PARRISH IS SLIGHTLY IMPROVED

CALL FOR STRIKE OF MINERS ON APRIL 1 HAS BEEN SENT OUT

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., March 21.—A formal call for a strike of both anthracite and bituminous coal miners on April 1 was sent out today from the headquarters here of the United Mine Workers of America.

While the call was referred to by union employes as a strike order, it was understood to have provided for a suspension of work in the anthracite field at least pending negotiations. For the bituminous fields, it also was said that the call provided for dumpmen, engineers and others remaining at work after April 1 to protect the mines.

Copies of the call were placed in the mails for delivery to officials of all the union's 3,000 local organizations, scattered throughout the country. The text of the call was not made public here in the absence of all officials of the union.

GOVERNMENT HAS NOT ABANDONED ITS EFFORTS

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The government was stated at the White House today as not having entirely abandoned its attempts to bring bituminous operators and miners together in a conference designed to avert a strike in such fields April 1. The added statement was made that no steps had been taken or results attained which would justify a public announcement.

MINE COMMITTEE STARTS WORK ON ARBITRATION

NEW YORK, March 21.—The anthracite coal owners and miners committee of eight appointed to carry on the negotiations started last week when 35 representatives of labor unions presented to operators' representatives the miners' 19 wage demands will begin official meetings today.

Four representatives of the miners and a like number representing the owners make up the arbitration committee, to which has been entrusted the task of negotiating a new contract. The present contract between workers and operators ends April 1, at which time work in the anthracite mines will cease if a new agreement has not been drafted and accepted by both sides. It is generally conceded that the new agreement will not be ready.

BRIDGEPORT MINERS TO JOIN STRIKE ON APRIL 1

FORT WORTH, March 21.—Three hundred and fifty miners at Bridgeport will strike April 1, following failure to reach a wage agreement, Gus Sparling, executive committeeman for the United Mine Workers for the southwest, announced today. Thus far the Bridgeport workers are the only ones affected in Texas by the national situation as the 2,000 men in the Thurber and Strawn fields have been out a year and an open shop labor situation now exists there. The Newcastle mines are closed.

SAYS IS INTENDED TO BOLSTER UP THE MINERS

CHICAGO, March 21.—Announcement that the coal mine strike orders would be issued today was characterized by Dr. F. C. Honnold, secretary of the Illinois coal operators' association as "just a gesture intended to bolster up the miners' spirits."

MEETING OF MAYORS TO DISCUSS PHONE RATES

FORT WORTH, March 21—Mayors of Dallas, Houston, San Antonio and Fort Worth are in conference here today on the telephone rate situation in Texas and are seeking uniformity of action in fighting the pending advance or any future advance.

It was decided to employ experts to investigate telephones earnings, valuations, expenses, etc., and to report back at another meeting one month from today. If the findings of experts justify it, joint counsel will be employed and the rate right will be taken into the courts.

The place of the next meeting of the mayors will be determined later. Letters will be sent to Waco, Austin and other places where telephone fights are pending, asking that they have representatives at the next meeting.

KNIGHTS OF VISIBLE EMPIRE SECURE AN OKLAHOMA CHARTER

RECENTLY FORMED IN THE HEALDTON FIELD IN CARTER COUNTY.

OUTLINE THE PURPOSE OF THE ORGANIZATION

Among Other Things Proposes "To Disseminate 100 Per Cent Americanism."

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 21.—The Knights of the Visible Empire, an organization formed in the Healdton oil fields in Carter county following the killing of three men recently in a gun fight which resulted from efforts of white robed and masked men to punish an alleged bootlegger, was granted a charter here today by T. J. Kendle, acting secretary of state.

The purpose of the organization as stated in the articles of incorporation is "to disseminate 100 per cent Americanism."

"We believe in the enforcement of all laws by duly constituted authorities, right of free speech, freedom of the press, the right to trial by jury and that every man should be permitted to worship God according to the dictates of his conscience," the articles continued.

Outlining in detail the purpose of the organization the charter sets out the following:

"The maintenance and the promotion of a common brotherhood of American citizens; the establishment of strong fraternal bonds for the recognition of the constituted authorities in government; inculcating the principles of pure Americanism; protection of the weak against the strong; teaching the principle that 'a house divided against itself cannot stand'; discouraging sectional and religious prejudices in government; establishing colleges, library, benevolent, charity, educational and scientific association for the general uplift for the American people and the members of the order."

The names of the incorporators were given as Owen T. Rueger, Cordell, Okla.; Ernest W. Corter, Washington, D. C.; S. C. Moslander, Oklahoma City; E. L. Krumming, Denver, Colorado, and A. A. Weber, Perry, Oklahoma.

ENQUIRE INTO SANITY OF SUBJECT OF SWITZERLAND

NEW YORK, March 21.—August Probst, a subject of Switzerland, was to appear before Federal Judge Knox here today for an inquiry into his sanity. Incidentally it was expected he would give further details of his story that he was seized at the exclusive Rolling Rock club, Ligonier, Pa., and forcibly transported to this city because of his friendship with an unnamed young woman of Pittsburgh.

Officials of the Rolling Rock club denied that Probst was abducted, but were said to have admitted he left Ligonier "under escort." Involved in the case were charges that Probst entered this country as a member of the crew of a trans-Atlantic steamer and had deserted the ship after it docked.

DISTURBANCES CONTINUE IN THE STREETS OF BELFAST

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, March 21.—James Magee was shot by gunmen in Hardings street last night. Military forces sent to the scene met a fusillade of revolver shots under cover of which the assassins escaped. Magee died today.

Many carters failed to report for work today in protest against the lack of protection from snipers.

MAN 63 YEARS OLD ANOTHER VICTIM OF TAR AND FEATHERS

DRAGGED FROM FRONT PORCH AND KNOCKED UNCONSCIOUS.

WIFE KNOCKED DOWN AND SUSTAINS BRUISES

Condition of Man Such That Detectives Could Not Talk to Him About Case.

BEAUMONT, TEXAS, March 21.—As a result of J. A. Pelt, a white man, aged 63, being whipped, tarred and feathered by a band of unmasked men here Monday night, Mayor B. A. Steinhagen declared today a call will be made for rangers to be sent here if it becomes necessary to go to this extreme to quell outlawry in the city.

BEAUMONT, TEXAS, March 21.—Dragged from the front porch of his residence, knocked unconscious with a revolver when he resisted, then carried somewhere in the country, whipped, tarred and feathered, J. A. Pelt, aged 63, formerly of Sour Lake, is suffering from high fever and wounds today. Mrs. Pelt, who was sitting on the front porch with her husband at the time six unmasked men came and demanded that Mr. Pelt accompany them, said she was knocked down and bruised when she clung to her husband.

Mr. Pelt came in some time late in the night. Mrs. Pelt said a man she did not know brought him home. "They almost murdered him," she said. "He has a deep gash in his head. His body is lashed by whip wounds and he has a high fever."

Mrs. Pelt said she had seen two of the men in Beaumont, but did not know them. She denied that she told neighbors Monday night before her husband's return that she knew every one of them by name.

"We left Sour Lake because they made life miserable for us. We have been warned to leave here," she said.

Asked why her husband was taken by the men, Mrs. Pelt said they had no reason to take him. She said she was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Brezendine of Hardin county and Deputy Red Wallace of Jefferson county last Friday and taken to Kountze, where she made bail in four cases of alleged illegal practice. She said grand jury indictments against her in the same county had been quashed.

Mr. Pelt was in such condition, Mrs. Pelt said, that detectives could not talk to him today. She said she had not spoken ten words to him herself.

MAN IS KILLED IN EFFORT TO PROTECT MAN FROM A MOB

NASHVILLE, ARK., March 21.—Police today were searching for masked men who late yesterday shot and killed Walter Gibbs, 25 years old, as he attempted to protect Joel Harris, about 60, who was taken outside of town and whipped severely after the killing of Gibbs.

According to testimony of Mrs. Gibbs at a coroner's inquest today, Harris was a visitor at the Gibbs home when eight or ten masked men came and demanded that he accompany them. Her husband, she said, closed and locked the door, obtaining a shotgun and fired one shot through the door. The men, she said, then opened fire through the door with pistols. One bullet struck Gibbs in the abdomen, and he died 20 minutes later. The band then seized Harris, whipped him and ordered him to leave town. He left immediately.

CLARENDON FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION APPROVED

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Senator Sheppard has been advised that the treasury department has approved organization of the Clarendon (Texas) Farm Loan association, with capital of $47,100.

SITUATION ON THE ULSTER-FREE STATE BORDER IS SERIOUS

By Associated Press.

DUBLIN, March 21.—A special meeting of the dail eireann cabinet has been called for tonight to consider the situation in Belfast and along the Ulster-free state border. Messages from the northern frontier indicate that both sides are perfecting war arrangements.

By Associated Press.

BELFAST, March 21.—The situation along the Ulster-free state border was still tense today. Firing lasting two hours was renewed this morning from the free state side of the frontier between Aughnacloy and Caledon.

The border portion is admittedly disquieting to the authorities here as the absence of telephone communication through Clogher Valley is causing anxiety.

Five houses have been burned in the vicinity of Omagh, capital of County Tyrone.

Dallas Judge Scores Flogging Parties and Says They Must Stop

TO TAKE UP BONUS UNDER SUSPENSION OF RULES THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The soldiers bonus bill will be taken up by the house Thursday under suspension of the rules under a plan agreed upon today at a conference between Speaker Gillett and Chairman Campbell of the rules committee.

The speaker, it was said, has agreed to entertain a motion to suspend the rules. Mr. Campbell said he would call a meeting of his committee tomorrow morning at which he will ask committee members to report a rule designating Thursday as suspension day with a proviso that four hours debate on the bill shall be provided.

Under this procedure two-thirds majority would be necessary to pass the bill. No amendments would be permitted nor would it be possible to make a motion to recommit the measure to the ways and means committee.

Those in charge of the legislation were confident that it would receive more than the two-thirds majority. They expected the vote to come before adjournment Thursday after two hours of discussion on each side.

The rule will have to be agreed to by a majority vote in the house. Proponents of the bonus legislation were confident that both majorities could be obtained.

SPEAKER GILLETT EXPECTED TO MAKE EARLY DECISION

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Speaker Gillett was expected to give a final decision today as to whether he would entertain a motion to bring up the compromise soldiers bonus bill in the house this week under a suspension of the rules. Republican leaders in charge of the legislation still intended to handle it in that way if possible in order to shut off a motion to recommit the bill as well as amendments.

Although no decision was reached at the speaker's conference with house leaders late yesterday as to procedure, there resulted at least a tacit agreement to take the bill up on Thursday and should Speaker Gillett adhere to his position regarding suspension of the rules the measure would have to be sought up then under a special rule. There would probably be not more than several hours of debate under either procedure which would bring a vote that day. Under a special rule even if amendments were shut off a motion to recommit would be in order and democrats in that event are prepared to move to recommit with instructions to replace the loan provision of the bill with its original cash payment feature. If such a motion prevailed it would reopen the whole question of financing the bonds.

Speaker Gillett was to confer further on the matter today with representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican leader; Chairman Campbell of the rules committee and probably one or two other leaders.

ARGUE AUSTIN CASE BEFORE STATE COURT CRIMINAL APPEALS

AUSTIN, March 21.—The cases of ex-atty J. D. Copeland and F. G. Reynolds will be argued before the court of criminal appeals at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Copeland, Austin police commissioner, and Reynolds, clerk of a local fraternal organization, seek to have the judgment of the district criminal court adjudging them to be in contempt for refusing to answer grand jury questions about the Ku Klux Klan, set aside.

Argument is expected to take all of the afternoon. Decision of the appeal court is not expected until at least a week from tomorrow, if not later. The court meets on Wednesday and hand down opinions and decisions.

Copeland and Reynolds were fined $100 each and sentenced to jail until they would answer the questions of the grand jury. They were released on bond on application for habeas corpus writ.

FRENCH TROOPS ARE TO REPLACE THE AMERICAN SOLDIERS ON THE RHINE

By Associated Press.

PARIS, March 21.—The American troops on the Rhine who have been ordered withdrawn will be replaced in the Coblenz bridgehead by the French who now occupy the sectors on both sides of Coblenz.

The French government, it is assumed, will be notified of the withdrawal through the Rhine commission, all such information having thus far come by that channel through Major General Henry T. Allen, the American commander.

The only consequence foreseen in official circles here is a possible interpretation of the move by the Germans that it is a showing of disapprobation of the allied policies.

DALLAS, March 21.—Without regard to the social standing or the connection of parties who whipped F. H. Etheredge here last night, the grand jury must return indictments against those responsible "for this outrage" when the proper evidence is submitted, Judge C. A. Pippen charged the Dallas county grand jury today. "It makes no difference whether it was five men, whether it was the Ku Klux Klan or some other organization, you must not falter in your plain duties," Judge Pippen declared.

"These floggings must be stopped."

J. L. Fly, a juror, told the court "we will do our duty" and added that in another recent case called to the attention of the jury indictments would have been returned "if one iota of evidence to justify them had been turned in to this body."

Judge Pippen said in part:

"In the interest of society and the people of the community particularly, I want this literal outrage to be thoroughly probed. The men engaged in these floggings are engaged in an effort to tear down society, to destroy law and bring the constitution into disrepute. I know but little of the case, but whoever the men are, I want you to return indictments against them.

"I had rather be murdered than to know I must live in a country where whippings of this kind are countenanced. Their actions are worse than murder, because they humiliate for life men who possibly do not fear death, but do fear lasting humiliation.

"There will be no stop to these outrages unless the juries and the courts stop them. They are bringing this country to anarchy. Every man has his enemies. What if your enemies were to enter into a 'frame up' against you? It is entirely possible.

