Vietnam Air War Back In Full Swing

★ ★ ★ ★ ★ ★ Prospect For Peace Fades

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Vietnamese used 3,770 trucks and vessels to rush at least 25,000 tons of ammunition and equipment toward South Vietnam during the bombing pause, the Defense Department said today.

This was calculated to be enough to support a 10,000-man division in combat for 250 days, a spokesman said.

In the 96 hours of the Tet truce, the Communists were able to transport more war material southward than they had in any previous 30-day period, the spokesman said.

Meanwhile, Vietnam peace prospects appeared at their lowest level in two months today as Monday's resumption of the U.S. air war against the North ended weeks of optimistic speculation.

U. S. officials said peace efforts had receded to their pre-Christmas position.

President Johnson, in announcing the resumption of bombing late Monday, said he had hoped the cease-fire during the lunar new year "might lead to some abatement of hostilities and to moves toward peace."

But he said the North Vietnamese had used the pause "for major re-supply efforts of their troops in South Vietnam."

Johnson apparently referred to Sunday night's meeting in London between Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and British Prime Minister Harold Wilson when he said: "Despite our efforts and those of third parties, no other response has yet come from Hanoi."

Johnson earlier had indicated determination to resume the air war in the absence of any North Vietnamese easing of military activity.

But the North Vietnamese insisted on a halt in U. S. bombing and withdrawal of troops before peace talks could get started.

North Vietnamese President Ho Chi Minh made this clear in a reply to Pope Paul's appeal for an early settlement of the conflict.

Ho wrote, "The U. S. imperialists must put an end to their aggression in Vietnam, end unconditionally and definitely the bombing and all other acts of war against the Democratic Republic of Vietnam, withdraw from South Vietnam all American and satellite troops, recognize the South Vietnam National Front for Liberation (Viet Cong) and let the Vietnamese people settle themselves their own affairs."

Road Change Around Dam Given Okay

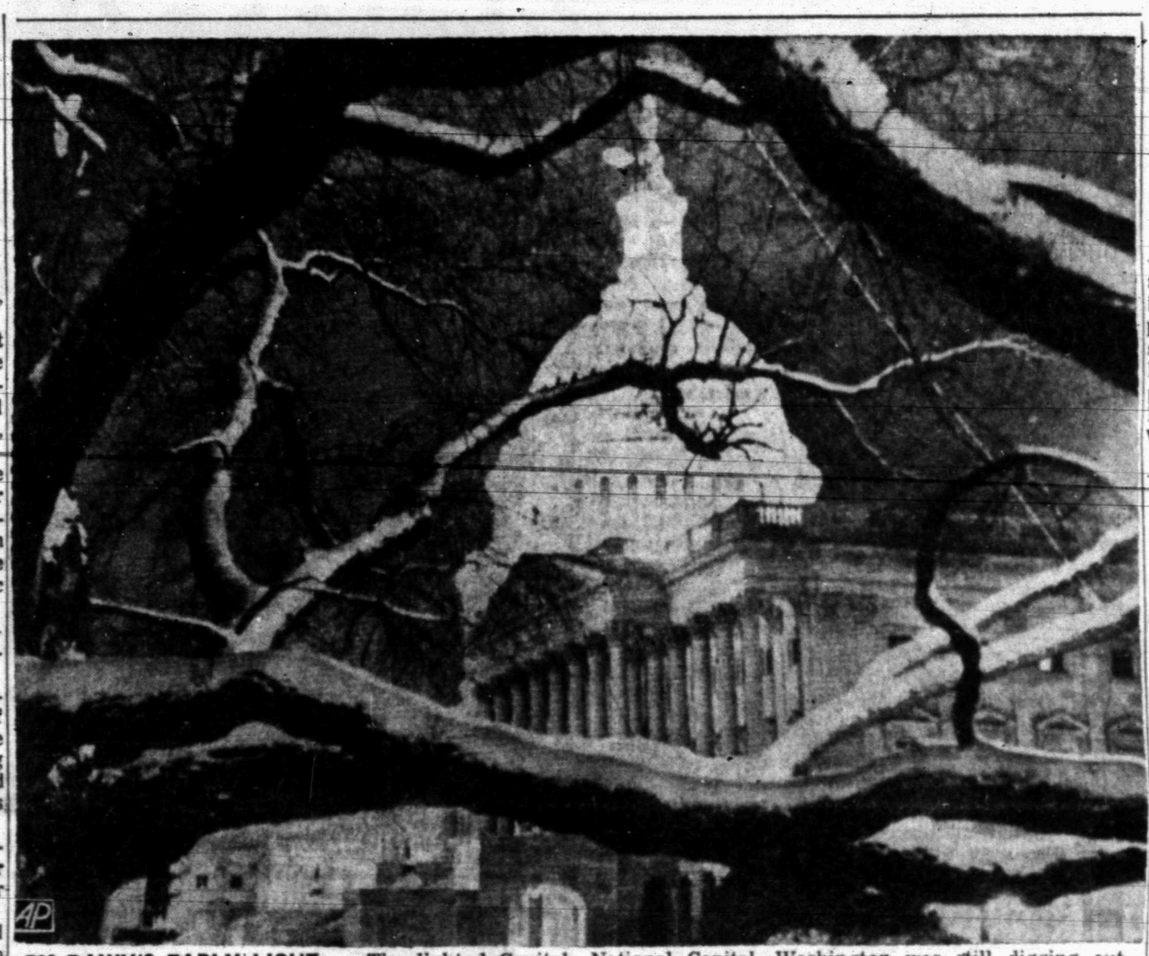

The Texas Highway Department has announced an agreement on a rerouting of State Highway 158 around the south end of the new dam across the Colorado River above Robert Lee.

J. A. Snell, San Angelo, District 7 highway engineer, and members of his staff met last weekend at the site with O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, and the consulting engineers for the dam project, and settled on a route for the diverted road from Sterling City to Robert Lee.

The new route will leave the existing SH 158 about five miles west of Robert Lee. It will swing to the southeast and across the emergency spillway near the crest, then pull back to a junction of SH 158 and SH 208 in Robert Lee. The district had suggested a route across the spillway but accepted changes suggested by the highway department.

Snell said that right-of-way surveying would be started at once and would be completed within about two months. The road is due to be rebuilt well in advance of the closing of the CRMWD's new dam which will impound a 488,000-acre foot lake.

Only one other road problem remains in connection with the new lake. It involves the construction of a higher bridge across the river (and upper end of the lake) west of Silver, but this may be done even after the dam is closed.

US Pounds Supply Lines

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — The air war returned to full swing today on both sides of the border. U.S. fighter-bombers pounded railways and other supply routes in North Vietnam. Radio Hanoi declared two planes were shot down. U.S. Navy vessels attacked North Vietnamese shipping.

Peking and Pyongyang broadcast pledges of continued support for the Viet Cong from Red China and North Korea. The messages to the guerrillas were signed by Defense Ministers Lin Piao of China and Kim Chang Bong of North Korea.

There was no immediate comment here on Hanoi's story of the downing of two planes. If confirmed, the official list of American losses north of the border would rise to 475.

In South Vietnam allied forces reported only light contact with the enemy, but U.S. Air Force and Marine pilots flew a near record 535 sorties in support of sweeping infantrymen Monday. The American record for one day of such single combat flights in South Vietnam is 549, set last Jan. 13.

U.S. spokesmen also announced that seven men of the U.S. 1st Cavalry Airmobile, Division were killed and four were wounded Monday night when five rounds of their own artillery landed among them.

The spokesmen also announced that one man of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division was killed Sunday and 14 were wounded when a U.S. plane's bomb went astray during an operation. However, a claymore mine went off in the same area just before the bomb explosion, and the spokesmen said it might have caused some of the casualties.

The first American air strike against the Communist north since the lunar new year truce began last Wednesday morning was made at 1:07 a.m. by two Air Force F4C Phantoms. They attacked the Vinh Tuy highway bridge seven miles south of Dong Hoi, the U.S Command said.

Navy A6 Intruders pounded rail facilities in half a dozen areas in the North Vietnamese panhandle.

Poor weather conditions limited the air raids to the panhandle area and hampered damage assessment estimates. The Air Force announced its pilots flew 12 missions—about 36 planes—in the first five hours after the bombing pause ended.

A U.S. spokesman said there "definitely were further" strikes throughout the day.

Beckwith Announces Candidacy

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Byron De La Beckwith, who was twice tried for the ambush murder of civil rights leader Medgar W. Evers, today announced his candidacy for lieutenant governor of Mississippi.

In announcing his candidacy, Beckwith, 45, said "I feel that this campaign will provide me with the opportunity to repay the many kindnesses which I have received from my fellow Mississippians by offering myself as a candidate whose political position has already been clearly established."

Dist. Atty. Bill Waller, who prosecuted Beckwith, is a candidate for governor.

Both trials resulted in hung juries.

Beckwith, a former resident of Greenwood recently moved to Jackson where he is employed as an advertising salesman for a segregationist newspaper, the Southern Review.

The first Mississippi primary is Aug. 8.

Evers, 37 field secretary in Mississippi for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, was shot down by a sniper in the driveway of his Jackson home, June 12, 1963.

Beckwith was arrested after an intensive investigation by the FBI and other law enforcement agencies.

Orbiter Ready To Snap Landing Spots

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — America's Lunar Orbiter 3 — locked in eliptical orbit around the moon — snaps its first pictures Wednesday of possible astronaut landing spots.

The pictures — to be taken at a low angle to reveal how the surface should look to arriving astronauts — will be taken with the 850-pound spacecraft's twin-lens camera system, then radioed to earth.

Sales Tax Proposal Cleared For Debate

By JACK KEVER

AUSTIN (AP)—The 1 per cent local option city sales tax, for which many mayors have been pleading, won Senate committee approval today for full floor debate.

The committee on Counties, Cities and Towns voted without a roll call in favor of a bill that would let local voters decide whether to have the tax. Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena was the only member who voted "no" on the voice vote.

An identical House bill was called up by the House Revenue and Taxation Committee for an afternoon hearing.

