Cage Is Indicted On Bribery

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)— BenJack Cage, promoter of the now-defunct ICT Insurance Co., was indicted today on charges that he bribed two former state insurance commission chairmen to get preferential treatment for ICT.

The chairmen, J. Byron Saunders and Garland A. Smith, along with Smith's son-in-law, Max Wayne Rychlik, were indicted on perjury charges.

Conviction on bribery charges carries a 2 to 5 year prison sentence while perjury is punishable by 2 to 10 years.

Dist. Atty. Les Procter hinted that Cage's two indictments on bribery were possible because his self-imposed exile to South America nullified the usual three-year statute of limitations for the charge.

Cage was indicted by the Dallas County grand jury in the spring on charges he embezzled $600,000 from ICT stockholders. Trial has been set for Oct. 21.

"Your work has been history making," Dist. Judge J. Harris Gardner told the grand jury which returned the six indictments to end a six-months investigation and house committees conducted lengthy probes.

Saunders, now vice president of a Dallas life insurance firm (Republic National Life) was named in two indictments alleging perjury. One four-count indictment concerned alleged false statements made to the house committee about a $7,000 oil lease transaction with Cage. The second indictment, of two counts, concerns statements about $900 in legal work Saunders said he did for Cage's firms.

Smith, who said recently his sole support was a Caldwell County farm bought under the state veterans land program, was accused on two counts of false testimony in one indictment. One count challenged statements he made to the house committee about $700 monthly payments received by his son-in-law from Cage interests. The other count concerned testimony in which he said such payments did not affect his official acts concerning the ICT.

Cage's bribery indictments alleged that he sought preferential treatment for ICT through the oil lease deal with Saunders and the payments to Smith's son-in-law.

Rychlik was named in one indictment of four counts—all concerning $18,000 in monthly checks he received from Cage enterprises.

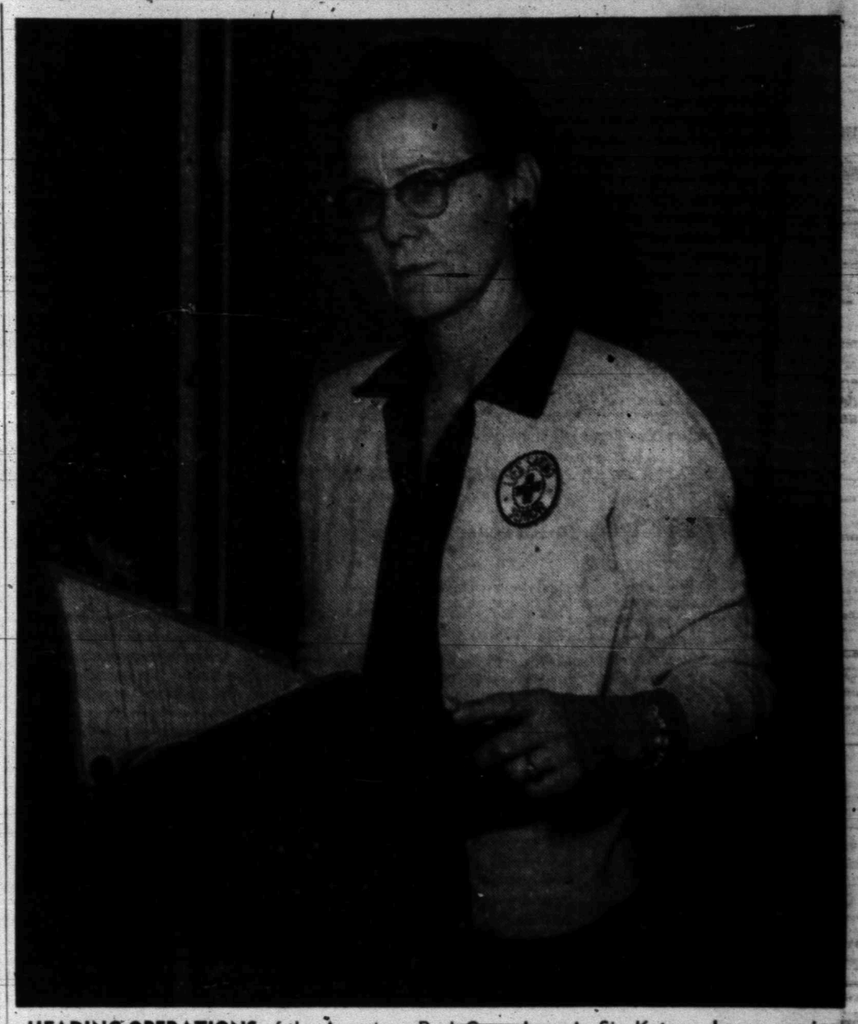

Both Saunders and Smith were appointees of former Gov. Allan Shivers. Their names figured frequently in the hotly contested reorganization of the State Insurance Commission which was finally approved by the 55th Legislature.

In the grand jury's final report is poted a "serious need" for still further insurance law revisions that would tighten restriction on insurance companies.

The present insurance code allows the state only to cancel a firm's license to operate if any of its provisions are violated.

The jury said that because of its concentration on the ICT investigation it was not able to complate investigations of possible violations of lobby activities in the legislature.

Control of lobbying and representation before state agencies are two announced subjects of the special session opening Oct. 14.

BUDGET OF $5,684

Red Cross Included In Drive

Well-known among the nine agencies which are a part of the Scurry County United Fund is the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross has for many years worked for aid to servicemen, aid to veterans, and to provide disaster relief.

In Scurry County, the Red Cross portion of the $38,934 United Fund budget this year is $5,684.

Heading local workers for the Red Cross is Sis Ketner, who serves as home service representative, surer of the Scurry County unit.

Home service units are maintained by the Red Cross throughout the U.S., many convering one county, some covering one, and some covering parts of counties.

In larger cities, the Red Cross has offices with fulltime staffs. There are also fulltime workers at military installations.

The local home service unit works under direction of the Midwestern area office, which is at St. Louis, Mo. Of the funds raised locally, a little more is sent to the national fund than is kept here, Mrs. Ketner said, but if funds are exhausted locally more are sent out by the national office.

The first concern of the American Red Cross normally is work in case of emergencies involving servicemen or their families, Mrs. Ketner said.

There are numerous ways in which the Red Cross works with servicemen or their dependents. Military services depend on the Red Cross to verify emergencies gency leaves, and this is done rapidly by Red Cross workers, usually home service representatives. Red Cross workers also help otify servicemen or their dependents in cases of emergencies.

Another service for servicemen is helping to investigate circumstances for those who must be released from the military service for hardship reasons.

The Red Cross works with servicemen and their dependents in There are special loan funds for servicemen to borrow in case of emergency or necessity. The Red Cross many times takes care of hospital and doctor bills for dependents of servicemen in hardship cases.

Mrs. Ketner said there are also many ways in which the Red Cross aids veterans.

Probably best known by most people is the Red Cross work in disasters. When disaster strikes in an area, such as in floods, tornadoes, earthquakes, explosions, or others, the Red Cross rushes workers to the scene.

At the disaster scene, the Red Cross furnishes the needed emergency aid, including medical care, food and clothing, temporary housing, helping families to locate lost members, and carrying out a rehabilitation program of helping the homeless rebuild their homes.

One nearby disaster which some local residents might remember was only a few years ago when a tornado hit part of San Angelo. Mrs. Ketner said a large number of local residents responded to a call for clothing, linens, and other needs, and she carried them to San Angelo.

There are many other items which are included in the Red Cross program at various times. Twice a Red Cross blood bank on wheels has been through Snyder, gathering donations of blood, both times during the Korean War.

SNYDER SPOTLIGHT

By WACIL McNAIR

The Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee plans to get a new series of farmer-business man events started during the coming week. These affairs proved to be popular last season when they were held in Hermleigh and Fluvanna. The next one is scheduled Thursday night in Gail.

The success of this type event proves all over again that people still like to visit whenever they can find the time for it. And it appears that the only way to find the time is to make it.

Fall weather continues to nudge into the picture, and at this writing weather forcasters see a new cool surge headed this way, which may arrive by the time this rolls through the press. However, if it's a "normal" fall, this area still has four more weeks before the first killing frost. So far the lowest reading here hs been 11 degrees above the freezing mark.

September could hardly be classed as a rainy month this year, but the showers had their effect on water consumption in Snyder. Colorado River Municipal Water District production figures showed that only about 57 million gallons of water went to customers here during the month, compared to some 82 million gallons during the month of August.

The Little Rock hassle has dominated the news scene for weeks, now, inspiring widespread comment, letters to the president and to members of congress: Gene Dulaney, local attorney was author of a letter that apparantly got widespread distribution. He has replies from Rep. George Mahon and Rep. Martin Dies agreeing with his staunch defense of states rights, and Mahon noted that he sent his copy to the president. Dulaney mailed one to the president himself, but he feared that it would get no farther than a third-string secretary. Perhaps the one Mahon sent will make it through to the chief executive.

There appears little doubt that the Little Rock situation is loaded with politics. After discussing the political aspects with several people, my prediction is that the two major parties will exchange sides. The Democratic Party will swerve to the conservative side, and the GOP will be the champion of the ultra liberals in the future. It's been that way before.

A few more Friday nights like that of last week should produce a boom for the aspirin and nerve medicine market. It was suspected all along, and now there is no doubt that Levelland did not come over here to lose a ball game.

Poles Stage More Riots

WARSAW, Oct. 5 (AP)—Communist riot police charged angry crowds in Constitution Square again tonight with tear gas and noise bombs in new disorders after two nights of student freedom uprisings.

The students, targets for beatings and bombings Thursday and Friday nights because they protested suppression of their paper Po Prostu, stayed off the streets tonight.

But their anger at government and party heads had spilled over into the general population. Crowds gathered in Constitution Square, scene of violent attacks on the students Friday night.

The riot squads moved into the square from their stations. The crowds picked up stones and bricks from wartime rubble areas and hurled them at the steel-helmeted police.

The police then charged with noise bombs and tear gas grenades. The crowd gave way, then reformed in defiant groups of about 50 each on one side of the square.

The students kept to their boarding-houses adjoining the school, after renewed warnings that all 6,000 might be expelled and new students enrolled if they kept up their resistance.

A banner still hung from the main student boarding house where police attacked the students three times Thursday night and again Friday night. The banner carried a two-word message: "Wolnosc Slowa." In English that means "Free Speech."

The riot police gathered early in anticipation of demonstrations after a quiet day.

New Rackets Probe Slated

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Senate rackets probers said today will start off their next round of hearings by looking into what they call the "antiunion activities" of some employers.

A central figure in the inquiry by the special Senate committee set up to investigate alleged improper activities in the labor-management field will be Nathan Shefferman, a Chicago consultant to employers on labor problems.

The hearings, scheduled to start Oct. 21, will mark somewhat of a shift in emphasis by the committee, which so far has focused its attention largely on union leaders.

Robert F. Kennedy, the committee's chief counsel, told newsmen that testimony will deal with "certain antiunion activities of employers who had retained Shefferman."

He referred specifically to what he described as efforts "to keep unions out of plants, or to bring in unions that would be friendly and make 'sweetheart' contracts."

Warm Weekend For State Is Predicted

By The Associated Press

It was warm all over Texas Saturday and the weather bureau said it was likely to stay that way through the weekend.

A cold front that had been expected to lower temperatures in the state bogged down across Colorado, Kansas and Arizona and will have little effect on Texas unless it builds up some steam.

However scattered showers were predicted for West and North Central Texas Sunday.

Afternoon temperatures were mostly in the 80s across the state.

Princess Has New Escort

LONDON, Sunday, Oct. 6 (AP)—Princess Alexandra, 20-year-old cousin of Queen Elizabeth II, today was romantically linked with a handsome jazz-loving British nobleman.

The Sunday Dispatch reported the pretty dark-haired princess is on holiday in Scotland with Lord O'Neill, 24, whose family owns a castle and a large estate in Northern Ireland.

They are staying at the Scottish home of Mrs. David Butler, sócialite and friend of the royal family. The princess's lady-in-waiting, Lady Moyra Hamilton, has been told she is "not needed in Scotland at present"—a sure sign that the holiday is an especially private one, the dispatch said.

Princess Alexandra, daughter of the Duchess of Kent, will be 21 on Christmas Day.

O'Neill is a friend of the princess' brother, the Duke of Kent, and has frequently visited the family home at Coppins, near London.

Actually visitors had started arriving many hours before.

Twenty-eight boys and girls from Shamrock, Tex., arrived in the first school bus to enter the fairgrounds at 5 p.m. yesterday.

Dallas Man Heading Back After Failure

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP)—Bill Wyatt of Dallas landed at Idlewild Airport today from Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island, Canada, where he called off plans for a solo nonstop flight from Galveston, Tex., to Rome.

The tanks of his 150-horsepower single-engine plane, a Mooney Mark 20, were still sealed when he landed at Idlewild. He said he still has enough gas to fly back to Texas.

He left Idlewild for a short flight to Teterboro, N.J., airport late this afternoon. The plane will be placed in a hangar there, and spend a few days in New York before returning to Texas, he said.

RADIO BEEPS HEARD

Baby Moon Difficult To Spot

NEW YORK, Oct. 5 (AP) — Russia's baby moon could escape the eyes of most people eagerly looking skyward around the world.

Save by lucky fluke, they couldn't see it unless they knew exactly where and when to look —with binoculars.

Giving the world that kind of timetable depends upon accurate tracking of the moon, to predict when it appears in your locality in suitable viewing circumstances. That would be dawn and dusk when the moon is low in the horizon.

Its radio beep-beep is a main hope that Russians or others can do this. They have to put together enough accurate "fixes" in time and place.

To detect her moon, Russia is betting mainly on a somewhat odd choice of radio signals from it. These signals could fade or be distorted, making it hard to pinpoint the exact location of the speeding Sputnik — Russian for earth satellite.

The longer Sputnik whirls, the better the chance of tracking her.

But her batteries might go dead before they reveal her path.

Or meteorites—bullet-speed bits of metal and stone—might knock them out as they rip through the moon.

Russia is also relying on 66 moonwatch teams of paid observers, scanning the skies along the initially-expected path of Sputnik.

The problem of wondering "where'd she go?" after you launch a moon prompted U. S. scientists to set up a triple method of observing, and then learning scientific details from her moons.

One is a picket fence of minitrack radio stations all along the 75th meridian. Our moons will broadcast on 108 megacycles, to penetrate through the earth's electrified belt in space without distortion. That chain is almost all in working order now.

But it can't find Sputnik. Russia had once been understood to have agreed to use the same frequency.

Instead she chose lower frequencies—20 and 40 megacycles—saying this would permit amateurs to help find and learn from Sputnik. The minitrack chain can't receive those frequencies.

American radio experts say these frequencies could fade or be bent in coming through the ionosphere, hence not give a precise location of the moon. It could be comparable to seeing the setting sun touching the horizon, when it is actually out of sight. Bending of light rays makes the sun still visible.

The United States organized 100 moonwatch teams here, 50 abroad. They can scan the sky along the expected orbit, perhaps find the moon if its battery went dead.

Third is a network—just getting started—of special camera telescopes.