"I want you to leave your minds open and not jump to conclusions. Return your bills on the evidence submitted to you. And it is my opinion if you do nothing but bring to some kind of reasonable conclusion this last outrage through your investigations, you will have done your worthy work."

The grand jury expected to take up the case this afternoon, it was said.

OFFER $1,000 REWARD FOR ARREST AND CONVICTION

DALLAS, March 21.—Dallas Klan No. 66, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, in a letter to Mayor S. R. Aldredge today authorized a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of any of the men who last night flogged F. H. Etheredge, a local lumberman. In the letter the "Cyclops" of the local klan said his organization does not endorse any lawless act by any one and pledged its assistance in running down the "hoodlums who committed this act."

NEW TRIAL OF THE OBENCHAIN CASE IS SET FOR JUNE FIFTH

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—The retrial of Madalynne Obenchain, charged with the murder of J. Belton Kennedy, her sweetheart, in Beverly Glen, near here on the night of August 1, last, will commence June 5. It was set today. The first trial of Mrs. Obenchain resulted in a disagreement of the jury.

COURT CONSIDERS DATE FOR RETRIAL OF THE CASE

LOS ANGELES, March 21.—Whether the second trials of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch, jointly indicted for the murder of her sweetheart, J. Belton Kennedy, would be held jointly or separately was expected to be decided in the superior court here today.

Each has been tried once separately and in each case the jury disagreed. Burch's second trial is set to begin March 27 and today has been fixed as the time for setting the second trial of Mrs. Obenchain.

Announcement from the district attorney's office is that the state will move that the second trials be held jointly.

What attitude the defense will take has not been indicated, but it fought against such a procedure before either trial was held and won.

It was stated the district attorney's office had begun an investigation of the disagreement Sunday in the case of Mrs. Obenchain after three of the jurors had reported that three others who had voted for her acquittal while nine favored conviction, had refused to listen to any arguments in the jury room.

In this connection it was announced a prominent Los Angeles minister would be summoned to the district attorney's office today to tell what he might know of a report he had had conversations with one of the women on the jury and offered prayers for her guidance. The same woman was said to have met and talked with Ralph R. Obenchain, former husband and present counsel for the defendants in the course of the trial.

It was further reported that the same woman had expressed the belief that "Burch was guilty but Mrs. Obenchain was not."

APPOINT W. P. CAGLE MAYOR OF CLARENDON

CLARENDON, TEXAS, March 21.—W. P. Cagle has been appointed mayor by the city commission to fill the unexpired term of A. W. McLean, former mayor, who died in Amarillo last week.

LLOYD GEORGE WILL MAKE A DEMAND FOR VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

TWO VERSIONS SUGGESTED AS TO HOW THE REQUEST WILL BE MADE.

MAY VOTE ON MISSION TO GENOA CONFERENCE

Otherwise Is Expected to Ask Ratification of Unionist Leader's Recent Utterances.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 21.—Prime Minister Lloyd George will resume his place in the house of commons April 3 and will immediately ask for a vote on the government's policy regarding the Genoa economic conference, Austen Chamberlain, government leader, announced in the house this afternoon.

Mr. Chamberlain added that the government intended to put a motion clearly raising the question as to whether it possessed the confidence of the house. "The whole house will recognize," he said, "that it would be impossible for us to ask the premier to go to Genoa if there were any doubt about his authority."

DETERMINED TO ASK FOR VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

LONDON, March 21.—Prime Minister Lloyd George is determined to ask for a vote of confidence, all the morning papers agree. There are two stories, however, as to how the demand will be made.

The first version, presented by the Times, is that Mr. Lloyd George is sending a message to Austen Chamberlain, asking ratification of the unionist leader's recent assurances of support either by a unionist party meeting or in the house of commons. The premier, if it is said, will be satisfied with either alternative, but if both are rejected his threat to resign will be expected to be fulfilled.

The Daily Mail concurring in this version says Lloyd George's intention seems to be to get a vote of confidence in his mission to the Genoa conference and if he receives it to treat it as confidence in his leadership of the coalition. The newspaper, however, believes that his threat of resignation was only a bluff, intends to drive the insurgents out of the party, leaving him to consolidate what was left of the coalition.

The other story ignores the report of the premier's insistence upon the support of the unionists and says that next week he will submit to the house of commons a motion in favor of the Genoa conference and action on his speech supporting the motion, according to this version, will not necessarily be deemed a vote of confidence, but a strengthening of the premier's position as the British representative at Genoa.

PLAN TO ADJUST THE DIFFERENCES IN THE APPROPRIATION BILL

WASHINGTON, March 21.—A difference of $63,309,000 in the amount of the postoffice appropriation bill as passed by the senate and house remained to be adjusted today between the two bodies.

Of the increase approved by the senate in passing the bill late yesterday after a warm debate occasioned by several of its provisions, $50,000,000 is for federal highway aid. The bill also carried provisions for restoring to service the New York pneumatic mail tubes and for continuing the New York to San Francisco air mail service.

An amendment increasing the number of postal inspectors from 420 to 520 was one of the storm centers of debate on the bill. Following a charge by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, that the purpose of the increase was to make more places for republicans, the discussion ranged into the subject of postmaster appointments and culminated in the introduction of a resolution by the Mississippi senator calling on the president to supply the senate with the number of executive orders he has issued removing postoffices from civil service classification. The resolution went over under the rules.

SCAFFOLDS TAKE THE PLACE OF SIDEWALKS ACCOUNT HIGH WATER

HICKMAN, KY., March 21.—Scaffolds took the place of sidewalks along the main business streets of Hickman today due to the fact that backwaters of the Mississippi river inundated the stores on one side of the street. Scaffolds also were erected in some of the stores and there is no interruption in business.

ATTEMPT MADE TO ASSASSINATE CHINESE MINISTER TO FRANCE

PARIS, March 21.—An attempt was made today to assassinate Mr. Chen Lu, Chinese minister to France. Four shots were fired at him by a Chinese youth, none of which, however, took effect. Mr. Tsan-Gow, a Chinese engineer, who was accompanying the minister, was wounded in the head.

CONSCIOUS SINCE MIDNIGHT AND HAS A RESTFUL NIGHT, IS REPORT; CONDITION IS NOW ENCOURAGING

The splendid physique and unusual resisting powers of Lucian W. Parrish are serving him so well in his grim battle against the infection which followed his automobile accident of last Wednesday night that there was hope Tuesday morning that he would win out.

"There has been a continued improvement in Mr. Parrish's condition during the night," said a bulletin issued at 9 a. m. "He has been conscious since midnight and has had a restful night. While his condition is still serious, there is sufficient improvement to warrant encouragement."

This bulletin, signed by Doctors Lee, Stripling, McBride, Jones and Kiel, taken with the fact that the congressman had survived the night, was cheering alike to the watchers at the bedside and to the countless friends who were asking eagerly for news Tuesday morning.

At 3 p. m. it was stated that Parrish's temperature was 102, three degrees lower than on Monday, and that he had spent a very restful day. There had been little change, at that hour, since 9 a. m., but such change as was noted was for the better. It cannot be said, however, that the chances for Mr. Parrish's recover are as yet even, and he is of course very far from being out of danger.

Physicians agreed that the patient's great strength had been a vital factor in combatting the infection. Few men can boast of a finer physique than Mr. Parrish, and the years of vigorous and abstemious habits gave him stamina that was priceless in the struggle of the past 36 hours.

A slight turn for the better was noted at 4:30 p. m. Monday and late in the day, at a time when rumors that the illness had resulted fatally were current, there was a definite, though mild, improvement. This improvement continued, hour by hour, with the temperature gradually dropping, with a restful night materially bettering the chances of recovery.

Mrs. Parrish has been almost constantly by her husband's bedside and, although suffering somewhat from the strain, was bearing up well Tuesday. Late Monday she gave evidences of collapse, but soon recovered. A room has been provided for her at the hospital.

CHARGE OF SECRET UNDERSTANDING IS DENIED BY HUGHES

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Secretary Hughes today sent a letter to Senator Lodge of Massachusetts republican senate leader, denying charges made yesterday in the senate that a "secret understanding" was entered into by the United States and Great Britain during the arms conference as to future action in the Pacific.

EXAMINING TRIAL IS WAIVED BY DR. SHIREY

AUSTIN, March 21.—Dr. Guy O. Shirey, former Texas state commander of the American legion, today waived examining trial for the charge of embezzlement of trust funds over $50 instituted against him here. He was ordered bound over to the grand jury by Justice of the Peace M. M. Johnson, bail being set at $1,000. Shirey was not present in the court room. The agreement was made over the telephone yesterday.

MANY INSECTS APPEAR DURING STORM IN ALPS

GENEVA, March 21.—During a heavy snowstorm in the Alps recently thousands of exotic insects resembling soldiers, caterpillars and huge ants fell on the slopes and quickly died.

Local naturalists are unable to explain the phenomenon but one theory is that the insects were blown in on the wind from a warmer climate.

POOLING PLAN IS BIG ISSUE BEFORE GRAIN PRODUCERS

CHICAGO, March 21.—A warm fight over the 100 per cent pooling issue was anticipated as the first annual convention of the U. S. Grain Growers Inc., a co-operative farmers' marketing organization, got under way today.

While some members of the board of directors were quoted as saying the 100 per cent pool plan was a dead issue, others were known to favor it and in some quarters it was expected pooling would be one of the principal questions before the gathering.

Upon the outcome of the pooling issue, it was indicated, depended the possible amalgamation with other co-operative marketing agencies, many of which are committed to 100 per cent pool with the American wheat growers associated, just organized, to operate on this plan in ten states.

Among those known to be in favor of pooling is George C. Jewett of Portland, Ore., general manager of the northwest wheat growers association. Voting strength in the convention, however, will depend on the number of members in the territory each delegate represents and the U. S. Grain Growers has virtually no organization in the northwest, where the northwest wheat growers, a 100 per cent pooling organization, already is in operation.

PETITION TO GOVERNOR TO COMMUTE SENTENCE HAS 6548 SIGNATURES

AUSTIN, March 21.—A total of 6,548 names are signed to a petition presented to Governor Neff this morning seeking to have the death penalty of George F. Hornsby from Bell county commuted to life imprisonment. He is sentenced to hang at Belton on April 14, following conviction for murder of J. M. Weatherby of Bro.nwood in October, 1920. The case was tried in Bell county on a change of venue. The petition was presented by Judge Sam D. Snodgrass.

YOUNG DODGE AGAIN BEFORE THE COURTS

Charged With Driving An Automobile While In Intoxicated Condition.

KALAMAZOO, MICH., March 21.—The case of John Duval Dodge of Detroit in which the young millionaire is charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated was on the municipal court docket here today. The charges grew out of a midnight joy ride March 11 when Dodge and Rex Earl of Kalamazoo invited three young women into their machine and one of the girls, Miss Emmeline Kwakernack, becoming alarmed leaped from the car and injured her head. Earl was convicted of drunkenness last Friday.

To eliminate preliminary delays in Dodge's trial a jury was selected yesterday and the defendant's arrival last night from Detroit where he had just completed serving a five-day sentence for speeding found everything in readiness.

Long before the hour set for the opening of the case hundreds of persons eager to gain admittance to the courtroom gathered about the central police station.

After the present case is disposed of, Dodge is to face a charge of illegally transporting liquor, the officers who arrested him declaring liquor was found in his machine.

REPUBLICAN LEAD IN THIRD MAINE DISTRICT IS GREATLY REDUCED

AUGUSTA, MAINE, March 21.—Republicans retain their hold of the third Maine congressional district but by a margin greatly reduced from the record republican vote of 1920.

With only 56 small places missing returns today from the special election yesterday showed that John E. Nelson, republican, was elected over Ernest L. McLean, democrat, by a majority of 6,294 votes.

Nelson will fill the unexpired term of John A. Peters, who resigned to become a federal district judge. In 1910, Peters' majority was 19,257 votes. In 1918, Peters won by 5,363 votes, in 1916 by 3,654 votes and in 1914 by 1,515 votes.

REPUBLICANS SUCCEED DEMOCRATS ON COUNCIL

OLD TOWN, MAINE, March 21.—Edward B. Marks, who has served six terms as mayor of this city, his last in 1909, was elected yesterday to succeed Mayor Stephens, democrat. His majority over Howard C. Smith, democrat, was 243 votes. The democratic majority last year was 227. Six of the 10 aldermen elected are republicans, as against a solidly democratic board last year.

DENY PROSECUTION ANOTHER CHALLENGE IN ARBUCKLE CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—Judge Harold Loudermilk denied today the prosecution's motion to be allowed to challenge peremptorily Juror Edward W. Brown in the third manslaughter trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle. The jury was sworn in last week. The motion was made yesterday prior to the selection of a second alternate juror on the ground that Brown was hostile to the district attorney.

PRINCE OF WALES HAS REACHED COLOMBO, CEYLON

COLOMBO, CEYLON, March 21.—The British battle cruiser Renown with the Prince of Wales aboard arrived here today.

YOUNG COUNTY WELL MAKES 4000 BARRELS; IN A NEW TERRITORY

SOUTH BEND, TEXAS, March 21.—There is great excitement in Oil City and South Bend over the bringing in of a 4,000 barrel well early this morning in new territory a mile and three quarters southeast of Oil City and a third of a mile east of the old Oil City-South Bend road. It is a pure wild cat and is owned by the Raico company. It is located in the northeast corner of the south 100 acres of the J. E. Rogers survey and is almost down to the Palo Pinto county line. The oil was found at a depth of 3750 feet in a grey lime. The well is shooting a stream of oil from the five-inch hole to the crown block.

