83 Vietnamese Civilians Killed By 2 Jet Raiders

Jets' Identity Uncertain

SAIGON, (AP) — Two jet planes that knifed in from Laos bombed and stafed the South Vietnamese village of Lang Vei near the Laotian border Thursday night, killing 83 civilians and wounding 200, the U.S. command announced today. The raiders' identity remained undetermined.

One American spokesman said the planes were presumed to have been American or South Vietnamese. But there was speculation the Communists may have staged it as their first air strike into South Vietnam.

"I would say that the possibility of that (as a Communist blow) is so far out it can be discounted," said a U.S. Air Force officer in Da Nang, "but it is possible."

Capt. J. Duffy, 28, San Diego, Calif., who commands a Special Forces camp that overlooks Lang Vei from a hill 500 yards away, said he could not determine the make of the planes, but they were delta-winged.

The Soviet-designed MIG jets that make up the bulk of North Vietnam's air force have this type of swept-back wings.

A U.S. Air Force officer said the only delta-winged American craft operating in South Viet-Nam is the Air Force's F102.

"It is strictly an air defense bird and there were no F102s in the area," he said.

The bombs and fires they set off destroyed about 100 of the thatch, bamboo and wooden houses over a 400-yard path within the village. It has been home to about 2,000 people, tribesmen.

If this was an accidental bombing, it would be the worst such tragedy announced so far in the war.

The bombing took place five hours after a U.S. helicopter was shot down in the area and was carried out virtually under the noses of the Special Forces men stationed on a hill above the village, which is named Lang Vei. The village is filled with refugees who had fled from the Viet Cong for government security.

The airstrike just at sunset presumably was also witnessed by U.S. Marines stationed at Khe Son, some five miles from the village, which sits astride Route 9, the natural invasion route from Communist-controled areas of Laos.

About 150 of the most seriously wounded villagers were taken to government and U.S. hospitals near the coast.

The worst previous accidental bombing of a government village occurred in the Mekong Delta when 63 civilians were killed and 83 wounded in Phuoc Dinh Province last Aug. 9. The worst reported disaster involving civilians happened on Christmas eve when a chartered four-engine cargo plane crashed into a civilian residential section near the Da Nang runway and killed 21 civilians.

The U.S. military was reported flying blankets, clothing and food to the villagers still in Lang Vei, which is 20 miles south of the frontier with North Vietnam. There has been heavy activity by infiltrating North Vietnamese troops in the area.

The U.S. Command also announced that U.S. warships in the Gulf of Tonkin have begun bombarding surface-to-air missile sites in North Vietnam. The first attack was Thursday 13 miles north of Vinh, and the Navy reported a huge column of smoke over the missile site.

★ ★ ★ Red Forces Building Near Zone

By GEORGE MCARTHUR

SAIGON (AP) — The North Vietnamese army has built up a possible invasion force of some 35,000 men along the 17th parallel separating North and South Vietnam, informed sources said today.

The sources said three Communist divisions are in the area — one immediately north of the demilitarized zone dividing Vietnam and two operating from the six-mile zone or the adjoining South Vietnamese province of Quang Tri.

The North Vietnamese have maintained two divisons in this area for several months, intelligence officers say. The additional division apparently moved to within striking distance of the border within the past 30 days, the sources said.

The disclosure was made shortly after Gen. William C. Westmoreland in a statement said U.S. forces must continue bombing North Vietnam as long as Hanoi continues to move large numbers of troops and war supplies southward.

The U.S. military command in Vietnam said that to halt the bombing now would increase the loss of American lives and probably prolong the war.

Although the U.S. Command doesn't know what plans the North Vietnamese have for their troops along the 17th Parallel, informed military sources said the force once again has the capability of attacking across the demilitarize dzone.

Such an attack was anticipated last year but the U.S. Marines launched Operation Hasting and badly bloodied North Vietnam's 324B division. U.S. officers said the Reds then had a well developed plan to push two divisions into the northern part of South Vietnam to try to seize control of Quang Tri Province at least.

ASSASSINATION PROBE

Clay Shaw Denies He's Mystery Man

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Clay Bertrand evolved today as the mystery man in Dist. Atty. James Garrison's probe of the Kennedy assassination.

Clay Bertrand, says Garrison, was an alias used by Clay Shaw, the prominent New Orleans resident the district attorney arrested and booked on conspiracy to commit murder.

"I have never used the name 'Clay Bertrand' in my life. I never use it. I never heard of it," said Shaw, free on $10,000 bond, at a 10-minute news conference Thursday.

Clay Bertrand "is mostly a voice on the phone," said attorney Dean Andrews Jr., an attorney and a Warren Commission witness summoned to Garrison's office Thursday.

Garrison's office, in applying for a warrant to search Shaw's French Quarter residence, said in an affidavit that at meetings held in September 1963 "there was an agreement and combination among Clay Shaw (alias Clay Bertrand), Lee Harvey Oswald, and David W. Ferrie and others to kill John F. Kennedy."

The document says the evidence about the meetings came from an unnamed informant, whose statements were corroborated while he was under the influence of sodium pentothal, or truth serum.

Oswald, a New Orleans native who was in this city from late April 1963 until Sept. 25, 1963, was named as the assassin of President Kennedy by the Warren Commission, which said "the possibility of others being involved with either Oswald or (Jack) Ruby cannot be established categorically, but if there is, any such evidence it has been beyond the reach of all the investigative agencies and resources of the United States and has not come to the attention of this commission."

Ferrie, a pilot and part-time investigator, died last week while under investigation by Garrison's office. Coroner Nicholas Chetta says Ferrie's death was due to natural causes. Garrison said it was suicide.

Red Ship Is Seized

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A Soviet fishing vessel, seized by the Coast Guard in U.S. territorial waters off Alaska, is being escorted today to Sand Point, Alaska, where the Soviets face arraignment on charges of violating U.S. fishing rights.

The maximum penalty for the master of the Soviet ship would be a $10,000 fine and a one-year jail term. Conviction also could result in forfeiture of the vessel.

The Coast Guard cutter Storis was making a routine fisheries patrol when it spotted the 178-foot stern ramp trawler Thursday fishing in U.S. waters 40 miles southwest of Chignik on th e south side of the Alaska Peninsula.

Balky Monkey Is Finally Recaptured

LOINDON (AP) — Bimbo, a balky monkey, has been captured without bloodshed after six months on the loose in a freight warehouse to London Airport, casually evading nets, drugs and a hired gunman.

Officials of the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals said Bimbo finally was grabbed and caged Thursday night, quite unharmed.

A female rhesus now three feet tall, Bimbo escaped from a shipment of 100 monkeys passing through London from India en route to a New York research center.

Tower, Dominick Criticize Kennedy

AUSTIN (AP)—Two senators roundly criticized Sen. Robert (Bobby) Kennedy, D-N. Y., Thursday night for his advocacy of a bombing halt on communist North Viet Nam.

Sen. Peter Dominick, R-Colo., spoke at a dinner honoring Sen. John Tower, R-Tex.

"Sen. Kennedy is busily undercutting our country's policy in Southeast Asia to the detriment of our own young men who are fighting and dying in that area so that others may live free of communism," Dominick said.

Tower declared:

"Regardless of Sen. Kennedy's statements, the United States is not engaged in wanton, indiscriminate killing of civilians. On the other hand, the Viet Cong are engaged in such wanton and indiscriminate killings.

"Any suggestion that the Viet Cong be allowed to participate in the selection of a government in South Vietnam is naive nonsense, implementation of which would constitute abandonment of Southeast Asia to Communist conquest."

"Offers to negotiate must remain open as they have been in the past," Dominick said, "but stopping the bombing before negotiations is more likely to increase the length and scope of the war than to bring it to a close."

Tower said Kennedy's proposal would cost American lives.

"It should be understood that moratoriums on bombing and offensive action, unless permanent, would cost American lives. If we heed those who demand such moratoriums, it would mean more Americans will die," Tower said.

Experts Predict No Recession

WASHINGTON (AP) —Some call the economic situation a slowdown. Others see it as a pause, a readjustment or just plain sluggishness.

But government experts are unanimous in one view — the current picture is far removed from a recession, which they believe just isn't in the cards.

Administration officials, despite a marked slowing in econemic activity, continue to look for an upsurge later this year and contend the current sluggishness was anticipated fully when President Johnson recommended a 6 per cent surtax to go into effect July 1.

Some private experts have expressed fear the tax increase might force a downturn or even a recession.

Production dropped sharply in January and the experts expect the government index to show another drop in February, especially in view of falling auto sales.

Retail sales virtually were unchanged in January but employment increased that month, the latest for which figures are available.

Government figures on corporate profits have not been compiled for the last three months of 1966.

One government analyst said a resurgence in housing construction, increased state and local spending and the new Social Security benefits proposed by Johnson are some reasons to expect an upturn in economic activity.

The government's prediction for a 4 per cent rise in real growth this year still stands, he said.

But the first quarter rise in Gross National Product, the value of all goods and services produced in the economy, could be the smallest in more than two years.

It's believed that GNP might increase by less than $10 billion during the first three months of the year, the lowest since the $6.3-billion increase for the last quarter of 1964.

Pop Music Group Here For Jaycees

A popular musical group, "Just Us Four," will appear here Saturday night under sponsorship of the Snyder Jaycees.

The program will begin at 8 p.m. in the Snyder high School Auditorium and the admission price is $1 per person. Advance sale of tickets is being held at M&M Electronics, Holt Music Co., and also at the senior high and both junior high schools.

