VALLEY DEVELOPMENT ASSOCIATION LAUNCHED

Accused Negro To Go On Trial At Graham Nov. 9 On Indictment For Robbery

JUDGE GRANTS PETITION FOR VENUE CHANGE

Montgomery to Draw Special Venire of 150 For Graham Trial

ALL CASES CHANGED

Defense Attorneys Ask Court for Release After New Hearing Is Set.

Richard Brown, 19-year-old negro charged with murder, criminal assault and highway robbery, will be tried on the robbery indictment at Graham on Nov. 9.

Prosecuting attorneys asked that the robbery case be tried first after Judge Allan D. Montgomery early Thursday afternoon granted the defense motion for a change of venue in all three trials.

Brown was indicted on all three counts with Richard Johnson, 21, another negro, who Wednesday afternoon was found guilty of killing Ted Noduft and sentenced to death in the electric chair.

The two negroes are charged with shooting the young Fort Worth oil company employe as he sat in a parked car beside his fiance, with assaulting the girl, and with robbing both victims.

Johnson admitted his participation in the crime in a signed confession. State attorneys have announced they also have a statement from Brown.

Attorneys Ask Release

Cedric Taylor and Joe Carrigan, appointed to defend Brown under the murder charge, Thursday asked to be excused from further service after the robbery case was set first. Judge Montgomery took the request under consideration.

District Attorney Sam Spence announced Thursday afternoon that Johnson would also be brought to trial on the robbery with firearms charge against him if defense attorneys pushed their appeal from the death sentence on the murder charge.

Earl Kuntz and Walter Friberg, defense counsel, replied that the appeal would be pushed but that they would not serve in the negro's defense in the robbery case.

Judge Montgomery granted the motion for a change of venue in Brown's behalf after 21 witnesses had been called to say whether they believed the negro could receive a fair trial in Wichita county.

The defense claimed that the widespread publicity given to the crime and to Johnson's trial and sentence; the presence of state rangers and an array of other peace officers in the courtroom; the fact that the accused man was rushed to Fort Worth for safe keeping after the arrest all supported its claim that no fair and unbiased jury could be impaneled for the second trial in Wichita county.

State Wins Place of Trial

George Anderson, assistant district attorney, contested the plea but said the state would not demur at the judge's ruling should he believe the venue change necessary.

After the motion was granted, defense lawyers wanted the case set in Wise, Knox, or Taylor counties, but the prosecutors won their contention for a nearer place.

Judge Montgomery announced he would go to Graham Saturday to

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22. (AP)—A. L. Hawley, retired railroad accountant, won his suit in federal district court here for income tax refund on the ground that the $16,250 item paid on was a gift, and that he should not be required to pay tax on a gift. Rangers Defend Texas' Claim To River Tract Disputed By Arkansas

TEXARKANA, Ark., Oct. 22. (AP)—A boundary dispute that has been hanging fire for years burst into the limelight today when Texas rangers and game wardens occupied a tract of land adjacent to the Red river and defied Arkansas game wardens to enter the area.

The tract lies on the north bank of the river about 20 miles northwest of Texarkana. Texas officers claim that at one time it was undisputed Texas territory on the south bank, but meanderings of the river moved the stream bed.

The rangers, acting under order of Gov. Ross S. Sterling, and the game wardens, under instructions from the state game commissioner, posted "no trespassing" signs around the area today and issued warning that Arkansas authorities violating the notices would be arrested for trespassing.

Settlement Expected

Their action came as a result of the announcement last Friday that Atty. Gen. Hal Norwood of Arkansas had declared the land a part of Arkansas.

At Houston tonight Governor Sterling said Representative R. M. Hubbard was en route to Arkansas to confer with Governor Parnell on the question. He said the land belonged to Texas but expressed belief the entire incident could be settled quickly. He did not comment on reports the Texas rangers had threatened to arrest any Arkansas game wardens who sought to enter the territory.

Possibility of a friendly court suit to settle the controversy was hinted at by state officials at Austin.

Started in 1930

The controversy was brought to public notice Oct. 26, 1930, when Game Warden George Taffe of Little River county, Arkansas, arrested six members of the Applewhite Hunting club on charges of hunting out of season.

The defendants claimed they were hunting in season under Texas laws. Arkansas authorities, however, claimed they were hunting in the disputed area and that under Arkansas laws they were violating game ordinances.

The hunters were arraigned at Ashdown, Ark., Nov. 15 and managed to have the charges dismissed. At the hearing they presented aerial photographs showing the location of the land. They claimed that the river changed its course in 1913 and returned to its old boundary channel in 1918. Arkansas authorities contended the 1913 channel marked the state boundary.

Area Inspected

In dismissing the charges the court held that the hunters had not intentionally violated the Arkansas laws.

Last December former Atty. Gen. R. L. Bobbitt of Texas, and Attorney General Norwood met in Texarkana and inspected the area.

Norwood informed Bobbitt Dec. 28, that further investigation had shown the land to be in Arkansas.

Meanwhile, Arkansas game wardens had agreed to permit members of the club to hunt and fish in the area unmolested.

The land is regarded as worthless except as a hunting and fishing preserve. A small lake is located on the tract.

The party of Texas officials guarding the area today was composed of two rangers and five game wardens. They planned to patrol it constantly until the dispute was settled.

Disputes Frequent

Several years ago an Arkansas game warden attempted to arrest a Texas district judge and a deputy sheriff in the area. They threatened the warden with arrest for impersonation of an officer.

On another occasion a Bowie county citizen forced an Arkansas officer to leave the area at the point of a gun, claiming the officer was out of his jurisdiction.

Arkansas officials say the land is owned by D. C. Hudson of Foreman, Ark., Hudson, they claim, has been paying taxes on it. Texas officials assert it is owned by Hogh brothers of Chicaro, Pa.

Rev. McKinley Norman, pastor of the First Baptist church at Quanah, will preside at the district rally of Baptist workers representing Wichita and 12 surrounding counties, to be held at the First Baptist church here Friday. Reverend Norman is organizer for District No. 11.

BAPTISTS TO MEET TODAY

Delegates of 13 Counties To Gather Here

Workers representing 118 Baptist churches in Wichita and 12 nearby counties, comprising the 11th district of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, will assemble at the First Baptist church at 10 o'clock Friday morning for a one-day conference.

Preparation of plans for the annual every-member-canvass to be held during the week beginning Nov. 29 will be the principal business of Friday's assembly here, it was said.

The one-day conference will be directed by Rev. McKinley Norman, pastor of the First Baptist church at Quanah and organizer for this district.

Following a short devotional service, the morning session will be devoted intensively to discussion of plans for the membership canvass in November. During the afternoon, the first half hour will be given to reports from various department leaders. There will follow one hour of associational conferences, six of which are formed by the 13 counties included in the district.

Inspirational addresses will be given during the day by Dr. J. Howard Williams, executive secretary of the state convention; Dr. Wallace Bassett of the Cliff Temple Baptist church, Dallas; and T. C. Gardner, B. Y. P. U. secretary and publicity director of the campaign.

Judge's Illness Delays Sheriff's Fee Trial

AUSTIN, Oct. 22. (AP)—Illness of District Judge W. F. Robertson caused a recess today in the trial of Sheriff Woody Townsend of Bastrop county, charged with making and collecting extortive claims for fees of office.

It was hoped Judge Robertson could return to his bench tomorrow, when the trial would be resumed.

The defense had only brief testimony to offer before resting.

Two District Courts in Conflict Over State Truck Law Injunctions

Judge Kirby Cites Judge Davis for Contempt After Dissolution of Writs Staying Law

GROESBECK, Texas, Oct. 22. (AP)—Courts in this section were in conflict tonight with Judge W. C. Davis of Bryan, of the 85th district, cited to appear before Judge M. S. Kirby of the 77th district court here for contempt in dissolving injunctions against enforcement of the truck regulatory law by peace officers.

Judge Davis said tonight he did not recognize any authority Judge Kirby might have in law to cite him for contempt. T. L. Tyson, county attorney of Robertson county, and V. C. Box, sheriff of Robertson county, who also were named in the contempt citation by Judge Kirby indicated they would answer the summons to appear tomorrow morning.

Sheriff Box and County Attorney Tyson have arrested and prosecuted a number of truck operators here for purported violation of the truck law, recently passed by the state legislature. On Tuesday truck owners obtained an injunction in Judge Kirby's court which restrained the Robertson county officials from enforcing the law. Judge Davis dissolved the injunction yesterday and followed it with another injunction which restrained the truck operators from interference with Robertson county officers in enforcement of the truck law.

Judge Kirby today contended Judge Davis was in contempt as he said a 10-day notice must be given before an injunction can be dissolved.

As far as could be learned here tonight it is the first test in Texas of the right of a district judge to cite another district judge into his court on a contempt charge.

BILL TO DIVERT GAS TAXES TO BONDS VETOED

Gov. Sterling Kills Measure Aimed at Depriving Road Funds

WOULD HALT WORK

Many Thousands Would Be Thrown Out of Jobs, Governor Declares

AUSTIN, Oct. 22. (AP)—The much-discussed Brooks bill proposing to divert one-cent of the four-cent gasoline tax money to retirement of county and district road bonds was vetoed by Gov. R. S. Sterling today.

The bill, written by Representative Ben F. Brooks of Bagwell, directed that the one-cent allotment be placed in a suspense fund with the state treasury to be applied proportionately to the principal and interest of bonds proceeds of which were used in constructing links in the state highway system.

Money Unavailable

Governor Sterling said the money would not have been available, as far as relief from the tax burden was concerned, before January, 1933, and that depriving the highway department of the $6,000,000 annually represented by the one-cent withdrawal, would have thrown "hundreds or thousands" of persons out of work who otherwise could be employed in road construction and prevent the placing of a great sum into circulation through purchase of materials.

He intimated that had the legislature increased the gasoline tax to make up for the one-cent withdrawal from the highway funds, he would have approved the bond retirement proposal. Efforts were made by some legislators to amend the bill to increase the gasoline tax to five cents.

Fund Unprovided

"The legislature declined to levy an additional one-cent gasoline tax to provide funds to be created under the bill," the governor said in his veto proclamation. "If such additional gasoline tax had been levied by the legislature a different situation would have been presented to me in arriving at my conclusions as to what my action should be on this bill."

Under the existing division of the gasoline tax three cents go to the highway department and one cent to the schools. It produces approximately $18,000,000 annually for the highway department.

Dr. Judd Confers With Attorneys

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 22. (AP)—A new appeal to Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd to surrender and face charges of slaying her young friends, Agnes Le Roi and Helvig Samuelson, whose bodies were sent here in trunks from Phoenix, Ariz., was issued today by the fugitive's husband, Dr. W. C. Judd.

Police believed the woman might be hiding in the cave-like recesses in the hills of Beverly Glen.

Dr. Judd's appeal was in a statement after his conference with lawyers. Both he and Attorney Richard Cantillon, however, denied knowledge of Mrs. Judd's whereabouts.

Dr. Judd again expressed fear she had committed suicide.

"I want to assure her that if this comes to her attention, she will have every support and assistance I am able to give her," he said.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Oct. 22. (UP)—Sheriff J. R. McFadden told the United Press tonight he was positive that Mrs. Winnie Ruth Judd, accused of the "trunk murders" of Agnes Anne Le Roi and Helvig Samuelson, had an accomplice and that "I believe I could find him within 15 minutes."

The peace officer refused to go into details but insisted his men had uncovered new and valuable information.

Premier Laval And Daughter In Washington For Economic Talks

France Sends Special Envoys

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (UP)—Premier Pierre Laval of France and his daughter, Josette, arrived today for a visit to President Hoover, and began at once a series of conferences, formal calls and, for Josette, as many shopping tours and parties as she can sandwich in.

The reception, like that in New York, was colorful. At the station, in addition to a welcoming party, there were 100 infantrymen in khaki to form a line through which the official party passed. A gray-clad army band played the Marseillaise. A procession of motor cars and police motorcycles took the French party to the residence they will occupy during their three-day visit.

Vital Subjects

Laval will discuss with the president, Secretary of State Stimson, Secretary of Treasury Mellon and Secretary of Commerce Lamont, questions of such vital moment as debts, reparations, disarmament, mutual aid in time of war and the world economic situation.

It will be a busy time and Laval began work on the train from New York by holding a press conference and having a long talk in French—for he speaks no English—with Secretary of State Stimson, who met him at New York when he arrived on the liner Ile de France this morning.

Receives Correspondents

As soon as he arrived at his Washington headquarters, the home of Walter E. Edge, ambassador to France, Laval received the French and American newspaper correspondents who accompanied him across the Atlantic. While he did so, Mlle. Josette had tea. She wore the costume in which she landed, robins egg blue ribbed wool suit, blue knitted toque, crocodile bag and black patent leather shoes.

Then there was an official call on President Hoover at the White House at 6, a conference with American newspaper men, and a return to the White House for a state dinner in honor of descendants of Frenchmen who fought in the revolutionary war.

Laval sounded the keynote of

SCHOOL TAXES TOTAL $36,560

'Honor Roll' of Payments Continues to Grow

Collections on 1931 school taxes climbed to a total of $36,560.16 Thursday, according to figures compiled by W. R. Hyer, city tax collector. Twenty-five taxpayers paid a total of $1,796.40 into the school founds Thursday, it was shown.

Accelerated distribution of school tax statements during this week is expected to augment the payment of school taxes during the next few days, according to Mr. Hyer and other city officials. All such statements will be in the hands of taxpayers by the end of this week, it was indicated. According to Mr. Hyer, school tax statements in past years have been mailed out about Nov. 1 or shortly thereafter. With the emergency which developed during the past month because of delinquencies in the payment of taxes, special measures were provided to speed up the preparation and distribution of school tax statements. All employes of the city in offices at the Memorial auditorium were assigned early this week to that task as a means of aiding the tax collector's office and the school board in relieving the situation.

Distribution of statements for city taxes, which ordinarily are mailed out about Jan. 1 will begin soon after all school tax statements have been distributed, according to City Manager V. R. Smitham.

Those who paid school taxes Thursday are L. B. Bruner, J. C. Holcomb, J. E. Holmes, H. J. Basham, A. D. Holbrook, Crump Brothers' E-Z stores, John L. Boswell, Henry Smith, Mrs. Ed Gardner, Joseph Hund, Kemp Kort company, Dr. Joe F. Hesse, L. H. Howard, C. H. Parker Groceries, L. C. James, Cash & Carry Cleaners, Dr. H. P. Three well-known Wichita Falls business men have been charged with theft over $50, a felony, in connection with the theft of automobiles, it was learned Thursday from city officers.

The three men are J. L. McElreath, automobile dealer; L. L. Taylor of the Taylor Wheel and Body works and Rex Rotan, salesman employed by Mr. McElreath.

Preliminary hearing for Taylor has been tentatively set for Friday morning in the court of Justice Gibbs.

In a statement to The Record News, Mr. McElreath declared he is innocent of the charges against him. He also denied that Rotan has had any connection with the theft of automobiles. The automobile dealer asserted that used cars which he has sold here were purchased and paid for.

Mr. Taylor also declared himself innocent of the charges. He said a used car which he has been driving was purchased in Crowell, that he was given a bill of sale for the machine and that he registered papers of the purchase.

Officers declined to discuss the charges prior to a court hearing.

BUSINESS AND FARM LEADERS JOIN PROGRAM

Mass Meeting Approves Plan for Development Of Irrigated Area

CHEAPER LAND URGED

Proper Use of Resources Is Needed, Kell Says In Discussion

An association was formed here Thursday afternoon to push the Wichita irrigated valley to a state of development consistent with prospects declared to be unlimited, and equal to anything of its kind in the country.

The association was formed by about 100 business leaders, farmers and landowners of this section who were called together in a mass meeting Thursday afternoon at the Kemp hotel. The organization is to be known as the Wichita Valley Development association.

50 Named on Committee

A system of general development for the valley, under the subdivisions of drainage, marketing, farm planning and organization, colonization, publicity and finance, was submitted to the gathering. Development plans were almost immediately approved after A. E. Kelly, chairman of a committee appointed recently at an original mass meeting, had read the report of recommendations.

