Suspect Hunted In Hotel Murders Of Two Men At Laredo

(By The Associated Press)

LAREDO, Aug. 1. — Officers hunted through brush - filled breaks on both sides of the Rio Grande today for George (Gavo) Ochoa, wanted for murder.

Ochoa, a stocky, scar-faced Laredo importer, is charged with murdering Henry Whittenberg, jr., 31, cotton gin owner, in a tenth-floor hotel room early yesterday. At about the same time, Air Force Corporal James Lindsay, 33, was shot to death in a room five floors down.

Police Chief D. O. Gallagher said both men were killed by .32 caliber bullets. He said he was convinced the bullets were fired from the same pistol.

Killer Seen

Gallagher said the man who shot Whittenberg apparently slipped down the shadowy hotel stairs to Lindsay's room and killed him.

A San Antonio woman who was in the room with Whittenberg saw the killer. She was held as a material witness.

"We haven't been able to put our finger on a motive," Gallagher said. "There are too many angles we can't pin down."

Gallagher said a hotel bellboy reported he took Ochoa in the elevator to the tenth floor and led him to the room Whittenberg was in. The bellboy said there was no answer to repeated knocks

EYE FOR LOVE—Charles Eller, 28, of Fresno, Calif., has offered to sell either of his "big blue eyes" to finance bringing his sweetheart from Germany to marry him. Eller was found to have tuberculosis while serving with the U. S. Army in Germany and was shipped home for treatment just two months before he and his fiance, Elyse Backman, were to be married. Now, after three years in hospitals, he is without funds for transportation and federal bond for his German fiance.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS TOP LIST

Violent Deaths In Texas Mount To 18

(By The Associated Press)

At least 18 persons died violently in Texas during the weekend—more than half of them in traffic accidents.

Three persons were shot to death, an infant was accidentally strangled, a man was fatally stabbed, a man was accidentally electrocuted, one drowned, and a man was run over by a train.

Deaths Are Listed

The latest death reports included:

Four persons died in a headon collision Sunday on a dirt road six miles southwest of Sterling City in West Texas. They were Harm Milton Sheppard, 26, Sterling county ranch worker; Bobby King, 19, and Billy Hudson, both former Sterling City high school athletes, and Sheppard's 16-year-old wife.

Henry Lee Rushing, 39, of Flint, Tex., and James Bennie Wallace, 18, of Tyler, were killed Sunday in a truck-car collision four miles west of Kilgore.

Matias Flores, 65, Sugar Land night watchman, died Saturday night an hour after a car hit him as he walked across a highway.

Two men were shot to death in a Laredo hotel early Sunday. They were Henry Whittenberg, jr., 31, operator of Farmer's Gin Co., at Laredo, and James Lindsay, 33, Air force non-commissioned officer, from San Antonio. Police charged George Ochoa with murdering Whittenberg and are seeking him for questioning in the other slaying.

Man Is Shot

Tommy Richard Gould, jr., 23, was shot to death at Houston Saturday night. William Fuqua, 50, was charged Sunday with murder.

The body of Robert Louis Stevens, 17, was found Sunday in a small pond near Wichita Falls. A verdict of accidental drowning was returned.

Bobby J. John, 27, of Dallas, was killed by an electrical shock from a drill Sunday.

Julia Nichols Betts, 10 months old, was strangled to death accidentally in her sleep Saturday

Two-Car Collision Kills Four Persons

STERLING CITY, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—Four persons died in a two-car automobile collision near here Sunday.

Bobby King and Billy Hudston, both 19, of Sterling City, died enroute to a hospital. Their car collided head-on with one occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Sheppard, newlyweds. Sheppard, 26, a Sterling City ranch hand, died instantly. His wife of a week, 18, died five hours after the crash in a San Angelo hospital.

Trial In Beer Case Started

Evidence was about to commence a few minutes before 2 p. m. in the county court trial of Steve Wells, 52, of Westbrook, on a two-count charge of transportation of beer and possession of beer for purpose of sale.

The case, outgrowth of raids May 27 at the Veterans of Foreign Wars clubhouse at Thirty-fourth and Ave. N, caused a flurry of excitement here and in the immediate area.

Others Are Charged

William Earl Creel, VFW commander, and Eldridge Rayburn, VFW clubhouse manager, were charged at that time in another complaint with possession of beer for purpose of sale.

Liquor Control board inspectors who made the raid charged that they found 180 cases of beer in a ton truck allegedly driven to the clubhouse by Wells, and that they found 26 more cases inside the

Plainview Man Dies, Two Hurt In Crash

AMARILLO, Aug. 1 (AP)—Leon Moore, 23, of Plainview, died in an Amarillo hospital today after his car collided with an empty manufactured-gas truck last night.

The accident occurred two miles east of here.

Preston C. Porter, 22, Plainview, and Miss Merlene Chesney, 20, Amarillo, passengers in Moore's car, were injured. The truck driver, Billy Joe Tyler of route 3, Plainview, was unhurt.

The highway patrol said Moore's car pulled out from a night club onto the highway and collided with the truck.

Transportation Is Snarled As Union Strikes

Company Rejection Of Wage Hike Plea Blamed For Action

(By The United Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Aug. 1 — San Antonio's first city transportation strike in 47 years started today when 700 bus drivers and mechanics left their jobs in a wage dispute.

Local 694 of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employes of America (AFL) voted unanimously to strike after completion of final bus runs at 1:30 a. m.

The walkout idled some 300 city buses and snarled transportation for some 200,000 riders. Taxicab companies announced their 300 cabs would be operated on a 24-hour basis until the strike is settled.

The union had asked for a 19-cent hourly wage increase, but intimated it would settle for a five-cent boost.

The strike began when the union turned down the transit company's final offer, made last Friday, of one-cent hourly wage increases and a 50 per cent hike in pension benefits.

The drivers and mechanics had threatened to walk out two weeks ago, but stayed on the job during a "cooling off" period for further negotiations at the proposal of Mayor Jack White. White indicated he would maintain a "hands off" policy hereout.

Spokesmen for the company said no attempt would be made to operate the buses with non-union drivers.

J. W. Connally, president of the drivers here were paid $1.26 hourly, whereas drivers in cities of population comparable to San Antonio's 425,000 were paid $1.60.

Lawrence Wingerter, general manager of the transit company, charged the union had broken faith with the public. He criticized the workers for "calling a strike without prior notice to the public — thus breaking their previous promise that they would give the public advance notice."

Wingerter said the San Antonio drivers were highest paid in the southwest.

"We feel we are acting in the public interest when we resist union pressure to force higher fares to pay still higher wages," he said. "In the end, any further increase in wages must be paid for by those who ride the buses."

Wartime Taxes Will Continue

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP) — House Democratic Leader McCormack (Mass) said after a White House conference today he sees no prospect for repeal of any wartime excise taxes at this session of Congress.

McCormack is a member of the House ways and means committee which originates tax legislation.

McCormack and other Democratic congressional leaders discussed the tax situation and other matters at their regular Monday morning session with President Truman.

Repeal Favored

Other conferees were Vice President, Barkley, Speaker Rayburn and Senate majority leader Lucas.

"Everybody is for repeal," McCormack said, "but when you open up the question of repealing them all and raise the possibility of another $1,700,000,000 loss in revenue.

"You can't lose this much revenue without further unbalancing the budget and without levying other taxes to replace the excise taxes."

High Readings Forecast Over Plains Section

Most Of Nation Is Enjoying Blast Of Cool Canadian Air

Ninety - degree temperatures were due on the South Plains again today following Sunday's 83-degree maximum, the coolest maximum reading since June 14.

Lubbock and the area received a brief windstorm between 3:30 and 4 a. m. today, when sustained wind velocities of 40 miles an hour with gusts up to 60 miles an hour were recorded.

Only a trace of rain accompanied the brief storm, the Weather bureau said. Amarillo received winds of 43 miles an hour with gusts up to 70 miles an hour.

Lowest Since June 14

The 83-degree maximum Sunday was the lowest since June 14, when the maximum was 82 degrees. An early morning minimum today was 65, the lowest since July 24 when the minimum was 64 degrees.

A thunderstorm Sunday morning resulted in a quarter-inch downpour between 9 and 11 a. m. Hale Center reported a good shower about 9 a. m. and a sprinkle fell at Floydada at 7:30 a. m. Sunday.

The outlook for today was for widely scattered and localized showers on the plains, with partly cloudy conditions, the Weather bureau said.

Trees Are Broken

At Morton, the windstorm struck with terrific force at 2 a. m., and tree branches were broken off in some sections of the town. Rain followed at 2:30 a. m. and precipitation was measured at 1.14 inches in Morton, said Mrs. Ann England of the Morton Tribune.

Reports from outlying areas indicated that the rain was general throughout Cochran county, with at least half an inch falling in every section, Mrs. England said.

Some hail accompanied the storm but it apparently did no damage, it was said.

COOL WEATHER LINGERS OVER MOST OF U. S.

(By The United Press)

The weather bureau promised today that comfortably cool weather would linger over most of the nation for several days but the country counted 178 dead as result of last week's heat wave.

The total of dead included 82 fatalities resulting directly from the heat and 96 deaths by drowning.

Cold Front Strikes

Temperatures dropped dramatically during the weekend as a cold front from Canada swept the heat-tortured area from the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic.

At New York City, the mercury climbed to a high of only 83 yesterday after hitting above 90 most of the week.

The cooler air was still moving southward and Dixie was expected to feel its full benefit today. In the Carolinas, temperatures were expected to be even cooler than the 78 reported at Asheville yester-

CANDID CLAIM—The Lions club of Stanton, county seat of Martin county, succumbed to one of life's little temptations in erecting this new welcome sign on U. S. Highway 80. Bob Whitaker, chairman of the sign committee, said there was debate over the exact population of Stanton and some members declared that his estimate of 2500 did not include recalcitrant members of the community. A "few old soreheads" was added to the estimaete of "2500 friendly people", in the interests of scrupulous honesty, says Whitaker.

Pleas To Save W. Fred Jones From Death Denied By Board

THREE DIE IN TRIANGLE AFFAIR

Policeman Shoots Wife, Male Companion In Bedroom Attack

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 — After watching from a fire escape, a policeman shot and killed his ex-showgirl wife and a man as they lay nude in bed together early yesterday. He then committed suicide at the foot of the bed.

The dead: Patrolman William R. Lane, 30, of Brooklyn; his wife, Blanche, 28, a waitress, from whom he had been estranged for eight months; and Arnold Myers, 37, a carpenter with a wife and two sons.

The triple shooting occurred in the Brooklyn home of Mrs. Lane's parents, where she had been living recently.

Father Found Bodies

Police pieced together this picture: Lane let himself into the apartment with a key, climbed into a fire escape and crouched in the dark. He watched from there until his blonde wife, formerly a specialty dancer at a Manhattan night club, returned home with Myers.

When the pair got into bed, Lane crept into the bedroom, shot them both and then fired a bullet into his own head with his service revolver.

The wife's father, Emil Binder, 50, found the bodies when he returned home from his all-night job as a bargeman.

Binder's wife, Jane, and another daughter, Jeanne, 22, were away

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—No clemency will be recommended for W. Fred Jones of Floydada, scheduled to die in the electric chair Aug. 7 for the shotgun slaying of a young war veteran, the board of pardons and paroles announced today.

R. A. (Smoot) Schmid, board chairman, made the announcement after conferring with John Stapleton, Floydada district attorney and Sheriff Leland Hart of Floyd county.

Commutation Asked

Last week a delegation of ministers asked the board to commute the death penalty to life imprisonment. Schmid quoted some of them as saying Jones had become a convert to religion and should not pay with his life for the killing of H. C. Love, jr., outside of Jones' Floydada grocery store Sept. 27, 1948.

Subsequently, the ministers authorized a spokesman at Vernon to say they had not asked for the commutation solely on the grounds Jones had "got religion." They said they thought the penalty was too severe and that the change of venue in the trial was not far enough away from the scene of the crime.

"Scorned The Law"

Stapleton told the pardon board today he felt the sentence was justified because of Jones' past record of "scorning the law."

The district attorney told the board that if it commuted the death sentence for every convicted murderer who found religion "you'll be commuting the sentences of 90 per cent of them."

Love was an employe in Jones' store. Jones was tried in Hale

Two Sought In Area Burglary

Pickup orders were broadcast today over police radios of the North and South Plains for arrest of two suspects in connection with burglary of the State Highway department's barn at Dickens early Sunday.

Sheriff C. C. Kimniel of Dickens county said a tire and a wheel were removed from the building. Entry was at a rear door, he said.

The men were described as driving a 1936 Ford coupe with Kansas license numbers, the first two digits of which were believed to be "84."

Description Given

One man was described as tall, light complexion, blond, 160 pounds and wearing khaki clothing. The other was said to be approximately 5 feet 7 inches tall, weighing approximately 145 pounds, have dark complexion, and wearing brown trousers.

Littlefield authorities were enroute here to view a 21-year-old man arrested at 2 a. m. by Lubbock police as a suspect in the theft and abandonment in Littlefield of an automobile.

Cecil Trull and T. L. Avery arrested him at Fourth and Ave. H. A Mexican sought as another suspect was not found. Officials said they had subsequent information that a man answering that description had gone from Littlefield to Albuquerque, N. M.

The men stole the car were dressed as soldiers when seen in Littlefield, police here were told. The suspect arrested by Trull and

New Advances In Wide Field Are Reported

Great Progress In Medicinal Research Will Aid Mankind

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The Atomic Energy commission announced today its new and more effective atomic bombs — proof-tested at Eniwetok — are being produced "on an industrial basis."

It also said uranium and plutonium for bombs and other atomic energy uses are being produced in greater quantities than ever before."

Relating "advances in all phases of the national atomic energy program," the AEC in its sixth semi-annual report to Congress also listed progress on the medical front, including indications that relatively inexpensive radioactive cobalt may eventually prove to be a better cancer treatment than radium.

New Sources Found

At the same time the AEC disclosed it had found ace-in-the-hole sources of uranium in this country that could be used at some future time for military applications—in case the uranium we now get at home and abroad should cease to be available.

This country now gets most of its uranium from the Belgium Congo and Canada which have ores of a high uranium content. Some of the precious stuff also comes from low-grade carnotite ore of the Colorado plateau—and ore relatively low in uranium content.

The commission told today of extensive exploration and prospecting by the AEC and the U. S. Geological Survey all over the country.

This involved "comprehensive examination of virtually every rock formation in this country, and of mine and smelter products, gas and oil wells, and other places where uranium might occur," the AEC said, adding:

Could Be Utilized

"By mid-year this work had revealed enormous tonnages of very low-grade materials (that is, materials low in uranium content.)

"They cost more to process but they could be utilized in the future to sustain an atomic energy program for military purposes, should lower-cost uranium cease to be available."

The report said earlier that in

Marshall For Military Aid

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—Gen. George C. Marshall told Congress today that hesitation in approving President Truman's program of foreign arms aid would be "most unfortunate" and have "wide ramifications."

The former secretary of State, Army chief of staff during World War II, testified before the House foreign affairs committee that, while failure to approve the program at this time would result in "a minor economy," it also "might result in the possibility of a major outlay later on."

Agrees With Acheson

Endorsing President Truman's $1,450,000,000 program, Marshall agreed with previous statements by Secretary of State Acheson and the Army chief of staff, Gen. Omar N. Bradley.

Marshill told the committee he had not sat in on consultations while the plan was being worked out, but that he was briefed on it at the State department last Friday.

"I had been strongly of the opinion . . . that action of this nature was urgently necessary," he added. "As to the fundamental policy involved there is no doubt in my mind as to the desirability

Jimmy Powers Wins Detroit Trip In Auto Model Contest

By BILL CLARK
Journal Staff Writer

Fifteen - year - old Jimmy Powers today was named winner of a free trip to Detroit, Mich., and $150 in cash for his entry in a car model building contest.

The happy news came to Jimmy at 10 o'clock this morning when he was smack-dab in the middle of Mackenzie park swimming pool, qualifying for a junior life-saving course.

His first reaction was an ear-to-chin grin, then: "I didn't expect to be a winner. The best I had hoped for was honorable mention."

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Powers of 2809 Twenty-fourth, Jimmy had spent nearly nine months working on his model automobile for the annual Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild car model competition.

During a recent vacation in California, he had worried considerably that he might not get home in time to put

Man "Mad At All Medical Profession"

Former Mental Patient Held After Shooting Of Physician

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—A former mental patient, who says he is "mad at all the medical profession," was under arrest today charged with shooting a physician in an apartment elevator ambush.

The victim, Dr. Louis Blitzman, 39, was reported in critical condition at Bellevue hospital with bullet wounds under the heart and in the abdomen.

His alleged assailant, David Kaplan, 45, a graduate pharmacist, was booked late last night on charges of felonious assault and violation of the weapons law.

Kaplan told of his dislike for the medical profession while under questioning by police.

Detectives said Dr. Blitzman, who had treated Kaplan for a mental disorder, told him some time ago to stop indulging a passion for horse racing. The detectives said they also learned that Dr. Blitzman had accused Kaplan of faking illness, and suggest-

Double Ring Service Is Read For Couple

The wedding of Miss Wanda Faye MaGouirk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy MaGouirk and M. C. Durrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Durrett, took place Friday in the home of the bride's parents, 1929 Ave. N, before an altar of white gladioli and fern.

Rev. Jack Welch read a double ring service.

Irma Hughes played "Always" as a prelude and accompanied her brother, Bobby Hughes, who sang "I Love You Truly." She continued with The Bridal Chorus from Wagner's "Lohengrin."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white silk embroidered organdy over pale blue taffeta and carried a corsage of pale pink gardenias on a white Bible.

Miss Ellizabeth Youngblood of Roswell, N. M., was maid of honor. Rex Smallin attended his brother-in-law as best man.

A wedding reception followed.

Okay Of Farm Bill Is Urged

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP) — Senator Lucas of Illinois, the Senate Democratic leader, called today for passage of a farm bill. He included it on a long list of "must" measures that may keep Congress in session well into September.

Lucas told a reporter he sees little chance that Congress can get away before Labor day (Sept. 5). To get action on administration bills, the lawmakers will just have to stay here, he said.

Bills Are Scheduled

Among measures Lucas scheduled for action are the House-approved reciprocal trade agreements bill, a measure to lift the minimum wage level to 75 cents an hour, a House-approved proposal to increase government salaries from cabinet members down the line, the pending foreign arms program, a displaced persons bill, appropriations measures and a civil rights bill.

Republican senators will discuss tomorrow a proposal by Senator Morse (R-Ore) that they back a plan for Congress to wind up its present work Aug. 20 and come back Nov. 15.

Lucas said he would rather go through than to have any such recess.

Lucas said he will keep the Senate working on appropriations bills until all of them have been passed. The minimum wage proposal will come up then, with reciprocal trade agreements legislation behind it.

The Senate may untangle itself early this week from a parliamentary knot which has held up final action on the $5,500,000,000 foreign aid funds bill.

The measure was sent back to committee to strip out amendments that had been challenged as violating the rule against policy-making proposals in money bills. It comes back to the Senate today with some of the amendments reworded.

GIVES DESSERT-BRIDGE

Miss Bettye Thomson gave a dessert bridge this afternoon in honor of the out-of-town guests. Her list was made up of Misses Courtney Sigler, Lucy Wommack, Ann Bettis, Jill Hutchins, Maxine Boyd, Judy Pierce, Paula Fix, Beverly Powell, Jeanette Lewis, Mrs. Elmer Reed, jr., and Mrs. Bill Price.

Woman Seeks Help In Overcoming Emotional Illness That Turned Her Against Humanity

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I need help, but not psychiatric help—for I very well understand the reasons why I am as I am. And is there not some treatment of personality problems, other than a diagnosis to tell you why you have them?

What I require is the proper treatment to help me recover some joy in living. About 10 years ago my life fell apart; all the love went out of it. In the years since then my personality has changed completely.

Formerly I was filled with love. Life was a thing of beauty. I enjoyed the respect of all who knew me, and had the love of family and friends. Now I do not like anybody, much less love the people I know.

SPURNS OLD FRIENDS AND SNUBS NEWCOMERS

I am very rude to new acquaintances, and I have deliberately brushed off old friends, who tried for years to forgive me and finally ceased to make the effort.

I feel that I am quite an ill woman, although not mentally, at least not yet; and I do so want to live out the rest of my life more gracefully. I have read everything you have recommended—except "The Guiding Light," which I cannot locate—but apparently something more is needed in my case? What do you suggest? Signed C. P.

IS SHE SEEKING OR DODGING HELP?

DEAR C. P.: It is aptly said of truth-seeking minds, "When the pupil is ready, the Master appears—," meaning that you attract helpful information as a magnet draws needles, if your nature is honestly open to true solutions of grievous problems.

And significantly, it seems to me, you have managed to keep away from the book, already twice mentioned here, that in my opinion outlines the proper treatment of emotional dyspepsia such as yours. I refer to "The Healing Light" by Agnes Sanford, (MacAlaster Park Publishing Co.), which you miscall "The Guiding Light."—and cannot locate because you don't rightly ask for it.

You quite understand, you say defensively, the reasons why you are as you are; but very obviously that isn't true—because "to understand all is to forgive all," and your embittered attitude towards humanity is symptomatic of completely discouraged self-rejection.

SOUL MUST HAVE SOME FELLOWSHIP

IT strikes me that your life history has been, from your viewpoint, a bewildering saga of frustration and humiliation, of struggle and disappointment, of personal mistakes and secret sins, and of "unfair" suffering caused by others' behavior, that seems too painful to think about, since the climatic "crash"—whatever it was—10 years ago.

