Slaton Schools Begin Classes

Classes started today in Slaton Public Schools, as an estimated 1750 youngsters were expected to give up whatever they have been doing all summer and resume their studies here.

Policies on free or reduced prices for school lunches, depending upon income of the student's family, were announced this week, along with more details on the new final examination exemption policy.

First holiday on the schedule is Sept. 4, Labor Day. A two-day Thanksgiving holiday is planned on Nov. 23-24 and a nine-day Christmas holiday starts on Dec. 23. Next year a five-day spring vacation starts March 24, Easter holiday is April 23 and commencement exercises will be on May 24.

Supt. J. C. McClesky released the following schedule which determines whether or not a student is eligible for free or reduced lunches:

Rules were announced regarding exemption of students during final exams. In general, it will be required of those who qualify for exemption to go to the school on the day of the exam and be counted present. The rules are as follows:

SENIORS

No senior shall be required to take final examinations at the end of the spring semester unless he has had more than five unexcused absences during the senior year. Excused absences above five must be for school trip or have a doctor's statement that the student was too ill to attend school.

1. Any senior required to take a final due to absence shall do so at the regularly scheduled time for the final unless permission for a special time is obtained from the principal.
2. Any senior who is failing a course may elect to take the final as a means of passing the course. The senior shall take the final at the regularly assigned time for the final.
3. Seniors shall be dismissed from regular classes at noon on Friday before Baccalaureate services on Sunday. Friday afternoon shall be devoted to rehearsal for the service.
4. Senior Week activities shall be carried out on Monday-Wednesday during the time all other students are taking finals.
5. Commencement exercises shall be held on the Thursday evening following the last day of school.
6. Seniors whose graduation is doubtful shall not sit with the class during Baccalaureate. If all requirements for graduation are met prior to the Commencement, the student may sit with the class and receive his diploma.

GRADES 6-11

Allow exemptions as heretofore with one of the following policies adopted for those students who (a) exempt from a final, or (b) have no final scheduled (i.e., physical education, band, art, or music):

Exempt students shall come to school at the time second period is regularly scheduled and answer roll call.

Exemption policy shall be changed to allow students with a 70 or above average and perfect attendance to be exempt; students with 80 or above average and no more than two absences to be exempt; and students with a 90 or above average and no more than three absences to be exempt. Exempt students still must attend school during finals as outlined in B. above.

Old Cars Are Being Removed

Sixteen owners of what is generally termed "junk cars" in Slaton have removed cars in the last couple of weeks after having been notified by Slaton Police Dept. of the necessity of moving them, to comply with laws regarding cars with no license plates or expired licenses.

In addition, some have voluntarily removed vehicles, officers said, and noted that some have called the police department and asked that their cars be moved.

Commending the action of those who have moved the cars voluntarily, officers announced that if any person wishes a car removed, he may have this done free if he is willing to sign a release saying he does not want the vehicle any more. They asked that any person who desires to do this contact the police department, 828-6212.

A total of 38 letters have been sent to owners of such cars in

Rainfall Total Is Boosted Again

Another 1.20 inches of rain fell in Slaton and the surrounding territory during the last week, bringing the total for 1972 so far to 18.52, enough to be considered a "wet year" if anything like the normal rainfall occurs during the remaining months.

Area farmers are optimistic about crop prospects, as crops now appear in excellent condition at this stage of development.

Slaton had an inch of rain Sunday and .20 Monday. Lowest temperature during the last week was 64 on Thursday, with the highest 90 on Tuesday.

'Key 73' Evangelistic Effort Planned

Leaders of more than 100 denominations are combining efforts toward a 1973 climax of what they describe as "the greatest movement of Christian outreach in the history of North America."

The project, called "Key 73" is a "continental call to Christ" destined to touch every American home, in every city, either with action of local churches, Bible distribution or by radio, television and newspapers, Rev. Murriel Abbott, pastor of Slaton First United Methodist Church, told a group of interested Slaton residents last week.

The group of about 20 persons represented 11 churches in Slaton, he said. Presiding was Rev. Delmas Luedke, president of the ministerial alliance.

More definite plans for a community-wide evangelistic effort for Key 73 will be discussed at a meeting scheduled for Aug. 29. Rev. Abbott has been elected general chairman of the Key 73 effort in Slaton.

Lutheran, Southern Baptist, Assemblies of God, United Methodist and 99 other churches have embraced this "mass call to Christian witness and involvement," Rev. Abbott said.

The overall theme of the program will be implemented in six phases - "Calling Our Continent...To Repentence and Prayer...To The Word of God... To The Resurrection...To New Life...To The Proclamation... To Commitment".

"Key 73 is no bureaucratic program" the executive director of the Key 73 Central Committee, Dr. Theodore Raedeke of St. Louis, a Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod churchman

FOOT NOTES

BY MARGRET BARTLEY

We've had several people remark about the absence of Merle King's column, "From Where I Stand". Merle has just returned from San Angelo where her daughter, Debbie, has been hospitalized. Debbie was released Thursday after five days of treatment at the Clinic Hospital there. We hope to have her back in line next week.

