For Seventy-six Years a Builder in Collingsworth County

Volume LXXV | WELLINGTON, COLLINGSWORTH COUNTY, TEXAS 79095 | THURSDAY, AUGUST 29, 1985 | Number 7

WRECK AFTERMATH

A truck trailer rig lies on its side against the south wall of the office on Jerry Duncan's Used Car Lot at Highway US 83 and 8th Street. It struck the back of a moving car, veered across on the highway, and struck several parked cars on the used car lot.

Hail Damages Norwood Area

A damaging hail storm struck an area of the county from Samnorwood west and north into the Dozier and Abra communities about 4 p.m. Friday, Aug. 23, destroying several cotton fields and damaging buildings.

Kenneth Martindale, deputy sheriff for that area, said first reports of the hail came from Abra, where Bonita Myers reported hail stones that ranged up to baseball size.

Hail falling at Samnorwood ranged up to golf ball size with most of the stones from pea to marble size.

It lasted only a short time, said Martindale.

The eastern edge of the hail storm was about a mile east of Dozier and it ranged west and south from that point about six miles. A little hail was reported a mile east of Dozier but the hail was lighter in that area.

The most damaging hail fell in a strip about two miles south of Dozier, Martindale said. Cotton was damaged more heavily in that area.

Junior Coleman told Martindale he probably would plow up his cotton and sow the land to wheat.

Other heavily damaged fields were scattered over the area.

The north sides of buildings bore the brunt of damage and many residents of the area reported windows broken. Billy Connors, who lives at Samnorwood and has a trailer house parked at Dozier, reported broken windows and the windows on the north side of the Dozier Church of Christ were also broken.

J.H. and Betty Oldham, who live south of Dozier, had windows on the north side of their home broken and skylights in their barn were broken.

"Their house has a metal roof, and after the hail it looked like someone had taken a hammer and beat it," said Martindale. Paul Schaub reported he lost 60 to 70 percent of the cotton on a 40 acre field in that vicinity.

Windows were broken on the north side of Clinton and Diana Oldham's home and the metal roof was dented.

South of Salt Fork River, only a few scattered hailstones were reported.

6 Vehicles, Office Damaged in Crash

Drivers of a truck-trailer rig and a car escaped without apparent injury after their vehicles were in a spectacular collision at 8th Street and Highway 83 Thursday, August 22.

Three cars on display in a Used Car Lot operated by Duncan Chevrolet were destroyed and the office building sustained heavy damage, after the truck plowed into the lot.

Herb Duncan, DPS trooper who headed the investigation said both vehicles that collided were traveling north when the 1978 White truck-trailer struck the right rear side of the Buick driven by Olan (Shorty) Lowe.

The truck then went across Highway 83 turning lane and both southbound traffic lanes into the used car lot operated by Jerry Duncan. It struck four late model cars, destroying three of them. At this point the truck turned over onto its side and crashed into the south side of the office. The empty trailer also hit the building and turned over on its side, according to Duncan. The truck was leased to Avant, officers said.

Drivers of both vehicles were taken to Collingsworth General Hospital, where they were checked for injuries and released.

A ticket was issued to Avant for failure to control speed. Sightseers drove past the accident scene for several hours, until the truck was taken to Childress by Bridges Wrecker Service. The Buick was taken to South Side Salvage. The Buick was heavily damaged and the truck was totaled, said Trooper Duncan. The trailer can be used after it is repaired, he added.

Three late model Chevrolets on the used car lot were destroyed and a late model Plymouth had windshield damage.

Officers believe Avant may have fallen asleep, the DPS Trooper said.

Assisting in the investigation were DPs Trooper John James and members of the Sheriff's Department.

This was the location of another spectacular accident a few years ago when a gasoline transport truck overturned, spilling its load and bursting into flames. A service station was destroyed, along with its gasoline storage tanks.

An insurance adjuster placed damage to the building at $10,000. Damage to the cars of Jerry Duncan's lot, as well as to the truck and car in the wreck had not been determined late Thursday.

Wellington Schools To Open Sept. 3

Students of the three Wellington Schools will take their last breather on Labor Day, then on Tuesday, September 3, they will report for classes for the 1985-86 school year.

With registration completed during the last 10 days of August, students will be ready to go immediately into their classroom schedules.

The entire Wellington faculty, including both administrators and teachers, were in Memphis Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27-28, for two days of cluster in-service training.

This will be followed by two teacher preparation days, Thursday and Friday, August 29 and 30.

On the first day of school, buses will run the same routes they did at the end of the 1984-85 session. Both breakfast and lunch will be served in the cafeteria.

School will start at 8:22 a.m. and the tardy bell will ring at 8:27. The regular class periods will be observed, and school will be dismissed at 3:47.

Although enrollment days were completed Aug. 22 and 23, there will be some additional enrollments through the first week of school.

The final enrollment is expected to be about the same or a little less than as the end of school last year.

No Scrimmage This Week But Rockets Set Sights on Hollis

A scrimmage opponent could not be located for the Skyrockets this week, but in the scrimmage with Crosbyton Friday, August 23, Wellington coaches saw much that they liked and this week they have moved their thinking toward the opener with Hollis Tigers Sept. 6.

That game will be played at Hollis.

Part of the scrimmage with Crosbyton was played in the rain--at times falling in sheets--until play had to be called.

This, along with injuries suffered by Crosbyton meant that the second Skyrocket Varsity defensive unit did not get to play, although the varsity offensive played both series of plays that were scheduled.