These can zero in on the moon when its path is known, for invaluable knowledge. Slight variations in a moon's path will give information about the shape and size of the earth, its pull of gravity

Garage Is Damaged By Fire In Snyder

A fire of undetermined origin damaged a garage at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Williams in west Snyder about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

A tractor parked in the two-vehicle garage when the fire broke out was removed by Williams without damage to the tractor.

The building was damaged.

Dulles, Gromyko Announce 'Helpful Talks' On Mid East

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko announced after a long conference today that they had held "helpful" talks on major East-West issues including the Middle East and disarmament.

Dulles, it was further reported, brought up to Gromyko what he called the need for reunification of Germany but the Russian minister declined to talk about that problem on the ground that it was not a proper subject for him to discuss.

A communique jointly agreed on by Dulles and Gromyko at their unprecedented 3-hour, 45-minute conference in the study of Dulles' home said that four major topics were discussed. They were listed as the Middle East, disarmament, the situation in Europe, and U.S.-Soviet contacts.

Gromyko on emerging from Dulles' house and after a friendly farewell handshake from the secretary of state said that he thought the conversation "was useful" in clarifying the relative positions of the Washington and Moscow governments on the problems discussed.

Gromyko, who had arrived in Washington in early afternoon, drove up to Dulles' home in an exclusive Washington residential area at 4:02 p.m.

He was accompanied into the conference by Soviet Ambassador Georgi Zarubin and Oleg Troyanovski, an interpreter. Gromyko speaks English, having once served as ambassador here for several years, but apparently prefers to conduct official discussions through an interpreter.

State Department officials said Dulles' aides in the meeting were Burke Elbrick, assistant secretary of state for European affairs, and Edward L. Freers, director of the Office of Eastern European Affairs.

It was Gromyko's first trip to Washington in almost 10 years.

He said Russia's successful launching of the first man-made earth satellite was a great achievement. He told reporters that he would talk with Dulles about "some of the relations" between the Soviet Union and the United States but he doubted that the satellite would figure very much in the conversation.

Dulles was reported to have told aides he expected that four issues would dominate the talk — the Middle East, disarmament, German reunification and cultural exchanges between this country and Russia.

OIL ROUNDUP

Oilmen Hope For Big Winter Demand

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Crude oil producers hope a heavy winter demand will ease problems of oversupply.

The outlook is not too encouraging.

More heating oil is being held in storage than ever before. New highs have been recorded the past three weeks. The annual peak prior to start of heavy winter demand normally is not recorded until early November.

Cutbacks in crude oil production allowables for October were expected to drop domestic output this week to about 6,600,000 barrels a day, compared to a record 7,800,000 in late March.

The October allowables prompted immediate adjustments in plans of two major crude purchasers.

Magnolia, the Texas subsidiary of Socony-Mobile, ended pipeline proration in Texas and Louisiana because of allowable cutbacks in those states. Proration will continue in Oklahoma, New Mexico and Illinois.

Esso Standard reduced its Louisiana and Mississipi purchases 15 per cent in August. Esso said t hoped a heavy winter demand will permit its proration policies to be eased.

American Petroleum Institute statistics this week placed light fuel oil stocks at 169 million barrels, an increase of 7 million since a new all-time high was set the week of Sept. 13.

Allowable Average Increases Some

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Railroad Commission said today the total average calendar day oil allowable in Texas decreased 290,067 barrels daily during the past seven production days.

The calendar day allowable today was 2,927,389 barrels as compared to 3,217,436 last Saturday. In seven days, 327 oil wells were brought in, lifting the year total to 12,151 as compared to 12,706 last year. Thirty seven gas wells were completed to increase the year mark to 1,514 compared to 1,364. There were 188 dry holes.

Seventeen oil and three gas wells were completed in unproven territory, while 111 wildcats turned out dry. A total of 260 wells were plugged.

Two Wells Finaled In Sharon

Same operators' No. 9 Fuller, same section, pumped 44 barrels of oil and 12 per cent water daily from perforations at 1,667-1692 feet. Pay was fractured.

Probe Sought On Launching Of Satellite

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—A demand was heard today for a congressional investigation of why Red Russia beat the United States into the realm of space with an earth satellite.

It was voiced by Sen. Symington (D-Mo), long-time critic of Eisenhower administration policy in the military and scientific fields.

The Soviet feat also stirred the hot embers of rivalry between the armed services. Rumblings were heard from backers of the Army that if that branch of the service had charge of the satellite program, it could have beaten the Russians to the punch. The Navy has principal responsibility for the baby moon undertaking.

Meanwhile the White House insisted there was no race and that the Soviet satellite launching came as no surprise. Press secretary James C. Hagerty, who gave out this word, did not elaborate on his "no surprise" remark.

He said the event is "of course of great scientific interest" and should contribute much to the world's knowledge.

Symington said he would ask Chairman Russell (D-Ga) of the Senate Armed Services Committee to call in top defense officials and scientists for questioning.

Sen. Wiley (R-Wis), one of the few senators here in the capital, took a less alarming view of the latest Soviet surprise. "It's nothing to worry us," said Wiley, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee. "It's something to tell us to keep on our toes."

Sen. Mansfield (Mont), assistant Democratic leader, called the development "a major victory for the Soviet Union in the field of science."

Mansfield recalled that the Kremlin leaders also had announced successful firing of an intercontinental ballistic missile.

"This is additional proof that we must not underestimate the scientific skill and the technical know-how of the Soviet Union," he said.

At the Army's Redstone Arsenal in Huntsville, Ala., a scientist expressed belief that if the Army had been put in charge of it a couple of years ago it could have launched an earth satellite before the Russians did.

Solons At Special Session To Face Demands On Racial Issue

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The first called session of the 55th Legislature meets a week from Monday to write new water and lobby control laws. It also faces demands for more action to roadblock public school integration.

Gov. Price Daniel says he will not submit any integration matter until the lawmakers dispose of legislation included in his call for the special session. He said he then would be glad to talk with lawmakers who have such proposals, adding: "Nothing should be submitted until it has been thought out carefully."

Daniel has had numerous requests that he add anti-integration to the list of four topics for which he called the Oct. 14 special session.

Whether or not the governor bows to this pressure; there is bound to be an outbreak of state's rights oratory, Confederate Flag waving and a rash of resolutions growing out of the Little Rock federal-state conflict.

Daniel called the session for these four primary purposes:

Define and provide for registration of lobbyists, setting up procedures to regulate their activities and report on spending and sources of lobbying money.

Require registration of persons who appear before state agencies.

Create a crime study commission to report to the next regular session.

Create and finance a statewide water planning agency to work with local, state and federal agencies on flood control and water conservation.

The governor left the door open for possible additional subjects with these words:

"To consider and act on such other subjects and questions as the governor may submit from time to time."

One of these will not be taxation. Daniel has committed himself to that.

The last two special sessions passed tax bills. Both were called by Gov. Allan Shivers, in 1950 and 1954.

The 1950 session passed a tax bill for improved care of mental patients. The 1954 session placed new taxes for higher teachers and state workers pay.

Daniel called this session to complete the water conservation program he recommended at his first regular session as governor, and to write tough lobby and influence-peddling laws.

In past special sessions, the usual practice has been for governors to hold the legislators strictly to the specific subjects for which they were called; then let the bars down somewhat when those purposes were accomplished.

It is too early to say how strong the demand will be for more segregation laws. The regular session passed only two. Neither has been tested in court.

An East Texas bloc will meet at Palestine Monday at a session sponsored by the Anderson County White Citizens Council to discuss states' rights. The East Texas delegation pushed anti-integration bills in the regular session.

At least two proposals have already been put before Gov. Daniel for submission.

Rep. James Cotten of Weatherford has asked him to submit a plan which would give the governor power to close a school where breaches of the peace occur, or may occur.

Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas has suggested to Daniel that the "forced integration" problem be submitted. He thinks individual school districts should be given the right to close schools "besieged by troops."

Gov. Daniel Blasted By NAACP Official

CORPUS CHRISTI, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gov. Daniel has condoned mob violence in Texas by his "approval" of Gov. Orval Faubus' action in Arkansas, Dr. H. Boyd Hall, state president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said here tonight.

Hall said that statement would be part of his keynote address at the state NAACP convention in Longview, Nov. 1-3.

Hall said a plan of action and an attempt to raise ample funds for test court cases throughout segregated Texas school districts will be the main goals of this fall's meeting in Longview.

Hall said the NAACP expects will be passed by the next legislature.

Oldtimers In County Jail Are Released

Two longtime residents of the county jail were released from custody last week, according to Sheriff Earl Abercrombie.

One released yesterday, was James Edward Riley, 54, who had been in the jail since Feb. 1, 1956. The other, released earlier in the week, was Virgil Franklin of Rotan, who had been in the jail 153 days.

Both men had been jailed after conviction on liquor charges.

Riley was fined $1,000 and given two years in jail by a jury here after he had failed in appeal of in April, 1955, and he was jailed after he had failed in appeal of the case.

He was given time off after serving most of the sentence, and he was given 127 days credit on the fine. He paid the remainder, $647.50.

Franklin had been fined $778.50, including court costs, and was given 90 days in jail. He paid the remainder of the fine, $319.

Safe 'n Sound

By JOHN BOREN

This peeping tom killer you read about a while back who knocked on a door then shot the man when he came to the door, did a very foolish thing. He could have avoided a possible prison term or the electric chair by just running the man down with his car and getting by with a fine. In all seriousness, auto accidents happen too often and are taken too lightly. We think nothing of spending millions to fight diseases, but when an auto safety program is suggested we just smile. All the inflation in the world wouldn't make insurance rates higher if there were no accidents and insurance won't keep you from having accidents. So until we wake up an eliminate accidents you can at least make sure of your coverage by calling BOREN & WEST INSURANCE AGENCY 2607 Ave. S. Phone 3-6911.

If You Believe Legends, America Is Most Descovered New World On Record

By TOM HENSHAW
The Associated Press

If you can believe the legends, America must have been the most discovered new world on record by the time Christopher Columbus set foot on it.

Obscure and curious histories, covered with the dust of time, tell how the men of half a dozen primitive nations found this remarkable land beyond the sea.

There were Norse, Irish, Welsh —even Chinese and Arabs. The country must have been well on its way to the melting pot it later was to become.

Despite what is set down here, of course, there are those who will insist on celebrating Columbus Day next Saturday. Many will be pretty adamant about it. They may even question what they read here.

Even so, let's take a look at some of the fascinating accounts of what happened before 1492:

"He was blown about by the storm and he saw lands he did not expect to see and he found there self-sown fields of wheat and grapevines. . . ."

The writer, a 14th century scribe was telling the story of Leif Ericson and how, tossed by storm, he found a new land across the western sea and named it "Vinland" for the grapes that grew there.

The sagas of Iceland and Greenland are rich in the fancy of the medieval mind. Yet there is a ring of truth in the deeds and emotions of the thoroughly human people who live and die on their pages.

The sagas tell of Norse explorations and attempts to colonize Vinland and how they were foiled by the savage native Skrellings—"Dark men, and ugly, with unkempt hair on their heads."

There was Leif's brother, the tragic Thorvald, slain by Skrellings and buried on a Vinland cape "with a cross at my head and a cross at my feet and you shall call the cape Crossness." And it was done.

There was the heroic Thorfin Karlsefni, whose son Snorri was born in Vinland, but whose colony gave up after three stubborn years because "they would always live in terror and turmoil of those already living there."

One fascinating story, heavy in conjecture, about 14th century Norse wanderings in America has been woven around a strange tower in Newport, R.I., and a message in stone found in Kensington, Minn.

The Newport tower, a glowering stone structure on a hill overlooking the sea, quite possibly was a colonial grist mill, although what colonist built it and when is not known.

A more glamorous theory is that it was a fortified Norse church, the base for an ambitious expedition that reached the wilds of Minnesota 130 years before Columbus.

The Kensington stone, carved with angry Skrellings buzzing about, is theorized to be the last testament of that expedition as members awaited massacre without earthly hope deep in the heart of the unknown.

The message concludes with the moving plea:

"AVM (Ave Virgo Maria) save us from evil. . . . In the year of our Lord 1362."

Long before the Norse, other peoples were visiting the shores of America. At least they were in the world of fancy. One of the first was a Buddhist priest, Hoei-shin.

The Chinese yearbooks of the time tell of Hoei-shin's voyage in the year 499 to Fusang, a wonderful country 15,000 to 20,000 li east of Tahan.

The most wonderful thing about the place was the Fusang tree, whose bamboo-like shoots and red fruit were food and whose bark kept the civilized inhabitants of fusang in clothing and writing paper.

Strained theory has placed Fusang in California or Mexico — strained because of the value of the fifth century li in 20th century miles is uncertain and, besides, Tahan is about as easily locatable as the land of Oz.

There were Irish monks of an obscure Culdee order hiding on the fringes on Vinland when the Norse came, if you will believe a yarn spun around a collection of cavelike stone structures found in New England.

The Culdees, primitive Christians fleeing the pagan Vikings, established their community more than 500 years before Columbus, or so the story goes.

Mohammed was born in 570.

Hoffa Preparing For Hard Fight

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Oct. 5 (AP)—James R. Hoffa worked today to get rival Teamsters Union factions to close ranks and gird for a coming battle to avoid expulsion from the AFL-CIO.

Dave Beck, retiring union president, proposed a 10-million-dollar Teamsters battle fund to be ready for use against rival unions in the event the Teamsters are ousted from the parent labor body on corruption charges.

But Hoffa, now in full command of the 1½-million-member Teamsters organization, said he is opposed to Beck's plan and intends to work hard to keep the Teamsters inside the AFL-CIO family.

Hoffa was overwhelmingly elected by a 3-1 margn as Beck's successor by Teamster conventon delegates yestrday and actually s to take ovr from Bck on Oct. 15.

Plainly irked at Beck's proposal, Hoffa said the union never would "fire the first shot in a civil war in the American labor movement," and there would be time enough, when and if the Teamsters get booted out of the AFL-CIO, to plan then what retaliatory actions and funds may be necessary.

Beck, in his apparent open break with Hoffa, said he would propose the multimillion dollar fund at tonight's closing Teamsters convention session, where the principal remaining business is filling eight union vice-presidential posts.

Hoffa and Beck are deeply involved in scandals developed in Senate Rackets Committee hearings. Both have been labeled by the AFL-CIO's powerful Executive Council as corrupt and unfit to remain in organized labor.

Hoffa said he hopes to get the AFL-CIO to reverse its findings and withdraw a threat to suspend and later expel the Teamsters from AFL-CIO ranks.

But George Meany, AFL-CIO president, and fellow federation chiefs repeatedly have stated their determination to rid labor's ranks of corruption and to cooperate with the Senate Rackets Committee headed by Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.)

Frank W. Brewster, dumped by Hoffa as the Teamsters West Coast boss, meanwhile told newsmen he felt the Teamsters unit that opposed Hoffa's election would contimie to work against the new union president.

Brewster said it is a distinct possibility that if the AFL-CIO ousts the Teamsters the federation will set up a rival truck drivers organization.

"This thing is just starting," Brewster said. "It may lead to bloodshed."

