Lone Union Keeps Strike In Force

NEW YORK (AP) — Striking printers have rallied a new contract with New York's eight closed daily newspapers. But the last of four striking unions, the photoengravers, continued to hold out today for a better work pact, delaying an immediate resumption of publication.

As things stood today, the 10th day of the newspaper shutdown.

Photoengravers were to meet again with publishers to try to come to terms on an agreement that would remove the last stumbling block in the way of publication.

Even if photoengraver union negotiators reached contract accord today, indications were that the eight major dailies couldn't get back on the streets until time to print Tuesday editions, or more likely Wednesday's.

The other nine newspaper unions continued to refuse to cross the photoengravers' picket lines at four strike districts. The other five major papers closed voluntarily when the printers began the strike against the four dailies last Dec.

The New York Post, one of the five that shut down, was in print for the 15th day since it resumed publication March 4.

Striking printers have ratified by a 779-vote majority the same

Balinese Go To Beaches For Cleansing

By KAREN PRAGER
KUALA LUMPUR, Bali (AP) — Few Americans flocked to the white beaches here today to cleanse themselves of the sins they fear may have angered the gods of the island, which erupted last week, killing almost 1,500 people.

They carried small, house-shaped shrines and Hindu tridents to the shore and offered sacrifices. Then they entered the South Pacific to wash away their sins.

The cleansing festival, takes place every 36 years. The volcano erupted in the middle of it, increasing the fervor of devotees who believe that natural disasters will recur if they fail to purify themselves.

There were more than 200 injured and 63,000 left homeless in the disaster area. Once lush and green, it now is a vast desert of ash and mud.

The official death toll was 1,478. It is feared this will rise when buried villages are excavated.

This seaside village has become one of the most important rescue centers. Military units, police, Red Cross and government officials face a gigantic task in providing food and shelter.

They begged for air transport to evacuate the injured and homeless and were shocked when two Indonesian air force transports flew in 200 delegates to the 12th annual Pacific Area Travel Association conference for a sightseeing tour. Tours were banned around Mt. Agung.

Molten lava and ash, in addition to destroying whole villages and miles of countryside, wiped out roads and bridges. This made evacuation difficult.

Coal Miners Reject Pact

By KAREN PRAGER
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Striking French coal miners have rejected a government compromise settlement and are sticking to their original demands— an 11 per cent raise.

The government, which controls the nationalized mines, offered a raise in three stages hitting 8 per cent by next Jan. 1.

The strike went into its 25th day today with no end in sight.

Premier Georges Pompidou ordered a new miner. Minister Roger Frey, who heads French security forces, and then had a talk with President Charles de Gaulle.

"I can say only one thing," Pompidou said, "the miners are not listening."

Consumer expenditures for food have increased almost 50 per cent since 1950, though farm receipts for the same have increased only 20 per cent.

Economy Brighter In Most Regions

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — To take the pulse of the nation's economy today you need a thousand fingers. The averages called from the statistics just don't fit any one community exactly nor give too clear a picture of any one region.

It's been a trying winter in some places, coming after a nationwide fright about the economy when the stock market plunged last May and June. But for all its spotlights the economy this spring looks better in most places.

Of course, where the growth has been swiftest, as in the West and Southwest, communities still can see nothing but blue skies, while in other places the tone may be more one of quiet confidence than of exuberant predictions.

Yet varied as are the regional economies, one thing they share in common: the belief that a

Good Is Not Enough, Says Gov. Connally

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Being good is not enough for Texas colleges and universities, Gov. John Connally said today.

The governor spoke at the inauguration of Dr. James Jeremi as president of Texas A&I College.

"As the space age dawns, Texas stands at the educational crossroads," Connally said. "We have had a good system of higher education always, and we have a good one now. But just being 'good' is not enough if we are to fill the major role destiny has assigned to us in this new and wonderful age."

Connally said there are two areas of vast importance to all Texans: education and industrial development.

"Business in this complex space age needs laboratories as well as labor," he said. "In this new age, industry follows brains, not brawn. It will take people with highly trained minds to make progress in the Texas of tomorrow—and those minds will be trained in the human and arts as well as in technology if they are to save the full significance of the world in which they live and if they are to direct our state's new nation toward realization of the finest human and religious values."

