Lynn Gets New Chance On Soil District

Tahoka Bulldogs Playing Seminole Tonight At 8:00

Tahoka Bulldogs will open their conference schedule tonight at 8:00 o'clock when they entertain the Seminole Indians on the Tahoka field.

As a special favor, Supt. W. T. Hanes announces, all men in the U. S. armed forces home on furlough will be admitted to the game free.

Seminole, playing its first year in Class A competition, is expected to give the Bulldogs trouble. The last two years of Class B competition found Seminole district champions. Though loser of a game, Seminole has a strong ball club this season, runs plays from the T-formation, is fast, and strong on passes. Offensive stars are Dearing, 138-pound quarterback, Halfback Boark, and Fullback Hargrove.

The Bulldogs expect to keep the Indian attack well under control, however. The Bulldogs have been improving with each game, and are becoming very proficient at this game of football. Even Coach Jackson smiles when the prospects for the remainder of the season is mentioned. He declares the boys have the best spirit of any team he ever coached, and Friday, barring injuries, will be in the best shape of (Continued on Back Page)

Class AA Borger Defeats Tahoka

In a game at Borger last Thursday night, the game Tahoka Bulldogs took on the Class AA Borger Bulldogs, and though they lost 32 to 0, the game was much, much closer than the score indicates.

On the opening play of the game, Dwane McClintock, Tahoka back, took the kickoff from Tahoka's 10 yard line to Borger's 40 yard line. But the Tahoka boys were apparently a little uneasy before the supposedly big bad Borger boys, and let the Borgans get out in the lead.

In the second half, however, the Tahoka boys found themselves and made many nice gains. In fact, Tahoka made 9 first downs to Borger's 14, and on one sustained drive by Curry, Sonny Roberts and "Hoss" West carried the ball to the Borgers six-inch line, where they were held for down. Tahoka played every man on the roster, although Fullback Cecil was in the game only about one quarter.

Borger is coached by "Windy" Nicklaus, who since leaving Tahoka about nine years ago has coached at Amarillo Junior College and an Oklahoma college, each time producing winning teams, before going to Borger this year.

Cases Transferred To Brownfield

The case of L. A. Enloe, who was tried and convicted on a murder charge in this county and whose case was reversed and remanded by the Court of Criminal Appeals, was last week transferred by Judge Louis Reed to Brownfield for trial there.

Also transferred to Brownfield was the civil suit of Birdwell vs. D. E. Harris. Birdwell is suing for damages for personal injuries sustained when his car and that of Harris were in collision. He alleges negligence on the part of Harris.

The criminal case against Harris, in which he is charged with drunken driving, has been transferred to the county court and has been set for trial on October 27. The offense of drunken driving has been reduced by law from the grade of felony to a misdemeanor since Harris was indicted, a change which made the transfer necessary.

The case against Leo Cunningham was scheduled to be tried in the district court here on Thursday of this week.

Given New Contract

SUPT. W. T. HANES

Hanes Re-elected Head of Schools

Superintendent W. T. Hanes, of the Tahoka Public School, was given a new contract by the school board at its meeting Tuesday night.

Hanes has been head of the system three years before this session, and the new contract for three years will replace an old one, beginning with the current school session, or extending two years from the end of this term, according to Prentice Walker, board chairman.

The action will, no doubt, meet with almost unanimous approval of Tahoka school patrons.

Hanes is prominent in West Texas school circles, being secretary of the West Texas Teachers Association. He takes a prominent part in local civic affairs.

During the present administration many improvements have been made in the local school at moderate increase in the budget, including a completely revised curriculum, addition of public school music, home-making in the grades, additional practical business courses, band and junior band, and the putting of high school athletics on a self-sustaining basis. Among improvements to the school plant have been a new brick bus garage, campus beautification, lighted and sodded football field.

Educators recognize the Tahoka schools as being one of the best small town systems in West Texas.

Eastern Star To Sponsor Program

"Hawaii" will be subject of a moving picture and lecture to be presented by Miss Claudia Draper at the High School auditorium at 8 o'clock Tuesday night. The show will be sponsored by the Eastern Star, whose members are selling tickets, the funds to go to the Eastern Star.

Miss Draper, who was reared here and who recently returned from Hawaii where she worked in a hospital, will show moving pictures of this beautiful land, native feasts, dances, and tell of the customs, etc. Her program is said to be a "scream."

Dr. Prohl Is Again Able To Be On Duty

Dr. Emil Prohl, who sustained back injuries when he fell from a stool in his office while treating a patient, a little over two weeks ago, was able to be back in his office for the first time yesterday.

Dr. Prohl was in a Lamesa hospital about a week and has been convalescing at home.

TWO EDUCATIONAL EXHIBITS SATURDAY

The Dixie Club will have two educational exhibits on Saturday, October 18.

One will be at the Cash Store, "Using less tender cuts of meat"; and the other will be at the A. L. Smith Food Market, "Consumer Buying."

Four Injured By Wreck At School

Four people were slightly injured Wednesday at noon when two cars collided at a street intersection adjoining the Tahoka grade school. Considerably bruised were Kenneth Ross, driver of one car, and A. J. Minor, driver of the other, and the latter's son, A. J. Jr., and his sister-in-law, S. Na Barrington, whom he was taking to school.

Kenneth Ross was driving north and Minor west, when Minor said, the other car loomed up before him at the intersection, and before he could stop the two cars had rammed into each other. Impact of the collision carried the Minor car across the street while the Ross car went wild, cut out across the school campus, and was finally brought to a stop in the F. L. Prater yard after John Kirkwood, a teacher, had jumped aboard the car and brought it under control. Ross had been "knocked out" in the collision, but though bruised was back in school Thursday.

Sina Barrington received deep cuts in her knees and body bruises, and A. J. suffered a slight concussion and bruises, while A. J. Jr. received only a few bad bruises and scratches. Both cars were badly damaged.

The accident occurred at a corner where vision is bad, but school officials have been trying to control traffic, especially that crossing the paved street north and south, as protection against injury to the school children. Due to the fact that mist was falling, there were few school children on the grounds or others might have been injured by the wild car.

Rain Again Delays Crop Harvesting

Cotton picking has been greatly retarded again this week by wet weather. Only 517 bales from this year's crop had been ginned here at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, according to reports given to the News by the gins.

The cotton had been opening rapidly for a few days prior to Tuesday, when it began raining again. Quite a good many pickers had arrived but many more will be needed if and when the weather clears for any considerable length of time.

