BIG RUN OF HOGS TODAY

ABOUT A THOUSAND HEAD AT THE HOG PENS.

Strong Demand for Stockers Caused Some Common Stuff to Sell at $6.15. Pens Cleaned Up Soon.

The wrinkled face and hungry look of the hog salesmen disappeared today, and an expression that could almost be called a smile spread over their faces, when the market opened. For instead of the usual 200 or 300 hogs in the pens, there were 1,000, and they had the pleasure of an hour and a half selling, instead of the ten minutes to 30 minutes that has been making their days' work the last few weeks.

The grades were fair to good, and the packers and outside buyers were hungry for hogs. The results were quick sales and not half the demand satisfied.

There were a few stockers in today, which hardly tracked the pens before being gobbled up. Orders are standing with the commission firms for stock hogs, and local and outside buyers keep a constant watch on the pens for hogs. They are almost like diamonds. Thousands and tens of thousands are wanted, and only a few are coming in.

One car of piggy sows, small shoats, rough barrows and thin sows, were among the stockers in today. They were fairly well bred, and all-round good stockers. Within 30 minutes after their arrival, the fact was being talked to customers by wire a hundred miles from Fort Worth, and they were sold at $6.15. The sellers have no cause to kick.

Good Advice to Hog Shippers.

In an interview with Dr. Paxson this morning, he said:

"The stock hog division of the yards is becoming better patronized of late. However, some shippers have neglected to have their stock hogs so billed or to advise their commission company of their coming, and as a result pregnant sows and young pigs have been unloaded in the killing hog division, and some loss has resulted, as all pregnant sows have to be held 10 days after they have young before being killed.

"The inspectors are using their utmost vigilance to keep clear the division, and shippers should observe these precautions to get the privilege of these yards.

"First, be sure the hogs are neither affected with or exposed to cholera or swine plague. Second, have your agent mark the waybills, 'stock hogs,' and advise your commission company of the shipment.

"If free from exposure to these diseases, a mixed car of hogs composed of stock and butcher hogs can be unloaded in the stock hog division and the butcher hogs cut and taken from there to their division, but any movement in the contrary direction is obviously impossible."

BRITISH EMBARGO IS RAISED.

Foot and Mouth Disease no Longer Terrifies the British Government.

Special to The Reporter.

Union Stock Yards, Ill., Sept. 24.—A London cablegram from Poels, Brewster, Ramsden & Duckham to the Live Stock World, announces that the embargo against cattle and sheep from Boston and Portland on account of foot and mouth disease, has been raised, and millions of dollars worth of stock that had been diverted through Canadian ports will now resume its old channels through the New England ports.

AROUND THE STOCK YARDS.

J. P. Bass from Newlin sold 32 head of 785-pound cows at $1.90.

W. L. Miller of Henrietta was on the market with cattle, shipped in from Seymour.

B. L. Hargis was in from Brady with 1 car of cattle that brought prices satisfactory to him.

A. G. Pannell sold 40 head of steers, shipped from Minco, I. T., that averaged 881, at $2.00.

D. M. Burnside of Okarche, O. T., marketed 64 195-pound hogs, which sold to Armour & Co. at $6.20.

J. W. Tidwell shipped in from Duncan, I. T., 37 head of cows that averaged 664 pounds and sold at $1.70.

J. C. & M. F. Petree, solid friends of this market, had in today 87 hogs averaging 184 pounds, which sold at $6.27½.

W. H. Neal of Dakota (Texas—not up North) had 27 head of cows on the market that averaged 870 and brought $2.15.

C. C. Wilson of Pawnee, O. T., shipped in today 96 hogs averaging 187 pounds, which sold to Swift & Co. at $6.22½.

H. O. Dutton of Cordell, O. T., had in today 65 hogs averaging 216 lbs., which sold at $6.25, with 10 116-pound pigs at $6.00.

Twelve cars of hogs were in the pens this morning. This is three times the average run, but not half enough to supply the demand.

C. Kyle, regular shipper to this market from Cushing, O. T., had in today two loads of hogs, of which 83, averaging 204, sold at $6.30, with 90 averaging 198 pounds at $6.25.

W. J. Long had in today from Memphis, Tex., 80 hogs. Seventy-eight averaging 210 pounds, brought $6.25, with 2 115-pound pigs at $6.

H. L. Howe of Billings, O. T., was represented on today's market with 79 hogs, averaging 194 pounds, which sold to Swift & Co. at $6.27½.

