving up is ridiculous," Reese added. "This is a veteran club with a number of guys who have been around. They know the race is far from over. Most of the fellows on this club were around when we made up all but one of a 9½ game lead the Philadelphia club held over us as late as September, 1950. They were also around when we blew a 13½ game mid-August lead to the Giants. So they know it's not impossible to make up five games in seven weeks.

"However, we're not kidding ourselves. We've got to play better ball if we are to win. We've been good on certain days but we haven't been good consistently.

Halberg Beats Bannister In Mile Trials

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—Courageous little Murray Halberg of New Zealand ranked today with kings and conquerers after beating the great Roger Bannister and outperforming famous John Landy yesterday in the mile trials at the British Empires Games.

Halberg may bow tomorrow to the power that is latent in the legs of the mighty, when Bannister and Landy wage the nationally televised duel the world has been awaiting since they cracked the 4-minute barrier in separate tests earlier this year.

Halberg went out and set the pace in the first heat of yesterday's trials and he was still out there in front when the timers clicked the clocks and read them at 4 minutes, 7.4 seconds.

Bannister, chopping along in his loose, elbow-pumping style, was third in the heat behind Canada's Rich Ferguson. And then in the "Landy heat" another New Zealander scored a surprise first place, Bill Baillie crossing the line in 4:11.4. Landy was almost arm in arm with Vic Milligan of Northern Ireland.

3,000 Expected To See Greenbelt Bowl Game At Childress

CHILDRESS (AP)—A crowd of more than 3,000 is expected tonight when Texas schoolboy football stars of 1953 battle in the Greenbelt Bowl game.

It's the first gridiron game of the year since the bowl games of Jan. 1.

Ken Ford, Breckenridge quarterback, heads the favored West team. This outfit is the choice because it appears to boast more backfield strength.

The East will pin much of its hopes on Childress' own LaNoal Castleberry, one of the finest of last season's quarterbacks.

Sam Baugh and Larry Cunningham of the Hardin-Simmons coaching staff are tutoring the West while Frank Kimbrough and Clark Jarnigan of West Texas State are coaching the East.

Ezzard Confident He'll Beat Rocky In Rematch; Others Not

By JACK HAND

NEW YORK (AP) — Everybody watched Ezzard Charles closely for signs of wear and tear after the 15th round beating he took from Rocky Marciano six weeks ago. The ex-champion was in town the other day to sign for the Sept. 15 rematch and there were those present who thought he might not last as long next time.

The egg-shaped lumps on his face had melted away long ago with most of the other traces of battle. If you looked real close you might see a mark here or there but he seemed more confident than ever.

In the hours after their June 17 battle, Ezzy was saying Marciano was not the best man he ever fought—that Jersey Joe Walcott was tougher and hurt him more than Rocky.

"I know what I'd do the next time," he muttered then. "I'd go out there and punch with him. I thought I beat him and I'll prove it if I get another chance."

Now it was six weeks later and he had signed for the second fight. He still talked much the same way, although apparently convinced he had lost.

"I believe I can beat him," he said slowly, thinking out each phrase. "I would have beat him last time if I hadn't had a little accident and hadn't made a couple of mistakes I won't make again."

Everybody knew he meant the blow to the Adam's apple in the eighth round when he talked about his "little accident." He claimed the blow was the turning point in the fight for he led in the early rounds and to use his own words, "blew up down the stretch."

About the "couple of mistakes" he was more vague. Under questioning he said he thought he did wrong in doing the same thing over and over.

"I don't think I went to his head enough after I cut his eye," he said. "He's not the easiest man in the world to hit with a right hand."

When a fellow asked if he meant to imply that Rocky was easy to hit with a left, Charles grinned widely, showing the gold in his front teeth.

"I thought in the last rounds he'd fall apart. It seems I did. There's no doubt about it. It will take a perfect fight to beat him. I think if I fought like I did against Joe Louis it would be good enough."

Charles said he was given the best homecoming reception of his career when he came home to Cincinnati after the Marciano fight. It was a pleasant surprise to Ezzy to hear cheers ringing in his ears.

"I guess I made a mistake one time when I told the writers I didn't care about the cheers—I wasn't in any popularity contest."

Naturally, Charles wouldn't tip off his battle plans at this date. He will try to surprise Rocky in the Yankee Stadium ring. The impression here is that he will come out slugging, trying to take out Marciano in an early round. If that happens, it will be even better than the last time.

As Jake Mintz, one of Ezzy's co-managers, said, "he don't figure to get hit on the gargle again."

Ada Wins 1st Doubleheader

By The Associated Press

The rejuvenated Ada Cementers won their first doubleheader of the Sooner State League baseball season Thursday night, extending their winning streak to five games since aquiring a new owner.

Ada trimmed Seminole 6-2 and 10-0, the shutout coming as John Desousa pitched five-hit ball and hit a home run, two singles and a double.

Second-place McAlester defeated league-leading Shawnee 2-1 on Keith Mitchell's single in the bottom of the ninth. The loss cut the Hawks' lead to 13½ games.

Wendell Doss shut out Pauls Valley on eight hits 2-0 for his 18th decision against 11 losses, and Ardmore rallied for two runs in the ninth to beat Gainesville 3-1. Doubles by Gene Green and Tom Burns and a single by Mat Woloszyn produced the runs.

Friday night Ardmore is at Ada, Gainesville at Seminole, Lawton at Shawnee and McAlester at Pauls Valley.

UCLA's only defeat in football last year was a 21-20 setback at the hands of Stanford. The latter was beaten three times in 1953.
