150th Birthday Wagon Train To Come To City

BY DEAN BARTLEY

Tahoka has the distinction of being selected one of the approximate 130 Texas towns to host the Texas Sesquicentennial Wagon Train, according to Mrs. Jan France, executive director of the Texas Wagon Train Association. Mrs. France was in the city last week making plans for the May 8, 1986 event.

"Circle Texas for the Past and Future" is the theme of the wagon train which will travel over 2800 miles from January through July 1986 in celebration of Texas' 150th birthday.

"The wagon train will leave Sulphur Springs, Jan. 2, 1986 and complete the six month journey at the Fort Worth Stock yards July 3," she said.

At least 1000 wagons and 20,000 people are anticipated to join the historical journey at some point.

Also, children of parents or grandparents on the train will travel with the group. Two certified teachers will be hired for mandatory classroom instruction.

Mrs. France stated, "The historical significance of the Sesquicentennial Wagon Train Tour is to experience the challenges and feeling of our forefathers as they came in wagons to settle the west. It is expected that four million out-of-state visitors and 10 million Texans will witness the wagon train tour."

When asked, "What type of people do you believe will participate in the wagon train?", she said, "I expect the majority of participants to be made up of people who place a high value on historic preservation and who will be willing to live as an exhibit of our western heritage. Representatives from 18 states and five countries have expressed and interest in coming to join the wagon train to learn more of the Texas Western Heritage."

The Texas Sesquicentennial Commission in Austin was created by the Legislature for the specific purpose of promoting and coordinating celebration of Texas' 150th birthday.

The non-profit corporation is funded by donations from individuals, civic organizations, riding clubs, historical organizations, businesses, ranches and farmers.

Tax deductible donations may be made to Texas Wagon Train Association, Box 323, Sulphur Springs, Texas 75482.

Attending the Tahoka meeting were Robbie Roberson, Carl Reynolds, Judge J.F. Brandon, New Home representatives John and Mary Bess Edwards; Dean Bartley, Donna Raindl, Nadine Dunlap and Gary White.

Citizens of Tahoka and surrounding areas are making plans to name Tahoka a sanctioned community so that this city might be an official part of this celebration. There will be a meeting Tuesday, Sept. 25, at the Reddy Room at 5:30 p.m. for the purpose of planning activities and projects. All interested persons are welcome.

WOODWORK

BY DALTON

MOST MECHANICAL things are designed by people inspired by the Devil to create something which will turn normally sane people into raving muttering maniacs. In just one day last week I had problems with the lawn mower, a computerized typesetting machine and a printing press. Fortunately none of the problems were major, but they did take some time and effort, and one caused a little embarrassment.

The embarrassment came with the lawn mower, which wouldn't start, and which felt real weird when you pulled on the cord to try to start it. So I carted it off to the lawn mower hospital and left it. Two days later I went to pick it up, and was informed that they fixed it after discovering it had no blade on it. That's when I learned that those mowers won't run without a blade, and also when I remembered that a week or so ago I had taken the blade off to be sharpened and hadn't replaced it. I never thought about looking under the dumb thing.

The press was making weird squealing noises, so we squirted WD-40 on all the moving parts and several that didn't move, and it quieted down. However, it is hard to print things neat when oil is being thrown all over the walls. Later it quit throwing oil. It quit printing, too, but hopefully we will have it fixed by the time this gets into print.

The computer-typesetter has about 2 zillion little wires and doodads to look at when you open it up, but luckily we found a fuse blown and that seemed to fix it.

When I signed up to take journalism in college, nobody ever told me I'd have to do things like that.

A PHOTOGRAPH in the current issue of National Geographic shows a John Deere tractor, some old buildings and a lot of sand, and the caption says that the photograph was made in Lynn County, Texas. It is a beautiful picture, like all of NG's photos, although not too good for the image of the county. So far nobody has claimed to know whose farm it was taken on. If anyone knows, we'd like to have the information.

New School Rules Voted

Policies regarding student dress code and principals' discretion on excusing some absences were voted by Tahoka School Board at the board's regular meeting last Thursday. The board also had a called meeting at noon Tuesday at which some of the action in last Thursday's meeting was rescinded.