MOST OF PACIFIC FLEET IN SAN DIEGO HARBOR

SAN DIEGO, CAL., March 21.—One hundred and twenty-five warships and auxiliaries, said to be the largest number ever at an American port in peace time, were in San Diego harbor today.

The armada comprises virtually three-fourths of the ships attached to the Pacific fleet.

COMPLETE JURY IN TEX RICKARD CASE, A RECESS IS TAKEN

NEW YORK, March 21.—Selection of a jury to try Tex Rickard on a charge that the widely known sport promoter had criminally assaulted Sarah Schoenfeld, 15, was completed this morning. Court then was adjourned until the middle of the afternoon in tribute to the memory of Supreme Court Justice Hotchkiss, whose funeral takes place today. Rickard who has been locked up in the Tombs during his trial entered the court room after having spent the night with Alfred E. Lindsay, alleged swindler of society women, as a cell mate.

Yesterday's announcement that no women would be admitted unless they had been subpoenaed, thinned today's crowd materially.

DEFENDS OPERATORS WHO DO NOT ENTER WAGE CONFERENCE

SPEAKER ASKS AUDIENCE FOR A "FAIR FIGHT TO A FINISH."

CHARGES DEEP SEATED DISORDER RESPONSIBLE

Declares Mine Owners Are Not Controlled By "Mere Madness" In Their Action.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Coal operators who face the prospect of a strike of their employes April 1, but who still refuse to enter national conference with the coal miners' union, are not controlled by "mere madness, but a determination to cure a deep seated disorder," George H. Cushing, managing director of the American Wholesale Coal association, declared today in an address before the Washington City club.

Federal court indictments which have charged operators of union mines with conspiring with the miners' union in endeavors to fix coal prices and damage non-union coal mines were held by Mr. Cushing as largely responsible for the unwillingness of the coal operators to confer.

Mr. Cushing declared wages must come down in the mines, was illustrated "by the amazing fact that under the present scale a practical miner can earn fully $5,000 a year, though the miners know that they dare not earn all the scale allows."

"They know that if the public should realize how much a practical miner may earn," Mr. Cushing added, "the people would refuse to pay the price for coal which such a wage scale fixes. They know that quickly their rate would be cut. Labor is not striking against the coal operators, the railroad managers or the manufacturer; it is striking against the public. The public does not know to what extent the mine payroll has been padded. It does know that it is compelled to pay a price for coal to which it rebels. The coal operator stands at a point where he must see the cause on one side and the effect on the other. He has to turn about and fight. He has decided to strike at the real cause and he is going into this wage battle to clean the mines of the shirkers and payroll padders."

Mr. Cushing asked his audience to "let it be a fair fight to a finish," and to refrain from "prodding the government until it steps in."

DR. WIEDFELDT IS NEW AMBASSADOR GERMANY TO U. S.

By Associated Press.

BERLIN, March 21.—Dr. Otto Ludwig Wiedfelt has been appointed German ambassador to the United States.

Dr. Wiedfelt will fill the post which has been vacant since February, 1917, when Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff left Washington prior to the declaration of a state of war between the United States and Germany. Since the resumption of normal relations between the two countries the question of naming a new ambassador has been one of the knottiest problems confronting the German government. In addition to diplomatic experience, it was necessary that the incumbent could be wealthy as the exceedingly low value of the German mark will place him at a financial disadvantage in the American capital.

Berlin dispatches to the Associated Press for the last few days have forecast the appointment of Dr. Wiedfelt, who is 58 years of age and one of the foremost German industrialists and economists. He is reported to have been released from his position at the head of the directorate of the great Krupp works so that he might accept the post.

Dr. Wiedfeldt is reputed to be one of the wealthiest Germans of the present day. He is an experienced diplomatist, having for years occupied important positions in the German home office. He also spent about four years in the far east as consulting expert to the Japanese government in connection with the organization of its railway system. On his return to Germany from Japan shortly before the world war he spent three months traveling in the United States.

WOMAN GIVES LIFE TO SAVE PET CANARY BIRD

PERKELEY, CAL., March 21.—Mrs. Anna Wilson, 67, is dead at her home here today. She gave her life to save her pet canary bird from a fire. An overheated stove set fire to her dress while she was between the stove and the bird cage. She attempted to remove the bird to a safe place and succeeded, but was overcome by the flames.

DALLAS BUSINESS MAN IS WHIPPED OFFER A REWARD

DALLAS, March 21.—City and county officials today commenced a thorough investigation into the whipping last night of F. H. Etheridge, manager of a local lumber company, by a party of unmasked men. Etheridge was taken from his home by force after his 17 year old daughter had been knocked down, and severely beaten under threat not to report the occurrence to the police.

Early this morning Mayor Sawnie Aldredge and a party of officers went into the country to the spot where Etheridge was beaten to pick up a fresh scent. After Etheridge was treated for his injuries at the emergency hospital, he was taken before the police. The mayor, although confined with illness at home, came down immediately and offered a $500 reward for the arrest of the assailants.

Fire and Police Commissioner Louis S. Turney today took charge of the case.

Etheridge was threatened with death if he told police of the whipping, he said.

"I was at home about 8:00 o'clock when there was a call for me at the door. Two or three men were on the porch. One of them told me I was wanted at the sheriff's office and then they grabbed me.

"I told them they were a bunch of roughnecks and hijackers. I called for help and we fought all over my front yard and I was knocked down. Five of them took me in their car. In the country several other men joined us, with handkerchiefs over their faces. I received a sermon and 25 lashes.

"I don't know why they whipped me."

AT WORK AS USUAL BUT SORE FROM THE LASHES

DALLAS, March 21.—F. H. Etheridge, manager of a local lumber yard who was flogged by a band of unmasked men last night was at work as usual at his place of business this morning. He said he was stiff and sore from 25 lashes administered by his assailants who seized him in his home after he had offered strenuous resistance and in which he was assisted by his 17-year-old daughter. While city and county officers were working on the case, no arrests were in prospect so far as known.

Mayor Aldredge who offered $500 reward for arrest and conviction of any member of the gang of floggers said every policeman in the city was working on the case. "These floggings are an outrage and must be stopped," the mayor said. Officers have been assigned to guard the Etheridge residence, one of the prettiest in an exclusive section. The sheriff and county attorney also assigned officers to make an inquiry and it was said Etheridge would go before the grand jury today.

Etheridge said he wanted to see the gang arrested and would assist in every manner possible. "I would like especially to see the man jailed who struck my daughter Margaret on the head with a pistol when she tried to help me," he said. "The fellow whose ears I pulled is doubtless marked and should be easily recognized if caught."

LONDON NEWSPAPER EMPHASIZES DANGER OF IRISH SITUATION

By Associated Press.

LONDON, March 21.—The dangers of the situation in Ireland are emphasized by the morning newspapers, several of which take the view that little more will be needed to start actual civil war. Sniping between the entrenched forces on either side of the Ulster border has been going on for several days and yesterday machine guns were reported to have been brought into action. Meanwhile disturbances continue throughout the six-county area of Ulster.

Reports of murders, incendiarism and other outrages in the northern districts where the tension between the protestants and catholics is most severe, take much space in the newspapers. The violent denunciations of each faction against the other suggest that apportionment of the blame in numerous instances is difficult and perhaps impossible to decide, but they show the fierce state of factional feeling which dangerously threatens the general peace.

REVIVES THE PRE-WAR FREE LUNCH COUNTER WITH THE TRIMMINGS

NEW YORK, March 21.—Joseph Zettled, 52, today awaited grand jury action on charges that he violated the Volstead law and resuscitated the pre-war free lunch counter.

Police officers who invaded his apartment yesterday claim to have found a familiar brass rail before a length of mahogany with a table standing to one side heavily laden with bologna slices, boiled ham, corned beef, rye bread and the indispensable and now neutral pretzel. Moreover, they were claimed with two drinks of whiskey at a total cost of 25 cents, upon payment of which they were invited to participate in the free lunch.

South Sea Style Dances Get Eight Before the Judge

NEW YORK, March 21.—Dances in South seas style in which young women appear in costumes of straw and a few beads are frowned upon by the New York police. From a restaurant early today four dancers, the manager of the restaurant, the head waiter and two waiters were hauled off to a station house.

The place was visited a few nights ago by members of the evening clothes section of the police force, who declared they had paid $6.25 for half a pint of whiskey and $2 for a bottle of ginger ale. When they went to the restaurant to serve a warrant for illegal sale of liquor, they ran into the South seas dance.

OBSEQUIES OF FOUR OF HISTORIC BATTLESHIPS TO BE HELD THIS WEEK

PHILADELPHIA, March 21.—Without ostentation the obsequies of four historic battleships will be held this week. The Maine, Missouri, Wisconsin and the cruiser Columbia, recently purchased as junk by a local firm, will be towed from the Philadelphia navy yard to a last resting place in the Delaware river. They will be scrapped, their armor and big guns melted and recast into the needs of peace.

The Maine was launched in 1901 at a cost of $3,000,000. The other three ships were of the same type and cost about the same amount. As junk they brought less than $100,000 each.

GEN. SEMINOFF DENIES CHARGE MADE THAT HE IS NOT LEGALLY MARRIED

VANCOUVER, B. C., March 21.—General Gregory Semenoff, Siberian Cossack leader, has denied before United States immigration officers the charge that he is not legally married to Madame Semenoff, who accompanied him on his mission to the United States and Europe. This became known today in the course of developments in the investigation which the United States immigration department is conducting into the fitness of General Semenoff to enter the United States in search of financial assistance for the new Siberian regime.

When confronted with his story that his former wife had turned up in Japan claiming to be his legal wife Semenoff stated that he was divorced some years ago from the wife in question.

DRAMATIC SCENES TUESDAY MORNING AT M. E. CHURCH

OLD FASHIONED METHODIST SHOUTING AS BISHOP MOUZON SPEAKS.

MANY COME FORWARD BEFORE CALL IS MADE

Twenty Visiting Methodist Ministers Attend and Are Guests at Luncheon.

Another large congregation gathered at Floral Heights Methodist church Tuesday morning at 10:00 o'clock, perhaps the largest weekday congregation of the entire meeting. The service took on the nature very largely of a Methodist conference, there being so many ministers present. Bishop Mouzon requested Dr. Groseclose, before the meetings began, to invite as many ministers from over the district as possible to spend some time at the meeting. There were about 20 of them present Tuesday.

The service was unusual as was manifested by the fact that before the call was made persons began to come forward. There were also old fashioned Methodist shouts heard over the building. The bishop spoke on the subject, "The Secret of a Quiet Heart," from the 14th chapter of St. John. By request Mr. Richardson sang "In the Garden." The song was greatly enjoyed and prepared the congregation for the soulful message which followed. The message was, in part:

"I will not say that we talk too much about this world, but I will say that we do not think and talk enough about the other world. We Christians are charged with being too other-worldly. I think we ought to turn that sentence around and say that we are not otherworldly enough but too this-worldly. Contrast the closing words of Socrates and Jesus, when bidding farewell to their disciples. When Socrates was bidding his disciples good bye, he said, 'The hour of my departure has arrived. I go to die and you to live. Whether is better God only knows. Would we could more securely sail upon a stronger vessel and a sure divine word.' Jesus said, 'Let not your heart be troubled, ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, that where I am you may be also.' These are the most beautiful words that ever rang their sweet peal across the centuries. He said literally, 'Believe in God, also in me believe.' That brings quiet to the troubled heart. We must find God in Christ, either God in Christ or no God at all. Eternal life is more than length of days, it is quality of life, and Jesus revealed it to us in His own life," and He came down from above.

"What does He mean by my Father's House? This verse had better be translated: In my Father's house are many abiding places. The universe is my Father's house. This earth is one of His abiding places, and when I go from this I will go to another. Jesus has gone to get a room ready for me where I may dwell with God forever. I will not lose my sense when I die, but will recognize my friends in heaven. Physical friendship is temporal but spiritual kinship is eternal. Knowledge of the certainty of the way gives the quiet heart."

The bishop will speak Tuesday night at 7:45 on the subject "The Immortality of the Soul." This will be one of the great themes of the series and it is expected to have an overflowing congregation. The ladies of the Floral Heights church gave a luncheon at noon Tuesday to Bishop and Mrs. Mouzon and the visiting ministers and their wives.

KENTUCKIAN TO BE NEW PASTOR OF PRESBYTERIANS

Officers of the Central Presbyterian church have been notified of the acceptance of the church's call to the pastorate here of Dr. James E. Green, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Danville, Ky., and of Dr. Green's intention of preaching the Easter morning sermon at this new charge.

Members and officers of the Central church, which has been without a pastor for the past year, are very much gratified at Dr. Green's decision to accept the call, and are making preparations to receive their new pastor and his family, who will follow him at the close of school. The occasion of his acquaintance with the local congregation was during his stop-over here two months ago on a business trip, when he preached a morning and evening sermon at the church. He was the guest at that time of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Goodner, and renewed his friendship with Judge and Mrs. A. H. Carrigan, whose home place in Arkansas adjoined his own for a number of years while he was connected with the military academy in Booneville. While a visitor at the teachers' banquet at Kemp hotel Judge Carrigan, who was toastmaster on that occasion, called on him for a few remarks, his talk and bearing making a distinctly favorable impression on the hundred or more school people and visitors.

Dr. Green's family is comprised of Mrs. Green and two children, a son and daughter. The son graduates this coming June at Centre college, where his literary and musical gifts have won him much distinction. The daughter, who is 14 or 15, will attend the high school here.

Dr. Green will arrive on Saturday, March 8, and will be at the Goodner home for several days. The manse will be re-decorated and put in condition for the occupancy of the family when Mrs. Green and the two young people arrive in June.

