Athlete Speaks At Victory Day

First Baptist Church is sponsoring a Demonstration Day and Victory Sunday March 2. Special services will be held for both Sunday School and morning worship services. A high attendance goal for the church has been set to correspond with this special day.

Doug Kingsriter, tight end for the Minnesota Viking Professional Football team, will speak to all young people of the church, grades 5 through high school, at 10:00 a.m.

He will speak briefly during the 11:00 a.m. service, then bring the major address at the afternoon banquet in Bura Handley Community Center.

The church membership will eat together at the community building, beginning at 12:30 p.m. Barbecue will be served. Special music will be by the Good-Time Singers of the church.

Mr. Kingsriter's address will be open to the public and will start at 1:30 p.m., according to the Rev. Roy Collins, pastor.

One of the country's outstanding athletes, Mr. Kingsriter is coming to Wellington as representative of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

"If you are interested in football, you will want to see how God can use a young man in professional sports. We invite the public to attend," said Rev. Collins.

Doug Kingsriter and his wife, Debbie, a former Miss Teen-age America, make their off-season home in Dallas.

He is a two-year veteran with the Minnesota Vikings and has played in the Super Bowl both years.

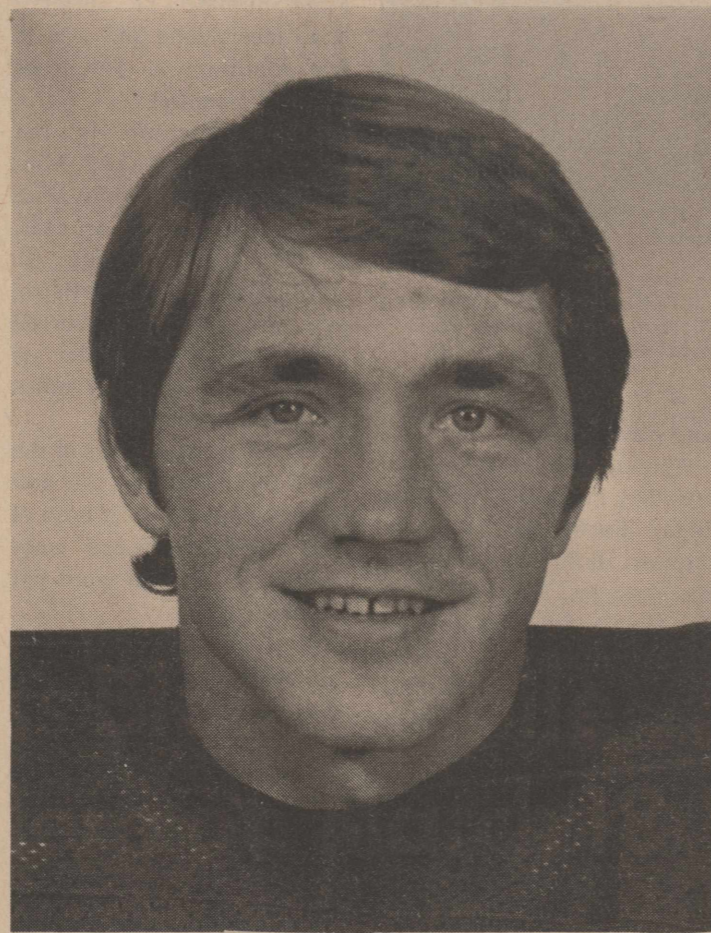

Athletic honors have come to Kingsriter since, as a high school student, he was named Minnesota High School Athlete of the Year in 1967. He received All-State honors in football and baseball in 1967-68.

In the University of Minnesota, where he was a Williams Scholar 1970-72, Kingsriter was named All Big Ten Tight End 1971-72; AP All American in 1971; and Academic All American 1971-72.

At the University, he received the President's Cup Award in 1973.

He participated in the NCAA All Americans tour of U.S. Army bases in Korea in 1974.

One Act Plays to Be Given Thursday

High school thespians will present a Night of One-Act Plays, an annual event, on Thursday evening, February 27, under the direction of Mrs. Bob McAlister, speech instructor.

Curtain time is 8:00 p.m., and the presentation will be in the High School Auditorium.

Wilkins Files For Place on City Council

Tom Wilkins filed Monday, February 24, as a candidate for re-election to the City Council.

Mr. Wilkins is completing his first term as an alderman. He said that his decision to run came after a number of people had come to him and asked that he seek re-election.

He is the first candidate to file in the city election, which will be held Saturday, April 5.

Mayor Bill Hatch and Alderman Gus Barton told The Wellington Leader earlier that they will not seek re-election.

The deadline for filing is Wednesday, March 5, and Absentee Voting is due to begin Monday, March 17.

First and second year students in the Wellington High School Speech Department are presenting the four plays, which are 13 to 30 minutes in length.

The last of the four, given by Speech II students, will be a melodrama, and the audience will be invited to hiss the villain and cheer the hero.

First play to be presented is "Hill Billy House," which features Debbie Stallings in the role of Nan, Suzie Castleberry as Brenda and Debbie Moore as Sissy.

Maureen Wilfong will have the part of Mrs. Barlow; Kay Coffee as Arlene; Kim Cannon as Fanny; and Penny Morgan as Sharon.

The Hill-Billy Minstrel Troupe includes Rhonda Hernandez, Barbara Blakes, Betty Lewis, Rhonda McClendon, Susie Patrick, Alicia Terry and Pam Vines.

Snowdrifts Hamper County Activity Through Week End

A raucous, blustering snow storm blew in Friday night, Feb. 21, to give Collingsworth its third consecutive white week end.

Wellington measured approximately three inches of snow, but in the Quail and Samnorwood areas, high winds piled drifts across highways to depths of up to four feet.

In the northwest part of the county, snow lay smooth across pastures, and at the south county line it played out altogether.

Electrical power was interrupted over much of the county by high wind early Saturday.

George Henry, manager of Greenbelt Electric Cooperative, Inc., said nearly everybody north of Salt Fork was affected at one time or another by power failures. Some were off as long as 36 to 48 hours before crews could get through snowdrifts.

Greenbelt had repeated failures on some lines. Crews worked 20 hours Saturday, 18 hours Sunday and through Monday until 4:00 a.m. Tuesday. Men got no more than 10 hours of sleep during the entire week end. Many of the poles erected are temporary. Jack Kennedy, West Texas Utilities Co. manager, said his company lost four poles and one feeder circuit.

"We were real lucky. It could have been a lot worse," he said. There were four breaks in the line on First Street that left homes from the Jerry Lee Station north without power from Saturday morning until 11:20 Sunday morning. Crews

Texas Public School Week Events Listed

Wellington Schools will observe Texas Public Schools Week Monday through Friday, March 3 to 7, with a series of events planned to better acquaint the public with its educational facilities.

Plans were announced by High School Principal Melvin Cardwell and Mrs. Elmer Keller, President of Elementary School Parent-Teacher Organization.

Besides the week-long open house in all schools, a program involving teachers, parents and the community in general is scheduled for Thursday evening, March 6.

The Elementary school will present a program from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the cafeteria. Entertainment will be by the Fifth Grade Tonette Band, under the direction of Gary Wofford, band instructor.

This will be followed by an open house where parents are encouraged to visit their child's room and view displayed work.

Parents of high school and junior high students will meet at 8:00 p.m. in the school auditorium to discuss with teachers and administrators the new quarter system that all Texas Schools must convert to by the 1975-76 school year, Mr. Cardwell announced.

A teacher from each department level, business, English, social studies, home economics, physical education, speech and agriculture, will be there to explain the system.