Tuesday's meeting also included an "executive session", meaning a closed meeting excluding the public and press, purportedly for the discussion of personnel, as is permitted by the Texas Open Meetings Law. It was one of many such closed meetings held by the board this year.

After going into open session Tuesday, the board voted to void an earlier order for a new school bus and re-submit a more general list of specifications. Trustees also voted to pay only the local and state dues to professional organizations for five administrators in the system. At Thursday's meeting, it had been voted to pay these plus dues to national organizations.

Rules on dress codes specifying what students may not wear to school and stressing that "proper appearance not only makes a good impression upon visitors to the school, but has also been shown to have a high relationship to achievement" were approved 4-1.

JoAnna Thomas was approved as a substitute teacher and Susan Tipton as an aide in Tubb Elementary.

Mrs. Sue Shaver, who retired after eight years of service, seven as high school secretary, was presented a gift from the district. Also commended was Barbara Jaquess, for her recent selection as the outstanding business education teacher of the year in District 17 of the Texas Business Educators Assn.

Business Manager Loretta Tekell reported a balance in all funds on Aug. 31 of $372,073, and it was noted that at the end of the fiscal year Aug. 31 the school had about $80,000 more in operating funds than at the end of the previous year. Much of the gain was on interest earned on funds deposited, it was reported. Tax collections were reported at $750,878, or 94.16 per cent complete. The previous year's budget had been predicated on 94 per cent tax collections.

PUBLIC NOTICE

BRIEF EXPLANATORY STATEMENTS OF PROPOSED

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

GENERAL ELECTION

NOVEMBER 6, 1984

PROPOSITION NO. 1 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 29 proposes a constitutional amendment that provides to state-chartered banks the same rights and privileges that are or may be granted to national banks of the United States domiciled in this state. For example, if national banks become authorized to maintain branch offices, this amendment would extend the same privilege to state banks.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide state banks the same rights and privileges as national banks."

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 19 proposes a constitutional amendment that restructures the Permanent University Fund to provide: (1) for the expansion of the institutions eligible to participate in the bonding capacity of the fund to include the components of The University of Texas and Texas A&M University systems that have been added to those two systems of higher education since the Permanent University Fund was last restructured by constitutional amendment; (2) for the expansion of the purposes for which bond proceeds can be expended from new construction to include major repair and rehabilitation projects and the acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials; (3) for an increase in the bonding capacity from 20% (¾ for The University of Texas System and ¼ for the Texas A&M University System) to 30% (20% for The University of Texas System and 10% for Texas A&M University System) of the value of the assets (exclusive of real estate) in the Permanent University Fund in order to provide sufficient bond proceeds to care for the addition of 10 new institutions to those authorized to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program and to care for the expanded purposes for which the bond proceeds can be spent; and (4) for the dedication of the dividends, interest, and other income from the Permanent University Fund remaining after payment of principal and interest due on bonds and notes issued, to the provision of support and maintenance (over and above normal legislative appropriations) for Texas A&M University in Brazos County, Prairie View A&M University, and The University of Texas at Austin.

House Joint Resolution 19 also annually appropriates $100 million in each fiscal year, beginning September 1, 1985 (from the first money coming into the state treasury that is not otherwise appropriated by the constitution) for the use of those agencies and institutions of higher education which are not included in The University of Texas or Texas A&M University Systems and, therefore, not eligible to participate in the Permanent University Fund bonding program. The amount of this appropriation could be adjusted every five years by a ¾ vote of the Legislature, but could not be adjusted in such a way as to affect outstanding bonding indebtedness. Each institution of higher education that is eligible to participate (i.e., those institutions of higher education outside The University of Texas and Texas A&M University Systems) would be authorized to expend directly its share (such share to be determined pursuant to an equitable formula) of the $100 million appropriation for the purposes of acquiring land, constructing and equipping buildings or other permanent improvements, major repair and rehabilitation of other permanent buildings or improvements, and acquisition of major capital equipment (e.g., computers and laboratory equipment) and library books and materials. Additionally, each institution would be authorized to issue bonds backed by a pledge of up to 50% of its share of the $100 million annual appropriation for the purpose of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

Except in the case of fire or natural disaster and in other extraordinary cases, verified by a two-thirds vote of each house of the legislature, all institutions of higher education would be precluded from receiving appropriations of general revenue funds for the purposes of land acquisition, new construction, and major repair and rehabilitation projects.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to create from general revenue a special higher education assistance fund for construction and related activities, to restructure the Permanent University Fund, and to increase the number of institutions eligible to benefit from the Permanent University Fund."