73 EX-SOLDIERS IN NEED OF WORK HERE CANVASS INDICATES

A check of the registration sheets used by American Legion officials Saturday and Monday in registering unemployed ex-soldiers in this city showed that out of 83 men who registered, 74 were without employment of any kind. Efforts to obtain work for these men are now being made by the legion officials.

Out of the 74, by far the larger majority wanted purely manual labor, only a few indicating that they could fill clerical, stenographic or professional positions. The nine men who signed and who are now employed in some way or other wished a change of work or wanted help in obtaining back pay or bonuses.

Plans are now being laid for active legion work throughout the summer, according to Dr. L. I. Lucey, post adjutant. The legion officials are to have the co-operation of the ladies' auxiliary and an extensive social program and athletic schedule mapped out. Weekly dances at the legion hall will be started this week, or next at latest, and a baseball team organized and put in the field when the season gets in swing.

The dances, to be held at the legion hall, will not be open to the public but will not be confined to legion members alone. Invitations will be issued the legionaires and their friends and a nominal admission fee charged to defray expenses and swell the legion treasury.

Another membership drive is also to be started in a few days, announcements Tuesday indicated.

LUNCH ROOM ON NINTH STREET GUTTED BY FIRE EARLY TUESDAY MORNING

Fire thought to have started from an overheated stove in the kitchen of the Central Lunch room, 805 Ninth street, completely gutted that structure at 2 o'clock Tuesday morning, causing an estimated property loss of $1,000.

According to reports made to firemen, the place had just been closed for the night and employes were washing windows near the front of th main room. The first they knew o" the fire was when clouds of smoke rolled out from the kitchen, filling the main dining room and giving evidence that the rear of the entire building was on fire.

Firemen from the Central station were on the scene in a short time and confined the flames to the kitchen, although considerable damage was done to the front of the place by smoke and water.

The RIDER OF GOLDEN BAR

by WILLIAM PATTERSON WHITE

He saw beyond the table Felix Craft with a gun in each hand. The gambler's face, despite the tears that overflowed his eyes and ran down his cheeks, was fairly murderous.

"Tip! Where are you? Don't you move, Bill," Craft was saying, the barrels of his two guns weaving to and fro uncertainly. "Get away from that door, Bill. Don't you try and get away. I can see you."

Billy leaned forward, picked up a fork from his setout on the table and flung it across the room. It fell with a clatter. Craft fired at the sound. The next instant Billy kicked him under the chin and flattened him out.

"Put your hands behind you, Tip," he directed.

Tip answered the question by halting his groping way toward the speaker. He stood still, his body swaying, his muscular fingers locked in the palms of his hands. Billy stooped over the senseless Craft and whipped off his neckerchief.

Tip hesitated, then suddenly he thrust his hands behind him. Billy slipped around him, laid his six-shooter on a chair seat and drew the handkerchief beneath Tip's crossed wrists. The next instant Tip had whirled about, crowded his body against Billy and struck outside with all his might. In an instant Tip was on top and Billy underneath. The older man jammed both thumbs into Billy's windpipe and wrenched himself astride Billy's body. The strangling Billy spread wide his legs, hunched up his knees, planted both feet against Tip's ribs and straightened his legs with a jerk. Tip's hands were torn loose from Billy's throat and Tip himself crashed backward against the wall.

Billy scrambled to his feet and without the slightest hesitation clipped Tip over the head with the barrel of his six-shooter. Tip remained where he was. Billy stood over him, pistol poised, till he made sure he was senseless. Then he took pains to make fast the trio's respective arms and legs with strips torn from a nightgown belonging to Sam.

It was his laudable intention to pack the unconscious Felix into town and jail him for the stage-coach robbery. It was a bold plan, but Billy always rather favored the bold plan. With Craft in jail and wearing the clothing worn by the robber, to which clothing the complaisant Jerry Fern and his passengers would undoubtedly be prepared to swear, it would be hard indeed, if Bill could not fasten the robbery on him, Craft.

It must have been his good angel who caused him to look through the front window. He looked and saw a cloud of horsemen scouring toward the ranch house. He immediately recognized, to his great disgust, half a dozen of Sam Larder's punchers.

He abandoned the plan of taking Felix Craft to town. He would be hard put to escape himself.

Billy topped his mount, struck in the spurs and fled. The other horse he perforce left standing.

CHAPTER XII

Nate Samson, weighing sugar for Hazel Walton, looked at her sidewise. "Heard the news, Hazel?"

Red Herring, the town marshal slouching against a showcase, covertly watched the girl.

"Somebody killed Tip O'Gorman in his own house last night," said Nate.

Hazel wondered why Nate's eyes never left her face. "Tip O'Gorman! He was one of Uncle Tom's friends. Who did it?"

"They found Bill Wingo's quirt on the floor beside the body and right inside the door a snakeskin hatband the whole town knows belongs to Bill."

Hazel's cheeks began to glow. "That doesn't prove anything," she declared in a level voice.

Hazel's black eyes were glittering through slitted eyelids. Really, Nate Samson should have been warned.

"You think Bill did it?" asked Hazel Walton.

Nate nodded. "So does everybody else."

"At any rate," Nate pursued with relish, "there's a warrant out for Bill."

"Another warrant!" Hazel's hand moved imperceptibly nearer a cheese-knife that lay on the counter.

"Another warrant. That makes three counts he's wanted on—stage robbery, rustling that chestnut horse of Sam Larders and now this murder. I always said Bill Wingo was too good to be true."

Hazel Walton made no further remark. She reached for the cheese-knife. Nate Samson ducked under the counter. The cheeseknife whirred within an inch of his prickling scalp and stuck quivering in the edge of a shelf.

"Liar!" announced Hazel in a loud unsympathetic tone. "I'm only sorry I haven't a gun with me. Talking like that about a man you're not fit to say hello to. Here, I don't want any of this stuff! You can keep it."

So saying, she toppled over her whole pile of wrapped purchases and marched out of the store. The marshal followed her to the door.

"It's all right, Nate," he said. "She's gone over to the other store."

Arrived home, Hazel unhitched and unharnessed, turned the team into the corral and carried her purchases into the kitchen and dumped them on the table. She hung up her man's hat and fluffed the hair by the aid of the mirror that hung below the Terry clock her uncle had brought west with him. She had always liked the Terry clock—from the cheerful painted pumpkins and grapes that graced the patterned top to the peculiar throbbing ring it gave on striking the hour, she liked it.

And on a day the old clock was destined to repay that liking full measure, pressed down and running over.

"Lo, Hazel."

"Hello, Sally Jane," she said smilingly, as a face appeared at the door. "Put your horse in the corral and come on in."

"I tied him to the wagon," said Sally Jane. "You look mad, dear," she continued.

"I am," declared Hazel. "Listen to what I heard in town this morning. Nate told me—"

"—there now," she concluded. "What do you think of that for a put-up job? Why, it's not even clever."

"No," agreed Sally Jane. "Too many articles belonging to Bill. Either the quirt or the hatband, but not both. I'd like to know how they got hold of them. Tip had enemies—several. But I'm afraid the gang won't take that into consideration—much. All they'll be able to see is the quirt and the hatband. Confound it, Bill shouldn't have disappeared this way. All his friends know he didn't—couldn't have either held up the stage or really rustled Sam Larder's precious horse, which, by the way, was found mud to the ears near Sam's corral this morning. Fact, dad told me. But why didn't Bill stay and face the music? He should have known he'd only hurt himself by running off this way."

"But I rode over here especially to bring you back with me to stay as long as you like."

Hazel shook her head. "Can't, dear. I'd like nothing better, but I've just got to look after the ranch."

When Sally Jane was gone, Hazel started a fire in the stove, put on the coffeepot and ground up enough coffee for four cupfuls. She liked coffee, did Hazel Walton.

Bacon and potatoes were sputtering on the stove when the faintest of creaks at the door made her look up. She did not move, just stood there staring stupidly at the bareheaded man that blocked the open doorway. For the bareheaded man was Dan Slike, his harsh face rendered even less prepossessing than usual by a week's stubble of beard. A six-shooter was in Dan Slike's hand, and the barrel was pointing at her breast.

"Don't go makin' any move toward that rifle on the hooks back of you," said Dan Slike, slipping into the room and closing the door behind him. "If you do, I'll have to beef you. Dish up that grub a-frying there on the stove. I'm hungry. Get a move on."

At that she turned in a flash and reached for the Winchester. She had it barely off the hooks when Dan Slike was beside her. With his left hand he seized the gun barrel and shoved it upward. And as he did so he smote her across the top of the head with his pistol barrel.

A rocketing sheaf of sparks danced before her eyes and her knees gave way. He dragged the Winchester from her failing grasp as she fell.

Hazel slowly raised her body to a sitting position. She clung to a leg of the table for support. She passed a hand very tenderly across the top of her head. She felt a little nauseated.

Dan Slike, watching her with hard, bright eyes, strode to the stove and poured himself out a cup of coffee.

"You'll be all right in about 10 minutes," he said calmly. "I didn't hit you so awful hard."

He drank the coffee slowly, with evident enjoyment.

He came and stood over her, hands on hips, and looked down at her grimly. She shrank away, her wide eyes fixed upon him in fright and loathing.

It was evident that he found his survey of her satisfactory, for he kicked her in the side. Not hard. Simply as an earnest of what lay in store for her. "Get up," he commanded.

The nausea and most of the dizzy feeling had evaporated. She was perfectly able to get up, but it was intolerable that she should do the bidding of her uncle's murderer. She continued to lie still.

"Get up!" he repeated, and kicked her again—harder.

She got up, gasping, a hand at her side. She felt as though one of her ribs was broken.

She had set the table for herself before he came in. He sat down at her place, his eyes bright upon her. Fumblingly she filled a plate with bacon and fried potatoes. She brought him another cup of coffee and placed the condensed milk and the sugar within his reach.

JUDGE WILSON TO BE 3 WEEKS LATE IN OPENING COURT

The March term of the United States district court for the northern district of Texas, Wichita Falls division, will not open here on March 27, the usual date. Indications are that Judge Wilson will be at least three weeks late coming to this city.

The crowded condition of the dockets at all the division points has accounted for the lateness in opening court here. Although no definite date can be announced at this time it is believed that it will not be before April 17.

A large amount of both civil and criminal work awaits the term of court at this place and since the term here is only four weeks it is believed that a large amount will be forced to remain on the docket for the latter term of court.

WORN OUT AFTER SHE COOKED A MEAL

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read the Result

Cincinnati, Ohio.—"I suffered for a year with nervous troubles and irregularities before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back pained all the time and I was unfit for housework. I was worn out if I cooked a meal, and was unable to do my washing. My girl friends and my sister told me if I would take your Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills I would be relieved. After taking the first bottle I felt better, and neglected it awhile, but found I could not do my work until I was stronger. So I took the Vegetable Compound again and now I am the mother of a 19 months old boy. He is fat and healthy and I am sure I could never have carried him if it had not been for your medicine. I recommend your medicine to all women although I am young to be advising some one older."—Mrs. CHRIST. PETROFF, 318 W. Liberty St., Cincinnati, Ohio.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy, and youthful with Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—adv.

Increases the action of the intestines

Hundreds of men and women have already found freedom from laxatives by eating Fleischmann's fresh yeast.

Doctors are now agreed that proper elimination of waste matter should be brought about by food. One doctor comes right out and states plainly that the indiscriminate use of cathartics is one of the causes of constipation.

Physicians all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast because it is a fresh food, rich in those elements which keep the intestines healthy. In one series of tested cases, normal functions were restored in from 3 days to 5 weeks.

Try it out for yourself. Begin today by adding 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your everyday diet. Keep it up and see how normally and regularly your intestines act. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

The Comus club welcomed the first peach blossoms with one of the most attractively planned dances they have ever given at Kemp hotel Saturday night, when the Young Birds' orchestra furnished music for the semi-carnival occasion.

STUDIO PLAYERS MAKE AMBITIOUS PLAN MONDAY

The Studio Players have made an ambitious plan for their closing presentation this spring as a community players organization, deciding Monday night at their regular business meeting to begin work at once on "Midsummer Night's Dream" for staging the last of May at the Wichita theater. The players plan to use all of the active and some of the associate membership in the closing play, and believe they have the dramatic talent to put on a very creditable performance.

At the Monday night meeting the hundred-membership (associate) roll was completed, guaranteeing the charter and dues were collected and reported. The Musicians club and the community orchestra pledged their assistance in the presentation of the Shakespearean play, and it was decided that work on the play would be begun at once. The first act of the play was read.

The presentation of "Will o' the Wisp" and "Belinda" was postponed last week from March 31 to April 7, and will be given at the Wichita theater.

An Unfailing Way To Banish Hairs

(Beauty Notes)

Ugly hair growths can be removed in the privacy of your own home if you get a small original package of delatone and mix into a paste enough of the powder and water to cover the hairy surface. This should be left on the skin about 2 minutes, then removed and the skin washed and every trace of hair will have vanished. No harm or inconvenience can result from this treatment, but be sure you buy real delatone.—adv.

A Home-Made Grey Hair Remedy

You Can Make a Better Gray Hair Remedy Than You Can Buy.

Gray, streaked or faded hair is not only unbecoming, but unnecessary.

Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and ½ ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost, or the druggist will put it up for you. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It is easy to use, does not color the scalp is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off.—adv.

FIRST CHURCH MISSION WOMEN INTERESTED IN "WIN ONE" CAMPAIGN

The First church Mission circles concerned themselves mostly about the "Win One" campaign being conducted in the First church, aside from the features in their mission study Monday afternoon, and there were very interesting talks at all four meetings. Dr. Knickerbocker addressed three of the meetings, and others made talks on the campaign, which will close at Easter.

