Schools Designate Registering Places for Sugar Ration Cards

But Date Left Open For Later Announcement

Although the date for registering for War Rationing Book No. one has not been set, but it is to be announced later, the Floyd county school system is getting ready for the job which has been assigned it of registering all applicants.

First announcement in connection with the registration was issued this week by County Superintendent Clarence Guffee, under whose general supervision the registration will be made.

All civilians will be required to make application for War Rationing Book One at the public elementary school nearest the applicant's residence in the county in which he resides," says Mr. Guffee. "Where no school is being held in the local district they will register in the following places:

Persons living in the Fairmount district will register at the Edgin school.

Persons living in the Antelope district will register at Dougherty school.

Persons living in the Ramsey district will register at the Lockney Grammar school building.

Persons living in Pleasant Hill will register at Lakeview.

Registration for both white and colored folk will occur on the designated dates at the same places of registration. Other registration places will be as follows: Andrews Ward school, Floydada; Grammar school, Lockney; Rick, Pleasant Valley, Muncy, Fairview, Starkey, Aiken, South Plains, Sand Hill, Harmony, Lakeview, Center, Lone Star, Cedar Hill, McCoy, Dougherty, Baker, Providence, Blanco, Allmon, Liberty, Prairie Chapel, Campbell, Hillcrest, Edgin, and Sterley will all register in their respective schools.

Wholesale and retail merchants are to get their cards at the high schools. It is imperative that every one register on the set dates as not only the sugar rationing will be determined by these cards but also other war rationing commodities, should there be others.

Registrants must know the following things: 1. Number of pounds of brown and white sugar on hand.

2. Your height, weight, color of hair, eyes, and age of each member of the family.

3. License Plates Issued About Usual Ratio

Floyd county motor vehicle owners are buying their license plates at "about the usual rate," Tax Assessor and Collector Geo. B. Marshall said this week. Tuesday 325 passenger car plates, 72 farm plates and 18 commercial plates had been issued.

An auxiliary office at the Beacon office in Lockney was opened Monday of this week with Mrs. Pauline Gilbert in charge as deputy. This office will be maintained until April 1, deadline for buying plates for cars that have been in operation on the highways since January 1.

Lyndale Farm Imports Bull From Canada

Lyndale farm has a new bull for their herd, which they will use this year with a part of their cows and expect within a year or so to put at the head of their herd of milking short horns.

The bull is 14 months old at this time. He comes from the D. Z. Gibson & Sons Hillview farm herd at Caledonia, Ontario, a noted milking short horn breeding farm.

The new animal is named on his official papers, that took him through the U. S. customs office on the Canadian border. Hillview Liberator.

With war conditions and regulations on, much arranging had to be done and red tape protective measures taken before the animal could pass inspection and proceed to his new Texas home.

"We are not discarding our three-year-old bull at this time," said Geo. B. McCallister, manager of the farm, and with V. Williams, owner of the herd. "He is everything we expected of him and has some wonderful calves, a few of which will come into production sometime this year. But we decided to obtain the new calf when opportunity presented." The newest addition to the herd at Lyndale farm is a deep red animal. He probably will not be shown this spring due to the fact that the long trip from the north took off some of his flesh and left him hardly in condition for the show ring. He is becoming acclimated and adjusted to his new surroundings rapidly, said Mr. McCallister.

Career Ended

End of a long career as farmer-stockman and minister came for J. J. Day, Floyd county pioneer, late Monday. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Murray at the age of 82 after a prolonged illness.

J. J. Day Dies; Funeral Tues. Afternoon

Death that came late Monday afternoon to J. J. Day, 82 struck another name from the thinning roll of living men and women who pioneered in Floyd county before its establishment now nearly 52 years ago.

The pioneer farmer-stockman and minister succumbed at the home of his daughter, Mrs. O. E. Murray, two miles north of Floydada after an illness of two years.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday afternoon at the Wall street Church of Christ where Elder H. Hall, of Ralls, was assisted by Elder J. T. Corder of Tulsa. Harmon funeral home had charge of the funeral and interment made in Floydada cemetery. Tribute to his memory as a useful citizen was paid by many old-time friends who attended. J. T. Carter, Tom W. Deen, J. B. Jenkins, Roy L. Snodgrass, Homer Steen and W. L. Fry served as pallbearers.

Came Here In 1887

Elder Day came to Floyd county as a young man in 1887 and settled on land near where Starkey school house now stands. There he and his wife, whom he married as Mattie Florence Starkey, made their home and reared a family of three sons and three daughters. They retired from active farm operations in 1917, and made their home in Floydada.

Mrs. Day died 12 years almost to the day prior to the death of her husband.

The surviving children, all of whom were here for the last rites are three daughters, Mrs. C. S. Jones, Amarillo, Mrs. J. W. Howard, Jr., Pueblo, Colorado, and Mrs. O. E. Murray, Floydada, and three sons, W. M. Day of Ralls, Joe M. Day of Long Beach, California, and R. Chester Day of Houston.

