Christmas Card Fund Begun

The annual "Christmas Card Fund", for several years a project of Olton Cemetery Association, has again been established at Olton State Bank.

The operation allows donors to make contributions to the worthwhile efforts of that association, in lieu of sending Christmas Cards to local friends, according to Mrs. Pearl Schreier, treasurer.

Moneys for this fund may be left at Olton State Bank or given to Mrs. Schreier.

Names of donors will begin appearing in the Olton Enterprise Dec. 16, as a means of extending Holiday Greetings to friends in a very practical way.

Joe Johnson Rites Pending

Rites were pending at press time for Joe A. Johnson. Johnson was dead on arrival at Central Plains Hospital in Plainview where he was taken by Parsons Ambulance late Friday.

A resident of the Olton area since 1931, Johnson died of an apparent heart attack. He was a farmer and had lived at his farm home northeast of town since 1934.

"AH HAZ SPOKEN!" says Mammy Yokum, portrayed by Connie Thomas in the OHS drama and music departments' two-night presentation of "Li'l Abner" Saturday and Monday. Chesna Dickenson plays the favorite Daisy Mae; Monte Chitwood is Li'l Abner.

Lucky Winners Get $240

Bargain Day dollars to boost their Christmas shopping monies went to six lucky persons Saturday in the season's second drawing. Saturday's drawing was held at 5 p.m. but overwhelming preference has caused it to be rescheduled. All future drawings will be held at 3:30 p.m.

Mildred Caudle was the winner of 20 Bargain Day dollars. Her name was drawn from the hopper by D.A. Barnett.

Mrs. F.M. Holland drew the second ticket which gave $25 to Wanda McMurrian. Doreen Couch was the $30 winner when her name was drawn by George Thomas.

A ticket worth 40 trade's day dollars bore the name of Frances Brown. It was drawn by Mrs. Frank Rivera.

Fifty dollars was the value of a ticket drawn by Mrs. R.H. Campbell with the name of Winona Trusty.

Top money of the week went to Mildred Snider, $75, for a ticket drawn by Mrs. Sallie Copeland.

'Li'l Abner' Production To Be Staged Dec. 8

Olton High School Drama and Music Departments will present the musical comedy "Li'l Abner" Saturday, Dec. 8, and again Monday, Dec. 10.

Curtain time for the exciting and familiar play will be 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The wonderful tunes include Abner and Daisy's gentle duet, "Namely You," a dream ballad, "If I Had My Druthers;" the hilarious show-stopper, "Jubilant T. Cornpone;" General Bullmoose's "Progress Is the Root of All Evil" and the political satire, "The Country's in the Very Best of Hands." The Sadie Hawkins Day Ballet and fine choral work contribute to making Li'l Abner one of the classics of American musicals.

The part of Li'l Abner is played by OHS senior Monte Chitwood. Chesna Dickenson plays the "ever-popular" Daisy Mae. Mammy and Pappy are created by Connie Thomas and John Rodriguez.

Marryin' Sam is Mark Gunter. Daisy's cousins, the Scraggs, are played by Jimmy McCurry, Scott Robertson and Chris McClure. Mark Watt plays Earthquake McGoon, the "World's Dirtiest Wrestler."

Mark Hodges is cast as General Bullmoose, while his "confidential secretary" Apassionata is Robin Criswell. Phogbound is Alan Carson, and Available Jones is Bryan Allebrn. The Whammy is a product of Evil Eye Fleagle, or Freddy Stockdale.

The Secretaries are Virginia Daugherty, Donna Muller, Jennie Lynn Gunter, Jimmie Graham and Cindy Moore.

Lonesome Polecat and Hairless Joe are Paul Almanza and Israel Zamora, while Moonbeam McSwine is played by Joanna Carlisle.

Abner's cronies are Joe Soliz, Kenneth Burgess, Bryan Allcorn and Bill Johnston.

Keith Austin plays Speedy McRabbit, while David Leathers creates the role of Mayor Dawgmeat. The Government Man is Jerry Jenkins.

Cynthia Norfleet plays Stupefyt Jones. The State

Department Man is Robin Spain.

The Wives are Barbara Driver, Gayla Mills, Susan Rape, Kim Lewis, Martha Smyth and Jan Burkhalter. Their husbands are Jimmy Landrum, Scott Parker, Kody Carson, Kelly Cox, Caleb McClure, and Brad Allcorn. The "transformed" husbands are Glenn Johnson, Stan Sampler, Shanne Hasha, Pat Britton, Mark Smith and Michael Franks.

The Doctors are played by Bill Johnson, Naomi Lewis, Jeannie Richards and Kim Barnett.

Dogcatchers include Quilla Edwards, Melanie Cowart, Relda Strain, Leona Cooper, Janet Spain, Melinda Blessing, Sharon Quigley, Jerry Jenkins, Keith Austin, Virginia Daugherty, Joe Soliz, Chris McClure, Kim Barnett, and Larry Kirk.

The set crew is headed by Alan Johnson, Rex Jennings and Mark Smith. Assistance is being provided by several members of the cast.

Direction is by Marilyn Miller, speech and drama teacher. Musical direction is by Viki Turner, choral director.

Tickets are $2 for reserved seats for either performance. General admission for adults is $1.50 and Students will be admitted for $1. Any person wishing to buy tickets early should see a cast member or come by Mrs. Miller's room at the school. It should be noted that anyone, regardless of age, will be required to buy a ticket in order to see the production.

NORENE ROBBERSON

Norene Roberson Wins Cotton Bowl Tickets

Norene Roberson lucky guessed her way to the top of the list as the 1973 Enterprise football contest came to an end last week. Whether it was a combination of "women's intuition" or "football know-how" or advice from her husband whom she beat out in competition, it marks the second time Mrs. Roberson has come up with the grand prize—two tickets to the Cotton Bowl classic and a check for $40.

Mrs. Roberson finished five points in front of Lynn Gullett who will receive the runner-up prize of two tickets to the Sun Bowl game in El Paso and a check for $20. Mrs. Roberson's total correct guesses was 155 to Gullett's 150.

Finishing close at their heels were T. J. Roberson and Billie Jean Manuel with 147 and 146 correct guesses, respectively.

A past winner and always keen competitor, Charles Didway of Post finished fifth in the contest for season but on top for the final week. Didway edged three other contestants for the first place $5 check by missing the actual score of the Kansas City Chiefs-Denver Broncos games just 13 points. He guessed the 10-14 contest at 14-23. Kathy Gullett joins her husband Lynn this week in top guessing. The two were off 20 points each on the tie-breaker and will co-share second and third place winnings. Kathy predicted the score at 24-20 while Lynn reversed the digits at 20-24.

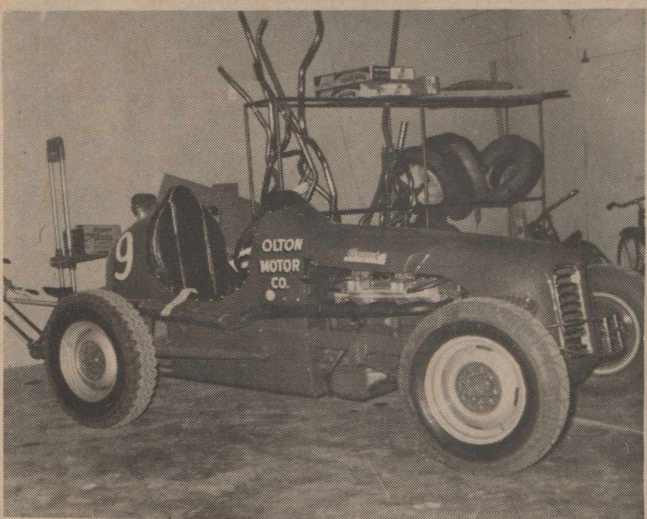

Phil Hughes was the only other contestant to miss just four games. His tie-breaker prediction of 21-24 was 21 points away.

