Marathon Talks Continue In Effort To Avert Rail Strike

Two Major Bills Get House Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — From the sometimes fractious House of Representatives, President Johnson had two legislative plums today. They were: The big and controversial wheat-cotton subsidy bill; a top priority election year measure on his desk and ready for his final signature. House approval of the food stamp program, a key part of his declared "war on poverty." This goes to the Senate, where it must await action in the dim future after the civil rights bill is disposed of. The House acted on both measures after a hot, bothered and bewildering session that began at 11 a.m. Wednesday and didn't end until 12:44 a.m. today.

families would buy food stamps with the portion of their income they would normally spend for food. The stamps would be redeemable at the grocery for more. See MAJOR BILLS, Page 4A

Turk Parliament Hit By Regular Slugfest

Rail Walkout Would Affect Mail Service

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Post Office Department will restrict the movement of all but first-class mail in the event of a nationwide railroad strike.

The department announced today that the shipment of all second-, third- and fourth-class mail beyond 150 miles from the point of origin will be curtailed. First-class mail will be moved by all available transportation and airmail will continue to get top priority handling. Postmaster General John A. Gronouski said. Second-class mail includes newspapers and magazines. Third-class mail consists largely of advertising circulars. Fourth-class mail is parcel post.

First-class mail will move by air only on an available space basis. Gronouski warned shippers of emergency parcel post items such as medicines to use first-class or airmail if the shipment is to go beyond 150 miles. Shippers of perishable goods were urged to discontinue mailings at once pending further information on the threatened strike.

Midnight Freight Embargo Posted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz pressed emergency negotiating sessions today in an effort to head off a nationwide rail strike at midnight.

After a night session running into the early morning hours, Wirtz met with union representatives again at 10 a.m. Railroad negotiators were scheduled to join the session later.

The labor secretary indicated that he planned to keep negotiations going right on through to the strike deadline if no agreement was reached. He had reported no progress when the night session ended at 3:15 a.m.

To Virginia Final Journey For MacArthur

WASHINGTON (AP) — The body of General of the Army Douglas MacArthur started the last journey today, borne in high honor from the Capital rotunda where thousands paid homage as it lay in state. Nine military bearers carried the simple steel GI casket from the high catafalque under the great dome of the Capitol to the caisson waiting at the east entry. A ramrod-stiff West Point cadet unit followed bearing MacArthur's five-star flag.

Saturday Burial The cortege set out for National Airport and a flight to Norfolk, Va., where MacArthur is to be buried Saturday. Capt. Leonard Ballard of Capitol police estimated that between 60,000 and 75,000 persons had viewed the 84-year-old general's chiseled features as his body lay in the open casket since Wednesday when it was brought here from New York. One of the last to visit the bier was Mrs. MacArthur, accompanied by their son, Arthur. Escorted by Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, MacArthur's long-time aide, they stood silent a moment beside the casket just before it was carried outside.

Procession A procession of homage had filed past through the night, swelling to tens of thousands earlier today. Servicemen, mothers carrying infants, limping and aged veterans, and whole classes of white and Negro schoolchildren joined the line that stretched four abreast across the Capitol plaza waiting their turn to enter the rotunda. That's when — J. E. Wolfe, chief management negotiator said after the Illinois Central walkout—nearly 200 railroads will post new work rules. And that's when the unions say some 200,000 workers will walk off their jobs. The dispute centers on the railroads' proposed changes in See RAIL STRIKE, Page 8A

The labor secretary indicated that he planned to keep negotiations going right on through to the strike deadline if no agreement was reached.

He had reported no progress when the night session ended at 3:15 a.m.

Five unions and nearly 200 railroads are involved in the dispute.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Most U.S. railroads have embargoed all freight effective at 12:01 a.m. Friday, the Association of American Railroads said today. The embargo, because of the threatened nationwide railroad strike, serves notice that the railroads will not accept freight for loading, transporting, interchange or reconignment. The association said that most railroads will not schedule passenger trains that would be unable to reach their destination by the 12:01 a.m. strike deadline.

It said that in the case of trains already en route, efforts will be made to move them to points from which travelers may obtain alternative transportation. As the all-night sessions ended, Wirtz indicated that President Johnson was gravely worried about the prospect that a rail strike might seriously damage the nation's economy. Strike Threat Facing the government—and the railroad-riding public—was a 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard Time Friday strike deadline.

Recount Requested In School Election

By CARROLL COPELIN Mrs. Bill (Jan) Thacker, a 15-vote loser in Saturday's school board election here, filed a formal request for a recount with the chairman of the school board Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Thacker lost to incumbent Mrs. Laura T. Doing, 1,781 to 1,688 in complete but unofficial returns of the 5,003 votes cast in the election.

In a letter to Floyd Randel, school board chairman, Mrs. Thacker said: "Since the school trustee election on April 4, I have received a great number of calls suggesting a recount of the votes due to the margin of less than one-half of one per cent and the possibility of human error. "It is my understanding that after the votes had been counted in all six election places that for some reason the votes for Mrs. Doing and myself were recounted in the Reagan school box only.

Oklahoma Jurists Face Tax Charges

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Federal indictments have charged two prominent judges who together have served 36 years on the Oklahoma Supreme Court, with evading payment of $25,000 in income taxes. The indictments returned Wednesday by a federal grand jury named Justice Earl Welch, long a leader in Oklahoma Indian affairs, and supernumerary Judge N. S. Corn. U.S. Dist. Atty. B. Andrew Potter said both said they would appear before a U.S. Commissioner today and post $5,000 bond. The judges were not taken into custody after the indictments were returned.

Welch, 72, is senior member of the state's highest court with 32 years continuous service. Corn, 80, went into semiretirement in 1958 after 24 years as a Supreme Court justice. As a supernumerary judge, he is assigned by the Supreme Court to hear a few cases a year. Both judges are Democrats. Welch was indicted on five counts and faces a maximum prison sentence of 25 years and a $50,000 fine. Corn was named on three counts of tax evasion and two counts of willfully filing an incorrect tax return. He faces up to 21 years in prison and a $30,000 fine. Neither judge would comment on the indictments. Corn said: "I had a heart attack some time ago. I don't want to be bothered." A spokesman at Welch's home said the judge would have nothing to say. The indictments accused Welch of evading payment of $13,462 in federal income taxes from 1957 through 1961. Corn was indicted for evading $11,763 in taxes from 1957 through 1959.

Warming To Follow Brisk 36

It came mighty close, but a freeze which threatened to hit Wichita Falls Thursday morning didn't quite make it and a warming trend is expected to take command. The mercury dipped to 36 degrees in the pre-dawn hours Thursday but quickly began an upward climb which was expected to take it to around 75 degrees during the afternoon. Wednesday had a maximum of 62.

Generally fair skies enveloped the area Thursday and winds were southerly at less than 15 miles per hour. Officials at the U.S. Weather Bureau said the warming trend should be in effect at least through Friday when the morning minimum is expected to be about 45 and the afternoon high in the upper 70s.

Sen. Kennedy Speaks Out For Passage Of Rights Bill

By HARRY KELLY WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., joined the Senate civil rights debate today with a declaration that John F. Kennedy's "heart and his soul are in this bill." "If his life and death had a meaning," said the assassinated president's youngest brother, "it was that we should not hate but love one another; we should use our powers not to create conditions of oppression that lead to violence, but conditions of freedom that lead to peace." It was the maiden Senate address for the young senator and he conceded he spoke on a common laborer. "I believe that if America has been able to make this adjustment for the Irish, the Italians, the Jews, the Poles, the Greeks, the Portuguese — we can make it for Negroes. And the nation will be strengthened in the process."

proposals, said he believed "the basic problem the American people face in the 1960s in the field of civil rights is one of adjustment. "It is the task of adjusting to the fact that Negroes are going to be members of the community of American citizens, with the same rights and the same responsibilities as every one of us." He said that in 1780 a Catholic in Massachusetts was not allowed to vote or to hold office and in 1840 an Irishman could not get a job above that of a common laborer. "I believe that if America has been able to make this adjustment for the Irish, the Italians, the Jews, the Poles, the Greeks, the Portuguese — we can make it for Negroes. And the nation will be strengthened in the process."

Indictments Certain To Jar Steel Firms

By ROGER LANE

NEW YORK (AP)—The steel industry's new headache, a major price-fixing indictment, is likely to jar it but unlikely to shake it from stem to stern like the 1962 price clash with President John F. Kennedy.

Initial reaction was a setback for steel shares in trading on the New York Stock Exchange. Some stocks were down more than $2 a share at the close.

Unlike the White House rebuke, the indictment is confined to allegations of past misdeeds. It cast no particular shadow on the future. Questioned were pricing techniques, not as in April 1962, when Kennedy challenged the propriety of a price increase as such.

Boom Levels

Secondly, steel producers are roaring along at near-boom levels, with profit margins widening, whereas two years ago they faced a softening market, a tightening cost-price squeeze, and the poorest earnings in 17 years.

The steel companies are benefiting more than most industries from recent federal tax benefits especially the 1962 depreciation reforms, and are laying out huge sums to modernize plants, thereby gaining in efficiency.

Two modest rounds of price increases in 1963 achieved a good part of what the steel makers were after when they posted, then withdrew, the $6-a-ton, across-the-board markup that stirred President Kennedy's ire.

Reaction

One phase of the administration's wrathful reaction then led to Tuesday's indictment. That was the launching of an investigation of pricing methods by the Justice Department.

The original inquiry died out, but its work was revived by a second grand jury whose term expired hours after the indictment had been returned.

The government antitrust charges were the sixth lodged against U.S. Steel Corp., industry giant, since the spring of 1962.

They were by far the weightiest, measured in the value of sales of products involved. Carbon steel sheets are the top dollar-volume item of most producers and account for about $3.6 billion in total annual industry-wide sales — more than one-fourth.

In much more restricted cases U.S. Steel has been accused of violating antitrust laws in the sale of structural steel, steel forgings, plastic pipe, steel and concrete water pipe and steel wheels.

Oddly, the steadiness of basic steel prices generally during the latter half of the period covered by the indictment—1955-1961—was cited in 1962 and 1963 as a justification for higher prices. The alleged price conspiracy meetings in New York hotel rooms by representatives of the U.S. Steel and seven other leading producers were said in the indictment to have focused on "extras."

What a customer ordinarily pays for steel sheets is made up of two parts: The basic published price per ton, plus a variety of surcharges for special dimensions, alloys, finishes, gauges, processes and the like. The extras can contribute significantly to the total figure.

Cold-rolled steel sheets, a heavy tonnage item used for auto bodies, have been quoted recently at $130.50 a ton by a leading trade magazine.

Classes For Convicts

By LARRY COFFMAN

OSSINING, N. Y. (AP)—Forty convicts filed into the Sing Sing Prison classroom for their weekly lesson in winning friends and influencing people—the accepted way.

There was little about the men or the classroom to indicate that the setting was behind the brick walls of the state prison "up the (Hudson) river" from New York City.

Killers, dope peddlers, sex offenders and confidence men sat shoulder to shoulder like college students and chatted freely as they waited for the instructor.

The convicts all had volunteered for the course to try to learn poise and self-confidence.

Subjects

Ages ranged from the early 20s to the late 40s. Race and nationality were as varied as the New York City melting pot that spawned most of these men.

An armed guard stood at the rear of the room. There were no bars on the windows.

At this class the instructor was Theodore C. Ehrsam, a slim, animated and intense man, a professor at New York University donating his time to the project.

Each of the inmates had prepared a brief talk, intended to emphasize speaking with enthusiasm.

The class applauded, energetically as Joe, serving 20 years for a bank holdup, was called as the first speaker.

Joe, a burly man with an unruly shock of graying hair, discussed how to get ready to go before the parole board. The applause sounded again as Joe returned to his seat.

Subjects

Later speakers turned attention to such subjects as eye care, fish tanks, the prison filtration plant and raft-making. Each time the speaker was greeted, and seated with spontaneous applause.

This was no special class. Deputy Warden Eddison V. Byram said the men, picked from more than 150 volunteers, ranged from above average to below average intelligence.

Sing Sing is the sixth of New York State's 22 correctional institutions to offer the 14-week course, developed and administered without charge by a specialty organization. Similar courses are given in more than 30 penal institutions throughout the United States.

Wardens generally agree prisoners benefit from the course.

Faith In Christ
Will Conquer Doubt

QUESTION: Will being a Christian rid my mind of all doubts?
—R. T.

ANSWER: The Christian life is called the "life of faith," but this doesn't mean that we never have doubts. Even Peter, when he took his eyes off Christ, sank beneath the waves of doubt. Jesus said: "O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?"

Doubting is the human side of our nature, and as long as we are in the flesh, doubts will arise. Satan also is the source of doubts. He writes a question mark over every command and promise of God. He said to Adam and Eve: "Ye shall not surely die," raising a doubt as to God's warning to refrain from eating the fruit of the tree in the midst of the Garden. They acted upon their doubts, and tragedy ensued. From that day to this men have been heeding their doubts, rather than the clear cut commands of God. And when we do, tragedy comes to our lives.

Doubts will come, even if you are a Christian—but the faith God gives us will conquer doubt. "This is the victory that overcometh the world (of doubt), even our faith."

General MacArthur: 'Home By Christmas'

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the third in a four-part series on Gen. Douglas MacArthur by Pulitzer Prize-winning Reiman-Martin of The Associated Press. MacArthur, who was there when MacArthur said it, tells how the "Home by Christmas" slogan came about and how the hopes to end the Korean conflict were lost.

By RELMAN MORIN
Associated Press Writer
"Home by Christmas" was a happy sentiment.
But it became a mocking memory for Gen. Douglas MacArthur and his admirers, and a barbed taunt hurled at him again and again by his critics.

MacArthur uttered the words on an icy morning in November 1950, at a moment when it appeared that the Korean War was all but ended—and victoriously. This writer was present.
The circumstances of the episode, which figured heavily in the end of MacArthur's career, are these:
On Thanksgiving Day, one of MacArthur's aides telephoned and said, "The general would like to see you in his office this evening at 6:30." Four other correspondents also were summoned to the headquarters in Tokyo.

Alone
MacArthur was alone when we entered his office.
His desk was completely cleared. His aides always said he would never go home at night until he had disposed of even the semirugged business of the day, no matter how late he had to work.
MacArthur's hands were always restless. Now he was rubbing the bowl of one of his pipes. He looked up with a slight smile and said he hoped he hadn't interfered with any Thanksgiving dinners. He said he was about to go home and settle down to his turkey. Then he said:
"I am going to Korea in the morning. I can take five of you. Takeoff is at 5 o'clock. You will be briefed on the plane."
This was somewhat unusual. Generally, when he went to Korea, he disclosed the purpose of the trip. Dispatches could be prepared by the correspondents for fast transmission and there was time to look up any necessary background. In this case, he said nothing was to be written in advance.
Communique
Shortly after takeoff the next morning, his aides handed around a communique. It was dated Nov. 24, 1950, and numbered No. 12. It said:
"The United Nations massive compression envelopment in North Korea against the new Red armies operating there is now approaching its decisive effort."
"The isolating component of the pincer, our air forces of all types, have for the past three weeks, in a sustained attack of model coordination and effectiveness, successfully interdicted enemy lines of supply from the north so that further reinforcement therefrom has been sharply curtailed."
"The eastern sector of the pincer, with noteworthy and effective naval support, has steadily advanced in a brilliant tactical movement and has now reached a commanding enveloping position, cutting in two the northern reaches of the enemy's geographical potential."
It was against this background that Gen. MacArthur launched the offensive in the west on Nov. 24 and issued his communique.
When his plane landed, that

"This morning the western sector of the pincer moves forward in general assault in an effort to complete the compression and close the vise."
"If successful, this should for all practical purposes end the war, restore peace and unity to Korea, enable the prompt withdrawal of United Nations military forces, and permit the complete assumption by the Korean people and nation of full sovereignty and international equality. It is that for which we fight."
The tone of this communique reflected the high optimism of the moment.
Weeks earlier, when the North Korean capital city Pyongyang was taken, MacArthur had said, "This war is very definitely coming to an end very shortly." There were reports that he had made a similar statement in more positive terms to a United Nations commission shortly before Thanksgiving. Now, communique No. 12 told the world, "If successful, this should for all practical purposes end the war."
Chinese?
But what of the Chinese?
These were the "new Red armies" to which the communique referred. They had started appearing at the front in October. Peiping said they were "volunteers." By the end of the month, however, they had lashed out with a strong counterattack. Organized units of the Chinese Red army—not a handful of "volunteers"—had conducted the operation.
Then a strange set of events took place.
Mysteriously, the Chinese vanished. Large fighting patrols went out hunting for them but found none. Next, they released groups of American prisoners. The soldiers said a Chinese woman translator had told them:
"The Chinese do not want to fight Americans."
Further, correspondents in the Far East were given to understand that the Central Intelligence Agency judged that large-scale intervention by the Chinese Reds was unlikely.
Background
It was against this background that Gen. MacArthur launched the offensive in the west on Nov. 24 and issued his communique.
When his plane landed, that morning, jeeps carried the party on a jolting ride across country to 9th Corps headquarters. Lt. Gen. Walton H. Walker, commander of the 8th Army, rode with MacArthur. The jeeps drew up in front of a wooden shack.

Waiting inside were Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter, corps commander, and his intelligence officer.
MacArthur took a chair directly in front of a large situation map. The offensive had started some five hours earlier. The blazing blue and red symbols on the map showed troop dispositions and the progress of the advance. Coulter told MacArthur of the latest reports from "up forward."
Questions
MacArthur asked a few terse questions. His knowledge of the terrain ahead was impressive. He seemed familiar with its smallest features.
Then Walker said to Coulter: "I notice you haven't mentioned any objectives, Jack. I don't like that word, 'objectives.' I think we should just keep pushing as hard as we can go."
"That's what we're going to do," Coulter replied. "We're not thinking in terms of objectives." MacArthur rose. He put his hand on Coulter's shoulder, smiled, and said: "That's right, Jack. You tell the boys that when they get to the Yalu, they're going home. I want to make good on my statement that they are going to eat Christmas dinner at home."
This was the origin of the "home by Christmas" statement.

Literal Sense
MacArthur could not have meant it in the literal sense. Even if the 8th Army had reached the Yalu River, if there had been no Chinese opposition whatever, the troops could not have been withdrawn immediately to bases in Japan—much less "home"—by Dec. 25.
He was simply hopeful of ending the war before the worst of the winter months settled over North Korea. He could not know the intentions of the Chinese Reds. Hence, the optimistic "home by Christmas" probably was designed for two purposes—to reassure Peiping that the advance would end at the Yalu and not go on into Red China, and to encourage the troops.
In any event, it backfired badly.
Mountains
The savage, forbidding mountains on the frontier concealed a Chinese horde. After the briefings, MacArthur flew over these mountains. Looking down from an oversize window in his plane, he carefully scrutinized the tortuous terrain. If he suspected that it crawled with enemy infantry, the only way to flush them out was to order a general advance. This he did.
For two days, the offensive moved ahead smoothly. Then the Chinese came out of the mountains like an avalanche and hit the 8th Army. A general retreat began.
There was to be no "home by Christmas."
Next: Scenes of bravery.

The Casual Way

SUPERIOR, Neb. (AP)—When Joe A. Shaffer of Guide Rock drove his car into a Superior garage for repairs, he was offered the use of another while his was in the shop.
Shaffer followed instructions to "take that Buick across the street."
The sheriff found Shaffer a week later to tell him there must have been two Buicks parked across from the garage because the one he was driving belonged to Mr. and Mrs. Halle Beck of Superior.

MRS. C. B. JOHNSON

Pioneer's Rites To Be Friday

Services for Mrs. C. B. Johnson, a resident of Wichita Falls for 45 years, will be 4 p.m. Friday from the Hampton-Vaughan Funeral Home chapel.

Officiating will be Rev. Wilson Wood, pastor of Southside Baptist Church, and Rev. A. C. Turner, former pastor of Southside Baptist, now of Irving, Tex.

Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Wayne Davis, Butler Moore, George Allen, Gerald Mote, C. R. McBea and C. B. Whiteman.

Mrs. Johnson, 83, died Wednesday at 1232 Bandera, where she made her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. D. McBea.

She was born March 16, 1881, in Madisonville, Tex., and came here in 1918 from May, Tex.

Survivors include five daughters, Mrs. Jack Jackson, Freeport; Mrs. L. E. Loyd, Corpus Christi; Mrs. Velma Bernhard, Mrs. D. Roy Allen and Mrs. McBea, all of Wichita Falls; three sons, C. F. Johnson, Fort Worth, and H. E. (Jack) and Ruble T. Johnson, both of Wichita Falls; two half-sisters, Mrs. Olive Stella Stirmann, Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Elsie Rogers, Newcastle, Tex.; two half-brothers, Alvis Savell, Seattle and W. W. Savell, Oklahoma City; nine grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Retired Barber Dies At 78

Funeral services for Jesse Munkres, 78-year-old retired barber of 1305 18th who died Wednesday of an apparent heart attack, are scheduled at 10 a.m. Friday in Hampton - Vaughan Funeral Home.

Dr. Landrum P. Leavell, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. Burley J. Welch, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Hope Cemetery at Henrietta.

Munkres, a native of Alford, was born Aug. 8, 1885. He lived in Electra before moving to Wichita Falls about 20 years ago.

Survivors include his wife; three sisters, Mrs. Effie McClure, Wichita Falls; Mrs. Ethel Moon, Dallas; and Mrs. Lucile Shaw, Coffeyville, Miss.; and two brothers, John Munkres, Artesia, Calif., and Oscar Munkres, Wichita Falls.

Mrs. Purnia Porter Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Purnia Porter, a Wichitan since 1922 who made her home with a daughter, Mrs. Toss Brown, 4610 Lake Park Drive, died Wednesday afternoon in a city hospital at the age of 83.

A native of Shiloh County, Ky., Mrs. Porter was born March 24, 1881. She came to Wichita Falls in 1922 from Clovis, N.M., and had been active in the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church here.

Survivors, in addition to Mrs. Brown, include a son, Roy Porter, Ennis; a half-sister, Mrs. Willard Parsons, Electra; four half-brothers, Burl Homer, Lester and Grigg Russell; one granddaughter and four great-grandchildren.

Services are scheduled at 10 a.m. Friday in the Pleasant Valley Baptist Church with Rev. L. H. Hood, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Crestview Memorial Park under direction of Hampton - Vaughan Funeral Home.

Pallbearers are L. A. Wittenberg, L. T. Boren, Henry Brown, Jess Smith, Hubert Hensley and Norman Kuykendall.

Mental Tests Slated For Millionaire Author

TOPSFIELD, Mass. (AP)—A millionaire author whose ancestry reads like an American-British "who's who" began mental tests today following the strangling of his 64-year-old housekeeper.

Louis Agassiz Shaw, 56, was ordered committed Wednesday for 35 days' observation at Danvers State Hospital by District Judge Philip Durkin.

An innocent plea to a murder charge was entered for Shaw, whose grandfather reportedly left a $23-million estate.

Shaw was brought into court after the body of Miss Delia Holland was found in a second floor room of Shaw's 15-room mansion.

She had been strangled manually, a medical examiner said.

Shaw, who police said had been under psychiatric care for 10 years, turned the Salem District courtroom into an uproar when he lay on a wooden bench during the arraignment and shouted as the clerk read the complaint against him.

"Cut it out. Cut it out," he shouted. "Shut up or I'll fight you. I'll kill you. Stop bothering me. Stop talking to me."

Shaw had authored many short stories, some of which were used in collections of works by contemporary American writers.

His father was Robert Gould Shaw II, whose first wife, Nancy Langhorne, later married Viscount Astor and became the first woman to sit in the British Parliament.

Shaw's grandfather, Quincy A. Shaw, made a fortune in mining. His mother was a Converse, an outstanding family in Boston.

Police said Shaw told them he strangled the housekeeper because "she was turning on gas jets in the house," trying to kill him.

A little later they emerged from the train, this time with the sorrowful-faced Mrs. MacArthur. Johnson bent his head, speaking to her as if in words of consolation.

Then, the procession through Washington's famous streets. On the same caisson that bore President John F. Kennedy, the general's casket rode. And there too was Black Jack, the ceremonial Army horse, with empty saddle.

Up the broad steps of the Capitol, their polished boots moving in slow, perfect unison, the military pallbearers carried the casket, to the rotunda.