Mayors and other officials from several cities urged passage of the bills, which would permit taxation of only items covered by the 2 per cent sales tax. Auto sales could not be taxed.

Three big city mayors and Clifford Burros of Wichita Falls, president of the Texas Municipal League, told the committee their cities have almost reached the limit on property taxes and need a sales tax to provide the services that are expected.

Houston Mayor Louie Welch said his city's growth problems "are beyond the average person's knowledge by far."

"I don't want to be a mayor of a city that can't dispose of its sewage... pick up its garbage... or that is unsafe for people to live in. The only answer outside the property tax is the city sales tax."

Burros, Wichita Falls mayor pro tem, said Oklahoma City has been recruiting firemen and policemen in Wichita Falls since Oklahoma City voted in a city sales tax and raised salaries. "Cities are strapped to meet these needs."

Austin Mayor Lester Palmer and El Paso Mayor Judson Williams predicted that, if given the chance, their cities would approve the proposed 1 per cent local option city sales tax.

H. S. Brown, president of the Texas State AFL-CIO, said "Working people...are against this sales tax referendum bill."

He said Gov. John Connally's tax recommendations "are already over laden with selective sales taxes on gasoline, cigarettes, liquor and beer, auto excise taxes and others. These taxes do more to accentuate the vast difference in Texas between the 'haves' and the 'have nots.'"

Solon's Bronx Cheer Goes On Record

AUSTIN (AP) — A Texas-size Bronx cheer became part of the official Senate record Monday.

Sen. H. J. (Doc) Blanchard, Lubbock, opposed passage of a bill that would grant $5.5 million for San Antonio's 1968 Hemis-Fair, and he criticized the stand taken by San Antonio leaders in pushing for passage.

"The senators up here from San Antonio have shown some responsibility, but as for the business leaders of San Antonio.

"Pf-f-f-f-f-f," repeated Blanchard, adding: "The only time the business leadership of San Antonio ever got together was when they threatened to move the Alamo to Dallas for the Texas Centennial."

Blanchard was one of those who voted against the measure when it finally passed 21-7.

Luce Asks Gasoline Rollback

WASHINGTON (AP) —Interior Department officials are talking with men of the major oil companies trying to spur a rollback in gasoline price hikes.

Undersecretary Charles Luce met Monday with officials of Continental Oil Co., Cities Service and Humble Oil. He met today with Phillips Petroleum Co. men.

Luce had no comment after the closed-door sessions.

Price increases of about one cent a gallon were announced lask week by Continental, Cities Service, Phillips, America Oil Co., Gulf, Mobil, Sunray and Texaco.

Luce asked the companies last Friday to rescind the price boost because of what he called "the national interest in stable prices." He also urged Humble and Shell, two other major producers, not to raise prices. So far they haven't.

Luce's request was denied by Stanley Learned, president of Phillips, who maintained that "greatly increased costs of labor" forced the price hike.

Brawl Erupts In Germany

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — A wild street brawl between U.S. soldiers and German police and taxi drivers late Sunday is under investigation by US Army authorities, a military spokesman said today.

He said he could not confirm German police reports that one soldier had threatened a policeman with a loaded submachine gun.

A preliminary Army investigation report said that the fracas lasted about 20 minutes before an officer restored order.

This conflicted sharply with German police and newspaper reports that a free-for-all in which soldiers attacked police with sticks, bottles, stones and chair legs lasted for an hour.

The fight started, police reported, when they tried to arrest a soldier who they said had fled from the scene of a minor collision between his car and a taxi.

Livestock Show Opens Wednesday

Plans for the annual Scurry County Junior Livestock Show were completed Monday evening at the traditional barbecue for members of the Junior Livestock Association and young exhibitors.

Raymond Robinson and Rex Robinson were elected to the board of directors of the association. Holdover members are Jimmy Beck, Burl Belew and Carl Williams.

Meanwhile, the 1967 show schedule called for all animals to be in place at the show barn in Towle Memorial Park by 6 p.m. Wednesday. Hogs will be weighed and classified immediately.

On Thursday, hogs and lambs will be sifted at 9 a.m. and steers at 11 a.m.

First judging events will send hogs into the show arena at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Lambs will be judged at 1 p.m. Friday and steers will be judged Friday night at 7:30. Bobby Lee of Wilson will judge the hogs, Travis Allen of Portales, N. M., will judge sheep, and Ray Simms of Alpine will judge the steers.

The annual auction sale will climax the show Saturday afternoon. The sale will bebin at 1 p.m.

Buford Browning is general superintendent of the Show. Richard Stokes is superintendent of the steer division, Darrell Sims is superintendent of the swine division and Jimmy Beck is superintendent of the sheep division.

Browning said indications are that the 1967 show may be the best in history, from the standpoint of both quality & quanity.

IN MILITARY PURGE

Mao Swinging Wide Loop

TOKYO (AP) — Wall posters in Peking indicated today that a sweeping purge of Red China's leading military men is under way in Mao Tse-tung's drive to weed out supporters of President Liu Shao-chi. They also reported a big step up the power ladder by Mao's wife.

A correspondent of the Japanese newspaper Sankei Shimbun said 25 top military men have come under fire as followers of the bourgeois, reactionary line.

Wall posters put up by the postal and telegraph workers said that Mao's aggressive third wife, Chiang Ching, has been named chairman of a new committee formed to press Mao's purge in central party and government organizations.

Her new importance was underlined by the fact that Premier Chou En-lai, who might have been expected to head such a committee, has been named to serve on it as Mrs. Mao's adviser.

Another wall poster reported a clash between Soviet and Red Chinese troops on an unspecified date on the Manchurian border. The report said a Soviet battalion opened fire on a Chinese army company and was replsed. It said Soviet soldiers were captured but later released.

If true, this would be the first known exchange of shots between the two Communist powers since the Maoist purge began last August. Mao recently was reported to have ordered an alert all along China's border with the Soviet Union.

Among the military leaders included in the wholesale indictment were Vice Defense Minister Hsiao Chingkuang, air force commander Wu Fan-hsien, navy deputy commander Li Tso-peng, Ulanfu, commander of the Inner Mongolian military district, and Wang En-mao, commander of the Sinkiang military district.

Choice Of Forms Important In Filing Income Tax Facts

EDITOR'S NOTE — It's important that federal income taxpayers use the tax return form that fits their situation and income. This article, the second of five, explains that point and several other procedures.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are two basic forms for filing your 1966 income tax return. 1040, which anyone can use, and a simpler one, 1040A, the punch-card, which only those fitting certain conditions can use.

If your taxable income last year was $10,000 or more, you have no choice. You must use 1040. And, if it was under $10,000, you can use 1040A only if:

Your income was entirely from wages reported on W2 withholding statements or consisted of such wages, plus not more than $200 in dividends and interest and wages from which tax was not withheld.

Otherwise, even though your income was under $10,000, you must use 1040.

And — anyone with $5,000 or more income must figure his own tax from the tax-rate schedule in the instruction sheet which the Internal Revenue Service sends all taxpayers.

If your income was under $5,000 you can find your tax without figuring it, in the tax-table but only if you are willing to accept the standard deduction allowed taxpayers for personal expenses.

In some cases the standard deduction is larger than a taxpayer's deductible personal expenses actually were. Sometimes the opposite is true.

If your expenses were more than the standard deduction gives you, you can claim them in full but in that case you must itemize them all to get credit for them.

And — in that case you'll have to use form 1040 and figure your own tax.

Also, you must use 1040 if you are a single person claiming to be "head of household" or a widow or widower claiming to be a "surviving spouse" or if you claim credit for retirement income or exclusion for sick pay or if you paid an estimated tax in 1966 or claim travel, transportation, moving or other expenses.

There are two kinds of standard deduction: the 10 per cent standard and the minimum standard.

The 10 per cent standard means that, without itemizing or needing to prove anything about your deductible expenses, you get 10 per cent off your income, up to a limit of $1,000. The limit is $500 each for married persons filing separately.

The same maximum limitations apply to the minimum standard deduction.

With the minimum standard deduction you deduct $300 for yourself, $100 for each dependent, and $100 for your wife u she files jointly with you or, having no income, she fails to file jointly with you but is claimed as an exemption on your return.

If you have doubts about which to use, try them both before deciding. Here are some examples of benefits and disadvantages.

Jones has a wife, four children, and his 1966 income was $6,000. Under the 10 per cent standard deduction he could knock $600 off his income for personal expenses.

But suppose he used the minimum standard. He'd take $300 for himself, $100 for each of his four dependent children, and $100 for his wife who had no income but was filing jointly with him. This gave him a total deduction of $800, which was $200 more than the 10 per cent standard gave him.

Now take Smith, with a wife, one child. He also had $6,000 income. He'd get a $600 deduction under the 10 per cent standard arrangement, which would be a lot better in his case than if he took the minimum standard.

This is why: Under the minimum standard he'd get $300 for himself, $100 for his wife who had no income but, like Mrs. Jones, filed jointly with her husband; and $100 for his child, or a total deduction of only $500.

When a couple files separate returns, if one uses the 10 per cent standard deduction, both must use it; if one uses the minimum standard, both must; if one itemizes deductions, both must.

And when a husband and wife file separate returns, using the minimum standard deduction, each gets a deduction of only $200, plus $100 for each dependent each can rightfully claim.

That instruction sheet which the IRS sends taxpayers has three tax tables for those under-$5,000 people permitted to use the table and three tax-rate schedules for those who must figure their own tax.

Take the tables first.

Table A is for single persons, table B for married persons filing jointly, and table C for married couples filing separate returns.

Table B is also for those qualifying as "surviving spouse" and "head of household".

Their problems will be explained in No. 3 in this series.

In tables A and B there is no choice between the 10 per cent standard deduction and the minimum standard deduction. The government has considered both and provided the lowest tax in both those tables.

Note that married couples filing jointly, and using table B, usually get the same or a lower tax than married couples filing separately and using table C. But in table C there is a choice for those using it between the 10 per cent standard deduction and the minimum standard deduction.