While there has been much misty, drizzly weather, the precipitation the past week has not been very heavy. On Thursday of last week while the News was being printed .09 of an inch of rain fell here. It was heavier in some parts of the county. On Tuesday of this week, .13 of an inch fell and on Wednesday .19. As this is being written on Thursday the skies are heavily clouded and it looks as if more rain might be in the offing.

The total rainfall this month is 2.23 inches in Tahoka, bringing the total for the year up to 34.01.

A destructive hail did much damage Tuesday on several farms between O'Donnell and Draw, it is reported.

Dale Is Conducting Lubbock Revival

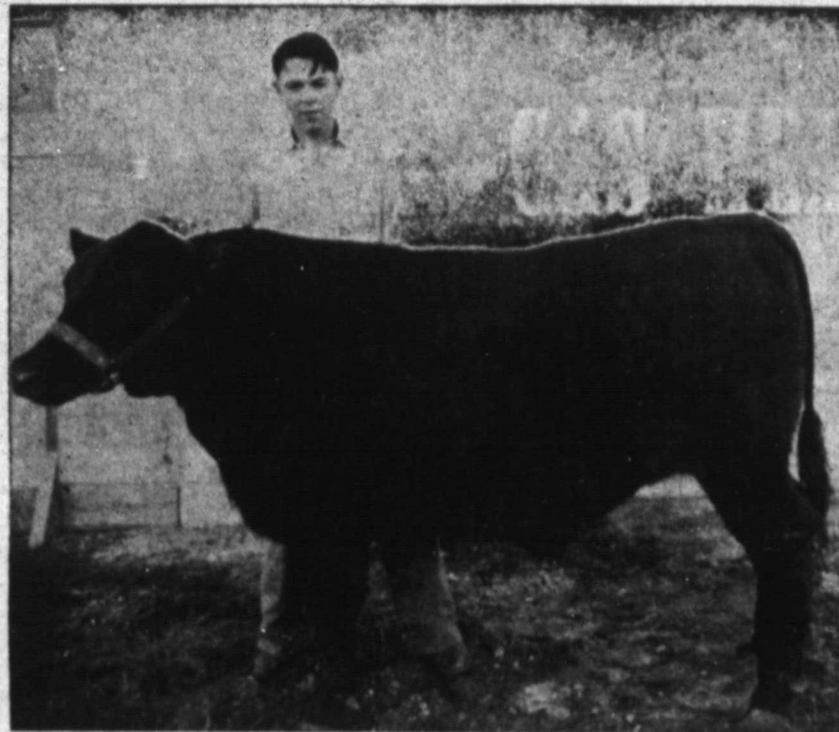

Rev. George A. Dale has been in Lubbock since Monday conducting a revival meeting in Calvary Baptist Church, of which Rev. C. J. McCarty is pastor. The services are to continue throughout next week. Rev. McCarty will fill the Baptist pulpit here next Sunday.

This is the second year in succession that Brother Dale has conducted revival services in the Calvary Church, having conducted the first one about this time last year.

Next Tuesday night the Brotherhood will hold their regular session in the Baptist Church here and a number of visitors have been invited. The Brotherhood at Forsan has indicated that they are planning to be here in a body.

Dean Nowlin is president of the local organization, and a good program is being planned.

Tahoka Boy's Calf Places In State Competition

Elbert Boullion's black Angus calf, 15 months old and weighing about 1,050 pounds, won seventh place at the Dallas Fair Junior Fat Stock Show last week, according to a message received by Mrs. Boullion from Elbert and his father, who had taken the animal down.

This was considered a good winning considering the keen competition that arises in an exhibit in which all parts of the country are represented.

The Boullions expected to sell the animal this week and bring the money home in their pockets.

Elbert, Jr. is a member of the F. F. A. chapter in the local school and raised and fed this calf as a home project, under the supervision of Leslie Browning.

Luallin, Defense School Teacher

Ovid Luallin, local mechanic and garage operator, was selected instructor for the Defense Training Center at a meeting of the Tahoka School Board members Tuesday night in the court house.

Classes will be held three hours a night for five nights a week in the Luallin garage. Instruction will begin as soon as the equipment can be installed.

If there are still out-of-school boys between the ages of 17 and 21 that have not placed their applications and are interested in attending this school, they should see Mr. Leslie Browning at the high school immediately or attend a meeting of such students at the High School on Tuesday night, October 21. Students will not pay to attend the defense training center.

Farmers May Ask For FSA Farms

Letters are being mailed to all families who filed an application to purchase a farm under the terms of the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act in 1940 with an application blank enclosed so they may renew their applications.

Applications may be filed in the local Farm Security office at any time during the year by tenants, share croppers and farm laborers. These applications will be reviewed by the local Tenant Purchase Committee and applicants notified as to what action is taken.

It is the desire of the Tenant Purchase committee to have applications up to date each year so proper consideration can be given each applicant. Any tenant, share-cropper, or farm laborer may secure an application form by calling or writing the Farm Security office in the courthouse at Tahoka.

H. A. Maasen Joins Wranglers Club

Lubbock, Oct. 16.—H. A. Maasen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Maasen of Tahoka, was initiated into the Wranglers Club at Texas Technological College recently. Initiation service was held for six new members.

A sophomore journalism student, Maasen is also a reporter on The Torredor, semi-weekly campus newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Harrison of Lubbock were visiting here Wednesday. Homer is on the Lubbock police force.

Farmers Will Vote On Conservation Proposal Oct 25

Lynn county land owners will again vote on October 25 in an election to determine whether or not a Soil Conservation District will be created embracing lands lying in Lynn county.

This is the second such election to be held in Lynn county. On March 9, 1940, an election was held on the creation of the proposed district composed of Lynn and Dawson counties. More than the necessary two-thirds of the land owners of Lynn county voted in favor of the district. However, the land owners in Dawson county, voting against the proposed district, more than offset the Lynn vote. Practically every other South Plains county is now located in a Soil Conservation district.

The State Soil Conservation Law promises the means that farmers need for working together, for democratically developing a program to conserve their soil. The basic principle underlying the law is to place the responsibility for planning and carrying out a Soil Conservation program squarely upon the shoulders of local landowners. Under its provisions, the initiative for forming a soil conservation district must come from local land owners. No district can be formed unless the land owners want it. Once the district has been formed, control rests directly in the hand of local land owners, and cooperation on part of the land owners is strictly voluntary. In brief, the law enables farmers (Continued on Back Page)

Lawrence Resigns As AAA Secretary

C. A. Lawrence announces this week that he has resigned his position as secretary - treasurer of the Lynn County AAA, to take effect next Monday. His successor has not been announced.