No doubt you've read enough, in a general way, about neurotic behavior and the causes thereof to realize that you are afflicted by past conditioning and the cumulative penalties for maladjusted, unwise or "sick" performance. But actually you don't know the "ins and outs" of what broke you down; and no one else can shed light on that, and help your crushed spirit mend and regain vigor, unless you search the record honestly.

Now back to Mrs. Sanford's book, a godsend for the emotionally ill who distrust phychiatry, for it reminds us that Christian soul-cleansing is powerful thearpy; and the author tells of the vital elan she regained via confession and the sacrament of communion. She tells how she felt burnt out by life; how she was led to try this technique of renewal; of her conscientious but dry-hearted testing of it; and of the glowing vigor and joy, the love and thanksgiving, the electric current of well being, that were rekindled.—M. honored today at a 10 o'clock brunch given by her hostess, Miss Lucy Wommack, 3321 Twenty-second. They were classmates last year at Texas Christian university, Fort Worth.

The table was centered with an antique silver epergne filled with seasonal fruits. Yellow place mats were used.

Guests were Misses Shelley Furr, Bettye Thomson, Courtney Sigler, Maxine Boyd, Jill Hutchins of Fort Worth.

Miss Womack was assisted in hospitalities by her mother, Mrs. Edgar Wommack.

Hough-Curry Wedding Read In Residence

The marriage of Miss Merl Ruth Curry of Lubbock, daughter of T. T. Curry of Lueders, and Bobby Ray Hough, son of Rev. and Mrs. V. C. Hough of 1805 East Broadway, took place Saturday night at 6 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Tonroy, 716 East Main.

Rev. P. A. Powell, pastor of the First Baptist church in Turkey, officiated at a double ring service.

Larry Tonroy played the wedding music and accompanied Miss Betty Jane Foster who sang "Let The Rest Of The World Go By."

The bride wore a pale blue dress and accessories and her corsage was of white carnations.

Miss Ida Bell Curry was maid of honor and J. C. Reynolds served as best man.

After a trip to Abilene, the couple will return to Lubbock and will be at home at 716 Ave. A.

Chapter To Be Formed

As a part of a nation-wide program sponsored by the Delphian society, a new group will be organized Thursday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the Adair Music store, 1207 Main. Mrs. Ann Becker of Dallas, supervisor, will conduct the meeting.

Members of this group will discuss psychological, political and cultural patterns for modern living in a series of 54 seminars. They will have three minute talks and round table discussions.

The Delphian society has been in existence for 45 years. Membership is by invitation only.

Miss Bea Heatley, head dietitian at Southern Methodist university, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heatley, and her brother, Lee Heatley. She will accompany her parents to New Mexico this week end.

An Iraqui petroleum company, now laying pipe in a new pipe line from Kirkuk oil field to Tripoli, Lebanon, at the rate of a mile a day, expects its 16-inch line to be finished in 1949, carrying an additional 90,000 barrels of crude oil a day to the coast.

Use fresh snap beans for a delicious and nutritive luncheon dish for school days; just serve them in a cream or cheese sauce with slices of hard-cooked egg as a garnish. Buttered carrots are good with this dish. Dessert might be raisin oatmeal cookies and milk.

U.S. Military Heads Confer With European Army Officers

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Aug. 1.—The U. S. joint chiefs of staff conferred today with army officers of Italy and Luxembourg in the first of a series of talks with European military representatives.

Lieut. Gen. Efisio Marras, Italy's army chief of staff said at the conclusion of the talks the American chiefs "displayed a friendship on which we can rely without question."

Gen. Marras added "we discussed problems of mutual interest. There is no doubt these discussions will be of great mutual benefit."

Adm. Louis Denfeld, U. S. naval chief of operations said the Italians did not raise the question of U. S. arms aid for western Europe.

European Defenses Studied

Earlier, a spokesman for the joint staff said the Luxembourg group did not bring up the arms aid question at their session either.

The American chiefs — Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Army; Adm. Denfeld, Navy; and Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force, flew in from Washington Saturday for a 10-day study of European defenses and potentialities under the Atlantic pact.

The duchy of Luxembourg lies in a border area between France and Germany. She has little more than 1,000 square miles, even with territory gained from Germany through a recent frontier revision. The 1945 population estimate was 284,572.

Plan Heidelberg Visit

Later in the day the U. S. staff chiefs will inspect the Berlin airlift operations at Frankfurt's Rhine-Main airport. Then they will go to U. S. Army headquarters in Heidelberg for further talks with American commanders in Germany.

They visited informally yesterday with commanders on the U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force in Germany.

Adm. Denfeld inspected American naval units and took a short boat ride on the Rhine.

Gen. Bradley spent the day with Lieut. Gen. Clarence R. Huebner, commanding general of the U. S. Army in Europe. Gen. Vandenberg visited Lieut. Gen. John K. Cannon, commander of the U. S. Air Force in Europe.

To Hear Defense Plans

When they go to London later this week the American chiefs will hear two separate plans for western European defense. Both involve the use of American dollars for arms and equipment.

One group of military leaders will tell the Americans that only a large army—containing up to 1,500,000 combat troops mentioned in Washington debate on the arms fund—can prevent Soviet aggression if the Russians substitute military for political pressure.

Another group will contend that a better answer is a small, mobile but well trained and equipped force of some 20 divisions—perhaps 250,000 men—backed by enough planes to guarantee air control.

London experts believe the upshot will be a compromise.

European pact members already have, at least on paper, more than 2,000,000 men in all their armed forces. They lack modern stores and equipment, however. They hope American aid will fill that need.

7 Men Fined In Disturbance

Seven men were fined a total of $125 on disturbance charges Sunday following an altercation at Sixth and Ave. Q about 2 a. m., police records showed.

Investigating officers said a small calibre rifle had been fired into the air during the fight. One of the men involved was taken to West Texas hospital for treatment of bruises and lacerations. The gun was admittedly fired by a Crosbyton man who was fined $15 on the disturbance charge.

Police said the men had been together in a cafe on College avenue shortly before the fight.

Theft Charged

A young woman previously complained to police that her purse and about $3 in cash had been taken from a parked car in front of the same cafe in the 1100 block College. Dale Hall, 23, of 421 Ave. F, who was reportedly sitting in a car near the one in which the complainant left her purse, was arrested by patrolmen on charges of theft under $5. Hall pleaded not guilty, and was placed under $100 bond in corporation court.

Two Plainview men were arrested here by city police about 4:30 p.m. Sunday after a resident of the 800 block Ave. M. had complained to police that the men were driving recklessly in that block at excessive rates of speed. The pair, W. L. McDaniel, 20, and Lloyd C. Terrell, 26, paid fines of $15 each on reckless driving charges. Terrell also paid $25 on an added charge of indecent exposure, and $15 on a charge of drunkenness.

NEGRO WOMAN HELD AFTER STABBING AT POST

POST, Aug. 1. (Special) — A negro woman was being held in jail here after she allegedly had stabbed her husband in the left arm about 6:20 p. m. Sunday.

Sheriff Will Cravey said she would be charged with assault. She was identified as Doris Dabney, about 28.

He said four stitches were taken in the man's arm. His condition is not serious.

TWO NEGROES CHARGED WITH LIQUOR VIOLATIONS

TAHOKA, Aug. 1. (Special)—Two negroes, a man and a woman, are free after posting $500 bonds today when they were charged with state liquor law violations.

Lynn county sheriff's officers surprised Wooley Hardwicke of Slaton and O'Donnell, and Elizabeth King of Slaton, in a midnight raid in O'Donnell early Sunday morning, and confiscated a small amount of whisky and beer.

Railroad Employe Is Sought In Shooting

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1. (U.P.)—A railroad telegrapher was sought today in the shooting of Ola Mae Jewett, 33, as she cooked a Sunday dinner in her apartment.

Miss Jewett, a garment factory worker, was reported in fair condition in All-Saints hospital with a pistol wound above her heart.

Police attributed the shooting to unrequited love, after quoting Miss Jewett as saying she had been keeping company with the man several months but had decided to stop seeing him.

Officers quoted her as saying the man fired without warning as they talked while she prepared the dinner.

Food Poisoning Is Blamed For Death

BRECKENRIDGE, Aug. 1. (U.P.)—Two small children remained in the hospital here today, after food poisoning claimed the life of another child.

Willie Lee Stewart, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Stewart, died yesterday after she and three other children ate some prepared lunch meat that had been left uncovered for several hours.

The parents told hospital attendants the father had prepared his lunch from the meat early Saturday when he left for work, and that the children ate some of the remaining meat several hours later. The father did not become ill.

In the hospital were a sister of the victim, Jeanne Sue, 2; and a couson, Richard Wayne Chambless, also 2. Released after treatment was Tommy Doyle Chambless, 10.

Wrestling Bear At Amarillo Facing Deportation After Thursday Tussle

AMARILLO, Aug. 1. (U.P.) — "Ginger," a wrestling bear, has a temporary parole that will enable her to keep a Thursday night grunt - and - groan engagement here.

After that, anything could happen. It's a matter to be settled by the bear's owner, wrestling promoter Dorry Detton and Capt. James Maggard, the Amarillo game warden.

Maggard slapped a $25 fine on the owner for bringing Ginger into Texas without a permit. Ginger is, in Maggard's opinion, a wild animal.

Payment of the fine by her owner gave Ginger ten days of grace in Texas. After that, she'll have to have a "citizenship" permit—or the equivalent of it—or get out of Texas.

Detton said Ginger had wrestled all over Texas. He didn't want to discourage his customers, but he said Ginger really wasn't too wild, and until Maggard intervened no one had even thought about whether Ginger was a Texas bear or a foreigner.

HOUSING IS SCORED

"Glasgow's slums are the foulest in the world — worse than Moscow's or New York's" Emrys Hughes, Scottish Member of Parliament, said at Westminster, criticizing the housing grants given to his constituency.

Sheriff Saves Negro From Action Of Mob

NASHVILLE, Ga., Aug. 1. (AP)—A sheriff averted a possible lynching of a negro yesterday as mobs of up to 1,500 roamed this small town, threatening racial violence.

Sheriff N. N. Hughes said a negro was seized at home and taken to a long line of cars by the roadside. He was suspected by a throng of white men of attacking a white woman earlier yesterday, Hughes said.

The sheriff persuaded the mob to release the negro to him.

Electra Church Is Damaged By Blaze

ELECTRA, Aug. 1. (AP) — The Bible Baptist church here was damaged by fire last night when flames broke out as water was being heated for a baptismal service.

The Rev. E. E. Taylor, pastor, said he believed bird's nests blocked a flue. He estimated the damage at more than $2,000.

Abilene Drubs Hubbers; Dukes Split Bill

Blue Sox Gain 19-5 Triumph

(By The Associated Press)

Abilene's Blue Sox climbed into a tie for first place in the West Texas-New Mexico League last night and stayed there just three hours. Then the Albuquerque Dukes rebounded from an earlier trimming to subdue the Borger Gassers and retake the league lead.

Abilene laid down a barrage of 30 hits—the highest in the league this season and just short of the all-time high of 34—to crush Lubbock's Hubbers 19-5.

Dukes Split Pair

Albuquerque lost to Borger 7-5, then came back in the nightcap 17-6. Pampa defeated Lamesa 10-4 and Clovis trounced Amarillo 11-2.

Alfredo Roca won his sixth game for Abilene. The Sox attack was led by George Sturdivant with six singles in seven trips and Manager Stubby Greer with five hits in seven trips, including a grand slam homer.

Albuquerque pounded two Borger pitchers to score every inning except one in the second game. A four-run outburst started them in the first inning. A three-run homer by Catcher Ken Sears in the seventh won the first game for Borger.

Lamesa At Lubbock

The Pampa Oilers supported George Payte with 13 hits to give him his seventh win. Four of Pampa's runs came in the fifth on two doubles, an error and a home run by Homer Matney.

Clovis' Pioneers won behind Johnny Waselchuk's pitching. It was Waselchuk's 12th win in 16 games. Clovis hopped to a four-run lead in the first inning on a double, two singles and I. B. Palmer's home run. It added three more in the seventh. Dick Gentzkow hit his homer for Amarillo.

Tonight it's Amarillo at Albuquerque, Borger at Clovis, Lamesa at Lubbock and Abilene at Pampa.

Kilgore Noses Out Paris In 3-2 Tilt

(By The Associated Press)

The tight East Texas league race reaches another crucial point tonight.

League-leading Longview takes on Tyler in a doubleheader while second place Paris meets Kilgore in a single game.

Paris missed a chance to share the lead yesterday and had its seven-game winning streak broken by Kilgore's 3-2 victory. An error by Tony Fiarito in the eighth inning enabled the Drillers to score the winning run.

Gladewater had an easy time with Henderson, 7-2, in the only other loop tilt. Bryan and Marshall were rained out.

Paris dropped a full game back of Longview on yesterday's results, while Gladewater moved within a game and one-half of the pace-setting Texans. Kilgore is only three games off the pace and fifth-place Marshall four and one-half.

Sundown Upsets Denver City, 6 To 3

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

The postman, who often groans when he brings mail to the sports department, flipped an epistle lightly over on the desk Friday and said it was the only one that looked personal. It was, but it apparently was filled with a lot that wasn't personal and which had been discussed generally by a number of people. The artist who wrote the letter was speaking, allegedly, for a large number of persons. These persons all are Hubber fans, go to the games, root for the home club and like nothing better than to see the Hubbers grind into puly the opposing teams.

We like that, too. In fact, we'd like to see it every game. The Hubbers can't win too many. But this letter disturbs us. The writers accuse the Hubbers of loafing, although they point to nothing more specific than the fact the players don't rush to the plate to greet a player when he has hit a home run. There's an easy explanation for that. Manager Jackie Sullivan doesn't like ostentatiousness, or to cut the ten dollar word down to ten cents, show. He believes that it is pomp and ceremony that is unbecoming and doesn't mean much. When you come right down to it, it doesn't. There's nothing in rushing out to greet a home run hitter that shows whether a club has hustle or not.

Personally, we believe a club shows more hustle when players accept hard chances and fight to last ditch to win, no matter whether they are charged with errors or whether they lose. Saturday night the Hubbers trailed 3-0, but they fought back to go ahead. That's hustle. Charley Willis took a cast off his broken thumb to play. That's hustle. Jim Prince made a terrific effort to catch a foul fly that he couldn't get. That's hustle. Mike Dooley made a hard running catch in centerfield that seemed certain to be a hit. That's hustle. The players are running the bases hard. That's hustle.

It's unfair to a ball club to say that it isn't hustling merely because it's in a bad batting slump. Not a slump, that is due to lack of hits, but due to lack of hits at a crucial time. It's pathetic to see a team trying to win so hard, but we wouldn't point the finger of lack of hustle at them. We feel certain that they're trying to win, possibly too hard, and that the slump that they're in right now will end. When it does, you can look for the situation to improve. After all, the Hubbers still are in the first division only four and a half games out of first. They have 39 games left to play. We're still betting they wind up in the first division. Any takers?

Have you noticed a different smell in the air the past few days? If not, sniff again. It's getting to be football season. Yep, just six weeks from last Saturday night, Texas Tech meets Abilene Christian college here in the season's opener. The high school team opens their slate the night before and within two or three weeks, South Plains football fields will be overworked with young, eager kids trying to impress the coaches. Which reminds us that we'd better pass on some advice from Morley Jennings, Tech's ahletic director. Morley urges fans wishing to reserve seats and boxes for Red Raider home games (six of 'em) that they hurry up and make their reservations. It must be done before this coming Sunday.

Lubbock's Blue-Beamer softball team turned on the steam to crush Stamford in two straight games and eliminate them from the Texas Softball League Shaughnessy playoffs. Stringbean Pope and Kenny Scott hurled the wins, but it was the revival of the hitting in the Saturday night game that pleased their followers. This year's club potentially is a strong one, but the hitting hasn't been there. With their batting eyes regained, they could make it rough on Crane, one club that has had the Indian sign on the Blue-Beamers all year. After a doubleheader at Crane Monday night, there should be standing room only Wednesday night at Jumbo Webster Field.

Lubbock's contingent of coaches and players have left for Beaumont and the Texas High School Coaches association's annual coaching school. This looks like one of the best yet, with the usual quota of outstanding coaches on hand and possibly more than the usual number of outstanding basketball and football players. Our area is well represented in Derral Davis of Pampa, Charley Galey of Lubbock, Carl Jowell of Dimmitt and Derrell Murphy of Shallowater in basketball. In football, there will be Bob Rooker of Lubbock, James Garner of Amarillo, Don Thompson of Odessa, Phillip Payne of Pampa, Charles Sieber of Amarillo, Waldo Young of Monahans and Jimmie Williams of Phillips. Class AA and Class A coaches of the area expect big things in the games from all of these fine athletes.

THE ROUNDUP: So Red Denham of Crane is good? How about Betty Evans of Portland. Saturday night she hurled her 41st no-hit, no-run game! . . . Houston University's home football games will be televised this fall . . . The Southwest Conference and Cotton Bowl association has changed addresses. They can be reached now at 1342-43 National City building, Dallas 1. . . . Arizona will wear cardinal red jerseys with white numbers and three white arm stripes during the 1949 season. Pants will be gold with a blue stripe and new plastic helmets will be gold with cardinal stripe . . . Lake Texoma now has a major recreational area — Sunset Camp —strictly for negroes . . . A quote to Umpire Don Fisher by a lady fan following a game here recently: "A lot of nitwits have called ball games in Lubbock, but you take the cake" . . . Getting cake now instead of rhubarb. Hey Milton!

SKEET SHOOT OPENS

DALLAS, Aug. 1. (AP)—Skeet shooting's world series opened a week-long stand today, with more than 600 shooters expected to vie for the 27 individual championships.

Until they fell to last place in 1948, the Chicago Cubs had only once finished in the National League Cellar.

Texas School For Coaches Underway

BEAUMONT, Aug. 1. (AP)—The Texas coaching school started its week-long run today with a record enrollment. mentors from Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Kansas, Arizona and other states and a contingent from Mexico crowded the city auditorium to hear Don Faurot, coach of Missouri and Carl Snavely of North Carolina in first football lectures.

The afternoon will be given over to talks by Henry Iba of Oklahoma A. and M., and Adolph Rupp of Kentucky on basketball.

At the close of registration last night 976 coaches had enrolled, surpassing by more than 100 the record of total is expected to go over 1,100 today.

There were a dozen negro coaches in the list.

Schoolboy and basketball squads start practice this afternoon for the annual all-star games. Most of the athletes—all boys who finished their high school eligibility this spring—arrived yesterday.

Only two changes were noted in the all-star rosters and both were in football. Jack Sisco, jr., of Weatherford subbed for James Garner of Amarillo and Marvin Teague of Taxarkana for Charles Sieber of Amarillo on the North squad. Garner has a knee injury and Sieber has an appointment to Annapolis.

Shallowater Beats Cooper Team, 3-2

Cooper threatened to replace Shallowater atop the Cotton Belt standings Sunday, but the loopleaders fought back to win a tight, 3-2 victory.

Cooper dropped to third place, having been tied for second with the Wolfforth Wolves. The Wolves handed Ropesville a 16-11 defeat to take over the runner-up spot without opposition.

In other Sunday games, the Wolfforth Eagles edged out Smyer, 15-14, in 10 innings, and Meadow outscored Lubbock, 13-10, with the help of a six-run rally in the ninth inning.

Hulen Fowler notched a four-hitter in pitching Shallowater to its victory over Cooper. He fanned 12. Gerezison was the losing pitcher.

W. Richardson and N. Johnson each hit doubles for the losers, as did A. C. Henderson for Shallowater.

Wolfforth's Wolves spotted Ropesville a 6-0 lead before putting their scoring machinery into operation, but once they started they promptly took up the slack and went on to win, 16-11. David Loyd, who relieved Jim Hyatt in the third inning, was credited with the victory.

Walter Bumpass had three for five to lead Wolfforth's attack, while Loyd, Melvin Earsley and Harrison Sage each hit safely twice. For Ropesville, Gunter had three hits, and Gene McKee and G. Howell two apiece.

In Meadow's 13-10 triumph over Lubbock, Dale Brown paced the victors with a three-run homer in the ninth. Zadlock hit for the circuit for Lubbock with the bases empty.

DENVER MAN WINNER

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 1. (AP)—Claude Wright of Denver came through the winner yesterday in the Broadmoor invitational golf championship. Wright stroked a birdie four on the 38th to edge Jack Munger, husky Dallas star.

Dom DiMaggio, who hit .316 for the Boston Red Sox in 1946, is on his way to a higher average this season.

Brownfield Rallies In Ninth To Defeat Levelland 11 To 10

Unexpected things continued to happen Sunday in the Oil Belt league, and lightning struck at least twice as Sundown upset Denver City and Brownfield surprised itself with asix-run splurge in the ninth to drop Levelland, 11-10.

As far as upsets go, the Brownfield victory was the most decided upheaval in the league, but Sundown's 6-3 victory over the Gassers had more effect on the standings in the league, dropping Denver City back into a tie with Seagraves for the loop lead.

In other games Post took a doubleheader from Tahoka, 13-1 and 7-2 to gain the fourth place spot in the standings. And Seagraves played sloppy ball in downing the Slaton Tigers, 7-5, and regaining lost ground.

Sundown Breaks Tie

Huck Huckabee was the winning pitcher in stopping Denver City, and he gave but six safeties while fanning 11 batters.