I returned last weekend after that last-minute vacation that included nearly 1000 miles, a family reunion, a visit to Six Flags over Texas, a visit to Lake Dallas, and numerous friends and relatives.

Having a reunion during your vacation is a great idea. You get to see most of the family without quite so much running about from place to place. Great time for pictures too, and I came home with a book full of them.

I think no remarks are necessary about a visit to Six Flags with three young-ens ages 3, 8 and 9. We were torn between the hobby horses, the wild rides and the refreshment stands. Next time I plan to have three harnesses. Have you ever tried to hold onto three hands? It's no easy job will all the excitement going on.

I personally enjoyed the dolphin show. You get to sit in the shade, (easy on the feet and heat) for about a half-hour, (longer if you pretend not to know when the show starts and go extra early to get a good seat) and enjoy cool refreshments during the water show. It was a pretty big hit with the kids too, especially when they got to pet the dolphin. (The little one remarked to Grandma, "I touched that whale and he didn't even bite me!")

There's no more time to think about school. As you well know, it is HERE. I think no more remarks are necessary on that subject. Most of you are already in the whirl and sinking fast, so happy school year. School clothes, school books, school fees, football practice, band practice, dancing lessons, music lessons, PTA meetings, Scout meeting..... .....Now you won't have to worry about what to do in all of your spare time.----- That is a joke. Remember, I'm there too. If we take it all too seriously, we probably won't live through it. Here's trying.....

FINGERTIP SHOPPING BY CATALOG, TELEPHONE

Slaton Residents Can Now Order Direct And Toll-Free From Sears !

The Easy Way To Shop

The big, new Sears Fall and Winter 1,619-page catalog is now in process of distribution!

Still other good news is the "fingertip shopping" service offered by the Lubbock Sears downtown store at 1625 13th St.

Now, Slaton residents can select from catalog merchandise and call (toll free) 828-6270 or 828-6279, and one of the battery of Sears special shopping service operators will see that the order is sent via teletype immediately to the Dallas unit from which the merchandise is shipped.

The merchandise is shipped to the destination of the purchaser's choice—to the Lubbock store or to the home.

Eleven operators at the downtown Lubbock store are on hand during all store hours to devote full time to this convenient service.

"Can you think of an easier, better way to shop? Sears does everything possible to keep it the best."

Progress is measured by new ideas at Sears where new ideas are judged solely on their capacity to better serve its customers. The "fingertip shopping" is a key segment of this service.

The new Sears catalog is outstanding in merchandise selection and values.

(Customers who order from the catalog regularly will receive the catalogs regularly. "If you do not receive the current one, write and ask for it. Address Sears, Roebuck and Co., Department 139, 1409 South Lamar St., Dallas, Tex., 75295".)

In the new-idea category, Sears has a whole new concept in catalogs that "we believe is a big step forward in better serving our customers".

This concept is really 20 ideas —20 specialized catalogs, each one designed to meet a specific interest one may have.

For example, Sears is issuing for the first time three new specialized catalogs: Western Wear, Craft Center (56 pages of art and hobby supplies) and the Apparel Catalog of tall misses, women's and half sizes featuring fashions in "hard-to-find" sizes.

These three brand new books, as well as the other specialized catalogs, are explained on Page 752 of the big new Fall and Winter catalog.

"Whether you are a home owner, a car owner, a business man, tall man or sportsman, you're sure to find one of these special catalogs that interests you. Any are yours for just the asking, and, as with all Sears catalogs, whatever you buy is backed by our pledge: 'Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back'."

And remember—telephone shopping is quick and easy the Sears way, and Slaton residents can now call direct. Try it today!

We have the means at hand. But what seems lacking is a sence of urgency. Right now, a nationwide campaign is underway aimed at heightening public awareness of the dangers of the drunk driver and channeling public action against what has clearly become the greatest scourge in our nation's history.

One important development in this campaign occurred in 1966 when, under the provisions of an act passed by Congress, the Federal Government entered the field of highway safety. One of its first targets was the drinking driver.

The Travelers book, "Death by Ounces", notes that the drunk driver killed 27,000 men, women and children - almost double the number killed as the result of violent criminal acts.

He injured 2,350,000 others, many permanently. This represents an average of more injuries in one month than were sustained through crimes of violence for the entire year.

He was responsible for a daily economic loss amounting to nearly $20 million.

He caused suffering and grief that no one can begin to measure in terms of economic loss.

Research, surveys, new legislation, and action programs are all signs that we are at last moving to meet the problem of the drinking driver head on... before it meets us on the road.

Sister Angelita, principal

Constant Faith

So many of us are so busy with our worldly affairs that we find it hard to give God more than an hour of time each week, or even each month or year. But we are so quick to call on God to come to our rescue when things get out of hand and out of control.

We are so quick to demand of God a miracle or a solution to our problems, but only when we are desperate. We should not believe that our moment of deprivation can be made "right" again simply because we ask God for relief and help.