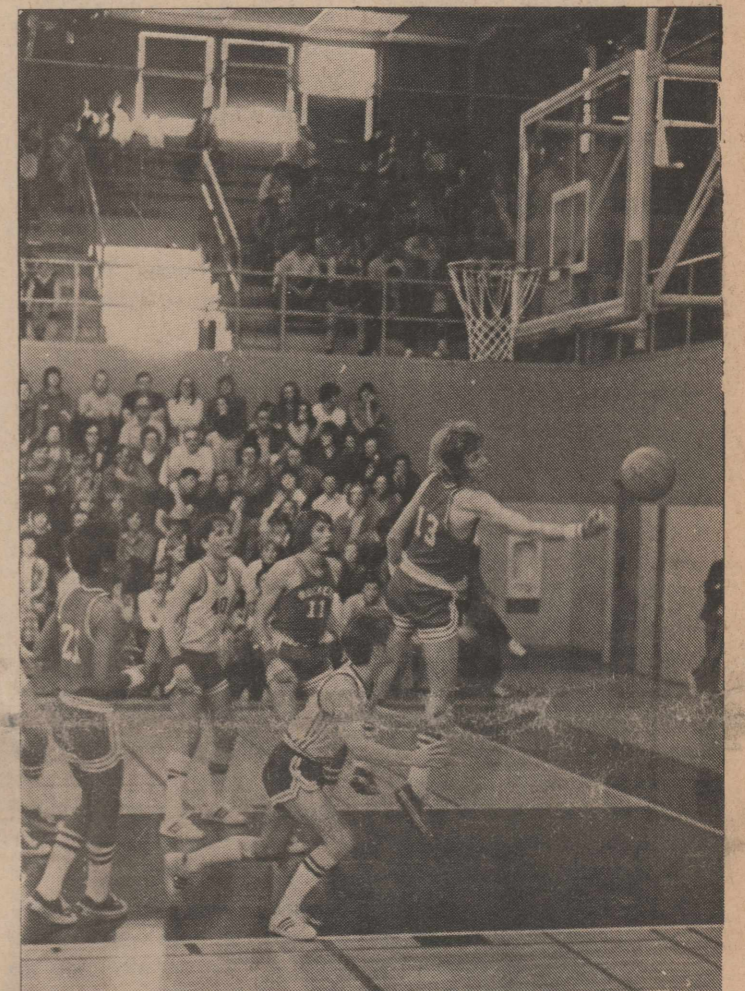

"This will enable parents to learn how this change will affect their children for the coming school year," Mr. Cardwell said.

Because this is one of the major changes of recent years affecting the students,

Masons Award Pins To Seven Members

Five Masons received their 25 year pins and one was honored with a 50 year pin at the regular meeting of the Wellington chapter of the Masonic Lodge Thursday, February 13.

Masons receiving the 25 year pin were: Dick Sweat, Deskins Wells, W.R. Breeding, John Glascock and James Fields. Virgil (Toots) Breedlove received a similar pin in a special meeting, Monday February 17.

Ernest Griffith, who now lives in Denton, was the honor guest of the evening and was presented his 50 year pin by Maurice L. Riskey of Clarendon.

Mr. Griffith became a Mason in Wellington in 1919 and has continued as an active member since that time. In the ceremonies, David Baumgardner, Worshipful Master, was assisted by R.T. Savage, Junior Warden and Cal Hurst, Senior Warden.

James Sullivan gave a thought provoking talk on George Washington, the Mason and the Memorial that has been built by the Masons in honor of Washington in Alexandria, Virginia.

In addition to the members from Wellington there were also Masons present for the meeting from the lodges in Clarendon, Shamrock and Dodson.

Cotton Escalator Discussion Feb. 27

The cotton escalator clause, a program that would consider farmers' increased production costs in setting the government's base price for cotton, is one of many topics to be discussed Thursday, February 27 at a Farm Bureau symposium on current government issues and problems.

Bill Wedemeyer, veteran Director of Research and Education for the Texas Farm Bureau, will speak at 7:30 p.m. in the Community Building in a meeting sponsored by the Collingsworth County Farm Bureau. The meeting is open and everyone is invited to attend, Jerry Scott, county Farm Bureau president, said. Cokes, coffee and donuts will be served.

Those attending are encouraged to ask Wedemeyer questions about the escalator clause or any other topic of concern, Scott said.

Under the proposed escalator clause, the base price for cotton would rise to approximately 50 cents per pound, according to Monty Mitchell, county Farm Bureau member. Mitchell noted that Carrol Chaloupka, Texas Farm Bureau president, testified on behalf of the legislation February 20 before a House Agriculture subcommittee.

The possibility of rebates on fuel expenditures for agricultural producers as proposed by President Ford will also be discussed.

Topics for discussion include issues before the Texas legislature and the U.S. Congress such as land use planning, underground water control, state taxes, the fuel and fertilizer situation and inflation.

L. E. Brisbin, Retired Farmer, Dies Monday

Lawrence E. Brisbin, 87, who farmed in the Quail area for 50 years and who has lived in the county for 70 years, died at 3:30 p.m. Monday, February 24, in Collingsworth General Hospital. He had been in ill health a number of months.

Upon retiring from farming, Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin moved into Wellington about 1953. The family home is 1200 Childress St.

Mr. Brisbin was a strong community worker and especially supported better schools in the Quail area as long as he lived there.

Born in Hill County March 8, 1887, he was the son of Henry and Cumi Brisbin. He came here from Hill County in 1904.

Mr. Brisbin was a Methodist.

He was married to Miss Vester Rankin November 28, 1904, near Quail.

Funeral services were conducted at the Fundamen-

Joint Law Enforcement Gets Approval

Two major steps toward joint city-county law enforcement have been taken during the past week.

The City Council, in a called meeting Wednesday night, February 19, unanimously approved an order to join with the county in seeking this consolidation. The motion was made by Tom Wilkins and seconded by Wayne Cudd.

Sheriff John Rainey met with the council to answer any questions members might have. He will head the consolidated law enforcement project when it becomes operative.

The issue was turned down in the regular meeting of the council Monday, February 17, but after reviewing the action Tuesday and Wednesday, members met Wednesday night to give their approval.

On Wednesday, John Scott, criminal justice co-ordinator for PRPC, was due to meet with the Commissioners Court, which earlier approved the joint enforcement, and the City Council, along with Sheriff John Rainey.

Mayor Bill Hatch pointed out that the combined program will cost the city and the county only what they put into law enforcement separately during the last year.

Under the new program, the combined city-county budget will be supplemented with funding from the Criminal Justice Council.

Already the Criminal Justice Division, Austin, has approved $45,000 in 1975 funds for preliminary work. Mr. Scott had explained that also dedicated to this project is approximately $45,000 in 1974 funds.

Open House Due at Satellite Center

The Satellite Training and Work Center is sponsoring an open house and get-acquainted coffee Friday, March 7, between 9:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.

This will be held at the Satellite Center just east of the Collingsworth County Museum.

Coffee, punch and cookies will be served.

One feature of this will be an exhibit of the crafts which the students of the center have made. These will be for sale.

"The Satellite Center is directed by Mrs. Ed White and is performing a tremendous service to our community and area," said the Rev. Roy Collins, who is helping with the open house.

"If you are an employer, we invite you to bring your employees and take a coffee break with us."

will be at the Community Building.

The organizational meeting was held Wednesday, February 26, at Collingsworth General Hospital, where business and general plans were discussed, according to the Rev. Roy Collins, president of the Alliance.

Donor recruitment will go into full swing within a few days.

The Ministerial Alliance conducted the last blood drive, November 26, when 147 Collingsworth teen-agers and adults volunteered as blood donors. This was the largest number ever to seek participation on Blood Donor day, and a repeat of this successful turnout will be sought.

"We urge you to set aside a few minutes to donate what you alone can provide, and support your community with 'life blood' on March 18, as the Bloodmobile returns to Wellington," said Rev. Collins.

More Career Day Consultants Added

Career Day for students of Wellington, Quail and Samnorwood has been broadened with the addition of almost a dozen consultants to talk with the boys and girls about their future.

This will be at Wellington High School Thursday, Feb. 27, from 9:00 a.m. until noon. Melvin Cardwell, high school principal, will preside at the morning assembly, with Claud R. Zevely of West Texas State University as speaker.

Consultants will be given a luncheon at noon with the Chamber of Commerce, City State Bank and Wellington State Bank as hosts. Don Van Pelt, counselor for the three county schools, will be the speaker.

Attending the service were Mrs. Atkinson, Claude Childress, Jimmy Childress, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Childress, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Delma Childress.

chairman. In announcing this major work, Mrs. Davis emphasized that it can succeed only with the co-operation of all with the people who have knowledge of these things.

"We need the help of the entire county and of any others who can give any information," said the chairman. She added that anyone wishing to help is welcome.

This is going to be a far bigger job than La Paisana Chapter realized when plans were started. Excellent records are now kept of all burials, but this has not always been so. Several of the cemeteries go back to the early years of the county's history. Even in Wellington, there are gaps in the earlier records. Many graves in the county were marked only by small wooden boards or temporary markers. This is the task facing La Paisana Chapter.