A brother, John Day, of Farmington, New Mexico, and a twin sister, Mrs. Arthur B. Duncan, city, also survive the deceased.

J. J. Day was born on February 4, 1860, in Montague county. Later he moved to Mason county and there it was he was married in 1884, moving here three years later. He was one of the slightly more than 100 qualified voters who cast a ballot establishing Floyd county as a political subdivision of the State of Texas.

In the ministry of the gospel Elder Day's record dates back to 1893, when he first began preaching. Among the numerous civic duties which he performed in the early days was to serve as postmaster at Starkey where his home was the postoffice and settlers came for their mail.

Lumber Co. Building With Brick, Tile

Replacement and improvement of sheds, warehousing facilities and office quarters for the Higginbotham-Bartlett company plant on south Wall street began last week are expected to require some time to complete, but when finished will make the establishment one of the most modern building supply yards in this area. Included in the plan are:

Razing the north sheds to be replaced with a 30-foot by 150-foot brick and tile office and warehouse; Razing the center office and warehouse structure and replacing it with a lumber shed 36 feet by 80 feet in size; and the razing of sheds and warehouses on the rear of the lot.

The change, it is anticipated, will relieve a most serious fire hazard and make the plant more modern and convenient.

A portion of the sheds being torn down have been in place more than 30 years, built there prior to 1910 by the West Plains Lumber company, first occupants of the premises.

Ernest Fowler, manager of the business, said this week that the change would be effected as rapidly as possible. However at that, some weeks will elapse before the job is complete.

The first job undertaken was tearing down the north sheds adjacent to the alley, and materials are being put on the ground for the brick and tile building that will take its place. Following that the improvements to be made in the center and west part of the yard will be undertaken. Business will be continued as usual while improvements are under way. Mr. Fowler said.

Flying Field Converted Into Emergency Port

What was the Floydada Flying field for more than a year in northwest Floydada Friday of last week was converted into licensed emergency landing field under city and county ownership, when its status was recognized by an inspector for the Army Air corps.

Inspection of the field, the naming of officials and guards and the swearing in of all persons in anywise connected with its operation was completed in a day replete with activity. Saturday Floydada Flying club had authority to return the plane to the home port after it had been in storage at Lubbock for nearly two weeks. Their plane was put into use in training flights for Dale Strickland, soon to be inducted into military service.

Members of the Floydada Flying club, who originally owned the lease on which the port is situated, assigned their lease with no cost to the city and county before its recognition by the air corps. The club became apparent to the field when it became apparent that the club would make recognition for a licensing port here difficult, probably impossible, although their expenditure on the property has run into the hundreds of dollars.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Jetton have taken up residence at the airport and have been sworn in as officials and guards. Three planes in addition to the Floydada plane, had been checked in and out up to Monday afternoon.

Of the monthly expense now foreseen at approximately $75 city and county each are pledged to pay $25. Operations at the port are expected to care for the remaining expense and if not what is lacking will be cared for by the Floydada Flying club, its members told city and county authorities last week.

Floydada Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning voted $100 to the flying club as an aid-in-sustaining funds to its members. Members of this club are likewise members of the Civil Air patrol and are subject to orders of the area air corps command.

Yesterday plans, which had been in the making for the formation of another local flying club when war interrupted, had not developed into a stage where any announcement could be made.

Strickland Passes Tests

Dale Strickland, one of the members of Floydada Flying club, yesterday completed final written and flying tests for an instructor's rating, the second flyer with an instructor's rating to be "graduated" from the local field. Milton Sims, now stationed at Vernon, who was the first instructor to get his wings from the Floydada club, spent Sunday here giving Strickland his finishing practice flights for final tests taken by Strickland Wednesday morning.

W. C. Baggett Killed Feb. 4 In Hawaii

Staff Sgt. W. C. Baggett, a Floyd county youth, who has been in the air service for four years and stationed at air bases in Hawaii all of that time was crushed and killed on February 4, when a landing bomber hit him. He was readying a machine for the air at the time.

He was a member of the 44th Pursuit squadron.

Relatives in this county, including his grandfather J. W. Baggett and aunt, Mrs. Delbert Bybee, of Lockney, had been notified of the young man's death in February. However, conflicting news including a letter dated after February 4, indicated at the time there might be an error. Later formal notice to the boy's mother, Mrs. Leona Baggett, of Compton, confirmed the death and details were given in later information.

Bill Baggett was born September 29, 1917, at Lockney. A brother, Robert E. Baggett, is in the submarine division of the U. S. navy. The boys grew up at Compton, where they attended the public schools including Compton Junior college.

The accident occurred at Wheeler Air field near Honolulu.

Pioneer Meeting Called For Sat., March 28

With numerous conflicting meetings and engagements in the way the committee of pioneers who met Saturday to plan for the pioneer annual re-union, decided not to go through with the meeting, but to postpone the meeting to Saturday, March 28.

President G. L. Snodgrass announced the meeting will be held at 2 o'clock war time at the county court room. Some 10 members of the committee were present last Saturday.