Tabor & Wilson had 75 head of steers on the market, from Dundee, that averaged about 1,000 pounds and sold at $3.60, the top price.

Walter Campbell sent in from Childress 31 cows that averaged 694 and sold at $1.90, and three loads that averaged 706, 721 and 743, that brought $1.80.

Scott & Wooten had another load of 26 steers on today's market, shipped from Alvord. They averaged 913 and brought $3.60, Armour & Co. being the buyer.

A bunch of stocker pigs, 108 head, averaging 126 pounds, shipped in by Dumas & Jones from Wapanucka, I. T., sold today at $6.15. They will go to Cisco.

A. G. Pannell, one of the regular cattle shippers to this market, from Minco, I. T., had in the market 36 hogs averaging 241 pounds, which sold at $6.30.

D. B. Jones of Perry, O. T., had on today's market two loads of hogs. Seventy-four head averaging 244 pounds topped the market at $6.32½, with 86 204-pound hogs at $6.27½. Both loads sold to Armour & Co.

J. C. Phillips had a load of good cows on today's market, from Clarendon. They averaged 843 and sold at $2.50. It takes a mighty good cow to bring $2.50 nowadays, and that's what these were. Mr. Phillips sold another load, not so good, averaging 827, at $2.

A double-deck car of sheep came in today from Kansas City, direct to Armour & Co. We are now importing sheep as well as hogs from the North. And this is in the greatest live-stock state in the South, and one of the greatest in the country. Good mutton sheep are needed at this market, and the demand is always beyond the supply.

A. W. Chandler was down from Belcherville, Montague county, with cattle, which were sold at satisfactory prices, considering the state of the market. Montague county is mighty dry, Mr. Chandler says, a good many cattle will be forced on the market. A stock law election is to be held next Saturday, and if it carries a great many more will be marketed, as some of the men who have cattle have no fenced pastures.

Too Old to Try.

One of the students at the University of Pennsylvania, wishing to turn an honest penny during his vacation, decided to introduce a new and popular cyclopedia into the country, and to sell it among the farming population. Needless to say, he had many queer and amusing experiences. At one place he found an old man working in the fields. "I'd like to sell you a new cyclopedia," said the agent. "Well, young feller," said the farmer, "I'd like to have one, but I'm afraid I'm too old to ride the thing."

HORSES AND MULES.

FIRST ON THE GROUND AT THE NEW MARKET.

A Few Sales Reported Yesterday—Polo Ponies Shipped From Texas to Englad.

Cooke & Simmons have moved from Fort Worth to the new horse and mule barns at the Stock Yards. They brought over with them about 125 head of mules. They will occupy the northeastern corner office of the brick barn on Exchange avenue. Mr. Simmons reports a good business.

R. C. High has engaged the northwest corner office of the brick barn, and will move in on the 1st of October. Mr. High reports the sale of a load of mules to Mr. Stocks of Ennis. They were about 15 hands high, and sold for an average of $110. Mr. High also sold a driver for $150.

Wm. Anson was at the yards today. Mr. Anson is president of the Fort Worth Horse and Mule Commission Co. He is shipping 8 head of polo ponies to England, for his own use. They are Texas bred animals, and of a quality that command a good price for the purpose for which they are intended. The Reporter was told this morning of a transaction in horse flesh that took place some time ago, showing the value of polo ponies. One of these ponies was bought on the Fort Worth market for $110, and sent to Boston and sold for $900. Texas ponies of the right quality are favorites with polo players.

Four mules were burned to death in a car on the Frisco road, near Fort Worth yesterday. They were from Brownwood, consigned to some point in Tennessee. The car caught fire, and before the mules could be got out, four of them were burned so badly that they died.

EFFECT OF A LONG RUN.

Left Texas as Cows and Reached Kansas City as Goats.

The Kansas City Drovers' Telegram prints this statement from a shipper to that market:

"I thought I had two car loads of cows when I started from home, but when I landed on the market at Kansas City I found that I had goats or something not as good," said G. M. Price, a cowman of Dalhart, Tex.

It's a pretty long run to Kansas City, and the shrink is considerable, but this is the first time we ever heard of cows that turned to goats on the road.

The Reign of the Tall Woman.