What we must have is a constant faith, a deep faith in the goodness of God, and we must believe that each individual has an eternal purpose and an ultimate destiny.

But God offers us no warranties or guarantees, especially on last-minute notice. But there is comfort and strength - if we believe and trust in God, and if we rely on faith and prayer.

Senior Citizens Club Meets

The Senior Citizens met Aug. 11 in regular session at the clubhouse with the president, Fannie Patterson, presiding. Opening prayer was led by Chaplain Sexton. Minutes were read by Mrs. Elmer Burns and approved.

A report on absentees and those who are sick was given.

A letter from Big Spring hospital was read asking for donations for the Christmas box. The club voted to participate.

Following the devotional the group enjoyed lunch together.

See that none render evil for evil unto any man,; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves and to all men.

In the closing prayer every Sunday morning, my pastor says, "May we render to no man evil for evil." Each time I hear these words, I realize they can be a guide to each moment of my life.

One day a friend who is quite lonely asked me to go with her to the supermarket. As we approached the parking lot, I saw a good place to park and pointed it out to her. She ignored my suggestion and worked to get in a smaller space. Not satisfied with that, she drove around, passed again the place I thought would be easy to enter, and finally settled for a more difficult spot of her choice.

I was about to say to her, "This may be the cause of your loneliness." But the words "May we render to no man evil for evil" echoed through my ears. I realized my stupidity in becoming upset over such a trivial matter. I was thankful that I had not spoken unkind words.

PRAYER: We thank Thee, most gracisous Father, that with Your help we are able to choose good instead of evil. In the name of Jesus, who taught us to pray, "Our Father who art in heaven. . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY:

To rid the heart of evil is the everyday job of every one of us.

RELIGION IS NOW — a weekly message relating the world of today to the lessons of Faith and Church . . .

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above.
—James 1, 12

The green grass of the valley, the summer shade, the corn that ripens in the sun, these are good gifts. God gives us an earth that is beautiful, that offers sustenance. Because so many of these good things are free, or come with so little effort, we are inclined to become careless and unappreciative. Let us not destroy beauty thoughtlessly, nor litter the land with our thoughtless discards. Keep the earth green and growing for the generations yet to come.

FROM SCHOOL NURSE: IMMUNIZATION REQUIREMENTS

Texas law requires immunization for all students enrolled in schools. Most Roosevelt students have completed the requirements, however, some students still need the immunization as described below.

Kindergarten and grades one through five: Vaccines are required for POLIO, three oral Sabin doses with the last dose since age four; DIPHTHERIA TETANUS (DTP or TD), three doses with the last dose since age four; MEASLES (rubeola), one dose or the illness through age 11.

Grades six and above: Vaccines are required for POLIO, three oral Sabin doses to age 19 years with the last dose since the age of four, and DIPHTHERIA TETANUS (DTP or TD) three doses with the last dose within ten years. In addition, immunization is required for measles and rubella THROUGH AGE 11 as for the lower grades.

All immunization should be completed by the time the student enters school, however, if this is not possible, students will be allowed to enter school if immunization against one of the diseases listed has been started.

A Heated Debate?

The Gadsden Purchase, whose 29,640 square miles include part of Arizona and New Mexico, was ratified in 1854 by a narrow margin because many Senators felt the land was not worth $10 million. Opposition to the sale was even greater in Mexico where Santa Anna, the victor at the Alamo, was banished as a traitor for agreeing to it.

Proposed CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
NUMBER 6 ON THE BALLOT (SJR 7)
General Election November 7, 1972

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article VIII, Section 1-b, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 1-b. (a) Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed taxable value of all residence homesteads as now defined by law shall be exempt from all taxation for all State purposes.

"(b) From and after January 1, 1973, the governing body of any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the State may exempt by its own action not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from all ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. As an alternative, upon receipt of a petition signed by twenty percent (20%) of the voters who voted in the last preceding election held by the political subdivision, the governing body of the subdivision shall call an election to determine by majority vote whether an amount not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) as provided in the petition, of the assessed value of residence homesteads of persons sixty-five (65) years of age or over shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes thereafter levied by the political subdivision. Where any ad valorem tax has theretofore been pledged for the payment of any debt, the taxing officers of the political subdivision shall have authority to continue to levy and collect the tax against the homestead property at the same rate as the tax so pledged until the debt is discharged, if the cessation of the levy would impair the obligation of the contract by which the debt was created."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing that the various political subdivisions of the State may exempt not less than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000) of the value of residence homesteads of all persons sixty-five (65) years of age or older from ad valorem taxes under certain conditions."

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Article III, Section 24, of the Texas Constitution, be amended to read as follows:

"Section 24. Representatives shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400). Senators shall receive from the Public Treasury an annual salary of not exceeding Eight Thousand, Four Hundred Dollars ($8,400). All Members of the Legislature, including the Lieutenant Governor and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, also shall receive from the Public Treasury a per diem of not exceeding Twelve Dollars ($12) per day for the first one hundred and twenty (120) days only of each Regular Session and for thirty (30) days of each Special Session of the Legislature. No Regular Session shall be of longer duration than one hundred and forty (140) days. This amendment shall be self-enacting and appropriations heretofore made in the general appropriations bill for the biennium ending August 31, 1973, for the salaries of the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives shall not be invalid because of the anticipatory nature of the legislation.