His resignation will bring many regrets to the farmers and business people of the county. He has served them faithfully for more than seven years, is thoroughly conversant with the government AAA program in all its details, and is just as thoroughly acquainted with the condition, the needs, and the desires of the farmers of Lynn county. He has been with the department practically ever since the Triple-A program was inaugurated, beginning his work here on July 1, 1934. First he served as treasurer and later was assigned the additional work of secretary.

Mr. Lawrence feels that both his health and his private interests demand that he give up this work. He expects to remain in Tahoka until about the end of this year when he will remove to his farm near Littlefield.

Mr. Lawrence recently sold a farm near Idalou at a rather fancy price and thereupon purchased a larger farm near Littlefield. He owns still another farm in Lubbock county. These should give him plenty of outdoor exercise, all right, a thing which he says he needs.

The announcement of his resignation follows.

"I wish to announce to the farmers of Lynn county that I have resigned my position as secretary-treasurer of the Lynn County AAA, effective Monday, October 20.

"I wish to take this occasion to express my thanks for the co-operation and many kindnesses shown me while serving the farmers in the above capacity. I have tried to serve impartially every farmer in the county and deep down in my heart I will always treasure the friendships which I feel that have been made. To the farmers who have served on the county and community committees through the years I have been in the county, may I express my deep appreciation for the sacrifices that have been theirs in serving in the capacity for which they were chosen."

Jewish Rabbi Is Rotary Speaker

The Rotary program given here Thursday was one of the best that has ever been given.

The speaker of the day was Rabbi Isadore Garske of Lubbock, and his subject was "The Russian Situation."

The Rabbi was born in Russia, while that country was still under the ruthless rule of the Czar. He himself witnessed a few examples of the cruelty of the Czar's soldiers, the barbarous Cossacks. In fact, he was a victim of their cruelty on one occasion himself. He saw how the few exploited and robbed the many; how the ruling classes made serfs of the masses.

He recalled the Revolution of 1917, when, he said, Kerensky as the leader of the Revolutionists succeeded in setting up a purely democratic government; but it didn't last. One government succeeded another until Joe Stalin. He pictured Stalin as an unscrupulous dictator as untrustworthy and vicious as Hitler himself.

But, he took the position that we must help Russia—not for the sake (Cont'd. on back page)

Ladies Attend B.-P. W. Conference

Hattie Server, delegate from the local Business & Professional Women's Club to the district conference in Pampa last weekend, gave her report at the club's regular meeting in the county courtroom Tuesday night. Mrs. Lenore M. Tunnell appeared on the conference program, Clare Ruth Nichols, club president, and Mrs. Gladys M. Stokes finance chairman, also attended.

The clubs voted to pay the Red Cross office's phone bill for the next three months, and to pay the installment charges.

Mrs. Inez Knight, vice president, presided.

The P. T. A. met in the Grassland Gym Tuesday night of last week. A good program was put on by the school.—Reporter.

PRATER'S GRANDDAUGHTER IS REMARKABLE CHILD

Mrs. Rudelle Prater Winn and her little daughter Sudelle arrived Friday from San Diego, California, for a month's visit with Mrs. Winn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Prater.

Mr. Prater says that his little granddaughter is a wonderful child and he cited facts to prove it. She weighed only 3 pounds and 9 ounces at birth and had to be kept in an incubator for two and a half months. Now she is eight months old and weighs 17 pounds and is healthy and strong. Condensed milk and boiled egg has been her chief diet, Mr. Prater says.

Mr. Winn is employed in Aircraft Defense work in San Diego.

BIG FAMILY REUNION HELD HERE SATURDAY

The Sherrills and Porterfields and related families from four states enjoyed a big family reunion in the City Park and at the American Legion Hall here last Saturday, with about sixty persons present. This included a few specially invited friends.

With J. E. Sherrill, Draw, in charge of arrangements, in party first assembled in the City Park, where some time was spent in happy converse. The American Legion Post had kindly consented to the use of the Legion Hall, and so the dinner was spread on the tables there. And the feast, both in quantity and in quality, was all that the most fastidious diner could have wished. If the tables had been endowed with the power of speech, they would have groaned under the load.

Invocation was pronounced by Rev. Billy Porterfield, pastor of the Methodist Church at Blackwell. Following the meal, some had to leave for their respective homes but many lingered far into the afternoon.

This is the second such family reunion, the first having been held last year in Ontario, California, with nearly as many present as were here Saturday.

Included in the group last Saturday were four Porterfield brothers and four of their sisters with many members of their families. The brothers and sisters were: Jim, Hardy, John, and Gus Porterfield, and Mrs. Lona Stephens, Mrs. Pearl Pollock, Mrs. P. W. Smith, and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill.

Among those present including the above-named, were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Porterfield of Ontario, California; Mrs. Lona Stephens of Los Angeles, and John Porterfield of Cornville, Arizona, who arrived here on the preceding Sunday. Mrs. Pearl Pollock of Oklahoma City, who came Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Porterfield of Lamesa, who came Thursday; Rev. and Mrs. Billy Porterfield and two children of Blackwell, who came Friday; Mrs. P. W. Smith and son of Tokio, Mrs. Terrell Hane of Denver City, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Porterfield and family of Post, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Green of Lamesa.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sherrill and family of Draw, Mrs. Riley Porterfield of Draw, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Sherrill of O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Sherrill and Mr. and Mrs. W. M. TOM HALE JR. ENTERS MARATIME TRAINING

Tom Hale Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hale Sr. and a graduate of the Tahoka high school, recently enrolled for training preparatory to enlistment in the U. S. Marines. Upon arrival at the training station at St. Petersburg, Florida, he wrote back to his mother, and we quote him as follows:

"I got here Okay and I like it Okay—Bunch of nice friendly kids here. Liked to have talked myself to death explaining all about Texas to these boys. They are here from everywhere, Georgia, Alabama, Pennsylvania, North Carolina, Mississippi, and I have found three from close to home, two from Monahan and one from Oklahoma.

"Six dormitories here, but they the not all full yet. This base isn't even completed yet; two big training ships here now and one supposed to come in about six weeks from now. The one coming in is the American Seaman, and I imagine it will take us all out in about two months to go to South America and around for a training cruise. There are about sixty leaving on a training

Friends present included Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Ables, Olee McKee, Miss Corinne McKee, and Miss Frances McKee, all of O'Donnell; P. A. Hazlewood of Floydada, and Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Hill of Tahoka.