Sundown broke a 1-1 tie with a run in the third and then added three tallies in the fifth to put the game beyond Denver City's reach.

In the fifth Jackie Martyn came on to relieve Denny Davidson on the mound for the Gassers after the damage was done, and he held them in check the rest of the way.

Leading the hitters for Sundown were Doug Ethridge and Joe Carpenter, each with a double and single, and Lefty Toten rapped out two singles. Doc Keep banged a double for the Gassers' only extra-base blow.

Faulkner Gets Win

A 6-0 lead early in the game protected Lefty Faulkner's hurling efforts, and although Slaton touched him hard for 12 safe knocks he was never in too serious trouble, his mates collecting a dozen off of Earl Ince and Cecil French.

Putsy Gentry, Bill Cope and Charley Lawrence each rapped out two hits each for the winners, and Dorrance Guy poled a long, fence-rattling triple to knock in two runs in the big third inning when five Oilers crossed the plate.

Bill Dill, Jim Jernigan and Donaldson garnered two safeties apiece for the losers.

Brownfield's victory was the second in 25 contests this season, and it came about in the home half of the ninth inning with a rally that was not to be denied.

Hise Crosses Plate

Levelland seemed to have the game stowed away, but Brownfield never ceased to hustle, and Gerald Hise crossed the plate with the winning run when Manager Dunk Warren doubled with the score tied and two out.

For Post the double win gave them a first-division berth. Working with a good lead in the first game Curly Burnett tossed a neat four-hitter at the Tahokans, allowing a run in the first inning and then settling down to give up but two hits the last six frames.

Post Pounds Tahoka

Meantime Post hitters were having a field day at the expense of Tahoka's Raymond Pierce. Of the 14 hits R. M. Thomas and Joe Boren each had three, and Doug Simpson, W. B. Holland, Jess Cornell and Mack Shepherd had two apiece.

The finale saw Tahoka lead briefly in the second and then give up the margin when Post pushed over two runs in the third and two in the fourth. Bobbie Cash and Jess Cornell paced the Miller attack, each with a double and single, and Doug Simpson hit two singles.

Bobby Rogers was Tahoka's outstanding hitter, getting a double and single.

Walter Johnson and Denton (Cy) Young are the only major league pitchers in history ever to win more than 400 games.

Dallas Drops Sports, 11-2

(By The Associated Press)

Oklahoma City is in the first division of the Texas league today —thanks to Dallas.

The Indians whipped Houston, 10-6, last night and moved into fourth when the Eagles stomped Shreveport, 11-2.

Tulsa edged closer to first place by thumping San Antonio, 2-1 and 7-6, while league-leading Fort Worth edged Beaumont, 8-7.

Eagles Hold Third

Dallas kicked Oklahoma City around at the beginning of the season, but last night really did the Indians a favor. The victory over Shreveport left the Eagles firmly in third place, gave them a clean sweep of the series and extended their current winning streak to four games.

Pete Lewis' two-run homer saved Shreveport from being blanked.

Eighteen hits, five by Herd Conyears, the league's top batter, gave Oklahoma City its victory.

Cats Shade Beaumont

Fort Worth scored three runs without a hit in the eighth inning to shade Beaumont. The Cats did it on five walks and a hit batsman.

Pitcher Frank Smith got credit for both Tulsa victories. He allowed six hits in going the distance in the first game, then relieved John Bebber in the eighth inning of the second tilt. Joe Adcock's game-winning single came after two were out in the ninth.

Duck Season Change Is Asked By Texans

AMARILLO, Aug. 1. (AP)—The Texas Wildlife federation yesterday asked the Department of Interior for a change in the duck hunting season.

The federation adopted a resolution requesting a season of 40 consecutive days, with a daily bag limit of five ducks.

Last Friday, Secertary of the Interior Krug announced the Texas duck and goose season would be Nov. 4-7 and Dec. 21-Jan. 7, with a daily bag of four ducks.

The federation also asked that the mourning dove season for the south zone of Texas be changed to coincide with the quail season. Members said the change would reduce the number of dove and quail shot illegally.

CASTOFF INFIELD

PITTSBURGH. (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have six infielders who have played with other major league clubs. Danny Murtaugh has been with the Phillies and Braves, Stan Rojek with Brooklyn, Joe Bockman with the Yankees, Les Fleming with the Indians, Ed Stevens with Brooklyn and Bobby Rhawn with the Giants. Monty Basgall, who plays some second base, once was the property of the Dodgers.

BILL MAXWELL WINS

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1. (AP)—Billy Maxwell of Odessa won the Glen Garden Country club golf title yesterday. He beat Morris Williams jr., of Austin 2-up on the 36th hole.

KINGPIN FISHERMAN—Gordon Mitchell of Beeville, above, stands beside a large silver king he landed during the recent Corpus Christi tarpon rodeo after a battle of more than an hour. He landed three silver kings to win the coveted Sportsman's trophy with a total of points almost triple that of the runner-up. (AP Photo).

Waco Weaker This Year, Coach Says

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

BEAUMONT, Aug. 1 — Carl Price, whose Waco team swept undefeated to the Class A Texas schoolboy football championship last fall, says he won't be 50 per cent as good this season.

Here attending the Texas coaching school, Price wept in his iced tea when he talked about 1949 prospects.

"You have to score to win football games and I can't figure out how we can do it with what I have back," he declared and expressed gratitude that he was being permitted to be quoted. He wanted to get on the line and get off the spot.

Boosted Senior Club

"I had a senior ball club last fall," Price pointed out. "Last September, the boys came to me and told me not to worry — that they were going to win the championship. I didn't believe it; I never dreamed they would work into such a smooth team and that I would have the balance that featured the Waco team last season."

Then he commented sadly:

"None of the boys have told me not to worry this time. They haven't even said they'd win the district championship. There's a good reason, too. I can't see how I'm to have much chance against that veteran Temple team that's coming up."

Price admitted he had 16 lettermen coming back, but said only two of them were regulars last season. They were Robert Knowles, a tackle, and Joe Mac Gresham, an end. He also pointed out that he would have only two from his 1948 second team — Roland King, a tackle, and Bob Sherman, an end. The latter played with the regulars considerably on offense last year.

Furthermore, he related, his "B" team of 1948 won only two games and the only top prospect from that aggregation is Spec Pearce, a pretty good back.

Robert (Lefty) Grove is the latest addition to the ranks of major league pitchers who have won over 300 games.

Brooklyn Edges Cards

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sport Writer

Don Newcombe, big negro righthander of the Brooklyn Dodgers who has had his ups and downs, has something to smile about today. He's turned the tables on his chief tormentors—the St. Louis Cardinals.

Solidly cuffed in three previous encounters with the rollicking Red Birds, Newcombe clipped the league-leader, 4-2, yesterday to snap the Cards' nine-game winning streak and put the Bums back in the National league race.

The Cards spoiled Newcombe's major league debut on May 20, socking him for four hits and three runs in a third of an inning. The next time the two met, the Cards belted Newcombe out of the box in the ninth inning with a three-run rally and went on to win in overtime.

Checks Cardinal Nine

Newcombe's third brush against the Birds occurred a week ago Sunday and what the Cards did to him shouldn't happen. He couldn't get anybody out in the first inning. The Cards breezed to a 14-1 victory and took over first place from the Dodgers.

Yesterday, however, Newcombe had the Cards' number. The largest St. Louis crowd of the season, 32,965 fans saw the big fellow check the cards on eight hits.

He blanked the league leaders until the ninth when singles by Ron Northey, Glen Nelson and Lou Klein plus Duke Snider's first error of the season allowed the Cards to score twice. Newcombe got pinch-hitter Bill Baker to ground out to end the game.

The victory cut the Cards' advantage over the Dodgers to one and a half games.

Meanwhile, the New York Yankees stretched their American league lead to four games over the second place Cleveland Indians.

The Yanks split a twin bill with the Chicago White Sox, taking the opener, 3-2, and dropping the nightcap, 2-1, in ten innings. The Indians were blanked, 3-0, by Mickey McDermott and the Red Sox in Boston.

Appling Gets Homer

Ed Lopat bested young Billy Pierce in the first game on Johnny Lindell's ninth inning homer and Tommy Henrich's run-scoring single.

Luke Appling slammed a two-run homer with two down in the tenth to give Lefty Bob Kuzava the nod over Duane Pillette in the nightcap.

McDermott scattered eight hits and fanned seven in out-pitching Gene Bearden. Dom DiMaggio of the Red Sox collected one hit to extend his conservative game hitting streak to 27.

The Detroit Tigers made it three straight shutouts over the Philadelphia Athletics as Ted Gray and Fred Hutchinson pitched the Bengals to 3-0 and 6-0 triumphs in the Quaker City. Gray yielded eight hits and Hutch five.

Sherry Robertson socked a pair of homers and Eddie Robinson one to pace the Washington Senators to a 7-3 triumph over the St. Louis Browns.

Giants Trounce Reds

The New York Giants butchered the Cincinnati Reds, 10-0 and 9-0, confining their scoring to three innings. They scored ten runs in the first two innings of the opener with home runs by Johnny Mize, Ray Mueller and Hank Thompson featuring the bombardment.

Sid Gordon was the big man in the nightcap with two homers during a nine-run second inning uprising.

Adrian Zabala, making his first start since returning from the Mexican league, limited the Reds to five blows in the finale.

The triumphs elevated the Giants into fourth place, one percentage point ahead of the Philadelphia Phils. The Phils edged the Chicago Cubs, 5-4 in ten innings in Chicago.

Dick Sisler singled home Gran Hamner from second base to break up the game for Philadelphia. Hank Sauer socked his 21st homer to account for Chicago's first two runs and Andy Pafko sent the game into overtime with a two run four-bagger in the ninth.

The Pittsburgh Pirates and the Boston Braves split a bargain bill, the Braves winning the first game, 9-1, behind Johnny Sain and the Pirates the nightcap, 6-5 with three runs in the ninth.

Top Horses In Saratoga Race

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 1. (AP)—Racing fans descend on venerable Saratoga today as they have for 83 years, and the always present horsey talk reaches a crescendo.

The opening of the 24-day August meeting of the Saratoga association features the 75th running of America's oldest race for two-year-olds—the Flash stakes.

Actor Is Honored

Early arrivals at the New York spa found an added attraction.

Residents joined with prominent figures of the stage, screen entertainment and business world to honor actor Monte Woolley. Best known for his portrayal of "The Man Who Came To Dinner," the bewhiskered Monte is known locally as "the man who stayed at Saratoga." He moved here as a boy and always has called the little town home.

A "Monte Woolley day" program, with a testimonial dinner and a parade of gay ninety horse-drawn carriages, features the opening of the racing season.

Races Are Slated

Twenty-two stake events have top billing on the full August racing program. Eight races are carded for each week-day afternoon, including a steeplechase, or hurdle event.

The five and one-half furlong Flash, which carries $7,500 in added money, has attracted a field of eight of the best juveniles in the east.

Top weight of 120 pounds each went to the Brookmeade stable entry of More Sun and Greek Ship, Mrs. Aksel Wichfield's Detective and E. P. Taylor's Navy Chief. Greentree stable's Androcles got in with 116, as did Sulieman and Broken Arches. Assignment drew 108.

Navy Chief was the probable favorite.

Qualifying Rounds In Tourney Slated

Qualifying rounds in the annual Women's championship at the Lubbock Country club will take place a week from today with one of the largest fields in the history of the event expected to register.

Mrs. George Soash, one of the leaders in the Women's West Texas Golf tournament, is defending champion of the club and will be back to protect her laurels.

A non-permanent possession cup, donated by Buck Luther, is the prize that all golfers will be after in the tourney. Mrs. John Markham is tournament chairman.

Wednesday of this week, Country club and Meadowbrook women will be guests of the South Plains Ladies Golf Association and will tour the Brownfield Country club course. The golfing starts at 9 a.m. and there will be luncheon served at the club afterwards.

Tom Veech, sophomore member of the Notre Dame golf team, is one of the finest prospects in recent years on the Irish campus.

In making a white sauce melt the fat in a saucepan, then remove from the heat before adding the flour. Now add cold milk gradually, with the saucepan still off the heat, stirring as you do so. After all the milk has been added continue to stir well until there are no more lumps. A whisk is excellent to use for the stirring, but if you do not have one use a wooden spoon. A half teaspoon of salt is usually plenty for two cups of the sauce.

Lubbock Softball Nine Meets Crane

CRANE, Aug. 1 (Special) — The Texas Softball league's Shaughnessy playoffs get down to the bitter fight to the finish stage here tonight when the Lubbock Bluebonnet-Sunbeamers open a four out of seven game series against the Crane Oilers.

The pennant of the softball league hangs in the balance and Crane will be shooting everything for victory. The Oilers went into the final round by tripping Abilene twice, 2-0 and 3-1.

The Blue-Beamers, second in regular season play in the western division, slipped past Stamford easily, 1-0 and 5-1. Stamford had won the eastern division chase.

Five Hurlers Ready

Five hurlers are ready to chuck for the Lubbock club, with Kenny Scott and Reece McGee, additions from Oklahoma, joining G. W. Warden and Stringbean Pope, season regulars. Bill Howton, who hurled two no-hit, no-run games last week for Anthony's of Plainview, also is ready for hill assignment.

The Oilers will rely heavily on Red Denham, their ace hurler, who has the most outstanding record in the TSL during regular season play. Denham also will have assistance, if he needs it, from Red Johnson and J. W. Teague.

Oilers Have Edge

Lubbock and Crane have met eight times this season, with the Oilers grabbing five of the games—all pitched by Denham. Twice the redhead won doubleheaders from Lubbock, and another time he split.

Lubbock split the first two games of the season with Crane and then won a double bill at this city. From that point on, the Oilers came out on top in all the games.

The regular season ended with Crane and Lubbock in a tie for first place. The Oilers split a twin bill with McCamey last week in a pair of make-up games to knock Crane out of undisputed possession of first place.

Play In Lubbock Tuesday

The two teams return to Lubbock Tuesday night to play another pair of games. If further games are needed to conclude the series, they will be played at a later date.

Because of the National Softball Congress tournament at Stamford, the additional games cannot be played this week. Both teams are entered in the Stamford tourney and will conclude the playoff series after that tournament.

Legion Tourney To Start On Tuesday

BRYAN, Aug. 1. (AP)—The American Legion state junior baseball tournament gets underway here tomorrow night with Laredo meeting Galveston and Odessa playing Sunset of Dallas.

Losers in the opening round of the double elimination tournament meet at 6 p. m. Wednesday and the winners immediately afterwards.

The finals will be played Thursday.

Gainesville Downs Texarkana, 10 To 7

(By The Associated Press)

The "big three' in the Big State league may be in for another dizzy spell in the standings.

League-leading Texarkana and runnerup Austin took it on the chin yesterday while Wicihta Falls blanked Sherman-Denison, 4-0, to move with three and one half games of the lead.

Texarkana, which lost a 7-10 slugfest to Gainesville, and Austin, which bowed to Greenville, 4-5, can ill afford to lose more than two straight games. Their margins aren't big enough to stand it.

Lowly Temple blanked Waco, 6-0, in a rain-shortened, seven inning tilt in the other league game.

Sid Peterson shut out Sherman-Denison on four hits as the Spudders picked up a full game on the Bears.

Pitcher Melvin Tappe singled home what proved to be the run that beat Austin in the sixth.

Bill Bohne, new Temple pitcher, scattered seven hits and drove in two runs.

Gainesville jumped into a first inning lead and was never behind.

Three members of the 1949 Cincinnati team are 10-year men. They are Ray Mueller, Harry Gumbert and Johnny Vander Meer.

Westerner To Play In Game

An invitation to play in the 12th annual Oil Bowl football classic, to be held August 26 in Wichita Falls, was received by Jack Hensley late last week and the former Westerner accepted the offer.

Hensley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hensley, 3304 Twenty-fourth street was a 1948 leterman at Lubbock High, playing guard and tackle. For his services to the team he was awarded the most valuable Westerner award by The Avalanche - Journal. The ward is annually given by the newspaper to the boy chosen by his teammates who lives up to the best standards of the sport--cooperation, initiative, ability, sportsmanship, and attitude.

The Oil Bowl classic is the yearly battle between two teams from Texas and Oklahoma and is sponsored by the Maskat Temple. Proceeds go to charity.

Only 24 Boys Chosen

Only 24 boys from each state are chosen to each team from among the all-stars of the 1948 season and it is a decided honor to be selected. The game will be played in Coyote stadium, home of the Wichita Falls High school team.

In addition to playing Westerner football, Hensley was a member of the state finalist basketball team which placed third in the state playoff.

He will report to Wichita Falls on Sunday, August 21, to begin practice for the game.

A June graduate of Lubbock High school, Hensley is planning to attend the University of Texas this fall and to play football there. He is 6 feet 1 inch tall and weighs 175 pounds.

Sam Snead Winner In Western Open

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 1. (AP)—Sam Snead, the White Sulphur Springs, W. V., professional who says he's "tired of golf" had something today to relieve that tired feeling.

It was the $2,600 he won yesterday by taking first place in the 46th annual Western Open with a 73-hole total of 268.

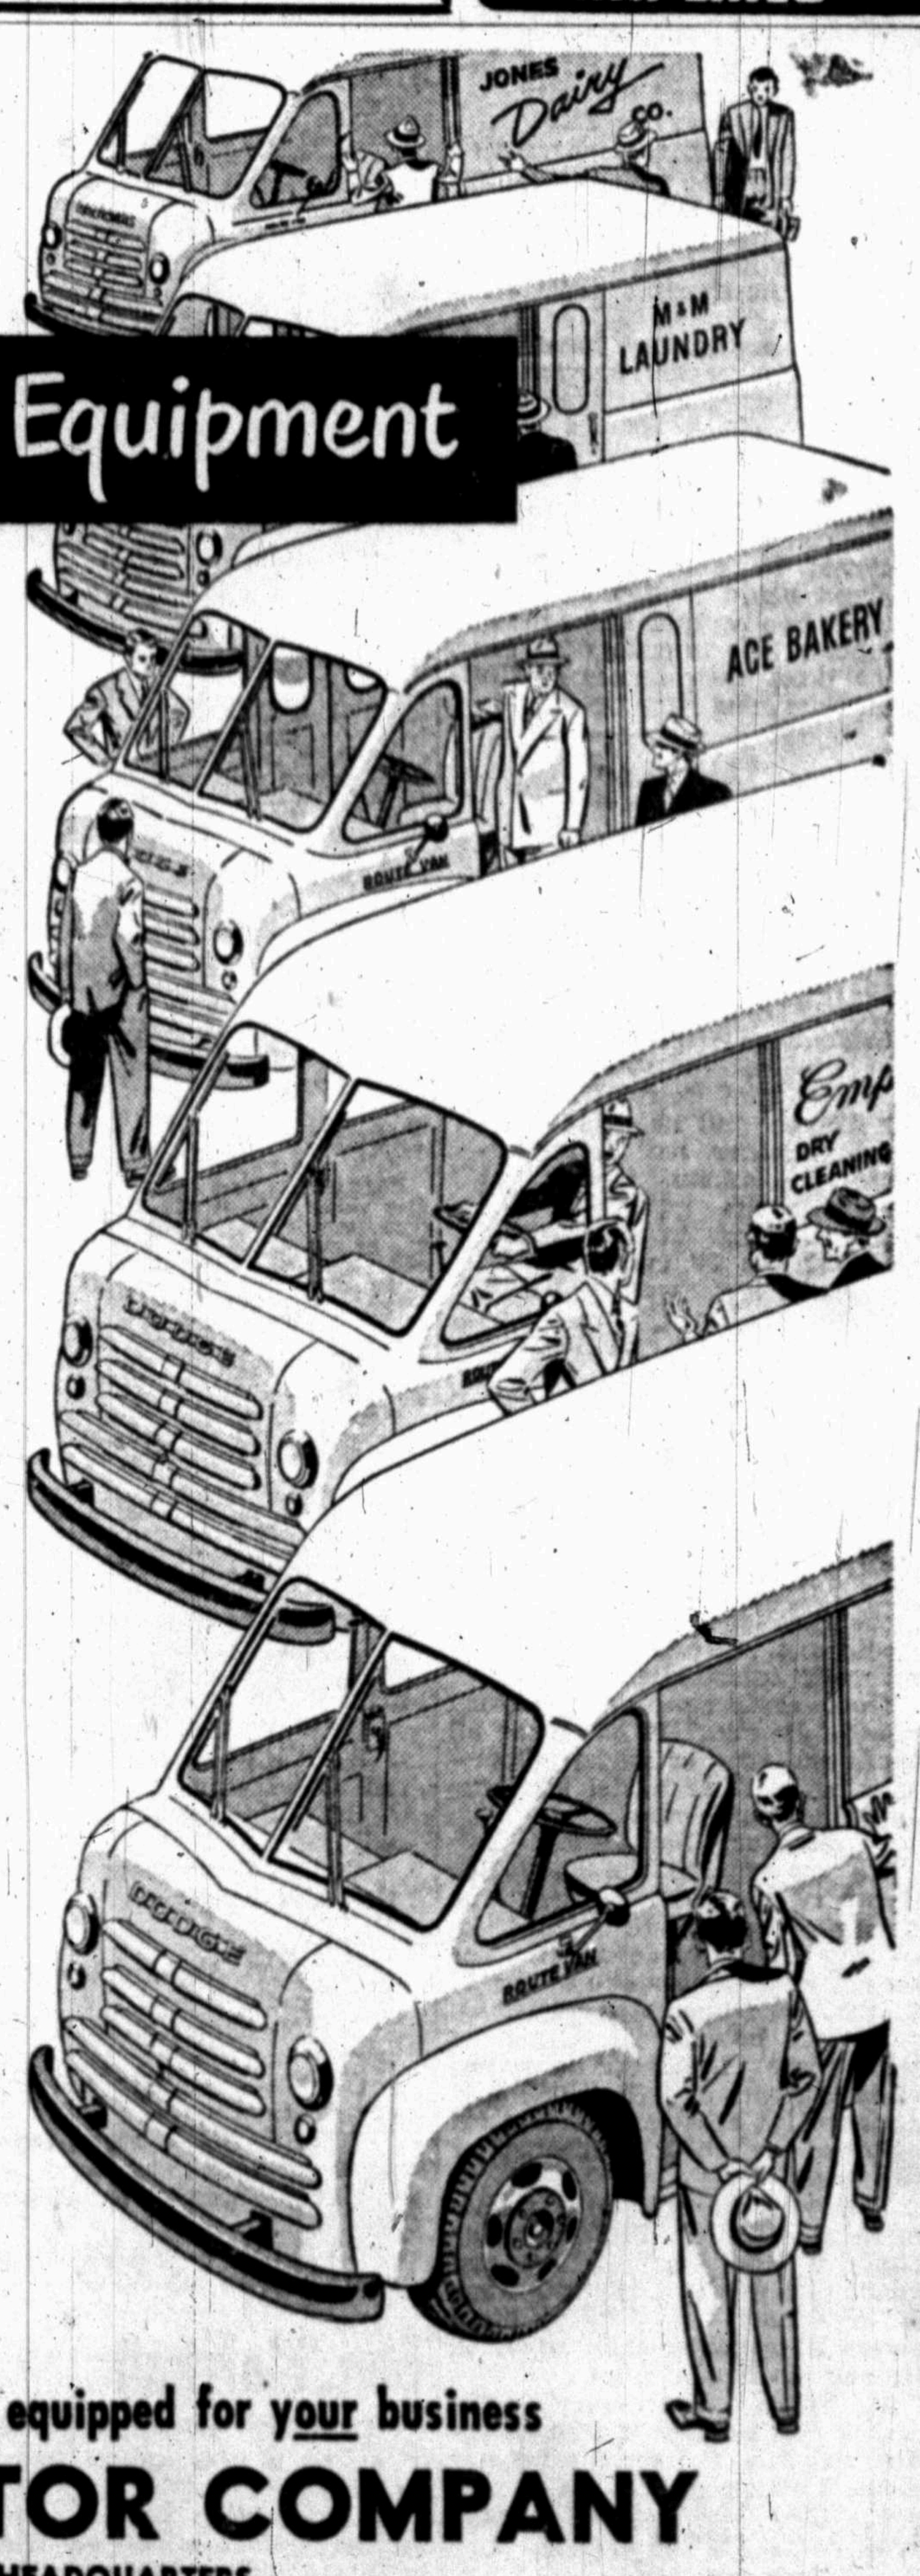

Cary Middlecoff of Memphis shot a 65 yesterday to boost himself to a four-round total of 272 and take down $1,900 second money.