Some talk is being heard in favor of passing the re-union up this year due to war conditions. "We'd like to know what the old-timers think of this before we decide one way or another," Mr. Snodgrass said. Those who are interested should contact either the president, Mrs. Maud Hollums, secretary, or some other member of the executive committee.

Mrs. Hollums was among those who expressed themselves as believing the re-union should be held as usual, probably with less expense and on a less elaborate scale than last year. Her belief is, however, that the meeting would have a beneficial effect on morale, while failure to hold the meeting would have an adverse effect. Argument against the meeting is that the rationing is beginning to be felt and that much of the effort and funds of the people of the county is now being put into the war effort.

Dr. Earle Norman Former Floyd Boy On Trip To India

Dr. Earle Norman of San Antonio a former resident of Floydada has recently received his commission as major in the U. S. Army and is now on an airplane trip to East India. He is to assist in mapping out landing fields for soldiers who will be engaged in the foreign battles, according to information given out by his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Norman of Ralls.

Dr. Norman was graduated from Floydada High school with the class of 1920 with highest honors. Later he received his M. D. degree from Baylor Medical school of Dallas.

He has a wife and daughter Vallie and son Teddie who reside at San Antonio.

Draft Board Awaits Receipt Of Master List To Determine Order Of Feb. Registrants

Menard Oscar Field, South Plains oil distributor and farm operator, holds order number one in Floyd county's February 16 draft. His number—441—was the first drawn in Washington that came in the range of the Floyd county list.

This according to news dispatches telling of the big lottery in Washington Tuesday afternoon and night when 7,000 numbers were drawn from the big fish bowl by the war department.

Floyd County Local board yesterday said the master list to be received by them in a few days will be used to determine the order numbers in this county and there is no way of knowing temporarily what position or order number a registrant in this county holds.

When the master list is applied to the local total of 580 registrants the list here will be completed and the lists will be made available to the press and will be posted.

"Until we get the master list and get our registrants' order numbers determined there is no way of determining where a man stands in the draft," said O. P. Rutledge, secretary of the board, yesterday. All speed possible will be made but for the present the job is one of waiting, he said.

Many registrants in the February drafts who do not know their registration numbers and would like to have this information can get it from lists posted at the postoffice yesterday.

Pressure Grows For Tire And Tube Certificates As Board Besieged By Applicants

Pressure for automobile, trailer, truck and tractor tires from Floyd county operators this week continued to grow as the pinch of demand becomes more urgent and spring work of various kinds on the farms increased.

At their Monday session the Rationing board was besieged by applicants seeking various and sundry tires and tubes to keep their rubber-traction machinery going.

No Sugar Developments

There were no new developments in the sugar rationing program, which the same board is charged with administering. It has become apparent that the rationing planned to begin in March may not get started until a later date. Meanwhile approximately the same results are being obtained through voluntary abstinence in this area, grocers indicate. Demand for sugar has been greatly lessened, they say. What has slowed down the general plan for rationing of sugar is not known in local business circles.

Certificates issued by the local rationing board, authorizing purchase of tires and tubes, for the week ending March 9, 1942 are:

Thomas Elwood Assiter, two tractor tires, Raymond Anderson, one obsolete tube, Jacob Clyde Bramlet, two tractor tires, two tractor tires, Albert Ray Bloxom, two tractor tires, J. R. Called To Arms

L. W. Chapman, superintendent of Floyd County Rural Electric co-operative since its organization in September, 1938, yesterday left for extended active duty in the army. After final examination at Camp Barkley, Texas, he has orders to proceed to Aberdeen Proving Grounds, Maryland, for assignment in the ordnance department.

Selection Made Tentatively To Chapman Post

Selection of a successor to L. W. Chapman as superintendent of the Floyd County Rural Electric co-operative was tentatively made by the directors of the organization in their called session here Saturday, but for the present no announcement will be forthcoming regarding the matter. A. H. Kreis, chairman of the board said Saturday.

The nomination of the directors awaits confirmation by the national office of Rural Electric administration.

Meanwhile, Melvin Henry, system lineman for the Floyd county organization was named to serve in capacity of superintendent until the selection is completed and confirmed.

Selection of a successor to Chapman was made necessary by his resignation to take up duties in the armed forces, in which he had held a reserve commission since 1933. Mr. Chapman left Floydada Wednesday morning for Camp Barkeley, and later goes to the Aberdeen Proving grounds in Maryland for assignment in the ordnance department.

Early Floyd Pioneer Passed Away Feb. 1 At Los Angeles

Mrs. H. M. Hart, pioneer of Floyd county died February 1 at Los Angeles, California at the age of 93 years. Word of her death reached her niece, Mrs. Lynn Fawcett this week. Mrs. Hart had been in declining health the past four years.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart came to Floyd county from Abilene in 1898. They settled in what is now the Baker community and made their home there until 1915 when they moved to Los Angeles. Mr. Hart preceded his wife in death ten years. Their only child, Roy Hart, was also buried in 1932 in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart were outstanding workers in the First Christian church and were among the charter members of the local Christian church. The deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. Sarah Jones of Los Angeles. She had two nephews also residing in that city.