Then we eat at seven, muster at eight, and raise the flag and start classes at nine; eat again at twelve, go to classes from one to four, and then we are off. "WHERE FOOD IS FRESH"

Urge Support Of Food-For-Freedom

Lynn county farmers are asked today to do their part in the "Food-For-Freedom" campaign by increasing their production of milk by 3,192,000 pounds and eggs by 121,000 dozen in 1942.

Tentative production goals set for the county were announced by the Lynn County USDA Defense Board as follows:

1,328,000 dozen eggs, increase of 121,000 dozen over 1941.

18 per cent increase in beef cattle marketed.

29,072,000 pounds of milk, increase of 3,192,000 pounds over 1941.

10 per cent increase in hogs marketed and butchered on the farm.

8 per cent increase in feed grains (grain sorghums, oats, barley, and rye).

6 per cent increase in sheep and lambs.

In addition every farmer is urged to grow a home garden.

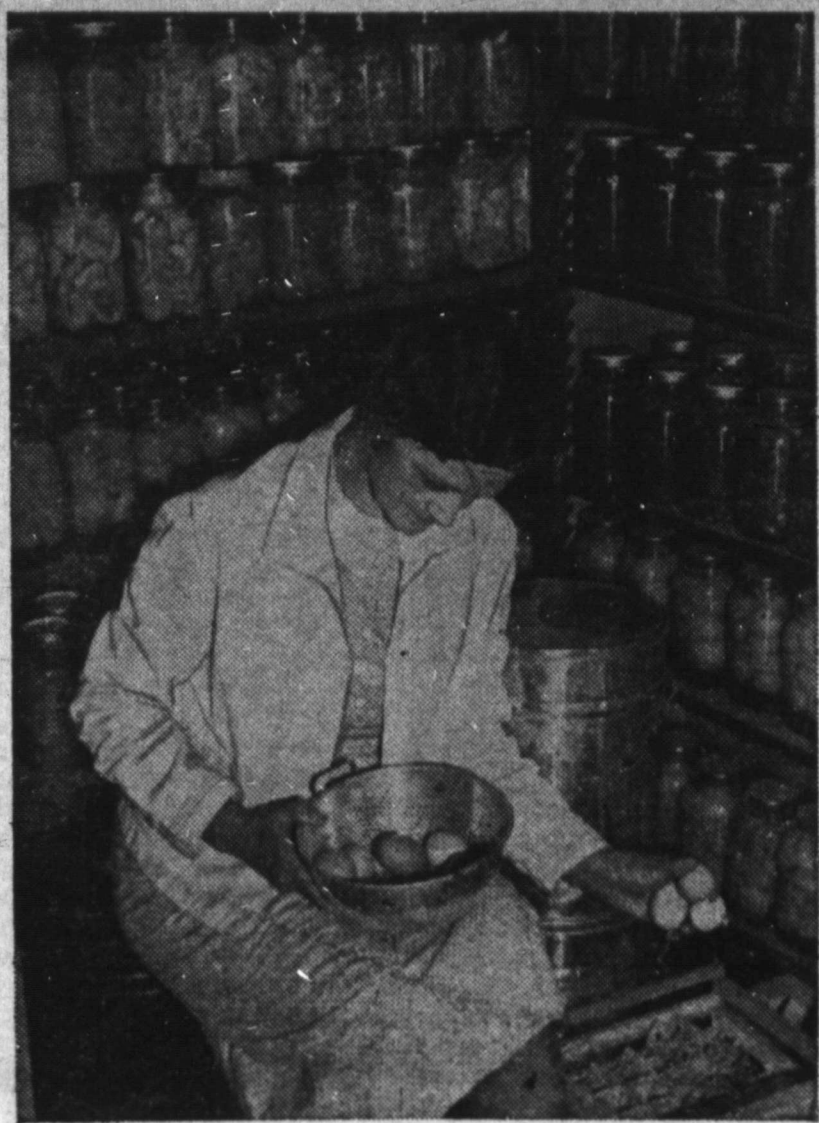

"These goals are minimum rather than maximum goals", Vernon C. Willhoit, chairman of the county board, pointed out. "Perhaps the farmers of the county can produce more than enough to meet the goals. If they can, then that's all to the good. The county USDA Defense Board will consider the goals which were submitted to us by the State USDA Defense Board, and if the local situation seems to warrant increasing the goals or if it seems necessary to reduce some of them, then we will do so.

The principal factors to consider in setting the goals, the board chairman said, are the actual productive capacity and outlets in the county. It is important, he pointed out, that the state board and the Secretary of Agriculture know definitely just how much production of the needed foods can be expected.

"We have promised that the U. S. Department of Agriculture will use its powers to maintain fair prices for the products needed in the Battle of Foods", Willhoit declared. "Production of these foods is important—just as important as winning battles on the sea and on the land. I know that Lynn county farmers will do their part in the production of the greatest food crop in American agricultural history."

The county USDA defense board will meet October 16th to study the tentative production goals for the county. From that meeting will go a report to the state board stating the goals as agreed upon by the county group. From now until November 1 groundwork for the farm-to-farm canvass on production pledges will be laid. During the first three weeks of November AAA county and community committees, working with and assisted by the USDA defense board, will contact every farmer and ranchman in the county with a farm plan sheet. In addition to information concerning allotments, soil-building allowance, etc., which has appeared on farm plan sheets in the past, the form this year will include a production pledge on the products needed in the Food-For-Freedom campaign, the county chairman said.

Russell Vernon's Father Is Buried

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Vernon were called to Wichita Falls on Wednesday of last week by the death of Mr. Vernon's aged father, W. A. Vernon, in a hospital there Tuesday night. He was 87 years old and had been sick several months.

The body was brought to Lubbock and funeral services were held in Sanders Funeral Chapel there Thursday afternoon. Burial was in the Lubbock cemetery in a grave beside that of his life companion, who died in May, 1931.

Deceased was a native of Tennessee and had lived in Oklahoma but for the past fifteen years he had been a resident of Texas.

Surviving him are three sons and four daughters: Ben Vernon of Lubbock, Hubert of Muleshoe, and Russell of Tahoka; Mrs. R. K. Mother of Hale Center, Mrs. Charles Harp of Norman, Oklahoma, Mrs. H. Giles of Post, and Mrs. J. Fry of Los Angeles, California.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

The Men's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church on last Sunday re-elected H. P. Caveness as their teacher for another year, every man present casting a standing vote.