White Foreigner Is Slain In Congo

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP) — A white foreigner was shot today while fleeing to death today because the white man didn't obey an order to get off the sidewalk fast enough to suit the soldier.

The victim was Simon Asher, 55, believed to be an Israeli. He was the father of three children.

A witness said a Congolese soldier on guard ordered Asher off the sidewalk as he walked past the former National Bank of Katanga, which the central Congo government has taken over. It is in the heart of Elisabethville's shopping and business center.

The white man, slightly wounded, hesitated and the soldier shot him in the back.

U.S. Congressmen Are En Route Home

MERIDA, Mex. (AP) — A group of U.S. Congressmen left for Washington aboard a U.S. jet after a weekend visit to this city on the Yucatan Peninsula.

The congressmen came here after attending the third annual U.S.-Mexico interparliamentary meeting in Guanajuato.

Among their activities was a visit to the ruins of Chichen Itza, a city which fell into ruin hundreds of years ago. There they were welcomed by Mexican Congressman Nicanor Zayas Ras.

Ike's Son Resigns As Army Colonel

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — Lt. Col. John S. Eisenhower, son of former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, has submitted a letter of resignation from the Army and taken a position with a New York publishing firm.

He made the announcement here over the weekend.

He was graduated from the U.S. Military Academy in 1944, served in Europe in World War II, and later in Korea.

In 1958 he joined the White House staff. At the close of his father's administration, he was granted indefinite leave without pay, and became affiliated with the Eisenhower Foundation.

Since then he has maintained an office in his father's headquarters in Gettysburg.

It had been announced before that Eisenhower would enter the Army War College at Carlisle, Pa., later this year.

Selection to attend the Army War College normally is a step toward higher rank.

Eisenhower has had less than 19 years of service and Army authorities said he will be ineligible either for separation pay or retirement benefits which would have been his had he served for at least 20 years.

Eisenhower's announcement was made in a statement to the Gettysburg Times.

His reasons for leaving the Army were withheld, but it was implied he wished to continue the affiliation with the publishing company. He declined to identify the company, pending acceptance of his resignation.

Experts Discussing Deep Oil Reserves

HOUSTON (AP) — The nation's earth scientists were to explore the prospects of finding new oil and gas reserves today to meet increased demands of the future.

The world's deeper oil and gas basins were to attract the attention of some 5,000 petroleum geologists, economic paleontologists and mineralogists, and exploration geophysicists at their annual convention.

The deeper basins are believed by some to hold the bulk of new oil and gas reserves required for meeting anticipated demands in the next 25 to 35 years.

Tai Lun, a Chinese court scholar, produced the first sheet of paper in 105 A.D. by macerating bark, rope, old rags and fish nets.

Los Angeles County has nearly three million vehicles registered, more than any other county in the nation.

Dear Abby...

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I grew a beard for the Piedmont, Mo. Centennial in 1953. I got the prize for the longest beard in town. I also had a beautiful mustache, which measured 7 1/2 inches long. After the celebration I shaved my face clean. Everyone told me I should have kept the mustache. My wife especially. I am starting to grow one again, but I don't know how to shape it. Is there a book of pictures showing different styles and shapes of mustaches? I'm pretty good with a straight-edge razor. Does any place still sell mustache wax?

F.W.M.

DEAR F.W.M.: Ask the barber in town to shape your mustache the first time, then follow his line. (He'll know which style suits you best.) Mustache wax can be found in drug stores. Good hair care will be tickled. I'm sure.

DEAR ABBY: How does a girl know what to order on a date? For instance, last night, after a school dance (not formal), three of us couples went out to eat. I don't know how much money my date had and I didn't want to take a chance on embarrassing him, so I said I wasn't very hungry and all I wanted was coffee. My date ordered himself a shrimp cocktail, steak sandwich, French fries and a sundae. The other kids ordered the same. What should I have done?

When You Sell Your Furnishings

By VIVIAN BROWN

AP News Service Writer

If you are planning to dismantle a home, give yourself plenty of time.