Some 50 committeemen were appointed during the meeting to progress the proposals advanced in the report.

B. B. Greever was named general chairman of all committees. J. H. Allison was selected as vice-chairman.

Committees formed and members chosen are as follows:

Drainage—W. L. Hodges, chairman; R. S. Fidler, vice chairman; Tom B. Smoek, J. C. Strauss Sr., T. J. Waggoner Jr., W. T. Johnson and C. H. Clark.

Marketing—J. N. Sherrill, chairman; Harry Gray, vice chairman; Frank Wolf, George F. Hill, A. C. Moline, J. S. Bridwell and W. P. Ferguson.

Farm Planning and Organization—Ernest Birk, chairman; Solon Downing, vice chairman; Carl Williamson, Tom Fields, Jack Martin, B. F. Greer, Walter Curlee.

Colonization—G. D. Anderson Jr., chairman; Jerry Vinson, vice chairman; T. J. Pace, John Yarbro, Oral Jones, J. B. Marlow, S. D. Johnson.

Publicity—A. E. Kelly, chairman; D. A. Kahn, vice chairman; B. D. Donnell, C. C. Hudson, Jack Barnard, John Gould.

Finance—John Hirschl, chairman; Burton Stayton, vice chairman; F. E. Hill, W. M. McGregor, C. H. Featherston, C. I. Francis, J. C. Mytinger.

Miscellaneous—J. C. Murphree, chairman; J. C. Hunt, vice chairman.

An executive committee composed of Mr. Greever as general chairman and Mr. Allison as vice chairman, and the chairmen of the drainage, marketing, farm planning and organization, colonization, publicity, finance and miscellaneous committees, was named and given full charge of all activities of the association in an advisory capacity.

Committees Called

All committees have been called to meet in a general session Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the chamber of commerce offices. At this time details of the work of each will be outlined more thoroughly with the view to an immediate start on the development program.

The 100 or more men present at the mass meeting exhibited a keen interest in the proceedings. At one or more points in the session heated differences appeared in the discussion on minor points but these were eventually reconciled in the general objective.

Brief addresses expressing confidence in the security of the valley's future were made by numerous leaders here, including Frank Kell, C. H. Clark, J. L. Jackson Jr., Frank Wolf, T. J. Pace, W. P. Ferguson, J. B. Marlow and W. M. Moore.

Mr. Kell was among the first speakers. He expressed approval of the recommendations reported, declaring proposals submitted adequately covered the requirements for a program of valley development.

"By getting the cooperation of everybody we will work this out," Mr. Kell said in speaking of the program. "All should assist."

He urged that the various committees selected Thursday be supported to the fullest extent.

"There is no question that irrigation is practical," he declared, "although some of us have overestimated what could be done with irrigation.

"Climatic and soil conditions are much better than at other places. We have the soil, the climate and the water. They need but proper use."

Favorable Location

Comparing the Wichita valley with the Imperial valley, Mr. Kell asserted that conditions are far more favorable here than for the Imperial valley, which has been successfully developed and is shipping thousands of carloads of produce to markets. Climatic conditions here are much more bearable than in the Imperial valley, he said.

CHURCH SOLID IN DRY STAND

World Methodists Repeat Prohibition Policy

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 22. (AP)—World Methodism today committed itself to a sustained program of education, legislation and law enforcement to "effectively protect society from the ravages of the liquor traffic."

The American and Canadian sections of the ecumenical conference offered separate reports on the question of prohibition. A general resolution also was presented by the business committee, the conference's executive body, for adoption of the assemblage.

All three of the reports were adopted without a dissenting vote, the large gathering rising to its feet in sanctioning the movement with loud applause.

THOSE KILKENNY CATS

The Kilkenny cats were two pugnacious felines which, according to Irish tradition, fought until there was nothing left of them but their tails. To fight like two Kilkenny cats, is to fight or wrangle until both sides have lost everything.

Pernocton, a new drug developed in Germany and in use for some time in New York, is said to make childbirth almost painless.

Columbia River Project Nearing Actual Building

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Development of the Columbia river basin, the dream of the Pacific Northwest for a decade or more, is nearing realization.

The rich basin, 80 miles square, lying above Pasco, Wash., between the Columbia and Snake rivers, has been submitted to every possible test and the reclamation service believes it can be made to blossom, not with roses, but with asparagus, grapes and fruit trees.

While no final decision has been reached, the reclamation and army engineers are in agreement on the construction of a huge dam across the Columbia north of the Grand Coulee reservoir.

When the dam is constructed, it will be the largest in the United States, although not as high as Hoover dam. It will develop an estimated 2,000,000 horsepower, the largest single hydro-electric possibility in the United States.

Court Approves County Tax Rolls

Tax rolls for Wichita county for 1931, showing a total of $927,220.30 in taxes computed on a property valuation of $54,126,989, were approved by the commissioners court in a special session Thursday after the rolls had been completed by Max Shumake, county tax assessor.

The figure given includes computed state, county and special ad valorem taxes. In addition to the amount given above, there are shown 16,768 poll taxes, which are expected to yield $25,152 to the state and $4,192 to the county.

Members of the tax assessor's staff have worked overtime during the past several weeks to complete the 1931 rolls. The state tax rate was set six weeks later than the usual date; but completion of the tax rolls in this county dated only 16 days later than the usual time of completion.

The visitor had been talking of aviation when little Jane piped up and said: "I was up in the air once myself, but I forgot how it feels."

"Why, Jane," spoke up her mother, "you were never in the air in your life."

"Oh, mother," corrected Jane, "have you forgotten that the stork brought me?"—Pathfinder.

Haskell County To Open Rural Schools Nov. 2

Special to The Record News.

HASKELL, Texas, Oct. 22.—According to Miss Minnie Ellis, county superintendent of the Haskell schools, six Haskell county schools have already started and the others, 38 more, will start not later than Nov. 2.

The county institute will be held jointly with Stonewall and Throckmorton counties on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30-31. A 100 per cent attendance is expected.

Fortunately no rural school in Haskell county is in debt, with the last payment of per capita taxes which came in this week, all last year teachers' vouchers were taken up. All schools will start "even" but length of terms cannot be judged because they will depend almost entirely on local tax payments.

Friberg News

Special to The Record News

FRIBERG, Texas, Oct. 22.—A program of mixed numbers including vocal and instrumental selections, a one-act play, and a song and dance number by Miss Pauline Hatcher of Archer City, talented toe dancer, was presented in the school auditorium Friday evening at 8 o'clock, to an enthusiastic audience. The program was directed by the teaching staff. Proceeds from the sale of tickets were used to defray expenses of the school exhibit at the county fair held in Iowa Park recently and to pay the fee for entrants in the county interscholastic league.

The program follows: Song, "Rhine on Harvest Moon"; musical skit, "Here Comes the Sun"; reading, Clarence Myers; piano number, Miss Ruby Rouge of Archer City; "Style Show," given by 14 girls; reading, Leo Hensel; dance, Pauline Hatcher of Archer City. A one-act play entitled "Ma Sweet" closed the program. Those taking part in the play were Emma Jean and Mary Jane Eubanks, Maybelle Leissler, Reba Ireland, Dixie Faye Dillard, Charles Greer and Raymond Hensel. Little Misses Billie Campbell and Lois Faye Lightsey wearing dainty Tarleton costumes acted as ushers, announcing the numbers in a clever manner with a pretty bow. It is said the little ushers received as much applause as the participants on the program.

Assembly Program

The assembly program given every Monday morning at the school was given this week on Tuesday morning, Oct. 20. Miss Josephine Russel, principal, was in charge. The program was of an informal nature. It opened with group singing led by Miss Russel. Mabelle Leissler and Wilbur Bryan were awarded prizes for selling the most tickets to the play Friday night. Rev. A. F. Hensel who has just returned from conference at Tulsa, Okla., gave a short talk on his trip. An announcement was made that Ethel Louise Webb, county home demonstration agent would visit the school next Monday for the purpose of organizing the girls 4-H club. The program closed with Rev. Hensel leading in prayer and the group of students reading in unison the Twenty Third Psalm.

Rev. Albert F. Hensel, pastor of the Methodist church, returned Tuesday morning from Tulsa, Okla., where he attended the annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Mr. Hensel also visited with two of his brothers while away.

Mr. and Mrs. George Emmert and son, George Jr., were guests of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Priebe in Archer county Sunday.

Misses Josephine Russel and Itha Hardeman of Wichita Falls were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Singletary and family to dinner on Thursday evening.

Fall Wheat

Fall wheat crops planted in this section during the dry spell have attained a growth of several inches since the recent heavy rains. A fairly good stand is evident in most fields. Perhaps one of the greatest contributing factors to the successful raising of fall and winter grain, is the heavy rains that come late in the planting season, affording a supply of moisture until early spring. Much of the grain crop is still to be sown. Cotton left standing in the fields suffered considerable damage during the pelting rainstorms of last week.

When Your Cough Hangs On, Mix This at Home

For coughs due to colds, the best remedy that money could buy can easily be mixed at home. It saves money and gives you the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of stubborn coughs, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and fill up with plain granulated sugar syrup or strained honey. It's no trouble at all to mix, and when you once use it, you will never be without it. Keeps perfectly and tastes good—children really like it.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the germ-laden phlegm, and soothes the inflamed membranes. At the same time, part of the medicine is absorbed into the blood, where it acts directly on the bronchial tubes, and helps the system throw off the whole trouble. Even those severe coughs which follow cold epidemics, are promptly ended.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway Pine, containing the active agent of creosote, in a refined, palatable form. Nothing known in medicine is more helpful in cases of severe coughs and bronchial irritations.

Do not accept a substitute for Pinex. It is guaranteed to give prompt relief or money refunded.

Farm Survey Finds Stephens Rural Pantries Well Stocked

DUNCAN, Okla., Oct. 22.—From the standpoint of food for their families and feed for their livestock, Stephens county farm families are in far better condition than a year ago, despite the low price of cotton, reports made at the annual advisory committee meetings of the county agent and home demonstrator indicate.

"I believe the county is 100 per cent better off than it was a year ago," County Agent J. A. Killough said. "In the past year our main objective has been to produce food and feed stuffs rather than money crops. We have been trying to get away from the situation we had a year ago when people on the farms did not have sufficient food for their families or enough feed for livestock."

The advisory committee voted to stress practically the same program next year as was stressed last year, with emphasis being placed on gardening, canning and livestock. Soil building, through the growing of legumes and terracing, will be a major project for the county agent. Emphasis will be placed on general diversified farming. Increased acreage in cultivated pasture to replace native pasture, which is proving adequate, will be sought.

Farm women reported that 11 of the 16 county clubs had canned 36,377 quarts of meat, fruit and vegetables during the year.

Mrs. Lyle Wham of Gatlin was re-elected president of the county club federation and Mrs. E. V. Jobe of Comanche, vice president. Mrs. G. I. Jones of Comanche was made secretary treasurer.

Murray Admits That He 'Might' Be in Race For President

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22. (UP)—Gov. William H. (Alfalfa Bill) Murray admitted today that he "might" be a candidate for the 1932 Democratic presidential nomination.

Oklahoma's plainsman governor made the remark in an informal press discussion during the course of which the statement of a California politician was mentioned. J. Scully, who was with Murray on the governor's western trip in June, had said the California delegation would be 100 per cent for Murray at the national convention.

"Well," Murray chuckled, "if they keep on with this damned fool business, I might run."

Old Formula Heals Athlete's Foot

An old formula for skin diseases is astounding the most skeptical in the marvelous way it heals severe cases of athlete's foot, eczema, tetter, ringworm and itch. The minute it touches the sore you feel a cooling, soothing sensation; in a few days you marvel at how your skin has healed. If you suffer with athlete's foot, or any skin disease, get from any druggist a 60c box of Tetterine and get relief or get your money back. Shuptrine Co., Savannah, Ga.—Adv.

U. S. DECLINES COTTON PARLEY

Egyptian Proposal for Conference Rejected

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—The American government has rejected a proposal by the Egyptian government for an international cotton conference.

The Cairo government recently formally proposed such a conference. Egypt and the United States are two of the world's largest cotton producing countries.

In rejecting the proposal today, the state department said the federal government was not in a position to discuss restrictions such as limitations on acreage or export embargoes.

The only matter which the United States could discuss, it was added, related to the stocks held by the government itself through its own agencies.

The note suggested that if the Egyptians desired to discuss the latter point they could send a representative to Washington for the purpose.

Don't let your child's rest—and your own—be interrupted. A prompt dose of Castoria will urge stubborn little bowels to act. Then come relaxed comfort and restful sleep! You'll know genuine Castoria—by the name Chas. H. Fletcher on the package.

Chas. H. Fletcher.

CASTORIA

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT

"clear road ahead!"

It's great to feel that way

and you do . . . when the blood has the "feel" of enough rich red cells

REGARDLESS of age—be fortified with plenty of "red blood." That s-p-e-l-l-s happiness.

So frequently work, worry, colds and sickness reduce the red-cell count in the blood . . . then our spirits go down as the blood cells are lowered.

"That tired feeling" may be a warning . . . so are pimples, boils and paleness. A general run-down condition means a lack of normal resistance to infection and disease. A lagging appetite often leads to underweight and ill health in various manifestations.

For generations S.S.S. as a tonic has been helping people gain New Strength, better health and happiness. Its successful record of over 100 years in restoring strength and vitality to the blood surely warrants your giving it a good trial.

Why not start taking S.S.S. today?—the larger size represents a price saving.

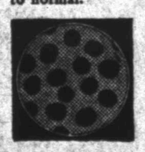

Builds Sturdy Health

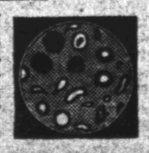

Why you should be interested in your Blood Count

It is important to know that the red-blood-cells are the "ships" that sail in the blood stream and carry nourishment and oxygen to all parts of the body . . . they build and sustain—they also remove impurities from the tissues.

Whenever the number of red-blood-cells is materially reduced, lowered vitality ensues and the system becomes more susceptible to the ravages of various diseases. It is a great protection to health and physical well-being to keep the red-blood-cell count up to normal.

(Left) Microscopic view of healthy red-blood-cells. The blood stream should contain about 5,000,000 of these cells to the cubic millimeter. They carry nourishment and oxygen to every part of the body—they also remove impurities from the tissues.

(Right) Weak red-blood-cells—only 60 per cent of normal strength—they lack the power to resist infection and disease or to rebuild flesh and to carry away the impurities. Such a condition is often responsible for body weakness, paleness, sallow complexion, pimples and boils.

Don't let them count you out!

Garden Club Guest Day Has Record Attendance

More than 75 members and guests were present at the open meeting of the Garden club Thursday when a program covering the work of the club and the planting to be done at this season was delightfully given. Though the day was dark, there was color and light in the dining room where gardens of club members had yielded their choicest blooms.

On the speakers table a blue bowl of orchid mums and a black bowl of glowing, amaranth pink dahlias from Mrs. C. E. McCutchen's garden focused all attention. Roses and zinnias from Mrs. Landon Cullum's garden, roses from Mrs. C. E. Bailey and an exquisite black bowl of mixed blossoms from Mrs. Rhea Howard made sunshiny spots.

Mrs. J. C. Mytinger presided and after the invocation by Mrs. J. W. Culbertson welcomed the guests who had made reservations expecting to meet Miss Cross, well known writer formerly of Paris, Texas. Mrs. Mytinger told of the guest's cause of delay and introduced Mrs. M. T. Clements, chairman of the writer's department, who announced the writer's department would sponsor a luncheon honoring Miss Cross at 12:30 Monday. Mrs. J. F. Bailey, who had talked to Miss Cross' publicity agent, said that the writer would arrive without fail Monday at 12:12 and that she was making the tour of the United States as the guest of the air company.

Officers of the Garden club made interesting reports and Mrs. W. W. Cook made a plea for the preservation of butterflies. Bulbs and seeds for beautifying the forum grounds were requested by the grounds committee, Mrs. Luther Hoffman, chairman.