With the junior varsity playing first, this unit defeated Crosbyton one touchdown to none. The varsity scored two touchdowns but did not allow Crosbyton varsity either a touchdown or a first down, according to Head Coach James Williams.

Johnny Nash scored one Wellington Varsity touchdown and Michael Mackey the other.

"There were a lot of bright spots (in both the JV and Varsity) and we felt all the kids did a good job," said Williams. "We had some outstanding defensive play and the varsity held Crosbyton to no first downs."

This first team defensive unit played: Kendall Harris, defensive right end; Kacy Davis, defensive right tackle; Arthur Pennon, nose guard; Marvin Brown, left defensive tackle and Kenny Peeks left defensive end; middle linebacker, Johnny Nash; right linebacker Ruben Cantu; left linebacker Shawn Davis; right cornerback, James Patterson; left cornerback, Curtis Nash, and safety Kelley Goforth.

"I felt like that with the weather conditions and holding Crosbyton to minus yards running was a pretty good start," Williams declared.

Offensively, the only time the Skyrockets were stopped was when they fumbled once insde the 20 yard line and one pass that was intercepted.

Picked for the scrimmage offensive team were Harris, center;

Norwood School Opens Mon.

Students of Samnorwood Independent School District will enroll Monday, Sept. 2, classwork will begin and the regular schedule will be followed, Kenneth Martindale, principal, announced.

Buses will arrive at 8 a.m. and enrollment will begin at 8:15. An assembly will be held beginning at 10 a.m., and parents are urged to be present and participate in this part of the first day of school. Classes will dismiss at 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday, Sept. 4, has been set aside for school day pictures, to be made by Blunck Studio from Clinton, Okla. This will not include senior pictures nor pictures of organizations, according to Martindale. On Friday, all students will come by bus to the Collingsworth County Fair for the opening parade and to see the exhibits afterward.

"This is one of the essential elements of our year," said Martindale.

This year, Clarendon College will offer a course in beginning Chemistry at Samnorwood with evening classes slated, Martindale announced. This is the first time a college course has been offered at Samnorwood and Martindale said credit can be counted toward college hours or for high school credit.

Melissa Moorman, science instructor, will teach the course, which already has ten students enrolled.

Approximately 90 students are

BRONC RIDING

This bare-back bronc rider marks his horse out at the annual Wellington Rodeo. Action took place Friday and Saturday nights, Aug. 23 and 24. There were more than one hundred entries for both nights.

Barbecue Tickets For Fair on Sale

Tickets are on sale for the big barbecue which will be one of the opening events of the Collingsworth County Fair Friday, Sept. 6, in Ellison Park. Serving hours will be 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. according to Brenda Ferguson, one of those working with the barbecue.

The barbecue will be sponsored by the Wellington Rodeo Association, and the barbecue will be furnished by Mr. Barbecue of Wheeler. This is one of the more popular barbecue caterers of the area, and an interesting feature is that the barbecue smokes in a specially designed smoker pulled behind a pickup as those providing the meat travel to their destination.

There will be only 300 tickets, and when this number are fed, no more meat will be available, said Mrs. Ferguson.

Tickets are now available from Mrs. Ferguson at Charles Darter's Law Office, from City State Bank and Wellington State Bank. The ticket price is $6 per person.

The traditional foods will be served with the meat.

Mrs. Ferguson is urging those planning to attend the barbecue to buy their tickets as early as possible.

"We had some outstanding execution by Kelley Goforth at quarterback, and from Brad Long, who also plays in that position," said Williams.

"Left half Johnny Nash had 10 carries for about 150 yards and scored one touchdown.

"We were unable to check our passing game for we were playing in sheets of rain and that hindered our passing. However, Kelley was hindered but did connect on one pass to Johnny Nash for about 25 yards," Coach Williams said.

The second unit started with Britt Schmidt at center, Tony Leamon, right guard; Marvin Brown, right tackle; and Derek Seal, right end; Scotty Hale left guard; Kacy Davis left tackle; and Anthony Baker, left end; Brad Long, quarterback; Curtis Nash, fullback; Alex Johnson left half and James Patterson, wing back.

"We went 20 plays with these kids on offense, but due to the weather and Crosbyton's injuries we did not get to go 20 plays with the defensive unit," the coach explained.

"Overall, we have improved a lot, declared Williams. "We felt like we executed well with some outstanding blocking from the offensive line; also guards pulling out on sweep plays. They did a fine job.

"We were real pleased because we had only one bad snap from center while both units were playing.

"The coaching staff is working real hard to get these young players ready for Hollis. We feel all the kids we have will be able to play football this year," Williams continued.

"Even though we don't have a scrimmage this week, we will be working on the opening game with Hollis."

Wellington scouts covered the scrimmage between Memphis and Hollis Friday night at Memphis.

Memphis defeated the Oklahomans one touchdown to none, but Skyrocket scouts reported that Hollis actually moved the ball offensively better than Memphis did.

Hollis drove down to the one yard line on one of the offensive series but were unable to score a touchdown on the ground.

"All our kids are working really hard and we couldn't be more proud of them," said Williams, returning to his favorite subject, the Skyrockets.

"They're really doing a good job. During the remainder of this week we'll be working on Hollis and our defense is working to be geared to stopping Hollis offense. We spent two days preparing for Crosbyton, but this week we're really working hard on Hollis offensive and their defensive alignment."