PROPOSITION NO. 3 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 65 proposes a constitutional amendment which authorizes the legislature to provide for the payment of assistance to the surviving dependent parents, brothers, and sisters of officers, employees and agents of the state or its political subdivisions, including members of organized volunteer fire departments and members of organized police reserve or auxiliary units authorized to make arrests, who die in the course of performing hazardous official duties. Payments to surviving spouses and dependent children of

PROPOSITION NO. 4 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 20 proposes a constitutional amendment which abolishes the office of county treasurer in Bexar and Collin counties if a majority of the voters in each of those counties vote in favor of abolishing the office of county treasurer in a local election to be held on the issue. All the powers, duties, and functions of the office of county treasurer in each of these counties would be transferred to the county clerk.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to abolish the office of county treasurer in Bexar and Collin counties."

PROPOSITION NO. 5 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment which provides a new method of filling a vacancy in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The amendment requires the President pro tempore of the Senate to call together the committee of the whole Senate within 30 days after a vacancy occurs in the office of Lieutenant Governor. The committee would be required to elect one of its members to perform the duties of the Lieutenant Governor until the next general election. This individual would continue his duties as Senator at the same time that he performs the Lieutenant Governor's duties. If the Senator who is elected ceases to be a Senator before the next general election, another Senator must be elected according to the above procedure to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties. The President pro tempore would be required to perform the Lieutenant Governor's duties pending the election of one of its members by the committee of the whole Senate.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the state senate to fill a vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor."

PROPOSITION NO. 6 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 73 proposes a constitutional amendment that permits the use of public funds and credit for payment of premiums on non-assessable life, health, or accident insurance policies and annuity contracts issued by a mutual insurance company authorized to do business in this state. The constitutional prohibition against a grant of public money to an individual, association, or corporation or against becoming a stockholder in a corporation, association, or company has limited life and health group policies of political subdivisions to non-mutual insurance companies. The amendment would permit mutual insurance companies to bid for those policies.

such officers, employees, and agents are already authorized by the Constitution.

The proposed amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to provide for payment of assistance to the surviving dependent parents, brothers, and sisters of certain public servants killed while on duty."

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to permit use of public funds and credit for payment of premiums on certain insurance contracts of mutual insurance companies authorized to do business in Texas."

PROPOSITION NO. 7 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 4 proposes a constitutional amendment to change the membership of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct to include one Judge of a Municipal Court and one Judge of a County Court at Law, who shall be selected at large and appointed by the Supreme Court with the advice and consent of the Senate.

The amendment also provides additional grounds for removal from office of judges or justices of Texas courts, and provides additional disciplinary actions that could be taken in lieu of removal or censure. The amendment would extend the Commission's disciplinary authority to masters, magistrates, and retired or former judges who hear cases by designation. The amendment creates a tribunal to review recommendations of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct for removal or retirement of a judge or justice. The review tribunal would be composed of seven (7) Justices or Judges of the Courts of Appeals selected by lot by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. The amendment also provides for appeal of the review tribunal's decision to the Supreme Court of Texas and grants an accused judge the right to discovery of evidence.

The proposition will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment relating to the membership of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct and the authority and procedure to discipline active judges, certain retired and former judges, and certain masters and magistrates of the courts."

PROPOSITION NO. 8 ON THE BALLOT

House Joint Resolution 22 proposes a constitutional amendment which increases the per diem members of the Legislature. The amount of per diem allowed during a calendar year would be equal to the maximum amount set in federal income tax statutes as of January 1 of that same year as a deduction for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred by a state legislator. Current per diem is $30; the maximum deduction is now $75.