But, of course, the differences between them are already provided for in the table without any work on your part. The only time you'd have to work out the differences is when, and if, you decided to figure your own tax, using form 1000

Also note this: The three tax-rate schedules, used by those figuring their own tax, do not parallel the three tax tables.

For example:

Schedule No. 1 is for single persons and married persons filing separately; No. 2 is for married couples filing jointly and for those qualifying as "surviving spouse"; and No. 3 is for the unmarried or legally separated who can qualify as "head of household."

Next: Types of paying groups.

Sweden Hit By Tremors

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — Two fairly strong earthquakes, whose shocks set seismographic needles jiggling around the globe, were recorded during the night at the Uppsala Seismological Institution.

Dr. Markus Baath, director of the institution, said the first quake was recorded at 2320 GMT — 6:20 p.m. EST Monday — and registered 6.7 on the Richter scale. He said the quake was apparently located in the north Atlantic southwest of Iceland.

The same shock was reported Monday night by Dr. Charles Richter, seismologist at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena. He also said the quake was located in the Atlantic Ocean.

The second quake, with a magnitude of 6 on the Richter snale, was registered at Uppsala at 0147GMT. Baath estimated it occurred about 5,340 miles away but could not say where.

Japan's Central Meteorological Agency recorded a distant earthquake at 0144GMT and estimated the epicenter "in the direction of New Guinea."

A spokesman at the Hong Kong Royal Observatory also said their seismographs recorded two quakes, one of them "severe."

This Was Spooning, For Real

NEW YORK (AP) — Girls, what would you think of receiving a giant, hand-carved wooden spoon with engraved hearts and your initials for Valentine's Day today?

That's the way the Welshmen did it in the 18th and early 19th centuries. The spoon symbolized housekeeping. The idea was to express the boy's earnest desire to win the girl's intention to marry him. It's spooning, if you please.

"I think it's a very touching custom," said Ellen Schaut, a 19-year-old student at the Pittsburgh Art Institute. She commented in a sampling of opinion on the practice by The Associated Press.

Miss Schaut's roommate, Mickey Spillane — yes, she's a girl — also thinks it's a touching idea. Miss Spillane, 23, suggested however, that "if you don't like the guy, you can always hit him over the head with it."

"Too out of date for today's male," was the reaction of Cathie McSweeney, a 20-year-old junior at the University of California at Los Angeles.

"It's a symbol of household drudgery that should have been abolished years ago," remarked Corinne Guntzel, 24, a pert brunette Ph.D. candidate in economics at the University of Illinois.

"It's no sign of household drudgery," said Denis Smith, 17, a Los Angeles high school senior. "Anyway I think a woman's place is in the home. It's kind of like an engagement ring. I wouldn't mind getting one myself."

"What? a big spoon!" exclaimed Margaret McDonough, of Miami, Fla., an airline stewardess. "Well, it's a fine idea, I guess, but it wouldn't work so well now. It's the thought that counts and it depends on who sends something. Just send her a card — if not a card, then a phone call."

New York City's Museum of Courtship, Love and Marriage, a nonprofit organization dedicated to showing customs around the world, has on display wooden replicas of the Welsh valentines from the Cardiff Museum in Wales. Some are 12 inches to 20 inches long and up to 10 inches wide.

Firemen Called Out

City Fireman answered a call to the Preston Hall residence, 3712 Austin, at 6:45 a.m. today when a fire ignited in the kitchen stove. It was extinguished with C102 and dry powder. Only smoke damage to the kitchen resulted.

Bonds Are Set

L. P. Lunceford, Snyder, was charged in Justice of the Peace Court today on two counts of swindling by worthless check and theft. The offenses allegedly occurred Dec. 2 and Feb. 2. Personal bond of $250 was set on each count.

Workers Take Holiday

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — "Absentees? What absentees? There were none reported to us," said California Gov. Ronald Reagan's press secretary, raising his eyebrows in mock surprise.

But reporters who checked the state Capitol and state buildings at San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino and Fresno heard mainly their own echoing footsteps as they sought out the 166,000 state employes.

California's state workers had been invited by the new Republican governor to volunteer their services Monday, the Lincoln's Birthday holiday.

The idea was that by donating their time — at no extra pay or compensatory time off — a state Reagan describes as fiscally weakened might receive a $7-million shot in the arm, through unanticipated work accomplishments.

Gov. Reagan arrived for work early, but to do so had to cross a picket line of the Union of State Employes, AFL-CIO, which opposed the holiday labor.

Three More Texans Among Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three more Texans have been killed in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

It listed Army 2nd Lt. Jack M. Secret Jr. as killed in action. He was the husband of Mrs. Glanda F. Secret of West Columbia, Tex.

The other Army men were reported dead from non-hostile action.

They were 1st Lt. Michael F. Scott, son of Col. and Mrs. Franklin E. Scott of 642 Weatherly Dr., San Antonio, and Pfc. Kenneth J. Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Fletcher of 1203 S. Dwight St., Monahans, Tex. Fletcher had been reported missing earlier.

Stamps In The News

AP Newsfeatures
By SYD KRONISH

Ancient art objects, some of which date back to the 9th century B. C., are features on a new set of large-sized stamps from Israel. The objects are on display in the Jerusalem Museum, reports the Israel Philatelic Agency in America.

The 15 agorot stamp depicts a bronze panther figurine. The 30 agorot shows a synagogue stone menora. The 40 agorot illustrates a Phoenican ivory sphinx. The 55 agorot pictures a gold earring. The 80 agorot has a miniature gold capital. The highest value, 1.15 L, bears a gold drinking horn.

Because of the large size of the stamps, there will be only 12 stamps and 4 tabs to a sheet. The stamps are available at your local dealer.

The Irish Post Office will issue a special postage stamp to commemorate the 750th anniversary of Ballintubber Abybey. The design of the stamp, depicting the interior of the Abbey, is based on a litograph taken form George Wilkinson's "Practical Geology and Ancient Architecture of Ireland" published in 1845.

The famous Abbey of Ballintubber was founded by Cathal O'Connor, King of Connaught, in 1216 and has been in continuous use for divine worship for 750 years. The building is an example of the transition from the rounded arch Romanesque style of architecture to full Gothic.

Collectors in this country desiring first - day covers may write to Irish Cachet Covers, 947 East 32nd Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. 11210. A complete set on cover costs $1.

The Republic of Korea has issued a new stamp to honor the first anniversary of Korean combat troops in Viet Nam. The new stamp features Korean infantry troops in action some where in a jungle area. The Korean flag and a battle flag are seen waving in the background.

Valentine's Day can be traced to ancient Rome and the Feast of Lupercalia. Roman maidens placed their names in a giant urn in the public square, and bachelors drew the name cards from the urn. Some of the maidens tried to attract attention to their own name cards by decorating them lavishly.

MOST FEMININE — That wonderful airborne souffle knit of mohair and wool, takes a new softened approach to fashion in a feminine little pullover with its raglan sleeves, gentle bodice ripples and novelty stitch neckband, color-matched to an easy line souffle knit skirt that comes with its own lining. Colors are florious, glowing from the rich textured depths of the all-American mohair and wool. They are divine travelers, virtually impossible to wrinkle.

VFW Auxiliary Hears Report

The Scurry County Ladies Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 8231 held a regular business meeting Monday evening with Junior Vice President Idell Cox presiding.

Ethel Sowell, Viet Nam chairman, reported that she had mailed several boxes to the Scurry County boys serving in Viet Nam for Christmas and that at present was preparing additional boxes to be mailed in the near future.

A letter was read from the chairman of the March of Dimes for the auxiliaries $10 donation. The post commander came into the meeting to present Francine Spivey with a citation for her work on the program.

Seventeen members were present.

Choice Of Forms Important In Filing Income Tax Facts

EDITOR'S NOTE — It's important that federal income taxpayers use the tax return form that fits their situation and income. This article, the second of five, explains that point and several other procedures.

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are two basic forms for filing your 1966 income tax return. 1040, which anyone can use; and a simpler one, 1040A, the punch-card, which only those fitting certain conditions can use.

If your taxable income last year was $10,000 or more, you have no choice. You must use 1040. And, if it was under $10,000, you can use 1040A only if:

Your income was entirely from wages reported on W2 withholding statements or consisted of such wages, plus not more than $200 in dividends and interest and wages from which tax was not withheld.

Otherwise, even though your income was under $10,000, you must use 1040.

And — anyone with $5,000 or more income must figure his own tax from the tax-rate schedule in the instruction sheet which the Internal Revenue Service sends all taxpayers.

If your income was under $5,000 you can find your tax without figuring it, in the tax-taole but only if you are willing to accept the standard deduction allowed taxpayers for personal expenses.

In some cases the standard deduction is larger than a taxpayer's deductible personal expenses actually were. Sometimes the opposite is true.

If your expenses were more than the standard deduction gives you, you can claim them in full but in that case you must itemize them all to get credit for them.

And — in that case you'll have to use form 1040 and figure your own tax.

Also, you must use 1040 if you are a single person claiming to be "head of household" or a widow or widower claiming to be a "surviving spouse" or if you claim credit for retirement income or exclusion for sick pay or if you paid an estimated tax in 1966 or claim travel, transportation, moving or other expenses.

There are two kinds of standard deduction: the 10 per cent standard and the minimum standard.

The 10 per cent standard means that, without itemizing or needing to prove anything about your deductible expenses, you get 10 per cent off your income, up to a limit of $1,000. The limit is $500 each for married persons filing separately.

The same maximum limitations apply to the minimum standard deduction.

With the minimum standard deduction you deduct $300 for yourself, $100 for each dependent, and $100 for your wife u she files jointly with you or, having no income, she fails to file jointly with you but is claimed as an exemption on your return.

If you have doubts about which to use, try them both before deciding. Here are some examples of benefits and disadvantages:

Jones has a wife, four children, and his 1966 income was $6,000. Under the 10 per cent standard deduction he could knock $600 off his income for personal expenses.

But suppose he used the minimum standard. He'd take $300 for himself, $100 for each of his four dependent children, and $100 for his wife who had no income but was filing jointly with him. This gave him a total deduction of $800, which was $200 more than the 10 per cent standard gave him.