Hoffa's election and other proceedings of the Teamsters convention are under challenge both by McClellan's committee and the courts. It is charged that selection of convention delegates was rigged to cinch Hoffa's election.

McClellan has subpoenaed all records of the convention Credentials Committee for an investigation as to the validity of the delegates' seating. And a New York rank-and-file Teamsters member group has challenged all convention actions on the same grounds.

Besides the challenge of the convention proceedings and the threat of AFL-CIO expulsion, Hoffa faces trial on federal wiretap charges in New York on Oct. 15 plus a scheduled arraignment the same day on perjury charges.

Virginia Racial Case Salted

By PAUL YOST

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Supreme Court opens a new term Monday to face sharply contested legal issues involving racial segregation and Communist activities.

The tribunal's nine justices head into the new term seemingly undisturbed by widespread criticisms of some of their recent decisions and silently aloof to personal attacks.

The court's docket indicates there could be more critical attacks in the coming nine-month term. Some of the cases awaiting action have a combined feature of great public interest and bitter controversy.

For instance, Virginia—with a state policy of "massive resistance" to school integration—has pending an appeal seeking to uphold its pupil placement act.

This law puts student assignment powers in the hands of a three-member state board. It was ruled unconstitutional by U. S. Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman of Norfolk in cases specifically affecting Norfolk and Newport News. After the U. S. Circuit Court in Richmond upheld Hoffman, school officials of the two cities and the state joined in appealing to the high tribunal.

The appeal said the case gave the Supreme Court an opportunity "to lead a large section of our country out of the chaos into which the Brown decision has plunged it." (The Brown decision was the high court's ruling against compulsory school segregation.)

Other appeals involving racial questions, on which the high court was asked to grant hearings, include one by segregationist John Kasper. He appealed from a one-year sentence for contempt, growing out of integration disorders at Clinton, Tenn., in August, 1956.

Another case to be heard is an appeal by four Houston Negroes who assert their union discriminated against them and favored white workers when the Texas and New Orleans Railroad made a work force reduction. The Negroes seek injunctions and $75,000 damages from union locals.

Also of interest are cases developing from the government drive against Communists and others alleged to have engaged in subversive activities.

Fraud Trial Being Heard

ATLANTA, Oct. 5 (AP)—The fraud trial of Eldridge Price continued yesterday in Federal Court after a denial of a defense motion that the case be moved near the Utah uranium lands that the Ballinger, Tex. man is charged with promoting.

Price and his wife, Edith, are charged with defrauding 36 persons, mostly Georgans, in Texas oil and Utah uranium deals. The trial is nearing the end of its fourth week.

Amid testimony seeking to prove that the lands might have proved profitable if mined, Price offered to move his own trial, bag and baggage, to Utah to inspect the uranium properties.

Judge Frank Hooper said he didn't think "it would be worthwhile to move the trial."

Testimony by government witnesses, testifying to personal losses totaling almost $400,000, ended Tuesday.

State Construction Drops During August

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Authorized construction in Texas dropped 14 per cent in August from the preceding month, but the Bureau of Business Research said today it was a "normal decline."

The construction index remained five per cent above last year. After price increases are taken into account, building construction authorized was about the same as in 1956.

The University of Texas bureau said gains were reported from metropolitan areas. Construction declined 21 per cent in August from July, but was up 12 per cent over last year.

Lutherans Will Merge

CHICAGO (AP) — Four Lutheran denominations have agreed tentatively on a joint docfrinal confession and several other basic matters in planning a four-way merger that will bring into being a new Lutheran church with nearly three million members.

Pretty Women Whistle At McAllen Motorists

MCALLEN, Tex. (AP) — Passing motorists are being whistled at by pretty young matrons on Mcallen street corners.

They're members of the David Crockett School "mothers patrol," and they're using the whistles like traffic patrolmen. The patrol was formed to see pupils across two busy intersections near the school.

Dr. R. A. Lindquist said the mothers will continue to whistle and take turns guiding children across the street morning and afternoon until the city can install traffic signals, promised in about six weeks.

Waco Rancher Dies

WACO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Guy Daughtrey, 83, rancher and member of a family that settled near Waco 95 years ago, died yesterday.

Found Shot To Death

PARIS, Tex., Oct. 5 (AP)—Dr. J. E. Armstrong, 80, was found shot to death at his home today. Suicide was ruled.

Satellite Is Heard In FW

FORT WORTH, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Soviet earth satellite was heard here last night on shortwave radio.

Max Schelper, Commissioner of the Convair Amateur Radio Club, picked up signals from the artificial moon at 9:34 and 11:04 p.m.

The Fort Worth Astronomical Society and Convair Recreation Assn. astronomy group were alerted to watch for the satelhte visually but had no success in spotting it.

Harry Winstead, ham radio operator, said he heard the artificial moon's double beep continuously last night and this morning at 14.001 megacycles.

Winstead said his receiver is also picking up signals which seem to be code coming from the device. He said this code must be temperature, speed and similar reports.

Three Sailors Killed

VALLEY LEE, Md., Oct. 5 (AP)—Three sailors from the Patuxent Naval Air Station were killed today in a highway crash near here. The victims, all airmen, were William Cook, 23, of Decatur, Ga.; Clarence Ray, 20, of Denison, Tex.; and Charles McGeary, 19, of Galesburg, Ill.

Crane Stamp To Go On Sale Nov. 22

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—The Post Office Department said today its new tri-colored whooping crane stamp will have first day sales Nov. 22 at Corpus Christi and New York.

The three-cent stamp, printed in blue, green and yellow, will depict two whooping cranes and their young. It will be the fourth in the wildlife conservation series. Whooping cranes, once numbering thousands, have dwindled to about 30 birds.

Corpus Christi was selected as one of the places to launch sales of the stamp because the whooping cranes spend their winters in the nearby protected coastal area.

Ike Pays Tribute To American Newsboys

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — President Eisenhower paid tribute today to American newsboys, saying that "Delivering papers has been part of the early chapters of some of America's greatest success stories."

Eisenhower addressed this statement to the newsboys:

"In appreciation of your faithful service to the public, your friends set aside one day each year in your honor. This year, on Saturday, Oct. 5th, I am happy to join them again in paying tribute to your enterprise."

The U. S. Air Force estimates it has about 1,000 planes in the air every minute of day and night.

Former Comrade Of Tito Gets Seven More Years In Prison

SREMSKA MITROVICA, Yugoslavia, Oct. 5 (AP)—Milovan Djilas, former vice president and wartime comrade-in-arms of President Tito, was sentenced today to seven more years in prison.

He was convicted of creating hostile propaganda against communism and the Yugoslav government abroad by writing and smuggling out of Yugoslavia his book, "The New Class."

The book, published in New York in August, depicts communism as a system in which the masses are exploited by a bureaucratic upper class.

Djilas, 46, already was serving a three-year prison sentence on charges of conspiring against the Yugoslav government. After a one-day closed trial, the five-man court, which included two judges, decided to link his previous sentence and today's into a new term of nine years. He could have received a maximum sentence of 20 years and has the right to appeal.

The government prosecutor charged "The New Class" was designed to harm Yugoslavia's reputation and undermine the country's Communist system.

Djilas, wearing a blue suit and marked by a prison pallor, told the court he stands by every word he wrote. He listened unmoved to the sentence.

The court also stripped the partisan fighter of all his war decorations, including the top Yugoslav honor of "People's Hero." That action was taken, the judges said, because Djilas had committed a grave fault against the cast of the revolution.

Djilas, once considered in Yugoslavia to be a leader ranking second only to Tito, was stripped of his Communist party offices in 1954 after writing articles critical of the ruling regime. These included slaps at wives of high ranking party members, whom he described as making up an "inner circle." He spoke out against the women in defending the pretty onetime actress wife of the army chief of staff, whom he said was being snubbed.

Rail Yards Are Planned

PARSONS, Kan., Oct. 5 (AP)—The Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad disclosed yesterday it will build major yards at Denison and Waco, Tex.

President William Deramus III said the yards are part of a general improvement program.

Deramus said the speed with which the improvements are accomplished will be determined by the road's earnings because all the outlays will be made from earnings.

Deramus reported progress on the Katy's general program of rehabilitation.

He said 625,000 new ties have been laid and 2,644 cars of ballast put down in recent months. Much of that work has geen done between Parsons and St. Louis and Parsons and Kansas City. Six new diesel engines will go into service in December at Parsons and Denison.

Miss Mooney's escort Fred Boone, 35, wasn't impressed by Chandler's story of the fly. A scuffle resulted.

Chandler was fined by Recorder's Judge Elvin L. Davenport.

Rainfall Conditions Suit Cotton Needs

Rainfall during the past two months has slacked off from the pace of the earlier part of the year, but that was more suited to farmers' needs here than dampness would be.

Farmers have been enjoying the warm, dry weather here, since that is helping the late cotton in this area to open. They are still hoping for a late frost so they can get as much top crop in the cotton as possible.

Even with the light rainfall during the past two months, there has still been more rain here so far this year than during the same period of any year since wet 1941.

So far this year, the rainfall totals 21.65 inches, compared to last year's 8.44 and the average of 16.24. The year 1950 came almost up to this year's figure by this time with 21.65. There was no rain during the last three months of 1950, however, and that was when the drought started here. By this time in 1941, there had been 33.09 inches.

September rainfall here totaled 1.38 inches, or below the average of 2.15. There was no rainfall in September last year. The previous year there was 1.59, and in 1954 there was none.

Ginning Over 600 Bales

Cotton ginning is on the increase in Snyder now, with more than 600 bales already ginned in Scurry County.

Ginning has picked up considerably, especially in view of the fact that most Scurry County farms have late cotton crops. By this time last week, there had been only about 150 bales ginned.

Reports were not available this weekend from gins at Dunn and China Grove, but ginning figures from the seven other gins in the county totaled 589 bales.

Ginners say they expect a sharper pickup in ginning within another week.

Leading the field was the Inadale gin with 110 bales, while there had been 106 bales ginned at Hermleigh, 85 at Ira, 91 at Fluvanna, 96 at Snyder Paymaster, 76 at Snyder Planters.

Farm Bureau Leaders To Talk Cotton Legislation

By TIM PARKER

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Cotton legislation to be sought from Congress in 1958 and 1959 will be discussed at an informal meeting of Farm Bureau leaders here Oct. 14-15.

The meeting is expected to attract Farm Bureau officials from cotton-growing states from Virginia to California as well as from the Deep South.

President Boswell Stevens of the Mississippi Farm Bureau Federation said the meeting would be entirely exploratory and no official action could be taken.

It is expected to result in some agreement on cotton legislation programs to be offered to the various state Farm Bureau conventions.

The Farm Bureau had hard going in the last Congress on cotton legislation.

The first measure backed by the bureau would have given cotton farmers an opportunity to choose between the present price support-acreage control program and one with lower supports but a 20 per cent boost in acreage.

The farmers would have made their choice at the same time they voted in the annual referendum on whether they wanted a cotton program at all.

After that bogged down, the Farm Bureau joined with Sen. Eastland (D-Miss) in a similar measure not tied to the Dec. 12 referendum. This bill was one of several pieces of legislation that died when Congress got embroiled in the civil rights fight.

Cotton exports and research are expected to get top attention at the Jackson meeting.

The Farm Bureau is happy about the export program, under which 7,670,000 bales went overseas on a competitive basis from the 1956-57 crop, compared with about two million bales from the previous crop year.

The cotton industry has had difficulty persuading Congress to help finance a research program in any comparable with the tremendous research work carried on by producers of synthetics.

Synthetics have, by research, moved toward nullifying some of cotton's natural advantages, such as absorption qualities.

Favorable Fall For Texas Agriculture

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 5 (AP)—Texas farmers and ranchers are entering the fall with the most favorable conditions in years, the Agricultural Extension Service said today.

"Generally, there is moisture for land preparation, planting and growth of fall and winter crops and for grass growth for livestock," Director John Hutchison said. "Some areas still need rain, but a lack of it means favorable harvest conditions, especially in the South Plains. Too much rain in the Gulf coast area has caused a delay and some loss to rice farmers."

Ranges are improving for livestock already in fair to good condition, and another cutting of hay is assured in many sections if the first frost date is normal, he added.

The harvest extends from finishing-up in South Central and Central Texas to full speed in North Texas and the far west, and beginning for the bumper crop of grain sorghum and cotton in the South Plains and Panhandle.

Vegetables in the winter Garden and Lower Rio Grande Valley are making good progress. The citrus harvest is on. General rains mean preparation of land for fall oats and other winter cover crops in nearly all South Texas counties and should insure winter grazing for livestock. Some freshly shorn sheep and goats in Medina and Uvalde counties were lost due to rain and cool temperatures.

South Plains topsoil is getting dry, but there is still some subsoil moisture for maturing cotton and sorghum.

It has been ideal in the Panhandle for late sorghum and cotton but it's getting dry for wheat and pastures. Cattle are in good condition.

In deep East Texas harvest weather has been ideal and moisture still is plentiful. More than half the cotton and corn has been harvested and peanuts are making normal yields. Oats are being seeded for winter pasture. Cattle are in excellent condition with marketing below normal.

Rice farmers in parts of the Gulf coast area are going into muddy fields to harvest after heavy rain and lodging. Combines with pickup reels will save some rice. The loss is estimated from 5 to 10 per cent. The moisture will bring up dry-planted crops and allow land preparation. Pastures are improving and cattle are in fair to good condition.

Light rains east of the Pecos in far West Texas improved surface moisture and have helped ranges. The sorghum and ensilage harvest is in full swing and small grains are planted with some up. Ranges and livestock are in fair to good shape.

North Texas conditions are excellent for small grain. Some acreage is up. Most cotton yields are good.

As the cotton harvest in Central Texas moves slow, land preparation is on for fall grain planting. Moisture has improved much in the Brownwood area. The peanut crop looks good, but the pecan crop looks light.

The Rolling Plains needs more moisture for planting small grain and for seedlings now up but making slow growth. The cotton harvest is increasing, with yields average or above. The sorghum harvest is in full swing.

Edwards Plateau ranges are improving for livestock now in fair to good condition. The cotton harvest moves along in Coke, San Saba and Taylor counties. Tom Green County pastures are dry.

Offshore Pipeline Nearing Completion

HOUSTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Marine Gathering Co. officials said today construction of a 25-mile pipeline linking three offshore platforms with an oil terminal at Grand Isle, La., is nearing completion.

Design capacity for the 12-inch main line is 31,000 barrels of crude and 46 million cubic feet of gas daily.

The Houston firm is building the main line and gathering system for the CATC Group, one of the largest of offshore operators along the Louisiana coast.

AFTER HARVEST

Farmers Utilizing Sorghum Residue

Several thousand acres of grain sorghums in this area are now being harvested, and the harvest will continue for several weeks.

Estimates are that there is about 85,000 acres or more of grain sorghum in the Upper Colorado Soil Conservation District, which covers Scurry and Borden Counties.

As the grain is combined, there is the problem of what to do with the stalks.

Many farmers here, especially in the Hermleigh area, for the past few years have been utilizing the crop residue by leaving it on the soil surface.