The proposed constitutional amendment will appear on the ballot as follows: "The constitutional amendment to provide a per diem for members of the legislature equal to the maximum daily amount allowed by federal law as a deduction for ordinary and necessary business expenses incurred by a state legislator."

Local Leader Involved In Solving Hazardous Waste Problems

Betty Green of Tahoka, and 150 members of the General Federation of Women's Clubs (GFWC) participated in a three day national seminar addressing the problems of hazardous waste management. The conference, sponsored by Shell Oil Co., was held in Washington, D.C. Sept. 7-10.

"It is estimated that more than 255 million tons of hazardous waste under federal and state regulation are generated annually. Therefore, cooperation of all segments of society—industry, government and concerned citizens—will be needed if we are to deal effectively with this problem," Jeri Winger, international president of the GFWC, said. "The GFWC is committed to working toward finding rational solutions for the complex problem," Winger added.

Representing more than 500,000 GFWC members nationwide, women leaders from each of the 50 states launched a two year program to address the hazardous waste issue. Discussion topics covered existing law, current legislation, new cleanup technology, and new disposal facility siting. John H. Skinner, director of the EPA's Office of Solid Waste, delivered the keynote address.

"Advertisements are the most interesting and difficult of modern literary forms." Aldous Huxley ATTEND CONFERENCE — Mrs. Betty Green of Tahoka, Mrs. Pollye Wheeler, Helen L. Schneider, and Jeri Winger, International president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, attended an educational conference on hazardous waste disposal Sept. 7-10 in Washington, D.C.

MORE, SMALLER FARMS IN TEXAS—Farming in Texas is continuing to expand, according to figures recently released from the 1982 Census of Agriculture. The U.S. Census Bureau defines a farm as any place from which $1,000 or more of agricultural products were sold or normally would have been sold during the census year. The number of individual or family farms in the state rose 5.7 per cent from 1978 to 1982 while the U.S. total fell 1 percent. At the same time, family farm acreage fell 5.4 percent in Texas and 4.7 percent in the U.S., notes an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Farms of one to nine acres increased 43.3 percent in Texas during the four-year period while those with 10 to 49 acres increased 47.3 percent.

Emergency Response Service Offered

The Emergency Response Service (ERS), a program operated by the Lutheran Social Service of Texas, gives elderly and disabled adults 24 hour access to emergency assistance. Help is available at the push of a button.

ERS is a system using a device connected to a telephone. By pushing the button on the main unit or the hand held unit, the person sends a signal to the Response Center, based at Contact-Lubbock. If the phone is not answered, designated friends or relatives are called on to investigate. Fire, police or ambulance services can also be called if appropriate.

A 24-hour timer, if not reset daily, sends a signal in the event a person is unconscious or unable to push the button to call for help.

The hand held button works within 200 feet of the main unit that is plugged into the telephone. Therefore, people are able to go about their daily activities and still have the security of emergency assistance without having to get to the phone.

For more information regarding ERS service contact: Susan Farrell, Lutheran Service of Texas, Panhandle/South Plains Office, 1411 19th St., Lubbock, TX 79401 or phone 806/763-7051.

Cotton Today

NCC Board Acts On Textile Imports, Strong Dollar: The National Cotton Council Board of Directors has passed resolutions on textile imports and the strong dollar. The Board is asking Congress and the Administration to take action to control the alarming growth of imports.

They also want action to bring the over-valued U.S. dollar into more reasonable balance with other currencies. Noting record-setting textile imports at an annual rate of more than 4 million bale equivalents in July, the Board supported the recent Customs Service move to prevent fraud and circumvention of textile quotas and opposed additional free trade zones outside the U.S.

Textile Imports Soar: Cotton textile imports reached an overwhelming annual rate of 4.0 million bale equivalents in July, the National Cotton Council reports. This was 56 percent above the year-ago rate and 19 percent above the previous historical high reached this past March.

Total textile imports -- which include cotton, man-made fibers and wool -- rose to 8.0 million bales, 62 percent above last July and 34 percent above the previous record high.