Dirt Moves Fast On Road Project To So. Plains

Dirt was really moving Tuesday and Wednesday of this week on road construction work toward South Plains on Highway 207.

Trucks are hauling caliche from a pit a mile north and three miles east of South Plains. Sixteen trucks were being run to keep a shovel busy yesterday. A small crusher is being put on the job to crush the caliche for the base.

Resident Engineer R. T. Roane of the Highway department, estimated yesterday it would be sometime in May before the contractor, Plains Construction company, gets on the job of hard surfacing north of South Plains. The contractor is on a job in Castro county at this time.

Air Raid Warden Says Be Ready For Blackout

V. L. Elliott, named early in this month as air raid warden for Floyd county, this week said he has been warned the county must be made ready for a blackout sometime soon, a blackout that he has been notified will be an area-wide dousing of night lights.

The test, and it is presumed to be only a test, will come at a time decided upon by military authorities and there will be no previous warning of it.

Floydada, Lockney, Sterley, South Plains and Dougherty will be darkened for the period, and cities and towns in 11 other counties will be blacked out at the same time.

Meanwhile defense councils must be organized in every community, air raid wardens for every two blocks must be named for Floydada and Lockney, business houses must arrange for outside night switches on stores where lights are maintained throughout the nights. Elliott did not indicate when the block wardens would be named.

Don't Buy Lot of Stuff

"In preparation for blackouts the average citizen is advised not to go buy a lot of stuff for blacking out his own home," said Mr. Elliott. "Use heavy blankets on the opening of the room or rooms that are to be kept lighted, stay indoors, park cars and leave keys in them."

In addition to the air raid wardens, volunteer fire watchers will be named to be on duty during the alarm.

Wednesday Warden Elliott and Sheriff Fred N. Clark were due to visit all towns in the county and confer with citizens and officials and get an organization perfected in each community.

When the air raid alarm is ready to be attempted Elliott gets the first flash, has the alarm sounded. All persons having charge of water-works, gas works, light plants report immediately to their offices, citizens see that no lights are showing on their premises, and block wardens and volunteer fire watches take their stations.

No First Aid Instructors

There are no first aid instructors who will be available for the school of first aid in Floydada, Elliott said this week. "And we will have to do the best we can instructing our volunteers." Two classes have volunteered for the instruction during late February and early March and have been awaiting notice of the instruction school.

When a defense council will be named and the local organization set to work perfecting the air raid defense plans was not indicated this week. It will have to be at an early date, however, if a blackout is imminent.

FIFTH STATE AVAILABLE FUND RECEIVED BY COUNTY SCHOOL SPT.

A $2 apportionment on March 10, marked the fifth payment received in state available funds for Floyd county schools. This brings the total for the year to $14 per capita received from the state.

A balance of $8.50 on the $22.50 apportionment, is yet to be paid, Clarence Guffee, county superintendent said.

3 Cousins Troop Through Floyd County Homes

Measles, scarlet fever and roseola—those three cruel, unbidden cousins have been making the rounds of homes in the community with increasing vigor during February and March, climaxing their activities the past week by sweeping the country in a near epidemic among the teenage and younger population, so the doctors say.

Along with them troop a minor contingent of chicken pox and whooping cough, and there is even an occasional report of diphtheria.

As a result scholastic work is being interrupted in many schools, with Floydada ward school prominent among them, and many youngsters are having their play and study halted while they spend weary days wrestling with the invading germs.

Pneumonia Patient 'Stobbed'

In addition to these there are still a few reports of influenza and pneumonia, a case of the latter being discovered by one physician this week when he was called to stop the flow of blood and dress a wound on a negro woman who had been "stobbed." The woman was spitting up blood and thought the knife that made the wound had penetrated the "holer."

Sewing up the more or less superficial injury the physician started treatment for the lung ailment, which had progressed into the fourth or fifth day stage. The negroess realized she had been "feeling mighty bad," but didn't know how bad. "Stobber," according to the story the physician got, had tried to stage a holdup, but was unsuccessful.

Floyd county drivers' license numbers all come above 900,000 and the time is approaching when Floyd county drivers can obtain renewals from the State Highway department (formerly it was the State Department of Safety). Your present driver's license is good to June 1, when it becomes obsolete and a new license is required to meet the requirements of the driver's license law in Texas.

Farmers report that land is plowing as good as it has in many a year, but there are many fields where bundles are yet to be moved and these present a problem to the man who thinks he has stacked all he will require for his own needs and cannot find a profitable market for the surplus. In a few cases the operators are burning cane in the shocks, although we have not heard of burning any of the other forage feeds. Have been years in this country when cane bundles could not have been too plentiful, and such years may come again. If you have a place to stack the bundles and a way of stacking them would it pay to stretch around the expense? We mean would it pay as a matter of security against this fall or next fall? A few years ago cotton farmers in this country plowed up half-bale cotton in the spring so they could plant another crop and remembered the one with regret that they turned under.