The band now called "Just Us Four" got its start in 1963 in Abilene. But at that time it was known as "The Dimensions." The name was changed about a year ago.

Curtis Compton, the leader, plays base, while Greg Compton plays lead guitar, Danny Lane plays drums and sings, Jayboy Adams plays rhythm guitar and sings and Don Dinsmore plays organ. The Comptons and Lane all live in Big Spring and attend Howard County Junior College. Adams lives in Colorado City, while Dinsmore lives in Sweetwater and attends Angelo State College.

The group published a record last year and plans to bring out another one this year. Ten stereo long - playing albums will be given away at the auditorium Saturday evening.

Chou Takes Step Upward

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Chou En-lai's star rose higher over turbulent Red China today with an indication from Peking that Mao Tse-tung has given him some of the military authority of Defense Minister Lin Piao.

The Maoist-controlled New China News Agency reported that Chou spoke at a Red Guard rally Feb. 22 on behalf of Mao, Lin and the Communist party central committee's military affairs commission, the country's supreme military body.

Chou has not been listed as a member of the commission, which Mao heads with Lin as its active director. Continuing reports of agitation against units of the 2.5-million-man Chinese army may have prompted Mao to name Chou to the military commission. As a vice chairman of it, he would be empowered to issue orders to the army, which Lin presumably has not been able to do for some unexplained reason.

House Approves Military Money

By JACK MILLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House has rejected an anti-bombing declaration and voted $4.5 billion to finance Vietnam fighting.

After a sometimes fiery 4½-hour debate the House approved by voice vote Thursday the military authorization bill asked by President Johnson. The Senate passed a similar measure Wednesday.

Minutes before the showdown vote, the House defeated 372 to 18 an amendment by Rep. George E. Brown Jr., D-Calif., that would have banned use of the funds to finance military activities "in or over" North Vietnam.

A Senate-House conference committee will hammer out minor differences in the versions of the money measure.

While House debate swirled around Vietnam, the Senate unanimously approved the nomination of Ramsey Clark as attorney general and argued the merits of a pending congressional reorganization measure.

Elsewhere in the capital, the President's Social Security proposals drew Republican fire at a House Ways and Means Committee hearing. And a number of senators expressed pleasure at Johnson's announcement that Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin has agreed to talks on ways to curb the U.S.-Soviet nuclear arms race.

Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., of the House Armed Services Committee led opposition to the amendment banning use of the $4.5 billion for bombing North Vietnam.

Rivers said regardless of any other issues, "our flesh and blood are in Vietnam, and they need weapns."

A critic of the bombing, Rep. Donald Fraser, D-Minn., asked Rivers if political aspects of the Vietnam conflict weren't equally as important as military aspects.

Houston Grand Champ Sells For $15,000

HOUSTON (AP)—Little Sir Echo, the grand champion steer of the Houston Livestock Show, sold at auction today for $15,000.

Anne Patton, 19, a Stephens College (Mo.) sophomore from Kentland, Ind., saw her prize 995-pound black Angus purchased by Nick Morrow of Wanda Petroleum.

The price was the same as that paid for the 1966 grand champion but was below the show's record $20,500 paid in 1964.

Kennedy-LBJ Differences Widen

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's icy repudiation of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's call for a peace-seeking halt to bombing of North Vietnam emphasizes their escalating differences.

Johnson twice defended the bombing almost as Kennedy spoke Thursday, but the White House said he would not comment on the Kennedy proposals.

Within hours, however, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. military commander in Vietnam, rejected the New York Democrat's proposal that the United States stop bombing the Communist North and announce: "We are ready to negotiate within the week."

Rusk said the Communists already have spurned such a formula. Westmoreland said in Saigon that any pause in bombing, "will cost many additional lives and probably prolong the conflict."

Johnson forearmed a Senate ally with a letter declaring the air attacks imperative and saying they will persist until the Hanoi government makes a serious move toward peace.

It bore Wednesday's date and provided an instant rebuttal when Kennedy stood in the Senate to deliver his well-advertised speech on peace moves in Vietnam.

Shortly before, Johnson had discussed the bombing at a surprise news conference.

Kennedy sent an advance copy of his proposals to the White House — which said the manuscript had been passed on to the State Department.

George Christian, press secretary, said Johnson did not read the text.

While Kennedy began his speech by saying Johnson is "entitled to our hopeful sympathy, our understanding and our support in the search for peace," the 12 pages that followed were dotted with harsh words about American tactics in the Southeast Asian war.

It added up to a major expansion of the gap between the President and the senator, political heir to his brother, President John F. Kennedy.

Jets' Identity Uncertain

SAIGON, (AP) — Two jet planes that knifed in from Laos bombed and stafed the South Vietnamese village of Lang Vei near the Laotian border Thursday night, killing 83 civilians and wounding 200, the U.S. command announced today. The raiders' identity remained undetermined.

One American spokesman said the planes were presumed to have been American or South Vietnamese. But there was speculation the Communists may have staged it as their first air strike into South Vietnam.

"I would say that the possibility of that (as a Communist blow) is so far out it can be discounted," said a U.S. Air Force officer in Da Nang, "but it is possible."

Capt. J. Duffy, 28, San Diego, Calif., who commands a Special Forces camp that overlooks Lang Vei from a hill 500 yards away, said he could not determine the make of the planes, but they were delta-winged.

The Soviet-designed MIG jets that make up the bulk of North Vietnam's air force have this type of swept-back wings.

A U.S. Air Force officer said the only delta-winged American craft operating in South Viet-Nam is the Air Force's F102.

"It is strictly an air defense bird and there were no F102s in the area," he said.

The bombs and fires they set off destroyed about 100 of the thatch, bamboo and wooden houses over a 400-yard path within the village. It has been home to about 2,000 people, tribesmen.

If this was an accidental bombing, it would be the worst such tragedy announced so far in the war.

The bombing took place five hours after a U.S. helicopter was shot down in the area and was carried out virtually under the noses of the Special Forces men stationed on a hill above the village, which is named Lang Vei. The village is filled with refugees who had fled from the Viet Cong for government security.

The airstrike just at sunset presumably was also witnessed by U.S. Marines stationed at Khe Son, some five miles from the village, which sits astride Route 9, the natural invasion route from Communist-controled areas of Laos.

About 150 of the most seriously wounded villagers were taken to government and U.S. hospitals near the coast.

The worst previous accidental bombing of a government village occurred in the Mekong Delta when 63 civilians were killed and 83 wounded in Phuoc Dinh Province last Aug. 9. The worst reported disaster involving civilians happened on Christmas eve when a chartered four-engine cargo plane crashed into a civilian residential section near the Da Nang runway and killed 21 civilians.

The U.S. military was reported flying blankets, clothing and food to the villagers still in Lang Vei, which is 20 miles south of the frontier with North Vietnam. There has been heavy activity by infiltrating North Vietnamese troops in the area.

The U.S. Command also announced that U.S. warships in the Gulf of Tonkin have begun bombarding surface-to-air missile sites in North Vietnam. The first attack was Thursday 13 miles north of Vinh, and the Navy reported a huge column of smoke over the missile site.

Chou Takes Step Upward

TOKYO (AP) — Premier Chou En-lai's star rose higher over turbulent Red China today with an indication from Peking that Mao Tse-tung has given him some of the military authority of Defense Minister Lin Piao.

The Maoist-controlled New China News Agency reported that Chou spoke at a Red Guard rally Feb. 22 on behalf of Mao, Lin and the Communist party central committee's military affairs commission, the country's supreme military body.

Ghou has not been listed as a member of the commission, which Mao heads with Lin as its active director. Continuing reports of agitation against units of the 2.5-million-man Chinese army may have prompted Mao to name Chou to the military commission. As a vice chairman of it, he would be empowered to issue orders to the army, which Lin presumably has not been able to do for some unexplained reason.

AFS Meeting Set Saturday Morning

The local chapter of the American Field Service will hold its March meeting at 7 a.m. Saturday at Sallie's Cafeteria.

Anyone interested in the AFS, which sponsors the foreign exchanges student program here, is invited to attend the "Dutch treat" breakfast session.

Kennedy-LBJ Differences Widen

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's icy repudiation of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's call for a peace-seeking halt to bombing of North Vietnam emphasizes their escalating differences.

Johnson twice defended the bombing almost as Kennedy spoke Thursday, but the White House said he would not comment on the Kennedy proposals.

Within hours, however, Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Gen. William C. Westmoreland, U.S. military commander in Vietnam, rejected the New York Democrat's proposal that the United States stop bombing the Communist North and announce: "We are ready to negotiate within the week."

Rusk said the Communists already have spurned such a formula. Westmoreland said in Saigon that any pause in bombing, "will cost many additional lives and probably prolong the conflict."

Johnson forearmed a Senate ally with a letter declaring the air attacks imperative and saying they will persist until the Hanoi government makes a serious move toward peace.

It bore Wednesday's date and provided an instant rebuttal when Kennedy stood in the Senate to deliver his well-advertised speech on peace moves in Vietnam.

Shortly before, Johnson had discussed the bombing at a surprise news conference.

Kennedy sent an advance copy of his proposals to the White House — which said the manuscript had been passed on to the State Department.

George Christian, press secretary, said Johnson did not read the text.

While Kennedy began his speech by saying Johnson is "entitled to our hopeful sympathy, our understanding and our support in the search for peace," the 12 pages that followed were dotted with harsh words about American tactics in the Southeast Asian war.