Mrs. Davis has named the cemetery record chairman for each of the county plots. These include, with telephone numbers:

Dodson, Mrs. B.B. Martin (past regent, 100th Meridian Chapter, DAR, Hollis) phone Dodson 493;2945.

Dozier: Miss Maudie Coffee, 447-2153.

Fairview, Wellington: Mrs. Davis, 447-2409.

North Fairview, Wellington: Mrs. Louise Templeton, 447-2477.

Memorial Gardens, Wellington: Miss Hattie D. Wells, 447-2146.

Needwood and Plymouth: Mrs. H.H. Bowen, 447-2572.

Quail: Mrs. W.L. White, 447-5535.

Rolla: Mrs. Melvin Seate, 447-2782.

Information on the history of the cemeteries is also needed, Mrs. Davis said. "If you can add anything to the history, or give any information on when burials were started in a plot, or whether it was a gift or purchase, and the name and address of the person in charge, we would like to have it," she explained.

La Paisana Chapter plans to compile its list alphabetically for all graves that can be verified. "We are following carefully the rules of the Genealogical Records Committee of the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, so we will have this as nearly professional as we can," Mrs. Davis concluded. At some point in their work, La Paisana Chapter will turn its attention to a group of graves, of which few are aware.

These are of unknown persons who died and were buried in the early years of the county settlement. If they were marked at all, the crude markers are long destroyed. Only the early settlers and their children are aware of the locations, for the most part.

Girls Injured In Accident

Janet Holcomb, 20, was reported to be in serious condition late Monday, February 24, at Northwest Texas Hospital, Amarillo with injuries suffered Sunday night in a one-car rollover near Shamrock.

A passenger in the car, Pam Shumate, 17, suffered head lacerations and was in fair condition at Shamrock General Hospital.

Miss Holcomb is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carter Holcomb, while Miss Shumate's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Shumate.

The Texas Highway Patrol said the accident occurred about 8:00 p.m. Sunday on Interstate 40 about 14 miles west of Shamrock.

Two other occupants of the car David Vineyard, 24, and Barney Sherman, 22, both of Shamrock, suffered only minor injuries and were not hospitalized.

A spokesman for the Amarillo hospital said Miss Holcomb suffered a fractured leg and head injuries.

The Highway Patrol said the car struck a concrete overpass column then overturned.

Sagebrush Arts Meets Tuesday

A nominating committee to select a slate of new officers for the Sagebrush Arts and Crafts Association was appointed at the breakfast meeting Tuesday, Feb. 25.

It is from this center that Collingsworth General Hospital receives all blood used in patient treatment and care. One part of the contract is that county residents will in turn furnish its quota of blood to the Center.

The quota for this drive is 118 units, the same as for the November visit.

The blood needs of Collingsworth General are as high as ever. But for the 26-county area served by the Red River Regional Center, the blood used increased by 20 per cent during the last year. To serve the area this year, more than 17,000 units of blood will be needed.

worked until dark Saturday and had all service restored by 3:00 p.m. Sunday.

Jack Meadows, in charge of maintenance for the Highway Department, said crews went out at midnight Friday and had roads in good condition when the wind rose about 5:00 a.m. Saturday. The men worked through Saturday night, Sunday, Sunday night and Monday.

Most of the drifting was in the Quail and Samnorwood areas, with the biggest drift cleared being west of Quail. It measured four feet deep and was around 200 feet across.

Drifting was especially bad through the Quail area, he said and some drifts were nearly as large at Norwood.

There was no drifting beyond the Gus Gooch place west of Dozier, nor was there any east of Wellington. Some drifts were cleared east of Lutie on FM highways.

With power off, electric fences were out of operation, and a number of cattle roamed onto highways. One was killed at Lutie, Mr. Meadows said.

Both he and Sheriff John Rainey reported a few people stalled in the big drifts from time to time, but no one for very long. Most were men out trying to feed livestock.

County roads were difficult to clear, especially east-west roads where fields on the north side were clean, Chester White, county road superintendent, reported. Most roads north and west of Quail were blocked.

A few roads in the Elm Creek area are still blocked, but Mr. White said these will be cleared as soon as possible.

County road equipment is not equipped for night work, and he pointed out that neither is it very effective in clearing snow.

There was only a light snow and little rain at the Pat Bouchelle place south of Loco when he started to his farm at Lillie Saturday morning. He had to turn back, but at home he and Danny Watts worked outside until after noon.

Bart Patterson, who lives on US Highway 62 also reported no snow.

So far, there have been no reports of cattle loss.

A week earlier the county received a snow of Christmas card serenity to a depth of four inches that gave little trouble to anyone.

The first of the three snows was a weather freak. It began about FM Highway 3070 on the west side and extended across the county in a strip not more than four or five miles wide, and to a depth of three to four inches.

The remainder of the county remained free of snow.

County Depression Events Basis for WHS Program

Depression days of the 1930s were lived again when the American history students of Wellington High School presented their own version of the popular TV series, The Waltons. Mrs. Ruth Norman is their instructor.

The story, however, was a composite of experiences the students had gathered in interviews with parents and grandparents to learn what it was like in the Dust Bowl period.

Women traded extra butter and eggs for flour and meal, sugar or coffee, they learned. One man remembered a 50 pound sack of flour for 49 cents and coffee for 24 cents a can. Nor would they make many trips to town -- gasoline was up to 9 cents a gallon.

Participating in the skit were Kim Goforth, as the mother; Bart Patterson and Denise Archer, a couple, out of work in the city, who came home to live; Paul Hanna and Linda Coffee as Grandpa and Grandma; Dan O'Rear, Ben; Jeff Hanna, Jim Bob; and Randall Sims, John Boy. In dialogue, they counted themselves fortunate, as they spoke of families down the street who were on WPA. "It really hurts a man's pride to have to go on relief," they agreed.

The daughter of the house had a new dress -- made from a printed flour sack; Grandpa swept two tubs full of sand out of the attic after the last sand storm. One Collingsworth story woven into the skit was of a young girl who fell in the family well. The father slid down the well rope, found her long hair and twisted it around one foot until he could hold her head above water. There was no talk of hard times that night.

There were other depression stories . . . of the man, who with a blizzard raging, kept the family warm by burning wood chopped from the porch; of boys and girls who had to quit school because they did not have clothes to wear, and boys in CCC camps, lonely, and drawing $8 per month wages.

DEPRESSION DAYS REMEMBERED

Experiences of Collingsworth County people during the depression of the 1930s were woven into a play by WHS American History students, the form based on the popular TV serial, The Waltons. At top, Olivia (Kim Goforth) hears the experiences of two relatives, Jake (Bart Patterson) and Laura (Denise Archer) who lost their jobs at the City and had to return home to the farm. Below are other members of the family: from left, John Boy (Randall Sims), Jim Bob (Jeff Hanna), Ben (Don O'Rear), Grandpa (Paul Hanna) and Grandma (Linda Coffee).

Here is one bit of dialogue, based on a true Collingsworth incident:

John (who had just bought an old car for $12.50): Did you hear what Bill Henderson did? He couldn't buy gas, and so he put a tongue in the car and pulled it with two horses. They went to Pleasant Mound to church in it last Sunday. Everyone laughed so much when they pulled up in the church yard that Bill decided that he wouldn't go in it anymore."

Grandpa: "... a fellow that lives on the other side of Buck Creek had run out of money to buy gas. Since he didn't have no use for his car, he traded it for a gun and a pig."

John, in a later conversation: "Roosevelt had better do something in a hurry. People can't buy many groceries with farm products so low. Five cent cotton. Eggs 3 cents a dozen. Wheat not much better, 15 cents a bushel."

The program came to an exciting conclusion when John Boy and his brothers

Health Tips Texas Medical Association "Kissing Disease" Not Very Romantic

Infectious mononucleosis -- often called just "Mono" -- is a widespread ailment that mostly affects teenagers and young adults and is often found among college students.

Mono is quite accurately called the "Kissing Disease", reports the Texas Medical Association. Physicians observed 20 years ago that the disease was spread primarily by prolonged, passionate kissing. A few cases seem to have been spread by the communal use of drinking utensils, and there have been sporadic cases following blood transfusions.