A few tractors are idle in the fields until the operators can get tires. Unless some change in the requirements of the Office of Production management are made this kind of news is going to become more frequent. How totally this part of the farming world has been put on roller bearings and rubber can only be realized until the shortage of either or both arrives. Of the nearly 2,000 farms in Floyd county less than a hundred are operated with teams and not many more than that number have machinery on steel wheels. We won't say that Floyd county farmers can't make a crop without rubber tires, as that might be admitting the Japanese have got us whipped before we begin. But we will say it is going to take some arranging and some ingenuity to get the job done should the OPA set steady on the proposition that there'll be no more tires than we are getting now for the farmers to operate with.

Too much good metal has been and is leaving Floyd county in the form of junk. We may be wrong but we hate to see the angle iron that is so desirable for construction of everything from trailers to cellars leaving the country at whatever a pound it is going at. Also there is many a hub and axle and various kinds of things that are not really junk going into the junk pile. The way the metal is going to town now is not a patching to what would happen if the junk business were well-enough established to command all the money that could be used. The government order when it says junk means junk. It does not mean shipping out materials we'll be wishing we had if the war stays on a few years. The junk man, of course, pays what his schedule calls for in pounds. If a part costs $8 to replace on your farm and you offer it for four cents he can't help that. Remember, we are warned we are in for a long, hard fight and the Japanese and Nazis are proving it to us every day. Don't sell your junk, iron or steel you'd give your neck to have in a year or two and possibly can't buy back from your dealer at any price.

This matter of going to war is a personal problem for every man who faces the duty of serving in the military establishment of his country. For one to say that every man should look alike and that every man should consider it his duty to fight for his country is trite. We all say it and mean it. But it is abstract. One morning you get your notice. Your turn has come. You are to lay down whatever business affairs you may have, you must cut loose from the ties, sentimental and economic, that may bind you. And take an assignment that may or may not be distasteful. They tell us that it turns out to be a considerable job. There are a lot of things that all have considered in the light of some of these days. But when "The Day" is set it takes some fast work to be ready, even if you are traveling through the world with light luggage as it were. When there are considerable things to do, a number of contracts that must be terminated, some hostages to the gods that must be given up, then the going does get tough. Individual problems, after all, are the biggest problems in the world.

The tire shortage has cut down the speed of the average American car 20 miles an hour, but people continue to use their cars. The percentage who have put their cars in the sheds to be used only on essential drives is negligible. Belief generally is that tires will last just about as long being used reasonably as they will setting up in a garage. This is probably the approximate fact, tire men tell us. A good many people are reasoning to themselves that what mileage there is in the tires on the family bus might as well be used up. When the tires are through the driving will all be taken up. And so you still see people driving for relaxation, for pleasure. We really don't fall out with them for so doing. Better take now what can be had. And we have imagined that if the tire situation is actually like we are told it is and there comes the last mile for the last set of tires in Floyd county the last block will be around the square, just the last man and his family out for a bit of fresh air for the last time.

Farmers of Floyd county ought to be proud of one thing. After 29 years the treasury department of the United States has come around to the point of making out an income tax return form that is fitted to a farmer's way of keeping books and according to common sense. Making an income tax report form that will fit all the people in all walks of life was the first effort. The income tax blank making folks in Washington are office people with Ph D and CP and things like that attached. These appendages keep them weighed down. Which accounts for the long years of struggle before simplification took place. An accountant is a man who goes a long way around to find the answer, and when you put him in civil service he doubles around once more for good measure.

As A Farm Woman Thinks

By Nellie Witt Spikes

Yesterday, Sunday, was such a warm pleasant day. A few peach blossoms slipped out of the green covering, the willow limbs sprouted a fuzzy green. I began to hunt poetry of spring to quote in this column. For example, "When brooks are laughing, winds are whispering," when all of a sudden there was such a blustering outside we thought of bombings as the electric lights blacked out. "Is it raining?" my husband asked. "No, indeed," I answered as the house filled with sand as if a giant blower had turned inside the house. "Just another sand storm with all the trimmings." And I closed my book of poetry and went to bed to dread another housecleaning.

Praise to the Mexican people for giving the delicious hot tamales to the world. When I was a child, my brother and I would wait at the gate in Weatherford for the coming of the hot tamale man. How we have always loved the warm tamales and I have learned how to make them. "Purt nigh" as good as the Mexicans. The other day I took a quart of canned ground chicken, added several spoons of chili powders, (we like them hot,) then made a skillet of corn meal mush, adding a spoon of chili powders and some ground comina seed and a table spoon of fried meat grease as the mush cooked. Clean corn shucks were softened in hot water. On each shuck I spread some two or three inches of mush then put the seasoned chicken on top, rolled the shuck up and placed it in a pan to be steamed or pressured as one likes. Pressure about thirty minutes with ten pounds pressure, or steam over hot water for a couple of hours. No need to tell you what to do next, unless it is to throw away the empty shucks. One can use waxed paper, but somehow the shucks seem to give added flavor.