It added up to a major expansion of the gap between the President and the senator, political heir to his brother, President John F. Kennedy.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I'm 50 different kinds of a fool for letting myself get into this predicament in the first place, but here's my story. I married a divorced man who had two pre-school children. We took the children because his wife traveled in her business and couldn't make a proper home for them. I should explain that my husband and his "ex" brag that they are sensible, civilized people who have a friendly divorce, and nobody is mad at anybody.

Three months ago my husband asked me if his "ex" could stay with us for about a week, following some minor surgery. I foolishly agreed.

It's been going on four months, she is fully recovered, is still making her headquarters here and shows no sign of leaving. The children have taken to calling her "Mamma" which is what they also call me. The neighbors remember her from before and they are talking a blue streak. I am sick of the whole mess. How can I tactfully get this woman out of my home?

SICK OF IT

DEAR SICK: Tell your "sensible" husband that he is too "civilized" for you, and if wife number one doesn't clear out pronto, YOU will. And give him a deadline. Like sundown.

DEAR ABBY: We are friendly with a man and his wife who are supposed to be way up there socially. Well, I notice that all the thank-you notes from this couple are written by the HUSBAND! Is this proper? I always thought it was the wife's job to handle things like that.

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: The wife usually does. But as long as it's handled promptly and properly, don't look a thank-you letter in the gender.

DEAR ABBY: My husband seems to think that just to BE HERE is enough. He isn't cruel to me. He just ignores me completely.

We've been married for 47 years and if I complain about it, he says, "Well, I'm here, ain't I?" as tho I should be thankful that I have a husband. Do you think I should try to find another man who might appreciate me more?

BORED AND IGNORED

DEAR B AND I: I wouldn't do it. Better to "live with the ills you know than to fly to others you know not of." The next one might make this one look good.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THE HUNDREDS OF READERS WHO "MISSED" MY THANKSGIVING PRAYER AND ASKED ME TO REPRINT IT:

"O, heavenly Father,

We thank Thee for food and remember the hungry

We thank Thee for health and remember the sick

We thank Thee for friends and remember the friendless

We thank Thee for freedom and remember the enslaved.

May these rembrances stir us to service

That Thy gifts to us may be used for others.

Amen."

Prayers For Legislators To The Point

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Members of New Mexico's House of Representatives can count on frequent messages when their chaplain opens each day's session with a prayer.

In past years, some of the prayers have drawn protest from legislators and an occasional suggestion that they be referred to committee.

The Rev. William E. Crews, 34, an Episcopalian minister, is conducting what he calls a "lobby for God."

A selection from his recent prayers:

"Almighty God, we politicians are like pianos: grand, square, upright, but of no eternal use unless we are attuned to Your will and have the courage to put it into action."

"Almighty God, make us creative so that our actions will not burden future generations; make us conservative so that we will not squander the taxes of the people; make us perceptive so that we may properly weigh our necessities against the needs of others; make us liberal so that we may have concern for the welfare of all and the health and employment of each."

"Almighty God, help us to remember that a straw vote only shows which way the hot air blows."

"Almighty God, who has given unto us the ability to reason our problems: grant us the courage to vote as we have reasoned. Forgive the animosity of the majority when we stand in the minority and let us never presume to equate numbers of votes with the will of God. We ask this in the name of one who never won a committee vote nor who was ever found among the majority opinion in his day."

"Almighty God, we who do spend well over a million dollars annually at the races in this state and can't find money to build schools nor pay teachers a living wage, do ask guidance in matters financial through one who turned the tax gatherers into followers and caused a revolution, Christ Jesus our Lord."

"Almighty God, we have always known that heedless self-interest leads to bad morals; now give us to understand that it leads to bad economics too."

"Almighty God, we pray for Your help to clarify what we stand for lest we fall for any bill that comes along."

"Grant, Almighty God, that the decision made in caucus may be for the well-being of the state, for Thou knowest that we will never again change our minds."

Easter Seal Letters Are Going Out

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Scurry County, according to Cecil J. Boren who is the Easter Seal Representative for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

As Representative, Boren serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Scurry County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The Society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Boren pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1966, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services to 11,045 children and 4,986 adults who were in need of rehabilitation services. These services are available to anyone disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Boren added.

The Easter Seal campaign will run through Easter Sunday, March 26. Boren urged increased support for the Easter Seal Society and its program of services to crippled children and adults.

Duke's May Queen ... A Daze

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Wilhelmina Reuben, honor student, campus leader and sports enthusiast, has been elected the new May queen at Duke University.

Mimi, as she is known to her friends, is a Negro — the first of her race to receive the honors at the women's college of the university.

"I'm still trying to adjust to it," she said Thursday. "I've been walking around in a delightful haze of disbelief and excitement."

Boddy LeRoux, trainer for the Boston Celtics, also serves in that capacity with the Boston Red Sox.

PROMOTED — Jerry B. Walker, son of Mrs. R. E. Walker of Snyder, has been promoted from ETN2C to ETN1C in the U. S. Navy Submarine Service and assigned to study at the College of Letters and Science at the University of Idaho. He will major in mathematics.

Moreno's Estate Goes To Stepchildren

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Court records show that two stepchildren are the chief beneficiaries of onetime silent screen star Antonio Moreno's $1.1-million estate.

Moreno, who died Feb. 15 at the age of 80, is remembered as one of the screen's first Latin lovers.

His will — filed for probate Thursday — left all but $15,000 of his estate to Beth Tappaan of Pasadena, Calif., and Robert C. Moreno of West Los Angeles.

Reports Are Given FYF

FLUVANNA — Fluvanna Young Farmers last night heard an informative report on a feeder tour and a discussion of cotton varieties.

The feeder tour through the Panhandle and northeastern New Mexico included operations involving cattle, sheep, poultry and swine. Of particular interest were some poultry - swine combinations, which have proved to be especially efficient. The tour also included a stop at the Swift slaughterhouse at Clovis, N.M. This installation is one of the most modern in the nation.

The Young Farmers were told that spinners and textile manufacturers are displeased with short staple cotton being produced in this area and that they will not use it. Some longer staple varieties appear adaptable, it was noted, and Young Farmers will try some of these in test plots.

Another report was given on the cleanup campaign sponsored by Fluvanna Young Farmers. It was reported that some 15 or 16 blocks had been cleared of trash, weeds, brush and grass, eliminating fire hazards and improving appearance of the property. Further work is planned.

Communist Education Falls Short

MOSCOW (AP) — A youth magazine said today that lack of sex education in the schools is a major factor in delinquency among Soviet girls.

The monthly Yunost said that replies to questionnaires given in reform schools "tell us that for the majority of girl inmates, crime was closely connected with early sexual life."

"It is impossible to forget that our educational system is still 'sexless,' the magazine said. "And it probably will continue to be so, judging by the fact that no changes are planned in the future."

Girls 15 to 18 said early sexual experiences led them to associate with disreputable boys, and this in turn led to stealing and other crimes.

The magazine commented: "This is the same, often stated problem of sex education, which is not yet being solved."

Puritanical elements in Soviet society strongly oppose lectures on sex. Yunost used a proverb to warn that if teen-agers don't learn about sex in the schools they will find out elsewhere. "Nature which is driven out the door comes back in through the window."

The article complained that the curriculum in Soviet teacher's colleges contains "not even a hint" of a course that would help teachers deal with sex education in high schools.

Would Really Like To Sit On Jury

DETROIT (AP) — Cornelia G. Kennedy read her summons for jury duty in Recorder's Court and sadly sent her regrets.

"Why did this invitation have to come now?" she asked. "I have always wanted to sit on a jury. I would love to see what goes on in a jury room, to see how jurors deliberate."

Then she donned her robe and went back to work — as a judge in Detroit's Circuit Court.

City Firemen Are Called Out Twice

City Firemen battled a fire at a haystack on the Carl Voss place east of town from 2 p.m. until after 5 p.m. Thursday before getting the flames under control.

They also extinguished a fire in a 1957 Model pickup at the Cactus Motel on the Lamesa Highway at 6:08 a.m. today. The owner, who lives out of town, was not identified.

Two Mishaps Are Logged

City Police investigated a minor accident at 4:50 p.m. Thursday and another one at 8:12 a.m. today.

The first one occurred on Avenue S in front of the Dairy Queen business. Involved were the 1960 Model Cadillac of Mattie R. Laughlin, and the 1962 Model Cadillac of Kate Spencer, Lamesa. Damage to the Spencer car was set at $75, and damage to the other car was placed at $35.

The second mishap occurred at Thirty - fourth Street and Avenue K. Damage to the 1959 Model Ford of Jack Newsome, Box 452, Snyder, was estimated at $100, and damage to the 1967 Model Chevrolet of Lana Bell, 2811 Avenue U, was set at $75.

Wholewheat Hot Cross Buns

½ cup milk, scalded
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
¼ cup butter or margarine
3 tablespoons dark molasses
1 1-3 cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
½ cup currants
¼ cup chopped citron
2½ cups stoneground wholewheat flour, unsifted
3¼ cups (about) unsifted regular flour

Off heat, stir the sugar, salt, butter and molasses into the scalded milk; cool to lukewarm. In a large warm bowl, dissolve the yeast in warm water; add lukewarm milk mixture, currants, citron and wholewhaeat flour; stir well to blend. Work in enough additional regular flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and elastic — 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm draft free place until doubled — about 1 hour. Punch down dough; turn out as before. Divide into 18 equal pieces; form into smooth balls. Place in two greased 8-inch square pans. Cover; let rise as previously until doubled — about 45 minutes. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Turn out on wire rack to cool. Use confectioners sugar frosting to mark crosses on top of buns. Makes 18.