SETTING PIVOTS

Setting pivots for the grand entry at the annual Wellington Rodeo was Kimi Henard, the daughter of Debbie Henard and John Henard III. She is a memeber of the Collingsworth County 4-H Horse Club. The club participated in the grand entry at the rodeo, which was held Friday and Saturday nights, Aug. 23 and 24.

EXTENDED COVERAGE

by Bobo Castleberry

No matter how carefully we drive, and how well our cars are maintained, accidents DO happen. It's wise to know beforehand what to do in case of accident.

First priority is getting medical aid for the injured. Do call the police to investigate; they may provide medical help and traffic control, and their accident report can be helpful.

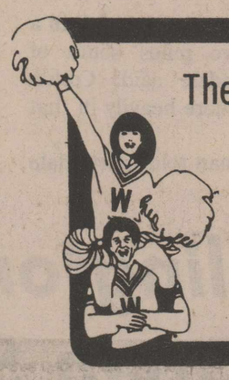

Get names and addresses of all drivers and passengers involved. Note the year, make, model and license number of the other car or cars, and the name and addresses of the insurance company or agent.

Check for witnesses. Get their names, addresses, phone numbers. For your accident report, diagram what happened and where. Any skid marks? Debris? If you've got a camera, take a picture.

Don't admit responsibility for the accident; don't make any statements, except to the police. Do not divulge details of your insurance coverage.

When accidents happen, you'll be glad to have insurance protection from....

Collingsworth County Agent Report

by DON REEVES

FEWER CATTLE ON FEED SHOULD HELP BEEF INDUSTRY

It may still be some time before cattlemen see some improvement in market prices, but all indicators point in that direction.

The number of cattle on feed as of July 1 is the lowest since October 1983, and the number of cattle and calves on farms and ranches in the U.S. at mid-year is down 4 percent from a year ago.

Feedlot placements during the April to June quarter were down 7 percent from a year ago, which means cattle placed on feed during the first half of 1985 were 5 percent below year ago levels.

Current figures confirm that liquidations of breeding herds began last year and are continuing to some extent. Until market conditions turn around, there is no reason to believe that cattlemen will change their philosophy regarding herd reductions.

The nation's calf crop for 1985 is estimated at 3 percent below that of 1984, and that figure may be high since the beef cow herd at mid-year is down 7 percent and heifer replacements are down 11 percent.

All this suggests that beef supplies should be down some in the second half of 1985, which, in turn, should help market prices.

The longest worm in the world is called a ribbon worm. Some ribbon worms grow to be 90 feet long -- which is longer than three school buses parked end to end.

4-H Record Book Contest Winners Announced

The top four placings in the 1985 State 4-H Record Book judging contest were announced by Gayle Hall, Extension 4-H Specialist with Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Two Collingsworth County 4-Hers placed third in their award program. Nicole Keller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Keller, won honors in the Leadership category. Craig Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Brown, took top honors in the Range Management Category.

Each record book was judged by a three member team including a specialist from the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, a county Extension agent, and a volunteer 4-H adult leader. The judges looked at each 4-Hers record book in the areas of leadership, citizenship, community service, and learning experiences. Fourteen districts competed in the State Record book Judging contest with only the top 4 in each category being recognized.

Nicole Keller has been a member of 4-H since she was nine years old. Her favorite projects are clothing, foods and nutrition, bread and her most recent beef. She has competed at many District contests as well as State 4-H Roundup for the last three years. Highlights of Nicole's 4-H career have been many. In 1984, she was named County Gold Star winner which is the highest county award. In 1985, she placed third at District 4-H Fashion Show in the Evening and Speciality Wear category. Her competition advanced to state and took first place. She also received the "Best Landscape Design" award at State 4-H Roundup for a demonstration presented with her partner, Patricia Fourmentin. Nicole has been very active in leadership on the local and district level. She helped organize the County 4-H council and is a key teen leader for many younger 4-Hers in the county. Nicole Keller plans to major in Home Economics after graduation with the plans of becoming a county Extension agent.

Craig Brown has been a 4-H member for six years. Craig's projects have been horse, range management, beef, wildlife, forage crops, and small grains. The highlight of Craig's career was in 1984 when his team placed first at State 4-H Roundup in the Plant Identification contest. He also was recognized as high point individual in this contest. The officials of the contest commented that Craig's score was one of the higher scores he had seen. This year, Craig placed 8th high individual in the State Range Evaluation contest with his team placing 5th. Craig plans to attend college where he will major in Range Management after graduation.

Former County Man Killed By Intruder Sunday

A former Wellington-Vinson, Okla., man, Joy Melvin Owens, 52, was killed by an assailant who broke into his home in North Randall County early Sunday, Aug. 25.

Mr. Owens was the son of Mrs. Daisy Owens, formerly of Vinson, now of Hollis, a nephew of Mrs. John Ingram and cousin of Clyde Ingram. Owens was a former Amarillo fireman with 20 years service. He was a car dealer when he died.

He was shot several times by the intruder with a small calibre gun.

The victim's wife, Faye, was tied hand and foot and a pillow case was pulled over her head, but was not reported as being injured.

After the intruder left, she was able to free herself and phone friends, who notified officers at 12:27 a.m.

Investigating officers said Monday they have few leads and no clues.

Mr. Owens was born in Wellington and lived at Hollis before moving to Amarillo more than 25 years ago.

He was a charter member of Bell Avenue Baptist Church.. He married Faye Boyd in Hollis in 1951.