Textile Labeling Bill Goes to President: The U.S. Senate has passed the House version of the textile labeling/country-of-origin bill and sent it to President Reagan to be signed into law.

CHILDREN AND FARM MACHINERY--A DEADLY MIX-- Children and farm machinery make a deadly mix, says a safety engineer with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Children are often exposed to the operation of complex mechanical equipment associated with severe injury potential. They are strongly attracted to farm machinery because of playing with toy tractors and related items, and often plead for a ride on farm machinery--a definite "no, no." Children should be kept away from farm equipment and work fields and should not be allowed to ride on tractors and other machinery.

Cowboys Have New Number in Lineup

The Dallas Cowboys have a new number in their line-up this year. The new number is 4 and 1/8th per cent sales tax on the price of Cowboy tickets.

Sports tickets--along with tickets to most other entertainment and recreational events -- come under the Texas sales tax for the first time ever starting Oct. 2.

The so-called amusement sales tax is part of new tax laws signed by Gov. Mark White.

If you are going to take in a game or two this year, be ready to pay this new tax of 92 cents on a $15 Cowboy ticket.

If you are a season ticket holder, however, you are all right. The new tax law exempts individuals who, in effect, already had contracted for a season's worth of touchdowns and helmet-bashing.

The new tax is actually a part of a tax on entertainment, and all other professional sports events in Texas will fall under the tax. College games are not subject to the tax, and neither are high school athletic or entertainment events.

So, if you happen to be a basketball fan and want to see the San Antonio Spurs, the Dallas Mavericks or the Houston Rockets, you will have to pay the same tax.

That goes for baseball, too, so be ready to cough up more for the Houston Astros or the Texas Rangers. But it doesn't stop there.

Are you planning to take the kids or grandkids to the Ice Capades or the circus? The new tax will be charged on those events, too.

For more information on this new tax, call State Comptroller Bob Bullock's office at 512/475-1931 or toll free at 1-800-252-5555.

A good name is to be chosen rather than great riches, and favor is better than silver or gold. Proverbs 22:1

Owls Bury Dogs 54-0

BY DALTON WOOD
"Old Don won this game when he scheduled it last spring," a Hale Center fan laughed in the pressbox Friday night, referring to Coach Don Mullins of the Owls.

As much as that rankles, there was no rebuttal to the fact that the Hale Center team, almost all big, strong seniors, handled the visiting Tahoka Bulldogs with ease, winning 54-0.

Despite the relative hopelessness of the cause, most of Tahoka's players gave it their best effort, and still were running as hard and hitting as hard as they could late in the game, and some Bulldogs indeed did hit hard enough to be remembered.

This week Tahoka will play its first game at home, in the friendlier confines of Kelley Field, hosting Coahoma and expecting to do better. Tahoka Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a pancake supper prior to the game, 5:30 to 7:30 in the cafeteria.

Hale Center started scoring with passes, the first one going 13 yards from QB Andy Garcia to Ernest Smith, and the second one 9 yards on the same combination, after a Tahoka fumble at the Bulldog 9.

Hale Center ran it up to 34-0 at halftime with Mitch McBeth trotting in at half-speed for two TDs with nobody bothering him.

In the third period, Tahoka held HC for a couple of times on downs, but the Owls did score once, and then scored twice more in the fourth. The Owls had 424 yards on total offense, to 178 for Tahoka.

Tahoka did have some people who worked hard. Running back Johnny Morin gained 81 yards on 23 carries and also was counted in on 15 tackles from linebacker. Also making a lot of tackles were Doug Lawson, Sean Todd, Daron Norwood, Tadd Knight and Andrew Chapa.

Norwood played quarterback for the first time. Running back Jerry Alvarado gained 50 yards in 10 carries, and his 44-yard run was Tahoka's longest gain from scrimmage. Late in the game, Norwood caught a 24-yard pass from QB Randy Taylor.

The Dogs had lots of trouble keeping the ball, losing four fumbles and two interceptions.

4-H Theme Based On Strong Foundation

The old saying that a building is only as good as its foundation has a lot of merit when it comes to the 4-H program.