There the chaplains of Senate and House eulogized the general. The Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, Senate chaplain, recalled for the audience of diplomats, Supreme Court judges, Cabinet members and other dignitaries, MacArthur's accomplishments in peace as well as war.

Two Disaster Funds Grow

Generous people with compassion for the hundreds who suffered hardships from Friday's tornado in northwest Wichita Falls have given more than $3,000 to disaster funds for two agencies.

George Clevenger, executive secretary for the American Red Cross, reported Thursday morning a total of $1,776 had been contributed to the Red Cross chapter here for use in the tornado rehabilitation program.

Brig William T. Johnson, commander of the Salvation Army here, said total contributions for that agency amounted to $1,419.

Received at the Salvation Army headquarters Thursday was a $10 check sent by Blanche McNamee of Higgins, Tex., to a Wichita Falls friend, Mrs. Lula Longan, 1530 Malcolm, for the Salvation Army.

Mrs. McNamee wrote: "Just heard over the radio this morning of the terrible tornado which hit your city sometime yesterday. Surely hope you were not in it. I feel so sorry for everyone. I know just how it is from experience. Ours came April 9, 1947. We rebuilt our house of concrete that was steel reinforced. It is real nice and cool in summer and some cooler than others in winter. But hope it is storm proof. Some say it won't take it. Hope we never find out."

She added a postscript: "We are enclosing check for your local Salvation Army organization. They are the organization which lives little better than the needy folks they help. Our best regards and hopes and prayers that you have been spared."

The Red Cross chapter reported that Den-1, Pack 29 of the Fain School Cub Scouts had donated 60 cents to the tornado fund.

Grand Jury Makes Report

Thirty-one persons were indicted by the Wichita County Grand Jury Wednesday in 36 true bills. Two other cases were passed for further study.

Rotary Hears Researcher

Midwestern University is the greatest asset you have in regard to industry being attracted to Wichita Falls.

This was the opinion of C. Fran Seay Jr., assistant to the president of Graduate Research Center, Dallas, who was the speaker at the regular noon luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club.

Seay told the Rotarians the new developments since the first atomic bomb explosion coupled with the population growth have helped create the need for even more new developments. "This in turn," he said, "caused the further need for more and more science students to research the many projects for the betterment of mankind."

The speaker further stated that education is one of the major needs of our country today and Midwestern University can be the drawing card for industry in this area.

STATE POLITICS Texas Appearance For Goldy Planned

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., is trying to work in a Texas appearance before the May 2 primary elections, state Republican Chairman Peter O'Donnell says.

O'Donnell predicted Goldwater's drive for the Republican nomination will draw a record 300,000 Republicans in the primary.

"People's thinking is coming our way. There is a growing disenchantment with Democrats," O'Donnell said in Austin at a news conference. He said the GOP is taking advantage of the trend by holding primary elections in all 254 counties.

In Victoria, gubernatorial candidate Don Yarborough of Houston said he was "gaining daily" on Gov. John Connally and was now within "shooting distance of victory" in the Democratic primary.

the national government — in short, to treat them like sheep tended by federal shepherds."

Jack Cox

Yarborough planned to return to Texas today after the Senate quit work for the weekend.

Dan Sullivan, a former aide of Senator Yarborough and now Democratic candidate for congressman at large, took up for Yarborough in a statement at Seminole. He said the attempts by one of his opponents, Robert W. Baker, to rob Yarborough of credit for the Padre Island National Seashore area was a "crude stunt."

In a Texarkana speech, Baker, a Democrat, said education is the key to success in the struggle against communism. Yet, he added, "the incumbent (U.S. Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex.) consistently votes against everything except a $10,000 pay raise for himself."

Stevenson

Robert Morris, Republican candidate for Senate, told Dallas and Richardson audiences that U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations Adlai Stevenson and Sen. J. W. Fulbright have made "fantastic utterances" on foreign policy and the communist danger. "It should become crystal clear today is the only effective instrument of resistance to the tide that is now running against us," Morris said.

Another GOP contender for the Senate, Milton Davis, said in Fort Worth he is the only true economic conservative in the race. Davis said he particularly favors a "liberty amendment" to the U.S. Constitution to ban personal income taxes.

McLendon

Yarborough accused Connally of pulling Gordon McLendon into the U.S. Senate race merely to work for a Connally victory in the primary. He accused them of "a conspiracy to urge Republicans to vote in the Democratic primary."

Yarborough also attacked Connally's record and said the governor had failed to accomplish promised "great strides in education."

Connally was in his Austin office Wednesday. In the afternoon, he appeared before his Committee on Education Beyond the High School Level.

McLendon, a Dallas Democrat, said in Brownsville that U.S. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, no relation to the Houston candidate, was over-impressed with the federal government. McLendon said Yarborough believes the way to make people happy and prosperous "is to concentrate more and more power in

WEBSTER WILL BE TAKEN TO PENITENTIARY FRIDAY

By DOYLE HARDEN
Julian Price Webster, convicted killer, will be transported to the State penitentiary at Huntsville Friday.

Sheriff Ham Vance will personally escort the prisoner to Huntsville with a stop at Stephenville to pick up the mandate in the case.

Accused in the killing of Helen Best and Bird C. Robertson Nov. 20, 1961, Webster was tried for the murder of Robertson May 16, 1962, in Wichita County. Following a lengthy trial, the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder with malice and he was sentenced to death.

Misconduct on the part of the jury was ruled, however, and presiding judge Walter Freeburg called a mistrial in the case.

Judge Arthur Tipps signed an order for a change of venue Jan. 3, 1963, and the case was transferred to Erath County and the 29th District Court.

Judge W. J. Oxford heard the case in Stephenville. The jury panel there returned a verdict of guilty as charged and set the sentence at 99 years in the state penitentiary. Webster, through his lawyers, filed an appeal of the verdict with the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin.

Webster was returned to Wichita Falls to await the decision of the high tribunal. That ruling, returned April 1, 1964, upheld the conviction in the Erath County trial.

Still pending is the charge of murder of Helen Best. District Attorney Stanley Kirk Thursday said:

"If Webster asks for a trial for the murder of Helen Best, (his right under the law), we will give him one. However, I do not wish to spend $4,000 or $5,000 to try him when any sentence that he may receive less than death will not cause him to spend one more day in the penitentiary. A life sentence or another 99-year sentence will result in no more punishment than he will have to serve now — he will still be eligible for parole in eight and a half to ten years. Of course, if we try him again, we will seek the death penalty."

Vance will leave early Friday morning to transport Webster to Huntsville to begin serving the life sentence. The sheriff expects to return Friday night.

Hines Services Set Saturday

Services for Mrs. O. W. Hines, widow of a pioneer Wichita Falls Mortician who died Wednesday, will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in Hampton - Vaughan Funeral Home Chapel, with Dr. Earle Crawford, pastor of First Presbyterian Church, officiating.

Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Ernest Robertson, Malcolm Putty, William L. Donnell, Frank Harvey, Squibb Parish all of Wichita Falls and Royal C. Kinder, of Archer City.

Mrs. Hines died at her home at 1302 Tenth following a prolonged illness.

Banker To Attend Virginia Meeting

N. A. Moore Jr., vice president of City National Bank who as vice president of the national association, American Institute of Banking, is a member of the American Banking Association Board of Directors, will attend a 10-day meeting of the latter group.

Moore will leave Saturday for W. Sulphur Springs, Va., where the meeting will begin Sunday in the Greenbriar Hotel in that city.

During the ABA directors' meeting a two-day session of the executive committee of AIB also will be held.

Moore will return to Wichita Falls April 22 after attending general business sessions in which both groups will plan the coming activities.

RECOUNT—

the ballots for Mrs. Thacker and Mrs. Doing recounted since "the two women were so close." She added, however, that the check of these ballots "did not materially change the outcome."

An off-the-cuff legal opinion on the state's election laws Thursday indicated the school board could only order a recount of the tally sheets from the polling sites and could not open the ballot boxes since this would take a district court order.

To get the court to order a recount, it would be necessary to allege voting irregularities or fraud.

In addition to Mrs. Thacker, others defeated in Saturday's election included incumbent R. W. (Bob) Harless, who received 1,423 votes; and Frank Gibson, who polled 1,478 ballots.

COOPERATION URGED IN LABOR SURVEY

Officials of Industrial Development, Inc., of Wichita Falls and of the advisory committee appointed to aid Texas Employment Commission researchers who are in the process of carrying out an intensive labor market survey of the Wichita Falls labor market are somewhat concerned at the lack of co-operation they are receiving from some firms.

Lee Nelson, manager of I.D.I., told members of the advisory committee when they met in the chamber of commerce's Action Hall Thursday morning that only 56 per cent of local firms had returned the questionnaires sent out by the surveyors.

The firms, which were sent to some 300 local businessmen, ask employers to list the type of employees belonging to their firm. It also asks for the total of current vacancies, the number of persons likely to be employed by the firm in three and six years time, and the number of replacement workers likely to be required in three and six years.

It also asks questions to establish what is the Wichita Falls labor market area. The aim is to find out the number of people who commute into Wichita Falls daily from each of the surrounding counties.

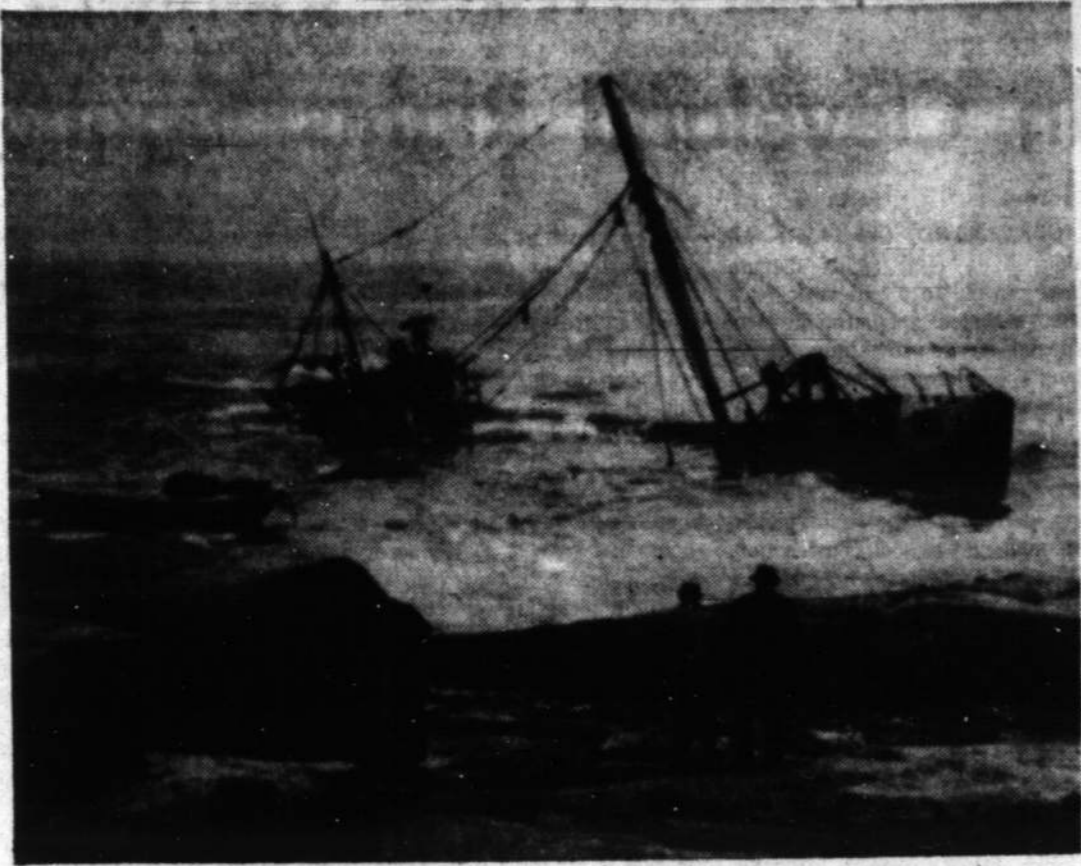

Members of the advisory committee, which consist of a cross section of city businessmen, will make personal contacts with those firms who did not return the questionnaires during the next few days. It was stated that at least 85 per cent of the questionnaires would have to be returned for the survey to be carried out with any degree of accuracy.

McDONALD—

ACCORDING TO BOYLE

Sleeping Presents Problems

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP) — Curbside comments of a Pavement Plato:
 When to stay awake, when to go asleep—that is one of the biggest problems of human living.
 I, for one, have been unable to solve it to my complete satisfaction. Most of the people I know complain of the same disability.
 The mark of eternal childhood is the unwillingness to go to bed at night and the reluctance to get up in the morning—the stubborn wish to hold on to today, the best we know, and the reluctance to face tomorrow, the most we have to fear.
Form Of Death
 To a child sleep is a form of death, one he fights with all the violence of his being, the violence of his awareness, as far as he can. He yields to sleep only as a warrior pauses from struggle when he is completely exhausted by endeavor and can march no farther.
 The child unconsciously says of any day: "This is the only forever I know. I must not let it go."
 The grownup says: "Oh, to the devil with this day — I've had enough of it. I'll rest now."

and try again tomorrow."
 Can you remember as a child how you lay awake in the dark and watched the reflected lights of cars passing by on the streets make strange hobgoblin patterns on the wallpaper of your bedroom? What worlds of awareness of imagination they illuminated!
Infant Sleep
 Have you ever watched an infant asleep—how it lies upon its back widespread, fists clenched in sighful desperation?
 It is the infant that still wants to get up and go, a Marco Polo interrupted in the still unfulfilled exploration of the geography of the day.
 It is the older person, made cowardly by the defeats of many days, who half curls himself, his arm around the solace of the pillow, and assumes again the cuddled posture of the unborn, when the womb was his world.
 As one ages and the conflict between his remaining duties and his gathering uncertainties wistfully confuses him, sleep becomes more of a problem.

"I find I don't need as much sleep as I did before," many an old person says.
 This isn't really quite true.
All The Way
 The truth is that a child is, altogether awake while it is awake and it is usually fully asleep when it is asleep.
 A middle-aged or elderly person, on the other hand, lives in a kind of twilight world. He is half asleep when he is awake, and he is half awake when he is supposed to be asleep. He is caught between the daze of experience and the necessary doze his system requires.
 He sleeps better sitting up than lying down. The best tranquilizer for him isn't a chemical pill but an after dinner speaker.
 The other evening I went to a banquet and heard a fellow outline our foreign policy. When I awoke I felt better than I had in years.
 Anybody over 40 who can't get a full night's sleep out of a four-hour banquet is in serious trouble.

Joe McDonald Rites Planned

OLNEY, Tex. (Special)—Funeral services for Joe A. McDonald, 80, were to be held Thursday from the Lunn Funeral Home chapel here with Rev. W. N. Dunson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiating.

Burial was to be in the Archer City Cemetery under direction of Lunn Funeral Home of Olney.

McDonald, who resided in Elliasville, died Tuesday night in an Olney hospital after suffering a stroke.

He was a former Archer County sheriff and had served as game warden at Lake Kemp.

For the past seven years, McDonald had operated a grocery store in Elliasville.

McDonald was born in Hill County, Tex. on Jan. 4, 1884.

Survivors include the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Jack Speer and Mrs. Don Redding, both of Santa Fe, N.M.; one stepson, Hub Barker of Elliasville; one stepdaughter, Miss Dorothy Nell Barker of Wichita Falls; four brothers, Ed McDonald of Wichita Falls, Jess McDonald of Texas, Jim McDonald of Childersburg, and Will McDonald of Glorietta, N.M.; four sisters, Mrs. John Lasater of Olney, Mrs. Nell Foley of Albuquerque, N.M., Mrs. Mattie Faulkner and Mrs. Sallye Grant, both of Baton Rouge, La.; six grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Benefit Book Sale Continues

The annual book sale sponsored by the Wichita Falls Branch, American Association of University Women, for the benefit of the organization's scholarship fund, will continue through Saturday at 804 Eighth.

The proceeds from this annual sale allows at least one Wichita Falls girl, and perhaps more, to attend college.

The group has been sponsoring the used book sale for five or six years in order to support to scholarship fund, Mrs. H. J. Waller, president of the AAUW, Wichita Falls Chapter, said Wednesday.

The store will be open from 9:30 a.m. until 6 p.m. through Saturday and will be manned by members of the association.

Wednesday, Mrs. Waller said the store is stocked with several hundred books, all of which have been donated to the group, and that residents are invited to come by and check the books to see if they want any.

Types of books available include biographies, fiction, children's books, young people's books, paperbacks, hardbacks, textbooks, books on art, encyclopedias and a varied assortment of all types literature.

Price of the book depends of course on the condition, size and the original sale price. However, Mrs. Waller said all books are bargains.

Arrangements for the annual sale were made by Mrs. E. B. Bloom and Mrs. R. E. Benson, sale chairmen. The association has some 122 members, all of whom will be working in the store to assist people in finding the type of book they wish to purchase.

Wichita Falls girls receiving an AAUW scholarship are selected through high school teachers and a special committee of the AAUW.

Aviators Forum Slated Friday

"Safe Airmen," "Safe Aircraft," and "Aviation Safety" are the titles of three films of the Federal Aviation Agency to be shown at the second meeting of the Wichita Falls Aviation Forum from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Friday in the second floor auditorium of Texas Electric Service Co. at 904 Scott.

The group also will discuss plans for an airshow with exhibits slated for Wichita Falls this summer.

The sessions of the Wichita Falls Aviation Forum, open to all aviation-minded people from beginner fliers to professional airline pilots, owners and personnel from related industries and just friends, are being held the second Friday of each month.

The sessions were instigated by the FAA Flight Service Station at the Wichita Falls Air Terminal.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair and warmer was the weather forecast Thursday for the Wichita Falls area. Scattered showers are expected Thursday night in the northwest quarter of the nation and Florida.

Colder temperatures are predicted from New England to the mid-Atlantic states. It will be milder from the Rockies through the Great Lakes area with little change elsewhere. (AP Wirephoto)

Law Day USA Designated

May 1 has been designated as Law Day USA in Texas by Gov. John Connally.

Co-chairmen of the observance in Wichita Falls are Donald E. Short, county attorney, and Charles Butts, assistant district attorney.

The governor's memorandum follows:

GREETINGS:
On May 1, 1964, the citizens of the United States will join in a meaningful observance of Law Day USA, which has been set aside by Act of Congress, and by official proclamation of the President of the United States, as a time for reflecting upon our great heritage of individual liberty under law.

The system of representative government under which we live is built upon laws of our own making which are administered by independent courts. The Constitution of the United States of America is the heart of the body of law and the supreme law of the land.

Under the Constitution and Bill of Rights we are guaranteed freedom of speech, press, assembly, religious worship, and equal protection of the law. These are priceless benefits of American citizenship which must be constantly nurtured and protected.

The seventh annual observance of Law Day USA this year will offer timely evidence of the determination of the American people to uphold freedom and justice and the institutions which make them possible. It will further demonstrate to the world our faith in the supremacy of law as contrasted with the denial of individual freedoms in communist lands where the same date is the occasion for demonstrations of armed might.

Public bodies, schools and colleges and private organizations of all kinds are urged to participate in the recognition of Law Day USA.

WHEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate Friday, May 1, 1964, as LAW DAY USA in Texas, and call upon all citizens to join in its observance through appropriate ceremonies, programs and educational activities.

Waites Rites To Be In Joy

JOY, Tex. (Special)—Funeral services for William Edward Waites, 74-year-old Joy resident who died in a Henrietta hospital Wednesday, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Friday from the Joy Baptist Church.

Waites, a retired farmer, had been a resident of Clay County for more than 30 years. Born Dec. 2, 1889, in Alabama, he moved to Texas as a youth.

Officiating at last rites will be the Rev. Tom Nesbitt, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Bay City, Tex.

Burial will be in Joy Cemetery under the direction of Hawkins Funeral Home in Henrietta.

Survivors include the widow, of the home; four sons, Dennis L., Denver, Colo.; William E. Jr., Phoenix, Ariz.; Manson D., Lubbock, Tex.; and F. N., Tyler, Tex.; two daughters, Mrs. Byron Sanders, also of Joy, and Mrs. Thelma Stark, Bowie, Tex.; eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Initial Gemini Success Moves Program Forward

By HOWARD BENEDICT

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—The United States today moved confidently ahead on its second manned-space program, Gemini, following the success of the first unmanned flight.

A Titan 2 rocket propelled a two-seat Gemini spacecraft into orbit in an almost perfect launch. The rocket lifted off only one second behind schedule, but a launching official claimed the range clock must have been wrong because the countdown was completed within even a one second delay.

Project Director Charles Mathews of the Manned Spacecraft Center said the flight gave the Gemini team confidence to proceed toward a second unmanned flight and a manned orbital trip this year.

The second flight, set for late August or early September, is to hurl a spacecraft on a ballistic flight to test all systems, atmospheric re-entry and recovery.

The first manned mission calls for two astronauts to ride a Gemini capsule on a three-orbit flight, hopefully in November or December.

The opening Gemini shot tested structural integrity of the spacecraft, ability of the Titan 2 to place the capsule in a precise orbit, and aerodynamic compatibility of the rocket-capsule combination.

Maj. Gen. Ben I. Funk, commander of the Air Force space systems division, termed the launching a "storybook sort of flight" in which everything seemed to go right.

Engineers estimated it would require several days to analyze the data, but preliminary study indicated all objectives were achieved.

The only imperfection was a 14-mile-an-hour excess speed by the Titan 2. It reached 17,534 miles an hour instead of the intended 17,520. This sent the spacecraft into a 204-mile-high peak orbital path, 21 miles higher than planned.

Operations Director Walter C. Williams said this was well within tolerance and that on a manned flight, extra height easily could be corrected by the astronauts.

Williams, who directed all six manned flights in Project Mercury, bowed out of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration with Wednesday's launching. He recently accepted a position with the Aerospace Corp.

Scott Funeral Set Thursday

STAMFORD, Tex. (Special)—Funeral services for Louis E. Scott, 73, were to be held at 2 p.m. Thursday from First Baptist Church here with Rev. Jack Southern, pastor, and Rev. Joel V. Grimes, Avoca, officiating. Burial was to be in Highland Memorial Cemetery under direction of Kinney Funeral Home.

Scott, a resident of the Stamford area since 1912, died Wednesday in a hospital here after a brief illness.

He came to this area from Carlsbad, N.M., and was a retired farmer. He was born Nov. 2, 1888 in Comanche, Tex.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Woodrow Smith of Avoca; three sisters, Mrs. C. A. Ezell of Stamford, Mrs. T. N. Gillespie of Lueders, Tex. and Mrs. W. D. Mickler of Avoca; two grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Ruth Rhoades' Funeral Today

JACKSBORO, Tex. (Special)—Ruth Rhoades, 68, a practical nurse, died Tuesday in a Wichita Falls hospital. She was born June 12, 1895 in Jack County, the daughter of Sylvester Jacob and Martha Reeves Rhoades. She had lived in the county all her life.

Funeral services will be at 4 p.m. Thursday from the First Assembly of God in Jacksboro with the pastor, Rev. D. W. Calcutt, officiating. Burial will be in Winn Hill Cemetery with Hawkins Funeral Home of Jacksboro directing arrangements.

Survivors are four sisters, Mrs. E. E. Wilton and Mrs. Lidie McFather, both of Jacksboro, and Mrs. Fay Chapman and Mrs. Lorena Warren, both of San Bernardino, Calif.; four brothers, Charlie of Bowie, Lonnie of Bellevue, Henry of Garland, Tex. and Bob of Jacksboro.

Webster Hancock Dies At Vernop

VERNON, Tex. (Special)—Webster Clay Hancock, 81, retired building contractor, died in a Vernon hospital Tuesday following a short illness. Hancock lived at 2510 Cumberland.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by Sullivan Funeral Home.

He was born Dec. 23, 1882, in Iowa. He married Mrs. Virgie Hardin in Vernon on Dec. 21, 1941, after moving here the same year from Eagle's Nest, N.M. He was a member of the Central Christian Church and the Odd Fellows Lodge.

Survivors include his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Cottrell of Compton, Calif., two brothers, W. H. Hancock of Okmulgee, Okla., and A. V. Hancock of Fort Worth.

Temporary Truce Called In Cleveland Rights Fight

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—All sides in a civil rights dispute have agreed to a two-week truce that includes appointment of a special group to study Cleveland's whole problem of school integration.

The agreement, hammered out Wednesday night at a seven-hour City Hall meeting, will end all demonstrations and picketing and new school construction. It may be extended an additional two weeks if all sides show progress is being made toward resolving a situation that resulted in one death and violence this week.