The legislature shall appropriate money to provide an adequate staff, office space, equipment, and supplies for the commission.

"(b) The commission shall study the need for constitutional change and shall report its recommendations to the members of the legislature not later than November 1, 1973.

"(c) The members of the 63rd Legislature shall be convened as a constitutional convention at noon on the second Tuesday in January, 1974. A person elected to fill a vacancy in the 63rd Legislature before dissolution of the convention becomes a member of the convention on taking office as a member of the legislature.

"(d) Members of the convention shall receive compensation, mileage, per diem as determined by a five member committee, to be composed of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, and Chief Justice of the Court of Criminal Appeals. This shall not be held in conflict with Article XVI, Section 33 of the Texas Constitution. The convention may provide for the expenses of its members and for the employment of a staff for the convention, and for these purposes may by resolution appropriate money from the general revenue fund of the state treasury. Warrants shall be drawn pursuant to vouchers signed by the chairman or by a person authorized by him in writing to sign them.

"(e) The convention, by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members, may submit for a vote of the qualified electors of this state a new constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections, or may submit revisions of the existing constitution which may contain alternative articles or sections. Each resolution shall specify the date of the election, the form of the ballots, and the method of publicizing the proposals to be voted on. The conduct of the election, the canvassing of the votes, and the reporting of the returns shall be as provided for elections under Section 1 of this article.

"(f) The convention may be dissolved by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members; but it is automatically dissolved at 11:59 p.m. on May 31, 1974, unless its duration is extended for a period not to exceed 60 days by resolution adopted on the vote of at least two-thirds of its members.

"(g) The Bill of Rights of the present Texas Constitution shall be retained in full."

Sec. 2. The foregoing constitutional amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this state at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1972, at which election the ballots shall be printed to provide for voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment providing for a constitutional revision commission which precedes the convening of the members of the 63rd Legislature as a constitutional convention in January, 1974, for the purpose of submitting to the voters a new constitution or revisions of the existing state constitution."

Weed Control Is Big Topic

Johnsongrass is one of the most widespread perennial weeds, since nearly every state in the U. S. has some infested areas. This tall-growing grass spreads by two ways. Underground stems, or rhizomes, act like roots and spread quickly in cropland. Rhizomes become tangled on tillage equipment and hitch a ride to infest other fields.

Another method of spread is by seed. Seed blows into cropland from Johnsongrass in ditches and lake areas. Johnsongrass seed is hard to separate from hay or straw and is difficult to clear out of some crop seed. Extensive research in johnsongrass control has been conducted at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock. Weed research at the Center was conducted by Dr. Dudley Smith. Various control methods and chemicals were studied in cotton fields with several cooperating growers.

Good weed control just doesn't happen, it must be carefully planned before the crop is planted. In cotton or soybeans, plan on double disk incorporation of the full recommended rate of Treflan or Planavin for your soil type. This controls seedling johnsongrass and prevents more new plants from establishing.

Preliminary test work in cotton shows that applying a double rate of Treflan for two years, with thorough incorporation gives good control and excellent suppression on old rhizomes. Good soil incorporation is essential.

Disking two or more times cuts up rhizomes better, mixes the chemical through the soil, and places treated soil next to more old root sections. If cotton is planted later, after soil warms up, yields are not reduced as a result of high application rates. Rhizome control with Treflan drastically reduces the johnsongrass population, particularly when followed by a postemergence herbicide program.

High, double rates of Treflan for johnsongrass control are not labeled or recommended for use yet. "But results have been good in research plots," says Dr. Smith. Interested growers should only treat a very small acreage to observe how this practice works on their farm.

Timely cultivation in any crop is an essential part of a total control program for johnsongrass. The weed is forced to regrow with repeated tillage and hand hoeing of infested spots. More root reserves or carbohydrates are used up each time new shoots are produced.

Total control will depend on haveing a chemical in the soil to suppress root growth, spraying shoots to kill foliage and roots, and soil tillage to make the plant exhaust its reserves. But watch ditches, fence rows, and lakes. Because once a field is cleaned up, these are sources for reinfestation.

Slaton Athletes Join Christian Athlete Conference

FORT COLLINS, COLO. -- Jim Carlen has been called "The Deacon" and cartonnized with a halo, but the Texas Tech head football mentor ignores it and bluntly maintains that what coaches and athletes and American youth in general need is the leadership of Jesus Christ for a complete, fulfilled life.

Carlen is here to address the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Conference of over 900 athletes and coaches, among whom are Dan Butler and Ron Bartley of Slaton High School.

"We don't make a big issue of Chrisitanity, of course," Carlen stated. "I never force Christianity on my players or anyone else. I wouldn't call myself pious but I wouldn't be a Christian if I didn't try to live my faith and try to share it through my life and counseling. I try to show my players the really important thing in life by living my Christianity. If I say a boy shouldn't drink, smoke or use drugs and then do it myself, it makes a big difference in my effectiveness.