4-H is built on a good foundation and thus continues to be an excellent program for youth between the ages of 9 and 19, says Greg Henley, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

The program's foundation is the basis for this year's theme "4-H: Building on Experience." The theme will receive special emphasis during National 4-H Week, Oct. 7-13.

Just what does the theme, "4-H Building on Experience," mean?

4-H centers on the "learning-by-doing" process which enables each member to build a foundation for a life as a productive and contributing member of society.

4-H is based on solid educational experience: professional expertise of the state land-grant university and the U.S. Department of Agriculture, skilled volunteer leaders whose guidance paves the way to individual growth and accomplishment, active involvement of family members who share in 4-H activities, and support from business and government leaders who provide human and financial resources.

4-Hers build on their own experiences as well as on those of others in acquiring practical skills, using good health habits, developing respect for themselves and others, exploring career and leisure time opportunities, sharing responsibility for preserving the environment, developing leadership skills, and becoming involved as citizens in their community, nation and world.

4-H has a solid foundation and a proud heritage on which to build for a bright future.

Some of this heritage of 4-H will be featured at several special events planned during the national 4-H Week.

Movies Fall Under New Tax Law

The coming attraction at your local movie theater may be higher priced.

Beginning Oct. 2, admission to movie houses and to almost any entertainment event will be taxed under the new state sales tax of 4 1/8 per cent.

The Legislature passed the bill containing the new tax, and Gov. Mark White signed it into law in July.

The minimum tax starting Oct. 2 on a $5 movie admission will be 20 cents. But theatre owners in some cities with a local sales tax and special taxes for mass transit will have to collect 30 cents per $5 movie.

The same tax applies to concerts, cover charges at night clubs, dragstrips, health club memberships, horse shows, opera performances, rodeos, water slides, golf tournaments, wrestling matches and professional sporting events.

The tax may or may not be spelled out to the ticket purchaser, but a businessman in the entertainment industry will be liable for collecting the tax. He has to get it from somewhere.

And that usually is the consumer's pocket, which almost always foots tax bills.

One more thing: The state sales tax applies to popcorn and all the other goodies sold at the movies. The end.

Senior Companion Volunteers Attend Levelland Meeting

The Senior Companion Volunteers at South Plains Community Action were presented a film recently on insurance for senior citizens.

Older consumers spend billions of dollars each year on insurance for their homes, cars and medical expenses. Unfortunately, much of that money is wasted. A Federal Trade Commission study concluded that $1 billion is wasted each year on useless duplicate insurance to supplement Medicare benefits.

To help older citizens shop wisely for all types of insurance the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) has developed a consumer education program on insurance decisions titled "Policy Wise" providing basic information on life, health, home and auto coverages.

For more information about the Senior Companion Program or about the Insurance Program, call Judy Brockman, Director, at 894-6094 in Levelland.

Parents Offered Support Meetings

The Psychiatric Program of Methodist Hospital is sponsoring a parents' support group for parents who need help with their children who are hard to handle.

Molly Helminger, Tahoka Public Schools Counselor, said some parents of Tahoka students may be interested in participating.

The first meeting of the Parent Support Group will be on Tuesday, Sept. 18, at 7 p.m. in classroom 1 on the first floor of the west building of Methodist Hospital.

"The program, 'Tough Love' is an approach to discipline which helps parents regain control and a cooperative relationship with their children," Miss Helminger said. "Tough Love does not mean throwing a child out of the house. It does present a means for parents to stop blaming themselves for their child's problems, focuses some attention on their own needs and pain and provides a way for parents to regain control over their family situations."

Methodist Hospital's sponsorship consists of furnishing a meeting room on a weekly basis, and a resource person who is available to meet with the support group leaders and provide advice on publicity, community activities, and suggestions for running the meetings. No fees are charged for the meetings.

Questions concerning this program may be answered by Miss Helminger at 998-4538 or 998-4539.

Home Economics In The '80s

BY TAMERA OVERCAST

Teaching Your Teenager To Manage Money

The beginning of the school year is a time when many teenagers start re-negotiating their allowances with their parents. For many families that means arguments about what it costs to "keep up" with the other kids, or what chores merit and increased allowance.