We are told that the reign of the tall and magnificent woman is over, and that the dainty, fairy-like, vivacious little person is in favor (says The Lady). This change in taste, if it exists, is due to the dressmaker and the short skirt. The tall woman is not on the shelf. Through the power of fashion she has learned how to look short. Trailing skirts give height. The short skirt takes it away. It is far more a matter of art than nature.

In the Orchard.

Oh! here, beneath this roof of green,
I throw me down and dream again
The golden dreams of what has been
And future harvests yet to gain!

The wheat waves in the field close by.
An apple, ripened ere its time,
Drops from the tree; the sun's great eye
Seeks through the leaves, and, as I rhyme

The birds weave to and fro and sing
The very songs I would declare,
And now and then the branches swing
Stirred gently by a wandering air.

The tinders, clicking in the wheat,
The whistle of a passing train,
The distant noises of the street,
Are to my song a low refrain.

Today! Today I rest at ease
And pick the golden fruits that grow
In solitude on twigs of peace—
The fruits that only dreamers know.
—Herman Rave, in New York News.

DON'T "FLIP THE COIN."

Grave Court Has Declared It to Be a Misdemeanor.

Those residents of Washington who are in the habit of flipping a coin with their friends to decide which shall stand treat will do well in the future to do so in private, or at least not within the sight of a police officer. According to a ruling of Judge Bundy of the District branch of the police court, such practice is an act of disorder, and he imposed a fine of $10 on four young men who were caught in the act of matching a coin.

According to the testimony of two policemen, the young men were standing near the corner of Thirteenth and G streets northwest, about 12 o'clock Saturday night, flipping a 25-cent piece. Their conduct, the officers said, was not boisterous, and the only thing against them was that they "matched the coin."

The defendants explained that they had had a midnight luncheon and were trying to decide who should stand treat for the cigars by flipping a coin. The court ruled that it was an act of disorder and imposed a fine on each. The fines were paid.—Washington Star.

Varying Occupations.

A comparison of the occupation of the population of the following countries is of interest: The per cents in Hungary are: In agriculture, 58; in industries, 32; in commerce, 6. In Great Britain the figures are: In agriculture, 15; in industries, 54; in commerce, 10. In Scotland they run 14, 58, 10. In the United States, 36, 24, 16. It is noticeable that the proportion of agriculturists is smallest in Scotland and largest in Hungary; that Scotland has the largest proportion in the industries, and that the United States has the largest number in commerce.

Barred Automobile Marriage.

The cause for doing things in automobiles broke out in a new channel when a young man and woman drew up to the curb in front of a church rectory and asked the minister if he would marry them while they remained in the automobile. The minister promptly told them that he would not, and that if they wanted to be married they would be obliged to come into the rectory. This appeared to surprise the couple, but they went in.—New York Letter.

Savage Revenge of a Gypsy Band.

A young Hungarian gypsy, who had betrayed his party to the authorities after a robbery, begged the magistrates at Magyar Egres for protection, as his companions threatened to kill him. The man was given shelter, but the room was found empty on the following day. Eventually his body was discovered in a field. The eyes had been burned out, the tongue excised, and the man hanged by the feet on two acacia trees. The body had been cloven in two.

PROFUSE IN PRAISING

Governor Yates of Illinois Compliments a Sheriff.

DENOUNCES MOB LAW

Lynching Is Termed Essence of Cowardice, in That it Permitted No Trial, No Appeal, and Gave No Quarter.

Carbondale, Ill., Sept. 24.—Fully 5000 veterans and their friends heard Gov. Yates speak on "Mobs" at the opeing of the annual reunion of the Southern Illionis Soldiers and Sailors' association. Governor Yates said that several persons in Illinois owed their death to mobs. He pointed out the baneful effect which such a record had on the people. Mob rule simply tore down the good influence that the human race had accomplished during the past. Lynching was the essence of cowardice. It permitted no trial, no appeal; it gave no quarter, but expected quarter to be given to lynchers. Referring to the Danville riots of July 25 the governor was profuse in his praise of Sheriff Whitlock. He said that Sheriff Whitlock protected the prisoners in the Vermilion county jail by using a combination of common sense and bird shot. The evidence at the trial at Danville showed that five of the men bent on unlawfully hanging a negro for the alleged crime of assaulting a man's wife. "To revere the flag that the veterans preserved," said the governor, "I will keep my oath and put every bayonet and every rifle belonging to the state to further a lynch law and mob violence."

Action Deferred.