My daughter, Wilma has a bed she is very proud of. She made the head out of soft pine lumber and will give it a coat of clear shellac. The mattress she made out of home grown cotton by the government standard. Her quilts were pieced from scraps of dresses, lined with home grown cotton and quilted by her own hands. The blankets are from her own sheep's wool and she has a lovely quilted comfort of wool the wool grown and washed at home.

I have two cousins with McArthur. One is the grandson of Frank Jones who many will remember as a well driller of early days. The other is the son of George Jones who died some years ago at Tatum, New Mexico. Every printed line and broadcast about Bataan Peninsula news is eagerly scanned and listened to. Brave men and boys, so far away from home and loved ones, defending the freedom their forefathers won in such a hard way. Our prayers go out across the perilous sea to all of Uncle Sam's brave boys.

Just as the yellow jonquills were making sunshiny rays across the green grass under the big old oak trees of Tennessee, my friend, Mrs. Holeman of Memphis departed for the better world where the gold of her jonquills and the gold of her heart will make heaven a sweeter place for her friends to want to go. Her life was like the yellow jonquills she loved and tended so well. Laughing and gay, giving pleasure to all she knew. A kind understanding mother to her bunch of fine looking boys, a good wife to the husband who had passed on before. Called away in a few minutes after spring, may her boys and friends be comforted by their dancing beauty and the memory of the sweet mother who loved them.

Well, well, just as I had begun to remember to say something, "She was operated," instead of she was operated on," Frank Colby in the Star-Telegram says the old form is correct. He says you might operate a car, but hardly a person.

This morning, Monday, there was nothing in my way to getting this column out early and not have to rush the last minute to get it in the mail. The work was done early, it was too windy to get out of doors to work. So I thought, But on the farm the unexpected always happens. Last night a gate was blown open, and of course the horses found it. We had to spend an hour or so looking for them and here I am, the lightbread needing to be made into loaves and buns, a cobbler to be baked, trying to get this in the mail in time.

If the farmer and his wife do not know their part in national defense it is because they have eyes to see and do not see and have ears to hear, but do not hear. For the material fills the columns of the papers and pours out over the radio. Wonder how the farmers ever did their part in the days before the printed page and the voice of the radio?

"I did not know you could sing," Tom Reed laughed and told me after the Presiding elder had called me up to help him with my alto. "Neither did I," I told him. "You were not any more surprised than I." I suppose the elder heard my loud singing above all the others and just had to pay some attention to it. Brother Lipscomb preached a fine sermon Sunday, warning us that if Christ was not divine, our world as we know it is lost. "Take away the divinity of Christ," he warned, "and you take away your Bible, your hope of heaven." If you never have eaten dinner on the ground at a Methodist conference you have missed something. Every woman baker and takes her special dishes. The preachers are joked about always eating so much. A friendly spirit is very much in evidence as one goes from one good eat to another, filling his plate so full that he tries to get away and hide to eat it. Yesterday was no exception of the rule at conference and several will sigh today at dinner in remembrance of the good things of yesterday.

A prize will be given to the one having the prettiest flower bed grown from these seed and then a prize will be given to the one making the prettiest cut flower arrangement from the same flower bed.

KENNETH MICKEY TRAINING FOR MERCHANT MARINE AT FLORIDA PORT

Kenneth Mickey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mickey, is on a merchant marine training ship in Gulf waters with headquarters in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Word received from the lad by his parents the first of the week, was from Tampa, Florida, where his ship had put into port. In the service since early February he has not had enough experience, he wrote his family, to know whether he is going to like what he is doing.

At this time the merchant marine, especially in coastwise shipping, is seeing the hottest kind of duty. It requires from four to six months to train a youth for an assignment in the service.

Insomnia Ended; Hoyt's Brings Aid Texas Lady Says

Texas Resident Says Her Nervous Indigestion, Kidney Distress, Insomnia and Pains in Hips and Legs Relieved By Hoyt's.

Mrs. Mary Rhodes of 1005 South Buchanan Street, Amarillo, says: "I suffered constantly from nervous indigestion, my heart would flutter, and almost pound out. My kidneys bothered me and I could not sleep at night. After eating I had bloating and belching spells. Pains in my hips and legs kept me awake at night.

"Hoyt's immediately reached the source of my trouble. I can now sleep and my kidneys are improved. My nerves are quiet and I feel better in every way. Hoyt's has done wonders for me."

Hoyt's Compound is recommended and sold by the Bishop Drug Store and by all druggists in this area.

WE'RE all IN THE ARMY NOW!

★ The quiet, but determined way in which America's middle-aged manhood recently registered for wartime service, proves that our peace-loving homelands have not become "too soft to fight," or to make sacrifices for their country.

We realize what it will mean for many of our more mature citizens if they have to give up their positions, or businesses, to serve in this national crisis.

Yet their spirit is shared by all of us. One and all we will be proud and glad to do anything that may be asked of us to hasten the hour of victory.