Olton Motor Machine Began As Small Garage

"My daddy can fix anything," his young son was once heard to boast. Apparently a lot of people share that belief as is shown by the parade of ailing cars, trucks, pick-ups and irrigation well motors that have crossed the threshold of Olton Motor Machine to claim the attention of the 'motor doctor', Everett Loveless.

For almost 40 years Loveless has dealt with mechanical problems. Thirty-four of those years have been spent in Olton.

OUTSTANDING CAR OF 1956 belonged to Everett Loveless, owner of Olton Motor Machine.

He came to the city in September, 1939, with his bride of two years. Prior to that he had spent five years in the service department of Shepard Chevrolet Company, in Plainview.

Opening a small garage in north Olton beside the narrow strip of asphalt that was Hiway 70, he was housed in what is now the "wash rack" at G. H. Bley Service Station. The building, then a new addition to the Bley station, served as his garage for about a year and a half.

As his next move, Loveless assumed management of the H. H. Ogletree Service Station and Garage, also on Hiway 70 at the location now occupied by Thompson Chevrolet. The gasoline station of the facility proved a disappointment to the young mechanic. He recalls, "With gasoline so cheap, 12 to 15 cents per gallon, and tanks on cars so small, you couldn't possibly make a $5 sale!" He relinquished that stand in favor of a building directly across the H way.

In a building leased from the late Mrs. Effie Edwards he again opened an automotive garage. Helping him, after school and on Saturdays, was Mrs. Edwards young son, Robert... "and he was a good hand" Loveless remembers.

In 1944 Olton Motor Machine moved from its highway location to a new building, its present site, 515 9th Street. Erected during a time of priorities and shortages on the national scene, the building was somewhat of a triumph for Loveless. Permits were necessary for all building materials, and furthermore he had to buy a truck to haul materials from points of shipment, which included Tulia and Floydada, outside the immediate area.

When he had been needing sheetrock for some months, a call came from Muleshoe one night about 8 o'clock offering some for sale. Loveless promised he'd be over early the following morning, but the dealer promptly stated he'd better come that night since he was unloading a freight car "first come first served."

At the time of completion the building boasted a spacious show room across the entire front with only a small parts room, for Loveless had acquired the Hudson automobile agency in 1941. During the war

EVERETTE LOVELESS AND RUBEN LUERA stand beside a motor which is only one of many in his shop, Olton Motor Machine. Loveless has been a mechanic for almost forty years, the biggest percentage of the time being spent in Olton.

Harley Miller Services Conducted Here Tuesday

Last rites were conducted at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday in Hopewell Baptist Church for Harley Franklin Miller.

Officiating were the Rev. Ronnie Travis, pastor, and the Rev. Pat Gloria, pastor of Trinity Mission Baptist Church. Interment was in Olton Cemetery under the direction of Parsons Funeral Home.

Miller was born July 9, 1912 in Harrison, Ark. He was married to the former Eva Rachel (Jackie) Stewart Nov. 14, 1932 in Duncan, Okla.

A farmer, he had lived near Olton 26 years. He had been a member of the Baptist Church since 1943.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, J. C. Miller of Hart, Frank Miller of Plainview and Paul Miller; one brother, Charles Miller of Dalhart; and three grandchildren.

Pallbearers were John Stiles, Robert Edwards, D. F. Roberts, W. B. Dickinson Jr., Bruce Hackler and Vernon Nixon.

Honorary pallbearers were Virgle Gray, Witt Laceywell, J. D. Lively, Will Russell, Sam Clark, W. B. Dickinson Sr., Jack Allcorn, Jack Straw, J. Copeland and Steve Boruk.

Olton Youth Proves Honesty Is Not Dead

A refreshing example of the outstanding quality of our Olton youth has happened here and we, at the Enterprise would like to share the story with you, our readers.

Martin Hernandez, student at OHS, has been a weekly participant in the annual football contest sponsored by the Enterprise and local merchants. He's done pretty well, too, having been a winner during the season.

The young man, son of Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Hernandez, was the weekly winner several weeks ago. Here at the Enterprise, as winners can testify, we got a bit behind in paying the week's winners.

Looking back to see who still was to be paid, an error was made and one week's winners were paid the second time.

Probably we would never have caught the error, we might never have known it happened.

Martin made our week with a simple act of honesty. Coming in after school, Martin handed us five dollars (and there's sure to have been many ways he could have used five dollars), and said, "You paid me twice."

Who said "Honesty is dead"? Our youth are the finest in the world and Martin Hernandez is an example of the proof.

As Milan Goes...

La Scala, Milan's opera house, is world-renowned for the talent of its artists and the beauty of its performances. Also music to the ears of the city's visitors is the best hotel in town, the Milano Hilton, which is located a short distance from the opera house. Its many services are entirely in harmony with the comfort of guests.

Motor Machine

years, 1942 to 1946, no cars were available.

During this void in automotive sales, he continued to operate his garage in the rear section of the building to keep existing cars in running order. He leased the front show room to Basil Sherman, during 1945-46, for the operation of a hardware and appliance store.

When cars were again available, so was Loveless. He sold the Hudson automobile until 1957 when the company stopped production. For about a year he sold Ramblers, products of American Motors Company. Dropping that in 1959 he assumed the dealership for International pick-ups and trucks.

In recent years, majoring in mechanical service and auto parts, the "big room up front" has become a maze of shelves, storage bins and racks for the adequate inventory of parts Loveless keeps on hand for the convenience of his customers. As he plies his trade "working on anything that runs" he is likely to have the needed parts, if not he'll get them speedily.

In the light of today's uncertainties he anticipates no shortages in parts and supplies in the foreseeable future.

Loveless and the former Miss Hope Cure were married in 1937. They are parents of three children. A son, James, was victim of the car-train tragedy in 1962, that took the lives of seven local youths.

A daughter, Charlotte, now lives and teaches in Desdemona. Another son, Jerry, also married, lives in the city. The Lovelesses are proud grandparents of one little granddaughter and two grandsons.

Something about the roar of a smooth running motor fascinates Loveless, who had rather see a car race than a football game any day. As

HOME IN ON HOLIDAY SAFETY

Is it your turn to have the whole family in for Christmas dinner? It should be a great party but will require careful planning and preparation.

The Consumers Insurance Information Bureau suggests that even before you pick out the Christmas goose or turkey, make some plans so that everyone has a safe time.

After the gifts are open, assign the head of the house to make sure all wrappings are cleared away. They can be a hazard for fires and falls. It may not work but try to get the children to keep the toys and games out of the line of traffic. This may break down once company arrives but it's worth the effort.

If the lord of the manor is to be bartender for the day, assign him a location and make sure he gets all his needs out of your way before the cooking is begun. Once you are started on dinner, you don't need extra traffic through the kitchen.

The Bureau says it might be a good idea to assign the children a place to play. The basement or a spare bedroom would be good. At any rate ban them from your work area. Hot stoves and bubbling pots do not mix with children.

Take an extra moment along the way to make sure that all pot handles are turned in so no one can bump them. Keep sharp knives away from counter edges and appliances away from the sink. If you are using a number of electric appliances such as blenders, toaster-ovens, mixers or coffee makers, try to distribute the load. Do not plug them all in to one line or try to use them at one time.

In wanting to set a pretty table, keep safety in mind again. If candles are part of the setting keep them away from any evergreen centerpiece. Make sure the candles are firmly set in holders and are lighted only while you and your guests are at the table.

If drinks are served before, during and after dinner make an allowance of at least an hour between the last drink and the time your company leaves. Alcohol has a cumulative effect on people. If you feel a guest has had too much, suggest someone else drive home or suggest they stay a while longer.

CIIB, sponsored by the National Association of Insurance Agents, recommends safety consciousness throughout the year but especially during the holiday season.

fixing cars is his vocation, so building them is his avocation.

He has built three racing cars and, as a hobby, would still love to be engaged in that effort. One of the cars "built from scratch" was under construction for two years before it was put on the track. Any part needed, whether for the body or motor, he simply "made it."