Circle One of the mission met with Mrs. W. J. McCallister at her home on Lucile street, with Mesdames Von Allmen, Hanks and Gardner assistant hostesses. The house was very lovely in its spring decorations of hyacinths and jonquils, with a suggestion of spring's green and white carried out in the refreshments served later in the afternoon.

The program opened with a scripture reading by Mrs. K. B. Dodge, followed by a prayer by Mrs. W. A. Stuckey, after which Miss Koy gave a solo, "Who Knows?" by Paul Lawrence Dunbar, responding to the encore with "The Lass With the Delicate Air." Miss Beryl Knickerbocker played the accompaniment for both songs. Mrs. Edgar Haney gave a resume of the missionary news bulletin items, and Mrs. V. W. Cain gave a reading, "The Inventor's Wife," which was very much enjoyed. Declares Woman Slave Who Weds Outside Her Clan

CHICAGO, March 21. — Edith Rockefeller McCormick, daughter of John D. Rockefeller Sr., tracing the progress of women's organizations here yesterday, told representatives of many local women's organizations "if a woman marries outside her own clan or tribe she'll be a slave. History proves it."

The meeting at which Mrs. McCormick spoke was preliminary to the woman's progress exhibition to be held here June 3 to 10. The engagement of Mrs. McCormick's 16 year old daughter, Mathilde, to Max Oser, Swiss riding academy professor, recently was announced.

"In olden times," Mrs. McCormick said, "if a man were bored with the women of his own tribe, he went and stole a wife from another clan."

The stolen bride had a sorry time of it, according to Mrs. McCormick, who said the women of the men's tribe always hated the alien bride who consequently had to depend for happiness entirely upon her husband, to whom she was virtually a slave.

WOMAN'S EPISCOPAL GUILD MAKE DRESSES FOR BAZAAR

The Women's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd held a good meeting Monday afternoon, making a number of pretty children's dresses for the Easter bazaar on April 8. The Guild also planned a food sale to be held at the White House market Saturday, March 25, and made tentative plans for a rummage sale to be held Saturday, April 1, at a place to be announced later.

Thirty members were present at the meeting, which was held at the parish house.

THE FARMER SEEKS ESCAPE FROM HIS TREADMILL.

The American farmer sows and reaps without much regard for that old law of supply and demand. The southern farmer, year after year, plants about the usual acreage of cotton without consideration of the fact that there may be a big surplus on hand from the previous year's crop and that the crop which he is starting will add to this surplus and demoralize his market and reduce prices until he will receive less than if he had planted half of his acreage. The same is largely true of the wheat grower of the northwest.

Not only has the farmer failed to regulate his crop acreage according to the supply and the demand but in most instances he has put his crops on the market with little regard to the condition of the market. Year after year the farmer has been going ahead planting his usual acreage in his usual crops with little regard to economic and other conditions such as would cause the owner of a factory to close it or to reduce his output or to hold his product off the market.

The farmer is certainly no slacker. He works and operates his business whether he does so profitably or not. He is the most steady and dependable element in our industrial and economic system, which is all right for the rest of us but is too often hard on the farmer himself. He has had many a knock from the effect of an over-supplied market. Rarely has he profited from his disregard of economic laws. And he has paid attention to these laws only when finally financial pressure has brought him to it. It has been only when he could not obtain money to finance his crop raising that he has failed to raise a crop or has reduced the acreage of his crops. He has generally suffered a great deal of adversity first.

Recently, however, there have been indications on the part of the farmer of an appreciation of economic facts and conditions and there has been a groping after some way of getting out of the old way of planting the same acreage in crops year after year without regard to supply and of marketing crops without regard to the conditions of the marketing at harvest time. This has been manifested in the organization of a number of co-operative marketing movements and of organizations to keep the farmer informed of supply and demand and to govern crop acreage according to these conditions.

One of these marketing movements is the American Wheat Growers' association. This organization claims to have already pledged from farmers more than 60,000,000 bushels of wheat. It expects to have 200,000,000 bushels pledged before harvest time. With this much wheat under its control and with its members pledged to govern their acreage in the crop in the future according to supply and demand it ought to be able to obtain a profitable price for the whole of the American wheat crop this year.

The American Wheat Growers' may fail. Other co-operative organizations of farmers have failed, but there are others that are successful. The co-operative organization of farmers will go forward until they are successful. They appear to be the only means by which the farmers can protect themselves from their individual failure to recognize economic facts.

TALKING MOVIES.

Talking movies, a new invention with enormous possibilities, have just been successfully demonstrated in Chicago.

By this invention, the silent screen loses its silence. You, out in the audience, watch the picture and hear the actors' voices and all other sounds, the same as if you were actually seeing and hearing the thing occur in real life.

The process is different from the combination of phonograph and movie film tried out by E. F. Albee in Keith vaudeville some years ago.

This latest talking movie is an application of the wireless phone.

The movie is produced in the studio, as usual. Then the films are sent out to movie theaters, where wireless phones and automatic moving picture machines are synchronized—that is, the outfits in each theater start at the same time and run at the same speed, regulated from the movie studio.

The film has been made. Audiences are ready for the show. The picture starts in each theater. Simultaneously, the film is screened at the studio.

The actors, watching the picture closely to "keep in step," speak their lines, same as on a stage. The wireless carries the words for reproduction in the movie theaters.

Other sounds also are sent out to be heard by the movie audiences—such as breaking glass, pistol shots, whistles.

At the first try-out of this new invention, Frank Bacon, star of "Lightnin'," was the lead actor.

The inventor, Harry J. Powers Jr., has kept his radio talking pictures secret, pending patents. Shortly, however, they will be tried out on the public.

Audiences frequently comment that some of the great actors lose part of their effectiveness on the picture screen because their greatest histrionic ability—vocal genius—cannot be brought into play. A successful radio talking movie would eliminate this handicap.

In your day, you have seen the wireless and the movie develop from rather laughable laboratory experiments to practical devices, widely used and with tremendous possibilities.

The movies soon will have a new Siamese Twin—the "speakies."

It is not straining the imagination to picture a day when moving pictures themselves will be broadcasted into homes by wireless, the same as a photograph now can be cabled across the ocean.

An easy way to get our old ships torn us is to send them te a laundry.

TODAY'S TALK

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

WAYS TO KEEP FRIENDS.

I have been asked by one of the readers of these Talks to tell how friends may be kept. I give as the best rule for keeping a friend, the advice of another—be a friend yourself!

We attract to ourselves in a large measure those qualities and characteristics in others which predominate in us, or which we desire should rule in us.

A friend is the most precious possession in this world. Therefore we should not regret the time and patience and control necessary to become one, so that we may hold not one—but many.

One of the most important ways to keep a friend after you have one, is to see his good points and play up to them.

The reason why it is so easy and natural to pick the flaws in our friends is that we have so many ourselves—and that makes them quickly recognizable in others.

But I know of no better way to lose a friend than to start finding fault with him.

Learn to overlook, and then you will be surprised at the many wonderful qualities your friend possesses which you had no idea he did.

Thoughtfulness toward those you love and want as your friends will bring you rich rewards of happiness. Try to think of the little things which might bring sunshine and cheer to your friend.

Be tolerant—and be just. How inclined we all are to see the unjust acts of our friend without weighing our own sense of justice!

We all crave friends deeply. Nevertheless it is well that we do not see too much of those who are dearest to us. The freshness of friendship is one of the most precious gifts that can come to us. To give something new and attractive to those we so much love, every time we come in contact with them, is a great preservative of the relationship of friendliness.

And—be kind! It's an overworked word, I know. But it has never lived its life out.

Unkind words can never be recalled. And sometimes, as the years thicken, these words sink deeper into the heart—and every once in a while, they hurt in their hidden nest.

A sincere friend can afford to smile many things away!

JUST FOLKS —By— Edgar A. Guest

IGNORANCE.

When Ignorance and Wealth unite
The two are in a sorry plight.
For ignorance, maddened by display,
Lets passion have the right of way;
While dumb and helpless wealth remains,
It has no power to furnish brains.

When Ignorance by Fame is crowned
A Fool struts on his daily round;
Inflamed by just a few brief cheers,
In wisdom's face he boldly sneers,
And, as a drunkard wears his hat,
He tips his crown this way or that.

When Ignorance comes into power
Brief is his reign and brief his hour,
Good sense and reason calmly wait
The day that he shall meet his fate;
When Ignorance and power unite
They fuse disaster's dynamite.

Wise men can handle wealth and fame
And power, and never come to shame,
Wise men can face temptations strong
And spurn the lure and scorn the wrong;
But when a Fool grows rich or great
Then self-destruction is his fate.

HAMBONE'S MEDITATIONS

YOU AND I

MINERS.

If a coal strike starts, how long will it last? The "dope"—based on the law of averages—answers: 37 days.

In the 21 years, 1899 to 1920, coal strikes involved a total of 2,929,216 American miners. A check-up, based on the government's geological survey reports, shows that the average coal striker was out 37 days.

The law of averages, however, is just what its name implies. The threatened coal strike of 1922 may be an exception to the average. Time will tell.

AVERAGES.

The law of averages is mathematical in its accuracy. When a scientifically-managed chain store system wants to open a new shop, it has "clockers" count the passing crowds, to learn what location has the most traffic flowing past its doors.

It is definitely known that a set percentage of the passers-by will turn into the new store. This is the law of averages—that, while a thing may not happen repeatedly, it will show up, on the average, every-so-often.

Gamblers use the law of averages, figuring systems to beat the bank at Monte Carlo. It is a law that should be taken into consideration in all proposed undertakings.

WEATHER.

As the world gets further away from war, there is more talk about the eternal and vital question, weather.

England checks up and reports that last year was her driest since 1815, the record year for scant rainfall.

The reaction to this will be an exceptionally wet season—maybe this year, maybe next, maybe not for several years, but it is certain. Nature evens everything up. She, too, uses the law of averages.

GORILLAS.

You have always read that the gorilla is a terrible beast. Now comes Carl E. Akeley, back in New York after an expedition for the American Museum of Natural History.

Akeley brings with him five stuffed gorillas. He denies that gorillas are ferocious.

"There was no sport in shooting them. It was too easy. I made moving pictures of four big gorillas playing and keeping an eye upon me until they ran away into the jungle, frightened by the click of the camera."

This is an iconoclastic age, accepted notions being exploded one after the other like a pack of firecrackers.

DRUNK.

Go to jail and serve a year. This is the decision handed out to two Boston "repeaters" on a drunkenness charge.

The sentence, in the long run, may be a stroke of luck for the prisoners. They lose a year by confinement, but it may cure them of their thirst, thereby adding several years to life at the far end.

The chronic alcoholic clips at least a day off his life each time he takes a drink of whiskey.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY.

And now abide faith, hope and charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.—I Corinthians 13:13.

In Christ's day men gave themselves, not a guinea, when an appeal was made. Love had not then found out that it could buy itself off with an annual subscription; it was mad enough to toil and suffer in the heat of the day. Only spiritual insolvents think of compounding with God for a guinea, when they owe him their whole life.—Joseph Parker.

Don't Handle Food!

By DR. R. H. BISHOP

Few women can do their marketing without handling the foods they buy.

Go into almost any grocery store and you will notice one or two of the more economical housewives doing this.

They remove fruits, vegetables, bakery goods and even candies from the display boxes, look them over, possibly taste some of them and return them to the case.

That the practice is highly unsanitary must be obvious. A certain amount of dirt and perspiration from the hands is left on every article of food thus handled and after the article has been pawed over by half a dozen people, it is hardly fit for human consumption.

Many of the better class of stores endeavor to prohibit this practice but some of it is done nevertheless.

The responsibility rests entirely with the purchaser. The storekeeper can hardly be blamed for refraining from protesting against the practice since his livelihood depends upon keeping the good will of the very people who thus contaminate the food products he sells.

LEARN A WORD EVERY DAY.

Today's word is inveterate.

It's pronounced—in-vet-er-at, with accent on the second syllable.

It means — firmly established, deep-rooted, confirmed, habitual.

It comes from—Latin "inveterare," to render old.

Companion word—inveterateness.

It's used like this—"It's hard to induce an inveterate smoker to swear off."

TIPS ON BUSINESS.

By ALBERT APPLE.

The advance in prices of structural steel and the stiffening of the hardwood markets indicate that insiders expect steadily increasing building activity.

Lumber sales are running slightly heavier than the average for the corresponding periods of the last nine years.

The market is shaping toward light construction.

AUTO PICK-UP.

Auto manufacturers expect the best spring business in two years. About 25 cars are being shipped from factories, for each 10 a year ago. Detroit employers report 220 men on payrolls for each 100 late in 1920. Auto industry probably will make a better financial showing this year, though total output may not exceed last year.

MAIL ORDER SALES.

Mail order sales have gained 36 per cent physical volume from the low point of last year. Reflects rise in prices of farm products. President Merseles of Montgomery, Ward & Co. thinks the farm situation will slowly improve, with temporary setback, and 1923 find the farmer well on the road to normal prosperity.

COPPER IMPROVES.

Copper producers are booking about twice as much tonnage as two months ago. Great Britain is back as a heavy buyer in American copper market for first time in over three years. Germany taking a third of our copper exports. Surplus copper stocks reduced to less than a four months' supply.

WHY YOU NEED IRON—

To make you strong and "brainy" and put the power into your blood to overcome disease germs

The food you eat contains carbon. When your food is digested it is absorbed from the intestines into the blood. When the carbon in your food comes in contact with the oxygen carried by the iron in your blood, the carbon and oxygen unite and by so doing they give off tremendous energy, thereby giving you great force, strength and endurance. Without iron your blood carries no oxygen and without oxygen there is nothing to unite with the carbon in your food, so that what you eat does you no good—you do not get any strength from it—It is like putting coal into a stove without a fire. You cannot get any heat unless the coal unites with the fire.