Now take Smith, with a wife, one child. He also had $6,000 income. He'd get a $600 deduction under the 10 per cent standard arrangement, which would be a lot better in his case than if he took the minimum standard.

This is why: Under the minimum standard he'd get $300 for himself, $100 for his wife who had no income but, like Mrs. Jones, filed jointly with her husband; and $100 for his child, or a total deduction of only $500.

When a couple files separate returns, if one uses the 10 per cent standard deduction, both must use it; if one uses the minimum standard, both must; if one itemizes deductions, both must.

And when a husband and wife file separate returns, using the minimum standard deduction, each gets a deduction of only $200, plus $100 for each dependent each can rightfully claim.

That instruction sheet which the IRS sends taxpayers has three tax tables for those under-$5,000 people permitted to use the table and three tax-rate schedules for those who must figure their own tax.

Take the tables first.

Table A is for single persons, table B for married persons filing jointly, and table C for married couples filing separate returns.

Table B is also for those qualifying as "surviving spouse" and "head of household".

Their problems will be explained in No. 3 in this series.

In tables A and B there is no choice between the 10 per cent standard deduction and the minimum standard deduction. The government has considered both and provided the lowest tax in both those tables.

Note that married couples filing jointly, and using table B, usually get the same or a lower tax than married couples filing separately and using table C. But in table C there is a choice for those using it between the 10 per cent standard deduction and the minimum standard deduction.

But, of course, the differences between them are already provided for in the table without any work on your part. The only time you'd have to work out the differences is when, and if, you decided to figure your own tax, using form 1000

Also note this: The three tax-rate schedules, used by those figuring their own tax, do not parallel the three tax tables.

For example:

Schedule No. 1 is for single persons and married persons filing separately; No. 2 is for married couples filing jointly and for those qualifying as "surviving spouse"; and No. 3 is for the unmarried or legally separated who can qualify as "head of household."

Sweden Hit By Tremors

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — Two fairly strong earthquakes, whose shocks set seismographic needles jiggling around the globe, were recorded during the night at the Uppsala Seismological Institution.

Dr. Markus Baath, director of the institution, said the first quake was recorded at 2320 GMT — 6:20 p.m. EST Monday — and registered 6.7 on the Richter scale. He said the quake was apparently located in the north Atlantic southwest of Iceland.

The same shock was reported Monday night by Dr. Charles Richter, seismologist at the California Institute of Technology at Pasadena. He also said the quake was located in the Atlantic Ocean.

The second quake, with a magnitude of .6 on the Richter snale, was registered at Uppsala at 0147GMT. Baath estimated it occurred about 5,340 miles away but could not say where.

Japan's Central Meteorological Agency recorded a distant earthquake at 0144GMT and estimated the epicenter "in the direction of New Guinea."

A spokesman at the Hong Kong Royal Observatory also said their seismographs recorded two quakes, one of them "severe."

This Was Spooning, For Real

NEW YORK (AP) — Girls, what would you think of receiving a giant, hand-carved wooden spoon with engraved hearts and your initials for Valentine's Day today?

That's the way the Welshmen did it in the 18th and early 19th centuries. The spoon symbolized housekeeping. The idea was to express the boy's earnest desire to win the girl's intention to marry him. It's spooning, if you please.

"I think it's a very touching custom," said Ellen Schaut, a 19-year-old student at the Pittsburgh Art Institute. She commented in a sampling of opinion on the practice by The Associated Press.

Miss Schaut's roommate, Mickey Spillane — yes, she's a girl — also thinks it's a touching idea. Miss Spillane, 23, suggested however, that "if you don't like the guy, you can always hit him over the head with it."

"Too out of date for today's male," was the reaction of Cathie McSweeney, a 20-year-old junior at the University of California at Los Angeles.

"It's a symbol of household drudgery that should have been abolished years ago," remarked Corinne Guntzel, 24, a pert brunette Ph.D. candidate in economics at the University of Illinois.

"It's no sign of household drudgery," said Denis Smith, 17, a Los Angeles high school senior. "Anyway I think a woman's place is in the home. It's kind of like an engagement ring. I wouldn't mind getting one myself."

"What? a big spoon!" exclaimed Margaret McDonough, of Miami, Fla., an airline stewardess. "Well, it's a fine idea, I guess, but it wouldn't work so well now. It's the thought that counts and it depends on who sends something. Just send her a card — if not a card, then a phone call."

New York City's Museum of Courtship, Love and Marriage, a nonprofit organization dedicated to showing customs around the world, has on display wooden replicas of the Welsh valentines from the Cardiff Museum in Wales. Some are 12 inches to 20 inches long and up to 10 inches wide.

Firemen Called Out

City Fireman answered a call to the Preston Hall residence, 3712 Austin, at 6:45 a.m. today when a fire ignited in the kitchen stove. It was extinguished with C102 and dry powder. Only smoke damage to the kitchen resulted.

Bonds Are Set

L. P. Luncefords, Snyder, was charged in Justice of the Peace Court today on two counts of swindling by worthless check and theft. The offenses allegedly occurred Dec. 2 and Feb. 2. Personal bond of $250 was set on each count.

Workers Take Holiday

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — "Absentees? What absentees? There were none reported to us," said California Gov. Ronald Reagan's press secretary, raising his eyebrows in mock surprise.

But reporters who checked the state Capitol and state buildings at San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego, San Bernardino and Fresno heard mainly their own echoing footsteps as they sought out the 166,000 state employes.

California's state workers had been invited by the new Republican governor to volunteer their services Monday, the Lincoln's Birthday holiday.

The idea was that by donating their time — at no extra pay or compensatory time off — a state Reagan describes as fiscaily weakened might receive a $7-million shot in the arm through unanticipated work accomplishments.

Gov. Reagan arrived for work early, but to do so had to cross a picket line of the Union of State Employes, AFL-CIO, which opposed the holiday labor.

Three More Texans Among Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three more Texans have been killed in Vietnam, the Defense Department reported Monday.

It listed Army 2nd Lt. Jack M. Secret Jr. as killed in action. He was the husband of Mrs. Glanda F. Secret of West Columbia, Tex.

The other Army men were reported dead from non-hostile action.

They were 1st Lt. Michael F. Scott, son of Col. and Mrs. Franklin E. Scott of 642 Weatherly Dr., San Antonio, and Pfc. Kenneth J. Fletcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Fletcher of 1203 S. Dwight St., Monahans, Tex.

Fletcher had been reported missing earlier.

By SYD KRONISH

Ancient art objects, some of which date back to the 9th century B. C., are features on a new set of large-sized stamps from Israel. The objects are on display in the Jérusalem Museum, reports the Israel Philatelic Agency in America.

The 15 agorot stamp depicts a bronze panther figurine. The 30 agorot shows a synagogue stone menora. The 40 agorot illustrates a Phoenican ivory sphinx. The 55 agorot pictures a gold earring. The 80 agorot has a miniature gold capital. The highest value, 1.15 L, bears a gold drinking horn.

Because of the large size of the stamps, there will be only 12 stamps and 4 tabs to a sheet. The stamps are available at your local dealer.

The Irish Post Office will issue a special postage stamp to commemorate the 750th anniversary of Ballintubber Abybey. The design of the stamp, depicting the interior of the Abbey, is based on a litograph taken form George Wilkinson's "Practical Geology and Ancient Architecture of Ireland" published in 1845.

The famous Abbey of Ballintubber was founded by Cathal O'Connor, King of Connaught, in 1216 and has been in continuous use for divine worship for 750 years. The building is an example of the transition from the rounded arch Romanesque style of architecture to full Gothic.

Collectors in this country desiring first - day covers may write to Irish Cachet Covers, 947 East 32nd Street, Brooklyn, N. Y. 11210. A complete set on cover costs $1.

The Republic of Korea has issued a new stamp to honor the first anniversary of Korean combat troops in Viet Nam. The new stamp features Korean infantry troops in action some where in a jungle area. The Korean flag and a battle flag are seen waving in the background.

Valentine's Day can be traced to ancient Rome and the Feast of Lupercalia. Roman maidens placed their names in a giant urn in the public square, and bachelors drew the name cards from the urn. Some of the maidens tried to attract attention to their own name cards by decorating them lavishly.

MOST FEMININE — That wonderful airborne souffle knit of mohair and wool, takes a new softened approach to fashion in a feminine little pullover with its raglan sleeves, gentle bodice ripples and novelty stitch neckband, color-matched to an easy line souffle knit skirt that comes with its own lining. Colors are florious, glowing from the rich textured depths of the all-American mohair and wool. They are divine travelers, virtually impossible to wrinkle.

ONE IRREVERENT QUESTION, PLEASE!

Strange Coincidence Marks Vietnamese Lunar Holidays

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Vietnamese lunar new year — Tet, they call it — is becoming tet-for-tet, with some strange coincidences two years apart.

Twice, just at the end of Tet, Viet Cong terrorists in South Vietnam attacked American military installations.

Twice, after this happened, President Johnson hit back fast by ordering the bombing of North Vietnam.

And twice, although not directly, Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin was involved.

In 1965 the warring sides in Vietnam called an informal truce for the lunar holiday in February.

As Tet neared its end the Viet Cong fired mortar shells into the American airbase at Pleiku, killing nine U.S. servicemen and wounding more than 100. That was on Feb. 7.

That same day Johnson ordered retaliation: North Vietnam was bombed. And this, although it wasn't realized at the time, began the U.S. air war on the Communists in the north.

But also on Feb. 7 Kosygin was in Hanoi, the northern capital, where he had just made a speech promising the Soviets would give the North Vietnamese all necessary help.

His presence there, just as American bombers began to strike, put tension on official Washington which didn't want the Soviets in any way to connect the bombing with Kosygin's visit or with what he said.

The Johnson administration insisted the air attacks were strictly retaliatory for what happened at Pleiku.

But this put on ice prospects for visits by Johnson to the Soviet Union and Soviet leaders to the United States. The visits are still on ice.

Comes Tet again, and again in February. This time it's 1967. The warring sides called an informal truce for the holiday. This time, too, Kosygin was away from home, visiting British Prime Minister Harold Wilson in London.