Funeral services were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 27, in Bell Avenue Baptist Church, with Rev. Claud Tugwell, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Llano Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife; two daughters, Beverly Deputy and Melissa Owens, both of Amarillo; his mother; a sister, Aline Burt of California, a brother, Leon Owens of Hollis and one granddaughter.

Fewer Cattle On Feed Should Help Industry

COLLEGE STATION---It may still be some time before cattlemen see some improvement in market prices, but all indicators point in that direction.

The number of cattle on feed as of July 1 is the lowest since October 1983, and the number of cattle and calves on farms and ranches in the U.S. at mid-year is down 4 percent from a year ago.

Feedlot placements during the April to June quarter were down 7 percent from a year ago, which means cattle placed on feed during the first half of 1985 were 5 percent below year ago levels.

''Current figures confirm that liquidations of breeding herds began last year and are continuing to some extent,'' points out Dr. Ed Uvacek, livestock marketing economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

The largest rooftop garden in the world -- with over 5,000 plant species -- is atop a seven-story department store in downtown London, England. The garden attracts a variety of wild visitors, including flamingos and pheasants, which simply fly in.

Birds sleep in many different places. Most sleep in old nests close to where they feed. But sea birds snooze while floating on the water and a ruffled grouse will dive into a snowbank to catch 40 winks.

As late as the Civil War, moose ranged as far south along the Atlantic seaboard as Long Island. But by 1880 they had vanished throughout New York and southern New England because of habitat loss. Today, the moose is most commonly seen in Maine, but on occasion, a half-ton moose has brought traffic to a screeching halt in downtown Worcester, Massachusetts.

Families Visit Norfolk, Washington

Mr. and Mrs. Terry Fincher with T.J. and Lacie, along with Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Kilpatrick, Jr. of Memphis, left early on Saturday, August 3, for Norfolk, VA., where Lt. JG Merle Kilpatrick and his family live. They stopped at a number of historic places along the way.

They spent the first night in Little Rock, Ark., where T.J. lost his first tooth and decided to bring it back to Wellington to put under his pillow for the tooth fairy.

The group slept outside and "nearly froze." The mighty Mississippi River at Memphis was quite an impressive sight. The group visited Elvis Pressley's Graceland, which some decided was not as big as they had expected.

They spent that night in Dickson, Tenn., and again those in the tents got colds.

Tall trees, lots of mountains and rivers were enjoyed by everyone. A shopping stop was made at Fineburg, Tenn. and the Finchers added another blanket.

Pigeon Forge was their next stop. The next day, Aug. 6, they drove down to Gatlinburg, Tenn., stopping at the park Smokey Mountain, National park headquarters and Sugarland Visitors Center. They found no place to park in Gatlinburg, so they drove north, located a parking space and took the trolley back to Gatlinburg. They found shop after shop after shop. In the wax museum, they enjoyed the battle of the Alamo, with push-button recording of the event.

Afterwards they took the Sky Ride up the mountains, overlooking the town. After a full day's driving, they stopped at Enfield, just outside Rocky Mount, N.C.

The group arrived at the visitor's pass gate at Norfolk Naval Base just before noon, on August 8.

That afternoon, Lt. JG Merle Kilpatrick gave them a guided tour of the Naval base, including the piers where several ships were docked. One was the USS Detroit, just back from a month in Puerto Rico.

Friday, Patti Kilpatrick took the group shopping and to the Botanical Gardens where they enjoyed a small train ride, and also a boat ride.

That evening the group ate at Duck Inn Beach and hunted shells along the shore.

Merle Kilpatrick took the Texas Panhandle visitors to Busch Gardens, famous for its rides. They drank plenty of Coke, and who cared which kind, for the day was hot and humid. On another visit to the beach, they battled the waves, which were rough.

On August 13, they said goodbye to the Merle Kilpatricks. Their first stop on the return trip was at historic Fredericksburg, Va., where they stayed two nights and had no need for the blankets bought a few days earlier. They visited the Stonewall Jackson shrine and toured Fredericksburg Battlefield.

The Finchers and Kilpatricks joined a guided tour group to visit Washington, D.C. T.J., who had anticipated this part of the visit for months, was asleep as they passed the Pentagon, but wide awake when they crossed the Potomac. The tour guides were informative and entertaining, pointing out each major building as they passed. By 10 a.m. they had walked through Arlington National Cemetery, up to the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, where they were in time to see the changing of the Honor Guard.

Inside the White House, they visited the East Room, largest and most formal of the State Reception rooms.

Next, they were in the Red Room, the Oval Blue Room, the Green Room and State Dining Room. Chandeliers in these rooms were awesome.

A visit to the Lincoln Memorial came next. Then they walked to the Iwo Jima Memorial. The tour included only part of the Smithsonian Institution Complex, and T.J., around whom so much of this trip centered, thoroughly enjoyed the airplane exhibits.

Once inside the National Capitol, it was indeed impressive to look upward into the heights of the rotunda. "The bus returned us to the campground after 6 o'clock, tired but proud of our country," said one member.

On August 15, the Finchers and Kilpatricks started home, by way of Richamond, Roanoke and Bristol. Showers caused them to stay in a motel after they crossed the state line into Tennessee. They encountered gusty winds and heavy rains the next day. It was Hurricane Danny moving inland. At 11:20 that night, they reached the Fincher's driveway in Wellington.