Some stop the growth of stalks, to conserve moisture, by using only a plow point on the lister bottom of the regular planting equipment. Others use shredders, which are relatively new to this section of the state, chopping up the heavy growth of sorghum stalks and weeds, leaving them on the surface.

Shredders have been used for several years in irrigated areas because they chop the stalk and make the next spring's cultivation easier. There is the disadvantage, however, that the shredded stalks might blow away. Sometimes it is necessary for the farmer to use mechanical equipment to intermingle the shredded stalks with the surface soil to prevent it from blowing.

Some farmers may choose to leave stalks satnding on the coarser soils through the blow season, then use a shredder or stalk cutter before listing the land.

By leaving the stalks on the surface, the farmer can reduce soil and water erosion, increasing the rate of water intake. Evaporation of moisture in the soil is also reduced, and organic matter is maintained.

A large number of farmers have already carried out this program this fall, and many acres of grain sorghum land can be seen with the stubble in the Hermleigh area now.

Bonham Will Close Shop For Rayburn

BONHAM, Oct. 5 (AP)—Sam Rayburn's home town will close shop Wednesday to honor him.

The occasion will be the dedication of the Sam Rayburn Library.

Former President Harry Truman and Secretary of the Treasury Robert Anderson, himself a Texan, will be here.

The library, a one-story concrete and steel structure faced with white Georgia marble, was built with $500,000 in contributions from individuals throughout the nation—including Fannin County school children who donated pennies and dimes.

The Chamber of Commerce voted to decorate the downtown business district. Merchants will close from 1 to 4 p.m. to allow full attendance at the 2:30 p.m. ceremonies.

Invitations have gone out to all Texas congressmen. Governors of Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona are expected.

The library will house books, papers and mementoes of Rayburn, a 44-year veteran of Congress who has been speaker of the House longer than any other person.

The library will contain upwards of 6,000 volumes.

Daniel Raps Look Article

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel has criticized Look magazine for publishing what he said were "mistakes" about dope peddling.

Daniel said yesterday the Oct. 15 issue was incorrect when it said:

1. Dallas is among the nation's 10 cities having "the severest narcotic problem."

2. "Contrary to popular belief, the dope-crazed fiend who commits crimes of sex and violence does not exist...another wrong idea about dope is that it wrecks the body and destroys the brain."

3. Combating the narcotics problem would be aided by the federal government making cheap drugs available to dope addicts.

Daniel said investigations by his Senate judciary subcommittee proved the statements incorrect.

Surgeons Separate Siamese Twin Girls

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 5 (AP)—Siamese twin girls were operated on and "successfully separated" here today, Children's Hospital announced.

It said a team of surgeons headed by Dr. Everett Koop had performed the operation to separate the girls born eight days ago in Rockville Centre, N. Y.

The girls, Pamela and Patricia Schultz, together weighed 13 pounds 7 ounces at the time of the operation. They were joined at the pelvis but each had a full complement of all vital organs operating independent of the other, the hospital said.

One of the girls, the hospital said, appears as near normal as possible while the other is suffering from a congenital heart lesion.

Razorbacks Down TCU In Loop Opener, 20-7

Stone, Nesbitt Lead Attack

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 5 (AP)—Arkansas rode the speed and power of halfback Donnie Stone and fullback Gerald Nesbitt to a 20-7 southwest conference football victory over Texas Christian here tonight before a capacity crowd of 37,000.

Arkansas, after a fumbling start, showed both poise and power in overcoming a tricky TCU team that last week upset Ohio State 18-14.

TCU halfbacks Jimmy Shofner and Marvin Lasater were outstanding playing against a lighter but superior line.

The Razorbacks emerged from the conference opener a real threat in the title race.

Both teams scored in the first period with Arkansas turning a TCU fumble on the Horned Frog 10 into a touchdown. Stone went over from inside the one and Nesbitt converted.

TCU matched the score on a 14-play drive that carried 65 yards on the spirited springs of Lasater who had a knack of floating inside the Arkansas secondary. Shofner scored the touchdown around end from seven yards out and fullback Jack Spikes kicked the point.

Arkansas getting superior blocking in the line, scored again in the second period and late in the fourth.

Nesbitt crossed the goal line from four yards out, ending an 8-play drive that had moved the ball 74 yards in the second. Stone's center line burst for 23 yards and again for 10 provided the momentum. Nesbitt converted.

Quarterback Don Christian, whose passing in the clutch oiled the Arkansas ground game, ran the third Razorback touchdown from the three. The point try by Nesbitt was wide.

Arkansas used quick kicks by Nesbitt, standing in his normal fullback position, to keep the Horned Frots off balance.

Rice Bombs Indians, 34-7

By MAX B. SKELTON

HOUSTON, Oct. 5 (AP) — King Hill, 204-pound three-sport letterman, scored one touchdown, passed 75 yards for another and setup a third on a 44-yard run tonight in leading the Rice Owls to a 34-7 intersectional football victory over the Stanford Indians.

Hill joined with Frank Ryan, another senior quarterback, in keeping the Rice offense running smoothly as the Owl defense stop offense cold until late in the final period.

Only a five-point favorite over the Pacific Coast Conference eleven that earlier had beaten San Jose and Northwestern, Rice rolled up an impressive 583-yards on the ground and through the air and saw a fumble and a pass interception stop two other serious scoring threats.

Rice scored on drives of 68, 77, 93, 65 and 70 yards. Stanford was unable to move beyond the Rice 35 until halfback Rick McMillen scored from the six to climax a 67-yard drive in the final period.

Fullback Raymond Chilton scored from the three in the first period for Rice and Hill hit end Buddy Dial for 75 yards and another in the second. Fullback David Kelley made it 21-0 at the half by plunging over from the two. In the final period, Hill rammed over from the 2 and Ryan hit halfback Monte Robicheaux with a 40-yard scoring pass.

Hill kicked four extra points but halfback Bill Bucek missed on John Bond converted for Stanford.

Louisiana Tigers Outlast Raiders

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

LUBBOCK, Tex., Oct. 5 (AP) — Billy Cannon shot down Texas Tech 19-14 tonight with two glittering runs, one for 97 yards, as Louisiana State administered the third straight defeat of the season to the Red Raiders.

The sensational sophomore from Baton Rouge, who has been demonstrating his 9.7 track ability on southern gridirons with four long runs for touchdowns in the last two games, first put Louisiana State ahead when he grabbed a pass and raced 50 yards with it for a score in the third period.

Then, when Texas Tech, piloted by its effervescent Jerry Bell, pulled back ahead 14-13, Cannon grabbed the kickoff and sped 97 yards to the touchdown that ruined Tech's dreams.

Tech had scored its first touchdowns of the season, the first on a 75-yard drive with Loyd Cole leading the way and the second when Bell skippered the team on a 73-yard jaunt that saw him bouncing over from two feet out. down was in the second period as Win Turner passed to Johnny Robinson for 10 yards.

Blue Devils Nudge Terps

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 5 (AP)—Duke's methodical Blue Devils, held to a one touchdown margin since early in the game, ground out a second score with only seven seconds left to defeat a stubborn Maryland team, 14-0 here today.

A crowd of 25,000 saw the Blue Devils rack up their third straight Atlantic Coast Conference victory.

The Blue Devils scored in 12 plays the first time they had the ball and it appeared they were off to another one-sided triumph. However, Duke's mistakes and Maryland's stubborn line forced the Blue Devils to go scoreless for two quarters.

North Carolina State Whips Clemson, 13-7

CLEMSON, S. C., Oct. 5 (AP)—Halfback Dick Christy breezed 97 yards for a touchdown with the opening kickoff to set North Carolina State on the road to its third Atlantic Coast Conference football victory, 13-7, against a rugged Clemson team here today.

Cougars Nip Cincinnati Team, 7-0

CINCINNATI, Oct. 5 (AP)—Houston's Cougars opened defense of the Missouri Valley Conference championship tonight eking out a 7-0 victory over Cincinnati.

Cincinnati's Bearcats stifled the Houston offense until deep in the final period when fleet halfback Harold Lewis gathered in a punt and raced 32 yards to the Bearcat 25, setting up the single score.

In five more plays, the Cougars sent halfback Claude King scampering around right end for five yards and the score. Sam Blount's conversion kick was good.

Cincinnati drove to the Cougar 18-yard-line in dying minutes of the game, but the threat was nipped when Billy Ray Dickey intercepted a pass.

Irish Romp By Hoosiers

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 5 (AP)—Notre Dame sent four different backs across Indiana's goal line and blanked the Hoosiers 26-0 today. The Irish have two victories in two starts, matching their successes in the school's worst-in-history season last year.

The Notre Dame defense, which stopped Purdue last week in a 12-0 Irish victory, held Indiana to 12 yards by rushing in the first half and 84 altogether. Notre Dame picked up 253 yards on the ground and 65 in the air.

Halfbacks Dick Lynch, Charles Lima and James Just and quarterback Bob Williams scored for the Irish on short runs. All are 190-pounders except Lynch, who is 180.

Nick Pietrosante, 210-pound fullback, didn't score but continued his hard running of the Purdue game and wound up with 47 yards in 11 carries. Lynch got 50 yards in 11 tries and Just 35 in five rushes.

Notre Dame drove 54 and 27 yards for the Lynch and Lima one yard touchdowns in the first quarter. Williams sneaked a foot for another in the second period in a 45-yard push that included a 14-yard pass from Frank Reynolds to Lynch. Just ran six yards for the last touchdown 12 seconds before the gun.

Sophomore Don White kicked two extra points.

Oregon State Wins, 22-13

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

EVANSTON, Ill., Oct. 5 (AP)—A flashing pair of halfbacks, Earhel Durden and Joe Francis, accounted for all of Oregon State's touchdowns today to lead the Pacific Coast Conference champions to a 22-13 victory over penalty-plagued Northwestern.

Oregon State piled up a 15-0 margin before Northwestern broke loose behind quarterback John Talley and halfback Ron Burton, sophomores from Delaware, Ohio, and Springfield, Ohio, respectively.

Talley speared another rookie, end Fred Williamson of Gary, Ind. for a 16-yard TD near the end of the second quarter. In the third period, Talley faked a hand-off to fullback Ed Quinn and lateraled to Burton. Burton raced 79 yards down the sideline to score, and Quinn added the point as Northwestern cut into the Beavers' edge 15-13.

After being stopped on the Northwestern 1-foot line late in the period, Oregon State clinched its third straight triumph of the season with a 58-yard thrust in six plays in the fourth quarter.

Oklahoma State Downs Wheatshockers, 26-0

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 5 (AP)—The Oklahoma State University Cowboys struck swiftly for a pair of touchdowns after recovery of fumbles and added two more on long distance dashes to humble the Wichita Wheatshockers 26-0 in Lewis Field today.

The pinpoint passing of quarterback Dave Cross and the deft receiving of halfback Jim Wiggins carried the Cowboys to a touchdown midway in the second period.

Wiggins snagged three straight passes from Cross after OSU recovered a fumble on its 48 yard line. Wiggins went over from two yards out to wrap up the Cowboy scoring thrust. John Jacobs kicked his first of two extra points.

Miami Upsets Baylor, 13-7

By GENE PLOWDEN

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 5 (AP)—Little back, sparked Miami's Hurricanes to a surprising 13 - 8 victory over Baylor tonight before 41,160 football fans in the Orange Bowl.

The Hurricanes struck for touchdowns in the first and second periods and fought off a late Baylor threat in the final period as the home team completely outplayed the Texans on the ground.

Curci, 5-foot 9 sophomore, pitched out to Capt. John Varone for 10 yards and Miami's first touchdown with 6:41 left in the first quarter, the drive carrying 63 yards in 10 plays. Varone converted to make it 7-0.

Ten Miami plays carried 59 yards and the Hurricanes scored again, this time Curci passing out to Varone on the eight yard line. Charles Horton blocked Varone's attempted conversion kick and Miami led, 13-0 at halftime.

Baylor's touchdown was set up when a blocked kick gave the Bears possession on Miami's 20. Doyle Traylor passed to Earl Miller for the score and Arthur Beall converted to make it Miami 13, Baylor 7, with 10:34 left in the third quarter.

Miami moved down to the Baylor 27 where the drive stalled and when Baylor couldn't advance, Miami took over and moved the ball to the Texans' 20 yard line as the game ended.

Miami rolled up 282 yards rushing while Baylor could gain only 10 on the ground. Baylor picked up 95 yards through the air in the first half. Miami rushed for 17 first downs during the battle while Baylor registered only nine. The Floridians outgained Baylor in all, 388 yards to 152.

SPORTS

Texas Longhorns Bow To Gamecocks

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—A veteran, alert South Carolina team capitalized on two skimpy punts by Texas to drive for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and an amazing come-from-behind 27-21 win here tonight.

Texas stacked up an impressive 21-7 lead going into the fourth quarter on the basis of two short touchdown heaves by versatile quarterback Walt Fondren and a 20-yard scamper by sophomore surprise Rene Ramirez.

But the Gamecocks fought back with six points on a 50-yard drive capped when shifty running Alex Hawkins wriggled in from the one. But the kick was blocked and some 38,500 fans in Memorial Stadium breathed a little easier.

The Gamecocks then shackled Texas and alternate quarterback Bobby Lackey's punt went straight up at the 43—only four yards. Two running plays put it on the 36 and Hawkins took a pitchback, swept wide and hit flashy King Dixon for a 36-yard scoring play. This time Hawkins' kick was good and the Steers lead was shaved to a 21-20 with eight minutes left.

Muzzling Texas again, Lackey was forced to punt. This time it went only 13 yards. Seven plays later the Gamecocks had scored and dealt Texas its first defeat under new coach Darrell Royal.

It was Hawkins again who climaxed the drive when he slammed into the line, darted to the right and sped in for an 18-yard scoring run.

Cardinals Rap Lions, 20-7

ROBY, Oct. 5 — The Hermleigh Cardinals evened up their season record here Friday night with a 20-7 victory over the Roby Lions in a non-conference game. The win was the second for the Cardinals against two losses and a tie.

Carllee Burleson led the Cardinals to victory with twotouchdowns. Orville Paty scored the other Card TC.

Burleson scored both of his touchdowns in the first quarter, going 10 yards for his first tally and 40 yards for the other.

Paty intercepted a Roby flat zone pass and galloped 30 yards for a touchdown in the fourth period.

Burleson added the points on runs after the first and third touchdowns.

Roby's lone touchdown came on a 70-yard pass play—Billy Simmons to Billy Moore, in the second quarter with Doug Pyburn adding the extra point.

ONE OF THREE—Jesse Ballew, Levelland end, is shown catching one of his three touchdown passes from quarterback Doug Cannon in Friday night's game with the Tigers. Coming over to protect on the pass but far too late are Jimmy Allen, No. 20, and Bud Morgan, No. 41. The three TD heaves weren't enough, though, as the Tigers outlasted the Lobos in an offensive thriller, 27-21. Note streamers from goal posts flying just above the football. (Lee Watson photograph)

Aggies Stampede Past Missouri Tigers 28-0

By SKIPPER PATRIC

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 5 (AP)—Texas A&M's magnificient Aggies made routine work out of Missouri's game but outmanned Tigers 28-0 today in an intersectional football game played before 26,250 fans.