Cripple Creek, Colo., Sept. 24.—Gen. Chase produced in court Wednesday the four military prisoners for whom writs of habeas corpus were issued, and a strong force of troops was stationed in and about the court house. Former Attorney General Eugene Engley, who instituted the habeas corpus proceedings, protested against the presence of thirty soldiers in the court room, declaring it to be in violation of the constitution, and as they were permitted to remain he withdrew from the case. Argument on the motion to quash the habeas corpus proceedings was resumed. Decision of judge was reserved.

Kansas City, Sept. 24.—After being in session behind closed doors since Wednesday the convention of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers voted in favor of seating Sam Parks and the other delegates from local union No. 2 of New York. Lowered by Prince Alert.

New York, Sept. 24.—Prince Alert, the pacing hero of 100 races and the champion of a score of half-mile tracks, went against the world's pacing record of 1:59, held by Dan Patch, lowering it to 1:57 at Empire City track. It was the first day of the autumn meeting of the Empire City Trotting club, and in addition to a strong card of four races, Prince Alert was billed for what looked like the impossible feat of lowering the record.

Dan Patch Failed.

Columbus, O., Sept. 24.—Ten thousand people witnessed the grand circuit races at the Columbus Driving park Wednesday. The special attraction was Dan Patch's race against time to beat his record of 1:59. The track was fast and weather conditions almost perfect, but the best the pacer could do was 1:59½.

Made it Clear That Canada Wants All Accessible by Sea.

London, Sept. 24.—Attorney General Finlay concluded his argument on behalf of Canada at Wednesday morning's session of the Alaskan boundary commission. He received the thanks of Chief Justice Alverstone and congratulations of Messrs. Root and Lodge on his "lucid explanation of so technical and comprehensive a subject." The attorney general made it clear that Canada wants about everything accessible to the sea. The American counsel informed the Associated Press that every effort will be made by them to convince the tribunal that the treaty contemplated a barrier between the Dominion and the ocean and that the question of territory is not important, provided shores and inlets remain in possession of the United States.

David T. Watson of Pittsburg, counsel for the American side, opened for the United States, describing the purchase of Alaska, and stating the United States published in 1867 a map issued by Russia in 1826, one year after the treaty with great Britain, and no protest against the boundary therein fixed was made either by Great Britain or by Canada.

MAN PARDONED.

Escaped From Penitentiary of Missouri and Located in Arkansas.

St. Louis, Sept. 24.—A special to the Republic from Jefferson City, Mo., says: Seventeen years ago William Hedrick was sent to the Missouri penitentiary from Butler county to serve three years for grand larceny. He escaped from the penitentiary after serving six months and located in Arkansas, where he married and became a respected farmer, rearing a family of five children. After living seventeen years in Arkansas, dreading each day to be rearrested, he was discovered and brought back here this year to serve out his time. Governor Dockery, after reviewing the case, decided to give him his liberty in consideration of his endeavor to be a good citizen. It is the first instance on record at the Missouri penitentiary where a man received a pardon after an attempt to escape.

MORGAN ON OUTLOOK.

Alabama Senator Compares State Legislatures and Congress.

FRICTION MUCH LESS.

Expresses the Belief That the Democrats Will Get Together and Elect the Next Chief Magistrate of Nation.

Montgomery, Ala., Sept. 24.—Senator John T. Morgan addressed the joint session of the Alabama legislature at noon Wednesday on the relative functions of the state legislatures and congress. Since the adoption of the new state constitution, said Senator Morgan, there was less friction between the state and the national government than before within his knowledge—a period of seventy years.

SENATOR JOHN T. MORGAN OF ALABAMA

Senator Morgan expressed the belief that the debates in the next congress would reconcile all of the factions of the Democratic party, and that after the party had gotten together the Democrats would elect the next president. Who that man would be, Senator Morgan said, was not a matter of great consideration. He must be an honest man, and a man to represent the country.

DRUNKEN MAN'S DEEDS.

Drove Family Away, Killed Marshal and Took His Own Life.

North Vernon, Ind., Sept. 24.—William Wilkinson, a citizen of this place, while intoxicated drove his family from home. Marshal Schwake was appealed to and upon entering the premises was warned by Wilkinson to proceed no further. The marshal paid no attention and was shot and instantly killed by Wilkerson. Wilkerson immediately started for the country and a posse was organized to pursue him. Later a riot almost alarm was turned in and many citizens joined in the chase. A half mile from town Wilkerson was surrounded, but killed himself with the same gun with which he slew Marshal Schwake. Wilkerson was formerly a guard at the Indiana reformatory in Jeffersonville.