Porcupine Is New Find In Floyd

Newest find in Floyd county of wild animal species is a porcupine, located in a cane field near Sand Hill on the Brown place last mid-week.

R. O. Williams and Lee Pope found the quilled quadruped and got him into captivity without getting any of the quills stuck in them. The porcupine must be the grandfather of most of the porcupines in the mountains of New Mexico. He is larger than the average and is evidently aged.

The finders did not venture a guess whether the porcupine had escaped from some traveler or had wandered from his natural habitat in search of greener pastures.

LEAVE THE SPRING RUSH BEHIND!

We can make your tractor perform like new — whether you need a complete overhaul job or a few new parts. But there are TWO things to keep in mind:

1. See us now — you don't want to lose valuable time after the spring rush starts.
2. Steel and iron are available only on a priority basis. By placing your order now, you enable us to better anticipate the need for parts and replacements.

So wouldn't it be wise to see us about fixing up your tractor IMMEDIATELY? You'll avoid the danger of costly spring stops. You'll be aiding defense by getting your parts early. Then too, we can assure you of better service while we still have plenty of parts — NOW!

NEW LIFE FOR OLD TRACTORS

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL

CURDS thickening up milk don't half give you a picture of the blobs of muck that can foul your oil—and your engine. For muck and "stickum" from oil that fails under present-day strain can't improve lubrication, nor add to safe mileage per quart. But now that you must change oil for Spring—really a law in every Car Instruction Book—you can easily switch to Conoco Nth motor oil. And in patented Conoco Nth oil you get Thialkene inhibitor... man-made... the modern synthetic invented to restrain stickiness—sluggishness—"simmering down thick."

Conoco Nth gets every chance to stay smoothly fluid; full of life. And still another great Conoco synthetic—same as ever—makes Conoco Nth give you an OIL-PLATED engine, with lubricant "plated" you'd say—or seemingly "magnetized"—direct to inner engine parts. Then OIL-PLATING isn't all draining down fast during parking—or even overnight. Instead, OIL-PLATING can stay up high, to help out your engine at every start, before any oil-pump raises up its full stream.

That's how to foil a lot of wear, and not have your engine soon over-eating oil.

Talk about a strict economy diet! ... Down in Death Valley's record high heat, battling five other big-name oils—impartially—this same Conoco Nth oil was still up above half when all others tested had burned up their engines and their full 5-quart fills!

That's a certified sample. It makes you realize why you can change to Conoco Nth and keep away from adding quart after quart. Get rid of hazardous Winter oil now, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Get economy to the Nth degree. Continental Oil Company

The death of Colonel John A. Gillies of Amarillo, brother of Mrs. Jeff D. Ayres of Floydada, who has been serving as head of the United States Military Mission in Iran, has been reported by the United Press, also the Associated Press. However, according to Mrs. Ayres, this information has not been confirmed by the war department.

Tuesday of last week Col. Gillies, who resides in Amarillo, received a message from the war department stating that Colonel Gillies had been missing since February 28. No further word has been received this week.

The London News Chronicle reported in a dispatch from Bombay that Col. Gillies had been killed in a plane crash north of Basra, Iraq. Poet's Corner

(Edited by Mary D. Waters, Lorenzo Texas)

I was happy indeed, to learn that Flora Smith Dean had been awarded $25.00 first prize for having the best poem to appear in the new Naylor Book "Southwestern Anthology of Verse." The poem "Old Freight Trains" will also appear in the January issue of "Epic-Century Magazine." A number of our regular contributors have poems in this new book. Congratulations to Flora Smith Dean for the distinctive honor she has won, and may she continue to achieve ultimate success in the wish of her daughter, Mary Dean Waters.

I TRUST HIM TO GUIDE ME

When I have lived thru' the morning Of this life's changing day,
And reach high noon's achievement Along my earthly way
Then if my eyes see beauty And my heart doth hold no guile,
And if my path be rough or smooth, I trust Him all the while.

And with heart uplifted Above the earthly clod;
With joy and deep thanksgiving, I can feel the Love of God
I shall not dread the evening As it lengthens into night
But I shall rest contented When I set my house aright;

For He who led me safely Along Life's changing way,
I know He will not fail me At the close of Life's short day.
And when at last my eyes are closed He will not fail me then,
But o'er my sleeping, watch, until A new Day shall begin!

—Flora Smith Dean.

PARTING OF THE WAYS

Some day, dear friend, the parting of our ways will come:
No longer loving smile will flash from eye to eye;
Some day, no longer pleasure, pain, or grief, we'll share;
No longer sympathetic sigh will answer sigh.

Some day we'll hear the Master's summons: "Come to Me."
We'll give a farewell handclasp, and a wistful smile;
Some day the parting of our Ways will come, dear One,
And broken hearted we'll be parted for awhile.

But what's a day compared to all Eternity?
The inhibitions of this life shall not be known,
And free, untrammelled in that Universe of Love,
Each spirit there will meet and know and claim its own.