Flower Show Reports

Mrs. Floyd Randel, general chairman of the flower show which will be sponsored by the Garden club in the Forum clubhouse Nov. 11 and 12, called on her chairman for committee reports. Mrs. Peyton Gwynn is chairman of the decorations; Mrs. Don Bowie, arrangements; Mrs. J. J. Perkins, pot plants, ferns and shadow boxes; Mrs. C. J. Barnard, roses; Mrs. Bert Bean, chrysanthemums; Mrs. Landon Cullum, annuals and perennials; Mrs. Luther Hoffman, cacti; Mrs. Wm. Young, awards; Mrs. W. W. Cook, hostesses; Mrs. C. E. McCutchen, publicity; Mrs. Charles Daniel, centerpieces; Mrs. Rhea Howard, fish and birds, and Mrs. Frank Timberlake, entries.

Each chairman gave reports showing work well inaugurated. Mrs. McCutchen told of publicity to appear in the newspapers and showed a brilliant poster made by Mrs. Randel, stating that junior college girls would make nine others and these would be placed in bank and other prominent down town windows.

It was announced that the poetry society would sponsor the sale of cactus and miniature gardens and that they had already made several sales. Mrs. Daniel told of a dinner table to be set by Perkins-Timberlake; a luncheon table set by Art Jewelry; a breakfast table by Kruger; a bridge table by Noble-Little and a coffee table by the Colonial Gift shop.

Mrs. James P. Bowen announced the white elephant booth to be conducted by members of the writer's department. Mrs. Walter K. Campbell told of the exhibit of the art department, sponsoring local artist's flower pictures which will be sold on commission. Needlework and dolls will also feature this exhibit.

Interesting Program

Mrs. Bert Bean was in charge of the program and introduced Mrs. J. L. Elkin who made an interesting talk on bulbs and when to plant them for indoor and outdoor bloom. Crocus, narcissus and tulips were mentioned. Mrs. W. M. Cason presented a book "Adventures in a Suburban Garden," to be donated by the club as a prize to the member with the best tulip garden next spring, suggesting that each club member plant tulip bulbs.

Mrs. Homer Lee spoke briefly on flower seeds to be planted now and Mrs. J. J. Perkins told of the best way to plant sweet peas.

The address given by Mrs. P. P. Langford on "What a Garden Club May Do for the City," was the outstanding feature of the program. Mrs. Langford told of beautiful gardens she saw on her summer trip and stressed the beautification of the highways out of the city. She told of work done by the old Civic league and made an inspirational call for beauty as an uplifting spiritual benefit.

The usual intimate round table discussion stressed gardens seen during the summer.

By MABEL CARTER CLEMENT

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Oct. 22.—More than 100 representatives from P.-T. A. association units in Wichita county attended the County Council Parent-Teacher association all day conference held at the First Methodist church in Burkburnett Thursday. Despite the rainy weather, Rocky Point community had 100 per cent attendance and was awarded the banner. City View, Clara, Fairview, Iowa Park, Pleasant Valley, Valley View, Weeth, Friberg, Wichita Falls and Burkburnett associations were all represented by large delegations of officers and members.

The meeting opened at 9 a. m. with the registration of delegates after which the Rev. C. W. Dennis, pastor of the First Methodist church gave the devotional. Mrs. John C. Murphree, of Iowa Park, president of the council, presided and special music was furnished by the Burkburnett high school choral club directed by Miss Isobel Johnson. Butler Westerfield, superintendent of the Burkburnett schools, gave the address of welcome and Mrs. Harry ten Brink of Wichita Falls, responded.

Reports were given by Mrs. Roy Ackerman, chairman of the health committee; Mrs. Hudson Meador of the program committee and Mrs. John M. Fox, publicity.

The morning session was devoted to addresses stressing standard associations and the afternoon to a health program. Mrs. Frank B. Creighton spoke on the standard associations and said in part that a standard association is a measuring stick for all other associations. She suggested that good projects to work for are recreation and beautification of communities, and also stated that each association president should have a program including an outline structure, project and finance.

Mrs. W. B. Taylor gave some high lights on the requirements of a standard association which she said should have 12 points the same as the national requirements.

Mrs. R. D. Lewis of Wichita Falls talked on P.-T. A. study clubs and gave some interesting ideas about parental education. She stressed the value of the right kind of publicity and stated that she has a scrapbook started of articles she finds in magazines concerning child training.

Mrs. John M. Fox of Wichita Falls, publicity chairman for the council, conducted a short instructive publicity conference and reported that publicity prizes will be given at the district meeting to be held in the spring for the best poster display, best report told in story form, the best publicity scrap book and the best individual state and birthday programs. Mrs. W. T. Johnson of City View, reported on the P.-T. A. magazines.

Luncheon was served at noon by the Burkburnett P.-T. A., after which Miss Isobel Johnson led a singsong. Miss Virginia Troup, health nurse of Wilbarger county, gave an interesting address on the five point child, illustrating her talk with the poster of a star with the requirements for the five point child at each point. These were given as defects corrected; health habits practiced; satisfying attitudes; satisfactory grades and vaccination for smallpox and diptheria.

Miss Ivy Mayfield, Wichita county health nurse, demonstrated how the hands of a large umber of school children can be washed effectively in a short length of time right in the school room. She also showed a first aid kit arranged in a cigar box that she stated should be in every school. It was decided at the close of the health talks, that with the assistance of Miss Mayfield, the Wichita County Council P.-T. A. will sponsor the five point child movement and will arrange for health clinics to be held at an early date.

Mrs. Murphree offered three prizes to be given for the largest number of five point children in the county to be reported at the next council meeting. Mrs. Frank Creighton answered the questions placed in the question box after which Mrs. John M. Fox awarded the attendance prize.

Rocky Point also displayed the loving cup given for school ground beautification which the school was awarded for 1930 and received again for 1931.

In the business session, Mrs. Dudley Ellis of Burkburnett was elected extension chairman to take the place of Mrs. E. J. Torvie, resigned, and she announced that precinct chairmen would be selected from Burkburnett, Wichita Falls, Electra and Iowa Park at a later date.

It was also announced that the O. P. Kiker loving cup now held by Rocky Point has been put in charge of the county council by Mr. Kiker and the council will sponsor awarding it to the various schools as a prize for the school ground beautification. Mesdames B. L. Turner, M. J. Hayes and A. W. Houser will serve as judges.

'Get Acquainted' Party Announced At Alamo School

Completion of plans for an informal "Get Acquainted" tea featured the meeting of the executive board of Alamo P.-T. A. at the school Thursday morning. This social feature will take place at the school Friday evening, Oct. 30, 7:30 to 9 o'clock so that fathers and mothers of the school will be given an opportunity to meet their children's teachers.

Alamo P.-T. A. is making cooperation between parent and teacher one of the objectives of the year's work, with the P.-T. A. furnishing the connecting link. Light refreshments will be served at the informal evening's entertainment and visitors may come and go as they wish.

The nursery at the school will be open for those who wish to bring their children, it was announced; mothers with older daughters in Alamo school will be in charge there.

J. E. Parks, school principal, explained the tax problem and its relation to the school system. Parents were urged to consider that it would be the children who will be the victims if taxes are not paid and school cannot stay open.

Mr. Parks also explained the new marking system established in the city schools by H. D. Fillers, superintendent, so that all schools will use the same system.

Members of the executive board present were Mesdames H. S. Gray, T. R. Boone, Floyd Billingsley, Hal Yeager, J. C. Martin, Val Land, J. W. Lyle, Albert Owens, E. C. Stirman, O. M. Pierce and Mr. Parks.

Red Cross Official Stresses Child Health

"The foremost thing in the field of child health," said Miss Pearl Rorabaugh, Red Cross nutritionist of Wichita Falls, "is the report from the White House conference on child health and protection. These findings have been embodied in a text known as the children's charter. There are 19 aims expressed in this charter, nine of which deal directly with health while the other 10 bear on the welfare of the child in other ways.

"This charter has been accepted as a challenge by many of the various groups who are working with the forces that influence children. It is used as a guide to determine the needs and accomplishments in child protection. The home, the church, the school and the state are given opportunity to help bring about the goals as pictured in the charter. Eleven states have had follow-up conferences and other states are setting dates as soon as plans are made.

"Copies of the charter may be obtained from Children's bureau department of interior in Washington, or mimeographed copies may be had from the local Red Cross office."

Swiftest, Easiest Way to End Bilious Spell

When you neglect those first symptoms of constipation—bad breath, coated tongue, listlessness, the whole system soon suffers. Appetite lags. Digestion slows up. You become headachy, dizzy, bilious.

It's easy to correct sluggish bowel action! Take a candy Cascaret tonight. See how quickly—and pleasantly—the bowels are activated. All the souring waste is gently propelled from the system. Regular and complete bowel action is restored.

Cascarets are made from pure cascara, a substance which doctors agree actually strengthens bowel muscles. All drug stores have Cascarets. 10c.—Adv.

Free Samples At Druggists Of Two New Vick Products

Every User of Vicks VapoRub Entitled to a Free Trial of Its New Allies—Vicks Nose & Throat Drops and Vicks Medicated Cough Drops

INTRODUCES NEW IDEA

Discovery Makes Possible New Vick Plan of Better Home-Control of Colds

TO REDUCE "COLDS-TAX"

Following years of research on the problem of colds and their increasing cost, Vick Chemists announce a new discovery—Vicks Nose & Throat Drops. Based on a new idea in preventing colds, it is a perfect ally to Vicks VapoRub, the modern and better method of treating colds. Together, they make possible the new Vick Plan of better Control of Colds in the home—and further reduction of the family "Colds-Tax" of time, money and discomfort.

Here is the Plan:

1.—Before a Cold Starts

On exposure to colds or any of the causes that ordinarily lead to colds—(crowded indoor places—stuffy, poorly ventilated rooms—sudden temperature changes—wet and cold)—that slow down the normal functioning of the nose, Nature's marvelous "first line of defense against colds"—use Vicks Drops promptly. Or, if a cold actually threatens—when you feel that first stuffy, sneezy irritation of the nasal passages—a few drops up each nostril, and many annoying colds will be avoided.

2.—When a Cold Strikes

Use the convenient Vicks Drops during the day—anytime, any place—as often as needed for comfort and relief. At bedtime, rub Vicks VapoRub well over throat and chest and cover with warm flannel. Leave bed clothing loose around the neck so the medicated vapors can be inhaled all night long. This Vick Plan gives you a full 24-hour treatment. (If there is a cough, you will like another new Vick product—Vicks Cough Drops—actually medicated with ingredients of Vicks VapoRub.)

Trial Packages Free

In order that every user of Vicks VapoRub may try the two new Vick products now being introduced, a supply of free trial packages of each has been sent to every druggist in the United States. Go to your druggist today and ask for yours. If, by any chance his supply is exhausted, send us the top of a Vicks VapoRub carton—or coupon from the VapoRub directions folder—and we will mail free samples direct to you, together with a folder on the new Vick Plan for Control of Colds in the home. LISTERINE
cleans the scalp
"sets" a wave
checks
DANDRUFF

Use It Once A Week

WHENEVER you wash your hair—and most people do it once a week—douse full strength Listerine on the scalp either before or after the rinse. Then massage the scalp and hair vigorously for several minutes.

You will be simply delighted by the wonderful feeling of cleanness and exhilaration that follows this refreshing treatment.

Moreover, it is unquestionably one of the best treatments for loose dandruff—for preventing it, and for overcoming it once it has started. Many hundreds of women have told us that since making Listerine a part of the weekly shampoo, their scalp feels better, their hair looks more attractive, and they are never troubled with loose dandruff. Of course, if dandruff does get a start, it will be necessary to repeat the Listerine treatment systematically for several days, using a little olive oil in conjunction with it if the scalp and hair are excessively dry.

Listerine removes and dissolves the dandruff particles and heals and soothes the scalp. Also, if infection is present—and most dermatologists define dandruff as a germ infection—Listerine immediately combats it.

Incidentally after a shampoo when the hair is unruly there is nothing like Listerine to make it set nicely. The same applies to a finger wave.

Do you have to be told?

Before any social engagement rinse the mouth with Listerine. Thus you automatically end Halitosis (unpleasant breath) the one unforgivable social fault.

BROKERS LOANS

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Loans to brokers and dealers held by New York Federal Reserve member banks for the week ending Oct. 21, were announced by the federal reserve board today as $884,000,000, a decrease of $44,000,000 as compared with the preceding week. Television Links Two Theaters in Broadway Test

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—Two theaters were linked together today in Broadway's initial demonstration of television on a ten-foot screen.

In the lobby of the Guild theater was the transmitting equipment of U. A. Sanabria, young Chicago engineer, while connected to it by a wire 500 feet long and temporarily stretched over intervening buildings, was the large screen on the stage of the Broadway theater.

An invited audience watched as images unfolded themselves.

The demonstration, following closely that made at the radio world's fair a month ago, resulted in pictures of greater light intensity than was possible at the radio show. By the use of an improved crater type water cooled neon lamp, it was possible to get fairly good reproduction, equal probably to about 50 per cent of the brilliancy of a movie at times. At others the image was somewhat dim.

Fort Worth Negro Faces Murder Trial Nov. 2

FORT WORTH, Oct. 22. (AP)—Trial of Carter Collins, negro, who confessed to the shotgun slaying of one man and the wounding of another early this week, was set for Nov. 2 after the Tarrant county grand jury indicted him today on a charge of murder.

The murder indictment charged him with the slaying of D. L. Reed, fatally wounded by a charge from a shotgun as he chased a negro away from his farm home near Crowley Monday night. A second indictment charged the negro with assault to murder in the wounding of Floyd H. Culton, who received a charge of birdshot in the left side of his face as he sat in the kitchen of his home one and one-half miles southeast of Fort Worth early the next night.

Mexico Leaves Brinkley War to Health Chiefs

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22. (UP)—The Mexican government has no intention of engaging in a public controversy with Dr. J. P. Brinkley, Kansas goat gland specialist whose radio programs broadcast from Villa Acuna, Mexico, across the border from Del Rio, Texas, are received in Mexico.

Dr. Ulysses Valdez, acting chief of the health department, said the government would prevent broadcasting of matter deemed undesirable. Brinkley is barred from Mexico and the health department has ample powers of censorship.

NORRIS DREADS NEXT SESSION

Frequent Bitter Clashes Are Expected

M'COOK, Neb., Oct. 22. (UP)—The coming congressional session will see more frequent and more bitter clashes than any in many years past, George W. Norris, colorful insurgent Republican senator from Nebraska, predicted today.

And, in spite of the fact that close party division of the two houses may place his insurgent group in position more powerful than ever before, the Nebraska senator half-dreads the coming session, he said.

Norris, white-haired, mild-mannered, clad in a splattered pair of overalls, was in his yard as he received his interviewer. With careful dabs of the paint brush, he was putting the finishing touches on the low, white fence which marks the alley line at the rear of his small, comfortable cottage.

Regarding the United States attitude in the Sino-Japanese controversy, he sees neither harm nor benefit in Prentiss Gilbert's attendance as an observer at the council sessions.

Concerning the coming session of congress, the senator intimated that he felt certain of but one thing—that senate and house fights would be both more frequent and more bitter than in many years past.

Cannon Hearing Set for Friday

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Bishop James Canon Jr., and his former secretary, Miss Ada Burroughs of Richmond, will be arraigned on charges of violating the corrupt practices act next Friday.

John J. Wilson, assistant United States attorney in charge of the prosecution, said today that if no attacks were made on the validity of the indictments he would ask Justice Proctor in the District of Columbia supreme court to set an early date for the trials.

The Southern Methodist churchman and Miss Burroughs were indicted after lengthy investigations by senate committees into charges that he violated the corrupt practices act by failing to report the expenditure of certain money given him to use against Alfred E. Smith, Democratic presidential nominee, in Virginia in 1928.

Texas Facts

By BILL EDWARDS

Texas has more than 100 oil refineries, leading all the states in number, but second to Oklahoma in daily capacity. California with 69 ranks second, Oklahoma with 59 third, Pennsylvania 50, fourth.