We all hope for and look forward to a more interesting year for this class the next year.

We did not go into the lesson at all last Sunday, but had some really good talks on the teacher and the attendance of the members, which proved that the men are deeply interested in the class. On the closing period, the pastor made a short, direct-to-the-point talk which was very good.

We want to invite all men who are not in some Sunday School at other places to attend our Men's Bible Class every Sunday at 9:45. —Reporter.

Howards Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Howard of Lubbock, father and mother of Mrs. Frank Hill and Mrs. Harley Henderson of this city, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary last week end.

Not only is it a rare occasion when a couple lives to celebrate a sixtieth anniversary, but it is even more unusual that a couple has lived that long together and reared a family of thirteen children to maturity. But Mr. and Mrs. Howard have done just that, and last Sunday all their thirteen children and their families attended an anniversary celebration at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Howard Crausby, near Crosbyton.

Also unusual for so large a family is the fact that all thirteen children live in West Texas and every year hold family reunions on Mother's day, Father's day, and Christmas.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Howard were born and reared in Tennessee, where they met and married. They came to Texas several years later, and moved to old Estacado about 35 years ago. Later they moved to Crosbyton, where Mr. Howard served as county judge and operated Crosby county farms. About four years ago the couple moved to 1414 Avenue M, Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Henderson and daughters and Mrs. and Mrs. Frank Hill and daughter attended the anniversary party.

Miss Headrick Is Faculty Speaker

Miss Ineva Headrick, English teacher in the Tahoka High School and chairman of the evaluation committee, talked to members of the Tahoka school faculty at the monthly meeting Monday night at 7 o'clock in the high school building. Miss Headrick's talk was concerned with a philosophy of education and objectives for the local school system. This was the first step in evaluating the Tahoka schools.

Mrs. L. P. Craft and Mrs. Louise Wyatt reported on their recent visit to the schools of Midland and Seminole to observe the twelve-year system, the changes and effects it caused in the lower grades.

FORMER TAHOCA BOY NOW IN ICELAND

The News is informed that J. W. Tucker, who resided with his parents a few miles out east of Tahoka not many years ago, is now with Uncle Sam's Marines in Iceland.

He enlisted with the Marines from Eastland some time ago, and since that time his parents have removed to Dublin. Several members of the family and connections still live in Lynn county.

We guess J. W. will be able to tell some interesting experiences in Iceland and elsewhere years hence after he is released from the service, if he should ever choose to be released.

INEZ KNIGHT HOME FROM FLORIDA

Mrs. Inez Knight returned last Friday from Florida, where she visited her cousin, Mrs. Roy Dew of St. Petersburg, and toured the entire state.

Mrs. Knight accompanied Mrs. Dew home when the latter visited here and in Waco with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Edwards, last August. She flew from Florida back to Waco, where she left her automobile.

It was 449 years ago last Sunday that Columbus and his sailors first sighted land on this side of the Atlantic. We notice that a New York Judge wanted to take the honor away from him Monday on the grounds that a Norseman had beat him to it by several centuries. We are willing to give that Norseman all that is coming to him, but to say the least of it nothing came of his discovery. Of course he didn't have any press agent to herald the great news in the newspapers, for there were no newspapers. But if Lief Ericson himself realized that he had found a new continent, he ought to have followed up his discovery with further explorations or at least he ought to have tooted his horn so loud that all his searoving friends would have been fired with the desire to find out what was to be found in the newly-discovered lands far to the West. Lief surely did miss a bet by not pursuing his quest further. While Columbus did not know that he had discovered a new continent, he did make several other trips across the Atlantic, in the face of all kinds of discouragements and persecutions, in order to gain all the light possible about the new lands, which he thought to be India. His was one of the bravest spirits of all time—and it is the spirit that counts. And like Columbus himself, his fame, in spite of that New York Judge, will continue to sail on, and on, and on. We are for Columbus. If it hadn't been for him we might not have been here.

Newspaper reports from the capitals of Europe bring accounts almost every day of acts of barbarity and terrorism on the part of Hitler and his Nazi co-conspirators that find no counterpart in modern times. As an example, Associated Press reports published Tuesday state that eight persons were put to death at Prague at the behest of the conquerors upon accusations of "activities hostile to the state or injurious to the population." In the United States a man could not be made to pay a fine of a penny on a vague charge like that. Nine others, we are told, eight butchers and a merchant, were sentenced to death for "illegally slaughtering livestock and selling foodstuffs on the black market." All these were residents of the "Protectorate" of Bohemia-Moravia. Wonderful protection these conquered people are being given! If a patriotic resident of these subjugated countries dares to express a desire for independence and freedom, he may be shot for opposition to the powers-that-be. Can Americans remain neutral when a beastly bully like Hitler is over-running one country after another and bringing them under his iron heel?

Coccidiosis, the poultryman's "Bug-aboo," now effectively combatted with Dr. Salsbury's RAKOS. Low in cost and easy to give.

COTTON QUIZ

WHICH IS BETTER PROTECTION AGAINST BOMBS—COTTON OR CONCRETE?

COTTON. SEVEN FEET OF COTTON WILL RESIST A 3-TON BOMB DROPPED FROM 30,000 FEET—WHILE A 1-TON BOMB DROPPED FROM 15,000 WILL PENETRATE 6 FEET OF REINFORCED CONCRETE!

It is our suspicion that if Senator Taft and Senator Nye and Senator Johnson and Representative Fish and Representative Tinkham and Nazi-decorated Lindbergh and other eRepublican non-interventionists, isolationists and grouches keep on helping Hitler they will just about finish wrecking the Republican party by the time the next Presidential election rolls around. The Wheelers and the Bennetts Clark among the Democrats would be just as bad if there were enough of them. But they are not as numerous as they are noisy. Like little toad frogs after a rain, a dozen of them can make a noise that sounds like a thousand.

In spite of the abundance of newspapers, magazines, radios, and picture shows, there are yet many people who take time to read a book now and then. As an evidence of this fact, Miss Estelle Huffman, in charge of the county library, reports that on last Saturday afternoon alone she issued 105 books to patrons. The number has frequently run to as high as a hundred on Saturday, and from forty to fifty as a rule are issued on each of the other week days. Most of the books issued are either good fiction or books containing useful information. We think that it is a healthy sign when there is a lively demand for good books.