The two men discussed ways to find peace for Vietnam. Johnson had been pleading with North Vietnam to show some sign it wanted peace. So this raised an obvious question: Once Tet was over would Johnson continue the pause in the bombing which began with the start of Tet last week?

There was another question, too: If he resumed the bombing as soon as Tet was over, but while Wilson and Kosygin were discussing ways to peace, would the bombing wreck the talks?

Although ground fighting resumed after Tet ended Saturday night, Johnson did not let the bombing resume. But on Sunday night, just as they did at the end of Tet in 1965, the Viet Cong terrorists hit an American military installation in South Vietnam.

This time they tried to fire mortar shells into the U.S. headquarters of Gen. William C. Westmoreland. Instead, they hit a bus loaded with South Vietnamese servicemen, 75 yards from the headquarters' compound, killing nine and wounding nine others.

A few hours later Johnson ordered the bombing of North Vietnam to resume, the first in six days. But, by that time, it was learned Wilson and Kosygin had reached no solution on peace.

The Pentagon explained that the continuation of the bombing pause, after Tet had ended, was to "avoid any possibility that earlier resumption could be misconstrued in relation to Mr. Kosygin's visit to London."

Later Monday Johnson said "we had no alternative" because of Hanoi's action. Explaining he had hoped the truce might lead to some lessening of the war and a move toward peace, he added:

"Unfortunately the only response we have had from the Hanoi government was to use the period (the Tet truce) for major resupply efforts of their troops in South Vietnam."

Junior Editors Quiz on HUMMINGBIRDS

QUESTION: Where do hummingbirds go for the winter?

• • •

ANSWER: The hummingbird is truly tiny. Look at the bottom picture (1) and you will see one sitting on a blade of timothy grass. With all their lightness, they are among the most remarkable fliers in the bird world. They not only hover in the air, they can fly backward (2), being the only birds who can do so.

The most familiar American hummingbird is the Ruby Throat. These jewel-like little creatures breed from Labrador down to the southern states. In autumn, they perform their greatest flying trick. Working down through the South to Florida, these mighty mites strike out boldly across the Gulf of Mexico (3). Without rest or food, they fly some 500 miles directly to Yucatan or Central America. Then they travel to their winter homes, which are in various parts of Mexico, Central and South America. For such tiny birds to make a sustained 500-mile flight seems truly astonishing.

Little Albie Seeks Job

By MIKE FORRESTER
Associated Press Writer

RIVERSIDE, Calif. (AP) — "My career was just adequate at best. There are a lot of us that retire everyday, and we have to go out and look for jobs."

So said modest 5-foot-5 Albie Pearson, the darling of California Angels baseball fans, who announced his retirement from baseball Monday because of a back injury.

Pearson's "adequate" career included selections as American League Rookie of the Year in 1958, as American League all-star centerfielder in 1963 and three years of leading the Angels in batting.

The cause of the retirement is a deteriorated spinal disc which put the 31-year-old Pearson in the hospital for 36 days at the beginning of last season.

The disc causes Pearson little discomfort during normal activity, but "the only thing I can't do is do the thing I've done all my life, and that's play baseball," he said at his Riverside home.

Midge, as his teammates called him, has long been active in youth work and participates in the Youth for Christ organization along with such athletes as Bob Richardson, Don Shinnick, Raymond Berry, Fran Tarkenton and Felipe Alou.

"We feel we have a purpose in life," Pearson said of the group. "These young people are being bartered for on every media known to man. I'd like to show them what life's all about, spiritually speaking."

Albie conceded it's tough to support a wife and four daughters that way, but said, "There's always a way out."

"I don't have any special plans," he added. "I haven't had any special offers of any sort that have been significant."

Drysdale Inks Pact

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Durable Don Drysdale's getting a running start at the 1967 baseball season, feels fit and thinks the Los Angeles Dodgers will repeat as National League champions.

The 6 - foot - 6 right-hander signed his new contract Monday for what he and Dodger officials said was for an income in six figures. It was reported at $105,000 or $5,000 cut from his 1966 pact.

The 11-year Dodger veteran, together with Sandy Koufax, held out in contractnegotiations held out in contract negotiations last year until March 30. Drysdale finally got $110,000 and Koufax settled for $125,000. Swift Sandy, 27-game winner last season, has now retired because of an arthritic elbow.

Overweight and undertrained, Drysdale got off to a poor start last season and finished with a 13-16 record. His late - season performances were impressive, though, and were instrumental in bringing the Dodgers the National League pennant.

"I lost 10 or 12 pounds this winter and I feel real good," Big D said Monday. "I've been working quite a bit around my (San Fernando Valley) place and mainly watching my weight"

The Dodgers depart for their Vero Beach, Fla., spring training ground Feb. 25. The group will look different from last year's. The fabled Koufax is go year's. The fabled Koufax is gone, Maury Wills has been traded and the new faces include Bob Bailey, Jim Hickman, Ron Hunt, Bob Lee and Gene Michael.

Cards Vs. Buffs Tonight

Hermleigh tangles with Fluvanna tonight in the second tilt of a best 2 of 3 series to determine the basketball representative in District 70-B. Tipoff is set for 8 p.m. in Cardinal gym.

Fluvanna won the first clash and can wrap up a playoff berth with another victory tonight. Should Hermleigh win, then a third game will be held at 8 p. m. Saturday in Fluvanna.

Also on tap tonight is a practice game in the Tiger gym with Colorado City of District 5AA and Tahoka of District 1A. Tipoff is slated for 7:30 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Next Tuesday, Tiger gym will be the site for a Class A playoff game between Tahoka and Asermont to settle the bi-district championship.

Cougars Pace Slows, Miners Hold Eighth

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Louisville, Princeton, Western Kentucky and Kansas, four among the ranking teams which eluded an active Mr. Upset last week, have gained ground in the latest Associated Press major-college basketball poll.

Unbeaten UCLA, the only other team in the Top Ten to emerge without a loss last weekend remained the poll's unchallenged leader. The Bruins, 19-0, were the unanimous choices for first place for the fifth straight week.

Vanderbilt, a top contender in the Southeastern Conference and Syracuse, 17-2, including 10 straight victories in its most recent games, are the newest members of the first 10. They replaced Providence and Boston College, two among the five ranking teams which were beaten in weekend games.

The Bruins, victors over Oregon State 76-44 and Oregon 100-66, collected all 32 votes for the No. 1 position in the latest balloting by sports writers and broadcasters based on games through last Saturday.

Louisville advanced to the runner-up position after defeating Drake 57-54 and Wichita 90-68. The Cardinals collected 275 points in the voting, based, as usual, on 10 points for a first-place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third etc.

Princeton which had to claw like Tigers to beat Yale 81-80 and Brown 57-54, moved up one notch to third. North Carolina, an 82-80 loser to Georgia Tech, tumbled two places to fourth. The Tar Heels beat Virginia and Wake Forest earlier in the week.

Western Kentucky and Kansas each climbed one position, the Hilltoppers to fifth and Kansas to sixth. Western Kentucky beat Murray 88-79 in overtime and East Tennessee, 65-56. Kansas whipped Nebraska 84-58 and Kansas State 60-55.

Houston, an 87-78 loser to Notre Dame, slipped from fifth to seventh. Texas Western, despite its 69-56 setback by Notre Dame held the No. 8 spot.

Vanderbilt, 17-3 including a 10-2 mark in the SEC which places it a half game behind Tennessee, took over ninth place followed by Syracuse.

Providence, ninth a week ago, lost to Niagara 77-76 and Boston College, 10th last week, was upset by Fordham, 85-81.

The Top Ten, with first-place votes in parentheses and points on a 10-9-etc. basis:

1.	UCLA (32)	320
2.	Louisville	275
3.	Princeton	222
4.	North Carolina	203
5.	Western Kentucky	180
6.	Kansas	167
7.	Houston	96
8.	Texas Western	55
9.	Vanderbilt	51
10.	Syracuse	38

Sell 20,000 Ducats

DALLAS (AP) — More than 20,000 tickets for each of the eight home games on the schedule have already been sold by the Dallas Cowboys.

The sale opened only Monday and the first day added 2,910 season tickets to about 17,000 that are being held for renewal privileges.

There are 60,000 tickets for sale and Cowboys officials wouldn't be surprised if they were all snapped up.

Drake Shoots Down Sooners

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Drake outrebounded Oklahoma at Norman and won 76-73, while St. Louis controlled the backboards with 6-foot-7 Gary Lovemark grabbing 18, and took control by 10 points at halftime. Lovemark also scored 13 points.

Big Bob Netolicky tallied 20 and Willie McCarter 21 for the Bulldogs, while Oklahoma was led by Willie Rogers with 26. The victory gave Drake an 8-13 season record, but Maurice John's club is 5-6 outside the league.

St. Louis, tied with Drake for last in the conference, dropped to 10-11 for the year, but the Bills are 7-4 against non-conference teams.

Loyola offset St. Louis backboard play by hitting nearly 50 per cent of its field shots—a sizzling 65 per cent the first 11 minutes in building a 31-15 lead. St. Louis finally pulled within three at 84-81, but the Ramblers stalled the last three minutes.

Jim Tillman, Loyola's gifted pivot, scored 35 points while 7-foot Rich Niemann led St. Louis with 24.

Boys Club Results Told

The Bobcats socked the Bears, 32-23, in a Boys Club basketball game held last week in the Travis gym. Standouts for the 'Cats were Hargrove, Dyess and Burleson.

The Wolves, led by Waters, romped over the Tigers, 38-29. In the third tilt of the day, the Bobcats edged the Tigers in the final minutes for a 27-24 triumph. High point men for the Bobcats were Dyess, Hargrove, Durst and Burleson.

The Wolves, coached by Travis Withers, rolled over the Bears, 56-21 in the final tilt of the day. Waters, Tyrone and Caine played a big part in the Wolves' victory.

In Boys Club basketball games for 10-year-olds at the Boys Club gym, the Torpedoes rolled over the Jets, coached by Floyd Allmand, 23-19. Price, Hargrove and Brazil paced the Torpedo attack.