Raced in 1956 in Clovis, Roswell, Monahans, Liberal, Kan., Denver, Colo., Abilene and Lubbock, participating in only seven of the 14 races of the year, the maroon-red-ride-of Olton Motor Company earned sufficient points to be awarded the trophy, given by SARC for "Outstanding Car of 1956."

Furthermore, the Loveless racing cars "stayed together." He points with pride to the fact that at least one of them lasted through two racing seasons without major repair.

But the builder was not the race driver. He simply "took them to the track, warmed them up to be sure they were running right, then turned them over to somebody else."

Loveless does contend, however, that racing is not dangerous. Quoting statistics of all the racing mileage piled up within a year and the few deaths incurred, as against the well known statistics of highway travel, he makes his point.

"Racing is safer than driving the streets of Olton," he maintains. All racing drivers are top-notch drivers, they know what they are doing or they would not be out there, and too...," he laughs "...they are all going the same way!"

Everything But The Kitchen Sink

BY MOZELLE TROTTER

Self-sacrifice is a whole lot easier and we tend to show a bit of pious pride when the doing-without item is something that doesn't really strike at our own wants. It's when the doing without is something we don't want to do without that we wail with displeasure.

Sort of like the sleepy dog lying beside his master's rocking chair. As long as the rhythmic swish of the tail escapes the downward motion of the rocker, everything is fine. Let that rocker catch the tail and the result is a pretty loud yelp.

Well, that's how it is with Yours Truly.

Very smugly I proclaimed how "walking is good for you," there's just too much hopping in cars when the distance to be traveled is just a block or two or six or so. Ah, yes, very pompous, I was!

'Twas a different story this week when the President called forth for folks to forego Sunday traveling and for gas stations to please call curfew to Sunday sales. Very, very seldom do we ever travel anywhere on Sunday so that wasn't going to be a big deal -- and then -- Son Number Two got a chance to come home for the weekend.

A field trip in one of his courses was set this weekend in Abilene. From College Station, Abilene is almost home! You should have heard Mama yelp when she realized it was "too bad," no trip on home because you simply can't get 500 miles on one tank of gas if you're traveling in a Trotter vehicle.

"Sacrifice" is truly a different word from that point of view!

Rueing my words well this week, I also have to admit I was too righteous and self-centered when I struck out verbally against complainers. I'm really yelping over the forthcoming return to daylight savings time. Don't like it in the summer and don't like it in the fall! Don't like it, PERIOD.

So, guess I'd better take a double or triple dose of my own medicine and pay special observance to my pet motto, "Never criticize your neighbor until you've walked a mile in his moccasins." His shoes are killing me!

'Mail Early'

Postmaster D. M. Holt announced today that Dec. 3-8 will be "Christmas Mail Early Week" in Olton.

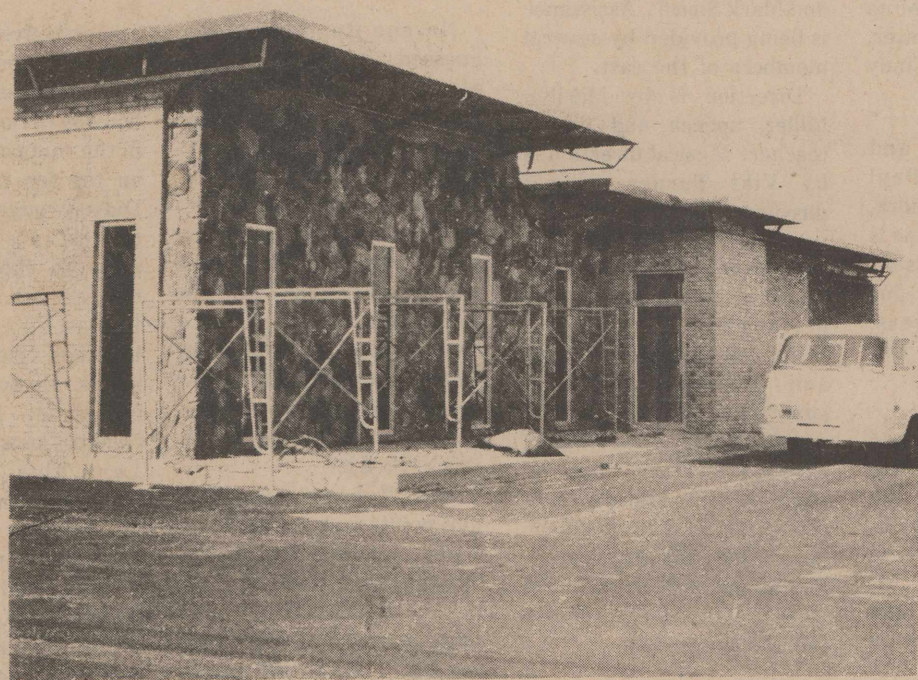

The fuel energy crisis is a cause of great concern to the Postal Service as it affects the timely movement of Christmas mail. The curtailment in the number of air flights as well as the 50 mile-an-hour speed limit for vehicles makes Mail Early Week more important this year than ever before according to Holt.

"We are handling more mail this Christmas than in any previous year", Postmaster Holt said. "In order to get this mail to its destination by December 25, we need your cooperation in mailing early."

HOLIDAY TIME

Home for the holidays is always a popular reason for traveling, but one member of the family never really gets to enjoy the get-together. Every Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner, Mom not only mixes out on most of the festivities, but she's the one who has to cook the food, wash the dishes and clean up afterwards.

To allow her to celebrate along with the rest of the family, Holiday Inn restaurants offer sumptuous holiday meals at family prices during the Holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Wood, Angela, Jodie and Teena, all of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde King of Lawton, Okla.

Fae Moore spent Thanksgiving Day in Plainview with his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ragle.

Visiting in the D. R. Leonard home over the holidays were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCary and Brad of Alpine. They also visited other relatives in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Neinast of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Neinast and Aubrey Neinast went to Sagerton Monday to attend funeral services for an uncle, Paul Neinast.

Victor Neinast of Arizona is visiting here with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Neinast and a sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wells and other relatives in Littlefield.

Mrs. L. E. Ball went by plane to El Paso to spend Thanksgiving with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Atterbury and children. She returned home with Ball's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen of Amarillo who also visited in the Atterbury home. The Allens visited a few days in the Ball home before returning to Amarillo.

Visiting in the L. W. Sullivan home during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hendrick and Jerry of Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hukill and children of Farwell.

Wednesday night supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Oliver were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Timmins and their grandson Jeff Lewis of Whitharral.

Mrs. Wayne Sistrunk is back in the hospital in Plainview for further tests. She spent several days in the hospital a week earlier.

PRICES HIKED

Cost of wool fabrics is 30 per cent over that of last year. Worsteds that cost $4.50 a yard last year now sell for $6.50, says Marilyn Brown, consumer education-clothing and textiles specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Yule Forget-Me-Not

There's only one thing as frustrating as receiving a gift after an occasion, and that is remembering too late to send a gift on time.

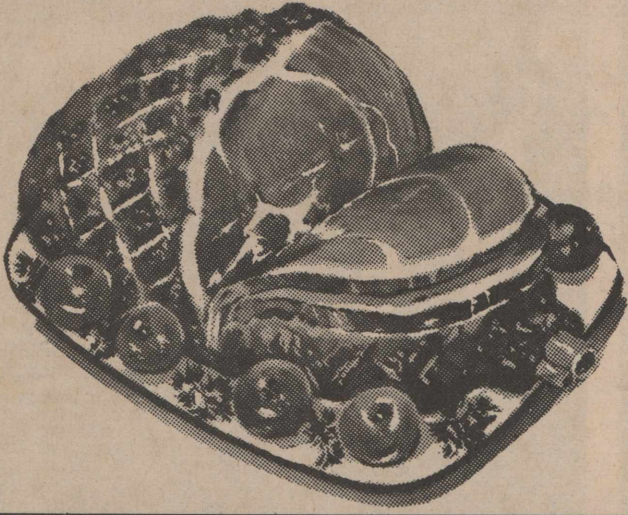

At those times, what's a gift sender to do?