It was an especially good trip for T.J., for he was seeing the places he had learned about in school.

183 Present for 32nd Annual Langley Family Reunion August 16-18

BY IDA LANGLEY STUCKEY

The 1985 session of the Langley Reunion was held August 16, 17 and 18 at the Langley Reunion grounds eleven miles west of Wellington on the Memphis highway, with one hundred forty-nine relatives, thirty two visitors and the two ladies who prepare our meals, Mrs. Jessie Alston and Mrs. Billie Oatman, making a total of one hundred eighty-three attending, and there were seven states and one foreign country represented. Miss Brune Gontard of France, who is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Pogue of Oklahoma City, came with them to the reunion.

The oldest family member attending was Mrs. May Lowe of Marietta, Oklahoma, who is 88, and the youngest was Jimmie Ray Peznowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Peznowski, and grandson of Mrs. Melba Marcum of Lubbock, who was 5 weeks old. The ones traveling the fartherest were Mrs. Lois Langley and daughter, Lisa, of Seattle, Washington.

We were very surprised on Thursday night when we went out for supper, as there were already twelve campers and four tents on the grounds. We gave the crowd of sixty-five home made ice cream with their supper. We all enjoyed our new bath house which was completed the day before our meeting started, especially our young folk who really gave the showers a good workout.

We had one new game which was added to our entertainment. It was called "SEQUENCE" and Bill and Willetta Langley brought the game and it went over with a bang.

In our business meeting Tommy Harwell was elected president and Janice Arnn secretary, as they were elected for a two year term last year. Our director who had completed his three year term was Cary Don Neeley, and we voted him right back in for another three years. We decided to hold our White Elephant Sale in the afternoon in order to give more time for our business meeting and song service after supper. Our sale was quite a success as it brought $900.00. On our next item of business we voted to build a new tabernacle on the south side of the creek, just east of our kitchen. The tabernacle we built in 1961 was badly damaged this summer in a storm that blew a big tree down and it fell on the east end. We had to remove about half of it.

After our business meeting was over, the Lowe family met and decided to combine their annual individual family reunion with the reunion here at Wellington. They have been holding theirs at Lake Texhoma.

Johnny Carson gave us cantaloupes and L.A. Davis gave us tomatoes and peppers. One of our new family members Kenny Dauss, who married Debby Hunt, daughter of Hoyt and Charlene Langley, brought Croissants for our Saturday and Sunday morning breakfasts. They were delicious. Jessie Alston and Billie Oatman cooked.

County 4-H Bake Show to Be Held

The Collingsworth County 4-H Bake show will be held Wednesday, September 4 at 4:30 in the conference room located on the second floor of the courthouse. Contestants will check in their products to the Extension office that morning with judging to begin shortly afterwards. Awards will be presented at 4:30 along with the opportunity to taste the whole wheat products entered by the 4-H members. Everyone is encouraged to attend the awards program and support the 4-Hers for their hard work.

The Bake show was designed to promote the Panhandle's number one agriculture product, wheat. 4-Hers learn about the nutritional value of bread in the diet as well as skills in judging, planning, preparing and serving whole wheat products. The contest is different than in the years past in that a 4-Her can prepare any product they want to as long as it has a 1:3 ratio of Whole wheat flour to white flour. In addition the 4-Hers are encouraged to adapt recipes that may call for only white flour.

4-Hers who participated in a Bake show workshop and will be competing at the county level are: Marla Keller, Brenda Forrester, Shelly Thomas, Holly Hudson, Alicia Wright, Chris Holland, Lisa Holland, Shari Floyd, Dana Langford, Carrie Langford, D'Nae Keller, Nicole Keller, and Jennifer Floyd. Any other 4-Hers who are interested in entering the 4-H Bake Show can come by the County Extension office or call 447-2313 for further information. Educaitonal programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve all people all ages regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Congressman Jim Wright (D-Tex), the House Majority Leader, has provided us with a list of 65 of the nation's biggest corporations which have amassed profits of more than $50 billion over the past three years without paying one dollar in federal income taxes. Instead they actually received $3.2 billion in credits against future income taxes.

Jim Wright says this is an absolute outrage, and we agree. Congressman Wright is plugging for a minimum tax for corporations...a 15% tax (and how many of you are in a 15% tax bracket this year?), which he says would bring in $10.7 billion to apply to the federal deficit. We're not prepared to agree that a minimum tax in that amount should really be acceptable...we think these corporations should pay income tax at the same rate as individual citizens...but it would sure be better than we're getting now!

And guess who heads the list which is arranged in order of the biggest tax subsidies? It's none other than our old friend and "defense contractor" General Electric, which not only paid no income taxes at all on profits of $6,527 million but claimed tax subsidies amounting to $283 million.

Boeing wasn't doing badly with a tax free profit of $1,530 million and a tax credit of $267 million for the number two spot in the beat-the-tax standings.

But not all the big savers were in defense industries. Santa Fe-Southern Pacific was well up in the standings with more than a billion and a half in tax-free profits and $141 million in tax credits. The Celanese Corporation had profits of $296 million and a $45 million tax credit. Panhandle Eastern Corp. listed $938 million in profits and more than $28 million in credits. And Dun & Bradstreet, a corporation which monitors everybody else's credit ratings, was up there with the biggies with $584 million in profits and $64 million in tax credits.