Decline In Church Attendance Due To Illnesses

(Rev. L. A. Doyle, Pastor)

An epidemic of colds, measles, whooping cough and scarlet fever coupled with the change in time have ruined our attendance record for the month. We hope that the sickness will subside and that people will get used to the new time and we can soon reach a high attendance goal. These things cannot be helped and should not be an occasion for alarm or pessimism.

We are sure that every one will do his best to get our Sunday school attendance back past three hundred and our B. T. U. back to the hundred mark for Sunday.

The sermon subject for Sunday morning is, "How Do I Know That I Am A Christian?" We hope that every member who possibly can will come Sunday night to hear the message on "Honor Thy Father and Thy Mother." This message has a special relation to our family and national life.

Mr. and Mrs. Jno. I. Hammonds left Saturday for Marlin, where they plan to spend three weeks resting and taking the hot baths.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shaw and son John D. of Gotebo, Oklahoma, spent the week-end with his uncle Tom Shaw and Mrs. Shaw.

PURCELL'S PARAGRAPHS

Why Not Investigate?

If there is any doubt in your mind concerning the value of spinal adjustments in your case, isn't it only fair—and sensible—to call on an able chiropractor and ask him to present the story of just what spinal adjustments have done for those you know. In that way you will be able to judge the value of THE PURCELL'S ALL-CHIROPRACTIC SYSTEM in the manner in which its personnel wishes it to be judged—on FACTS and facts alone. Come to First Nat'l Bank Bldg., and get all the facts.

Remember the promise we made last week? Well, we intend to keep our word and find out the latest gossip on everyone, so here goes.

We wonder why Alice Helms got so mad last week; could it have been the truth that hurt?

Flora Jeter is receiving a lot of interesting letters from Lubbock these days. What about this Flora?

Florence Jones and Harold Thornton had quite a time Tuesday morning on the bus.

Wonder why Mary Helen Day could have been so happy Monday morning. A certain Starkey boy couldn't be the answer, could it?

Wayland, you and Johnnie Ruth should study in the first period study hall. That is not the place to make love and you know it.

Spring fever is getting some of the F. H. S. students, but that's not all. New romances are blossoming out.

Some of the victims are Edna McNutt and Jimmie Derman, Isabel King and Clyde Green.

Dale King doesn't like to talk about beautiful days. It makes him think about a beautiful Knight. Dale won't you ever get over Nancy's leaving?

Archie Huckabee and Ruth Webb have been seen chatting in the halls after school lately. This happens too often to be a coincidence.

"My isn't he handsome?" said a certain senior girl as she saw Joe Rushing coming up the walk in front of the school building.

You're not the only one that thinks so Flora.

Bobby Sue Langley and Thomas Warren are cute aren't they? They seemed to have a good time at the party Friday night.

Virgil Becher certainly was worried Friday night; I wonder if he ever located her?

Gertrude seemed happy last Monday. Could it be because her California heart-throb came home.

Douglas Beedy's interest is at South Plains so I've heard. She is a brunette and her name is Neoma.

Short and sweet, is the way Wayland spoke of his last romance. Or was it a romance?

We might as well tell everything while we are squealing. Sophie McLain was sporting a wedding ring at school last Monday. Hers? Well you guess.

Floyd Bradford and Leila Williams seem to hold each other's attention pretty well in the study hall the fifth period each day.

La Faun Hodges was doing all right at noon last Monday. Are those souvenirs free, La Faun?

Maudene looked anxiously over her shoulder last week-end. Who were you expecting, Maudene?

Has something happened to the Aiken-Chowning romance? We do not see them together so much lately.

Topsy reports a wonderful time last week-end. I wonder if that new pin reading, "Topsy-Babe" always has anything at all to do with it.

Oh, wouldn't you like to know? I don't feel quite so mean this week so I suppose the rest of you wrong-doers will have to wait until next week. So long, and be good!

TEACHERS' MEETING HELD THIS WEEK-END

EDITORIAL

You wonder why nothing ever happens around school, do you? Did you ever think it might be because you don't do anything to make things happen?

Get behind these school movements and then see if things don't start popping. For instance, the Senior Carnival!

With the co-operation of all the students the Carnival could become one of the biggest events of the year.

You may think you can't do anything to help but maybe you have not been looking for anything to do.

If you intend to arouse some enthusiasm about the Senior carnival get some enthusiasm yourself. You can't sell anything to anyone unless you, too, are sold on it.

Think it over and let's do something to wake up this school and let people know we are still alive!

COMPROMISE CLOSES LAST SOLON CLEMENTS RIGHT-OF-WAY SUIT AGAINST COUNTY

A compromise agreement reached recently between Solon Clements and the Floyd County Commissioners court was consummated last week when Mr. Clements was paid $850 for land damaged and taken three years ago to open a 100-foot road from Highway 70 at Lockney to Highway 207 at McCormick station, a distance of some seven miles.

Nineteen and a half acres of land was cut off from a Clements tract by the new road and about six acres of land was taken for right-of-way.

An attempt to try the case in county court was made at one time but illness in the families of one of the attorneys and one of the jurors resulted in mistrial after some two days had been spent on the case.