HELPING BUILD TEXAS

That Texas railroads are convinced their decreased earnings are temporary and that Texas will continue to grow and provide more business year by year is indicated in several ways. The Southern Pacific is preparing to invest $3,500,000 in a new passenger station at Houston, with work expected to start in December or sooner if the city completes its necessary paving and street-improvement preliminaries before that time. It is spending $3,100,000 on track-elevation in Beaumont, a couple of million more on track improvements between Houston and El Paso. The Texas & Pacific is completing $8,000,000 worth of new buildings at Fort Worth, including both passenger and freight stations. It is still seeking for a permit to build from Big Spring into the Panhandle, from Abilene into San Angelo. The Santa Fe is erecting a $1,500,000 terminal at Fort Worth, a $1,000,000 office building in Galveston, completing major improvements at Cleburne. The Gulf, Texas and Western, new route from San Antonio to San Angelo, is starting construction. The Denver is at work on its Pampa-Childress extension and expects to complete the 114 miles in times to handle the 1932 crops. A brand new road is the Del Rio and Northern, which seeks permit from the Interstate Commerce commission to build 132 miles running from Quemado in Maverick county through McKinney, Val Verde, Edwards and Sutton counties and serving the Maverick county irrigation district which is now engaged in spending from $4,000,000 to $6,600,000 o na huge irrigation porject. And these are only a few of the projects actually in progress or definitely proposed for later undertakings, in face of the fact that net aperating revenue for the first half of the present year was down 36.13 per cent compared with the same period of 1930 with every phase of activity showing a material decrease.

Philippine Leader Pictures Crucial Test

MANILA, Oct. 22. (AP)—Returning to Manila after spending more than a year in America, Manuel Quezon, president of the insular senate, said today the Philippines were "facing the crucial period of our national history in our relations with the United States."

"The situation," he said, "demands statesmanship and patriotism of the highest order."

Quezon declined to amplify that statement, saying he would submit a full report to the legislature within a week.

Filipino political circles had been awaiting Quezon's return to decide what step to take next in connection with the independence campaign. Another independence mission to the United States appears to be the most probable action.

Groundless Gossip

THE following editorial, which appeared in the Dallas News of Tuesday, Oct. 20, should prove of interest to Wichita Falls residents, and would apply as well here as in Dallas or any other Texas town:

"Many business men of the United States in this present economic depression naturally have fears and the most timid among them are shedding gloom in all directions by gossiping darkly of coming panics and bankruptcies. Such rumors hinder the return of prosperity, which now apparently is in sight.

"The United States has been awaiting signs of stability and unity of purpose in Europe and these are now clearly in evidence. Europe, on the other hand, looks for indication of change in the United States, the recognized leading state in finance and business. It finds these in the constructive measures already formulated throughout the nation, in part under way, which are making themselves felt as the beginnings of a returning wave of prosperity. Credit is expanding, fall business is gaining volume, unemployment in the next few months should lessen, not increase, and a more cheerful attitude is expressing itself in business circles.

"Texas is so rich in its products and its foods that it might well be a leader in the movement that is renewing the nation's confidence. Low prices for products hurt at first, but mental readjustments have been made, the worst is over, and prosperity will before long return to Texas. There is some real suffering from poverty and lack of employment, but Texans are putting their shoulders to the wheel and will help one another out of trouble. The present need is to substitute hope for fears and cheerful expectations for dismal forebodings.

"Dallas is especially to be congratulated because the upward turn in business is on the way and definite signs of business revival are in evidence."

The News adds that prophets of evil have forecast, but "their prophecies are mere idle gossip, partly malicious, but for the most part thoughtless repetitions of unfounded suspicions. Such gossipers are the worst enemies of returning prosperity and every rumor of that sort should be met with a demand for proof and stern reproof for baseless fabrications.

"The country now needs fewer mourners over past losses, and far less gossip of ill omen. In place of these it needs courage, energy, cheerfulness and a boundless confidence in the basic strength and integrity of American business and financial institutions. Texans may be sure that Texas is on the up grade and that the state expects its citizens to push vigorously in anticipation of the betterment already in sight. Dallas as the metropolis of Texas must lead in the restoration of confidence, now that there is a turn in the tide of business prosperity."

Romance in Imagination

A CHANCE phrase in a newspaper, now and then, can provoke dreams and memories; and surely there must have been a good many people who slipped into a pleasant bit of musing when they read a recent press dispatch saying that gunboats were patroling the north coast of Cuba because two sailing vessels "of doubtful character" had recently cleared from the Bahamas.

Not that there is anything about Cuba's present troubles to set romantic notions adrift anywhere. But who, having been brought up on the tradition of pirates in the Caribbean, can fail to feel a warming glow when he learns that "sailing vessels of doubtful character" are lurking in that sun-warmed sea once more?

There are certain spots on the globe that are under the spell of a tradition, and always will be until men stop reading tall tales and mulling over the adventures of dead years. The Shenandoah Valley is Stonewall Jackson and his foot cavalry, England's Devonshire ports are Drake and his swaggering seamen, and the waters about Cuba are pirates and privateers, the black flag and the poised gangplank.

Of course, one must have a hair-trigger imagination to be stirred by a chance phrase of this kind. But that, after all, is a common possession. And the mere fact that these particular vessels are probably sneaking gun-runners under charter to Cuban rebels is not discouraging. We have to make the best of what we can get, these days.

And to do that we have to be able to re-dream the old dreams. When we were youngsters, the world was a glamorous place. There were pirates off the Caribbean islands, we knew full well; and in the back of our minds there was always the notion that some day, if fortune broke properly, we could go there and join them,

It did not take us long to find out the truth. But when we did, the world lost something of color and freshness. The Caribbean waters today are as safe as those of Lake Erie, and at bottom we secretly wish that it wasn't so. When we read that the warships are out to hunt "vessels of doubtful character," we can go back, for a moment, to the time when high adventure was waiting for us just beyond the horizon.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

THE FLAMING PEAK OF ALGERIA—The Koudia de Hoggar, dominated by the rugged massive rock known also as the Peak of Ilerman, in the Algerian Sahara, glows in the dark long after sunset. Under its soft shimmer, which is a lingering reflection of the light of the dazzling Sahara sun, the rugged high plateau of the Ahoggar assumes the appearance of a row of Gothic cathedral surmounted by natural belltowers, which nature had adorned with delicate lace of stone. The natives firmly believe that the peak is endowed with an inner light of its own, and they referred to the phenomenon in the hushed tones of reverence.

THE GIRL WHO WON

By May Christie

Young and vivacious Nollie Day, public stenographer at an exclusive New York hotel, is befriended by the wealthy Mrs. Judson, a widow. One evening, Nollie goes to the theater in place of Mrs. Judson, where she meets handsome Tony O'Brien. She reveals her own identity but Tony does not hear her. Later in the evening she refrains from repeating her explanation for fear that Tony would lose interest when he learned the truth. Next day, Tony telephones and learns Mrs. Judson has gone abroad. Disbelieving the report, he comes to the hotel. He looks at Nollie without recognition but she believes it is because he has discovered her masquerade. Before Nollie can reach him, he disappears. Nollie secures a new position as secretary to Jack Brilling of Galbraith & Co. Miss Galbraith, Brilling's fiancee is jealous when Brilling takes Nollie to dinner and warns Nollie against overstepping. Brilling tells Nollie he loves her.

Miss Galbraith enters the office just as Nollie frees herself from Brilling's embrace. Nollie is discharged.

Mrs. Judson gives Nollie a letter Tony had written her abroad. Intending to help Nollie and set the matter straight, she phones Tony to learn he has left on a vacation.

Mrs. Judson asks Nollie to become her secretary and visit her ranch.

Nollie accompanies Mrs. Judson to a garden party and meets Rhoda Vane.

CHAPTER XXXVI

They played three-handed bridge that evening.

They cut for the odd partner. Rhoda drew Tony.

Mrs. Judson played with dummy. Nollie was watching.

The hostess insisted she must try to learn. Nollie would have been glad to escape to the privacy of her own bedroom.

"I am in love with him," she told herself, her heart sinking.

What chance had she against this Rhoda Vane? Rhoda had beauty, clothes and money—everything.

But Tony's handsome Irish eyes would stray to Nollie's face, as though with a question in them.

And when he spoke to Rhoda, the beguiling note the other girl had heard just wasn't there. Neither was the warm and shiny look in them.

Tony and Rhoda won the first rubber.

Then Tony drew Mrs. Judson as his partner.

"You sit by me. You bring me luck." He flashed a bright glance at Nollie.

"That's because she's a nice, good girl with a wonderful disposition," remarked her employer.

"Really? I thought that 'nice good girls' were hopelessly out of date—Miss Day must be a relic of the Victoria era."

This was from Rhoda Vane. She drew a long puff from her blue enamel cigaret holder.

She smiled sweetly, patronizingly as she said these words. Nollie flushed scarlet.

Tony rushed to her defense at once.

"I say Miss Day is as modern as any one I know—in the right sense. And with brains as well as beauty."

"Spoken like an Irishman," said Rhoda, tartly. "Now, suppose you put your mind on the game, because I can assure you I'm a devilish opponent."

"In more ways than one," said Mrs. Judson cryptically, "so my advice to Mr. O'Brien is to watch out for his skin."

Rhoda was annoyed. In a conversation of this kind, she liked more subtlety.

She applied herself to the game. She won the second rubber.

"A drink, for the love of Pete!" she cried. "Miss Day, if you're not too saint-like, won't you mix me a highball!"

As Nollie went over to a table bearing a bottle or two, uncertain what to do, Tony followed her.

"Here, let me do that." He lowered his voice to add: "I haven't had a chance to have a word with you."

She smiled up at him. Suddenly the world seemed brighter.

But all she said was—"I'll run and get some ice—"

Tony said: "I'll come with you."

"Oh, no. You stay. I'll go to the pantry."

But Tony was a masterful young man. He seized this opportunity.

The moment they were in the passage leading to the kitchen quarters, he caught her by the arm and swung her about.

"Look here, what's the matter? Don't you think I was disappointed enough about this afternoon without being put at such a distance tonight?"

"I don't know what you mean. Let go my arm. Mrs. Judson or some one may see you."

"I don't care if they do. Nollie—listen—what time will you meet me tomorrow by the lake?"

Her heart rose then. He hadn't changed. He hadn't really been thrilled by the advent of Rhoda.

But hide that feeling from him. She could see how women spoiled him. She mustn't be too "easy."

"It's impossible to say when I can get away. Mrs. Judson's starting a book, you know. I'm to transcribe it. It's kind of a secret."

"But she can't work you the whole day long. Look here, I'll tackle her myself. I'll tell her you and I have a date."

"Oh don't." Nollie halted near the butler's pantry. "I came up here to work. Although Mrs. Judson is kind enough to call me one, I'm not really a guest, I'm her secretary."

Tony O'Brien looked down on her. How sweet she was, with her concerned air, the shy and fragile beauty of her!

So different from the other type. Such an utter contrast to egotistic Rhoda!

He had come here for peace—and because an urge had been on him to meet again the lovely vision of the theater.

This girl had occupied a large portion of his thoughts these last few weeks. In a sense he was relieved to find that she wasn't Mrs. Jinny Judson, after all, but that good lady's secretary . . .

And no matter how she argued the impossibility of making a definite engagement with him, see her again—alone he would, and must.

"Look here, I'll be fishing in the little creek below my shack all morning. And if you can't break away—although I'll be disappointed, naturally—we'll meet in the afternoon, positively."

Nollie said: "Oh, I can't promise definitely. She felt a little giddy, for the nearness of this Tony was so thrilling.

"You've simply got to come, or I swear I'll walk right up to the house and tackle Mrs. Judson myself, and kidnap you."

She laughed happily, uncertainly. "Right after lunch she has a nap," she volunteered, "if the rain clears, maybe I could take a little ramble."

"That's a promise, now? At the end of the creek, on the same side as my shack, there's a tiny canoe house. You meet me there. I'll wait from 2 o'clock on."

She looked up at him with the blue, blue eyes that had captivated him so. He said softly: "Why, Nollie, you're the most hauntingly lovely thing I've ever seen. Your eyes are like pools where a man could drown himself for love of you—they're as blue a sthe ocean."

She lay taut, awake that night, while the rain pattered on the trees outside her room.

A heavy scent of pine and fir and green and growing things came up, to mingle with intoxicating thoughts of Tony.

Nollie was in love. The misery of the evening had given place to ecstacy.

Forgotten was the predatory Rhoda Vane . . . the card game in which she had had no place . . . her long-drawn-out anxiety.

Oh, love bridged everything. She had seen his feeling for her in his handsome Irish eyes. It echoed in his voice.

Tomorrow she would meet him. God had been good to her!

A THREE DAYS' COUGH IS YOUR DANGER SIGNAL

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Dairy Farmers Urged to Destroy One Cow in Every 10 to Cut Yield

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—Dairy farmers are urged to destroy one-tenth of the country's milk cows to prevent over production in a report submitted to the farm board.

The report, prepared by the dairy advisory committee, an agency of dairy cooperatives, points out that herds have been increasing for four years and there eventually will be large surpluses and low prices despite recent increases in prices.

In addition to asking each farmer to eliminate one cow out of each 10, the committee also suggested that all low-producing cows be culled and sold for slaughter and that additional heifer calves be vealed.

Trades Day Program Outlined at Burk

Special to The Record News.

BURKBURNETT, Texas, Oct. 22.—The third monthly Burkburnett trades day will be held here on Saturday, Nov. 7. The rodeo and trades day celebration will be sponsored by the chamber of commerce and the business men and professionals of Burkburnett.

It was decided by the chamber of commerce at its last meeting to hold the rodeo as usual on the first Saturday of the month instead of combining it with the American Legion annual rodeo, on Armistice day as was formerly intended. In preparation for the third Burkburnett rodeo and farmer's trades day, the rodeo grounds are being provided with additional grandstands on the north and west sides, thus furnishing a large seating capacity. The work is in charge of a committee composed of Wid Phillips, Paul Browning, R. C. Tevis and Jack Brumley, and it is expected the improvements will be complete by Nov. 7.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE— WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a move movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food don't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Resent a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

let's all go to Turkey

Where Turkish tobacco comes from

Eastward ho! Four thousand miles nearer the rising sun—let's go! To the land of mosques and minarets—so different from our skyscrapers, stacks and steeples.

Let's see this strange, strange country. Let's see the land where the tobacco* grows in small leaves on slender stalks—to be tenderly picked, leaf by leaf, hung in long fragrant strings, shelter-dried and blanket-cured. Precious stuff!

In every important tobacco-growing center of Turkey, Chesterfield has its own tobacco buyers on the spot

Let's taste that delicate aromatic flavor—that subtle difference that makes a cigarette!

XANTHI . . CAVALLA . . SMYRNA . . SAMSOUN . . famous tobaccos!

*Turkish tobacco is to cigarettes what seasoning is to food—the "spice," the "sauce"—or what rich, sweet cream is to coffee!

You can taste the Turkish in Chesterfield—there's enough of it, that's why. Chesterfield has not been stingy with this important addition to good taste and aroma; four famous kinds of Turkish leaf—Xanthi, Cavalla, Samsoun and Smyrna—go into the smooth, "spicy" Chesterfield blend.

This is just one more reason for Chesterfield's better taste. Tobaccos from far and near, the best of their several kinds—and the right kinds. And pure, tasteless cigarette paper, the purest made. The many requisites of a milder, better smoke, complete!

That's why they're GOOD—they've got to be and they are.

RECIPES

Hot Liver Sandwich

Put cooked liver through a food chopper, season with salt and pepper and moisten with stock or milk. Spread a layer of the liver mixture on freshly toasted bread, cover with slices of tomato and strips of bacon. Broil until the tomato and bacon are cooked. The bacon may be turned during the cooking time.