Having a party, a special dinner party? Planning on using your favorite china bread 'n' butter plates? Decorate your butter pats by dipping a fork into hot water and running the tines across each pat of butter. Garnish each with a tiny sprig of parsley. Chill before serving.

Mods Like Oldtime Snack

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

MOD CLOTHES sure, but when it comes to eating, teenagers love an old - fashioned snack. Popcorn! Isn't that a relief?

They'll gobble up popcorn, by the handful, just plain. But for a party, they won't mind a bit if it's all dressed up. And that's what we suggest. Popcorn, with butter, bacon and cheese. Who could resist?

Like us, you may not have one of those electric corn poppers. So if you have to pop corn on your range, here are special directions. We stick by them. Pop two batches of the corn, one batch at a time, so that you have the three quarts needed for the bacon and cheese production.

NEVERFAIL POPCORN

Measure out 1-3 cup popcorn (white or yellow) so that you have it ready. Get out a heavy, wide, straight - sided 3-to-4-quart saucepan; do not use a kettle with bail handles. Pour 3 tablespoons of corn oil into the saucepan. Over medium heat, heat the oil for about 3 minutes — it must be hot enough so that a kernel of corn dropped into it pops. Add popcorn. With one hand shake almost constantly and with the other hand hold a cover on the saucepan so it is slightly ajar; do this until the popping stops. Turn out popped corn. Makes about 1½ quarts.

BACON AND CHEESE POPCORN

1 pound bacon, at room temperature
¼ cup butter
3 quarts fresly popped corn, unsalted
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Separate bacon slices and place in a single layer on a wire rack set over heavy foil (with turned-up edges) or over a very shallow pan. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until brown and crisp — about 10 minutes. Remove bacon to brown paper or several thicknesses of paper toweling to drain. If bacon is baked earlier than serving time, it may be reheated (on foil or in shallow pan) in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for about 5 minutes. Break bacon slices into about ½-inch pieces.

Melt the butter and gently mix it with the freshly popped corn; sprinkle with Parmesan and mix; add bacon and toss to distribute. Serve at once.

GOOD SNACKS — Popcorn, with bacon and cheese, plus barbecued franks served with tomato-juice.

Two Can Dress As Cheaply As One!

In the face of spiraling living costs, two can dress as cheaply as one, today. There's a catch to it, naturally. The recipient of this good fortune is the mother-to-be!

The happy truth is that high styled clothes in the maternity shops today cost only a fraction of similar fashions in regular size departments. Maternity fashions have thus come full circle, from inexpensive to very expensive and back to inexpensive, in less than one generation.

Many of today's teenagers were born into families which had one or more older children. Their mothers led a revolution against the then current cheap, and cheap looking, maternity dresses. As newlyweds - especially in a still depression - oriented society - they were on very limited budgets. Hence they couldn't pay much for clothes that would only be worn for five months.

But, as years passed, our society showed a rising curve of affluence. These same ladies had now become accustomed to wearing good, even expensive, clothes which they simply couldn't find in maternity things styled for junior figures and ages or impecunious young incomes.

Heeding the demands for upstyling, maternity dress manufacturers gradually dropped frilly girlish gewgaws and turned out more suitable sophisticated-looking fashions. This also meant better fabrics and workmanship. Prices rose not only to cover these extra costs, but also to attract the purchaser who was accustomed to buying more expensive clothes.

But the increase in maternity dress prices came as a shock. That's when the all-purpose gambit was born. You remember it. . . .don't worry about the price, the argument went. This dress is so good looking and so well made, you'll have it taken in and wear it long after the baby has come.

It read good in print, but didn't alter the basic fact that what any new mother hopes she'll never see again, let alone wear, are those maternity clothes she associates with those impatient days before the great event. Manufacturers realized that the way was open to today's formula of good fashion at you - won't - feel - guilty - throwing - it - away - after - four - months prices.

One man who took a leading hand in bringing about the transformation in maternity styling was Stanley Goodman.

"Our fashions only have a four months run," is how he likes to put it, "so prices must be moderate. We are faced with a high cost of living today, and we are trying to create maternity clothes that are exciting and fashionable, yet adapted to the average expectant mother's limited budget. We know that a maternity wardrobe can be most depressing to a young lady who has to wear the same dress or two, day in and day out. If we can supply big fashion for little money, so that the mother-to-be can justify owning several changes of maternity clothes, we feel we will have given her a psychological lift and contributed to her emotional well-being."

To be attractive, in the contemporary idiom, clothes must be simple in cut, unfitted, and made of fabrics rendered more interesting by surface texture or print. Excellent and well executed adaptations of leading high fashion styles should be offered.

And let no one think this is an easy task for the maternity manufacturer. Any girl who has ever shopped for Pairs copies knows that copies can be good, bad or indifferent, depending on how expertly they have been translated - more than on their relative price tags. To adapt them to the changing figure of the expectant mother, moreover, takes additional and specialized skills.

The know-how needed is not only technical. Practical, even esthetic, considerations can make or break a maternity dress. The success factors are built in - because Stanley Goodman "builds" maternity clothes to pretested specifications, not according to rule-of-thumb, or even whim.

Most dresses, for example, in the fresh new Spring line zip open down the back. This allows the wearer to step into it with ease, without causing a break in its smooth-falling front. A flattering neckline helps draw the eye to the traditionally glowing face of the expectant mother, thereby drawing it away from temporarily less flattering areas. Colors, too, serve to highlight a radiant face, and fabrics that are lithe enough to make them cool to wear are bonded to give them more body and help them retain their shape.

Hidden expansion seams on the inside make even slim shifts serve the mother-to-be, and nothing makes the heir less apparent than a slim shift. Finally, since the dress-and-coat costume is currently the height of fashion, Toni Lynn has created a group of these with a sharp eye on playing down their special function; and an even sharper eye on keeping prices down on these eminently versatile ensembles.

Vivacious Biography

MADAME SARAH. By Cornelia Otis Skinner.

The long career of Sarah Bernhardt, that cavalcade of giddy caprice, daring enterprise and acting artistry, has become a theatrical legend.

Telling it all again might seem a dubious undertaking, but Miss Skinner handles the challenge with rewarding animation. Having made many a stage characted come alive in her own considerable stage stint, Miss Skinner applies vast know-how to the printed page.

Most of her material is derivative — the Divine Sarah even wrote her own biography — but she has gone where possible to still-living sources about the star who died in 1922. More, she has strategically sifted and wittily balanced earlier accounts.

What results is a straightforward, constantly engrossing story about a still very vital personality.

The vivacious narrative, in fact, brings back a whole epoch as Miss Skinner dissects the Bernhardt gallery of famous friends — from a fledgling captain in the star's field hospital of 180 who later became Marshal Foch, to Dumas pere et fils Zola, Hugo and certain dandified originals who popped up later in the works of Proust and Huysmann.

The book is rounded off with an informative collection of photographs.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I suppose I'm 50 different kinds of a fool for letting myself get into this predicament in the first place, but here's my story: I married a divorced man who had two pre-school children. We took the children because his wife traveled in her business and couldn't make a proper home for them. I should explain that my husband and his "ex" brag that they are sensible, civilized people who have a friendly divorce, and nobody is mad at anybody.

Three months ago my husband asked me if his "ex" could stay with us for about a week, following some minor surgery. I foolishly agreed.

It's been going on four months, she is fully recovered, is still making her headquarters here and shows no sign of leaving. The children have taken to calling her "Mamma" which is what they also call me. The neighbors remember her from before and they are talking. Blue streak. I am sick of the whole mess. How can I tactfully get this woman out of my home?

SICK OF IT

DEAR SICK: Tell your "sensible" husband that he is too "civilized" for you, and if wife number one doesn't clear out pronto, YOU will. And give him a deadline. Like sundown.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: We are friendly with a man and his wife who are supposed to be way up there socially. Well, I notice that all the thank-you notes from this couple are written by the HUSBAND! Is this proper? I always thought it was the wife's job to handle things like that.

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: The wife usually does. But as long as it's handled promptly and properly, don't look a thank-you letter in the gender.

DEAR ABBY: My husband seems to think that just to BE HERE is enough. He isn't cruel to me. He just ignores me completely.

We've been married for 47 years and if I complain about it, he says, "Well, I'm here, ain't I?" as tho I should be thankful that I have a husband. Do you think I should try to find another man who might appreciate me more?

BORED AND IGNORED

DEAR B AND I: I wouldn't do it. Better to "live with the ills you know than to fly to others you know not of." The next one might make this one look good.

CONFIDENTIAL TO THE HUNDREDS OF READERS WHO "MISSED" MY THANKSGIVING PRAYER AND ASKED ME TO REPRINT IT:

"O, heavenly Father,
We thank Thee for food and remember the hungry
We thank Thee for health and remember the sick
We thank Thee for friends and remember the friendless
We thank Thee for freedom and remember the enslaved.
May these rembrances stir us to service
That Thy gifts to us may be used for others.
Amen."

Prayers For Legislators To The Point

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP) — Members of New Mexico's House of Representatives can count on frequent messages when their chaplain opens each day's session with a prayer.

In past years, some of the prayers have drawn protest from legislators and an occasional suggestion that they be referred to committee.

The Rev. William E. Crews, 34, an Episcopalian minister, is conducting what he calls a "lobby for God."

A selection from his recent prayers:

'Almighty God, we politicians are like pianos: grand, square, upright, but of no eternal use unless we are attuned to Your will and have the courage to put it into action."