Mayor Ralph S. Locher helped work out the agreement at a closed-door session with top city, school, civic and civil rights group leaders. He announced the truce terms.

Some 125 civil rights demonstrators, outnumbered by police, ended their long City Hall sit-in without incident after they heard the announcement. They had waited in the lobby while their leaders met in the mayor's private chambers. They cheered and applauded loudly as they heard the terms of the truce.

The demonstrators had gathered at noon at school board headquarters to pay tribute to the Rev. Bruce W. Klunder, 27, a white Presbyterian minister, who died for their cause Tuesday when a bulldozer ran over him at a school construction site. They then marched to City Hall.

Earlier Wednesday, Common Pleas Court Judge John V. Corrigan had issued a temporary order banning further construction, picketing or trespassing at the site of the new Lakeview public elementary school requested the court order on the grounds it has legal contracts with builders to go ahead with the school construction.

A hearing for a permanent injunction is set for 2 p.m. Friday. Another point in the truce provided that the school board appoint a group of technical experts who will study the problems of school integration. The United Freedom Movement, composed of several civil rights groups, must okay those named to that study group.

Under terms of the agreement these technical experts must complete their study before contracts for a third proposed grade school will be let.

Representatives of the UFM, the Congress of Racial Equality and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People attended the meeting called by Locher.

Those civil rights groups are opposing construction of three new elementary public schools in the predominantly Negro Glenville area on the East Side. Demonstrations in that area led to violence in January and February and produced an earlier agreement between the school board and civil rights leaders. That pact provided for full integration of bus-transported Negro pupils in predominantly white schools.

Involved are nearly 1,000 pupils unable to attend overcrowded schools in their Negro neighborhoods.

Civil rights leaders maintain the new grade schools in the Negro residential area would "re-segregate" the bus-transported pupils. They argue that transportation of pupils outside their neighborhoods should be expanded so that integration accomplished by this method so far will continue. The school board has endorsed the neighborhood school concept.

outstanding job" in her year-long-campaign with no hired help.

She told newsmen that for her this had been an "on-the-job training" experience. But help came from many quarters, including the Navy and a Boston bank, the Old Colony Trust Co., which has volunteered to serve as trustee and receiver for contributions to the fund.

The fund to send the children to college is for those of both the Navy personnel aboard and the several civilian technicians in the Thresher when she failed to surface from a test dive off Cape Cod.

There are 194 children now, 11 of whom were born after the nuclear submarine sank, she said.

Contributions range from dimes mailed by children to a stock transfer worth $8,000, Mrs. Hollingsworth said. Last Father's Day, a number of children sent contributions which they said they would have spent for Father's Day gifts.

Sill Engineers Aid In Storm Clean-Up

FORT SILL, Okla. — Fort Sill's 593rd Engineering Company was poised for action in the North, but the wind shifted.

When the earthquake hit Alaska, the 593rd was alerted for action by CINC STRIKE and immediately organized for a mercy mission assignment under the 2nd logistical command CONARC. They stayed on alert for seven days, ready to aid if needed in the disaster-torn 49th state. But they weren't called and finally — last Friday — went off alert.

Their relaxation didn't last long. That same day, April 3, a new disaster hit closer to home as two tornadoes swept through North Central Texas. Portions of Sheppard Air Force Base were leveled. Communications were disrupted. Buildings were moved off their foundations and automobiles were stacked up like pancakes.

Sheppard contacted Fourth Army for help and at 6 p.m. Saturday two officers and 23 enlisted men from the 593rd moved into action.

While Sheppard engineers are busy repairing power lines and doing rebuilding necessary for the post to function normally the Sillmen — under the command of Capt. John Hingst — have been clearing away wreckage and opening up sewers and streets. They've been moving

PHILIP L. PINK VETERAN DRUGGIST — Registered pharmacist and assistant manager of the Walgreen Drug Store, 710 Indiana, Philip L. Pink was honored by his firm with a special gold emblem on his 35th anniversary of service. The veteran druggist, known to a host of Wichita Falls people, has seen all of his Walgreen service at the Indiana Avenue drug store. He is president of the Wichita County Pharmaceutical Association.

DAV Store Wants No Cash Donations

Officials of the Disabled American Veteran Store, 717 Indiana, asked Thursday that persons wishing to help Friday's tornado victims through the veterans' organization not offer cash contributions.

"We are a self-supporting agency and have never solicited cash contributions," one DAV official said Thursday. "And we don't intend to start now."

The official said the DAV store here had provided clothing, bedding and appliances for 47 families thus far and had an urgent need for stoves and refrigerators for eight other families.

Residents wishing to contribute these large appliances or smaller ones were asked to contact the DAV store.

Former Official Faces Charges

DALLAS (AP) — The former director of the Parker County Civil Defense office and a former Fort Worth bank president were indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury.

Charles Beard, former director and coordinator of the Parker County Civil Defense office in Weatherford, was indicted on two counts of falsely showing that radio equipment had been purchased by the defense office in 1961 and 1963.

The indictment said Beard wrote an invoice on a letterhead of a Weatherford company which falsely represented that the company had sold the Civil Defense office a $2,450 radio transmitter.

On Feb. 8, 1963, the second count alleged, he made a false document to show that a Jacksboro company had sold three radio transmitters to his office for $2,346.

W. B. Cayce, president of South Fort Worth State Bank, was charged on six counts of embezzlement and one count of false entry in bank records. A total of $10,927 was involved, the indictment claimed.

Four Abilene men, George Douglas Graves, Lloyd Burton Moore, Donald Richard Plaskett and Billy Doyle Prince, were indicted on charges that they conspired to defraud by counterfeiting $20 federal reserve notes by a photographic method.

Elmer Gordon Davis of Amarillo, a bookkeeper at American National Bank in August, 1963, was charged with embezzling $200 and making a false entry in the bank record.

Burkburnett Club Planning Banquet

BURKBURNETT, Tex. — The American Business Women's Association of Burkburnett, organized last September, will stage its first annual banquet at 7 p.m. Friday at the high school cafeteria.

Speaker for the banquet will be Lt. Col. E. J. Lodell, center controller at Sheppard Air Force Base. His subject will be "Boomtown Days and Changing Times."

Recognition will be made to the "Boss of the Year" in Burkburnett.

Officers of the club include Mrs. Webb Littlefield, president; Mrs. George Counter, vice president; Mrs. H. J. Powell, recording secretary; Mrs. Cloyd Brown, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. E. Larson, treasurer.

Salvation Army Report Meet Set

First report meeting for the general gifts division of the Salvation Army Welfare Center fund drive is scheduled for 10 a.m. Friday in the Hamilton Building headquarters.

Last report for the campaign showed more than $70,000 had been obtained for the fund, proceeds from which will go for construction of a new welfare center at Seventh and Lee.

J. Howard Morgan is chairman of the general gifts division and Al Horwitz of the advanced gifts division.

Marvin E. McCullough, general chairman for the campaign, has invited all workers to attend the report meeting.

Sunrise Optimists Hear Industrialist

Jack Hudson, secretary-treasurer of Building Components, Inc., Wichita Falls industry, discussed the city and its people as speaker at the Sunrise Optimist Club meeting Thursday morning.

Guests included Lyle Cherry, Dale Erwin and Eddie Huffman. It was announced that the club directors will meet at 7 p.m. Thursday in Parker Square State Bank and that the Sunset Junior Optimists will hold a model car contest in the Pan American Recreation Club in Spudder Park at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

Charles B. Johnson, club president, was in charge of the meeting.

THE DOCTOR SAYS Dangerous Drug Also Beneficial

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Lysergic acid dimethylamide (LSD) is a dangerous drug which may cause temporary or permanent brain damage. Like many other dangerous drugs it may have beneficial effects when properly used.

In the treatment of certain persons with mental disease some good results have been reported. It is unfortunately of little help in treating schizophrenia (split personality disease), the commonest of all mental illnesses. But in some alcoholics, some depressed persons with suicidal tendencies and some persons with severe neuroses of long standing, the results have been promising.

In another study, a group of 300 patients with far advanced cancer, who were suffering from extreme pain, were given this drug. The effects were startling. After they had been given a dose of a morphine derivative and the relief had worn off in two or three hours they took a small dose of LSD. Some of these patients did not complain of pain for two weeks. The strange thing was, however, that when they were asked whether they had pain during that time, they admitted that they did but that it did not matter. They were preoccupied with other sensations that they believed to be more important than pain.

Another result that puzzled the doctors was that when the pain returned most of the victims were not interested in taking the drug again. Some gave as a reason that the drug made them think so much they couldn't get their rest. The doctors are now hoping to find a drug that is closely related to LSD that will relieve pain but will be more welcome by the sufferer.

Q—What would cause me to have double vision? Is there any cure for it?

A—A double image may be seen with a single eye due to a dislocation of the crystalline lens, irregularities of the cornea, partial detachment of the retina and other causes. Most frequently the double image is seen only when both eyes are open. This occurs normally when you hold a finger in front of your eyes and look into the distance. Conversely, if you look at your finger, a candle on a table six feet away will appear to be double. It also occurs normally if you rub one eye hard with both eyes open.

If your double vision does not fit these descriptions, it may be due to a paralysis of one of the muscles that control the movements of the eyeball. Only when the cause has been determined can appropriate treatment be prescribed.

RAIL STRIKE—

wage structure, job classifications, length of train runs and other, working conditions.

"The public interest demands that this dispute be settled, that it be settled immediately, and that it be settled by agreement," Wirtz told the negotiators as the talks opened shortly after 8 p.m. Wednesday.

The outcome "will also affect materially the future of free collective bargaining in this country," he said.

Wirtz said, "This is a time to resolve this dispute or to agree on a procedure for resolving it." Wirtz said, "I am going to continue the present sessions until this result is reached."

The rules changes have been under negotiation on a national level since their consideration last year by the courts and Congress.

The unions tried to bypass the stalled national negotiations by seeking talks with individual railroads, but this was balked as "the industry maintained a united front."

Each side blamed the other for stirring up the new crisis. Wolfe labeled the Illinois Central strike as "continued irresponsibility" on the part of the unions.

Five Unions
Spokesmen for five operating unions replied that if there is a coast-to-coast strike it will be the fault of the railroads for imposing the rules changes on a nationwide basis.

The railroads maintain that obsolete work rules are costing them millions of dollars a year unnecessarily. The unions say wage structure changes proposed by the industry would amount to pay cuts of 30 percent or more for many union members.

The wall of Jericho fell to Joshua and the Israelites in Biblical times around 1400 B.C.

Teachers To Go To Abilene

Five classroom teachers and the principal of Travis School will attend the 1963 area workshop for teachers of pre-school non-English speaking children in Abilene Saturday.

C. A. Newsom, Travis principal, will head the delegation to include Mrs. Wilton Havis, Mrs. Delfina Martinez, Miss Lola Estrada, Mrs. Jewell McQuinn and Mrs. Viola Wells.

Mrs. Martinez has been head teacher of the summer classes held at Travis School for many years for pre-school children who do not speak English.

The Wichita Falls public school system was a pioneer in this field, beginning the program under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Women's Club and Altrusa Club before the Texas Education Agency in Austin set up a statewide program.

The Abilene workshop will be held from 9 a.m. to noon in Lee School.

At the meeting representatives of the TEA will outline the purpose of the program for the non-English speaking youngsters and will also explain the legal provisions, operating policies, growth and results of the program.

Special demonstrations will be given in which classroom procedures for teaching oral English will be shown.

Displays will include effective instructional aids such as films, recordings, pictures and charts.

Construction and use of puppets and masks in developing facility in oral English will be demonstrated and individual pupil progress records, local school district data sheets and other reporting forms will be explained.

The workshop will conclude with informal question and answer sessions.

The English classes for the pre-school children are held each August in Travis School for the non-English speaking boys and girls who will enter first grade the following September.

Boys' Club Week Activities Set

Four Branch Boys' Clubs in Wichita Falls are joining in the observance of National Boys' Club Week, April 5 through April 11, with special activities scheduled each day.

In a statement concerning National Boys' Club Week, President Lyndon Johnson said, "... every boy is a good boy but he is also all boy and the Boys' Clubs give a vent to his enthusiasms and energies. The Boys' Clubs of America have been one of our great character-building institutions and the movement is certainly one to which all Americans can subscribe."

Graham Ball, executive director for Boys' Clubs in Wichita Falls, said the theme here for the observance of National Boys' Club Week is "Promoting Good Citizenship," in accordance with the Boys' Club's permanent purpose of fighting delinquency by promoting juvenile decency.

A high point of the annual observance of National Boys' Club Week in Wichita Falls is the popular "Little Sister Contest" to be held Friday night at Central Boys' Club.

Saturday, a full day of track and field contests are slated to cap the week of activities.

Oil Recovery Meet Scheduled

The sixth biennial Secondary Recovery Symposium which will be held in Wichita Falls May 4-5 is expected to bring 600 persons to this city.

Ed B. Johnson, chairman, and E. E. Comstock, publicity chairman for the event, outlined details of the affair at Wednesday's meeting of the chamber of commerce's conventions activities group.

It was suggested that the conventions group go to Dallas June 9-11 to make a bid for the Firemen's Convention in behalf of Wichita Falls.

Guy Carter reported that three more persons are needed to attend the Texas Society of Association Executives meeting in Houston. Reservations have been made and an airplane has also been reserved to take local delegates to Houston.

Harold Shappell, chairman of the group, presented a plaque to representatives from the Wichita Falls Ladies' Bowling Association who put up a determined fight to bring the Association's annual convention to Wichita Falls.

The idea of giving out identification badges to various types of businesses such as barbers and service station attendants, with a welcome to delegates attending a convention in the city was also discussed.

Election Year Outings Certain To Affect Johnson's Security

Woman Joins Gallon Club

Mrs. Billy Broxson, 1404 Covington Lane, is a new member of the Red Cross Gallon Club of blood donors. She has given regularly of her O positive type blood to help others and for her service has been awarded a certificate of appreciation from the Wichita Falls Times and Record News. The Red Cross gave her a Gal-

EDITOR'S NOTE: The security detail around the President has been increased since the assassination of John F. Kennedy. But the problem of protecting Lyndon B. Johnson will become increasingly difficult as the election campaign tempo quickens. In the following article the difficulties of protecting chief executives is discussed by an Associated Press newsmen who has been covering the White House since the days of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson walked in the funeral procession of President John F. Kennedy against the advice of the Secret Service and reportedly told an agent:

"I'd rather give my life than be afraid to give it." This profession of courage points up an ever present, insoluble security problem — a problem that becomes increasingly difficult now that an election campaign is under way. Precautions have been increased since the assassination of Kennedy. But the Secret Service, as one veteran put it, can only provide the safeguard. It can not compel the President to use them.

When Johnson was asked in a television interview March 15 whether he always follows instructions of the security agents he said:

"Yes, with rare exceptions now and then, like marching in the funeral procession and occasionally they prefer to have two or three policemen between me and the crowds, and I ask them to move out, so I can see some of the people."

"I want to be a people's President, and in order to do so, you have to see the people and talk to them and know something about them and not be too secluded."

"I think they would feel better if the President kept 100 yards distance from every human being, but that is not practical."

Besides, human beings vote. And, increasingly, Johnson will be making political expeditions. Already he is pushing into crowds and grabbing hands every chance he gets—even at church, although he contends he should be allowed to worship in private.

Kennedy was on a political trip to Texas Nov. 22. He wanted to see and be seen by throngs of people. His motorcade route was advertised in advance for the people of Dallas—and for accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald.

A week before, Kennedy had insisted on driving through New York without the customary police escort and with stops at every red light.

Things changed after Dallas. In New York and in all cities, swarms of police turn out along streets and peer down from windows, rooftops and bridges. Helicopters hang overhead. For the President, himself, there is far more reliance on helicopters than on motorcades to get him into the centers of cities.

When Johnson does move by car in urban areas, it is in a four-ton armored car with bulletproof glass on loan from FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

The Lincoln bubbletop limousine in which Kennedy was shot is being overhauled and having armor added before it comes back to the White House fleet.

In motor processions now, motorcycle police form a tighter cordon around the President. The White House physician is only a car or two away. In the open Secret Service car right behind Johnson an agent sits backward on one of the jump seats, since Kennedy was hit by shots from behind.

The White House Secret Service detail hasn't been increased substantially, because manpower isn't a guarantee of presidential safety. A determined, crafty crackpot can kill any man.

Furthermore, on occasion, Johnson gives the Secret Service no notice where or when he intends to go some place—as was the case also with Kennedy at times. Unlike Kennedy, he also banishes Secret Service men from his car on occasion. He did this while scorching the roads with a car full of newsmen during his Easter vacation in Texas. He did it here when he attended church with his family last Sunday.

But then Franklin D. Roosevelt used to go, dashing off in his Ford touring car alone, cutting through swamp areas on the family estate, at Hyde Park, N.Y., and chuckling merrily when a heavy Secret Service car bogged down.

Presidential protection in some ways was easier in those days. Because of his crippled legs, Roosevelt couldn't get out and mingle with crowds. He couldn't make sudden, unannounced moves. President Harry S. Truman was somewhat more of a problem, with his morning walks. But few people were out then, and routes changed. Security was tightened around him, too, after an attempted assassination while he was occupying Blair House during the renovation of the White House.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower had that warm smile and friendly wave but he didn't often mix with crowds, either, the way Kennedy did and Johnson does.

Eisenhower's Secret Service driver crashed the legal speed barrier at times on the way to the Eisenhower farm at Gettysburg, Pa.

The question of presidential speeding has drawn attention once again—especially with a vacancy in the vice presidency.

Military Ball To Be Friday

By KITTY BASHAM
Teen Times Staff
Preparations for the annual National Defense Cadet Corps Ball at the Woman's Forum for cadets and their dates from Hirsch, Rider, and Wichita Falls High Schools Friday night are complete.

The ball will be sponsored by Col. H. D. Byous, professor of military science and tactics for three NDCC programs at the high schools.

Until this year one of the high schools has sponsored this activity. However, starting this year this annual event will be sponsored by the entire department.

A reception line consisting of the battalion commanders and their dates will be formed at the entrance to the ballroom. Battalion commanders are Cadet Cola Gene Sczepinski from Hirsch, Mark Longbotham from Rider, and Jerry Barnes from WFHS.

Sponsors for the high schools are Col. Leo E. Harmon for Hirsch; Lt. Charles T. Byars, Rider; and Maj. Bruce R. Knowlton, WFHS.

Shoplifters Are Tempted To Walk Off With Wares

(No. 4 in a series on shoplifting in Wichita Falls.)

By MARTHA B. STEIMEL

Of the hundreds of shoplifters in Wichita Falls some individual incidents stand out in store managers' memories.

There was the little girl who was encouraged by her mother to steal as many things as possible one busy Saturday. When she was caught, the merchandise she had taken covered two big desks at police headquarters.

There were the two boys from out of town who trotted from store to store and then to the bus station to put their loot in a luggage locker.

There was the woman who assured a manager she had intended to buy the dress she was busy stuffing under the dress she was wearing. She wanted to put it on layaway, she said.

After the transaction was completed, she turned to the man and asked curiously:

"What size was that dress, anyway?"

An alcoholic who knows he is easily tempted to steal warned a store manager:

"You'd better watch me today. I'm going to try to take something."

A charming elderly man stopped in to chat with an equally charming saleslady nearly every day. His motive was not romantic, though—he stole an electric alarm clock every time.

Relatives of kleptomaniacs—people who steal compulsively—quietly contact store owners to make arrangements for paying for stolen items.

During one especially busy sale day, a ready-to-wear manager realized a particularly expensive coat was gone. No one had sold it and she was about to chalk it off as loss when a package-laden woman came back to the department to buy the garment. She had worn it all over the store while she did her bargain hunting so she wouldn't be burdened with an extra large bundle.

One of the 20 store managers interviewed for this series was explaining the difference between various kinds of displays in his jewelry store. As he was showing how sterling flatware is displayed, he noticed a dinner knife missing from a chest of silver!

So, it is not surprising that much is stolen almost under the noses of clerks and managers alike. It is surprising, too, that many shoplifters are not caught when you consider that many stores have huge convex mirrors placed at strategic spots overlooking the sales floor, many store offices are on mezzanines and office personnel look directly down on the floor, and a fairly comprehensive running inventory is kept at all times.

As one merchant said: "Some people are just going to steal if they have a chance. The wonder is that there are so many honest people."

(Friday: Merchants call shoplifting external pilferage.)

Junior Standard Club Has Guest Day Luncheon

The Junior Standard Club treated its guests to the best dishes gleaned from its year's culinary tour of the world at a luncheon Wednesday in Mrs. Stanley Williamson's home on Farm Road 369.

The international menu included recipes from Europe, the Orient, and the United States. All had previously been served at club luncheons when specific countries were studied.

A large brass container held red-orange carnations arranged with foliage and yellow mums and lilies to decorate the buffet serving table.

Mrs. John Barbour Jr. was chairman for the annual guest event. Mmes. Carl T. Anderson, John K. Rundell, Jim Parkey, James Hull and Williamson completed the committee.

Approximately 75 attended.

Dinner To Honor Mr. & Mrs. Harlin

A dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harlin will be held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Godfrey, FM 369. Members of Eta Lambda chapter, Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority, will attend. The Harlins are moving to Lafayette, La.

Mrs. Harlin was presented a gift at Tuesday night's meeting of the sorority at the home of Mrs. H. J. Neal. Mrs. Harlin also received the district Miss Congeniality award of a certificate and a charm bracelet.

Mrs. Godfrey was elected president of District Six and Miss Carrie Bachman named district coordinator at a meeting in Fort Worth. They will be installed at the next district meeting. Miss Bachman is chapter president.

Mrs. Joe Jordan gave the program on "Pattern For Gracious Living." She said tact, charm, good taste and generosity of spirit are factors in gracious living.

LUTHERAN WOMEN HOLD WORKSHOP ON BIBLE STUDY

The formation of small Bible study groups was urged Tuesday as area Lutheran women gathered at St. Paul Lutheran Church for an all-day workshop in Bible study.

The Rev. Henry Otten of Malabar, India, spoke and showed slides of his work among the Moslems, and Bible study groups of four women each were held during the morning and afternoon sessions under the direction of Mrs. G. E. Jeske of Olney, Christian growth chairman.

Mrs. Leonard Kunkel of Seymour is zone chairman.

The Rev. H. R. Frerking, host pastor, opened the morning sessions with a devotion, and the Rev. Ronald Jenkins of Bowie gave the closing.

PHI GAMMA MU CHAPTER PLANS THREE EVENTS

Plans were made Tuesday for a preferential tea, membership meeting and salad supper by Phi Gamma Mu chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in the home of Mrs. Glen Selby, 700 Taylor.

The preferential tea will be from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday at the Woman's Forum, and the membership meeting will begin at 1 p.m. April 18 in the home of Mrs. Kurt Berryman. The salad supper and installation of officers will be April 30 at the home of Mrs. Carroll Harrell.

The program was given by Mrs. Carl Edwards who spoke on "Voice." She is an employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Rituals were conducted by Misses Pat Seale and Susana Gordon.

The chapter collected 250 coat hangers for the Children's Center as its service project for the month, and voted to make a donation to the Center which will be presented at the preferential tea.

Refreshments were served to the 15 present by the hostess.

FOR Women OF THE Times

MRS. STEVEN SIDNEY MOORE

Moore-Gibbs Wedding Vows Read

Floral Heights Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding Saturday at 7 p.m. of Miss Paula Frances Gibbs and Steven Sidney Moore. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gibbs, 1540 Hanover, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moore, 1805 Speedway.

Dr. T. Lee Miller, pastor, performed the ceremony before the altar decorated with blue and white carnations and greenery. A candelabrum was on the altar. Mrs. Gerald Deatherage, organist, provided wedding music.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white floor-length gown of taffeta and chiffon designed with long sleeves, bell-shaped skirt and chapel-length train. Her veil was attached to a tiara. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue ribbons and detachable bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Jackie Gentry was maid of honor. She wore a blue taffeta street-length dress with bell-shaped skirt and short sleeves.

Roger Moore was best man and ushers were Frank Krajca and Glen Habern.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with the groom's parents assisting as hosts. Other assistants were Steve Moore, and Misses Beth Johnson and Betty Staley.

The couple are making their home at 2171 1/2 Avenue J.