Despite legends to the contrary, mono is a benign disease. Among millions of cases, only a few rare fatalities have occurred. However, it is highly unpleasant, producing weakness, dizziness, fever, aching joints, swollen glands, skin rash, and mental depression.

Although mono is one of the nastiest diseases around, it never causes permanent damage and almost never produces prolonged convalescence. Most patients are back in perfect health within two or three weeks. There is neither prevention or cure available, and the mainstay of treatment continues to be rest, fluids and mild pain relievers.

Correct SS Number Needed On Tax Return

Amarillo -- Married taxpayers filing either joint or separate tax returns this year should make sure that the social security numbers of both husband and wife appear on each return filed, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) said today.

Ronald Archer, Director's Representative in charge of the Amarillo IRS office, said that the IRS computer system identifies returns according to social security numbers and an incorrect or missing number can cause a delay of weeks or months in getting a refund out to a taxpayer.

Additionally, he said, the number must be correct to ensure that the taxpayer will get full credit for his or her contributions under the social security and medicare programs. For this reason any name changes should be reported to the local Social Security Administration office.

One way for taxpayers to be sure their return is correctly numbered is to use the pre-addressed label on the tax package sent out by the IRS. Double check the numbers, Archer said, and if there is a mistake it should be corrected on the label itself.

"The pre-addressed labels help us keep the numbers straight," Archer said, "and they speed the processing of the returns. At this point in ing instructor for 26 years, will resign after this year to accept a job as state Future Homemakers of America advisor.

Her position will be in the state department of vocational technical education. Her duties will begin July 1.

Mrs. Crow and her husband will continue to make their home in Hollis, but her office will be in Oklahoma City. Mr. Crow will continue as Hollis elementary principal.

She has earned many professional awards and honors over the years, but she counts as her most rewarding accomplishment seeing eight Hollis girls win state FHA offices and one of them become a national office nominee. The Hollis High School FFA chapter has long been recognized as one of the best in Oklahoma.

The former Edna Copeland, Mrs. Crow was born and grew up in the Loco community. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. E.S. Copeland, of Wellington, who saw all three of their children enter the teaching profession.

Mrs. Crow's brother, Bob Copeland, is Wellington elementary principal, and her sister, Mrs. C.B. Carter, also of Hollis, is a teacher in the Quail elementary school.

A graduate of Dodson High School, Mrs. Crow received bachelor's and masters' degrees from West Texas State University and has done advanced work at the University of Oklahoma.

She has served in every office in the Oklahoma Home Economics Association and the Oklahoma Vocational and Technical Education Association, and is currently serving as president of the latter.

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

- Return fresh foods to the refrigerator and frozen foods, such as ice cream, to the freezer as soon as possible. Measure and remove the quantity needed for cooking or for the table, and refrigerate the remainder at once.
- Use cold controls efficiently by selecting the settings that provide about 36° F. in the refrigerator and 0° F. in the freezer.
- Fill the refrigerator with food, but be careful not to overfill. Make sure that food packages don't block air vents in the freezer or refrigerator section.
- Clean the condenser surfaces of the refrigerator; dirt restricts air flow and acts to insulate the condenser, forcing the refrigerator to work harder and longer to maintain proper temperatures.

Vocalist at Pathfinders

The Pathfinders of First United Methodist Church met in the home of Mrs. Jim Boswell Thursday night, February 20, when Mrs. Tommy Campbell presented the program. Hostesses were Mrs. Jerry Lewis and Mrs. Sandy Covey.

Her guest was Mitse Moore of Hollis, who sang "An Open Door," "Just Whisper," "Walking in the Valley," "Sweet, Sweet Spirit," and "He Touched Me." Mrs. Campbell was her accompanist.

Refreshments were served to Miss Vikki Saunders, Mrs. Barbara Williamson, Mrs. Eddie Orr, Mrs. Mark Killian, Mrs. Campbell, Mitse Moore, Mrs. John Henard III, Mrs. Glen Thomas, Mrs. Dan Henard, Jr., Mrs. Boswell, Mrs. Jerry Settle, Mrs. Gary Killian.

jewelry from many countries. "Man has always been fascinated by gems and many ancient people possessed the real gems," Mrs. Graham told the group. "The high cost makes it all but impossible for modern man to own gems." The chemist has successfully created synthetic gems of quality that most people buy today.

The most fascinating of all gems is the pearl, birthstone of the month of June, continued the speaker. Jade is one of the oldest and one of the most beautiful of stones, whose use dates to 1400 B.C. in ancient China. Only the first wife could wear the precious jade. The second wife had to be content with only diamonds.

Ancient people regarded the sapphire as a love charm. The opal is one of the more mysterious gems, and the amethyst was prized by the ancient Greeks and Romans, and the Egyptians wore turquoise to ward off illness. Jasper is one of the oldest gemstones and is mentioned in the Bible.

At one time, modern man used the red ruby for engagement rings, Mrs. Graham concluded.

Refreshments were served to the guests, Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Flossy Burch of Altus, Okla., and members, Mrs. E.F. Bartlett, Mrs. A.B. Clark, Mrs. L.M. Bartlett, Mrs. W.F. Harbin, Mrs. Dick Richards, Mrs. Joe Thompson, Mrs. Coy Vaughan, Mrs. Bryan Denley and the hostess, Mrs. Hightower.

MRS. DAN HATCH

Mrs. Dan Hatch Crowned '75 Beta Sigma Phi Hearts Queen

The new Queen of Hearts of Amarillo's Beta Sigma Phi Sorority is Mrs. Dan Hatch of the Gamma Psi Chi Chapter, the daughter-in-law of Mayor and Mrs. Bill Hatch.

The new queen was one of 32 nominees, representing the 32 chapters of Beta Sigma Phi in Amarillo.

Mrs. Hatch received her crown Saturday night, February 8, at the annual Queen of Hearts Ball at the Villa Inn.

This is a charity ball, and all funds received from the selection of a queen goes to Friendship House.

"Through the valiant efforts of the staff of this sheltered family-type living facility, self-respect, dignity, and purpose of life are being restored to many of those whom worldly pressures have overwhelmed," the sorority notes.

Beta Sigma Phi women of Amarillo have worked since 1937 to share this responsibility and each year the proceeds of the annual Queen of Hearts Ball are designated to a selected Charity.

Mrs. Dan Hatch is the former Linda Amburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Amburn. She lived in Wellington as a child. Both she and Mr. Hatch were living in Amarillo when they married, and they have continued to make their home there. They and their small daughter, Amy, are frequent Wellington visitors.

Mayor and Mrs. Hatch attended the coronation.

Life of Toulouse-Lautrec Told In Excelsior Club Art Series

The life and works of the artist, Toulouse-Lautrec, was covered in a program which Miss Rose Shadid gave for Excelsior Club Thursday evening, Feb. 20. She was also the hostess.

The latter years of the nineteenth century in which Toulouse-Lautrec lived are often called La Belle Epoque, for the extraordinary richness in the arts and the flowering of a whole new school of bold and creative painters. Toulouse-Lautrec stands out in striking relief.

After forsaking a world of wealth and society, to which he was born, he found independence, scope and fulfillment in the gaudy music halls, bars and cafes of Montmartre, she continued. It was there he drew his inspiration and discovered by capturing the theatrical atmosphere of the gaslight era.

His drawings, paintings, lithographs and posters did not receive the recognition due Lautrec as one of the great artists of all time for almost half a century.

Edouard Julien, curator of Lautrec's works in the Museum at Albi, has done much to present a clear picture of the artist, Miss Shadid told the club.

Refreshments were served to a guest, Mrs. Violet Potter of Stillwater, Oklahoma, and to Miss Bonnie Willis, Mrs. J.F. Michael, Miss Rama Camp, Miss Hattie D. Wells, Miss Dorothy Robertson, Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, Mrs. Russell Yates, Mrs. Lowell Wells, Miss Marie Shadid and Miss Rose Shadid, the hostess.

Each member of the Good Neighbor Club reached back in her memory to tell of the worst snow storm she has known as that club met Friday, February 21. Mrs. Merritt James was hostess.

Mrs. Robert Barjenbruch, president, was in charge of the meeting and also presented the program, sketches of three presidents of the United States and their families lives while living in the White House.

Some reserved one hour each night to be alone with their families.

Mrs. Lincoln was a Southern woman and was not used to wine's being served, Mrs. Barjenbruch told the group. Of all the rooms in the White House, she preferred the Red Room. One of Mrs. Lincoln's party gowns cost $2,000, considered quite expensive in that day.