WORKING ON MESSAGE.

Simply Preparatory, and Nothing Yet Reduced to Definite Form.

Oyster Bay, Sept. 24.—No visitors were received by President Roosevelt at Sagamore Hill Wednesday. Already the president has begun work on his annual message to congress. This work is simply preparatory, and nothing has yet been reduced to definite form. The message to be presented to the extraordinary session will be comparatively brief. The call for the extraordinary session will not be issued until about the middle of October.

NEARLY WIPED OUT.

About Six Million Feet of Lumber Included In Losses.

Mellen, Wis., Sept. 24.—Incendiaries started a fire which nearly wiped out the village of Morse, thirty-seven miles south of Ashland, in Ashland county, Wednesday, and caused a loss of $300,000, partially covered by insurance. The sawmill and the store of T. R. Chase were destroyed, together with 6,000,000 feet of lumber. The fire also burned several small buildings in the vicinity. The blaze started in the lumber yard, and is believed to have been the work of a former employe of the mill. The inhabitants of the village turned out and fought the fire but to no avail, and it raged for twelve hours.

No Action.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The executive council of the American Federation of Labor Wednesday considered the case of W. A. Miller, the foreman of bookbinders, who was dismissed from the government printing office because he had been expelled from the local Bookbinders' union, and who was subsequently reinstated by order of President Roosevelt, but took no action in the matter, deferring that until later. The case was considered some time.

Low Nominated.

New York, Sept. 24.—The Republican and Citizens' Union committee met, the former at the Grand Central Palace and the latter at Cooper Union, and nominated Seth Low for mayor, Edward M. Grout for controller and Charles V. Fornes for president of the board of aldermen.

CRANSTON CONVICTED.

Received an Indeterminate Sentence in Massachusetts Prison.

Boston, Sept. 24.—In the superior criminal court here Judge Sherman sentenced Edward A. Cranston, charged with forgery and swindling, to not more than fifteen nor less than ten years in state prison. On the stand the prisoner denied his name was Cranston and said it was Edward Augustus Condit. Chief Inspector Watts then hunted up the records which tend to show that Condit, if he is the same person, is known all over the country as an expert in beating stock brokers. He is said at one time to have been wealthy. His plan was to open an account with a broker, who would accept a check on a country bank as a margin. If the trades showed quick profit he would close the account and take up the check, letting it go by default if speculation showed a loss. Cranston began to speculate, the records say, as early as 1872. He was convicted many times in the east and under the name of W. S. Carson was arrested Dec. 22, 1892, in Wisconsin on a forgery charge. In 1898 he was arrested in Chicago on a similar charge but was released and disappeared.

BURIAL OF WRIGHT.

Professor's Father Was Undertaker and Coffin Plain Pine Box.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 24.—Incased in a plain painted pine box that did not cost more than $2.50 the body of Prof. Max Wright, instructor of modern languages in Leland Stanford university and the son of wealthy parents, was buried. The simple burial was ordered by Professor Wright. He believed the custom at present of lavish burials barbarous, and economically wrong and directed before his death that $200 of his money, ordinarily spent for a funeral, be used for a public fountain as a monument to his memory. Professor Wright's father did the work of undertaker. There was no minister and no religious service, and the body was taken to the grave in a plain wagon. At the grave Dr. Wright, father of the deceased, addressed relatives and friends and explained the reasons for the simple funeral.

OLD-TIMERS MEET.

Telegraphers Convene in Twenty-Third Reunion at Milwaukee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Sept. 24.—The twenty-third annual reunion of Old Time Telegraphers and Historical Association and Society of United States Telegraph Corps was held here. The convention was called to order by President Fry in the assembly room of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' association, the first ceremony being decoration of executive with Morse medallion by Colonel William Bender Wilson. Then followed the address of welcome by Acting Mayor Corcoran. The regular business convention followed. Henry C. Robinson of Camden, N. J., who has the distinction of having sent the first telegram from a balloon, is among those attending the convention.

Not Considered.

Denver, Sept. 24.—"Settlement as to coal lands between the government land and Colorado Fuel and Iron company have not been considered," said D. C. Beaman, attorney and secretary for the coal and iron company. The statement was made in denial of a report that the company had settled with the government in a lawsuit over coal lands by paying $500,000. "The company's land," continued Mr. Beaman, "has all been legally entered and the title will be defended at all hazards. There is no disposition to entertain a proposition for a compromise."