"Also, I think players and all young people are feeling a vacuum in their lives; they don't feel fulfilled. They're looking for an answer. We are the most educated people in history; so we've gone the book route. We are the most successful nation financially--so much so that we call it poverty when we give a man $350 a month. We have more big cars, more colored television sets and more of everything going for us, and we still haven't made it. So what's the next step? Young people are trying drugs and it's still not giving them that sense of having a fulfilled life. There still is that vacuum.

"I happen to believe that Christ can fill that vacuum, that hunt for contentment and satisfaction. He should be No. 1 in our lives. Many may not agree with me, but still the name of Christ keeps popping up amoung young people and they keep clinging to it as the answer."

Some people, Carlen revealed, criticized an open show of faith such as before-game prayers. "But when you're in a situation where you have to visit the family of a player who has been killed in an auto accident and they ask you to pray with them, then practicing Christianity isn't offensive at all.

"I think that a coach has to meet many crises in the young lives of his players. That is, if a coach is interested in young people. Now many people may be a lot smarter than I am because they avoid all conflicts with a young man, but I think if I'm not there to help him with his problems, then I'm really saying to him that it's fine just as long as we just talk about it, but when we get gown to his little problem or something that might be controversial, let me out. I can't stand such an attitude. That's the reason my coaches are so close to my players."

The Texas Tech team has a devotional hour on the day of each game and a prayer before each game and after. "The players themselves asked for it," Carlen said. "We allotted the time and the coaches join in. Sunday mornings we have a loosening-up practice and tend to injuries, but we always see to it we are finished in plenty of time for them to attend church. We encourage them to do so."

"My first requisite is that they are practicing Christians. I don't want to have to lecture about loyalty; I feel my coaches, being Christian, know what loyalty is. I don't think you should have to sit down and use paper and pencil to discuss what love is or what it means to get along with your fellow coaches and players, or what it means to have an argument and come back and treat the other person as a brother. I want the harmony of Christian love."

All but one of his assistants teaches Sunday School, Carlen revealed, and he himself has done so for many years. "We make countless talks in a month's time and we often speak at Sunday services."

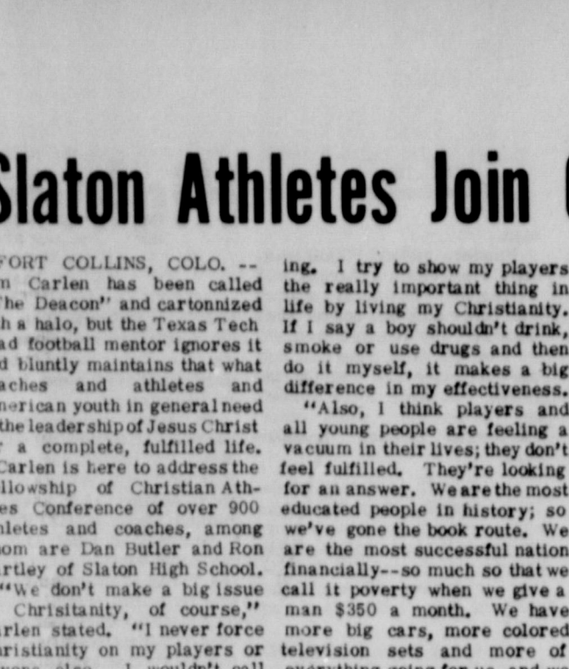

A strong FCA supporter since 1957, Carlen said that he believes the campus turmoils of the 1960s affected also the athletes and many coaches turned to religion for help. Many of those who came to FCA conferences found themselves getting more involved than they planned and now they are big workers for the FCA.

"When I was in the Southeastern Conference we got to the point that every college had at least one coach and four athletes go to FCA conference each year."

The Texas Tech bossman said that his faith comes out even in his recruiting which he claims is toughter in Texas than any place in the nation." It's natural that I should talk about religion among the other qualities which I want in a boy. I want to let the parents know, also that I'm concerned about their faith and their morality.

"I hope that someday someone sells my son on the idea that just because you leave home and go out on your own, there is no reason you should forsake church and not take part in Christian fellowship."

The conference here continues through Thursday and next week the final of the 17 summer conferences will be held at Estes Park.

"You are correct. I did ask for thumbnail sketches, however . . ."

College Examinations Program Set Aug. 18

Wilson Schools Begin Monday

Teachers at Wilson Schools began their in-service training this week and the doors will open for students Monday morning as they begin the regular school year.

Their first holiday will come Sept. 4 for Labor Day. Other student-only holidays include Oct. 2, Nov. 13, Feb. 19, and April 2, when teachers will be in session for the Teacher Planning Days.

Thanksgiving Holidays will be Nov. 23 and 24, and Christmas holidays will begin Dec. 21 with students returning to classes Jan 2. Easter holidays will be April 16-20.