Sell the house and furnishings as early as possible, even if you must do a short-term rental of a furnished home before you make your move to a new locale.

That's the advice of one couple, who found their enchanted cottage didn't have the sale—appeal they thought. And when it came to unloading furnishings, though they began two months before they moved, these just wasn't enough time to realize a good return on some worthwhile objects.

The sale proved to them that items that one thinks will move easily often are the last to go, and for far less than their worth in some instances.

They found that winter is not a good time to sell cars, power equipment or expensive furnishings.

People are still paying off Christmas bills and are worried about taxes. Power equipment such as saws, garden tillers, lawn mowers, must be appreciably reduced to move.

Household furnishings that are priced reasonably, such as chairs, end tables, coffee tables, lamps may be sold at once. Slipcovered club chairs were priced at $100, straight backed with cane seats at $8 and lamps, $7. A brand new coffee table with leather top, bought for $60, went for $20 to new buyers, but an antique mahogany drop-front desk with 20 pigeon holes, drawers and other compartments was passed up many times before it brought $40. Ditto a French black oxen and bronze dore clock, an antique that was finally reduced to $25.

The easiest items to move are household utility equipment—mixers, beaters, juicers, pans, roasters, chafing dishes, snack tables, place mats, rakes, shovels, leaf removers.

The pruned item in this couple's sale was a 1750 convex English mirror in excellent condition, worth perhaps $1,000, and priced at $150. It finally sold at $125.

A collection of 30 old horse brasses was sold for $50. When available at antique shops these bring from $7.50 up.

A prized painting of a mare and her foal thought to be a George Stubbs didn't move at all, and was given to a neighbor. The owners felt they would rather give it to a true admirer than sell it cheap to someone who just wanted to fill up wall space.

A 19th-century English watercolor of a gentleman, priced at $50, didn't sell at all. Two watercolor landscapes at $25 each, a handsome old hunting print at $50 and a collection of Staffordshire dogs, cats and pitchers were passed by.

Why didn't they realize a better return on authentic antiques and paintings?

"With all the problems of a house closing, packing to move abroad, and organizing other things there just wasn't an opportunity to sell the objects in their proper atmosphere," say these home owners.

If they had it to do all over again, they would have.

Taken the English paintings and mirrors to someone who would have understood their value.

Invited dealers to visit the house before the dealers took off for their own homes.

Those items that neighbors absolutely need, including extra beds.

Corn And Peanut Nibbles

1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon onion powder
1/4 teaspoon ground cumin
1 teaspoon chili powder
2 cups bite-size shredded corn biscuits
3 tablespoons grated Parmesan cheese
1 cup roasted unsalted peanuts

Melt the butter in a cake pan (9 by 9 by 2 inches); stir in onion powder, cumin and chili powder. Add corn-biscuits and turn over gently to coat with seasonings. Toast in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 5 minutes; turn over with wide spatula and toast another 5 minutes. Remove from oven; at once sprinkle with cheese, turning as you do so. Add peanuts; mix gently and peanuts will take up seasoned butter at bottom of pan. Allow to stand in pan until cold. Makes 1 quart.

Store in a tightly covered container—a wide-mouth screw-top jar is good.

Note: Pick out tiny whole corn biscuits to use omitting any broken ones or shreds.

Wrapped appropriately, homemade waffles take to freezer storage. When you are ready to serve the waffles, pop them into your toaster. Have the waffles golden rather than dark brown when you bake them so they won't get over-done in the reheating and toasting.

We plowed the new ground

MIDWEST ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE pioneered rural electrification in the 9 county area it serves. The member-owners of Midwest Electric borrowed $4,900,000 and built their own electric system to serve people who had no electricity. Midwest Electric was first to serve these areas. No one else could or would offer service.

Since 1938 Midwest Electric has repaid more than $1,200,000 on the principal and more than $760,000 in interest on their loans while offering a dependable, efficient, economical electric service.

Midwest Electric plowed the new ground and their member-owners today are harvesting a healthier, happier, better way of life through rural electrification.