The bride was graduated from Wichita Falls High School and is employed by Sam Gibbs Orchestra Service. Her husband also was graduated from WFHS and is attending Midwestern University.

Notice To Club Reporters

Please turn in your club and/or organization reports no later than the day following the meeting. A courtesy box has been placed by the entrance door to The Times for your convenience. All you need to do is drop your report in the box. Be sure the copy has your name and telephone number listed. The later your story is turned in, the less space it can be given.

Dear Abby Write It Off As Bad Debt; Make New Resolutions! Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: In 1939 my husband lent a man $500. He was so sure that he was good for it that he didn't ask him to sign a note or anything. This man has made no effort to pay back one cent of it. Now get this. This deadbeat's sister is married to one of the richest and most prominent men in the state! Everybody knows him. He has given away millions, yet his own brother-in-law has owed a man $500 for four years. I told my husband to get in touch with this rich brother-in-law and ask him for the money. It would be like five cents to him, but it is a lot of money to us. My husband refuses to do it. I am tempted to contact him myself. Would that be wrong?—C'S WIFE

DEAR ABBY: On the subject of whether the clergyman should be paid extra for services that are a part of his "duty," may I add my remarks? Many couples who can afford only a small ceremony in the parson's living room forget that even the smallest wedding costs something. The last one cost us $15. We were offered $5, but we refused it because the couple were struggling students. But at some of the more elaborate church weddings when the cake, which is NOT essential, costs $75, and the preacher, who IS essential, costs nothing, it makes one wonder where the value system went.—PREACHER'S WIFE IN IOWA

DEAR ABBY: Two years ago my husband started accusing me of things I never thought of doing. My hand on a Bible, Abby, I never looked at another man in the 34 years we have been married. He kept at me and kept at me until I finally "confessed" just so he would leave me alone. Now he is worse than ever. I have tried to tell him that I am not guilty, and I only said I was so I could get some peace and quiet, but he doesn't believe me. Life is not worth living any more. If it weren't for our children and grandchildren I would know what to do. Can you help me?—MISERABLE

DEAR MISERABLE: Try to get your husband to your family physician for a "checkup." If he refuses to go, call your physician and tell him your problem. Excessive suspicion, without cause, is a common symptom of mental illness.

DEAR ABBY: The Rev. H. R. Frerking, host pastor, opened the morning sessions with a devotion, and the Rev. Ronald Jenkins of Bowie gave the closing.

SOUTH PACIFIC FOODS DESCRIBED AT STANDARD CLUB

A graphic description of South Sea Island food staples, plus reports on New Zealand and Samoa were highlights of the Standard Club program at a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Woman's Forum.

Mrs. John P. Marrs told of native foods which make up a large part of the Polynesian diet. She described a native banquet.

Mrs. J. R. Loggie described the two islands of New Zealand first settled by the Maoris. Grain, sheep and other livestock are principal products, she said.

Mrs. C. L. Baum told of the kiwi bird, New Zealand's wonder bird.

Mrs. Baum also outlined the economy, geography and history of Samoa, called the Pacific's newest nation.

Mrs. J. E. Wolf arranged the program and Mrs. V. N. Armstrong conducted the meeting.

Mother-Daughter Luncheon Held By Optimisses Club

History repeated itself at the Optimisses Club mother-daughter luncheon Wednesday at the YWCA. Four of the young women appearing on the musical program performed on a similar program in 1937.

They are Mrs. Ewell Cason Jr. (Rita Adair); Mrs. Gordon W. Bell (Carol Henderson); Claudia Henderson and Robbie Duffield.

The mother-daughter luncheon is not an annual affair for the Optimisses but rather is a special occasion program presented at intervals.

Wednesday, Mrs. Cason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adair, sang "Getting to Know You" and "Go Way From My Window," accompanied by Don Wittenbach. Mrs. Bell played a piano solo, Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C Sharp Minor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. La Grande Henderson. Their other daughter, Claudia, spoofed the nursery tale, "The Three Bears," in Spanish and also sang in Spanish, "Las Chapeaneas" to her own baritone ukelele accompaniment. She wore a Spanish costume.

Mrs. Duffield appeared in a pantomime of the Beatles. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Duffield. Kelly Duncan, Sue Ann Funston and Mary Jane Ford also appeared in the quartet. Their parents are Messrs. and Mmes. A. K. Duncan, H. M. Funston and James D. Ford.

Three generations were represented in one of the musical numbers. Mrs. A. G. Duncan accompanied her granddaughter, Polly Duncan in a clarinet solo, "Chrysalis." Miss Duncan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Duncan.

The luncheon tables were decorated with pink and white dogwood branches and pink streamers. Mmes. Smitty L. Browning, H. B. Caldwell and Cliff Davis were hostesses. Mrs. Horace Downing gave the invocation.

Mrs. Norman J. Cecil Jr. directed the business session when two future social events were announced. New members will be honored in May with Mrs. Murray Pois, membership chairman, in charge. Mrs. Henderson, social chairman, and Mrs. W. E. Burford are planning a dinner honoring husbands of members May 8 at the Burford home.

Mrs. Mike L. Duncan, wife of the District 38, Zone A lieutenant governor of Optimisses, was honored guest at the luncheon Wednesday.

Oklahoman Employed As YWCA Residence Director

MISS McPHERSON

Miss Vivian McPherson of Tulsa, Okla., has been employed by the YWCA as director of the residence and will arrive April 15 to take over her new duties.

The YWCA residence is now being readied for opening within the month. Both single and double rooms will be available to young women, and those desiring to live there should contact the YWCA for an interview. Mrs. R. L. Hargrave is chairman of the residence committee.

Miss McPherson, daughter of a retired Baptist minister, the Rev. and Mrs. L. H. McPherson, was reared in Miami, Okla. She is a Licensed Practical Nurse and has followed the nursing profession for 20 years in Oklahoma cities. For the past two years she has been resident director of the Tulsa YWCA.

"We are pleased with Miss McPherson," Mrs. Joella Terrill Butler, personnel committee chairman, said. "She has all the fine qualifications necessary for a responsible position such as this one. Because of her successful experience as YWCA director in Tulsa she comes to us highly recommended."

Miss McPherson visited in Wichita Falls Wednesday to meet with YWCA officials and Mrs. Louise Brown, executive director.

New Alpha Tau Officers To Be Installed In May

Mrs. Bobby Carter was elected president of Alpha Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority when members met Tuesday night.

To assume duties with Mrs. Carter at the May 19 installation dinner in River Oaks Motel Restaurant are the following: Mmes. John Townsend and Weldon Sullivan, first and second vice presidents; Gary Harbison, treasurer; Margie Schwarz, corresponding secretary; Richard Massie, recording secretary; Darnell Krc, extension officer; Mary Matthews, Council representative, and Mrs. Gene Durkee as alternate.

Mrs. Carter introduced three new members and six transferees. The new pledges are Mmes. Ray Ady, Alvin Russell and Hart-sell Haws. Transferees are Mmes. Curt Berryman, Dick Lowe and Carroll Harrell from Phi Gamma Mu and Mmes. Roland Russell and Gloria Beames and Miss Billie Lear from Phi Alpha Omega.

Announcement was made during the business session that Mrs. Jim Bowen's BSP bowling team won first in the recent city tournament and Mrs. Mary Matthews' team won second place. It was also announced that all proceeds from the current Sertoma light bulb sale will go to the North Texas Crippled Children's Center. Name of the 1963-64 Alpha Tau Girl of the Year, elected by secret vote at the meeting, will be announced at the installation dinner.

A program was presented by Mrs. Don Bray whose topic was "Music's Influence On Our Lives," and Mrs. Matthews who talked on music enjoyment.

The meeting was concluded with a white elephant sale held as a ways and means project.

TO SPEAK SUNDAY—Dr. James D. Tyson, director of the speech and hearing clinic at Texas Woman's University in Denton, will speak at a special meeting of the Council for Children with Language Disorders Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Wesley Foundation Building. All interested people are invited to attend.

WE THE WOMEN Try Improving Yourself Instead Of Feeling Guilty

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
"How can I win back my husband's love?" writes a woman reader. "We've been married for almost 20 years and he has grown completely indifferent to me."

Well, if she were the heroine of a soap opera or magazine serial it would be duck soup. She'd go to a fancy beauty salon for a few weeks, buy a lot of new clothes and the timid, neglected duckling would turn into a swan—and the couple would live happily ever after.

But a man who has lost interest in a woman isn't going to get it back simply because she loses 10 pounds, finds a more becoming hairdo, and buys new clothes that "do something for her."

All those things may be beneficial, simply because they make the woman feel less woe-begone and give her a little confidence in herself. But they aren't going to make her husband suddenly see her in a new light.

My advice to this wife: quit worrying about changing to please her husband and start thinking about making herself over to please herself. If she busies herself with things she really likes to do, she'll be happier, and a more interesting person.

Chances are her husband will find her more interesting, too. If he doesn't she's still ahead for she is getting some fun out of life, instead of sitting around feeling sorry for herself.

This probably sounds like very dull advice compared with the "make - yourself - beautiful - and - he'll - fall - in - love - with - you - all - over - again" routine women are usually handed.

But, dull or not, it's realism rather than wishful thinking. For no matter what the storybooks tell you, that old line of advice just doesn't work.

Chapter CA, P.E.O. Initiates Members

Two new members were initiated and two transferee members introduced at a meeting of Chapter CA, P.E.O. Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Tom Beeson, 1603 St. John. Mrs. Robert G. Fair was co-hostess for the buffet supper.

Mrs. John Tevis and Mrs. Marion C. Barker are the new members. Mrs. Robert Helton and Mrs. Bruce McLain were the transferees, both from Chapter EF, Grandfield, Okla.

Mrs. Donna Littlejohn read a paper prepared by Mrs. F. E. Meaders for the program. The title was "To Seek Growth Through Appreciation."

Misses Claire Galbraith and Beryl Sullivan will be hostesses for the April 21 meeting at their home, 2403 Farington. A white elephant sale will be held at that meeting. Mrs. J. Lee Hilliard, president, announced.

Wesleyan Class Has Memorial Service

Twenty members and five visitors were present Wednesday at the Wesleyan Class meeting of Wesley Methodist Church.

After the business session a memorial service was conducted for Mrs. Herman Lange by Mmes. W. P. Thomas, J. T. Lamb and Julia Mullins.

Luncheon was served to members and guests who included the Rev. and Mrs. Fred Mooring, Mmes. J. Clifton Thomas, Bill Jones and R. P. Walsh.

Hints from HELOISE

Grate Cheese

Dear Heloise: We buy cheese in the big bricks. Sometimes, after using part of it, we forget we have the cheese, and it gets hard. Is there anything we can do with it?—E.S.

Dear E.S.: Lots of people put it through a meat grinder, if it's really hard, or grate it on the fine part of their grater.

The cheese may then be put in a fruit jar and the lid capped tightly and put back in your freezing unit. It may be used for cheese souffles, scalloped potatoes, to "top" lettuce salad (and that's fabulous), sprinkled on the top of hot scrambled eggs, made into a cheese sauce for any kind of dish, sprinkled on top of spaghetti and ... just try putting some of it on a piece of toast in your oven!

It's out of this world, especially for in-between - snacks, Sunday nights when you don't want a big meal, and for going along with a tv program.

In all of these above recipes I have found that if the cheese is extremely dry, you can grate an onion in with it, stir slightly with a fork and then set it back in your refrig. It sure adds zip to all the above.

If you do not have an onion, sometimes onion salt may be used.

The best thing about grating the cheese as soon as you get home from the store and putting it immediately in jars or plastic bags, is that you can remove any amount and use immediately because it thaws so quickly. There is never any waste.

Besides, gals, it saves washing the grater umpteen times!—Heloise

Dear Heloise: Fleecy paint rollers may be softened for reuse by rinsing with any laundry softener.

When I have a tiny scratch on my walls (which are painted with water - type paint), I take my child's water colors and can usually match the colors fairly well. It works!—Mrs. D.M.K.

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

Dear Heloise: I have found so many useful hints in your column during the year and some are so simple that you would think any idiot would think of them, but ... I didn't!—C.D.

Dear Heloise: The cushion springs in our chairs were "showing," so after reading the idea about removing the springs and putting in foam rubber cushions, we bought cushions as near the correct size as possible and cut them to fit. They have proven very satisfactory.

Also, we had rubber treads and runners on our steps and in the hall. They looked very grey. We washed them and when they were thoroughly dried, we finished the surface with self - polishing liquid - shoe polish. The surface is now shiny black and can be kept in that condition with a damp cloth.—Reader

Shoe polish is not ordinarily made for this purpose and there are hundreds of different brands on the market. I suggest that you girls spot test a piece of the tread first, let it dry thoroughly, and then see if it comes off on your shoes. Some do!—Heloise

Dear Heloise: Dandelions just seem to love my grass. But I have found an easy way to get rid of them. I take a screwdriver, tip it in a small jar of gasoline and thrust this into the heart of the dandelion. Within a few days the dandelions are dead and the gasoline has not hurt the surrounding grass.—Mr. Walker

WORD OF CAUTION: We all know that gasoline is dangerous. SO BE CAREFUL. However, the screwdriver method is an excellent way for using approved weed killers etc.—Heloise

Dear Heloise: My daughter has come up with a perfect solution for getting her children to swallow medical and vitamin pills and capsules. She lets them take the capsules with water from a cold drink bottle.

The tilt of the bottle puts the throat in a receptive position and the pellet slides right down, even for those who find it most difficult to swallow pills.—Mrs. M.L.

1934 Study Club Learns About Gems

Bryan Lovelace gave the program for the 1934 Study Club Wednesday on "Gem Stones of the Bible." The group met in the home of Mrs. V. E. Lane, 2107 Pawhuska, and luncheon was served.

Lovelace said that man has always enjoyed lovely things, and when he discovered that pretty stones were not plentiful he attached a scale of values to them. These stones became known as gems and began to represent wealth.

Only kings or chiefs were allowed to have wealth in this form, but they also came into use by medicine men as symbols to ward off evil spirits. The first mention of gems in the Bible is found in Genesis, Lovelace said. Although it is believed that the 12 stones in the garment of the high priest were the origin of birthstones, they actually represented the 12 tribes of Israel. Later they were attached to the zodiac.

GOLDEN RULE
REBEKAHS
CONFER DEGREE

Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge made plans to entertain the Wichita County Association April 21 when they met Tuesday night at the IOOF Hall.

The Rebekah degree was conferred on Mrs. Georgia Lynch by Miss Fern Simmons, degree staff captain, who was in charge of initiation. Mrs. J. Feldman Willis, staff captain, and members of her staff gave a fancy drill.

Mrs. Vanda Perkins presented the junior past noble grand Mrs. Willow Mae Gibson with a scrapbook containing the history of the lodge. The scrapbook, made by Mrs. Perkins, won first place honors at the recent state Assembly meeting. The Lodge received a plaque with the Rebekah emblem in recognition of this honor.

Mrs. Carl Brooks was introduced and given honors as deputy and Mrs. Willis also was given honors as state deputy.

Miss Volenia Rice gave a report of the state Assembly. Thirty-one were present, including four visitors from Archer City, Mmes. Clara Roll, Gladys Huffman, Gertrude Chaney, Emma Hanna, and Leatha Dodd from Rebekah Lodge 236, Wichita Falls.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Perkins and her committee, Miss Dorothy Nell Mason and Mrs. Lena Emmert.

ARE DISCUSSED
FOR LEAGUE UNITS

The role of political parties in the United States was outlined at two League of Women Voters unit meetings Wednesday. Mrs. Howard Aldrich led the program at the Central Unit meeting at 10 a.m. in the Art Room of the Woman's Forum and Mrs. Garland Carriker prepared the discussion for the University Park unit at 7:30 p.m. in Mrs. Raymond Sims home, 4103 Lavelle.

At both meetings, the program was based on Joseph C. Harsch's booklet, "The Role of Political Parties in the U.S.A." as revised by Frederic W. Collins.

The history of political parties in this country, the present problems they face and the role of the independent voter were the three main program divisions.

The cost of elections and the direct primary — which sometimes is used as a reform measure — were explored as part of the problems facing parties.

An uninformed voter is more likely to be an independent voter, the League women were told. He has no choice of candidates since he doesn't vote in a primary, the speakers said.

The shrinking of political patronage — now there are approximately 6,000 "political plums" contrasted with 12,000,000 civil service workers — was examined also.

In discussing the two-party system, Harsch pointed out that

 East left no stone uncovered in order to ferret out the only successful line of defense that was available in today's hand.

South opened the bidding with one club and North responded with one diamond. East came in with a vulnerable overall of one heart and, the South had no additional values, he decided to avail himself of the economical opportunity to show his spade suit. With a satisfactory fit now uncovered, the partnership wasted no further time in getting to game.

West opened the three of hearts and East played the ace. The shift was to the king of clubs in the hope that West had the ace, in which case East would be in position to overruff the dummy on the third round. South turned up with the ace of clubs, however, and he hastened to ruff out a small heart in order to lead a trump from the dummy.

Altho his partner had failed to turn up with a high club honor, East had one remaining string to his bow—the possibility that West had the ace of trumps. On the spade lead from dummy, East rose with the king and, when it held the trick, he returned the three of clubs.

South was in again and he led the queen of spades. West won with the ace and, on another club lead, East overruffed North's seven of spades with his eight to score the setting trick.

Observe that East was risking very little by making his abnormal play of second hand high in the spade suit for, when it became revealed that his partner had nothing in clubs, the only chance to defeat the contract hinged on finding West with the ace of trumps. If his play resulted in declarer's making an extra trick, the cost would be slight.

"nothing so effectively curbs arrogance, tyranny and self-righteousness in politics as the ever present opportunity for the voter of taking his political business elsewhere. Our two-party system gives the voter that opportunity."

Suspense Novel
Reviewed For Club

Mrs. J. F. Buckwalter reviewed a romantic suspense novel, "The Tlisset Inheritance" for members of the Junior Travel Club Wednesday morning.

The novel, by Catherine Gaslin, is a vivid tale of what an inheritance does to a family. Its setting is in the West Indies.

Mrs. J. C. Mathis, club vice president, had charge of a business meeting during which a parliamentary drill was given by Mrs. George Watson. Plans were made for the final meeting of the year, which will be a luncheon at the Woman's Forum April 22.

PRE-SCHOOL SWIM CLASSES TO OPEN POOL

The YWCA swimming pool will be open for business beginning Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Classes will be offered for pre-school children; for boys and girls; for adults and for per-ceptionally handicapped children.

Classes also will be offered for beginners, intermediates and those who know how to swim but want to review basic strokes and distance swimming. Mrs. John Larsen is aquatic director.

The per-ceptionally handicapped will be given instruction on Saturdays from 9 to 2: Blue Belles will use the pool from 2 to 3 and Y-Teens will use it from 3:15 to 4:15.

"Pre-school classes will not be given during the summer," Miss Claudia Johnston, assistant program director of the YWCA, said. "Boys and girls up to six years old are included on their mothers' memberships and class enrollment will be limited to eight children. Mothers who want to enroll their children should do so immediately. Water will be lowered in the pool for these children."

A list of all types of classes scheduled from April 13 to May 23 is available from Miss Johnston at the YWCA, and she has information concerning charges for classes, and for use of the pool.

MRS. MONZINGO HEADS OFFICERS OF MOBIL WIVES

Mrs. A. J. Monzingo will serve as president of the Mobil Wives Club with other officers elected Wednesday at the Wichita Falls Country Club.

Vice presidents one through five are Mmes. Bruce Greve, G. G. Cooper, Jack Cooper, Leon Thompson, and J. D. Shipman, respectively. Mrs. Ernest J. Zenker is secretary and Mrs. J. M. Glendinning is reporter.

High winner in bridge was Mrs. H. W. Good with Mrs. Greve second.

Hostesses for the luncheon were Mmes. Richard Fitch and Zenker.

The next meeting will be May 13 at the Skyline Country Club. All members are asked to attend and bring guests.

ABWA MEMBERS
RECRUITERS

Guest speakers for the Tuesday evening meeting of the Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association were S.Sgt. Everett Ward of the Air Force Recruiting Office of Fort Worth and T.Sgt. Lee-Milan of the local recruiting office.

The airmen told their listeners that the standards for enlistment in the Air Force at present are higher than were those in the past, both morally and intellectually.

Mrs. George Couter of Burkburnett, vice president of the Boomtown ABWA, and Mrs. Don R. Long were introduced. The meeting was held in the YWCA.

To Give Dinner-Dance

The Coyote Baseball Mothers Club will hold a supper and dance Saturday for team members, dates and coaches at the Pat Carrigan Legion Building.

Plans for the affair were completed Monday in the home of Mrs. Al Syverson, 1509 Britain. Eleven members attended.

The next meeting will be April 20 in the home of Mrs. J. D. Archer, 2105 Roberts.

Grandmothers Club Entertains Daughters

A mother-daughter banquet was held recently by the Grandmothers Club in the River Oaks Restaurant. Mrs. Thelma Perkins was mistress of ceremonies. Receiving guests were Mmes. O. G. Smith, R. B. Dodd, A. J. Grimes and Perkins.

Mrs. Jack Wells read a poem and Mrs. Lee Jane Park sang two songs. She was accompanied by Mrs. L. G. Swift. Mrs. Swift also told a story.

During the business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Smith, members voted to make a monetary gift to the Salvation Army to be used in the tornado disaster recovery.

The national emblem of the Grandmothers Clubs of America was used on the place cards. Satin sachet bags were given as favors. The tables were decorated with little golden umbrellas containing spring flowers.

Mothers Of Twins Elect At Dinner

The Mothers of Twins Club met Tuesday evening at the Country House for dinner, election of officers and other business.

New officers are Mrs. Eddie Dunn, president; Mrs. Odell Ballard, reporter; and Mrs. Bobby Carroll, secretary-treasurer.

The group discussed disbursement of the community club award money it received and made plans for Twins Week which will begin April 20.

Gay Blue Birds of Harrell School met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Robert Armstrong, leader, and hiked to Harrell Park. Debra Smith was hostess, and Mrs. Jo Smith accompanied the group.

The organization recently took a train ride to Henrietta and toured points of interest.

Government Waste Hit

By GEORGE W. CRANE, M.D.

CASE S-434: Larry J., aged 32, is a successful dental surgeon.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "it is getting harder and harder for anybody in private practice to make a living.

"Taxes are zooming and I understand the president has added 250,000 more workers to the government payroll just in the past three years!

"That brings the total beyond 2,500,000, which is fantastic.

"So how can we ever hope to balance the budget?"

Remember No. 218
Remember the crucial Number 218.

There are 435 members of the House of Representatives.

And all appropriation bills must originate in the House.

So whenever 218 Democrats and Republicans unite to produce lower taxes and less boondoggling, then we'll have sensible government again.

"But what about those 2,500,000 civil service federal employees you may exclaim.

"They have permanent tenure and isn't it impossible to fire them?"

"They often dawdle along and affect arrogance, even though we taxpayers are really their bosses."

Well, nobody will work without salary!

And if 218 Congressmen team-up to veto any appropriations bill the president may demand, then nobody gets paid.

That means the nine Supreme Court Justices receive no pay checks, nor does the President or members of Congress, etc.

And the various cabinet members will no longer be able to squander billions on frilly, non-essentials.

In that connection, the Food and Drug Administration, plus other sections of the HEW department, squander almost $5 billion per year ($20 billion in Kennedy's first term).

Yet we have 2,000 college chemistry departments that would gladly do most of the work of the FDA.

Put On Pressure

Thus, the testing of new drugs would furnish Ph. D. thesis topics for graduate students in chemistry, medical and dental labs.

Why should we taxpayers thus he asks for 7 or 8 billion.

Then our Congressmen boast about how they pared down his budget by voting him only 5 billion. It is to laugh.

This standard "mark up" is used to hoodwink voters, both by the national Congress and our own state legislatures.

So let's start calling the shots ourselves, since we taxpayers pay the bills. Economy will begin as soon as 218 Congressmen want it!

CONTEST PLAY— Casting has been completed and rehearsals under way for the University Interscholastic League one-act play to be entered in District AAA competition in Stephenville Friday. The public is invited to an open rehearsal of the 40-minute cutting in the Rider auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. Director is Mrs. Deanna Daniel. Entitled "J.B.," the play has the cast shown here, left to right, front row, Jonna Lynch, David Grote who has the main role, and Bill Sidebottom; back row, Mark Satin, Joe Justin, Lorne Davis and Jim Friend. The play in verse form is the story of Job from the Old Testament retold in a contemporary setting. The action is set in a circus tent and dramatization is of the most modern type. The public is invited to the free performance Thursday night.