Junior high commencement exercises will be held May 24 with high school commencement May 25.

The Wilson Independent School District today announced a free and reduced price lunch policy for Wilson school children unable to pay the full price.

Local School Officials have adopted a family size and income scale to assist them in determining eligibility.

Families falling within these scales or those suffering from unusual circumstances or hardships are urged to apply for free or reduced price lunches for their children. They may do so by filling in the application forms sent home in a letter to parents. Additional copies are available at the principal's office in each school. Applications may be submitted any time during the school year. The form itself is simple to complete and requests information needed to determine economic need based on the income and number of persons in the family and any unusual circumstances or hardships which affect the family's ability to pay for school lunches. The information provided on the application will be confidential and will be used only for the purpose of determining eligibility.

Under the provisions of the policy, Superintendent Gary M. Gardner will review applications and determine eligibility. If a parent is dissatisfied with the ruling of the local official he may make a request either orally or in writing for a hearing to appeal the decision. Board of Education, whose address is Wilson Elementary School has been designated as the Hearing Official. Hearing procedures are outlined in the policy.

The policy also provides that there will be no identification of or discrimination against any student unable to pay the full cost of a lunch.

Raedeke added: "This massive evangelism program will be focused on local church activities and will not be dominated by any denomination.

"For the first time millions of Christians are working together who have never worked on programs with other Christians before," Raedeke said.

The Key 73 leader said bulletin boards, posters, Bible study, prayer groupings, noon prayer call participation, Bible broadcasts, Easter and Christmas programs will unfold the story of Key 73 this year and in 1973.

Another church leader, Dr. Joseph H. Yeakel, General Secretary of the United Methodist Church's Board of Evangelism, in Nashville said:

"Key 73 is concerned with making every person in North America aware of God's love, and this can happen only through the interest and cooperation of North American Christians who will involve themselves in their own particular form of evangelism now, during this year.

How did it all begin? It was in late 1971 when representatives of more than 100 denominations gathered in St. Louis, Mo. After less than two hours of debate, Key 73 was launched.

Some churches may choose to distribute Bibles, some will hold Christian witness missions and preaching evangelism to carry out their mission in Key 73. Other talented laymen will be writing, painting, delivering Bibles and creatively facing social issues as their part of the great evangelical program.

Key 73 will cut across racial, cultural and social lines. It will be "for all" the people of our world.

There is a biblical theme to Key 73 -- it is the simple assurance "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, and today and forever," Dr. Raedeke said.

Highway Signs Have New Look

AUSTIN -- Although the "new look" in highway signs is not as revolutionary as the mini-skirt -- Texas Highway Department engineers hope it will be as eyecatching.

In many cases, symbols, shapes and colors are substituted for words. It is hoped that this will give the message to motorists at a glance and remove language barriers.

The new symbol signs and pavement markings adopted by the Texas Highway Commission are from the revised "Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices" released by the Federal Highway Administration.

The new prohibitive signs are probably the most important. These signs all have a red circle with a slash cutting diagonally through the center which means "DO NOT" or "NO." The symbol inside the circle shows what is prohibited.

The yellow diamond-shaped signs still stand for a warning, but some of the symbols showing hazards are new. In addition, most warning signs continue to have a word message, but the message is located under the sign on a plaque.

For example: The word message "MERGING TRAFFIC," is replaced by a black arrow being joined by a smaller black line. A plaque under the sign will have the word "MERGE." It is hoped this will minimize confusion as to which stream carries the merging traffic.

School signs are shaped like a schoolhouse, containing the silhouettes of two children on a yellow background.

Color is a key in the new system. Red indicates stop or prohibition; green shows movement permitted or gives directional guidance; blue signifies motorist services; yellow indicates general warning; and black on white is used for regulatory signs and speed limits and destination

The shapes are important. signs signify ular signs with dimensions pro ulation; rectang longer horizont contain guidance An octagon alwa and an inverted yield.

Night School Classes Set

Adults interested in attending the fall term of Lubbock Evening High School should register during August at the Adult Education Office, 610 Ave. Q, and the sooner the better, officials said.

The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

In the school persons at least 17 years old may earn a regular high school diploma, meet entrance requirements of colleges and vocational schools, meet job standards or improve general educational levels.

Course offerings include English, mathematics, science, social studies, typing, shorthand, bookkeeping, clerical practice and general business. Vocational courses include woodworking, and general drafting. Classes must have at least 12 students, and will meet four nights each week in the Lubbock High School building, beginning Aug. 28.

Tuition of $22.50 per course for persons living in the Lubbock School District and $33.75 for persons living outside of the district will be charged. The school is approved for veterans.

Students need 16 credits to meet the minimum graduation requirements. Physical education, driver education and other miscellaneous courses do not count.

Owen said the school needs to secure transfer of records from other schools, arrange for testing and check other matters before classes start.

Free textbooks are provided, but a returnable deposit is required, and workbooks and special materials will be purchased by the student.

Top Cotton Crop Forecast

With Slaton area farmers and agriculture observers in agreement that this year's crops look the best in years at this stage of development, the highest cotton crop production in seven years has been predicted, barring adverse weather.