Ex-Majorette Found Slain

FORT WORTH (AP)—A slay victim of a former Texas University drum majorette was found beaten to death Sunday in the blazing brick home she occupied in suburban Benbrook.

The death of Mrs. Neta Green, 27, was ruled homicide by Justice of the Peace T. M. Sheffield after an autopsy on the attractive divorcee.

Earlier, it was believed the fire had caused her death. But Sheffield said Mrs. Green, a barmaid in a private club, died of multiple blows about the head. One blow caused a 3-inch fracture, the autopsy revealed.

A 30-year-old man suffering smoke inhalation was found by firemen in the bedroom. He was questioned by Tarrant County sheriff's officers. He was identified as Ronnie Blankenship and was listed in fair condition at a hospital.

Mrs. Green's body was found nude, lying on the kitchen floor in the home. Firemen found her after entering the house about 4:30 a.m. Her two children were with a baby sitter in another part of town.

Cause of the fire was not immediately determined. An assistant district attorney, James Greener, said a large ash tray was found "that might possibly be the weapon."

Mrs. Green's divorce from W.H. (Duke) Green became final in January. She was a native of Cisco.

Plane Crash Kills Three
MONTERREY, Mexico (AP)—Three Chicago area residents have been found dead in the wreckage of a light plane in the mountains near Monterrey, police said.

The three took off Friday from San Luis Potosi, 250 miles south of here, and headed for Monterrey.

The victims were Robert Schneider, 42, of Wilmette, Ill., his wife, Jane, 42, and Arthur Roberts, 46, of Chicago.

The three were due home today after a two-week vacation in Mexico, said Robert Kemper of Winnetka, who has been caring for the Schneiders' daughter, Margaret.

Roberts, a bachelor, owned the plane. The wreckage was found in mountains about 40 miles west of Monterrey by a sheep herder.

Three Children Are Hurt At Jaloxy Race
DALLAS (AP)—A boy lost a leg and a brother and sister suffered injuries Sunday when a car preparing for a jaloxy race spun out of control and hit them.

Surgeons amputated a leg of Clyde Coomer Jr., 11. His other leg was broken.

His brother, Jimmy, 9, and sister, Linda, 7, were less seriously injured. They are children of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Coomer Sr. of Garland.

The driver, James William Travis, was uninjured. The accident occurred at Devil's Bowl, a race track.

Fasting Women Is Looking Forward To Easter Dress

EDITORS NOTE — When admittedly fat Mary Ferguson moved into a hotel room to get away from the temptations of her own cooking, she caught the imagination of millions. Here is her story of her continuing fast, written exclusively for The Associated Press.

By MARY FERGUSON
Written for The Associated Press
LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Seven days have gone by—170 hours without food—and I'm feeling like a rose blooming on a dewy vine.

Sounds kind of corny, I know—but it's true. I've lost 12 pounds and I am down to 232.

I'm 34, inches smaller around the hips, 2 smaller around the waist and 4 smaller around the bust.

It's hard to guess just yet how much I'll lose between now and next Sunday, when my self-imposed fast is over. My doctor says I will average about two pounds a day, but I'm hoping for more. I promised myself and my husband that I would fast for two weeks, locked up here in my hotel room, but everything is going so well I think I'll keep it up even after I go home.

What I really want to do is get down to 128 pounds, which would be just right for my 3-foot-2 height. My husband calls me at least twice every day, and when I told him my new measurements—35½ hips, 44 waist and 49 bust—he said: "Honey, that's wonderful. Keep it up. I know you can, and I love you."

He's a wonderful man. Slender, not like me, and with white hair at 45 he's very distinguished-looking. I started this fast because I wanted a new dress for Easter. I want to be down to at least a size 20½. That way I can find something with a little color in it, not those drab blacks that you get in size 24's.

I know I'll get a new dress now—my husband Arthur has already promised it to me.

The doctor told me the first 48 hours would be the hardest, that after that my stomach would shrink and there wouldn't be any hunger pangs.

I've found, however, that it is rough for the first 72 hours.

All I have had is coffee, tea and bouillon. I have coffee at 8 a.m. with no cream or sugar, just a little saccharine. Then iced tea at noon and coffee again at 4 p.m.