South Viet Nam Suffers Setback

TAN AN, Viet Nam (AP)—A Communist victory only 15 miles south of Saigon has dealt a major setback to strongman Premier Nguyen Khanh's plan to clear the Viet Cong from Long An Province, on the doorstep of his capital.

Viet Cong guerrillas overran a Vietnamese self defense post at 3 a.m. Wednesday and killed 28 South Vietnamese. Most of the dead, including two civilians were riddled in their beds.

Thirty-six men were wounded and 37 others were missing, believed captured after the hand-and-run battle in which the Viet Cong seized 115 weapons and blew up two watchtowers.

Viet Cong losses, if any, were not known.

South Viet Nam's 7th Division sent in a large force to stalk the guerrillas, and heavy mortar fire was reported in the area today.

American sources said the guerrillas apparently were aided by agents working inside the base at Phuoc Loi, 30 miles north of this provincial capital.

These Communist undercover men were reported to have signaled the attack by racing into the barracks and spraying the sleeping troops with bullets. The Viet Cong attacked in force seconds later.

The watchtowers were blown up by mines that American sources said must have been laid long before the attack.

Firearms added to the Communist arsenal—virtually every weapon on the base—included 52 carbines, 14 machine guns and an assortment of rifles, shotguns and pistols.

Long An Province, adjoining the Saigon capital district, lies within the 7th Division area which Maj. Gen. Khanh recently described as one of two regions most critical in his effort to seize control of the Communist-infested countryside and hold it.

Truck Crash Disrupts Pleasanton's Phones

PLEASANTON, Calif. (AP)—The collision of two trucks led to interruption of telephone service for several hours at Pleasanton Wednesday.

A truck pulling two cement hoppers and another carrying seven pickup trucks collided in an underpass. A telephone pole was knocked down and wires fell on nearby railroad tracks. Moments later, a train passed and severed the wires.

The drivers escaped serious injury.

For the 3rd time in three years, Fred Lorenzen takes the grueling Atlanta "500" at the wheel of his Ford.

FORD TOTAL PERFORMANCE WINS ATLANTA "500" FOR 3RD YEAR IN A ROW!

Latest win gives Ford 11 out of last 12 NASCAR 500 milers!

ATLANTA, April 5: In a blazing exhibition of total performance, ace driver Fred Lorenzen piloted his specially modified '64 Ford to a stunning victory in the Atlanta "500" before a cheering crowd of 75,000 spectators. This victory marks the 11th time that Ford has captured a NASCAR stock car event of 500 miles or more starting in May, 1962.

In the past two years, tough, dependable Ford-built cars have carved out an incredible history of victories in virtually every kind of automotive event possible—from stock car races to economy runs, from rallies to endurance tests.

This is the dramatic way to show that Fords have changed... and the sure way to be certain they keep on changing.

Ford enters special cars in open competition, in addition to its extensive laboratory and test track programs, because competition provides an intensity of testing that no proving ground alone can provide.

The lessons Ford has learned in racing have already led directly to such refinements as a stronger rear axle, streamlined "fastback" styling, better brakes and an improved ignition system.

Because Ford enters open competition, the cars at your Ford Dealer's are stronger, better handling, safer and thrifter in the long run. They're built for total performance.

Lack Of Divisive Issues

Wichita Falls was not torn apart politically in the campaign preceding Tuesday's municipal election involving the mayoralty and four of the six-member City Council.

In many past elections in which there has been an unusual interest, as reflected in the big turnout of voters, and in which there was a wealth of candidates, issues have arisen which brought cleavage to the council and the municipal administration.

If we have observed the campaign correctly, the multiplicity of candidates ran their races for municipal office on their own merits, on their own ability to secure constituents and on the kind of job they could do for our city and not on the demerits of their opponents or of a desire to change the program or policies of the council as they have existed for some time.

Mayor John Gavin, who is retiring next week, and the councilmen who have served with him for the last two years have been recognized as the best group of elected city officials Wichita Falls has had in a long time. They have been hard-working, dedicated and sincere in their positions of public service and much has been accomplished for the welfare of this community.

The lack of any divisive issues in the campaign makes it unlikely that the three new members of the City Council will find themselves differing substantially with the common goals that have been before the predecessor City Council.

All who sought office conducted their campaigns in good taste and excellent restraint. The winners are to be congratulated for their victory, the losers commended for their willingness to serve, and the voters for turning out in satisfactory if not record numbers to mark their ballots.

Costs Everybody Else

Dallas folks, presumably, are happy while the Fort Worth people are sad over the outcome of the long series of hearings involving airport facilities.

An examiner has ruled against a single regional air facility for the two cities, which Fort Worth contended would be desirable at the Greater Southwest International Airport midway between Dallas and Fort Worth.

Love Field, 15 minutes from downtown Dallas and a $40 million installation that is one of the busiest air terminals in the nation, will remain Dallas' airport.

The Civil Aeronautics Board examiner, press reports indicate, had in his findings statements that individually pleased Dallas and Fort Worth leaders, but to rule for Love Field was a crowning blow to the latter.

What puzzles outsiders is the finding by the examiner that the Dallas-Fort Worth area should be carefully scrutinized so that a regional airport can possibly be established at an agreed-on site in the future.

Will Uncle Sam have to put up many more millions of dollars to build the equivalent of a new Greater Southwest International Airport just because Dallas can't agree with Fort Worth? If that answer ever is yes, then a lot more people than are residents of the two cities will be objecting. The Fort Worth-Dallas feud can only be costly—to everybody else.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Give More Generously

Editor The Times:

The kindness and consideration shown by so many this past Friday and the long hours following lead us to write you this expression of gratitude.

Dr. Al T. Witcher and Bob Jolliff are due praise for their good judgment in declaring martial law immediately after the disaster. That action was certainly the good beginning for the orderly and systematic aid and assistance given the victims of the tornado.

The National Guard, Highway Patrol, Salvation Army and the police all met this emergency in great stride and have our heartfelt thanks. The courtesy with which they gave their assistance is also deeply appreciated. We citizens can be justly proud.

This disaster should behoove everyone to give more generously to the United Fund. It did not occur to us last year that we might need their services one day; however, the constant availability of these services during this trying time was most welcome and appreciated. Though we lost our homes and belongings, we will most certainly support the next drive for funds for this worthy cause and try to influence others to do the same.

Once again, please accept our thanks to all these fine organizations filled with so many wonderful people.

People Will Respond

Editor The Times:

I want to thank you for publishing the article soliciting support for the Red Cross and the Salvation Army to help defray the expenses experienced by these two agencies during this disaster.

I feel certain the people will respond as usual to this appeal, and I know the other members of the Salvation Army Advisory Board join me in thanking you for making the need known.

Files Of The Times

10 YEARS AGO

April 9, 1954

Mrs. Ben G. Yeager, chairman of Gray Lady ward at Wichita Falls State Hospital, announced today that expansion of the Red Cross Gray Lady unit is under way. A corps of 35 Gray Ladies is working at the hospital in a program that began two years ago.

President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles, Postmaster General Summerfield, Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the National Council of Churches and Cardinal Spellman attended the ceremony to introduce the new U.S. stamp, first issue to carry the national motto, "In God We Trust."

A four-day, special FBI school for members of the Wichita Falls Police Department was climaxed yesterday with the presentation of 17 diplomas to policemen by Mayor Kindel Paulk.

25 YEARS AGO

April 9, 1939

The United States has formally denounced Italy's invasion of Albania in a statement reflecting the mounting concern of President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Cordell Hull that European developments may lead the world into war.

Col. W. T. Knight, president of the Consolidated Oil Company, announced the Buffalo Oil Company of Dallas Saturday purchased 250 acres on the W. P. Ferguson farm in western KMA for $700,000 cash.

An Easter sunrise service will be held early Sunday morning on the Seymour Road hills at 5:45 o'clock, presented by the Methodist young people of Wichita Falls.

50 YEARS AGO

April 9, 1914

A temperature of 25 degrees and a heavy frost last night killed most of the fruit in this area. Snow was falling at Snyder this morning and the temperature at Dalhart was 16 degrees. Frost is predicted tonight in all the Gulf States.

One thousand dollars was appropriated by the Chamber of Commerce directors this morning for the Wichita Falls "slogan sign" which will be placed at the city gateway, Eighth and Michigan.

The report for the Wichita Falls public schools for the seventh month ending April 3, shows an increase of 537 over corresponding month last year. The enrollment is now 2,837.

Jet Freighters Bring New Era In Exports

By VERNON LOUIVIERE
Times Washington Bureau

American agriculture, whose outpouring of food and fiber continues to astound the world, has joined the jet age.

For the first time people in many foreign lands are able to enjoy fresh American strawberries and eggs or buy baby chicks and new-cut flowers.

This has come about with the advent of the jet freighter, which has brought on a new dimension in the export and transportation businesses.

More Products Sent

American shippers are sending abroad an ever-increasing number of products which they could not in the days of the propeller planes.

Figures just made available show airborne exports of U.S. farm products totaled 20.2 million pounds in the first 10 months of 1963 against 15.1 million pounds in a similar period the year before. And this brought the shippers in the neighborhood of $21 million.

The jet freighter is tailor-made for some farm exports. For example, its speed enables perishable items like vegetables, fruits and flowers to travel without cumbersome refrigeration equipment. Also, it insures the health and comfort of live animals and poultry.

Markets Within Reach

The speed of these jets enables the shipper to reach markets that have sprung up suddenly because of a new fashion in food or a shortage due to weather or other emergencies. And there are some markets, such as in countries where towns are widely scattered, mountains rugged or roads bad, that are almost always inaccessible by other methods of transport than air.

At this time the biggest volume item in the agricultural air export total is edible animals. Fresh eggs come next, followed by meat and meat products, nursery and floral stock. But the one that shows the most astonishing growth is baby chicks, up 38 per cent to 1.8 million pounds.

First thing a shipper looks at as he decides how to move his goods to market is transportation cost. In recent years air freight costs per ton-mile have been going down steadily in comparison with the costs of shipping by surface carriers.

Cost Reduced

Consider the old two-engine DC3. It would cost 18 cents to ship one ton one mile in these old workhorses. Today's jet freighter has cut this cost to less than 5 cents per ton-mile.

Ground handling is one of the knottiest problems facing the jet freight industry. These costs run 10 to 20 times as high as those for truck and rail. But they are being gradually whittled down as new techniques are developed. This, in turn, will further reduce shipping rates.

The trend is toward specialized freight aircraft for the best and most economical service. The jet freighter revolution really took hold last year as the first of only 50 pure-jet cargo planes currently on order went into service. These great sky ships have a capacity of up to 45 tons at a cruising speed of 500 miles-an-hour.

Loading Time Cut

One of these big jets can be loaded in 40 minutes. This compares with the 180 minutes required to put a third as much cargo aboard a piston freighter.

Airlines are experimenting with containers of many different sizes that can travel on any surface conveyance and be loaded on any airplane.

Last year the International Air Transport Association set up a worldwide container program to encourage use of containers in the door-to-door delivery of international air freight.

The air cargo industry is quick to point out it is not threatening surface transportation. In fact, it can supplement it and improve its efficiency.

It has already been proven that some shipments need to use every means of carriage available—trucks, trains, ships and planes—to get where they are going.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Noble Summons Met

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON — When President Kennedy said, "Ask not what your country can do for you—ask what you can do for your country," he asked more questions than he gave answers. The question keeps coming back again and again: "Is there nothing which I, as a private citizen, can do to help?"

There is—now. There is something you can do at your own initiative in your own community—something specific and tangible.

It was originated by a private citizen, begun by a private citizen, and is now adopted by the Peace Corps in order that more private citizens may do something too.

Start At Same Place

Let me tell you where this project started—because you can start at the same place—and then where it is headed.

Private citizen Gene Bradley, president of the Rosendale Parent Teachers Association in Schenectady, N.Y., and editor of the General Electric Forum, found that his P-TA group had raised $750 for which the school had no immediate need.

Later he was talking with Stewart Van Dyck, U.S. Aid Director in Turkey, and casually asked him, "What would you do with $750?"

"I'd build a school," he answered.

Today that school is being built in Casa Blanca, Colombia. It will be completed this June. The Rosendale P-TA voted to contribute its $750. The townspeople of Casa Blanca raised $250 among themselves.

Money Used Sparingly

Build a small school for $1,000? Yes, because all the labor and all the construction work is volunteered and the money is used only to buy the cement and the block-making machines. All the rest is self-help.

Colombia was selected as the site for this pilot project because of its acute need for more primary schools. At the very minimum, it has a shortage of 40,000 classrooms in a country of 14,500,000 people.

Goal Of 3,000 Schools

This is it. This is how you can help, beginning tonight or tomorrow morning.

IT HAPPENED LAST NIGHT

'Hello, Dolly' Booms Into Smash Hit

By EARL WILSON

NEW YORK — The secret of giving a successful party nowadays is to play "Hello, Dolly" every other song... It's even the White House's favorite... Carol Channing and young composer-lyricist Jerry Herman are surprised to see it booming into another "The Music Goes Round and Round" kind of smash hit.

WILSON

"I've bought three new gowns on the strength of the success of the show album," says Carol. "We've now only got Al Hirt's 'Honey in the Horn' and The Beatles between us and first place." Veteran songwriters are skeptical about the lawsuits charging the song resembles previous hits. Tune detectives are busy seeking to prove that the "previous hits" resembled "even more previous hits."

Alternating In Role

Richard Burton thinks Robert Preston is "the foremost American Shakespearean actor with a voice like golden thunder" — and he will confer with him about doing "Othello" alternating in the role of Iago. So Richard declares in an ABC taped TV cast, adding: "Of course there's a good woman's role in that, too—Desdemona." Liz Taylor flew Alexandre of Paris here to do her coil for the "Hamlet" opening... First night at the Regency, Liz, Richard & Co. had fried chicken in their suites cooked Southern style by one of Liz's secretaries, John Lee, huh! Edie Adams went practically incognito to "The Best Man" premiere: in a flaming red dress, in her own all-white Rolls Royce, 1952 model, like the Queen of England has, and smoking an occasional cigar... They may be kidding but Lee Remick and Harry Guardino claim they wound up in such a feud after "Anyone Can Whistle" that they virtually expectorate at each other after and even during their love scenes.

Dinner Waiting

George Jessel says that when he visited N.Y. recently Frank Sinatra had a limousine and a young lady meet him and escort him to Sinatra's penthouse where dinner was waiting. "I said to Frank," reported George, "don't I get any spending money?" Adlai Stevenson didn't panic when he was introduced as "Ambassador Stevens" the other night at the Belasco. Presenting an award to Eva Le Gallienne from ANTA after "The Seagull" was performed, Stevenson said, "I met a man in San Francisco today who sent you his undying love. I was so jealous, I forgot his name. Talents of that kind have contributed to my spectacular political career."

Announcement Expected

Frank Sinatra's coming in soon and folks wonder if he'll be talking a movie deal with Abbe Lane who'll make an announcement about herself and Xavier Cugat... Beautiful Nai Bonet, a B'way Eurasian, landed a dancing part in Shirley MacLaine's "John Goldfarb Please Come Home"... Natalie Wood and Arthur Loew Jr., busy at something or other in Connecticut, canceled out a trip to the Argentina Film Festival at the last minute, raising marriage questions again... Nancy Berg and Steven Sondheim weren't concealing a thing from anybody at the Gallagher's "Whistle" party... Atty. Greg Bautzer's about to share an apt. with a couple of business gyps here, so where's Dana Wynter?

That's quite a feud now between Playwright Gore Vidal and Bobby Kennedy — though they used to be quite chummy, with Vidal in and out of the White House when JFK was President. Vidal makes no secret of his opposition to Bobby becoming vice president and has been getting this thought across in interviews about his new movie, "The Best Man."

The Midnight Earl

After I wrote that Barbra Streisand is a Taurus, Syd Foley, expert on singers and astrology, wrote to me that "almost every great vocalist is born in Taurus." (Crosby, Kate Smith, Como, Belafonte, etc.) Yeah, what about Sinatra again (a December's child)?

Arthur Godfrey'll play the guitar with Lionel Hampton's band at Carnegie Hall May 6... Hermione Gingold munched a snack at the "Girl Talk" tv-taping — chocolate-covered matzos... Philadelphia Eagle footballer Timmy Brown will make records, cafe appearances... David Suskind asked Rat Pink Rm. owner Jackie Kannon: "If I sing, will you pay my check?" Kannon said, "I'll pay it if you don't sing!" (But Suskind sang anyway)... Barbra Streisand's signed to "Funny Girl" for two years.

Mexican comic Cantinflas'll be a judge at the next Miss Universe contest... Neil Sedaka, who'll do a concert in Rome, will record an album of Israeli tunes there — in Italian... Lindy's was closed, so owner Max Stahl could give a party for a new grandson. (One patron said, "The waiters danced with the customers, which is unusual — the waiters generally think they are too good for the customers")... Leslie Uggams sang for LBJ at a Washington party, and her mgr. said: "Just like a woman — she took along three songs and six gowns."

I'd Rather Be Light

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH: These days it's hard to keep a H'wood marriage secret. Somebody's bound to notice the couple isn't talking to one another. WISH I'D SAID THAT: Years are like women — you always hope the next one in your life will be the best one. REMEMBERED QUOTE: "To err is human. To blame it on someone else is politics"—George Kirby.

EARL'S PEARLS: This is the time of year when America's most popular author is the fellow who writes income tax refunds—Arnold Glasow. An Indian fakir told a friend he'd found a big bag of nails and the pal answered: "Fine—let's have a pillow fight." That's earl, brother.

Almost A Perfect
Game Again At ABC

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — For the second straight night, a bowler came within an eyelash of a perfect game in the American Bowling Congress Tournament.

Tony Malensek of Pueblo, Colo., opened up his second game in the team event Wednesday night with 10 straight strikes. The 31-year-old letter carrier was finally halted when he left the 1-2-7 pins standing on his 11th ball. He converted the spare for 287.

Champagne Tony's Best Bet If Lightning Strikes

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Nearly 100 of golf's greatest players teed off today in the 28th Masters Tournament over the Augusta National course that days of steady rain have turned into a links built for two—defending champion Jack Nicklaus and three-time winner Arnold Palmer.

Nicklaus, the 24-year-old Ohio Golden Bear who is the youngest winner ever, was a 4-1 choice to repeat—something no Masters winner ever has done.

Golf's longest driver, Nicklaus has the length to handle the nearly 7,000 water-logged yards of the course that Bobby Jones designed.

Nicklaus has listed former Open champion Billy Casper, Tony Lema, who was the runner-up last year, and 1961 Masters winner Gary Player of South Africa among the leading threats to his title.

Boros, who is not given to wild predictions, said "you never can tell," when asked about his chances.

Champagne Tony said "my best chance is for lightning to strike the clubhouse while 90 per cent of the field is inside."

Player is running a fever from infected tonsils and may not have the strength for four top rounds over the demanding course.

Palmer, 34, winner in 1958, 1960 and 1962, is the only other player in the field of 96 who can hit the ball far enough to get it to the top of the hills that loom up in front of nearly one-half the holes.

The other pros have complained the course's roll is gone and it will take plenty of sunshine and wind to bring it back before the tournament ends Sunday.

The predictions are that the rains are through, but the man who picks the weather around here must have bet on Tom Dewey in 1948. He is batting about .025 lately, according to the local inhabitants.

Boros won the Greater Greensboro Open last Sunday. Nicklaus has won only one tournament all year, and Palmer none, but they still rank first and fourth on the money list.

Top prize at the Masters is usually $20,000. The payoff, based on gate receipts, runs in the $100,000 neighborhood.

Impressive as those totals are, they are small compared to the value of a Masters victory for endorsements and personal appearances. That has been put in the million dollar class.

Toronto Has No Confidence In Favorites

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Montreal Canadiens and Chicago Black Hawks are favored to advance to the Stanley Cup finals with victories on home ice tonight.

But Punch Imlach, the Toronto coach, doesn't see eye-to-eye with the odds-makers.

"At the start of the semifinals I said that the Leafs and Red Wings will meet in the finals and I still feel that way," Imlach said.

Both the Montreal-Toronto and the Chicago-Detroit series are tied 3-3. The finals in the National Hockey League competition will be in Chicago Sunday night if the Hawks eliminate Detroit. Otherwise, they will start Saturday night in either Montreal or Toronto.

Mays' Injury Is Not Break

MODESTO, Calif. (AP) — X-rays of Willie Mays' right wrist at Doctor's Hospital in Modesto Wednesday night showed no broken bones were suffered by the star center fielder of the San Francisco Giants.

"Clean as a whistle," said Giant trainer Frank Bowman.

Mays was hit on the wrist when Dick Donovan of the Cleveland Indians attempted to pick him off first in an exhibition baseball game Wednesday at Fresno, Calif.

"I sure hope you're all right," said Donovan to Mays as the outfielder trotted across the pitcher's mound to the dugout for ice pack treatments.

"It's just one of those things," said Mays.

Buddy Works A Chance For Houston

Everybody knows that Houston is the only entry from Texas in major league baseball. Everybody is also wondering when the Colt 45s are going to field a major league club.

The answer may come this year, and it won't be "out of the mouths of babes." Houston has had its fill of the "accent on youth." What the Colts are doing now is something they should have done two years ago.

A new keystone combination, shortstop Eddie Kasko and second baseman Nellie Fox, is what the Colts needed more than their domed stadium.

The stadium won't be ready to play in until next season. Kasko and Fox will be ready to pitch double plays starting opening day, April 13.

Three Benefits

There are three definite benefits and improvements the veteran duo will provide. (1) The ability to make the double play. (2) More offensive punch from their positions. (3) The ability to instill confidence and boost morale in the youngsters.

The first reason the two were hired was the double play. Fox, at second, is the key to the double play. For the past five seasons the ex-White Sox star led American League second base men in participating in double plays. Last year the White Sox completed 163 double plays. Fox doesn't have the strongest arm in baseball, but he does have the knack of getting the ball to first fast and can position himself quickly.

Kasko's arm isn't any better than Nellie's, but he can receive and throw the ball in one easy motion. Although in his 15th season, the ex-Cincinnati great is still a fielding whiz.

How did Colt double plays fare last year? The Colts completed 100, lowest in the majors.

Hitting Improves

It is a foregone fact for Houston brass, hitting at their positions will improve. Fox has a lifetime batting average of .290 for 19 seasons. Kasko comes to the 45s with a .271 average.

These figures look like mountains when compared to last season's duo for the Colts. Bob Lillis hit .198 and Ernie Fazio hit .184. And we wonder why the Colts hardly beat the Mets?

Seven To Go

Righthander Don Nottebart said, "You know now that with a man on first you can try to get the hitter to hit the ball on the ground and you have two big outs. That wasn't the case last year."

"Those guys are something," said third baseman Bob Aspromonte. "They know how to keep you relaxed but hustling at the same time."

Fox and Kasko say they get a feeling of youth when they are playing with the Colts. "They make me play harder," says Nellie, "and youth and spirit are contagious, you know."

So the Colts will have two major leaguers on their team anyway. That leaves only seven positions open.

Frisco Evens Up Series, 111-109

ST. LOUIS (AP) — San Francisco evened its National Basketball Association playoff with St. Louis in a "dog-eat-dog" battle Wednesday night, and taking the biggest bite out of the Hawks was Nate Thurmond.

"Thurmond did it all — defense, offense, rebounds," said Warrior Coach Alex Hannum after his club had whipped the Hawks 111-109.

The victory tied the Western Division best-of-seven final play-offs at two games each and returned the home-court advantage to the Warriors.

Friday

The next game will be played in San Francisco Friday night with the teams returning to St. Louis Sunday. The final contest, if needed, will be played on the West Coast.

Boston can wrap up the Eastern Division playoff tonight when the Celtics and Cincinnati meet in Boston. The Celtics lead their series, 3-1.

Thurmond didn't start the game, but when Wayne Hightower's ankle began to trouble him, the 6-foot-11 inch reserve entered and scored 17 points and pulled in 15 rebounds in 42 minutes.

"With Hightower hurt, this is when we had to have it," Hannum said. "Have you ever seen such a gutsy performance. It was dog-eat-dog."

Thurmond teamed with Wilt Chamberlain, who notched 36 points and gathered 23 rebounds, to push the Warriors to a 109-100 lead with 2:52 remaining.