"Almighty God, make us creative so that our actions will not burden future generations; make us conservative so that we will not squander the taxes of the people; make us perceptive so that we may properly weigh our necessities against the needs of others; make us liberal so that we may have concern for the welfare of all and the health and employment of each."

"Almighty God, help us to remember that a straw vote only shows which way the hot air blows."

"Almighty God, who has given unto us the ability to reason our problems: grant us the courage to vote as we have reasoned. Forgive the animosity of the majority when we stand in the minority and let us never presume to equate numbers of votes with the will of God. We ask this in the name of one who never won a committee vote nor who was ever found among the majority opinion in his day."

"Almighty God, we who do spend well over a million dollars annually at the races in this state and can't find money to build schools nor pay teachers a living wage, do ask guidance in matters financial through one who turned the tax gatherers into followers and caused a revolution, Christ Jesus our Lord."

"Almighty God, we have always known that heedless self-interest leads to bad morals; now give us to understand that it leads to bad economics too."

"Almighty God, we pray for Your help to clarify what we stand for lest we fall for any bill that comes along."

"Grant, Almighty God, that the decision made in caucus may be for the well-being of the state, for Thou knowest that we will never again change our minds."

Easter Seal Letters Are Going Out

Easter Seal Appeal letters are being delivered this week in Scurry County, according to Cecil J. Boren who is the Easter Seal Representative for the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas.

As Representative, Boren serves as contact representative for disabled persons needing Easter Seal rehabilitation services and also serves as treasurer of the Easter Seal Appeal in Scurry County.

The Easter Seal Society offers physical and occupational therapy, speech and hearing programs, and special equipment loans to enable disabled persons to make the best use of their abilities to overcome handicaps. These services are financed by the annual Easter Seal Appeal.

The Society also provides for research into the causes and cures of crippling conditions, finances public education programs, and provides scholarships for training of professional personnel to staff rehabilitation centers.

Boren pointed out that all these programs are important if Texas is going to continue to provide the best in rehabilitation services for its own disabled citizens.

During 1966, the Texas Easter Seal Society provided treatment and services to 11,045 children and 4,986 adults who were in need of rehabilitation services. These services are available to anyone disabled person who can benefit from help provided by the Easter Seal Society, Boren added.

The Easter Seal campaign will run through Easter Sunday, March 26. Boren urged increased support for the Easter Seal Society and its program of services to crippled children and adults.

Reports Are Given FYF

FLUVANNA — Fluvanna Young Farmers last night heard an informative report on a feeder tour and a discussion of cotton varieties.

The feeder tour through the Panhandle and northeastern New Mexico included operations involving cattle, sheep, poultry and swine. Of particular interest were some poultry - swine combinations, which have proved to be especially efficient. The tour also included a stop at the Swift slaughterhouse at Clovis, N.M. This installation is one of the most modern in the nation.

The Young Farmers were told that spinners and textile manufacturers are displeased with short staple cotton being produced in this area and that they will not use it. Some longer staple varieties appear adaptable, it was noted, and Young Farmers will try some of these in test plots.

Another report was given on the cleanup campaign sponsored by Fluvanna Young Farmers. It was reported that some 15 or 16 blocks had been cleared of trash, weeds, brush and grass, eliminating fire hazards and improving appearance of the property. Further work is planned.

Moreno's Estate Goes To Stepchildren

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Court records show that two stepchildren are the chief beneficiaries of onetime silent screen star Antonio Moreno's $1.1-million estate.

Moreno, who died Feb. 15 at the age of 80, is remembered as one of the screen's first Latin lovers.

His will — filed for probate Thursday — left all but $15,000 of his estate to Beth Tappaan of Pasadena, Calif., and Robert C. Moreno of West Los Angeles.

Communist Education Falls Short

MOSCOW (AP) — A youth magazine said today that lack of sex education in the schools is a major factor in delinquency among Soviet girls.

The monthly Yunost said that replies to questionnaires given in reform schools "tell us that for the majority of girl inmates, crime was closely connected with early sexual life."

"It is impossible to forget that our educational system is still 'sexless,' the magazine said. "And it probably will continue to be so, judging by the fact that no changes are planned in the future."

Girls 15 to 18 said early sexual experiences led them to associate with disreputable boys, and this in turn led to stealing and other crimes.

The magazine commented: "This is the same, often stated problem of sex education, which is not yet being solved."

Puritanical elements in Soviet society strongly oppose lectures on sex. Yunost used a proverb to warn that if teen-agers don't learn about sex in the schools they will find out elsewhere. "Nature which is driven out the door comes back in through the window."

The article complained that the curriculum in Soviet teacher's colleges contains "not even a hint" of a course that would help teachers deal with sex education in high schools.

Would Really Like To Sit On Jury

DETROIT (AP) — Cornelia G. Kennedy read her summons for jury duty in Recorder's Court and sadly sent her regrets.

"Why did this invitation have to come now?" she asked. "I have always wanted to sit on a jury. I would love to see what goes on in a jury room, to see how jurors deliberate."

Then she donned her robe and went back to work — as a judge in Detroit's Circuit Court.

City Firemen Are Called Out Twice

Wholewheat Hot Cross Buns

½ cup milk, scalded
¼ cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt
¼ cup butter or margarine
3 tablespoons dark molasses
1 1-3 cups warm water
2 packages active dry yeast
½ cup currants
¼ cup chopped citron
2½ cups stoneground wholewheat flour, unsifted
3¼ cups (about) unsifted regular flour

Off heat, stir the sugar, salt, butter and molasses into the scalded milk; cool to lukewarm. In a large warm bowl, dissolve the yeast in warm water; add lukewarm milk mixture, currants, citron and wholewhaeat flour; stir well to blend. Work in enough additional regular flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured surface and knead until smooth and elastic — 8 to 10 minutes. Place in greased bowl; turn to grease top. Cover; let rise in warm draft free place until doubled — about 1 hour. Punch down dough; turn out as before. Divide into 18 equal pieces; form into smooth balls. Place in two greased 8-inch square pans. Cover; let rise as previously until doubled — about 45 minutes. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Turn out on wire rack to cool. Use confectioners sugar frosting to mark crosses on top of buns. Makes 18.

Having a party, a special dinner party? Planning on using your favorite china bread 'n' butter plates? Decorate your butter pats by dipping a fork into hot water and running the tines across each pat of butter. Garnish each with a tiny sprig of parsley. Chill before serving.

Mods Like Oldtime Snack

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

MOD CLOTHES sure, but when it comes to eating, teenagers love an old - fashioned snack. Popcorn! Isn't that a relief?

They'll gobble up popcorn, by the handful, just plain. But for a party, they won't mind a bit if it's all dressed up. And that's what we suggest. Popcorn, with butter, bacon and cheese. Who could resist?

Like us, you may not have one of those electric corn poppers. So if you have to pop corn on your range, here are special directions. We stick by them. Pop, two batches of the corn, one batch at a time, so that you have the three quarts needed for the bacon and cheese production.

NEVERFAIL POPCORN

Measure out 1-3 cup popcorn (white or yellow) so that you have it ready. Get out a heavy, wide, straight - sided 3-to-4-quart saucepan; do not use a kettle with bail handles. Pour 3 tablespoons of corn oil into the saucepan. Over medium heat, heat the oil for about 3 minutes — it must be hot enough so that a kernel of corn dropped into it pops. Add popcorn. With one hand shake almost constantly and with the other hand hold a cover on the saucepan so it is slightly ajar; do this until the popping stops. Turn out popped corn. Makes about 1½ quarts.

BACON AND CHEESE POPCORN

1 pound bacon, at room temperature
¼ cup butter
3 quarts fresly popped corn, unsalted
¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese

Separate bacon slices and place in a single layer on a wire rack set over heavy foil (with turned-up edges) or over a very shallow pan. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven until brown and crisp — about 10 minutes. Remove bacon to brown paper or several thicknesses of paper toweling to drain. If bacon is baked earlier than serving time, it may be reheated (on foil or in shallow pan) in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for about 5 minutes. Break bacon slices into about ½-inch pieces.

Melt the butter and gently mix it with the freshly popped corn; sprinkle with Parmesan and mix; add bacon and toss to distribute. Serve at once.

GOOD SNACKS — Popcorn, with bacon and cheese, plus barbecued franks served with tomato-juice.

Two Can Dress As Cheaply As One!

In the face of spiraling living costs, two can dress as cheaply as one, today. There's a catch to it, naturally. The recipient of this good fortune is the mother-to-be!

The happy truth is that high styled clothes in the maternity shops today cost only a fraction of similar fashions in regular size departments. Maternity fashions have thus come full circle, from inexpensive to very expensive and back to inexpensive, in less than one generation.

Many of today's teenagers were born into families which had one or more older children. Their mothers led a revolution against the then current cheap, and cheap looking, maternity dresses. As newlyweds - especially in a still depression - oriented society - they were on very limited budgets. Hence they couldn't pay much for clothes that would only be worn for five months.

But, as years passed, our society showed a rising curve of affluence. These same ladies had now become accustomed to wearing good, even expensive, clothes which they simply couldn't find in maternity things styled for junior figures and ages or impecunious young incomes.

Heeding the demands for up-styling, maternity dress manufacturers gradually dropped frilly girlish gewgaws and turned out more suitable sophisticated-looking fashions. This also meant better fabrics and workmanship. Prices rose not only to cover these extra costs, but also to attract the purchaser who was accustomed to buying more expensive clothes.