How we wish that all of Tahoka's vacant blocks were just half as attractive as our courthouse lawn. Somebody is to be commended for making it one of the beauty spots of the town.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. (Boots) Swan and little son were here last week end visiting relatives and friends. They live at Lamar, Colorado. Boots had recently been on a deer hunting expedition into the mountains near Glenwood Springs, and brought home the bacon. However, they were caught in a snowstorm and says he doesn't believe they would ever have gotten out had it not been that there was a big truck in the vicinity and they followed a trail blasted by this truck to the highway.

RAINDL-SEIDENBERGER

In a beautiful ceremony at Sts. Cyril and Methodius Church Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock, Miss Esther Seidenberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Seidenberger, became the bride of Frank Raindl Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Raindl Sr., of Wilson. Rt. Rev. Mons. L. P. Netardus officiated at the ceremony and said nuptial mass.

The church was illuminated by the rays of the morning sun and the white flowers and lighted tapers on the altar was a beautiful setting.

The bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of the traditional wedding march.

She wore an exquisite gown of white slipper satin. The yoke of her dress had a sweetheart neckline and a row of satin-covered buttons down the front of the waist. The fully-gathered skirt extended into a short train. The long-fitted sleeves tapered to points at the wrist. Her long tulle veil descended from a heart-shaped wreath which was fastened on either side by orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern. For something borrowed, the bride wore a gold chain and cross belonging to her cousin.

The groom, who wore a dark green suit and a boutonniere of seeded pearls, met the bride at the altar.

The maid of honor was Miss Edith Seidenberger, sister of the bride, who wore a floor-length dress of aqua marquisette with a gathered taffeta waist and a full skirt. She carried a bouquet of heavenly vine and fern, and wore a white chrysanthemum in her hair. She was met at the altar by her brother, Johnny, who acted as best man.

Miss Pauline Raindl, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid. She wore a rose colored floor length marquisette dress, with a gathered skirt. She also carried a bouquet of heavenly vine and fern. Her escort was Emil Raindl, who wore a dark suit and a white carnation.

The witnesses were Lon Spann of Houston, brother-in-law of the groom, and Albert Seidenberger, uncle of the bride.

Mrs. Seidenberger and Mrs. Raindl, mothers of the bride and groom, were attired in dark crepe dresses, and each wore a corsage of pink carnations.

After the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, followed by a dance at night at Kokernot Grove.

The bride is a graduate of St.

CELEBRATING WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Tom Dikes was in town Tuesday afternoon celebrating his thirty-eighth wedding anniversary, that is, he said he was celebrating. At any rate, he was in a happy mood and he dug down into his "jeans" on meeting the News man and pulled out a paper rag worth one dollar to pay for a years subscription.

Tom complimented his wife by declaring that these thirty-eight years were the shortest thirty-eight years he had ever seen. Honestly, he said it did seem like just a short time since that happy event occurred down at Eastland. His grandfather, Elder A. J. Baggett, minister of the Church of Christ, tied the wedding knot. The bride was Miss Saphronia Dabbs. She was not present to express her happy feelings, but we guess she is to be complimented, too, for sticking it out with Tom for thirty-eight years.

The News congratulates both of these good people and the editor hopes to attend their Golden Wedding anniversary.

W. C. Cook, prominent citizen of Wilson, was here on business Monday. He thought a few days of sunshine would work a revolution in the appearance of both the feed and cotton crops. Said the feed had been damaged somewhat by too much rain but thought a little sunshine would minimize the damage.

Mrs. Woodrow Walker left Saturday in company with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Herring of Lubbock, for a visit with her grandparents, Mr. Herring's parents, at Waco. They expected to return home the last of this week.

Ludmilla Academy with the class of '38, while the groom is an industrious young son of prominent residents of Wilson. The young couple will make their home in Wilson, where the groom is employed.

May their pathway through life be filled with sunshine and happiness, is the wish of their many friends.

4-H CLUBBERS MAY SECURE LOANS

Farm boys and girls in Lynn county whose parents are now co-operating with the Farm Security Administration, may obtain loans to finance 4-H Club and vocational agriculture projects, Wyman J. Welch, rehabilitation supervisor for the FSA, said today.

Projects which may be financed in this manner include baby beehives, dairy heifers, small ewe flocks, bred gilts, and so forth.

"These projects," Mr. Welch said, "are to be under rules of 4-H and vocational programs, under the direct supervision of county agents and vocational teachers, in cooperation with FSA supervisors."

The Farm Security Administration's participation in these projects, it was learned, is designed to make it possible for all children in Farm Security families to obtain the educational and vocational training opportunities available in the public school systems and community affairs.

Don Turner, county agent, said: "I see in this plan an opportunity for youngsters, who otherwise would not be able to participate in club work, to carry out successful projects and to receive the advantages of club work."

"The Farm Security Administration's lending program for boys and girls," said Leslie Browning, vocational agriculture teacher in the Tahoka High School, "is not only an opportunity for more youngsters to participate in vocational training, but it is also a method of providing adequate financing so they can carry out their projects with the maximum efficiency. Moreover, this plan will enable boys and girls to acquire splendid experience in business and financing."

Farm boys and girls, whose parents are now working with the Farm Security Administration in this area, may obtain complete details about financing their projects from the County Farm Security office, the county extension office, or the vocational agriculture department in their high school.

"INTERNATIONAL SQUADRON" TO OPEN FRIDAY NEW ADA

The Ada Theatre's next feature, scheduled to open today is the new Warner Bros. picture "International Squadron," starring Ronald Reagan, with a featured supporting cast that includes Olympe Bradna, William Lundigan, Joan Perry and Reginald Denny.

"International Squadron" tells the story of a daredevil Yankee pilot who joins up with the all-nations unit of the R. A. F. This is the colorful squadron whose heroic exploits have thrilled and amazed the world. Made up of fliers from Poland, Czechoslovakia, Norway, France, the Americas and the British dominions, it is the most truly international fighting group the world has ever known. The Yankee flier joins up with them, after taxiing an American bomber to London. One night of a London air-raid makes him decide to stay, but it takes longer for him to learn the true meaning of the group spirit of the International Squadron. When he does, he more than lives up to it in heroism.

Audiences who have previewed "International Squadron" in Hollywood have lauded Reagan's performance as one of the year's best, and the picture as a thoroughly exciting screen adventure, well-blended with romance. Its stirring aerial combat scenes, showing Spitfires and Messerschmitts are among the most thrilling ever filmed.

"International Squadron" was directed by Lewis Seiler, from a screen play by Kenneth Gamet and Barry Trivers, suggested by a play by Frank Wead.

Congratulations ...

To Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Nelms upon the birth of a little daughter at the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock last Friday morning. The babe will be christened Nancy Lee. Mrs. Nelms and babe were released from the Hospital Monday and are here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anglin.

Dave Childers of Lubbock was here Thursday and stated to a representative of the News that his son Jack is expected home Saturday for a one day visit. Jack is now a Government aviation instructor at Phoenix and is teaching his fourth class there. It requires six weeks to give the course. Jack was reared in Tahoka, and his many friends here are proud of the record he is making.

Labor Shortage May Be Possible

Many cotton pickers have been arriving in Lynn county the past few days, but according to those who are supposed to know, there is possibility of a shortage unless the weather clears or some provision is made to take care of the small groups of itinerant Mexicans arriving here who are unable to find a place to stay until the weather clears.

Some of the Mexicans are turning back because of lack of a place to stop out of the weather, it is said. But, if they had definite jobs in sight and some shelter, they could be prevailed on to stay here.

E. W. Flumey of the Texas State Employment Service, has set up an office here in the County Agricultural building, and he asks that all farmers who need hands now or who will need them soon to get in touch with him at once.

INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL

Our Sunday School and Training Union are rapidly growing. The average attendance for Sunday School the last two Sundays has been 259. This is better than any two Sundays' attendance for the past year. We are looking for 275 Sunday. Since Bro. Dale is away, we are hoping that every one will work harder and try to have more in our Sunday School, and let him know that we are working earnestly.

We have had 80 in Training Union the last two weeks, and are hoping for 100 Sunday night. At the close of the Training Union we are going to have a church wedding to start the services of the evening, and feel that no one will want to miss this extra part of our services.

RELEASED FROM ARMY

Loy Huff, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Huff of New Lynn, received his discharge from the Army on October 12, according to his father, after having been in the service for seven months. He was stationed at Obispo, California. Loy was past 28 years of age, and was released but is subject to call in case of national emergency.

J. G. Price brought to the News office a few days ago a sample of the cushaws he has raised this year out on his farm. This is a fine, large specimen, and he says that he has a hundred more like it.

Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Kennedy and daughter Dorothy Dale and nephew Everett Dale Jr. were here from Lubbock Sunday visiting Mrs. Kennedy's parents, Rev. and Mrs. George A. Dale.

Miss Marie Steele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Steele of New Lynn became the bride of Woodrow Benton Mason, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Mason of Garnolia, in a ceremony performed in the home of the bride's parents Sunday afternoon.

Rev. W. H. Jackson, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wilson, performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a blue velvet dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink dahlias. She wore a borrowed cameo ring and bar pin for something old.

Iva Steele was her sister's only attendant. She wore a blue frock.

The groom was attended by his brother, Connie Lee Mason. Immediate members of the two families and close friends of the couple witnessed the ceremony.

Following a brief wedding trip in Central Texas, the couple will be at home at Ellington Field near Houston, where the groom, who is a staff Sergeant, is now stationed.

W. N. McAllister of Draw was here Monday and reported the outlook as good down on the farm, but he admitted that he had found it utterly impossible to keep his good neighbor, H. W. Calaway, in the straight and narrow path politically.

ODDS & ENDS

by Lee E. Eyer,
the Elder

What has become of the once popular ukulele? We haven't heard one in we don't know when.

And what have become of the groups of Hawaiian entertainers whose principal musical instrument was the simple and inexpensive but enchanting ukulele?

We guess they belonged to an era that has passed or is rapidly passing.

There was a time earlier in the present century when Hawaiian singers and entertainers, with their ukuleles, were all the rage. They appeared on nearly every summer Chautauqua (so-called) program throughout the country; and sometimes they appeared as one number on the then popular lyceum courses that were given in many towns and communities.

The ukulele became popular about the turn of the century. That probably was a natural outgrowth of the times. Hawaii and the Hawaiians had just come into the spot light. It was back in the "gay nineties" when Queen Lili first strutted out on to the stage and did her stuff.

Queen Lili of the Hawaiians wanted to be a queen in power and authority as well as in name; and so she undertook to be "cock of the walk" over in her island home. It was in the "gay nineties," too, that the Hawaiians deposed her and made their successful fight for annexation to the United States.

So, for several years just before the end of the last century Hawaii got into the front page headlines every week or so in nearly every daily newspaper in the country. The people became Hawaii-minded. Many of the wealthy and the curious of that day who were in the habit of taking trips to Europe or to some other foreign land put Hawaii on their visiting list. We remember that there was one lawyer in our town soon after the turn of the century who decided that he would like to go over there and practice law. So he crated up his law books and shipped them to Honolulu. He followed by train and boat. But he did not find the situation there to be what he had imagined. Nearly all of the inhabitants were Orientals. Very few members of the White race were there. Not many of the people could speak the English language. A United States court had been established there, but there was very little litigation. Not much work for a lawyer, we guess. At any rate, after our friend had been there a few weeks, he crated up his books again and came back home.

But the Hawaiians were an interesting people and Hawaiian music, whether weird or peppy, was most enchanting. So, it spread like wild fire in our country. And Hawaiian entertainers became popular. Many Americans bought ukuleles, and even in the twenties Hawaiian music appeared on phonograph records. We have one of the old favorites yet, Aloha Oe. But now the phonograph as well as the ukulele may be found only in the attic or the junk room, except in those few instances in which they are being sold in combination with radios.

Yet, the summer "Chautauqua" that we spoke of is also a thing of the past. And the lyceum courses have all but disappeared from our entertainment agenda. The lecture platform is now only a memory.

All of these used to be popular agencies for affording entertainment, the dissemination of knowledge, and the advancement of culture among the people. They have been entirely crowded off the stage by the picture show and the radio. We sometimes doubt if it was a good swap, as wonderful as the movies and the radio are as educational agencies.

But these modern instruments of entertainment and education have this advantage: they are patronized by many more people; they touch the lives of the masses, the poor as well as the rich while only the few felt able to buy Chautauqua, lyceum, and lecture platform tickets. Furthermore, these provided only a few occasions of entertainment and instruction during the course of a year, while the radio and the motion picture show are available almost every day of the year.

But it must be admitted that many of the young people and adults of that day had opportunities to hear and to contact personally many of the great orators and brilliant leaders of the nation in a way that the radio and the picture show do not afford.

Yes, and there is another institution that played a vital part in the entertainment and the education of the people for centuries in all the civilized countries of the world that has been largely supplanted by these movies and radios. We refer to the in the land and its opera house. From early colonial days in this country until after the advent of the present century, every sizeable town in the land had its opera house.

