

There Are Real Reasons To Give Thanks

By Nanalee Nichols
Thanksgiving is this Thursday. Not "Turkey Day" and not "Football Day" either. Sometimes, in the pleasure of a big meal and all that special television, we lose sight completely of what Thanksgiving is about. Of course, we've heard about those Pilgrims and Indians for so long that the story has lost a lot of emphasis. But Thanksgiving isn't altogether about that either. Thanksgiving was started by the story about the Pilgrims...and those people gave heartfelt thanks that starvation had been staved off...a thought we might consider the next time we grouse about the price of steak.

But the word "Thanksgiving" means to give thanks, to stop and take a little time to ponder all those things we DO have to be happy about.

It doesn't have to interfere with family dinners or television, indeed, family dinners and TV are some of the things we have to appreciate.

It doesn't take long at all, but sometimes on that day, just to remind ourselves, we should all think about all those many, uncountable blessings we, as Americans, receive.

Remember that the poorest citizen in America often has more than an average person in many other countries. Remember that we are not war-torn by dissension as are many countries.

Remember that we have a system which provides subsistence for the elderly, when in many, many countries the elderly must go on working at near-slave jobs in order to exist at all.

Remember that for most of the world, non-essentials like carpet, central heat, freezers full of food, much less VCR's or television, are as unobtainable as the things multi-millionaires have are to us.

Cars, most families in Europe count themselves lucky to own one...we tend to complain if we can't afford to keep our "second" car almost new!

For us, the idea of owning a new house is a dream, but one that we believe we can achieve if we work hard enough. For most of the world home ownership is not even real enough to be called a dream.

Hospital care, we are staggered by the high price. But hospital care is available! In many countries, family has to bring the food and blankets, and tend the patient, for there are no facilities to provide anything beyond minimal care!

The list is almost endless. The more seen of the rest of the world, the better Americans can grasp just how lucky they are.

This year, let's be sure to take a moment to use it for what it was intended...give thanks...we have so many, many reasons to do so!

NICHOLS' WORTH

By: Nanalee Nichols

Nothing but nothing gets around faster or better than a good story or joke.

I mean, it travels faster than telephones or jungle grapevine.

As an example, take any joke that creates a good laugh. It can be told in California, New York, Indianapolis, Dallas and probably be translated into Spanish in Mexico and French in Canada before Johnny Carson gets hold of it!

Regular readers may recall a length tale that was printed in this paper during the summer. It was reprinted by us from the Honey Grove paper, which got it from Pottsboro.

Now, it has appeared in the Ft. Worth Star Telegram, in a column called Jim Trinkle's Skyline, who uses it as "an example of how stories move around. It was sent to Sky from New York, from Shannon Redding, who was known as Larry Shannon when he was a Fort Worth nightclub entrepreneur."

"He got it", the column continues, "from Hurst Real Estate broker Dick Smith, who clipped it from the Lamesa paper after it already had appeared in print in Deport (Pop. 724), Bogata, Honey Grove, and Pottsboro. Sky, it continues, loves down home stories.

Then the column launches into the long story about the snake which ran under the couch, the man called from the bathtub, etc. etc.

Apparently that little tale has gone all the way to New York lately! And, I suspect, many other places as well. It has been one of the most read, best received stories ever run. Folks just mortally did get a laugh out of it.

And, somewhere, lost in the middle of reprints, is the original author, who is either laughing himself into stitches over the whole thing, or is wondering why in the heck he didn't sell the story instead of having it circulated throughout the whole world free!

Papers Offer Unheard Of Savings This December!

The local paper is on sale, starting December 1. In spite of a January 1 mailing increase, the Bogata News, Deport Times, Blossom Times and Talco Times will NOT increase in price, and through the month of December will be available at $8 for any paper in Lamar, Red River or Titus Counties; $10.50 in any county in Texas except those; and $13.00 for any subscription out of state.

That saves $2 per subscription, PLUS, for this year's sale, there is an extra bonus for new subscribers. Any NEW SUBSCRIPTION can take off an ADDITIONAL $2.00! That's right, a total savings of $4 for a year to the hometown paper.

This new subscriber price is good for the month of December, and can be used whether the subscription is a gift or simply taken out for the subscriber. All that is required is that the subscription be new, that means not currently taking the paper.

The paper offers local sports news, local photos, a complete television schedule that fits local viewing, community news, just about everything that's going on in YOUR home town.

It's perfect for students, especially those at that hard-to-buy-for age, great for the elderly, who can't always get out to find out what is going on, and just the way to complete your information as to what is important in your community.

As always, a complete list of the giver and receiver of this great fit will be published in the Christmas edition of the paper.

Take advantage of this unheard of sale for yourself or someone else. Remember, save $2 on a renewal, and $4 for a new subscription. Prices will never be lower!

Red River History Will Include Communities

The Red River County Historical Society has made arrangements with Taylor Publishing Company to print the history of our County. This book will include histories of families throughout the county and the history of the Courthouse, Clarksville (the county seat) and other points of interest to us all.

Those of us here in the Southwest part of the county will be pleased to know it will have short histories of our familiar surroundings such as:

School Histories: Cuthand, Lake Drean, Halesboro, Morris Chapel, Rosalie, Lone Star, Brewster, Rugby,

Library News

Tuesday, November 12 was a red letter evening at the Red River County Library. Bill and Nancy Rains, who had earlier placed a Franklin ACE (Apple compatible) computer and a variety of software in the library, led a workshop in computer genealogy.

Participants came from over the county and from as far away as Paris and Hugo to learn how the computer can ease the genealogist's work and expand capabilities. Using a special program, the genealogist can save, recall and manipulate family history data at many times the speed of the pencil and paper worker, and with much less effort. Bill Rains' presentation and his and Nancy's discussion to the program made computers less mysterious and more understandable to all who attended.

With software now available, including programs made available through the generosity of Tom Copeland, the computer at the Red River County Library can perform a variety of functions. It will beat you at chess, perform calculating and bookkeeping tasks, do word processing, the list goes on. If you've been thinking of testing the water, come in to the library and meet the computer; as the computer buffs put it, "it's really friendly."

If you have any information about the county or any pictures of early businesses, churches, towns or schools or other items of interest, we would be happy to use it.

You are very much encouraged to send your family history. This means YOU even if: you once lived in Red River County but now live elsewhere; you just moved to Red River Co. last week; your parents, your grandparents or maybe your great-grandparents lived in this county, but you never lived here.

You are invited to turn in one picture and a story of 500 words or less for free. A $10 fee will be charged for each word over this amount.