Snead's first-place money increased his winnings in the professional golfers list to $23,560.83. With Middlecoff staying right behind him with a total of $21,924.57.

Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago; Jimmy Demaret, Ojal, Calif., and Chick Harbert, Detroit, finished yesterday's round with 273s. Mangrum shot a 70, Demaret a 67 and Harbert a 71 in the final round. They each won $1,183.34.

Lubbock Police Arrest Youths In Kidnap-Robbery At El Paso

Two youths sought throughout West Texas in the kidnap-hijacking of a California man near El Paso early Sunday, were taken into custody in a bus station here Sunday night by officers acting on a tip from an alert truck driver.

The suspects, earlier reported to be armed, were arrested without resistance about 7:30 p.m. by City Detective Lee Rice, jr., and Police Sgt. J. T. Alley as one of the men was purchasing bus tickets.

Authorities in this area were alerted for the pair about noon Sunday after the victim of the hijacking, L. Veach, of Taft, Calif., had walked into the sheriff's office at Big Spring and told officers there he had been beaten, bound and robbed by two young hitchhikers near El Paso earlier in the day. Veach, who said his attackers had taken $361 in cash and traveler's checks from him, was forced to accompany the pair to Big Spring.

The youths had $160 in traveler's checks bearing Veach's signature and about $110 in cash at the time of their arrest here. A wallet embossed with Veach's nem was also found on one of the suspects.

Cashed Travele's Checks

The police department said Ailey and Rice were dispatched to the TNM&O bus station at 1215 Thirteenth following a call from Carl Cross, San Angelo truck driver who had picked the pair up on the highway near Lamesa and brought them to Lubbock.

Cross and Dudley Henriques, owner of Lubbock Truck center, became suspicious of the youths after they had cashed one of the checks at the center and attempted to buy a pistol owned by Cross. Cross recalled later that the pair had mentioned leaving Lubbock by bus, and relayed that information to police.

Cordy Sherley, cashier at Waffle Shop No. 2 at 916 Ave. H, later told police she had cashed a traveler's check for one of the young men.

Youths 'Take Over'

Veach told sheriff's officers at Big Spring that he had picked the youths up on the highway near Globe, Ariz., about 6 a.m. Saturday. Shortly after they left El Paso, headed east, the two hitchhikers told him they were "taking over," Veach related. They then drove into some small hills near the border city where the California man said he was beaten, bound and robbed. The trio then continued on to Big Spring, according to Veach, where he was told to "get out" at the edge of town. His car, a 1941 Plymouth, was later found abandoned in an alley there.

The pair told officers here they had hitchhiked from Big Spring, getting "about three rides" between Lubbock and that city.

Charges May Be Filed

It was believed that charges of armed robbery and kidnaping would be filed in the case in El Paso. No definite word to that effect has been received here, however, the sheriff's department reported.

Lamesa authorities have indicated that a forgery warrant may be issued on the basis of a $20 traveler's check passed there. Money for the two checks cashed at the bus station and Waffle shop No. 2 has been returned to those establishments, and it was believed by authorities that no charges would be filed.

The two suspects meanwhile are being held in county jail here. They listed their homes as Gulfport, Miss., and New Orleans.

Jimmy Powers

the finishing touches on it.

But he did get it finished, and the announcement this morning from Detroit revealed that he was named top winner in the junior division in Texas, and also top regional winner, including Texas, Arizona and New Mexico.

There's still hope for bigger winnings, too. A university scholarship is now at stake. His model car, if judged first in the nation among the 20 models in its age division, would win a $4,000 scholarshi, to any college or university of the winner's choice. Second place is a $3,000 scholarship, while third place takes a $2,000 scholarship and fourth place a $1,000 scholarship.

The model which took the regional award was constructed of plaster of paris, about 15 inches long. It looked typical of 1949 model four-door sedans, although it did not represent a particular make of automobile.

Good craftsmanship is nothing new to Jimmy. He has made all types and sizes of model automobiles, as well as model airplanes and other handiwork.

In Soap Box Derby

He has entered the Soap Box darby two years in a row. The first year he took fifth place, receiving a table model radio. The second year he was one of the 12 finalists, winning three heats.

He is a member of Boy Scout troop three. Last year he excelled in art work at J. T. Hutchinson Junoir High school, and was art editor of the school newspaper for two years.

This year he will be a sophomore in high school, where he hopes to continue his art and handicraft work. Last year some of his models took first place award at a hobby show at J. T. Hutchinson Junior High.

Mr. Powers is a deputy in the county tax assessor-collector's office, and Mrs. Powers is a teacher in the Lubbock public school system. They have two other children, Anita, 13, and Willis, 12.

Daily MARKETS

Stock Market

MARKET IS HIGHER

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP) — The stock market finished in higher price territory today for the first time since last Tuesday.

The advance was timid and halting but a wide variety of key issues emerged with gains of fractions to around a point.

Trading was slower than usual most of the day although large volume in commonwealth & Southern contributed to activity.

A flurry of activity in Chrysler carried the price up around a point at one time.

Others ahead a good part of the day included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, Montgomery Ward, American Telephone, North American Co., Kennecott copper, Phelps Dodge, Dome Mines Dupont, Allied Chemical, American Woolen, Northern Pacific, Union Pacific, Gulf Oil and Twentieth Century-Fox.

Central R. R. of N. J. lost around 2 points. Declines were also posted for U. S. Rubber, Eastman Kodak, Radio Corp., International Paper, and Standard Oil (NJ).

Her Arm Was Twisted Until Bones Popped

175-Pound Wife Says Seventh Threatened Divorce To Stick

HOUSTON, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—Testifying with her right arm in a sling, Mrs. Lovie Mae Strunk, who said she weighs 175 pounds, told county court here today that her seventh "threatened" divorce in 13 years of marriage is going to stick.

The 37-year-old brunette testified her right arm was broken June 21 by her husband, B. C. Strunk, 40, who operates a tavern.

She said they argued, he twisted her arm "until you could hear the bones pop," then pushed her out and locked the front door of his place of business.

Found Guilty

"I reached under the screen with my left hand to try to open it and then he stepped on my left hand," Mrs. Strunk testified.

Strunk said on the witness stand he was merely trying to "lead" his wife out.

"She struggled and hurt her own arm," he declared.

"And how about that locked door?" asked Asst. District Attorney Ed Roche. "Did you expect your customers to carry jimmies?"

Strunk was found guilty of aggravated assault and fined $500 and costs.

Mrs. Strunk's seventh suit for divorce was pending.

Prominent Citizens Arrested In Raid

SHERMAN, Aug. 1. (U.P.)—Ranger Capt. M. T. Gonzaullas and four of his men raided a Sherman night club Saturday night and arrested 30 prominent Grayson county men and women, it was revealed today.

Local officers were not in on the raid at the Hi-Lite club. Arthur Willingham, owner of the club, and eight of his employes, were charged with operating a gambling game and were free on $750 bond each, awaiting grand jury action.

The 30 patrons arrested pleaded guilty to misdemeanor charges, paid their fines and were released.

Rita In Seclusion Awaiting The Stork

DEAUVILLE, France, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—Movie actress Rita Hayworth has gone into virtual seclusion to await the stork expected some months from now, her servants reported today.

They said the Hollywood dancing star now confines her public appearances to 15 minutes daily, when she rolls marbles on the beach with her daughter and stepsons.

They would not reveal the date when Miss Hayworth expects her baby, but it was reported that she has a suite reserved at the American hospital in Paris for some months from now. However, the hospital refused to confirm the report.

The glamorous movie queen and Indian Prince Aly Khan were married last May.

Catholic Orders In Romania Dissolved

BUCHAREST, Romania, Aug. 1 (AP)—Romania today dissolved all Roman Catholic welfare orders.

There are 15 such orders in Romania, the best known being the French order of St. Vincent De Paul. The orders are devoted to charity, hospital and social work among Roman Catholics.

Catholic priests, monks and nuns enrolled in the orders were told to choose within 15 days whether they will retire to three civilians and two monasteries assigned to them, enter an old age asylum, or quit their orders and join the lay public, applying for jobs at local employment bureaus.

World Arms Census Is Approved By UN

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 1 (U.P.)—The United Nations conventional armaments commission today approved plans for a world census of all armaments except the atomic bomb.

Russian delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin charged before the 11-member armaments commission that the United States, and not Russia, was engaging in an arms race as the groundwork for World war III.

Congratulations to:

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Bryant of Pettit on birth of twins, a girl weighing 4 pounds 8¼ ounces at 8:35 a. m. today and a boy weighing 3 ounces at 9:38 a. m. today, at West Texas hospital. The father is a refinery employe.

Six Arrested, Beer Is Seized In Raids

HOUSTON, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—Six arrests and seizure of 62 cases of beer followed three weekend raids here by state liquor agents.

Ernest Hill, 40, proprietor of the Burlesque club, and Mary Asas, 24-year-old waitress, were charged with operating an open saloon. No liquor was seized. Early this year, several performers at the club were filed on for performing strip teases.

Agents raided a "rooming house" operated by Helen Bradley, 31 and charged her with sale of beer without a license and operating an open saloon. They confiscated two cases of beer and several bottles of whisky.

Some 18 persons were drinking beer in an apartment house when agents walked in and seized 60 cases of beer. Mrs. Ventura Stoltz, 40, and two men, A. B. Kirkpatrick and Robert Wade, were charged with sale of beer without a license.

Atomic Work

connection with the production of fissionable materials for weapons and other uses "actions have been taken to improve and make more certain the supply of . . . (uranium ores both from abroad and from sources in the United States."

The 202-page report made no reference to current discussions concerning American-British-Canadian relations in the atomic energy field.

No Connection With Talks

And a member of the commission's staff said the report's reference to the newly-found domestic uranium sources had no connection with recent speculation concerning American-British-Canadian relations.

One report growing out of the recent Blair house meeting of American atomic and other officials was that AEC Chief Lilienthal feared a cut-back in our supplies of uranium for Canada and the Belgian Congo unless we shared atomic secrets with the British and the Canadians. This report drew a "no comment" from the ECA.

The commission staffman told a newsman that the semi-annual report had been written before the discussions about our relations with out atomic allies had drawn public attention.

Potential For Future

He also said the possible use of very low-grade materials was a "potential" for the future—something that would be used only as an emergency measure. He did grant that it was a potential that could be employed if lower-cost uranium, domestic or foreign, ceased to be available for any reason.

Referring to current production of atomic weapons, the report said:

"New and more effective weapons which were tested at Eniwetok in 1948 are in production. Under the commission's direction, components of these weapons are being produced on an industrial basis by competent manufacturing concerns or special government facilities throughout the country."

It also said operations in the field of military application of atomic energy "have continued to accelerate during the last six months," adding:

"An important development during this period has been the obtaining of a suitable contractor to take over management of the Sandia laboratory near Albuquerque, New Mexico."

Branch Of Las Alamos

Sandia is a branch of the Los Alamos scientific laboratory — center for the development of atomic weapons. The Sandia laboratory works closely with the armed forces.

The AEC said the University of California, which operates Los Alamos for the commission, had asked to be relieved of operating the Sandia phase of the weapons program. The commission said negotiations are under way to provide for management of Sandia by the Western Electric Co. and Bell Telephone laboratories.

In the field of processing "feed materials" for the production of fissionable uranium and plutonium, the commission also reported successful pilot plant tryouts of two new processes that will cut costs.

Medicinal Highlights

And, in the field of medicine and biology involving atomic energy materials and their effects these were some of the highlights reported:

1. Development of a still-on-trial treatment for the relief of pain and distress in two types of heart disease — angina pectoris and congestive heart failure.

2. First human trials of radioactive cobalt, which shows promise of being an inexpensive substitute for radium in the treatment of cancer. About 15 cases of five different types of cancer have been treated by Ohio State university researchers with some tumors being destroyed and others temporarily arrested.

"Indications are," said the reports, "that due to the flexibility and comparative safety of radiocobalt, the university will be able to achieve its original objective of better treatment of cancer. Evaluation of results will require further large scale work and some years of time."

3. Research at the University of Michigan, seeking to work out a blood test, similar to a test for syphilis, to diagnose radiation injuries quickly.

Might Use Hornets

4. The possibility of using hornets to detect radiation "leaks" in atomic energy devices—because these insects readily absorb one of the by-products of atomic fission.

5. The possibility of using bacteria to help remove dangerous radioactive materials from atomic energy waste products — just like ordinary sewage is treated.

6. Successful use of radioactive materials to diagnose male sex hormone deficiencies in victims of the "march of death" on Bataan during the war. Some of these men, said the AEC, had developed breasts like women as a result of malnutrition and tests showed that starvation had reduced their production of normal male hormones.

7. Development of elaborate safeguards for the protection of atomic workers — including an emergency evacuation plan in case an atomic plant should be affected by an earthquake.

News Briefs

Sheriff's officers at Littlefield relaxed their search Sunday for M. G. Berry, 61-year-old Amherst cafe operator, missing since Thursday, when his family received word by mail that he is visiting relatives and is all right. Officials had been concerned over his disappearance when his wife reported that he was carrying over $250 in cash at the time of his disappearance.

Mrs. Harlon Redwine, 3519 Twenty-ninth, who underwent major surgery at Lubbock Memorial hospital last Monday, has returned to her home where she is convalescing satisfactorily.

The following judgments were signed this morning by County Judge Walter Davies, the county attorney's office announced: Julian Bodillo, 30, of Lubbock, $100 and costs for carrying a dagger; J. A. Waller, 56, of Lubbock, $75 and costs, drunk driving; Herbert D. Jackson, 40, of Lubbock, $75 and costs, drunk driving; Louie Silas Rather, 47, of Lubbock, $75 and costs, drunk driving.

Ball Players Killed When Lightning Hits

BAKER, Fla., Aug. 1 (U.P.) — Two baseball players were killed and 50 or more players and spectators shocked or burned when lightning lashed the ballfield here just as a game was starting yesterday.

The Baker team of the county semi-pro league was just taking the field against Munson when "there was a loud crack like a big whip" and players and spectators were stunned. The infielders were knocked flat—two of them dead—as the bolt plowed a 20-foot furrow down the third base line.

The dead were Allen L. Joyner, jr., 25, Crestview, Fla., and Harry Moore, 24, third baseman and shortstop for the Baker team. Second-baseman Joe Taylor was critically burned.

The audience broke from behind the baselines and fled over the field after a moment's shocked surprise. Many of them were burned or felt the shock.

Two Men Are Jailed After Wrecking Car

HOUSTON, Aug. 1 (U.P.) — Two men were jailed here today after allegedly checking a $5,000 Cadillac out of a parking station and wrecking it.

Oilman Raymond Arsht, the car's owner, said attendants probably thought the men were from his office when they let them drive off in the car.

The 1949 model auto was found rammed against a tree after being turned over several times.

Officers investigating the accident arrested a 46-year-old man. A 39-year-old man was found later hiding in nearby weeds.

Rent Controls Ended For Victoria County

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP) — Rent control was ended today for Victoria, Tex., housing expediter Tighe E. Woods announced.

The action was taken as the result of decontrol resolutions passed by the local governing body.

Woods at the same time announced removal of controls from the remainder of Victoria county, Tex., in which the city of Victoria is located.

Jail Jammed During Weekend At Amarillo

AMARILLO, Aug. 1. (U.P.)—The Amarillo jail was built to house 38 prisoners. But police said today they had put 134 guests into it during the weekend.

Most of the arrests were routine—part of a campaign to keep vagrants and drunks off the streets during the weekend

Eight Persons Dead In Crash

STATHAM, Ga., Aug. 1. (AP)—An automobile crashed off a roadway near here yesterday and became a flaming death trap for its eight occupants.

A mother and her three small children were among the victims trapped in the fiery wreckage of the 1933 vehicle.

No one witnessed the mishap. Officers theorized that the driver was not familiar with the highway and crashed through an abutment. The car overturned in a ditch. Passing motorists saw the smoking ruins and notified state troopers.

The eight victims, their bodies badly charred, were identified hours later by relatives. Sheriff Delmar Smith listed them as:

Ollie Anderson, 26; Geneva Anderson, 15; Rose Willie Cawart 11, and Nevada Kettle, 19, all of Winterville; Mrs. Pauline Brown, 27, and her children, Jerry Lee, 4, Jo Ann, 3, and Pauline, 18 months, all of Athens.

Statham is in North Georgia, about 15 miles west of Athens.

Physician Shot

ed that he get a job.

A friend of the physician, whose name police did not reveal, told them Kaplan had threatened Dr. Blitzman but that he paid no attention to the threat.

Dr. Blitzman was shot yesterday as he, his wife and child, and another man were descending in an elevator from the Blitzmans' 12th floor apartment in the Peter Cooper village development in Manhattan.

Police said Kaplan had gone to the 12th floor, learned that the Blitzmans were going out, ran eight floors down a stairway, and pushed a button to halt the self-service elevator car at the fourth floor.

Kaplan opened fire with a pistol when the car door opened, police said, and the physician shouted "don't shoot, Dave. Don't shoot." The others in the elevator were not injured.

Kaplan was seized by police as he walked into the Bellevue hospital psychopathic ward a few hours after the shooting.

Police said he applied for readmission as a mental patient on the ground of former confinement there, apparently in the hope that he could avoid arrest. They quoted him as saying he threw the gun into the East river before walking into the hospital.

and calls and he could not open the door with his master key because it was bolted from the inside.

Four Shots Fired

Gallagher said the bellboy then went to the lobby to report to the desk that the room was barred, leaving Ochoa alone in the hall.

The woman said the killed forced open the door to the room about 4 a. m. and asked her companion, "are you Whittenberg?"

"Yes, I'm Whittenberg," she said he replied.

The killer drew a revolver and fired four shots into Whittenberg's body, she said.

Lindsay was shot through the right eye. His body was found several hours later.

The chief said he did not believe officers would have much trouble finding Ochoa.

"He's a fellow that knows this country pretty well," Gallagher said. "He's quite a marksman. I have a hunch he crossed that river (the Rio Grande). He's probably hiding out somewhere in the breaks on one side or theother."

Weather

day.

Slightly warmer weather moved in behind the cool air but the humidity was not intense and the rise was not enough to cause discomfort.

Some of the highest readings yesterday were reported on the northern plains. Phillip, S. D., had 103, Rapid City, S. D., 100, Pierre, S. D., 99 and Huron, S. D., 98. Dickinson, N. D. reported 93.

In the wake of the cold front, the mercury fell to unseasonable lows in some spots. La Crosse, Wis., had a low Sunday morning of 50 degrees.