An income tax system which creates these billion dollar loopholes for big operators is out of this world...and ought to be put out of this country. But the responsibility for it doesn't lie with one political party or the other. Both Democrats and Republicans in Congress have a share in it, because both parties are protecting special interests...not necessarily the same special interests, but, between them, all of them.

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—New laws passed by the Legislature last spring will go into effect next week on Sept. 1, including the controversial mandatory seat belt law.

The new law requires the driver and front-seat passengers to wear a seat belt. Although the law goes into effect next week, the fines for violators, which range from $25 to $50, won't be slapped on until after Dec. 1.

All in all, the new seat belt law is minimal and meant to be that way by legislators hesitant of offending the independent Texas driver. No doubt the measure will save innumerable lives, but many legislators did not want to crowd.

Texas passed the seat belt law last spring because of the threat of a federal order to make airbags mandatory in vehicles. The Secretary of Transportation gave the order but provided an out: if enough states voluntarily passed a mandatory seat belt act, no costly airbags would be necessary.

Bubba's Own Good

Right away, some legislators were wary of arousing the anger of "Bubba", their mythical sterotype of Texas parochialism, and so attempts were made to water down the proposed law, including an exemption for pickup trucks which didn't stick.

Still the bill passed. Then the governor actually signed it into law at a press conference, and some speculated it was his biggest political mistake yet, bigger than when he raised taxes.

But the next thing you know, there's the governor on TV with a public service announcement telling Bubba he's got to wear his seat belt for his own safety. Bubba got prepared and the governor got some free press.

Next week, Bubba can strap his seat belt on and tell Texas how he likes it, but he'll probably be too busy dodging traffic to think about it.

Blue Law, Fees

The blue law will officially end next week, and Sunday shopping is expected to increase as more retailers stay open that day.

Also in effect will be a new law forbidding an employer to make his help work seven straight days. Employers must allow time off for religious worship.

The long list of fees that legislators increased instead of taxes will take effect Sept. 1, including a six dollar hike for a driver's license, $2.50 for a new inspection sticker, and an extra $75 for personalized license plates.

Anti-Child Abuse

A package of anti-child abuse laws will include:

- An exception to non-admission of heresay evidence to allow a statement that a child made to the first person 18 or older. Advocates say it will keep a child from testifying in open court and reliving the trauma.
- Tougher penalties for possession of child pornography.
- The availability of criminal conviction records of persons who want to work in child-care facilities or other child-related businesses.

Abortion Law

The new abortion law will require abortion clinics to file annual reports to the Health Department and to submit to periodic inspections by the agency.

The new reporting rules will require clinics to record personal statistics on each patient, the type of abortion and other related information.

The annual fee for an abortion clinic can legally be set as high as $1,000 by the Health Department. Because the Legislature provided no start-up money for the Health Department, it must first collect the fees in order to finance the on-site inspections.

Short Takes

- A federal report on loss of farms shows Texas lost 3,000 farms in 1984. The amount of land in farming dropped by a half-million acres here.
- A recent poll indicated half of all Texans think illegal aliens from Mexico take only jobs that American citizens don't want.
- Texas Attorney General Jim Mattox said he collected $32,655 in fines for overloaded trucks from one Houston trucking company, thereby boosting the total collected to $1.7 million in nine months.
- Texas mortgage foreclosures are more than double the national average and among the highest, according to a private study. Out of every 1,000 home mortgages, 4.3 failed.
- The Public Utility Commission has denied AT&T Communications' request for $123 million in emergency rate relief and refused to hear an appeal of an administrative judge's ruling.
- The Texas Department of Health has warned that imported Mexican pottery with high lead levels in its glaze has been found in the Houston area. Officials said use of the items for cooking or drinking utensils poses a threat of lead poisoning.
- Texas A&M University senior Michael Thomas Ferguson, 22, Dallas, last week was charged with trying to extort $50,000 by threatening to kill the wife of Rep. Richard Smith of Bryan.

Letters From The People

Dear Editor:

I'm writing to you in regard to the accident that occurred Thursday morning on Highway 83.

As you know a tractor-trailer rig ran over the car in front of him. According to reports that I heard, the primary cause of the accident was excessive speed. I spoke to two city officials about the accident and both said that several bad wrecks, some with fatalities, have occurred during the past few years on Hwy. 83 because of excessive speed. It would seem that a red light at either end of town would control the speed problem, but according to one city official, the city has petitioned the State of Texas at least twice for a red light at the south end of town, but was turned down because of lack of East West FM road traffic at the Hwy 83 Intersection.

My family and I live on the East side of Highway 83 and everyday see vehicles break the 55 mph speed limit not to mention the posted limits.

It would seem to me that since the State of Texas is not going to help us, then the burden to control excessive speed lies with our local law enforcement officials. We should encourage our elected officials to see that this is done.

Maybe if enough tickets are written, people passing through town will obey the posted limits and perhaps save someone's life.

Sincerely Yours,
Norman Miller

Dear Editor:

I want people to know how much I enjoyed the "5 Community Reunion" on the second weekend of August.

I wrote the first letter that got the reunion started in 1971. I wrote to Katy Cummings Isbell and asked her if a reunion would be possible. She took it from there - thus our first reunion in August 1971.

Many have wondered about the date of the first get-together. I know because I kept Katy's letter in answer to mine. I also have clippings of all the reunions and am making a scrapbook of them including names of all who came each year. I have only missed one reunion.