The closest thing to food I have is bouillon, at 7 p.m.

My worst time of all came with the bouillon, last Tuesday night. The waiter who brought up my tray made a mistake—there was a big plate of crackers on it. "That's not my tray," I told him. "Get it out of here. Get it out of here."

I guess he must have thought I was about to flip.

"Now, don't get excited lady," he told me. "I'll take the crackers back."

The sight of the crackers was evidently too much for me to bear, however, and I was terribly sick for hours afterward. I didn't sleep too well after that. My stomach just seemed to churn all night.

Somewhat, I guess it was association. I had a craving for cheese to go with the crackers I didn't have. I had visions of all kinds of cheeses, American and Swiss, in great big chunks.

On Wednesday I awoke and felt terribly depressed.

For about an hour I felt I couldn't go on any longer. It was the worst feeling I've had since I came here. But I immediately prayed to St. Jude—the patron saint of those who try the impossible—and I said my Rosary. After that I began to feel a little better.

Looking Back

10 Years Ago
From The Snyder Daily News
March 25, 1933

LONDON 6p.—Queen Elizabeth II today decreed a month's mourning for Queen Mary, thus carrying out the wish of her grandmother, that nothing interfere with Elizabeth's coronation in June. Queen Mary died peacefully in her sleep last night at the age of 83.

A third Purple Heart for wounds received in Korea was recently awarded to Marine Sgt. Ted Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Williams, Route No. 2.

5 Years Ago
From The Snyder Daily News
March 25, 1938

"Do's and Don'ts" for the general public were worked out and details for a complete catastrophe or disaster team have been worked out in a meeting of civil defense organization leaders here.

BIG SPRING.—Within a week, the Colorado River Municipal Water District will be all set to deliver as much as 45,000,000 gallons of water a day to its customers.

The district has been putting a battery of big pumps on test in order to be ready for the summer season.

Later in the morning the hunger came back. For a minute I felt like I was leaving this world completely, but I got up and chewed a stick of gum and felt better immediately.

I guess I've crammed my system with so much sweet stuff for years and years now that when it's not getting anything sweet it balks a little bit. I guess the little sugar I chewed out of the gum came to its rescue.

Since then I have found that eating really isn't so terribly necessary. It's really a very bad habit we acquire to compensate for our feelings of inadequacy.

I feel calmer now than I have for months. Fasting seems to bring a wonderful tranquility. I honestly believe I'm having such an easy time of it because God is with me.

I've offered up any suffering I may go through in the blessed Lord for all my past sins and gluttonous actions. I really believe that because of it He is helping me bear up with this fast very well.

Some of the nicest people have written me—more than 100 letters. I'm going to answer every one of them, too.

I get a lot of phone calls, too, but the nicest one of all came last Thursday.

Imagine, at my age—36—and so heavy I can't buy a pretty dress. I've got a date.

The local chapter of the Society for the Preservation of Barber Shop Quartets is going to send some men over next Tuesday night to serenade me.

Alamo Fire Damage High

ALAMO, Tex. (AP)—A fire burst out of two business houses and damaged two others, including a bank, Sunday night as it roared out of control almost two hours before firemen from four communities controlled it.

Police estimated damage at more than $100,000.

About 40 firemen from Alamo and Pharr, San Juan and Edinburg responded to the alarm.

No damage estimate was available immediately.

1,000 Rattles Caught By Hunters

BIG SPRING (AP)—This West Texas area is minus 1,000 rattlesnakes today after the annual attack by more than 500 hunters.

An Abilene team of Bob Smith, Bob O'Donald and Bill O'Donald made the biggest catch, 202 pounds. The team also caught the snake with the most rattles and the smallest snake.

The largest, 5 feet 9½ inches, was caught by Jesse Clanton, Big Spring.

Texan Is Held On Slaying Charge

SANDELLS, Ariz. (AP)—A Port Arthur, Tex., man was in custody today after signing a statement in connection with the March 18 slaying of another Texan.