The strongest weapon with which to prevent and overcome colds, pneumonia, kidney trouble, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact almost any disease germs is plenty of good rich, pure blood, strength, energy and endurance and the greatest energy carrier in the body is organic iron, not metalic iron which people usually take, but organic iron like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, and like the iron contained in what is known as organic Nuxated Iron, which may be had from almost any druggist. Nuxated Iron often increased the strength, energy and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time.

It has been used and highly recommended by former United States Senators, Members of Congress, Judges of U. S. Courts, many physicians and prominent men.

Over 4,000,000 people are now using it annually. Satisfactory results are guaranteed or the manufacturers will refund your money. Sold by all druggists in tablet form only.

THE BABES IN THE WOODS

OPEN LETTER NO. THREE

For the Information of Taxpayers of Wichita County:

J. P. Jones, county judge, County Commissioners and J. M. Isbell, county engineer:

It seems to us that if any person or corporation had made the statements that we have made publicly regarding the way you gentlemen have handled the affairs of this county, that you would be glad, and would lose no time in contradicting the same, if you could do so. We want to say here, that if the county has become so economical that it cannot spend any money to place you gentlemen in the clear (if such can be done) or if you are not willing to spend your own money to do so, then this company will pay at the regular advertising rates for any statement you wish to make in answer to our letters Nos. 1, 2 and 3, provided you do not use more space than we have. This company is not organized for the purpose of dispensing charity, but we are so anxious to have you answer our letters that we will be glad to incur this expense, if there is any answer you can make.

We are glad that the taxpayers and citizens of this country are becoming sufficiently aroused that they are demanding an explanation of the manner in which you are buying materials for your concrete roads and we are very anxious that they should have this explanation. In other words, the statements that have been made by us in our open letters Nos. 1 and 2 have not been refuted by you and are likely to cause the finger of scorn and suspicion to be pointed at you and it would grieve us very much if any of the officials of this county should commit any act that would justify any censure from his constituents.

We notice in the Record News of March 12, page 15, the following headlines: 'Isbell makes report of prices paid for sand." The article, however, itself does not say anything about the price paid for sand and merely gives the number of cars actually received for road work. We would like for the taxpayers to know that if these 1,004 cars had been purchased at the price you can now purchase first class specification sand for from us, it would have cost the taxpayers approximately $75,000 less than what it has cost them. We, however, do not intend, or want to convey the impressions that we could have furnished this quantity of sand at the time it was used. But we do not want the taxpayers to forget that you can now purchase and have been able to do so for some time the same, or better quality of sand than you have been using, at a saving of approximately $1,000 per month, based on the rate you claimed you were using sand.

We also want to call your attention to another article published in the Daily Times of March 13, with the following headlines: "County refuses to pay for sand in controversy." We want the taxpayers to know that this identical car of sand is the one that Mr. Isbell, representing the county, and Mr. Julian Montgomery, representing us, who with a third man selected by the above mentioned gentlemen, secured samples of sand from this car and sent same to Austin to be tested by the highway department, under whose specifications our roads are being built, and who reported that the sand was satisfactory for concrete work.

In other words it has been tested by three competent men. First, Mr. Julian Montgomery of this city, who is a consulting engineer of far more than average ability and has the distinction of having been the highest salaried city engineer of the state, and has probably had more experience in building concrete highways than our county engineer will ever have.

Second. It was tested by Dr. Timomas, testing engineer of the University of Texas, who reported that "This is excellent sand that should make first class concrete."

Third. The state highway department reports on the sample taken from this car by Mr. Isbell himself as follows: "This sample of material consists of well graded sand. This sand contains a small amount of clay which no doubt adds to its value for use as dshould be considered as very satisfactory." We are not mentioning this particular news item because we think the taxpayers are especially interested in our controversy on the one car of sand; but simply to show that the sand which your engineer rejects as unsatisfatcory is considered by unprejudiced and competent engineers as entirely satisfactory and tends to show that the county engineer of this county is prejudiced against us and is not inclined to give us a square deal and thereby save the county many thousands of dollars of expense in building the concrete roads yet to be built.

One of these newspaper articles also intimated that samples of the sand now being used in the construction of the roads and also a sample of our sand could be found in Judge Jones' office by anyone interested in same. We might also add that samples can also be seen and secured from the various cars received by the county to be unloaded at their unloading rack and that what we had reference to in our letter No. 2, wherein we stated that we were not willing for our product to be judged by samples secured by prejudiced parties, as it is entirely too easy for same to become unaccountably mixed with Wichita county dirt, but that we are willing to submit at any time to any test made by unprejudiced, competent engineers as to the quality and cleanliness of our product.

We sincerely hope, gentlemen, that some of you will see fit to answer our letters in the public press and give the taxpayers of this county an opportunity of judging whether or not we have misinformed them, or misrepresented to them in any way in regard to your treatment of us at the expense of the county.

In the meantime we stand ready, willing and anxious to supply this county with first class concrete sand at 10c per ton less than you are now paying. Now isn't it a fact that if you purchased all your sand from us at the price we quote that you would save the taxpayers of Wichita county approximately $1,000 per month?

(Pardon us if we repeat this occasionally, as this is what we want to impress on the minds of the taxpayers of Wichita county.)

SPORTS

Spudders Overburdened With Infielders; Salm Denies Bescher Rumor

SPUDDERS IN FIRST PRACTICE CONTEST

Salm Orders Stiff Workout For His Men For Monday Afternoon.

There was a full nine inning tilt at Athletic park yesterday afternoon. Skipper Salm sent his charges through some real paces, practically every man on the squad breaking into the fray. The two clubs could hardly be called "regulars" and "yanigans," however, as there were enough first string men on each team to call either the "regulars."

Hits bounded off the clubs of both sides with great regularity and there were more or less kicks which livened the contest. Bowman, Darrough and Carmen worked for the losers, and Strepy, Blunk and Ramsey served them for the winners. It was anybody's game until the final chapter when the victors chased a couple of counters over which made the score 10 to 9 in their favor.

The work of White and Ammons was watched with considerable interest by the boss, but neither had much work to do. White handled everything which came his way in a most capable manner, while Ammons broke into the limelight with a drive to right field on which he circled the paths.

The veteran hurlers did not "strut all their stuff," but loosened up just enough to show the boss that they are in the pink of condition and will be ready to go long before the bell rings.

By PAUL W. LARKIN

Who will be the Spudder utility man this season? That is the question that is uppermost in the minds of the fans today and seems to be the problem that is worrying Walter Salm. The Spudder boss absolutely refuses to commit himself when asked which player is most apt to get the assignment, and Tuesday morning he had four men guarding the second station. Rex Sorey, Benny Allen, Speck Comstock, and Al White all had a fling at the position and each performed in a most satisfactory manner.

Tex McDonald at third, Buddy Tanner at short and Fred Beck at first completed the infield during the morning workout. Judging from the way Salm speaks it will be at least couple of weeks before the make-up of his 1922 infield will be announced. The midfield berth and second base are still in doubt, though many fans may doubt the latter statement. Danny Clark is confidently expected back, as has been said many times, but he is by no means sure of his berth. If he holds down his old job, it will be due to the fact that he is such a consistent slugger. There are at least three infielders who have high hopes of sticking with the Salmites who can field rings around Danny.

Clark Hasn't Cinched Job

Sorey, White and Allen have shown enough form the past few days to convince Danny's most ardent backers that he will have a struggle on his hands to keep his position. Sorey, especially, grabs every ball hit to him in a manner that defies competition. He has bettered the .300 mark the past few seasons in hitting and socks the ball on the nose every day in practice, even though he did not look like a world beater in the two Cleveland games. Benny Allen, too, is a much better hitter than the majority of fans give him credit for and his ability to play both the infield and outfield equally well will give Salm plenty to think about. White has not yet had an opportunity to show his value as a swatsmith.

The Spudder skipper denied most emphatically Tuesday that Bob Bescher was on his way to Wichita Falls. If Bob is coming, he knows nothing about it. The last time he heard from Bob, he received an unsigned contract with no word of explanation. Walter is at a loss to know where the rumor started that he was on his way here and stated that it undoubtedly had its origin on the sidewalk.

The infielders were not the only ones who received Walter's attention Tuesday morning. Steve Mokan was out in uniform again for the first time in a week and the Spudder pilot had his eagle eye glued on him. Steve confined his activities to warming up and was told not to run around the park as Walter feared that he might overdo. Kitchens handled his shoots for the first time and declared that he was by far the most likely looking youngster of Salm's aggregation of hurlers.

NEW YORK GIANTS AND SENATORS HAVE STRONG INFIELDS

By BILLY EVANS.

A strong defense means much in baseball.

No team was a better example of this theory than the Chicago White Sox of 1906.

The White Sox were known as the "Hitless Wonders." The Chicago team seldom made more than three or four runs in a game.

Three or four runs were usually enough to win, however, since the club had a great defense, backed up by a fine pitching staff.

The defense of a ball club centers around the infield. It is the inner wall. A good outfield is very necessary, but the percentage of ground balls is much greater than balls hit in the air.

That is why a good infield means much to a ball club. Perfect execution of plays on the part of the infield does much to break down the offensive of an opponent. There is nothing more discouraging than to see the infielders cut off base hits by sensational plays in field. It not only breaks down the morale of the opponent, but bolsters up the confidence of the pitcher.

Which major league club boasts the best infield?

If you happen to be a National league partisan without any hesitation you would say the New York Giants.

If you are strong for the Johnson circuit you would no doubt pick the Washington club.

Groh Strengthens Infield.

The addition of Heine Groh has unquestionably made the New York infield a formidable aggregation, one of the best in the history of the game.

The coming of Groh means that Frankie Frisch will be shifted to second. An infield composed of Kelly at first, Frisch at second, Bancroft at short and Groh at third is some aggregation.

The coming of Peckinpaugh to Washington gives that club a corking infield. It was weak at short. Judge at first, Harris at second, Peckinpaugh at short and Shanks at third is about the cream of the American league talent.

I think a draw would be an excellent decision in making a comparison of the two clubs.

Judge is a more valuable first baseman than Kelly. Frisch is a remarkable ball player. That goes for Stanley Harris. Frisch will be playing a new position. If there is a shade I would give it to Harris. Bancroft and Peckinpaugh rate about the same to me. Shanks is a fine player, but Groh must be given the edge at third.

A Draw Good Decision.

Let us say that Frisch and Harris and Bancroft and Peckinpaugh are even-stephen. Judge has the edge over Kelly and Groh has it on Shanks. That makes it all even. Our decision is a draw.

The Cardinal infield of Hornsby, Rivan, Stock and Fournier rates close up to the Giants in the National league.

In the American, Cleveland and New York are the runners up. The addition of McInnis rounds out the Gardner, Sewell, Wambsganss combination. The New York club in no way suffers by the passing of Peckinpaugh since it brings to the team Everett Scott, one of the greatest shortstops I have ever seen.

In both leagues every club has one or more stars on its infield, but have a certain weakness at one position. For example, the St. Louis Browns have two stars in Gerber and Sisler, while Pittsburg has Traville and Grimm.

FAN'S FORUM

March 19, 1922.

Sporting Editor,
Wichita Daily Times,
Dear Sir:

I presume that the owners of the Wichita Falls team have the interest and comfort of the fans in mind at all times and, a thought struck me that they might be interested in building an elevated sidewalk from Lee street to the entrance of the grounds. A casual survey of the street from Lee street to the park even in pleasant weather will disclose that the pedestrian's pathway is lind with tin cans, strips of sharp tin, barbed wire, etc. In dry weather the pedestrians arrive at the park, or at their homes, covered with dust from the rush of automobiles. In rainy weather, it is necessary to wade through mud to get to and from the park. Realizing the number of games played on our home grounds during the season and the number of fans who remain from the games on account of the condition of the walk to get to the park, I believe the association would be justified in erecting an elevated walk, say ten feet high from Lee street to the entrance and they would be recompenced by larger attendance and earn the gratitude of the fans. I would not approve of an investment in an ordinary sidewalk laid on the ground as I believe it would be more or less molested and would not last through one season. However, an elevated walk would be respected as the entrance being at Lee street and the terminal at the park, it would not be used for other purposes than for reaching the ball park. Again, there is a string of telephone poles along the side of the street to the park which, I believe, could be used as supports.

If you think the above suggestions would be entertained by the association, would you kindly put it before them for their consideration?

Very truly yours,
(Signed) I. P. CHIDSEY,
A warm and sincere supporter of the home team always.

SUPPORTERS OF A REDUCTION IN ARMY WIN IN THE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The house today approved a provision of the army appropriation bill which calls for a reduction by next July 1, in number of regular army officers to 11,000.

By a vote of 180 to 40, the house defeated an amendment by Representative Sisson, democrat, Mississippi, to decrease the officer strength to 9,000.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—House members who favor a reduction in the size of the army to 115,000 enlisted men and 11,000 officers, won the first round of their fight today when Representative Longworth, republican, Ohio, occupying the chair, overruled a point of order against a committee provision which would slash the pay allowance for officers.

Chairman Kahn of the military affairs committee, who held that funds sufficient for the pay of 13,000 officers should be provided, made the point of order.

Representative Anthony, republican, Kansas, in charge of the bill, told the house it would cost $33,000,000 to pay 13,000 officers, the number now on active duty.

Never Kissed He Seriously Objects To Love Making

ANN ARBOR, MICH., March 21.—Students at the University of Michigan are waging an intensive "gum shore" campaign in an effort to locate one of their number who in a letter at the Michigan Daily, a student publication, over the signature "the man who has never been kissed" severely criticised the "promiscuous love making" in which he declares the male students and co-eds indulge.