President and Mrs. Zachary Taylor had their own milk cow and ate vegetables from their own garden.

The White House was repaired and remodeled during the administration of President Harry Truman, and at that time, most of the wood was replaced with steel at a cost of more than $5,000,000.

Patriotic Program Featured at 1924 Study Club on Feb. 20

A program on "American Heritage" was given for members of the 1924 Study Club Thursday, February 20, with Mrs. John Coleman as speaker.

Mrs. Kent Clark was hostess in the Heritage Room.

Old Glory, Stars and Stripes, and Star-Spangled Banner are some of the names given the United States flag, the speaker explained.

Mrs. Coleman believes that the American public, from the young to the old, have lost respect for their flag, due mostly to the lack of patriotism.

"The Flag is what we as individuals make it, no more, no less," she said. "Mothers need to teach their children by example to respect their country, obey its rules, and honor its flag."

"Children who live in a home where patriotism is taught will be the lifeblood of the country," she believes.

"Our flag is the soul of America, symbolizing faith in our country and hope for its future," Mrs. Coleman concluded.

Mrs. R.R. Crawley introduced the speaker and Mrs. Ralph Owens, president, conducted the business meeting. Plans were made for the Star-Spangled Style Show, to be held Tuesday, March 18, at the High School Auditorium at 8:00 p.m.

Attending were Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Sam Adams, Mrs. Sandy Covey, Mrs. Rodney Kane, Mrs. Crawley, Mrs. Charley Hill, Mrs. Dee Coleman, Mrs. Boyd Derryberry, Mrs. Les White, Mrs. Chester Fires, Mrs. C.R. McNett, Mrs. B.M. Sims, Mrs. Benson Long, Mrs. Owens, Mrs. Troy Thomason, Miss Hattie D. Wells, and the hostess, Mrs. Clark.

Children's Home Established Near Canadian

A Unit of Cookson Hills Christian School is to be constructed eleven miles southwest of Canadian, Texas. Landscaping near the entrance was begun last week, with the construction of the first house to begin in mid-March.

First Christian Church in Wellington is working with this school.

The headquarters of this Children's Home complex is located in the Cookson Hills region of Eastern Oklahoma, with extension units in Kansas, Missouri, Mississippi, and Alaska. The home near Canadian, in Hemphill County, will be designated Cookson Hills Christian School Unit No. 9.

These Children's Homes provide not only food, shelter, and clothing, but also vocational training and family living in a Christ-centered home. They are all called Christian Schools, although the Headquarters Unit is the only one large enough to have an accredited grade school on the grounds. The children at the extension units attend public schools in nearby towns. There are at present approximately 330 children, ranging in age from infancy through high school being cared for in the eight units now in operation. There is an average of two children being turned away daily due to lack of housing. The "cottage plan" is used at all units of the Cookson Hills operation. Each family, consisting of a man and wife as house parents and ten children, has its own separate house.

The management of the Cookson Hills Christian Schools is under the supervision of a Board of Directors consisting of approximately fifteen men chosen from throughout the area served by the Homes. The financing of these Homes is by donations from Churches and individuals interested in providing a Christian home for needy Church, performed the ceremony.

For her wedding, Mrs. Kelso wore a light blue dress with long sleeves, high neckline and street-length A-line skirt. Her accessories were white.

Debra Fleming of Austin, Mr. Kelso's granddaughter, was the ringbearer.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W.A. Bennett and was a teller for Wellington State Bank at the time of her marriage. She has participated in community and church work.

Mr. Kelso is owner of Kelso Funeral Home. He is active in civic work and has served as an officer of the Kiwanis Club, Chamber of Commerce and Volunteer Ambulance Service.

Guests were served from a table laid with a white linen cloth and appointed in crystal and silver. The centerpiece was of white carnations with blue accents. Mrs. Robert Fleming of Austin, and Mrs. Tom Lockridge of Garland, Mr. Kelso's daughters, presided.

Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Kelso left on a wedding trip to Santa Fe, Taos, Los Alamos and other points in Northern New Mexico.

They will live in Wellington.

Arla Felts Hosts HDC

The Dodson Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday, Feb. 11, with Mrs. Thurman Crownover as hostess.

The group then traveled to Wellington to the new home of Mrs. Arla Felts, county extension agent.

Mrs. Felts gave the program on recycling old things. She showed her new home and pointed out her "recycled" furniture.

Mrs. Lynvel Black conducted the business meeting and members answered roll call by telling "How I feel about the welfare program." Mrs. Fred Boyd gave the devotional.

Members elected Mrs. Crownover their representative at the District I meeting in Dumas April 1.

Refreshments were served to a new member, Mrs. Carl Smith and Mrs. Black, Mrs. L.D. Stewart, Mrs. A.V. Lowrie, Mrs. Crownover, Mrs. Purl Tippie, Mrs. Wayne Reynolds, Mrs. Truitt Holland, Mrs. C.E. Hightower, Mrs. Don Dennis, Mrs. Fred Boyd, a visitor, Mrs. Leo Popwell, and Mrs. Felts.

boys and girls. The by-laws of this non-profit charitable organization forbids indebtedness, so expansion can be done only as funds are available.

Donations for the initial construction are being received by First Christian Church, Canadian, Texas. Once the Home is in operation, it's funds will be handled by the local superintendent under the direction of the Cookson Hills Headquarters office. All Churches, Civic Organizations, and individuals are invited and urged to share in the establishment and maintenance of Cookson Hills Christian School Unit No. 9.

Pork Supplies High Quality

Current pork supplies are "high quality" and at relatively low cost, Mrs. Gwendolyn Clyatt reported this week.

"Good values should be found on pork loins -- roasts and chops, center and end-cut chops and some smoked picnics," the consumer marketing information specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service added.

At beef counters, this year's larger supplies are due to greater amounts of lower-grade beef, the Texas A&M University System specialist said.

Public School Week a Time To Know Our Own Schools

Of all the factors that have made Collingsworth County outstanding, a major one has been our ability through the years to maintain quality schools, even in the face of falling enrollment and rising costs.

If this is to continue, it is up to the citizens of the three school districts, Wellington, Quail and Samnorwood, to take an active role in the continued improvement of our systems. It is the individual who will make the Collingsworth County schools work, just as it is on the state and national levels.

March 3-7 has been designated as Texas Public Schools Week. Everyone is invited to seek answers to any questions we may have about education and about the individual schools. Especially are we urged to visit the schools and see them in action.

Each of us has the duty to learn as much as possible about local schools and their operation and policies, including funding, the curriculum and how it is taught. Our understanding of these things is necessary. And with this knowledge in hand, 100 per cent support of the schools of this county is required of every one of us.

Ecological Disaster Near?

Despite cries of environmentalists, the world isn't going to hell in a handbasket. According to the chairman of the National Air Quality Commission, Dr. John J. McKetta of University of Texas in Austin, both air and environmental quality are holding their own.

McKetta, a respected chemical engineer whose career began as a coal miner in Pennsylvania, has a prepared speech on the subject, titled "The Eight Surprises — or Has the World Gone to Hell?"