It was the Texans' third victory of the season and their 13th successive game without a loss.

A&M, the nation's fifth ranked team, scored two touchdowns in the second quarter and two in the third.

Fullback Dick Gay leaped the last foot on a 69-yard drive for the first touchdown early in the second period. Sophomore quarterback Charles Milstead converted, just as he did on all four chances he had today.

The Aggies got their second touchdown on a six - yard pass from Milstead to halfback Roddy Osborne. That one climaxed a tr- yard drive and the Aggies led 14-0 at the half.

While the Texans had to grind hard for their first half touchdowns, they got the jobs done a bit more easily in the third period. Halfback Bobby Conrad ran back the second half kickoff 91 yards. The fourth and final touchdown, a six-yard pass from Osborne to end Bobby Marks, came with 11 minutes and eight seconds remaining in the third quarter.

Missouri's most serious scoring threat faded on the Aggies' 10 in the fourth period. A drive that started at mid-field stopped when Tiger end Dale Pidcock dropped a pass from Phil Snowden in the Aggie end zone. The Aggies recovered a fourth down Tiger fumble on the next play.

Rebels Halt Ford, Trim HSU By 34-7

UNIVERSITY, Miss., Oct. 5 (AP)—Mississippi bottled up Hardin-Simmons' passing ace Ken Ford today and staged surprise aerial fireworks of its own to crush the Cowboys from Abilene, Tex., 34-7.

With Billy Brewer and Raymond Brown doing the tossing and Ken Lovelace much of the catching, the Rebels stumbled only twice—at the start when Hardin-Simmons' Pete Hart became the first man to cross the Rebel goal line this year and in the second quarter when Ford's passing game came alive.

Lovelace, second string halfback, bowled over from the three in the first quarter for Mississippi's first score. It ended a march which was chiefly the work of Brewer.

Then Ford's passing game parkled. With long tosses to Joel Honeycutt, Dewey Bowling and Joe Sharp moving the Cowboys to mid-field where "Ole Miss" Charles Burke deflected a forward pass into the hands of teammate Jackie Simpson who ran 56 yards to score.

Also in the second, fullback Bill Hurst plunged from the one to score after Leroy Reed and Brown alternated to put the ball in scoring territory. Shortly before the half, Brown passed to George Gregory, fleet Birmingham soph who scored from the 13 to make it 27-7 at the half.

Britain Ends Ryder Cup Drouth

By TOM OCHILTREE

LINDRICK, England, Oct. 5 (AP)—Britain's reviled professional golfers won the Ryder Cup today for the first time in 24 years, crushing a polished U.S. team that stumbled off the course in shocked disbelief.

The final score read: Britain 7, United States 4. One match was halved.

In a great last ditch stand and counter attack, the British won six of today's eight singles matches to carry off the golfing upset of the century.

And these British pros, rising above years of frustration, really had to be good today, since they lost three of yesterday's four Scotch foursomes and left themselves only the dimmest chance of pulling the match out of the fire.

Here was the way the singles went:

Eric Brown, Scotland, defeated Tommy Bolt, Los Angeles, 4 and 3.

Peter Mills, England, downed Jackie Burke, Bellaire, Tex., 5 and 3.

Ken Bousfield, England, turned back Lionel Hebert, Lafayette, La. 4 and 3.

Dai Rees, Wales, blasted Ed Furgol, Miami Shores, Fla., 7 and 6.

Bernard Hunt, England, defeated Doug Ford, Mahopac, N.Y., 6 and 5.

Christy O'Connor, Ireland, conquered Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., 7 and 6.

After the British victory was assured, Fred Hawkins of El Paso, Tex., came in with the day's only American victory. He beat Peter Alliss, England, 2 and 1.

Then the two in the tailend match—Dick Mayer of La Jolla, Calif., and Harry Bradshaw, Ireland—came down to the 36th green and halved that hole and the match. They had seesawed all day.

Oklahoma Makes It No. 42, Win 40-14

By SAUL FELDMAN

NORMAN, Okla., Oct. 5 (AP)—A wobbly Oklahoma football team obviously off stride after a bout with the flu, caught a stubborn Iowa State eleven today. It wasn't until the late stages of the Big Eight Conference contest that the Sooners were able to finally pull away with a 40-14 victory.

Oklahoma, nation's No. 1 team, won its 42nd straight game but it was the Sooners' second team that showed the spark which marked the previous triumphs. The alternates made two late touchdowns.

It was the first time since 1951 a Cyclone team was able to score against the Sooners.

Both Iowa State touchdowns, one in the second quarter after Oklahoma led 19-0, and the second with less than a minute left in the game, were on passes by halfback Dwight Nichols.

He pitched the first to Gale Gibson for 18 yards and the second nine yards to end Brian Dennis.

Starting quarterback Carl Dodd made two of Oklahoma's six touchdowns with the others contributed by Clendon Thomas, David Baker, Jakie Sandefer and Bobby Boyd.

Sandefer's touchdown was on an 81-yard punt return.

Dodd also converted twice, and Baker and David Rolle each kicked an extra point.

The victory started Oklahoma toward a 10th straight Big Eight Conference title and made it 60 games in league play without a defeat.

Using a single wing, which it switched to this year, Iowa State kept close to Oklahoma on statistics and even held an edge at the half.

The sputting Sooner offense was held to 164 yards rushing while Iowa State made 137. The Cyclones led in passing, with 11 of 19 for 130 yards while Oklahoma completed 5 of 7 for 128 yards.

Hard running Pete Goeser, third string halfback, stepped into the limelight to carry 20 times for 63 yards to spark Iowa State's offense. Thomas was top rusher for Oklahoma with 61 yards.

Iowa State	0	7	0	7—14
Oklahoma	12	7	14	7—40

Oklahoma—Touchdowns: Dodd 2 (2, plunge; 9, run), Thomas (16, run), Sandefer (81, punt return), Boyd (1, plunge), Baker (1, plunge). Conversions: Dodd 2, Rolle, Baker.

Iowa State—Touchdowns: Ginbson (18, run-pass from Ninchols); Dennis (9, pass from Ninchols). Conversions: Carlson 1, Ginbson 1.

Gail Coyotes Stay Unbeaten

GAIL, Oct. 5—The Gail Coyotes remained undefeated here Friday night with a 39-12 victory over Loop in a Six-Man game.

The Coyotes controlled the game throughout, leading 19-0 at halftime and then coasting home with the triumph.

It was the fourth win in as many games for the Coyotes.

James Massengale and Ruben Vaugh led the Gail scoring parade with two touchdowns apiece. Raymond Walton and Charles Dodson each scored one TD to round out the scoring.

Massengale scored on runs of 40 and four yards, the former after picking up a blocked punt. Vaughn went 30 and six yards for his TD while Raymond Walton went 15 and Dodson caught a pass for eight yards from Jerry Reddel for their rouchdowns.

Vaughn kicked one conversion try for two additional points while Walton added a point on a run.

Bucks Bow To Eagles, 41-20

BRECKENRIDGE (AP) — Abilene struck for two quick lonegainers tonight and went on to whip Breckenridge 41-20.

The victory was the 41st straight for Abilene and brought the Class AAAA champion Eagles within two victories of the all-time record set by Hull-Daisetta before the war.

Chuck Colvin raced around left end for 81 yards and the first Abilene score. Less than two minutes later, Gervis Galbraith passed to Stanley Cozby for 59 yards and another Abilene score.

Breckenrdige came back with an 81-yard march, capped by a 27-yard scoring pass from Bobby Goswich to Ronnie Payne.

Joe Edd Pesch dived over from the 4 to cap another Breckenridge drive.

Abilene roared back with three successive scores. One came on a 35-yard pass from Freddie Martinez to Bob Swafford, one on a 3-yard crash by Bill Sides and another on a 10-yard drive by Sides.

Breckenridge scored its last touchdown on a one-yard buck by fullback Jimo Wilson.

The Eagles closed the game with a two-yard scoring buck by Sides.

Oklahoma University will meet Syracuse on the gridiron for the first time in 1962.

Eagles Two Games Away From Record

By The Associated Press

Abilene hopes to draw within one game of the all-time winning record this week as the Class AAAA defending champions play Lubbock in a feature game of Texas schoolboy football.

The Eagles ran their string to 41 straight last week in walloping Breckenridge, the Class AAA toughie, 41-20.

The record at which the Eagles are aiming is 43 straight set almost 20 years ago by Hull-Daisetta.

Only 10 undefeated, untied teams remain in Class AAAA as 3 districts enter conference play this week. Temple is one of the select circle but the Wildcats could run into a Yellow Jacket's nest Friday night. Temple is host to Cleburne, undefeated, once-tied and powerful team from Class AAA.

Amarillo, championship favorite in AAAA despite Abilene's continued surge, isn't active this week. The Golden Sandies were again impressive last week as they crushed a good Odessa team 35-0.

The upsets of Dallas Sunset, Denison, Corpus Christi Miller and Waco stood out in last week's plan. Sunset took a 19-6 licking from Dallas Bethlehem Thursday, was licked by Class AAA Greenville 13-7, Miller got a 14-0 trimming from Port Arthur and Waco was upended by hitherto muchly beaten San Angelo 26-20.

Austin's 40-0 victory over Victoria branded the Captol City team as one of the best in the Austin's 40-0 victory over victoria branded the Capitol City team as one of the best in the division.

In Class AAA this week, talk is thick about Graham, which won its third straight game by a big score. The West Texans smashed Comanche 92-0 in the most awesome show of power in the state. Thursday night Graham meets Fort Wurth orthN Side at Fort Worth and this should be another breeze.

The feature game of this class will match Kilgore, one of 17 undefeated, untied teams, with Palestine, unbeaten but tied.

Stubborn Maroons Overcome By Vols

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 5 (AP)—Tailback Bobby Gordon's 55-yard gallop with a Mississippi State kick gave Tennessee an uphill 14-9 victory over the Maroons today.

Hundreds of the crowd of 25,000 already had filed out of the stands when Gordon took halfback Gil Peterson's kick on the Tennessee 45, slipped through a horde of Maroons and dashed down the right sideline to score standing.

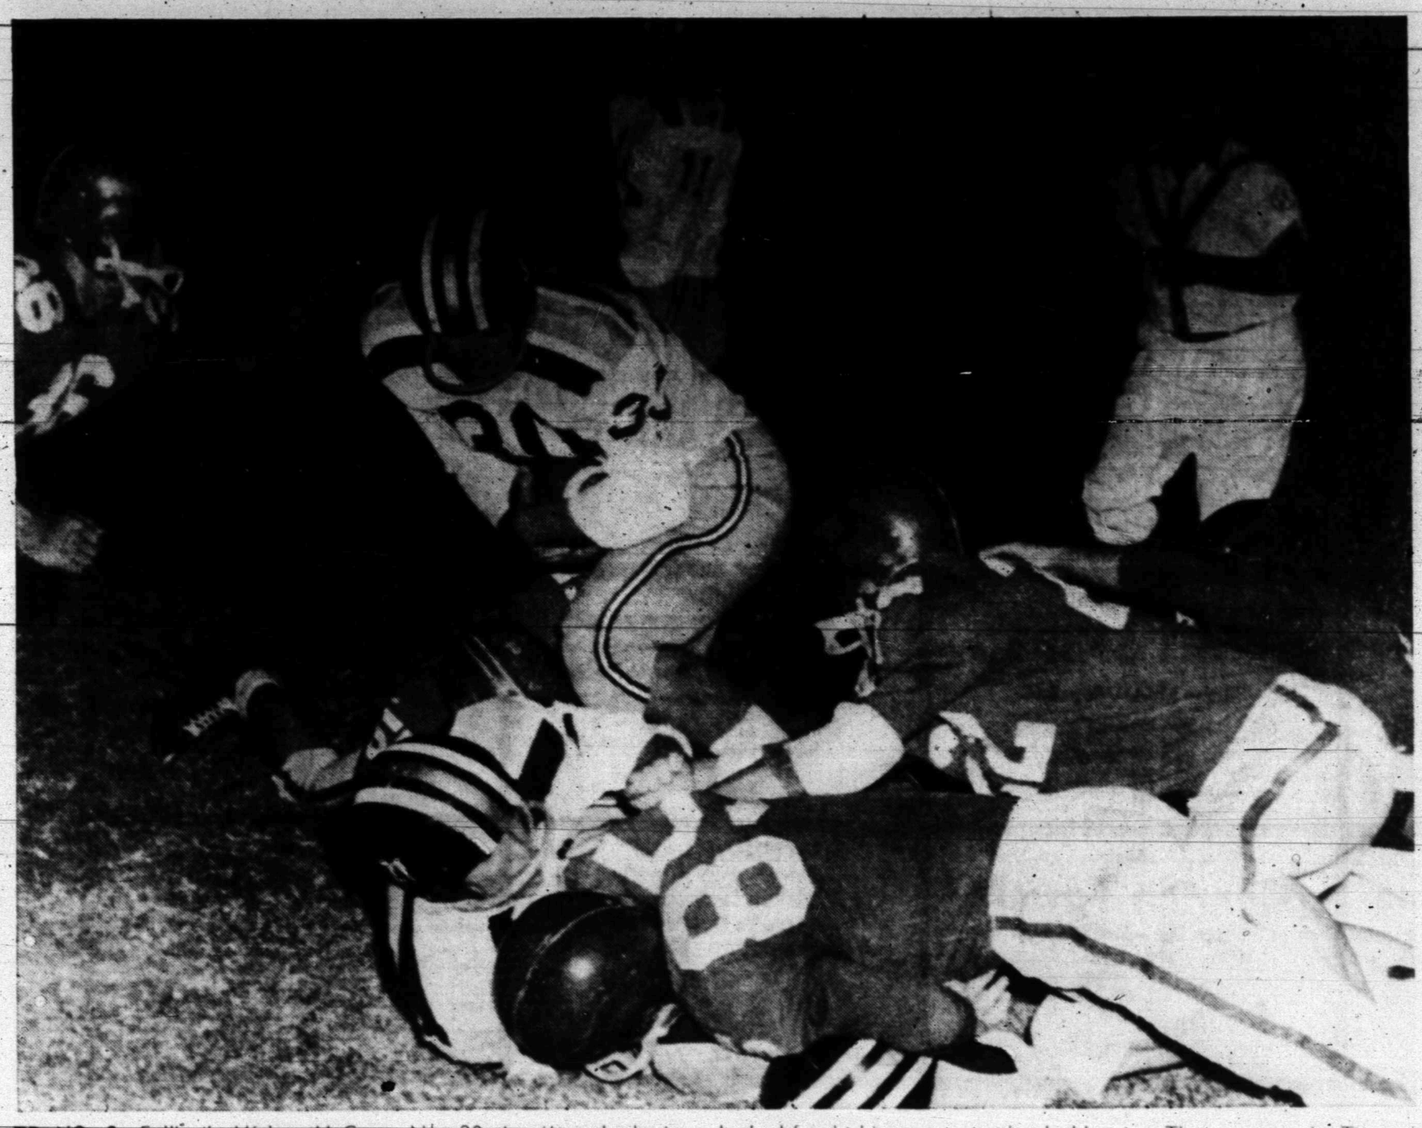

Tennessee was trailing 9-7 at the time and the Maroons, smartly directed by quarterback Billy Stacy, were more or less trying to play when Gordon set sail.