The Bullets romped past the Rockets, 26-12. Important men for the Bullets were Gorman, Hinton and T. Jones.

In the third game of the day, the Torpedoes, led by Patchell and Hargrove, rolled over the Bullets to hand them their first loss of the season, 23-17.

In the finale, the Rockets, coached by Jack Rhodes, fell in the final minute of the tilt, 25-24. Big men for the Jets were Richardson and Harper.

All games scheduled Saturday, Feb. 18, will be played at the Boys Club beginning at 6 o'clock. This will be the final league game for all the teams.

76ers Will Win By Five--Hannum

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Coach Alex Hannum says his Philadelphia 76ers aren't hearing any footsteps.

"I expect to win the Eastern Division by at least five games," Hannum said Monday night after the 76ers snapped a two-game losing streak by defeating Cincinnati 131-123 in a National Basketball Association game as Wilt Chamberlain led the way with 58 points.

Hannum refused to even worry about a schedule which has his team playing 14 of its last 19 games on the road.

"Nuts to the schedule," Hannum exclaimed. "We have worked all season long to get six games ahead of Boston by good play on the floor. That's the way we'll stay there. I don't care whether the games are on the home or on the road. "We'll win it."

The 76ers' coach bristled when it was suggested that his team has been in a slight slump. The 76ers have lost six of their last 13 games, as compared to a 46-4 record when the slide began.

Hannum was extremely pleased with Chamberlain's 58-point performance. He collected 26 field goals and six free throws to set a new 1966-67 individual season high. Rick Barry's 57 for San Francisco last October was the previous high.

"I'm happy to see Wilt offensive-minded," Hannum said of Chamberlain, who most of the season has sacrificed his scoring prowess to concentrate on team play.

Chamberlain was devastating in his one-man show against the Royals Monday night, driving toward the hoop with his patented dunk shot. It was the 113th time in his pro career that he had topped the 50-point mark in regular season play.

In defeating Cincinnati for the sixth time in seven meetings this season, Philadelphia took the lead with 37 seconds left in the first quarter and never trailed.

Jerry Lucas drilled in 29 points to pace the Cincinnati attack. Adrian Smith added 24 and Oscar Robertson 23.

Think.

What else besides Long Distance telephone service costs you less today than it did 20 years ago?

Tough question. Not many things have gone down in price these past few years. Most goods and services have zoomed up in cost.

Long Distance rates are a pleasant exception. There have been ten rate reductions in Texas since World War II.

Nowadays, you can make a three-minute, station-to-station call to anywhere in the continental United States (except Alaska) for $1 or less after 8 p.m. or all day Sunday. This is the lowest rate ever. (Interesting comparison: The first transcontinental phone call, made in 1915, cost $20.70.)

And service today is faster and more convenient than ever before.

Better service at lower cost; we think that's a winning combination. Don't you?

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I hope you can put my mind at ease and help me with a problem no one else seems willing to help me with.

I would like very much to have my son's footprints taken again to compare them with the ones taken at the hospital where he was born. I am not saying for sure that he is not my own child, but I keep thinking that somewhere along the line they could have mixed up my baby with someone else's.

My son is a year old now, and it still bothers me.

I have contacted the hospital where he was born, asking if they would take another set of footprints for comparison now, and they laughed at me and said this was never done. Someone suggested I hire a lawyer. What for? I don't want to sue anyone. I just want to be sure they gave me the right baby.

TROUBLED MIND

DEAR TROUBLED: Your request does not strike me as being so outlandish. Discuss this with your family doctor. He will not laugh at you. Even tho your fears are probably unfounded, the proof you seek is not difficult to obtain.

Your peace of mind is what is important now.

P. S.: Lawyers are "hired" for reason other than "suing"—they advise one of his legal rights.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: First I want to tell you that I have not missed reading a single one of your columns since it started to run in our newspaper. When I go on vacations, I leave instructions with my housekeeper to cut out all the DEAR ABBY'S and save them for me. I only tell you this so you will know how much I respect your advice.

Now for my question: I would like to have your thinking on some extremely important matters, both social and business, but this must be strictly confidential. I don't want any of your secretaries reading my letters.

If I send you the money, will you please rent a post office box to receive my letters. I would like to be assured of absolute privacy. Thank you.

STRICTLY BETWEEN US

DEAR STRICTLY: Save your money. Send your letters via the regular channels, and mark them "CONFIDENTIAL," and you shall have the privacy you seek.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have been married for 22 happy years. Our children are in college, which accounts for my wife's being permanently employed.

Last month her boss sent her to Atlantic City for a convention. This is the first time she's ever been out of town without me. She is very attractive and looks younger than her age.

When she returned she told me that the convention included many social affairs, and one evening she went to cocktails and supper with a man she had casually met there. I am sure nothing wrong took place, but I am deeply hurt by what I consider to be indiscreet conduct for a married woman. I am sure there were plenty of unattached women she could have gone with. I would like your opinion.

OLD FASHIONED

DEAR OLD FASHIONED: Before forming negative opinions, talk it over with your wife and determine if she feels her conduct was "indiscreet." Then re-evaluate your judgment.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MIXED UP" IN BINGHAMPTON: He may be "brilliant," but ask an outsider. No one can offer objective advice about a problem when he is part of the problem.

Police Probe Lad's Death

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police searched for evidence today that a young Mexican stowaway, huddling inside the wheel well of an airliner, fell to his death from 5,000 feet.

The crushed body of Humberto Garcia Gutierrez, about 17, of Chihuahua, Mexico was found Monday on an empty school playground.

Investigators said the youth apparently stowed away before another for the rest of the the airliner left Mexico City and country.

fell when the wheels were lowered for landing at Los Angeles International Airport. The task of checking for evidence became more difficult as airliners departed later in the day.

Police said Gutierrez may have died from lack of oxygen or the cold prior to the plunge since the wheel wells are not pressurized or heated.

Weather Bureau climatologist Ralph H. Frederick believes there may be two separate January thaws — one for the northeastern United States and another for the rest of the country.

PRIZE PIG — Wilson Howell, Snyder businessman, received a fifth place ribbon at the Ft. Worth Livestock Show this year when this handsome gilt attracted the eyes of the judges. Howell entered 15 animals at the Show and returned home with 13 ribbons.

Big Increase In UFO Sightings

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Reports of unidentified flying objects — UFOs — boomed last year, reports Maj. Hector Quintanilla director of Project Blue Book at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

But whatever the sightings are, it's a safe bet they offer no threat to national security and don't come from outer space, the Air Force says.

A total of 1,060 sightings were submitted to the Air Force during 1966, second highest total since Blue Book began keeping tabs 20 years ago. The annual average is 555, the record 1,501 in 1952.

Of the 11,107 sightings since 1947, Quntanilla says, just 676 remain in the unidentified category. Only 30 of those checked out last year haven't been explained satisfactorily.

Another 242 sightings are listed as having insufficient data for identification.

The rest were identified as astronomical objects, aircraft, balloons, satellites and other natural or man-made items such as missiles, rockets, fireworks, clouds, birds, swamp gas, sparks, and a lighthouse.

To date Project Blue Book — the Air Force's investigative authority on aerial phenomena — offers these "firm" conclusions:

1. No unidentified flying object reported, investigated and evaluated by the Air Force has ever given any indication of threat to U. S. security.

2. No evidence has been discovered to indicate that any sightings categorized as unidentified represent technological development or principles beyond the range of present-day scientific knowledge.

3. There has been no evidence that any unidentified sightings were outer space vehicles.

A sighting is considered unidentified, the major says, when a report apparently contains all pertinent data necessary to suggest a valid cause or explanation of the report, but the description of the object or its motion cannot be correlated with any known object or phnomenon.

Meanwhile, sightings continue. The Weather Bureau at Cincinnati was swamped with UFO calls Monday— all evidentaly connected with a weather balloon. Its instrument-packed gondola, believed launched at Palestine, Tex., fell to earth in a strip mine pit in southeastern Ohio.

Scholarship Program For WACS Set

The United States Army has recently approved a scholarship program or a limited numrecently approved a scholarship program for a limited number of college women. Known as the Army Student Program for Potential WAC Officers, it offers financial assistance to 90 select senior women at colleges and universities throughout the country.

Designed especially for college women, the program is in two phases. During Phase I a student entering the last semester of her junior year or first semester of her senior year in January may apply for participation in the College Junior Program. Selected applicants will participate as cadets in a four-week orientation course at the US WAC Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., during the summer vacation period. All expenses for this training will be paid by the Army. In addition, each College Junior Cadet will earn a salary of approximately $150.00 for this training period.

Upon completion of the four-week orientation course, application may be made for Phase II of the Army Student Program for Potential WAC Officers. The limited number of selected individuals will be enlisted in the U.S. Army Reserve and will complete their senior year in college in an active duty status. They will receive pay and allowances totaling $300.90 per month and are eligible for full medical and dental care at any military installation as well as use of post exchange and commissary privileges.

Those completing this program will be commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army upon graduation and will serve for two years on the Army Executive Staff.

Further information and application forms may be obtained by writing to WAC Selection Officer, PO Box 8277, Wainwright Station, San Antonio, Texas 78208, or by visiting or calling the U.S. Army Recruiting Station, 1825 Twenty-fifth Street, Snyder, or phone HI 3-9675.

Railroad Panel Hears Purchase Nominations

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission says major purchasers' oil nominations for Texas crude oil in March total 2,746,631 barrels daily, a decrease of 26,091 barrels.

The commission said Monday that the U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast for crude oil in March is 2,860,000 barrels daily, a decrease of 90,000 barrels.

The agency will set the March market demand factor Thursday after considering crude oil nominations and the bureau's forecast at its statewide oil allowable hearing.

Hogs Raised As Sideline Take High Show Prizes

Wilson Howell, an electric company owner who is interested in raising hogs, took 15 animals to the annual Fort Worth Livestock Show this year and returned with 13 ribbons.