St. Louis made a final rush on points by Bob Pettit and Zelmo Beaty, closing to 110-109, but close-in shots in the final seconds by Cliff Hagan and Richie Guerin went astray.

Pettit paced the Hawks with 29 points.

Those final seconds led to a brief scuffle as a young fan tangled with referees Norm Drucker and Richie Powers as they left the court.

Powers landed a punch to the jaw that floored the young man.

"He bumped me," Powers said, "and when he didn't apologize and kept coming at me, I figured I had to defend myself."

"Then he cursed me," Drucker said, "so I got into it before the guards got him out of the way."

The fan apparently felt a foul should have been called in the final seconds.

Serious Bid Is Given AFL For Chicago Site

CHICAGO (AP)—A syndicate of Chicago businessmen has applied for an American Football League franchise for Chicago.

Bob Nussbaum, investment broker who heads the eight-man group, estimated the capitalization of the syndicate at about $3 million.

He said the application, mailed to AFL headquarters in New York, also included plans for remodeling Soldier Field for the games to provide a seating capacity of 59,800.

Nussbaum said he has started negotiations for a Canadian football team to move to Chicago to provide "the nucleus of a solid, going team rather than relying on an AFL pool."

An earlier application for a Chicago franchise was submitted last month by Nash Dowdle, Midland, Tex., oilman.

Parade To Launch Stockcar Races

A downtown parade Friday beginning at 3:30 p.m. kicks off the 1964 racing season at Wichita Speedway. The parade will be the official opening for the races which begin at 8 p.m. Friday at the city cutoff on the Jacksboro Highway.

The quarter-mile oval track has been re-worked since last season. The curves have been banked higher and the straightaways have been widened.

A total of 40 cars will be on hand to kick off the season which will run every Friday night through October. Drivers will compete in three heat races, two semi-finals, a consolation, special race and a 25-lap feature race.

The cars are models from 1937 through 1956 with modified engines. All drivers are members of the North Texas Stock Car Association and race under the rules of the Association.

Minoso Finds Home; Others Trim Rosters

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Minnie Minoso, a 41-year-old graybeard who possibly has been shaving almost that long, has survived baseball's unkindest cut.

As the Chicago White Sox trimmed their roster Wednesday to get down to the opening day limit of 28, Minoso was signed to a contract for his 14th season in the major leagues.

Generally presumed to be older than his announced 41, Minoso will be back for his third tour with the White Sox, this time as a spare outfielder and the club's No. 1 pinch hitter. He had been working out with the White Sox as a free agent.

The White Sox first acquired Minoso from Cleveland in 1951, ultimately traded him back after the 1957 season, reacquired him from the Indians following the 1959 campaign and then traded him to St. Louis in 1962.

Last year, Minoso was at Washington, hitting .229 in 109 games.

One of the game's outstanding players, Minoso had his best year for the White Sox, hitting .320 and driving in 116 runs in 1954. He has hit over .300 eight

Wampum Kid Looks Great For Phillies

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Richie Allen of Wampum, Pa., promises to be a lucrative rookie for the Philadelphia Phillies in their bid for greater riches this season.

The Phils expect the 22-year-old Allen to end their six-year search for a regular third baseman. Based on Allen's spring performance, the Phils may wind up with even more than that.

7th Homer

The right-handed slugger slammed his seventh home run and increased his runs batted in total to 23 Wednesday as Philadelphia trampled the Los Angeles Dodgers 11-4. He had three hits and four RBIs and is by far the team leader in both departments.

Philadelphia has converted Allen into a third baseman from the outfielder he has been the past two seasons. Before that he played shortstop and second base.

The latest move was made to plug what probably was the Phils' biggest hole for their long-shot pennant chances. The team is striving for even better prospects after its fourth-place finish in 1963.

Not since Willie (Puddin' Head) Jones have the Phillies been free of third-base worries. Jones started there for 10 years. During the first seven years of

Redskins Turn Down Offers

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington Redskins officials, after a two-hour huddle, announced Wednesday that all offers to purchase the National Football League club were rejected.

Officials said they had no further comment. Attending the session were C. Leo Deorsey, Jack Kent Cooke, Edward Bennett Williams and Bernard I. Nordlinger. They met in the office of John J. Carmody.

Previously two $7 million offers for the club had been reported. One was from a group headed by George L. Ohrstrom of The Plains, Va., and the other from Harry G. Sells, Washington attorney representing a syndicate.

Deorsey previously had said there were several other offers also.

On Tuesday, George C. Summers, attorney for the children of George P. Marshall, 32-percent stockholder who is ill in Miami Beach, Fla., asked the U.S. District Court to restrain the conservators from acting on offers for the Redskins pending the disposition of litigation.

his tenure, Philadelphia finished in the first division six times.

As a rookie for Arkansas in the International League last season, Allen led all hitters with 12 triples, 33 homers, 97 RBI and 299 total bases. He batted .289. Then in 10 games with the Phils at the end of the season he hit .292.

Fast & Quick

"Allen looked last year like he was going to hit up here," Manager Gene Mauch said. "He is fast and quick with long arms and good speed."

Allen's home run Wednesday was only one of many that dominated exhibition baseball action. Cleveland got three of them in trouncing San Francisco 14-4 for the first time in 10 spring games.

Willie Mays was struck on the right wrist in an attempted pickoff throw in that game and may be sidelined until Saturday or Sunday.

Julian Javier's two-run homer in the eighth beat the New York Yankees 5-4 while pinch hitter John Goryl gave Minnesota a 5-4 triumph over Houston with a two-run homer in the ninth.

Baltimore crushed Cincinnati 8-1, the Chicago Cubs nipped Boston 7-6 in 11 innings, the New York Mets downed Kansas City 11-9 and Milwaukee beat Washington 5-2.

A'S TO ATLANTA?

ATLANTA (AP)—An unidentified major league baseball team has agreed on a long-term lease of a proposed new stadium in Atlanta, a city official announced.

Arthur Montgomery, chairman of the Atlanta-Fulton County Recreation Authority, said Wednesday the lease would cover at least 15 years.

Montgomery said identity of the team would be withheld until the 1964 season ends. He added that the ball club had pressed for a 30-year lease.

"It is not a sweetheart lease," Montgomery said. "They expect to pay their own way and we expect to get a fair return."

Montgomery said that a year-round crash program would begin next week to get the stadium ready for the 1965 season. The authority hopes to entice professional football, too.

The $18 million in 30-year revenue certificates, which the authority plans to issue, will require annual underwriting costs of $1,080,000—two-thirds by the city and one-third by the county.

The original estimate of stadium cost had been about $15 million. The crash program and a higher land price bulged costs to near $18 million.

The authority expects to recover part of the land cost through future credits from the state government and U.S. Urban Renewal officials.

Hirschi Bags Dual Meet With Lawton

Hirschi's Huskie track team blasted Lawton Eisenhower 84½ to 33½ in a dual track meet at Coyote track Wednesday. The victory was a revenge win for the Huskies, beaten earlier in the season by Lawton.

Lawton got only one first place in the 16 event meet. In the discus, A. Humble bested the field which included Hirschi's Milton Hibler. The rest of the glory remained for the Huskies.

The first time the two schools met, Eisenhower beat Hirschi in the rain, 69-55.

Barwise Netters Blank Reagan, 18-0

Barwise swept Reagan 18-0 Wednesday at Weeks Park tennis courts in Junior High School tennis play. The victory moved Barwise into the junior high school finals against city leader Zundy.

Barwise will meet Zundy at 2:30 p.m. Monday at Weeks Park courts. If Zundy wins the Eagles will be crowned the city champions. If Barwise happens to win the two teams will be forced into a second playoff for the city title.

Reagan could not stand up to the Barwise team effort. The Bobcat girls won six singles and three double matches and the boys also won six singles and three doubles.

Wichitan Handballers Enter Regional Meet

Following successful play in last weekend's ninth annual Invitational handball tournament at the Central YMCA, winners and top seeded players will travel to Oklahoma City this Friday and Saturday to compete in the Southwest Regional Handball Championship matches.

Among the top seeded to attend the contest are Wichitans Lynn Reinhardt, Jackie Watkins, Yale Gorman and Bob Lindsay Jr.

At the Wichita Falls invitational, eight players registered for the open singles, 12 for the open doubles, 8 in veterans doubles and 11 in the "B" singles.

Shumate of Dallas emerged champion in the open singles, defeating Lindsay Jr. in the final matches, 21-17 and 21-13.

Open doubles were won by Grant and Blakely of Dallas who took their final match over Stacks and Sumpter of Wichita Falls, 21-9 and 21-13.

Giller and Franks of Oklahoma City defeated Harp of Dallas and Alired of Wichita Falls in final matches of the veterans doubles to take the veterans championship 21-8 and 21-15.

"B" singles went to Doremus of Dallas defeating Carlisle of Wichita Falls 21-10 and 21-11. In consolation play, Carroll of Dallas defeated Beam of Wichita Falls in finals, 21-3 and 21-4.

Hirschi Plans Amateur Show

By GLENDA PETTY
Teen Times Staff

Masters of ceremonies were chosen last week by Carol C. Magee, band director, for the annual Amateur Show to be held at Hirschi High School Friday night.

After auditions in telling jokes and making introductions, the four students chosen to "emcee" the show sponsored by the Hirschi Band are Joyce Cole, Garry Blodgett, Dave Gill, and Glenda Petty.

Miss Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Cole, resides at 1218 North Eighth. In addition to playing in the band and orchestra, she is also a member of National Thespians and advanced drama. A band lieutenant, she serves as librarian for that organization. She was also an "emcee" for last year's show.

Blodgett, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Blodgett, resides at 708 North Brook. In addition to being in the German Club and on the tennis team, he is also president of the A Cappella choir. He made all-region and all-state choir.

Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gill, resides at 1505 North Ninth. In addition to being a band lieutenant, he made all-region band, all-region orchestra, and all-state orchestra. Interested in music and math, he is presently taking an advanced mathematics course.

Miss Petty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Petty, resides at 1015 Hirschi. In addition to being band lieutenant and reporter, she is also news editor of her journalism class. Receiving an honor sweater this year and last year, she was also selected as the DAR Good Citizen from Hirschi and Miss FTA of the Reba Lindsey Chapter at Hirschi.

The "emcees" will be in charge of coordinating the acts which include singing, dancing, pantomimes, comedy, and instrumental groups.

Jim Umbricht: Baseball's Story Of American Courage

HOUSTON (AP)—The Houston Colts will wear black arm bands during the National League baseball season in memory of Jim Umbricht.

The big right-handed relief pitcher died Wednesday of cancer, 13 months after it was discovered. He was 33.

The Chicago native underwent surgery a month before the baseball season started last year and made a remarkable comeback with a 4-3 record.

During the second half of the 1963 season he was one of the National League's leading relief pitchers with a 2.61 earned run average for 76 innings while appearing in 35 games.

Russ Kemmerer, a former teammate now with Houston's Oklahoma City farm club, will give the eulogy at funeral services Friday afternoon. The body will be cremated.

Colt Manager Harry Craft, Coach Luman Harris, infielder Bob Lillis and pitcher Ken Johnson will fly to Houston from the Colts' Cocoa, Fla., spring training camp for the services.

Canceled Houston's scheduled exhibition game Friday with Milwaukee at Cocoa was canceled.

George Kirksey, Colt executive vice president, said Umbricht remained in good spirits until the end and said he was determined to get back into uniform.

Colt General Manager Paul Richards said Umbricht was "one of the finest competitors I've ever known on or off a baseball field."

Colt officials said the players will wear black arm bands on opening day and the remainder of the season.

Last year's operation involved what doctors called a rare but lethal "black mole" tumor, a form of cancer which starts with a black mole on an arm or leg.

Disease The disease began to appear in the chest area last season but Umbricht and Colt officials kept the development a closely guarded secret.

The cancer continued to spread and Umbricht, who weighed 210 pounds and stood 6-4, entered the hospital again March 16.

Umbricht was honored at a Philadelphia dinner early this year as the most courageous athlete of 1963.

In accepting the award, he said "some of us don't have time to slow down and take stock of ourselves."

Umbricht was captain of the baseball and basketball teams at the University of Georgia. He broke into pro baseball in 1953 with Waycross of the Georgia-Florida League.

He was traded to Pittsburgh from the Milwaukee organization in 1959. Houston obtained him from Pittsburgh for $50,000 in the 1961 player pool.

In five years at Pittsburgh and Houston, Umbricht pitched 194 innings in 88 games for a 9-5 record and a 3.06 earned run average.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eduard Umbricht and a brother, Ed, all of Houston.

"I thank you for making it possible for me to visit your house," said Pope Paul in a voice breaking with emotion. "I want this to be more than a conventional visit. I want this to be a moment of intimate contact."

"I thank you. I thank all of you for your presence, for your courtesy. You see how difficult it is for me to speak at this moment because I think at this moment words fail me."

The prisoners cheered, applauded and thanked the 66-year-old Pope.

Before the Mass, a young prisoner welcomed the white-clad Pope on behalf of the inmates. The Pope embraced the man and gave him a symbolic kiss of peace.

Six prisoners assisted the Pope in the Mass.

"But six weeks in a hospital bed gives you time to think... and come out a better human being. I'm sure everything will come out all right."

Umbricht did not go with the Colts to spring training in late February. The Colts had signed him to a scout's contract. The National League gave special permission for the contract to be signed.

ATTLEE RIDICULES TREACHERY CHARGES

LONDON (AP)—Earl Attlee, Britain's prime minister at the time of the Korean War, said today that accusations of British treachery attributed to General of the Army Douglas MacArthur were "complete nonsense and perfectly ridiculous."

Thank Goodness It Wasn't A Volcano!

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—The ground started bubbling up before the eyes of startled Anchorage residents, then water began gushing out.

For those who had lived through earthquake and tidal wave damage, the new upheaval brought apprehension.

"I hope it isn't a volcano," said Mrs. Robert L. Hanson. It wasn't.

Roger M. Waller of the U. S. Geological Survey, said underground water pressure probably had built up in the spring thaw and pushed up the soil until it fractured and bubbled out Wednesday.

The result was a bulge about 50 feet across. Residents said the ground had risen 10 feet, pushing up trees as it went.

James G. Lucas of Scripps Howard Newspapers reported in a copyrighted story Wednesday that MacArthur told him in an interview in 1954 that the British relayed his communications with Washington during the Korean War to the Chinese Communists.

The British foreign office declined to comment officially on the report. A senior official said the charges of British perfidy were "so palpably absurd as not to warrant an official comment."

Attlee, pointing out that "our troops also were fighting in the Korean War," recalled that he went to Washington in 1950 "because there seemed to be a danger of extending a war from Korea to an all-out war between America and China."

At that time MacArthur wanted to bomb Chinese supply lines in China.

Attlee said he and Field Marshal Sir William Slim, the chief of the Imperial General Staff, had "very satisfactory" talks during the 1950 trip with President Harry S. Truman and Gen. Omar Bradley, the chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Attlee said he wanted to avoid a war against the Chinese in China.

"It would have been fighting with the wrong enemy at the

What's A Few Hundred Miles?

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Joe Farris wanted to celebrate his birthday in the big city.

So, he got out his dog sled and mushed 60 miles to Ruby. That took 2 1/2 days. Then he caught a plane to Fairbanks, 140 miles east.

Joe, born in Laurel Bloomingery, Tenn., got here Wednesday — his 28th birthday.

Trading Fairly Active On N.Y. Stock Market

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market remained on an even keel early this afternoon despite the possibility of a nationwide rail-strike threatened for Friday. Trading was fairly active.

Although rail stocks were off moderately on average, some leading carriers had steadied and the loss for the entire group was not nearly as sharp as on Wednesday.

Leading steels and motors moved slightly higher. Airlines resumed their latest rally.

Cigarette stocks, helped by another published report of gains in cigarette smoking in a recovery from the decline on the government health report, posted a string of gains.

Nonferrous metals, farm implements and drugs were generally lower. Electronics and building materials were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .2 at 308.9 with industrials up .6, rails off .5 and utilities up .1.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up .80 to 824.99.

IBM recovered 4 points of recent losses. Up about a point were Polaroid, U.S. Smelting and Control Data.

American Telephone and Jersey Standard were among fractional gainers. Du-Pont lost a point.

Prices were mixed on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were unchanged to slightly lower.

Wheat Active On Grain Mart

CHICAGO (AP) — Wheat futures prices ranged broadly both ways today in active dealing on the Board of Trade as speculators worked toward adjusting commitments with expected consequences of House passage of the farm bill.

May wheat moved up as much as five cents at the extreme in early dealings but had lost much of that advance by early afternoon. The new crop months came under fairly heavy selling pressure and July contract was off four cents shortly after mid-session.

The market otherwise was easier to weak in relatively quiet dealings.

Carlot receipts today were estimated at: wheat 1 car, corn 137, oats 1, rye 1, barley 3, soybeans 9.

Cotton Lower

NEW YORK (AP) — Cotton dropped as much as the daily trading limit of 5 1/2 bales in opening trading today. The market remained substantially lower all day.

Setting was blocked off by House passage of the wheat-cotton farm bill which aims to lower the cost of cotton to domestic textile mills to near world level. This would make domestic mills more competitive with foreign mills and also synthetic fabric.

All months except nearby May hit lows for the season.

Late afternoon prices were $1.40 to $2.50 a bale lower, May 33.60, July 30.30, Oct. 28.20.

NORTH TEXAS OIL REPORTS

Producer Finaled In Caravan Field

By FRANK O. HALL, Times Oil Editor

Panther Drilling Co., Jackboro, has completed another well in Montague County's Caravan (Caddo B) Field.

Company's No. 3 Walthall Estate, five miles north of Bowie, S. H. Smith survey A-682, had a daily potential of 290 barrels of 42.7 gravity oil from 20 perforations at 6196-6206 feet.

Flow was through 12-64-inch choke with packer on casing and 550 pounds pressure on tubing. Gas-oil ratio was 500-1. Completion was on natural flow.

The 5 1/2-inch production string was landed one foot above bottom at 6730 feet.

Production is from eight perforations at 4611, 4615, 4617 and 4622 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 530-1. Hole was bottomed at 4705 feet and plugged back to 4692 for completion after the 5 1/2-inch production string was landed at 4685 feet.

The well is three miles north of Joplin, block 45, league 2, Henderson CSL survey A-275.

Wildcats Plugged

Plugging orders have been issued for two Young County wildcats. The failures were:

Hayden Farmer et al of Olney No. 1 McAnally, three miles southeast of Olney, section-223, TEAL survey A-470, at 4979 feet.

Carl T. Anderson—No. 1 Vic-Alar, 11 miles west of Graham, section 2945, TEAL survey A-1215, at 4680 feet.

In Archer County

Scott Hunter staked No. 1 J. R. Parkey Jr. as a 2200-foot Archer County wildcat two miles southeast of Mankins. Drill site is 1320 feet from west and south lines of section 2, SPRR survey A-1234.

Wilson Exploration Co., Fort Worth, abandoned at 1310 feet No. 1 G. E. Campbell, Archer County wildcat seven miles southwest of Archer City, block 57, J. W. Harris subdivision of (L S) Ranch.

Near Pottawatomie

J. H. Dyer No. 1 Loy Revley is a 1000-foot Grayson County wildcat location 2 1/2 miles north-east of Pottawatomie. The venture is 150 feet from east and north lines of W. A. Watkins survey A-1517.

Costa Rica Boasts 'Drive-In Volcano'

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ
SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP) — Mt. Irazu is a sort of drive-in volcano.

It became a national nuisance a year ago last March 15 when, with a rumbling yawn, the volcano stirred awake after centuries of slumber.

Mt. Irazu's 11,262 feet rise in a smoky veil 18 miles northeast of San Jose. One can drive in less than two hours to a ledge overlooking the crater 300 yards away. There on the crumbling walls of a onetime lookout point a splash of coral paint says "Panama si, Yankees out."

The team drilled holes into Irazu's side to measure its pulse and temperature, analyze its ashes and sand and evaluate its moods and temperament. Tazief, looking like an astronaut under a glass and steel helmet and asbestos-lined suit and boots, descended to the lip of the fiery central crater and walked around it. "It's presently in a mild stage of eruption," he reported.

Paper Plant Plans Texas Expansion

LUFKIN (AP) — Southland Paper Mills, Inc., plans expansion of its east Texas facilities to boost its production of newsprint by 100,000 tons a year. E. W. Wortham Jr., president of the firm, made the announcement Wednesday. He said it was not yet determined whether the new facilities would be built at the Lufkin plant or at some other east Texas location.

SHORT RIBS

Hundreds of spectators drive to the crater on weekends. Hardy souls walk to the edge of the belching chams, some with children in their arms to peer down into the rumbling innards of one of nature's true spectacles. No one yet, has fallen in.

After 12 months of continuous eruptions of ash and fine sand, the volcano has become a nagging source of preoccupation and anxiety, particularly to those who farm its still fertile patches of mountainside. Living on the slopes is known as "ruleta tica," or Costa Rican roulette—you can't tell when the next eruption will be your last.

Future Course
"No one in the world can predict a volcano's future course," said Haroun Tazief, leader of a French-Belgian team of volcanologists sent here by the United Nations to probe Irazu.

As far back as anyone can recall, prior to March, 1963, the volcano was a placid pool of dark brown water in a crater measuring about 40 yards across. Now grown to more than 300 yards in diameter, the main crater sits in the center of a larger gray bowl flanked by a silent identical twin, also containing a pond of brownish black water. Eons ago, the top of Mt. Irazu probably blew off in a titanic eruption of twin volcanoes.

With each eruption, Irazu sends clouds of ash and fine sand high into the air. Winds carry them to all corners of this tiny country. The fallout has been heaviest around San Jose. The powdery ash gets into everything.

Designed to be worn by busy feet, these soft supple shoes make walking or standing much easier. America's No. 1 shoe with registered nurses everywhere.

Altrusa Club To Honor Eight For Civic Service

MRS. REUBEN B. KNIGHT

JEAN PITZER

By LAURA T. DOING
Eight Wichita County residents will be honored by the Altrusa Club of Wichita Falls at its annual Recognition Dinner on Wednesday night, April 15, for outstanding community service and devotion "beyond the call of duty."

These include Sydney Gaines, Frank B. Hayes, Mrs. Reuben B. Knight, Mrs. Rex Lehman, Jean and Gordon Pitzer, Lt. Col. Raymond Seidel and Dr. O. W. Wilson.

Reservations for the dinner which will be held in the Woman's Forum clubhouse at 7 p.m. must be made by Monday noon. They may be made by telephoning Maude Thomas at 723-6328. President Mildred Rogers said.

Gaines is receiving special honors for his dedicated work with crippled children of the North Texas area. He has been a director of North Texas Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center since 1948 and first vice president of that organization since 1951. He also serves as chairman of that organization.

Chamber Work
In addition to that work, he has served in every capacity in the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, ranging from committee chairman to presidency. He also has worked with, and been an officer for, Wichita Falls Industrial Foundation, chairman of Wichita County Crippled Children's Committee, vice president of Texas Society of Crippled Children, member advisory committee, Crippled Children's division, member of Advisory Committee Citizens Council, Wichita Falls High School advisory committee for board vocational training and other groups.

Co-owner and general manager of United Electric Co., Gaines has had a long and outstanding record in Masonic activities. The Spring Festival of the Dallas York Rite will be named the Syd Gaines class, honoring the Wichitan who was the first Mason raised in Washington Lodge in Dallas on March 31, 1917. This will be the first time in the history of this commandery that a class has been named for one of the candidates of that class.

Hayes for 32 consecutive years has served as Santa Claus for less privileged children and families in Wichita Falls. He also has been available to organizations and individuals to serve in this capacity and he spends many hours during the Christmas holiday season bringing gifts and happiness to people who otherwise would have no Christmas at all.

Other Service
Hayes spreads his work throughout the year, not only collecting food and clothing for known needy families in Wichita Falls but collecting and sending clothing and food to the people on the Indian Reservations in Arizona and New Mexico.

This Wichitan since 1933 assists many with personal problems, especially in marriage counseling, and he directs many persons to Austin and Washington, D.C., for special information and a solution to problems arising in this city which cannot be solved otherwise. He drives many of the elderly to the shopping centers for their needs and often pays the bill when the need arises. In 1963 he distributed approximately $3,000 in toys for Christmas.

Hayes assists in securing scholarships for students who otherwise would be unable to attend college and at Christmas he visits all hospitals as Santa Claus and relieves parents and relatives in sitting at the bedside of friends or relatives.