The Mississippians piled up a nine-point lead in the first half on Tackle Bobby Tribble's 15-yard field goal and fullback Molly Halbert's touchdown plunge from the 2.

TD NO. 2—Fullback Mickey McGrew, No. 30, is pictured plowing through a mess of would-be tacklers for three yards and the Tigers' second touchdown in Friday night's 27-21 victory over the Levelland Lobos at Tiger Stadium. Larry Tipton, No. 36, far left, holds out his hand as if telling Mickey to "Woe" but "The Tank" didn't oblige until he had fought his way across the doublestripe. The score put the Tigers ahead, 13-7, late in the second quarter. Richard Mahan, No. 11, Tiger quarterback, is shown in the background, while the only other identifiable Lobo is Jess Ballew, No. 85. Last Minute Score Brings Tigers 27-21 Win Over Lobos

5,000 Fans View Thrilling Tilt

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

In perhaps the most razzle-dazzle football game ever unreeled on the Tiger Stadium turf, the never-say-die Tigers battled their way to a thrilling 27-21 victory over the Levelland Lobos Friday night that left some 5,000 howling fans limp at the finish.

The lead changed hands no less than five times and the ultimate outcome was in doubt right down to the final gun.

The Tigers, with their backs to the wall after seeing Levelland take the lead, 21-20, with just 5:08 minutes left in the game, drove 55 yards following the ensuing kickoff for the winning touchdown.

When quarterback Richard Mahan sneaked over from the Lobo one yard line to climax the drive, only 1:35 minutes remained to be played in the game.

But the thrills and excitement weren't over. Levelland, with her dazzling passing attack, had the Tiger fans holding their breath in those dieing seconds of play.

Sophomore quarterback Doug Cannon, who fired three touchdown passes for the Lobos, was throwing away in those last second in a vain attempt to pull the game out.

Cannon connected with a 20-yard completion to Jerry Garrison that carried to the Lobo 46 with 45 seconds to play. But that is as far as the Lobos came to reaching paydirt.

The Lobos got off four more plays with three passes falling incomplete and another attempted pass being stopped before the passer, Bill McKenzie, could get it away, resulting in a nine-yard loss.

Both Open Fast

The Tigers and Lobos let it be known from the start of what was to follow. Each team scored the first time it has the ball and it was a scoring debacle the remaining distance.

With the exception of the first Tiger touchdown, everytime a team scored it took the lead. Here is the way the scoring went with the Tiger scores first: 0-7, 6-7, 13-7, 13-14, 20-14, 20-21 and 27-21.

Levelland took the opening kickoff back to their own 32 and proceeded to march 68 yards to paydirt in 12 plays. The payoff came on a 25-yard pass from Cannon to end Jesse Ballew, the same combination that clicked for all three Levelland touchdowns.

The touchdown pass on the first Lobo drive was the only play that covered more than 10 yards on the march.

Larry Tipton, whose toe almost brought the Lobos a victory, split the uprights and it was 7-0 Levelland after only 4:39 minutes of play.

The Tigers came right back to drive, 60 yards for their first touchdown following the kickoff.

The Tigers used 13 plays on the drive, and, like the Lobos on their first scoring drive, the only play that covered more than 10 yards was the payoff play.

James Vincent scooted wide around his left end for 15 yards for the TD. A timely block by Mahan took out the last Lobo defender at about the 10 and Vincent raced across easily.

Israel Hinojos, making his first appearance of the season, missed his only kick of the night for the extra point and the Lobos still led, 7-6, with 1:28 minutes left in the first quarter.

Tigers Take Lead

The Tigers took the lead for the first time late in the second period when fullback Mickey McGrew blasted over from the Lobo three to climax a 58-yard march. Runs of 18 yards by Bud Morgan, 19 by Mahan and 12 by Vincent featured the drive.

Hinojos this time booted the point for a 13-7 Tiger lead with 3:13 minutes left in the first half.

The Lobos struck back, just beating the halftime clock to score their second touchdown of the night to regain the lead. The payoff play was a 31-yard heave from Cannon to Ballew that came with just 14 seconds remaining in the first half.

When Tipton converted, the Lobos went to rest at the intermission holding a 14-13 lead.

Levelland moved to a first down on the Tiger six midway through the third quarter but failed to score. A 15-yard personal foul penalty pushed the Lobos back but the visitors got back to the Tiger 8 on an 18-yard screen pass from Cannon to McKenzie. On a fourth down try, Cannon hit Ballew in the end zone but Cannon this time was unable to hold on to the ball and the Tigers took over.

Mahan kicked the Tigers out of danger with a 41-yard boot. The Lobos lost the ball on the second play following the punt on a fumble. Cannon was jarred loose from the ball by a driving tackle by Morgan and guard Gene Williamson recovered for the Tigers at the Tiger 44.

From this point the Tigers matched to their third touchdown, using only six plays to cover the distance. A 13-yard run by McGrew and a 47-yard pass from Dick Hayes to Morgan put the ball in scoring position at the Lobo 24.

Hayes then broke off tackle and swept wide for the remaining 24 steps to the goal line and the Tigers once again took the lead. Hinojo's kick made it 20-14 with 46 seconds left in the third period.

The Lobos took the next kickoff back to their own 24 and drove 76 yards to their final touchdown, the tally coming with only 5:08 minutes left in the game.

A Cannon-to-Ballew pass combination capped the 18-play drive, Ballew snaring a 12-yard pass in the end zone to tie the count at 20-20. Tipton's kick once again was true and Levelland took the lead, 21-20.

Winning Marker

The Tigers, however, were not to be denied as they took Levelland's onside kick back to the 43 and from there paraded 55 yards to the winning touchdown.

Morgan, the Tigers' leading ground gainer with 77 yards in 14 trips, opened the winning drive with a 11-yard run to the Lobo 44. Hayes got nine and Mahan one for another first on the Levelland 34.

McGrew, on a third and four situation, made it another first on the Lobo 24. The drive almost bogged down here when the Bengals gained nine yards on the kept the drive going with a 4-yard power run up the middle for a Tiger first down on the Lobo 11.

Morgan broke through on the next play for 10 yards and a first on the one from where Mahan down. Hinojos had to kick the point twice before making it stick, as the Tigers were offside on the first attempt, the point completing the scoring.

Dickie Martin and Bill Phillips led the Tigers defensively with 10 and 9 tackles respectively.

Following Morgan in the ball carrying department was McGrew who had 72 yards in 14 carries. Lobos was the game's leading ground gainer with 110 yards in 24 attempts.

Yanks Pound Braves For 2-1 Series Lead

By JACK HAND

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 5 (AP) — Tony Kubek, a 20-year-old Milwaukee boy, ruined his home town's first World Series game today with two home runs in a sobering 12-3 New York Yankee victory over the Braves.

The rangy newcomer, who played five positions for the Yanks in his rookie year but hit only three homers in 127 games, drove in four runs with his two blasts into the right-field bleachers.

Mickey Mantle also deepened the gloom with his ninth series homer, a 400-foot drive into the bullpen after Kubek singled in the fourth inning.

Six Milwaukee pitchers, starting with Bob Buhl, eased the Yanks' way with 11 walks as New York took a 2-1 series lead by romping to this lopsided triumph in the third game of the best-of-seven competition.

It had been a cold, gray afternoon and the lights were burning through the heavy gloom when the 45,804 wandered out of County Stadium after the 3-hour, 18-minute marathon.

Henry Aaron whose two-run homer rekindled hopes in the fifth by making the score 7-3, left eight Braves on base. The National League homer and runs-batted-in champ failed with three on in the second and sixth and two on in the first.

Bob Turley was almost as ineffective as Buhl in this heralded duel of bullet-throwing righthanders. He walked four and allowed three hits before Casey Stengel brought in Don Larsen in the second.

Larsen pitched as though he were still throwing that perfect game of 1956. He blew down the first seven Braves he faced, running his two-year series string to 34 consecutive batters, before Johnny Logan hit a two-strike single to center in the fifth. Aaron then came along with his homer, but that was all.

The big fellow, whom his Yankee mates call Gooney Bird, wobbled briefly in the sixth when two singles and a walk loaded the bases but Jerry Lumpe threw out Aaron on a close play to snuff out the threat.

A total of 20 walks by the six Milwaukee pitchers and two Yanks set a series record. The old mark was 16, set by the Yankees and Giants, Oct. 2, 1936. However, the Yank staff walked 11 Dodgers just a year ago today in the longest nine-inning series game ever played — 3 hours and 29 minutes. Milwaukee's wild men passed 11 today and the Yanks gave up nine bases on balls.

The chill breeze and the top-heavy score drove many of the customers in search of the closest refreshment haven long before the final out.

Betty Jane Jones, Aubrey G. Spence Wed In Dallas Doublering Services

The Sudie George Chapel of the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas was the setting Friday evening at 8 o'clock for the wedding of Betty Jane Jones and Aubrey Gene Spence.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jones, Dallas, and granddaughter of Mrs. R. C. Grantham, 1311 Twenty-fifth Street, Snyder. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Spence, Irving.

Dr. John F. Anderson, Jr., pastor, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Charles F. Baker, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Dr. Travis Shelton who sang "Because," "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Jesse Andrew Jones. She wore a diamond white gown of imported Chantilly lace, beautifully combined with silk tulle. The molded bodice featured a portrait neckline which was daintily edged in natural lace scallops and overlaid with finely pleated silk tulle following the caplop design of the lace. The long lace sleeves tapered to petal points over her hands. An extremely bouffant skirt was created of multiple layers of lace and tulle, which cascaded down the front. The lace ruffles fell into a lace train of sweeping chapel length. Her finger tip veil of pure silk French illusion fell in tiers from a contoure cap of pleated tulle framed in an edge of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by a shower of white pompons and stephanotis.

Toni Bannister of Lubbock, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Martha Ann Haas of Opelousas, La., Lucia Dixon of San Angelo and Mrs. Bata McPherson Boyd of Snyder. Attendants were attired in American beauty red satin sheath dresses with contrasting pink cummerbunds. Their hats were of pink tulle of circular frame, decorated with American Beauty bows. American Beauty opera pumps completed their costumes.

Donna Beavers of Irving served as flower girl and Thomas Strayhorn of Snyder was ring bearer.

Eugene H. spence, father of the groom, served his son as best man. Groomsmen were Richard Spence, brother of the groom, Irving; Jerrel Jones, Dallas, and Gene Carleton of Dallas. Ushers were Bill Womack, Dallas, and Charles Bingham of Fort Worth.

Branched candelabras, flanked by wedding baskets of white stock and gladioli, completed the church decor.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlor. A centerpiece of stock and pink and white carnations under bells, graced the lace covered table holding a four tiered wedding cake. The white cake was adorned with pink rosebuds.

Miss Norma James and Sidney Miles presided at the refreshment table, with Mrs. Thomas Kirkpatrick registering guests.

When the couple left for a three day wedding trip to Fort Worth, Mrs. Spence was wearing a blue jacket of blue and brown wool plaid, lizard shoes and bag, and a brown velvet picture hat. Her corsage was the white orchid from her wedding bouquet. They will be at home at 5724½ Richmond, Dallas.

Mrs. Spence attended Southern Methodist University where she was a member of the Chi Omega Sorority. Spence attended Arlington State College and will be a June graduate of SMU Engineering School. He is affiliated with Sigma Tau, Chi Epsilon (Engineering Honoraries), and American Society of Civil Engineers.

Our-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. R. C. Grantham, Snyder; Mrs. David Strayhorn and son, Thomas; Mrs. W. H. Bannister, Lubbock, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grantham, Jr.

Parent-Teachers Organization Needs Support To Achieve High Standards

By KAYE POPE

Snyder Parent-Teacher Associations are planning a full year of activities, getting underway by a school of instruction held here last Thursday.

Many parents who have children in school have not participated in the work and services of the P-TA. If not, it is time for them to do so. Some think it is only a tea party for mothers, but it is quite the contrary and fathers are definitely included. Although socials are held, much importance is stressed on teachers, children and our community.

P-TA meetings give the parents an opportunity to become acquainted with their children's teachers. Have you ever stopped to consider the role teachers have played in your life—how they have figured in the shaping of your ideas, interests and convictions?

Next to parents, no one deals more intimately than teachers with a youngster's talents and deficiencies, failures and achievements during the crucial, formative early years. We look to our schools with great expectation. We look particularly to teachers for the wise education and training of literate, productive, and freedom-loving citizens.

Education needs the support and guidance of all those whose lives are enriched by it and whose futures depend upon it.

Never have we as a nation or as a people been confronted with more things which need to be done well. No age has ever demanded more wisdom, more loyalty, and more uncommon men, willing and able to accept responsibility, than does this one.

About one-fifth of our total population is in elementary or secondary schools. Each of these youngsters will spend about 12 per cent of his waking hours in the presence of a teacher, as many as sixty teachers—before receiving a high school diploma.

How well our children will do tomorrow, what kind of a living and life they will make for themselves, will depend largely upon how often and how much each citizen pitches in to help our teachers, parents and children, willingly, eagerly and often on problems in every community of the nation.

Some parents send their children off to school, hoping for the best, but hardly aware of what—and how much—is being done to enrich their children's lives. These people picture the teacher as a convenient guardian and tutor, who relieves them of child-care chores for a few hours each day. They are grateful for these small favors but take little further interest in the purpose, value and problems of education.

It should not have to be the problems of the teachers and a few of the parents to help each youngster evaluate the interests and skills he has developed through learning and experience. If EVERY parents would help bring the community into the school in a way of enriching the learning process by showing interest and attending your P-TA meetings, the children as well as the parents would be benefactors. Help your schools, your children and your community by joining your local P-TA.

Dr. Hamblen Speaker For Suburban Club

The Suburban Study Club met Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Martha Ann Woman's Club with Mrs. Bruce Denny, hostess.

The scenes of Holland were very colorful, with rows and rows of tulips, hyacinths, and other flowering blubs in full bloom.

The Dutch farmer cuts his flowers, loads them on a barge, and takes them down a canal to a huge sale barn where they are auctioned off to buyers from various countries, then shipped out the same evening.

Mrs. J. D. Richardson, club president; led the business meeting. Mrs. H. B. Lane, international affairs chairman, suggested some means by which the women might keep well informed as citizens, on international affairs.

ANN MURPHY CLARE—Boss of Saratoga Springs race track looks over her domain.

Woman Runs Race Track

By EARL ARONSON

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP) — The only woman superintendent of a major thoroughbred track in this country was answering the telephone, opening her mail and giving an interview, virtually at the same time.

Mrs. Ann Murphy Clare, who has loved horses since she was 5, looks more like the striking, determined matron you'd see presiding at a music or literary club meeting.

She supervises the efforts of 75 men and one other woman, her secretary, Mrs. Daisy Eaby, whose late first husband was jockey Buddy Eaby.

Mrs. Clare took over as superintendent when her husband, Tom, died in 1940. She gets up at about 6:30 most mornings. You're likely to find her near the barn at that hour, exchanging first-name greetings with owners, trainers and exercisers, or watching a horse working out. But come 7 a.m. she goes to mass in the nearby Catholic church.