The west coast was enjoying normally comfortable temperatures but the thermometers on California's desert climbed above 100 degrees, usual for that area.

Several tornadoes struck about sundown yesterday near Beres Ford and Garretson, S. D.

Damage Is Caused

They caused considerable damage to farms but no injuries were reported. Every building on a farm near Bresford was destroyed. On another, 500 bales of straw "simply disappeared" as the funnel hit.

Utility crews were repairing damage from a freak electrical storm that struck the San Francisco bay area Saturday, felling at least 30 power line poles and blacking out several communities for brief periods. Oakland had only .05 inch of rain during the storm but it was more than had fallen during any entire month of July since 1929.

Two men were killed near Sacramento when lightning touch off a dynamite charge. At the height of the storm, forest fires broke out at the rate of six a minute.

"CRANK" BLAMED IN PHONE CALL

Workers Are Evacuated From Building After Bomb Scare

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—Five hundred U. S. government workers evacuated a five-story office building today when somebody phoned police "there's a bomb in the building."

After a thorough search, police found no bomb and withdrew blockades. They allowed the workers to return to 16 agencies where they are employed.

"It looks very much like the work of a crank," said Sgt. C. R. Caine of the Indianapolis city police department. "Maybe somebody had a grudge against rent control or social security."

Offices Are Opened

Shortly after the workers were readmitted around 1 p. m., the offices were reopened for business as usual.

Policemen remained in and near the building, however, and continued looking for explosives.

The phone caller said, according to police:

"There's a bomb in the building at 342 Massachusetts Ave. It's going off in 10 minutes."

Workers in the building were ordered out immediately by police and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Quick Check Made

Workers hurried outside the five-story brick and stone structure and onto the sidewalks across the street. Passersby swelled the throng.

Police made a quick check from basement to top floor of the building but found nothing. They outlined a desk-by-desk, drawer-by-drawer search.

The building houses offices of the Social Security administration, the Public Building administration, Stout field air reserve units, the Air forces, the wage and hour division of the Labor department, the Public Roads administration, the housing expediter, rent control, Federal Housing administration.

K Of C Leaders In State Are Selected

AUSTIN, Aug. 1. (AP)—Committee chairman to direct the coming year's program have been named by the Knights of Columbus.

They were appointed at a statewide session of officers, district deputies and other leaders here yesterday, presided over by State Deputy M. J. Babin, jr., of Port Arthur.

Sam Liberto of San Antonio, program; Justin J. Gansle of Corpus Christi, Catholic activities; J. C. Farmer of Waco, fraternal activities; J. A. Cloninger of Amarillo, council activities; Thomas A. Yates of Harlingen, membership; William A. Menger of San Antonio, general publicity; John Coffman of Waco, radio publicity.

Also, Adam Clay of Houston, speakers; V. A. Ghio of Texarkana, permanent news records; the Rt. Rev. Msgr. J. B. Gleissner of Bryan, A. and M. college chairman; the Rev. A. Two Suspects

Amery was not dressed in military attire.

A 33-year-old negro, Johnnie Lyons, was arrested by Dep. Sheriff Earl Horton for investigation into forgery of a $20 check signed with the name of "Joe Leaverton" and passed at McClain Service station No. 1 on East Broadway.

The suspect admitted the charge in a signed statement. He had been arrested at a place where he is employed on the Levelland highway.

Theft of a suitcase, suit, shirt, socks, hat, razor, toilet articles and other property, total value $100, from David Howard was reported to investigators. It had been left in a service men's club room, he said.

Girl Forced Into Car

A. W. Thomas of route 2 Slaton said one of several cotton choppers who left there in a truck described to officers had stolen his billfold.

A police investigation was promised after an Avinger addition girl reported to them that three youths, from about 15 to 17, had forced her into a car early Sunday and taken her to Mackenzie State park. There, she said, she "got away" from them. She said she was pulled into the car, an "old model blue" machine, in 800-block Main. Herage was not listed on reports.

Robert Lester Strickland, 25, of the Arnett-Benson addition was transferred to county jail on a warrant charging him with burglary Saturday of the residence of Jack Ellis at 1918 Ave. N.

The charge was sworn to by Capt. of Detectives Pat Davidson before District Attorney Lloyd Croslin. The police charge that two patrolmen, Robert W. Brasher and Cecil Trull, arrested the defendant when in the act of breaking and entering.

Fender skirts valued at $30 were reported stolen from Bob Estep of 1313 Twenty-eighth, a $30 bike from James Franklin of the Plainview highway.

on vacation.

Police said Mrs. Lane and Myers —each shot through the head — apparently never knew Lane was in the house.

Mrs. Lane, who was known as Stephanie Brooks during her night club career, had filed an annulment suit after separating from her husband.

They had met in 1947 when Lane was a patient at Coney Island hospital and she was a nurse's aid there. They were married last year, and their first home was a Brooklyn apartment where, a few months earlier, Miss Mary Gray, 80-year-old spinster, was bludgeoned to death by a prowler. Miss Gray's slayer was sentenced to death.

The Lanes quarreled frequently, police said, and there were several brief separations.

Police said Myers took his wife, Ruth, and two sons, Leonard, 15, and Norman, 10, to Norway early this year. He returned to this country in April to settle his business affairs here, and was to have gone back to Norway soon.

ENCAMPMENT ENDS

MARFA, Aug. 1 (AP)—The annual Paisano Baptist encampment ended here yesterday with donations of $22,365 for a building fund and improvements to the encampment grounds.

clubhouse.

All entered pleas of innocence. Wells posted $800 bond for trial appearance, and Creel and Rayburn entered into personal recognizance with County Judge Walter Davies.

Jury Is Completed

A jury was completed early this afternoon.

For the defense, S. P. Boling of the Lubbock firm of Boling, Smith and Allen, and Attorney Temple Dickson of Sweetwater are counsel. County Attorney Waggoner Carr and assistants Dudley Brummett and Travis Shelton are counsel for the state.

A forfeiture petition by which the state seeks to take title to all the beer seized will be heard Tuesday in Judge G. V. Pardue's 99th district court, the county attorney said.

Trial of the case naming the VFW officials has not been specifically set.

Body Is Found

Herminio Gonzales, about 65, a Mexican citizen, was killed just outside Harlingen's city limits Sunday when a truck ran over him.

Billy K. Mitchen, 56, was hit by an automobile while walking across a San Antonio street late Saturday night. He died Sunday.

The body of Abelardo Torres, 87, was found early Sunday in the middle of the main Southern Pacific railroad tracks at San Antonio. The body was badly mangled.

Joe Flores, McAllen, was stabbed to death at San Antonio Saturday night. Police arrested a 22-year-old girl.

Frank Rogers, 64, El Paso insurance salesman, was fatally injured late Sunday night when two cars collided near El Paso.

Miss Lubbock Sings At Jaycee Luncheon

Lubbock Jaycees today had a ringside view of the three top contestants of the Miss Lubbock contest at a luncheon meeting at the Hilton hotel.

Introduced by Sydney Key, Miss Joyce Wendborn, winner of the Miss Lubbock title who will depart Wednesday for the Miss Texas pageant at Port Arthur, sang "Give Me a Little Kiss," and "It Might As Well Be Spring."

Second place winner, Miss Betty Meyers, sang "My Ideal" and Miss Billie Hutchings, who tied with Miss B. J. Bond for third, danced a tango tap. Miss Bond was not present.

Club president R. S. Wilkinson announced the contest Thursday night netted the sponsoring Jaycees $470. "After we pay the expenses of Miss Wendborn to Port Arthur, we will still have some money left," he said.

W. T. Miller gave the invocation.

LAWSON REELECTED

American Officials Creating New Policy For The Far East

By DEWITT McKENZIE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The question of what, if any, further material aid America can usefully give to hard-pressed Nationalist China in her fight for survival against the Chinese Communist revolutionaries has again become a burning subject of public debate.

Meanwhile the Washington State department is engaged in creating a new pattern for Far Eastern diplomacy, including the policy for China. Phillip C. Jessup, ambassador at large, is heading a group of experts who are preparing an exhaustive report on past policies toward China, suppostedly to clear the way for a fresh policy. This report is expected to be published in the immediate future.

Capital Threatened

Thus far there has been no official indication of the trend of the projected diplomacy. Still, as a matter of speculation one would expect that the Chinese policy would be made to fit into a general Far Eastern program for halting the spread of communism in that vast area.

So far as concerns China, the big question is whether the Nationalists under Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek already have shot their bolt. On this point there is a wide, and sometimes vitriolic, difference of opinion in the United States.

The Red avalanche has continued to sweep southward until the temporary Nationalist capital in the great coastal city of Canton is threatened with capture. Still, the imperturbable Chiang — veteran of a lifetime of warfare—maintains that his followers are far from beaten and still can win, with outside material assistance.

Defense Line Drawn

Is the Gimo, as they call Generalissimo Chiang, gambling on the old adage that where there's life there's hope, or do conditions in China justify his judgment? That's one for American military chiefs to decide.

However, as previously indicated, the Chinese puzzle would seem to be a part of the general problem of containing communism in Asia as a whole. The major question is how America and her democratic allies can build a dam to prevent the spread of communism in the Orient.

In considering this problem one envisages the creation of a series of positions which would form a huge arc about western and southern China, from Japan to India. Please take a look at your maps of Asia and see what this means.

You will see that this arc includes Japan, the Philippines, French Indo-China, Siam, Malaya, the Dutch East Indies, Burma and India. One would expect that the new Asiatic program, unless it represents a great change, would include the consolidation of this vast arc against the Red advance.

Japan Valuable Base

That arc, when consolidated, would form a tremendous barrier to the Communists. Indeed, there are many military experts who hold that Japan is a more powerful base of operations than China, since the former has a gerater military potential.

There is one important point to be considered in connection with the creation of such a defensive arc. It's solidarity most certainly would depend on satisfying the Nationalist ambitions of the native peoples concerned.

Thus we shall find, I believe, that China will be regarded as a part of the general Far Eastern problem, and must be treated as such. This would not, of course, prejudice the granting of further material aid the Nationalists, providing that fits the new Far Eastern policy.

It is true that there still are considerable areas of Nationalist resistance in China. Some close observers think it possible that these zones may get some form of assistance from the United States.

NEW KAISER VAGABOND—Designed for both "play" and payloads, the Kaiser Vagabond is being introduced as the eighth K-F model for 1949 and is to be on display at Chambers-Fuller Motor Co., 816 Ave. H. The 112-hp automobile combines station wagon utility with styling features available only in luxurious sedans of conventional design. Upholstery is of washable vinyl plastic. With rear seat cushions folded 130 cubic feet if cargo space is accessible through two hinged rear panels. With panels closed and seat up, the Kaiser Vagabond becomes a deluxe six-passenger sedan. The Vagabond is the second utility model to be introduced by Kaiser, the other being the Kaiser Traveler, 100 hp. model. The new sedan is offered in six colorful body finishes—Caribbean coral metallic, saddle bronze metallic, glass green, garden green, polar gray and onyx. Overdrive and four or six-ply tires are available optionally.

U. S. Official Free In Shanghai After Long Questioning

SHANGHAI, Aug. 1 (AP)—Reuben Thomas, U. S. consulate administrative officer, was free to leave the consulate today after being held in the building for 30 hours by former U. S. Navy employes.

He had not left the building late today, however.

The workers—Chinese, some Indians and White Russians—blocked Thomas and other American officials from leaving the building on Friday. They demanded severance pay and bonuses of six and one half months' wages as Navy employes discharged when the Navy pulled out of Shanghai upon the approach of the Communists.

Questioned 30 Hours

Still in the building late today with Thomas were Cmdr. Morgan Slayton, Navy attache, and Walter McConaughty, acting consul general.

The men were to go to the Communist labor board building for further negotiations some time today.

Only a handful of the more than 100 former employes remained in the consulate building.

Thomas had been questioned more than 30 hours before he was permitted to get some sleep.

Quebec Farmer Held In Wife Strangling

GRANBY, Quebec, Aug. 1 (INS) A 34-year-old farmer told police today he bundled his six children off to a neighbor's home "so they would not witness the tragedy" then strangled his wife "because she wouldn't keep away from other men."

The farmer, Philippe Laporte, surrendered voluntarily at the Granby police station. His wife, Rose-Amie, was 31.

New Yorkers, About Ready For Strait Jackets During Heat Wave, Welcome Cool Relief

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The big news today is—"it's cooler."

Those two magic words were of more interest along the heat-hit eastern seaboard than the standings of the major league baseball teams or the question of arming friendly nations under the Atlantic pact.

"It's cooler!"

"It's cooler!!"

"It's cooler! ! !"

Everybody said it—and everybody felt it. Everybody was on relief—on relief from the weather. And glad to be!

Because the weather has been on every mind all summer long. It's had everybody by the throat—gasping, here in this hades-by-the-Hudson.

Never in history has so much humanity been wedded to so much humidity, nor longed so hard for a divorce. The month of July was the hottest ever recorded here, but the heat started long before that. Since the first of January the weather bureau reports that metropolitan New York has had a temperature excess of 1,043 degrees above normal.

Face Can Cook Egg

When you have 1,043 degrees above normal there are only two things the average citizen can do about them. That is to feel them—and to complain about them.

The heat wave has had more impact on Mr. New Yorker than the ten-cent subway fare. But even the chamber of commerce is tired of admitting that "we have more of everything than anybody—including more weather."

Out in Phoenix, Ariz., or Kansas City, Mo., boastful denizens sometimes prove how hot it gets there by frying an egg on the street.

That is unnecessary braggadocio here. You simply break the egg on your forehead, and by the time it rolls down to your mouth it has been poached in the perspiration. The streets have been so searing that even the pigeons refuse to land in them until two hours after sundown. There is a movement underway to get the ASPCA to equip them with sandals.

Strange Pranks Played

The weather has played all kinds of strange pranks on people. We will leave out the fellow in Washington, D. C., who stole 36 gallons of anti-freeze solution. Let us take up television.

In the ordinary television program you see two of everything, even if you have 20-20 vision. This is normal, and the second figure is known as the "ghost." But in the current heat wave every character on a television program looks like the Dionne quintuplets. And the name players are wondering if they can't claim a quintuple Hooper rating, since everybody sees them five times.

At the beach you can't see the sands for the people.

The refrigerated movie palaces have done a thriving business. Some folks have simply moved into them for the duration. As one captain-of-ushers put it:

"We don't mind them bringing box lunches so much, but washing their nylon shirts in the men's room—that's going too far."

Along 51st street—the poor man's glamor lane—they tell of a heat-desperate patron who pulled out a pistol and told a bartender trying to close the joint at 4 a. m.:

"It's all right if you want to go home, but I'm staying here. And you're going to leave the air-conditioning on, too."

Well, there's a mass of cool air from Canada here now, the most welcome thing that's come to town since Jenny Lind. And Mayor Bill O'Dwyer had better keep it here—or the Democrats are going to have a tough election in autumn.

Fat Is Not a Nice Word When Applied to the Body

Don't say it's your thyroid while reaching for the box of chocolates. Possibly one bulgy person in 100 has some glandular disturbance and that is truly a case for a physician. Never take any treatment for a gland condition without your doctor's advice. But for the other 99 per cent who are trying to fight the "Battle of the Bulges" common sense is the watchword. It is not necessary to overeat and it is not necessary to go hungry, either. Furthermore, it just doesn't make sense to go on a strenuous diet—take off weight and then quickly put it back on again when the diet period is over. For it is obvious that one cannot continue a starvation diet over a protracted period. Within the last year or so, several diet and vitamin "plans" have appeared on the market, which means cut down on the food intake and fortify with vitamins for hunger distress. But as mentioned above, you can't keep this up very long and when you quit — back comes the fat.

An exhaustive survey recently made among Texas druggists showed one outstanding reducing aid is not based on the diet and vitamin "plan." It allows you to eat plenty. You eat all you want but you eat LESS. Sounds like double talk, but it isn't. It definitely stops you from eating more than necessary for the energy you spend. At the same time, it dehydrates and eliminates.

Nearly one and a half million bottles of this preparation, called Barcentrate has been sold in Texas in the past four years.

You can get a four-ounce bottle of Barcentrate from any Texas druggist. Mix with 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice and take just two tablespoonsful twice a day.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose that ugly fat, the makers agree to refund your money.

Ex-Lubbock Banker Claimed At Whitney

B. E. Hamilton, about 52, former vice president of the Citizen's National bank here, died at 8 p.m. Sunday night in his home at Whitney near Hillsboro following a lengthy illness.

Hamilton, who was well known in Texas banking circles, came to Lubbock about three years ago. He was forced to retire from his position in the Citizen's National last January due to a heart ailment.

Before coming to Lubbock, Hamilton had been very active in banking affairs in Roscoe and Abilene. He also served as state bank examiner for this area for some time.

He was born near Whitney. Funeral arrangements are pending but friends here said Sunday night they had been informed the services would be held in Whitney sometime Tuesday. The body was taken to a Hillsboro funeral home.

Economic Decline Reported By Dallas Federal Reserve Bank

DALLAS, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Dallas Federal Reserve bank reported today the trend of economic adjustment from the peaks of postwar inflation continued downward during the first six months of this year.

Vice President Watrous H. Irons of the bank in a midyear review of economic activity said in some cases declines were somewhat steeper than perhaps was generally anticipated six months ago, while in other cases declines were very moderate.

Declines Are Marked

"In general, declines were most marked in such areas as industrial production, manufacturing employment, hours worked in manufacturing, and unemployment, which increased.

"Resistance to the trend was most apparent in retail trade and consumer expenditures, construction, agricultural production, and plant and equipment expenditures.

"It certainly would be shortsighted and foolhardy to become smug and self-complacent regarding the economic situation as long as the trend is downward and there are as many elements of uncertainty in the picture as there are today.

Caution Is Urged

"On the other hand, nothing is to be gained from an attitude of pessimism and foreboding that is unrealistic in terms of the economic facts. There are elements of both strength and weakness in the economy, and the relative importance of these counteracting forces should be appraised carefully."

The bank made these observations of conditions in its district during the last month.

Agricultural conditions during June and early July generally were favorable for rapid development of field crops and improvement in ranges.

Market Is Lower

Livestock is in good condition with marketing running considerably below last year.

The value of construction contract awards increased during June in all major types of construction, with low-cost housing and apartment projects particularly contributing to the rise.

Department store sales showed the usual seasonal decline from May and were four percent smaller than in June last year.

The downward trend in loans of weekly reporting member banks continued between June 15 and July 13. On the latter date total loans were $18,500,000 lower than four weeks earlier, bringing the net decline since the first of the year to $127,200,000.

Crop Outlook For County Favorable

County Agent Dave Sherrill's weekly crop report is all favorable this week. In his weekend survey of the county Sherrill found the moisture content of the soil adequate for cotton. Feed crops were being irrigated in most places to produce maximum yields.

Where wheat has been harvested the soil is being broken to allow more sorghum plantings. These plantings are being made on irrigated land only. The sorghum stands are excellent and alfalfa yields have been very heavy in all sections.

The early infestation of cotton insects, especially the fleahoppers, has been controlled by dusting and spraying. Where insecticides have been applied the cotton is fruiting nicely. Rapid growth is noticed in all parts of the country.

The onion harvest continues at a good pace. Other truck items are being set out for fall harvest. They include lettuce and carrots. The condition of all livestock is classified as good and the range and pasture land, "favorable."

Parents Are Advised To Answer Questions

CHICAGO, Aug. 1 (U.P.) — A child's speech may be impaired if his parents meet his questions with disapproval or indifference, Wendell Johnson, professor of speech and psychology at the State University of Iowa, said.

While the child may grow up to speak fluently and enunciate clearly, he may at the same time confuse, antagonize and demoralize his listeners and disturb and mislead himself.

"It is important that a child learn to distinguish clear and answerable question from vague and meaningless ones," he said. "If he does not learn this, the least of the consequences are likely to be inefficiency and muddleheadedness, while the graver results may include certain of the more serious forms of personal and social maladjustment."

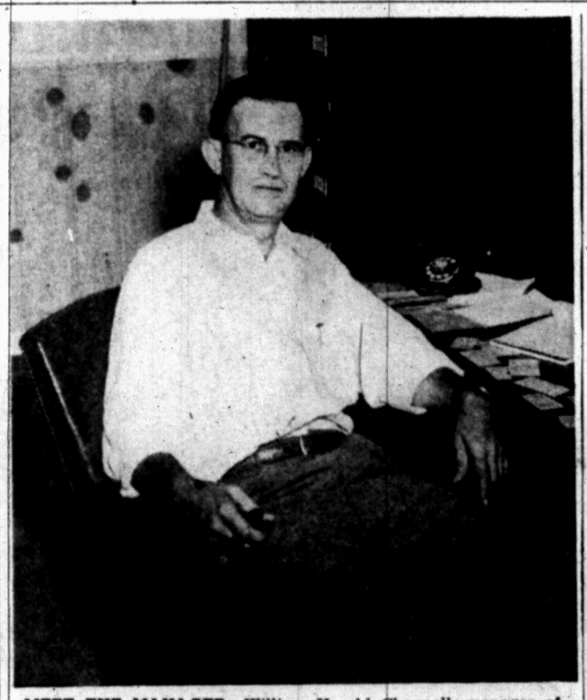

Johnson added that parents should encourage children to make a habit of asking these two questions: "What do you mean?" and "How do you know?"

Former Boys School Headmaster Killed

DALLAS, Aug. 1 (AP) — Martin Bruce Bogarte, former headmaster of the Terrell School for Boys, died late yesterday in an automobile accident near Raton, N. M.