Serving now as court bailiff, he spends his spare time in doing for others. He received a letter from President Lyndon Johnson who then was vice president, in December, 1962, commending him for his "thoughtful compassion and for your truly following the advice of St. Francis of Assisi."

Difficult Tasks
Mrs. Knight will be especially honored for "accepting the difficult task of leadership in establishing the first Regional Mental Health Center in Texas" and because of her "patient and untiring efforts in behalf of this project."

The present North Texas Mental Health Center is considered the result of Mrs. Knight's

"patient and convincing effort." Mrs. Knight's leadership and enthusiasm guided the Junior Service League in adopting financial assistance in the center as that organization's project. With her thoroughness in research, including an extensive survey of local doctors and city-county agencies who might use such a service, many citizens were made aware of the void in community psychiatric facilities.

This survey resulted in the forming of a steering committee who joined Mrs. Knight in long and detailed groundwork necessary for establishing such a center.

Months of planning, working with the state, tax supported agencies and individuals resulted in the center and establishment of necessary funds. As president of the center's board

Responsibilities

Of late the law of warranties has placed heavy tort responsibilities on advertisers. Sometimes the buyer may treat what sellers say about their goods as promises to which the law will hold them.

In the old days a seller was responsible mainly to the buyer, but the product liability now goes beyond the first buyer. Warranties now sometimes protect a buyer's family, his friends, or innocent bystanders whom the product may hurt.

But the law is not all one way. Recently, in another state, a chemical firm sold an insecticide spray. Farmer Jones bought some, and sprayed his crops. Many plants wilted. Jones sued the firm for the loss of his plants.

Buyers' Risk
The company replied that the label said "Seller makes no warranty of any kind, express or implied, concerning the use of this product. Buyer assumes all risk in use or handling..."

The chemical firm won this law suit: Parties to a sales agreement, as a rule, can agree to disclaim liabilities, as for example, when the seller tells the buyer before he buys that he makes no warranty, or makes only limited ones. Jones should read the label and know of the limitation, otherwise, without any express limitations the law "implies" a warranty that the product is fit for its intended use.

Responsibility
Like labels, advertisements may limit as well as increase a seller's responsibility. In a famous case a car maker claimed that all his cars' windows had safety glass that would not shatter when hit by small rocks. Smith bought a car, but when a pebble struck the glass, it shattered, hurting him badly. The court held that the seller had made warranties by advertising his car windows' special features to consumers. He had to pay.

In another case, Mrs. Brown was famous for her chicken salad. She bought canned chicken which was labeled and advertised as having "no bones." This time her chicken salad contained several broken bones which hurt her mouth. The court held that the canner had to pay Mrs. Brown for her injuries. She had a right to think there were no bones at all in the can.

(This newfeature, prepared by the State Bar of Texas, is written to inform — not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who is fully advised concerning the facts involved, because a slight variance in facts may change the application of the law.)

later she requested and obtained increases in financial assistance.

4-H Service
She spent many days working for the center and was always available to speak to civic groups and service clubs on behalf of the center. As first president she interested so many people in the center the present headquarters and lot were anonymously donated for the agency and she encouraged the builders of the city to aid in financing the remodeling and redecorating of the old house. She selected and helped with furnishings and when extras were needed she contributed her own funds.

Mrs. Knight still continues as chairman of the speaker's bureau which she helped to organize for community relations.

Mrs. Lehman of Iowa Park was one of three Texans named to receive the 4-H Alumna Recognition Awards in 1963 at College Station and her outstanding record was submitted for national consideration.

This Iowa Park resident was Young County's first Gold Star Girl, was a winner in dress reviews and blue ribbons on her canning exhibits and her outstanding work was responsible for a trip to the Farmers Short Course.

For more than two decades she gave freely of her time and talents to 4-H and other youth groups and organizations and she has become a symbol in her area for the ideals of clearer thinking, greater loyalty, larger service and better living as expressed in the 4-H Club pledge. Her interest in 4-H Clubs has grown through the years.

Couple Cited
She has worked with the schools, welfare groups, Farmer's Union, rural community clubs, welfare organizations and groups to give young people a chance to develop themselves. Though she holds a full time job she has always been able to find time to help others and thus to contribute to a better way of life.

Wichita County Agent B. T. Haws appreciated the untiring efforts in behalf of the 4-H Clubs and other community projects to the extent that he nominated Mrs. Lehman as a candidate for Jean and Gordon Pitzer came to Wichita Falls in 1951 and since that time they have become an integral part of the community through their unselfish and unheralded deeds of good.

The couple devotes practically all their spare time to church activities and to entertaining foreign students. Members of the First Presbyterian Church, the couple has served in every capacity in the church. Mrs. Pitzer was for many years superintendent of the three-year-old Sunday school department and she was vice president of the church women's organization last year. He is superintendent of the mid-high department.

Many times Mrs. Pitzer has added to her grocery budget to fix meals for foreign students who she has in her home as often as possible.

SAFB Officer
Mrs. Pitzer has bought a wedding dress for an Ethiopian student to take home to a friend who was getting married. They take the students to the Wichita Mountains, and other excursions and they purchase all types of things for them to take home to their families when they leave this nation. One Ethiopian sent cloth and instructions on how to make a native dress which Mrs. Pitzer made herself.

The couple entertains foreign students every weekend and they have received letters of thanks from over the world for their unselfish sharing with these young men.

Col. Seidel, public information officer at Sheppard Air Force Base, can be given much credit for the continued outstanding relations between the base and the city of Wichita Falls.

This Air Force officer has many times literally "worked the clock around" and his untiring efforts in behalf of the Air Force personnel, plus the "working press" have endeared him to many.

A graphic example of the meaning of the phrase, "above the call of duty," is the work done by Col. Seidel. He has served the Air Force for 22 years and he has indeed "given his all" in this direction.

Civic Work, Too
Col. Seidel is on duty during his "off duty" hours and during disasters like the recent tornado — the emergency like

He is a member of the military affairs committee of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce; is active in area relations work for Boy Scouts, makes many talks to organizations in the entire area, and maintains a special interest in family situations of the personnel who work under him.

He and his family are active members of the Lutheran church services at Sheppard and in the past he has acted as lay minister for Sunday services at SAFB. His entire family has been active in the off-base community Lutheran churches where they have been stationed. He and his family have been special vocalists.

Col. Seidel was awarded the outstanding citizenship certificate by the American Heritage Foundation in 1960; was awarded the Department of Defense certificate of merit in 1961 for the best Air Force wide newspaper, the Sheppard Senator and the paper won the Air Training Command award in 1962 and 1963. Through his own personal efforts he was instrumental in Sheppard's receiving the attendance banner at the Air Force Academy Day at Cotton Bowl two years ago, and he has been a big behind-the-scenes backer of the Squadron Adoption program here.

Serves Youth
Dr. Wilson, in his red and black Wichita Falls High School colors, is a familiar sight, and has been for many years, at athletic events in this city.

This Wichita Falls physician of more than 40 years, has kept close contact with the youth of this city that many years and his attendance record at Coyote football games has extended back some 35 years.

He maintains personal friendships with the many young men who have been on playing fields while he sat on the bench, ready to go to their assistance immediately.

He is reputed to have been with the team longer than any other person in Wichita Falls and he is still one of the team's physicians.

Sportsman
Dr. Wilson has been an active member in the Downtown Kiwanis Club since 1922 and has worked diligently in putting over their many worthwhile projects, particularly those concerned with youth programs.

Also quite a sportsman, he was Kiwanis president in 1934 when the fish hatchery project was started and completed, and it was due to his untiring efforts this was accomplished.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilson have personally provided income and scholarships to many deserving boys and girls through the years. When the Young Women's Christian Association dormitory was destroyed by explosion two years ago, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson took care of six girls, without cost, until they could get permanently located.

The Wichita Falls physician was presented the Youth Service Award of 1963 by the Downtown Kiwanis Club during Boy Scout Week.

SWEET HOT BREAD WILL ELIMINATE
NEED FOR DESSERT

No dessert needed when this hot bread is served.

Sweet Twist

- 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 1/2 cup enriched white corn meal
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 3 tablespoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup shortening
- 1/3 cup milk
- 1/3 cup orange juice

Orange Filling

Sift together the flour, corn meal, sugar, baking powder and salt. Cut in shortening with pastry blender until particles are fine. Gradually add milk, then orange juice, stirring lightly until mixture is dampened. (If necessary, add a little more milk to make a soft dough.) Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; knead gently a few seconds. Roll dough to form a 12 by 10-inch rectangle. Spread with Orange Filling. Fold in half so filling is together. Cut into 12 strips, 1-inch wide. Take hold of each end of a strip and twist tightly in opposite directions. Seal ends firmly. Bake on ungreased cookie sheet 1 inch apart in hot (425 degrees) oven 12 to 15 minutes. Serve hot. Makes 1 dozen.

Orange Filling: Gradually beat 2/3 cup sifted confectioners sugar and the grated rind of 1 orange into 2 tablespoons soft butter.

Pickled Carrots Are Sweet, Spicy

Pickled carrots give zest to a main course of fish or fowl.

Sweet And Spicy Carrots

- 8 large carrots
- 1 cup each sugar, and cider vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 stick cinnamon
- 1 small bay leaf
- 18 whole cloves and 18 whole allspice

Pare carrots; cut in half crosswise and cut each half into 4 sticks. Boil carrots in a covered saucepan in 1 inch of boiling water just until tender-crisp, about 10 minutes; drain. Over low heat in a saucepan, stir together the sugar, vinegar and salt, until sugar dissolves. Tie spices in a double-thick square of cheesecloth and add; simmer 5 minutes. Turn drained carrots and hot syrup (with spice bag) into a shallow container; cover; cool; chill overnight. Remove spice bag. Serve carrots cold as a pickle. Store any leftover in the syrup in a covered jar in the refrigerator.

FRIDAY OMELET
GOOD FOR GUESTS WHO "DROP IN"

When unexpected guests drop in on Friday, take quick stock of what you have on hand in the refrigerator and pantry.

If the creative spirit fails to move you, why not rely on the faithful omelet?

Friday Omelet
(Serves 4)

- 8 eggs
- 1 1/2 tablespoons milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon sugar
- 1 1/2 tablespoons butter
- 1/4 cup American blue cheese (about 1 1/2 ounces)
- 3 tablespoons melted butter
- 1 tablespoon chopped chives

Beat eggs, milk, salt and sugar in electric blender or mixer until foamy. Melt butter in skillet. When butter is hot, pour in egg mixture. As mixture sets at edge, draw this portion toward center so uncooked portion will flow to the bottom.

When just about set, crumble American blue cheese on top. Fold over and remove to warm platter. Garnish with melted butter and chopped chives.

Try Cabbage
In This Sauce

Cabbage prepared this way has a pleasantly fresh taste.

Jigtime Creamed Cabbage

- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 1 1/2 quarts shredded cabbage
- 1 1/2 tablespoons flour
- 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 1/4 teaspoons salt

Pepper to taste
Heat 1 1/2 cups of the milk; add cabbage; cover; simmer for 2 minutes. Gradually stir the remaining 1/2 cup milk into the flour keeping smooth; stir into the cabbage. Add butter, salt and pepper. Stirring constantly, cook 4 minutes. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Who in the world would write a fan letter to a loaf of bread?

Frankly, we are amazed at all the wonderful letters we have received about our new Golden Circles Bread.

We knew Golden Circles was special. Actually, it is the richest white bread we have ever baked, but never in all our years of baking have we received so many warm and wonderful letters from women about a loaf of bread.

We knew when we made Golden Circles that it was not just another round bread—we planned it that way. We made it with more milk solids, more shortening, and more spring wheat flour. This gives it that honest-to-goodness flavor, the kind only rich ingredients can give, and the kind of texture that is tender but good.

We added pure cane sugar because this helps to make for tenderer crusts and better toast.

Next time you shop pick up a loaf of Golden Circles and see if you don't feel like writing us a letter about it.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lyndon B. Johnson can hold his own with his predecessors in the joke department, reports Bob Hope, just back from an encounter with presidential humor.

Hope did his usual slick job at the White House photographers annual dinner last weekend, and Variety reported that the President was equally a smash. The Variety verdict: "Johnson knows the words to punch and the most effective ways to pause. LBJ is in the Bob Hope class in comedy."

The comedian concurs with the show biz bible's review. "He's very fast with a line," said Hope. "When I walked in his office with the other entertainers the day before the show, the President asked me, 'How do you find time to make all that money?'"

Classification
Hope classifies Johnson on a par with other recent presidents in the quip department, and he should know. He has performed seven times at Washington functions before the last five presidents.

"They were all great," said Bob. "Roosevelt had a wonderful sense of humor, and Truman and Eisenhower do all right, too. Kennedy's wit was marvelous; he loved nothing better than a good joke."

Hope demonstrated some of his own material from the dinner. "I was going to stay at the White House, but I didn't bring a flashlight. They're turning off the lights at the State Department, too. Dean Rusk doesn't want Senator Fulbright to find his office."

"Faces really change here in Washington. I asked my cab driver what has happened to Jimmy Hoffa, and he said, 'Speaking.' Actually I'm here in Washington as part of a cultural exchange. You sent us Pierre Salinger. If he gets elected, he may be our first wetback senator. He's running against George Murphy, the only campaigner who takes along both a campaign manager and a choreographer."

Light Switches
Hope figures the President and the light switches will be one of the great running gags. The comedian used it himself while Johnson was showing the entertainment troupe around the White House.

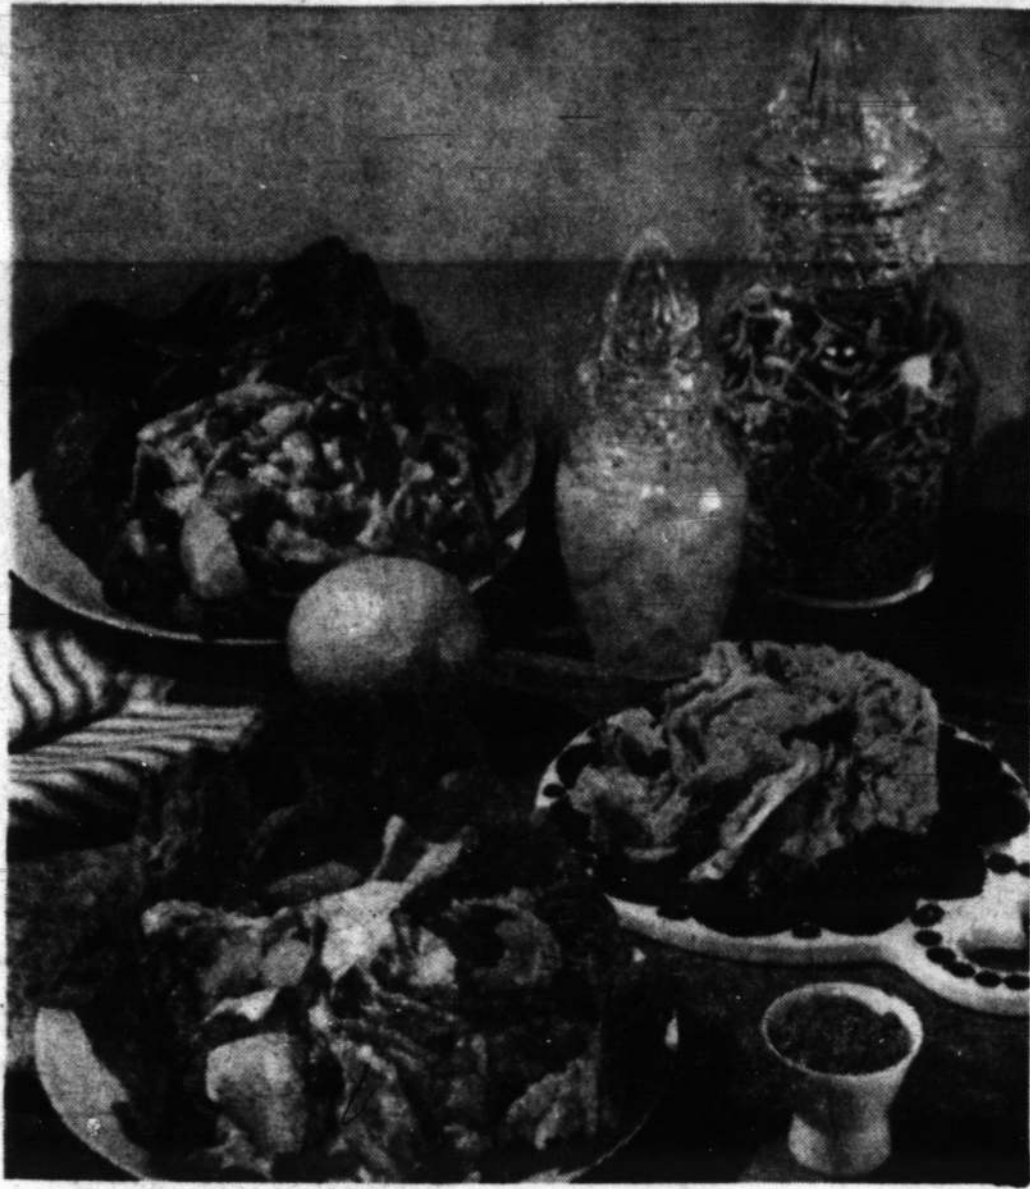

Said Hope: "You know, Mr. President, you go out of the rooms first and turn out the light, leaving us in the dark. You may be saving $3,000 a month in electricity, but you're liable to be spending $3,000 on broken legs."

He added: "It's the first time I ever left a room by Braille." Hope figures the President knows he has a good gimmick going. That seems to be substantiated by Johnson's parting remark at the dinner, as quoted by Variety: "Will the last one out please remember to turn off the lights?"

Orange Spiced Peaches Add Zest To Meal

Add color and spicy flavor to a main course of ham or other meats by serving "Orange Spiced Peaches." The peaches in this recipe are canned clings, for years America's top-selling canned fruit.

Orange Spiced Peaches
1 can (1 lb. 13 oz.) cling peach halves
1/4 cup brown sugar, packed
1-3 cup vinegar
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon whole cloves
1/2 teaspoon whole allspice
Drain peaches, reserving 2/3 cup syrup. Combine syrup in saucepan with all remaining ingredients except peaches. Heat to boiling; simmer 5 minutes. Add peach halves and heat slowly 5 minutes longer. Allow peaches to stand several hours or overnight. Drain syrup from peaches. Serve peach halves as accompaniment for ham or other meats. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

CARAMEL PECAN ROLLS

CARAMEL PECAN IS NEW FLAVOR IN READY ROLLS

Have you tried a completely new bakery product — Caramel Pecan Rolls — butter-rich Danish pastry with a topping of honey-caramel and lots of crunchy pecans.

These new rolls are made with buttery layers of true, light Danish dough and twirled throughout with cinnamon. Their chewy caramel topping is a delightful combination of honey, brown sugar, butter and sugar, generously dotted with crisp pecans.

Caramel Pecan rolls are completely baked in an aluminum foil pan and then frozen at their peak of just-baked goodness. They are wonderful for breakfast, lunch, brunch, or anytime a dessert or snack is in order.

Because Caramel Pecan rolls are baked upside down with the caramel and pecans on the bottom, these rolls must be heated in the oven for a short time so they may be removed from the pan. As they heat, the topping spreads evenly across the rolls. This brief warming time in the oven also brings out all the full freshness and the flavor of the rich Danish pastry. When the rolls are heated through, the foil pans should be turned upside down immediately on a serving plate and the rolls should be separated into individual servings.

Do You Know That:

Chocolate milk is whole milk with chocolate syrup added. Chocolate drink is partly skimmed milk with cocoa powder added.

One-half cup of creamed cottage cheese contains only 120 calories but the same amount of protein as 3 ounces of meat, fish, poultry or 3 eggs.

Old Fashioned Fish Fry Makes Party Treat

Parties need not break the bank, although they too often do. A good old-fashioned fish fry will be a welcome change of pace, and economical as well. The menu should be simple: fish and shellfish, frozen French fries or hashed brown potatoes, a green salad, dessert and coffee will fill the bill nicely.

Plan the menu around convenience seafoods such as frozen fish sticks or portions (labeled variously as "fillets," "cutlets," "burgers," or "steaks"). Frozen breaded shrimp and breaded scallops. With these handy ready-to-cook fishery products there's no need to haul out the deep fryer—they require only brief heating in the oven to become crispy and golden-brown. As for the seafood sauce, a simple one like this tangy Fresh Tomato Sauce is all you need.

Old-Fashioned Fish Fry
To serve six, you'll need a package of frozen fish sticks or fish portions and a package each of frozen breaded shrimp and frozen breaded scallops. Arrange on lightly greased cookie sheets or shallow baking dishes and heat-as-directed in a hot oven. Service with Fresh Tomato Sauce (follows).

Fresh Tomato Sauce
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 medium onion, chopped
1/2 clove garlic, minced (optional)
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup canned tomato paste
1 teaspoon Worcestershire
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup water
2 cups skinned tomatoes, coarsely chopped (or 2 cups drained canned tomatoes)
Melt butter in saucepan. Add onion and garlic; saute until onion is tender but not browned. Stir in flour, then tomato paste, Worcestershire, salt; slowly stir in water. Cook, stirring, until mixture thickens and boils. Add tomatoes, cook only until tomatoes are heated through. Serve warm. Makes enough sauce for 6 servings.

IT'S THE SAUCIEST!

Really Different Salad Will Be Tuna Favorite

Right, ready, and reasonable tuna stars in a really different salad fresh from the Test Kitchens of the U.S. Department of the Interior's Bureau of Commercial Fisheries.

Spicy pickled onions, colorful green peas, and crunchy chow mein noodles combine with protein-rich tuna to offer a refreshingly different salad which will add sparkle to summer. This combination complemented by crisp lettuce is appealing both to the eye and the taste buds.

The hearty protein punch in this salad will fill the bill as a main course or a satisfying luncheon.

Hearty Tuna Salad
2 cans (6 1/2 or 7 ounces each) tuna
1 package (10 ounces) frozen green peas
1 cup thinly sliced celery
2 jars (3 1/2 ounces each) cocktail onions, drained
1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 teaspoon soy sauce
1/2 teaspoon curry powder
1/4 teaspoon garlic salt
1 cup chow mein noodles
6 lettuce cups
1/2 cup toasted, blanched silvered almonds

Drain tuna and break into large pieces. Cook peas according to directions on package; drain. Combine peas, celery, onions, and tuna; chill. Combine mayonnaise, lemon juice, soy sauce, curry powder, and garlic salt; chill. Add noodles to tuna mixture. Add mayonnaise mixture and toss lightly. Serve in lettuce cups. Sprinkle almonds over top. Serves 6.

ICE-COLD BOWLS of Chilled Curried Crab Bisque, garnished with watercress, will lift limp appetites.

Summer Meal Planning Might Include Cold Soup

A bowl of hot soup on a cold day—everyone knows that is a welcome sight. But, how many of us know that a bowl of chilled soup is equally welcome on a hot day? Try cold soups to lend variety to summertime meals—because summer is nearly here. The cool dairy products are at the peak of goodness, blending with and complementing the other ingredients. It's a good idea to use generous amounts of dairy products in cooking. Milk as an ingredient in prepared dishes contributes the same essential nutrients as milk served as a beverage. Increased summertime activity makes it even more necessary that your family receive all the nutrients they need—children and teenagers need 4 or more glasses of milk daily.

1/4 cup sliced green onion
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
Dash white pepper
2 cups milk
2 chicken bouillon cubes
1 cup half and half (milk and cream)
1 cup dairy sour cream (1/2 pint)
2 cups drained, shredded, pared cucumber (1 large)
Melt butter in saucepan over low heat. Add onion and cook until tender. Blend in flour, salt and white pepper. Add milk and bouillon cubes, stirring constantly. Cook and stir until sauce is smooth and thickened. Cool. Add half and half, sour cream and cucumber; stir. Chill well. Serve in chilled bowls. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Served with a tossed green salad, buttered hard rolls, your favorite cake topped with a butter frosting and milk, you will have a menu as pretty to look at as it is to eat.