She grew up in a convent.

"I love every minute of it and I wouldn't want to be doing anything else," says the attractive, graying woman. "We try to keep Saratoga a chummy track. I like people to be smiling around here — even if they lose.

"Working with a lot of men doesn't bother me. I was brought up with five brothers."

One brother, Joseph, is with Saratoga's mutuel department. Another, William, is a placing judge and a nephew, Francis Muprhy, is her foreman.

It wasn't difficult taking over the job her husband held for 18 years. Her husband kept a track diary, which she has continued. She had attended to much of the letter writing as his secretary.

"I go at top speed all day," she says, "and when I get home it generally is more of the same. "Can I cook?" She seemed genuinely surprised by the question. "If you can read you can cook these days. And I can darn socks, too."

Dip chunks of pineapple (fresh, frozen or canned) in a fritter batter and deep-fat fry. Sprinkle with confectioners' sugar and serve at once. Delicious with roast fowl or as a dessert.

25 YEARS AGO

A group of Snyder businessmen, representing the Chamber of Commerce and the Red Cross, determined Friday evening that Scurry County should ask for $3,000 of the unemployment relief fund of $300,000,000 recently authorized by the federal government.

A. C. Preuitt, Harrie Winston, Walla D. Fish and G. H. Brown represented the local post of the American Legion at a meeting of post commanders, adjutants and service officers of the various posts of the 16th, 17th and 18th districts, which was held at Abilene Sunday.

Three hundred and seventy-six of the votes cast in the recent runoff primary election in Scurry County were illegal, according to allegations of Mrs. Miriam A. If the first inning of the Times presidential straw vote will determine the final score in Scurry County, Mr. Herbert Hoover must look to greener pastures for his reelection hope. Trend Is Toward More Women Serving On The Federal Level

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt once said that women who go into politics have to be willing to "stand up and be shot at."

Most women who have battled their way to the top in this field, long dominated by men, would say the same thing.

Despite this hurdle, Miss Bertha Adkins, assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee, has announced there are more women in public offices now than ever before in this country's history. And, she adds, the trend is toward still more.

"We are gratified there are more women serving and the variety of jobs increasing," Miss Adkins said, "but we recognize the need to get more into public service."

Combining responsibility at home and holding a public service position doubles the challenge for a woman, she added.

"It is also true that the minute you become a candidate you become a vocal point for all kinds of publicity, good and bad," she explained. "I would remind women candidates they are the symbol of the opposition and are going to be the butt of criticism. This is just as true with the men, but women are more sensitive to criticism in general than men."

In "Women in the Public Service," a series of surveys compiled by the Women's Division of the Republican National Committee, of which Miss Adkins is also director, some 576,000 women are listed in federal government service as compared with 80,000 in 1923, when official government reports were first issued.

"As far as women appointees in this administration are concerned," Miss Adkins said, "we are gratified we have as many as we have, 134. We are always trying to get more appointments on the federal level. But it is not easy to get women of experience capable of top policy positions who are willing to make the sacrifice to come here."

Many women who have reached the top find they cannot afford to give up the retirement and security benefits accrued in private business, nor to divest themselves of investments as required under the "conflict of interests" law governing federal appointees.

Miss Daugherty teaches English and misic in Joshi Gakuin, Tokyo, Japan, a girl's high school under the direction of the Protestant church in Japan.

Like many other teachers, her extra-curricular activities equal her regular duties. Open House To Be Held By Texas Tech Horticulture Mgr.

If you like to grow chrysanthemums or petunias or just like to view them, you have a speical invitation to visit the Texas Tech horiculture open house sometime during the weekends of Oct. 12-13 or Oct. 19-20.

The horticulture greenhouse and trial areas will be open to the public during this time, Edward Zukauckas, assistant professor of horticulture and greenhouse manager, has announced. Most of the mums will be in full bloom in mid-October.

"We have 95 new untested varieties of chrysanthemums to be seen this year and well over 200 varieties in all the trial areas," he said.

Guides will be available for groups of flower enthusiasts who will have an opportunity to compare the end results of cuttings from grown plants, seedlings and plants grown by division of roots, Zukauckas said.

Within the trial plots, those interested in growing mums will see some beautiful plants and ing the difference in poor transplanting techniques and poor timing in planting, he pointed out.

"Earlier varieties of mums are showing better quality this year," Zukauckas said, "so we will have some new varieties to recommend planting and some older varieties that we may suggest discarding."

Petunitas are still blooming at Tech's trial plots. The horticulture and park management department is growing next year's All-American variety, selection, the Petunia Maytime.

The Tech department has a special interest in petunias. Practically three quarters of all varieties of petunias have been developed from the Tech veloped by Charles Weddle, of Pan American Seeds, Inc., a 1936 Tech graduate.

The chrysanthemum trial plots and greenhouse are located on the first road to the left as a person enters the Tech campus from the Boston street entrance.

Ambassador Has Social Secretary

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON — The social secretary is a luxury for an ambassador and his family, says Mrs. Tom Burke — but a necessary one. Mrs. Burke has just taken a job with Argentine Ambassador and Mrs. Mauricio Luis Yadarola.

Social life in this nation's capital needs a special interpretation, says the Chilean-born wife of a former State Department official.

"Protocol is rather elastic here as compared with the restricted social customs of other capital cities, like Buenos Aires, London, or Rome.

"Any person, even a newcomer, who has money and the ability to entertain can make the grade. In other places, before you make the grade, such attributes as family background, talent, and education are considered. Washington is different in this respect even from New York, Boston, San Francisco and Pittsburgh."

Mrs. Burke, a talented hostess and musician, who was educated in France and speaks French and her native Spanish fluently, has lived in the capital 23 years. She has been active in promoting good feeling and knowledge among women's organizations of North and South America and is now serving her third term as president of the Pan American Liaison Committee, of Women's Organizations. This is her first job as a social secretary.

"A first precept of the social secretary is to keep the ambassadorial family informed of the diplomatic ways of arranging life here," she told me. "Having been the wife of a State Department man so long helps. The job calls on you to instruct or help or advise on calling procedures, on different arrangements involved in arranging receptions, dinners and other functions, whom to accept as guests and whom not to accept, as well as the recognized protocol."

The likeable Yadarolas, who have seven children and 16 grandchildren, are accompanied by their two attractive younger daughters, Maria Cristina, 18, and Angelica, 21, both of whom have teacher's degrees. Their four sisters are all married to army men, and their brother is a lawyer in the ambassador's law firm.

Mrs. Yadarola speaks no English. The ambassador is perfecting his, and his two daughters are assiduously learning their A B C's by attending a language school daily with him.

After their lessons the girls visit with Mrs. Burke to chat for an hour in English. Sometimes the ambassador joins them.

Burglar Is Really Messy Housekeeper

BURBANK, Calif. (AP)—Jack Reimer says the burglar who broke into his house certainly was a lousy housekeeper.

When Reimer returned from a recent vacation he found the sink stacked with dirty dishes, beds unmade and food spilled on the floor. Whoever broke into the house didn't take anything, just ate and slept, Reimer said, "But he was a real slob."

DECORATE WITH PLASTIC

New Homes—New All Over

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeaturew Writer

If your new home doesn't look different from your neighbor's, then it is your own fault. New treatments of walls, ceilings, windows and floors now are availabe so that your home can become a conversation piece.

Plastic is now at home with elegance, and is offering all the advantages of utilitarian living in a smart atmosphere. Take formica, for instance. It was successful in kitchens as counter tops for long years, but has now moved on throughout the house, including the stair well.

It is being used on walls and may be installed on the job for the first time, applied to concrete, masonite, plaster. Heretofore it had other materials, measured exactly to the space planned for it and the job done in a factory.

One of the most effective treatments is done in inter-random choice of 17 colors may be used in block form as in a nursery. In a new house the material may be put right over half-inch plywood nailed to the studs.

A dramatic foyer treatment shown recenty involves using a vinyl flooring in a bold design of beige and black, and then matching this treatment to a formica door also done in beige, black and cocoa. Walls are in pale birch formica. The plastic travels from the walls right up the stair well, as it may be molded with no seams showing to mar the appearance of the walls.

The effects to be had are limitless in this and other plastics. Custom designs permit silk screen painting on the formica with special ink. The surface remains impervious to scratching and staining and maintains its easy cleanability.

Wood tones and effects present the newest look in home decor. If one does not have true wood paneling, the idea is presented in another way—with wood-toned wall papers, plastic paneling or plastic-coated hardboard.

Color schemes that seem to do particularly well to the laminated plastic include one shown in a handsome living room—fruitwood plastic room divider with white, citron and black furnishings and accessories. A kitchen combines bronze-hued cabinets with yellow laminated plastic and white vinyl tile floor. Another combination of colors used in a living room involves a painted brick floor in blue tones from cerulean to larkspur punctuated with strong green.

Pinks and reds are used in a nursery with walls a combination of both in laminated plastic.

Old Play, New Title

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Shanghai Gesture," one of Broadway's most lurid hits form way back in 1926, is being prepared for return to the White Way, decked out in musical trappings. The new version has been titled "The Golden Lotus." Robert Payne, poet and novelist is doing the book, with Arnold Sundgaard preparing the lyrics and Dai K. Lee the music.

Reds Win Propaganda Victory

By JOHN M. HIGTHOWER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—Russia scored a smashing propaganda and psychological victory over the United States with its successful launching of history's first earth satellite.

Coming within a few weeks after Russia's announcement of firing an intercontinental missile, the new achievement should go far toward convincing people all over the world that Russia has emerged as a first class military power in the age of missiles and atomic weapons and that it is seriously challenging the leadership of the United States.

Whether this is literally true in the sense that the Soviets have large numbers of the most modern weapons in combat readiness may be debated. But the point is that the Soviets have been waging a campaign to convince people in other nations—as in Western Europe and the Middle East—that it is true.

To the extent that they implant that conviction, they enhance their prestige, strengthen their diplomacy and enlarge their capability to threaten and intimidate other countries as they choose.

These are some of the dismal conclusions which are emergir in Washington as government officials debate the facts and try to measure their significance.

Meanwhile, the White House in its public comment played down the military-political implications of the Russian feat. Press secretary James C. Hagerty contented himself with saying the event was of great scientific interest and "should contribute much to scientific knowledge that all countries are seeking to gain for the world . . ."

Hagerty said the Russian satellite came as no surprise to President Eisenhower and other officials, but did not explain this remark.

He also said this country had never thought of its satellite program "as one which was in a race with the Soviet's."

Yet there was no denial that the Soviets had scored the jump and reports to the State Department from abroad made it quite clear that other nations were deeply impressed by this concrete evidence of the Soviet government's ability to get results in a field requiring highly coordinated scientific, engineering and industrial efforts.

For example, the Sovet ICBM launching deeply impressed the power-conscious Arab governments of the Middle East at a critical moment. Syria, taking heavy deliveries of Soviet arms, had shortly before carried through a pro-Soviet shakeup. Lebanon and Jordan were deeply worried about the stability of their governments.

The stallite launching authorities here agreed today, must certainly be expected to make a comparable imprint on the minds of peoples all over the world—an impression which will not be removed by soothing assurances from Washington that the development came as no surprise and the United States was not engaged in a race with the Soviet Union.

Auto Overturns

NORTH ZULCH, Tex., Oct. 5 (AP)—Harry Swayze, 27, of Denton, Miss., a rodman for the Coastal Engineering Survey Co. of San Antonio, was killed yesterday when his car overturned near this Central Texas town.

Interagation Data May Be Released

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5 (AP)—A White House spokesman said today the administration is considering whether to make public certain information that played a part in President Eisenhower's decision to send federal troops into Little Rock, Ark.

White House press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen the Justice Department is studying the question of releasing the information from its files on the school integration dispute in the Arkansas city.

Hagerty said the data was given to Eisenhower before he decided to use federal troops to enforce court orders requiring integration of Little Rock's Central High School.

Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) and Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland have urged the disclosure of information the government has kept secret concerning events at Little Rock. McKeldin, a Republican, was one of four Southern governors who earlier this week made a fruitless effort to mediate the federal-state dispute.

Hagerty stressed that the information the Justice Department is thinking of releasing does not include an FBI report furnished to U.S. Dist. Judge Ronald N. Davies, who ordered integration at Central High.

Judge Davies asked for that report before he ordered Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas to withdraw National Guardsmen from Central High where they had blocked Negro students from entering. Eisenhower later federalized the Arkansas National Guard and sent in regular troops to make sure the Negro children were not prevented from going to classes at the school.

Water Conference To Open Tomorrow

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel tops state and national figures who will tackle Texas' water problems at the Texas Water Conservation Assn.'s annual 3-day conference here.

The conference opens tomorrow night.

Daniel will speak at a Monday luncheon. House Speaker Waggoner Carr is scheduled for an address that afternoon.

Other speakers include W. A. Dexheimer of Washington, commissioner of the U.S. Bureau of Reclamation; R. M. Dixon, chairman of the State Board of Water Engineers; Brig. Gen. L. E. Seeman of Dallas, Southwestern Division Army Engineer; and state Sen. Carlos Ashley of Llano.

The U. S. Department of Defense was created in 1947.

NEW YORK (AP)—"Police Hall of Fame," a new TV series sponsored by the International Assn. of Chiefs of Police, is being readied under the production aegis of Bob Hope for fall showing.

Up To Four Million Spent For Missiles

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Uncle Sam's missiles cost from $4,400 to more than four million dollars apiece, a trade publisher says.

Bennett H. Horcheler of Cleveland, publishing director of the trade magazine Aeronautical Purchasing, told a news conference the magazine's Washington correspondent made these estimates of costs for 13 missiles:

Sidewinder, $4,400; Sparrow III, $40,000; Falcon, $9,000; Nike I, $20,000; Nike II, $80,000-$100,000; Tartar, $40,000; Bullpup, above $10,000; Petrel, $80,000; Corporal, above $100,000; Matador, $100,000; Redstone, $1,000,00; LaCrosse, above $5,000; Regulus II, $430,000; Snark, $1,000,000.

The Atlas, Horchler said, costs more than four million.

GLAMOROUS VOCALIST—Miss Shelby Smith is shown above with one of the recordings in which she starred as vocalist with the Snyder High School stage band. Twelve songs are included in the long-playing record. The recordings were made in the high school auditorium the last two days of school last spring. Radio stations are using the recordings. (Lee Watson photograph)

Stage Band Here Getting National Recognition Now

Snyder High School's stage band is now getting national recognition, with at least one 50,000-watt radio station playing its recordings and the Voice of America organization requesting them.

During the last two days of school last year, the stage band, which plays mostly jazz, made recordings of about 12 numbers on a disc.

Last week the organization sent one of the records to Dick Martin, who has the disc jockey program, "Moonglow With Martin," on Station WWL, New Orleans. Martin played two of the numbers Friday night.

WWL, 870 on the dial, is a clear channel station. Martin's program is from midnight to 2 a.m. daily.

Martin had previously played recordings of another high school group which is well-known nationally, the dance band of Farmingdale, L. I., and he favorably compared the Snyder band with that group. He made several comments about the vocals of Shelby Smith, who graduated last year.