Stuffed Filet of Veal

Have a slice of veal cut from the largest part of the filet and an inch and one-half thick. Beat it flat with a wooden mallet until reduced to half the original thickness. Lay it flat—it should be oblong in shape—on a porcelain-topped table, and spread over with one-fourth a pound of sausage meat, spreading as you would spread butter with a flat knife in a thin layer. Have ready three or four hard-cooked eggs, cut these in slices and lay over the sausage meat. Over these lay one-half a pound of thinly-sliced breakfast bacon, placing these crosswise, and pressing all as firmly as possible together. Roll the meat lengthwise into a long, thick, sausage shape, sew up the edges and tie at each end with soft cotton twine. Melt one-fourth a cup of fat in a long baking pan and roll the meat in this while over a hot fire until brown all over. Then add a pint of stock with seasoning to taste, cover the pan and let simmer only for from two to three hours, turning the meat two or three times during the process. Serve on a bed of ribbon lettuce with parsley border and garnish with button mushrooms that have been saute'd.

Ginger Fruit Salad

Eight red apples.
One lemon, juice.
One-half cupful nut meats.
One cupful candied ginger, chopped.
Two bananas.
Two oranges.
One cupful seedless white grapes.
One bunch watercress.
Lime French dressing.

Core apples and dice without peeling. Sprinkle with lemon juice at once to prevent discoloration. Add sliced bananas, orange sections, stemmed grapes, chopped nut meats and chopped ginger. Serve on lettuce or watercress with lime French dressing. Serves eight.

Lime French Dressing

Add bottled lime juice and powdered sugar to taste to French dressing.

French Dressing

Rub a mixing bowl or salad bowl with a cut clove of garlic held on the tines of a fork. Pour in the salad oil, measuring the same. Add one-third as much vinegar or lemon juice as oil. Add salt and pepper to taste and enough paprika to make the dressing pink. Add a dash of dry mustard or a few drops of Worcestershire sauce. A trace of sugar may also be added. Beat with an egg beater until the oil and acid form a smooth mixture.

Chicken a la King Cornucopias

From a sheet of flexible cardboard cut six five-inch squares, shape them into cornucopias and fasten with gummed paper strips, then round off the sharp points with scissors.

Sift three cups of flour with one teaspoonful of salt, two of sugar, and three of baking powder. Chop in three tablespoonfuls of shortening and work into a rather stiff dough with a cup of milk. Roll to an eighth of an inch in thickness on a floured board. To do this it may be well to divide the dough into two parts for when rolled so thin it will be like a tablecloth in size. Cut six five-inch squares from the dough, cover the cornucopias with them, fitting them neatly on and moistening the edges at the joining. Bake in a hot oven, 450 degrees F. until a delicate brown, remove, pull out the cardboard cornucopias and use them to bake the next batch of six. The dough should make at least a dozen. Before serving brush the edges with beaten egg, dip in chopped parsley, fill the cones with chicken a la king (a pint and a half of chicken will be needed) and pipe mashed potatoes over the tops. A good dish for a bridge luncheon.

Chicken a la King

Two cupfuls diced chicken meat.
Five tablespoonfuls oil.
Three tablespoonfuls chopped pimentos.
Six tablespoonfuls chopped green pepper.
One tablespoonfuls capers paprika.
One can or 1½ cupfuls fresh mushroom caps.
One teaspoonful salt.
Three cupfuls thin cream.
Two and one-half tablespoonfuls flour.
Two tablespoonfuls butter.
Two egg yolks.

Cook mushroom caps five minutes in the oil, then add the mixture to the chicken, capers, peppers, and pimentos, and add a dash of paprika and the salt. Prepare a white sauce of butter, flour and cream, beating the two egg-yolks, and pouring the sauce on them when it is done. Add the chicken mixture, heat thoroughly, and serve on slices of buttered toast. If milk is substituted for half of the cream, increase the flour to 4½ tablespoonfuls. Serves from four to six.

Paul Revere Salad

Cover two cups of prunes with water and let boil one hour, allowing the water to evaporate almost entirely; cooked in this way the prunes have a delicious flavor and very glossy surface; remove pits. Add one tablespoonful of horse-radish to one cup of finely diced celery, add salt to taste and moisten with mayonnaise; then use the mixture to fill prunes. Arrange on marinated shredded cabbage and serve with French dressing. Serves eight.

Almond Macaroone

Almond paste may be bought in one-pound and five-pound tins. Work one-half a pound of almond paste with the hands to put it into as fine particles as possible; if quite firm, a lemon grater may be used to advantage. Gradually work in one cup of granulated sugar and the unbeaten whites of four eggs. When smooth, add one-third a cup of confectioners' sugar and two tablespoonfuls of bread flour sifted together. Drop with a teaspoon in rounds of thin parchment paper set on a baking sheet. Cover and let stand an hour or longer to harden on top. Brush lightly with the fingers wet in cold water, dredge lightly with graulated sugar, and bake about 25 minutes in an oven at a temperature of 300 degrees Fahrenheit. Before setting into the oven, the rounds may be decorated with a raisin, nut, cherry or a bit of citron.

Preserves

Preserving is one of the true arts as correct blending of flavors is most important. A preserve must not be too sweet, nor too acid, nor too heavily spiced, nor too tame, nor too vigorous. It must blend. Yet it must stand out in one's memory—else a recipe would have no excuse for being used a second time.

Marmalades and conserves and the like are rich and fine and very good. Pint fruit jars are desirable containers for sealing them, but many other containers may be used such as wide-mouthed bottles or glass jars in which salad dressing or mustard have been purchased. The latter should be topped with melted paraffin.

All paraffin tops should be washed in cold water as soon as removed and put away for further use.

Each batch of preserves should be labeled as soon as cold. The label should bear the name of the jar's contents as well as the date of preserving. No mistakes can then be made in getting the wrong jar.

Certain utensils are desirable for preserving. First, a good griddle to set between the gas flame and the kettle to prevent scorching. This may be a large iron griddle from an old cookstove, provided there is no hole in it, or a piece of sheet iron 10 inches square. An aluminum waterless cooker with its base to diffuse the heat is ideal for this purpose. There is no harmful reaction resulting from cooking acids in aluminum but the kettle should be scrubbed thoroughly with fine steel wool before using. Enamel or granite ware is apt to chip off, and permits scorching easily.

A long-handled spoon, good kitchen scales, a good food chopper, a standard-sized measuring cup, several sharp knives, a funnel, a soup ladle and standard-sized teaspoons and tablespoons for measuring are necessary.

Sterilize the container before filling and wipe the edges of the filled jars with a clean dry cloth before pouring in the paraffin so that it will stick. If by chance a bead of liquid oozes up along the side of the paraffin a day or so after the jar has been sealed, remove the wax and wipe the rim dry and pour fresh paraffin over the preserve.

Preserves should be stored for several months in a dry, dark place to ripen and mellow.

Golden Marmalade

Pulp of one-half large grapefruit.
Two large oranges.
Seven cupfuls sugar.
One lemon.
One cupful dried apricots.
Six pints water.

Slice oranges and lemons very thin, cut apricots into small pieces. Cover all with water and let stand overnight. Put on to boil and cook until fruit is tender. Add sugar and cook down until it gives the two-drop test (that is, drops two drops at one time from a spoon). Makes seven glasses.

Pumpkin Chips

Twelve pounds pumpkin.
One pound green ginger.
Two lemons.
Sugar.

Pare the pumpkin and cut it into strips one inch square and one-eighth of an inch thick. Prepare the ginger by paring and slicing it thinly; boil one hour in a sirup of equal parts of sugar and water. Slice the lemons thin. Combine the pumpkin, ginger and sirup and sliced lemons. Weigh and add an equal weight of sugar. Let stand 24 hours. Then simmer gently about one and one-half hours or until the pumpkin is transparent. Pack in hot, sterilized jars and seal at once.

Apricot Pineapple Marmalade

One cupful dried soaked apricots.
One cupful water.
One-fourth cupful lemon juice.
Two cupfuls diced or grated canned pineapple
Two cupfuls sugar.

Mix the apricots and water and cook slowly for five minutes. Add the pineapple and cook slowly for another five minutes. Add the rest of the ingredients and cook until the marmalade thickens and becomes "jelly-like." Pour into sterilized jars and when cool cover with melted paraffin.

This marmalade is delicious served with hot muffins, buttered toast, biscuits, graham or white bread, waffles or date muffins or it may be mixed with white cream cheese and used for sandwich filling for graham or Boston brown bread sandwiches.

Tomato Preserves

Four lemons, juice and rind.
Twenty leaves fresh mint.
Eight and one-fourth pounds sugar.
Eight pounds tomatoes.

Into preserving kettle put the tomatoes that have been skinned, trimmed and cut into small pieces. Do not get the tomatoes too ripe and weigh after they have been prepared. Chop fine the lemon and orange rinds. Wash the mint thoroughly and cut fine with scissors. Mix all ingredients and let stand one hour. Put over fire on griddle and cook 50 minutes, stirring constantly. Seal hot. This recipe makes 11 pints.

Fig Preserves

After washing figs place in water (cold) to cover. Bring to boil and cook until tender enough to pierce with a straw. Remove from water and let drain overnight on rack, small point down. This will allow most of the water to escape. Make a heavy sirup of sugar and water, and when it begins to thicken drop in the figs and cook till plump and thoroughly saturated with the sirup. Flavor if desired with ginger root, lemon or grated pineapple. Allow one cup of water for each pound of sugar (two cupfuls) and boil for 10 minutes before placing figs in it. Add all the fruit that the sirup will accommodate.

Pear Chips

Eight pounds pears.
Four pounds sugar.
One-fourth pound crystalized sugar.
Four lemons.

Wash pears, remove stems, pare, quarter and core; then cut in small pieces. Add sugar and ginger and let stand for 24 hours. Add lemon, sliced very thin, rejecting seeds and cook slowly until sirup is thick and jelly like (about three hours). This is delicious served with vanila ice cream.

Spiced Sweet Pumpkin Marmalade

One-half teaspoonful ground cloves.
One-half teaspoonful grated nutmeg.
One teaspoonful ground cinnamon.
One-half teaspoonful ground allspice.
One-half cupful vinegar.
Juice of two oranges.
Three and one-half pounds sweet pumpkin.
One pound banana pulp.
Juice of three lemons.
Four and one-half pounds sugar.
Two heaping tablespoonfuls ground ginger.

Peel and finely chop the pumpkin before weighing. Mash banana pulp well. Mix all ingredients together thoroughly and let stand one hour. Stir well again, then place on fire over griddle and cook 40 minutes, after it has come to a boil. Stir often while cooking to prevent scorching. Seal hot.

Tomato Marmalade

Four quarts ripe tomatoes.
Six lemons.
One cupful seeded raisins.
Three and one-half pounds granulated sugar.

Peel tomatoes; cut pulp in slices. Cut lemons in half, lengthwise and then very thin slices. Put alternate layers of fruit and sugar in preserving kettle. Cook slowly until thick as marmalade. Pour into hot jelly glasses and seal with paraffin. Yields about two and one-half quarts marmalade.

Exclusive vacuum process proved in eight European cities

Noted authorities find M·J·B's matchless flavor is unchanged after a rigid 4-month test—thanks to the patented "Safety-Seal" that only M·J·B can use!

An expert on mechanical inventions, a famous chef and a domestic science authority conducted these tests. They were W. W. Ogier, Jr. (shown here), V. P. Nu-Ice Co. and Prof., Calif. Institute of Tech.; Chef La Paille, St. Francis Hotel, San Francisco; and Genevieve Callahan, Editor, Sunset Magazine.

In a great world-wide flavor protection test, M·J·B Coffee was sent to eight European cities and subjected to as many different climatic conditions.

Four months later a group of impartial experts was asked to compare the flavor of this coffee with freshly roasted coffee.

"After critical taste-tests," the committee unanimously declared, "we found the coffee stored away in Europe was as fresh and full-flavored as coffee just packed."

Surely a coffee to stand such a test would have to be packed in some unusual way. M·J·B is packed in an unusual way.

M·J·B is the only coffee in the world that has its own vacuum process and its own can factory. M·J·B's process—the pat'd "Safety-Seal"—prevents the tin from closing unless all air is out. No other coffee has this protection.

That's why the richer blend of M·J·B stays rich. Prove this for yourself. Try M·J·B. See the difference in packing methods. Taste the difference in freshness, flavor.

DINNER HONORS FRANK DOBIE

Texas Author Speaks At Woman's Forum

J. Frank Dobie, introduced by Mrs. G. B. Smedley of Fort Worth as the "writer of the best folk tales Texas will ever know," responded to the program given in his honor at the Woman's Forum clubhouse Thursday night with a collection of anecdotes illustrating his theory that if he were an educator, (stating by the way that there were two names he did not wish to be called, and one of them was educator), he would start a new philosophy of "being reminded." He was reminded of many old tales of Texas that kept his audience of approximately 100 persons in a gale of merriment.

Mrs. Bernard Martin, chairman of the evening, introduced each number on the program with a clever play on the word "depression" which finally became "press on." Mrs. Ola G. Hamlin gave the invocation and numbers on the program included "The Blue Danube" and "Spanish Rhapsody" arranged for two pianos and played with consummate artistry by Mrs. F. R. Collard and Miss Erma Nala Voss. Perfect technique and beautiful interpretation was shown in the haunting strains of the first number and the verve and lightness of the second.

Mrs. Porter Oakes read several legends from Mr. Dobie's "Coronado's Children," with graceful expression and Mrs. W. M. Priddy, accompanied by Mrs. Lucile Brooks Huff at the piano and Mrs. J. E. Hall in the violin obligato, sang Oscar Fox's "Hill's of Home" and a cowboy song, "The Old Chilholm Trail." The sympathetic quality of her beautiful voice gave perfect interpretation to both songs.

Decorations at the speaker's table honored Mr. Dobie in the theme of "The Lost Mine." Cactus, mesquite and a sandy prairie suggested stories from "Coronado's Children." Place cards, hand painted by Miss Ima Pendergrass were suggestive of Texas pioneer days and prospecting.

During the dinner hour, Miss Minnie Baker and nine of her music pupils dressed in Spanish costume, played old Spanish music. The dining room of the forum was arranged as a Spanish patio as a setting for them. Children participating in the program were Peggy Williamson, Wilma Sue Warman, Dorothy McPhail, Bonnie Jean Lincoln, Roberta Lincoln, Alton Bedinhaus, John Haggard, Nancy Haggard and Charlotte Maer. Decorations were arranged by Mesdames Bernard Martin, W. P. Killingsworth and Walter Campbell.

Guests at the speaker's table included Mr. Dobie, Mrs. G. B. Smedley, Bernard Martin, Newton Maer, Walter Priddy, Lucile Brooks Huff, J. E. Hall, F. R. Collard, Guy Rogers, G. D. Anderson, Ola G. Hamlin, Miss Erma Nala Voss, Mesdames Porter Oakes, J. A. Kemp and Fred T. Couper.

Mesdames Ed Howard and W. W. Fraser were in charge of reservations.

Commissioner Makes Bond

FREDERICK, Okla., Oct. 22. (AP)—John W. Williams, Tillman county commissioner under four indictments charging accepting bribes and driving while intoxicated, Thursday afternoon perfected bond in each of the charges.

The first grand jury called in the county since 1912 indicted Williams, and a former woman city employe, and brought accusations seeking to oust County Commissioners F. G. Patterson and O. C. Ball. Removal of Williams from the county post was also asked in the accusation. Patterson and Ball were not indicted.

The accusations, details of which were not revealed, charged the commissioners with maladministration of office and neglect of duty.

Mrs. Bonham Oswalt, former city bookkeeper, was indicted on a charge of embezzling $1,381.70 from Frederick funds. The woman is now at Crowell but is expected to return. A bonding company has already paid off the alleged defalcation, officials said.

The other indictments named Doc Lee Tipton constable, on a charge of converting confiscated property to his own use and Glee Gill, Hollister druggist, for compounding a crime.

District Judge Frank Mathews will hear the commissioners' answers to the accusation on Nov. 2.

Fatal Crash Brings Charge of Murder

LAWTON, Okla., Oct. 22. (AP)—At the conclusion of his preliminary hearing here today, Ed Meeks, Big Spring, Texas, was bound over to district court for trial on a murder charge filed in connection with the death of S. H. Morgan of Lawton in an automobile wreck.

