OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE units of Hart Longhorns are "ready to go", according to Coach Lonnie Phillips. The Longhorns have improved in all areas, says Coach Phillips, and were much improved in the last scrimmage as compared to the first scrimmage. "The line blocking was crisper, and the defense plugged up holes we had the previous week. We hope to get it all together for Friday night's game," Coach Phillips commented.

First Baptist Church Revival Gets Under Way Here Sept. 8

A September revival effort begins Sunday at First Baptist Church and will continue through the week, Sept. 8-15, according to the Rev. Randall Scott, pastor.

Speaking as guest evangelist will be Darwin Ray Scott, pastor of First Baptist Church of Palestine. Directing music will be Jerry Morris of Waco.

The Rev. Scott is graduate of Howard Payne College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is presently working toward his doctorate.

He has pastored in Bunyan Baptist Church, Dublin; First Baptist Church, Placid; First Baptist Church, Turkey and White Deer, before assuming his present pastorate at Palestine.

In evangelistic endeavors he has held revival meetings in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas, California and New York. On a broader scale he has preached in Jamaica, West Indies, in Blenheim and Picton New Zealand and in the All India Around the World Crusade in 1969. He has toured the Holy Land and Europe. His wife is the former Miss Sue McCaghren of Matador. They are parents of two children.

Singer Jerry Morris is also an ordained minister. A graduate of Wayland Baptist College and Southwestern Seminary, he has served as youth minister, music minister or education director in Northwest Baptist Church, Oklahoma City; First Baptist Churches in Richardson, Mansfield, Eastland, Silvertown and Levelland.

He and his wife, the former Miss Sandra Tucker, have one daughter.

Services Monday through Friday will be held at 12 noon and at 8 p.m. The mid-day service, designed to meet the schedules of working people, will be of short duration. Beginning at 12 o'clock, it will be followed by a fellowship meal.

Services each of the Sundays included will be held at usual hours.

The pastor and membership join in extending a cordial invitation to all interested people to attend any or all of these services.

Grid Contest In 2nd Week

One week of the football guessing game, sponsored annually by The Hart Beat, has already gone by-but there is still time to enter and begin building points for the big prize.

Predictors are urged to begin in earnest this week. Get in on the weekly fun of guessing for first, second and third places each week. Then, those who have compiled the most correct guesses for the season will be considered for first place: two tickets to the Cotton Bowl and a check for $25; and second place, two tickets to the Sun Bowl.

For those not familiar with the contest, its easy and its fun. All that is necessary is to select a winner in each of the games listed on the contest pages of The Hart Beat. Circle that team's number on the entry blank and predict the tie-breaker score (this game also counts in the win-loss contest) and completely fill in the entry blank.

Anyone may enter except staff members of The Hart Beat and their families. Only one entry is allowed per person, but every one in the family can enter.

Contestants should be very careful in filling in the entry blank. Careless oversights can be determining factors in losing the grand prize. Weekly winners receive checks for $5, $3 and $2. The tie-breaker prediction will determine the weekly winner in the event of a tie. If a tie remains, prize money will be equally divided.

Enter this week! Entry blanks should be deposited with one of the sponsoring merchants by 5 p.m. Thursday.

Sponsoring merchants make this contest possible. If you enjoy the friendly competition, let the sponsors know of your appreciation. And trade with them, they will appreciate you also.

Pep Rally Set Friday

The first pep rally of the 1974 football season will be held Friday, at which time the 1974 Longhorn Annual will be dedicated.

The dedication of the annual will be made at 3:20 p.m. in the Hart High School gymnasium. The honor will go to the 1974 football team and coaches.

Annual Field Day To Be Staged

Agricultural Research that is not used is wasted. Many times this is the case because farmers are not aware that certain research projects are being conducted. The Annual Field Day and Open House of the High Plains Research Foundation, Halfway, scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 12, is held to give area people an opportunity to see what is being researched that may benefit their own farming operation or the agricultural economy in general.

Field tours are set to begin at 1:30 p.m. A member of the scientific staff will conduct each tour and try to acquaint each group with most of the projects underway. One truck will depart each 20 minutes and the tour will last from 45 minutes to one hour. At the conclusion of each tour, a drawing will be held for a $25.00 Savings bond, courtesy of area banks. An excellent equipment exhibit and farm show will be set up for those who want to see the latest in farm equipment,

agricultural chemicals, seeds,
fertilizers, and other farm-related products.

Among specific projects to be seen on the tour will be a study on double-cropping with wheat and triticale followed by four other crops, including sunflowers. A study to determine the effects of herbicide-insecticide interactions on grain sorghum stands and yield has shown some startling results and can be seen by Field Day visitors. These, along with tests on weed control, minimum-

tillage, irrigation, new crops,
variety testing, insect control,
and many others, will highlight
a very informative tour.

Expenses for conducting the Field Day on September 12 will be paid by the Plainview Co-op
Compress, First National Bank,
City National Bank, and Hale County State Bank, all of Plainview.

CAN ALCOHOLISM BE CURED?

"Dear Mr. Swaim, I have a sister who drinks excessively. If she isn't already an alcoholic, she is certainly a potential one. Of course, she started out as a social drinker, but now has it morning, noon and night. Can she be cured?"

No doubt your sister is using alcohol as a crutch. In the same way, many others use drugs, gambling, immorality, entertainment, or other forms of escapism. Obsession in any area is wrong.

There are a number of things that can be done to help alcoholics. First, as Alcoholics Anonymous teaches, a person must admit he is an alcoholic and want to be helped. This is the pivotal point—when one says he has to have help. Until he is willing to admit he needs help, help can't be given. Once, though, he decides he wants to quit drinking, there certainly is the probability he can quit. Alcoholics Anonymous is an excellent organization and can help many. Others find that a private or personal psychologist, or even a close and intimate friend is able to give them the confidence, strength, and encouragement they need to break the drinking habit.

There are also certain drugs which can be taken, which cause violent convulsive reactions when alcohol is taken into the system. These, of course, must be strictly administered by a doctor, but many alcoholics have been broken of the desire to drink by use of these drugs. The drugs have many advantages. One of the major ones is that they aren't habit-forming. They are inexpensive, and they make it impossible for one to consume alcohol while taking them.

Yes, it is possible to be cured of alcoholism. But I am confident that a right relationship with Jesus Christ will do more than anything else. The realization that his strength and his power are sufficient to help one overcome any sin can be one's greatest asset.

For a more detailed discussion on alcoholism, please write Larry Swaim, P.O. Box 8336, Atlanta, Georgia 30306.