All year long, hundreds of thousands of people rely on GiftAmerica for just this purpose. This new Western Union company, a leading expert on the gift-giving needs of Americans, operates a nationwide network of telephone service that supplies a variety of gifts and delivers them within hours to almost anywhere in the 48 contiguous states.

When you dial the toll-free number 800-325-5000 (in Missouri only 800-342-5777), a shopper guide will help you select an appropriate gift for any occasion and arrange for its timely delivery. GiftAmerica accepts most major credit cards.

It's nice to know that even during the busy two weeks before Christmas -- when it may be impossible to mail a present in time--GiftAmerica makes it possible to select and send your Christmas gifts in time--a truly forget-me-not idea.

MR. AND MRS. BOB DAUGHERTY

Mr., Mrs. Bob Daugherty To Be Feted With Party

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Daugherty will be honored with a reception Sunday, Dec. 9 in observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Calling hours are 2 to 5 p.m. in the fellowship hall of First United Methodist Church.

Hosting the affair are the couples children, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wartchow and Johnny of Stroud, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Daugherty and Joe Bob of Lubbock.

Friends and relatives are invited.

Daugherty was married to the former Cassie Carlton Dec. 23, 1923 in the home of the late Fred Schreier, pastor of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

MRS. ROY HAMMONDS

Cook Of The Week

"I love to cook and Roy loves to eat so we're a real combination," says Cook of the Week. Glenda Hammonds, one of Olton's very young homemakers.

Glenda moved to Olton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rush Turner, when she was in the sixth grade. She is a graduate of Olton High School.

The young Hammondses met when both were attending Southwest Business School in Plainview. Roy was studying court reporting while Glenda was enrolled in secretarial training.

After completion of their studies at Southwest, the Hammondses lived a little more than six months in Arkansas before Roy decided court reporting was not his choice for a life's work. He is now engaged as a painter.

Glenda and Roy share a love of reading and an appreciation of good books. For the books she no longer cares to keep in their library, Glenda and her sister-in-law, Paulette Turner, have begun a new hobby—"antiquing" the books with gesso and turning it into a treasured keepsake.

A music lover, Glenda also likes to sing. She is eagerly pursuing another new interest, sewing. Proud owner of a new sewing machine, she laughingly admits she had to return to the shop where it was bought to learn the second time the proper way to thread it.

Keeping up with two lively young sons is a full-time job which Glenda loves. Brick will be five years old in February; little Shawn is eight and a half months.

Glenda is outreach leader of her Sunday School class at First Baptist Church. She is also a member of the recently organized Young Homemakers Club and is enthusiastic about the meetings they have had thus far.

Seeking some "Christmas money" all her own, Glenda has launched into a new project. She plans to "bake by order" and hopes to have calls for baked goodies during the festive season ahead.

SOUR CREAM CHICKEN ENCHILADAS

3 1/2 c. sour cream
2 c. chicken
1 can mushrooms drains (4 oz.)
1 can green chilies, drained (4 oz.)
1/2 c. chopped onions
1 t. chili powder
1/2 t. salt
1/2 t. garlic powder
1/4 t. pepper
Cooking oil
12 Tortillas
8 oz. Grated Cheese

Spread 1 cup sour cream in a large baking pan. In saucepan, combine chicken, 1/2 cup sour cream, mushrooms, chilies, onions and spices. Cook until heated.

Try tortillas in oil until just soft. Place about 1/4 cup chicken mixture in each tortilla. Roll it over and place seam side down in sour cream pan. Spread enchiladas with remaining sour cream, then sprinkle with cheese. Bake in 450 degrees until cheese is melted.

CHEESE POTATOES

4 medium potatoes
4 or 5 slices cheese
salt
pepper
1/2 c. milk
1/2 stick butter

Slice potatoes, boil till tender. Drain. Turn into baking dish and pour milk over. Salt and pepper to taste. Dot butter over potatoes. Cover with cheese. Bake till cheese melts in warm oven.

SWEDISH TEA RING

1/2 c. plus 2 T. milk
1/2 c. shortening
1/2 c. sugar
1/2 t. salt
1 package active dry yeast
2 T. lukewarm water
3 to 3 1/2 c. sifted flour
2 eggs, beaten
melted shortening
1 stick melted butter
1 c. brown sugar
3 T. cinnamon

Scald milk. Add shortening, sugar, and salt. Stir till sugar dissolves; cool to lukewarm. Dissolve yeast in water; combine with milk mixture. Stir in 1 1/2 c. flour; add eggs; beat well. Add enough flour to make a soft dough. Turn out on lightly floured board; knead till smooth and elastic. Put in a greased bowl; brush with shortening; cover and let rise in a warm place, 80 degree F, to 85 degree F., till double in bulk, about 2 hours. Turn out on a floured board; roll into a rectangle about 8 x 12 inches. Brush with butter. Sprinkle with brown sugar and cinnamon. Roll up like a jelly roll; shape into a ring on greased baking sheet; seal ends. From the outside, cut through the ring toward center almost all the way through, in 1 inch slices. Turn slices slightly in side. Brush with shortening, cover; let rise about 45 minutes or till double in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degrees, 25 to 30 minutes. While warm spread with powdered sugar icing. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Makes 1 ring.

MRS. ROGER THOMPSON

Thompson-McGuire Vows Read In Friday Ceremony

Wedding vows were recited Friday, Nov. 30, by Miss Mary McGuire and Roger Guy Thompson.

The Rev. Dr. Dudley Strain, pastor of First Christian Church, Lubbock, officiated the double ring ceremony attended only by members of the immediate families.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth G. McGuire of Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson are parents of the bridegroom.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal length gown of chiffon and velvet. Styled with a bodice of ruby velvet and a skirt of softly gathered pink chiffon, the bodice featured long narrow sleeves accented with a ruffle of velvet and pink chiffon at the wrist. A matching ruffle of velvet and chiffon edged the V-neckline.

Wearing, as a headpiece, a velvet Dior bow, she carried a bridal bouquet of pink and burgundy roses and carnations.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Peggy McGuire of Beaverton, Ore. She wore a carpet length gown fashioned of pink silk crepe.

Serving as best man was Larry Boedeker of Garland, brother-in-law of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McGuire chose a light blue carpet length gown of silk peau de soie with an orchid corsage. The mother of the groom wore a carpet length gown of pale green chiffon with an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple was honored with a reception held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hendon of Lubbock. The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink

Farm And Ranch Wives Meet In Huguley Home

Mrs. A. G. Huguley hosted a meeting of Farm and Ranch Wives Study Club recently. Assisting as co-hostess was Mrs. Garland Rose.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Floy Sluder, discussed "What Women Should Know About Insurance." Roll call was answered with a statement, "What I Am Most Thankful For."

Members present were Mmes. Oliver Rose, Johnny St. Clair, Charles Shipley, Leon Griffin, Jack Kirby, Delbert Howell, James Couch, Dan Cure, Huguley and Rose.

Next meeting will be held Wednesday, Dec. 12, in the James Couch home. Members are asked to bring a gift for the game bag.

HAS SURGERY

Larry Murrill Jr. had dental surgery in Clovis, N. M. Saturday. Going to Clovis with him was his mother and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Billy Garner of Earth.

Young Homemakers Study Christmas Candy, Decor

Christmas specialties, the making of candy and bread dough decorations, will be demonstrated Monday, Dec. 3, when Young Homemakers hold their December meeting.

Members are asked to bring candy recipes, a sauce pan, ingredients and candy thermometer (if available). Mrs. H. B. Maxey Jr. will advise and give tips for making candy.