D. Moncrief, justice of the peace, denied Meeks a bond.

Rneter Spino, a Rochester, N. Y., youth, was injured in the wreck, which occurred Sunday.

Waco Man Made Head Of Druggists Group

CORSICANA, Texas, Oct. 22. (AP)—A. L. Stolte of Waco was elected president of the Central Texas Retail Druggists association at the close of the business session of the fall convention today.

Other officers elected included K. R. Black of Kosse, first vice president; F. E. McPherson of Corsicana, second vice president; J. Louis Marsh, of Waco, secretary-treasurer.

Testimony of Ballistics Expert Here Second Such Instance in Court History

Acceptance of testimony of a ballistics expert in a criminal trial in the 30th district court here this week was the second such instance on record in this country, according to Capt. Tom Hickman of the Texas rangers, who spoke before members of the Rotary club at the Kemp hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker stated, in his discussion of the Texas ranger organization, that efforts are being made to establish a bureau of criminal investigation at Austin, and that a department of ballistics may be included if such a plan be carried out.

There are now 44 rangers in the state organization, Captain Hickman said, with two vacancies yet to be filled. While the ranger law permits a staff of 75 men, he said, inadequate appropriations have necessitated the maintenance of a much smaller force. Provision for 14 more rangers than the number in the force last spring was made by the last legislature, and there were 3,600 applications filed for places.

Captain Hickman also mentioned the rodeo activities of his earlier years, both in this country and in England. A member of Rotary, he declared that this association has afforded him "more pleasure, fellowship and real good" than any other organization.

Dr. O. T. Kimbrough urged attendance at the "Let's Go Athletic" entertainment at the Memorial auditorium Friday night, for the benefit of the high school pep squad and J. Wilkie Talbert announced the Coyote-Quanah game to be played here Saturday.

Cecil Childers, captain of the El Ranchito polo team from Fort Worth, was instroduced by President L. H. Estes.

Rally Program Tonight Promises Fine Entertainment for Grid Fans

Music, Dancing, Novelties, Speeches and Drill by Girls Pep Squad Scheduled at Memorial Auditorium

All is in readiness for the presentation of "Let's Go Athletic," at the Memorial auditorium Friday night, it was announced Thursday.

A group of vaudeville numbers, "Let's Go Athletic" is designed by its athletic-spirited backers to encourage school sports on the part of Wichita Falls' citizenship. Funds raised will be used by the Parent-Teacher association and to buy uniforms for the Coyote pep squad and band.

Numbers included on the program are a ballet, a piano concert of popular music, a novelty tap dance combination, acrobatic specialties, and a fall style show.

Cline to Officiate

Also a part of the presentation will be a grand finale in which prominent citizens of Wichita Falls take place. Athletic coaches of schools here and Supt. H. D. Fillers will be presented. Music for the affair will be furnished by the 40-piece high school orchestra.

Walter D. Cline, well-known business man and civic leader here, will officiate as master of ceremonies. He is billed to appear in full dress, including trimmings of top hat and gloves. Mr. Cline is returning to Wichita Falls from East Texas, it was said, to take part in the rally and demonstrate his backing of sports here.

The first number on the program features Felix Payne Jr., young tap dancer, assisted by a ballet of misses, in "The Awakening." Young Mr. Payne will enact the awakening of the athletic spirit in Wichita Falls.

Billed as "Hoffer's Harmony," act two is by Hal Hoffer of the KGKO staff, who will indulge in "10 minutes of digital dexterity on the piano."

Following is a novelty tap dance combination composed of Charles Doran, Leo N. Herzog and Emmett Davis, leading dancing teachers here. This trio has appeared as individuals on the best vaudeville stages of the nation.

Style Show

The fourth number of the program is a style showing of fall apparel. Several Wichita Falls' merchants have collaborated in presenting this feature. Attractive young women will model latest creations in women's fall wear.

Following this event, Miss Mattie Lenora Salmon, Nocona contortionist, will appear in an acrobatic specialty.

The grand finale appears sixth and last on the program, and includes the introduction of athletic coaches, the school superintendent, with a colorful background and performance of the Coyote girl's pep squad, and the American Legion drum and bugle corps.

Heads of local organizations also will take part in the finale.

Mrs. W. E. Huff, general chairwoman of the program, reported Thursday that an exceptionally large number of tickets had been sold. Many more excellent seats are available, she said, as the auditorium seats more than 3,300. Approximately 2,000 tickets had been sold up to Thursday night. An additional 1,000 is expected to be sold Friday, it was said.

Mrs. Huff requested that the public join in the move under foot to stimulate appreciation of athletics here, and to purchase tickets, the money for which, she said, is to be used in a worthwhile cause.

The activity in connection with "Let's Go Athletic" seemed to heighten Thursday with the approach of the Covote-Quanah game here Saturday, the day following the sports rally.

Showers Over Area Take Toll in Cotton

Wichita Falls and Northwest Texas was sodden Thursday night after rains that temporarily flooded the streets Wednesday continued through Thursday and Thursday evening.

The rainfall here during the day and evening totalled .86 inch according to reports from the Texas Electric Service company bureau.

Dispatchers for the Denver road said light rain fell between Childress and Quanah and heavy showers south of Quanah all the way to Fort Worth. Rain was heavy along the Valley road as well.

Along the Katy as far north as Mangum, Okla., the precipitation was similar to the fall here, but the rain stopped north of Mangum, dispatchers reported. East of Whitesboro, brisk showers fell.

The continued rains are bogging down cotton fields, stopping picking and damaging quality, farm experts, reported.

COYOTES GET SEND-OFF IN VODVIL AND PEP RALLY TONIGHT

TOWN READY TO 'GO ATHLETIC'

Pack Promises Real Fight In Quanah Game

Wichita Falls yesterday made final plans to "go athletic" today, and go to the game tomorrow.

There will be much hustle and bustle at the high school throughout the day, and tonight the students will be joined by athletic-minded citizens of the city at a bang-up vaudeville and student rally at the Memorial auditorium.

Proceeds from the vaudeville will be used to pay for the girls' pep squad uniforms and to purchase uniforms for the band. The sale of tickets for the program, which has been carried on almost entirely by the girls' pep squad, has met with splendid success, according to those sponsoring the show. At least 1,000 tickets had been sold up to Thursday night, and that many more were in the hands of pep squad members who had not at that time reported. Tickets may be purchased during the day from any pep squad girl at 25 cents each, and every citizen who wishes to support athletics at the high school and boost the Coyote gang throughout this season and the seasons to come were urged to buy a ticket and be on hand for the show tonight.

Artists Ready

Rehearsals for the vaudeville were concluded last night, under the direction of Dr. O. T. Kimbrough, who announced he was prepared to stage as good an attraction as the "big time" can afford. In addition to the vaudeville acts, some of which will be "take offs" on the game of football, the girls' pep squad and band will be on hand to participate in a final rally on the eve of the Coyotes' first home game of the season.

Undaunted by seas of mud and drizzling rain that followed the downpour of early yesterday afternoon, Coach Holton's boys went through their final tough practice routine in preparation for the all-important game Saturday, which will find the local lads pitted against one of the strongest football elevens in Northwest Texas, Coach Dan Stallworth's Quanah Indians. The Indians this week have also been working out under adverse weather conditions, and Saturday's game is likely to resolve into a mud battle. Coach Holton planned to run his team through a light workout this afternoon as a final conditioner for the game.

Rally This Morning

An atmosphere of pep will invade the sanctums of the high school early today. At 9:30 o'clock this morning, the regular assembly period at the school, a 30-minute pep rally will be held in which leading business men of the city will participate. According to plans drawn up by William E. Huff, Bert King, Wichita Falls attorney, will make a pep talk, and one and probably two other business men will be called upon to speak. In addition, there will be a program staged by the students.

Plans were announced yesterday for a parade of the student organizations through the downtown section Saturday morning, preceding the arrival of the special train bearing the Quanah team and fans. As routed by Howard Bunch, parade marshal, it will form at Eighth and Travis streets at 10:30 o'clock. The parade and demonstration will be followed by that of the Quanah group, which is expected to arrive here about 1:40.

It Must Go Over

While the game Saturday is the all-important thing, the school and its loyal supporters are devoting their immediate attention to the success of the "Let's Go Athletic" vaudeville tonight at the auditorium. If the vaudeville and pep rally prove the success that is expected, the whole town can then feel assured it has given the Coyote team the send-off it deserves, and go to the game confident that they have done their part.

Then it will be up to the Coyotes to do theirs. That they will do their part was assured not only by the spirit in which the team worked out this week, but by the declaration of Head Coach Holton, who said:

"The people of Wichita Falls, who have long wished for a winning football team here, may not get it this year, but they can rest assured that the Coyote entry of 1931 is not one that will be easy to whip. My boys have been truly inspired in all this week's muddy practice, and I will speak for every man on the team in saying that they will fight Saturday as no Coyote team in years has fought."

Memphis Drubs Estelline, 79-7

Special to The Record News.

MEMPHIS, Texas, Oct. 22.—Memphis drowned the Estelline Cubs in a score, 79 to 7, in a fast game this afternoon. Gordon Walker, Cyclone fullback substituting for May, started the scoring after two downs and the Cyclones ran up 11 other touchdowns and seven extra points in quick succession. J. W. West, Memphis end, gave fans a thrill in the second quarter when he intercepted a pass and ran 60 yards for a touchdown. Estelline's lone score was made late in the last quarter when Green plunged the line for a touchdown and McCullum kicked extra point. Kenneth Oren, Cyclone fullback substitute, accounted for 18 points and Charles Flannery, quarter, ran second with 14. Estelline played a good game but was outclassed and out-sized.

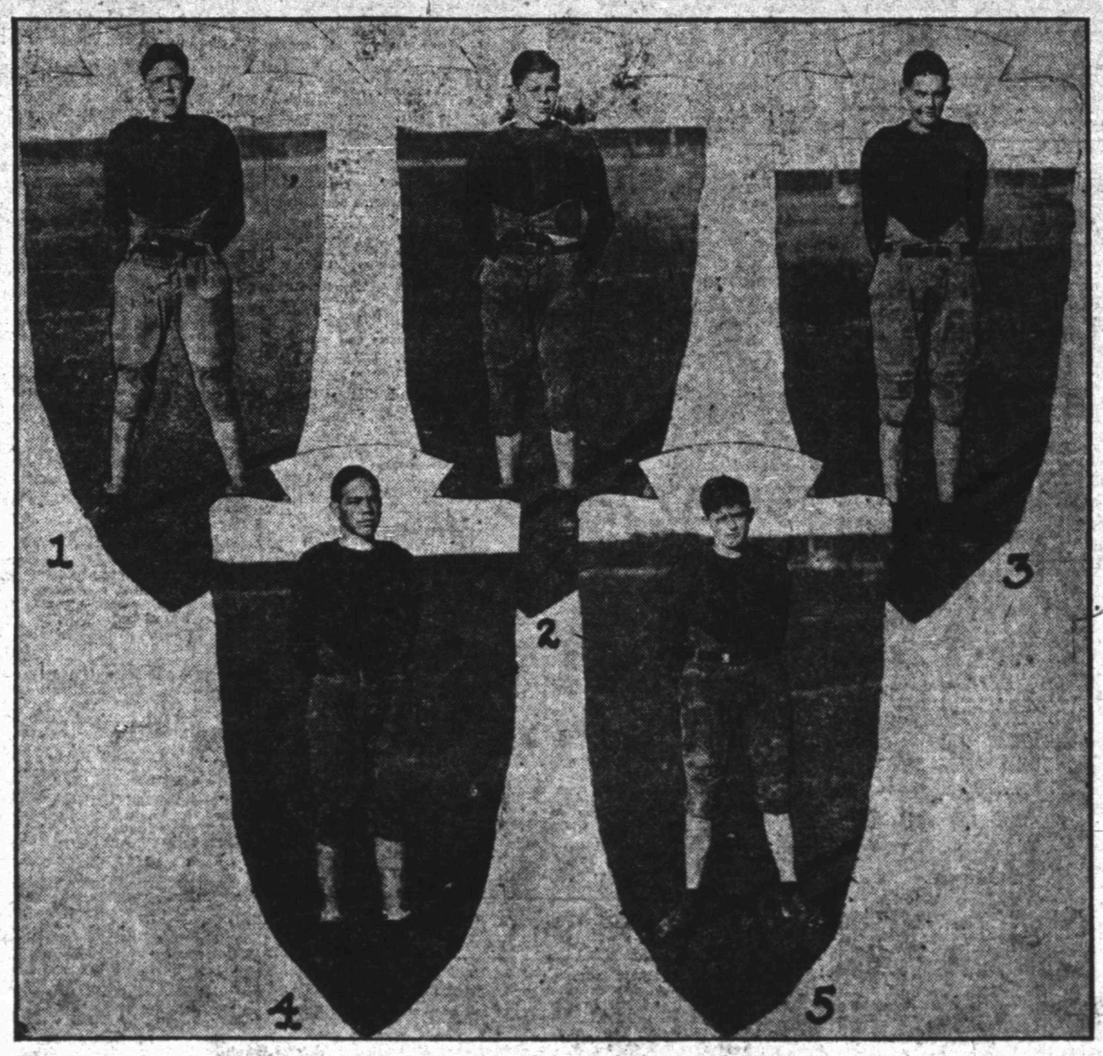

Childress Plays Eldorado Today

Special to The Record News.

CHILDRESS, Texas, Oct. 22.—Announcement was made Thursday morning the Childress Bobcats would meet a football team from Eldorado, Okla., at Childress Friday afternoon. The Bobcats were signed up with Pampa Harvesters for this date, but canceled the game two weeks ago. The grounds are in poor condition for playing on account of too much rain during the past few days.

Warm Battle Promised Today When Graham Plays Jacksboro

And They've Got More Like These in Quanah

Five Braves from the Quanah Indians' tepee who'll be in the thick of the fight here Saturday with the Wichita Falls Coyotes are shown above; and the Quanah team will journey to the "City That Faith Built" with a few more just as scrappy as the boys in the above group. No. 1 looks tough. He is. He's D. L. (Pug) Norman, left end, a wingman who snatches the pass from the air and is hard to stop thereafter. No. 2, in the middle, is J. D. Rogers, fullback, and he's generally in the middle of everything. He's a constant groundgainer and one of Quanah's chief scoring threats. No. 3 looks lean and he does—lean against his opposing lineman rather heavily, for Oscar Richardson, the lad in question, is a left tackle who knows his business. No. 4 is Jarrel Bloc, a guard who does just that. No. 5 is Bob Barnet, center of the Quanah team, who is fighting hard to make fans in this district forget Monty McDannald, Electra center who made the all-district last year and who is favored to repeat. Barnet looks little in this picture but that fighting face shows what he's made of.

The RAMBLER'S CORNER

By FRED D. THOMPSON

After reading four pages of "Pilgrim's Progress" and the latest poetical work of John Milton the Last (which will be printed next week folks, and you shouldn't miss it!) the Rambler herewith offers his conclusions as to the outcome of today's leading football games in this sector:

Graham 13, Jacksboro 6.
Nocona 20, Bowie 0.
Bridgeport 14, Decatur 0.
Newcastle 21, Bellevue 0.
Chillicothe 40, Seymour 0.
Olney 40, Munday 0.
Burkburnett 13, Megargel 0.

Taint So

A Quanah fan writes that "I want you to know that the majority of sport fans in Quanah are not of the variety of 'Reckless Red' and 'Popeye.' We are proud of our Indians—any town in the district, we believe, would be proud of them; but we do not believe they are the only team in the district. The writer had the pleasure of witnessing the Quanah-Electra game and can truthfully say it was one of the best games he has ever seen. Those Electra boys were fighters of the first water, with the never-say-die spirit.

"It was a much better game than the score indicates, and had Electra had two or three McDannalds and Ellis' on their team it would have been even a closer game.

"We hope to win over Wichita Falls and Vernon but should we not do so we will hold no grudge against either team or city.

"We do believe, Fred, that you have not given us a fair and impartial write-up in your column.

"You did the big squawk when City Walker won the Greenbelt Golf championship from Ira Merchant of Clarendon and you have shown through your column that you are for any football team in the district—against the Indians. Why, we do not know.