If the official Aug. 1 estimate of High Plains cotton production proves correct, area farmers will harvest the biggest cotton crop since 1965 and could reap almost $400 million for their efforts.

The estimate, compiled jointly by Plains Cotton Growers, Inc. and the Lubbock Cotton Exchange, sets production from about 2,602,000 standing acres in the 25 PCG counties surrounding Lubbock at 1,917,000 bales. Last year's production came to only 1,279,150 bales. The 1965 crop totaled 2.3 million. The all-time high for the Plains was 2,457,703 bales, produced in 1961.

Assuming market prices of 24 cents a pound for lint and $50 per ton for seed and including some $130 million in price support payments the value of the crop would be $389,178,000. That figure, if realized, would just about equal the cash value of the record 1961 crop.

Last year's early-season estimates also projected a rosy picture for the fleecy crop on the Plains, but unseasonably cool, wet weather in August and September ruined those prospects. The Sept. 1 PCG-LCE estimate indicated the area would produce a little over 2 million bales in 1971, as compared to final production of less than 1/3 million.

"It is not at all impossible that the current crop could meet a similar or even worse fate," says PCG Executive Vice President Donald Johnson, "but the odds are certainly against it."

On the other hand officials of PCG and LCE point out that ideal weather conditions for the next three months and a normal or later frost could bring on a crop considerably in excess of the present estimate.

Based on the acreage now thought to be "standing" the Aug. 1 projection would mean a per-acre yield of only 354 pounds, as compared to a 10 year average for the Plains of 433 pounds per acre.

The PCG-LCE estimates are traditionally based on "normal" weather conditions, and are updated on the first of each month through Dec.1, taking into consideration the effects of weather for the past 30 days each time.

Normal rainfall at the Lubbock Weather Station for August is 1.82 inches and the average temperature for the month is 78.8 degrees. Average maximum August temperature at Lubbock is 91.7 degrees and the average minimum is 65.8.

Lubbock County has an estimated 240,000 acres standing in cotton on Aug. 1, with an estimated 1972 production of 225,000 bales, compared to 1971's total of 90,100.

Mrs. Kay Graves is the Teacher-Coordinator of the new distributive education program at Cooper High School. The D. E. program is the first "cooperative" vocational program in the Lubbock-Cooper Schools, a program involving both classroom activities pertaining to distribution and marketing and part-time, on-the-job training in the field.

Mrs. Graves and the school administrators are confident that the program will be a tremendous asset to the school curriculum and will also benefit the Lubbock business leaders who employ the students involved in the program.

Mrs. Graves is the wife of Foy Graves, a new coach at Cooper High School, and the mother of two children, Karee and April. The Graves family moved to Lubbock from Roswell, N.M., this summer and are residing at 4615 44th Street. Mrs. Graves holds a B. A. degree in Marketing from Eastern New Mexico University, has experience in retailing with Foley's of Houston, and is planning to complete a Master's Degree in distributive education at Arizona State University next summer. She has had experience as a D. E. teacher-coordinator in Tulia, and has also taught language arts, typing and shorthand during her six years of teaching experience.

Southland Homecoming Draws Big Crowd At Pot Luck Supper

Southland High School ex-students met for a reunion and homecoming Aug. 12 at the Slaton Club House. Registration began at 4 p.m. with 227 registering.

A "pot luck" supper was served at 6:30. The tables were covered in white and decorated in red and black, the school colors. Centerpieces were furnished by Pauline's Flowers.

Sam Ellis gave the invocation.

Ronnie Dunn, president of the organization, called the business meeting to order, greeted guests and visitors and introduced the speaker for the evening, Rev. Bobby Fields. Fields is pastor of the Baptist Church at Half-way and is a former Southland student.

Mr. J. P. Hewlett, former superintendent of Southland schools, was introduced as a special guest. Otis Neil was also present, and was reminded that he had signed a contract to teach at Southland schools 50 years ago, on Aug. 12, 1922.

Joan Gindorf, of Tivoli, N.Y. was recognized as the person coming the longest distance.

New officers elected for the organization included: Johnnie Haire, pres.; Donald Basinger, vice pres.; Mrs. Gloss Davies and Mrs. Tommie Wilke, sec.-treas. Time and date of the next reunion was left up to the new officers.

Rodney Speck Returns To School

Rodney Speck, 15-year-old Cooper student, will enter school this fall as a sophomore right in step with the rest of his class at Cooper High School. He withdrew from school last September to undergo a kidney transplant on Jan. 4 at the University of Colorado Medical Center. After the operation, a tutor helped him keep up his studies.

It is doubtful that he will be able to participate in marching band as he did formerly, according to Mrs. Speck, but there is a possibility he will join choir.

Since returning home April 7 after the transplant, Rodney has made regular visits back to Colorado for checkups and doctors are gradually expanding the time between them. He will have gone two months before his next checkup in September. He waited five weeks before his last trip to Denver and one month for the checkup before that. He has lab tests every two weeks with results mailed to Denver.