Mrs. Charlie Burrus will demonstrate making and decorating 'bread dough' decorations. Members are urged to be present for the exchange of ideas for holiday treats and beauties.

WMA Slates Garage Sale

carnations and gypsophila. The traditional tiered cake carried touches of pink and ruby roses.

A 1969 graduate of Coronado High School, she attended Texas Tech University. She was employed in the general offices of Furr's Cafeterias.

Thompson, a 1967 graduate of Olton High School, received a BS degree from Texas Tech in 1971.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Olton where Thompson is associated with his father in business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson honored the couple Thursday night with a dinner held in the Executive Room of the Lubbock Club. Table decor was formed of votive candles and magnolia leaves.

Member of the WMA of Hopewell Baptist Church will hold a garage sale and bake sale Friday and Saturday, Dec. 7-8, in the building formerly occupied by Leon's Grocery. The sale will begin each day at 10 a.m.

Items offered in the garage sale will include clothing, especially children's clothes, wigs and other articles. Handcrafts and arts will also be available. Homebaked goodies will be sold in connection with the garage sale.

FROM AMARILLO

Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Moses were her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Wynn and their granddaughter, Amber Ferem, all of Amarillo.

J. Gallagher Earns Award

An Olton resident was honored Wednesday night at Pioneer Natural Gas Company's annual service award dinner at the Lubbock Country Club.

James E. Gallagher, Pioneer's senior representative in Olton, was presented an award recognizing his 25 years of service to the company.

K. Bert (Tex) Watson, president of Pioneer, presented the awards at the banquet which was the second of three such events being held by the company at different cities in its service area. This year a total of 196 employees, representing 3,025 years of service, are being honored.

Train Ride

By J. C. Hines

We left Durango at half past eight
On the Narrow Gauge Train
Which was a little bit late
The Tender was loaded
With ten tons of coal
That the fireman would have to shovel
To make the drivers roll
Up that three thousand foot climb
In the forty mile run
From Durango to Silverton
We sat in the coach
Just back of the tender
And if we opened the door
We'd get our eyes full of cinders
But as I looked straight ahead
Through the Glass in the door
I could see the engine reel and rock
At its upgrade chore
I could see from the stack
Steam and black smoke roll
All because of the fireman shoveling coal
But when we got to Silverton
He would have it made
Because back to Durango
Would be all down grade
As we slowly rolled along
Up the Animas river
Seeing the snow capped peaks
Almost made us shiver
But the scenic grandeur
Was something to behold
For around every curve
A new picture would unfold
For it was in September
When the colors were at their peak
The Aspen trees all hued red, yellow and gold
We observed all the beauty
While the fireman shoveled coal
As we reeled and rocked along
Between the canyon walls
I recalled before leaving the station
The fireman in his clean blue overalls
But when the trip was over
And his days work was done
It was a fright to behold
That dirty son of a gun
He was black and all smutty
From his head to his toes
All because of shoveling
That ten tons of coal.

SCOUT

NEWS

Den II, Olton Cub Scouts, met Thursday with Mrs. Doug Geon and Mrs. Don Nafzger, adult leaders.

Roll call was answered by naming something wanted for a Christmas gift.

In work on fetes of skill, the first achievement was accomplished leading toward the Wolf Badge.

Refreshments, furnished by Mrs. Randall Roper, were served to Ruben Zamora, Craig Hukill, Randy Goen, Mayo Anzaldua, Brad Roper, Danny Oursborn, and Wade Nafzger. Visitors were Jana Nafzger and Rhonda Goen.

All members of Den III, Olton Cub Scouts, were present Friday, and all six were awarded Bob Cat badges. Boys achieving this honor were Jimmy Kinser, Mike Dennis, Greg Rivera, Victor Rivera, Leonard Lawson and David Gee.

Meeting at the Scout house the group went to a local drive-in for hamburgers, drinks and ice cream.

Upon returning to the scout house, games were played. Pledge to the flag was given. Closing prayer was led by Mike Dennis.

Adult leaders present were Mmes. Lyndol Kinser and Gene Gee. Guests were Sherree and Kristal Kinser and Michella and James Gee.

G.H. BLEY STA.

FROM FARWELL

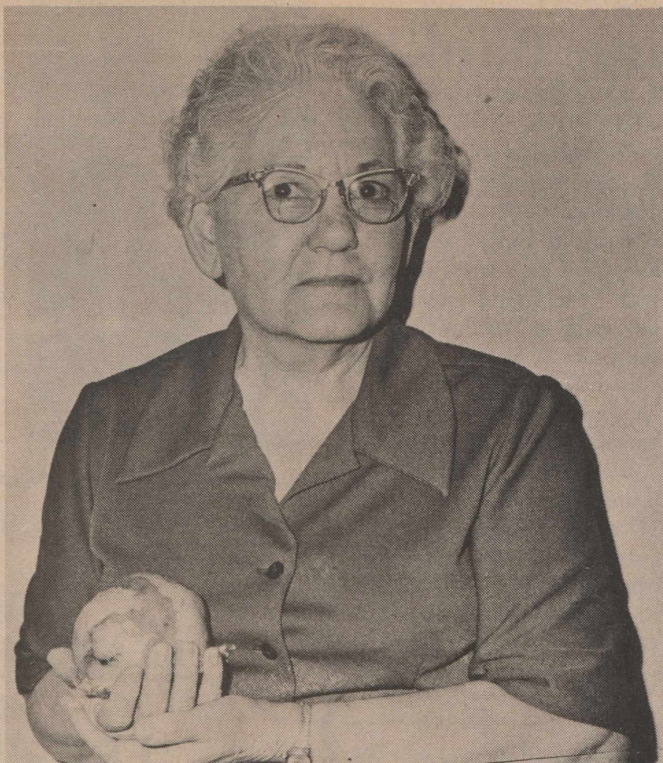

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Randal of Farwell spent Thanksgiving Day with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Spurlin.

DINNER GUESTS

Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pinson were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Pinson and Brandon of Brownfield, the hostess' mother, Mrs. Lizzie Harper of Big Sandy, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Willis, and their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Willis Jauna Beth and Jerrilyn, all of Plainview.

VISITS GRANDMOTHER

Miss Diann Boverie, student of Abilene Christian College, came Wednesday evening to stay until Sunday afternoon with her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Boverie.

MONSTROUS PEAR, weighing at least one and one-half pounds, survived the freeze by falling into a small mountain of leaves in the W. B. Dickenson yard. Some three such pears grew in topmost branches.

BRUSHING UP ON HAIR CARE

It is time to challenge one of the oldest myths. This myth—passed on from grandmother, no doubt, was that to have healthy, shining hair it was essential to brush vigorously at least 100 strokes every day. How wrong Granny was! That was yesteryear, and as the saying goes, we've come a long way, baby! A long way to realizing that overzealous combing and brushing can represent a major cause of hair damage.

So say the experts. Among them Dr. Karl Laden, who is known in the field of cosmetic science, and Clairol's research scientists who use a scanning electron microscope to measure hair damage and its causes.

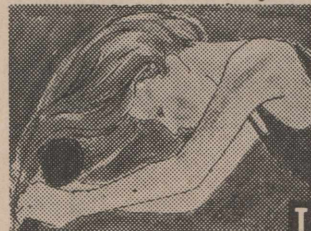

"Once the hair has grown out from the scalp it is like any other inanimate material," Dr. Laden stated, "and can only take a certain amount of rubbing, stretching, bending, pulling, twisting, teasing, straightening, etc., before some amount of physical damage occurs. Furthermore, when you consider that the ends of your hair can be on your head for three to five years, depending on your hair length, one realizes just how much physical abuse it must withstand."

Experts feel excessive combing and brushing can split the hair—not at the ends—but along the middle of the hair fiber. These splits result from the high forces being exerted on the hair as it is being pulled through the teeth of the comb. When this happens, small cracks or separations develop and as the hair grows out they become split ends. The longer the hair the greater the pull on the hair—resulting in the "frizzies."