"We read The Record News in Quanah and get quite a kick out of your 'panning' but would like for you to really give the boys their just dues. At least admit that they are a pretty fair high school team."

The Rambler naturally is whooping for the Coyotes, but I don't believe it can be said that I'm prejudiced against the Quanah Tribe. If I have made a sally or two at the Indians, the Quanah fan probably took them too seriously. If he had read between the lines, he would have seen that every team in the district fears the Indians.

Up until the Quanah-Electra game we didn't know much about Quanah, except that it was bowling over a bunch of Oklahoma teams whose strength was not very well known in these parts. The Electra game showed what the Quanah team is.

As for the approaching game between the Indians and the Coyotes, I guess I'd better get rid of my prediction here and now, because at this date it doesn't look like I'll have room to crowd a column of chatter in on the Saturday morning page.

We believe Quanah will win, but that they will have to fight hard to put it over. The score likely will not be as lopsided as past Quanah scores, on account of the mud. The game will resolve into a contest to determine the best mud daubers, and undoubtedly the breaks will have a prominent part in the scoring.

The Vernon Game

While the Indians are fighting here, their future foes, the Vernon Lions, will be meeting the Electra Tigers at Electra, and that game will serve as an indication of what kind of team Quanah will face in the Vernon game. We look for the Lions to be about two touchdowns better than the Electrans.

An Old Idol Found

When the Rambler was bustin' courses in junior high school down at Austin, the chief reason for his delinquent scholastic showing was that he hung around the University of Texas football team. And one of the chief attractions in the Longhorn camp in those days was a great guard—great in more ways than one. He was a whale of a guard in the first place, and in the second, he weighed 250 pounds stripped. Put about 50 pounds of football togs on him and he was truly an impressive sight when he took the field. The Rice Owls and all the other conference teams took one look at that guard and didn't know what goal post they were driving at.

I never did learn that guard's name, or if I did I forgot it. The impression he made, however, was a lasting one. He was on the varsity team in 1916, 1917, and 1918, and Texas in 1918 was an undefeated Southwest conference champion team.

Well, the other day, Gordon Conley, president of the Quanah school board—a giant of a man—ambled into the office with his business associate, Mr. Jones (forgot the initials). While Mr. Conley was talking to somebody else in the office, Jones tipped me off that Mr. Conley was the big chief of the Quanah school board, and a former Texas football player.

And then I remembered his real name. It wasn't Gordon Conley, it was "Fats" Conley. That's the name University of Texas students knew him by in those days when Texas produced some truly great teams.

Conley was a star of the first order in the days when Texas football teams were littered with stars. In 1918 he played with "Swede" Swenson, the red-faced giant of a center; and Bud McCallum, former coach of the Wichita Falls High school, who was a halfback on that undefeated eleven. Conley also played with Bib Falk, swell tackle and who also played on the varsity baseball team. Falk is now playing with the Cleveland Indians. The immortal "Grip" Penn was also on the team with Conley.

If the Quanah High school goes right through this district schedule in a breeze and wins the championship, it will be not only the result of great playing by the team and excellent coaching by Dan Stallworth, but also, we venture to say, because of the president of its school board. Conley is a little older now than he was in 1918, but he still plays football in his mind, and he can give the whole school an inspiration to do things in a football way, because he has done some of those things himself.

TIFF FEATURES CLASS B CARD

Burk-Megargel Play District 3 Feature

Football teams in the class B ballwick will be hard put today to erase memories of last week's classic gridiron bouts, but several tussles on the turf promise to resolve into stubbornly contested games well worth watching.

Both districts three and four rose to supreme heights last week in producing Crowell's 7 to 0 victory over Chillicothe and Nocona's 6 to 0 victory over Jacksboro, and a temporary let-down was not unexpected. District No. 3 this week offers nothing of a startling nature, but district No. 4 will offer one and possibly two games that are outstanding.

The headliner appears to be Graham's invasion of Jacksboro. Both lost last week by identical scores, the Steers of Graham losing to Weatherford in a bitter contest, 6 to 0, while Nocona was eking out a similar victory over Jacksboro. A sectional rivalry promises to make the Graham-Jacksboro game an even warmer combat.

Bowie at Nocona

The victorious Nocona Indians will tackle Bowie at Nocona. Nocona is generally favored, but Bowie didn't look bad at all in losing to Bridgeport last week by two touchdowns, and a real battle is expected.

Bridgeport will meet Decatur in a third district four game, and Newcastle will play at Bellevue. A game that will have a bearing on the championship of the district will be waged farther south, when Masonic home of Fort Worth plays Weatherford. Weatherford last year defeated the Masons and won the title in the southern half of the district, which was then divided. Their chances of repeating are regarded as slim this year, however. Masonic home last week trounced Decatur, 66 to 0, while Weatherford was forced to strain every tendon to get a single touchdown over the Graham Steers.

With both Crowell and Archer City unscheduled in conference warfare, and Chillicothe booked to play a light, inexperienced Seymour team that can hardly hope to win, the district three circus today will be relatively tame. The Eagle-Panther game will be played at Seymour, and while the Panthers may be expected to put up all sorts of fight, the Eagles are certain of a relatively easy afternoon. Too, they will not be in any mood to let Seymour do much of anything, after losing to Crowell last week.

Munday at Olney

The Munday Moguls will journey to Olney for their annual beating by the Cubs. The Burkburnett-Megargel game, to be played at Megargel, gives promise of a contest between two evenly matched outfits, and should be a good game from start to finish.

Other schedules for today include:

Grandfield, Okla., at Waurika, Okla.
Duncan, Okla., at Walters, Okla.
Olustee, Okla., at Gould, Okla.
Stamford at Hamlin.
Shamrock at McLean.
Breckenridge at Cisco.
Altus, Okla., at Erick, Okla.

STAMFORD TO PLAY HAMLIN PIED PIPERS

Special to The Record News.

STAMFORD, Texas, Oct. 22.—The Stamford Bulldogs will journey to Hamlin Friday to play the Pied Pipers in the opening conference game for both teams in the eastern half of District 9, class B. The Bulldogs defeated the Rotan Yellowhammers here last Friday 32 to 0. The Pipers were defeated by Colorado in Colorado last Friday. Haskell and Merkel opened the conference in Haskell. The Anson Tigers will go to Merkel for another conference fit this district Friday.

RUE INELLIGIBLE FOR OLNEY TILT TODAY

Special to The Record News.

OLNEY, Texas, Oct. 22.—A muddy field is certain for the Olney-Munday game here Friday when the Cubs go after their second straight win in defense of the championship on account of scholastic difficulties, Rue, regular halfback, will be replaced by Morris or Perkins. Starting lineup will be Gilmore and Wright, ends; Sloan and Ellis, tackles; Brown and Vaughn, guards; Captain O'Brien, center; Graves, quarter; Captain Duckworth and Morris or Perkins, halves; Elmore, fullback.

FLOYDADA PLAYS SILVERTON TODAY

Special to The Record News.

FLOYDADA, Texas, Oct. 22.—The Floydada High Whirlwind football team will meet the Silverton High school eleven on the Floydada gridiron here Friday. Local fans and football officials here do not have much dope on the Silverton eleven but are expecting no easy task in taking them into the fold alongside the other teams the Whirlwinds have conquered this season. Coach Barksdale is keeping his team in tip top shape for the game with Canyon High which will be played at Canyon on Oct. 30. There are several more teams in this part of the district that the Whirlwinds will have to down to cinch the championship of this district but they are marching along confidently to that end and are showing more strength and aggressiveness in each game.

WRESTLERS ON MAT TONIGHT

Gorman and Nenoff in Main Bout

Promotors Bob Connor and C. A. Cardwell last night announced their array of man maulers were on hand and ready to go at the gong tonight in the first wrestling show Wichitans have had the opportunity of seeing in several years.

The bout will be staged in the Mack Thomas building starting at 8:15 o'clock.

Promotor Connor, realizing that his show conflicts with the "Let's Go Athletic" vaudeville and pep rally to be staged tonight for the benefit of the high school athletic fund, reiterated that had he known of plans for the school show earlier he would have arranged for a different date for his wrestling bout, but stated that "the show will go on tonight as planned, whether five or five thousand people are present."

The promotor has agreed to donate 10 per cent of the gate receipts of his first three shows here to the school athletic fund.

Meeting tonight in the main bout are Jack Gorman and Steve Nenoff, the latter wrestling champion of Poland.

NEW YORK COTTON

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (AP)—A steady opening was followed by declines in cotton prices today under a little more southern selling combined with liquidation or reselling by recent buyers.

December contracts, after selling up to 6.81 at the start broke to 6.57 and closed at 6.59, with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 13 to 21 points.

The opening was steady 1 to 3 points higher on some overnight buying orders which appeared to be inspired by the steady showing of yesterday's late market. There was also some buying for the trade, particularly in the near months, but the demand was quite readily supplied by some southern selling and realizing. This continued later in the day and while offerings were not particularly heavy, prices worked gradually lower with reactionary sentiment becoming a little more pronounced in the later trading. It was probably promoted by the action of the stock market and the failure of the decline to bring in more general or aggressive support.

The more reactionary sentiment in evidence was attributed chiefly to a falling off in the volume of demand and disappointment over action of the stock market. A private report was issued placing the ginnings prior to Oct. 18 at 9,506,694 bales indicating an outturn of more than 4,000,000 bales during the last ginning period, which would establish a new high record, for the first ginning period in October. These figures did not attract much comment, apparently but they tended to emphasize increasing supplies in the south, and there may have been some selling on expectations of increased hedging before the end of the week.

Liverpool cables said that hedging had been taken by continental buying and covering in that market. Exports today 11,915, making 1,303,141 so far this season. Port receipts 40,675. U. S. port stocks 4,091,904.

Futures closed barely steady, 13 to 21 points lower. Spot quiet; middling 6.70.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 22. (AP)—Cotton was less active today, but there was a fair volume of trading. Prices, following an irregular opening, turned easier due to a lower opening of stocks and later to hedge selling against purchases of spots. Although this hedging was absorbed by trade buying on the scale down, the close showed net losses for the day of 17 to 24 points. Liverpool is due tomorrow 12 to 15 penny points down on New Orleans.

Liverpool cables came in 1 penny point worse than due and sterling was easier. Private cables stated that although the continent bought, there was covering and hedging and sterling was easier. Manchester cabled that there were fair cloth sales to Egypt and the continent. First trades here showed no change to 1 point advance, but prices turned easier after the start in sympathy with easier stocks and by the end of the first hour December had dropped to 6.71, January to 6.82 and March to 6.99 or 4 to 5 points below the previous close.

A private report issued today made total ginnings to Oct. 18 9,508,694, a total for the last period from Oct. 1 to 18 of 4,096,694 bales, which is confirmed by the census bureau would be the largest for the period on record.

Port receipts 40,675; for week 231,288; for season 2,766,010; last season 3,862,648; exports 6,920; for week 179,168; for season 1,269,085; last season 1,912,100. Port stock 4,113,727; last year 3,377,692; combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 171,282; last year 96,295. Spot sales at southern markets 46,244; last year 50,826.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 22. (INS)—Spots cotton was in a fair demand at the opening today with prices steady. Receipts amounted to 2,000 bales.

Stock Prices Decline While Signs Point Reduction of Short Interest

By BROADAN WALL

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (US)—Stock prices declined today on relatively small turnover. The market was a distinct disappointment to a great many of its friends, but there seemed to be a suggestion that its sponsors were willing to test its internal strength free from untoward manipulative influences. Setback in quotations confirmed the impression that the short interest, usually providing readily an active cushion against wide fluctuations, has been materially reduced in size. Nevertheless, there was no concerted rush to sell, but rather the very thinness of the market exaggerated the net changes, which ran to several points among the more active issues.

M. Laval's arrival, inaugurating a possibly momentous period in the world depression, occasioned no response in the market. The recent upturn had accomplished the purpose of the financial community in demonstrating that the American financial structure was more powerful than the old world had been led to believe under strain of the vicious propaganda so assiduously circulated. As the full import of the potential consequences of the Laval-Hoover conferences gains recognition, there is greater inclination toward awaiting the outcome with an eagerness warranted only by appreciation the results of the international talks may dictate the course of economic trends for the future.

Railroad stocks continued to reflect the disappointment induced by the I. C. C. ruling. In the absence of large-scale offerings of rail shares, however, it was evident that technical conditions were playing a leading role in their weakness. Frightened by the repeated prospects of "early relief" to the carriers, and threats of additional good news to come, few bears have remained short of rail stocks, and with the increase of recent pressure following the I. C. C. report, there has been disclosed a very thin market on the downside.

It is becoming more widely recognized that the main intention of the I. C. C. is to protect the position of railroad bonds, rather than stocks, so that strength among the bonds would be the most encouraging, almost necessary, prelude to sustained advance in railroad stocks. Pending such display of strength in rail bonds, only scale-down buying is taking place in rails.

Particular weakness of New York Central, whose steady decline was a prime factor in unnerving the entire list, was attributed to rather sizeable offerings coming from a prominent bear recently returned from Europe.

Generally speaking, there has been relatively little activity of late among the bigger bears, though some are reported to have been looking at the market with much suspicion. The increased pool activity especially has been noted.

The market lost some of its recently-attractive appearance, but this may have been purposeful, in order to attract short-selling. Lacking incentives from the news, the market must depend for further progress on the upside from a strong technical postion, usually available in an oversold position. The market has now rebounded from the lows and is awaiting the promised additional good news such as the Washington railroad bond-assistance plan, or perhaps favorable developments from the Laval talks. At the moment, complete mystery surrounds M. Laval.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 22. (AP)—Reversing conditions which had prevailed of late, sellers outnumbered buyers in all grain pits today. The wheat market appeared unable to digest freely the immense load of profit taking sales put forward the last week. Besides downturns of securities, together with Russian wheat exports larger than expected gave at least a temporary advantage to bears.

Wheat closed unsettled, ⅝@⅞ cents lower, corn ⅜@⅝c off, oats a shade to ¼@⅜c down, and provisions at 2 to 5 cents advance.

In the face of predictions of a great decrease in Russia's outbound wheat shipments, the trade received a jolt from announcement that the total this week had proved to be an actual increase over last week. The shipments aggregated 4,040,000 bushels, compared with 3,408,000. Meanwhile, North American wheat export business today was too moderate to be much of a market factor, being estimated at but 500,000 bushels, chiefly Canadian.

About the best buying of wheat future deliveries was done on a trade report that for the first time in some years the world's wheat available supplies had fallen below those of the corresponding period of the year previous. An increase of only 165,000 bushels in September was indicated, against 37,293,000 bushels increase in August and 74,818,000 bushels increase a year ago.

Corn and oats receded with wheat. Provisions responded to firmness of hog values.

Closing indemnities: Wheat—Dec. 51⅛@51⅝c, 52⅜@52⅞c; May 56c, 57⅛c; July 56½c, 58c. Corn—Dec. 36c, 36⅝c; May 40½c, 41⅛c; July 43c, offers.

England About Ready To Drop India Parley

LONDON, Oct. 22. (AP)—The British government is reported to have reached the conclusion it would be futile at this time when England is embroiled in domestic problems to attempt to dispose of the problems of India, and that there should be a third all-India round table conference in India early next year.

Mahatma Gandhi and several of the other Indian delegates, discouraged at the lack of progress of the conference now in session, already have made tentative steamer reservations to go back home next month and it is understood that the conference has been practically decided upon.

Shaw Tells Dry Leaders Prohibition Is Mistake

LONDON, Oct. 22. (UP)—George Bernard Shaw told the dignified leaders of a temperance meeting at Caxton hall tonight that prohibition would never be the best remedy for drink.

"I find that the man who drinks lives on forever," he warned the audience of tee-totalers. "Drinkers seem able to preserve themselves in alcohol. Far from dying, they seem to go on soaking and drinking, drinking and soaking."

Having recently flaunted the achievements of Soviet Russia in the faces of capitalists in his radio speeches, Shaw dragged the Communist state into his temperance speech by making a comparison of conditions in the United States under prohibition and in Russia, where there is no prohibition, although restriction of the sale of vodka was once tried unsuccessfully there.