His wife was slightly injured. The couple was moving from Dallas to Price, Utah.

There are 45 calories in one-half of a medium-sized grapefruit.

MEET THE MANAGER—William Harold Chappell, manager of Lubbock Glass and Mirror company, 701 Twenty-third, was born at Roscoe Feb. 2, 1908. His family moved to Snyder and he went to school there for four years. When he was 11 his family moved to Dallas and he finished high school there before completing his educateion at the engineering school of Southern Methodist university. He worked in the engineering department of Dallas Power and Light company during 1928, 1929 and 1930, then worked for a retail lumber concern in Dallas for about seven years. In 1938 he came to Lubbock with a wholesale building materials firm, where he remained for three years. Then he went to Sweetwater and spent another three years in the building material business. He spent two years in the Navy aboard the U. S. S. Heywood, a personnel transport in the Pacific, in the supply department. He saw service from Saipan to Tokyo. In November, 1945, he was released from the Navy and Jan. 1, 1946 he became manager of Lubbock Glass and Mirror company. Mr. Chappell is a member of First Methodist church and the Masonic Lodge. His hobby is golf. Mr. and Mrs. Chappell and one daughter, Linda Beth, 11, live at 2821 Thirty-third street. (Staff Photo).

New York Professor Is Planning Book On Sociological Values Of Burlesque

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (AP)—After 14 years of research, a City college professor is convinced that "interest in burlesque is not confined to so-called lowbrows."

Stuyvesant Van Veen, associate professor of art, said today that in Washington he found "many Senators, government officials and even Supreme court justices to be regular burlesque-goers."

Van Veen said he plans a book on his study of the "sociological values" of burlesque. He has interviewed burlesque queens, comedians, chorus girls, stage managers and musicians.

His wife, Frances, a former radio script writer, has collaborated with him.

Van Veen, a mural painter, began his study of burlesque in 1935 when he was commissioned by a magazine to do a series of oil paintings of burlesque performers. He is a former department head at the Cincinnati Art academy.

Vacation "Breaks" Make Youth Unhappy

EDMORE, Mich., Aug. 1 (U.P.) —Summer vacation doesn't hold any pleasant memories for young Larry Ashbaugh.

At the beginning of his summer vacation in 1947, Larry, 9, fell and broke his arm. When vacation time rolled around again last year, he fell from a tree and broke his left leg.

Now, Larry is recuperating from a fall from a tractor in which he broke his left leg again.

Shipping Line Asks To Remove 900 Foreigners From Shanghai

SHANGHAI, Aug. 1. (AP)—Floyd Downs, Shanghai manager for the American President lines, said today the liner General Gordon may come to Shanghai about Sept. 15 to remove 900 foreigners from China.

Downs said "at the behest of the United States state department a request for safe passage for the Gordon has been asked of the Nationalist government." The Nationalists are blockading all China ports under Communist control.

If Nationalist safe conduct is assured the vessel, then the question will be whether sufficient foreigners can obtain exit visas from the Communists in time. Already hundreds of foreigners have applied for permission to leave.

Entry Permit Asked

Downs will ask Communist authorities tomorrow for an entry permit for the Gordon. Normally this is merely routine but "face" is involved. The Communists may balk at admitting a ship which first had to get permission from the Nationalists to enter the biggest port in Asia.

Downs said between 300 and 400 Americans definitely want to leave. The remainder of the 900 are British, Dutch, French, Scandinavians and various other foreign nationals.

New Valve Overcomes Leaky Water Faucets

CLEVELAND, Aug. 1 (U.P.) — A Cleveland inventor has come up with the answer to leaky faucets.

Jame H. Rand III and engineers in his laboratory here have developed a valve which they claim makes leaks impossible, lasts longer than the metal part of the faucet and eliminates washers.

The new valva is a tapered synthetic rubber plug with a metal insert and stem. To open it you turn the handle of the faucet, lowering the plug and letting the water in evenly. No pressure is required to turn off the faucet. That water itself helps push the plug into place.

"In standard valves used today, one trouble is that the washer is squeezed against the valve seat and damaged every time it is used," said.

Rand's valve eliminates the need for washers, cups and screws and can be used on kitchen faucets, bathroom fixtures, toilets, pipelines, automobile radiators, boilers, washing machines, tires and footballs.

Burned-Out Family In Covered Wagon Heading Westward

MANSFIELD, O., Aug. 1 (U.P.) — The days of the covered wagons were recalled when the Harry McCombs family of Glasgow, Ky., passed through here on their way to Tulsa, Okla.

The McCombs family, six strong, is making the trip west in a covered wagon because it is the only means of transportation they have. They were left penniless when their farm burned recently.

Harry decided that they would not be able to plant another crop in time for a fall harvest, so he, his wife and four children packed what little belongings they salvaged from the fire into a 3½-by-7 foot car drawn by the family horse, Dick, and set off for Washington, Pa. There they hoped to get some aid from Harry's brother.

Southwest Beckons

On their arrival, they found the brother had died. They decided that the west was the only place that offered a new life and they set out for Tulsa.

The McCombs stopped outside Mansfield only long enough to cook supper and get a night's sleep. They figure that it will take them two months to reach their destination, since they travel about 20 miles a day.

But the McCombs left this central Ohio town a little richer in spirit. Residents saw the family plod their weary way through the streets and decided to help them.

They took up a collection and along with several articles of clothing, made the McCombs a going-away present as they set out for the land of opportunity, the west.

Retired Man Returns For Extra Work Day

PORT HURON, Mich., Aug. 1 (U.P.)—William Netter retired after 18 years as a draw-bridge tender.

For many years he put in a 12-hour day, seven days a week. In 1945 his working time was reduced to six days a week.

After appropriate ceremonies, Netter came home to enjoy his newly-gained leisure as a retired worker.

But the next day he showed up for work at his usual time.

"Just thought I'd better put in an extra day for good measure," he explained.

Driver In Junk-Car Races Hurt Sunday

B. A. Slack, jr., of Littlefield, was rushed by ambulance from Buffalo Lakes to Lubbock Memorial hospital about 4:45 p. m. Sunday after he had been run over by a car competing in the weekly junk-car races there.

Hospital attendants said Slack suffered a compound fracture of the lower right leg, a possible fracture of the right arm and numerous lacerations and bruises.

The injured man, who competed in several races earlier in the day was watching the "Australian pursuit" event from the side of the track when a car driven by Doyle Rutherford of Lubbock went out of control in a turn and struck him.

Slack was brought to Lubbock by Rix ambulance.

Tennessee Will Try Socialized Medicine

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 1 (U.P.)—More than 1,500 Tennessee physicians have agreed to set fees and 13 private insurance companies are writing policies under the Tennessee Medical association's plan for prepaid surgical and obstetrical insurance.

On the set fee basis, the insurance would cover surgical and obstetrical bills in full for insured persons with an income of $2,400 or less a year and for all insured persons with dependents whose total family income is $3,600 or less a year. Persons earning more than that can take out the insurance, but the physician is not bound to accept the set fee as his full payment.

Officials of the medical association estimate that 70 per cent of Tennessee's population would be entitled to full coverage.

"I'LL HANG FIRST"—Mrs. Nellie Beshears, 29, looks grimly at a snapshot of her seven-year-old daughter, Ona, on a cell wall of the county jail, Tulsa, where she is held. The cotton mill worker defiantly refuses to tell authorities where she has hidden the little girl from foster parents. Mrs. Beshears agreed to the adoption, but says she didn't know it meant "giving up the child altogether." The mother, charged with stealing the child, said "I wouldn't tell where she is if they were fixin' to hang me."

Crosby Death Charge Filed

CROSBYTON, Aug. 1 (Special)—Jose Gonzales, about 35, is in Crosby county jail here charged with the fatal shooting early Sunday morning of Miguel Cervantes, also 35, Mexican farm laborer of Mathis, who was working near Caprock.

Cervantes' body was brought to the Marr Funeral home in Ralls early Sunday morning by Gonzales. A night watchman called Dr. L. W. Spikes who pronounced Cervantes dead.

Claims Pistol Pulled

The fatal shooting occurred about 2:30 a. m. Sunday while Cervantes, Gonzales, and a man identified as Jimmy Aganado, were driving to Caprock after a dance at Lorenzo broke up.

Aganado, in a sworn statement to County Attorney Lloyd A. Wicks, jr., said Gonzales was arguing with Cervantes on where the latter should take him. He said Gonzales pulled a pistol out and fired two shots into the dashboard of the pickup truck in which they were riding in an effort to scare Cervantes into doing his bidding.

Aganado said Cervantes stopped the truck as he grappled with Gonzales in an effort to take the gun away from him. The door of the cab flew open, and Aganado and Gonzales fell out. Before he could recover, Aganado said Gonzales had backed away and started firing.

Sheriff Foy Addison said Cervantes had been shot in the chest three times, twice in the head, and once in the left hand, with a .22 calibre gun. Gonzales had a .22 calibre pistol in his possession when he was arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. M. Poteet in Ralls, Sheriff Addison said.

Body Brought To Ralls

In his statement, Aganado said Gonzales made him put out the lights on the pickup when a car passed them. Gonzales then put Cervantes' body in the bed of the pickup, he said, and forced him to drive to Caprock to get Gonzales' wife. The three then brought the body to Ralls.

Sheriff Addison said the pistol in Gonzales' possession was a nine-shot repeater type. He said Gonzales told him he had won it off a punchboard in Ralls a week earlier.

Justice of the Peace I. C. Byerley has set hearing for Gonzales at 1 p. m. today. He indicated that he would not set bond at that time.

One Killed In Car Explosion

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 1. (AP)—An automobile to which an explosive charge apparently had been connected, blew up in the downtown section last night, killing a man, injuring three others an seriously damaging 15 homes.

Police said the explosion came after a spat between a man and wife.

Three stores also were damaged and electricity and telephone service to about 200 homes was cut off.

Wife Is Blinded

Fire Chief J. J. Martin identified the dead man as John Segroits, a miner. Listed as blinded and in critical condition was his wife.

The other victims were not seriously hurt and one was released from a hospital after treatment.

Lt. Vincent Onestinghel of the local police, said a preminiary investigation indicated that the couple had been having domestic trouble for the past month.

He said the woman was called out to the car and that the man, after throwing something at her and saying "this is it," ran to the car. Shortly afterward it blew up.

Shook Wide Area

The blast shook the whole downtown area. Martin said the explosion was apparently caused either by nitroglycerine or dynamite.

The two others hurt suffered cuts from glass and shock when the blast damaged homes in the area.

The woman ran into the doorway of her apartment building shortly before the explosion. She suffered internal injuries and police were awaiting for her to regain consciousness so they could question her about the incident.

Three homes were damaged by fire. Most of the 15 hit had damage from "front to back" a witness said. The front porches were smashed and windows blown in. The home in which Segroists wife had been living was one of those severely damaged.

THE QUESTION

THE ANSWERS

JERRY BROOKS, 2614 Thirty-third, general manager of Brooks-McKenzie: "I would say the greatest inconsideration of drivers would be to drive through stop signs on the highways and in the cities. If a fellow doesn't stop and you have the right-of-way, he doesn't give you a chance. A fellow who has the right-of-way is expecting the right-of-way and if he doesn't get it, it results in more wrecks."

MILTON RAY, 2316 Twenty-first, Texas Technological college student from Lamesa: "I think it's failure to dim lights. It's not only inconsiderate, but dangerous. The majority of them wait until they get right on you to kick them down and it hurts my eyes. After they get that close, there's not even any use in it."

G. A. BOHANNA, Dallas, salesman of office equipment for Jack C. Kern Co., who visits Lubbock several times yearly: "We notice when we get into towns (on highways leading through) that people don't move out like they should. They slow down and park. They really congest the street or a thoroughfare. Slow or awkward driving is an inconsideration. We also notice lots of people get in the left lane. 'Hog the road' is what we call it."

ROY APPLE, Tahoka route 4, farmer: "One of the most dangerous is the failure to give signs when you make left-hand turns. It's pretty hard to stop sometimes when a driver does that, and sometimes on a slick pavement your tires won't hold. A driver who does that isn't considering the one behind him and isn't considering his own life. The car behind him is likely to hit the side of his car."

G. H. LAMBRIGHT, Lubbock route 2, irrigation wells driller: "I imagine not dimming lights is about the hardest thing on the other drivers. When they dont' dim their lights, it makes it pretty rough because it blinds you."

L. CANNON, Abernathy route 1, farmer: running across these stop lights. I almost had a wreck coming into town. He didn't stop and If I hadn't been watching myself I would have run right into him as he pulled onto the highway. That's where the danger is: If you have the right-of-way and someone whips in front of you."

Retirement Begins For Berlin Airlift

BERLIN, Aug. 1 (AP)—The Berlift airlift begins its gradual retirement today.

British and American planes flew their last scheduled 8,000-ton day yesterday. The new schedule calls for a daily August average of only 3,700 tons.

American and British officials announced Friday the lift, which beat the Russian blockade of the former German capital, would be discontinued because of favorable stockpiles of supplies in West Berlin.

The schedule calls for loads to drop to 2,100 tons daily in September and 1,000 in October, the last month of the lift.

The first batch of airlift personnel will be returned to the United States in September. The redeployment program will be completed by the end of October, officials said.

Both the British and Americans will, however, maintain installations in the western zones of Germany in case a new need arises for the airlift.

Text Of Final Program Told

ALICE, Aug. 1. (AP)—"The word has been passed to me that I better shut up, or else!" W. H. (Bill) Mason said in his last broadcast.

The text of the final program was released today by the son of the slain radio commentator. Burt Mason, 22, gave the document over to the Associated Press following his father's funeral yesterday.

Bill Mason was shot to death here Friday and Sam Smithwick, 60-year-old deputy sheriff, is charged with murdering him.

Warning To Family

Burt Mason also revealed that his family received a warning Friday, two hours before his father was fatally shot.

"A woman telephoned my mother," Mason said, "and told her 'I just overheard a conversation—your husband is in danger.'

"The woman didn't identify herself and after giving that brief warning she said 'someone is listening—I have to hang up.'

"The family didn't pay any attention to the warning since daddy was being threatened almost daily."

Hundreds attended funeral services yesterday at the buff-brick First Presbyterian church here and the overflow crowd spilled out on the lawn.

Prisoner Returned

Three hours before services began Smithwick, father of seven grown children, was returned to the Alice jail from the Nueces county jail. He had been taken to Nueces county by Sheriff Hubert Sain Friday to "avoid possibility of a disturbance." Sain said he returned his 260-pound deputy Sunday "because I thought it would be okay."

According to the text of the final broadcast, Mason was sharply critical of Sheriff Sain and accused Smithwick of being the owner of property at the edge of town where a night club was situated. Mason declared that prostitution was being practiced at the night spot.

Friday night raiders armed with shotguns fired eight shots at the darkened and deserted establishment. "I am going to take the gloves off today in the prostitution situation and start swinging," Mason said in the last broadcast.

Brides' Mother Seeks Marriage Annulment

Families Split Over Eloping Of Young California Couple

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1 (AP)—Sixteen-year-old Mary Catherine Reardon, who two years ago was involved in a tourist camp escapade that led to the fatal shooting of her wealthy father, today is honeymooning with an 18-year-old singer.

Her husband's family refuses to tell where the couple is in seclusion. And his mother says she will oppose any effort to annul the marriage.

Mary Catherine's mother, Mrs. Leona Reardon, has filed a report with police that her daughter is "missing," and instructed a lawyer to try to have the marriage annulled.

Mrs. Nina Gueci, mother of the bridegroom, Gabriel Gueci, says she can't understand Mrs. Reardon's "change of heart."

"She was here at my house and together we made plans for the marriage in Christ the King Catholic parish in Hollywood," said Mrs. Gueci. "At the last minute she called off the plans and advised them to elope. I gave Gabriel my permission to marry Mary Catherine. She's a nice girl.

"Gabriel isn't working right now. He has a marvelous singing voice and he hopes to continue singing so that he can follow it as

Greeks Winning Fight Against Red Guerrillas, Truman States

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1. (AP)—President Truman told Congress today that the Greek government, with American help, is making "solid progress" toward winning its civil war with the Communists.

He attributed this to improved Greek leadership, accumulating U.S. military supplies, months of training of Greek soldiers, and "determination, decisiveness and aggressiveness" in the orders of the Greek high command.

Despite the reported progress militarily and in the Greek economy, the President declared that guerrilla forces are still strong. He said they are still receiving help from Albania and Bulgaria and that the Greek government remains "entirely dependent" on the United States for weapons to prosecute the war.

Guerrilla Losses Cited

The chief executive in a report to Congress covering the first quarter of this year said that on March 31 the strength of the guerrilla forces was estimated at 19,830 as compared with 26,000 a year earlier.

He estimated Greek guerrilla losses for the total period of the civil war from June, 1946 to March, 1949 at 70,028, killed, surrendered or captured and exclusive of wounded. There were no reports on the wounded.

In the same space of time the Greek army was shown to have suffered losses of 37,934 killed, wounded or missing.

The casualty figures of the Guerrillas, the President told Congress, show that in order to maintain an average guerrilla force of 20,000 the entire force has had to be replaced three and one half times in the past three years. He added that surrenders are increasing.

Mr. Truman reported that villagers who wanted to return to the homes which they had fled under guerrilla attack were being given arms in many instances with "favorable results" and that additional rifles will be issued to "capable and reliable citizens" by the Greek army. The armed civilians form their own local defense units and free Greek troops for offensive action.

The improvement in the situations, Mr. Truman said, was accomplished despite continued help which reached the guerrillas mainly through Albania but that some assistance going through Bulgaria. He did not specifically say that the Soviet union provided arms and equipment but he did note in his report that the markings of the captured weapons and been obliterated in an effort to conceal their origin.

Ingrid Bergman Expected To Reveal Plans On Divorcing Doctor, Marrying Italian

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Motion Picture Editor

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 1.—Ingrid Bergman returns to Rome from Stromboli next Sunday. At that time Joseph Steele, her representative, reportedly will announce to the world that the Swedish actress is divorcing Dr. Peter Lindstrom to marry her director, Roberto Rossellini.

This news came to me today shortly after Ingrid herself had branded as entirely false the weird stories that she has been the helpless victim of a real-life Svengali in the person of Rossellini.

During the past week, numerous people have come up with the sensational and alarming story that Ingrid was being held prisoner on the island of Stromboli against her will.

Cable Answered

That a strong-willed and intelligent woman like Ingrid would ever submit to having her mail intercepted and newspapers censored seemed so absurd that I sent her a cablegram, and this is her reply:

"Reason for delay in reply, I did not get your cable until Sunday noon when SS Italia arrived from Stromboli.

"This information is not only childishly absurd but an unmitigated lie.

"I am an adult and free to do as I please. Truth is, weather and illnesses have delayed filming on an island difficult of access.

"Within a few days the entire company returns to Rome to complete our picture.

"Source of this canard palpably from London and entirely fabricated. Deepest thanks for injuiry and my very best to you—Ingrid Bergman."

Doctor Goes Home

Steele is now in Rome and he will not return to Stromboli.

When the story is announced, Miss Bergman herself will not appear nor will she make any statement. Steele, her personal press agent, who went to Ttromboli to confer with her, will act as her spokesman.

Up to today, Dr. Lindstrom had received no word of her intention. It is assumed that when Steele makes public Miss Bergman's plans, he will be told.

Meanyhile, the doctor, who has been at a nearby ranch with their little daughter, Pia, returned to Hollywood to resume his practice after two months in Europe.

When he and Ingrid conferred in Italy, their joint statement said they would meet in Sweden before returning to Hollywood. Although the doctor refuses to talk, it seems likely that when he learned his wife was not going to Sweden he decided to come home.

Another very good reason for his return could be that he has many patients and he felt he left them long enough.

Plans To Reallocate Cochran Taxes Voted

MORTON, Aug. 1 (Special) — Cochran county voters have passed a county tax reallocation proposal, but defeated decisively a proposal for a special tax levy to purchase and improve county parks, in a special election Saturday, County Judge G. W. Thompson reported.

The tax reallocation proposal passed with 130 votes for and 89 against. The parks proposal, which needed a two-thirds majority to pass, was defeated with 112 voting for, and 103 against.

Under the state constitution, the county's tax rate is set at 80 cents and is divided into four categories: 25 cents for a general fund, 25 cents for county improvements, 15 cents for roads and bridges, and 15 cents for a jury fund. The reallocation proposal gives the county commissioner's court the power to transfer funds from one category to another in case of need. It does not provide for a change in the tax rate. Thompson said it did not effect special county taxes, which are not included in the 80 cent rate.

Voting was light. Thompson estimated there are from 1,200 to 1,500 voters in the county.

Tabulations by individual boxes are: Reallocation proposal—Morton, 65 for, 53 against; Bledsoe, 19 for, 5 against; Neely Ward, 15 for, 8 against; Whiteface, 29 for, 18 against; and Lehman, 2 for, 5 against.

Tax levy for parks—Morton, 72 for, 52 against; Bledsoe, 14 for, 8 against; Neely Ward, 10 for, 13 against; Whiteface, 12 for, 35 against; and Lehman, 4 for, and 5 against.

Virginia Vote Is Scheduled

RICHMOND, Va., Aug. 1. (AP)—Virginia voters will elect Democratic and Republican nominees for governor in primary voting tomorrow.

Candidates predicted that 300,000 votes will be cast in the balloting, which follows the hardest fought campaign among the Democrats in recent years. Republican Walter Johnson is unopposed.