Creme rinses, like Clairol's herbal essence creme rinse, lubricate the hair shaft by ensuring the comb glides through the hair smoothly—not eradicating a problem which has already been created but helping to minimize it.

While we're on the subject of do's and don'ts, do wash your hair as often as is needed. Just use the proper kind of shampoo. Don't ever go to bed in rollers. That's another good way to break and split the hair. Don't rub, pull, or twist wet hair in a towel...pat it dry. Do rinse hair thoroughly and follow with a cool water rinse. And treat yourself to a brush which has rounded, unsharp bristles.

When you brush and comb, my lady, remember to be gentle. Brush your hair by bending over and brushing from the nape of the neck forward. Then standing erect, flip hair back to its normal position and lightly comb or brush from underneath into its style. Comb gently after shampoo and creme rinse. Let the rinse do all the work.

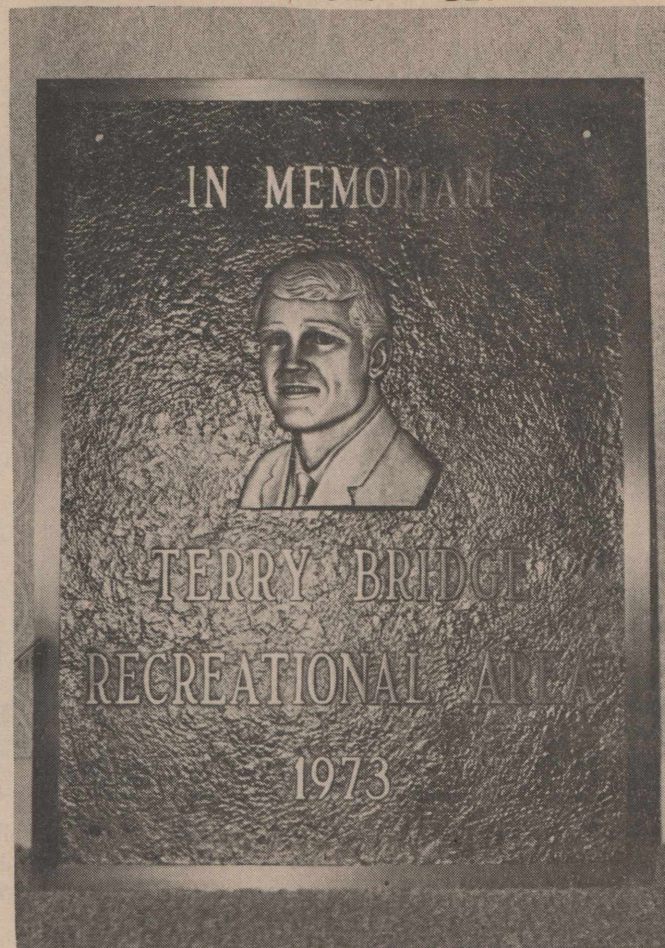

Remember, if your hair could talk it might be asking for your help. It just may not know that it isn't alive. Let's not tell it by abusing and neglecting it.

DINNER GUESTS

Thanksgiving dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Moore, Timmy and Kristi were Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Moore and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Williamson.

FROM EARTH

Recent callers of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Murrell were their son and his wife. Mr. and Mrs. Billy Garner, and Murrell's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Murrell, all of Earth.

Terry Bridge Memorial Dedicated In Springlake

Dedication services were held Sunday morning for the Terry Bridge Recreational Area at the First Baptist Church in Springlake.

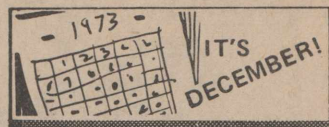

Bridge, a student at Texas Tech University when he lost his life in an automobile accident, during the Easter holidays, was an outstanding athlete throughout school.

Bridge, a student at Texas Tech University when he lost his life in an automobile accident, during the Easter holidays, was an outstanding athlete throughout school. He also played baseball, playing in the Olton Baseball Association program and was selected a Babe Ruth All Star for the Olton All Stars.

The recreational area was built through memorial gifts honoring Bridge. It consists of small playground equipment for younger children and a concrete court for a larger group. The court is designed for use for basketball, volley ball and tennis.

Bridge was a nephew of Mmes. Melvin Souter and Leona Martin.

HISTORIC DATES THIS MONTH

Someone's birthday or anniversary this month? How about flowers from the florists with the "extra touch?" FTD florists have a special Forget-Me-Not Bouquet for those special days. And this month has been special for many reasons over the years—

DEC. 1. Boys Town founded for good boys gone bad in 1917, by the Reverend Monsignor Edward J. Flanagan in Omaha, Nebraska.

DEC. 3. The first human heart transplant was accomplished in Capetown, South Africa, by Dr. Christian Barnard in 1967.

DEC. 5. Prohibition repealed by President Franklin Roosevelt in 1933, just in time for Christmas and New Year celebrations.

DEC. 15. Police and Firemen Appreciation Day.

DEC. 16. American patriots disguised as Indians threw three ships' cargo of tea into the Boston harbor at the Boston Tea Party in 1773.

DEC. 17. Orville and Wilbur Wright made the first successful flight in a heavier-than-air machine at Kitty Hawk in 1903.

DEC. 21. The pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock in 1620 and established their colony in the New World.

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"Secrecy and newspapers are mortal enemies. When government is conducted in secret, the people have no way of obtaining information about what happened. Freedom requires that the people be fully informed in order to act in their own best interest.... Historically, it has been the role of newspapers to keep a watch on government and public officials by reporting what happens at public meetings and discussions affecting the public interest. Only when people are fully informed about actions of their public officials can they make sound judgments and cast intelligent votes. And only in this way can democracy function and people keep themselves free."

VENTILATION TIPS

When a bathroom, kitchen or laundry room gets steamed up, close it off. Where there's no built-in exhaust system, place a fan by the window to push moist air out, suggests Mrs. Doris Myers, home management specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

IN CLOVIS

Randy and Nina Spurlin were in Clovis, N.M. Tuesday until Thursday evening with their sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bullion and Sandra.

Mrs. Ronnie (Bobbie Tollett) Dennis; Mrs. Ronald (Phyllis Hair) Fancher, Lubbock; Mrs. Robert (Cheryl Poteet) Duncan, Lubbock; Mrs. Bill (Janice Moses) Slate, Oklahoma City; and Mrs. Don (Billie Beasley) Riley, Houston. Mrs. Harmon (Tanya Bryant) Meixner, Lubbock, attended but is not pictured. Letters were read from Mrs. Kenneth (Sammie Clark) Blades and Ralph Hamm. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner.

FROM BLOSSOM

Jerry Dennis and his son Danny of Blossom were weekend guests of relatives.

A third of a cup of vinegar can be a valuable liquid asset for a baby bottle sterilizer. If left to soak overnight, it will remove the mineral and rust deposits.

Using lemon juice is a handy way of removing spots from fingers. Squeeze the juice of a lemon into a very small container and soak your fingers in it. Afterward, gently brush your fingers with mild hand soap and warm water and rinse well. Use your favorite hand cream and just see the difference.

Food encrusted coated chairs needn't be an eyesore. A thorough sponging with Ajax All Purpose Cleaner in hot water dissolves the grease and softens the food, to make the chairs look like new.

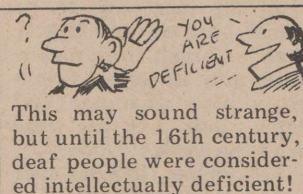

You can get soiled tennis shoes white on a shoestring. After washing them in the washing machine, apply white shoe polish diluted first with one-half water. When they are dry and stains are completely covered, they look like new.

HOLIDAY GUESTS

Thanksgiving Day guests in the home of Mrs. Nettie Mae Hall were her son Curtis Hall of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Dennis, DeAndrea and Jill of Kress; Susan Nicholas of Lubbock; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Nicholas and Sharla and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Houston, Dana and Denise.