Within a few days the local group will send its record to the Voice of America, which made a request recently for some numbers by the Snyder group.

The high school stage band is a 20-piece organization of outstanding high school musicians. It has made numerous public appearances here. For five years it has won its class in the state band contest; and it was competing in the top class four of those years.

Melvin Montgomery is director of the band, while Phil Cherry is assistant director and Tim Dennis arranger and aide in regearsals. All three are directors in the Snyder instrumental music program.

In addition to sending recordings to the Voice of America, the organization plans to send recordings to Downbeat and Metronome, journals of the music trade, which are showing increased interest in school jazz bands.

The band lost six of its members last year.

The group is reorganizing for this school year and held its first rehearsal Friday. All members except vocalists.

Band members include Bob Ffields, Jimmy Crowder, Beecher Moss, and Nelda Thomas, trumpets; Ronald Miller, Roger Fields, and Glen Thompson, trombones; Phillip Smart, Wilda Livingston, Tommy Horton, Delbert Lloyd, Ray Lashaway, and Jim Bohannah, saxes; Danny Ogden, piano; Jerry Roe, bass; and Steve Melton, drums.

AS CASTING DIRECTOR

3'000 Auditions A Year By Martin

By WILLIAM GLOVER

NEW YORK (AP) — Bob Martin has one of television's oddest assignments — running a non-stop talent marathon.

As casting director for CBS-TV, Martin steers a weekly audition operation which gives a chance to 3,000 or so eager singers, dancers, comics and actors each year.

There is no screening process, no one to know in order to receive an invitation to the blue-walled studio where hearings are held.

"If a person has a burning desire to be heard, is persistent enough and has something to offer, he will be heard," says Martin.

That "something" need not be very remarkable.

"About two a year come by with potential star talent," estimates Bob, "and about 100 who can make a living in the entertainment business." The toughest part of the work is listening to those with lesser skills.

"The worst thing is seeing youngsters who have been given a false buildup on their abilities," he explains.

"Also, being just good is not enough. So many individuals with the wrong measurements are blessed with the right amount of talent."

For those who favorably impress Martin and his aides, introductory bits on the air are sought with Gary Moore, or on various of the early Sunday drama programs.

Among those who have come through the CBS audition room are Carol Burnett, who rocketed to success singing about John Foster Dulles and Jonathan Winters, Eva Marie Saint, Rita Gam and the late James Dean.

Any system "that just tries to bring a little order into the talent business," is susceptible to error, Martin goodnaturedly concedes.

Star Is Two Week Wonder

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 5 (AP)—From $60 a week travel agency clerk to Hollywood star in two months—that's the amazing success story of Miiko Taka, a girl who says she "never had a desire to be an actress."

"Imagine," Miiko says, "six months ago I would have walked across Los Angeles (50 miles in some places) just to see Marlon Brando. And now I'm on the screen making passionate love to him."

The vehicle for this love-making is the film "Sayonara" in which Miiko plays Brando's sweetheart in the James Michener love story. She had never acted before, but Brando picked her for the part.

A frightened Miiko told her parents of her good fortune. Her father said:

"Maybe this is the way meant for you. Do the best you can. Don't act. Live the part."

And Miiko, a lovely young Nisei—Japanese ancestry but American birth—rode to stardom for her portrayal.

No sooner had it been previewed than Hollywood began talking about her performance, Brando's and the picture as candidates for Academy awards.

Brando calls her one of the most sensitive performers he ever worked with.

As the 24-year-old beauty tells her own story:

"It is all such a beautiful dream. I hope others have the same dreams. A girl friend told me a search was on for the female lead in the film and that Director Joshua Logan said it must be a Japanese girl. My friend suggested that I write Mr. Logan.

"I had been spotted by a talent scout at a festival in Los Angeles where I live. He gave me his card, but I never had a desire to be an actress. However, my friends insisted . . . I decided that if my friends had faith in me, I must have faith in myself."

Todd Forced Into Taking Big Profit

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A lesson in economics by Prof. Mike Todd, delivered on the run, you might say, since that's the way you find him.

It started at his studio office, where he spoke out the window to passing celebrities in between phone calls to France, England, Hawaii and New York.

The matter of economics arose from a printed report that his take from "Around the World in 80 Days" is $460,000 a week.

Absolutely false, he said, bristling. The figure is much too low.

"During a recent week," he declared, "the total gross for the picture was around $1,200,000. Our return from the picture never can go under 60 per cent."

"We are now open in 48 cities," Todd said, "and by Oct. 17 — a convenient date (it's the film's first anniversary)—we'll be open in 25 more. At Christmas time, it will be playing in 100 locations. The picture has closed only in two cities, and then from extraneous circumstances.

"So far the domestic take has been 16 million. On this basis, I think the extimates of a 50 million gross are in error. A hundred million is more like it."

The producer remarked that he was forced into such prosperity. When he needed $900,000 badly to finish the picture, he offered a distributor 16 per cent of the profits for a loan. The firm declined, preferring to be repaid in cash.

When Victor Young died, Todd picked up the rights to the composer's music company. The result: the "Around the World" album blossomed forth as a top seller, yielding Todd another $200,000 a year.

Todd has blown many other millions, and I asked him if he could do it again.

"I don't think so," he said as he lathered his face for a shave. "There's so much coming in now that it taxes even my ability to spend."

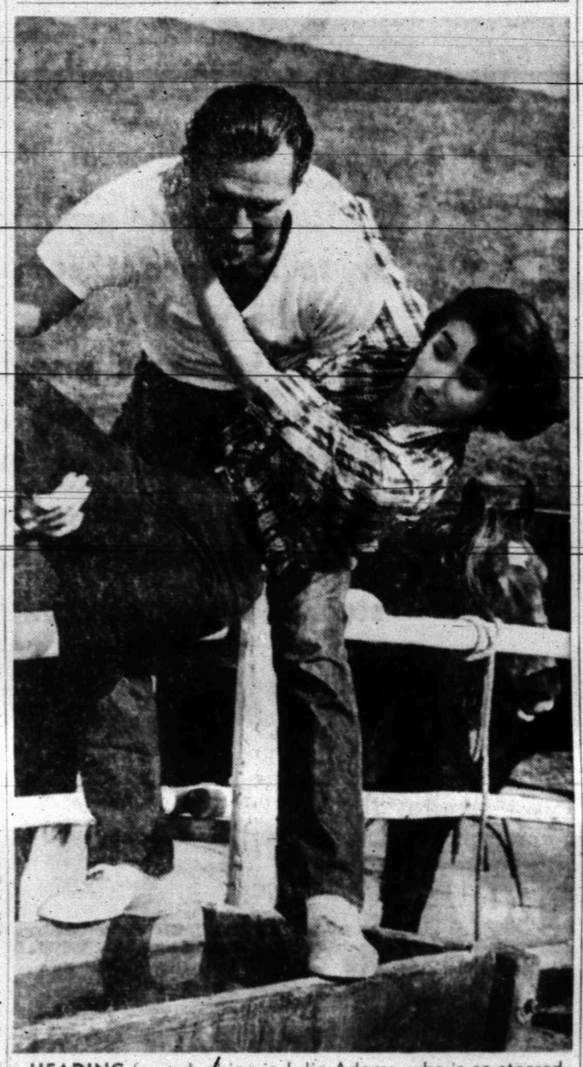

At this point, Liz awoke from a nap and stumbled into the room in a short nightgown. For the record: Yes, she even looks gorgeous just awakened and with her hair in curlers.

"Im doing my bit for the future," she commented. "I'm seeing that the money goes into diamonds, furs, etc. Things we can hock later on."

Notables Picked

NEW YORK (AP)—Glenn Ford and Jack Benny have joined a list of notables set to introduce segments of "Navy Log" on ABC-TV Oct. 31 and Dec. 12.

AMUSEMENT

Daniel Says Action May Be Called For On Racial Issue

DALLAS, Oct. 5 (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel said today Texas may have to take further action to prevent occupation of its schools by federal troops.

In Dallas to help open State Fair, the governor said he wants to study any proposal to accomplish that end but pointed out that Texas has other problems to solve.

"I would not want to compare the integration problem with any others the state has," Daniel said. "They are all important and they must all be solved for the good of Texas."

He noted the special session of the Legislature Oct. 14 was called to consider lobby control, a statewide water program and establishment of a law enforcement commission—not integration.

"But I want to hear of any proposal any of the legislators might have that would prevent the occupation of our schools by federal troops," he said. "It may be that we should take some further action."

Texas has laws to halt integration of schools unless approved by a vote of the individual school districts.

"I will listen to what anyone has to say and I will study the proposals for myself," Daniel said.

Daniel took a place of honor near the head of the parade to Fair Park, where he spoke briefly before cutting the ribbon that officially opened the 1957 fair.

Daniel said he would not submit any integration measure until the legislature has acted on these questions.

State Rep. Bob Johnson of Dallas had told the governor "forced integration" be considered at the special session.

"I will be glad to talk to them (the legislators) and see what they have in mind, but nothing should be submitted until it has been thought out carefully," Daniel said.

Daniel said he has received about 1,000 letters or telegrams applauding his Sept. 25 telegram to President Eisenhower and about 100 messages of disapproval.

The governor declared in the telegram that Eisenhower's use of federal troops in the Little Rock school integration crisis was "reminiscent of the tactics of Reconstruction Days." He also inquired whether the President proposed to "occupy with troops every non-intengrated school in the South."

Daniel received no reply from Eisenhower.

His wife and four children joined the governor here for today's opening of the State Fair.

FOUND DEAD—The bodies of Ronald Barrett White, 9, above, and a 58-year-ol. woman identified as his grandmother were found in an abandoned house in Canoga Park, a suburb of Los Angeles. Police listed the deaths as murder and suicide.

Trial Of Cox Is Scheduled For Monday

AUSTIN, Oct. 5 (AP)—The trial of former Rep. James Cox on charges of agreeing to accept a $5,000 bribe will be called Monday for the second time.

The former Conroe legislator was first called to trial July 15 but the case was reset because of missing witnesses.

Atforneys sad today they would be ready for trial if all their material witnesses are present.

"As far as I know we are ready," Dist. Atty. Les Procter said.

"We won't know until they call the witnesses Monday," said John Cofer, one of Cox's attorneys. "But I understand that subpoenaes had been served on all the witnesses we called. Of course you never can tell when one will get sick, with all this flu around."

Cox was indicted last spring on charges of agreeing to take a bribe in return for killing a legislative bill detrimental to Texas naturopaths.

He asserted he made the bribe offer in an attempt "to trap crooked lobbyists."

Cox's arrest and indictment started an inquiry by a special House committee which turned over its evidence to the Travis County grand jury.

Killed In Accident

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 5 (AP)—An Army WAC and a soldier were killed at Ft. Sam Houston early today when a car crashed into a lamp post. Names were withheld until kin are notified.

Religious Ban Is Criticized

Jehovah's Witnesses of the Snyder congregation Friday met to approve a petition asking the Dominican Republic to lift its ban of last July 25 restricting the religious activity of the movement there.

According to J. D. Cook, presiding minister of the Snyder congregation, the lengthy petition cited specific names and places of police brutality that were personally authenticated by eight of the ten American missionaries deported Aug. 3 from the Dominican Republic. The missionaries related their experiences at a regional assembly in Baltimore, where the Aug. 24 by 33,091 of Jehovah's Witnesses in attendance.

The petition was addressed to Generalissimo Trujillo, acknowledged dictator of the Caribbean republic, and named the Roman Catholic Church as sharing the blame for the government's action.

Reporting on the atrocities described in the petition, Cook said, "In one sector whole families were taken to prison and the male members of the families were beaten senseless before their own wives and children. Other male Witnesses were kicked and hit with rifle butts until they were bleeding and fell exhausted. Some were beaten and left unconscious on the ground in the patio of the prison with blood running out of their ears, nose and mouth.

IN ABILENE AREA

Local Recruiting Station Is Tops

The Snyder Army recruiting station has been named the top station in the 50 counties which make up the Abilene recruiting area for the month of September.

Sfc. James Boone, head of the recruiting station, said he does not yet know whether his station placed first in the Fourth U. S. Recruiting District, as it had done in August.

The local stationed attained 266 per cent of its objective for September, instead of 200 per cent, as originally claimed, Boone said.

In two months, this area furnished 337.5 per cent of its quota of enlistments to the Regular Army, Boone said.

As far as can be determined, no area in the five states in the southwestern recruiting district has attained a percentage of its quota this high this year.

The size of the quota in each area depends on the number of Selective Service registrants in that area. This area has about 7,500 men registered for Selective Service. It has furnished enough men to take care of an area which has approximately 23,000 registrants.

Boone said the Abilene recruiting district has been leading the Fourh Army area for 14 months straight n recruiting.

Boone's quota for October is four men. He has already enlisted three men this month, and three more are planning to enlist before the end of the month.

Students Are Saying Goodby To Mr. Chips

BOULDER, Colo. (AP)—The University of Colorado is saying goodby to Mr. Chips.

Mr. Chips is a 600-pound buffalo calf, donated to the school whose student teams are known as "Buffaloes," by a 1932 alumnus, William M. White of Publo.

That was last spring. Mr. Chips was boarded at a nearby ranch. He took part in several campus functions.

But leaders of the Associated Students decided their mascot was getting "too big and too unruly." They agreed, sadly, to offer him to a zoo.

Show Is Postponed

BORGER, Oct. 5 (AP)— Borger's Magic Plains Oil Exposition, previously scheduled Oct. 17-19, has been postponed a month due to a snag in the construction of the $125,000 aluminum dome exhibition hall. The new dates are Nov. 14-16.

Jurists in the Bermuda Supreme Court may wear Bermuda-length shorts when on duty. However, lawyers must wear full leength trousers.

Enough Sugar For Coffee

SUGAR LAND, Tex., Oct. 5 (AP)—A new $500,000 warehouse larger than a football field is in use here to house sufficient raw sugar to sweeten two billion cups of coffee.

Imperial Sugar Co. officials say the warehouse will hold 40 million pounds of bulk raw sugar, the largest single stockpile of raw sugar in North America.

The warehouse was part of Imperial's recently completed 10-year four million dollar improvements program that also included installation of mechanical equipment at Galveston for unloading loose, bulk raw sugar from Hawaii, Cuba and Puerto Rico.

At Galveston, automatic conveyors, huge hoppers, and bulldozers are used in transferring the raw sugar to railroad freight cars. On the average, a trainload of raw sugar leaves Galveston each day for the 60-mile run to Sugar Land.

Open Season May Be Called On Litterbugs

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The city may declare open season on litterbugs.

City attorney Dion Holm has delivered a legal opinion that the city fathers may offer a $250 bounty on the pest and post signs offering that reward for information leading to arrest and conviction.

Holm not only said such signs would be legal; he drafted a brief ordinance offering the $250 reward.

It appears they'll have to be brought in alive, however. Nothing was said about pelts.

Openings For Nurses

DALLAS, Oct. 5 (AP)—Capt. Nan Porter, Air Force Nurse Corps personnel procurement officer for the Southwest area, said today that there are openings in the Air Force for qualified general duty staff nurses and nurse anesthetists, aged 21 to 35.