There is a runner on second base. The batsman hits a hard grounder back at the pitcher. He makes a stab at it with his gloved hand, same coming in contact with the ball, which bounded off the glove and hit the umpire working back of the pitcher. The runner on second base tried to score on the hit. The ball was recovered and the runner trying to score was retired at the plate. Is the batsman entitled to his base on such a play and no runners allowed to advance unless forced, or is the ball in play?

The ball is in play and the runner was out when retired at the plate. After the pitcher had made a play on the ball the fact that it later hit the umpire receives no consideration, it is in play.

Length of Skirt And School Rule Issues In Court

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, March 21. It may require the supreme court of Kansas to determine whether the skirts of Alice Hansen and Maude Buchanan, students at the Vinland rural school, extended three inches below their knees and whether it was any of the school board's business, anyhow.

Judge Hugh Means, the jurist who a few weeks ago ruled that Alice and Maude could go back to school without lengthening their skirts, today sustained a demurrer to his jurisdiction filed by the legal representatives of the Vinland school board. Judge Means' ruling had been a temporary one, and a hearing had been set for April.

E. T. Rilling, attorney for J. H. Hansen, Alice's father, announced that an appeal would be taken to the supreme court following the demurrer action.

The Vinland school board made a rule that pupils' skirts must extend three inches below their knees, and expelled the two girls on the contention that their skirts lacked something of the required length.

Judge Means issued a temporary restraining order against the board, on application of Hansen, and the girls returned to school with the skirts in status quo. The issue was made all the more vital by the fact that the dresses questioned by the school board were made by the girls' mothers, farmers' wives. Alice and Maude are 15.

BROOKS PLEADS GUILTY TO HAVING VIOLATED THE FEDERAL NARCOTIC LAW

FORT WORTH, March 21.—Oscar Brooks, alleged go-between in the narcotic case which resulted in the suicide of W. A. Masters, a special police officer, pleaded guilty to violation of the federal narcotic statues late yesterday in federal court. Judge Wilson withheld his sentence temporarily.

Brooks stated to the court he took narcotics to a drug store where he sold it to a federal officer, posing as an addict, following a telephone conversation. He received marked money and was arrested as soon as the transaction was completed. Officers then visited the Masters' home. When the latter discovered what had transpired in his absence he committed suicide.

HOME ON TRAVIS STREET IS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire of undetermined origin starting, apparently, on the second floor, completely destroyed the home of Mrs. Nathaniel Smith, 201 Travis street, at 2:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. No one was at home when the blaze broke out, this permitting it to gain too great headway to be checked by firemen.

The entire building, which was two stories in height, was gutted, entailing an estimated loss of $1,500.

BOYS FIND WHISKEY UNDER THE SIDEWALK ON PEARL STREET

About 20 bottles of bonded whiskey, in quarts, was found late Monday afternoon, cached under a cement sidewalk near the corner of Pearl and Brook, by a number of small boys who were fishing for crawfish in the little draw in that vicinity.

News of the find spread rapidly, and there was soon quite a crowd present. Some favored calling the officers, but this evidently was not done. The whiskey disappeared in various directions.

The whiskey was found in a small hollow underneath the sidewalk.

ENDEAVORERS HAVE SPLENDID MEETING

Large Attendance and Interesting Program at the Graham Convention.

HENRIETTA, March 21.—The Wichita district Christian Endeavor convention which was held in Graham Friday, Saturday and Sunday was a big success from every angle. Delegates were present from all parts of the district which covers thirteen north Texas counties. The convention hall was filled almost to capacity at every service. J. E. Evans, convention chairman, and his assistants made all visitors feel at home and were splendid hosts to over a hundred visiting delegates.

The program that was rendered was one of the best ever given in a district convention in Texas. Friday was devoted to the inspirational side. Mr. Byron Hester of Electra delivered the main address of that day. Other speakers on Friday were Judge Brown of Graham, Bryan Blaylock of Fort Worth and District President Jack B. Dale of Henrietta.

Saturday was devoted to junior and educational work. Miss Emma McClaren, former junior superintendent of Oklahoma, led the junior demonstration and made a splendid address on the junior work. The main speaker of the morning was Dr. Franklin of North Carolina, who spoke on "The Alumni," followed by an alumni fellowship dinner. The Saturday afternoon feature was the conference led by W. Roy Breg, southwestern field secretary Christian Endeavor. The evening was featured by an address on "Personal Stewardship" by Rev. Chase of Newcastle and by the raising of the district apportionment fo state Christian Endeavor work. This was a feature because the finances of next year, beginning the year starts.

Sunday, which was consecration day, was featured by an outdoor prayer meeting on top of the mountain in the heart of Graham at an early morning hour. Sunday afternoon an intermediate demonstration was held after which Judge J. S. Dickey of Henrietta delivered the main address of the convention, the subject being "Reasonable Service." The evening service composed of a decision service and an address by Mr. Breg, also by a missionary pagent by the Central Presbyterian churel of Wichita Falls.

Other speakers of the convention were C. C. Dooley of Wichita Falls, who led the prayer meetings of the convention; B. F. Judd of Chillicothe; Rev. Hancock of Iowa Park; G. L. Smith and J. E. Shelton of Bowie. The social side of the convention consisted of a social on Friday evening and a dinner on Saturday. The next district convention will be held in Electra probably in October or November of this year.

Plans were made at the convention to have a large delegation from this district attend the state convention at Houston, June 14-15. About seventy-five Endeavors are expected to attend from this district. They will concentrate in Wichita Falls and attend in a body. They will have special cars to Fort Worth where they will join a special train to Houston. Some talk was made of trying to get the 1925 state convention in Wichita Falls.

Congressman Of Oklahoma Takes Ride In Airplane

WASHINGTON, March 21.—Representative Manuel Herrick, the Oklahoma congressman who has been the subject matter of much newspaper "copy" during the last year, took a ride in an aeroplane, soaring above Washington, the other day. Perhaps the aviator knew who his passenger was and sought to frighten him for never has an aeroplane performed more stunts over Washington than that one. Congressman Herrick, however, insists he was not frightened and says he is going to try it again some day.

"I told those fellers at Boiling field," said the Oklahoma statesman, "that I wanted them to give me their biggest dare-devil pilot. They told me the real he-devil wasn't there, but would assign his understudy to me. I told him to make her do everything he knew how, and when he got to the end of his string, if he'd give me them handles I'd put her through her paces right."

The congressman said when he went to the secretary of war to get a permit to make a flight with an army aviator he requested that he be permitted to take his secretary's youthful son along.

"The secretary wouldn't hear to it," said Congressman Herrick. "He said he didn't mind giving me the permit; that it was all right for these army aviators to kill congressmen if they wanted to, but that he drew the line on children."

MILE EXTENSION OF SOUTH ELECTRA INDICATED MONDAY

SPENCER ET AL HAVE WHAT LOOKS LIKE WELL ON WAGGONER SECTION 148.

BEASLEY & M'DANIEL WELL IS MAKING 100

Expected to Result In Deepening of Many Other Tests In Vicinity.

Another big stretch of land was added to the producing area of the south Electra pool Monday by the encountering of a good sand in the test of C. F. Spencer and associates, located in the northeast corner of section 148 H. T. C. survey on the Waggoner tract. The top of the sand was reached at 1460 feet which was drilled three feet in, when the hole quickly filled up with 800 feet of fluid in the hole. At present the well has 80 feet of open hole which is being under-reamed and casing will be set and completed. From present indications, a good well is looked for.

The nearest production to the above test is the Perkins well on southeast part of section 21, about one mile south. To the north the Texas company has some production at the distance of about one mile, in the 1500 foot sand.

The test of Beasley-McDaniels on the Burnett tract in the Electra pool is flowing at the rate of 100 barrels from the sand at 1952 feet, the top of which was picked up at 1944 and was pentrated eight feet when the well started with a small flow which gradually increased.

With the completion of this well which makes the third from this sand, the others being the Gulf on the Collett tract, about 1½ miles south and a small producer by the Carteret company, one mile southwest on the Waggoner. No other wells have encountered this sand.

It is expected that the Planet, Wichita Petroleum and Griswold Oil companies with leases offsetting on the south will immediately start drilling new tests or deepen some of their older wells in an effort to reach this new producing stratum. Beasley and McDaniels have already made their No. 2 and No. 4 locations and will begin work immediately.

2 DEEP TESTS TO BE PUT DOWN IN MONTAGUE COUNTY

After nearly a year of inactivity, Montague county is once more in the limelight. It is rumored that the Texas company is making preparations to drill a deep test on the Lemon farm, just north of the Wright least, which had some good showings of both oil and gas, but is shut down now.

It is also reported John F. O. Donodue and associates will drill a deep test on the John Chambliss tract about a mile north of the Texas company's location. Since the information has leaked out, many leases have changed hands.

MAYOR CHALLENGES RIGHT OF MEETING TO DISCUSS CHARTER

ONLY TWO OF THOSE AT THE LUNCHEON HAD READ THE LAW.

SEVERAL SPEAKERS URGE CITY MANAGER

Mayoralty Candidates Are Present But Decline to Commit Themselves.

"Before passing judgment on the commission form of government or the city manager plan, I would like to know how many members of this club have intelligently and studiously looked into the present form of municipal government and are qualified to pass judgment on the question," queried Mayor Walter Cline at the weekly luncheon of the University club Tuesday. The mayor asked the members who had looked carefully into the present charter to raise their right hands, and of the small but representative gathering only two responded.

"That being the case," stated the mayor upon learning that only two felt qualified to pass judgment, "I would advise that you refrain from discussing what you know nothing about and try to create more individual interest in municipal affairs, as I do not believe that you should make any recommendation for a change in policy until you understand the form of government under which you are now living."

Mayor Cline made the foregoing statements following a brief address by Judge Orus O. Ross, who advocated the city manager plan of government, laying special emphasis on the fact that under the commission form the mayor and other men in office may not be fit for their positions.

F. G. Swanson followed Mayor Cline on the program and urged the adoption of the city manager plan, pointing out two big advantages—the fixture of responsibility, which prevents the passing of the buck and the shortened ballot which would necessarily follow. Mr. Swanson said that he felt a dollar's worth of service would be obtained from a dollar's worth of taxes under the city manager plan and he related some of his experiences in the Canal Zone to bring out his point.

Though he partially agreed with Mayor Cline in the statement that the average citizen does not pay enough attention to municipal affairs, he said that under the present form of municipal government there were no periodical balance sheets published to inform the public just where they stood and that if such records were made public there might be a change in the attitude of the citizens. He declared that there was fault on both sides, however, as there was not enough public interest to get the condition of the city affairs.

Vocal solos by Mrs. Fred Barron and Mrs. C. Y. Tully were well received, and Mrs. Barron urged the members of the club to lend their assistance to bring the stars of the musical world to Wichita Falls.

J. W. Stone and Frank Collier, mayoralty candidates, were guests of the club, but declined to express themselves anent the city manager plan.

INAUGURATE SURVEY TO ASCERTAIN WHY MONEY LEAVES TOWN

BUSINESS COUNCIL COMMITTEE TO INQUIRE WHERE TROUBLE IS.

PRICES AND STOCKS OF LOCAL DEALERS INVOLVED

Believe Home Merchants Should Have First Chance to Supply Needs.

A move to find out why any resident of this city should go to Dallas or elsewhere for any article or any service that can presumably be obtained here was started Tuesday afternoon at a meeting of the program committee of the chamber of commerce business council.

The committee decided that if a buyer cannot obtain what he wants here, or get better prices elsewhere, the facts should be brought to the attention of the local dealers for correction, the idea being to conduct a survey and ascertain the facts. Members of the committee related personal experiences of the inability of local dealers to fill certain needs, making it necessary to go elsewhere.

"Give the local dealer the first chance" was the sentiment voiced at the meeting, "and if he can't furnish the goods you want, or meet prices available elsewhere, that's his trouble."

The committee decided to bring the matter before the business council by a series of "classification talks" somewhat similar to the Rotary club plan, but dealing more specifically with the goods and service that local men can offer. It is expected by this means to ascertain, to a large extent, just why a single Wichita Falls dollar should go out of town.

It was reported to the committee that approximately $50,000 is being spent by local concerns monthly in other cities for automobile accessories. Cheaper prices elsewhere is said to be the reason.

LAW ENFORCEMENT CITY OF CHICAGO ON THE EDGE OF CHAOS

CHICAGO, March 27.—Law enforcement in Chicago is on the edge of chaos, Charles G. Fitzmorris, general superintendent of police, told more than 100 persons representing 34 civic and industrial organizations last night. Kickham Scanlan, chief justice of the criminal court, Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, and James A. Patton, board of trade member and civic leader, in addresses agreed with the police board.

"There are judges on the criminal bench in Cook county (Chicago) who should be removed," Mr. Patton said. Earlier Chief Fitzmorris had asserted "there is an organization of criminals here; they have their judges and lawyers."

His election gives Vernon two high officers in fraternal circles, the other being L. G. Hawkins, grand commander of the Knights Templar of Texas.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER AT MEMPHIS RISING MORE RAPIDLY THAN EXPECTED

MEMPHIS, TENN., March 21.—The Mississippi river at Memphis reached a stage of 36.4 feet on the guage here this morning and is rising more rapidly than was expected by the local weather bureau. All levees between the Missouri state line and the mouth of the St. Francis river in Arkansas are being patrolled and the patrol will be extended southward as the crest of the flood moves down the river.

Rivermen express the belief that the water will reach practically the same height as in 1916 when the guage here showed 43½ feet. There was no serious trouble with the levees in that year and engineers state that the embankments are in much better condition to stand high water now than at that time.

ITALY EXPECTS THE GENOA CONFERENCE TO REVIVE INDUSTRY

By Associated Press.