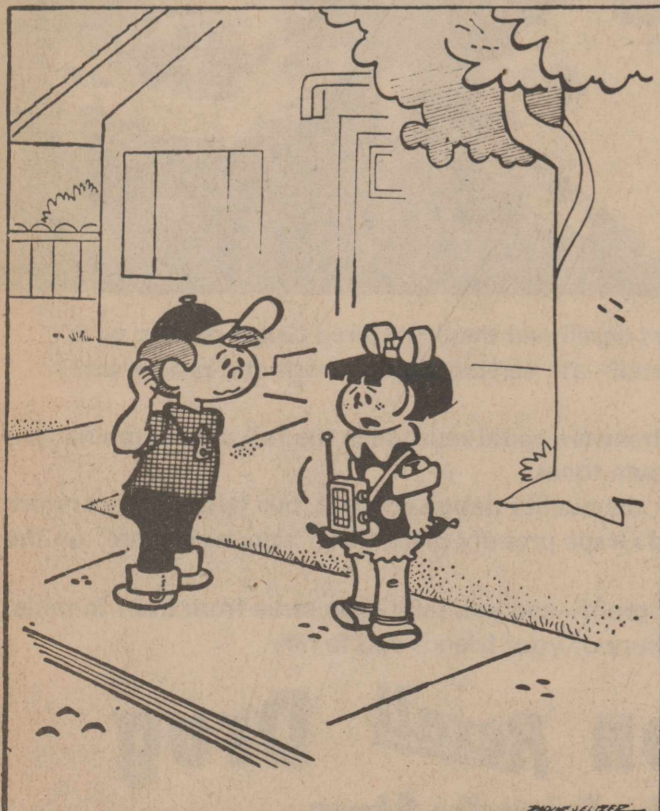

He emphasizes that he speaks as one who understands elementary science and engineering "and not as an emotional supporter of any particular 'side' of ecology." His eight surprises:

1. Our oxygen supply is unlimited and is not being threatened.
2. Carbon Monoxide levels in our atmosphere are totally safe for human beings.
3. Oxides of nitrogen are hazardous to health only in locations subject to inversions.
4. Lake Erie pollution is caused by dumping sewage, not phosphates from washing detergents.
5. Benefits of DDT and similar compounds outweigh damage caused.
6. Man has had nothing to do with most animals that have become extinct.
7. More than half of the world's total air pollution since the beginning of time has been caused by just three volcanoes erupting since 1883.
8. We are not on the brink of an ecological disaster. "Cries of 'wolf' have been based largely on fear, ignorance or misinformation."

Any rebuttal?

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN—Texans may be selecting their presidential nominating convention delegates in a special primary next year.

A presidential preference primary bill was voted out of the House Elections Committee in spite of heavy opposition from a parade of witnesses.

Significantly, perhaps, the Committee vote came on the same day U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen of Texas announced his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Bentsen has acknowledged his interest in seeing a preference primary established in his home state, although he insists he is not making a major campaign for it.

Texans now choose delegates to presidential nominating conventions in state conventions of the major parties.

Under the proposal approved by the Committee, delegates would be elected on the primary election ballot. Presidential candidates would pick their own delegates in each of Texas' 31 senatorial districts.

Opponents assailed the bill advanced by Rep. Tom Schieffer of Fort Worth as a "winner take all" measure. Schieffer insisted that it is not, and claimed Democratic party rules authorize such methods of naming delegates.

Bentsen aides reportedly feel the primary will make it possible for him to get a bigger share of Texas delegates than he would win under the existing convention system, although this is subject to question.

MORE FUNDS DUE

Texas will get $64.2 million in recently-released federal funds to aid cities with building sewage treatment facilities.

The money, impounded by presidential directive, was ordered released last week by the U.S. Supreme Court. It is in addition to $111 million released immediately after the High Court's decision.

Water Quality Board members are working on a list of cities which will receive the $64.2 million.

WQB Executive Director Hugh C. Yantis Jr. said Texas will also be permitted to allocate separate funds to large cities and small cities. In the past, small cities have had to compete with large cities for available funds.

OIL ALLOWABLE SET

Texas Railroad Commission once more set the statewide oil production allowable at 100 per cent for March.

For three years, the Commission has been directing all-out production, and at the same time imported oil is continuing to flow in.

Commission Chairman Ben Ramsey said 4,023,000 barrels were imported the first week of February, a considerable increase over January. Buyers asked for 4,055,124 barrels of Texas oil daily, which represents a 8,946 barrel decrease from February.

SPEED LIMIT DEBATED

House members found extending the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit hard to accept, and sent the legislation to accomplish it back to committee.

Some want to levy a minor $5 fine (not attributable to insurance rates) for speeding offenses between 55 and 70 miles an hour.

When all the fussing is over, the Legislature almost certainly will extend the present limit. To do otherwise would risk loss of $303 million a year in federal highway funds.

COURTS SPEAK

An Austin district judge granted Atty. Gen. John Hill's request for a temporary injunction to stop a $45 million increase in Texas intrastate long distance telephone rates March 1.

Frances "Sissy" Farenthold's year-old campaign finance lawsuit against Gov. Dolph Briscoe and key campaign aides was dismissed at her own request. She had sought a $2.5 million civil recovery—and ended up paying the court costs.

Texas Supreme Court held a doctor can be made responsible for medical bills of a defective child born to a mother who had German measles during pregnancy where the physician failed to give proper warning of dangers.

The High Court sustained a $5,117 jury finding for a woman who was hurt when another driver turned right at a "confusing" experimental red arrow signal in Wichita Falls.

In still another case, the Supreme Court agreed with Attorney General Hill that a Galveston proposal to issue $26 million in bonds to build a grain elevator in a city harbor should have been rejected.

AG OPINIONS

Counties may be granted limited zoning authority over parts of islands and other recreation territories within their boundaries but outside city limits.

In other recent opinions, Hill concluded:

- Statistics on juvenile crime may be furnished by the Department of Public Safety by local agencies provided information does not identify offenders.

- Revenue in a county road and bridge fund can be transferred to the general fund and used for any lawful purpose.

- No funds are appropriated for research and management for protection of the white-winged dove, although money may be spent for acquiring a dove habitat.

- The Highway Department can spend state funds to match federal money for city street and county road projects.

NEW APPOINTMENTS

Governor Briscoe reappointed Dewitt C. Greer of Austin to the State Highway Commission.

Other recent appointments by the Governor include Dewey G. Smith of Alice to the State Board of Trustees of the Teacher Retirement System; John W. Arnn of Temple to the Texas Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations;

Judge Frank G. McDonald of Waco and Judge Louis Holland of Montague to Texas Civil Judicial Council; Otha F. Dent of Austin to be Interstate Compact Commissioner for the Red River; Russell B. McGowan Jr. of Pecos to be Pecos River Compact Commissioner; Charles H. Freeman Jr. of Pleasanton to the Evergreen Underground Water Conservation District board of directors and Raymond Hicks of Bandera to the Bandera County River Authority.

Hospital Group at Personnel Meeting

Four staff members of Collingsworth General Hospital attended a seminar on Personnel Administration for Hospital Supervisors, conducted in Amarillo Tuesday, Feb. 25, by the Texas Society for Hospital Personnel Administration and the Texas Hospital Association.

They were King Bowen, purchasing-maintenance and housekeeping; Glenna Inghram, R.N., director of nursing service; Anne Langford, accountant-office manager; and Garner Altom, administrator.

It was one of five conducted throughout Texas for hospital personnel who have any supervisory responsibilities.

This seminar focused on the hospital supervisor as an effective "problem solver" of human problems. Also a session was held on "The Supervisor and the National Labor Relations Act."

"This is just one of several seminars our Association will be bringing to our Panhandle area during the year to help our community hospital personnel better understand the rules and regulations under which we have to operate and to cope with our regulatory agencies," Mr. Altom said.

ARMY: NO HELP WANTED

Here's a switch. For the first time in many years signs are going up in Army recruiting office windows saying "no immediate openings." Recruits in Cleveland will have to wait until at least October before being permitted to sign up for some job specialties. It's more than just the "new" Army that is attracting enlistees to the recruiting offices. The biggest single reason is rising unemployment and the fact that it will be around for a long time.

The Air Force and Navy have usually been able to meet recruiting goals, but the Army and Marines have had to counter the Vietnam war and low civilian unemployment. For both of those branches, the recession has undoubtedly helped.

All four branches of service are taking the opportunity to upgrade, estimating that nearly a third of the Vietnam recruits would have been turned down by today's standards. Believe it or not, some high school graduates are getting rejected.

One of the big reasons for the current recruiting boom is that the welcome mat is now out again at the high school and college campuses. Recruits may also sign up not only for the job specialty they want, but also for specific military posts. The other advantage to a serviceman is that the nature of the civilian job market has changed. There are not enough manufacturing jobs available for unskilled workers. A few years ago, dropouts could get jobs. Now they're in trouble, but there are jobs at the entry level for persons of skills. The Army offers training and skills.

What's more, the pay is better - a recruit gets almost $350 a month plus fringe benefits. Living conditions are better and a lot of the make-work duties are being dropped. Women are also being welcomed. They are eligible for 327 of the 345 types of jobs that are offered.

Maxwell on ACC Dean's Roll

ABILENE -- Kenneth Lee Maxwell was among the 264 Texas students who were named to the dean's honor roll for the 1974 fall semester at Abilene Christian College, according to Paul Wilson, assistant registrar.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Maxwell Sr. A pre-medical student, he had a 4.00 grade point average.