Make Sandwich From Curried Shrimp Mix

Chilled Curried Crab Bisque
1/4 cup butter (1/2 stick)
1/3 cup chopped celery
3 tablespoons flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 quart milk
1 7/8-ounce can crabmeat, drained and flaked
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 1/2 teaspoons curry powder, or to taste
1/2 cup whipping cream
Melt butter in saucepan over low heat. Add celery and cook until tender. Blend in flour and salt. Add milk, stirring constantly. Cook and stir until sauce is smooth and thickened. Cool. Add crabmeat, lemon juice, curry powder and whipping cream; stir. Chill well. Serve in chilled bowls. Garnish with watercress, if desired. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Curried shrimp makes delicious sandwiches.
3 cans (4 1/2 or 5 ounces each) shrimp
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1 egg, beaten
1/4 cup milk
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash curry powder
6 slices bread
Paprika
Drain shrimp and rinse with cold water. Chop shrimp and fry in butter for 3 minutes. Combine egg, milk, and seasonings. Pour over shrimp and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Toast bread on one side. Spread shrimp mixture on untoasted side of bread. Place on a broiler pan about 3 inches from source of heat. Broil for 2 to 4 minutes or until lightly browned. Sprinkle with paprika. Serves 6.

LEMON WHOLE WHEAT MUFFINS

These Muffins Make Spring Luncheon Time

Serve tangy lemon whole wheat muffins for that spring luncheon. Whole wheat cereal, and fresh lemons are the flavor secrets.
Lemon Muffins
1 cup sifted enriched flour
1/3 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup instant whole wheat cereal or 3/4 cup regular whole wheat cereal
1 tablespoon shredded lemon peel
1 egg
1/4 cup oil or melted shortening
1/4 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup milk
Heat oven to hot (400 degrees). Butter inside and bottoms of muffin pans. Sift flour, sugar, salt, baking powder together. Mix cereal and lemon peel. Add to flour mixture. Beat egg, oil, lemon juice and milk. Add to dry ingredients. Stir only until ingredients are moistened. Fill muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake 20-25 minutes or until brown.(x)

Yield: 12 medium or 24 small muffins.
(x) These muffins can be frozen. To thaw, heat wrapped in a 400 degree oven for 15 minutes. Then unwrap and heat 5-10 minutes or until hot but not dry.

SCANDINAVIANS HAVE A WAY
WITH APPLE CAKE

This dessert tastes best when it is served fresh from the oven.
Scandinavian Apple Cake
1 package (6 ounces) zwieback
1/3 cup packaged graham cracker crumbs
1 1/4 teaspoons cinnamon
1/2 cup butter, melted
2 1/2 cups thick sweet applesauce
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
Crush the zwieback, several at a time, in an electric blender or with a rolling pin so crumbs are extremely fine — there should be about 1/3 cup. Mix with the graham cracker crumbs, cinnamon and melted butter. Mix the applesauce with the grated lemon rind. Sprinkle a layer of the crumbs into a buttered oven-proof glass round cake dish (8 1/4 by 1 1/4 inches). Spoon a layer of applesauce over crumbs; continue alternating crumbs and applesauce with last layer of crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven until lightly browned — 30 minutes. Serve warm with whipped cream.

Vegetables Bake
With Large Fish

An easy way to deal with fish.
Baked Fish With Vegetables
1 whole fish (2 1/2 to 3 pounds)
1/4 cup olive oil
2 medium-small onions cut in thin strips (1 cup)
2 large carrots cut in thin strips (1 cup)
4 ribs celery cut in thin strips (1 1/4 cups)
Seasoning salt
Salt and pepper
1/4 cup minced parsley
Paprika
Have fish cleaned and boned; wash and dry. In a 10-inch skillet heat the olive oil; add the onions, carrots, and celery and mix well. Cover and cook over moderate heat, stirring several times, until onions are wilted but not brown, about 5 minutes. Add seasoning salt to taste. Turn about half the vegetables with some of the oil onto a sheet of heavy foil in a shallow pan; arrange fish over vegetables. Sprinkle fish with salt and pepper, and stuff it with remaining vegetables and the parsley. It's not necessary to skewer fish closed. Pour remaining oil from skillet over top of fish. Sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 30 minutes or until fish flakes when tested with a fork and top is browned. Makes 4 servings.

PANTRY SHELVES
HOLD MAKINGS
FOR THIS DESSERT

Here's a festive dessert to be prepared from the pantry shelf.
Cherry Crumb Dessert
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 cup quick-cooking oatmeal
1/4 cup flaked coconut
1/4 cup pecans, chopped
1 can (about 1 pound, 6 ounces) cherry pie filling
1 teaspoon prepared ground lemon peel or grated fresh lemon peel
Cream butter, sugar and vanilla. Sift together flour, salt, and baking soda. Stir into creamed mixture, then stir in oatmeal to make a crumb mixture. Stir in coconut and pecans. Spread half the crumb mixture over the bottom of a greased 12 by 8-inch pan. Spoon cherry pie filling over crumbs; spread evenly. Sprinkle with lemon peel. Dot top with remaining crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 35 minutes. Serve warm with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream. Makes 12 servings.

Deluxe Sandwiches
Contain Diced Nuts

Crunchy roasted diced almonds lend special elegance to Sandwich Spread De Luxe.
Sandwich Spread De Luxe
1/3 cup roasted diced almonds
2 green onions, sliced
1 cup cottage cheese
1/4 cup chopped radishes
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1/4 cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon prepared horseradish
Salt to taste
Pepper to taste
Mix all ingredients. Spread on hot buttered toast, bread or crackers. Makes about 1 1/2 cups spread.

BUTTERMILK,
MOLASSES GO
IN THIS CAKE

This unusual coffee cake is worth trying.
Molasses Coffee Cake
1 cup sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1 tablespoon dark brown sugar
1/3 cup dark molasses
1 egg
1/4 cup buttermilk
Sift together the flour, baking soda and salt. Cream butter and brown sugar; gradually beat in molasses. Beat in egg thoroughly. Add half the sifted ingredients; stir until smooth. Add buttermilk; stir just until combined. Add remaining sifted ingredients; stir just until smooth. Turn into a buttered baking pan (8 by 8 by 2 inches); bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 25 to 30 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cut in squares and serve hot or reheat.

SUGARING OFF PIE

Maple Sugaring-Off Pie Is Good Bridge Dessert

Sugaring Off Pie is maple sweet with a hint of saltiness in a not-too-sweet crumb crust. A few salted peanuts account for the hint of salt. It's just right for sugaring off a dinner or an evening of bridge. Most dessert recipes that are suitable for a party call for expensive ingredients that you don't usually keep in the house. You'll be delighted to know that Sugaring-Off Pie doesn't include a single unusual ingredient. You'll find everything you need right in your kitchen unless the icebox raiders have gotten there first.

Prepare the crumbs of bite size shredded rice biscuits by placing them in a quart measuring cup. Crush the cereal with an ordinary water glass, mortar and pestle style. You'll have no crumbs on the counter or floor and will be able to mix all of the ingredients right in the measuring cup. Isn't it nice to be able to save cleanup and dishwashing time?

You'll also enjoy being able to make the dessert in the morning, refrigerate and forget all about it until evening. Forget all about it, that is, if your family is willing to wait until evening for delicious Sugaring-Off Pie.

in milk and syrup. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Gradually beat at least half of hot mixture into egg yolks. Blend egg yolks into remaining hot mixture. Cook and stir over low heat until mixture is very thick and will mound when dropped from a spoon. Remove from heat. Add butter and maple extract. Mix well. Cool slightly. Pour into baked pie shell. Chill until firm. To serve, garnish with whipped cream and peanuts.

Note: For easy removal, dip pie plate in hot water for 1 minute before cutting.

Jiffy Meat Ball Stew Uses New Convenience Ingredient

A little ground beef goes a long way in this new recipe in a short time... half way around the world, in fact, for an exotic flavor born of rice, curry powder and canned tomato sauce with mushrooms. It's easy to prepare because much of the savor's already simmered into the new convenience ingredient — tomato sauce with mushrooms.

Jiffy Meat Ball Stew is practically a meal in itself... and a man-pleaser at that... it contains meat, vegetable and starch... in an aromatic sauce. All cooking is done in one utensil which makes for jiffy cleanup as well as jiffy preparation.

Serve with crisp cole slaw pre-chilled in a scooped-out cabbage. Husky bread and honey is a natural accompaniment... many eaters like to sop up the sauce! For a cooling dessert, try orange sherbet.

Jiffy Meat Ball Stew
1 pound small white onions
6 carrots, peeled and cut in half
1 1/2 pounds ground beef
1 egg
1/3 cup uncooked rice
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme
2 teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce

2 (8 ounce) cans tomato sauce with mushrooms
1/4 cup uncooked rice
1 teaspoon curry powder
1/4 cup water

Cook onions and carrots in salted water until almost tender. Mix beef, egg, 1/3 cup rice, seasonings and 1/2 can tomato sauce with mushrooms. Heat oil in Dutch oven or skillet; drop meat mixture by tablespoon into oil. Add 1/4 cup rice, curry powder, remaining tomato sauce and water. Drain vegetables and add. Cover and simmer 30 minutes. Makes 4 servings.

1 package (6 ounces) frozen lobster newburg
1 package (6 ounces) frozen king crab meat, thawed and drained

Cook the wild rice according to package directions or your own favorite method. Heat the lobster newburg according to package directions for double-boiler heating; about 10 minutes before the lobster is ready, add the crabmeat. Serve over the hot cooked drained wild rice. Makes 4 servings.

Pour Mushroom Gravy On Top Egg Croquettes

It's amazing how canned convenience foods can pep up meals. Take, for instance, canned mushroom gravy. Ready to use from your pantry shelf, it's the perfect meatless accompaniment for eggs in any shape or form.

Popular egg croquettes are extra moist and flavorful when made with canned mushroom gravy. Take 1/4 cup gravy right from the can... mix with the hard-cooked eggs and seasonings. Roll the croquettes in crushed walnuts and bread crumbs and brown in butter. Delicious... but here's the best part. The remaining gravy is heated with sweet pickle relish and mustard for zip... and poured over the croquettes. It makes a wonderful dinner the family will love.

Garnish the platter with spiced peaches. Serve with a tossed salad, brown and serve heart rolls, and whipped gelatin with custard sauce.

Egg Croquettes
With Mushroom Gravy
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) mushroom gravy
8 finely chopped hard-cooked eggs
1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
2 tablespoons minced onion
2 tablespoons minced parsley
1/2 teaspoon salt

Generous dash pepper
1/3 cup finely chopped walnuts
1/4 cup shortening
1 small clove garlic, minced
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard

Thoroughly mix 1/4 cup gravy with eggs, bread crumbs, onion, parsley, and seasonings. Form into 8 croquettes. Roll in nuts and additional bread crumbs. In skillet, brown slowly in shortening until heated. Meanwhile in saucepan, cook garlic in butter;

BRIDGE FOURSOME WON'T TAKE SLAM AT THIS TREAT

This fruit cup is just right for a bridge foursome.

Canton Fruit Cup
1 large grapefruit
3 large oranges
2 tablespoons slivered syrup-preserved ginger
Pare grapefruit and oranges so no white membrane remains; cut sections away from dividing membranes removing any seeds. Halve grapefruit sections. Mix fruit with ginger. Serve in sherbet glasses. Makes 4 servings.

add remaining gravy, relish, and mustard. Heat, stirring now and then. Serve over croquettes. Makes 3 servings.

SUNDAY CHICKEN DESERVES CHANCE AT THIS STUFFING

Sunday chicken deserves this stuffing.

Mushroom Stuffing
1/4 cup butter or margarine
2 small onions, chopped (1/2 cup)
1 cup chopped celery and leaves
1 1/4 cups sliced mushroom stems
2 cups herb-seasoned packaged dry bread stuffing
1/4 cup boiling water
1/4 teaspoon pepper
In a medium saucepan melt the butter and lightly brown the onion, celery and mushroom stems in it. Stir in the bread stuffing, boiling water and pepper. Use to stuff the body cavity of a roasting chicken (about 5 pounds ready-to-cook weight). Roast stuffed chicken by favorite method.

SUGARING-OFF PIE

Crust
2 2/3 cups bite size shredded rice biscuits crushed to 1/4 cup
1/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup finely chopped salted peanuts
3 tablespoons soft butter or margarine
2 teaspoons hot water

Heat oven to moderate (350 degrees). Butter 9-inch pie plate. Combine crumbs, sugar and peanuts. Add butter and water. Blend until uniform. With back of teaspoon, pack crumbs firmly and evenly onto bottom and sides of pie plate. Form an edge around top of crust, not on rim of plate. Bake 10 minutes. Cool.

Filling
2/3 cup sugar
1/4 cup cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 cups milk
1 cup maple-flavored syrup
3 egg yolks, beaten
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/2 teaspoon maple extract
Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt in saucepan. Gradually stir

These Quick Tricks Add Verve To Meals

Line muffin or custard cups with 2 or 3 slices partially cooked bacon, drop in egg. Bake until set.

Cook and drain broccoli, turn into shallow baking dish. Dot with butter or margarine, sprinkle with grated Parmesan, pepper and salt. Broil quickly until butter melts.

Prepare instant or regular pudding, chill. Whip pudding with a rotary beater, then fold in whipped topping or crumbled macarons, stiffly whipped cream. Serve in a stemmed glass with a maraschino cherry garnish.

YOU CAN MAKE GOOD SODAS IN YOUR HOME

You can make sodas at home. Mocha Ice Cream Soda
1/4 cup instant coffee
1/4 cup sugar
2 cups chilled milk
1 quart chocolate ice cream
2 6-ounce bottles chilled carbonated or sparkling water
Mix coffee and sugar; add milk and stir until coffee and sugar are dissolved. Pour 1/2 cup of coffee mixture into each of 4 chilled tall soda glasses. Add 1/4 pint chocolate ice cream to each glass; mix gently. Slowly pour 1/2 bottle of chilled soda into each glass and top with 1/4 pint chocolate ice cream. Mix gently. Makes 4 tall sodas.

Borden's Strawberries 'n Cream ICE CREAM

Suppose you knew a secret berry patch where you could pick juicy bright strawberries at their sweetest moment. Slice and marble them through velvety-smooth vanilla ice cream. Then you'd know how Borden's Strawberries 'n Cream came to be so delicious. Borden's—the ice cream with that old-fashioned freezer flavor.

Purple Plum Cobbler Has Rich, Biscuit Top

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
Family cooks like to have a file of dessert recipes that are "everyday" and yet good enough to serve to guests, whether they've been asked ahead of time or respond to a last-minute invitation.

Certain favorites fall right into this category. We have in mind the cobbler, grunt, hanky-panky and pandowdy—all cozy concoctions of fruit and batter or biscuit dough.

Here's the latest recipe of this sort we've tested, and an excellent one it is. In bygone days, stout-hearted eaters thought nothing of enjoying these for breakfast with "pour cream." Convenient to use, canned purple plums go into this modern version of a cobbler; the rich biscuit topping is pleasantly flavored with orange rind.

Plum Cobbler
1 can (1 pound and 13 to 15 ounces) purple plums in extra heavy syrup
3 tablespoons cornstarch
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 stick (3 inches) cinnamon
1/4 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon butter or margarine

Rich Biscuits
Drain plums, reserving syrup. Put plums in a medium saucepan stir together the cornstarch and salt; gradually stir in the reserved plum syrup, keeping smooth; add cinnamon stick. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until thickened, clear and boiling. Add pitted plums, orange juice and butter; heat until butter melts. Pour into an ovenproof glass baking dish (10 by 6 by 1 1/4 inches); top hot mixture at once with Rich Biscuits. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until biscuits are lightly browned—15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot or warm at once (or reheat). Makes 6 servings with lots of fruit.

Rich Biscuits
1 cup sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon sugar
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 1/2 cups butter or margarine
2 tablespoons milk
1 egg yolk
Sift together the flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Stir in grated orange rind. Cut in butter until it is in fine particles. Add milk and egg yolk; stir until dough leaves sides of bowl. Turn out on prepared pastry cloth; knead lightly. Divide dough into 6 pieces. Roll each into a round that is about 1/2-inch thick; arrange over hot plum mixture and bake as directed in Plum Cobbler recipe.

Scramble Eggs With Cheeses

Two-Cheese Scrambled Eggs
4 eggs
1/4 teaspoon salt
Dash of white pepper
1 1/2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup cream style cottage cheese
2 tablespoons finely diced cheddar cheese
Beat eggs slightly with salt and pepper. Melt butter in an 8-inch skillet. Add eggs and cook over moderately low heat, stirring often, until almost set. Quickly stir in cheese. Serve at once. Makes 2 servings.

Peanut Butter Pie

Wonderful pie with a taste of the South. Serve it topped with whipped cream.
1 unbaked 9-inch pastry shell
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup corn syrup
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup creamy or chunk style peanut butter
Mix filling ingredients together, adding peanut butter last. Pour into unbaked pastry shell. Bake in 400 degree F. (hot) oven 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 350 degrees F. (moderate) and bake 30 to 35 minutes longer. Filling should appear slightly less set in center than around edge.

A NEW PRODUCT is used to blend the unusual combination of macaroni and chicken livers in this hearty casserole. Serve with creamed spinach.

Chicken Liver Casserole Served With Spinach

If your family likes chicken livers, try them this thrifty new way. The natural chicken liver flavor is heightened by preliminary frying with aromatic onion... then immersed in swirling red tomato sauce with mushrooms (a convenient new canned ingredient). Tender macaroni makes your meat mixture go a long, long way (this recipe serves 6)... and melting Parmesan cheese provides a tantalizing topping.
Serve with hot creamed spinach and a crisp tossed salad. Crunchy breadsticks are a nice accompaniment... and top off your supper with cherry pie or a cherry gelatin dessert.

Macaroni And Chicken Livers (Servings-6)
1 (8-ounce) package medium elbow macaroni
2 tablespoons salad oil
1 small onion, chopped
8 chicken livers, coarsely chopped
1 tablespoon flour
1/2 teaspoon salt or garlic salt
2 (8-ounce) cans tomato sauce with mushrooms
1/2 cup water
2 bouillon cubes
1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
Cook macaroni in boiling salted water. While it is cooking, saute onion and chicken livers in salad oil. Stir in flour and salt. Add tomato sauce with mushrooms, water and bouillon cubes. Cook and stir for 5 minutes. Drain macaroni and combine with chicken liver mixture. Stir in 1/2 of cheese. Pour into 1 1/2 quart casserole. Sprinkle remaining cheese on top and bake at 350 degrees F. for 25-30 minutes or until brown and bubbly.

ORANGE-COCONUT CAKE IS GAY; RECIPE GIVEN

A gay cake—that's this one. Orange-Coconut Cake
3 cups sifted flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 cup shortening
2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
2 large egg yolks
3 whole large eggs
1 cup fresh orange juice
Fluffy White Frosting
1 cup shredded fresh or canned flaked coconut
Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Cream shortening, sugar, orange and lemon rind. Beat in egg yolks and whole eggs, one at a time. Add flour mixture alternately with orange juice. Turn into 2 well-greased, lightly floured 9 by 9 by 2-inch cake pans. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Place cake in pans on wire rack for 10 minutes. Turn out and cool. Spread Fluffy White Frosting over one layer. Sprinkle with 1/2 cup coconut. Top with remaining cake layer and frost top and sides with remaining frosting. Sprinkle rest of coconut on the top.

Mary Jane Taffy

A taffy pull is fun. For an old fashioned treat, make the taffy with peanut-butter.
1 cup corn syrup
1 cup sugar
2 tablespoons vinegar
1/2 cup creamy or chunk style peanut butter
Combine syrup, sugar and vinegar in saucepan. Cook over medium heat, stirring occasionally, until temperature reaches 240 degrees F., or until a small amount of mixture dropped into very cold water forms a firm ball which does not flatten on removal from water. Add peanut butter. Cook, stirring constantly, to 260 degrees F. or until a small amount of mixture dropped into very cold water forms a ball which is hard enough to hold its shape, yet plastic. Remove from heat. Pour into greased pan and let stand until cool enough to handle. Pull with fingers until candy is elastic, light in color, and has satin-like finish. Pull into long strips, 1/2 inch in diameter. Cut into 1 inch pieces. Wrap in waxed paper. Makes about 1 pound.

SALAD WEATHER

BETTER BE READY

Tossed Chicken Salad

Food Stamp Plan Receives Praise

Pricing Practices Drawing Attention

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Prices and how they're really arrived at are again sharply to the fore with the steel antitrust indictments.

The average citizens' pocket-book is affected despite the long and often devious road from the prime producer to the retail tag on consumer products. And he wonders just how the price is set, is he getting a fair shake?

So far the charges against eight major steel companies of conspiring from 1955 to 1961 to fix prices on carbon steel sheet such as used in autos and household appliances are only that—the charges are yet to be proved in court.

Speculation
But sure to be aired in coming weeks and months is speculation on how many industries have conspired to fix prices and also the question: What roles do business ethics or fear of prosecution play in fixing prices, or steering clear of fixing them?

Federal antitrust suits in the electrical equipment, steel and other industries seek to answer these questions.

Or are prices just quietly administered, as often charged. That is, are the giants in any industry able to set about any price they think most likely to bring in the most profitable volume of sales, and must the little fellow just tag along?

This theory was advanced after prices failed to slide much in recent recessions in spite of sharp fall-offs in demand and therefore in production. The charge was that the giants were controlling supply to maintain prices.

Postwar Charge
Another postwar charge was that the wage-price spiral was opposed by neither labor nor management, that wage demands weren't fought against because companies could just raise prices to meet them. The charge was complacency at the expense of the consumer, with his unsatisfied urge to buy many gadgets.

The theory in a democracy is that prices are set by supply and demand. And if monopolies are formed, antitrust laws are passed to break them up, and government policing protects the consumer. Then it's just a question of how big is the demand for any product in relation to the supply of it—prices going up when demand exceeds supply, and dipping when unsold supplies pile up.

But in today's complex economy, this law of supply and demand often has a hard time operating.

Supply And Demand
Government controls often keep prices from responding to supply and demand. The U.S. government used to set the price of sugar by raising or lowering the amount that could be imported.

It now enters into, or discusses, international agreements that regulate the supply and therefore the price, of such things as coffee, tin, and even gold.

The United States has import quotas on many commodities, such as oil, and tariff barriers on many others, all aimed at preventing low-priced foreign goods from ruing higher-priced domestic production. The price you pay for gas, electricity, commutation tickets, phone service, all are regulated by various government agencies—not by uncontrolled supply and demand.

The government of late has been experimenting with guidelines designed to set barriers for increases in prices or wage scales above the general rate of rise in the economy or the cost of producing a unit of goods as mechanization spread. To some management spokesmen this looks as much like fixing prices as does any corporate conspiracy.

The government actively fights any new monopolies like those that in the old days pushed prices as high as the traffic would bear. But consumers still complain of high prices on newly patented products, just as they suspect the corporate giants of maintaining prices above a level that competition would justify.

Management can argue that if the giants in any industry lowered prices enough, all the little competitors would die, and you'd be right back to monopolies.

And few, this side of the Soviet Union, would like to see the government take over the role of final arbiter of all prices.

WELCH, W.Va. (AP) — The federal food stamp program is praised by participants in southern West Virginia coal fields areas where it has been on trial nearly three years.

The food stamp program has been in operation as a pilot project in four West Virginia counties and 39 localities in other states. It replaced distribution of food commodities, mostly from government surplus.

Dried milk, dried beans, cheese and chopped meat are given to poor families under the commodities program.

The discount on stamps varies with income and the size of the family. A family of eight may pay $90 for $120 worth of stamps.

Eligibility for stamps ceases when monthly income exceeds levels ranging from $70 for one person to $165 for a family of five or more.

Families may use stamps to buy any food items except imported products. They can't buy alcoholic beverages or tobacco with them.

Officials estimate it costs the government three times as much to feed one person under the food stamp plan as it does under the surplus commodities program.

had experience with both plans prefer food stamps.

"With stamps we get what we like. Some of those commodities you just couldn't use," said Laura Vance of Paynesville.

Howard Christian of Paynesville, an unemployed coal miner, said the stamp plan "gives us a better deal than the commodities. This way you can get fresh meats, milk and fruits."

More than 30,000 persons are getting food stamps in the West Virginia pilot counties. Here in unemployment-ridden Mc-Dowell County, 15 per cent of the population depends upon stamps.

Gladola Nash, director of the stamp plan in McDowell County said "it provides a more balanced diet than the commodities program. No one ever asks about commodities anymore."

Welch's Republican mayor, W. B. Swope, calls food stamps an improvement over free commodities, although he generally is opposed to enlarging welfare programs.

"Food stamps provide a much better diet," Swope said. "I know of cases where small children have lost all their teeth before they were 10 years old. You just can't live off cheese and peanut butter."