ROME, March 21.—As the date for the opening of the Genoa conference approaches, greater interest is being shown by the Italian public and hope is expressed that the meeting will serve to bring about economic reconstruction of Europe and lead to a much needed era of prosperity.

Public opinion here is in accord with that in England on nearly every problem to be discussed by the Italian financial commission but does not share the British point of view on one of the most important questions having to do with finance.

England is represented as favoring a scheme for the definite stabilization of the European currencies, equivalent in countries where exchange is much depreciated, to a virtual scrapping of the present currency, which would be replaced by currency having a gold basis.

It is remarked that this would only be acceptable to countries whose currency has definitely depreciated and not by others like Italy, who believe in the eventual recovery of their finances.

The latter countries, in accepting the British scheme, would be exposed, it is contended, to a general crisis due to the sudden change in the purchasing power of their money. In addition they would have to face huge expenses to put the scheme in effect, this in Italy's case being computed at four billion gold lire.

SENATOR REED WILL SEEK RE-ELECTION ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

ST. LOUIS, MO., March 21.—United States Senator James A. Reed today announced he would seek re-election on the democratic ticket.

Senator Reed said the issues of the campaign would be "the utter failure of the present national administration to fulfill its promises" and "its many breaches of faith."

Reed's only opponent for the party's nomination at the August primaries so far is Breckenridge Long, of this city, third assistant secretary of state in the Wilson administration, who was a strong league of nations advocate. Reed was an irreconcilable opponent of the league pact.

Mr. Reed stated he has delayed in making an announcement because the office entails "a considerable personal sacrifice," but a great "concern regarding vital public questions now confronting the country," have convinced him it was his duty to "again stand for nomination." Again asserting that during the 11 years of his senatorship, he has been guided solely by a desire to serve the public interests, he declared "the independence of the legislative branch of the government is as essential to the maintenance of the republic as is the independence of the executive or judicial departments."

Replying to a question as to whether he would support the whole democratic ticket if nominated, Senator Reed emphasized that "in every campaign I ever made in the last forty years I have always supported the entire ticket."

STATE OF OKLAHOMA SOLE EXECUTOR AFFAIRS OF THE CLOSED BANKS

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 21.—The state banking department is sole executor of the affairs of closed banks in this state, it was held in effect by the state supreme court here today when it made permanent a temporary writ of prohibition recently issued against District Judge John Norman of Okmulgee preventing him from appointing receivers for the failed Bank of Commerce of that city.

The writ of prohibition was sought by William H. Zwick, assistant state attorney general, after Judge Norman had named two receivers for the failed bank and enjoined Fred Dennis, then state bank commissioner, from administering the affairs of the institution. The case was recognized as one of unusual importance in that the officers of the banking department to take over the affairs of defunct state banks was directly denied by Judge Norman in naming receivers for the Okmulgee institution.

TIMES DAILY MARKETS

COTTON MARKET.

New York Cotton

NEW YORK, March 21.—The cotton market was again dominated by weather conditions this morning and after opening steady at net advance of one point sold off about ten points in response to predictions for generally clear weather over the belt during the next day or so. There was selling by New Orleans and southern houses while most of the early demand came from Liverpool and commission house interests. Twenty-four notices were issued today. Subsequently May advanced from 17.82 to 17.96 and July from 17.22 to 17.34 on renewal of Liverpool buying which proved to be about the only feature of the early forenoon market.

On later support from the southwest and the continent, May advanced further to 18.01 and July to 17.36, the market at these levels being around six to 13 points net higher. General trade continued light as there was little in the news to stimulate operations on either side.

The mid-afternoon market was dull but fairly steady with prices 10 points up from the lowest. Selling pressure was checked by flood reports and the liberal exports.

The cotton market closed steary.

New Orleans Cotton

NEW ORLEANS, March 21.—Favorable weather over the belt, no rain being reported in any section, caused a drop of 4 to 7 points in price of cotton today soon after the opening. Better reports from Liverpool and Manchester stimulated moderate buying and at the end of the first hour of trading prices were 2 to 9 points over the close of yesterday. May fell to 16.56 and reacted to 16.66.

The large exports for the day, 26,488 bales from Galveston and 21,-149 bales from Savannah, caused enough buying to put prices nine to 14 points higher than the last quotation of yesterday, but at noon the market was back to just about the level of yesterday's close. May traded up to 16.71 at its best.

The cotton market closed steady at a net advance of 1 to 10 points.

GRAIN AND PRODUCE

CHICAGO, March 21.—Wheat tended downward today affected more by absence of any aggressive demand than by any special bearish development. Some notice was taken of dispatches indicating that Argentine wheat could be delivered in Europe much cheaper than shipments at present prices from the United States or Canada. The opening, which varied from unchanged to 1c lower, with May 137½ to 1.25 and July 1.20½ to 1.20¾, was followed by a material setback all around.

Slowness of shipping inquiry counted as a weakening influence on corn and oats. After opening 1c to 1c lower, May 61½ to 61¾c, corn underwent an additional sag.

Oats started a shade lower to a shade advance, May 38¾c.

Downturns in hogs were reflected by provisions.

Studebaker was another active and strong feature, gaining 1½ points. Rails reflected further substantial accumulation under lead of transcontinentals, grangers and coalers. Oils were dull within narrow limits. The few backward or heavy features included American Telephone, Famous Players and American Zinc, these showing losses of large fractions to one point.

Selling of the steels and the specialties subsided during the midsession, the market becoming comparatively dull. Several of the junior rails, including Chicago Great Western and Chicago & Alton, were taken in at moderate gains.

The closing was irregular, sales approximated 900,000 shares.

PANTRY BOY AT HOTEL CHARGED WITH MURDER OF LADY ALICE WHITE

LONDON, March 21.—Henry Jacobi, 19 years old, pantry boy at the hotel where Lady Alice White was fatally injured last Monday night, was arraigned in police court today charged with murder.

He is alleged to have confessed to striking Lady White with a workman's hammer. She was found unconscious in her room Tuesday morning and died the next day. Her skull had been fractured.

Lady White was the widow of Sir Edward White, late chairman of the London county council, and was between 50 and 60 years old. In a lucid moment after her injury she declared a burglar had entered her room and struck her.

Jacobi is a pale faced youth, quiet and unoffensive in appearance. He had been employed in the hotel only a few days prior to the murder. His work consisted principally of washing crockery and cleaning plate. In his spare time he said he read a number of cheap novels, mainly of the detective type.

Since the death of his mother 12 years ago he has been mainly cared for by his grandmother. His father is employed as a barman.

No evidence was revealed in court to indicate the reason for Jacobi's act. The detectives who arrested him testified that the youth offered to pick out from the number of hammers brought into court the one with which Lady White was killed.

PROBE OF RECENT FIRE APPARATUS ACCIDENT IS HELD

COMMITTEE OF CITIZENS HEAR EVIDENCE BEFORE CITY COUNCIL.

BURNETT AVE. PAVING CONTRACT IS AWARDED

Divided Between Concrete and Bitulithic—$2 Meter Inspection Fee Passed.

A hearing before a committee of citizens, on the fire truck accident of last Friday night in which one of the firemen was injured, was held Monday night at the city council meeting. The committee will submit a report in writing later.

The "silent cop" at the Ninth and Travis intersection was said by O. W. Hines to have been partially responsible for the crash. Mr. Hines said the fire truck was traveling rapidly, but did not think its speed excessive. Another witness, a woman, said the apparatus was going at top speed. W. W. Gardner, T. B. Noble and J. A. Richolt are on the committee.

The hearing was held at the request of Fire Chief McClure, who explained that he wanted some policy to be adopted as to the speed of fire trucks; that either they should have absolute right of way, with the responsibility on private vehicles to keep out of the way, or that extreme caution should be observed. The citizens committee report will probably make some recommendation on this feature.

Gas, water and current consumers will have the privilege of betting $2 on the inaccuracy of their meters, under the provisions of an amendment to the weights and measures ordinance passed on second reading Monday night. A consumer who thinks his meter wrong would put up $2, which he would lose in the event the meter were found correct. Should the meter be found faulty, the company would pay the $2 and the consumer would get his money back.

Contract for paving Burnett from Tenth to the Valley tracks was awarded piecemeal. L. E. Whitham got one block, for concrete, at $422.59 per 50-foot lot, and the remainder went to the bitulithic company at $456.56 per lot. Most of the property owners had expressed preference for bitulithic. The one block of concrete, between Tenth and Eleventh will hook up with concrete both north of Tenth on Burnett, where two blocks are being paved under private contract, and on Eleventh. South of Eleventh, bitulithic will be used.

After some discussion, it was agreed that 15 cents per 1,000 gallons shall be paid by other city departments to the water department, for all water used, this being in line with the policy of keeping the water department on as separate a financial basis as possible. The city will also pay itself $25 a year rental on fire plugs.

The council authorized the borrowing of $60,000 to pay current expenses and enable the new administration to come in without any floating indebtedness. The dog ordinance was passed finally.

Dr. J. F. Reed was again present at the council meeting, and appeared to be considerably improved after his illness, though still required to use a cane.

VERNON BANKS GAIN IN COMBINED RESOURCES

VERNON, TEXAS, March 21.—Vernon banks for the March 10 call this year show combined resources of $2,606,655.04 and deposits total $2,069,661.43. The gain since the call two months ago has reached $538,828.56 in resources, and $891,718.80 in deposits. Vernon bankers share equally the spirit of optimism which is clearly manifesting itself in financial circles everywhere.

Funds accruing from the sale of county road bonds have been materially responsible for the good showing of local depositories, but cannot be given all the credit. Business conditions here are gradually improving, and there is a more decided spirit of optimism locally than for some time.

HASKELL CHRISTIAN CHURCH DEDICATED

Largely Attended Service Features Great Day in History of the City.

HASKELL, TEXAS, March 21.—Sunday, March 19, was the greatest day in the histor, of the First Christian church of Haskell. All the other churches in town dispensed with their 11 o'clock services and met with them to help celebrate the completion of their beautiful new building. There being a house full of adults, the children were entertained at the Methodist church.

Rev. George L. Snively, one of the great men of the Christian church, said to have raised $1,000,000 for benevolent purposes in one year, was master of ceremonies for the day. After preaching a powerful sermon on "The Fundamentals of Our Faith," he proceeded in a most unique way to not only raise enough money to pay the $20,000 debt on the church, but $7,000 over to help build a new parsonage. He asked the men to pledge in the name of their departed loved ones and their wives and children, and that every name in which money was pledged, whether living or dead, would be engraved on a white sheepskin and hung upon the walls of the church.

Dr. Snively then turned the services over to Rev. J. M. McKissick, who asked the audience to rise. Mr. F. M. Squyres and Miss Ruth Payne came forwar and in a few well chosen words, Dr. McKissick pronounced the ceremony that united them in marriage.

All the people, both at the Methodist and Christian churches, were then invited to the basement of the church where a bountiful luncheon was served to between 1500 and 2000 people.

In the afternoon there was a union memorial service. Judge W. H. Murchison paid a beautiful tribute to the pastor, P. W. Walthall, and his departed wife, also to Mr. Curtis M. Ballard, founder of the First Christian church, the brothers W. W. and R. B. Fields, deceased, and little Deyo Hunt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Hunt, who met his death by lightning one year ago.

Mrs. J. U. Fields paid tribute to the sacred dead of the Methodist church, speaking especially of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Garrett, Christian pioneers of Haskell.

Mr. R. E. Sherrell spoke of the departed of the Presbyterian people especially of Mrs. Williams, who left all her property to the orphan's home, and Mr. Black, who willed his property to the church.

Mr. O. B. Norman told of the departed members of the Baptist church. Rev. McKissick then spoke of The Old Days.

After the evening service the formal dedication of the building, with the pastor in charge, took place. Those assisting him were Messrs. Marvin Post, Hardy Grissom, T. E. Ballard and H. S. Post. Special music was furnished throughout the services of the day by Mr. and Mrs. George Fields, Mr. Tom Pinkerton and daughter, Mary Lee; Messrs. Fred Mauldin, Roy Neal and the splendid choir.

A few of the out of town visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Paxton of Denton, Senator Goss of Seymour, Messrs. A. B. Carruthers of Rochester, Miss Olive Meadors and Mrs. Hamby of Dickens City, Mr. and Mrs. Homer D. Wade, Rev. and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel, Mesdames Ray and Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Dyer and Mr. McDonald, all of Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Cole, Mesdames W. L. G. Carney and wife of O'Brien, Walter Robertson of Weinert, Rev. McKissick, president of Midland college and Rev. George L. Snively from the state of Illinois.

BRIGHT SUN AND EAST WINDS TAKE WEATHER IN HAND

The god of winds, Aeolus, Tuesday morning permitted his son, Eurus, to hold the reins on the winds. However, the report from all agents on railroads leading into the city reported practically no wind movement although the direction was east.

Clear skies and a bright warm sun were general and the lowest minimum temperature reached during the night was at Texline where the agent reported 38 degrees. At Woodward the lowest point was 40; Amarillo, 45; Childress, 49; Abilene, 47, and Wichita Falls, 51.

Monday afternoon the sun's rays chased the mercury locally to the 81 degree point.

There were no disturbing features reported from any point in the district although east winds are regarded as bringing a change in the conditions.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate and Start a World of Trouble

Calomel is mercury; quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calomel! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.—(Adv.)

REPORT MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM NOW

Says we must keep feet dry; avoid exposure and eat less meat

Stay off the damp ground, avoid exposure, keep feet dry, eat less meat, drink lots of water and above all take a spoonful of salts occasionally to keep down uric acid.

Rheumatism is caused by poisonous toxin, called uric acid, which is generated in the bowels and absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine. The pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly, cold weather the skin pores are closed, thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate this uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first twinge of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which overcomes uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.—Adv