His hogs won one fifth place, three sixth, three 7th, four 8th, and two 9th places. That's pretty good when you consider that entries in the show came from across the state.

Actually, Howell feels that the results this year are ironic.

"That's the most pigs I've ever taken to a show over there," he said, "and we didn't win as high a place as we usually do, although we won more ribbons. He had won the reserve ribbon at Fort Worth two years previously.

Howell became interested in raising hogs as a method for making extra money during his spare time. Now, hog-raising, his regular business and church work take up all of his time.

A resident of Snyder the past 18 years, he raises hogs on his 100-acre farm seven miles south of town. He is married to the former Helen Joy Taylor of Snyder. They have two children, who also are interested in hogs.

Rickey, their 10-year-old son, is active in FFA work. Last week, he won second place in the Hampshire Barrow division of the Snyder FFA Show. A daughter, 14-year-old Ginger, is active in 4-H work at Lamar Junior High School. Rickey attends West Elementary.

Howell has enjoyed other successes with his hogs. Last year, a Hampshire boar won the grand championship in the Junior division at Dallas. The same animal won reserve honors at the South Plains Show in Lubbock.

The electrician now has 500 to 600 hogs after maintaining his interest in stock work for the past six years.

Jayne Mansfield Visits Saigon Base

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Jayne Mansfield arrived in South Vietnam today in a silver miniskirt, black boots, a brown sweater and a blushing smile.

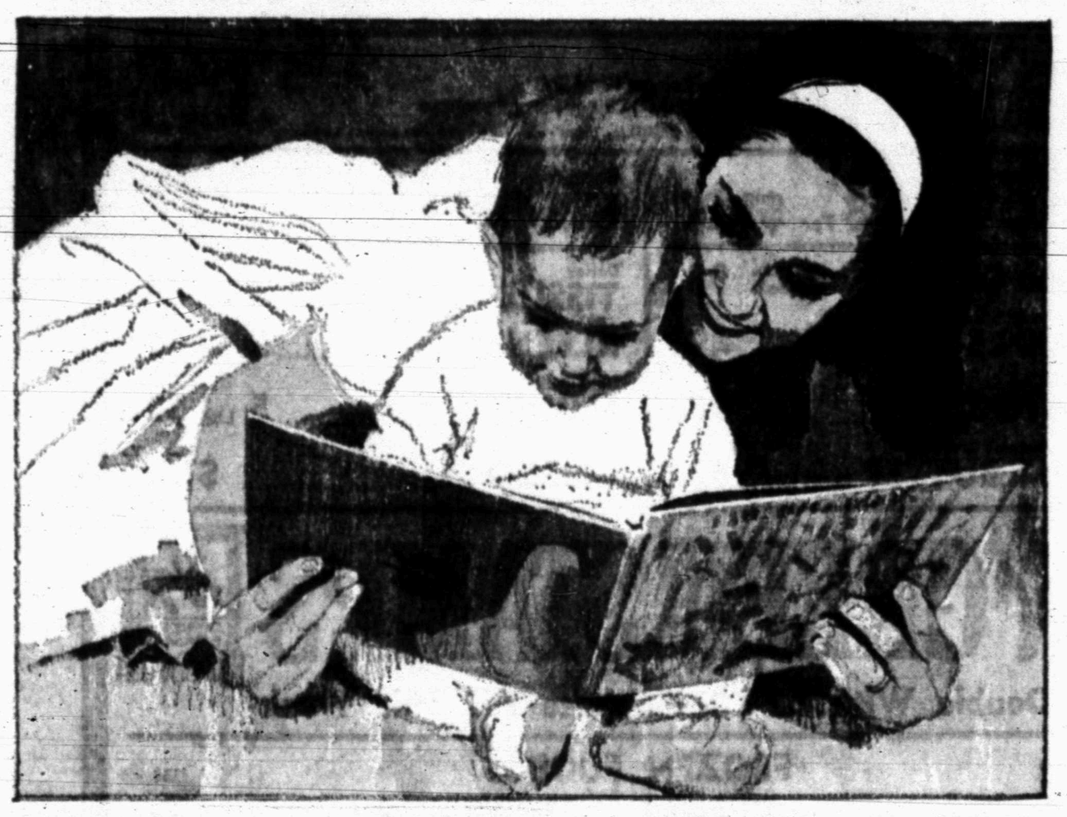

Her arrival at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airbase drew a chorus of whistles from GI camera bugs gathered at the ramp.

Miss Mansfield is on a tour of Far Eastern military bases and night clubs. She flies back to Los Angeles Saturday after visiting military camps throughout the country.

HUGH BOREN & SON REAL ESTATE

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I hope you can put my mind at ease and help me with a problem no one else seems willing to help me with.

I would like very much to have my son's footprints taken again to compare them with the ones taken at the hospital where he was born. I am not saying for sure that he is not my own child, but I keep thinking that somewhere along the line they could have mixed up my baby with someone else's.

My son is a year old now, and it still bothers me.

I have contacted the hospital where he was born, asking if they would take another set of footprints for comparison now, and they laughed at me and said this was never done. Someone suggested I hire a lawyer. What for? I don't want to sue anyone. I just want to be sure they gave me the right baby.

TROUBLED MIND

DEAR TROUBLED: Your request does not strike me as being so outlandish. Discuss this with your family doctor. He will not laugh at you. Even tho your fears are probably unfounded, the proof you seek is not difficult to obtain.

Your peace of mind is what is important now.

P. S.: Lawyers are "hired" for reason other than "suing"—they advise one of his legal rights.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: First I want to tell you that I have not missed reading a single one of your columns since it started to run in our newspaper. When I go on vacations, I leave instructions with my housekeeper to cut out all the DEAR ABBY'S and save them for me. I only tell you this so you will know how much I respect your advice.

Now for my question: I would like to have your thinking on some extremely important matters, both social and business, but this must be strictly confidential. I don't want any of your secretaries reading my letters.

If I send you the money, will you please rent a post office box to receive my letters. I would like to be assured of absolute privacy. Thank you.

STRICTLY BETWEEN US

DEAR STRICTLY: Save your money. Send your letters via the regular channels, and mark them "CONFIDENTIAL," and you shall have the privacy you seek.

* * *

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have been married for 22 happy years. Our children are in college, which accounts for my wife's being permanently employed.

Last month her boss sent her to Atlantic City for a convention. This is the first time she's ever been out of town without me. She is very attractive and looks younger than her age.

When she returned she told me that the convention included many social affairs, and one evening she went to cocktails and supper with a man she had casually met there. I am sure nothing wrong took place, but I am deeply hurt by what I consider to be indiscreet conduct for a married woman. I am sure there were plenty of unattached women she could have gone with. I would like your opinion.

OLD FASHIONED

DEAR OLD FASHIONED: Before forming negative opinions, talk it over with your wife and determine if she feels her conduct was "indiscreet." Then re-evaluate your judgment.

* * *

CONFIDENTIAL TO "MIXED UP" IN BINGHAMPTON: He may be "brilliant," but ask an outsider. No one can offer objective advice about a problem when he is part of the problem.

Police Probe Lad's Death

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police searched for evidence today that a young Mexican stowaway, huddling inside the wheel well of an airliner, fell to his death from 5,000 feet.

The crushed body of Humberto Garcia Gutierrez, about 17, of Chihuahua, Mexico was found Monday on an empty school playground.

Investigators said the youth apparently stowed away before the airliner left Mexico City and fell when the wheels were lowered for landing at Los Angeles International Airport. The task of checking for evidence became more difficult as airliners departed later in the day.

Police said Gutierrez may have died from lack of oxygen or the cold prior to the plunge since the wheel wells are not pressurized or heated.

Weather Bureau climatologist Ralph H. Frederick believes there may be two separate January thaws — one for the northeastern United States and another for the rest of the country.

PRIZE PIG — Wilson Howell, Snyder businessman, received a fifth place ribbon at the Ft. Worth Livestock Show this year when this handsome gilt attracted the eyes of the judges. Howell entered 15 animals at the Show and returned home with 13 ribbons.

Big Increase In UFO Sightings

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Reports of unidentified flying objects — UFOs — boomed last year, reports Maj. Hector Quintanilla director of Project Blue Book at Wright-Patterson Air Force Base.

But whatever the sightings are, it's a safe bet they offer no threat to national security and don't come from outer space, the Air Force says.

A total of 1,060 sightings were submitted to the Air Force during 1966, second highest total since Blue Book began keeping tabs 20 years ago. The annual average is 555, the record 1,501 in 1952.

Of the 11,107 sightings since 1947, Quntanilla says, just 676 remain in the unidentified category. Only 30 of those checked out last year haven't been explained satisfactorily.

Another 242 sightings are listed as having insufficient data for identification.

The rest were identified as astronomical objects, aircraft, balloons, satellites and other natural or man-made items such as missiles, rockets, fireworks, clouds, birds, swamp gas, sparks, and a lighthouse.

To date Project Blue Book — the Air Force's investigative authority on aerial phenomena — offers these "firm" conclusions:

1. No unidentified flying object reported, investigated and evaluated by the Air Force has ever given any indication of threat to U. S. security.

2. No evidence has been discovered to indicate that any sightings categorized as unidentified represent technological development or principles beyond the range of present-day scientific knowledge.

3. There has been no evidence that any unidentified sightings were outer space vehicles.

A sighting is considered unidentified, the major says, when a report apparently contains all pertinent data necessary to suggest a valid cause or explanation of the report, but the description of the object or its motion cannot be correlated with any known object or phnomenon.

Meanwhile, sightings continue. The Weather Bureau at Cincinnati was swamped with UFO calls Monday— all evidentaly connected with a weather balloon. Its instrument-packed gondola, believed launched at Palestine, Tex., fell to earth in a strip mine pit in southeastern Ohio.

Scholarship Program For WACS Set

The United States Army has recently approved a scholarship program or a limited numrecently approved a scholarship program for a limited number of college women. Known as the Army Student Program for Potential WAC Officers, it offers financial assistance to 90 select senior women at colleges and universities throughout the country.