Escaped Convict Goes Back to Prison Today

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 22. (INS)—Declaring he will make no move to fight his return to Georgia, Abe Powers, former member of the Woodward bunco gang and escaped convict from Georgia, is expected to return to Georgia tomorrow in custody of Georgia officers.

Powers still was being held in jail here today following his arrest and identification.

A number of neighbors of Powers, who have lived near him since he came to San Antonio nearly four years ago and began "going straight," last night visited him in the jail.

Limited Sales Tax Seen As U. S. Revenue Source

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22. (US)—Treasury officials are about ready to approve a limited sales tax as the salient feature of a new revenue raising program, it was stated today.

Placing a nominal levy upon semi-luxuries like automobiles, radios and matches, has been selected by tax experts as the best method of providing new income for a sorely depleted federal treasury.

Secretary Mellon is undecided as yet whether he will make a direct recommendation for new tax legislation to the next congress which meets in December.

Spirited Square Dance Marks Close Of Trail Drivers Fete at Vernon

Wilbarger Capital Selected for Next Convention of Association; Business Session Held

VERNON, Texas, Oct. 22.—The 50th anniversary celebration of Wilbarger county's organization passed into history tonight with the central figures of the jubilee, 36 members of the Old Trail Drivers association, taking a final fling to the tunes of half century ago as played by Dr. A. F. Howard's old fiddlers. The square dance was staged in the ballroom of the Wilbarger hotel, scene of the day's activities.

R. L. Castlebury of Vernon, himself a cattleman, entertained the visiting group with a barbecue feast at 7 o'clock at the hotel. The bronzed and grizzled veterans of many drives to northern cattle markets continued to blaze a trail of entertainment which they opened 48 hours ago. The stamina bred of long years cattle driving has not been dimmed by a two-day convention rush of the jubilee here.

This morning's program opened with a business session at which the old trail drivers voted unanimously to hold their next convention in Vernon after meeting for the last 15 years at San Antonio. Two meetings of the group were held in Fort Worth and Houston. The convention here will be the 16th annual meeting and President George W. Saunders said 3,000 trail drivers would attend. The date will be set at an executive meeting in the fall.

Mrs. Bertha Doan Ross of Vernon, daughter of C. F. Doan who gave his name to the last famous crossing on Red river and general chariman of the jubilee program, and her sister, Mrs. Mabel M. Igou, were made honorary members of the association and Mrs. Igou's children Ines, Maurine and John Corwin Igou were made life members. Dr. Howard was voted official musician of the association. The group also passed resolutions definitely establishing the western trail or Fort Griffin-Dodge City trail crossing at Doan's crossing, 15 miles north of this city.

At noon the group was guest of the Vernon Optimist club at the Liberty cafe dining room where Mr. Saunders, Col. M. L. Crimmins, retired U. S. army officer, and Jack Potter of Clayton, N. M., related historical incidents of old West Texas range life.

This afternoon Mr. Saunders called a "powwow" and discussed the definite location of the various historic trails and P. P. Ackley of Elk City, Okla., was introduced. Mr. Ackley is donor of $1,000 toward erection of the monument at the crossing Wednesday and has traveled the cattle trails for the past few years in an intensive effort to secure proper highway markings.

A one-inch downpour which continued at nightfall disrupted the outdoor program planned at the Doans community today.

LEADERS BACK VALLEY PLAN

Development Program Is Launched at Mass Meet

and the Wichita valley is 1,000 miles nearer markets.

Taking up the subject of colonization in his talk, Mr. Kell declared that land must be sold at reasonable prices to colonists. "We must sell land at a price attractive to colonists, so that a man can make his living and raise his family here," he said.

C. H. Clark read a letter from Judge John C. Kay, who was unable to be present. Judge Kay's message said that landowners should organize to sell land to tenant occupants in tracts of not more than 80 acres.

Judge Kay was of the opinion that farmers should own their land. "A farm," it was said, "is an individual thing and can be made a success only by an individual who has nothing else on his mind but his farm." Landowners who do not till the soil cannot make a success of it, it was declared. His letter also expressed the belief that land should be sold at an attractive price.

J. L. Jackson Jr., president of the chamber of commerce, briefly commended the work of the general committee, Mr. Kelly, J. H. Allison, W. L. Hodges, T. J. Pace, J. N. Sherrill, Frank Wolf, A. C. Moline, T. J. Waggoner Jr., and R. B. Gresver, appointed at the original mass meeting. The speaker said that the committee had met as many as four times a week preparing recommendations for the Thursday mass meeting. He expressed the opinion that the plan submitted is the most systematic ever presented in the several years of talk of development of the valley.

He pledged the fullest cooperation of the chamber of commerce.

Melons Win Praise

Mr. Allison read a letter from a representative of the United Fruit Distributing company, which commended the quality of cantaloupes grown here the past season. It was said that the Wichita valley has a decided advantage over the cantaloupe growing sections of California in that labor rates are cheaper, and that freight charges are much less to markets, which are closer to Wichita Falls than the west coast. A better melon can be placed on eastern markets, it was shown, in that cantaloupes can be pulled here at a nearer state of ripeness, because from three to five days less are required for shipments to reach markets.

Mr. Moore discussed climatic conditions here, describing them as ideal for agriculture. He urged that the valley be advertised on a large scale. He declared that much attention was attracted by the Wichita irrigation display at the Dallas fair.

W. D. Johnson, a farmer, expressed the opinion that there are already good farmers in Wichita county. "However," he said, "when bankers loan him money, the bank should let him know that it expects him to milk cows before breakfast and after supper, have chickens, raise feed, and work 365 days a year."

Duties of the several committees named Thursday, as outlined in the general report of the proposed program, are as follows:

Duties Outlined

Executive—Shall be called on order of the general chairman, and shall have full charge of all activities of the organization in an advisory capacity.

Drainage—Shall be to work out the drainage problems of our valley as they arise from time to time.

Marketing—Shall be to investigate all phases of marketing the produce grown in our valley, and to prepare a sound, workable plan or system of operation.

Farm Planning and Organization—Shall be to effect proper organization of our farmers and producers plan the size of farms, recommend the crops to be planted on these farms, assist our farmers in arranging a diversified plan practical for use in this section, and to work out and suggest proper methods of scientific irrigation farming.

Colonization—Shall be to foster and encourage owner operated farms, the bringing of farmers of the better type to our valley, and to assist in every way possible the farmer now located in our valley.

Publicity—Shall be to give favorable publicity to our Wichita Irrigated valley and its products.

Finance—Shall be divided into two groups, (1.) arrange for the necessary funds for the operation of the Wichita Valley Development association, (2.) to work out a financial organization or plan for such financing of farmers in the valley as is necessary or expedient.

Miscellaneous—Shall be to assist in any way possible other committees named.

Further power given the executive committee allows the naming of members and duties of any additional committees which it deems necessary, and also the authority to appoint a secretary and treasurer for the association at such time as it may deem necessary.

Witness Says Dry Agent Made Extortion Attempts

HOUSTON, Oct. 22. (AP)—J. C. Hicks, operator of a cafe, testified in federal court this afternoon in the trial of George H. Wilkins, former federal prohibition agent charged with extortion and bribery, that Wilkins made several attempts to get money from him after he sold the agent a quart of whisky in 1926.

Premier Laval Reaches U. S.

friendliness in press conferences, messages and a speech during a most exacting day.

NEW YORK GIVES GREAT RECEPTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 22. (US)—With great official eclat, Premier Laval, of France, was welcomed to America here today.

At a solemn moment in the world's history, when nations groan in economic misery, the French statesman chose the New York city hall for his first formal utterance.

It was indicated that statement would be his only public address prior to actual conversations with President Hoover.

Styling himself a "messenger of peace," Premier Laval said France's robust prosperity—her stock of gold is second only to this country's—is due to "hard work and ability to save."

France Is "Prudent"

He emphasized that France is "peace loving, but prudent," then warned further:

"Our only desire is peace. But we set great store by our security. Governments and peoples should understand that security cannot be expressed merely in words of hope. It should be organized.

"If France and the United States can agree and unite in an ever-increasing cooperation we may look forward to better things."

This was his only hint that France would desire a pact with the United States that would guarantee France's security as a preliminary to disarmament. Only one of his remarks could possibly be construed as a reference to debt cancellation. This was when he said:

"I know that the American people are capable of generous impulses. Combining their deep sense of reality with their noble idealism they will respond, if necessary, to calls which may reach them from the old world."

Seek Equilibrium

He then advised that France and America seek and apply methods that will restore world equilibrium. He said France is determined to join with America to "ward off the dangers which menace civilization."

Premier Laval's arrival here, accompanied by his charming younger daughter, Mademoiselle Josette, and a corps of official aides, was fully the equal in cordiality to that extended a year ago to Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald.

Cannon boomed in salute (a premier calls for 19 guns) the Macom went down the bay in festive regalia, harbor sirens hoarsely shrieked, and the fire boat John Purroy Mitchel sprayed geysers of water high in the air. The band played "La Marseillaise," and "Madelon," instead of "God Save the King."

If possible, the master of ceremonies, Maj. William F. Deegan, out-Whalened the impeccable Ex-Commissioner Grover Whalen, in seeing to it that the distinguished Frenchman was properly and cordially welcomed.

The morning was beautiful, with the waters of the bay sparkling in bright sunshine, while a cool breeze blew, but not with sufficient violence to disturb the top-hatted welcoming committee.

NEGRO'S TRIAL SET FOR NOV. 9

Judge Grants Venue Change To Graham

draw a special venire of 150 men to try the case.

After the arraignment Thursday morning the state announced it would recall the grand jury and re-indict Brown if the defense persisted in its motion to quash on the ground that no negroes sat on the indicting grand jury.

The question, involving the rights of the negro race under the 14th amendment to the United States constitution, was raised when Johnson and Brown were first called to trial on Monday.

Mr. Taylor agreed to waive the attack on the indictment if the venue change were granted.

The state protested when Judge Montgomery, after ordering the venue change, instructed the prosecutors to give defense attorneys the bullet taken from Nodurft's body and the test bullet used in identifying the gun in the Johnson trial. The defense asked for the exhibits in order to make tests of their own.

Witnesses Called

Carl Kerbow, 124 Henrietta street, was the first witness called by the defense in its venue plea. He said he had heard the case talked about but was not sure the negro could not get a fair trial here.

Joe Carrigan said he was sure a fair trial here was impossible.

H. R. Faubian, Electra oil operator who came from Tennessee, said "his raising" made him favor the death penalty in such a case.

E. T. Wallace, barber, and Gerald Coffey, attorney, thought a fair trial could not be had here.

J. B. Scarbrough, 1401 North Sixth and a former deputy sheriff, said he had heard the case discussed but would not say a fair trial was impossible. C. C. Owens, 2002 Garfield, was of the same opinion.

L. T. Hamlett, reporter for the Times Publishing company, identified newspapers published here since Sept. 9, but said he thought a fair trial possible.

Wichita county commissioners, M. A. Bundy, F. R. Knauth, L. L. Kuntz, and H. H. Haines called for the state, all said they believed Brown could be fairly tried here.

C. H. Smoot, W. E. George, and Jim R. Jones, expressed the same view.

Sheriff Perry Browning said he had taken the negro suspects to Fort Worth as a precaution because he thought there was some feeling against them.

W. P. Timmons, special bailiff, and Mrs. F. H. Hawkins, jail matron who searched spectators as they entered the courtroom during Johnson's trial, said they had found no weapons.

SCOUTS PLAN MOTHERS NIGHT

First Meeting Tonight at Highland Heights Church

Boy Scouts of Wichita Falls will hold their first mothers' night program at the Highland Heights Christian church Friday night at 8 o'clock, according to Frank B. Creighton, scout executive.

The principal purpose of the special meeting, Mr. Creighton said, is to familiarize mothers of scouts more thoroughly with the work that is being done with and for the boys. Efforts also will be made to form a mothers' auxiliary to the organization, it was announced.

Paul Woodward, president of the Scoutmasters association here, and other leaders in scout work, will make short talks Friday night, Mr. Creighton said. Demonstrations of various phases of scout training will be included in the program which has been arranged.

Mr. Creighton expressed regret that the affair has been set for the same date on which the athletic rally is being held at the Memorial auditorium. The date was selected for the mothers night about two months ago however, he said, and could not be changed.

Scoutmasters will hold the annual party for their wives and sweethearts next Tuesday night at the First Presbyterian church, it was announced.

Electra Negro Jailed For Accosting Girls

Charges of aggravated assault and resisting an officer were filed Thursday by County Attorney L. V. Abernathy against a negro brought to the Wichita county jail by Electra officers.

The man was arraigned before Judge Irvin J. Vogel in the county court at law on the assault charge, entered a plea of not guilty, and asked a jury trial. Mr. Abernathy set the hearing for next week.

The defendant was said to have brushed into two white girls on a sidewalk in the residence district of Electra Wednesday night, and to have attempted to engage them in conversation. Apprehended a few minutes later by officers, he resisted arrest, according to the information given.

Negro Women Fined For Resisting Arrest

Two negro women entered pleas of guilty before Judge Irvin J. Vogel in the county court at law Thursday to charges of resisting arrest and drew fines of $1 and costs each.

The two defendants were said to have wrestled recently with an officer who endeavored to arrest a negro man in the same house. The interference permitted the man to escape. He was captured a few moments later..

Two defendants pleaded guilty to the use of narcotics, and each was fined $1 and costs. Two more men offered pleas of guilty to charges of drunkenness, and were given like penalties.

Wichita War Veteran and Russian Bride Reach Japan on Way to Siberia

A Wichita Falls world war veteran and his war bride, a Russian girl, in whom hundreds of local residents and other Texans have taken much interest during the past several years, reached Japan about a month ago en route to Russia, according to a letter received Thursday by Mrs. Orr Bentley, executive secretary of the community chest.

Sam Ham, who served two years in the U. S. army in Russia, and who returned here with his Russian bride soon after the end of the world war, left Wichita Falls last July purposed to reach the Siberian village in which his wife's mother lives.

Despairing, after many years' efforts, of obtaining the mother-in-law's migration to this country, the couple sold their belongings last summer, abandoned their home here, and set out for Russia possessed of $61 and a decrepit automobile of ancient design. The only information received concerning their movements indicated that they had stopped at Seattle, Wash., and obtained mail which awaited them there.

The letter received Thursday was from an American missionary at Harbin, China, a city located near the border line between Northern Manchuria and Siberia. He stated that the Wichita Falls couple was at Kobe, Japan.

During the past several years, many local agencies, Senator Morris Shephard and others exhausted all possible means, Mrs. Bentley said, to make possible the transfer of the elder Russian woman from her native land to the United States. Upon leaving this city, Mr. Ham said that approximately $33 awaited their arrival at Harbin. That amount, he said, remained from remittances which they had made to his wife's mother, but of which part had not been delivered.

The letter from the Harbin missionary, however, advised that a total of $76 had been accumulated there, and was being held for the pair. That sum, it was assumed, will be used by Mr. and Mrs. Ham in traveling from Harbin to the mother's home. Their destination is located several hundred miles northwest of Vladivostok.

Retrial Refused Pair Convicted of Robbery

Judge Allan D. Montgomery Thursday afternoon in the 30th district court overruled a motion for a new trial made by John Davenport on behalf of Jack Burgess and A. H. Michaels, convicted by a jury last week on a charge of robbery by assault and assessed eight years each in the state penitentiary.

Notice of appeal was given by the attorney for the convicted pair.

Burgess and Michaels were tried for the alleged theft of an automobile from the Marchman hotel storage garage on the night of Sept. 10 after having forced the negro attendant to enter the car with them.

FINED FOR GAMING

Eleven white men and one negro paid fines of $1 each plus costs before Justice of the Peace O. L. Gibbs Thursday afternoon following their pleas of guilty to charges of gaming. The even dozen defendants were arrested by members of Sheriff Browning's force Thursday at a house on the Iowa Park road. A lively crap game was said to have been in progress when the officers arrived.