To be eligible for the dean's honor roll, a student must maintain a 3.45 grade-point-average or above and have a course load of at least 12 credit hours.

A total of about 600 students from the 3,467-student body were named to the dean's honor roll.

GUAR--A PLAN FOR PROFIT

Fertilizers are in short supply in the market place and prices are high. Nitrogen is abundant in the air we breathe and free for the taking. Nature has provided free-service applicators in the form of plants called legumes. Among these are alfalfa, clovers, peas, guar and others.

Legumes take free nitrogen from the air and fix it in nodules on their roots. This nitrogen not only supplies the host plant but also some of it remains in the soil to benefit succeeding crops.

Guar is the most efficient nitrogen-fixing soil-builder of them all. Growing a crop of guar is like putting down fertilizer for next year's crop. It would be letting nature help fight the recession.

Why not plant guar? At current prices it is highly competitive to other summer crops. Domestic guar beans are in short supply. Manufacturers are dependent upon imports for large quantities of raw gum. The industry is expanding. New products are being developed as older ones increase in sales.

Farmers would do well to give guar a good hard look as they plan their 1975 cropping program.

Easter Seal Society Extends Rehabilitation

Because of the steady growth in numbers of crippled children and adults in Texas, the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas has stepped up its rehabilitation services.

Jack Neeley, who is the Easter Seal Representative for the County, said 20,152 handicapped Texans received Easter Seal treatments during 1974.

"Despite medical scientific advances," Neeley explained, "the rank of the crippled are growing. This is because of population growth, increased number of accidents and medical treatment which saves victims of crippling diseases who might not have lived in past years."

Quoting the annual report of the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas, affiliated treatment centers in Texas provide treatment and rehabilitation, speech and hearing and educational programs, and many other services required by the physically disabled to live normal lives.

The largest group served includes those with major deformities of bones and joints, severe speech defects, cerebral palsy, arthritis, muscular dystrophy and multiple sclerosis and stroke. The Easter Seal Campaign, which provides funds for continuation of these services, begins February 24, and continues through March 30, Easter Sunday.

Judge Templeton Recounts RCAF War Action

Judge R.L. Templeton, county attorney, recalled World War II experiences for the two Wellington High School American History Classes Friday, February 21.

Judge Templeton was a sergeant-pilot in the Royal Canadian Air Force, attached to England's Royal Air Force.

He was the second man to go into combat from Collingsworth County, the first being his younger brother, Pat Templeton, who became the first Collingsworth County man to die in World War II.

Judge Templeton wore his RCAF Uniform, which still fits him as trimly as when he was on active duty.

The history students heard his personal experiences in the war during the period before the United States entered the conflict.

This program was part of the classes study of World War II.

"I have never seen my class so quiet during any program," Mrs. Ruth Norman, teacher said as Judge Templeton closed his talk.

Questions People Ask About the Catholic Church

Q. Do you agree with Garner Ted Armstrong that there is no Hell?

A. I don't know who this Armstrong chap is, but he is very wrong. The existence of a place of eternal punishment is referred to many times in the Bible. If there were no punishment in the next life, what would be the point in being good in this world? Hell is the ultimate punishment for sin, whether it's a place, a state of mind, or a state into which the soul drifts after death.

Q. Did the 3 Wise Men have names?

A. Tradition gives them the names Casper, Melchior, and Balthasar. Their insertion into the Bible shows the universality of Jesus' message, since they were non-Jews, and of different colours and racial backgrounds.

NOTICE AFFORDING OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC HEARING CORRIDOR (LOCATION) AND DESIGN (COMBINED HEARING)

The Texas Highway Department is planning the improvement of U.S. Highway 83 from 4.2 miles South of the Wheeler County Line to F.M. Road 1439, at Lutie, in Collingsworth County.

The proposed reconstruction will consist of widening, reconditioning, and resurfacing the existing highway to provide two 13-foot driving lanes with 9-foot paved shoulders, and an additional 12-foot climbing lane where warranted by a steep grade. Also, some adjustment in the vertical alignment is proposed in order to increase sight distance and improve drainage conditions.

The route of the proposed project is along the present location of U.S. Highway 83. Additional right of way will be required to provide for a minimum width of 150 feet throughout the project. There will be no displaced persons or businesses, or relocations, on the project.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric design, environmental studies, and any other information about the proposed project are on file and available for inspection and copying at the office of O.V. Johnson, Supv. Resident Engineer, at Wellington, Texas. Also, the drawings showing the proposed geometric design have been placed on file with the County Judge of Collingsworth County.

THE TEXAS Highway Department plans to continue to improve Highway 83 north of Wellington. In this paper is a public notice setting forth the specifications for a wider, regraded and reconditioned highway from a point 4 miles south of the Wheeler County line to Lutie.

THIS WILL provide better traveling and hauling facility for the people who live in the north part of the county. It is also important to Wellington for an improved highway will attract more tourists to travel this International Highway from Mexico into the heart of Canada.

THE IMPORTANCE of tourism cannot be overestimated even to a county seat town such as our own. The casual observer may believe that the tourists help only the filling stations and eating places located on the highway. That is not the way it works. Every dollar spent out there on the highway helps all of us.

THERE ARE those drivers who can't wait for the filling station to get the tank full and start going down the road. This type of tourist can no longer burn up the rubber and waste so much gasoline due to the 55 mile an hour speed limit which is saving a tremendous amount of gasoline, but he is still of little local value.

THERE IS another type of touring family who take their trips more leisurely. They may stop at a filling station or restaurant and ask questions and we should be prepared to answer them. They may see the Gibson sign, a firm which has 640 stores in 35 states, and decide to stop and investigate. Mayor Bill Hatch says he gets any number of customers from people who have come to Wellington to shop Gibson's.