Designed especially for college women, the program is in two phases. During Phase I a student entering the last semester of her junior year or first semester of her senior year in January may apply for participation in the College Junior Program. Selected applicants will participate as cadets in a four-week orientation course at the US WAC Center, Fort McClellan, Ala., during the summer vacation period. All expenses for this training will be paid by the Army. In addition, each College Junior Cadet will earn a salary of approximately $150.00 for this training period.

Upon completion of the four-week orientation course, application may be made for Phase II of the Army Student Program for Potential WAC Officers. The limited number of selected individuals will be enlisted in the U.S. Army Reserve and will complete their senior year in college in an active duty status. They will receive pay and allowances totaling $300.90 per month and are eligible for full medical and dental care at any military installation as well as use of post exchange and commissary privileges.

Those completing this program will be commissioned second lieutenants in the U.S. Army upon graduation and will serve for two years on the Army Executive Staff.

Further information and application forms may be obtained by writing to WAC Selection Officer, PO Box 8277, Wainwright Station, San Antonio, Texas 78208, or by visiting or calling the U.S. Army Recruiting Station, 1825 Twenty-fifth Street, Snyder, or phone HI 3-9675.

Railroad Panel Hears Purchase Nominations

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Railroad Commission says major purchasers' oil nominations for Texas crude oil in March total 2,746,631 barrels daily, a decrease of 26,091 barrels.

The commission said Monday that the U. S. Bureau of Mines forecast for crude oil in March is 2,860,000 barrels daily, a decrease of 90,000 barrels.

The agency will set the March market demand factor Thursday after considering crude oil nominations and the bureau's forecast at its statewide oil allowable hearing.

Hogs Raised As Sideline Take High Show Prizes

Wilson Howell, an electric company owner who is interested in raising hogs, took 15 animals to the annual Fort Worth Livestock Show this year and returned with 13 ribbons.

His hogs won one fifth place, three sixth, three 7th, four 8th, and two 9th places. That's pretty good when you consider that entries in the show came from across the state.

Actually, Howell feels that the results this year are ironic.

"That's the most pigs I've ever taken to a show over there," he said, "and we didn't win as high a place as we usually do, although we won more ribbons. He had won the reserve ribbon at Fort Worth two years previously.

Howell became interested in raising hogs as a method for making extra money during his spare time. Now, hog-raising, his regular business and church work take up all of his time.

A resident of Snyder the past 18 years, he raises hogs on his 100-acre farm seven miles south of town. He is married to the former Helen Joy Taylor of Snyder. They have two children, who also are interested in hogs.

Rickey, their 10-year-old son, is active in FFA work. Last week, he won second place in the Hampshire Barrow division of the Snyder FFA Show. A daughter, 14-year-old Ginger, is active in 4-H work at Lamar Junior High School. Rickey attends West Elementary.

Howell has enjoyed other successes with his hogs. Last year, a Hampshire boar won the grand championship in the Junior division at Dallas. The same animal won reserve honors at the South Plains Show in Lubbock.

The electrician now has 500 to 600 hogs after maintaining his interest in stock work for the past six years.

Jayne Mansfield Visits Saigon Base

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — Jayne Mansfield arrived in South Vietnam today in a silver miniskirt, black boots, a brown sweater and a blushing smile.

Her arrival at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airbase drew a chorus of whistles from GI camera bugs gathered at the ramp.

Miss Mansfield is on a tour of Far Eastern military bases and night clubs. She flies back to Los Angeles Saturday after visiting military camps throughout the country.

Defeated Demos Back On Payroll

WASHINGTON (AP) — A good many Democratic congressmen beaten in the Republican election sweep last November are back on the federal payroll.

Half have landed federal positions, are looking for them, or have been named to high positions in their states.

Former Rep. David S. King of Utah was appointed by President Johnson as U.S. ambassador to the Malagasy Republic off the southeast coast of Africa.

Half a dozen others have become high-level administrators in scattered federal agencies. More are consultants and lesser officials in a variety of federal programs.

Fifty-two Democratic congressmen were defeated in last year's primaries and general elections. So far 17 have federal appointments and jobs, at least 5 are looking and 4 are in line for positions in states and the Democratic party.

The other 26 defeated Democrats returned to law practices and other private positions back home, retired or are still in Washington but plan to return home soon.

Twenty-seven of the Democrats who rode into Congress on the Johnson tide in 1964 went right back out on the Republican resurgence last fall. But they generally have fared well.

Nine have federal jobs, four more are looking and three have sate positions or are leading contenders for them.

Patronage? A Democratic congressional staff member says it's no such thing.

"We help them make contact when we can," he said, "but they have to rely on their own merit when they go down for the job.

"We're certainly not in a position to say 'yes,' 'no' or 'maybe' on whether they're hired."

But he added that congressional experience with federal programs often gives ex-officeholders an advantage over other applicants for the same jobs.

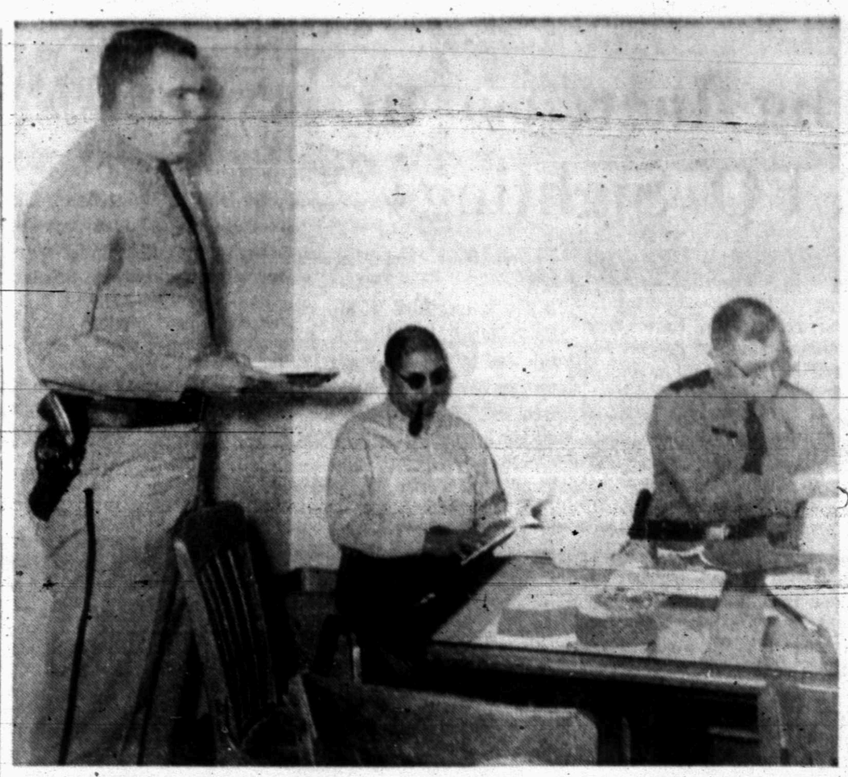

It would seem a congressman's voting record on proposals from a hiring agency also might help. But Democratic leaders concede no such influence.

There's little question the November defeats put some experienced men on the job markt.

Former Rep. Clair Callan of Nebraska, a House Agriculture Committee member during his one term, has become deputy administrator of the Rural Electrification Administration.

President Johnson named Thomas G. McGrath Jr. of New Jersey as general counsel of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Kenneth W. Dyal, a former California postmaster, now is regional post office director in San Francisco.

Former Rep. Lindley Beckworth of exas, a 24-year House veteran, was appointed by Johnson to a U.S. Customs Court judgeship in New York City.

GIVES INSTRUCTION — Officer Jim McKenzie of the Snyder Police Department is teaching a course in First Aid for members of the Police Department, Fire Department and Snyder Ambulance Service. The 10-hour course began Monday at the police station.

Drought Is Widespread

AUSTIN (AP)— The U.S. Department of Agriculture says significant moisture is needed before planting of crops in the western two-thirds of the state can begin.

In its weekly crop and livestock report, the department said Monday that poor growing conditions continued last week over the state. Only coastal regions received adequate moisture for normal growth.

Dryland wheat on the High Plains received little benefit from light snow and increased watering of irrigated wheat was necessary, the report said.

Flax continues to progress where moisture is adequate.

Carrots moved in good volume in the Lower Rio Grande and cantaloup planting continued and the citrus fruit harvest was active.

The cabbage and carrot harvest continued at Laredo. Cold weather slowed vegetable growth in the San Antonio Winter Garden area but watermelon planting continued.

"Cattle are depending heavily on supplemental feed to maintain condition as dry forage continues to diminish," the report said.

Higher temperatures are needed for oats along the coast and in parts of East Texas.

Nevada Moves To Close Prison Gambling Casino

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — The bull pen, Nevada's answer to gambling in prison, may be on its way out.

The convicts' casino in the maximum-security state prison is under attack.

The gambling-conscious state calls it "certainly the most unique gambling establishment in the world."

Speaker Mel Close of the Nevada Assembly calls it "the most depressing thing in the world."

Games in the "bull pen," run by inmates for inmates, include everything from poker through blackjack and craps to chuck-a-luck.

Close says it is not the "type of situation that's conducive to rehabilitation.

"The only thing prisoners are being trained for now is shills," he charged.

Close and five other assemblymen entered a bill Monday to outlaw the bull pen. Close said he has enough support to push it through the assembly.

A prison report issued under Republican Gov. Paul Laxalt's predecessor, former Gov. Grant Sawyer, a Democrat, had this to say:

"Employes (prisoners) in the casino are carefully screened by an administrative committee prior to being granted permission to operate the diverse games of chance functioning within the casino.

"Incidents of cheating and malpractice in the running of these activities are nonexistent. Most inmates, regardless of background in such activity are meticulously fair and honest."

But Close said: "Very few people at the prison have any money. And the little bit they do have is taken from them through the bull pen.

But Close said: "Very few people at the prison have any money. And the little bit they do have is taken from them through the bull pen."

"Sometimes, in this environment, people might get indebted for more than money."

Close said gambling is prohibited in Nevada's minimum-security prison.

"So the worst guys we've got in prison are the ones who are allowed to gamble," he said.