But the question of allowances for teenagers is not simply a matter of money. It is a matter of the money management skills they'll need as adults.

Extension specialists who work in the area of family financial management suggest the following as good general practices for handling teenagers' allowances so they'll learn money management skills:

- *An allowance should meet the teenager's actual needs and if your budget allows, also provide for a few personal desires, some money to share and some to save.

- *Involve your children in determining their allowance needs by using a simple budget plan which includes both fixed and variable expenses, income sources and savings.

- *Give teenagers the opportunity to earn some of their money, but you should not give them financial rewards for good behavior, grades or routine family chores. Your children's co-operation should not be put on a cash basis. However, you can work out a business arrangement so that they can earn some money by doing extra household work.

- *Don't replace "lost" money your teenager intended for personal spending. If your children must borrow money from you, let them borrow against their allowances. This will teach them that it costs extra money to borrow and that the amount borrowed (plus interest) must be paid from future allowances.

- *As teenagers increase their earnings from jobs outside the home, it may become appropriate to adjust or discontinue allowances, depending upon their needs.

- *Encourage your teen to save for long-range goals like Christmas gifts, big purchases, travel and college expenses. Encourage them to save first, not last, and to do so on a regular basis.

- *Help your teenager open a savings or checking account and learn the kinds, costs, purposes and limits of credit.

Area Citizens Tour World's Fair

Forty-five people from Tahoka, Post, O'Donnell, Brownfield, Ruidoso, N.M., Brady, Slaton and Lubbock attended the World's Fair in New Orleans on a chartered bus tour sponsored by Ruby Grogan of Tahoka. The bus was driven by J.B. Thames of Lubbock. The group left Monday, Sept. 10.

Tuesday they visited Jackson Square and the French Quarter for shopping and rode a steamboat down the Mississippi River. Wednesday they attended the World's Fair where they rode the monorail, attended the Aquacade, with synchronized water ballet, saw a show featuring folk dancers of Mexico, visited the Jazz and Gospel tent which featured New Orleans and international jazz.

They also visited the United States pavilion which displayed a replica of the space shuttle Enterprise, an offshore oil rig and the Wonder Wall, which highlights shapes and forms of architecture from all periods. They also saw fireworks from a barge anchored in the Mississippi River.

Thursday was spent on a three-hour tour of the city of New Orleans, lunch of seafood, a tour of the Superdome and shopping in the French Quarter and visiting Bourbon Street.

Friday the group visited the Nottoway Plantation, the largest in the South, which was built in the 1800s and still had some of the original furniture. After the tour of the plantation they drove to Longview where they spent the night.

They arrived in Tahoka around 5:30 p.m. Saturday. Everyone was tired but were ready for another trip next year.

After-Game Fellowship At FBC Slated

Immediately following the Tahoka-Coahoma football game this Friday, Sept. 21, there will be a Fifth Quarter fellowship in the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church for all high school and junior high students. Homemade ice cream will be served and the comedy film "Gus" will be shown.

Gus is a field goal kicking mule who comes to the aid of the California Atoms, a professional football team. The film will be over around 12:30 a.m.

All high school and junior high students are invited to attend.

Pat Green Receives Award

Pat Green of Tahoka has been named a recipient of the prestigious National Sales Achievement Award by the National Assn. of Life Underwriters.

Green, manager of the Lynn-Garza County Farm Bureau, representing the Texas Farm Bureau Insurance Companies, has qualified for this award for two years.

The NSAA award was established in 1966 and is presented annually. This honor recognizes successful life insurance underwriter members who provide insurance protection for their clientele. Green services the farming community of his county with insurance oriented toward their needs.

PARENTS SET VALUE OF SCHOOL WORK FOR CHILDREN: Schools are not alone in teaching children. Parents have the responsibility to aid and assist their children. "Making sure that school work is regarded as important is one of the main ways parents can assist their children," says home economist Diane Welch. "Ask about school work," she says. "Listen to what the youngsters say, and respond with attention and care to what the youngsters are working on. That kind of support is probably the best a parent can do for youngsters at all grades in school."