But the increase in maternity dress prices came as a shock. That's when the all-purpose gambit was born. You remember it. . . .don't worry about the price, the argument went. This dress is so good looking and so well made, you'll have it taken in and wear it long after the baby has come.

It read good in print, but didn't alter the basic fact that what any new mother hopes she'll never see again, let alone wear, are those maternity clothes she associates with those impatient days before the great event. Manufacturers realized that the way was open to today's formula of good fashion at you - won't - feel - guilty - throwing - it - away - after - four - months prices.

One man who took a leading hand in bringing about the transformation in maternity styling was Stanley Goodman.

"Our fashions only have a four months run," is how he likes to put it, "so prices must be moderate. We are faced with a high cost of living today, and we are trying to create maternity clothes that are exciting and fashionable, yet adapted to the average expectant mother's limited budget. We know that a maternity wardrobe can be most depressing to a young lady who has to wear the same dress or two, day in and day out. If we can supply big fashion for little money, so that the mother-to-be can justify owning several changes of maternity clothes, we feel we will have given her a psychological lift and contributed to her emotional well-being."

To be attractive, in the contemporary idiom, clothes must be simple in cut, unfitted, and made of fabrics rendered more interesting by surface texture or print. Excellent and well executed adaptations of leading high fashion styles should be offered.

And let no one think this is an easy task for the maternity manufacturer. Any girl who has ever shopped for Pairs copies knows that copies can be good, bad or indifferent, depending on how expertly they have been translated - more than on their relative price tags. To adapt them to the changing figure of the expectant mother, moreover, takes additional and specialized skills.

The know-how needed is not only technical. Practical, even esthetic, considerations can make or break a maternity dress. The success factors are built in - because Stanley Goodman "builds" maternity clothes to pretested specifications, not according to rule-of-thumb, or even whim.

Most dresses, for example, in the fresh new Spring line zip open down the back. This allows the wearer to step into it with ease, without causing a break in its smooth-falling front. A flattering neckline helps draw the eye to the traditionally glowing face of the expectant mother, thereby drawing it away from temporarily less flattering areas. Colors, too, serve to highlight a radiant face, and fabrics that are lithe enough to make them cool to wear are bonded to give them more body and help them retain their shape.

Hidden expansion seams on the inside make even slim shifts serve the mother-to-be, and nothing makes the heir less apparent than a slim shift. Finally, since the dress-and-coat costume is currently the height of fashion, Toni Lynn has created a group of these with a sharp eye on playing down their special function; and an even sharper eye on keeping prices down on these eminently versatile ensembles.

Vivacious Biography

MADAME SARAH. By Cornelia Otis Skinner.

The long career of Sarah Bernhardt, that cavalcade of giddy caprice, daring enterprise and acting artistry, has become a theatrical legend.

Telling it all again might seem a dubious undertaking, but Miss Skinner handles the challenge with rewarding animation. Having made many a stage characted come alive in her own considerable stage stint, Miss Skinner applies vast know-how to the printed page.

Most of her material is derivative — the Divine Sarah even wrote her own biography — but she has gone where possible to still-living sources about the star who died in 1922. More, she has strategically sifted and wittily balanced earlier accounts.

What results is a straightforward, constantly engrossing story about a still very vital personality.

The vivacious narrative, in fact, brings back a whole epoch as Miss Skinner dissects the Bernhardt gallery of famous friends — from a fledgling captain in the star's field hospital of 180 who later became Marshal Foch, to Dumas pere et fils Zola, Hugo and certain dandified originals who popped up later in the works of Proust and Huysmann.

The book is rounded off with an informative collection of photographs.

BUT RIGHT NOW, MR. ALL-AMERICA HE ISN'T!

LBJ's Timing Terrific In Answering Senator Kennedy

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — It might have been just a presidential coincidence, but the timing was terrific.

There is no doubt Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., gets in President Johnson's hair with what he says on Vietnam. But, while earlier this year he must have made it look wind-blown, Thursday he blew a gale.

Yet before the day was over Kennedy, who might have had the front pages to himself, had to share them with Johnson who butted in not once but twice.

Earlier this year, while skipping around Western Europe, Kennedy got worldwide attention with some statements he made, like saying the next few weeks would be critical in the war.

He was reported saying secret talks were going on. But he said this wasn't what he had said. He said contacts were being made. The White House said it knew nothing special about the next few weeks. And Johnson said he knew of no serious efforts by Hanoi to end the war.

Then, a sensation. Newsweek magazine must have rocked Johnson with a story saying Kennedy, while in Paris, got a peace-feeler from North Vietnam. Asked about it, Kennedy at first refused to comment.

Naturally, this raised a number of questions, one above all: Wouldn't it be strange if Kennedy could start the peace ball rolling and Johnson couldn't? Kennedy came home and saw Johnson.

After that get-together Kennedy said he hadn't brought any peace feeler. And more reports, unverified, said Johnson had bawled him out. Not long after that Kennedy let it be known he was preparing a major speech on Vietnam.

Thursday was the day he chose to deliver it. He was a cinch to make front pages. Then something happened. Maybe it was only a coincidence. But Johnson suddenly called a news conference a few hours before Kennedy's talk.

Johnson quickly announced the Soviet Union, through Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, had agreed to discuss halting the arms race. This could have been the only reason for calling in the newsmen.

But one of them, and it was certainly a convenient time for Johnson to be asked the question, raised a point about peace with Vietnam. And Johnson at once made it clear there would be no let up in the pressure on Hanoi.

But Kennedy's whole speech was to be a proposal that U.S. bombing stop for a while to see if North Vietnam wanted to talk peace. Now Johnson had answered him before Kennedy could start. Was this just a coincidence?

Later in the day a newsman told Johnson's press secretary, George Christian, "some suspicious people" wondered if Johnson had not called the news conference and made the war statement to take the play away from Kennedy.

Christian expressed innocence. And later in the day Kennedy made his speech but had hardly started before Sen. Henry Jackson, D-Wash., a Johnson supporter on Vietnam, made public a letter from the President.

In the letter Johnson said the bombing had been effective and would continue. Was this a coincidence, too? The timing couldn't have been better, from Johnson's viewpoint.

Here he was throwing cold water on Kennedy's speech before Kennedy could finish it. Johnson's letter, dated March 1, reached Jackson at almost the moment when Kennedy began speaking.

Kennedy it turned out, had sent a copy of his speech (before he made it) to the White House but Christian said Johnson hadn't seen it and that it was Jackson who made the decision on when to make the letter public.

Thus twice in one day Johnson answered Kennedy without anyone being able to say positively Johnson was replying to Kennedy at all. In fact, Christian said the White House would have no comment on Kennedy's speech.

Sam Jones Wants To Be An Actress

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Sam Jones is a traveling lady who earns $60 an hour and likes to take a fur rug with her wherever she goes.

"I loathe being cold," she explained.

To keep warm on her journeys Sam has two tiger rugs, two leopard rugs, one zebra rug and three rugs made from the pelts of Icelandic ponies.

She also has a red fox jacket, a wolf coat and a raccoon coat.

She also has a rather eye-catching dress made from the skins of two cheetahs.

"I also like live animals as well as pelts," she remarked. "Is that inconsistent?"

Sam — her full names is Samantha —at 22 is an internationally known fashion model. Long-boned and blonde, green eyed and lovely, she has been photographed throughout Europe and in Mexico, Greenland, Japan, the Soviet Union, India and even Outer Mongolia.

Recently she made her motion picture debut in a film called "Wait Until Dark," starring Audrey Hepburn and Alan Arkin. She played the role of a miniskirted model who is a courier for a ring of international dope smugglers.

"I try to double-cross them, so my part in the picture isn't very big, as I get killed pretty quick," she said.

Over luncheon, Miss Jones volunteered that she had been born in Manhattan raised in Ottawa, Canada but preferred to live in Paris.

Miss Jones believes now that she would like to embark on a full-time career as an actress, but doesn't want to spend her life in Hollywood.

"It is just a parade of facades out there," she said. "I understand now why people in Hollywood take so long getting ready to go out in the evening. They have to fix up their facade.

'Everything there is packaged so nicely. But the people are tied in various knots, and some can see out only through the cellophane that surrounds them."

Jerry Lewis' Son Plans To Marry

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — Rock 'n' roll singer Gary Lewis and Sana Jane Suzara of the Philippines have taken out a marriage license.

Lewis, eldest son of comedian Jerry Lewis, listed his age Thursday at 21. Miss Suzara gave hers as 25.

The wedding is set for March 1 with a Hawaii honeymoon to follow a month later when Lewis, an Army rookie, has completed a training course he is taking at nearby Ft. Ord.

Junior Editors Quiz on INDIANS

QUESTION: Where did all the Indians go?

ANSWER: The impression given by this question is that the American Indian has disappeared from this country. This is not true. We have fewer Indians than before, but they are still with us in fairly large numbers. When the white men came, there were perhaps a million Indians north of the Rio Grande River; now, there are about 650,000. During the time white settlers were pushing westward, the Indians had a difficult time. The buffalo, on which many Indians depended for food and skins, vanished. Most Indians were removed to reservations. They began to diminish in numbers. Later, this trend was reversed. By 1920, it was realized that Indian population was increasing and great efforts to help and educate them began to be made. Many Indians have adopted the white man's ways. All Indians are free citizens of the U.S. Despite modern opportunities, however, many Indians like to live as their ancestors did, going on with their tribal dances, making their beautiful craft objects.