Maude Painter Mitchell
Ft. Worth, Texas

P.S. I want to tell all my friends that my granddaughter, Leisa Musgrove, who attended the reunion with me, graduated summa cum laude from T.C.U. on Aug. 16. She's a wife and mother of a 15-year-old and I'm so proud of her.

Hope to see you in August, 1986.

THOMAS ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes Reported Each Week

WASHINGTON - In a year when the Defense Department has drawn heavy flak for buying $7,622 coffeepots, $640 toilet seats and $44 light bulbs, Congress has served up an equally-vivid example of wasteful federal spending.

The House and Senate are spending $650,000 in public funds on the salaries of some 50 employees who occupy and "operate" automatic elevators in Capitol Hill buildings.

The House rejected, 191 for and 221 against, an amendment offered July 18 by Rep. Hank Brown, R-Colo., to cut 1986 spending for House elevator operators by $106,000.

A yes vote was in favor of cutting the elevator outlay.

Voting yes: Beau Boulter, Charles Stenholm and Larry Combest.

BUDGET CUT - By a vote of 193 for and 211 against, the House on July 18, 1985 rejected an amendment by Rep. Bill Cobey, R-N.C., to cut the House portion of the fiscal 1986 legislative branch budget by 2.7 percent.

A yes vote was in favor of freezing 1986 spending at the fiscal 1985 level that existed before Congress approved a 1985 supplemental appropriations bill.

Voting yes: Beau Boulter, R-13, Charles Stenholm, D-17, Larry Combest, R-19.

MAILING COSTS - By a vote of 204 for and 217 against, the House rejected an amendment by Rep. Clarence Miller, R-Ohio, to cut $10 million from the 1986 appropriation for members' franking, or free-mailing, privileges.

A yes vote was in favor of cutting mailing costs.

Voting yes: Boulter, Combest and Stenholm.

COMMITTEE BUDGETS - The House approved, 254, 158, a resolution to spend $48 million in calendar 1985 on the investigative expenses that comprise about half of the House's annual committee budget.

A no vote was in opposition to increasing the committee outlay by 4.5 percent over the 1984 level.

Voting no: Boulter, Combest, Stenholm.

PAY RAISE - By a vote of 66 for and 19 against, the Senate voted to rescind a $2,400 cost-of-living pay increase for members of Congress.

A yes vote was in opposition to the pay raise. Lloyd Bentsen did not vote. Votes occurred before Phil Gramm took office.

RESTORE BUDGET CUT - By a vote of 39 for and 36 against, the Senate voted on June 21, 1984 to restore a two percent, of $25 million, cut in the fiscal 1985 legislative branch budget.

A yes vote was in opposition to a lower legislative branch budget. Lloyd Bentsen did not vote. Votes occurred before Phil Gramm took office.

Rodeo Winners Announced

More than 100 entries in all categories competed in the annual Wellington Rodeo Friday and Saturday, Aug. 16 and 17, and although rain cut into the attendance Friday night, the Saturday night crowd made up for this.

Winners were announced by C&C Rodeo Company of Childress, the rodeo producer.

The horse that fell during one performance and appeared to be badly injured, was apparently only badly winded, said Mrs. Freddy Cordell. By the end of performance he walked into the truck to be taken to Childress. Monday morning, he appeared to be all right, said Mrs. Cordell.

READY FOR VICTORY

Football fans will see an improvement in the WHS victory bell when the Rockets meet the Hollis Tigers on Sept. 6. Standing with the bell above is Kelly Goforth, a junior at Wellington High School. He repainted the bell and its carriage, and also rewired the carriage for road trips. Funded by the student council, Kelly worked on the project for about a week and a half. The new design was his original idea. The bell came from the Dodson School, and was donated to WHS after the Dodson School was closed. It was put to use as a victory bell by the student council of 1975-76.

Fun Fair Plans Near Completion

Plans for the big Collingsworth County Fun Fair Saturday, Sept. 7 are still in the formative stage, but Dianne Manuel chairman predicts the 1985 event will be one of the liveliest so far.

Fun Fair gets under way at noon in Ellison Park after County Fair events held at Bura Handley Community Center and the American Legion Building are closed down.

Booths and food and games of skill will be featured, Mrs. Manuel said, and all together it will offer an afternoon of colorful entertainment.

The Hospital Auxiliary has signed up for a soft drink booth and the Wellington Country Club Ladies Golf Association will sell hot dogs.

Wellington Satellite Center will have a balloon booth, and Girl Scouts are bringing the cotton candy machine from their council headquarters in Pampa and will offer this traditional delicacy.

Four 4-H Clubs will sponsor a soft drink and ice cream booth, and the Collingsworth unit of the American Cancer Society is planning to repeat its ice cream and food booth.

There will be a cake walk and some type of rides for the kiddies is in the planning stage.

The big event of the Fun Fair will be the annual Wellington Chili Cookoff, which will take up a large section in the park and offer some spicy food as well.

Some major surprises are in store during this afternoon long event, predicts Henry Sullivan, chairman.

Plans and instructions will be announced next week for this part of Fun Fair. Big surprises are in store.

There will be games of horse shoes and an obstacle race as well as a number of other events, Mrs. Manuel said.

Any organization, individual or group wanting to set up a booth should contact Dianna Manuel, Fun Fair Chairman, at 447-5080. There is a $10 charge for booth space this year. For those who have already reserved a booth space, their money can be taken by the Chamber of Commerce office any time during business hours Monday through Friday, Sept. 2-6 or it can be turned in to Mrs. Manuel on the day of Fun Fair. "We need all of you to come take part in Fun Fair. We need your help in making this a big success," said the chairman.