The Democratic candidates, John S. Battle, Francis Pickens Miller, Horace H. Edwards, and Remmie L. Arnold will make final appeals over radio stations here tonight.

Big Offer Claimed

Robert M. Hazelwood, state campaign manager for Arnold, said last night at a rally here that he had been offered $10,000 to "desert" his candidate.

Hazelwood, did not say who had made the offer. Questioned by a reporter, he said the bid had come from a man "very close to Harry F. Byrd," senior United States senator for Virginia who has endorsed Battle, dominant party organization candidate in the race.

Byrd could not be reached for comment. Battle said the Hazelwood statement "sounds ridiculous to me. I never heard of such a thing."

Funeral Today For James L. Tubbs, 62

Services were to be conducted at 4 p. m. today at Canders Funeral home chapel for James Lee Tubbs, 62, Lubbock county resident since 1890, who died Sunday morning at his farm home four miles west of Lubbock after a long illness. Burial was to take place in Lubbock cemetery.

Survivors are his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Ross of Monticello, Ark.; five brothers, Oscar and Frank of Dallas and Robert, Henry and Travis Tubbs of Lubbock; two sisters, Mrs. Olive Fluke and Mrs. Lucy Revjer of Lubbock; two grandsons and one great-grandchild.

Ship Captain Thankful Craft Not Thrown Piece By Piece Into The Atlantic Ocean

NEW YORK, Aug. 1 (INS)—Captain Ugo Chinca slipped the liner Italia into New York harbor today, thankful that his vessel hadn't been thrown—piece by piece — to the four winds and seven seas.

The captain said it nearly was. He had on board a strait-jacketed young American war veteran who threw overboard nearly everything that wasn't nailed down—including himself.

Last Wednesday, in mid-Atlantic George Saddich, 22, of Philadelphia, began jettisoning everything in sight.

Confined To Cabin

Over the side, according to the captain, went:

Ten potted laurel trees, each weighing 50 pounds, ten fire hoses, six fancy ash trays, two fire extinguishers, numerous dishes.

And finall, Saddich himself.

The ship's crew fished the floundering youth out 15 minutes later and confined him in the vessel's infectious disease cabin. He was met at the dock by Veterans administration officials who took him to Bellevue hospital for examination.

Saddich's father—also aboard the ship—said his son suffered from a nervous ailment.

ONE USE FOR IT

AUBURN, Ind. (U.P.)—A woman motorist drove into a gas station and said her car was lurching and bucking. The attendant told her that her choke was out and asked if she khew what it was for. "Well, I'm not sure" she said. "I always pull it out to hang my purse on while driving."

U. S. Girl's Faith In British Is Lost

LONDON, Aug. 1 (INS) — A New York girl who described herself as 22 and pretty complained to the London Daily Mail today that her faith in Englishmen has been shattered irreparably.

Marie Louise Ward wrote to the paper that she had believed Englishmen to be the most romantic of all men until she arrived two weeks ago for a vacation in Britain.

"No dates, no proposals, no nothin'."

The 51-year-old radio commentator, who had worked on newspapers throughout the United States, was shot as he sat in his automobile. Star witness for the state will be Avelino Saenz, Alice war veteran, who was in the car with Mason when the slaying occurred.

In an interview, Saenz said Smithwick ordered Mason to stop and then walked up to Mason's car and shot him.

Smithwick placed himself in jail following the shooting.

District Attorney Sam Reams said Saturday he hoped the text of Mason's last broadcast could be found since "I think it will have a great deal of bearing on the case." An examining trial for Smithwick will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in the court of Brown Fuller, justice of the peace.

a career."

Mrs. Reardon filed the "missing person" report the day after the couple disappeared July 22. Mary Catherine cleared up the mystery Saturday by announcing she and Gabriel had eloped.

Young Gueci yesterday told a reporter: "Mary Catherine and I are happy and intend to continue our marriage. I'll get a job and support her."

J. Vincent Reardon, Mary Catherine's father, was shot and killed in 1947 while driving his daughter and her boy friend home from a tourist camp. The boy died of injuries suffered when the car crashed. Reardon was a St. Louis paint manufacturer.

Mary Catherine, who at first confessed the shooting, was acquitted of a charge of delinquency by reason of murder. In a dramatic moment in court, it was disclosed that she had been shot also. It was stated in court that she was hit defending her father from the boy.

Ralls Preparing For Two-Day Annual Old Settlers Reunion

RALLS, Aug. 1.—Everything is in readiness here to receive the expected 2,000 persons who will gather for the 24th annual reunion of the West Texas Old Settlers Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Nellie Witt Spikes, secretary of the reunion, says a full program has been devised for the entertainment of the "old folks." The reunion this year will have the use of a large, air-conditioned auditorium where the settlers can gather in comfort to reminisce over the early days on the South Plains.

Memorial Service Planned

A rodeo, carnival and square dance have also been planned for those who want to do something more than talk. Basket lunches will be provided for the old settlers and others are requested to bring their own lunches and join in with the pioneers.

The addresses of welcome will be spoken by Mayor Tim Lyle and Ernest Joiner of the Ralls Chamber of Commerce. The response will be given by Rev. George Bryant, himself a pioneer of the area.

J. Edd McLaughlin, president of the Old Settlers Reunion, will preside over the meetings which will hear the first gavel rapped at 11:30 a. m. Thursday. The principal speakers will be Charles W. Watkins and his son, A. B. Watkins, of Lubbock.

A special memorial service for the pioneers who have passed on will be held under the direction of Mrs. W. P. Fullingim. The memorial will include a visit to the Emma cemetery where many of the old settlers are buried.

To Hold Square Dance

Thursday evening a square dance will be held in the rodeo arena beginning at 8:30. Friday morning will feature an Old Fiddler's contest at the city auditorium where most of the speeches and business sessions will take place.

The program committee is made up of Mrs. Walter Gillon, Mrs. Nellie Witt Spikes and Mrs. Temple Ellis. Emmitt Lynch is in charge of entertainment; John Justice, music; and, Frank Benson, Percy Eason and Walter Watkins, table committee.

Tech Pilot Trainees Should Notify Deans

Veterans who are enrolled in Texas Technological college under the G.I. Bill of Rights and who plan to enroll in the pilot training course at the college this fall have been requested by the Veterans Administration to write the dean of their division and inform him of their plans immediately.

Under Veterans Administration rules, a letter of justification must be issued for each G.I. enrollee in the course at least six weeks before the fall term opens. The deans will forward letters of application to proper VA officials.

The course, which is called Economics 233, leads to a private pilot's license. Last fall, there were 27 students enrolled in the course but the number of students in the course in the spring semester dropped to 13.

Man Is Kicked To Death In Street

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Aug. 1 (AP)—A man was kicked to death yesterday by two men who brandished a knife to keep a downtown crowd from coming to his aid.

Police called it one of the city's most brutal crimes. They said there was no apparent motive for the attack.

The victim was Edward Conrad O'Brien, a bottling company employe. He died on the way to a hospital.

Detective Capt. Dewey E. Williams identified the two men being held in connection with the attack as Harry Burdette, 25, and Fred Painter, 30.

Police said O'Brien was attacked after he had stopped at a newsstand to buy a paper.

Three Burned In Gas Blast

MAYSVILLE, Okla., Aug. 1. (AP) Three persons were burned, one seriously, today when nitro gas exploded into flames over a ½ mile area near Maysville, a small Garvin county town in southern Oklahoma.

The state highway patrol said workmen of the Warren Petroleum corp., near Maysville were loading nitro gas into four tank cars when the explosion occurred at 1:15 a. m. today.

Nitro Gas Leaks

Apparently some of the nitro gas leaked from the cars and seeped down a narrow ravine which runs from the railroad siding to a house about ¼ mile away.

When the fumes reached the house, they exploded. Fire destroyed the house and the owners, identified as Mr. and Mrs. Daryl Carroll, were burned in escaping.

Flames raced back up the ravine and flashed to the tanks. One workman, W. R. Pugh, 24, was seriously burned. The fire then spread over the surrounding area and fire-fighters battled for 30 minutes before they subdued the blaze.

DOG FINDS FRIEND

SAN FRANCISCO. (U.P.)—A municipal judge proved to be a dog's best friend. The judge fined a man $25 for beating the dog. The pup's owner had taken the case to court.

NEIGHBORS KNUCKLE DOWN—After appealing repeatedly to the highway department to resurface their street, the 21 families living on this St. Louis County, Mo., suburban street decided there was only one course of action. They would fix it themselves. They pooled the money and muscles necessary and dug in. Here, the men of the street, mostly young veterans, spread part of the 45 tons of rock they bought to fill in the gaping holes, which, they say, have broken auto springs and caused blowouts.

Adept Railroad Man Has Unique Hobbies

HAVERHILL, Mass., Aug. 1 (U.P.)—In the daytime, Arthur M. Clay is engineer of a diesel locomotive on the Boston & Maine Railroad.

But at night Clay relaxes with his needle work.

Among his other hobbies are carpentry, masonry, electrical work and plumbing.

Adept either with a hand needle or sewing machine, Clay turns out some pretty tricky bed quilts, children's overalls, aprons and pillows. He even sews leather goods such as wallets and holders for railroad men's rule books and time cards.

In two years Clay said he made 19 bed quilts as well as many cloth vests and black sleeve protectors. His co-workers buy them as fast as Clay gets them made.

Spare times, when he doesn't feel like sewing, Clay busies himself in the kitchen whipping up pies and cakes.

Indians Discovery Goes Off With Bang

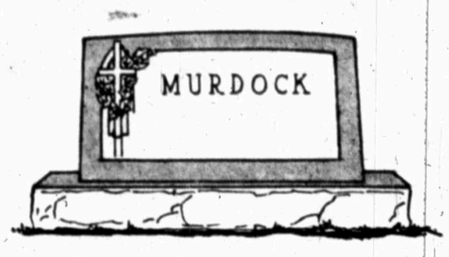

NEW DELHI, India, Aug. 1 (U.P.)—A Kashmir villager found a heavy iron object in a field and took it to a blacksmith's shop near Srinagar to have it made into something useful.

The blacksmith, recognizing the thing as a crude bomb, said it should be thrown away.

The villager took the advice literally and tossed the bomb through the door.

Three persons were injured by the blast.

Dewey Calls Economic Policy Of Democrats "Short-Sighted"

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 1. (AP)—Governor Dewey said today a depression can be prevented and he struck out at the Truman administration for what he called "a short-sighted economic policy."

In an address prepared for delivery at the annual convention of the New York state Federation of Labor, AFL, Dewey declared:

"I have been asked many times within the last six months, both at home and abroad, whether in my opinion America is headed back into a depression such as we experienced in the thirties.

"My answer has been that a depression can be prevented; that there still is time to repair the mistakes which a short-sighted national administration has made."

It was the second time in five days that Dewey levelled criticism at the Democratic national administration.

Asks Aid To China

In an address last Thursday at Colgate university's foreign policy conference, Dewey assailed the Truman administration for what he termed a "no-policy-at-all" stand toward Nationalist China.

He called for new, immediate U. S. aid for the Nationalist government.

In his address today Dewey did not elaborate on what he said were mistakes of the national economic policy. Nor did he expand on his statement that a depression could be prevented.

He said, however, that a special "watchdog committee" of state officials, which he appointed recently, was directed to "exercise a constant vigilance over economic and business conditions."

JAIL GOES LUXURIOUS

BIG RAPIDS, Mich. (U.P.)—Inflation has hit the Mecosta county jail. The board of supervisors decided that 30 cents is not enough for a prisoner's meal. From now on inmates will get a 35-cent "blueplate" special.

MR. AND MRS. JIMMIE ROBBERTS, formerly of Lubbock and now living in Guatemala City, got their first experience in "banana republic" revolutions recently when a brief attempt was made by a rebel group to overthrow the government.

The Roberts' home in Guatemala City is so located that opposing forces set up machine gun nests on either side, which meant the residence would be caught in crossfire. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts, and children, made their way to the safety of another American's home —far removed — by marching from their home carrying a white flag.

The white flag, incidentally, was made out of a broomstick and a diaper!

After the one-day, two-night revolution ended, the Roberts went home to find a bomb had exploded in the front yard and blasted a hole in the roof; a large palm tree in the front yard was cut almost in two by machine gun bullets.

P. S.: The Roberts like Guatemala City very much. It really is the country of "eternal Spring," they say, with temperatures never getting out of the 65-75 range.

A. M. "Jack" Jackson, the down-to-earth editor of the Slaton Slatonite, each week casts a jaundiced eye at the world, then pens him a column called "Just Talk."

It's a good column, kind of salty, like Jack, himself. As a matter of fact, his colleagues over the South Plains recently voted the Jackson column as tops in the area.

So when the Slaton editor was up here the other day, we saw an opportunity to get a column out of him—and jumped on it.

"Jack," we said, "how about doing a piece for us on what Slaton thinks of Lubbock?"

"O. K.," he said, "I'll do it—but you won't like it."

To make a short story shorter, Mr. Jackson didn't do what he said he'd do.

Instead of sitting down and knocking off a humorous, pithy piece in his inimitable style, he goes high-hat. He decides that the whole business has got to be factual. So he stages a one-man Gallup Poll in Slaton and lets the people talk.

The result isn't nearly so good as a Jackson column on the subject would be—especially providing Jack would let himself go.

But, even so, the dope the Slaton editor dug up on the subject of "Slatonites Look at Lubbock" contains some dope that we who live in Lubbock might ponder a bit.

FROM here on for awhile, it's A. M. Jackson, editor, publisher and owner of the Slaton Slatonite, speaking:

"Some time ago you asked for it so here it is: "What do the people of Slaton think of the town of Lubbock?"

"While I cannot answer for all of the citizens of Slaton, I can tell you what some of them say. But first I would like to make a few comments in explanation. It seems that most folks look upon a community in which they do not live as another individual and not as a group of people and they like or dislike a town just as they would an acquaintance, a friend, or a relative and feel at liberty to give them the works.

"It seems that at on time Slaton and Lubbock were within a few score people of being the same in population. Some of the old timers in Slaton seem to feel that Lubbock did some dirty tricks such as securing Tech and thus got ahead of Slaton, and that Lubbock has been socking Slaton in the Solar Plexus ever since. It's a sad story to hear how Lubbock got the road paved from Slaton to Lubbock so that trucks have been hauling truck loads of dough to Lubbock ever since. This money should have been spent in Slaton.

"Being only a fumbling editor of a weekly newspaper in Slaton I am unable to diagnose reasons why so many dumb people settled in Lubbock and helped make it grow and why so few smart folks settled in Slaton. Things have been picking up here considerably of late, but I do know that there is some resentment in Slaton against Lubbock and I am sure there is some of the same feeling in other towns in this area.

"IN order to find out what a representative group of the people of this community thinks about Lubbock I asked a good many and here are the typical answers that I got:

"Housewife — 'I like Lubbock, but I prefer to live in Slaton. Shopping used to be better in Lubbock, but I can get everything we need here now and often at a better price. The traffic problem is bad in Lubbock and getting worse all the time.'

"Business Woman — 'I think Lubbock is dirty. People in Lubbock try to act sophisticated but are still little town folk. In Slaton, we know we are in a little town and are not trying to fool anyone.'

"Wife of well to do business man—'Lubbock has some better merchandise not available in Slaton, but traffic congestion and parking problems are very discouraging.'

"Automobile Salesman — 'The business men are very selfish in Lubbock, as proved by the actions concerning Westchester. If the people near Lubbock want to have their own community they should be allowed to do so without having to pay tribute to Lubbock. The business men of Lubbock should be glad to have such nice homes and prosperous citizens in their neighborhood, but they are too grasping to welcome them. Lubbock is good for Slaton and Slaton helps Lubbock, but I would not like to see Lubbock expand too near to Slaton.'

"Retired mail carrier—'I think Lubbock needs another daily paper. Any town as big as Lubbock should have two daily papers. If Lubbock has plans to expand past the present city limits, she should have all of the modern facilities to provide the additional citizens with water, sewerage, lights, etc. Lubbock people show their poor sportsmanship by the way they plastered Otis Gunter, a citizen of Slaton when he umpired for the Hubbers several seasons ago. Otis, who is a retired professional baseball player and a professional umpire was hit by pop bottles and mistreated by some of the fans.'

"Bookkeeper for industrial firm—'If the other business firms in Lubbock are as inefficient as the postal employees seem to be, then I do not see how Lubbock has ever grown to the size it is. It takes longer to get a letter to Lubbock on most occasions than it does to get one to Chicago and equally as long to get mail from Lubbock to Slaton.'

"Young Student in Tech — 'I think the clerks in the stores in Lubbock are the rudest things I have ever seen. In Slaton the clerks often seem slow and uninterested, but in Lubbock they often turn their backs and walk away when a customer does not buy immediately.'

"Business executive — 'I think Lubbock is one of the best towns in the Southwest and will be the best and the largest town in West Texas within 10 or 15 years.'

"Traveling Salesman — 'I have travelled in every state in the Union and I think Lubbock is an up and coming town, the people are friendly, courteous and I like to do business in Lubbock. Slaton would be better off if the business men would take a few lessons from the business men in Lubbock.'

"So you see, I am right back where I started from; we like you folks in Lubbock, but don't you dare try to pick on us. We criticize our friends and neighbors but we won't stand for any one else to do it!"

WE WISH to thank Bro. Jackson for staging his one-man Gallup Poll and maybe its results will make some of us lagging Lubbockites, mentioned by Slaton critics, sharpen up a bit.

However, the gate is still open for Mr. Jackson to do what we asked him to do in the first place —to put Lubbock on the pan in Jacksonian fashion and without benefit (if any) of outside advice.

How about it, Jack—won't you take us for a ride?

BY DREW PEARSON: GOP FACTIONS STILL ROWING OVER REPUBLICAN CHAIRMAN

Is Sen. Dulles Still Representing His Law Firm?

WASHINGTON. — All is not harmony inside the Republican national committee as it nears the job of picking a new chairman. It was hoped that when Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott, a Dewey man, resigned, diverse G. O. P. factions would bury the hatchet and pull together. But they haven't.

PEARSON

Today, there is just about as much inside dissension as there was over controversial Hugh Scott.

This time the feuding is over the top candidate for the chairmanship—Guy Gabrielson of Bernardsville, N. J., national committeeman from New Jersey.

Last week the chairmanship appeared to be all set for Gabrielson. Since then, sudden and stiff opposition has developed. For one thing, it is strongly suspected that he is a Stassen man. Even more important, Republican congressmen from New Jersey are almost solidly opposed. En bloc they called on ex-Speaker Joe Martin, and registered their objection. Usually it's an honor to have a national chairman selected from your state, but in this case New Jersey congressmen wanted to forego the honor—if Gabrielson is to be the man.

Another strike against Gabrielson is the fact that he is from the east, and that Scott's resignation was forced because a midwesterner was needed as chairman. (Gabrielson was born in Sioux Rapids, Ia., but has lived in New Jersey for some time.)

Kansas's Darby Is Favorite

Another complaint is that at the last Omaha meeting of the G. O. P., Mrs. Reeve Schley of New Jersey, whose husband is vice president of the Chase National bank, wanted to be on the executive committee in place of Mrs. Worthington Scranton, of Scranton, Pa. Accordingly, Mrs. Scranton was persuaded to resgin in favor of Mrs. Schley, following which Gabrielson did not pass this choice plum to Mrs. Schley but usurped it for himself. This made many people sore.

Meanwhile, a lot of wires are being pulled to put Gabrielson across. His chief backers are Texas committeeman Rentfro Creager, Arizona's novelist Clarence Buddington Kelland, Harrison Spangler of Iowa, Senator Brewster of Maine, and Sam Pryor, former committeeman from Connecticut and vice president of Pan American airways.

Pryor has even secured the help of a public-relations firm, Andrew Gahagen of 270 Park avenue, New York, to put Gabrielson across, and one of its representatives, Lee McCann, has been in Washington buttonholing the boys.

NOTE—Top candidate for the G. O. P. chairmanship if Gabrielson doesn't make it is Harry Darby, G. O. P. committeeman from Kansas, who is chairman of the Kansas City airways and of the Kansas Palamino Horse Exhibitors association. Darby is acceptable to Dewey and most other factions but doesn't seem to want the job.

IT may or may not have been significant, but John Foster Dulles, the famed new senator from New York, has been appointed to the Senate committee governing the District of Columbia. In voteless Washington this means that he will have a great deal to say about governing Washington—including its public utilities.

Significantly, it happens that the Dulles law firm, Sullivan and Cromwell, is attorney for the Washington Gas Light company, also for the Potomac Electric company, also for the Washington RR and Transit Co., which owns the Capital Transit Co.

At the time when Senator Dulles was appointed to the District of Columbia committee, these utilities are asking for rate increases, while the Washington Railway and Electric Co. proposes the sale of its 44 per cent interest in the Capital Transia Co. to outside interests.

In fairness to Senator Dulles, it should be noted that he wanted appointment to the foreign relations committee. When no opening developed, Senator Schoeppel of Kansas was moved off the District of Columbia committee, and Dulles took his place. Senator Dulles remarked, incidentally, that he knew nothing about D. C. problems with the exception of the bill to kill the capital's population of starlings. Though he liked birds, he said he did not like starlings.

How A General Wanted Promotion

Here is one inside reason why Gen. Alden Waitt, chief of the Army's chemical warfare section, got suspended for dealing with lobbyist James V. Hunt, close friend of General Harry Vaughan, White House military aide.