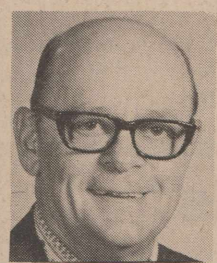

IN LUBBOCK

Thanksgiving Day guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hoover and JoLisa of Lubbock were Mr. and Mrs. L.W. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Snider and Dianne, Bob Hall, Mrs. Sue Cannon, Jimmy, Guy, Debbie, Greg and Scottie. Susan Cannon of Lubbock was also a guest.

Olton Man Buys Stock In Farmers State Bank

Control of Farmers State Bank in Hart has been acquired by a group of five investors, three of which now or will reside in the Hart area.

The five investors are Garland DePrang, Wister Clevenger, James H. Werner, Jim T. Hair and Melvin Tekyl.

Edward L. Harris, George E. Bennett and Clinton Billingsley will continue to serve on the board of directors as they have for seven years. They will be joined by DePrang, Clevenger, Werner and Hair to compose the present board of directors.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors, Werner was elected president of Farmers State Bank and will assume duties as soon as living accommodations can be arranged.

For the past three years, Werner has served as vice president and trust officer of Mansfield State Bank in Mansfield and prior to that was employed by the Department of Banking of the State of Texas. He also was associated with First National Bank of Temple for seven years.

Werner is married and the father of two children, Mark, 11, and Jana, six.

Billingsley, executive vice president, has been with Farmers State Bank five years and will continue to serve in the same capacity.

Napoleon rejected plans for a submarine as a "barbaric" method of warfare.

WILLS ARE important was the message brought to parents and teachers Thursday evening at the regular PTA meeting in the school cafeteria. Horace Mitchell of Littlefield, an attorney practicing in Lubbock, was guest speaker.

'Fifth Wheeler' Second Home

Proud owners of a new "fifth wheel" travel trailer, the T. J. Robersons are looking forward to many happy hours and a world of pleasure whether it be in the form of short visits or extensive travel.

"I've had more fun than I've had in years and we haven't even been anywhere yet," T. J. says as he proudly shows off the attractive, convenient and liveable "Twilight Bungalow."

Every inch of space is utilized with an amazing amount of storage space in the trailer with its pretty blue and green decor. Just about every need of the traveler has been foretold and prepared for with "all the comforts of home" in house on wheels.

"It's something I'd always wanted," Roberson says. A heart attack a few months back hurried his plans for acquiring the dream trailer and he's awaiting the "green light" of his doctor to take to the road in its initial trip. The Robersons are readying the trailer for a trip to Houston and a lengthy visit with their children there, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Roberson and Mrs. John Herron.

Although the Robersons haven't "really" been somewhere they have given the trailer a "road test," on country roads, at that. Marveling at its ease of transporting, the Robersons are also amazed at the complete steadiness of the trailer's contents. A floral arrangement placed on the bedside table was still sitting in its proper place at the conclusion of their trip although they had driven a large number of miles over dirt roads.

Too, the trailer is very well insulated and keeps out all but the faintest trace of sand and has been weather proven for the quality. A friend, visiting the Robersons one evening after a "duster" of last week couldn't wait to "write his name upon a small table built beside the divan. The trailer's well-constructed qualities prevented that accomplishment, much to the pleasure of the proud owners.

A housewife's dream in the fantastic utilization of every inch of space, the trailer has more storage than many homes twice its size. Even the steps leading up to the "upper level" bedroom conceal storage. The carpeted steps are disguised lids for storage spaces with the top tread lifting to show enough space to store a card table and chairs. The second step hides T. J.'s tools and the shallower but still spacious lower step is good for multiple uses.

Sufficient in itself, the trailer can be parked at some hide-away rest or fishing spot and life can still go on with the conveniences of lights, water pressure, butane stove and refrigerator. Lights operate from a choice of two power sources. A small black switch at the lamps turns on electrical lighting while the turn of a similar white switch utilizes the power from a 12-volt battery.

Year-round comfort is also readily available with central heating and cooling-off electrical power if it is available or power from a generator which T. J. has yet to install in its own special compartment.

Parked in camping facilities, a plastic telescoping hose hidden in the back bumper is easily hooked up for sewer disposal. Away from camping areas, a sufficiently large sewer tank is located beneath the trailer and is simply and easily hooked up for emptying when the travelers arrive at camping facilities.

Used conservatively, the trailer has sufficient water storage to do the campers for a week. Should the battery operated lights drain too much power, the battery is simply and quickly recharged from the pickup which provides the trailer's fifth wheel.

The trailer, built in Rush Springs, Okla., is the only one T. J. had ever seen that held that "this is it" attraction and it's better than a little boy's first bike.

"I never know what he's going to come home with next," says Norene, as T. J. keeps finding "something we needed." A most recent acquirement is a child's sturdy folding table and chairs so that dominoes or cards may even be played in the bedroom.

The trailer sleeps four comfortably. Both the double bed in the pretty blue and walnut bedroom and the divan, which makes into a double bed, are designed with flex-o-steel springs for comfort. The divan is beautifully upholstered in blue and avocado crushed velvet.

There's not only plush accommodations awaiting the Robersons while they visit their children but there's comfort and happiness of home where ever they go and for T. J. the road is calling.

An antique buff, T. J. plans stops whenever and wherever the desire strikes. Maybe it'll be to hunt odd pieces of antique furniture, a bed they want to complete their "turn of the century" bedroom in their home or some other item that strikes their fancy. It could even be old bottles, jars or glassware. Rock hunting may even be the order of the day and a search for driftwood. And, too, out yonder there's lakes or streams inviting the new rovers, "stop here."

GRASSROOTS OPINION

"People are the same everywhere—Natives who beat drums to ward off evil spirits are objects of scorn to smart Americans who blow horns to break up traffic jams."

Carter Rites Held Thursday

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon in LaGrone Funeral Home Chapel in Canyon for Robert J. Carter, 72, father of Mrs. Cecil G. Smith.

Officiating were the Rev. Derrel Lewis, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church, and the Rev. Darold Baldwin, assistant pastor of First Baptist Church. Burial was in Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Home.

Carter died Monday evening in Neblett Hospital in Canyon after suffering an apparent heart attack. He was a native of Waco and had lived in Canyon since 1929. A World War I veteran, he was a retired rancher.

Other survivors include his wife, Lucy Mae; son, Horace David of Canyon; one other daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Inman of Midland; a brother, Lewis of Houston; a sister, Mrs. Mamie Rutherford of Waco and 10 grandchildren.

FROM DIMMITT

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Keating were their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Max Keating Cleve and Katrina of Dimmitt.

BARBECUE TIPS

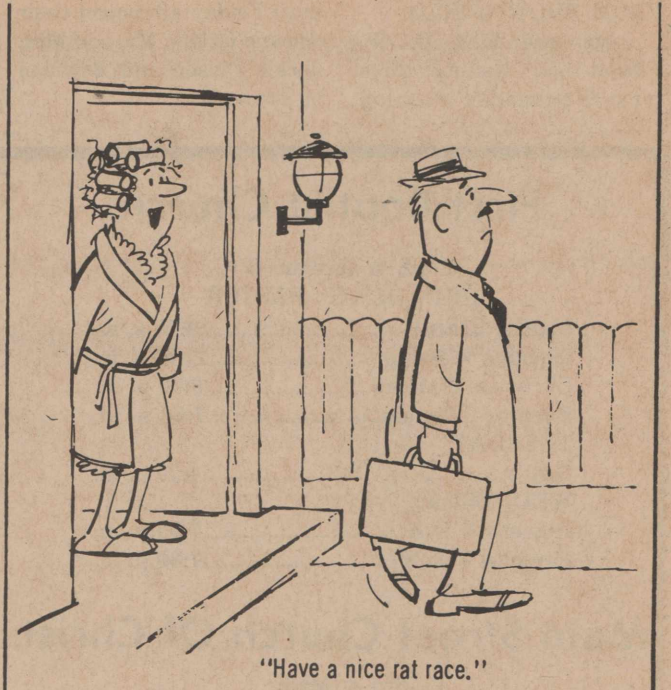

For best results when barbecuing, use only tender meat. Neither the outdoor air nor barbecue sauce will "camouflage" tough meat, says Karen Kreipke, foods and nutrition specialist, Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

Card Of Thanks

Our sincere thanks to all our friends for prayers, cards, visits and food following Earnest's recent heart surgery.