Skyrocket Boosters to Elect September 3

Skyrocket Booster Club will meet Tuesday, Sept. 3 at 8 p.m. in the Farm Bureau Hospitality Room, for their first meeting of the 1985-86 school year.

New officers will be elected and those present will discuss fund raising projects for the year.

They will also view the film of the Wellington-Crosbyton scrimmage, which will give football fans an idea of how much the boys have developed in size and quickness since the season ended in November 1984. Head coach James Williams will discuss the team.

Everyone interested in the team is invited to come said Mary Lou Souder, secretary during the last year. She pointed out that it is not necessary that a member have a boy on one of the Skyrocket teams, or even in school. This is an organization of home town people who are behind their team and believe in the ability and potential of the Skyrockets.

Elephants on the island of Sumatra are mad and they're not going to take it anymore. About a year after the government of Indonesia herded a group of elephants off to a preserve -- making room for human settlers and agricultural expansion -- herds of 50 or 60 elephants have begun daily rampages through their old grounds, terrorizing villagers, smashing homes and destroying crops. Traditional methods of dispersing the animals have failed.

NEGLECT

This highway began to decay the day that it ceased to be used and repaired. Deterioration sets in with the onset of neglect. When a nation's spiritual life is neglected there is a possibility that nation will not long endure. Let us strengthen our nation and our society by attending church regularly and reaffirming our faith in God.

"And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching." Hebrews 10:24, 25.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Library Planning Group Meets Area Rep.

The Library Planning Committee for the new joint county/school library met last week with Mary Kay Wells, System Coordinator for the Texas Panhandle Library System, of which the Collingsworth County Library is a member.

Ms. Wells works with public libraries across the Panhandle, and has extensive experience as a professional librarian in Alaska and Texas working with combined libraries.

She is currently working with a combined city/school library in Booker.

She discussed methods of governing a combined library, funding its operations, utilization of the library and physical plant requirements.

Ms. Wells told the planning committee that she would gather information such as charters, by-laws and contracts from other combined libraries for the committee's use in planning the new library here. There are currently five combined libraries in Texas.

She said that the committee needed to pin down what services the library would offer before facilities planning can begin with an architect.

Dr. Lawrence Ward also reported to the committee on a visit to the combined library in Olney, Texas.

Present were committee members Kirby Campbell, Betsy Lemons, Zook Thomas, Jamie Johnson and Lawrence Ward.

Probation of Wellington Man Revoked Thurs.

A hearing on the revocation of probation of Juan Jose Sanchez was held Thursday, Aug. 22 before Judge John T. Forbis of the 100th judicial district.

The probation was revoked and Sanchez was sentenced to serve three years in the Department of Corrections.

Bill Kester, 100th Judicial District adult probation officer, said Sanchez was originally placed on probation for a period of three years for burglary of a motor vehicle, which took place Feb. 27, 1984.

The subsequent offence for which Sanchez's probation was revoked was forgery, by altering the amount of a check given him for work done.

Kester said the check, given May 16, 1985, was for $5.00. It was altered to $75, Kester said.

Sanchez will be taken to Huntsville as soon as Sheriff John Rainey can arrange for transportation.

NEW 2157 2165

Superior grain yields with a good grazing bonus. Excellent straw strength, too!

Our researchers were impressed by the tremendous pasture production and grain yields from these new varieties during testing. And now that the varieties have stood the test of actual production on many farms under many conditions, the proof is in!

They grow off well and show strong resistance to SBMV, leaf rusts, fungal leaf blights, and the Hessian fly.

- New 2157 gives you good, early grazing, then stays with you through the winter. And the grain yields are right up there with anything you care to compare it against. Choose 2157 for dryland or limited water production.
- New 2165 works with your irrigation program to make the most of all you put into the crop. Pasture comes on strong in the fall and grain yields are among the best you'll find, bar none.

See your Pioneer dealer right away. He'll show you yield results and interesting new facts about the advantages of pure seed.

Few Booths Remain In Country Store

Several new features will be offered in Wellington at Satellite Center's Country Store during Collingsworth County Fair, according to Toni Wright, director.

"We still have a few booth spaces available Mrs. Wright said but predicted they will not last long," she said.

The country store will be open at the American Legion Building all day Friday, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., and on Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon.

Those wanting to prepare their booths and stock it may do so Thursday evening.

She reminded that this will be the only place where booths can be set up to sell items for personal profit. This means, she pointed out, that if an individual wants to sell an item which was exhibited in the community building, it must be done through a booth set up at the Fair. This also applies to those items at Fun Fair--that is if the sale is for personal profit.

To this point, arrangements have been made for food booths, woodcrafts, dolls, home made items, cosmetics, soft drinks.

But we want a lot more, said Mrs. Wright. We're open to people who make things at home, craftsmen, anyone who makes items can sell those items through the country store.

Those who want to set up a booth to take orders for crafts or other items may do so through a booth at Country Store."

Anyone wanting information as to the size of booths and the price of the rent should contact Mrs. Wright days 447-5436.

Band Parents Will Not Meet

Band Parents will not meet Monday, Sept. 2, according to Brenda Barton, who works with the organization.

This is the usual meeting night for the group, which supports and raises money for the three Wellington Bands.

Those with children in one of the bands are urged to watch for an announcement of the first meeting of the school year.