Canyon Reef Relays Gets Started Here Saturday

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Top State Meet This Weekend

If the good weather holds, its virtually a cinch that the records established last year in both divisions of the Canyon Reef Relays will be erased Saturday.

Entries in Division II for Class AAA schools include Snyder, Brownwood, Dumas, Vernon, Wichita Falls Hirschi, Wichita Falls Notre Dame and Lake View. Dumas and Snyder are expected to battle it out for the top trophy in this division.

Some of the best track squads in the state are entered in Division I or the Class AAAA division. Included among them are Abilene Cooper, Amarillo Tascosa, San Angelo, Wichita Falls High, Permian, Midland, Pampa, Borger, Plainview, Lubbock High, Monterey, Coronado, Big Spring and Odessa.

Meet director is Tiger track Coach Bob Carter. Gordon Woods of Brownwood will be the referee.

Several outstanding athletes will be on hand for the Meet, including Rocky Woods, Lake View's great high jumper and hurdler. He copped first place in these events at the State Meet last season and compiled 30 points by himself at the Comanche Relays in Ft. Stockton last week.

The Tiger thinclads covered themselves with glory at Ft. Stockton during the same weekend, capturing first place over highly regarded opponents that included two state champions.

Threatening the standard in the 220 will be Snyder's Curtis Clay, who won first last week with a 22.4 clocking — only one-tenth of a second off the record. Little Freddie Benitez, who was timed at 4:46.0 in the mile run, can erase the old standard of 4:49.3 if he maintains his pace.

A pleasant surprise for local fans was Tommy Bullard's 2:06.5 clocking in the 880 yard dash. It was his first race in organized track competition, and he could pose a threat to the 2:03.5 record established by James Irving of Carver last year.

Jerry Simons has heaved the shot over 55 feet in practice, and last week he captured a blue ribbon with a 54-1 distance. The record, set by Hart of Breckenridge, is 57-3.

The standards in both the 440 and mile relay are in danger of falling. Carver set the current record of 44.0 in the 440, and Breckenridge posted the 3:31.6 record in the mile relay.

Rocky Woods has cleared 6-5 in the high jump several times and appears to be a cinch to shatter the 6-1 standard set by Snyder's Steve McMahan.

Prelims begin at 9:45 a.m. with the finals slated to get underway at 1 p.m.

Last year was the first year for competition in separate divisions for Class AAA and Class AAAA schools, and times and distances recorded last year stand in the record books — that is, at least until Saturday. The records:

CLASS AAA
(Division II)

440 relay — Carver, 44.0.
880 dash — James Irving, Carver, 2:03.5.
120 high hurdles — Robert Patterson, Carver, 15.2.
100 yard dash — Bruce King, Vernon, 10.3.
440 yard dash — Larry Schovajsa, Littlefield, 50.8.
180 yard low hurdles — Robert Patterson, Carver, 19.4.
220 yard dash — Carl Jackson, Carver, 22.3.
mile run — Toby Goodman, Hirschi, 4:49.3.
mile relay — Breckenridge, 3:32.6.
high jump — Steve McMahan, Snyder, 6-1.
broad jump — Gunlock, Breckenridge, 21-9½.
pole vault — Richard Thornton, Carver, 12-6. discus — Charles Pennington, Carver, 158-3½.
shot put — Hart, Breckenridge, 57-3.

CLASS AAAA
(Division I)

120 yard high hurdles — J. Branch, Midland Lee, 15.1.
100 yard dash — Joe Juare, Big Spring, 10.0.
440 yard dash — McCarrell, Pampa, 50.9.
180 yard low hurdles — Joe Jaure, Big Spring, 19.1.
440 yard relays — Odessa Permian, 43.8.
880 yard dash — Milton Crum, Lubbock Monterey, 1:59.6.
220 yard dash — Charles Cannon, Odessa Permian, 22.1.
mile run — Alan Wolf, Lubbock Monterey, 4:41.6.
mile relay — Odessa Permian, 3:27.6.
pole vault — Bruce Sims, Odessa Permian, 13-6.
high jump — Larry Hart, Odessa Permian, 6-0.
broad jump — David May, Amarillo Palo Duro, 21-9½. shot put — D. Chapman, Midland Lee, 53-4. discus — M. Perry, Midland Lee, 162-7.

Tornadoes Triumph, Gain Finals Berth

By ROBERT HEARD

AUSTIN (AP) — South San Antonio scored a heart-stopping victory over Clear Creek, and Lamesa smashed Waxahachie Thursday night to win berths in the Class AAA final of the State Schoolboy Basketball Tournament.

South San Antonio won, 60-58.

Class AA and Class A finalists also were determined, and the semifinal matches in Class B were set up.

The big-city schools, in Class AAAA, play for the first time today.

All state championships will be determined Saturday.

The South San Antonio Bobcats, clearly inferior to Clear Creek in a first-half defensive battle, poured through 16 straight points in the first minutes of the third quarter to take a 30-24 lead.

Joe Lenox of Clear Creek hit seven of 15 field goal shots and eight for eight at the free throw line for 22 points.

Natividad Salazar of South San Antonio pumped through 19, as did Richard Huhn of Clear Creek.

The Bobcats joined Lamesa, an easy, 69-51 winner over Waxahachie, in the title game.

In Class AA, the Dimmitt Bobcats smoothly dismantled San Antonio Cole, 62-54, to enter the finals with Hardin-Jefferson, who edged Van 54-51.

Brownsboro outmanned Lorenzo, 79-57, and Archer City, making its first appearance in the tournament since 1921, defeated Zapata, 61-57, in Class A.

Snook, each of whose starters had four fouls at the end of the game, chopped up Sands 54-39, in Class B. The other Class B final game went to Kennard, victor over Avoca, 59-47.

They saved the best game for last on Thursday's program. All the available space in Gregory Gymnasium was filled with noise as Lenox pumped a 15-footer that missed at the buzzer. That would have sent the game into overtime.

Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes handled Waxahachie's Indians with little difficulty. The Indians had a miserable 18 per cent accuracy in shooting from the field in the second half. Lamesa's Pat Feed, a 6-foot-5 junior was deadly from the corner, netting 21 points for the night. Tres Blankenbeckler scored 20 for the Indians.

The big gun in Dimmitt's arsenal was John Howell, who maneuvered gracefully under the basket for 32 points in the Bobcats' triumph over Cole's Cougars. John Townsend scored 18 for Cole.

Hardin-Jefferson, near Beaumont, blew a seven-point lead, then overcame a 14-point deficit to whip Van's Vandals. Top scorers for Hardin-Jefferson were Robert Chisum and Dalton Raiford Jr., who each got 14 points. Tommy Beall and Steve Clark each had 15 for Van, near Tyler.

Brownsboro, near Tyler, got points production from Marshall Crawford and Jesse Williams to the tune of 26 and 22 points, respectively. Williams also got a fantastic 30 rebounds. Lorenzo, near Lubbock, was led by Edward Jones with 16 points and Donnie Kuehler with 13.

Matteson In Hall Of Fame

KANSAS CITY (AP)—William (Matty) Matteson, former Stephen F. Austin College star, will be inducted into the NAIA basketball Hall of Fame March 17 along with six others.

Matteson led Cushing, Tex., High School to the 1936 state championship. He was for four years a star in basketball at Stephen F. Austin, making all-Lone State Conference three times.

He was athletic director and instructor at high schools in Minden, Tex., Huntington, Tex., and Woden, Tex., and since 1957 has owned and managed a theater in Nacogdoches, Tex.

Matteson will get his award at the Hall of Fame luncheon held in conjunction with the NAIA national basketball tournament.

Hefty Farrell Still Has Speed

COCOA, Fla. (AP)—Houston Astro spitcher Dick Farrell is ten pounds overweight but it apparently doesn't slow him down on the mound.

The veteran hurler retired all six men he faced on 12 pitches Thursday as he worked two hitless innings in a spring training intrasquad game.

Manager Grady Hatton has scheduled another intrasquad game today.

Thursday's game ended in a 1-1 deadlock. Jose Herrera had two hits and Joe Morgan turned a double into a run when Norm Miller bobbled the ball in left field.

Howie Reed gave up the other run when Ron Brand singled between his legs and scored on Gene Freese's infield out after two walks.

Tourney Re-Set

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Trans-Mississippi, one of the top mens amateur golf tournaments, has been rescheduled for July 17-23 at the San Antonio Country Club course.

Bob Daubert, tournament chairman, said Thursday the Trans-Miss was set back one week to avoid conflict with a pro - amateur tournament at Odessa.

Jayhawks Defeat Christian College

AMARILLO (AP) — Amarillo upset second-seeded Dallas Baptist, last year's regional champion, 75-70 Thursday night and meets Howard County in the semifinals of the Region 5 junior college basketball tournamen to night.

In the other semifinal game, top-seeded Ranger plays odessa. The regional champion advances to the national tournament at Hutchinson, Kan., March 14.

Odessa defeated New Mexico College 102-88, Ranger whipped Clarendon 65-48 and Howard County defeated Christian College of the Southwest 74-60 in other first round games Thursday night.

Jackets Are Fifth

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Howard Payne, which completed its regular season by losing its last two games, has slipped to fifth place in the weekly NAIA basketball poll.

For several weeks Howard Payne was second to top-ranked Winston Salem State of North Carolina until the Yellowjackets hit their losing streak.