His father, who served as donor for the transplant, has been at work on his job with Pioneer Natural Gas Co. since release from hospitalization.

Though representing only 22 per cent of all licensed drivers in the U. S., under 25 year old drivers were involved in more than one-third of traffice accidents resulting in death or injury, according to a report from The Travelers Insurance Companies.

Smiths Deliver OES Gift Items

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith of Slaton took a load of 100 saleable gift items to the E.E.S. Ladies retirement home in Arlington last week.

The first week in August is observed as the founding date of the home and O.E.S. chapters all over the state participate in the ceremonies by contributing gifts to the home. The proceeds from these gift sales are used to buy little extra items for the ladies.

The Slaton chapter has one member in the home, Mrs. Beula Hampton. She has been confined to the hospital infirmary for about two months.

Candy Stripers Win Contest

Three Junior Volunteers from Mercy Hospital attended the Junior Volunteer convention in Dallas Aug. 8-10. They were Cheryl Emert, Vickie Valverde and Mary Martin. Two sponsors, Mrs. C. O. Buxkemper and Mrs. George Privett also attended. Theme for the occasion was "The Name of the Game is Love through Service."

The girls attended workshops, seminars, outdoor water shows, and were entertained by Miss Teenage America, Colleen Fitzpatrick. There were several programs on ecology and the girls also met the 1972 Olympics Diving Team. Spencer Guimarin and John Haddod gave talks on "Your Future in a Health Career."

The trip was climaxed by a tour of Six Flags.

The girls also entered in a poster contest and were awarded first place. It was entitled "Helping Others, Help Themselves." They were presented a plaque and two blue ribbons. The poster is now on display in The Slatonite window.

Candystripers will be taking applications for new members the first week of September. Applicants must be at least 14 years old. Anyone interested in joining should contact Mary Martin at 828-6752.

Good weather is no safeguard against traffic accidents. A report by The Travelers Insurance Companies points out that more than 75 per cent of the 54,000 traffic deaths in 1971 occurred in clear, dry weather.

Thought For Food

Gardening calling? Casseroles can come to a busy woman's rescue, if she gives them a chance. prepared early in the day and refrigerated, they free a cook of concern for meal preparation while she's out or away. It takes little time to brown ground beef to add flavor and food value to made-ahead rice, macaroni, spaghetti or noodle casserole combinations that travel with ease from refrigerator to oven to table.

Canned meats provide a quick answer to a cook's SOS in a menu emergency. Candidates for the rescue cupboard's stock include cans of corned beef or roast beef hash, chili con carne, luncheon meat, beef stew, sandwich steaks, barbecued beef, beef in gravy, chop suey and dozens of other possibilities.

Area Men In Service

Phillip Roberts

Army Private Phillip Roberts, 20, son of Mrs. Hester L. Roberts, 2411 45th, Lubbock, Tex., is assigned to Ft. Ord, Calif., where he is training under the Modern Volunteer Army Program.

The program combines basic and advanced individual training (AIT) into an average 16-week program, depending on the AIT the soldier received after completing basic. Decentralized instruction at the unit level and a reduction of formations and inspections give the soldier more time to train and increased off-duty time. Fewer restrictions on off-duty travel and improved living facilities are other benefits of the program.

Pvt. Roberts began his training with Company C, 4th Battalion, 1st Brigade on July 3 and is scheduled to complete the first phase on Aug. 30.

Southland News

BY TOMMIE WILKE

"Raindrops keep falling on my head"! They fall and they fall and they fall and some of the farmers in the community are wishing for some dry and sunny weather. Right here in Southland we haven't had too much, but Walter Stolle says he has had 21 inches of rain since May 12. Crops are sure looking great.

Mrs. G. D. Ellis has been in Mercy Hospital for the past week. Mr. Ellis is staying with his son, Sam.

Otto Klaus's company this past week has been his sister, Mrs. Bertha Schroeder and her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Schroeder from Elgin. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Werner Klaus at Wilson and spent last Friday night with them.

If you didn't attend the Southland School Reunion this past Saturday, you really missed something great. The Slaton Club House was full of Southland Exes and their families. 230 persons registered with at least 30 or 40 that didn't register. Ronnie Dunn, President, said this was the best turnout we have ever had. Mrs. Buford Jones of Rudiosa, N. M., was Southland's earliest student to attend the reunion. She started in 1915 with T. H. Basinger close behind her in 1916.

Otis Neill of Slaton signed a contract to teach with the Southland School 50 years ago on August 12.

Bobby Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Fields, former Southland residents, was the guest speaker. He is a Baptist minister.

Mrs. Joan Trimble Smith was elected Queen. New officers were elected and they are: Johnny Haire, President; Donald Basinger, Vice-President; Secretary - Treasurer, Gloss Davies and Tommie Wilke. Joan Gindorf from New York came the longest distance. There will probably be another Reunion planned for 1974.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dunn spent the week-end at Possum Kingdom Lake. Their son, E. L., of Dallas met them there.