Edgar Merrill, Apache County sheriff, said he received the statement Saturday from Lloyd Champagne, 26, charged with the slaying of Herbert Hebert. Both are from Port Arthur.

Merrill said Champagne waived extradition.

BUSINESS and INDUSTRIAL NEWS

8 THE SNYDER (TEXAS) DAILY NEWS, MONDAY, March 25, 1963

A SIGN which tells the story of the State Farm auto finance plan is shown being placed in position on the State Farm office by the local agent, Roy J. McCloskey. McCloskey urges everyone who needs to finance his next car, whether new or used, to check with him before closing the deal because in most cases he can save them substantial amounts of interest.

State Farm Saves For Auto Buyers

If you're one of the two out of three families who will finance your next car, Roy J. McCloskey has good news for you.

It's the bank plan offered by State Farm Mutual, the world's largest automobile insurance company, and it can save you money in two ways.

State Farm helps you get financing from a bank where the low borrowing rates may save you hundreds of dollars over high interest "deals." It's simple and it's private. Payments are arranged to suit you with no extra fees or hidden charges.

Here's how it works. Pick the car you want—new or used—and then tell Roy J. McCloskey, your State Farm agent how much you need to cover the unpaid balance. That is, the difference between your down payment (or trade-in) and the cost of the car. He will do the rest!

You get a check to give the dealer. You're a "cash buyer." The car is yours. It doesn't matter where you buy the car. Your financing is handled locally through State Farm.

Thousands of State Farm policyholders are now enjoying lower car payments, pay for their cars sooner, and report savings of $100, $200 and $300, thanks to State Farm's lower rates.

Of course if your car is already paid for, you can still save with State Farm insurance. Through a policy of insuring only careful drivers, State Farm has been able to keep their losses low, and have returned substantial amounts of money to their policyholders through dividends.

Not only are auto insurance plans available through State Farm, but home insurance and life insurance as well. McCloskey will be glad to explain the benefits of State Farm insurance. Simply call him at HI 3-728. The office is located at Fortieth Street and the Big Spring Highway.

If the apple you're using for a pie aren't tart, be sure to add lemon juice; a little grated lemon rind won't hurt either.

Sweet Shop Goes For Local Trade

A local business, based almost entirely on local trade, has been the foundation for the success of The Sweet Shop, located just off the East Highway on Avenue G. Eight years ago when L. H. Hatfield purchased the shop, the delicious ice creams and sherberts he made by his own exclusive formula were the treats that drew customers back again and again.

The same tasty ice creams and sherberts are still being made by the Hatfields' own formulas, and other new and delicious treats have been added over the years.

as the business has grown. The Sweet Shop has seen its popularity steadily increase over the years. So much so, in fact, that just last summer they found it necessary to close down for over two weeks to do a complete remodeling of the store.

Located as they are, more or less "off the beaten track" as far as tourists go, the Sweet Shop has a steady local trade for at least 99 per cent of its business. For this reason they feel an obligation and a responsibility to local citizens. Just as much as it is possible they buy everything locally. The Sweet Shop features foods fixed just the way Snyderites like them; not fancy, but just plain good foods. Take for example, the old stand-by, the Super Dog. At the Sweet Shop each super dog is prepared after it's ordered—never beforehand, and frozen.

At the present time, Mr. Hatfield is recuperating from an operation, but the firm is in the capable hands of his two sons, Buck and Jerry. Buck has taken the responsibility for the kitchen, and Jerry operates the "front."

The "local" aspect of the Sweet Shop business works both ways, the Hatfields have found. Some time ago they started closing on Sundays. At first they were afraid their faithful customers might not appreciate it. But they have found that most people think they did the right thing. Their customers are more than just customers—they're friends, and as friends they think their friends should have a rest one day a week, and Sunday should be the day.

FROM THIS SPOTLESS KITCHEN of The Sweet Shop come a wide variety of delicious treats. Buck Hatfield, left, who presides over the kitchen, hands an order of hamburgers to Jerry Hatfield, who takes care of the "front" of the business. Because they depend almost entirely upon "repeat" business, the Hatfields must maintain high standards at all times. And since their business is growing, they must be succeeding.