PLAYER OF YEAR—UCLA's super-sophomore, Lew Alcindor, learns of his selection by the Associated Press as college basketball's Player of the Year as he headed for class on the Los Angeles campus. The 7-foot 1⅛-inch All American received 215 of 290 votes cast. (AP Wirephoto)

FUN LOVING LATIN

Blancas Takes Lead At Doral

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Homero Blancas, a fun-loving Latin who has dramatic ups and downs on the golf trail, led the $100,000 Doral Open into today's second round with a record-tying six-under-par 65, but plenty of people were breathing down his neck.

Joe Goldstrand, who used to play on the University of Houston golf team, and Tommy Aaron, a seven-year pro still looking for his first tournament victory stood just one stroke back.

And, even more formidable in Blancas' immediate future, Arnold Palmer lurked just two strokes back and Jack Nicklaus, bunched with seven others at 68, was in quick striking position.

Blancas and Goldstrand grabbed the early spotlight in the opening days's play Thursday as they chopped up the 7,002-yard Doral Blue Monster course with apparent ease.

Collecting six birdies, the 28-year-old Blancas posted a score that has been equalled only by Doug Sanders in 1965 and Kermit Zarley last year.

Blancas, Rookie of the Year in 1965, looked like he was well in the clear until Goldstrand, who isn't even listed in the PGA player catalog, came winging home with a 66.

Then Aaron, former University of Florida star, matched Goldstrand's score and a battle royal was on.

The reputation of the Doral course was ripped to pieces as 38 players broke par and 21 more equalled it.

Ordinarily, stiff winds rake the course hacked out of a flat Everglades swamp west of Miami, but Thursday afternoon was calm, and Palmer and other stars who teed off late had it easy.

Nicklaus was tied with George Archer, Bob Goalby, Bert Greene, Harold Henning, Doug Sanders and Tom Weiskopf at 68.

Hess Guides Freshmen

HOUSTON (AP) — The new head freshman football coach at Rice University is James Ray Hess.

Hess, 30, athletic director and head football coach at Kilgore High School the past two years, will begin his Rice duties next Wednesday.

His appointment was announced Thursday night by Harold (Bo) Hagan, Rice's athletic director and head coach. The selection completes the staff of Hagan, who was named recently to succeed the retiring Jess Neely.

Hess' teams at Kilgore compiled a 10-10 record the past two seasons. Before going to Kilgore he coached Rockwall High School in 1963-64 where his team won the state Class AA title in 1963 and had a 22-game winning streak.

The Washington Senators were shut out 20 times last year.

Texans Join Pros

FORT WORTH (AP) — The Fort Worth Texans are the newest club in the expanding Texas Professional Football League.

Commissioner George Schepps said Thursday night that a franchise was issued to John Hatley and Pat Pharr, both of Fort Worth, for the eighth team in the young league.

Hatley, who played with the former Chicago Cardinals in the National Football League, will be the Texans' coach.

Other teams in the league are Amarillo, Tulsa, Sherman-Denison, Dallas, Wichita Falls, Pasadena and Odessa-Midland.

Wooden Is Cage Coach Of Year

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Johnny Wooden of the unbeaten and top-ranked UCLA Bruins was named the college basketball Coach of the Year by The Associated Press today.

The 56-year-old Wooden, whose UCLA teams have won 99 and lost only 10 in their last 109 games, is favored to lead his boys to the national championship this year for the third time in four seasons.

The Man from Indiana or the Wizard of Westwood, as the native of Martinsville, Ind. is sometimes called, beat out Bill van Breda Kolff, of Princeton, to win the first Coach of the Year poll held by The Associated Press.

Wooden received 75 votes to 59 for van Breda Kolff in balloting by 277 sports writers and broadcasters.

Dean Smith of North Carolina was third in the voting with 26. Bernard (Peck) Hickman of Louisville was fourth with 17 and Ray Mears of Tennessee fifth with 12.

Roy Skinner of Vanderbilt, Johnny Oldham of Western Kentucky and Ralph Miller of Iowa each received nine votes. Rounding out the first 10 were Bob Nichols of Toledo and Jack Hartman of Southern Illinois who tied with eight.

Larry Glass of Northwestern, with six votes, and Bob Cousy of Boston College, with five, headed an additional list of 20 coaches who received one or more votes.

John Benington of Michigan State and Moe Iba, of Memphis State, each got four votes. Guy Lewis of Houston, Don Haskins of Texas Western, Joe Swank of Tulsa and Lou Henson of New Mexico State tied at three each. Lou Watson of Indiana and Vic Bubas of Duke each got two.

The remaining 10 each received one vote. They were Sox Walseth of Colorado, Joe Vancisin of Yale, Don Kennedy of St. Peter's, N.J., Bob MacKinnon of Canisius, Tommy Bartlett of Florida, Lou Carnaseca of St. John's, N.Y., Don Donher of Dayton, Ted Owens of Kansas, Jack Kraft of Villanova and Hank Anderson of Gonzaga.

Reflecting his worst season ever at Kentucky, Adolph Rupp, the nation's winningest active coach with 759 career victories, did not receive a single vote.

First Methodist

Church School begins at 9:45 a.m. followed by the morning worship at 10:55 a.m. The subject for Dr. John English's sermon will be "We Still Have A Choice." First Methodist Church of Snyder, along with 38,000 Methodist Churches, will join 30 other Protestant denominations in observing the One Great Hour of Sharing. In this single gesture of Christian compassion, churchmen are given the opportunity of supporting world relief programs. Contributions made by Methodists will go to programs designated by the denomination.

The Junior High and Senior High MYF groups will meet at 5 p.m.

The evening worship hour is at 6 p.m. The evening sermon will be another study of people of the Bible, entitled "Cain — The First Born."

The Commission of Missions have planned a Family Night covered dish dinner for Tuesday evening at 7, March 7. Dr. Hubert L. Sone, who now lives in Fort Worth, and is speaking throughout the United States in behalf of missions, will be with us this night. He will speak to the MYF at 6 and all Methodists following the dinner. Dr. Sone first went to China in 1920, teaching in Soochow University and later doing evangelistic work in the city of Huchow. In 1933 he joined the faculty of the Union Nanking Theological Seminary as a professor of Old Testament. He also directed the seminary's program of training city pastors. He served in Nanking until 1951. In that year, he left China and was transferred to Singapore, Malaya. He was appointed to the faculty of the Union Trinity Theological College in Singapore and he taught and served as president of that college until his retirement.

Other activities for the week: Commission on Membership and Evangelism Visitation at 7, and Boy Scouts and Explorers at 7:-30 on Monday; MYF at 6 p.m. and Family Night Covered Dish Dinner at 7 p.m. on Tuesday; Story Hour and Ruth Circle at 9:30 a.m., Commission on Stewardship and Finance at 6:30 p.m., Official Board and Chancel Choir Rehearsal at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday; Boy Scout Roundtable at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday; and Church Membership Class at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Be still

"...And went and hid thy talent in the earth." St. Matthew 25:25.

Seldom we fall so very low
Through the years of life we go.
More often with all our talents nigh,
Few of us ever rise very high,
And rather than reach toward a star
Only drift wherever we are!

60,000 Taxpayers Trying New 'Simplification' Program

By JOHN CUNNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Of the estimated 80 million taxpayers now scratching and erasing figures on their income tax returns, some 60,000 are participating also in an experiment to simplify forms.

These 60,000, all residents of the South and West, are being asked to master a brand-new form as part of a "simplification" program.

The results, to be judged on the accuracy of the returns and on answers to an accompanying questionnaire, won't be available until late this year. However, based solely on a quick look at the "simplified" form, one hair-raising fact is immediately apparent: it is seven pages long.

The reason for the extreme length — the basic 1040 or 1040A form is one piece of paper to be filled on both sides — is that it is based on questions and answers. That is, the instructions are woven throughout as questions.

The IRS claims this, the 1040Q form, is the latest of many attempts to simplify returns. It does not claim the new form is simpler, but it hopes so. "We are not prejudging it," said Sheldon Cohen, IRS commissioner.

In conducting its simplification program the IRS is admitting to the same frustration as the taxpayer, that the tax form, though perhaps simpler than 10 years ago, is sometimes an unfathomable puzzle.

This, the IRS feels is not its fault although it is its problem. "The forms reflect the tax laws," is the standard IRS answer. As a servant, it says, it merely carries out the dictates of Congress, which passes the tax laws.

Congressmen, in turn, concede the tax laws are indeed complex but explain that so is our free and highly developed American society.

The result is that neither the American public nor the IRS are satisfied with the form — the public because it has to make it out and the IRS because it finds the form difficult to check.

And so the taxpayer has an ally in the tax collector. Because the IRS has computerized its analyses of returns and will continue to automate other aspects of its work, it needs clear, accurate, digestable bits of information.

Whosoever Will may come to Church may come to God . . .

WINDS of GOD

This is God's world and the soul who expects "smooth sailing" must learn the ways of the "Winds of God." We must know how to chart our course and man the sails. Stop for a moment, as you start every day, and ask the Great Pilot what course He recommends. Be sure you have read the Guide Book for mariners... The Sermon on the Mount. Here, you will learn how to meet the winds and how to make them drive your ship where you are going. You must know how to tack as you face the difficult journey ahead. See that your compass is working and that you have chosen well your passengers... companionship is very important. In the long ago a dozen men sailed a difficult sea and feared the storm would founder their little craft. But they had asked a master sailor — The Great Pilot — to go with them. When they had to awaken Him to face the storm, they were amazed to hear the command — "Peace, Be Still," but more amazed to see the raging waters calmed under His authority. Their companion made the difference. The Great Pilot will be at your church Sunday when you dock — He is anxious to meet you.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCHGOER and a daily BIBLE READER.