General Waitt has been chief of the chemical warfare section for nearly four years, and ordinarily chiefs of Army bureaus are not reappointed. They are transferred to the field. However, Waitt wanted to continue in his lush Washington office in which—after quite a howl—he had just installed a new tile bathroom, kitchenette, air cooling, etc.

So general Waitt, appreciating lobbyist Hunt's friendship with General Vaughan, and also appreciating General Vaughan's power around the White House, asked Hunt's help in securing his reappointment. Hunt in turn proposed that General Waitt dictate a memorandum which Hunt would then send to General Vaughan.

This General Waitt did, using Hunt's secretary. The memorandum gave a glowing description of Waitt's virtues and achievements; also exposed the faults and failings of other candidates to be chief of chemical warfare.

One interesting point is that Gen. Waitt sat on an Army's evaluation board to pass upon his brother officers and had previously given high recommendations to the very same officers whose qualifications he deprecated in the memorandum which he dictated for lobbyist Hunt.

NOTE: When Douglas MacArthur wanted promotion to the rank of major general, he asked his wife's stepfather, the wealthy Edward T. Stotesbury of Philadelphia, to intervene at the White House. Stotesbury, a J. P. Morgan partner, was a heavy G. O. P. campaign contributor.

Top Gangsters Of U. S. Fear Tax Probe By Federal Group

We Have Distinguished Guests —There's a convention in New York—one that the efficient visitors' bureau hasn't listed. It's a gathering of top gangsters and racketeers of the nation. Such get-togehers are not uncommon. They have been held in Chicago, Miami, Atlantic City, Phoenix, Providence and other points. These bosses of the Syndicate, whose interests and holdings are intertwined, have business together. It appears in this instance the topic on the agenda is an ominous drive by the U. S. Treasury to crack down on criminal evasions and violations of income tax laws.

The New York Intelligence division of the Department has been summoning some of the foremost mobsters for months. Several of The Eastern wing is connected with the whole national body. And a shudder of fear has the mob geniuses shaky. They haven't forgotten what happened to Al Capone, "Lucky" Luciano, "Nucky" Johnson, the organized grafters and hoodlums of the Huey Long set-up and the Pendergast outfit. They know that whenever the Feds really try, they can get these malefactors of great stealth, for they are all venal and all vulnerable. They have influence beyond calculation, but when the G-Boys are ordered from up above to close in, nothing can help them.

THERE hasn't been an all-out effort, originating or authorized in Washington, to land anyone of political-underworld prominence behind bars since 1933, when enough airtight evidence was in hand to send up some of the most notorious. Orders suddenly came right out of the White House to kill the whole project. Since then, several of the silk-lined mobsters have been quietly sent for and permitted to "rectify" their returns and come across with a total of millions of dollars. But indictments and prosecutions, their nightmare horrors, have not been a threat until this year. These characters are big business executives, but they are thieves in their souls, and, despite their deep dread of doing time, they cannot make their own hands do their own bidding when they decide to pay in full and be relieved of the fear of Leavenworth and Atlanta. So they report a net of maybe 10 percent of income, praying their drag and their smart subterfuges of covering up will save them. And usually they do.

What with loose morals, high speed, liquor handy, these sons and daughters of millionaires keep the cops as busy as do the underprivileged youth of the poor elsewhere. And the police are leary to pinch them, as their parents are so influential.

The new administration in Jersey City has turned up some wicked stuff on the old regime. The first payday left unclaimed, dozens of checks, made out to names that couldn't be linked with any living people. Now each city employe must call at the cashier's window in person. Plenty on the payrolls haven't called yet. Besides 50 Cadillac limousines for the use of officials, 50 others were dicovered, used by their wives, listed in the municipal "car pool."

Torrid Weather Discourages Crusading Spirit Of Writer

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Well, I was going to do something about Mrs. Roosevelt and the Cardinal but about that time a mouse got stuck on the meuse-paper and that was a problem and the electric fan bust and that was a problem, too, and the lady across the way was hollering at her spawn and I just figure it's too darn hot.

RUARK

It says as plain as day in the headlines that Congress is going to learn all about how the Reds are rodded up for war in order to sell the arms for everybody program to the people, and in some more headlines it says the atom-bomb ain't nearly as nasty as painted, on the post-explosion radiation side, and I was going to do something about that, too. But the sweat kept a trickling down my chin and my pants stuck to the chair and I just reckon it's too darn hot.

Now here again it says, quote, that a responsible federal economist believes the American business recession will be ended by 1950, and I was going to chew some on that one, because in the first place, who knows any responsible Washington economists, or any other kind of responsible economists, and who can say we are in a recession? But all the ice is melted out of the frij, because blast her hide the cook I mean she puts too much cargo in the freeze compartment and we are fresh out of cokes and anyhow, it's too darn hot.

Writer Is Scored

Never the boy to shirk his bounden duty, under most conditions, I was going to whack back at Peg for taking that little cuff at me, but then I got to thinking that it's a free country and a free press, and anybody wants to come out for Harry Vaughan can come out for Harry Vaughan, even though I will quarrel with the good taste of same, except I will not quarrel right now because nobody was ever nicer to me than Peg and anyhow Vaughan don't matter and anyhow some more it is just plain too darn hot.

Thomas Mann ain't been home to the mountain since the Nazis chucked him out and now he is back in Germany again, making expert sounds about how Communism is one thing and Nazism another, and I suppose if the frost is on the pumpkin I will take him on, too. But the truth is I always thought he wrote real dull books although they are supposed to be literature and he can't know too much about what he says right now because he has spent most of his recent decade safely over here and anyhow the type is blurring on the paper because if you want to know the truth, it's just too darn hot.

WELL, SWEET Pete, a fellow in a quarrelsome mood could find some editorial action in the trial of the lonely hearts murder suspects, except that fat and giggling female defendant and her slightly loathsome lover encourage a tendency to nausea, and all I wish is they would go away, anywhere, just so it is away. I have covered some beauts in my time and read about some more, but Mrs. Martha Beck and Senor Raymond Fernandez should not be in court. They should be in the pickle bottles in a medical museum, and anyhow, as I was saying, it is just too darn hot.

There is a thing worthy of note about the GI getting 40 years for stabbing a girl in Frankfurt, and the thought arises that 40 years for the murder of one is a long time if the traitors here at home, potential murderers of millions, can get off with less than three years, and so again a sermon seeps out of the pores. But the sermon is washed away by what the doctors call normal, healthy perspiration, and right in the middle of the harangue it occurs to the preacher that it's too darn hot.

The fact that the Princess Rita Hayworth Aly Khan is not with child fails to inspire a worthy offering today, as does the threatened invasion of our land by man-eating snails as big as baseballs, as does the cleanup of the gangsters in the policy racket, as does the question over whether ex-Gov. Lehman will run for the Senate.

This is a phrase I dislike and ordinarily I never touch it but I got news for you.

It is merely too insufferably, unbearably, painfully, sweatfully, swelteringly, stiflingly, oozingly, utterly humidly hot.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

"I WAS a whiz as a secretary but as a housewife I'm a total loss," writes a young woman who is finding that the job of taking care of a house and looking after a baby are almost too much for her.

MILLETT

She isn't the first working-girl-turned-housewife who has discovered that just because a woman is an efficient office worker doesn't mean she can immediately become an efficient housewife.

There is a lot of difference between an office job and the job of homemaking.

The office worker has set hours and isn't expected to do more than it is possible to accomplish within those hours.

The homemaker has to keep up with whatever her situation demands of her. If she isn't well she can't take a day off. If she has a sick child to look after, she may go for days without a good night's rest.

Also, an efficient secretary brings certain skills to her job. She is well trained for it before she ever goes job hunting.

HOUSEWIVES UNTRAINED

BUT many a housewife takes on the job of running a home without any training whatsoever in the job of homemaking. She has to learn on the job—and there isn't anyone around to show her how to do each task as efficiently as possible, to break her in to her new routine.

There's no reason why—in time—the efficient working girl can't become an efficient homemaker. But the fact that she was efficient at an office job is no guarantee that she will be an expert housekeeper.

Chances are even against it if she keeps comparing the two jobs, and dwelling on how successful she was at one and how unsuccessful at the other.

The best thing is to forget the old job and tackle the new in the spirit of the beginner, who has everything to learn but is determined to learn it all.

'Try And Stop Me"

HOWARD CULLMAN, chairman of the Port of New York authority, and angel of a dozen Broadway play hits, returned from France aboard the Queen Mary recently, and occupied a deck chair next to Severance Millikin, the Cleveland industrialist. Inevitably, Cullman steered the conversation round to his favorite topic, the theater.

"One project we have in mind," he said, "is a revival of Pirandello's As You Desire Me. If we could only persuade Marta Abba to come back to the stage and play the lead, I'm convinced we'd have a smash. I'll never forget her superb performance in Tovarish."

As Mr. Cullman enlarged upon his theme, Mr. Millikin became increasingly cordial, and finally remarked, "Would you like to meet Mrs. Millikin who is sitting on the other side of you? She was Marta Abba before I married her." (When Cullman told me this story, he added, "For once in my life, I said the right thing!")

Today's Journal Editorial

NO CAUSE FOR ALARM

Those who recall wartime experiences may find it difficult to share the alarm professed by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan because of a cotton surplus which is expected to exceed 8,000,000 bales after the 1949 harvest.

That, unquestionably, is a lot of cotton. But the surplus when World War II started exceeded 13,000,000 bales. Shortages speedily became serious as anyone who tried to buy goods made of cotton can attest.

However, there can be no denying that the prospective surplus could be dangerous if it should be dumped on the market next year, or in any future years. It will not be dangerous, and will be security insurance, if the larger part is kept in reserve as a stockpile for possible emergencies. The government, through its loan, will be in position to insure that the surplus will not be dumped and will be kept as a reserve—making the accumulated cotton a great asset instead of a dangerous liability.

Something New and Different in a Building Site for Your New Home

We are now exclusive sales agents for Dickinson's Beautiful Valley View Addition, located North of Lubbock and South of Country Club. Near the new Plainview four lane Boulevard.

This is a beautiful building site in an exclusive, highly restricted addition. There are 21 building sites, prices are reasonable, terms may be arranged with 10% down payment and balance monthly, if desired.

Paving will begin this week on the circular drives. An ornamental fence will be constructed soon completely around the addition.

You may have a North, East, or West front and as much frontage as you like—Restricted to 1300 square feet of floor space, only 2 or 3 minutes from downtown Lubbock—so make your selection now.

Open house—only 2 left. They are unlocked.

Vatican Accused Of Meddling In Western Germany Election

HAMBURG, Germany, Aug. 1. (AP)—West German Catholics were told in a pastoral letter read in churches yesterday to vote for "Christian" candidates in the Aug. 14 parliamentary elections.

The letter drew an attack from Socialist leader Dr. Kurt Schumacher, who accused the Vatican of intervening in the election and said the letter was "openly intended to influence the elections in favor of the Christian Democrats," the rightist rivals of the Socialists.

The two are the major parties in the west German government being formed and are about evenly matched. The Communist party in western Germany is small.

Education Issue

The pastoral letter referred to one of the prime issues in the election campaign, church participation in education, and said leftist parties had rejected "important Christian demands."

"You will understand that we ask," the letter said, "can a convinced Christian make it agree with his conscience to give his vote to a candidate who recognizes the power of the state before the freedom of conscience in decisive education and cultural questions?"

The church is above parties, the letter continued, but it is the duty of the bishops "to test how far Christian principles are observed or not observed in political life.

"In this sense the Holy See has seen fit recently to give a clear verdict on Communism.

Church Attacked

"We point out the attacks directed against the church by the Socialists, who have accused the church of being the fifth occupation power."

The letter praised the Christian Democrats for the efforts at the Bonn meeting to frame a west German constitution "to push through our demands of conscience. They have bravely and successfully defended the rights of the parents and the rights of the church.

The church was attacked in a campaign speech by Communist leader Max Reimann, who spoke before nearly 80,000 persons at Dortmund, a Ruhr industrial city. He charged the church had aligned itself with "the old powers of war and social injustice."

Reimann also berated the western allies and pledged "Communist delegates in parliament will fight against forced exports, for the withdrawal of occupation troops and for the immediate reduction of occupation costs by 50 per cent."

HARMONIZING—Announcement has been made of the engagement of the Earl of Harewood, 26-year-old nephew of King George VI, to Marion Stein, 22-year-old Viennese-born pianist. The Earl, 11th in line to the British throne, is a son of Princess Royal Mary, the King's sister. The couple is pictured during a visit to New York.

FULLY EQUIPPED

INDIANAPOLIS (U.P.)—A fully-equipped baseball team was hunted by police after burglars broke into a city park community building. Their loot: nine baseball gloves, six balls, eight bats and a complete set of catcher's gear. For the benefit of fans, the burglars took four cases of soft drinks, police added.

PLANE FIXES BALL FIELD

CLARKSDALE, Miss. (U.P.) — When the baseball field was too wet to permit play, M. H. Klutts, local aviator, hauled his stripped-down old Navy training plane onto the field, revved up the engine and fanned away the water. The Cotton States League game between Greenwood and Clarksdale was played as scheduled.

Inventor Reveals New Ship Which May Render Modern Ocean Liners Obsolete

DETROIT, Aug. 1 (AP)—Inventor-industrialist Gar Wood has taken the wraps off a secret ship that eventually may make ocean liners like the Queen Mary obsolete.

It's a strange looking craft with twin hulls. She knifes through the waves instead of climbing over them. The retired king of speedboat racing calls it a prototype of the express passenger liner of tomorrow.

For 28 years Wood has been designing a ship unlike anything that ever before put to sea. He talked publicly for the first time yesterday about his 120-ton experimental craft named the "Venturi."

Started During War

The ship, which cruises at 26 knots through high waves at a completely even keel without roll or pitch was started as a hush-hush job for the army air forces in 1944. The air forces had wanted an extremely mobile radio-controlled target vessel, but the war ended before the AAF secured full value from Wood's ship.

The designed re-acquired the hull from the government and went to work to develop his dream boat.

He says the basic design should permit surface vessels for the first time to compete favorably with trans-ocean airlines.

His ship, 180 feet long and 40 feet wide, looks much like a floating tunnel when you see her head-on. A broad deck connects the two hulls 22 feet above the waterline. Wood says she is unsinkable.

Gail Russell Weds Actor Guy Madison

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., Aug. 1 (AP)—Film actress Gail Russell is Mrs. Guy Madison now.

The movie couple was married last night at a hotel. They will return to Hollywood after a brief honeymoon in San Francisco and Carmel, Calif.

Barbers Won't Allow Much Beard Growing

KISSIMMEE, Fla., Aug. 1 (U.P.)—All "mature males" in this Florida cow country capital started growing beards for homecoming week under rules which forbade the men to touch their whiskers.

Mayor Al Cody changed the rules quickly on demand by an articulate bloc of the city's voters. He said it was okay to have the beards trimmed daily.

The protest came from Kissimmee's barber shops.

Federal Agencies Penniless As Solons Stall On Money Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1 (AP)—The House made ready today to rush to the rescue of tens of thousands of federal employes in agencies which became moneyless last midnight.

Technically speaking, the employes are working on faith that Congress will supply the necessary funds before another pay day rolls around.

The agencies involved are some of the biggest in the government. They find themselves penniless because Congress hasn't been able to agree on appropriations for the fiscal year that started July 1. They first ran out of money at midnight June 30, but a stop-gap bill was rushed through to tide them over until the end of July.

Signals Mixed

The idea was to pass another stop-gap bill to take care of August activities, but it got hung up. The House passed it last Thursday and adjourned until today on the assumption the Senate would quickly approve.

The Senate apparently got the signals mixed and amended the House resolution, but it was too late for House concurrence.

The House voted temporary financing through August 31; the Senate cut the date to August 15.

"We will accept the Senate amendment and have the bill on the President's desk late today," Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) of the House appropriations committee told newsmen. "I am glad to observe that the Senate believes it can have the regular appropriation bills out of the way in time to give the agencies their regular funds by August 15."

Minimums Set

The stop-gap bill would let the affected agencies function normally although their regular money bills haven't been passed. They would have to live within the minimum amounts voted in bills that have not become law, and could not spend more in one month than one-twelfth of the proposed annual appropriation.

Thus, an agency whose appropriation voted by the House is $1,200,000,000 for the full year for which the Senate voted $1,500,000,000 would have to operate for one month on $100,000,000, or one-twelfth of the smaller amount, until the Senate-House differences are adjusted.

Affected by the stop-gap program are a score of so-called independent offices, the Atomic Energy commission, the Army, the Navy and Air Force, the Interior department, and others.

British Cattle And Horse Owners Take Action On Rustling

LYNDHURST, Eng., Aug. 1 (INS) The usually quiet town of Lyndhurst in Hampshire, England, today declared war on rustlers and horse-thieves in a manner reminiscent of the days when America's west was wild.

Red-lettered notices were nailed to trees, pubs and bulletin boards in the town offering $400 for information leading to the conviction of the outlaws.

The owners of horses and cattle grazing in the 225 square miles of land in the new forest area banded together to fight the rustlers who are using the most modern equipment.

Modern Methods Used

The rustlers arrive in fast cattle trucks and quickly stake out portable pens into which they can herd a dozen or so cattle in only a few minutes.

Once the animals are loaded, the pens are folded up and the trucks flee.

The Commoners' Defense association, including many of the 500 owners of the 4,000 animals roaming new forest, called for prompt action for fear the herds would be depleted to satisfy the demands of the black market for horse meat.

The owners are pressing for increased patrols and heavy jail sentences.

British Woman To Begin Last Lap Of Trip Around World

BANGOR, Maine, Aug. 1. (AP)—Mrs. Richarda Morrow-Tait, 26-year-old British flier, today awaited customs clearance to hop off on the last stages of a round-the-world flight begun last August.

She landed her single-engined trainer type plane at Dow airfield base here late Saturday after a flight from Burlington, Vt.

Accompanying her was navigator Michael Townsend, 25, former British Royal Air Force flyer.

New Plane Bought

The Cambridge, Eng., woman flew to Burlington from Montreal. It was her second attempt to enter the United States. Last July 21 she landed at the Vermont community but was refused entry by immigration officials, who said her papers were not in order.

The globe-girdling tour ran into trouble in Alaska, where Mrs. Morrow-Tait crashed but escaped without serious injury. Residents of Seattle, Wash., bought her a new plane.

Her flight to date from England has been Italy, Africa, India, Japan, Hawaii, Alaska, Canada, and Burlington, Vt. She is expected to head for Presque Isle, Maine, Goose Bay, Labrador and then across the Atlantic to England.

Price Funeral Home Opens At Levelland

LEVELLAND, Aug. 1 (Special) Approximately 500 visitors from this area attended the formal opening of the George C. Price Funeral home here Sunday.

The guests had a chance to examine the new equipment which has been installed and also to see the new building housing the funeral home which was finished Monday. Several baskets of flowers from well wishers were placed throughout the building.

The new funeral home is located at 1402 Houston street.

Condemned Slayer Undergoes Baptism

COLUMBIA, Tenn., Aug. 1. (AP)—A 44-year-old former steelworker, condemned to die in the electric chair, was baptized in nearby Bear Creek yesterday while about 2,000 persons watched in silence.

"No matter what happens," said lanky Arthur L. Bass. "I am going to serve God until the end."

Bass, considered a model prisoner, wore no manacles during the baptismal services into the Assembly of God faith. The officers who escorted him to the creek stood with the crowd while the rite was performed.

Bass was sentenced to die for slaying his cousin, Ranie L. Bass, in a card game argument April 12. He pleaded self-defense. The date for his execution has not been set pending a decision on a motion for a new trial.

Fast Express Jumps Tracks

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. Va., Aug. 1 (AP)—Four passenger cars left the Baltimore and Ohio railroad tracks yesterday as the Chicago Express highballed along a straight stretch in the mountains at 50 miles an hour.

Railroad officials said only one passenger, who was not identified, was injured badly enough to be taken off the train. The passenger was not believed to be seriously injured, and was treated by a physician at nearby Hancock, Md.

Other passengers received treatment on the spot for minor injuries.

The last four cars of the westbound New York-Chicago train were involved. The last two, both pullmans, overturned. The two preceding them, both coaches, left the rails but remained upright.

Track Torn Up

Conductor H. C. Miller of Baltimore said he was standing in the rear car when it lurched suddenly, throwing him to the floor. He said it continued upright for a time, then turned over.

West Virginia state police at Berkeley Springs said about 150 yards of track were turned up. One track of the three-track stretch remained open, however, and there was no material interruption in service.

The state police said railroad officials on the spot indicated that the accident might have been caused by a broken rail. There was no official cause listed, however, and the railroad began an investigation.

The engine and the four cars that remained on the rails proceeded into Cumberland, where physicians checked the passengers.

No one was removed from the train there, observers said.

Australia Blames Reds For Walkout

SYDNEY, Australia, Aug. 1. (AP) Blaming Australia's Communists for the coal strike that has crippled her industry, the Labor government has pledged to wipe out Communism in the commonwealth.

As the countrywide strike of 24,000 miners entered its sixth week, the government prepared to smash the walkout by using troops to work open pits.

Troops are standing by, ready to start digging at a signal from the federal capital at Canberra. Officers claim they can beat regular production records within a week.

Information Minister Arthur Calwell told a Labor rally yesterday "Communism is on the way out here."

"We will use the army against them, the navy against them, the air force against them."

He said the strikes would be smashed and the government then would move to exterminate "Communist ratbags."

The Communist party is a tiny political force in Australia and has no seats in the federal parliament, but it is influential in trade unions. Calwell said a police raid on Communist headquarters last month gave the government all the information it needed on the party's activities.