Dallas Man Appointed.

Washington, Sept. 24.—The controller of the currency has appointed Thomas H. Thornton of Dallas, Tex., permanent receiver of the Groesbeck National bank of Groesbeck, Tex., to succeed National Bank Examiner J. W. Hertford, the change to take effect as soon as the assets of the bank can be listed and transferred.

Arrested at Lake Charles.

Lake Charles, La., Sept. 24.—W. S. Ketcham was arrested charged with obtaining $119 from B. F. Hetrick. Ketcham represented himself to be the agent of a Denver trust company authorized to collect money, and the company denies that he is so authorized. He is in jail.

dramatized by Chas. W. Chase.

Friday, matinee and night, Sept. 25.

The big farce comedy,

"LOOKING FOR A WIFE."

Mirth, music and pretty girls.

Beautiful costumes, catchy music, special scenery, superb effects, new songs, novel dances—one continuous round of pleasure.

Seats on sale for above attractions.

GENERAL NOTES.

The Hall Hardware Company's stock of goods has been bought by W. B. Scrimshire.

A barn belonging to Joseph Pinto, on Chambers Hill, Fort Worth, was destroyed by fire yesterday, and a horse lost its life. A carriage and 268 bales of hay were burned.

The grand jury had before it yesterday the mayor and some of the aldermen of Fort Worth. It is understood they are inquiring into the relations of Alderman Ben Waggoman as alderman and contractor. The charter of Fort Worth forbids any city official from being directly or indirectly interested in any contract with the city, and Mr. Waggoman has a contract for sprinkling the streets. He explains that Mr. Wm. D. Williams when city attorney, gave an opinion that it was not a violation of the charter provision for him to continue his contract [illegible] become alderman.

"LOOKING FOR A WIFE."

Among the choice line of good things theatrical that will be seen in our city during the coming season is the big farce comedy "Looking for A Wife." This play promises to be one of the comedy treats of the season. The date for its production here is Friday matinee and night, Sept. 25, at Greenwall's Opera House. The company is one of the largest of its class travelling, and it is also said to be the best thing in the comedy line seen on the stage in years. The cast includes some of the best comedians in the business, and the chorus of twenty pretty girls are as clever as they are good looking. Nothing has been left undone by the management to make the production complete in every detail special scenery and effects being carried by the compay for the entire production. Catchy musical numbers, songs and dances abound throughout the piece.

A WELL KNOWN STORY.

Is that of "Darkness and Daylight," Mary J. Holmes' tale of southern life and characters that has, by special arangement with her publishers, been put into dramatic form to be served for the delectation of those who delight in heart stories in dramatic form. The book is one of the most phenomenal success and a phenomenal success of one of her books means the sale of hundreds of thousands of copies, for she is the most popular writer of that class of books most eagerly devoured by women, and they are by far the greatest readers of fiction, and therefore the best judges of what is good. This play comes to Greenwall's opera house tonight and will be interpreted by an excellent cast.

PEOPLE WITHOUT A COUNTRY.

General F. D. Grant, commanding the department of Texas, has called the attention of the war department to the 150 Seminole negro Indians who are living on government land at Fort Clark, Texas and are practically military wards. In the eyes of the law these persons are not negroes, Indians, nor half-breeds. They returned to the United States from Mexico shortly after the civil war. They have forfeited their right to residence and citizenship in Mexico. They are not recognized citizens of the United States and are not regarded by the Seminole Indians as part of their tribe. This strange colony without a country emigrated to Mexico long before the freeing of slaves in the United States and did not return in time to acquire rights under the Seminole treaty of 1866.

They gain a living by raising chickens and truck farming, and at present twenty of the young men are employed as scouts along the Rio Grande. For years the men have been thus employed by the army. All the older men are veterans of the American army, in many families grandfather, father and son have been this country as river scouts. They are said by General Grant to have been faithful service. General Grant advised that the legal status of these people be determined at once and the government set aside a tract of land in Indian Territory for the use of these so-called Seminole negroes and assist them in establishing themselves upon farms.

Fireproof Residence.

Frederick W. Vanderbilt has adopted a new idea in the construction of private houses. He is having a fireproof staircase of steel and concrete built in his Fifth Avenue residence. Nearly all the big houses along Fifth avenue have rather too much wood in them for safety.