In these were presented every form and character of stage entertainment, from grand opera down to comic musical entertainments, some of which were "rotten" but many of which were really high-class and worth while. In these also were presented all character of plays, from the great Shakespearean productions to the crudest farces and comedies on the stage.

The stage stars of the pre-movie days were necessarily of a distinctly different character from the stars of moviedom. They included such celebrities as Joseph Jefferson, John Drew, Edwin Booth, E. H. Sothern, John McCullough, Julia Marlowe, Maude Adams, Ethel Barrymore, Fanny Davenport, and numerous others. They were great actors; and they appeared in person, not in a mere picture, on the stage, before you. It is regrettable that the old actors and old style of acting have disappeared, for the great plays of Shakespeare and other great playwrights since can not be portrayed on the screen.

All of those great actors had the power to really electrify an audience in any great drama. It was said of Edmund Kean, the great English actor, for example, that "seeing him act was like reading Shakespeare by flashes of lightning."

Yes, the old opera house is gone. It was an imposing structure on the corner in almost any good town of the last century and for a decade or two into this century. But it has been torn down. Possibly a motion picture theatre occupies the site, and maybe there are two or three other motion picture theatres in the town. It may be that a filling station occupies the site of the old opera house, for there are a lot of

TAHOKA 4-H CLUB
ELECTS OFFICERS

The Tahoka 4-H Club met last Friday in the grade school building with Vice-President Joretta Hill presiding.

The following officers were elected: President, Dolores Nowlin; vice-president, Joretta Hill; secretary, Joretta Shawn; and reporter, Lloydine Edwards. These officers will select a co-sponsor to help Miss McNatt soon.

The program consisted of a discussion of etiquette and correct manners when attending public programs and when meeting people.

There were 57 members present, and the next meeting will be held Friday, October 17.—Reporter.

Mrs. L. D. Howell left Monday for Paris, Texas, to visit her mother, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Beulah Atkins left Monday for an indefinite stay at Plains, Yoakum county.

Filling stations on choice corners all over the business districts. The filling stations and garages have taken the place of another institution that also went the way of all flesh along about the time the opera house began to make its way out. Yes, you guessed it—the livery stable.

The livery stable and the wagon yard! They were useful institutions of the "horse and buggy days," but they, too, have passed.

Change—change and development—these constitute the law and the essence of progress.

And Time marches on!

Dorman Gandy, who was seriously burned three weeks ago when gasoline which he was pouring into the tank of a tractor exploded out on the Marvin Hinkle farm, is reported now to be rapidly recovering. The burns were so serious that he suffered much pain for several days.

WHY

New, 1942 SERVEL
ELECTROLUX models are now available. But why buy now? Read these answers and decide for yourself—

Q. 1. Why not wait until next summer? Why buy now?

Ans. Will you be able to buy any refrigerator then? No one knows. The defense program demands daily more and more steel, copper, etc.—the very materials required to build a Servel.

Q. 2. Can I get terms to suit my purse, if I wait?

Ans. No one knows. But—right now, a small down payment puts Servel Electrolux in your home—with 18 long months to pay!

Q. 3. How much tax will I have to pay, if I wait?

Ans. No one knows. Excise taxes, such as these, can be increased by Congress as required. And defense authorities say "far heavier taxes yet to come."

Q. 4. Is it patriotic to buy now?

Ans. Buying now may release man-power, machine power, materials, later on, when they are much more badly needed for defense. And protecting the nation's health—your family's health—is a number one requirement for defense.

Q. 5. Is Servel a good investment at a time like this?

Ans. Food prices are going up! We probably haven't seen anything yet. The higher they go, the more Servel Electrolux will save in your home. Remember—it's always summer in your kitchen! At present food prices we can show how an average family may save up to $8.60 per month!

Q. 6. How long can I expect such savings?

Ans. Servel, the Gas refrigerator, is backed by an iron-clad 10-YEAR GUARANTEE on its entire refrigerating system—at no extra cost—still the ONLY one that is. Because there are NO MOVING PARTS in its freezing system. Nothing to wear, to cause costly repairs, to grow inefficient and costly to operate. In West Texas today, there are hundreds of Servel Electrolux refrigerators that have been giving faithful, trouble-free, refrigeration for 10, 12, 14 years—without one cent for service or repairs! Over and over again, they have paid for themselves. Yours can, too. Come in and pick out your 1942 Servel today.

VISITING FROM CANADA

Mrs. Mattie Taylor of Sasatchewan, Canada, recently came to spend an indefinite visit with her brother, A. L. Lockwood. She is his youngest sister and the only one living. Mr. Lockwood says, and he is the only one of the Lockwood brothers living. Mrs. Taylor found it a little difficult, she reports, to obtain a passport from Canada into the United States, at least there was much delay in the matter. This is attributed to the disturbed world conditions that now exist.

W. N. McAllister of Draw was here Monday and reported the outlook as good down on the farm, but he admitted that he had found it utterly impossible to keep his good neighbor, H. W. Calaway, in the straight and narrow path politically.

the season. Cecil Curry, Tahoka's plunging fullback, who hasn't been stopped all season, will be in good shape, his leg injury having healed. Tackles Werner Shaffner and Dub Fulford are showing remarkable improvement in play, also.

Tahoka has played four games this season, losing two and winning two, all non-conference affairs. The losses were to Class AA teams, Lamesa 33 to 0 and Borger 32 to 0. The victories were over Andrews 24 to 12 and Lockney, in the same class but from District 4-A, 26 to 0.

Though this will be Tahoka's first conference game, the Seminole Indians, who are coached by Horace Jones, have already played three conference games, winning from O'Donnell 25 to 0, from Post 13 to 0, and losing to Brownfield last Friday 32 to 12. Incidentally, Tahoka is the only team in the south zone of District 5-A that has not played at least two games. This may be considered an advantage, though, since Coach Jackson has had to completely rebuild the team this year from reserves and new men almost entirely.

of Stalin, not for the sake of Russia itself, but because Russia is fighting our battles; she is standing in the way of the power-mad Hitler, who will turn upon England if Russia fails and who will then turn upon America if England fails. We are facing the greatest menace in our history, he declared, and we must aid Russia for our own protection.

His auditors sat almost breathless as the Rabbi spoke, and they gave him prolonged applause at the close. Preceding his address, Melvin Rathel delighted the audience with a solo "Old Man River"; and for an encore he sang "The Road to Mandalay." Mrs. Rathel was the piano accompanist.