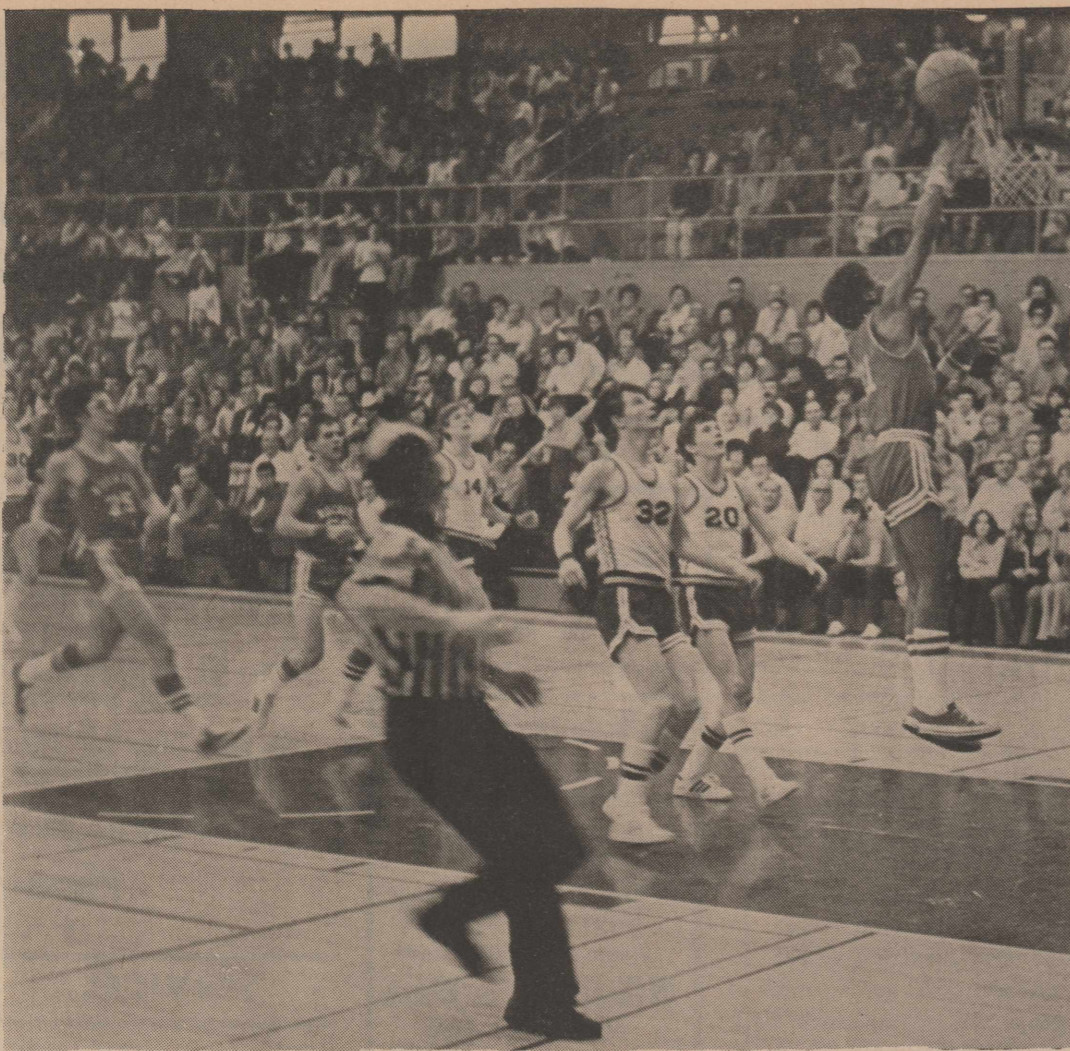

ANYTHING that is outstanding in its excellence in a town whether it be a bank, a store, a newspaper, a hospital, an ambulance service, a volunteer fire department or anything else, contributes to the whole economy.

GLENN SHELTON wrote a splendid story about Wellington in the Sunday issue of The Wichita Falls Record News. The item I liked best was that Wellington did not have a single empty building around the square. That sort of publicity helps tremendously.

NOW our most urgent task is to get rid of some of those ugly places on Highway 83. It should be done now.

BEN FARMER gave me a sack of yellow corn meal made from corn grown on his farm in the Quail community. It was ground at an old mill at Lelia Lake by a Mr. Land. Ben believes that the mill was once located in Hedley and was used by Mr. Land's father.

BEN explains that the meal needs to be sifted before trying to make cornbread with it. The meal has a rich yellow color and a fine fresh smell. Since I received it yesterday, I have not tried to use it. Mrs. Farmer also sent along a sack of dried apples that have a delicious smell. I intend to see if I can talk my sister into cooking some fried pies. The remainder will be

Rockets Lose Title Contest to Eagles

The young Skyrockets, in their first bi-district play of recent years, bowed to the experienced Sanford-Fritch Eagles 77-40 Tuesday night, Feb. 25, in West Texas State Field House.

Although there was disappointment in Rocketland, used for making apple sauce.

MRS. RUTH NORMAN has her history class studying the depression of the 30's. Some of the children have secured taped interviews from their grandparents about what it was like in those days: finding jobs, price of food, prices of farm products and other things. That sounds like a sensible approach to teaching modern history with some practical study of economics being worked in as a secondary subject.

I REMEMBER those depression days vividly; but I still contend that the terrible drought that lasted year after year and the resulting dust storms hurt us much worse than the depression. It was a trying time for many people and the children might as well learn about what happened. Hearing about it from a grandparent is much more realistic than reading it in a book.

RELIABLE CALENDARS said that the full moon would rise at 7:15 in the evening of Feb. 25 central standard time; but the full moon did not rise by the clocks until 8:15 on that day thanks to the indifference of the Congress of the United States and the lethargy of the Legislature of the State of Texas. Some states have set a much later time for the fuel wasting, time consuming so-called daylight saving time going into effect.

THERE IS nothing wrong with daylight saving time in its proper season in relation to the latitude of the state. The State Legislature could set the time from June 1 till Labor Day which would work fairly well for regions such as ours. But they ignore the obvious wishes of their constituents.

IN THE MEANTIME people take off while the sun is still high in the evening sky and anxious mothers take their children to wait in the cold and dark for the arrival of the school bus in the morning.

McMurry Campus Minister Will Preach Here

Dr. Bert Affleck, campus minister at McMurry College, Abilene, will be the guest preacher at First United Methodist Church Sunday, March 2.

He is due to bring with him two or three McMurry students.

Dr. Affleck will be in charge of the morning service.

"This visit is for him and these young people of the college to share with us some of the things they are doing," said the Rev. Jim Boswell, pastor.

Campus minister at McMurry for about 15 years, Dr. Affleck is also a graduate of that college and in addition received his doctor of divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary.

be ashamed of. We'd have had to have a super game to beat them."

Edward Thomas led Wellington's scoring with 16 points; Shane Tarver had 9; George Brewer 4; Neal Cochran three; Sammy Gonzales, Kelly Cook, Tony Martinez and Cliff Pennon two each.

Eric Holbrook scored 22 for Sanford-Fritch.

Several hundred Wellington fans were on hand to support the Rockets, and for this the boys expressed their appreciation. "They really backed us, and we're going to be back."

Equipment Taken at Two County Farms

An undetermined amount of farm equipment was taken in two burglaries on opposite sides of the county during the week end.

The lock was broken on a gate of the O.L. Hartman farm 9 miles northwest of Quail, possibly Friday night, Feb. 21, to get to the equipment.

Antique harness, wheels and possibly other items were taken from a locked barn on the Wayne Reynolds farm three and one half miles northwest of Dodson on FM 338. Sheriff John Rainey said.

Cudd Attends TMTA Directors Meet in Austin

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cudd left early this week for Austin, where he is attending a directors meeting of the Texas Motor Transportation Association.

Mr. Cudd will meet with Senator Max Sherman and Representative Phil Cates, concerning legislation relating to the trucking industry. One point of interest to TMTA directors is the proposed weight load increase from 72,000 pound limit to an 80,000 pound limit.

Car Theft, DWI Charges Filed

Charges of car theft and driving while intoxicated were filed against Dennis Brammer of Amarillo Thursday afternoon, Feb. 24, after he allegedly took the car of a couple who had given him a ride, Sheriff John Rainey reported.

The sheriff, who received the call about 2:00 p.m. said the incident began after the owners of the car, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conrad Daniels of Charleston, S.C., stopped to help some women who were having car trouble.

Alone in the car, Brammer moved into the driver's seat and took off, Sheriff Rainey said. He drove south through Wellington, then turned around and was traveling north when Mr. Rainey apprehended him about a mile north of Salt Fork Bridge on US 83.

All officers participated in the search. Probation officer Bill George Kester, who was with the sheriff; Patrolman Jackie Gunnels, Deputies N.E. Childers and Richard Keller, and Policeman Mike Gilmore.

Brammer is being held in Collingsworth County jail.

Equipment taken at the Hartman farm included a Ford one-way, Ford lister-planter, and Ford two-row cultivator. The lock was also broken on a building and items taken from it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartman now live at Quail and he discovered the loss when he went to the farm Saturday afternoon, the sheriff said. Blowing snow had covered any tracks that might have been left.

The lock on the Reynolds barn was also broken to gain entry. He has had the harness, still in good condition, since he quit farming with horses many years ago, the sheriff said. Mr. Reynolds was at the barn about noon Saturday and discovered the loss when he returned Monday morning.

Rev. Boswell to Church Meeting

The Rev. Jim Boswell was in Pampa Monday, February 24, to attend the Academy for Ordinary at First United Methodist Church.

Dr. Phyllis Bird of Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, taught a course on the Book of Jeremiah.

Pastors and laymen from throughout the Pampa District attended.

Supt. E.W. Clement, Mr. Cardwell and Junior High Principal, Charles Floyd urge that all parents attend. There will be an opportunity for them to ask questions. A purely entertainment event will be the Magic Show sponsored by the Band Boosters Club Tuesday, March 4, at 7:30 p.m.

This will feature the Fred Story Variety Revue. This is an evening of fantasy and fun, the Band Boosters promise.

Throughout the week, all school personnel will wear ribbons proclaiming March 3-7 as Texas Public School

Week. These will be distributed downtown also. Parents and other concerned citizens interested in the education of Wellington area boys and girls are urged to visit the school during the week-long open house, to see all school facilities and observe classes. "This is an opportunity for you to see our schools as they operate from day to day," Mr. Cardwell said. Texas Public Schools Week this year will concentrate on involvement and communication. This stresses the need for widespread community participation in examining the complex and changing problems faced by the educational system. "I cannot overemphasize the importance of concern and participation on the part of every citizen, both parent and non-parent, in this matter," said Mr. Clement. "The continuing quality of life in Wellington, Texas and the nation will depend on our maintaining and improving the level of education for our children."