May God bless each of you.

Boys Ranch Seeking Help

The goal to provide each of the 368 boys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch with a new suit or clothing package for Christmas began today.

The annual Christmas Suit Fund has become a favorite way of giving for friends of the boys who contribute $25 for this purpose.

"Although costs for new suits will exceed $25, some of the Ranch's boys receive clothing packages for less than that amount." Virgil Patterson, Ranch president, said, "Amarillo merchants also help by making it possible for the boys to have suits at discounts. Suits and clothing packages will average about $25 per boy."

The suits replace those that have been worn out or outgrown, and in many cases, they are the first new suits some of the boys have ever owned. The boys get to select their own suits from Amarillo department stores. "A new suit is the best Christmas present a boy can receive because it is a year-round reminder of those who care," Patterson said.

Contributions to the Boys Ranch Christmas Suit Fund may be mailed to the Boys Ranch Office, P. O. Box 1890, Amarillo, Texas, 79105, or taken to the administrative office at 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo.

RECENT VISITORS

Recent guests of O. Lewis were his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Lewis of Pecos and their son Gary who is a senior at Texas Tech University.

TO MISSOURI

Mrs. Marlin Edwards and Quilla accompanied by Sharon Ratliff visited during Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Edward's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett McBroom of Avilla, Mo. Also visiting there was the Edward's son Lyndell who is attending School of the Ozarks, at Point Look Out, Mo. Write In The Groove

BRYAN ALLCORN AND FREDDY STOCKDALE

First off, we'd like to remind everyone in Olton and the surrounding citizens or non-citizens that the OHS Speech and Choral Departments are presenting the musical drama "Lil Abner". The production will run two nights-Saturday, Dec. 8 and Monday, Dec. 10. Reserve tickets are $2; adults, $1.50, and students, $1. Everyone be sure to get a ticket and come.

While you are buying a ticket from one of the cast, ask about "Polywogs". You have to be a nut if you don't. Just think, all you boys with girlfriends, you can go up to someone and say proudly, "There's nothing like buying a girl a 'Polywog'!" But seriously folks, they are good and if you don't believe us, just ask anyone from ZIT High or Pimple University.

Christmas is just around the corner and if you're thinking about writing to our man Santa-we'll deliver your letter-to the press. Just write down what you want and give it to one of us.

Speaking of basketball (or were we?), the varsity and JV girls have played three games. The JV girls are 3-0 and the varsity is 2-1. The varsity boys came back Tuesday night and are now 1-1 as of Wednesday night. The JV boys haven't played yet but are expecting them to do well.

On with the comments: Cindy N.-every chair is a rocker, HUH! John R.-What was the comment you wanted to put in about Virginia? Mark S.-Atta boy! Rudy L.-"Back When My Hair Was Short!"

Student Council met Monday, Nov. 26. It was decided that there would be a Christmas Door Decorating Contest again this year. Competition will be between the second period classes and will be held the last week of school before the Christmas holidays.

Also discussed were the pay telephones that will be put in the gym and in the school building as soon as possible.

3 Local Farmers Receive Corn Growers' Awards

Three area corn growers have been named to receive special awards for their outstanding corn yields in Funk's-G Project:200 high yield corn growing program. The announcement was made by High Plains Seed of Olton, representing the Producers of Funk's G-Hybrids.

Award-winning corn growers, their hybrids and yields are: R. G. DeBerry, Olton, 130.5 Bu./Acre with G-4646; Harlan Carson, Olton, 153.1 Bu./Acre with G-4808, and Gary DeBerry, Hart, 149.0 Bu./Acre with G-4646.

Project:200 is America's largest high yield corn growing contest. It challenges growers to increase corn yields on their land for greater productivity and profit. In 1971 and 1972, more than 10,000 U. S. and Canadian growers submitted Project:200 entries.

Project:200 participants agree to harvest as shelled corn a minimum of two acres from not less than four adjacent rows running the full length of the field. The information on area harvested grain weight, and moisture content is verified by a disinterested witness. Final yields are reported on the basis of No. 2 corn.

MOTORCYCLE COINS GOLD

The fabulous BMW motorcycle does indeed coin gold. Gold Medals, that is. It has just won another one at the grueling International Six Days Trial at Dalton, Mass. And to top it all, this Gold Medal was won the year BMW is celebrating its Golden Anniversary of motorcycle production.

BMW stands for the Bavarian Motor Works of Munich, West Germany. Manufacturers of the undisputed best motorcycle in the world, and also of one of the best sports sedans.

They are celebrating this fiftieth anniversary as the first BMW motorcycle came off the assembly line in 1913.

Distinguished by the unique horizontally-opposed 2-cylinder engine-layout and by a shaft drive, like an automobile's, these motorcycles took the first of BMW's Gold Medals in 1924. Since then they've been honored with way more than 2000 of these golden coins. At races and trials all over the globe.

The latest medal was won by Herbert Schek on BMW at the 1973 ISDT's, the toughest of motorcycle tests for man and machine ever devised. A test of skill, reliability, and endurance with World Championship status held almost yearly since 1913.

Herbert Schek riding his trusty BMW on the way to win a Gold Medal at the 1973 ISDT.

In this sport man and machine are one. Max Friz, the designer of the first BMW motorcycle, expressed it more than fifty years ago when he said: "When you construct a motorcycle, the engineering calculations will never balance if they don't include the man on the machine."

To be sure, it takes superior riding skill to pass a course like the ISDT's, but no matter how good, the rider can only be as good as his machine.

And the results prove that BMW, the incomparable motorcycle built for touring and sport, can take it. Its reliability and quality of construction are matchless.

And that bagful of golden coins, the thousands of Gold Medals, are weighty proof that BMW motorcycles are the best-period.

Nine Farmers Receive Sorghum Awards

Nine Olton producers have been named to receive special awards for their outstanding sorghum yields in Funk's-G Project: 25 high yield sorghum growing program. The announcement is made by High Plains Seed, representing Producers of Funk's G-Hybrids.

Award-winning growers and their yields are Elmer McGill, 8,717; John Montgomery, 7,526; James Brooks, 6,000; Billy Carson, 8,330; Elmer Houston, 7,852; Harlan Carson, 7,805; Robert Struve, 8,562; Glen Brown, 7,210 and Harold Mills, 7,201. All grew G-522 hybrid on irrigated land.

Project: 25 challenges producers to increase sorghum yields on their land for greater productivity and profit. Each grower benefits through increased knowledge of high yield sorghum production.

Participants agree to harvest a minimum of 25 acres on one parcel of land and submit harvest weights, moisture test and land area measurements. All information is validated by a disinterested witness.

Information about Project: 25 entries is computerized and made available to all sorghum growers so they can compare their methods with those of other top sorghum growers.

G. Telephone Adds Service

General Telephone Company has selected Littlefield District as their location for a new repair procedure according to Rad Richardson, Littlefield District Manager.

The new repair procedure was implemented Monday, Nov. 26. Customers reporting trouble during normal working hours will be asked additional question by the repair clerk or service personnel of the Telephone Company, Richardson said.

The District Manager said this new trouble reporting procedure will assist the Telephone Company Repair Service in determining the exact cause of the customer's problems and is designed to improve the time required to clear their trouble.

The entire Littlefield District, which covers Amherst, Anton, Bovina, Earth, Friona, Littlefield, Muleshoe, Olton, Spade, Springlake, Sudan, and Whitharal will be included in this procedure, Richardson said.
